

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1871-1880

Chapter 1871

Yuan Wu looked at Lin Hao with displeasure, 'You kid can be, you're not as strong as me, you're not as powerful as me, you're not as good as me, even we both have the Dragon Master Order together, but why am I only able to act as an errand boy for you kid?'

'Because I hold a secret that you don't.' Lin Hao smiled mysteriously, causing Yuan Wu to become furious, listen to this, is this human talk?

Yuan Wu didn't bother to pay attention to Lin Hao, he took him straight to the capital of China and entered the imperial palace, allowing Lin Hao to personally meet the Lord of China, the Dragon Master!

Who is the Dragon Lord? Lin Hao had naturally seen him before, after all, on television, the people often get to see the Dragon Lord alright.

But seeing it on TV and meeting it in reality were two completely different concepts.

After bringing Lin Hao to an ancient, yet very quaint study alone, Yuan Wu simply closed the door and left.

Leaving Lin Hao alone in it, he didn't even bother to say hello.

‘Who are you calling a cheapskate? It’s not me, is it?’ A thick, majestic voice rang out, and the Emperor’s Dragon Might slowly pressed over.

Lin Hao jerked to his feet and hurriedly saluted, ‘Lin Hao, pay my respects to the Dragon Lord!’

What surprised Lin Hao even more was that this Dragon Master was an ordinary man with no cultivation, yet he gave Lin Hao a great pressure, even a strong Xuan Master had never given him such a great pressure.

Even if he was an ordinary man, he was still the Dragon Lord of China, the Dragon Lord of 1.4 billion people!

The Dragon Lord was wearing a casual shirt, a suit and leather shoes, not a suit, and looking at his appearance, he was afraid that he had just returned from a meeting.

The Dragon Master is actually in his seventies, but he looks no different from a strong man in his forties or fifties, his hair is already white, but his majestic face is full of a kind smile.

The majesty and kindness are not contradictory, giving a kindness to treat people with kindness and smile? The smile is like that of a family member. He was as easy-going as a family member, but the majesty of his body made people feel majestic and inoffensive.

‘Get up, no need to be formal, there are no outsiders here, feel free to sit down.’
With a faint smile, the Dragon Lord sat down at the first place.

Lin Hao thanked him and casually found a seat and sat down.

DONG DONG!

At this time, a gentle and moving female voice rang out from outside the study,
‘Father, is a guest here? I’ve brought you tea.’

Lin Hao was stunned, why did this voice sound so familiar?

‘Xiao Xin is here, come in.’ A kind smile of being a father appeared on the Dragon Master’s face.

The door to the study creaked open, Lin Hao looked at the sound and saw the person coming and his eyes widened, his whole body froze in place.

This, isn’t this the owner’s wife of the Queen’s Bar?

This

Crap!

Qin Yuxin was, was she the daughter of the Dragon Lord?

‘Eh? Why is this brat here?’ Qin Yuxin also looked rather surprised when she saw Lin Hao.

Lin Hao was embarrassed, give him some face, don’t call him a brat, don’t he want to lose face?

‘Me? The Dragon Lord’s honored guest, you know?’ Lin Hao was not happy when he heard Qin Yuxin say that, and sat on the chair with his legs in the bridge group, as if he was an ‘honored guest’ at the door.

Qin Yuxin rolled her eyes and put down her Qing tea, ‘Then father I will go out first.’

‘Go on, go on, I’ll take you to eat something delicious in the evening, Little Xin.’ The Dragon Lord was a pure father at this moment, no longer the powerful Dragon Lord.

‘Good, but can you bring him along too, it’s too boring for us to eat as father and daughter, and my brother is not at home, father, what do you say?’ Qin Yuxin’s face was full of joy, and she even named Lin Hao as a piece.

Naturally, the Dragon Master had no choice but to agree down.

Lin Hao looked at Qin Yuxin and then at the Dragon Master, his face was full of doubts.

‘You don’t have to look at me like that, Xiao Xin wasn’t sent there by me, she stayed there on her own, I guess the reason for that is clear to you, isn’t it?’ The Dragon Master resumed his majesty.

Chapter 1872

‘I know.’

‘Well, speak, I already know the purpose of your trip here, tell me what you think.’

The invisible pressure released by the Dragon Lord made Lin Hao feel very pressurised, not daring to deceive in any way, he honestly spoke about his plan.

It was just that what was unclear to Lin Hao was that the Dragon Lord was already laying out the plan earlier than himself.

After the two of them had talked confidentially for three hours, Lin Hao and the Dragon Master walked out of the study.

Lin Hao's face was filled with guilt, 'They say that saints are heartless, and that they had completely cut off their dust karma when they became saints, only I didn't expect them to do so when they were leaving

'After all, they are all Chinese people ah, Chinese heritage up and down for five thousand years, always Chinese Xia is still Chinese people's Chinese Xia, they are not convenient to intervene, but also secretly help.'

'Lin Hao, you must already know what to do, just let go and do it, all you need to know is that you are a Chinese, a descendant of Yan Huang.' The Dragon Master smiled and patted Lin Hao's shoulder, the Dragon Master had high hopes for Lin Hao.

