

The Supreme God

Chapter 3511 An Intense Battle Under The Ground

"Ha-ha! This is interesting. I'll play with you slowly!" Austin taunted, and laughed out loud.

With that, he led his team members into the ground and moved forward.

When Alston arrived at the place where Austin's team had been, he didn't see anyone.

"We finally found out Austin's strategy—they move underground. I believe we can do that too.

Let's scour beneath the earth, and kill Austin once and for all!" Alston clenched his fists out of sheer rage. For far too long, Austin had been outsmarting them. It was about time for them to exact revenge.

Without waiting for a response, he performed a secret skill and disappeared into the ground.

"Well..."

The other medium-grade divine gods were dumbfounded. They exchanged confused looks with each other because they didn't know what to do.

They knew that in this Fallen Divine Valley they would be slowed down regardless of whatever mode of travel they choose—may it be flying in the sky or going underground.

"Let's give it a shot. Alston is right. Now that we know that Austin's team can dive into the ground, it's a good idea for us to give it a try.

Besides, we outnumber them. Even if something happens to us, we can handle it together. There is nothing to fear," an elderly medium-grade divine god reassured the rest of the team.

"Okay, let's give it a try!"

Now that their morale had been boosted, they were ready to execute the plan.

Therefore, the medium-grade divine gods unleashed their secret skills to enter the ground.

Soon enough, they were already travelling below the earth.

Medium-grade divine gods used all kinds of skill to follow Alston.

"This is not good. There is indeed some special restrictions below the ground. I can't move as fast as I did above!"

"Me too. What's worse, I can feel that my powers are tremendously weakened here."

Most of them screamed when they went underground.

They couldn't move freely like they were on the surface.

Their speed slowed down, and the area that they could perceive became smaller. To make matters worse, their strength had also been restricted. As a result, they got rattled.

"Don't be afraid. Just band together and don't act alone.

Once we find Austin, we will take him on as a team.

believe

Alston announced loudly.

their tactics, Austin and his team were over ten miles way! They all went completely stunned as he crept up on his laughter. "That's ground and stick together, it will they looked for me underground. These people are knocking at death's door.

a lot elated with gestures and infinite Earth Energy nearby began to and the black tortoise let out earth-shaking growls before they simultaneously dove into the ground.

the medium-grade divine gods who were looking for Austin.

dragons came at Alston and his

the countless earth dragons were the earth's essence, which were formed by the

since they were below

beasts' powers were stronger by tenfold compared to their capacity

a matter of seconds, several medium-grade divine gods had been torn into pieces beam of light approached them at an Swoosh!

It was Austin.

towards them alone.

the Earth Exploring Technique, so he could take advantage of Earth came at

Earth Energy was the essence of the earth, which meant that the entire land was against the medium-grade divine the pressure on the medium-grade divine gods had increased.

difficult to move. They were trapped

was

was like he was the master me first. You are started to take small purple sword flew plenty of powerful sword aura that formed waves and spread in all Crack! Crack!

to take Austin down were shattered into a

Whoosh!

his bodily movement

that no one

Lightness Skill, he could move at an astonishing speed.

Energy in his arsenal,
of the four secret realms inside Austin,

Like a ghost, Austin appeared and disappeared, punching his opponents to death one by one.

His movements were so rapid that as soon as he got close to his victims, he could kill them with one blow.

They had no idea what had happened until they were hit.

Swish! Swish!

The sword aura from the purple sword bore the energy of thirteen billion sword moves. This was the reason why the purple sword's attacks were so fatal.

Austin mentally controlled it to take the lives of his enemies.

As he did so, his points skyrocketed. For every kill he made, he amassed high scores.

Soon after, the earth trembled, and Austin's team members finally arrived.

Each of them rode on the back of an earth dragon.

Thanks to the earth dragons, Austin's team members could move freely without any restrictions.

"Go to hell!"

With that, Hare and Otis activated their chaotic magic treasures to attack enemies.

The magic beasts and the earth dragons also fought the medium-grade divine gods who tried to take Austin's life.

The entire underground turned chaotic.

Sounds of distress could be continually heard.

Those who were against Austin were killed one by one.

"Ah! It's Austin's team!"

"Look, Austin is over here. He's killing people from our team again!"

"What a horrible bastard! Let's run!"

Realizing that they couldn't do much in this situation, most of the medium-grade divine gods from the opposing team were frightened to death. They witnessed their members get massacred one by one. They screamed in horror.

"Austin, come out, you son of a bitch.

Why are you hiding from me?

Man up and fight me head on.

I'm not afraid of you!"

Alston thundered.

"Is that so? You are eager to have a few rounds with me?"

Austin stopped in his tracks when he heard Alston call him out.

He knew that the fight between him and Alston was inevitable. He had to face him sooner or later. The only problem was whether they should settle it now.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3512 Battling Alston

Truth be told, Alston was a formidable opponent.

All the cultivation methods and secret martial arts Alston practiced were better than anything Austin learned since he came from a superior universe. Only natives from his hometown had access to what he was taught.

On top of that, Alston also had exceptional talent in cultivation.

All the medium-grade divine gods who could face him could be counted on one hand.

An ordinary medium-grade divine god would be taken out in a heartbeat.

Moreover, everyone knew that he refined two chaotic magic treasures that greatly increased his fighting power.

However, since they were underground, Austin was confident that he could fight Alston on even footing.

If they were on the surface, it would be nigh impossible for him to be Alston's match.

Therefore, Austin quickly made up his mind to battle Alston beneath the ground.

"Austin, do you have the guts to battle me?"

Alston's voice echoed around them like deafening thunder.

"Well, since you're itching to fight, I'll grant your wish,"

Austin calmly replied and paused in his tracks as he stared down Alston.

"Austin, there you are!"

Their eyes met and Alston let out a roar.

A moment later, he managed to reign in his rage and quickly regained his composure.

Despite all appearances, Alston wasn't a stupid man. Although Austin was just at the Divine Realm, he knew that the young man was more than what he seemed.

In his mind, there was no doubt that Austin was far stronger than any cultivator at the Divine Realm.

In fact, Alston was already taking Austin seriously and was regarding him as a powerful opponent.

Since Austin agreed to fight him, his towering anger had completely subsided.

'This guy's a really scary opponent, '

Austin thought to himself.

After all, a calm enemy was harder to deal with than a furious one.

"Austin, I actually kind of admire you.

You're a mere Divine Realm cultivator, yet you left me no choice but to fight you myself. You sure have plenty of cards up your sleeve.

you that victory belongs to the strong. No one step after another high forehead that signified his intelligence. Even the very air around him was filled with grace as if all, Austin stood tall and looked Alston in the eye

"Oh, really?

confident that a faint smile pulling at his lips.

