

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1731-1740

Chapter 1731

One was a square, palm-sized brocade box, and the other was a rectangular brocade box, about a metre and a half in length, and next to him was the adjutant in full formal dress, looking at the shoulder patch.

Good guys, this adjutant is all at the level of a major general, while General Yin Nanfeng, who was in full formal dress, was wearing an admiral's uniform.

Lin Hao and Jun Wu Ren were not slack, after all, they were official figures in China. In China, martial arts were powerful, but still subject to the jurisdiction above China, and this was the era when martial arts powerhouses were rampant, while the ordinary people of China were basically not affected much.

Without the entry of the clan, I'm afraid China would have developed more smoothly and the general public wouldn't have known that real martial artists existed, after all, these days you say you're a martial arts master, a master?

That's not a fucking lie!

'Lin Hao!'

'Jun Wu Ren.'

‘Greetings, General Nanfeng.’ Lin Hao and Jun Wu Rou greeted as they stepped forward with a salute.

Naturally, they used the etiquette of a martial arts powerhouse, while Yin Nanfeng, who was also a martial arts powerhouse, returned the greeting with a military salute: ‘You two don’t need to be polite, besides, I remember that Lin Hao has the Divine Dragon Order on him, right? If you take out the Divine Dragon Order, I would have to be all at your disposal as well.’

‘Ha? You still have this? Closed Wu Ai Fuzzy Ai Servant? Playfulness?’ Jun Wu Ren was even stunned, ‘Once the Divine Dragon Decree is out, it’s like the Dragon Lord himself!’

Lin Hao scratched his head and smiled sarcastically as he explained that he would forget about it, this thing with his current strength, taking it out could solve some troubles, but with it might bring endless troubles.

Unless he was forced to, Lin Hao was not prepared to take it out.

‘General Nanfeng, if I am correct, the general should be here for the matter of Li Longcheng, right?’ Lin Hao did not beat around the bush either.

Yin Nanfeng nodded gently, ‘That’s right, according to senior Chen Bei Xuan’s orders, you must participate in this Martial Arts Conference Lin Hao, moreover, your mission is to defeat Li Longcheng, and if you can, incidentally, teach those guys from the Moving Mountain Sect who don't know how to take things lightly a lesson!

The first task was not too surprising as Lin Hao was prepared for it, but the latter request surprised Lin Hao to no end: this Chen Beixuan was quite protective of his calf, right?

Seeing Lin Hao's surprise, Yin Nanfeng smiled gently, 'It's not surprising that you don't know, Xu Linglong is the chief of the Huashan Sect and calls senior Chen Beixuan an old ancestor, but in reality, Chen Beixuan is Xu Linglong's grandfather.'

Pfft!

Lin Hao spewed out a mouthful of tea, fortunately, he reacted quickly, otherwise this mouthful of tea would have to spray all over Yin Nanfeng's face.

Xu Linglong was actually Chen Beixuan's grandfather!

Jun Wu Regrets was also full of shock, for Chen Bei Xuan so acted two people also understand, granddaughter was bullied, Chen Bei Xuan did not directly go to destroy the moving mountain clan is considered good, so so protect the calf is not strange.

The two of them were relieved that their granddaughter had been bullied.

Yin Nanfeng handed the palm-sized square brocade box to Jun Wuhui, 'Go and give it to that girl Linglong to take, senior Chen Beixuan has been clear about what happened here, as long as it is taken, I believe that girl Linglong will soon wake up.'

'Yes, General.' Jun Wu Ren did not dare to put up a fight and hurriedly left with the stuff.

Lin Hao stayed behind and talked to Yin Nanfeng for a long time, not mentioning anything about the Martial Arts Conference in the slightest, but instead talking quite a lot about the Overseas Tang Clan.

The Overseas Tang Clan was a branch of the Tang Clan in China, which had been directly expelled from China because it had rebelled against its master. Who knew that this branch of the Tang Clan had made quite a stir overseas and had also emerged as a top talent, and eventually the overseas Tang Clan returned and directly wiped out the Chinese Tang Clan.

The Tang Clan was expelled from China, but the Tang Clan has always harboured a grudge against China, and has done a lot of things against China over the years in conjunction with NATO.

Rice used the Tang Clan's hatred for China, and the Tang Clan used Rice as a stepping stone to enter China, mutually beneficial, but also enough to see the Tang Clan's ambition.

So this time, Li Longcheng may just be an outpost, not simply coming back to avenge his past shame, but more likely a test run for the Tang Clan to enter China again.

Chapter 1372

Lin Hao's brow furrowed, to Huaxia, Jun Wuhui was afraid that he had a stronger sense of belonging.

But Lin Hao did not say anything else, he only knew that China was his motherland and his family did not care as long as they were safe and sound.

However, if there is no big family, then there is a small family!

The other side did so, and indeed touched Lin Hao's bottom line, what's more, this Li Longcheng also has no intention to let Lin Hao off the hook, so how could Lin Hao stay out of it: 'General don't worry, this martial arts conference, I will definitely participate, only, my situation is also understood by the general, against Li Longcheng, I really don't have much confidence.'

'No confidence? After reading this, I believe you will have confidence.' Yin Nanfeng grinned lightly, and there was even a hint of envy in his eyes as Yin Nanfeng pushed the rectangular box in front of him to Lin Hao.

Lin Hao's eyelids jumped wildly, what was the situation? Just now, he saw General Yin Nanfeng reveal his envy, something that even Yin Nanfeng envied, it must not be simple, and the ancient rectangular box looked more like a sword box, right?

