

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1351-1360

Chapter 1351

The black foul-smelling gas directly enveloped Jun Wu Regret, the sky of black foul-smelling gas, with a terrifying pressure, while making it difficult to avoid, the vampire king who was about to go toe to toe with Jun Wu Regret saw this gas wrapped and? The vampire king who was about to go head to head with Jun Wu Regret saw the gas wrapping around him and he was not able to avoid it. The vampire king can now fight with Jun Wu Regret for a few rounds .....

He no longer has the initial arrogance, after all, the strength to kill the White Bear King in one blow, to be sincere, although he currently has, but only under certain circumstances to be able to do, unlike Jun Wu Regret can be in such a fight between the two sides, extremely serious state can kill in one blow .....

Jun Wu Regret is like a person who has entered a foul smelling swamp alone inside, he is somewhat disgusted but equally angrier, at the same time the purple gas on the periphery of his body directly retreats away from these foul smelling gases, allowing him to see that killing a giant black crocodile and also his fleshy wings once again!

Jun Wu Ren grunted as his killing intent once again rose.

He could feel that the Black Crocodile King was much stronger than the White Bear King, but so what? Wasn't he just here to deliver his head when he came alone to kill?

'If you came with that stinking bat, perhaps I wouldn't be able to do anything to you in the first place, but if you dare to come alone, then I'll let you know know know my anger!' Jun Wu Ren's anger rose up, a fist with purple Qi struck through the black stinky gas barrier, a harsh fist with a fierce wind that tore through the surrounding air, the black stinky gas was directly blown away, at the same time that fist went straight into the Black Crocodile King's self-perceived territory!

‘Good timing!’ Feeling Jun Wu Ren's arrogance, the Black Crocodile King let out an exasperated cry, originally coming up with a claw as well, now it seemed to be just what he wanted!

‘Bang!’

The sound of a violent collision, tearing the air around, causing the air to emit a faint popping sound, the gas is also backed up, black purple gas's directly muddled together, forming a strong hurricane, directly deflected into the distance, then the river, directly up a tornado, a few seconds later, the tornado stopped, a huge wave slapped on the river bank directly overturned the docked boats, while also afraid of a few shells directly hit the Dumbing down .....

The black crocodile king was startled, only to feel his arm shaking violently, just when he was looking slightly angry and upset, he was once again startled, because Jun Wuhui came to kill again, and brought over an attack that was even more violent than the last punch, which scared the black crocodile king, after all, he had thought that Jun Wuhui's strength was only so, but who would have thought that Jun Wuhui's strength was so terrifying... ..

‘We can't fight him hard, or else I won't be a match for him either!’ The Black Crocodile King said in a low voice, while his fleshy wings flapped quickly, instantly running directly towards the Vampire King .....

Looking at the Black Crocodile King was running away, where would Jun Wu Ren give him a chance!

This previous arrogance, he would make this man spit it out all together!

‘Seeking death!’ Sensing Jun Wu Ren’s strong killing intent, the Vampire King didn’t have time to be surprised that Jun Wu Ren was able to force the Black Crocodile King to flee, instead, he directly crossed over the Black Crocodile King and tangled with Jun Wu Ren!

‘Humph!’ Jun Wu Ren coldly grunted as his murderous eyes swept over the Black Crocodile King and sneered, ‘Next time, you won’t have such a good chance!’

The Vampire King’s face was already covered with anger, this Jun Wu Regret was getting stronger and stronger, surprisingly, he had become a formidable enemy, the trash that I thought I could crush with a little force, had fought with himself on par with Qi Hu, what a shame!

Chapter 1352

‘Black Crocodile King, come together and kill him!’ The Vampire King pulled down and roared at the Black Crocodile King.

The Black Crocodile King did not dare to hesitate and at the same time felt just what he wanted, for every hostile expert who suppressed his strength, the Black Crocodile King felt insecure mentally and he hated to kill one? He could not wait to kill one. Now he can join the Vampire King to kill Jun Wu Ren, a strong enemy, he is naturally happy!

‘Roar!’ The Black Crocodile King opened his own bloody mouth, a mouthful of black foul-smelling spit shot out, turning into a black arrow that passed directly above Jun Wu Ren’s head, that speed was fast and the arrow was sharp, if this strike grazed Jun Wu Ren, I’m afraid it would also land a bruise, but this was all a small fight, such an attack, the Black Crocodile King spat one out every now and then.

