

Super Son-in-law Chapter 2201-2210

Chapter 2201

It was not long after Chen Bei Xuan left that Lin Hao woke up, only to see a wrinkled, incomparably familiar face appear in front of him just as he woke up.

Crap!

Lin Hao jumped up with a frightened face, really let this long face to give a big jump, although not very scary, and quite kind, is smiling at himself, but just woke up who is full of wrinkles old face dislike in front of the eyes have to be scared ah.

‘Young man, you’re awake.’ The Meng woman smilingly held a bowl of soup and handed it to Lin Hao: (*———)!

‘Here, lad, drink this bowl of soup.’

‘No, no, I won’t drink it, so what, old granny, you wait a little bit haha, I’ll leave right away.’ Lin Hao hastily shook his head and refused, the hell with your soup, what kind of soup is that and what will happen if I drink it?

I think I’m hanging again!

Did he finally let Wang Lao Er die? But before he died, he seemed to have seen Shen Xiyan coming from the dragon, majestic and heroic, sweeping everything away, was that the last image he saw before he died?

It has been said that when a man is dying, his life's experiences are recalled in that instant, as if he were watching a horse.

But it seemed that one had only seen Shen Xiyan.

'You go back my ass, wife I don't send you back you still want to go back, you forget the two worlds abyss by the sealing formation you set up? Now you have no aura, no divine blood, do you really think you can break through your own formation? Even without the Xuan Yuan Sword as the eyes of the formation you still can't return!' Meng Mo glared at Lin Hao without good grace.

This little bastard, he obviously couldn't die, but he had come here four or three times to get himself together, and he didn't even give himself a performance, he was simply hateful!

Lin Hao was stunned, this, this she knew?

Since he knew about the existence of the Immortal Court, Lin Hao had guessed that this old woman, who looked like she was dying, was probably once a great power.

‘Drink it and I will send you back and tell you everything you want to know.’
Meng Mo spoke once again.

Lin Hao rolled his white eyes, ‘Drinking it and you telling me won’t do any good, it’s still forgotten.’

‘Drink or don’t drink! How will you have the power to save if you don’t drink? I love to serve the ground Xi’er? The woman who is deep in the depths of blood because of you!’

‘What! That, that’s true? Xiyan really ran away to the Sea of Blood because of me! How is she now, and why am I here?’ Lin Hao’s face changed drastically, could it be that it wasn’t a hallucination that appeared before he died, but that it was real, that Shen Xiyan had come from the Dragon to save herself with the fact that she was deep in the Sea of Blood?

Meng did not say anything and disliked the soup in front of her towards Lin Hao’s face.

Lin Hao hesitated for half a second, gritted his teeth, picked up a bowl of soup dun dun dun, and finished it in three or two gulps.

Huh?

It’s quite tasty!

The warm Meng Po soup went down, warming all the way from his throat to his stomach, and with a faint fragrance, Lin Hao even subconsciously said, 'It tastes good, it's just that adding some green onions might correct the taste.'

Meng Po slapped Lin Hao on the head, 'Add some green onions, why don't you go to heaven.'

Lin Hao drank Meng Po's soup for half a day, the result was no reaction, the spiritual energy in his body recovered rapidly instead, but the burnt up divine blood didn't recover, this was good, he was now equivalent to a normal Illusionary Spirit Master, and his realm was breaking through!

Mid First Grade! Peak First Grade, breaking through to a Second Grade Illusionary Spirit Master!

With this soaring, Lin Hao continued to grow to the realm of a mid-fourth grade Illusionary Spirit Master, and only then did he come to a halt.

Lin Hao wasn't much surprised by this, in fact, his realm was also at this level, but because he had the suppression of the divine blood before, his realm had never changed, all that had grown was his combat power, and now his realm had finally caught up.

'Old woman, this Meng Po soup of yours is residual and watered down, right? Have another bowl.' Lin Hao really had some feelings of not being able to finish it, wondering if with two more bowls, he would have directly broken through to the sixth grade Illusionary Spirit Master go?

Chapter 2202

‘Get lost, you think I run this goodness hall.’ Meng was so angry that she snatched Lin Hao’s bowl away from him, and then informed him of all the events.

After hearing this, Lin Hao was so angry that he cursed, ‘Chen Bei Xuan, that son of a bitch! It’s not enough to count on me, but to count on my daughter-in-law, Chen Bei Xuan, you master!’

Hahahaha!

Hearing Lin Hao cursing Chen Bei Xuan, Granny Meng couldn’t be happier and said with a smile, ‘Not bad, young man, you can see that the old thing is behind this, you’re not that stupid, let me tell you, that old thing is very bad.’

‘What, old lady, you’ve been punked by that pussy king too?’ Lin Hao raised his eyebrows.

Meng Mo immediately stopped talking with a gloomy face, and Lin Hao had the sense not to pursue this matter further, but he was still very curious about Meng Mo’s identity: ‘Granny, who are you? Lukewarm closed zero cover closed intention? Ah? Just Granny Meng? What does it have to do with the Ancient Immortal Court? By the way, does the Underworld really exist?’

‘The Underworld existed, and it existed even before the Immortal Court.’

