Chapter 271

However, Kamo Nakano didn't really intend to stop, and after contacting his superiors, he quickly sent out another order to attack, but the problem was that these "Demon Repelling Flutes" were indiscriminate, so the "Drinking Tuna" was at a loss, and the attack of the demons became a stop-and-go model.

"It's really difficult to shield this 'flute', but it's not impossible."

He started to mutter as he looked at the "Sake Swallow Boy", and then he started to work on the head of the "Sake Swallow Boy".

Since the flute did not really control ghosts through sound, it was not feasible to seal the ears of the boy.

However, as the real cultivator of the Sake-tunny Boy, Kamo Nakano naturally had his own methods.

At this moment, all the practitioners involved in this matter understood one thing, that someone was interfering in this matter, and apparently very effectively.

"Could it be that the experts from the 'clan realm' have stepped in."

Tu Chen said with a frown.

There were certainly experts in the Shadow of Death organization, such as "Grand Master" level experts, and many of these experts were in the capital, but the number of these experts was after all limited, and these ghosts were "Master" level, and the number was huge.

Therefore, the Shadow of Death was also very worried about this.

However, Tu Chen then dismissed this speculation, because if the experts from the "clan world" had appeared, it would not have ended up like this, at least not in such a repetitive manner.

This situation indicated that the person who had made the move was not of a high level, perhaps even less than the person who had given the order.

"Alright, it's done."

After pounding on it for a while, Kamo Nakano had finally finished with the Sake Swallow Boy, and he had blocked the ability of the Sake Swallow Boy to receive the Demon Repelling Flute, so that he could control the Sake Swallow Boy alone.

However, just as he was breathing a sigh of relief, a voice suddenly rang out.

"Sake Swallow Boy, come out here!"

With this voice, He Mao Zhong Ye saw countless monsters in the night sky flying towards their direction like black clouds.

At this moment, Ye Lu had already arrived at this open space.

This was a demolition area, with the word “demolition” written on each house and then circled in red, and throughout the large area of houses to be demolished, as well as on the vacant land and the road, there were terrifying evil spirits everywhere.

These thousands of evil spirits were responsible for protecting the “Sake-tun Boy”, and at the centre of the “Sake-tun Boy” was Kamo Nakano, while the other ninja and shinobi were not present.

It had been clear from the start that people from the clan would intervene in such a big matter, and that he would end up dead.

“Charge!”

Ye Luo shouted to the army of Ghost Bats, and then, holding the arrow of the “Sunset Arrow”, he rushed out, this was already a matter of life and death for many people, there was no room for hesitation, so while rushing up, Ye Luo had already taken three “Heaven Stealing Pills”.

Although he had never met these people before, Ye Lu did not feel that he could ignore their deaths just because of this reason.

“Boom!”

Ye Lu kicked over an intercepting evil ghost, and then charged towards his target as the “ghost bats” opened the way, and soon he saw He Mao Zhong Ye, but of course the fact that he was able to charge so fast was due to the fact that the opponents were not very strong, because the intercepting ghosts were basically “First Level Sovereigns”, and they were not too powerful, because it was not that easy to find so many “First Level Sovereign” level ghosts, many of them were cooked by the “Society of the Extreme Way” with pills.

Many of the ghosts were ripened with pills by the Extreme Way Society. The ones who followed Ye Lu’s charge were real “Level 3 Demonic Beasts”, that is, the strongest of the “Level 2 Sovereigns”.

“Go!”

Seeing that He Mao Zhong Ye and the “Wine Swallow Boy” were not far away, Ye Lu raised his hand and a blue fireball the size of a football ball appeared in his hand, followed by a “Whoosh!” With a terrifying aura, it shot forward.

This was the upgraded version of the “Fireball Technique”, the “Fireball Technique”.

“Hiss!”

Ye Lu’s own attack wasn’t very high, so it was a bit difficult to deal with these Level 2 Sovereign Evil Spirits that were close to He Mao Zhong Ye, but at this moment, the “Ghostly Underworld Flame” was no longer the seed that had just sprouted before, it had already grown up in the “Ghost Mound”.

Therefore, the ghosts that came into contact with the blue ball of fire had a black aura on their bodies and were obviously very afraid of this “Ghostly Inferno”.

Seeing this scene, He Mao Zhong Ye’s eyes first widened and then he quickly frowned, because he was really surprised.

This fireball was completely different, not only was it a strange blue colour, but the aura it gave off was also extremely frightening.

However, if Ye Lu was a “Saint-level” superpower, He Mao Zhong Ye would never believe it, because it was beyond his imagination, it was beyond his imagination.

However, it would be impossible to use such a fireball against either Kamo Nakano or Saketomi Boy.

“Go!”

He Mao Zhong Ye quickly threw out a fireball, which collided with the blue fireball Ye Lu sent out, sending out a terrifying shockwave.

“Grand Patriarch!”

Seeing this scene, Ye Lu understood that this He Mao Zhong Ye had already grown up to be a “Grand Master”, perhaps there were many such “Grand Masters” hidden in the “Society of the Extreme Way” in China.

However, at this point in time, Ye Lu could not care less about that.

“Mao’s ‘Grand Master’, ‘Second Master’, to hell with them all, dare to kill so many people, dare to spread wildness in our capital, I’ll make you a dead master today, go to hell!”

Ye Lu waved his hand and countless “Ghost Bats” rushed towards He Mao Zhong Ye, while “Drunken Boy” fiercely drew his long sword from his waist.

As he pulled out his sword, countless evil spirits began to rush towards him, trying to block the attacks of the “ghost bats”.

He was aiming at the “Wine Swallow Boy”, and the battle would only be over once the “Wine Swallow Boy” was finished.

“Snort!”

The Sunset Arrow shone brightly and cut the throat of an evil spirit.

“Rise!”

This was a disposable magic weapon given to him by Lin Sihai, and was also a family heirloom of the Lin family. After throwing it out, it formed a net around him, enveloping Ye Lu, the Wine Swallow Boy, the female ghosts around him, and the group of Ghost Bats led by Ye Lu.

This was something that Lin Sihai had thought of after hearing about the “Ghost Repelling Flute”, which was called the “Ghost Dome”, and could form a defensive shield within a certain area, especially for the “ghosts” which could never leave, and their scent was completely blocked, but of course, the downside was that their own people could not leave either.

Ye Lu had no choice but to do this, because if he didn’t isolate the “drunken boy”, once it continued to give orders to the other ghosts, someone would suffer.

“Alright, we have three minutes, either you die or I die, come on!”

Ye Lu looked at the “Wine Swallow Boy”, who was trapped with him, and said with glowing eyes.

Chapter 272

The first time he almost died at the hands of Yasuhiko Abe and the “Sake Swallow Boy”, it was time for him to take revenge.

The “Sake Swallow Boy” could not speak, it looked at Ye Lu in silence, and then swung the long sword in his hand.

Ye Luo himself was definitely not a match for this creature, this was very clear to Ye Luo, he vaguely felt that this “Sake Swallow Boy” should be even more terrifying than that Abe Kosaku who had turned into a “Grand Master”.

Sure enough, after the “Sake Swallow Boy” swung his sword, Ye Lu saw a sword aura leaving the long sword and shooting towards him, a scene that looked extremely mysterious.

“Snort!”

However, fortunately, Ye Lu was wearing another “Earth-grade” protective clothing this time, so the flying sword mane was not as powerful as the real magic weapon, so although it hurt a little, it did not cause any actual damage.

However, if this thing cut on the bare part of the body, it would be quite troublesome, it would have to cut open the skin and flesh.

His goal was to get as close as possible to the “Wine Swallow Boy”, and as long as he got close enough, he could use the “Nine Mysterious Divine Thunder”, which was Ye Lu’s real killer weapon.

Apart from Ye Lu and the Boy Swallowing Wine, the Ghost Bats had the advantage, because the Ghost Bats that Ye Lu came in with were all the leaders of the Ghost Bats, and each of them was extremely powerful, which gave Ye Lu the opportunity to fight the Boy Swallowing Wine alone.

Ye Lu didn’t dare to get attached to the battle, he had to fight quickly because he already had three “Heaven Stealing Pills” in his stomach, and his weakness would soon come, which was why he wanted to settle the battle in three minutes, thinking that after this period, he would have to wait for his death.

“Go!”

Ye Lu raised his hand and once again blasted out with his palm, this time it was another football-sized fireball, however, this time it was a purple fireball, which was also Ye Lu’s strongest strike.

However, unfortunately, such an attack would not work in front of the “Wine Swallow Boy”, because a “Level 5 Grandmaster” and a “Grand Grandmaster”, even at a very close distance, could not be hit by Ye Lu’s cultivation level.

Of course, Ye Lu wouldn’t be so foolish as to think that he could kill his opponent by throwing a fireball, that would be a bit too whimsical.

Of course, Ye Lu had his own purpose for doing so.

Both the “Ghostly Flame” and the “Red Lotus Flame” were terrifying flames from hell, both of which were powerful weapons against ghosts, and such fused flames were very deadly to ghosts.

The purple ball of fire exploded with a “boom!” after the “Drinking Swallow Boy” had dodged the “Burning Sky’s Wrath”. It exploded with a loud bang.

Countless fragments of purple flames began to fly in all directions, and now the “Drinking Boy” could not remain completely calm.

He quickly began to dodge, while Ye Lu had already rushed forward, his speed had been pushed to the limit.

