

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1601-1610

Chapter 1601

‘Sister, why do you keep looking at me, those who know won’t care anything, if they don’t know us, they will think we have some special relationship. Haha, after all, I have Xiyan beside me, look at Xiyan little greedy cat like, smiling at me with every bite, such a loving look, with your demented look, making me look like a scum, this I don’t accept

Lin Hao took in Lin Qingcheng and Mo Tianji’s appearance and couldn’t help but speak up.

Lin Qingcheng hummed lightly and looked at Shen Xiyan, finding that Shen Xiyan also looked embarrassed and slapped Lin Hao. Just now Lin Hao said she was a little glutton, she was hungry, that was because their baby was also eating ah, but Lin Hao was good, a look of blame, really angry, Shen Xiyan thought of this, eating more and more, as if gambling.

Wang Shufen looked at Shen Xiyan like this, put down her chopsticks and was ready to say something, but was stopped by Leng Qiuya, Wang Shufen looked at Leng Qiuya with a puzzled face, her eyes seemed to ask, ‘Why did you stop me?’

Leng Qiu Ya laughed and said softly, ‘This is a small fight between the couple, and this is the temper of Xiyan. Besides, didn’t Xiyan herself say that she was pregnant and had a share in the baby. And the more you eat when you’re pregnant, the heavier the baby will weigh when it’s born in the future.’

Wang Shufen smiled, and only then did she pick up her chopsticks again, only her eyes still moved away with some reluctance, although she was old, she had not experienced some things, so it was inevitable that she did not understand some of them, and now once Leng Qiu Ya explained, she instantly understood.

Lin Qingcheng glared at Lin Hao, jokingly joked: 'Yes, yes, having a wife and forgetting your sister, the example is you, right? Blame me for being too nice to you in the past and letting you treat me so cruelly, Xiyan ah, you must teach Lin Hao a good lesson in the future, so that he can't be so heartless!'

Shen Xiyan nodded heavily, 'Sister, don't worry, I will definitely teach him a good lesson! If he doesn't listen, we'll both deal with him together! Hehehe! Then he won't have anywhere to cry about it! Hmph!'

Lin Hao instantly pretended to wail, 'Honey, you can't do this to me, if you do this to me, the baby will definitely be unhappy when he sees how embarrassed I am.'

Shen Xiyan pouted, 'The baby won't see it!'

Lin Hao heatedly laughed and turned to the other three couples and said with great glee, 'The other three young and strong guys, how come you haven't seen your wives' bellies move a bit, who is the one with the problem? If there is a problem, go to the hospital as soon as possible, don't let my baby be able to go to and from school by then, you have only just moved.'

Lin Hao's words caused Gu Yue and Hou Yijun to blush, and Jun Wu Rui smiled brightly, 'Hey, don't worry, it's only a matter of a few days.'

This sentence came out, causing Hou Yijun to hammer Jun Wuhuai a few times, Hou Yijun had never thought that her husband Jun Wuhuai had ever been so honest, he was simply too honest, such a thing, could he say it? The actual fact is that you will need to be able to notice the pregnancy after 20 days, so it's not like you'll be able to react right away.

Lovingly Yi zero cover the ground Shan? This person in general.

After three rounds of wine, Lin Hao said to the crowd, 'I've almost eaten, those of you who aren't full continue, those who are full can have some dessert after dinner, especially you, Xiyan, eat some. Don't just eat by yourself, the baby wants to eat too!'

'As for those who are not pregnant, you can eat more too, after all, your husbands will be tossing you around as much as they can next! Haha, just look at what Brother Jun just said about the tigers and wolves, I can tell he must be very envious of me! I have to say, as a man, I definitely want to have my own children

Lin Qingcheng listened with shyness, Shen Xiyan but fallen was still a bit uncomfortable in her heart, but when she heard Lin Hao say that, she was instantly in a good mood, and also looked as if things weren't big enough to fan the flames and said, 'Aiya, the baby inside my belly is awesome, it's starting to kick my belly

Gu Yue couldn't help but give Shen Xiyan a white look, 'How old is he and he's kicking your stomach

‘Hey, I’m talking about you, look at you guys have been in a relationship for quite some time, and you’re still so conservative, really, hey, speaking of when we used to know each other, it wasn’t like this’ Shen Xi Yan said with a big grin.

