

The Supreme God

Chapter 3481 Meeting The Gods Of Light

At that time, Austin, Otis, and their companions arrived at a vast mountain range and decided to take a short break to catch their breath.

No other team or individual bothered them the entire day.

"I wonder when this competition will end,"

Bernie tiredly sighed.

Confusion flashed on everyone's face as they stared into the distance.

Back then, everyone was so excited to break into the Fallen Divine Valley and look for the so-called great opportunities. Unexpectedly, they were trapped for a long time. Even now, they had to go through this terrible competition before they could even dream of leaving the valley alive.

"Forget it, Bernie. Don't think about pipe dreams.

For now, the most important thing for us is to work hard and win this competition,"

Otis softly coaxed.

"At this stage of the competition, people who're still alive are very cautious and wouldn't expose their whereabouts easily.

We have to get a move on to gather all the information we can get!"

Austin suggested.

"Austin's right. Let's move,"

Otis echoed and nodded in agreement.

At that moment, something unexpected caught them all by surprise.

"Stop! Go to hell!

We won't let you run away!"

Loud cries filled with arrogance echoed from afar.

"Something's wrong!"

Everyone in Austin's team quickly jumped into action and became alert the moment they heard the voice.

"Seems like two teams are fighting. One team is running away and the other is chasing them down.

Let's quietly wait on the side and wait for their fight to finish. We're going to take advantage of them at the end of their battle!"

Austin sent a message to his group through his spiritual sense.

All of them nodded in agreement.

As one, Austin and his companions quickly hid themselves. Once he was sure they were hidden well enough, he immediately communicated with the Earth Energy and set up several arrays that could hide his group.

Soon, two groups of people, one running while the other chasing, arrived at an area near their hiding spot.

About thirteen to fourteen people were desperately trying to escape. Almost all of them were bleeding profusely from various injuries.

Ha-ha! Everyone! There's no need to run away anymore. Let's fight back!

Fuck! We've been chased by these bastards for an entire day and night. I'm sick and tired of it. Go to hell!"

All fourteen people who were escaping were filled with joy. As one, they all turned back around, ready for a fierce battle now that they had the cavalry had arrived.

Whoosh!

In the battlefield, Austin activated the Chaotic Striding Boots and the Peerless Lightness Skill. No ordinary medium-grade divine gods would be able to catch him with the speed of his bodily movement skill!

Dozens of fierce earth dragons trailed after Austin's every step.

With just a wave of his fingers, all those earth dragons would swarm up and pounce on his enemies.

Since the earth dragons were formed by the Earth Energy, Austin could just catch more of them even if they were destroyed.

Puff! Puff! Puff!

With his terrifying speed, he consecutively killed seven enemies without a pause.

Together with the team that were being chased earlier, Otis' side had a total of twenty-six members. In sheer numbers alone, they were more or less equal to their opponents.

About an hour later, the battle finally came to an end.

All the pursuers were annihilated!

Austin alone killed ten of them!

"Ha-ha! I didn't expect to meet you in the Fallen Divine Valley, Otis!"

"Otis, you guys appeared just in time. If you were a little later, I'm afraid you'd have to bury our bodies!"

"Ha-ha! Keysley, we're good friends. There's no need to be so formal!"

After the battle, the gods of light immediately began to talk about their old days together. All of them were eagerly holding each other's hands and patted each other on the shoulder.

"Otis, this young man is... I can tell that he's just at the Divine Realm. But I didn't expect he would have such terrifying destructive power. I was really shocked by his fighting ability!"

It didn't take long for the newly joined gods of light to look at Austin with eyes filled with curiosity.

"That was right. A young man at the Divine Realm has shown such terrifying power. It's impossible for us to ignore that kind of achievement! That's amazing!" another one echoed.

"Well, everyone, let me introduce him to you. His name is Austin. Like us, he's also a member of the three thousand big and small universes."

Holding Austin's hand, Otis proudly introduced him to the crowd with a wide smile on his face.

"What? Really? This young man is also a member of us!"

Excellent!

I couldn't be more pleased to see such a genius on our side!"

All the gods of light let out various surprised exclamations filled with joy.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3482 Revenge On Hyman

"You overestimate me. I'm very flattered."

Austin flashed a wry smile as he tried to suppress his embarrassment.

Out of the fourteen people he met here, ten of them were gods of light.

Among all of them, Keysley was the undisputed leader.

He was one of the Jade Emperor's twelve divine generals in the Heavenly Court.

This entire team was filled with people he carefully handpicked.

"Otis, since we met here, our teams can work with each other and become one group. You can be our leader,"

Keysley suggested.

"Honestly, Austin's our team leader. He makes all the decisions.

You can discuss this with him,"

Otis explained, pointing a finger directly at Austin.