‘You’re no better than that!’ Jun Wu Ren said mockingly to the Vampire King.

‘Take advantage of this time to talk more nonsense! After all, you will soon be almost as good as the King of China!’ The Vampire King sneered, while looking at Lin Hao, he found that his congregation was still carrying Lin Hao, which made him wonder a little, and secretly wondered if Mohammad Kato was also injured and now weak? But when he felt his breath, he found that he still had 20 to 30 percent of his strength, so what kind of bizarre picture was this?

I don’t know why, but looking at such a picture made his heart incomparably uneasy.

The Vampire King withdrew his gaze, his killing intent intensified, after all, with every ounce of unease in his heart, he wanted to settle the battle quickly!

After all, the Iron Wings T3000 was tangled up with Pope Peter in the sky, and was also pinned down by Pope Peter, and he didn’t want to wait for Pope Peter to close up and come back to fight them!

Then there would really be nowhere to run to!

‘Black Crocodile King, cast Dismemberment again!’ The Vampire King commanded.

Without waiting for the Black Crocodile King to resist, he continued, ‘If we don’t finish him off and the vulnerable Peter kills the Iron Wings, then Peter will strike at us! By then we will really have nowhere to run, do you want to die, or do you want to live? Think about what happened to the White Bear King, do you want to become just like him?’

The Black Crocodile King originally had some reluctance in his heart, after all, he had barely finished restoring his whole body, and now he had to perform dismemberment, so naturally he was unwilling to do so. But when he thought that if he just performed dismemberment, he could survive, what was missing an arm or a leg in front of being alive?

So he looked at Jun Wu Ren with a fierce face: ‘You Chinese bloody bastard! I’ll let you go after the White Bear King!’

With that said the Black Crocodile King tore off his own arm hard, together with the fleshy wings that had grown out, and then he was cruel enough to eat his own arm directly in front of Jun Wu Ren. Jun Wu Ren was puzzled, but he felt that the Black Crocodile King’s strength was increasing qualitatively, and he secretly said no!

‘We can’t let him enhance like this, otherwise there will be a crisis!’ Jun Wu Ren said, and then, with the already weak purple Qi, he killed towards the two of them!

‘Just in time!’ The Vampire King glanced over and saw that the Black Crocodile King had already boosted to his strongest state and said smugly.

‘Kill him!’ The Black Crocodile King’s eyes were scarlet, like a beast that had died of sanity!

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1353-1354

Chapter 1353

The Black Crocodile King’s killing intent was so strong that it had taken over his entire mind. At that moment, he had already forgotten his fear, and only had the slightest thought of killing Jun Wu Regret to survive, so he was incomparably swift!

He pounded down, the stench was overwhelming, behind him the Vampire King looked at the situation, his heart soothed, now the Black Crocodile King fought to the death, then it was only a matter of time before he won Jun Wu Ren and killed him, looking up at the dome of the sky.

The Vampire King roared, ‘Lord Three Thousand, I will immediately finish this Chinese monkey and meet you, and then kill Peter!’

‘Good!’ Iron Wings T3000 was already struggling to resist Pope Peter and had already developed the will to retreat, but he knew that the chances of surviving by running away were very low, but if he didn’t run away he would have to wait for death, but now that he heard the voice of the Vampire King saying that he could kill the Chinese immediately, his chances of survival immediately increased, so his will to fight increased a lot and he fought Pope Peter with even less reserve!

Because he knew that by staying and stalling with Pope Peter, he might have a chance of killing him if he worked with the Vampire King, the Black Crocodile King! If Pope Peter dies, then his chances of surviving are greatly enhanced, and he doesn't think that anyone present can kill them both with a cannonball, and besides, once Pope Peter is dead! Western Europe was their backyard, and they dared to defy the will of the M's?

The little country of F!

The battle was so intense that the air was filled with bang, bang, bang, bang.

Pope Peter looked back at Jun Wu Ren, seeing him in such a miserable state, he also shook his head.

'No good!' Suddenly he shouted, and then directly his huge tail swept viciously on the Black Crocodile King's body, hitting it with a furious 'roar', while the Vampire King took the opportunity to punch Jun Wu Ren's body once again.