I am.

can slay you in a fight, fair and brimmed from Alston's every word but it just that moment, a dead silence enveloped else's battle paused as they halted

of their eyes turned to

to fight, '

believe Austin actually has the balls at the Divine Realm. There's no way he could defeat a even among is

see. Perhaps Austin's good with impossible that he'd be a match for Alston's first strike, filled the

were convinced that Austin soundly defeated. Alston was a medium-grade divine god who was far stronger than ant challenged an imposing dragon to apparent for everyone to

"Austin, be careful.

a formidable opponent,"

and Otis reminded Austin through their spiritual

I have a plan,"

Austin replied.

was close enough to loom over

"Go to hell!"

golden light emitted from his body as his clothes and hair floated in the air.

of vital energy gushed out from his

the next second, his left hand extended of light burst out from his left

head with his full strength, his right fist emitting a dazzling light.

was ready

four secret realms inside him connected to each other, and infinite chaotic energy rushed out from them to provide Austin with energy.

Realm, he was far stronger than any cultivator of his level because he created the four secret realms through the cultivation of the fist as he threw a punch at Alston.

the golden light as the attack flew towards Alston.

The essence of several fist skills was condensed into a single punch.

Swish!

On Austin's left hand was his sword that let out sword auras.

Each sword aura contained the unimaginable power of thirteen billion sword attacks.

Without bothering to defend nor dodge, the two of them launched various attacks.

Bang!

Blood dripped onto the ground as Austin was forced to step back, his injured hands letting out one drop of blood after the other.

'I have to admit that Alston's terrifyingly good.

No wonder no other medium-grade divine gods could match his strength, ' Austin thought to himself as he narrowed his eyes at his opponent.

A moment later, Austin was thrown into the air and Alston threw his head back to let out a bark of triumphant laughter.

"Ha-ha! Austin, how dare you fight me head on?

Even if you don't die this time, you'll still be severely injured!" Alston declared proudly.

Boom!

In the distance, half of Austin's palm exploded into a shower of blood and bone.

"He really is awesome.

I tried to fight him head on and ended up like this."

A frustrated smile appeared on Austin's face.

In the next moment, he pulled himself together and activated the Phoenix Nirvana Skill. Between one heartbeat and the next, his hand regenerated and he was completely recovered to his best state.

"How is that possible? !"

Alston's laughter screeched into a halt as he stared at Austin in disbelief.

"You just suffered an injury and managed to recover immediately?"

It... it can't be!"

Alston uttered in complete shock.

"Perhaps you're slightly stronger than me, but you don't have the skills to take my life,"

Austin sneered.

"Go to hell!"

With a murderous look in his eyes, Alston turned into a beam of light and rushed towards Austin.

Enormous energy gathered inside him as his hair whipped around in the wind. Deep inside, he swore to himself to strike Austin down right where he stood.

The Supreme God

"Ha-ha! I'm afraid you're going to have to try harder. You need to cultivate more if you want to kill me!" Austin laughed wildly. He spoke so domineeringly without the slightest hint of fear.

The endless chaotic energy was surging crazily out of his four secret realms, and his vital energy and blood were gushing all over his body. He had the momentum that was as scary as Alston's.

Infuriated by Austin's confidence, Alston pointed at him.

"Ha! You won't get to laugh like that anymore! You'll see."

Boom!

A huge seal flew out with incredible speed. It emitted chaotic energy and drew out hundreds of millions of divine radiance.

As if the treasure had come to life, the dragons on the seal roared.

All the runes, laws, and energy that were related to the dragon race rushed towards Austin.

Alston decided to use his chaotic magic treasure in just the second move.

He started fighting with just his bare hands and found that Austin's fighting prowess was much stronger than he had expected.

What was more, in this underground environment, Austin was able to control the Earth Energy freely and flexibly. He could easily attack with the help of the Earth Energy in all kinds of ways. Austin had a sure advantage over him.

On the other hand, Alston was more or less bound by the underground law and rejected by the laws of this land that it made it impossible for him to display every bit of his power.

Whoosh!

As the seal flew towards him, Austin also immediately took out his own chaotic magic treasure. A small purple sword whipped out, emitting a bit of sword aura, which was immensely dazzling.

Clang!

The collision of the small purple sword and the huge seal produced a terrifying explosive power that was visible to the naked eye. As a result, the mud and the stones in the ground disintegrated continuously until a huge underground hole appeared.

Fortunately, a special law in the Fallen Divine Valley made it unable to actually break the ground.

In just a blink of an eye, the soil got sucked back and the hole disappeared. The underground world was quickly restored to its original state.

Austin breathed a sigh of relief at the sight of this.

He knew very well that the reason he could fight Alston head-on was because of the power of the underground world. Since he could control the Earth Energy, this place was to his advantage.

"Kill him!"

Both sides charged forward with an indomitable spirit.

The Nine Dragons Divine Seal and the small purple sword kept clashing with each other. The two chaotic magic treasures were both bright and eye-catching, with forceful power bursting into the sky.

"Say your goodbyes, Austin!"

Alston's long hair flew in the air. The secret skill he cultivated was from the supreme universe and was utterly remarkable. In this underground world, he had lesser restrictions than that of other medium-grade divine gods.

Crack!

wherever he touched, mud and stones would roll out and get split in half. A thick

Bang!

threw a punch. His fist was surging with light that it illuminated the whole underground world with a golden evening glow. His body was glowing like Smash!

again, their

Thud!

got thrown into the air and spat don't fight him head-on. You're no match distance. He had been spectating the fight between Austin looked at Hare and smiled.

just want to test how my cultivation turned out.

works well." He wiped the speck of blood off the corner of find out how powerful he had become after all the cultivation he did.

Hare, Alston's eyes

Your arrogance blinds

your cultivation results with huge insult for him to be used as Austin's tool to test the outcome of his cultivation.

Boom!

as bright as a sun. The

to hell, you

the two chaotic

refined two chaotic magic medium-grade divine gods around were treasure would be enough for anyone to shake the world and chaotic magic treasures and had already refined them, he was evidently much more powerful

Whoosh!

purple sword slashed out.

Austin nimbly changed his

my whirlwind

Austin kicked his legs out alternately as fast as Boom! Slam! Stomp!

silver boots on Austin's feet seemed to be completely ignited, treasure could not only increase the warrior's speed but also cooperate with the around

The boots that Austin is wearing is also a chaotic magic has also refined two chaotic magic treasures. No wonder he has now see why his bodily movement skill is so fast. He apparently

Boom! Boom! Boom!

at the same time, causing the whole underground world law that would repair this underground world without move, Austin chose not to fight Alston control the Earth Energy. Like a ghost, he flashed and attacked Alston from every possible direction.

