

The Supreme God

Chapter 221 Austin's Purchasing List (Part Two)

Are you... sure you want to buy all these medicinal pills and herbs? These will cost you a lot. We offer quality materials so they were all expensive, The clerk swallowed hard and asked cautiously as he confirmed if he heard Austin right.

"Yes," Austin quickly replied.

The clerk was surprised because every item on the list cost more than ten thousand vital energy crystals. Another thing that fired up the clerk's curiosity was the two items that he didn't know. This was the first time he had heard about these and he swore he never saw any of these two items before.

And in front of him was a differently dressed person who wanted to place such a big order. It took him a while before he realized what he had to handle.

The clerk paused and swallowed hard. He looked at Austin with awe as he was amazed how rich this man was.

"Dear sir, the items listed here are very expensive and rare. Please give me enough time as I will check with our shopkeeper, and see if we have all that you need."

The clerk respectfully said to Austin as he was walking away to look for the shopkeeper. Austin nodded.

Then the clerk rushed to the back of the hall immediately. Austin was left at the counter and wondered about his further plans.

After a short while, the clerk came back.

"Sir, may I ask you to go to the back room of the hall to talk with our shopkeeper?" the clerk asked politely.

Austin took the list back to his pocket and nodded before he followed the clerk.

A few steps, they entered a room in ancient style. It had elegant yet delicate decorations. Austin's eyes were pleased.

The man warmly greeted Austin.

The man was also surprised after he scanned the items on the list.

He asked what you need these Austin did not talk for a moment. Then with a disgusted tone he spoke, "Do I need to take it seriously. I am not with an embarrassing do not have all the medicinal pills and herbs on this list. And we feel obliged to tell you that the total price of these medicinal pills and herbs is in my arms. A bunch of vital energy crystals crashed to the floor. The crystals summed up to exactly one million vital energy. Austin is never a concern for me. Just give me what I need," Austin said with clear displeasure in his voice. "I don't have what I want, then don't waste my time. I'd better go now." Austin stood up. He immediately gathered the vital energy crystals. "Sir! Don't rush. I have something to show you." The old man largest pill store in the Peace Town. We offer the most complete range of medicinal pills and herbs. If we don't have what you are looking for, then you can't find them anywhere else in the Peace

I can help you to gather all the things in the pill refiners association in the Violet Orchid Empire. It would be very easy for me to get help, you have to pay an extra fifty thousand vital energy crystals as a reward for my help. What do

"Are you a pill refiner?" Austin asked.

He was surprised. It was the first time that he had met a pill refiner. Violet Orchid Empire was known to have great demand for the best pill refiners. It was a noble profession and pill refiners were much sought after among sects, royal families and aristocrats.

Austin didn't expect that the ordinary-looking old man in front of him turned out to be a level three pill refiner. Austin couldn't help but gaze at him with admiration.

Fifty thousand vital energy crystals as a reward?

Austin kept thinking. The old man was asking for more money. He couldn't help but weigh things through.

But the old man looked sincere. He didn't seem like to be lying.

According to the old man, no other shop was able to offer the full range of products on his list. If Austin wanted to pursue his practice, he needed to trust him.

He was ready to spend one million on the purchase, and he didn't bother to spend another fifty thousand. He bit his lower lip and made up his mind.

He nodded and said, "Okay. Please help me to prepare these things. I am willing to pay fifty thousand for your help. I have no choice but to trust you. By the way, how long will it take for you to prepare all this? I need them as soon as possible."

"Sir, please give me fifteen days. That's the soonest I could promise. It seems to be a long time but if you'll wait, you can get everything that you need. Will that be okay with you?" the old man replied.

"Okay. I'll give you ten thousand as deposit. Is that a deal?" said Austin as he handed the vital energy crystals.

"Yes, sir. It's a deal. Please come back to us fifteen days later and I assure you that I'll have everything ready."

The Supreme God

Chapter 222 Austin Lin! It's You!

After leaving the shop and exiting the Pill Trading Street, Austin chose one of the many hotels in the area and checked in. He was going to take this opportunity to cultivate himself here.

As a cultivator, Austin clearly understood that the only thing he could rely on in this world was his strength.

Only a cultivator's strength could give him a solid base for living in this world.

Austin also hoped that one day, he could break through the Earth Realm and get revenge on the people who had attacked him.

He had almost died three years ago when he was attacked secretly. He had been an idiot at that time and for three years, and had let almost anyone bully him. But no more! Austin simply could not calm himself down and the hatred in his mind bubbled constantly every time he recalled that painful experience. The suffering he had endured in those three years had become quite a bit of a problem and had, at times, interfered with his martial arts too.

If he could not take his revenge by himself and kill the people who had made the plan and attacked him secretly, Austin believed that he would never be able to feel at ease for his whole life.

Walking into his room in the hotel, he sat down on his feet. After a short while, he entered the state where one forgot everything about oneself and could focus solely on cultivation. The Golden Sun Scripture woke up and started running inside his body. All his bones and muscles seemed to glow with its golden light.

About four hours later, Austin woke up from his cultivation trance.

Just as he was going to go to bed for a small break, he suddenly heard some voices which attracted his attention.

"Marvin, are you sure that Austin Lin has come to Peace Town?" he heard a voice ask.

Austin heard his name being mentioned. At this ungodly hour in the middle of the night, who was talking about him?

His spiritual sense had woken up which meant there was danger. This was how he could listen in on the conversation next door.

"Yes. I am completely sure that Austin has come to Peace Town. But don't worry. This time we have a detailed plan to kill him and all the people are well-prepared. We will surely kill him this time. That is the only way for me to vent my anger and hatred!" another voice answered. It was, if Austin's guess was correct, Marvin Su.

