

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1451-1460

Chapter 1451

Arashiyama smiled, and when White Dwarf looked at Arashiyama, he also smiled along with him, then said, 'Forty years have passed since I saw you, Yuanwu, you have even advanced to Grand Master, I never thought, I never thought, that your Dragon Sect would also advance with the times! Only, today this sunken mountain is your grave!'

'Yuan Wu! The grudge of the past is settled together today!' Arashiyama said with a gloomy face, at the same time, his whole body was immediately covered with a layer of mountain bastions directly, like a layer of armor, very thick, Lin Hao looked at it and thought that it must be a characteristic with extremely strong defensive ability!

When Arashiyama finished speaking, he looked at Lin Hao, the corners of his mouth raised slightly, but his killing intent was strong, and he said extremely arrogantly: 'You are the King of China, Lin Hao? At such a young age, you dare to call yourself the King of China? Do you know how heavy this name is? Forget it, it's a waste of words to say so much to a dying man like you! But don't even get me started, it's because of you that the two of us have been exposed, and now it's your honour that the two of us are here to kill you! Think about it, if you hadn't exposed yourself, when the time comes for the two of us to sneak in all the way from the East, how many people from the Dragon Sect do you think would have been killed by then? Imagine, I think it's worth it for you!'

Lin Hao laughed coldly, while countless feelings rose up in his heart, that moment of opportunity returning once more!

He did not appear to be at the end of his tether because of the great physical exertion of the battle just now, and even in his bloodline, the extreme dao was becoming more and more enthusiastic, as if the only way to feel the extreme dao was to fight!

It was as if by fighting, he would definitely become stronger!

This feeling was very good! 'Arashiyama! I thought you didn't remember the pain you felt back then!' Seeing that Arashiyama was still shouting very loudly, Yuan Wu sneered, this Arashiyama had faked his death for forty years, and now that he had returned, he was still arrogant and domineering, back then when he faced himself, he was also like this, but unfortunately, he was almost killed by himself in the end, it was ridiculous to think about it. At the same time, there was also a flood of memories. Back then, the Dragon Sect was able to save the day, and all the people were united.

It's only been a few decades, how could it be like this?

Shaking his head, Yuan Wu stopped sighing and instead stared at Arashiyama, he was ready to fight him again, now that White Dwarf was no longer the same, Lin Hao should be able to deal with him and Forest Wolf T4000!

'Yuanwu, you seek death!' Said Arashiyama as he slapped his palm down, the earthy yellow barriers on his body surfaced, emitting a faint dark yellow glow!

Yuanwu sneered again, 'You're still the same as you were back then!'

'? Lu Wu Zero Zai Dye Zero Zai Xi? Weak!'

Arashiyama was furious at his words. The revenge of the slap back then, he would never forget! For the past forty years, he had been keeping it in his heart, just waiting, waiting for the moment when he would come out and take his revenge!

And then return it to him ten times, a hundred times, even a thousand times!

Otherwise, he would not be able to quench his hatred!

Above the sea, now that the battle has begun again, a calm tsunami has risen again!

The warships around them, each playing against the other! All staring at each other, afraid that someone might take advantage of the opportunity to sneak in!

Du X saw the three silent warships and breathed a sigh of relief once again, the Chinese Yuanwu, still strong! The legend of Dragon Gate back then, after decades of silence, could still be as strong as ever!

This is a happy thing for them, after all, the stronger Huaxia is, the safer they, the weaker nations, will seem!

And the more secure they, the nations that work closely with China, will feel!

I Brudeau is also the heart of that big stone put down, only to see the situation now, the heart can not help but once again sink, this

Chapter 1452

Why are White Shorty and Arashiyama still alive ?

Back then, White Dwarf and Arashiyama had committed heinous crimes in all the countries of the world, but no one could sanction M, so they dared not speak out in anger! Later on, M fought against all the countries and was killed by the Dragon Sect's powerful men. At that time, the whole world celebrated, only now these two are not dead

If they were still alive today, then what kind of disaster the world would face then, he dared not think!

When seeing these two people appear, not only did I Brundle panic, many of the warships of the countries that have diplomatic relations with M, those? The chief officers were also panicked. The chief officers also had their hearts thumping, how come these two great demons are still alive! They were still alive?

