

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1521-1530

Chapter 1521

Yuan Wu smiled, as usual Qin Hu liked to ask about things he cared about and really didn't care about anything else.

'Yes.' Yuanwu replied, 'Kill them all!'

'T4000 ? and White Dwarf Arashiyama ?' Genbu asked in a mechanical repetition.

Yuanwu nodded his head.

Qin Long was also shocked when he really killed the T4000, and the duo of Arashiyama and White Dwarf.

In the past years, they fought against the T3000, made their best efforts, and finally were retreating from the enemy, and both sides signed a contract not to interfere with each other for these decades, and then it was like they were stagnating, not growing and advancing for many years.

But most of them were because their fighting spirit was worn out and they listened to a few rumours.

There was also the fact that the strength was a bit too strong back then.

They were warned.

It was only later when the M's cyborgs made a strong debut in the Liege with the T4000, slaughtering countless dojos, that this time was mentioned that they were weaker.

But then ?

Their hearts were all worn down a lot, plus the more they followed some old-timers and talked, the more they knew, the more concerns they had in their hearts, leading to many things being lost!

For example, back then, the heart of a good fighter, Qin Long didn't know how many others among the four dared to fight to the death and stand.

Yuan Wu counted as one!

Because Yuan Wu had fought in the war and had a magnificent record.

What about Yang Hu ?

What about himself ?

And what about Taotie ?

The one who suppressed the old monsters and had the most contact with them was Taotie, did he change at all ? Has he been assimilated ?

Who knows ?

And what about myself ?

Himself, huh

‘There will have to be a big battle, only the end is ultimately hard to predict. But with my projection, the strengtheners will die or be injured eight or nine times, the world dojo will go straight backwards for thousands of years, and the final outcome will be that humanity is a scientific society, and the strengtheners, will gradually disappear.’ Yang Hu, who was the least involved in this type of conversation, thought for a long time and spoke.

The moment this statement was made.

Qin Long's whole body trembled, all dead including the Chinese batch ?

But

Will this be acceptable to that group of old timers ?

Qin Long was in deep thought.

Yuan Wu looked at these two people and suddenly felt that they had become a little strange, strange in what way ? Er serve love Shanxi to cover the service ? , could not say clearly.

The night in Western Europe was still beautiful, the Golephant Castle was decorated with lights, Lin Hao was very happy, this was his last quiet night in Western Europe, good thing he had Shen Xiyan by his side, so this beautiful night was even more beautiful.

‘Wife, tomorrow we will have a brand new start.’

‘Honey, what’s wrong?’

Reading

Lin Hao smiled, his eyes were soft, and inside the afterglow were all thick with love, this delicate water-like look stared at Shen Xiyan, who was very embarrassed, shyly lowered her head, then leaned on Lin Hao’s chest.

The moonlight spread over the castle, and the couple leaning against the window were in love with each other, and Wang Shufen behind them did not bother her, leaving the two of them in love, she was very happy in her heart, finally a short break from the busy days.

The next day.

Lin Hao took Shen Xiyan out of Golephant Castle and went directly towards Hospital No. 3.

Where to come Pope Peter would make a brief appearance, but they would not be performing the operation at Number Three still, but would be at Castle Sky.

Pope Peter does not like to walk on earth.

That would be an arrogant statement, but there was no way around it, the earth was the sky in Western Europe and it was the Pope.

Chapter 1522

He did not want to cause too much trouble, so Lin Hao could only let Shen Xiyan go to sleep during the treatment, otherwise Shen Xiyan would not have been able to comprehend the sight.

Of course it was also possible to let Shen Xiyan enjoy this moment of wonder for a short while after she had received her treatment.

‘Honey, do we have to check again today?’ Shen Xiyan asked in a soft voice as she sat on the passenger side of the Lamborghini Poison, stroking her belly as she finished.

This was the fruit of their love, their little baby.

It was something they all cared about as a family.

‘Yes ah, check your body with the baby, you are pregnant now, not only do you need to take care of your body, but also keep an eye on the baby’s health.’ Lin Hao drove the Lamborghini with one hand, and with his other hand, he also touched Shen Xiyan’s stomach.

