

The Supreme God

Chapter 541 Violet's Past

The outer range of the Grand Desolation Mountain stood like a great shadow. The ranges seemed to be overlapping as though receding into the distance. Austin was in no hurry to complete his journey. He kept searching for some diabolic beasts to practice his martial arts every now and then. Although he had entered the outer range of the Grand Desolation Mountain about three days ago, he hadn't reached the destination where Violet lived.

Another two days passed and Austin had traveled deeper inside the outer range of the Grand Desolation Mountain.

That was when Austin encountered a huge sixth-level demonic wolf in the woods.

It was three meters tall. Heavily muscular, with silver grey shaggy hair, it was a terrifying beast. Standing there with an imposing air, its eyes were bright with ruthlessness and fierceness.

Austin was able to recognize the demonic wolf. It was a sixth-level demonic beast called silver blood demonic wolf.

While Austin was observing the wolf and moving his eyes across its body, the beast stared back at him with its scarlet eyes.

'This delicate juvenile human should have wet his pants and fled immediately after he saw me.

Instead, he is sizing me up with great interest like a hunter tracing and watching his prey, ' the beast thought.

Austin's staring served as a blatant provocation to the demonic wolf's dignity. Instantly a blind rage filled its heart.

"Oooow."

Accompanied by a long howl, the silver blood demonic wolf leaped to its feet and lunged at Austin fiercely at a terrifying speed. Its sharp fore-paws were gleaming coldly. There was a sizzling sound when the air was cut open by the fore-paws.

Austin touched the ground with his toes briefly before he soared up into the air. His leap was higher than that of the demonic beast.

"Eight kinds of forces integrated as one!"

With a soft shout, Austin knocked the head of the wolf with a swipe of his fist that was filled with dangerous amounts of vital energy force.

He shifted his body deftly and brushed past the beast.

Austin and the demonic wolf fell on the ground and raised themselves up quickly. Both of them turned towards each other simultaneously, sizing each other up again.

"Blast!"

Austin howled softly.

Bang!

the wolf's body and echoed with Austin's soft voice. Blood started to flow out from all the seven openings of its head. After a few seconds, the huge body collapsed, dead.

blast effect when eight kinds of air, Austin felt very pleased at the progress he had made by the practice of so many days. He successfully still far away from the Major the Brutal Blast Fist meant one could punch his rival through the air and pour the fist's force into the rival's his fist against his rival's flesh, he could the beast's lifeless head and took out the bloody sixth-level demonic have practiced the Brutal suddenly. She came up to Austin after he had killed that silver blood demonic wolf.

outer range of the Grand Desolation Mountain,

From time to time she went to pluck some elixirs or went for some diabolic beasts to practice her martial arts.

and stronger in his cultivation base and had exceeded Violet's strength to a large extent, her help was barely had been the same as the sixth-level demonic beast, but the scarcity of actual fighting in the past, made Violet wonder whether her cultivation base was strong of the Grand Desolation Mountain to improve her strength. She could do so by actually fighting, which was always the best way to enhance one's strength when diabolic beasts ha! The real power of the Brutal Blast Fist can only be revealed at the Major Achievement

the

Austin remarked.

soft smile crept

devil and he shall appear," Austin filled with a from the grabbed elixirs and stuffed them into tiger bone

purple scrophularia with three hundred earth fruit. . . .

and had to shake their heads with wry smiles on their faces. These invaluable elixirs in Sun Sect when he was only a grunt disciple and was having his trials in the Beast Mountain. He had been bogged down by Marvin who kept chasing him as if he were a street dog. The mad pursuit, only for an earth spirit fruit drove him to escape through had lost its attraction for Austin. It was no more a prized already had many seventh-grade and even eighth-grade elixirs with him. There was no doubt that he could downplay those he let the gnome consume those fourth-grade and "Violet, we have already reached the section of sixth level diabolic beasts. I guess, the place where you lived earlier is not very far from here."

The section with the sixth-level diabolic beasts was already the heart of the outer range of the Grand Desolation Mountain.

Rather than the outer range, the territory ahead of them, belonged to the Grand Desolation Mountain.

The Grand Desolation Mountain was regarded as a forbidden area for humans in the entire Prime Martial World.

It was home to diabolic beasts above sixth-grade mostly and was located south of the Prime Martial World. It had a vast territory and was bordered with a dozen empires of the south continent.

The legend went that a lot of ninth-grade and tenth-grade diabolic beasts, even some more powerful than tenth-grade ones, lived there.

Austin was able to survive his adventure in the outer range of the Grand Desolation Mountain with his strength.

But there were more beasts which were more powerful than him. They could appear in the Grand Desolation Mountain any time.

"The place where I lived before was not far from here, my master. I assure you.

It is located in a valley, thirty miles from here, to the left side. I think you can sense it with your spiritual sense.

But it had been occupied forcibly by the rhinoceros king.

Several of my sisters fell into his hands. They unwillingly accepted to become his concubines."

Violet sighed.

"Oh! Did he capture them forcibly and keep as concubines?

Your sisters are also demonic foxes, aren't they?"

Austin was surprised.

"Exactly!"

Violet answered.

"How can a rhinoceros occupy the area and capture foxes? How can he force them to become his concubines?"

Austin couldn't help laughing. They were all beasts, but they belonged to different species. How was it possible! It made no sense to him!

The Supreme God

Chapter 542 The Sixth-grade Rhinoceros King (Part One)

Disquiet blanketed the area, fingers fiddling in nervousness as eyes looked down, unsteady and unbridled with the emotion brought upon by unsolicited memories.

"That's right. Among all the demonic beasts, the foxes are the ones who're good at bewitching people. We know how to attract the opposite sex and please them in bed," Violet sighed, her eyes clouding the more she talked about her past. "Humans are not our match in this regard, especially the females.