And this situation seems like, the two of them may not die ?

This

This is unacceptable

As a country with late diplomatic relations with M, they were previously brutalized by several demons of M. Only later these demons died almost in a great war forty years ago, and those who did not die did not dare to come out in M. After all, those who did not die are now extremely strong, and once they come out, they will directly endanger world security! So, in response to calls from all over the world, a treaty was signed to the effect that if a T4000 level or higher powerhouse from M steps into their country during peacetime, no matter what the other side's purpose is, everyone can take out their strongest weapons and kill him!

And a powerful joint defence nation could use that nation's strongest weapons to assist the country in question!

Such checks and balances are why T4000 level and above do not dare to enter the territory of any country at will, while T3000 level can enter and leave the territory of countries that have established diplomatic relations with M, but in the territory of countries that are hostile to M, they do not dare to appear at all!

After all, the other side is not afraid to wear the shoes of the barefoot, some countries even issued a threatening statement, if found M country's top mechanical legion members through the territory of the country appeared, the country can be accused of endangering the security of other countries' territory, launched an attack!

As for the strength of this top mechanical corps members, this other party did not specify! Later on, when a member of the T2000-ranked Mechanical Corps was sent on a mission by the State of M, he was shot by a missile while flying over the country's territory and was killed on the spot!

M was furious, but they ignored it and even pointed the missile over M territory and said, 'You are the one who trampled on our security protocols, I am just protecting my people!'

Eventually the M's didn't care, so later the T2000's to T3000's didn't dare so enter the territory of the M's hostile countries, after all they were arrogant and wouldn't provoke the most destructive and developed technology of the day!

Yuan Wu carried his machete and slashed down at Arashiyama!

'Bang!'

'Clang!'

The two clashed with each other with two successive sounds, and the fire emanated from them, creating a tremendous amount of energy, Yuan Mo felt his tiger's mouth burned, but it was not worth mentioning to his current Grand Master strength!

The powerful impact caused Arashiyama to retreat dozens of steps, and a crack appeared faintly in the armour that covered the bastions of his body, but soon, the crack gradually began to repair itself again, and eventually the crack simply disappeared!

The Arashiyama of today is much stronger than back then! It is much stronger than before!

This was something Yuan Wu did not want to see, but knew in his heart! At the same time, he was secretly sighing that it was good that he had broken the taboo from before and fallen into it, becoming a Grand Master, otherwise he would really not be a match for this Arashiyama!

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1453-1454

Chapter 1453

It seems that over the years, he's lurked and faked his own death, putting more thought into growing himself rather than being despicable and brutalizing the East!

It's also true that they had guessed that these two might have faked their deaths, so naturally they wouldn't dare to venture out at will. The M's aren't all brainless people like Giant Shark, like Joker, like Deputy!

Of course, the Joker can be properly ignored, but the Deputy, is really not to be taken lightly! Otherwise he would deliver a fatal blow to Dragon Gate!

One slash didn't do any substantial damage, and Yuan Wu went for it again! The first slash was meant to be a tentative attack!

It was not meant to be a real fight!

Arashiyama shook the debris from his body, smiled towards Yuan Wu and said mockingly, 'So, this is how strong you are after advancing to Grand Master? Also, I'm at the peak T3000 level today, but instead it's the early Grand Master!'

'In that case, then let's play slowly!' Arashiyama said smugly!

Then looking over to White Dwarf's side, White Dwarf had joined the Forest Wolf T4000 battle and the two of them were completely suppressing Lin Hao!

This was to be expected!

After all, Lin Hao and Forest Wolf T4000 had been fighting for a while, and Lin Hao hadn't completely suppressed Forest Wolf T4000, so now with an old time powerhouse like White Dwarf, how could they not completely suppress Lin Hao?

And, it was only a matter of time before he was killed!

With a mouthful of blood, Lin Hao threw a punch towards White Dwarf!

But just as Lin Hao was about to kill White Dwarf, the Forest Wolf T4000's claw slashed directly at Lin Hao's arm! The speed was so fast that if Lin Hao hadn't reacted in time, I'm afraid his arm would have been cut off!

Taking dozens of steps backwards, he stepped on a tsunami that collapsed, and the endless seawater turned into a puddle containing immense power and smashed down towards the sea!