Peace Town tomorrow?" the always something good happening to him and he is so lucky. Being a to kill him and unable to get him off my head. If that remains the case, I am never going to be able to improve in my martial arts or cultivation base.

secretly right here in Peace Town. This is not the Sun Sect, so as long as we don't tell anyone else, Austin in front of so many outer disciples and humiliated so much. If Austin is not killed, it is going to be hard for me to be relieved as well. So this time, I am going to help you to the best of my abilities to kill that guy!" the second voice replied.

guessed that the two voices belonged to two familiar figures—Marvin and them had repeatedly tried to kill him as if he was their sworn enemy. They had even hired any trouble when he had returned from the Grand Desolation Mountain as they were all from the Sun Sect. He had even not said a word to Marvin after him into Peace Town. They were they were not going to let it go without could allow them to live in this world anymore! How eyes filled up will return the favor arrived at the window of the room where Marvin and Billy were staying. His finger moved and a little stone fell down on the ground, giving off a sound. Under Austin's control, it and Billy, both busy hatching a plot to kill Austin, were suddenly interrupted of them up and ran out of their

a faint figure standing on the top of the house. Within a second, quite far from the earth that night, so the who wanted to steal but accidentally ventured a guess.

"A thief? Trying to steal something? But if he overheard what we were talking about a moment ago, it will not be a good thing for us. Let's follow him and make sure that he hasn't. Let's find out who he is!" Marvin replied.

At that moment, Killing Austin was the only thing in Marvin's mind and he had been freaked out by Austin's strength. Otherwise, he would not have begged his uncle Johnson, the steward of Sun Sect, to come here and kill Austin.

And now, he was in a state of extreme nervousness and sensed danger in every sound he heard. He had become borderline paranoid. He never thought of the fact that even if the thief really did hear their conversation, he couldn't have found Austin since he didn't even know who the hell Austin was.

Marvin's hatred towards Austin was stopping him from thinking clearly.

"You are right. Let's go and have a look. Hm! The thief really does not know his place if he dares to steal from us! I pity him if he gets found!"

The two started their bodily movement skill and ran in the general direction in which, that figure had disappeared a moment ago.

As the two disciples ran after that shadow, they saw that figure from a distance once again. Seen from the back, it looked staggered and flurried as if it had sensed that some people were chasing it.

Seeing that, Marvin and Billy ran even faster. Soon it looked like they would capture the thief.

A moment later, they ran into a spacious place, where Marvin and Billy almost caught up with the figure that looked to be in a complete mess at the moment.

"Hey you! You have a hell of a lot of nerve trying to steal from us! Let me see how you escape now!"

Billy shouted as he stamped on the ground with his tiptoes. His vital energy force burst out all of a sudden. His speed became much higher in a second. In very few seconds, he overpassed that figure and stood in front of him surely.

"Haha, who said I wanted to escape?" They heard a voice suddenly.

The figure was not afraid as they expected it to be, but was standing there leisurely. He raised his head slowly and a handsome face came into view, which was giving off a sarcastic smile and staring at Billy.

"Austin Lin! It's you!"

The Supreme God

Chapter 223 Executing Marvin (Part One)

Just as Billy and Marvin caught up to the guy and had him surrounded, they could finally see his face and recognize who it was they had been chasing all this while. To their utter astonishment, it was Austin they had been plotting to kill.

They stood transfixed in fear, not having expected to come across Austin like this before they had set their plan in motion. They had seen how Austin had defeated Timothy in the Top Ten Outer Disciples Challenge and they doubted that they could take him down by themselves.

"How's it going, brothers? It's been a while since we met," Austin greeted them, a mocking smile on his face.

It had been Austin's plan to lure them out of the darkness. Even before he had overheard their conversation, he had known that these people were conspiring to harm him. And now, he had proof of their conspiracy. Tonight might be the time to end them once and for all. As to strength, Austin did not think it difficult to kill them considering that his cultivation base was much stronger than theirs.

"Austin, what do you mean making us come here in the middle of the night?"

Marvin barked, scowling and vindictive.

But as he assessed the situation, Marvin had a revelation. As much as Austin was strong and competent and was at level nine of the Energy Gathering Realm, he himself wasn't bad at strength. He was at the same level as Austin but the only difference between them was that Austin was a tad superior because he had acknowledged the level two sword intent and obtained a tougher and stronger fist force.

But Marvin had his own strengths as well. He knew fighting Austin by himself was stupid, so he enlisted Billy's help to implement his wish. Although Billy wasn't as strong as Austin, he wasn't completely useless. He was at level eight of the Energy Gathering Realm, only one level below Austin and Marvin, which was why Marvin believed that Billy could be of much help to him. Combining Billy's and his strengths gave Marvin the hope that they could take Austin down.

of the situation in his head, Marvin began to become relaxed and a little cocky. He lifted his head killing me in the middle of the night like ugly sewer rats. Now that I am right here in faces had him burst into laughter. He what they were up to, it was pointless to pretend that Marvin and Billy weren't looking to harm him. And a

Marvin wiped off the awkwardness from his demeanor and from trouble by just having the nerve to challenge us here. I won't try to deny anything now that I know that you overheard us. I want you dead. It is true. You are nothing but a stupid, cowardly, despicable creature in my opinion. You played your dirty trick on Beast Mountain the vital energy Earth Realm with the help of those fruits. You ruined my plan and fun of us now? I could never sleep in peace without taking revenge, without watching you die. Only your death can bring me peace and fulfill hate as the memory of the past came pouring forth. The ire in his eyes crackled dangerously as if it could flare up and burn Austin to Marvin's face. He knew he would throw up in disgust if he members of the Evil Ape Hunting Team. That is why we were able to defeat those two of the Evil Ape Hunting Team to own those earth spirit fruits together. But to our extreme disappointment, you were selfish and wanted to keep them to yourself. Plus, in order to achieve your purpose, you butchered three members of the team mercilessly. And now you have the gall to come after me for those sense of shame, you total bastard? Don't you have any dignity?"

Austin

and I will avenge the three members of the team. Today is your last day on Then, Austin pulled out his Violet Royal Sword from its sheath. As it emerged, the sword zinged, and a strong, chilly sword radiance emanated from the blade.

Austin had had enough of Marvin and Billy's trying to ruin his reputation and trying to kill him. He wanted this to end today.

Ready to slaughter, Austin raised the sword high up in the air. His eyes flared with two rays of sharp, terrifying gaze, reflecting the wrath that swirled in his head against the two men. A gust of mysterious sword aura emerged from the sword, circling it with increasing gust. The level two sword intent began to unfold before Marvin's and Billy's eyes.

