Chapter 261 part 1

Following that, a man then said.

“It’s been years since a ‘Martial Assembly’ convention has been held since the ‘Alliance Master’ disappeared, hasn’t it?”

Followed by others who also discussed.

“Yes, the ‘Baili Changfeng’ alliance master has also disappeared for too long, it’s time for another alliance master to be created.”

“So can’t we vary the rules this time, just remove the age limit.”

“That’s right, let’s all participate.”

At this point, another person suddenly said.

“Wait a minute, this is not even the point, right? As we all know, the legacy of ‘Martial League Master’ is only enjoyed by the League Master alone, and if the League Master is unable to reach the specified cultivation or battle power at the specified age he will be removed, I think we all know this very well, and it is indeed time for age mark for the ‘Baili Changfeng’ alliance lord, but now that the alliance lord has disappeared, what about the legacy?”

Hearing this person’s words, everyone else said.

“Yes, without the legacy, this ‘Martial Lord’ is of no use at all!”

“Right, what’s there to fight for an empty title.”

However, the “Transmission Elder” interrupted the crowd and said.

“No, there is an ‘inheritance’, but the Baili Changfeng League Master is trapped in the secret realm, but his inheritance is still there, and he doesn’t know how much longer he will be trapped.”

“Moreover, that side of the Northern School of Martial Arts is also aware of this matter, although the Baili Changfeng alliance master is from the Northern School, he is indeed a ‘wonder of the ages’, it’s just a pity that he took too many risks, lamentable!”

As he said this, the “Transmission Elder” sighed.

The crowd was also silent, every “Martial League Master” was a person of extraordinary talent, but this “Baili Changfeng” was the most powerful among all the League Masters, he was already a “Saint Level” powerhouse at a young age, one of the myths of the world, but it was a pity that his love for martial arts became obsessive and he was eventually trapped in the secret realm.

After that, the ‘Transmission Elder’ said.

“I have already discussed this with the Northern School of Martial Arts, so let’s start preparing for this.”

However, Elder Chuangong also felt that there was something strange about what had happened. His sect master was not a person who liked to make trouble, but recently he had been acting out of character, doing things that were illogical or incomprehensible.

The key problem was that the Northern School martial arts forest was actually very cooperative.

“Could it be that the Northern School Martial Forest is also out of its head?”

The “Transmission Elder” was dumbfounded.

However, the matter of the new “martial arts alliance leader” was also in full swing.

Ye Lu originally wanted to rest and adjust before helping Jasmine to refine the pills, and since he had recently improved so much, he should be able to refine the “Pulse Pill”, which could help the “Tirth Breath Realm” to cross over to the “Pulse Raising Realm”.

As for the pill that would make people go crazy and cross over to the “Patriarch” level, Ye Lu felt that he could also try it, but both pills lacked the main raw materials, and of course, Ye Lu had a plan to get these materials from the “Underworld App”.

However, before he could rest for a while, Ye Yan started to contact him.

“Ye Lu, can you come for a while? The Ye family invited me over and then said that they have news about grandma, can you come with me?”

Ye Luo said in WeChat.

Hearing that there was news about her grandmother, Ye Lu quickly said.

“Go, wait for me, I’ll be there soon.”

There was no beef between himself and Ye Luo, and since Ye Yan was invited, it shouldn’t be any conspiracy, because Ye Yan was just an ordinary person, and there was no need for the Ye family to use any conspiracy against her.

So, Ye Lu quickly met up with Ye Yan.

“Older sister, what’s going on?”

Ye Luo looked at Ye Yan and asked.

Ye Yan smiled and said.

“It’s that this shop I run is known to them, you still remember the battle at the ‘Top of Purple Gold’, right, that’s when this shop of mine was known to the Ye family, they understand the value of this shop these days, so, I guess they are ready to pull me in.”

With those words, she then reached out and patted Ye Lu’s shoulder and said.

“Because behind me stands this super powerful ‘alchemist’ of yours!”

Ye Lu didn’t say anything, but thought about it and called the Ye family’s old man, who said that there was nothing unusual about the Ye family recently, so Ye Lu was relieved.

“Let’s go then, I promised them to go over for a lunch at noon.”

Ye Yan said as she pointed to a super cool SUV.

Ye Lu, on the other hand, was a little puzzled and asked.

“The car you drove last time wasn’t this colour, was it?”

As a result, Ye Yan said with a smile.

“Yes, but I like this car, so I bought one of each colour ‘red, orange, yellow, green, blue and purple’ and will change to a different colour tomorrow, how about that, awesome, right?”

Hearing Ye Yan finish, Ye Lu could only smile helplessly, he obeyed this old sister when it came to spending money.

However, once Ye Lu got into the car, Ye Yan said with a smile as she started the car.

“Do you think old sister is spending money recklessly, don’t worry, this is in exchange for two big breasts, it’s not that easy to want my ‘breast enlargement pills’.”

This time Ye Lu was convinced by Ye Yan.

The two of them soon arrived at the Ye family with a laugh.

As expected, there were several people waiting to greet Ye Yan at the entrance of the Ye family villa, and when they saw that Ye Yan had also brought another person over, the Ye family member in charge of reception asked with a smile.

“Eldest Miss Ye Yan, who is this?”

Ye Lu said.

“This is also a member of the Ye family, called Ye Lu, the child my grandmother adopted.”

At this moment, Ye Lu was wearing the clothes he had just changed into, the clothes he had worn when he had gone to the “Purple Gold Peak” to duel.

As a result, the person in charge of the reception said with a smile.

“Oh, it’s like that, but the person who adopted is not yet considered a member of the Ye family, if Miss Ye Yan is willing to help this time, I can beg the family head so that Ye Lu can return to the family, so that he can also take a step up to heaven, don’t you think so?”

Obviously, this guy used letting Ye Lu become a member of the Ye family as a bargaining chip, trying to impress Ye Yan with this.

Without waiting for Ye Yan to speak, Ye Lu smiled first and said.

“No need to go to that trouble, the tiny Ye family, I don’t even see it in my eyes, if it wasn’t for this surname given to me by my grandmother, I wouldn’t even want it.”

When the seventh strand of aura had not coalesced, he could have borrowed the “Bloodline Avatar” to kill the “Cold Blooded Yan Lo”, he really didn’t care about a decaying family like the Ye family.

When Ye Lu finished speaking, the man in charge's brow furrowed, but he gave Ye Yan a look and didn't get angry, but said with a cold smile.

"It's good for young people to have ambitions, but don't be overly ambitious, our Ye family has been passed down for thousands of years and has a deep heritage, you'll be begging to enter the family one day sooner or later."

Hearing him out, Ye Lu smiled and said.

"This is also what I want to say to you, sooner or later, you will beg me to enter the family, but don't worry, I won't agree to it."

After saying that, Ye Luo then looked at him and said with a smile.

"Well, we didn't come here to discuss this boring issue, let's just hurry inside and get down to business."

Ye Luo was also very eager to know the news of his grandmother.

After being despised by Ye Luo, the Ye family man who was receiving him looked visibly ugly, however, he quickly adjusted his mood looking at Ye Yan and said with a smile.

"Grand Miss Ye Yan please, the family heads are waiting for you inside."

And in the main building of the Ye family villa, Ye Nantian, the family head of the Ye family, and several other senior members of the family were watching the scene from the monitor's screen.

"Who's that kid? It feels so arrogant!"

"Didn't I just say, it's an adopted wild child, who knows where he came from, he probably doesn't even know what our Ye family is really about, what insight can a poor loser have."

"That's true, but what's important now is that woman Ye Yan, tell the people below to try not to offend him, let's go, I hope we can make a deal this time."

After saying that, several senior executives walked out of the surveillance room, while Ye Yan and Ye Lu also walked into the villa.

Chapter 1 part 2

Ye Lu had been to the Long family, and he found that this Ye family seemed to be a little more prosperous than the Jin family, at least this compound was bigger and divided into several courtyards, it looked like the Ye family was at least a little more powerful than the Long family.

Soon, the two people walked into the meeting room and Ye Nantian looked at Ye Yan with a smile on his face and said.

"Miss Ye Yan, first of all I would like to apologize to you, all this time I have not been paying attention to you, this is my mistake, however, as a member of the Ye family, we all flow from the same bloodline, other than that, we are all true family members, right?"

At this, Ye Yan smiled, she actually felt that she was indeed a member of the family, but had little affection for the Ye family, so she looked at Ye Nantian and said with a smile.

“I understand what the family head means, however, as you know, I don’t know how to refine pills, and this matter is still in Mr. Luo’s hands, so I can only say that I can try to help.”