'Boom!' With a loud bang, a huge crater was smashed into the sea, and a flattened island appeared!

But soon, the seawater submerged the exposed surface of the island again!

Lin Hao stood firmly on his feet and gently wiped the corner of his mouth, then looked at his hands, this scarlet blood, it was blinding, but very uplifting! The body was, for some reason, exhilarated and Lin Hao, with the excitement that came with it, went up to kill again!

He was like an immortal god of war! No one could defeat him! Even though he was badly injured, he didn't care, his skin and bones were heartbreaking, but his high posture in battle was unbeatable!

White Dwarf was slightly agitated at the sight of the exposed sea, only to blush slightly when the water covered it again, but the thought that there was still such a place there made him remember the area in a small way!

Only just as he remembered it White Dwarf shook his head, why was he thinking of running away? With their strength, these two would have been a safe bet to cut them down!

Even if it was even worse, if Arashiyama had been decapitated by Yuanwu, they could have just decapitated Lin Hao! Look at the state of Lin Hao now, a candle in the wind, death is waiting for him, it's only a matter of time before they win!

White Dwarf is worthy of being a participant in the Great War forty years ago, he is agile and experienced in combat, and with the Forest Wolf T4000 it is as easy as pie, and with the assistance of White Dwarf, the Forest Wolf T4000 is stronger than ever, fighting fiercely and putting up his strongest fight? The Forest Wolf T4000, with the aid of White Dwarf, fought more and more fiercely, and put its strongest fighting? The T4000 is a powerful fighter.

Chapter 1454

The Forest Wolf T4000 at this moment was like a real top T4000 level powerhouse, whether it was strength or defensive ability or speed or burst, everything stood at the top part!

This image made Lin Hao didn't love to whisk west closed Shan whisk? There was not much depression felt, only a little more danger, but he was even more excited!

The will to fight in his body filled up, the feeling in his heart increased, and his blood boiled!

Inside the mechanical legion, the giant shark's face was unbearably embarrassed! Although the scenes demonstrated that they were going to win, but what? He thinks he's lost!

Look at the combat power that the Forest Wolf T4000 exploded into with the aid of the White Dwarf, how did it ever not show that his man was a poorly trained cyborg?

He glanced afterwards at the Joker, whose face was covered in joy along with a look of amusement. Looking again at Captain Deputy, the two of them focused their eyes, and Captain Deputy snorted as if to say, 'After a big battle, all your men will go back to the furnace and be rebuilt!'

The giant shark mentally snarled, 'Why didn't this bloody Forest Wolf T4000 die sooner! And is that Dragon Gate's research team all bastards? They want to take credit for something like this! Damn it! What a nest of thieves in the world, can't there be a unified group of opinion? Damn it! The little Dragon Sect has only been established for a few decades and they want to fight for power? How dare a small research group stand above Yuanwu? Damned bastard department! If this were put under his men, they would all be decapitated!'

Giant Shark was so upset that he cursed all of Dragon Sect's research group, they had intercepted the communication between Dragon Sect's research group and Yuan Wu, of course this was harvested through Dragon Sect's intelligence agents who had infiltrated in, otherwise they couldn't have unlocked the radio wave code and intercepted the information from it

This time, he did not hide his strength, and the terrifying pressure made Arashiyama's brow furrow, compared to the strength of Yuan Wu back then, he was much stronger!

A slight sense of oppression came over him, causing Arashiyama to look over at White Dwarf and find that the pressure there was so strong that Lin Hao could not even stand up to it, so he felt a little more at ease! After all, once that side is freed up, he can assist him

So his earthy yellow armor once again emitted an eerie yellow glow, and then rushed up to kill!

'Clang!'

The sound of metal clashing!

‘Bang bang bang!’

The sound made by successive explosions, interspersed with a few sparks, was very dazzling!

The two of them crossed paths again, and Yuan Wu’s tiger mouth was already overflowing with red blood!

Arashiyama wiped the corner of his mouth, looking at the fresh blood covering the corner of his mouth, and said with slight anger, ‘The shock has caused internal injuries, Yuanwu is much stronger than before!’

