

Super Son-in-law Chapter 2171-2180

Chapter 2171

‘He was to change the divine blood, to change his fate against the heavens with faith instead of divine blood, to gather the power of all the people to become immortal, thus freeing himself from the shackles of Xuan Yuan Jian.’ As if to corroborate his words, Zhao Yuanlong also told Lin Hao in detail, ‘One day I secretly heard the sea tide clerk talking to himself, in fact I knew what the sea tide clerk was up to, so I paid extra attention to him.’

‘He said that every time he gained faith and exchanged some of his divinity, he was able to see the Xuan Yuan sword across the door of his heart move a few points away, but he couldn’t control this faith power well and developed multiple personalities, often splitting his personality and teetering on the brink of collapse.’

This Lin Hao knew from what Zhao Yuanlong said, he had once also received the power of faith from the people of Ancient Yue City, it was the prayer and prayer of all the people and a blessing to him, countless voices resounded in his mind, if he was not careful, he would be revolted by these powers and split into countless personalities.

Luckily, Lin Hao had carried it off at that time, and now he could bear the infusion of faith power with complete openness, so I guess this was due to the fact that Xuanyuan Jian was unique to him.

I never thought that the beginning and end behind the Demon Capital Storm would be like this.

Zhao Yuanlong told Lin Hao that this was all he knew, the sea tide clerk was already doing this, he wanted to become an immortal with the power of faith, so he didn't want the immortal slaves elsewhere to know about it, otherwise his plan would fall through, and he was starting to spread his claws beyond the demon capital.

Can the power of faith replace divinity?

If it could, then why didn't the old fish head do it? After all, he was the faith of the entire Ancient God Clan.

Lin Hao then reacted, that was forgetting that not everyone could absorb the power of faith, although Lin Hao could bear the power of faith because of that inscription from the old fish head, but it should also have a special relationship with Lin Hao himself to? The fact that Lin Hao can bear the power of faith is because of the inscription of the old fish head, but it should also have a special relationship with Lin Hao himself? Yes.

'Xiyao, you try it later, is it possible to fuse the power of faith?' Lin Hao looked at Shen Xiyao, he wanted to test it out.

'Good.' Shen Xiyao began to relax her guard, while opening up her forbidden sea of consciousness.

Zhao Yuanlong, on the other hand, was stunned, crap, being able to give others the power of faith, damn right, no wonder this guy dared to seal a deity, at the same time Zhao Yuanlong was wildly happy, so, then could he also become normal? Absorb some of the power of faith too!

Not being threatened by the Regulus sword, not even having to exist in this human-not-human form.

Zhao Yuanlong and the others found out that as long as they still possessed divinity, there was no way Regulus would let them go!

What Zhao Yuanlong was thinking, Lin Hao didn't bother, following the one arcane inscription given by the old fish head, Lin Hao reluctantly reproduced a mountainous version of the inscription, which was covered with a trace of faith power, and punched it into Shen Xiyang's sea of consciousness together.

'Let this inscription recognize its owner, completely control this inscription, then try to fuse the trace of faith power inside, if you find something wrong immediately tell me, I will immediately pull this inscription away.' Lin Hao's expression was grave and his tone serious, this was no joke, one mistake could lead to death!

Shen Xiyang nodded and slowly closed her eyes, continuously fusing this special inscription in her consciousness, after the fusion, Shen Xiyang's body shook, countless voices resounded chaotically in her mind, countless people spoke in her mind, and it was like an argument, constantly resounding, like hundreds of ducks quacking in her head.

The breath in her body also began to become disordered uncontrollably, surging up and down.

Next to her, Zhao Yuanlong had looked dumbfounded, this was the power of faith, it really was the power of faith!

‘This, this is the Yin Water Inscription of the River God of Heaven, Heaven, aren’t you from the Divine State? You came out of the world opened up by the Heavenly River God of the Immortal Court?’ Zhao Yuanlong recognized the water power inscription, ‘The Heavenly River River God was one of the Immortal Court’s rightful gods who fled from the Immortal Court to the outer realm back then, ah.’

Lin Hao was also quite surprised, this Zhao Yuanlong was really not very strong, but his knowledge was indeed extensive, and he was indeed an old man from the Immortal Court.

It turned out that the old fish head who called himself the Divine River Elder was once the Heavenly River God of the Immortal Court, or an Immortal Court Righteous God, no wonder he was so fierce.

Chapter 2172

‘I am a Chinese and have entered the world opened up by that old fish head, this inscription was given to me by the old fish head, and as for the old fish head, it was beheaded by the Xuan Yuan sword not long ago.’ Lin Hao stretched his hands.

The corners of Zhao Yuanlong’s mouth twitched and he directly shut himself up.

The Tianhe Zheng God was directly shouted at by the other party as the old fish head, how arrogant was this person this was!

