

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 251 -

Although Alex had not moved his household register yet, in fact, he had taken root in Quill City. Recently, he had been busy and had no time to go back to the village. This time, he rarely came back. He persuaded Francis again in person, hoping that Francis would live with him in the city.

The second priority was to enjoy his old age. The main reason was that the medical conditions in the city were better.

However, Francis was determined to stay in his hometown and began to work for his job. It was said that he had signed up with the villagers to plant medicinal materials for Hengkang Pharmaceutical Company. The monthly salary was estimated to be more than 4,000 yuan. For the farmers, the treatment was quite good.

Alex didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "Dad, I bought you a Mercedes worth two million yuan and you even got a driver. With this condition, do you still have to do hard work with a monthly salary of 4,000 yuan? How can you do this? Besides, I am the second largest shareholder of Hengkang Pharmaceutical Company, and you are my father. Who dares to order you?"

Francis waved his hand and said, "I'll stay in the village, and I won't go out. Even if I want to go out, I can just hang up the bus. There's no need for such a big show. Alex, you can withdraw the car and the driver. As for the work... I won't expose my identity, okay?"

"Hey, why are you doing this?" Alex couldn't persuade Francis, so he could only follow the old man's words. After thinking for a while, he said, "Dad, let's take a step back. I can promise you to stay in the countryside, but you have to listen to me for other things, such as the car and the driver. I won't withdraw. I'll arrange your work for you."

"No problem, no problem. As long as you are willing to let me stay in the countryside, the rest will be up to you!"

"That's settled then!"

Alex immediately called the person who was sent here to recruit workers. After a brief discussion, he arranged a position for Francis, which was equivalent to the messenger. There were two main tasks. One was to connect the relationship between the person in charge of Hengkang Pharmaceutical Company and the workers, and the other was to assist the person in charge of making tasks for the workers.

This position sounded quite busy, but in fact, it was just an idle job.

Francis didn't need to spend much time and effort on these two tasks.

In this way, Francis only needed to run away and talk freely. He didn't need to do farm work personally.

As for the salary... in order not to create any estrangement between Francis and the villagers, the salary was distributed according to the standard of ordinary workers. Anyway, Alex arranged this position for Francis just to find a time-saving job for him. He did not expect him to make much money, and their family was not short of money at all...

Alex was in a hurry to take Jiang Peng to the hospital for medical treatment. After chatting with Francis, he left in a hurry.

After dealing with Pei Chong today, there were not many security problems for the time being.

Let Xie Laosi arrange for the brothers in the village to replace Jiang Peng and temporarily take care of Francis for a few days.

Big Ken drove the Lamborghini back to Quill City with Alex and Jiang Peng and rushed straight to the military hospital.

After Alex asked the doctor to treat the injuries on his body, he quickly came to the outside of the ward of Cynthia and asked Hunter, Wang Shunrong, and others who were guarding at the door, "How is Cynthia now?"

Wang Shunquan shook his head. "As usual. She didn't know anyone. She didn't care about anyone."

"Oh... uncle, aunt, don't worry too much. To be honest, it's an unexpected surprise that Cynthia can wake up so quickly after suffering such a serious injury. It's just beginning to recover. Whether it's physical or mental recovery, it will take enough time. We must keep our patience. I believe that in the end, she will recover as usual!"

"Thank you for your auspicious words, President Alex. We also firmly believe that she will get better..."

Just then, a nurse came out of the ward.

Alex quickly went up to her and asked, "Nurse, is the wounded awake now?"

The nurse nodded. "She's awake. I've just changed her medicine, so you can go in and see her. But... judging from her current state, don't disturb her too much."

"I see. Thank you, nurse."

Alex watched the nurse leave and followed Wang Shunquan and the others into the ward.

Wang Shunquan, Liu Yunxiu, and Hunter just stood by the bed and stared at Cynthia. After some encouragement, they walked out. Alex stayed behind, closed the door, went back to the bedside, took out his mobile phone, and slowly said to Cynthia, "Cynthia beauty, I don't know if you can understand what I'm talking about now, but I think it's necessary to tell you something. The person who kidnapped you that day was Pei Chong, and his men were all killed by us. They either had a car accident or were shot or killed. Anyway, they all died a terrible death. It's a price for all their evil deeds. By the way, I took a picture of Pei Chong died in the sea of fire. Take a look..."

As Alex spoke, he clicked on the video on his mobile phone. From the corner of his eyes, he noticed that Cynthia's eyes lit up when she saw the video, and her eyes were obviously squinting.

From this, it could be seen that Cynthia was indeed pretending to be stupid and was very interested in revenge.

It was no exaggeration to say that revenge was the best healing medicine for Cynthia!

Alex pretended not to notice the reaction of Cynthia. After putting down the video, he put the phone in his pocket, looked up at the sky and sighed. Then he continued slowly, "Cynthia, there is one more thing. Before he died, Pei Chong knelt on the ground to confess to you and told the whole story of the kidnapping. I didn't expect that it was ordered by Jared... However, I didn't intend to let the police take Jared away, nor did I want to investigate. I just wanted to find an opportunity to kill him. The kidnapping was caused by me, and I will be responsible for it to the end. When I kill Jared, I will tell you the truth as soon as possible. You should take good care of yourself and wait for my good news!"

Cynthia's expression did not change at this moment, but her hands, which were covered by the quilt, were tightly clenched.

When she heard the words "Jared", her eyes flashed again, and then tears flowed from the corners of her eyes.

This scene once again strengthened the determination of Alex to seek revenge on Jared.

Alex continued to act, pretending not to have noticed Cynthia's tears.

The reason why Alex wanted to say this was not to spread salt on Cynthia's wound, but to let Cynthia know that Jared who hurt her the most would not live long. In addition, he also wanted to euphemistically tell her that those who knew that she had been raped by Jared might be dead or would die soon, and no one else would know.

That matter would become a secret that no one but her knew.

Alex realized that Cynthia had been stimulated, and he was also a little excited. Especially the flowing tears at the corner of Cynthia's eyes, which deeply stung his heart. He got up and left the ward and returned to the car. His expression had not yet recovered. He exhaled a mouthful of murky air and suddenly said, "Brother Big Ken, I want to kill!"

Big Ken was not surprised. He nodded gently and said, "Young Master, are you talking about Jared?"

"That's right! If we don't kill him, the hatred between me and Cynthia will not be solved!"

"Young Master, I'm willing to serve you."

"I want to kill him myself."

"No! Young Master, in order not to cause you unnecessary trouble, I can't let you do it yourself. Although this kind of thing can be settled with connections, you are a businessman, so don't get too much blood on your hands. Even if you don't care now, you have to consider the future. If you are exposed by someone with ulterior motives at a critical moment and treated as a murderer, the consequences may be very serious."

"But..."

"I'm sorry, young master. This matter has no room for negotiation! If you want to kill a small character, I can ignore it, but Jared is not an ordinary person. It's easy to kill him, just a bullet. But after shooting, there will be a lot of potential trouble. You can't kill him personally, but... as long as the time is allowed; I can let you see him leave this world with your own eyes!"

Alex was a little stunned by the sudden seriousness of Big Ken. After thinking for a while, he nodded and agreed. "Big Ken, I know you're doing this for my own good, so I'll do as you say. Then, how do you think we can kill him?"

Big Ken answered without hesitation, "The best way... is to sniping!"

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 252 -

"That makes sense!"

Alex had seen the power of the sniper rifle several times and was deeply touched.

There was no doubt that sniper rifles were the most suitable weapons for assassination. Not to mention their lethality, long-range attacks didn't even need to get close to the target, so they wouldn't leave any evidence and could maximize the ideal effect of killing people.

However, there was a necessity to sniping, which was to find a hidden place and directly see the target.

Alex and Big Ken discussed it. Since it was not easy to determine the location of Jared during the day, they decided not to take action. They decided to set the time at night and set the shooting location at the home of Jared.

No matter how happy Jared was outside and how crazily he played, he would always go home.

After the discussion, Alex and Big Ken immediately rushed to the residence of Jared, which was located in a villa area in the eastern suburbs.

Jared's family was not short of money. They chose a luxurious villa area developed by their own family. They bought an artificial lake and artificial hill in front of them, a small river behind them, and a large detached villa on the top of the mountain. The front side of the villa was flat, and there were many buildings and people. Obviously, it was not suitable for sniping.

However, Big Ken's attention was attracted by the mountaintop across the river.

Big Ken sat in the car, took out his telescope, and examined it carefully. He said to Alex, "I estimate that the top of the mountain is less than 700 meters away from the villa area. As long as I climb to the mountainside above the top of the mountain, I can see the Xavier family's villa directly. At that time, as long as Jared is attracted to the window behind the villa, I am sure that I can kill him!"

"Okay!"

Alex patted his thigh and said, "That's settled! Do you want to go to the top of the mountain and choose the sniping place now?"

"Don't worry! It's daytime now, so it's not good for us to show up here. When it's dark, we'll go for a field investigation. In addition, we need to observe and summarize the schedule of Jared, such as when he will go home. Once I grasp this rule, I can move faster. I don't need to waste too much time on the top of the mountain."

"I see. I'll arrange it now."

Alex immediately took out his mobile phone and called Xie Laosi, asking him to pay close attention to the daily routine of Jared.

On this matter, Alex became much more cautious after being reminded by Big Ken. He did not intend to tell anyone about the plan to kill Jared, including Xie Laosi. He just asked Xie Laosi to keep an eye on Jared's movements at all times, so that he could find Jared as soon as possible when necessary and did not mention the plan to kill Jared.

At eight o'clock in the evening, Alex and Big Ken set off.