Forty years of sinking and floating, I thought I would be stronger than Yuan Wu if I lurked and grew in meditation, but back then, Yuan Wu was still a Grand Master of the Innate Sovereign, but now he is already a Grand Master and has advanced! And what about him? Because of lurking, he was unable to return to the main camp and could not advance to the T4000 level, although he also grew to the peak of the T3000 level, but back then Yuan Wu was able to hurt him at the Grand Perfection of Innate Sovereign, let alone today

The arrogance slowly disappears, Yuan Wu stares at Arashiyama, Arashiyama has become much stronger, if he was still at the full circle of Innate Sovereign, perhaps this moment is not a match for Arashiyama at all! Because Arashiyama’s strength at this moment, compared to a normal Grand Master, although it wouldn’t be too much stronger, it would be completely manageable!

This world, after he had advanced to Grand Master, had become more and more mysterious!

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1455-1456

Chapter 1455

The machete was covered in a layer of silver light, internal power up to the point where he wouldn't be able to perform the Extreme Dao like Lin Hao! So the silver light contains countless things, purple qi ah qi luck and things like that, a super terrifying power that embeds fifty years of existence, this is one of the Chinese divine treasures that the M. Mechanics Legion Institute cannot study and use!

This is an ancient civilisation! Back then, when the gateway to outer space was not opened, the former name of the Mechanical Legion Institute of M said that this could be the aura used for ascension, but then they opened the gateway to Earth and flew into outer space, and then it was left untouched, and the Institute of Alien Energy changed its name to the Mechanical Legion, after all, there was no more ascension or not!

This is also just a simple divine collection, except that China is the same as other countries, their divine collection is difficult to study, difficult to decipher

It is difficult to penetrate with the scientific area, which makes it a big headache

When the silver light covered the machete, Arashiyama's heart thudded with some trepidation!

‘It’s using the divine collection!’ Arashiyama whispered, although he had received the function of defensive shield this door, he did not ? s cover er love Lu Yi zero zero zero ? Inside the fifty one restricted area personally by the scientific staff to assemble, but himself and white dwarf two people device, to be honest, he is still a little less believe it

But even if he doesn’t believe much, he still has to use it, or else he’ll be cut through the defense by Yuan Wu’s slash, and at that time, he’ll really have to go back to the scene back then

Damn Yuan Wu, his strength has advanced so quickly and he has broken the taboo to become a Grand Master

I don’t know which one of these bastards made these Chinese Ascended Masters dare to advance to Grand Master

And what about the restraining order ? Does it no longer exist

Forget about it

Arashiyama activates his skill defense shield!

Then stared at Yuan Wu and activated his Origin Body again, otherwise he was really afraid of being killed by Yuan Wu’s slash

Yuan Wu stared at Arashiyama, defense shield? And this person didn't just use the defense shield skill, he also strengthened his origin body, is it really a case of once bitten by a snake, ten years afraid of a well rope?

But it looks like you can feel this person's heart is weak

The person who is facing a battle, but who loses a little bit of momentum, his mentality will change greatly, and his will to fight will be weak! The momentum will naturally lose a lot!

Yuan Wu once again increased his internal strength, finally reaching a perfect critical point, and finally headed towards Arashi Mountain!

The terrifying wave of power that erupted here was so great that it caused all three of Lin Hao to look over!

At this moment Lin Hao was being beaten back, but his will to fight was incredibly high, he suddenly looked over fiercely and realised that Yuan Wu was suppressing Arashiyama so badly that Arashiyama could only passively defend, and having fought against cyborg powerhouses so much Lin Hao knew a lot more about cyborgs than the average person, their moves, their defences, their traits!

Now that Arashiyama's defensive shield plus the Origin Body was being used together, it meant that Arashiyama was bound to be at its weakest next moment, and Lin Hao looked to the two people beside him!

Perhaps this was the chance to break the game!

‘Arashiyama, that bastard! How dare he scorn him, Yuan Wu, at this time! A man as powerful as Lin Hao and Pope Peter can even defend against a defence shield, let alone a little Yuanwu! Damn it!’ Inside the Mechanical Legion, now instead of conferring through virtual screens, everyone appeared in the conference room!

The deputy captain also came out from inside his sandy war room, but instead of sitting in that seat in the centre of the conference room, he was sitting on the left hand side of that seat!