But halfway through, she was directly covered by Gu Yue, who shouted, ‘Shen Xiyan, you shut up!’ She said and also did not forget to look at night one, found night one face with a smile, other than that, does not have any of the same expression, then hung in the chest of the stone steady down, Shen Xiyan also just reacted to cover the mouth, he he laughed, began to tease Hou Yijun, she still quite like to tease Hou Yijun, after all, this sister’s former glory although not the kind she envied, but the thought of the gallant high cold queen Now full of shyness and not left or right, it puts her in a great mood

Looking at the crowd began to let go of chatting, Lin Hao said to Gu Nansheng Mo Tianji Zhong Baiming a few people, ‘A few of you can also find a tea table inside the courtyard can talk about the future development trend, I still have some things to talk about with Brother Jun

Gu Nansheng has long since put down his chopsticks, his recent health is not very good, the doctor told him to take good care of his body, can not eat too much, today if not for the party at Lin Hao’s house, I’m afraid a few egg whites with a glass of juice will muddle through ‘Lin Hao ah, if you have any orders for things, remember to tell us, then we will not disturb you and the Jun family head. A few people, let’s go outside and talk, besides this Qian family, recently there are quite a few stupid forces, knocking the mountain to shake the tiger seems like something we need to do more in the future ah.’ Gu Nansheng said with a smile, pulling a few people to go outside.

Wang Shufen Leng Qiuya two people looked at each other, smiled at the others', all understanding, began to pack up

Zhong Baiming as a small minion like, Gu Nansheng shouted this side, he absolutely did not dare to go over there, on quietly playing the hand, do not know also thought it was the Lin family's maids

Iyi Yi Eryi whisked Yi? Inside the study.

The matter of the Battling Knife Gate is solved, but the matter of the martial arts world seems to be imminent, and the two of them are ready to let loose this time to talk about a lot of things.

Lin Hao took out a bottle of red wine, Plato 1979, Y's Royal Collection, Jun Wu Regret just looked at it and didn't say anything, but handed over the wine glass and waited for Lin Hao to finish pouring the wine before taking a gentle sip and nodding his head slightly.

Lin Hao opened his mouth and said, 'Brother Jun, the matter of the martial world, the ancient prison of Eastern Ying, and yes, the mechanical legion, the divine collection and other matters, let's be right.'

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1603-1604

Jun Wu Regret put down his wine cup, his expression serious, no longer lazy, an aura of a monarch instantly burst out, Lin Hao also put away his idle aura, the whole person's aura was huge, the aura of a king enveloped the whole study!

At this moment, within this nearly 100 square meters area of the study, not a single sound could come in, nor could it be monitored

Jun Wu Regrets nodded: 'The matter of the martial arts world is imminent, we must dare to finish solving it before other matters!'

Lin Hao then spoke, 'To solve the matter of the martial world, then there must be a docking with the Dragon Sect. Within the Dragon Sect although I have slightly heard of the four main town guards now, all I have seen is Yuan Wu and then there is a secret about Yang Hu that I have heard, other than that I don't know anything.'

After Jun Wu Ren heard Lin Hao's words, especially the naming of Yang Hu? 陆闭染西伍零意染? When he did, his body jerked up and stared at Lin Hao while his eyes burned, but his heart also trembled, Yang Hu again?

The last time within the Dragon Gate, it was also because of Yang Hu's matter that ended up in a disagreement. At that time, he also sensed that there was something strange about the aura within the entire Dragon Sect, and now the news that Lin Hao brought from the Western Church's main camp was also related to Yang Hu, so wouldn't that really mean that Yang Hu was deceitful?

But

This made Jun Wu Regret somewhat unable to accept

Jun Wu Regret asked, 'Brother Lin, regarding the matter of Yang Hu's town, I wonder if you have any different news?'

Lin Hao also looked at the drastic change in the expression on Jun Wu Regret's face just now, and his heart was instantly clear, it seemed that this Yang Hu, there was really something wrong with him.

Lin Hao replied, 'I learned from the Western Church that Yang Hu had once gone deep into the Ancient Prison.' This information was later consolidated by Lin Hao, and it contained information passed on by Bigir, as well as what Pope Peter's side had told him.

As expected, Jun Wu Ren leaned directly on top of his seat, first letting out a sigh of relief and then breathing heavily, the expression on his face was one of frustration.

Lin Hao looked at it in his eyes.

This time he was even more certain that there was something wrong with Yang Hu.

