Chapter 511

When the group's vision returned, they had arrived in a canyon surrounded by trees, but apparently the trees here were completely different from those in the "Secret Realm of Ten Thousand Beasts", not the extremely tall ones, but the kind of trees commonly found on Earth.

"Is it back?"

"It seems to have really come back."

"But what I wonder is, how did we get back?"

"Yes, who summoned us back?"

.....

Following this, everyone saw a group of people sitting in the formation who were chanting incantations, a group that was cut off into two pieces, with one side being predominantly women and the other side being predominantly men.

"It's the Dragon people."

"Those are the people of the Vermilion Bird, right?"

.....

Some of the people from the "Dragon Clan" had appeared in their transformed forms, so some people recognized some of the "Dragon Clan" people.

Ye Yan and the others looked at Ye Lu with a puzzled expression.

Ye Lu smiled and said.

"It's simple, it's a reverse summoning."

"Since we can summon people from the 'Secret Realm of Ten Thousand Beasts' through the 'Summoning Technique', then naturally the demonic beasts in the 'Secret Realm of Ten Thousand Beasts' can also summon people inside the 'Secret Realm of Ten Thousand Beasts' through some sort of summoning."

"This kind of reverse summoning is called 'reverse summoning'."

"Although not everyone knew the summoning technique, most people had heard of it, but, to be honest, many people did not know where the summoned demonic beasts actually belonged to, as everyone used such summoned beasts as tools.

Of course, people would not have thought that those "summoned beasts" could also summon humans in reverse.

However, Ye Yan was still a bit puzzled and asked.

"Then how did everyone get out?"

This time, Ye Lu smiled and said.

“I’ll tell you more about that later when I have the chance.”

He didn’t want to reveal all his secrets to the public here, in fact, it was very simple to say that he had used the “magic puppet” to get the “Vermillion Bird” clan to bring the “magic puppet” as fast as possible. “Then he caught a suitable person from the Beast Alliance and used his blood to turn the puppet into him.

Basically everyone in the Beast Alliance wears a “spirit beast bracelet”, so they can use the “spirit beast bracelet” to turn the “Vermillion Bird Clan” and the “Dragon Clan”. After leaving, it would be easy to find a way to leave the secret realm of the “Beast Alliance”. After leaving, the next step would be to find a way to leave the secret realm of the “Beast Alliance”, then go to a certain valley in the “Heavenly Mountain” and start the reverse summoning.

As for the method of reverse summoning, of course, Ye Lu taught them through the “Magic Puppet”, which was like a doppelganger of Ye Lu, so it was very convenient.

Following this, the second summoning of the Dragons and the Vermillion Birds began.

In this way, a group of people were summoned, and it didn’t take long for everyone to leave the “Secret Realm of the Ten Thousand Beasts”.

This was the only way Ye Lu could think of to bypass the “entrance and exit” and get people out.

“Thank you, Lord Ye, for saving my life. If there’s anything you need, we, the Nuwa Clan, will do whatever we can!”

The leader of the “Nuwa Clan” came over and gave a deep salute.

Following this, the leader of the Southern Chu clan also came over with his men and saluted.

“Thank you, Lord Ye Lu, for saving my life, we in Southern Chu will definitely return the favour, please accept our obeisance.”

Then all the people of the “Southern Chu” fell down in obeisance.

Next, people from other clans and forces also came over, no matter what kind of relationship they had, and no matter what kind of opinion they had of Ye Lu, there was no doubt that Ye Lu had saved their lives this time.

Ye Lu did not care too much about this, he was still immersed in the joy of his trip to the “Secret Realm of Ten Thousand Beasts”.

This time, he had basically accomplished everything he wanted to accomplish by entering the “Secret Realm of the Ten Thousand Beasts”, and the four “Beast Eggs”, namely the “Ying Dragon” and the “Vermillion Bird”. Even the Sun Candle has hatched, and the “Star Destiny Man” that I was looking for has been found. With the inherited memories and various “spells” and “bloodline divine abilities”, Ye Lu felt that Ye Yan was definitely about to enter a period of rapid growth.

The only regret at the moment was that he still hadn't found a way to hatch his "nameless beast egg", so if he could solve this problem again, things would be perfect.

While Ye Lu was thinking about it, all the teams had already left, and soon, the only people left behind were the people from the Hundred Flowers Sect and the "Heavenly Doctor Elder" from the Pill Alliance and others.

"Ye Lu, when are you going to join the clan?"

"The sisters of the Hundred Flowers Sect came over and looked at Ye Lu and asked with a smile.

Ye Luo usually did not have any attitude, so the sisters of the Hundred Flowers Sect often laughed and joked with him, so they immediately surrounded Ye Luo and laughed and joked.

Ye Luo instantly turned into a green leaf among all the flowers.

At this scene, Ye Yan and her sisters' eyebrows furrowed.

"When did Ye Luo get together with these women?"

Ye Yan looked at Ye Lu who was surrounded by women and said with a bit of a headache.

However, she found that Long Feixue and Qin Shiyu did not react too much to the two of them, so she had to pretend not to see them herself.

To be honest, Ye Luo was also very afraid of these women's pestering a lot of the time, so he hurriedly waved his hand and said.

"Alright, well, I'll definitely go back as soon as possible."

It was only with great difficulty that Ye Lu sent the people from the Hundred Flowers Sect away. She did not say anything more, but followed the Heavenly Doctor Elder back to the Pill Alliance.

To be honest, Pill Shu wanted to stay, but she couldn't find a suitable reason to do so.

After everyone had left, the leader of the group of people from the Dragon Clan came over to Ye Lu and gave Ye Lu a salute, saying.

"Ye Lu, these people of the 'Dragon Clan' will always be at your service, and I, 'Golden Dragon' Di Qi, will always be at your disposal, even if I have to go through fire and water."

With those words, Di Qi then made a standard dragon bow towards Ye Luo.

Ye Luo hurriedly helped Di Qi up, this guy was a super monster that had surpassed the "Yuan Ying realm", it was actually very easy to kill Ye Luo.

However, people of the "Dragon Clan" knew how to repay kindness, and since Ye Lu had saved his life, of course he had to repay him.

Just as Ye Luo had not yet responded, Ye Luo, a member of the Vermilion Bird Clan, walked over.

"I am 'Red Luan' of the 'Vermilion Bird Clan', and we, the Vermilion Bird Clan, are also at your disposal from now on, following you whether we live or die."

Seeing this scene, Ye Luo then scratched his head, then looked at the two clansmen and thought about it and said.

“Alright, but what I want to say is that you guys don’t need to be so polite, everyone is free, since you have arrived at the earthly realm, then have a good time in this world, there are plenty of fun things to do in this world anyway, however, in three days, everyone has to go with me to a place where we are going to have a battle, I am afraid there will be a lot of mess and we’ll be relying on you guys then.”

Hearing Ye Lu’s words, many people were happy, because everyone had actually wanted to come to the human world for a long time to have some fun.

“Alright, let’s all go back and get some rest too, everyone is exhausted from this period of devil training, let’s go, go home, go home.”

Ye Lu said with a smile.

After such a long time, Ye Yan’s big villa was finally completely ready to move in, so the destination everyone went to was Ye Yan’s villa.

Of course, so many people from the “Dragon Clan” and the “Vermilion Bird Clan” had to settle in first, so Ye Lu chartered a five-star hotel, and all the customers who could be whisked away had to pay five times the room price, or ten times if they couldn’t, anyway, money was nothing for Ye Lu and the others now. The money is nothing here.

Although these people from the Dragon and Vermilion Bird clans had high cultivation levels that people looked up to, they had never been to the human world before, so they were very curious about everything they saw. After that, he went back to Ye Yan’s villa.

The next step was to prepare for the battle of Mount Fuji.

Chapter 512

Only when they arrived at Ye Yan’s villa did they understand what luxurious decoration meant, they could simply describe Ye Yan’s house as “glorious”.

“I say, elder sister, this is not quite the same as what we first said!”

Ye Lu looked at the villa and said with some confusion.

Ye Yan smiled and said.

“This ah, it’s like this, I made too much money from opening the shop, and I didn’t know how I should spend it, so, I spent it on the villa, and it turned out to be like this.”

However, this is good, several women have been tossing and turning for some time, the last escape Ye Lu did not let everyone idle, has been consolidating cultivation, because Ye Lu did not plan to take several of them to the duel in Mount Fuji, so, he wanted to let several women try to be able to improve a little before he left.

So, the luxurious decoration was just right for them to have a good rest.

“Well, you can have the biggest one here, as a reward for letting us get the benefit of the doubt this time, let’s go to bed.”

Ye Yan gave the largest and best-decorated bedroom to Ye Lu, and then took Long Fei Xue and Qin Si Yu away, while Teng Xie took the initiative to take on the task of guarding.

Because of the master-servant contract, of course, the only ones Ye Lu could trust completely were the Teng Snakes and the demonic beasts he was associated with, but as for the others, although he could not say he did not trust them, he could not trust them 100%.

“The Teng Snakes were curious for the first time in the “secular world”, but they were responsible for guarding the villa.

After that, he ran back to his room and pestered Ye Lu to give him a house to live in as well.

After that, Ye Lu began to look for information about the Japanese cultivation world in the “Underworld App”.