'I respectfully obey the Dragon Lord's order? Grasping the shade of the shade of Yi Shan Zero Lu Shan?!'

'Well, Lin Hao, after this incident, how about giving you the Dragon Lord's seat? I'm getting old after all.'

What?

This sudden statement almost made Lin Hao's back flash, this, this is not possible!

This was really scary for Lin Hao.

When he came back to his senses, Lin Hao smiled and shook his head, refusing very decisively.

Hearing these words from the Dragon Lord, Lin Hao knelt down on one knee and bowed, presenting the Dragon Lord's Order with both hands, 'Please take back the order of the Dragon Lord, take back the Dragon Lord's Order.'

'I'm just an idle person, I can't take on such a heavy responsibility, so don't make fun of me, Dragon Lord.'

To be a Dragon Master?

Impossible!

Lin Hao had never thought of this, how could the Lord of a country be the one who wanted to be?

If he became the Dragon Lord, he would be above all others, ordering all the people around, and no one would dare to disobey the sword.

But the more you gain, the more you lose, and Lin Hao did not want to be bound by so much.

He was used to a life of bloodshed and licking blood from the mouth of a sword, but a peaceful and quiet life was more desirable, wasn't it?

It just happened that the times came to this era, he had to stand out.

'Hahahaha, I'm just kidding with you, just take the Dragon Lord's Order.' The Dragon Lord laughed out loud, laughing heartily, 'From now on, the Dragon Sect, change to the Dragon Group, after this, you command the Dragon Group, after Chen Bei Xuan, sit in the capital.'

'Dragon Master, I refuse.' Lin Hao hesitated for a moment and still refused, now whether he accepted it or not, it was considered Chen Bei Xuan's world walking, Chen Bei Xuan was afraid that he would no longer care about the affairs of the capital, so it seemed like there was no excuse for the Dragon Master to let him sit in the capital.

However, Lin Hao still refused.

'The Dragon Sect has four main town guards, and there is even a Yuanwu town guard carrying the Dragon Lord's order to manage the Dragon Sect, whether in terms of strength or otherwise, the Yuanwu town guard is better than me.' Lin Hao wasn't stupid, if he were to take command of the Dragon Sect and become a dragon group instead, the four town guards would not be able to hate him to death.

The main thing was that once he was in an important position, he would be subject to a lot more restrictions, and it was naturally impossible for him to do so.

Whether it was to command a party or to order the world, it was not his intention.

‘Then let’s not talk about that for now, since you know my little Xin as well, let’s go to the family banquet in the evening together.’ The Dragon Lord didn’t seem to have any intention of forcing Lin Hao, that breezy and light-hearted appearance was rather like he was just joking with Lin Hao or testing him a bit.

Only the Dragon Lord knew in his heart that he was serious about this.

As the Dragon Master, he knew more, and he was able to know where the times would eventually go.

In the end, the Dragon Sect would leave together with this era.

The Dragon Master did not know who would guard the four directions of China after the Dragon Sect had gone.

The end of the age of magic is also the beginning of the age of high martial arts, where modern technology and the role of the army are still evident, but the time when war was won and lost by numbers is gone.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1873-1874

Chapter 1873

As for rushing to the Dragon Master's family banquet, Lin Hao still refused, it was inappropriate, someone's father and daughter were having a meal, why should he go to join in the fun?

The most crucial thing was Lin Hao's father's relationship with Qin Yuxin, it would be even more inappropriate for him to go and join in the fun, in order to avoid embarrassment, Lin Hao refused.

The Dragon Lord did not force the matter and sent him to the door, while Lin Hao left the palace alone.

Just after he left the door, Lin Hao called Shen Xiyan personally.

'Xiyan, get ready, get ready to go home, and also tell Qingcheng the good news.' Since his identity was already known to everyone, there was no need to continue hiding it, the old lady was right, only when he went home could he take better care of Shen Xiyan and Lin Qingcheng.

'I knew it

Shen Xiyan froze for a moment, although she had already guessed it, but she didn't expect that so soon Lin Hao would decide.

Because Shen Xiyan also knew that Lin Hao's identity had been revealed, then Lin Hao would naturally pick her and Lin Qingcheng up and take them back to the Jinling Lin family.

At this moment, Shen Xiyan was actually a little nervous.

'Lin Hao, is it so soon? I... I'm not ready yet? By the way, grandma and aunt and eldest uncle, what kind of gifts do they like?' Shen Xiyan was really a little apprehensive and a little nervous.

'It's alright, I've already sent someone to pick you guys up, right, you tell Jun Wu Ren to give me a call, there are some things I need to talk to him about.' Lin Hao could only lay out this situation ahead of time, as for the next, just wait for the results.

In the martial arts world, he didn't need to search for so many things, his strength was quite strong in front of the great masters, but in reality, it was insignificant compared to those bigwigs, and this plot, it was a plot between the bigwigs, so what role could he play?

The most important thing is that he does not want to be used as a pawn.

The first thing you need to do is to get back to your grandmother.

Lin Qingcheng was in a similar mood as Shen Xiyan, i.e. nervous, happy, and apprehensive.

