

Super Son-in-law Chapter 2521-2530

Chapter 2521

Swish!

Ten thousand swords fell, and the entire camp was instantly surrounded in it, forming the Ten Thousand Sword God Punishing Formation, a formation that Lin Cang Dao had prepared for them long ago!

At this time, Lin Cang Dao also slowly stood up and looked at them with a cold smile, 'It's fine to withdraw, but don't cause trouble for us, otherwise, the Ten Thousand Swords God Punishing Formation, even if it doesn't kill you, it can still nullify most of your doppelgangers, if you dare to fight for your doppelgangers to be seriously injured, then you will break through the formation hard!'

'This is our original daddy, our original daddy! Chen Bei Xuan can't understand human words, you can't understand human words either can you?'

'Have you ever thought about the consequences of doing this, of treating your allies this way?' Both Ai Weier and the Crusader Sect Leader's faces were completely gloomy.

However, Chen Bei Xuan and Lin Cang Dao only sneered and directly dashed away, just as it happened, this Ten Thousand Swords Great Formation happened to trap all the people from these two camps, while the people from the Chinese side of the camp, including the troops from the Naive Bridge, had all avoided this area long ago. Obviously, this was all in Chen Beixuan's plan!

Soon, Avril and the Crusader Godfather also realised what the problem was and became furious: ‘Chen Beixuan, you son of a bitch, you must die a good death! Don’t let us out! Or you’ll die here with a grudge!’

‘We are trapped here, but you will never have peace in China! The Crusaders will crush everything!’

All around them were angels and crusaders, all trapped, and within a radius of hundreds of feet, they were surrounded by dense swords, each of which released an extremely terrifying aura, so they could not break through, and even if they did, they would suffer terrifying injuries that would not be worth the loss.

Chen Bei Xuan and the others were not wrong in deducing that this was indeed their doppelganger, the original had not come at all, otherwise how could they accurately dispatch the angels and crusaders.

‘A bunch of mad dogs, let’s wait until we can get out.’ Chen Bei Xuan snorted coldly, not taking the other party’s threat to heart in the slightest.

It was Lin Cangdou who was very surprised, ‘How did you know that they were not their original selves coming, I didn’t even notice the difference, could it be that they are already so powerful, with such a terrifying realm of doppelgangers, then wouldn’t their original selves be heaven defying?’

Chen Bei Xuan laughed coldly after hearing this, 'They exchanged their original and their doppelgangers, using secret techniques to swap the strength of their original and their doppelgangers, while their doppelganger's power would return to their original even if they died here.'

'Only if they do so, they will suffer a great loss in the process of power transmission, and their original strength will plummet relatively, but their original doppelganger not coming is their biggest line of insurance, otherwise they dare to move the Heavenly Sea with such fanfare and cooperate with that old loach?'

'Indeed, the hearts of those who play psychological tactics are dirty, to be honest, playing this piece of intrigue, so far, I really haven't found anyone who can play better than you.' Lin Cang Dou shook his head helplessly, he indeed did not find this out, and it was only under Chen Bei Xuan's reminder that they suddenly did so, since they knew that there was a high probability that they would mess things up, then they would not give them the chance to mess things up, and lock them all up first.

The actual fact is that you will not be able to help, and you will not be able to give them any trouble. The first thing you need to do is to shut the door.

'But, in this way, I'm afraid that Lin Hao kid's side will have a hard time.'

This time, their side was not much of a problem, after all, they were just pulling them on board and holding them back from the beginning, but the other side did not come, and there were still a large number of experts still inside their base camp, which was not a good thing.

I'm afraid that Lin Hao's side wouldn't be able to cope with it, and that was never a good thing.

'What's so bad about that brat? The brat is taking it easy now, he's having a much better time than us, don't worry about him, he's tough, he can't die.' Chen Bei Xuan laughed and scolded, clearly not worrying about Lin Hao's side in the slightest.

Not to mention not having to worry about anything.

Qing Shirt had also been hiding his cards, waiting for the last moment to fling them together.

Seeing Chen Bei Xuan's confident look, Lin Cang Dou no longer said anything, since Chen Bei Xuan was not worried, there was no need for him to worry about the situation over there either, let's take care of the current situation.

Chapter 2522

Just as the two were chatting, the Queen Mother withdrew from the front? Xiwu Yi Yi Fuyi Pao Yi? came and found Chen Beixuan, equally worried about the situation on Lin Hao's side.

The two sides of the battlefield, holding each other in check, neither side must fail, and once they did, all of them would have to play along.

Only after Chen Bei Xuan's repeated assurances did Meng leave.

In the deepest part of the underworld palace, the Earth Store, dressed in a tattered robe, reverently folded his hands, holding a rosary in his hand, and knelt respectfully in front of the case, bowing three times and nine times with the utmost devotion, and kneeling towards the offering table as he had done for ten thousand years.

But the table was empty, and there was nothing there!

Under normal circumstances, the table would be either a statue of a deity or a place in line, but there was nothing on it, and he had been bowing to this empty table for ten thousand years!

