

The Supreme God

Chapter 161 Activate The Array (Part Two)

Raymond growled with all his strength. His veins pulsed on his neck were like earthworms wriggling. He looked extremely horrible.

Madden and Rankin were two Earth Realm masters in the Flaming Sun Valley. When they saw that Raymond was so enraged, they exchanged a glance at each other then stepped forward to approach Austin.

The other Flaming Sun Valley disciples didn't dare disobey Raymond. They took out their weapons and approached Austin from different directions. There was a group of warriors fighting against Austin now.

"Hahaha, the Flaming Sun Valley enjoys undeserved fame! A dozen Flaming Sun Valley disciples came together to fight me, a single Energy Gathering Realm warrior. Have you thought how the martial arts practitioners in the world would think of this if they know?"

Austin burst into laughter when he realized that all of the men wanted to attack him together.

The two Earth Realm cultivators of the Flaming Sun Valley were flabbergasted when they heard his words. Their faces blushed in embarrassment.

It would bring them complete shame if words spread out that a dozen Flaming Sun Valley disciples, including two Earth Realm warriors with them, joined hands to surround and attack a young man who was only at the Energy Gathering Realm.

The Flaming Sun Valley disciples slowed their paces. The Flaming Sun Valley was the second largest sect in the Violet Orchid Empire.

The disciples of the Flaming Sun Valley were very arrogant and looked at themselves as above others in the underground world of martial arts. They should be ashamed to do such unrighteous thing.

"What are you waiting for? As long as you kill him, no one else would know what you have done. Shit! I want him to die immediately! Go and kill him now!"

When he saw that all of the disciples of the Flaming Sun Valley wavered when they heard Austin's words, Raymond bristled with anger.

Yes! As long as they killed the guy, no one would know what had happened. They reasoned.

They stood firmly and navigated all their vital energy to the surface of their body. The vital energy force surged ferociously and rest Flaming

Austin still remained composed. He even managed to put a smile on the corners of his mouth. It was as if he saw he could fight a dozen Flaming Sun Valley disciples at Earth Realm, five were at the ninth level of the Energy Gathering Realm, and the rest were at the eighth level of the Energy Gathering Realm. With all of them coming together, the fight would prove to be arranged beforehand the Four-sided and Eight Trigrams Array. With that, he

of you today. You group the vital energy within his body and stomped his feet on the ground with his tiptoe. The Wind-commanding Skill was His stride stretched up to twenty meters long. The distance he backed up took him only half a the Flaming Sun Valley saw that Austin was standing in front of them at the last moment. Before they could attack him with their martial arts skills, they saw a flash of black shadow and then saw that Austin was already 10 meters away was so

the Flaming Sun Valley

experience how it feels like to play in my Four-sided and Eight Trigrams what would happen next. He glanced at Raymond and the disciples with a "Activate the array!"

a special spot in the array. He infused his vital energy into the main flag that he was holding and place twisted and flashes of light of vital energy force emanated from the lights. It attracted the animal from the surrounding space and in an unfathomable way. The whole array was completely activated and it engulfed all the disciples of the Flaming Sun Valley, including Raymond.

the Flaming Sun Valley, and they had a wide scope of knowledge in the world. As "Damn! This is an array. We are caught in an array!"

One disciple even shrieked in panic.

Terrified and in chaos, the Flaming Sun Valley disciples were now trapped in the array. They suddenly found that their surroundings had rapidly changed. The trees, stones, mountains, and roads that they had seen just moments ago suddenly disappeared completely. What they could see now was nothing but blur and what was surrounding them was just ghastly pale mist that kept rolling in the air.

The swirling vapor was like a huge blanket that blotted out the sky and covered the sun. They were cut off from the outside world now.

"Austin, what the hell! What is this trick? Don't be a coward and let us out now!"

Raymond panicked. He had no idea where he was. He kept running around the place like a headless chicken.

"Raymond, don't panic. That brat arranged the array beforehand to plot against us. It would be worse if we lose our heads now. We should calm down and think of a way on how we could break the array."

Madden and Rankin were the Earth Realm masters of the Flaming Sun Valley, so they were comparatively more composed to handle the crisis.

"Okay, think quickly. Break it! Now! Austin, just wait! When I break the array and get out of here, I swear I will tear you to pieces!"

"Huh! No way! You bunch of bastards don't have the ability to destroy my array! Keep on dreaming!"

Austin moved his toe and placed his foot on the spot where the eye of the array was situated.

"Wind Trigram, attack!" he shouted.

The Supreme God

Chapter 162 Kill Them All (Part One)

As Austin shouted loud, the disciples from the Flaming Sun Valley gasped in astonishment. White energy surged from the southeast and formed a thick white energy column.

"Watch out!" someone exclaimed.

The two disciples of the Earth Realm also flinched upon sensing the enormous amount of vital energy contained in the white column.

All the disciples of the Flaming Sun Valley started to recklessly hide in great fear.

Ah Ah... .

Two disciples at the eighth level of the Energy Gathering Realm seemed to have lower cultivation base than that of the others. They were not able to quickly duck from the upsurge and so were hit by the white column.

What followed were their cries of pain and torment. A huge hole was left on their chests as the energy column left its mark and the two fell on the ground—lifeless.

The disciples who witnessed what happened swallowed in fear, their hearts beating wildly in anxiety. The effect of the array was undeniably startling.

Actually, even Austin, who was surprised, had his eyes widely open and could not utter a word. He had never expected the Four-sided and Eight Trigrams Array to have such great power. It killed the two disciples at the eighth level of the Energy Gathering Realm as if they were mere ants.

"Madden and Rankin, what should we do now? How can this array be so powerful? Think of a way on how we can deal with it! We need to get out of here! ...

