

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1301-1310

Chapter 1301

The killing continued, the raging blood filled the nostrils of the members of the army on the shore, they watched, looked and felt it, they could not help but feel sick, it was even more horrible than when they joined the peacekeeping, and the reason they could join this horrible strife was that they had signed a confidentiality agreement and a battle death agreement in advance, they had come with the determination to die, but this was it, they still felt such a The image is difficult to accept

The water in the river was hot, boiling bubbles with blood mist in the air, the whole surface of the river was like a fairyland on earth, making people fearful at the same time, but also want to peek inside the secret hide

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are getting into. They stood in clear lines and knew to use the situation to protect their own advanced biochemicals.

The tiger shark in the water wandered, his strength had increased quite a bit, having just devoured quite a few other biochemicals, his strength had steadily increased.

‘The Three Kings are really strong! How dare they withstand the Pope and ZF’s attack and not fall short! We’re really going to start a new era of Popes!’ Tiger Shark said excitedly, feeling suffocated under the jurisdiction of the 8th Pope, how can I put it. The Pope was unworldly and always thinking about immortality, which led to them being suppressed by the unarmed men of the Church all the time, which was very oppressive. After all, they are one of the strongest men in the world, and to be ordered around by a loser who has lived for decades is unbearable to anyone, and with such a situation, they have no choice but to swallow the bitterness in their stomachs

Mohammad Qatou did not talk to this arrogant infidel, but stared at the sky above, he was waiting, waiting for the king that level to strike, he kept looking at the Chinese man, I do not know why, the heart has been sudden, very uneasy, which makes him feel very inexplicable

Lin Hao through the blood fog, also clearly saw Mohammad Kato looking at him, this crazy heretic, the killing heart is strong, keep it, is definitely a horrible scourge, can hold back, can explode, mind and thoughtful, such a character, keep it, let people can not sleep ah

Asura and Zeus back to back, they have killed no less than ten with the blood of the vampire king on them? ersisiiyaiuwu er? The two of them have also killed from inside the sea of blood, only a few of the senior cyborgs following them have been injured and show no signs of being killed, they are a magnificent victory

The Pope looked at Zeus, this kid is surprisingly so strong, but unfortunately, the disadvantages are also very thick. Goes the sun bird lineage, this second can only ever be a god of war, across the king that level, but after reaching the king that level, the strength loss comparable to the weak pope

As for the Asura beside him to take also the war god route, belongs to the ancient mythology sun bird side lineage a lineage, no different from Zeus, but the strength is not as strong as Zeus, but the talent well, if the development goes on, should become a existence like Bigir.

He looked to Bigir, an existence that had lived for five hundred years. To be sincere, as the Pope he had some admiration for Bigir, an advanced biochemist who had hardened through every regenerating heart, lived through the flow of life and finally broke through to become a king existence. Such an existence honestly reminded him of a person, that is, Cang of China. A person who would do anything to renew his life, Bigir was also such a person, his strength would definitely not be weaker than the Black Crocodile King and the White Bear King, that lineage of the Silver Moon Skywolf, but it had produced a Pope existence, so how could it be weak?

‘Big brother, the situation is gradually becoming clearer!’ Asura looked at the troops behind him, as well as the foolish and crazy enemy in front of him, and said indifferently.

Zeus did not reply at first on hearing this, but looked to Bigir, who had not taken sides, but had accepted Bigir’s invitation because of his words, and he hoped that Bigir could really give him his blessing. How can I put it, the Pope was not versed in the world, which gave them a choice, plus Bigir’s existence was independent of the Church, so it would certainly be related to the ZF, and one of the ‘popes’ on the white side in this who was related to the ZF was the Giant Eagle King, that rather terrifying being, which Zeus slowly learned about after the opening of the Great War.

And he thought Bigir dared to go to the chess game, then there must be some terrifying means in his hands, and also he dared to move because there were more people following him, otherwise, with their bloodline, they must be following the Pope’s

‘Not yet, the popes haven’t started the fight, that is, it isn’t clear. We’re just crickets, just appetizers, can’t you see with all the high level biotics dead, the Pope hasn’t even breathed a word?’ It was then that Zeus shook his head as he gestured for Asura to look above the blood mist, where there were five or six terrifying auras, several of which were clustered together and showed no sign of movement until now.

It was at this moment that two voices came from inside Zeus' ears, 'Zeus, kill the tiger shark! You can advance to the rank of False King!' These were two voices, but they meant the same thing, to advance to the rank of False King!

What is a False King?

Is it a level beyond that of an advanced cyborg being?

'It's too late to explain too much to you, in this battle between the King and the Pope, the only way you can sit on the chessboard and say a few words is if you've stepped into the Pseudo-King! If you are just a high-level biochemist, even if you are strong, you will only be at the mercy of others. Don't you keep asking about my strength again? I am a pseudo-king existence!' This was Bigil's explanation.

And the other voice, Zeus didn't pursue, because he was now incredibly excited!

By becoming an existence like Bigil, his life expectancy could increase by several hundred years again! This was something he couldn't wait for, and one of the purposes why he was with Bigil was because of the secrets that Bigil carried, something that attracted him more than the conditions offered to him by the papal gates 'Brothers, advance on Mohammedan kattu!' Zeus shouted excitedly.