It was as if there was nothing above Buddha, but he still wanted to create an existence beyond Buddha, as if he always felt that there was a supreme being above the supreme, and that there was a more powerful existence above the supreme.

Yet he had pursued it for ten thousand years and still could not get an answer.

After three obeisances, Jizo placed a clump of filthy clay on the case, dirty and taking on an irregular shape.

What he wanted to do, and no one knew.

Perhaps he had suddenly figured out that he wanted to make an idol for worship with his own hands is not known.

‘Earth Store Bodhisattva, the King of the Wheel of Fortune requests an audience.’

Outside resounded the voice of one of the Ten Halls of Hell, the King of the Wheel of Fortune.

‘Come in.’ The Earth Store turned around and sat on a futon with a mask covering his entire face, which in turn was always a warm, smiling face.

Soon a majestic man walked in, dressed in a purple coiled dragon robe, a man of supreme status within the Underworld, second only to Earth Store, but the Wheel King bowed to Earth Store with the utmost respect, ‘Bodhisattva, there has been an internal strife in that group outside the Underworld.’

‘As expected, Chen Bei Xuan’s group, from the very beginning, had no intention of relying on the power of extra-terrestrial practitioners against us, what they really relied on was themselves and the army of the five tribes belonging to the Naihe Bridge.’

Geocache laughed lightly and shook his head, he had predicted this: ‘The reason why these extra-territorial practitioners are being dragged into this is just to keep these people in check so that they don’t cause trouble for their so-called heavenly destiny, but how is this possible. If they are not from within our clan, their hearts will be different.’

‘So do we take the opportunity to do something about it? Kill them all in one fell swoop?’ The Wheel King suggested.

But he was directly rejected by the Earth Store, ‘No need, just stall them, this is not the main battlefield, the main battlefield is on earth.’

‘You continue to send more men, you must find a way to cross the boundary between life and death and assist the Moon Wheel’s darkness descent plan, and do not do it within China, but close in on the divine state with an encircling trend, when the extraterrestrial realm turns into an endless darkness, that darkness will naturally slowly devour the whole divine state, from then on, the Moon Wheel will only be a dowry for us, and the master of the underworld on earth will only be you.’

‘Yes, Bodhisattva, I will immediately go and make arrangements.’ The King of the Wheel of Fortune had not realised that the ambitions of the Earthly Sovereign were so great, that this time the goal was no longer just the land of the gods, but the whole world, to assimilate it completely into the world of the dead!

After all, it is difficult to make an entire world free of death, but it is relatively easier to plunge the entire world into death!

And what would be the difference between a world after death and eternal life? But reincarnation would also come to a complete halt.

After the Wheel King left, the Earth Store once again folded its hands and faced west: ‘Amitabha, Buddha, I am one step closer to my goal

Under the arrangement of the Wheel King, a large number of stowaways from the underworld began to flock towards earth in different ways, regardless of the consequences of sacrifice, while the messengers of believers who were already on earth, i.e. the errant officials of the underworld, began to continuously preach the belief that after death is eternal life, and like a plague began to spread wildly beyond the land of China.

They proclaimed that there would be no more suffering in the world after death, that there would be no need to run around for a car and house, let alone worry about the distribution of spouses, that there would be no entry into reincarnation, let alone fall into it, or that it was the root of everything, and that death alone was eternal liberation (meow, I almost believed it.)

Super Son-in-law Chapter 2523-2524

Chapter 2523

Not to say that countless people really do believe these words, and the horror is not the brainwashing of these people, the horror is that people are self-cheating, imagining how wonderful and easy the world of the dead is.

Under the immense pressure of today's society, even without the compulsion of these people, countless people give up their lives lightly every day, and when they are compelled to do so, the death toll begins to soar, while all sorts of demons and spirits begin to spring up and wreak havoc on the world.

But those who are living lightly never know!

Death is not the relief from all suffering, but the beginning of even more suffering!

It is the beginning of even more misery! They will be greeted by suffering even more painful than living!

But by the time they find out, everything? The time to find out? It was all too late, and there was no turning back.

What was happening in the surrounding countries, Lin Hao would naturally not know, but it had also attracted the attention of the top echelons of China, who had begun to dispatch personnel to investigate the specifics, after all, countries were reporting the sudden appearance of many evil organizations, claiming that death was liberation, and moreover the beginning of eternal life! This has led to a sharp rise in the accidental death rate, an active death rate that has reached an unbearable level, and a very complex age distribution that knows almost no bounds!

It does not matter whether it is the young, the elderly or children, it all appears this way.

All countries were intervening to investigate, but they could not get any results, and even the strongest people sent out were all disposed of, none of them were able to return alive at all.

Lin Hao was about to open the door when he received a call from the Dragon Master at the same time, and the sea tide clerk also came over to Lin Hao, who had just returned from Teg.

‘That Dragon Master, wait a moment ah, I’m handling something here, wait a moment.’ Lin Hao hung up on the Dragon Master straight away.