"Oh? Austin's your real leader?"

Surprise flashed on Keysley's face as he turned to look at Austin.

"That's right. Don't underestimate him. He's much stronger than I am,"

Otis proudly proclaimed with a smile.

"Well, anyone who can win Marshal Otis' admiration must be very powerful. Well then, Austin, we'll follow you from now on."

Keysley directed his statement to Austin.

"You think too highly of me, sir. I'm not that good,"

Austin hurriedly answered and swept into a low bow.

"Keysley, are those people who were chasing after you just now really Alston's guys?"

Curiosity gleamed in Otis' gaze.

"That's right.

You still remember Hyman, don't you?

In ancient times, he was also a member of the gods of light in the three thousand big and small universes.

All right! We'll go and kill them all!"

Magee tightly clenched his fists until he felt his nails dig into his palms. He was barely managing to restrain his excitement for the upcoming action.

"Fine! I agree!"

Keysley gritted his teeth and nodded unenthusiastically.

"Let's go find Hyman right away!"

"I think the rest of Hyman's team must be around here!"

With a wave of his hand, Austin led his companions to search the nearby areas.

Not a single stone was left unturned as they searched every inch of the land to find their enemies.

In a flat valley a few hundred miles away, a man in blue robes sat in the depths of the valley. A terrible oppressive aura emitted from the thick spear placed horizontally on his knees.

This was Hyman, one of Alston's three most capable subordinates!

Another man in black robes sat cross legged beside him.

Aside from them, more than forty people sat on the ground as well, forming a circle with Hyman in the center.

Deafening silence filled the whole area.

At that moment, something unexpected happened and shook them out of their thoughts.

An angry voice shattered the deathly silence of the valley.

"Bad news Hyman! Madison and his men were ambushed. It seems that..."

a medium-grade divine god reported in a trembling voice, a colorful jade clasped in a deadly grip within his hand.

"What are you trying to say? Spit it out!"

Hyman demanded as he jumped to his feet.

"Madison and his men were all killed!

I was using the contacting stone to get in touch with him.

Madison suddenly sent me a message that he was attacked by an unidentified team. It was too unexpected. His last message was to ask for your help.

When I tried to get some more information from him later, he completely stopped responding.

I... I think... They might be in danger... or completely dead."

Hesitation clearly showed on the medium-grade divine god's face.

"All of them? How is that possible?

No, it's impossible. We work for Alston. No one is dumb enough to dare provoke Alston's wrath in this competition!

Anyone who'd dare is definitely asking for death!"

Anger filled Hyman's voice as he tried to repress the horror he felt pumping through his veins.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3483 Ambush

"I'm afraid... they have been killed." The medium-grade divine god struggled to say the word as his face turned pale with fear.

He was utterly terrified by Hyman's roar.

Hyman was one of Alston's capable and trusted men. He held great power and influence over them.

"Good! Humph! I'd like to see which team would be foolish enough to challenge us.

Use the contacting stone immediately to find out where Madison and the others were attacked. We'll be there soon."

Hyman's blood boiled with anger and fury as he uttered those words.

"Yes sir!" the medium-grade divine god quickly responded.

He then hurriedly activated the contacting stone.

"About two hundred and fifty miles to the northeast!"

the medium-grade divine god said.

"Come on! Let's get going,"

Hyman said with a wave of his hand.

"Hyman, how about we give Alston an update on what happened?"

the medium-grade divine god suggested after hesitating for a moment.

"Humph! There is no need to bother Alston with such a trivial matter. I can handle this.

I have already refined a chaotic magic treasure. No matter who goes against us, I will take care of them myself.

If they get killed, I will just recruit more men to take their place.

No one in their right mind will refuse to join Alston's team," Hyman snorted.

He grabbed the thick spear and headed northeast with his members following behind.

Meanwhile, Austin and Otis, along with their team members, were looking for Hyman and his men.

As the two parties searched for each other, the distance between them grew closer and closer.

Time ticked by.

They were now thirty miles away from each other when

Austin paused in his tracks.

"Something is going on," he murmured.

Austin unleashed his spiritual sense to perceive the space in front of him. At the same time, he stamped the ground, and several massive earth dragons underground quickly moved forward.

He was using the earth dragons to know the situation from a distance.

The earth dragons were formed using the energy of earth as they traveled underground. It was almost impossible for people who were oblivious to the Earth Exploring Technique to spot them.

"What's going on, Hyman?" the medium-grade divine god with the contacting stone asked.

"My gut is telling me that something is wrong.

We've got company.

Show yourselves! I've already sensed you!"

Hyman shouted into the air with a murderous look in his eyes.

His eyes gazed on the area with tall wild grass.