Big Ken did not go directly to the eastern suburbs, but first to the southern suburbs, and then from the countryside to the eastern suburbs, directly to the foot of the mountain where the target was located. He did this to avoid the cameras in the urban area. If he went directly from the city to the eastern suburbs, he could find their whereabouts through the cameras.

Without turning on the lights, they climbed up the mountain path under the moonlight.

When it was almost 11 o'clock, they finally climbed to a col halfway up the mountain.

Big Ken took out two binoculars from his backpack. Alex took one, fumbled for focus, and then found the villa of the Xavier family. He looked at it carefully and said softly, "Brother Big Ken, I feel that this place is enough. I can almost see the back of the whole villa completely!"

"Yes."

Big Ken nodded and said, "The only problem is that if Jared lives in the room in the front, we have to find a way to attract him to the room in the back. Of course, if we can call him to the roof, it will be great."

"Buzz buzz buzz!"

While they were talking, Alex's cell phone rang. When he saw that it was from Xie Laosi, he quickly answered, "Xie Laosi, what's wrong?"

Xie Laosi's voice came from the other end of the line. "Mr. Alex, a brother just reported that Jared left with a beautiful woman from an entertainment venue. Judging from the way they went, they seemed to have returned home."

"I see..." Alex pretended to yawn and said, "Continue to observe."

"President Alex, are you resting?"

"That's right. I've been running for a whole day and I'm a little tired. I've been lying down for a while. Xie Laosi, you've all worked hard. Let the brothers who changed shifts rest early. However, if there's anything important, you have to report it to me in time."

"Okay, Mr. Alex. You can rest first. Goodbye."

“Goodbye!”

Alex hung up the phone and looked at Big Ken with hope. “Did you bring the sniper rifle?”

Since Big Ken noticed that Alex had created the illusion that Alex had fallen asleep, he guessed that Alex was going to take action today. In the future, if someone asked about it, Xie LaosiXie Laosi could provide Alex with an alibi. It was better to choose a day than today. Since Jared had returned home today, it was the right time to take action.

Whether he succeeded or not, he should give it a try!

What if he was so lucky that he succeeded today?

Big Ken immediately dropped the binoculars and said to Alex, “Young master, you stay here and watch. The sniper rifle is in the car. I’ll get it now. Jared is still on the way home. I’ll try my best to be faster. It should be enough! Be careful, don’t look at the mobile phone as much as possible, and don’t make any other lights. Be well-hidden!”

“Understood!”

Alex nodded heavily and put the phone on the ground. He watched Big Ken go down the mountain, picked up the telescope again, and focused on it.

About half an hour later, two lights appeared in the target villa area. A car had entered the villa area.

Alex adjusted the focal point again, and once again saw how powerful the equipment Big Ken provided was. From over six hundred meters away, one could see the general outline of that car through the binoculars. It was a Land Range Rover, precisely Jared’s vehicle.

The Range Rover turned to the Xavier family’s villa, and then it was blocked by the house and couldn’t be seen.

But ten minutes later, Big Ken came up with a sniper rifle on his back. The room at the back of the Xavier’s villa was not turned on, indicating that Jared didn’t live in the back room.

Big Ken understood the situation and could not help but frown. “It’s not easy. How can we attract him? Young Master, if you can’t, you can go back first. I’ll stay here and watch. When he goes out at dawn, I’ll see if I can’t find a chance to kill him.”

Alex shook his head and said, “Then don’t you have to stay here all night? It’s too tiring. No, no, no! It’s not worth it to die for killing him. Besides, it’s not convenient to fight during the day. Let's think of another way. If it really doesn't work, we can find another chance..."

"Young Master, how about... you call him and tell him that you are at the entrance and exit of the villa area and ask him out to meet you? If he goes out of the door to the road, maybe I can find the right opportunity."

"Sure! Brother Big Ken, I've come up with a better idea!"

Alex's head also opened. As he spoke, he excitedly took out his mobile phone.

Big Ken didn't ask Alex what kind of good idea he had come up with. He just pressed Alex's arm, took out his mobile phone, and said, "Young master, the call you made with him is very likely the last call he made when he was alive. For safety's sake, you can't use your number. The No. 2 card installed in my mobile phone is a black card, and it has never been used before. Use this number to call him!"

"Okay!"

Alex took the phone from Big Ken and quickly dialed Jared's number with the second card.

At this time, in a bedroom in front of the second floor of the Xavier's villa, Jared had just taken a shower and rushed to the bed, ready to get to work with the young woman he brought back. The urgent ringtone of his mobile phone suddenly rang. He picked up his mobile phone and glanced at it. When he saw that it was an unknown number, he hung up directly.

When the number was called for the second time, he turned off the ringtone and decided to leave it alone.

Two minutes later, the young woman rushed into the bathroom.

Jared, who had entered the state of a sage, leaned weakly against the pillow and lit up the cigarette after the incident. He took a few leisurely breaths and recovered a little strength. Then, he picked up the phone with one hand and picked up the missed call. After looking carefully, he confirmed that he had no impression of the number and called back. When the phone was connected, he asked impatiently, "Who is it?"

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 253 -

Halfway up the mountain, Alex took a deep breath and said to the mobile phone in an as calm tone as possible, "Jared, when we met last time, I told you that when I finish the knot with Pei Chong, it's time for us to settle our debts. Now Pei Chong is dead. When do you want to settle our debts?"

“Hiss...”

Jared immediately frowned, subconsciously looked at the number again, and shouted at the mobile phone, “Alex? Are you fucking sick? Why are you calling me in the middle of the night? You don’t fucking dare to call me with the commonly used number. Do you think that I won’t answer it with the commonly used number?”

“Cut the crap. Let’s get down to business!”

“What business do you have with me? Alex, if you want to settle accounts with me, come here during the day. Let’s settle it face to face. What’s wrong with the phone? It’s late at night. If you don’t sleep, I still have to sleep. I’m hanging up!”

When Jared heard that it was Alex on the other end, he was furious.

He had planned to kill Alex with Pei Chong’s help. However, Pei Chong was defeated by Alex just like Lei Yunpeng. He couldn’t swallow his anger. He couldn’t find anyone who could deal with Alex in a short time, so he found a material woman and brought her back to vent his anger.

He had just vented his anger when he heard Alex’s voice before he finished smoking the cigarette, which was known as “the Living God”.

The two minutes just now were in vain.

He roared at his phone and was about to hang up.

But before Alex reached his goal, he said to the mobile phone, “Jared, if you don’t want to sit in prison, don’t hang up the phone in a hurry!”

“What do you mean?” Jared glared at him and said, “Alex, you want to blackmail me?”

“Jared, do you know that Cynthia has been rescued?”

“What? No... What does this have to do with me?”

“I’ve already made it clear. Do you still want to pretend? Then I’ll tell you one more thing. Pei Chong told me the details of the kidnapping of the hostages before he knelt down to beg me for mercy before he died. I didn’t expect you to go to the place where the hostages were held. You also did something worse than a beast to force Cynthia to jump off the building. Do you think no one knows all this? Do you think you can escape the punishment of the law?”

Hearing this, Jared suddenly panicked. He suddenly recovered a lot of strength and jumped down from the bed. He walked over and closed the door of the bathroom. Then he walked to the window and said in a low voice, “Alex, you fucking slandered me!

When did I go to the place where the hostages were held? Besides, Pei Chong didn't personally watch the hostages. How could he know so clearly?"

"How do you know that Pei Chong didn't personally watch the hostages?"

"I..."

"Even if Pei Chong doesn't know the inside story, how can Cynthia not know what she has experienced?"

Alex felt that the foundation was almost ready, so he cut to the chase. "Jared, with your current attitude, we can't talk at all. I have recorded the scene that Pei Chong told us and the scene that Cynthia talked about what happened to her. I have copied a copy of it in a USB flash drive and threw it behind your villa. When you have time, take a good look at it, and then we can talk! Okay, hang up!"

"Wait, wait, wait! Don't hang up!"

This time, it was Jared's turn not to hang up, but Alex decisively hung up.

Without hesitation, Jared put on his night robe and slippers, quickly went downstairs, and ran to the back of the villa.

The bodyguard on duty at night quickly went up to him. "Young Master, where are you going at night? Do you need help?"

"Get lost! Don't disturb me!"

Jared was burning with anxiety. He ordered the bodyguards to retreat and ran to the back of the villa as fast as he could. He turned on the street lights, turned on the flashlight of his mobile phone, and searched along the corner of the wall, but found nothing. After thinking for a while, he wiped the cold sweat on his forehead and dialed Alex's number. "Are you fucking happy with me? Where did you put the USB disk?"

Alex held a telescope in his left hand and stared at Jared from a distance. He held the mobile phone in his right hand and said slowly, "It doesn't matter whether there is a USB flash drive or not. What's important is that from the way you ran to the back of the villa to find the USB flash drive, it can be seen that what I said just now is true. If that's not the case, are you in such a hurry to find the USB flash drive?"

"I... You are fucking fooling me! Alex, even if your guess is right, do you have any evidence? Do you think the police station is run by your family? Do you want me to go to jail with just your one-sided words? You are too naive!"

"Go to jail? It's too easy for you to go to jail. Besides, you don't have that chance."

“What do you mean? Alex, what the hell do you want to do?”

“Jared, the only reason I called you is to say goodbye to you. No... It should be farewell forever! Listen to my advice, if there is a next life; remember to be a good person. Otherwise, you still can't escape the fate of this life...”

After Alex finished speaking, he put down the phone without waiting for Jared's response.

Big Ken, who was already ready, pulled the trigger without hesitation.

The huge recoil caused the sniper rifle to tremble, and even Big Ken's body trembled.

