Chapter 521

Everyone's mouth dropped open as they destroyed a "god" with one blow.

"Oh my, that thing is the sun, isn't it?"

In the auditorium of Yanjing University of Chinese Medicine, everyone began to study what Ye Lu had summoned.

The legends of the "three-legged Golden Crow" and Hou Yi shooting the sun were still widely spread in China, so many people recognised what Ye Lu had summoned.

"Niu, even the sun has been summoned, Ye Lu is close to being a god, right?"

"I see that he is not close to God, but has already become a God."

"Awesome, it looks like those ancient legends seem to be true."

"Who says it isn't, didn't you see that 'Abe Haruaki' summoned a 'Green Dragon' or 'White Tiger' or something like that, that's actually the 'Twelve Branches', also called the 'Twelve Divine Generals'."

"Even divine generals have appeared, this world is really about to change."

.....

The battle between Ye Lu and "Abe Haruaki" has opened the eyes of all the audience, these things, usually we can only see in the movies, television to see the director made up various images, this is a live version of the performance, and this is better than some blockbuster and more real.

Ye Lu looked at "Abe Seimei" and said with a smile.

"It seems that your 'style gods' are only huge in number, but each one of them is a straw man.

To be honest, the crowd who were watching the fun also felt the same way.

In fact, Ye Luo knew very well that these twelve "style gods" were not weak, after all, they were all "Yuan Ying realm" guys, only that the "Three Legged Golden Crow" was too strong, to be precise, the "Great Sun Golden Flame" was too strong, this terrifying flame was used by the "Three Legged Golden Crow" like a fish in water, so, fighting across one or two levels was a trivial matter.

However, seeing this scene, "Abe Haruaki" did not show any special expression, he smiled and then waved his fan.

The demonic beast "Rokugo" that had just disappeared slowly appeared in the air again.

"It's useless, these twelve 'gods' are the same as the "Yaki Orochi" you just saw, they are actually 'twelve in one', no matter which one you No matter which one you kill, it can come back to life again, just like cutting off the head of your 'Nine Infants', so you can't kill them."

When "Abe Haruaki" finished speaking, Ye Lu was also stunned.

If what he said was true, there was really no way for the “Three-Legged Golden Crow” to kill all twelve “Style Gods” at once, and that would be a bit of a headache.

However, the real headache was yet to come.

After saying this, the fan in Abe Haruaki’s hand waved again, as if giving some kind of order to the twelve “style gods”.

After the command was given, all twelve of them let out a roar at the same time, and then twelve rays of light flew up from the heads of the twelve branches, and the bodies of the twelve “style gods” were twisted and were disappearing rapidly.

“Come on!”

At this moment, Abe Haruaki’s right hand was raised again and drew a new “five mansard” in the air.

Then, where the twelve rays of light converged, an endlessly terrifying aura began to appear as this “Abe Haruaki” used the twelve “Style Gods” as a sacrificial object to summon a new “Style God”.

It was true that this “Abe Haruaki” could be said to have a heavenly power, not only could he use the twelve “Style Gods” that were almost immortal, but he could also use them to summon even stronger “Style Gods”, it seemed that he wanted to make Ye Lu despair.

At the sight of this scene, Ye Lu took out a pill and three “Exploding Yuan Dan” and took them together.

It had been a long time since he had a full blast of fire.

This pill was a heaven-defying pill that Ye Lu had prepared for a long time that could raise the “YuanYing realm” by a small level, the “Baby Breeding Pill”, the power of “Abe Haruaki” had already exceeded Ye Lu’s imagination.

At the same time, Ye Lu also saw what “Abe Haruaki” was summoning when he sacrificed his twelve “gods”, he was summoning the fire god of Japan, “Kagutsu”.

This is the last god born to the legendary creator god Izanami, who burned his mother to death at birth.

So, this guy was absolutely terrifying.

“God!”

“It’s a god that’s been summoned.”

“Fire God, how powerful!”

“It’s really strong among the strong!”

.....

The summoning of “Abe Haruaki” once again refreshed everyone’s judgment, and at this moment, everyone felt that Ye Lu was dead, he couldn’t even deal with the twelve “gods” just now, let alone the “Gargantua” god this time.

However, after Ye Lu, who was standing opposite him, finished his potion, he looked at “Abe Haruaki” and smiled, as his cultivation level had now briefly surpassed that of “Abe Haruaki”, so Ye Lu felt that he could definitely win.

So, he formed his hands and started a new summoning.

However, they couldn’t think of anything that Ye Lu could summon that was more powerful than the Fire God “Kagutu”, which was summoned at the expense of twelve “Style Gods” of the Firstborn Realm.

Even “Abe Haruaki” also looked at Ye Lu with some curiosity, because he also wanted to see what Ye Lu wanted to summon, and it seemed to be a “contract summoning”, because Ye Lu did not use a large amount of blood.

In fact, there was only one answer, that was the “Magic Dragon of Hell”, that is, the black dragon “Nidhogg”.

This was also the only horrible “summoned beast” that Ye Luo had established a contract with so far.

“Phew!”

When they saw this black flame, many people fell to their knees in fear, as they felt like they had seen hell, a mountain of corpses and a sea of blood, and some of the more timid ones were already incontinent with fear.

Then, a huge black dragon head appeared, and the shadow of Nidhogg, the “Devil Dragon of Hell”, slowly appeared in the air, because with Ye Lu’s current cultivation level, he could not summon the black dragon “Nidhogg” even with his full strength, because that thing could kill “Odin” in an instant, and it had already surpassed the realm of the “Firstborn”.

Therefore, Ye Lu could only summon a projection of the Hell Devil Dragon.

However, this was already enough.

“Hmph!”

“As soon as the Hell Demon Dragon appeared, it snorted coldly at Gadget Earth, followed by a terrifying “Hell Fire” blasting at Gadget Earth.

“If not for the “formation”, I am afraid that all the onlookers would have died under the flames this time.

However, it was obvious that the “Hell Devil Dragon” summoned by Ye Lu was of a higher level, and the “Gadget Earth” was torn to pieces by the “Hell Devil Dragon” before it could hold out for much longer.

At the moment when the “Gadget Earth” dissipated, “Abe Haruaki” sighed and then said.

“I really underestimated you, but that’s the end of it.”

As he finished speaking, the whole of Mount Fuji began to shake, and then huge heads burst out of the mountain.

One, two, three, four .....

Soon there were eight familiar huge heads coming out of the eight directions around Mount Fuji, and the snow and rocks rolled down the mountain as a result of the vibrations, a scene that terrified everyone watching the game, thinking that the heads were so big that each one looked like a small mountain.

“Orochi Orochi!”

“Is it the ‘Orochi Orochi’ itself?”

“It’s over, is it going to eat us?”

The crowd was in chaos, and Ye Lu also frowned, because the “Yaki Orochi” that appeared this time was far beyond Ye Lu’s imagination.

“This is my newest ‘Original Spirit Beast’, you should feel relieved to have died by its hand.”

“Abe Haruaki” looked at Ye Lu and said indifferently.

Chapter 522

Seeing this scene, Ye Lu’s eyebrows also twitched.

The reason was that this “Original Spirit Beast” had already surpassed the “Yuan Ying Realm” and reached the legendary “God Realm”, also known as the “God Transformation Realm”.

For such an expert, there was no way for Ye Lu to deal with it by himself, so Ye Lu looked at the eight heads that had risen and smiled.

“You have spirit beasts, in fact, I also have them, and there are quite a few of them.”

With those words, he waved his hand.

“The experts of the Dragon and Vermilion Bird clans all appeared, standing in two rows, one on the left and one on the right.

Looking at the appearance of these super experts, “Abe Haruaki” was really surprised, he also thought that Ye Lu might bring some helpers, but he never expected such strong helpers.

“The leaders of the Dragon and Vermilion Bird clans were both experts of the God Transformation Realm, and there were several other experts of the God Transformation Realm in the two clans, which was Ye Lu’s strongest army and his real strength to come to Mount Fuji.

Seeing this scene, “Abe Haruaki” looked at Ye Lu and said.

“‘Stocking Masked Warrior’, we agreed to fight a duel, but as a result, you’ve brought so many helpers here, aren’t you going too far?”

This time, there were no more spectators to agree with him, because the spectators were too busy to take care of themselves. For the spectators, these fighters were too dangerous, whether it was the “Orochi Snake” or the “Dragon Clan” and “Vermilion Bird Clan” experts that Ye Lu had released, they could easily destroy them all.

Ye Lu said with a grimace.

“What’s the point of going too far? You said it was a duel, but you ended up making so many bird levels, don’t you think it’s too much? Also, you’re an old monster, the old pets you raise are also considered your battle force, is this bullying me young? I’m going too far, what can you do about it?”

With those words, Ye Lu waved his hand.

“For Ye Lu, he didn’t want to give up the chance to kill Abe Haruaki, because this old monster was simply too powerful.