The “Underworld” is almost pervasive in the secular world, so Ye Lu not only can get information from the “Society of the Extreme Way”, but also from the “Shadow of Death”, and Ye Lu has given a lot of benefits to the “Shadow of Death”, and basically all his transactions with the “Underworld” are conducted through the “Shadow of Death”, which makes them gain a lot.

Therefore, the people of Death’s Shadow also liked dealing with Ye Lu.

It didn’t take long for Ye Lu to get some basic news, and it was extremely bad news, that “Abe Haruaki” had not regained his cultivation but had become the clear leader of the Japanese cultivation community, and that he had helped the Japanese cultivation community to awaken the gods of the shrine and together they had subdued the Hundred Demons.

The “Hundred Demons” are not really a hundred types of demons, but in fact there are far more than a hundred, including some of the most powerful demons in Japanese legend, such as the “Great Tengu”, the “Nine-tailed Fox” and the “Yaki Orochi”.

Of course, one of the Three Great Demons, the “Sake-Ton Boy”, is here with Ye Lu, so this one must be missing from their hundred demons.

However, the one in Ye Lu’s hand was specially treated to play tricks, so its combat power had been completely degraded, but the other two were complete, so Ye Lu was curious to know how strong the other two were, but since this was rather inside information, Ye Lu did not have it yet.

Ye Lu was not surprised that “Abe Haruaki” had become the leader of Japanese practitioners in the open.

“The first is that once he recovers, he will definitely be an old monster, after all, he is a human who has lived for more than a thousand years.

This is the same reason why powerful “alchemists” are scarce and precious.

“Abe Haruaki definitely understands everything.

“In other words, I’m afraid that this trip is a challenge to the entire Japanese ‘cultivation community’!”

Ye Lu secretly muttered.

Soon, all sorts of new news and details began to gradually appear as well.

“‘Abe Haruaki’ has already obtained the three great divine weapons, ‘Heavenly Clouds Sword’, ‘Eight Feet of Qiong Gouyu’ and ‘Eight Hand Mirror’, which has shocked the Japanese cultivation world.”

Ye Lu had heard of various rumours about the “Three Great Divine Weapons”.

The “Heavenly Clouds Sword” was also called the “Kusanagi Sword” and was said to have been obtained from the body of the “Yagyū Orochi”. If he had obtained the “Yagyū Orochi” and the “Heavenly Clouds Sword” at the same time, then I am afraid that the “Yagyū Orochi” would become a bully.

As for the “Eight Shaku Kyo Gouyu”, it is a treasure related to the demon “Big Tengu”, also known as “Amaterasu Omikami”, but it is not known exactly what it does.

There is also the “Yatsugumi Mirror”, which is said to be a treasure in the “Ise Shrine”, but of course, Ye Lu is not sure what it is for.

But since it was called a “sacred weapon”, it must be quite magical.

Through various sources, Ye Lu found out that since this old monster “Abe Haruaki” had been resurrected, he had really done a lot of things, no wonder the Japanese cultivation community had taken him as their leader.

“This battle doesn’t look too good!”

Ye Luo muttered darkly.

At first, Ye Lu felt that the old monster’s reawakening would be difficult, because this kind of reawakening was not as simple as “bloodline awakening” or “obtaining an inheritance”, for the old monster “Abe Haruaki”, he only had to do one thing, and that was to recover his cultivation.

Moreover, Ye Lu also found that the Japanese cultivation community was very high-profile this time, posting a message saying.

“Welcome Stocking Masked Man to Japan!”

Of course, this news headline must have been translated as a spoof, but Japan did publicize this matter in a high profile in all major media, and at the same time, it was also claimed that the difference between “Silk Stocking Masked Man” and “Abe Haruaki” was like the difference between a firefly and the sun and the moon, which was completely degrading to “Abe Haruaki’s” reputation.

It is also said that Abe Haruaki has been transformed from the dead and has the ability to summon the most powerful “gods”.

This summoning technique was also called the “Great Summoning Technique” by the Japanese cultivation community.

When he saw this, Ye Lu skimmed his lips.

“You’re still too young to compete with me in the ‘summoning art’, but it’s a pity that my cultivation level is not high now, otherwise I would scare you to death.”

The Japanese “yin and yang masters” were the best and strongest at summoning gods, and they did have their own unique skills in summoning, but Ye Lu did not think they could surpass “glasses”.

“I wonder how the ‘three-legged golden crow’ is hatching?”

After going through the various news, Ye Lu began to study the eggs of the “Three-legged Golden Crow” and the “Heavenly Sun Candle”, but he did not dare to let the “Three-legged Golden Crow” come out, as it would definitely be torched when it came out of the villa.

As a result, he found that there was still no reaction from the Sun Candle’s egg.

“It’s not too late for a good meal, take your time to hatch.”

Ye Luo muttered, then took a short rest and got up before dawn to go to the mouth of the Yellow River, where the “Big Wind” had stopped being Ye Luo’s mount after entering the “Secret Realm of Ten Thousand Beasts”.

At this moment, Ye Luo was still riding a Lightning Griffin, so of course she was very fast and arrived at her destination in just over ten minutes.

Ye Lu had agreed to meet with Gushiqi here, no matter if what the “Pan Gu Clan” said was true or not, Ye Lu had to meet with Gushiqi to confirm it.

It was Gushiki who helped Ye Lu get the first bucket of gold in his life, and as the saying goes, “You can’t forget to dig the well when you eat water”, Ye Lu couldn’t leave Gushiki alone.

Soon, a group of people flew over from afar, and in the forefront was none other than Gushiqi, whom he had not seen for a long time.

After seeing Ye Lu, Gu Shiqi urged the demonic beast under her feet to fly towards Ye Lu.

Chapter 513

He was very happy to see Gushiki again, but what surprised him was the demonic beast at Gushiki’s feet, which looked too odd.

It was an odd demonic beast with eyes, nose, ears, and even a mouth, all smooth looking as if it was very soft, however, the limbs were there, but there were no sharp claws, and it looked very cute in a rolled shape.

“Name: Chaos, Level: First Transformation of YuanYing Realm, Origin: Pan Gu Secret Realm, Description: the first of the four ancient fierce beasts, has no attributes, but can fuse any attributes, and at the same time can store any attribute attack and transform it into its own attack .....”

Seeing this “Chaos God Beast”, Ye Lu was a little bit red-eyed, now everyone had their “Original Spirit Beast” and it was so powerful, only himself and Liu Mei didn’t have their “Original Spirit Beast” yet.

“Ye Lu, you’ve finally come to find me, it’s been a long time!”

Gu Shiqi smiled as she jumped onto the Lightning Griffin that Ye Lu was standing on and looked at Ye Lu with a smile.

When he saw Gushiki, Ye Lu was overjoyed, he looked Gushiki up and down, and then said with a smile.

“You’ve become beautiful.”

As a result, Gushiki said with a pout as she stared at him.

“What do you mean by getting prettier, I’ve always been pretty, okay?”

Hearing this from her, Ye Lu smiled, it looked like the Gushiki in front of him was still the same Gushiki he had known for a long time.

“Oh, good, good, it’s been so long, why didn’t you tell me, causing me to worry to death, just about hitting up the ancient clan.”

Hearing Ye Lu’s words, Gu Shiqi spat out her tongue and said.

“You were really worried?”

Ye Lu nodded of course.

Only then did Gu Shiqi’s expression slightly unnatural blushed a little and said.

“I also wanted to tell you earlier for fear that you would be worried, however, I was in the secret realm of the secret realm before and couldn’t get out, so I asked the people from the ‘Pan Gu clan’ to give a message, but unfortunately, they didn’t pay any attention to this matter, they looked for you and ignored this matter after they found out that you weren’t at school.”

“I only just found out about it, because you’re so bullish now, so the ‘Pan Gu clan’ is also taking you quite seriously.”

Hearing what Gu Shiqi said, it seemed that the ‘Pan Gu clan’ really didn’t give her a hard time, but Ye Lu was still not quite sure, so he asked again.

“They didn’t do anything to threaten you or anything like that, did they?”

Gu Shiqi smiled and said.

“Don’t worry, of course not, because I’m a ‘Star Destined One’, that’s why they arrested me, but they didn’t expect me to have the ‘Pan Gu’ bloodline and because of a coincidental relationship to be ‘Pan Gu Axe’ acknowledged having received the inheritance of the ‘Pan Gu Clan’.”

“Now they can’t wait to offer me up, how could they possibly make things difficult for me.”

Following that, Gu Shiqi then said with a wry smile.

“Let me show you my ‘Pan Gu Axe’, it’s truly the oldest antique, it’s powerful.”

As she said that, a huge axe that emitted an endless pressure appeared in the air.

The axe didn’t look very ornate, giving the impression that two things stood out, one was its thickness, the other was its sharpness, and its appearance instead looked ancient.

After taking out the “Pan Gu Axe”, Gu Shiqi recited the words in her mouth.

The “Pan Gu Axe” flew up and grew bigger rapidly, the feeling of heaviness became more and more intense, and then, the incomparably huge axe shadow appeared in the air.

“Go!”

With a loud shout from Gu Shiqi, the Pan Gu Axe instantly grew bigger again and slashed at a small mountain not far away.

Ye Luo saw the hill near the top of the mountain being cut in two by this axe.

Many stones and pieces of earth fell down.

“Drink! Amazing my sister!”

