Chapter 2141

When everyone had finished fighting, Lin Hao served up a few more plates of spirit beast meat and said smilingly, 'It's alright there's still more here, there's plenty in stock, everyone eat openly, one person will take some back later and put it in the Thunder Meteor space to preserve the quality, it won't go bad, but you can't put it in the fridge, so the spirit energy will flow out.'

'Wow, open up and open up.' So it was that Lin Rui was forgotten straight away.

Lin Rui glared viciously at Lin Hao, with a black face, was this nephew sent from the heavens to punish himself? You damn well couldn't have brought it out earlier!

'Lin Hao, what kind of meat is this, not only is it so delicious, it also has such a rich spiritual energy?' Lin Yun is also a foodie, such a good thing, where did you get it from?

'This is the meat of the spirit beasts in the River God Spiritual Domain, these spirit beasts are strong and are rich in spirit energy themselves, the main thing is that it tastes good.'

As soon as Lin Hao's words fell, everyone looked towards Xiong Er and the white cat who were gnawing on the bones, the two goods were gnawing on the bones and suddenly felt the straight gaze of the people around them, some of them were even drooling ah.

‘I am a national treasure, I can’t eat it!’ Scared Xiong Er hurriedly sent out his status as a national treasure to save his life, while the white cat was shivering, are you devils?

Luckily, Lin Hao took out a large amount of spirit beast meat and told them that they could still eat it often if they saved it, not to mention that if it really didn’t work, Lin Hao would just go to the River God Spiritual Domain and skedaddle around and be done with it.

White Cat: Silence for the race of spirit beasts in the River God Spiritual Domain, I wonder if they will eat until they are endangered!

‘Attention all the general public, now insert an urgent news, demon capital today there are a number of supernatural events, the demon capital authorities have tried their best to solve, but still very tricky, call for phantom spiritists across the country to enthusiastically participate in dealing with, this time will be funded by the demon capital three space thunder meteor, as well as a thousand thunder meteor as a bounty .....’

The first thing that happened was that the news was broadcast on Jinling Radio, the demon capital?

Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan and the others looked at each other, their eyes all flashed with a touch of surprise.

They were wondering what the demon capital was all about. Where is it? Where was it, and here came the news.

‘Strange, why is this kind of thing coming out over in the Flower Capital, could it be that the Spiritual Domain is opening over there as well?’ Lin Yun muttered in wonder, but now that the family had retired, they naturally wouldn’t get involved in these matters, and it was more in that it was a private organization to deal with.

Only if they really couldn’t handle it would they call on other clans or officials to step in.

Lin Hao froze for a moment: ‘Auntie, didn’t the news say demon capital? What does it have to do with the state capital of Huadu?’

Last night a few people went to the Qing Yun Heavenly Palace and did find a few locations that could, that is, that could possibly have a solution or object to the Xuan Yuan Sword, but in these thousands of years, the Qing Yun Heavenly Palace didn’t know how many times they had patronised these locations and still came up empty-handed.

But how to say Lin Hao they all want to go to try, take a chance, incidentally as a trip, as long as maintain Shen Xiyan’s humanity, this Xuan Yuan sword can not hurt Shen Xiyan, just every time you close your eyes, you feel that cold dead divine sword sharpness, as if to go through the heart some depression and palpitations only.

‘Demon capital is flower capital ah, flower city, flower capital, demon are all he, but now gradually changed to demon capital, because of the influence of anime so the new alias appeared.’ Lin Yun explained, before Lin Hao suddenly realized.

No wonder, Lin Hao instantly made up his mind, ‘Grandma, this mission is not bad, I want to go to the demon capital to take a stroll and collect a bounty on the way.’

Lin Hao's words were not at all blind, just the strength of the two little girls, Lei Ling and Lin Ruoshi, had already crushed the strongest people in the Demon Capital, not to mention the two big hands, Lin Hao and Shen Xiyao, going to collect the bounty was just like a joke?

The bounty is not much, now that the Thunder Split Mountain spirit domain has been restored, the monthly share is enough for our two families to cultivate.'

Chapter 2142

After all, the storm clouds of the demon capital, if for others, that may be a little difficult, or even dangerous, but for their own grandson no pressure at all, okay, just looking for an excuse to go out.

'Grandma, don't worry, I'll just go out during the day and come back at night, you just think I'm going to work.' Lin Hao also knows the old man's mind, young people do not want to stay at home a lot, the old man wants his family around, but often stay too long will get tired. The old people want to be with their families, but they get tired of being around too often.

This is the same feeling of many young people, away from home for a long time homesick, stay at home for a long time and bored, and the elderly in the first time back, that is a happy and harmonious, but less than half a month, it will be constant conflict, for a little trivial things nagging endlessly, the point of conflict will come.

Xu Fanghua waved her hand: 'Grandma won't force you to stay with her, you've grown up, you're not a child anymore, you can go if you want, just now grandma was joking.'

Lin Hao nodded, 'I know grandma.'

Lin Hao didn't explain, because he had heard a good friend say that he was like that, every time he first came home, father and son were like brothers, his dad was so doting on him, but it didn't take long for all kinds of conflicts to arise, so much so that he was on the verge of fighting.