"Keysley, I have a hunch that you are there.

Tell me, did you kill Madison and others?

Come out.

Meet me and come face your doom!"

Hyman bellowed in rage.

However, he didn't get any response.

"Come on!" Hyman shouted as he gestured at his men to attack.

With that, he rushed towards the lush grass.

When he and his men got there, the earth and the mountains began shaking vigorously.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The grass suddenly grew taller as it rushed forward to tie up Hyman and his subordinates.

"Damn it! This seems to be an array!"

Hyman was caught off guard.

Before he could respond to the attack, earth dragons came out of the ground one after another.

In an instant, more than seven hundred earth dragons were flying high in the sky.

All of them rushed madly at Hyman and his companions.

"It's just a stupid array. Stop bluffing," Hyman growled.

With that, he raised the spear and waved it. Immediately, the spear shadows overlapped and occupied the entire space.

Just as he was about to defend himself with the spear, a young man appeared out of the blue.

He stood behind Hyman.

The distance between them was less than two meters.

It was Austin.

"Hyman, you old bastard. Go to hell!" Austin yelled.

In an instant, he used all kinds of brilliant martial arts skills and his magic treasures to attack Hyman.

"Who are you?!"

Hyman screamed out of instinct.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3484 Kill Hyman

Austin activated the Chaotic Striding Boots and the Peerless Lightness Skill to the maximum potential. As a result, his bodily movement skill reached such speed that the physical distance in the world became negligible to him. In less than a second, he reached behind Hyman and tried his best to launch his attacks towards his opponent.

And more than seven hundred of his earth dragons rushed towards Hyman and struck him crazily, all at once.

There was a saying that a colony of ants could still cause terrible damage to an elephant if they worked together. The joint attack from the more than seven hundred earth dragons was just like this. Even Hyman, a medium-grade divine god, was unable to deal with them all at once.

For a moment, the endless tide of energy surged and collided against everything randomly.

The small space where Hyman stood began to collapse one inch at a time, like cracks forming slowly on a mirror upon impact.

"Aaaargh!"

Hyman screamed out in horror and pain. Within a short period of time, he was attacked from both sides and encountered the most terrible crisis.

In particular, the sword-lights that Austin threw at him were the most powerful among all the frenzied attacks. They had been left behind in a land of death by the Divine Swordsman and Austin had stumbled upon them by sheer accident.

These sword-lights could finish medium-grade divine gods easily like it was a piece of cake.

Bang!

In the end, Hyman was overpowered and couldn't resist the attacks. His body was thrown into the distance by the terrible energies of the attacks.

Almost half of his body was broken into tiny pieces and then turned into blood mist before dissipating.

Only half of his body was left, and his internal organs were oozing out of his body, bloody.

"You're really something else, Austin!"

Watching this sight, Otis, Bernie, Keysley, and the others could not help but praise him for his skills and power. Seeing Austin launch a sneak attack at Hyman and successfully make the latter suffer gravely made all of them ecstatic. They cheered loudly for Austin's victory.

"Kill him!"

With a wave of his hand, Otis prompted his men to launch another batch of surprise attacks as they rushed towards Hyman's men.

In a flash, they had finished many of their enemies.

All the members of Hyman's team were trapped in the grassland. The wild grass had spread on the land and made it look like thousands of poisonous snakes had sealed the whole grassland.

In this grassland, Austin had set up several arrays, some of which were used to block them from escaping, some to confuse them, while the remaining were used to attack them.

"Ah!

Keysley! You have arrived here!

And you, brat, who are you? How dare you attack me? Do you know that I'm Alston's most powerful warrior? If you hurt me, there will be no place for you to stay in this competition arena anymore!"

At this time, Hyman, who was gravely injured, roared in horror and rage. But that was all he could do. He couldn't even stand up straight with only his half body left.

"Ha-ha! Alston's most powerful warrior? Who gives a damn?! I will even kill Alston if he comes to fight me!"

Austin sneered in response.

Once again, Austin didn't give Hyman any time to react. He rained all sorts of terrifying attacks on his body continuously and ruthlessly.

"Ouch! You are so cruel! You bastard!"

Most of the vitality in the internal organs of Hyman's body had been completely destroyed by Austin's attacks. Blood spurted out from his body, and his vital energy had been lost forever. Hyman was on the verge of taking his final breath.

Moreover, he lost too much energy and couldn't stay focus anymore, so the connection between him and his fan was cut off all of a sudden. The palmetto leaf fan then fell down to the ground, making him unable to control it anymore. There was not much life left in him.

"Ha-ha, Hyman, you bastard, your end is finally near.

To tell you the truth, the young man who just hit you so badly is called Austin. He stands by our gods of light in the three thousand big and small universes.

