

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 261 -

Alex suddenly became interested and asked excitedly, "Brother, can you really arrange for us to meet Vice President Ning?"

The man in the black bag nodded gently. "Leave me your phone number."

"No problem, no problem! I haven't asked your name yet. By the way, I would like to ask, what's your relationship with Vice President Ning?"

"It doesn't matter. Just wait for the call."

"Okay, thank you first..."

Alex didn't know what scruples the man in the black bag had, and it was inconvenient to ask more, so he reported his phone number.

The man in black didn't say anything and didn't leave any number. He just remembered Alex's number and left in a hurry.

Big Ken watched the man in black leave and frowned slightly. "Young Master, is it a trick? If he is really Ning Haohan's friend, what a coincidence! We are trying to find a way to meet him, but a completely strange person immediately came to help us?"

Alex thought for a moment and replied, "It doesn't matter. I just gave him my phone number. If someone with ulterior motives wants to find my phone number, even if I don't tell him, he can find it through other channels. If he really arranges us to meet Ning Haohan, we can save a lot of trouble."

"Well... what you said makes sense."

Big Ken also thought it through. He just left a phone number and did not suffer any substantial loss.

Alex was more optimistic than Big Ken, but he did not put all his hopes on the man in the black bag. When he returned to the car, according to the original plan, he asked Xie Si to send Ning Haohan's contact number. There were a total of two phone numbers. One was Ning Haohan's private number, and the other was his mobile number.

After thinking about it for a few seconds, Alex first dialed Ning Haohan's phone number. It had been a long time since someone answered the bell, until it hung up automatically. Thinking that it was time to get off work, it was understandable that he could not get in touch with the phone number, he dialed Ning Haohan's private number. As a result, no one answered it, so he could only give up for the time being.

Big Ken drove into the main road, looked at Alex, and said with some embarrassment, "Young Master, I have something to ask you for help."

"Hmm?" Alex was stunned. "Brother Big Ken, why are you so polite to me? Just say it."

"Young master, it's like this. Ever since Cynthia had woken up, Hunter has become a completely different person. He's been out of his mind all day and has been staying in the hospital all this while. Just now, I saw that his face was haggard and his beard was all messed up. He doesn't even have the most basic image. On the outside, it's still secondary. The main reason is that he's completely like Huang'er and doesn't have the slightest bit of spirit. We can't go on like this..."

"You said that... I also noticed it. I persuaded him to go back to rest more than once, but he refused to leave the hospital and insisted on staying with beautiful Cynthia. He became like that out of concern for beautiful Cynthia, so I didn't say much. Alas... This is really tricky!"

What Alex said was just a small problem.

Now the real headache was where Cynthia and Hunter should go.

This question was very serious. Alex and Big Ken, as observers, were anxious and sighed.

As the person involved, Hunter was even more anxious as if he was scratching his heart. He knew what Alex and Isla said was reasonable. As soon as Cynthia was rescued, her body and mind had just recovered, so he couldn't be anxious. But Cynthia's attitude toward him made his heart hang in the air, and he couldn't calm down at all.

Originally, Isla wanted everyone to have a meal outside, and he was tired of ordering takeout every day.

However, Hunter refused Isla's invitation with the excuse that "Cynthia can't do without people". He watched Isla and Cynthia's parents enter the elevator and then turned back to the door of Cynthia's ward. He took a few deep breaths, adjusted his condition, pushed the door open, slowly walked to the bedside, squeezed a smile at Cynthia, and asked with concern, "Cynthia, are you thirsty? Drink water? Have you eaten fruit?"

Cynthia leaned against the pillow and stared blankly at the syringe on her arm. Her body was motionless, as if she had fallen asleep, but her eyes were open. Hearing Hunter's question, she frowned slightly and shook her head. That was all. She did not look at Hunter or respond, nor did she say a word.

After a few days, Hunter was distracted by Cynthia's reaction. He had never had a chance to be alone before, so he didn't say much. Now, his acquaintances had gone out for dinner, and the medical staff was not there. The ward was very quiet. He planned to take this opportunity to communicate with Cynthia.

He pulled a chair and sat down beside the bed. According to the draft in advance, he whispered to Cynthia, "Cynthia, did we have a misunderstanding? Why do I feel that your attitude toward me suddenly changed greatly without warning?"

Cynthia remained motionless, pretending not to hear anything.

Hunter paused for a moment and continued with a wry smile, "Cynthia, you know, I am a careless person. I often do something wrong and offend others, but I don't know. Besides, I am straightforward and can't hide my thoughts. I can't figure out what others are thinking. If I accidentally offend you, or if there is anything you don't like, please tell me directly..."

Hunter was fully prepared for this communication with Cynthia. In the absence of any response from Cynthia, he still said it intermittently for ten minutes, which made his draft and every part of his temporary thought clear at once.

After saying so much, the only purpose was to let Cynthia open her heart.

But Cynthia didn't say anything.

Hunter's heart was getting colder and colder. Realizing that Cynthia was determined to treat him as a stranger, he sighed and slowly got up. Although he did not know why Cynthia had become like this, he knew that it was not sweet to force her to do so, so he forced himself to make a choice. "Cynthia, since you entered the hospital, I can vaguely guess that I was self-satisfied in the past. Maybe from the beginning, you did not treat me as a friend, but just talked to me for the sake of Young Master. Yes, I am just a security guard, how can I make friends with you? I don't deserve to... chase you. Unfortunately, I understand too late. In the end, I apologize to you. I'm sorry to disturb you! I will ask Young Master to change my position. I will try my best to not let you see me again in the future, so that you won't be upset..."

After that, Hunter took a deep breath and turned to walk outside.

Cynthia finally raised her head. She felt a sharp pain in her heart and her nose was sore. After holding back her tears for a long time, she finally broke down. She quickly wiped away her tears and put on a cold face. She shouted at the back of Hunter, "Wait a minute! We haven't made it clear yet. Why are you in a hurry?"

Hunter, who was originally listless, suddenly trembled all over, just like a sleepy person who was awakened by the click. He turned around in shock, rushed to the edge of the bed, and asked with hope, "Cynthia, are you finally willing to talk to me? That's great, that's great..."

“Stop! Didn’t you already say what you wanted to say just now? Next, it’s my turn.”

“Okay, okay, as long as you are willing to talk to me, I will do anything!”

“Listen carefully! First of all, I want to correct your wrong point of view. I used to treat you as a friend, not because I wanted to make friends with you for the sake of Alex. But later, I found that you are not as good as I thought. I am very disappointed with this and don’t want to continue to date you...”

“No... Cynthia, tell me more about it. What did I do wrong?”

“Did you promise me that as long as you were here, you would protect me and not let anything happen to me? As a result, I was kidnapped under your nose. What’s even more unacceptable is that why didn’t you choose to save me when you were faced with a choice?”

“I...”

When Hunter heard this, his heart trembled violently. He looked at Cynthia with confusion. After thinking for a while, he slowly replied, “Cynthia, I’m sorry. I didn’t save you at the first time. But protecting President Sullivan is my duty, and it’s a task personally assigned by Young Master. I can’t afford to lose...”

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 262 -

Cynthia’s face was as cold as frost. She shook her head and said, “In that case, you can go with your duties and work! People like you, who don’t know how to be flexible and have no sense of humanity, don’t deserve to be in a relationship, and even don’t deserve to make friends! All I want to say is this. I hope you can keep your promise this time and don’t let me see you again!”

Hunter’s heart trembled again. He stared at Cynthia in a daze, hesitated for a few times, and then asked, “Cynthia, are you... telling the truth?”

“There are no outsiders here, and it’s time to make a decision. Why should I talk to you without conscience?”

“Oh... I see.”

Hunter’s excitement and expectation were all offset by Cynthia’s explanation. His mood became very heavy, and his feet seemed to be filled with lead. Every step was very strenuous. But he still took a firm step and left the ward without looking back.

According to Cynthia, she was disappointed that Hunter did not choose to save her at that time.

But now, Hunter understood Cynthia's thoughts and had a new understanding of her. He was also very disappointed. He never thought that Cynthia would say that. In his opinion, only people like Cynthia were not qualified to make friends, let alone fall in love.

Watching Hunter leave the ward, Cynthia burst into tears again. The more she thought about it, the sadder she became. She curled up under the quilt and burst into tears...

Hunter left the hospital and drove Big Ken's Lavidia all the way to the villa of Alex.

When Alex saw Hunter enter the courtyard, she leaned over curiously and said, "Hunter, you finally figured it out. Are you willing to come out and have some fresh air? Hiss... no, Hunter, we haven't seen each other for only a few hours. Why do you look worse? Did something happen?"

Big Ken, who followed closely behind, also noticed that Hunter looked gloomy and must have something in his mind.

Hunter squeezed out a bitter smile, shook his head, and said, "It's okay, it's okay... It's just that I suddenly realized that Young Master is right. If I stay in the hospital all the time, it won't help Cynthia's recovery at all, and I will become neither human nor ghost. In this case, it seems that there is no need for me to stay in the hospital."