The young friend thought it was a little trivial matter, such as using one or two more degrees of electricity, buy a vegetable expensive 30 to 50 cents can give him a nagging, and then argued.

It was only when his father was on his deathbed that he understood, but unfortunately it was too late.

When his father was dying, he took his son's hand and said weakly, 'Son, Dad is not nagging you for that trivial matter. In fact, I don't know what to say to you, and I don't know much about what you're doing outside, so I just want to find something to talk to you about... Dad wants to talk to you, to make up for what you haven't said during your absence...? I'm just trying to catch up with you. ...'

The friend's father closed his eyes with a smile and let go of his hand, and there was an ungrateful son beside the hospital bed who was crying his heart out, bitter and remorseful.

How can one truly understand the meaning of a few short words, if one has not experienced it first hand?

Therefore, as far as Lin Hao's conditions allow, he would also prefer to spend more time with his family, and he understands the old grandmother's heart.

Xu Fanghua naturally wanted Lin Hao to be by her side all the time, but Xu Fanghua did not forcefully tie Lin Hao to her side.

In short, let's cherish the person in front of us.

It was already half past seven after breakfast, and Lin Hao had used inscriptions to seal a formation in his room, which contained the power of divine inscriptions.

As long as he was within the Earth, Lin Hao could return here with a thought, and Shen Xiyang had also left a divine aura, so the two of them could return home with a thought even if they were far away from the demon capital.

The white cat had the cheek to go with Lin Hao, but as for Lei Ling, Lin Ruoshi and Xiong Er were left behind.

At first, Lin Ruo Shi made a lot of noise, but the little girl was quite sensible and gave up after seeing her pampering and crying, and stayed at home with her grandmother.

Lin Hao summoned the Sword of the Gods, and with Shen Xiyan, they rose up from the sword and swung up 90,000 miles, while the white cat shrunk in size to lie on Lin Hao's shoulder.

‘Holy shit, what is that thing?’ The two fighter pilots who were training for aerial combat were shocked by the sight of the speeding stream of light in front of them. It was even faster than a fighter jet that broke the sound barrier!

At this altitude, even the strongest illusionists in China can't fly this high, the second level illusionists can barely manage the air and don't last long, the third level illusionists are very few and far between, and the altitude is only 100 meters.

‘Go after it, it might be an enemy high level reconnaissance plane!’ The two fighter pilots were excited, they had thought it was a special combat training session, but they didn't expect there to be a live battle session!

The engines of the two latest Chinese fighter planes shot out dark blue tail flames, and their speed once skyrocketed, chasing towards Lin Hao and the others at an extremely fast speed.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 2143-2144

Chapter 2143

Lin Hao felt the movement behind him and raised his eyebrows not paying attention.

‘There are a few little ones behind you whose curiosity has been piqued by you, do you want me to do it.’ Shen Xiyan spoke in a clear and cold voice.

Lin Hao was startled and somewhat laughed and cried, 'Daughter-in-law don't make a scene, in foreign countries you do so whatever you want, this is China, your own people ah.'

'Oh.' Shen Xiyan wasn't saying anything.

'Holy shit, that's a human being! This, how is this possible?' The fighter pilots closed in quickly and finally got a good look at what was ahead of them, leaving them stunned and envious at the same time!

Flying with a sword, that's like seeing the whole world in one day! It was so cool!

The man on top of the flying sword was handsome, the woman was cool, and she looked like an immortal.

They even suspected for a moment that they had met the legendary immortals.

'A3 to ground command, A3 to ground command, we have encountered two men and women of unknown identity racing, ah no, racing swords at high altitude, please instruct!'

'What are you babbling about! What altitude is the fighter jet? And you're racing swords, you're flying swords that high?'

The ground commander's angry roar came from the number A3 fighter pilot's communication device: 'Train carefully, if you don't do it again, your training grade will be cancelled!'

The combat pilot was so aggrieved that he had to activate the front camera on the fighter and transmit the image of the sword being flown in front of him to the monitoring screen in the command room.

'Holy .....

Everyone in the command post sat up from their chairs in shock, staring blankly at the image on the screen.

True. A high altitude super speed sword race!

This speed was surprisingly not at all slower than the new warplane that was moving forward at top speed, and crucially this was still the case when Lin Hao had specially lowered his speed.

The commander spoke helplessly, 'Pay attention to safety, go up and ask them to identify themselves, although they appear to be Chinese, we need to prove whether the other party is an enemy or a friend, in addition ask him if he has any information on record.'

Nowadays, all Chinese cultivators, whether they were private or official, needed to be recorded for the convenience of Dragon Gate's management, and this was also a corresponding change in detection made by the higher-ups in response to the coming era of universal cultivation.

The two fighter pilots who received the order had no choice but to accelerate once again and then quickly sped up to Lin Hao. Before they could say anything, Lin Hao showed a wave towards the pilot in the cabin: 'Hey, have you eaten yet?'