Jared, who was standing sideways by the wall, was stunned. Before he could call Alex back to ask what was going on, and even before he could take down the mobile phone that was raised in his ear, a huge sniper bullet whizzed over. After breaking the phone, it penetrated his head, but it still did not stop and fell into the wall.

Jared, like his poor phone, was dead.

Unless he invited Goddess Nvywa, he would not even have a chance to save her.

For a time, the blood fog and debris intertwined, and under the light, it looked extremely tragic.

Although the bodyguards who had been reprimanded by Jared did not follow, they had been guarding on the side of the villa. When they heard the sound, they realized that something was wrong and quickly ran over. When they got close to Jared, they were scared out of their wits and sat down on the ground, unable to speak...

Halfway up the mountain, Big Ken confirmed that he had hit the target through the telescopic sight. Based on his trust in himself and the sniper rifle, he did not look at it more. With a smooth movement, he dismantled the sniper rifle into a pile of parts and put it in the box that was specially used to place the sniper rifle. Then, he patted Alex's arm and said, “Young master, it's time to withdraw!”

Alex saw with his own eyes the entire process of Jared being shot to death. He was extremely excited, but at the same time, he was deeply shocked. Under Big Ken's reminder, he suddenly came to his senses. He quickly put away his phone and binoculars, followed Big Ken down the mountain, and left the scene in a hurry.

On the way back, Big Ken handed a shell to Alex. “Young Master, this is the shell used to kill Jared's bullet. I think it's worth collecting. Take it.”

Alex took the shell and nodded. “Thank you, Brother Big Ken.”

"You're welcome. It's my duty to help you solve your problems. Young Master, there are two things I have to tell you. You must remember them. If someone asks, just say that you go home early tonight to rest, and then you didn't go out. The car key is always on me, and you don't know if I drove out. Also, don't admit that you were the one who called Jared last time! I will destroy the black card later. Even if someone suspects you, they can't get any solid evidence."

"I see. Brother Big Ken, will you get into trouble because of this?"

"Normally, I won't. I've done enough to hide myself. Even the sniper bullet I used just now is different from what I usually used."

"Okay!"

Alex nodded with satisfaction and said nothing more.

Time passed quickly. In a flash, it was dawn, and the sun rose as usual.

However, some people couldn't see the sun today.

Gerald lost his son in pain and was heartbroken. At the same time, he ordered the police to investigate the murderer; he also issued a ban to block the news. However, there was no airtight wall in the world. In less than noon, the news that Jared was killed in the backyard of his family caused a sensation in the media circle of the whole Quill City and became a hot topic of discussion.

This explosive news also cured the amnesia of a female injured woman in the military hospital...

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 254 -

It was close to noon when Wang Shunquan grabbed Cynthia's hand and sat silently by the bed.

Liu Yunxiu sat on the other side of the hospital bed, feeding Cynthia with a small spoon.

Hunter and Isla were sitting by the side, enjoying the limited time when they were allowed to get along with Cynthia by doctors.

All of a sudden, Isla's mobile phone rang. She took out her mobile phone and looked at it. She found that it was a piece of information on a local financial channel on a news app downloaded by her. It was the hot news that Jared, the son of Gerald, had been mysteriously killed.

To be exact, this was not a piece of financial news, but Isla stood up suddenly and couldn't help exclaiming, "What's going on? Is Jared dead?"

The others present did not react much, except for Cynthia, who was lying on the hospital bed. Her eyes suddenly widened and she stared straight at Isla. For a moment, she forgot to swallow the nutritious porridge wrapped in her mouth and involuntarily increased her strength.

Wang Shunquan could feel Cynthia's sudden increase in strength. He was the first to notice Cynthia's abnormality and asked with concern, "Cynthia, what's wrong? What... what's wrong with you? Don't scare me!"

Then, the others present also noticed the abnormality of Cynthia and rushed over to ask.

Tears rolled down the corners of Cynthia's eyes. She bit her lips and looked at the people present one by one. Then she shook her head and said softly, "I'm fine, I'm fine..."

Hearing this, everyone was shocked.

Isla rushed to the bedside and stared at Cynthia with hope. "Can you understand what we said? Have you regained your memory?"

Hunter also came over. "Cynthia, do you remember who we are?"

Cynthia cried even harder. Before Wang Shunquan and Liu Yunxiu could speak, she replied, "Dad, Mom, Lala, I'm sorry to have made you worry. I... I'm fine now."

Everyone present cared about Cynthia the most, so no one blamed her.

What's more, now she had finally "recover" her memory. Everyone was overjoyed.

The doctor suggested that every time they spent at most half an hour with Cynthia, everyone seized the time to talk to Cynthia. In the process of communication, Isla found a problem, which was that Cynthia treated her and the Wang family's elders the same, but she was a little indifferent to Hunter.

Hunter himself was more touched. No matter what he said, Cynthia pretended not to hear him, but chatted with the others.

Soon, half an hour had passed. Although everyone was very reluctant to leave, in order to make Cynthia recover faster, they obeyed the doctor's advice at the same time and left one after another to let Cynthia continue to rest.

Hunter felt very uncomfortable, both uncomfortable and anxious. He politely invited Isla to the corridor and asked, "Boss Isla, did you find that Cynthia seems to only remember you, and still has no impression of me? Could it be... could it be that she chose to forget me?"

“No, she won’t...”

Isla couldn’t figure it out. While she was thinking about how to comfort Hunter, she saw Alex and Big Ken coming out of the elevator.

Alex also saw Isla and Hunter at a glance. He quickly walked over and asked curiously, “What are you doing here? How is Cynthia?”

Isla replied with a bitter face, “Cynthia has recovered her memory.”

“Really? This is a good thing, but it seems that both of you are not happy. What’s going on?”

“Cynthia... Hey, come with me first!” There were some things that Isla could not say in front of Hunter, so she called Alex to the corridor upstairs and said softly, “I don’t know why, but it seems that she doesn’t want to talk to Hunter.”

“Ah? Maybe it’s because Cynthia is in low spirits now, so she can’t be enthusiastic to anyone.”

“That’s not it! Cynthia and her parents have a very normal communication, also with me, almost the same as usual. Only she is very abnormal to Hunter, as if she is deliberately avoiding Hunter. Not only did she not communicate with Hunter, but she did not even look at Hunter from beginning to end. It feels like... she has met an enemy. If she still does not remember who Hunter is, it will be better to accept it. The key is that she did know Hunter, but deliberately chose to ignore him.”

“Oh...”

Alex guessed the reason why Cynthia’s attitude toward Hunter was abnormal.

In fact, Alex had expected such a situation to happen. If Hunter and Cynthia were just ordinary friends, the relationship between them would not change. The problem was that Hunter was pursuing Cynthia, and they had a good impression of each other, but they had not pierced through the last layer of window paper.

If the kidnapping had not happened, perhaps they had already established a relationship now.

However, something unexpected happened. Cynthia had been raped by Jared. She must be worried that Hunter would dislike her when he knew about this, so she took the initiative to distance herself from Hunter. Maybe Cynthia was ashamed of herself and thought that she was not worthy of Hunter. As the saying goes, long-term pain is better than short-term pain. She wanted to hurt Hunter in the way of making Hunter give up on her.

Alex could guess what Cynthia was thinking, but he couldn't say it out loud.

Isla was a little surprised by Alex's reaction. She asked curiously, "Alex, why are you so calm? Don't you feel surprised? Don't you feel anxious for Cynthia and Hunter? You know, they were in a good relationship. Logically speaking, Cynthia's attitude toward Hunter shouldn't have changed so much. To tell you the truth, even if they are not suitable for each other, Cynthia should talk about it clearly as soon as possible! The longer it takes, the greater the damage to Hunter."

"I know. I know..." Alex nodded repeatedly, pressed on Isla's shoulder, and comforted her. "I know what you're talking about, but now we don't know what's going on. It's useless to be anxious. How about this, let's take a break first. When Cynthia is almost fully recovered, we can communicate normally."

"We are all outsiders. We can keep waiting, but Hunter can't hold on any longer."

"I'll talk to Hunter..."

Alex didn't think of a good way. The only thing he could do now was to buy as much time as possible.

On the premise that he could not tell the truth, Alex could only lie to Hunter that Cynthia had just recovered, and there were still some problems with her brain. To put it simply, Cynthia's mind had not fully recovered yet, and she needed enough time.

Hunter was dubious. Considering that Alex would not hurt him, he nodded and agreed.

On the other side, in the Xavier family's villa.

Captain Pang, who was in charge of the case of Jared being shot to death, conducted a detailed investigation. Then, he learned more about the situation of the Xavier family, and then ordered his men to withdraw. He said to Gerald, "Mr. Xavier, we will try our best to solve the case and arrest the murderer. Since the cause of the murder has been confirmed by the medical examiner, there is no need to conduct further tests. We can deal with it. If there is any progress in the investigation of our police, we will tell you in time. Please don't be sad!"

"Wait a minute!" Gerald stopped Captain Pang and asked coldly, "What are you going to do?"

"Well... to be honest, the situation I know is too limited and I don't have any clue yet, but I will investigate from many sides and try to solve the case as soon as possible. Mr. Xavier, I understand your mood and know that you are in a hurry to seek justice for your son. But... this matter can't be rushed."

"It's not your son who died. You don't understand!"

“Mr. Xavier, your words are a little unkind... Forget it, goodbye!”

“Why are you in such a hurry? I haven’t finished speaking yet! Group Leader Pang, don’t you have a clue? I can give you a breakthrough point. Alex said before that after dealing with the grievances with Pei Chong, he will find my son to solve the problem. As soon as Pei Chong died, my son had an accident. I can tell with my foot that it must have been done by Alex. So there is no need to do any other investigation on this case. As long as we arrest Alex and interrogate him, we can solve the case.”