"Go and kill him!"

them yelled out in unison, and the battle caused the whole space to

It's time you go

driven mad, Alston vehemently

"Ha-ha! Easy, don't talk big just yet."

Austin was incomparably powerful at this point. In this fierce battle, he used the taboo technique of Triple Avatar Skill and split into three right away. His real body swiftly moved—back and forth, left and right, up and down—between the incarnations, making his actions seem quite illusory.

"Get him!"

Seven deities and the majestic dragon promptly rushed out of Austin's body.

Right then, like Austin, the seven deities and the majestic dragon had also manifested their avatars.

Due to this, Alston was then surrounded by three of Austin, twenty-one deities, and three majestic dragons. They all worked together and seemed to have formed an array to attack.

Needless to say, this taboo Triple Avatar Skill truly was amazing.

Alston had a hard time figuring out which ones were mere avatars among the array that was heading for him.

As he got closer, he chose one Austin and punched him into pieces.

However, to his dismay, it turned out to be just an avatar and did no harm to the real Austin. It even regenerate soon after being smashed.

"Sorry, Alston. It seems like this is the end for you!"

All three of Austin roared at the same time as their blood vitality boiled.

"Come here!" Austin shouted.

Boom!

Under the control of his mind, the phantoms of the four legendary beasts and hundreds of earth dragons rushed over.

Cooperating with Austin, they all pounced on Alston.

Since one of his trump cards was the Earth Exploring Technique, he also had to make good use of it.

"Damn you, Austin! I'll make you pay!"

By this time, Alston looked like a lunatic. His whole body trembled, like a volcano ready to erupt at any second. Endless divine power gushed out of him and desperately lashed at Austin.

He was frightfully unwilling to accept that Austin was gaining an upper hand against him. On top of that, he didn't expect that Austin could even corner him to such an extent.

The medium-grade divine gods who were watching the battle also felt a chill down their spine.

They had finally come to realize that this young man named Austin was someone to be feared.

They all thought that he might even be just as powerful as Alston, if not more. Besides, in some ways, Austin appeared to be more terrifying than Alston.

He was a mere warrior at the Divine Realm. If they weren't seeing his true power with their own eyes, they wouldn't even think it to be true.

However, Austin was fighting Alston—an esteemed, top-level medium-grade divine god—right before their eyes, and even he was going out on a limb to fight him. "Oh my God! Why did we provoke such an ominous presence?"

"I finally understand how so many medium-grade divine gods died by Austin's hands on the battlefield.

He really had the strength to kill them all!

I won't ever dare to mess with him again. I definitely have to hide from him!"

Most of the medium-grade divine gods who witnessed Austin's power broke out in a cold sweat. They shivered at the thought that not long ago, they were in high spirits to hunt him down.

Now, they had feasted their eyes on his strength and power. They learned that if they had found themselves facing such a terrifying ominous presence, they would have actually been courting death.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3514 Alston's Death (Part One)

Boom! Crash! Bang!

The fight between Austin and Alston had turned into a vicious battle. Alston's whole body was suddenly blazing, and the divine fire was kindling in the sky and the earth.

Slam!

Alston's fighting power escalated a lot in an instant. He stepped forward, grabbed hold of one of Austin's avatars, and smashed it into pieces.

"Die, you bastard!" Alston uttered in fury.

His long hair flew in the air as he gnashed his teeth, resembling a wild beast. He stretched out his hand and a thick column of energy spurted from his palm. The energy column dashed at lightning speed to blow up one of the deities from Austin's body.

Austin felt an immense force from Alston's strike.

He staggered back and coughed up blood as he sustained another injury.

Fortunately, with the Phoenix Nirvana Skill, his body instantly recovered.

Even the deity and his avatar that had been smashed by Alston were restored to their pristine condition.

According to legends, the phoenix was a bird that could never die nor be destroyed. Cultivating this secret technique to the extreme was the same as having a physical body just like that of the phoenix.

Since Austin's strength had constantly been improving, this secret skill had also been growing more and more powerful.

"After him!"

Austin roared with all his might. After recovering, he wasted no time and called on his three avatars. They all moved so quickly in different directions and rushed towards Alston.

Along with his avatars, all the twenty-one divine beings, three heavenly dragons, hundreds of earth dragons, and the four legendary beasts had also swarmed and surrounded him. When they got closer, they all pounced on Alston.

All of them ganged up on Alston without even using any kind of magical skills. They battled him like animals feasting on their prey.

"Aaargh! I've had enough of you! I'll finish you all!"

thunder. He was shrouded in fiery and brilliant divine light from head to Swish! Swish! Swish!

thousands of red long threads suddenly struck the hell is red, long threads tethered to his head made him feel uncomfortable. Through his spiritual soul, he sensed that it was something ghastly and that he needed to take caution in dealing

"Get lost!"

quite a tremendous power in his Soul Sea to ward off

Whoosh!

drawing all the thread away, the real Austin had already made his way to his Thump!

Since Alston was distracted from dealing with all the other attacks, he was left unable to defend himself from endured such extreme pain. Despite his current state, he was still reluctant to admit his defeat.

"Aaahhh!"

Alston. There's not much took the opportunity to inflict more damage with intensified force. He bellowed as he directed more than a dozen deities from his body, along with his three avatars, to dart towards Alston all scared everyone out of and nose. Others poked his eyes, some forests or the wild, and not from majestic creatures can this be seriously happening? Alston is a top-level medium-grade watching the battle in the distance were all left that Austin would even go for such a shameless way was at a complete loss that Austin had been able to severely injure him in a way that was out of

Austin, you're and exerted all his strength as

Boom! Slam! Crash!

with colorful radiance gushed out into the air.

Puff! Puff! Puff!

were blown up

While Austin seemed to have had the upper hand all this time, it came as no surprise that Alston could still get rid of Austin's avatars and deities. After all, he was still a lot stronger than Austin.

"Ha-ha! Did you really think it's over?"

Like a flash of lightning, a figure suddenly appeared behind Alston.

Unfortunately for Alston, Austin suffered no loss at all. The avatars and deities that he had destroyed were all transformed through the Triple Avatar Skill, and so their disappearance did not do any harm to Austin.

Whoosh!

This time, Austin went for Alston himself. He held a small purple sword in his right hand and thrust it at the back of Alston's head. Brilliant sword radiance fired off to the sky that rays of light showered every corner of the space. The blinding light fell on Alston's head and submerged it completely.

Boom!

While Austin pierced Alston's head with his right hand, his left hand was at work in another attack. He clenched his hand into a fist and swung it towards Alston's back once more.

These two attacks were a mere glimpse of Austin's true power. They were incredibly overwhelming, violent, and forceful.

"Aaahhh!" Alston's scream filled the air.