Asura's eyes glazed over at the words, a little scared, and said timidly, 'Brother, there's a tiger shark over there! A very powerful tiger shark! And Mohammedan Kato's papal scepter is able to kill the people behind it in seconds

Zeus stared at Mohammed Katou and said slowly, 'I'll deal with him, you lead the siege on the tiger shark! Remember, kill him no matter what! Asura!' The three words Asura shouted out of Zeus' mouth were very subdued and carried a command? Ishan Er Wu Xi Fuzzy Lu? s tone, and the tone of a great chieftain!

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1303-1304

Asura and the others are even more afraid to go against Zeus' wishes, and besides Zeus is playing the lead, what else are they afraid of? And with so many of them against one tiger shark, the pressure instantly felt a lot less

'There's a large group of people coming our way!' The tiger shark was devouring the body of a senior biochemist, his ears flicked slightly, he jerked his head up and saw a force of senior biochemists led by the duo of Zeus Asura rushing towards his side, he couldn't help but directly put down the food he was putting at his mouth, but stared at the duo of Zeus with a deadly stare

The first of these is the one of the best in the southern city, and it is very powerful. And not to mention Zeus, even his little brother Asura, is a very powerful expert, if in the past, he faced Asura's heart is still a little afraid, but now, well, he is not afraid at all

It's Zeus that scares him, and he doesn't dare to face a superpowered being like Zeus directly. In his mind, the existence of Zeus is almost the same as Bigel, is the kind of existence that is beyond the senior biochemical, as to what level it belongs to, he asked himself, let his own heart also does not have a precise number, he asked others, others also do not know, and then do not dare to ask the existence of the vampire king

‘I can feel it.’ Mohammed Kato head did not even bother to look at the tiger shark, staring at Zeus said, he could feel that Zeus was coming for him, as for what purpose, he was not sure.

He also knew Zeus, it was a list of dangers given to him by the king, there were not many names in this list of dangers, but Zeus was obviously the most popular one, more popular than Bigir, that is, more dangerous to him than Bigir so that if he faced Zeus, he could properly use the papal scepter against him The pope’s scepter is not necessary in a duel to the death. Mohammed Kato naturally understood what was being said, and the implication was that even if he brought the papal scepter, he might not be a match for Zeus

The pope’s scepter will lose its vitality as it is used more often, and the power it exerts will be weaker in relative terms. He gradually knew why the king had bestowed this sceptre on him, for it was a consumable, and of course he dared not have any complaints.

‘That’s Zeus! Asura! Cato, what shall we do?’ The tiger shark’s voice was no longer the arrogant one it had been before and became much more subdued, as well as having a tone of awe in it.

He had little respect for Mohammedan Kato, after all, he considered him a mere junior, and although the king cared for him, so what? But now, he didn’t dare to think that way, because he was afraid that he would still need Kato to fight with him against Zeus Asura. He even wanted Kato to tell the king that he thought Mohammad Kato and he together would be no match for the Zeus Asura alliance

Of course that was not going to happen, so what he wanted was to approach the surrounding followers of the king and combine the strength of all of them together to oppose the Zeus Asura army.

Moreover, the king's followers are only the king's followers, the other two king's followers are all still hidden inside the crowd and there is no telling when they will reveal their identities.

Mohammed Kato himself is also anxious to hear the voice of the tiger shark is even more anxious, only when he looked up at the king, found that there is no instruction given, the default meaning is that the warning given before, he can live, ? The steak er yi whisk ground Shan dye zero ? The others didn't matter.

As for how to do it, everything was up to him.

Since the king did not command, Mohammed Kathu roared into the sky, 'Come to me, all the king's followers!'

In an instant, the forces in the air were like white clouds passing through the sky, all flying low and over to Mohammedan Kartou.

Bigir shouted to Zeus, 'Hurry up! The final showdown is about to begin, if you want to advance to become a False King, take advantage of this gap in time to slay the Tiger Shark!'

Another voice also said, 'Kill him and I'll help you advance to Pseudo-King on the spot! Once you become a False King, you will be more powerful than an ordinary king! And if Asura also gets certain benefits within the opportunity, it is not unreasonable to advance to become a False King in the future!'

Zeus, who was already flying fast, saw Mohammedan Kato pooling the heretics and began to get a little nervous, but this sudden reminder again left Zeus without a chance to think, because this was his chance to not break, and once he missed it, he would never have it again. And this brought Asura along with him; if he told Asura the news, Asura would surely fight for his life as well.

'Asura, they told me that once I kill the tiger shark. I will advance, and there is a possibility that you will advance after that!' Zeus said.

Asura, who was working on a plan, became even more excited after hearing Zeus' words, he clenched his fists, the power of his bloodline inside his body increased violently, his whole strength strengthened again!

And Zeus was the same, no longer in his previous mild state, his life was already running out and if he didn't advance, he would face death! He had stood by Bigir for his word, and not because Bigir had crossed over? Why did he not believe the other popes when they told him? Because he knew that he couldn't go straight from senior biochemist to pope. Oh yes, now he had learned that above the High Cyborg was the existence of the King. And before becoming a king, there was another class, the pseudo-king. As for the division of strength of pseudo-kings, he didn't know

Nor did he want to know. All he wants is, continue? Dyeing Xiyen closed service Yi Lu Xi? Live on ‘They’re coming our way to kill us, and they’re fast!’ Tiger Shark shouted, seeing more and more people around him, but also seeing the people coming closer and closer to kill him, he began to panic.

Kato was a bit annoyed with this Tiger Shark, he was at least a 200 year old high level cyborg powerhouse, why was he shouting? And the people across the street were coming to kill him!