They're too shy to seduce men and because of that, we're the best playthings in the eyes of mortals and beasts. Some even go as far as reducing us to mere sex slaves; the rhinoceros king being one of them," she trailed off, gritting her teeth in disgust.

"He thought I was beautiful and wanted me to be one of his concubines. As if, it were possible for me to marry and live with...with that wretched thing. I could've never brought myself to, so I fled the Grand Desolation Mountain.

My sisters, on the other hand..." Austin gave her an encouraging look, prompting her to continue as she sighed in sorrow. "They couldn't run from that monster and were left at his mercy up to this day.

I can't even imagine what kind of torture they're being subjected to."

Violet shuddered at the thought. The shadows of her past still haunted her; the trauma resurfacing to remind her of the misery she and her kin had religiously faced throughout the years.

Austin felt sympathy for the defenseless girl. The injustice that had befallen onto her species was caused by the immorality of vile creatures that stood at the top. With no one to challenge their wicked ways, they had only been victimizing innocents to turn them into prized possessions that only served as decoration to their own kingdom.

to burn in high intensity inside him in response brutality he inflicted on you and your family, I'll give him a lesson that her words were enough to give as thanks. "But, that would be unnecessary. I'm a six-grade demon beast now, so I won't be any worse compared to the rhinoceros king in terms of magic. I'd like to

I know you want to conquer and tame some diabolic beasts to take them back as guards to the Austin Palace. I think he her gaze upon imagining the humiliation the demon would be forced to endure as the watchdog

a good idea," chuckled Austin, nodding in agreement now, covering a range as far as forty-five kilometers; easily permitting him access to thick foliage and dense forests. Austin examined the place in wonder, his ears picking up on the sounds of music sung by chirping birds hiding in groves, while his nose was permeated by the smell of various blooming flowers scattered among the green grassland, forming a colorful soft carpet for the

to take our time, but we have to get there nodded distractedly, keeping her silence as Austin set a fast pace to lead her and headed towards their destination in a march the air, they finally arrived thirty

The narrow entrance of the vale granted them a picture of its surrounding mountains that covered its three sides. Its nature allowed livelihood to flourish, bursting with immense vitality that bred from the numerous animals seeking shelter on its land. Flowing water in a limpid creek gave sustenance to the luxurious greenery and the creatures; an ideal settlement for the beasts roaming the fields.

"Violet, you made a good choice! This is excellent, I would like to dwell here as well," Austin uttered in awe and appreciation for the fascinating view in front of him.

"Of course, master. It was my home!"

Unable to prevent the grin from gracing her lips, Violet was filled with excitement and happiness upon returning to this place after a long time. It pushed her to scurry inside, replacing her sullied recollections of the territory with new, hopeful ones.

They had no qualms in trespassing the plot; a six-grade diabolic beast already labeled as his guardian in Austin's eyes posed no threat against high martial artists like Austin and Violet. In fact, not many monsters could attempt to outmatch them at all, so they did not bother obtaining permission from the owner for entry.

Violet jumped ahead, running from time to time when she could no longer behave the elation brimming from her merry heart. She was in familiar ground—one that she had grown up in and loved ever since her childhood. Here, she was no longer a lost wanderer; she was a girl returning back to her origins.

Her behavior did not go unnoticed with Austin watching her in mute observation. He empathized with her as a person of similar standing; an adrift soul longing for his own home. And so, he kept his mouth firmly shut, letting Violet do as she pleased. He left her alone, let her hands caress objects they encountered along their way with careful touches that denoted her yearning and joy.

Their other companion closely mirrored her soaring spirits. The gnome ran everywhere, trying to engrave every characteristic of the state into its mind as it frantically poured all his senses in experiencing what the foreign terrain offered it.

The Supreme God

Chapter 543 The Sixth-grade Rhinoceros King (Part Two)

The childlike wonder the both exhibited amused and endeared Austin, almost making him forget about their prior objective when a sudden roar bellowed from the innermost part of the valley.

It shook the earth and agitated the leaves into falling around them, the fury derived from its echo shattering the otherwise peaceful environment.

Another wave of tremors befell on them, closely accompanied by a sonic boom as a huge shadow dashed between the thick wooden trunks of trees and overgrown shrubs. Its heavy stamps grew deafening the nearer it got to where they stood, imposing an intimidating presence as it bellowed once more.

Violet drastically changed her demeanor into one of pure wrath the moment she heard the sounds. Her lips trembled, teeth clenching in a strained effort to remain calm and collected.

The spiritual sense enabled Austin to see the rhinoceros from its current position in the middle of the forest. Despite its sturdy body being much bigger than an elephant, he sprinted wildly; smashing everything that posed as an obstacle on his way to their group with a drilling glare marring its face.

His four legs were huge, easily leaving a trail of deep gigantic pits as he advanced.

Without a doubt, this demon heading their way must be the six-grade rhinoceros king Violet had mentioned.

In a span of a few seconds, it appeared before Austin and Violet, looking terribly enraged at their unannounced visit.

He was the color of mud; dark brown with skin so thick and coarse that it already served as his armor. His gigantic form looked much bigger from up close, dwarfing and casting an imposing shadow over them with his towering height.

A sharp, massive horn protruded from the top of his muzzle, the other two snuggled on each opposite side of his head. It glinted under the unforgiving sunlight, highlighting the sharpness of the cone-shaped weapons like that of a knife, driving fear to anyone who was to be on its receiving end.

