Chapter 281

The first problem to solve was transportation. Since we had to bring the Ghost Bats with us, it was definitely not possible to travel by regular aeroplane, as there were so many Ghost Bats that could not pass the security check.

The security checks of all countries were very strict in controlling practitioners when crossing their borders, and anything that exceeded the limit would be classified as contraband.

Ye Lu had no choice but to smuggle it across.

“Stowaway! We can only take a boat, but it will take about two days from Shanghai, Qingdao or Tianjin.”

“It’s basically fine if you’re at home, you can use a private plane, but it’s very troublesome when you get out of the country, you definitely have to rely on a boat if you want to enter Japanese territory unknowingly.”

The fixer in charge of smuggling people across the border and Ye Lu explained carefully.

It looked like trying to get there entirely by boat would definitely not work, the speed was too slow and Ye Lu did not want to waste most of his time on the boat, so he decided it would be better to operate jointly by land, sea and air.

As he planned, he began to prepare his things, including booking some more spirit stones from the Hundred Flowers Sect, and then spending money to get higher grade fire-attribute demon pills from Huo Huan’s hands.

In fact, the price of these demon pills was not too high, because humans could not directly eat demon pills to improve their cultivation, and the same was true of demon beasts themselves, which could not be swallowed and turned into their own cultivation unless they had exactly the same attributes, which made many demon pills useless.

Of course, for alchemists who can use “beast fire”, these demon pills are useful, but such level of alchemists usually have to use “saint level” demon pills, and not all alchemists have a recipe for making demon pills, which are in short supply in this world of Earth.

Of course, the “divine Beast Bloodline” Ye Luo also had to prepare, and at the same time Ye Luo also had to prepare two things, one was a storage item, he was going to make one himself, the raw material was the imperial green jade bracelet given to Long Fei Xue by Gu Shi Qi before, this material was just suitable for making a storage magic weapon.

In fact, the material requirements for storage magic weapons were extremely strict, and so far Ye Lu had only found this one material that could be used to make storage magic weapons.

The second item was a flying device. Ever since he had seen that kind of flying device from the Weapon Sect, Ye Lu had wanted to make one of his own, but he had never found the time to do so.

However, both of these items were not easy to make, so Ye Lu prepared the materials and planned to do it on the way, as it would take quite a lot of time on the way anyway.

With that, Ye Lu spent a few hours getting ready, and then paid a fixer to get started.

First he flew to Dandong, a very easy and time-consuming journey within the country, and then he smuggled himself across the border into North Korea, a smooth journey within the country, as there were no decent practitioners within the country.

However, there was a bit of trouble when he entered the Korean border to make a flight in Seoul to Busan.

“Sorry, you cannot take this flight because, we suspect that you are a practitioner from another country and there is a hidden danger of hindering the safety of your country, please cooperate.”

As he was preparing to board the flight, Ye Luo was stopped.

Ye Luo’s current identity, as well as various documents and so on, had been obtained at great expense, so he wasn’t worried that anything would go wrong, but he couldn’t afford the delay, so Ye Luo asked politely.

“I’d like to ask how long this review will take approximately, as I’m in a bit of a hurry with an urgent matter.”

As a result, the lady in charge said as she inquired to a middle-aged man behind her.

“I reckon, you’ll have to check with us at the headquarters, and according to the current situation I reckon we’ll have to find the senior management of the ‘Seven Star Association’, so it’ll probably take at least a day.”

Hearing that it would take a day, Ye Luo then frowned and said.

“Can you shorten the time a little, I don’t mean any harm, I’m just passing by, can you be a little more accommodating.”

As he said that, Ye Lu took out a large stack of Korean coins from the large parcel he was carrying and put it in front of the woman and the other middle-aged man.

It was a stack of 50,000 denominations of Korean won, with a total value of 5 million won, which was about 30,000 according to the exchange rate.

Seeing that the woman’s expression did not change, Ye Lu quickly took out another pile.

As the saying goes, “There’s no such thing as a pile of money that can’t be fixed. If it can’t be fixed, then two piles, and if that doesn’t work, then add more.

So, Ye Lu kept pulling out more and more money.

Finally the two men were a little more moved.

The woman said.

“Well then, next time won’t be an exception, let’s forget it this time, I hope you don’t make any mess.”

Ye Lu smiled and said.

“It won’t happen, I didn’t come here to run to you guys this time.”

After saying that, Ye Luo carried the big parcel and pulled the suitcase towards the waiting hall, it seems that the truth that “money can make the devil push the mill” can work everywhere.

Now, Ye Luo didn’t dare to say anything else, but he was rich.

The Gu family was now completely out of the woods, and business was booming, and Long Fei Xue’s multinational companies were also profitable, not to mention Ye Yan’s pills, so this was nothing to Ye Lu.

“The forces involved this time are the ‘Yin Yang Liao’, the four great clans of Japan, Koga, the ninja clans of the Iga Ryu, and the Hattori clan who once had such an expert as Hattori Hanzo, and the Miyamoto clan who had Miyamoto Musashi, these five families are the purpose of this trip.”

Ye Lu muttered secretly while opening the map and started to look up the location of these five families.

So, Ye Lu thought he could do both this time.

However, just as he was calculating, a couple of Korean men who looked a bit non-mainstream suddenly walked over.

“Kid, I heard you’re quite rich right, so leave everything you have on you.”

One of the guys looked at Ye Lu and said with narrowed eyes.

Ye Lu did not answer his words, but looked around, and as a result, he saw that the middle-aged man who had examined his things before was hiding in a far corner, apparently he had just violated a taboo when he used the “money makes the devil go round” trick, and that was “not to reveal your wealth”.

It seems that the action of taking out the money just now has led to trouble.

The security guards around the place were oblivious, so I guess they had already conspired to make it difficult for me to leave this time.

“It’s really a case of ‘the tree wants to be quiet but the wind won’t stop!’”

Ye Luo muttered helplessly in his heart, originally he wanted to move in a low-key and calm manner, but now it seemed to be out of the question.

So, Ye Luo turned his head and looked at these few non-mainstreams.

It was obvious that these guys were all dressed up as cultivators, and the level of the people who came was not low, even the worst one was a “Hua Jin” cultivator.

Ye Lu looked at these guys and said indifferently.

“Indeed, I have money, and a lot of it, but this has nothing to do with you guys, so hurry up and get lost.”

When he heard Ye Luo’s words, one of the non-mainstream guys laughed.

He looked at Ye Luo and said.

“Do you know who we are? We’re not ordinary punks.”

Ye Luo, on the other hand, continued to sit there and said indifferently.

“I’m not interested in who you are, and besides, I’ll tell you that I’m not an ordinary traveller either.”

Seeing that Ye Luo had no intention of getting on, this guy then bristled and charged violently towards Ye Luo, while a white light of true qi lit up in his hands, it looked like he was ready to make Ye Luo understand his position through actual actions.

“Boom!”

However, the ending was that he had not even touched a piece of Ye Luo’s coat and he had already flown far away.

“Flop!”

After flying a dozen meters away, this guy only fell to the ground without moving.

“Sh*t! What’s going on?”

“That’s it, what just happened.”

“He’s too gullible.”

.....

The few people surrounding them didn’t dare to attack again, but they didn’t see what had just happened in between the lightning bolts.

“Roll!”

For his part, Ye Lu said again indifferently.

Chapter 282

If these guys could back off, Ye Luo did not want to tangle with these guys, however, these guys were obviously used to being bullish, and when they heard Ye Luo’s words they rushed towards Ye Luo with glares like a dog whose tail had been stepped on, and all of them were still acting together.

“Ai!”

Ye Luo couldn’t help but sigh, then he flew out, and everyone flew up almost simultaneously, like a firework released with Ye Luo as the centre.

The people around had long been attracted by the scene they had just seen, and everyone let out a gasp at the sight.

“Wow! This Opa is so capable of fighting!”

“That’s right, and very handsome too, mmm”

“But he’s fighting someone from the ‘Seven Stars Club’, right? He’s in trouble now.”

“It looks like a foreign Opa yet.”

.....

A group of Korean schoolgirls started looking at Ye Lu and pointing.

This was the second time that Ye Lu heard the term "Seven Star Association", and it seemed that this "Seven Star Association" was quite a powerful organization here.

In fact, what Ye Lu didn't know was that the Seven Star Society was a very famous organization in Korea, not only did they control the Korean underworld, but they were also the ones who were asked to help with many official matters, so they were almost known to everyone.

After knocking these guys off their feet, Ye Lu continued to look up various information about Japanese ninjas and yin-yang masters on his mobile phone.

The guys who had been knocked off their feet all looked at each other in disbelief as they did not understand how Ye Lu had struck.

The middle-aged man who was not far away dialed a phone.

Soon, five guys in suits appeared.

These guys were the classic movie outfits, black suits, white shirts, black ties, and if they weren't wearing sunglasses, they would have looked like insurance salesmen.

After these five men came over, the man in black at the head then looked at Ye Lu and said.

"Do you know what happens when you mess with the 'Seven Stars Society' in Korea?"

Ye Luo then said indifferently without raising his head.

"Then do you know what happens if you mess with me?"

Then, he put away the phone and looked at the other party and said seriously.

"Is it that there is no longer a way to reconcile this matter, and to be honest, I don't want to make a big deal out of it because I still have things to take care of."

Ye Luo did not want to invite any other trouble if he could do so without causing any extra trouble.

As a result, the man in black opposite said coldly.