In fact, if Mohammad Kato hadn’t been told by the Vampire King that he could fight Zeus with the Pope’s scepter, he would have found an opportunity to hide behind Tiger Shark’s group of people when he saw Zeus, even with the Vampire King’s orders, but he really didn’t want to fight him one on one head on!

Lin Hao’s ear, Boris’s communicator came out, ‘Dear Mr Lin Hao, the battle will begin the moment Tiger Shark dies! We hope that you will be able to kill the Black Crocodile King or the White Bear King, or even if you can’t kill them directly, you must be able to hold one of them back. Only then will the three-way situation, be evenly matched!’

Lin Hao grunted and transmitted a voice in reply, ‘Boris. You know my purpose, if no one ends up saving my wife, the whole of Toulouse will have to pay for you!’

‘Don’t worry Mr. Lin! The Giant Eagle King is on our side and anything the Vampire King can do, he can do! And we have another one who can do it too, please trust us! And we already know that Jun Wu Ren has also arrived, how dare I deceive you when the two of you are together!' Boris said awkwardly.

Lin Hao grunted at this, as for whether Jun Wu Regret and the others knew, Lin Hao really didn't care much. Jun Wuoren was so strong that even if he hid himself as much as he could, Toulouse's military defence would have found him, it was to be expected.

'Remember, we're just working together!' Lin Hao said, closing off the comlink and looking at Bigir, who still had a kind smile on his face, looking at Lin Hao and with a puzzled look. Lin Hao was amused, the man was still pretending, but what the hell. The message Boris gave him, inside and out, had no intention of killing Bigir, and he even thought that Bigir was the one Boris was talking about Forget it, don't want to bother with brain cells. This is all going to be over, soon!

Zeus rushed violently towards Mohammed Katou, and Asura was no exception. The tiger shark was the hope for both of them, and they would never let it escape!

The Vampire King and the White Bear King, the Black Crocodile King, Bigir, stood together, somewhat isolated as far as Lin Hao, their teammate, was concerned. They all looked at the sky, already having the intention to rush up and fight.

Lin Hao smiled, they were doubting themselves too. It made sense, after all, this was all their own family business, and the White Bear King and the Black Crocodile King seemed to be so uncomfortable with themselves that if the Vampire King hadn't been standing aside to stop them, I'm afraid they'd have been about to strike!

‘King Huaxia! We’re going to take on the Pope, and when the time comes, you’ll fight at the head!’ The Black Crocodile King stared at Lin Hao and commanded.

Lin Hao twisted his head to look at this crocodile with a stench emanating from its body, a killing intent surged forth.

‘What’s wrong with you, do you want to die? Our Black Crocodile King commanded you to do something and you dare to disobey, even if you disobey, you are even angry, if not for the sake of the Vampire King, I would have killed you long ago! A Chinese!’ The White Bear King was enraged and made a series of exits, his contempt thick.

The Vampire King did not exit to interrupt this time, but watched quietly.

Lin Hao stared at him, originally ready to strike at the crocodile, but this one white bear repeatedly screamed, and Lin Hao felt that if he didn’t take him on, his status as a Chinese powerhouse would really be reduced to nothing by them!

‘Since you want to compete with me, how about we try our hand now?’ Lin Hao didn’t wait for the Vampire King to say anything after he finished, this was the best time to strike, at least he didn’t rip the Vampire King’s face off straight away, he didn’t want to stand in line straight away too soon. The situation in Western Europe, in the end, did not have much to do with him. Whether it’s an alliance with the Vampire King or with the ZF to support ‘justice’ or with the Pope to calm the world, he has only one goal in mind, and that is who can help him heal Shen Xiyan

Lin Hao blasted his fist at the White Bear King, after becoming a Grand Master, he hadn't struck a blow yet! Before, it was all by relying on the Extreme Dao a blackening, nowadays, he could really want to try it out, the feeling of becoming a Grand Master to strike

'You seek death!' The White Bear King roared in anger, transforming into the huge body of a white bear with a huge claw, rumbling down towards Lin Hao Zheng!

The terrifying force came rushing wildly towards Lin Hao with a white stream of light, and the immense pressure collapsed the earth space. The pressure that roiled the sky, as well as the flames made all the senior biotics below look over.

'Fight up!'

'Popes fight up? West meaning lovingly steak love west? Here it comes!'

I don't know who suddenly shouted, but the Vampire King's followers all looked up above the invisible clouds, the terrifying pressure that radiated down and made his them gasp, but they didn't bother to bow their heads. This time the terrifying pressure, unlike the last time, was not deliberately emitted by the Vampire King, but was inspired by combat instincts and was used for fighting, so the might was not very great in comparison, but! But it was very intimidating!

The two of them, Zeus Asura, looked at each other, and this was the time!

This was definitely a very good opportunity, as they saw that the Vampire King's heretics did not rush over to this side at first, which would have been a lot less of a burden for them to take on their enemies.

Zeus ran wildly, his whole body was inspired by the bloodline of the God of War, and like a sunbird, with the intense scorching heat, he crushed straight to the side of Mohammed Katou, and without saying a word, he gave Mohammed Katou a grab that tore through the air, and a harsh voice that cut through the sky came out, 'I want to see what kind of strength the King's cultists really have!'

'Just look!' Mohammed the Kathurian waved the sceptre of the Pope, and the blue jeweled light blossomed, surging up from the water with terrifying power, a monstrous wave lapped up, trying to extinguish the flames of the sunbird, but Zeus was incredibly fast, and the impact was so fierce that it went straight through the wave of water, and the water around it turned into water mist with a nuisance sound, then dissipated.