‘As for me, do you know the Queen Mother of the Hou Tu?’ Meng Mo told a story.

‘The Queen Mother? I’ve never heard of it, I only know about the Queen of Heaven and the Hou Tu.’ Lin Hao stretched out his hand.

‘I am the split body of the Hou Tu Niang, but my body broke before the Immortal Court shattered.’ Meng did not try to conceal Lin Hao’s meaning.

Lin Hao, on the other hand, was so shocked that he couldn’t speak, he knew that Meng Mo was a big shot and that she must have had some connection with the Ancient Immortal Court, but he didn’t expect that the connection was so long ago!

Did the Underworld really exist?

Wouldn’t that mean that behind the Nai He Bridge, there was really a terrifying existence that controlled the reincarnation of life and death?

‘Little Black and Little White, you send him back, young man, next time you come to me, you won’t be treated so well.’ Meng waved, and soon a male and a female figure came sprinting in from afar.

When he saw the dress and appearance of these two black and white impermanent figures, Lin Hao's entire body was dumbfounded.

It was a man and a woman, the man was wearing a black leather jacket and carrying an AK47, while the woman was wearing an ancient green shirt, and a bit of a Qin Huai green shirt style.

This, this was the Black and White Emperor?

'What are you standing around for big bro? Let's go, what's so weird about us looking like this? Do you really think that the Black and White Impermanent is just a long tongue trailing the ground and then a hat with some kind of one-see-fat-wealth thing on top of his head?' The man in black leather tugged on his northeastern dialect and laughed as he carried his gun.

He finally understood that the Black and White Impermanence was just a generic term for the ghosts, only that in ancient times some people had seen the two ghosts in that image and thought that the Black and White Impermanence was such an inherent image.

But with the change of time, these ghosts have long since ceased to have a fixed appearance, and they are just practitioners of this particular space.

The two men escorted Lin Hao all the way to the Two Realms Abyss before leaving, because the formation of this Two Realms Abyss was originally set up by Lin Hao, and with his own spiritual energy now restored, Lin Hao was naturally able to cross the formation directly and return to the Thunder Split Mountain Spiritual Domain through the Two Realms Abyss without destroying it.

Now that the Thunder Split Mountain Spiritual Domain had reopened, Lin Hao entered the Thunder Split Mountain Spiritual Domain and breathed in the fresh air again, Lin Hao was overwhelmed with emotion.

To be honest, when he returned to the Thunder Splitting Mountain Spiritual Domain, he looked at the huge, grey-brown thunder beasts and felt quite close to them.

Here, Lin Hao was the master. Using the core inscription, he arrived at the empty gate of the spirit domain in a few breaths, he didn't alert the illusionary spirit masters who were training inside, Lin Hao came out of the Thunder Splitting Mountain spirit domain, and it so happened that a warrior from the Vermillion Bird group was stationed at the empty gate and also happened to know Lin Hao.

Seeing Lin Hao walk out of the empty gate, those warriors first froze, and then immediately saluted, 'Chief!'

Lin Hao nodded: 'Go about your business, by the way, tell your Vermillion Bird captain that I'm going back to Jinling and will look for her at the Demon Capital later.'

Super Son-in-law Chapter 2203-2204

Chapter 2203

After saying that, Lin Hao summoned the Sword of the Gods and rose up into the sky as a stream of light and disappeared over the Thundersplit Mountain outpost.

‘That’s not right, we don’t have any record of the chief entering the Thundersplit Mountain spirit domain.’ Long after Lin Hao had left, the two warriors snapped awake.

‘Right, and didn’t the captain go AWOL to lead a small team to the Demon Capital because of the matter of the chief? The captain is still in the demon capital, how come the chief has come out from this side of the spirit domain instead?’

‘Forget it, let’s hurry up and inform the captain.’

Vermilion Bird, who was far away in the demon capital, was also confused when he heard the news, but cheered up, sure enough the chief would be fine, although he was lost in the mist for so long, he had finally come out.

‘The chief is fine, he has just come out of the Thunder Splitting Mountain spirit domain and has gone back to Jinling, it shouldn’t take long for him to come this way.’ Zhuque informed Wu Liang and Chen Kai of the news.

The White Cloud Military Region had withdrawn its troops, but Zhuque and Chen Kai still had their men surround the ancient district to death, and the mist showed no sign of dissipating.

‘What the hell? From, from the Thunder Splitting Mountain Spiritual Domain? Damn it.’ Chen Kai was also dumbfounded, ‘This fog goes straight to the Thunder Splitting Mountain Spiritual Domain? The Sea of Heaven is not close to the Demon Capital, so is it possible that the space inside this mist actually borders on the Thunder Splitting Mountain Spiritual Domain? There’s even an interchange between these worlds!’

‘We’ll find out when the chief returns.’ As soon as Vermilion Bird finished speaking, an unprecedented spatial fluctuation appeared, and the entire space of the Demon Capital was somewhat unstable, creating violent ripples in all directions!

Everyone looked up in horror at the place where the spatial fluctuations were emanating from!

In the sky above the Demon Capital’s main city, the spatial ripples were particularly violent, and there was a blurred behemoth looming out, as if something terrifying was about to come out of it and tear the space apart.