‘What can you have going on there? It’s not opening a shop, is it? You’re not short of money, do you have to? Hello? Hello? Holy shit, this kid really hung up on me.’ The dragon master was depressed, what kind of business could he have on his side, he was a big salty fish every day, only when he came out of the sky sea before, he killed the invading army of strong illusion spirit masters.

The next is basically idle, rest day to open a day shop, the key you that is to open a shop, right, a day to receive ninety people times, you are really going to retire is it?

In fact, the dragon master does not know, Lin Hao recently this period of time in addition to open shop, but really not a day of leisure, ah, simply a group of busy, there is no rest time, really a little not pick blind.

‘Tell me, what’s going on.’ Lin Hao hung up the dragon master and looked at the sea tide clerk, even the sea tide clerk was injured, but it was a coincidence that allowed him to be blessed by chance, and he was vaguely about to break through to the seventh grade illusion spiritist realm.

The sea tide clerk informed Lin Hao in detail that Tege was basically picking up blindness, spirits and demons were rampaging, and people were dying village by village, or even a whole city by whole city.

Confirmed beyond doubt, that is the breeding ground for the Lord of the Soul Eaters, the cultivation site.

The countries around China have also been compelled to live lightly in the world one after another, and there are many powerful people behind the manipulation, with local gangs and even certain departments being directly manipulated.

The people behind the manipulation are not low in strength, and there are not a few strong people of the seventh grade.

After the sea tide staff risked their lives to check, they discovered to their horror that the Hades was behind the manipulation, and that the manipulator behind almost all the cities behind these countries, the slightly larger ones, was at least a red-belt judge, i.e. at least a seventh-grade early stage illusionist!

The strongest was already a Purple-belt Magistrate, which was a terrifying level of late eighth grade.

‘Holy sh*t, that old baldy has started to play this game too? Trying to surround the city in the countryside?’ Lin Hao was incomparably shocked after hearing this, what about this farce.

Is he trying to plunge all the countries around China into an infinite panic of death, and then start encircling China constantly?

This thing called fear was contagious, especially since they had described death as being too good to be true.

Chapter 2524

‘Hard work, Ling Yun help him heal, I’ll go and pay for the trip with Lord Long.’ Lin Hao patted the sea tide clerk’s shoulder with relief. Asking for a business trip fee ?

The Hai Chao clerk who had just returned was confused for a moment, what kind of travel expenses are you asking Dragon Master for ?

However, Hai Chao’s reaction was quick, it seemed that before he talked to himself just now, the Dragon Master had called, and Lin Hao had hung up in a hurry without saying a word.

I’m afraid that the Dragon Master was also looking for Lin Hao because of this matter.

The sea tide clerk laughed, ‘That, Lord Palace Master, then, is my business trip expenses this time, are you going to reimburse me ? It doesn’t need to be much, just let me stay here for a few more days and have a few more meals.’

Lin Hao looked at the sea tide clerk with no good humour, ‘Thinking quite beautifully, curing the rush ? The ground service Wu dye love west picketing whisk ? You want to eat yourself, you can bring a little bit of spirit beast meat back, but you don’t want to dawdle with food and drink, you’d better not think about it.’

The sea tide member shrugged his shoulders, quite helpless, this is the difference in treatment, really different people, treatment is different ah.

After Ling Yun helped Hai Tide member heal his injuries, he didn't stay much longer and left in a hurry.

From all indications, the other side wanted to target China, and the demon capital bordered the outside city, so I'm afraid it would also be the first to bear the brunt of the situation.

Lin Hao immediately took action, Ling Yun and Lin Ruoshi teamed up, Lin Hao and Lei Ling teamed up, and started to take back all the immortal mansions on the fringes of China first, or just break them up and let the other immortal mansions send someone to take over!

Right now, Lin Hao didn't have the time to be so nosy with them, the Immortal Houses on the fringes of China had to be completely under control, to stop the other side from messing up at critical moments and causing inevitable losses.

The two teams moved extremely quickly, and in just one day and one night, twenty-three immortal mansions were collected, adding to the original six, a total of twenty-nine immortal mansions were under the control of the Qing Yun Heavenly Palace, which was strictly guarded, and a large number of immortal slaves were dispatched to descend to earth to deal with emergency situations in conjunction with the Dragon Gate Four Directions.

It was supposed to be open for business, but the doors of the Remorseless Inn were closed and it was soon discovered that a notice had been posted outside the Remorseless Inn, suspending business and opening at a time to be determined.

Nan Ge and Lin En also made an announcement on the live stream at the same time that they could not be informed due to special reasons, but the Remorseless Inn was to suspend its closure, while the lucky viewer draw was also suspended.

The dragon master, however, was frantic. After Lin Hao hung up the phone, no matter how he called Lin Hao, he could never get Lin Hao's number.

Not answering the phone ?

He didn't know what had happened on Lin Hao's side either.

It was not until early the next morning that the Dragon Gate town guards sent word to the Dragon Master that all the immortal houses in the areas bordering China and other countries had dispatched large numbers of immortal slaves to assist the Dragon Gate's four-sided town guards to keep their side safe, and at the same time, they had to temporarily close all customs to prevent people with an agenda from breaking in and making a big deal about death being the end of suffering.