He's here to avenge the death of our brothers and trustworthy friends!"

In the distance, Keysley couldn't help but burst into laughter when he watched this scene.

It was known to all that he had been hunted down ruthlessly by Hyman, without any kindness, for many days.

If he hadn't met Otis, Austin, and their companions, he and his team might have already been killed by Hyman and his companions.

"Austin! So, that is your name! I'll go on haunt you even after I die and become a ghost!"

Before he died, Hyman glared at Austin with a scathing hatred.

"Then go ahead! Be a ghost now!"

Austin didn't display even an ounce of mercy. He swung his sword at Hyman's broken body as well as his spiritual soul and destroyed him altogether.

Then, he stretched out his hand and took the palmetto leaf fan for himself. It had now become his property.

At the same time, in the distance, another battle was going on.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The earth and mountains shook to their cores. Otis, Keysley, and their companions were slaughtering Hyman's men.

Seeing that Hyman had been killed, the members of Hyman's team were all trembling with fear. Their deaths also seemed imminent. With their leader being eliminated, they had already lost their fighting spirits. Some of them even turned around and fled. This army was completely routed.

In this case, Otis' side naturally had the upper hand. They followed up the victory with hot pursuit and kept killing their enemies one after another.

"Hey, hey! Alston, bad news! Our team has been ambushed by a stronger enemy!

Hyman has just been killed by a young man called Austin, and his chaotic magic treasure has also fallen into Austin's hands!

Alston, please come and help us right now!"

a medium-grade divine god in the distance shouted desperately as he fled with a colorful stone in his hand.

He was so frightened that he forgot to use his spiritual sense to send his message. Instead, he roared out loud directly into the universe.

"Oh?"

Austin heard what the medium-grade divine god had screamed. He also noticed the colorful stone in his hand.

"Is it possible that the colorful stone can make him communicate with Alston through long-distance telepathy?"

Ha-ha, I'm very interested in chatting with that famous Alston!"

Austin sneered. In a flash, he was standing right behind the medium-grade divine god.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3485 A Talk With Alston (Part One)

"What did you just say?! Are you kidding me?!"

Who's that insane bastard who dared lay a finger at my men? Doesn't he know who Alston is?!"

What is going on over there? Tell me and be quick about it!"

The contacting stone in the hand of the medium-grade divine god glared with a violent fluctuation of spiritual sense waves. From it, an extremely angry voice could be heard from the other end.

"It's bad news!

Our people are dying one by one! We're going to be slaughtered in no time!

Alston, please, you've got to help us!" the medium-grade divine god relayed his message through the contacting stone.

As he reported what was happening, he was continuously screaming in horror. And due to extreme panic, he did not notice that Austin had already shorted his distance to him.

Actually, everyone was so anxious because Austin's bodily movement skill was too subtle and exceptional. They trembled in fear because they didn't know when he would appear. In the medium-grade god's situation, it was already too late when he noticed Austin.

"Do you really have time talking to someone in the middle of a battle? Or were you already saying your last words?"

Austin sneered as he forcefully swung his fist.

Crash!

As the medium-grade god froze in fear, he instantly flew after receiving the full force of Austin's strike. His force was so violent that both the medium-grade divine god's soul and body were immediately crushed into pieces.

At the same time, Austin picked up the contacting stone that fell out from the hand of the defeated medium-grade divine god.

"Why aren't you answering me? What the hell was that noise? What happened?!"

The contacting stone was still emitting violent fluctuations of spiritual sense waves as angry yells were constantly heard from it.

Not long ago, the team led by Austin successfully destroyed Aubrey's group, which consisted of more than fifty people. Now, they were able to vanquish Hyman and his men, whose team consisted of about seventy people.

With just these two massive victories, they were able to gain abundant rewards.

"At last, we have killed Hyman!

Somehow, we have avenged the gods of light that were killed by him and his men."

Otis and the others gathered together and celebrated the success of their revenge.

They assisted those who were seriously injured from the battle, and after taking some precious herbs and medicines with great magic healing power, they recovered immediately.

Everyone looked at Austin with utmost admiration and respect.

He played such a crucial role in the battle in which they were outnumbered.

"I don't want to spoil the fun, but let me just remind you that the next battles would be much harder.

This competition is brutal. After this, we should expect that the remaining surviving teams must be very powerful.

On top of that, we have killed Alston's men. Now, I'm sure that he has set his eyes on us.

We must be vigilant. He will surely send a group of people to sniff us out and kill us.

It shouldn't be long enough before we encounter more of his men in combat," Austin warned them.

"You're right. We can't be too complacent." Everyone nodded in agreement.

"Our team is still too weak. If we are to face Alston's stronger men right now, we might not stand a chance.

