Chapter 3551 Please Give Caroline Back To Me

Hearing what Oswald had just said, Austin got excited.

"So, where are Caroline and the others?" he asked as he stared at Oswald with expectant eyes.

"Hmm. Austin, do you know who made that gray hand?"

It was Thad. Thad did that,"

Oswald said.

"What? Are you sure?"

Austin was taken aback. He couldn't believe what he had just heard.

As he recalled what had happened, it occurred to him that the gray hand that had gone after him emitted strong evil energy and was surrounded by a gray mist.

Whenever the members of the evil shadow race activated their secret skills, the evil energy and the gray mist appeared.

"So... Thad supports the gods of darkness?!" Austin blurted out.

His brows furrowed at the thought.

"I'm afraid so.

He is indeed one of the top masters of the gods of darkness," Oswald confirmed with a nod.

He looked at the expression on Austin's face as he informed him of the situation.

"Seriously? I never would've reckoned that Thad is from the gods of darkness..."

This unexpected news left Austin dumbfounded.

'My wife's ancestor works for the gods of darkness. I guess things are about to get more complicated.' Austin frowned at his own thought.

"Priest Callum of the evil shadow race said that everyone in their race felt the call from their ancestor. Then, in that case, was it really Thad who summoned them?"

Austin crossed his arms as he made some speculation.

"Most probably.

Thad might have used some secret skill to summon his descendants when he came back.

All the members of the evil shadow race sensed it, so now they've set off to look for their ancestor,"

Oswald said in response.

Austin knew that what Oswald said made total sense.

"I bet they are with Thad now. Would that be a good thing or a bad thing?"

Austin couldn't mask his worry.

"Hmm. Who knows?"

Maybe that would be best for some of the members. I guess they'd feel safer. As for Caroline...

Once Thad and the other gods of darkness find out that she's your wife, things might take a turn for the worse."

He stood still and unflustered.

"Ha-ha! Are you out of your mind, Frost?

That's ridiculous! What makes you think Thad would do what you asked?

Snap out of it! Even if he does have someone you want, I bet he won't even let you get near them, much less take them away!

Just cut the crap, Frost. Now, show me what you can do."

Baham reeked of insolence as he laughed wildly. He seemed to be pleased with his own reply.

Just then, a voice suddenly came from the stronghold of the gods of darkness.

"Frost, you can go ahead and leave now.

I know exactly who you want from me.

However, I think it's best that you forget it.

Austin, listen. From now on, Caroline has nothing to do with you."

Although it was just a voice, they all knew it belonged to Thad.

Austin composed himself and took a step forward. He pleaded with due respect.

"Sir, this is between me and you. She shouldn't get involved.

Now, please give Caroline back to me."

"Wait. That's Austin Lin!"

The divine gods of the god of darkness side and those of the isolated spaces were all surprised to see Austin.

"Thad, is that true? Are you really keeping someone Austin wants?

Ha-ha! That's awesome!

Now we can easily take Austin down."

Baham burst out laughing.

This time, Austin was struggling to keep his composure.

"Sir, what good would it do to you if you don't give her back to me?"

At the sound of Austin's insistence, the voice snorted in derision.

"Austin, you have to know. You are not good for her.

Caroline is the princess of our race, and you are just a stranger to her now.

Just come to terms with it and get going."

Hearing this, Austin had lost all his temper.

"Sir!

I assure you, if anything happens to Caroline, I will avenge her!" Austin bellowed.

"Ha! The audacity of this kid. How dare you threaten me? I don't think you have any idea what you're doing.

But don't you worry. If you stop bothering her from this point forward, I won't kill her. Instead, I will treat her like my own daughter.

However, if you continue harassing her, do not blame me for what I would do to you.

Consider yourself warned." Thad sounded ominous.

The Supreme God

"Get your ass over here, Thad!"

Austin roared.

However, no voice came from inside the stronghold.

"Austin, let's go back first,"

Frost said with a sigh.

"Hey, don't worry. I know Thad. He's a decent man, unlike the other cruel evil bastards from the god of darkness side.

Plus, your wife is his descendant. I believe he wouldn't hurt her,"

Oswald added.

Austin glared at the towering fortress for a while before agreeing with the others. He left with the three premium-grade divine gods.

Meanwhile, inside the stronghold of the gods of darkness and creatures from the isolated alien spaces.

"Thad, it turns out that Austin's wife is your descendant. This makes things so much easier!

We can make that girl our hostage and force Austin to surrender himself!"

Baham said to Thad excitedly.

The second those words left Baham's lips, Thad shot him a petrifying glance.

"Take that back right now and I'll give you another chance.

But if you dare to mention this ludicrous idea again, then don't blame me for what's going to happen to you!" Thad warned.

A strong evil energy suddenly emanated from him which made Baham's spine tingle.

"Alright, alright, Thad, don't be so serious. I didn't mean that,"

Baham replied, scared.