Hearing Ye Yan talk about Mr. Luo, Ye Nantian then said with a smile.

“Then I’ll be more than grateful to Mr. Luo, don’t worry, we won’t treat you and Mr. Luo poorly either, as a member of the family, I see that you haven’t really started cultivating yet, this is my negligence, I’ll pass on the family’s ancestral techniques to you here, you should also cross into the ranks of cultivators sooner, with Mr. Luo helping you, your cultivation will definitely be twice as good with half the effort. ”

Following that, Ye Nantian then looked at the sky and said with a sigh.

“Because only cultivators can truly go on to eternal life, otherwise this flesh of ours will decay and decay one day sooner or later.”

Speaking here, Ye Nantian then became somewhat emotional.

Following that, he waved his hand.

A subordinate walked over with a scroll, which should be the ancestral gong method of the Ye family.

When he saw the scroll, Ye Lu’s eyes lit up, because he had always wanted to activate the “gongfu system”, so this might be a good opportunity.

So, he quickly checked the level of this gong method, and he saw this written on it.

“Name: Super Simplified Version of the Vermilion Bird Heart Technique, Source: Haotian Continent, Grade: Mortal Rank Medium, Description: a modified version of the simplified version of the Vermilion Bird Heart Technique, modified by the Jin family, possesses part of the essence of the ‘Vermilion Bird Heart Technique’, but is missing the core of the ‘Vermilion Bird Heart Technique’”

After seeing that, Ye Lu then looked at Ye Nantian with contempt, this guy wanted to get Ye Yan’s help while not wanting to pass on the family’s merit method, this guy was not really a normal chicken thief.

Sure enough, Ye Nantian took the gongfu scroll and put it in and said.

“Ye Yan, I have one thing to say to you, this ‘gongfu scroll’ must not be shown to anyone, passing on the family’s gongfu is a big crime, when the time comes, even I can’t protect you.”

Ye Yan did not know what was going on, and she nodded silently.

Ye Lu didn’t say anything either, as it wasn’t the right time to break the news, let’s wait until we know the news of our grandmother first, so he gave Ye Yan a wink.

Ye Yan smiled and put the scroll away, then looked at Ye Nantian and said.

“Thank you, family head, I would like to ask, news of my grandmother, can you tell me now?”

Ye Nantian said with a smile.

“Of course, of course, in fact your grandmother once left a note, I think your grandmother’s handwriting, you must be able to recognise it.”

As he said that, Ye Nantian then had someone take out a note.

On the note were written sixteen words.

“Nine Stars in a row, Nine Heavens in a row, Immortal Mansions open, meeting each other is a covenant.”

In fact, Ye Yan didn't recognise his grandmother's handwriting, as he had left since he was a child and didn't remember much about it then, so she looked to Ye Lu.

Ye Luo recognised this as his grandmother's handwriting, as she had done all the parental signatures when he was a child, and he had imitated her handwriting for this reason, and he could be sure that this was her own handwriting.

However, he was a little unclear about the meaning of the sixteen characters, as his literacy level was also very limited, but the word mentioned in it was not the first time he had seen it, that is, “Immortal Mansion”, and on Ye Yan's neck was the key to the Immortal Mansion, which could open the Immortal Mansion of the “Purple Haze Fairy”.

At that time, Ye Lu's status was still that of an appraisal master, however, at that time, it was prompted that his level was not enough to open the immortal residence, I wonder if his level is enough now.

Ye Yan said that the key had been left to her by her grandmother, so Ye Lu felt that the two events were definitely not isolated.

Ye Lu nodded, then he thought about it and looked up Ye Yan's information, and he found that, as he thought, Ye Yan also had a “hidden bloodline”.

“Sure enough, Ye Yan is no ordinary person.”

When he heard what Elder Ye had said before, Ye Lu felt that Ye Yan was not a simple person, and now it seemed to be true.

Seeing Ye Lu nod, Ye Yan put the note away.

Then looking at Ye Nantian, she said.

“Family head, don't worry, I will speak to Mr. Luo about the elixir, as soon as there is news from his side, I will give you an answer.”

Hearing Ye Yan's words, Ye Nantian then smiled and said.

“Thank you Miss Ye Yan, this little brother is called Ye Luo, right, although you are an adopted child, but, since you are Ye Yan's younger brother, you might as well acknowledge your ancestors, although you might not be worried about money, but, there are still many benefits to having a family as a backing.”

Ye Lu then smiled and said.

“There's no need for that, I'm not interested in cultivating either, as long as I can live out my college life peacefully, then old sister, let's go.”

After saying that, Ye Lu turned around and walked towards the outside.

Ye Yan did not understand Ye Lu's intentions and had to follow him outside.

"What a rat's eye."

Seeing that Ye Lu actually refused to meet the Ye family and did not want to become a cultivator, Ye Nantian then looked at Ye Lu's back and shook his head with a sigh.

In his opinion, Ye Lu was just a mountain boy who had just entered the city and didn't understand anything.

Of course, he also had the same opinion about Ye Yan, he felt that Ye Yan was just a vase that some alchemist had fallen in love with, so he would use her while she was in favour, and once she fell out of favour one day, she would no longer be of any use, as for treating Ye Yan as his own family, that was completely impossible.

After walking out, Ye Yan then took the scroll and said.

"This family head seems like you're not bad at all."

Ye Lu then smiled and said.

"It's just superficial, what he gave you is a modified cultivation technique, it's just lying to you, probably because he sees you as a good liar."

As a result, Ye Yan clenched her fist and said.

"Shit! How dare you lie to old mother."

Ye Luo then said with a laugh.

"However, I can see a bit of a problem, you have a hidden bloodline in your body, if it is stimulated, you might be very powerful without any cultivation."

Hearing that there was still such a thing, Ye Yan then said with wide eyes.

"There is still such a thing, what bloodline is it?"

Ye Lu shook his head and said.

"I don't know either as it's hidden, but we'll look into this matter later as it takes quite a bit of time to activate the power of the bloodline, I have two more important things to do right now, I'll help you activate your bloodline as soon as I'm free."

Ye Yan was in no hurry about this, she opened the car door and then said.

"Was that note just now really left by grandma?"

Ye Lu nodded, and then said to Ye Yan.

"Show me that personal pendant of yours again."

Ye Yan took the pendant out of her chest and handed it over, Ye Lu grabbed the pendant with Ye Yan's question on it, but as a result, the glasses still lifted saying "cultivation level is not high enough to open it".

“How high of a cultivation level does this thing need to be to open it?”

Ye Luo also felt a little depressed.

He then saw an odd pattern on the pendant that looked like a word. He quickly checked with his glasses and found that it was the ancient word “Jun”.

“Jun? What does this mean?”

Ye Lu looked up the meaning of the word, but couldn’t figure it out, so he gave up.

“What do you see?”

Ye Yan asked with some curiosity.

Ye Luo shook his head, then gestured for Ye Yan to drive, after which he opened his phone and entered the Underworld App to contact the manager.

“Oh, Lord Xiu Luo, you want to sell something, good, welcome, come on, I’ll tell you the address.”

When the other party saw that it was “Yum Yum Shura”, he quickly responded.

However, at this moment, an unexpected guest had visited the Ye family.

Chapter 262

Ye Nantian was discussing what was next with the other two uncles of the family’s top brass after dealing with Ye Yan, when the door suddenly opened, and then three ninjas dressed in black walked in.

“Who are you people?”

Ye Nantian asked as he looked at the three men with a frown.

A short ninja at the head of the group said with a smile.

“I am Miyamoto Nagai, and I would like to ask you all to come along.”

Of course Ye Nantian refused to give in, but the level of combat power of Miyamoto Nagatai and the two ninjas he had brought with him was quite terrifying, and soon Ye Nantian and the three of them were subdued.

After subduing the three men, Miyamoto Nagai then quickly took the three away.

It did not take long for the three to be taken to a rather dark dungeon, and after each of them was fed a pill, Miyamoto Nagai quickly left with the men.

After taking the medicine, Ye Nantian felt that his entire cultivation had actually disappeared, which appalled him as he did not know whether it was temporary or permanent.

Following that, he heard someone say not far away.

“Ye Nantian, I didn’t expect you to be caught here as well.”

Upon hearing this voice, Ye Nantian quickly turned his head, only to see the Jin Family's family head sitting in the next cell looking at himself with a helpless expression.

Upon seeing the Jin family's family head, Ye Nantian frowned.

"What, old Jin, you've been caught by the Japanese too."

The head of the Jin family said with a smile.

"It's not just me, Old Dragon has also been captured, just over there, and now Old Lin is all that's left of our four families."