‘Not good, this is the Turbid Clear Immortal Mansion, the sea tide member has actually finished repairing the Turbid Clear Immortal Mansion, he is actually going to bring the Immortal Mansion into existence, damn it, does he know that this will cause the entire space above the Demon Capital to completely shatter and turn into nothingness, then the Demon Capital airspace will become an absolute forbidden zone!’ Zhao Yuanlong recognised the behemoth that was about to appear.

Not only him, but almost all of the immortal slaves recognised it, after all, more than half of these immortal slaves had met in this immortal court for countless years, so they could naturally recognise it at a glance.

‘Great, it’s huge!’ Vermilion Bird and the others were shocked, including the people of the Demon Capital.

This huge thing seemed to be even bigger than the precincts of the Demon Capital, covering the sky so much that one could not see the end of it.

Vermilion Bird had no choice, and didn’t care if he disturbed Lin Hao, a phone call was hammered to Lin Hao, telling him of the situation on his side.

In between Vermilion Bird’s phone call, that turbid and clear immortal residence truly appeared, turbid and clear immortal residence in the demon capital thousands of meters high in the sky now? Shan Pao Xi Lu Er Fu Serving Er? The world, its scope enveloped the entire Demon Capital, the edge of the Immortal Mansion as well as below, was a void of space, constantly tearing everything apart, a thousand meters high, as long as it rose more than three hundred meters it would be completely crushed by the terrifying tearing force of the void of space, the entire Demon Capital airspace became an absolute no-go zone!

With the turbulent glow of the void space and the immortal mansions like floating islands overhead, bursts of haze blossomed out, and instead of appearing dark, the demon capital was reflected in a colourful, gorgeous and dreamy manner, very aesthetically pleasing.

But cultivators could sense the terrifying suppression of the Immortal Palace, and the deadly spatial turbulence was so terrifying that no one could cross the spatial turbulence to the floating island without the master’s permission, not to mention that even if they broke through the spatial turbulence, the defence mechanism of the Immortal Palace was no joke!

Lin Hao's face was gloomy as he hung up the phone, not caring about the situation in the demon capital, but quickly calling his grandmother Xu Fanghua.

Xu Fang Hua received Lin Hao's call and gave him another reprimand, only to choke on his own words as he scolded him.

His great-granddaughter had disappeared in the middle of the night, even if she returned safely the next day, but it was not a solution, who knew what horrible consequences it would cause, and there was no news from the demon capital, Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan were in a fog, the old man was worried badly.

Chapter 2204

The good thing is that Lin Hao comforted a few sentences, Xu Fanghua emotions only eased some, said Lin Ruo Shi is at home, and mouth also muttered: Xiao Shi some hate the fairy uncle, never go to the fairy uncle guys finished.

Lin Hao was then relieved, and Lin Hao returned to the Lin family at top speed.

The matter of the demon capital had become known to the whole world, and even to all foreign countries at the fastest speed!

[Shocked, an island of immortals has appeared in China, floating thousands of meters in the air, its size is bigger than the entire Chinese demon capital, the ancient buildings on it are beautiful, is this the residence of immortals?

[The sky island has appeared in China, could there be a terrifying presence that threatens the survival of mankind?]

The story is that the floating island may be an alien spacecraft, and that the human race is on the verge of extinction, and that aliens are about to invade the Earth!]

There are countless news stories, all kinds of news, and no one knows which is true and which is not.

The Chinese side is now in a state of panic, not knowing what to do, and the people in the demon capital are the most panicked.

The dragon lord is also a little headache, these things, their time has long passed, do not know how long, now suddenly appeared, this is not messing with the current social system?

Do they want society to collapse?

In the previous era of high martial arts, the Dragon Gate was able to hold it down, and then the era of the illusionary spiritist came, so this is still a good idea!

But it hadn't taken long for these immortal slaves to pop up again, so they were really a horde of demons, and now even immortal mansions had appeared.

Unfortunately, Lin Hao's phone just ran out of battery and was charging.

Lin Hao said that this matter would be dealt with, but not now, he would find a way, just stabilise the situation of the people.

Immediately afterwards, the immortal residence situated above the demon capital also finally made a statement.

'I am the True Immortal sitting in the seat of Immortal Turbid Clear, my name is Immortal Hai Chao, and this Immortal Palace is henceforth changed to Hai Chao Immortal Palace! I proclaim to the world that believing in me will gain the blessing of the gods, a long life, and a smooth path of cultivation!'

'The Demon Capital is where my God's divine residence is located, so today, all people in the Demon Capital will be granted? I will be blessed with a share of the blessings! A blessing!'

As the words of the sea tide clerk fell, the Immortal Palace emitted a dazzling haze of light, and endless rays of light emanating blessings rained down on the entire Demon Capital!

The cultivators were tainted by these rays, their cultivation rapidly increased, their once unbelievably strong shackles were easily broken through, and their perception of gongfu cultivation also went to a higher level, as for those ordinary people, their body ailments were eliminated.

‘Oh my God, I’ve broken through, I’ve actually broken through, thanks to Immortal Hai Chao!’