When Austin's vital energy began transmitting to the Violet Royal Sword like water flowing from one end to another, the sword glinted golden under the clear white moonlight. Seeing that Austin had conveyed his desire to the Violet Royal Sword and that he had resolved to kill them, they knew that they were destined to fight to death tonight.

"Let's fight him with all our might! Don't give him the chance to fight back. Doing so would be our downfall because we may not be able to withstand his attack, especially his fists," Marvin reminded Billy, his eyes fixed on Austin.

Marvin clapped suddenly and began to gather his vital energy between his hands as he circled them before him. The vital energy turned earthly yellow and the smell of soil was soon assaulting their senses.

As the color of Marvin's vital energy became darker and the smell became thicker, thunder and lightning began to appear. Flashes of lightning whirled around Marvin's hands like snakes, while the thunder roared and clattered. Within seconds, hundreds of palm projections had spouted from the swirl of vital energy.

The Giant Magic Palm was Marvin's strongest skill. After the palm projections were released, he activated his level one palm intent and transferred his intention and vital energy to the palm projections. Within moments, the palm projections began to enlarge and glowed with a strong, bright light.

Beside him, Billy was also displaying the skill he excelled at. Gathering his vital energy, he clenched his hands, causing the long spear he was carrying on his back to shoot out and reach his hand.

The Supreme God

Chapter 224 Executing Marvin (Part Two)

Billy wielded his spear and aimed it at Austin. With his half level spear intent, Billy could transfer his energy to his spear and provide it with a powerful vital energy force. Dozens rays of spear-light emanated from his spear. Without wasting time, he ordered them to attack Austin.

It was the first time Austin was fighting Billy and his first time fighting someone who had comprehended spear intent. Austin began on the back foot, finding it difficult to deal with the spear-light that Billy had sent at him. But as he had understood level two sword intent, he knew he could defeat Billy with his understanding. Dodging the relentless attacks of the spear-light, Austin began using his sword intent to dispel them.

Meanwhile, Marvin's giant palm projections had also begun attacking Austin. Undaunted by the threats, Austin taunted Marvin, his voice full of malice, "Is that all you've got? You think you can kill me with this little trick? That's stupid of you. Let me show you what the true intent of a fighter means."

Austin threw his Spiritual Sense Flying Needle towards Marvin with all his might. The needle found its mark and embedded itself into Marvin's head. As the sharp, unbearable pain struck Marvin, the palm intent between himself and the palm projections was suspended. The vital energy swirling in his palms disappeared.

Applying his Wind-commanding Skill, Austin leapt up swiftly, his vital energy whirling around his legs. He dodged the attacks of the palm projections and rushed towards Billy, skidding to a halt in front of him.

Billy was still wielding his spear and attempting to attack Austin. But being this close to Billy, Austin was immune to his half level spear intent as his own level two sword intent was protecting him from harm. As snow was doomed to destruction at the appearance of burning hot summer sunlight, so was the half level spear intent disintegrating before the level two sword intent.

Helpless in the face of Austin's power, Billy felt his spear turn heavier and heavier in his hand as the half level spear intent between him and his spear gradually evaporated into nothingness.

At this point, Austin had gotten a clear understanding of their capabilities so he didn't want to waste his time and energy by beating around the bush any longer. He decided to display all his vital energy cultivation bases that belonged to the preliminary stage of the Earth Realm.

"I think you need to get a feeling of my Illusory Swordsmanship," he said as he looked fixedly at Billy.

Austin began demonstrating his Illusory Swordsmanship, not once taking his eyes off the man in front of him. More than twenty rays of condensed sword radiance appeared from the clouds of sword aura that gushed off the sword intent. Whirling and emanating a strong, golden light, the sword radiance shot straight at Billy.

Dumbstruck, Billy still strove to fend off the sword radiance using his spear with all his might. The Dragon Winding Spear Skill was the best he could perform, with which he could prick, sweep, cut, and block anything much faster than usual. And this was certainly a situation that demanded it.

But since his spear intent was at a level that was way lower than Austin's sword intent level, not to forget that he had fewer vital energy cultivation bases than him, standing up to Austin's strike seemed like a futile exercise.

Marvin could have helped him, if he hadn't been struck by Austin's Spiritual Sense Flying Needle. The pain in his head didn't allow him to fix his attention to the fight.

Billy had warded off most of the sword radiance using his Dragon Winding Spear Skill. But it just wasn't enough. He missed a few and they pierced his body from the front and emerged from his back. It was as if real, tangible swords had gotten through him, holes appeared in his body where those rays of sword radiance had pierced him and blood gushed over him like a thousand rivers.

could recover from when have you had the cultivation base of the Earth Realm. But he wasn't silly. He could recognize Austin's true cultivation base. He had guessed in the

He had managed to extricate the needle from himself and save himself from the devastating been in the Earth Realm for a while," Austin told Billy. "It's just that your friend Marvin here is too stupid to sense it. Looks like again, but he was so badly injured that he had no energy left to try and run away from him.

loud punch lifting strength, Austin thrust his fist into sound of his bones cracking clear in the silent night.

went into a crouch, his muscles convulsing and mouth vomiting gusts of the verge of death.

you kill a person

this situation would inevitably bring him defeat in his final fight with me, that I belong to the same sect as you? You sound horrified right now, but that's being a hypocrite. But and summoned his skills at Illusory Swordsmanship. Murderous will rose to its height and sword aura filled the atmosphere. The sword-light glinted blindingly behind Austin, looking like hundreds of golden dragons roaring around, waiting for his order. The level two released all of his vital energy. With the sword intent already present, Austin's vital energy provided the Violet Royal Sword an enormous power that seemed unparalleled. The sword began to whirl at a speed that made it difficult for anyone the sword turned into a small hurricane, obliterating every object that stood in its way to that the giant palm projections appeared once again around him. He had to stick everything he had behind this throw. This was his only chance. Following his intention, the palm projections were no match for the sword-light. For as soon as the sword-light approached the palm projections, they became as vulnerable as paper before fire vanished like thick fog confronted by the sudden appearance of the sun from behind worked. Intent of superiority could always suppress and destroy the intent of inferiority. In this instance, Austin's level two sword intent had Marvin's palm projections had been destroyed, Austin ordered his Violet Royal Sword towards Marvin. More than twenty rays of sword radiance followed and attacked Marvin from all directions. Every single ray of sword radiance carried Austin's vital energy force and was powerful enough to all his vital energy in his hands and demonstrated

The rumbling and clattering sound of the fight echoed in the quietness of the night. The fight became more and more intense as minutes passed.