Now the two fighter pilots were confused, big brother, this 10,000 meters high, you are outside the fighter, our fighter is close to you are not nervous? This is a matter of eating or not eating?

'You are suspected of racing at high altitude, ah no, racing swords at high altitude, please pull over to accept inspection!'

Two fighter jets, one left and one right, sandwiched Lin Hao in the middle: 'Identify yourself, whether you belong to a registered Illusionary Spirit Master! If not Hua? Serve yi er zero ground whisking ground? Xia cultivators have entered the country illegally, we will 'escort' you out of Chinese airspace!'

Lin Hao was crying and laughing, he was flying over the speed limit with his sword, was he? You're a fighter pilot who also works as an air traffic cop or what?

Lin Hao had no choice but to reduce his speed, but he was also curious: 'Do all illusionists need to register now?'

'Yes, they must be registered, otherwise they will be considered as illegal cultivation, and will be fined if found, and will be abolished and imprisoned if the circumstances are serious, or if they use the power of illusionists to cause social instability, etc. For the sake of social stability in China, please cooperate with us!’ The fighter pilot said in a serious tone, because at first hearing the other party was not registered ah.

Lin Hao was incomparably surprised, nowadays, the management of these illusionists in China was becoming more and more reasonable, and the methods were also becoming mature, this was indeed a way to minimize the harm caused by illusionists to ordinary people, and to keep the fights between illusionists to a limited extent.

‘Alright, I’ll cooperate, but do you guys know this thing?’ Lin Hao took out the divine Dragon Decree from his Consciousness Space.

Chapter 2144

However the two fighter pilots shook their heads, ‘We are asking for your identity, please answer truthfully, we don’t recognize this thing.’

The A3 fighter pilot also immediately contacted the ground command post, ‘Target danger level is S, an unrecorded practitioner, requesting activation of secondary response measures.’

The fighter jets then went into combat status as well.

Lin Hao was dumbfounded, no, no need to be so serious, right? What he didn’t expect was that they actually didn’t recognise the Dragon Master Order, which was quite helpless.

However, the other party's attitude in dealing with this matter, Lin Hao on the other hand, felt very complimentary, seeing that Shen Xiyan was already about to make a move, Lin Hao hurriedly stopped it and spoke in a hurry, 'It's true that we don't have it on record, as we just returned from the River God Spiritual Domain, we don't know about this yet, my name is Lin Hao, this is my wife Shen Xiyan, a member of the Jinling Lin family.'

Ah ?

The two drivers froze and subconsciously saluted, respectfully shouting, 'Good day Chief Instructor!'

This time it was Lin Hao's turn to be puzzled, what the hell, was his name better than the divine Dragon Order now ?

Only after asking did Lin Hao understand that this was a training session for fighter pilots of the Dragon Group, the pilots were all members of the Dragon Group reserve, but now they were in active service.

Because the two brigades of the Dragon Group's active forces stayed in the River God Spiritual Domain, and the brigade of the Vermilion Bird needed to be stationed in the Thunder Splitting Mountain Spiritual Domain all year round to guard it, the reserve forces also became active duty, but they could not keep up with the active Dragon Group in all aspects, so the training was also very much, but unexpectedly today they ran into the Chief Instructor, whom they had never met, but who was mysterious and unusual, and the Chief Instructor even brought his daughter-in-law at a height of 10,000 metres!

Sword fights!

The command post on the ground was also invigorated to learn of this, but Lin Hao had no intention of returning to the Dragon Group and headed straight for the Demon Capital.

The two fighter jets went from an initial air combat training mission to escorting Lin Hao and the others to the demon capital, and the demon capital side received the ? Zero Yi Yi Zero Closed Zero West? The news was so shocking that the local military district was alarmed.

The head of the last Dragon Group, the chief instructor of this Dragon Group actually came to the demon capital in person, the shock could not be described as great.

Lin Hao is speechless, being escorted by fighter jets is not even enough, this thing also let the demon capital side know, Lin Hao lest the other party bother himself, directly ordered, all don't come to bother Laozi.

It is also fortunate that after time has passed, except for some special forces who know Lin Hao's identity, many people are no longer very clear about Lin Hao's identity today.

Besides, his previous position as the head of the Dragon Group was not open to the public, and some of the families who knew his identity had long since chosen to recede into obscurity, such as the Qin family, who had had problems with Lin Hao, cowering in the capital and not asking questions about the world, hating to never see Lin Hao again.

But there was one thing that could not be put off. It seemed that the Dragon Lord had also gotten the message and asked Lin Hao to make sure he went to the Baiyun military zone in the demon capital.

Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan descended from the sky as a white stream of light, putting away the Sword of the Gods the moment they landed and floating down on the airport, which was by now filled with neatly arranged soldiers.

Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan had just landed, and under the leadership of Lin Kai Bai, the head of Baiyun Military District, they stood straight with a snap and swiftly raised their hands in salute: 'Welcome the Dragon Group Chief Instructor to Baiyun Military District for inspection!'

The neat and tidy movements, the strong and rigid salute, were simply domineering and valiant!