“Mr. Xavier, I’ll remember what you’ve said. Don’t worry; I’ll do my best to investigate. If I find conclusive evidence, I’ll arrest him and interrogate him. However, based on your speculation just now, I can’t apply for warrant of arrest.”

“What do you mean? You don’t believe me?”

“The subject of the case is evidence, not subjective speculation. Mr. Xavier, please understand. Goodbye!”

Group Leader Pang was too lazy to deal with people like Gerald, let alone talk nonsense. After that, he left.

Gerald wanted to stop Captain Pang, but he was stopped by two police officers. After watching the police leave, he came to the duty room, glanced at the bodyguards, and asked, “Who was on duty last night?”

When something happened at home, all the bodyguards kept quiet.

Whether it was the night shift or the day shift, neither of them dared to rest. They were all waiting at the duty room.

The bodyguard who was on duty last night knew that a disaster was coming and he couldn’t escape. He didn’t dare to look straight into Gerald’s eyes. After hesitating for a moment, he forced himself to take a small step forward, lowered his head, and said with fear, “Master, it’s me. I’m sorry...”

“Pa!”

“Clap clap!”

“Clap clap clap!”

“Bang!”

Gerald rushed to the bodyguard angrily, grabbed his collar with his left hand, and raised his right hand to shoot his left and right cheeks. His hand was numb, and then he kicked him hard to the ground. He scolded fiercely, “I spent money to support you, so that you can guarantee the safety of my family! As a result, you fucking let my son be hurt in the backyard. How the fuck did you do this? Ah?”

The bodyguard fell to the ground and was beaten black and blue. His face was covered with blue fingerprints, and blood was dripping from his nostrils and mouth corners. After he got up, he didn't dare to wipe the blood and didn't dare to breathe. He hurriedly explained, “I'm sorry, Master. Last night when Young Master went downstairs, I asked him, but Young Master said that he didn't need help, so he ordered me not to follow him...”

“Pa!”

Gerald slapped the bodyguard again, gritted his teeth, and scolded, “At this time, are you still looking for an excuse for your mistake in work?”

“Yes, yes, yes! Master, I know I was wrong...”

“It's useless for you to know your mistake!” Gerald glanced at the other bodyguards and said, “And you, don't think you have no responsibility! But the most urgent thing is to find out the murderer, which is also your task. I'll give you three days. If you can't find the murderer within three days, you can bring your heads to meet me!”

“Yes, yes, yes!”

All the bodyguards trembled with fear and nodded repeatedly.

The bodyguard, whose eyes were blurred by stars after being beaten, plucked up his courage and said, “Master, Young Master brought back a woman last night. Although Young Master didn't bring that woman with him when he went downstairs last night, she should know more or less about the situation, or...”

“Pa!”

Gerald was so angry that he slapped the bodyguard again. “Why didn't you tell me such important information earlier? Why are you still standing there? Hurry up and take action. You have three hours to bring that woman to me!”

“Yes, yes, yes!”

The bodyguards were relieved and rushed out.

However, they were not in the mood to catch the murderer. Instead, they ran for their lives.

Because they all knew that with Gerald's personality, even if they found the murderer, he would not let them go.

Instead of waiting for death here, it was better to get out of danger as soon as possible...

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 255 -

Especially the bodyguard whose head was buzzing after being beaten, he was like a mute who was suffering. He didn't dare to contradict Gerald, but he couldn't bear it. He secretly thought of a good idea to take revenge on Gerald. After leaving the villa, he immediately found a black Internet cafe, logged into the cloud disk, and began to download a lot of things.

As the bodyguard of the Xavier family, he knew very well that the Xavier father and son were not good people. He also knew that the Xavier father and son had never regarded them as people. He was dissatisfied, so he secretly collected a lot of evidence of the Xavier father and son's evil deeds, including the photos, recording, and video of the meeting between the Xavier father and son at home with gangsters, drug dealers, and so on.

Not only him, but also other bodyguards had secretly collected some and kept them together.

What he was currently downloaded was all the evidence they had collected.

After download it, he packed and compressed it. He sent an anonymous email to the public announcement of the Municipal Public Security Bureau and posted all the information on the local forum. After all this, he took a taxi and set off on the journey to leave Quill City...

At this time, Captain Pang was busy at the foot of the mountain opposite the villa area.

The police found the position of the sniper according to the bullet marks that had been shot into the wall. It was located on the top of the mountain by laser beams. The police officers of the technical department had found several suspicious sniping places halfway up the mountain. Then Captain Pang came over in person and ordered them to block the way into the mountain, ready to go up and have a look in person.

Just as Group Leader Pang had made the necessary arrangements and was about to go up the mountain, a young policeman ran over in a hurry, bowed to Group Leader Pang, and reported respectfully, "Group Leader Pang, I have something important to report to you..."

Group Leader Pang's interest was immediately aroused. "Speak quickly!"

"The police have just submitted the report materials, which have something to do with Gerald and Jared. The colleague who is responsible for review the report materials has initially confirmed that the Xavier father and son have recently been in close contact with Pei Chong, the subordinate of the big poison owl Jing Kun...”

“Oh? I’ll go back and have a look!”

Captain Pang changed the schedule without hesitation and drove to the Municipal Bureau.

On the other side, Gerald waited for a few hours, but he didn’t see the bodyguards bring the woman back, and none of them could be contacted. Realizing that those people might have run away, he immediately mobilized a large number of professional security guards from the security department of Grand Express Corporation and divided them into three groups. The first group was responsible for finding the woman, and the second group was responsible for tracking the group of bodyguards who had become deserters.

The third group was a mobile force composed of elite soldiers and generals personally selected by Gerald for him to command.

Gerald was getting angrier and angrier. He didn’t want to wait any longer, so he rushed to Gold Stone with the three groups and directly blocked the door. He specifically said that he wanted to find Alex. He also said that if he couldn’t see Alex today, he would smash the company.

It was not a joke. Several security guards came with big hammers.

As the top leader of the company, Felix couldn’t do this, so he could only call Alex. At the same time, he organized all the security guards and some male staff of the company, forming a confrontation with the people on the other side of Gerald at the door. Although there were few people, and they couldn’t resist the other side at first glance, they couldn’t lose in momentum.

When Alex heard about this, he did not dare to delay at all. With the company of Big Ken, he rushed to Gold Stone as fast as he could.

When Gerald saw Alex coming out of the elevator, he was so angry that he rushed forward with a red face. “Alex, are you still a fucking human? You killed Jared just because he had a little conflict with you? He is only in his twenties, and he is not married yet...”

“Stop!”

Big Ken stepped forward and stood in front of Alex. Facing a group of fierce opponents, he was not afraid at all. He reached out to stop Gerald and shouted, “Gerald, you’d better stand outside the safe distance and don’t get too close. Otherwise, don’t blame me for being rude to you.”

Felix also brought a few security guards from the company to cheer up Alex. He said to Gerald, "Mr. Xavier, we are businessmen. Let's talk about it.."

"Shut up, you have no right to speak!"

Gerald stood at a place about 1.75 meters away from Alex. He glared at Felix fiercely and then stared at Alex. "There are only two choices in front of you now. Either you go with me to the Municipal Bureau to turn yourself in and accept the punishment of the law, or I will get justice for Jared in person!"

Alex patted the shoulders of Big Ken and Felix, indicating that they didn't need to be nervous. Then, he said to Gerald casually, "Gerald, you said that I killed your son. Do you have any evidence? Now there are only two choices in front of you. Either find the evidence and go to the Municipal Bureau to expose it and let the police catch me. If you don't have any evidence, don't talk nonsense. Of course, if you insist on being unreasonable, I will accompany you to the end!"

"Evidence? Isn't this fucking obvious? What evidence do you need?"

"Do you mean that you don't have any evidence? Are you just looking for trouble? Gerald, stop talking nonsense. I'll give you the last ultimatum now and give you one minute to leave here. And don't bring anyone with you in the future. Otherwise, I will use force and beat you every time I see you!"

"Who are you trying to scare? How dare you shamelessly say that you're using force?"

While they were talking, the elevator door opened with a "ding" sound.

Ma Zhiyuan took the five brothers out of the elevator and gathered in front of Alex.

It turned out that Alex had just heard from Felix on the phone that Gerald had brought a lot of people with him. On the way here, he had called Ma Zhiyuan. Ma Zhiyuan had always been very efficient. He immediately rushed over with a group of brothers. Xiong Da, Xiong Er, and Cheng Hengchao had also come to help Alex.

Although Alex was still at a disadvantage in numbers, there were many masters.

Ma Zhiyuan was very confident. He was not frightened by the large number of opponents. He raised his hand and pointed to the people in Gerald, saying to Alex, "Are they looking for trouble?"

"Yes!" Alex nodded and said, "30 seconds later, if they don't leave, we'll drive them away!"

"Okay!"

Ma Zhiyuan began to roll up his sleeves, twisted his neck, and shouted, "Brothers, get ready to work!"

With so many people on his side, Gerald was confident and had no intention of retreating. He said to Alex coldly, "So, you don't want to turn yourself in and choose to do it privately? Then I have nothing to say. If you don't dare to admit it, I will beat you until you kneel down and surrender!"

Alex shook his head gently. After a minute of countdown, he waved his hand and said, "Get them out!"

Gerald also issued an order, "Beat him! Beat him hard!"

The battle between nearly 20 people was about to break out.

The corridor was too small. The staffs of both sides were so crowded at the elevator that they couldn't use it at all. The front line quickly extended outward. In a second, the ten-meter-long corridor was occupied, and a few of them entered Gold Stone.

