Chapter 381

Hearing Lin Ruyue's words, Ye Luo understood that the so-called "Pill Refining Conference" in the secular world that Lin Ruyue had been talking about was about to start, so he thought for a moment and said.

"Lin Ruyue, if I am your master, is it in line with the rules to participate in this conference?"

Lin Ruyue was silent for a while, then said.

"This? It seems to be out of line, right, but it shouldn't matter, although you have registered with the 'Pill Alliance', that 'Pill Alliance' identity tag of yours has not been registered, so whoever you say you are should be fine, unless someone pokes your identity."

"However, there shouldn't be many who know your identity, no, I'll teach you the original 'Transfiguration Technique'."

Hearing that Lin Ruyue had an original "disguise art", Ye Lu was a bit curious, because he suddenly thought of the time he first met Lin Ruyue, she turned into white eyes, and he was still a bit confused, how did she do this cosplay.

So, Ye Lu said.

"Sure, what day is the 'Pill Refiner Conference'?"

As a result, Lin Ru Yue said.

"It's going to be a week later."

Ye Luo was depressed at once.

"Sh*t! It's still a week away, what are you doing in such a hurry so early?"

As a result, Lin Ru Yue said.

"Master ah, you don't know, the people at this 'Pill Refiner's Conference' are a big deal, because ten years have passed since the last 'Pill Refiner's Conference', and this decade is the most stormy decade, many More importantly, of course, the prize this time was the best among all the previous 'Pill Refiners' Conferences', giving a flame seed, one of the Ten Great Origin Flames, the 'Violet Sky Flame', which was said to be able to fuse successfully to 'deduce the heavens and the earth' and have the power of precognition."

Hearing Lin Ruyue's words, Ye Lu was indeed a bit moved, because he had experienced the matter of deduction before, and that "Ghost Gu Zi consecrated statue" of Granny Yun possessed such power, and he had also used it himself, so at least this point was realistic and credible.

The fact that Ye Lu had three of the Ten Great Origin Fires in his body, if he fused one more, he felt that his power would definitely increase greatly, which was definitely a great thing for him. Now that the Chi You Clan was watching him and had captured Gushi Qi, whose fate was unknown, Ye Lu was still very eager to improve his cultivation and combat power.

Lin Ruyue then said.

“Because the ‘Origin Flame’ is not something that can be fused by anyone, the organizers of this time have provided two other rewards, one is an ‘Immortal Pill’ and the other is a medicinal herb that is extremely helpful to cultivation ‘Yaochi Lingzhi’, both of which are heaven defying treasures.”

Hearing these words from Lin Ru Yue, Ye Luo was really not calm this time.

He had always heard of “immortal pills”, but he had never seen them before, nor had he heard of any power having “immortal pills”, and this “pill refiner conference” would actually have “immortal pills”.

“This can’t be a fake!”

Ye Lu blurted out.

Lin Ruyue said disdainfully.

“How can it be fake, because who is the organizer of this ‘Pill Refiner’s Conference’, do you know?”

Hearing that Lin Ruyue was actually still selling the story, Ye Luo then hurriedly prodded up.

Only then did Lin Ru Yue say.

“Because the organizer of this ‘Pill Refiner’s Conference’ is ‘Kunlun’, I might not believe it if I said that other places have ‘immortal pills’, but to say that ‘Kunlun’ has immortal pills, this, I definitely believe.”

Ye Lu had heard of “Kunlun” more than once, and he had also looked it up, “Kunlun” was a legendary “divine mountain” similar to the Greek “Mount Olympus”.

However, “Kunlun” had disappeared for many years, but I don’t know why it had actually reappeared this time.

Of course, he had only entered the “cultivation world” for a short period of time, so he was not very clear about many things.

However, the three items of the “Pill Refiner’s Conference” were really crazy.

Even the worst sounding item, the “Yao Chi Ling Zhi”, Ye Lu knew very well that it was not found in the inventory of the “Shen Nong Valley” for many years.

According to the legend, when the thousand-year-old snake demon Bai Suzhen stole the immortal grass for Xu Xian, the immortal grass was the “Yao Chi Lingzhi”.

He was in desperate need of such an unbelievable treasure, as all the things grown in Ye Lu’s One Leaf Bodhi had been eaten by the Tongtian Vine.

So, Ye Luo decisively agreed to Lin Ruyue’s suggestion of impersonation.

For one thing, he was no longer the weak Ye Luo he had been before. At that time, even the small families in the capital had to deal with him carefully.

The people who knew about the “Nine Heavenly Mystic Flame” were his own people, and now Ye Lu had three colours of red, green and blue flames in his hands. According to the “Three Primary Colors” theory of light, he could make any colour of flame at will, so there was nothing to worry about.

Thinking of this, Ye Luo said to Lin Ru Yue.

“Good, then I’ll leave this matter to you, you can help me sign up, I still have something to do, I’ll go back as soon as possible.”

After saying that, Ye Luo quickly contacted Jasmine, saying that he was going to go to the branch of the Hundred Flowers Sect to deliver medicine to them, and that he also had to discuss something with their elders.

Like the Weapon Sect, every clan has more than one secret realm, and many clans are developing new ones, which are very important to the clan.

Other than that, the Beast Alliance has opened up the “Ten Thousand Beasts Secret Realm” and has the main entrance to the “Ten Thousand Beasts Secret Realm”, and it is the edge entrance with no time limit for free access.

Of course, this is just an expression, because there have not been any “sect wars” for a long time, and even the constant friction between the Xuantian Sect and the Wuji Sect is basically a small fight, mostly assassinations, so no one knows how much of a difference in strength there is between the sects.

Moreover, only after joining the clan and becoming a member of the clan would one be able to know these things through certain channels.

When she heard this news, Jasmine was overjoyed.

She said that all the sisters from the capital branch of the Hundred Flowers Sect would definitely come to greet him.

“I’ve told everyone that you’re a handsome man, don’t let me slap you in the face!”

“Jasmine” said with a smile from across the room.

Leaffall, in turn, smiled and said.

“Good, but this is all trivial, what I want to tell you is that I can already refine the ‘Foundation Building Pill’, so I will bring you some private goods then, and try to let you break through to the ‘Golden Dan 9th Turn’ cultivation level as soon as possible.”

This news certainly made “Jasmine” ecstatic, but Ye Lu continued.

“I’m looking for materials to make you a ‘Face Fixing Pill’, which will allow you to stay as young and beautiful as you were when you were at your youngest, and your youth will last forever.

To be honest, for Jasmine, this was the most surprising, because even if her master was so good at nurturing her face, she had still turned old, and some of the Elders looked old despite their amazing cultivation, which was the most fatal to a girl.

“Great, if the elders know this news they will definitely go crazy, she has to look at herself in the mirror countless times a day for fear of her face getting old.”

After greeting Jasmine, Ye Luo did not delay, he first used the Nine Leaves Blood Lotus to make a batch of Foundation Establishment Pills, and then made another batch of pills that could regulate qi and blood to make people as young as possible, and only after that did he let Big Wind, who had almost finished regulating, take him to the branch of the Hundred Flowers Sect.

From a distance, he saw “Jasmine” standing at the entrance of the sect’s branch with a dozen beautiful women.

Chapter 382

When he saw this gesture, Ye Lu smiled.

Behind him, Liu Mei then laughed and said.

“You said this was a daughter’s country, but you didn’t say it was full of beautiful women, you’re not being honest!”

The first thing Ye Lu did when he returned to the capital was to bring Ye Yan, Liu Mei, Qin Siyu and Jin Kun to the “Hundred Flowers Clan” for training, after all, this was the safest place.

Even the Chi You clan would not dare to take action against a clan like the Hundred Flowers Sect easily. Ye Lu did not know anything about Kunlun, so he did not dare to speculate, but he knew something about the Hundred Flowers Sect from Jasmine’s description.

In other words, the real strength of these women was absolutely unfathomable, and this was the scary thing about the “sect”.

Therefore, Ye Lu felt that the Chi You Clan should not be strong enough to shake the Hundred Flowers Sect.

In fact, through the introduction of the “glasses”, Ye Lu also understood that the path of monasticism was very long and unimaginable to mundane people, and that foundation building was only the foundation, and achieving the “Golden Dan Avenue” was only the beginning.

However, to Ye Lu’s surprise, Ye Yan was taken to the “Vermilion Bird Clan Land” by the Ye Family, saying that it was the most suitable place for Ye Yan to cultivate.

So, there was no need to worry about the two of them.

Then, Ye Lu contacted Long Fei Xue and asked him why he didn’t go to the Long family’s “clan land” to train.

As a result, Long Fei Xue said stubbornly.

“I don’t want to have anything to do with the Long Family anymore, even if they have anything, it has nothing to do with me.”

It seemed that Long Fei Xue had no more good feelings towards the Long Family.

After hearing Long Fei Xue finish, Ye Lu smiled and said.

“Good, don’t worry, even if you don’t enter the clan territory of the Long Family, you can still become a ‘Saint’ very soon, and soon, you will become an existence that the entire clan will look up to.”

For Long Fei Xue’s growth, Ye Lu was full of confidence.

The one who was slightly troubled now was Qin Siyu, she wanted to finish the movie and then enter the secret realm to cultivate, after all, it was the heart and soul of a bunch of them.

This was understandable to Ye Lu, and he had already promised to give the “Shadow of Death” a bunch of benefits, so that they would make sure to protect Qin Siyu’s safety.

