

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1901-1902

Chapter 1901

Stocks are all falling off a cliff, it's all green!

That's countless money evaporating like crazy,? The money was evaporating,?
Every second was decreasing in astronomical figures!

The Tianhai Group was a huge hit, and although it wasn't making money, many companies were losing money to seek cooperation, especially advertisers, who were now riding the high-speed train of the Tianhai Group.

In just seven days' time, all the accounts came out.

The company had to invite Lin Qingcheng to the company, and the directors of the parent company, the branch and Yun Ruo from the Tianhai Charity Foundation were all present.

Lin Qingcheng looked at the entire conference room in bewilderment, what was with the uncontrollable excitement and joy on these people's faces?

Because she knew what Lin Hao had in mind, Lin Qingcheng basically didn't care about the affairs of the Tianhai Group, so she didn't even know what kind of volume the Tianhai Group was now!

In fact, Lin Qingcheng could have known if she had just taken out her mobile phone to check the news or turned on the TV, but she didn't.

In order to surprise Lin Hao again, Vermilion Bird told the Lin family to keep it to themselves.

'What's wrong? Is it finally time to liquidate the bankruptcy? Just liquidating bankruptcy you guys can be happy like this?' Lin Qingcheng just couldn't figure it out, the weirdest thing was that it wasn't just these directors, when she came to the company she found that it seemed like every employee was happy as can be, with their heads held high!

You guys just hate your own company so much that you are so proud of going out of business?

Closed down?

When Lin Qingcheng said this, the whole room burst out laughing, each one so much that they couldn't even straighten their backs.

'That's enough! You're all giving me a show of sadness and happiness, aren't you!' Lin Qingcheng's face was ice-cold as she slammed the table, her female president's domineering aura showing through: 'Tianhai Group is everyone's hard work, even though it's bankrupt, you guys don't have to be like this!'

‘The three major branches, Lin Hao’s brother did not take a single share, is the return of your hard work understand!’

Lin Qingcheng suddenly felt unworthy for Lin Hao!

‘That, Qingcheng sister, you might have misunderstood’ Yun Ruo smiled as she looked at Lin Qingcheng, even Yun Ruo couldn’t help but show a proud expression at the moment, while admiring Lin Hao to the core: ‘Our Tianhai Group Company is not only not bankrupt, but it’s even bigger in size!’

‘After the Tianhai Group was divided into four parts, there was basically not enough volume left for thirty billion, but now, within seven days, the Tianhai Group has completed its liquidation, and now the Tianhai Group is a large group that is close to two hundred billion!’

‘Note, this is without adding the three branches, if you include their three branches, the overall volume of the Tianhai Group is now up to four hundred billion!’

Lin Qingcheng was dumbfounded after hearing this, ‘What? What are you talking about?’

Then her eyebrows knitted slightly: ‘Even if the company is bankrupt, you don’t have to cheat yourselves like this, right? It’s not necessary.’

However, the next moment, Yun Ruo placed the group's liquidation list in front of Lin Qingcheng, a thick pile of documents.

Lin Qingcheng looked at it slightly and was confused, although it was not clear exactly, but Lin Qingcheng could also see that it was true, instead of being bankrupt, the Tianhai Group had, on the contrary, almost doubled in volume compared to the original hard.

Of course, during this period of time, the Heaven Sent Justice team, which had been frantically clearing the secondary market overseas, had also injected close to 100 billion yuan into the Tianhai Group over the past month.

But when you do the math, the Tianhai Group has also increased ah, not gone bankrupt, but made tens of billions!

This

At Zhuque's reminder, Lin Qingcheng took out her phone and searched the news.

It was all about the Tianhai Group:.

[China's conscience group, Tianhai Group, burning itself to light up China, why should such an enterprise be vilified and misunderstood?]

[Support Tianhai Group, a conscientious company cannot go bankrupt over this]

.....

What is this all about ?

Lin Qingcheng had a feeling of drifting into a dream.

Yun Ruo told Lin Qingcheng that as major companies joined, suppliers took the initiative to lower prices, and distributors, as well as purchasers, took the initiative to ask for higher prices for Tianhai Group products, however, Tianhai Group did not do that.

Chapter 1902

But still no loss of money, maintain the original price, but the purchase price is reduced, basically can maintain the preservation of the situation, although doing business, preservation of capital are losses.

But other channels to make money ah, now the sky sea group fame, but all affiliated companies, are able to rub to the heat, performance drift up.

Therefore, the Tianhai Group is a capital preservation situation, but it has made money from other groups, especially Gu Yue and Night One's Tian Yue Media, which is directly among the top media companies.

‘The chief is simply not too powerful, this pattern, this vision, too powerful!’
Vermilion Bird was excited: ‘In the face of these public opinion smears, throwing dirty water, it doesn’t even bother, it looks like it’s going to bankrupt itself!’

‘In fact, in a month’s time, after the fermentation of public opinion, everyone in the Tianhai Group knows about it, although it’s only black and red!’