Seeing this scene, Ye Lu was also shocked, this felt very much like the legendary “mountain moving and reclamation” kung fu, he asked himself that he should not be able to do it, because it did not rely entirely on his own cultivation, but also had the corresponding weapons to provide support.

“LOL! Awesome, isn’t it!”

Hearing Ye Lu’s compliment, Gu Shiqi also giggled, very proud of herself.

Only then did Ye Luo point at the rounded demonic beast and ask.

“Shiqi, is this ‘Chaos’ your ‘original spirit beast’? When did it hatch?”

Gu Shiqi said with a smile.

“It was also obtained at the same time word got the ‘Pan Gu Inheritance’, you actually know that it is ‘Chaos’ ah, you really know a lot, I call him ‘Ball’, isn’t that a good image?”

When he heard Gushiki say his name was ‘Ball’, the Chaos twisted its body in response, and Ye Lu didn’t know if it was protesting or saying it liked it.

I guess it was helpless at such a low name.

Seeing that Gushiki had such a great chance, Ye Lu was finally completely relieved, while Gushiki looked at him and said with a smile.

“Don’t worry about me, I guess I’ll stay here in the ‘Ancient Clan’ for a while until I help them open the ‘Gate to the Immortal Mansion’, and I also want to raise my cultivation level, I find that cultivation is still quite interesting.”

Ye Luo was also going to Japan soon, so he nodded and said.

“Work hard to improve, remember to come out to see me when you have time, I have some pills here for you, I originally wanted to make a weapon for you, but now it seems that safety is not necessary.”

Is there a weapon stronger than the “Pan Gu Axe” in the world? Anyway, at the moment, Ye Lu didn’t know yet.

Only then did the two of them fly to a deserted place and talk for an hour or so, going over the things they had encountered recently, before parting reluctantly.

The fact that Gushiki was fine finally put a stone in Ye Lu's heart on the ground.

The next step was to prepare for the trip to Japan. I was afraid that whether or not he could take down "Abe Haruaki" this time would be a big problem.

At the moment, thanks to the high-profile publicity from the Japanese side, the foot of Mount Fuji and the mountains are already full of tourists who have arrived early.

It has been three months since the Masked Man defeated the four ninja clans, defeated the Yin Yang Ryu, overthrew the Japanese Sword Sage and brought down the Tokyo Tower, but in those three months, the attention to the Masked Man has been growing in Japan as the date of the fight approaches.

Speculation about the Masked Man in Silk Stockings has increased, but since then, the Masked Man in Silk Stockings has not appeared in the public eye, so speculation has been limited.

So, everyone turned their attention to the observable, namely "Abe Haruaki", who has been very high-profile and has reported on basically everything, making him a new god in the minds of many people.

So, hardly anyone thought that the "Masked Man in Silk Stockings" would have a chance to make a comeback this time, and most of the Japanese people who came here came to see their new god.

Of course, the tourists from China and the fans of the Masked Man in Silk Stockings thought otherwise, so a confrontation between the two sides was inevitable.

"How can you insult our idols like that?"

Some of the Chinese tourists looked at the Japanese across the street and glared.

They were like this mainly because the Japanese were saying things that were too hard to hear.

"What, did we say something wrong? Our Lord Abe Haruaki has even subdued the 'Yagyu Orochi' on the island, what has your 'stocking masked man' done for a while?"

"That's right, still hunkered down in his shell like a shrinking turtle."

"So, it's a lift for him to fight 'Lord Abe' this time."

"I think 'Lord Abe' can crush him with just one hand."

.....

The Chinese tourists, who had arrived early, were of course not convinced, so the two sides immediately clashed, and not long afterwards the police arrived.

The police had a headache as well, this was not just one or two incidents, it was happening almost everywhere, and as the duel approached things were getting worse and the police force was running out of steam.

The police force was not enough. At the moment, Ye Lu was catching up with his dormitory mates, Nie Yibiao and Mu Zize, who of course had a problem with Ye Lu's dashing lifestyle, but they wouldn't dare to follow suit, they would be expelled from the school.

"Ye Lu, you should stay in school for a few more days this time, the school is organising a live video broadcast of the 'Battle of Mount Fuji' that the whole school is going to watch this time."

"Yeah, big screen, big auditorium, lots of girls to pick up."

"Che, our family Ye Lu still needs to pick up girls, it's all about being picked up by girls, OK!"

.....

The other people are still bachelors, except for Jin Kun and Shen Luyan, who have been getting along well.

Ye Luo, on the other hand, smiled and said.

"No, you guys have a good look, I still have things to do."

Chapter 514

Ye Luo thought to himself, "I'll have to perform for you guys then, if I don't go, what the hell are you guys going to watch!"

After saying that, Ye Lu left the crowd and went away.

After he left, a few guys from the same dorm started talking.

"You guys say, Ye Lu comes and goes all day long without a trace, mysteriously, what is he up to? It feels like he's very profound!"

Mu Zi Ze said as he looked out the door.

Nie Yibiao how skimmed his mouth and said.

"Isn't he like this as soon as he arrives, he doesn't tell us anything, I guess, he must be picking up girls, you remember, that hot girl during military training, if there was a girl like that, I would come to the dormitory too."

His words were immediately echoed by several people except for Jin Kun.

Of course, Jin Kun knew how good Ye Lu was, however, Jin Kun had always been quiet, so everyone had absolutely no plans to ask him or chat with him, he had always been a background wall.

However, what Nie Yibiao and the others didn't know was that Jin Kun's actual combat power was already enough to walk across the "secular world".

Seeing the outrageous discussion, Jin Kun couldn't help but say.

"Ye Lu is much more powerful than you all think."

This made Nie Yibiao and the others explode, as Jin Kun rarely spoke, so several people began to ask about Jin Kun, but he said nothing.

This made everyone inexplicably a little bummed out.

And at this time, Mu Zi Ze suddenly looked at his phone and said.

“Huh! Look guys, this news is so weird, it says, a certain villa in a high-end villa area was suddenly surrounded by a white fog, like a fairyland, and all the people near the white fog whether they were police officers or good people fainted .....”

The other people who heard his words also came over to see, because Ye Yan bought the villa for convenience, not far from Ye Lu their “Yanjing University of Chinese Medicine”, so everyone knows this villa area.

Of course, this was all the work of the “Teng Snakes”. Ye Lu asked it to protect the people, but he had no concept of society at all, and just followed the set of the “Secret Realm of the Ten Thousand Beasts”, so it had no idea how much noise it would make, and everyone who came near the house was dazed by it.

This was what Ye Lu had told it, that it should try not to kill anyone, otherwise there would have been a river of blood.

However, following that, the crowd saw the beautiful woman who used to drive the SUV appear in the camera.

“Look guys, isn’t this the woman who took Ye Luo away, I told you that he had gotten close to a rich woman, and you didn’t believe me, but now you do, this is quite an upscale neighborhood, which villa isn’t tens of millions of dollars or even more!”

Nie Yibiao said as he looked at his phone.

Following that, the crowd lamented that Ye Lu’s life was good.

Of course, all these messes had to be dealt with by Ye Lu, and of course, the trouble was also caused by the girls of the “Dragon Clan” and the “Vermilion Bird Clan”, who also caused a lot of trouble because they didn’t understand this world.

However, on the whole, nothing happened, as Ye Lu had plenty of money, so most things were settled with money, not to mention the fact that these people were so powerful that no one dared to mess with them.

The three days passed in chaos, and on the day of the duel, Ye Lu rode a Lightning Griffin straight towards Japan.

This time, he did not have to keep a low profile on his trip to Japan.

Firstly, everyone knew about the duel, so there was no need to hide it anymore, and secondly, he was no longer the same as before.

Soon, the Lightning Griffin was seen by everyone.

“Look, what’s that? It’s so fast!”

“Yeah, it’s just like a plane.”

“I think it’s that ‘Stocking Masked Man’ coming.”

“Yeah, that’s him, I saw it.”

.....

Someone with binoculars had already seen Ye Luo flying in, still the same as three months ago, covered in stockings, but Ye Luo did not carry the “Blazing God Blade”, after all, the “Blazing God Blade” was too eye-catching.

However, before Ye Lu could reach the top of Mount Fuji, someone had already flown up and blocked his way.

This guy looked at the Lightning Griffin and frowned. After all, this kind of thing was a unique demonic beast in the “Secret Realm of the Ten Thousand Beasts” and could rarely be seen outside, and he could feel that this Lightning Griffin’s aura was quite strong and should not be a weak chicken.

“What do you want to do?”

Ye Luo sat on the Lightning Griffin and looked at the other party with some confusion and asked.

At this time, many filming devices also flew up, all kinds of drones, and more professional filming equipment are gathered from all directions, each machine carries the LOGO of each media, Ye Luo saw that many of them are the equipment of the mainstream media in China.

As a result, right this guy didn’t rush to answer Ye Lu’s question, but waited until all the equipment was in place before he looked at Ye Lu and said.

“Stocking Masked Man, since the difference between the strength you showed last time and our Lord ‘Abe Haruaki’ is too great, we feel that we should adopt the form of breaking through the levels for this duel, and you will only be qualified to fight our Lord ‘Abe Haruaki’ if you break through to the last level ‘ Lord, of course, if you are afraid, you can also not accept our conditions.”

To be honest, Ye Lu didn’t expect the other party to make such a scene.