At the same time, he gathered all his aura onto the exposed part of his body, and his “Mixed Element Vajra Body” was also pushed to the limit.

The “Wine Swallow Boy” did not hesitate, for it did not have such emotions, and it did not judge too complicatedly, it adopted the most direct strategy to attack, ready to kill Ye Lu in one go.

“Brush!”

He once again swung the long blade in his hand, but Ye Lu was waiting for his attack, as he simultaneously detonated the “Nine Mysterious Divine Thunder”, from the name of this thing, one could tell that it was definitely not something fun, and then, this terrifying creature exploded in front of Ye Lu.

“Boom!”

The huge explosion didn’t just hit the “Drink Swallow Boy” alone, both of them were blown up.

“Ye Luo had no chance to blow him up by throwing the “Nine Mysterious Gods Thunder”, so he had to choose this primitive suicide attack.

The reason why he dared to do this was because, firstly, this “Nine Ghosts Divine Lightning” was mainly targeted at “ghosts”, so it was much more lethal to ghosts because it was made for ghosts.

Secondly, Ye Luo also has an “earth-grade” protective suit, and this protective suit is rare for the whole body, so the only problem is the feet, but as long as the detonation point of the “Nine Ghosts Divine Lightning” is placed at a high place, he should not worry about his feet being blown up.

Of course, his head had to be protected, but Ye Lu had the strongest defensive treasure, the “Burning Heavenly Furnace”, which could completely protect his head, and his hands were earth-grade gloves, so he didn’t have to worry about his hands either.

After a huge explosion, both Ye Lu and the “Wine Swallow Boy” were sent flying, and even the defensive shield was broken by the explosion.

The blue lightning illuminated an area of several hundred metres.

The leaders of the dozens of “ghost bats” that followed Ye Luo in had already known Ye Luo’s plan, so they hid behind Ye Luo at first, allowing Ye Luo to help them block the impact of the “Nine Mysterious Divine Lightning”, but even so, several of the “ghost bat” leaders were injured.

Of course, there was no need for these “Ghost Bats” to appear now, as Ye Lu waved his hand and these “Ghost Bats” disappeared along with the rest of the “Ghost Bats”, as the “Drunken Boy” was now too beaten to command the other ghosts, and all of them were standing around with dull expressions.

Ye Lu did not want to let the “ghost bats” bite all these ghosts to death, because these “ghost bats” were only here because they had had enough, and all Ye Lu had to do now was to collect the “boy who swallowed wine”.

However, Ye Luo discovered that the “child swallow of wine” was weak but still able to move.

“What a strong thing!”

Ye Lu couldn’t help but lament, and then, he got up from the ground with pain, and then took out a bottle of blood and poured it in through the opening at the lip of the stocking, while pouring it in, Ye Lu dashed towards the “Wine Swallow Boy”, because time was really running out.

“‘Xuanwu Void’ come out!”

Ye Luo mumbled in his heart, and a huge turtle with a snake tail appeared behind Ye Luo.

The bright blue light just now attracted many people around, and after they ran over, they saw Ye Lu, who was rushing towards the “Wine Swallow Boy” with the “Xuan Wu Void”.

“Huh! Isn’t that guy the ‘Silk Stocking Masked Man’? What’s that thing behind him, it looks so cool!”

By this time, the onlookers running around had already seen Ye Lu, his costume was so recognisable, and since the “Masked Man in Silk Stockings” was a popular character at the moment, everyone recognised him immediately.

“That silhouette is a turtle, right? He’s not a ninja turtle, is he?”

“No, that’s a foreign thing, he must be a bastard.”

“Shit! How dare you say my idol is a ninja spirit, are you tired of living?”

.....

The only thing he could use was his aura and the arrow of the “Sunset Arrow” in his hand.

However, as his opponent had nothing left to do, Ye Lu rushed forward and poked the “Drinking Swallow Boy” with the “Sunset Arrow”, and at the same time, he started to use a powerful “Ghost Art” with the Lin family’s bloodline.

The name of this “Ghost Art” was “Spirit Control Art”, which could control all kinds of spirits, including “ghosts”.

Since Ye Lu found that this creature was already weak to a certain extent, he could take advantage of the opportunity to control it, which would be of great benefit in dealing with the other ghosts.

At this time, the elders of the Weapon Sect had already flown over the capital.

“The blue light just now must have been emitted from around there, let’s go over and take a look.”

Elder Blazing Sun pointed to the demolition area not far away.

Following that, the group flew towards the place where Ye Luo was.

“Huh! It seems like the battle is over, how come the ghosts have all disappeared?”

Elder Killing Yang and the others saw from afar that many ghosts had suddenly disappeared, leaving only a bunch of people pointing around not knowing what they were saying.

Chapter 273

“Go down and see what’s going on?”

Elder Blazing Sun flew down with some suspicion, the people around him of course saw the scene, they already treated Elder Blazing Sun and the others like gods and goddesses.

“What just happened here?”

Elder Blazing Sun asked as he looked at the crowd of onlookers.

One man immediately said.

“Just now the ‘Silk Stocking Masked Man’ helped to avert a catastrophe in the capital!”

Others followed suit.

“Yes, thanks to the ‘Stocking Masked Man’, otherwise the city would have been finished, the traffic was paralysed and we couldn’t have run away if we wanted to.”

“Isn’t it, everywhere is blocked, it’s chaos.”

“And the ghosts, they’re really scary!”

.....

The most powerful ghost had been killed by a man called “The Masked Man in Silk Stockings”, and all the ghosts had disappeared, leaving only the corpse of a Japanese yin and yang master here at the moment.

The elder nodded as he took a look at the torn up corpse of He Mao Zhong Ye. It looked like most of the events were similar to what everyone had said, but he was still unsure and called the various branches of the Weapon Sect in the capital to confirm the situation.

“We’re in the South City, the ghosts on this side are gone, so I guess it’s over.”

“All the ghosts on our side of the North City have also disappeared, I don’t know where they’ve gone.”

.....

It looked like the crisis was really lifted then.

Apart from Elder Killing Yang and the others, the other organisations and the clans were also confirming the news from this side of the capital.

“Is the crisis really lifted?”

Tu Chen was also asking the people in the Shadow of Death.

“Yes, it seems so, but there is a strange situation, many Japanese ninjas appeared in the place where the ghosts disappeared, but those ninjas also disappeared quickly, I worry that they took the ghosts away.”

One of the men said quickly.

Tu Chen nodded.

This was not too unexpected, because these ghosts could not have appeared out of nowhere, someone must have set them up beforehand, and since the other party could bring the ghosts, they must have a way to take them away.

Hearing this news Tu Chen’s brow furrowed once again.

In that case, the crisis was not really lifted, as the other party might still release the ghosts again at any time.

Tu Chen haunted his head.

However, people on the internet were not so pessimistic, they were praising the “Silk Stocking Masked Man” for saving the day this time.

“The ‘Stocking Masked Man’ was so good this time, if it wasn’t for him, all of us would have been finished.”

“What the hell is that big ghost on the video, it looks so scary.”

“That thing I looked up, I think it’s called ‘Sake Swallow Boy’, a ghost from Japan.”

“Shit! That’s too mean, is that thing going to bleed out the capital?”

“I think we should add the title ‘Stocking Hero’ to ‘Silk Stocking Masked Man’, if it wasn’t for him who knows how many people would have died!”

.....

Like the comments on the internet, at this moment in the heart of the city, the mayor and other senior officials were also praising the actions of the “Stocking Masked Man”.

“Phew! I didn’t think it would be so chaotic, those private cars didn’t listen to me.”

The mayor said with a sense of relief.

Another official also sighed and said.

“Who said it wasn’t, but think about it, what kind of traffic jams are there every morning and evening rush hours, this time almost everyone swarmed out, and it was the middle of the night, it’s strange if there’s no congestion and no accidents.”

“This should be considered a ‘terrorist attack’, right?”

“I guess it is, but it’s a ghost-issued attack, so we can’t really do anything about it.”

“Go and find out who that ‘Silk Stocking Masked Man’ really is, and at the same time, issue a message in the name of the officials, declaring that ‘Silk Stocking Masked Man’ as the ‘Guardian of the Capital ‘.”

.....

Immediately, then, various media outlets began to promote the story.

“‘Guardian of the Capital’ Stocking Hero on People in Fire.”

“‘Stocking Masked Hero’ deserves the title of ‘Guardian of the Capital’.”

“Official search for ‘Stocking Masked Man’ clues.”

.....

In a flash, the whole capital, the internet, including the “sect world” were all going crazy about this matter, as Lin Ru Yue, Jasmine and other people from these sects in the secular world also passed the news to the sect’s headquarters.

At this moment, the person in question, Ye Lu, was walking through the hutong.

He was the only one who understood that the matter was far from over, because he had not been able to fully control the “Wine Swallow Boy”, not that he could not control it, but when he was about to control the “Wine Swallow Boy”, he had entered a period of weakness, and he could not do anything for a while.

Moreover, during the last blow, he found that the “Sake Swallow Boy” had actually broken through at the last moment and turned into a “Level 6 Evil Ghost”, which is equivalent to a human “Level 6 Master”, but fortunately, although he did not have full control, with partial control, the “Soul Calming Tower” could easily take it in.

“There are ten levels in total, and each level can hold a different number of “ghosts”.

The first level can only hold one “Level 9 Evil Ghost”, which is a terrifying evil ghost that is close to being “upgraded”, while the second level has two “Level 8 Evil Ghosts”, and so on, and eventually, the tenth level can hold 2,048 ghosts.