‘I, my illness has been cured, I even feel ten years younger, thank you Immortal for having mercy on old man me!’

Such a situation appeared in all corners of the Demon Capital, countless people and cultivators knelt down and worshipped, including many immortal slaves who knelt down and worshipped, this blessing tainted them, making them feel that their entire being was much clearer, those immortal slaves who had once eaten blood food were not so eager to devour blood food at this time, the side effects were alleviated.

Those immortal slaves who had not swallowed the blood food felt the pull of their divinity on the Xuan Yuan Sword had also weakened a lot and was not as terrifying.

Immortals, the sea tide members have become immortals! He had even repaired and controlled the entire Immortal Mansion of Turbidity and Clearness, and looking at the situation, if there was no external damage, this Immortal Mansion would not be able to break down for a thousand years!

Although they could feel it, the light falling on them had indeed benefited them greatly.

But the appearance of such an existence that was above the supreme control of China was not a good thing!

Inside the Sea Tide Immortal Mansion, those immortal slaves did the same, and a few of the strongest immortal slaves walked into the main hall, and after saluting the Sea Tide member on the high seat, they hurriedly said, 'Immortal Emperor Sea Tide, this must not be done, no more Immortal Mansion blessings can be released!'

Chapter 2205

'This immortal mansion is repaired, this is responsible enough to let us go to the next level ah, so that even diluted put down, so that is also a huge loss, not to mention that the blessing of this immortal mansion is already not much, once exhausted, this immortal mansion will also collapse with the emptiness ah.'

The sea tide clerk slammed the table, 'Shut up! These are already useless things to us, higher up the ladder? Do you really become an immortal daddy and let Xuanyuan's sword pierce your heart? Don't you feel that when the Immortal Palace is revealed, the Regulus sword is at the door of our hearts?'

'The only way to re-cast the divine platform is to exchange these useless blessings for the power of supreme faith, don't you know that Chen Bei Xuan's bastards are younger than us, yet they have already gone out with this path!'

The sea tide member was not angry, his aura blending with the entire Immortal Mansion, where he was the supreme ruler!

'Don't forget that we are here to live and thus get rid of the curse and get away with it, the Supreme has long been hopeless with us, that little girl, as well as the two gods that appeared in the demon capital not long ago, are not something we can fight against.'

There was infinite sadness in the hearts of the sea tide members, whether in the days of the Ancient Immortal Court or now, the only thing they could do was to linger on.

They would always be no more than supporting actors, after all, every era had its supreme being, and if they were slightly careless, they would instead not even be able to stay alive!

Since then, the Sea Tide Immortal House has opened its immortal doors widely, recruiting followers and ? er closed love to grasp the West Shandi Lu? The immortal slaves of the Demon Capital, as long as they have not eaten blood, can join the House of the Sea Tide Immortal, but those who have eaten blood, sorry, are rejected!

And the scope of recruitment is limited to the demon capital, the sea tide member knows the situation of other immortal capitals best, each district has the true immortal slave and immortal residence of each district, crossing the border is looking for death!

The demon capital became the beginning under the leadership of the sea tide clerk, but must not become a bird of prey, otherwise the consequences would be unthinkable.

This side, Lin Hao also returned home, just as Lin Hao returned, Lin Ruoshi flew in and instantly jumped into Lin Hao's arms, hanging on to him like a wombat, while also warming up with a small grievance to, 'Daddy, I don't like that immortal uncle anymore, he even wanted to be my godfather, so angry that I beat him up straight away.'

The corners of Lin Hao's mouth twitched, how dare he beat up an immortal slave? His own daughter was awesome!

Lin Ruoshi thought that it was only the person in the dream, naturally I am the master of my dream, I still let you bully me in my dream?

Only Lin Hao realized that it wasn't a dream at all! Lin Hao held Lin Ruo Shi in his arms, Xu Fang Hua and Lin Rui, Lin Yun including Lei Ling, they all came over, looking at Lin Hao with a displeased expression, so many years directly missing, did not know to tell the family, let them worry a lot.

'Where is my grandson-in-law?' Xu Fang Hua didn't see Shen Xiyan, and her frown deepened.

'Grandma, Xiyan she .....

Lin Hao wanted to say something but didn't know whether he should tell them about it or not, just that telling them would make them worry even more.

'What's wrong with my grandson-in-law! Xiao Hao you don't scare me!' Xu Fanghua's heart was in her throat as she saw Lin Hao's hesitant look.

'She's fine, she's gone to the secret realm for retreat, it will take some time before she can come out, now Xiyan's realm and strength is much higher than mine.' Lin Hao smiled and lied, it was better to keep them in the dark.

Hearing Lin Hao say that, they were also relieved, at the same time they also found out something different about Lin Hao, this time when he returned, they couldn't even see through his realm anymore, after all, Lin Hao was already at the realm of a fourth grade Illusionary Spirit Master, and was about to approach the late stage level.

So everyone believed in this statement.

However, everyone was still very worried about Lin Ruoshi's matter, and Lin Hao did not hide this matter from them.

After hearing this, everyone in the living room was dumbfounded!