Chapter 1456

He was a typical M, but the most striking was the golden hook of his injury, golden light, killing intent is not obvious but make the T3000, T4000 level of cyborg present feel intimidated.

Opposite him is the giant shark, rows of huge teeth shining silver, emitting a seeping killing intent that makes people dare not look more than once.

And in the next position in the same row as him was the Joker! His mouth looked like it had been torn open by something, so that his features were completely unreadable, but his whole being gave off a feeling of flash after flash! Certainly when the light disappears from him, his presence is not felt at all! It’s a very terrifying, appalling presence, because he’s dangerous, like he’s everywhere!

And the last three on the opposite side were all T4000 level powerhouses, the remaining four were T3000 level cyborgs, throughout the room, ten super cyborgs appeared, such a huge mechanical army, no wonder they could defy all the kingdoms of the world! Of course, the more terrifying still, there are very T3000 robots outside the mission among them, there are also some permissions are not enough to participate in the meeting!

The person who said this was situated in the second position in the same row of the giant shark T4000, his whole body covered with green leather clothes, as if covered with patina, and his body was strong beyond compare.

‘Well, don’t say that.’ The second-in-command captain averted his own gaze from the screen and, after scanning the circle, his eyes did not covet that central throne, he didn’t dare! Not even a hint of covetousness!

‘Arashiyama is in decline, but the way things are going, none of us can lose! The reason for gathering everyone now is for all of you to stop being scatterbrained! When the first Grand Master emerges from the Dragon Sect, Taotie and Yang Hu Qin Long will surely follow, and by then the Grand Masters of China will rise like a spring! The taboo we gave them at the moment about the forbidden strike walking out and the restrictive treaties we made will not break down!’

‘Don’t think we can overpower each other! Seventy years ago the war told us that China was not afraid of us! Forty years ago the War of the Powerful showed us once again that they can keep us down even with a level of power below ours! Now we have the T4000! But we know that our T5000 cannot be developed!’

‘That is to say, once the Chinese Dragon Sect leads the martial arts world to advance to Grand Master in droves, the final situation is not pleasing to us! Of course these tense situations are not felt by you, so let’s talk about one that is closer to us!’

‘That’s the one everyone is curious about, Arashiyama and White Dwarf! Forty years ago in the Great War of the Powerful, Arashiyama and White Dwarf were sent into the Ancient Prison by us with super strong means, so that they could not appear until they heard our orders! Moreover, it is very difficult to open the ban, and once it is opened, it cannot be used again! This time, Arashiyama and White Dwarf were forced to enter the sight of the whole world for the purpose of killing Lin Hao and Yuan Wu!’

The second-in-command captain, as the coordinator of the battle plan? The ground whisker Lu Pao Shan Di Pao? the first person, now announced all sorts of news that he felt he could tell everyone present.

At this moment, seeing that the deputy captain was no longer raising eagles to fight eagles as before, the giant shark and the clown were not fighting for their lives, but listening quietly.

They also knew that the Deputy Captain was explaining the matter of Arashiyama and White Dwarf in order to give them both an account of what had happened.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1457-1458

Chapter 1457

‘Eastern Japan was broken by Jun Wu Ren and Lin Hao’s surface ban! This is where this bastard Zu is disgusting! If he becomes a cyborg with his strength, then Eastern Japan will become our second Mechanical Legion Sanctuary, but unfortunately this bastard is a stale and rotten Eastern Japan! Not willing to accept our gift causing the breath of the ancient hell of the East to leak out! And that’s why Peter is willing to confront the Vampire King, a piece of shit, face to face!’

At this moment, it dawned on the crowd, they finally knew the reason why Pope Peter, who had been hiding for a thousand years and not coming out, was now willing to come out! Of course some of them knew and some of them didn’t, now the words were all known.

‘Pope Peter’s aim is not to care about his own dojo in Western Europe, after all, their divine collections have been consumed, and what he ultimately wants to get is access to the Mouth of the World! That is, the Ancient Hell of Eastern Europe!’

‘And the fact that Lin Hao and Jun Wuhuo broke the Eastern Ying Ancient Prison’s ban allowed Peter to smell the Mouth of the World, causing Pope Peter to harbour a great deal of hostility towards us! Therefore, Pope Peter, will strike at us when necessary!’ The deputy captain said.

