

Super Son-in-law Chapter 811-820

Chapter 811

The rescue of the girl did not make much of a ripple effect on Lin Hao, if I had to say so, it would have been just a hint. The effect on him was nothing more than a change of venue. The fact that he was only a ? The only thing that would affect Lin Hao is a ? A homeless person. After all, until now Lin Hao didn't even know the girl's name, and he didn't want to know.

The woman he loved most, his wife's life and death were unknown, and the Lin family was all wiped out. Although the destruction of the Lin family was not because of him, he still had a lot of self-blame in his heart, so after coming to Western Europe, he did not go to Lin Qingcheng when he knew she was over here in Western Europe. It was that he chose to wander around this side of Europe alone.

A few days later, Lin Hao arrived in another city and continued his life of dithering. He was muddled and unsure of what to do, only this time, although he still wore ragged clothes, had a lot of beard and his hair hadn't been cut, he simply cleaned it, and with this simple mess, he was still largely the image of a vagrant, but he wasn't a beggar after all. Lin Hao thought about it, and then cut his beard again, and his whole body was once again much cleaner. He did this because he did not want to attract unnecessary trouble. The girl whose family he had saved was very rich and he did not expect that girl to repay him, he just wanted to take a walk by himself and have a quiet look at the world to calm his mind so that he could go for revenge.

Lin Hao, who had packed up everything, went to a dock that was recruiting temporary workers. The wages were settled once a day and meals were provided. The job Lin Hao was looking for was to take the goods off the ship and transfer them to the car, to put it bluntly, he was a loader. The white head man in charge there saw Lin Hao's refugee look and, fearing trouble, instinctively did not want him.

‘Sorry, you don’t have ID, you can’t work for me’ the white guy at the shore recruitment point said with a frown at Lin Hao’s refusal.

‘Hmm’ Lin Hao nodded and hummed, and without saying anything else, he turned around and headed out.

‘Wait a minute’ Just before he got far, a Western European woman in a black suit and black high heels called out to him. Lin Hao turned around and looked at the woman with some confusion, the woman was not dressed in any brand name goods, but she was pretty looking. When the woman saw Lin Hao looking towards her, she asked him, ‘Are you a Chinese?’

Lin Hao nodded his head.

The woman nodded back and said, ‘In the past when our country was in trouble, China helped us, so this time I’ll help you, you can work here for a few days first, just tell me if you need anything later, my name is Linda.’

The woman smiled at Lin Hao when she finished speaking, and without waiting for Lin Hao to say anything, she gave a few instructions to the white man who was in charge of recruitment, apparently her position here was not low either, and she should still be the boss of the head recruiter. After she finished speaking to that person, soon after that person, who was in charge of recruiting, gave Lin Hao a hand tag and told him to go over to the pier and start working.

After Lin Hao got the hand tag, he nodded his thanks to the woman named Linda, and without saying anything, he turned around and walked towards the pier. He had long observed the work here and knew how to do it. So without waiting for any urging, he simply picked up a sack from the boat and carried it to the designated spot.

Once Lin Hao started working, he didn't rest either, just like a robot, going back and forth between the pass side and the temporary warehouse again and again. From morning to noon, Lin Hao's clothes were already drenched in sweat as he carried the heavy sack, drops of sweat falling down

At lunchtime, the temporary workplace gave Lin Hao a small basin, which he took to get his meal. It was the same big pot of rice as in China, but it wasn't a good one, it was just stew with little meat and very little oil, and then the man in charge of the rice gave Lin Hao a few more big white full heads.

Once Lin Hao had taken the rice, he walked to a place where no one was around and ate it in big bites. He hadn't eaten a meal like this in I don't know how long, but he didn't mind it in the slightest, instead he found it delicious

Time is fair, the days passed like this, and the workers at an unknown small dock in Western Europe were all familiar with Lin Hao there. They all knew that a particularly hard-working Chinese man who never slacked off had come to the site. What no one knew was that this temporary worker in their eyes, he was once the strongest natural talent of the young generation in China

Lin Hao was over in Western Europe, getting over his initial despair and starting a new journey, beginning his own meditation journey. At this moment, within the residence of the Jun Family's Jun Wu Ren in Yanjing, China. Jun Wu Regret, who had almost recovered from his injuries, sat on the main seat and asked Bai Hu, who was standing in front of him, 'No news from Lin Hao yet?'

Jun Wu Regret's voice was still a little hoarse, and his face was a little pale. Yes, even though more than a month had passed since that big battle back then, and that big pit in the Lin's ancestral mansion had been filled in. But he still couldn't forget the tragic and tragic scene that happened there back then. Those seniors whom he had somewhat despised before had given him the hope of survival at the last moment, while many of those seniors whom he did not know, and could not even name, chose to die with those mysterious men in black at the end.