"Oh..." Hearing Hunter's words, Alex subconsciously looked at Big Ken.

Big Ken and Alex were also confused and asked curiously, "Hunter, what happened?"

Hunter shook his head again and said, "It's really okay. I finally figured out a simple reason."

"If that's the case, then both the young master and I will be happy for you. But the problem is that your expression betrayed you. The truth is not as simple as you said. Hunter, the young master and I are not outsiders. There's nothing that we can't say in front of us, right? Don't tell me you don't trust us?"

"I... I just want to change the environment and work."

Hunter thought that he had hidden it well, but Alex and Big Ken still saw through him at a glance.

Alex heard that Hunter wanted to say goodbye to the military yard completely, so the problem became more serious. After thinking for a while, he called Hunter to the living room on the first floor and sat down. He persuaded him earnestly for a while, and then added, "Brother Big Ken and I can see that something must have happened that we don't know yet, so you made such an abnormal decision. But as the old saying goes, the person involved is confused, and the bystander is clear. As the person involved, you may have some one-sided considerations. Why don't you tell us and we will analyze it for you?"

"Yes!" Big Ken chimed in. "I won't tell you, but you know the young master's intelligence. I believe that no matter what happens, the young master can make an objective and correct analysis for you. Our purpose is not to hinder your decision, but to figure out the truth. We don't want you to do anything that may make you regret."

After Alex and Big Ken kept asking, Hunter finally changed his mind. He briefly told them about the communication between him and Cynthia in the hospital. He didn't talk about other people's habits behind their backs, let alone speak ill of them. After telling them, he didn't make any judgment on Cynthia's words. He just concluded, "I finally realize that Cynthia and I don't get along well. We are destined not to be the same person. So instead of wasting time in the hospital and wasting each other's feelings, I'd better quit as soon as possible and end it as soon as possible."

"What?" Big Ken was shocked. "Cynthia actually said that? No, that's not right. With my understanding of her, she's not that kind of person."

"Brother Big Ken, I just made a fair report and did not get involved in the exaggeration or exaggeration."

"No, no... I don't mean that. I just feel that what Cynthia said may not be the truth."

"I asked. She said that she was telling the truth."

"You are too naive. If she really wants to lie to you, she will tell you what she said is a lie? Anyway, I think there must be something hidden in it, but I can't figure out the specific situation for the time being. Young Master, you know more about beautiful Cynthia. What do you think?"

Alex shook his head gently, touched his chin and thought for a while. Suddenly, he raised his head and said to Hunter and Big Ken seriously, "This matter, including every word that Cynthia said, is enough for us three to know. We can't let it out, especially not to let Isla know. Otherwise, it may affect the relationship between Cynthia and Isla."

Big Ken and Hunter nodded heavily at the same time. After that, Big Ken asked urgently, "Young Master, do you also think that what Cynthia said is true?"

"If what she said is true, then there's no need to hide it. It's precisely because I don't think what she said is true that I can't reveal it. If it's because of a misunderstanding that affected their relationship, it's not worth it."

"Oh..."

Big Ken vaguely understood something and did not ask any more questions.

However, Hunter was confused and asked urgently, "Young Master, can you tell me in detail? What do you think the reason why Cynthia is not telling the truth? Whether I can continue to develop with her or not, I want to know what she is thinking in her heart. If we end our relationship in such a muddle, I... I am not reconciled. I may not be able to solve this knot in my heart for the rest of my life."

Alex sighed, pressed on Hunter's shoulder, and said, "I can be sure that Cynthia is not a person who can tell right from wrong. She will never blame you for not saving her at the first time. But... it's still the same sentence. Cynthia has just recovered, and her brain is a little confused. It's possible for her to say something that she would not say under normal circumstances, or say something that she doesn't mean."

"Really?"

"Hunter, if you trust me, just listen to my advice. Don't make any choice about you and Cynthia too early. At least, when Cynthia is fully recovered, you have to open up your hearts and have enough communication. Now, what you need to do is to calm down and wait patiently."

"But I... I'm in a hurry."

"That's because you've been staying in the hospital all day long, and your body and mind have been sealed. How about this, I'll give you a holiday and you go out to play by yourself. Try not to go to the hospital recently. Now both of you need to calm down. If you're impatient, you can't eat hot tofu."

"Thank you, young master! I don't have to go on holiday. Please change my position first."

"Well... that's okay. I'll arrange for Xiong Da to stay in the hospital. You can help Brother Yuan."

"Okay, young master!"

After the introduction of Alex and Big Ken, Hunter still didn't figure out what Cynthia was thinking, but he vaguely realized that it was possible for him and Cynthia to continue to develop. When he was in a good mood, he relaxed a little, and his mental appearance had changed a little.

But Alex was in trouble again.

Because the most tangled and cruel situation still happened in the end.

Alex knew what Cynthia was thinking, and now it was not the time to tell Hunter all the facts.

He was really confused and worried about Hunter and Cynthia...

Alex hardly slept all night.

The next morning, accompanied by Big Ken, Alex rushed to the hospital. Suddenly, he received a phone call, which showed the name "Vice President Ning". He was delighted and quickly answered the phone...

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 263 -

When the phone was connected, the person on the other end claimed to be Ning Haohan.

The call was from Ning Vastan's private number. Alex didn't think much about it and said with a smile, "Hello, Vice President Ning. I've heard a lot about you..."

"You're welcome, President Cohen!"

On the other end, Ning Haohan replied, "Mr. Cohen, first of all, I have to apologize to you. Because I have a lot of work to do recently, and I still have some personal troubles, I'm basically in a state of closed-door training. The assistant rejected all the guests and invitations for me, which caused Mr. Cohen to be injured by accident. If I had known that Mr. Cohen was one of the people who asked me out, I wouldn't have refused..."

"I see... It's okay, Vice President Ning. I can imagine your situation. You go ahead with your work. I'll visit you when you have free time."

"Thank you for your understanding! Now that I know, I have to make up for it in time. To be honest, even if you don't come to me, I'll come to visit you when I'm free. Although we haven't met, I've already heard of your fame! Mr. Cohen, do you think you have time at noon today? If you do, we can have lunch together."

"Okay, I'll be free at any time!"

"That's a deal. But let's talk about it first. I'll apologize to you for this meal, and it's up to me."

"Vice President Ning, you're too polite. You can count on anyone..."

Alex didn't put on airs and agreed without hesitation. It was all Ning Haohan's arrangement to have lunch together.

At 11:40 p.m., Alex arrived at the entrance of a All Plain Restaurant arranged by Ning Haohan on time and saw the man in black who had bumped into him at the elevator yesterday. Beside the man stood a man who was about the same age as him, wearing thick glasses.

When the man in the black bag saw Alex, he took the initiative to greet him and shook hands with Alex warmly. "Hello, President Cohen. Let's officially get to know each other. I am the assistant of Vice President Ning, Tang Mingyu, whom you are looking for. The person next to me is Vice President Ning. A few hours ago, you talked on the phone."

After the introduction, Tang Mingyu retreated to the side.

Then, Ning Haohan walked forward and shook hands with Alex. He looked up and down and sighed with shock. "I've long heard that Mr. Cohen is young and promising. I know you are a young man, but I didn't expect you to be younger than I thought. You should be in your early twenties, right? At your age, it's really rare for you to achieve such a big achievement. A real hero to be a young man!"

Alex was a bit embarrassed by the compliment. He waved his hand and replied, "Vice President Ning, you flatter me too much. I'm just an ordinary person, just that my luck is a bit better than ordinary people's. However, Vice President Ning, I truly admire you. Not only is your outstanding working ability, but your character is also worth learning. Your achievements and influence are all made by yourself. To tell you the truth, ever since I learned of you through rumors, I've treated you as an example."

"I just do my job by my nature. As for the rumors and the so-called influence, they are all fake... Mr. Cohen, don't stand here. Please come in."

"Okay, Vice President Ning and Assistant Tang, please lead the way!"

Alex led Big Ken to follow Ning Haohan and Tang Mingyu into a private room with the decoration style similar to the imperial palace. After ordering the dishes, they chatted for a while. When they were almost familiar with each other, Alex cut to the chase. "Vice president Ning, I heard that Grand Express Corporation has been in trouble recently. Mr. Xavier has been arrested. As the vice president, you are in seclusion to recuperate. Isn't Grand Express Corporation in danger?"

Ning Haohan waved his hand and said, "It won't collapse in a short time, but it's hard to say how long I can last. Of course, this has nothing to do with me anymore."

"Hiss... Vice President Ning, do you want to leave Grand Express Corporation?"

"I do intend to resign and retire to the countryside for retirement."

"Vice President Ning, what's going on?"

Alex was a little confused.

At first, Alex couldn't figure it out. Now it was time for Grand Express Corporation to urgently need an ox man to take over, so Ning Haohan was undoubtedly the most suitable candidate. However, in fact, he was abnormally cultivating in seclusion. More importantly, he even wanted to leave Grand Express Corporation.

“It’s not scientific!”

Alex realized that there must be something fishy about it and was ready to listen.