‘Why!’ The Joker asked rhetorically after some time of contemplation.

The deputy captain gave him a look

Above the great sword that covered the inner layer, it finally cleaved out, a dazzling light that seemed to pierce through the vault of the sky, from outer space with the help of a touch of terrifying force, killing towards Arashiyama!

The pressure was so great that the space began to tear, emitting a sound like cracking silk, a power so terrifying that it made hearts tremble!

Yuan Wu couldn’t believe that a man could exert such power!

But he did!

Arashiyama's heart trembled violently as he felt the pressure, his blood was boiling!

Terrifying!

Terrifying! Such an explosion of power was unlike anything he had ever seen before! He was secretly searching that he had put on two layers of defence, otherwise he would really have been killed by this slash!

Chinese martial arts, it was really fierce!

'Kill!'

A solemn voice that shook the heavens and the earth! The next moment, a light blade, as if from a silver light? The next moment, a light blade, as if from the silver light? It came flying from beyond!

It slammed into the body of a glowing earthy stone!

Lin Hao's afterimage kept looking at it!

‘Here’s your chance!’

A loud noise caused all eyes to look over! An instant of dazzling light, causing countless military light chiefs standing on the warship to have trouble opening their eyes!

Lin Hao saw that slash go down, and the blade mane cut directly on top of the defence shield!

After struggling for a long time, the defence shield slowly shattered, a feeling Lin Hao had experienced before!

Because he had experienced it when he fought the Wings of Steel, and he had also experienced it in the Forest Wolf T4000, after this brief shattering of the defensive shield, immediately they were able to gather a new one!

But Lin Hao had to look at Yuan Wu, this slash of his, it was powerful!

But think about it, from the midst of the engagement, these people’s words had been in the Great War forty years ago! And with Hua Xia before he went out of the Sea of Heaven, but did not sense that in addition to Jun Wu Regret there are any great patriarchs, but the innate patriarchs are many, great perfection you also have many

It seems that the people who fought with the mechanical army must be this group of innate sectarian great perfection, and then this group of people with their cultivation back then fought with the T3000 level of mechanical people, and from the forest wolf T4000 screaming can be learned, that year Yuanwu that group of people of the Dragon Gate although lost, but the mechanical army also did not get much benefit!

Chapter 1458

A innate patriarch of the Great Perfection may be able to make the T3000 level cyborg suffer? Love whisked the Land Servant West? Now that he had reached Grand Master, his strongest strike was certainly not weak!

This reminded Lin Hao of the kind of power he had when he was in the state of the Ascended Patriarch casting Extreme Dao plus Blackening, which was straight out of the T4000, and he thought about it, China really does have a lot of talent!

I just wonder what it is that such a group of people are so afraid of that they haven't dared to advance to Grand Master!

Don't tell him again that a country's qi can only support one Grand Master! He knew all about qi luck, but the one who knew it the most was Jun Wu Regret, not to say Jun Wu Regret, but he was the one who fought with Jun Wu Regret for the illusory qi luck!

Later, in the battle in Eastern Ying, Jun Wu Regret ate the Dao fruit of his ancestor and directly advanced to Grand Master! After that, Lin Hao could clearly feel the qi luck moving closer to him!

However, after the battle with the Vampire King's Iron Wings T3000, Lin Hao was defeated with the strength of an Ascended Master, and then his Qi luck collapsed, but he was able to cross the purple Qi, at that moment, Lin Hao knew! The suppression of qi luck survived, or maybe qi luck seemed a bit weak at that moment, not as fast as purple qi came!

But he knew one thing!

That was that there was a huge amount of Purple Qi stored in China today! It could be used by many people to advance to Grand Master! And it was within reach for this group of people to advance to Grand Master, yet he did not know why this group of people did not advance

At the same time that moment of the coming purple qi from the sea of heaven, he now felt a little weird when he thought about it

Arashiyama backwards dozens of steps, after the light dispersed, Arashiyama only feel the internal organs in the violent reversal of position, while shocked look at Yuan Wu, his strength! Very strong! Very strong!

