

The Supreme God

Chapter 61 Tin, Are You The Legendary Austin

At Sun Sect, there was a legend about the top outer disciple from the last term. It was said that he was a common disciple—a homeless orphan without any background.

The legend shared how he stood head and shoulders above the rest within two or three years of joining the sect. What had surprised everyone was that he had made such tremendous improvement based on his efforts. In this time, he had become the most eye-catching outer disciple with lots of glory and excellence.

However, after his accident, there had been no further news about Austin.

Most outer disciples didn't know where he went. Some disciples said that he had left Sun Sect. Others claimed that he had died.

Most disciples had never met this legendary disciple. They only knew that his name was Austin Lin.

Was this person Austin Lin?

All the outer disciples stared at Austin. They found it hard to believe that this youth with an ordinary and calm appearance was the famous Austin they had heard about.

They couldn't see how this person was the renowned topmost outer disciple who was outstanding and matchless.

Many disciples had been encouraged and influenced by Austin Lin's legend.

In the past two or three years, many outer disciples from ordinary families tried to follow Austin's example secretly.

They swore that someday they would be just like Austin and that they would earn the same level of respect as Austin had.

"Tin... Are you... Are you that legendary Austin Lin?"

Herbert stared blankly at his friend and said doubtfully.

He even studied Austin up and down, and left and right.

"I told you long ago that my name is Austin Lin."

Austin replied.

"No, Tin. I don't ask for your full name. I'm asking if you are that legendary Austin Lin!"

"What? This? That? Stay away from me. Don't bother me!"

Austin said impatiently.

enough to kill your work fellows for your interest. Do had been glaring at Austin coldly all this while shouted.

Simultaneously, his strong aura appeared from his body and rushed toward Austin.

down. It became difficult for him to breathe. He hurriedly summoned his vital you say that?

to support Marvin,

moral principles at speaking with him so much? Just kill him and then to tear Austin's skin and bones.

Uncle? No wonder!

was suddenly enlightened. Marvin was Johnson's nephew. As it was not Marvin but Johnson who was prepared to kill him today.

Marvin was determined to get the earth spirit fruit. To do so, he asked for the help of his uncle, who

"Haha, I see."

he was

join hands because of the earth

What are you trying showed no mercy when he replied to the showed no respect to superiors! All right. Since you are determined to break all the rules, I will his body became like a flood. In the same instant, heavy clouds, fog, and evil black vital energy around Johnson became stronger and grabbed all the broken branches and leaves, rank grass, dust, and even the stones on the ground. Soon, all the debris rose and formed formed in front of him. The spectral claw was covered with the dark fog, and the sound was Johnson's unique skill, and it claw appeared, all the outer disciples around were frightened. The spectral claw was so terrifying that they thought their souls were the disciples thought, 'Is this the strength at Austin with a pitiful expression. He had irritated a cultivator of the Earth torn to pieces by this dreadful spectral claw.

he felt the frightening breath have the confidence to that he didn't have a way of escape and that neither the uncle nor nephew would let the long sword filled the silence. And then, he tilted it to point at Johnson. Austin's vital energy quickly steward at Sun Sect, Austin would not

Austin had mastered only a few martial skills. Besides the grade one martial skills hardly worth mentioning, he had learned grade two skills such as Cloud Swordsmanship, Fish Swimming Pace, and Wind-commanding Skill of grade five, as well as Spiritual Sense Flying Needle for which he didn't know the grade.

What was more, three years ago, on the eve of his attack, he had used all his savings for a grade three martial skill, Tiger Roaring Fist.

Unfortunately, Austin hadn't gotten the opportunity to practice it.

Rumor had it that a lot of vital energy was needed to support the Tiger Roaring Fist. No disciple could cultivate it before reaching level eight of the Energy Gathering Realm.

Once Austin recovered from the attack, he didn't try to cultivate it.

In the days after his recovery, the martial skills that Austin had practiced most dedicatedly were Cloud Swordsmanship, Wind-commanding Skill, a bodily movement skill, and the Spiritual Sense Flying Needle which was suitable as a stealth attack.

"Huh, you are biting off more than you can chew."

As soon as Johnson stopped speaking, the dark spectral claw in front of him expanded quickly and tried to grab Austin.

The claw was tangled with violent black vital energy. As it rushed toward Austin, it rubbed the air rapidly and made a squeaking sound.

When the black spectral claw reached the air above Austin, its size doubled.

Under the fierce vital energy, Austin's clothes were torn to pieces and turned into flying butterflies.

In a second, Austin's clothing was like a fish net with thousands of holes, and his fair-skinned muscles were exposed.

Looking at the black spectral claw above his head, Austin took a deep breath and poured all the vital energy in his body into the long sword.

"It's time to die."

As Johnson howled, the spectral claw roared and rushed toward Austin.

Austin also roared and swung the long sword in his hand. It struck the part of the black spectral claw with the weakest vital energy.

Johnson was terrified when he saw that Austin had instantly found the part of the Spectral Claw with the weakest vital energy.

Suddenly, Johnson felt a severe inexplicable pain in his mind. His focus wavered and the spectral claw's momentum became weaker.

Everyone present thought that Austin would surely die from the steward's attack.

The Supreme God

Chapter 62 Spectral Claw

Finally, the long sword collided with the black claw.

The latter stopped attacking for a short moment, then with a string of slight metallic sounds, Austin's long sword broke into sections.

Just then, the black claw that was wrapped in strong vital energy flew toward Austin's head.

Austin spat out the blood pooling in his mouth. He moved his feet and tried to summon the Wind-commanding Skill.

However, under the immense pressure of the enormous black claw, Austin couldn't move flexibly. He managed to take a sideways step, but he couldn't dodge the claw. It struck him on the right shoulder.

Austin felt as though his insides were burning as the intensity of the collision was akin to being struck by lightning. The power of the blow also forced Austin back. Even though he dug his heels into the ground, he was pushed several feet back. Two deep trenches had been carved into the ground behind him. The act of defending against the attack had almost used up all of Austin's vital energy.

Battling with a cultivator of the Earth Realm, Austin seemed weak. And he was injured with the first blow.

Fortunately, he had summoned the Spiritual Sense Flying Needle and decreased the power of Johnson's attack. Otherwise, he would have been injured more severely.

In fact, Johnson was even more surprised than Austin was. He had gained much fame because of the Spectral Claw, and he knew how powerful it was. He had killed many cultivators at the Earth Realm with this skill.