‘Open it and take a look.’

Lin Hao nodded and quickly took the rectangular antique wooden box and opened it with anticipation.

Clang!

Lin Hao had just opened the wooden box when suddenly a sword clang came out from inside the box!

Then a sharp sword qi blasted towards Lin Hao, scaring him into retreating, followed by a terrifying imperial pressure that enveloped the entire courtyard!

Lin Hao was nearly crushed by this terrifying aura and did not fall to his knees on the spot!

Poof!

Lin Hao spat out fresh blood, but still gritted his teeth and held on, vowing not to kneel down to his death!

With great difficulty, he maintained his body in a half-bent position!

There was a buzzing sound!

The aura of an emperor, majestic and domineering, descended from the sky with a bang like a divine mansion, naturally aiming towards Lin Hao!

This was a divine sword with a sword spirit! A divine sword with a pride of its own!

But so what!

Lin Hao looked up to the sky and roared, 'I, Lin Hao! I will not kneel to my death! The world is too big! There is no one who can take a knee from me!'

Arrogance! Arrogance! His imperial aura rises to the sky!

He, Lin Hao! He is the Emperor!

Who in the whole world can bear the kneeling of my Emperor!

‘Hahahaha, it seems that the Dragon Lord has indeed seen the right person.’ Yin Nanfeng burst out laughing at this, ‘Lin Hao! From now on your title in the martial arts world will be Lin Xuan Yuan! This is your name for the world! It is also a title bestowed by the Dragon Lord!’ Boom!

As Lin Hao roared, the heavens and the earth changed colour, and the imperial aura that fell like a god dissipated with a bang!

Clang!

The divine sword chanted softly within the sword box, clear and pleasant to the ears, seemingly joyful and excited.

It was definitely the sword spirit!

Lin Hao felt the excitement and happiness of this sword spirit, the two seemed to merge into one, Lin Hao could actually feel the mood swings of the divine sword spirit!

Lin Hao was also extremely excited, what kind of divine sword was this? What kind of divine sword was this?

‘The sword, the king of weapons, is also divided into the sword of the Son of Heaven, the sword of the common people, and the sword of the lords. The sword is the great righteousness of chivalry!’ Yin Nanfeng looked solemnly, his face grave as he looked at Lin Hao: ‘From now on, Lin Hao, you hold the weapon of the imperial dao, but you must never forget what the great righteousness of chivalry means!’

‘Yes, General Nanfeng, I am forever and ever a Chinese, and for the sake of China, I will go through fire and water.’ Lin Hao understood what Yin Nanfeng meant by this, although Lin Hao didn’t know who the Dragon Lord was, but for the other party to hand over such a valuable item to him, that meant that he had the approval of the top echelons of China!

There were actually two meanings to the man of chivalry. When Yin Nanfeng said it the first time, what he was telling Lin Hao was, don’t forget your heart and be a chivalrous man who does what is right!

The second time Yin Nanfeng re? The second time Yin Nanfeng again? The second time Yin Nanfeng said this, the focus was on the word ‘righteousness’!

That is why Lin Hao answered him in this way.

Seeing that Lin Hao understood what he meant, Yin Nanfeng smiled gently and nodded: ‘Very well, since you understand, it’s good to see your future weapons.’

Lin Hao’s mind moved, and with a clanging sound, an ancient but powerful sword sped out of the sword box, its aura was overwhelming, and when this sword came out, it carried the momentum of looking down upon the world, like an emperor descending, those who were not strong in mind should retreat!

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1733-1734

Chapter 1733

‘A good sword!’ Lin Hao looked solemn as he gripped the scabbard, the sword’s scabbard was covered with dragons and flying phoenixes, and it was ancient and simple with the vicissitudes of history on its face.

With a clanging sound, Lin Hao pulled the sword out of its scabbard, the sword was like a stunning river, dazzling and eye-catching, and as Lin Hao took the sword out of its scabbard, the sword trembled lightly, as if it was joyful, and as if it was an old man who had lived in the world for hundreds of years and was full of relief.

Suddenly? The first time I saw it, I was in the middle of the world.

Lin Hao’s eyes stared, this, no?

‘No way! This, this is the Xuan Yuan sword?’ Jun Wu Ren, who had just entered, was also scared enough when he saw this sword in Lin Hao’s hand.

He recognised what kind of sword it was right away, a solid Xuan Yuan sword! It was even better than Chen Beixuan’s Yellow Spring Sword!

Yes, the Xuan Yuan Sword!

When Lin Hao took a closer look at what was engraved on the sword, he also recognised it and was shocked beyond belief!

This was the legendary sword of the Yellow Emperor!

No wonder Yin Nanfeng said that from now on, he would walk the world with Lin Xuan Yuan!

The Emperor who wanders the world, Lin Xuan Yuan!

According to legend, the sword was forged for the Yellow Emperor by the gods from the bronze of the first mountain.

The hilt of the sword is inscribed with the art of farming and animal husbandry on one side and the strategy of unifying the four seas on the other, making it a divine sword for killing demons and eliminating devils!

‘Uncle Nanfeng.’ Xu Linglong’s lovely voice rang out, and then a youthful, beautiful, energetic silhouette immediately jumped into Yin Nanfeng’s arms: ‘Uncle Nanfeng, you’ve finally come to see Linglong.’

Poof!