Ning Haohan rubbed his chin and hesitated for a moment before slowly speaking.

It turned out that Ning Haohan’s closed-door training and resignation plan were not on his own initiative. He was forced to accept it. After Gerald was arrested, he asked his brother-in-law, Liang Heng, to temporarily act as the general manager, to have full control over the group. He didn’t mention anything about Ning Haohan, as if he had forgotten the most powerful person in the group.

Everyone inside Grand Express Corporation knew that Gerald had been on guard against Ning Haohan, for fear that his position would be replaced. When he was in the group, he could still suppress him and try his best to transfer the credit to himself and his direct subordinates. Anyway, he didn’t give him a chance to be famous.

Now that he had gone in, in order to prevent Ning Haohan from taking the opportunity to get the management rights of the group, he decided without any vote from the board of directors and handed the group over to Liang Heng, who knew he was a useless idiot.

As for Liang Heng, he did everything, but did not do anything serious. He was afraid of everything, but he was not afraid of big things!

In the past, because Liang Heng and Ning Haohan were both vice directors of the same rank, they didn’t dare to openly insult Ning Haohan. Now that he had changed and became the top leader, the first thing he did after he took office was not to stabilize the situation, but to hold a high-level meeting. With the excuse that Ning Haohan was in poor health and in urgent need of rest, he handed over the joint management, which had been in charge of by Ning Haohan, to a trusted subordinate, and turned him into an idle position, almost directly fired.

It wasn’t that Liang Heng didn’t want to fire Ning Haohan, but he didn’t dare to do so out of helplessness.

This was also what Gerald had specially told him.

This was because Ning Haohan was the only person in the group who could stand up to Gerald. He had been in Grand Express Corporation for decades and had cultivated and attracted many followers. If he was directly expelled from Grand Express Corporation, he would make the group of people around him feel cold, and make Grand Express Corporation in danger worse. The consequences were unimaginable.

Although Alex was not a member of Grand Express Corporation, they had a general understanding of the situation inside Grand Express Corporation through a long talk with Ning Haohan. They also had a deeper understanding of Ning Haohan's situation. It was very aggrieved. In short, they were not talented and depressed...

As the dishes were served one after another, Ning Haohan almost finished his words. He picked up his chopsticks and greeted Alex and Big Ken, "Have it. I personally like vegetarian dishes. I don't know if you're used to it. If you don't like it, I'll arrange another table according to your preferences."

Alex waved his hand and said, "We don't choose food. Others can eat, so can we. Besides... Vice President Ning, you must have guessed that I'm looking for you mainly not for free meals, but for something important to discuss with you. I think Vice President Ning must have heard of the grievances between me and the Xavier family, right?"

"Of course! Before Mr. Xavier was arrested, he mentioned you a lot. Every time he talked about you, he gnashed his teeth. I didn't ask about it at all. He took the initiative to say your grievances. According to his intention, he wanted to raise your personal grievances to the level of the group and let everyone in the group deal with you together."

"Haha, when Jared was still alive, he already said these words to me. If my guess is correct, Vice President Ning definitely didn't agree. Otherwise, you wouldn't have agreed to my agreement... Vice President Ning, we've already talked so much, it's time to be honest. However, before we get down to business, I have a small question?"

"Oh?" Ning Haohan's interest was immediately piqued. He raised his hand and adjusted his glasses, asking curiously, "President Cohen, please go ahead."

Alex smiled and looked at Tang Mingyu, who had not spoken yet. "Assistant Tang, when we met at the elevator yesterday, you promised to help us contact Vice President Ning without knowing our identities. I don't know why you made this decision."

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 264 -

Tang Mingyu was a little surprised. After a pause, she replied, "Because I saw that you were extraordinary and behaved very gracefully, unlike other people who had an appointment with Vice President Ning. To put it bluntly, I was moved by your character, so I made that decision on my own."

Alex maintained a faint smile and said casually, "Are you sure you didn't recognize me?"

"Ahem... President Cohen, did you see something?"

"If my analysis is correct, you are Vice President Ning, aren't you?"

“President Cohen, can I hear your judgment first?”

“It’s based on several considerations. First of all, you said that in order to make up a good excuse for your poor health, Liang Heng couldn’t make up a whole story. If you accept this statement, it means that there is something wrong with your body. The big brother with glasses next to you looks very good, and he doesn’t seem to be sick. Besides, when he talked to us just now, he told us from the perspective of an onlooker, and he didn’t seem to be talking about himself. Besides, although he didn’t say anything just now, when he spoke, he would ask you for advice with his eyes from time to time...”

“All right, I admit that your analysis is right.” Ning Haohan, who was exposed on the spot, turned his head and stared at the man with glasses who was pretending to be him. He said with a smile, “Brother Tang, I’ll let you pay for today’s meal. In this case, you have to explain it to Mr. Cohen.”

Tang Mingyu nodded and said to Alex with an embarrassed smile, “Mr. Cohen, I’m sorry. It’s my fault. It’s my fault. It has nothing to do with Vice President Ning.”

Alex shook his head. “I’m not angry. You don’t have to apologize to me, but I want to know the reason.”

“It’s like this. There’s indeed something wrong with Vice President Ning’s health. It’s much more serious than what Liang Heng knows, and he has been secretly treating. Before meeting you today, we didn’t know much about you, and we don’t know why you asked him for help. In order to prevent news of his medical treatment in the military hospital from spreading, I came up with a way to exchange his identity. In fact, from the beginning, he disagreed. I insisted again and again, so he reluctantly agreed to cooperate. He said that there was no need, and he couldn’t hide it from you, and he even made a bet with me. If you can see through it, I’ll take the order. On the contrary, it’s his, I’m willing to admit defeat.”

“I see... Assistant Tang, you’re not only the good assistant of Vice President Ning, but also a good friend who truly cares about him.”

“President Cohen, it’s good that you don’t mind. Thank you for your understanding.”

Tang Mingyu raised his hand and adjusted his glasses again. Then he put his hand under the table and secretly made an “OK” gesture to Ning Haohan.

While Alex and Big Ken were not paying attention, Ning Haohan secretly gave Tang Mingyu a thumbs-up.

In fact, Tang Mingyu had taken the blame for Ning Haohan.

In fact, the method of exchanging identities was first thought of by Ning Haohan. He had heard about all kinds of deeds that Alex had done to stir up the business world. He had also seen the information and photos of Alex. But before they met, he thought that those rumors must have been made up and exaggerated. After all, normally speaking, Alex, a young man who had just graduated from college, could not have achieved such an achievement.

He knew the hatred between Alex and the Xavier family. He knew that Grand Express Corporation's predicament was caused by Alex. When he met Alex, he was suspected of colluding with the enemy. After exchanging identities with Tang Mingyu, if someone exposed this matter, he could continue to let Tang Mingyu take the blame.

In addition, he could roughly guess the purpose of looking for him. If Alex was just an ordinary rich second generation, he would not agree. From whether Alex could distinguish the real identity of him and his assistant, he could make a certain judgment on Alex's strength.

Anyway, if she was exposed, she could throw the blame to Tang Mingyu...

Through today's contact, Ning Haohan had a direct understanding of Alex. Although he didn't know much about Alex, he could tell that Alex was a person with real talent and knowledge. Compared with the rich playboys like Jared, he was many times better.

In this way, the worries in his heart could be dispelled, and he could finally be honest with her...

Alex was not a narrow-minded person. After learning the reason why Ning Haohan and Tang Mingyu exchanged identities, he did not get angry. Instead, he cared about Ning Haohan's physical condition. "Vice president Ning, I can assure you that without your permission, I will not tell anyone that you went to the military hospital for medical treatment and even what we met today. If you trust me, you can tell me the truth about your physical problems. You should know that although I am not a doctor, I am a shareholder of Heng kang Pharmaceutical Company. In terms of medical treatment, maybe I can provide some help..."

"Heart attack!"

Ning Haohan answered without hesitation, "Heart-wrenching Heart."

Alex's heart thumped and she subconsciously thought of Wembley Sullivan and Victor.

Wembley had also inherited the heart disease, which led to his early death. The heart disease was a very serious disease, and congenital treatment was even more difficult. How to cure the disease was still a big problem in the medical community. This could be seen from the fact that Victor, who was not short of money, had not been cured for decades.

Ning Haohan was used to this, so he continued calmly, "The doctor has told me clearly that my illness can't be cut off. I've been relying on drugs all the time, and I may have an attack at any time. The doctor and my family often suggested that I resign and go home to recuperate. The sooner the better, I and enjoy a relaxed life. Maybe I can live a little longer. But... I'm not reconciled. In order not to let Gerald and Liang Heng find the evidence of expelling me, and to prevent those who support me from worrying, I haven't told anyone about the medical treatment."

"How is your treatment in the military hospital?"

"I just arrived at the military hospital and found an expert. At present, the expert is still studying my condition and did not give a treatment plan. Originally, I heard that the military hospital successfully cured a patient with congenital heart disease not long ago. After many years, I saw a glimmer of hope, so I went straight to find the doctor. But the doctor said that when I checked on the phone, I learned that the patient had passed away. Alas, I guess I will be disappointed again this time."