‘But as soon as this wave is clarified, then it’s blood red! All of a sudden became a conscientious enterprise that people embrace, fame completely hit out, even if their own products still do not make money, and is fame in this, fame is money, flow era, making money is so simple!’

‘The chief is also too great, good people na, people get the benefit, the sky sea group did a good thing, earn money, but not earn people’s money.’ Zhu Que was overwhelmed with emotion, suddenly Lin Hao’s position in her heart became as high as a mountain, that slightly slim figure, all as great as a mountain!

When Zhu Que’s words came out, everyone was in heartfelt admiration, including Yun Ruo.

Lin Qingcheng was speechless, helplessly holding her forehead as she looked at the crowd and let out a bitter laugh, ‘So what, do you guys have some misunderstanding about Lin Hao, maybe he just wants to burn down the Tian Hai Group and forget about it.’

‘Impossible! There is absolutely no such thing!’

Lin Qingcheng's words were unanimously opposed by everyone in the conference room, 'Lin Hao couldn't possibly do such a thing! After all, once Tianhai Group goes bankrupt, a hundred billion big group, this has to be tens of thousands of people, even more than a hundred thousand people will lose their jobs, how could Lin Hao put up with so many people losing their jobs!'

Lin Qingcheng: ! ! ! !

These people are completely hopeless!

Lin Qingcheng didn't pay any more attention to these people, but left the conference room and asked Zhuque to contact a special plane directly to fly back to Jinling!

This kind of thing is not clear on the phone, Lin Qingcheng wants to personally, face to face with Lin Hao to talk about this matter, by the way, ask, this brother of his is really so big pattern? He had set up such a big game!

When Lin Qingcheng returned to the Lin family in Jinling, she found that the Lin family was surrounded by gossip reporters and mainstream media, and these people were stopped by the Lin family and could not enter at all.

Lin Qingcheng was stunned to see this scene in front of her, even the back door was blocked, how could she get in?

The people who were in the back door were blocked.

Lin Qingcheng forced her scalp to go over and asked in a weak tone, 'So what, can you give way, I'll go home.'

Although Lin Qingcheng's voice was small, it was like a thunderclap and all the reporters exploded!

This group of reporters burst into a burst of shrieks!

'It's her! The sister of the chairman of the Tianhai Group! Lin Qingcheng!'

'More than that, Lin Qingcheng is still the acting chairman of the Tianhai Group, she must know something!'

'Come on, rush, this is explosive, come on!'

A group of reporters swarmed around Lin Qingcheng, as if ants were returning to their nest and locusts were crossing the border, surrounding her all at once.

Those long guns and short cannons were almost disliking Lin Qingcheng's face, and the dense microphones were poking up, poking her face directly!

‘Hello, I’m a reporter from the Golden Evening News!’

‘Hello, I’m a reporter for XXX City News!’

‘Hello, I’m a reporter from Tian Yue Media, I have a few questions for you, may I ask Ms. Lin Qing Cheng if it’s convenient for you to answer?’

‘Hello! I am’

Crazy, the scene? Flicking on and off the Lu closed the Shan pick er? It’s all gone crazy!

Lin Qingcheng was so depressed that she was spitting blood, why were there strange things mixed in with this group of reporters?

Tian Yue Media!

Gu Yue, Night One, are you two fed up?

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1903-1904

Chapter 1903

I'm going to join in the fun!

Is it okay to be a person?

‘All matters, I am not at liberty to answer, you guys wait a moment, I will let Lin Hao answer in person, after all, he is the real chairman of Tianhai Group, please make way for all of you, I will go in and ask Lin Hao to come out.’ Lin Qingcheng had a headache, she was all confused now, these people were asking her, so would she ask the ghost?

Even so, these reporters were not going to let Lin Qingcheng go, after all, they had been here for a few hours and had not seen anyone come out to explain.

It was so hard to see a person in charge of the Tianhai Group, it would be a shame if they could let you go!

Lin Qingcheng had no choice but to push all the reporters out of the way with an invisible force, and she fled into the Lin family compound without thinking.

‘Damn, she ran away!’

‘Give chase! We’ve been crouching for hours!’

The group of people chased after her again, but they were stopped by the fierce Lin family members, unable to enter at all.

Bang!

The door to Lin Hao's courtyard was violently opened, and Lin Hao subconsciously looked up to find Lin Qingcheng running in with a wretched face, the panic level as if there was a pack of wolves chasing behind him.

'Back?' Lin Hao asked blandly, and then looked in the direction of his room, filled with anxiety and worry.

That's right, Lin Hao's child was about to be born? The ground shanshan whisked off the intention to close the service?

Being a father, Lin Hao was also the first time ah, it was a lie to say that he was not nervous.

Seeing Lin Hao's look reaction, Lin Qingcheng also reacted with surprise: 'Lin Hao, is Xiyan going to give birth?'

Lin Hao wrinkled his eyebrows and nodded, then looked at Lin Qingcheng: 'Since you're back, then go out and tell those flies outside to get lost! The Tianhai Group is all bankrupt, tell them to hurry up and leave, don't affect whether or not Xiyan has a smooth delivery!'