Raymond, at this point, was not that aggressive and furious anymore—much different from how he was in facing Austin. After seeing the miserable death of the two disciples, he was terrified.

He knew that his cultivation base was only at the level six of the Energy Gathering Realm, far weaker than the two who had been killed by the array just now. He could also be killed instantly if he wouldn't think of a way to escape.

"All of you stand behind us two. We will get us out of here," Madden said to the others, trying to be as calm as he could. He was actually anxious as much as everyone else was.

side and braced themselves. They started moving in unison, and in one direction. The plan was to break

Austin said

Valley had made inside the array, Austin pursed his lips, and a cold smile found its way to his

Boom!

of

the disciples from the Flaming Sun killed so many disciples, killing them all, he must clear up the mess and leave no tracks. What one should leave this place alive except him!

Side, start attacking!" Austin did not out from the northwest corner inside the careful!" Rankin shouted.

was Raymond that the Help!" Raymond exclaimed with terrifying energy expeditiously rushed forgot to dodge the energy together, and their forces tried to stop the white energy column.

Boom!

forces collided together. At the heart of the chaos, back in dozens of steps.

two cultivators who were still at the preliminary stage of the Earth Realm could not endure

Madden were defending, Raymond rolled away, trying his best to completely and Eight Trigrams Array is really powerful. Fanny's grandfather is right—no one Austin said to himself in delight.

'Violet, you can come out now. No need to hide anymore. The single Four-sided and Eight Trigrams Array is enough to trap all the disciples from the Flaming Sun Valley!'

Austin told Violet in his mind.

Austin had asked Violet to hide somewhere to prepare a surprise attack in case a crucial moment took place.

Now that Austin had employed the power of the Four-sided and Eight Trigrams Array, it was unnecessary to let Violet do as he planned.

As Austin's mind delivered this information, a charming woman showed herself from the jungle beside him. It was Violet. She gracefully walked towards Austin and glanced at the array attacking the disciples who were incapable of trying to escape.

Seeing this, amidst the chaos, Violet was shocked to realize the great power of the Four-sided and Eight Trigrams Array.

"Master, the Four-sided and Eight Trigrams Array is really amazing. Even I cannot successfully escape if trapped."

"According to Fanny's Grandfather, the array cannot be conquered by cultivators with cultivation base lower than the medium stage of the Earth Realm. Now it seems true!

Let's kill all of these people as soon as possible. If someone sees us killing so many disciples from the Flaming Sun Valley, we will be in so much trouble," Austin replied.

After he finished speaking, Austin started to shake the main flag again without any hesitation.

"Earth Trigram, start attacking!

Wind Trigram, start attacking!

Mountain Trigram, start attacking."

The Supreme God

Chapter 163 Kill Them All (Part Two)

..

At Austin's command, all modes of attack activated in succession.

Each attack would kill one or two disciples from the Flaming Sun Valley.

The disciples at the Energy Gathering Realm were not strong enough to fight against the tremendous energy of the white column.

The only two cultivators of the Earth Realm, Rankin and Madden, fought against the energy columns, but they were ultimately exhausted and eventually died.

Raymond, however, did not die. It was Austin who intended not to attack him to keep him alive for a while.

When he was the only one left alive inside the array, Austin moved his body as quickly as a ghost. He gathered his array flags together into a cloth bag and put it into his space ring.

Raymond was only at the sixth level of the Energy Gathering Realm. If Austin killed Raymond with this array, it would be as easy as smacking a fly.

As the array was put away, Raymond, who had been scared out of his wits, started running away as quickly as he could.

"Ha ha ha! Do you really think you can escape successfully?"

Austin kept still until Raymond had run far enough for him to strike perfectly. He used his Wind-commanding Skill and strode only a step. In one second, Austin flashed before Raymond and stopped any of his movement.

Using only a hand, he swiftly clutched Raymond on his feet and held him upside down as a hunter would typically hold its caught prey.

Valley. If you kill me, my grandfather surely will not let you go..." Raymond began his threat, desperate to hold on to his of vital energy crystals. I can also give you spiritual weapons or martial arts skills if you want. I can provide you whatever you ask me live. ... I am way too able to talk normally. First, he threatened him, and now he was trying to bribe he started to cry, tears harshly rushed on color of his pants started to darken with liquid filling the spaces of its threads. A stinky anything and just glared at Raymond with his sharp and bully the weak, with your powerful right, Austin. I am just a waste of blood. Your hand will get dirty if you kill Raymond immediately begged.

Now you know you were wrong? It's too tone and stopped. He did not want to

to be a good man in your next his body was shot far away quickly like a bullet. When it dropped, the ground was smashed, forming a big pit. His body and walked over to pick obtained a snow dragon fruit back in Ganges must the auction of the Illusory Swordsmanship. In a flash, he had almost lost Austin also found five more. The space rings did not belong to anyone now and Austin, of course, took them delightedly. He transferred whatever was in those cannot stay here for long," Austin said in spiritual sense, Austin could cover the distance of about

At this moment, Austin started his Wind-commanding Skill. In an instant, he left the place which was full of blood and dead bodies.

After a short time, Austin had gone to a forest not far away.

And in a span of half a day, Austin had arrived back at the Sun Sect. . .

He was gone for about ten days. Returning to the Sun Sect, Austin felt good to be back home. The place was like his home as he had spent all his teenage days here in the Sun Sect.

Austin directly went towards the house he had rented and saw that the gate was open.

"Why does Evan leave the gate open? Is he not aware of thieves?" Austin thought to himself.

He knew that Evan was a careless man and it was typical of him to always lose or forget something.

Shaking his head at this thought, Austin entered the yard.

But as soon as he landed several steps in, his face paled, and he immediately stopped.

On the stone table at the center of his yard were all wine and food. Five disciples were sitting around the table, raucously drinking and playing. Their faces were all red and seemed to be completely drunk.