'Bang!'

'Poof!' A violent impact sound erupted out, Jun Wu Ren directly spat blood out of his mouth, his whole body shot out and landed in the air viciously spitting blood, after a few times of chattering blood, only then did he recover his disordered breath, but his strength was falling fast and his whole body showed all weakness.

‘You’re not far from death!’ Just now Pope Peter saved Jun Wu Ren, but the more courageous Wings of Steel was able to gradually force Pope Peter to retreat, and once Jun Wu Ren died, the three of them together would be able to kill Pope Peter!

The battle between the king and the pope would finally be in his hands!

Mohammed Kato felt the gradually reviving Lin Hao, his heart trembled violently, but looking at the scene in the sky, he was also numb in the head, these two scenes combined, although he was not willing to compare, but now the despair, has spread to his whole body!

He was able to clearly feel Lin Hao’s breathing slowly subsiding, but according to his knowledge from the few battles he had just fought, a strong person’s breathing could be weak, but definitely not weak when they were directly drowsy, but could maintain wakefulness with a strong will to fight, but now Lin Hao had gradually recovered completely, yet there was not a single sign of awakening!

This was a phenomenon that made people despair beyond measure!

After all, he had stood by Lin Hao’s side, and then Jun Wu Ren was going to die! Pope Peter was going to be besieged!

Once Jun Wu Regret was dead, Pope Peter was about to face a one against three situation! Originally, the Vampire King could have fought him without losing. Adding to this the Iron Wings who had shaken the Pope with three blows of monstrous fury but was only badly injured and did not lose, these two plus a Deadly Servant, the Black Crocodile King, would play the vanguard, it was really hard to say who would lose and who would win.

Mohammed Katou does not know why, always feel that the Pope's anger is thunder but rain, always feel that he is covering up, and did not use the full force of the feeling.

Originally, the Pope stored up his strength for that strike, he only felt that his blood was going to be pumped clean, but halfway through his power, the Pope's blood pumping strength reduced drastically, and the reason for this drastic reduction was just now related to the purple qi coming from the east, that is to say, the Pope was angry, angry that Lin Hao was dead! The Pope was not angry because Lin Hao had come back to life.

What was this Pope doing ?

He could not see through it? The ground whisked away to cover up Wu Xi Lu?

Chapter 1354

Biggil was nervous beyond belief and had run to the side of the Giant Eagle King, who was, after all, the greatest refuge of all these days.

To be honest, he was quite sad, looking at the two men behind him, Zeus and Asura, looking at their palpitating faces, Bigir felt that he was in a similar position to them, both so .....

Ben thought of radiating ? Erdi whisking serving wusihi wu? The first thing you need to do is to make sure that you have a good idea of what you are doing.

But it was this sadness and anger that gave him the opportunity to stand aside unscathed.

Listening to the constant taunts coming from inside his headset, Biggil's heart raged, but looking at the Giant Eagle King, he gritted his teeth and let it go. He even knew that from now on, there would be a lot of people standing over him shitting and pissing on him, it was a no-brainer. Because he war team, and still stand under the giant eagle king, and the giant eagle king and ZF close relationship, there will always be a few with the giant eagle king good family, at that time this group of people may borrow the power of the giant eagle king, to suppress himself .....

The actual fact is that you will be able to get a lot more than just a few of the most popular and most popular of the best. It is better to look at the current situation.

'This situation, this is the end. Once Jun Wu Ren dies, the Vampire King will win big, and once the Vampire King wins, our cannon will come to an abrupt end.' The Giant Eagle King said as he looked at the unharmed Biggil.

'Why?' Bigil asked in disbelief.

'Because, the ZF wouldn't dare to order the execution of M's powerful men!' The Giant Eagle King said with some low roar.

Feeling the displeasure of the Giant Eagle King, Biggil was equally uncomfortable mentally, this was an international situation, and he instantly thought through the words after hearing them.

Bigil shook his head, already desperate.

The fight in the sky was incomparably gruesome, Jun Wu Ren was bursting blood from one eye, and the Black Crocodile King was even shedding flesh from his body, dripping with blood, but the will to fight was what drove him to keep on, to die, launching round after round of attacks towards Jun Wu Ren!

Jun Wu Regret was tired!