Johnson figured that Austin had reached the level sixth of the Energy Gathering Realm in vital energy cultivation. He wondered why Austin had only been injured, although badly, but not killed by his attack.

Besides, he suspected that Austin had used some skill to cause the sharp pain he had felt in his brain.

"Well, it's no wonder that you were called the best outer disciple before. However, you have used up your vital energy now, and you have no chance of survival," Johnson snorted.

Just then, another black claw which was bigger than the last one formed in front of him. The vital energy around it was even more astonishing.

Sensing how weak he had become, Austin knew that his vital energy was going to dry out.

He communicated with the vital energy stone in his belly mentally, then a steady stream of vital energy gushed from the stone. Austin suddenly felt the vital energy in his body had resumed to its peak.

vital energy stone is useful in such critical moments!"

yet. If he were jumped, wiped the blood from

Austin jump up so quickly after being severely injured, they couldn't didn't know that Austin's vital energy had recovered, they It's useless to stand again," Marvin said sarcastically. The better Austin performed, the angrier he rapidly. Once it was filled with violent black vital energy, it rushed toward Austin. The disciples covered their ears as shrieking ghosts' cries filled the confined Austin in a small space as well. Now, Austin could neither move, gathered all his vital energy into his arm in the wind like countless black snakes dancing in the storm. He looked fearless and mighty.

saw him initiate the attack after being injured. Now they knew why he had been regarded as would have died after moment his fist touched the huge claw, Austin cast another Spiritual Sense felt another stroke of pain in his head. As before, the power of the claw weakened a

He spat another mouthful were stained with blood. In sharp contrast to Austin's pale face, the dazzling redness had been moved. As sharp pain coursed through that his vital energy had almost depleted again.

with a single blow, his vital the vital energy stone mentally again and then a large amount

Austin's vital earth spirit fruits, which was enough for Austin to restore his vital energy had a healing effect, his injuries were getting better as against the ground lightly and then stood straight. With his chin

"That's impossible!"

glared at Austin like he was a

He couldn't believe that a cultivator at the level five or sixth of the Energy Gathering Realm could stand up after being attacked by his Spectral Claw multiple times.

Seeing the gleam in Austin's eyes, Johnson suspected that he had found a way to recover his vital energy quickly.

In his opinion, even if Austin's competence was much higher than cultivators at the same cultivation level as him, it was impossible for him to recover so soon.

Remembering the sharp pains he had suffered twice, Johnson estimated that Austin must have done something to him.

'He is such a freak!

If he keeps on cultivating, he will reach an incredible level in the future!

If I don't do something now, I will have an unbeatable opponent to face later.

No. I won't let that happen! I must kill him while he is still weak.'

Johnson had decided to kill Austin.

Just then, overwhelming vital energy gushed out from his body and inflated the robe he was wearing. As the gown got bigger, a terrifying claw appeared in front of him.

"Die!"

Johnson shouted. Then the black giant claw enlarged significantly and rushed at Austin in the roaring wind.

Austin gritted his teeth and swung his fist with all his vital energy at the giant claw.

"Johnson, stop!"

A loud voice was heard before a person in a purple dress floated toward the two men.

Robust vital energy erupted from his body and formed a giant golden bird that roared as it flew in the air.

The bird's body was covered in an elegant pattern of dense and faint lighting that made it appear mighty.

The Supreme God

Chapter 63 Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill (Part One)

As soon as the golden roc appeared, it rushed directly towards the huge black spectral claw.

"Bang!"

The sound was deafening. To everyone's shock, the black spectral claw slammed against the golden roc. The visible vital energy from the impact wave spread layer upon layer, starting from where the two rammed into each other.

With a bang, the black spectral claw split into thousands of black dots that scattered all over the sky before it disappeared.

After circling the air several times, the golden roc likewise dimmed and vanished.

It was apparent the golden roc had the upper hand in that match.

All the outer disciples who witnessed the battle between two powerful men from the Earth Realm for the first time became very excited.

The exhilaration was because these disciples only mastered low-level martial skills. During ordinary battles, they either used a knife or sword or fists and legs when fighting hand-to-hand at close quarters.

The high-level battle of a strong sound and light effect with the vital energy avatars and detachments knocking each other over long distance shocked them so much.

"Murray!"

His eyes fierce and his face long, Johnson whipped around to see and called.

"Steward Zhu!"

Extreme joy was written all over Austin's face.

The man he called Murray was a steward in charge of recruiting disciples for Sun Sect. When Austin was homeless and wandered around, Murray discovered his martial talent and brought him back to Sun Sect.

It was also this man who insisted on keeping Austin even when the leaders of the sect planned to kick him out after he was framed and became a fool.

Without Murray's intervention, Austin would no longer be in Sun Sect.

In Austin's eyes, he considered Murray his master and father.

As soon as Murray forced Johnson's spectral claw back, he carefully examined Austin from head to toe.

He noted the young man behaved normally, and had spirit in his eyes.

You actually came to that you've reached level six of the Energy Gathering Realm," him tremendously.

my senses, I wanted to share the very warm feeling, like that's right. I was out for a period of time and just returned.

when he heard Johnson speak.

a warm reunion between father and business. I am killing the black sheep for Sun tone was dripping with relationship. Murray and Johnson not only disliked each other, but they also didn't get

Murray stared at knew the man was sinister, cunning, and ruthless and would do

Austin, who

"What happened?"

eyes, Murray looked uncle and nephew echoed each other and want to grab the earth spirit

at Johnson and

Zhu, Marvin killed three disciples in order to hog the earth spirit fruits himself while on fruits by chance. The uncle trying his best to tell Murray what happened.

a ready tongue before dying. Do you think you can deny what pissed Marvin that Murray suddenly call white black! It's you who threw friendship away this treacherous disciple who broke the it's you who has been putting on an act.

white black, but your nephew true and false can only be was difficult for Murray to going to involve yourself

Johnson spat out intent in his

"Right. I assure you I will mind this business."

There was no way Murray was giving in.

It was several minutes before Johnson stated coldly, "Alright. I will always remember what happened today."

It was eyes filled with anger that went with a straight face. Johnson was aware that he couldn't do anything to Austin as long as Murray was there.

As a steward in charge of recruiting disciples, Murray enjoyed prestige at Sun Sect and even possessed the strength of a level higher than his.

"Boy, I hope you live longer!"