‘Uh, that, Lin Hao, let me ask you something, answer me seriously.’ Lin Qingcheng wrinkled her willow brows and stared at Lin Hao.

‘Speak.’ Lin Hao didn’t even turn his head back, his eyes staring nervously in the direction of his room.

‘When you first divided the group’s funds into four, those three branches, you were indeed going to give them, and then let the Tianhai Group spend every last cent and let it go bankrupt regardless, right?’

‘Right! What’s the problem? I reckon it’s the end of the bankruptcy liquidation now, right, otherwise what’s the point of letting you go?’ Lin Hao calculated that the Heaven Sent Justice team had cut off the funds and didn’t continue to channel funds to the Tian Hai Group, but instead channeled them towards the three branches.

Lin Qingcheng held her forehead, really, bullshit pattern!

Lin Hao’s powerful, all of you this group of underlings brain make up ah, the so-called pattern, is also your own imagination, the specific operation is also your own do

‘Liquidation is liquidation.’

‘Just we don’t seem to be bankrupt, and the overall amount counted, there are still seven or eighty billion more, moreover, the funds channeled by the overseas team are not counted.’ Lin Qingcheng looked at Lin Hao with a smirk, she was eager to see if Lin Hao was as dumbfounded and dismayed as herself when she heard this answer.

‘Oh, that’s it?’ Lin Hao replied without thinking, still staring earnestly in the direction of the room door, bankruptcy was a given, was there any need to think about it?

Lin Qingcheng’s face was full of disappointment, no? So calm?

But the next second, Lin Hao’s body stiffened, wait!

What did Lin Qingcheng say just now?

What did Lin Qingcheng just say? She was even making money!

‘Bastard! Did those bastards not follow my orders!’ Lin Hao was furious, did he say that they didn’t do what Lin Hao said?

All the branches and overseas teams were still giving blood to the Tianhai Group like crazy, and the Tianhai Group had adjusted the prices of their products!

How else could they not go bankrupt and still make money?

‘That’s not’ Lin Qingcheng saw Lin Hao’s shocked look, her heart was always a little more comfortable, and then told Lin Hao the specifics.

And also subtle Weiqiao’s recapitulation of Lin Hao’s pattern plan that the crowd in the conference room had brainstormed.

Chapter 1904

Lin Hao was even more dumbfounded after hearing this, this operation, a bit of a bull!

The vermilion bird is a brain-completion emperor Lin Hao knows, but Lin Hao how could not expect, the Tianhai Group’s top management, all let this girl to bring the deviation?

Not only did they not go bankrupt, but they even spent more and more!

Lin Hao even thought of the bridge of a certain movie.

‘I desperately spend money, but in the end, but found that the more money spent, the more money spent you say you look at me to be angry!’

‘A billion, a billion, a lifetime to spend!’

‘Ahem, just kidding, if this Tianhai Group goes bankrupt, it is a direct result of more than 100,000 people losing their jobs, the impact caused is very huge, how would I let such a thing happen.’ Lin Hao awkwardly coughed a sentence, well, his own little brother has put on this bull shit so big and imagined himself so profoundly, he can’t drop the chain can he!

If you are poor, you are responsible for helping the world at the same time.

Lin Hao was irritated by what happened before, especially since Shen Xiyan was crying, Lin Hao no longer wanted so much and just wanted to be alone.

But it wouldn’t work, so Lin Hao chose to help the world on both sides!

Lin Qingcheng rolled her eyes: (^ ▽ ^ ~)

Che~~, believe the hell out of you.

At this moment, from time to time in the room, Shen Xiyan’s shouting sound now and then but suddenly stopped, Lin Hao’s face changed greatly, no, something can’t happen, right?

Immediately afterwards, a clear baby cry rang out, the sound was loud and clear.

‘It’s born, haha, it’s born, I’m a father!’ Lin Hao excitedly hugged Lin Qingcheng and cheered.

Lin Qingcheng’s face was also full of smiles, a baby was born, her brother was a father!

The door to the room creaked open and the midwife came out, quickly walking up to Lin Hao and saluting, ‘Congratulations family head, congratulations family head, it’s a thousand-year-old girl!’

‘Good, good! A daughter is good, hahahahaha!’ Lin Hao was so happy that he waved his big hand, ‘Qingcheng, you wrap a big red envelope for her.’

After saying that, he dashed into the room.

Lin Qingcheng rolled her eyes, she naturally knew how much Lin Hao wanted a daughter, look how happy he was.

Lin Qingcheng took the midwife away and gave her a big red envelope.

When Lin Qingcheng returned to the courtyard, she found Lin Rui, Xu Fanghua, Lin Yun, and Lei Ling all present, even Mo Tianji and Vermilion Bird. When they found out that Lin Hao had won a daughter, a group of people flew directly from the Sea of Heaven towards Jinling.

However, the group waited in the courtyard and did not bother the two families in the house.

In the room, Lin Hao was excitedly holding the chubby white little girl in his arms, his mouth never closed. Although the little girl was just born, she didn't cry when she saw Lin Hao, instead, she looked at Lin Hao with big bright and clear eyes and actually smiled.