Incredibly tired!

He had the strength to take on the Vampire King! But the Black Crocodile King, who was attacking like a death-servant, was always attacking him without regard for death, even though he knew that his killing intent was so strong that he might even kill him with a single punch, he was still coming back at him!

And just when he was about to kill him with a single blow, the Vampire King would take the opportunity to interrupt his attack with a quick but not fatal blow towards himself, and this time after another, Jun Wu Ren attacked in a big way, to the point of exhaustion now.

After finally landing one more blow against the Black Crocodile King and flying backwards for tens of metres, Jun Wu Regrets could no longer stand up in the air!

He looked as if his breath had run out.

Looking at the exhausted Jun Wu Ren, the Vampire King sneered, 'You're going to die!'

His scarlet eyes were exhausted, the killing intent in them was clouding over, and his vision was blurring, but even so, Jun Wu Ren stared at the Black Crocodile King, looking at them as they came to kill him, but he still pulled himself together and launched his last attack, his whole body moving, ready to trade his life for his life!

'Even if that's the case! I'll kill that Black Crocodile King!' Jun Wu Ren roared, and his entire body looked like it had risen from the dead.

'Not good!' Looking at Jun Wu Regret's sudden rage, this return to life made the Vampire King roar in alarm, not only the Vampire King, but also the Steel Wing T3000 was annoyed and roared towards the Vampire King, 'Don't let him fight with the Black Crocodile King! With the Black Crocodile King dead, we're hardly a match for Peter!'

Unfortunately it was already too late!

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1355-1356

Jun Wu Ren, however, had already made a gesture to join the Black Crocodile King in death with an incomparably resolute, death-defying mindset!

‘May my qi luck still produce the next Grand Master of China!’

‘May my Chinese Xia, flourish forever!’

Jun Wu Ren did not regret, not at all after following Lin Hao to Western Europe, he had made countless projections, and such a bad one had definitely come to mind. But he knew that Lin Hao had called him to come, also for the sake of China, so he did not refuse.

The duo’s beliefs were a little different, but for, Hua Xia, they both had a clear conscience!

Lin Hao would do anything for Shen Xiyan, and he could do anything for China! And Lin Hao saved him again in East China, and even shared his qi with him, allowing him to step into the ranks of the great masters. And Lin Hao shouted for him to come, also to help China to cut down the powerful uninitiated elements in Western Europe, only who would have thought that the superpowered people over in North America would also come.

If the North American group hadn’t come, he and Lin Hao, would have been able to finish the group off!

Unfortunately, it was all an if.

The killing intent was so strong that the storm was carrying a majestic rain, and the rarely sensible Black Crocodile King looked at the devastating killing intent that suddenly enveloped him and was stunned, then his pupils went wide, ‘No!’

But still? Paxi Shan Lu Yi Xi Wu Ai? It was too late!

Jun Wu Ren killed, endless destruction, the violet Qi pouring down from the vault of the sky, so that the vampire king had wanted to catch up to share some for the black crocodile king, see is see such an attack, is also stopped!

He didn’t dare to touch it, the smell of destruction in it was too strong, and he was afraid that he would be killed if he touched it!

Therefore, his face was incomparably ugly as he watched Jun Wu Ren attack and kill the Black Crocodile King.

Just as he sighed, the blinding purple Qi fiercely headed downwards and then flew into a person's body!

That person was Lin Hao!

'This!' The Vampire King was stunned, this couldn't be!

Not only him, but the Iron Wing T3000 also stared violently, how could this be possible, Lin Hao wasn't dead yet! He remembered that that strike was enough to kill a T3000 level expert!

The commotion of Lin Hao's revival shocked the whole room.

Mohammed Katou felt Lin Hao's body moving and he hurriedly ran away from him. He didn't believe that just because he had rescued Lin Hao, he could bounce around in front of him with impunity. The King of China, Lin Hao, was strong enough today to kill him with a flick of his hand! He would really have no place to cry at that time .....

So when he sensed Lin Hao about to open his eyes, he ran to the side .....

The world's light, which was purple, the piece of darkness at the bottom of his heart, now seemed as if it was really completely silent, suppressed by the purple light, the sound and shadow Lin Hao in his blackened state roared and hissed, but was doused by the purple light, as if he was being burned and worn out. Gradually he lost signs, and in that deep, unseen part of his heart, he turned into a point of light and disappeared up, and the purple light went to track it down and rummaged through the depths of his heart, without finding him.