Inside that belly, it was like a little one was giving him the meaning of his existence, gently kicking Shen Xiyan's belly.

Shen Xi Yan deliberately pretended to be angry and said with a cold face, 'So, love will disappear, right? Do you only like the baby and not me now?'

Lin Hao smiled and was so scared that he stopped the car straight away.

'Honey, I'm not, I'm not, I still love you the most!' Then he hurriedly explained.

Shen Xiyan saw Lin Hao's embarrassed look and laughed out loud.

'I'm just kidding with you.' Said and gracefully turned around, Lin Hao was scared half to death.

Gasping heavily.

'Me? Whisked away from the grill er yi gram? With the baby will always love you too.'

Pope Peter, who was watching the place from the air, was also violently shocked that Lin Hao, the King of China, such a powerful man, would be so embarrassed by a woman's questioning, didn't it seem too incomprehensible.

Can this thing, love, really enchant people so much?

To be so forgetful?

Pope Peter could not understand it, and he did not want to do any research on it.

Everyone had their own quest. Lin Hao's quest might be to live a happy life with Shen Xiyang, while his purpose for living was for eternity!

To find the true meaning of a higher level of power!

Arriving at the entrance of hospital number three.

Early on two doctors were waiting at the entrance.

These two doctors were two of the top doctors in the Western European world, and this was arranged by the Church through the Giant Eagle King.

In the Church's perception, a king is a pope!

After all, the Pope had not walked in the world for a thousand years, and the people who walked in his place were all king-class powerhouses.

So they had gradually gotten used to calling a king-level powerhouse the Pope as well.

And the people who had walked in place of Pope Peter before were the three Vampire Kings, the White Bear King and the Black Crocodile King, and these three people were bound not to explain too much.

'Respected Mr. and Mrs. Lin, good morning.' The two top doctors greeted with respect.

When Shen Xiyan was in Tianhai, she had read the information of many top doctors because she had been seeking medical treatment, and these two in front of her were two of them!

I heard that these two were both top physicians!

The biggest scientific doctors in the world right now, ranked in the top ten in the world!

‘Honey, they, they’re very powerful and famous! They are the top ten doctors in the world.’ Shen Xiyang covered her mouth and said, after she finished, she was too excited.

Lin Hao loved her so much, and the best things in the world were always for her.

She was so touched.

Lin Hao smiled gently, rubbed Shen Xiyang’s head and glanced towards the sky as well.

These two people didn’t need to see that they were arranged by the Church, and pretty much what Pope Peter wanted, and he deserved his gratitude.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1523-1524

Chapter 1523

There are not many things that can be seen by Shen Xiyang nowadays, and not many things that can earn her a smile.

So anything that could make Shen Xiyang smile would be especially appreciated by Lin Hao.

Pope Peter was helpless.

‘So obsessed? It’s almost not like a top powerhouse, more like a seed of infatuation, that country of China, it’s really amazing.’ Pope Peter said.

He had rarely heard of the existence of such a person!

When? Serving Wuwu closed West Lu’er closed? Rang was in the West!

In that part of China, on the contrary, one heard a lot about it.

He looked towards the territory of F. He couldn’t help but guess what the so romantic country was famous for.

Perhaps it was a false name?

Or as the Chinese saying goes: what is missing is what you like to brag about?

Pope Peter smiled.

After the two doctors had made the arrangements and brought in the world's top hypnotist to put Shen Xiyan to sleep, Lin Hao gestured towards Pope Peter in the sky.

Pope Peter nodded, and only then did Lin Hao pick up a huge glass cover and fly towards the castle in the sky.

He couldn't just carry Shen Xiyan and fly towards the sky above, it would hurt her body!

After all, his own body could withstand the speed, but Shen Xiyan might not be able to withstand such a terrifying wind force!

She was only a mortal, and going beyond the limits of her body would cause her muscles to suffer certain injuries, and in severe cases, endanger her life!

Lin Hao did not want to solve one problem and then encounter another!

And this problem was not necessarily solved.

'M, if you have the chance, you must go in and explore! What kind of secrets are hidden in the forbidden area of the fifty-one of what?'

‘Pope Peter of Western Europe, who hasn’t been out of the mountain for a thousand years, is as good as a shit-stirrer when he does!’