Jun Wu Ren spoke, 'However, Brother Lin, I'm afraid that the matter of Yang Hu's town guard cannot be pursued too much at this moment, if the matter of the Martial Dao Realm is not even solved on the outside and goes deeper inside, I'm afraid that it will really become a mess! After all, you also know that although we two are powerful, but not yet belong to the orthodox, we want to purge some miscellaneous, but out of the division without a name, not good overbearing out! Don't end up with the intention to do good, but make bad things

Lin Hao nodded, Jun Wuhuo said is not without reason, they are now strong, but also very much want to serve the motherland, at the same time Lin Hao also have their own selfishness, but no matter how to say, some issues are not able to say what you want to do, or just rash and direct rush, there are many doors and doors, if easily break the rules inside, the world will be a mess

'I understand, but now after docking the news, at least we all know some of the problems that already exist and also exist for many years, so we can do circumvent!' Lin Hao took a sip of wine and looked at Jun Wu Regret.

Jun Wu Ren lifted his wine cup, gesturing to clink it, and changed the subject, 'There are actually a lot of things going on with the Dragon Sect, and a lot more.'

Lin Hao waved his hand, thinking that Jun Wu Regret was in a hurry, and said with a smile, 'We still have a long time, we can take our time and be right.'

Jun Wu Ren smiled sarcastically, Fang was indeed a bit anxious, after all, now the Dragon Sect was in trouble, that was his former place of pilgrimage, his heart really didn't want to hear of any hint of problems over there, Jun Wu Ren touched his nose, squeezed out a smile and said in a deep voice, 'Brother Lin, time is not very long, more and more people are gathering over at the Ancient Prison of Eastern Ying, although they are mostly small shrimps, but when the number of small shrimps reaches a certain amount, the big brother level characters will have to enter in droves, leaving us with little time

Chapter 1604

Lin Hao had originally thought that Jun Wu Ren was just a little anxious, but now it seemed that he was eager. The matter of the Dragon Sect, to be honest at the time Lin Hao heard it was also quite shocked, although afterwards did not put too much on it, after all, an Innate Sovereign Grand Perfect, in front of Lin Hao is really nothing, of course, even if he had advanced to Grand Sovereign, Lin Hao would not have looked twice, today's own, strength is comparable to Grand Sovereign Peak Perfect, Beginner Grand Sovereign? In front of himself is really not enough to look at ‘It’s just that these issues, still need more communication, after all, the information is not correct all, inevitably there will be some misunderstanding when the time comes.’ Lin Hao spoke seriously and corrected.

Jun Wu Ren nodded his head, he understood all these issues, but he still had the matter of the Dragon Sect on his mind.

‘Brother Lin, I understand all the reasoning, so let’s move on to the next pair of information.’

Lin Hao was then satisfied with the state of Jun Wu Regret, huge information smashed in, to be honest spare Jun Wu Regret was so flustered, if this information smashed into the Dragon Sect with the martial world, I’m afraid it would cause even more panic

‘Brother Jun, talk to me about the martial dao world.’ Lin Hao opened his mouth and then said.

Jun Wu Regret gathered his mood and took a fierce sip of wine, sweet and delicate, refreshing, not long after a refreshing feeling came to life, and then Jun Wu Regret’s mood calmed down.

Five seconds later, under Lin Hao’s waiting eyes, Jun Wu Regret spoke: ‘The martial arts world is cowering, related to and because of the Ming ban on martial arts. So the martial dao community can only hide up, but the Ming ban on martial arts did not damage the entire martial dao heritage, especially some daoist traditions, which even the Ming imperial dynasty is not willing to do, after all, you know, what is the philosophy of the country, for some existence? Serve zero dye zero wu west closed intention? are revered’

Lin Hao narrowed his eyes, as if he was frowning, the corner of Jun Wuhuo’s mouth lifted slightly, suddenly thought of something, it seems that this information they had briefly chatted before, squeezed out a faint smile, Jun Wuhuo continued to say. At this moment, he does not have the eagerness he had before, the king’s hegemony wrapped around his body and spread out around, once again resuming the appearance of the pride of heaven

‘Because of the matter of the ban on martial arts, resulting in all the Daoist traditions had to be hidden, and then as time slowly developed, in modern times, with the assistance of technology, the wild man, ah, the traditional heritage of martial arts, ah, hidden lineage, etc., all had to reveal traces, such as us, such lineage, but also forced to show themselves, because this is the order of things. Today is the age of science, the age of high martial arts is gone, and I once found a similar statement in a Ji burial mound. The exposition of the martial way on there was the end of the age of martial arts, while our modern scientific scholars define the present moment as the end of the age of high martial arts and the entry of the age of science

‘That is to say, we are above the dividing point of the great trend, one step forward is the age of science for all, and the age of high martial arts withers, or rather, simply disappears, as to what kind of disappearance, I do not know, and neither do those learned. After all, the passing of the End Times, even Pope Peter, I am afraid, is not clear, the vain disappearance is beyond anyone’s comprehension

Lin Hao was stunned at his words.