'Hahahaha, look, yatou she's smiling, she's smiling at me!'

'Xiyan look, she has a face like yours, like a fairy, these eyes and eyebrows especially want, look at these big eyes!'

'Haha, this mouth? Serve whisk Lu Xi Xi Yi Yi? Ba quite like me, haha.'

Shen Xiyan's face was a little pale, but had regained some strength, after all, she was not weak in strength.

Looking at Lin Hao's happy look, and the look of doting in his arms, why was Shen Xiyan a little jealous? This inexplicable feeling of losing favor is what the hell.

Shen Xi Yan looked at Lin Hao with no good grace: 'Hmph, now it's as you wish, right? You've been longing for a daughter, and now the first one is a daughter, so you'll be happy.'

‘Haha, I must be happy. My daughter-in-law has worked hard. mua!’ Lin Hao hugged the baby and kissed Shen Xiyan’s cheek, then hugged his daughter and showed her off in front of Shen Xiyan’s face, ‘Look, my daughter is so beautiful, I feel like she’ll be even more beautiful than you when she grows up, my little darling!’

‘Get lost!’

Shen Xiyan was furious: ‘Lin Hao, what’s wrong with you? What’s the point of showing off in front of me with my daughter?’

Lin Hao wasn’t shy and held his head up proudly, ‘Oh no, this is also my daughter, understand?’

‘But you’re right, what’s the point of showing off in front of you, I’ll go find someone else to show off, let’s go.’ Said Lin Hao about to carry his daughter and run outside.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1905-1906

Chapter 1905

‘Nonsense!’ Xu Fang Hua in the courtyard couldn’t stand it anymore and scolded, ‘Are you looking for a fight, little bastard? My great-granddaughter has just been born, how can she stand this kind of torment, you shouldn’t do this even if you’re happy!’

Xu Fanghua and Lin Yun both looked at Lin Hao angrily, they were both mothers and had been there before.

Lin Hao was so frightened that he hurriedly handed his daughter back to Shen Xiyang, so careful that he was afraid of hurting her, he was like holding her in the palm of his hand for fear of dropping her and holding her in his mouth for fear of melting her.

When Lin Hao saw this, Xu Fanghua and the others, who were originally furious, also lost their anger, who didn't have a first time.

Only after doing this did Lin Hao embarrassingly admit his mistake: 'Sorry grandma, I was wrong, I... I'm a first time father, I don't have much experience.'

'I know, take care, this is the most crucial period.' Xu Fang Hua was not so angry anymore.

'Xiyang, look, grandma and aunt are here, they've come out especially for you.' Lin Hao excitedly introduced them to Shen Xiyang.

From the moment Xu Fanghua came in, Shen Xiyang had probably guessed who these two were? Closed Yiwu Serving Fu Di Wu Di? As a result, Shen Xi Yan was so nervous that she panicked and tried to get up to salute her elders. The first thing you need to do is to get up and give the elders a salute.

'You are continuing the incense for my Lin family, grandma should thank you.' Xu Fang Hua and Lin Rui looked at Shen Xiyang with dotting faces, and the little granddaughter, in their eyes, was a heart and soul baby.

Lin Hao:

‘I have a feeling of losing favor!’

Lin Rui: !!!

‘Crap, no! That little bastard Lin Hao was competing with me for favour even then! Now there’s two more! I can’t live like this! Should I consider leaving home, there’s no place for me in this family!’

‘Grandma, being married to Lin Hao is the luckiest thing in my life, it’s all I should do.’ Shen Xiyan’s face was overflowing with happiness, and her heart melted as she looked at the lovely daughter in her arms.

She had actually always wanted a son, but now she just wanted to say, ‘That smells good, what’s wrong with a daughter?’

‘Good boy, what a good boy, your task now is to take good care of your body.’ Xu Fang Hua’s face was full of smiles, ‘In the future, let grandma take care of you two... Phew, my good great-granddaughter is smiling at me, can you see? She’s smiling at me!’

‘Yes, old lady.’ Lin Yun was also all smiles, her great-granddaughter just smiled and the old lady was as happy as a child, infecting everyone.

‘Hee hee, how are you?’ Lei Ling adorably ran over and waved at Lin Hao’s daughter, ‘My name is Lei Ling, I’ll be your aunt from now on oh.’

Then the little girl smiled again.

Seeing this scene, Lei Ling was even happier.

It proved that from today onwards, the group pet of this family was Lin Hao’s daughter.

‘Little Hao ah, have you thought of a name for my great-granddaughter yet?’ Xu Fanghua looked at Lin Hao with a benevolent face.

Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan looked at each other, nodded solemnly and said in unison, ‘Lin Ruoshi!’

‘That’s a good name! It will be called Ruo Shi.’ The name was unanimously approved and the old lady Xu Fang Hua was most delighted as she teased Lin Ruoshi: ‘Little Ruoshi, from now on you will be called Lin Ruoshi.’