‘What about the Holy Lord of the Mechanical Legion? What kind of secrets exist again, anyway?’

Ning Rong shook his head.

Arriving at the castle’s heel, Pope Peter personally unlocked the ban.

Shen Xiyang was lying inside the glass instruments with a calm face, and when Pope Peter looked at her, he also felt graceful and noble, but when he thought about it, if it was an ordinary woman, how could she make the Chinese King Lin Hao so crazy.

‘All the instruments are ready. As long as the King of China allows it, we can administer the treatment now.’ Pope Peter brought Lin Hao inside the castle basement, then said seriously.

Lin Hao looked at Shen Xiyang delicately, looked at her face with divinely expressive eyes, and finally stretched out his white hands, brushing them gently across her cheeks, and finally placed them on her stomach, murmuring in a low voice, ‘Xiyang, after today, you will never have to run west again, and I will never let you get hurt even a little bit again!’

‘I will protect you, and I will protect our child!’ Lin Hao said softly, yet his tone was steady with a secret vow.

Pope Peter looked at this picture and although he didn’t really understand it, he knew in his heart that this was love.

‘Alright. It’s time to administer the save.’ Lin Hao nodded towards Pope Peter.

After saying this Lin Hao took out the Heart of Regeneration.

A vessel held the Heart of Regeneration, and as Pope Peter manipulated it, the Heart of Regeneration on the vessel gradually became smaller and smaller.

The power inside, however, did not change and, which had previously smelled of rage, now became much gentler.

The image was bizarre, and Lin Hao stared at Pope Peter, carefully observing his manipulation. Although Lin Hao could not understand it, nor could he see through the mysteries, the purpose of Lin Hao’s stare was to see if Pope Peter was playing any little tricks in it.

Chapter 1524

If Pope Peter played any little tricks inside, Lin Hao would be the first to find out.

They didn't want to be at the mercy of anyone else. After all this work, if they ended up being an object that could be manipulated and threatened, Lin Hao was afraid he would go crazy.

Shen Xiyang's beautiful face was still beautiful at this moment, today she had painted beautiful makeup, she told Lin Hao that she wanted to be beautiful at all times and then make the Lin Hao very respectable outside.

It was just a simple statement from her, but Lin Hao took it to heart!

She had to be beautiful all the time!

However, Shen Xiyang's life expectancy is very short, so what can she do to be beautiful all the time?

The only way to make Shen Xiyang beautiful forever is to obtain the other half of the Heart of Regeneration.

So to get the other half of the regenerating heart became the strongest thing Lin Hao could do at this moment.

Although M's mechanical army was stationed there!

But so what?

He was willing to do anything for the sake of Yan.

The regenerating heart gradually kneaded into an object as big as a fingernail, and eventually it was still getting smaller, and in the end, it became a small object that only a strong person like Lin Hao could see.

‘This object is as big as a nano component, it has solidity and is also very powerful, it is implanted inside your wife’s mind and can heal all injuries and has the effect of stabilising her face, of course it only stabilises her face, it doesn’t have the effect of stabilising her life span.’

‘I still say that if you want your wife to live longer, you need the other half of the regenerating heart. And as long as you have it, I can implant it for you unconditionally.’

Pope Peter slowly implanted the Heart of Regeneration inside Shen Xiyang’s brain domain amidst Lin Hao’s sharp eyes.

When the energy inputted by Pope Peter touched Shen Xiyang’s hair, Shen Xiyang’s brow furrowed slightly? Aifu steak Aizen Yifu ground?

Not much time later, everything was silent.

Pope Peter did not know when he had withdrawn another one of the most developed scientific instruments in the world today, and it probed Shen Xiyan's brain field.

Lin Hao watched from the sidelines.

With a speed that could be seen with the naked eye, the injured tone in Shen Xiyan's brain was healing fast!

Ten minutes later, Lin Hao saw that Shen Xiyan's face looked like it was covered with a layer of white frost, Lin Hao was instantly shocked and started to get a little worried, but immediately afterwards, Lin Hao saw the white frost on Shen Xiyan's face dissipate, and the next moment, the qi and blood on her face was red, and her whole person was even more perfect, more stunning, more stunning than before!