The strong rise of Abe Haruaki is not necessarily a good thing for Ye Lu and the whole country of China, and Ye Lu feels that there should be more powerful backers behind Abe Haruaki.

Ye Lu felt that the cultivation world of Japan was definitely not just “Yin Yang Masters”, there should be even more powerful guys, just like the “clans” and “Kunlun” in China, the whole cultivation world was very deep.

“Everyone, let’s go together and kill this old man.”

With Ye Lu’s words, the Dragon Clan and the Vermilion Bird Clan quickly attacked, especially the Vermilion Bird Clan, all of them were fire experts, and endless terrifying flames gushed out.

It opened its mouth, and a terrifying wind pressure appeared, actually resisting most of the flames’ attacks.

The attacks from the Dragons were much more complex, but most of them were blocked by the Orochi Serpent, and the remaining waves of attacks were blocked by Abe Haruaki waving his fan.

However, at this moment, someone suddenly shouted.

“There’s help! There is help, the shrine people are here.”

At that time, someone had mentioned to Ye Lu that in Japan, there were more ninjas than shinobi, more shinigami than shinobi, and the one with a higher status was Shinto.

The shrines near Mount Fuji were the Asama Shrine and the Akiba Shrine, which were dedicated to the gods Asama and Kagutsu, the god of fire, respectively.

However, this time, the gods are not only Asama and Fire God, but also a wilder and tougher-looking Arakami.

All three of these guys had their minions with them.

However, Ye Lu could no longer intervene in the next battle.

The cultivation level of these guys were too much higher than Ye Lu’s, and it was beyond his ability to intervene. However, although he couldn’t intervene, it didn’t mean that he couldn’t have an effect, so Ye Lu quickly took out the “mirage” he had prepared.

The target that Ye Lu wanted to influence was the “Orochi Snake”.

The most troublesome opponent at the moment is this “Yaki Orochi”, this thing is simply one on top of eight, and the most troublesome thing is, cut off one head still does not die, and then quickly grow another one, so even the “Dragon” and “Vermilion Bird” clan is very headache to it.

With this guy protecting Abe Haruaki, Ye Lu has no chance to strike.

Therefore, he had to temporarily hold back the Orochi Snake, otherwise it would be even harder to kill Abe Haruaki when the three gods arrived.

Sure enough, with the Mirage attacking, there was a momentary gap in the Yagyu Orochi’s defences.

Taking advantage of this gap, the leader of the Dragon Clan, the Golden Dragon, and the leader of the Vermilion Bird Clan, the Red Luan, struck at the same time.

They were holding the Dragon Spear and the Long Sword, which they had also made from the World Tree, and these weapons were both of the “Saint Class”.

And even though Abe Haruaki was only a YuanYing realm practitioner, how could he possibly block the attacks of Di Qi and Red Luan?

“Boom!”

“The dragon spear in Di Qi’s hand instantly struck Abe Harimaki.

Although “Abe Haruaki” blocked the attack with his fan, it was completely useless as the spear burst him and his whole body shattered into a cloud of smoke.

Many of the Japanese onlookers drew in a breath of cold air at the sight of this scene.

Those who saw the scene on their TV sets or in front of other screens were even more surprised, none of them had expected things to turn out like this.

He had summoned twelve “gods” in the “god summoning”, which was Abe Haruaki’s best skill, and he was unable to beat Ye Lu with all his strength, and finally had to use his “original spirit animal”.

In the end, “Abe Haruaki” was killed, and his spirit beast was also in critical condition.

However, only the person concerned, Ye Lu, knew that in fact, “Abe Haruaki” was not dead, he had just escaped, and the one killed by “Di Qi” was only one of “Abe Haruaki’s” doppelgangers.

However, it does not mean that the one who fought with Ye Lu was the doppelganger of “Abe Haruaki”, because if it was a doppelganger, Ye Lu could not see it, but “Glasses” could definitely see it.

The one who fought with Ye Lu was indeed Abe Haruaki’s original body, but at the last moment, the original body and the doppelganger swapped, which was Abe Haruaki’s ultimate life-saving measure.

“This kid is too evil.”

The “Abe Haruaki” who had escaped said with some emotion.

The key was that Ye Lu’s helpers were so strong that if it wasn’t for the fact that the Orochi Snake had so many heads that were not easy to kill, he probably wouldn’t have been able to escape even if he wanted to.

At the top of Mount Fuji, the Dragons and the Vermillion Birds had already launched a deadly attack on the Yaki Orochi, while at the same time, the Asama Gods, the Fire Gods and the Desolate Gods had already arrived as if they were flying.

The three Gods were shocked to see the scene at the top of the mountain where the Orochi was being beaten up, as they had not expected this to happen.

But then they saw that the young man standing in the middle of the demonic beasts on the mountain suddenly raised his sword and shouted at the three of them.

“Slaughter all these gods for me!”

Chapter 523

When she heard Ye Lu’s words, the female “God Transformation Realm” showed a serious expression, because she had already found out that the demonic beasts around Ye Lu were not to be messed with.

The Chinese audience in front of the TVs, computers and mobile phones were ignited by Ye Lu’s domineering words.

“Sh*t! That’s awesome!”

“That’s right, overbearing! I like it!”

“It’s so cool!”

.....

And Nie Yibiao had already slapped the bottle directly on the table.

“Sh*t! Ye Lu, bull, I’m kind of convinced of you, I give you a big compliment!”

Mu Zi Ze also “slapped!” said as he slapped his hand on the table.

“That’s right, I think Ye Lu should be our boss, what happened this time is enough for all of us to brag about for half a year, don’t you think?”

This time not only An Le, but even Jin Kun nodded and said.

“Agreed!”

Nie Yibiao also said with a smile and nodded.

“I don’t have a problem with it, I’m willing to be the second in this dorm, that is, I’m happy to be the second, I like it, come on, everyone drink.”

“I’ll treat you all to a rubdown today! Everyone here, one person counts as one.”

Nie Yibiao waved his hand in a grand manner.

Because, recently, it seemed that their family had met a lucky man and made a large sum of money, and his status was also rising rapidly.

This had turned him from a pseudo-rich kid to a real rich kid.

However, he did not know that this was all because of Ye Lu, but of course, Ye Lu was not directly involved in this matter, but had Long Fei Xue make a few phone calls to take care of it.

This was a simple matter for Long Fei Xue.

At the top of Mount Fuji, the Dragon and Vermilion Bird clans had already finished off the Yaki Snake.

The crowd surrounded the three experts of the God Transformation Realm.

“Kill!”

Ye Lu knew that there must be more experts in the country than that, and that the night would be too long.

Of course, “Di Qi” and “Red Luan” also understood the reasoning behind this, so all the demonic beasts turned on their maximum output mode and started to attack like crazy.

Of the three who came, only the “Desolate God” was of a decent level, while the other two had a certain gap with the “Orochi Snake”, so the battle soon became one-sided.

However, there were no surprises as bright lights rose from all over the country, and after they had risen, they flew towards Mount Fuji from all directions.

Those who dared to come here for backup must be experts above the “God Transformation Realm”, so the crowd watching was worried.

Because everyone saw that Ye Lu and the others did not have any intention of leaving.

This was definitely a very dangerous thing to do, after all, the country was not that big and the fastest rescuers should be in place in a few minutes.

“Why aren’t they leaving yet?”

“That’s right, there are so many people coming.”

“Yeah, it looks so pretty, just like so many fireworks flying over.”

.....

It was at this time that the first “God Transformation Realm” fell, and it was the “Asama God” with the worst cultivation, who was directly pierced through the chest by “Di Qi’s” dragon spear.

After that, the body was thrown to Ye Lu.

These so-called “gods” were full of good things, from the clothes they wore to their storage rings and weapons, everything was worth a lot of money.

It was nothing to the “Di Qi”, but it was still useful to Ye Lu.

“How bold you are, our men are already here.”

Seeing that the Asama God had already been killed, the Gargoyle got scared and said to Ye Lu, meaning clearly that Ye Lu should give up his attack and run away.

However, Ye Lu looked at him and smiled, saying.

“No hurry, no hurry, it’s not too late to kill you first and then leave.”

Then, in the eyes of the Gods who flew over first, the flaming sword of Red Luan cut off the head of the Fire God Gadget with a single blow.

At this moment, the fastest “god” was already close at hand.

This made the only remaining “Desolate God” feel calm, in his mind, unless Ye Lu and the others didn’t want to live, they would definitely have to flee.

However, he was wrong, all the Dragon and Vermilion Bird clans took advantage of this time to swarm and start a frenzied attack.

“Madness, madness, have you all gone mad?”

“He didn’t understand why this was happening, why he had to kill him even at the risk of being surrounded.

Ye Lu looked at him with a smile and said.

“Because I don’t see eye to eye with you, what, do you have a problem with that?”

While Ye Luo was speaking, Di Qi and Red Luan had already struck, and the two of them worked well together and were extremely fast.