In addition, Ye Lu also got another piece of information from his sister Ye Yan.

That is, she is indeed one of the “Nine Stars”, and Ye Lu’s guess was also confirmed that the “Nine Stars in a Row” corresponded to the “Nine Stars” in the “Qi Men Dun Jia”.

The “Tian Ying Star” is only a moderate star, which means that luck is not bad, and women of the “Tian Ying Star” are usually beautiful and pretty, and the “Tian Ying Star” is fire, which coincides with Ye Yan’s attributes.

As the “Heavenly Ying Star” had come down to earth, Ye Lu felt that this should have been arranged by his grandmother a long time ago.

“I wonder where the remaining eight keys and eight others are.”

Ye Luo muttered secretly, it seemed that these eight keys and eight people were the root of everything.

When “Jasmine” saw Liu Mei following behind Ye Lu, her face froze for a moment, because Liu Mei was really too beautiful, her appearance was outstanding and her exaggerated figure made her feminine.

After the awakening of her bloodline, Eve’s bloodline made Liu Mei look even more beautiful, especially her outstanding femininity, which made even women, not to mention men, fall for her.

Seeing that the other party was a woman, after landing on the ground, “Big Wind” changed into the appearance of a woman.

“Wow! A big demon in form!”

“What a beautiful person, this is the legendary international model!”

“Actually riding a big demon! It’s incredible!”

“What riding, how unpleasant, should say taking in a great demon.”

.....

Ye Lu then smiled and said towards Jasmine and the crowd.

Jasmine, let me introduce you, this is Liu Mei, my girlfriend, this is ‘Big Wind’ sister, not a demon beast I took in, she is my friend.”

Ever since they had a relationship with Liu Mei, the two of them had established their relationship as boyfriend and girlfriend.

And “Big Wind” said with a smile while putting on his clothes.

When they heard “Big Wind”, all the women were astonished. The words of Ye Lu and the two of them meant that “Big Wind” was not Ye Lu’s “Original Spirit Beast”, which could be one realm higher than its master, but not “Original Spirit Beast” and said that Ye Lu could cover it, which meant that Ye Lu already had the strength of a “Great Demon”.

There were several people present who had seen Ye Lu with Jasmine before, so they had all seen Ye Lu’s battle on the Heavenly Horse Mountain, at that time, Ye Lu was only at the level of Kan Kan and the Innate “Tire Breath Realm”.

The first thing that happened was that Jasmine had a slightly awkward expression as she reached out to greet Liu Mei and “Big Wind”, while Ye Lu took out a bag and handed it to Jasmine with a smile.

“Jasmine, here you go, private pills, efficacy and instructions, I’ve written them all down here.”

Ye Luo didn’t see it, but the attentive Liu Mei did, she took the bag from Ye Luo’s hand and put it in Jasmine’s hand, then hugged Jasmine and said.

“I’ve often heard Ye Lu talk about you, thanks for always helping Ye Lu so much, I’ll need you to take care of me more in the future.”

Seeing Liu Mei’s intimate look, Jasmine also grabbed Liu Mei’s hand, and then led Liu Mei into the secret realm of the “Hundred Flowers Sect”.

Ye Lu also had to follow them in.

After entering, Ye Lu saw that there was another group of people greeting him in the sect, led by a middle-aged beautiful woman.

When she saw Ye Luo enter, she smiled and said.

“Grandmaster Ye, I am ‘Seven Colours’, I would like to apologise first, as I am cultivating a technique, so I cannot leave the confines of the secret realm, so I am sorry to have missed the welcome, you don’t mind.”

As she spoke, her beautiful eyes were constantly looking up and down at Ye Lu, then her smile became more and more winning, obviously very satisfied with Ye Lu.

All the sisters in the White Tiger Clan were also staring at Ye Lu with big eyes.

If it was said that Ye Lu was only perfect in looks after he had just been “reborn”, then he had also changed in temperament after experiencing this big battle.

Hearing the other party’s words, Ye Lu then smiled and said.

“This is all trivial, I have brought you ‘Foundation Establishment Pills’, and the quantity is not small, the sisters can use the ‘Foundation Establishment Pills’ to directly enter the ‘Foundation Establishment Realm’, moreover, in the ‘Foundation Establishment Realm’ to break through the small realm of pills I have also prepared for you, when to the bottleneck, you can use ‘Gouji Dan’, do not worry about the side effects, you can use it without worry.”

Ye Lu personally made the pills, because of the spiritual qi, so it will not affect the later cultivation because of the dependence of the medicine, on the contrary, this kind of “spiritual pills” effect can also play a role in changing the physique, it is indeed the spiritual pills to get twice the result with half the effort.

When she heard that Ye Lu had really brought a “Foundation Establishment Pill” and a “Foundation Strengthening Pill” that could be used throughout the “Foundation Establishment Realm”, the “Seven Coloured Pansy’s” eyes immediately lit up, because she was not young, but she was still short of the “Ninth Turn of the Golden Elixir” realm, and she had longed to enter the “Ninth Turn of the Golden Elixir” realm.

So, she looked at Ye Lu and said with a smile.

“Master Ye, I’m really sorry, I guess you’ll need to stay in our ‘Hundred Flowers Sect’ for two more days, because ‘Elder Water Fairy’ is helping you collect ‘Super Extreme Luminous Stones’ in the secret realm.’, and it is estimated that he will not be back until tomorrow at the earliest.”

As soon as Ye Lu heard the words “Super Extreme Luminous Stones”, he couldn’t help but get excited, now that he had crossed into the Foundation Establishment Realm, his need for “Medium Grade Spirit Stones” had also increased.

However, he didn’t know that Elder “Water Fairy” was actually in the sect’s branch and was planning a plot to make Ye Luo lose his virginity.

Chapter 383

From the time Jasmine first brought back the pills, Elder Narcissus had already started to think about Ye Lu, but at first, Ye Lu didn’t do much, and the initial pills were useful to cultivators or clans in the secular world, but they weren’t very useful to clans like the Hundred Flowers Clan.

After all, there were hundreds of thousands of people in one branch of the Weaponry Sect, while the Hundred Flowers Sect was a little smaller in number because they were all women, but there were still many people at the Houtian Mirror and Innate Realm.

However, the “Foundation Establishment Realm” was different. Although the number of people was still huge, being able to establish a foundation at least meant that they had the qualifications to walk the “Golden Dan Path” and had truly entered the path of cultivation.

The value of Ye Lu was already immeasurable, as even the Pill Alliance did not have such a good thing.

In fact, it was not that the Pill Alliance did not have similar pills, but their pills could not achieve the effect of the pills provided by Ye Lu. The similar pills of the Pill Alliance could only improve the chance of building a foundation, and there would be side effects that would have a negative impact on the cultivation later.

More importantly, Ye Lu's improvement was really too fast, it was only a short time ago that he was already able to make pills that could make people "build their foundations" and at the same time raise the "Foundation Establishment Realm" to "peak Foundation Establishment" without bottlenecks.

"This Ye Lu is a priceless treasure, but it seems that 'Jasmine' is still unable to capture the other party's heart, so I have to think of a way."

In fact, she had been hinting that Jasmine could seduce Ye Lu appropriately, but Jasmine's personality could not do it, which made Elder Narcissus a bit disappointed.

"This child, Jasmine, is too innocent, so it will be useless. This Ye Lu knows how to make 'antidote pills', so using poison will definitely be detected by him. I'll have to do it myself."

"Elder Narcissus" said with a determined expression as she looked out at the flower garden.

"No matter what, we must tie this man to our 'Hundred Flower Sect' to death."

Then, "Elder Narcissus" called over a woman who was responsible for receiving Ye Luo and said.

"In a moment, you should talk to that woman alone, probe her to find out how far she has gone with Ye Lu, and then ask her how she will arrange her accommodation for the night, and try to separate the two without Ye Lu suspecting anything, understand?"

This girl was quite smart, she immediately understood Elder Narcissus' intention, she made an "OK" gesture and then drifted away.

After that, Elder Narcissus called for another beautiful woman, who, to be honest, did not surpass Liu Mei in terms of looks, but was definitely more seductive than Liu Mei in terms of seduction.

"Beauty Sakura, you were born with charming bones, and you have the bloodline of the 'Su Maiden', so you are most adept at the 'art of the room', tonight is the time for you to play your specialty, find a way to seduce that Ye Lu, if you succeed, let him fall to your crotch. If you succeed, let him fall to your crotch, if not, I will think of another way."

"The legendary goddess who taught the ancestor of mankind, the Yellow Emperor, all kinds of "house arts", had the most lethal effect on men, so "Beauty Sakura" smiled charmingly and left.

Of course, Ye Lu did not know this, he was currently with Liu Mei, Jasmine and a group of sisters in the secret realm of this capital branch of the "Hundred Flowers Sect", enjoying the scenery everywhere.

Tao Yuanming had once written a story about the "Peach Blossom Garden", but he was actually talking about a secret place, and this place could be called the "Garden of the Hundred Flowers", which was much more beautiful than the "Peach Blossom Garden".

Moreover, the temperature and environment here are particularly suitable for these flowers to grow.

However, although the mountains, the water and the people were beautiful, there was one thing that made Ye Lu feel a bit unacceptable, and that was that she often saw naked women playing in the water, without any concept of avoiding suspicion.