Rays of sword radiance strove to get through to Marvin, but were blocked by the palm projections.

"What a relief! I bet you never saw this coming," Austin mocked and burst into laughter.

He thought of their old days on Beast Mountain when all he seemed to do was run and hide from Marvin's hunt.

He also remembered being in the outer terrain of the Grand Desolation Mountain and Marvin following him to try and kill him.

If Austin hadn't been able to escape every time, he would have died several times over by now. But right now, contrary to whatever had happened in the past, Austin was attacking and Marvin was trying to escape. This was a scene that Austin had dreamed of many times, but had never turned into reality until this moment.

"I am getting tired of playing with you. Can we just end this game?" Austin almost drawled.

Austin wielded his Violet Royal Sword once again. A new group of twenty rays of sword radiance came out and attacked Marvin.

The danger that he was in did not allow Marvin to concentrate on anything else but the sword radiance. He used his Giant Magic Palm and fended off the sword radiance.

Austin wasn't one to take it to heart. Using his mind control skill, he extracted the red and the black daggers from his body. But the minute they appeared, they disappeared again, flying straight towards Marvin.

Marvin sensed it before it happened.

The daggers were dangerously close to Marvin, the blade tops pointing to his neck.

Much as he strove to ward off the daggers and as he had gathered all of his vital energy force in his palms, he did not have any other vital energy force left to withstand what the two daggers were about to do to him.

"I couldn't die. I should have killed you when I had the chance," Marvin said quietly just before the daggers cut through his neck like lightning piercing through a tree.

His head separated from his body and fell to the ground. Blood gushed out like an eerie spring as the beheaded body collapsed.

The Supreme God

Chapter 225 Meet Young Ruffian Again

Austin placed his Violet Royal Sword away, and then found about five or six thousand vital energy crystals.

"Such a beggar!"

Austin cursed, feeling very unsatisfied about his earnings that day.

Austin was about to spend 1 million vital energy crystals without hesitation. However, those five or six thousand vital energy crystals were still of great importance to him. He refused to ignore any crystal or leave them uncollected. Therefore, he placed those vital energy crystals inside his Space Ring.

Then, he dragged the two bodies and buried them in a remote forest.

He came back to the hotel and immediately fell asleep. It was around noon already when he finally woke up.

He got up and found nothing else to do for the day. Thus, he decided to have some fun in town.

At the same time, a fierce-looking man in black bellowed out a roar of sadness in a remote forest outside the Peace Town.

Anger had already engulfed him. He seemed to have gone mad with despair.

Two bodies were lying before the middle-aged man in black, which had already been bitten by wild dogs or other beasts. They were Marvin and Billy.

"Who did this? Who killed my son? I will definitely find out who the murderer is and avenge Marvin.

It must be Austin. He did this. He murdered my son and let him rot here.

Marvin came here to hunt Austin. Now he's dead. It must be Austin who killed him. Austin, you filthy murderer.

I will personally hunt you down and kill you.

... .."

The middle-aged man turned out to be Johnson, the uncle of Marvin and steward of the Sun Sect.

But the truth was that Marvin wasn't really Johnson's nephew. He was actually his son. Johnson cheated on his wife and had an affair with his sister-in-law. Marvin was then borne from that affair.

They were connected by blood. Therefore, Johnson swore to kill Austin and avenge his son. Nothing could quench his anger, except killing and spilling Austin's blood.

... ..

Back inside the tavern, Austin went up the stairs quickly and reached the second floor.

first floor was used to those distinguished and rich customers could book a table be charged with 400 vital energy crystals even was only wearing ordinary clothes and seemed to be nobody, or just an insignificant disciple from an the Lotus Tavern, and those regular warriors couldn't even afford a meal here. However, some poor warriors would sometimes earn some money out must have confused Austin with one of those poor warriors who suddenly a table on the second floor would be charged with 400 vital energy crystals, even if he hadn't ordered warriors found out that the entry charge on the second floor was 400 vital energy crystals, they would reconsider and oftentimes would rather choose to dine on the first floor instead in order to save

He then continued his ascent energy crystals fell on the waiter's body hard. He winced as a sharp pain shot through his head. Then, the energy Austin's disappearing figure. Moments later, he silently swallowed the insult and humiliation. He stooped down to pick up all, it was his fault for judging Austin based on his appearance and clothing. He was duped into thinking that he must be one of those poor people who couldn't afford second floor, a dozen pair of either renowned, wealthy or powerful, being cold, arrogant, cultivated, elegant or just indifferent to everything occurring around them. None sat at a table near the window facing a waiter to

... ..

diabolic beasts, seasoned with all kinds of fresh drugs and herbs. They are really tasty importantly, our food can help your body grow, nourish your vitality and help promote of our meals are quite have a look at our menu," said the waiter who just insulted Austin and at the same time was was exactly the one to whom Austin threw 1, 000 vital energy crystals. He hated Austin for his impoliteness and brought him the special menus in which only the most expensive dishes were listed in order to pay him back.

000 vital energy crystals, while the most expensive one was worth more than 6, 000 or 7, 000 concluded that he couldn't be someone who was rich, powerful or influential. Austin, with regular appearance and clothes, just threw 1, 000 vital energy crystals on the

the 1, 000 crystals were all extremely the dishes, Austin realized that all of them could be beneficial to the cultivation of his marital arts and body building. His curiosity was peaked kinds of elixirs and herbs. Spiritual energy from both earth and heaven had been absorbed and included in those dishes. Surely, they would help boost do anything in order decided to have a taste of those dishes

to pick some meals more suitable for his cultivation

Austin lower his head and keep quiet, the waiter thought that he must be shocked by the extremely expensive dishes in the menu in the back of his mind, thinking that he had succeeded in embarrassing Austin.

dared to order meals on the second floor. Now, he's shocked and finally

Although the waiter somehow refrained from laughing at his customer publicly, a loud and sneering voice was heard from the other side of the room.