When Lin Hao waited for Jun Wu Regret's call, he was already preparing to go to the airport in the capital, directly planning to fly back to Jinling and wait for Shen Xiyao and Lin Qingcheng to arrive.

Only, instead of waiting for Jun Wu Regret's call, he waited for a few unexpected guests!

A gust of wind came, leaves fell, branches broke, and several sword lights sped from afar, erupting with an ear-piercing sword sound, the sword lights rubbing against the air erupted with a heart-pounding sonic boom.

The sword lights came straight at Lin Hao's vitals.

Buzz!

Sword Domain Divine Action!

A sword domain barrier surrounded Lin Hao's body, and several sword lights directly struck the sword domain, and after a roar, the sword lights dissipated, while the light curtain barrier formed by the sword domain only emitted faint ripples and was not damaged.

Boom!

Although the sword light dissipated, the aftermath of the attack caused a thigh-thick tree, two metres away from Lin Hao, to break off and collapse!

Lin Hao was unharmed, only his hair was slightly blown by the breeze and lifted slightly.

Lin Hao frowned, this was the capital, at the foot of the Dragon Lord, and these people dared to openly sneak up on him ?

This place was a bit remote, but it was still in the capital, so they really had no ordinary guts.

The sound of violent wind breaking sounded again as a dozen sharp swords descended from the sky and surrounded Lin Hao in an instant, their cold light flashing and sharpness rising in all directions.

If it were anyone else, these terrifying flying swords would have been pierced into a sieve!

Lin Hao's brow was locked as a sword qi continued to coalesce around his body!

Sword intent vertical ? Serving Pao Pao Zhai Yi Zero Serving Yi Xi ? Across !

At this moment, sword qi burst out from above and below Lin Hao's body, sword intent was rampant, at this moment, Lin Hao was like a sharp sword out of its sheath, there was a vague feeling of having practiced the Seven Killings Divine Sword Duel's fifth form, the unification of human swords!

'Go!' Lin Hao held his sword finger and pointed towards the flying swords that were attacking him, a sword qi rose up to the sky and attacked those flying swords head on!

Chapter 1874

Sparks flew as the clanging of golden gorillas rang out, and sword qi clashed with the flying swords controlled by the opponent's strongest man, without losing any ground!

Again!

Under Lin Hao's control, several more sword qi rushed up into the sky, the previous sword qi entangled the flying swords controlled by the opponent, and now several more sword qi joined them, the opponent could not fight for a while, and in a short time, they were routed and knocked to the ground.

What made Lin Hao's face look ugly was that from the beginning to the end, he had not seen his attacker.

'Since you dare to openly attack me in the capital, how come you don't even have the courage to come out and meet me? Come out, I know who you are.' Lin Hao had quite a few enemies, but through the other party's methods, Lin Hao was probably able to guess who had made the move.

People who were good with swords, as if they were from the Dragon Family, were good at manipulating swords to kill people across the sky.

If it was in ancient times, that was a good way to take the enemy's head from ten thousand armies.

'Kill him!' A cold voice rang out from the darkness, and a dozen strong men wearing night clothes and holding swords rushed out, directly taking both ends of the alley? Shan Shan closed Yi Ai Ai grasping love? gave a siege.

These people emitted the Dao Yin aura, chaotic and complex, Lin Hao is not able to distinguish the identity of these people based on their Dao Yin aura, but, to kill him, only dispatched these dozen sectarians, is not a little too underestimate him Lin Hao?

These people were obviously well-trained assassins, and without too much nonsense, they rushed out and immediately launched a siege on Lin Hao. These people worked together in groups of three or five, closely and tacitly, and the power presented was truly tremendous.

Lin Hao was surrounded by these people and surprisingly felt quite pressured for a while.

At the Dragon Lord's home, the Dragon Lord had already personally cooked a large table of meals, waiting for Qin Yuxin to arrive, and the only person who could make the Dragon Lord personally cook was Qin Yuxin.

There was a bang!

Qin Yuxin kicked the door directly and entered, her face was quite unhappy as she looked at Lord Long, her face slightly angry, but when she saw a table of sumptuous meals in front of her, Qin Yuxin finally held back the words that were on her lips, her own father personally cooked the meals, she, as a daughter, could still recognise them.

‘I know that you look angry, it's not that I didn't invite him, but that boy refused, this has nothing to do with me.’ The Dragon Master stretched his hands, ‘Besides, that boy personally refused, it's not like I can force him to come over for dinner, right? Besides, this relationship is broken when it's broken, even if it's his son, there's no need for you to continue to dwell on it.’

‘Sit down and eat, I know the Qin family struck out, no harm done, if that boy died so easily, it wouldn't be Lin Hao.’ The dragon lord knew that Qin Yuxin was all aware of the situation, which was why he looked like he was raising an eyebrow.

But how was it that the Dragon Lord knew all about it? But the Dragon Lord had no intention of getting involved, and had even forbidden Qin Yuxin from continuing to be involved in the matter.

That man had chosen another woman back then, not his own daughter, and to continue to dwell on it, was it still necessary to hold on to what happened back then?