Flapping his sleeve, Johnson turned to leave, his eyes full of threats to get even.

"Austin, I am not letting you get away with this!" Marvin declared.

Although reluctant to leave, Marvin was aware of the situation and knew he had to leave with Johnson.

"Steward Su, thank you for your kindness. I will live longer than you."

At these words from Marvin, Austin howled at them even with the two men's backs turned.

The howl had Johnson snort, but he said nothing. In an instant, he and Marvin had disappeared from everyone's sight.

"Alright, Austin, watch out for these two men in the future. Both are cunning. I have something important to take care of for the sect.

Remember, don't be lazy! Your desire to advance should be as strong as before."

After momentarily mentoring Austin, Murray went on his way.

Before leaving, however, he handed Austin two pills to repair his wounds and ordered the young cultivator to take them.

To comply, Austin swallowed the pills to start the healing of his wounds. Without a doubt, the tablets were valuable.

In the Sacred Scriptures Library of Sun Sect...

The Sacred Scriptures Library was one of the significant areas in Sun Sect. It was here where books about essential martial skills were stored. These were handed down from generation to generation since the founding of Sun Sect hundreds of years ago. It was meant to provide disciples of later generations with a guide to cultivate and master the skills and enable Sun Sect to continue being prosperous.

Generally, a sect's strength and culture were judged based on the quantity and quality of its martial skills.

The library had two floors. The first floor housed books on grades one and two martial skills.

The Supreme God

Chapter 64 Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill (Part Two)

Meanwhile, it was on the second floor where books on grades three and four martial skills were stored.

Outer disciples and those below this level could pay contribution credits to get books from the first floor.

Of course, if an outer disciple made some special contribution to the sect, or performed outstandingly, he had an option to exchange books from the second floor.

Meanwhile, inner disciples and those above this level could likewise exchange books on the second floor.

Taking a deep breath, Austin looked at the bookshelves in order.

There were as many as hundreds of books about martial skills on the library's first floor, with each book about half-an-inch thick. It was difficult to choose a suitable one from a wide selection of books on secret martial skills.

Stone-braking Punch, Angry Dragon Punch, Swordsmanship of Picking Stars with Willow Leaves, Wind Luck Step...

With numerous titles on secret martial skills to choose from, Austin was dazzled.

Swish! Swish! It was the sound of flipping pages.

In his excitement, Austin turned to the first pages of the books quickly.

There was always a comprehensive introduction on the first page of every book.

Wild Wind Knife: The knife skill was like a wind with a thunder's momentum. It would have the upper hand depending on the speed. Those wishing to cultivate it were required to be cultivators at or above level three of the Energy Gathering Realm.

Its cultivating difficulty was standard, while the martial skill was grade one.

The Angry Dragon Punch could increase the strength of the cultivator's vital energy in his body. It could solidify vital energy instantly and suppress the opponent with its power, which had a horrifying explosive force.

A cultivator must be at or above level five of the Energy Gathering Realm. It was a book with great cultivating difficulty.

was grade two.

was a close combat bodily maneuver to overcome a moving target with slow movement. When someone advanced to a certain and ability of understanding was required. It was also one of the grade two martial skills.

refined the cultivators' body by bashing it with hard substances, strengthened the body for defense. If a cultivator used it with could also resist attack by an this skill should be at, or above, level five of the Energy Gathering Realm. Mastering the skill was quite challenging and skill was grade

times he had been interested in it but chose to

was a

he could choose more, but Austin booklet covered with dust in the quickly and picked out the book. He blew the thick dust away

Skill, ' he read.

thumbed through the pages quickly then took a

a grade four

How could a book about a grade four martial he read the introduction on the first page. He learned it was a fierce and oppressive martial skill that would very powerful, and with it, the cultivator could even challenge an opponent of a higher level.

a grade four martial skill was on the first took the Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill and went to

of the library was surprised to on the first floor? Can I develop it?" a to inner disciples or those above the level, for them to not to touch the book about the Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill. A long time inner disciples or disciples above this level had cultivated this martial skill. But

All thirteen died because of the Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill," he said in a voice tinged with sadness.

"They all died because of the Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill? Why?"

A deep breath was necessary for Austin to control his astonishment.

The old man explained, " Because it is difficult to cultivate the Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill and it requires a powerful and accurate mental controlling ability. Otherwise, when a cultivator practices it, the energy meridians in his entire body will break with even the slightest mistake, and may even cause the body to explode.

Eleven of the thirteen disciples who cultivated this skill controlled themselves carelessly when they practiced, and ten of them had broken energy meridians, while one suffered a body explosion.

All were elites in the sect."

The old man sighed at the memory.

Listening to the old man had frightened Austin. He realized the Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill was very dangerous.

Mental power was only a spiritual sense. To be effective, it required a strong and accurate mental controlling ability, and his spiritual sense could be equal to that of the masters of the Mysterious Realm. That would be suitable for him.

"Even if you can summon the Grand Pagoda in the end, it has a disadvantage. This skill consumes so much vital energy. Regardless of your level, it will require 70 percent of your vital energy to call up the Grand Pagoda.

Think about it. After losing 70 percent of vital energy, if you can't kill the enemy with one blow, and with only 30 percent of energy left, you'll have to let the enemy kill you, right?" he pointed out.

He added, " It is for this reason that two of the thirteen disciples who developed the Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill ended up killed, one of them being a personal disciple of the current Sect Leader."

"A personal disciple of the current Sect Leader?" Austin echoed.

He was startled by this revelation.

"That's right. So the Sect Leader was furious and put this grade four martial skill on the first floor instead of the second, to prevent those arrogant inner disciples and elite disciples of the sect from practicing it."

Austin finally understood why the Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill had to be in the library's first floor.

The Supreme God

Chapter 65 The First Affection In The New World (Part One)

Nevertheless, having known the reason, Austin felt a certain degree of excitement of finding such a precious treasure here.

He had now known that this Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill had two weaknesses; one was the powerful, significant spiritual sense that it required from the cultivator, and the other was the enormous amount of vital energy it would consume during the process of cultivation. It was said that at least 70% of the vital energy of a cultivator was needed, which was an extremely high amount that an ordinary disciple would never dare to lose.

To Austin, however, the weaknesses could be advantageous for he already had a powerful spiritual sense. This was a requirement for the Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill cultivation. The vital energy stone in the elixir field that he had previously obtained could be used to replenish his vital energy during cultivation. And so, he didn't need to worry about how much vital energy was being consumed.