"Did the doctor tell you the name of the cured patient? How did he die?"

"No. The doctor didn't tell me anything about the patient's privacy. He only told me the result. Mr. Cohen, what's wrong?"

Alex and Big Ken looked at each other and continued, "The patient's name is Victor, and he is my girlfriend's father, the former president of Gold Stone. His heart disease has indeed been cured. Although he has passed away, he did not die of heart disease."

"Oh?" Ning Haohan's eyes flashed, and he instantly became interested. "Mr. Cohen, you should know how Mr. Sullivan's illness was cured, right?"

"I know. But... it's not convenient for me to tell you in detail because there are some other reasons. Vice President Ning, how about this, you go directly to the military hospital to find Director Deng. I'm very familiar with Director Deng and will tell him. You don't have to worry about anything else. You just need to accept his treatment at ease. I can't be sure about the result, but I can guarantee that you can get the same treatment as Mr. Sullivan."

Alex knew very well that Victor was cured by a special medicine developed by his family.

However, this kind of thing was not suitable for people to talk about.

After thinking for a while, Ning Haohan realized that Alex was not joking, so he nodded heavily and said, "Okay! Then I'll thank Mr. Cohen first. No matter what the result is, I'll remember your kindness! Come on, let me toast you with juice!"

"You're welcome, Vice President Ning!"

Alex clinked glasses with Ning Haohan and drank the juice. He put down the glass and asked, "Vice President Ning, you just said that you don't want to resign because you are unwilling to give up? Can you tell me the details?"

Ning Haohan nodded, organized his thoughts, and said, "You must have heard from Brother Tang's introduction that I've worked hard in Grand Express Corporation for decades, but I didn't get a treatment that is directly proportional to my efforts. If the leader is a good person, I'll admit it. The key is that both Gerald and Liang Heng used me as a tool to make money and kicked me away when I used up..."

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 265 -

Alex could tell from Ning Haohan's words that Ning Haohan had done his best to serve Grand Express Corporation. Although he was willing to work hard, he did not want anything in return. He was not willing to be a donkey that could be killed at will. He also wanted to get the treatment he deserved, and he was very determined.

This could be seen from the fact that Ning Haohan had kept his illness a secret and did not want to leave Grand Express Corporation until now.

This also meant that Alex and Ning Haohan had the same opponents!

Alex secretly thought about it and asked tentatively, "Vice President Ning, may I ask what you want?"

Ning Haohan could not help but smile bitterly. "Every time someone asks me this question, I feel a little guilty, because people in Gerald camp all think that I am greedy. I admit that Gerald did give me a salary, but to put it bluntly, what I lack is not money. What's more, the money Gerald gives me is far less than what I deserve."

"Do you want status and status?"

"Well... you can say that! I've devoted my whole life and energy to Grand Express Corporation. In addition to earning that little salary to support my family, I also want to realize the value of my life and win the respect that I deserve. Those credit points to me must be counted on me and let others know. I don't want to take over the whole Grand Express Corporation, but in order to maximize my ambition, I need enough authority in the area I'm responsible for. That's all I want. President Cohen, as an observer, to be fair, am I asking for too much?"

"It's not excessive. It's normal. What you want is what you deserve."

"Look, everyone understands. Gerald just can't figure it out."

"Vice president Ning, maybe I can help you achieve your wish. To be honest, I came to you specifically to discuss a deal with you. You and I work together to take down Grand Express Corporation. I don't want much, just 51 percent of the shares. After I succeed, Grand Express Corporation will be handed over to you to manage. What do you think?"

Ning Haohan's eyes lit up. He exchanged a look with Tang Mingyu before slowly replying, "President Cohen, I've guessed it. With your relationship with Gerald, it would be strange if you didn't take the opportunity to completely destroy him. I'm willing to cooperate with you personally, but the situation inside Grand Express Corporation is more complicated. Now that Liang Heng is taking over the power alone, it won't be easy for you to become a representative."

"I know it's very difficult to achieve, and this is also the reason why I just want to cooperate with you. I don't believe in ordinary people's character and strength. Vice President Ning, you'll be in charge of this matter, and I'll provide you with logistics support. Whether it's manpower or financial resources, I can maximize your satisfaction."

"This matter is of great importance. I can't give you an answer now. Please give me some time and let me discuss it."

"No problem!"

This was the first time that Alex had met Ning Haohan. It was already a pleasant surprise that they had reached this point.

Alex knew very well that what they were talking about was a big deal that involved hundreds of billions of yuan, so they agreed without hesitation. So, they almost finished talking about the main thing that they wanted to discuss with Ning Haohan today. Then, the topic was related to the treatment of the congenital heart disease.

Compared to business cooperation, Ning Haohan was more concerned about whether his illness could be cured.

If he couldn't be cured, even if he got the chance to take charge of Grand Express Corporation, he might not be able to do it.

Alex knew that Ning Haohan was in a hurry, so he called Director Deng of the military hospital to explain the situation in front of him. He still did not mention the special effects of the medicine. He just told Director Deng that he could treat Ning Haohan in the way he used to treat Victor.

Director Deng was a smart person. He knew that Alex couldn't call him for an outsider, so he didn't ask any more questions. Instead, he agreed immediately, saying that Ning Haohan could go to the military hospital to find him at any time.

Almost a person like Ning Haohan who was almost in his fifty heard this, and he was all overjoyed. They took the phone excitedly and confirmed it with Director Deng in person.

They said that they would go to see Director Deng this afternoon and left each other their contact information in advance. Then they hung up the phone and thanked Alex again and again.

For Ning Haohan, seeing the hope of curing his illness once again was also a pleasant surprise for this trip...

After the meal, Ning Haohan, accompanied by Tang Mingyu, could not wait to rush to the military yard again.

Alex and Big Ken arrived at Qingyun Media together and found that Lin Ke was organizing people for a meeting. In addition to some high-level managers of the company, there were two reserve artists who were ready to be promoted by the company. They were Bai Ling and Lin Aoran, who everyone was familiar with.

When Lin Ke saw Alex coming, he immediately stopped the meeting. He asked Alex to sit down at the table and said, "Cousin, you came at the right time. You can help me make a reference. The meeting has been held for a while. I'll briefly introduce the main purpose of this meeting to you. This is the information. You can read it while listening to my introduction..."

"Okay." Alex took the document, nodded, and said, "Just say it. I hope I can help."

"It's like this. In order to revive the company, after careful consideration, we decided that in addition to continuing to promote the development of artists and the development of star management, we also need a TV series, an online drama, and a variety show. The main topic of today's meeting is variety show."

"The variety show is very troublesome, isn't it? Is it ready so soon?"

"Haha, we got a big bargain this time! I didn't know until I took over the company. It turned out that Dou Haitao had already begun to plan a reality show that was broadcast at the same time by a TV series. It's called All People Ahead. It can almost be regarded as the combination of Running Brothers and All People Speed up. I have seen the detailed plan and feel very promising."

"If you have potential, you can try, but... according to your words, this All-methods Charge is similar to the other two famous variety shows. Will it involve the patent rights? If someone sues you, it will be troublesome."

"Haha, cousin, are you going out? If there is no movement after the show is launched, then you will be finished. On the contrary, the bigger the noise, the more popular the show will be. Some programs are neither warm nor popular, and they will take the initiative to spend money to find people to attract the attention, just like some people who will pay for the box office and hire the navy. And..."

“Cousin, you’re talking about hype, aren’t you? I can understand this. I’m worried that the problem is that if our company really loses after a lawsuit, the consequences will be serious. Not only will we compensate and apologize to them, but we won’t be able to broadcast the show. The production fee will be wasted.”

“Cousin, don’t worry. Let me finish my words first. Didn’t I just say that we got a big bargain this time? The variety show ‘All People Ahead’ has been completed long ago. The reason why we didn’t make it until Dou Haitao was arrested was that we were sorting out the issue of patent. After a long time of hard work, Dou Haitao finally finished the problem of patent. He has been approved by the Department of Construction and has applied for patent. With these two documents in hand, what are you afraid of? I don’t dare to guarantee whether this show will be popular or not at present. But one thing I can be sure of is that all the people who sue us for patent rights will be promoting us.”

“I see. That’s settled!”

“Cousin, our plan is to invite two or three popular stars to stay as guests to ensure the most basic traffic flow. We will invite several different second or third-class artists to create a new atmosphere. Then, we will make up for a few newcomers promoted by our company. Among the newcomers, Bai Ling and Lin Aoran are the main ones. The specific appearance of the show is like this...”

Lin Ke liked this variety show very much and was very confident about the future of the show. He couldn’t stop talking. He didn’t stop until his throat was about to smoke.

Through Lin Ke’s introduction, Alex had a comprehensive understanding of the variety show “All People Ahead” and said, “Cousin, I don’t think it’s a problem. You can try it. But there are two things to pay attention to. The first one is to invite artists to be careful. Don’t use inferior artists, and who cannot suffer bitters. The second one is that the content of the show can’t be too childish. Not to mention burning their brains, at least they have to be online...”