"There is a way to reconcile, you just need to leave everything on you and then let us beat you up again, and this matter will be settled, otherwise the 'Seven Star Association' is not finished with you."

Ye Lu thought for a moment and said.

"How about this, what do you think, I can let you guys beat me up, then, I can give you guys all the cash I have on me, what do you think about this?"

The sunglasses man at the head of the other party thought about it and said.

"Okay, that's fine too, until we've had our fun beating."

Ye Lu nodded with a smile and said.

“Okay, don’t worry, I’m not wearing anything protective, feel free to fight.”

With those words, he took off his shirt, revealing his well-proportioned and fit muscles, and then waved his hand towards the other side, signalling that they could start.

After seeing Ye Luo’s body, those little girls who had just commented on Ye Luo were not calm.

“Wow! That body is too good.”

“Yes, it’s beautiful, pretty and shapely.”

“I’m going to drool!”

.....

The five men in black were obviously displeased when they heard the compliments, and they all snorted coldly before the guy at the head of the group shook his neck and clicked his fingers to make a “cackle!” He then punched Ye Lu’s chest.

The white light on his fist flashed, obviously using his “innate true qi”.

“Boom!”

The man in black felt as if he had hit a wall of flesh, there was no recoil, nor was there any “innate true qi” defence.

For his part, Ye Lu looked at him and smiled, saying.

“The strength could be a bit more, I can do it.”

Sure enough, this guy dug in and punched Ye Luo’s chest again, followed by the other guy who all came over, everyone punched and kicked in a hectic manner, however, nothing happened to Ye Luo.

The reason why there was no recoil was because the opponent’s grade was too low, and Ye Luo was too lazy to recoil them.

After a full five minutes of fighting, everyone stopped.

Ye Luo then smiled and said.

“Satisfied, satisfied that’s all, I’m in a hurry and ready to board the plane.”

Because the prompt said he could board the plane, Ye Luo didn’t want to waste time with this guy over here.

“Satisfied my ass, get him killed.”

What he didn’t expect was that the man in black at the head of the group suddenly pulled out a knife and stabbed at Ye Luo.

“Sh*t! What a toast!”

Ye Lu was not a good-tempered person, he had just condescended to acknowledge these guys for a long time, but he didn’t expect them to be so aggressive, and he was pissed off.

“Get lost!”

He quickly struck out and punched the guy in the stomach.

“Whoosh!”

The guy went flying with the same swipe as a ping pong ball being smacked with a ping pong paddle, and followed it by crashing into a nearby chair never to get up again.

“You

The other guy was surprised and wanted to say something, when Ye Lu had already said impatiently.

“Noisy!”

Following that, another slap sent this fellow flying as well.

“Big brother, I

Seeing this scene, a man in black immediately scared farts, however, before he could finish his words, Ye Luo said coldly.

“Me what me? Get lost

Another slap this guy also flew far away.

One of the two remaining men then pointed at Ye Lu in surprise and said.

“You

Ye Luo said impatiently.

“You what you

Following that, another slap sent this guy flying out as well, while the remaining one in black was lying straight on the ground without waiting for Ye Lu to do anything.

“Sh*t! Even faster than me!”

Ye Lu looked at this guy lying on the ground, then kicked him off, followed by walking towards the plane’s boarding gate with his stuff bare-chested.

The flight personnel near the gate were all overwhelmed by this scene.

“Right

A female attendant stopped Ye Lu had stuttered and said.

“Sorry, you can’t board the plane because you have offended the ‘Seven Stars Society’, we dare not let you take this flight to Busan.”

At the same time, Ye Luo saw that a number of people in black had appeared from all sides of the waiting hall, and everyone was surging towards his direction.

“It looks like they want to endlessly.”

Ye Luo didn't have time to play this boring game with these guys, he reached out and grabbed this woman and put her to the side, then walked in the direction of the plane while saying.

"I've decided to hijack this plane, all those who don't want to get hurt get the hell away from me."

When they heard Ye Luo's words, the attendants "Hullo!" However, to Ye Lu's surprise, another group of guys in black suits appeared from the vicinity of the plane, this time with "magic weapons" in their hands or on their bodies.

"Damn, the 'Seven Star Association', right, f*ck it."

Seeing this scene, Ye Lu did not have to be polite, he walked straight towards the direction of the plane with his bare arms, while all the men in black quickly gathered around.

However, these hastily arrived men in black were obviously not of a high level, not even at the "Sovereign" level, and the highest was only a practitioner of the "Harmonious God Realm", but the long-established habits of these men made them arrogant.

"Dare to fight with our 'Seven Star Association', destroy him for me."

"Go on, kill this kid."

"Kill!"

.....

All those who dared to rush up were knocked down with a single punch, without exception, and everyone who was knocked down passed out and never woke up.

The raging group of people all turned off in an instant, and Ye Lu walked into the cabin.

"Take off now and drive to Busan or die!"

Ye Luo said as he looked at the pilot, while he let out a palm which with a searing heat melted a slap-shaped hole in one side of the metal wall.

"Okay, okay!"

The pilot flew up to operate the various buttons and equipment, saying at the same time.

"Mr. Robber, it's not hard for us to fly over, but when we get to that side it will definitely be full of people from the 'Seven Stars Society', you still have only one way to die!"

Ye Luo then said indifferently.

"This has chicken sh*t to do with you, just fly your plane!"

Chapter 283

In the plane, Ye Lu looked out at the sky and began to calculate.

"The Ghost Bats were moving on the ground according to his plan, and although all the Ghost Bats had reached the level of "Master", they were definitely not as fast as the plane.

Therefore, even if he flew to Busan, he would not be able to move immediately and would need to wait for the arrival of those “ghost bats” before he could move, so he might as well take advantage of this time to play with the so-called “Seven Star Association”.

Of course, since he had chosen to fight with the other party, Ye Lu did not hold back any longer. He put on his protective clothing, which had been upgraded to the “Earth Stage”, and then he stopped paying attention to the others and started to eat the “Fire Pills”, which actually contained different fire attributes because they were made from different demon pills, so the ingredients of each potion were different.

Now Ye Lu was like eating a snack, “Gaba!” “Gabba!” While eating the “Fire Pill”, he was generally looking at the various information on his mobile phone.

At the headquarters of the Seven Star Association, the news of the clash between Ye Lu and the Seven Star Association at the airport in Seoul had already reached the headquarters.

“What was the reason for the clash?”

One of the senior leaders looked at the person who reported the incident and asked.

“It seems that the man had revealed his wealth, so a few members of the gang tried to hack him, but they didn’t expect that they would hit the iron plate.

The person reporting said seriously.

However, another senior leader said coldly.

“Why ask so many questions, for how many years, no one has ever dared to go against our ‘Seven Star Association’, if we can’t even handle such a brat, what face do we have to mix?”

“Besides, that kid doesn’t seem to be from our country, that’s like us being bullied by foreigners, how can we put up with something like that?”

However, the man from before didn’t pay any attention to him instead he continued to ask.

“What level is that person at?”

The reporting man thought for a moment and said.

“That person doesn’t seem to have exerted his full strength, however, judging from his current fighting power, he can easily defeat ‘Combined God Realm’ cultivators, so I guess he should be at the level of ‘Patriarch’.”

Hearing this guy’s words, those two chiefs both stared in surprise.

The cultivators in Korea were relatively young, and the whole country had basically no heritage in cultivation, all cultivation techniques, martial arts and so on came from outside, of which Japan was the big one they borrowed from, and another big one was China, so a ‘Sovereign’ level cultivator in Korea was already the strongest cultivator.

“‘Sovereign’, it’s a bit difficult to get a hold of!”

This guy muttered with some uncertainty in his heart.

While the other guy thought about it and said.

“No matter how difficult it is, we still have to mess with it, are we afraid of one ‘Sovereign level’, don’t we have many Sovereign level experts in the ‘Seven Star Association’ too, besides, Master Hattori is also here, and our spirit beast The ‘Fire Fox’ has also broken through again before, I don’t believe that we can’t handle such an outsider with the strength of one nation.”

When he finished, the man from before pondered, but, in the end, he thought about it and said.

“It will take about fifty minutes from Seoul to Busan, so let’s talk to the chairman and let him decide this matter.”

At this moment, the chairman of the Seven Star Association was receiving the Japanese master “Hattori Fumimasa” at the headquarters. For the Korean cultivation community, these masters from Japan were to be treated with respect, because without them, the whole Korean cultivation community could not go any further.

“Chairman, the Vice Chairman said there is something very important to report to you.”

A subordinate quickly walked up and said.

“The president of the Seven Star Association said with some impatience.

“Doesn’t he know that I have an important guest here? Why are you so unruly? What’s the big deal?”

The servant had no choice but to retreat, but in a short while, she came back and said.

“The vice president said that time is pressing and he must report to you before he can do so.”

Thus, after three tosses and turns, the president had no choice but to look at Hattori Fumimasa and say.

“Master, what do you think?”

For his part, Fumimasa Hattori smiled and said.

“Let him in, but I don’t think anything big should happen here for you, so I guess it’s just another fuss.”

In fact, Hattori Fumimasa had a point, because the Seven Stars Association was the only one in Korea, and there were no rivals, so what could happen?

The vice president then came in and gave a quick description of what had happened.

“There is such a thing?”

The president said, slightly surprised.

At that moment, that Hattori Fumimasa, however, smiled and said.

“It’s just a nameless cultivator from China, there’s no need to be so nervous, didn’t you just say that ‘Fire Fox’ has broken through, you can let Fire Fox go and clean him up later, just to see how Fire Fox’s level is now, but I feel that person shouldn’t be able to wait for Fire Fox to strike.”