Qin Yuxin did not say anything, sat down and ate in silence, the dragon master also did not say anything else, father and daughter eating quietly can not send a single movement, the atmosphere is a bit awkward.

Lin Hao had already fought dozens of rounds with these black-clad killers in the alley, and although the other side was attrition, Lin Hao was also feeling the pressure.

Although these guys were all at the Sovereign level of strength, they were able to use their formations and unite with each other to stop him in his tracks, and although they couldn't hurt Lin Hao, they were still so entangled that Lin Hao couldn't get out. Lin Hao was surrounded by a dozen men in black. Lin Hao's body emitted a compelling sharpness and dozens of sword qi surrounded his body, making it impossible for these black-clothed assassins to get close to him.

Lin Hao, however, also had some headaches, and there was no way to finish these black-clothed men off.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1875-1876

Chapter 1875

In half an hour, he had only killed eight people on the opposite side. The other side cooperated with each other, and several people combined together, and although they were Zongshi, the level of combat power and attacks that they exploded out had surprisingly reached the level of a Grand Zongzi.

With the car wheel battle, Lin Hao was also somewhat exhausted by the situation.

‘I didn’t think that using the arcane formations could be like this.’ Lin Hao also sighed, this was too esoteric, to be able to batch cultivate strong Zong Shi to become assassins, the depth of the person behind it was obviously not simple either.

Originally, Lin Hao wanted to drag it out and uncover the person behind these assassins, but now, I’m afraid there was no way out.

Sword Qi, open!

Lin Hao’s body erupted with an astounding sword intent, while the sword qi surrounding his body also violently erupted in all directions, precisely the Sword Swashbuckler!

Hundreds of sword qi impacted out, while Lin Hao rushed into the sky with a sword qi on his feet, Sword Domain Divine Movement!

Although he, like these assassins, was at the Zong Shi realm and could barely walk with a sword, he had a Sword Divine Movement move that allowed him to walk directly through the air!

The ear-piercing sound of clashing and sword qi erupting rang out, a hundred sword qi erupting at the same time, the power was extremely terrifying, even a great master would not be able to withstand it!

The moment the other side's formation was dispersed, their combat power abruptly diminished, and the remaining dozen or so sword qi appeared in a sweeping manner, exploding with horrific sword qi.

The situation was as spectacular as throwing a grenade into a pile of people.

Several assassins were seriously injured by the sword qi, their blood gushing out wildly, and the sharp sword qi rippling through their bodies was almost impossible to resist.

Two or three assassins had their arms severed by the sword qi, and screams of misery were heard from one to another.

'Go after them!' The leading assassin's face was incomparable, and those assassins who still had the strength to fight rushed up to the sky with their swords in their hands, while running wildly on the ground with chicken wings.

They were unable to fly through the air, but after all, they were clan masters, so they could still catch up as fast as they could with the help of their strength, like ancient light-skilled masters, jumping above the flying eaves of the roofs, and the flying swords they controlled were also speeding towards Lin Hao, trying to stop him.

Lin Hao was fleeing with his sword and blocking his opponent's flying sword attacks. Lin Hao was swaying in the air, and even the flying sword under his feet was flickering a bit, as if he was going to fall down at any moment when his strength was exhausted.

Somewhere above a high building in the alley, two figures were hidden in the darkness, and if one did not identify them carefully, one could not even detect where they were.

‘Miss Qin, Lin Hao has obviously exhausted himself, so it’s my turn to strike, right? This is the middle of the capital, those close guards might just smell it coming.’ A voice rang out in the darkness, full of hatred when the word Lin Hao was mentioned, if Lin Hao was here, he would surely be able to know who this person was.

‘I don’t think it’s that simple, he looks exhausted, but you forget, he is Lin Xuan Yuan, even the middle stage of Grand Master may not be his opponent, would he really be exhausted by a group of Zong Master killers? Beware of deception, as for those close guards, don’t worry, we, the Qin family, will find a way to stop those close guards.’

Another person in the darkness spoke up, that person took a slight step forward, the moonlight spilling down to reveal a young man with a rigid face, with a hideous and gruesome scar on the left side of his face, and an even more obscure and terrifying aura on his body.

This man was none other than Qin Fengyue, a member of the Qin family in the capital, and Qin Xiaorou’s own brother, as well as one of the youngest elders in the Qin family!

This time, Qin Feng Yue had joined forces with others, naturally for his own sister, Qin Xiaorou!

Of course? The ground west zero grasping Shan Zha Zha love? The reason for this is because of Qin Bingyu’s order.

Even though Qin Bingyu had married off, but counting, she was still a direct descendant of the Qin family.

The man beside Qin Fengyue, however, could not wait any longer, gritting his teeth, seeing that Lin Hao was about to fall from exhaustion, when would it be better not to strike now!

No matter what, he had to take revenge with his own hands!

Chapter 1876

It was also at this moment that the sword Qi beneath Lin Hao's feet finally collapsed, and Lin Hao was unable to stabilize his form, falling straight down from the sky at a rapid pace.