Ye Nantian looked along the Jin family head's hand, only to see a naked Long Ao whose eyebrows, beard and head were all gone.

"What, Family Head Long, have you changed your profession to become a monk?"

Ye Nantian looked at Long Ao and said with a smile.

Long Ao, in turn, said coldly.

"I don't need you to care about my affairs."

At this time, the family head of the Jin family said.

"Do you guys think that things are a bit fishy? First, the people from the 'Heaven Shading Gang' wanted to find trouble with our four families, and then these Japanese are looking for trouble with us, what is it that these four ragged families of ours have that attracts them so much?"

Hearing the words of the head of the Jin family, the people of the other two families also fell into deep thought.

In fact, the originator of this matter, Abe Hoeye, was not very clear, exactly, as the information he had received so far was that this matter was related to the totem fragments of the four ancient martial families, and he was still investigating further, but he believed that he should have the results in no time.

He had found out that the Xuan Tian Clan knew a technique of picking yin to complement yang, so they were very keen on women with excellent qualifications, and there were many such women in the Extreme Dao Society.

After sending Ye Yan back, Ye Lu went to the place designated by the Underworld App manager.

Of course, he also changed into his "Blood Shadow Shura" appearance.

"Why can't this 'martial art' be sold?"

What depressed Ye Luo a little was that the manager told him that his 'Martial Skill' actually did not comply with the selling rules of their 'Underworld App'.

As a result, the other party explained very politely.

“It’s like this, although we are the ‘Underworld’, we also have concerns when it comes to martial skills, because we can’t be sure of the origin of your martial skills, and if they come from the ‘clan world’, it will undoubtedly bring us ‘Underworld’ with great trouble, unless you can have a way to prove that this martial skill is inherited in an orderly manner.”

This was a bit surprising to Ye Lu, but, when he thought about it, there was some truth to what this man said, otherwise this would not be the place to become a pinning place for clan thieves.

However, he had no way to explain the inheritance of these “martial skills”.

So, he thought about it and said.

“Okay, what about the pills?”

This time, the other party smiled and said.

“There is no restriction on elixirs, because elixirs are something that can be circulated unlike martial skills, do you have ‘elixirs’ that you want to sell on consignment?”

Ye Lu thought about it, but eventually shook his head.

At present, the best place for pills was to give them to the Hundred Flowers Sect, because the benefits brought by the “medium-grade spirit stones” were the most fundamental benefits.

So, he had no choice but to return to the cave at the back of the mountain.

As a result, he found that Jasmine was already waiting for him in the air-raid shelter.

“Ye Lu, a little surprise for you.”

Jasmine said and took out ten “medium-grade spirit stones” and said with a smile.

“I gave all the pills you made that day to the clan, this is the ‘Luminous Stones’ that the elders gave you for the next batch of orders, I know that the ‘Luminous Stones’ you have are going to run out, right?”

Seeing the spirit stones in Jasmine’s hand, Ye Lu was simply too surprised, he happily rushed up and picked Jasmine up in his arms and said.

“Great, I’m in need of the ‘Luminous Stone’ right now, don’t worry, I’ve pretty much taken care of everything else, I’m going to help you refine the ‘Heaven Transformation Pill’ overnight, the success rate should be much higher now. ”

Jasmine blushed as she was picked up by Ye Luo, but Ye Luo had already started to refine the pills in style.

As expected, with the improvement of the “Ghostly Inferno”, Ye Lu’s “Heaven Transformation Pill” was now almost always a finished product in every furnace, which surprised him.

When he took a break in the middle of the night, he also took a group mission in the Underworld App, which was an escort mission.

This “Nine Leaves Blood Lotus” was the most important raw material for refining the “Foundation Establishment Pill”, which could allow a person to enter the “Patriarch” level.

Of course, Ye Lu used the nickname “Yi Ye Zhi Qiu” in the “Underworld App”, because if he really used “Blood Shadow Shura”, it would be too conspicuous and would definitely cause unnecessary trouble.

The mission was to be carried out in a fortnight’ time.

The next morning, when Jasmine saw hundreds of “Heaven Transformation Pills” in front of her, she was so surprised that she couldn’t even close her mouth.

This was because each one of them meant that one person would be promoted to “Innate Spirit”, and the “Hundred Flowers Sect” originally had few cultivators, so this would create a large number of good seedlings.

Ye Lu smiled and said.

“Take it to the clan, and tell your elders that there is a bigger surprise ahead.

Hearing that Ye Lu could make a ‘foundation building’ pill so quickly, Jasmine couldn’t believe her ears.

Ye Lu did not pay attention to Jasmine, he wanted to take advantage of the spirit stones in his body to further his cultivation, and what could achieve this was to continue to activate the bloodline in Long Fei Xue’s body, and of course, Jin Kun.

However, since Long Fei Xue was going through the company’s handover procedures, Ye Lu could only activate Jin Kun during the daytime, and as a matter of fact, the “Divine Beast White Tiger” pattern also appeared on Jin Kun’s back.

It was only in the evening that Long Fei Xue was free, and Ye Lu worked at Long Fei Xue’s place for a few hours. As a result, he saw that Long Fei Xue had shaved off the hair on some parts of the body, which was very nice and naked, probably because he was afraid of looking indecent.

After this day and night of tossing and turning, Ye Lu felt that the seventh strand of aura had indeed become quite thicker.

“It’s time to give him Lin Sihai’s ‘Soul Suppressing Tower’ bad, guess that kid Lin Qing got a lesson too.”

Ye Luo muttered as he looked out into the night.

He did not know at this moment that the Lin family was no longer the Lin family of the past, the Lin family was now like a dragon’s den, not only was Abe Hoey, the Yin Yang master present, Miyamoto Nagai of the Miyamoto family and those ninjas, but what was even more terrifying was that the ‘Wine Swallow Boy’ who had absorbed a large number of ghosts from the Lin family was also at the Lin family at this moment, everyone was waiting for Lin Sihai to come out of seclusion and then get the ‘Soul Suppressing Tower’ to enter the ‘Ghost Mound’.

The Lin family hall.

A female ninja dressed in black walked in quickly from outside.

“Lord Abe, Lord Ozawa has found out some information from the Xuantian Clan, and this matter is really related to the Totem Fragment of the Four Great Clans. clear.”

Hearing this woman’s report, Abe Hoey then smiled.

“Something that makes even the clan attach such importance to it must be a superb item, so it’s good that we’re one step ahead.”

However, just at this time, someone suddenly reported back.

“Report to Lord Abe, there’s a teenager at the door who says he wants to see Lin Sihai.”

Chapter 263

When he heard that a teenager wanted to meet Lin Sihai, Abe Hoeye smiled.

“What’s that Chinese saying, ‘It takes no effort to find a place after stepping through iron shoes’, but I didn’t expect this boy to come to my door after looking for so long.”

When he finished, he turned to the woman beside him, the one who had given Lin Qing the “Soul Suppressing Tower” before, and said.

“You know what to do, don’t you?”

The woman immediately nodded, and then obediently walked out.

When Ye Lu saw a woman walking out, she smiled and asked.

“You are?”

The woman said with a smile.

“I am the main mother of the Lin family, Lin Sihai is my husband, if you have any time, come in and talk.”

Ye Lu smiled and walked in, because from the introduction of the glasses, he had already confirmed the identity of this woman, who was indeed the Lin family’s main mother.

The whole villa looked very grand and opulent, it didn’t seem to match the Lin family’s art of raising ghosts at all, at the moment the courtyard was very quiet and there was nothing unusual.

Soon, Ye Luo walked into the hall of the main building, however, in the hall, Ye Luo did not see Lin Sihai.

“Wait here for a moment, I’ll go and call my husband to come out.”

The woman politely poured a cup of tea for Ye Lu before turning around and leaving.

When he saw this person, Ye Lu understood that he had entered the wrong place, because he had seen this person during the “underground boxing match”.

This man was the leader of the Yakuza Association at that time.

However, he did not run away immediately because he saw that the ninja in black had already appeared silently in the courtyard, so it was obvious that the other party had already prepared for them and their cultivation level was not low.

So, without moving, he began to make preparations.

“Hello, let me introduce myself, my name is Abe Hiroyuki, I assume you are familiar with him.”

With that, Abe Ho-ye waved his hand, and Lin Qing stepped out from behind.

“Tell me, where has the ‘Soul Suppressing Tower’ been hidden by you?”

Abe Hoeye looked at Ye Lu and said indifferently.

When he heard Abe Hoey’s question, Ye Lu understood that it seemed that because he had come empty-handed, the other party had misunderstood that he did not have the Soul Subduing Tower with him, because the Soul Subduing Tower and all kinds of things Ye Lu had put in the “Burning Heaven Furnace” that could be shrunken and stored in his dantian.