At this moment, there are hundreds of “evil spirits” gathered on the penultimate and penultimate third levels, and these “evil spirits” are the ones Ye Lu has just admitted through the “Wine Swallow Boy”.

These “evil spirits” had just been admitted by Ye Lu through the “Wine Swallowing Boy”, while the “Wine Swallowing Boy” was quietly trapped on the seventh floor of the “Soul Subduing Tower”.

What depressed Ye Lu was that there was nothing in this “Soul Subduing Tower”. If there was a “Level 9 Evil Ghost” in here, who would be able to lower it? Of course, at Ye Lu’s current level, if he released it, he would probably be eaten by the ghost first, as he could not control such a high level ghost yet.

The level 6 “Wine Swallow Boy” was basically his current limit.

“I guess all the other ghosts have been put away.”

Ye Lu muttered as he walked.

If he hadn't just entered a period of weakness where he could fully control the "Wine Swallow Boy", he could have just asked the "Wine Swallow Boy" to give the order for all the ghosts to come and gather.

If he had missed this opportunity, those people from the Yakuza would have taken away all the ghosts they had released.

"These ghosts will be a hidden danger sooner or later."

Ye Lu muttered in his heart, somewhat depressed.

"However, it seems that one should be safe this time."

At the same time, Ye Lu thought of another thing, that is, the people who wanted to deal with him before, "Abe Yasuhiko" and "Abe Hoye" were all dead, and now "Abe Hosaku" and everyone else who was in the Lin family at that time had also died by their own hands, Lin Qing had turned against him, and the "Silk Stocking Masked Man" had appeared.

However, he had used his own identity as Ye Lu when he killed Abe Kosaku and Miyamoto Nagai, so in the end, Ye Lu felt that he should not take it lightly and that it would be better to lurk for the time being.

The Lin family is now in the thick of the storm, so it is definitely not advisable for Lin Sihai to come out. Ye Lu got rid of Lin Sihai and put those "ghost bats" in the "ghost mound" for the time being, so that they could be hidden and their level could be improved.

Ye Lu wanted all of them to break through the bottleneck, so that he would have a terrifying army of "ghost bats", and if he fought to the death, even a "Golden Dan" stage expert would have to struggle.

After explaining and arranging everything with Lin Sihai, Ye Lu was about to ask about Gushiqi and Nie Yibiao when Ye Yan's phone call came first.

"Ye Lu, I found you, it was so scary just now, now that things are finally over, are you alright?"

Ye Luo hurriedly said he was fine, then Ye Yan said.

"Something happened to the Ye family, do you know? That family head Ye Nantian and several other senior people have disappeared, I know you don't like the Ye family, but this time it's very odd, it's the Japanese who did it."

Hearing that it was done by the Japanese, Ye Lu's brow furrowed.

What the hell did these Japanese shadowy souls want?

However, when Ye Lu hung up Ye Yan's phone to frown, Long Fei Xue's phone call came again, and she said that something had happened to the Long family as well.

Chapter 274

The head of the Dragon family, Long Ao, has also mysteriously disappeared. According to people from the family, it seems that someone has seen Japanese ninjas appearing nearby, but it is not certain.

And at the moment, that butler of the Jin family is thinking about how to deliver the news to Jin Kun.

For it seemed to him that the only thing that could help the Jin family was perhaps to wait for a miracle, and the one who could possibly produce one was, in his opinion, that Jin Kun.

When Jin Kun said that he had a hidden bloodline and that there was someone who could help activate it, the butler thought it was a fantasy at the time, but now he thought that maybe what the boy said was true, because everyone saw the person who could use the "White Tiger Shadow" afterwards, and that person's bloodline should be quite pure.

"Let's hope there's someone high up behind this child."

He muttered to himself, as he had already arranged for someone to start searching for Jin Kun in earnest.

While the Jin family was searching for Jin Kun, Ye Lu had already confirmed with everyone that everyone else was currently safe, except for Liu Mei who could not be contacted.

This included Qin Shiyu who was protected by layers of protection.

"Don't worry, there are super many people protecting me this time, according to them, even if everyone from the 'Society of the Extreme Dao' in our country came, I would be fine."

Qin Siyu said with a smile towards Ye Lu.

"We've officially started filming now, Dani and I are the female number one and number two, we live together every day now, so you can rest assured."

Ye Lu did not expect these two rivals to suddenly become so close now.

In fact, Qin Siyu had mentioned it several times before, she said that Lin Danni was actually very nice, except for her little snobbishness before, she was otherwise very nice, very motivated and smart.

All in all, with Lin Danni accompanying Qin Shiyu, Ye Lu was very relieved.

Nie Yibiao and the others were all fine too. At the moment, Ye Lu was most worried about Liu Mei who had lost contact with him, so he thought about it and dialled her roommate's number.

"Mei Mei was taken away by a woman, a woman who can fly, didn't see please her looks, he didn't have a group of people, good looking speed, swiped and disappeared."

Liu Mei's roommates rattled on and on, knowing nothing except that Ye Lu knew that the one who had taken Liu Mei was a woman in a dress.

"What on earth would be interested in Liu Mei?"

Ye Lu muttered somewhat puzzled.

Liu Mei had always lived her college life in a proper manner, and Ye Lu hadn't had any contact with Liu Mei in order to protect her, even roommates like Nie Yibiao and the others hadn't been targeted, and Ye Lu didn't think anyone would target Liu Mei because of herself.

"What the hell is going on?"

Ye Lu had no choice but to leave this matter to Tu Chen, it would obviously be easier for the “Shadow of Death” to handle such matters.

“Don’t worry, we will help you find her, if even we can’t find her in the capital, then no one can find her.”

Ye Lu nodded, and then began to calculate the next move.

The next action was to find those “ghosts” hiding somewhere, and of course the heads of the four families could not just leave them alone.

However, what Ye Lu did not know was that at this moment, the people of the “Society of the Extreme Dao” had already started their next move.

The Jin family was the weakest of the four ancient martial arts families, and tonight was the most chaotic night in the capital, so it was the best time to strike.

The Jin family’s butler had just heard from his subordinates that they had found Jin Kun, only for him to see that two ninjas had appeared in the room without a sound.

“Steward Jin Fu, come with us.”

One of the two men looked at Jin Fu and said with a smile.

“Don’t worry, you won’t be alone, all your clan will follow us, and don’t try to escape, don’t worry, with your level you don’t stand a chance of that either, let’s go.”

After saying this, the other man quickly overpowered Jin Fu and then led him out of the Jin family’s villa.

After being taken to the car, Jin Fu realised that it seemed that the people who were arrested were not only the Jin family’s children who were at the main Jin family residence, but also the children of other families were brought over as well.

“It’s not like they’ve taken all of the Jin family, is it?”

Jin Fu muttered with some suspicion and disbelief, but he was a bit puzzled as to why these Japanese were doing this.

If they were looking at some kind of property of the Jin family, shouldn’t they have grabbed a few important people and made threats or something? Or just snatch things away, anyway, Jin Fu hadn’t heard much about the Jin family having secret rooms or anything like that.

How much did it mean to have almost everyone in the Jin family arrested now.

The second one to suffer after the Jin family was the Long family. The Long family was not much more powerful than the Jin family, so all these people from the Long family were also quickly arrested, but the side line like Long Fei Xue, who was hard to reach with eight poles, did not suffer, but of course, this also had something to do with Ye Lu having Long Fei Xue hide far away.

After the Jin family came the Ye family, and since Ye Lu had kept a low profile on Ye Yan’s affairs, these people did not know about Ye Yan’s existence, which allowed Ye Yan to escape a disaster.

While the Yakuza were dealing with the four ancient martial arts families, Ye Lu was trying to find out the whereabouts of the ghosts controlled by the Sake-tuned Boy.

With the “auxiliary ability” of his glasses, Ye Lu could easily call up all the networked cameras in the city, including all the networked private cameras, and Ye Lu had the means to access and query them.

Although the nearest cameras had been destroyed, they had not destroyed all the cameras, and along with the images captured by the various cameras, Ye Lu soon found out where these guys were going.

This place was called the “King’s Residence”, which was said to be the residence of a royal family, but it was not famous for the royal family, it was famous for being haunted all the time, and it was one of the four “places of evil” in the capital.

Looking at the large mansion from afar, Ye Lu began to think about it.

It was obvious that this was a very important place for the “Society of the Extreme Way”, so the security would definitely be very strict, and in his current state, Ye Lu would definitely not be able to trespass, at least not until he had recovered.

However, Ye Lu did not want to ask for help, firstly, he did not want too many people to know about him, and secondly, he felt that after he recovered, he could control the weakened “Wine Swallow Boy” first, and then let it recover, so he and the “Wine Swallow Boy” should be able to deal with the current situation.

Another point is that Ye Lu wants to take these ghosts from the other side.

The ghosts were all controlled by the “Wine Swallow Boy” before, but now the “Wine Swallow Boy” was his own, so he could control all the ghosts with the “Wine Swallow Boy”, which was definitely a great weapon.

So, Ye Lu sat down at a place not far from the “King’s Palace” and quietly began to recover.

Inside the King’s Palace, the Ye family was the last to be brought in, and they were shocked to see that many people from the Jin, Dragon and Lin families were here.

“What is this all about, why do I suddenly have a very bad feeling about this.”

Ye Qiu Die said as she looked around at these ninjas and people from the other three families.

