

The Supreme God

Chapter 3531 No Match For Him

"Ha-ha! You overestimate yourself!"

Without any hesitation, Austin took out a magic herb and shoved it into his mouth, swallowing it in one gulp.

Warmth spread throughout his body as the medicine instantly restored his strength to its peak.

Once he was sure that he was healed, he slashed his small purple sword again. Dazzling streaks of purple sword radiance containing endless chaotic sword intent burst out of his single strike.

Cold light lit up the void of the three thousand big and small universes as his sword swept across the sky. It was extremely intimidating.

All the powerful cultivators in the three thousand big and small universes turned to look at Austin.

Shock could be clearly seen on all of their faces.

"Look!

Austin can fight against a medium-grade divine god!

Does that mean they're equally powerful?!

In terms of vital energy, he's only at the Divine Realm!

How does he do it?

This is unreal!"

Questions flew through the air as they looked on the situation in complete shock.

"That bastard has become too strong!"

Some of Austin's enemies became upset, such as the leader of the underworld, the leader of the Space Sect, and the leader of the Mu Clan in the Hunting Cosmos.

Confusion and envy warred in their hearts the longer they watch Austin fight.

"Amazing!"

Austin's strength is overwhelming!"

Bright joy could be seen on the faces of the gods of light, especially Peterson and Morphy.

Excitement bloomed on their faces despite their shock.

"Kill him!"

With the use of the Triple Avatar Skill, Austin summoned two avatars by his side. Afterwards, he released the twenty-one deities and three heavenly dragons out of his body.

Swoop! Swoop! Swoop!

All three Austins moved at an astonishing speed and even their shadows were dazzling to look at.

"Austin! Go to hell!"

A roar ripped its way out of Colby's throat as he waved his hand. Eight Nether Pictures for Deceiving Heaven flew towards the sky, covering the heavens like eight dark clouds that constantly became bigger and were embed with dark runes.

Originally, there were nine Nether Pictures for Deceiving Heaven, but one of them fell into Austin's grasp. However, the combined power of the remaining eight was still terrifying and shouldn't be underestimated.

Meanwhile, Alston's strength was greatly impeded by the laws of the Fallen Divine Valley.

That was how Austin was able to defeat and kill Alston.

But now that he was out of the Fallen Divine Valley and was back at the three thousand big and small universes, the situation had changed.

There was no advantage for him in the chaotic void.

While Colby wasn't restricted at all!

It was a completely fair battle.

Both sides could display their full strength!

"Bastard, you narrowly escaped death.

There won't be a next time!"

A chilling cold filled Colby's every word. Without saying another word, he stood on top of the black coffin and stamped his foot. The coffin shot towards Austin.

Once again, the eight Nether Pictures for Deceiving Heaven enveloped Austin like thick dark clouds.

"Austin, you're no match for him. Get out of there.

Don't push yourself too hard!"

Peterson decided that Austin was weaker than Colby.

"Master, don't worry. I know what I'm doing!"

Austin replied.

"Maybe I won't need a next time. Maybe I'll kill you today."

Austin confidently strode towards Colby.

"Don't push yourself!

I admit that your strength is very strange.

Even an ordinary medium-grade divine god might not be able to defeat you that easy.

Unfortunately for you, you met me.

Do you really think you have even a snowball's chance in hell to defeat me?

Stop dreaming and get ready to die,"

Colby sneered.

"You're too confident.

But be careful."

Austin warned and appeared before Colby in the blink of an eye.

At that moment, something suddenly happened around them.

Dark clouds gathered above the chaotic void, constantly letting out loud rumbles of thunder and bright flashes of lightning.

A huge sea of thunder that spanned hundreds of millions of miles slowly appeared above Austin.

"What's going on?"

Everyone was a little confused and peered up at the terrifying sea of thunder above Austin's head.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3532 The Eighteen-colored Thunderbolt

Boom! Boom! Boom!

After a while, Austin felt that dark clouds were overlapping in the void—like an obsidian sea above his head.

Streaks of lightning as thick as mountains passed through the dark clouds. The force they brought was so violent that it would make people's scalp tingle with fear.

"What is happening?"

The scene was so daunting that even the people around felt that something was wrong. They turned their gaze on the vast skies, visibly concerned.

"Austin is about to make a breakthrough!

This is the Apotheosizing Doom!"

someone shouted. Everybody heard him.

"He is going to face the Apotheosizing Doom the second time!

What an amazing feat!

It's only been like three years since his last Apotheosizing Doom.

How could a person actually undergo two of these in just as a span of three years?

That's incredible!"

The divine gods around were flabbergasted. They exchanged opinions about this incredible achievement.

Every divine god knew how precious the Apotheosizing Doom was to a warrior.

Some Divine Realm warriors spent their whole lives cultivating and waiting for the Apotheosizing Doom. Even at the end of their lives, some of them never had the chance to go through it even once.

On the other hand, Austin was about to experience his second when he just had one three years ago.

To make things even more remarkable, everyone knew that Austin's breakthrough during the last Apotheosizing Doom was interrupted forcibly. As a result, he suffered a great loss, and his vital energy had become unstable, which caused him much damage.