So I say we should recruit more people and try to strengthen the overall power of our team. That's the only way that we can get to the endgame and survive this competition.

For now, we must start looking for other gods of light from the three thousand big and small universes intently.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3486 A Talk With Alston (Part Two)

As far as I know, after the terrible war during ancient times, almost all of the gods of light had entered the depths of the Sea of Chaos.

This means that there's a huge chance that they are here in the Fallen Divine Valley.

If we could find them in this competition area and urge them to join us, we'll have better chances of winning," Otis said in confidence.

"That's right.

We should start spreading the news so it would be easier for us to locate them.

Once they know that we're on the same side, they should have no objection to join us.

Of course, we don't have to limit our recruitment to the gods of light.

There may also be other powerful, kind-hearted, and easy-going individuals out there who will be willing to lend us their strength," Keysley added.

"Those are great suggestions, dear sirs.

We still have much to do, but I trust that things would work out for us.

But in the meantime, let's find a place to rest.

We need to fully recover before we take any further actions," Austin suggested.

Even if they weren't injured, they still needed to replenish the energy that they lost.

With that, everyone immediately agreed.

They searched for a hidden place nearby where they could safely rest and recover their bodies.

At the same time, Austin approached Otis in secret.

"Master Otis, I want you to have this magic treasure. You should refine it, and make use of its abilities."

"We need some fresh blood!" Alston roared harshly.

"Yes, sir!"

A medium-grade divine god standing not far away from Alston immediately stepped out and sent a message through the contacting stone.

"Alston, you need to relax.

Austin is just a pretentious nobody. He doesn't deserve that much attention.

I bet he was just able to defeat Hyman because of sheer luck. Hyman must have been too careless. That's why he ended up being killed.

Just warn your team members to be more careful. That Austin wouldn't get too lucky next time."

A young man next to Alston, who was swinging his folding fan leisurely, tried to console him.

"I know! Hyman was an idiot. I don't care if he died.

Whether if he's just careless or really weak, it's his own fault!

What I was furious about is the chaotic magic treasure that he held. It must have fallen into Austin's hands by now.

It would be a waste if a precious weapon like that fall into the hands of that bastard!

We can only find a large number of chaotic magic treasures in forbidden areas like the Fallen Divine Valley. It's impossible to find them in the outside world.

We must get all possible chaotic magic treasures in the competition area and take them out afterward.

Just wait and see, Austin. I'll come for you and take that chaotic magic treasure back sooner or later," Alston said through gritted teeth.

"Oh, right.

After all, that's the main reason why people ventured into the Fallen Divine Valley.

We should accumulate as many as we can before we set out again to the outside world."

The young man shook his folding fan with a smirk on his face and a visible look of greed in his eyes.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3487 Run Into Alston's Men Again

In the following days, Austin and the twenty five members of his team continued to hunt for their prey.

Since Otis had also refined a chaotic magic treasure, the team's overall strength had greatly improved.

Knowing this advantage, whenever they spotted teams without chaotic magic treasures, Austin and his companions would go ahead and fight them head-on even if they were outnumbered.

Thanks to Austin's unequalled speed and Otis' chaotic magic treasure, the two of them could always take out the stronger members of an enemy team.

Austin usually targeted teams of forty to fifty people or even less, but seldom above that number.

If they met a team with over fifty members, they would avoid to cross paths with them.

In the following days, Austin and his team had eliminated several teams.

Moreover, he had also invited some powerful yet kind-hearted and easy-going medium-grade divine gods to join them.

At the same time, Otis used all kinds of means to spread the news that they were looking for those who supported the gods of light from the three thousand big and small universes.

For example, he would order his men to leave a few secret marks in some places that they knew people would pass by.

In the ancient times, the epic war between the gods of light and the gods of darkness broke out. Those who joined the gods of light used some secret marks to communicate with each other. Anyone who was a part of the gods of light's side knew those marks.

Otis' efforts had paid off.

Soon, more and more people who were connected with the gods of light came to join Austin and Otis.

These people used to fight alongside Otis and Keysley in the past, so it wasn't difficult for them to get along well. In fact they had good chemistry which was an important aspect of any team.

Just as Otis had expected, many gods of light had broken into the Fallen Divine Valley and found themselves lost in it and were unable to get out of it.

This was one of the reasons why they had participated in these tests and challenges.

Gradually, the number of Austin's team increased to more than forty.

Besides, since Austin and Otis each had a chaotic magic treasure, the overall strength of their team would be much stronger.

Austin even dared to engage with teams of over fifty people, early on.

One day, Austin and his team were resting in a dense woods.

All of a sudden, Austin opened his eyes.

He sensed a team approaching in the distance.

After all, Austin had hundreds of earth dragons with him.