Not only her, but also many people were scared by the situation in front of them, because the people of the “Heavenly Clan” had tried to deal with the four ancient martial arts families before.

Seeing that all the four clans had been captured, the Japanese ninja at the head of the group said coldly.

“Well, since all the people have come, let’s try that method. You know best, Ozawa.

When he finished speaking, a beautiful woman came out, the same Japanese ninja who had been in charge of getting information from the Xuan Tian Clan, and smiled as she came out and said.

“Go and bring me the ‘totem plates’ of the four families.”

As she finished, one of the ninjas brought over a foot-square board with an odd pattern painted on it.

“This is your Jin family’s board, now test it on your Jin family’s bloodline, come and drag that man over here and kill him.”

Ozawa pointed to a Jin family man not far away and said with a smile.

Chapter 275

Everyone was shocked to hear this beautiful woman say “killed” in a casual way.

“What’s going on? Why do you want to kill me?”

The chosen son of the Jin family said with a look of horror and confusion, but no one answered him, and those who could would not come out to explain, and then two ninjas came and grabbed the designated person.

“It can’t be for real, saying something like ‘kill’.”

“How do I know? It doesn’t look like a joke.”

“Could it be that the purpose of getting us people here is to get us killed?”

.....

The people in the four big clans started to talk about it.

The Jin family’s family head was also a little surprised as he frowned at the Jin family member who was taken away, while the timid family children, such as Ye Qiu Die, who was already scared to the point that her legs were already shaking.

Then, the guy was brought to the front of the Golden Family’s totem board, which was a golden board with a cool design of a white tiger on it, which was fierce and had countless weird patterns on it.

“Snort!”

A knife flew into this guy’s chest, then the knife was quickly pulled out, and blood also spurted out from the wound at the same time.

The blood spurted out and landed on the totem panel, which then started to glow, while the blood from the wound was drawn out by some kind of force and spurted towards the totem panel, which sucked all the blood in like a blood-sucking monster.

“Ooh!”

“Waaah!”

“What’s going on?”

“How was I supposed to know? It’s so scary.”

“Is this really our family’s totem board?”

.....

Everyone was stunned by this scene, including the head of the Jin family, who was completely baffled that such a thing could happen. This totem board had always been a holy relic of the family, and had always been enshrined inside the family's ancestral hall, and everyone only went to pay their respects during New Year's festivals, and no one had actually ever studied it.

Now it looked as if this thing was not as simple as everyone thought it was, or at least this mad devouring of blood did not look like anything normal.

Soon, the man's blood was all drained. After the blood was drained, the man's flesh and skin shrivelled up and looked very dry, as if it was an Egyptian-made mummy.

The mummy then "flopped!" The mummy fell to the ground with a thud.

The woman called Ozawa went over to the totem plate and looked at it, but there was no change on the plate, and she didn't know where all the blood had gone.

"It doesn't really look like his blood is good enough, not enough blood power, another one."

With her words, another son of the Jin family was dragged out, still without hesitation, he stabbed into his heart, the blood was inspired and then sucked into that Jin family's totem panel like a stream of water, but, unfortunately, the white tiger totem panel didn't respond to anything.

"Is the power of the bloodline still not enough? It really looks like what they said, I guess it will take the blood of the whole clan to do it."

Ozawa said without hesitation.

"Then let's do it again, there are still more people here anyway, let's start with the other three families too, let's compare and see which one will activate their 'Totem Panel' first."

Hearing these words, Ye Qiu Die couldn't hold back any longer, and she fell to her knees with a frightened "flop!" She fell to her knees with a cry, and at the same time felt hot and wet down there, she was already incontinent from the shock.

It was no wonder that she had never seen such a scene before, nor had she ever experienced a battle, so it made sense that she would behave like this.

However, Ozawa paid no attention to these people as she casually waved her hand.

Three other totem boards of different colours were laid out, the Dragon Family's Green Dragon totem board was green, the Ye Family's Vermilion Bird totem board was fiery red, and the Lin Family's Xuanwu totem board was earthy yellow.

Following this, the sons of the three families were dragged to the front of the totem board, still with a slash each, and the blood from their hearts showered onto the totem board, followed by the blood being drained from their bodies.

Seeing this scene, Lin Zuoliang, the current head of the Lin family, sighed helplessly. He now finally understood why the Japanese needed them, it was because they needed the blood of the Lin family, in other words, he was obviously working with the Japanese and was not destined to have a good outcome.

However, it was too late to regret now.

“If I had known this I wouldn’t have bothered to get this position of family head in the first place, and got my brother killed, what a mistake!”

He couldn’t help but feel a little sad as he looked at the several dried bodies that had fallen to the ground outside.

However, just at this moment, a ninja suddenly ran in hurriedly and said.

“My lord, it’s not good, someone has invaded the king’s residence, what should we do?”

The ninja at the head of the group then said coldly.

“What are you panicking about, say, how many people are fighting their way in? What kind of people are they?”

As a result the ninja said quickly.

“The one who came was a man, with a stocking covering his face, so he couldn’t see his face, but he had many ghosts with him, and those ghosts are very strong in battle, all of them are of the clan master level.”

When he heard this guy’s words, the leader’s brow furrowed, because the news of the “Masked Man in Silk Stockings” saving the capital and the official awarding of the title of “Guardian of the Capital” to him had become so widespread that almost everyone knew about it, so of course he knew that the “Masked Man in Silk Stockings” had ruined their plans.

“He’s come to us from hell, so let’s settle old scores with him.”

Having said that, he then waved his hand and said.

“This is the end here for now, everyone get ready and prepare to meet the enemy.”

However, before he could finish speaking, the door had been knocked in with a “bang!” A bang flew in, followed by the figure of Ye Luo appearing at the door.

The crowd found that Ye Lu was really just a man, but behind him, the ghosts of different shapes followed him closely, as if he was the emperor among the ghosts, and Ye Lu just walked in with great strides.

“Hoo!”

Seeing this scene, Ye Qiu Die and the others, including the head of the Jin family, Ye Nantian, could not help but sigh in relief.

At least the hope of staying alive was once again ignited in everyone’s hearts, however, when everyone saw that Ye Lu was really alone, they also became a little disappointed, after all, there were really too many ninjas in this room.

“Why is there only one person here?”

“Yeah, why not call someone? It’s more certain to call a few more people, right?”

“That’s too little regard for us.”

“Treating our lives like child’s play?”

.....

Many people began to whisper and mutter, because in their opinion, since they knew about this matter, they should have called more people to come along to save them.

At this time, however, Lin Zuoliang, the current head of the Lin family, looked at Ye Lu and asked.

“‘Stocking Masked Man’, may I ask a question, are you from our Lin family?”

He had seen Ye Lu use the “Xuan Wu Void Shadow” in the video, and this divine ability could only be used by those with the Lin family’s bloodline, so he asked this question.

Ye Lu said indifferently.

“No.”

In fact, Ye Lu wished that the Lin family could have a pure bloodline descendant, so that he could easily use the “Bloodline Avatar” of the Lin family’s “Divine Beast Xuan Wu”.

The bloodline power of the Xuanwu was very helpful in using the Ghost Technique.

It was a pity that the Lin family did not have a pure bloodline, which made Ye Lu feel a little headache.

Hearing Ye Lu’s negative answer, the people of the Lin family all sighed, for they too had long hoped that a genius would emerge from the Lin family who would astonish the heavens and the earth, but unfortunately it was always just a hope.

Following that, the Japanese ninja who was the leader then looked at Ye Lu and asked coldly.

“Are you the only one who came?”

Hearing this guy’s words, Ye Luo then smiled and said.

“Of course not!”

Hearing Ye Luo say this, the spirits of the four ancient martial arts clans were lifted, as everyone saw hope.

However, immediately afterwards, Ye Luo waved his hand.

An extremely tall figure appeared beside Ye Lu, and it was none other than the “Wine Swallow Boy”.

“I brought it with me.”

Ye Lu smiled and said.

When they saw that the “Wine Swallow Boy” had actually appeared and was standing right beside Ye Lu, everyone was really surprised this time, because they thought that the “Wine Swallow Boy” had been killed, but they didn’t expect that it had actually been subdued by Ye Lu, knowing that killing and subduing are two completely different things, and the difference in difficulty is also great.

Of course, this guy also understood what the consequences of possessing the “Wine Swallow Boy” would be, so his face turned quite ugly.

However, the people from the four clans were a bit confused, as they were not sure what the “Sake Swallow Boy” represented.

“What is that thing?”

Someone asked in a whisper.

“I don’t know, from the Qi it looks like an ‘evil ghost’, and its rank should be quite high.”

“Is this one ghost enough to defeat everyone here?”

“How do I know.”

.....

Just as everyone was talking, the leader of the ninja looked at Ye Lu and said.

“It’s true that we can’t use the ghost against you with the ‘Sake Swallow Boy’ around, but don’t be naive enough to think that with the ‘Sake Swallow Boy’ you’re invincible, how many people can it beat if it’s strong, those of us are strong enough to crush you.”

Ye Lu then smiled and said.

“Since you guys are so bullish, then come on, I’d like to see how good you guys are.”

As he said that, he hooked his hand towards the leader.

That guy was a “Level 5 Grandmaster”, I don’t know if he was a “Grand Grandmaster”, but it was obvious that he was no match for the “Drinking Swallow Boy”.

After all, the “Drinking Swallow Boy” was already a “Level 6 Evil Ghost”, so he had already crushed his opponent in terms of level, not to mention that the “Drinking Swallow Boy” had been carefully trained by those yin and yang masters, so he was definitely at the top of his class.