And after that battle, that most mysterious of all, Cang, was also badly injured, having already had one of his arms chopped up by Lin Yan, and ended up standing right in the middle of an explosion of that terrifying level. Jun Wu Regret expected that Cang would definitely not dare to come out again in a short time now. And after Jun Wu Regret had recovered, what he was most anxious about was to find Lin Hao. He understood that it was impossible for him to kill Cang on his own, and if he joined forces with Lin Hao, then this possibility would be greatly increased. So when Jun Wu Ren woke up again, he used all his strength to search for Lin Hao, only to never find him.

Sure enough this time Bai Hu was still the same as before, sighing and shaking his head, 'Big brother, I'm sorry, we don't have any news about the Lin family master, but don't worry big brother, the Lin family master is carrying a deep blood feud this time, he will definitely come back to kill!'

Jun Wu Ren nodded, thought for a moment and then continued to ask, 'Then is there any news of Lin Hao's wife, Shen Xiyao? Before she died, Concubine You Zi said that Shen Xiyao had been picked up by her master's mother, have you found the location of that master's mother of hers?'

White Tiger still shook his head, 'Big brother, that master's mother of You Zi Fei, is probably a mysterious figure like Cang, such an existence, they have even been able to use some means that can conceal the search of modern technology, unless they come out on their own, it is impossible for us to find it

Jun Wu Ren nodded incomparably complicated, having personally experienced that great battle, he was incomparably shocked and pained inside, not to mention those who died, all of them were Lin Hao's relatives.

'Ai

Jun Wu Regret sighed deeply and looked at the white tiger and said, 'You guys hurry up, within the last year or two, you better break through to that level, otherwise, in the next big battle, you still won't have any qualification. Let the brothers step up their training time and read more of those Jun Family's secret library materials.'

Bai Hu nodded and left without saying anything else, she had followed Jun Wu Ren for many years and was both one of his men, but she had secretly always loved Jun Wu Ren as well. A month ago, when she looked at Jun Wu Regret, who had escaped from the ruins and was covered in blood, she vowed that she must quickly break through to the level of a Heavenly Grandmaster, so that she could help Jun Wu Regret. She understood that with Jun Wu Regret's character, he would definitely have to fight Cang once more, and that time there would be no more help from those seniors of Dao Yi. Only their generation

The Lin Qingcheng in Western Europe is looking for Lin Hao, Gu Yue who was arranged to Western Europe by Night One is also looking for Lin Hao, Jun Wu Regret on the Chinese side is also looking for Lin Hao, almost everyone is looking for Lin Hao.

Even Jun Wu Regret sighed to himself deep down, if he and Lin Hao had a duel to the death? If he were to fight Lin Hao to the death? The most likely loser of that battle would be him.

Yes, everyone is looking for Lin Hao, but no one knows that the number one contemporary talent in China is now working as the most miserable porter on a small, inconspicuous dock in Western Europe, chewing on a head full of salted vegetables

At the same time, deep in a large, uninhabited mountain in central China, there is an extremely deep hidden underground cave, and a thousand metres below it, there is a dark river. The cave is far from the surface, so it is impossible for the sun's rays to shine through.

And right now, under the shimmering light emanating from those stones, a transparent black crystal coffin rests at the bottom of the dark river. The inside of the coffin was filled with an unknown black liquid, and in the middle of the liquid lay a man, a painful colour flashed across his face from time to time, yes only the expression on his face would change slightly, his heartbeat was almost non-existent, and his whole body seemed to be in a deep sink.

The largest black crystal coffin under the water was the centre, and there were dozens of smaller black coffins around it. Only at this moment, only three of the smaller black coffins still had people in them. Those three people had masks on their faces and no heartbeats or breathing, they were completely dead.

The next moment, the person in the huge black crystal coffin in the very centre of the bottom of the dark river opened his eyes violently, with a monstrous rage in his eyes, the anger combined with the pain in his body made his face look even more hideous.

This person was no other than Cang! Yes, it was Cang who had desperately escaped that day after the great explosion at the Lin's ancestral home, and although he had escaped in the end, one as strong as he was had almost lost half his life. And the men he had accumulated over the last hundred years were almost lost, and only three were saved in the end. Then Cang fled all the way to here, a secret stronghold that only he knew about, and neither you nor his previous partner knew anything about it. A man like Cang simply couldn't trust anyone.