He had originally thought to come, fight and call it a day, of course, Ye Lu didn’t think it was that good to call it a day, but he even more didn’t expect the other party to make such a nagging deal even for a fight.

However, in Ye Lu’s opinion, this was not bad, he was just stuck in a bottleneck and what he needed most was a fight.

So, he looked at his opponent and smiled and said.

“Your Lord Abe Haruaki is quite capable of playing hard to get! Then I’ll play along with him, say, how exactly is your bird level going to be broken.”

Ye Luo looked at the other party with a disdainful face and said.

The other party seemed to have known that Ye Lu would agree, as he smiled and said.

“For the sake of fairness, our levels start from the foot of ‘Mount Fuji’ and go all the way to the top of the mountain, each level is not limited in time, you can fully rest and adjust your state before you break into the next level, this also avoids the unfairness of wheel battles, as for how you break into the levels, we don’t care, as long as it is your own ability will do.”

As he said that, he pointed towards the side of Mount Fuji and said.

“The starting level is there, you can start there.”

Ye Luo followed his finger and saw an area enveloped by a “formation”, obviously for fear that the power of the battle would spread to the surrounding people and other things.

The “Tiger Chiseled Tooth” that Ye Lu summoned earlier was only at the “Ninth Turn of Jindan” realm and could have brought down the “Tokyo Tower”, not to mention the fact that the battle was likely to escalate now.

All of this was broadcast live to the world by various media outlets.

Nie Yibiao and the rest of the school sat in the “auditorium” watching the scene, many with beer and snacks, looking ready to have a good time.

“Look, the ‘Masked Man in Silk Stockings’ has gone to the first level.”

“These Japanese are really mean, asking people to fight against each other and ending up making such a show of it.”

“Yes, I’ve never seen such brazen people.”

“Just wait, the ‘Silk Stocking Masked Man’ will definitely teach them a good lesson and teach them how to behave again.”

.....

Under the countless eyes of the countless pairs of eyes present, as well as the countless eyes of the various video terminals, Ye Luo reached the initial gate, Ye Luo swept a glance with his glasses, and found that this gate was guarded by a few “Jin Dan Third Turn” people.

This is exactly the battle power he showed when he fought with the Japanese “Sword Saint”. Although the “Yellow Dragon” he summoned was more than this battle power, but summoning the “Yellow Dragon” was already his limit at that time.

However, if you think about it, three months is really not that long for most cultivators, many people are stuck in a bottleneck for much longer than three months.

Seeing this starting gate, Ye Lu smiled and walked in.

The Japanese ninja with the “human beard” who was sitting at the centre of the gate formation slowly raised his katana when he saw Ye Lu walk in and said.

“Go ahead!”

Ye Lu smiled and waved his hand.

Chapter 515

When he saw Ye Lu waving his hand, the moustache guy looked at Ye Lu with a puzzled expression.

He was not a “YuanYing realm” and did not have “divine sense”, so of course he could not see through other people’s cultivation, so he did not know what Ye Lu’s level was.

Ye Luo then looked at him and said.

“You don’t need a sword to deal with you, just wave your hand or blow your breath.”

This pissed this moustache guy off, he glared at Ye Luo and said.

“Arrogant, I’ll teach you how to behave here .....

With those words, this guy drew out his katana, and the long blade mane looked magnificent and unusual.

All the spectators were watching this scene with rapt attention, as many of them had been looking forward to this fight for three months and wanted to see what kind of fight the “Masked Man in Silk Stockings” would bring.

Then, everyone saw the moustached samurai raise his katana and slash down at the Masked Man in Silk Stockings.

The light flowed, but the “Masked Man in Silk Stockings” really had no intention of making a move from the beginning to the end, and Ye Lu watched him with his hands behind his back.

With a simple breath, the moustached warrior who was wielding his sword was blown far away by Ye Lu, just like a kite with a broken string, and was directly blown out of sight.

The people watching the duel on TVs and various screens exploded.

“Sh*t! What kind of move is that?”

“This ‘Silk Stocking Masked Man’ is too awesome.”

“What a bull! I’m convinced.”

.....

The first level should not be able to stop the “Silk Stocking Masked Man”, after all, it is impossible for the “Silk Stocking Masked Man” to come to the battle without any preparation, is that not looking for death?

But no one expected to win so easily, it was just a matter of blowing the opponent out of sight.

Of course, the yin and yang masters and other Japanese practitioners were also shocked and their mouths were wide open.

They had already estimated that the “Stocking Masked Man” might grow in the meantime, as this could be seen in the case of Ye Lu’s appearance in the battle in Japan, where the “Stocking Masked Man” had been growing since his appearance, but no one had expected him to grow so fast!

At this moment, Ye Luo had already walked past the first “formation” and was heading towards the second level.

Everywhere Ye Luo passed, a huge black crowd followed him towards the second level, those from China of course raising their eyebrows, while the Japanese spectators were frowning.

And so, with countless cameras and people still following him, Ye Luo walked into the second level.

As expected, the first level was the peak of the “Pseudo-Dan Realm”, or the “Third Turn of Golden Dan”, while the second level was the peak of the “Void Dan Realm”, or the “Sixth Turn of Golden Dan”.

The ninja who appeared this time was still a ninja, dressed in black and carrying a long tai-sword, looking like a real expert.

However, he didn’t know how Ye Lu won the first level, as he didn’t have a TV or other means of watching live.

He just saw Ye Lu being surrounded by a large group of people, walking over like the stars holding the moon.

This kind of aura made him feel quite unhappy, so he drew his taijutsu straight away and looked at Ye Lu and said.

“‘Stocking Masked Man’, your path stops here today, you won’t be able to pass this level with me.”

He thought that even if Ye Lu was improving fast, he could barely beat the “Sword Saint” three months ago, and even if he improved fast now, it was unlikely that he could improve enough to fight against himself.

However, after seeing him, Ye Lu still smiled and said.

“You’re too weak, I’ll wave my sleeve and you’ll disappear like a cloud.”

This fellow naturally did not believe in it, he looked at Ye Lu and said in a loud voice.

“Kid, you don’t have to show off your words, I’ll show you how powerful I am .....

However, before he could finish his words, Ye Lu already waved his sleeve, which was also a “spell”, the same as the blow just now, a “wind attribute” spell, named “long sleeve good dance”, now Ye Lu’s own cultivation level was much higher than his, not to mention, even if Ye Lu did not use any means, he could still fight across a big realm, he was simply a weak chicken in front of Ye Lu.

Just like that guy just now, he couldn’t even say the next words before he disappeared with a “whoosh!” He disappeared in a flash.

Ye Luo said somewhat helplessly as he rubbed his hands together.

“Hey, it’s too weak, it looks like the first few levels can’t even get me to the level of practice.”

Seeing this scene, the crowd once again erupted as Ye Lu's toughness once again refreshed everyone's understanding of him, he was a little too outrageously strong from what he had seen so far, as it looked like Ye Lu hadn't made any serious moves or used any weapons, simply winning with ease and pleasure.

"How strong do you guys think this 'Silk Stocking Masked Man' is, or is the level these Japanese have set up so weak that it's how they got through it so easily?"

"I don't think the Japanese would let the water out so easily, after all, that wouldn't do them any good!"

"You're right, I guess they made a lapse in judgement and simply didn't judge that the 'Stocking Masked Man' would be that strong."

"What I'm curious about is, who is this 'Silk Stocking Masked Man' anyway? How could it be so awesome?"

"I guess it's a hidden master."

"Mostly so."

.....

Amidst the chatter of the crowd, Ye Lu had already walked towards the third barrier higher up once again.

At this time, a harsh beast roar suddenly emitted from the top of "Mount Fuji", apparently some kind of demonic beast had been touched by Ye Lu's aura and started to move a bit.

"Hey, this thing might still be fun to play with, so just wait for me at the top of the mountain."

Ye Lu muttered, and then walked towards the third pass.

This time, the Japanese practitioners were really shaken, and some people had already started to report to "Abe Haruaki" who was sitting at the top of "Mount Fuji".

"Lord Qingming, something seems to be wrong, that 'Silk Stocking Masked Warrior' seems to have become too strong, so strong that it is outrageous."

"He shook the fan in his hand and the power of the laws of heaven and earth in the air began to change, one moment appearing in the shape of a dragon, the next in the shape of a tiger, as if it were a three-dimensional movie, and then he said indifferently.

"There is nothing to make a fuss about, how big a wave can a mere mole make, he has to be able to reach me first."

Only when he heard Abe Haraki's words did the servant leave at ease, for in his eyes, Lord Abe Haraki was a god-like being, and there was no mistaking him.

At this moment, Ye Lu had already entered the third formation.

The moment he stepped into the formation, Ye Lu already started to destroy the formation's "formation eye", which is why the previous two formations were unable to stop the people inside from flying out, this kind of simple formation is completely useless in front of Ye Lu, even the “Mountain Protection Formation” Ye Lu can set up alone, let alone this small formation.

Seeing that Ye Lu had arrived at this level so quickly, the gatekeeper of the third level frowned, because from Ye Lu’s gait, he should have come without stopping at the barrier.

This time, the gatekeeper was an expert at the peak of the “Ninth Turn of the Golden Elixir”, so many people had high hopes for him. If he couldn’t stop him, it would mean that the “Silk Stocking Masked Warrior” had already crossed the “Golden Elixir Avenue” level of combat power.