Today, he heard two words, an end time and a high martial age. Of course the scientific era this he knew well, it was after the modern industrialization revolution and entered the information age, only many people still did not have time to react, so collectively they called it the scientific era. The existence of the scientific era is the abandonment of miscellaneous studies, what is miscellaneous studies, that is, everything that cannot be explained with scientific knowledge to exist are miscellaneous studies, such as: theology, metaphysics, etc.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1605-1606

And the two types of era, high martial and end times, only exist in the ancient traditional countries with deep heritage, after all, China, for example, the Western world, knowledge nowadays retrospectively, may only be able to find a trace in China

‘The End Times.’ Lin Hao murmured, then wondered, ‘In which dynasty and in which period was the node between the End Times and the High Martial Times? In the Upper Ancient? Or the Middle Ages, or the Near Ages?’

Jun Wuhuo shook his head, 'The Ji surname, that was the Great Qin era, and all of those times were in the Upper Ancient, after all, as you know, several dynasties that disappeared were inside this world. But these times we have entered the period of a hundred studies, all kinds of bachelors and men of letters competing, if you say that this is the peak of the law era, I somewhat do not believe, after all, these studies, today there are still a few left, there are traces of

Lin Hao smiled also nodded, Ji surname great prosperity is indeed in thousands of years, in the ancient era, but that era, especially the Spring and Autumn Warring States era, a variety of scholars led the way, to say that it is the martial arts co-ordination? This is simply an insult to the old ancestors

'Of course, what is found here are traces, if you want more? 西遮西零伍洱 闭依? s understanding, you can go inside the Dragon Gate to find, within the Dragon Gate, there is a lot of information about the martial dao, there are also many clan filings, in which the general clan introduction carefully but trace the roots.'

Lin Hao heard the words from deep thought, then only slightly nodded, no wonder Jun Wu Regret for the Dragon Gate so revered, so the Dragon Gate is not just management and suppression of the martial dao world, there is also is the study of this type of learning place, it seems that the value of the existence of this place, far greater than he imagined, it seems that must be early past the meeting

The existence that Pope Peter pursues is certainly transcendent, and Lin Hao himself is a complete stranger to this point of existence, after returning from Western Europe, the whole person is in a state to seek truth, and that is, to settle the family, and then see if the other half of the regenerated heart can be obtained, as for the future arrangements, to say sincerely is very confused

Especially for the ancient prison line, Lin Hao's heart is not at all low. As the old saying goes, if you know yourself and your enemy, you can win a hundred battles. He is now not at all clear about what Pope Peter wants to do, and he is also at a loss about this mysterious and unpredictable space of the Ancient Prison. In his heart ranking, if the Ancient Prison had not been for Pope Peter's help in saving Shen Xiyan, Lin Hao is afraid that he really would not have given it a second glance

Now the ancient prison line in front, he had to go to do more understanding

'A lot of things are laid out together, making it hard to know how to make a choice for a while.' Lin Hao said indifferently while pondering, then continued, 'I originally thought I only needed to casually understand a bit, but now it seems that I'll have to go even deeper

Jun Wu Regrets smiled lightly, his heart also heavy, and the two of them proceeded to chat further.

The Martial World Alliance.

Moving Mountain Sect, Yuehai Sect, Thousand Sect and other powerful sects, their spokespersons sat inside an ancient building, behind them stood several women with a strong ancient charm, they had their plain hands on tea, serving the dozen or so strong Innate Patriarchs present

The Daoist clan is not within the jurisdiction of the Daoist clan, and none of the clans present belong to the Daoist clan, and even if they did, they would be clans that the Daoist clan itself does not recognize.