Being pounced into Xu Linglong’s arms like this, triggering the injury in his body, Yin Nanfeng spurted out a mouthful of fresh blood, his face instantly paled, he hurriedly let go of Xu Linglong and took a few steps back, coughing violently, ‘Cough cough, you deadly girl, do you want your Uncle Nanfeng’s life?’

Seeing this scene, Lin Hao and Jun Wu Ren were both startled, they knew that Yin Nanfeng had lost to Li Longcheng. They knew that Yin Nanfeng had lost to Li Longcheng, but just now, Yin Nanfeng’s aura was still there, and he did not look like he had suffered any serious injuries.

But now, at this glance, it seemed that it was really a tragic defeat!

‘Who is it! Uncle Nan Feng! Who the hell did this to you! Tell me!’ When Xu Linglong saw Yin Nanfeng like this, he instantly exploded into a fury, fiercely stomping on the ground, the hard rock floor cracked open, and the stone tables and benches next to him were all blown to pieces by Xu Linglong’s terrifying aura: ‘I will stamp out his clan!’

Hiss!

When Lin Hao and Jun Wu Ren saw this scene, they both drew in cold breaths, protecting his calf, Xu Linglong was serious!

Moreover, could this calf protection be hereditary? It was too similar to senior Chen Bei Xuan’s temperament, right?

What shocked Lin Hao was that Xu Linglong had not only woken up after taking the medicine, but she... she seemed to be in the middle stage of Grand Master now, right?

Lin Hao looked at Jun Wu Ren in wonder, Jun Wu Ren rolled his eyes, 'You see I'm useless, I don't know what's going on, I guess it's a blessing from overload fighting, that medicine probably has some cause, after Linglong ate it, she woke up in a short while, her blood veins repaired to full capacity.'

A miracle medicine!

'Ahem, you girl, it's your Uncle Nanfeng who is not as skilled as others, and it's not convenient for you to take action, but don't worry, this kid Lin Hao will definitely help your Uncle Nanfeng to take revenge.' Yin Nanfeng dotingly rubbed Xu Linglong, who was instantly as meek as a small cat.

After understanding, Xu Linglong also knew what had happened during the time she was in a coma. Xu Linglong had anger in her heart and hated to personally kill Li Longcheng or even go overseas to exterminate the Tang Clan, but for the sake of the greater good, Xu Linglong held back.

'Brother Lin Hao, you can't drop the ball this time, if you can't avenge Uncle Nan Feng, I'll never ignore you again.' When Xu Linglong saw the Xuan Yuan Sword in Lin Hao's hand, she was not too surprised, as if she had known that the sword was back in Lin Hao's hand, but at the same time, she pouted and looked at Lin Hao.

With the Xuan Yuan Sword helping her, she could almost perfectly cancel out Dao Yin's shortcomings, if this couldn't defeat Li Longcheng, then there was no need to continue supporting Lin Hao up there.

Chapter 1734

Lin Hao nodded solemnly! Reaching out, he wiped the sword directly, and in a flash, the sword was covered in Lin Hao's blood!

'I recommend Xuan Yuan with my blood!'

This was Lin Hao's determination, and a statement of his stance!

Lin Hao's qi sealed the wound on his left hand so that it would no longer bleed, and when the blood stained the Xuan Yuan sword, the sword was officially recognized as his master!

Clang!

The crisp but mind-blowing sound of the sword reverberated throughout the Lin family villa area, roaring!

Many people such as Mo Tianji were unable to control it at all and fell to their knees spitting blood!

Lin Hao could even clearly feel that he and the Xuan Yuan Sword had truly become one at this time, he could clearly sense the emotions of the sword spirit, and could even communicate with the sword spirit with his thoughts in a simple way!

The sword spirit had existed for as long as an old ancestor, and had the mind of a child of a few years old, but both were undeniable!

A divine weapon with a sword spirit! They are all divine swords that open mountains and split seas, and cut through the heavens and the earth!

‘Since you were able to obtain the recognition of the sword spirit, there is nothing more to do, I will come to pick you up tomorrow morning, you will go to this martial arts conference as the military’s Heavenly Navy Region, Major General, and I will personally come to pick you up.’ After saying that Yin Nanfeng left, while leaving those troops behind.

Lin Hao the sword sharpness sharpened, Lin Hao out of the sheath, then the Lin family still have to protect the circumstance, so that Lin Hao can let go.

Xu Linglong also seems to have not seen Yin Nanfeng for a long time, Yin Nanfeng left, Xu Linglong also quickly followed and left.

Lin Hao took the Xuan Yuan Sword back into its scabbard, after releasing his hand, Lin Hao didn’t need to hang onto the Xuan Yuan Sword, let alone hold it, while the Xuan Yuan Sword hovered around Lin Hao like a shadow, which could make Jun Wu Ren envious.

‘Hey, no, why do you and Xu Linglong both have good things? Xu Linglong recovered and broke through, and you got a divine weapon, or a legendary divine weapon, no, I want it too.’ Jun Wu Ren felt that he was at a disadvantage and ignored Lin Hao and went straight after him towards Yin Nan Feng.

Lin Hao smiled and shouted, ‘Come back you Brother Wu Regret, you? Closed Wu Lu Yi Ai Fei Fei? Didn’t you break through too, huh?’

‘Bullshit, can this be compared?’ Jun Wu Regret chased after him without looking back.

Only after the crowd left did Mo Tianji and the others slow down and quickly ran to Lin Hao’s courtyard, which was a mess because of the Qi that had just taken over, it was a miserable mess.