As the newborn baby had just been born and was very fragile, and as Shen Xiyan’s body had not yet fully recovered, everyone did not dare to harass her, and Xu Fanghua personally arranged for the most suitable sister-in-law to take care of the mother and daughter.

At this moment, the noise outside the door got louder, and even Lin Hao heard a few familiar names, Mo Tianji, Jun Wuhuo or something.

It seemed that they had arrived.

Why aren't these reporters leaving? They've been squatting all day!

But now Lin Hao was happy, double happiness, his company was not bankrupt and he was happy to have a daughter, so Lin Hao was not very angry with these reporters.

Chapter 1906

Not long after, Mo Tianji and the others came in with black faces, their faces unspeakably ugly, and cursing under their breath, 'Are these reporters flies? They're so annoying.'

'Heh, are you a shi? Flies like shi the most.' Zhuque laughed uncomfortably.

'You

Mo Tianji was so choked that he couldn't say a word, while the others were holding back their laughter.

At this time it happened that Lin Hao came out.

Everyone rushed up to congratulate him, and Lin Hao found that everyone was here ah, the top management of the Tianhai Group, all of them were here.

Lin Hao was all smiles as he greeted them one by one, the happiness and joy could not be hidden.

At that moment, Lin Hao announced that today, the Lin family, had a big banquet for everyone, and even invited the Lei family and the Yun family!

As for the Xu family and the Long family, Lin Hao wasn't interested in caring about them.

The crowd cheered and also visited Shen Xiyan's mother and daughter, but after being 'viciously' warned by the old lady, the crowd didn't dare to linger much, they just said hello then went to the meeting room.

'Qingcheng, you come out with me and get rid of these reporters.' Lin Hao greeted Lin Qingcheng with a smile.

Lin Qingcheng nodded gently and followed Lin Hao out of the Lin family compound.

When those reporters saw Lin Hao and Lin Qingcheng come out, their originally depressed expressions instantly came to life, and one by one, they flew over.

‘Stand still!’ Lin Hao frowned as a powerful aura boomed out from his body, frightening these reporters to a shuddering halt, even as they subconsciously gulped their spittle.

All the reporters shrank their necks and looked at Lin Hao in fear, really worthy of being the chairman of a multi-billion dollar group, this aura, it was too fierce too!

‘I have limited time, I won’t answer any of your questions, but I’ll just say a few words about the Tianhai Group, you have to start the live broadcast and the recording.’ Lin Hao waved his hand.

Originally, everyone was disappointed to hear that Lin Hao wasn’t going to answer any questions, wouldn’t that be a day of waiting for nothing?

Just hearing the second half of the sentence, everyone instantly came to life.

‘Hello everyone, I am a reporter from the Yuncheng Evening News, and now in front of us is Mr. Lin Hao, the chairman of the Tianhai Group.’

‘Hello everyone I’m a reporter from the Yangcheng Evening News

In about ten minutes, everything was ready and it was the equivalent of a simple press conference.

But the reporters gathered here came from all over the world, from the north and the south, many of them could be said to have travelled thousands of miles to Jinling for first-hand news ah.

‘Let’s begin.’

Lin Hao spoke at that moment, ‘Regarding the matter of the group and the foundation doing charity being questioned, discredited, and even implicating all of the Tianhai Group’s industries, to be honest, I’m furious!’

‘I am doing good deeds, doing what I can for the people in the disaster area, I am not asking for anything in return, even you? I am not asking for anything in return, not even you? We don’t even have to thank me, it’s my business to do good deeds, it’s none of my business whether I’m grateful or not!’

‘But!’

Lin Hao paused, his face furious: ‘It’s okay for these people to finish scolding, and it’s okay to boycott and smear the Tianhai Group. But because of this, my pregnant wife cried and cried in a very sad and incomprehensible way. As we all know well, pregnant women have greater mood swings and a sensitive mind, and can’t bear these stimuli.’

‘Crap! These smear artists are simply animals!’

‘Yeah, they’re animals, they’re not even human... If it were me, I’d probably be carrying a knife!’

‘That’s right, even if you’re not appreciated for doing a good deed, you’re still smearing for no reason, so why should I do it?’

When Lin Hao’s words came out, the crowd was furious, and all the journalists present were furious.

‘A heart, that’s a heart, Chairman Lin is too great. Even if they were smeared and their loved ones were angry and cried, but they still continued to insist, even without this wave of clarification, the group would have gone completely bankrupt, but the other side still had no complaints, it was too great.’

‘Yes, it’s really too great!’

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1907-1908

Chapter 1907

‘Chairman Lin is too handsome, but unfortunately married hey? Yi Ai Er Er Serving Steak Lu Dye?’

Lin Hao's hand raised slightly and pressed down slightly, the lively scene around him was instantly silent to the point where a pin drop could be heard.

'I'm not as great as you guys think, my lover is angry, I'm very angry. Therefore I divided the funds of the Tianhai Group into four parts and let my original team take the other three parts to open a branch, that branch has nothing to do with me and nothing to do with the Tianhai Group, it is what they deserve for all their hard work over the years.'