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 266 -

Alex had no experience in media and management. Therefore, after taking down Qingyun Media, he handed over its full authority to Lin Ke who is the leader of the group. He almost did not interfere with any decision-making of the company. If he had not happened to meet this today, he would not have participated in such a meeting at all.

Even if he took part in it, he couldn’t give professional suggestions on specific projects. He just put forward two requirements from an ordinary audience’s point of view. As the entertainment industry flourished in recent years, all kinds of variety shows appeared one after another. The more audiences chose, the higher the requirements became. It was not as easy as before when they had no choice.

To put it simply, it was no longer the era where people could get angry by relying on the card department and the hammer.

Whether it was variety show or film and television industry, both of them were more and more inclined to have a high reputation and high quality.

This was the direct understanding of Alex as a passer-by.

As for Lin Ke, although he didn't really get involved in the management and media industry before, but he was a leader for many years, in addition to some mutual communication between management and various industries, she also began to pay attention to the industry a long time ago and knew a lot about it. In addition, after he took over Qingyun Media, he had either dug up professional talents or consulted field experts, which had strengthened the development of the industry, including himself.

It was equivalent to the deep cooperation between Alex and Lin Ke. One paid for it, and the other contributed to achieve the value of life together...

After the meeting, the variety show "All People Ahead" was officially established and immediately began to be implemented.

Lin Ke had arranged all the relevant tasks.

Alex knew that he couldn't help much, so he didn't take the initiative to take over the job. After the leaders left, he looked at Bai Ling and Lin Aoran and said with a smile, "I can imagine that although stars are glamorous on the surface, they have to put in a lot of effort and sweat behind their backs. If you want to make a debut, you have to train hard in terms of talent and physical quality, and you don't have to be afraid of hardships. For example, you need enough physical strength to participate in the show 'All People Ahead'. After the show is broadcast, the audience can see your performance directly. Even if you are not very outstanding in talent, you can win a lot of fans by relying on these two points, which are not afraid of hardships or work hard..."

Lin Aoran nodded and replied, "Mr. Cohen is right. No matter which industry you don't work hard, you can't make a name for yourself. My talent is average, but my physical quality is not bad. When I was in high school and university, I participated in the school sports meeting, basketball, short running, etc. My grades are not bad. After graduation, I often exercise."

"Brother Aoran, I know that you are in good health and not afraid of suffering. This can be seen from the fact that you have lived in the countryside for such a long time and have successfully completed the project of demolition. If it were anyone else, they might not have been able to hold on, especially those who have the potential to be an idol. But sister Ling'er... I am a little worried."

“I don’t think there’s any problem with Sister Ling’er! I’ve seen her talent performance on the song song. Whether it’s singing or dancing, she’s definitely an idol. If she isn’t outstanding enough, it’s impossible for her to attract millions of fans. I know that she didn’t buy zombie powder. So many fans were attracted by her strength. To be honest, I envy her very much and she’s also one of her fans.”

Bai Ling was a little embarrassed by the praise. She scratched her hair and said with a red face, “No, there are a lot of people playing Douyin, and I got a lot of recommendations...”

“Douyin adopted the mechanism of the best recommendation. If you can get more recommendations, it means that you are better than others.”

“Really? I didn’t pay attention to this.” Bai Ling smiled and looked at Alex expectantly. “Brother Alex, do you think I have the potential to become an artist?”

Alex replied with certainty, “Yes, if not, I wouldn’t have proposed to let you represent your family’s resort at that time. Even if you didn’t become popular in Douyin, I still think that you will make a debut sooner or later and become a famous person. I don’t think your appearance and talent are a problem. What I’m worried about is that you are too thin and your personality is simple. You need to pay more attention to these two points.”

“Well, in fact, my physical quality is still good. If you don’t believe me, look, I also have muscles...”

As Bai Ling spoke, she showed her right arm, rolled up her sleeves, and showed her delicate arm. However, her muscles did not bulge. What she pinched was only white and tender skin.

Alex held back his laughter and said seriously, “A girl doesn’t need muscles, as long as she has excellent physical strength. How about this? Anyway, we live close to each other. I have a simple gym at home. If you have time, you can go to my house to practice. I’ll get you a key and a private coach. When I have time, I’ll also practice...”

“Great!”

Bai Ling was a little disappointed, but when she heard that she could practice with Alex, the haze in her heart was swept away in an instant.

From time to time, Alex had become extremely important to her and she was eager to get his approval. When she couldn’t see Alex, she was always uneasy and would think about it from time to time. Every time she saw Alex, she was also worried.

In other words, it felt like that there was a deer run in her heart.

To put it more bluntly, her heart was stirred...

Alex did not notice this dangerous signal and immediately went to find Lin Ke.

As a management company, Qingyun Media started with the management of stars. It had rich manpower and experience in training artists. Lin Ke understood Alex's thoughts and did not hesitate to find the person in charge of improving the reserve artists' physical strength, ready to arrange a private coach for Bai Ling.

At this moment, Big Ken walked up to Alex and said hesitantly, "Young Master, can you open a back door for me?"

Alex was stunned. "Brother Big Ken, what's going on?"

"Don't you want to find a private coach for Bai Ling? I can recommend one for you."

"Okay! No... Brother Big Ken, you're helping me. Why did you ask me to open the back door for you?"

"Hehe, because I don't recommend outsiders..."

"Not an outsider? Or an insider... Could it be your girlfriend?"

"Well... to be exact, she is my fiancée. Because she said that if I didn't marry her, she would die. In order to protect her life, I had no choice but to marry her."

"That's great. I'm very interested in your girlfriend... No, I'm very curious! When I heard from Hunter that you had a... fiancée, I wanted you to introduce her to me. Unfortunately, I didn't have a chance. Now that I have a chance, I have to catch her. By the way, I still don't know her name."

"Her name is Wendy."

"What a scholarly name, a lady from a noble family?"

"On the contrary, she was the same as me. She was ordered hard. At that time, she was almost brought back by Master at the same time as me, and her name was also given by Master. We trained together for many years, and it was not too much to say that we were childhood sweethearts. Unfortunately, we each had our own tasks later, and we were separated from each other. The tasks were arranged by Master, so it was inconvenient for me to say more, so..."

"So you want me to call my dad to mention this?"

"Hehe, that's what I mean."

"It's such a small matter, but you're still so naughty. I really don't know how you caught up with my sister-in-law. Wait, I'll call her right now!"

Although Alex and Big Ken had a clear relationship with the employer and bodyguards, in fact, they had been good brothers for a long time. When he was taken care of by Big Ken, he would care about Big Ken subconsciously and also care about Big Ken's happiness.

If it was for his own business, Alex might be too embarrassed to call Wayne.

But for the sake of Big Ken, he did not hesitate and immediately called Wayne.

Wayne was also a straightforward person. He agreed without much consideration and said that he would let Wendy come in two days.

Big Ken was listening from the side. When he thought that he would soon see the person he missed day and night, he was so excited that his face turned red.

Just as Alex was about to leave, a young employee knocked on the door and came in. He said to Alex, "President Cohen, there's a man called Liang Heng at the door who wants to see you..."

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 267 -

"Liang Heng? I don't even know him. Why did he come to me?"

Alex frowned and answered without hesitation, "Just tell him that I'm not here and send him away."

The young employee laughed awkwardly and said, "But Liang Heng said that he knew you were here and that if you didn't go out, he would break in with his men."

"I see... Then I'll go meet him."

Alex shook his head helplessly and was about to go out.

Lin Ke suddenly grabbed Alex and said to the staff, "Ask Liang Heng to wait for a while. By the way, gather all the security guards of the company and let them be ready to fight."

The employee was surprised, but he didn't ask much and ran out quickly.

Lin Ke asked Alex curiously, "Cousin, you're quite efficient. How can you compete with Liang Heng so quickly?"

"Not yet! Cousin, I came here today to tell you about this..."

Alex briefly told him about the meeting with Ning Haohan today, and then added, "According to my plan, I didn't expect to meet Liang Heng so soon, and I didn't even want to attract his attention. Because the more secretive I am recently, the higher the possibility of my cooperation with Vice President Ning will be.”

“Hiss... You reached an agreement with Vice President Ning without meeting Liang Heng. It’s already very fast. Cousin, your idea is right. It’s not convenient for you and Vice President Ning to cooperate in public at the moment. But now, Liang Heng has come to you. If you deliberately avoid meeting him, you may make a fool of yourself. As far as I know, although Liang Heng is useless, he is not a fool. I suggest that you deal with him normally. You should restrain yourself and argue with him.”

“That makes sense.”

“Cousin, this is a contradiction between you and Grand Express Corporation. I won’t get involved first. It’s not that I’m afraid of trouble, but I don’t want Liang Heng to vent his anger on Qingyun Media. But if you need any help, just tell me.”

“I understand, cousin. You are now the sign of Qingyun Media, and it is at the critical moment of its prosperity. You should try not to get into trouble as much as possible. Otherwise, you will be irresponsible for the wishes of Qingyun Media and our brothers.”

