Chapter 2411

But as an apology, the Dragon House includes everything that Lin Hao can take at will, and in the future, if Lin Hao needs something, he can promise to do a thing for Lin Hao!

The dragon had been living here for many years, and had no intention of going out, so naturally he would not disturb the outside world, and gave a deadly order that from today onwards, anyone who dared to go outside of the dragon clan would die!

Lin Hao was relieved, but at the same time he also secretly admired the other party's pluck, after all this, he was able to put up with it and apologise.

It wasn't without reason that the other party was able to live well from that time until now.

'Old thing, open the door!' Ao Dog said angrily.

Qian Yuan did not say anything and opened the passage between the Qian Yuan Dragon Mansion and the outside world.

Ao Inu turned back to look at Lin Hao, 'Lin Hao, I'm going to leave for a trip, take care of yourself these days.'

‘Go on, go back and ask nicely.’ Lin Hao naturally knew what Ao Dog was leaving for, naturally it was to go back to the Dragon Palace and ask the old Dragon King if the grudge with this Heaven Swallowing Python had really been put down or not!

He couldn’t believe that the Dragon Clan would allow such an existence that marked the shame of the Dragon Clan to survive in the world!

Ao Dog nodded, and with a long whistle left the Qian Yuan Dragon Mansion through the empty door, and swept towards the East Sea at a great speed.

Lin Hao saw that the other party had a sincere attitude, so he didn’t bother anymore, not to mention that if the other party wanted to bother with them, I’m afraid they wouldn’t really be able to leave this place.

‘Since you’ve said that, there’s nothing more for us to do, forget about your Jiao Long clan’s treasure trove, remember your promise and we’ll leave here.’

‘Good, take your time and return the Sea Tide Immortal Palace in a few days.’ Qian Yuan arched his hand and watched them leave.

Lin Ruoshi once again tore open a spatial rift, and the group burrowed into the void, returning to the old Lin family residence.

‘Old ancestor, I don’t understand? Why do we have to do this? What does Chen Bei Xuan’s plan have to do with us? We won’t get any benefit, the other side is so deceitful, why should we put up with it?' Qian Yuan looked at the Heaven Swallowing Python, full of incomprehension.

In the absence of the Swallowing Heavenly Python's main body controlling this doppelganger, this doppelganger was a complete human being with an independent mind.

Qian Yuan did not understand that the Heaven Swallowing Python had woken up not to avenge his clan, but to bow his head and admit his mistake and let them go!

The voice of the Heaven Swallowing Python resounded in Qian Yuan's mind, 'The new Immortal Court is established only to pave the way for departure, when the time comes we will naturally have benefits, it is time for us to leave this place, the human settlement is not suitable for us, and we are tired of this place, that is the benefit!'

'Besides, do you really think you can kill him? A person who is illuminated by the heavenly dao and has great fortune? Love er land love flicker flicker flicker flicker? You want to kill him too? What's the point of killing him? Let the entire Jiaolong clan be buried with them?'

Hearing this, Qian Yuan no longer said anything, he already had a clear answer in his mind.

On the other side, Lin Hao and the others who had returned to the Lin family's old mansion also finally breathed a sigh of relief, which had really scared them a little.

Lin Hao also did not expect that the Jiaolong race was so terrifying in numbers and had such a frightening presence.

The battle was exhausting and everyone went back to sleep and slept until sunrise the next day.

Lin Hao just remembered, he opened a shop ah, no, do a line of love, are up, go open the door to receive customers!

And on the other side of the ancient town street, the street had already exploded.

The whole of Ancient Town Street was besieged with people, it was simply too crowded, a third of these people had already come here last night to queue up.

There were also many who had flown in from thousands of miles away ah, just to try Lin Hao's handiwork, but when they saw this, everyone was dumbfounded, how was this going to work?

Thirty people, and if it was a repeat, they wouldn't even get a turn, would they?

The point is, they had been queuing since last night until noon, but the Inn of No Regrets was not open at all.

There were also a lot of anchors who had come to the event, either to join in the fun, to rub it in, or to really try the food.

Chapter 2412

But nowadays, this situation is hundreds of times hotter than even a hot pot restaurant owned by a celebrity!

‘Haha, no? Has Boss Lin drifted so far? He said he wouldn’t open the restaurant, does he think he’s overworked even with a reception of 30 people a day?’

‘I don’t think so, I think it’s that Boss Lin is not opening for three years, opening to eat for three years, people made enough money yesterday to take their daughter and sister on holiday straight away, right?’

‘Upstairs, are you dreaming? The hundred thousand or so yesterday, even ordinary people are not enough to eat for three years, on this level of consumption now, Lin boss is probably too lazy to open, no way, rich capricious!’

‘capricious or not I do not know, why not open the door I do not guess, but I just want to laugh, hahaha, those poor children who queued for more than ten hours at the scene over in the ancient town street ah, I just want to laugh, no way, happy.’

‘Pfft, upstairs, when you say that, I feel weirdly happy too.’