He knew what Thad was capable of. If someone rubbed him the wrong way, he would surely punish that person.

Thad's anger turned into disappointment as he glanced at Baham, turned around and left.

"Humph! He is always so stubborn.

Silas, forget everything that Thad said. Let's take Austin's wife ourselves,"

Baham said to Silas through his spiritual sense.

"What are you thinking about, Baham? You want to provoke Thad? Do you have a death wish?"

Silas was taken aback by his bold proposal.

She raised her head and bravely looked at Thad in the eye.

Thad's eyes were piercing and commanding.

Caroline felt weight of numerous mountains on her.

However, she gritted her teeth and didn't yield.

"Alas! Caroline, don't you know that I have placed high hopes on you?

You have merged with the spiritual soul energy of our true ancestor—Basil. The power of his energy running in your vein is no less than mine.

You might even go farther in cultivation than I did.

You are the future of the evil race.

Can't you just listen to me for the sake of our people?"

Thad's tone suddenly softened.

He revealed that the evil shadow race was actually called the evil race.

And Thad was not the real ancestor!

The true ancestor of the evil race was a man called Basil who lived a long, long time ago.

Basil had been born before the separation of the earth and sky. At that time, countless universe communities in the Sea of Chaos hadn't been created.

Thad was only his disciple.

Back then, Basil had put a portion of his blood into Thad's body. Thanks to his blood, Thad had progressed rapidly and became a premium-grade divine god in only a short time.

Since then, Basil disappeared without anyone knowing where he was.

The evil race was his offspring. Before he disappeared, he left them in the Sea of Chaos.

In the past few days, Thad had entrusted all the members of the evil shadow race with the secret about their race.

After hearing his story, everyone in the evil shadow race knew more about their race.

"If that's the case then please extract our ancestor's spiritual soul energy from me and plant it into another member's body.

I just want to come back to my husband.

Please,"

Caroline pleaded.

"Stop talking nonsense.

Do you think just anyone can integrate with our ancestor's spiritual soul energy?

Only those who are close to him and have great talent can do that.

Caroline, only you can do that."

Thad's patience was growing shorter by the minute.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3553 Wait For Me

"You don't have to say anything more. I won't change my mind,"

Caroline stated, completely unmoved.

"Caroline, you..."

Although Thad used all the tricks up his sleeve, not a single one worked at all. Unbearable anger filled him and he couldn't do anything but grit his teeth.

"Ancestor, Austin's a good man.

As a matter of fact, our clan have received a lot of favor and support from him in the past."

Even Caroline's mother, Lady Nathalie, plucked up the courage to softly offer her own assurance.

Moreover, she knew it was impossible to separate Caroline and Austin. Since she didn't want her daughter to suffer unnecessary pain, she gathered the courage to speak.

"Enough! Stop it!

Caroline, I'll give you some time to think about it.

I hope you'll understand me!"

Thad shouted.

With a wave of his hand, a terrible law power enveloped Caroline and quickly whisked her away from sight.

"Caroline... Where is she going?"

Lady Nathalie murmured.

"Don't worry. She's fine.

I infused a cultivation method into her Soul Sea and sent her away to meditate and cultivate it.

She's the apple of my eye. I must train her well,"

Thad calmly explained to ease her worries.

A wisp of Basil's spiritual soul energy was inside Caroline's body. Additionally, her talent was nothing to sneeze at. There was no way that Thad would ever hurt her. He would cultivate her with all his strength instead.

"Nathalie, don't worry. Ancestor is very kind to Caroline. He won't harm a hair on her head," the Evil Shadow King secretly whispered to Lady Nathalie.

"I know! I'm just too worried about Caroline. I don't need you to remind me."

Lady Nathalie snapped at her husband.

Meanwhile, a storm was brewing in the headquarters of the gods of light.

Not a single word left Austin ever since he came back.

Fury filled him at the thought that he couldn't protect his beloved woman.

Both excitement and shock filled Kevin.

"That's right.

Now the members of the evil shadow race are with their ancestor, so is Caroline.

The ancestor of the evil shadow race was actually a god of darkness.

So now, all the members of the evil shadow race, including Caroline, are in the base camp of the gods of darkness,"

Austin explained tiredly.

After saying his piece, Austin took a step forward and disappeared in an instant.

"What? How can that be?!"

It was like a bomb dropped in front of them. Everyone was shocked because of Austin's words.

"The ancestor of the evil shadow race is a god of darkness.

Caroline's in the base camp of the gods of darkness right now. What... What's going on?"

Violet's mouth gaped in surprise, and her mind was in a daze.

While the rest were trying to digest what he said, Austin had already arrived at the depths of the starry sky in the Fallen Immortal Cosmos. He immediately sat down cross legged.

"Caroline, don't worry. Just wait for me.

I'll definitely bring you back!

Just you wait and see, Thad. You'll regret this!"