In order to prevent the company's employees from being accidentally injured, Alex, surrounded by Big Ken and Felix, went close to the wall and moved into the company. They knocked down the opponents who broke in and threw them out, and then waited at the door. Although there were many people on the other side, they didn't need their help in this battle.

Those brought by Gerald were all professional security guards, whose fighting capacity was a little higher than that of ordinary people, but that was all. They had no power to resist masters like Ma Zhiyuan, Cheng Hengchao, and Xiong Da, Xiong Er. In less than five minutes, the battle was almost over.

Ma Zhiyuan and the others were unharmed.

All the people in Gerald were beaten to tears.

Gerald didn't expect that he would lose in the two-on-one situation. He was so angry that his face turned red and his neck was thick. He scolded the security guards who couldn't stop retreating, "You are a bunch of good-for-nothings!"

Alex felt wronged for the security guards and said helplessly, "Gerald, don't make things difficult for them. If you can, go ahead!"

"I..."

Gerald was speechless.

At this moment, there was a siren downstairs. Gerald rushed to the window to have a look. Seeing that Captain Pang had come with his team, he instantly regained his confidence and said to Alex, "You don't cherish the opportunity to turn yourself in. It's too late for you to regret it now!"

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 256 -

Alex also went to the window and looked down. He found that a group of police officers had entered the building. Then he looked at Gerald, who looked determined. He couldn't help but murmur in his heart, "Did Gerald use his connections to lure a small leader of the police to catch him?"

While he was thinking, Big Ken shook his head at him, indicating that he should not worry.

But he was still a little worried. He knew that Gerald and the police had not found any evidence to prove that Jared was killed by them. But if Gerald wanted to frame him at all costs, such as letting him be taken away and interrogated, it would still cause him some trouble.

It was not until the elevator door opened that he saw that Group Leader Pang was the first to walk out that he breathed a sigh of relief.

Because in his opinion, Group Leader Pang was a very upright person. It was impossible for him to be bribed and bewitched by Gerald...

Seeing that the gate of Gold Stone was crowded with people and more than half of the security guards in uniform from Gerald were injured, Captain Pang frowned and looked around. He asked, "It seems that you are gathering people to fight. What happened?"

Alex walked up to Group Leader Pang and prepared to introduce what had just happened.

But Gerald spoke first, "Group Leader Pang, this is a small matter. You don't have to worry about it. Go ahead with your business. Are you here to arrest someone?"

Group Leader Pang nodded and said, "Yes, I came here with the documents."

"That's right! Group Leader Pang, just as I said, you look smart and can't do anything stupid. In addition, your efficiency is beyond my expectation. I didn't expect that you could get the approval so soon. Well, let's not talk nonsense. Alex is right in front of you. Hurry up and catch him."

"Mr. Xavier, who said I wanted to catch Alex?"

"Hiss... What do you mean? If you don't catch Alex, then who are you coming to catch?"

Gerald looked around and was a little confused.

Alex's curiosity was also aroused. "Group Leader Pang, did someone in our Gold Stone commit a crime?"

Captain Pang shook his head, took a document from a police officer next to him, unfolded it quickly, and lit it up in front of Gerald. He said in a clear and unquestionable tone, "Gerald, take the report from the masses. After preliminary verification, you are involved in dangerous plans, deliberately killing people, deliberately hurting people, and committing criminal crimes. You are involved in dangerous collusion with the drug dealers and harbor drug dealers. Now you ask you to go back with us for investigation. You have the right to keep silent, but every word you say can become evidence!"

"What... what's going on?"

Gerald was so surprised that his eyeballs almost rolled out. He was about to grab the document.

Alex and the others were also stunned.

This change came too suddenly and was extremely bizarre. Captain Pang's action was beyond everyone's expectation except for the police officers. Before Captain Pang showed the signal, no one expected that the person the police wanted to arrest today was Gerald.

After all, Gerald was a famous entrepreneur in the city and also a big shot in the business world.

Even if the police had evidence of Gerald's crime, not everyone dared to arrest him.

As for Group Leader Pang, not only did he come, but his attitude was also very tough. There was no room for negotiation at all, as if he was catching an ordinary role.

Captain Pang was quick-witted. He put away the document and threw it to his men. With a wave of his hand, he said, "Put him on handcuffs and take it away!"

"Wait, don't move!" Gerald shouted at the two policemen who were about to catch him. He glared at Group Leader Pang and said, "Surnamed Pang, I gave you face, didn't I? I asked you to catch Alex, but you didn't catch him. Instead, you arrested me with a groundless charge. What the fuck are you thinking? Ah? Are you fucking stupid?"

"Gerald, I'm warning you. To reject arrest and insult the police officers will add you to your crime!"

"What's wrong with you? If you don't do it, I'll beat you. Believe it or not."

“Cut the crap. Take him away!”

Captain Pang didn't want to say more. He didn't want to make things difficult for his subordinates, so he took out his handcuffs and was about to do it himself.

Gerald was so angry that his whole body was shaking. He raised his hand and pushed Gerald. “Youfucking... Hey, what are you going to do?”

Before Gerald could finish speaking, before Gerald was about to push him a second time, Group Leader Pang grabbed his wrist and threw him onto the ground with a neat and clean over-shoulder fall. The whole movement was completed in a flash, leaving him no chance to resist at all.

The security guards he brought with him only reacted after he hit the ground and trembled. They all rushed forward to save him.

“Don't move!”

The police officers pulled out their guns and aimed at the security guards.

These policemen didn't dare to do anything to big shots like Gerald, but they were not afraid of the security guards.

As for Group Leader Pang, he didn't even look at the security guards from beginning to end. He grabbed Gerald with ease. Then he got up and said condescendingly, “Gerald, in addition to the crimes listed on the arrest warrant, you added a few more points to yourself: refusing arrest, insulting the police officers and attacking the police... Take him away!”

Gerald was in a mess. Before he could recover, he was dragged away by two police officers.

Under the deterrence of the police officers and pistols, the security guards did not dare to act recklessly. They could only watch as their master was taken away.

After Group Leader Pang finished his business, he turned to look at the security guards and said to Alex, “Mr. Alex, what happened just now?”

“Well... there are surveillance cameras here. You'll know at a glance.”

Alex took Group Leader Pang to the monitoring room, took out the surveillance video taken at the company's gate, and introduced it at the same time. “As the video shows, Gerald took a group of people to block our company's gate for no reason and tried to persuade us many times but failed. I had no choice but to drive them away. But they not only didn't listen, but also fought with our people... and then we fought.”

“They are gathering people and making trouble!” Before the video was finished, Captain Pang said to Alex, “Give me a copy of the relevant video and send it to my email.”

“No problem!”

Alex nodded readily and agreed.

Captain Pang quickly returned to the gate of Gold Stone, pointed to the security guards, and said to the police, “Take all of them away!”

Alex who followed them noticed that Group Leader Pang was about to close the team. He quickly went up and asked the most concerned question, “Group Leader Pang, what happened when the crowd reported just now? There was no sign at all. Why did Gerald suddenly get caught?”

“Well... I can’t explain it clearly in two or three sentences.” Captain Pang thought for a moment and replied, “Mr. Alex, are you going to browse the forum?”

“Ah? No, what’s wrong?”

“If you have time, you can look at the local forum. It’s very exciting. I still have official business to attend to, so I’ll take my leave first.”

Group Leader Pang simply greeted Alex and Big Ken and then left with his team.

Alex was stunned and was thinking about what Captain Pang meant when Felix rushed over with a notebook in his arms. “The news, the big news, something happened to Gerald!”

“What’s going on?” Alex subconsciously walked up to him quickly.

“Someone reported Gerald anonymously on the local forum!”

“A forum? Let me have a look!”

Alex vaguely guessed what Group Leader Pang meant when he mentioned the “Forum”. He quickly took the notebook, found a chair at the front desk of the company, sat down, put the notebook on the table, and looked at it with everyone. As Felix said, a hot post that showed the sin of Gerald appeared on the local forum.

After browsing through the whole post, everyone was suddenly enlightened.

Everyone present knew that Gerald was not a good person. After reading the post, they knew that Gerald was even worse than they had imagined.

It was said in the post that in order to strive for some financial benefits, Gerald actually bought people to hurt or even kill people. In order to compete with the competitors, he hired people crazily to create “accidents” in the construction of other real estate companies, causing a lot of casualties.

Alex quickly browsed through it. When he looked at it carefully for the second time, he found that he was attracted by a video that was obviously secretly taken. It was shot yesterday afternoon. The picture showed that Gerald called at home and mentioned Pei Chong’s name.

Big Ken stared at the notebook for a while and suddenly frowned. “Is Gerald calling Jing Kun?”

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 257 -

“It should be!”

Alex nodded and continued to watch the video.

According to Gerald’s tone and speech in the video, it could be guessed that it was Jing Kun who was talking to Gerald, and he could roughly guess what Jing Kun said on the other end.

It was nothing more than that Jing Kun was very dissatisfied with Pei Chong’s death. He thought that the cooperation partner of Gerald did not fulfill his duty. Not only did he fail to complete the task of taking down Qingyun Media, but he also did not protect Pei Chong well. He wanted Gerald to take a certain responsibility and so on.

Gerald felt wronged and patiently explained for a long time. It seemed that he had not been understood by Jing Kun.