There seated was a man in his early youth, surrounded by two of his servants.

A beautiful girl sat in a chair opposite his. In order to humor the girl, the young man tried to make Austin an object of ridicule.

Meanwhile, the beautiful girl who sat opposite, chuckled while shooting cursory and disgusted glances at Austin.

This young man, maybe a young master from a wealthy family, wasn't a local of the town. Being born and having lived his entire life in a small city, he was betrothed to a beautiful village girl by their parents when they were still in the wombs of their mothers.

Today, he had come to Peace Town to meet his fiancée for the first time.

Upon seeing his fiancée, he found her really beautiful and captivating. Satisfied and delighted, he felt sexually excited and attempted to lure her into bed with whatever means necessary. It didn't even matter to him whether they would get married or not in the end.

To show off his wealth, he took the girl to the most luxurious restaurant in the town. If everything went according to his plan, he would definitely have some fun in bed with his fiancée tonight.

However, he was offended when he saw a regular young man walking up the steps and casually strolled in the room on the second floor.

Actually, he despised all people from small towns and villages.

When he caught Austin's facial expression, he thought he must be shocked and embarrassed by the high prices on the menu.

He couldn't help laughing loudly.

"Bro, you have no idea how many beggars are living in this town. They will never be you, no matter how hard they try. A thousand vital energy crystals are but change for you. But for them, a crystal is perhaps all they have," said the beautiful young girl.

She just couldn't miss the chance to please her husband-to-be.

The waiter took the hint and joined this couple in making fun of Austin.

"You're right, my lady. So many poor men tried to look rich by ordering dishes on the second floor but eventually got themselves embarrassed when they read the high prices on the menu. None of them could afford any dish we offered. They just had no money at all. Haha!"

All of them thought Austin must be one of those young men who tried to appear rich. Their lives were quite boring for them and they just couldn't miss the chance to laugh and insult those people they deemed inferior in social stature.

"What?"

Austin finally raised his head and shot a curious glance at the couple sitting on the other side of the room. He found them repulsive, as if they were two flies trying to disturb his good mood.

He shook his head helplessly, looked away from them, and continued to read the menu carefully and slowly.

However, Austin's scornful and cold glance angered the young master. How dare he, a nobody, look down on him, especially when he was with his fiancée on a date.

"You're so impolite and rude to me. Do you even know who I am? Have you ever realized the difference between your stature and mine?"

Afu, go and slap him on the face 10 times. He should be taught a lesson and learn to show some respect to a lord."

The Supreme God

Chapter 226 Make Trouble In The Tavern

Fighting was forbidden in the Lotus Tavern. The clerk, however, had a grudge against Austin and wanted him to become a laughingstock, so he decided to look on and do nothing. He would overlook the situation as long as that bastard was taught a lesson.

Austin sighed with profound resignation. 'I just want to have a peaceful meal here. Why are these people so annoying? Can't a man get a break?'

He acted calm, but he was waiting for their next move.

One of the three servants behind the young man sauntered towards Austin. In his eyes, Austin was merely a poor young man from a small town. It would surely be a piece of cake to teach this guy a lesson.

"Hey, brat. You should remember to be more respectful to our young master," the servant said with an evil smile.

When he was about five feet away from Austin, the latter stood up from his seat and all of a sudden, reached out his left hand to grab his collar. He attacked his internal organs with strong vital energy force.

The servant was drained of color. His four limbs relaxed and his heartbeat became extremely painful. He wanted to struggle, but he had no strength at all. His strength left his body!

He was at about level seven of Energy Gathering Realm. He thought he was already a somebody, but it turned out that he had underestimated Austin greatly.

Austin reached out his right palm.

Smack! Smack! Smack! Smack!

The sound of slaps reverberated through the tavern. The servant passed out, and his face became black and blue.

Austin waved his arm and sent the servant flying backward. He slammed onto a table where the young man and the young woman sat. The dishes were smashed into pieces, and the all the food flew everywhere. The woman named Sissy became covered with disgusting grease and some vegetable leaves. The remains of the food landed on her head. The broth streamed down her cheeks.

"Aaaaaargh! What the hell!"

Sissy yelled at the top of her lungs.

"I swear I will kill you! You are dead meat! You bastard! You will surely pay for this! No one can save you!"

roared the young man as he wiped the grease off his face. He was absolutely livid.

"Kill him!" he ordered his other two servants.

They both sprang to their feet, drawing a broadsword. They swore to themselves that they would chop the bastard into ten thousand pieces and make him pay.

Calmly, Austin carried out the Violet Royal Sword. It gave out a dozen streaks of sword-lights. The servants' arms that held the broadswords were cut off by the sword-light. The broadswords were then cut into several pieces and were scattered on the floor.

Austin dashed towards his opponents and threw two punches at them.

Bang! Bang!

The two servants flew out the Lotus Tavern through the window of the second floor. They were thrown into the street!

of Energy

Austin was walked towards their table and stood company? Don't just stay here and be a killjoy. You he was finished speaking, he threw another two punches and sent the

I can have back in his seat. He decided to continue to read the menu, so he could finally young man, while the other was what do you think of the young man's cultivation base and strength?"

the to disguise his true cultivation base when he fought them. However, I could still tell from the fluctuation of his vital energy that he must have reached the preliminary stage stage of man in disbelief.

than 17. How could he possibly reach the preliminary stage of remarkable physical strength. I guess his single punch would equal to 1, 000 pounds.

he has already comprehended the sword intent. Its level should be above level 1," stared at Austin in awe. It was as if he were some monster. 'Is this ordinary-looking judgment. Matt was an experienced cultivator, and he seldom bet on the wrong horse. His judgment was never wrong.

reason why he depended on Matt's companionship and respected looking for. I think we should make friends with him. With his help, I'll stand a good chance in competing for my in such a young age. He is talented in cultivation. You won't regret making him your friend, Young Master. Now's your time.

young man nodded and was about to stand up.

stairs and walked towards Austin all of a sudden. The clerk was one guy! He started a fight and clerk stepped forward and pointed at and his companions and throw them out of the window, he sneaked out and tattled on Austin to heard about the fight. He immediately came to Austin brat, how dare you make a fuss in the Lotus Tavern! You not only injured our guests, but also destroyed our our tavern? Do you can't afford to offend window. It surely did not cost that much. What really made a sneer. He was waiting for his next

He was not the for mercy. The truth was, Austin was and apologize to us, you gestured to the guards, and they surrounded Austin. They were about to me, sir. Can I talk to you for man as he came up to the shopkeeper. He was tall and lean, and his eyes were as sharp as those of a falcon.