'This is too shameless, isn't it? That old monster who has lived for thousands and thousands of years is asking a child less than four years old to be a hard worker!' Lin Rui's face was abnormally angry, and Lin Yun and Xu Fanghua's expressions were also gloomy as hell.

Chapter 2206

Lin Ruoshi is the treasure of the whole Lin family, so she is afraid of melting in her mouth and falling in her hands.

Lin Ruoshi was also dumbfounded to learn the truth: 'Am I, am I not dreaming? Why did the fairy uncles lie to me! Aren't they immortals? Are they just more powerful illusionists?'

‘Not immortals, at least not right now, they’re just a bunch of lapdogs who have lived for a thousand years because they’re tainted with divinity.’ Lin Hao stretched his hand, but he no longer had any divinity now, his divine blood had been used up by Wang Lao Er at the source of the River Styx.

‘Little Hao, let me ask you one thing, answer me truthfully!’ Xu Fanghua stared intently at Lin Hao.

Lin Hao thought about it and nodded, although there was no more divinity, but the sword of the gods was still there, he relied on the entire Qing Yun Heavenly Palace’s power, he really wasn’t much of a wimp this? The Chasi Wu Fu Chia Fu Yi Shan? The sea tide member, not to mention even his own daughter can beat him, afraid of a hammer.

‘Good, Xiao Hao, then do you know what our Lin family ancestral motto is?’ Xu Fang Hua’s wrinkled face revealed a profound smile.

Lin Hao froze, he hadn’t heard of any Lin family ancestral motto either, so he awkwardly scratched his head, ‘What is it?’

‘Of course it’s to protect the calf!’ Xu Fang Hua and the others spoke in unison, leaving Lin dumbfounded, this could be listed as an ancestral motto?

Although it’s a bit unreliable, I like this ancestral motto!

If a man does not offend me, I will not offend him, but if he offends me, I will hammer him to death!

‘If you bully our little one, you’ll make him pay! Xiao Hao then, you go take a trip, not to mention that they made such a big noise, but also let the Dragon Sect of China badly manage these illusionary spiritists.’ Xu Fanghua shot straight to the point where she didn’t even eat her meal, not to mention that Lin Hao hadn’t completely finished dealing with the matter in the demon capital.

Lin Hao was also holding his fire, seeing that the old lady had said so, he didn’t hesitate to nod, ‘Fine, I’ll go with Xiao shi.’

‘I’ll go too.’ Lei Ling suddenly burst out from the corner and raised her hand excitedly.

‘You’re going too? They’re a group of Illusionary Spirit Masters who wait until the peak of the fourth and fifth class realm, are you sure?’ Lin Hao, however, was a little hesitant, Lei Ling didn’t have any aura, just an incomparably strong physical body, and was once not a martial powerhouse, yet now he couldn’t become an Illusionary Spirit Master.

Lei Ling beamed, looking a little aggrieved, she had constantly used the Thunder Meteor to frantically refine herself these days, at the moment every cell in her body was filled with thunder power, but it wasn’t like this power was spirit power, and she hadn’t fought against anyone stronger than the fourth grade Illusionary Spirit Master level ah.

If it wasn't for the sudden appearance of those immortal slaves, there would be only a handful of 4th level Illusionary Spirit Masters known in the entire world, so where could she find such an opponent?

Seeing Lei Ling's aggrieved look, Lin Hao couldn't bear it in his heart, and it had indeed been a long time since he had taken Lei Ling to play, Lin Hao looked at Lei Ling and decided to take a step back: 'How about this, if you can make me back off, I'll take you there, if not, then there's nothing I can do, after all, we're there to find a fight, not to eat a seat.'

'Fine!' Lei Ling shook off her fist looking towards Lin Hao pursing her lips and smiling lightly.

The two arrived outside the empty courtyard, Lin Hao's aura around him surged up madly, the spiritual pressure of the middle fourth grade realm fell down with a bang, Xu Fanghua and the others all felt overwhelmed and could not breathe, as if a mountain was pressing down on them, it was hard to move.

'Has Little Hao actually reached this level?' Lin Yun couldn't help but exclaim.

'Brother, be careful!' The hard rock floor shattered in an instant, and Lei Ling swung out with a fist, his body resembling a gargoyle, like a swimming dragon, surrounded by blinding thunder.

A violent sonic boom erupted, breaking the sound barrier in an instant, and the space around the Thunder Spirit was shredded by the terrifying force.

Lin Hao just wanted to reprimand Lei Ling, this girl fighting, fighting, destroying the floor for what, not afraid of grandmother later reprimand ah?

But when he felt the terrifying power of Lei Ling's punch, Lin Hao was also deeply frightened and did not dare to be the least bit slow, all his spiritual energy gathered around him and set up several sword domains around him in succession to resist.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 2207-2208

Chapter 2207

The battle between the two was just an instantaneous one, and it was over before anyone could see it clearly!

A piercing roar rang out, Lin Hao's body shook, his face turned white, and his body exploded back ten metres, the momentum of Lei Ling's punch was like internal energy, mixed with thunder that wreaked havoc in Lin Hao's body, causing him some injuries!

The space around her was crumbling, you could clearly see the lines of colours twisting and pulling together in the void, beautiful but full of terrifying tearing force, but the crumbling space kept healing, Lei Ling was unharmed by the terrifying tearing force of space.