His yard was a total mess! The plants were all on the ground, and there was even a smell of human excrement—it really stank so much!

The neat and clean yard when Austin left had become so filthy!

The disciples noticed Austin, who stood frozen and utterly surprised.

Immediately, all of them stood up, looking so flabbergasted as if they had seen a ghost. They did not expect that Austin would be back. Now, they were all dead meat.

The Supreme God

Chapter 164 Time For High Profile

In the courtyard, five disciples were drinking and playing a game of "guess-finger". When they saw Austin enter the yard, they all stood up, stupefied, and stared at him with their mouths agape.

With a plethora of thoughts surging through their minds, they whispered anxiously among themselves.

"But I heard he was stuck in the outer range of Grand Desolation Mountains and wouldn't come back."

"What should we do now?"

The outer disciples quietly exchanged ideas, careful not to raise their voices. Their palms were sweaty and their eyes were averted.

One of them was slinking toward the gates, prepared to slip away the moment he saw an opportunity.

However, the outer disciples didn't know that Austin had a strong spiritual sense with which he could observe everything within a four-hundred-meter radius. From the very beginning, Austin was aware of everything they did and said, and their concealment meant nothing to him.

Austin looked at the disciples in front of him in displeasure. Anxiety grew in his heart when he thought of Evan, who was nowhere to be seen. If these outer disciples dared to misuse his sacred compound like this, they would certainly have dared to do something to Evan, too.

"If I remember correctly, this compound is mine. I rented it. Will someone please explain to me what all this is about?" Austin asked.

The expression on his face was cold as ice and his tone was even colder. The vital energy force in his body was surging and billowing with rage.

His strong spiritual power swept the yard, exerting great pressure on everyone there. The disciples facing him found it hard to breathe.

Numerous strands of vital energy grew concentrated in Austin's hands, ready to charge an attack.

Finding out that his courtyard was occupied and that his friend was missing had lit a spark of anger in Austin's heart.

He was in an uncontrolled state of destructive madness.

And once someone drove him to this state, he wouldn't spare them until he got his revenge.

The five outer disciples were merely at the sixth level of the Energy Gathering Realm. They weren't able to stay calm and composed in front of Austin's overwhelming demeanor. In the face of his rising anger, they began trembling in fear.

guess none of you is going to open your mouth? You, then! Yes, pointed to one of the outer disciples.

disciple was already terrified. His teeth were clattering and his a complete sentence, he yelled in around and ran, wanting his receding figure, Austin snorted, a Spiritual Sense Flying Needle darted from his reached the gates, he suddenly felt an unbearable pain, as if a blade was being twisted in his brain. His feet came to a trance-like state, he saw a black blade flash by and chop off his right arm. The amputated limb seemed to move in thrown back into the yard like and immediately felt a sharp pain. He glanced beside him and saw that his right arm! You cut off my arm!"

up his amputated limb, only to find his right sleeve empty. He reached out with the limb that he still remained frosty, as if he hadn't heard the outer disciple cry out to vent it out and get his don't be surprised to be ridden." Ever since Austin had woken up in this body, he had tried to keep a low profile and avoid offending others. But these people just didn't know when to next? Would someone slip in while he was sleeping and cut his Sun Sect, no other disciple even dared to raise his voice to him. All of them behaved extremely deferential before self-introduction." It was now time for Austin to build to think too much to figure out who the culprits behind this incident were. There were the celestial energy ginseng grew and had been captured by the Soul Collection Array and imprisoned by the Ghost Sect. Later, they had been rescued by the elders and the stewards of the five major sects and returned to the Sun Sect earlier than Austin.

way they could defeat Austin, they were pouring their anger on the courtyard he had rented and on Evan, his best friend.

they would keep trying to lay hands on him in the is made clear. Otherwise, what happened to him

But beneath the frosty surface, for this mess in your yard. But how can you hurt your fellow disciples in the after he risked a glance at Austin's furious had hardly finished his words when Austin stood

All of a sudden, he felt a hard slap on his face.

He was knocked backward into the air and flew across the yard, hitting the wall with a thud and falling into the mud. Everything happened so fast that he didn't even have the time to cry out. His body twitched once in pain before he blacked out.

"I'm not going to ask again. One of you, tell me what happened here," Austin said coolly.

His eyes darted to the other three.

The other three outer disciples stood there trembling in fear. They'd all seen how the other two outer disciples hadn't even been able to fight back against Austin.

It was obvious that Austin could kill them all with a wave of his hand if he wanted.

"Have - have mercy on us! We have nothing to do with this! We were told to stay here... Oh! Marvin! Marvin and Billy! They sent us here!"

stuttered one of the horrified outer disciples. He was so scared that he couldn't even form a complete sentence.

"I see. Are you one of Marvin's men? Or are you with Billy?"

"Both of them are in the same force now, sir. Billy has honored Marvin as his boss."

Then it all made sense. Austin nodded his head.

"And it was all their fault. Marvin explicitly asked us to do this. He even said that you were stuck in the habitat of level-three demonic and diabolic beasts and would never come back alive, so we all assumed that you were dead.

And because of Evan's friendship with you, he became a target of Marvin and Billy too. Marvin commanded us to pick on him all day long with various reasons. Later, when they were tired of playing with him, they chased him out of this compound and made us occupy it."

Everything seemed to align with Austin's guess now.

In the valley where the celestial energy ginseng grew, Austin had hidden in a remote corner and hadn't been spotted by Marvin. So, Marvin must have assumed that Austin had died under the attack of the demonic and diabolic beasts.

After returning here, Marvin had taken out his anger on Evan and sent the outer disciples to take over Austin's compound.