Logically speaking, in such a situation, it was extremely difficult—impossible, even—for Austin to obtain another chance to become a god by break through the Apotheosizing Doom.

However, regardless of the odds stacked against him, he still made it. This made him an exception.

"What a freak he is! I can't think of anyone who can do this apart from him!"

"This guy seems to be destined to be a god!"

How could it be so easy for him to obtain the opportunity to break through the Heavenly Doom and become a god again and again?

It's too unfair for those who cultivate hard all their lives and can't become gods!"

People began to emotionally comment on Austin's achievement.

This even took the attention of some of the Divine Realm senior masters. They were in the three thousand big and small universes, closely watching this scenery from afar.

These masters held a grudge against Austin. It irked them to watch him undergo the Apotheosizing Doom again.

They were all powerful and terrifying.

They instantly engulfed Austin.

"Come on!

Come to me!"

Austin, enveloped by the colorful thunderbolts, raised his head and roared, trying his best to resist.

Then, streaks of lightning with chaotic energy constantly fell from the sky, as if they were about to destroy the whole world.

These multicolored thunderbolt and the chaotic lightning were both extremely terrifying. In a matter of seconds, Austin's body was covered with bruises and bleeding wounds, and his bones were even broken and exposed.

"Everyone, don't move. Let him fight against the Thunderstroke Doom first. When he is exhausted and at the most critical moment, we will immediately attack and cut off the process!"

Colby secretly sent a message to the people of the underworld.

The thoroughly-odd beast and the fire-disaster beast also gestured their people to wait for the best time to fight.

These divine gods were very familiar with the Apotheosizing Doom. So they knew when to make a fatal move to interrupt Austin and the destructive effect would be at its greatest!

"Humph! I will make you suffer from this Heavenly Doom!

Don't worry. Even if you don't come to me, I will reach out to you!"

Austin scoffed. His spiritual sense had already brought their reaction and plot back to him. He knew that they had plans to interrupt his breakthrough.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Black clouds flew over to Austin one after another, bombarding him with thick thunderbolts.

"Look!

There are actually eighteen colors. They are eighteen-colored thunderbolts!"

"Oh my! This is a kind of thunderbolt that only exists in legends. It actually appeared during Austin's breakthrough!

Is he going to create a miracle?"

The divine gods felt the hairs on their back stand. They were surprised. They thought these only happened in the legends.

"Everyone, get out of the way. The eighteen-colored thunderbolt is very frightening! It has a certain spirit. Once someone touches it, the consequences will be unimaginable!

Everyone, step back. Don't touch them!"

Some knowledgeable elders reminded everyone.

Everyone subconsciously stepped back, pulling themselves away.

At this moment, Austin suddenly roared.

"Don't you want to destroy my Apotheosizing Doom?"

Well, now, I'll give you a chance!

All of you, come to me!"

He rushed towards the people from the underworld, carrying tremendous energy. He was determined to wipe all of them out!

The Supreme God

Chapter 3533 I Will Bring Him Down Myself

Austin's eyes were cold and ruthless as he stared at the people of the underworld. There was a cruel sneer on his lips. He didn't think that they deserved any mercy let alone respect.

Whoosh!

Austin activated his bodily movement skill to the extreme. In a flash, he was among the people of the underworld.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Thunder rumbled and crackled as it aimed towards Austin.

Countless streaks of lightning gathered together and struck at Austin.

"Arrghhh!

Run now!"

Those who were standing close to Austin were hit and their bodies were either fried or blown to bits.

The weaker ones died on the spot as their spiritual souls stood no chance. They were also easily destroyed by the lightning.

"Come on, is this all of it? Can't it get any more interesting than this?"

"I'm not afraid of you!" Austin roared as he looked at the flashes of lightning.

With his sword in his hand, he threw a punch at the lightning with the other in a challenging manner.

The clouds seemed to have sensed Austin's provocation, and responded with more violent flashes.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

More streaks of lightning came out from the clouds and like a massive electric cage, they engulfed the space where Austin was standing.

"Look, that's the thirty-six-colored Thunderstroke Doom. The lightning appears in thirty-six colors!" someone exclaimed in disbelief.

It had never been seen by all of them before.

The crowd was shaken up as they looked at the multi-colored lightning bolts.

They had never even heard of it. What in the world was the thirty-six-colored Thunderstroke Doom? It was like a miraculous spectacle, beautiful yet deadly.

"Why is this guy's Apotheosizing Doom so different from the others? Is he some kind of an exceptional talent?"

someone remarked curiously.

"Aargh!

That freaking hurts.

Run! Get the hell out of here!"

The people of the underworld screamed in pain as they were hit by the fatal bolts one by one. Many divine gods who weren't fast enough and were hit by the lightning ended up sizzling to death and going up in smoke, some without a trace.

The smell of burnt flesh filled the air and hurt the lungs of anyone who was unfortunate enough to breathe it in.

The divine gods of the underworld desperately used their bodily movement skills and fled in all directions, anywhere just to get away from the merciless forked claws of the lightning bolts.