Therefore, this Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill seemed to have been made especially for him. The idea of trying it out appealed to Austin.

Apart from the fact that it was a grade four martial arts skill, the destructive force that it demonstrated was also pretty tempting.

Till now, Austin hadn't been able to acquire a relatively strong and aggressive martial arts skill.

When practicing at Beast Mountain, he had used his Cloud Swordsmanship to eliminate the diabolic beasts that he had encountered.

If by any chance, he could cultivate this Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill, he would at least earn a decent weapon. And right now, Austin seemed to have obtained the necessary knowledge and resources that the cultivation required.

"I will choose this Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill," Austin said to the old man in charge.

"After what I told you, you still want it?" cried the man in surprise.

no one would dare to that is being displayed here, I am attracted to it and wish to have it. And besides, as it is placed on the first floor, I am entitled to take it although it is a grade four martial arts skill. I think that it will be beneficial for my lest the man should you certain that you

the old man, still doubting whether Austin had heard his warning or it. So would you please agree with no

his view, the Grand Pagoda to challenge it was also a reasonable explanation. Just because it was dangerous didn't mean that Austin couldn't conquer it. It would be a waste if the old man kept it here for caution's sake. Eventually, someone would have to try just an outer disciple. He wasn't popular outside the sect. So, even if he failed, he would not bring much loss to the sect's reputation. On the contrary, if he were unimaginably strong and conquered the

as well," Austin said to the old man as he can only exchange one for free," the old man informed Austin with a quick roll of his eyes. Not only was Austin to exchange it for contribution credits. How many credits will contribution credits," the old man replied

God! I didn't think it would be so expensive," Austin cried and grinned at the old other option did he have? The price might be reasonable considering it was a grade two martial arts skill. At last, he agreed to exchange the Raging Dragon Fist had that many contribution credits. Now that he had bought the Raging Dragon Fist, he was completely

The minute Austin saw the Raging Dragon Fist, he had thought of Evan. Even though it cost him all his credits, Austin was thrilled that he had been able to buy Evan a gift.

He knew that although Evan was not very talented in martial arts, he was not hopeless. In the past, Evan had been too poor to afford any cultivation resources.

For over a year now, Evan had been stuck at the first-level of the Energy Gathering Realm. A few days ago, Austin gave him two of his Energy-boosting Elixirs. These pills should enable Evan to develop his vital energy.

Besides, among the remaining earth spirit fruits that Austin had left, a few were intended for Evan. With these many cultivation resources, Austin believed that Evan would quickly advance to the third-level of the Energy Gathering Realm.

And he knew that once Evan had reached the third-level of the Energy Gathering Realm, he would be competent enough to practice the Raging Dragon Fist he had bought for Evan.

As he was exchanging the Raging Dragon Fist for his contribution credits, Austin heard the old man grumbling, "You young people are always impetuous. You have insatiable eagerness to see and try everything that seems powerful and attractive to you. Even after knowing the dangers, you are determined. I advise you to pay extra attention to what you have just chosen today, young man."

Austin grinned, nodded his head, and did not say anything. After collecting both, his Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill and the Raging Dragon Fist, he walked out of the Sacred Scriptures Library.

It was a quiet and peaceful evening. The moon was extremely large and bright.

The moon hung low in the sky, pouring its silver, luminous light over the earth. Perfect silence and serenity surrounded the mountain.

In the cottage, Austin sat on the bed with his legs crossed. With steady, attentive eyes, he watched the Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill that was placed in front of him after supper.

From time to time, he raised his head and contemplated over the content of the book in his mind. And then, as he finished memorizing all of its content, he drew a deep, long breath to relax.

The Supreme God

Chapter 66 The First Affection In The New World (Part Two)

The Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill was well-known for the harm it caused. And so, Austin could not dare to be careless.

Even though he had gone through all the cultivation methods that were mentioned in the book several times, Austin looked through them for the last time. He started to feel brave enough to begin his cultivation.

He closed his eyes and began concentrating all his attention on the cultivation method he had just learned. At the beginning of the cultivation, Austin held out his hands and crossed his fingers into a rather odd position. A few seconds later, as his spirit gradually summoned his vital energy, it began to flow through his veins.

Then, a short while later, streams of golden, radiant vital energy penetrated through his veins and came out from between his palms.

Like a golden, delicate snake that was sliding up a tree, the vital energy began curling around Austin's hands. After a moment, the mysterious golden vital energy began to gather together and formed the shape of a tower base.

However, a clicking sound was heard and then, the tower base dispersed.

As he had expected, the cultivation process was not easy. Austin was supposed to continue utilizing his vital energy and forming it into a solid tower base instead of just an illusionary form. He failed in his first try.

Austin was not discouraged at all, however. He understood that the Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill was not a trivial cultivation skill that could easily be cultivated by anyone. The challenge in practicing the skill also explained why it had a strong, formidable power.

After bracing himself for some moments, Austin began again.

Then, he failed.

He tried once more, and failed again.

time the result tried harder and harder. The rapture of his cultivation had times. His hands did not feel the original rigidness of the gesture any longer. Instead, he looked as if a skilled magician who was displaying his magic spell. He did not have to wait long for the beautiful, delicate flowers, his hands danced graciously along with tower becoming more visible and more tangible. Around the tower base, a cold and chilly air swirled along with tower base that had formed, a contour of a golden tower appeared. Austin fixed his eyes steadily on the golden tower that was developing in front of him. His mind was tense. He was utterly engrossed in his achievement. He had gotten this far, and he was anxious that if he didn't focus, the golden tower would diminish any minute.

energy flew out from Austin's sound was heard as the vital energy the vital energy was inside. After a few moments, the tower turned into a solid, dazzling shape and slowly, it fell in was it! The Three-layer

Pagoda Summoning Skill had was to condense the step was to condense the Six-layer Grand cultivator to condense the Nine-layer Grand moment the Three-layer Grand Pagoda landed on his palm, Austin felt a sudden flow of electric current pass through dangerous part of the cultivation process had arrived. Others had told Austin that many inner disciples had died in this part of the cultivation. It was said that at this heard a thud sound.

The Three-layer Grand Pagoda began to tremble violently as it released a gust of strong, chilly air. The cold wind whirled around it. After some moments, the strong air began to pour into Austin's energy meridian and mingled with his blood.