After connecting all the pieces, Austin thought to himself, 'It seems to be the right time to display my strength. These people are snobbish and their respect comes only from fear. It's only when they are afraid of me that they will respect me. And I have to do this for Evan's sake, too. If I don't punish Marvin and Billy, other people will bully Evan the next time I'm not around.

And more importantly, I think I now have enough strength to protect myself and my friends!'

The Supreme God

Chapter 165 Fighting With Marvin (Part One)

Finally making up his mind, Austin glanced coldly at the outer disciples, as if he was indifferent towards them and threatened, "Now, I am being kind enough to grant you more than a few minutes to clean this place up. If you fail to do so, none of you are going to leave here alive!"

It was a very strange and surprising threat, even for the guy who was lying on the ground with his arm cut off.

"Austin, you know very well that this is Sun Sect and we are outer disciples. If you kill us or if you try to harm us, the sect will know about it very soon," one of the outer disciples reminded Austin very cautiously, trying to keep his voice as friendly as possible. He was afraid that his reminder could be mistaken as a threat. Since where they were negotiating came under the territory of Sun Sect, it was obvious that the sect leaders wouldn't let go of Austin if they ever found out that he had killed their disciples.

Annoyed by the disciple's stupid reminder, Austin summoned the Twin Shadow Blades and then two gleams, one black and the other one dark red darted past the disciple's ears.

Feeling a slight coldness on either side of his face and then a sharp pain too, the disciple quickly touched his ears, but his hands only found a pool of blood. He was horrified to find that his ears had disappeared!

"You ..."

He was so terrified and shocked that he didn't know what to say.

"Don't test my patience! Since you know that the sect will punish those guys who kill or hurt its disciples, why didn't you think of that when you put Evan in trouble and occupied my courtyard? I'm not a very patient person. Either you clean up the yard, or you die miserably!"

Austin replied in a cold and determined tone.

The outer disciples were too afraid to delay any longer. They immediately scurried around looking for the tools and began to clean up the messy yard.

Austin stood near the gate, looking at them aggressively.

The outer disciple who was lying on the ground had applied some healing medicine on his wounds and the bleeding had stopped now.

peeped at Austin from the corner of his eyes, and then immediately got up from the ground. Austin was looking murderously at him and he didn't want to die. He joined the group in cleaning the moved swiftly and within a very horrible expression on his face, they were forced to speed up as much as possible. He was like up your yard. Could you please let us

Now you guys are going to lead the way and take disciples were initially hesitant up their faces when they thought it match for Austin, but Marvin ranks fifth among the outer disciples, which means if they fight, here, we wouldn't have suffered this humiliation pay double the price when we taking Austin to Marvin's house was even several other disciples saw the procession and they could tell that something was someone to drive Evan out from the show up, they knew that there was going to be a fierce fight between Marvin them, ready to watch the coming news about Austin's wildfire and before long, a remarkably large group of disciples had formed and was following general area but Marvin's apartment was much the disciples stopped outside a luxurious is Marvin's yard." One of the four and tell him that I'm coming for him. Tell him I am going to take over this

"Okay!"

The four outer disciples were very excited when Austin asked them to go inside Marvin's yard.

With Marvin present, they wouldn't have to be so afraid of Austin now.

"Marvin! Marvin, Austin is coming here to make trouble!"

The four disciples relaxed the very moment they entered Marvin's yard.

One of them shouted crazily while running into his yard.

Austin sneered and stood calmly in the middle of the gate, blocking the exit to prevent someone from fleeing.

In the yard, Marvin, Billy, and several other people who, by no means, looked like ordinary disciples were sitting at a table with a big meal laid out in front of them.

They seemed to have drunk a lot, as their faces had turned red.

"Hey guys! Do you think Austin died in the area where the level three diabolic beasts were staying?"

Billy asked. He was still resenting the fact that he hadn't been able to kill Austin with his own hands.

"He-he! Don't worry, Billy! The competence of a level three diabolic beast is about the same as that of a human at level eight or nine of Energy Gathering Realm.

I don't deny the fact that Austin was good in his bodily movement skills and combat effectiveness, but he was only at level seven of Energy Gathering Realm. Compared to a level three diabolic beast, his competence when facing the beast was far from enough.

The Supreme God

Chapter 166 Fighting With Marvin (Part Two)

There is very slim chance indeed that he survived in the mountains. Most probably, he was already torn to pieces by the diabolic beasts.

Don't forget that except us, there were also five members of the Blood Wolf Team hunting him.

And messing with the Blood Wolf Team is no trifle.

In the past several years, that team has killed many powerful cultivators, some of whom, were even superior to Austin. I am sure that he wouldn't have been a match for that team."

"Hump! That bastard Austin embarrassed me in front of so many outer disciples. I really hoped that I would have been able to peel him, break his bones and drink his blood! Lucky for him not to have fallen into my hands!"

Billy resentfully complained.

"Billy, calm down! I feel the same way. My anger on that idiot is no less than your hatred for him. But anyway, he is dead. Let's stop talking about him so that we won't annoy ourselves.

Right now, the matter which actually deserves our attention is the Top Ten Outer Disciples Ranking Challenge.

Hey Billy! I heard you are going to attend this challenge?" Marvin asked.

"Yes. I am definitely going to rank among the top ten in this competition!"

Billy drank the wine in his cup in a single gulp, looking very ambitious indeed.

"He-he! Billy, may you succeed in ranking among the top ten!" Marvin made a toast.

The others raised their wine glasses too.

"Hey Marvin! Are you satisfied with ranking fifth on the list all the time?"

Billy suddenly asked after bottoming up another glass of wine.

Marvin smiled proudly and replied in a powerful tone, "My goal is to be at least in the top three!"

his voice was filled with confidence.

your competence and skills after competing with you last time. I'm sure flattered his fellow competitor.

suffered a crushing defeat. Realizing that he

.. . . .