So, Ye Luo looked at Abe Hoey and said.

“I am here to find Mr. Lin Sihai, do you know where Mr. Lin Sihai is?”

As he spoke, Ye Lu began to observe the basic information of Abe Hoeye and the others in his glasses at the same time.

As a result, he found out that this Abe Ho-ye was actually a “Level 4 Grandmaster”, and the two people following him were also two “Level 3 Grandmasters”, so he guessed that the ninjas outside who were responsible for blocking his back way should also have guys of similar level.

“Oh, it doesn’t matter where Lin Sihai is, you’d better tell me where the ‘Soul Suppressing Tower’ is, or else you’ll only die.”

In fact, Ye Luo knew very well that he would only die if he said the “Soul Subduing Tower” or not, as Yasuhiko Abe had said before that anyone who had seen the “Wine Swallow Boy” would die.

So, Ye Lu thought about it and said.

“I put that tower in the parking factory of ‘Sunset Mountain’.”

When things had come to this point, Ye Lu could only choose to talk nonsense, as he could only delay the matter for a little while.

“‘Sunset Mountain’? It’s really quite far away, say something specific, I’ll arrange for someone to go there, but if he doesn’t find something, you know the consequences, the night is still long anyway, we have plenty of time.”

After saying that, Abe Hoeye sat down and poured himself a cup of tea, drinking it leisurely.

At the same time, his head was racing with ideas on how to get out. The most reliable way was to get help from Tu Chen and the others of the Shadow of Death, who knew who he was anyway.

So, Ye Lu used his glasses to send a message to Tu Chen quickly.

However, unfortunately, there was no response from Tu Chen’s side.

“Could he be on a mission?”

Ye Luo frowned, then sent another message to Black Hades, and as a result, Black Hades also had the same lack of response.

“Sh*t! Do I have to be so dumb.”

Ye Luo muttered somewhat depressedly in his heart, he did not know that at this moment, Tu Chen was indeed on a mission with Black Hades, and was currently in a small secret realm, and could not receive any signal at all.

“It looks like there’s no chance of finding outside help.”

At this time, Lin Qing looked at Ye Lu and said with a cold smile.

“Ye Lu, did you think you could use that treasure at first, and afterwards you found out you couldn’t use it, so you wanted to come and blackmail our Lin family, didn’t you?”

Ye Luo said with a smile.

“It doesn’t matter, I’m curious, what do you value this ‘Soul Subduing Tower’ so much for? It must not be because of the ghosts in the tower.”

“The ghosts in the Tower of Souls should indeed be very powerful, but Lin Sihai was only a “Level 2 Master”, so the level of ghosts he could imprison should be limited.

As expected, Lin Qing said without even thinking about it.

“Of course it’s for the sake of opening the ‘Ghost Mound’, no”

He was about to say something else, but Abe Hoeye had already interrupted him coldly and said.

“Shut up.”

Hearing Abe Hoeye’s words, Lin Qing shivered and hurriedly shut up, however, Ye Lu’s heart moved, really this thing still had a great use.

So, Ye Luo slowly walked to the window and looked outside.

Outside the window, Miyamoto Nagai was standing coldly in the courtyard with two men, if Ye Lu made any move, the three of them would be ready to kill him at any time.

However, what worries Ye Lu was the tall “Sake Swallow Boy” sitting in a corner of the courtyard, this guy was the most terrifying guy because Ye Lu saw from his glasses that this thing had eaten all the ghosts of the Lin family and had become a terrifying “Level 5 Sovereign”.

Seeing this scene, Ye Lu sighed in his heart, and then looked at Abe Hoeye and said.

“Mr. Abe can I ask, what exactly do you want to do?”

As a result, Abe Hoeye took a sip of tea and then said indifferently.

“Young man, knowing too much is the way to seek death; one has one mouth, two eyes and two ears, which means that you are told to listen more, see more and talk less.”

“And, of course, that includes not talking nonsense.”

Having said that, he then said slowly.

“Come in, Mirageji.”

Following that, a female ninja with purple hair curled in from outside, and to Ye Lu's slight surprise, this female ninja's eyes were actually purple as well, which gave a somewhat dreamy look.

This female ninja's ninja costume was also very special, just like I don't know what fire dance, there was only very little fabric, however, the naked parts were covered with something like silk screen, which looked very tempting.

However, this woman was definitely not a vase, in Ye Lu's glasses he could see that she was a "Second Level Sovereign" level practitioner.

"Mirage Ji, don't worry about the 'Sunset Mountain' side, let's see where he put the 'Soul Suppressing Tower' first."

The purple-haired Mirage Ji smiled and nodded, then slowly walked in front of Ye Lu.

She stared at Ye Lu's glasses and said word for word.

"Tell me, where exactly is the 'Soul Suppressing Tower' hidden?"

Ye Luo felt as if a power was emitted from the other party's eyes as he spoke, a power that went straight to his spirit, causing his head to ache violently.

However, following this, Ye Lu's right hand moved quickly, and with the Sunset Arrow plus the Heart Piercing Stab, he pierced Mirage Ji's heart with just one blow.

Mirage Ji was releasing her illusion, she did not expect that Ye Lu would not be controlled by the illusion, she did not even dodge this blow, she died without making a sound.

"Wow!"

After poking the illusionary girl to death with an arrow, Ye Luo then violently crashed through the window and jumped into the courtyard.

The blow was so sudden that neither Abe Hoeye nor Miyamoto Nagai had expected Ye Lu's fighting strength to be so strong, and they mistakenly thought at first that Ye Lu was just like meat on the chopping block, the only trouble was that they were worried that it would be difficult to pry Ye Lu's mouth open.

"What's going on here?"

Miyamoto Nagai quickly drew out his katana "Onigetsumaru".

Behind him, all the black-clad ninja drew their katanas at the same time in unison, and at once the white, shining true qi, the astral force, blocked all of Ye Lu's paths of retreat.

"F*ck him!"

Seeing this scene, the pride in Ye Lu's heart rose.

Despite the fact that there were many experts around, however, to be honest, Ye Lu did not feel that he was really dead, everything always had to be fought for.

“Brush!”

The “Ghost Shadow Step” was instantly activated.

Of course, he did not rush towards Miyamoto Changhui, because Ye Lu felt that Miyamoto Changhui’s combat power was probably not much worse than that of the “Cold-blooded Yama”, plus the two people behind him were also “Level 3 Grandmasters”, so he definitely could not break through the blockage of these three people immediately.

However, there was someone else who was even faster than him, incredibly fast, that was Yin Yang Master Abe Hoeye, this guy was worthy of being a “Level 4 Master”, his speed was even faster than the “Cold Blooded Yan Lo” that Ye Lu killed earlier.

“Go to hell!”

Ye Luo shouted, followed by a bright red flame on his right index finger, and then Ye Luo poked his finger at Abe Ho Yeh while he was charging hard.

“Humph!”

Abe Ho Yeh coldly snorted, followed by a quick side turn to dodge Ye Luo’s attack, however, he did not kill Ye Luo, because killing Ye Luo was not his real purpose, as a ninja, he was very clear what the purpose of his trip was, so after he dodged the blow he raised his hand to prepare to put Ye Luo under control.

However, Ye Lu poked his hand back at Abe Ho Yeh again. A cold smile appeared on Abe Ho Yeh’s face because he did not think Ye Lu was capable of hitting him. When Ye Lu crashed through the window to escape, Abe Ho Yeh had already judged very clearly that this kid’s real level, although far beyond their imagination, was not much higher.

However, his rich experience and strong judgement had killed him this time.

Because the red flame on Ye Lu’s finger suddenly left his finger and “whoosh!” It pierced Abe Hoey’s throat.

Abe Ho-ye’s eyes were wide, and he could not believe that this could happen at the last moment of his death, because he could see very clearly that Ye Lu did not have any magic weapon in his hand, and unless he was a “Saint Level” practitioner, no one could make the Qi in his body leave his body.

Not only Abe Hoey but also the others were shocked by this scene.

Ye Lu had already launched the “Ghost Shadow Step” again and rushed towards the weak point of the encirclement like lightning, and as he did so, he put the three “Heaven Stealing Pills” into his mouth.

The blow he had just dealt to Abe Ho Yeh was, of course, something Ye Lu had thought of long ago, because of all the people he could see, this Abe Ho Yeh was the strongest one, and it would be an absolute waste not to leave this sudden blow to him.

However, Ye Lu also knew very well that the “Firebomb” attack was only this one time, because if he used the “Firebomb” attack again, it would lose its suddenness, and with these people’s “Master” speed, it would be very difficult for him to really kill the opponent.