Although it was basically packed with people, there was nothing to see, just people crowding people, but the various live rooms were still lively and chatting feverishly.

Yesterday Lin Hao is said, hope that people do not disturb their peaceful life, but can not help but still have a lot of curious people over, this is not, most people choose to rational support, even if a very small part of the people rushed over, this ancient town street is completely blocked.

‘Are these melon kids with bags on their brains?’ The patrolman from last night looked at the situation in front of him and really cried and laughed, this crowded up, just to have a meal? Is it that good?

Now this ancient town street can’t even do business normally ah, even more so the jc to alarm, sent a large number of police force to maintain order.

This is already taking up some public resources ah.

‘Old brother, what is the situation in front of this? Why is there such a crowd? The company’s main business is to provide a service. Many people? Is it any star coming on tour?’ Lin Hao and his group happened to come over, and when they saw this scene in front of them, they were also taken aback, what’s wrong with this?

The patrolman heard a voice that was somewhat familiar and as soon as he turned around his eyes lit up, he recognized Ling Yun right away, wasn't this the girl child that he caught last night?

Then the one who spoke was the melon boy.

The inspector looked up at Lin Hao and was about to reprimand him, but when he saw Lin Hao's face, he was frozen, because he was in a hurry last night and it was dark, he didn't see Lin Hao's face clearly. ‘

‘If it wasn't for the timely arrival of your Tianhai Group's search and rescue team and supplies back then, my wife and child would have been completely lost, ah.’ The patrol supervisor was so excited and moved with old tears that he never thought there would be a day when he would see his benefactor in person.

Lin Hao smiled and patted the patrolman's shoulder, ‘Old man, it's alright, it's just a small thing, it's good that your family is well.’

‘How can it be a small matter? It may be a small matter to you, Boss Lin, but it's a big matter to my family.’

Lin Hao could only oblige, and then asked curiously, ‘Old man, what is this all about?’

‘Hey, don’t mention it, I don’t know what’s going on, these kids are gathering here in the middle of the night, they can’t be driven away, they don’t do anything, they just queue up here, it’s giving me a headache, look, the JC is here, nothing can be done, I don’t know what that bastard has done.’ The patrolman said with an indignant look on his face, this is not getting in the way of everyone’s work.

Lin Hao ?

Ahem, this, which .....

Probably probably because of the things that the remorseless inn stirred up.

As expected, some sharp-eyed people had already noticed the situation over here, after all, whether it was Lin Hao’s handsomeness, or Lin Ruoshi’s cuteness, Lei Ling’s heroism, Ling Yun’s flirtatiousness, plus Rui Lin’s big white cat’s fierce eye-catchingness, any one of them, standing over there would be an incomparably obvious presence to provoke people.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 2413-2414

Chapter 2413

‘Holy sh*t, Boss Lin is finally here!’

‘What about? What about that? Let me see!’

‘Oh my god, Boss Lin has finally come to open the door, finally I’ve seen the real face of Xiao Shi’s daughter, oh my god, the little girl is even more wow than in front of the camera!’

‘Ling Yun too? Yi Yi Wu Shan Shan cover er flick? Yeah, quite a wow factor.’

For a while, there was a lot of commotion in the crowd, and that surging tide of people rushed towards Lin Hao like a loss, really scaring him.

This was too scary!

‘Roar!’ The white cat let out a tiger’s roar and the waves of Qi surged wildly, the terrifying aura carried with it the spiritual pressure, which scared all of these people who were about to rush over for a while.

How terrifying!

Is this the real king of all beasts? He is so fierce, so much more powerful than a big cat in a cage!

Rui Lin had temporarily deterred the rioting crowd, but Lin Hao had a headache.

How could this be done?

There were too many people to receive, and if he dared to make an exception for them today, there would be several to a dozen times more guests tomorrow!

Then he'd be exhausted!

Or should ..... run away? Being roared by the white cat, a real tiger, made everyone stunned, not daring to make any move for a moment, looking straight at Lin Hao and his group.

The netizens in the live broadcast room were equally frightened when they saw this scene, this white cat looked cute and lovable, they thought it was the mascot of the remorseless inn, but they didn't expect it to be such a fierce existence.

But people quickly responded that it was probably a summoned object of an illusionary spirit mage, after all, of the three types of illusionary spirit mages, summoning mages can summon their summons out.

After all, there was no such species of tiger found on Earth.

But the focus of the netizens in the live stream was soon skewed.

'Why do I want to laugh so much when I see that terrified look on Boss Lin's face, obviously scared enough by so many people.'

‘Netizen: I didn’t expect the bar to do such a brisk business, did I? Haha, I didn’t expect that either!’

‘Actually I think this is not good, after all, Boss Lin has said before that he just wants to open a small shop to rest for a while to retire, look, where is this retirement ah, it is simply to open a zoo, and Boss Lin emm ..... is the one being watched.’

‘Alas, see Lin boss so poor on the part of, I use my life’s fastest hand speed, and grabbed two tickets to Jinling, Lin boss wait for me!’