‘Still underestimated you all, underestimated you ah, you are all very good, very good’ The next moment Cang's voice echoed within the empty crypt, he admitted that this time he had failed, and failed completely and utterly, his plan was completely bankrupt.

Originally he had only wanted to cultivate an opponent who could pose a threat to him in the present world, so as to help him break through to another level, a more advanced level. So he had been subconsciously cultivating Lin Hao. That is why he single-handedly caused the decline of the Lin Clan decades ago by killing Lin Zhantian, then stirring up civil unrest in the Lin Clan, causing the death of Lin Hao's own mother, guiding Lin Hao step by step down a path to the Extreme Dao, and finally achieving a Master of the Extreme Dao. He then secretly cultivated Consort You Zi, whose ultimate role was to be used as a breakthrough for Lin Hao.

After making Lin Hao fall in love with Concubine You, he then killed Concubine You, forcing Lin Hao into demons and frantically raising his battle power to eventually fight him, thus becoming the sustenance for his breakthrough. It must be said that Cang's calculations were so meticulous and terrifying. In the middle, Lin Hao met Shen Xiyan, but it was just an episode, even Shen Xiyan's appearance made Cang happier, after all, he had been with Consort You for more than twenty years, and there was a trace of intolerance in his heart. So all he wants is to kill Shen Xiyan and let ? er zero steak flick wu ai wuzha? You Zi Fei survived. Just what he never expected was that the You Zi Fei, whom he had cultivated for more than twenty years, lost control at the last moment

You Zi Fei had directly poisoned him, and the second miscalculation he made after that was with Lin Yan. Lin Yan was far more tactful and far more far-sighted than he appeared to be. That was Lin ? s unparalleled vision. Before he died, Lin Yan incomparably and decisively used his own life to spell out one of Cang's arms, the decapitation of a native arm, or the most powerful right arm, which directly shattered Cang's dao body. From then on he, Cang, was no longer whole, and the damage to his innate dao body directly caused him to fall a small realm permanently.

And that's not all, that final self-destruction by the old woman of the Lin Clan, pulling everyone in the entire Lin Clan Ancestral Residence with her. It hit him even harder. Before that Cang was the only supreme figure above the Ascended Sovereign in the world. But after that battle at the Lin Clan, he had now been completely knocked down to that level. He had fallen down to the rank of Innate Sovereign. Moreover, with his injuries, it would take at least ten years to completely recover to the level of his heyday. With a damaged foundation and another serious injury, it would be impossible for him to regain his former glory without ten years.

It could be said that the Lin family, although they had not completely killed him, had knocked out most of his life! And for these ten years, he would have to stay here to recuperate from his injuries in peace.

Cang's eyes glared round and his heart held an endless amount of resentment. In the end, he closed his eyes, closed all his qi and fell into a deep sleep

And in a mysterious valley thousands of miles away from Cang, it was full of spring colours and a quiet atmosphere. Shen Xiyan was receiving treatment there. The whole person had no more signs other than the fact that there was still faint breathing.

Shen Xiyan was wearing a long white ancient style dress and her eyes were closed as if she was asleep. Her consciousness was scattered and her heart had suffered a serious injury, and it was not known when she would wake up in such a state; it was more likely that she would stay asleep like this.

The aura of the palace-dressed woman was like that of the Purple Concubine, not like a mortal, her whole body had the smell of someone in a painting, and her clothes were purely ancient. No one knows how old she is, but outwardly she looks like a woman in her thirties, and she is also very beautiful. Her daoist name is Die, and as for her original name, I am afraid that Cang is the only one in this world who knows it. She had always loved Cang, for decades, but in the end she was abandoned by Cang, and all that remained of her deep love was a deep sense of helplessness

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're getting into. He has become selfish, tyrannical, slowly devoid of any feelings, and even now he can no longer be called a human being

The woman spoke to herself, as if she had developed such a habit over the years. Yes, in the past twenty years, she had only gone to see You Zi Fei a few times, and then the rest of the time, she was alone in seclusion here.

The woman continued to murmur, 'You're like Little Concubine, what a wonderful child, but now she's gone before me. I loved her so much, I really don't want her to die. Of course child, I can't blame you for Fei'er's death, it was her own choice. Besides, you are suffering too. I've done everything I can to treat your injuries, but it's still not working, it's still not working, and your lover, who I can't find, is unknown, alive or dead. You are just a bitter woman like me

The woman sighed, and after talking to herself for a while longer by Shen Xiyan's bedside, she left. Just what she didn't notice was that shortly after she left, a tear flowed from the corner of Shen Xiyan's eyes as she lay on the bed

It was another early morning, the early sun was rising, there were no clouds, the weather was very nice and the morning air was very fresh, especially for the Western European side, the town where Lin Hao had stayed when he first arrived.