'This is it this is it! It was in my dream that I went inside to play, no, I just somehow went inside this and then I ran into those bad uncles.' Lin Ruoshi was so excited to see that spatial turbulence, it was as if Lin Ruoshi had discovered a new continent, that she was able to enter such a magical place.

‘Spatial barriers!’ Lin Hao was so frightened that he hurriedly laid several spatial barriers around him to counteract the terrifying tearing force of the spatial turbulence.

Lin Yun and the others were also injured by the terrifying tearing force, and this was also the case when the shattered space was healing at an extremely fast rate, but this alone still directly tore apart the spatial barriers Lin Hao had laid down, and even the extreme sword intent contained within the spatial barriers was swallowed up.

‘Grandma are you alright?’ Lin Hao couldn’t be bothered to blame Lei Ling, and went to look after Xu Fang Hua and the others with Lei Ling. Fortunately, they were only lightly injured and not seriously injured, Lin ? Closed the shade service shade ground er ? Hao then breathed a sigh of relief and looked helplessly at Lei Ling.

This little girl is also a pervert, one punch shattered space, although the space of this earth is not as strong as the River God Spirit Realm, but that punch she just made was definitely comparable to the full force of a fifth grade early stage Illusionary Spirit Master’s strike.

Seeing Lin Hao glaring at herself, Lei Ling smiled sarcastically and spat out her tongue, ‘I only discovered this recently, my fist can break all defenses, even the most powerful Illusionary Spirit Masters will have their defenses broken by my fist, but my attack is only this strong, although I can break the defenses of more powerful existences, my attack is not strong enough to hurt people.’

The corners of Lin Hao’s mouth twitched, how could he hear this girl’s meaning in this statement and still not be very satisfied with her own ability ? You’re already perverted enough!

One was really stronger than the other, his own daughter Lin Ruoshi could walk in the void and ignore spatial turbulence.

Although Lei Ling was not an illusionary spirit master, she could break all defenses with her physical strength, and even the terrifying tearing force of spatial turbulence could not help her, and her own daughter-in-law could also finish off Wang Lao Er in the Sea of Blood.

Why did it feel like I was the only one who was a rookie in the end?

‘Alright, you win, let’s go, let’s go to the Demon Capital, the Vermillion Bird and the others should be waiting impatiently too.’ Lin Hao beckoned, Lin Ruoshi and Lei Ling jumped onto the sword of the deity that Lin Hao had conjured up, turning into a bright stream of light and heading straight for the demon capital.

The Vermilion Bird was informed that Lin Hao was coming over, and upon hearing that Lin Hao was actually here to pick a fight, the Vermilion Bird waved his hand and the whole army attacked!

Even the Baiyun Military Region came to join in the fun, with two dozen helicopter gunships speeding in and fifteen fighter jets hovering over the Haichao Immortal Palace.

When Lin Hao was about to reach the sky above the demon capital, he also found this scene, Lin Hao was a bit speechless, what is this?

The sea tide immortal residence is surrounded by spatial turbulence as a protection, not to mention they are close, once close to the consequences are unthinkable, the horrible tearing force of the spatial turbulence, can make the fighter instantly shattered.

Lin Hao even found that there were many long-range strike forces on the ground, with planes, cannons and rockets all assembled. Is this a war?

Chapter 2208

The aura of Lin Hao, Lin Ruoshi and the others' arrival was also noticed by the Sea Tide clerk.

The sea tide clerk ordered all the immortal slaves of the Sea Tide Immortal Mansion to go forward to greet them, while Vermilion Bird led Chen Xuanfeng and the many immortal slaves who had defected to Lin Hao to rush up into the sky, but did not dare to go near the spatial turbulence easily, waiting for Lin Hao's arrival in the distant void.

'Where are you making a scene? Withdraw the army to me, you simply don't understand how terrifying that turbulence is.' Lin Hao's voice rang out in the minds of Vermilion Bird and the others.

Vermilion Bird shrugged helplessly, 'It's none of my business, it's the head of the Baiyun Military Region who had to do this, anyway, according to his words it means that if these people want to fight them, they can't get away, there's no need to panic, it's mainly to give the general a boost of momentum!'

Lin Hao .....

You guys win!

Swoosh!

More than three hundred figures sped from within the Sea Tide Immortal Palace, each figure emitting an amazing aura, the worst of which was at the mid-fourth grade level, the strongest being the Sea Tide member, who? The strongest was Hai Tide member, who? There were already signs of a breakthrough to become a sixth-grade Illusionary Spirit Master.

A group of people with terrifying auras and majestic dao implications, hundreds of them united together to form a powerful aura, all in one.

‘Dad, that’s him, that bad uncle, he tricked me into working for him as hard labour! The one who fixed this big house that was suspended in the air.’ When Lin Ruoshi saw Hai Chao clerk, she immediately pointed at him excitedly and said.

An immortal slave beside Hai Chao clerk also looked horrified, ‘It’s him! How is this possible, that little girl is actually this man’s daughter!’

Hai Chao clerk froze for a moment and busily inquired, ‘Do you know that junior?’

