

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 291 -

“Who are you lying to? Do you think I’m a three-year-old kid? Fuck!”

The crew cut man thought that Wu Di was bragging, but when he saw the red fork icon on the upper right corner of the mobile phone screen, which marked “No signal”, he was suddenly discouraged and almost cried.

Wu Di smiled even more brightly. “What do you think? Are you surprised? Are you shocked? If you tell me where the bomb is and allow me to unlock more surprises, do you want to try?”

“F*ck you!”

The man with the crew cut wanted to cry but had no tears.

His only hope turned into bubbles. How could he be in the mood to joke with Wu Di, who was grabbing his lifeline?

Wu Di put away his playful smile and returned to his cold face. He pointed to the woods next to the village and said to his subordinates, “Take him away!”

On the other side, after Alex heard from Wu Di that Wu Di had the attributes of the shielding signal, he was dubious. He took out his mobile phone and looked at it to make sure that his mobile phone really had no signal. He felt very magical. He turned his head and asked softly, “Brother Big Ken, what’s going on? Is it really Wu Di who has a special magnetic field or something?”

Big Ken smiled bitterly. “What magnetic field? He just carried a signal shielding device with him and could be turned on or turned off at any time. The Special Operations Group not only has members with explosive combat capability, but also has all kinds of high-tech products to support it. Most of them are things that ordinary people can only see in movies.”

“Uh... Okay.”

Alex shook his head helplessly and raised his hand to pat his forehead.

Alex should have thought through such a simple question a long time ago. The reason why he didn’t think about it was because he had a further understanding of the evolution and variation today, and was deeply shocked. From the bottom of his heart, he felt that the two special groups were omnipotent.

It was precisely this thought that caused him to think about the simple question more quickly and make a joke of himself...

Alex adjusted his state and followed Wu Di into the woods together with Big Ken.

After walking for five or six minutes, he was far away from the village. Wu Di felt that it was almost time, so he stopped and tied the man with crew cut to a tree. On the way here, he carefully checked all the belongings of the man with crew cut. Except for his ID card, which indicated that the man with crew cut was an outsider named Cui Junlin, they could not get any valuable information from anything else.

Even his ID card might not be true.

However, personal information was not important to Wu Di.

Because no matter who it was, as long as he became a mutant, he would be treated equally by the Special Operations Group.

Wu Di was too lazy to check the authenticity of his ID card. He put Cui Junlin's belongings aside and turned off the signal shielding device. He took something from his subordinate with a sharp head and a needle-like needle. He inserted the tip into the blood vessels on Cui Junlin's arm, collected about five milliliters of blood, and then began to wait.

A minute later, Wu Di raised the things in his hand and looked at them carefully. Then he called Alex and Big Ken aside and introduced them in a low voice, "Just take that man as Cui Junlin. After the preliminary blood test, we have confirmed that he is a mutant, whose degree of variation is relatively low. This should be the reason why he can be the leader."

Alex had heard Big Ken's introduction of the situation before, so he could figure it out.

For a special group like the mutants, the way to divide their status was also extremely special. The higher the degree of variation of the mutated, the more severe the intelligence would decline, the more unsuitable it was to be a leader. Normally, the leader of a mutated organization was either an evolved one with great strength, or a mutated one with a relatively low degree of variation.

A powerful evolution leader could rely on his strength to suppress the mutant under his command. As for a low-level mutant leader, he needed to first use the characteristics of the same species to eliminate the instinctive hostility of other mutants, and then use the advantage of IQ to become the leader...

Alex knew Cui Junlin's identity. He touched his chin, thought for a moment, and said to Big Ken, "Brother Big Ken, is the mutant you saw before, except for Meng Fanyong, him?"

Big Ken shook his head and said, "It's not him!"

"That is to say, in addition to Meng Fanyong and Cui Junlin, there are other mutants in the city!" Alex turned to Wu Di and said, "It seems that you may be busy for a while this time."

"Yes!" Wu Di nodded. "President Cohen, it's time to get down to business. Why don't you talk to him first?"

"Well... you go first. The most important thing is to confirm the bomb."

"Okay, I'll go first."

Without any hesitation, Wu Di immediately ran back and began to interrogate Cui Junlin.

Under the continuous destruction of Wu Di and the stimulation of the medicine similar to the medicine for vomiting, Cui Junlin's psychological defense line collapsed completely. He honestly told the truth that there was a bomb installed. There was indeed a bomb, but it was put in the car. Because he did not think that he and Meng Fanyong would be caught so quickly, he did not think about setting up a bomb in advance.

This was good news for Wu Di.

However, Wu Di still paid more attention and made up his mind to go back and confirm the situation in person after a while.

After that, Wu Di winked at Alex.

Alex understood. He walked quickly to Cui Junlin, took over the conversation, and asked directly, "How did you recognize me? Have you investigated me?"

Cui Junlin was like a walking corpse. He shook his head mechanically and replied blankly, "No, I just read your information."

"Where did you get the information?"

"It's approved by the higher-ups."

"Get to the point! Who on earth is your superior?"

"Yang Changhao."

"What? Yang Changhao?"

Alex looked at Big Ken with a frown.

Big Ken's expression also became serious. He said to Cui Junlin, "Then you must know Yu Zhijie. Who are you working for?"

Cui Junlin shook his head again and said, "I know Yu Zhijie, but I only obey Yang Changhao's order. The person who asked me to temporarily be a small leader and bring Meng Fanyong here is Yang Changhao."

"Why did he ask you to come here?"

"I don't know. He asked us to wait here for further instructions. But so far, he hasn't given me the next order, so I don't know what he wants to do. Meng Fanyong and I are just small characters, and he can't reveal important information to us in advance."

"How many people are there in your mutated organization?"

"I don't know. In order to maximize the risk, Yang Changhao didn't gather all his subordinates together, but arranged them separately. I only know that he has other subordinates, but I have no contact with anyone except Meng Fanyong."

Hearing this, Big Ken and Alex looked at each other.

Alex was still a little confused. He had never expected that Cui Junlin and Meng Fanyong were both Yang Changhao's men. In other words, in order to deal with him this time, Yu Zhijie not only brought Yang Changhao, but also a mutated organization with countless people. He was well prepared!

After interrogating Cui Junlin, Alex learned some important information, but there were still some questions that had not been solved.

Just as his Alex was about to continue the interrogation, his phone suddenly rang.

When Wu Di saw that it was Cui Junlin's cell phone ringing, he quickly picked it up. The screen showed the word "Hao", which should be Yang Changhao's call. Thinking that it might be Yang Changhao who was going to give Cui Junlin the next instruction, he quickly took out the pistol from the gun holder under his armpit and put it on Cui Junlin's head. He said in a low voice, "I can let you answer the phone, but you have to weigh what you should say and what you shouldn't say! Otherwise, I promise I will make your blood splash on the spot!"

"Yes!"

Cui Junlin nodded heavily.

Time waited for no one. Wu Di immediately picked up the phone and quickly pressed the speaker button.

The next second, Yang Changhao's voice came from the speaker. "It's daytime. I just called you, but you can't get through? What are you doing?"

"I..." Cui Junlin replied with fear, "Brother Hao, I'm sorry. I asked Meng Fanyong to charge it for me in the morning. As a result, when I just took out my mobile phone, I found that he didn't rush up for me, so I charged it. Brother Hao, what can I do for you?"

"Give you an intelligent barrier to help you charge? What do you think? Forget it... Let's get down to business first. Hurry up and call the police of Quill City and tell them that you saw a freak with a hairy face in the village!"

Hearing this, Alex was immediately confused.

"Isn't it a thief's order to arrest Meng Fanyong if he asks Cui Junlin to report it to me?"

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 292 -

Big Ken and Wu Di also stared at each other, wondering what Yang Changhao was up to.

As a subordinate of Yang Changhao, Cui Junlin was stunned at this moment. He ignored the situation where he was under the control of others and said to the mobile phone eagerly, "Brother Hao, may I ask what you are doing? Are you... are you going to make me and Meng Fanyong surrender?"

This question was what Alex and the others wanted to ask. They all listened carefully.

On the other end of the phone, Yang Changhao was a little impatient. He said in a much heavier tone, "If I asked you to beat me, why would you talk so much nonsense? Don't think about it. I'm not as stupid as Meng Fanyong. How can I trap my own people? Besides, if I want you to turn yourself in, why should I let you run so far away?"

"No... Brother Hao, I just don't know what to do. After all, the people of the municipal public security bureau are not easy to deal with."

"What are you afraid of? I don't want you to confront the City Public Security Bureau. The first step is to call the police, and there are follow-up operations. It will take at least an hour to rush to you from Quill City District. After half an hour after the City Public Security Bureau received the feedback and sent people to deal with this matter, I will send you a message. At that time, you can take Meng Fanyong to run away. Half an hour is enough for you to run away, right? There are two points to pay attention to. First, you don't run to the city for the time being, and try to go as far away from the urban area as possible! Second, there may be people from the special forces coming to catch you. You must not be careless!"

"I see. Then I'm relieved. Brother Hao, I'll call you right away!"

"Hurry up! When you attract those people from the Municipal Bureau over, I still have more important things to do. If something happens to you, I will make you suffer!"

“Yes, yes, yes... Don't worry, Brother Hao, I promise to complete the task!”

In order to prevent Cui Junlin's wrong words from arousing Yang Changhao's suspicion, Wu Di decisively hung up the phone and said to Alex, “Mr. Cohen, did you hear anything?”

Alex nodded gently and replied, “If I'm not wrong, Yang Changhao is trying to lure the tiger out of the mountain!”

With a simple sentence, Yang Changhao's scheme was clearly explained.

In fact, Yu Zhijie and Yang Changhao's initial plan to deal with Alex was not so complicated. At that time, Alex, the police, and the special operations group didn't know that they had brought a mutant organization. They didn't need to do anything stupid at all. As long as they saw the opportunity, they just needed to send the mutant to directly deal with Alex.

But the plan could not catch up with the change, and a small episode happened halfway.

Because Yang Changhao had been following Yu Zhijie all the time, he neglected to control the mutant brought by him. As a result, Meng Fanyong's whereabouts were exposed, which attracted the attention of Group Leader Pang and the Special Operations Group. Yu Zhijie and Yang Changhao did not take Group Leader Pang seriously, but they had to attach great importance to the Special Operations Group. Both of them knew what the Special Operations Group did and what would happen to the mutant if they were targeted by the Special Operations Group.

This change affected their plan to deal with Alex.

If the mutant they brought were all dealt with by the Special Operations Group, then there was no way to deal with Alex.

In order to avoid this situation, they had to take action before the other mutants they brought were discovered by the special operations group. In order to prevent them from attracting the people of the special operations group in the process of cleaning up Alex, they had to find a way to lure them away in advance.

Yu Zhijie and Yang Changhao knew very well that anyone who was targeted by the special operations group could not escape at all and would be dealt with sooner or later. Therefore, for the sake of safety, they could only give up Meng Fanyong and could not arrange Meng Fanyong to take part in the operation against Alex.

However, it was a pity that the mutant that he had painstakingly cultivated gave up just like that.

It should be known that the lowest quality mutated agent in the black market was worth a million yuan per unit!

Moreover, mutated drugs were extremely rare. They could not be bought without money.

What's more, buying a mutated agent was only the first step in training a mutated person?

After the discussion, Yu Zhijie and Yang Changhao decided to squeeze out Meng Fanyong's last value in accordance with the principle of making the best use of the item. They wanted Meng Fanyong to be bait!

Yang Changhao deliberately arranged for Meng Fanyong to expose his whereabouts for the second time, and he also committed a heavy sin. This was the first step to make use of Meng Fanyong, and the next step was to let Cui Junlin take Meng Fanyong to the countryside. The third step was to let Cui Junlin contact the Municipal Bureau and attract the people of the Municipal Bureau who were in charge of hunting Meng Fanyong and the special forces.

As long as Meng Fanyong took the people of the Special Operations Group away from Quill City, there would be no one in Quill City District who could resist the mutant. At that time, it would be easy for them to use the other mutant people hidden for the time being. It would be a piece of cake to deal with Alex.

Yu Zhijie and Yang Changhao firmly believed in this and were full of confidence in the plan they had made.

What they didn't know was that this plan had almost deviated from the normal track from the beginning.

In the final analysis, they had underestimated the overall strength of Alex.

Taking advantage of Xie Si's other arrangement, Alex found the target before the police once again, namely Meng Fanyong and Cui Junlin, in time to deal with it and analyzed Yu Zhijie and Yang Changhao's plan in advance.

Just like how Cui Junlin had not figured out how Alex had found him, Yu Zhijie and Yang Changhao had never thought that when they gave Cui Junlin the next order, Alex, Wu Di, and others were listening...

"Hu!"

Alex took a deep breath, silently sorted out Yu Zhijie and Yang Changhao's plan, and said, "Wu Di, what are you going to do next?"

Wu Di thought for a moment and said, "Mr. Cohen, the fact is right in front of us. Yang Changhao and Yu Zhijie's scheme is prepared to deal with you. In their opinion, everything is going well. Yang Changhao just said on the phone that there are more important things to do, which means that they are going to take action on you soon. Obviously, you are going to become the most important person. Then, you will make the final decision and I will cooperate with you."

"We can do whatever we want! Yu Zhijie and Yang Changhao are going to lure you away to deal with me. I also want to lure out all the mutants they brought with me. I guess they will come out when they find a chance to deal with me!"