“I don’t know how you passed the previous level, but you’ll ..... be able to pass this level with me.”

Before he could finish his words, Ye Lu slapped out his palm and his person flew away directly.

“Go! The next level!”

Ye Lu smiled domineeringly and said.

Chapter 516

People couldn’t see Ye Luo’s expression, but they could feel the unbeatable dominance from this scene and Ye Luo’s words that he had just made light of.

All the major media platforms had already started to synchronise their commentaries.

In the auditorium of Yanjing University of Traditional Chinese Medicine, the host on the big screen was saying.

“As you can see, it’s a completely one-sided situation, I don’t know what ‘The Masked Man in Silk Stockings’ has gone through, but he’s really unstoppable now.”

“We have purposely invited a ‘Saint-level’ powerhouse in the world to help us analyse the battle this time.”

Following that, an old man with a white beard and white eyebrows appeared.

He looked at the camera and said with a smile.

“I’m ashamed to say that I can’t actually explain a battle of this level, because from the information I got, that keeper of the second level had completely crushed me, and now this keeper who was sent flying with one blow has reached the peak of ‘Saint Level’, and his power is beyond imagination.”

“However, looking at the situation now, the next one or two levels shouldn’t even be a problem, depending on the level near the top of the mountain.”

In this way, amidst everyone’s attention, Ye Luo had reached the fourth level, the level guarded by the expert who had opened the first trick of the “Golden Dan Avenue”.

However, this time, it was not a human but a demonic beast that was guarding the barrier.

This demonic beast, whose whole body was wrapped in flames, was called “I don’t know fire”, one of the “hundred ghosts”, a fire-attribute demonic beast, which reminded Ye Lu of the famous beauty “I don’t know fire dance” in Japanese anime, and I wonder if there was any relationship between the two.

At the realm of “Golden Dan Dao”, both cultivators and demon beasts would awaken to their own law attributes, and their control of certain laws would take a qualitative leap.

At the sight of this demonic beast, the Japanese in the audience started to shout.

As practitioners usually live in seclusion in secret places to practise, the people do not know them, but it is different with demonic beasts.

When they saw the appearance of the “I don’t know fire”, someone immediately shouted.

“I don’t know fire, it’s I don’t know fire, burn him to death.”

“Yes, let him know what he is capable of.”

“Set fire, set fire!”

.....

As if sensing the atmosphere of the scene, the “unknown fire” wrapped in flames did not wait for Ye Lu to say anything, and with a wave of its wings, terrifying flames surged out and instantly enveloped Ye Lu.

Seeing Ye Lu turn into a fire man, all the people from China sucked in a breath of cold air, because Ye Lu was completely vulnerable no matter how they looked.

However, immediately afterwards, everyone saw that this fire man did not let out a miserable scream, nor did he stop moving, this fire man continued to walk forward without stopping one step, as if he completely ignored the flames on his body.

Seeing that Ye Luo was still approaching him, the “unknown fire” screamed “Ow!” But, as if Ye Luo was oblivious to it, he flew closer to the “unknown fire”, and then Ye Luo raised his hand and slapped it.

“Boom!”

With just one slap, he smashed the “I don’t know fire” into pieces, and then, with a shake of his body, the flame flew into the air and disappeared. The flames flew into the air and disappeared, while Ye Luo reappeared in front of everyone, who found that even Ye Luo’s clothes, including his masked stockings, were not burnt, not to mention burned to death.

For his part, Ye Luo waved his hand blandly and said.

“‘A Hundred Ghosts Night Walk’ is nothing more than that.”

After saying that, he continued to walk towards the next level.

All those who had come from China chanted, and this overwhelming momentum ignited everyone’s enthusiasm, and although it was close to evening by now, more and more people gathered around Mount Fuji instead.

This level was still a “demonic beast”, a ghost to be exact, called the “Yin Moro Ghost”, which was extremely vicious looking, looking like an old man, with two flames instead of eyes.

It was actually another fire-attribute creature, but this time it was different, this time the flames were “Yin Fire” and this creature’s cultivation level had also reached the third level of the “Golden Dan Path”.

However, without any surprise, this guy was no match for Ye Lu, and was directly caught by Ye Lu and then devoured by the “Ghostly Flame of the Underworld”, which was the best food for the “Ghostly Flame of the Underworld”.

Seeing that Ye Lu had made it to the sixth level with just one move, it surprised everyone.

“It looks like ‘Abe Haruaki’ is in trouble this time, at this rate ‘Silk Stocking Masked Warrior’ will definitely be able to reach him.”

The old man who had been invited as a “Saint” guest looked at the screen and said.

“I’m not making this judgement based on the fact that ‘Silk Stocking Masked Warrior’ only has one hand, because the battle between ‘Golden Dan Avenue’ powerhouses is a competition between the ‘Laws of Heaven and Earth In terms of the ‘Laws of Heaven and Earth’, ‘Silk Stocking Masked Warrior’ has a general advantage of crushing.”

“At least in terms of flame control he’s unbeatable.”

At this moment, at the next level, the person in charge was temporarily changing the “gatekeeper”.

Since Ye Lu was good at the “fire attribute”, they arranged for a demonic beast with the “water attribute”.

This guy looked like a monk and was one of the famous Japanese demons, the “Little Monk of Rainy Night”, a legendary demon who could send rain and held an umbrella-shaped “magic treasure” in his hand.

Before Ye Luo could reach him, several water dragons had already started circling and dancing in the formation.

Seeing this scene, Ye Lu smiled and said.

“Change the water attribute to intercept me lah, unfortunately, ah, you are still too weak, well is not enough for me to make a second move, you’d better go take a good rest.”

With those words, he waved his hand violently.

Many people didn’t even see what kind of attribute Ye Lu used before this “Little Monk of the Rainy Night” was sent flying out.

For someone with this level of cultivation, Ye Luo was in a complete crushing position.

In this way, after passing this level, Ye Luo passed another level and finally passed the mountain side and reached the part near the top of the mountain.

At the top of the mountain, “Abe Haruaki” finally saw Ye Luo, who was slowly walking towards him.

“He has actually reached the ninth level of the ‘Golden Elixir Path’, what exactly has this young man gone through?”

“Abe Haruaki’s” brow was already furrowed into a knot.

He could understand his own sudden progress, after all, he was originally an old monster, all he had to do was to recover his cultivation after resurrection, but he felt that Ye Lu was not like that, Ye Lu was originally very young, so how did he grow up so quickly?

“Also, I wonder if the things in that ‘One Leaf Bodhi’ and the ‘Beast Egg’ are still in his possession, that’s my years of hard work.”

If only he had awakened a moment earlier, he might have been able to prevent the two items from being sent away, and if he had been there, he would not have bet on them, even if he had been so sure.

However, now that the big mistake had been made, he would hope that he could make up for it this time next.

Therefore, he decided that he must not let Ye Lu go back this time.

“This kid must be hiding some kind of secret or has secretly switched using ‘masking’, but that is extremely unlikely.”

“Abe Haruaki had seen Ye Lu before, and although he had not fully recovered his cultivation at that time, his scrying ability was still there, and he knew very well that Ye Lu last time and this time were definitely the same person.

For, these great powers, many times it was not possible to fool them by masking their faces.

At this moment, Ye Lu finally ran into the first “Yin Yang Master” wearing a high hat on his trip.

“I am ‘Ashiya Harumo’, the descendant of the great Yin-Yang master ‘Ashiya Michiman’, I didn’t expect you to make it this far. ‘ true strength, just watch.”

With these words, “Ashitaka Harumo” bit his middle finger and drew on the ground, obviously preparing to summon a “god”.

Ye Lu smiled and said.

“I know this trick too, so let’s see who is more powerful.”

Chapter 517

As he said that, Ye Lu also began to release the blood and began to summon.

“He had only drawn a simple “five mansard” formation, but after this was completed, a larger and more complex blood-coloured formation appeared around the formation, with blood light flowing and a red glow rising to the sky, as the summoning of the gods had begun.

On Ye Luo’s side, because he had not prepared beforehand, the blood formation had to be improvised before he could draw it, so even though he was also extremely fast, he was still quite slow compared to his opponent.

“Brush!”

A white-browed demonic beast with a huge long-handled machete in its hand appeared in Ashiya Harumo’s blood formation.

“The Arakawa River is a large river in Japan, so naturally, this creature was also a “water attribute” demonic beast, and the purpose of summoning it was to restrain Ye Lu’s fire attribute, which he was good at.

Seeing that Ye Lu’s summoning was not completed, this time “Ashiya Harumo” was a gentleman and did not make a move.

He looked at Ye Lu and said with a smile.

“You won last time by relying on the ‘summoning technique’, this time, I’ll let you understand the power of the real summoning technique.”

While he was speaking, the Lord of the Arakawa shook his sword in his hand, and the water mist rang out like a train with the machete in his hand.

The water mist was like a train of water as it rattled with the machete.

“You have a demonic beast that plays with water, I have one too, so watch it.”

As he spoke, Ye Lu’s summoning ritual was completed, and a huge dragon with a wagging head and tail appeared in front of Ye Lu, it was a “Ying Long”.

Apart from the Candle Dragon, the Yellow Dragon, and the Hell Demon Dragon, there were more than one summoned beast, such as the Ying Long and the Great Wind.