These earth dragons usually dispersed and lurked dozens of miles around Austin. They worked as his scouts.

When he needed their help during a battle or a fight, Austin would summon them back to him.

With the aid of the earth dragon, he could perceive better and farther than other medium-grade divine gods.

My name is Jade, and we work for Alston. It will be a tremendous honor for you to die in the hands of our team," she said as she chuckled.

The number above her head was over ninety thousand, which meant that she had gotten more than ninety thousand points.

She had eighty men at her disposal. Her subordinates showed their full confidence on their faces. It was like a horde of tigers had surrounded a herd of grazing sheep.

"What are you saying? You are a member of Alston's team?"

Everyone in the team of more than thirty people turned deathly pale and fear enveloped them.

"Jade!

It turns out that she is Jade.

I heard that she is one of Alston's most capable subordinates, and Alston spoils her a lot," a medium-grade divine god said to Austin in a surprised tone.

He had joined Austin's team for only a few days.

Alston was so well-known in this area that many people easily recognized him.

"Oh, so this team of over eighty people is led by Alston, and this woman is his lover.

Ha-ha! What a coincidence! I ran into his men again.

If we destroy this team and Jade, I guess Alston will flip his lid,"

Austin said with an evil sneer.

"Rumor has it that Jade had refined a powerful chaotic magic treasure," the medium-grade divine god told Austin.

"A chaotic magic treasure!" Austin repeated.

His eyes lit up in excitement, and he licked the corner of his mouth in a greedy manner.

"Master Otis, let's wait for an opportunity to strike. At that time, you and I will join hands to assault that bitch and put her down quickly.

She only has one chaotic magic treasure, but we have two. We don't have to be afraid of her,"

Austin said to Otis.

"Okay!"

Otis also nodded his head, itching to attack Jade.

At that time, Jade took out a contacting stone and talked to Alston.

"Ha-ha! I got some good news for you, Alston. My team and I have surrounded a small team. We are going to hunt them down. I miss you so much, honey. I wish I could come back to you now and have fun with you..." she said coquettishly.

It seemed that she was asking for Alston's rewards. Her voice attracted everyone's attention.

Meanwhile, hundreds of miles away, Alston, his eight most capable subordinates and Meredith were hunting down their prey.

All of a sudden, Alston stretched out his right hand, and a contacting stone appeared in his palm. It flashed and showed a message on it.

"Huh? Jade has besieged a small team again and is hunting them down,"

Alston said with a smile.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3488 The Merciless Attack

"Everyone! Please wait!"

A short and stout middle-aged man burst out of the besieged team. He was their leader.

"We never intended to provoke Alston's team! If you want, we are more than willing to offer you treasures in exchange for our freedom.

Please, I beg you. I hope you can let us go."

He sprawled himself on the ground, desperately begging for their safety. All he wanted was to pull his team away from these looters. Compared to these people, he knew that his team was inferior.

"What? Did you just say let you go?"

Ha ha ha! That's ridiculous! All of you are a freaking joke! Do you think we're playing a game?"

Jade's team broke out into mocking laughter. They insulted the leader begging on the floor.

"You are so naive."

She was merely teasing the middle-man, and yet, she had a robust murderous aura emanating from her.

"Are you seriously expecting us to let you go?"

Fine, I'll be frank. Each of you garnered plenty of points, and that's quite impressive.

If I kill all of you, my scores will skyrocket. I will make another big breakthrough.

On top of that, I can take all of your treasures once you're dead! Now, tell me, with so many benefits I can get from annihilating your group, why should I let you go? Only a fool would do such a thing!

Ha ha ha!"

Jade laughed menacingly. Her face, albeit attractive and bewitching, had a wicked look plastered on it.

"Jade!

It costs you nothing to be kind to people. Why are you being so mean to us?

Cornered beasts will do anything if they're desperate enough. If you go too far, you will leave us no choice but to fight you to the death!

Although my team is much weaker than yours, we could still make significant damage. This will only leave you with nothing but unnecessary deaths in your group. You could've just used this time and energy to get other treasures.

Is this what you really want?"

The middle-aged man raised his voice. He pleaded their case, adamant for his group to make it out alive in this situation.

"Ha ha!"

Jade sneered. She mocked their group even more when she heard the stout man threaten her.

"You are all weak and losers!

You are not in the position to make a deal with me!"

As soon as she finished speaking, she waved her hand, and a stream of light rushed out of her sleeve.

He couldn't help but roar to the sky in grief, indignation and despair filled his heart.

At the same time, a few hundred miles away, Alston and his team were commenting on Jade's victory.

"It was obvious that Jade will win this battle.

Ha ha, that's great. She deserves my love,"

Alston commented before he burst into wild laughter.