'Such a big show, it's enough to make you look good for a long time, right?' Shen Xiyan couldn't help but give a light laugh.

Lin Hao smiled, walked up and returned the salute, then shook hands with Lin Kaibai, who was at the front of the array, 'Hello, what's your name?'

At a glance, Lin Hao saw Lin Kai Bai's eye-catching shoulder patch, two bars and four stars, commonly known as two cents two, the rank of major, and after a glance, he was the highest ranking officer in this military district.

He was the highest ranking officer in this military district.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 2145-2146

Chapter 2145

‘Greetings Chief Instructor Lin Hao, I am Lin Kai Bai, the head of the Baiyun Military Region, you can just call me Xiao Kai.’ Lin Kai Bai said with incomparable humility, especially as countless soldiers looked at Lin Hao with eyes filled with envy and shock.

Flying with a sword, descending from the sky, just like an immortal, really worthy of being the chief instructor of the Dragon Group!

There were quite a few Illusionary Spirit Masters in the army now, but in the Baiyun Military Region, there were not more than two who could fly a hundred meters in the air, and flying a hundred meters in the air was a sign of a third level Illusionary Spirit Master.

How strong must he be to land from a height of 10,000 metres with a fighter jet?

When he heard Lin Kai Bai’s words, Lin Hao was crying and laughing: ‘Lin Division Chief, can you stop it, my rank is probably not as high as yours, besides, I can’t open this mouth at your age.’

A middle-aged man in his forties, the head of a military district, with two bars and four stars on his shoulder, asked himself to call Xiao Kai, how awkward it sounded! Lin Hao didn’t stay in Baiyun Military District much longer.

The Dragon Lord personally called him to make a trip to Baiyun Military District, and thought he was going to do something.

It turned out to be a medal ceremony for him, where he was promoted to the rank of Major General and continued to be the Chief Instructor of the active Dragon Group, as well as the Chief Commander.

No wonder Lin Kai Bai was so old, and his rank was not low, that he was allowed to call him Xiao Kai.

Originally, Lin Kai Bai wanted to give Lin Hao a grand medal ceremony and wanted to give the major military regions a live broadcast, simply long face, okay?

But Lin Hao refused, and asked Lin Hao to teach these troops training, Lin Hao is also crying and laughing, he will be a bullshit to do training for them ah, do not bring people's roots really red doll to distort.

Lin Hao still refused, but couldn't resist the other party's enthusiasm, so he called Zhuque and asked her to pick someone from her brigade to come over as a training instructor.

When Vermilion Bird received Lin Hao's call, the girl was almost happy, but because of her duties, otherwise she would probably have flown directly from Tianhai to this side of the demon capital.

As he watched Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan drift away, Lin Kai Bai was so disappointed, but it was good to have one of Zhu Que's men come over as an instructor.

Lin Kai Bai informed the relevant departments in the Demon Capital to cooperate as much as possible, but forgot that Lin Hao wanted to keep a low profile, so there was quite a misunderstanding later on.

Things in the demon capital had gotten pretty big, for example, spatial cracks appeared inexplicably and were not stable at all, appearing in random locations, and once they hit a spatial crack, fragile human bodies were directly cut into pieces, and there had been more than thirty cases of fatalities caused by spatial cracks this month.

There are also mutations where ordinary people suddenly gain terrifying energy and turn into half-human, half-demon monsters that go around killing and devouring flesh and blood, getting stronger and killing people through devouring.

All sorts of religions have sprung up, claiming that the ancestral idols of the ancestors have manifested themselves, that they have been instructed by immortals, and that by gaining the faith of their followers, they will have the opportunity to be stroked by immortals and receive the chance of long life.

The first ones were not worthy of Lin Hao's attention, but the latter ones already made him understand that this was either related to the ancient immortals or to the Xuan Yuan Sword, so it seemed that the Qing Yun Heavenly Palace had marked the demon capital not without reason.

Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan walked hand in hand through the streets of the Demon Capital, Lin Hao intended to settle down temporarily in the Dragon Rule District of the Demon Capital, as this was where the most frequent incidents of abnormalities and attacks by half-human, half-demon monsters occurred.

The Dragon Gate Branch of the Demon Capital is located in the Dragon Rule District. The Dragon Gate Branch is responsible for issuing bounty missions, but any Illusionist on record can take on missions and receive bounties or points.

The reward money is divided into cash and item rewards, while the points can be exchanged for some treasured cultivation resources from the Dragon Sect.

At this moment, the building of the Dragon Sect Office Branch in the Dragon Regulation District was already bustling with people, and there were Illusionary Spirit Masters everywhere, with three to four hundred people gathered in the hall, with strengths ranging from the first to the third realm, but most of them were first-class Illusionary Spirit Masters, and there were quite a few second-class Illusionary Spirit Masters as well. The third class Illusionary Spirit Masters are? The third level of illusion spiritist? It is more scarce.

Chapter 2146

Seeing this scene, Lin Hao couldn't help but be amazed, these were all folk cultivators, how long had it been since the Illusionary Spirit Masters had grown to such a scale?

Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan, a golden boy and girl divine couple, appeared and immediately attracted the attention of countless people.