The most important thing is that you can’t get away from the monk, Lin Hao sighed, ‘I’ve thought about it, why don’t we just close down?’

‘Don’t, Boss Lin, we haven’t even tasted the delicious food on earth yet!’

‘That’s right, it’s not easy for us to come all the way here.’

Hearing Lin Hao’s words, everyone was anxious, how could this be possible, they just wanted to taste it.

The few people who had eaten the meal yesterday, Lin En, were excited, had they become the last tasters of Lin Hao's greatest hits?

Lin Hao is also a bit out of tricks, he also did not know that yesterday a live broadcast, give to make such a big noise, no wonder now is all the net popularity economy, really is too crazy.

Lin Hao thought about it for half a day and finally came up with a solution, only everyone would have to suffer for a while.

'How about this, you guys give the sorting number and then let my daughter draw it, write your names and phone numbers after the sorting number.'

'Each meal increased to thirty people, but can not repeat the order, eat the noon can not continue to eat in the afternoon, a maximum of ninety people a day, the opening of the next day, did not open the day, then start to draw the next day's serial number, remember, the quota can not be transferred, can not be sold, do you think it is okay? Carry on if you can, I'll go prepare the ingredients to go.' Lin Hao was also quite helpless, just being a chef himself was a bit annoying.

What happened to what had been a leisurely retirement life, suddenly turning into an exhausting wage earner?

When everyone heard this, they all cheered, this was a good idea.

Even the netizens in the live stream agreed, this has increased the number of people and they are not able to repeat their participation, after all, they also found out that this remorseless inn is only one person cooking ah.

‘Haha, it’s exciting to think about it, a hundred billionaire big shot personally cooks for me, whether it’s good or not is not to mention, the face is definitely there!’

‘Once you say it is true, this is Boss Lin ah, I do not know if Boss Lin can carry out online extraction ah, I let all the relatives of the whole family mobilized, a piece of participation, liver up!’

‘Upstairs, just in case your dad wins the lottery and then leaves you to go eat a big meal alone!’

It’s heartbreaking!

Lin Hao made the places non-transferable and non-sellable, in fact, it was for everyone’s own good, so as not to let scalpers take advantage of the opportunity, besides, just one place might be speculated to no end by then, and the celebrity effect was really scary.

The most important thing is that there is no use to have an opinion, not to adopt it, forcing Lin Hao to close the door and leave, what he likes, these people are not able to do anything.

Lei Ling and Lin Ruoshi are responsible for getting these, Lei Ling is responsible for remembering, Lin Ruoshi is responsible for coming to draw, every person who comes over to put their number into the box, no matter how old or young, all want to chat with Lin Ruoshi, no way, the little girl is really too cute ah.

But the patrol couldn't help but urge them on, they couldn't finish it even after dark.

The jc also had to help keep order over there, which was hard work.

Ling Yun was helping Lin Hao with the ingredients in the back kitchen.

‘If it isn't Major General Lin, how long has it been since you've seen him? ..... Ah shucks, you're so approachable and personable, huh? You're like a big star now.’ Suddenly a haunted head poked out from the back kitchen door.

Lin Hao didn't even turn his head back and said in an unpleasant manner, ‘If you want to eat, go and fight your luck yourself, and see if you're the king of Europe or not.’

There was no need to turn around to know who was coming, Nan Hu's daughter, the senior captain of the Vermilion Bird group, Vermilion Bird.

‘I don't want to, I saw your live broadcast, I saw that you must be particularly busy, so I came here especially to help, I'm not afraid that our chief will be exhausted.’ The vermilion bird smiled and walked in, skillfully tying an apron on himself, brushing dishes and washing vegetables, simply not too skilled.

‘Vermilion Bird hello will oh .....’ looking at the active Vermilion Bird Lin Hao is quite speechless, you are really will!

You are simply lazy to spell luck, directly join the staff team, want to rub a staff meal is your real purpose, right? There was no need to compete with them for the pitifully small number of places, the key staff meal was much richer than even the meals they ordered.

Ling Yun also saw what this little girl was thinking, and couldn’t help but give Zhu Qi a thumbs up, ‘Little girl is really smart.’

‘Thank you, sister Ling Yun, it’s easy for me to eat a meal for the chief, I’ve wasted my only chance to take a holiday, you have to treat me well, chief.’ Vermilion Bird winked cutely, still wanting to kill Lin Hao severely.

Lin Hao didn’t bother to pay attention to her.

Lin Hao had finished preparing all the dishes after a lot of effort, and was waiting for the results of the draw outside to come out.

The results of the draw outside had also come out, and Lin Ruoshi announced the results in a milky voice, while they decided whether to assign themselves to have breakfast or lunch or dinner, a total of ninety people, divided into three batches.

But because it was late today, it was almost two o'clock in the afternoon, so dinner was changed to a snack, and poor Lin Hao had to work late.