“The chairman of the Seven Star Society was born with a special physique, which is very suitable for the “beast”, and the “beast” is also one of the major Japanese ninjutsu, and this time Hattori Fumimasa came to Korea because of this matter.

When he heard Hattori Fumimasa’s words, the chairman of the Seven Star Society smiled, for indeed, with Master Hattori Fumimasa around, there was no need to worry.

So he gave a quick order.

“All members who are not on a mission should go to Busan and bring the ‘Fire Fox’ here, and I will go with Master Fumimasa to help.”

“The headquarters of the Seven Stars Society was not in Seoul, but in Daejeon, the centre of Korea, so these Seven Stars Society members were much faster than Ye Lu.

Ye Lu did not know that the Seven Star Society had already started to gather in Busan. He thought that with the combat power he had shown, they would not come to stop him, because Ye Lu had also checked the situation of the Korean cultivation world in his glasses.

In fact, the actual situation was similar to what Ye Lu thought. If Hattori Fumimasa was not here, even if there was a “fire fox”, the chairman of the “Seven Star Association” would not have confronted Ye Lu, after all, there was no need to fight against a suspected “Patriarch” level passerby, it was not worth the loss and there was no point.

But now that he had a backing, things were very different.

So, when Ye Lu stepped down from the plane, he saw a rather shocking scene, because the airport was full of people, and those standing in front were all in black suits, white shirts and black ties, looking neat and tidy and in high spirits.

Behind them and around them, there were many people watching, adding up to thousands of people, but there were no media people, nor did anyone raise their mobile phones to take pictures, it seems that they were stopped by the Seven Stars Association, after all, although they also work for the officials, they are still strictly speaking from the underground world.

“Sh*t! What’s with all the fighting, what’s going on here?”

Seeing this scene, Ye Luo also had a bit of a headache.

He did not know Hattori Fumimasa, but he was very familiar with Hattori Fumimasa’s Yin Yang master look.

“Hattori Fumimasa, one of the elite of the Hattori clan, skilled in the ‘Art of Beast Mastery’, ‘Level 3 Sovereign’”

When Ye Lu saw Hattori Fumimasa, he took a look at the information about him in passing.

At this time, the president of the Seven Star Association looked at his men and said.

“Who’s going to meet this guy first?”

Immediately, one of the “Master” level fighters raised his hand and said.

“Me.”

Looking at these people, it was as if Ye Lu had already become a fish on the chopping block, waiting to be slaughtered by them.

Ye Lu smiled, then stretched out and said.

“Alright, consider this a bit of a warm-up exercise.”

However, at this moment, Ye Luo did not know that there was a not-so-subtle surprise waiting for him next.

Chapter 284

Seeing Ye Lu carrying a big parcel with a relaxed look on his back, that guy from the Seven Star Association who was about to attack was a bit furious.

“How arrogant, I’ll make you less arrogant.”

He quickly unleashed his martial arts skills and rushed like lightning to Ye Luo’s immediate vicinity, then threw a punch at Ye Luo’s chest, which was a decent punch.

“Good!”

“Beat him to death!”

“Awesome my brother!”

.....

When they saw this guy strike, all the onlookers shouted, because “master” level experts are already top level in Korea, usually people don’t often get to see such experts strike, this time they finally got to see this, everyone couldn’t help but get excited.

“Boom!”

However, following that, he was sent flying far away by Ye Lu’s light punch.

All the people who were cheering and shouting for joy stopped instantly, everyone’s mouths were open, their eyes were staring, others held their hands up, and for a while there was a silence in the arena, and the atmosphere was a little awkward.

“No way, it’s too weak!”

Ye Lu said in a very non-standard Korean language.

The Korean language and pronunciation was of course something he had gotten from the “auxiliary ability” of his glasses, and he drew from the gourd, and although his speech was not standard, he could still convey the meaning.

“So good!”

Seeing Ye Luo's clean strike, most of them showed the same expression, because Ye Luo's toughness was too much beyond their expectation.

"Who's going?"

"The president of the Seven Star Association frowned as he looked at the people around him and asked again.

This time, no one immediately responded to him, although the one who had just gone up was not a strong fighter, and was a "Level 1 Patriarch" level practitioner, but the defeat was too light, which made everyone feel unsure.

To be honest, the Seven Stars Association could not be blamed for this, because there was only one cultivation organisation in Korea, and it was too difficult for them to find someone to fight with, so they had very little real combat experience, and there was a fundamental difference between a sparring session between friends and a fight to the death, which also led to their low real combat power.

"Let me go and try."

At this time, a tall man stepped forward.

Ye Luo was in no hurry, it would take quite a while for the "ghost bats" to come over anyway, and it was much more fun to fight than to stay bored.

The tall man was a "Second Level Grandmaster", but he didn't look like a "Second Level Grandmaster", so he looked at Ye Lu with a bit of trepidation.

He had fought many second level masters before, so he did not take this guy in his eyes.

"Drink!"

This guy yelled out, as if he was emboldening himself, following which he waved the knife in his hand and charged fiercely towards Ye Luo.

As a result, Ye Lu reached out quickly and grabbed the knife in his hand with a "clang!" With a clang, he grabbed the knife in his hand and then threw a punch at the tall guy.

"Boom!"

This guy raised his hand in a hurry to block, and as a result, Ye Luo's fist hit his arm.

"Ka-ching!"

This punch then broke his arm into two.

Ye Lu was using a super high level martial art that was second only to the "Saint Level" martial art, which was something that the "Seven Star Association" would not have, because Korea did not have a cultivator base, so it was difficult to find martial arts and magic weapons in the country, and the difference was obvious from this punch.

"Go on!"

As Ye Lu said that, he kicked this guy out.

After that, Ye Luo looked at the president of the Seven Star Association and said.

“That one, you are the leader, right? Can you find two more powerful and forbidden guys to come here, these guys are too low, right, you seem to be more powerful than those two just now, maybe you.”

“The Seven Star Association’s president’s face immediately changed, but he wouldn’t really go up to fight Ye Lu, because he didn’t have any confidence.

So, he thought for a moment and said.

“Okay, in that case, I’ll find something that can fight you and meet you.”

With those words, he reached out and grabbed a bracelet he was wearing on his left hand, and right after that, a fiery red demonic beast appeared abruptly in front of Ye Lu.

It was a demonic beast that looked similar to a fox, but its form was much taller and more vicious than the fox, with a head of about two meters, its body was covered with fiery red fur like flames, and its pair of blood-red glasses were like copper bells, especially its claws like a blade and mouth full of sharp teeth, which looked exceptionally terrifying.

“A third-rank demonic beast!”

Seeing this fiery red demonic beast, Ye Lu was also taken aback, because this was actually a “Third Order Demonic Beast”, that is, a “Patriarch Level” demonic beast.

Moreover, it was a “Third Order, Third Grade” demonic beast, which was equivalent to a “Third Grade Sovereign” among humans, and its actual combat power was probably comparable to that of a “Fourth Grade Sovereign”.

“I’m afraid this guy is not easy to deal with!”

When he saw this demonic beast, Ye Lu was both surprised and a little worried.

However, what Ye Lu was more concerned about was the bracelet worn by the president of the Seven Star Association.

“Name: Spiritual Beast Bracelet, Origin: Haotian Continent, Grade: Heavenly-ranked Upper Grade Magic Treasure, Description: A special magic treasure that can store demonic beasts and spiritual beasts, with a special space, however, the space can only store things that are alive, or things whose life aura has not completely disappeared, and cannot store things that exceed the magic treasure’s tolerance range, the bracelet belongs to a special space, demonic beasts cannot grow in the space but can survive for a long time

Seeing the brief description of this thing, Ye Lu couldn’t help but mutter in his heart.

“Holy f*ck! What a great treasure!”

This was a treasure for storing and carrying demon beasts, if people from the “Beast Alliance” saw it, they would definitely be jealous, even if Ye Lu did not have a “native spirit beast” at the moment, he could not help but covet this thing.

"I wonder how big the storage space is, if it's big enough to fit all the 'Ghost Bats' in it, that would be great."

Ye Luo made calculations in his mind.

The "Ghost Bats" in Ye Lu's hand were all "Master Grade", but they were very troublesome to carry around, so he couldn't carry all of them around with him, not to mention that they were all grimacing and hideous.

So, Ye Lu licked his lips as he looked at the bracelet of the president of the "Seven Stars Association".

However, the president of the Seven Star Association misunderstood Ye Lu's meaning, and he subconsciously put his legs together and covered his buttocks.

Ye Lu looked at him and smiled, saying.

"Don't worry, I don't have any interest in your ass, the two of us will chatter about it later, after I finish this one first."

With those words, Ye Luo turned his head to look at the demonic beast "Fire Fox".

If it was a demonic beast with other attributes, Ye Lu might be very difficult to deal with, but this "Fire Fox" was of the fire attribute, and Ye Lu felt that he might not need to use his "Heaven Stealing Pill" and other cards.

"Will it work or not? I'll have to try, you do it."

Ye Luo said as he hooked his hand towards the Fire Fox.

"Ow!"

The fire fox let out a strange cry and then charged forward, the burning wave of Qi also came at the same time, Ye Lu raised his hand and punched against the claws of the fire fox, and both the man and the beast took two steps backwards.

"It doesn't look like it has a lot of strength."

Ye Luo looked at his fist and muttered to himself.

"Hoo!"