'Wodday, this little brother is so handsome, who is that girl? I wonder if the little brother has a boyfriend.'

‘You’re blind, people come in holding hands and collecting!’ The boyfriend next to the girl scolded with jealousy and at the same time mocked, ‘A first class early stage trash illusionist is just that, can good looks be a meal? Can he protect you with this crap strength?’

The girl looked at Lin Hao, and then looked at her boyfriend who had a face full of crosses and whose strength had reached the peak of the second grade Illusionary Spirit Master realm, the girl decisively withdrew her gaze, hey, just be realistic!

A lot of the surrounding chatter also gradually shifted away from Lin Hao? The actual fact is, after all, Lin Hao is handsome enough, but unfortunately the realm is too rubbish.

It was Shen Xiyan who got the attention of countless people, especially those male illusionists, who could not wait to grow their eyes on Shen Xiyan.

Their eyes were almost staring out.

Even the third-class illusionists could not see through Shen Xiyan’s realm, and since Shen Xiyan had collected her aura, they automatically assumed that her strength was similar to Lin Hao’s, but they did not know the realm for some reason.

‘This chick is mine!’ A youth with a fop-like appearance and arrogant attitude looked straight at Shen Xiyan, his harrumphs falling down.

‘Heh, second grade early stage Illusionary Spirit Master, you’re nothing, I think girls like this like older uncles.’ The short and short middle-aged uncle in his forties next to him sneered disdainfully, his realm then Hao Ran was already at the third rank early realm.

‘How big a face are you? Are you worthy?’ Another handsome young man stepped out of the crowd, in his twenties, dressed in a high-class brand name, his body clearly surging with the aura of a third grade middle stage Illusionary Spirit Master, as if he was afraid that others might not know his realm.

The short, middle-aged man’s face was suddenly gloomy, but when he saw the youth, he shut his mouth decisively.

Lin Hao is speechless, in front of his face to grab his daughter-in-law, this is completely as if he does not exist ah, this is the daughter-in-law is too beautiful trouble!

This is the trouble of having a daughter-in-law who is too beautiful!

‘Hello beautiful young lady, my name is Chen Hao Bei, may I ask what your name is? May I make your acquaintance?’ Chen Haobei, with a gentleman’s smile on his face, walked all the way to Shen Xiyan’s face and asked, completely treating Lin Hao as air, even seeing Lin Hao holding Shen Xiyan’s hand, his eyebrows were even more involuntarily wrinkled: ‘Little brother, have some numbers for yourself, don’t delay the beautiful life of others, misleading people and misleading yourself understand?’

You can just say that I am rubbish and don’t deserve such a beautiful woman, and that’s it? You’re just saying I’m trash and don’t deserve such a beautiful woman?

You have a brother called Chen Haobei, don't you ?

Lin Hao was too lazy to bother with the other party and ignored him.

Shen Xiyan coldly glanced at Chen Haobei and turned his head to look at Lin Hao in wonder, as if his eyes were saying: You can even tolerate this ?

Lin Hao shrugged his shoulders and stretched his hands again, it wasn't his fault, it wasn't his fault to find a wife with a stunning face.

Seeing Lin Hao's lack of reaction, Shen Xi Yan didn't say anything and took Lin Hao's hand and walked towards the counter where he received his quests.

‘What a personality, hot enough and high strung, but I like it! The more unconquerable a beautiful girl like this is, the more pleasure you can get once you conquer it that you can't imagine.’ Chen Haobei licked his lips in excitement, the more Shen Xiyan ignored him, the more his desire to conquer was aroused.

Chen Haobei caught up again and stopped the way of the two, Chen Haobei smiled and spoke again: ‘Miss, consider it a friend, and I think you should come here for the first time to take a mission, I am familiar with this area, ah, I have a special task team, I do not know any task, you two join my team, how about. ‘

Lin Hao had to praise a word, the young man can ah, see teasing Shen Xiyan not move, and seems to care quite a lot about his own opinion, now even change the strategy to this familiarity tease them into the group, so as to increase the chance of getting along.

The fact that he is so high up in the realm, doesn't that make him look good in comparison to Lin Hao and Lin Hao's trash? This comparison, if it were an ordinary couple, maybe he would have really pried him out of the corner.

Unfortunately, lad, it's my daughter-in-law you're prying.

'Get lost!' Shen Xiyan coldly opened her mouth and spat out a word, and the temperature around her plummeted several degrees.

'Sorry for the disturbance, Miss you don't get angry, I really don't mean any harm, this is my business card, if you need any help I'll definitely help you finish, I'll leave you alone.' Chen Haobei actually didn't get angry like this and left his business card and left.

Many men around saw this scene have given a thumbs up, this buddy bully ah, really old sea king ah.

Shen Xiyan casually threw the business card given by Chen Haobei into the bin, and also took out a packet of wet wipes to wipe her hands where the business card touched.

Chen Haobei glanced at this scene out of the corner of his eye and his expression couldn't help but grimace: Bitch! What are you pretending to be so cool! You wait for me, one day I'll press you until you beg!