They couldn't defend themselves from the eighteen-colored lightning, not to mention the thirty-six-colored ones.

"Look, the terrifying lightning is coming at Austin again, but notice that he doesn't even dodge it. He's actually allowing it to hit him like it's nothing to him! What the hell is going on?"

"He is a monster!"

He is definitely a monster!"

Mixed exclamations of confusion, shock and anger rang out in the three thousand big and small universes.

All creatures stared at Austin who was engulfed by the lightning like it was nothing. There were no words to describe the shock all over their faces.

In such a short time, Austin had gotten rid of a dozen more gods of darkness and creatures from the isolated alien spaces. This was the noticeable pattern of how Austin would eliminate his enemies by small groups, all happening in less than a minute.

His victims were preliminary-grade divine gods and the masters at the Divine Realm.

"Austin, you are a heartless killer!" the thoroughly-odd beast and the fire-disaster beast uttered with untold hatred, as they glared at the young man with dagger-like looks.

Still not intimidated by what Austin could do, the two of them rushed over with several preliminary-grade divine gods in an attempt to stop Austin from hurting more of their men.

"Don't worry, Austin. We are here to help you!"

Peterson and Morphy had already taken their men to the thoroughly-odd beast, the fire-disaster beast and the medium-grade divine gods, blocking their way.

"Austin, I'm going to kill you!"

At this point, the devilish nether beast and Colby bolted towards Austin with the medium-grade divine gods of the underworld. They held furious looks on their faces.

"Don't panic, Austin. Let me help you!" Jarvis shouted.

He dashed forward and stopped in front of the devilish nether beast.

Austin, on the other hand, walked up to Colby.

The lighting fell from the sky and struck Austin continuously.

However, Austin looked as if nothing was happening. He even made it look like the lightning was part of his aura as he made his way towards Colby.

"This time, I'd like to see up close if you really have the ability to get in my way and screw up my becoming a divine god."

Austin stared at Colby coldly with a vicious smile and a strong killing intent.

"Austin, you want to take my life? You think you can do that? Ha-ha!

You are giving yourself too much credit!"

Colby stamped the coffin under his feet and rushed towards Austin with a booming noise.

"Austin, don't worry about him! Concentrate and try to get through the Thunderstroke Doom.

I'll take care of him!"

Devin shouted out to Austin abruptly.

"I'll be fine. You go and help me deal with other people.

I'll take care of this old bastard.

Today, I will bring him down myself! And it has to be today!
I will finish off him before the Apotheosizing Doom is over,"
Austin said slowly, with hard determination on his face.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3534 Kill Colby

In a blink of an eye, Austin suddenly appeared in front of Colby.

"Thunder, please be more violent!"

Austin attacked the black mass of clouds high above. The small purple sword along with a myriad of sword waves slashed into the sky.

Several huge clouds were cut in half with a single strike!

The dignity of the heaven was inviolable. The supreme enlightenment seemed to have sensed Austin's attack.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

As Austin expected, the thunderbolts became more violent. Each column of lightning carried a tremendous amount of energy which were aimed towards him.

Everyone was dumbfounded.

Others hoped that the Thunderstroke Doom would grow weaker and last shorter when they broke through the Heavenly Doom so that they could make it out as soon as possible.

However, Austin provoked it again and again like he thought it wasn't powerful enough.

As a result, the opposite happened. The Thunderstroke Doom became more and more powerful.

"Brat, aren't you afraid of dying from the Thunderstroke Doom?"

Colby tried to intimidate his opponent.

He was trying to regain his composure when Austin rushed towards him with thunderbolts.

Since he came from the underworld, most of his secret skills were related to ghosts and corpses.

But thunder was the fiercest and most violent energy in the world. It was somehow suppressing his own power.

"Ha-ha, I'm not afraid. Even if I die, I'll take you with me!

In fact, you're the one who should be afraid!"

Austin said as he let out a sinister laugh.

"Go to hell!"

He was acting quite arrogantly. Without hesitation, he rushed forward and raised his fist.

The small purple sword, together with the many purple sword waves, slashed towards Colby.

"Brat! Since you want to die so bad, I'll help you!"

Colby was irate. In response to Austin's cocky behavior, he waved the eight Nether Pictures for Deceiving Heaven midair. As they rose, they turned into eight dark clouds and tried to envelop the entire chaotic void.

Boom...

The coffin under his feet, with an overwhelmingly violent energy, dashed towards Austin.

Only a fool wouldn't admit that Colby was very powerful. He was one of the top masters among the medium-grade divine gods.

However, his attack had just begun.

The thunderbolts from the sky came crashing down towards him.

Meanwhile, Austin again appeared in front of him in an instant.

The space was instantly submerged by the densely packed lightning snakes.

Almost everything was covered in lightning

Boom...

The chaotic void shook violently. Battles between medium-grade divine gods were unimaginable. This usually caused the law of supreme enlightenment to rumble.

In the three thousand big and small universes, countless creatures were trembling in fear.

But they couldn't help but watch the fight between Austin and Colby in the sea of thunder. They wanted to know who would win.