Only then did it dawn on the Dragon Master, shit, this was something Lin Hao had done, after all, he was aware of the fact that Lin Hao was the Lord of the Qing Yun Heavenly Palace, so he thought that the other party should already know about this, the reason why he hung up the phone in a hurry was to act immediately.

Near noon, the Dragon Lord received an unfamiliar call, and although it was an unfamiliar call, the Dragon Lord still answered it, because it was his private number, and even more so, it was a satellite encrypted call, so it was impossible for anyone who wasn't an acquaintance to call in.

'Hello, who is it.'

'Me! Lin Hao, call the money!'

Dragon Master was confused when he heard Lin Hao's voice, especially when he heard Lin Hao's words, he was even more confused and couldn't help but laughingly curse, 'A farting call for money, why should I call you for money? Wasn't it you who took the initiative to solicit this matter, but it has nothing to do with me, I didn't ask you to handle it.'

Nonsense, Lin Hao had no shortage of money, it felt like this guy was purely amusing himself.

'This thing is indeed my spontaneous action up, don't want money, but I have to go abroad for business ah, definitely need to hit the money ah, send me the relevant documents and money ah, otherwise I'm not bothered with this crap.' Lin Hao didn't say anything nonsense and told the Dragon Master the seriousness of the current situation.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 2525-2526

Chapter 2525

The Dragon Master was scared to death after hearing this. He had originally wanted the Dragon Sect to send a force to aid the surrounding countries, but he had never thought that this was a huge conspiracy against China in the first place!

No wonder Lin Hao was so solemn that he had the immortal houses and immortal slaves in the surrounding areas under his control in one day and one night.

The masterminds behind this are all seventh-grade illusionary spirit masters, and even eighth-grade illusionary spirit masters are not few and far between.

Not to mention the seventh-ranked Illusionary Spirit Masters, a single sixth-ranked Illusionary Spirit Master could wipe out the entire Dragon Sect!

Because of this, the Dragon Master looked more and more worried about Lin Hao's safety: 'Lin Hao, this is too risky, it would be better to play safe and defend, right? It's fine within China, but once we step out of the country, many things will be out of your control and I'm afraid that even if assistance arrives, it won't be able to arrive in time.'

'He's right.' The Qing Shirt Fairy's clear cold voice rang out, then the Qing Shirt Fairy stepped out, 'The Western Order and the Angelic Order are also becoming more and more restless, they will not let go of this opportunity to fall on their sword, therefore, I cannot leave the land of Divine China, you can take all the others with you, even the Thirteen Golden Hairpin can be handed over to you for dispatch, all of them are above the early 7th level realm.'

'Are they pretty?'

'Cut the poor talk, I'm not joking with you.' Qing Shie glared angrily at Lin Hao, surprisingly trying to change the subject.

‘I know, it’s fine, they’re staying, with Xiao Shi around, even if we’re not defeated, we can still pull out safely, don’t worry about that.’ Lin Hao rejected Qing Shirt Fairy’s good intentions, thus continuing to speak to the Dragon Master, ‘Cut the crap ah, hurry up and get the relevant things ready, the most important thing is to fight for the money, do you understand?’

‘You brat, prepare it for you immediately.’ The Dragon Master was also giving a laugh, but he had heard the conversation between the two just now, and knew that Lin Hao still had someone high up beside him, and was in control of a strong squad of thirteen seventh grade Illusionary Spirit Masters.

There should not be much of a problem in China, and since Lin Hao was so confident, he should also have his own ideas.

Although Lin Hao was not very decent in most cases, Lin Hao was still very reliable when it came to decent things.

While the Dragon Master started making arrangements immediately, Lin Hao asked Lei Ling and the girls to pack up and prepare to go on a trip abroad, a publicly funded trip.

However, when he looked for Ling Yun, he found that Ling Yun was nowhere to be found.

Ling Yun had actually been called to the Qinhuai River by Qing Shirt.

‘Sister, what are you calling me here for?’ Ling Yun was a little surprised, ‘Lin Hao and the others are already packing up, so I have to hurry up and pack up too.’

‘Little sister, don’t go this time, I’ll send two of my 13 Golden Hairpin guards to accompany him, so you can stay and help sister stabilise the situation in China.’ Fairy Qing Shirt spoke slowly, her tone slightly different from usual.

Ling Yun couldn’t help but frown, what was wrong with her sister? It felt a bit strange today, and why couldn’t she talk about it at home and had to come here to talk to herself.

But Ling Yun still shook her head, ‘Forget it sister, it’s better to let the thirteen hairpin sisters stay behind to assist you, I can’t help much here, I still want to go and stay with Lin Hao, and I haven’t left the divine land yet, I also want to see the customs and people outside the divine land.’

‘Little sister, you’re not going to see the customs outside the realm, listen to my sister and just stay.’ Fairy Qing Shirt frowned with a willow brow, looking a little displeased.

After hearing these words from her own sister, Ling Yun could not help but frown.