It was Saturday and Jenny was up very early, last night she had a dream, again in her most desperate hour. It was like a gaijin had gone to the rescue of the mysterious beggar uncle who had saved her. These days she also went through various methods to try to find that beggar uncle, in her city she had people looking for all the beggars, even those in the surrounding cities, but none of them were found. Just she still didn't give up, the adolescent her, just very paranoid that that beggar uncle, must have very sad and hurt things.

And that uncle had helped her, so she must try her best to find him and help him, with everything she had.

While Jenny was still inside her house thinking, her parents hurriedly washed up and walked to the front door of the villa, where both husband and wife were waiting for someone as apprehensively as they could.

Yes, half an hour earlier, Jenny's father had received word of a surprise visit from the world-famous Dawes Consortium. He was an excellent entrepreneur himself and had worked in Western Europe for so many years that he naturally understood how terrifying and powerful the Dawes Consortium was, and that it was an existence he could never touch. After all, with his status, if he wanted to get in touch with the Dawes Consortium, it would be unrealistic for him to do so, as the other side would not even bother with a small person like him.

So he was shocked and puzzled as to why such a powerful and terrifying being would suddenly come to visit him. And it was said that the person in charge of the other party had come to visit him personally? This made him and his wife terrified. He was even prepared to throw away his entire fortune if there was anything he had done to offend the Dawes Consortium. As long as his wife and daughter were safe and sound

Just as the couple was filled with apprehension, dozens of black Bentleys drove up in the distance outside their villa. The couple bowed their heads respectfully and greeted the arrival of the other big man.

Soon, two stunningly beautiful and tall Oriental women stepped out of the middle Bentley. The oriental beauty in the lead was dressed in a white suit and white high heels. The woman got out of the car and looked at the villa in front of her, her eyes were very complicated.

The person who came was Lin Qingcheng. In the early hours of this morning, he had received a report from his men that Lin Hao had saved a girl in this city, so she had rushed over early in the morning, she wanted to find her brother.

Lin Qingcheng walked up to the couple and held out her hand to the man and said, 'I'm Lin Qingcheng, I'm sorry Mr. Jones I'm sorry I came to pay a visit early in the morning, there's just something I need to inquire with you about, of course for my presumption and surprise, the Dawes Group will give Mr. Jones a certain amount of compensation

The girl's father, the man named Jones, hurriedly lowered his head even lower, his heart's tension deepened, and even cold sweat ran down his forehead. He had long vaguely known that the person behind the control of this world famous Dawes Consortium was a Chinese, and it seemed to be the Chinese Lin. So that meant that this oriental beauty standing in front of him now was from the Chinese Lin Clan!!!

‘You are serious, but whenever you need something, we will do our best, please follow me back to the house, please come in, please come in’ said the man, Jones, in front of Lin Qingcheng, with sincerity and caution, his heart apprehensive to the extreme. The aura on Lin Qingcheng’s body is really too powerful, so much so that he, a veteran of many years in the shopping mall, is incomparably nervous, afraid that in Lin Qingcheng? The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market. City said a wrong word in front of her.

Lin Qingcheng nodded and walked into the villa, while the Joneses followed behind, as if they were the guests, putting on as low a posture as they could.

After entering the house, Lin Qingcheng did not have to be polite and sat down directly on the main seat. Jones personally made tea for Lin Qingcheng, then stood respectfully in front of her and asked carefully, ‘I wonder what Lin wants to inquire about?’

Lin Qingcheng politely took a small sip of the tea, put down the cup, and could not help but have a trace of sadness rise in her expression. She looked at Jones and said, ‘Mr. Jones, I heard that your daughter was kidnapped half a month ago, and then someone saved her, right?’

Jones frowned slightly, not knowing why this highly placed Oriental woman was asking this. But he hurriedly nodded and said, ‘Yes, yes, it was fortunate that someone saved my daughter at that time, otherwise I wouldn’t have dared to imagine the consequences. Well, then may I ask you, Mr. Lin, what is this you are asking?’ Jones raised his head in confusion and gave Lin Qingcheng a careful look.

Lin Qingcheng couldn’t help but squeeze her teacup, the sadness in her eyes intensified as she looked at Jones and said, ‘Then the man who saved your daughter, do you know him?’

Jones shook his head and said, 'I'm sorry, Miss Lin, I don't know, I

'I know big sister I know, are you looking for that older man too?' Before Jones could finish her sentence, Jenny came out from inside the bedroom in her pyjamas and interrupted her father.