"No problem! I can contact Group Leader Pang immediately and ask him to cooperate. However... Boss Cohen, if they want to deal with you, they have to find you first. Therefore, I suggest that we return to Quill City immediately. If they can't find you all the time, they may be suspicious."

"You're right. Let's get moving now!"

After saying that, Alex ran to the village with Big Ken.

Wu Di asked his subordinates to follow the footsteps of Alex with Cui Junlin. He immediately took out his mobile phone and dialed Group Leader Pang's number, asking him to pretend to have an urgent task and lead the team here. He emphasized that he should choose a few police officers to change into casual clothes to pretend to be members of the special operations group, in order to create an illusion that Yu Zhijie and Yang Changhao's scheme had succeeded.

On the way back, in order to communicate with Alex, Wu Di and Alex took the same car. About 30 minutes later, the two cars were still halfway. Cui Junlin received a text message from Yang Changhao on his mobile phone. The content was simple and clear, with only one word: Run!

As soon as Wu Di showed the text message to Alex, he saw Group Leader Pang's car coming towards him.

Both sides stopped their cars and met on the road.

Alex briefly introduced the situation here to Group Leader Pang and then asked, "Did anyone follow you?"

Captain Pang thought for a moment and replied, "When we were in the urban area, there were so many cars. I didn't pay attention to whether there was anyone following us. But when we arrived at the countryside, there were very few cars on the road. I can be sure that there were no suspicious cars. Mr. Cohen, should I continue to go there, or should I go back with you?"

"If no one is following us, you don't have to waste that time, but you can't go back with us. How about this, you change the road and go back to the city. Don't go back to the city bureau for the time being. Just find a hidden place outside and get ready to support us."

"Okay! Mr. Cohen, be careful!"

"You too!"

Alex watched Group Leader Pang and the other two cars turn around and leave, and his cell phone suddenly rang...

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 293 -

"Shh!"

Alex took out his mobile phone and found that it was a call from an unknown number. He became nervous for no reason. He quickly made a gesture of silence to Big Ken and Wu Di. At the same time, he took a deep breath, picked up the phone, pressed the speaker, and asked tentatively, "Who is it?"

A lazy male voice came from the speaker. "It seems that you haven't done enough work."

"Hiss... Yu Zhijie?"

With his super memory, Alex instantly confirmed the identity of the person on the other end of the phone through the voice. When Big Ken and Wu Di heard him call Yu Zhijie's name, they immediately came over. Big Ken raised his hand and pressed his shoulder, giving him an encouraging look, indicating that he should not be nervous.

In fact, before Alex picked up the phone, he had guessed that it might be Yu Zhijie.

However, in the past, there would usually be relatives or friends being kidnapped. Alex didn't want to encounter that kind of situation again. This was the reason why he was a little nervous after confirming that it was Yu Zhijie calling. He took a deep breath again and pretended to be calm as he said, "Yu Zhijie, you overestimate your position in my heart. It's not that I didn't investigate you well, but that I didn't want to investigate you at all... All right, stop talking nonsense. What do you want me to do?"

"I want to talk to you..." Yu Zhijie's voice was very firm, as if he was giving an order. "About ten minutes later, I will arrive at Gold Stone."

"But I'm not in Gold Stone, and there seems to be nothing to talk about between you and me."

“That doesn’t count! I can only wait for 10 minutes at most, which is my bottom line. If you are really not in Gold Stone, I can give you 20 minutes from now on. You’d better arrive on time. Otherwise... you have to bear the consequences!”

“Are you threatening me?”

“In fact, I don’t mean that, but if you want to understand it like this... that’s fine. Time doesn’t wait for anyone, you should make a choice quickly.”

Yu Zhijie hung up the phone decisively after he finished speaking.

Alex knew that Yu Zhijie was going to kill him, but he was a little confused. Yu Zhijie didn’t show that he had something on him. Why was he sure that he would rush over? Did Yu Zhijie’s words just come from blind confidence?

It’s obviously impossible. Yu Zhijie still has countless mutants to use!

While he was deep in thought, his Alex’s cell phone rang again. It was a call from Isla this time.

“It’s over. Something might have happened!”

Alex’s heart missed a beat. He quickly picked up the phone and asked eagerly, “Isla, what happened?”

“An emergency!”

On the phone, Isla’s voice was also very urgent. “There is a man named Yang Changhao who is blocking the company gate with a few weirdos. He said that no one is allowed to enter or exit before you show up. He also said that you are not allowed to call the police, otherwise we will regret it. I have already arranged security guards to drive him away, but I can’t make up my mind. I want to ask you what you think. Should I call the police?”

“Don’t, don’t, don’t... don’t call the police! Also, call the security guards back quickly!”

“Why?”

“It’s hard to explain. Just listen to me. All the people in the company, including the security guards, are not allowed to have a conflict with Yang Changhao or call the police! By the way, how many of them are there in total? You said they are weirdos. Where exactly are they?”

Alex finally knew the follow-up of Yu Zhijie.

In Yu Zhijie's view, Group Leader Pang and the Special Operations Group had been attracted to the countryside by Meng Fanyong, and they had set off for more than half an hour. It was impossible for them to come back in a short time. Yu Zhijie, who was full of confidence, did not put on airs, nor did he use any tricks again. Instead, he directly let Yang Changhao take the other mutants to Gold Stone.

Alex knew very well that Yu Zhijie was going to confront him head-on!

The ordinary people in Gold Stone were no match for Yang Changhao and the others at all. If they fought with each other, the injury would be secondary. The main reason was that it was very likely that someone would die again. It was not what the opponents had done before that they stabbed people in the throat with lots of bamboo sticks.

It was normal for a mutant who had no scruples about the destruction of human nature.

Originally, Alex thought that they could avoid the kidnapping of the people around them this time, but this time, the problem was more serious than ever. Because all the people in Gold Stone were treated as hostages, and their lives were still in danger. That was hundreds of people's lives, including Isla, Felix, Quinn, and others!

Isla on the other end of the phone didn't know what had happened, but he could feel the seriousness of the situation from Alex's tone. He didn't dare to be careless, so he immediately asked someone to call back the security guard and then introduced the situation to Alex. Yang Changhao brought a total of four people, all men. Two of them had faces and exposed arms, which were covered with fluff, as if they were wearing masks. The eyes of the other two people were bloodshot, and almost their whole eyes were red. They looked very scary.

After learning this, Alex was basically sure that the four people Yang Changhao brought were mutants.

Big Ken added in time. The eyes of the person who was suspected to be a mutant at the entrance of the restaurant were very red. He should be one of Yang Changhao's men. After many days, that person finally showed up again. From the appearance of Yang Changhao with so many mutants, it could be seen that they should go all out this time.

Of course, if he didn't have enough confidence, Yu Zhijie and Yang Changhao wouldn't have done that!

Alex reminded Isla again and again before hanging up the phone. Wiping off the cold sweat on his forehead, he turned around and ran to the car.

Big Ken and Wu Di got on the Lamborghini without hesitation.

Big Ken started the car and said to Alex, "Young master, it will take at least half an hour for us to return to the city. It will take a certain amount of time to get to Gold Stone from the edge of the city. If we can confirm it, we can't get to Gold Stone in 20 minutes. When Yu Zhijie calls you again, try to buy more time!"

"What if we can't get it? We can't arrive in time, and we can't let everyone in the company wait for death! Let's find someone to help..."

Alex was burning with anxiety. He immediately contacted Hunter and Xiong Er, asking them to go to Gold Stone for help urgently. Among all the people who needed help, only the three of them had the strength to fight against the mutant. The others went there, but there was no point in increasing casualties.

Hunter, Xiong Da, and Xiong Er all had tasks to carry out, so they could rush to support them temporarily. However, the three of them were not near Gold Stone, so they could not guarantee that they would arrive within 20 minutes. Even if they arrived on time, they could not hold off all their opponents.

Just as Alex and Big Ken were thinking about countermeasures, Wu Di suddenly said, "Mr. Cohen, I have ordered several special forces staff members of the special police brigade to take a helicopter to the scene. The helicopter is faster than a car. It should arrive at the scene in time!"

"Really? That's great. Thank you!"

Alex had once taken a helicopter and knew how fast it was. He suddenly breathed a sigh of relief.

If the special forces could arrive in time, the risk of Gold Stone people would be reduced a lot.

In a flash, more than ten minutes passed.

Yu Zhijie arrived at the downstairs of Gold Stone and didn't go upstairs. He didn't even get out of the car and dialed Alex's number in the car. When he learned that it would take at least half an hour for Alex to arrive, he thought that Alex was playing a trick, so he refused Alex's request to wait a little longer.

As Alex and Big Ken had analyzed, Yu Zhijie had indeed made a great decision today, which was why he had made such a big scene. The main reason was that it was too difficult to lure away the people of the Special Operations Group. If he did not take action today, Meng Fanyong would have been abandoned in vain, and it would be difficult for him to encounter such a good opportunity in the future. If he could not deal with Alex today, he must teach Alex a lesson.

Time always passed slowly when they waited.

However, in just a few minutes, there were only hundreds of them.

After Yu Zhijie smoked two cigarettes in a row, the deadline was set for Alex.

Yu Zhijie slammed the cigarette butt out of the car, picked up his mobile phone, dialed Yang Changhao's number, gritted his teeth, and shouted, "Do it!"

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 294 -

Today, Yu Zhijie and Yang Changhao did not appear at the same time to avoid unnecessary trouble.

However, this operation was discussed in advance by them.

Their plan was discussed in different situations. The first one was that Alex would appear on time, so there was nothing to say but to do it. Those who blocked the way would be killed, but Alex was mainly captured alive. This was the request of Gerald. Gerald's biggest wish was to kill Alex himself to avenge Jared.

The next point was to witness the death of Alex through the live broadcast.

The result was the same, but the more hatred a person had, the more he cared about how and how to take revenge.

In order to show his sincerity, Yu Zhijie had already expressed his attitude to Gerald through Liang Heng. He would try his best to satisfy Gerald's needs. However, considering the complicated situation, he didn't say anything. If he really couldn't catch him alive, he could only kill him on the spot.

The second plan was that Alex didn't show up, and they would still teach him a lesson.

Therefore, regardless of whether Alex would appear on time today, Yu Zhijie would eventually issue an order to take action.

At the entrance of Gold Stone, Yang Changhao, who was eager to have a try, hung up the phone and waved his hand. "Action!"

After that, the five of them stepped forward at the same time.

Felix on the opposite side led the security guards and a kind of male staff to prepare for the battle. Although they had heard from Isla that those people on the other side were not people that ordinary people like them could deal with, most of the male staff still took out the courage that a man should have. They stood close to each other, forming a human wall, protecting all the female staff, including Isla and Quinn behind them.

Both sides were at loggerheads, and the situation was very serious.

“Bang bang bang...”

Just then, the unique sound of the propeller came from the air.

Almost everyone present heard it and stopped.

When Isla in the crowd heard the familiar voice, she subconsciously recalled the scene when she was rescued by Alex for the first time and could not help but feel happy.

Yang Changhao’s eyes were sharp. He looked up and found that the approaching helicopter was printed with the words “Quill City Special Force”. His eyes suddenly darkened. “I didn’t expect that the special police team would come so soon. Alex is really powerful. I really underestimated him! Brothers, don’t just stand there. Let’s end this as soon as possible. After this, I’ll treat you to barbecue. The mutton skewers with three points of cooked meat and blood are full!”

With Yang Changhao’s second order, the four men rushed out without hesitation under the stimulation of the barbecue.

In the eyes of mutants and evolutions, ordinary people were weak and could be treated equally. There was no such thing as picking opponents at all, and they were all rushing forward, beating whoever they met. This also made the group of people who rushed the fastest on Felix’s side almost fall to the ground in the blink of an eye.

As he said, in the face of absolute strength, all resistance was in vain.

Fortunately, Alex hadn’t shown up for the time being, so Yang Changhao’s men didn’t show their weapons.

Otherwise, he would have been dead!

However, even if it was a bare-handed punch, the battle prowess of an evolution and a mutant was still exceptionally terrifying.

The people on Felix’s side, whether they were security guards or ordinary staff, could not resist. Felix was a smart person. He realized the seriousness of the problem in a second. In order to prevent death, he quickly issued an order: defend and try to protect themselves as much as possible. They could not fight head-on.

Fortunately, Felix’s orders were timely approved, so everyone raised their vigilance and reduced the casualties.

The scene was in a chaotic battle. It seemed that the fight was very fierce. In fact, Felix was at an absolute disadvantage from the very beginning. They were completely relying on the advantage of numbers. There were still waves of casualties. However, they only lasted for three minutes.

Seeing Yang Changhao leading the way to the female staff, the helicopter finally arrived and landed on the roof. The three special forces rushed to the scene in seconds. There were not many of them, but Wu Di had tried his best to send his subordinates over.

If there were other special forces in other places at this time, Wu Di would have no one to use.

Unfortunately, there were many things that could not be achieved as long as they tried their best.

As for the three evolutions, they could only temporarily hold back the five people on Yang Changhao's side. The chances of winning were infinitely close to zero. Unless more mutants joined the battle, there was no hope for Felix to reverse the situation.

This was the first time that Felix had seen the battle prowess of a person who had evolved and mutated. They were all terrified when they watched from the side. If it was anyone else, upon seeing that their opponents were all being dragged, with the principle that a wise man would not suffer a loss, the first thing they would think of would definitely be to find an opportunity to escape. After all, with mountains around, there was no need to fear that there would be no firewood. In such an urgent situation, saving one's life was the most important thing.