'As for the rest of the Tianhai Group's funds, just drop it, anyway, when it goes bankrupt, declare bankruptcy, without the Tianhai Group, I am still light, poor is good, there is nothing wrong with being an ordinary person.' Lin Hao was speaking the truth, even showing a touch of despondency.

After all, the Tianhai Group was the fruit of the hard work of a group of them, and it was a bit sad to give up like that.

But sad or frustrated heart cold is good!

This

'Don't ah Mr. Lin Hao, China is lacking entrepreneurs like you ah!'

'Yes, please, don't give up, everything has been cleared up now, it was all a misunderstanding, and those companies that smear the group as well as your family have been duly punished!'

‘Yes, those people were deceived too, they have all come out to clarify and apologise to you!’

‘Please, can you not give up?’

Mo Tianji and the others who heard the commotion in the courtyard also came out.

Yun Ruo, Mo Tianji, Gu Nansheng, Gu Yue, Night One, Jun Wuhui and Hou Yijun.

It could be said that everyone from the Tianhai Group was here.

Seeing this scene, the reporters also panicked: ‘It can’t be true, right? Isn’t it now said that the Tianhai Group has eased its bankruptcy crisis?’

‘Why? The bad guys repeatedly jumped across the board and made crazy deaths, yet they were still able to cha human blood buns, such conscientious entrepreneurs, yet there was never a way to live?’

‘It seems to be true, look at all the branch executives are here, these spammers, keyboard warriors, people who smear the Tianhai Group, you all deserve to die!’

It was a live news report, and it wasn't just the people there, the crowd exploded, including the viewers who were watching the news!

While angrily cursing those who slandered, they also started to petition, and even retain, and said that even if they wanted the Tianhai Group to restore the original product prices, even if they were a bit higher, they were willing to buy Tianhai Group's products, just to support the conscientious entrepreneurs.

‘If you are poor, you can be good alone, but if you are rich, you can help the world.’

‘But I would prefer to be alone, and I declare that what I am about to say only represents the Tianhai Group! Not on behalf of the three branches, all products of the Tianhai Group, no price changes ever! As long as there is a dollar left, the Tianhai Charity Fund will not close the funding channel! Whenever it goes bankrupt, it will be closed! Anyone who disobeys the order will be fired immediately.’

‘In addition, I nonsense a word, the people who are assisted by the Tianhai Charity Fund, you don't have to thank me, let alone repay me, I don't need to! But I hope that after you get the aid, with a grateful heart, you will try to give back to the society, and if you are able to, I also hope that you can help other people in need more, and pass the love, on, that's all I have to say.’

After saying that, Lin Hao's serious and cold face finally revealed a bright smile: ‘Meanwhile, wish my daughter a happy birthday today.’

After saying that Lin Hao did not stop for any reason and turned around and entered the Lin family without the slightest hesitation.

Just as Lin Hao left, the reporters all exploded, just a few simple words, but they were moved to tears.

‘Mr. Lin Hao, don’t do this! Please, change the price, you’ll really go bankrupt if you go on like this!’

‘Jetsons, are you satisfied now? Huh?’ A journalist was furious, his face directly in front of the camera, his eyes bared in anger: ‘It’s all you well-fed bastards, happy now! I wish your whole family all the best when you need assistance and everyone leaves you, by the way, with a couple of kicks, a bunch of scumbags!’

Chapter 1908

This is not a few cases, but to be honest, news reporters are more careful about their words and control of emotions, such an out-of-control scene is really unwarranted, and can even be said to be a dereliction of duty, directly lose their jobs are normal.

‘That’s it! You’re satisfied now, aren’t you?’

I’m just going to quit and lose my job, I’m going to scold, I’m not comfortable without scolding!’

The scene was so chaotic that it could be described as chaotic, but the viewers who were watching the news found it incredibly relieving and comfortable. The company's main business is to provide a wide range of services to the public. The news was so good!

This is the first time that a serious radio journalist has cursed in a TV news broadcast, but no one reported it or was upset, instead they applauded and cheered.

This is unheard of.

And none of the bosses in charge of these journalists were angry, they even personally called them and said that they would not let them leave their jobs, and even gave them promotions and pay rises!

Mo Tianji and the others looked at each other, and then nodded, and the representatives of the three major branches stood out.

Mo Tianji spoke, 'I represent Tianji Medicine.'

Jun Wu Ren said aloud, 'I represent Junmen Technology!'

'I represent Tian Yue Media.' Gu Yue also spoke up afterwards.

‘From today onwards, the policies of the Tianhai Group are also the policies of our three branches, and although Chairman Lin Hao has announced that our three branches are split from the parent company, we are still willing to follow Chairman Lin Hao’s orders!’

‘Fifty percent of the company’s profits will be injected into the Tianhai Charity Fund, the remaining fifty percent will be used to keep prices down, and everyone is invited to monitor this, if our company’s products are priced higher than similar products, come and report them at any time! Even if it’s a copycat product, it doesn’t matter, still the same words, when it goes bankrupt, when it stops!’

After saying that these people didn’t even stay any longer, they turned around and went into the courtyard, the gate closing with a bang.