The Ying Long that Ye Lu summoned was on the same level as the “Lord of the Desolate River” on the other side, both of them were demonic beasts of the “First Transformation of the Firstborn”, so they were also in the state after they had transformed, a handsome man with a pair of wings.

“Ying Long, the next step is up to you.”

Ye Lu looked at this “Ying Long” and smiled.

The strength of a “summoned beast” was not only related to the summoner’s own cultivation, but also the blood used, the summoner’s familiarity with the summoning technique, and so on.

As soon as he started to fight, Ashiya Harumo immediately found out that the “Lord of the Arakawa” he had summoned was actually no match for the “Ying Long”, whose scales and claws were flying and whose mastery of the “Law of Water” was so thorough that the “Ying Long” was much more powerful in using the same moves.

Looking at the increasingly ugly face of Ashiya Harumo, Ye Lu smiled.

When he saw Ye Lu’s smile, “Ashiya Harumo’s” face became even uglier. This was definitely a naked slap in the face, he had just said that he would use the powerful “Summoning God” of “Yin Yang Master” to teach Ye Lu a lesson, but he was immediately taught a lesson.

Ye Lu looked at him and smiled, saying.

“I advise you not to do it yourself, or you will regret it.”

However, of course, “Ashiya Harumo” did not believe him, he waved his fan in his hand and dashed towards Ye Lu, while dashing towards him, the fan in his hand lit up with a golden light, obviously, this guy himself was good at “metallic” laws.

Seeing this guy waving his fan, Ye Lu smiled at him, then with a wave of one hand, the fused flames with furious flame attributes instantly enveloped this guy.

“Ah!”

A miserable scream rang out, while Ye Lu sighed helplessly.

However, the screams didn’t last long, as the opponent was soon burnt to ashes by the blow.

After all, the current Ye Lu was not the previous Ye Lu, he was about to enter the “Golden Dan Avenue”, the reason why the “Golden Dan Avenue” was called “Avenue” was because after entering the “Golden Dan Avenue”, he would really enter the path of controlling some kind of heaven and earth laws.

Or rather, it was a true glimpse into the doorway of “cultivation”.

At this moment, Ye Lu’s attack could already harm “magic treasures”, not to mention the fusion flame of three “origin fires”, which was beyond imagination.

So, soon the creature was left with a pile of defensive “armour”.

Without its master, the “Lord of the Desolate River” did not fight with the “Ying Long” anymore, and it quickly turned around and ran away.

Ye Lu instructed the Dragon not to chase after it, and the Lord of the Arakawa quickly took to the air and flew off into the distance.

And Ye Luo reached the penultimate gate.

Once he had passed this hurdle, the main character of the duel, Abe Haruaki, would be behind him.

In front of the last pass, Ye Luo stopped and looked up at the top of the mountain and said in a loud voice.

“Abe Haruaki, you’re not going to lose even with all this nonsense, so I advise you to clean your neck and wait for me.”

After saying that, Ye Lu walked towards the last level.

There were no surprises, this level was a real “First Transformation” super expert sitting there.

This time, it was still a “Yin Yang Master”, and judging from the attitude of the people around him, it was obvious that he was a rather famous and respected “Yin Yang Master”, however, this person’s attire was a bit strange, as he seemed to have the characteristics of both a “Yin Yang Master” and a “Monk”.

“I am ‘Venerable Yuan Guang,’ the heir of ‘Venerable Zhi De,’ and I am the last hurdle of your journey. me, you can naturally meet Lord ‘Ching Ming’.”

Ye Lu looked at this guy who was not sure whether he was a monk or a “Yin Yang Master” and felt some pressure.

So, he took a closer look at his profile.

As a result, he saw that this guy was simply crazy. In order to be able to perform a stronger “God Summoning”, he had modified his body, similar to the “Fusion Bloodline” ability that “Glasses” had given to Ye Lu, but his ability was obviously a half-baked one.

So, at this moment, this man could be considered a half-human, half-beast monster.

When he saw this guy, Ye Lu nodded his head.

“Let’s use you to complete the final breakthrough.”

With those words, Ye Lu raised his hand, and a fire-red blade appeared in his hand.

It was a pity that few people from the “clan world” and the various hidden families were paying attention to this duel, otherwise someone would have known the true identity of the “Silk Stocking Masked Warrior”, because this “Blazing God Blade” was one of the “Ten Ancient Fierce Armaments”, and it was also a unique fierce blade in the world.

“Since I’m allowed to use the blade, I hope you won’t disappoint me, and that you’ll be better than the guys I met before.”

Ye Lu held the “Killing God Blade” and looked at the “Venerable Round Light” and said with a smile.

This was already the top of Mount Fuji, and there was snow everywhere around, so even though it was already dark, the surrounding area still looked bright, which made it easier for the crowd around to see what was going on.

Moreover, this time Ye Lu did not destroy the formations outside, for one thing, these formations had become stronger and stronger as the level of the gatekeepers inside had increased, and quite a few could be destroyed in one or two blows, and another thing was that he did not want to hurt the people around him by firing at full power.

“Good, will not let you down.”

“The Venerable Round Light bowed with his hands together, while on Ye Lu’s side, there was a “boom!” With a loud bang, terrifying flames poured out in all directions, and the entire formation was suddenly surrounded by tumbling flames.

This was not the flame released by Ye Luo himself, but the flame power released by the Blazing God Blade after Ye Luo had unlocked the Blazing God Blade.

“Come on!”

With Ye Luo’s words, the “Heavenly Vine” had already wrapped itself around Ye Luo’s entire body.

The moment he saw the “Heavenly Vine”, the pupils of “Abe Haruaki” on top of the mountain shrank sharply.

Chapter 518

This “Heavenly Vine” was stolen from “Kunlun” only after he had gone through a lot of trouble and almost died, so how could he not know about it?

“It looks like at least one thing will come to hand today.”

The other “nameless beast egg” was definitely not in Ye Lu’s hand, so he had no way of knowing if it was on Ye Lu’s body, but he could see that the “Sumeru Ring” was indeed on Ye Lu’s finger.

As for the hatching method of the Beast Egg, even Abe Haruaki himself did not know, because he had inadvertently obtained the Beast Egg, or to be precise, he had found it.

It was 1498, before he fell into a deep sleep, when an earthquake of magnitude 8.3 struck Japan’s Far Island Beach and triggered a tsunami that killed more than 30,000 people, and in the centre of the waters of the tsunami, Haruaki Abe was given this “nameless beast egg” from the sky. “In the centre of the tsunami waters, Haruaki Abe was given this “nameless beast’s egg” from the sky, which, in his opinion, had caused the tsunami.

After that, he held the “nameless beast egg” for hundreds of years, but did not find a way to hatch it. Of course, to be precise, he did not find out what kind of “beast egg” it was, because in fact, “Abe Haruaki” did not try to hatch this beast egg, because he had his own “original spirit beast”, and when he found the “nameless beast egg”, he had already cultivated it for hundreds of years, so there was no need to hatch the “nameless beast egg”, but this did not affect his judgment of the “nameless beast egg”, which was definitely an unbelievable thing.

At this moment, when he saw the two items Ye Lu was wearing, even his mind, which had been trained for thousands of years, rippled a little.

At this moment, the monk “Venerable Yuan Guang” had already started to summon, and indeed, unlike the guy before him, he mainly used his own blood to do the summoning, and the thing he summoned was the famous Japanese demon “Yaki Orochi”.

It was a terrifying beast with eight heads and eight tails, and it was so huge that half of the formation was almost filled with it after it was summoned.

“Roar!”

After this creature came out, all the heads roared at the same time.

Looking at the red lantern-like eyes and the green scales all over the body of the “Hachiku Snake”, Ye Lu was astonished. What made Ye Lu even more surprised was that the eight tails of this creature were actually holding a long sword, which was a replica of the “Tian Cong Yun Jian”.

“Eight heads and eight tails? Actually, I should summon a ‘nephew’ to play with it.”

However, Ye Lu had not really fought with the “nephew”, so he did not know whether the “nephew” was more powerful than the “Orochi Snake”.

Of course, this time he did not think of using the Summoning Technique, he had to rely on the Blazing God Blade and the Flame, as well as the Tongtian Vine to finish the battle.

“Brush!”

“One of Orochi’s tails swung the Heavenly Clouds Sword and stabbed at him, and before the sword arrived, the terrifying blade arrived first.

The “Heavenly Clouds Sword” was a wind-attributed sword, so it thrust out with a terrifying wind blade.

“Go!”

The fused flames were increased by the “Blazing God Blade” and directly dispersed the huge blade from the “Heavenly Clouds Sword”, but The flames failed to sever the snake’s tail, and the aftermath of the flames caused the tail to hiss. but it quickly repaired itself.

Seeing this scene, Ye Lu frowned, but did not feel much surprise.

Almost every one of these multi-headed demonic beasts was good at self-healing, he had long been used to it, it seemed to be a common feature of this race of demonic beasts, not to mention the burns, even if they cut off a head, they would grow another one.

“Go you!”

After slashing away the sword, Ye Lu waved his Blazing God Blade and launched an attack, using the group attack “Rain of Fire”, countless white fireballs descended from the sky and blasted at the eight heads of the Orochi Snake.

“Roar!”

With a terrifying roar, terrifying winds began to appear, all in the shape of “tornadoes”, twisting and swirling, stirring up the fireballs and immediately changing the direction of their descent.