Since he had a Yin Shui inscription and would also be able to replicate it, there was nothing strange about the other party daring to become a god, as long as he didn't reach the level of Old Fish Head, ah shucks, the Tianhe River God, he would hardly be cut down by the Xuanyuan Sword.

At the same time, Zhao Yuanlong's eyes were glowing: 'Immortal Lin Hao, I can absorb the power of faith, I can, can you give me a piece of Yin Shui inscription seal inscription too! I'll be able to get rid of this human-less appearance, and I'll take care of the power of faith myself, I just need that much of a Yin Shui inscription.'

'You're not afraid of split personalities?' Lin Hao was incomparably surprised, right now Shen Xiyan was frowning with a slightly painful expression as she was suffering from the mind floating from that hint of faith power.

'I'm not afraid, I've tried, I can absorb the power of faith, but I don't have a container to collect it, so I can only rely on fusing demon spirits to maintain my divine balance.' Zhao Yuanlong also told Lin Hao that it varied from person to person, almost out of 10,000 Illusionary Spirit Masters, there might not be one Illusionary Spirit Master who could absorb the power of faith.

Besides, even if one could absorb the power of faith, so what if there was no container medium to collect the power of credit, even if someone had faith, it would be completely useless.

After thinking about it, Lin Hao was about to get Zhao Yuanlong a miniature Yin Shui inscription as well, after all, it was a bit disconcerting to keep looking at him like this monSter.

Just then, Shen Xiyan, who was fusing and refining the power of faith, suddenly underwent a huge change

The first thing that happened to Shen Xiyan was that she was at a critical moment of melting the power of faith, when suddenly her body shook with a bang, and her body burst into seven-colored immortal light, and a crystal-like glazed inscription slowly emerged, surrounding her body, like a god descending to earth, like a celestial immortal falling to the mortal world, like a dream.

Shen Xiyan spurted out a mouthful of fresh blood, and a haze of light blossomed out of the blood, while Shen Xiyan's face turned pale the more brilliant the haze of light blossomed out of the inscriptions around her, the weaker she became, but Shen Xiyan was still holding on, fighting against each other.

When Zhao Yuanlong saw this scene, he was stunned, 'Oh my God, such rich divine blood, containing incomparably pure divinity, she is still alive, has the curse of the Xuan Yuan Sword failed?

However, Shen Xiyan's next words directly made Zhao Yuanlong's heart's little celebration hit the bottom, Shen Xiyan's face was pale, her eyes were tightly closed, and she spoke with extreme difficulty, 'Hao help me, the Xuan Yuan sword that pierced into my heart door

Damn!

Lin Hao gritted his teeth, ignoring the terrifying aura emanating from the inscriptions around Shen Xiyang, and rushed directly into the range of the inscriptions, injecting the raging life breath in his body into Shen Xiyang's body.

Next to him, Zhao Yuanlong's face was ashen, the curse was still there, that damned Huangdi, how many years had he been dead? The curse he cast was still there, and as long as one possessed divinity, there was no way to escape the result of his beheading!

The curse is still in place.

The demon capital, Shen Xiyang, is in crisis, and Lin Hao is helping Shen Xiyang despite the danger, while the Jinling Lin family, on the other hand, is much more peaceful.

During the day, Lin Hao and his wife went out on business and returned in the morning and evening to reunite together, rather like they were really just going to work.

Old lady Xu Fang Hua also went to Lin Hao's room and saw that they had disappeared after entering the room, but since Lin Hao and his wife were fine, Xu Fang Hua naturally did not ask any questions and ordered that no one, except Lin Ruo Shi, should go near the courtyard where Lin Hao and his wife were without his permission.

At night, Lin Hao and Shen Xiyang went to the demon capital, and Lin Ruo Shi came to Lin Hao's room, originally wanting to wait for her parents to come back and sleep together, but ended up falling asleep while waiting.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 2173-2174

Lin Ruoshi was awakened in the middle of the night by a commotion in the courtyard. Rubbing her hazy eyes, she turned her head to look at the empty bed and asked, 'Ah Xiong, haven't Daddy and Mommy come back yet?'

'Little master, there's movement outside.' Xiong Er's voice was extremely serious.

Lin Ruoshi turned around and realized that Xiong Er's tall body was like a small mountain blocking the side of her bed, staring warily at the door, as if something extremely terrifying had appeared in the courtyard.

Lin Ruoshi got up from her bed and got out of bed wearing her cute pink bunny pyjamas. Lin Ruoshi pricked up her ears to listen to the movement outside, but strangely enough, it was terribly silent outside, the whole courtyard was silent, as if the insects and birds had completely disappeared, and it was even so quiet that she could clearly hear her own heartbeat, which rang out like thunder.

'Didn't Grandma and Auntie notice that something was wrong with the courtyard.' Lin Ruoshi wondered, this quiet and eerie environment was a little frightening, as if it was a dead world and only she and her summons were left.