Both of them were strong cultivators. They were head to head with one another.

"No matter who wins, Austin makes his name after this battle!

The creatures in the three thousand big and small universes will remember this battle.

This is the first time that a creature has fought against his enemy fiercely while going through his Apotheosizing Doom!

This is nothing short of a miracle.

And Austin did it!

His name will go down in the books for this feat!"

every creature mumbled to each other as they watched the ensuing battle.

They were in admiration of him!

Boom...

The battle was both fierce and crazy.

"Ah... This is unfair!

You only have me at the ropes because of the Thunderstroke Doom!
This is not a fair battle!"

Colby was very close to admitting defeat. After fighting a long, gruesome battle, he expected the Thunderstroke Doom to eventually weaken. But instead it steadily became more and more violent.

He kept cursing Austin in his heart because he had brought such a terrifying Apotheosizing Doom.

Colby continued to cough up blood as his face turned pale as chalk.

"Ha-ha, you want to talk about fairness with me?"

You are a medium-grade divine god, while I am only a cultivator at the Divine Realm.

When I broke through the Apotheosizing Doom last time, you wanted to destroy my chance to become a divine god.

How shameless of you!"

Austin laughed.

Bang!

While the battle was raging on, one of Austin's avatars quietly snuck behind Colby and punched him, which sent him flying.

Each of his three avatars could transform into his real body at any time.

Boom...

More than a dozen thunderbolts hit Colby. He gritted his teeth and smoke rose from his body.

Crack!

Austin took the opportunity to swing his purple sword and cut Colby's body in half.

"Ah! No!"

Colby could do nothing but scream in pain.

Boom...

Then, Austin unleashed a flurry of attacks.

Bang!

With one final punch, Austin smashed Colby's body into pieces along with his soul.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3535 Become A Divine God

"How dare you, Austin?" the devilish nether beast of the underworld roared at Austin in the distance.

It had tried to come to Colby's aid, but Morphy was swift enough to block its way. It couldn't do anything but watch Austin beat Colby to death.

"Noooo! No way! I can't believe Austin took out a medium-grade divine god just like that, right in the middle of breaking through his Apotheosizing Doom!"

All the powerful cultivators in the three thousand big and small universes were shocked to the core, unable to process in their minds what they had just witnessed.

Colby had planned to put an end to Austin's life while the latter was in the middle of the Apotheosizing Doom. Who would expect that he would end up being killed by Austin? It didn't help that Austin was able to kill Colby quite effortlessly.

After getting rid of Colby, Austin took over all his treasures. Then he looked up at the dark clouds in the sky.

"I am now in the middle of the Thunderstroke Doom," he murmured to himself.

The number of thunderbolts that were falling on him had gradually yet noticeably decreased.

Nonetheless, Austin didn't relax his vigilance knowing that the most difficult part of the Thunderstroke Doom hadn't started yet.

Soon after, the lightning and thunderbolts striking from the sky had completely stopped.

"Kill him!!"

All of a sudden, thousands of terrifying thunder creatures came out of dark clouds and dashed towards Austin.

Each of those thunder beings was amazingly powerful, and every single one of them had mastered a brilliant secret skill.

"Come on and bring it! You all think I'm afraid of you?"

Austin used all his tricks without reserve.

In a matter of seconds, he was engaged in a fight with the newly arrived thunder creatures. The battle was fierce and because of the sheer number of attackers, it lasted for several hours.

At one point, Austin was soaked in blood. His skin flayed open and his bones were exposed.

He knew that he was seriously injured.

But since he had already been through this in his last Apotheosizing Doom, Austin had done a better job than last time.

The next day, the dark clouds had begun to disperse.

By the time the sun had completely risen, they had all vanished into thin air.

"The next trial is called the Myriad Law Power Tribulation,"

Austin muttered to himself with a calm face while fluidly floating in the sky.

The Thunderstroke Doom was the first test in the Apotheosizing Doom.

No one dared to get in the way of Austin's breaking through the Heavenly Doom. They could only sit back and watch.

Even Colby of the underworld, who was a powerful medium-grade divine god, failed to distract Austin who at that time, was in the process of the Apotheosizing Doom. What was worse, he was killed by Austin on the spot.

No wonder the rest of the underworld didn't have the nerve to mess with Austin.

Just then, the chains of law power appeared out of thin air.

The chains were the manifestation of all the laws of nature.

Those chains of law power gathered together, forming a massive furnace. A mysterious power came out from it and had started pulling Austin in it.

Peterson encouraged his comrades.

"Hah! That's not gonna happen. I will make sure of it!

We will destroy that son of a bitch!" the devilish nether beast of the underworld bellowed with a stern face.

It produced powerful sound waves that rushed towards Austin.

Neither side budged.

It was true that the gods of light were outnumbered.

As a result, they were losing the battle and would run out of supplies soon.

They were forced to step back at the sheer number of their enemies.

However, they still stood their ground and the battle still went on.

All of a sudden and out of nowhere, a huge claw appeared over Austin's head.