That immortal slave laughed bitterly, 'Of course I know him, he and his daughter-in-law are the very same two immortal dwellers who made the demon capital's immortal slaves jump around not long ago, I never thought that this little girl would be the daughter of these two.'

The sea tide member, however, glanced at Lin Hao with a puzzled face, 'It shouldn't be, I can't sense any divine aura on this person, he's just an ordinary mid fourth grade Illusionary Spirit Master.'

The others also sensed all this, what was going on? This Lin Hao no longer had any divine aura, but no one dared to take it lightly, look at that little girl Lin Ruoshi, does she have divine aura? She could still walk through the void with ease!

Hai Chao clerk arched his hand towards Lin Hao and the others, and didn't put up a show: 'I'm sorry to welcome you here, I'm Hai Chao clerk, the true immortal child of Immortal Turbid Clear, and now I'm the master of the Hai Chao immortal residence, I don't know what you all want this time?'

After saying this, he did not forget to smile at Lin Ruoshi, 'Little Shi, we meet again.'

'Humph! I don't want to meet with you, bad uncle.' Lin Ruoshi angrily hummed and turned her head away, not wanting to pay attention to the sea tide clerk at all.

Lin Hao didn't even say anything as he raised his right hand and pointed at the sea tide clerk before dropping it violently!

Clang!

A shocking sword sound rang out, and Hai Chao clerk and the others looked up at the sky as if they felt something.

‘The sword of a deity! He, he really is an immortal deity, to think that what is inscribed is not an immortal palace deity, but a sword, this .....’ Hai Chao clerk was stunned, although he could not feel the slightest bit of divinity from Lin Hao, but the astounding might on this deity’s sword, only a true deity could achieve such power!

A deity’s might is comparable to that of a supreme divine weapon!

‘No good, form up to protect the House Master!’

‘Damn it, these are the ones looking for trouble, do it, get them!’ Countless immortal slaves were horrified, they didn’t expect the other party to come up and fight without saying a word, that’s not how you play it!

Even if you are an Immortal Sovereign, can you at least show some respect?

Two hundred immortal slaves formed a formation, forming a mixed-element eight-trigram diagram, rotating and slowly rising into the air with the tidekeeper as the centre, trying to stop the fall of the deity’s sword.

The remaining hundred or so immortal slaves charged across towards Lin Hao.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 2209-2210

Chapter 2209

Chen Xuan and Zhao Yuanlong were not willing to be outdone, and likewise had hundreds of immortal slaves who directly met them, and a great battle was about to break out.

But almost at the same time, Lin Hao and Hai Tide stopped their own immortal slaves from getting involved.

The sea tide member even destroyed the mixed element eight trigrams protecting him with one hand, and rose up alone, his divine blood boiling around him, fighting against a deity, daring to take the initiative himself, what a shocking scene, this is a deity, I never thought I would have this day!

The entire Sea Tide Immortal Mansion burst into a dazzling haze of light, and all the potential of the Immortal Mansion was poured into the Sea Tide Master alone. The Sea Tide Master's divine light shone brightly, and the sword of the deity was like the light of the breaking dawn, while the Sea Tide Master was also like a sharp sword that wanted to tear the sky apart.

There was no earth-shattering roar from the two sides, only a silent offsetting and devouring of each other, while the slightest bit of power escaping from the surroundings could tear the void around them!

Lin Hao saw that the sea tide member had actually cancelled out the attack of the deity's sword, and was actually vaguely trying to counterattack, Lin Hao raised an eyebrow: 'Is it the potential of the Immortal Mansion? Speaking as if who doesn't have one!'

'Qing Yun Heavenly Palace, now!'

With a furious shout from Lin Hao, an immortal palace surrounded by haze and majestic in its grandeur slowly appeared in the sky above the capital, surrounded by haze and covered by immortal cranes, a rainbow bridge bridging over to a jade building!

After the sword of the deity fused with the momentum of the Qing Yun Heavenly Palace, the divine light spread out so much that the surrounding immortal slaves were lifted out of the sky by the terrifying momentum, and blood gushed out wildly.

The immortal slaves were all shocked beyond belief: 'How can this be! Has he opened up an immortal palace already? No, that, that's .....

'That is the Qing Yun Heavenly Palace, that son of a bitch Chen Bei Xuan would actually give up such treasures to this kid.' The sea tide member's fierce face was filled with shock.

Could this kid be the person that Chen Bei Xuan and Lin Cang Dao have been looking for for a thousand years? It was surprising that they had handed over such a precious item to him.

The Qing Yun Heavenly Palace was forged from part of the core of the Ancient Immortal Court, and its power was like a celestial dragon breaking the sea, how could it be resisted by the power of an ordinary immortal's residence like his ?

The entire floating immortal palace shuddered violently as dozens of courtyards collapsed, and Hai Chaojun also spat out blood and retreated.

The Sword of the Gods hung high above the Immortal Mansion, and the Immortal slaves of the Immortal Mansion felt like they were now being strangled by death, even more directly than the terror of that Xuan Yuan Sword.

Lin Hao didn't control the Sword of the Gods to continue falling either, and only gave Lei Ling a look.