"Sir, what do you want?" the shopkeeper asked politely.

The middle-aged man took out a plate and showed it to the shopkeeper. Then he immediately replaced it in his pocket so the others didn't see what it was.

The shopkeeper's face changed dramatically at the sight of the plate. He bowed respectfully at the middle-aged man with a flattering smile. He was eager to please him at all cost.

The middle-aged man led the shopkeeper to a corner and whispered something in his ear. The shopkeeper nodded repeatedly at him.

After their discussion, the shopkeeper came up to Austin with a broad smile.

"Sir, I'm so sorry. There must be some misunderstanding. Please accept my sincere apology. I hope you could forgive us.

Sir, please order whatever you like to eat in the menu. We assure you that you'll enjoy your meal and your stay here. Guys, let's go."

After talking to Austin, the shopkeeper left with the guards. He left the clerk to serve Austin.

Before the shopkeeper left, he cast a warning glance at the clerk and demanded, "You must apologize to our distinguished guest sincerely. If he is not satisfied with you, your life will be in danger!"

The clerk's face soured at the threat. He had no idea why the shopkeeper's attitude changed completely. The only thing he could understand now was that he couldn't afford to offend Austin.

Recalling how the shopkeeper dealt with his colleagues who made mistakes, he deeply regretted offending Austin. 'I was such an idiot! Why did I have to mess with him?'

"Sir, it was all my fault. I should have stopped them from arguing with you. Sir, please forgive me."

Austin sat back in his seat and snorted.

The clerk was frightened to death because he was afraid that Austin wouldn't forgive him.

"Sir, please don't be mad at me. I was such a jerk. Sir, I have a large family! They all depend on me.

Sir, I know I was wrong. I won't do it again. Please forgive me."

The clerk even started slapping himself across the face.

Austin's anger faded away. He wondered who the middle-aged man was. After all, the shopkeeper apparently respected him very much.

"Okay. Stop slapping yourself. Do not act like a jerk again!"

Austin's cold voice was like a melodious song to the clerk. He thanked Austin again and again.

At that moment, the middle-aged man came up to Austin.

Since he didn't bore any ill will, Austin just sat there and waited for him to speak up.

"Young man, our young master admires you a lot. He invites you to have a meal together," he said in a polite manner.

"Sure. Why not?"

Austin accepted his offer without any hesitation. He decided to follow after him. He was a little surprised to see the handsome young man, then sat opposite him.

The Supreme God

Chapter 227 Kindling The Fire Of Vital Energy (Part One)

Austin was so impressed when he looked at the noble man in front of him. The young man seemed luxurious by the style of his clothing and manners. Austin secretly thought, 'We don't know each other yet he help me. There must be a reason.'

Austin took a few steps toward the chair in front of the young man. He sat calmly as he observed the physical appearance of the young man.

The young man suddenly widened his mouth with a big smile and said, "I'm so amazed when I saw you beat an ignorant ruffian using your skills. Your cultivation base must be fantastic.

I want you to know that I admire your talent. You are so quick and great at battles. Oh by the way, I am Lorenz. It's my pleasure to meet you."

Lorenz said as he extended his right hand to Austin, showing respect. He uttered positive comments about Austin. His elegant demeanor showed that he received excellent upbringing and education.

"I was forced to fight them. It was not worth mentioning. By the way, thank you for your help. I thought you must have something else to say."

Austin seriously looked at the young man's eyes.

"Fine. You're a straightforward person. So I'll get straight to the point."

The young man began talking.

"I'm not a native in this place. I'm just passing here during my journey.

I come from P City. You must have heard of P City, haven't you?"

Austin was not surprised when he heard that the young man was from P City. With his extravagant appearance, the young man must come from a big place.

ten counties in the territory of the Violet Orchid Empire had dozens of towns under its jurisdiction. In fact, Peace Town was just one of the towns in the county seat of P County. It was the biggest and most prominent city with a man in front of him must be a noble. That was why before Austin asked him, the young man continued his honest, my father is a very important man in the Violet Orchid Empire. He has his place, my father planned to hold a contest. The winner will need to recruit talents and build up be on

What do you think?"

asked as he looked at Austin with eagerness.

was shocked. It was just a while since they met each other. He didn't know Lorenz very to refuse directly. He chose to shut to hear such a request from an unfamiliar person. Yet I'm really seeking you with quality resources to improve your cultivation. The higher your cultivation base, the more helpful you will be to provide training resources set his big goals in the industry of martial arts. As soon help but felt excitement when he noticed the change of expression

Space Ring out of his pocket and put it energy crystals inside the ring. Lorenz was not just a plain rich

"Austin, it's just a deposit. If you will go to the imperial city for the contest, I promise to give you a million vital energy crystals every month for over half a year. Plus, some elixirs for your cultivation.

Moreover, if I win and take my father's place, I can even give you some land from the territory of the Violet Orchid Empire.

Austin slightly bit his tongue. He thought that he might be dreaming. But Austin was not interested in territory and power. What he cared was all about his cultivation. If he could get the training resources and the vital energy crystals, he would save a lot of time and effort to concentrate on his cultivation.

Aside from that, Lorenz told Austin that he recruited talented people from many places. So, Austin assured that there would be a lot of strong masters to assist Lorenz in his every step.

Since the imperial city was a flourishing megalopolis, a lot of talented people in terms of martial arts gathered there. Austin thought that it would be fine to take the offer.

Austin gradually put the Space Ring inside his pocket.

"I accept your offer. I will go to imperial city and promise to assist you," Austin said.

Lorenz showed a big smile and thanked Austin for his decision. He slightly bowed his head to Austin and talked.

"Very well, my friend. Thank you. It's a great honor to meet such a talented person like you. I become more confident that I'll win the contest."