Seeing Abe Ho-ye die like this, Miyamoto Nagai was shocked and depressed. In just a few days’ time, two future stars of the Abe family had died in China, which was undoubtedly a huge loss to the Yin Yang Liao.

The “Grand Master” level practitioners within the organisation were generally restricted from entering other countries without their consent, otherwise it would be regarded as a challenge to other organisations, except for those who reached the “Grand Master” level after entering the territory of other organisations, so Abe Ho-ye was one of the important combatants of the “Society of the Extreme Way” in China.

In the villa room, Lin Qing’s eyes were already wide with surprise and he could not close his mouth. He only now realised that he was really too naive, he actually wanted to use the “Soul Calming Tower” against Ye Lu.

He saw Miyamoto Changhui swinging his sword and slashing at him, and instead of dodging, he quickly threw a finger.

The terrifying purple flame and the finger appeared at the same time.

However, Miyamoto Nagai was a veteran ninja, he had been through many battles and was extremely experienced in combat, and the sword in his hand, the “Onigetsumaru”, was not an ordinary katana.

Therefore, he did not retreat even though he knew that Ye Lu was playing with his life. He changed from holding his sword with both hands to holding it with one hand, and at the same time, he raised his left arm to block the finger, because he still had a powerful arm protector on his small arm, which could be used as a shield.

“Boom!”

“Thwack!”

This slash was so strong that his clothes and armor were cut open. The “Ghost Moon Pill” was a famous weapon, and this slash used the famous “Jiuh Chop”, which was so powerful that it broke even Ye Lu’s “Hybrid Vajra Body” after cutting through the armor.

A long wound stretched from his left shoulder to the right side of his ribcage, and blood flowed down immediately.

However, Ye Lu’s “Candle Dragon Finger” also poked his opponent in the arm.

“Phew!”

But that was not the point, the point was that the fire energy from the “Burning Heaven’s Wrath” was rushing towards his heart along his meridians, and he was shocked to find that the “astral qi” in his body could not stop his opponent, which meant that the level of qi in his opponent’s body was much higher than his own.

Of course, the main reason for Ye Lu's success was that his opponent was completely defenceless.

"Die!"

Ye Luo shouted violently, then fiercely struck again.

"He was worried that he wouldn't be able to finish off the opponent with a single strike, after all, unlike last time, this time the attack was on his arm, and the wrist protector was of a very high level.

"Snort!"

"The Sunset Arrow poked into Miyamoto Nagai's heart with a fierce thrust.

With only two strokes, Miyamoto Nagatoro was dead!

After all, what had happened before their eyes was too incredible. If it was said that the strike from the body was sudden, Miyamoto Ho-ye did not notice it, and Abe Ho-ye was not prepared, this was understandable, but just now, with one finger, Ye Lu had stabbed Miyamoto Nagai to death, this was unbelievable.

However, these were all well-trained men, and everyone did not panic as the katana slashed towards Ye Lu with a white cold light.

Because, everyone saw the hideous wound on Ye Lu's chest.

"F*ck you!"

As the first ninja rushed in front of Ye Lu, Ye Lu's empty hand slammed into this guy as if he had something in his hand, but, in reality, he didn't have anything in his hand.

Just as the ninja was wondering, a pottery stove appeared out of nowhere, and it was so sudden that he was caught off guard.

"Clang!"

His katana was smashed like a hammer on a block of ice as it touched down on the furnace, followed by the furnace smashing into his chest.

"Boom!"

This guy was smashed by the furnace and fell to the ground, never to get up again.

Ye Lu didn't know what level this "Heaven Burning Furnace" was, and he couldn't use its power, but it was terrifying enough even without its power.

Seeing Ye Lu take down a "Third Grade Master" with another blow, the guys around him were really scared.

This fight had completely surpassed all of their imaginations.

Everyone looked at Ye Lu, who was standing in the middle of the field, holding the Sunset Arrow in one hand and the Burning Heavenly Furnace in the other, with his chest bloodied like a god of war, and did not make a move.

However, at this moment, suddenly, from behind the circle of ninjas, countless female ghosts appeared out of nowhere, with hideous faces and blood dripping from their chests, which Ye Luo knew very well.

Following that, a tall figure stood up.

There was no surprise, the most terrifying opponent, the “Drinking Tuna Boy”, had finally appeared.

Chapter 265

When he saw the “Wine Swallow Boy” stand up, Ye Lu did not hesitate and rushed towards the ninja on the side.

Because Ye Luo knew very well that even if he had all his means, all his means were on this “Sake-swallow Boy”, he would definitely not be able to kill it.

The reason was that, firstly, this thing was not a human being at all, so it could not be dealt with by ordinary means, and secondly, this style ghost was a “Level 5 Master”, and although it was not at its peak, its combat power was still far superior to that Abe Ho-ye.

I had to use all my skills, even the “White Tiger Avatar”, before I could kill the “Cold-blooded Yama”, but in a real fight, I would definitely not be able to defeat Abe Ho-ye, let alone this “Drinking Tuna Boy”.

All he could do now was to try to mingle with the ninjas so that the “Sake Swallow Boy” would be too scared to use his terrifying attacks.

He could use his “Ghost Shadow Step” to dodge the attacks of one “Third Level Master”, but he could not dodge the attacks of several at the same time.

Soon, several more wounds were inflicted on his body, as the armour’s “artefact pattern” had been severed, weakening the effect of his defence too much.

“Shit!”

Seeing that the red-eyed “Wine Swallow Boy” had already arrived, Ye Lu had no choice but to quickly pour the blood he had received from Long Fei Xue into his mouth.

The “Divine Beast Green Dragon” was a wood attribute, and its corresponding natural attribute was water, so its vitality and recovery power was the strongest.

Therefore, Ye Lu did not rush to use the “Green Dragon Void” or other divine abilities, because even if he did, it would be useless and would not do much damage to the “Wine Swallow Boy”.

All he had to do now was to manoeuvre.

The power of the Green Dragon’s bloodline increased Ye Lu’s speed and strength, but it was not enough for him to dodge the ninja’s attack, but it allowed him to take less damage, and with the recovery ability of his bloodline, Ye Lu was able to move through the crowd with his “Ghost Shadow Step” again.

However, the wounds on his body kept increasing and blood splattered everywhere he went, and Ye Lu didn’t know how much longer he could last.

Luckily, it worked, because the “drunken boy” with the sword really looked at the battlefield and didn’t strike right away, probably because he was a bit afraid of killing his own people.

But it didn’t last long, as he thought about it and took the gourd off his waist, then opened the stopper and pointed the mouth of the gourd at Ye Lu.

Ye Lu felt a terrible suction force enveloping him, trying to suck him away, but then the “Burning Heavenly Furnace” emitted some kind of aura, and the suction force disappeared as soon as this aura came out, it seemed that the “Burning Heavenly Furnace” was not very good-tempered and did not want to be sucked in by anything.

When he found that his magic weapon had no effect on Ye Lu, the “Drinking Boy” quickly put away the gourd and drew out the terrifying tai sword at his waist, which was as long as a man.

“Brush!”

As expected, the terrifying indiscriminate attack began.

This slash carried a long blade aura, and if Ye Lu hadn’t seen the opportunity to lie down in advance, this strike would definitely have cut him into two pieces.

However, he dodged it, but the two ninjas beside him were not so lucky, and these two guys were cut into two pieces by this slash.

Ye Lu did not get up, but poured blood into his mouth at the same time, this time from Qin Shiyu, and during the whole battle, the “medium-grade spirit stones” were like stones on the roadside, constantly consumed.

Following this, the drunken boy raised his tai-saber, the blade used by the demon god emanated an unpredictable power and slashed fiercely at Ye Lu.

“Open!”

Ye Lu shouted, and the fiery red shadow of the Candle Dragon appeared.

“The Candle Dragon was one of the divine dragons of creation, more ancient and mysterious than the divine beast Green Dragon, and what Ye Lu was using now was the divine power of the Candle Dragon.

“Boom!”

The sword struck the “Burning Heavenly Furnace” raised by Ye Lu.

Following this, the sword shattered into a starburst, while Ye Lu was struck by this blow into the ground, as if it was a pattern embedded in the ground.

“Poof!”

A large mouthful of fresh blood spurted out wildly from Ye Lu’s mouth.

Seeing that Ye Lu had actually managed to block the blow from the sword, the Yin Yang master who was secretly controlling the “Wine Swallow Boy” could not help but stare in astonishment.

He knew very well the terror of this “Sake Swallow Boy”, one of Japan’s three great evil spirits, which was completely invincible in its class, and it was not even difficult to cross the class.