The next moment, Zeus' claws went straight for Mohammed Katou!

'But that's all!' Zeus yanked fiercely, shattering Mohammedan Kato's hard scales and tearing out a few pieces of flesh Pain! Incredible pain! Mohammad Kartou's face was grim, he had not felt such intense pain for many years, he was angry, he was furious, he glared at Zeus, his heart was so angry that he wanted to bite Zeus directly. But reason told him that he was no match for Zeus, this damned Zeus, truly an opponent that even the King found terrifying.

He turned his head to look at the tiger shark, and found it in the middle of the encirclement, struggling!

‘Come and help me! Cato! Come and help me, he’s so fierce, he’s practically desperate to pound! Damn it! Why! Ah, my arm!’

Asura took on the form of a sunbird and the searing heat of his claws, with their fire-burning heat, tore right through one of Tiger Shark’s arms, spewing out arrows of blood that stabbed a senior cyborg directly in the arm.

The tiger shark’s thick wailing sound spread across the room, the wailing sound was like thunder, Lin Hao blasted on top of the white bear king’s huge body, the thick fur, with a tremor, then the white bear king’s body fell backwards violently, he only felt a tightness in his chest, then his throat bulged, but after he found out what kind of people they were around, he swallowed hard, then said viciously. ‘It’s no more than that!’

Looking at the White Bear King pretending, Lin Hao sneered and once again swung his fist out!

At this moment, the White Bear King’s face was pale, his entire spirit was very gathered, and the hint of contempt inside his eyes from before was gone! His heart was already starting to panic, this Chinese man, he was too strong! Just now, with a single punch, he had pierced through his skin and fat, directly hitting his internal organs, and had been injured! This was the first time he had been injured in how many years? And as a king’s existence, even if it was an existence like the Giant Eagle King to the Black Crocodile King, he didn’t just say he wanted to injure him!

The huge bear's paw smashed viciously against Lin Hao's fist

Hum! A violent impact sound came out, and the White Bear King directly took a few steps backwards, his face turning blue and white for a while.

‘Oh, such strength, you were arrogant before! If it's just this kind of strength, then I'll have to take this bear paw of yours!’ Lin Hao scoffed, his speed accelerated, the power in his hands once again increased, a terrifying pressure emanated out, layers of black Qi surrounding that pair of fists, Lin Hao was serious!

Whether it was the cooperation with Boris, or venting his anger, this was not the main objective! Saving Shen Xiyan was the ultimate goal, this White Bear King looked like the object of his ravishment, but once he used Dismemberment? The intention is that once he uses dismemberment? The strength will go up a notch! At that time, he would look tricky in one hand, and once the three of them worked together, this would also give Lin Hao a headache for it.

Besides, he didn't know Wang's fighting style yet! This was a very big hidden danger! He didn't want all these hidden dangers to come together at the same time, that would just be too risky!

The White Bear King's eyelids fluttered violently, a little scared, and blood was slowly spilling from the corners of his mouth, he wasn't trying to be strong anymore, this Chinese was too strong! He was able to overwhelm him every time, he was now a little intimidated and felt sure that he was no match for him alone!

He looked to the Vampire King and the Black Crocodile King, who was stupid enough to move, but he noticed that the Vampire King kept tugging on the Black Crocodile King's arm, meaning clearly that he didn't want the Black Crocodile King to make a move now, and that Bigel, the pseudo-king, didn't seem to be anything in their eyes. So he didn't pray for Bigel to make a move

Seeing that the Vampire King would not let the Black Crocodile King make a move, the White Bear King knew what the Vampire King's purpose was. It was to use him to test Lin Hao's low! The White Bear King's heart was filled with anger, this damnable Vampire King, how dare he kill each other at this time! Damn it! Damn it!!!

'There's no way out, if I keep on confronting each other like this, I'm just dying a chronic death! Looks like the Vampire King won't call it quits until he gets a little something out! This stinking bat on the damned church overhang has always been such a filthy presence!' The White Bear King growled endlessly in his mind, already raging against the Vampire King's cold-bloodedness

The next moment, the white bear body emitted a faint white light, his body swelled up again, the huge pressure was like a blazing fierce wave covering the whole field, the troops on the far shore only felt their throats dry up directly, they have picked up the water on their bodies and started to drink violently, at the same time their legs trembled violently, if not for the soldier's stance and the surrounding instructor's angry roar to stabilize their will, I'm afraid they would have to kneel down directly!

Just as the white light covered the White Bear King's body, in Lin Hao's eyes, he was a glowing white ball of flesh, Lin Hao had no intention of then trying it out, he was casting his own Extreme Dao, which meant that he would have to shed his skin without letting this White Bear King die! After all, the vampire king was watching the show from the side, he wouldn't just let the other side watch the show, this if the show came to fruition, his own ideas would fall flat, it was so hard to find an opening to exploit, definitely not going to let the trick in the vampire king's heart succeed. He wants to sit back and watch the tiger fight, then he himself will let a piece of his heart fall off!

Black Qi entwined, with the aura of enhanced power, that punch, rushed towards the White Bear King behind the white light!

The White Bear King behind the white light could only feel his eyes trembling violently! He could feel that this was an attack of unparalleled terror!

The next moment, Lin Hao's fist shattered the white light with a blast, and the blackness directly engulfed the white light, once again impacting towards the white fur, the roiling blackness was broken up and directly engulfed the White Bear King, following close behind.