'I'll be back!' The roar, the hysterical roar came out, Lin Hao knew that he wasn't completely dead, but definitely weakened, and the power opportunity that came back out after he disappeared was terrifying, he felt his strength, assisted by the purple qi, start to climb rapidly, from Grand Master Primary, directly crossing to the peak of Grand Master Early, and finally with another boom, directly to Grand Master Mid, and then slowly At that moment, Lin Hao slowly opened his eyes, and with a faint glance at the world, a terrifying majesty was released, scaring the Mohammedan katou hiding in the distance to vanish directly into deep water, not daring to venture out!

Having had his huge power absorbed by the purple qi, Jun Wu Ren had lost most of his power, so with that blow, he directly injured the Black Crocodile King severely.

The Black Crocodile King was too frightened to chase after the weakened Jun Wu Ren, watching Jun Wu Ren weakened and no longer able to fight back falling next to Lin Hao, he swallowed his saliva and looked around in search of a direction to escape .....

The sky was blocked off, covered by endless shells, that mechanical army fleeing their stash in the air was being chased by shells, and every now and then a mechanical army member with the strength of a senior biotic was shot down!

As soon as they were hit by a shell the size of a man's head, the Advanced Biotic strength Mechanical Legionnaires would definitely be destroyed, their flesh and blood separated from their machinery, and then fall into the water.

They didn't have the physical qualities of an advanced biochemist, if an advanced biochemist was hit by something like this, they would at most be injured, they wouldn't be able to have their bodies recoil from the mechanical chips destroying and exploding .....

'Brother Lin! You actually didn't die?' Jun Wu Ren weakly? Dyeing the ground er love er serve zero cover? The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

'Brother Jun, I'm sorry, I've caused you!' Lin Hao took a deep breath and said incomparably blaming himself. He had fallen asleep, he had made countless struggles with the blackened Lin Hao and eventually lost, he had thought he was going to die, he was very upset because he was worried that Shen Xiyan would not be able to heal his body, it didn't matter if he died or not, but once he thought that Shen Xiyan would also die, he was incomparably depressed, he was incomparably angry, he blamed himself for his incompetence .....

He watched the endless qi of his body slowly dissipate, he could not grasp it, his body could not hide it, gradually, he knew that he was going to die .....

He closed his eyes, in despair, in self-condemnation, thinking about every second of his past with Shen Xiyan, those loving and entwined shots, minute by minute, crossed his mind, he was very reluctant at that time!

Because he had not really lived a comfortable life with Shen Xi Yan, and then he was going to die, this is not acceptable to anyone, but also he had faced death countless times, and also killed countless evil people, so although he rejected, but also knew that his life, here is the end .....

However, the collapsing qi drifted from the east, and he was moved to hear the roar of countless innate patriarchs, repelling the qi into their bodies and driving them back so that they were forced back into their own bodies! He was grateful, grateful to the Chinese Ascended Masters for their moral supremacy, a kindness that he took to heart!

But this was not enough to revive him all, he struggled to open his eyes, feeling the anxious scene, growing more and more anxious, but still he could not open his eyes, he could only feel his breath in silence!

At last, at the moment when Jun Wu Ren was dying, a flash of purple qi, coming from the east, sprinkled on his body, entering it, igniting its bloodline, burning his qi, and he could open his eyes!

‘Brother Lin, what words are these.’ Jun Wu Ren said as he spat blood from his mouth.

Chapter 1357

Lin Hao’s recovery made him happy, because if Lin Hao did not die, then it would also mean that within the next time, China would still have experts of great master strength sitting in the town, it would be a relatively safe state, and the Chinese martial arts community would not be plagued by foreign curmudgeons.

‘I will take revenge for us.’ Lin Hao said, and after he finished slamming the water, his whole body shot up, and the next moment, the whole room was shocked!

Lin Hao had revived, and his strength had increased by a lot!

‘King of China, I knew you wouldn’t let me down! But the Heart of Regeneration was taken away by this mechanical man, sorry, I didn’t organise them to take away the Heart of Regeneration, their mechanical strength, too powerful .....’ Pope Peter was pleasantly surprised, because Lin Hao was his chance to go to the mouth of the world, I thought this chance had been broken, but I never thought that this King of China not broken, today’s strength, vaguely has made him feel, much more powerful than himself!