The final order was also determined, Lin En and sea sheep two people although not drawn, they also barred, they are now specifically for no regrets inn live, get permission they went in, but others wanted to go in was stopped by white tiger, if they all go in, simply can not squeeze, others were also dispersed by jc, so many people crowded here is not a matter, affect the other shops normal business ah.

‘Sze, then uncle go and get busy.’ The captain on duty is a man in his thirties, with a face that is not angry, but when he sees Xiao shi he shows ? Ai Lu Serving Yi Whisk Wu Wu Yi ? s smile of an old father.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 2415-2416

Chapter 2415

‘Uncle jc has worked hard, uncle jc, I’ll ask dad to treat you guys to dinner.’ Lin Ruoshi looked adorably at the captain in front of her.

The people next to her saw this scene and their hearts melted, such a cute little girl, so soft and adorable, they so wanted to be treated like this by the little princess.

Qin Feng smiled and shook his head, ‘Serving the people, it’s not hard, forget about eating, this is enough to keep your father busy, I won’t give your father any trouble, but can uncle hug you?’

‘Uncle hug.’ Lin Ruoshi opened her arms and asked for a hug.

‘Damn, can’t stand it, the old man’s teenage heart.’

‘Hey, the old man’s heart of a teenage girl, I can’t stand it either.’

‘What are all your words .....

The first day of business was the busiest day of the year, and even Ling Yun and Lei Ling had their hands full, and Lin En and Hai Yang were not idle, they put their phones aside and went to help.

The guests ate extraordinarily sweetly, that is called a wolf gobbled up, all the live viewers to cry, Boss Lin cooking is really delicious, this time they believe, absolutely not hype ah.

The key is that with such a large volume, does Boss Lin need hype? No need at all! It was even a bit too much for the customers, okay?

It was just as well that Lin Hao and the others were hungry and cooked a meal for the staff. The lucky Lin En and the sea goat, as well as Zhu Qi who came to dine in, dined as promised, much to the envy of their fans.

‘MAD, just gasp, this is the third time this Sea Sheep and Lin have had a meal cooked by Boss Lin, right! I also want to .....’

‘Shut up upstairs, I want to too!’

‘All right, don’t hide, duet, I know what you want to do, just want to be an errand boy, even if it’s serving tea and sweeping the floor, it doesn’t matter, no matter, I just like to help Boss Lin do the work.’

But it’s not the work that I like, it’s the actual food that I want to eat.

During the meal, the guests were all very friendly and polite and came up to give Lin Hao a toast, one to thank him for cooking such a wonderful meal for them, but also to clink glasses with such a big shot, it was something to be proud of, wasn’t it?

Lin Hao was quite satisfied to see everyone eating happily, although he was a bit tired, but very fulfilled. Lin Hao lay down on the sofa to rest, while Ling Yun and Zhu Qiao went to the back kitchen to help finish painting.

The next time they opened for customers was in two to three hours, so there was still time to rest for a while.

‘Boss Lin, you’re quite tired, aren’t you?’ Lin En came over to talk to Lin Hao with his mobile phone, such a big shot, he had to get closer.

Yesterday's incident let his old man know? I Shan closed Shan dye I Ai zero?
The company's main business is to provide a good service to the customers.

'Isn't that nonsense? How about you try it instead.' Lin Hao rolled his eyes, paralyzed here, can't see it.

'How about chatting with your fans in the live stream? Talk about how to become a hundred billionaire so young?' Lin En asked Lin Hao with a smile.

It was a casual question, but Lin Hao's answer made him laugh and cry.

Hearing Lin En's question, Lin Hao's expression suddenly became very serious, raised his head, took a very mysterious glance at the sky outside, frowned and shook his head, 'It's not quite the right time to say it, is it?'

Lin En had the expression of an old understanding king: 'I understand, I understand, this is a secret that can't be made public, it's fine, let's talk about it in detail when there are fewer people.'

But the guests next to him, who had just had their fill and were still chatting reluctantly, one by one pricked up their ears to listen, there were several small bosses among these people, they also wanted to hear Lin Hao's experience of getting rich.

Since the next batch of guests didn't come, Lin Hao naturally didn't kick anyone out.

All the netizens in the live broadcast room quit: 'Don't, we want to hear it too, maybe the next hundred billionaire will be me.'

Chapter 2416

'That's right, please share ah, I'm not that greedy, let me earn a thousand or eight hundred million is enough, after all, everyone hundred billionaire, that hundred billionaire is also poor pussy ah.'

'You're right upstairs, but I just want to be a poor bastard with a hundred billion dollars, please do fulfill me!'

'Stop bickering, let's see what Boss Lin has to say, seeing how serious he is, he must be doing something amazing!'

Right in the middle of all the expectations, Lin Hao shook his head very seriously and said in a serious manner, 'It's not that I can't say it, it's just that the time is not right, after all, there is still a long time before dark, it's not easy to dream during the day, you wait for the night, it's good to dream at night, you can have everything in your dreams, not to mention hundred billion, you can have anything you want.'