The fierceness of its force was so intense that it seemed it would disrupt his whole energy meridian system.

Fortunately, Austin had prepared in advance. He knew this situation would come.

At the right moment, he activated his skill of the Golden Sun Scripture. As the elixir field lightened up inside him, the vital energy that was stored in it began to flow into his energy meridian. In a few seconds, the flow of the vital energy that was produced by the Golden Sun Scripture skill met the violent, chilly air released by the Three-layer Grand Pagoda.

As if a fierce battle had broken out between the two opposing armies, Austin's energy meridian vibrated immensely.

Apparently, the chilly blow of the Three-layer Grand Pagoda was so strong that it intercepted the direction of the vital energy of the Golden Sun Scripture skill. Like a furious predator that was being challenged over a large, powerful prey, its movement was swift and astoundingly aggressive.

The strength of the vital energy of the Golden Sun Scripture skill was not weak, however.

Having withstood the vibrant attack for a while, the vital energy's domineering nature gradually revealed itself. As if it were a young, energetic, wild bull that was being attacked, all its muscles were surcharged and became full of energy, and its mind was filled with the eagerness of overpowering its attacker.

The collision and confrontation continued for a while.

During this time, Austin did not dare to relax. Large drops of perspiration trickled down his face as he strove to withstand the force of the confrontation.

He also had to bear the pain that the battle inflicted on him quietly. Otherwise, he would fail. Any tiny flaw could bring him severe injury, or death.

To resist the attack of the chilly air that the Three-layer Grand Pagoda produced, Austin had to release more vital energy from his elixir field. So, he summoned all of his Golden Sun Scripture Skill to release as much vital energy as he could.

The Supreme God

Chapter 67 The First Affection In The New World (Part Three)

After he had fought with all his might for around ten minutes, the force of the confrontation that had been placed upon him began to abate.

He patiently waited for it to pass completely. A few moments later, the pain subsided, and the tension in his muscles began to loosen. At this moment, Austin was completely soaked in sweat and was panting heavily.

As much as he was utterly exhausted and completely out of power, Austin was excited with the progress he had made.

He studied the Three-layer Grand Pagoda that he created. By this time, it had turned into a solid, dazzling tower that contained such tremendous power that its energy brought a terrifying chill to the surrounding air.

"It is done."

Staring absorbedly at the brilliant light that was pouring out of the Three-layer Grand Pagoda, Austin murmured under his breath. A triumphant smile formed on his face.

At last, Austin had succeeded in his cultivation of the first step of the Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill. Now that he had obtained the Three-layer Grand Pagoda, Austin would inevitably have more vital energy and tactics when confronting his enemies.

The following day.

"Austin? Does Austin live here?"

Austin was woken when he heard someone calling his name.

Judging from the voice, it was a young girl.

Who could she be? It was not even daybreak yet. After his challenging cultivation the night before, Austin really needed a good night's sleep to rejuvenate his muscles. Being disturbed was the last thing he wanted at the moment.

Nevertheless, the persistent knocking at the door continued, and the sound of it got even louder. Very reluctantly, he crawled out of bed and went to open the door.

pushed open the door, Austin

It was Mindy.

and affectionate as ever. Her short, leather skirt revealed her long, slender legs and her fringed, small waistcoat framed the curve of her delicate breasts had always thought that greet her when he and retreated to his bedside, for he did not want Mindy to notice.

normal, it was inappropriate for Mindy to see

Mindy was too innocent to understand why Austin had rushed back without even saying hi.

It is a short time with his behavior confused her even more. "Austin, what the hell are you doing? Are you hiding something from didn't think twice before openly confronting Austin about his behavior.

He grinned and tried to laugh it now facing such a sweet, pretty girl. It was natural as he tried to drive away the blush on his out immediately. Just as she was about to ask, Austin interposed, "It's nice to see around the particular. I just came to see you. I heard that question, Mindy asked him with an expression of did not expect that she would be so concerned that she would visit him at such an early hour. His affection for her intensified as he Look, I am safe and healthy. I believe he will not be bullying me much longer. Very soon, I will defeat him," true. Given the fact that Austin had already succeeded in cultivating the Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill, his if you acquired the power needed to defeat him. How silly of me to come here and ask you this Apparently, she was upset at Austin's lack of honesty about his true identity.

Understanding that he had offended Mindy, Austin grinned and brushed his hair sheepishly with his fingers.

"You are right. I was the first-ranked outer disciple before. But you know I failed in last ranking exam and lost my cultivation base. I am much weaker now," he explained, looking furtively at Mindy lest he should annoy her more.

However, Mindy burst into laughter at Austin's attempt to coax her. Looking at Austin's shapely and handsome face, her heart ran hot with affection. Not wanting Austin to see her flushed face, she hastily lowered her head and turned aside.

Although Austin was currently a grunt disciple, the time she had spent with him had increased her attraction towards Austin. The way he overcame hardships and difficulties made her want to know more about him. She believed in his ability to regain his honor eventually.

The belief was strong in her. He was not like any other man she had met so far. There was something in him, something powerful and reliable, faintly showing and vaguely revealing. She often wondered over his potential and the brightness of his future. However, she could not be certain. But her intuition told her it would be astounding.

"Hey, what are you thinking? You just came to see if I was okay?"

Seeing Mindy in a trance-like state, Austin held out his hand and waved it in front of her beautiful face.

"No, not just that reason." Coming out of her trance, she said, "I missed the contribution credit recording date at Merit Hall as I had returned to my hometown. I got some valuable things when I was on Beast Mountain. I have them with me now. I plan to visit the Marginal Trade Market and exchange them for vital energy crystals. It is not far from here, and I was wondering if you'd like to come."

The Marginal Trade Market?

Austin knew of this place. He had even been there once. It was a place where people exchange their cultivation objects, like a secondhand market.

With a bit of luck, Austin could find what he needed.

Last time, when they were in Merit Hall, Austin had exchanged part of his beast cores for contribution credits. He still had many cores left. He was hoping to find a chance to sell them for vital energy crystals.

This Marginal Trade Market seemed like the perfect place where he could sell his diabolic beast cores.

"If you are going to the Marginal Trade Market, I am coming with you," Austin said decidedly.

The Supreme God

Chapter 68 Ancient Relic

Austin took five earth spirit fruits out of the Space Ring and gave them to Mindy.