Yuehai Sect is a powerful sect near the Bohai Sea, the sect is in the depths of the Bohai Sea, the legend within the sect is that it was a powerful strong man who single-handedly created the undersea sect, now they want to relocate or whatever, are unable to do so, but other people want to visit the door, no Yuehai Sect door order is also difficult to enter it, plus their own strength is strong, even if they offend many strong enemies, as long as they do not go out, the other side also take them nothing, and also because of their own so ground location, the back is very mysterious, and the countries close contact extraordinary, the Dragon Sect has been in the secret surface to keep an eye on

But also because of its location, it could only gnash its teeth and do nothing about it.

The chief great disciple of Yuehai Sect, the peak of the middle stage of the Ascended Sovereign, was one of the few sects that could stack their great disciples up to the peak of the middle stage of the Ascended Sovereign against the backdrop of today's entry into the scientific era.

Yue Wu Dao sat on the left hand side of the high hall, coiled with a tea cup built inside the official kiln of the Song Dynasty, looked at the crowd, found that this group of people one person was very noisy and noisy, frowned deeply, finally when he could not stand it anymore, fiercely slammed the tea on the table, the next moment, the silence seemed to be spread, the noisy movement turned into silence, Yue Wu Dao then revealed a faint smile: 'This is the right thing to do, a small sect has come here to seek refuge, what qualifications do they have to stand on the stage and talk about it. Of course if you feel that you can't stand this anger, you can fight to the other side's doorstep yourself, if you don't have the strength, join here now and listen well!

Yue Wu Dao's voice was not too loud, it was extremely domineering, his arrogant eyes stared at the seven or eight people present, those who could come to the All-English Meeting were all chief grand disciples of the sect, and their strength was also advanced to the level of Innate Patriarch, yet Yue Wu Dao said they were not strong enough! This group of people were all Heaven? They were all talented and had pride. They all have pride and backbone, but when faced with Yue Wu Dao, they could only choose to be silent and endure Yue Wu Dao's anger

The purpose of their coming here was to seek an alliance and then together they could solve the 'rampant bullying' of Lin Hao and Jun Wuhui in the Baba Sect.

The Ba Dao Sect is not weak, if the Ba Dao Sect comes to this all Ying meeting, it may not have the qualification to enter the inner hall, but in the outer hall, it also occupies a very strong position, after all, a sect of five innate clan masters, the eldest elder is still the peak cultivation of innate clan masters, such strength, is also the existence of the inner hall clan scare

It is a pity that the sect guarded by such a person was extinguished, the dao lineage dissipated, and from then on the sect drifted down and became a rootless existence, could they not accept it?

The age of the existence of the Moving Tomb Sect is the most rescue within the lobby, dating back more than two years, that is, the Three Kingdoms era, traditionally a grave-digging army under the Wei emperor, and later became what it is today because of the times.

Moving Tomb coughed softly and his already pale face looked paler and paler, if one were to see it for the first time one would still think the man was terminally ill, but after meeting him a few times or being familiar with the existence of the Moving Tomb clan one would know that the clan was cursed. The story goes that no one can touch their disease, and to eradicate it completely, unless all the people who contracted the disease and practiced their Daoism died out... ..

‘Tomb Cough, look at your half-dead look, if I were you, I wouldn’t even live a day.’ Yue Wu Dao heard Moving Tomb’s cough, like a joke between old friends, but the tone and demeanor of this persuasion was not like a joke at all, but with dislike and displeasure.

Faced with Yue Wu Dao’s sneer, Moving Tomb pulled out a white satin hand towel and gently wiped it at the corner of his mouth, saying sickly, ‘Even if you sea devils died out, we wouldn’t die.’

Thousand Sunsets, the chief grand disciple of the Thousand Clans, shook his head and sighed; the Thousand Clans could also be described as a general alliance recognised by the Martial Alliance. The story of the Thousand Clans began with the Martial Union Conference, a clan that had been able to achieve the title of the chief of the Martial Union every time.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1607-1608

Chapter 1607

But within the Taoist heritage, among several extremely hidden secrets, there is an introduction to the Thousand Sects.

There is a sentence in it: The Thousand Sects are a collection of a thousand sects, not a single one.

It says that the Thousand Sects are originally a collection of a thousand sects, not just one of them.

There is also: A thousand sects are famous but not real, hundreds of sects.

What it means is that a thousand sects are not as big as their name suggests, a thousand sects are just hundreds of them brought together.

‘Well, coming here isn’t to toss around words, but to settle the incident where Lin Hao and Jun Wu Ren extinguished the Daoist existence of the Hegemonic Blade Sect.’