After a long time, Ling Yun’s service Yi Xi Yi Ai Yi Di Yi? She smiled, ‘I know sister, but I still want to go with Lin Hao, you know that sister, even if you stop me this time, you won’t be able to stop me next time.’

Qing Shuyi smiled bitterly and did not answer Ling Yun, but silently added in her heart: 'I don't care if I can stop you next time, I just thought I could stop you once, but I never thought that I could stop you once.'

Chapter 2526

'Then, sister, if there's nothing else, I'll go and pack my things.' Ling Yun said softly, as if she was a child who had done something wrong.

Qing Yi did not reply and waved her hand without looking back.

Ling Yun hesitated for half a second and said softly, 'Then sister, you must take care of your health and take care of yourself.'

Ling Yun turned and left without saying anything else.

Perhaps some things were already predetermined, and no matter how hard one tried to change them, even if one tried desperately to change them, one still could not change anything.

Lin Hao saw Ling Yun come back, looking as if she had something on her mind, and couldn't help but ask, 'I was just looking for you everywhere, where have you been? What's wrong? I don't see you looking too good.'

Ling Yun gathered her mood, smiled and shook her head gently, 'Nothing, I just went for a walk with my sister along the Qin Huai River, I'm going to pack my things, wait for me, don't take Xiao Shi and the girls and run away first.'

Lin Hao was amused, 'It won't be, it's not that simple, in this day and age, even illusionists have to abide by the rules of this world, lots of formalities, even though we don't have to take a plane, we can't enter illegally, otherwise that would be an international dispute.'

'That's good.'

Only then was Ling Yun satisfied and ran off to pack.

But Lin Hao didn't feel quite right, followed by Qing Shirt who also came back, but didn't say anything to Lin Hao, just gave him a deep look and went back to his room alone.

Inside the Qin Huai Golden Building, the majestic voice of Fairy Qing Shirt rang out in the minds of the thirteen hairpin: 'Thirteen hairpin listen to the order!'

Thirteen arcane lights emanating a powerful aura rose up to the sky: 'Please give the order, Your Majesty!'

Then, Qing Shirt gave a deadly order to the Thirteen Hairpin, that even if they died, they must complete their mission without fail!

The Thirteen Hairpin of Jinling left the empty doors of the Qinhuai Golden House at the same time, ready to stand by in secret!

Among the thirteen women, the worst is the early seventh grade, ? I zero love dyed zero land Xishan ? The strongest one was already at the mid-eighth level and was on standby at all times!

What Lin Hao didn't expect was that Chen Kai directly arranged for the nearest Dragon Sect to fly them to the Tigers' border on a special Dragon Sect plane. With the Dragon Sect, the highest illusionist division in China, there was naturally no opposition from the Tigers, and now that the area was in chaos, other places were even more self-conscious, and the only one who could help them was China.

After all, the countries surrounding China are in a mess.

But many comments have started to emerge, malicious comments, even saying that this thing started in China and that China was responsible for it.

And it was even slamming China, why only support Tigers and not them, is it because Tigers are more serious ? They should be treated equally.

The Dragon Master is also very helpless, although this incident has a cause, it may really be because of China, but those guys want to go to the trouble you can't protect, but don't throw the pot, China can't take the pot, moreover, the Anglican Church and the Western European Church are also encouraging the countries they control to take on China, and start to mobilise troops around.

To put it bluntly, they are still trying to restrict the establishment of a new Immortal Court in China, and once the new court is established and dominates, the other two orders will not have a good time.

The War Bear Divine Hall was a little better off, after all, most of its interests were tied up with the Chinese side, so the clouds were moving in all directions and there was a tide of darkness.

Qin Bingyu in Taig learned of the news, Ao Feng's doppelganger likewise learned of the news, and the Underworld, the Angelic Church, and the Western European Church, likewise learned of the news and began to act one after another.

Although Lin Hao did not seem to play much of a role and it was always the old forces in China that were holding up the facade and carrying out everything, Lin Hao was the core of the New Immortal Court's plan.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 2527-2528

Chapter 2527

All the Green Belt, Blue Belt and Purple Belt Judges in the Underworld on earth had all received the same instructions, once they found any trace of Lin Hao, they would finish him off at all costs!

Because they had already passed gas with Ao Feng's doppelganger, Lin Hao, his daughter, and his sister could easily kill a seventh grade Illusionary Spirit Master in seconds, even a peak seventh grade Illusionary Spirit Master might not be a match for Lin Hao's under their combination.

In order to get rid of Lin Hao, it would require an eighth grade Illusionary Spirit Master to take action. Moreover, I am afraid that at the early stage of the eighth grade Illusionary Spirit Master, one person would only be able to defeat Lin Hao alone, which is the most terrifying thing.

In the previous battle with Lin Hao, although Lin Hao had used the power of Lin Ruoshi, Ao Feng really did not have much control over Lin Hao if he really faced him alone.

But Ao Feng still went in the direction of Tege, to work with Qin Bingyu, and the Angelic Church even sent out three eighth realm High Battle Gods to go, and over there, the Western European Church, sent out three Crusader Inquisitors, also eighth realm existences.