Felix resisted the fear in his heart and climbed up with one hand on the ground and the other on the wall. He led the other security guards and staff who could still stand up again to form a human wall for the female employees, hoping to exhaust their opponents in this way.

The female employees, such as Isla and Quinn, could only stand by and do nothing.

When Felix was knocked down again, Quinn rushed over regardless of danger and squatted on the ground to grab Felix's hand. She was so angry and anxious that she was about to cry. She cried, "I'm sorry, Felix, I can't help you with anything. How are you? Are you seriously injured?"

Felix covered her severely injured belly, shook her head and said, "I'm fine, I'm fine, just a little hurt. Quinn, don't think too much about it. In this case, protecting yourself is a great help to me! Hiss... be careful!"

While speaking, Felix was still paying attention to the situation of the battle. When he saw an opponent rushing over, he quickly pushed Quinn away.

As for himself, he couldn't dodge in time. His side waist was kicked again, and he left the ground. He flew out two meters horizontally and fell heavily on the ground. Not to mention the injury on his side waist, he fell to the ground in the end. His eyes were dizzy and his mind was a little dizzy.

Quinn cried and rushed to Felix again.

At this time, Yu Zhijie, who was still sitting on the roadside downstairs, couldn't hold back his curiosity and was ready to go up to see what was going on. Just as he pushed the door open and got out of the car, a Land Rover Range Rover whizzed past the car, and the car door was almost hit.

Yu Zhijie was shocked. He guessed that it was Alex's helper. He quickly closed the door and locked it. He hid in the car and didn't dare to breathe. He knew that there were several powerful subordinates in Alex, whose strength couldn't compare with Big Ken's. He couldn't beat them.

The new Land Rover Range Rover was the car that Alex had given to Ma Zhiyuan.

After the car stopped on the side of the road, Xiong Da and Xiong Er got out of the car with Ma Zhiyuan. The three of them rushed to Gold Stone at the fastest speed. Without saying anything, they directly joined the battle. Xiong Da and Xiong Er were both evolveers with extraordinary strength. They had the ability to fight against the mutant, and their chances of winning were both very high.

Only Ma Zhiyuan, an ordinary person, was struggling to fight.

When Ma Zhiyuan was injured last time, he had already realized that there was always someone better than him. After that, he rarely talked about such big words as "I can't find an opponent". On the way here, he had prepared for a hard fight. Now when he really got involved, he realized that he was not prepared enough: the opponent he faced today was much harder than he had expected.

Fortunately, at this time, the advantage of numbers gradually began to show.

In the case that almost every opponent was entangled by a special master, ordinary people like Ma Zhiyuan and Felix could find an opportunity to launch a sneak attack. Relying on the advantage of numbers, they disrupted the rhythm of the opponents led by Yang Changhao and turned the situation around step by step.

A few minutes passed quickly, and the situation at the scene was finally reversed.

Yang Changhao didn't expect that Alex could find so many masters in just an hour. Fortunately, Yu Zhijie had almost completed the task. He gritted his teeth again and ordered, "Brothers, withdraw!"

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 295 -

Xiong Da and Xiong Er knew that they couldn't keep their opponents today, so they didn't fight.

However, Wu Di's three subordinates caught up with him without hesitation and showed their anesthetic guns. Just now, the five opponents were in a chaotic state. In order to prevent their own people from being accidentally injured, they did not dare to use weapons. Now, their opponents were rushing to the empty elevator. Finally, they could use guns.

It was impossible for the special forces to let go of a mutant easily.

Yang Changhao had already rushed to the elevator. As he pressed the elevator button, he looked back at his men and accidentally saw the anesthetic gun in the hands of members of the special forces group. His eyes widened and his nerves tensed up. Without thinking, he shouted, "Hurry up, hurry up!"

"Ding!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the elevator door opened. Yang Changhao took the lead and jumped in.

At the same time, as the three anesthetic guns made the sound of "biu-biu-biu" sound, the two mutants were hit one after another. One of them stumbled on the two companions running in front of him and was dragged into the elevator by his companions. The other one was not so lucky that he fell about one meter away from the elevator. He shook his head hard, braced himself, and crawled to the elevator close to him.

Yang Changhao didn't even need to get out of the elevator. All he needed to do was squat at the door and reach out his hand to hold his companion who had been shot.

The problem was that if he stretched out his hand now, not only would it be very likely that his arm would be shot, but it would also delay the closing of the elevator. If the three special operations staff members rushed to the elevator but did not close the door, then everyone in the elevator would become a living target, and none of them would be able to escape!

Yang Changhao, who still had some brains, decisively chose to give up. Not only did he not reach out his hand, but he also blocked several companions around him. He pressed the "closed" button and stared at the elevator door. He couldn't help murmuring, "Close it, close it!"

Just as the three special forces leaders rushed over and were about to shoot at the elevator, the elevator door closed with another "ding".

Yang Changhao held his breath, wiped the sweat from his forehead, and felt the elevator move. He breathed a sigh of relief. When he reached the first floor and rushed out of the elevator, he didn't dare to delay for a second. He rushed to the parking lot with his three companions, got in the car, and sped away. The situation was so urgent that he didn't have time to report the situation to Yu Zhijie. But when he passed by Yu Zhijie's car, he shouted outside, "Run!"

Yu Zhijie instantly became nervous. He quickly started the car and followed.

In less than three minutes after the two cars left, a Lamborghini Benz came whistling.

This was Alex's carriage.

Alex had just spoken to Isla on the phone. When he learned that Yang Changhao and the others had been beaten back, he was still frightened. Before Big Ken could stabilize the car, he jumped out of the car and rushed into the building. He rushed to the 17th floor where Gold Stone was at the fastest speed. He ran to the gate of the company and saw many people lying all over the road. His heart suddenly jumped to his throat. He quickly said to Isla who was running toward him, "Quick, send the wounded to the hospital!"

Isla replied, "I've made an emergency call. The ambulance will arrive soon."

"The number of wounded people who can be pulled away by the ambulance is limited. Leave the ambulance to the seriously injured brothers. You arrange for someone to send the brothers who can still leave to the hospital. Sorry, brothers, I'm the one who got you into trouble... Ah, let's talk about it later. The most urgent thing is to send you to the hospital for medical treatment. I'll show my attitude first. No matter if you are slightly injured or seriously injured, all the wounded people are treated equally. All the expenses will be counted as mine!"

With the backbone, Isla felt much more at ease. She regained her domineering CEO's temperament and immediately made arrangements.

Alex

Felix covered his side waist, walked to the front of Alex with the help of Quinn, and comforted him. "Mr. Cohen, I just asked about it one by one. Almost all the wounded were only injured with skin trauma and no life-threatening injuries. Don't worry too much and don't blame yourself. We don't mean to blame you."

"But... Alas!"

Alex looked at the wounded with a bitter face and felt very uncomfortable. He sighed again.

Ma Zhiyuan came over with Xiong Da and Xiong Er and said with a sullen face, "I'm sorry, Alex, we're late. If we could have come a few minutes earlier, maybe Gold Stone's brothers wouldn't have to accept the challenge. Then they wouldn't have been hurt..."

Alex waved his hand and said, "I know. You've tried your best. By the way, I just heard from Isla on the phone that you left an opponent. Where is he?"

"Those helpers who came first knocked one down with a very strange gun and carried it to the roof. They should be taking him away."

"I'll go and have a look!"

After Alex finished speaking, he turned around and ran away. But at this moment, he heard a sudden sound.

The helicopter took off!

Then, Big Ken and Wu Di, who took the next elevator, came up.

Alex wanted to beat up the opponent who was caught. He gritted his teeth and said to Wu Di, "No one can be spared. I must make them pay for what they did today. Otherwise, I can't swallow my anger and can't explain it to my brothers!"

Wu Di nodded and said, "Mr. Cohen, don't worry. No one can escape from Yang Changhao's men! However, if you want to catch them, I need your cooperation. I think the security measures of this building are quite good. There are surveillance cameras in the elevator and the corridor..."

"You want to get the surveillance video, right? Follow me!"

Alex immediately took Wu Di to Isla's office. He first took out the surveillance video taken by the camera at the gate of the company and saw the faces of the three opponents. Then he went to the duty room on the first floor and checked the surveillance video in the elevator to confirm the looks of the other opponents.

Wu Di copied the relevant videos, and then said goodbye and left in a hurry. He was in a hurry to go back to confirm the identities of those mutant people and build up the preliminary files. This was the first step to deal with them. So many mutants suddenly appeared, which was not a small challenge for the special operations group.

Alex wanted to help, but he didn't know what to do.

In the past, when facing ordinary opponents, Xie Si could provide certain help with his power. At the very least, he had a great advantage in finding people and inquiring about information. But this time, after Alex saw the horrible strength of the mutant, he didn't even dare to give the task of finding and inquiring information to Xie Si. It was really too dangerous.

Only an evolution would have the strength to deal with a mutant.

In his camp, there were quite a few evolutions, but they all had irreplaceable tasks.

Big Ken guessed what Alex was thinking and said softly, "Young Master, it's the mission of the Special Operations Group to deal with the mutant. In my opinion, let Wu Di deal with Yang Changhao's men. Let's protect ourselves and wait for good news."

"That's all we can do!" Alex shook his head helplessly, quickly found Isla, and said, "You stay in the company to take charge of the overall situation and pacify the employees who are not injured. Those who are injured must also be dealt with properly. Leave the injured to me."

Isla nodded. "Okay! You can go and do your work. Don't worry about the company. I'll take care of it."

"Thank you for your hard work! I'll go to the hospital first."

Alex and Isla took their leave and rushed straight to the military yard.

All the injured people in Gold Stone were sent to the military yard, which was specially instructed by Alex.

After all the wounded were settled, it was dark.

Alex was really tired after a busy day. He took his Big Ken back to the car, took out his mobile phone, dialed Yu Zhijie's number, and heard the prompt tone of "the other party's phone is off". He thought that it might be Yu Zhijie who pulled him black, so he tried to use his Big Ken's mobile phone but still failed. He returned the phone to Big Ken and sent a text message to Yu Zhijie with his own mobile phone: "Yu Zhijie, I will remember today's account for you. If you are a man, no matter what you want to do, come at me! If you dare to hurt innocent people again, I promise I will make you die without a whole body!"

After sending the text message, Alex was still angry. He turned to Big Ken and said, "Brother Big Ken, how much do you know about the Yongji Company?"

Big Ken was stunned for a moment. "Young Master, are you going to attack the Yongji Company?"

"Yes!"

Alex nodded heavily. "We must root out the roots of the weeds. I want to uproot Yu Zhijie and make him unable to turn over forever!"

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 296 -

Big Ken started the car and answered slowly, "I don't know much about Yu Zhijie and his company. However, the company is on the surface, and we can find out the common information. Young Master, if you need it, I can arrange someone to do the investigation."

"Okay!" Alex suddenly became interested. "The more detailed the investigation, the better!"

"Okay!" Big Ken drove the car with one hand, took out his Bluetooth headset with the other hand, and made a phone call, then gave the task. After hanging up the phone, he continued to say to Alex, "Young master, I feel that compared with the Yongji Company, we should pay more attention to Yu Zhijie's family, or him."

"Oh? Brother Big Ken, you mean..."

"Yongji Company is the Yu family's business, but it is used to make money. The people he brought with him this time are the key. You know, Yang Changhao and the mutant are not ordinary people, and not everyone can rope them in. If Yang Changhao and the others are temporarily hired by Yu Zhijie, then the problem will be solved. If Yang Changhao and the others are trained by Yu Zhijie, it will be a little troublesome."

"Well... I understand what you mean."

Alex touched his chin and continued to analyze according to Big Ken's thinking. He felt that Big Ken's worry was reasonable.

Now they only knew that Yu Zhijie and Yang Changhao were on the same side, but they didn't know what the relationship between them was. As Big Ken had just said, if Yang Changhao only took money to do things, then the task would end, and they would have nothing to do with each other. But if Yang Changhao and those mutants were secretly cultivated by Yu Zhijie, it meant that Yu Zhijie had the strength to cultivate and transform.

To give a simple example, if it was assumed that the evolution and mutant were both weapons, then those who could borrow weapons and those who could create weapons were not on the same level.

The more Alex thought about it, the more nervous he became. He said with a sullen face, "Brother Big Ken, is it possible to find out the identities of Yang Changhao and those mutants? It is very important for our camp to find out who helped them to evolve and change!"

"I'm also thinking about this," Big Ken replied. "It's definitely not easy to investigate. I'll try to think of a way."

"If my guess is right, Wu Di should be very interested in this question."

“That’s right. The Special Operations Group will definitely find a way to investigate. We will investigate each other. I hope we can find out. If we really can’t, we will find a way to catch Yang Changhao and interrogate him directly!”

“If there is such an opportunity, I won’t let it go!”

Alex had already listed Yu Zhijie and Yang Changhao’s names on the list of enemies. They had to be dealt with...

In the next few days, Alex was very busy, basically walking back and forth between Gold Stone and the military yard during the day. The company’s vitality was greatly damaged. As the vice president of the company, Felix had been hospitalized. There were also many temporarily vacant positions, which put all the burdens on Isla. It was unrealistic, and he did not want Isla to be so tired. As for the military hospital, he also needed to take care of all the wounded.

That night, at 8:30 p.m., Alex replenished the hospitalization fee for all the wounded in Gold Stone, checked the account of Cynthia, and paid enough fees in advance. Then, he came to the outside of the ward of Cynthia and saw Wang Shunquan and Liu Yunxiu.