Of course, the opponent would not be so stupid to fight against the “Wine Swallow Boy”, Ye Luo knew that their target was definitely himself, but this was also the result he wanted to see. After another extreme battle before, especially the moment of life and death when the “Nine Mysterious Divine Lightning” exploded, Ye Luo’s body’s aura had grown by leaps and bounds again.

“Go!”

The ninja leader on the other side didn’t know that the “Drinking Swallow Boy” had broken through again during the battle, he gathered all the powerful ninjas and started to charge towards Ye Lu and the “Drinking Swallow Boy”, of course the main target was Ye Lu.

“Brush!”

The “Sake Swallow Boy” quickly drew his long sword and attacked, while a “Level 3 Sovereign” level ninja found an opportunity to rush towards Ye Lu.

“Boom!”

Ye Luo smashed his fist into the katana he was slashing at.

The two men took a few steps back, and Ye Lu found that his strength and speed were now almost the same as that of a “Pre-Third Level Sovereign”.

Of course, Ye Lu had just used his martial art “Hybrid Vajra Body”, otherwise he would not have been able to match his opponent, who was at the “Late Third Level Sovereign” level.

“Come again!”

Ye Lu was not sure if his opponent had used a martial art, but he was still satisfied with his improvement.

“Brush!”

“Brush!”

This time, the two opponents rushed over at the same time, and the two katanas slashed over with a harsh blade aura, but this time, Ye Lu did not choose to blast at them, but reached out and grabbed the two swords with his hands. The swords burst into flames.

Neither man had expected such a thing, and both hands and arms lit up with a roaring flame.

“Aaah!”

“Yahhhh!”

.....

Both men quickly dropped their katanas and began to use their “astral energy” to lower their gears.

“This ‘Fire Chain’ move is really good!”

This was a new technique that Ye Lu had learned about the use of fire, and then he dropped both of the katanas he had taken to the ground with glowing eyes.

“Again!”

The two men had the flames under control and with a glance at each other they charged again, while the others were kept out by the “drunken boy”.

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

.....

He found that if he used martial arts techniques instead of flames, his level would be around the level of a “middle level three sect master”.

After understanding his approximate level, Ye Lu did not bother to waste any more time with them.

“Die!”

With these words, he lashed out a finger, a purple flame flaring up on this finger, and with just one finger, he poked one of the ninja to the ground.

This guy had an incredulous look on his face as he covered his chest.

However, the person who was even more incredulous at this moment was Long Ao, the family head of the Long Family.

This was because he was very familiar with this purple flame, he had been poked by a finger like this from Mr. Luo before and had no power to fight back.

“Mr. Luo!”

He couldn't help but mutter in his heart.

Then, he felt a little ashamed, he had treated someone like that before, but this time Mr. Luo came to save his life, Long Ao, who had always prided himself on being open and honest and a pure man, suddenly felt groundless.

After poking this guy over, Ye Luo then raised his hand and said in a loud voice.

“I've had enough of playing with you guys, boys, send them on their way!”

With Ye Lu's words, countless “evil spirits” appeared from all sides of the room, so densely packed that it was impossible to count how many there were, and at the same time, the windows rang out with the sound of “clattering”, and all the glass windows around them were shattered and starved, and countless “ghost bats” rushed in.

The ninjas and shinobi in the room were all gobbled up or knocked to the ground by the bats and demons.

It was then that the four clans finally understood why Ye Lu did not need help and came alone.

It was because he could handle it all by himself, and he was more than capable of doing so, it was a complete crushing victory.

After that, the ghosts and “ghost bats” released all the people from the four ancient martial arts families from their cages.

They were all overwhelmed with emotions as they were reborn again.

“Brother Stocking, please accept my obeisance, for the kindness of saving our lives, our Jin family will definitely repay you with death, we will go through fire and water.”

Jin Ming, the head of the Jin family, “Pounced!” He fell to his knees with a sound.

“Great Warrior Meng, accept my obeisance as well, our Long family will repay the warrior with our lives!”

Long Ao was the most chivalrous of all, so of course he would also fall behind the others and kneel down on the ground second.

Following that, Ye Nantian also fell on one knee towards Ye Luo and said.

“The Silk Stocking Masked Warrior is above, our Ye Clan will henceforth follow the Warrior’s lead, and no one will dare to disobey if ordered!”

Lin Zuoliang of the Lin family also quickly knelt down and said.

“We, the Lin family, are also the same, from now on, we swear to follow the warrior to the death.”

The patriarchs of the four great clans all immediately made their attitudes clear, which was basically what Ye Lu expected, because, firstly, saving one’s life was a great favour, and for the ancient martial arts families who looked at tradition this was very important, and secondly, the strength one had shown was enough to make them sigh in admiration.

So, Ye Lu nodded with a smile.

However, following that, he saw that there was something wrong with that leader of the other side, his mouth was chanting, while on his body, Ye Luo saw blood everywhere, obviously he was up to something.

“Quickly, get everyone from your clan to hurry out.”

Ye Lu quickly shouted loudly.

It was obvious that the leader of the Yakuza was making a big move, and he was surrounded by all the ninjas and shinobi he had brought with him, all of them vowing to guard him to the death, waiting for his big move to take shape.

“Come on, get out!”

“All get out!”

.....

The patriarchs of the four great clans all shouted, and the sons of the clans flew outside, and Ye Luo had all the “ghost bats” evacuate.

The first thing that Ye Luo couldn’t figure out was that he couldn’t see what the other side had in store for him.

Then, the leader of the group said in a frantic voice.

“It’s too late to run away, let’s all die together!”

Chapter 277

When he heard this guy say “die together”, Ye Lu’s first feeling was that there was a bomb here, but he found that there was no such possibility, because it didn’t look like the other guy was unleashing a bomb either.

It looked like a “blood ritual” martial art, because the guy’s blood was about to run dry, and then, with him as the centre, the ground lit up with a complex red light, and these lights carried a heavenly blood aura, and Ye Lu felt as if something was about to burst out of the ground.

At the same time, those ghosts began to retreat one after another, as if something that terrified them a million times was about to emerge, this Ye Lu felt that things seemed to be in trouble.

“Let’s kill them first.”

Seeing this scene, Ye Lu gave the “Wine Swallow Boy” a quick order to get rid of the living ones first, no matter what might come out.

“Of course, the boy did not hesitate to take action.

With his long sword, the head of a man was dislodged, and he quickly disposed of the rest of the men.

Then, countless blood-coloured rays of light coalesced in the centre of the pattern to form a man, no, a ghost to be exact, a ghost with a terrifying aura.

“Liege Ghost!”

Ye Luo had already seen the identity of this guy from the profile of the glasses.

A “Liege” was equivalent to a human “Saint level” existence, which corresponded to the cultivation level of a “Jindan stage” practitioner, which was not something Ye Lu could deal with.

He was wearing a silver noble robe embroidered with blue dragons, which looked very noble.

“You are the Prince of Rites?”

When he heard Ye Lu’s words, the “evil spirit” turned his head to look at Ye Lu and prepared to smile, but then his face froze and he took a step backwards in fear.

Because just now, Ye Lu took out the arrow of the “Sunset Arrow”, because he had already prepared for the worst, the fusion flame had just been used, if he fought for his life, his only weapon against the ghost was the arrow of the “Sunset Arrow”.

“Immortal Hou Yi!”

Then, the Prince of Rites said a name.

He had heard of the name Hou Yi, there was the myth of Hou Yi shooting the sun, and the story of him and Chang’e was also very famous, and the prototype used in this dagger was the “Sunset Arrow”, the sunset and shooting the sun were very similar, so I guess this arrow should belong to some Hou Yi immortal.

“This guy seems to know the origin of the ‘Sunset Arrow’.”

Ye Lu muttered in his heart, however, he did not ask this Prince of Rites, this bastard was a “severe ghost”, who knew what kind of temper this bastard had, maybe he would kill himself with one move, so it was better to wait and see what would happen.

“Are you the descendant of Immortal Hou Yi?”

Prince of Rites looked at Ye Lu and frowned, following which, he waved the fan in his hand.

Ye Luo felt a coolness on his face and his stockings all you blew away as he revealed his true face.

“It doesn’t look like it.”

The Prince of Rites looked at Ye Lu and shook his head.

Ye Luo didn’t know whether it was better or not, because this Prince of Rites had never changed his expression from the beginning to the end, making it inscrutable.

There was nothing he could do but continue to wait quietly for his next words.

However, when Ye Lu’s true face was revealed, Ye Nantian, who was present, was so surprised that his jaw dropped, because he found out that the person in front of him, who had saved his life and had just kowtowed to thank him for saving his life, was actually the loser Ye Lu who had come to the family with Ye Yan that day.

At that time, Ye Lu said that he was not interested in joining the Ye family, he had also despised Ye Lu, thinking that Ye Lu was a rat, but now it seemed that the person who was really a rat was none other than himself, people were so strong, there was no reason to join the Ye family.

He suddenly remembered that Ye Lu had said before that in the future, even if you begged me to join the Ye family, I would not join.

Ye Nantian suddenly regretted it, if the Ye family had such a strong backing, the Ye family would definitely flourish again, moreover, he felt that the “alchemist” standing behind Ye Yan was mostly Ye Lu, although this speculation seemed to have no basis.

After seeing Ye Lu’s appearance for a long time, the Prince of Rites asked again.