Instead, she sported the posture of someone who had the means to defeat this fearsome opponent. She had appraising the seemingly unafraid humans with distance, and supreme ruler. The consequences of this treason would be the death of the aggressors—may it be beasts or humans—on his land, to looked at them strangely, unable to perceive their intentions, especially since it was very rare for any human beings to be sighted around the Grand feelings that hindered him in defeating them. Two terrifying sharp teeth were bared as the rhinoceros howled, his pupils turning red to reflect his madness. He moved in a lightning speed, the sharp horn on his head flashing in crimson light.

grew several times in both length and diameter, mimicking the parameters of a sword of dirt, akin to a rampaging bull before it deal with him,

of Violet, coaxing her to submit aside and gladly took eyes, inhaling a deep breath to help her concentrate while murmuring an enchantment to summon purple smoke to engulf her being. It obscured her, shielding her from sight as she flew higher and floated in illusions that Austin knew the rhinoceros took the bait and collided with the illusory

A piercing noise came from where the hit had ensued, but the beast had only ran through a shield of smoke, which was intangible and unharmed from the violent force he exerted.

He was not given a chance to ponder in bewilderment when Violet had taken advantage of the situation to produce a huge, black claw that stretched out inside the fog guarding her.

It aimed at her foe with the power of clustered demonic energies supporting the incoming strike. It flowed with the elegance of stormy sea waves, its aura seething before surging into the sky, filling the atmosphere with hostile, static energy.

Austin had seen her perform this trick many times, yet even he was blown away with the herculean pressure of her magic. What she manifested just now had been ten times more than whatever she had shown during their training.

The claws scratched its opponent's back in a flash, so fast that only a gush of air registered in the monster's mind when it passed his ears and hit its target with hefty and deadly precision.

The rhino king failed to turn around and check the injury.

He realized then, that in front of this combatant he was demoted to creature of sluggish stature.

He struggled to hold himself upright, the extreme pain from the inflicted wound darkened his vision and almost lulled him into unconsciousness.

He grunted in agony, his outrage being the only thing keeping him dignified as he weakened to devastating levels.

He ground his feet into the dirt, using the soil as support to his weight.

Heaving deep, labored breaths, the rhinoceros trod and glowered at Violet.

The Supreme God

Chapter 544 Subduing The Rhinoceros King (Part One)

As the sixth-level rhinoceros king's strength wavered, it soon became apparent that Violet was slowly getting an upper hand in the fight. Her successful barrage of attacks had managed to effectively weaken him and suppress his power.

Despite being at the same level as the rhinoceros king, Violet proved to be far more superior in strength while her unbelievably fast bodily movement skill served as a huge advantage in dealing with the huge but also clumsy beast.

Seeing that Violet could very well handle herself, Austin chose to just sit back and relax as he watched the fight with amusement.

A rather powerful strike on his back had the rhinoceros king crying out and stumbling forward in the dirt. With a loud huff, he glanced back at his attacker, the flames of fury burning in his eyes as he glared at Violet with malice.

For some special breeds of diabolic beasts, reaching the sixth-level would've already given them the ability to speak like a human. The rhinoceros king had not yet developed this skill but had nonetheless gained the ability to show his emotions on his face which was evident by his furious stare. However, no matter how hard he glared, there was just simply no way he could strike back at his attacker.

Violet effectively utilized her agility during the battle. Without giving the rhinoceros king any chance to move, she had already dealt several strikes over his body.

It was as if there were multiple copies of Violet that surrounded the rhinoceros king with how fast she moved. Her hands had only made contact upon the beast's thick hide for less than a second, but each of the strikes brought great pain and damage upon the rhinoceros king.

up a notch. Unsheathing her black claws, back, breaking through hide and revealing the bloody red flesh beneath. The wound would've sent anyone howling. However, despite the white-hot pain on his back, the rhinoceros king felt blood-red rage instead. Violet's attack had left him slumped beast's fierce nature. Cocking his neck, the rhinoceros king let out a hair-raising howl to the sky. Suddenly, the three horns on his head began to glow red and grow larger in size. The rhinoceros king had been channeling and concentrating his energy towards his horns. Within seconds, the light faded and revealed three long and absolutely sharp horns, the ground with its hooves. It seemed as the ground but the Violet, his sharp-as-swords horns

the air as he charged, cutting through the air and forming a vacuum that just effectively launched him even faster. Looking at the scene, there flitted away, her pink shadow swishing way past him. The pink shadow had come from her natural fox body coloring that she had transformed into. When the rhinoceros king finally in a fox's power, but now, as he stared up at Violet, he could not help the numbing fear that had suddenly struck his heart. It seemed the time had finally come horns, the rhinoceros king was still a slow-witted and clumsy animal. His charge, though powerful, was easily dodged by a quick fox such as Violet who was also crafty enough to pinpoint his greatest weakness. Before the beast was enough to numb him despite all the injuries he sustained all over his body. At that moment, all he could think about was stabbing Violet with his horns. Just one strike was all he needed to end the life of this small, thin fox.

seemed to be impossible for him to accomplish. Violet was really too fast, dodging and rushing past him every time he tried to charge at her. Her nimble body and swift attacks made it impossible for him to predict her next move. Often times, when he thought he had finally caught her, his stomach would drop in

In the end, Violet remained unscathed while the rhinoceros king ran out of energy and began to slow down. The constant charging and running around in circles had made him dizzy while his wounds bled heavily, his injuries heavily aggravated due to his movements. The blood covered his skin and dried a dark red, making him look as if he was a red and not a black rhinoceros.

Realizing that there was no way that he could win against Violet, the rhinoceros king recalibrated his strategy. He took a few steps backward as if only to put distance to him and Violet. However, once he saw the chance, he suddenly bolted away and ran towards the depths of the valley. In his hasty and extremely distressed state, he had not realized that he was a humongous and heavy beast that left behind a clear path of fallen trees and smashed rocks as he ran away for safety. Seeing this, Austin couldn't help but marvel at how astonishingly powerful the beast's horns were to pave such a clear path of destruction.

Violet, however, wasn't just going to let him off so easily. She quickly chased after him and, unsurprisingly, caught up easily with the beast by just one leap.

Her claws sank onto his back and she continued to relentlessly scratch him as he ran.