Terrifying explosions blew up from both his head and his back. His flesh and blood splattered everywhere, and his thick divine blood spurted out like a fountain.

Sustaining such mutilation, Alston's body got tossed into the air with a great force.

Slam!

Due to the monstrous impact of his own attack, even Austin incurred some significant damage.

Even most of his avatars had been shattered by the collision with Alston—three of his own avatars, fourteen of the deities, and two of the heavenly dragons.

In addition to their collapse, Austin had also lost a lot of his original energy essence.

This was a sure way of severely damaging the enemies, if not killing them, at a huge cost.

Despite all this loss, however, Austin still found it justifiable and rewarding that he managed to badly mangle Alston.

Seeing that Alston struggled to get up, Austin took out a batch of natural treasures from his Space Ring. He hurriedly stuffed them into his mouth and swallowed them. At the same time, he used the Phoenix Nirvana Skill to fix his body and soon recovered to his perfect state.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3515 Alston's Death (Part Two)

Once again, he used the Triple Avatar Skill to create new avatars, deities and heavenly dragons, and gave them an order to attack. "Go on and kill that bastard!"

Three of his avatars, twenty-one human deities, and three heavenly dragons swarmed and pounced on Alston without delay.

In addition to them, the four legendary beasts and hundreds of earth dragons also joined them in the attack.

Alston mustered all the energy he had left and got up.

"Austin! Are you really so brazen? Come here!"

Get out of my way, you beasts!"

Alston trembled in wrath. He raised his arms to drive the avatars away from him and slowly walked towards Austin. This time, however, he was not unprepared.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

While the avatars ambushed him, Alston activated two chaotic magic treasures. They burst out terrifying energies as bright as scorching suns. The energy darted at Austin's avatars, deities, and heavenly dragons and smashed them into pieces.

Slam!

Austin seized another opportunity while Alston bustled with the avatars. He threw another punch at Alston and broke his arm.

At this point, Alston appeared to be savagely injured since he had been hit by Austin several times before. As a result, his fighting power had also declined by a lot.

His clothes got dyed scarlet from all the divine blood that stained his own body.

"This isn't over, Austin! You deserve a miserable death!"

Alston roared in indignation. He sat there and stared at Austin incredulously and thought hard how Austin was able to hurt him to such an extent.

"Alston! Listen! I think that this young man knows and is actually proficient in the Earth Exploring Technique. It's in his favor that you're fighting in the underground world because he can use the environment to his advantage and hurt you with greater strength.

definitely adding to his power!

return to the ground as waving his folding fan

"What did you say?"

checked his surroundings to confirm what he had just heard.

"Ha! It's true!

space underground is listening to his every command, though it's hard to perceive. All the earth laws and the essence of the vital energy aware of what had been used to look down on Austin. He thought with his current strength, he could easily defeat Austin laughed hysterically. With a brilliant flash, a small purple sword suddenly appeared in his hand. While Alston tried to make sense of what was happening, the sword charged at Alston and instantly cut that Alston was in such a dangerous situation, he thought he needed to make a move. If he still watched like an on the same boat now.

But

I'll

his fate, the young man leaped into the air and seized Austin from afar.

Why would you barge in on their perfectly good fight? Well, then. Since with Hare, Otis, Keysley, and Bernie, they all activated their chaotic five chaotic magic treasures emitted extremely terrifying energy and oppressive auras, so the young man didn't attempt to break through no matter how worried he was about Alston.

I will kill you, Austin! I own blood and fought this humiliation. Now, he conjured every bit of to kill their opponents. They all bet their lives to win this fought, the fiercer the battle had become. Tension filled the would manage to get rid of the avatars, Austin would just use the secret

Whoosh!

avatars ambushed Alston, Austin swiftly appeared above Alston's into the middle of Alston's head. It went so deep that it even

"Aaahhh!"

Alston screamed in great pain. He tried to reach for the purple sword on his head with his broken arm and fiddled it away.

He then desperately activated the two chaotic magic treasures in his hand and made an attempt to rush to the ground.

"Where do you think you're going? It's too late for you to escape!"

Austin took out his Reincarnation Token and activated it right away. He also activated the Chaotic Striding Boots and used the Peerless Lightness Skill together. Like a lightning bolt, he instantly caught up to Alston and stood in front of him.

Whoosh!

Once again, Austin raised his hand and waved his sword towards Alston's head. The violent jab left a huge cleft on his head, almost cutting it into halves.

"Aaahhh! Austin, you truly are savagely cruel!"

Alston had been gravely injured many times that his original energy essence had reached such a poor state.

"Alston, it wouldn't be right to let you live this way. Preserve your honor and allow people to think you've fought bravely. Let me end your life right here, right now."

Despite the lack of expression on his face, Austin sounded so cold and ruthless. He raised his sword and aimed for Alston's head.

This time, Austin had rammed the sword deeper into Alston's head before he could even say a word.

"No—"

Puff!

Austin had finally cut his head into two. Before he died, Alston let out a miserable roar—sad and unwilling to admit that he was going to be slaughtered by someone like Austin.

"Wait, what?! This is impossible! You can't be serious. Did Alston really die?"

You don't know what you've done, Austin! Don't you know anything about his background?"

You've just dragged yourself into great trouble. Consider yourself warned!"

The young man was unable to save Alston as he couldn't put up a fight with Hare and the others. Seeing Alston's death from a distance, he could only let out an anguished and raging bellow towards Austin.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3516 The Competition Is Over

Alston was finally dead. After everything that Austin and his team went through, all the labor and the struggle, they had finally won. As a reward for his triumph, Austin took the two chaotic magic treasures from Alston.

Delighted, he momentarily observed his reward before putting them away.

Austin also amassed all the points Alston had previously earned.

Prior to his downfall, Alston had a whooping score of over two hundred thousand points.

Austin gathered around two hundred thousand points himself. With the addition of Alston's points in his pool, he now had over four hundred thousand points.

It was won by a landslide. As soon as he killed Alston, he immediately took the highest spot in the competition.

To top it all off, he also had gotten all Alston's treasures.

Everyone underground had their eyes fixed on Austin in sheer amazement.

'He really killed Alston?'

Most of them were still left in disbelief.

Throughout the competition, Alston acted like a ruler in this area. He had a battalion of medium-grade divine gods ready to do anything for him.

He was heralded as the strongest competitor, and his strength was beyond any other medium-grade divine god. Aside from that, he also had the most members in his team.

From the very beginning, they had predicted him to win this battle easily. He was a force to be reckoned with, and no one would ever dare to mess with him.

Even all those amazing credentials, this powerful figure still perished at the hands of someone at the Divine Realm.

Everyone was dumbfounded. Silence filled the battlefield as they all stared at Austin.

All they knew was he was currently the most powerful being in the area.

"Austin, you will regret this.