Looking at the Iron Wings T3000 in front of him, there was panic inside his eyes. Pope Peter glanced at his congregation, the means of absorbing their power slowly letting go, and with his heart in a bottom card, not playing it!

In Western Europe, he was the absolute king!

Even if the T4000 arrived, he was not afraid!

Only the cost of performing that move was too great, so he chose not to perform it .....

Lin Hao’s already anger covered face, the next moment, the anger was released, the terrifying black breath was gone, all was a purple qi rhythm from the east, the corner of the sky dome collapsed had been patched up, the purple qi that had flowed into time, had been absorbed by Lin Hao for the most part, the rest was wrapping around Jun Wu Ren, repairing his injuries!

Boris looked at Lin Hao in disbelief, and then shouted in unbridled excitement, ‘Oh my God! Mr. Lin, the King of China, is too powerful!’

There was a brief loss of sound inside the headset, and then it all perked up, ‘Are we going to win! We’re going to kill everyone in this room, everyone except the Giant Eagle King and the Silver Wolf King, whether it’s the Vampire King or the Black Crocodile King or Pope Peter or that annoying mechanical legion! Kill them all, kill them all! King Huaxia, you are the strongest, I can feel him getting stronger!’

‘Ooooooh! We’re going to win, thanks to you, King Huaxia!’

‘Let my cannon fire, celebrate the victory of the King of China, Boris, well done!’ That previously serious voice also became up with a hint of softness, and he cheered too, just a low cheer .....

Just now they were too depressing, but now that the opportunity had come, he saw the light of hope!

The reason they are so, that all? Lu Jiao Pao Dyeing Serving Zero Serving Zero? It was because their self-confidence, under the blow of this mechanical army, became gone, as if they had gone back to the great battle a hundred years ago, when the German chariot stepped over their noble pride with a devastating gesture, leaving no trace .....

Boris sneered, this group of people, wallflowers! No, not even close to wallflowers, the forced supremacy, the extremely disgusting existence!

Flying high into the sky, both the Vampire King and the Black Crocodile King involuntarily fell backwards, and Lin Hao merely glanced at the two of them.

He locked the two men with a domineering gaze, signalling for them to be judged and telling them never to think of escaping!

For his target was the pair of steel robots high up in the air, fitted with two steel wings ejecting exhaust gases, he was very strong, fighting back and forth with Pope Peter, he saw the same, although Pope Peter was getting the upper hand on him, it was difficult to break the defence, he also felt that Pope Peter still had his own means hidden, this was a strong man with a very strong patience, his majesty was always being provoked, yet he could still harbour a trace of sanity in a state of rage!

A thousand years of survival, possessing such wisdom?

Perhaps so, after all, Lin Hao had occasionally doubted life, contemplating the fact that there were people who lived in their twenties and thought their lives through, thus feeling that they were only in their twenties but felt that they had already gone through life. After all, so many truths in the world, are written in books, read more, they all understand, and then in the case of nothing, the goal of life, began to become a little confused .....

Lin Hao also had such a confusion, that is, if he and Shen Xiyan safe and sound together, every day in the future, then how to spend it? Traveling the world? Maybe.

But that was a matter for the future, and the matter at hand, he didn't think he should deal with it again!

Flying towards the front of the Iron Wings T3000, Pope Peter's massive body began to slowly shrink, eventually becoming not even the same size as the castle walls, but a humanoid state, and also giving a place out on the front battlefield.

Boris and the others who were watching the scene were shocked as they watched it through the monitor screens!

Someone shouted excitedly, 'See! Did you see that! Wow, Pope Peter has given up the front battlefield, which means he thinks Lin Hao is more powerful than him!'

'See! I saw it! The King of China, Lin Hao, is so powerful!' Another man shouted with unbridled excitement.

They were all in high spirits as they witnessed their hope!

'Where is the Heart of Regeneration!' Lin Hao opened his mouth and wrapped the Iron Wings T3000 with an endless amount of pressure.

The Iron Wings T3000, only felt a feeling of bondage wrapped around him, but his dignity told him not to give in!