This merciless attack from Violet left a heavy blood trail in their wake.

His injuries had put the rhinoceros king in so much pain that all he could do was moan and run as if running could somehow magically make Violet stop attacking him with her claws. At this point in time, the beast could no longer think of revenge nor feel furious at his shameful defeat. The only thing that occupied his mind was his desperate wish to get out of there alive.

Inevitably, the rhinoceros king began to slow down. His injuries were far too severe and all the running around had only drained him even more of his energy.

A few moments later, the beast finally succumbed and collapsed onto the ground, his heavy body briefly shaking the earth upon contact. It was at this moment that the rhinoceros king knew that he was doomed, his life finally at Violet's disposal. Fear took hold of his heart and his body vibrated violently as he cried out for his life. Violet looked down on him and raised a bloody claw.

The Supreme God

Chapter 545 Subduing The Rhinoceros King (Part Two)

"That's enough, Violet. One more strike from you and he'll be dead," Austin's voice cut through the thick air, stopping Violet just in time.

Upon his order, Violet obediently dropped her claw that was just about to end the rhinoceros king's life. With a huff, she walked towards Austin's side and contented herself with staring down at the now utterly exhausted rhinoceros with disgust and pure hatred. She was heaving. Despite gaining the upper hand throughout the fight, Violet still had to exert a lot of energy in dealing with the beast. This was mostly because the rhinoceros king's hide had been extremely tough and every time she used her claws, she had to apply a lot of force to make sure he bled from her attack.

It took a lot of swift, efficient, and powerful strikes from Violet to get the rhinoceros into the state he was now.

Having observed their battle, Austin concluded that Violet's strength lied in her instantaneous bodily movement skill, her unpredictable speed, and her illusions. The rhinoceros king's strength and power were in no way inferior to Violet and had he succeeded in actually hitting her with his horns earlier, there was no way she could've survived. The only reason that she was able to overpower him was because of her lightning-fast speed that she was able to use to keep herself from harm's way.

Each strike that Violet had dealt onto the beast was loaded with power and a deep-seated grudge. During the fight earlier, her mind was heavy and only swirled with memories of her painful past as she attacked the rhinoceros king with her claws. Now, seeing him powerless and completely at her mercy, the long-accumulated hatred in her heart began to disperse, leaving only relief and a long-awaited satisfaction. The battle before was fought not just for her, but for all the foxes that had been bullied by him.

Seeing him defeated like this was enough for Violet. She already knew Austin's plans for the rhinoceros king, having used her mind communication skill way before the fight. Austin planned to subdue the beast and have him guard his Austin Palace since he was a powerful sixth-level diabolic beast. Violet understood this so even though killing the rhinoceros king would give her immense pleasure, for the sake of Austin Palace's safety, she refrained from dealing him the final blow.

had focused on striking at his back and on his butt to avoid any crippling injury to his body. So, even if the rhinoceros king was practically bathing in his your eyes and look at me. Do in smug victory. Defeating the beast was a thing she had dreamed it was time for her to make the rhinoceros king realize just how his past actions had led to this outcome. As he heard the familiar voice, the beast lifted his head faintly and expected that, out of all of them, it would be her that would come for revenge. He had not thought that Violet had the capacity to increase her strength to such an extent that she would actually be able now, upon looking and recognizing her, the rhinoceros king finally realized the path that lay before had lost all hope for life and he moped lightly in despair.

sported earlier was long gone and was replaced with repulsive repentance. He deeply regretted that moment he let that pink demonic fox escape due to his negligence and he regretted even more that he did not bother hunting her down. He blamed himself for underestimating the fox's power and bringing this disaster to himself. Now that she had returned for revenge, there was no way he could ever hope to defeat her. The only thing he could do now was to accept whatever it was she had planned for him, even if it back into her human shape, "Never in your wildest dreams did you ever think that this would happen to

I can just punch you to death if I wished. A couple of strong punches and that's all it would take for me to finish you," she said in a chilling tone. "If not for my master here, today would've been your last day."

The rhinoceros king's eyes widened and looked at Violet questioningly. "Oh, don't think you got lucky," she told him. "From now on, you are nothing but a slave to us. Your bullying and intimidating days are over!" With an anguished cry, Violet pounced on him and began to punch his thick, bloody hide. The anger and resentment from her past had once again bubbled to the surface of her mind.

Austin let her vent for a bit and when it seemed as if she had calmed down, he stepped forward and grabbed her by the shoulder. "That is enough, Violet," he said. "After I have subdued him, you will have all the time in the world to punch him as you like. He will be all yours. For now, leave his despicable life to him until he has amply served us."

Violet nodded, getting off the rhinoceros king and letting her master have him. With a soft smile, Austin crossed his fingers and prepared to activate his Beast-subduing Skill that would allow him to easily absorb the beast soul of any beast and develop absolute control over them. True to its name, the skill allowed him to completely subdue any beast to the point that it would lose any resistance of power in front of him.

Gathering his energy, Austin began to cast the spell. Streams of spiritual sense emerged from his Soul Sea and swirled around his fingers as he activated the skill. Then he began to draw various formulas in the air, the finger motions evolving into a variety of mysterious, magical spiritual sense symbols.

The Supreme God

Chapter 546 Subduing The Rhinoceros King (Part Three)

As Austin wrote, the symbols simply increased and slowly began to form a visible spiritual sense array of white mist that floated outward from the white array center, making it look as if they were inside a magical fairy world.

This was the second time Austin cast this Beast-subduing Skill and it was fortunate that he did not get dizzy, unlike his first time.

This clear, lucid feeling devoid of any kind of dizziness must mean that his spiritual sense had now improved a lot after he had taken that Soul-warming bead. Austin smiled to himself, pleased at this conclusion.