Then, the tai-sword in the “Sake Swallow Boy’s” hand began to reassemble.

“Come on!”

Ye Luo also shouted, but this was not a shout to the “Wine Swallow Boy”, because the long-awaited outside help had finally arrived.

Although these bats were not yet at the “Master” level, they were huge in number and moved very quickly.

As the saying goes, “many ants bite the dead elephant”, the countless “ghost bats” rushed in and undoubtedly gave everyone a great shock, however, the number of female ghosts of the “Drunken Boy” was also quite large, so Ye Lu had no chance to escape from the courtyard.

However, Ye Lu’s original aim was not to escape from the courtyard, that was not realistic, he wanted to take advantage of the chaos to go to another place, and he was going to do it right away.

That place was the “Ghost Mound”.

He had looked out of the window when he knew that the Soul Calming Tower could open the Ghost Mound.

In fact, it wasn’t that far from the main building.

At this moment, he was taking advantage of the rampage of the “ghost bats” to rush over, and at the same time, he poured his spiritual energy into the “Soul Suppressing Tower”, and a strange door appeared out of nowhere.

“Flutter!”

Ye Lu fell to the ground and let out a long sigh of relief, this was really a life of nine deaths!

If it wasn’t for the “Candle Dragon Void” and the “Burning Heavenly Furnace” that helped Ye Lv block that terrifying slash, he would have been dead.

“What the hell is this place?”

After taking a couple of breaths, Ye Lu climbed up, only to see that the surrounding area was densely packed with coffins, and the whole area was covered by a heavy ghostly aura, like a storm was about to come, with no sky in sight, only the eerie ghostly aura.

“As expected of a ‘Ghost Mound’, it is indeed eerie enough.”

Ye Luo couldn’t help but shiver, but the “Ghostly Inferno” in his body was stirring up.

However, the period of weakness came immediately afterwards.

“Holy shit!”

This time, the period of weakness was even more intense, probably related to the last blow he had just made with his divine ability. With a sound, he sat down on the ground.

At this time, a female ghost appeared out of the endless coffin.

She was wearing a white blouse and a black skirt, and looked like a student.

The woman's movements seemed slow, and with each step her body made a "creak!" "Cackle!" But her speed was extremely fast, and she arrived in front of Ye Lu in a flash.

"Shit! It's not going to eat me, is it?"

Ye Luo was a bit hairy in his heart, he didn't have any combat power now, he was not able to resist at all.

"Come with me, my master wants to see you."

Without looking up, the female ghost said in an expressionless voice as she walked up to Ye Luo.

Hearing her words, Ye Lu finally breathed a sigh of relief.

"Luckily, it's to see me, not to eat me."

He climbed up with great difficulty, and then with a sore body, he followed this female ghost step by step and slowly moved to the depths of the coffin.

"Huh! How is it you?"

Lin Sihai, who was sitting somewhere, was taken aback when he found that the person who came was actually Ye Lu, but then he asked with a frown.

"How come the 'Soul Suppressing Tower' is on your body?"

The "Soul Subduing Tower" is the most precious treasure of the Lin family and would never be given to an outsider.

Ye Lu was so tired that he "flopped!" He sat down on the ground and said.

"Firstly, your Lin family has been occupied by the Japanese, secondly, tell me how to use the 'Ghost Mound', and I will go out and avenge your Lin family."

Chapter 266

When he heard Ye Lu's words, Lin Sihai was taken aback, he didn't expect that such a big thing had happened to his family after he had only been in seclusion for a few days.

He looked at Ye Luo and asked.

"Tell me, what is going on?"

Ye Lu thought about it, and then he told what he knew.

"This little bastard, how dare he do such a thing."

When he heard that his grandson had actually stolen the Soul Subduing Tower, Lin Sihai slapped the coffin beside him in anger, and immediately there was a movement in the coffin, as if someone was scratching the coffin board inside, which was very scary.

Ye Lu, on the other hand, smiled and said.

“How can I put it, it’s not a bad thing in terms of the outcome, if the ‘Soul Suppressing Tower’ wasn’t in my possession, perhaps you would have died at the hands of those Japanese.”

Following that, Ye Luo said with a turn of phrase.

“That Mr. Lin Sihai, are there any other entrances and exits in this ‘Ghost Mound’, I’m going to let my little friends in as well, their brothers and sisters.”

As I said this, I pointed to the “ghost bats” around me.

Seeing these “ghost bats”, Lin Sihai also frowned, because he had never seen such ugly and hideous things, and their aura was very powerful.

These “ghost bats” that were following Ye Lu had already reached the peak of the “Combined God Realm”, so they could almost match the level of a “First Class Master”, but of course, even if a demonic beast was powerful, it would hardly be a realm higher than a human.

However, once these guys broke through, they would be a “Second Level Sovereign”, and Ye Lu was looking forward to these guys growing up.

Lin Sihai thought for a moment, then nodded and said.

“There is indeed another entrance and exit, which is not known to the general public, I came in through that entrance and exit. This is the ‘Soul Suppressing Bell’ in my hand.”

As he spoke, Lin Sihai took out a weirdly shaped magic weapon that resembled a bronze bell that could be struck in a temple.

“Are you trying to feed these spooky demonic beasts with the ghosts here?”

Lin Sihai looked at Ye Luo and asked.

Ye Luo nodded his head.

He thought Lin Sihai would disagree and was about to convince him, but instead, Lin Sihai sighed and said.

“Feed it, but be careful, to be honest, this ‘Ghost Mound’ has been through millions, many of the ghosts inside are already on the verge of losing control, although they won’t actively attack us, I’m afraid they will resist if attacked, and this is only the ‘Ghost Mound’, in the depths of the ‘Ghost Mound’, there are ghosts beyond the ‘Patriarch’ level, and perhaps even more terrifying ghosts exist.”

With those words, Lin Sihai then shook his head somewhat helplessly and continued.

“This ‘Ghost Mound’ is no longer something that our Lin family can manage, so since that ‘Soul Suppressing Tower’ is destined for you, I’ll leave it to you.”

Seeing Lin Sihai's appearance, Ye Lu did not say anything, one of his two sons had defected to the Japanese, the other one might have been killed, and the Lin family was declining, although Lin Sihai had made a breakthrough in his cultivation, his whole person did look like a hero in his old age.

Ye Lu thought about it and said.

"Good, then tell me first, the location of that passage, I'll have the 'ghost bats' all come in first, this time the Japanese have a big plot, I'm afraid that they want to use that 'drink swallow boy' to do something in the capital, we have to stop it."

Lin Sihai nodded, then said as he led the way.

"I've heard of the 'Sake Swallow Boy' you mentioned, it's one of the three major demons in Japan and the only ghost among the three major demons, in fact, these three major demons are not necessarily the most powerful, but they are the most famous, they are the 'Sake Swallow Boy', the 'Nine-tailed Demon Fox' and the 'Great Tengu'."

"And this 'Sake Swallow Boy' is also called the 'King of a Hundred Demons', and what is scariest about him is not his own fighting power, but that he has the 'Power of the Demon King' Therefore, I am most worried not so much about the 'Wine Swallow Boy' himself, but about his team."

Hearing Lin Sihai's words, Ye Lu realized how dangerous this matter was. If the Ghost Mound was really occupied by the 'Wine Swallow Boy', I was afraid that it would not be long before an army belonging to it would be formed, and then it might really be a disaster for the living souls.

However, Lin Sihai had not finished his words.

He followed and said.

"I'm worried that those Japanese won't just target our Lin family's family, it's possible that the ranks of that 'Sake-tuned Boy' are already very large."

By this time, they had already reached another entrance and exit, and Ye Lu released the leader of one of the Ghost Bats, asking this guy to bring all the other Ghost Bats over.

Sure enough, in no time at all, all those "ghost bats" flew in.

"Go and look for food everywhere, and be careful not to cause any trouble, okay?"

Ye Luo said to the leaders of the ghost bats.

The leaders of these "ghost bats" already had some spiritual wisdom, so they could understand what Ye Lu said, and they quickly responded, and countless "ghost bats" flew in all directions of the "ghost mound".

However, Ye Lu felt that despite this, it was still a bit difficult to make these bats grow very quickly, so he began to look around, and at the same time, he also began to look for martial arts or spells in the "Martial Arts Ability" of his "Glasses" regarding "Ghost Technique".

His current level was not the same as when he had just opened his Martial Arts ability, so he felt that he could use more "spells".

“I mean, can you make these ghosts not attack me? I’m going to catch some ghosts, and I want to kill some ghosts to absorb the ‘ghost energy’. Because I have a ‘ghost fire’ in my body called ‘Ghostly Ghost Flame’.”