Austin murmured, with a terrifyingly blank expression settling over his face.

"I'm still too weak.

I can barely put up a fight against an ordinary medium-grade divine god.

In the face of a premium-grade divine god, I'll be even weaker than an ant!

All I need to do is to make myself stronger!"

Austin firmly declared.

"In terms of realms, I'm a preliminary-grade divine god now. If I want to break through to be at least a medium-grade divine god, I still need to spend lots of time to cultivate. I have no idea how long it'll take for me to break through."

Austin began to study himself to make a plan.

The higher a cultivator's realm became, the more difficult it would be for him to break through.

"If I want to quickly improve my fighting power, I have to start with secret martial arts skills.

Actually... I'm already good at a secret technique that no one else knows, the Earth Exploring Technique!"

Austin assured himself.

Once he took stock of his current abilities, he waved his hand to make hundreds of books fly out of his Space Ring and settle in front of him.

These hundreds of books were bought from different bookstore in the Brilliant Kingdom after Austin returned to Earth.

Each ancient book contained information about geography and geomancy passed down from the ancient Brilliant Kingdom.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3554 Elliot's Men Came Back

Whoosh!

Austin made a simple wave with his hand. As an immediate response, the Kaleidoscopic Compass flew out and floated in front of him, waiting for his command.

The Kaleidoscopic Compass was a genuine legendary divine weapon that he was able to acquire while he was going through the challenges in the Fallen Divine Valley.

"I know how to perform the Earth Exploring Technique. I have become quite the expert in it. This is my unique advantage because other people know nothing about it.

If I want to further improve my fighting skills, I have to be good at identifying my advantages and make the most use of them.

This is awesome! From now on, I will cultivate in seclusion and study the Earth Exploring Technique. I will focus my full attention to it in order to grasp the earth forming skill in the Earth Exploring Technique."

Looking at the hundreds of ancient books in front of him as well as the Kaleidoscopic Compass, Austin declared his ambitions with a decisive look. It would not be the most difficult thing he had done.

What happened to Caroline had hit him hard.

It was not until that time that he genuinely realized how weak he had been. He even couldn't even protect his beloved woman.

This terrible feeling made him extremely depressed, his guilt eating away into his conscience.

It also made him realize that with his current strength, he would not be able to protect those that he wanted to protect in such a chaotic world.

"I must master the earth forming skill!!"

He took another deep breath before he again declared with such determination in his eyes.

Then, under the control of his mind, one of the ancient books flew to him, and stopped to float in front of his face just a few inches from his eyes. Then it opened as pages began to turn themselves one after another.

Austin put all other distracting thoughts aside and focused on reading the ancient books.

Outside the secret chamber, three beautiful women had already arrived. They were all sitting cross legged outside the secret room. Worry was clearly written all over their delicate faces.

They were none other than Ivy, Sue, and Violet.

At this moment, although not a single word was spoken among them, the three of them were secretly communicating with each other through their spiritual senses.

"What happened to Caroline is a big blow to him. I don't think he could ever forgive himself, let alone those who were actually responsible.

Guys, what should we do to make him feel better, even for just a bit?

Why don't we go inside and talk to him?"

Sue suggested in a concerned tone.

Even though it seemed like the endless light was shining from hundreds of millions of miles away, it illuminated every corner of the three thousand big and small universes.

All the creatures felt the magnificent and noble aura coming from outside the three thousand big and small universes. Feeling the wonderful touch of the ethereal light, their hearts were filled with glee.

The next moment, an incomparably dignified middle-aged man, wearing an ornate robe and a delicate crown on his head approached from afar. His entire form emitted an indescribable and majestic aura. Behind him were a young boy and a young girl.

There was also a woman who was dignified as well with a kind face accompanying him.

A large group of divine gods surrounded the man and the woman and slowly walked into the three thousand big and small universes.

"Look! It's the Jade Emperor! And Queen Siobhan! They are back!"

Exclamations of shock were heard continuously.

Everyone stared in awe at what looked like the perfect family.

"Welcome, Jade Emperor, and Queen Siobhan!"

The medium-grade divine gods including Peterson and Otis, together with other gods of light, hurried forward to welcome them.

"Thank you. You must have suffered a lot during our absence.

Let's get settled first,"

the Jade Emperor said with a smile to the divine gods who came to welcome them.

Still followed by their constituents, they returned to the base camp of the gods of light.

The return of the Jade Emperor and Queen Siobhan thrilled and excited everyone. As a result, they felt their power and energy become stronger.

For a moment, the gods of darkness and those from the isolated alien spaces, even those from the underworld became low-key.

It was well known that the Jade Emperor and Queen Siobhan were two powerful warriors of a different and much higher level!

However, the imbalance was soon broken.

A month later, another unexpected thing happened.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

An endless malicious aura, raging like angry waves, suddenly spread from the distant chaotic void to the direction of the three thousand big and small universes.