‘Is everything alright Lin Hao, why are you still injured?’ Shen Xiyan was worried to death when she saw that Lin Mo was still injured with blood stains.

Seeing this, Lin Qingcheng also came over with immense worry: ‘Lin Hao, you must not be alright.’

Lin Hao smiled and shook his head, 'Do I look like I'm not alright to you guys?'

The crowd froze for a moment and looked at Lin Hao, it didn't really seem like it?

Suddenly!

The Xuan Yuan sword that surrounded Lin Hao suddenly burst into a dazzling golden light, surprisingly enveloping Lin Hao in it all at once!

A man dressed in a dragon robe and as majestic as a god appeared in Lin Hao's mind's eye, hundreds of metres tall and wielding the Regulus Sword, cutting down immortals!

Yes, it was the Yellow Emperor!

Then a voice seemed to cross the long river of history and the long years of time to Lin Hao's mind: I recommend Xuan Yuan with my blood, I have a sword to open the gates of heaven! The sword comes!

In an instant, all is silent in heaven and earth!

The Yellow Emperor wielded the Xuan Yuan sword and wielded it to cut down the immortals, the sword was so stunning that it pointed straight at the heavens, and the heavens shattered!

Behind the shattered vault of heaven, a magnificent door of immortality was revealed.

The gate was ten thousand feet high, looking down on the heavens and the earth!

Was this the real sword that opened the gates of heaven?

Lin Hao was suddenly enlightened, he had become enlightened!

I'm afraid that the Seven Killing Divine Sword Duel was a unique sword move that was comprehended through this sword of the Yellow Emperor, right?

As the sword light fell, immortals fell one after another, and the ten-thousand-foot immortal gate split in two!

'You seek death, Yellow Emperor! Do you know that you have killed all the immortals in the firmament and your immortal destiny has been severed, there will be no more immortals in the world from now on!' Behind the Immortal Gate, it seemed that a certain great power was hissing in anger!

‘If this is what an immortal is, then I, Xuanyuan Clan, will cut off the immortal’s destiny, and with one man and one sword, I will kill all the immortals in the sky! From now on there will be no more immortals in the world! The life span of heaven is not more than ten thousand, and the life span of man is not more than a thousand!’ The Yellow Emperor swung his Xuan Yuan sword and without hesitation, he brought down another sword!

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1735-1736

Ka-ching!

The Immortal Gate crumbled, the firmament was annihilated, and as if in an instant the heavens and earth were restored to chaos and nothingness, a horrific cloud of smoke enveloped the entire world!

A few months later, the darkness of chaos dissipated and complete humanity survived, but it was already full of destruction, except that out of the ruins came a more resilient human civilisation, one step at a time, one step at a time, to the present day.

In the long history of the world, countless brilliant geniuses and powerful saints were born, and as the years flowed on, they passed into the long history of the world!

The passing of the Age of Saints has transformed to the Age of High Martial Arts, and after the explosion of technology during these centuries, the Age of Technology has arrived, but the Age of High Martial Arts is also facing a change of innovation, and if its secrets cannot be found, then the Age of High Martial Arts will also fall away, like the Age of Saints, and be annihilated in the long river of history!

A new era will greet mankind, and no one knows where it will end up. And where will humanity go from here?

Boom!

As countless images crumbled and collapsed, it was as if Lin Hao had personally experienced thousands of years of historical changes in just a few hours!

It was as if he was a spectator and a participant, witnessing thousands of years of changes in humanity, from devastation to prosperity today, and as if he had personally participated in it.

It's just that Lin Hao is fiercely? The first time I saw him, I was amazed. He woke up with a start!

No, this is not his own memory, this, this is what the Yellow Emperor saw and heard!

Lin Hao was stunned, had the Yellow Emperor existed for so long?

Didn't the Yellow Emperor say so when he beheaded the immortals?

From then on there would be no more Cthulhu Immortals in the world! Heaven's life span is no more than ten thousand, and man's life span is no more than a thousand!

Lin Hao didn't understand this, but he did understand that a human's life span was only a thousand years, even if you were powerful, you couldn't live longer than a thousand years!

But the Yellow Emperor's time was more than a thousand years ago, so why did Lin Hao feel that the Yellow Emperor was still alive?

Even Lin Hao could clearly feel that this Yellow Emperor, was looking at him!

'Yan Huang Clan, you have become enlightened.' The Yellow Emperor's voice suddenly appeared in Lin Hao's mind, and that magnificent body also appeared in Lin Hao's mind as well.

Lin Hao almost fell to his knees, that magnificent figure that looked out of the world and whose body could hold up heaven and earth, the Yellow Emperor!

It was the Yellow Emperor who had wielded his sword to slay the immortals and Chi You!

Lin Hao resisted the urge to kneel in the end: 'I am.'

The Yan Huang Clan, didn't China call itself the descendants of Yan Huang.

It didn't seem strange for the Yellow Emperor to call himself the Yan Huang Clan.

China recognises the Yan and Huang Emperors as its ancestors and calls itself the descendant of the Yan and Huang Clan.

'Did you just see me put an end to an era?' The Yellow Emperor's voice boomed violently in Lin Hao's mind like a yellow bell.

'Yes.' Lin Hao had probably guessed something, perhaps, this was the true meaning of the transformation of the High Martial Era, or rather!

This era, was not the end of the High Martial Era, but a period of qualitative change in the High Martial Era, and if they could find a breakthrough, then, they would usher in a whole new world!