“What is your name?”

Ye Luo did not lie and said directly.

“Junior Ye Luo.”

Hearing Ye Lu’s name, this time it was the turn of Jin Ming, the family head of the Jin Family, to be surprised, because he had received information from his subordinates that among Jin Kun’s classmates, there was a classmate who shared the same dormitory with Jin Kun whose name was Ye Lu, and combined with what Jin Kun had said before, and Jin Kun’s character that did not like to make friends, Jin Ming immediately understood that the person who could activate the bloodline that Jin Kun was talking about was this person Ye Lu in front of him.

“It looks like that kid Jin Kun didn’t lie to me, so I guess the matter of him having a hidden bloodline is true.”

Similarly, Lin Zuoliang of the Lin family was also shocked beyond belief, as he was also present when Ye Lu made a fuss about the Lin family, before he was transferred away by the Japanese at that time.

“Shit! These two are actually one and the same person, Lin Qing the loser, why stay and have nothing to do with offending people like this.”

And the Prince of Rites looked at Ye Lu and said.

“Looks like I’ve been here for too long, the world has changed ah, don’t be afraid, I’m not a bloodthirsty demon, I won’t kill you all, don’t be nervous, however, I can’t stay in this place of right and wrong for long, I must stop the ‘Ghost General’ before it comes to life.”

After saying that, Prince Rei then looked into Ye Lu’s eyes and continued.

“Since you have a part of the ‘Sunset Arrow’, perhaps one day you will be able to obtain that ‘Sunset Bow’, and then the world will need you to save it, I will leave first.”

After saying this, he disappeared like a gust of wind. He disappeared like a gust of wind.

“Shit! It’s better to leave such a troublesome task of saving the world to someone else.”

After the Prince of Rites had left, Ye Lu muttered helplessly.

What he had just said was too much information, this guy had mentioned something like “Ghost King”, “Sunset Bow”, Hou Yi and so on, which Ye Lu felt was still too far away from him.

And something like saving the world sounded difficult.

“Ye Lu, I’m really sorry for that day, it’s because I have no eyes, do you think you can come back to our Ye family, after all, how to say that grandmother is also a member of our family.”

Ye Nantian looked at Ye Luo and said cheekily.

Long Ao also walked over in embarrassment and said.

“I’m sorry, Ye Lu warrior, it’s my eyes that are blind.”

Similarly, Lin Zuoliang and Jin Ming also came over, the two were also desperately trying to admit their mistakes, especially Lin Zuoliang, he was really afraid that Ye Lu would kill him in a fit of anger.

However, Ye Lu smiled and said.

“These things don’t matter, what matters is, have you guys thought of what to do with those things?”

Ye Luo pointed at the four totem plates and asked.

It was the turn of the four patriarchs of the four ancient martial arts families to be confused, these things were indeed hot potatoes, moreover, extremely difficult to handle, if they really involved huge secrets, although they had escaped this time, but what about next time, what about next time? There would definitely be others to use their blood to activate these four totem plates.

Simply put, these four ancient martial arts families had already been targeted, and it was estimated that they would not be able to get out of this trouble in the future.

“Great Warrior Ye Lu, what do you think should be done?”

Jin Ming was the most cockney, he felt that since Ye Lu had asked this, he must have his own idea.

Ye Luo smiled and said.

“Let me ask you first, do you have any use for these ‘totem plates’?”

Jin Ming shook his head and said.

“No use at all, I was born with these things enshrined there, I never knew what use they were.”

Several other family heads also nodded their heads indicating that these things were of no use to their family.

After seeing their stance, Ye Luo then said.

“In that case, why don’t you just hand them over to me, I’ll help you guys deal with them, and later on you guys record a video of me taking away these ‘totem plates’ and post it on the internet, so that everyone knows what’s going on here, and then let everyone know that it was me who took the ‘totem plates’.”

“The reason these Japanese are taking action is because the totem boards are in their hands, if there are no totem boards, no one should make a move against you for the time being, whether you want to give them to me or not is up to you.”

Chapter 278

Hearing Ye Lu’s proposal, Jin Ming, the family head of the Jin family, was the first to respond, he was afraid of things.

“Fine, I really don’t know what use this broken plate is, it’s also so dangerous, you take it away.”

The other three family heads had some slight difficulty on their faces, but, in the end, they all compromised, after all, it wasn’t worth it to put the whole family in danger for such a contraption.

Ye Luo, on the other hand, smiled and said.

“Alright then, help me find a stocking, and let’s put on a show.”

As a result, Jin Ming, the head of the Jin family, said with a somewhat embarrassed expression as he took out an unopened black stocking from his pocket.

“Hey, I have one right here, because I for one am a black silk controller, don’t worry, it’s a new one that hasn’t been used yet, high-grade goods oh!”

He quickly dressed up and started acting because he also wanted to know what secrets were hidden on these “totem boards”, and he had a vague feeling that maybe this was the same thing that had to do with his parents’ life.

Master Ye only knew a few words about his parents and grandmother, so Ye Lu had no idea how to ask the four families, and after contacting them, he also found out that the four families' current level was really low, and they should not know any secrets at all.

The secret on these four "Totem Boards" was the key.

After collecting the four "Totem Boards", Ye Lu began to ask the "Wine Swallow Boy" to gather all the ghosts. Just now, Ye Lu had prepared well before entering the place alone, and he used the "Soul Searching Technique" in the "Ghost Technique" to search the ninja around the courtyard first, so he knew in advance where the ghosts were placed.

Then, Ye Lu sent the "Ghost Bat" to release the ghosts, and only after this was done did Ye Lu walk into the "King of Rites House" alone.

Now, the props for the ghosts were all brought over by the Ghost Bats. These were special "Ghost Niches", which were only slightly inferior to the "Soul Subduing Tower", and each "Ghost Niches" could hold thousands of evil ghosts.

After filling all these ghosts, Ye Lu let the "Wine Swallow Boy" return to the "Soul Calm Tower".

Seeing Lin Zuoliang of the Lin family looking at the Soul Subduing Tower, Ye Lu looked at him and said with a smile.

"This thing has been given to me by your father, Lin Sihai, because I saved his life, you can meet him when you go back, he still has a lot to say to you."

Hearing that his father Lin Sihai wanted to talk to him, Lin Zuoliang had to smile bitterly, knowing that his good days were about to come to an end.

In fact, Lin Zuoliang and the others did not know that this "Totem Plate" did not necessarily require a large amount of blood to open, the reason why so much blood was needed was because it was thought that the purity of most people's blood was too low, in fact, if it was a pure bloodline, just a little bit would do.

The only people Ye Lu knew who could activate a pure bloodline were Long Fei Xue and Jin Kun, and now he only needed the Ye family's "Vermilion Bird Bloodline" and the Lin family's "Xuan Wu Bloodline".

Then, Ye Lu looked at Lin Zuoliang and Ye Nantian and said.

"Go back and contact the various branches of your Lin and Ye families, I will go and help you find a pure family bloodline in a few days."

Both Ye Nantian and Lin Zuoliang nodded, then Lin Zuoliang could not help but ask once again.

"Are you really not a descendant of our Lin family?"

The reason was that the "Silk Stocking Masked Warrior" had used the "Xuanwu Void Shadow" before.

Ye Lu shook his head and said.

"No, I merely used the power of your family's 'Xuanwu bloodline'."

Then, Ye Luo turned his head to look at the several family heads and said.

“By the way, no one should say anything about my identity, understand?”

All of them nodded their heads.

After leaving, Ye Luo rushed to the cave at the back of the school, he had to make pills in a hurry to give them to Jasmine in exchange for more “medium-grade spirit stones”, and to exchange some more fire-attribute demon pills with that woman Huo Huan.

The “Ghostly Inferno” had already increased like never before, but the “Red Lotus Karma Flame” was still stagnant, which had too much of an impact on the power of the “Burning Heavenly Fury”.

After Ye Lu left, the four patriarchs of the four great clans looked at each other.

“I didn’t expect it, the internet celebrity, the ‘Guardian of the Capital’, the ‘Masked Man in Silk Stockings’ that everyone is talking about is actually him, it’s incredible!”

“Yes, a hero comes out of a young man!”

Only Long Ao knew that the other new internet celebrity, the “Mr. Luo” who had defeated the entire martial arts world, was actually Ye Lu, but he didn’t say anything about it because the shock Ye Lu had brought was too strong, and he was now thinking about how to get back together with Long Feixue.

If Ye Lu was still a “weapon smith” and “alchemist”, then he would undoubtedly be a demon.

At this moment, Long Ao was extremely regretful, he felt that the action he had taken last time was really too stupid, if he had talked to Long Feixue properly, with Long Feixue’s ancient way of thinking, maybe things could still turn around.

Also calculating similar things were the family head of the Jin family and the family head of the Ye family.

Jin Ming was thinking about how he should call Jin Kun well, and about bringing Jin Kun’s mother to the Golden Mansion to be worshipped, something he felt was very necessary.

Ye Nantian, on the other hand, was regretting that he should not have given Ye Yan a modified gong method.

“Let’s go back and teach the real ‘Vermilion Bird Heart Technique’ to Ye Yan, hopefully this matter won’t make her hate the family, and yes, there’s Ye Yan’s grandfather, we need to adjust his position as well.”

And Lin Zuoliang was thinking about how to deal with Lin Qing’s matter.

Soon, the story of the “Silk Stocking Masked Man” who had bloodied a stronghold of the “Society of the Extreme Way” and taken away the “Totem Board” of the Four Families soon began to spread on the internet.