Marvin! Austin is coming here to make

Marvin and the others were drinking and talking excitedly, they heard someone shout they saw several outer disciples rush over to them.

"Austin?"

the name, everyone stood up in surprise. They were thinking that that Austin is still alive and in back. Look at me! My ears were cut off by him! He asked us to lead him here and he said he was going to take over your residence.

Marvin, please get us

sure that Austin was still alive, that he could survive in the area where those level three diabolic beasts roamed. I think it's time we settle the score between us," he said slowly after a short moment and put an end to this bad blood

... ..

the gate, Austin

that you would be lucky enough to survive the attacks from those diabolic beasts

with a dozen disciples was among them.

powerful outer disciples among them who had entered the Grand Desolation Mountain with Marvin you hadn't vented your anger out on Evan just because to have forgotten the experience you had in the Beast Mountains when you were chased like a homeless dog by us. Hump! Since you don't you are really sure that you are going to beat a mood

fights with Marvin, he had felt a little stress, but now, things were different. In terms of vital energy cultivation base, he had reached level nine of Energy Gathering Realm, whereas Marvin had just reached level eight. This obviously meant "Come on! Let's start!"

eye. He collected all his strength into his right arm and at once, a swoosh, he swung a blow of a thousand pounds high level and that he was going to get in

He tried to step back. However, it was too late.

In a hurry, he immediately summoned all of his vital energy and protected himself with a shield formed with that.

"Rumble!"

Austin's fist slammed on the vital energy cover around Marvin and a loud bang was heard. The momentum of the blow was so high that the energy cover was shaken and started vibrating continuously.

Marvin was forced to step back three paces under the impact of the blow.

He looked at Austin as if the person in front of him was a ghost. Marvin could tell that Austin had swung the blow with all of his physical strength, without any vital energy behind the blow.

But even with his physical strength alone, he had made the cover formed with Marvin's vital energy vibrate violently. And Marvin was at level eight of Energy Gathering Realm.

'How can a human's body be so physically powerful? His body is just like a diabolic beast!' Marvin thought.

"Come on! Fight me!"

Austin shouted and continued his attacks without giving Marvin a chance to recover.

Again, his powerful fist slammed on the vital energy cover around Marvin.

"Rumble!" Once more, the bang was heard and Marvin stepped three steps back again.

His vital energy cover was shaking even more violently now and it had become very unstable.

It was rising and falling like ocean waves, as if it would break at any time.

"Rumble!

Rumble!

Rumble!"

Since Austin's cultivation base in Wind-commanding Skill had improved significantly, Marvin had no time to dodge his attack at all.

The Supreme God

Chapter 167 A Strong Physical Body

Austin punched the vital energy cover incessantly as if he was a fierce humanoid beast. Marvin felt Austin's punching was gradually destabilizing the vital energy cover and it would be broken any time now.

Marvin marveled at the person in front of him. How strong and vigorous was he! He attacked like a ferocious beast not by the virtue of his vital energy but by using his physical strength. Even his breaths exuded great power.

"But how could this be?"

Earlier, at the Beast Mountain, they had fought against two level-two evil apes together. By now, Marvin clearly knew Austin's strengths.

Of course, when they had not fought, he supposed Austin's biggest advantage to be his agile movements.

As for the cultivation of vital energy and combat capability, Marvin believed that he could outperform Austin.

But several months later, the Austin he was looking at was entirely a different person who had extraordinary physical strength.

"Is it possible that Austin acquired a superior elixir to enhance physical strength?"

Marvin speculated on this but then a second later, something broke his trail of thought.

"Austin, do you think you can break my vital energy cover with brute force alone? Hum! physical strength, it's so shallow that you can never reach a higher level."

After saying that, Marvin's billowing vital energy flowed more quickly on the vital energy cover.

The almost broken vital energy cover immediately became firm and steady again.

Austin saw that and promptly concentrated on the strength of his arms and began to beat the cover as if it were a drum.

Boom!

He punched the cover non-stop.

an attempt to Marvin's. No matter how he moved and dodged, Austin managed to appear in front of him and hit the vital energy cover with he could not avoid Austin's punches only by relying on he would be without the protection of the cover and squashed into pieces by Austin's powerful punches.

cultivation base, he had never worked on his body and thus, was weaker in comparison to Austin's.

scene, it looked as if Marvin was intentionally trying his strength against Austin.

with the punches as Marvin defended himself behind the vital

He is as strong as an ox going by the by the display of Austin letting off his strength.

His body is most likely to weigh also rapt by based on the level of the vital energy cultivation base. Austin will he would hold a grudge lest they disagreed with him, no one dared express anything contrary.

a string of cracking sounds, small but penetrating, sounded off that Marvin's vital energy cover had begun to crack, something none of them were expecting then, it spread into a spider web as

"How is this possible?"

Marvin shouted aghast.

tried to avoid the punches again, but in vain.

was then as shocking to the vital energy cover burst

the last punch broke the vital energy and the rest hit Marvin's with a palm drawing a long mud track in his

a firm footing, he wiped his mouth with his hand and found drops of fresh watching Austin, who looked like Hiss...

There were endless gasps of astonishment.

The physical strength of Austin was too striking to sit still.

Most outer disciples thought that they would not be able to withstand Austin's punch that packed in such explosive power.

After seeing the bloodstain on his hand, Marvin slowly looked up and stared at Austin.

His eyes grew cold like a poisonous snake who wanted to devour his enemy.

"Well, I don't expect you to have practiced such powerful physical strength in several days. But if you think you can outdo me just by it, you are wrong!"

Marvin said to Austin with a malevolent and moody expression.

"Still, I confess that you are the guy who deserves all my strength to fight against."

There was an arrogant look on Marvin's face with some kind of homicidal intent.