'Good opportunity!' The clan assassins chasing below were overjoyed at the sight of this scene and shot out their hands, several flying swords rushing up into the sky.

Equally elated was the man beside Qin Fengyue, who was instantly overjoyed as his Daoist heritage burst forth, emitting crimson fire that instantly illuminated the darkness, it was night time and there didn't seem to be many people living in this residential area, this to the blazing sun lighting up, the surroundings were like daylight!

That man has struck!

A thousand sunsets!

A meteorite with blazing flames, as thick as a water tank, descended from the sky at a terrifying speed, the temperature around it suddenly increased, these meteorites emitted an astonishing aura of the Dao, and the target of the attack was Lin Hao who was falling in the air!

‘Have they finally appeared? It’s really sinking in.’ A smile appeared on the face of the frantically falling Lin Hao.

‘Hehe, how dare you laugh when you’re on the verge of death.’ Thousand Sunset laughed coldly, his face filled with the pleasure of revenge.

When Yao Yang, the Thousand Sunset, appeared with this move, his identity could no longer be concealed.

Lin Hao couldn’t tell the identities of these killers, let alone which side of the force they belonged to, but the moment Thousand Sunset appeared, Lin Hao already knew who was up to no good!

Qin Feng, who was beside Qian Sunset, had an incomparably ugly face, which became even more hideous when set against the hideous scar on his face.

Qin Fengyue cursed Qian Sunset for his stupidity and actually turned around and left directly without hesitation, while firing a specially made flare as he left.

Once the flare was out, those ? XiZhongXiClosedZhongYiFu? The killers in pursuit were confused.

What happened ?

The target was about to be killed, but why give the order to retreat at this moment ?

The dozen or so assassins looked at each other, gritted their teeth and had to retrieve their flying swords and quickly flee in all directions.

At that moment, the falling Lin Hao stood firmly in mid-air again, with a sword Qi under his feet.

Lin Hao began to rapidly gather sword qi around his body, densely packed, a sword qi constantly surrounding his body, each sword qi emitting an amazing sword intent!

‘Crap, I’ve been tricked by this guy!’ Those assassins who had scattered in all directions hadn’t run far away and were all dumbfounded when they saw this scene.

They all thought that Lin Hao was so consumed by them that he was about to run out of strength, walking through the air, while there weren’t even enough sword Qi to protect his surroundings for three, and he wasn’t even able to maintain his walk through the air anymore.

What was this if not exhaustion? They actually admired Lin Hao, he had no Dao heritage, his realm was on par with theirs, and he was surrounded by so many well-trained assassins, but he was still able to hold on for so long, very impressive.

Many great masters wouldn't necessarily have been able to hold out until now.

He already knew pride.

But it wasn't until this moment that they reacted, bullshit, this guy was pretending on purpose!

'Let's go, hurry back and clear the scene, then go back and return to our orders, I think Elder Qin Fengyue saw the problem, that's why he told us to retreat at a critical moment, otherwise I'm afraid we'd all have to die here.' The leading assassin's face was cold and ugly, they had actually been tricked and played as monkeys, how angry they were in their hearts, yet there was nothing they could do about it.

On Lin Hao's side, he had originally used a hundred sword qi, sword qi carrying supreme sword qi, to directly break the attack of this thousand sunsets!

Only, just at the moment when the fireball, which was emitting appalling heat, was about to land on Lin Hao, a spiritual light flashed in Lin Hao's mind, and surprisingly, in a flash, he became enlightened!

In a flash, the sword Qi around Lin Hao suddenly collapsed, and then he brought out the Xuan Yuan Sword.

Buzz!

The Xuan Yuan Sword emitted a burst of sword chirping, as if it was incomparably excited, and without hesitation, Lin Hao pulled the sword out, and it was at this moment that the Xuan Yuan Sword emitted a golden glow.

Whether it was the sword aura of the Regulus sword or the sharp sharpness of Lin Hao's body, it was climbing sharply. One person and one sword were here, but it was regal and shook the sky and earth.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1877-1878

Chapter 1877

The several huge balls of fire above that head were actually vaguely impacted by this terrifying aura to the point of collapsing.

‘Impossible! How can he be so strong! So what if he doesn't have the Dao Yin, and he's protected by spirit weapons! Not still just a clan master!’

‘I don't believe it! I, Thousand Sunset, will take your life today!’

How could Thousand Sunset, who was connected to his own attacking mind, feel the palpitating fear coming over him so strongly at this moment, be willing to do so!

Roaring twice, he forced himself to stabilize his mind, the Dao contained energy within his body was brought into play to its utmost, instead of collapsing, the fireball that was vaguely about to collapse became even bigger and came crashing down towards Lin Hao!

‘You have two strikes!’ Lin Hao hadn’t expected that Thousand Sunset’s strength had also increased, and this fireball fell down like a titanic mountain, causing immense pressure on Lin Hao as well.

But, would Lin Hao back off?

No!

Without any unnecessary movements, Lin Hao held his Xuan Yuan Sword and slashed out towards the attack of Thousand Sunsets!

That heaven-shattering, earth-shattering sword blasted through the appalling ball of fire, and even under this sword, even the terrifying temperature was hardened and split!