This was a Chinese, he was a subject under the kingdom of a powerful world overlord, or a powerful mechanical legion superpower, how could he bow down to a Chinese!

It was just that such a spirit such a faith was slowly crumbling in his heart, he felt Lin Hao's might, the kind of fear that made people feel terrified just by the sight of it!

Although he felt that Lin Hao's strength was the same as his own, both at the T3000 level, but for some reason, he just felt that Lin Hao was stronger than himself, and a lot stronger too! It was a nameless illusion, only this illusion was so deep that it was too depressing!

'Headquarters, Headquarters!' The Iron Wings T3000 was calling out for HQ.

'Roger that, Roger that!' HQ replied.

At the same time commanding, 'Ironwing! Remember your dignity, you just panicked, he's not as powerful as Pope Peter, you don't need to panic at all! And remember, you are a super warrior with strong enough defence within the T3000 class! Even if Pope Peter had blasted you with T4000 level means in this territory of Western Europe, you would only be slightly injured, now that Pope Peter is back to T3000 level strength, you need not panic at all! Kill this Chinese, I have sent a T4000 level super soldier to meet you on the high seas! Once you kill him, I will try to pressure the ZF in Western Europe and others through the Congress! Get them to give you a free pass!'

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1359-1360

Chapter 1359

The Iron Wings T3000 was already weak, but when he felt a glimmer of hope that he could live, his whole being became wild, flailing and extremely arrogant.

The mechanical devices on his skin worked rapidly, making a rumbling sound, a smell of machinery coming to its limit.

The Vampire King's eyelids also jumped as he listened to the whirring sound, this super powerhouse from M, this was preparing to have a fight to the death with Lin Hao, he looked at each other and the Black Crocodile King, a hint of fear flashed inside the Black Crocodile King's scarlet eyes, the budding retreat in his heart took over his entire heart, he could see it clearly.

'Vampire King, in this current situation, I am afraid that we will definitely lose, since the situation has come to this, this king will not get involved here.' The Black Crocodile King shrunk his body and turned into a humanoid sturdy man and said in a cold voice.

The Vampire King had an angry face, he could not imagine that at this time the Black Crocodile King was still thinking of escaping, was he not afraid that, after the Pope had drawn back, he would then find an opportunity to kill him? Or did he think he could hide to the ends of the earth? A man of such power would be watched no matter where he went! Damn it! 'Black Crocodile King, do you really think you can escape?'

With a low voice, the Vampire King shouted at the Black Crocodile King who was about to flee. The Black Crocodile King turned back, his eyes dodging, how can he say this, every single person inside the scene was stronger than him, before there was the White Bear King padding, he felt there was still a glimmer of a way back, now he was the weakest, once he was chosen to be abandoned, it would definitely be himself who was abandoned!

And besides, before he fought against Jun Wu Ren, it was because if he killed Jun Wu Ren, there was still a glimmer of hope of staying alive, now he was fighting against Lin Hao, he really didn't have an ounce of fighting spirit, he had seen how powerful Lin Hao was.

A man who was almost as powerful as Pope Peter, could they actually defeat him? Seeing that the Black Crocodile King's eyes looked like he was determined to go, the Vampire King sneered: 'Do you really think you can escape? Did you think you could escape from Pope Peter's gaze? Oh, you think you can escape from Western Europe? I'm telling you, I can sense all the advanced cyborgs in the world, wherever they are, Peter and I can sense them! So there's nowhere for you to escape to!'

The Black Crocodile King laughed, 'Are you bluffing me? I am not the White Bear King. The reason why you can sense the other advanced cyborgs is because they have chips implanted inside their bodies. But what am I! I am a product of the last era, as long as I don't appear in the European continent, even the Emperor cannot sense it! Do you think I don't know how this era has changed? Ridiculous!' The Black Crocodile King also stopped hiding and sneered in reply to the Vampire King's words, it was the sadness of the times that the times had changed.

This era of advanced biochemicals had fallen so Pope Peter was responsible, but the Vampire King was no less responsible! He single-handedly created the plan to change the route of advancement of biochemists, a plan to exterminate the species, so to speak! This is an extremely crazy maniac!

The Black Crocodile King's words, which did not avoid suspicion, stirred up a thousand waves.