Pleasantly surprised, Mindy touched the fruits with great care. She looked like a little girl who was thrilled at receiving a toy she had long dreamed about.

'She is quite pretty!'

Austin thought as he admired Mindy's slender figure.

"Hey! What are you staring at?"

Mindy blushed and questioned Austin when she noticed his meaningful look.

"Ah! What are you talking about? I wasn't doing anything."

Austin was embarrassed.

"Well, you'd better behave decently. I thought you were a gentleman when we were at Beast Mountain, and now you seem to have a dirty mind."

"There seems to be some misunderstanding here."

Austin found it hard to justify his action.

At the sight of Austin's embarrassed expression, Mindy burst out laughing.

"All right. I was just kidding."

Mindy was an outspoken and jolly young girl. Austin had undoubtedly earned her gratitude when he presented her with the five earth spirit fruits, as Mindy knew that he wasn't obliged to share any with her at all. After all, Austin had risked his life when he fought with Marvin, and so he deserved the fruits.

Considering what he had done, Mindy had formed a good opinion about Austin.

"Are you done, Tin? Please let me know if you are."

Evan's voice could be heard as he walked closer to them. Hesitantly, he glanced at Austin and Mindy.

Austin frowned.

"What the hell are you doing, Evan? Come over here."

Evan ran toward them immediately.

"I thought you were doing something unspeakable! I was mistaken when I heard the flirting words. So I thought ..."

Evan tried to be careful with his wording.

"What are you thinking about ?"

Austin almost choked with anger.

Mindy blushed scarlet and gave Austin a hostile glare.

"Nonsense! Seriously, why are you here, Evan?"

Austin hastened to change the topic.

"I've reached the second level of the Energy Gathering Realm!"

Evan looked truly radiant. Since joining Sun Sect, he had been stuck at the first level of the Energy Gathering Realm. A breakthrough was what he had longed for, but his goal always seemed out of reach.

Elixir that Austin had given him, rather low. Here

the three earth spirit fruits and a each time. It's very powerful, and you don't want to be blown up.

Austin warned.

to see how generous Austin was, both to you sure these are all much about the earth spirit fruits, he could the first secret manual he could own because he was too poor to many of his dreams. He are so kind

up gratefully. Austin could see the tears welling

I would not hesitate to give my body and my life to at the

I'm not interested in your

and so he fled with Mindy as soon

how much Austin and Evan cared about each

Market, which lay in a vacant area in the forest, people of all ages clamored about. It was crowded and chaotic! A dazzling array of booths that presented were bustling around, yelling for attention, bargaining, or the forest. Each followed Mindy to the market. The goods

the sellers

Mindy stopped at one booth and met the laid ten beast cores on the table.

examining the beast cores, the young man offered on the amount, and packed the crystals cheerfully.

hundred and fifty vital energy crystals were quite a fortune for an

Quickly, he displayed his collections from the Beast Mountain.

beasts. He had also placed three cores of second level demonic beasts, and two cores of second level diabolic beasts.

she saw Austin's collection.

of the Energy

a second level magic fox and a second level he was convinced, the seller took a deep breath to keep pay you 800 vital energy crystals for these five beast cores.

Austin earnestly and eagerly, hoping about offer without hesitation.

if he took these two rare beast cores back to the Chamber of Commerce of a nearby city, and his job was to purchase goods

top-class, its beast core could be useful. In addition, it was rare to find a magic fox, and so its energy crystals for the rest of your beast cores Austin had shown belonged to common first level beasts, cores of the magic fox, so he decided to energy crystals was satisfying to Austin. He smiled delightedly, as main task accomplished, Austin took the vital energy crystals and continued to stroll around the booths to see if anything about Ancient Relic is now on 100 vital energy crystals for a limited time. First come,

was promoting the sale resist the allure of the Ancient Relic, Austin ventured good-looking young men were yelling for attention, yet they didn't them bowed with hands

an Ancient Relic, and we are hoping to recruit some team members to "Aren't you hustling us? If it's true, why don't you just look for the treasure by yourselves? Do you think you can fool us?"

Someone questioned.

Many others nodded as they agreed with the person that had questioned the two young men. The crowd was by then, on guard, as they were afraid of being tricked.

"You misunderstood us, brother. There are many beasts in the relic. Although they are third level beasts, we can't risk our lives as we are merely at the sixth-level of the Energy Gathering Realm."

Then he pulled up his clothes and showed others the deep scratches on his ribs. The blood and flesh contrasted sharply with the white bones beneath.

"To tell you the truth, we have entered the relic once and almost died. We have no choice but to ask for help. Please consider the 100 vital energy crystals as compensation for our injuries and this important information ."

"Hurry up if you are interested. Once the news spreads, cultivators at the Earth Realm and even the Mysterious Realm will be here any minute. At that time, we will have to step aside. Wake up. We are nobodies! Seize the chance."

Another young man urged.

He had made a valid point. This was an entry-level market that attracted mainly people at the Energy Gathering Realm. Their cultivation base would be like a drop in the bucket compared with masters from the Earth Realm.

"All right. I'll give it a shot. But if you are lying to us, well... look at all these people here. They will skin you alive."

A bystander threw 100 vital energy crystals onto the table. If what the men were saying was true, he would earn a good fortune by following them.

Encouraged by the first buyer, many others paid for the information.

In a short moment, the pile of vital energy crystals on the table had grown.

"What do you think, Austin? Would you care to check it out?"

Mindy whispered.

"I might have sensed something unusual. But they are only at the sixth-level of the Energy Gathering Realm, and we've got many hands here. It will be fine. Let's find out."

Austin decided to participate. He placed 200 vital energy crystals on the table.

After a while, the two young men picked up the vital energy crystals with a satisfied smile and guided the crowd east.

After around four hours, they arrived at the entrance of a valley, which was surrounded by tall bamboos.

"The Ancient Relic is in the valley. Get ready! We're about to start the treasure hunt."

One of the young men shouted.

The group of volunteers cheered and prepared for the adventure.

The whole valley was enveloped in mist. The tall and luxuriant bamboos added mystery to the surroundings.

The two young men took the lead and walked into the valley.

The others rushed behind them, as none wanted to be left behind.

It wasn't long before Austin noticed something strange.

The two men had mentioned that third-level beasts had injured them previously. If so, the two young men should have been cautious when leading the group of people. To Austin's surprise, they weren't.

Instead, they boldly led the others into the valley.