Chapter 816

Jones saw his daughter come out and talk directly to Lin Qingcheng, and hurriedly drank to his daughter, 'Jenny! This is Mr. Lin of the Dawes Consortium, you

When the girl Jenny heard her father's words, she was also severely shaken in her heart, obviously she was also aware of the horror of the Dawes Consortium. After hearing her father say so, she hurriedly went downstairs and looked at Lin Qingcheng again with a hint of respect and apprehension already in her eyes: 'Lin Hello Mr. Lin

Jenny carefully said to Lin Qingcheng The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are doing.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market. Paxi Paxi Paxi Wu Zero Paxi Lu? Tell me, okay?'

Jenny felt something wrong in addition to Lin Qingcheng's tone, she looked up at Lin Qingcheng and said, 'Sorry Mr. Lin, I can't find Uncle either, after he saved me that night, he left, I've been looking for him for many days, I've searched all the beggars and homeless people in the city, still can't find him him ‘What? Beggars?’ The next moment Lin Qingcheng stood up in a tentative manner, and an extreme pain immediately surged in her heart.

Jenny and her parents were instantly shaken when they saw Lin Qingcheng’s reaction like this.

Jones hurriedly lowered her head and cautiously asked Lin Qingcheng, ‘General Lin, that gentleman you you know?’

Lin Qingcheng took a deep breath and nodded with a pained expression, ‘Well, that’s my brother, my own brother, the Gaijin of our Lin family and our family head, something happened a month ago and he left, I I’ve been looking for him for over a month’

‘Boom’ Mr. and Mrs. Jones as well as the girl Jenny, they heard Lin Qingcheng’s words, a thunderstorm exploded in their minds instantly, the three of them had their mouths open wide, not only the three of them, but also those in the villa who knew that it was a beggar who saved Miss before. The people in the villa were all shocked to the extreme. A long time to slow down.

She knew that the beggar was not an ordinary person, she could see it from his extremely painful eyes. But she could never have imagined that the beggar uncle who saved her would be such an identity.

Jenny took out her mobile phone and opened Lin Hao’s photo, looking at Lin Hao’s beggarly appearance, tears fell from her eyes, ‘Sister, Uncle he, what’s wrong with him, he’s so sad, when I met him, he was sitting in the corner of the pedestrian street for many days’

Lin Qingcheng took Jenny's mobile phone and looked at the photo of Lin Hao who had been reduced to a beggar, and her tears could not help but fall down. Choking on a sob, she said, 'His beloved wife left, our father grandmother, was also killed

After Lin Qingcheng finished speaking, she took a deep breath, forcefully holding back the sadness in her heart, handed the phone back to Jenny and said to her, 'Child, if he contacts you again in the future, please make sure you inform me, okay?'

Jenny nodded vigorously, and when Lin Qingcheng saw that Jenny's family now had no news of Lin Hao either, she left without making too much more of a stop.

In the car, Lin Qingcheng's female assistant said comfortingly to her, 'Miss, be too sad, now at least there is news of the family head, since the family head will go out to save this little girl and even leave afterwards, it means that the family head is out of the worst state now. His state is recovering and I'm sure the family head will come out of his grief, for sure. Miss, you should not be too anxious, after all, anyone who encounters those things will not come out of it all at once

Lin Qingcheng's female assistant, fearing that Lin Qingcheng would not be able to hold up either, hurriedly comforted Lin Qingcheng.

Lin Qingcheng nodded: 'Well, I know. Since that little girl saved her brother, then you should arrange some projects for them

In the villa, Jones hung up the phone and his whole body froze in place, at his wife's enquiry, it was a while before he took a deep breath and said, 'The Dawes Consortium has just injected capital into our company, the funds are huge and scary

His wife, who was also shocked silly at this moment, looked at her baby daughter and couldn't help but say, 'It seems that my daughter is right, there are still many good things in this world, my daughter is lucky, very lucky

'Uncle, you must walk out, you must ah

the girl Jenny, the shock in her heart until now has not slowed down, then she took out her mobile phone as if she thought of something and hurried to check up.

After a bit of manipulation, she searched for a photo, a photo of Lin Hao and Shen Xiyan when they got married in the church in Tianhai, China. In that photo, Lin Hao was handsome and dashing, and Shen Xiyan was charming and beautiful

'Uncle is so handsome, his wife is also beautiful, so beautiful

Jenny looked at that photo on her phone, her whole body was once again shocked, the Joneses also took their phone and looked at it, and like their daughter, they were also deeply shocked.