Later, they celebrated in the Lotus Tavern. They ordered a lot of sumptuous dishes and drank until the sun sets.

After the dinner, Lorenz reassured Austin that he would send one million vital energy crystals and some elixirs to the Peace Town every month.

Then the young man said goodbye to Austin and left with his partner. . .

Austin walked along and returned to his rented inn. When he got to his room, he sat to his bed and transferred the half a million vital energy crystals into his own Space Ring.

The Supreme God

Chapter 228 Kindling The Fire Of Vital Energy (Part Two)

He looked at the Space Ring given by Lorenz. It had a twenty cubic meter space for storage. Austin thought of giving this to either Evan or Herbert.

After he organized the Space Ring, Austin took a book out of the drawer. It was the book of Elixir Foundation.

This was the book that Mindy gave him at the Valley Town. It was a copy of the ancient book about alchemy given by the head of the Zhang clan. He repaid this book for all the help that Austin gave them. If without Austin, they might not survive what they have been through.

Austin heard of the mysterious power of alchemy. When he got the book, he thought that he would study it after the competition he was in. Since the Top Ten Outer Disciples Ranking Challenge was over, he was now ready to begin reading the book.

As of now, he had to stay in the Peace Town for days. He kept on waiting for the shopkeeper to prepare the elixirs he would use for cultivating Overlord Body-refining Formula.

Thus, Austin intended to use his spare time to study the alchemy and saw if he had the potential in this area.

Pill refiner was an honorable and respectable profession. If he would be like one in the future, he would be able to use the elixirs he refined for his own cultivation.

So he opened the book and started reading it.

Austin was surprised when he read the table of contents. He found out that the original book was written by an ancient pill refiner more than a thousand years ago. By a lucky coincidence, this ancient book was discovered by the Zhang Clan of the Valley Town.

stated that there were several cultivation medicinal materials. There were thousands of medicinal materials in all the medicinal materials could be divided into four properties and pungent, sweet, sour, bitter and salty. But there were actually more than five kinds of flavors such as mild or astringent. However, skill of alchemy was to identify each medicinal material by its name, property, and flavor. If refiner should transformed fire depended on the level of the pill refiner's vital energy. Plus, the foundation of alchemy. The pill quality matching of materials. One should subject. It seemed that if he wanted to pursue studying this, he must put hard raised not to be a quitter. He wouldn't stop on studying the book of Elixir Foundation and the Golden Sun Scripture. He tried to keep all kinds of alchemy, the species of herbs and other materials recorded were incomplete. There were only about five hundred kinds of medicinal materials properties and flavors. He found that his memory became better because of his spiritual he conducted a lot of trials, Austin finally got the idea of the Kindling Formula. He rejoiced

He sat with his legs crossed, his right hand was outstretched with his palm flatly opened. Then Austin transmitted his light golden vital energy into his palm, controlled it using his mind and gradually formed it into a ball.

Austin sensed the air around his palm was gradually increasing its temperature.

What he learned from failures was the key to success was always good concentration. If you want to succeed, you should do your work without any distraction.

The massive vital energy gathered on his palm was getting contracted but dense. Austin softly screamed as he exerted all his strength to draw out the vital energy from his elixir field. He quickly channeled it to his palm, and gave it a strong pressure.

The ball made of vital energy suddenly bounced out. It was very strong and looked powerful.

Austin's hands trembled as they got heavy. But he bit his lip and persisted. The light golden ball in his elixir field emitted its strongest force and kept on pressing toward the vital energy ball.

After a while, a low crackling sound was heard when the vital energy ball shrank into a size of a rice grain.

Then a golden flame was formed in his palm. The fire was blazing hot, dancing on his hand.

With its high temperature, the room suddenly turned hot.

The whole area was getting hotter as the flame continued to fire up.

The Supreme God

Chapter 229 The Powerful Crystal

He had finally succeeded in bringing up the fire! Excitement flooded Austin's handsome face.

According to the tenets of the Elixir Foundation, making the fire was the first step to becoming a pill refiner. And his ability to call it forth meant that he had the potential to become a pill refiner. A lot of people who had just started learning to refine pills couldn't even make the fire.

Only ones with a strong, good-quality vital energy had a chance. Besides, it also required having good control of the vital energy. Not meeting these requirements meant that they couldn't conjure the fire.

At first, Austin had only wanted to try if he could make it. But he hadn't expected to be successful just days after his first trial.

Other pill refiners would surely be astonished at this fact. And they had reason to disbelieve it, because it usually took a regular pill refiner one, or even a few years to make the fire. And Austin bringing it up after mere days of learning was nothing short of a miracle.

Austin let out a happy sigh of relief as he looked at the fire glowing in his hand.

With just a flicker of his will, the fire disappeared immediately. What was more, it reached his elixir field through the energy meridian, and settled down in a quiet corner.

"So this is the fire of a pill refiner!"

Austin mumbled to himself. Willing it to change yet again, Austin made the fire pass back through the energy meridian into the palm of his hand, appearing with a sharp crack. He repeated the process a few times, and found that he was getting better at controlling the fire with each round.

It was a pleasant surprise to Austin that he was able to finish the first two steps of pill-refining in just a few days. All that remained was to buy some spiritual herbs to assist him in refining pills.

He also needed a cauldron. Once he had everything ready, he was going to learn how to do it.

these distressing thoughts, Austin gently stroked the Space Ring. He knew that wanted to learn pill-refining. And if he could succeed in doing that, he would surely make a lot

He put on his black robe before opening the door that had been shut for five days now. After all, he to do a bit of shopping. He decided to look for some spiritual say for sure that he would definitely win against him. What was more, now was not a good time. He had neither the time nor the heart to fight.

meantime. And when the time came and he achieved his spiritual herbs to practice by burning them and extracting the liquid medicine, he'd only a random shop, he saw that there were two other martial artists dressed in black robes, also shopping for spiritual walked up where the spiritual herbs were on display and started to two martial artists, who kept glancing at Austin with confusion in their

the fact that the two

both of them part of the Medicine Sect. Think he's

But his robes are in the way. Can't see his face is, why didn't he greet us when he walked in dress the same way

"That's true.

pick some spiritual herbs soon and leave before to get the powerful crystal without anyone finding out about it. The Cloud Cave actually hasn't been found by any martial artist of the Violet Orchid Empire. Or the treasures there would have already attracted every capable martial artist in the country. There

"Hush now! Be careful! You know our mission has to be a secret! Why do you talk about it in public? Especially on unfamiliar terrain? If Elder Cao hears of this, he will have your head!"