'Pfft! God damn it, it's not easy to dream during the day, you can have whatever you want in your dreams!'

‘I’m still looking at Mr. Lin a ? I’m not sure what I’m talking about. I thought he was going to say something that would make people’s eyes light up, but this is it ? ‘

‘Boss Lin, how do you manage to have a stern face and a serious nonsense ?‘

Lin Hao looked at those crying and laughing expressions of the people around him, and could also imagine the helpless look of the live viewers holding their phones to the screen.

Lin Hao laughed: ‘Just kidding don’t take it seriously, there’s no way to replicate my road you guys, many people’s successes can’t be replicated either, let’s all work hard, after all, hard work doesn’t always lead to success, but there are definitely rewards.’

‘Hoo .....‘ Lin En, who was on the side, sighed in relief and looked grateful, ‘I was scared to death, I was afraid that Boss Lin would pour another bowl of poisonous chicken soup. Especially when I heard Boss Lin say let ‘everyone work hard’, I pinched myself, afraid that Boss Lin’s next sentence would be ‘After all, you don’t know what despair means unless you’ve worked hard.’

Lin Hao looked at Lin En with amusement, ‘I didn’t say that, you said it yourself, it’s nothing to do with me.’

The atmosphere that followed was joyful, as Lin Hao occasionally chatted with the fans in the anchor room, answering questions and solving problems while being friendly and disliking each other for a bit.

The key disliked netizens also frantically brushed rockets to Lin Hao in the live stream, which left Lin Hao a bit confused.

Lin En even said that but all the income during the live broadcast of No Regrets Inn would be given to Lin Hao.

Lin Hao refused, telling Lin En to take it for charity himself, or to invest the money in a project to build the ancient town street to make it better and attract more tourists to come, driving the local economy while improving the surrounding environment.

Lin En decided at once that it would be used to build and repair the ancient town street.

We received three groups of guests today and all of them were exhausted, but all of them had tired but fulfilling smiles on their faces, and Lin En left with them, as well as Vermilion Bird, who only had one day off after all.

Vermilion Bird couldn't bear to leave, although she had dabbled in three meals a day, the key was that she had eaten Lin Hao's cooking, and then eat other so-called delicacies, bah, this is pig food, is this something that a human being can eat?

Taste has been spoiled, it's not that easy to change over.

'Little boy, close early, it's getting late, it's after twelve, the closing time here is twelve, you're overdue.' At the entrance of the No Regrets Inn, it was the same patrolman from last night again, knocking on the door panel and urging Lin Hao to hurry up and close the door with them.

‘Okay uncle, are you hungry? Do you want to come in and eat something?’ Lin Hao greeted the other party warmly.

However, the patrolman waved his hand and left, while the white tiger, who had been lying on his back, stood up all of a sudden and looked at the patrolman with a somewhat wary gaze.

For some reason, his keen senses as a spirit beast felt that there was something not quite right about this man, but he couldn’t say exactly, so the white cat didn’t say anything either.

Lin Hao also ignored the white cat’s unusual behavior, just a little strange: ‘General pedestrian street, one or two o’clock are quite busy, did not expect this ancient town street closing time are so early, well, everyone is also tired all day, pack up a little to go back to rest, just tomorrow do not have to open.’

Chapter 2417

‘Oh yeah, I can have tomorrow off.’ Lin Ruoshi danced with excitement, but at the same time, she also said in a condescending manner, ‘Xiao Shi has to bear a lot of weight that she shouldn’t have to bear at her age, other children are going to school and going to the playground, while I am working, alas, it’s not easy to support the family.’

The crowd burst out laughing, especially this cute little girl who said the latter sentence in an old-fashioned tone that froze the crowd.

After the inspector walked away, a cold female voice rang out from the Bluetooth headset, ‘Qin Fengquai, is everything set up properly?’

Qin Fengzui was the real name of this patrolman, and he had another identity, the Qin family’s immortal slave! Yesterday and today’s chance encounter, as well as the early closure of the market here, were all his doing.

The usual old town? The street is similar to other pedestrian streets, food streets, open at one or two o’clock are quite busy, just Lin Hao just came here to open a shop the second day, simply do not know it.

The actual black light in the hands of Qin Feng rhetoric, wearing the patrolman’s clothes, turned over, a black halo of light, the halo of light wrapped in a mysterious and harsh inscription: ‘has long been ready, just waiting for your order, what exactly should be done? Who should I arrest? This revenge must be avenged.’

‘That gang of long worms unexpectedly suddenly turned against us, how’s it going on your side, Miss, can the Sea Tide Immortal Palace hold?’

It turned out that Lin Hao and the gang had suddenly sneaked in the Qian Yuan Dragon Mansion last night, and even woke up the Jiao Dragon Elder Ancestor Qian Yuan himself, who had given Lin Hao his promise and immediately ordered an attack on the Hai Chao Immortal Palace.