Alex was not afraid of Liang Heng, so he didn’t need anyone to help him. After talking with Lin Ke, he took Big Ken to the gate of Qingyun Media. There were already two groups of people confronting each other. One was a security guard in a uniform, and the other was Liang Heng and others. One of them wanted to come in while the other refused to go in. It was very stiff and they were about to fight.

The young employee who had just entered the room to deliver the message quickly walked up to Alex. He pointed to a round-faced middle-aged man who was arguing with the leader of the security guards and said, “That person is Liang Heng.”

This was the first time Alex had seen Liang Heng. As they walked, they looked at him curiously. They found that although Liang Heng was not a good bird, he looked very happy. He was short, fat, and round! His head was like a basketball, and his belly was round as if he was pregnant with twins.

The fat middle-aged man’s sense of vision was overwhelming.

In Liang Heng’s opinion, the ancients had made a fool of themselves by saying “people rely on clothes”.

And it was a slap in the face.

That was because Liang Heng had dressed Versace, which took 6,000 yuan per set, but it look like it was a set of 60 yuan stalls...

Liang Heng had also seen the photos of Alex. When he saw Alex coming, he stopped arguing with the security captain. He looked at Alex with narrowed eyes and said in an arrogant manner, "You finally showed up? I thought you were a fucking coward and didn't dare to come out to see him."

Seeing this, the security guards all got out of the way.

Alex went straight to Liang Heng and looked at him closely. He shook his head in disappointment and said, "Liang Heng, not only did you ruin the phrase 'people rely on clothes', but you also made it sound like 'you're better known than to meet'... It's said that people are made of mud by Goddess Nvywa, and you should be made of waste stones, right? You look too casual."

Liang Heng suddenly became anxious. "You... you fu*king..."

"What's wrong with me?"

Alex looked relaxed. When it came to scolding, he was not afraid anymore.

However, Alex was not in the mood to talk nonsense with Liang Heng and quickly cut to the chase. "Tell me, what can I do for you?"

Liang Heng kept calm and restored his contemptuous expression. He said to Alex, "Aren't you f*cking asking questions because you know the answer? I came here today to confirm two things and bring you a message. You killed Jared, didn't you? And you caused the crisis of Grand Express Corporation, didn't you?"

"Are you here to investigate the case? Show me your investigation certificate or the law enforcement certificate first!"

"Gerald and I are good friends. I'm also very sad that his son was killed. Now it's not convenient for him to seek justice for his son. I'm here in his private name. What certificate do you want? Besides, if I were the law enforcer, I wouldn't have come to ask you, but to arrest you directly!"

"You want to catch me? Come on, show me your handcuffs and handcuff me!"

"You..."

"What are you talking about? Liang Heng, if you have something serious to talk to me about, just tell me. If you don't have something to talk about, then you can go back. We just met, and we are not familiar with each other. Besides, I don't have time to talk nonsense."

Alex was no longer the timid and timid boy who could be scolded by anyone. After changing his identity, he had the confidence to speak and do things, and his courage naturally increased. During the process of dealing with all kinds of opponents, he had learned all kinds of abilities. For the time being, no one could take advantage of his eloquence.

Liang Heng was originally a top-notch man who pestered others endlessly and had few opponents. He thought that the reason why he could scare Alex in terms of momentum was that he took the opportunity to put on an act for himself and ask Alex for an explanation on behalf of Gerald.

As a result, not only did he fail to scare Alex, but he was also defeated by Alex.

Liang Heng realized that Alex was a tough guy, so he stopped asking for trouble. He stopped Alex, who was about to leave, and said angrily, "I thought you were a gentleman, but I didn't expect you to be a villain... But it doesn't matter if you don't admit it. As the old saying goes, if you don't want others to know, you can't do it unless you don't do it. Anything you have done can't be kept a secret forever. The truth will be revealed sooner or later! Let's get to the point. I just said that I came to you today to help Gerald..."

"Hey, can't you get straight to the point?"

"Gerald said that he will give you one last chance. As long as you turn yourself in and take the initiative to admit all the crimes you have committed, all your grievances will be written off. If you don't agree, then he won't go through the law and will deal with it on his own. At that time, he promise you won't even have the chance to call the police for help!"

"Hiss... Liang Heng, is this what you're talking about? In my ears, this is still nonsense!"

"Humph! Don't think that he's scaring you. You'd better think twice. Don't underestimate his determination to avenge his son..."

"All right, you can go back now!"

Alex knew from the very beginning that after killing Jared, he would definitely suffer the crazy revenge of Gerald, so he didn't take Liang Heng's warning seriously.

However, Alex really underestimated the determination of Gerald.

Liang Heng probably knew about Alex's revenge plan, but it was not convenient for him to tell Alex the truth, and he didn't get a chance to tell him in detail. Anyway, the words had been brought here, and the task had been completed. He didn't ask for trouble anymore and left resentfully. If it weren't for the fact that Gerald didn't require him to bring it, he wouldn't have made this trip.

Big Ken watched as Liang Heng entered the elevator. After the security guards left, he approached Alex and said worriedly, "Young Master, if Gerald insists on going through the trial, it will be easier for you to solve this problem. Because I can guarantee that he can't find any evidence. But if he wants to solve it in private, the problem will become serious..."

Alex was curious and quickly asked, "Brother Big Ken, are you a little worried?"

"After all, Gerald is a big shot with a net worth of ten billion yuan. Money can make ghosts go ahead."

"I know that he can spend money to hire someone to deal with me, but I have experienced a lot of such things."

"But... all right."

Big Ken thought for a while and held back his words.

However, Big Ken had to be careful...

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 268 -

Big Ken was not afraid of Gerald, and he was confident that he could protect Alex. The problem was that he had two tasks. In addition to protecting Alex from any harm, he also needed to protect Alex's reputation. Because Alex's identity was too special, he had to avoid leaving any stains. Otherwise, it would affect the big plan of Wayne and Alex's family.

This was also the reason why Big Ken insisted not to let Alex deal with Jared himself.

After thinking for a while, Big Ken thought it was better to be cautious. In the evening, he sent Alex home and went back to the car alone. After that, he immediately dialed Group Leader Pang's number and went straight to the point. "I'm sorry, Group Leader Pang, for disturbing you so late at night. There is a situation that needs to be reported to you. Today, Liang Heng, acting general manager of Jared, came to find my young master on behalf of Gerald. Gerald insisted on blaming Jared's death on my young master and taking revenge privately."

On the other side, Group Leader Pang was not angry. He answered excitedly, "You are welcome. On the contrary, it's necessary for you to make this phone call. Brother Big Ken, you're willing to report the situation to me, which means that you still believe in our police. I'm very gratified."

"We've always believed in you. If it weren't for the special situation we met before, we wouldn't have dealt with it privately. The situation this time is also very special, but the hidden opponent didn't ask us not to call the police, so I didn't hesitate to inform you. At the same time, I also want to ask you for help. Although I don't know what Gerald's revenge plan is, I vaguely feel that in order to take revenge on my young master, Gerald may find an extraordinary opponent this time. We can't underestimate him. I want to ask you to pay attention to it..."

"Don't worry. Since I know the situation, I will definitely be ready to support you at any time."

"No, no... Group Leader Pang, you misunderstood. I just want you to pay more attention to the source. If Gerald is outside, it will be really difficult to control this matter. But now Gerald has been caught by you and lost his freedom. No matter what he wants to do, he can only tell others, and it is in the territory of the police. If you can eavesdrop on the conversation between Gerald and all the people who contact him, you may be able to see some clues. If you can help me figure out what the exact revenge plan of Gerald is, then it will help me a lot..."

"I see... I understand. Brother Big Ken, the situation is like this. Although Gerald was arrested, he still has some privacy. For example, when he meets the lawyer, the police can't be present and can't detect. However, since you have said this, I will definitely try my best to pay attention to as much as possible without violating the principles and laws."

"Okay, okay. Group Leader Pang, I'm relieved to hear that. No matter what the result is, I'll thank you."

"Brother Big Ken, you're welcome!"

After team leader Pang and Big Ken made their call, they immediately found a few trusted subordinates to make arrangements. On the surface, he said to Big Ken that he would not violate the principles and laws for inquiring about the situation, but in fact, he had already made up his mind to see through Gerald's words and actions.

However, this kind of thing that he would be punished once it was spread out, was not something outsiders could tell.

And there were some things that no one would know if he didn't say it.

Big Ken had already said what he wanted to say. He knew that Group Leader Pang could understand what he meant, so he didn't say anything. After hanging up the phone, he called Xie Si again, asking the huge street forces led by Xie Si to pay more attention, which was tantamount to adding two layers of defense to the danger that Alex might face.

After everything was settled, Big Ken felt a little relieved...

The next day, Alex went around as usual. He first went to Xie SiHudson Designs LLC, Gold Stone, and Qingyun Media. In the afternoon, he came to the military yard again to visit Cynthia. He found that after Hunter left the military yard, Cynthia recovered very quickly and could basically communicate with his family and friends.