At this time, countless lights and shadows had surrounded Ye Luo and the others.

“Let’s go!”

Seeing this scene, Ye Lu quickly said.

Following this, the demonic beasts around him quickly disappeared, leaving only the Red Luan by his side, and then Ye Luo jumped onto the body of the Red Luan.

“The Red Luan took off with its wings and flew up into the sky with endless flames, and then flew away at lightning speed into the distance.

“What’s going on? How can it be so fast?”

“Yes, it’s too fast too.”

“It must have moved something.”

.....

When they saw that Red Luan had disappeared so quickly with Ye Luo, the Gods who flew over were all a bit confused.

In fact, their guess was right.

Ye Luo had indeed done something, but not in terms of Red Luan’s cultivation level, but in terms of adding an auxiliary equipment to Red Luan that could increase her speed, the armor she was wearing at the moment, which Ye Luo called the “Acceleration Kai”, a wind attribute armor, the same as the armor that Ye Luo had initially developed that could fly.

However, this armour was modified from the European Sun God Apollo’s chariot, which Ye Lu had seen before, so this time the armour had a huge speed bonus, especially since “Red Luan” had a very high cultivation level and was a bird-shaped demonic beast, so although it was not a wind-attributed bird, it was still incredibly fast.

This was also Ye Luo’s preparation for his escape, and was one of his backstops.

When they saw the speed of the Red Luan, they were amazed, but they still flew after it, but the Red Luan had already crossed the border quickly.

The crowd also flew after them, but just as they crossed the border, several figures flew up.

The hidden powers of China had finally stepped in.

When he saw this scene, Ye Lu let out a sigh of relief, but at the same time, he was also a little surprised. He had not expected that super experts beyond the “YuanYing realm” were actually hiding around him, otherwise he would not have reacted so quickly.

A woman in white and a few others stopped the “gods” of the Sun Kingdom from pursuing him, and she raised her hand and released countless lotus flowers, saying.

“I am Venerable Xuan Yin under the command of Nuwa, you foreigners, retreat quickly.”

As she spoke, another middle-aged man said in a similarly loud voice.

“I am Venerable Lihuo under the Great God Fuxi, if you don’t retreat, don’t blame me for being merciless.”

With those words, he quickly unleashed his green flaming spear, while the other powerful men who flew up also unleashed the weapons in their hands.

So many people flying into China’s sphere of influence had been qualified by everyone as an invasion.

When the people from the Japanese country saw this situation, they had to quickly retreat back again, they did not dare to start a war within the range of the Chinese country easily, because no one knew what was hidden in this huge behemoth of the Chinese country, and it was possible that all of them would be buried here.

So, soon, all the Gods from the country of Japan left.

The reason he didn’t go to the villa directly was because his identity was exposed and he didn’t want to bring trouble to the women for the time being.

Because through this trip to Mount Fuji, Ye Luo found that the water in this world was too deep.

He had thought that his own combat power was already quite good, but it turned out that there was an even more terrifying torrent hidden beneath the surface.

“No wonder Pill Shu said that the ‘Pill Alliance’ was not at all as simple as I saw it.”

Ye Lu remembered what Pill Shu had said to herself earlier again.

At this moment, in the “secular world”, the news of Ye Lu’s God Slaying had begun to spread like crazy in an explosive manner.

Chapter 524

The battle of “Mount Fuji” was like watching a blockbuster movie in the eyes of many people, and it came with all kinds of light and shadow special effects, and there were all kinds of demonic beasts involved, and everyone shouted out loud, especially at the end when the “Yagi Snake” appeared at the “top of Mount Fuji”, everyone’s passion was all ignited.

The scene was so shocking that Ye Luo actually killed the Great Yin Yang Master “Abe Haruaki”, and then killed three people in a row before leaving in style when his opponents were assembled.

The “Masked Man in Silk Stockings” was a huge hit with the audience.

The most surprising thing was that the question of the face of the “Masked Man in Silk Stockings”, which had been bothering everyone, was finally revealed.

“The ‘Masked Man in Silk Stockings’ is quite handsome, isn’t he?”

“Yeah, I thought he was an ugly guy when he had his face covered.”

“Who says it’s not, so handsome, what’s he doing with his face covered?”

“That’s what they call low profile, you know.”

.....

However, Ye Lu was also very clear about the consequences that this matter would bring, after his identity was exposed, if he was still in school he would definitely become the object of everyone’s visit.

The entire “Yanjing University of Chinese Medicine” went crazy, after all, Ye Lu has another identity, that is the “Guardian of Kyoto”, other than that, this identity alone makes the school not dare to touch him, and with such a big figure in the school, everyone must spread Ye Lu’s deeds everywhere.

The biggest focus was on Nie Yibiao and the others. Apart from the low-key Jin Kun, the other three were immediately the target of everyone’s attention, after all, in everyone’s opinion, they were the ones who called the legend a brother.

Especially Nie Yibiao, he was a figure that even the legendary Ye Lu had to call him a boss.

An Le, whose presence had always been very low, also immediately became one of the focal points.

Ye Lu, on the other hand, was starting to work out what he should do next.

“First of all, the cultivation level is still not enough, and it needs to be improved in a hurry.”

Ye Luo muttered secretly, to find his missing grandmother, he had to enter the “Immortal Mansion of Lok Ha”, and now it seemed that all the forces that were watching the “Immortal Mansion” were very big, and no matter which one of them was not to be messed with.

The situation of Ye Lu’s known “Immortal Palace Keys” was like this.

There was one in his own hand, and the corresponding “person of star fate” had already been found, namely “Long Fei Xue”, and there was one in “Ye Yan’s” body, and the “person of star fate” was herself.

After that, there is another one on the body of Odin, the king of the Norse gods, but Odin has not yet found out who the “Star Destined One” is.

There is another one in the hands of Kunlun, and the corresponding “Star Destiny” is the young girl “Miao Fengling”, at present, the “key” and the “Star Destiny” are separate, and it is not known whether Kunlun’s people will take further action, but now Miao Fengling is in the side of the “Medicine League”, and the “Medicine League” is not soft, so Ye Lu feels that there should not be too big a problem for the time being.

After that, the fifth one is in the hands of the Ancient Clan, and the “Star Destined One” is Gu Shiqi.

The last known one should be in the hands of Zhang Tian of the Xuantian Clan. Moreover, Ye Lu felt that Zhang Tian should have obtained the inheritance of the Immortal Mansion and also obtained a lot of things related to the Immortal Mansion, which should not be the real Immortal Mansion, but should be something related to the Immortal Mansion.

“Looks like it’s really time to go back.”

Ye Luo muttered secretly, “The glasses” had the function of scanning the “secret realm”, so if he went back to Liaocheng and scanned the surrounding area, then he could go to the scanned secret realm and check each one of them, he should be able to find out which secret realm Zhang Tian had entered before.

It would also be possible to learn some secrets about Zhang Tian.

The “Goblin’s Bow” that Zhang Tian had used before, the Sylvan, should belong to the Norse mythology, although it was not something from the Norse history, but it was also something from the Norse legend.

Therefore, Ye Lu felt that what Zhang Tian had obtained should not be limited to the East.

In the Immortal Mansion of Lokxia, there should be something from the West and even other civilizations, in addition to the East.

“I guess it is also because of this reason that the ‘Immortal Palace Key’ guided by the ‘Four Sacred Beasts Totem’ is with the ‘Greek Gods’.”

At that time, Ye Luo actually wondered why the four pictures in the Four Sacred Beasts Totem would lead to the place “Mount Olympus”.

“The remaining three ‘Immortal Palace keys’ are not all in the hands of foreigners, are they?”

Now, there were still three keys and four “Star Fates” that were still completely unknown, which made Ye Luo have a lot of weird guesses, but at the moment, he couldn’t find any particularly useful clues.

So, Ye Lu found a corner and waited for the “weakness period” to pass before quietly returning to Ye Yan’s villa.

Just as he walked into the courtyard of the villa, several women came out, each with a young beast by their side, especially Qin Shiyu, behind her head was a dark ball of light emitting black flames, looking as if she was a legendary god, looking exceptionally mysterious.

The black ball of fire is naturally the “Sun Candle”.

The Sun Candle was born while she was away.

Ye Lu found that both Long Fei Xue’s Ying Long and Ye Yan’s Vermilion Bird were already different from their previous appearance, and in a short period of time, both of them were already “Master” level demon beasts.

According to the growth pattern of ordinary demon beasts, they only needed to go one step further and enter the “fourth-rank demon beast” realm before they could have the chance to “transform”.

“I wonder if something like a ‘Sun Candle’ can transform?”

Ye Lu looked at the black ball of fire behind Qin Siyu and muttered, but immediately afterwards, a flame suddenly erupted from that ball of fire towards Ye Lu.

It was a golden flame with a terrifyingly terrifying aura, which startled even Ye Luo.