‘No!’ Came the throaty sound of the White Bear King tearing his throat as he felt the horrific destructiveness of the power, his left arm seemed to be burning and was burning off at a very rapid rate, it was heartbreaking pain, unbearable pain! Irreparable pain!

‘Ah!’ Finally, after he let out a scream, a huge arm, fell from among the clouds!

All the senior biotics in the room looked at this arm and cringed!

The next moment there was another scream, and Tiger Shark’s breath collapsed in his desperate pupils, and he died outright!

The moment the tiger shark saw the White Bear King’s arm being knocked off, it was directly struck through the throat with a claw by Asura, and his life ended straight away here!

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1307-1308

After killing the tiger shark, Asura hurriedly jumped away from the opposing team, not wanting to get attached to the fight. The atmosphere around him was so intense that he didn’t feel particularly safe, for example, if he were to face Mohammedan Kato himself, he honestly didn’t have the confidence to fight against the sceptre of the Pope in Mohammedan Kato’s hand, and he didn’t even want to face it after having seen its power up close... ..

‘The tiger shark is dead!’ Mohammed Kato moved his afterglow away from the tiger shark, not a single expression on his face, not mourning the death of a man? Wu Xiaolu closed the closed ground Yi’er? The two of them are fighting neck and neck, but the papal scepter in his hand has gradually lost its power, which is a crisis, and this crisis is wrapping around him.

If only Zeus used his full strength a few more times, he felt he would be finished too. Not to death, of course, but losing half his body or something was still oiling up the can ‘Go.’ Zeus glanced at Mohammed Katou, and then stared dead at the Pope’s scepter, this thing was too powerful, he could not break his attack at all, he could only passively

brute force against it, and then reach a relative equilibrium, which he did not like, because he did not know when that Pope's scepter, would lose its energy, and if it could always exert this kind of terrifying power, then he would suffer physical exertion and die

And, besides, having already killed the tiger shark, their purpose had been achieved.

The Asura just after hearing Zeus' words, he flew back directly, that speed, looking at Zeus' men were shocked, this timid look, still really makes it hard to imagine is the expert who just killed the tiger shark. Tiger shark can kill a lot of senior biochemical strongman, but then, under his hands, not a few rounds to die

Lin Hao made a fist and directly broke one of the White Bear King's arms, this sudden up and terrifying outburst, as well as the tough strength, caused everyone present to be shocked and look at him.

From afar, the Giant Eagle King looked at Lin Hao in astonishment. He was a ZF officer, and he had all of Lin Hao's clear information in his hands, on which both his combat power and possessions were described in great detail. But even if Lin Hao had killed the injured Cang, or killed Zu with Jun Wu Regret, but both had external help, and Zu's strength was only about the same as the Black Crocodile King, and their intelligence had said that it was Jun Wu Regret who made the greatest contribution to killing Zu, and Lin Hao had only assisted Jun Wu Regret

But now, he feels that the information is wrong! There was no way that was the case

The Black Crocodile King's eyelids fluttered violently, his tail involuntarily began to wag, and his heart inexplicably began to be annoyed, with a fearful annoyance. The strike just now, he felt that even if he had gone up against it, he might have been injured, after all, with the posture of the White Bear King at that time, he certainly did not look up to Lin Hao, and naturally he was lightly defeated. If you are lightly defeated, then you will definitely be unlucky

The first time he fought Lin Hao, his body suffered a violent shock and his internal organs showed signs of injury, but in order to show off his status, he held back the blood and did not spit it out

The vampire king looked at Lin Hao, this Chinese man, after advancing to the next level, seemed to have increased in strength and terror. The previously high and mighty Vampire King couldn't help but reassess Lin Hao and reposition him.

It was just that it gave him a headache that his crossover with Lin Hao seemed to have been created.

The Vampire King smiled and looked at Lin Hao, 'Good strength, Chinese! But we are all comrades on the same front, I will pretend that what just happened didn't happen.' With that said the Vampire King pulled out another half of the Heart of Regeneration and threw it directly to the White Bear King and said, 'Quickly use the Heart of Regeneration to recover the lost arm. The great battle has not yet begun and you are fighting internally. Hmph! That's the price you pay for looking down on people, and I hope that doesn't happen next lol.' The Vampire King said in a commanding tone, the White Bear King had already lost face in the rout and no longer had an ounce of arrogance, his face was lost, he didn't want to lose his life too, and at their level, it was quite difficult to recover a lost torso limb.

He reached out his hand and tried to catch the Heart of Regeneration.

But then he saw the Heart of Regeneration floating in the air, seeing that it was right in front of him, and a large hand directly grabbed the half of the Heart of Regeneration. The White Bear King instinctively felt some anger, and when the words came to his lips, he gritted his teeth and held back when he realised that it was Lin Hao, and gave a light hum as his body leaned towards the Black Crocodile King. At this time, the only one he could trust was the Black Crocodile King

As for the Vampire King, they were originally scheming together for a great event, only working together temporarily, why they were afraid of the Vampire King, it was all because he was very powerful ‘King of China! Why are you doing this?’ The vampire king was slightly shaken with anger, this Chinese Xia people dared to snatch what he had placed in front of him, did he not think that because he had just defeated the white bear king that he thought he was very powerful? The arrogant and cocky Chinese! If it wasn’t for the situation at hand, would he be able to give him a good look?

Lin Hao grabbed the Heart of Regeneration and carefully examined it, it matched the cut marks he had gotten earlier beyond compare, so he thought it must be the same Heart of Regeneration he had inside his Golefant Castle. Lin Hao smiled, ‘Naturally, it has been returned to its original owner.’