Then, amidst the surging malicious aura, dozens of tall and ferocious figures appeared and slowly walked towards the three thousand big and small universes.

Each figure towered into the clouds. They were so heavy that the grounds shook with every step, as if they could crush anything under them.

There were eighty one figures in total!

"Look! Elliot's eighty-one subordinates are back!"

Everyone pointed and stared in shock at the eighty one ferocious, tall figures surrounded by their malicious auras.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3555 Become A Genuine Earth Master (Part One)

Countless masters in the three thousand big and small universes couldn't help but fix their eyes on the eighty-one powerful and frightening men. When they looked at them, a cold shiver ran down their spines.

These were Elliot's eighty-one loyal followers. Each of them had great strength and prowess. They were fearless, excellent soldiers who would do whatever command Elliot gave them.

"All of Elliot's eighty-one men have already returned. It looks like Elliot himself would be back shortly.

Once he is back, it also means that Hackett would also follow soon.

This is bad. It seems that all the core leaders of the gods of darkness are already preparing to arrive!

I guess a horrifying war would be inevitable at that point," some strong cultivators murmured to themselves.

"Greetings, sirs! We have been waiting for your arrival," those gods of darkness greeted Elliot's men as they saw them from the distance.

They had been waiting in the chaotic void and were anticipating their return.

"Ha-ha! This is great!

Now that they're here, we don't need to worry about a thing! Soon, even Master Elliot will return." Several gods of darkness couldn't help but laugh devilishly.

"Those bastards from the light side better be ready. They are about to meet their doom!" a god of darkness roared as he looked at the direction of the stronghold of the gods of light.

Their eyes were full of killing intent. It was as if they were already prepared and yearning to battle it out against the gods of light.

The return of Elliot's men definitely boosted their morale that they were all excited for war.

Meanwhile, in the headquarters of the gods of light, Queen Siobhan and the other gods of light also got a hold of the information that Elliot's subordinates had come back.

"Elliot's men are already here, huh?

In the blink of an eye, a couple of years had already passed.

One day, a scout of the god of light side, who was responsible for keeping an eye at the stronghold of the gods of darkness, came back bearing a piece of important news.

"Sir, those gods of darkness have taken action.

A large group of divine gods were sent to the Yellow Cosmos. From what it looked like, it appears that they were setting up numerous arrays.

They are tightly safeguarding the place in terms of their sheer number. It's as if they want to make sure that no one can interfere with what they are doing," the scout reported.

"What? That's so suspicious!"

The Jade Emperor, Queen Siobhan, and the other masters raised their eyebrows as they heard the information.

With this, the premium-grade divine gods quickly released their spiritual sense to check what was going on in the Yellow Cosmos.

"Humph! They're up to something!"

They have set up several Isolation Arrays around the Yellow Cosmos to prevent others from perceiving what is truly going on inside the cosmos.

The scout is right. They're up to something and they don't want to be discovered,"

Frost snorted after examining the Yellow Cosmos.

"It must have something to do with the evil baby. This is worrying. We have to go there immediately and have a look!"

We can't let them outsmart us," the Jade Emperor said with a fiery expression on his face.

The other divine gods got up too and were ready to go. If their hunch was right, they had no time to waste.

The main reason why several masters of the gods of darkness had started coming back was that they learned that the evil baby was about to come out.

The same went for the gods of light. They became wary because the evil baby had the power to destroy the three thousand big and small universes.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3556 Become A Genuine Earth Master (Part Two)

Therefore, the birth of the evil baby meant a lot for both forces.

Immediately after, Queen Siobhan and the Jade Emperor left the stronghold of the gods of light, together with their subordinates, and started rushing towards the Yellow Cosmos.

As they were approaching the cosmos, a sudden vicious laugh resounded from the chaotic void.

"You're here already? Ha-ha! I knew that you won't be able to stand idly and watch, but that's as far as you can go! You will not get past us!"

Then, strong evil energy began materializing. More and more people from the god of darkness side with malicious auras rushed out from the void and stood in the way of the group of the gods of light.

The army of the gods of darkness and the creatures from the isolated alien spaces was led by dozens of intimidating tall men. They all had heads that were as hard as iron, and each of them gave off a malevolent aura.

In this area just outside the Yellow Cosmos, the troops of the gods of light and the gods of darkness faced off.

Soon after, an intense atmosphere enveloped the area.

"What are you doing in the Yellow Cosmos?!"

Oswald shouted sternly with an atrocious look in his eyes.

"Do you really think we'll tell you that? Are you stupid? I don't have the time to waste on talking with you. Get lost or let's get this started!"

One of the tall, fierce-looking men stepped forward and sneered at the army of the gods of light. He acted in a domineering manner and was absolutely fearless even in front of the top masters of the opposing force.

He was one of Elliot's eighty-one loyal followers. He was muscular, and his skin emitted a dazzling metallic luster that made him look like he was made of copper.