The Soul-warming Bead had been a gift from Angus of the Mysterious Nether World. It had quite a peculiar effect on the consumer's spiritual sense. Once the Soul-warming Bead was dissolved in the Soul Sea, it would act as fertilizer and nourish it. Because of this nourishment, the Soul Sea would be able to grow quickly and thrive, almost like a healthy plant. This meant that the Soul-warming Bead was extremely helpful for Austin as he could easily accumulate spiritual sense without exerting too much effort in cultivation.

Thanks to the bead, he could now demonstrate the Beast-subduing Skill without any unwanted side effects.

Though his spiritual sense wasn't growing at an alarmingly fast rate nor did he have such a significant addition to the spiritual sense in his Soul Sea, there was still enough in him to subdue the rhinoceros king. In the long run, Austin was quite certain that the volume of his spiritual sense would only increase to the point that he would be able to subdue much bigger and stronger diabolic beasts with no harm to his health.

rhinoceros king. As it floated in the diabolic beast, the rhinoceros king was intelligent enough to sense the power of the spiritual sense array. Unfortunately, he was in no condition to a diabolic beast of the tenth-level. The rhinoceros king was only at waterfalls that flowed down rapidly from the mountaintop and into the valley, all of it began to flow into spiritual sense array entered his brain, the fear and terror in the rhinoceros king's eyes fear, becoming completely docile to Austin as if he was simply tame, faithful domestic cattle. The rhinoceros king lifted its head and looked and himself in the Soul Sea. From then on, he was the no point in watching him suffer from pain any longer. Taking out a few elixirs from his pocket, Austin threw them towards the rhinoceros king who mooed in gratitude as his wounds began in healing most types of wounds and injuries in just a short amount of time. As expected, after being doused by the elixir, the rhinoceros king had begun to regain his strength and was actually able to to suggest their departure. To his surprise, Violet had already foxes that had been observing them during the fight. They had

The five of them had come out from behind the bushes and were embracing Violet one by one. The excitement and relief were clearly evident on their faces at their friend's victory.

Due to Violet's insistent begging, Austin had agreed to stay for two days in the small valley. He used this time to cultivate while Violet caught up and spent her days with friends.

He knew that she had wanted to stay and talk with her friends after not seeing them for such a long time. Austin did not mind since he had nothing urgent to do and he figured that it might actually be beneficial to his health to stay and breathe the fresh valley air.

So it was that, though Austin and Violet had a master-servant relationship, their days together in the valley forged a close relationship between them. For Austin, Violet now felt more like a sister to him than a mere servant.

The two days spent in the valley could be considered as the happiest moments of Violet's life. Since the rhinoceros king was no longer a threat, she and her friends were now able to enjoy their days in peace and relaxation.

However, Austin felt awkward wandering around the valley due to the many foxes that abounded. Luckily, he found a rather quiet and secluded place suitable for cultivation. It was in that place that he took the opportunity to take out his herbal pot and begin his elixir refining.

The Supreme God

Chapter 547 The Four Demonic Beasts And Six Diabolic Beasts

Before leaving the imperial capital city, Austin had bought enough materials to make the Energy-prevailing Elixir. The shortage of elixir was the last thing on his mind.

Using the purple brown herbal pot, Austin began practicing how to make the Energy-prevailing Elixir. After he failed almost forty times, Austin was finally able to grasp the skills of making the Energy-prevailing Elixir. He could now make it successfully and easily.

The elixirs that were spent in the failed forty attempts were obviously wasted. Those elixirs were worth an estimated hundred thousand vital energy crystals. Hence, if a person wanted to be a pill refiner, he must have ample resources to practice his skills. The road of growing into a successful pill refiner was really made up with vital energy crystals.

Austin was fortunately rich enough. The spending of such an enormous amount of vital energy crystals did not ruffle him.

After Austin could successfully make the Energy-prevailing Elixirs, he made much more taking his count to over 20. He consumed all the materials that he had bought from the imperial capital city.

Austin's skill in making grade three pills had reached a sufficient mark and he was now completely qualified to be a grade three pill refiner.

A grade three pill refiner could enjoy a high position within the Violet Orchid Empire.

Grade three pills, like the Energy-prevailing Elixir, were rare even for the Sun Sect which was one of the top five sects of the Violet Orchid Empire. As a matter of fact, they were only provided in limited amounts to highly talented disciples.

In the Sun Sect, it was only the inner disciples and the principal disciples that had the chance to be offered some Energy-prevailing Elixirs.

So if there was a pill refiner who was able to make grade three elixirs, all the sects, including Sun Sect, one of the top five in the Violet Orchid Empire would try their best to keep a good faith with him and keep him happy.

After putting away all the Energy-prevailing Elixirs and the herbal pot, Austin stretched his body lazily and gave off his spiritual sense into the atmosphere.

Deep in the valley, Violet was chatting with other demonic foxes who were her best friends. The gnome however was nowhere to be found.

In the last few days whenever Austin indulged himself in alchemy, Violet would spend time with her good friends. The gnome, being exuberant in nature, found it difficult to stay at one place all this time. This implied that Austin didn't always know where the gnome was.