"This is my newly practiced fourth grade palm skill. I was going to reserve it until the top 10 challenges. Now you should feel honored that I am using it on you."

With that, Marvin moved slowly towards Austin. The crowd could feel Austin exuding a strong urge to kill.

He let off all his vital energy. His palms wore an earthy yellow sheen as if they were covered by a thick layer of the earth and were several times bigger than their normal size. To the onlooker, they looked extremely formidable.

"Hum! Austin, you think that you can beat me with your increased physical strength. How naive can you be! Be humbled into nothingness! A few months ago, you were cornered by me at the Beast Mountain. Today, too, I can crush you as easily. I with my bare hands will slaughter you here. Try the power of the skill of the Giant Magic Palm."

Marvin had wanted to reserve this newly practice palm skill until the top 10 challenges of outer disciples, which then he could have used as an ace in the hole to win the top 10 challenges.

But now, Marvin knew that he had to use it at this moment.

He could also try the power of the Giant Magic Palm today.

The Supreme God

Chapter 168 Giant Magic Palm

As Marvin spoke, the vital energy force surged out of his body with such intensity that it started to be visible to the eye.

The powerful vital energy force spiraled around his body, making him look imposing.

"Wow, he's so powerful! No wonder he stands out among all the outer disciples!" one of the outer disciples gushed. All of them gaped and sighed in admiration as they looked at Marvin.

"Austin, let me remind you about something. Don't think that you can show off to all these outer disciples as you wish just because your physical strength has been enhanced to a certain extent. The truth is, physical strength means nothing because it will be eventually drained. A disciple's real strength is dependent upon his possession of vital energy and his skill in martial arts. Of course, it's a waste of my time to talk to you about martial arts skills. Since you're such a mediocre disciple, you'll never understand what I'm talking about!"

By now, Marvin had brought his strength into full play. He lifted both his palms up to the sky. Immediately, his palms became earthy yellow, producing a strong earthy smell.

Yellow light radiated into the sky, followed by the eruption of yellow palm shadows that hovered around Marvin. Soon, the palm shadows thickened under the sky as if they were going to penetrate it to reach heaven. The whole atmosphere was ominous.

The yellow palm shadows more or less looked like thunderbolts. Electric light spiraled around them like fiery serpents. Suddenly, a cracking sound thundered through the air. The area was suddenly covered in a thick white fog.

"Ah, the palm shadows look as mighty as thunderbolts. This palm skill is really rare and amazing!"

"Of course, grade four martial arts skills are as amazing as expected."

Most of the outer disciples in the Sun Sect didn't get a chance to learn grade four martial arts skills.

All the outer disciples looked at the imposing atmosphere Marvin had created in shock.

Just moments ago, the vital energy shield that Marvin had been wearing in front of his body had been shattered after a mere punch from Austin. At the sight of that, some of the outer disciples had mentally shaken their heads at Marvin's mediocre strength and undeserved reputation.

But now, after seeing the amazing power that Marvin had in his Giant Magic Palm, all the outer disciples acknowledged Marvin's mighty strength.

Although Marvin was at the eighth level of the Energy Gathering Realm, he was ranked number five among the outer disciples, which meant his strength and his skills were nothing short of extraordinary.

"Austin, death will be your only option today!" Marvin yelled with a fierce look in his eyes.

to kill Austin was apparent talking nonsense and new and powerful palm skill, Austin knitted his eyebrows, but he maintained his

Marvin had said, a disciple's accomplishment in vital verge of death but you're still boasting without

"Go to hell!"

to spin and converge together into one big ball of energy. The impact of the power air around Marvin was compressed and crushed by force that all the outer disciples together. No one would be able to withstand the impact of these that had been created by the impact of the palm shadows. The palm shadows penetrated through the ground like pythons burrowing deep into surging toward him. He knew that the palm shadows covering stretched out one of his palms and pointed it arm, the palm shadows covering the sky shifted. There was another cracking sound in the air as in the face of these palm shadows that seemed to be the palm shadows came flying toward him right now. So, he didn't sneered and stood calm without any the odds seemed to be stacked against him with imminent danger looming near the sky, it only filled him with a stronger desire for battle. So far, Austin hadn't harnessed any of his vital energy at all. The sole reason for this was that he wanted to see if his left hand into a fist and directly flung it toward the earthy yellow palm shadows physical strength, Austin felt much more confident. To the outer disciples who "Break!" Austin roared.

again toward the thick mass of palm shadows looming

Boom!

fist shattered the palm shadows into pieces, but because of the huge impact, Austin found it hard to felt nothing but a rush of blood and energy in his chest.

When Marvin realized that the power of his Giant Magic Palm had been dispersed just by Austin's fist, he was shocked.

He had initially thought that Austin was in a disadvantageous position because he could only rely on physical strength.

Moreover, Marvin had spent a lot of time in privately refining this skill as his bottom line when fighting against his enemies. So far, he had taken it for granted that he would kill Austin by harnessing the might of his Giant Magic Palm. After all, he could kill most of his enemies this way.

But to his surprise, Austin had dispersed his mighty palm shadows with just his fist and retreated only a few steps without even bleeding. Marvin was starting to realize that it wouldn't be possible to kill Austin just by depending on his palm shadows.

With this sudden turn of events, Marvin started to view Austin with a little more respect. Now, he treated Austin as a worthy opponent.

"Damn it! Don't be complacent. I didn't harness all my power just now. But this time, I'll exercise as much of my power as I can," Marvin said coldly.

"Oh, is that so?"

Austin raised his eyebrows.

"Magic Seven Chops!"

Marvin shouted loudly.

All of a sudden, the hundreds of palm shadows scattered around Marvin converged into seven palm shadows that swiftly rotated and flew toward Austin from seven different directions. The air around them rumbled like there was an army with a thousand horses heading toward Austin.