Although Shen Xiyang's attitude was already very clear, as she was as cold as a piece of ice that would not melt in a million years, her face and her arrogant, queen-like temperament did not dissuade those flies, but made more men persist in hitting on Shen Xiyang.

Even those who had girlfriends left them behind and came to hit on her, simply!

As for Lin Hao, he was directly treated as a human-shaped background wall and was automatically ignored.

Shen Xiyang could not resist making a move, but Lin Hao stopped her, there was no need, just don't come here next time, the strength of these people was similar to ordinary people in Lin Hao's eyes, there was no need to bully children.

Lin Hao dragged Shen Xiyang to the registration desk of the office, they had not registered yet, so they were not qualified to take up the tasks in the hall.

When they saw Lin Hao and Shen Xiyang go to the registration office, these men showed a real look, they were really first time rookies, since softness didn't work, they would have to do it the hard way!

Many people who have become Illusionary Spirit Masters have long since left the ranks of ordinary people, and some dark things are magnified with them.

There weren't many people at the registration desk, and after a while it was Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan's turn? Iwu dyeing service Aifu ground dyeing? The person in charge of registration was a man in his fifties, with a realm at the level of a first class late stage Illusionary Spiritist, smiling kindly and looking svelte with a pair of glasses.

'Come on, first come over and fill out the basic information, and the realm level, also do you all know anything about the division in terms of picking up missions?' Pai Sheng smiled as he gave Lin Hao and the two of them a form, which seemed similar to filling out an entry resume, while patiently explaining to Lin Hao and the others.

Lin Hao shook his head, saying that he was not sure.

Pai Sheng then let Lin Hao fill out the form while explaining to Lin Hao that a First Grade Illusionary Spiritist realm could receive one to three star missions. Those who reached the Second Grade Illusionary Spirit Master realm could receive all quests below five stars.

Only those who had reached the Third Grade Illusionary Spirit Master realm could receive Five Star missions, which were the highest level of missions issued by the division.

The strange events in the demon capital are classified as five-star difficulty tasks, and are divided into several tasks, such as the spatial rift killing event, the half-human, half-demon monster killing event, and the demon capital family ancestor manifestation event, and there is no distinction in the number of participants, they can be single or in a group, and there is no restriction on the number of people who can take the task, and whoever completes it receives the reward.

As for how the rewards are divided, that's up to the person who receives the task.

Lin Hao couldn't help but stop writing when he heard this, because he had written First Class Early Illusionary Spirit Master in the Realm column, so wouldn't that mean that he couldn't receive a five-star mission?

'Young man, don't be overly ambitious, five star missions are very difficult, this month there are quite a few third class realm Illusionary Spirit Masters who died alone, you can't even count them on one palm, you are still new, you need to read more and learn more.' Pai Sheng seemed to have guessed Lin Hao's inner thoughts, after all, there was nothing strange about young people being overly ambitious, especially when he saw that Lin Hao had filled in the position of the realm with 'First Class Early Illusion Spirit Master', the middle-aged man hurriedly advised Lin Hao.

Chapter 2148

Shen Xiyang's clear and cold voice rang out, 'Then if it's a fourth level realm Illusionary Spirit Master, can you bring him along to collect the five star mission?'

'Ha?' The middle-aged man was frozen, are you kidding me, girl?

A fourth rank Illusionary Spirit Master?

At present, the highest realm of Illusionary Spirit Master in the entire Dragon Sect's records is only the late third rank, you are so young and you have reached the fourth rank of Illusionary Spirit Master?

When he looked at Shen Xiyan's realm position, he said that she was a Peak Illusionist of the fourth rank, so Bo Sheng was furious and angry: 'Are you not being ridiculous, girl? This is a very serious matter, and there will be a test later on, so you are not allowed to write it down carelessly, do you understand?'

Boom!

Just as Bo Sheng finished speaking, a terrifying pressure descended from the sky, directly pressing him down to the ground with a thud, as terrifying as if there was a tarzan pressing down on his head.

Now Pai Sheng was completely stunned, how could this be possible!

He had felt the terrifying pressure of a third level Illusionary Spirit Master, but it was nothing compared to Shen Xiyan's aura!

Bo Sheng hurriedly took the two men's forms up and took a look at them, and the middle-aged man then cried and laughed, mewling at the sloppiness.

‘Major General Lin, my fault my fault, you say you are not making fun of me, you can take whichever mission you want not, even the whole division has to be your call ah.’ Lin Kai Bai’s side had already passed on the news to all the relevant departments.

Especially departments like Dragon Gate, naturally they had Lin Hao’s details, so that once Bo Sheng looked at Lin Hao’s name and then his address, he basically knew.

‘It’s just official business, just register it in the file according to this record.’ Lin Hao is quite helpless, Lin Kai Bai you are a bit nosy ah, but it’s okay to save a lot of trouble, right?

‘Don’t you think, Major General Lin, that this is a bit low key?’ Bo Sheng looked at Lin Hao, and then at Lin Hao’s markings on the form for the early first class realm.

‘That’s how high my realm is.’ Lin Hao spread his hands helplessly.