After a pause, Lin Hao then said, his voice tinged with questioning, thick with forceful intent, ‘The cooperation between us was me assisting you, you giving me the Heart of Regeneration and saving my wife. Now you’ve thrown the Heart of Regeneration to this trash for use, going against my initial agreement, and I won’t accept it.’

‘You!’ The White Bear King grunted angrily when he heard Lin Hao call him a waste, but didn’t make a move, he was just dryly angry.

‘What’s wrong with calling you a waste? You’re not convinced? Let’s fight again?’ Lin Hao said with a sneer, his eyes were endlessly contemptuous, a waste of space, repeatedly speaking back, if he didn’t have something big to do at the moment, Lin Hao wouldn’t have stopped just now.

Chapter 1308

The Vampire King’s face showed no change in expression, ‘The King of China. I’ll let him regain his strength, but it will be of great benefit to us! The eighth pope has the strength of a thousand years of heritage. If you, me and the three Black Crocodile Kings, honestly, I feel uneasy and we need the White Bear King to come together.’

Lin Hao turned a deaf ear, as if he hadn’t heard, and instead played with the Heart of Regeneration. This made the Vampire King furious as he gritted his teeth and stared at the sky before finally saying in a very unpleasant manner, ‘Half a Regeneration Heart can also save the day.’

Only when Lin Hao heard these words did he stop the movements in his hands and instead stared at the Vampire King with a deadly stare, watching the Vampire King with a calm expression and serious eyes. Only then did Lin Hao reveal a faint a smile before looking at the White Bear King and inquiring, ‘Half a regenerating heart that can save people?’

Without waiting for the White Bear King to speak, the Black Crocodile King had an expression of looking at a country bumpkin, ‘That’s in the Heart of Regeneration! Even if an ordinary mortal were to die, they could still be saved and brought back! And such a powerful thing, to bring it to save a mortal? Don’t you think it’s a bit of a waste? A mere mortal can be compared to us? They can't even compare to a finger of ours! Give it to the White Bear King, comparing it to just one mortal is not as important as giving us an increased chance of winning!

Lin Hao's eyes were cold as he looked at the Black Crocodile King. A mortal? His wife was just an ordinary human? Life or death was irrelevant! If it wasn't bad to lash out, Lin Hao might have already struck out at him with all his might.

The Vampire King also nodded in agreement with the Black Crocodile King's words, and Lin Hao sneered, 'I don't think that ordinary people are ordinary people! Besides, you told me that you needed the Heart of Regeneration to save my wife. And you should have meant to use a complete regenerated heart at that time, so, I will not agree to your request. Because, I think you are deceiving me!'

'Damn it!' The White Bear King's face turned white and he roared low.

'Bastard!' The Black Crocodile King was also shaken with rage.

The Vampire King's face was fierce, this damned Chinese, how dare he defy him again, his gaze was low and his killing intent was strong, already threatening, 'King of China! Aren't you afraid that you will die? Moreover, even if you have a complete regenerating heart, without my help to save you, who can cure your wife?'

Lin Hao's heart was also nauseous, this man was really lying to him and playing him.

‘Is this the attitude you have in seeking my cooperation?’ Lin Hao said, his voice incomparably cold, already extremely upset at heart.

At the same time, he looked towards Bigir.

Bigir had been staring at Lin Hao, this King of China. It simply gave him too much of a shock, not the strength of a king, striking out with the king’s remnant doppelganger with an undaunted look. What’s more, just now, after advancing to the strength of a king, a blow made the White Bear King lose an arm, such terrifying hard strength was truly appalling! He suddenly felt that Lin Hao was even more terrifying than he had imagined.

And now, he was facing the three Vampire Kings’ siege all by himself, without the slightest hint of stage fright, instead he was questioning the Vampire Kings’ teasing, with the intention of demanding a statement, this was simply too domineering! If this was seen by the senior biochemists of the entire Western European world, I’m afraid their entire jaws would drop in shock, this is a king! Not only was he calm and collected in the face of three kings by himself, he even had to have an aggressive look, simply not too domineering

Will pretend! That was the definition Lin Hao gave him, pretending at this time! But perhaps only such a person could do subterfuge so well, not moving and blending in completely. His own super strength, film and television disguise themselves as inferior to others, and even in the face of hectoring orders, he did not raise his superior status, but allowed the messenger to scold him

Westerners, are they all so strong?

The corners of Lin Hao's mouth lifted, he was suddenly a little curious about what kind of devastating blow Bigel would inflict on this one group!

Lin Hao moved the communicator next to his ear and used his bones to vocalize his question, ' ? Gezai Servant Wuyi Paw Wusi ? I already have a complete regenerated heart, could your king over there have the strength to just my wife ?'

Boris hurriedly replied, 'Mr. Lin, absolutely! Even if we don't have the regenerating heart, our ZF will still help you search for the items to save your wife with all the power of our nation! And now that you have the Heart of Regeneration, then curing your wife is definitely already a fact!'

Hearing such an affirmative answer from Boris, Lin Hao didn't have an ounce of consideration this time, going to war with the three of them! He felt that it didn't matter!

Boris looked at the image in front of him and was shocked to the point of disbelief. This Chinese Mr. Lin had wounded a king, and with such simplicity and sharpness, it was simply too terrifying, too unbelievable, and equally too uplifting!