If he hadn't been riding on the defensive shield technique, I'm afraid he would have fallen by this moment!

That group of powerful people had the strength to fight beyond their rank! It was too strong!

But it's a good thing that I have a defence shield, otherwise I would really be dead!

No, not just the defence shield, if he hadn't used his Origin Body at this moment, he would have been dead!

It was scary to think about it!

He was thinking that if he had been replaced by White Dwarf, he would have been dead!

And just as he was thinking about it, he felt a blackness before his eyes and the next moment, like an endless abyss wrapped around him, a fierce and violent force instantly covered him directly!

He was terrified!

He shouted, 'No!'

That was the smell of danger, endless danger!

As a top powerhouse, his ability to sense danger was extremely strong, and as a veteran of combat, his warning ability was even stronger!

This shout of terror resounded through the heavens and the earth!

The moment Yuan Wu's shocking slash returned to his senses and heard such a terrifying cry, they were honestly a little numb, however!

When they saw the scene before them, no one could help but wake up in shock!

For once, the King of China, Lin Hao, had taken a desperate step!

This time, he might be able to succeed, but with two superpowers behind him dealing him a fatal blow, would he still be able to live?

'No!'

It wasn't just Arashiyama who roared, Yuan Wu roared too! He had seen this scene before!

Lin Hao had used this tightrope-walking fighting style before he was infused with purple Qi, and now he was using it again! This was a little too much for him to take! He was confident that if he was given another slash, he could totally kill Arashiyama! But Lin Hao suddenly took this opportunity to try to deliver a fatal blow to Arashiyama!

It's just that the factor assumed by such a risk is too great for him to accept somewhat!

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1459-1460

Chapter 1459

Arashiyama begged for help, and countless people were shocked! But when they saw such a scene, White Dwarf and Forest Wolf T4000 looked at each other and without saying a word, Forest Wolf T4000 accelerated to full speed and went straight for Lin Hao!

White Dwarf was lost in thought for a moment, but he could only follow suit and kill Lin Hao's exposed hole together!

Because he knew that Arashiyama was dead for sure at this moment!

But, they were not at a loss!

Because they could take this opportunity to kill Lin Hao!

White Dwarf couldn't imagine why this Chinese king, why did he dare to be so arrogant? He was a battle-hardened veteran who had fought and died countless times, but he had never seen such a fighting style before!

'No!'

Despair, deep despair!

Arashiyama roared, hibernating for forty years, only to come out and die? They were the big advantage!

If they were given some time, they would surely be victorious! And once they return to the headquarters, they will definitely be able to advance to T4000 level cyborg! And once he returned to the headquarters, he would definitely be able to advance to the top T4000 level, and become a top T4000 level, but now his dream was shattered

He was not happy!

He looked at White Dwarf, who had followed him for forty years, his brother, and who had said he would be behind each of them! But what happened?

He had been abandoned straight away!

Lin Hao was at the height of his Extreme Dao at this moment!

A fist blasted through!

It pierced straight through from within the glow of that collapsing defensive shield, and with a 'boom', it impacted into Arashiyama's chest!

'Zizi zizi~'

The sound of metal hitting a zero-device collision, the sound of machinery about to collapse!

'Ah!' Arashiyama roared in rage and pain, a face twisted straight away!

He looked at Lin Hao in despair, why was his power so terrifying! He had used his stored functions to defend himself, but he still couldn't stop him in the slightest!

With such an explosive power, why hadn't he killed the Forest Wolf T4000?

Could it be that the T4000's defences were stronger?

Maybe so, he wondered if he was a T4000, would he have died

But, he didn't stand a chance!

‘Bang Bang Bang! Dyeing Yi Xi closed whisking Shan Er whisking?’

Several crisp sounds cracked and a chunk of earthy metal came off! What leaked out was his flesh and blood along with his bones

Lin Hao didn’t even blink as his entire body directly penetrated through!

‘Give me death!’ The sky instantly exploded, a huge tightly packed mechanical explosion, scattering parts like a drizzling rain that didn’t stop for a long time!

Arashiyama, who had been a great hero for countless years, was finally dead! This was a result that countless people could not have imagined, and at the same time everyone knew the madness of the King of China, Lin Hao! In such a situation, there was still such a me leisure to help others, did he he not know that his back was all left to the other side?