‘In fact, I am overthrowing a group that has oppressed my people and restricted their development. I am not ending an era, but opening up a whole new era that will allow humanity to have unlimited possibilities.’ After saying this, the Yellow Emperor waved his big hand and an imposing scene appeared in Lin Hao’s mind.

‘You know, I was once greeted by an immortal master to ascend to the immortal realm and successfully ranked in the immortal class, but it was when I saw this scene that I resolutely, one man, one sword, destroyed the heavenly palace and gave up the immortal’s path to longevity!’

What ?

Lin Hao was stunned!

It turned out that the Yellow Emperor was already in the immortal class, but for the sake of humanity, he was determined to sacrifice himself, one man, one sword, and fierce battle against the immortals in the Heavenly Palace!

Lin Hao saw the picture inside the Immortal Palace, Lin Hao was so shocked that he couldn’t speak, so, is the so-called Immortal actually like this ?

From the very beginning, our understanding of the so-called immortals was actually wrong!

Lin Hao also finally understood why Huang Di wielded ? Closed Fuzzy Fuzzy Fuzzy Closed Chia Fuzzy Steak? sword to cut down the immortals!

If it was Lin Hao's choice, he would have done the same, only he wasn't sure if he had the ability to do so, not to mention, this was something that Huang Di had already gone and done.

It was only at this moment that Lin Hao was truly clear about what Immortality really was!

But he didn't dare to tell anyone, once he did, it would turn everyone's thoughts and worldview upside down.

The image of the Immortal Palace slowly began to dissipate, and the image of the Yellow Emperor also began to dissipate in Lin Hao's mind: 'What I should do has been completely done at this moment, where should the land of Yanhuang go, and in what direction should it go in your hands, I don't know, but you just remember that your original intention of recommending Xuan Yuan in blood must not be forgotten'

Dissipated!

With Huang Di's last words, it completely dissipated.

Only then did Lin Hao understand why the Yellow Emperor himself had set the rule that a person's life span was no more than a thousand, yet he had remained to this day, because, he wasn't really alive in the true sense of the word, but had incorporated a part of his divine soul into the Xuan Yuan Sword Soul, waiting for a suitable owner of the Xuan Yuan Sword to appear.

Now that this person had appeared, it was only natural that he should go where he should go.

Lin Hao opened his eyes and had long since burst into tears.

Yes, there are some fairy tales where the truth is not so good, and some myths that are not so magical and even a little dark.

So many people are more willing to believe in the superficial goodness than to face the dark truths.

Lin Hao opened his eyes, the Xuan Yuan sword quickly shrunk, eventually becoming the size of a pendant, Lin Hao directly found a rope, then tied it around his neck, his gaze gradually became firm, and sharp, and deep like an endless sea of stars.

Shen Xiyan silently accompanied Lin Hao, naturally, she clearly felt the changes in Lin Hao's body, Shen Xiyan was even a little surprised, this Lin Hao, made her feel a little strange, so strange that it was hard for her to adapt.

‘Lin, Lin Hao, are you alright?’ Shen Xiyan was full of worry and reached out her hand to hold Lin Hao’s hand, but she froze on the way to reach out her hand, she didn’t know why, she didn’t dare.

Lin Hao also felt the change in his body and smiled gently, ‘I’m fine, you take a good rest, just leave the next thing to Mo Tianji and Gu Nansheng and the others, Jun Wu Ren will also help you.’

‘I’ Shen Xiyan wanted to say something but stopped, she seemed to have thought of something, only after a long time did she sigh bitterly, ‘I know, you must be more careful ah, we are all waiting for you to come back, I think that after your return After that, it’s time for us to live a peaceful life, right?’

Lin Hao petted Shen Xiyan’s head and said softly, ‘Yes, I will, take good care of yourself, there are some things I have to do and must do.’

‘I understand, I understand everything.’ Shen Xiyan spread her smile, and without waiting for Lin Hao to say goodbye, Shen Xiyan left first.

Shen Xiyan could not let go of Lin Hao, and could not bear the pain of parting, and Lin Hao was the same, sadness and sorrow, no one was willing to face.

Shen Xiyan had a feeling that Lin Hao would be gone for a long time, but no matter what, she would wait for Lin Hao’s return, as long as he came back safely.

Lin Hao's departure was not known to anyone except Shen Xi Yan, and Lin Hao did not greet them, not even Yin Nanfeng knew that Lin Hao had already left the Lin family villa area and was heading straight for Cang Shan Town.

This time, the venue of the Heavenly Sea Alliance's Martial Arts Conference was precisely on top of the ancient town next to Cang Shan Lake.

Lin Hao was alone and on his way, and changed into an ancient costume, not to mention, looked quite a bit dashing and handsome chivalrous, no way, Cang Shan Town had a rule that you had to change into an ancient costume to enter the place, any dynasty was allowed.

This is exactly what these clans want, in fact, the people of these clans have not been in the world for as short as a hundred years, or as long as several hundred years, so they still dress in more ancient makeup, which is convenient for them to hide.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1737-1738

Chapter 1737

This Cang Shan Town is also the only scenic spot in all of China that you are not allowed to enter without wearing ancient costumes, and the modern atmosphere here is really not strong, if not for the occasional person taking out their phone to look at it, you might even suspect that you have traveled to ancient times. It was only after Lin Hao had already left for half a day that the Lin family members reacted to the fact that Lin Hao had already left. However, Shen Xi Yan did not explain in detail, but only told them that there were some things Lin Hao had to do and that he would be back soon.