According to Jasmine's explanation, it was because the "Hundred Flowers Clan" was full of women, so everyone had already gotten used to this kind of life.

Liu Mei, on the other hand, said with a smile.

"You've taken advantage of me, but you're still pretending to be serious, no shame!"

To this, Ye Lu could only heave a giggle as a response.

Then, Ye Lu pointed to the pond at the centre of the "Hundred Flowers Sect" branch and said.

"The water in this pool can be released, right? After I talk to your elders in a couple of days, I will turn this place into a 'fire pool', then, all of you will be able to cultivate with half the effort."

Hearing Ye Luo's words, everyone immediately asked what kind of 'fire pool' could help everyone cultivate.

Only then did Ye Lu explain about the "Nine Heavenly Mystic Flame".

Of course, someone immediately reported it to the "Water Fairy Elder", which made the "Water Fairy Elder" excited once again. She had heard about the magic of Xishuangbanna, which was like an open secret realm.

Soon, at night, of course, Liu Mei would not say that she had sex with Ye Lu, and with her character, she naturally would not say that she wanted to sleep with Ye Lu.

So, naturally, the two lived separately.

However, in order to prevent Ye Lu from getting suspicious, the two stayed in two rooms next to each other, and since Liu Mei's cultivation level was weak, Elder Shui Xian was not worried that Liu Mei would find out at this point.

Ye Lu had been studying and drawing formations for a while, and to be honest, he was really tired, so he didn't cultivate either, so he washed up and fell asleep.

Even though he was alert as usual, he was still awakened in the middle of the night by the sound of the door opening.

He pretended to go back to sleep, but squinted his eyes and looked outside. One thing was consistent about the secret realms near the earth, although they were in different places and each secret realm had a different environment, the sun and the moon rose and set at the same time as outside, and there was the same starry sky in the secret realms as outside.

At this moment, the moonlight was like water, and Ye Luo could see very clearly that the one who came in was a woman who looked charming to the bone, without any powder, but exuding an aura that gave off an unusual urge, and Ye Luo knew very well that it was definitely not poison or charm, because this woman herself was the deadly medicine.

Following, the woman went to the bedside and gently took off her hazy clothes like cicada wings, revealing her alabaster body, sweet red, dark, round, sunken alluring body completely exposed in front of Ye Lu's eyes, and with her footsteps trembling, as if tugging at one's heartstrings

Ye Luo felt the blood in his body boil up.

“Hey! You should hurry up and go, or I might not really be able to hold on!”

Ye Lu sighed and wiped his nosebleed and said to “Beauty Sakura”.

Hearing Ye Luo’s words, “Beauty Sakura” froze for a moment, then said with a smile.

“Manly man, fuck a woman if you want to, why do you have to be so aggravated? Didn’t Li Bai say, ‘Life must be happy, don’t make the golden bottle empty to the moon’, why let such a beautiful moment go by

The voice of “Beauty Sakura” was so charming to the bone that every word was tantalizing Ye Lu’s heart.

“The actual fact is that you’ll be able to get a lot more than just a few of these.

As he said that, beside Ye Lu, a tall, grim guy with a long sword appeared, it was the “King of All Ghosts”, Sake-Ton Boy.

When she saw him, “Beauty Sakura” was also startled.

Women are afraid of ghosts in heaven, not to mention the fact that the “Sake Swallow Boy” is a real evil spirit that kills people like hell.

After that, “Beauty Sakura” bowed deeply to Ye Lu and said.

“I, ‘Beauty Sakura’, have always thought that no man is a good bird, but when I met Master Ye today, I realized that there are still real men in the world, thank you very much.”

As she left the courtyard, she gestured to the distant “Elder Narcissus”.

Ye Lu, who was in the room, rubbed his nose and said helplessly.

“Damn it, when will this nosebleed problem ever go away?”

However, what he didn’t know was that Elder Narcissus’s plan to make him suffer from more than just nosebleeds was about to come.

Chapter 384

Seeing Beauty Sakura’s gesture, Elder Narcissus silently nodded with an expression of appreciation, as this was the first time she had ever met a man who could refuse Beauty Sakura’s embrace.

“What a special man.”

“Elder Narcissus” said with some emotion as she looked at the room where Ye Lu was.

At the same time, she also started to unleash her “bloodline divine ability” towards Ye Lu’s room. A goddess figure appeared out of thin air and floated towards Ye Lu’s room, then blew a breath at Ye Lu after entering the room.

“There is a poem called “Cloud and Rain on Wushan Mountain Breaks the Heart in Vain”, which refers to matters related to the Goddess of Wushan Mountain, so often “cloud and rain” is also used to describe male and female affairs.

Although Elder Shui Xian was an outer sect elder, her cultivation level was already at the Real Dan realm, so she was not something Ye Lu could deal with now.

However, Ye Lu was not an ordinary person, so how could he be fooled by this shadow?

He could also see how difficult this Goddess Void was, so he quickly sat up and started to choke with his hands, trying to control his emotions, but he found that it was simply too difficult.

She was a terrifying being who had killed 12 demonic dragons.

Just when Ye Lu felt that she was about to go crazy, “Jasmine” walked in.

When he saw Jasmine, Ye Lu felt his blood surge, like a hungry wolf seeing a lamb, a hungry tiger seeing fresh meat, a thirsty hooligan seeing a naked beauty, he was ready to rush up and strip Jasmine naked and press her to the bed and spread her long legs

But, instead of doing so, Ye Lu bit his finger, trying to use this little bit of clarity to deliver a fatal blow to the shadow.

“Whew!”

Fiery white flames were released from Ye Lu’s hand and blasted towards that goddess void.

“Hiss!”

The shadow was immediately injured and began to turn vain.

However, the “Water Fairy Elder” who was not far away also felt it at first.

“How powerful!”

When she felt that her “Bloodline Avatar” had been scattered, the “Water Fairy Elder” was shocked, and she realised that she had underestimated Ye Lu.

However, she quickly strangled her knuckles, and the shadow that had just dissipated began to solidify once again.

Ye Lu knew that he was really finished this time, this guy behind the curtain was simply too strong, so strong that he felt a hint of despair.

“Spiritual attacks are really terrifying!”

This time, Ye Luo actually felt the terribleness of this attack that pointed directly at his soul.

But then, he noticed that Jasmine sighed softly, then went to the side of the wall, reached out and cut a big hole in the wall and walked in.

“What’s Jasmine doing?”

Ye Luo was a bit confused, then he saw Jasmine carrying Liu Mei over, she put Liu Mei into Ye Luo's arms and said with her head down.

"I wish you all happiness!"

After saying that, Jasmine walked into the other side of the room and left.

To be honest, Ye Lu really didn't expect "Jasmine" to do that.

"I wonder if she will be scolded by the master."

Ye Lu muttered secretly, but immediately afterwards, his consciousness was rattled by the raging desire, because the red face of Liu Mei in his arms was too tempting, in fact, the last time he had not finished with Liu Mei, Ye Lu had never forgotten for a moment.

Liu Mei was a smart person, and she guessed what had probably happened the moment Jasmine carried her over and saw Ye Lu looking like this.

"What a simple and kind girl!"

Liu Mei sighed darkly, then hugged Ye Luo's neck to meet her.

This time, Ye Luo's emotions could no longer be controlled, he hugged Liu Mei, feeling her body hot and soft

The first thing you need to do is to get to know the words, "I'd like to be a lovebirds but not an immortal".

If the last time was a "shallow taste", then this time it was a "deep and shallow experience", and Ye Lu's eighteen years of life had finally truly entered another stage.

Hearing the movement in the room and the moans that she could not suppress, the "Water Fairy Elder" outside nodded in satisfaction and then slowly withdrew her divine power.

She knew very well that Ye Lu would be awake during the whole process, and this would be her bargaining chip with Ye Lu tomorrow.

"Hey, hey, all righteous little brat, you're still a bit young to fight me."

The "Elder Narcissus" was very satisfied with her layout, she smiled and left.

Ye Lu and Liu Mei tossed and turned for half the night. If he wasn't worried that Liu Mei would not be able to bear the storm for the first time, Ye Lu really wanted to stay up all night, but in the end, the two of them slept together until dawn.

"Phew!"

Ye Lu stretched out, he felt that it had been too long since he had slept so comfortably, especially when he saw Liu Mei who was lying in his arms as naked as a kitten.

Due to Ye Luo's movement, Liu Mei also woke up immediately, and when she woke up, she darted to run away with her clothes in her arms.

“Mei’er, what’s wrong with you?”

Ye Lu was startled by Liu Mei’s movement.

“Could it be that you’re shy?”

Just as Ye Luo was a little puzzled, Liu Mei said quickly.

“If others see it, Jasmine will be in trouble.”

Only then did Ye Lu realise what Liu Mei was worried about, however, he clenched his fist and said with some anger.

“Jasmine is in trouble, I’d like to see who’s in trouble.”

With those words, he quickly dressed and moved the cupboard into position, temporarily blocking the large hole that Jasmine had cut.

After everything was done, Ye Lu walked out to the two sisters not far away and asked.

“Two sisters, have your elders returned?”

Sure enough, one of them said with a smile.

“Back, just now too, she said to go find her when you wake up.”

Ye Lu nodded, then let one of them lead the way and walked to the top floor of the small three-storey building where the “Water Fairy Elder” was located, from where he could see the crowd bustling around in the secret realm.