The pitch-black sky seemed to ripple violently!

The power of this sword was so terrifying!

A single move to crack the terrifying attack of a thousand sunsets!

The stunning sword fell, and the enemy's attack collapsed for a long time before a heaven-shaking sword cry erupted and a golden sword light appeared, a sword that was as powerful as opening the heavens and splitting the earth, as if it was going to tear apart the firmament!

In fact, this sword had already cut out, when others saw this sword light, the battle had already ended, because the moment Lin Hao united his sword, the speed of his strike had already surpassed the speed of the sword light's appearance!

It was as if we looked into the sky and were lucky enough to see a shooting star, but in reality, that star had already fallen for an unknown amount of time by the time we saw it.

Bang!

Far above the tall building, Thousand Sunset's body shook violently, spitting blood and crashing through the railing, directly falling down from high in the sky at a fast speed.

The aftermath of the sword just now had actually injured Thousand Sunset as well.

Lin Hao's stunning sword strike, that blinding sword light, shook almost the entire Imperial City, countless people looked this way, almost all the clans, as well as martial artists, and even ordinary people in the Imperial City, all gathered their eyes here.

The power of this sword was truly terrifying and astonishing.

Qin Fengyue, who had already retreated, looked back with a gloomy gaze, that sword light was truly mind-blowing, and even he could not help but feel fear.

‘It’s over there! Quickly pursue!’ The Imperial City’s close guards, escaping their bonds, sped towards where Lin Hao was, the three of them flying through the air while there were still pairs of people on the ground galloping towards them, each one of them at a not uncommon realm.

‘Found you.’ Lin Hao also smiled faintly, the Young Patriarch of the Thousand Sects, Thousand Sunsets!

Lin Hao went in a flash, only to arrive under the tall building, only to find that the building was already empty, leaving only a puddle of blood on the ground? Zero Serving Yi Closed Yi Wu Zero ground? The trail.

Lin Hao’s face is a bit ugly, this thousand sunset is decisive, a blow failed, and found the difference between the strength of the two sides, but so decisive choose to escape!

But how could Lin Hao let this fellow escape so easily? Since he dared to assassinate him, he should pay the price he deserved. Besides, Lin Hao was not stupid, those assassins just now did not look like those trained by the Thousand Clans, I was afraid that there was someone else targeting him besides Thousand Sunset.

The only way to uncover the person behind the curtain was to catch him.

Lin Hao was just about to go after Thousand Sunset when he sensed that many powerful people were rushing to meet him.

With a clang, Xuanyuan sword was sheathed, the other party was not weak and there were many of them, Lin Hao did not take the enemy lightly.

‘Who dares to start a fight in the capital! The Dragon Sect has explicitly forbidden martial arts powerhouses from fighting at will, but I never thought there would be anyone who would dare to blatantly engage in martial arts in the capital!’ Three figures came in the air, all of them wearing special military uniforms with the Cang Long totem embroidered on them, then a group of Zong Shi powerhouses rushed over in all directions.

Chapter 1878

The eaves and walls were all filled with people, directly surrounding Lin Hao.

Everyone is carrying all kinds of weapons, and occupy an absolute advantageous position, can say, Lin Hao a little movement, these people will be the fastest, the sharpest attack will take him down!

‘It’s really timely’ Lin Hao’s face was full of mockery, these people, needless to say, must be people from the Dragon Sect, they had the Dragon Sect’s unique logo on their bodies and were stationed in the capital, so they must be the close guards arranged by the Dragon Sect in the capital.

They must be the Dragon Sect's guards in the capital, the special forces responsible for the stability of the capital and the safety of the Dragon Lord.

It's just that they didn't come early and didn't come late, but just after the battle was over? Serve ershan closed yi xi lu zhai? , he, Lin Hao, was about to prepare to chase after the enemy when they came.

Lin Hao even had some doubts that these people couldn't have just done it on purpose, right?

'Drop your weapons and crouch down with your heads in your hands! Or we will strike directly!' The leading officer took out a lance and flew through the air, pointing it straight at Lin Hao, his Grand Master aura showing through, while the two men next to him, who seemed to be lieutenants, also stepped forward, ready to strike at any moment.

Lin Hao shook his head helplessly and put away the Xuan Yuan Sword, could the people of the Dragon Sect not recognise the Xuan Yuan Sword?

Lin Hao put away the Regulus Sword, took out the Dragon Master's Order and raised it above his head.

'What!'

‘The Dragon Lord’s Order!’

These close guards were all startled at the sight of the Dragon Lord’s Order, and in a flash, those on the city walls and on the rooftops jumped down, even the three officers who were levitating in the void landed straight down and quickly landed in front of Lin Hao, arranging themselves in a row, neatly and respectfully saluting Lin Hao: ‘Greetings, Dragon Team Leader!’

‘What Dragon Team leader? You guys aren’t Dragon Sect Close Guards?’ Lin Hao frowned, what does that mean?