At this time, the fire fox suddenly opened its mouth and terrifying flames spat out like a fire-breather towards and enveloped Ye Lu, turning him into a man of fire.

"Huh!"

Seeing this scene, everyone was surprised.

"We've won! We've won!"

"Hahahahaha, we've won!"

"Burning him in one go, the fire fox is really powerful!"

“Of course, that’s a ‘Third Order Third Grade’, which is equivalent to a ‘Fourth Grade Sovereign’, even though it’s a recent breakthrough, it’s not something that ordinary people can deal with.”

.....

In the eyes of these people, a “third-order, third-grade” demonic beast was already an invincible existence, and even the president of the “Seven Star Association” was no match at all.

However, at this moment, the fire man suddenly spoke.

“Hey, hey, hey, hey! The ‘Beast Fire’ is just like that.”

With that, Ye Lu laughed in the flames and charged towards the fire fox.

Chapter 285

Everyone was stunned by this scene, as they could not understand why Ye Lu was not burned to death.

In fact, it was easy to understand, Ye Luo had two terrifying flames in his body, both the “Ghostly Inferno” and the “Red Lotus Flame” were terrifying flames from hell, each of which could easily burn a person to death, but Ye Luo could play around with them and use them to make pills, so Ye Luo was not afraid of flames.

For one thing, his body was extremely resistant to flames, so it would be difficult for the flames to hurt him, and for another, he had just released “Red Lotus Karma Flame” from his body to cover his whole body when the “Fire Fox” was spitting flames.

The “Red Lotus Karmic Flame” originally resembled ordinary flames, so Ye Lu took the opportunity to control the flames with his fire control martial art when he was enveloped by them, thus creating the illusion of being covered in fire.

Then, Ye Lu clenched his fist and rushed towards the “Fire Fox”.

Through the battle just now, Ye Lu had understood that this “fire fox” was good at flame attacks and not very strong in martial arts, and he could just ignore its flames, which was undoubtedly fatal to the fire fox.

“Ooh! Is this man an undead bird reborn from the fire?”

“It’s too powerful too, it can’t even burn to death.”

“What kind of person is this guy!”

Everyone was shocked by this brawny scene of Ye Luo, as Ye Luo’s blazing state looked really cool, and many women had already quickly switched from road to fan and started to have their eyes glazed over.

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

.....

The firefox could only keep spewing flames, and although these flames looked magnificent, it took a little time to break through Ye Lu's "red lotus karma fire" defense, and that time was enough for Ye Lu to beat it up.

Seeing that the "Fire Fox" was in a completely passive situation, the onlookers became even more unsettled, and they all started to talk about it.

"It looks like Lord 'Fire Fox' is finished this time."

"Yeah, it's totally not enough for the other side to fight!"

"This person is too scary."

At this moment, Ye Lu had already grabbed one of the Fire Fox's arms and slammed it to the ground like a sandbag, then rode on its body and punched it hard.

"The Fire Fox let out a miserable scream.

He did not dare to go forward, so he turned his head to Master Hattori Fumimasa.

This "Fire Fox" was a real "Third Order Third Grade" demonic beast, even though it had just broken through, it was still comparable to a "Fourth Grade Grandmaster", so it was being ravaged like a broken sack.

So, he also grabbed the bracelet on his wrist and released a demon.

This was a black cat with two tails, also a "third-order, third-grade" demon beast, which is also famous in Japan, named "Cat Again", with large, pointed ears and teeth like double-sided serrated teeth, and it walked upright on its legs, looking hideous and weird.

When he saw this "Cat Again" appear, Ye Lu decided not to play with this "Fire Fox" anymore, he just wanted to absorb a bit more while it was spitting out flames, but now it seemed that he had to do it to death.

Ye Luo took out the arrow of his "Sunset Arrow" and poked it into the chest of the fire fox, then took out a fiery red demon pellet from its body.

"Hehehe! Not bad, not bad!"

Ye Lu smiled at the demon pellet, with this, he could refine a powerful "Fire Elemental Pill", and he would be able to improve his "Red Lotus Karmic Flame".

Seeing this scene, the cat who was about to rush forward suddenly stopped in his tracks, because Hattori Fumimasa was hesitant because Ye Lu had killed the fire fox a little too easily.

He was worried that his cat would end up in the same situation.

This was his "original spirit beast" that he had carefully cultivated for a long time, and if he cultivated another one, he would have to start hatching it from a new "beast egg", and he did not have Ye Lu's ability to make "demon breeding pills" and "pet spirit pills", so it was too difficult to cultivate a demon beast from scratch.

However, while he was hesitant, Ye Lu did not hesitate. He wanted to risk killing this “cat again” because Ye Lu had seen something interesting in its profile.

This was the sixth divine beast bloodline that Ye Lu had seen, after the Four Sacred Beasts and the Candle Dragon, and it was not something that could be easily encountered.

He grinned as he rushed towards the cat again.

At this moment, all the people were looking at Hattori Fumimasa, and he was too embarrassed to back down, so he had no choice but to let the cat go on.

The cat quickly grew as big as a calf, with a purple aura, eyes like lights and a mouth full of sharp teeth, and was clearly on fire.

“Boom!”

With a vicious strike, this guy knocked Ye Lu onto his back before landing on the ground.

“Unlike the Fire Fox just now, the cat was originally good at physical attacks, with great strength, speed and powerful attacks.

Only when he saw Ye Lu being sent flying with a slap did Hattori Fumimasa breathe a sigh of relief.

He was really worried that his “Cat Again” was no match for him, but now it seemed that although his opponent was good at dealing with fire-attribute demonic beasts, his real fighting power was not too strong.

“Tear him up!”

Hattori Fumimasa looked at the cat and gave the order.

“Ow!”

The cat roared again and followed before charging forward again. Ye Luo found that these flames on his body did not do much damage to this cat again, so he simply put the flames away, however, once the flames were put away, Ye Luo’s image was a bit unsightly, as the flames just now had long ago burned all the clothes on his body.

At this moment, the upper half of Ye Lu’s body was fine, as he was wearing the “Earth Grade” protective clothing, but the lower half was not, and he was all naked, with two bare feet.

The look was bizarre in every way.

“Wow! What a majestic man.”

One woman let out an exclamation with a red face, and following that, the other women murmured.

“It’s so big.”

“Long legs too, long-legged Opa, I like it.”

“This guy is so strong.”

.....

Ye Lu could not care about this, naked or naked, he had to deal with this terrible demonic beast in front of him first, so he quickly swung the dagger in his hand and clashed with the cat's claws.

The cat was now covered in purple and black, emitting light, and was itself like a living magic weapon, so it didn't even take the dagger in Ye Lu's hand seriously.

However, immediately afterwards, it realised that it was wrong, the dagger easily poked through its defences, followed by a smooth slash, and two of its fingers were sliced off.

After slicing off two of its fingers, Ye Luo waved his dagger again and poked at it, using the "Heart Piercing Stab", Ye Luo actually wanted to learn a more advanced dagger martial skill, but there was too much to do and he didn't have time to learn it.

"Snort!"

"Snort!"

"Snort!"

.....

Purple blood splashed, however, Ye Lu did not attack the opponent's heart, because he did not want to kill this "cat again", this thing still has a great use.

"Wow!"

"How did it get like this again."

"It looks like that cat is going to be finished."

.....

Everyone was talking at the sight of this scene.

He felt like this was a roller coaster ride, one moment full of hope, then instant disappointment, and then the cycle again, just now he thought the cat would have the upper hand, but in the blink of an eye he was at a disadvantage in front of his opponent's terrible dagger.

"What kind of weapon is that? It's too strong."

Hattori Fumasa looked at Ye Lu's hand with some emotion, but at that moment, Ye Lu turned to him with a grin and said.

"Hey, hey, it's your turn next."

Chapter 286

Of course, Ye Lu was not joking with Hattori Fumimasa when he said this, because Ye Lu needed the bracelet on Hattori Fumimasa's wrist to hold this "cat again", and of course, he also wanted the more advanced "magic treasure" in the hands of the chairman of the "Seven Star Association".

The introduction of this item said that it was a “magic treasure” and not a “magic weapon”, which meant that it was a level higher than a “magic weapon”, and it was a treasure that Ye Lu had to get.

Seeing Ye Lu’s slightly cruel smile, Hattori Fumimasa’s heart shivered, because Ye Lu’s strong performance from the beginning made him feel very uncertain.

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

“Snort!”

“Snort!”

.....

The “cat again” was quickly beaten to death, lying on the ground without any ability to attack.

Ye Luo, whose body was covered in purple blood, turned his head to look at Hattori Fumimasa and grinned with his teeth.

Following that, he rushed forward like a whirlwind.

“Go, go, stop him quickly quickly”

When he saw this scene, Hattori Fumimasa shouted in a panic, two “third rank and third grade” demonic beasts were killed by Ye Lu, he did not think he could be more powerful than the “fire fox” and “cat again”.

The same Seven Star Association’s leader also shouted.

Numerous men in black took out their weapons and rushed towards Ye Luo to stop him.

“Hahahahaha!”

Ye Luo laughed wildly.

“Come on, I’d like to see which stinky fish can stop me.”

Following that, Ye Luo used his “Mixed Element Vajra Body” to swing his fist like a mountain overturning the sea and charged towards the crowd surrounding him.

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

.....

One by one, the members of the “Seven Star Association” were sent flying by Ye Luo. The only “Third Level Grandmaster” of the “Seven Star Association” was their president, and the strongest of the others were only “First Level Grandmasters” and “Second Level Grandmasters”.