Lin Hao did not think like that, his aim was to solve this battle, he wanted to go back to see Shen Xiyan early! So how quickly the battle was resolved, how he carried out the operation!

Yuan Wu turned his head and went back to angrily slash White Dwarf who was chasing after him, White Dwarf only felt his eyes light up, then a figure fell into a trance, he was immediately startled and cursed angrily in his heart, madness, all madness!

‘Forest Wolf T4000, now you should be able to kill him alone!’ White Dwarf stroked Yuanwu, who was fuming like mad and had no regard for his own roots, and looked to Forest Wolf T4000 and shouted.

The Forest Wolf T4000 had been prepared to cooperate with White Dwarf in a fight to kill Lin Hao, but now that he was looking at the situation, how could it change so quickly in an instant? How did it come to a situation where he was facing Lin Hao alone again?

Chapter 1460

What the hell kind of crap did HQ send over to back him up?

Did they just send you to watch you die?

Fucking shit! The Forest Wolf T4000 was incredibly angry, but there was nothing he could do, so he slammed his claws towards Lin Hao’s back!

Five silver lights emitted a violent sharpness as they viciously struck down towards Lin Hao’s back!

In an instant, Lin Hao only felt his back being torn apart! His clothes were torn to shreds and his fair white back was exposed, with five bright red claws on it that were shocking to the eyes!

The Forest Wolf T4000 was also bewildered for a moment after the hit, then his eyes lit up and his whole being was smug!

He had faced Lin Hao in a trance of doubt, not feeling like a T4000 level cyborg, but for a moment like this! He felt that he was, was the greatest cyborg's in this world! The strongest of the top powerhouses!

'King of China, suffer death!' The Forest Wolf T4000 shouted angrily, then chased after him once more, forgetting at this moment that he was facing the oppressive force of Lin Hao alone! After all, he now had the upper hand and an absolute advantage!

Although he was also injured and unable to move forward, that blow just now had struck him with sixty percent of his confidence!

He was arrogant once again!

This is a sign of confidence!

Arashiyama is dead!

This was still the first image that countless army light chiefs were immersed in, that a super demon that had been dominating the world for a century was dead! Killed by Genbu!

That, was quite unexpected, but whatever, they! So excited, the worry in their hearts lessened! But Arashiyama was dead, but White Dwarf wasn't! There were still many such demons inside the M-Mechanical Legion, especially that Giant Shark!

But the giant shark is so strong that no one can beat him

They couldn't help but lose a little more, but they didn't dare to hope that anyone would be able to kill the giant shark, so they were still happy with the death of Arashiyama!

And Arashiyama? West whisker zero west er west zero? Once dead, then could White Dwarf be far behind?

They watched as the King of China was pinned down, but Yuanwu sealed the demon, killing White Dwarf as he fled in all directions, and it wasn't long before he was injured!

In other words, if they gave Yuan Wu enough time, Yuan Wu could kill White Dwarf again!

And if King Hua Xia could hold out until Yuan Wu killed White Dwarf, couldn't they kill the Forest Wolf T4000 again?

In that case, had they accomplished the feat of being the first to kill a T4000 cyborg?

Excitement! Endless excitement! Cheers, cheers from deep within!

The battle resumes!

White Dwarf's strength was not weak, but it was weaker than Arashiyama's. After all, his characteristic was only to escape, but in the sky, they were flying by force, and there was no landing point for White Dwarf to escape and attack, so White Dwarf's strength was greatly weakened, which is why White Dwarf followed the Forest Wolf T4000 to face Lin Hao in the first place, because before he came, he had received information that there was a mountain in this area, but who would have thought that the mountain would be flattened? But who would have thought that the mountain had been flattened! The result was that his characteristics could not be used, he was just a veteran with a lot of experience in fighting, except for holding himself as a cyborg, with the help of a few skills, but he was unable to use the cyborg of his original body, such a cyborg, his strength was greatly reduced ah

White dwarf some panic, he looked to the Forest Wolf T4000, found that the Forest Wolf T4000 is suppressing the Chinese king Lin Hao fight, he was relieved, good, the Forest Wolf T4000 suppression is much stronger than the Yuanwu at this moment!