"Did you forget that the Yellow Cosmos has been our territory since ancient times?"

You get out of our way right now, or else, you'll regret it!"

Frost declared mightily as he stepped forward.

Then, another tall man from the god of darkness side got out from the crowd. "The Yellow Cosmos was your territory.

Austin commanded again.

This time, the Kaleidoscopic Compass had been floating above Austin's head. The mysterious runes contained in it moved quickly like a school of fish vigorously swimming in a river.

Each rune emanated luminous lights.

Soon after, the power of the earth law began to control the void.

Numerous floating law fragments continuously intertwined and merged with each other.

The law fragments drew energy from the void as they formed.

Then, all kinds of elements in the air began to gather, condense, and take Austin's desired shape under the effect of the law of earth.

Gradually, grains of soil, grit, and small stones appeared in the void.

As the amount of gravel and mud increased steadily, a small field began forming.

Initially, the diameter of the landmass was about a meter.

Then, it expanded at an incredible rate.

About half a day later, the land formed already had a diameter of several kilometers.

It floated at the center of the secret chamber, constantly moving up and down.

It appeared to be a deserted land with nothing but sand on it.

Furthermore, it didn't belong to any terrain. It had its own identity and composition.

Most of all, it was Austin's work. He successfully created it through his comprehension of the law of earth.

Looking at his creation, he was fully contented.

"Finally!

Now, I could be considered as a genuine Earth Master!"

Austin muttered to himself with a huge grin on his face.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3557 Creating The Continent

Inside the secret chamber, Austin applauded when he saw the floating land in front of him. It was a small piece of land with a diameter of several miles.

"Hmm, maybe I can make it broader," he murmured as his eyes twinkled with glee.

He then continuously employed some formulas to activate the law of earth.

Just as Austin activated some laws, the piece of land began to expand and grow thicker and wider.

Thud!

In the starry sky of the Fallen Immortal Cosmos, endless vital energy and bright lights gathered in front of Austin's secret room and integrated into the land in front of him.

Not long after, the land expanded from a few miles in diameter to a dozen miles wide. The augmentation kept going since Austin didn't lift his spell.

Another day later, he checked the land. His mouth fell open when he saw what was awaiting him.

"Whoa! That seems like hundreds of miles wide now!"

He was blown away by the fact that he had created a small piece of land, but after just a day, it had enlarged to about six hundred miles in diameter.

"This land is completely under my control. If it responds to my every decision, then I can definitely change the climate on this land with my own mind,"

Austin murmured to himself as he felt the intensity of the endless law of earth.

"Rain!"

he yelled softly, trying to prove his theory.

All of a sudden, the water on the land began to drift into the air and formed clouds above the land. When the water droplets filled the clouds, it started raining.

"Now, wind!"

Austin shouted with excitement. He raised and waved his arms as though he was orchestrating the weather.

Whoosh!

The air on the land promptly flowed and formed a strong wind that had blown away the dust across the land.

This time, Austin was beaming with exhilaration. He concentrated once more and cried out as though he was doing attendance checks.

"Thunder! Lightning!"

He was eager to test the potential of the land he had created through all the different weathers.

"This is great! Since I can control the climate and the weather, I can make plants grow on this land. Even animals can thrive!"

It seems I have created a small world!

Oh, man! Those legends about the creation of the world in ancient times turned out to be true.

Worlds really could be created by people!" Austin exclaimed.

He was filled with astonishment that his eyes glistened.

At the same time, he was thoroughly amazed at the mystery and magic of the Earth Exploring Technique.

He was a mere preliminary-grade divine god, yet he was able to create this land by employing the Earth Exploring Technique.

Whoosh!

In the starry sky of the Fallen Immortal Cosmos, and even the chaotic void outside, there was an endless energy essence constantly rushing into Austin's secret room.

Because of this energy essence, the land expanded at quite an astonishingly rapid rate.

In just a few hours, it had even spread out to a diameter of about six thousand miles.

It had also gotten extremely thick that it would finally pass for a small continent.

Pleased with its current appearance, Austin stepped onto the vast land.

The area where he stood brimmed with gravel and mud, while everywhere else in his continent looked flat and dull—lacking features and variations in its terrain.

Even so, Austin knew just how to solve this problem.

With a wave of his hand, the Kaleidoscopic Compass flew out and floated right above the continent.

Circles of runes then began to move at full speed, with directions depending on the specific rule they followed in the air.

Additionally, streaks of earthy yellow light burst out from the Kaleidoscopic Compass and completely illuminated the small continent.

Austin scanned the whole landscape and analyzed how the layout should turn out.

"Let's see... Okay, so this is the direction of good luck, and that part points to bad luck! And here is where..."

Besides flying over to get a clearer view, he also roamed around so he could have a rough idea and a realistic experience with the overall situation in his continent.