Pai Sheng didn’t say anything and did as Lin Hao instructed, but his expression seemed to say, ‘Believe the hell out of you, how could the realm of the Dragon Group’s Chief Instructor and Chief of Staff be so rubbish? Besides, your daughter-in-law is already a fourth grade peak Illusionary Spirit Master, so how could you be any worse?’

Seeing that the other party didn’t believe him, Lin Hao didn’t explain.

The information was submitted and alarmed the division's administrators, fortunately that Bo Sheng hastened to lay low Lin Hao seemed to want to lay low, the administrator of the Dragon Gate division of the Dragon Regulation District laughed bitterly, Major General Lin Hao didn't so much as look at such a small reward, did he?

To be honest who lacks thunder meteorites, Lin Hao are not likely to lack the thunder meteorites ah.

Yu? The first thing you need to do is to get a new one. The head of this division did not go to see Lin Hao, and directly set Lin Hao's information as a Dragon Gate special mission executive, who can take any star mission, and this head decided that whether Lin Hao can complete the mission this time, the reward is not less than his, this face must be given.

Bo Sheng came back and handed them the identity encrypted magnetic card, similar to another ID card, it could be said to be a special ID card for Illusionists, the missions Lin Hao and the others received would also be displayed on the magnetic card.

'Major General Lin Hao, the identity card is done for you, all the five-star missions have been taken for you as well, and no information about the missions you have taken will be made public.'

'Alright, I won't bother then.' Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan left hand in hand, but after walking out, Lin Hao felt that everyone was looking at him with a somewhat unkind gaze, Lin Hao was a bit puzzled, what for, it's only been so long since he went in, is something happening outside?

‘These people can’t hide the greed in their hearts, Lin Hao, you shouldn’t have stopped me! I am your wife and I will not allow any man to covet me! This is an insult to my man!’ Shen Xiyan’s tone was clear and cold, but her voice was forceful and domineering.

‘Fine, if they make a fool of themselves, I don’t care.’ Lin Hao gave Shen Xiyan to move to, overbearing me my daughter-in-law.

It just feels weird, shouldn’t this be said by yourself?

‘Where is the little beauty in such a hurry to go?’ A short, middle-aged man appeared not far from the two, looking at Shen Xiyan and Lin Hao with a smirk.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 2149-2150

Chapter 2149

‘Little beauty, I’ll give you two choices, join my team and I’ll take you to brush up your score, you kick his ass, then serve me well and I’ll let you enjoy all the glory and wealth.’

‘Second choice, I’ll waste him and then force you to serve me. I have my eye on you, I hope you won’t be insensitive!’ The short runt of a man was called Xu Lin, who had formed a scattered cultivation gang, and with his realm not being low, his status in this part of the Dragon Rules was still very powerful.

Shen Xiyan’s face was completely icy cold.

Lin Hao, on the other hand, looked at the other party speechlessly, 'You're saying it wrong, aren't you supposed to say it like this 'I fancy you, I hope you won't be insensitive, otherwise ..... I'll kneel down and beg you.' '

'Kid! People who work for death old me can't stop them, if you want to die, I'll make it happen for you now!' Said the short and ugly Xu Lin with a perverted smile on his face, 'Hey, of course, I can also beat you up and keep you in captivity like a dog, and let you watch me enjoy your woman in front of you every day ..... ow howl howl!'

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

The actual fact is that you can't be able to get a lot more than a few of these.

Xu Lin covered his little bird with a painful face, howling and rolling on the ground in pain, his face was twisted together, it was a misery!

Lin Hao shook his head, 'What a death-defying person who can't be stopped.'

Xu Lin wanted to die, hell, this was what he had just said, and now it was being returned in its original form.

The eggs are broken, how the hell can I find a beautiful woman in the future!

The actual fact is that you'll be able to find a good deal more than just a few of the most popular and popular ones. Whisking West Zero Shan picking er wu chia? ++▣++)!

This chick is pretty, yes, but she ended up ruining the rest of her happiness... Death, all of you! All of you have to die!

'Husband you do it, I don't want to get my hands dirty.' Shen Xiyan looked towards Lin Hao.

Lin Hao nodded and slowly walked over towards Xu Lin, his hand gently patting Xu Lin's cheek: 'Just a short and poor man like you still covets my daughter-in-law? Don't you want to die?'

'You, what do you want ..... ow! I'll fucking kill you!' Xu Lin felt like his arm had been ruined!

Angry, Xu Lin gathered all his aura to fight back, even if it meant death, he wanted to kill Lin Hao, but before Xu Lin could make a move, his sea of consciousness was suddenly crushed by a pair of large invisible hands with an easy click.

Xu Lin spurted out a mouthful of blood, the shattering of his consciousness was a pain from the depths of his soul, and he fainted from the pain.

The most important thing is that the other party likes to be dead, jumping repeatedly on Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan's face.

‘This kind of person deserves to die, why do you still want to keep him alive.’
Shen Xi Yan frowned, such a person, how many times to die is not enough to regret.