Enveloped by black mist, it swiftly came at Austin, as if wanting to devour him.

"Ha-ha! This is how you die, Austin!"

A wild laughter rang out, and the devilish nether beast appeared above Austin.

It turned out that the devilish nether beast had used a secret spatial skill owned by the underworld that enabled it to sneak up on Austin without being noticed.

"Damn it!"

Peterson and Morphy noticed the devilish nether beast. Their faces turned pale in shock. Wasting no time, they dashed forward in an attempt to save Austin.

"It's too late!"

The devilish nether beast laughed wildly.

Its claw was approaching Austin's head.

Just when it was only a few inches away from Austin, Austin opened his eyes abruptly.

"Aaarrgh!"

It's time to become a divine god."

Austin threw his head back and roared.

Tremendous pillars of blinding power came out of his body.

Then a blazing divine fire spurted out from it.

The fire emitted beams of bright light that soared up into the sky.

"Yes! I have finally ignited the divine fire and I have become a divine god,"

Austin said with a smile, stretching the muscles in his arms then flexing them.

He then turned around to look at the devilish nether beast.

"You fool! Do you think you can lay a finger on me?" Austin said in a dismissive manner.

He suddenly stood up, and gave off a strong and massive aura that spread in all directions.

In the next second, he threw a punch at the beast.

The defining voice of nature rang out, shaking the chaotic void.

"Yes! Austin, you finally did it!" Peterson and Morphy gushed in chorus, extremely happy for Austin.

The two of them, as well as the other gods of light were elated when they found out that Austin had successfully become a divine god.

The Supreme God

"No... How can this be? Austin, you... you became a divine god?"

Sensing the high reserves of aura that surrounded Austin, the devilish nether beast immediately concluded him to be a divine god. The discovery of this fact made it lose its guard as it felt frustration well up inside of it by the sudden change of events.

The next moment, Austin's fist tackled against the claw of the devilish nether beast.

The sheer force exploding from the collision caused ripples across the air around them.

Crack!

The devilish nether beast was unable to withstand the pressure of the attack. As a result, its claw exploded, ripping away at its flesh and exposing its bones.

But Austin didn't seem to stop; he kept on increasing his strength to hit the devilish nether beast.

The excruciating pain ringing throughout its body from the impact made the devilish nether beast cry out in agony. The bone of its arm cracked under pressure as it stared at its battered arm in a pitiful state.

"Is that all you've got? It seems I may have overestimated your strength..." Austin taunted condescendingly.

Although he recently acquired the strength of a divine god, he was confident in himself. He didn't seem to care about the fact that the devilish nether beast was a medium-grade divine god. He showed no hint of fear while taking on it head-on. With his eyes burning with determination, he strode towards the beast, ready to take it out.

"G-go to hell!" The voice of the devilish nether beast cracked in response to its explosive anger.

"All of you! Retreat at once!" the devilish nether beast ordered its men before making its exit.

The sheer intensity of its voice shook the chaotic void.

Upon hearing this, the people of the underworld rushed to retreat in the direction of the entrance to the Underworld Cosmos.

Aside from the devilish nether beast, there were six other medium-grade divine gods in the crowd of the underworld.

However, once the devilish nether beast exchanged fists with Austin, it realized their current strength was insufficient to finish him off.

Feeling overpowered by Austin, it decided to retreat with its people.

"It's outrageous how you all think I'll let you get away just like that," Austin mocked as a mischievous smirk stretched across his face.

Taking a step forward to boost his speed, Austin went after the people of the underworld. Within a flash, he appeared behind one of the preliminary-grade divine gods. Before his prey could even register what was going on, Austin threw him a punch.

Caught off guard from a sudden attack, the preliminary-grade divine god was knocked off into the air as Austin's fist made contact with his body.

Austin too, was a preliminary divine god now.

However, he was in a league of his own. Those of his level could barely lay a finger on him.

After taking out one of them, Austin scanned his surroundings to scope out his next victim.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3537 People From The Divine Corpse Palace (Part Two)

One after another, Austin lined up the bodies of the preliminary-grade divine gods of the underworld.

As for the medium-grade divine gods of the underworld, they had already torn apart the same black rune papers that the devilish nether beast used to escape and thus teleported themselves elsewhere.

The black rune paper was an exclusive item only found in the underworld. Moreover, only the higher-ups or the important members had the privilege of access to them. Most preliminary-grade divine gods couldn't get their hands on them.

"Retreat! Now!"

Both the thoroughly-odd beast and the fire-disaster beast shouted their orders in unison, sounding more desperate with every casualty they faced at the hands of Austin.

"You owe me a ton as well. I won't let you get away that easy," Austin blurted out coldly, his voice devoid of all emotions.

Blindsided by his newly acquired power, he couldn't help but thrive on the thrill to hunt. He didn't seem to show any mercy or hesitation; he would stop at nothing or spare his enemies like this.

With that, Austin pushed his body forward and vanished from sight.

The next moment, he appeared behind the crowd of the gods of darkness. He balled his hands into a fist before he threw a punch at the preliminary-grade god who was stationed at the back of the team, killing him on the spot.