'I don't know, I feel like there's a very dangerous aura out there, a great terror out there.' Xiong Er's tone was still very grim, he did not dare to tell Lin Ruoshi, he had just tried, this room was like a completely closed room, there was no way to get out, he had called out many times, there was no response, it was like this place had become a separate space.

‘Can’t we just go out and see?’ Lin Ruoshi stumbled towards the door of the room, obviously not yet awake and a little confused, looking really cute as hell.

‘Don’t go, little master, it’s dangerous!’ Bear Two had just been listening intently to the situation outside, and with a little carelessness he saw that Lin Ruoshi had already gone to push the door of the room to go out, so Bear Two was alarmed and wanted to stop her.

However, as soon as Lin Ruoshi touched the door, a spatial ripple suddenly appeared around her, and she disappeared in the blink of an eye.

‘Little Master!’ Bear Two was frightened to death, hissing and shouting as he rushed over to catch up with Lin Ruoshi, however, just as Bear Two rushed over, the door was directly knocked apart by him, and he rushed violently outside the courtyard.

Xiong Er was dumbfounded, what was this, what was going on?

The spatial prohibitions around him had suddenly disappeared! The feeling of silence dissipated like a tidal wave, and the sound of insects and birds chirping came once again.

The entire Lin family was also awakened by Xiong Er’s angry shout. Xu Fang Hua, Lin Rui and the others quickly rushed to the courtyard where Lin Hao was.

The first time they saw Lin Hao, they were in the courtyard. Xu Fanghua saw Lin Ruoshi’s summoner looking for something in the courtyard like a madman, and at once rushed over with a frown and pulled him in, ‘What are you looking for, pandas? What’s wrong!’

The big bear sat down on the ground and cried with a dishevelled face, chattering, 'It's gone, the little master is gone, I've lost the little master.'

Upon hearing that Lin Ruoshi had lost her, Xu Fanghua's face turned pale in an instant.

Lin Rui, who was rushing behind, just happened to hear this and was incomparably surprised, 'Where could Little Master Shi go at night if she didn't sleep properly? Besides, where can you lose it in the Lin family? What the hell is going on?'

'Yes, tell me quickly, what's going on?' Xu Fanghua was also anxious.

'It's gone, it's just gone.' After Xu Fang Hua and the others pressed him to tell them what had happened, Lin Rui, who was still calm, became even more flustered.

Damn it, what was going on here? Was it someone who wanted to make a move against the Lin family? Was it Lin Hao's enemy?

'Quickly, mobilise everyone to find them! No matter who it is, if he dares to touch my family's Xiao Shi I'll make his family break up and leave no dogs or chickens behind!' Xu Fanghua's face was gloomy, and an icy, piercing murderous aura emanated from his body.

Lin Rui's body trembled, the old lady was gentle for a long time, she had not shown such an aura for decades, she hurriedly nodded her head and agreed, at the same time asked, 'Do you want to tell Xiao Hao?'

Chapter 2174

'Definitely tell him ah, you're not talking nonsense, hurry up and contact him by phone!' Xu Fanghua's words fell while the silhouette had already disappeared, heading straight for the Lei family, looking for Lin Yun to unite with the Lei family as well as other Jinling families to look for Lin Ruoshi, in short, unleashing all the contacts that could be unleashed.

Lin Ruo Shi's disappearance directly gave the whole of Jinling a big earthquake!

Lin Rui took out his mobile phone and called Lin Hao, but he was unable to get through.

Lin Rui dialed a dozen times in a row, but the result was still the same. When he heard the phone ring 'Hello, the mobile phone you have dialed is temporarily unavailable, please dial again later.' Lin Rui's whole body was about to split open. How could he not even be able to contact Lin Hao at this critical moment?

When he called Shen Xiyan's number, he was also unable to get through.

The two were supreme deities, and he, a small immortal slave, could not afford to mess with them.

Therefore Lin Rui could not dial the phone no matter how he dialed, Xu Fanghua came back and heard this news, she also felt that things were not good, I am afraid that Lin Hao and the others had a corresponding problem: ‘No, I will go to the Queen’s Bar, you call Lin Hao’s former ministers and ask them to think of something as well.’

So the Dragon Lord’s daughter Qin Yuxin, and the Vermilion Bird, who was guarding the Thunder Splitting Mountain Spiritual Domain, both received the call, and upon learning the news, barely hesitated to use all their energy to search for them!

The Baiyun Military Region also received military orders and an emergency rallying call rang out in the middle of the night, and the latest town guards of the Dragon Sect who were guarding the four directions were scared enough to act when they learned of the news.

As for the couple Lin Hao and Lin Ruo Shi, they were not aware of what was happening outside. Lin Ruo Shi had wanted to open the door, but once she pushed it open, she was in a different world.

‘Where is this place? These colours are so beautiful, have I come to heaven?’ Lin Ruoshi looked at the turbulent streams of various colours twisting together like silk threads around her, and she walked through them with ease.

This was an area of spatial turbulence located in the void!