“This is going to be the end.”

Seeing Ye Luo attacking like no one else under the siege of thousands of people, Hattori Fumimasa was already scared out of his wits by Ye Luo’s god-like appearance.

“Run!”

Seeing this scene, Hattori Fumimasa turned around and ran, he did not want to be carried in this foreign country.

However, he could run, but the chairman of the Seven Star Association could not run away, no matter what, he also represented the entire Korean cultivation community, if he also ran away, then the entire Korean cultivation community would lose face.

However, when he saw Ye Lu knocking everyone away or to the ground with one punch, the chairman of the Seven Star Association was really at a loss.

“The Seven Star Association represented the entire Korean cultivation community, and now the entire Korean cultivation community had been trampled under the feet of this man in front of him, and he was trampled to death, with no chance of resistance.

“Boom!”

Once again, Ye Lu knocked the guy in front of him away, and then walked to a place not far from the president of the Seven Star Association.

“You can surrender, I won’t embarrass you too much, but there is one condition.”

Ye Luo looked at the Seven Star Association’s president and shook his fist.

Seeing that the two demonic beasts had been crippled, that Master Hattori Fumimasa from Japan had run away, and that his own men were no match for him, the Seven Star Association’s chairman had long since lost his desire to fight, so he looked at Ye Lu and said with a sigh.

“Okay, I’ll listen to you, tell me, what are the conditions?”

He felt that Ye Lu would definitely put forward a very harsh condition.

Following that, Ye Luo nodded and said.

“Good, my condition is simple, that is, give me that bracelet of yours and this matter will be over.”

Hearing Ye Luo’s condition, the president couldn’t believe his ears, because this condition was nothing to him, because for one thing, in his opinion, the “Spirit Beast Bracelet” was technically a storage device, only that it didn’t hold anything, but something like a demonic beast.

The biggest advantage of the “spirit beast bracelet” is that it can carry one’s own spirit beast at all times, which is very concealable and very convenient.

However, this kind of thing is not very useful to the president of the Seven Star Association, because in Korea, he does not have to hide any demonic beasts, that is his territory.

Secondly, his “original spirit beast” had already died and he had no spirit beast left, so what was the use of having this “spirit beast bracelet”, so it would be better to give it to Ye Lu.

So, he immediately said.

“Okay, I’ll give it to you.”

After saying that, he took off the bracelet and handed it to one of his men and told him to bring it to Ye Lu. Ye Lu did not ask him how to use the bracelet, but took it and walked towards the “cat again”.

After that, Ye Lu asked for a set of clothes from one of the guys beside him, collected the cat again, and then walked outside the airport.

Everyone looked at his back with awe.

The battle just now had made it clear to everyone that this unknown teenager had already trampled the entire Korean cultivation community underfoot.

After leaving the airport, Ye Luo quickly entered the alleyway and started circling around the city, while putting on a new make-up. Although there was no media and no video recording was allowed, and it was a scandal for the Seven Stars Society, no one would publicise it, Ye Luo decided to be cautious in order to be able to smuggle himself across the border.

If this were his own business, it would be fine, but this was a matter of Lin Danni’s life, and Ye had promised Qin Shiyu that he would bring Lin Danni back.

After that, he started to look for a smuggling ship to leave for Japan. Busan was close to Fukuoka after all, so Ye Lu’s next stop was Fukuoka in Japan.

It didn’t take long to find the smuggler’s boat, but of course money makes the devil go round, and Ye Lu paid a lot of money to have the boat take him there.

The next step was to wait for the “ghost bats” to meet up with him, but of course Ye Lu did not want to delay in this short period of time, so he found a secluded place and started to make the “Fire Pill”, the demon pills of this fire fox could not be wasted.

Although Huo Huan had a background, but after all, her cultivation level was too low, and it was still quite difficult to get the demon pellet of a “third-rank demon beast” at this stage, not to mention that it was even more difficult to get the specified fire attribute demon pellet, so the demon pellet of the fire fox was precious to Ye Lu.

Of course, before refining the elixir, Ye Lu first claimed the “magic treasure”, in fact, with the level of the “Seven Star Association” president is unable to claim the “magic treasure”, this is also the reason why Ye Lu directly got the “spirit beast bracelet” before he could use it.

After acknowledging the ownership, Ye Lu found out that this thing was really very powerful, worthy of being a “Heavenly Grade magic treasure”, the space inside was huge, and the number of demon beasts that could be accommodated was also huge.

However, this was also very satisfying for Ye Lu, as a “magic treasure” was something that could only be used by cultivators at the “Jindan Realm”, so it was too easy to contain the “demon bats” that were only at the lower level of the “Foundation Establishment Realm”, and there was no need to worry about fitting all the “demon bats” in.

“Hahahahaha! What a big treasure!”

Ye Luo couldn't help but laugh happily as he put the bracelet on his wrist.

While Ye Lu was making the “Fire Pill”, Hattori Fumimasa had already flown back to Japan on a special plane, and he quickly found the Hattori family's patriarch.

“Did you just say that the ‘cat again’ given to you by the family died?”

The Hattori family patriarch asked, looking at Fumimasa Hattori with a frown.

The cat with two tails was a very famous demon beast in Japan, but most people had only heard legends about them, and very few had actually been able to get one, not to mention the cat's egg, which was hatched into a natural spirit beast, which showed the importance that the Hattori family attached to Fumimasa Hattori.

Seeing the patriarch's displeasure, Hattori Fumimasa hurriedly told the patriarch the whole story.

As a result, the patriarch looked at him and said coldly.

“Make it up, you keep making it up, did you give the cat to the Miyamoto family's lady again, before our ‘Hattori Five’ died in China, so, you made up such a story about a Chinese teenager.”

Hattori Fumimasa said as he felt waved his hand.

“No, no, there really was a terrifying teenager who just couldn't be burned by ‘beast fire’ and could cut off ‘Catamaru's’ fingers with one blow to break through his defenses”

Hattori Fumimasa did his best to excuse himself.

However, the patriarch of the Hattori family had slammed the table and roared.

“Bullsh*t, total bullsh*t, do you think I have a low IQ very low to believe the bullsh*t you say, take him to the confinement cell for me, after three days, I will ask you again, and I hope you won't talk nonsense again.”

After saying that he waved his hand casually.

Hattori Fumimasa knew the patriarch's style and he didn't dare say anything, but kept muttering in his mind.

“What I said is true, it's all true, really”

Chapter 287

After sending Hattori Fumimasa into confinement, the Hattori family's patriarch, the current Hattori Hanzo, muttered somewhat glumly as he looked out the window.

“So many shinobi have died in China, what the hell is the ‘Yin Yang Liao’ doing?”

The Hattori family didn’t really know what the Yin Yang Liao was up to, they were just following the Liao’s plans, so he didn’t know anything about the Sake Swallow Boy.

Then he waved his hand and said to one of his subordinates.

“What’s the status of the enquiry? Is it true that a woman from China has come from the ‘Yin Yang Riao’ side?”

The subordinate nodded respectfully and said.

“Yes, I have checked it out, and the matter is indeed true, it seems to be used as a hostage to get a woman from China to come to our place.”

Hattori Hanzo then took a sip of his tea and continued to ask.

“Do you know where this woman is from?”

The subordinate then said again.

“We have checked, but it is not clear yet, it is said that there is nothing wrong with this woman or her background, it is the other woman that is the key.”

“I haven’t been able to inquire particularly well either, it is said to be related to the ‘Ancestral Dragon’, or perhaps to the ‘Orochi Snake’, but it’s not very certain, besides, I heard that the suspected ‘Ancestor Dragon’ woman killed the genius of the Abe family, ‘Yasuhiko Abe’, and I guess that was one of the reasons.”

Hearing this subordinate finish, Hattori Hanzo then nodded and said.

“Well, anyway, let’s do what the ‘Yin Yang Riao’ side says, but what we did this time was really out of the bushido spirit.”

As a result, the subordinate of his said with a smile.

“What the patriarch-sama said is true, but the adults in the shin yang liao were not originally samurai either, so they don’t have to practice the spirit of bushido, do they?”

Hearing this subordinate’s words, Hattori Hanzo also laughed.

After all the “ghost bats” had arrived, Ye Lu fed them once again, mainly the leaders, who were not far from breaking through again.

After that, Ye Luo took these ghost bats on board the stowaway ferry.

At the end of the night, Ye Lu took the Tower of Souls and all the Ghost Niches, as well as countless other Ghost Bats, and set off for the mainland of Japan.

After disembarking in Fukuoka Prefecture, Ye Lu put all the “Ghost Bats” into his “Spirit Beast Bracelet” and headed for the Fukuoka Shinkansen station with a large package on his back.

“The city of Kyoto was the capital of Japan more than a hundred years ago, and this was also the period when the Yin Yang Guild and the yin yang masters were at their peak, with the emergence of the most powerful yin yang master in history, Haruaki Abe.

Even though many years had passed, the influence of the yin and yang masters had remained.

Ye Lu certainly had his own set of identity, his name was now Ye Zhiqiu, a foreign student who had come to Japan from China and was studying at Kyoto University in Japan, majoring in the Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences.

As for the Japanese language, he had been practising the fifty-syllable diagram before, but after the transformation of his body, especially with the coalescence of his aura, his brain had also become quite agile, so it was not difficult to learn.

The first and most important thing he had to do this time was to find a way to rescue Lin Danni first, everything else would have to wait until this was done.

Ye Lu bought a ticket for a free seat and chose to go up the last carriage, then slowly walked towards the front of the car.