"Damn that guy! He won't stop. Just run!"

Chaos ensued as the gods of darkness, especially those preliminary-grade divine gods, grew more frantic as they feared for their lives. They scattered in all directions, trying to run away as far as they could. Each of them viewed Austin as a heartless killer running amok, hungry for their blood. They had lost their will to confront him in a battle.

But Austin refused to stop or hold back.

Like a killing machine barren of all feelings known to man, he slew his opponents one after the other, piling up their corpses in every direction he took.

Countless cultivators in the three thousand big and small universes fixed their eyes on Austin. They each wore an expression of shock mixed with awe.

Peterson remarked as he returned Morphy's stare without flinching.

As the chaos subsided and the air cleared up, the other members of the god of light side came up to Austin and congratulated him on becoming a divine god.

Responding with gratitude and respect, Austin cupped his hands and bowed politely.

When he was undergoing the Internal Demon Tribulation moments ago, those people acted as a shield to protect him.

Therefore, Austin felt grateful for their presence and contribution.

All of a sudden, several tall figures appeared out of thin air, each of them shrouded in black fabric.

"Earth to earth, dust to dust, ashes to ashes. Let bygones be bygones. May you now rest in peace," they chanted under their breath.

When they spoke, they collected the corpses of the preliminary-grade divine gods that floated helplessly in the chaotic void.

Since they were surrounded by a thick layer of mysterious gray mist, it was hard for Austin and the others to make out their features.

Austin observed silently with his eyebrows raised.

Just as he moved his lips to ask who they were, he was interrupted.

"Austin, leave them alone. They are from the Divine Corpse Palace, and they specialize in collecting the bodies of the divine gods.

The Divine Corpse Palace is a mysterious and powerful organization. It's quite famous around the entire Sea of Chaos.

For the time being, it's best if we maintain our distance from the people of the Divine Corpse Palace," Peterson warned Austin using his spiritual sense.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3538 The Banquet

In the chaotic void of the three thousand big and small universes, a few strange figures dressed in mourning clothes were collecting the corpses of the divine gods scattered in the void. It was a slow but careful process.

They gathered everything, picking up even the smallest pieces of smashed flesh and fragmented bones. They were especially skilled, collecting such remains before they spread out to unreachable places.

Austin watched the strange figures with a pair of cold eyes. If it hadn't been for the persuasion of Peterson and Morphy, Austin would have already stepped forward, questioned them and taken actions. He did not trust the strange figures even though they quietly did the gathering.

He waited in silence for a moment.

The chaotic void, which used to be full of broken limbs everywhere, had become empty now. The cleaners had done their job well.

"Ha-ha! Young man, don't be so angry.

If you keep yourself in such a mad mood, it will be easy for you to incur unnecessary troubles."

One of the strange figures gave a sinister smile to Austin before he left.

"You pieces of shit from the Divine Corpse Palace! You better not provoke me, or I will kill you all!"

Austin threatened while narrowing his eyes at the strange figures who were retreating in the distance. He couldn't put a finger on it but he always felt uncomfortable whenever they were around.

"Ha-ha..."

Several fits of gloomy and ice-cold laughter came from those fading figures as a reply to Austin.

"Forget it, Austin. We don't really need this now. We'd better not provoke the people from the Divine Corpse Palace, don't you think so?"

Morphy said.

"But the Divine Corpse Palace is so arrogant. They're getting on my nerves. I want to teach them a lesson and put them in their place. They must come to the three thousand big and small universes with an evil purpose. I'm sure that they are plotting something.

Especially that hideous palace of theirs. They have erected it there for several years and they are much too proud of it. Their behavior and attitude toward everyone is too annoying. And worse, those damn bastards from the Divine Corpse Palace show no respect. They despise the three thousand big and small universes so much,"

Austin said with a frown while pointing at the huge palace floating in the void at the edge of the three thousand big and small universes.

The black palace stood imposingly in the chaotic void outside the edge of the three thousand big and small universes, shrouded in a tremendous lethal aura. Blood of different colors flowed down endlessly from the walls without any signs of stopping. It was obvious that they were never short of blood and had an endless supply of it.

Various kinds of images of ferocious totems were carved on all sides, augmenting its gloom and eeriness. One could only guess what was going on inside.

The palace of the Divine Corpse Palace had been floating over the same spot ever since it appeared, not moving a single inch.

"That's how the Divine Corpse Palace behaves all the time. It shows up whenever a large number of corpses of divine gods appear in the Sea of Chaos. They come unannounced, without any courtesy, as if they were in their own backyards. They appear in public with obviously dark purposes,"

Peterson said with a wry smile.

At this time, all over the chaotic void, the gods of darkness and the creatures of the isolated alien spaces and the underworld were nowhere to be found. They had all left without a trace. Only the gods of light remained in this space.

"Austin, I think it is best that we go back to our base camp first,"

Peterson said.

Austin said to console the chaotic world tree.

"How is the situation in the Fallen Immortal Cosmos now?"

Austin asked.

"I'm glad you asked. It has been very good.