At this moment, she was!

Lin Hao looked on wide-eyed!

The image that Gu Jail had seen!

It actually appeared alive in front of Lin Hao at that moment!

That was!

‘This can’t be!’ Lin Hao exclaimed in a low voice, his body involuntarily stepping backwards as Pope Peter wondered why the King of China, Lin Hao, was like this.

Why would he be like this?

This was too baffling, wasn’t it?

But he didn’t have to stop the healing in his hands, instead he channeled his power again!

Lin Hao watched and kept shaking his head!

‘Could it be that the image that I saw that day was really true? But! A world like that! Why would Xi Yan look like a queen! No, an unparalleled queen! A queen whose strength cannot be seen at all! She’s just a thin woman, a woman who needs my care!’

‘What will I do if that day does come after the days of yore? What shall I do with the child? In a world of nothingness like that, will Xiyan be alone? Will she miss me, will she miss the child!’

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1525-1526

Chapter 1525

‘What kind of a world is that, again? Was Shyam used to staying? Me! If that picture is really true! I would have been there for her! Shyan! No matter what the future holds, be it mortal! Or an immortal! Or a demon! Or a queen! She must have me by her side!’

‘I don’t care who that person is! As long as it’s Xiyan! She is the only wife who will remain the same in this life! No one can change that!’

What are the thoughts that keep passing through my mind? What about the fact that he was not going to be able to marry her? Lin Hao finally made up his mind and finally calmed himself down and said indifferently.

Everything he had with Shen Xiyan had not been experienced by any of them, so why would he need to start becoming less like himself for a fleeting image?

There was really no need for that.

Lin Hao, who had shifted a mindset, looked at Shen Xiyan and was just surprised to find that his wife had become better looking, had become more beautiful, which made him happy and feel happy.

Waiting a little longer if Xiyan got up and saw herself like this, would she be even happier.

Lin Hao smiled and laughed happily.

Inside Pope Peter's afterimage, the King of China, Lin Hao, looked like a madman, sometimes sad, sometimes laughing with pleasure, and inside another layer of the picture he could not understand, all this laughter would arise because of a mundane woman!

You know, what a powerful man Lin Hao, the King of China, is.

Pope Peter shook his head in dark thought, but proceeded to start treating up Shen Xiyan, it was almost over and he couldn't afford to be distracted!

He didn't know about Lin Hao's quest, but his own, which had been going on for a thousand years!

He couldn't afford to lose his hope when he was about to touch it, or he couldn't forgive himself!

As the energy was fed in, Shen Xiyan's stunningly beautiful face slowly appeared in a warm halo of light, the warm gas like a warm sun, like an immortal implant.

After they dissipated.

Pope Peter also breathed a sigh of relief.

It was over.

Shen Xiyan woke up immediately!

Lin Hao was incomparably excited and quietly looked at Shen Xiyan as her beautiful eyes faintly opened.

With the slight movement of her beautiful eyes, Lin Hao's heart was followed by a restless excitement.

Pope Peter said softly to Lin Hao, 'King of China, I am a little unwell, I will go back to rest and rest first, I will come out in half an hour.'

Lin Hao glanced at Pope Peter and found that Pope Peter was incredibly weak at the moment, and it looked like he had indeed been somewhat affected by the ripples.

Lin Hao looked at Pope Peter gratefully, 'Pope Peter, for saving his life, Lin Hao will definitely not be gracious enough to return the favour!'

Pope Peter smiled, his heart was incomparably satisfied, a promise from Lin Hao was simply too important to him!

He also did not expect that Lin Hao would come back with a promise at this time, he once again looked at Shen Xiyan, this woman, she should have saved the earth in her previous life.

'A show of hands, and we it's an agreement between us! Well, no more disturbing your time with your wife.' Said Pope Peter as he directly turned and left, and in a blink of an eye, Pope Peter disappeared.

Inside the container, Shen Xiyan slowly awoke, she rubbed her eyes and raised her head towards Lin Hao, when she saw Lin Hao, she was first delighted, before looking around.

'Honey, where are we? Why did I suddenly fall asleep?'