Unless one was a deity, even a true immortal slave would be instantly torn into pieces if he approached, leaving not even a trace of his divine thoughts behind, but Lin Ruoshi was not affected in any way, wandering through the void and feeling warm and comfortable, to the extent that she could stretch out her tender little hands and gently caress these tangled turbulences.

‘I’m not still dreaming, am I?’ Lin Ruoshi was a little confused, how could she be here as soon as she pushed open the door to her father’s room, she had no idea where this was, she thought it was in an ocean of stars in the sky, because she thought she was dreaming, wandering in the sea of stars, Lin Ruoshi flopped around, so happy.

The dead space was filled with Lin Ruoshi’s clear and moving laughter, adding some life to this dead space.

If Lin Hao had seen his daughter playing in the midst of the spatial turbulence, he might have fainted from fear.

In the midst of the glorious void, there was a little loli walking in it, playing recklessly, ? Shan Di Shan Serving Wu Lu Deng Wu? The threads of turbulence that contained a terrifying tearing power were like docile little loaches surrounding Lin Ruoshi at this moment.

‘Little girl, come this way, this way, uncle is over here, come quickly.’ An incomparably warm voice came from the void, a gentle and magnetic middle-aged man’s voice came from the void.

‘Uncle? Uncle where are you?’ Lin Ruoshi heard the man’s voice and looked curiously at the place where the voice came from.

‘Uncle is waiting for you over here, there are so many fun things to do over here, and so many big houses.’ The man’s voice came again.

Lin Ruoshi blinked her eyes curiously, was this the man from her dream? Lin Ruoshi, who had always thought she was dreaming, followed the voice all the way there.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 2175-2176

Chapter 2175

Lin Ruoshi did not know that this was not a dream, but the place she went to was ..... in the middle of a vast void, where an ancient immortal had used supreme power to carve out a space in the void and build a magnificent mansion!

The ancient buildings inside are all dusty and the walls are falling off? The walls were falling off? The courtyard is overgrown with weeds and covered with trees, although the weeds have withered and the trees are decaying and shaking.

The weeds and dead trees hide the rockery and walls of the mansion, which, although in a dilapidated and dusty state, cannot conceal its former majesty and sanctity.

Within this lifeless space, a terrifying spatial rift appears from time to time, connecting the space of the Chinese Demon Capital on one side and bordering the vast void on the other.

The constantly flickering spatial cracks seem to announce that this space is about to crumble, that the shattering of the immortal's mansion is also the true demise of the deity, and that the traces of the once supreme existence left in the river of ages have also dissipated.

This is the residence of Immortal Turbid Clear, the Turbid Clear Immortal Mansion!

In the middle of the thousands of feet wide square in the middle of the Immortal Mansion, a man dressed in ink-coloured Xuan clothes, sitting cross-legged in a complex and arcane inscription formation, was constantly opening his mouth to communicate with Lori who was walking in the void.

Using a secret technique, the sea tide clerk sensed that there was still a Void God appearing at the end of this dilapidated Immortal Court and that it had not yet grown up, so he immediately returned to the Turbid Clear Immortal Mansion and used the inscription formation to attract it over!

He was the only true immortal slave of Immortal Turbid Clear, and the current commander of all the immortal slaves in the Demon Capital, Hai Tide member!

Lin Hao had sent the white cat to track down Hai Chao Ren's information, but it turned out that Hai Chao Ren had just returned to the Turbid Clear Immortal Mansion, and the two had just happened to stagger together, thus causing quite a commotion.

Lin Ruoshi if the gaze is, an endless expanse of ancient buildings, jade buildings between the layers of mountains, from the periphery to the inside, and constantly upward incremental height of the pavilion, false mountain stone carvings in the wild grass hidden, although it seems very dilapidated, but Lin Ruoshi does not mind at all, but everywhere is full of curiosity.

At this time, Lin Ruoshi also saw the sea tide clerk, wow, is that the uncle who called himself over?

Lin Ruoshi was surprised as she burrowed in through the void, only to have her, who was used to walking through the void, suddenly plummet: ‘Whoa~ whoa, help, falling, Xiao Shi is falling!’

Lin Ruoshi’s strength, maintaining the imperial air was no problem at all, but after all, she was only a few years old, so she couldn’t react at all to the sudden change, and more importantly, she thought it was a dream, and didn’t think about it that much at all.

The sea tide clerk looked at the squealing girl doll falling from the sky, the sea tide clerk is also the whole person is frozen, that face full of cross flesh face shows a touch of doubt, a dodge imperial air up to catch Lin Ruoshi: ‘careful.’

The sea tide clerk caught Lin Ruoshi, and the moment he looked down, his whole body was frozen.

What a lovely little girl, that delicate pretty face without a single flaw, that dull and innocent little expression, it simply made his heart, which was like a million years of unmelting cold ice, melt.

I'm afraid that even gods who have lost their humanity would be awakened to their long-lost humanity if they saw such a cute and beautiful girl doll.