However, now Ye Lu was in a period of weakness, and the “Ghostly Flame” had already been drained after the blow just now, so he could not release the “Ghostly Flame” for Lin Sihai to see.

Hearing Ye Lu’s words, Lin Sihai looked at Ye Lu and asked.

“What, little friend, do you also know ghost arts?”

Ye Lu smiled and said.

“I only know a few things, right, Elder Lin, can you show me your Lin family’s Ghost Art, I might be able to help you improve it.”

He thought that even the “Candle Dragon Finger” of the Xuan Tian Clan was not a perfect version, so perhaps the Lin Family’s “Ghost Technique” would also have such flaws.

Hearing Ye Lu’s words, Lin Sihai smiled and said.

“Little friend, I was indeed surprised that you were able to scare away so many ‘evil spirits’ that day, and I was also surprised by what you just said, but the Lin family’s ‘Ghost Art’ cannot be shown to you. It can’t be shown to others, and secondly, transforming a martial art requires at least a ‘Saint level’ expert to do so, with all due respect, you have indeed inflated it.”

Hearing Lin Sihai’s words, Ye Lu smiled and did not retort nor did he say anything because he was also very clear that what he had said was indeed a bit appalling and it was indeed difficult for others to accept what he had said since they did not know his background.

So, one could only wait for time to explain it all, but, at that moment, he suddenly saw a glowing stone not far away that looked a bit abrupt.

So, he walked over and picked up the stone.

“Name: Yin Yuan Stone, Quality: poor, Introduction: a crystal stone with a strong Yin Qi formed in a place of extreme Yin after a long period of time and continuous accumulation, can be used to refine pills, suitable for ‘Ghost Attribute’ physique cultivators”

When he saw these introductions, Ye Lu smiled, seeing that he had really found a treasure this time.

“‘Wine Swallow Boy’, and these bastards outside, just wait, I’ll make you look good when I get out.”

Ye Lu clutched the “Yin Yuan Stone” and laughed happily, while Lin Sihai beside him looked confused.

Ye Lu didn’t explain anything, but sat down quietly and waited for the weakness time to end. A few hours passed and Ye Lu’s body finally recovered.

“Collect!”

Ye Luo nodded a finger towards the forehead of the female ghost that had been following Lin Sihai, and then said with a smile.

“You’re my person now, beat him up for me.”

Just as he finished speaking, the female ghost swung her fist at Lin Sihai without hesitation.

“Shit! How did you manage to do that? I can’t believe I snatched my ghost away!”

This move made Lin Sihai’s jaw drop in shock.

Chapter 269

At this moment, Lin Ruyue was looking anxiously at the direction of the Lin family, because when she saw the first ghost appear, she asked the “ghost bat” who had stayed with her to report the news.

She was waiting for Ye Luo to find a way to get everyone out of this disaster.

As soon as he received the news, Ye Lu rushed out of the Ghost Mound.

The place he chose was the exit near the main building of the villa, because he had to find out the exact situation first.

As soon as he emerged, the shinobi guarding the courtyard spotted him.

This time, the ninjas who were guarding the outside were newly deployed ninjas from the Hattori and Koga clans, all of whom were at the level of “Level 3 Sovereign”.

When they saw Ye Luo come out, they quickly drew their weapons and rushed towards him.

The matter was urgent, so Ye Lu did not bother to talk to them, and waved his hand, and countless “Ghost Bats” rushed out from the “Ghost Mound”, just like dark clouds covering the sky.

The other “Ghost Bats” were all at the peak of “Tier 2” level, and this huge wave of terrifying things was simply unstoppable.

When they saw these terrifying “ghost bats” appear, all the ninjas had horrified expressions on their faces, as no one had ever seen such a terrifying formation before.

Even in a battle between two ordinary ninja schools, the number of “Sovereign” level practitioners used was only a few dozen, or at most a few hundred, but this time there were more than 1,000 “second level Sovereign” level “ghost bats”.

However, they didn’t have to worry about this for long, because the “ghost bats” had already made their choice for them, and that was to wipe out all of them.

In an instant, the ninjas were gnawed to a bloody pulp, and this flesh and blood was a great tonic for the bats.

“Nani!”

Abe Kosaku, who was in the lobby on the ground floor of the main building, was so stunned by the sudden scene that he couldn’t help but speak in Japanese, but he could already see a young man walking towards them from among the countless grim-faced “ghost bats”.

At the moment, there were not many people left in his group, as most of them had gone to help with the sudden appearance of the year-old ghosts.

“In fact, not only Tu Chen and his group, but also all the members of the Shadow of Death in the capital were mobilised.

At the same time, there were also people from the Pill Alliance, the Weaponry Sect and several other major organisations.

These “evil spirits” didn’t care who you told them to, they attacked indiscriminately, leaving no one alive, not even animals or pets, wherever they went.

“What the hell is this? It’s too scary.”

Tu Chen was stunned by the terrifying combat power and the number of “ghost bats”.

“This feels like a small wave of beasts in the ‘Secret Realm of Ten Thousand Beasts’!”

Tu Chen had once entered the “Secret Realm of Ten Thousand Beasts”, and he still remembered the tide of beasts in the “Secret Realm of Ten Thousand Beasts”, where countless demonic beasts came in huge numbers, leaving you with a sense of despair and powerlessness.

“I’m afraid that every single one of them has the combat power of a ‘Patriarch’, what kind of person has such a terrifying army.”

The location of Ye Lu was in the courtyard, and there were countless “ghost bats” covering it, so Tu Chen could not see Ye Lu’s figure at all, and of course, he could not know who the leader of the “ghost bats” was.

“Clatter!”

Ye Lu broke through the window and walked in.

“Say, how do you stop those ghosts?”

There was no time to ask who the other party was, and Ye Lu didn’t care who he was, this guy looked like a leader anyway, and importantly, he was wearing the clothes of a Yin Yang master.

“I’m Abe Kosaku, you

Abe Kosaku looked at Ye Lu and said, but before he could finish, Ye Lu had already waved his hand and countless “ghost bats” rushed in and started attacking like crazy.

Abe Kosaku was a Level 5 Grandmaster, and Ye Lu had at least recovered his combat power in the Ghost Graveyard and raised the level of his “Ghostly Inferno”, but there was no essential leap, so he could not beat Abe Kosaku, not to mention Abe Kosaku, and even those Level 3 Grandmasters just now, if Ye Lu did not use the “Heaven Stealing Pill” and sneak attack, he could not beat them either.

Therefore, Ye Lu had to let these “ghost bats” do the job for him.

“Don’t kill me, I know, I know something

Seeing this scene, Lin Qing suddenly shouted with all his might.

He had completely understood that he and the Japanese had already lost their momentum, and if he didn't do something, he would be the one to die next, and he would definitely be like those people in the courtyard, with no bones left, he saw with his own eyes a man being eaten in a flash and left with a pile of white bones.

"Oh! I didn't expect you to be useful at times!"

Ye Lu turned his head to look at Lin Qing and said.

"Hurry up and tell me what to do to organise those things."

Lin Qing said quickly.

"They use a kind of flute that doesn't make a sound to control the 'Sake Swallow Boy', however, the one controlling the 'Sake Swallow Boy' now is not this Abe Kosaku, but a person called 'Hormao Nakano', and it was also always 'Hormao Nakano' who was raising that 'Sake Swallow Boy'."

After hearing Lin Qing's words, Ye Lu did not talk nonsense with Abe Kosaku, because a Yin-Yang master of this level should not be so easily threatened and then do something, after all, they were well-trained masters.

Ye Lu directly used the "auxiliary ability" of his glasses, he copied Abe Kosaku's mobile phone and used it to dial Kamo Nakano's phone.

He had just heard Abe Kosaku's voice, and as long as it was a voice that he had heard, the "auxiliary ability" of the glasses could imitate it.

So, Ye Lu used Abe Kosaku's voice to speak to Kamo Nakano.

"First, let 'Saketon' and the others pause, there are some urgent matters that need to be dealt with."

Hearing Ye Lu's words, of course, He Mao Nakano was dumbfounded, and he asked quickly.

"What is it that needs to stop the plan, if someone from the Chinese 'clan community' comes to intervene in this matter, we won't be able to do it well."

In fact, the initial plan of Yasuhiko Abe and the others was to raise the "Sake-tun boy" to the "Saint level", then capture some "Saint level" "evil spirits", and then slaughter Yanjing in one fell swoop, so that even if the experts from the "sect world" arrived, it would be too late.

Now that there was so much commotion, the "sect world" must have already known about it, and it would probably not take long for the "sect world" people to arrive, so they had to kill as many as they could before the "sect world" experts arrived.