Sometimes the gnome was interested in watching Austin practice making pills, so he would stay beside Austin for a while. When he got bored, the gnome would go on a search for some herbs to eat.

where the gnome was through his spiritual sense force. Austin had noticed this when he was in the valley in the Mysterious Nether World where Angus extremely tremendous spiritual sense force. Covered by that, both Austin and Violet felt impossible to take a small step. However, the gnome then on, Austin started to pay attention to the gnome's talents.

gnome's existence with his spiritual sense at all. When his spiritual sense after a short while. He had herbs at the fifth or sixth grade in looking at the herbs in his arms, the gnome became alert. He pulled the herbs towards him and hugged them tightly and tried to hide them behind his while shaking to kill it and hence it was not injured badly. Plus, Austin had given it a was almost as healthy as before other than these days,

master as long felt content with the loyalty of

"I shall subdue more demonic beasts or diabolic beasts soon," Austin murmured.

small valley and spread it out in the shape of a sphere.

sense force could now cover a distance of up to inside this area, including the demonic beasts and diabolic beasts, one by one. He found several beasts at level six soon huge tree that was right beside him. He jumped from the tree and flew into the air, quite like the Sky Realm was able to overcome the gravity of the planet for a it was too slow. The speed was considerably lower than an ordinary bird. Secondly, a common cultivator at the Sky Realm usually needed to land on the ground to refresh their could travel at a speed similar to the flying speed of the cultivator of the Sky Realm. Maybe, he ran just slightly faster than it was time for him to learn the skill of flying in be improved in the future, and then he would be travelling around by flying. He then landed gently as he felt the gravity overpowering him. After a while, he stomped on a nearby tree again and place where his first target was. It was a sixth-level

It was easy for Austin to subdue the level six demonic beast. Using the Beast-subduing Skill, Austin gave out a profound spiritual sense array. It tethered itself in the head of the level six silver blood demonic wolf. After a short while, the silver blood demonic wolf became Austin's loyal slave.

Bringing the silver blood demonic wolf, Austin flew towards his next target.

Carrying on his journey, Austin had subdued ten beasts at level six within two days.

Four demonic beasts and six diabolic beasts.

One level six silver blood demonic wolf.

Two level six violent bears.

One level six three-headed diabolic serpent.

One level six purple gold demonic tiger.

One level six metal-eating pangolin.

Two level six giant rock demonic gators.

One level six demonic cat.

One level six giant diabolic mouse.

The ten level six demonic beasts and diabolic beasts, and the rhinoceros king that Austin had subdued previously took his total of subdued beasts to eleven.

Austin actually wanted to look for a level seven demonic or diabolic beast, but after he searched the entire area around the small valley, he found that the highest level of the beasts was six.

According to Violet, level seven beasts might be hidden deep in another area. They might be within the Grand Desolation Mountain.

So Austin realized that he wouldn't be able to find beasts more powerful than level six outside the Grand Desolation Mountain.

The Supreme God

Chapter 548 Violet Is In Danger!

Austin was trying to subdue those beasts. He soon found out that the effort was consuming some of his spiritual sense when he cast the Beast-subduing Skill to form the spiritual sense array.

But for Austin, the loss of the spiritual sense to form the array was nothing compared to the powerful spiritual sense pool he had within him.

In addition to that, the Soul-warming Bead embedded in his Soul Sea had been nourishing his spiritual sense and enriching it all the time. Due to this, each time there was a consumption of his spiritual sense, it would be replenished rapidly and that prepared him for the next battle.

Most important of all, there was one thing about this Beast-subduing Skill that made Austin very happy.

The reason of his joy was that after invading a beast's soul by using the spiritual sense array formed by Beast-subduing Skill and getting the beast under control, even if the very beast was hunted down or killed in a battle later, Austin's spiritual sense would hardly be affected.

The Flame Emperor once told him that, there were many controlling spiritual sense martial arts skills, such as using spiritual sense to control dummies and beasts or forming a delusional body. And they all shared one common weakness. It was that when the dummies and beasts or the delusional bodies were under attack or killed, the spiritual senses of the hosts that cast the controlling skills would be injured at the same time.

Being unlike those skills, the Beast-subduing Skill was absolutely safe for Austin if he were to cast spiritual sense control over the beasts. He would never have to worry about any latent danger if they were killed.

The Flame Emperor also told him that the Beast-subduing Skill was serendipitously discovered by him in ancient antiquity. Although it had been ages since it was first created, the power it contained was far beyond the modern controlling spiritual sense martial arts skills.

This was the actual reason why Austin dared to subdue a considerable number of beasts just by himself.

Taking ten sixth-grade diabolic beasts with him, Austin was just about to return to the valley where Violet was staying.

Suddenly, an anxious voice was transmitted to him through his mind.

Austin's face turned pale.

It was Violet calling for help. Since the distance wasn't much, they were able to maintain the ability to connect through their minds.

Violet is in communication, a coldness took over Austin's face. 'These people really have no idea about what situation they are getting into and whom they put all the

According to him,

was much more than others and allowed him to set out to the valley where Violet was trapped. He

Contrary to the pleasant view, a group of demonic foxes were surrounded by a large crowd of humans in an open field. The smell of danger was prevalent in the air.

fox was just a tale. What a lucky day for us! What a lucky origins in the antiquity era. They are very rare and their potential growth is remarkable. If I can subdue one of them and become their sire, I believe, it will be a huge add-on to my strength!" Another man and small talks took place, all at to capture all the demonic foxes and put them to their own use.

black was staring at the stood around him but all their positions were in a tacit protection array, ensuring that no one could rare breed of fox. If we can capture them, they will have a

I don't know if you've heard of this or not. It is well-known that demonic foxes are far better than human women in bed. If you have the young master. He slid his finger down his weird-looking mustache while he spoke to the young man with we better hurry! Come on, try to subdue and capture all the demonic foxes and save that nine tail demon fox for one, you can do whatever you want with the rest of and you for your kindness, young master!" All the men shouted in unison.

women. I think these little foxes can change it up a has been a long time since we entered this forest and I really crave for a woman

the young master stopped speaking, all eyes there were filled

All the men were teasing and got eager to get their hands on their prey.

Surprisingly there were two elders standing beside the young master. They remained silent. Both of them were smiling lightly at the young man.

If looked closely, their faces had a hint of surprise under their smiles whenever they laid their eyes on the demonic foxes trapped by the crowd.

Both of them were probably astonished at the fact that the nine tail demon fox truly existed. They knew how rare that species was and couldn't resist the thought of possessing one themselves.