‘Report to the chief, we have received the latest Dragon Lord’s order, the Capital City Close Guards have been established as a separate Dragon Group, separate from the Dragon Sect, and will only follow the orders of the Dragon Lord and the chief from now on!’ The leader of the close guards said in a respectful voice, he was just a group of the Dragon Group’s close guards, but he did not expect that the Dragon Master over there had just announced the formation of the Dragon Group, but they had captured the leader of the Dragon Group, it was also really embarrassing and funny.

‘What do you mean?’ Lin Hao’s face was as black as the bottom of a pot, hadn’t he already clearly rejected the Dragon Lord?

What’s the point of playing word games with him here?

The Dragon Master’s intention was to reorganise the Dragon Sect into the Dragon Group and then let him take command, which he had refused.

As a result, the Dragon Master turned around and separated the Capital Guards and Dragon Sect into two departments, with Lin Hao becoming the top officer.

‘Chief, you are the supreme officer of the Dragon Group, and the Dragon Group will be at your disposal, I am the leader of the Dragon Group’s third brigade, the 32nd squad, Feng Qi.’ Feng Qi took a step forward, and the two vice captains next to him also stepped forward.

Lin Hao was dumbfounded, a squad leader was a mid Grand Master, and the two vice captains were even at the early Grand Master stage, so wouldn’t the Grand Captain be even more powerful ?

‘How many brigades does the Dragon Group have ? How many squads ?’ Lin Hao couldn’t help but ask.

‘Report chief, the Dragon Group is divided into three brigades, each brigade thirty-three squads, a total of ninety-nine squads, each squad has thirty-three people, containing one squad leader and two vice captains.’

Hearing Feng Qi’s words, Lin Hao sucked in a breath of cold air, how fucking fierce.

These three brigades combined were almost big enough for a reinforced regiment.

And each one of them was not bad in terms of strength, before the state machine, it really was formidable.

After all, such a force, placed in any place, would be a majestic behemoth.

‘What was that all about just now? Why is it taking you guys so long now?’ Lin Hao had some resentment in his heart, feeling that these guys were suspected of deliberately letting the water out.

At the same time, the most unpleasant thing in his heart was that he had already tried to find a way to leave the capital as soon as possible, but he still ended up letting the Dragon Lord count.

As long as this Dragon Lord’s Order was on him, this chief he could only take.

Besides, the Dragon Lord was determined to make him the leader, so even if he handed over the Dragon Lord’s Order, it would probably be useless.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1879-1880

Chapter 1879

Hearing Lin Hao’s question, Feng Qi hurriedly explained to Lin Hao that this area was originally their area of responsibility, but they had just been transferred from the mountain by someone else and were besieged by strong people, so it was difficult for them to get out for a while.

As for the other teams, they also had their own areas of responsibility. Even if there was a fight here, if they had not taken the initiative to send a signal for help, the other teams would not have rushed over.

After Lin Hao's stunning sword strike just now, the powerful people besieging Feng Qi's squad also quickly left, and Feng Qi didn't care about that much, leading his entire squad and speeding wildly towards this place.

'I have encountered an attack, it is a group of clan level assassins, I am not sure who it is, but one person is certain, it is none other than the young clan master of the Thousand Clans, Thousand Sunset, the son of Thousand Stars, pass on my order, all? Zero Xi Zha Zero Shan Lu Fu Pao? There are squads to seal off the area they are responsible for and search for the whereabouts of Thousand Sunset with all their might!'

'He has been wounded at my hands, but still very strong, you guys be careful, and, I want to catch him alive!' Why not use a ready-made tool when you have a ready-made man?

'Yes! Chief!' Feng Qi saluted and immediately ordered his squad to start looking for their target.

These close guards were all capable people, proficient in various means, some collected the scent left behind by the Thousand Sunsets, while others went to find the direction based on the blood.

Some of them began to recreate the situation according to the surrounding circumstances.

Since it seemed that the other party had the ability to put this matter to rest easily, Lin Hao did not continue to chase after Thousand Sunsets, but stayed here to wait for news.

‘Report to Captain Cang Wolf, this is Feng Qi, our leader was attacked on my side of the area, one of them is Thousand Sunset, he has escaped but is injured, the leader ordered all the Dragon Group to chase after Thousand Sunset!’

‘Feng Qi what the fuck have you got the nerve to do? You piece of shit! The chief has just taken over and you’re attacked in your area? Why don’t you fucking die!’ In a mansion somewhere in the capital, a middle-aged man with a majestic face cursed and smashed his phone straight away.

At the same time, he almost quickly changed his uniform and took out a special contact device: ‘South Tiger, Vermilion Bird, the chief has ordered all teams to arrest Thousand Sunsets!’

Along with the message sent out, there was also information about Thousand Sunset, and at the same time, Cang Wolf also simultaneously gave the thirty-two teams under his command an order to hunt him down.

He didn’t need to take care of Feng Qi’s side, who was right beside the chief, so naturally Cang Wolf didn’t need to give Feng Qi a separate order.

The three brigades of the newly formed Dragon Squad were all out in force, and almost every corner of the entire capital had nothing to hide!

The entire Dragon Squad was out in force, but it had shocked the entire capital.

All the major clans in the capital were also shocked, what was going on?