Thousand sunsets spoke, and at once Moving Tomb and Yue Wu Dao were not arguing and taunting each other, but instead the conversation turned and there was a domineering voice coming out, ‘If not for the barrier of the Dragon Gate, why bother arguing here, just exterminate him? How many such people have there been in the past and present!’

‘A reckless man without a brain!’ The sickly voice of the tomb-mover sneered, ‘If we follow your argument, you sea devils won’t even be able to return to the bottom of the sea! If it weren’t for the superior Daoist clan sheltering us, we would have died out hundreds of years ago! There’s still a chance to shout big words here! Sea devils, if you don’t know what the Dragon Gate stands for, you’d better go home and ask your ancestors if they lost their souls during the martial ban incident back then!’

‘You seek death!’ Yue Wu Dao slammed the table, the whole person leaped up, and slapped down a palm at the moving tomb, the air was stagnant, the surroundings became morbidly cold a, the cold wind stung, the maids’ faces instantly paled up.

Thousand sunsets frowned as a sword swept out, countless sword rays wrapped around Yue Wu Dao, forcing him that palm did not fall in the end.

Gravedigger held his nose up, undaunted.

Those present also said, ‘The two of you should not put your previous grudges on the line and argue over this, what we are here to talk about today is mainly, how to solve the problem at hand!’

‘Yes, yes, now that Lin Hao Jun Wu Ren duo are about to fight at our doorstep, we are still fighting internally at this time, if people know! It will be laughed off, that’s why the Daoist tradition is not willing to take us on, it’s this time of the year and we’re still hanging on to our personal grudges here!’

Picking up on the shadowy er shadowy meaning closed?

The crowd said one word.

Yue Wu Dao coldly snorted, 'The Daoist tradition doesn't approve? Not willing to deal with it? To be sincere I still despise them, loyal lackeys of the imperial court! If they hadn't licked well, they would have been the first to exterminate the tradition! Sick boy, I won't speak to you today!'

With a wave of his hand, Yue Wu Dao shattered all of Thousand Sunsets' sword intent and sat firmly in his place as he once again spoke in a domineering manner, 'As long as this man doesn't hit our doorstep, we shouldn't have to do anything! Hmph, as for those who want our blessing, fine, pay enough protection money and decide to keep you safe and sound! So what if the other side, what with the pride of the heavens and all, is whatever Lin and whatnot? Which one of you here is not? But then what?'

Said Yue Wu Dao, hitching his leg and leisurely shaking it up, looking happy, not caring at all about the purpose of their gathering here!

The tomb was so angry that his chest was depressed, but there was nothing he could do, who called the Yuehai Sect's position of reasoning too special, even the strongest sects within the orthodox Dao Sect had suffered defeat at each other, even if Lin Hao and Jun Wu Dao came over, I'm afraid it wouldn't help, so his attitude was so arrogant! But others can't, as said before, the Baba Sect is not weak, however, the Baba Sect is surprisingly not able to resist in the slightest, the secret son planted in the Baba Sect reported that: the Baba Sect was directly wiped out, the supreme elders did not have more than ten rounds against them.

What kind of terrifying strength was the other side, to subdue a strong man at the Grand Perfection of the Innate Sovereign within ten rounds, such strength had to be feared.

Even if it was two people who had destroyed them together, it was still the two of them who were powerful, besides. This Lin Hao and Jun Wu Ren were extremely close, fighting together against Cang, conquering Eastern Ying and conquering Western Europe in the west. Although the purpose of fighting Western Europe they did not know, but these two people's friendship was really a life-long friendship.

'Yue Wu Dao, don't say cool words here, if the other side and others really fight up, just the little family base of your Yue Hai Clan will all be buried at the bottom of the sea within a few decades. This time is no longer the same as before, although everyone is gathered together, your Yuehai Sect can stay out of it, this time, the other party's purpose is no longer simple!' Thousand sunset glanced at Yue Wu Dao, before he came he knew that the people of Yue Hai Sect still had such a mentality, or rather, the people of Yue Hai Sect had their own intentions, only on the surface they still had a look of you mo take the old man

This is also true, Yuehai Sect has absolutely no need to occupy the pit of China, after all, after the Ming ban on martial arts incident, some sects in order to break away from the jurisdiction of China is desperate. Unfortunately, only a few succeeded in breaking away, and most died on the way.

But if you want to break away, whether it be from the Martial Union or the Taoist tradition or from the court's department that has been set up to co-ordinate the martial arts world, it will not be allowed to happen!