"Don't ask what you shouldn't ask, wait for my order."

On the other side, when Abe Kosaku saw Ye Lu's action, he also took out his mobile phone.

He was a "Level 5 Grandmaster", even if he was surrounded by a group of "Ghost Bat Leaders", he wouldn't be able to die in a short period of time, but, to his dismay, he found that there was no signal on his mobile phone, which was of course the result of Ye Lu's "auxiliary ability", as he had blocked the signal around him.

Although He Mao Zhong Ye looked suspicious, he ordered the “Wine Swallow Boy” to stop attacking the ghosts he was leading for a while.

Liu Mei was retreating in her car towards the outside of the West City, her sports car was now packed with people, not only from her own dormitory, but also from the one next door.

However, not long after stepping out, they were stuck in traffic because, despite being directed, this was a matter of life and death, so the whole city’s traffic was now in chaos.

“How long is this going to be blocked, it doesn’t seem like the ghosts are much further away from us.”

Indeed, behind Liu Mei and the others, ghosts were crying and people were howling, and it was chaos, as if the world was ending.

Then, they saw a large group of people with weapons, stepping on the roofs of cars and running wildly.

However, as they passed Willow’s car, Jessica stopped.

“You’re from the Bloods!”

She looked at Liu Mei and said in surprise.

Chapter 270

When he saw Jessica, Ye Lu found that she and Liu Mei had basically the same eyes and looked similar, so Jessica could also tell that Liu Mei and herself were of the same bloodline.

However, Ye Lu did not tell Liu Mei about this, because the Gothic Bloods are not good people, as one of the seven major organisations in the Underworld, they have done and are doing all kinds of evil things, and he did not want Liu Mei to get involved in this dispute.

But he had never expected to find Willow involved.

Willow eyebrows didn’t know what Jessica was talking about, but she did see Jessica’s eyes, which were almost identical to her own, and she looked at Jessica and said.

“I don’t know what you’re talking about? Do you know me?”

Jessica was on the run with the Gothic Bloods, so she didn’t bother to say anything to Willow, she grabbed her and stopped her, running wildly into the distance.

“Put me down, put me down

Liu Mei shouted anxiously.

And all the people in the car shouted back.

“Liu Mei, put down Liu Mei

“Stop right there!”

“Robbing people!”

.....

But Jessica and the others simply ignored them, and the group flew off in a mad dash towards the outskirts of the city, leaving behind only a carload of panicked girls.

While Lin Ruyue and the others who were helping to evacuate the crowd noticed that the attacks of those evil spirits had actually stopped, however, those evil spirits did not leave, they just stopped attacking but did not disband, they still gathered together and looked to have the stance of being ready to attack at any moment.

However, the fact that the demons had stopped attacking made the whole city breathe a sigh of relief.

The mayor finally sat down this time with his whole body relaxed for a moment, he felt like he was going limp.

“Report back again on the approximate casualties.”

He took a sip of water and then inquired.

One of the other city leaders said with a gloomy expression.

“The situation is bad, the rough death toll should have broken forty thousand so far, and I’m afraid the real number is quite a bit more than that.”

If it wasn’t for the fact that even “master” level evil spirits had to move step by step, I’m afraid the whole capital would have been slaughtered by them.

At the headquarters of the nearest clan, the Weaponry Sect, the elders of the Weaponry Sect were just now taking action, because when a cultivator at the Golden Dan stage like the elders wanted to take part in the secular world, it was necessary for all the clans to discuss before they could take action.

“Shit! There are so many people and they are so nosy, how much time is being lost.”

“The speed of these flying machines was very fast, and it was estimated that it would only take about twenty minutes to reach the capital, which was much faster than the speed of a car, and it would take at least two hours to drive from the headquarters of the Weaponry Sect to the centre of the capital, and that was only if there was not much traffic on the road.

Of course, since the Jindan Realm does not yet have the ability to fly overland, these people from the Weaponry Sect are the fastest to reach the scene, but if nothing happens, there will be enough time for hundreds of thousands more people to die.

“Inside the Hundred Flowers Sect, one of the ten elders of the Hundred Flowers Sect, Narcissus, was currently on the phone to Jasmine.

“How is the situation in the city?”

Narcissus said with some urgency.

“This side of the clan sent out the elders from the ‘Weaponry Sect’, they are the fastest, are you alright, and that one called Ye Lu, is he alright too?”

Jasmine said as she looked around at the chaotic crowd.

“Many people died just now, we are all fine, but now those ghosts’ attacks have stopped, and I don’t know what happened.”

Those who were also asking about this matter were also from the Xuantian Sect and the Wuji Sect, but of course, they were also concerned about another matter, that is, the matter of the four ancient martial clans.

“How is the situation on the side of the Ancient Martial Clans?”

An elder of the Xuantian Sect asked a core disciple who was in the secular world at the moment.

“On the surface it doesn’t seem to be a big problem, the Dragon Family was destroyed by a mysterious person earlier, however, it seems that no one died, so it doesn’t have a big impact, the trouble is still the Lin Family, they are too close to the Japanese and don’t know what they are up to, however, I feel that our matter should not be revealed.”

This elder nodded and said.

“That’s good, don’t let a few of you die, and don’t let any of the four great clans lose anything, as for the others, just let them die.”

In this elder’s opinion, the death or survival of the secular world was irrelevant.

“The people of the Wuji Clan were similar, and they didn’t put the death of those in the mundane world in their eyes either.

Ye Lu knew that although he had given the order to the guy called He Mao Zhong Ye, the news of what had happened to the Lin family would soon be discovered by He Mao Zhong Ye, because there was a lot of commotion here, and Ye Lu’s thunderous strike had killed all the ninjas and shinobi present.

With so many dead, the Yakuza would not be unaware of it.

“Where is the flute that controls the ‘Drunken Boy’?”

Ye Lu looked at Lin Qing and asked.

Although Abe Kosaku had been resisting, it was only a matter of time before he was killed, and Ye Lu didn’t have time to wait to see Abe Kosaku die.

Lin Qing pointed at Abe Kosaku and said.

“It’s on him.”

Ye Lu nodded and said.

“Good, bring that thing over to me first.”

At this moment, Abe Kosaku had already been torn apart by the many “ghost bats”, but the “Level 5 Grandmaster” was still very tough, and had actually lasted for so long without being fatally wounded.

However, in front of so many “ghost bats”, he was already powerless to fight back.

Soon, the “Ghost Repelling Flute” was taken away from him by a ghost bat and sent to Ye Lu, a whistle with a few holes.

“You don’t know how to use it even if you have it, so just give up your heart, in less than three minutes, Nakano’s side will definitely launch another attack.”

Abe Kosaku said with a sneer.

At this moment, he was also at the end of his rope.

Ye Lu ignored him and ran towards the place where He Mao Nakano was with his “Exorcist Flute”. With the mobile phone positioning system of his glasses, it was too convenient for Ye Lu to find someone’s location.

On the other hand, the “ghost bats” were following closely after eating Abe Kosaku. On the way, Ye Lu got two silk stockings in a shop and put them on his head.

“Who was the man who just ran out?”

When Ye Luo ran out, Tu Chen asked his men about it. However, Ye Luo was too fast and was followed by the “Ghost Bat”, so no one could see it clearly.

Fortunately, it was not very far from the location of the “Wine Swallow Boy”, otherwise, with the traffic in the city paralyzed, Ye Luo would not have been able to reach the “Wine Swallow Boy” too quickly.

“Ghost Shadow Step, faster, faster

Ye Luo ran wildly while muttering under his breath, wishing he could grow a pair of wings under his ribs.

However, it was obvious that such a thing would not happen.

After running wildly for another three minutes or so, sure enough, the city changed once again and the ghost’s attack resumed.

“Shit! I can only use the ‘Ghost Repelling Flute’ to try.”

Abe Kosaku thought that Ye could not use the flute, but he was wrong, because with his glasses, Ye could easily see how to use the flute.

Each note corresponded to a gesture, similar to a real flute, and it was also through the sound of the flute that commands were given.

So, Ye Luo quickly began to run and play at the same time.

In order to make the “Drinking Boy” a better tool, they had basically removed its ability to think independently, so when he heard Ye Lu’s flute, he stopped moving, and also made all the other ghosts stop moving.

“Holy shit! What’s going on?”

In this operation, there were very few people who knew how to use this “flute to drive away ghosts”, only a handful of five people, two of them, Yasuhiko Abe and Hiroye Abe, were already dead.

“Does Master Abe Kosaku really want to stop this?”

He Mao Nakano also became somewhat suspicious and puzzled.