The two of them rented houses in the neighborhood next to the hospital and carried out the shift system to ensure that there were people guarding the hospital for 24 hours.

Liu Yunxiu, who was in charge of the day shift, was about to go back to rest, but when she saw Alex coming, she was not in a hurry to leave. She walked quickly to Alex with Wang Shunquan.

Alex greeted the two elders and asked, “Uncle Wang, Aunt Liu, how is Cynthia?”

Wang Shun nodded and said, “Alex, it’s all thanks to you. Cynthia has recovered well. She can get out of bed and walk around. I took her downstairs this afternoon. However, several of her fractures have not recovered yet. She can’t walk, so she has to sit in a wheelchair.”

“Hiss... what did the doctor say? Will she... be disabled?”

“No! The doctor has checked several times and confirmed that Cynthia’s injury can be recovered. She won’t be disabled.”

“That’s good, that’s good. By the way, has Cynthia’s mental state improved?”

“I’ve almost recovered, but there’s a problem...”

“Oh? What’s the problem?”

Through observation, I found that there was nothing unusual when someone was there. But when she was alone, she would often be in a daze. If she was just in a daze, it would not be a big deal. Several times, I noticed through the window that she was secretly wiping her tears, as if she was very sad. But no matter how I asked her, she refused to tell me the truth.

Hearing this, Alex's heart skipped a beat. After thinking for a while, he pretended to be as if nothing had happened and said to Wang Shunquan, "Uncle Wang, as I said, Cynthia not only suffered physical injuries, but also psychological injuries. It will take a long time for her to get out of the shadow. Don't worry too much. Give time. Time is the best medicine to heal her psychological trauma..."

"Well, that's the only way. She won't tell us the truth. We can't help her with anything."

"Maybe Cynthia doesn't want you to worry too much... She doesn't seem to have a rest now. I'll talk to her."

Alex found through the window that Cynthia was playing with her mobile phone, so he pushed the door open and walked in.

Seeing Alex coming, Cynthia put down his mobile phone and said with a smile, "Why do you have time to come today? I heard from Lala that you have been so busy recently..."

"I'm so sorry!" Alex smiled awkwardly. "I've come to the military yard many times these days, but I'm too busy and in a bad mood, so I didn't come to disturb you. I'm finally almost done today, and my condition has been adjusted... Let's not talk about me. Tell me, how do you feel?"

"Don't even mention it. I'm almost out of luck..."

Cynthia leaned against the pillow and chatted with Alex for a while. Suddenly, she changed the topic. "Alex, what... what has Hunter been busy with recently? Is... is he well?"

Alex was stopped. It was not that he did not know the recent situation of Hunter, but he did not know how to answer.

It could be imagined that the reason why Cynthia secretly wiped her tears was most likely because of Hunter.

Alex had considered this point, so he did not mention Hunter. Unexpectedly, Cynthia took the initiative to mention him. Taking advantage of the time to pour water, he sorted out his thoughts and handed the cup to Cynthia. Then he pretended to be casual and replied, "Hunter is helping Brother Yuan. He looks good on the surface. I don't know if there is anything wrong with him."

“Oh... Alex, please do me a favor.”

“Look at you, you treat me like an outsider, don't you? You are so polite. If you have something to say, just say it directly.”

“Well, I feel very sorry for Hunter, but it's not convenient for me to talk to him. I know you and Lala have arranged for us before, but now... Alas, it turns out that we're destined to be together. If you have time, help me persuade him. If there is a suitable girl, it's better to introduce a girlfriend to him. In your men's words, there's no need to hang yourself on a tree. He missed a grass and would have a whole forest.”

“No... Cynthia, are you serious?”

“It must be true. How can I joke about this kind of thing?”

“Alas... Cynthia, it's not that I don't want to help you, but I'm an outsider. How can I tell him? If you want to cut off contact with him, you have to give me a reason, right? Even I don't know what your reason is. How can I convince him?”

Alex frowned as he spoke.

Cynthia's expression became more and more serious. He lowered his head and thought for a while. Suddenly, he gritted his teeth and made up his mind. He raised his head and said, “Alex, just say... just say that I don't deserve him! This is not what you said, but what I said myself. You can help me pass it on.”

“Cynthia, no matter what you think, I don't think it's urgent. Let's talk about it after you are discharged from the hospital. It's getting late. Have a good rest. I have to go back. I'll come to see you another day.”

Alex didn't know how to talk about this topic, so he could only choose to leave. As soon as he reached the door, he saw Hunter walking quickly toward him from the elevator...

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 297 -

But now Cynthia's mental state hadn't fully recovered, so Alex couldn't help but worry. He subconsciously frowned, closed the door, went up to Hunter, and asked nervously, “Hunter, why are you here? Are you looking for me or...”

Hunter nodded respectfully at Alex and said, “Young Master, I... I just want to see Cynthia.”

“But I don't think it's time for you to meet each other. If Cynthia sees you and her mood changes, it may hurt her a second time.”

“Young Master, don’t worry! I know what I’m doing and I won’t talk nonsense. In fact, I didn’t want to solve the misunderstanding at all when I came here today. I just want to see her... If it’s inconvenient, let me look at her from a distance through the crack of the door.”

“Hey... Hunter, why are you doing this?”

Alex was worried about Cynthia, so he wanted to stop Hunter, but on second thought, he changed his mind.

Because he vaguely saw himself in the past from Hunter.

At that time, there was a problem with the relationship between him and Isla. Isla lived in Cynthia’s house, and he couldn’t bear the torture of missing. He also wanted to see Isla. Even if he couldn’t say anything, he just looked at Isla from a distance through the video call with Cynthia, and his heart would be much more relaxed. At least, he could temporarily get rid of the low state of being out of control, so as not to affect his normal life.

After getting Alex’s understanding and support, Hunter did not say anything more. He took a deep breath, adjusted his state, and walked to the door of the ward of Cynthia. He kept a faint smile on his face, raised his hand, and greeted Cynthia from a distance. “Hey... beautiful Cynthia, have you recovered well?”

Cynthia glanced at Hunter, but frowned and did not say anything.

“Cough cough..”

Hunter was a little embarrassed. He coughed softly and hesitated for a few seconds. Then, he slowly walked into the ward, stood about a meter away from the ward, and continued to say softly, “Beauty Cynthia, I found that your mental appearance is much better than the last time I saw you. It seems that you have recovered...”

Cynthia suddenly raised his head, stared straight at Hunter, and interrupted him. She said expressionlessly, “What can I do for you? Thank you for your concern. I have recovered well. But the doctor said that I still need to rest and can’t talk too much with others.”

Hunter was speechless by Cynthia’s words. He was embarrassed for a long time before he replied resentfully, “It’s... it’s nothing. I’m here to find the young master for something. I came along the way to learn about your recovery. Since you need to rest, I won’t bother you anymore. Have a good rest and see you later.”

“I won’t see you off!” Cynthia indifferently watched Hunter walk out. On the surface, she seemed to be very determined, but inside, there were waves in her heart, and the ups and downs were getting bigger and bigger. Seeing that Hunter was about to reach the door, she gritted her teeth and said unexpectedly, "Wait... wait a minute!"

Hunter was overjoyed. He held back his excitement and pretended as if nothing had happened. He stopped, turned around, and asked, "Beauty Cynthia, what's wrong?"

"I have a few words to say to you. Close the door."

"Okay!"

Hunter immediately closed the door and hurried back to the hospital bed. He pulled a chair and sat down, ready to wash his ears and listen respectfully.

Cynthia bit her lip lightly and listened to Hunter looking at her for a while. She took advantage of this little time to make enough mental preparation for herself. Finally, she plucked up the courage to say, "Hunter, in fact, I have something in my heart that I want to tell you a long time ago. I should have told you clearly, otherwise, you can't let it go, and I will feel sorry. But, I don't know how to say it... because that thing is destined to be the pain of my whole life. If I mention it again, it is equivalent to casting salt on the wound. Not to mention it, every time I recall that thing, my heart will bleed."

"No... what's going on?" The more Hunter listened, the more curious he became. But at the critical moment, reason defeated curiosity and quickly added, "Cynthia, I don't mean to force you, and I don't want to affect your mood. If you have difficulties or hard to say, you can say nothing."

"Although we haven't expressed our feelings for each other, we all know that you are a good man who is worthy of a woman's lifetime trust. If I keep it from you, it will be too unfair for you. Since I have gathered this courage, let me tell you the truth. Hu... Hunter, I am not worthy of you. Have you forgotten me? I have already asked Alex to introduce you to another person."

"Cynthia, are you sure you're sober now? You don't deserve me? How is that possible! Do you think too highly of me, or do you think too low of yourself? No... Cynthia, don't cry! I'm sorry, I'm sorry. Did I say something wrong? I apologize..."

As Hunter spoke, he suddenly panicked when he saw Cynthia crying.

Cynthia stopped Hunter who was about to rush over to comfort her. Without wiping her tears, she choked and said, "To be honest, my life was saved by you, but my heart was already dead the moment I was defiled! I'm dead, do you understand? There won't be any ripples again!"

"What? You... you... How did this happen?"

"What's the point of saying this now?"

“Who? Cynthia, tell me, who bullied you?”

“Hunter, do you want me to show you the whole wound? I beg you, can you leave me some dignity?”

“I... I’m sorry, I’m sorry! Cynthia, apart from you, who else knows about this?”

“Who do you think I can tell you about this? But... I feel that Alex seems to know.”

Hunter’s heart was in a mess and his blood was boiling. He apologized to Cynthia and rushed out of the ward. Seeing that Alex was still on the road, he ran over without hesitation and asked with a sullen face, “Young Master, Cynthia... she said that she was bullied. Do you know about this?”

Alex also panicked in an instant. He hesitated for a few seconds and asked tentatively, “Hunter, what do you want to say?”

“Cynthia said that she was tarnished, but she didn’t tell me which bastard bullied her!”

“You finally know this! Hunter, do you want to avenge Cynthia?”

“That’s right! Young Master, please tell me everything you know. What I want to do most now is to tear that bastard to pieces!”

“And then?”

“Hmm? Then what?”

“Hunter, it’s important to avenge Cynthia, but how to deal with your relationship with Cynthia is more important.”

“This... our top priority is to take revenge. We’ll talk about the rest later.”

Hunter’s attitude was very determined. He stared straight at Alex and urgently wanted to know the truth.

Alex also knew that if Cynthia told him about that matter without warning, it would inevitably have a great impact on Hunter. Now Hunter must be full of anger. He wanted to take revenge and could not calm down to think about anything else. It was even more urgent to make such a big decision.

After a while, Alex took a deep breath, patted the shoulder of Hunter, and said, “As far as I know, the person who bullied Cynthia is dead, and he died very miserably. The kind of person who was shot in the head and blasted in the head. The result of death without a whole body is barely an explanation for his evil deeds.”

“Break the head? Young master, could it be... Jared who bullied Cynthia?”

“That’s him!”

“What a pity! What a pity! Jared deserved to die, but it’s so easy for him to die! Alas... When I think about it, I still blame myself for being careless and neglecting the details. If I had known what happened earlier, I promise that I would let him experience the extreme torture in the world before he dies. I must make him regret coming to this world! There is no chance in this life. If there is really a next life, I will do nothing but torture him!”

“Hunter, things have already happened, and the wicked people are dead. This matter is doomed to be irreparable. Think about it. In the case of you and Cynthia, I, an outsider, can’t give any suggestions. You can think about it yourself. But the first thing you need to do is adjust your mentality.”

Alex patted Hunter on the shoulder and turned to leave.

Although Alex didn’t say much and pretended to be an outsider, he was actually very concerned about the future development of Hunter and Cynthia.

While Hunter was thinking about it, Alex also had something to do, which was to chase after Yu Zhijie and Yang Changhao.

If he did not get rid of these two people, he would not be at ease.

Unfortunately, in the following days, Yu Zhijie and Yang Changhao seemed to be evaporated from the world. Wu Di, Group Leader Pang, and Xiao Hang joined forces and sent a large number of police forces, but they failed to find them. However, one thing was almost certain: they should not have left Quill City, but their whereabouts were very hidden.

This morning, Alex was anxious and was about to talk to Wu Di face to face. As soon as he got in the car, he received a call from Group Leader Pang. “Mr. Cohen, I have good news for you!”

“Oh?” Alex suddenly became interested and raised his voice several degrees. “Have you found Yu Zhijie?”

“No, but the information we just got is more exciting than finding Yu Zhijie! President Cohen, if you have time now, let’s talk about it in detail. I happen to have an appointment with Wu Di to report it to him.”

“Okay! Send me your meeting address!”

Alex hung up the phone. After receiving the address sent by Group Leader Pang, he asked Big Ken to start the car and rush over as soon as possible...

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 298 -

30 minutes later, Alex and Big Ken arrived at a small square outside the second ring, which was exactly where Group Leader Pang had agreed to meet.

In a minute, Group Leader Pang and Wu Di also drove to the underground parking lot one after another.

Group Leader Pang wanted to find a cafe and talk in detail, but Alex and Wu Di's curiosity was aroused. They couldn't wait to know the so-called big news of Group Leader Pang, so they were not in the mood to drink coffee. The three of them began to chat in Alex's car.

Alex handed Wu Di and Group Leader Pang a bottle of mineral water and asked eagerly, "Group Leader Pang, I can assure you that we won't be eavesdropped in my car. Besides, there are no outsiders here, so let's get straight to the point. I can't wait any longer."