A white shield quickly appeared in front of Ye Lu to block this terrifying blow, but Ye Lu saw that the white flame shield actually began to emit a “hiss! sound and a white smoke was emitted at the same time.

In other words, even the shield made by fusing the three origin flames could not withstand this golden flame, which made Ye Lu feel extremely shocked.

“Wow! It’s blocked, it scared me to death.”

Seeing this scene, the three women all screamed, but they were all relieved at the same time.

Ye Luo didn’t know what was going on, and after asking about it, they found out that the three of them had been discussing whether this flame Ye Luo could block or not before Ye Luo came back, because, they found out that this flame was almost indestructible, and now that they saw that Ye Luo’s flame shield could block this golden flame, they all became a little curious.

Ye Luo then looked at everyone and explained.

“This golden flame is extremely powerful, it is the strongest flame in the universe, the name is called ‘Sun True Fire’, it is also one of the ten origin flames, the most terrifying thing about this flame is not this flame attack, legend has it that he can directly annihilate the divine sense, spirit, exterminate the soul, and can destroy almost everything.”

“And the flame I just released is the flame after the fusion of the three origin flames, I also did not expect the ‘Sun True Flame’ to be so powerful.”

Only after Ye Lu finished speaking did the “Sun True Flame” completely dissipate.

After saying that, Ye Lu looked at the black ball like “Heavenly Sun Candlelight” with disbelief, this thing had just been born for a short while and it was already so powerful.

“Fortunately, the ‘Sun Candlelight’ has fallen into our hands, otherwise the consequences would really be unthinkable.”

Ye Lu said in his heart, secretly thankful.

At this time, Ye Yan looked at him and said.

“Ye Lu, that egg of yours hasn’t hatched yet?”

Ye Lu nodded helplessly, but as a result, Ye Yan said.

“Ye Lu, have you thought about it, I think you should find a female to hatch and try, as the saying goes ‘how can you get pregnant without going to bed’, if you don’t try, it’s not a solution to wait like this.”

Hearing Ye Yan finish, Ye Lu nodded and said.

“That’s right, you have a point, but, old sister, where did you get this proverb from, how come I’ve never heard of it.”

As a result, Ye Yan laughed and said.

“Your old sister, I made it up!”

Chapter 525

Although it was made up, Ye Lu felt that Ye Yan’s words were not untrue. This “nameless beast egg” could not even be identified by “glasses”, so it was too difficult to find someone who could know its details.

So, after thinking about it, Ye Lu gave the beast egg to the “Three-legged Golden Crow”, which was more experienced in hatching beast eggs, as it had nurtured a divine beast like the “Heavenly Sun Candle” before.

After handing over the nameless beast egg to the Three-Legged Golden Crow, Ye Lu looked at the three women and said.

“I’m going to do a few things next, so I’ll tell you all about them and you can help me out.”

Hearing Ye Luo’s words, Ye Yan first said with a big grin.

“Sure, tell me about it, it’s on old sister.”

When Ye Yan finished speaking, Ye Lu laughed, because in fact, he felt that the most unreliable was this old sister, but of course, Ye Lu did not dare to say it, he knew Ye Yan’s temper.

So, Ye Lu smiled and said.

“Firstly, I want to go back to Liao City and look for the root cause of Zhang Tian becoming stronger, most of this matter is because of him, even if we can’t find the real cause, I think most of us can find some clues.”

“Secondly, I want to find a safe nest for you guys, after all, with my identity exposed, I’m afraid it won’t take long to be targeted, and by then, you guys might be implicated too, and as a nest, the most suitable place is to find a new ‘secret realm’, ‘open ‘ After that, we can live in it.”

“And, it’s still quite difficult for others to find the secret realm if they want to, plus I can also arrange formations outside and inside the secret realm, that way it will be solid.”

When she heard Ye Lu say something about “opening up”, Ye Yan, who liked to play games, got excited first, and she said with big eyes and a smile.

“The first thing that I want to do is to go to the desert, and maybe I can even get a few elite monsters to drop some good equipment or something.”

Ye Lu then smiled and said.

“You’re all covered in extreme equipment, what else do you want to pick up?”

Following that, Ye Lu continued.

“In addition, there is still three keys away from opening the Immortal Mansion without a bit of news at all, I think if there is a chance we can also go look for clues, however, this matter is somewhat nebulous and beyond our control, so it is not considered a very reliable thing.”

“There is another thing that is the most important and imminent and practical, and that is, we raise everyone’s cultivation level up, including the level of the spirit beasts, we have the ‘Immortal Mansion Key’, and the ‘Star Destined One’ of the Immortal Mansion ‘, even if we want to stay out of it and be left alone, it’s impossible, sooner or later we’ll get caught up in it.”

“So, before things get completely out of hand, we must try to improve ourselves before we do.”

“That’s what we’re going to do next, which one do you think is better to start with?”

As a result, Ye Yan felt that we should start with “opening up the land”, while Qin Siyu felt that it would be better to visit “Liao City” first, while Long Fei Xue did not take a position, and to be honest, she was caught between Ye Yan and Qin Siyu.

However, before anyone could agree on anything, Jasmine’s call came in first.

“Ye Lu, I’ve brought you spirit stones, and, to tell you the good news, our elder has interceded with the Supreme Elders for you, and she said that you should be able to enter the secret realm of the sect that produces the ‘Luminous Stone’ soon.”

This was definitely good news, to be honest, Ye Lu had been coveting that secret realm that produced luminous stones for a long time, after all, the thing that had helped him the most along the way were these so-called “luminous stones”, that is, spirit stones, without the help of these spirit stones, he definitely wouldn’t have been able to grow so fast.

If the secret realm could produce so many “spirit stones”, Ye Lu felt that there must be other treasures inside, so he had to go to this secret realm, but before that, he had to make arrangements for Ye Yan and the others, so that whatever he did, he would have no worries.

So, Ye Lu and “Jasmine” said with a smile.

“I’m in the city, I’ll send you an address, wait for me there, I’ll be there soon.”

The main reason why Ye Lu didn’t let Jasmine come over was because he could see that Jasmine actually liked herself, and with so many women here, Jasmine would definitely be unhappy, but now he heard that Jasmine was in a good mood, so what was the need to make her unhappy, after all, it was rare for Jasmine to leave the secret realm.

The first thing he did was to help the “Hundred Flowers Sect” and the “Pill Alliance” make something for them before the “opening”.

As a result, when Ye Lu asked Jasmine, she said that she was still at the entrance of the secret realm and had called him just after she left the realm.

This made Ye Lu feel slightly surprised, Jasmine usually and not such a person, she is a very careful and meticulous woman, to be honest, indeed slightly silly and sweet, but not so out of shape as today, Ye Lu always feel that Jasmine today is a little too happy.

Ye Yan and Long Fei Xue were a bit anxious to show Ye Lu their “original spirit animals”, which were much more intelligent and fun than pets, and one of their spirit animals was a dragon and the other was a vermilion bird, which attracted each other, so the two little ones were having a great time.

However, Qin Siyu’s strongest pet was a bit boring, “Tian Yang Candle” had no five senses and no arms and legs, so it could not express any information at all.

With that, Ye Lu stayed in the villa with everyone for a while, then after telling the three women that he was going to look for Jasmine, he left the villa to go to the agreed location.

“It’s on me, Jasmine, just order whatever you want.”

Ye Lu looked at Jasmine and said with a smile.

As a result, Jasmine suddenly blushed as she lowered her head and took out a storage ring and said.

“This is the ‘Super Extreme Luminous Stone’ given to you by the clan, the clan said that they will arrange for you to enter the ‘Goddess Secret Realm’ in a few days, however, you can only go alone.”

Ye Luo took the ring and nodded.

“Secret realms” were important to every clan, especially resource-rich secret realms, because for clans, it was almost difficult to find things that would be of great help to the clan in the “secular world”, so the source of treasures for all the major clans were the secret realms belonging to the clan, and also those public secret realms that had not been completely opened up.

Especially the super experts of the sects, they usually sought opportunities in the legendary and terrifying secret realms, but of course, many of these people went to the secret realms and never came back.

Ye Lu also took out a ring and handed it to Jasmine, saying.

“This is something I refined for the clan this time.”

Then, he took out another separate ring and handed it to Jasmine with a smile and said.

“This is a separate small ring for you, take it.”

To thank Jasmine, it had become customary to give Jasmine many good things individually each time.

Jasmine hurriedly thanked her, then still looking down at Ye Lu and said.

“Ye Lu, today ..... today is my birthday, can you ..... can you ..... that... . can you watch a movie with me? I ..... I’ve never seen it before.”

This was quite a surprise to Ye Lu.

To be honest, there weren’t many women in this day and age who hadn’t seen a movie yet, and Jasmine wasn’t young, at least a few years older than herself.

Jasmine saw Ye Lu’s expression thinking he didn’t agree and hurriedly waved her hand with a red face and said.

“You ..... you ..... are not delayed if you have something to ..... delay .....”