Pope Peter also looked back for a? Woody Chasai Woody Chasai? The vampire king has been watching the plan to exterminate the species for a long time, he has thought about this matter and finally chose to accept it by default, there is no way, this era, can no longer be used for the biochemicals of the last era to grow, the air has lost a function, this function is related to the growth of the biochemicals.

It is impossible to see how a cyborg can grow up by taking in blood and a lot of meat, but the thing that creates the structure of their abdomen, which in Eastern theology is called the 'demon pellet', is something that is difficult to gather, and he himself has cultivated it, but without success. Of course this was one of the reasons why Pope Peter had watched Mohammed the Katharine, for this man, the method of growth used was a product of a previous era! Peter was also curious as to where exactly the Vampire King had found the original mutant biochemicals.

And the senior biochemists who heard these words all wore faces of hatred and anger, yet they dared not speak out in anger. The sadness of the times, in the bottom of their hearts is also deeply planted a heavy seed, just this seed of hatred no matter how to germinate, it is useless, as the vampire king said, they this group of people no matter where, he and pope Peter can sense, and is just now pope Peter and vampire king two people out of the means, if they dare to resist, I am afraid that the chip in the body will directly explode, right? This is ridiculous .....

Ignore his existence?

Seeing that Lin Hao was still arrogantly turning back, the vampire king was incomparably angry, the mutant chip inside every joint in his body emitted its maximum function, and I'm afraid that the sound of the machinery running became louder and louder, finally, the two steel wings, like two huge wings, and they were still fast running wings, they scraped the air with a whirring and muffled sound. At such a speed, just a slight brush against the head, I'm afraid the whole neck will break off straight away .....

Surely? Wu Shan zero er west serve Wu Zha? , nowadays such an attack is completely worthless in Lin Hao's eyes!

Seeing the two of them fight, the black crocodile king's mouth conspiratorial cold smile was incomparably smug as he looked at the vampire king and then at Pope Peter. From the eyes of Pope Peter, he saw endless disdain as well as outright ignorance. The Black Crocodile King was not going to provoke Pope Peter by making a fool of himself.

This was their emperor!

An emperor whose power was unparalleled!

He and the White Bear King had the nerve to start a king-pope battle with the Vampire King, and he now regretted it, but it was no use regretting it any more!

'King Black Crocodile, why don't we wait and see, if the Iron Wings T3000 powerhouse kills Lin Hao, we can fight alongside him! This would still return to the previous situation, the three of us, against one!' The Vampire King narrowed his eyes and issued a final invitation, he kept his eyes on Pope Peter, not daring to go forward and kill the Black Crocodile King, and nowadays he didn't dare to move at will, because he was afraid that he would be struck by a sneaky blow from Pope Peter when he struck at the Black Crocodile King, and at that moment, it wasn't something he could afford!

'To hell with that.' The Black Crocodile King sneered, his mind was made up and there was nothing anyone could do to stop him!

'Vampire King, I regret listening to your slanderous words, you damned stinking bat, how dare you say that everyone can advance to the papacy, I really have suffered from the knowledge of the old times, otherwise how could I have been fooled by you? The power of the Emperor is so terrifying, and there are only so many of these advanced biotics under the scene, if all three of us become Emperors, who will be there to help then? And who knows how many secrets are hidden behind the emperor?' The Black Crocodile King then grunted.

At the same time he had already withdrawn a few hundred metres back, a picture of a state where he was about to escape from within the ripples of the great battle.

As the bombs in the air brushed past him, the Black Crocodile King stretched out a hand and gave it a direct squeeze, and the blast rippled and rolled over an area of about fifty metres, and when the smoke cleared, the Black Crocodile King stood unharmed at the centre of the missile blast.

However is just such a scale of the bomb, but killed countless T2000 level mechanical legion, that is to say, this kind of bomb for the innate expert level is a fatal blow, of course this is in the Chinese innate expert unprepared under the sneak attack to be able to achieve a fatal blow, if the other party does not let down their guard seriously, this bomb really can not hit each other .....

'I'm leaving!'

The bomb was like a firework to send off, the Black Crocodile King walked on from the front, the bomb exploded all the way .....

Very arrogant, very cocky, very unconventional .....

Then, just as he was confidently preparing to leave, a voice shouted icily, ‘Did I say let you go?’