"Okay!" Captain Pang nodded heavily, took out a folder from the black briefcase he carried with him, and handed it to Wu Di with both hands. "According to your previous analysis and speculation, our heavy criminal team and Captain Xiao's anti-poison squad formed a joint investigation team. After nearly a week of hard work day and night, there is finally a result. Your analysis and guess have been verified!"

"Oh? In this case, it means that our special operations group has been busy with this for a month and has not done anything useless!" Wu Di raised his eyebrows. He took the folder but did not open it. He handed it directly to Alex and said, "Mr. Cohen, you should not know what we are talking about. You can take a look first and listen to our suggestions while watching."

Alex immediately took the folder and opened it. At a glance, he saw a photo printed on A4 paper. It turned out to be an acquaintance. It was Yu Zhijie, whom he had asked Big Ken to investigate urgently. In addition to the photo, there was also a detailed identity information of Yu Zhijie. When he opened the next page, there was still a contact information with the photo, but it was just a face.

"This person is..." Alex said, and his eyes naturally lowered. When he saw the two words "Jing Kun" in the name column, his pupils suddenly contracted. In shock, he asked subconsciously, "Is this the Great Poison Owl, Jing Kun?"

Wu Di nodded. "That's right."

“Then how did you manage to gather all the information about Jing Kun and Yu Zhijie together? Hiss... could it be that they... are a team?”

“You can say that.”

“No... what’s going on?”

“Mr. Cohen, it’s a long story. Don’t worry. Listen to me slowly...” Wu Di opened the bottle cap and drank some water, moistening his dry throat. At the same time, he organized his thoughts and began to introduce it to Alex. “This matter still needs to be talked about by my job...”

That was still two years ago, when Wu Di brought his subordinates with him to carry out an operation of capturing mutated individuals, he captured a mutated individual whose level wasn’t that high, barely able to communicate with them. After several days of continuous interrogation, he obtained some valuable intelligence. Through this information, he slowly explored the source bit by bit, and soon after, he grabbed a small underground organization that specialized in training mutated individuals, almost completely wiping out all of the superficial managers and mutated individuals.

Wu Di interrogated the manager again, mainly because he wanted to figure out where he got the mutated agent.

Unfortunately, the seller of the drug, who was assigned to the manager, was unusually cautious. After many transactions, he did not reveal his identity. In addition, the fish that escaped the net reported to the seller that the seller had set up a further anti-reconnaissance plan, so Wu Di’s investigation was at a bottleneck and could not go further.

However, after Wu Di gathered all the information and clues, he speculated that there were several suspicious figures, including Jing Kun. Later, Wu Di applied to the headquarters of the special operations group and jointly conducted a secret investigation. After this application, many subordinate groups in various places, including Quill City, had to investigate the suspicious figures provided by Wu Di. In the end, most of the suspects were eliminated, but they did not find any evidence that could exclude Jing Kun.

Then, the Special Operations Group shrank the scope of the target and conducted a secret and key investigation on Jing Kun.

In the process of the special operations group’s investigation, before finding evidence to prove that Jing Kun was selling mutated drugs, there was an unexpected gain. That was, the special operations group found the secret cooperation between Jing Kun and Yu Zhijie! However, in this way, the special operations group, which was already short of manpower, was even more difficult to deal with. In desperation, the special operations group could only pull in the anti-virus team in the area involved in the trouble and hand over all the investigation related to “poison” to the anti-virus team. The special operations group continued to follow the line of mutated drugs.

But not long ago, a mutant suddenly appeared in Quill City.

For the Special Operations Group, it was not too late to deal with the mutant that had been discovered, and the efficiency was naturally higher than the investigation. Therefore, Wu Di, who had no avatar, could only lead a few subordinates to transfer their focus to dealing with the mutant, and handed the responsibility of the investigation to Group Leader Pang.

At that time, Xiao Hang also received orders from his superiors to investigate Yu Zhijie’s poisoning case, so he cooperated with Group Leader Pang and the two groups of people worked together to investigate. According to the good foundation laid by Wu Di and others, they quickly mastered the key information and evidence to prove Wu Di’s original inference.

What they didn’t know was that the institution that secretly studied variation drugs from abroad bought variation, transported it back to the country, and then shared it with others. It was the development project jointly developed by Yu Zhijie and Jing Kun after gaining trust with each other...

After listening to Wu Di’s introduction, Alex couldn’t help but sigh with emotion. “I still underestimated Yu Zhijie. I didn’t expect that not only was he a drug dealer, but he also started the business of mutant medicine. Strictly speaking, mutant medicine is not a drug, but I think that the potential safety of mutant medicine flowing into the market and the bad impact it will bring are even better than drugs!”

Captain Pang nodded and said, “Who said no?”

“Wu Di, Group Leader Pang, since you’ve already grasped Yu Zhijie’s criminal evidence, shouldn’t you arrest him and interrogate him next?”

“That’s necessary! However, before we catch him, we have to find his hiding place first. At the same time, there is another question we need to continue to investigate. At present, we still don’t know whether Yu Zhijie has reached a cooperation with Jing Kun alone, or the whole Yongji Company is involved? No matter what, Yongji Company has to thoroughly investigate, which is the final punishment. We can’t make a judgment until this investigation results.”

“Unless Yu Zhijie turns into water and evaporates, he will show up sooner or later.”

“Well, we always talk, and the net is long and flawless. Our police have taken action. Mr. Cohen, you can rest assured and wait for our good news at home!”

“Good! Wu Di, Group Leader Pang, thank you for your hard work. I wish you a successful end!”

“Thank you!”

After the business was over, Group Leader Pang and Wu Di still had work to do, so they left in a hurry.

Alex called Big Ken, who had been watching outside, back to the car and reported the information he had just received.

After hearing this, Big Ken also made a detailed report to Alex about the investigation results of Yu Zhijie and the Yongji Company. Then, he concluded, “In short, the Yongji Company is just an ordinary drug stall company. There is nothing special about it. Even if it is nominally backed by a large enterprise like Zhaolong Pharmaceutical Group, with the influence of your family, it is still very easy to deal with it. There is no need to worry about it and you will not get into extra trouble. But...”

“Hmm?” Alex’s curiosity was aroused. “Brother Big Ken, but what?”

“But Jing Kun hasn’t shown up yet. I don’t know how powerful he is. It may be a little troublesome to deal with him. More importantly, once the police take action, Jing Kun may be tied to Yu Zhijie. After all, they are two grasshoppers on the same rope.”

“That’s perfect. We can get rid of them both!”

“That’s right. I just hope... I only hope that there are not many mutants who can be ordered by Jing Kun and Yu Zhijie.”

“Brother Big Ken, what do you think we can do?”

“Young Master, I know that you don’t want to wait and want to participate in the operation against Yu Zhijie and Jing Kun. However, it seems that the police haven’t figured out the situation yet. The information we have is limited, so we are even more confused. Let’s wait and see.”

“Phew... It seems that this is the only way. But, don’t let me seize the opportunity!” Alex suddenly showed a fierce look and said fiercely, “If I meet Yu Zhijie again, or Jing Kun dares to appear in front of me, I will never show mercy!”

After learning more about Yu Zhijie and Jing Kun, Alex’s hatred for them had not only increased to personal grudges, but also to a brand new and higher level. He thought that he was a man with a more upright view or a sense of justice. The only thing he wanted to do for the people who used the Poison Owl and the drug to make them accept justice and the judgment of the law!

As Big Ken said, Alex really wanted to participate in the capture of Yu Zhijie and Jing Kun. Unfortunately, he had never met a suitable opportunity, so he could only wait patiently.

On the other hand, the special forces team represented by Wu Di, Group Leader Pang and Xiao Hang, as well as the police officers, were all busy.

Of course, they were not just doing their work, and the effect was very good.

According to the information that they had mastered, the police immediately sealed off the company. All the business of the company had stopped, and the huge amount of financial support was secondary. The main problem was whether the company could survive or not had become a big problem. From the bottom staff to the old president Yu Zhaohong, they had to be investigated, and none of them could escape.

It was clear that Yu Zhijie was using practical actions to show people what a trap meant, what a rat shit broke a pot of soup.

Although Yu Zhaohong was not a good person, he was just a profiteer who was rich and heartless. Even if he was arrested, he would at most pay the fine and would not go to jail. However, Yu Zhijie privately reached a cooperation with Jing Kun, using the company's resources and some manpower to secretly help Jing Kun transfer the poison. This move dragged the entire Yongji Company into the water.

What was ridiculous was that after Yu Zhaohong was caught, he insisted that Yu Zhijie's behavior had nothing to do with him. He pushed all the problems away and obviously wanted to escape unscathed. However, as the police continued to investigate, they learned more and more truth and soon confirmed that he lied. Especially after his assistant was arrested, in order to reduce the crime, he took the initiative to explain the fact that he had warned Yu Zhijie to stop contact with Jing Kun immediately.

This was just the beginning. When the truth was revealed, the Yongji Company would become history and would never be able to turn over again.

On the other side, Jingkun's camp was also in a mess like the Yongji Company.

In order to deal with the big poison owl Jing Kun, the anti-virus police had done many years of investigation and preparation. Not to mention other things, several groups of undercover agents had been planted in front and back. Among them, the most successful undercover agents had all sneaked into the core level of the Jingkun camp and gained a position similar to that of Lei Yunpeng.

At the beginning of the net withdrawal operation, nearly a thousand police forces outside launched a sudden attack on Jing Kun's camp without warning. In addition to the cooperation of undercover agents, they attacked from inside and outside, which defeated the organization that Jing Kun had spent most of his life building.

In the process of closing the net, the police were crazily resisted, and even met several mutants, who were seriously injured.

Fortunately, the Special Operations Group sent a certain number of evolutioners to assist them in time. They dealt with the mutants and experts of the Jingkun camp. Those experts caught and fled, and they were doomed to be unable to provide any help to the Jingkun camp. If the hard bones were gone, the other people could be dealt with by the anti-toxic police.

The only defect was that Jing Kun had escaped.

Originally, the police wanted to use this operation as an example of drug trafficking to make a public statement. They even planned to shoot a TV series or a documentary like the "Ice-breaking Action" which was on fire. However, because Jing Kun was not arrested, this plan could only be put off for the time being. They would talk about it after catching Jing Kun...

The main task of collecting the net had been completed in less than a week.

As an important participant of this operation, Xiao Hang was exhausted. On the way back to Quill City, he had been sleeping in the back seat.

After returning to Quill City, Xiao Hang had no time to rest. He first went to the municipal bureau to report to the leaders and then rushed to Gold Stone without stopping. He found Alex and shared all the recent actions and results of the police to Alex. Then he added, "Captain Pang and Wu Di are still helping the local police deal with the case of the Yongji Company. I am finished. Thinking that you are waiting for the result, I ran over as soon as possible."

"Thank you, thank you!" Alex bowed to Xiao Hang and said, "Captain Xiao, thank you so much. Congratulations for your triumphant return."

"I'm so ashamed to let Jing Kun run away."

"One step at a time. Sooner or later, Jing Kun will be caught. By the way, did Jing Kun run away alone?"

"He's not alone, but he didn't bring many people with him. He probably didn't bring more than five people. He's very smart. He must have planned a way out for himself in advance. Otherwise, he couldn't have escaped from the eyes of the police. Even the number of his men when he ran away was very important. If he was alone or brought too many people with him, he might not be able to break out of the encirclement if he met our people. If he brought too many people with him, the target would be too big, and it would be easy to find out."

“Yes. Although I don’t know him, I can imagine that he must be a powerful character... Captain Xiao, I see that you are very tired, so I won’t celebrate for you today. You go home and have a good rest first. When team leader Pang and Wu Di come back, I will set up a table. At that time, Captain Xiao must give me the face.”

“You’re welcome, President Cohen. I’ll take my leave then.”

“I’ll see you off!” Alex, accompanied by Big Ken, sent Xiao Hang downstairs. Suddenly, he remembered something. “By the way, Captain Xiao, let me put it bluntly... Is Xiao Jing back?”

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 299 -

Xiao Hang nodded and said, “She is back. She has been back for a while. Originally, I was going to arrange for you to meet and make it clear. But I received a task temporarily, so I had to leave Quill City. Jingjing is very worried about my safety, waiting for my news all the time. She has no mood to do anything else and has been staying at home all the time. How about this, when I’m done with my work, I’ll call Jingjing and let’s have dinner together.”

“Okay. Captain Xiao, call me in advance. I’ll arrange it.”

“Okay, okay, okay... Mr. Cohen, don’t see me off. Please go back. Goodbye!”

Xiao Hang waved at Alex and Big Ken and stepped back to the car.

Big Ken didn’t turn his head to look at Alex, but said with a faint smile, “Young Master, aren’t you a little tangled?”

“Huh?” Alex was stunned. “Brother Big Ken, what do you mean?”

“It must be a woman! In the past, I was quite envious of you. There are so many beautiful women around you. Any one of them is at the goddess level. But now, I think it’s better to be simple. Like me, I don’t have much contact with the opposite sex, and I only like Wendy from beginning to end. I don’t have any emotional problems at all.”

“You’re talking about this... Brother Big Ken, it seems that you know me very well. I’m not a playboy. Like you, I always have only one person in my heart, Isla. As for other male friends, they are just friends. At most, they can become brother and sister. That’s all. This is my real idea. As for Xiao Jing, I guess she has figured it out.”

“What about Bai Ling?”

“Hiss... Bai Ling? From the beginning, I used her as my sister.”