The fierce and fierce face of the sea tide clerk, whose face was immortalized for all time, completely melted at this moment, and he looked at the little girl in front of him with a face full of doting, and could not help but pinch Lin Ruoshi's pink and pretty face.

'Hello uncle, don't pinch Xiaoshi's face, Xiaoshi doesn't like it.' Lin Ruoshi blinked her eyes adorably and greeted the sea tide clerk.

Chapter 2176

When he heard Lin Ruoshi's words, Hai Chaojun also hurried back to his senses and smiled apologetically at Lin Ruoshi: 'Sorry, Xiao shi, uncle was looking at you too cute and couldn't hold back. I'm called Hai Chao Crew, you can call me Uncle Hai.'

'Okay Uncle Hai.' Lin Ruoshi nodded gently, then struggled to fall out of Hai Chao Crew's arms, she didn't like to stay in the arms of people other than her parents as well as her grandmother, it made her feel uncomfortable.

Seeing Lin Ruoshi struggling to get down, the sea tide clerk felt a pang of loss, the same sea tide clerk was also incomparably amazed and shocked, this little girl also looked less than four years old, he could see at a glance that this was Lin Ruoshi's real age.

But Lin Ruoshi was already a fourth level Illusionist, without any divinity in her body, yet she could control the void turbulence and walk in the void, and how could she look like an ordinary human Illusionist?

This is too amazing!

Lin Ruoshi cocked her head and looked curiously at the eyes in front of her? Er xi dyed pick er ground pick ground? The formerly strangely dressed uncle: 'Uncle how did you get here in my dream?'

The same time in the heart secretly spit: wow, this uncle looks so fierce look oh, he will be angry will not beat people ah? Does it hurt to be hit in my dream? Will it still hurt when I wake up?

Lin Ruoshi's mind was full of strange and weird thoughts.

In a dream?

This little girl seemed to be unaware of her own abilities, so she had an idea and looked at Lin Ruoshi with a faint smile: ‘Little girl, I am an immortal, so naturally I can enter your dreams, little Shi, do you know about the legacy of immortals? I can make you immortal!’

Lin Ruoshi blinked her eyes, is it really true? Something from a dream, can it come true?

‘Is that so? Uncle Hai, then can I give this opportunity to someone else?’ Lin Ruoshi blinked.

‘Why? Who are you going to let such a rare opportunity go to?’ The sea tide clerk was filled with incomprehension, was this girl naive or ignorant? After all, who could refuse the chance of a long life and give it up to someone else.

Lin Ruoshi was deep in thought, and looking at Lin Ruoshi’s appearance, the sea tide clerk didn’t look deeper, after all, he had to accomplish his purpose to do so, ‘You can give it to others, but only to one person oh.’

‘Only one person?’ Lin Ruoshi frowned, that little expression was so cute that it made the sea tide clerk a little mesmerised, so he didn’t interrupt the little girl’s thoughts at all.

After thinking about it for a long time, Lin Ruoshi’s frown slowly relaxed and she smiled, that innocent smile seemed to add life to the lifeless Immortal Palace.

Seeing the little girl's expression, the sea tide member raised his eyebrows slightly, it seems that the little girl has already made up her mind, after all, no one can refuse the temptation of long life.

It was only Lin Ruoshi's next words that left the sea tide clerk dumbfounded, his whole body was a little confused and doubting life.

Lin Ruoshi lifted her head to look at the sea tide clerk and smiled to reveal two sweet dimples, 'Uncle Immortal, thank you oh, but if I can only give one person long life, I won't want it.'

'I wanted to give Daddy and Mummy longevity so they could be together forever.'

The sea tide clerk's mind exploded, 'Your mum and dad will be together forever, but what about you? You'll die!'

'It doesn't matter to me, I'm still young, I can spend a long, long time with my mum and dad, they are the most important.' Lin Ruoshi replied seriously.

'Then why did you refuse again?' The sea tide clerk was amazed.

'Because if only one person can live forever, no matter which one of them goes first, the one who stays behind will be very sad. Lin Ruoshi smiled purely: 'It's best for a family to be happy together, if not, it's torture to live longer.'

Super Son-in-law Chapter 2177-2178

Chapter 2177

Is it torture to live longer?

A small ripple in the tidekeeper's stagnant state of mind.

Torment? Those immortal slaves and immortals, which of them were not desperate to live, to live forever, those immortal slaves were even willing to turn into half-human, half-demon monsters in order to live! They even ate blood food without any psychological barrier, just to stay alive.

The sea tide members had not felt that there was anything wrong with this, and even agreed with it very much, but today, after hearing this little girl's words, the sea tide members were stunned.

They had lived for countless years, but now the sea tide members began to be confused, alive? Had they really lived?

Did they survive or did they suffer endless torment through the years when so many long years remained?