Seeing this scene, there was once again wielding the “Blazing God Blade”. It seemed that a group of wide-ranging attacks would not be able to deal with the opponent, so the only way was to hit them individually.

This time it was a bright, hot, crescent-like blade of fire that slashed towards one of the snake heads of the “Yaki Orochi”.

It was a terrifying single-attack spell that compressed the flames into a crescent-shaped fire blade, which was almost indestructible.

“Brush!”

A head was chopped off, but instead of splashing blood, it fell directly to the ground with a “bang!” It fell to pieces with a bang.

It was as if the head was not a flesh and blood body.

This was quite surprising to Ye Lu, because the head of the Nine Infants was not like this when it was chopped off, it was really a bloody scene with blood splattering.

Then, almost at the same time as the head was chopped off, another head came out of the broken neck.

“Holy f*ck!”

Seeing this scene, Ye Lu was also taken aback, this growth rate was simply not too fast.

“This one’s so bullish, I don’t believe it.”

Seeing the performance of the Orochi Serpent, Ye Lu’s brute strength kicked in, and he quickly waved the Blazing God Blade in his hand, and a crescent-shaped blade of light flew out, but to his dismay, those heads really came out again as soon as they were cut off, and as soon as they were cut off, they came out again, and while he was attacking, the other side also started to counter-attack.

Eight heads, seven “Heavenly Clouds Swords” swarmed on him, but the “Heavenly Vine” was not that easy to deal with, countless vines circled around to block all kinds of attacks, but the attacks were easy to block, the impact still made Ye Luo drift back and forth like a kite.

“Looks like we’ll have to do something.”

Seeing that the Blazing God Blade alone could hardly cause fatal damage to the opponent, Ye Luo quickly took out the leftover scraps from the World Tree, and each vine of the Tong Tian Vine was holding one of these weapons, and he was ready to attack in a group.

However, at this moment, he suddenly felt a terrifying pressure appear.

This pressure was so terrifying that under it, the breakthrough that Ye Lu had been waiting for for so long finally came, and the “Solid Dan” began to collapse for the last time, fusing, coalescing and forming a Golden Dan in Ye Lu’s dantian.

“The long-awaited “Dao” had finally come true.

Previously, Ye Lu had tried to use “pills” to make himself enter the “Golden Dan Dao” through pills, just like Ye Yan and the others, but he found it difficult because this breakthrough was not simply a breakthrough in cultivation, that is to say, it was not a breakthrough in the physical body, but also a breakthrough in the understanding of the “laws”, and Ye Lu’s trouble was that he did not know what his “Dao” was.

Ye Yan’s dao was obvious, it was the “Law of Fire”, Long Feixue’s was the “Law of Wood” and Qin Shiyu’s was the “Law of Darkness”, all three of them were extremely clear in their direction, so they broke through quickly with the pills, while Ye Lu was completely at a loss, only at that moment just now did he understand what his dao was, it was “Nothing”.

To be honest, Ye Lu didn’t know what kind of law “nothing” was, but he had indeed entered the Dao through “nothing”.

“The ‘Golden Dan Dao’ has become a reality!”

Feeling the changes in his body, Ye Lu felt that he was becoming more and more in tune with heaven and earth, this was the feeling of “enlightenment”.

At the same time, he also saw the source of the immense pressure he felt.

Chapter 519

That source was the Mage of Round Light, who, just as the Vine of Heavenly Light was taking out its weapon, made a second summoning, a truly terrifying one.

This time, the Venerable Round Light actually bit his finger and drew the blood formation on his own body, and then his body began to expand rapidly, while his head grew two horns, looking like a bull’s head, and his body began to expand rapidly, and a muscle began to protrude, and soon he transformed himself into an incredibly tall and terrifying monster.

“Susanoo!”

Seeing this image, the glasses immediately gave the relevant information.

“Susano is a famous god in Japanese mythology, just like the gods in Chinese mythology, and is almost universally known.

In Japanese mythology, the universe began as a mass of chaos, which is largely consistent with the legends of China and many other countries, before the chaos began to separate and heaven and earth emerged, and the place where the heavens were located, where the gods were located, was called “Takatenkara”.

Only two creator gods, Izanagi and Izanami, came to earth from Takatenpara, and together they gave birth to the eight great states of Japan, and then to the sun goddess Amaterasu Omikami, the moon god Tsukuyomi Omikami, and a third son, Susano.

In other words, “Susano” has a very high status in Japanese mythology.

This is the reason why Ye has just felt such a strong pressure.

Seeing the “Venerable Round Light” turn into “Susanoo”, many of the Japanese people watching the match knelt down in reverence.

“No wonder he summoned ‘Yaki Orochi’, I guess it has something to do with ‘Susano’ killing ‘Yaki Orochi’.”

Ye Luo muttered secretly, and then watched “Susano” spit out a long sword from his mouth, it was the legendary “Sword of the Gods”, also called “Ten Fists Sword”, but of course this “Ten Fists Sword” was not a real divine weapon, like the “Heavenly Clouds Sword”, it was also a replica.

However, the level of this replica was much higher than the one just now, and it had already reached the level of “Middle Heavenly Grade”.

However, this was not the strongest form of the opponent, for soon, a magnificent suit of armour lit up on the body of the “Susanoo”, which was obviously exceptionally strong in defence, with electric light flowing.

At this moment, in the “formation”, the “Susano” wearing the armour was standing in front of the “Yaki Orochi” carrying the huge “Ten Fist Sword”, while the opposite Ye Lu was like a thousand-armed Goddess of Mercy, wrapped in “Tongtian Vines”, each vine holding a sharp weapon.

Each vine was holding a sharp weapon. It was quite a sight to see more than 20 vines flying in the sky.

So the crowd’s enthusiasm was aroused, and countless spectators began to cheer both sides on as they surrounded the “formation”.

However, to be honest, everyone felt that Ye Lu was the one who was going to lose, as both Yaki Oro and Susano were powerful monsters and gods in Japanese legends, and, judging from the battle just now, Ye Lu’s attacks could hardly do much damage to his opponent.

On the other hand, on the other hand, the Venerable Round Light’s defence and attack had both been upgraded, so everyone felt that Ye Lu was finished this time.

However, at this time, Ye Luo looked at the opposite side of the “Round Light Mage” and smiled, saying.

“Don’t mean it, I didn’t do my best just now for special reasons, but, don’t worry, I won’t let you down next.”

As he said that, Ye Lu began to draw the blood formation on the ground quickly.

Obviously, Ye Luo was going to use the summoning technique as well.

With the principle of “playing hard to get”, the “Round Light Mage” did not hinder Ye Luo, but quietly watched Ye Luo perform the summoning.

However, he would soon have to pay the price for his actions, because he did not know that Ye Lu had grown to the same level as him, and Ye Lu’s summoning technique was not comparable to his, because there were six kinds of demonic beasts Ye Lu could summon without worrying about any after-effects.

“Come out, Nine Infants!”

Ye Lu’s favorite was the “Nine Infants”, this nine headed demonic beast was not only proficient in both water and fire attributes, but also had a tremendous combat power, not to say that one could top nine, but it could easily top several.

“Brush!”

The nine-headed monster bird, which was just as huge as the “Yaki Snake”, appeared.

“Ow!”

After this creature appeared, it let out an earth-shattering roar with its nine heads chirping together.

“A nine-headed bird!”

“What a terrifying bird, it has one more head than the ‘Yaki Orochi’, it’s awesome!”

“I just don’t know how strong it is in battle, it’s up against ‘Susano’!”

“Yeah, it feels tough enough!”

.....

In many people's minds, "Susanoo" is basically a symbol of invincibility, and although the strange bird that Ye Lu summoned looked very powerful, people didn't think it would be more powerful than "Susanoo".

However, it was clear that everyone was wrong.

This "Susano", despite his power, was only at the beginning of the "Third Transformation of the Firstborn" stage, while the "Nine Infants" summoned by Ye Lu had already reached the peak of the "Third Transformation of the Firstborn" stage, and this was even after Ye Lu had saved his hand for the final battle with "Abe Haruaki".

So, as soon as the battle started, it became a one-sided battle, with "Susano" being slammed by "Nine Infants" in his mouth, and the ground was shattered into pieces by the violent impact.

For some reason, the Nine Infants seemed to be extremely unhappy with this eight-headed creature, so they struck out quickly and tore it to pieces first.

Seeing this scene, everyone was dumbfounded.

"What's going on here?"

"How could that nine-headed bird be so strong?"

"That's not a nine-headed bird, that should be a fierce beast called 'Nine Infants', the nine-headed worm in the 'Journey to the West', legend has it as its offspring, gripping it."

"It's too dickish too, that what's-his-name 'Susanoo' is simply being ravaged!"

"It's over."

.....

All the people watching the live broadcast on TV and other ports also breathed a sigh of relief at the same time, after all, the scene where Ye Lu was just pressed and beaten made everyone worry about Ye Lu, everyone thought that Ye Lu would stop there, if that happened, I guess all of them would be greatly disappointed.

After all, even if they lost, they still had to see the opponent's BOSS, but now it seemed that everyone was overly concerned.

Soon, the "Nine Infants" had finished off all the opponents, and looking at the crippled "Round Light Mage" Ye Lu sighed helplessly, and then walked towards the top of "Mount Fuji".