‘No!’

‘Have you all gone mad too?’

‘Mad, all mad, why has it come to this!’

‘Yes, the lowest price of its kind, and that includes the cottage ones, this is absolutely going to go bankrupt. The quality of the product is not good, the cost price is low, and the sales price is definitely low, so if you compare the price with the copycat products, you will lose money.’

‘Nonsense, they are not just giving them away for nothing, and they are all heading for bankruptcy. I thought at least with these three branches, even if Tianhai Group really went bankrupt, at least they would still have a way out, but now it seems they have cut their own way out.’ The journalists present were overwhelmed with emotion and helpless, they were only journalists and their ability was really limited.

But these reporters didn’t stay idle, although Lin Hao and the others had already left and the doors of the Lin family had been closed tightly, they still couldn’t stop the enthusiasm of these reporters.

These reporters became the protagonists of the news, and did not care whether the occasion was appropriate or not, and gave a call to the Tianhai Group on the spot to find a way out.

It was hoped that they could find a way to keep the Tianhai Group from going bankrupt while allowing their products to be sold normally.

We also hope that those who are able to do so will support the Tianhai Charity Foundation!

Not only are the journalists trying to find a way, but viewers and netizens in front of the TV have also taken action, forming support groups, and every place, even every community, has set up a Tianhai Group support group.

It can be said that now the Tianhai Group can be said to have hundreds of millions of fans of the gods, what heavenly stars are given to the dregs in seconds.

The most positive thing is that those who misunderstood the Tianhai Group, even the sprayers who sprayed for the sake of spraying, have all acted to rescue the group at this moment! Probably because of the guilt in their hearts.

As for those who had been sponsored, they were most touched by what they heard from Lin Hao, and while they were grateful to Lin Hao, they also made up their minds and vowed to give back to society and make what contribution they could to it!

The terrifying call of the Tianhai Group at this moment was simply frightening, and the worst part was that the Tianhai Group did not call for it at all, but people did it spontaneously and voluntarily.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 1909-1910

Chapter 1909

The people are completely exploding!

All of China, all of us, were united in our efforts to fight against the natural disaster and to return to normal life as quickly as possible!

In the north, they worked under a scorching sun that was close to 40 degrees, dripping with sweat, but without any complaints.

In the south, they worked in the freezing wind and snow, even though they were cold and shivering, no one complained, but had a simple and happy smile on their faces.

The times are progressing, but there is no more rivalry between people, no more interests.

The relationship between people seems to have gone back to the early 1990s, when a favour done to each other was enough to be remembered for the rest of one's life and remembered with great affection, always thinking of returning the favour.

And when you helped someone, you didn't even think about the return, even a word of thanks would make you happy for many days.

It was a time when feelings were genuine and simple.

I remember what the old man said. Jie zero closed jie shan zero er? When he was young, he burned green bricks, and with just one word, a group of friends came to the mountains to help, rolling around in the mud to make the materials for the bricks.

In the dark of the night, they had to go to the mountains to fish for pine needles as fuel to fire the kiln, not to mention feeding them, and they couldn't even get three meals a day together, without a single complaint from those who helped.

Even the water in the brick kiln that went out in the middle of the night, when it rained in the middle of the night, turned over in a puddle without mentioning half a mouthful of wages afterwards.

Now, under the influence of the Tianhai Group, people have become better with each other and seem to have a lot less inner grumpiness and a lot more smiles instead.

It was only then that it dawned on many people that the era the old man spoke of was real.

There are people in this world who give selflessly, who burn themselves to light up others.

And, as long as you are willing to give and give first, you will reap more, as well as reap joy and satisfaction.

Above the vault of heaven, in the midst of a green cloud, a haze of light, a jade tower looms in the midst of the green cloud.

On top of a rainbow bridge formed by seven-coloured haze, Lin Cangdou stood with his hands on his head, overlooking the Hua Xia underneath the rainbow bridge, his old face revealed a smile of relief: 'To have resolved the effects of the quantum calamity in such a way? It seems that Senior Brother Chen Beixuan has indeed not misjudged anyone.'

Rumble!

The door to the Immortal Palace slowly opened, and Chen Beixuan flashed out, 'What the hell is going on? Brother, what's going on with the quantum of tribulation, how did it abate so quickly? What have you done?'

Chen Bei Xuan also sensed it and directly broke through the gate, quickly rushing over as he sensed that the pressure of the quantum tribulation had plummeted on them, even receiving a huge amount of merit and virtue.

Chen Bei Xuan then put the power of merit and virtue around the Chinese territory once, and only then did he rush out, hell, this was a quantum calamity that had been delayed for more than a thousand years, it should have been much harder to clear, why was it like this?

And, as Chen Bei Xuan dropped the merits, the north of China was suddenly not as hot, and as for the south, the snow fell less and the temperature began to warm up.

Instead of being less cold, in the south, the snow became embellished, romantic, aesthetic and so beautiful.

After all, most people in the south have never had the chance to see snow, especially in the two regions, just ask how many people imagine walking in the snow and how wonderful it would be to have a beloved one by your side!