Fear of the Regulus sword that will fall at any moment, with its divinity, and the loss of humanity, the loss of humanity? Wu Fu Wu Ai Fu Xi Pai Xi? Then one loses countless things, such as family, and the emotion of loving and being loved.

What is the difference between living and dying like that?

Family and affection, the tidekeeper does not remember, not even a vague memory.

The ripples in his mind began to surge violently, and his heart began to be clouded with dust, which made him wake up with a start.

The fact that a few words had invisibly made his dao heart become dusty and his heart lake surge, nearly causing problems in his mind.

For Lin Ruoshi, it didn't matter how much divinity she was given, he just needed to replace the divinity, so naturally he wouldn't be stingy, as for Lin Ruoshi's parents, it was just two more second generation immortal slaves, it didn't take much divinity, it didn't matter at all.

‘Really? Then Xiao shi thanked uncle in advance, but‘

The sea tide member was once again made to break his heart by the second half of Lin Ruoshi's sentence, and even wanted to hiss and ask the world: is this a human being? Is there such a pure person in this world?!

Because Lin Ruoshi said that even though all three of them could live forever, Lin Ruoshi still had to wake up and talk it over with her mum and dad before she could do so.

And she said that her dad had told herself that she could not accept favours from others for no reason, so Lin Ruoshi was also hesitant as to whether she could repay this uncle for such a big favour.

Besides, she wasn't sure that her mum and dad just wanted to live forever, so she had to ask for clarification, so she still refused for now.

The sea tide staff really almost burst out, the heart has mmp, he is the first time to give others the opportunity to live long life was so pushed and blocked ah, crazy.

But the little girl's words, but it gives the sea tide member's in order to achieve their own purpose of the opportunity.

Hai Chao clerk's heart was already almost suffocating, but his face was still maintaining a warm smile as he gently nodded: 'Little shi, I can often meet in your dreams, since you feel unable to repay your uncle's favor, how about you look at this piece of mansion?'

Lin Ruoshi looked around curiously and shook her head, 'It's big and vast, but there's no life in it, look at this place with just the two of us, the grass is withered, the supplies are in disrepair, it's all covered in dust, it's too desolate.'

As she said this, the little girl even had a look of disgust on her face.

The corners of the sea tide clerk's mouth twitched fiercely, disgusted, this girl actually disliked this immortal mansion!

Even if it was dilapidated, it was still the residence of a supreme being!

'Sze is right, but Sze this is in your dream, so you have a unique ability, this place will become even better because of your ideas, in the future this place will be full of life and there will be more and more uncles and aunts to accompany Sze oh.'

That's what the sea tide crew went to all this trouble for! And the main purpose was on Lin Ruoshi!

Chapter 2178

Lin Ruoshi's eyes widened with curiosity, 'Really Uncle? Is little shi so hot!?''

'If so, little shi is willing to help da, Uncle Hai you quickly tell little shi what little shi should do.'

‘Sze, do you see those cracks? You just think inside your head that those cracks close, then imagine that the space here is incomparably strong, and also give permission for uncle to enter and exit at any time oh’ Hai Chao clerk began to lure Lin Ruoshi step by step to become the tool person to repair this immortal mansion.

The actual fact is that you can’t find any change at all, and you’ll be able to do what you’re told, although you don’t feel right, but you don’t feel like this uncle is a bad person, even though he looks a little bit mean.

Especially when Lin Ruo Shi found that the spatial cracks across the dome of the immortal’s mansion, like a spider’s web, had closed up under her thoughts, Lin Ruo Shi was overjoyed, this ability is so magical, so you can really do whatever you want in your dreams!

The next step was not even needed to be urged by the sea tide staff, Lin Ruo Shi was enjoying herself.

The whole of Jinling’s five hidden families were in a state of shock, and the whole of Jinling was in a state of shock, as the hidden families had once again emerged in force!

Xu Fang Hua unites with the Lei family, the Yun family and the three great hidden families to launch all their manpower and resources to investigate and search for Lin Ruoshi’s whereabouts at all costs.

As for the family's former arch-enemies, the already somewhat dilapidated Long Family and the Xu Family, they were targeted by the two Lei and Lin families, and originally the two families resisted a little, 'Aren't you slandering people? Who the hell has nothing to do with recruiting your great-granddaughter?'

However, when the head of the Dragon Sect branch in Jinling led the Dragon Sect troops to arrive, including the Dragon Team members responsible for guarding the River God Temple at the bottom of the Qin Huai River, Qin Yuxin was transferred over, the Xu and Dragon families conceded and meekly cooperated with the investigation.

But the result was a big disappointment for Xu Fang Hua, who found nothing, but when you think about it, the Xu and Long families were already in ruins, so they wouldn't dare to do that if they had the guts!

The four guardians of the town were given the go-ahead by the Dragon Master to mobilise all the troops of the Dragon Sect to find Lin Ruoshi's whereabouts.

When Vermilion Bird left for the demon capital without asking for permission, his superiors didn't even blame him, and even told the White Cloud Military District to obey Vermilion Bird's orders for everything.