It was of course the Four Families who started the hype.

The Xuantian clan.

One of the clan's elders was listening to the report from the people below.

"It looks like this what's-his-name 'Silk Stocking Masked Warrior' is really targeting us! Did he really take away the 'Totem Plate' of the four great clans?"

After hearing the affirmative answer, he then began to muse.

"It looks like we'll have to find a way to do something about it, at least to the extent that we can get someone at the level of 'Grand Master' to enter the 'Secular Realm'."

Through this clan disciple's report, this elder felt that it would not be long before the clan master level would not be able to suppress the "Silk Stocking Masked Warrior".

The headquarters of the "Society of the Extreme Way" in China.

In the headquarters, everyone's face was sullen, because this period of time, the "Society of the Extreme Way" died too many people, and the operation planned by the "Yin Yang Liao" also ended in failure, and the "Hundred Victory Shura" sniper war also failed, which made everyone feel that this period of time, nothing has been achieved.

"What happened to the woman with the suspected 'Candle Dragon bloodline'?"

One man asked, looking at the others.

Following that, one said.

"There is no way to take care of it, because the people of 'Death Shadow' are guarding it too tightly, they even use 'Grand Masters', we are in the 'Kingdom of China' There are too few 'Grand Masters', and even if we use them, we don't stand a chance."

Hearing this answer, the guy who had inquired then tapped on the table and said.

"It looks like this woman is really related to 'Blood Shadow Shura', otherwise I don't think there is anyone else who can make the 'Shadow of Death' spend so much power, by the way, about this 'Qin Shiyu's' network of connections have all been checked out?"

The other man said with a nod.

"Yes, however, there aren't any groundbreaking clues, there are suspicions, but still can't fully confirm the identity of 'Blood Shadow Shura' and 'Silk Stocking Masked Man'."

Once he had finished, the man at the head of the group banged on the table and said.

"Okay, I get it, looks like yes plan to do something about it."

Ye Lu had been refining pills all night, and he found that his "Ghostly Inferno" was so helpful in refining pills that he could now easily refine a "Pulse Pill", and he reckoned that it wouldn't be too difficult to refine a "Spirit Condensation Pill" that could raise a person to the "God Harmony Realm", but unfortunately, there weren't enough ingredients yet, so he could only do it when he finished his quest in the Underworld, or when he had a certain amount of "Darkness Points" to exchange.

After handing over the various pills to the surprised Jasmine, Ye Lu found Ye Yan.

“Older sister, don’t open the shop, come back to the hotel with me, I want to help you activate your bloodline.”

Ye Luo looked at Ye Yan and said with a smile.

He didn’t know at this moment that another powerful ability was about to be opened.

Chapter 279

The reason why Ye Lu came to find Ye Yan to activate the bloodline power was that he felt that Ye Yan might have the “Vermilion Bird Bloodline” in her.

Hearing Ye Lu’s words, Ye Yan asked with some surprise.

“Hidden bloodline, do I have a hidden bloodline? How am I going to activate it?”

Ye Lu smiled and said.

“Let’s talk about this at the hotel, don’t worry, I won’t harm you.”

Ye Yan now had money, she didn’t lack anything, so of course she didn’t need to stay here all the time to watch the shop, so she quickly closed the shop and followed Ye Lu back to the hotel where she had been staying.

“Tell me, how can I activate the bloodline you mentioned?”

Ye Yan looked at Ye Luo and asked in a somewhat suspicious and uncomprehending manner.

Ye Lu smiled and said.

“Older sister, you better go take a shower because later on you will need to take off all your clothes and I am going to hang you up and then prick you with needles

Hearing Ye Luo finish, Ye Yan’s eyes immediately went wide.

“Shit! You kid tell the truth, are you going to take advantage of the old mother, you didn’t see me enough before didn’t you, this time you are going to hang up to see.”

Ye Lu knew that was all this old sister would say, so he laughed and said.

“Of course not, don’t worry, if it’s what you say it is, I have plenty of chances to do it, don’t I?”

Ye Yan cocked her head in thought and eventually nodded and said.

“Well, even if what you say makes sense, let me tell you, if you mess around for half a day, if nothing comes out of it, I’ll make you look good.”

Ye Lu hurriedly said that that kind of thing would not occur.

As a result, Ye Yan actually took more than an hour to finish her bath this time, and she didn’t know what she was pounding on, but when she was hoisted up, Ye Lu probably understood that, like Long Fei Xue, she had finely disposed of all the hairs on her body everywhere.

In fact, Ye Luo felt that a woman would look better with a little hair.

However, Ye Lu could not pay too much attention to this, activating the bloodline was a very delicate and time-consuming matter, he had to concentrate on it, moreover, Ye Yan was not the same as Long Feixue, Long Feixue was a cultivator at any rate, and also an innate spirit, so it was no problem to be hung for a while, however, Ye Yan was different, hanging for a long time, she would not be able to bear it, so she had to do it as soon as possible.

However, even though Ye Luo had been fighting with a hundred and twenty percent of his spirit, it still ended up taking more than two hours to complete the activation, and at the same time, Ye Luo saw the red fire bird that was presented behind Ye Yan.

It was a rather beautiful fire bird with nine tails, and looked very much like the legendary phoenix, except that it was a phoenix with flames emanating from its body.

What concerned Ye Yan the most was its pair of eyes, which were actually dark gold in colour and looked to carry an endless aura of ferocity.

“It really is the bloodline of the Vermillion Bird!”

Ye Luo stroked the beautiful mess of a fire bird pattern with some emotion.

“Ye Lu, what are you touching? Did it work or not?”

Ye Yan was hanging and then stabbed with silver needles on various parts of her body including very hidden parts, which made her feel a bit groundless, if Ye Lu didn't manage to make something famous, she was definitely going to be furious.

There was no other way, Ye Lu hurriedly took a picture and handed it to Ye Yan, then removed the needles and put Ye Yan down.

“This is so beautiful! Do you mean that I have the bloodline of the ‘Vermillion Bird’?”

Ye Yan asked as she looked at the photo in her phone.

Ye Yan thought for a moment and said.

“To be honest, I'm not sure about this, although the pattern should be ‘Vermillion Bird’ right.”

Without waiting for Ye Yan to ask, Ye Luo explained.

“Because, if what your grandfather said before is true, you shouldn't have been born in this world, but brought by grandmother, which means that grandmother should value you a lot, and since grandmother values you so much, I always feel that it shouldn't be as simple as just having the ‘Vermillion Bird’ bloodline. ”

“Ye Luo had already seen several people with the ‘divine beast bloodline’, so Ye Luo always felt that Ye Yan should be more special.

However, even if he didn't understand it, this was all he could do for now, he couldn't solve this mystery at least for now.

Just as Ye Yan went to take a bath again, someone from the Ye family found the hotel where Ye Yan was staying and brought an ancient looking scroll.

“You are Lord Ye Lu, right, then it is fine to give this to you.”

Seeing that it was Ye Lu who opened the door, that man from the Ye family was not really surprised, because after all, the two of them, Ye Lu and Ye Yan, were siblings.

As Ye Lu got that scroll, a new hint in the glasses appeared again.

“Prompt: the new ability ‘Kung Fu Ability’ has been activated, please pay attention to it.”

And at the same time, Ye Luo saw the situation of the gongfu scroll in his hand.

“Name: simplified version of the Vermilion Bird Heart Technique, Rank: upper heavenly rank, Description: a super gongfu of the Vermilion Bird family from the other world, but not the true complete version, but a simplified version of the Vermilion Bird Heart Technique based on the human physique

However, Ye Luo no longer bothered to read the latter introduction, anyway, there must be a complete version of this kind of gong method in the glasses, and presumably, like every time before, there was again a vast sea of gong methods existing in the glasses.

Of course, these gong methods were of no use to Ye Lu, because Ye Lu already had a nameless gong method on his body, although he did not know the level, but it was an extremely high gong method.

“Some gong methods could be used for a long time, and many of them had a set of gong methods that changed according to the level of cultivation, so, for the time being, there was no need for Ye Lu to cultivate other gong methods.

However, these “gong methods” were of great use to other people, such as Ye Yan and Qin Shiyu. If they had a corresponding gong method to practice, they would definitely improve at a rocket speed.

The reason why Long Fei Xue had been so slow in her cultivation was probably because the gong method she was practicing did not correspond to her own physique.

Without the activated Green Dragon bloodline, coupled with the messed up gong methods that were changed, it was of course impossible for Long Feixue to make any long progress.

However, this time was different.

After collecting the scroll, Ye Lu closed the door and quickly looked it up in the interface of the glasses, and sure enough, the new great ability “Kung Fu Ability” appeared in the list on the left side of the glasses.

After opening it, countless gong methods were presented.

“Name: Wuji Xuan Gong, Grade: Xuan Rank Upper Grade, Source: created by the Patriarch of the Wuji Sect, Introduction: from the meaning of the Wuji of Heaven and Earth, it is a very complex gong method

“Name: Xuan Nui Kung Fu, Rank: middle grade of the Sacred Order, Source: created by the Xuan Nui

However, through observation, Ye Lu also found a problem, that is, these techniques were different from the previous “Martial Skills”, these “techniques” seemed to be all-inclusive, because the previous “Martial Skills” only opened up to the level of “Spellcraft” for Ye Lu, as for the higher ones, they were not shown at the moment, and the “Weapon Refining” was also the same, only the refining of “Spellcraft” was explained, however, Ye Lu felt that there must be something higher to refine, but it was not shown.