Now it is a middle-grade universe, and it is slowly evolving into a high-grade universe!

Of course, it would take some time for it to become a real high-grade universe.

But don't worry. I'm here to help it.

My roots have stretched out all over the universe community. They take root into the depths of the chaotic void and absorb a large amount of chaotic energy. The Fallen Immortal Cosmos is nourished all the time because of this.

I am sure that it won't take a long time for the Fallen Immortal Cosmos to evolve into a high-grade universe. It's just a matter of time," the chaotic world tree said.

"That's great."

Austin was very happy to hear that.

In the past, the Fallen Immortal Cosmos held the reputation of being a rubbish universe. It was almost ranked at the bottom of the list among the three thousand big and small universes.

But now, it had become stronger and stronger with each passing day with the goal of becoming a high-grade universe!

"Oh, by the way, many Divine Realm cultivators in the Fallen Immortal Cosmos have already developed and earned the potential to become divine gods. There will be many divine gods soon," the chaotic world tree added.

"Really? That's very good to know!"

Austin was both surprised and pleased.

He had always wanted as many divine gods to appear in the Fallen Immortal Cosmos as possible!

"It's not really a big deal. It is natural for a medium-grade cosmos to produce a small number of divine gods.

Moreover, with my help, the quality of the Fallen Immortal Cosmos is already higher than any other medium-grade universes. The vast improvement is remarkable!

So it's no longer surprising to see that many divine gods in the Fallen Immortal Cosmos," the chaotic world tree exclaimed while curling its lips.

"That's right!"

Austin nodded.

"Okay. For now, I'll go back to the Fallen Immortal Cosmos to have a check."

Austin decided to postpone his cultivate in seclusion for the time being. After his conversation with the chaotic world tree, he wanted to go back to the Fallen Immortal Cosmos to have a look first.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3539 Current Situation Of Fallen Immortal Cosmos

Inside the Fallen Immortal Cosmos, Kevin was informing their people of Austin's situation.

"Calm down, everyone. Don't panic. I just got the news from the chaotic world tree that the looming disaster has been solved. There is no need to leave the three thousand big and small universes anymore!"

Kevin announced to the crowd with glee.

Everyone cheered in joy upon hearing the announcement.

"Also, I've got a piece of even better news.

Austin is back!"

he added with a wide grin on his face.

"Really? Austin is already back! That's great!

It feels so unreal!"

The senior leaders of the Fallen Immortal Cosmos let out a sigh of relief.

Austin was adored by everyone at the Fallen Immortal Cosmos since he served as their protector and leader. No one would know what they would do without him.

They believed that they could overcome any difficulty as long as Austin was with them.

"Master Kevin, is he really back, safe and sound?"

Caroline, Ivy, and Sue couldn't help but ask Kevin a second time. The excitement of meeting Austin again had their hearts pumping.

"Yes, don't worry anymore. He has come back, alive and kicking. I believe he will soon return to the Fallen Immortal Cosmos,"

Kevin answered with a smile.

Everyone was eagerly waiting for Austin's arrival

A few hours later, a figure slowly emerged from the starry sky of the Fallen Immortal Cosmos.

It was none other than Austin.

"The spiritual energy here is so rich and dense! And the law of supreme enlightenment seems to have been perfected."

Austin was filled with pride as he released his spiritual sense to know the situation in the entire Fallen Immortal Cosmos.

The chaotic world tree was right. The Fallen Immortal Cosmos was now a middle-grade universe. Not only that, it was also the most advanced middle-grade universe out there.

"Austin, you're back!"

Kevin exclaimed as he saw Austin.

While Austin was away, Kevin, with the help of Peterson, Morphy, and other divine gods, had successfully refined the original energy essence of the Fallen Immortal Cosmos.

Now, he had become the real master of the Fallen Immortal Cosmos.

But Austin still held a special place in it, being the nominal owner.

Austin couldn't help but laugh at her childish behavior.

"Gnome, you have reached the premium stage of Divine Realm as well.

Not bad,"

Austin commented as he shifted his look to gnome.

"You bet. But you don't need to speak it out. After all, my strength is nothing compared to yours," the gnome replied with pouted lips.

"Little silkworm, you... Judging from your aura, you're going to have a break through right now!"

Austin exclaimed as he looked at the divine silkworm besides the gnome.

The divine silkworm had transformed into a human being. It had turned to a handsome young man, graceful and stylish.

The aura emanating from his body was very fierce and intimidating as transparent waves circled around him. A loud whistling sound was heard coming out from his body.

Austin could tell that what was happening to the divine silkworm was a sign of breakthrough.

The divine silkworm was now at the premium stage of Divine Realm. Soon, he would become a preliminary-grade divine god!

'No wonder the chaotic world tree just told me that a divine god would soon appear in the Fallen Immortal Cosmos.

It turns out that it's the divine silkworm, '

Austin thought to himself, overjoyed.

"Yes, I have vaguely felt my cultivation was bottlenecking these past days. And it seems that the critical time is coming,"

the divine silkworm responded and nodded.

"Here you are. Take them. You can use them when you break through."