Then there was a deep sigh of relief, they now couldn't even imagine what Lin Hao had encountered to go from being a gaijin to voluntarily living like a beggar. The family then prayed and blessed Lin Hao in their hearts as they were shocked

Chapter 817

Lin Qingcheng naturally could not find Lin Hao, even if he searched all the beggars in Europe, it was impossible to find Lin Hao. Because at this moment Lin Hao is no longer living as a beggar, he is working on a small dock that he doesn't even know the name of, doing the most primitive hard labor, he just wants to make his heart more quiet, yes, he already has a heart demon, his heart is unstable, in such a state it is impossible to seek revenge on Cang. If he went to seek revenge on Cang now, then the greatest probability was that not only would he not be able to kill Cang, but he would also be killed himself.

Then if this is the outcome, then what to talk about revenge, father, grandmother, Dao Yi, Shen Xiyao Lin Hao is not afraid of dying, what he is afraid of is dying with a heart full of regret, that would not be worth anything.

Another day of busyness, Lin Hao sat on the roadside gnawing on a full head and eating salted vegetables. Still alone, he didn't want to have contact with anyone, withdrawn and reticent.

'Hey, how are you getting on lately?' Just as Lin Hao was eating that cheap and very unpalatable meal by the roadside, Linda also sat on her butt next to him, not paying attention to her image either, and with that same meal as Lin Hao in her hand, she ate with him. This scene naturally drew the attention of the crowd of dockside workers, after all, in their eyes Linda was pretty and a white-collar worker, but now she was sitting and eating with a silly boy.

Lin Hao nodded and didn't say anything as he continued to eat with his head down. Linda didn't mind either, smiled and ate as well, and after she finished eating she even said to Lin Hao, 'If you have anything, just tell me, I will help you

'Mmm

Lin Hao nodded and continued to eat, Linda smiled and left without saying anything else. She came? Di Lu Fushan closed Wu Di zero? Looking for Lin Hao, she just thought this person was strange, and she couldn't say what for. This person came over to work, every day just know deadly work, as if it is not with their own, and desperately work as far as, every day from morning to night, not a penny to spend, to know in this construction site next to a small supermarket, but she never saw Lin Hao go over to buy anything. And Lin Hao never asked how much he could get for a day's work from the beginning.

Linda instinctively felt that Lin Hao was strange, but she couldn't say exactly what was strange. She just felt that Lin Hao was preoccupied, as if his outer body was separated from his inner soul.

The weather had become hot and Lin Hao was sweating like rain every day. Linda was right in her feeling that Lin Hao was torturing himself and was not happy with himself.

And every now and then during this month, Linda sat next to Lin Hao to eat. She told Lin Hao about herself, about how she had always loved China, about her university life, about her marriage, divorce and now bringing up a child, about the various things in her life, the sweet and the sour, and every time she finished she gave Lin Hao a pep talk, telling him that nothing was too much to handle and that one had to believe in oneself and be firm.

Of course, rather than encouraging Lin Hao each time, she was encouraging herself, because each time she spoke to him, Lin Hao did not say a word. It was just eating to himself off to the side.

'Hey, buddy, carry these to that warehouse at the far end' This evening, it was already the end of the day, and Lin Hao was just about to leave when the foreman suddenly gave Lin Hao a task. Lin Hao nodded and hummed, and without saying anything, he put the pile of goods on the ground on top of the cart and pushed it towards the place designated by the foreman.

Chapter 818

'Wait' The foreman looked at Lin Hao's willing figure and thought about how it had been over a month, and how this buddy had worked his ass off every day, but never asked him for money. At first, he had the intention to greed Lin Hao's money, but when he saw that Lin Hao was off work and still listened to his orders, he felt a bit sorry for him. So he took a wad of money out of his pocket and shoved it into Lin Hao's hand, and gave Lin Hao half a box of his own cigarettes and a lighter.

'Your wages, you did a good job, very good

.....' the foreman said to Lin Hao with a smile, and gave him a thumbs up.

Lin Hao stared blankly at the foreman: 'Thank you

.....' said a thank you then pushed the trolley towards the innermost warehouse.

There were many warehouses next to the docks, the innermost one was a large warehouse dedicated to storing valuable goods, and that Linda was the supervisor there. It was already ten o'clock at night after Lin Hao had put away the goods, and after he had done so he was ready to leave. But as he was passing Linda's office, he inadvertently looked inside.