Alston may be dead, but this will bite you back in the ankles someday.

You will pay for the mistake you've made,"

Meredith seethed.

Whoosh!

In a flash, Austin was instantly standing inches away from him with the coldest glare he could ever give.

"I will never ever regret it," Austin threatened in a low voice, enunciating each word slowly, making sure Meredith would ingest every piece of it.

He continued, "If by any chance, Alston still managed to live again, I would have the pleasure of killing him again."

Austin's glare was cold and piercing. A horrifying deathly cold wrapped around his aura.

Meredith's knees buckled in fright; he could feel the chill go up to his spine.

I will let you go unscathed? Never.

it's wiser if you just shut your mouth and think about how to save yourself from being killed,"

Austin spat.

this mischievous look in his face.

launched a powerful attack in hell is he doing?" "W-What rest of the divine gods were dumbstruck. They Meredith was much weaker than Alston.

have a

give him two chaotic

Meredith got him to do

Universe. We once dominated the entire Sea of Chaos. If was forced to step back as he competition. Therefore, you are bound by the game involves killing.

of mentioning your background to me? Do you think that will pissed. He despised people who would take advantage of their stature just to get away glowing like a sun, emitted a rolling sword radiance. It came at Meredith

Austin punched his opponent, causing the latter do you know what a supreme universe, one of the most important a formidable force in the Sea

you have already murdered Alston. Why do you still want me you really want to be an enemy of our universe?" Meredith snarled with a stern face.

wounds were all over his body. He felt frightened and angry at Universe is an ancient and mysterious legend in the Sea of Chaos.

supreme universe is. It's akin to a puzzle.

one thing's for sure. There are many rumors about

Alston and this guy both originated from interrogate him. Maybe we can gather some information about

Austin through his

"Oh?

Heaven Universe, I will take him alive and let of sense. As much as he hated this guy, was important right now was he had Meredith captive. He put all kinds of restrictions on his prisoner and

Austin threw him into a spatial whole process, Hare, Otis, Keysley, Magee, and Bernie stood around Austin with their chaotic magic treasures, preventing other medium-grade

Meredith. All of them were afraid of Austin. After all, they witnessed him that they would mess with Austin for were still fixated on Austin.

filled the whole place.

ago, everyone claimed to hunt Austin down.

against him even though he stood right in front of them.

your turn

grin as he scanned all the people who tried to take

"Damn it!"

Austin's words snapped them out of the shock. Fear overtook their emotions.

"Run!"

In a flash, all of them turned around in a bid to flee.

Alston's team members had already run away.

"Austin, what's your plan? Are we gonna let them go or put them down?" Otis asked.

The rest of the members in Austin's team turned to look at him.

"Eliminate all the members of Alston's team, Lude in particular. He was Alston's competent subordinate. Moreover, he has a chaotic magic treasure. We must find him,"

Austin announced after he gave it a thought.

"Got it. Let's wipe out Alston's people first," Otis responded.

He and the other team members agreed to this plan.

"Go get them!"

With a wave of his hand, Austin moved underground to scour for Alston's battalion.

At the same time, under Austin's control, hundreds of earth dragons split up and helped him search for his target.

After a while, Austin tracked down one of Alston's loyal cronies, Lude.

Lude and his team were hiding in a mountain range.

When he witnessed Alston's death, he knew that they were in immediate danger. Without any hesitation, he took several of his trusted subordinates and they ran away unnoticed.

Despite their efforts to hide, Austin still found them. They were hundreds of miles away from where Alston had gotten killed.

Austin led his team members to surround Lude and his men. They took care of them swiftly.

Austin took Lude out with one sword strike and took his chaotic magic treasure.

As soon as they took care of Lude, they continued searching for the survivors of Alston's team. If they crossed paths with other groups, they would attack them.

Getting rid of the other teams was an easy task.

Austin didn't even have to participate. He just stood by and watched his team members take care of it.

All the teams would flee the instance they laid their eyes on Austin's team. They all knew what he was capable of.

"You're going to win the victory. There is no doubt about it.

The competition is over,"

Hare commended Austin with a smile.

"You are right."

Austin nodded, feeling a little bored for he easily won the competition.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3517 | Finally Got Out Of The Fallen Divine Valley

In the depths of the sky, a deep voice suddenly rang out.

"I should end this competition.

It looks like I have finally found the person that my master was searching for.

I have waited in this place for so many years.

At last, I can finally fulfill the task that was given to me by my master."

Moments later, outside the Fallen Divine Valley, there was a vast ocean in the chaotic void, and the waves were surging mightily like a torrential tide.

They went as high as hundreds of millions of feet, and anyone would be amazed at the spectacular scenery.

All of a sudden, several figures rushed out of the water one after another, causing ripples after ripples.

These were the divine gods that had just successfully come out of the Fallen Divine Valley.

"Finally! I'm out! Ha-ha! I got out of the Fallen Divine Valley!"

"Wow, it has been such a long time since I was trapped there. I finally got rid of that damn place!"

"Yeah! I'm free! I can go wherever I want!"

Several divine gods appeared on the vast ocean and celebrated the long-awaited moment of finally going out of the Fallen Divine Valley. Some laughed wildly, while some cried, some cheered, and some just looked at the ocean blankly. They were overwhelmed with different emotions, and it hadn't fully sunk in their minds that they were finally out.

Most of them were stuck in the Fallen Divine Valley for an unimaginable amount of time, and they had narrowly escaped deaths so many times in there. But as of today, all of those were finished.

"Ingram! We made it!

When I look back, I can't help but think that everything that happened in there was just a dream.

I don't think I'm going to go near that place again. Ha-ha!" Tyrone exclaimed.

"Yeah, you're right.

The Fallen Divine Valley was just too mysterious. People would definitely lose their lives in there if they weren't careful enough.

On top of that, I can't believe that the place was just made by a single omnipotent person," Ingram replied.

The two of them were just some of the divine gods that had successfully passed the final part of the trial.

"But this is so strange. I'm sure that I haven't met Austin in the competition area even once. And I don't see him around either.

I was looking around, but I haven't seen him anywhere.

Did something bad happen to him?" Tyrone suddenly got a worrying thought.

"I never saw him too.

still at the Divine Realm, he's even more powerful have been assigned to the same area as us, right?
talent and fighting ability, he should have passed yet?"

too late; he should come haven't seen Master Otis and they were doing right now," Tyrone said better to wait for everyone before were also gods of light that were from the three thousand big and entered the competition area, they ran into these team to look and help each other in order waited for countless years to get out. I don't think it'll be hard to wait even for a few other divine gods nodded in agreement.