The two strangers didn't speak any further as they looked around the shop. When they found that nobody seemed to have noticed them, they let out sighs of relief.

Austin didn't have to look at them to hear what they were saying. His spiritual sense had been strong enough.

And listening to them had proven that they weren't martial artists of the Violet Orchid Empire, but belonged to the Medicine Sect, a sect from abroad.

He wondered what exactly the Cloud Cave and the powerful crystal they were talking about were.

His curiosity was pierced by Violet's voice ringing through his mind, sounding shaky because of how excited she was.

"Master, did someone just mention the powerful crystal?"

Austin knew that Violet also had a good spiritual sense, only slightly weaker than his.

Although she was hiding in the Illusion Bead, she had the ability to use her spiritual sense to observe things around them as long as she wanted to. But her overhearing the two martial artists might have been unintentional.

So Austin told Violet everything he had just heard.

"The powerful crystal! The Cloud Cave! Oh my God! They are both real! Unbelievable! That's exciting news!" !"

Violet's surprise translated into her gasping so excitedly that she almost couldn't form complete sentences.

The Supreme God

Chapter 230 Medicine Sect

Confusion filled Austin upon hearing Violet. Thus, he shot her a questioning glance.

"Master, have you ever wondered why a demonic beast like me roamed on the land where humans gather? Why do you think I was at the place where you caught me? Shouldn't I be in the mountains where demonic beasts belong?"

"I haven't actually thought about those things, Violet. Can you tell me why?"

responded Austin in a serious tone.

"I'm here because I'm looking for the powerful crystal."

"Powerful crystal? What is that?"

"Powerful crystals are very rare and precious natural resource. It contains a tremendous power which is even more valuable than human life or any diabolic beast.

Even we, nine-tailed demon foxes find it very important. My power will definitely advance at least ten times faster if I can get one of those powerful crystals.

I had been staying in the Grand Desolation Mountain before. Then I heard from other diabolic beasts that there are powerful crystals deeply hidden inside a place called Cloud Cave. Hence, I decided to come where the humans are and secretly look for the cave. It was when I met you, Master."

Nodding his head casually, Austin finally understood Violet's reason. Thus, he asked, "So you have been looking for the power crystals?"

"Yes. But I have been searching for five years now and still found nothing. For once, I thought the story wasn't true. I was already planning to go back to the Grand Desolation Mountain when I encountered you, Master.

I have to get the powerful crystals this time, Master. It's the only thing I ever want all these years.

Moreover, you have already obtained your spiritual sense. Your spiritual sense will definitely multiply if you have some powerful crystals too.

In addition, it is said that there are other kinds of treasures hidden in the Cloud Cave aside from the powerful crystals. Now I'm wondering if you are interested in taking those crystals too or not."

ponder upon hearing Violet's words. It was undeniable how Violet had helped him many times base had not grown up within these years. It seemed that it was more difficult alone and ignoring hers.

can take her cultivation base to another level, she will definitely be more helpful.

too if I could get some

He had decided to join Violet's quest in finding these powerful crystals agree. She was smiling broadly and couldn't help blowing him a playful kiss.

the two martial artists of Medicine Sect left the herb shop, quick and unpredictable. His spiritual sense could cover four hundred meters in diameter. Thus, it was very easy for him to and headed northwest right after they were rugged and nor slow. He had heard from their conversation that the disciples sent by the Medicine Sect were separated into groups strategically in their quest to find the Cloud Cave after they went into Violet Orchid Empire. They did this to avoid being noticed. It was only when they found the Cloud

They only ate themselves

they paced up and passed through the

he could sense that the Cloud Cave was that he had come to dozens of men in black standing on the

the two guys from the Medicine Sect guessed that I'm one of them. It turned out that

A few seconds after Violet on a higher branch discreetly. Then they gave out their spiritual sense and listened to every word the disciples below martial artists began talking about what they heard and saw in their journey to Violet Orchid Empire.

three white images suddenly appeared in the clear sky, speeding towards the open land in the speed of lightning. Two of them were three men were flying over the woods surprised both Austin and Violet.

A martial artist could only levitate once their vital energy reached Mysterious Realm! Though they couldn't really fly like birds, martial artists of this level could stay in mid-air and move forward at a speed that was much faster than those martial artists who could only run.

It was very easy to tell that the three white figures were powerful martial artists of Mysterious Realms. Differentiating them from those Medicine Sect disciples was not even hard.

Austin and Violet instantly became alert and cautious that one couldn't even hear their breaths.

They were both aware that martial artist of Mysterious Realm had already developed their spiritual sense in such an exceptional level.

Although Austin was confident of his power, he also knew that he wouldn't last longer than three seconds before a man from Mysterious Realm. He knew that he and Violet would be killed in a snap once these three martial artists of Medicine Sect spotted them.

Fortunately, the three martial artists in white robes were focused on what they needed to do and immediately led their disciples to climb the peak. They didn't even notice Austin and Violet.

On the other hand, Austin and Violet dared not to stay too close to the group. They waited for the three martial artists to be out of their sights first before they followed their direction sullenly.

They had already been climbing the steep mountain for quite a while when they suddenly heard a beast howling furiously.

"Bow-woo!"

The sound was so loud that it made the mountain tremble. The birds and the other animals fled with fear! The peace of the forest was suddenly gone!

"What a mighty demonic beast it must be! It must have frightened the whole mountain!"

said Austin with shock. He could hear the howl echoing in his ear long after it was done.

He looked around and found Violet's seductively beautiful body trembling. Obviously, she was frightened as well.

"Master, if my guess is right, it is a sixth-grade diabolic beast. Where there are precious treasures, there sure is a diabolic beast guarding it. I think this diabolic beast is guarding the Cloud Cave."

'What? A sixth-grade diabolic beast!'