To save people, one had to be wise, so Ye Lu had to find a suitable breakthrough to do so.

When he reached the fifth carriage, Ye Lu finally found the person he needed, a “Yin Yang Sheng” from the “Yin Yang Liao”.

Apart from the four chiefs, namely the chief, the second officer, the judge, and the master, there were only two types of people, the “Yin Yang master” and the “Yin Yang student”, and of course the division of labour was completely different from the real “Yin Yang squad”.

The “Yin-Yang Masters” were those who studied Yin-Yang techniques, while the “Yin-Yang Students” were not only responsible for the study of Yin-Yang techniques, but also for the day-to-day affairs of the “Yin-Yang Squad”, such as contacting the major ninja training clans, the daily expenses of the “Yin-Yang Squad”, the selection and recruitment of “Yin-Yang Masters”, and of course, many other unseen activities, which were all done by these “Yin-Yang Students”.

Ye Lu found out from the profile of this “Yin Yang student” that he was currently looking for suitable materials for his experiments, or to put it bluntly, he was looking for suitable people to test a Yin Yang technique called “Ghoul Forbidden Technique”.

Although Ye Lu did not know what kind of yin and yang technique this “Corpse Ghost Forbidden Art” was, it sounded scary, so I guess it would be bad luck if you don’t test it.

However, this was a good opportunity to get close to the “Yin Yang Liao”.

So, Ye Lu sat down next to this guy and talked to him.

“Ye Zhiqiu, you’re a foreign student, I didn’t know that you speak Japanese so well, you’re just like a local.”

When he heard that Ye Lu was a foreign student, this guy immediately turned interested.

Ye Luo then smiled and said.

“I can’t help it, because I’m poor, so I want to learn Japanese well so I can earn some money to cover my tuition and daily expenses.”

The other party heard Ye Lu’s words and immediately asked.

“Are you working alone? Don’t you have any other students or anything?”

Ye Lu smiled and said.

“Yes, I’m alone, too poor, I’ve taken a small leave with the school to earn some money first, now I can only call home once a month, I can only tighten my belt to live.”

Hearing Ye Luo finish, this guy’s interest grew even more, he looked at Ye Luo and said with a smile.

“Perhaps it’s our fate that you met me, Abe Yasuyu, today, because I’m looking for someone to do a short-term part-time job.”

Ye Luo then looked at him and said with a smile.

“Your name is ‘Abe Yasuyu’, you’re not a descendant of the great yin and yang master ‘Abe Haruaki’, are you? I’m a fan of his!”

As a result, the one called Abe Yasuyu smiled very mysteriously and said.

“I am indeed the descendant of Master Abe, moreover, Lord Abe is not actually dead oh!”

To be honest, this statement took Ye Lu by surprise, Abe Haruaki was a great yin and yang master who lived in the middle of the Heian period around 1000 A.D. If Abe Haruaki was still alive, wouldn’t that be an old monster who had lived for a thousand years.

If he was still alive, Ye Lu’s plan to wreck the “Yin Yang Laos” would probably go bankrupt, and if he was sitting in the “Yin Yang Laos”, it would be difficult for Ye Lu to save him.

So, Ye Luo said without moving his voice.

“How is that possible? Can a person live that long? Wouldn’t that be a god.”

That Abe Yasuyu laughed and said.

“Of course not living to come now, when I say he is not dead, I mean he is still in a deep sleep and has been sleeping for hundreds of years, the temporary helper we got this time is also a research to help the ancestor of Qingming to come back to life, if you are lucky, this time you might be able to see the moment when a miracle is born.”

It looked like that Abe Yasuyu had already classified Ye Lu as one of them by default.

Ye Luo had no problem with this, as he smiled and said.

“That’s certainly great, but as for the reward, you know I’m a poor man and can’t just live on ideals and idols, right?”

As a result, Yasuhito Abe said with a smile.

“Of course the pay is extremely generous, after all, we are working in the ‘Yin Yang Rao’, don’t worry, I’ll pay you five thousand yen an hour, what do you think?”

Five thousand an hour was about three hundred dollars an hour, and if you worked eight hours a day, that was over two thousand four hundred, which was five times the hourly rate of the average job in Japan, which was already very tempting.

Ye Luo’s eyes widened in feigned surprise, then he stammered a little and said.

“Yes, yes, but, I would like to ask, how long will this job last?”

Abe said with a smile.

“It’s hard to say, don’t worry, at least a week is there, food and accommodation are in our ‘Yin Yang Laos’, and you are counted as working twenty-four hours a day, how about that?”

Leaffall said loudly with a clap of his hands.

“Great!”

At this moment, he realized that there was a saying that “life is like a play, it all depends on acting”, and Ye Lu gave himself a perfect score for this part of his performance.

“Well then, let’s go to the ‘Yin Yang Riao’.”

Abe Yasuyu said with satisfaction.

Chapter 288

He also wanted to take a look at the “Yin Yang Laos” first, as the saying goes, it is not wise to barge in and save people as it is not wise to know one’s enemy.

In fact, Ye Lu also wanted to inquire about the basic situation inside the Yin Yang Laos, but that would undoubtedly reveal his identity as a practitioner, so he thought about it and said tentatively.

“Master Abe, is it true that there are many masters in the Yin Yang Laos?”

Yasuyu Abe then said with a smile.

“Of course, there are many masters in the Yin Yang Way, one of the most famous schools in Japan, but there has not been a ‘Saint’ for many years.”

Hearing that there was no “Saint”, Ye Lu was relieved. If he had all his cards at his disposal, he would have no problem dealing with “Grand Masters”, but against “Saints”, Ye Lu felt that it would be difficult.

However, Ye Lu was a bit curious about the other meaning of this guy’s words, so he looked at Abe Jing Yu and asked.

“You just said that Yin Yang Dao is the most famous school, but not the strongest school, meaning that there is another more powerful school?”

Abe Yasuyu said with a smile.

“Of course, because the strongest in Japan has always been the ‘Shinto’, just look at all the shrines and you will understand, each type of shrine has its own Shinto, and each Shinto is worshipped by many people, and these are the strongest in Japan.”

To be honest, Ye Luo had heard about the “shrines” and “Shinto shrines” in Japan, but it was only that, he couldn’t even see them in the mist, so he didn’t understand how strong they really were, but Ye Luo felt that most of them were similar to the “clan world” in China.

However, even if they were really something weird, Ye Lu decided not to change his plan.

So, Ye Lu followed this Abe Yasuyu to the “Yin Yang Liao”.

After going there, Ye Lu found out that it was just as he thought, the real core of the “Yin Yang Laos” was also in a small secret realm.

Beyond the secret realm was the “Yin Yang Laos” that everyone could see, a historical-looking complex that was the former site of the Yin Yang Laos more than a thousand years ago.

After entering the secret realm, Ye Luo saw many Yin Yang masters wearing tall hats and Yin Yang students like Abe Yasuyu.

Pretending not to know about Abe’s plot, Ye Luo greeted the people he met in a friendly manner.

However, the expressions of these Yin Yang masters and also the Yin Yang students were indifferent, presumably because they felt that there was nothing to say to a dead person.

While greeting everyone, Ye Luo was flying around and observing the situation around him.

This secret realm of the Yin Yang Liao was not very big, only about a few kilometres in size, and most of them were buildings, arranged very densely, so Ye Lu couldn’t figure out where Lin Danni was being held for a while.

However, Ye Lu would not blindly follow this guy, as he was only a cultivator at the Innate Breath Realm, so from the moment he saw him, Ye Lu was using his “ghost technique” to slowly control him.

Of course, since Ye Lu did not have the bloodline of a heavenly beast like the Lin family, it was very difficult to use the “ghost technique”, so it was impossible to completely control Abe Jingyu, but it was still possible to hypnotize him for a short period of time.

Soon, Ye Lu was taken to a large house.

“Wait here with them for now, that is the house you belong to, number 9527, if you need anything you can find me.”

Having said that, Yasuyuki Abe left straight away.

And a kind-looking middle-aged man came over and looked at Ye Lu and said.

“Little brother, why didn’t they take away your luggage?”

Ye Luo then smiled and said.

“Guess it’s because they think I’m more handsome looking.”

After saying that, he put his things in his room first, and then walked out with an imperial green jade bracelet and the “burin gold pen”.

In the hall were long tables and chairs, a place for everyone to rest.

Ye Luo drew the ‘tool pattern’ on the bracelet while talking to the man who was also sitting there.

“Are you also here because you are short of money?”

The middle-aged man who had just come over looked at Ye Lu and asked.

Ye Luo nodded and said.

“Yes, otherwise who would come here? Are all the people who came in from outside here?”

The middle-aged man nodded and said.

“I guess so, those who came with me are all here anyway, I’ve been here for five days, but I’ve never been allowed to participate in the trials, and anyway, that person in charge said that the money was paid as it was, so I didn’t bother.”

Leaffall then thought to himself.

“When they do let you take part in the trial, I guess it will be the time of your death.”

After talking to him, it seemed that no one here knew anything about the “Yin Yang Squatter” and no one knew where the prisoners would be held.

Ye Lu was in no hurry, as there were still two days left, and he felt that he would still have a chance to save them.

Ye Lu’s plan now was to get the storage bracelets ready first, as the “ghost niches” he was carrying were too large. Neither the “Burning Heavenly Furnace” nor the “Ruler’s Square Bracelet” of the “Upper Mortal Grade” could hold the several “ghost niches”, so Ye Lu had to get a larger storage bracelet ready first.