With a wave of his hand, Austin took out a Space Ring and handed it to the divine silkworm.

This Space Ring contained a large number of rare treasures from heaven and earth, divine pills, divine crystals, and all kinds of precious treasures.

These treasures were all obtained by Austin while he was travelling in the Fallen Divine Valley. For a warrior at the Divine Realm, the value of these treasures were simply unimaginable.

"Now I'm infusing all my experiences and insights I attained when I underwent the Apotheosizing Doom into your Soul Sea. Use them wisely."

Austin waved his finger and a beam of light shot into the divine silkworm's Soul Sea.

"Austin, you're finally back!

You have to take revenge for me!"

Out of the blue, a tall old man in silver clothes appeared in the starry sky. He crazily ran towards Austin with fear on his face.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3540 A Blessing In Disguise

"Heavenly Majestic Pot?

It really is you!"

Surprise bloomed on Austin's face.

"Brat, I can't go back home now. I heard my headquarters was smashed into pieces by the cronies of those gods of darkness.

You must avenge me!"

Soon, the Heavenly Majestic Pot strode towards Austin. His tall and strong frame clad in silver clothes, coupled with his square face, made him seem even more intimidating

"Look at you! I almost mistook you for someone else. You're a man of charisma now."

Appreciation lit up on Austin's face as he looked at the Heavenly Majestic Pot from head to toe.

"I don't need you to tell me that. I know I'm charming.

Don't change the topic!"

The Heavenly Majestic Pot rolled his eyes at Austin.

"Rest assured.

I'll throw those gods of darkness out of the Heaven God Cosmos and help you get your headquarters back. You have my word."

Austin smiled at him in assurance.

"It's good that you're not ungrateful.

Let's go!"

Impatience colored the Heavenly Majestic Pot's voice.

"Come on! I just came back. Give me a break!

I'll go there with you in a few days,"

Austin groaned.

Although the Heavenly Majestic Pot was anxious to get his headquarters back, he had no choice but to agree.

After their conversation, Austin pulled out many cultivation resources and distributed them among the senior leaders of the Fallen Immortal Cosmos.

Being in the Fallen Divine Valley had been very lucrative for him.

Moreover, since he slaughtered a myriad of divine gods, he managed to collect all their treasures for himself.

Right now, Austin's cumulative wealth was beyond everyone's wildest imagination.

Although he didn't really think about how many cultivation resources and treasures he now owned, he felt that he'd never run out of it.

Since the Fallen Immortal Cosmos was under Austin's control and all the high-level leaders were his trusted subordinates, he wouldn't ever be stingy to them. Without any hesitation, he handed each of them with a lot of cultivation resources in the hopes that it could help them improve their powers.

Trepidation and joy filled him as his eyes settled where he last saw Austin before he disappeared.

"Everyone, come here. Leader Austin gave us these treasures. We all have a share in it," the middle-aged man declared to his men after a moment's thoughts.

As everyone gathered around him, he took out everything inside the Space Ring and distributed it among them.

'He's a good person.'

Austin nodded to himself as he sensed the middle-aged man's actions.

"Violet, I need you to do something for me. Tell the high-level leaders to pay more attention to his cultivation. He'll be a useful person to our Immortal End World,"

Austin instructed.

"On it.

His mistake turned out to be a blessing in disguise."

A smile pulled on Violet's lips.

Never would the middle-aged man have expected that such a small event would change his life. After that day, the Immortal End World put in extra resources for his training and he made rapid progress in his cultivation. Eventually, he managed to become one of the top masters in the Fallen Immortal Cosmos.

That was the story of the middle-aged man's life after he met Austin.

After Austin gave his orders to Violet, he also sent Kevin a message about the Immortal End World through his spiritual sense.

According to Kevin, the spiritual energy in the Immortal End World became denser in the past few years. Lots of cultivators from the other worlds in the Fallen Immortal Cosmos wanted to settle down and become a citizen of the Immortal End World.

Since the Immortal End World's territory was limited, they couldn't accommodate more immigrants. That was why they decided to cut off immigrants from the outside and prevent outsiders from entering.

"I see... In that case, allow only talented young cultivators to come in,"

Austin ordered after considering the situation for a while.

Afterwards, Austin went back to the Flame Holy Land with Caroline and the others.

Elder Sharp immediately held a feast to welcome Austin's return to their headquarters.

For the next few days, Austin remained in the Flame Holy Land's headquarters.

All three of his wives kept him company as they couldn't bear to separate with him even for a second.

Since Austin felt guilty that he didn't have much time to be with his wives, he did everything he could to make them happy.

Meanwhile, his three wives felt like they were the happiest women in the world just by being next to him.

Five days peacefully passed.

"Austin, don't spend all your time with women. Don't forget that you promised to help me get my headquarters back," the Heavenly Majestic Pot suddenly reminded Austin through his spiritual sense.

"Of course. Let's pay a visit to the Heaven God Cosmos today,"

Austin agreed.

"Then what are we waiting for?"

"Let's go!"

A bright smile lit up the face of the Heavenly Majestic Pot.