“Young Master, I believe that you treat Bai Ling as your sister, but it’s hard to say whether she treats you as her brother or not.”

“Brother Big Ken, did you see something?”

“Not only did I see that Bai Ling is interested in you, but Wendy also told me about it in private. According to Wendy, Sister Bai Ling has been poisoned by you and is deeply fascinated by you. If you really don’t intend to develop her into something, I suggest you find an opportunity to make it clear to her. This matter is neither big nor small.”

“Phew... All right.”

Alex could not help but smile bitterly. He had never thought that he would encounter such a problem before.

But now was not the time to talk about this.

After a while, Alex returned to Gold Stone, went straight into Felix’s office, and asked directly, “Felix, I remember that you said last time you had something to tell me, but I had something urgent to do at that time. Now I finally have time. Tell me, what’s the matter?”

“Ahem, Mr. Cohen, what, I...” Felix scratched his head and said with a smile, “I may be a father!”

“Really?”

Alex suddenly stood up, reached out his hand and pounded on Felix’s chest. He said excitedly, “Felix, you can do it. You started to nurture people without saying a word? No, Felix... I just saw Quinn as usual, and there was no sign of pregnancy. Don’t tell me that it was not Quinn who was pregnant.”

“How can that be?” Felix was anxious. “I’m such a pure person. How could I do that? A few days ago, I took Quinn to the hospital for an examination. It’s only been two months, and we can’t see it now. The doctor said that it will usually take four or five months to show her pregnancy.”

“I see. Then you have to find some time to get the certificate.”

“I want to discuss this with you. If we get married, Quinn and I will be delayed for a period of time. What about the company then? Quinn and I are thinking about getting our marriage certificate first. When we are a little free, we can hold the ceremony. There are still honeymoons, relatives, and so on. It will take a lot of time.”

“No, no, no. We can wait for anything else. We can’t delay the marriage, let alone that Quinn is pregnant. Felix, you and Quinn can discuss it and decide the date as soon as possible. I'll arrange the company's affairs. By the way, you can choose a date. Leave the rest to me!"

"Well... All right then. Brother Alex, in fact, I planned to hold a wedding on the same day when you are sure about your relationship. But Quinn got pregnant unexpectedly. I'm afraid I can't wait for you."

"You settle this first. To be honest, I haven't seriously considered getting married yet..."

Although Alex had thought about marrying Isla many times, it was just a dream. Now that their relationship was settled, they were not prepared for it. However, under the influence of Felix, the marriage was finally on the agenda.

Of course, the first thing to do now was to find an opportunity to ask for Isla's opinion.

After all, marriage was between two people...

After work, Alex invited Isla to a high-end couple's restaurant. After having a romantic dinner, they went to watch a love movie together. After that, they returned to the villa area. Alex got out of the car and followed the plan. He said to Isla, "It's not 10 o'clock yet. It's quite early. Why don't we walk together?"

Isla stared at Alex warily. "What are you going to do?"

"Just pretend to be familiar with the terrain. I've moved here for a while, and I haven't turned around yet. By the way, I have good news for you."

"Really? For the sake of the good news, I can give you half... 20 minutes."

"Then let's go. This way..."

Without further ado, Alex stretched out his right hand and pulled Isla to the sidewalk on the side of the road. At the same time, he put his left hand behind his back and sent an order to Big Ken, "There's no need to follow us." Today, he wanted to find out Isla's information. He had finished his draft and had even designed the plot. But now, he was still a little nervous when he tried to practice it. Because according to the plan, the first thing he needed to do now was to hold hands with Isla after winning the opportunity to "be on a date" like this!

If Isla was unwilling to hold his hand, then there was no need to mention marriage at all.

"Cough cough..."

Alex coughed twice and made a short self-circulation to calm down. She pretended to look down at the road and saw the position of Isla's hand from the corner of her eyes.

She pretended to accidentally touch it a few times, and then plucked up the courage to hold Isla's hand tightly.

"Ah... what are you doing?"

Isla was so scared that she trembled all over. She instantly stopped and stared at Alex.

However, Isla just shook her hand a few times and gave up before getting rid of Alex.

After receiving the feedback, Alex felt relieved. He pretended to be calm and said, "Isla, there are no outsiders between us now. What's wrong with holding hands? When we were having dinner and watching a movie, you also watched. There were so many couples holding hands, and... There were also people kissing in public!"

"They are a couple, and we are just friends. How can we be the same?"

"What do you mean? Your mother has agreed to our marriage, and she has even accepted the betrothal gifts. Besides, although we have not officially established a relationship, people with discerning eyes can see that we are a couple. Do you still think that we are just friends?"

"I..."

"Don't talk nonsense. I know you like me, haha..."

Alex laughed and encouraged himself. Not only did he not let go, but he also shook the hand of Isla.

Isla lowered her head and pondered for a moment. In the end, she compromised and let Alex hold her hand. She raised her other hand and stroked the hair beside her ear. In order to cover up the embarrassment, she quickly changed the topic. "Alex, where is the good news you just said?"

"Great news!" Alex replied, "Quinn is pregnant, and Felix is going to be a father!"

"Really? Why haven't I heard of such a big wedding?"

"Felix and Quinn are not married yet, so they don't have the nerve to talk about it everywhere. Felix talked to me today, and I urged them to get married. Maybe we can drink their wedding wine soon. Even if they get married, it will take some time. At that time, the company will have to work harder. By the way, let's talk about a funny thing. Felix said that he wanted to wait for us to discuss it and hold a wedding ceremony on the same day. But he couldn't control himself and let Quinn get pregnant..."

"Who wants to hold a ceremony with you? Did I promise to marry you?"

“Ahem... I’m just discussing it with you.”

It was already past eleven o’clock when Alex took Isla to walk around the villa area and turned to the door of Isla’s villa. It was time to say goodbye. Alex, who was reluctant to part with Isla, suddenly felt hot in his mind and pulled Isla into his arms. Just as he was about to kiss Isla to say goodbye, his cell phone suddenly rang.

Isla was a little confused by Alex’s sudden action, but she was awakened by the ringing of her mobile phone and quickly broke free.

Alex had no choice but to take out his mobile phone. When he saw that it was Felix calling, he couldn’t help but not scold her. He picked up the phone and said, “Hello, Felix, why are you still awake so late?”

Felix’s excited voice came from the other end of the phone. “No. Brother Alex, I just discussed it with Quinn and planned to go back to my hometown on Saturday, the day after tomorrow. Speaking of which, I’m very ashamed. I have been in love with Quinn for many years, and I have never visited her parents. In addition, I plan to take this opportunity to tell her parents about Quinn’s pregnancy.”

“This is a good thing. I support it!”

“I heard Quinn say that her father is very proud. If I go alone, it seems that I can’t support the situation. You should know that it is not a glorious thing to be pregnant in the countryside before marriage. If her parents vent their anger on me and don’t agree to our marriage, it will be troublesome. Brother Alex, can you send a few brothers to accompany me? You’d better lend me another car so that I can show my strength to her parents, haha.”

“I see... I’ll go with you and drive my car, and Brother Yuan’s car, too!”

“That’s great! Brother Alex, that’s a deal!”

“Don’t worry, can I let go of your pigeon? Go to bed early. You have to take good care of Quinn!”

Alex hung up the phone, winked at Isla who had not yet entered the room, and said, “Shall we continue?”

“Continue you big head ghost!” Isla rolled his eyes at Alex and said, “What’s wrong with Felix?”

“Yes. He’s going to accompany Quinn to his hometown in the countryside on Saturday. I’ll take a group of brothers to help him keep the scene in check.”

“Me too!”

“What are you going to do?”

“If you can go, why can't I? Is my Maserati leader lower than your Lamborghini? That's settled!”

“Okay, okay, okay, let's go!”

Alex thought about it. Too many things had happened recently, and everyone was very busy. Taking the opportunity to visit the future father-in-law of Felix, they took their brothers to the countryside to relax, and at the same time, they were instantly touched by the joy of Felix and Quinn, which was undoubtedly a good way to relieve the pressure.

It was Saturday. Before eight o'clock in the morning, Felix was ready. He took Quinn to Alex's villa, then drove out alone and bought a lot of breakfast. In the following ten minutes, Isla, Felix, Ma Zhiyuan, Hunter, and Xiong Da arrived one after another.

Together with the leading role, Felix and Quinn, there were a total of eight people. It could be said that they had a large number of people and were very powerful.

Their car was even more overbearing.

One Lamborghini, one Maserati, and two Mercedes. The total price of the four cars exceeded 12 million!

After everyone finished eating breakfast, Felix got up first, looked around, and said loudly, “Brothers, this time, for my personal affairs, we have worked so hard. Here, I will first thank you on behalf of Quinn and me. After I come back, I will treat you to wine. It will take three hours to go to Quinn's hometown, which is more than 200 kilometers away from the countryside. In order to save time, I will fill up all the cars with oil first, and then buy some red beef bread and so on. I will try to make sure that people on the road will not rest and catch up with lunch.”

Alex also stood up and said with a smile, “Felix, everyone here is on our side. Don't be so polite. I see that everyone has almost finished eating. If everything is ready, let's go now. Felix leads the way ahead, followed by Isla and I. Brother Yuan is in charge of the rear of the hall. By the way, Brother Big Ken, please arrange a walkie-talkie for each car to communicate on the way.”

After that, everyone took action.

At half past eight, four cars officially set off.

Since they were well prepared, there was no delay on the way. Before 12 o'clock, they arrived at Quinn's hometown. With the support of Alex and other luxury cars, the marriage proposal of Felix was successfully completed. Even the pregnancy of Quinn before marriage was understood by the two elders.

That night, Felix found a stable in the village and arranged for his brothers to stay.

The next day, Quinn took everyone around the village and went home for lunch at noon. During the meal, as the leader of Felix and Quinn, Alex temporarily exchanged a corner with the matchmaker and communicated with the parents of Quinn in a friendly way, roughly arranging the marriage between Felix and Quinn. The reason why the formal decision was made was that the parents of Felix and Quinn had to meet.

There were many rules in the countryside. Even if it was just a formality, there should be a lot of procedures.

After the business was done, the purpose of relaxing had been achieved.

At three o'clock in the afternoon, Alex set off to return.

On the way, the people in a good mood, driven by Alex, joked through the walkie-talkie. Ma Zhiyuan's voice suddenly became nervous. "Be careful, there is a black domestic off-road vehicle behind us, which is very suspicious. It may be coming for us. Be alert!"

Hearing this, Alex suddenly became nervous. Just as he wanted to ask what was going on, Felix's voice came from the walkie-talkie. "Brothers, the road ahead seems to be blocked!"

"Stop the car! Stop the car inside!"

Hearing this, Alex suddenly had an ominous premonition and gave the order to stop the car without hesitation. The reason why he emphasized stopping the car from the inside was that this was a narrow mountain road. If there was an emergency, the car parked outside would take the risk of being knocked into the ravine. If he parked the car from the inside, he would at most be knocked over, and the danger would be lower.

When the car stopped, Alex and Big Ken immediately got out of the car. Sure enough, they found a domestic car parked horizontally on the road. The distance between the two sides was less than one meter, so it was impossible to bypass it. Then, the off-road vehicle behind them also stepped sideways and stopped on the road, blocking their retreat route.

Based on the current situation, one could easily guess that the other party came with ill intentions!

Alex quickly ran out of the Maserati's driver's seat and said nervously to Isla, "Lock up the doors and windows. No matter what happens later, don't get off the car! Remember, don't get off the car!"

Super Son-In-Law Chapter 300 -

Isla had experienced similar dangers before, but she was still so nervous that she couldn't speak. She just nodded mechanically.

At the same time, Ma Zhiyuan ran to the front and gave Felix and Quinn the same reminder. After that, he gathered with Big Ken, Hunter, and Xiong Da to protect Alex. They didn't know who surrounded them or what they wanted to do, but no one was careless and prepared for the worst.

At this time, the door of the car in front of them finally opened and two burly middle-aged men got out.

Big Ken looked up and suddenly frowned. He reminded them in a deep voice, "The eyes of those two people are bloodshot, the beard on their faces is very strange, and there is something wrong with their expressions. They look like zombies. They may be mutants!"

Before everyone could think too much, the off-road vehicle's door behind them also opened, and a total of four people came out. A young man looked about the same as the two people in front of him, and one of them looked old. As for the other two, they were actually old acquaintances.

With just a glance, Alex recognized the two men. "Yu Zhijie? Yang Changhao?"

"Yes, it's them!" Big Ken replied. "I didn't expect to meet them here!"

While they were talking, Yu Zhijie and the other three people had come over and stood at a place about five meters away from Alex.

Yu Zhijie's cold eyes swept across everyone's faces on Alex's side. Finally, he fixed his eyes on Alex's face. "Cohen, it seems that you are very surprised? Have you never thought that I, Yu, would appear in front of you?"

Alex composed himself, looked straight into Yu Zhijie's eyes, and pretended to be calm as he replied, "Yu Zhijie, the police from several places are looking for you everywhere. At this time, you don't take the time to escape, and you dare to show up. Aren't you looking for death? I'm very curious. Are you crazy or tired of living?"

"You're courting death? You're still alive and kicking. How could I die? Cohen, to be honest, I came to you today to take revenge. I'm in such a miserable state because of you. You have to take responsibility for everything! I don't want anything else, as long as you stay here."

"Oh? You're here to kill me? Yu Zhijie, I've met you before. You should know my strength. How can you kill me?"