If they succeeded in breaking away, such a scandal would bring shame to the martial arts department, and if they were to be shamed, the other clans of the Martial Arts League would have to face the wrath of the people again! These issues don't seem to have much to do with each other on the surface, but underneath the scrutiny, there are all kinds of couplings and crises

The actual fact is that you will be able to find out more about the actual situation. After living for so many years, what storms have not faced, although not low in the deep sea, but the waves in the depths of the sea are always floating past their roots, the demonic beasts of the deep sea are also coveting their lair, these years not less fighting with them, but unfortunately, ah, no one to shake them

Thousand Sunset knew that Yue Wu Dao was such a looker, turned his head to look at the others and found that the others' faces were even more grave, what Thousand Sunset represented was the Martial Union, an existence that could counter the traditional church of the Dao Sect. Under the leadership of Thousand Sunsets, they were able to live relatively well under the worldly state of the Daoist Tradition

Moving Tomb was helpless, his heart was worried, the sects at ground level became openly and secretly began to have all kinds of friction after the last return of all the Great Ascended Masters Tian Hai, and the grudges between the old days began to raise up, and their Moving Mountain Sect and several other sects of the same clan had increased their conflicts in recent days. He had his own suspicions, but would not bring them to the surface, they were clear on these issues themselves.

'Sunset senior brother, you should not sell off, many issues in fact, we all know it by heart, only the past grudges have been piling up for a long time, now can not pull the face, you? The actual fact is that you'll be able to get a lot more than just a few of these. If this stammering look, by the time the other side are playing to the doorstep! Although the threat of the other side does not feel very strong, but if you destroy some similar to the strong clan of the strongest clan in the outside, or wrong!'

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1609-1610

'Yes, yes, there is a supreme elder sitting in the Hegemony Blade Sect, whose strength is at the peak of the Innate Patriarch, only that because of the age and the great loss of internal strength, his name does not match his reality. But the bottom is still there!'

The rest of the dozen or so people once again said what you said, a thousand sunsets nodded and moistened their throats after taking a sip of tea. The first reason for gathering here today is that Lin Hao Jun has destroyed the Hegemony Blade Sect without regret, which has caused many sects to become panic-stricken; the second reason is that they have come to unify their opinions, and they also need someone from the Martial Arts Alliance to travel during the Ancient Prison trip.

When? The first thing is that the people who are in the group are the ones who are in the group, but the real strength will still be in private.

And the purpose of hugging is to end up with the result of not reaping the benefits but messing with a strong enemy, pulling the Martial Arts League out and blocking the other side's painful killings and so on

The entire room stopped discussing when Thousand Sunset coughed, and Yue Wu Dao raised his eyebrows slightly and looked at Thousand Sunset.

Thousands of sunset said: 'Nowadays, the East Ying Ancient Prison incident is fermenting powerfully, our people who are staking out over there wear back the news that the strongest people of many kingdoms are slowly moving towards there, and the surrounding sea isolated islands are inhabited by people, one side of the power, one side of the square. And our martial arts alliance has privately established its own chassis, only a few days ago is not good to mention on the table!'

Thousand sunset said here paused for a moment, found the crowd's eyes are very unhappy, as if to say, these news we all know.

The corners of the thousand sunsets mouth raised and then said: 'I'm afraid everyone knows this news! In fact, what about it, perhaps everyone has not thought deeply about it. If the incident in the ancient prison of the East had happened, we might have had a hostile strategy and would not have held today's group meeting with much fanfare! However, at this juncture, the destruction of the Hegemony Sword Sect happened and countless clans panicked. It just so happens that the two events collided, and it is not possible to deal with just one of them, which is why we have the present anxious situation.'

'Yes.' After someone was awakened by Thousand Sunsets' remark, it was as if they were picking their bones and echoed, 'If the destruction of the Bastard Blade Sect had happened a few years ago. Not to mention a few years ago, even before the Ancient Hell was shaken, we wouldn't have made such an effort to gather so many people together. Before, we still felt something was wrong in our hearts, but now that senior brother mentioned it, we instantly felt a sudden realization.'

Yue Wu Dao's cold voice sneered, 'Don't patronise me at this time, Thousand Sunsets. If you have something to say, just say it sharply, don't say something here that we all know by heart. Today, in fact, in the face of the Hegemony Sword Sect incident, many people present here representing the clan actually did not take Lin Hao Jun Wu Ren too seriously, we, the people, gathered here for the purpose! But in order to discuss a deeper matter, as to what it is, we all know in our hearts.'