Looking at Chen Bei Xuan, Lin Cang Dao laughed lightly and shook his head, 'It's not me, it's that little guy who did it.'

'What?'

Chen Bei Xuan's brows furrowed, 'He broke through to Xuan Master?'

'Not really.' Lin Cang Dao didn't sell himself short and directly said what Lin Hao had done.

'I lost it, that's what happened.' It dawned on Chen Bei Xuan, 'He's using this month or so to let the people's emotions vent and calm down the evil feelings in their hearts.'

'In the end, he drew a wave from the bottom of the kettle and cooled others by sacrificing his own group, invoking the good thoughts in people's hearts and suppressing or even crushing the evil thoughts, divine!' Chen Bei Xuan was so excited: 'Before I was afraid that this kid would quit his job, but it turned out that he made such a big splash without making a sound.'

Chapter 1910

'He has already quit, only he doesn't know that his thoughtless act has inadvertently diminished the power of the quantum calamity.' Lin Cang Dao stood with his hands folded, 'But the quantum calamity has basically no effect on the ordinary people anymore, but the people in the cultivation world have not abated much, and because of jealousy, the strife has instead intensified, and the Dragon Sect can barely hold it down anymore.'

'In that case, senior brother, how about helping him out? Give the decree, I don't care how chaotic overseas is, if you can, take the opportunity to bind them all together and perhaps have the ultimate breakthrough.' Chen Bei Xuan clenched his teeth, 'And, give that brat a promise that when the situation is broken, the Xuan masters from those two great clans can stay.'

Lin Cangdou frowned slightly, 'Senior brother, do you know how much of a sacrifice it would require to do so?'

'I naturally know!' Chen Bei Xuan finished and even smiled, 'I will personally speak to my teacher to understand!'

'In that case, then let's give the decree.' Chen Bei Xuan had said this, so naturally Lin Cang Dao did not say anything else!

Immediately afterwards, a sword qi fell from above the Qing Yun Heavenly Palace, its target spread throughout the entire land of China!

But all those who had reached the level of Xuan Master had received a sword qi from the Qing Yun Heavenly Palace, moreover, it was the decree of the divine sword Chen Bei Xuan, the sword that broke the dome of the sky, Lin Cang Dou! Ten thousand sword qi descending from the sky, ordinary people could not see it at all, but all strong people above the Zong Shi level could see it and were all shocked by this scene.

Countless deserted places, or deep mountain caves, these were almost always places off the beaten track, yet the number of sword lights falling was the greatest.

Countless powerful people who had never shown their faces before looked up in the direction of the Qing Yun Heavenly Palace.

‘Decree from the Qing Yun Heavenly Palace! All Xuan Masters and above in strength, converge on the Immortal Palace for cultivation, do not leave the Heavenly Palace easily, no mistakes! Those who violate it will be executed by the divine sword!’

At this moment, countless streams of light shot up into the sky, converging densely towards the Qing Yun Heavenly Palace, and no one dared to disobey.

Including the capital, hundreds of streams of light rushed up into the sky.

.....

The first thing you need to do is to get rid of the problem.

The actual fact is that you have to be happy to be able to get a piece of death.

At that moment, everyone seemed to have a feeling and raised their heads in horror, even Lin Hao.

There, in the sky above the capital, a green cloud suddenly erupted with ten thousand streaks of sword qi, raining down like raindrops.

Even from such a distance, Lin Hao felt his heart palpitate and fear.

Every single sword qi contained an appalling power, this was the authentic Ten Thousand Swords to the World!

Everywhere the golden sword qi went, it tore through the sky and the sea of clouds, like an unstoppable dragon in the midst of a furious sea, its speed incomparably fast.

In Jinling alone, there were more than thirty golden sword rays shining through!

‘Damn it, form up and defend! Lei Ling, take your sister-in-law and your niece and run quickly!’ Lin Hao’s face turned white, Mudd, he didn’t know what the hell was attacking them that was able to explode with such perverse might, but there were six golden sword energies taking special care of just this gathering of the three great clans they were in!

Swoosh!

A strong Xuan Master from the Lei Clan rushed into the sky, and the Xu Clan, led by the Xu Clan Master, three Xuan Master figures rushed into the sky.

Lin Yun and Xu Fanghua also seemed to feel something and rushed up, directly meeting the golden sword qi.

‘Don’t Grandma, Auntie, you guys come back!’ Lin Hao anxiously stomped his feet, helplessly strength is not enough, but there is no way.

Earthly love whisked away Lu Shanxi? Sword domain divine action!

Lin Hao couldn't care less, stepping on his sword Qi and rushing up into the sky, going straight after Xu Fanghua.

But it was still too slow, it was simply too late to catch up!

But the next moment, Lin Hao froze, what?

Almost every Xuan Master powerhouse was taken care of by a golden sword qi, but it didn't attack them, it just hovered in front of them.

Lin Hao quickly ran over, feeling the terrifying power emanating from that sword qi, Lin Hao couldn't even get a single step closer with all his might.