Inside Linda's office went in a very fat tall bald man, the man had a lot of cross flesh on his face and was not a nice person at first glance, the man was sitting in a chair and Linda was standing in front of the man. After the man said something, Linda took a few steps back with a reluctant look on her face, then the man seemed to say something else and then put another wad of money on the table. After that Linda started to undress, unbuttoning her shirt and removing her short black skirt underneath, then the man held Linda down on the table and walked behind Linda

Lin Hao looked at the scene in Linda's office and watched for a while before walking away with his head down

Half an hour later, after cleaning up? Wu Yi Yi Zero Wu Xi Fuzzy? s Linda, locked the door of the warehouse and wanted to go home. But just as she walked outside, she saw that Lin Hao was sitting on the roadside smoking a cigarette with a cart next to him. Linda's whole body went silent.

'I've just delivered a shipment inside the warehouse, you can do the registration tomorrow' said Lin Hao to Linda.

After being silent for a while, Linda bit her lip and asked Lin Hao, 'You just saw it all, didn't you?'

'Well, ' Lin Hao nodded as he hummed.

'Huh, ' Linda also knew that Lin Hao must have just seen it all, she laughed to herself, then she was in no hurry to go either, she simply sat on her butt next to Lin Hao again, took a cigarette with Lin Hao, lit it up and took a deep drag. Linda didn't say anything and neither did Lin Hao, so Linda just took one deep puff after another. She desperately exhaled smoke into herself, as if she felt dirty at the moment.

Linda said with a self-deprecating smile, 'Yeah, I'm not as clean as you think, I have to do this for money and to make a living, I have to give in to the bullying of those people, the man you saw today is just one of those men who bullied me, '

Linda said, as if she remembered something, her body all started to tremble, tears flowing down her face, '

Super Son-in-law Chapter 819-820

Lin Hao shuddered hard inside, and just when he wanted to say something else, Linda smiled and stomped out the smoke ring, and left alone. Lin Hao looked at the distant back of this Western European woman and fell into deep thought. It was reasonable to say that under such a life, Linda should be full of despair, but she was not, instead she was very strong and still faced life with a smile every day.

Lin Hao was silent, and after smoking another cigarette, he too left the place. And for a few days after that, Lin Hao went to work every day as usual, except that after he met with Linda that night, Linda never spoke to Lin Hao again.

Seven days passed, and that night Lin Hao saw her again in Linda's office. There were three other men besides Linda, and when Lin Hao looked inside, one of the men had closed the curtains. Slowly Lin Hao heard Linda's screams.

In the evening when Linda came out of the ? Zero Shan closed the shade to Ai Ai Wu ? warehouse, Lin Hao found that there was blood coming out of the corners of her mouth, half of her face was swollen, her hair was scattered and her clothes were a bit tattered. Perhaps it was too much of a mess, or perhaps it had already been seen by Lin Hao once. So this time Linda in turn was indifferent, forcing a smile at Lin Hao and leaving alone.

This time when Lin Hao looked at Linda's departing back, he was silent for a longer time. He felt a wave of unyieldingness from Linda, an unyieldingness towards life. After thinking for a while, Lin Hao followed Linda from a distance and followed.

An hour later, Linda arrived at a slum-like place and picked up her daughter from the ground floor of a silo, her child was very small and tiny, just four or five years old. She was also dressed very simply, but her eyes were very bright and she looked very cute. When Lin Hao was looking at that little girl's eyes, his heart, which had been silent for a long time, was once again deeply touched.

‘Mum, what’s wrong with you? The corner of your mouth is bleeding, does it hurt, let me rub it for you’ The little girl reached out to rub Linda’s face, her little hands still a little clumsy.

Linda squatted down and held the little girl tightly in her arms as soon as she could. Although Linda’s back was turned to Lin Hao, Lin Hao could still see that she was shedding tears. Only Linda didn’t let her daughter see her cry either, but after wiping her tears, she smiled and spoke to her daughter, and as Linda laughed, the little girl laughed too.

‘Mummy, I’ve been good today, will you read me a story later?’ The little girl said looking up at Linda with a smile, looking like she was waiting for a compliment.

‘Yes, I’ll tell you the story of the Little White Rabbit and the Big Bad Wolf, okay?’ Linda said smiling back and stroking the little girl’s head.

The little girl shook her head and hummed very cutely, ‘Hmph, I’m not going to listen to it, I’ve heard it so many times, you’re going to tell me a new one’

Linda was stunned for a moment, slapped her forehead and said, ‘Oh sorry, mummy forgot to tell you the one before, then mummy will tell you the new one, this time the story of Princess Elsa’

‘Mmmmmm, ok eh, thank you mummy, let’s hurry home then’ the little girl jumped and pulled Linda upstairs, very impatient to hear Linda tell her a story.

After Linda took her daughter upstairs to go home, Lin Hao, who had been standing at a distance silently watching this scene of them, was even more silent. In a trance, the words Shen Xiyang had said to him before came back to him in his mind.