At the same time, she also stopped Jun Wu Regret, who wanted to go forward to look for Lin Hao.

It was obvious that Jun Wu Regret was still a bit weaker now, and could already be said to be unqualified to fight alongside Lin Hao.

At least not currently capable of being able to? Dye er yi xi zha wu zero steak? Fight alongside Lin Hao!

Jun Wu Regret felt incomparably suffocated and didn't even want to admit it, yet there was nothing he could do, no matter how much he didn't admit it, it was still a fact.

Subsequently Yin Nanfeng also learned of the news, only to make Yin Nanfeng slightly surprised, did not expect Lin Hao had gone one step ahead, even they were not informed.

Yin Nanfeng did not wait any longer, but led a team directly to Cang Shan Town.

Apparently Yin Nanfeng was also aware of the rules of Cang Shan Town, and thus the group he led had all changed into the armour of ancient soldiers, while he personally donned the armour of a general.

The sudden arrival of this group of people and holding weapons in various parts of Cang Shan Town, as if standing guard, became a unique scenery of Cang Shan Town, and those tourists all took photos and wondered what was going on.

Is this a new project for the tourist attractions in Cang Shan Town? These tourists also felt that there seemed to be an extraordinarily large number of tourists in Cang Shan Town today.

Little did they know, there were no telling how many martial arts powerhouses mixed in!

Led by the three major clans, the Thousand Clans, the Moving Mountain Clan and the Yuehai Clan, there were also more than ten smaller clans gathered here, as well as scattered martial practitioners from all over the world who had come to join in the fun.

These scattered cultivators are almost incomparable to the small clans, and are the equivalent of a single lineage, with only one or two martial artists in the whole family, and these martial artists have long since entered the world to live with ordinary people and blend in.

They never took the initiative to reveal their identity as martial artists, but now that the clan has entered the world, they do not have too many worries about their identity.

In the eyes of ordinary people, they are quite powerful martial artists, but in the eyes of the clan, they are not worth mentioning either. On the contrary, they are more loosely controlled, not to mention that they, who have entered the world first, understand that it is now a society under the rule of law and know the rules.

When Yin Nanfeng arrived, he first went to see Qin Long, the host of this Heavenly Sea, one of the four town guards. Yin Nanfeng informed Qin Long that Lin Xuanyuan had arrived.

Qin Long stood with his arms folded, because of Chen Bei Xuan's sword, his strength had soared and he had regained his confidence. He had originally fallen to the early stage of Grand Master, but now that he had regained his confidence and cultivated hard, he had recovered to the peak level of the middle stage of Grand Master, as if he had regained his former style of the Four Great Zhen Guards.

Beside Qin Long, there were two other early Grand Master War God powerhouses.

Qin Long turned his back on Yin Nanfeng: 'Lin Xuan Yuan? Is that the person chosen by the Dragon Lord? The second person, apart from us, to obtain the Divine Dragon Order?'

'Yes.' Yin Nanfeng said respectfully.

'A mere peak of the Innate Realm, why should the Dragon Lord take such care of him?' Qin Long was very upset, it took the four Zhen Guards to acquire a Divine Dragon Order and it was now carried by the strongest Zhen Guardian, Yuan Wu, this one kid at the peak of the Innate Realm was qualified to possess such a thing, making him very unbalanced.

‘Zhen Guardian Qin Long! I need to remind you to watch your words! The thoughts of the Dragon Lord are not for you and I to speculate on.’ Yin Nanfeng’s brow furrowed.

Qin Long’s face was also somewhat complicated, yet he did not continue to dwell on the topic, thus inquiring, ‘Then Lin Xuan Yuan and Lin Hao, are they related?’

Yin Nanfeng shook his head after a slight hesitation, ‘There is no relationship, Lin Xuan Yuan is the outcast son of the hidden Lin family, who subsequently became Chen Bei Xuan’s closed-door disciple, in addition to being someone who was handpicked by the Dragon Lord.’

Chapter 1738

‘You go and do what you have to do.’ Qin Long didn’t say anything else and waved his hand for Qin Long to leave.

After Qin Long left, he wiped a cold sweat, and wondered if Lin Hao walked the world under the name Lin Xuan Yuan, and also, if he had changed his mask?

Lin Hao’s special reason, so after that, Lin Hao retired to live honestly in the Sea of Heaven, and after that, there was no more Lin Hao turning over the seas, and the one who really turned over the seas was Lin Xuan Yuan!

Yin Nanfeng had already ordered Shen Xiyan and Jun Wuhuo to keep everyone who knew Lin Hao had obtained the Xuan Yuan Sword under wraps!

If this matter leaked out, it would only harm Lin Hao!

At this moment, Lin Hao had already changed into his mask and was walking through the ancient alleys of Cang Shan Town, walking aimlessly and feeling the style of this Jiangnan smoky town.

The alleys were deep, and stepping on the uneven and slightly mossy stone paths, it was as if he had crossed time and space.

The moon is cold, and I feel sorry for anyone who has a green stone floor.

The beads on the corners of the eaves have been renewed. The moon is a very cold one. The light is broken again, and it becomes a full light.

The night is burned out in the fishing fire, see the rooftop again turn a few degrees of spring to ‘Hey, is this side of Jiangnan smoke and rain?’ Lin Hao smiled to himself, but to be honest, strolling in the middle of such a quaint and charming town was indeed pleasant to the body and mind, and it was nice to open up your heart.