Watching the palm shadows spiraling toward him at a fast pace, Austin finally felt that he had to put in more effort.

Although he could fight against these palm shadows with his tremendous physical strength, he wasn't skilled enough at using his strength yet. Now, Marvin had changed his tactics. He was no longer directly confronting with Austin with his palm shadows. Instead, he was subtly deploying his palm shadows to skillfully surround and suppress Austin.

As Austin stared at the electric light, an idea popped into his head. Suddenly, a black dagger and a red dagger appeared in front of Austin. The two daggers flew out of their sheaths toward the approaching palm shadows.

Austin stared at the scene with renewed enthusiasm. He channeled his tremendous magic strength into both of his arms to counter-attack the palm shadows.

Boom!

The seven palm shadows slowly faded away, while Austin retreated a few steps once again from the force of the impact.

The Supreme God

Chapter 169 Defeating Marvin

Austin was beaten back one more time. He took a deep breath to steady his nerves and looked up at Marvin. Seeing the powerful energy around him and the yellow shadow of palm, Austin was aware that his thousand-pound punch was still unable to break through the Giant Magic Palm that Marvin had mastered.

'It seems that the force of his fourth grade martial arts skill is extraordinary. And my punches aren't enough to confront it. I need to practice harder. If I can reach the second level of the Overlord Body-refining Formula, I can easily defeat Marvin with a force of five thousand pounds, ' he thought.

He was barely lost in thought for a moment when an idea struck him like a silver dagger.

'Okay, let's try this!'

Austin prepared himself, rolling up his sleeves and squaring his elbows.

He brought his hands together, intertwining his fingers into an unfathomable but awe-striking gesture. Meanwhile, his energy was gathering into a solid ball within him. Moments later, several threads of golden vital energy emerged from his palms, twisting at the center like little golden snakes in time with Austin's fingers and their movements.

The energy flowed strongly with the force of a tidal wave. Gradually, a glowing three-storied golden pagoda came into being. All the vital energy surrounding Austin seemed to be waiting in the wings.

"Oh good Lord! The Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill!"

The appearance of the Grand Pagoda caused a disturbance among the outer ring of disciples who had started gathering around them to watch the fighting. They instantly recognized what was on Austin's palms.

Every disciple knew that the Grand Pagoda had contributed towards Austin defeating Billy the last time.

And now, Billy went white as a sheet when he saw it again. Although he had tried cultivating his energy these past days, he was well aware that it was still beyond his capacity and that it was impossible for him to defeat Austin this time too.

Besides, Billy had the feeling that it was much easier and faster for Austin to generate it this time. And it looked like the energy contained within the Pagoda was more aggressive than the previous energy.

"I cannot believe this!" Billy yelled. 'Oh my God! It's the fluctuation of ninth level of the Energy Gathering Realm!' Billy thought frantically, like a duck in a thunderstorm.

Marvin looked the Grand pagoda up and down, and suddenly, he felt his heart give a great throb. His color changed as he found out how much energy it actually contained. It was clearly much stronger than when Austin was challenging Billy.

He could see that the vital energy emanating off Austin's Grand Pagoda was much more powerful than his.

He also could tell that it was the ninth level of the Energy Gathering Realm.

Austin! How could you reach the ninth level in such believe the sight that he beheld with his own two eyes.

real strength of a fighter depended on the level of his vital energy, not the movement of now assumed about Austin was true, then it would be a wholly different situation altogether—something that veered to the opposite of what he was expecting. To avoid tried to regain his composure and ready voice was not loud, the disciples around heard him clearly and it caused only been just over half a month.

had seen couldn't believe that Austin had reached the ninth level in such a short time. None of them had ever heard of to treat Austin in the future. Things would go south if they became extreme. And there was no telling at the moment whether he would be a disciple to break through a level, a fighter reached the next level in half a year, they would be regarded as a

if a fighter managed to jump two levels in half a month, he HAD to be a a miracle! There was no other bystanders craned their necks to see what would happen next. Austin smiled at Marvin, as though confirming his way! How could you?" Marvin's lost the power to know the truth.

the fifth level of the Energy to find that Austin had reached the seventh level. But since Austin had taken the fruit of the earth spirit, he had believed it to be normal. After all, the effect of the fruit was too powerful to not attribute troubled Austin to no end, mostly because he didn't seem to be able to let go had jumped two more levels to the result of taking the fruit, but he had begun suspecting that Austin was doing magic and he was concerned, there was no such thing that had the power to help fighters jump four did tell you, you might not be able to comprehend it in this lifetime as an ordinary had said to Austin what felt like a moment ago, and ferocious smile at Austin, and pulled out all his hands gave out one flash of shadow after another, the sky darkened. Shadows

Bang-bang, bang-bang!

Impacted by the force of Marvin's fist, the surrounding air exploded and was galloping ahead, interweaving with the said shadows.

Austin had expected this to happen before he had generated the Grand Pagoda. The moment he saw Marvin pulling in and directing his vital energy, he calmed himself down and concentrated. He lifted his right palm up and slammed his right foot on the ground at the same time, propelling himself towards Marvin with the swiftness of an arrow. The Grand Pagoda was radiating so much brightness in all directions that nobody dared look directly at it.

As the light glowed brighter and brighter, surges of vital energy came pelting out one after the other like a series of mountainous, rolling waves. In addition to the waves of energy, an almost suffocating pressure was sweeping over them and even the people standing some distance away could feel the freezing cold.

The Grand Pagoda made sure to chill the air as it spread.

The way the Grand Pagoda swept away all the obstacles in its path would be imprinted in every witness's memory and it would be a legend that they would tell their children about in complete awe.

As the golden energy of the Grand Pagoda met the shadow of Marvin's palm, the shock wave formed a cone of pressurized air molecules that moved in all directions and extended to the ground.