Those betrayed Jiaolong clansmen, who perished by blowing themselves up on the spot, seemed like a night of fireworks in the sky to the people of the demon capital, with all sorts of dazzling and dazzling light erupting, but no sound, and with the shield of the Sea Tide Immortal Palace augmented, the sound of the violent fight inside was not transmitted at all.

So ordinary people could only see the dazzling fireworks, but only illusionists could really feel what kind of fierce battle was going on up there, the Jiao Long clan was attacking like they were desperate for their lives, and the terrifying energy that escaped alarmed countless illusionists.

‘There’s not much of a problem, but there are too many of these long insects, and each one is simply desperate, there’s some trouble, I want to give up on the Sea Tide Immortal Palace, the other side has no intention of entering the game.’ Qin Bingyu sounded a little helpless.

The other side had no intention of leaving Jinling at all, all the plans against the other side were not working, and now the Qian Yuan Dragon Palace had suddenly turned against her, which took her by surprise.

The sea tide clerk was only the one they had deliberately released to seek help from Lin Hao, otherwise, they would have been able to kill him directly halfway, how could they still have the life to reach Jinling alive?

The main thing was that now that the sea tide clerk had the Yin Shui inscription to store the power of faith, he was in no hurry to go back and retrieve it, and after careful thought, he likewise discovered that there was a problem, and that the other side might have set a trap just waiting for them to jump into it.

This, he also cautioned Lin Hao, who naturally understood that the other side was definitely not holding back their farts.

Qin Bingyu also had a headache, the Thunder Spirit was a saintly flesh, under full power, a fist smashing over, even she had a headache, once being close to the body is extremely difficult to deal with, the other party is fast.

Lin Ruoshi is even more tricky, able to tear through the void and run away, and even a formation may not be able to trap her, unless she uses her absolute strength to seal off a space.

Lin Yun, on the other hand, seemed to be better to deal with, but once they provoked Lin Yun, that Qing Shirt would probably go mad, and they could not afford the wrath of Fairy Qing Shirt at the moment.

Lin Hao had the power of the Qing Yun Heavenly Palace, and his realm was ready to reach the fifth level early Illusionary Spirit Master realm, which was also difficult to deal with.

One by one, they were more tricky.

Eventually Qin Bingyu gritted her teeth, 'Target Lin Hao, capture him as much as possible and use him to threaten Chen Beixuan's gang, if not capture his daughter, be careful, you must seal all the space around her and suppress it with absolute strength, otherwise you can't lock her up at all.'

‘Understood, wait for my news, I hope it’s good news.’ Said Qin Feng resigned and flung the black inscription in his hand to the sky.

Chapter 2418

All at once, the whole sky was covered with dark clouds, and all of a sudden it became gloomy, the kind of darkness where you can’t see your fingers.

A dark aura also began to fill the entire ancient town street, and even though the lights of various colours throughout the ancient town street were still on, they were unable to illuminate this darkness.

‘Roar!’ Rui Lin, who noticed that something was wrong, gave a low, angry roar.

‘What’s wrong? What are you roaring about?’ Lin Hao kicked Rui Lin and stretched out, ‘Finally, we can rest, let’s go home and sleep.’

But Lin Hao froze, no one responded to him after he said that, and when he turned around, Lin Hao was dumbfounded.

Rui Lin and Lin Ruo Shi were all frozen in place and remained in their original positions, their expressions and expressions were the same, as if they had been frozen in place for a moment.

Lin Hao was so shocked that he quickly went over and tried to shake Rui Lin, but his hand couldn't touch him at all, it passed through Rui Lin's body as if it was passing through the air, nothing was touched, and Rui Lin's body silently dissipated and collapsed.

Lin Hao's face was horrified, what kind of tactic was this? It had silently isolated them?

'Damn it, who the hell is it!' Just now, Rui Lin must have sensed danger before he gave a low roar, but in just a moment's time, they had all been struck.

Lin Hao also realized at this time that the entire street of the ancient town was filled with a dense black fog, the black fog shrouded and condensed, the light could hardly even penetrate, the entire ancient town street became eerily quiet, the darkness was shadowed as if there was some kind of monster lurking.

The sky was also completely obscured by darkness.

Apart from Lin Hao, the others also encountered the same situation, they were still at the entrance of the Remorseless Inn, but everyone else had dissipated except themselves, and no matter how sudden they were, no one responded.

Rui Lin looked around with a low roar, already in battle form, his body fried and ready to explode, the word king on his forehead slowly appearing.

Lei Ling's expression was grave, and without any hesitation, he dashed out, his flesh breaking the sound barrier, and blasted his fist into the space around him, making an indiscriminate attack.

But it didn't have the slightest effect, the surrounding area was empty, with no one else but her.

'Daddy, Daddy where are you? Auntie Ling Yun! Little Auntie Ling'er! Big white cat, where are you guys? Don't leave Xiao shi alone.' Lin Ruoshi was terrified, she was all alone here, no one was visible around her, and it was terribly quiet, so anyone would be scared in such a bizarre situation, let alone Lin Ruoshi who was a little girl.