Lei Ling instantly lit up, his body moved slightly, and at once there was a crackling of bones all over his body, and there was even a surge of electricity around his body, moving in and out incomparably.

The thunder spirit dashed towards the tide, Lin Hao aura dragging the thunder spirit, so that it can maintain the air. It's a bummer that Lei Ling can casually abuse a fourth-grade Illusionary Spirit Master, but she can't fly through the air at all, which is probably her only flaw.

The first time I saw a young girl of only eight or nine years old rushing towards me, although the momentum was strong, the sea tide member could not feel any spirit in the other party? Er Erzai Serve Er Yi Er? This is simply an ordinary girl who has acquired the power of thunder, ah.

The sea tide member frowned and said with dissatisfaction, 'Even if I am an immortal slave, I am still a true immortal slave and a lord in the world today, how dare you use a little girl to insult me?'

'Insulting you? Hehe, so what if I insulted you!' Lei Ling shouted, without any complicated moves, a simple punch was thrown towards the sea tide clerk's face!

It seemed to be a simple punch, but it seemed to have reached the level of simplifying the complicated into the simple, returning to the basics!

Originally, Hai Chiu was not concerned about it, but when Lei Ling's fist broke the sound barrier in an instant and the space around it shattered, Hai Chiu was shocked.

Chapter 2210

Not daring to be slow, the sea tide clerk's raging aura and divinity coalesced into a haze shield to block in front of him.

Ka-ching!

The fist met the shield in front of Hai Tide, and without the slightest hindrance, Lei Ling's fist shattered the shield's defence and ran towards Hai Tide's face with unabated speed.

He was too late to react, the fist was too fast!

There was an ear-splitting roar, and the sea tide clerk took a hard punch to the face, his body burst back rapidly, forming ripple after ripple around the burst back, the terrifying sound of sonic booms pierced his ears, a punch that caused the sea tide clerk to burst back a thousand metres at the terrifying speed of sound before he came to a hard stop.

The sea tide is in shock, his face is green!

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market. Lu Jie Di served to close the er ground? So many perverts exist now!

The self is an immortal deity, the daughter is even a god capable of walking in the void, and even a flesh-body saint who has not been seen in ten thousand years has appeared.

Although she had not yet reached the level of sainthood, as long as she was given the opportunity in time, she would definitely become a saint in the flesh and achieve the supreme immortal deity status.

In between his thoughts, he took several punches from Lei Ling, who didn't care what you were doing, and just punched and kicked him, not giving him a chance to react.

He was so depressed that his fists were so terrifying that they were useless in defence and could easily shatter the void.

He punched the Thunder Spirit, he might have been kicked twice by the Thunder Spirit, and all his punches hit the Thunder Spirit, but nothing happened to the Thunder Spirit, but his fists hurt, so how the hell can he fight?

As for the people watching the battle, whether they were on the sea tide side or on Lin Hao's side, they were all dumbfounded by the scene before them, sure that was an eight or nine year old girl?

It was difficult for them to see the fight between the two sides, only the void that kept breaking and healing, and the ear-piercing sonic booms, as well as the terrifying ripples that escaped all around.

A mid-fourth-ranked immortal slave was accidentally caught in the aftermath of the attack, and his body, except for his head, directly exploded on the spot. If not for his head, and if he hadn't relied on his divine blood to constantly reunite his body, I'm afraid he would have perished on the spot.

'Little Auntie is great, Little Auntie is awesome!' Lin Ruoshi clapped happily, amazed that it wasn't just Lin Hao who was able to see the battle between these two sides lightly, Lin Ruoshi was also able to see it clearly.

Lin Hao's eyelids jumped wildly when he saw how terrifying Lei Ling was under full fire, this girl had reservations when she made her move against him at home, it was really terrifying!

Half an hour later, Lei Ling was exhausted, and only then did both sides stop.

‘Huff, huff .....’ Lei Ling panted heavily, his body dripping with fragrant sweat, his fists were red: ‘But I’m exhausted, this guy is also too hard, hit my fists are swollen.’

The sea pig’s head: ????

The sea tide clerk with a pig’s head on top of him glared angrily at Lei Ling: Little girl doesn’t speak of martial virtue, you can have some face, how dare you sneak up on me, an old man who has gone up to ten thousand years! ‘Hard work.’ Lin Hao stroked Lei Ling’s head and headed towards the Sea Tide Immortal Mansion in the air, Vermilion Bird and Chen Kai actually jumped up to follow the fun.

As they approached the void space, Lin Ruoshi’s small hand pulled and the terrifying spatial turbulence actually automatically retreated towards the two sides, forming a vacuum in front of them, Lin Hao and the others easily crossed the void space and landed in the main hall of the Sea Tide Immortal Mansion.

Seeing this scene, the corners of the immortal slaves’ mouths twitched, this was an extremely important protection measure for the Sea Tide Immortal Mansion, but in front of Lin Hao, it was virtually useless.

‘Hahahaha, old ghost Chen, we’re rich, rich, this thigh is too thick too.’ Zhao Yuanlong just came back to his senses and excitedly hugged Chen Xuanfeng and laughed out loud, that’s how excited he was.