Just as Lin Hao was still lamenting, a very cute little girl suddenly appeared in front of him, looking at him with a crooked grin, her big watery eyes as bright and sparkling as black pearls.

This little girl was about seven years old, dressed in a lolita outfit, she was really cute, and with that delicate porcelain doll-like face, she was adorable!

Lin Hao obviously felt that this little girl was looking at herself, making Lin Hao unconsciously touch his own face, which was wearing a mask, Lin Hao was a bit puzzled, what? Is this mask so handsome?

Although Lin Hao did feel quite handsome when he changed into it, but it wasn't so much that it attracted even such a small girl, right?

Lin Hao wandered all the way over, and there were indeed quite a few pretty girls who secretly looked at themselves and even took pictures. Lin Hao admired the town's scenery all the way and immersed himself in it, instead appearing somewhat high-strung, which made those girls not dare to come up and ask for contact information easily.

The two stared at each other for about half a minute, Lin Hao was the first to lose, this little girl was too cute too: 'That, do you have something little girl?'

'Nothing, just looking at you.' The little girl spoke with a smile, her voice was sweet and soft, making hearts blossom, and even more so, leaving countless people to stop and watch.

‘Wow, this little girl is too cute, right?’

‘Yeah so cute, like to go hug her.’

Seeing so many people watching, Lei Ling was also a little unhappy, that frown was heartbreaking.

Lei Ling didn’t care so much, tugging Lin Hao’s hand and running, ‘Run.’

Lin Hao’s face was dumbfounded as he was dragged by Lei Ling and ran, not knowing what was going on since the beginning?

After running for a while, he arrived outside the town, the fishing boat pier here, this area is a pavilion built by the water, ancient and beautiful, and many fishing boats here are docked here, but not many people come here now.

‘Phew, I’m exhausted.’ The little girl released Lin Hao’s hand and patted her chest, not forgetting to stick her tongue out at Lin Hao: ‘Aren’t you tired?’

Lin Hao was still a little confused and was just about to say something when the little girl suddenly noticed something and took a step forward, saying coldly, ‘Get out! Who dares to follow me?’

Lin Hao frowned, who was stalking him? He couldn't even spot it!

Not long after, a figure quickly appeared in front of Lin Hao and the others, it was a young man, about seventeen or eighteen years old, wearing a navy blue Chinese uniform, his face was very helpless as he looked at that little Lolita girl, 'Miss Ling'er, the Lord Mother wants you to go back, can you not make things difficult for us?'

Lin Hao's brow furrowed even deeper, there was someone!

And this man was at most just over twenty, obviously a strong martial artist, Lin Hao could feel the fluctuations of the Dao's essence on the other party, but to Lin Hao's consternation, he couldn't even see through the other party's cultivation level!

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1739-1740

Chapter 1739

A cultivation level that even he couldn't see through, that must be a Grand Master level martial powerhouse!

Lin Hao was even more curious about this little Lolita's identity, as she had a Grand Master bodyguard with her at all times.

But Lin Hao was also very curious, this little girl Lolita did not have any powerful qi or Dao Yin aura on her body, it seemed that she was just an ordinary little girl?

‘Ah Hu, if you want to go back, you go back yourself, I’ve had a hard time running out, I’m not going back!’ Lei Ling pouted and puffed out in anger, pinching her waist.

‘Miss Ling’er, are you trying to force my hand? You know, the master mother ordered that we won’t stop until we achieve our goal.’ The young man called Ah Hu’s face looked a little ugly.

‘Hmph, don’t give that shit. I don’t believe it.’ Lei Ling cocked her head adorably, with a look that carried no fear at all.

Lin Hao was an outsider, so naturally it wasn’t good to get involved and subconsciously walked away slightly, not to mention he was didn’t even know exactly what was going on.

‘In that case, Miss Ling’er, I’m sorry.’ Ahu’s body was filled with powerful qi and rose up in the air, countless flashes of silver thunder surrounded Ahu’s body, the powerful aura of an early Grand Master was on display!

Lin Hao’s pupils suddenly shrank!

Surprisingly, it was an extremely rare thunder dao implication!

Sure enough, he was at the early stage of Grand Master!

Seeing Ah Hu like this, that little girl Lolita bristled unhappily, then leapt up and then kicked fiercely towards Ah Hu.

The corners of Lin Hao's mouth twitched, something was wrong, and he was about to save Little Miss Lolita when Lin Hao was shocked to find that not only did the corners of his mouth twitch, but that Tiger's mouth twitched too, with a very bitter expression!

However, then

Boom!

Ah Hu, an early Grand Master big shot, was just kicked out by the little girl's plain, unadorned, unadorned kick! Just one kick sent him flying out!

Tiger, who had fallen from the sky, smashed into the hard stone slab, which shattered with a loud bang and made a big crater.

Tiger didn't even grunt, as he was used to it.

He knew this was the result, but he had orders, so what could he do?

Swoosh!

Lei Ling went in a flash, so fast that it even produced a sonic boom in a flash!

In an instant, his flesh broke the sound barrier!

This!

That was terrifying!

Lei Ling dashed to Tiger's side and generally lifted him up like a chicken, the key, this was too damn unscientific, the little girl was about one meter, yet she lifted up a youth close to one meter eight.

Then, with a graceful flying kick, she flew out!