Lin Hao rubbed Shen Xiyan's head, incomparably delicate and attentive, he felt the qi rhythm inside Shen Xiyan's body and found that the qi rhythm inside was thick, it looked like the Heart of Regeneration had not just protected the brain domain in her body, but had also transformed his body!

Chapter 1526

This made Lin Hao happy once again.

'This is at the Castle in the Sky, the place where you get you and the baby examined, and let me tell you, this is an opportunity I've begged you for at considerable cost! This doctor, he's the kind that doesn't save people for decades!' Lin Hao said with a smile.

Shen Xiyan glared at Lin Hao and pouted as if to say, 'Is that still a doctor if you don't save people for decades? What kind of doctor has such skills?

A natural born miracle doctor?

Lin Hao said in his heart, this was still the time he had deliberately shortened, if he had said that the other party had not come out to save people for thousands of years, there was no telling what Xiyan would think mentally.

'Wife, you feel your body now, does it feel different?' Lin Hao put aside the nonsense inside his mind, looked at Shen Xiyan and asked seriously.

Only then did Shen Xiyan seriously start to observe the changes in her body.

Not long after? The first time she saw the change was when she felt the change in her body. After that, Shen Xiyan felt the changes within her body.

For example, she felt that the piece of her face was very tender, watery and moist.

For example, she felt that the qi and blood in her body was very active, as if she was young, or as energetic as when she was 15 or 16 years old.

This made Shen Xiyan slightly excited, she hurriedly took out her mobile phone, then opened the camera, looking at herself inside the camera, Shen Xiyan turned off all the beauty face, then looked at her own appearance, in a flash Shen Xiyan sat up in shock.

‘Honey, this doctor is so powerful, I feel like I feel like I’ve been used by him like a beauty surgery, I feel like my face doesn’t age anymore eh, so amazing, and I feel so energetic, and I don’t have a trace of sleepiness anymore.’

Shen Xiyan said with a face that could feel that she was really happy.

Lin Hao was once again grateful to Pope Peter at the bottom of his heart.

Every time he could make Shen Xiyan happy, Lin Hao would be grateful!

Lin Hao hugged Shen Xiyan and rubbed her to his heart's content in his arms, the days of worry were finally over, the incident of Shen Xiyan's condition was finally over.

This journey of experience had changed him in many ways, even some of them were things that he found horrifying as hell, and it was good that it was all over.

Although he knew that it was only a short-lived end, but so what?

No one could stop him and Shen Xiyan from being together forever and ever.

'Husband, thank you.' Shen Xiyan rubbed against Lin Hao's arms and said happily.

'You've called me husband, and you're still saying thank you? So, love is going to disappear right?' Lin Hao joked, his mood happy and incomparably soothing.

Shen Xiyan pouted and hit Lin Hao, then immediately gently stroked the place she slapped again, everything delicate, all appearing in nature, so simple, so natural, some love, already deep in the marrow, deep inside a subconscious.

‘Just kidding, where are we now? I feel how there is a feeling of weightlessness, it’s the same kind as when doing a roller coaster acceleration, a very heavy weightlessness.’ Shen Xiyan glanced towards the surroundings and then opened her mouth to ask.

Lin Hao also glanced around, a feeling of weightlessness?

He couldn’t feel it now, the gravity above the earth seemed minimal to him nowadays, but to Shen Xiyan, it was still quite heavy.

It just didn’t occur to him that Shen Xiyan was able to feel this clear sensation when she first recovered from her illness, it seemed that the change brought about by her regenerating heart after she was saved and cured was still very intuitive.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1527-1528

Chapter 1527

How nice.

Thanks.

‘That’s because we’re above the Sky Castle now.’ Lin Hao said with a smile.

Shen Xiyan gave Lin Hao a blank look, still the sky castle, ‘Lin Hao! You can’t keep making jokes about me, or I’ll get angry.’

Lin Hao was incomparably helpless, what he said was true, but Shen Xi Yan thought he was lying to her, which made Lin Hao helpless, very helpless.

And he even called him by his name, expressing his displeasure.

‘Xiyan, when have I ever lied to you, just get down from the container now and I’ll take you out to see.’ Lin Hao supported Shen Xiyan with one hand and gestured for her to take a look inside the garden of the Sky Castle.