Fallen Divine Valley, everyone was in a good mood, and they also wanted to celebrate with their other more divine gods emerged from the Divine Valley, Austin and his team were still resting on medium-grade

a booming voice was heard from the congratulate you all. The competition is now after, you will be able to get out of the treasures that you accumulated in be sent out in rapid succession, so just wait voice reached everyone within the it stopped whatever they were down their weapons and sat on they heard, and it didn't area fell silent, not knowing what to do was so abrupt, they weren't soon after, the blank and confused expressions on real?! It's
We got leave this place
and their celebration echoed throughout the entire area.
teleportation force fell from the sky, Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

soared into the
of an eye, they disappeared in the get out of this place. At last!" Hare said excitedly.

by emotions as they waited for their turn glad too. This place is too dangerous.

so lucky that we can make it out alive," he and his other companions were also being the Fallen Divine Valley, Ingram, Tyrone, and the others were still of the Fallen Divine Valley are only

I haven't seen any medium-grade or premium-grade ones," Ingram said.

"That's right. I think the next wave would already consist of the medium-grade divine gods.

It means that by now, all of the preliminary-grade divine gods should have gone out already.

But there was still no sign of Austin.

Don't tell me that he died in there?

If he hasn't gone out, that would be the only explanation, right?

I can't believe that such a talented cultivator would actually die in that place.

That will be a great loss," Tyrone said as he shook his head.

"Yes, it's a shame if we lost him.

That guy is more talented than me. He has unlimited potentials," Ingram said with a dejected expression.

"Is that guy called Austin really that strong?"

It's just really hard to imagine that a young man who was just at the Divine Realm would dare venture into the Fallen Divine Valley in the first place.

Furthermore, you told me that he helped you get through lands of death countless times.

I don't think someone of that level could do that," one of the preliminary-grade gods butted in.

"You haven't met Austin, so I can understand if you suspect his abilities.

But all the things that we said about him were true. We're not exaggerating anything.

The truth is that he might even be more powerful than how we described him.

His real strength has nothing to do with his cultivation base.

People tend to underestimate him, but that's the reason why he could easily defeat them," Tyrone said with a serious face.

Hearing all those statements from Ingram and Tyrone, the preliminary-grade god didn't argue anymore.

While Tyrone and Ingram were still wallowing on the thought of losing Austin, another batch of people had finally come out of the vast ocean.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

These were the medium-grade divine gods.

"This isn't the Fallen Divine Valley anymore, right?!"

"Yes. We're out!" "Damn, I thought I'm going to die in that miserable place."

"It's good to see the outside world again."

The medium-grade divined gods stood above the ocean. Like the preliminary-grade divine gods, they also laughed, cried, and shouted cheerfully.

"Look, it's Master Otis and the others!"

Tyrone's and Ingram's eyes lit up in excitement as they spotted Otis and their other companions from the batch that had gone out of the Fallen Divine Valley.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3518 The Sky-devouring Dog

Otis, Keysley, Magee, and the rest materialized above the sea.

They had been trapped in the Fallen Divine Valley for a long time. At long last, they had managed to escape today.

They felt like they were finally home—like birds soaring freely into the vast sky or fishes swimming in the ocean.

It felt pleasant.

"Master Otis!"

Tyrone and Ingram sent a message through their spiritual sense.

"It's you!"

"You look amazing!"

Elated to see his friends, Otis approached them with a group of medium-grade divine gods following behind.

"Otis, Keysley, you also come out!"

Behind Tyrone and Ingram were more than 100 preliminary-grade divine gods, all of whom were gods of light.

"Ha-ha, I didn't expect to meet so many comrades today!"

The medium-grade divine gods, including Otis, were taken aback.

A large number of gods of light knew each other, and many of them were even close friends.

This reunion was unexpected, and yet, they found comfort in seeing each other again. They had a good-natured and friendly conversation, exchanging banter and occasionally laughing at each other's jokes.

"All of this could've ended great if Austin came out of this alive.

Such a pity!"

Tyrone suddenly sighed.

"What? W-What do you mean? Where is Austin?!"

Why isn't he here?"

Otis panicked. He had a sinking feeling in his heart. He refused to accept it. Austin couldn't be dead.

The rest of the medium-grade divine gods were just as dumbfounded in this horrible news. Their merry gathering immediately turned sour. Then, they scoured for Austin above the sea. Some of them even used their bodily movement skills.

After leaving the Fallen Divine Valley, the gods' bodily movement skills were no longer limited. With a just single thought, they could cross tens of millions of miles, and even farther than that!

However, no matter how hard they tried, there was no trace of Austin.

"Austin, where are you?

Austin, are you okay?"

Luban roared in the distance.

Otis, what's looking for Austin, both Tyrone and Ingram competition area for off, thinking of

"Yes.

together in the Fallen Divine our team. He led us to sweep through almost the entire battlefield. All the members of our team left first in

Otis explained proudly.

WOW!

Otis said, both Ingram and is indeed a

they sighed.

young man who is only at the Divine Realm led you medium-grade divine gods to sweep the entire battlefield?

it would be the story were astounded. In fact, they were even a little bit

It sounded improbable.

course it's

wise leadership, many of us would have died

no chance of

Luban answered in Otis's

he went back shouting exaggeratedly, as you?" he

it weren't for Austin, many of us wouldn't Keysley nodded.

medium-grade divine gods confirmed this claim.

had followed Austin's instructions. Through him, they defeated other

Austin

where is happened to him?

he was visibly

members of our team have come out. Why isn't anything wrong

was

moment, in an unknown chaotic is going

survivors could leave the Fallen Divine Valley.

where am I

he was surprised to find space. It was a mess, and the space and time

"Uhh... Where am I?"

bad was up.

voice resounded all of a sudden.

This is a great opportunity for you.

entered the Fallen Divine Valley, you are hailed to be the lucky one and will get the most voice intently. He looked around looking his surprise, a huge yellow dog appeared

It was so colossal that it was larger than a planet!

To be honest, its fur was approximately ten thousand times thicker than Austin's body!

Austin could feel that it was its real body, not something magnified by Omnipotent Bodily Skills.

In other words, this dog was indeed born to be a humongous one!

A horrifying aura came out of the dog. It crept slowly.

Austin felt the chilling sensation. It was akin to falling into an ice hole, and his whole body trembled with cold.

He knew if the big dog in front of him wanted to eat him, it could do it in one bite!

"What kind of dog is this?"

How could there be such a huge and frightening dog in the world?"

Austin swallowed.

They looked at each other for a while.

"Young man, what are you thinking about?"

I'm talking to you."

The big dog was a little dissatisfied with Austin's reaction.

"Ahem... Sir, I'm listening. May I know where I am?"

Austin snapped out of his thoughts, and managed to spit out a few words.

"This is a space inside the Fallen Divine Valley," the big dog replied.

"I'm still in the Fallen Divine Valley!"