Vermilion Bird led a squad of 100 Dragon Team members and headed straight for the Demon Capital, while Chen Kai, the South House of the Demon Capital Dragon Gate Town, learned of the news and informed all the precincts to look for Lin Hao and Shen Xiyun.

He even warned all the Demon Capital families that whoever dared to mess around would die!

The military chiefs of the Baiyun Military Region directly rallied urgently and took military control of the Dragon Regulation District, as if it had all exploded overnight!

Military tankers were everywhere, a flood of trained steel pouring into the modern city, and what a shock it was to modern people!

After all, this is a semi-peaceful era, especially in China, where most of the military can only be seen on TV, which is completely different from the reality of running into it.

It just so happens that Lin Hao and Shen Xi Yan were in the Imperial Hotel room when Zhao Yuan Long placed a forbidden formation to prevent anyone from disturbing Lin Hao and the others.

With Lin Ruoshi missing and Shen Xiyan and Lin Hao nowhere to be seen, all these people are even more flustered!

The dragon master is even considering whether to dispatch the army to cooperate again, all relevant departments, jc bureau, etc, all fully cooperate.

Other people don't know, but the Dragon Master knows very well that Lin Hao and his wife are now considered the masters of the Qing Yun Heavenly Palace and the most powerful people in the world!

Wait!

The most powerful!

The Dragon Master froze for a moment, yes, this couple were both supreme beings, who could threaten him? Unless it was the River God's Spirit Realm? The Earth-er Zero West Servant Yi Zhaoyi? The strongest person ran out to make trouble.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 2179-2180

Chapter 2179

Therefore, the Dragon Lord instead gave up on issuing the order to transfer the troops and did not continue to replenish the subsequent troops, otherwise the scene in the Demon Capital would have been even more shocking.

Instead, the Dragon Lord asked South Tiger and Cang Wolf to investigate the River God Spiritual Domain to see if there were powerful people at the entrance to Gu Yue City who had smuggled themselves into Chinese territory without their knowledge!

A piercing air defense siren sounded in the demon capital, followed by an announcement that the demon capital would be under military control and a curfew would be imposed on everyone for a short period of time in conjunction with the operation!

Although this was nominally a drill, it caused many ordinary people to feel a sense of unease, and even those immortal slaves of the great clans began to gather together to discuss the fact that the demon capital had not made such a big fuss when they had made quite a fuss one after another before.

Now that they had suddenly made such a big commotion, what was that all about? Did it mean that the Dragon Sect of China wanted to start dealing with them?

In reality, it was just that they had got the wrong idea.

In the latter part of the night, near dawn, Lin Hao ended his assistance to Shen Xiyang with a sweaty head, which also made Lin Hao sweat profusely and feel like his body had been emptied.

Shen Xiyang's face also returned to normal and her situation eased a lot, looking at Lin Hao's laboured appearance, her heart ached, 'Hao, I am not fit to use this power of faith, although the power of faith has diluted some of my divinity, the effect is not obvious, it is too harmful to you.'

Lin Hao laughed lightly happily, 'The effect is not too obvious? I feel especially obvious, you finally know to feel sorry for your husband me.'

Shen Xiyang gave Lin Hao a speechless and fierce glare, and her face returned to a clear and cold look, can't this guy have a proper behavior? That tiny bit of faith power just now, how much of his life essence had been consumed!

'Old ancestor, are we being fed a handful of dog food?' The second master Zhao next to him looked at Lin Hao and his wife speechlessly.

Slap!

Zhao Yuanlong threw a slap at Zhao Erzhang's face and cursed, 'Deflated calf! It's a blessing you've cultivated in several lifetimes to be able to eat the dog food of the Supreme Being, shut up and swallow it for me in one big gulp!'

Second Master Zhao:

Old ancestor, you're even more of a dog than Laozi, the dog's leg, there's no such thing as you licking back!

'Congratulations Immortal Ancestor, this amount of faith power is tiny, but it can last for quite a few days, at least it can keep Xuan Yuan Jian from getting his hands on it.' Zhao Yuanlong hurriedly congratulated him.

Lin Hao frowned, 'What does that mean? That even after absorbing the power of faith, it will lose its effect as time passes?'

'Yes, it can only renew life, but cannot completely solve it, even if I can rely on the Yin Shui inscription to absorb the power of faith, it can only last for a limited period of time, of course, if there is enough power of faith, then it will not be a problem,? Icy Aizensi Diye Er? Unless there is no one left to believe in, after all, a god without people to believe in, the god will also perish.' Zhao Yuanlong hastily nodded his head.

Lin Hao's face got a little ugly, water can carry a boat as well as overturn it, ah, ordinary people didn't have the ability to make someone a supreme being, they could just as easily make him perish!

It seemed that in order to solve it completely, it was still necessary to solve the root problem of the Xuan Yuan Sword.