After saying this Yue Wu Dao gave a heated smile, meaningfully also glanced at Thousand Sunset and Moving Tomb.

Moving Tomb coughed, as if he didn't understand. Thousand sunset helplessly smiled.

Many of the clans present were not as glorious as before, and facing the direct fall of a power like the Hegemony Blade Sect made many of them afraid. But there were also some that were still at the end of their strong phase of frontier, with strength still existing.

And these existences, naturally, like the Yuehai Sect, are playing with the same purpose.

Chapter 1610

'Brother Sunset, also please? Yi'er Ai Shan Wu'er pick up the whisk? Don't be covering up, just say it.' Someone shouted out.

After sweeping a circle, Thousand Sunset puffed up his chest. He spoke indifferently. He sat atop the main hall and could look at everyone's emotions as he spoke.

'This time bringing everyone together are the two things that were just mentioned. Only what follows is no longer a repetition, but a discussion of countermeasures! Countermeasures to the two things that will all happen next!'

Yue Wu Dao clasped his hands and sat down, only this time did not let out a cold hum, he really did not like such a hypocritical and polite scene, a lot of words are pretending to be confused, besides, is there really someone that confused among the people present ?

Which one of them is not a genius among geniuses ?

But this group of people like to chat like this, people, really a confusing existence

The first time I saw the company, I had to take a sip of tea and said: 'For the incident of Lin Hao and Jun Wu Regret of the Baba Sect. The Martial Union's meaning is that this matter will definitely not be allowed to happen again!'

This sentence came out, whether it was the clan's inside the hall or the martial artists outside the hall, all instantly boiled up, the thousand clans are extremely powerful clans, as long as there are their words, then it is the same as having a protective shield, the heart sudden can fall down.

Just a thousand sunsets did not pause for three seconds, then said: 'But then! The Ancient Prison line is the top priority! After all, the orthodox tradition on the side of the Dao Sect, now several sects are gathering momentum, under the oppression of the Dragon Sect Taotie subdued, there are also several sects have awakened the sleeping old timers to go forward, even my Thousand Clan's eyes have found quite a few! So what the Thousand Clans are saying is that we should not put all our thoughts and strength on Lin Hao and Jun Wu Ren, this two are the ultimate geniuses of the world, people who carry great qi.'

‘Senior Brother Sunset, do you really mean what the Thousand Clans mean?’ Someone inquired in a low voice.

As soon as his words came out, there were many others who were equally puzzled.

Thousand Sunsets held his tea and quietly looked at this group of people, his face bland as if he was not angry in the face of this group of people’s queries. He nodded his head slightly.

At Thousand Sunset’s gesture, another person could not help but say, ‘If Thousand Sect says so, what should we do if the other two people destroy another clan by then? Do we just sit back and wait for death? Or what if all of our clan’s heritage is ready to go to the Ancient Prison, and then when we turn back, we find that we have lost all of our Daoist lineage? What’s the point of fighting for anything else when the family is gone?’

‘Yes, as Senior Brother Wang Baojian of the Wang Family Fort said, what’s the use of fighting for the great power when the family is gone?’

The original name of the Wang Family Fort was the Wang Family Mound, a clan founded by a king marquis with the surname Wang, which was changed to the Wang Family Fort by the imperial court after his death. Although they were not happy about it, they could only grit their teeth and admit it in the face of the pressure from the imperial court. Besides, after hearing later that all the disciples of the Moving Mountain Sect were made sickly children and those of the Yuehai Sect were called sea ghosts, none of them wanted to be called Yin people or grave mound people themselves

Thousands of sunsets knew this would be the situation, so they stopped talking again. The chattering started up again, Yue Wu Dao was so loud that his head was all over the place, but when he looked at the other two who didn't say a word, he also gritted his teeth. Nowadays he could not afford to contradict Thousand Sunset, after all, that sickly man from the Moving Mountain Sect was now standing opposite Thousand Zong.

The Martial Union was divided into three worlds, the strongest being the Thousand Clans, and the second and third were not divided. The clan is fighting with the Yuehai clan, but no one knows who is stronger and who is weaker, after all, there is a lot of friction, but in a real war, the Yuehai clan would not dare to bring out all their people, after all, the clan at the bottom of the sea still needs to be guarded, although it is very hidden, but it is not true that no one can find it.