‘Lin Hao, how do you think I’m not pregnant yet? It’s so sad’ that time after Lin Hao came back from Western Europe, Shen Xiyang said to him one day after she woke up in the morning with a pregnancy test in her hand.

At that time he smiled and hugged Shen Xi Yan and said, ‘Let nature take its course, it’s not like you can get pregnant in a hurry, do you want us to do it again to increase your chances of getting pregnant?’

Chapter 820

Shen Xiyang was blushing like a ripe red apple, shaking her head and saying, ‘Humph, no way, big bad egg, you’re bad, you just know how to bully me, mmm no more ah, it tickles mmm’

‘Xiyang, if that hadn’t happened, then wouldn’t we have had a child of our own when we wait for next year? You’re so kind, I’m sure you’re especially fond of little babies, and I’m also sure that you’ll be a good mother, right?’ Lin Hao looked at the faint light of Linda’s room in the distance and murmured, only unknowingly, he had long since burst into tears.

The moment Lin Hao turned around, a long-lost murderous intent appeared in his eyes, a murderous intent of unparalleled intensity!

A dozen miles away on the unknown pier where Lin Hao had been working for over a month, at this moment inside Linda's office, three Western Europeans, two white and one black, were drinking and smoking and chatting, while there were still Linda's underwear scattered on the floor, already torn to pieces by them, and the three were laughing with great glee.

'Haha, I'd say this woman, Linda, is really nice, with him around, I'd like to come over to this little pier more often' said one white man with a laugh.

Another white man played with Linda's underwear in his hand, put it under his nose and sniffed it, then took a sip of his beer and smiled, 'Well yeah, I just love the smell of this woman, and she's clean and not sick, haha'

The last black man also laughed and took a big gulp of his drink, 'Tonight was really exciting, let's come back in a few days haha, but we need to do something for her too, like ask the company for a raise in her salary and more bonuses so she can not resist and serve a few of us well'

'Mmmmmm, that makes sense, let's do that, we'll give her a raise tomorrow when we get back' the two white men said in unison. All three of them obviously treated Linda like a complete plaything, grabbing hold of her to raise her children and bullying her in various ways.

Only the next moment, as the three in the room were chatting wantonly, the door to the office was suddenly kicked open from the outside. And the kick was so strong that the entire door toppled to the floor at once? Lu Xi Ai Fei Ai Fei Fei Cover? on. The next moment, the figure of Lin Hao walked in, an ice-cold killing aura permeating Lin Hao's body.

'Who are you? Get out of here

The white man who was closest to the doorway, seeing Lin Hao suddenly barge in, stood up with a bottle of wine and yelled at Lin Hao. The bottle in his hand also smashed at Lin Hao's head.

A loud bang came out, the bottle in the white man's hand did not hit Lin Hao's head, instead Lin Hao grabbed the bottle in his hand with his backhand and plunged it directly into his head, the bottle exploded and half of the sharp part of the bottle was embedded deep into the white man's head.

But even so, the white man was still not dead, still conscious, his fingers trembling as he pointed at Lin Hao with a look of disbelief, but at this moment his eyes were finally filled with fear and he desperately tried to run out.

Pfft but he never had a chance because Lin Hao had already quickly pulled out the wine bottle that was stuck into his head and started to frantically pierce it on various parts of his body. It must be said that the Khan's life force was tenacious enough, after being pierced by Lin Hao with the bottle a dozen times, he was still alive and conscious, but his legs had been broken by Lin Hao and he couldn't run out at all

Ten minutes later, Lin Hao walked out of the office and deliberately showed his face in front of the cameras around the warehouse to prove that he had killed these three people, and then he left the place completely

After Lin Hao left, the three men who bullied Linda inside the original office where Linda was, were dead beyond repair, and each of them had suffered great pain, extreme pain, before they died. This kind of scum Lin Hao had not intended to let them die painfully, so he had deliberately ended their lives in a most painful way. And that part of the three of them was even chopped into mush.

Very late at night, a dozen wild dogs suddenly appeared on the construction site, wild dogs whose eyes were a little green with hunger, and those wild dogs, after appearing, ran wildly to Linda's office directly after smelling the smell of blood

Of course this was something Lin Hao didn't expect, he didn't expect that after he left, a dozen wild dogs that were so hungry and faint would actually rush in, but even if he knew, the only thing he could feel was pain.

And that night, near this pier, in the direction of Linda's company, there was more than one such tragedy, more than a dozen, and those were the people who had bullied Linda. This night, in his anger, Lin Hao took the cruelest form and let them leave this world forever.