Ye Lu then smiled and said.

“It’s okay, I’ll keep you company and find a good looking blockbuster to watch later.”

Hearing Ye Luo promised, Jasmine immediately happy and a little girl like giggling, but, immediately realized that he lost his temper, red face and lowered his head not dare to say a word.

Only then did Ye Lu remember that Jasmine had been adopted by the clan since she was a child, and probably hadn’t come out much besides the clan. If it wasn’t for the deal with himself for spirit stones, he would have been cultivating in the clan more or less all year round, so it was no wonder that she behaved like this.

What he didn’t know, however, was that not far away, a foreigner was quietly watching the two of them while sipping his coffee, and on one side of that foreigner’s arm was wrapped a blood-red poisonous snake.

Chapter 526

“The East is truly a fearsome land.”

Elliog muttered to himself as he looked at Jasmine not far away.

A “Demon God” stronger than him had once tried to enter the country of China, only to be discovered just after crossing the border. Therefore, Lord Astaroth of the Four Pillars of Supremacy believed that there should be some kind of formation around this mysterious Eastern country, which could sense the entry of high-ranking foreigners.

A formation that could cover millions of square kilometres, what kind of a great power would it take to set up such a formation?

However, it was not too restrictive for a cultivation level like his, and after doing some disguises, a few of them sneaked in.

The reason why he had set his eyes on Jasmine was because Jasmine fulfilled three of the five requirements for finding the “Immortal Palace Key”: “Saint Virgin”, “Peony Residence” and “Foundation Establishment”.

“After all, Jasmine did not have any bloodline or heritage, so she had to rely on her own cultivation. Despite the various pills Ye Lu provided for her, her speed of improvement was limited.

However, to be honest, it was not easy for Jasmine to become a Foundation Establishment practitioner at such a young age, after all, if she crossed the “Ninth Golden Dan” realm, she would be qualified to be an “Outer Sect Elder”, but of course, the real “Outer Sect Elders” were all “Ninth Golden Dan” mid to high level.

Of course, this is the “secular world”, the “Foundation Establishment” is also the “Patriarch”, a generation of masters, in the “secular world” is not a mundane person, so, to be honest, Jasmine still stands out in the crowd, of course, provided that people have the same scrying ability as Elliog.

“What a nice girl, but why do you want a mortal for a boyfriend? And so shy, as if her boyfriend is so powerful.”

Elliog muttered in disbelief as he sipped his coffee.

He couldn’t detect the aura in Ye Luo’s body, so he then characterized Ye Luo as an ordinary person, and in his opinion the two of them didn’t match at all.

“The identity has not been determined and there is no way to make a move here, it is better to wait for the opportunity, when the time comes, let ‘Gogendal’ directly bite the man first and confuse the woman, it should be easier to handle.”

In Elliog’s eyes, he didn’t put Ye Lu and Jasmine in his sights.

Originally, Ye Lu wanted to treat Jasmine to a big meal, but she was surprisingly fond of fast food, so Ye Lu ordered a lot of things, and watching Jasmine happily eat, he couldn’t help but be led to eat too, which reminded him of the meal he had after he was “deflowered”, and the waiter was going crazy that time.

She said that Liu Mei had already entered the “Golden Elixir Path” and would soon break through to the “YuanYing realm”, which not only made her envious, but even the “Water Fairy Elder” was shocked.

Now no one in the entire secret realm dared to mess with Liu Mei.

“Everyone said that they wanted to help Sister Liu Mei find a ‘spirit beast’, but she said that she would have to discuss it with them.”

Jasmine looked at Ye Lu and said with a smile.

Ye Luo nodded and said.

“Okay, you go back and talk to her, I’ll take care of this matter.”

Ye Luo could hear that the two of them, Liu Mei and Jasmine, were now almost good enough to become one person.

Finally, Jasmine just couldn’t eat anymore, he patted his little belly with a somewhat unpleasant smile and said.

“It really doesn’t fit anymore, let’s go.”

Leaffall reminded with a smile.

“Better bounce around a bit more to digest it then, because there’s popcorn to be had at the movies.”

Sure enough, Jasmine looked a little sad all of a sudden.

“I should have known I would have eaten less.”

Through this contact Ye Lu realized that Jasmine was indeed a very simple person, so simple that she was a bit speechless, before Ye Lu and Jasmine were mainly in contact with handing over various things, and Jasmine also carried herself according to the image of a lady, so even Ye Lu was confused by Jasmine.

“Let’s go, let’s go watch a movie.”

Ye Luo looked at Jasmine and said with a smile.

“You can still stand up after eating so much, right?”

As a result, Jasmine’s face immediately turned red again.

The two soon found the cinema, everyone could fly so flying around blockbusters and various martial arts movies were ruled out, eventually, the two picked a comedy and walked inside the cinema.

As expected, Jasmine was curious about everything, especially the 3D glasses that made her almost scream out, looking at her mountain child into the city in general, Ye Lu also could not help but laugh.

However, Ye Luo did not let his guard down, he scanned through his glasses that there was a foreign expert who had hidden his cultivation and had been following the two of them, Ye Luo could not be sure if the other party was necessarily following himself and Jasmine, but this person did follow them all the way from the time they were eating to the theatre.

And Ye Luo also knew the other person’s identity through his glasses.

Elliog, the fifteenth demon god among the seventy-two pillars of King Solomon’s demon gods, his weapon is a lance, good at scouting out hidden things and possessing some perception ability .....

The fact is that the people who are in the West Asia cultivator will come here, however, Ye Lu's intuition feels that this guy's arrival is mostly related to the "Immortal Palace Key".

He wanted to see what the other side wanted to do, and he was waiting for the moment when the other side would see what he wanted to do.

However, he found that Eliogh was very calm and sat there without making a move.

In fact, what Ye Luo did not know was that Eliogh had not made a move because he was also waiting for news from the others, and it was not up to him to decide whether to make a move or not.

So, Ye Luo stayed with Jasmine as she watched the movie, who was immediately captivated by its content, laughing her head off, completely unaware that danger was in fact all around her.

Near the end of the movie, that Eliogh finally did make his move.

"Go ahead, 'Gogendal' bite the man, the woman get knocked out and that's it."

As Eliogh gave the order, the red viper demon beast then silently rushed towards Ye Luo's direction like lightning.

But soon, he noticed that the "Gogendal" had suddenly disappeared.

"Huh! What happened? How did it disappear?"

Eliogh was completely confused, because he didn't know what had happened to Gogendal, he couldn't sense anything at all, so Gogendal should be dead or Gogendal had disappeared.

"How is that possible?"

"Did someone take Gogendal down?"

Eliogh could not believe this, because he was a true Golden Dao expert, and he had opened his "seven trunks", while his viper, Gogendal, was a powerful demonic beast with "eight trunks".

But soon, he noticed a very small demonic beast flying over quietly, holding a small note in its hand.

The note had a message written in English.

"Dude, let's have a closer chat after we finish watching the movie, you're lucky today, if it wasn't for not affecting her mood, you would have died long ago."

The note was of course written by Ye Lu, the snake had just been caught by Ye Lu's quick hand and put into the "Spirit Beast Bracelet".

Now Ye Luo's fighting ability was already comparable to that of a super expert of the Yuan Ying realm, so it was easy to deal with such a demonic beast, but of course, Ye Luo's real cultivation level was one level lower.

Ye Luo was also happy to see Jasmine, so he adopted this strategy, after all, today was Jasmine's birthday, he really wanted Jasmine to have a perfect birthday.

However, Ye Luo's note did not dissuade Eliogh from making further moves, because, he was not the only one here.

Of course, the fact that the other side had managed to kill Gogendal without a sound made it clear to him that he was no match for most of them.

So, he quickly told his accomplice about the situation.

He was still watching the film with Jasmine, but he had already made up his mind that if anyone dared to spoil the peace and quiet, he would make sure that they would pay back twice as much.

Chapter 527

After an hour or so, the movie was over, and Ye Luo left the theatre with Jasmine as if nothing had happened.

Jasmine, a snacker, had already eaten so much before, but still, she had eaten all the popcorn and cola.

"This movie is so good."

Jasmine said with heartfelt emotion.

Ye Luo also nodded, because this movie was indeed very good, which Ye Luo also had to admit.

"Why don't we watch another one, it's so good."

Jasmine said as she looked at Ye Luo with glowing eyes.

Ye Luo smiled and said.

"Your suggestion is pretty good too, but there's something more fun, you might want to try it, there's a pretty good VR experience on that side of the corner."

Seeing Jasmine's bewildered look, Ye Lu smiled and said.

"How do you say VR, it's virtual reality, simply put, it's to put on a helmet and then hold two handles that can simulate a real feeling, that is, make fake things feel like the real thing, put it this way, you probably understand it."

When Ye Lu finished, Jasmine nodded with some plausible understanding.

Ye Luo then decided to take her there directly, anyway, words are better than teaching by example, when she arrived at the experience hall and buckled on her helmet, naturally she would know what she was talking about.