"Okay, my brave men! Let's cut the bullshit. It's time to begin the hunt."

The young master ordered the crowd hastily.

"Yes, young master!"

After receiving the order from the young man, all the men who had circled the foxes responded to his call in a determined voice. With their vital energy surging around, a sheet-sized blood-red thin web appeared on each of their hands. They didn't hesitate a second and threw the thin web onto the demonic foxes to capture them all at once.

Violet was one of the foxes who got trapped.

Some time ago, she was playing with a couple of her fox friends in the valley. However, she and her friends didn't know what danger awaited them. As soon as they reached near the open field, these people jumped out and trapped them in a circle. Knowing that they were different from the ordinary demonic beasts—they were precious demonic foxes—the men became greedy and flirtatious towards them.

From the beginning, Violet always chose not to show her human form. One major reason was that during a battle she was quite stronger in her original fox form than in human form. The other reason was her prettiness in human form. She knew that it would bring her more attention from these greedy and lustful men.

Standing with the other foxes and looking around, Violet tried to have a clear view of the situation. After scanning through the crowd, she could feel that some men possessed a strong cultivation base and were rich in power, especially the two elders standing right beside the young man in black. Just looking at them sent a chill down her spine and her heartbeat raced faster than the normal pace.

Being trapped, she knew it immediately that it was impossible for her to escape the crowd unharmed and on her own. She was no match for those men. And she knew things would become worse if the two strong elders joined the men. Even if she was brave enough to pick a fight with them, she wouldn't be able to survive after the first strike.

She saw that there was no way to escape from the impending doom. Instantly, she decided to call Austin for help using their mind communication.

Seeing crowd getting restless and ready to attack, Violet raised up her fore-leg. A gigantic black fox claw was formed at the same time. It fell down from the sky so fast that human eyes could barely catch it. It moved like thunder towards the people gathered around them and struck down the men who were holding on to the thin web. Dancing in the air, the fox claw picked its targets. Two unlucky men were torn apart instantly.

The Supreme God

Chapter 549 Timely Rescue

When the rest of them saw that Violet's forceful attack killed two unfortunate guys, they were so shocked that they unconsciously stepped back.

"Be careful! That nine tail demon fox is a six-grade demonic beast.

It's not an easy one to take down," warned the elder who was beside the young man in black. He had piercing eyes.

"Bastard! How dare you?!"

"You will regret this!"

they shouted at Violet when they came to themselves after their momentary shock.

Violet and her friends were surrounded by more than a dozen enemies. What surprised Violet was the fact that five of them were already at the Mysterious Realm while the rest were at the premium stage of Earth Realm.

A six-grade demonic beast was only as powerful as a cultivator at the primary stage of Mysterious Realm. That was why they didn't take Violet seriously at first.

Violet's surprise attack, however, killed two of them easily. It ignited the fire of anger in their chest.

"We are at the Mysterious Realm so we will deal with the nine tail demon fox.

Those who are at the Earth Realm, you deal with the three-grade demon foxes," said one of the cultivators at medium stage of Mysterious Realm.

The enemy immediately divided into two groups. The five cultivators of Mysterious Realm, while holding a scarlet net, surrounded Violet in five separate areas.

At the same time, the rest of them began preying on Violet's friends.

A three-grade demonic beast was about the same as that of a human at the level eight or nine Energy Gathering Realm. It was as easy as a blink of an eye for these cultivators at the premium stage of Earth Realm to defeat three-grade demon foxes.

Even if the demon foxes moved as quickly as lightning, their enemies would still have a big advantage over them in terms of cultivation base.

In the blink of an eye, all three-grade demon foxes had been captured.

Violet was still encircled by the five cultivators of Mysterious Realm. Things were not looking good for her at the moment.

"Now!" said one of the men who was surrounding her.

Immediately, all five men sprang into action and made a pentagram array around Violet. Their perfect coordination showed the fact that they were extremely experienced in working together in battles.

blocked in the narrow and watertight array. She immediately started her demonic force and her black fox paw, with its immense demonic aura, then aimed it at the three enemies who for death. Do you really at Violet while facing her forceful attack. Then they all activated their vital energy force at the same time, connecting their strong energy around Violet. Not only was the black fox paw suppressed, Violet also got locked tightly by the net.

Bang! Boom!

fly backwards and attack of their vital energy force. Their attack affected her demonic force to the degree that she was feeling a jolt that was like a powerful explosion that was taking place force and stepped back as well. Their cultivation

"Wow!

fucking strong. This nine of them exclaimed, surprised.

six-grade demonic beast was only as powerful as a cultivator at the primary stage of Mysterious Realm tied with the five cultivators through a single attack. Plus, two of them were at the medium stage of Mysterious Realm while the rest were at primary stage the strength of the nine tail the legend says. I'm afraid that Bob and the other four have man when

of a bastard.

is no more time to waste. We have real business to do after us, he has found the trail of our target. We should meet him as soon as lord, you don't have to send Elder Horace to do such a petty job. I can is indeed a little tricky to capture but this job is easy now, Steve!" the young man with a mustache jumped up and breezily flew away! Let me teach cultivators were all immersed five of them were working they answered him at once and followed his order. It was obvious that Steve's status was higher than is indeed really Steve thought.

"Great Rope Force!"

out a hand and raised his forefinger and middle finger. A flash of vital energy force, like a rope, suddenly burst forth between his fingertips.
A rope was suddenly formed in the air like a noose. He aimed the Violet knew that he was at the primary stage of Sky Realm. His vital energy force surpassed Violet and it gave her no chance to activate her demonic

slowed down. The rope of vital energy force was as quick as lightning and it struggled to get free.

She was still tied up firmly no matter how hard she yelled.

"Ha ha ha! You cannot run now, bastard!"