'The Pope and the King of the Pagans will henceforth be lost forever in the history of Country F! And this year will record and open a new chapter in history, and I am the one who will write it! I am a credit to Toulouse and to F! Ha ha! I'm so excited! I'm really grateful to you, Mr Lim!' Boris shouted frantically in his heart.

At the same time, he took out his mobile phone and instructed the security personnel over at the party, as well as the surveillance officer in charge, 'Make sure you keep a good eye on the scene, and never, ever let any suspicious elements appear! Or I'll have you sent to jail for sabotaging the development of Toulouse!'

'Monsieur Boris! I will never let any non-suspicious elements enter the party and go near Madame Lin!' That voice was thick with righteous determination.

Boris was incredibly relieved to hear it! He looked at the surveillance screen, his heart couldn't help but feel excited, his legs started to shake violently, he was too excited, too excited, as if success was just around the corner, he was too happy. He was incomparably grateful to Lin Hao, this powerful Mr. Lin was simply the valued man of his life, this he just remembered why Finkin Gatt was so dead set on following him, working for him as a cow and giving up the dignity of the Gatt family. And he is aware that Finkin-Gate has become the first heir of the Gaiter family again, and as for this he knows exactly what it is because of, it is not because of Lin Hao

'Hey, if I had known Mr. Lin Hao earlier, I am afraid I would have become a councilor of the whole southern city, this is the southern city of F, the economic capital, there is a chance to run for prime minister in the future!' Boris sighed, feeling that it was too late to get to know Lin Hao.

After all, the situation today is the result of hundreds of years of joint efforts by politicians in country F, and today, he is going to get it! How could he not be excited? How could he not be grateful to Lin Hao?

The Black Crocodile King, the White Bear King and Bigel all stepped back, they clearly felt that the Vampire King already had a terrifying anger, he was a man who aspired to be the Pope, how could he be threatened by a Chinese?

‘King of China, I give you one more chance! Hand over the Heart of Regeneration to the White Bear King! Otherwise, I don’t mind taking on you first when I take on the Pope!’ The Vampire King’s threatening flavour was once again at home.

Lin Hao was outright amused to hear it, threatening himself at this juncture? Wasn’t this asking himself to ‘defect to the enemy’? Of course defecting to the enemy was a difficult thing to say, but to put it nicely was to push oneself to the opposite camp. The words come to mind, what is this man? The only way to do this is to be confident. How confident is it? That high above the pope, he is feeling the strength is very terrifying, at least with their own strongest state, are able to 50-50

In this whole field, the biggest threat to Lin Hao is the Pope. The pope, who is high above the ground and unpredictable, is as inscrutable as his character, and with his mentality, he is an incomparably cold-blooded creature, watching his congregation being massacred, but not speaking out to preach his spirit or inspire his congregation, but allowing the Vampire King’s heretics to strike hard and kill... ...

What kind of a being is this that would not even expose his own men when the situation is so dire? What was he waiting for? Could it be the cleansing of his own congregation? But wasn’t that too cruel? And it was completely damaging his own base, ah. Based on what Lin Hao had seen over the past few days, it seemed that in Country F, it was no longer easy to advance to senior biochemist. Just from the authorities in Country F to radiate the surrounding countries, it would probably be the same situation, it was such a bad situation, and they still didn’t preserve their strength? Instead, he’s letting them kill each other, and his aim is just to cleanse and nothing else?

‘What was the Pope thinking? Watching his own ministry kill each other and not stepping in to stop it. Does it have anything to do with the Mouth of the World?’

Seeing the gaze cast by Lin Hao, the Pope revealed a smile. This Chinese king gave him a feeling of increasing mystery, at first he saw that his opponent was only a pseudo-king and thought that his strength was just like that, that he wouldn't be able to make any waves in this battle between the king and the pope, but now he saw that it wouldn't be as if he was weak on the surface, he was very strong! The idea that he could fight with himself even came to him, and the thought scared him

‘Have I gone mad? How can a king's existence fight me across the level of strength that separates heaven and earth? Have I been searching for the Mouth of the World demonically for the past few hundred years?’ Pope Peter shook his head straight away, thinking that he had really gone mad to think that a Chinese man, with the strength of a king, could threaten him, what was wrong with him? Has solitude come out of hysteria in these centuries?

But the entrance to the Otherworld had appeared, only he was alone and did not dare to enter, he was looking for a legendary level of existence. The existence that stirred him, only unfortunately after so many years, traces only appeared sporadically, checking for it by chance, it also appeared fleetingly, then simply disappeared without a trace, and then in a flash it was a few hundred years again.

The last time it appeared was in the last two days, and inside a hospital owned by him, but, alas, he didn't catch it, much to his chagrin at the time!

‘What if I don't?’ Lin Hao put away his playful demeanour, he didn't have an accurate consideration of how strong the Vampire King really was, so he was still very serious. Nowadays, he was at the centre of the storm, yet he didn't have a single worry, there was endless relief, the matter of Shen Xiyan was settled, this Western Europe's bio-chemical Curaçao, he didn't care at all, what the final outcome would be! The best thing is to have as many deaths as possible, and then Jun Wu Regrets will go in and reap the benefits, saving himself from having to do the same thing last time.

The vampire king's eyes are furious, his hands are spread, the robe behind him directly hunting, endless sea of blood instantly covered and came, heaven and earth, endless scarlet, furious incomparable pressure, shocked the people fighting below directly lying on the river surface. Those troopers in the distance, this time there was finally no one standing still, all kneeling on the ground, their instructors, their faces ugly, beads of sweat rolling down their foreheads, while a few standing, were extremely fit and had blood spilling from the corners of their mouths. The instructors knew that those who were standing would be used in the future, but there was nothing to be done about it, the best of them were the ones who were standing like gods of war when everyone else had fallen!