At first glance, this was a good sign.

But from the perspective of Hunter, it was another bad news.

Compared with the last time when Alex came to the military courtyard, there was another acquaintance here, Ning Haohan.

Yesterday afternoon, Director Deng officially treated Ning Haohan. After a comprehensive examination, he learned that Ning Haohan's condition was almost the same as that of Victor. According to the requirements of Alex, he set up the same treatment plan as Victor. Today, the treatment had just begun, but the result was still unknown.

However, with the help of special effects, there was a great hope.

For Alex, this was good news. He knew that Ning Haohan was a capable person with good abilities and character. Even if they didn't cooperate, he hoped that he could get better. After reaching the intention of cooperation, he hoped that he could recover as before. After all, Ning Haohan was the key figure in determining whether he could successfully win Grand Express Corporation. If he succeeded, he would have to hand Grand Express Corporation over to him to manage.

In addition, Alex also got a piece of good news that Xiao Hang could finally be discharged from the hospital.

All the characteristics of Xiao Hang's life had long been restored to normal, such as some burns and explosions on the surface of his body. It was relatively troublesome to deal with, and it took more time. Among them, the most eye-catching thing was that Xiao Hang's face needed to be covered with skin grafting surgery. He needed to take off the skin from his thigh and plant it on the disfigured part of his face.

This operation had been going on for a while, and it was better for him to recover.

However, no matter how good this kind of sewing operation was, no matter how well it recovered, it would more or less leave some marks. It was impossible for it to return to its original state 100%.

Alex stared at the mark on Xiao Hang's face from a close distance and said sadly, "When it comes to the crazy fan, I just feel a little surprised. I thought how could there be such a fool in the world. Your experience this time made me realize that not only did the crazy fan lower the average IQ of human beings, but also hurt normal human beings...”

Xiao Hang shook his head and said solemnly, “Mr. Cohen, if you do my job, you will know that although there are many good people in the world, there are still some bad people. I once caught some bad people in my bones. If it weren’t for the limitations of my profession, I would have shot them to death on the spot. I have seen the real wicked people who take human lives seriously, and when I face the so-called crazy fans, I will not be surprised. Moreover, most of the crazy fans just make people feel that it is hard to understand, and they will not do anything bad. My experience is just an exception...”

“Well! Captain Xiao, maybe your opinion is right, but I still feel that the current entertainment industry’s development is a bit abnormal. I think that entertainment can only be used as a normal life and an entertainment outside of work. The principle of entertainment is extremely wrong.”

“Mr. Cohen, I heard that you have won Qingyun Media. As the boss of a management company, it’s really rare for you to have such awareness. If all the employees can think the same as you, then there will definitely be fewer crazy fans. Because many so-called idols who can make fans fascinated by their faces are wrapped up by the company...”

“Who said no?”

Through the communication with Xiao Hang, Alex was deeply touched and had a great impact on his idea of running Qingyun Media...

After the chat, Xiao Hang changed the topic and said, “Boss Cohen, I have something to thank you for. I heard that the subordinates sent by Jing Kun were all killed by you. You have made a lot of contributions to our anti-virus team. I have applied to my superior and transferred other work out after being discharged from the hospital. I want to deal with Jing Kun wholeheartedly. Moreover, I have established a military leadership system. In a year, if I don’t arrest this big poison owl, I will give up the position of captain!”

“One year... isn’t it too short? After all, Jing Kun has been rampant for decades, but he hasn’t been caught yet.”

“It was really difficult to catch him, because no one could find him. But it’s all thanks to you. You destroyed his offline, adopted son, and right-hand men one after another. During this process, through continuous tracking and investigation, we have initially confirmed his movements... In the future, leave this matter to me. Don’t get involved anymore.”

Xiao Hang didn’t blame Alex for meddling in other people’s affairs. The reason why he didn’t let Alex intervene was that he had good intentions...

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 269 -

Alex understood Xiao Hang's good intentions, but he looked very helpless. "Captain Xiao, I know you don't want me to get into bigger trouble, but..."

Xiao Hang also smiled bitterly and said, "I can imagine that with the hatred between you and Jing Kun, even if you don't take the initiative to provoke him, you will inevitably suffer his crazy revenge. Moreover, it is estimated that next time, he should personally take action, because one of his most powerful people has been killed by you. Except for himself, there is no one more powerful than Pei Chong who can be used."

"Captain Xiao, as you said, even the most powerful people under Jing Kun can't do anything to me. Even if he comes in person, I'm not afraid. You always say, help others to the end. If there is a suitable opportunity, I don't mind helping Jing Kun to cure you."

"From my duty, of course, I am happy to see this happen. But as a friend, I still advise you not to do that. First of all, this is very dangerous, and you are the person I value very much. I don't want anything to happen to you. Second, capturing the drug dealers headed by Jing Kun is our duty. If you do all of them, we will be fired."

"Well... Captain Xiao, why don't we cooperate? If you don't catch Jing Kun, I'm not at ease. Since we have the same enemy, it's natural for us to join hands."

"Okay. But let's make it clear first that no matter what happens at that time, the police will take the lead."

"No problem!"

Both Alex and Xiao Hang were determined to deal with Jing Kun.

Neither of them could persuade each other. They could only reach an agreement...

The next day, Xiao Hang was discharged early in the morning and couldn't wait to go back to work.

In the afternoon, Isla had the last examination. After confirming that there was no problem, she also went through the discharge formalities. In fact, she had asked to be discharged from the hospital for a long time, but Alex did not agree. Instead, she thought about it. Anyway, it was convenient to take care of Cynthia in the hospital, so she did not stop the treatment until she had completely recovered.

Alex sent Isla and Xena back home. When he saw the newly purchased villa that had just been renovated, his heart suddenly hurt again. If he had been prepared before, he would have arranged for them to be safe before Isla and Cynthia were targeted by Jing Kun's men. Maybe that would not have happened.

But now, it was too late to say anything.

“Alas...”

Alex sighed and handed the key to the villa to Isla. “From now on, this villa is officially handed over to you...”

Isla just nodded gently and did not answer.

However, Xena came over, glared at Alex, and said, “What’s wrong? Are you sad? Are you unhappy?”

Alex ignored Xena and continued to say to Isla, “Although the villa is yours, my name is written on the property ownership certificate. It depends on you to mind. If you mind, we can take some time to go through half of the transfer procedure. It’s not very troublesome.”

“No need...”

Isla shook his head.

Xena grabbed the key of the villa, rolled his eyes at Isla, and continued, “Lala, why not? Don’t look at him. He is very rich now and doesn’t care about this villa, but as the saying goes, when the poor get old, who will know if he loses in ten years? If you don’t transfer the property, if he is down and wants to take back the villa in the future, we can only give him a place obediently! Listen to me, and go and finish the transfer procedure as soon as possible!”

“Even if he never lacks this villa, you can see who he offends. All of them are ruthless characters who kill people without batting an eye. If something happens to him one day, when the people who deal with it check his inheritance, they will find that this villa is under his name. If we say that he gave it to us, will they believe it? So...”

“Mom, it’s almost done... Okay, okay, okay, okay, let’s transfer the property, okay?”

Isla couldn’t stand it anymore. In order to prevent Xena from cursing Alex more viciously, he had to compromise. Anyway, Alex didn’t care about this. It was just a matter of running and moving his mouth.

Xena thought that Isla was convinced by her and felt very happy. When she recalled what she had said just now, her eyes suddenly lit up and she asked subconsciously, “Lala, are you sure you want to marry Alex?”

“Ah?”

Isla was shocked and felt terrible. “No... Mom, what the hell are you going to do?”

“I’m your mother. What can I do? Isn’t it for your own good? Lala, be serious. If you’re determined to marry Alex, I won’t object. I’ve already shown my attitude. But I have a condition. You must get married and have children as soon as possible. I want to have... grandchildren!”

“What’s going on? Mom, aren’t you changing too much?”

“In the words of you young people, if you think he can give you happiness, then as a mother, I will definitely respect your choice. From my point of view, I can help you take care of the child before my body is broken. If I delay for too long, I may not have the energy.”

“No, no... Mom, tell me honestly, what are you thinking now?”

Isla firmly did not believe that her mother would suddenly become so considerate and reasonable. There must be something wrong.

But she racked her brains and couldn’t figure out what her mother was up to, so she looked at Alex.

At this time, Alex was also stunned. “Did the sun come from the west this morning?” But this thought only flashed across his mind because he knew that just like the sun couldn’t come out from the west, Xena couldn’t change so easily.

Combined with Xena’s current statements, Alex finally came up with a clue after a thorough discussion. He calmly said to Xena, “Do you want me to establish a legal husband and wife relationship with Lala as soon as possible? It’s best to have another child. In this way, if something happens to me, you can get my inheritance in a justified way?”

“What?”

Isla stood on the spot again.

Although Alex had a big imagination, after thinking for a while and looking at Xena’s expression, she knew that Alex was right.