Ye Luo had simulated his cultivation level as “Jin Dan Fourth Turn”, so that the “Water Fairy Elder” would not take it seriously and would not find it too abrupt, after all, Jasmine and the girls knew their background, so what happened outside, this “Water Fairy Elder” must know that it was him.

“Master Ye, I’ve always heard Jasmine talking about you, but when I see you today, I’m really glad to see you, Master Ye is really martial and talented!”

“Elder Narcissus” looked just a little bit older than Jasmine’s master, “Seven Colours”, and was a very competent person with a very goddess-like appearance.

As she spoke, she extended her hand in a friendly manner.

Ye Lu also smiled, and then extended her hand, ready to shake hands with “Elder Narcissus”.

However, just as their hands were about to touch, a white flame suddenly appeared from Ye Lu’s hand and blasted towards the “Elder Narcissus”’s chest.

To be honest, “Elder Narcissus” did not expect Ye Lu to do this, after all, she thought that the difference between the two of them was enough to make Ye Lu dare not make a move, and she was also confident that even if Ye Lu dared to make a move, she could still handle it easily.

However, after Ye Lu really made his move, she regretted her arrogance.

Because, she actually felt a hint of death.

“You

“As she spoke, Elder Water Fairy violently operated her “Real Dan”, and the terrifying “Innate Astral Qi” surged out, trying to block Ye Lu’s flames, but these “Innate Astral Qi” were like ice meeting red-hot iron, although it could have some effect, it could not block Ye Lu’s blow.

“Boom!”

Her entire body was sent flying by the blow, and white flames immediately spread out from her chest.

And her entire body flew straight out from the third floor.

“Wow! Who beat up the Elder?”

The sisters of the Hundred Flowers Sect outside exploded.

Chapter 385

It had never happened before, and no one could beat the Elder, who was the Elder, in everyone’s mind, the Elder was invincible.

But now, the hard facts were right in front of him, after he had knocked the “Water Fairy Elder” away, Ye Luo had no mercy and his black aura fist blasted towards the “Water Fairy Elder”.

The “Water Fairy Elder” was surprised to find that this black outgoing Qi was not “Innate Astral Qi”, but was of a very high level, and at least it hurt.

At this moment, she was too busy dealing with the troublesome flames on her body to care about Ye Lu’s fist, so she was sent flying by the black fist right afterwards.

“Ye Luo, what’s going on?”

“That man, why did you hit our elder?”

“Stop it, don’t hit our Elder.”

“Ye Lu, stop it!”

Soon, all the people around the area drew their weapons and rushed over, Jasmine and her master “Seven Colours” also rushed over at the news, after all, this was the area where these disciples were concentrated.

Ye Lu quickly released Caraxis and Griffin, and then said coldly.

“Don’t come over, this is a feud between us, I don’t fight women.”

Seeing Caraxis and Griffin, the crowd was taken aback, these two guys were both at the “Fifth Turn of Golden Dan” cultivation level, and they were also among the experts, not something they could fight against, even the “Seven Colours” were far from a match.

Even the Seven Colours were no match for them.

“Boom!”

Another external black fist struck Elder Narcissus’ body.

“I just did it, this is for ‘Beauty Sakura’.”

Following that, Ye Lu swung his fist quickly again.

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

.....

“These are for Molly.”

Then, another punch.

“This one is a random punch.”

Ye Lu knew very well that with the other party’s cultivation level, his attack would not be able to do much damage at all, and I was afraid that the flames would be eliminated by her in a moment, but he had to fight, and he wanted to let the “Water Fairy Elder” know his attitude.

As expected, the Elder Narcissus soon got the fire under control and then looked at Ye Lu and said.

“How dare you.”

Ye Lu said indifferently.

“I’ve always had a lot of guts.”

“The Water Fairy Elder gritted his teeth and said.

“Good boy, you think I don’t dare to kill you, don’t you?”

Ye Lu said with a cold smile.

“Threatening me, are you? Firstly, I didn’t attack with all my might just now because I didn’t want to kill you, and you saw the blow on the snowy mountain, secondly, I’m afraid that even you don’t have the ability to keep me, and thirdly, you watch

The first time this flame appeared, all the flowers around the area turned their heads towards the flame in Ye Lu’s hand, and the strong aura of life could be felt from afar, giving people a boost.

Many people, including Elder Narcissus, could not help but look at the flame.

Seeing that everyone’s attention was directed towards him.

Only then did Ye Luo say.

“This is the ‘Nine Heavens Xuan Flame’, one of the ‘Ten Great Origin Flames’ and also the ‘Flame of Vitality’, its benefits can be felt by all of you, right? wanted to get a fireless fire pool with a ‘fire spirit’ in your place so that your entire secret realm could taste the benefits, but now it looks like I'm going to change my mind."

Following that, Ye Lu took out another pill and said.

"This is the elixir 'Gathering Elemental Pill' that allows one to break through to the 'Ninth Turn of Golden Dan', I was originally going to provide it to you guys as well, but now it looks like there is no need for it."

When she heard Ye Lu say that he was going to build a "Nine Heavenly Mystic Flame" fire pool here, the "Water Fairy Elder" was already surprised beyond words, and she already regretted it.

And Ye Lu then said.

"I'm afraid that in the near future, I can also refine pills that can truly condense the 'Golden Dan Dao', but unfortunately, these will not be available to you."

Of course, Ye Lu should indeed be able to refine a 'Gathering Pill', but he hadn't done so yet, as there were other medicines that needed to be put together apart from the 'Earth Vein Purple Chi'.

The pill he had just taken out was not a "Yuan Gathering Pill", it was just a trick to "Elder Shui Xian", she didn't know the pill anyway.

However, Ye Lu had not finished speaking.

He quickly reached out his hand again and several more pills appeared in his hand as he continued.

"This is an elixir that can make people a little younger, although it can't rejuvenate you, but it can certainly make you look a lot younger, and I will next make a 'face fixing elixir', it can fix your looks and make you young forever, it's just a pity that I will have to go to someone else as well. I think there must be someone who wants to work with me, right?"

Hearing Ye Luo's words, the "Water Fairy Elder" quickly bowed and said.

"Master Ye, it's my fault, it's all my fault, I apologize to you, please don't change your mind!"

Ye Luo then clapped his hands and said.

"First thoughts, still high school, it's fine if you want me not to change my mind, stop forcing 'Beauty Sakura' and the girls to do things they don't want to do, also, be nice to Jasmine."

After Ye Lu finished speaking, everyone looked at Beauty Sakura and Jasmine, however, the crowd did not know what was going on, although they could probably guess what happened to Beauty Sakura, but not to Jasmine.

"Elder Narcissus" immediately nodded quickly and said.

"Sure, sure, you're right, Master Ye, I've just lost my mind, that's why I did what I did, it's all my fault."

Seeing the high and mighty "Water Fairy Elder" so lowly, everyone present opened their mouths wide, this had never happened before.

Ye Lu smiled and said in a very pretentious manner.

“Well, in fact, I am not against you, but I feel that we should be less condescending and more sincere

When he said this, Ye Lu was a little surprised himself, he said with his mouth open wide in some surprise.

“Sh*t! How did I say such a ‘lofty’ line, I’m even a little moved!”

As a result, this line ruined his whole image.

Of course, Ye Lu didn’t really want to break up with the Hundred Flowers Sect, he couldn’t let go of the “medium grade spirit stones”, which were the cornerstone of his cultivation, because it was too slow to replenish his spirit energy by himself, especially now that he had already “turned his spirit energy into liquid”.

When “Jasmine” saw that Ye Lu had actually beaten up the elders for her, she was moved to tears, and all her grievances and depression from yesterday were gone at once.

Ye Lu looked at the “Elder Narcissus” and said.

“Elder Water Fairy, you should dig a pool in the central square, about 400 to 500 meters square, and then it’s best to put a guardrail or something around it to avoid children and people who accidentally come near being burned, the ‘Nine Heavenly Mysterious Fire’ is too dangerous, and that ‘fire spirit ‘ is a bit naughty, I will leave for a little while to bring the ‘Nine Heavenly Mystic Flame’ over.”

“Elder Water Fairy” hurriedly nodded his head.

After that, Ye Lu found Liu Mei again and said.

“Mei’er, I’m going to leave for a day or two to fetch the ‘Nine Heavenly Mystic Flame’ and do some preparations, so you can stay here and cultivate.”

Liu Mei then looked at Ye Lu and said with a smile.

“Go, better go for a few more days, I’m still sore, I can’t serve you.”

Hearing Liu Mei’s words, Ye Lu remembered last night’s soulful moment again and couldn’t help but drool, Liu Mei immediately blushed and slapped him and said.

“Let’s go, Jasmine and the girls are still waiting for me.”

So, Ye Lu said goodbye to Liu Mei and went back to Miaojiang. He first left the “Wine Swallow Boy” at the “Ghost Gate” and asked the master of the “Ghost Gate” to do his best to raise its cultivation level.

He then asked the Shennong Valley to help him prepare the ingredients for the “Gathering Pill”, as some of the ingredients were not available in the Shennong Valley either.

After that, she took the opportunity to make a large batch of Yin Yuan Pills for the Ghost Bats, and then let them take the Yin Yuan Pills with them and stay at the Nine Heavenly Mystic Flames in the underground palace to cultivate.

Only after this was done did Ye Lu return to the Hundred Flowers Sect with a portion of the Nine Heavenly Mystic Flames and the Fire Spirits.