"Transform!"

He stomped the ground and watched the land come to life right before his eyes.

Boom! Crack! Thud!

Without delay, the whole continent then shook violently.

The force was strong enough to jolt the earth, and even dust soared into the sky.

In the distance, hills started to rise, while some areas sunk and formed canyons. Plains, deserts, and rivers also began to take shape.

There were even some places that had signs of life, and vegetation slowly emerged in some regions.

All kinds of topography began to form as to how Austin had deemed it so.

With all things considered, this was already a standard hospitable environment. Every essential element had been studiously incorporated into this large mass.

Everything was in place—all that was missing at this point was the presence of the creatures who would live in this meticulously-built continent.

'I've created all this.

Everything here is completely controlled by my mind. Wait, then if that's the case, I can also set up all kinds of lands of death here! I can see it now. One day, when I fight against enemies, I can just release this continent and trap them there in the lands of death.'

Austin felt a chill down his spine. He was absolutely thrilled about this idea and couldn't wait for it to ensue.

"All right, I will need a lot of earth dragons to assist me with this."

Although he tried to suppress his excitement, his thoughts came bursting out of him.

When he took another quick look at the continent he had just forged, he smiled and let out a deep sigh. "Phew! Not bad. Well, then, I guess that's it for now."

He then waved his sleeve and loaded the continent into it. When it was packed inside, Austin walked out of the secret chamber.

"Master! You've finished your cultivation!"

"You're finally out!"

The moment Austin stepped outside, Violet, Ivy, and Sue warmly welcomed him back. They were all so overjoyed that they immediately jumped up and surrounded him with concerned smiles.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3558 The War Begins

"Master, are you... are you okay?"

Violet asked Austin with a worried look.

She was afraid that Austin couldn't bear the pain of losing Caroline and he would do something stupid.

"Austin, you can tell us."

Ivy and Sue also looked at him with utmost concern.

"I'm fine.

You guys don't need to worry."

Looking at their sad and uneasy faces, Austin felt warm inside him and couldn't help but let out a smile.

"Are you sure? You don't have to carry all your worries alone. We're just here. We'll listen to whatever's bothering you."

Sue tried to console Austin. She stepped forward and embraced Austin. Her fragrance instantly soothed him.

"Thanks, but I'm really fine.

Your man is strong enough not to be brought down by a problem or two,"

Austin replied as he lowered his head and kissed Sue's smooth forehead.

"I'm relieved to hear that. Of course, I know you're the best!"

Sue easily cheered up as Austin assured her that he was all right.

"I know all of you have been waiting for me, but I have something to do right now. I have to go out.

I need you to stay here in the Fallen Immortal Cosmos and just continue your cultivation.

The situation in the three thousand big and small universes is very chaotic nowadays. Don't leave the Fallen Immortal Cosmos whatever happens,"

Austin strictly reminded the three of them.

After saying that, he disappeared in a flash.

Seeing that Austin instantly went off, Sue put on her arms on her waist and said, "He is always so busy!"

She pouted and complained as it didn't even take Austin a second to leave the Fallen Immortal Cosmos after he finished his cultivation.

"Well, that's master for you. He either cultivates hard or goes out to do all kinds of various things.

He isn't just the type of man to be stuck at home." Violet giggled as she covered her mouth.

As Austin left the Fallen Immortal Cosmos, he suddenly stopped on his tracks as he immediately sensed that something was odd in the atmosphere.

"What is this? What's happening?"

Austin immediately unleashed his spiritual sense to perceive what was happening in the three thousand big and small universes.

There were roughly more than ten million warriors on both sides.

It was, without a doubt, an all-out large-scale war.

This was different from the normal small battles that were happening in scattered areas.

Therefore, both sides gave great importance to the construction of the battle arrays.

In the previous large-scale wars, battle arrays always played an important role. According to their effectiveness and efficiency, they could change the outcome of the battle.

Moreover, only a few top masters, who had experienced a lot of wars before, knew how to set up these battle arrays.

Boom! Boom!

Horrifying waves of energy were emitted from the battle arrays.

On the side of the gods of light, they established the Invincible Array, the Sky-breaking Array, the Demon-annihilating Array, and the Tribulation Array.

While on the side of the gods of darkness, they constructed the Poisonous Dragon Array, the Heavenly Demon Array, and the God-annihilating Evil Array.

Within these arrays, many warriors at the Divine Realm, the Heaven Immortal Realm, and the Earth Immortal Realm, the Genuine Immortal Realm, and the Golden Immortal Realm were stationed to control them. And in each of them, several divine gods acted as the center of the array.

"Damn it. I didn't expect that after so many years, their arrays have become pretty advanced.

We can't compare their current strength from ancient times.

Additionally, the creatures from the isolated alien spaces are also on their side.

This will be extremely tough," Jade Emperor sighed.

"Well, it only means that they were really preparing a lot for this moment.