When Shen Xiyan saw that Lin Hao really didn’t look like he was joking, her eyes revealed surprise, on top of her stunning beauty at the moment, Shen Xiyan looked even more impressive, it was just a pity that today, Shen Xiyan was only blossoming with stunning flowers for Lin Hao alone, otherwise, there was no telling how many people would fall under her beauty.

‘We are, really, really above the Sky Castle? There really is a sky castle directly above?’ Shen Xiyan slowly descended from the container platform, and Lin Hao carefully supported her, being extremely careful for fear of the slightest accident.

‘You’ll know if you go out and take a look.? 扒爱侍伍意扒地零?’ Lin Hao looked towards the outside and said seriously.

Pope Peter, who was hiding inside the secret room while recovering his strength and feeling the Chinese King Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan, looked at the scene and suddenly felt like he saw something.

It was his youthful self, longing for a woman.

‘To think that after a thousand years, I would also recall the person deep in my memory back then, only that, it’s a pity that it’s been a thousand years, she probably doesn’t even have ashes now.’ The look on Pope Peter’s face was not sure if it was bitterness or what, as he spoke indifferently.

Inside the garden of the Sky Castle, Shen Xiyan gently stroked the clouds that floated past her head, her whole person felt like she was caught in an indescribable image, her expression was shocked, and inside her eyes, even though they were wounded stroking the clouds, they still felt incredible.

She murmured, ‘So the sky castle really exists, living inside the clouds, it’s just, it’s just too unbelievable.’

Lin Hao fiddled with the clouds, he was so used to seeing them that he was used to them, but for Shen Xiyan’s sake, he still looked just as curious as if he was seeing them for the first time.

‘Yes, I was just like you when I first saw it, I couldn’t believe that such a scene in front of me was real at all.’ Lin Hao sighed with emotion.

Shen Xiyan glanced at Lin Hao and beamed a little, then watched the clouds flow seriously, the air was heavy with water, wetting her hair, all her attention was on this for a moment, the next moment she felt a stream of air flowing through her, very light and weak, appearing for a moment, then disappearing again.

Elusive and unable to capture it, Shen Xiyan was a little disappointed, but immediately turned to look at the clouds, and she suddenly raised her voice and said, 'Husband, how about we look towards the bottom will ?'

'Definitely nothing can be seen.' Lin Hao said, but still led Shen Xiyan towards the edge of the castle, they stood next to the forbidden system and grabbed the parapet to look towards the bottom.

Shen Xiyan's body shivered a little, she tried to calm down, but her face was still a little pale. Lin Hao looked at the side of her face and noticed that she kept going to try to open her eyes, only for some reason, she could only squint.

Lin Hao looked and said with a small laugh, 'Honey, don't be afraid, we can't fall.'

Chapter 1528

Shen Xiyan stepped on Lin Hao and her embarrassment was caught by Lin Hao.

Shen Xiyan struggled to open her eyes, and it took three seconds before she could fully open her eyes, what entered her eyes was light, a close contact with light, but what entered her eyes was also blue, the azure earth, and the vastness of the stars, she could not see a single living object.

‘It’s true that I can’t see anything.’ Shen Xiyang said with some disappointment, she leaned her back against the fence at the edge of the castle and looked at the castle in front of her, compared to her Golephant, this sky garden was obviously much smaller, but compared to the Golephant, it looked even more mysterious and unbelievable.

‘Honey, do you think that if I go back and tell Mum that we came to the castle in the sky, will she believe me? Or, would Yue Yue believe it?’ Shen Xiyang asked seriously.

Lin Hao smiled and said directly without even thinking, ‘Definitely won’t believe it.’

‘Yes, if I hadn’t seen it with my own eyes and felt it myself, I wouldn’t have believed that there were still castles in the air in the 21st century.’ Shen Xiyang gave a hint and followed Lin Hao’s words down the line.

She held Lin Hao’s hand, tightly interlocking her fingers as she lifted it up towards the sky and said, ‘But I will never forget that we came to the Castle in the Sky.’

Such a moment was warm and cosy, and Lin Hao loved it very much, but the time was going.

No, Shen Xi Yan's time was flying by.