He was shocked. He looked around to see which part of it he was in right now. Curious, he asked more questions.

"Sir, who are you?"

Austin stared at the majestic form of the enormous hound.

"Before my master died, he built the Fallen Divine Valley.

For so many years, I have been carrying out the task my master gave me in the Fallen Divine Valley.

I'm in charge of operating this whole place.

I'm a sky-devouring dog,"

the dog explained.

"Sir !"

Austin was shocked. He couldn't find the right words to say at this exact moment since he was dumbfounded. He didn't expect the origin of this big dog to be so astonishing.

He was responsible for the operation of the entire Fallen Divine Valley!

The Fallen Divine Valley had always been known as one of the most dangerous and mysterious forbidden lands in the Sea of Chaos. Unexpectedly, the one behind everything was this legendary creature!

The Supreme God

Chapter 3519 The Successor

"Master Sky-devouring Dog, may I ask what I am doing here?" Austin asked respectfully.

'What's happening? I've won the competition, so I'm supposed to get out of the Fallen Divine Valley, right?

But, why am I the only one that was brought here by the sky-devouring dog?

Does it want something from me?

I'm not sure I could fight it. If it tried to attack me, I don't think I have a chance to survive.'

A lot of questions simultaneously popped as he began to worry.

"I don't really like it when someone mentions my name.

So, you can just call me sir," the sky-devouring dog told Austin in a serious tone.

"Yes, sir," Austin replied as he bowed his head.

"You don't have to be afraid, young man.

I know you're wondering why you are here, so let me tell you in advance.

I brought you here because I took an interest in you," the sky-devouring dog said straightforwardly as it looked directly into Austin's eyes.

Austin was also looking back at the dog's huge pair of shining eyes.

He didn't quite understand what it meant. So, he couldn't help but ask, "What? I am married and I love my wives."

Austin misunderstood the sky-devouring dog so he alertly took a few steps back.

The sky-devouring dog immediately saw hints of panic in his eyes.

"Hey, brat, I told you not to be afraid of me.

What are you thinking?! I'm not interested in you in that way!" the sky-devouring dog yelled at Austin as it saw his reaction.

"Don't get me wrong.

When I said that I took an interest in you, I meant that I got the feeling that you were the one I have been waiting for.

You have no idea how many years I spent in this place just to wait for the right person.

Well, since the beginning, I've been looking forward to meeting you.

Now, you're finally here," the sky-devouring dog explained briefly.

"What do you mean that you were waiting for me?" Austin asked with an awkward smile.

'This is really confusing.

I can't follow what it's saying, ' he thought to himself.

"I know my answer was still vague.

Let's first sit down, and I'll explain it to you in detail," the sky-devouring dog said.

that, Austin just nodded and Whoosh!

huge sky-devouring dog began to shrink.

yellow-colored,

front of Austin

you Austin,"

Austin replied.

do we dog paused for

of the divine gods are ranked?" it asked.

"Yes, sir.

gods are

gods, the medium-grade divine gods, the premium-grade divine gods, the governing gods, and lastly, the

"That's right.

found everywhere in about this because you've already encountered a lot to premium-grade divine gods, their number is much lower than the premium-grade divine gods only stay in select supreme universes. is even smaller compared to the premium-grade divine gods. Even in chaos. Even I, in the countless years that knows see," Austin replied. information that ordinary being. It must have seen and experienced lots of it really want from god," the sky-devouring dog quickly noticed that there was extreme sadness contained its eyes. It must 'What?!' couldn't help but gasp in master of the sky-devouring dog was a a governing god? With his power alone, he created the Fallen Divine Valley, one of the most dangerous and mysterious places in the entire Sea of Chaos!' Austin's eyes widened as he looked just a few governing gods that be exact, there are just a dozen of them." The sky-devouring dog regained the fierceness in its governing god could match that time, even I was whatever I want. They feared me because for us, those were our glory

out a confident smile as it reminisced

the sky-devouring dog, Austin was shaken up.

of the sky-devouring dog once ruled the entire Sea are numerous universe communities in the Sea of Chaos. Even I can't universes as an example. It is made up of a lot of universes, but it just occupies a small part of the Sea of Chaos.

countless universe communities like the three thousand big and small universes in the entire Sea to say that sky-devouring dog's master was in charge of begin to fathom how powerful he was!' Austin thought forever!" the

were filled

my master's omnipotence, several governing gods got jealous. They wanted to take his place so they colluded with each other and planned to

Unfortunately, he was caught off guard, and he almost died.

Luckily, there was still a piece of his soul that was left intact. With that, he hid from his pursuers.

With his fall, most of his subordinates turned their backs against him. Only a few ones remained loyal to him, and I was one of them.

However, later on, the condition of my master's soul got worse, and he knew that he didn't have much time left to spare.

That was the most miserable moment in my master's life."

As the sky-devouring dog got to this point of its story, its eyes were instantly filled with tears. It was a ferocious being, but its loyalty for its master couldn't be matched.

"My master didn't want to die and vanish like that. Hence, he decided to create the Fallen Divine Valley.

He poured all of his remaining omnipotent skills to set this place up in order to choose his rightful successor.

Back in his time, my master was a powerful hero that no one in the Sea of Chaos could be his match.

Therefore, the responsibility and burden of taking on the role of his successor are so heavy.

With that, my master ensured that he could select the most appropriate successor through his last masterpiece—the Fallen Divine Valley.

Over the years, a large number of divine gods have explored this place.

But none of them was able to draw my attention," the sky-devouring dog explained further.

"Choose a successor?"

Austin suddenly realized where this conversation was actually going to.

"So, the tests were—"

"Yes," the sky-devouring dog suddenly cut in.

"After countless years of waiting, I finally found the most suitable prospect.

It's you, Austin," the sky-devouring dog said firmly as it fixed its eyes upon Austin.

"But sir, how could I be that person? I don't think I'm qualified.

"I'm not even a divine god..." Austin came up with excuses because he didn't know how to respond.

"Since you entered the Fallen Divine Valley, I've paid close attention to you. I watched your every move.

I told you that the standards I held were directly from my master. But ever since the Fallen Divine Valley was built, you were the only one who caught my attention. Your tenacity, determination, power, and everything else; they were different from everyone else.

In the last competition, I deliberately set it up that you would be unable to find any chaotic magic treasure or any kind of treasure for that matter.

But in the end, you still got what? About five or six chaotic magic treasures and a large number of other kinds of treasures? Do you understand that? I even gave you a handicap but you still prevailed.

The total points you have acquired was the highest among all of the participants. And yes, you said so yourself, you're not even a divine god yet. All of these just proved that I was right about you.

Let me tell you a secret. You remember how the last competition went, right? That was specially designed for you.