Seeing such a huge “vitality fire”, the whole “Hundred Flowers Clan” even let go of all the flowers, and at this moment the “Hundred Flowers Clan” felt that heaven and earth had changed.

Of course, everyone thanked Ye Lu for his kindness.

Ye Lu also had the rare opportunity to accompany Liu Mei to spend a few days in the “Hundred Flowers Sect” enjoying the flowers and the beautiful women.

However, the Pill Refiner’s Conference soon began.

Chapter 386

This time, as the prize was provided by Kunlun, the venue was also in the middle of the Kunlun Mountain Range, on a mountain called Mount Shushi, which was close to the famous Hotan County, which was famous for producing the world-famous Hotan Jade, and the good Hotan Jade was a good material for making spatial magic weapons.

However, he was also worried that it would affect Liu Mei’s cultivation. After all, she had started too late and if she did not intensify her cultivation, I was afraid that the gap between her and himself would become bigger and bigger.

According to Elder Water Fairy, the Hundred Flowers Sect was one of the weaker sects in the Sovereign Realm, and Elder Water Fairy said that the mysterious Kunlun might be even stronger than the Sovereign Realm.

In short, as his cultivation level increased, Ye Lu felt more and more the unfathomable nature of the cultivation path.

The good thing was that apart from “Gu Shiqi”, who could not be contacted, everyone else had already started their cultivation, and they were all starting from a very high level, so it was expected that they would soon bear fruit.

“Sh*t! I said, “Little apprentice, can’t you wear normal clothes?”

Seeing Lin Ru Yue’s dyed orange hair, showing her arms, thin waist and thighs, wearing only a bra and small shorts, Ye Lu couldn’t help but spit out.

He was familiar with this character, it was the “Nami” from the “King of Thieves”, and Lin Ru Yue also COS’d it very well, but to appear so exposed at such a serious “medicine refiner” conference, Ye Lu felt that it was a bit too weird.

Next to Lin Ruyue, her junior uncle Miao Fengling turned her head as if she didn’t know this person at all.

An embarrassed Miao Renlong and Zhu Qihuang stood by with a sarcastic smile.

Lin Ruyue, on the other hand, turned around in disbelief and said.

“Master, am I beautiful?”

Ye Luo had to nod because, it had to be said, Lin Ruyue’s secondary costume made him feel very stunning every time.

Lin Ruyue then smiled and said.

“Isn’t beauty enough, we’re pill refiners, it’s not like I’m delaying pill refining, does anyone have to care what I wear?”

Ye Luo knew he couldn’t say anything to her even if he talked sophistry, so he chose to shut up.

However, at this time, a few other people came down from the plane, and they looked at Lin Ru Yue with a disdainful face.

“Yell! Aren’t these the disciples of the ‘Mo Lian Lineage’, why are they still so bad? Forget about the incident ten years ago when you were deducted points for not dressing properly, what pig brains.”

It seemed that these people were also from the Pill Alliance.

Lin Ru Yue, of course, refused to show weakness and looked at these guys and said.

“Besides, I’m not the one participating in the competition this time, it’s our family’s great experts who are participating in the competition.

With those words, Lin Ru Yue looked towards Ye Luo.

The gazes of the crowd also turned to Ye Luo.

However, none of them had ever seen Ye Luo, nor had anyone heard of such a person as Ye Luo, and Master Mo Lian had not had a single male disciple before.

So, one guy said in a gloomy voice.

“What, Master Mo Lian is also lonely and has found such a young meat to play with, really more and more don’t a Bi Lian.”

After he finished speaking, he saw Ye Lu disappeared, followed by a “pop!” With a sound, his whole body was sent flying by Ye Lu.

However, this was not the end, Ye Luo reached him again, grabbed his leg, picked him up and said.

“Apologise, or I will knock all your teeth out.”

The guy was dumbfounded by the sudden scene, he froze and looked at Ye Luo, somewhat confused while Ye Luo’s hand lifted up again.

“I’m sorry, I’m sorry, I was wrong, I shouldn’t have insulted Master Mo Lian

He said in a series of voices.

And at this time, several other people had already surrounded Ye Luo in the middle, looking as if they were ready to gang up on him.

Ye Luo, on the other hand, gave them a glance, then said coldly.

“Get lost!”

This cry contained a spiritual attack, which Ye Lu had thought of after being teased by Elder Shui Xian’s “Wushan Goddess”, he felt that it was necessary to cultivate spiritual spells, even though it was really too difficult.

Hearing Ye Lu’s words, these people really started to roll on the ground.

This scene almost scared the guy in Ye Lu’s hand, he really didn’t think there would be such a scary guy in the Mo Lian lineage.

The other people at the airport were also shocked by this scene.

“He just said the Mo Lian clan, this guy is from the ‘Pill Alliance’, I didn’t know that, I thought he was from the ‘Yan clan’, so hot-tempered!”

“However, being able to fight doesn’t mean that alchemy is also great, we are alchemists, not fighters.”

“I feel that this guy might not even pass the trial.”

“I think so too.”

When they saw Ye Lu meet and fight, many other pill refiners then became somewhat disdainful, because in many people’s opinion, pill refiners were a very high class profession, and those who did this were quite cultivated people, a reckless man like Ye Lu was not suitable for pill refining.

“Sh*t! What are you guys bleeping about, believe it or not, I’ll even beat you guys up too.”

Ye Luo said as he looked at the guys and glared.

These guys hurriedly shut up, they really didn’t have much confidence than fighting.

Seeing this scene, Lin Ru Yue then smiled and jumped over and picked up a thumbs up and said.

“Yeah, great, I’ll give you a hundred points.”

She bounced and made a certain two parts of her body twitch exaggeratedly, and all the men’s eyeballs around her were glued to those two things, which immediately turned Ye Luo and the few of them into the centre of attention.

“Alright, well, let’s hurry up and go.”

Ye Luo did not want to be too high profile here, those “pill refiners” studied pill refining all day and probably did not like to go online or anything, so they were probably relatively uninformed, but there were a lot of people here, and Ye Luo was worried that something would happen.

Lin Ruyue of course obeyed Ye Lu’s words, she smiled, then rolled her eyes at the disciple of the “Pill Alliance” who had just said something unpleasant and turned to leave.

After Ye Lu and the others left, the disciple from the Pill Alliance looked at their backs and said.

“Sh*t, what is there to be proud of, I guess they don’t know yet, this time, for the reward, even our ‘Pill Alliance’ has quietly sent out experts.”

Indeed, the prizes offered by Kunlun this time were really tempting, especially the “Violet Sky Fire”, one of the “Ten Great Origin Fires”, which was something that an organization of “pill refiners” would probably want to obtain.

Of course, this was a “secular” “pill refiner’s conference”, so the “pill refiner’s” experts were definitely not allowed to participate.

It didn’t take long for Ye Lu and the others to arrive at the venue, which was located on the mountainside of the Makuhari Mountain and was off the beaten track.

The venue was actually a large meadow in the middle of the forest, but of course, there could not be an inn here, nor were there any shops selling anything, so everyone had to pay for all the accommodation and expenses themselves.

It is true that Kunlun is providing the prizes, but it is not Kunlun who is hosting the Pill Maker’s Conference, but the Ge family, a secular alchemy family.

“The Ge Family is an expert alchemist who lives in the secret realm of Luofu Mountain.

“Luofu Mountain is known as one of the ten mountains in the world, and is also called “the seventh largest cave in the world and the 34th blessed land” by the Daoists, and is particularly rich in alchemy.

This time, the people of Luofu Mountain spent a great deal of money to build a huge venue in the middle of the meadow, surrounded by stands like the Colosseum, which were large enough for everyone to watch the demon refining masters making pills.

Around the main venue, there were tents everywhere, with smoke rising from some places, and you could even smell the smell of roasted meat.

And pill refining families and organisations from all over the world had gathered together.

“Look, it’s the Fire Ancestor ‘Suiren Clan’, it’s really so powerful and domineering!”

Someone pointed to a few tall figures not far away that were emanating flames all over their bodies and said.

Chapter 387

“The Suiren Clan was the first legendary powerhouse to be able to control and use fire, not in the same way as demonic beasts, but to control the flames of nature, and it was for this reason that he was called the “Fire Ancestor”.

However, like the Shennong Clan, the Suiren Clan also chose to stay away from the world and became a secluded family, but their reasons for being secluded were different from those of the Shennong Clan.

For cultivators, the demand for elixirs is never-ending, and while civilized cultivators may choose to buy them, some may take them by trickery, or even kill them, and the Suiren Clan inevitably offended some people as a result.

As time went on, they became tired of the worldly life and chose to live in seclusion.

This time, they were attracted by the generous reward, but looking at their flame-filled bodies and their rejection of others, it was clear that they did not want to have any dealings with anyone.

The family was really scary.

Of course, like the Pill Alliance, other sects also sent their alchemists, because the only two sects that were restricted were the Pill Alliance and the Dan Pagoda, and the alchemists of other sects were not restricted.

This is because the presence of these people will affect the balance of the competition, and this is also a rule that has been passed down from one secular "Alchemist Conference" to another.

Of course, apart from this one, there was nothing that could attract the Jindan realm masters to the Pill Refiner's Conference.

The major powers that arrived at the conference were generally gathered together according to their own power, such as the Pill Alliance, the Dan Tower, the Suiren Clan, the Ge Family, and so on.