These two bracelets had been drawn by Ye Lu for a long time on the road, but the most difficult part remained, which Ye Lu had not drawn until now, because the road was too bumpy, and the drawing of such “weapon patterns” could not be a problem at all, so Ye Lu only started to draw them now.

Soon, the most crucial section was also finished.

“Let’s see how it goes.”

Ye Lu poured his aura into the emerald bracelets, and sure enough, a separate space appeared in both bracelets, just like the secret realm, this space was about a meter long, wide and high.

“Finally, it’s done, a ‘Xuan rank lower grade’ storage bracelet.”

Ye Luo looked at the space in the bracelet with a sense of achievement as well.

“Could those so-called ‘secret realms’ have been opened up using this method as well, an incomparably huge storage artifact.”

However, Ye Lu quickly denied this idea, because he didn't see anything like a "pattern of laws" in the vicinity of the secret realm, so most of them had been opened up by other means.

In any case, Ye Lu decided to take care of the "ghost niche" and other things first, and guessed that the guy he had just hypnotised would figure it out in a short while.

Sure enough, in a short while, that Abe came over again and found a reason to take away all of Ye Lu's luggage.

Ye Luo then quietly waited for his chance, and sure enough, after another moment, a male attendant with an even lower cultivation level, this guy only had a Houtian cultivation level.

"That's him, this one is easy to handle."

Ye Lu didn't dare to use "soul search" on this guy because Ye Lu's "soul search" was not perfect, after using "soul search" this guy would definitely become an idiot, so he could only hypnotize him.

It's a kind of "Ghost Art", which is a system of its own and is indeed very powerful. It's a pity that Ye Lu doesn't have the Ghost Technique or the Ghost Bloodline, so it's too difficult to perform it, but it's easy to deal with Houtian practitioners.

So, Ye Lu took the opportunity of chatting to hypnotise this guy, and sure enough, although this guy's cultivation level was very low, he had been working in the "Yin Yang Liao" for a long time, so he was familiar with everything here, including where Lin Danni was being held, he knew everything.

Ye Lu was quite satisfied with this result. After learning this information, Ye Lu waited quietly until after midnight, and then Ye Lu made his move.

He first hypnotised the caretaker just now and had him take himself out.

Then, Ye Lu found a corner and released "Cat Again", who had not yet recovered and was still in a dying state.

"Little Tailed Beast, I'm sorry, just die, who let you have too little bloodline power."

As he said that, Ye Lu bit down on the neck of the cat and started to drink the blood, this was the interior of the "Yin Yang Liao", Ye Lu did not dare to barge in, because he could go out, but Lin Danni could not stand such a torment.

Sure enough, after losing a lot of blood, "Cat Again" finally died.

Ye Luo hid the corpse and then started to use the "Cat Again", or to be precise, the "Nine Lives Cat Demon" ability, the name of which was "Transformation", and he slowly turned into the appearance of Abe Yasuyu, as he had quietly cut off a lock of his hair when he was in contact with him.

Following this, Ye Lu walked boldly to the place where Lin Danni was being held.

"Lord Magistrate wants to arraign this prisoner, let me bring him over."

Ye Luo looked at the guard and said calmly.

This guard was just sleeping, and seeing that it was Abe Yasuyu he opened the door in a daze and brought Ye Lu in, and sure enough, Lin Danni was in the house.

However, just as Ye Lu was about to take Lin Danni away, the guard stretched his back and then looked at Ye Lu and said.

“I almost forgot, the password!”

Hearing this guy’s words, Ye Lu was really confused, he didn’t think that he would even need a password.

Chapter 289

So, Leaffall thought for a moment and said.

“There’s no need for a password, how can it be okay within us, is there a need to make it so serious.”

With those words, Ye Luo was ready to take Lin Danni and leave.

However, the guard reached out to stop Ye Lu and said.

“Jing Yu, familiarity is familiarity, but rules are rules, one size fits all, it’s just a matter of a few words anyway, you’re not hiding anything from me, are you?”

“Besides, you also understand that for things like entering and leaving the ‘Yin Yang Laos’ and arraigning important prisoners, no one would dare to let anyone go without an order from the ‘Judge’ himself.”

The “Judge” was one of the four chiefs of the “Yin Yang Squad” and was responsible for attendance, night duty and various other daily affairs within the squad.

Of course, Ye Lu smiled and said graciously.

“I’m not hiding anything from you, it’s just a password, what’s the big deal? Then you listen.”

As Ye Luo said that, he looked at the guard and cleared his throat and took a pose to prepare to say the “password”.

But what the hell did he know about the password?

The guard waited quietly for Ye Lu’s password.

“Our password is, ‘password your sister’!”

Ye Luo looked at this guy and said.

This guy was immediately confused, but just as his brow was furrowed, Ye Lu suddenly struck out, and with a quick strike, the “Heart Piercing Stab” of the “Sunset Arrow” pierced the guy’s throat with one blow. “He fell to the ground with a thud! He fell to the ground with a thud.

Blood splattered all over the ground.

Seeing this scene, this time it was Lin Danni’s turn to be confused, she didn’t understand why such a scene had occurred at all, she didn’t know this Abe Jingyu well at all, why would he help himself?

“I’m Ye Lu, I’m transformed now, I’m here to save you, hurry up and come with me.”

Ye Luo briefly explained before leading Lin Danni towards the outside.

“You you are Ye Luo?”

Lin Danni asked with some surprise.

Ye Lu nodded, then said in a small voice.

“It’s a long story, I’ll explain it to you carefully when I get out, it’s too dangerous here.”

The two of them walked towards the entrance of the Yin Yang Laogai, but when they passed by one of the houses of the Yin Yang Laogai, Ye Lu changed his mind, because this place was written as the place where the various medicines of the Yin Yang Laogai were stored.

Many yin and yang masters use “summoning gods” as their main form of combat, so Ye Lu felt that there might be something here that could cultivate “gods”, and Ye Lu had a “drink swallow boy” in his hand, which was a type of god, and was in desperate need of another increase in combat power.

“Maybe there’s something here that can take the ‘Saketon Boy’ to the next level.”

After thinking about it, Ye Lu went around to the back of the house and used the arrow of the “Sunset Arrow” to cut a hole in the corner and went inside.

He took a look at the basic conditions and then put them all into another bracelet.

Luckily, he had his own storage bracelet on him, and Ye Luo filled it up quickly, but then he saw a bottle that was placed independently, and looking at the location this thing should be something quite precious here, as it was protected very tightly and covered by a shiny metal cover.

However, even the hardest metal cover could not stop the arrow of the “Sunset Arrow”, and Ye Lu easily cut the metal cover and put the precious bottle away.

“This is a bit like the ‘Sun Wukong throwing the Immortal Pill of the Supreme Lord’!”

Ye Lu almost laughed out loud with this collection, however, now was not the time, what he had to do now was to hurry up and leave from this damn place.

Following that, Ye Luo then led Lin Danni towards the entrance, Ye Luo’s plan was to use a similar method to the one he had just used to break out directly since.

However, once he reached the entrance, Ye Lu saw that his plan was in jeopardy.

There was not just one guard at the entrance, but four guards, and what was even worse was that the level of the guards was quite low, all four of them were at the level of “Third Grade Master”, and they seemed to be taking this entrance and exit quite seriously.

However, the problem was that they would definitely make a lot of noise, and it was inevitable that they would be chased by the “Yin Yang Liao” people, and most of Lin Danni would die.

“I still have to get the password.”

Ye Luo looked around and started to think about it.

Following that, he focused his attention on Lin Danni's body.

"Lin Danni, do you want to go out?"

Ye Luo looked at her and asked very seriously.

Lin Danni nodded mechanically and didn't say anything as she was a bit baffled by Ye Luo's question, but then, following that, Ye Luo continued.

"Alright then, then you have to bear the pain, I want to drink your blood."

The moment he saw Lin Danni, Ye Lu was surprised to find that the hidden bloodline of the Lin family's "Xuan Wu divine Beast" that he had been looking for for a long time was in Lin Danni's body.

"Yes okay"

Lin Danni hesitated for a moment, but finally nodded her head.

Ye Lu didn't hesitate either, because he didn't know how long the "Nine Lives Cat Demon's" divine ability would last. He quickly bit Lin Danni's neck, and then began to drink Lin Danni's blood.

Lin Danni gritted her teeth to prevent herself from making a sound, but soon Ye Lu nailed her acupuncture points and the pain disappeared instantly.

"Just grab this one."

After sucking Lin Danni's learning, Ye Luo quickly targeted a target, also a Yin Yang student of the Xiantian realm, because in the "Yin Yang Liao", all kinds of affairs were mainly taken care of by Yin Yang students, so they knew more.

This time, it was close to the exit anyway, so Ye Luo directly used the "soul search".

"The password is 'If the God of Style doesn't die, Yin and Yang will not stop', it looks like they really care about the 'God of Style'! Why don't I learn it too?"

In Ye Lu's "martial arts ability", there was also a "spell" called "summoning technique", which was similar to the "style god summoning" used by yin and yang masters, and the thing summoned was related to the level of the caster, the power of the bloodline and many other factors.

Of course, now was not the time to use the summoning technique, one had to leave this hellish place first.

So, Ye Luo took Lin Danni and headed towards the door.

Sure enough, he was stopped by those four men from the other side before he could reach the door.

"Stand still, muzzle!"

One of the guys looked at Ye Luo and said seriously.

Ye Luo looked at the other guy's guarded stance and nodded, he didn't expect the guards here to be really upright, but Ye Luo wasn't worried, he had the password in place anyway.