What they wanted was to kill Lin Hao, after all, their sect leader's bilocation was imprisoned in the Underworld, this revenge had to be avenged, since Chen Beixuan and the others had torn their faces, they had no skin in the game, whatever, just do it!

Lin Hao himself didn't know that he hadn't even gone out yet, just a little leakage of his walk had triggered an earthquake all over the world, and all the forces were trying to take his life?

This time Lin Hao took two people with him, Lei Ling was left behind by Qing Shirt, because Qing Shirt wanted to continue a training and upgrading of Lei Ling, originally Lin Ruo Shi was also going to be left behind, but the key to Lin Ruo Shi's existence is to be able to take Lin Hao and them to run away, in the void, even the purple belt judge is estimated to be unable to help them to escape, of course, to fight is certainly unable to fight the purple belt judge.

However, Lei Ling was with Fairy Qing Shirt, leading thirteen stunning women in long ancient dresses, each with a thousand beautiful women, standing there, it was simply a beautiful sight that no one could move away from.

Led by Qing Shirt, they suddenly appeared in the Dragon Lord's office, with Lei Ling standing right behind Fairy Qing Shirt and the thirteen hairpin standing neatly and respectfully behind Qing Shirt.

When the Dragon Master looked up, he was also stunned by the scene in front of him, damn, these dozens of fairy-like women, as if they were fairies descending to earth, especially the green-shirted woman in front, her aura was superb, fairy-like, although there was no aura emanating from her, but she made people feel holy and could not have any blasphemy.

'You, who are you?' These women suddenly? Dyeing Yi closed west land dyeing ground dyeing's appearance still scared the Dragon Lord enough to know that his Shadows, who were former guards of the Dragon Hall, were even sixth-ranked Illusionary Spirit Masters.

These people were able to bypass the shadow and appear in his office without him being able to detect them, so these people were not simple.

Soon the Dragon Master spotted Lei Ling, who he still knew, and which of the people around Lin Hao did he not know?

'Little Spirit, why are you here? You didn't go to Tyger with your brother? And they are Seeing Lei Ling, the Dragon Lord was slightly relieved, and looking at the other party, he shouldn't be here to seduce him, much less make a move on him.

'Sister Qing Shirt won't let me follow, Sister Qing Shirt is here this time and wants a favor from you, Uncle Qin.' Lei Ling stretched her hand, she naturally wanted to follow along very much, but she still wasn't very good at fighting right now.

She was barely able to deal with a seventh grade Illusionary Spirit Master, but once she encountered an eighth grade Illusionary Spirit Master, which was already equivalent to the existence of the lowest end deity, she would be directly blinded, after all, the lowest end deity, that was still a deity, compared to the eighth grade a little bit Illusionary Spirit Master, there had been an absolute qualitative change.

'You are the lord of the divine land today, right? I am Qing Shirt, the owner of the Qin Huai Golden Mansion, I need you to give the thirteen of them suitable identities, they are going to travel beyond the Divine Continent to guard the safety of Lin Hao and the others.' Qing Shirt spoke in a clear, cold voice.

Chapter 2528

When the Dragon Lord heard this, it was all a small matter.

A being like this must be quite powerful, and the one sent out should be an Illusionary Spirit Master of the seventh rank or so, right? That was stable, Lin Hao specified that nothing would happen.

‘It’s fine, I’ll arrange it immediately, a phone call is all that’s needed, the token will be handed over to you in a moment, ah no, in your ancient language, it’s a special level clearance ultimatum.’ The Dragon Master knew that the other side should all be existences that had existed for who knows how long.

Green Shirt shook his head breathlessly, ‘I understand, no need to deliberately explain.’

The dragon lord gave a sarcastic laugh, and the dragon lord’s laughter alarmed the shadow, sensing that something was wrong, quickly dodged in and saw the scene in front of him but directly pissed himself in fear: ‘Crap’

When the shadow saw the green shirt, surprisingly flopped down on both knees and kowtowed respectfully, ‘The living living Your Holiness.’

‘Your Holiness? Living? What do you mean?’ This confused the Dragon Lord a bit, Shadow actually knew this woman?

The shadow nodded helplessly, ‘Yes, the living Your Holiness Our family has been commissioned by Your Holiness for generations to protect the safety and security of the imperial power of the divine state, but the only way for our clansmen to see Your Holiness’ overwhelming power is to look at the wall’

Look at the wall?

But the dragon master immediately reacted, crap, it turned out to be hanging on the wall the portrait ah.

This also made the Dragon Lord surprised, it turned out that the Shadow Guards had been guarding the imperial power for generations, and it was this woman who gave the order.

‘So it is the Dragon Palace imperial guards, the people of the Shadow Guard family, you have indeed done a good job over the years, but decades ago, you were really a big dereliction of duty, and should be punished.’ The Qing-shirt fairy’s voice was cold and majestic, naturally she was talking about decades ago, the Chinese catastrophe that allowed the East to wreak havoc on Chinese soil, this was the greatest dereliction of duty on the part of the Shadow Guards.