The only sound that came back to her was a low roar, a violent soul fluctuation kept coming, and out of the black fog, a half-demonized monster crawling with both hands and feet rushed out, these monsters emitted violent soul fluctuation, and bloodthirsty hissing came out of their mouths.

'Daddy, come and save Xiao shi, these monsters are so scary.' Lin Ruoshi was so scared that the aura in her body began to surge up. Her hands were flooded with spatial fluctuations, a spatial inscription surrounded them, and Lin Ruoshi stretched out her small hands to tear the space and escape by drilling into the spatial rift.

However, Lin Ruoshi found that she was unable to tear the space at all, as if this aspect of heaven and earth was directly imprisoned by some powerful force.

It was a formation!

And it was a very powerful formation master!

By this time, the half-demon monsters were already hissing and lunging towards Lin Ruoshi. Lin Ruoshi was so shocked that she shrieked, and her hands kept throwing out the inscriptions in her hands.

From the thunder meteor air? Pao Wu Jie Di Jie Ai Wu? The thunder meteor was pulled out of the room, her summoned beast big bear was not there, unable to tear space to use spatial turbulence as a weapon, the equivalent is directly ruined half, combat power plummeted.

The panicked Lin Ruoshi could still counterattack, using the knowledge of formations handed over to her by Lin Hao, using the Thunder Meteor as the cornerstone of a formation, setting up a lightning inducing formation while constantly dodging to escape.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 2419-2420

Chapter 2419

Boom!

Ka-ching!

An intimidating silver lightning exploded, densely splitting at those half-demonized monsters, the thunder was most restraining to these evil creatures, but these half-demonized monsters seemed to be not low in realm, although they were struck by the silver lightning, they still pounced on Lin Ruoshi bravely.

And although the thunderbolt was fierce, it was unable to cut through the dense black fog.

Lin Ruoshi could only keep moving and dodging, keep setting up formations, and even throw the thunder meteor like a grenade, infusing it with spiritual energy and detonating it, exploding the sky with silver light.

As the battle continued, there were more and more half-demon monsters, and the circle around Lin Ruoshi became smaller and smaller, leaving Lin Ruoshi even less room to move around.

Lin Hao's side also saw these half-demon monsters, obviously all of them were in the same space, but completely different encounters, they couldn't feel each other at all, much less influence each other, as if they were separated from each other by formations in several parallel hours and spaces. The reason why I say small is that the area covered is only one third of the area of the ancient town street.

As far as Rui Lin, Ling Yun and Lei Ling were not attacked, they barged around in this blocked area, but it was like a ghost hitting a wall, they could not get out at all.

It seemed that although there were monsters, they were all set to target Lin Hao and Lin Ruoshi.

Ling Yun's brow furrowed after she had just wandered around and found herself back in the same place: a demonic illusion formation, and the person who had set it up was at a very low level! At least a seventh grade powerhouse!

'Not good!' Ling Yun turned pale, this was a problem, she always felt that something was missing from this demon illusion formation, a demon was missing!

Since she hadn't encountered any demons, didn't that mean that all those demons had gone for Lin Hao and the others!

Ling Yun's body glowed with pink light as she rose up into the sky, a peach blossom swirling up rapidly with her as the centre, and on each peach blossom petal, there were inscriptions flashing.

Ling Yun, who had gone all the way to the sky, was shocked to find herself back in the same place, back and forth? Wu Wu Fu Pao covered the ground and closed it? The sky is a place where you can go, or you can go upwards and reach a certain point and still return to the same place!

The range of the formation is limited, but in the hands of a highly skilled illusionary formation master, the limited space will also be developed by them into an infinite space, and no matter how you go around, you will always return to the same place!

A rain of flowers in the sky!

The peach petals that surrounded Ling Yun's surroundings exploded, spreading to every corner of the entire ancient town street, followed by a rain of flowers that fell, attacking and destroying indiscriminately, and her powerful spirit pressure of the late sixth rank surged up madly.

But the end result was that it did not have the slightest effect on any of the surrounding buildings, not even the reality of the ancient town street.

Only then did Ling Yun truly realise the seriousness of the problem, the illusionary spirit formation master targeting them was too powerful.

With the space around her locked up, there was no way for her to contact the outside world, let alone communicate with her sister.

Upstairs in the Qinhuai Golden Tower pavilion, Qing Shou also couldn't help but frown, her own connection with her sister had been cut off by an external force!

'Is something wrong?' Qing Shou slowly stood up and looked towards the outside of the pavilion, as if her gaze had penetrated through space and looked directly at everything within the entire Jinling land, knowing everything about the wind and grass in this area of Jinling like the back of her hand.

Almost instantly, Qing Shou discovered the problem, that there was something unusual about the ancient town street, and also quickly discovered that Qin Feng Resign was up to no good: 'Heh, not bad for a formation master, but messing around under my Qing Shou's nose, tired of living, are you!'

Buzz!