Isla was so angry that her heart was trembling. She snatched the key back from Xena’s hand at lightning speed and said sternly, “Mom, whether I can be with Alex or not, let’s not talk about it for the time being. But I can show my attitude first. If we are really married, then we will definitely be property notary before we get married! Also, all the things he gave us, including the company, the house, and the car, are all mine. Strictly speaking, except for the fact that he gave them to you, the rest has nothing to do with you!”

Without hesitation, Alex gave Isla a thumbs-up in front of Xena.

Xena, on the other hand, was greatly frightened by the words "Estate Contract". She ignored Alex and rushed over to grab Isla's arm, revealing an extremely embarrassed smile. "Silly child, Alex didn't even mention this matter. Why did you mention it? Lala, how about this, I won't force you. You can fall in love freely as long as you want, and I won't ask anymore. As for the property notary, don't mention it again, and don't do it. It hurts your feelings, and it's like you know that you're destined to divorce in the future..."

Isla finally grasped Xena's family and felt very proud.

Alex added at the right time, "Lala and I will definitely get married and have children, but whether or not we can get married or not depends on your next performance as a mother. After all, after getting married, the two families will become a family. If the relationship between the family members is not good, then the property notary is necessary."

"That's right, that's right!"

Under the stimulation of Xena, Isla finally made up her mind to stand on the side of Alex. Then she said, "Mom, you're out. Now there are too many witnesses for the premarital property. It's almost a new element in the young people's circle. There's no such thing as hurting feelings."

"I... I..."

Xena was so scared that her face turned pale, and she wanted to slap herself a few times.

Why did you mention it?

It's too late to regret now...

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 270 -

In stark contrast with the negative emotions of Xena, Alex and Isla were both enthusiastic at this time.

Isla was happy because she had finally found a good tool to cooperate with the relationship between Alex and her mother, which was Alex's "inheritance". If this matter was spread out, her mother would be stabbed in the back. Even she felt helpless and did not know whether to laugh or cry.

The reason why Alex was happy was that he felt that Isla was on his side. This meant that the impact of Pei Chong's kidnapping incident on them had been eliminated, and they had returned to their previous state. More importantly, the only person who hindered them was Xena, who had been stunned.

From now on, they could fly away and develop freely.

Alex was about to strike while the iron was hot. He called Isla alone to a secluded place to cultivate their feelings, only to see Big Ken come in. Along with Big Ken, there was a beautiful woman in black leather clothes and leather pants. She looked to be about 25 or 26 years old. She had short, thin, medium height, and a well-proportioned figure. Her skin was in a healthy wheat color. At first glance, it was obvious that she was a master of fitness.

Although she was not the first-class beauty in the eyes of ordinary people, her temperament was excellent, and her appearance was not a burden.

While he was in a daze, Big Ken had already walked up to him. He pointed to the beautiful woman next to him and said to Alex, "Young Master, she is Wendy."

"I guessed it." Alex winked at Big Ken and said, "Brother Big Ken, you have good luck."

"Hehe..." Big Ken smiled foolishly and felt a little embarrassed.

With a smile on her face, Wendy nodded to Alex and said generously, "Hello, young master! It's my master who asked me to help you. If you need anything, feel free to tell me. However... my education is low, and I may not be able to complete some tasks. Please forgive me."

Alex waved his hand and said, "Sister Wendy, you don't have to be so polite. Brother Big Ken and I are like brothers. You have made a marriage deal with him, so you are my sister-in-law. We are a family, and there is no relationship between us. You don't know me now, so you may be a little restrained. It will be good if we get to know each other."

"Ahem... Young Master, is there any misunderstanding? Big Ken and I are just friends."

"Ah?" Alex was a little confused. "Didn't Brother Big Ken say..."

Before Alex could finish his words, Big Ken took over the conversation and said, "Well, Young Master, I'm sorry to interrupt you. What you just talked about is just a small matter. We can talk about it when we have a chance in the future. Wendy has come all the way here, so she must be hungry. I want to arrange a feast for her. Young Master, please come with us..."

"No problem!"

Alex vaguely guessed the inside story, so he agreed without asking further.

However, Wendy was not happy. She turned her head, stared at Big Ken, and asked with a serious face, "Are you talking nonsense again? I have to remind you again. Although you have confessed to me many times and I have a good impression of you, I haven't promised you yet. Then we are just ordinary friends, not lovers. As for you shamelessly insisted on having a private marriage with me, you are not allowed to mention it!"

"Ahem, I... Young Master, it's not what you think. Actually... forget it, let's go eat first."

Big Ken blushed after being criticized by Wendy. He was in a hurry to explain it to Alex. In this case, the explanation was equivalent to covering up. Hiding was the truth. He responded to the popular online saying, "Come out and show off, sooner or later, you will have to pay it back. It's so miserable to be beaten on the spot instead of pretending to be cool."

Big Ken had nowhere to hide. He lowered his head and ran out in a hurry.

Alex had learned the truth from Wendy's words. But as a man, he didn't mean to laugh at Big Ken. Instead, he thought it was interesting. After knowing Big Ken for so long, he only saw the serious and serious side of Big Ken. He really didn't expect that Big Ken would have such a happy side.

Wendy seemed to have gotten used to this. He said to Alex as if nothing had happened, "Young master, I'm not a big shot. Don't make trouble. Don't listen to him. Master said that you arranged me to come here because you have a suitable task for me. Please give me a task directly."

"Well... no problem, please come with me."

Alex got on the Lamborghini with Wendy and said to the blushing Big Ken, "Brother Big Ken, don't you mind if I would bring sister Ling'er?"

Big Ken shook his head and answered awkwardly, "I don't mind."

"Then pick her up. I'll call her..."

"Okay!"

With the order of Big Ken, they quickly drove to the villa of the Bai family.

Bai Ling picked up Alex's call and waited at the door in advance. Bai Fan was also there.

Bai Fan took Bai Ling to the Lamborghini that had just stopped and said to Alex, "Mr. Cohen, I heard that you asked Ling'er to use your gym and arranged a coach for her."

Thank you so much. When my house was renovated, it was not popular to do this so we didn't set up a gym. Now it's very troublesome to modify it..."

Alex smiled and replied, "We are old acquaintances, and our family is now neighbors, so there is no need to be so polite. Your family doesn't need to modify the gym. I will give Ling'er the key to my family. Not only her, but the rest of your family can also go to the gym at any time."

"Forget about the others. We can't afford to have that kind of interest and don't have time. It's just that we're already very embarrassed to have Ling'er trouble you."

"Look at you, I told you not to be so polite. You're here again. Manager Bai, Sister Ling'er, I've invited the coach here. If it's convenient for you now, you can come with us for dinner. Let's get to know each other. In the future, you'll meet often..."

After that, Alex introduced Wendy to Bai Fan and Bai Ling.

Bai Ling agreed without hesitation.

Bai Fan also agreed to go, but she insisted on her paying the order.

Alex was not a pretentious person. He also knew that he would not give Bai Fan a chance to spend money. Given Bai Fan's character, she might always remember this almost negligible favor and let her do what she wanted. Then, he would leave the meal to her.

Bai Fan found a hotel and asked for a very high-end catering set.

During the banquet, Alex officially arranged tasks for Wendy. What was worth mentioning was that in the future, Wendy would not only be Bai Ling's fitness coach, but also be a full-time bodyguard and protect her all the time. From the moment Big Ken said that Wendy had received training since she was a child, Alex had secretly made up his mind.

Alex had inquired from Big Ken that although Wendy was a woman, she was good at martial arts because of the years of hard training. Most men, even if they had some basic martial arts skills, were no match for her, let alone women. There was no doubt about this.

More importantly, Wendy was trained by his family, so he could rest assured that she was on his side.

Bai Fan was overjoyed to know that Wendy was also Bai Ling's bodyguard.

For Alex and Bai Fan, whether Bai Ling could become famous was not the most important thing. They were more concerned about Bai Ling's safety. They all knew that once Bai Ling became a public figure, her living environment would inevitably become more tense and severe than now. It was necessary to arrange a reliable bodyguard for Bai Ling.

Now that Alex had arranged it, there was no need for Bai Fan to find it.

Bai Fan had absolute trust in Alex. Without saying a word, she directly recognized Wendy as her bodyguard. However, she decided on one hand that she would pay Wendy 20,000 yuan a month, which was quite generous. However, according to Wendy's ability, if she really wanted to work and make money, she was definitely worthy of a higher salary.

Like Big Ken, Wendy was also a decisive person, ready to work today.

But Alex thought about it. As soon as Big Ken reunited with Wendy, he urgently needed to talk about the old days and cultivate their relationship by the way, so he gave them three days. This was the first holiday since Big Ken followed him. If it weren't for Wendy's arrival, even if Alex wanted him to rest, he wouldn't have agreed.

Unfortunately, in the process of leaving the restaurant after dinner, Big Ken noticed a few suspicious people.

Big Ken returned to the car and said to Alex with a very serious expression, "Young Master, thank you for giving me a holiday, but I may not be lucky enough to have a holiday this time, because I feel that there will be another storm..."