‘Please forgive me, Your Majesty!’ The Shadow didn’t even dare to let out a fart.

‘Forget it, it’s all in the past, your Shadow Guard family, who is the patriarch currently?’ Green Shirt was not an unreasonable person, and it was only natural that he should be punished and rewarded.

Shadow lowered his head in embarrassment, not daring to speak or answer.

It was the Dragon Master who sighed and said helplessly, ‘Shadow is the patriarch of the Shadow Guard Clan, and now he is the only one left in the entire Shadow Guard Clan. Back then, during the catastrophe, the entire Shadow Guard Clan fought and died in battle, and it was only when he was in seclusion that he escaped a calamity.’

‘Over the years he has been in a state of guilt, believing that he should not have survived alone, that he should not have closed down back then and desecrated the family’s ancestral traditions.’

‘But that catastrophe back then was not their fault, it was the fault of many people and many things that led to the catastrophe back then.’ The Dragon Lord was also quite helpless, he was still young when this happened back then, but the only thing he could do about that catastrophe back then, and the subsequent investigation later on, was to let out a long sigh.

But no matter what, China had risen again from the ashes and had become stronger.

The fact that immortals were not allowed to enter the world, and that the saints had scruples, caused this situation to arise.

After hearing this, Qing Shirt also fell into a long silence, and only after a long time did he slowly speak, ‘In that case, the punishment will be waived, and after a short while, you can go to the Golden Tower to ask for the seal, to continue the Shadow Guard family and grow the family, remember your mission.’

‘My subordinates respectfully obey the order of your Holiness.’ The shadow was excited and knelt down respectfully.

With Qing Shirt’s approval, at least his efforts over the years had not been in vain, and the guilt in his heart towards his clan had likewise dissipated a lot, at least proving that he had been right all these years.

He had survived to better continue to protect the imperial power and protect the stability of China.

The Dragon Master's side also moved very quickly, and it did not take long to bring the tokens to them. The Thirteen Hairpin got the tokens and quickly left, heading straight for Teg.

Qing Shirt did not stay much longer either, nodding slightly towards the Dragon Lord in greeting, 'Since there is no other business, Lord, then I shall depart.'

'Good departure, fairy.' On Lin Hao's side? Wu Pao Pao whisked his intent to close the er? , had already disembarked from the plane with his daughter and Ling Yun and landed at the Tege Metropolis Airport.

It was only from the moment Lin Hao landed that they couldn't help but frown, the weather around them was dim and humid, there was a gust of gloomy wind blowing around them, and what ordinary people couldn't see was that even the empty field of the Tyger Capital Airport had some stray gloomy Qi wavering about.

Super Son-in-law Chapter 2529-2530

Chapter 2529

Once these things are absorbed too much by a person, the lighter they are, the sicker they are, the more violent they are, the more they die.

And this should have been going on for some time, the airport staff around, their faces were all a little white, their feet were weak and their souls unstable were unmistakable.

This is the Tyger capital, so if it's this bad here, wouldn't it be even more terrifying elsewhere ?

Moreover, no one was free to take care of the situation here, because Lin Hao found that in the city outside the airport, violent sounds of fighting came from time to time, either from the Tege's illusionists fighting with monsters, or with illusionists who had gone mad.

With such an encroaching Yin Qi, even a third-grade Illusionist would not be able to hold out for long. Besides, it was only daytime, and the monsters were wreaking havoc like this, so how could it be at night ?

Lin Hao and the others were met by a group of Chinese people, a dozen or so in total, all second to third ranked illusionists.

There was also a group of Taig-related department heads, ordinary people, and a peak third-class Illusionary Spiritist escort, just one !

This was enough to show just how dire the situation was on this side now, that even such a big figure, a diplomatic ambassador level existence of sorts, had only one escort.

They are illusionary spirit masters who need to cultivate and absorb spiritual energy, but the surrounding spiritual energy is contaminated, so they are in a more serious situation than ordinary people. Westwood closed love west Shanshan er? grim, but they are just relying on their own cultivation to hold on hard.

‘Hello, Major General Lin, thank you very much for coming, I am Chen Wu, the head of the Dragon Gate branch in Tege Metropolis, you can just call me Xiao Wu.’ A third grade Illusionary Spiritist with a Chinese face and a straight suit stood out and greeted Lin Hao with a very polite handshake, those behind him also greeted Lin Hao, they were all from the Dragon Sect branch established by the Dragon Sect in Tag Capitol.

The countries around China that don’t have too frosty relations with China basically have at least one Dragon Sect branch in their capitals, and some places have more, while Tiger has just this one branch, with only a dozen of them as all members.

The Tag diplomatic envoy next to them also came up to greet them very respectfully, using fluent Chinese language and paying high respect to Lin Hao.

‘Hello General Lin, I am the Thai ambassador, we are very pleased to welcome you and we are very grateful to the Chinese side for helping us in this time of crisis, we have the highest respect and gratitude for you, please come with us, we have prepared a banquet and a hotel for you to stay.’