Especially Hackett and Elliot, those two ensured that they would win this war," Queen Siobhan said.

"Fortunately, we have also improved our battle arrays a lot.

It was a basic tactic to strengthen the battle arrays in large-scale wars. Their effects would direct the flow of the battle," Frost remarked.

"That's right. We have to prepare for a fierce battle. We need to be vigilant and be watchful of our every move!

They're getting more and more difficult to deal with.

We don't know what else they're hiding in their sleeves," Jade Emperor strictly warned them.

"Ha-ha! Forward! Kill them all!"

a giant bald man shouted excitedly from the camp of the gods of darkness as he waved his hands and gave the signal to attack.

Boom! Boom!

From the side of the gods of darkness, a battle array that consisted of more than a hundred thousand warriors rushed out. Within the array, there were one hundred thousand heaven immortals, earth immortals, genuine immortals, and golden immortals. There were also one thousand warriors at the Divine Realm and a dozen preliminary-grade divine gods. They were arranged in a specific position while they gathered the endless law power.

Above this battle array, a huge and bloodthirsty black-colored dragon hovered. It emitted a monstrous and intimidating aura as it glared at the enemies in front of it.

"Now!

Slaughter them!" the preliminary-grade divine gods in charge of the battle array roared at the same time.

Boom!

Above the battle array, the huge poisonous dragon raised its head and spurted out a stream of poisonous black liquid towards the gods of light.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3559 I Want To Have A Try

"Move!"

The gods of light also had their own battle array.

It was comprised of over ten preliminary-grade divine gods, plus more than a hundred thousand Genuine Immortal Realm cultivators or greater. They had gathered their will together to form a superior soldier—formidable, gigantic, and powerful. He had a solemn look plastered on his face, and he wielded an old and massive ax in his hand.

This battle array was called the Invincible Array.

The mighty soldier hovered above the array, wielding his monstrous ax.

He prevented the obsidian liquid released by the poisonous dragon to protect the gods of light.

The collision between two powerful forces was immense. The battle was extreme and impassioned that the void had collapsed, and infinite space fragments flew everywhere.

"What are you waiting for?"

"Kill them all!" one of Elliot's loyal followers ordered.

His rage was as hot as the coursing magma—wrathful and fiery. He pointed his spear towards the direction of the enemy, his face contorted into unexplained madness.

The soldiers immediately moved under his command.

They all attacked in sync, charging at their adversaries while keeping their arrays intact.

"Get ready!"

Seeing that the gods of darkness made their move, the Jade Emperor raised his hand. He was alerting his men of the incoming battalion.

The soldiers on the god of light side attacked head-on towards the battlefield, a sea of cultivators, moving together as one. They moved in perfect timing, synchronized by an unheard beat.

Ten super soldiers created by the gods of light marched their way towards their enemies. For each step they took, the void around them would break down. Smoke billowed, and various debris was found everywhere.

The gods of darkness also had remarkable fighters of their own. They made ten demons by setting up a dozen of Heavenly Demon Arrays. Each of the monsters had cerulean skin, sharp pointed heads, and disheveled hair. Each of them was formidable on their own. As soon as they materialized, they were immediately engaged in a battle against the massive soldiers from the other side.

The Invincible Array and the Heavenly Demon Array were the arrays used to attack their enemies. The super soldiers and the blue-skinned demons were so enormous that they towered into the clouds. Their combat powers were unparalleled, and they soon had become the center of the battlefield.

The other battle arrays made by both parties attracted less attention. Still, each of them was brilliant and just as important. They also made powerful and fatal attacks.

Each array present on the battlefield was even more potent than the skill of a medium-grade divine god.

Ordinary medium-grade divine gods didn't dare to inch any closer to these arrays. As soon as they approached, they would be immediately annihilated.

Only the premium-grade divine gods could fight these arrays head on.

The battlefield had more than a hundred thousand cultivators fighting fiercely against each other. Ever since the gods of darkness and the gods of light had returned, this had been the most monumental clash between them.

From afar, the chaotic void looked like it was terribly ruined. It was almost broken beyond repair. Then, it healed.

He suffered tremendous injuries from all over his body.

Behind him, a huge fist reached the injured medium-grade divine god.

Queen Siobhan arched her eyebrows as she let out a snort.

She pointed at the massive fist, and white flowers appeared and swarmed towards the fist, keep it from hitting the medium-grade divine god.

The medium-grade divine god fled back to the Jade Emperor and other gods of light who hadn't joined the battle.

After a while, six dead bodies fell from the sky and landed in front of the Jade Emperor and the others.

Even their spiritual souls had been shattered.

They were the six medium-grade divine gods who had been selected for the mission.

Only one survived.

In the distant chaotic void, several giants made their appearances. They held arrogant expression on their faces and a murderous look in their eyes. There was also a cruel sneer plastered at the corner of their mouths. It was apparent that they were responsible for the deaths.