If one went by the years that Pope Peter and the others were living through, it was Shen Xiyan's time that was passing at a faster rate than theirs, and in the twinkling of an eye, he might be a hundred years away, and then he himself would still be himself, and Shen Xiyan would be gone forever!

Lin Hao, somewhat unable to accept such an image!

'Dear Sir and Madam, lunch has been prepared here, it's all the specialties of the Castle in the Sky, and it will be relatively good for your health after eating.' ? Shay woo woo woo woo woo woo ? Pope Peter had long since recovered, he just kept feeling a little out of place going out, however, after waiting for a long time, he found that the King of China and his wife just kept standing at the edge of the forbidden area, as if they had no intention of getting tired of it, which made him a little bitter, but he finally spoke up to remind.

After all, today is the King of China's last day in Western Europe, and if he wants to experience it openly in the future, he needs the ZF of Western Europe to agree together, or else when he comes, the countries will have to set up nuclear weapons waiting for him

Although Pope Peter gives people a wave of unworldly, but many things, he is still very clear.

For example, if he himself, rashly went to any of the powerhouse nations, I'm afraid he would be surrounded by all the people, questioning him about what he wanted.

Of course if he didn't expose himself in plain sight, there weren't many kingdoms that could sense his presence and the signs of finding him.

'Thanks.' Shen Xiyao let go of Lin Hao's hand and said gratefully towards Pope Peter.

Shen Xiyao's side face was slightly red, as if she was embarrassed.

Lin Hao went up to take her hand again and was shrugged off by Shen Xiyao, which caused Pope Peter to laugh gently.

Feeling the various energy fluids flowing on top of the table, Lin Hao revealed a smile, which Pope Peter heartily acknowledged. Lin Hao hadn't expected that he had only spoken to the Giant Eagle King and hadn't even had the chance to mention this one thing before Pope Peter knew about it and then took out all of his stored things.

Lin Hao asked with his voice transmission, 'Pope Peter, my wife doesn't have to worry about consuming too much of these things and having the energy backfire on her body as a result of consuming too much, right?'

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1529-1530

Pope Peter replied by voice transmission, 'Mr. Hua Xia Wang, don't worry too much, your wife's body is now much stronger than the average person, according to your Chinese strength division, now stands above the port of the Ascended Patriarch, as long as there is an opportunity, she can enter the Ascended Patriarch, perhaps after this lunch, she has advanced to the next level.'

Pope Peter continued after a pause, 'But you can't rejoice too early, even if she has advanced to Ascended Patriarch, though? Icy Aizen Serving Chasan? It's that her lifespan is still unable to increase, you yourself are the one who cultivated over, naturally you are clear about the feeling of sudden physical changes that comes with growth, your wife's current state is, to use a phrase you don't like, the same as the Mechanical Legion of M, with strength, but no lifespan growth.'

Lin Hao's eyes first lit up, and then after being reminded of this, his whole body looked disappointed, it seemed to be a waste of joy.

'It's alright, I will change this one sooner or later.'

Pope Peter smiled, 'I believe in you, haha, seeing you and your wife reminds me of the admiration I had in my heart when I was young, it's just a pity that so much time has passed that I can't remember the other person's appearance somewhat, it's funny to say that, haha.' At the end of his speech, Pope Peter looked slightly embarrassed.

Lin Hao smiled at his words, then added, 'If you had such a heart and didn't live within this castle, you would have met someone you liked too. But I still advise you, ah, you have a lot of time, why not go for a walk on earth? Perhaps you will meet someone you like?' Pope Peter smiled, and without a hint of silence, refused outright: 'I do not wish to leave too many ties in my possession.'

‘Unlike you, you are people who are inside this world and space, I am clearly an existence that is beyond the rules of the world at the moment, and I don’t want to be like you and have to change too much for that.’

‘When I first thought of her, the stirring in my heart wasn’t too much, but the longer I looked at you, the more my thoughts increased a lot. Thoughts like this, which come up inside my mind, I think make it feel dangerous. So, I am going to think about this thought and stop.’

Pope Peter said as he communicated with Lin Hao while walking.

Lin Hao listened to Pope Peter’s words and glanced towards him, no expression could be seen on his face, to which this topic between the two of them ended here.