"She is a medium-grade divine god and she owns a chaotic magic treasure. Of course, her enemies would be daunted in her presence,"

Meredith added. He smiled as he shook his folding fan elegantly.

On the other hand, Austin and his companions were also closely watching Jade's team. They were situated not far from their battlefield.

"This woman has a chaotic magic treasure. Her fighting power is amazing!

Austin, when are we going to take action?"

Otis whispered.

"It seems that the leader of that team can't hold on any longer.

I personally think this man is kind. He went all out to fight for his people. He is a courageous man! To be honest, I want to recruit him on our team.

How about we save him?"

Austin suggested.

"That's a good idea. He is indeed quite brave!"

Otis agreed with Austin.

"Master Otis, I can move really fast. So I'll take you with me and rush behind Jade in the blink of an eye.

Then let's work together and kill her as fast as we can.

Although she has a chaotic magic treasure, we also have such weapons. As long as we catch her off guard, we can quickly kill her,"

Austin instructed.

"Okay!"

Otis enthusiastically replied.

Ever since he had refined a chaotic magic treasure, his fighting power had far exceeded that of an ordinary medium-grade divine god.

"Well, loser, I'm done playing with you. It's time for you to go to hell!"

Jade activated her flute and prepared herself to kill the middle-aged man.

"Let's go!"

Austin directed through his spiritual sense. Then he rolled up his sleeves, and carried Otis. In just a split second, they were out of their hiding place and into the battlefield.

Before Jade could realize what was happening, Austin and Otis were already behind her.

Then, they launched their strongest joint attack!

The Supreme God

Chapter 3489 | Am Alston's Lover

Jade was about to use her chaotic magic treasure to kill the short, fat man.

However, out of nowhere, two men with murderous looks on their faces popped up behind her.

She had an intense gut feeling that the two mysterious men were up to no good towards her.

All that caught her off guard for she did not see it coming.

After all, she had almost wiped out all the stout man's companions with her chaotic magic treasure. She had gotten immersed in the joy that her victory had brought her. It was beyond her wild imaginations that people would dare to launch attacks on her.

"Go to hell!" Austin and Otis exclaimed in unison.

They both were experienced fighters, so they knew that they had a very good chance to take out their target. They both used all kinds of fatal martial arts skills to attack Jade.

Otis especially activated his chaotic magic treasure solely to attack the woman.

"Arrggh! Who the hell are you? How dare you assault me like that?"

Jade shrieked in pain and horror.

Faced with such violent attacks, she had no choice but to give up hunting down the stout middle-aged man. She hurried to activate her jade flute, which produced sound waves and runes that flew towards her back, forming some sort of a shield to withstand all the attacks on her.

But it was too late.

Bam! Bam! Bam!

Several fierce attacks had gotten through Jade's protective runes and hit her.

Letting out a painful scream, Jade was blown away like a kite with a broken string. By the time she regained her balance, her mouth was spurting blood.

Luckily for her, the sound waves and runes released by her jade flute had somehow weakened the powers of Austin's and Otis' attacks.

Otherwise, she would have been broken into pieces.

In any case, Jade was still severely injured, and her bodily functions had been significantly impaired.

Swoosh! Swoosh!

Austin and Otis had been after her. Before she had even hit the ground, the two of them had already caught up with her mid-air and attacked her again.

"You can't kill me!

I'm Alston's lover!" Jade screamed, terrified.

Her gut was telling her that her life was in jeopardy and she might never see the light of day ever again.

Moreover, she noticed that death, she activated a colorful stone and she screamed at the stone.

Austin sneered at the colorful stone.

As soon as he finished speaking, he joined Otis and launched joint attacks on Jade again.

Otis used his chaotic magic treasure to fight Jade head-on, while Austin moved quickly to find her weakest spots and attacked her there.

Jade could no longer withstand their attacks. It was finally dawning on her that she was at the end of her life.

Austin, on the other hand had no plans of showing her any mercy.

He threw a punch at Jade, crushing her to pieces which spontaneously combusted, ending in a cloud of ashes.

With a wave of his sleeve, Austin grabbed Jade's chaotic magic treasure.

At the same time, all her points integrated with the number above Austin's head.

In a flash, the visible number on Austin's head had increased by ninety thousands.

Since he had already gotten forty thousand points, Austin now had over ten hundred and thirty thousand points in total.

Austin probably now ranked at the top in the area where medium-grade divine gods gathered in terms of their grades.

"Jade! Jade, are you there? Are you all right?"

Wait for me. I'll be there soon!"

Alston's anxious voice was heard from the colorful stone. He had a bad vibe that something awful had happened to Jade.

Austin waved his hand and got the colorful stone.