Steve sneered at Violet while looking at her smugly. When the young man saw that Violet was captured, a satisfied smile formed on his lips.

"Swish!"

A faint golden sword, like a golden flame, flashed in front of them, who were holding the scarlet net that was ready for restricting Violet.

Swoosh!

There was suddenly a light crash from somewhere.

The rope that was surrounding Violet was suddenly cut into little pieces.

Then suddenly, a young handsome man was standing beside Violet.

"Who! Who's there?"

Steve exclaimed in anger. He was irritated by the sudden appearance of the handsome young man.

The other men were awestruck as well.

"Violet, are you all right?"

Austin said to Violet while ignoring the others.

"Mr. Austin, I would have been captured by them if you were a second late.

All of my friends were already captured by them!"

"Don't worry about it! They would be fine," Austin comforted her. Then he stood up and turned to the men with a poker face.

"Who the hell are you? This is none of your fucking business! You are going to regret interrupting us!"

Steve yelled at Austin. He was still angry because his rope was cut easily by him. When he saw the face of the person who broke his rope, he was surprised to see that he was only a young man who was only under twenty.

He glared scornfully at Austin.

"How dare you! You have no idea how big of a mess you are in right now."

The Supreme God

Chapter 550 The Thunder Sect

Austin eyed Violet from head to toe and then heaved a sigh of relief when he was sure that she was safe and sound. Then he turned to the strangers, his face livid.

"Brat! I don't care who you are or how you're related to this demonic fox.

Our young master took a fancy to her, so you better step back and give her to us. Otherwise, you won't live to see another day," Steve threatened.

His face turned as dark as ink when he saw Austin break his vital energy rope to release Violet. He heard Violet call Austin "Master," so he was guessing that she was his pet.

"Hah?"

"Are you serious?"

Disdain was written all over Austin's face.

He had seen Steve when he was battling with Violet. He could tell that he was at the preliminary stage of the Sky Realm.

"You're courting death! I'll let you taste my Wind-splitting Finger!"

Austin's words irritated Steve. Unable to bear the humiliation, he used all of his vital energy force to form a giant finger. The finger tore up the air around it and it also produced a sharp sound. It flew towards Austin's chest at high speed.

"Humph! Just a small trick! You're not that impressive," Austin taunted.

He didn't dodge the attack. Instead, he stood still and produced a sword from his palm. It was surrounded by flames.

Then he controlled the sword to destroy the finger.

Boom!

The sword slashed through the finger effortlessly as if it were merely a balloon. The finger exploded into a thousand pieces and vanished in the air.

"He's at the medium stage of the Sky Realm!" exclaimed Steve.

stared at Austin in stunned disbelief.

man was already at the medium stage weapon. It could block the attack of so arrogant. It

jealous of Austin because the latter was younger and stronger was higher than his, but he was not afraid because saw that Austin blocked Steve's attack. He then flashed a smile and said, "My friend, I'm interested in your demonic fox. Are you her master? Do you mind selling asking for Austin's opinion, his voice was so menacing that Austin could man is so young, yet he has already reached the medium stage of the Sky Realm. He might be from some of the leading sect or force. It's better if we don't clash answered coldly, "Nope. I'm afraid he mentally sensed a great didn't expect Austin to turn him down without of a bitch! You better watch your language. Our young master's father is the leader of the Thunder Sect. It is an honor to offer your demonic fox to at heard of

of the Thunder are you from? A remote village? I can't believe brat, listen

Sect is one of the strongest sect in the Elite Holy Kingdom. It is also the Thunder Sect could kill you as easily as killing an ant," Steve taunted in a loud voice. He was proud of his sect and could suck up to our young master. Think about it carefully," Steve continued when Austin didn't respond. It seemed to him that Austin got scared after learning about the Thunder Sect. He straightened Kingdom, you say? Sounds like it's really something,' Austin mused.

ask you a question,"

What question could you possibly have?" Steve young master, would you give your mother to him if he takes a fancy to her?" Austin taunted dead meat! You arrogant bastard!" Steve was instantly enraged by Austin's humiliating comment. He gnashed his teeth and clenched his fists. A vigorous energy suddenly gushed out from his erupted from his body and formed a

The tiger raised its head and roared at the sky. The atmosphere around the whole place vibrated because of its roar.

No wonder people said that the tiger was the king of the forest.

As soon as it emerged, it charged at Austin with fierce and majestic momentum.

Austin felt a rather strange feeling when he saw the tiger. He knew that it was formed by Steve's vital energy but somehow, he could feel that there was a real tiger's soul inside its body.

'What is this vital arts skill? It not only has a tiger's shape, but it also has a tiger's soul. It's like a real tiger!' Austin thought.

Steve's martial arts skill was amazing, but Austin was not afraid of him at all.

Like what he had done to the black rock diabolic bull, he integrated the eight kinds of forces of Brutal Blast Fist into a light ball and threw it at the tiger.

The light ball gave out a dazzling golden light which even Austin couldn't look straight at because he was afraid that his eyes might get burned. The light landed on the tiger's head.

Bang!

The tiger suddenly stopped in its tracks.

Steve's eyes widened. He couldn't believe what he just saw.

Boom!

With a bang, the tiger was split into a thousand vital energy force dusts that scattered all over the sky before disappearing. Strangely, Austin even heard the tiger's crying and wailing before it disappeared.

He felt like he just punched a real tiger instead of a tiger that was formed by vital energy.

"Son of a bitch! You bastard just destroyed my tiger soul! How dare you?!"

Steve yelled at the top of his lungs. He couldn't believe his eyes when he saw that Austin defeat his tiger with just one punch.

While Steve was still in shock, Austin took the opportunity to use his body movement skill. He was suddenly standing before Steve in just a blink of an eye.

Without a moment's hesitation, he integrated the eight forces again and threw a punch at Steve's chest. The air around them trembled with a reverberating buzz.