A rainbow bridge suddenly framed the sky above the Golden Tower, a huge dragon head appeared on top of the rainbow bridge, surprisingly it was the Ao Feng Dragon King!

‘Fairy Green Shirt, you should stay here, how about letting the young people settle their affairs.’ Ao Feng Dragon King spoke in a jarring voice, and immediately afterwards, the space around him began to gradually freeze, as if he wanted to trap Qing Shirt directly here.

‘Ao Feng! What do you mean! You are not in cahoots with those assholes!’ Qing Shirt’s face sank, his sleeves danced, his long hair fluttered, and with a wave of his hand, the ancient zither fell into Qing Shirt’s hand, and the battle of the gods was about to begin.

Chapter 2420

‘Do you not know in your hearts whether you are in cahoots or not? My dragon tribe has never had any goodwill with the immortal court gods, and you have joined hands with my son to wreak havoc on my dragon tribe’s ancestral land, destroying the foundations of my dragon tribe, taking treasures but not doing anything about it, how should this matter be counted!’ Ao Feng’s voice was full of anger.

Chen Bei Xuan had promised that as long as Lin Hao and the others entered the Dragon Clan’s ancestral land? Fuzzy Ai’er Fuzzy Chiai Land? Then he could open their ban, and what happened?

He took those three divine tattoos and ran away, not even approaching that Dragon Clan Ancestral Land's first mountain, and even leaving the troops of the three forces in it, constantly consuming the power of those demonic beasts in the ancestral land.

These dragon kings knew it but could do nothing about it. Ao Feng was not stupid either, Chen Bei Xuan and the others had been calculating the dragon race from the beginning to the end and had no intention of letting them leave the blockaded dragon palace.

Fairy Qing Shirt was also slightly dissatisfied with what Chen Bei Xuan had done, but she did not think that Chen Bei Xuan had done anything wrong: 'The Dragon Clan is now very powerful, if we let you out now, you know better than me what the consequences will be.'

'Clear, my ass, we just want to leave this humiliating cage and go back to our ancestral land, we never intended to get involved in your shit from the beginning.' Ao Feng retorted with great anger, but in reality, the only one who knew what he really thought was Ao Feng himself.

Qing Shirt laughed lightly and did not continue to speak, but sat down, stroking the strings of his zither and playing it seriously. Qing Shirt scoffed a little at Ao Feng's words, so what if what he said was true? The dragon clan's strength was there now, even if they really wouldn't do so, then no one would dare to let them out easily, otherwise the consequences would be beyond anyone's control.

Although Chen Beixuan was a bit of a jerk, he believed that after the deed was done, he would lift the ban as promised, so Qing Shirt didn't bother to argue.

However, Ao Feng had even opened the divine path and arrived on a rainbow bridge, so Qing Shirt was unable to break the ancient town street's formation, but Qing Shirt believed that Lin Hao would be able to solve the dilemma at hand.

Even a small early Seventh Realm Illusionary Spirit Formation Master could not resist, let alone the great battle that would follow.

Over on Ancient Town Street, Lin Hao was already wielding the Sword of the Gods, mingling with dozens and hundreds of half-demon monstrous creatures, sword shadows covering the surroundings.

But it was as if these monsters could not be killed at all, defying pain and death, pouncing fiercely and frantically, and an endless amount of black mist escaped from their wounds as they were stabbed.

Five metres away from Lin Hao's perimeter, it was completely covered in black fog, and it was impossible to see what was going on around him, as these monsters continued to rush over, hidden by the black fog.

These half-demonised monsters, the more severely injured they were, the more ferocious they became, letting out a hiss that stung his soul, even his gods were affected by it, and these black fogs were constantly devouring his soul and contaminating his soul breath!

Lin Hao pointed his sword at the sky, and the thousand-foot sword light shot up to the sky, but it simply could not tear through this dense black fog, and the same was true when he waved his sword at the side.

The spiritual energy in Lin Hao's body was also rapidly depleting, and Lin Hao found that there was no way for him to borrow the momentum of the Qing Yun Heavenly Palace, and his connection with the outside world was completely disconnected.

What was worse, these half-demonised monsters, Lin Hao found after constantly attacking, these guys could not be beaten to death, and the more severely he was injured, the more his body became deflated, eventually almost forming a state of emptiness, the attacks were no longer effective, while these monsters could just rip into his divine soul!

Lin Hao's face was complicated and anxious, if he was in such danger here, wouldn't the others be in an even more difficult situation? If they couldn't break the formation open, they would be completely devoured by this life-threatening formation!

'This old loach!'

Outside the Underworld, Chen Beixuan cursed, apparently having noticed Ao Feng's actions, and couldn't help but curse, 'He's really not afraid of death, how dare he open the Divine Dao up to the Divine Land!'

'I guess he's pissed off enough, don't mind him.' Lin Cangdou shook his head, you have the nerve to say that after what you have done to others, if they hadn't been unable to find you, otherwise they would probably have beaten you up.