However, Lin Ruyue did not want to be with the Pill Alliance, so she chose a place far away from the crowd and prepared to set up camp.

"Master, leave the rest of the chores to us this time, you will be responsible for killing them all, come on, Uncle Fengling, set up the tent."

With those words, Lin Ruyue took out the tent from her spatial bracelet and prepared to set it up.

This spatial bracelet was not hers, but she had specially asked for it from her master "Master Mo Lian" for this conference, because it was not only a matter of convenience, but also a symbol of strength, as pill refiners could not live without all kinds of medicines, so most of the higher ranked pill refiners would carry a "spatial magic weapon" with them to store all kinds of medicines and things, just like carrying a medical package with them.

When she saw Lin Ru Yue take out her tent, a disciple of the "Pill Alliance" not far away said with a smile.

"I didn't expect that your Mo Lian Clan would still be so poor, still using this kind of simple tent, is it because there isn't enough space in the 'storage magic weapon', afraid that you can't put so many things in it."

To be honest, she was really right, Li Ruyue's storage space was very small, only about one meter square, and it was already full with three tents and a little bit of other things.

This is still the simple kind of compressed tent, otherwise it would not be able to fit even more.

So, Lin Ruyue could not retort, so she had to cross her little waist and say.

"You should be in charge of our affairs, having resources is great, if you weren't sidelining 'Master Mo Lian', our lineage wouldn't have become like this, if we had resources, I could turn you into crumbs in seconds, believe it or not."

As a result, the other party said disdainfully.

“Someone who doesn’t even have a better storage magic weapon, what’s the point of bragging.”

Hearing this guy’s words, Lin Ru Yue was once again ready to fume, but then Ye Lu waved his hand and said.

“Who said we don’t have a good storage magic weapon, it’s just that we don’t want to scare the piss out of you.”

Hearing Ye Luo’s words, this guy looked Ye Luo up and down and said.

“How old are you again, what kind of big garlic are you pretending to have, if you have one, then take it out and take a look, so that I will be convinced of you, otherwise don’t bullsh*t with me about these useless things.”

Ye Lu then laughed and said.

“Fine, but what if I can prove that we have a bigger storage magic weapon, what will you do?”

As a result, the woman crossed her arms and said.

“I’ll run around naked for you, but if you don’t have one, let this shameless one run around naked for me, so as not to lose face of our ‘Pill Alliance’.”

She was of course talking about Lin Ruyue, as Lin Ruyue’s look had long since become the focus of the entire area.

When she heard that she was going to run around naked, Lin Ru Yue’s face immediately changed, she only liked cosplaying, she was not an exhibitionist, she would not do such a thing, and if she did, she would lose the face of the Mo Lian Clan.

So, she immediately backed off.

However, Ye Lu smiled and said.

“Okay, I promise you.”

With those words, she gestured for Lin Ru Yue and Miao Feng Ling’s to hide a little further away, and then he raised his hand.

A five-storey bamboo building appeared in front of the crowd, this bamboo building was more than fifteen or sixteen metres high, and the sides were almost ten metres long, it looked beautiful with carved beams.

“How about it, is it big enough?”

Ye Luo looked at this guy and asked.

The “Sumeru Ring” Ye Luo was wearing had a space of a hundred meters on the side, and Ye Luo didn’t know what to put in it, so he finally chose to put this bamboo building, which he had thought of because he heard that the venue was in the mountains.

The woman was dumbfounded when she saw that Ye Lu had casually created a building, which was totally unexpected.

So, as soon as the house appeared, the woman was dumbfounded.

However, she was immediately ready to renege on her debt, and she laughed coldly with some weakness and said.

“Humph, even if you can make a building, so what, it doesn’t prove that your storage spell is big, ours is even bigger, it’s just that the things inside us are not suitable for display.”

As she said that, she turned around and prepared to leave.

Of course Ye Luo wouldn’t let her leave just like that, as she was about to leave, Ye Luo quickly raised his hand and a stern ghost appeared at Ye Luo’s side, following which he rushed over to block the woman’s way.

“Keep your promise, or I will let it help you and then eat you.”

Ye Luo said very coldly.

This woman had come to pick a fight for no reason, and he felt that he should make her remember this lesson and save herself from having to suffer a big loss in the future.

At this time, another large group of people from the Pill Alliance came over.

“Yes, they look like cheapskates, they don’t know the rules every time they don’t get a knock.”

“Ai, it’s just a pity that ah, their sect has an empty deceitful heart, but no deceitful ability.”

It seemed that the position of the “Mo Lian Clan” in the “Pill Alliance” was indeed strange enough, and Ye Lu admired the “Master Mo Lian”’s ability to pull hatred, which was simply a powerful skill of “pulling monsters”.

However, Ye Luo did not put these people in his eyes, with Ye Luo’s current combat power, these people were not even a stinky fish or shrimp.

He looked at these guys and said.

“All shut up, willing to bet, I hate people who don’t keep their word in my life, brat, let’s begin.”

As Ye Luo’s words fell, the “evil ghost” immediately took action, “Hiss!” “Hiss!” The woman’s clothes were immediately turned into pieces.

“Save me! Help!”

The woman immediately shouted, but she only shouted twice before she stopped abruptly, because she suddenly realized that her shouting would attract the others to her.

The other guys were not so calm, they rolled up their arms and sleeves and rushed towards Ye Lu.

Miao Fengling, Zhu Qihuang and Miao Renlong were all terrified, as they were all amateurs in fighting, and the trouble-making “Mina” also hid behind Ye Lu.

“Noisy!”

Ye Lu said with some impatience, and then he struck out, one by one, sealing their entire body’s meridians, and then using a branch to pierce through their clothes and nail them to the tree trunk and hang them up.

In a matter of moments, a dozen of them were hanging.

Chapter 388

However, Ye Lu suddenly took out the five-storey small building, making too much noise and immediately attracted more people from the “Pill Alliance”, these people did not put the “Mo Lian Lineage” of the “Pill Alliance” in their eyes, and when they saw their own people being beaten, they immediately rushed up regardless.

Ye Luo, of course, would not be polite with them, one by one, and soon hundreds of people were killed around the bamboo building, and only then were the people surrounding Ye Luo shocked.

All of them started to retreat, and Ye Lu did not chase after them, raising his hand to release an eight immortal table, followed by several chairs, as well as various dishes and wine, and said with a smile to Lin Ruyue and several of them.

“This afternoon doesn’t look like it will be lonely, come and eat and drink, my treat.”

Seeing this scene, Miao Renlong stuck out his thumb and said.

“At first I didn’t believe Lin Ruyue when she said you were her master, but now I really believe it.”

Hearing Miao Renlong’s words, Ye Lu smiled and said.

“Because I’m very capable of fighting, right?”

Miao Renlong said as he shook his head decisively.

“NO! NO! It’s because you’re a troublemaker like her.”

“Ugh!”

Hearing Miao Renlong’s words, Ye Lu didn’t know how to take it, Ye Lu had heard about the “Pill Alliance” people targeting “Mo Lian’s lineage”, Mo Lian was his own disciple no matter what, and Ye Lu could feel that although Mo Lian was a bit unreliable, she was really nice and treated herself well.

Therefore, Ye Lu decided to help “Master Mo Lian”, his only disciple, out.

Lin Ruyue was not afraid of anything, so she was the first one to sit down and start eating, and Miao Fengling, who was a young girl at heart, thought it was fun, so she also sat down.

Hundreds of people from the Pill Alliance were hung up like dried fish, and Ye Lu and his group immediately became the focus of the entire camp.

Even the “Suiren Clan”, who did not like to deal with others, had several members of their clan come over to watch the commotion.

They found a handsome man, a big-breasted beauty in a revealing dress and a quirky-looking little girl eating and drinking while the two older men looked on helplessly.

And the Pill League people were already hanging out in a landscape of staggered, seemingly undulating people.

However, a large group of people from the Pill Alliance surrounded the small building but did not dare to go forward.

At this time, a middle-aged man with a somewhat serious expression walked out from the crowd of the Pill Alliance and walked up to Ye Lu, who was eating and drinking, and said.

“Is this the new disciple of the Mo Lian lineage? I’m an ‘outer deacon’ of the ‘Trapped Mountain’ where the ‘Mo Lian’ is located, so I’m also ‘Mo Lian’s’ superior, so please also give me face and let all these fellow disciples go.”

This guy looked hung up so many people, so he spoke quite politely.

Ye Lu then said indifferently.

“You can give face, you can make all of them kowtow and apologize to Master Mo Lian, and then all the men will strip naked and run around the venue naked, then this matter will be finished.”

Hearing Ye Lu’s words, this “Outer Sect Deacon”’s eyes immediately glared round as he looked at Ye Lu and said angrily.

“You are really shameless, it seems that I can only teach you a lesson.”

With these words, this guy rushed towards Ye Lu.

“Although the “Pill Alliance” was strong, the “outer deacon” couldn’t be too unbelievable, so Ye Lu didn’t take him seriously, but then he saw an “orange-red” flame released from this guy’s hand.

“Beast fire? I have to feel it.”

Seeing that this “outer sect deacon” had released “beast fire”, Ye Lu changed his plan and gave up his counterattack, instead letting the other guy’s fist hit his own body.

A blow with flames struck Ye Lu’s body.

A smile appeared on the face of the “outside deacon”.