Jasmine was somewhat dumbfounded and was taken away by Ye Lu.

Soon, the place arrived, and Ye Luo of course chose the best configured machine. This experience hall was the best VR experience hall in the capital, so there were not only the most basic VR devices, but also various props that simulated the senses of touch and smell, which could make the VR experience more realistic.

However, before the game started, Ye Lu looked at Jasmine's eyes and said.

“Jasmine, remember, what you’ll be playing in a moment is virtual reality, don’t actually use any martial arts or spells, understand, remember, remember!”

Although Jasmine has not yet reached the time of awakening her attributes, but the attack power of the clan master is not to be underestimated, if this power, it is still easy to demolish the building, demolishing the building Ye Lu is not worried, anyway, he has plenty of money to lose, what he is worried about is that if it really hurts people is not good, it is estimated that at that time Jasmine’s own heart is also difficult.

The first thing he wanted to do was to see a situation like this.

The “seventy-two demon gods” from West Asia, “Eliogh”, were still following him, not far from the experience hall, obviously following and monitoring him, but not wanting to make a move yet.

Since he didn’t do anything, Ye Lu also ignored them for the time being, but watched the staff member start to teach Jasmine carefully.

Soon, the various precautions were explained and the helmet was buckled on Jasmine’s head.

Seeing this scene, Ye Luo quickly walked away and then summoned both “Di Qi” and “Red Luan” out.

“You two can help me protect Jasmine later, better not let her feel anything different, I will put the magic dolls here, the rest is all up to you.”

“I’m going out for a fight, I’ll call you guys if I need you.”

Both super masters smiled at Ye Lu and nodded their heads.

To them, this was all a trivial matter.

In fact, this was the real purpose of Ye Luo to bring Jasmine to the VR experience hall, at this moment, Jasmine’s audition was occupied by VR, so whatever happened outside would not affect her anymore, and it would not affect her mood.

Then, Ye Lu quickly gave the “magic doll” a drop of blood, and then, let the magic doll accompany Jasmine instead of himself, while he quickly went to the outside of the VR experience hall.

“Eliogh” was looking at the building of the VR experience hall when he noticed that Ye Lu suddenly came out from inside and walked directly towards him.

This took Eliogh by surprise because he had been thinking about Ye Lu and Jasmine since just now.

The small demon beast that Ye Lu used to deliver the note was not just a cat or a dog, it was even higher in cultivation than his snake, Gogendal.

Eliogh had the ability to scout, so he could see this, which is why he was so cautious, because he knew very well that it was Ye Lu who had just dealt with the “Gogendal”, so it should not be surprising that Ye Lu could deal with him himself.

However, Ye Luo did not strike at him directly because he did not want to spoil Jasmine’s good mood.

“Eliogh, tell your people to all stay away from us, I don’t want to play with you today, really piss me off, I’ll tell you what bird ‘Seventy-two Demon Gods’ to eat your words, understand?”

Eliogh looked at Ye Luo, however, he didn’t leave immediately, apparently with some hesitation, but, immediately after, he felt as if he had fallen into the lair of a giant beast of the ages, a terrifying pressure and fierce aura instantly enveloped him, and he felt the aura of death.

He raised his head to look at Ye Lu, and as a result, he saw Ye Lu’s scarlet eyes, which were filled with an endless killing aura, as if he saw a mountain of corpses and a sea of blood in them, and cold sweat instantly covered his forehead.

With Ye Lu’s current combat power, these “fierce qi” could almost cause substantial damage to the opponent.

Eliogh no longer hesitated, he turned around quickly and left.

“I hope you guys can be more sensible.”

Ye Luo looked at Eliogh’s back and muttered, then leapt to the roof of the building where the VR Experience Hall was located, because he was still not sure about these guys from West Asia.

The legend of “King Solomon” Ye Luo had also heard of, if it was really the inheritor of the “72 Demon Gods”, then I’m afraid that the matter would not be so easy to settle, not to mention that Ye Luo felt that this matter was mostly related to the ancient country of Egypt in northern Africa, which was famous for its pyramids and sphinxes.

In the “VR Experience”, Jasmine was having a great time, but soon, the games she played changed from entertainment to ghosts and monsters.

“Brush!”

“Brush!”

Two long cracks were immediately cut into the wall, but luckily, “Tiki” and the others were there and immediately got the situation under control, otherwise the house would have been demolished.

“Di Qi and the others were already experts at the “God Transformation Realm”, so Ye Lu was relieved to have them protecting Jasmine.

However, the “Immortal Mansion Key” had attracted forces from all over the world, which made Ye Lu inexplicably a little worried, because at this rate of progress, he was worried that he and Ye Yan’s fighting power would not be able to keep up with the pace of things, once the “Immortal Mansion” was opened, at that time, the world’s super experts and old hidden monsters would probably come, and it was inevitable that there would be a vicious battle.

“Ahhh!”

Soon, Jasmine gestured to take off her helmet for a while.

The staff quickly took the helmet off her head, and the “magic puppet” transformed Ye Lu asked with a smile.

“How’s that? Did you freak out?”

Jasmine nodded, but then said.

“It was scary, but it was really fun, so is it okay if I play a little longer? Are you busy?”

“The magic doll shook her head, and Ye Lu thought, “I’m not busy, but you’re in a lot of trouble here, but then, Ye Lu thought, if the opponent’s level is too high, even if Jasmine returns to the “Hundred Flowers Sect”, I guess the secret realm of the outer sect and the “Water Fairy Elders” can’t protect her.

So, Ye Lu nodded with a smile, since Jasmine liked it, let her have fun.

Jasmine was happy and smiled.

However, something unexpected happened: soon after Jasmine entered the game again, she suddenly disappeared, out of thin air.

And Ye Luo felt the fluctuation of the spatial laws at the same time.

“Sh*t! It’s someone who knows the spatial laws!”

Ye Luo instantly understood what had happened, and then, he rushed towards the direction of the spatial fluctuation, and Di Qi and Hong Luan also rushed out.

Obviously, the other party had not yet fully mastered and was unable to use the Space Law for too long a distance, which was why they had left imperfect spatial fluctuations, but judging from the speed of their escape, they should be super experts who had crossed into the God Transformation Realm, just like Di Qi and the others.

“How could there be such a strong guy lurking in here?”

Ye Lu was also a little depressed.

“Siyu, come and help.”

He quickly informed Qin Siyu, Ye Lu couldn’t help in a battle of this level, but Qin Siyu could, as she was now a monster of the “Yuan Ying Realm”.

Chapter 528

During the chase, Ye Luo discovered that the demon god was really fast, and it was difficult for Di Qi and Hong Luan to catch up with him even with their special armor.

Through the glasses, Ye Luo also identified this guy.

This man was one of the four strongest monarchs in the Seventy-two Demon Gods, the Southern Monarch of the Four Pillars of Supremacy, Astaroth, who was ranked twenty-ninth among the Seventy-two Demon Gods.

Ye Luo saw that this guy's cultivation level was actually higher than that of Di Qi and Hong Luan. However, since he was in the territory of China, he did not dare to show himself to fight, but kept running away.

Ye Luo quickly contacted the "Underworld App" and paid them a large sum of money to release the news, asking them to inform all the forces and organizations within their capabilities that there was an invasion of the West Asian forces in China.

However, Ye Lu was worried that it would be too late because firstly, most of the Jedi masters were in the extremely dangerous Secret Realm of Death, so it would be too difficult to find and contact them.

Secondly, Astaroth was no rookie, so unless he was intercepted, it would be difficult to catch up with him.

Soon, Qin Shiyu arrived.

"Ye Lu, what's going on?"

He quickly greeted Qin Shiyu and came to his side. At this moment, Ye Luo was standing on another Vermillion Bird, which was not as fast as the Red Luan, but it was not far off.

"Molly is so pitiful!"

Qin Shiyu also sighed helplessly.

Soon, Ye Lu found out that in terms of influence and appeal, he and Abe Haruaki were not on the same level at all. At the time of the battle between himself and Abe Haruaki, when Abe Haruaki was in great crisis, a large group of experts from the God Transformation Realm had appeared.

This means that those experts of the God Transformation Realm were actually very concerned about Abe Haruaki, so they were able to appear and help at the first opportunity.

This time, only a few experts from the God Transformation Realm came out to help Ye Lu, and they were all quite far away, which made Ye Lu feel very hurt.

It didn't take long for Di Qi, Hong Luan and Ye Luo to chase them halfway across China.

"Ashtaroo was heading west, obviously wanting to cross the border to West Asia.

However, in the course of the pursuit, Ye Lu also noticed one thing, that is, the speed of Astaroth had not become as fast as before.

Apparently, the constant use of his spatial abilities was taking a toll on him.

The distance between the two sides had gradually changed from being far away to being closer.

This gave Ye Luo hope.

"Silky Yu, light a candle for that guy later and get him killed."