In the end, Gerald’s patience was exhausted and he was not in the mood to listen to what Jing Kun said. He put the phone in front of his mouth and roared, “I’ll say it again for the last time. It’s not that I didn’t do my best to fight for Qingyun Media, but that you didn’t pay enough money! It’s a public auction. You don’t have as much money as Alex, what can I do? As for the follow-up cooperation, I’m only responsible for sharing the information related to Alex to Pei Chong for free. The specific operation is up to him. I didn’t ask him to go to the countryside, but he was going to die on his own. What does it have to do with me? I know you’re very angry, but do you have the ability to avenge Alex in person? Why do you want to vent your anger on me? Also, don’t think that you can take me down just because you have someone and have a gun. If you insist on getting even with me, I’ll accompany you to the end. Do you think I’m afraid of you?”

After that, Gerald hung up the phone without listening to Jing Kun’s response and threw the phone on the sofa.

At this time, the scene changed. Jared came down from upstairs and walked to the front of Gerald. He asked with fear, "Dad, what... what's wrong?"

"How dare you ask? It's all your fault!"

Gerald suddenly stood up and raised his hand, ready to hit Jared. However, after hesitating for a few seconds, he put down his hand and said with a gloomy face, "Just because you gave Pei Chong a blind idea, his boss blamed his death on us. He insisted that we take responsibility! Be careful in the near future and try not to go out as much as possible. Even if you have something to do, you must go home at night. Don't let them take the opportunity to take revenge!"

"Oh..."

Jared looked very aggrieved, but after hesitating for a few times, he didn't say anything more.

Gerald didn't scold Jared anymore. He picked up his mobile phone and walked out.

The video ended here.

Alex finally looked away from the screen and looked at Big Ken subconsciously.

Then, the two of them got up at the same time and went to the temporarily idle Isla's office. Big Ken closed the door, approached Alex, and whispered, "Young Master, we should have thought of something."

"Yes!"

Alex nodded gently and replied, "To be honest, I was quite surprised, and it was a series of accidents. First of all, I didn't expect that someone would report Gerald at this critical moment. Although those reporting materials are relatively one-sided and have no real hammer, they are enough for him to take a beating. For the Xavier family, it is undoubtedly a coincidence. For me, it is indeed a happy thing. Besides, I didn't expect that Gerald and Jing Kun would contact each other directly, and they have a conflict. God is really helping me!"

"Yes. If we have the chance to see the reporter, we should thank him."

"Brother Big Ken, shouldn't we report the current situation to Group Leader Pang?"

"Don't, don't, don't!"

Big Ken waved his hand repeatedly and explained seriously, "Young master, Group Leader Pang is a smart person. He must have thought of what we can think of. If we remind him, not only will it be an unnecessary move, but it also means that there is no silver in this place. What we need to do is to wait and see!”

Alex suddenly understood. He patted his forehead and said awkwardly, “I’m too excited to think about it.”

“Young Master, there is one more thing. If Gerald is caught this time, it will definitely cause a shock in Grand Express Corporation. More importantly, the police will probably verify all the crimes listed on the report materials. And those crimes, in addition to pointing directly to Gerald, most of them have something to do with Grand Express Corporation...”

“Brother Big Ken, do you mean... Grand Express Corporation and Gerald are also facing a disaster?”

“That’s right! If everything goes well, Grand Express Corporation will repeat the same mistake as Qingyun Media. The situation and process may be different, but the result is almost the same. That is, its vitality is greatly undermined and it is on the verge of bankruptcy! Young master, if you are interested in Grand Express Corporation, you can start to lay the foundation now.”

“I see. Thank you for reminding me, Brother Big Ken!”

Alex nodded heavily and fell into deep thought with joy on his face.

There were two reasons why he was so excited now.

First of all, it seemed that they could blame Jing Kun for Jared’s tragic death! From the video they watched carefully just now, it could be seen that there was a conflict between Gerald and Jing Kun because of the death of Pei Chong. Under such circumstances, it was easy to understand that Jing Kun killed Jared to take revenge on the Xavier family.

The second reason was that the anonymous reporter not only dragged Gerald into the water, but also implicated Grand Express Corporation. In total, there were more than six reports, which showed that Gerald had ordered a lot of shameful people to do many things for Grand Express Corporation.

This statement not only represented Gerald, but also represented Grand Express Corporation.

Another thing was that Grand Express Corporation was the family business of the Xavier family. As the chairman and general manager, Gerald had the absolute right to speak, which could be said to be the soul of Grand Express Corporation. Now that he was arrested, Grand Express Corporation would lose its backbone. It would be strange if it was not affected.

If he seized this opportunity and added fuel to the fire, it was very likely that Grand Express Corporation would collapse completely.

Of course, it would be even better if he could snatch Grand Express Corporation.

Originally, Alex was not interested in Grand Express Corporation, at least not to the point where it had to be “taken” at all. But what he wanted to do now was to expand his industry as much as possible. Although he already had enough property, he had not spent all the money in his card yet.

He had spent 10 billion yuan at once, but there were still more than 10 billion yuan left!

After chatting with Big Ken, Alex called Felix, Ma Zhiyuan, and other brothers to have a meal together. After that, he went to the hospital again. Then, he returned to the villa and weighed Big Ken’s proposal. The next morning, he arrived at Qingyun Media.

The Four Childes of Quill City each transferred some management staff from their own companies to Qingyun Media to help. It was the first time that they saw the results. Under the cooperation of Lin Ke, Fang Chen, and Jordan, with the help of all the management staff, Qingyun Media had been pulled back from the edge of death, and its foundation was basically stable.

What they needed to do next was to use the huge amount of money on the account to revive Qingyun Media.

The goal of the Four Childes of Quill City was not only to restore the prestige of Qingyun Media, but to create another glory!

This time, Alex not only saw the other three young masters, but also saw the handsome Lin Aoran again.

Lin Ke pointed at Lin Aoran and said to Alex, “Cousin, we have already discussed that we should cooperate with Gold Stone and promote Aoran and Bai Ling. Maybe it won’t be long before we can see him easily again. You know, stars are always busy. There are many stars that haven’t been home for three to five months or even three years.”

Alex laughed and said, “Brother Aoran, you have to sign a name for me today and let’s take another photo together. When you become a big star, I have to line up if I want to take a photo with your signature.”

“Haha, Mr. Alex, you’re exaggerating.” Lin Aohan waved his hand and said, “It’s not yet decided. Besides, even if I really become a star, I’m just an ordinary person in essence and an employee of yours. If you want to use me, you can still call me wherever you want.”

“We are all brothers. There is no distinction between boss and employee...”

Alex had a very good impression of Lin Aoran and thought highly of him. It could be said that he had high hopes.

After chatting for a while, Lin Aoran had to leave first, leaving Masters of Quill City alone in the room. Alex put away his playful smile and asked seriously, "Brothers, are you interested in Grand Express Corporation?"

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 258 -

The news of the tragic death of Jared and the arrest of Gerald had spread all over the city. Everyone knew it, and they had discussed it a lot in their spare time. After all, Jared was originally one of the top rich second generations in the city like them. It disappeared without a word. It happened too suddenly.

Lin Ke knew Alex very well, especially in terms of economic strength. He knew that Alex had a lot of free money in his card. So he was not surprised by Alex's question, nor was he in a hurry to express his opinion. He touched his chin and fell into deep thought.

Fang Chen was a little surprised and asked in a daze, "Mr. Alex, according to what you mean, are you going to take down Grand Express Corporation?"

Jordan was also shocked. He shook his head and sighed with emotion. "Normally, many people say that I am rich. Relatively speaking, my financial resources are indeed stronger than many ordinary people. But compared with Mr. Alex, I have become an ordinary person in an instant. Mr. Alex, I am very curious about how much money you have and how much business you want to do."

"Haha, it's not that exaggerated!" Alex waved his hand and said, "I just have that idea, and I haven't thought about it yet, so I want to hear your opinion. As for money... how to put it, you don't lack money. However, most of your money still belongs to your family, and you can't control and use it for the time being..."

What Alex said was right. Sooner or later, Lin Ke, Fang Chen, and Jordan would inherit the family business. Even if they didn't start their own business, they would become rich and their financial strength would be almost the same as the current Alex.

However, Alex only had pocket money given by his parents.

If Alex also inherited all the family properties, he would leave the other three masters far behind.

Of course, both Fang Chen and Jordan were just joking. They wouldn't be dejected because they didn't have more money than Alex. The reason why they sighed with emotion was that they felt it was incredible that Alex had just spent 10 billion yuan to invest in Qingyun Media, and he even had the idea to invest the Grand Express Corporation whose estimated value was more than 20 billion yuan at its peak.

Could it be that the money of Alex had been scraped by the wind and had piled up into a mountain?

Jordan did not force Alex to tell how much money he had. He sighed with emotion and continued, "Mr. Alex, as you just said, I haven't taken over the family's power yet, and the funds I can use are limited. I have done my best to invest in Qingyun Media..."

Fang Chen nodded and added, "If you ask me whether I have any interest in Grand Express Corporation, I must have. However, my situation is similar to that of Master Feng, and my strength is not allowed. Mr. Alex, this time, Master Feng and I may not be able to keep up with you, so we can't play with you."

Alex shook his head and said, "I just had a sudden thought..."

After a while, Lin Ke finally said, "Cousin, I can't take out much money in a short time. I can't help you. But... if you want to take down Grand Express Corporation, I can provide you with a way of thinking. Maybe it can be the starting point."

"Oh? Cousin, please go ahead!"

"Have you heard of Ning Haohan?"

"Ning Haohan? No..."

At this moment, Fang Chen's eyes lit up and he took over the topic. "Young Master Ke, if I remember correctly, Ning Haohan is the vice president of Grand Express Corporation, right? How do you know him?"

Lin Ke nodded and said, "Yes, it's him! To tell you the truth, my father tried to dig him out to our Hengkang Pharmaceutical Company time and time again, but he failed, no matter he asked for help from a high-level top-notch company or my father himself."