"I deliberately kept your dog life before I killed you. Besides, I'm not the only one who wants to kill you today. In order to let you understand, let me introduce you..." Yu Zhijie pointed to the old man next to him and said, "This big brother is more determined to kill you than me!"

Alex subconsciously stared at the big brother Yu Zhijie mentioned and asked, "Who are you?"

The man twisted his neck, stared straight at Alex, and said, "You don't have the qualification to inquire about my identity. You just need to know that I'm looking for you to avenge my friends Lei Yunpeng and Pei Chong. You can keep them in Quill City forever, which shows that you're powerful. But for me, you can only kneel down and beg for mercy!"

"Jing Kun? Are you Jing Kun?"

Alex's heart suddenly trembled and she and Big Ken looked at each other.

Big Ken also knew that the person was Jing Kun, but he was not surprised. Because a few days ago, he had predicted that Jing Kun might be together with Yu Zhijie. However, the arrival of Jing Kun made the situation on their side more serious. It should be known that Jing Kun was known as the "Poison Owl" and was definitely not easy to deal with.

After thinking for a few seconds, Big Ken made up his mind and said softly, "Young Master, when the fight starts, you can find an opportunity to take President Sullivan to Felix's car. I will cover for you. There is only a car blocking the way in front. With Felix's car's driving power, it should be able to hit the car!"

"No, we came together..."

"Young Master, listen to me. Now is not the time to make use of things!"

There was a difference between Alex and Big Ken.

Jing Kun did not intend to give them any time to discuss. He picked up a baseball bat from the trunk of the off-road vehicle, stared at Alex with his hollow eyes, and said, "You are still looking for the way at this time? I have to say that you are too naive. Well, since you already know my identity, there is nothing to say. You can go to hell with peace of mind!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Jing Kun waved his baseball bat and took the lead to rush to Alex.

The other opponents, including Yu Zhijie, immediately followed the rhythm of Jing Kun.

Looking at the fierce opponents, Alex was in a trance for a while and felt unreal.

Ever since Alex learned about Jing Kun, he had dreamed of fighting with him many times and had been looking forward to such a situation. In addition, he had thought more than once that he might meet Yu Zhijie and make the final decision. It was not until he learned about the actions of the police from Xiao Hang last time that he realized that there might be no chance to deal with Yu Zhijie again.

After all, according to common sense, Yu Zhijie and Jing Kun's primary task at present was to save their lives, not to take revenge.

As a result, under such an occasion today, Yu Zhijie appeared in front of Alex without warning and even brought Jing Kun here...

In the blink of an eye, Hunter, Xiong Da, and Ma Zhiyuan had already confronted their opponents.

Alex was woken up by the fierce fighting. He suddenly turned his head and said to Big Ken with a hopeful face, "Brother Big Ken, I think today is a good opportunity to take down Yu Zhijie and Jing Kun. If they run away, it will be even harder to find them in the future. Because I have analyzed that since they dare to come to me for revenge publicly, they must have planned their way out. To put it more exaggeratedly, today may also be the last chance to take them down!"

"Young Master, your analysis makes sense, but..." Big Ken said seriously, "Today, we are short of manpower. There are four mutants on the other side, and Jing Kun is probably a master. On our side, only I, Hunter, and Xiong Da are capable to fight head-on with them. Even if Brother Yuan can entangle the remaining mutant, you have to face the attack of Jing Kun and Yu Zhijie at the same time. It's too dangerous. I can't let you take this risk! Young Master, listen to me and find an opportunity to leave first!"

Time was running out. As soon as Big Ken finished speaking, he rushed out and entangled a mutant who was rushing to them. When he noticed that Jing Kun was also coming over, he could not help but panic and shouted without turning his head, "Young Master, now, I'll hold them back. You go quickly!"

"No!"

Alex gritted his teeth and made up his mind. Except for the reason why he wanted to catch Yu Zhijie and Jing Kun, being a deserter was not his character. It was not his style to leave his brother alone to protect himself. He knew that his decision was the most rational, but now he was hot-blooded and could not care so much. It could be said that he was ready to risk everything.

Before Big Ken answered, Alex showed the cane and took the initiative to meet Jing Kun.

In this way, the two sides formed a one-on-one battle. Yu Zhijie knew that no one on Alex's side had a chance to win, so he did not sneak into the battle group. Instead, he took a steel pipe about 80 centimeters long and swam around, looking for an opportunity to attack. However, after wandering around for several minutes, he did not find a good chance to fight. Instead, he was kicked away by Big Ken.

Among the five groups, only Big Ken had the strength to divert their attention to deal with Yu Zhijie.

As evolutions, Hunter and Xiong Da's combat strength was about the same as their respective opponents', and they could only fight to a draw. Under such circumstances, they didn't dare to be distracted. This was how an expert fought. The winner and loser would often fall into a disadvantage in the blink of an eye. In the remaining two groups, Alex and Ma Zhiyuan's strength was obviously weaker than the opponent's, so they didn't dare to be distracted.

Ma Zhiyuan was considered powerful among ordinary people, but it was still impossible for him to win against a mutant.

As for Alex, although Jing Kun was just an ordinary person, he had been fighting and killing all his life. With his combat experience, he had beaten many streets in Alex. If he were not old enough, his strength and speed would have declined a lot compared with when he was young, the battle would have ended long ago.

The only advantage of Alex was his young age. It could only rely on its young strength to fight against Jing Kun.

The problem was that Alex was not a robot after all. No matter how abundant the physical strength was, it would be exhausted.

Even a robot needed to charge from time to time...

Besides, Yu Zhijie was defeated by Big Ken, so he couldn't calm down. He didn't dare to take revenge on Big Ken, so he aimed his spear at Ma Zhiyuan, who was being beaten back step by step. Under his involvement, Ma Zhiyuan was knocked down in minutes. Yu Zhijie and the mutant didn't stop at all. They rushed to Alex, who was about to be defeated.

Seeing this, Jing Kun quickly stopped the mutant and pointed to the car in front of him.

Yu Zhijie understood what Jing Kun meant. He went back to the car, took a big hammer, and rushed to the Maserati's driver's seat with a mutant. Without saying a word, he directly waved the hammer and smashed it against the window of the car. Although the glass was bulletproof, the glass was sunken in, and it seemed that the whole glass would fall off the door frame!

Isla in the car was so scared that her face turned pale. She climbed to the passenger seat with fear.

A moment later, Yu Zhijie's hand was sore from smashing, and he handed the hammer to the stronger mutant.

Seeing this scene, Alex was so scared that his heart was trembling. He really wanted to rush over, but he was entangled by Jing Kun, and many parts of his body were injured.

“Bang!”

At this moment, as the mutant smashed down with his hammer with all his strength, the car door was smashed and the glass fell.

Yu Zhijie's interest was immediately aroused, like a hungry tiger suddenly seeing an antelope on its own. His eyes flashed with sparks, which made Isla in the car shudder. He couldn't speak clearly. “You... What are you doing? Don't come in!”

“Aren't you asking the question because you know the answer?” Yu Zhijie reached into the car and was about to open it, only to find that the car lock seemed to be broken and couldn't be locked at all, so that the door couldn't be opened. Then, Yu Zhijie planned to climb in.

Alex couldn't hold it back any longer. He was as anxious as an ant on a hot pot. In a hurry, he resisted several attacks from Jing Kun. When he saw the opportunity, he turned around and ran away. He rushed to Isla as fast as he could. Before he could reach the car, he was kicked away by the mutant and fell to the ground heavily. As soon as he got up, he was hit to the ground by the stick of Jing Kun, who had caught up with him.

Both Jing Kun and the mutant thought that Alex had been knocked unconscious and relaxed their vigilance.

However, as soon as the mutant got close to Jing Kun, Alex got up again, and with an unknown amount of strength, it quickly rushed to the side of the car, grabbed Yu Zhijie's foot, exerted force, and forcibly pulled him out of the car. Then it turned around, stuck tightly to the car, and blocked the hole with its body. It glanced coldly at Yu Zhijie, Jing Kun, and others, and shouted loudly, “Do you want to touch her? Unless you cross over my body!”

At this moment, Alex was obviously at the end of the road, because it was impossible to block the opponent. But Yu Zhijie and Jing Kun were a little stunned by his sudden burst of momentum, which gave him a chance to breathe. While wearing rough clothes, they said, “Isla, don't be afraid. As long as I'm alive, no one will hurt you! I won't make the same mistake again!”

Isla was so moved that she trembled with fear. It was not because she was frightened by the opponent, but because she saw blood dripping from the back of Alex's head. Just now, in order to save her, the back of Alex's head was opened by Jing Kun with a baseball bat. The people in front could not see it, but she could see it clearly from behind!

In a few seconds, Alex's back was dyed red with blood.

Big Ken, Hunter, Ma Zhiyuan, and Bear were all anxious, but they had no strength to support him, so they could only be anxious. At the critical moment, Felix stepped forward, got out of the car alone, rushed to Alex, and asked eagerly, "Brother Alex, how are you?"

Alex shook his head with a wry smile. "He shouldn't have died! Hiss... what's that sound?"

"Brother Alex, what's that sound?"

"It's the sound of 'bang bang'. Didn't you hear it?"

"No, Brother Alex, are you... are you hallucinating?"

Felix looked around and listened carefully at the same time. She did not hear anything unusual. She thought that there was something wrong with Alex's brain injury. If so, it meant that Alex's brain injury was very serious. This was not a good sign.

In fact, although Alex was a little confused, he didn't have to be hallucinating. He didn't say much and looked up at the sky with difficulty. Suddenly, his eyes lit up. "A helicopter!"

It was not until this moment that Felix finally heard the sound of his Alex. Looking carefully at the sound, he found that there was indeed a helicopter, which was rapidly approaching from the horizon under the sunshine. Its speed was beyond imagination.

Jing Kun also found the helicopter. He frowned and said, "The situation is not good. Run away quickly. Let's end this as soon as possible!"

After that, Jing Kun took the lead and rushed to Alex again.

Yu Zhijie and the mutant quickly responded. They rushed over to push Felix away and tried to pull Alex.

In the middle of the pull, Jing Kun hit the left side of Alex's head with his stick again.

Alex, who had suffered a heavy blow again, lost all his strength in an instant. He fell straight to the ground and completely lost the ability to resist. He could only be slaughtered. For Jing Kun and Yu Zhijie, the opportunity to take revenge finally came. Jing Kun did not delay for a second. He held the baseball bat in both hands and raised it high, aiming at Alex's head, intending to give it a fatal blow.

"Bang!"

At that time, just as Jing Kun was about to take action, there was suddenly a gunshot.

At the same time, Yu Zhijie, who was standing next to Jing Kun, suddenly stumbled and fell. After falling to the ground, others found that Yu Zhijie was shot in the back. There was a fist-sized area where flesh and blood were scattered, which was shocking.

Jing Kun's reaction was very fast. As soon as he heard the gunshot, he jumped to the side and hid beside the car.

The mutant who didn't escape in time was shot.

Finally, Alex's help arrived.

The person who came was none other than Wu Di, who had been tracking Jing Kun all the way here!

The sudden appearance of the special operations group reversed the situation on both sides. Jing Kun and others, who originally had the upper hand, looked for shelter under the deterrence of bullets and did not dare to show up. The people on the side of Alex breathed a sigh of relief and ran to the Maserati at the same time.

Big Ken felt Alex's pulse and checked the wound. Immediately, he looked serious.

Isla had been frightened and asked urgently, "Brother Big Ken, how is Alex?"

The others also began to ask.

Big Ken shook his head and replied, "Young Master... His injury is very serious. The things in the first aid kit in the car can't handle it at all. He must be sent to the hospital immediately, otherwise... otherwise, his life may be in danger."

"What? His life is in danger?"

"Boss Sullivan, calm down. My initial judgment is not necessarily accurate. Let's wait until the hospital has an examination."

"Then hurry up! Hurry up, help him into the car!"

"The car is too slow. It's better to fly faster..."

While they were talking, the helicopter had already flown to the sky, and a rope fell down. A group of fully armed special police slipped down along the rope. Someone began to shout, "The people below, put down your weapons quickly, hold your head with both hands, and kneel on the ground. Anyone who dares to escape will be killed on the spot!"

The people on the other side of Jing Kun were scared out of their wits and fled in a panic.

Then the gunshot rang again, and the fastest mutant was knocked down. Jing Kun was shot in the back and fell to the ground.

There was still a trace of Alex in his mind. After confirming that the danger had been resolved, his brain was instantly empty and he fainted. When he woke up from the helicopter, he had already reached the sky above Quill City area.

Isla had been holding Alex's hand tightly all the way. It was also the first time that she found that Alex had woken up. She raised her hand and wiped her tears. She choked and said, "Alex, you're awake. It's good that you're awake. You must hold on. Don't fall asleep! Please, don't leave me alone..."

Alex squeezed out a smile, stared at Isla affectionately, and said, "I will try my best not to let you become a widow..."

"You... What time is it? Are you still in the mood to joke?"

"No, I'm not kidding. Isla, if I can survive this, are you willing to marry me?"

"What's the point of saying this now? Let's talk about it when you're strong enough!"

"Isla, I have to tell you the truth. In fact, I've fallen in love with you for a long time, but because of all kinds of reasons, our relationship has gone through a lot of setbacks, and I haven't made it clear yet. Now I want to listen to what you mean from the bottom of my heart. What if... I mean, if I can't hold on, won't I bring this regret into the grave?"

"Alex, are you serious?"