Lin Hao smiled and pinched his daughter-in-law’s face, ‘Don’t you think he’ll suffer more than death in the future?’

With Birdie gone and his strength nullified, isn’t that worse than death! Lin Hao suppressed it with his deity’s sea of consciousness, instantly crushing Xu Lin’s sea of consciousness like a pair of large invisible hands instantly, nullifying his cultivation.

For this act, Shen Xiyan felt that it was not enough, but gave Lin Hao a stop.

On their way back, they didn’t encounter any other people looking for trouble, but there were many eyes on them in the shadows, which they both felt very clearly.

After Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan entered the hotel, a dark figure flashed out from the dark corner outside the hotel and took out his mobile phone to dial a number.

‘Young Chen, we’ve found their hotel, it’s at the Imperial Hotel in the Dragon Regulation District, do you need me to find out their exact room number?’ The man in black spoke in a grim voice.

The young Chen on the other end of the phone refused, 'No need, you guys continue to keep an eye on them, and tell me the first time you have any news.'

After hanging up the phone, the man in black felt a bit baffled, damn it, when did Chen Shao, the Sea King, become so patient?

Chapter 2150

Not bad for a sea king!

As soon as the door to the Imperial Hotel's presidential suite opened, a white shadow rushed towards Lin Hao at once and said with incomparable excitement, 'Boss, you're finally back, I've been waiting for a day, I'm bored to death.'

'Bored? You can watch TV on the internet if you're bored.' Lin Hao was dumbfounded, how could he be bored, with internet and mobile phones, if he was not starving to death, my brother could not step out of his room for a month.

'What's that dong you're talking about boss?' The white cat was confused and obviously didn't understand what it was.

After Lin Hao taught him how to use his mobile phone and computer, Bai Cat completely forgot about the internet and successfully became an internet addict.

Even when Lin Hao shouted at him to go to dinner, Bai Cat didn't even bother, to which Lin Hao could only shrug helplessly.

Lin Hao took a look at the time is still early, ate a lunch intended to go out first shopping, five or six in the afternoon to go home to grandmother cooking.

At the Imperial Hotel and the Lin family in Jinling, both had divine thought inscription formations set up, so they could teleport back and forth between each other, which was very convenient and quick.

However, Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan had just gone downstairs when they ran into Chen Haobei, driving a burgundy Ferrari sports car, with nine hundred and ninety roses placed in front of the front of the car, surrounded by heart-shaped candles, while Chen Haobei stood beside him with deep emotion and a look of anticipation, also holding a large bouquet of roses in his arms.

'This handsome man is too handsome! Gosh, and so rich too, it seems like going up to strike up a conversation, why is it that I haven't met such a handsome man.'

'No, I'm going to go up and ask for a contact, a rich young man with money and a face, ah.'

Many of the passerby girls near the hotel were convinced by Chen Haobei's face, but of course, more so by the other party's money power.

Chen Haobei looked back at the two ugly women and spoke coldly at that moment, 'I see that my forty-five size shoes match your face, your face is really big too!'

The two women who were disliked immediately looked indignant, but did not dare to take offense on the spot, after all, such a rich second generation is not what they can provoke, can only secretly curse in their hearts: what the hell ah, make like they think they are more cowardly, is not just handsome, a bit of money just it!'

'That's right, I thought it was a handsome man with a face and money, but it turned out to be an unqualified scum, trash sea king.'

The two gold-digging girls who were looking at the fleeing side, Shan closed whisked Lu picketing to cover the ground love? Quite a few of the men gathered around laughed, which was also really funny.

'I didn't expect this sea king to be quite patient, ah, really only such a person can be the sea king, not me.' Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan went downstairs, Shen Xiyan was holding Lin Hao's arm, seeing this scene, Lin Hao couldn't help but open his mouth to laugh and tease a little.

Shen Xiyan rolled her eyes: 'You want to try one in the sea? Some day I'll bring back a hundred or eighty spare tires and see who's more angry than who.'

The corners of Lin Hao's mouth twitched, so you're tough!

‘Hello, Miss Xiyan.’ When Chen Haobei saw Shen Xiyan walking out of the hotel holding Lin Hao’s hand, a flash of coldness flashed in his eyes, but he quickly hid it and then greeted her with a smile on his face and roses.

The crowd around you looked at me, I looked at you, staring at these three with a dumbfounded face, wasn’t the relationship a bit complicated?

Is this handsome, rich rich guy trying to poach people? Damn, this is powerful.

Shen Xiyan let go of Lin Hao’s hand, her complexion already completely gloomy, Lin Hao gently patted Shen Xiyan’s shoulder, then walked up to look at Chen Haobei and raised an eyebrow: ‘Young Chen, what exactly do you want to do?’

He looked at Lin Hao with a smile on his face, ‘I don’t mean anything else, I just want to make friends with you guys, you still need friends to help you when you go out, right? And our squad is not bad.’

‘Miss Xiyan is so charming and attractive, wouldn’t it be dangerous to let some people with ulterior motives take advantage of her? Don’t you think so Lin Hao.’ Chen Haobei stared at Lin Hao with a deadly stare.