"It's too late. I've crushed that bitch to powder,"

Austin said indifferently at the stone.

Then he tightened his grip around the stone, crushing it to powder.

A hundred miles away, Alston went ballistic when he heard the news via the stone.

"Noooooo! That bastard! Austin, you deserve to die!"

You killed Hyman and Jade. Their chaotic magic treasures must have also fallen into your hands since you shamelessly killed them!

Austin Lin, watch me.

I will make you pay a heavy price for what you have done," Alston yelled at the top of his lungs.

He was in such a confused, furious and desperate state that he didn't know how to release his rage.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3490 A Huge Temptation

At this moment, Otis and Bernie were fighting fiercely with Jade's subordinates.

When Otis activated his chaotic magic treasure, it immediately dashed towards their enemies. It emitted terrifying power to kill those divine gods without mercy.

Bernie and the others also rushed forward like tigers on the prowl.

Meanwhile, after being persuaded by Otis, the short and stout middle-aged man agreed to join Austin's team.

During this time, since he had taken enough precious magic herbs to heal himself, he had recovered most of his fighting power to join the battle.

Jade had more than eighty members fighting on her side.

However, despite having a large team, she was still killed. Her death had caused a depressing spirit to spread among all her team members, and so they all felt sad and downhearted.

While they had lost their will to fight, Otis had the strength that scared everybody. His fighting power was too powerful that no one could hold out against it.

For that reason, although Otis had only a few people fighting on his side, they still had the upper hand.

Whoosh!

Austin joined the battle and swiftly appeared behind a medium-grade divine god. Austin left him with no chance to take any action. Before the medium-grade divine god even realized that he was behind him, Austin had already smashed him into pieces.

When he was done taking care of that divine gods, Austin summoned dozens of earth dragons. They emerged from the ground and immediately joined the battle under his command.

He had taken down many of their enemies as soon as he joined the fight.

In just a moment, he was able to kill more than a dozen people as he took advantage of his excellent bodily movement skill.

While he was fighting, Austin suddenly realized something.

'Wait, I think I already have enough points.

I can't just earn these points for myself.

I have to help our other members win more points here instead.'

With that in mind, Austin changed his way of fighting—he only injured their enemies rather than killing them.

Austin fiercely attacked Jade's subordinates and severely injured them so his teammates could earn the points for killing them.

Since both Austin and Otis were at the battleground, there was no doubt that their team would win the victory in the end.

True enough, the fight had ended sooner than they expected.

The rest of Jade's subordinates, with the exception of the few men who had taken the opportunity to successfully escape, had all been killed.

All the members of Austin's team had gained a lot during this battle.

After the battle, the short, stout man who had recently joined their team bowed to Austin out of respect.

He was stunned when he witnessed Austin's terrifying power during the fight. He couldn't help but admire his excellent skills and abilities.

Without looking at the young man, Alston talked slowly. "Jade's dead. Her death doesn't really mean much to me.

What matters, however, is the two chaotic magic treasures that are now in Austin's hands. I must take them back, by any means necessary.

That damned Austin must die! No one can save him!"

His eyes were filled with murderous intent.

Meanwhile, Alston's announcement spread rapidly.

Everyone in the competition area for medium-grade divine gods heard about the news.

Just as they expected, his announcement had caused quite a stir.

It was true that Alston was a famous figure in that place.

His every move and action would attract much attention.

Learning about the reward of a hundred thousand points tempted everyone that they coveted it with greedy eyes.

They were eager to take action right away.

In just a short time, however, another piece of information was disseminated.

It was said that the guy named Austin, whose head was wanted by Alston in exchange for ninety thousand points, was only at the Divine Realm.

Back in the previous battle between Jade's team and Austin's team, several of Jade's subordinates had managed to escape.

Since they had already met and fought with Austin, they knew about the truth of his cultivation base.

When they all heard about this, the competition area for medium-grade divine gods suddenly turned into a sea of commotion.

"What?! That Austin is just a Divine Realm cultivator?!"

I can't believe it.

You can't be serious. How could it even be possible for someone at the Divine Realm to enter the competition area for medium-grade divine gods?"

"How did that guy offend Alston? If he's really just at the Divine Realm, how can he be so bold? Isn't he afraid of Alston?"

"I heard that Austin's score had surpassed one hundred thousand!"

"Really? Well, that score is definitely attractive!"

For a moment, both Alston and Austin were the focus of everybody. They fervently linked and talked about them in the competition area.

Most people began to take action and looked for Austin's whereabouts.

None of them wanted to miss this great opportunity. After all, Alston promised them quite a hefty reward. No one could resist that temptation.

"Oh? So I guess Alston had really issued a bounty for my life, huh?"

Upon hearing the news, Austin was not surprised at all.