"I'm already a person who has one foot in the grave. Even if I really want to, I don't have the confidence."

"I..." Isla's cheeks turned red. She lowered her head, pursed her lips, and thought for a moment. Suddenly, she nodded and said, "I am willing! But I have to remind you that you and I have been engaged for a lifetime. In the future, you will not only live for yourself, but also cannot leave me without my permission! Otherwise... even if I chase you to the Yin world, I will skin you alive!"

“Bah! Don’t talk nonsense. What is the Yang world in the Yin world? Isla, I’m relieved to hear your words!”

Alex held Isla’s hand, revealing a warm and bright smile like the sunshine of spring.

Big Ken, who was watching from the side, couldn’t help but be stunned.

Although Big Ken was not a miracle doctor, he had learned some medical skills from a senior high school doctor. At first sight of Alex’s injury, he knew that the situation was not good. If he did not die on the spot, he was already a Bodhisattva. What was even more surprising was that from the way Alex and Isla were chatting, they did not look like people who had just been seriously injured.

“What’s going on?”

Big Ken couldn’t figure it out, but it was inconvenient for him to ask, so he could only bear it...

The helicopter went straight to the roof of the military yard. Director Deng, who had received the news in advance, had been waiting for a long time.

Director Deng personally went to the field and gave Alex a full-body examination. When the result came out, it was dark. Generally speaking, as the attending doctor, he should inform Isla and Big Ken in time so that they could have a rest. But in fact, he did not mention anything about Alex’s injury. He asked abnormally, “May I ask who is Isla?”

“I am, I am...” Isla rushed to Director Deng and asked anxiously, “Director Deng, how is Alex?”

I’ve told Alex the details of his injury. You can go and ask him, but not now. Alex specially asked you to go in first. The others, please wait for a while.

After telling the story last night, Director Deng turned around and left.

With anxiety, Isla strode into the ward with heavy steps. Seeing that Alex’s head was wrapped like a rice dumpling, tears welled up in her eyes again. She sped up and rushed to the ward. She sobbed and asked, “Alex, how’s the result? Why didn’t you let Director Deng tell us?”

“Because I’m fine.”

Alex behaved very naturally, just as casually as usual, unlike the image of a patient who had just been seriously injured. Seeing Isla’s puzzled face, he continued, “Isla, the doctor said that I was in danger, but I was stimulated by benign stimulation in the process of medical treatment, which stimulated my vitality, and then urged me to save my life. Obviously, the so-called benign stimulation was given to me. In other words, it was you who saved my life.”

“No... There’s such a saying?”

“It’s all medical theories. I, a layman, don’t know. But, is there any other possibility other than this? By the way, Isla, Director Deng said that the benign stimulation I accept must be maintained. If it’s interrupted or there’s a mistake, my injury may reappear. The consequences are unimaginable.”

“What do you mean?”

“It’s very simple. On the way to the hospital, it was you who agreed to marry me that gave me the motivation to live. This is the benign stimulation Director Deng said. In order not to make my injury reappear, you not only have to fulfill your promise to marry me, but also love me for a lifetime. Otherwise, you may become the murderer of me!”

“Really?”

“Absolutely. If you don’t believe me, you can ask Director Deng! Well, you can go to choose a wedding dress photography shop. When I recover from my injury, we will go to take photos and get married as soon as possible. If we make it fast, maybe we can really catch up with the wedding date set by Felix and Quinn.”

“No, Alex, why... why do I feel strange?”

“Oh...”

Isla nodded in a daze and turned around to leave.

Soon, Big Ken came in and went straight to the bedside.

But before Big Ken could ask, Alex opened his mouth first. “Brother Big Ken, this time, I may also get a big reward because of the trouble!”

“Huh?” Big Ken was stunned. “Young Master, what do you mean?”

“I clearly suffered a fatal injury, or two overlapping wounds. Any one of them could kill me. But Director Deng gave me an examination and said that I was only slightly injured, and there was no big problem at all. More importantly, after my head was hit twice, I had a dream in a daze. I felt a very mysterious force jumping out of my body and spreading all over my body in an instant. When I woke up from the helicopter, I almost didn’t feel pain, but felt refreshed!”

The more Big Ken listened, the more confused he became. He touched his chin and fell into deep thought. About ten seconds later, his eyes suddenly lit up and he said, "Young master, could it be that this time, you accidentally triggered a switch to save your life and become stronger?"

"I just thought of this possibility!"

"Wait, wait, Young Master. I'll call Old Master and ask him!"

Big Ken immediately took out his mobile phone and called Wayne. They chatted for more than ten minutes. After hanging up the phone, he went back to the bedside, pulled a chair and sat down. He said excitedly to Alex, "I have communicated with Master. We can basically confirm that your analysis is correct!"

Alex was also overjoyed and asked, "Brother Big Ken, can you tell me what's going on?"

"That's enough, that's enough. Old Master specially told you that it's time for you to know the truth..."

Big Ken nodded repeatedly and explained to Alex.

It turned out that when Wayne and his wife, Lin Jin, were studying evolutionary drugs, the laboratory was attacked and there was a small explosion. Both of them were injured, and their bodies had changed. They completed the evolution without taking any evolutionary drugs. Later, Lin Jin was pregnant with Alex. After checking, they found that Alex's genes had the attributes of evolution. However, evolution genes were hidden and would not be shown under normal conditions. It needed a certain opportunity to turn the hidden evolution genes into normal.

Once the evolution of genes became normal, it meant that there was a possibility of human beings naturally evolving!

If news of this got out, it would definitely cause a sensation!

In addition, Wayne and Lin Jin had been targeted by the people who attacked the lab. In order not to make Alex a lab mouse, they had to protect Alex better. The couple could only send Alex away and prepare to send him to an old friend's house to recuperate.

The old friend they chose was Director Deng of the military academy!

But on their way to Director Deng's house, they were attacked again. In order not to hurt Alex, they hid the sleeping Alex in a jungle. Unexpectedly, when they led the enemy back to the jungle, they found that Alex was gone!

Later, they knew that Francis accidentally passed by the dense forest and heard the child's cry, so he took it as an abandoned baby and carried it back...

Speaking of this, Big Ken let out a long sigh, sighed secretly, and continued, “Young Master, when you hear this, you should know that Old Master and Madam wanted to send you away not because they didn’t like you, but because they wanted to protect you. As for you being carried away by your adoptive father, it was purely an accident. I hope you don’t blame Old Master and Madam. When you become familiar with them, they are just like you, very kind people. As the old saying goes, a father must be with his son, and most of the time it makes sense.”

Alex also took a deep breath, nodded gently, and said, “Don’t worry, Brother Big Ken, I’m not unreasonable.”

“That’s good, that’s good! Young Master, the reason why my master didn’t recognize you immediately after finding you is that your family’s situation is very complicated. At the same time, you have a lot of strong enemies. At that time, you were just a simple young man who just graduated from college. If your identity was exposed, your situation would be very dangerous. So my master has been expecting you to meet that opportunity and become stronger. At least, you have to have some self-protection ability to control your real identity. In addition, my master asked you to stay in Quill City for such a long time because he wanted to take the opportunity to train your working ability and lay a foundation for your future succession of the family business.”

“I’ve guessed it. I won’t blame him either.”

“With your words, I am relieved. However, old master just said on the phone that you have activated the evolution genes now, and it is just the beginning. In order to develop your intelligence and military potential, you still need to carry out a closed-off training. It will take three years!”

“What? A closed-off training session? Three years?”

“That’s right! Just like me, after taking the evolution medicine, I had to go through many years of training before I could transform from an ordinary person to what I am now. If I only take the medicine without training, then the advantage of an evolution can’t be used much at all. It’s like wasting precious medicine...”

“I see. Let me think about it.”

“No problem! Young Master, have a good rest. I’m outside. You can call me at any time if you need anything.”

Big Ken knew that Alex needed a certain amount of time to accept all this, so she did not force Alex to agree on the spot...

In a flash, half a month had passed. Alex’s injury had almost recovered, and the discharge formalities were quickly completed.

It took Alex a whole day to catch up with his brothers. At night, he went home to the villa and called Isla over. He told Isla everything about his situation and wanted to hear Isla's opinion. According to his own opinion, he didn't want to waste a day if he wanted to live a good life with Isla.

If he refused to return to the Larson family on the grounds that Wayne did not fulfill his father's duty, it could barely make sense.

However, after all, he was from the Larson family and was the inevitable heir of the Luo family. He was born with a heavy burden on his shoulders.

It would be no different from an ungrateful person if he ate and wiped himself clean and cut off ties with the Larson family.

One had to know that everything he had now, in essence, was given by the family!

This was also why Alex was in a dilemma.

Isla understood the situation and also fell into a dilemma. After thinking for a long time, he finally made up his mind. "Alex, I can't give you any advice on this matter, but I can show my attitude. If you refuse the family's request, I am willing to abandon everything I have and accompany you for a small day. If you agree to the family's request, I am willing to wait for you!"

"Thank you." Alex was very moved. He took Isla's hand and said seriously, "Isla, you should have guessed that with my personality, I am inclined to agree to the family's request. I have no choice. I am destined not to be an ungrateful person."

"I knew it. You must have a plan in your heart. It's settled then. I'll wait for you!"

"Thank you for your understanding. It's true. It's my greatest luck to meet you! There's a saying that goes, what do you mean? Ask what love is in the world, and teach people life and death."

"There's another thing that you need to say. If we're in love for a long time, how can we be in the morning and evening?"

"Good poem, good poem! But... Lala, such a beautiful occasion is too monotonous. Why don't we do something meaningful?"

"For example?"

"I still remember that when I was in primary school, a teacher once said that the most meaningful thing in the world is to teach and educate people."

"And then?"

“We’re not teachers. Since we can’t teach, we can only raise our kid.”

“Get lost...”

“Roll the sheets? Yes, yes, that’s what I mean. Hey hey, come on...”

The whole night was silent.

Alex made up his mind and got the support of Isla, so he basically had no big worries. The rest needed to be arranged in business. The first thing he needed to do was unite with Ning Haohan and get Grand Express Corporation here. In order to ensure the management of several companies under his name, he set up a group named Feiyang Group and listed all the companies under the Feiyang Group. Isla served as the general manager and chairman, and invited Xiao Jing to Feiyang Group as the deputy general manager. In addition, he also dug up Li Jiafei to be the chief financial director.

Next, Old Sid would be the boss of Hudson Designs LLC, Felix would be the boss of Gold Stone, Ma Zhiyuan would be responsible for the business of all entertainment venues, Ning Haohan would be the boss of Grand Express Corporation, and Lin Ke would be the boss of Qingyun Media.

After a series of operations, the Feiyang Group became the largest business agency in Quill City in one fell swoop, and it was estimated to be worth more than 100 billion yuan.

Among these subsidiary companies, Qingyun Media had the best development technology. Qingyun Media was originally a big company. After the reorganization, the newly launched variety show had begun to record. The first episode was specially selected to record the new resort built by Harrods Corporation, which was used as an advertisement for the resort for free. Qingyun Media also caught the relationship with Alex, and a TV series was introduced. It was a horror story based on Jing Kun. All these were just the beginning. In short, winning the bet with Zou Wenze’s Tianle Media was just around the corner.

Everything went smoothly, but there were two regrets in private affairs.

First, the wedding of Felix and Quinn would be held in a month, and Alex couldn’t wait that long.

Secondly, it was too late for Alex to hold a wedding ceremony with Isla, so the marriage certificate was first removed.

On the night before leaving, Alex called Isla home. After saying goodbye before leaving, they rolled on the bed sheet again.

After that, Alex held Isla in his arms, sighed and said, “I’m sorry, Lala. Our family is in a hurry. Our wedding can only be held when I come back.”

Isla shook his head and said, "You are not afraid that I will be abducted, so I am not in a hurry. Even if you leave, it may not be convenient for us to connect with each other. Then, you can't ask about the Feiyang Group completely. What if there is something wrong with me?"

"Anyway, I'll leave it to you. You just have to pay the price."

"You're talking as if the Feiyang Group is mine!"

"You're right. Feiyang Group is the property I gave you and my brothers. All the profits will belong to you."

"Don't you want anything? Alex, tell me honestly, how rich is your family?"

"Hahaha, I only found out recently. Do you know Larson's Pharmaceutical Group?"

"Is it the world's pharmaceutical industry giant with a market value of 30 billion dollars and an annual turnover of nearly 20 billion dollars?"

"That's right!Larson's Pharmaceutical Group is one of my family's properties..."

Hearing this, Isla was so shocked that she couldn't speak...

Three years passed in the blink of an eye.

In the past three years, the development of Feiyang Group had been very smooth, and the total valuation had been doubled. The best thing to develop was naturally Qingyun Media. It not only helped Alex win the bet with Zou Wenze, but also cultivated a group of top-notch idols represented by Bai Ling and Lin Aoran.

In the early winter, it was a sunny weekend.

In the afternoon, after lunch with Bai Ling, who had returned to Quill City to promote the new movie, Isla drove the Maserati back to the villa area. As soon as she drove the car to the door, she found a tall man in a black coat and sunglasses leaning against the door of her house. She fixed her eyes on him, stopped the car subconsciously, and slowly got out of the car. Standing beside the car, she quietly stared at the man, as if she had been petrified.

The next second, a little baby, who looked like a little elf, stepped back and got out of the car. She held Isla's hand nervously and asked, "Mom, who is he?"

"He?"

Isla came back to her senses and smiled sweetly. "Xixi, he is your father..."

—— The End ——