"What a coincidence. My dad also tried to dig him out, but he failed, too."

Alex heard that Lin Ke and Fang Chen were having a good chat and became more and more curious. "What, the so-called Ning Haohan is a rare talent?"

Lin Ke shrugged his shoulders and said, "Let's put it this way. Grand Express Corporation has developed to the present scale, and he has made great contributions. His contribution has even surpassed that of the founder, Gerald. It's no exaggeration to say that without him, Grand Express Corporation would not have developed to a scale that can compete with Wyatt Corporation."

"Why haven't I heard of such a powerful person?"

"If I hadn't done a special investigation, I wouldn't have known so much about him."

“Oh? What’s going on?”

“Cousin, don’t worry. Listen to me slowly...”

Lin Ke had taken out all the information about Ning Haohan from his memory and said slowly, “In the past, when Ning Haohan first entered Grand Express Corporation, he served in the marketing department. At that time, the market share of the group in the city was only 10%, and the market share growth rate was about 1%. Although it still increased, the group’s investment was gradually increasing every year. Although it was like this, the market share did not increase. It could be said that it had been on the same spot all the time.”

“Then it’s time for Ning Haohan to show his strength?”

“Yes! Although it was very difficult, he still helped the marketing department raise the market share to 20% in three years. It was not until then that he was promoted once, and he was only the deputy director of the marketing department. Liang Heng, the director who had always been having nothing to do, the brother-in-law of Gerald, was still sitting steadily in the position of director.”

“It seems that in Gerald’s heart, strength is not as good as family affection.”

“Who says no? Two years later, Ning Haohan helped the group get a 25% share. At that time, he was far more famous than Liang Heng. Not only the marketing department, but also many people from other departments said that they should give the marketing department to him. Maybe Gerald felt the pressure of public opinion and really let him be the director. But no one expected that Liang Heng would become the vice president of the group instead of declining!”

Alex said in surprise, “Liang Heng is so lucky that he didn’t do anything. He was promoted with the help of his subordinates!”

“At that time, many people felt that it was not worth it for Ning Haohan and thought that his efforts and gains were not proportional. But he didn’t care and had been working hard. In a few years, he helped the group raise the market share to the highest point in history and reached 30%! At that time, he exchanged places with Liang Heng.”

“Hiss... That is to say, he has doubled the market value of Grand Express Corporation?”

Alex had just heard that Wyatt Corporation and Hengkang Pharmaceutical Company had dug up Ning Haohan, so he had guessed that he was not a simple person. However, he did not expect him to be so powerful!

For a large-scale company like Grand Express Corporation, it was often the easiest stage to develop when it just started, because there was a lot of room for improvement.

But when Ning Haohan entered the group, the group had already reached a certain scale and reached a bottleneck, so it was difficult to improve.

It only took less than ten years for the group to regain its new vitality after Ning Haohan entered the Department of Finance and Management! If it was only measured by the size of market, it was equivalent to turning a Grand Express Corporation into three!

It could be imagined that if Grand Express Corporation had been controlled by Ning Haohan from the beginning, maybe the current Grand Express Corporation would be the second Wyatt Corporation. He would also become a business tycoon like Lin Lipeng and Fang Kaige.

Unfortunately, there were no ifs in real life.

However, God was watching him. Although he had not become the boss, his influence in the business world had spread far and wide. In the eyes of outsiders, he was the business card of Grand Express Corporation, and he was still more famous than Gerald. So, he did not get the benefits he deserved, but gained more prestige.

This was because people thought highly of him. In addition to the fact that the business strength of the world was strong, there were also key values such as being indifferent to fame, wealth, humiliation, burden, work, and complaints. Obviously, all of them were advantages.

Alex couldn't help but sigh when he learned this. In the business world, Ning Haohan could be said to be a genius who was loved by everyone!

At the same time, Alex also guessed Lin Ke's intention. "Cousin, do you mean that if I want to take down Grand Express Corporation, I can cooperate with Ning Haohan, right?"

Lin Ke nodded again and said, "Cousin, you know, Grand Express Corporation is a family business, and it is difficult for outsiders to integrate into it. This is also the reason why Ning Haohan has made such a great contribution to Grand Express Corporation, but he is not very famous and has not received an equal reward..."

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 259 -

Lin Ke meant that a family business like Grand Express Corporation was usually very exclusive.

As a meritorious official of Grand Express Corporation, Ning Haohan did not receive any corresponding treatment. As an outsider of Alex, he was the Xavier family's biggest enemy. It was not easy to take down the task. It could almost be said that it was an impossible task. Even if he spent money on it, it would be difficult to control it.

Comparatively speaking, choosing to cooperate with Ning Haohan could reduce the risk—if he was willing.

Although Ning Haohan was just a deputy general manager, now that Gerald had been arrested, he was likely to go to jail. At least he couldn't go back to the group to take charge of the overall situation in a short time, so the deputy general manager was the highest level leader. In addition, Ning Haohan still had some reputation inside Grand Express Corporation. Except for the direct descendants of Gerald, the rest were basically Ning Haohan's supporters.

If Ning Haohan had further ambitions, it would be the best time for him to display his ambitions!

After learning about the situation, Alex immediately called Xie Laosi and asked him to arrange for his brothers to inquire about the current situation of Grand Express Corporation, as well as investigate the high-level officials, including Ning Haohan. At the same time, he asked someone to contact Ning Haohan and tried to arrange a meeting.

Before hanging up the phone, Xie Laosi raised a question, which was that Tang Qingsong's disappearance had attracted a lot of attention. They had secretly imprisoned Tang Qingsong for several days, so they had to make a decision as soon as possible. They couldn't keep delaying; otherwise it might cause public opinion and media negative influence, which would cause unnecessary trouble for them.

It was only then that Alex remembered that Tang Qingsong's matter had not yet been settled properly, and it had implicated Sincere Advertising Agency.

Under the pressure of Gold Stone, the business of Sincere Advertising Agency was greatly reduced, and it was basically dealing with business less than 100,000 yuan. The highest level of business alone was not enough to support such a big company. Originally, Alex planned to take this opportunity to buy Sincere Advertising Agency.

However, after careful consideration, Alex felt that it was unnecessary.

Firstly, Sincere Advertising Agency mainly focused on advertising design, which coincided with the business of Gold Stone. Instead of spending a lot of money to deal with Sincere Advertising Agency, it was better to expand the scale of Gold Stone. From the perspective of maximize the interest, there was no need to take over the mess of Sincere Advertising Agency. All he needed to do was to snatch over the business of Sincere Advertising Agency.

Secondly, Alex's right-hand men were limited. If he managed to win over Sincere Advertising Agency, he would not be able to find a suitable manager in a short time. But if Sincere Advertising Agency continued to fall, then the money to buy the company would be wasted. It was not worth it.

Although Alex didn't lack money, he didn't want to lose his reputation as a black sheep.

The only problem was that the shares taken from Tang Qingsong were not easy to deal with.

Alex left Qingyun Media and made an appointment with Xie Laosi. He directly saw Xie Laosi in the car and said bluntly, "It's a little useless for Tang Qingsong to transfer the shares under your name. It's a pity to lose them. But if we keep them, it's just an empty document. We can't get real benefits."

"Yes." Xie Laosi nodded and said, "I'm also considering this problem. Tang Qingsong doesn't have a lot of shares in the company. He only has a 10% share. If you want to take this little share into cash and take over the whole company, you will spend more."

"Change it into cash?"

When Alex heard this, he suddenly slapped his thigh and said, "Yes, I can make it into cash!"

Xie Laosi was a little confused. "Mr. Alex, you mean..."

"We don't want the shares. Let Tang Qingsong withdraw the funds!"

"And then let Tang Qingsong transfer the money back to us?"

"That's right! In this way, not only will we get what we want, but we can also make things worse for Sincere Advertising Agency! If the company goes bankrupt, it will be equivalent to killing the biggest rival of Gold Stone in the city! This is a great move!"

"That makes sense! President Alex, shall we go and find Tang Qingsong now?"

"Yes! Lead the way!"

Alex made up his mind and immediately followed Xie Laosi to the secret place where Tang Qingsong was locked up.

Xie Laosi and Ma Zhiyuan joined hands to take over the original Chase and Tang Qingsong's territory. There were many industries that were currently resting. Now Tang Qingsong was locked up in the basement of a pool hall by Xie Laosi.

Tang Qingsong, who hadn't seen the sun for a few days, had a face full of dust and was already very sloppy. However, when he saw Alex, he immediately came up to him and said angrily, "Alex, you fucking have found all the results of my hard work for the rest of my life. What else do you want?"

Alex shrugged his shoulders and replied, "Tang Qingsong, look at you. Are you not convinced? Think about it yourself. Which of the money you earned is clean? You'll have to pay it back sooner or later. Now, it's time for you to repay your sins."

"Why didn't you let go of me after you have taken all my money?"

"You just need to do one more thing to regain your freedom."

"You... Are you fucking done?"

"Tang Qingsong, you'd better find your own position. The opportunity is right in front of you, and it's only once. If you haven't lived enough, you'd better cooperate..."

"If I don't cooperate, do you dare to kill me?"

"What, do you think I don't dare to kill you? Tang Qingsong, no matter how powerful you used to be, in my eyes, you are just an ant that can be trampled to death at will. You made a lot of money without conscience and offended many people. If you don't cooperate, I have a hundred ways to make you die in peace. I won't get into any trouble."

Tang Qingsong was so angry that he was trembling all over. He wished he could tear Alex into pieces.

But under the eaves, he had to bow his head.