"Ha-ha! Jade Emperor, let your men behave themselves. Otherwise, I will kill all of them," one of the giants guffawed aggressively.

They were some of Elliot's eighty-one loyal followers.

With that, the giants disappeared into the void.

"Humph! I will wipe out the members of the dawn race!"

The Jade Emperor's face darkened. Vexed by the situation, he tightened his fists. He solemnly glanced at his men's six dead bodies as he felt a tad responsible for their deaths.

Elliot's eighty-one loyal followers were from an ancient race called the dawn race.

Legends had told that the dawn race existed when the Sea of Chaos was created. Its members were powerful and belligerent.

"It looks like that they have been well-prepared."

The Jade Emperor sighed.

At that moment, Austin approached the Jade emperor and the other premium-grade divine gods.

He secretly sent Frost a message since he knew exactly what happened to the seven medium-grade divine gods.

"I want to give it a try,"

Austin offered his services to Frost through his spiritual sense.

"What did you just say?"

Frost was taken aback with Austin's audacity. After witnessing the death of the six medium-grade divine gods, he still wanted to have a go.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3560 Transferring Energy

"Yes.

Let me go. I'm confident about it!"

Austin nodded.

Of course, Frost knew that Austin wasn't any weaker than an ordinary medium-grade divine god, and his bodily movement skills were also more than great.

However, six medium-grade divine gods had just been killed, and their mangled bloody corpses were still in front of them. Frost was a little worried and he felt no need to hide it.

"Austin, I have to tell you. This task is very dangerous. You need to think it over.

How about letting someone else do this? Perhaps, other medium-grade divine gods?"

Frost said to Austin, genuinely concerned.

"Master Frost, I appreciate you worrying about me. But please trust me. I know that I can handle it,"

Austin said firmly.

"Well, I'll talk to Jade Emperor."

Frost had no choice but to nod. While doing so, he secretly sent a message to Jade Emperor.

"Austin, are you really confident that you can do this?"

Jade Emperor looked at Austin intently.

"Yes, I am."

Austin nodded. He somehow wondered what he could do to completely convince Frost that he could do it.

"Well, okay. Nonetheless I'll send some people to go with you. Better be safe than sorry.

Remember, to be careful at all times.

Those people from the dawn race are well prepared. They hide in the dark shadows and will kill you as soon as they find you,"

Jade Emperor said.

"No, thank you. I really appreciate it, but I can do it myself,"

Austin insisted.

"No, it's too dangerous. I can't let you go by yourself.

If you have some people with you, you can look out for each other,"

Jade Emperor insisted.

"All right."

The others who also thought of this felt their blood ran cold.

"We must stop them! We cannot let this happen!

Otherwise, the evil baby will be born much earlier if it's fed with so much evil energy!"

Austin frowned.

Suddenly, right at that moment, "Humph! Anyone who dares to spy on us will certainly meet his death!"

In the distance, more than a dozen medium-grade divine gods of darkness in charge of patrol had discovered Austin and his companions. They immediately rushed over with a large group of their own people, screaming.

"Kill them!"

More than a dozen medium-grade divine gods, fifty or sixty preliminary-grade divine gods, and a large number of warriors at the Divine Realm surrounded them in all directions.

The area near the Yellow Cosmos had already been guarded by the gods of darkness and the people from the isolated alien spaces.

"Let's work together and break out of the encirclement first!"

Seeing that they were in a tight encirclement, the medium-grade divine gods of light were a little in a panic and approached each other.

In stark contrast, Austin was very calm.

This was because Austin wanted to take this opportunity to test his achievements in cultivating the Earth Exploring Technique in seclusion in the past few years! He had actually been waiting for this to happen.

With a smile that could barely be noticed, Austin stepped out of the crowd to meet the people who were coming to them aggressively.

"Austin, what are you doing?"

We are outnumbered. Don't push yourself too hard!"

The other nine medium-grade divine gods were shocked at what Austin was doing and yelled at him.

"Don't worry about it at all. I'll deal with them. You'll all see,"

Austin replied as he walked forward step by step.

"Austin... Hey! Come back!"

The nine medium-grade divine gods of light were all very anxious. Why must Austin be so stubborn?

Austin was the most favored young talent among the premium-grade divine gods of light, such as Jade Emperor, Queen Siobhan, and Frost. If anything happened to him, it would be difficult for them to explain after they returned.

Moreover, Austin was generally welcomed and appreciated by most of the divine gods of light, and the nine medium-grade divine gods were also very fond of the young fighter.

Naturally, they didn't want anything bad to happen to Austin.

"Ha-ha, Austin, how dare you! What arrogance is this?"

You choose the way to death, instead of the easy way out!

Well, it's your choice. In any case, you are doomed today!"

In the distance, two huge beasts suddenly appeared. They were the thoroughly-odd beast and the fire-disaster beast!