However, this time, the “Technique Ability” was different, as it seemed that all the techniques were shown in the “Technique Ability”.

Because, he saw that besides the “Holy Order”, there were also “Spiritual Order”, “Immortal Order”, and even “Divine Order” techniques in here.

“Ye Lu, who’s here?”

After that, Ye Yan came out wrapped in a bath towel.

Ye Lu smiled and said.

“It’s the Ye family, the gong method they gave you last time was a simple version, so they sent a more complete version this time, but it’s still rubbish, I’ll teach you the strongest one.”

Regarding the “Divine Beast Vermilion Bird” gong method, Ye Lu had already looked it up in his glasses, and the most suitable gong method for Ye Lu to cultivate was the “Vermilion Bird Divine Skill”, a “Divine Rank” gong method, and he was going to teach it to Ye Yan.

“Really?”

Ye Yan looked at Ye Lu and said with a smile.

Ye Lu patted his chest and said.

“Of course it’s true, the gong method my old sister wants to learn, of course it has to be the top of the line gong method, and I will also teach you the most powerful ‘martial skill’ that works with this gong method, don’t worry, it won’t take long for you to become a powerful cultivator, old sister.”

In fact, Ye Yan was not the only one, Qin Shiyu and Gu Shiqi could all finally start cultivating as well.

Chapter 280

So, Ye Lu immediately began to teach Ye Yan this “Vermilion Bird Divine Skill”.

This “Vermilion Bird Divine Skill” is made up of many parts, from the “Houtian Realm”, “Xiantian Realm” to the “Jindan Realm” at the back

However, after the “Golden Dan Realm”, the techniques were not shown, so Ye Lu did not know how many more realms there were after that.

“Qi!”

Ye Luo grabbed Ye Yan’s hand and said.

“You’ve already gathered ‘true qi’, this gong method is really strong!”

Although Ye Yan’s Ren and Du veins had been opened, and she had gone through the marrow cleansing process to complete the “clear energy” stage, the speed of gathering “dark energy” was still too fast.

“I have a ‘martial art’ that you can use, it’s called ‘Vermillion Bird Palm’, try this.”

As Ye Lu said that, he taught Ye Yan a ‘martial skill’, which was also the ‘martial skill’ corresponding to the ‘Vermilion Bird Divine Skill’.

To be honest, Ye Yan’s head was still quite clever in this area, which was probably why she had been able to fight before, as she was originally good at these fighting and killing things.

As a result, within a few minutes, she had basically mastered this simple “martial art”.

“Let’s try.”

Ye Lu pointed to the wooden table and said.

It was Ye Yan’s first time learning “gongfu” and “martial arts”, so she was also a bit eager to give it a try, she walked to the edge of the table, then raised her hand and “bang!” She went to the edge of the table and raised her hand and slapped it on the table with a bang.

The slap left a burned palm mark on the wooden table top, obviously containing a strong fire attribute power.

The Vermilion Bird was originally a fire-attribute divine bird, so it was naturally sensitive to fire-attribute laws, and the power of such martial techniques that contained law attacks was quite a bit more powerful than ordinary martial techniques.

“Not bad, not bad, what a powerful strike!”

Ye Yan could actually learn it so quickly, which made Ye Lu also amazed, this should be the benefit of the “martial art” and its own attribute being very compatible.

“Older sister, I’m going to teach you all the gong methods before the ‘Golden Dan Stage’, and then there are also various ‘martial skills’ that can be used in conjunction with them, just wait until you become a supreme expert.”

Of course, it was not an easy task to get Ye Yan to remember all of these things, so Ye Lu made them into textual content and sent them to Ye Yan’s mobile phone.

“If there’s anything you don’t understand, just ask me.”

Ye Luo looked at Ye Yan and said with a smile.

Ye Yan nodded mechanically while looking at these things, obviously very involved, so Ye Lu stopped bothering her and left Ye Lu’s hotel and went to Long Fei Xue’s home and helped Long Fei Xue activate it once more as well, and sure enough, the green dragon on Long Fei Xue's back became more and more solid.

However, the level of the bloodline could not be seen at this moment, so I guess we had to wait until the bloodline was fully activated.

Of course, Ye Lu gave Long Fei Xue the "Green Dragon Divine Skill" below the "Golden Dan Stage" and some 'Martial Skills' to use in conjunction with it, but for those with "Bloodline Power", the "Bloodline Divine Skill" was actually their most powerful attack weapon.

After that was Jin Kun. Similarly, Ye Lu taught Jin Kun everything related to the "Divine Beast White Tiger".

The last one was Qin Shiyu, but when he taught Qin Shiyu the "Candle Dragon Divine Skill", Ye Lu discovered that the "Candle Dragon Divine Skill" was actually a small grade higher than the "Vermilion Bird Divine Skill" and the "Green Dragon Divine Skill", the "Candle Dragon Divine Skill" was a "Divine Grade Upper Grade" technique, which was also the top grade technique Ye Lu had seen so far.

"As expected of a 'Candle Dragon', one of the creator gods is extraordinary!"

China was a country that revered the "dragon culture", so legend had it that there were many dragons in China, such as the Green Dragon, Ying Dragon, Cang Dragon, Qiong Dragon, etc., and the "Candle Dragon" was undoubtedly the top of the line.

Apart from the "Candle Dragon Finger" that Ye Lu had used before, there were also the "Candle Dragon Palm" and the "Candle Dragon Spear".

Of course, many of the "martial skills" required a number of magic weapons or props to complement them.

Originally, Ye Lu wanted to find a martial art for Gu Shiqi, but Gu Shiqi was currently out of school and had gone to some poor countryside to find a treasure.

So he had to give up.

Jin Kun there Ye Lu of course is also continuing to activate, and then all kinds of gong methods and martial arts and so on were passed on to him, as to how he dealt with these things, to give or not to the Jin family Ye Lu does not care about hunger, this is all Jin Kun's freedom.

So, the next few days, Ye Lu's side of the day has become quiet, he just refine pills every day, refine "red lotus karma fire", and then wait for the "ghost bat" to become stronger, feed the "wine swallow boy", so that its cultivation more consolidated, of course, there are some "ghost techniques" that can make the ghost cultivation, Ye Lu also taught this "wine swallow boy", because, at present, this "wine swallow boy" is Ye Lu's strongest combat power.

Of course, this was only possible if the Ghost Bats were eliminated, because if Ye Lu really dared to disregard the Ghost Bats, they would attack like crazy, and even the Drinking Swallow Boy would definitely go to pieces.

During the few days when Ye Lu was calm, others were not so calm. First of all, on the internet, people started to trace the originator of this crisis in the capital.

However, the Japanese Yakuza were also very desperate, killing all those who thought of their own organisation, and denying that there was no evidence, even if you all thought it was me, but claimed that someone was pretending to be the Yakuza to create the conflict.

The four clans, on the other hand, kept emphasising the fact that their family totems had been taken away, so that the world would know that they no longer had the Totem Plate.

“The elders of the Weaponry Sect stayed in the capital for two days to make sure the crisis was over before answering the clan again, but they were still surprised by the appearance of the “Masked Man in Silk Stockings”.

Of course, what everyone was talking about the most was who the “Masked Man in Silk Stockings” really was.

“This guy is too strong, he even defeated that ‘Sake-tongue Boy’.”

“But this time it’s really thanks to the ‘Masked Man in Silk Stockings’, otherwise I don’t know how many people would have died.”

“Yes, whoever goes against the ‘Silk Stocking Masked Warrior’ in the future is going against our entire capital.”

.....

In fact, several groups of people have already gone to the Jin family to ask questions, because the “Xuanwu Void” released by Ye Luo at that time was seen by many people, and the fame of the “Four Sacred Beasts” is very big, so many people know that this thing is actually the “Divine Beast Xuanwu”, and the “Divine Beast Xuanwu” is inseparable from the Jin family.

The four ancient martial arts clans in the capital were once again in the public eye, as people found out that the four ancient martial arts clans really had a lot of heritage, and even after so many years of silence, they could still save the day when the capital was in danger.

So, for a while, the Four Ancient Martial Arts Families once again became a hot commodity.

However, such peaceful days did not last long, and just after three days had passed, trouble came.

On the morning of that day, Qin Shiyu found that Lin Danni was missing. At first she thought that Lin Danni’s mobile phone had run out of battery, but soon afterwards, Qin Shiyu received a message from the people of the “Extreme Daoist Association”.

“Your best friend Lin Danni is already in Japan, if you want her to live, come to the ‘Yin Yang Liao’, you have three days, if you don’t come, at midnight after three days, Lin Danni will die.”

After receiving this message, Qin Siyu contacted Ye Lu at the first opportunity.

Now, in Qin Siyu’s mind Ye Lu had become almost omnipotent.

“In that case, don’t worry, just leave this matter to me, I will bring Lin Danni back to you.”

Ye Luo said after thinking about it.

“Also, what they ‘Society of the Extreme Way’, the ‘Yin Yang Liao’ people and those ninjas did in the capital, I’m going to get justice back with them, if they don’t come after me, I’m also preparing to go after them It is.”

These Japanese actually wanted to slaughter the city in the capital, Ye Lu had long looked at them with displeasure.

“This time, I will definitely go to Japan and turn the world upside down.”

Ye Luo muttered secretly, but before that, there were some preparations that must be done.