Ye Lu and Qin Siyu who was beside him quickly said.

Ye Luo felt that this “Astaroth” was probably no match for “Di Qi” and “Red Luan” even if they stopped it with their armor.

After all, this guy was an expert in the “God Transformation Realm”, so now we could only hope that other experts would arrive in time to help.

Qin Shiyu smiled and said.

“Don’t worry, not only will I light his ‘Candle of Life’, I also have a new surprise for him.”

Ye Lu nodded with a little peace in his heart, it seemed that as his cultivation level increased, Qin Siyu had mastered more and more “bloodline divine abilities”.

It had been ten minutes since the Underworld App had issued a national emergency notice, and it was said that many people had already started to act.

As expected, the first group of interceptors had already appeared.

The woman appeared and waved her long sword, and after the sword danced, the sky was filled with orchids, which looked beautiful.

However, “Astarlo” also struck at the same time, and with a wave of his right hand, a terrifying black mist emanated from the long black sword he was holding, and in an instant, all the flowers withered.

It was clear that the black mist contained a terrifying toxin.

At the same time, the “Dragon of Hell” beneath him also spat out an equally terrifying black flame.

“Drink!”

Seeing this scene, “Shaosi” quickly danced her longsword, which spun like a gyroscope, and countless green flowers and leaves appeared from the periphery of her longsword, apparently she was good at some kind of “divine skill” related to the “Law of Wood”.

A “divine skill” is also an upgraded version of a “spell”.

“At the Houtian realm, the Innate realm and the Patriarchal realm, the techniques used are all martial arts, while those at the Jindan Nine Revolutions, Jindan Dao and Yuanying realms use spells.

“This is why many people at the God Transformation Realm are revered as gods in the mundane world.

In the eyes of ordinary people, their moves were already exceptional.

However, as Shaosi was desperately trying to resist, Astralu had once again executed his “Space God Technique” and disappeared in front of her in an instant.

“What a feat!”

After deflecting Astralu’s attack, ShaoShiMei could not help but feel a sense of relief, for this Astralu was really strong.

She then followed the direction of the spatial fluctuation with her long sword.

At this moment, "Astaroth" had already reached the northwest region and was about to enter the Tibetan land. If he was allowed to pass through, it would be more difficult to catch him now.

Suddenly three men in strange clothes appeared, all holding strange magic weapons, one with a vajra, another with a golden bell, and another with a celestial staff decorated with a human head and a skull.

It was the three great masters of the Tantric Sect.

When these three men appeared, they did not say a word to each other, but directly attacked Astralu.

The strongest of them was the Tantric expert who used the Vajra Pestle. With a single move, his entire body and the Vajra Pestle in his hand turned into a brilliant golden colour, and a huge shadow of the Vajra Pestle appeared in the air, making Ye Lu feel that even a mountain would be pierced by him.

Obviously this man was an expert in the "Law of Gold".

The old man beside him rang the "Vajra Bell" in his hand, and the sound wave attack also rushed towards Astralu, which was a "spiritual attack".

At the same time, the expert who used the "Heavenly Staff" waved it, and a strong black aura came out, causing all the grass and trees that came into contact with it to wither and die, this person was an expert in the "Law of Death".

The three great masters of the Tantric sect immediately restrained Astaroth.

At the same time, experts from the Pan Gu clan, the Nuwa clan, the Medicine League and other powers were also arriving, the fastest ones already.

"No, we have to get out of the way first."

"Ashtaroo, of course, also felt the danger, but when he tried to use the Space Law again, he found that space was not moving.

"What's going on?"

He was stunned by the suddenness of this scene and froze in his tracks.

Not far away, Ye Lu looked at Qin Siyu, who was choking with both hands, with astonishment.

"Siyu, you did this, this is too awesome, confining space!"

Ye Lu was also shocked by this scene.

Qin Siyu, on the other hand, smiled and said.

"Tell everyone to hold on tight, I don't think I can hold on for long."

At the same time, a "Candle of Life" appeared on Astaroth's chest and began to "hiss!" on its own. It began to burn on its own.

Chapter 529

Seeing the Candle of Life burn up on its own, Ye Lu's eyes were rounded.

“My sister is amazing!”

He couldn't help but exclaim.

Not only could he light the candle, but it could also burn by itself, which meant that if it was a weaker practitioner, I was afraid that Qin Siyu's divine ability would directly kill her opponent with a single strike.

However, there was no time for sentimentality, as the cultivation level of Astaroth was so high, it was estimated that Qin Siyu would not last long, so Ye Lu shouted loudly.

“Everyone, attack while you have the chance and extinguish the candle on his chest.”

Ye Lu could see through his “glasses” that the gap between the crowd and “Astralu” was still very obvious. If they really fought, everyone would not necessarily be able to take down “Astralu” even if they swarmed together, not to mention his unpredictable ability to use the “Space Law”.

However, the situation was very different now, as he could not move through space to get out of the area, and every time he attacked, the candle in his chest burned rapidly.

Likewise, everyone's attacks on his body, or his defence against them, also caused the Candle of Life on his chest to shorten rapidly, and soon the Candle of Life was more than half left.

However, Qin Shiyu's face was also covered with beads of sweat.

Obviously, it was too much to light the Candle of Life for such a high-ranking expert, not to mention the fact that he had to confine the space around him.

As the crowd attacked, their hearts were filled with horror, because Qin Shiyu's magical ability was really too incredible.

And at the same time, Ye Lu had reached out and pressed Qin Siyu's back, because he felt that Qin Siyu was already faltering and about to be unable to hold on.

All Ye Lu had to do was to transmit his own strength to Qin Siyu.

Of course, this kind of borrowing was not so easy to do, first of all, the attributes had to be combined, because after crossing the “Golden Dan Avenue”, everyone would awaken to their own attributes, for example, a “fire attribute” person could not transmit power to a “water attribute” person.

After that, the bodies of the two people must be in tune with each other, and finally, of course, they must know the corresponding “spells”.

In fact, Ye Lu took a risk this time, his attribute was too weird called “no attribute”, Ye Lu didn't know what this attribute really meant, Ye Lu felt that maybe it was the same as the blood type “O blood”, because “no attribute”, so he could use any attribute.

As it turned out, his guess was right.

It was only then that he finally understood how difficult it was to use such a divine ability.

With Ye Lu's help, Qin Shiyu was immediately in a much better state.

She glanced back towards Ye Luo, who in turn nodded towards her. To be honest, this feeling of two people fusing into one was quite wonderful, and judging from the power running through their bodies, the two were like Siamese twins.

“Brush!”

However, soon, Ye Luo was also going to be unable to carry such a consumption, in fact, in terms of real cultivation, Ye Luo and Qin Siyu were a full big realm apart, so, alone, from the amount of Qi in his body, Ye Luo did not have any advantage over Qin Siyu, as he did not currently have any bloodline fusion, so, in fact, the Qi in his body was quite inferior to that of Qin Siyu, the Candle Dragon.

However, Ye Lu had something in his hand that could replenish his Qi, and the “top quality spirit stone” quickly appeared in his hand, and then slowly turned into powder.

On the other hand, “Astaroth” was unlucky, he was in a bitter fight, he was indeed strong, but the people around him did not give him a chance to break through the encirclement and get him while attacking frantically, the strategy they used was one word “stall”.

As he could not escape quickly due to the confinement of space, they concentrated on attacking and defending, and each attack and defence was very costly.

The “Candle of Life” had quickly turned into a candle head.

Of course, Ye Lu and Qin Siyu were not suffering either, they were as weak as leaves in the wind at the moment, while Di Qi and Red Luan had long jumped out of the battle circle to guard their sides.

“Boom!”

With the final blow, the candle on Astarlo’s chest finally went out, and he lost his vital signs at the same time, while his corpse was smashed into pieces by countless attacks.

The success was accompanied by a look of horror on everyone’s faces.

A super expert who was so strong that he could fight ten or so God Transformation Realm experts by himself had fallen, on top of a small candle, this was too incredible.

“What is this woman’s origin? She’s terrifying!”

“Yes, such a powerful foreigner died just like that, if it were us, we would have been dead already.”

“This woman can’t be messed with.”

“Yes, indeed, you can’t mess with it.”

.....

The crowd looked at Qin Siyu and subconsciously avoided it, even though this woman’s cultivation level was not high, but her fearfulness was no less than any expert.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

“No way, where’s Jasmine?”

If he couldn't find Jasmine, there was no point in killing Astaroth alone.

"Couldn't he be the one who started it all?"

A question suddenly occurred to Ye Lu, "Astaroth" was indeed good at "Space Law", and he was indeed the only one who had the ability to get people out from under the noses of "Di Qi" and "Red Luan".

However, the people he got rid of were not necessarily at his side.

"This is a bit of a problem."

Ye Luo scratched his head and muttered in a depressed manner.

Qin Shiyu certainly understood what Ye Lu was chagrined about, so she looked at Ye Lu and said.