'If you don't! Then come and feel the strength of being the greatest king in the world.' The vampire king hung in the air, and at this moment the wind was blowing behind him, just like the TV series in which a big wind was blowing from a drape, the smell of a warrior was very strong. If an unknown viewer were to take a glance at this, they would say, 'This is a special effect, it's worth at least 80 cents!

But these are not special effects, they are real. Blood gas surged, the sky and earth turned scarlet, and endless pressure rolled in.

Lin Hao's fists clenched as he slightly bowed his head and mused, 'Extreme Dao!'

With him as the centre, the surroundings instantly went dark. It was as if the sky had sunk straight down! The scarlet moon was gone, endless darkness swarmed over him, using the gap between Lin Hao and the Vampire King as two boundaries, a red wall and a black wall

The endless pressure, the people who had been lying on their backs on the river began to gasp, Zeus lifted his leg to keep it from trembling, because he looked at the sky and saw Bigel looking like he wasn't seriously hurt, and it hit him, so he didn't want to be on his knees! Nor did he want to be on his back, it was dignity! He watched as Asura braced himself on the ground in agony, beads of sweat rolling down and hitting the blood laced river with a 'zi~'

Asura looked at Zeus with difficulty, stammered and spoke with great difficulty: 'Zeus...Zeus, is this, is this the reality, the strength of the Pope? It's too, too terrifying

Zeus looked into the sky with unbelievable difficulty, not answering Asura's query, for he had no way to distract himself, this terrifying pressure on both sides was too much to bear, his belly was churning, stirred by a power that had no line, that told him to submit! The only way to not receive such pain is to prostrate!

Mohammedan Kathou did not struggle, but prostrated himself directly on the surface of the water, like a black dead fish, which made some of the strong men who had previously resisted the past look contemptuous. For Mohammedan Kato was directly on his knees on the surface of the water at the first moment, and later, after another dark power, he was directly prostrate on the surface of the water, and that humble appearance made them disgraceful, disgraceful to be in the company of such a man!

Mohammed Katou did not care what these people thought, he raised his head with difficulty and looked high into the sky, where the red world was naturally the king's might. The vampire king's terrifying power brought an endless pressure that forced everyone to submit, this was his king! A very powerful king!

And the dark one, was it the Pope's? Who else could it be? There was no one left, murmured Mohammedan Kato. He looked at the struggling group and smiled coldly, respecting and fearing the Pope, but when the Pope exerted his pressure? The Church, the Church, the Pope, the Pope, what has happened to your congregation?

What is wrong with your faithful? Are they all pretending to be something they are not?

The White Bear King stood aside, shivering outright. This state of majesty was the direction in which he was growing, but he and the Black Crocodile King could not exercise it in any way, yet this Chinese man, who had just been promoted to king, could do so! What kind of a demonic being was he?

The White Bear King swallowed hard, his fear intensified and he took a step backwards before accidentally bumping into the Black Crocodile King. He looked at the Black Crocodile King and found that he had a backward look on his face, that stared at Lin Hao with fear like a little mouse, pitiful beyond compare The White Bear King didn't make fun of him, but his first reaction said that was how it should be. This man, a strong man who had directly and seriously injured himself with one blow, was strong and worthy of their fear It was sad and ridiculous, but the White Bear King felt it was realistic

He regretted why he was trying to be strong at the first moment of the fight with Lin Hao, if not, how much more? Unfortunately there is no pill of regret to eat in the world

Pope Peter put overlooked the two lines of intimidation, a trace of wonder flashed inside his eyes, then nodded again and slowly said, 'He deserves such strength, after all, he has decapitated Cang.'

The Giant Eagle King narrowed his eyes and stared at Lin Hao with a deadly stare, this Chinese man! Very strong! Very strong! And wild! Very wild! Yes, if he wasn't strong, if he wasn't mad, how could he have come to the centre of the storm in the Western European World Church and then possibly lead the way to victory in the next few days, maybe that's confidence, that's power

He began to be glad that ZF finally did not let him down in, he looked at Bigel, this little old brother, at this moment must be thrilled beyond measure, after all, he was submerged for so many years, himself from inside the church to win him out, would have liked to lead him to become a king himself. It's a pity that he didn't appreciate it, preferring to become a false king rather than a straightforward antagonist of the Church. In the end, Bigel still doesn't have much faith in the strength of the ZF, and it's not his fault. After all, Bigel has lived for hundreds of years and has seen the history of the world. Whenever there has been a struggle for dominance, it has not always been the Pope's Church that has triumphed, only in recent years has the ZF gained a slight upper hand. That's all it took to get Bigel to follow them to their death, and it's really somehow treating people like retards

But the most important reason in there is that Bigel became a false king without having to fight the white bear king, the black crocodile king, without having to have a life and death battle

The order of the Church is rotten. The battle of the four kings, how many strong people died, but unfortunately the Pope did not change the meaning, he and the vampire king know that this is to raise compulsion, the Pope posed in everyone's face? Serve zero dyed yi ai er? The raising compulsion in front of them clearly tells them that they are just a punching bag under the Pope

As the giant eagle king guessed, even more so. Bigil's heart went into a violent frenzy, it was too strong! This King of China was simply too strong! God was finally on his side for once, and he was grateful really grateful to the ZF people led by Boris

Not that he didn't show it on his face, but stood out and said faintly.