With such a light kick, the youth at the early stage of Grand Master was kicked a hundred meters away by a seven-year-old girl with no Dao Yin aura, and then ruthlessly, plunged headfirst into the Cang Shan Lake, moreover, directly swindled up a cloud of water, and in a short while, many innocent small fish that were shaken to death emerged

As for that situation, after falling down, did not venture, directly slipped, obviously know that the other party is unable to catch the thunder spirit back.

However, there is naturally no way for this attack to hurt a Grand Master powerhouse.

Lin Hao was dumbfounded, the truth was on the spot, no mistake ?

This little girl didn't even have any Dao implication fluctuations!

Moreover, Lin Hao couldn't feel any energy in her body, so he ruled out the possibility that she was a strong person who had been stripped of her dao essence.

Wouldn't that mean that this little girl had broken the sound barrier and kicked the Grand Master with the strength of her physical body ?

How violent must that physical strength be ? Looking at this boneless, delicate little body, Lin Hao felt that a gust of wind could blow her away!

Could this be the Heavenly Mountain Girl ?

‘Hee hee, didn’t scare you, right?’ The little girl, Lolita, was looking at Lin Hao who was still dumbfounded: ‘I’m just a little stronger, you? Dye Aye Dye Serve Yi Pai Aisi? Don’t be afraid haha.’

Lei Ling stretched out her soft, boneless little hand and placed it in front of Lin Hao: ‘Meet me, my name is Lei Ling, you can call me Ling’er.’

Lin Hao didn’t come back to his senses and shook hands with this little girl who was a big kid: ‘Lin Xuan Yuan.’

Chapter 1740

Lin Hao held Lei Ling’s hand and also felt it, it really didn’t feel a thing, strange, this little girl is no different from a normal little girl ah, how on earth did she do it?

Lei Ling sat down suspended in the air at the edge of the pavilion, below was the water of Cang Shan Lake, which was still clear, two little feet were wiggling and waving in the air, very cute.

‘I’m seven years old today, but I don’t want to have a birthday, it’s only for adults, I’m a child, I don’t want to have a birthday. I don’t have many friends, so I ran away from home and just wanted to wander around and have a look around. I didn’t expect Tiger to find me anyway, the guy is so annoying.’ Lei Ling beamed and complained, seemingly very unhappy.

I don't know why, but Lin Hao felt a very contradictory vibe from Lei Ling, watching her speak childishly and softly, with the melancholy of a child, but with the vicissitudes of an adult who understood things.

This is too strange? yi yi jie di di lu servant?

Lin Hao, on the other hand, noticed one thing: seven years old? Only seven years old?

Meow, people are seven years old in first or second grade, or even playing in the mud in that nook, but you're already kicking the Grand Master with your flying foot

'So what does this have to do with you dragging me here?' Lin Hao was a little amused, 'So many people in this town don't drag, what are you dragging me for?'

Lin Hao was very speechless, he wasn't in too much of a hurry, after all, there was Yin Nanfeng signing up over at the Martial Arts Conference, he didn't need to get involved that soon.

There were some mysteries about this little girl, making Lin Hao intensely curious, who was her mother again?

What was even more bizarre was this Thunder Spirit, how did she achieve the premise of breaking the sound barrier with her flesh without relying on her Daoist heritage or powerful qi and not being damaged in the slightest?

Even if a fighter jet breaks the sound barrier more than once, it will cause great damage to the fuselage, not to mention a human body breaking the sound barrier.

‘I think you’re special.’ Lei Ling was unapologetic and winked playfully and cutely towards Lin Hao, ‘And I feel like you’re a lot like me, it’s tiring to live with a mask on, isn’t it? You’re wearing a mask and your name isn’t your own, is it?’

Lin Hao’s mind jolted, but fortunately his reaction was quick and his mental quality was sufficient, his face didn’t change: ‘What are you saying, little girl? I didn’t understand, I’m just called Lin Xuan Yuan ah.’

‘You lied, you panicked just now, I could feel your heartbeat visibly slow down abruptly for a moment and then speed up quickly. You were poked by me and then lied to hide it.’ Lei Ling bristled and directly poked Lin Hao’s lie.

Lin Hao’s brows furrowed slightly and his face was a little ugly, sure that this little girl was only seven years old?

Lin Hao was already wondering if he should tell her to shut up, after all, his identity being exposed was a very scary consequence.

‘I’m really only seven years old, don’t be too surprised, after all, you’re not the first person to be shocked by me.’ Lin Hao hadn’t even acted yet, but it was as if Lei Ling could read his mind, he actually knew Lin Hao’s inner thoughts.

Lin Hao was so stiff that he didn’t even know what to say.

‘Since you said it was Lin Xuan Yuan, you are Lin Xuan Yuan, this is a secret between us two. I’ll tell you my secret as well.’ Lei Ling at this time no longer had the old air of pretending to be mature, nor did she have the spirit of a young girl, instead she had more than a touch of adult melancholy and helplessness.

Lin Hao chose to shut up and did not make any other moves, only choosing to be a qualified listener.

It turned out that Lei Ling was indeed only seven years old, and that today was her seventh birthday.

It was the pearl of the Lei family, and with the death of her father, it had been her mother Lin Yun who had been in charge of the Lei family.

Lei Ling is the only direct descendant of the Lei family at present, but Lei Ling grew up unable to cultivate qi and bear the inheritance of the Dao, the only thing she has is her unbelievable strength and a strong physical body.

If it wasn't for Lin Yun's determination to defend him, I'm afraid Lei Ling would have been expelled from the family.