"Ye Lu, don't worry, I still have a way, I can know what happened part of the time before he was born through the things and breath of the person who died, just wait."

With these words, Qin Shiyu went to the corpse of "Astaroth", touched it with her hand, and then began to perform the divine power of the Candle Dragon again.

"Under the candle's light, the corpse began to emit traces of gas, and these ethereal gases slowly began to coalesce in Qin Shiyu's palm.

Soon, the gas reunited to form a "Astarlo" made of gas.

Seeing this ghost-like scene, everyone was once again astonished, for they had never seen anything like it before.

"Is this the soul of the deceased?"

"The soul is not even spared, how much hatred is this!"

"That's right, but is this woman the god of death? Even the soul can be captured."

"It's better to mess with her less!"

.....

Amidst the chatter of the crowd, Qin Siyu had reached out and touched that soul's head, and following that, a large amount of information began to pour into Qin Siyu's head.

It was also the first time she had used this divine ability, so she couldn't help but frown.

However, immediately afterwards, her brain began to help with the search.

The more recent the memories, the clearer and more organized they were, the more distant they were, the more blurred and confusing they were, but they were a lot of memories .....

The most important thing is that you can be sure that you are going to be able to get the most out of your life.

After another moment, the soul-like body in front of Qin Siyu finally dissipated, and Qin Siyu stood up and walked to Ye Lu's side.

“Ye Lu, you are right, the one who took Jasmine is indeed someone else, and it is someone with a low cultivation level, the name is ‘Glayan Lapol’, the twenty-fifth of the seventy-two demon gods, and what is a bit troublesome is that this person can be invisible for a short time.”

Qin Siyu said with a frown.

“This person’s appearance, I just know it already, I can simulate it for you, but, I’m afraid I don’t feel too good about finding such a person.”

To be honest, hearing that the other party could actually become invisible for a short period of time, Ye Luo’s head also got big.

Qin Shiyu, on the other hand, continued to whisper out an even more powerful piece of news.

“In his hand is holding ‘Solomon’s Treasure Vase’.”

Chapter 530

Ye Lu had heard of the “Solomon’s Vase”, because the legendary “Seventy-two Demon Gods” were contained in this vase, and I guess Jasmine should have been contained in that vase.

The only “magic treasure” or “spiritual treasure” that can hold a person is the “Blazing God Blade” that Ye Lu has seen since he got his glasses, and that is the “Blazing God Blade” that he is holding, other things, even if they are unbelievable, such as the “Pan Gu Axe” do not have this function.

I guess this “Solomon’s Treasure Vase” was the second one.

Sure enough, Qin Shiyu said quietly again.

“Jasmine is in that bottle.”

Ye Lu nodded and said.

“I understand, how many people from the ‘God Transformation Realm’ have come this time?”

Qin Siyu said.

“There’s only one, that ‘Astralu’ just now, because it seems like he’s the only one who can come in .....”

The memory of this incident was actually quite far away, so Qin Siyu had to frown to remember.

Ye Lu nodded once again, this point he had basically known about the forbidden system in the country’s border by checking the information of “Eliogh” and “Astaroth”, that forbidden system was actually an incomparably huge formation, as long as the cultivation level reached “Yuan Ying realm” experts appeared, there would be a reaction, however, the reaction of this realm would not be too violent.

However, the stronger the cultivation level, the more violent the reaction will be, and it will produce a repulsive force. If Astralu did not have the ability to travel through space, it would have been difficult for him to enter this place silently.

Therefore, most of the people holding the vase were only practitioners of the Golden Dao, and only such a practitioner could hide his tracks perfectly.

Even if it was a YuanYing realm practitioner, it didn't matter, "Di Qi" and "Hong Luan" should be enough to take care of everything.

Thinking of this, Ye Luo looked at the people around him and thanked them one by one before taking Qin Siyu, Di Qi and Hong Luan away from here.

The next thing should be taken care of by himself.

As they watched Ye Lu and the others leave, the super experts from various powers couldn't help but sigh with emotion.

"These two youngsters have an unlimited future!"

"Yes, this ability is too heaven defying, inform the clan that they must go around when they see them."

"Let's go, it feels like the world is about to change, how can this foreigner be so strong?"

"Yeah, I guess something big is about to happen."

.....

The crowd dispersed in a flurry of discussion, while Ye Lu had already started to fly to make preparations for the capture.

"Silk Rain, first tell me about the appearance and characteristics of that 'Glaxian Labors' and such, the more detailed the better."

As a result, to Ye Lu's surprise, Qin Siyu reached out and coalesced a complete figure in the air, lifelike simply like a real person, only a smaller version.

"Sh*t! This is awesome."

Ye Lu asked himself, "I can't do this, this "Candle Dragon" heritage seems to be a bit of an ox!

However, with this little man, everything would be easier.

The original apprehensive Ye Lu suddenly became confident, because in this point of finding people, if the system of "glasses" said it was the first, no one dared to say it was the second, which Ye Lu had seen before.

The most comprehensive and unreserved feature of "glasses" is the "auxiliary ability", thinking that all other abilities are neutered and have to be unlocked gradually as one's cultivation and abilities improve, only this "auxiliary ability" has no restrictions.

There was no time to lose, so Ye Lu did what he said.

He first asked the glasses to quickly scan the little man, and then began to search through all the surveillance systems in the city, both public and private.

The processing speed of the glasses was countless times faster than the fastest computer, so in almost an instant, all of the person's movements from the time he appeared, including where he was now, were all checked out.

"Sh*t! These glasses are really something."

Seeing the god-like operation of the glasses, Ye Lu was also shocked, of course, thanks to the omnipresent cameras and various recording instruments.

To be honest, it was simply too difficult to do something quietly in a modern metropolis nowadays, you would always leave some traces behind.

It's just that it takes a lot of time and manpower to check these out by police force, whereas glasses do it in an instant.

It took less than half an hour from Molly's capture to the pursuit and killing of Asterix.

That "Glayan Lapore" did not dare to fly on a demonic beast with much fanfare, nor did he dare to leave by plane, because he had experienced the security checks at the airport during his trip to the Sunset Kingdom, and a practitioner of "Golden Dan Avenue" would definitely not be able to leave normally.

So, at this moment, that "Glayan Lapore" is driving a car towards the northwest of China.

Because he was a man in the shadows, his route of movement was not fully known to Astaroth, so he was not worried that anyone would know about him or pursue him.

Moreover, he was invisible when he took Jasmine away, and his invisibility was a "bloodline connection", so even his "divine sense" could not detect him.

It was a pity that he could not remain invisible for the whole trip, the longest he could remain invisible was less than ten minutes.

"'Treasure bottle', 'treasure bottle', if only you were mine, all the 'demonic beasts' inside would be mine."

"This was their strongest treasure, and legend has it that the bloodline of all their "72 Demon Gods" originated from this "treasure bottle", and the owner of the "treasure bottle" was the current generation of King Solomon.

"Not only does King Solomon have the power to control the Vase, but he can also control the life and death of all of them through the Bloodline Contract, so the 72 Demon Gods do not dare to disobey King Solomon easily.

"Man is insatiable!"

"Glayan Rabble muttered to himself as he drove.

"He's already so powerful, but he still wants to become immortal and live forever.

"By the way, I wonder how Lord 'Ashtaroo' is doing?"

With that in mind, he started to call Astaroth's phone number, but it was always blind.

“It looks like he’s in a bad way, my poor lord!”

He said to himself, thinking about the phone.

But then he heard a voice say.

“The poor man is not the lord, the poor man is you.”

He looked up sharply and saw Ye Lu standing on a giant red bird looking at him silently.

“No!”

Seeing this scene, he quickly opened the doors on both sides of the car and then stealthily got out through the sunroof.

He was so confident in his ability to escape that even Lord Astarlo had to place a spatial alert around him before he could detect his presence through spatial fluctuations, and there was no way for ordinary people to sense his presence.

However, he just jumped up and flew a few steps in the air before he was stopped by Ye Lu.

“Maybe it’s a coincidence.”

He consoled himself, then turned and flew wildly to the side again, but Ye Luo stopped him again without any surprise.

“You ..... you .....

This time he was really scared and looked at Ye Luo in surprise as he asked.

Ye Luo, in turn, smiled and said.

“How can I see you right? I’m too lazy to explain to you.”

After saying that, a vine suddenly reached out and took out the “Solomon’s Vase” from his clothes.

“It was like having a blood bar on your head after being invisible, and it wasn’t easy for Ye Lu to see him.

There is no such thing as invisibility in front of the “glasses”.

The reason why Ye Lu didn’t kill this “Glayan Lapore” was because Ye Lu liked his “Bloodline Avatar”, knowing that “Glasses”’s separate “Bloodline Ability” was to purify, extract and fuse bloodlines.

“Now I’m rich!”

Ye Lu looked at the “Solomon’s Treasure Vase” in his hand and laughed out loud.