In fact, the moment Tang Qingsong was secretly locked up here by Xie Laosi, he realized that there was no hope of turning the tables. He could only be trampled on. He no longer had the capital to bargain with Alex. The only thing left was his life.

After this conversation, he realized that Alex was not worried about his life at all.

He had not yet lived enough, and he was not qualified to bargain at all. He had no choice but to give in. He sighed and said slowly, "Tell me, what else do you want me to do?"

Alex smiled faintly, took a document from Xie Laosi, and said to Tang Qingsong, "This is the investment agreement you signed before. I'll return it to you."

"Alex, what are you trying to do?"

"We don't want your shares. All we need is money. What you need to do is to withdraw your funds."

"Hiss... Alex, are you going to squeeze me out completely?"

“Congratulations, you got it right...” Alex said, tore the agreement into pieces, and threw it on Tang Qingsong. “I’ll give you one day to withdraw the funds and transfer them to our account. If you dare to play tricks or fail, you’ll die.”

After that, Alex turned around.

Tang Qingsong quickly stopped Alex. “It’s not a problem for me to withdraw the funds, but you have to let me out?”

Alex shook his head and said, “Tang Qingshan is your brother. If you want to withdraw the money, you don’t have to go through the procedure. Just let him give you the money. If you think about it, you can call him at any time. However, you’d better consider what you should say and what you shouldn’t say first.”

“Okay, okay, I’ll call him now!”

“Sure!”

Alex immediately winked at Xie Laosi.

Xie Laosi understood and immediately took out Tang Qingsong’s phone. He dialed Tang Qingshan’s number, turned on the speaker, and put the phone in front of Tang Qingsong.

Soon, the phone was connected. Tang Qingshan’s anxious voice came from the speaker, “Qingsong, where have you been? Why can’t I find you in a few days? I can’t even get through to you...”

Tang Qingsong interrupted Tang Qingshan directly, “I’m in trouble. Get me some money!”

“What’s going on?”

“Don’t ask. If you don’t want me to die, just give me money!”

“How much?”

“Fifteen million!”

“What? 15 million? I’m very tight on my hands now. How can I get so much money? Qingsong, tell me honestly, what kind of trouble are you in? I’ll help you find a way!”

“The only way is to give me money. Don’t worry; I won’t take your money for free. I invested 15 million yuan in your company, so you can take it as a withdrawal...”

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 260 -

On the other side, Tang Qingshan was still a little reluctant. He earnestly advised, "Qingsong, don't get excited. Listen to me first! I am your brother. If you get into trouble, I will definitely help you. However, everything has its own way, right? Tell me first, if you encounter any trouble, I will definitely find a way to help you!"

Tang Qingsong was getting impatient. He yelled at the phone, "I've already made it very clear. The only way to help me is to ask me to withdraw my funds! I'm no longer a child. How can I not know my own situation? As long as there are other ways, I won't do that!"

"Well... But I also have difficulties now! The situation of the company is getting worse and worse, and it can't run anymore. There is only some interest left on the account. Even if I am willing to let you withdraw the funds, the company can't take out so much money. Let's wait and see. When I get the company back on track, I will withdraw the funds for you."

"Brother, don't lie to yourself. I know the current situation of the company. Is there still a chance to save it? I, an outsider, can tell you clearly that there is no need to save it and there is no way to save it! If you don't want to end up like this, you can stop with me. You can get some money left!"

"I also wanted to give up the company, but I'm not reconciled!"

"You're not reconciled? I'm not! But what can we do? No! I've already figured out that we can't afford to offend some people. For us, the wisest choice is to take this loss and stop fighting with those who are destined to win. Well, brother, let's talk so much. You transfer the money to my account before dark, and I'll arrange someone to send the agreement to you..."

Tang Qingsong decisively hung up the phone and looked at Alex. "Are you satisfied now?"

Alex shook his head. "Your attitude is okay, but I pay more attention to the result."

"Alex, I can finally see that you are a fucking villain who will seek revenge for the smallest grievance! Just because we have some conflicts with you, you fucking have to make us bankrupt. I have been squeezed out by you. After I withdraw the funds, my brother's company will probably be closed down..."

"Stop! I admit that I hold a grudge against you and know that I'm not a good person. However, I don't think I've done anything wrong when dealing with the contradiction between you and me. Besides, I revenge not only for myself, but also for the justice of heaven, making you pay for all the sins you owe!"

"It's high-sounding. At the end of the day, you fucking did it for money, for benefits!"

“You can think whatever you want. I don’t care... By the way, let me remind you, Tang Qingsong, if you are lucky enough to survive this time, you’d better wipe your eyes and don’t offend me again. Otherwise, I don’t mind putting on such a show again!”

Alex did not intend to have any contact with Tang Qingsong in the future. After today’s separation, they would probably not meet again in the future. So he chatted with Tang Qingsong for a while and made the last reminder. After talking for a while, he took Xie Laosi upstairs and returned to the car. He said to Xie Laosi, “I plan to let you set up a company with Brother Yuan and integrate all the industries you take care of. In this way, it will be more convenient for you, as the legal personnel, to manage.”

“Good idea!” Xie Laosi nodded and said, “When the company is established, my identity and Brother Yuan’s identity will be even more open. Hehe, in the future, we can barely be regarded as influential figures in Quill City. Mr. Alex, thank you very much. Without your help and support, I, an old and rude man, will definitely open a mahjong restaurant in the suburbs.”

“All of this was won by you. You don’t have to thank me. Xie Laosi, all the assets collected from Tang Qingsong, including the money to withdraw funds that have not yet been paid, are combined together as the company’s financial support.”

“Ah? Mr. Alex, you don’t want it? I’m thinking about transferring all the 15 million yuan to your account when it’s in your account.”

“You don’t have to give it to me first. You can keep it as the start-up fund and try to complete the company well...”

Not only did Alex not intend to ask for the money he got this time, but he also did not intend to ask Ma Zhiyuan and Xie Laosi for the money they earned by working together to manage so many industries. Instead, he planned to give this money to his brothers as benefits. It was one of the principles of life that he firmly believed in...

At about six o’clock in the afternoon, when Alex was waiting for the elevator in the military hospital, he received a call from Xie Laosi. He learned that Tang Qingsong had transferred 15 million yuan to his account. This was good news. At the same time, Xie Laosi reported a bad news, which was that he sent someone to meet the person who had made an appointment with Ning Haohan, but failed to make an appointment.

Seeing Alex frown, Big Ken asked softly, “Young Master, what’s wrong?”

Alex shook his head helplessly. “Vice President Ning refused my invitation.”

“Hiss... it shouldn’t be! It would be understandable if someone who doesn’t know you refused your invitation. Although Ning Haohan has never seen you, he must have heard of your name. Under such circumstances, he chose to refuse your invitation. He doesn’t know how to appreciate favors!”

“You can’t say that. We don’t know each other. I’m not a leader. He does have the right to refuse to see me.”

“I really don’t understand what he is thinking. Anyway, in my opinion, in this current situation, both public and private, he should agree to your invitation. Young Master, why don’t you stop making an appointment and go directly to find him? I don’t believe that there are still people who you can’t see in Quill City.”

“If it was an ordinary person, I would definitely have gone. However, according to my cousin’s words, Vice President Ning is a capable person. If you want to cooperate with him, you must show him enough respect. If you need help, you must treat him sincerely. If I visit him rashly before he agrees to the meeting, it will be too abrupt, and I will definitely leave a bad impression on him. In a while, I will ask Xie Laosi to send me Vice President Ning’s phone number, and I will call him myself to try...”

Under Lin Ke’s reminder, Alex had realized that Ning Haohan would become the key figure in determining whether he could win Grand Express Corporation or not. In order to achieve his goal, it was necessary to find a way to build a good relationship with him. At least, he had to leave a good impression on him, which was the basis of the cooperation.

Big Ken wanted to persuade Alex not to be so cautious, but he noticed from the corner of his eyes that a thin man in a suit, who was waiting for the elevator, was secretly looking at Alex.

The man was holding a bulging black leather bag in his left hand, and his right hand had been hidden in the inner pocket of his chest, as if he could take out a weapon at any time.

Seeing this, Big Ken instantly raised his vigilance, which was the instinctive reaction of the bodyguards.

“Ding!”

At this moment, the elevator arrived and there was no one inside.

Before Alex noticed the unusual, he took the lead in entering the elevator.

When Big Ken saw that the man with the black bag had also entered the elevator, he quickly followed in and was stuck between Alex and the man. He was ready to save Alex at any time. Fortunately, the man did not take any action. The three of them got off the first floor smoothly and went out of the elevator.

But just as Big Ken was about to protect Alex and leave quickly, he was stopped by the man with the black bag. “Wait a minute!”

Big Ken turned around and saw the man with the black bag taking out his right hand from his inner pocket. He became nervous again in an instant. Subconsciously, he blocked Alex and said to the man with the black bag with no expression, "Are you talking to us? Who are you? What do you want to do?"

The man with the black bag had already pulled out his right hand, but what he was holding was not a weapon, but a palm-sized thing like a mobile phone. It was dark. He put the thing in his hand into a leather bag, walked slowly to the front of Big Ken, nodded slightly and said, "Don't misunderstand, I have no malicious intentions. I just heard you mention the name of an old friend of mine just now, so I want to know the situation."

"Your old friend? Who?"

Big Ken was a little confused.

However, Alex's eyes lit up. He patted Big Ken on the shoulder and motioned for him not to be nervous. Then, he also nodded to the man with the black bag and said with a smile, "Just now, we only mentioned one person, vice president Ning. Brother, do you mean that vice president Ning is your old friend?"

"Yes!" The man nodded and said, "If you want to see him, maybe I can help..."