All of the other divine gods? They just there to help test your strength," the sky-devouring dog said with a straight face.

"What? No way!

You mean that it was only held because of me?" Austin asked with his eyes wide open.

"You know that there's no merit for me to lie to you. The right to be the successor of my master is the one at stake here," the sky-devouring dog answered flatly.

Austin wasn't able to utter another word after hearing all that the sky-devouring dog had said.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3520 We Need A Wild Feast

"Austin, I've told you everything that you need to know.

Now, I want to hear your thoughts.

Are you willing to take the risk, or not?" the sky-devouring dog said as it firmly gazed at Austin.

Austin was still at a loss for words.

He was still recovering from the shock caused by the sky-devouring dog's words.

Never did he expect in his whole life that such an opportunity could appear in front of him. It was too sudden, and he felt that he was far from ready.

There were so many things to consider.

Even before he entered the Fallen Divine Valley, he was already burdened by huge responsibilities, and now the sky-devouring dog was asking him something that seemed thousands of times more difficult than his current accountabilities.

The sky-devouring dog's master once ruled the entire Sea of Chaos. Austin's mind couldn't fathom what it meant to take his place.

Besides, he also knew how dangerous it could be. The sky-devouring dog's master was known to be the strongest governing god in his time, but he was still killed in the end.

It was unthinkable how terrifying his enemies were.

Who knew how stronger they had even become after all the countless years that passed.

If Austin took the responsibility of becoming the successor of the sky-devouring dog's master, he was sure that those people would also become his enemies. He would have to bear the burden of avenging the death of the sky-devouring dog's master in the future.

Just thinking about it gave him a headache.

"You know, if other young people were given this chance, they would surely get excited the moment they heard such news. They would immediately kowtow in front of me just to gain my favor.

But you're different. I know that you have a lot to worry about.

Actually, because of your hesitation, I admire you more. You're not the type of person who would just be totally reckless without thinking about the consequences of your actions. That's why I will repeat it. I'm sure I picked the right person.

I will be blunt.

If you become the successor of my master, you will have to definitely avenge him in the future.

And you know that he was killed by the other governing gods.

In other words, once you agree to be my master's successor, those same people will be your enemies. I know you're sharp, so you should've already thought about that.

The governing gods are almost the most powerful beings in the Sea of Chaos. They hold the rules in their hands."

The sky-devouring dog wanted to be as honest as possible, so he also said what could be waiting for Austin if ever he accepted its proposal. As it was telling these things to Austin, it read every change in the expression of the young man's face to perceive his deepest thoughts.

For a while, Austin remained silent, but the expression on his face finally got serious. He wasn't in a daze anymore like when he initially heard all the shocking information.

Then, he suddenly said, "You've told me the hardships that it would entail, but you never told me about the benefits yet."

"Ha-ha! Benefits?! You're an interesting young man indeed!"

sky-devouring dog was stunned for a few seconds before bursting into laughter.

Well, you can get the cultivation formulas and secret techniques at the highest level in the Sea of Chaos. Normally, only the governing gods can get those, but you talent would allow you, you can practice those mysterious formulas and to achieve that and the chances are very slim. But at least, about how many divine gods are there in the Sea of Chaos. There are at can become governing gods? Since the time began, there only existed resources, it will be impossible for you to attain cultivation methods and secret skills of the highest level, there will also be a will be capable people, who are loyal to my master, that will listen, follow, and guide you through.

up what dog said, still

hands on all those resources that will help

was greatly shocked

one in their right

had to face and bear

sky-devouring dog's master knew about him, they would surely make an too easy for several governing gods to kill great trouble. His wives, masters, parents, friends, and all of the people in about this. It was not only his life that was on had total control of the entire Sea of Chaos. Thus, it would be so easy consent to the sky-devouring dog without hesitation as he was the type of person who was not afraid of taking

now. He had too many of them looked up to him and such a huge responsibility on his shoulder, Austin had to be careful in every to being an what you
to protect at all costs. I understand that there are several reasons and I'll be much more worried if you give time and think about it carefully. You can tell me your answer after you make careful deliberations," the sky-devouring dog said in a consoling
at the ground
I'm sending you
When you make your decision, you can talk to me through the restriction spell. Then, Sea. These can protect you in times of emergency. Each one of them contains a force equivalent to a full-on blow from a premium-grade divine
there's one thing that you mention it to anyone. If you failed to do so, I another restriction spell in your Soul Sea. The moment you tell anyone, the anyone! Not even to your wives or closest friends!" the sky-devouring dog warned

"But, sir—"

say, a strong teleportation

he was already taken balance from the unsteady flow of air as he saw

Austin got out of a chaotic void, he

he realized that it was the

he got out.

Otis and the others were still waiting for Austin to show up near the shore.

spiritual sense activated

Thus, when Austin appeared, they immediately found him.

"It's Austin!"

"What took you so long? We've been waiting for a long time!"

Otis, Ingram, Tyrone, and the other divine gods burst into laughter and cheers as they saw Austin. They immediately rushed towards him and surrounded him.

"I guess I'm really out, huh?"

It's so nice to be back."

Austin stared at the vast sea with a bitter smile. One moment, he was still talking with the sky-devouring dog, then another moment, he was already out of the Fallen Divine Valley.

"Hey, Austin," everyone was calling him until he came to his senses.

"Oh, right! Sorry.

Master Otis, you're all here. It's nice to see everyone finally out of the Fallen Divine Valley!

Ingram and Tyrone! I haven't seen you since before the competition. I'm glad you made it!"

Austin's gaze swept across the area and saw all the other divine gods that he met inside.

"Austin! We were worried.

We didn't know what took you so long to come out!

It's nice to see you again!

Ha-ha! Now, I'm relieved."

Suddenly, a tall and dark-skinned man rushed in and shouted in excitement.

"Master Luban! Thank you for your concern. I apologize for making everyone worry."

Austin felt very grateful.

He didn't expect that Luban was such a nice man who consoled people with gentle words.

"Ha-ha! All the members of our team have successfully left the Fallen Divine Valley. You've been a big factor to that, Austin.

Plus, we've gained a lot of treasures!

This calls for a celebration!" Otis burst into a fit of hearty laughter.

"That's a good idea!

Let's find a place where we could have a good drink first.

Then, we can set off and go back to the three thousand big and small universes," Keysley suggested.

"Let's do it!"

Everyone agreed and exclaimed in approval.

All of these divine gods had been trapped in the Fallen Divine Valley for a very long time. They experienced many dangers and almost died there. Today, finally, they were freed from the horrible place. Such an experience had completely changed their attitude and outlook towards life. For now, they just really wanted to celebrate.

A wild feast was the most desirable thing for them right now. This would remind them that they were still alive, and at the same time, bring comfort to them in this chaotic world.