'By the way, two Immortals, your two Immortals' mobile phones have been ringing all night, and I don't dare to disturb you so easily.' Zhao Yuanlong said awkwardly.

Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan froze for a moment, both of them hurriedly picked it up, both of them were frozen, hundreds of missed calls, there were missed calls from Lin Rui, Xu Fanghua, Lei Ling, Lin Yun, Dragon Master and twenty thirty others, each of them had made at least thirty calls, it was estimated that they had all been ringing all night without stopping.

'Hao, something must have happened, call back and ask.' Shen Xiyan also sensed that something was not right.

Lin Hao nodded and hurriedly picked up his phone and called Xu Fanghua back, 'Hey, Grandma

Lin Hao hadn't even finished his sentence when Xu Fang Hua's angry scolding came from the other side: 'You damn kid, where the hell have you been? Do you know that the entire Xu family and the Long family have had my knife on their necks, and that all of China has been rummaged through overnight without finding you, where the hell have you been?'

Chapter 2180

Lin Hao froze in place, he had never seen his grandmother so angry, so angry before ah, during the time he was helping Shen Xiyao to melt the power of faith, what had happened?

Next

Clang!

A crisp sword cry rang out, the sound crisp yet containing a piercing killing intent!

The sound of a sword chirp was heard in all directions, almost the entire world heard this sword chirp, the Qing Yun Immortal Palace shook and blossomed into a ten thousand feet of haze, ten thousand feet of haze completely dispelling the darkness earlier than the first rays of the morning!

As the ten-thousand-foot haze dispersed, the sky was only faintly white with fish belly!

The next moment, a ten-thousand-foot sword light shot up in the sky at the Demon Capital Empire Hotel, piercing the concrete slab on the top floor and rising up into the sky, breaking through the darkness, shattering the dark clouds, and likewise tearing apart the heavens!

As the sword light rose, Lin Hao let out a hissing cry of rage that shook the consciousness of all practitioners, causing them to tremble in fear!

All of China's cultivators looked in the direction of the demon capital, and the eyes of cultivators from all over the world converged on it!

'Oh my God, who is this? How can it be so terrifying! This sword handed out to the firmament directly tore through the firmament and shattered the void, seven-coloured inscriptions surrounded the sword light, was it a sword handed out by a heavenly god? Or is it a mortal who wishes to break the heavens and cut down the immortals!'

'Demon capital, that's the direction of the demon capital, quick, something big must have happened there!'

All the practitioners were shocked and appalled, and the immortal slaves hidden in various parts of China were also shocked and appalled, awakened from their slumber, looking at the sword light that condensed but did not disperse, piercing the heavens, all kneeling in fear and worship: it was the gods, the real gods had appeared! All the immortal children were awakened!

The immortal slaves of the demon capital all lay shivering at their ancestral shrines, gods had descended, and all slaves worshipped!

The people of the Demon Capital, even though there was a curfew in place, were still awakened by the roar and the light of the sword, and all saw this unprecedented spectacle!

‘Is that a god? I thought those cultivators were already immortals, but compared to this, it’s a drop in the ocean!’

‘Don’t panic, don’t panic when things happen, take pictures and post them to your friends!’

Chen Kai, Vermilion Bird, and the head of the Baiyun Military Region, Wu Liang, who had just walked out of the Imperial Hotel, turned back in shock, they were the ones who had watched the scene from the closest distance, there were no words to describe the shock, the golden sword light flooded the entire Imperial Hotel, including them, the sword light that pierced the sky, illuminating the entire earth!

Chief!

The head of the Baiyun Military Region and Wu Liang didn't know the hair? What had happened? What had happened, but they also started to salute, after all, Chen Kai and Zhu Quo, the two of them were in much higher positions than them.

'The four town guards hear the order!' Lin Hao's voice spread through the Qing Yun Heavenly Palace, as well as his divine thoughts, and his voice then rang out in the minds of the four town guards!

'Chen Kai has received his orders!'

'Lin Yin has an order!'

'Ye Yu has the order!'

'Zhao Chen has the order!'

'At all costs, mobilize all forces to find Lin Ruoshi's whereabouts, and I'll take the blame for any crime! Dragon Master, I owe you a favour, anything within my power, I'll do it for you! Any condition except the one that jeopardises the lives of your family!' Lin Hao's face was fierce, his murderous intent coalescing and not dispersing, like an out-of-this-world killing god!

How dare he touch Lin Hao's daughter!

The Dragon Lord also heard Lin Hao's voice, the Dragon Lord smiled slightly:
'No need to say more, let go and do it, the Dragon Lord's Order you hold in your hand can mobilise all the troops in China!'

'Thank you.' Lin Hao arched his hand and withdrew his consciousness, next to him, Zhao Yuanlong and Zhao Erzhang and a host of other powerful Zhao family members all fell to the ground, shivering, was this the true power of a deity? It was so frightening! They could hardly even breathe.