So, he smiled and said.

“I’m taking someone out on an errand, the password is ‘If the god of style doesn’t die, yin and yang don’t stop’, now is that alright!”

Ye Lu thought to himself, “Now that I have the password in hand, what am I afraid of.

However, immediately after that, he saw that the faces of the other four people had changed, and they all drew the weapons they carried at the same time, and started to look at Ye Luo intently, as if Ye Luo was an enemy.

“Shit! This is all a gross situation?”

Ye Luo looked at the four people opposite him with some confusion in his heart, looking at the situation he must have been exposed.

Following that, he saw that Lin Danni beside him was also looking at himself with a surprised face.

He quickly touched his face, and then he realized that at this crucial moment, the “Nine Lives Cat Demon” had disappeared, and he had changed back to his original appearance.

“No wonder these guys had such an expression on their faces, it’s a big deal!”

After understanding what had happened, Ye Lu fiercely revealed a horrified expression, then pointed at Lin Danni and said.

“She she she knows demon magic, I am controlled by her, catch her quickly.”

Hearing Ye Lu’s words, the four guards were once again confused, they were a little confused as to what was going on and how “demon magic” was involved.

The four of them quickly turned their heads to look at Lin Danni.

However, at this instant, Ye Lu’s “Ghost Shadow Step” and “Candle Dragon Finger” struck at the same time, together with the “Burning Heavenly Fury” after the fusion of flames.

“Snort!”

At the moment when the opponent was dazed, Ye Lu’s finger had already poked one of the guards, and the purple fire energy flew along the meridians and entered this guy’s heart veins.

“This has come to an end, we can only do it!”

Ye Luo looked at the three remaining guys and silently gritted his teeth.

Chapter 290

The other three of the four were stunned by the scene in front of them because, to be honest, none of them expected Ye Lu to be able to poke one of them to death with one finger.

As guards at the entrance, they were people who thought highly of themselves, and their level of “Third Grade Master” was enough to give them confidence in the secular world.

But to be poked to death by a finger in such a light manner was a bit unacceptable to everyone.

“Brush!”

However, the three men were obviously well-trained and good fighters, they would not be afraid or flee just because of this point, the three of them acted cleanly and quickly struck out at Ye Lu.

The dagger in Ye Lu’s hand easily cut off the katana in one of the guys’ hands, feeling like cutting vegetables. The body fell to the ground with a loud thud.

The body fell to the ground with a loud thud. Ye Lu already rushed towards the third man, and his move was the “Heart Piercing Stab”.

The scene just now had surprised the two remaining men too much.

“What kind of weapon is that in his hand?”

Both of them looked at the “Sunset Arrow” arrow in Ye Lu’s hand with some emotion.

The material of these magic weapons were quite strong, otherwise they would not be able to withstand the artifact patterns on the magic weapons. Moreover, the level of the magic weapons mostly came from the level of the artifact patterns on the magic weapons, not the material used to make the magic weapons.

Therefore, many “katanas” were actually mass-produced and then classified into “Mortal Grade”, “Xuan Grade” and “Earth Grade” according to the “artifact pattern” on them, which meant that in terms of material, this katana was already top-notch, and he had never heard of such a katana being able to be easily cut.

Seeing that Ye Lu’s “Heart Piercing Stab” was coming at him aggressively, the shinobi quickly thrust his sword at Ye Lu’s throat, as the length of the katana was much longer than the dagger, and if he attacked, Ye Lu’s throat would be pierced before his dagger could touch his opponent.

However, before his blade could reach Ye Lu’s face, Ye Lu changed his stance again, sidestepping the blade and throwing a finger.

The sight of Ye Lu stabbing the guard to death with one finger had left a deep impression on the guard, so he did not dare to respond to the finger head-on, but before he could react, the accident happened again.

However, before he could react, an accident happened again. Ye Lu’s finger did not arrive, but a purple fire bomb shot out from his finger like a bullet.

“They had never seen such a “spell” before, so there was no surprise as he subconsciously dodged it, but the terrifying purple fire bomb still penetrated his body.

“Snort!”

After the fire bomb pierced through his body, it poked deeply into the wall again, thus it could also be seen how terrifyingly destructive this purple flame was.

“Nani!”

The last guard was already stunned by what had just happened, this inexplicable guy was too terrifying too, three strikes in the blink of an eye, killing three guards.

Each guard was killed with a single blow, this combat power was simply unbelievable.

However, without allowing him to think, Ye Lu had already rushed towards him, while signalling for Lin Danni to quickly move towards the entrance and prepare to leave this small secret realm.

Lin Danni was unsure, but, nonetheless, she ran towards the entrance very cooperatively, and at the same time as he started to run wildly, Ye Luo also rushed towards the entrance.

The last guard of course would not leave the two people alone, his duty was to guard the door, so he quickly crossed his sword and stopped in front of the door, but at this time, Ye Lu struck again, this time it was no longer a “fire bomb spell”, but an upgraded version of the “fire ball spell”.

Seeing the football ball-sized purple fireball arrive in front of him like lightning, this guy quickly swung his sword, but as his sword touched the purple fireball, the fireball “bang!” It exploded with a bang.

Purple flames instantly enveloped the guy’s body.

Ye Lu didn’t care about him, he reached out and grabbed Lin Danni and rushed straight out of the small secret realm of the Yin Yang Laos, and then, he rushed out towards the outside of the Yin Yang Laos.

Ye Luo did not expect the killing of the four guards to go so smoothly, he was really worried that it would take a lot of trouble and it would be really bad if he was trapped.

“Let’s go, I’ll take you to someone who can protect you.”

Ye Lu thought Lin Danni’s speed was too slow, so he picked her up and ran towards the city of Kyoto.

He had already contacted the Shadow of Death organization in Japan, and since the Yakuza had people in China, the Shadow of Death must also have people in Japan.

Otherwise, if he was not a member of the Shadow of Death and did not have Darkness Points in his hand, even if he was a Blood Shadow Shura, he would not be able to directly use the power of the seven organizations, because the Underworld had its own rules.

Tu Chen was one of the witnesses to the massacre in the capital, and Qin Shiyu was also protected by his men, so he also felt that he should take some responsibility for the capture of Lin Danni, so he agreed to help quite quickly.

At this moment, Ye Lu was sending Lin Danni to the “Shadow of Death” organization, otherwise he would have taken Lin Danni to take revenge, Lin Danni would definitely drag his feet.

“Listen to me, don’t move, someone will come to pick you up later.”

Ye Lu looked at Lin Danni and said.

Lin Danni nodded, then looked at Ye Lu with some worry and said.

“Ye Luo, where are you going, won’t you come with me, let’s leave Japan.”

Ye Luo smiled and shook his head and said.

“I ah, I’m going to kill someone!”

He grabbed a car first, because the place where the target “Hattori Ninja” was located was in the former site of the Three Rivers Kingdom, which was still some distance away from Kyoto City.

A little while after Ye has left, the Death Shadow’s men arrived at Lin Danni’s side.

“You are Miss Lin Danni, right?”

The woman at the head of the group, wearing a cheongsam, looked at Lin Danni and asked with a smile, in fact, she had already confirmed the identity of the other party without having to ask, they were members of a professional organization of the “Underworld”, there was no way they would make a mistake about the identity of the person they wanted to save.

Lin Danni nodded her head.

The cheongsam woman smiled and said.

“We’re here to protect you, I’m curious as to who could be so powerful as to save you from the ‘Yin Yang Liao’, it’s incredible!”

To be honest, the woman was more shocked than she let on, because she had stayed in Japan for a long time to take care of this side of things, and she knew very well how powerful the “Yin Yang Liao” was, and that those who were imprisoned would definitely be locked up in the small secret realm, and it would be harder than ever to rescue them, but the fact was that they had already been rescued, and it was nearly two days before the ultimatum time that the “Yin Yang Liao” had said.

According to this woman’s thinking, she felt that even a Grand Master would not be able to do such a thing, as there were also Grand Masters in the Yin Yang Liao, and the hardest part was how to get in, as the Yin Yang students in the Liao would not let practitioners get into the Liao, let alone the small secret realm inside.

In fact, she did not know that before taking Ye Luo in, Abe Jing Yu had indeed confirmed Ye Luo’s identity and found out that Ye Luo was just a “peak Ming Jin” practitioner.

To be honest, if Ye Lu’s body wasn’t so special, he wouldn’t have been able to infiltrate the Yin Yang Laos, let alone save anyone.

“I don’t know who it is either, the man has his face covered, I only know he’s a man.”

According to the previous agreement, of course Lin Danni would not reveal Ye Lu’s identity.

Hearing Lin Danni’s words, the cheongsam woman sighed in disappointment, and then took Lin Danni away with the others.

In the “Yin Yang Squatter”, the fact that Lin Danni had been taken away and the five guards killed had been discovered.

The Magistrate, who was in charge of the day-to-day affairs of the Yin Yang Squad, stood at the entrance to the small secret realm with a frown on his face, stunned by the scene before him, something that had never happened since the creation of the Yin Yang Squad.

“Check!”

He said coldly as he looked around at the Yin-Yang masters and students.

Half an hour later, Ye Luo arrived at the Hattori Ninja’s headquarters.

“Who is it? What do you want?”

When he saw Ye Luo walking straight towards the door, the guard at the entrance “clang!” With a clang, he drew his katana and looked at Ye Lu and said in a loud voice.

In turn, Ye Luo smiled and said.

“What for? Of course I’m here to kill someone!”