What was going on? The entire capital's guards were out in force?

These families did not know that the Close Guards had changed their name to the Dragon Group, and the news had only just reached the members of the Dragon Group in less than an hour.

In the Qin family residence, Qin Xiaorou flew over just after Qin Fengyue returned, pulling Qin Fengyue's hand and asking anxiously, 'Brother, how is it? Is that bastard dead yet? Did you succeed?'

'I feel that things have gone a bit too far, the whole capital's close guards are all out, the commotion is too big.' Qin Xiaorou finished her question and became worried again.

If the matter was exposed, it would most likely involve the Qin family, and to provoke the close guards and blatantly ignore the rules of the Dragon Sect would be a desecration of the Dragon Master's majesty, and the consequences would not really be something they could afford!

‘The matter is not resolved, you should go down first. Xiao Rou, don’t worry, I will help you take revenge, since he offended my sister, he has to be prepared to suffer death!’ Qin Fengyue frowned as he broke away from Qin Xiaorou’s hand and hurriedly left again, quickly gathering the assassins he had trained together.

‘Elder Qin!’ Twenty assassins converged.

‘Act immediately, find Thousand Sunset at all costs and rush to find him before the close guards do,’ Qin Fengyue made a neck-wiping gesture with icy eyes.

Chapter 1880

In the Qin family’s side compound, Qin Fengyue was in his study, holding a book and looking at it calmly, and on the surface, he did not seem to be in the least bit anxious.

Qin Xiaorou had come once, but seeing her brother like this, and looking at his confident appearance, Qin Xiaorou felt that everything was in Qin Fengyue’s plan.

Qin Xiaorou left and went to report the situation to Qin Bingyu, the one leading this matter was originally Qin Bingyu, plus Qin Xiaorou was also involved, otherwise Qin Fengyue would not have been so greedy to take action.

Half an hour later, one of Qin Fengyue’s men hurriedly ran in, ‘Elder Qin’

Qin Fengyue raised his head and frowned coldly at the henchman.

The henchman shivered and was so scared that he hurriedly ran out and closed the door to the study, knocking on the door outside, and only after Qin Fengyue spoke did the henchman dare to enter.

‘Take me to see him.’ Qin Fengyue slowly put down the book in his hand, stood up and headed out.

‘Uh, Elder Qin how do you know that we have found Thousand Sunsets?’

Qin Fengyue did not answer, making a profound and inscrutable look.

Qin Fengyue didn’t even bother to answer, Qian Sunset had no one to rely on in the capital, so naturally he could only come to the Qin Clan to seek refuge when things went wrong, and looking at the attitude of his men, he could think with his neck and know that Qian Sunset had already found his way to the door.

The two of them arrived at a small, remote house on Zijin Street.

Thousand Sunset was not seriously injured, just one face-to-face Thousand Sunset ran away, there was no way, the other party was too beastly, completely unable to fight.

When Qian Sunset saw Qin Fengyue, he hurried over, 'Big brother Qin, you must help me, that Lin Hao is too fierce, completely unable to fight, and we're messing around under the eyes of the Dragon Lord, there's a serious problem!'

Compared to Qian Sunset's panic, Qin Fengyue looked like he had his wits about him and didn't panic in the slightest, patting Qian Sunset's shoulder, 'No need to worry, old brother, don't worry.'

'That is really too thankful

The first thing you need to do is to take out a dagger, and then take out a dagger with your left hand and seal your throat with it!

Several assassins in night clothes rushed out of the darkness.

Qin Fengyue slowly wiped the blood from the dagger with a hand towel and said breezily, 'Handle it cleanly.'

Qin Fengyue then left directly, Thousand sunset strength has recovered, although only the early stage of the Grand Master, but the entire capital is the Dragon Group, a little commotion, it is possible to draw these hyenas over, but if at the time when Thousand sunset's defenses are the weakest, the swift strike, the other party did not even react to deal with it.

‘How come there’s still no news after so long?’ Lin Hao had been waiting in place for almost an hour now, his face was becoming more and more ugly, he even had some doubts about the Dragon Group’s ability.

After all, this was their territory, thousands of people looking for one person, and close cooperation from all departments, so difficult to find one person?

‘Feng Qi, still no news?’ Lin Hao looked to Feng Qi and asked a faint question.

After all, he was the chief, he had to put on a show.

‘Yes chief! We haven’t received any news yet, but chief, don’t worry, this is the capital, he can’t get away! Even those clans wouldn’t dare to bail him out!’ Feng Qi was telling the truth, at the feet of the Son of Heaven, although those clans of yours are so powerful that they can make China tremble when they stomp their feet, they are still not enough in front of the Dragon Lord!

‘The efficiency of the work is surprisingly so poor.’ Lin Hao snorted coldly without saying anything and walked to the side with his hands behind his back.

When Feng Qi heard this, his face turned white, it was over, was this the chief questioning their abilities?

This chief has only just taken office and he is already displeased with them, how can he get along in the future? The chief of the company was not a good person.

So, Feng Qi again scolded and urged his men, and when they heard that, what? The chief is not happy with him?