At the top of Mount Fuji was a snow-covered crater, and at the bottom of the crater, "Abe Haruaki" was standing with his hands in the air, waiting for him.

At this moment, "Abe Haruaki" is already a super expert of the "Second Transformation of the First Infant", but his real combat power is definitely far greater than that.

"'Silk Stocking Masked Warrior', I have to say that I admire you, I didn't expect you to make it this far."

Leaffall then looked at him and said with a smile.

“There are many more things you didn’t expect, what’s all the fuss about.”

As he said that, he jumped across to “Abe Haruaki”.

“At this time, the crowd of onlookers had already gathered around the mountain pass, and various filming equipment had formed a circle, recording the scene without any dead angle.

In the auditorium of the Yanjing University of Chinese Medicine, everyone was holding their breath as they watched the scene.

“Actually, I’m curious, what do you really look like? Why don’t you let everyone see your true face?”

As he said that, without seeing any movement from “Abe Haruaki”, the stockings on Ye Lu’s head seemed to be pulled away by a pair of invisible hands. The stockings were pulled away with a single swipe.

“Holy sh*t!”

Now even Ye Lu was a bit confused, as he had not expected such a thing to happen.

Now the auditorium of Yanjing University of Chinese Medicine was in an uproar because everyone in the Department of Chinese Medicine knew Ye Lu.

“Ye Lu, look, isn’t that Ye Lu!”

“Huh! That’s you, it’s Ye Lu!”

“Sh*t! How come it’s him, damn it!”

Chapter 520

Nie Yibiao and Mu Zize were the most dumbfounded, Nie Yibiao didn’t even notice the beer pouring on him, his eyes were staring straight at the screen.

“It’s really Ye Lu, this guy is hiding so deep!”

Nie Yibiao muttered.

Mu Zi Ze also said from the sidelines.

“Yeah, no wonder this bastard is so secretive all day, and he’s even disappeared in the past few days.”

An Le then said.

“So there was a supreme expert hiding around us all along!”

It was then that Nie Yibiao realised that he had spilt his beer all over himself, he quickly put the bottle down and looked at the big screen and said.

“Sh*t! Ye Lu is too uninteresting, hiding so deep for f*ck’s sake.”

Mu Zi Ze then said with a laugh.

“Boss Nie, didn’t you threaten to cover us and protect us more than once? I wonder if you’ll be able to cover us next.”

“Uh!”

Hearing Mu Zi Ze’s words, Nie Yibiao then scratched his head in embarrassment.

He suddenly remembered that he had really said something like that before.

And those people who had previously mocked Ye Lu for having a weak constitution and getting nosebleeds in meetings all started to collectively spout off this time.

“This guy is so bullish, but what’s with the nosebleeds?”

“That’s right, it sure doesn’t look like it’s a coincidence that he was able to win against the instructor during military training either.”

“Yeah, he’s just pretending to be a pig and eating a tiger.”

“Let’s hope he can beat that Japanese guy in the tall hat this time.”

.....

In Ye Yan’s villa, everyone was also watching the live broadcast of the duel, which was still getting a lot of attention in the “secular world” because it was related to the horrific incident in Kyoto caused by the “Society of the Extreme Way”, which had wreaked havoc on the capital, killing tens of thousands of people alone, not to mention the injuries and other losses.

That day has been remembered by all the people of China.

This incident was a follow-up to that one, and in the eyes of everyone, it was definitely not a matter for Ye Lu alone, it was a matter for the entire Chinese people, and the dignity of the country was at stake.

In fact, Ye Luo also felt the scope of this, and he saw that many people around the crater had pulled up banners with the words “For the glory of the nation! and “Avenge the death of our compatriots!” and so on.

So, Ye Yan and the girls were the first to see Ye Lu on the TV.

“Sh*t! That pervert in stockings is actually Ye Lu.”

Ye Yan pointed at the TV screen and said in surprise.

Long Feixue was also taken aback.

Qin Siyu, on the other hand, smiled and said.

“Sister Yan, you just knew about it, I thought you knew about it a long time ago.”

Qin Siyu had turned into a candle dragon on the night Ye Lu used her identity as the “Silk Stocking Masked Warrior” to fight at the “Top of Purple and Gold”, and she had also started her cultivation path at that time, so she was the one who knew Ye Lu’s identity best.

Hearing Qin Shiyu's words, Ye Yan stared at her and said.

"Good, so you knew about it a long time ago, Ye Lu, this bastard boy, so eccentric, telling you everything secret, even hiding it from me, his old sister."

Ye Yan's words were full of jealousy, and Qin Shiyu couldn't help but laugh and say.

"Not really, because it just so happened that on the night of the 'Top of Purple and Gold', I saw Ye Luo and that's why I knew about it."

However, Ye Yan still unrelentingly forced Qin Shiyu to tell more about what happened between her and Ye Luo.

At this moment, Ye Lu, who was in the crater, touched his face.

It seemed that his identity as the "Masked Man in Silk Stockings" had been exposed, but now that he was getting richer, he didn't care too much about the exposure.

He looked across at Abe Haruaki and said with a smile.

"Good tactics, I'm really impressed."

This was also Ye Lu's sincere words, because, this kind of ability of fetching things from space like superpowers Ye Lu could not do at all, and it seemed that he did not have such a "spell" in his hands, he felt that it was a bit like some kind of divine ability.

"Abe Haruaki" said with a smile.

"It's just a small skill, so I'll show you what a real 'yin and yang' technique is, and what a real 'style god' is."

As he said that, he bit his finger and drew a "five-manifold star" in the air, followed by a point with his finger.

"Boom!"

A familiar figure of Ye Lu appeared in the air, it was the "Teng Serpent", however, this "Teng Serpent" was much weaker than the one Ye Lu had left behind to guard Ye Yan and the girls, after all, that "Teng Serpent" was even restrained by "Odin" to death.

However, for the current Ye Lu, this "Teng Serpent" was still very stressful for him.

However, this was not the end of the story, as Abe Haruaki summoned again, and this time it was a familiar demon beast, the flaming Vermillion Bird.

"How many demon beasts is this guy going to summon?"

The people around him were just as puzzled as Ye Lu.

Then, a third demonic beast appeared, but this time it was a demonic beast with six wings, and Ye Lu used his glasses to observe it, and it was called "Liu He".

Next was a demonic beast that looked like a qilin, named "Gou Chen".

After that, Green Dragon, Tian Yi, Tian Hou, Tai Yin, Xuan Wu, White Tiger, Tai Shang, Sky, Tai Yi, one after another, were summoned to the top of Mount Fuji, a total of twelve gods were arranged in a circle in the air, looking intently at Ye Lu below.

When Ye Lu saw that the Green Dragon, Vermilion Bird, White Tiger and Xuan Wu were all there, he couldn't help but admire Abe Haruaki's summoning skills.

Moreover, he did not use the blood of demonic beasts as the medium of summoning, so it was obvious that these were all "gods" that he had signed a contract with.

Seeing the appearance of the twelve "style gods", the entire Japanese people at the top of the mountain began to cheer.

"Lord Seimei is awesome!"

"I love you, Lord Seimei!"

"Don't steal Lord Seimei from me!"

.....

Seeing this scene, Ye Lu then smiled and said.

"I know a little bit of this summoning technique, however, it's slightly different from yours, I don't win by numbers, so watch carefully."

With those words, Ye Luo raised his hand and began to draw on the ground.

However, this time, it seemed that what he used was not blood, but some kind of golden liquid, emitting a strong heat, and the snow near the pass of Mount Fuji instantly turned into snow water, while the closer places turned into white water vapour.

From a distance, Mount Fuji became a huge smoke tube.

Everyone, including Haruaki Abe, was taken aback by this scene.

"What the hell is he doing?"

"What is that golden liquid? It can't be molten gold water, can it?"

"Gold water? That's so extravagant, how much gold does that take!"

"People are rich as they please, what do you care?"

.....

Amidst the chatter of the crowd, Ye Lu's formation was already drawn, and following that, he dripped his own blood into the formation and the summoning began.

This is certainly not any "golden water", this is also blood.

It was the blood of the "three-legged golden crow".

What Ye Luo was doing now was summoning the "Three-Legged Golden Crow".

“The Three Legged Golden Crow’s blood contained the “Great Sun Golden Flame”, so its blood was not only golden, but also contained a strong flame attribute.

Then, an intense golden light began to shine, and then a terrifying bird with three legs appeared in the golden light.

“Roar!”

As soon as it appeared, this “Three-Legged Golden Crow” let out a terrifying roar, and terrifying “Great Sun Golden Flames” spewed out from her mouth.

“Holy sh*t! What the hell is that?”

“What a powerful bird!”

“Is this a crow?”

.....

Amidst all the chatter, that “Abe Haruaki” also frowned.

“This is the ‘three-legged golden crow’.”

“Although he, like other Japanese people, had never seen a three-legged golden crow, he knew of the existence of the three-legged golden crow.

“Ow!”

“The Three-Legged Golden Crow roared furiously and then spurted a mouthful of “Great Sun Golden Flame” at one of the twelve “Style Gods”, the “Sixth Harmony” of the Twelve Style Gods.

To everyone’s surprise, the terrifying “Golden Flame of the Great Sun” sent the “Sixth Harmony” flying far away with just one blow.

Then it disappeared with a “bang!” It disappeared with a bang.