From his point of view, this unknown kid was simply unbeatable, he couldn’t even dodge such a simple attack, he really couldn’t understand how those people just hung on.

However, he immediately understood this matter, because Ye Lu casually patted the flames on his body to break the flames, and then quickly shot out his hand to clasp this guy’s pulse, and then locked his body meridians.

This was actually a “Saint Grade Martial Skill”, as it did not involve the “external release of astral energy”, but was actually more powerful than many “spells”, the reason being that it required close contact to perform, and was somewhat weak in the face of the various external “spells”, but was very difficult to break once you were hit.

What’s more, Ye Lu was not using “innate astral energy”, but more powerful spiritual energy, so this one could not move immediately.

Ye Lu picked up a wooden stick beside him, passed it through his clothes, and then threw the man around, and he hung on the trunk of the tree.

Ye Luo casually took off his clothes, revealing a strong muscular body and said.

“Who else?”

At first, people thought that Ye Lu was just defeating some small fishes, but this “Outer Sect Deacon” was in charge of outreach, so many people had seen him and knew that this guy was not a master to be messed with.

At this time, suddenly, a man from the “Ge family” came over with his men.

This guy walked up to Ye Lu’s side and said with a frown.

“This friend, this ‘conference’ is hosted by our ‘Ge Family’, you are making it very difficult for our ‘Ge Family’ to do this, do you think you should let them go.”

Ye Lu then smiled and said.

“I don’t mean to make things difficult for your ‘Ge Family’, I don’t have any grudges with your ‘Ge Family’ either, this is an internal matter of our ‘Pill Alliance’, I think if they don’t agree to my terms later, I will hang them all naked for the night, regardless of their gender.”

Hearing Ye Lu’s words, the man from the “Ge family” frowned and said.

“Then there is no other way, we have to be offended.”

At these words, this guy waved his hand, and two people from the Ge family rushed towards Ye Lu, these two people were of a very good level, they were both at the cultivation level of “Second Turn of Golden Dan”, however, to Ye Lu now, such cultivation level was nothing.

As the two men struck, Ye Lu also struck at the same time.

The two guys’ “Innate Astral Qi” was blocked by the sudden appearance of a flame shield.

Now that Ye Lu had three types of Origin Fire in his body, his ability to manipulate flames had been unprecedentedly improved, and he was able to use all kinds of flame “spells” at his fingertips.

As a result, these two guys were unlucky enough to be hung up on wooden sticks, just like Ye Lu.

Now everyone exploded, this is too fierce, even the organizer’s people dare to screw, this is the rhythm of going out of the way?

“Isn’t he afraid that the organisers will give him small shoes?”

“He’s not afraid, look at him, he’s just here to cause trouble, I guess he doesn’t know how to make pills.”

“You’re so right, he doesn’t look like he’s from our side of the fence.”

“Wait for the good show, this guy is definitely not going to have a good time even if he participates in the competition.”

.....

Hearing the words of the crowd, even Lin Ruyue felt a bit bad.

Because what these guys said was right, there were actually many unfair operations at every convention, and the organizers had this right to operate in the dark, and it was definitely not fun for Ye Lu to offend them as well.

Ye Lu took a sip of his wine and looked at the man from the “Ge family” and said with a smile.

“You see, I have already given face to your ‘Ge family’, you know, according to my previous habit, for such a guy who comes up to fight, I always beat him up first before talking.”

Hearing Ye Lu’s words, someone from the crowd of onlookers immediately whispered disdainfully.

“Sh*t, really can pretend, I’ve never seen such a goods that can hit the p*ssy”

“Yeah, I can’t stand watching it”

As a result, before these two guys could finish, two flames appeared out of nowhere and burned both of their clothes with precision.

Ye Lu then took a sip of wine and looked at the two of them and said.

“Get lost if you don’t want to see, whoever dares to bullsh*t again I will beat one of them on sight.”

Hearing Ye Lu’s words, Zhu Qi Huang’s mouthful of water “snorted!” He spat out.

He thought to himself.

“Okay, now everyone is offended.”

Chapter 389

And Miao Renlong has lowered his head and buried his face low, some regret and Ye Lu know, this goods where is the troublemaker ah, simply a pest ah.

“Don’t ever involve me in this, I don’t know this goods, full of God and Buddha bless, God and Buddha bless”

Miao Renlong began to pray silently.

However, seeing that the two people who had just spoken had both become without any clothes, most of the people around them did not dare to talk nonsense anymore.

However, there were many fish and dragons here, and there were many experts, so it was impossible to be intimidated just because Ye Lu had shown this hand and cleaned up two “Jin Dan Second Turn” guys.

It was because in the secular world, every pill refiner was extremely valuable, especially the senior pill refiners, and the pill refiners worshipped by various families, who did not treat them as treasures.

Therefore, apart from clans such as the Pill Alliance and the Dan Tower, the pill refiners of other clans are all protected by a group of experts from the clan.

These protectors were all good fighters of the clan and were also experts in fighting.

Sure enough, a man who was not used to seeing Ye Lu took a step forward and said.

“You’re arrogant for bullying two rookies, let’s see me clean you up.”

This guy was different from the two just now, this guy had already crossed into the “Void Dan Realm”, with a cultivation level of “Golden Dan Fourth Turn”, which was a small realm higher than the two just now, there was already a qualitative difference.

Such people, as long as they are not too low-profile hidden families, are all people with a reputation in the jianghu, and this guy is no exception.

“That’s right, ‘Across the four seas, let me be heavenly’, the Ren Family’s supreme expert is really still in style!”

“That’s for sure, the Ren family is a truly great family in the capital.”

.....

Seeing this scene, the crowd was all talking about it.

Hearing everyone say something about the “Ren family”, Ye Lu suddenly remembered the two people he had met on Tianma Mountain, Ren Yi and Ren Yao, Ye Lu still had a very good impression of these two brothers, two very affectionate and righteous people.

And, but they also said that they were from a big family in the capital, only, the two didn’t contact Ye Lu afterwards, and Ye Lu didn’t bother to contact them.

So, Ye Luo looked at this guy and said.

“I also have some connections with your Ren family, so it’s best for you not to wade into this mess, there’s no good result from competing for power.”

When he heard Ye Lu say something about “being competitive”, Miao Renlong couldn’t help but spit out in his heart.

“What the hell is ‘no good result’, aren’t you just being competitive?”

However, Ye Luo was not stressed at all at the moment.

The reason he was so arrogant was because on the way Lin Ruyue had taught Ye Luo the “disguise technique”, his appearance was completely different from before, and no one would recognize him as Ye Luo.

Of course, he also understood that he could not really hurt anyone, once he lost his qualification for the tournament it would be more than worth it.

As a strong man, of course, Ren Tianxing would not back down just because Ye Lu said two words, since he stood out, then he had to show the strength of their Ren family to do so, because, he also came with a mission, that is, they still have to find a new consecrated pill refiner to do so.

So, he looked at Ye Lu and said coldly.

“No need to get close, don’t worry, this is where civilized people are, I won’t really do anything to you, you remember the saying ‘do unto others as they do unto you’, I’ll let you hang on the tree too, just like those people just now.”

With these words, this guy struck out, just like Ye Lu just now, also a kind of “martial art” of grappling, but, seeing Ren Tianxing’s action, Ye Lu was happy.

He had originally thought that it would take some effort to fight Ren Tianxing.

He thought that Ye Lu’s various identities had almost revealed his cards, such as the “Heavenly Vine” and the “Blood Puppet” Caraxis, etc. It would still be very difficult to deal with an expert of the “Void Dan Realm” without using any of his cards.

But now, this Ren Tianxing was actually playing close combat with himself, which was like giving him a pillow to sleep on!

So, Ye Luo quickly shot out his hand, and when his opponent held his own pulse door, he also held his opponent’s pulse door with his opposite hand, and then, both of them began to channel dark energy into each other’s body.

Ye Lu used black spiritual energy, while Ren Tian Xing used “innate astral energy” of the “Ninth Turn of the Golden Elixir” realm, and the two were completely different, especially in this kind of close combat.

Immediately, Ren Tianxing’s face changed and his heart was filled with surprise.

Then, amidst everyone’s shouts of surprise, the great master in everyone’s mind, “Ren Tianxing”, was also hung by a stick on a big tree.

“Sh*t! Holy sh*t!”

“Holy sh*t, how could he be so strong.”

“Convincing with a capital letter.”

“This is the character hovering between Bull A and Bull C!”

.....

Everyone present was stunned by this scene because Ren Tianxing’s fame was immense, while Ye Lu had not even heard of it, let alone seen it.

“The clan, unfathomable!”

“Yes, the ‘Pill Alliance’ is too scary, can’t afford to mess with it, can’t afford to mess with it!”

“Cherish your life, stay away from the ‘Pill Alliance’, the ‘Pontifications’ really do live up to their name.”

“Now I finally know the depths of the ‘clan’.”

“All in all, it’s better not to mess with him!”

.....

This blow from Ye Luo had dissuaded the vast majority of people from the thought of messing with him again.

When they heard the words of these people, the people of the “Pill Alliance” felt quite surprised, because they also did not expect such a result. Now it seems that things seem to have had a propaganda effect on the “Pill Alliance”, making everyone understand the strength of the Pill Alliance, and it seems to be more effective than any other choice.

On the Pill Alliance side, everyone was also discussing their response.