"Be careful. Something is wrong," murmured Austin.

After about half an hour, they stopped at a flat vacant area.

"Where on earth is the Ancient Relic?"

Someone else had also sensed the danger and questioned.

"There, there. What an impatient virgin!"

An alluring voice was suddenly heard. The woman breathed hard and moaned with enjoyment, sending out lustful information.

The Supreme God

Chapter 69 Illusion

As a gentle, tinkling giggle filled the air, the crowd looked around. As if on cue, the mist ahead of them parted.

A dozen of beautiful girls stepped through the thinning mist. Their scantily clad bodies revealed their perfect figures.

Soft and effeminate music filled the air, and the girls smiled gracefully at all the people. They danced to music and circled the crowd.

Each of these young and beautiful girls was attractive. They had different figures, but every one of them was a feast to the eye.

As the young ladies danced gracefully, they threw seductive, shy glances at the crowd. Each was trying their best to showcase their most attractive side.

Occasionally, they would show some tantalizing expressions or moves to tempt them.

The men in the crowd were immediately captivated. They breathed heavily as the animal desire which lay deep in them was stirred.

As they watched the girls dancing, the men swallowed hard, and their eyes lit up.

Suddenly, the dancing girls formed two lines and separated. From the middle, a fascinating and charming woman emerged. She sauntered toward the crowd.

She was incredibly attractive and sexy.

Clad in tight, pink clothes, the perfect lines of her body were on display for everyone to see. Her beautiful face was one of a kind, and her movements were lithe and graceful.

She had fair skin, long and slender legs, perfect narrow waist, and a firm butt. She wore a pair of wooden shoes that laid bare her delicate toes. What a lovely girl!

Her straight, fine nose and luscious lips mesmerized the men. Her fair-skinned and cream-like cheeks also left the men spell-bound.

She danced delicately like a willow, and seemed fragile as if a gentle breeze would snap her.

There was a rice grain sized teardrop shaped mole under the corner of her right eye. It made her look all the more glamorous.

The slight blush on her cheeks, and her posture triggered the imagination of the men.

Anyone who caught her eye, no matter male or female, would be captivated by her. Before long, everyone's eyes were glued to her.

Her glistening eyes were magical! They directed the spiritual souls of the onlookers and tugged at their heartstrings.

The audience was fascinated by her. They stood still, gaping at her as if they had forgotten all other things.

However, Austin was the only one who sensed that something was amiss. They had been led here by the two young men on the promise of discovering an Ancient Relic. Instead, they had found exquisitely beautiful women. What was worse, everyone seemed to have lost control, as though hypnotized by the woman.

He assumed that the woman in the middle was responsible.

spiritual sense, which allowed him to suppress his out. Something is not right. The woman in the middle is behaving to Mindy. But when he turned to look at her, he was surprised to see her expression.

in a daze. She gawked at the

"Mindy! Mindy!"

was enchanted. And so, he pushed her

"Yes?"

seductive woman had ensnared her, she became so frightened that her know what had happened. The lady dressed in pink only shot a tender glance at her, and this woman is powerful. She seems to of how she had behaved, Mindy flushed and turned away in embarrassment.

Oh?

lady in pink realized that Austin and Mindy's minds were still clear and that they were talking to each other. She was sashayed toward Austin.

the same time, he gave Mindy a hint with his eyes, telling her to woman noticed Austin's hint. She giggled coquettishly. Her laughter sounded like the soft ringing of bells. She didn't stop until she reached Austin. She was so close to him that their bodies at such a close distance, Austin had to admit that she was exquisite.

smile at him. Her beautiful, glistening eyes teased him with amorous advances. She tried to seduce him in every way that she her breath felt warm as heat sense, Austin

intensified my illusion, but he still doesn't fall play with you,"

base was still at a low level, she would not bother wasting too woman tossed a pink ribbon in the air. In a flash, flower petals scattered above them, and the air was dodge, he felt his head woke up. He didn't know how much time had passed. But he felt very weak. He seemed to he was in a big cave. At the entrance of the

'Damn!'

he could smell the light fragrance that came with the in his arms, deep in sleep. Their bodies clung to Mindy for injuries, his eyes fell on the curve of her breasts. When Austin realized he had been he knew that she would be no strength at all. He couldn't move his woke. She tilted her head slightly, and a yawn escaped holding a beauty in his arms, he was unhappy. He knew a storm her eyes and caught Austin's gaze, she realized that she was lying

"You, asshole! What are you doing?"

She cursed as she tried to stand and move away from him.

Austin gave a wry smile and said, "I don't know what happened. I woke and found us like this. This must be that woman's doing! I can't move now."

Mindy struggled to move, only to find that she had no strength either.

Mindy knew that Austin did not do this to her. But all logic had flown out of her mind. She was focused on the fact that she was lying in a man's arms and feeling his masculine body. She was a straightforward woman, and it was hard for her to think rationally in this situation.

She couldn't help but glare at Austin.

"I am warning you. If you dare to make any move, I will not forgive you!"

"I haven't done anything. And I can't move. Not even a bit."

Austin smiled with resignation.

"Where are we?"

"Why am I here?"

"Damn, we fell into their tricks. Where are the men who brought us there?"

"They cheated us."

All the people who had followed the two young men from the market to the valley were also in the cave with Austin and Mindy. As they woke from their enchantment, they cried out with fright.

As they were shouting and trying to free themselves, the iron gate squeaked as it swung open.

Two young girls dressed in thin garments entered.

"Bitch! Shame on you!"

Mindy ground her teeth and cursed.

The girls who had come were both seductively dressed and were very open. They seemed to have no idea what shame was.

The two girls walked to a young man and grabbed his arms and lifted him. They dragged him to his feet with each girl holding one of his arms and began walking him out.

The young man was terrified.

"Where are you taking me? Where am I now? And who are you? "

But the girls only covered their mouths and chuckled at his questions. They dragged him out of the cave.

The iron door then flung shut, and the lock slid into place with a loud clunk.

The Supreme God

Chapter 70 Revealing the Master's Identity

During their whole stay in the cave, they received simple dishes from some thinly clad women.

Each day, a couple of young men were taken out of the cave, but they never came back. And everyone was clear that this wasn't a good omen.

Then on the fourth day, all the female in the cave were taken out by some glamorous young ladies.

Those inside the cave felt like they were paralyzed by certain poison and couldn't defend themselves. They couldn't help but let the young ladies order them around.