A grand thump was ringing in everyone's ears.

Before the shock wave disappeared, all the people heard a low, scary voice.

"Fuck off!"

It was Austin's voice. And the Grand Pagoda kept growing higher. It was weird that it was still glowing as if supported by a steady flow of vital energy. It soon overwhelmed Marvin's palm shadow, which gradually petered out until it finally disappeared.

A thud against the ground showed that Marvin was forced to retreat.

He was finally able to stop a hundred meters away, trembling and still staggering from the impact.

His face was red as a cooked shrimp because of suffocation. Moments later, he spat out a large glob of blood, unable to take it anymore.

"WOW!"

The bystanders were silent for a moment before they erupted. Nothing had been as surprising as what had transpired today.

When Marvin had started to perform his Giant Magic Palm, all of them thought that it would be impossible for Austin to escape his doom. They thought that Marvin would grind him into ashes. But now that Austin had defeated Marvin, they had difficulty scraping their jaws off the ground.

The Supreme God

Chapter 170 An Ordinary-Looking Cultivator

The outer disciples who had watched the fight between Austin and Marvin were standing in stunned disbelief.

But on second thought, they realized that it made more sense for Austin to triumph over Marvin.

In terms of martial arts skills, Austin and Marvin were equally matched. Austin's Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill and Marvin's Giant Magic Palm were both grade four.

However, Austin had reached level 9 of Energy Gathering Realm while Marvin was still at level 8.

When two cultivators with different cultivation bases of vital energy used the same martial arts skills, the skill of the cultivator with a higher cultivation base would be more powerful.

This meant that Austin was superior to Marvin.

With his Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill, Austin had summoned three Grand Pagodas just like the last time when he'd fought with Billy. However, the power that emanated from the Grand Pagodas was much stronger now. It was obvious that Austin's vital energy had grown significantly.

Although Austin had defeated Marvin, he still looked calm and indifferent as if this fight didn't even matter to him. All the outer disciples had the same thought running through their mind as they looked at him. 'Austin used to be No. 1 among the outer disciples. It seems like the old Austin is back.'

"How is it possible? How could a nobody like him beat me?" Marvin murmured to himself.

His face twitched as blood oozed out of his mouth. He stared blankly at his opponent, unable to accept the outcome.

Ever since receiving rank No. 5 in the last Top Ten Outer Disciples Ranking Challenge, Marvin hadn't lost a match with any other outer disciple. All the outer disciples, including those who had joined the Sun Sect before him, treated him with respect as if he was the eldest martial brother. Most outer disciples treated him with the utmost care as they didn't dare to offend him.

As time passed by, he had begun to feel superior. He had started putting on airs and talking down to others.

But now, he had been defeated by Austin in front of so many outer disciples. As his eyes swept over them, he realized that there was a discernible change in the way they were looking at him.

They used to hold him in awe and veneration. But now, disdain was written all over their faces, as if they were thinking that the No. 5 outer disciple hadn't earned his reputation.

Marvin finally understood how Billy had been feeling when he had been defeated by Austin.

mountains of Grand Desolation Mountain range to hunt Austin.

position. He felt exactly the same way that the fact that he had gone from being God's favored one to a nobody it with his current power. He couldn't hold a candle to Austin. The three Grand Pagodas were still turned as spat out a mouthful of blood and said in a

He made up his mind that he would begin would seek Austin

Disciples Ranking Challenge, Marvin decided he wouldn't participate.

He wasn't the outer disciples couldn't help been the man of glory just moments ago, but now, he looked as pathetic as a stray dog.

you can just leave like that? My house has been forcibly occupied, and my friend, Evan, tracks when he heard Austin's to avenge himself as well as stop until he reaches his goal, ' he stood there silently without turning to face hung on Austin's lips. He didn't recall the Grand Pagodas, which were still sending forth facing the Grand Pagodas, he knew as compensation. As for Evan, he's safe and sound. He stays in the bungalows where the outer disciples live. I'll give him 10, 000 vital energy crystals and three Energy-boosting depressed and forlorn. He didn't want to argue with Austin right was to leave this place as soon as possible. He swore to himself that he would come back when he was much said

here and defeated Marvin was to awe the outer disciples who thought little of him and didn't have the same respect for him as before. Now, he had achieved that goal.

kill him in front of Pagodas gradually became transparent and sigh of relief when he felt the fierce power aimed at him dissolve into

Then, he walked off slowly.

'It turns out Evan is staying at the bungalows. Thank God he's safe.'

Austin felt much more relieved after finding out where Evan was.

'I have one more house now! Look at this house. It's much more luxurious than my original one. I guess the rent must be at least 5, 000 vital energy crystals a year, ' he thought to himself.

Austin stood before the gates to the luxurious house that Marvin had given to him.

"Guys, let's call it a day. This house is mine from now on. If you don't have anything to say, you may leave now. I have to tidy up this house and move in here. Once everything is done, I'll invite you guys over," Austin said in a loud voice to the outer disciples.

The outer disciples didn't want to leave, but they couldn't afford to offend Austin. Left with no choice, they left the house one after another.

With a satisfied smile, Austin turned around to enter the house.

All of a sudden, a ferocious murderous will came from behind him and locked him in place.

Austin immediately scanned the area with his spiritual sense.

He realized that one of the outer disciples hadn't left. He was still standing there, staring at Austin without saying a word.

With the help of his spiritual sense, Austin could tell that this outer disciple looked around 20 years old and extremely ordinary.

In a crowd, this man would be the last person that anyone would notice.

This ordinary man just stood there and stared at Austin without moving or saying a word.

But Austin could feel a strong aura emanating from the man envelop himself.

'A strong cultivator!

This man is no inferior to me. Judging from his aura, I don't think I can defeat him, ' Austin thought to himself.