“Forget it, let him go, it’s useless for those minions to attend the conference, and these kids are used to being arrogant, so it’s good to have someone to clean up after them, to show them that they need to behave in a practical manner.”

Finally, the leader of the Pill Alliance said to the crowd.

“Go on, don’t let the female disciples lose face, and let those boys run a little.”

Hearing the leader’s words, someone walked towards Ye Luo, while at the same time, the Ge family was doing the same thing, everyone was planning whether to take action against Ye Luo or not.

“Let’s forget it.”

One of them said in the end.

“Looking at the current situation if we really fight, it will definitely cause chaos, anyway, it only involves the ‘Pill Alliance’, so it’s good to avoid other people getting involved.”

“As for the back score, we have plenty of time to settle it with him, isn’t the ‘test’ starting tomorrow, we’ll slowly condition him then”

With those words, the guy gave an impish smile.

The other guy also showed a heartfelt smile.

However, when this man walked to the place where Ye Lu and the others were, he found that the matter had already been settled in advance, the people of the “Pill Alliance” had already given in and all the female disciples had been released, while the male disciples were all taking off their clothes, it looked like a “naked” run was inevitable.

As expected, a large group of naked men began to run around the venue.

Miao Renlong stared at Ye Lu with an incredulous look on his face and asked.

“What’s all this about? How did it go soft?”

Ye Luo took a sip of wine and said with a smile.

“What else can we do, really let a dignified figure from the ‘Pill Alliance’ come and fight a big battle, then the ‘Pill Alliance’ will just lose more face.”

Zhu Qi Huang then said with a sigh.

“Little Master ah, the people of the ‘Ge Family’ will definitely target you next, you will definitely be unlucky this time.”

Ye Lu, on the other hand, said indifferently.

“Fear not, I have encountered a lot of bad luck recently, and this is not the worst.”

Seeing so many men running around the venue with no image at all, all the pill refiners felt a bit weepy and laughable, in countless years, there had never been a “pill refiner conference” like this.

“Hey, it looks like there’s going to be a lot of fun at the Pill Refiner’s Conference this time.”

Someone looked at this scene and laughed.

Chapter 390

Indeed, Ye Lu’s little building and this scene just now had pushed the whole event to the top and made everyone look forward to this “Pill Maker’s Conference”.

So, Ye Lu and the others spent a pleasant night on the small building and went to the “Pill Makers’ Conference” the next day, refreshed and fresh, and of course, Lin Ruyue did not want to miss such a once-in-a-decade event, so Ye Lu and Lin Ruyue went to the venue together.

Ye Luo used his original name this time, because all the people in the Pill Alliance were registered, he could change his appearance but not his name.

There was a registration person at the entrance of the venue, so Ye Lu and Lin Ruyue registered and went in. The test was divided into batches because there were really too many people coming to take part.

The test was very simple to say the least, the only purpose was to test if everyone was qualified to participate in this “conference”.

After all, you can’t just sign up and take part.

Of course, this test varies from one year to the next, as it depends on the number and level of participants.

Soon everyone and the audience was in place, and the stands prepared by the Ge Family were large enough for everyone to look excitedly at the “pill-making platform” in the venue.

Of course, these were prepared by the organisers, so if you didn’t want to use them, you could use the ones you had brought with you, as no one knew in advance what kind of pills each person would be making, so there was no fear of cheating.

However, although it was a designated potion test, there was an unwritten rule for all the previous “pill refiners” that the pills to be made during the test were the most common ones, and that the recipe, steps to be taken and sufficient time to make them were to be provided.

In other words, it was a qualification test and there was no need to be serious.

Everyone understood this, so everyone was relaxed, however, when everyone heard the host’s words, there was a large group of people whose expressions changed first, as the host said.

“In this assembly, as there are so many people coming and all of them are of an extremely high standard, this ‘test’ is different from the previous ones, this time, the pills to be made are ‘second-rank’ pills, and of course, the lowest ‘Mortal’ pills, and they are not required to be perfect, as long as they can have a certain medicinal effect.”

When they heard this instruction, everyone was taken aback, because the rules of previous editions were known to everyone, and the qualification test only needed to be able to refine any kind of pills that could be used.

In other words, it was only necessary to make a “first-order pill” for use in the “Houtian Realm”.

After Ye Lu, who was already standing next to the designated “pill refining platform”, saw the announcement, many people simply withdrew.

After that, some more people came in.

It seemed that there were quite a few people who were unable to meet the qualifications.

After a group of people had been replaced, the host said once again.

“Alright, next everyone has one hour to refine the pills prepared for you, since this is a test, only one batch of herbs has been prepared, so please use them carefully.”

After hearing him out, Ye Lu opened the drawer underneath the “pill refining table”, and there were indeed materials and a potion recipe inside.

To be honest, compared to other “pill refiners”, Ye Lu had made very few kinds of pills, because he had not received systematic training and only made pills that he needed.

Therefore, after seeing the name of this elixir, he felt that it was completely unfamiliar.

At this moment, in the organiser’s area of the grandstand, several people from the Ge family were watching the scene, and one of them said with a smile.

“The recipe I gave is for the ‘Five Elements Pill’, now I’ll see how he can make it.”

Hearing his words, another man then laughed and picked up a thumb and said.

“High, really high, although everyone knows about this elixir, it is indeed a ‘second-order elixir’, and the grade is really not high either, so it can be justified.”

The efficacy of the “Five Elements Pill” was actually very simple and practical, it was to supplement the deficiencies of the five elements of the “Innate Martial Artist”, however, it was extremely difficult to refine, because one had to be very familiar with the five elements of heaven and earth, “gold, wood, water, fire and earth”, and the five elements had to be balanced.

Therefore, although the effect is extremely practical, basically no one will refine this thing, because the preparation of the five elements materials itself is expensive, and the failure rate is devastating, the loss is not worth the gain.

And that questioner said with a smile once again at this point.

“The high point is not just this, I have also done a little bit of fiddling on the dan recipe I gave him.”

As he spoke, Ye Luo could also see the problem with the dan recipe.

The problem was not in the configuration, the amount of each herb was actually correct and the refining process was fine, but there was a problem in the details.

For example, when melting the dan, it was written “Harmonize the power of enlightenment and fuse it into a dan”, without knowing any of the details, which was not wrong, but it was the same as saying nothing.

Of course, Ye Lu didn’t say anything about it. Anyway, the recipe for this “Five Elements Pill” was lying in the “Medical Ability” of “Glasses”, and it wasn’t the version provided by the “Ge Family”, but the version of the “Second Grade Heavenly Product”.

“Pills are the same as magic weapons, and there are grades for each grade of pills, with “Mortal” being the lowest and “Saint” being the highest.

For example, a “Heavenly Grade” recipe could only produce a “Heavenly Grade” pill at the highest, but of course, if your level was too poor, you might only produce a “Mortal Grade” pill, because there was only a ceiling, not a lower limit.

The reason why Ye Luo chose the “Heavenly Grade” elixir was because of the limited amount of materials given.

After finding the recipe, Ye Lu looked at the pots provided to everyone, but there was no tampering on them, probably because he did not think it was necessary.

So, Ye Luo did not use the “Burning Heaven Furnace” and threw the materials directly into the furnace to prepare for processing.

Around him, everyone had already taken out various materials and started releasing various flames.

Because there was no flame provided at the “Pill Maker’s Conference”, you could use “beast fire” or any flame you brought with you, including starting a bonfire, and no one cared.

Ye Luo looked around and saw that someone had actually lit a pile of firewood.

Of course, Ye Luo didn’t need to do this, he now had the “three primary colours” of flame, so he could create any colour of flame he wanted, and didn’t have to worry about the flame being discovered at all.

So he thought about it and unleashed a pink flame.

However, the moment Ye Lu's flame came out it caused a commotion as all the flames present seemed to have the wind blowing them towards Ye Lu's flame, as if they were making a pilgrimage.

"Evil flames! That fellow actually knows how to use evil fire!"

"It can't be an evil cultivator, can it."

"I don't think so, an official member of the 'Pill Alliance', how could he be an evil cultivator."

"But that 'Ten Thousand Flames Pilgrimage' is really cool!"

The Miaojiang "Evil Fire Elder" is famous, and many people have seen the "Wudang Mountain" Golden Peak battle, so they are very familiar with this kind of flame.

The appearance of the "Origin Fire" was not expected to cause such a commotion, but, as it was, he had no choice but to mutter to himself.

"Mao's evil fire, but I just thought of it, so I made it this colour."

However, his action of releasing the flames did take many people a little by surprise.

After all, being able to control "beast fire" or "spirit fire" was the sign of a powerful "pill refiner", and only such a person could truly refine high-quality pills.

"This guy really looks like he knows how to make pills."

"It feels like it."

"Not necessarily, being able to play with fire is not the same as being able to make pills!"

.....

Seeing this scene, everyone started to talk about it.

And Ye Luo began to handle and separate the various herbs very skillfully, something that was simply a breeze in front of flexibility and aura.

Seeing Ye Lu's methods, the people of the "Ge family" were also somewhat surprised.

Zhu Qihuang, Miao Renlong and Miao Fengling were still seeing Ye Lu refine pills for the first time, so the three of them were also stunned by Ye Lu's fast refining technique.

Just as everyone was busy refining, Ye Luo had already finished condensing the pills quickly, and then raised his hand to indicate.

"I have finished refining."