Before she was forced out of the cave, Mindy shot a rueful look at Austin because she knew that, like the others, she might not return, either.

"Everything will be fine. Trust me, I'm working on it."

Austin tried to console her. That was the only thing he could do right now.

When Austin was caught by an attractive woman, the smell of her alluring fragrance left a mark on his olfactory. He reckoned that it must be a deluding potion that hindered the operation of the vital energy.

So in the past days, Austin had been discreetly practicing the Golden Sun Scripture in the attempt to repel the scent that was suppressing his vital energy.

Since this cultivation method was the most masculine among all the cultivation methods in the world according to the general principles of the Golden Sun Scripture, Austin figured that it might be able to curb the effect of the elusive scent.

Just after two days of practice, Austin started to regain some control over his vital energy.

'Seems that Golden Sun Scripture is surely remarkable. Although its effect is not very conspicuous after a short practice.'

He thought that the lack of satisfying result was due to his insufficient practice of the Golden Sun Scripture. After all, his current cultivation was practically based on his study on the Purple Yang Formula.

Be that as it may, Austin kept practicing the Golden Sun Scripture continuously since he realized that it could negate the effect of the deluding scent inside his body.

Finally, the cultivation method worked its magic. Austin sensed that he was gradually recovering his strength and vital energy.

It was exactly the thing he told Mindy that he was working on before she was taken out of the cave.

However, Austin was still clueless about the power of that attractive woman. Even if he recovered all his vital energy, he probably could not match that woman with his current sixth level of the Energy Gathering Realm.

By the seventh day, there were only four men left in the cave.

Each of them was shuddering in fear, worried that they would be the next target.

Then their biggest fear finally came upon them.

They watched as the iron door swung open with a creak young women came the remaining four males before walking towards Austin.

three sighed in relief then darted gloating shook his head. 'Those guys are just unbelievable. Even though we are on the same boat now, they can still think about scheming against one unique fragrance of the two was being funny. The other men who they brought away before only whined and like this, so he had long since been racking his brain for a way out. Now, his turn to go away all the deluding scent inside him and retrieved the spot of light in that the naked eye could not pick it up. But after his continuous practice, it was already as large as light was suspending behind his navel, emitting dazzling golden rays and warming his body up like stronger than before. When he slightly clenched his to face great danger by the time he was you that you're both gorgeous? And the scent smells good on you, too? I think I'm an unknown place. To also sound convincing, Austin deliberately flared up his nostrils and sniffed women, who seemed not offended at all, chortled. They were even more convinced that Austin was a be so flattering? But our master needs you to exercise her skills. Looking at you now, it's unfortunate

Austin wanted to know more about the said master, so thought I would never see her again! The last seducing people. There's no way a silly man like knew it was just a trick of illusion!' Austin in an unknown petals falling on the luxurious red carpet. The cave had an cave stood a bed with curtains hanging from sexy woman was lying on the bed with one hand propping up her head. She looked laying his eyes on the woman, Austin confirmed in bed. She beckoned Austin and

All his reasons forsook him, and his eyes grew scarlet as his breath became harsher and run towards the fragrant bed and rip he could see was that lovely woman and her feet with her passionate eyes still already stupefied, completely at the mercy of that woman.

enticing woman transformed into a furry one with pointed mouth and elongated ears. It energy in his body was about to flee and fly towards that woman as if under snorted. His eyes transformed from and swiftly pierced into

At once, that fox was hit by an invisible power. She was pushed back to the wall of the cave, shrieking and struggling and her mouth was full of blood. Then, she just gawked at Austin as though he were a devil.

"Do you really think you can fool me again with your little illusion?"

After successfully attacking, Austin could not hide his delight.

The moment he stepped into the cave he immediately recognized the power surrounding him.

He guessed it was from a demonic beast.

It was the same feeling he had when he killed those second-grade magic foxes in the Beast Mountain.

Back then, Austin was walking through a band of thick woods in the depths of the Beast Mountain. Unexpectedly, three coquettish women appeared out of the blue and did their best to tantalize him.

At first, he almost fell into their trap. There was no doubt that such alluring illusion was quite effective when it was used on innocent young men like Austin.

But thanks to his strong spiritual sense, he managed to keep a cool head and summon his spiritual sense in time. Eventually, he saw the true color of the three beauties—they were the three magic foxes!

The foxes were casting an illusion on Austin. But when he counter-attacked with his Spiritual Sense Flying Needle, the illusion they conjured vanished, and their own senses were harmed. Without any hesitation, Austin thrust his sword into them one by one.

When attacking with spiritual sense, one should bear it in mind that it was a risky move if the spiritual sense of his opponent was stronger than his. The one with the weakest spiritual sense would be subdued by the one with a stronger spiritual sense which could, in turn, harm the first's own spiritual sense.

The three magic foxes in the Beast Mountain did the same thing, so as a result, they were maimed by Austin's spiritual sense and got killed.

This experience helped Austin sensed what was in the cave.

He realized that the cave was just an illusion but this one was more advanced than that cast by the three magic foxes in the Beast Mountain.

Despite that, Austin wasn't afraid because the power of his spiritual sense had also doubled since the Beast Mountain encounter. Thus, when he noticed the woman was manipulating him with an illusion, he became more confident that the woman's spiritual sense was a little weaker than his.

With the small gap in their power, Austin was able to discover where the trap was as soon as he came into that cave.

But apart from her feeble spiritual sense, Austin also noticed that the cave was infused with overwhelmingly demonic aura. From then, Austin could tell that she was a three-grade demonic beast.

Thus, he decided to play along at first. He pretended to have been deluded before throwing out his Spiritual Sense Flying Needle at a critical moment.

When the illusion vanished, that beguiling woman in bed disappeared, and so did that bed and the red rugs in the cave. There was only a small fox with sleek pink fur sprawling on the ground, her mouth bleeding but her hateful eyes transfixed on Austin.

Judging by her lethargic breathing, Austin knew that the Spiritual Sense Flying Needle injured her severely.

Given that she was halfway through casting the illusion when she was hit, it was her spiritual sense that was harmed in the collision.

"This can't be! You're merely a human being at level six of Energy Gathering Realm. How come you possess such a strong spiritual sense?"

That fox spoke in man's language, her voice filled with bitterness.

'She sure is a three-grade demonic beast!' As he sensed the dense demonic aura, Austin knew that he didn't underestimate the opponent.