As the saying goes, if the other party is polite, Lin Hao naturally cannot put on a show, and nodded with a smile in greeting, ‘Thank you for the arrangements, but your bodies, are they still holding up?’

‘This is your capital city, it’s already grim to this extent, so wouldn’t it be even grimmer elsewhere?’

‘All the strategically important cities and large cities of Tag are in the same state of flux as the capital city, while the smaller rural cities are not yet a problem. According to inaccurate statistics, the death toll is already approaching two million.’ The Tagg ambassador looked pained and helpless.

They didn’t even know where the people behind the disaster were, and most of them were fighting monsters, even their own people who had turned into monsters.

And the first to suffer was the army, a large number of Tegel soldiers turned into monsters, it was impossible to defend against them, and now the normal people are also on tenterhooks, not knowing when their turn will come next, each one is like a walking corpse.

Lin Hao listened and frowned, this was going to be difficult.

Lin Yun slightly raised her hand, the Yin Qi around her was dispersed, the peach petals emitted a pink glow and fell on these people like a rain of flowers, the Yin Qi on their bodies dissipated with a bang, even the Yin Qi that had accumulated in their bodies was also dispersed by Lin Yun.

Chapter 2530

The crowd lit up, their spirits soothed as if they had been instantly released and relieved, greedily breathing in the clean air around them, as they had not breathed so easily for so long.

After the air and aura around them had been polluted by Yin Qi, they had to be careful how they breathed, which was miserable.

‘Thank you, fairy, for your help.’ Both the Tege ambassador and the bodyguard next to him looked at Ling Yun excitedly.

‘Many thanks to the fairy.’ Even Chen Wu and the others were grateful, in fact, the situation here had gotten completely out of control, if not for the order from above that Lin Hao and the others would arrive here today, they would have to close down and evacuate this place temporarily, if they didn’t leave, they would have to die here as well.

At this moment, the airport staff and the Tigers who had just gotten off the plane saw this scene and came over like a tidal wave, kneeling down towards Lin Hao and the others, kowtowing with folded hands and incomparable devotion, shouting something out of their mouths, but speaking in the Tigers’ language, which they did not understand at all.

Lin Hao and Ling Yun’s faces changed slightly, not knowing what was going on, and the place was already crowded with thousands of people kneeling towards them.

Teg was a Buddhist country, so they were all kneeling with their hands folded and chanting.

It was ironic that the true Buddha, Jizo, had nothing to do with this, and that Jizo was even involved.

‘Oh no, I forgot about this.’ Chen Wu slapped his head. At present, everyone in Tege City was in danger, and the total population of Tege City alone was two million, how many could they save? It was impossible to save them all!

Chen Wu ordered all the members of the Dragon Sect to release their powerful auras and pressed their auras towards these people with all their might, and even the Thaitian ambassadors were constantly using their tai? Shan dyer er serving Shan Lu zero steak? The Thai ambassador was also using the Thai language, loudly scolding the people around him.

But in the face of a life-and-death crisis, the diplomatic envoy’s orders obviously did not work, after all, before life and death, who cares who the hell you are! I’m dying, so why should I listen to you? Will I survive if I listen to you?

‘Chen Wu, what’s going on?’ Lin Hao asked with a frown, but he had probably guessed what was going on.

Chen Wu laughed bitterly, ‘They are trying to beg the fairy to save their lives, but it’s useless at all, how much can be saved, the people in this situation, even those with more eyes than them, abound in the entire capital city, a city of two million people, how can they be saved, and the root problem can’t be solved, it’s a waste to save, treating the symptoms but not the root cause, in a few days they will have to return to In a few days they will be back to this state.’

That’s true.

‘Aren’t we here to solve this problem?’ Lin Hao shook his head and looked at Ling Yun, ‘Is everything alright? Can you hold on?’

Ling Yun smiled sweetly, ‘That’s for sure, I’m the Hua Tuo of the fairies, the absolute medical fairy, the Peach Blossom Fairy. Besides, their problem is not serious, it is much easier to remove the evil spirits than to treat their injuries, not to mention the millions, even two millions more, but honestly, the root problem is still this problem of being enveloped by the evil spirits, it is necessary to eradicate the root problem.’

Lin Hao looked up at the sky, this was indeed the root problem, even in the daytime the place was filled with Yin Qi, as gloomy as the darkness before a storm, the sky was hanging down to the top of the tall buildings.

But when Lin Hao looked closely, he still found a hint.

At this moment, the Thaiser ambassador was looking straight at Ling Yun, for he was very good at Chinese and understood what Ling Yun was saying, did she mean that she could save all the people in this city?

But he didn’t dare to speak up because the request was too much and he didn’t know exactly how much it would cost the other side to save everyone, so he had to let them speak up themselves.

‘Let your country lord inform them.’ Lin Hao asked Ling Yun and learnt that it didn’t need to be too consuming, since he was here, he couldn’t just stand by and watch, and it was the same as the resistance against rice and aid to China back then, if Tege fell, it would also have a huge impact on China, so it was considered helping others to help themselves.