The long dining table was furnished with the standard furnishings of a palace, but when you think about it, this was after all the palace where the Pope lived, and the furnishings inside were all set to the highest specifications.

Looking at the dazzling array of fruit and meat on the table, Shen Xiyan only felt her taste buds squirming and swallowed a little indecently. Lin Hao looked at Shen Xiyan’s small movements and showed a small scoff at the corner of his mouth, causing Shen Xiyan to give a fierce white glance, then hummed in a low voice, and even glanced at Lin Hao with a meaningful you-wait threatening look.

‘Madam Lin, feel free to dine, we don’t need much etiquette here.’ Pope Peter said with a smile.

In Shen Xiyan’s eyes, she couldn’t see anything different about Pope Peter at this moment from others.

What she saw was a modest and gentlemanly master of the castle, elegant in his posture, calm in his actions, sensible and poised, not holding pride like other Westerners, and she had a good feeling about Pope Peter.

Chapter 1530

Shen Xiyan glanced at Lin Hao, his eyes had a questioning meaning.

Lin Hao nodded slightly and personally poured her a cup of the blue jelly that he had drunk earlier, a jelly rich in terrifying energy that he had drunk himself and was sure was safe.

After all, he was so badly injured at the time, and Pope Peter used this to heal his own injuries anyway, and of course he was healed of his own.

Pope Peter looked at what Lin Hao had done, and his eyes were a little fleshy, this bottle of Blue Star River was the last bottle he would have in this castle, and there would never be another one.

The forgiveness for brewing the Blue Star River, that is, the deep collection, could never be put together again in this world.

But then again, after thinking about it, it seemed that he didn't need to be in possession of it anymore.

For if he succeeded with Lin Hao, then long no need for this thing, and if he did not succeed with Lin Hao, there was not much use in wanting it.

After a thousand years of waiting, he also had some mental urgency and couldn't wait any longer!

Shen Xiyan took the goblet handed to him by Lin Hao and gently shook it, his eyes dead set on it, the cup of agaric syrup was glowing with blue gas inside, like a river of stars inside the night sky, it was beautiful.

Shen Xiyan finally picked it up, and under Lin Hao's gaze, she gently took a sip, and as the jasper entered her mouth, Shen Xiyan's eyebrows twinkled.

Then she began to taste it slowly, and eventually a cup went into her belly.

The next moment, a layer of blue Qi rose above Shen Xiyan's body, and Lin Hao felt a myriad of majestic powers converging there, he looked to Pope Peter, who smiled and nodded!

Lin Hao then got a little excited!

‘Husband, I feel something flowing within me, it’s refreshing and pleasant and makes me feel like I’m full of power, how is this? Ai Xi Pao Wu Ai Wu closed service? What’s going on?’ Shen Xiyan’s eyes brightened and her tone inquired.

Lin Hao squeezed Shen Xiyan’s hand excitedly, endless revelry in his heart, he was simply too excited! He was very happy, very happy, Shen Xiyan had advanced to the level of Ascended Master! She had a body structure that surpassed that of ordinary people, with the ability to defend herself against danger.

Although she didn’t need too much of such power, as he, Lin Hao, would always be by Shen Xiyan’s side, yet! In the past, Lin Hao was always worried about what it would be like if he was transferred away from the mountain and there was no one around Shen Xiyan who could protect her absolutely.

In the past, Lin Hao did not dare to think about it because even though he had placed all kinds of protection around Shen Xiyan, several waves in the open and dark, but after seeing the absolute power, he felt that those people might be useful against ordinary people, but for people like them, not to mention their peak strength in the middle of Grand Master, bursting to reach the late Grand Master strength, or even not.

It is the early Grand Master or the peak of the Innate Master, he felt that the people he had arranged, in front of this group of people, could not achieve anything.

Now, Shen Xiyan had the strength of an Innate Sovereign, and even if she was hit by the other party's panic moves, she could still resist the slightest injury, unlike before when she was so weak that she would simply die at the slightest touch.

The excitement was unbearable, and Lin Hao was deeply grateful.

'Husband, what's wrong with you?' Shen Xiyan looked at Lin Hao's near-madness and could not help but ask, after all, this was in someone else's home, so excited, it was inevitable that he had lost some of his manners and looked unseemly.
