

The Supreme God

Chapter 71 Willing To Be Your Slave

Even if Austin had seen how badly injured the demonic fox was with his own eyes, he still kept his guard up. After all, he was facing a level three demonic beast that surely had special skills.

"Ugh! I've seen beasts like you multiple times, and you're not that powerful. Your tricks don't work on me," Austin said coldly.

Although he spoke fiercely, he remained calm as usual.

The small demonic fox looked crestfallen. She was annoyed at her carelessness, which almost killed her.

Never had she been hurt so badly until now. She loathed Austin so much, and his sneering face only made her angrier.

Suddenly, the fox let out a shrill cry.

Her usually soft fur got longer, and each hair strand became straight as needles. To Austin's eyes, her body looked like a hedgehog that would explode. Then a cloud surrounded the fox, and its colors alternated from blue, red, and white.

The demonic aura the fox emitted frightened Austin. The level three demonic beast was much stronger than a level two one. Even without using an illusion, her strength alone was forceful enough.

Her green eyes stared at Austin. Suddenly, she raised her right paw and scratched in the air. A black fox paw figure appeared in the sky. It was two dozen larger than the fox and had as much demonic power.

Austin didn't dare to underestimate the fox paw's power and worked up his skills as well. His two hands swiftly made different gestures then small golden snakes appeared from his palms. Their slender bodies slithered everywhere like mad.

Then, a three-layer golden pagoda emerged from Austin's palms. He was delighted to find out that his Golden Sun Scripture improved the pagoda's strength. Its immense power was palpable throughout the area.

Meanwhile, the demonic fox looked alarmingly at the three-layer golden pagoda. She seemed to have thought of something, then pointed her paw at the huge black fox paw-like figure.

The black fox paw immediately charged at Austin with its immense demonic aura.

This was Austin's first time to fight with his Grand Pagoda, so he had expected his opponent's move. Before the huge fox paw could come near him, he started to make the pagoda move.

The three-layer golden pagoda quivered slightly at first, then it released a wave of powerful force and attacked the black fox paw.

Bang!

The two forces collided with each other and released waves of power like an explosion. Rocks were scattered everywhere, and the ground shook for a second.

However, the demonic fox's spiritual soul had been injured badly. At this moment, she only got to use half of her demonic power.

On the other hand, Austin's golden pagoda was made up of his seventy percent vital energy, and its strength was already on par with the fox paw.

'Go!' he mentally commanded.

He fought and mentally directed the golden pagoda towards the fox paw. Its golden exterior shined brightly as if to tell the fox that it feared nothing at all.

Bang!

The stones on the ground flew everywhere again, and the whole cave started to shake violently. Rocks fell down from the cave's ceiling and walls.

the fox paw

his Grand Pagoda could easily defeat the Austin shouted.

as if he was the god of war. The Grand Pagoda flew towards the black fox paw again, as Austin had the black fox paw finally collapsed. It turned into numerous black dots then fox badly once again, and her body hit the wall of the cave as it fell down. Blood gushed out from her wounds and

Austin, and she admitted defeat by lying would be easy for her to defeat Austin. She was so sure of it because Austin was only at level six never expected that Austin could perform such a

"You demonic fox! What do you think of our fight? Do you want to continue?" Austin should be worth a lot! You evil fox, you should know that you mentally commanded the pagoda once strongly flew towards the me," the fox suddenly opened her mouth and spoke.

no longer fight against Austin, looked at her feeble form incredulously.

you? Why not? Are we good friends? You just wanted to take my primordial energy was absorbed from him, he would golden pagoda hover above the demonic fox, even if she had begged for little fox was so incapacitated already that she couldn't even stand up. It meant that he wasn't in danger anymore, so there was no need to ran out. Her glassy eyes looked at Austin sadly as if little fox's eyes as he couldn't help but purse his lips.

he were an innocent girl with too much love, maybe he would've been cheated to be like that. How many young people have you killed and absorbed their primordial masculine energy recently? You were so cruel and wanted

work on me," he finished

on!" he shouted

no sympathy for the little fox at all. He pointed at her with his finger, me. I would like to be your slave and serve and hurriedly asked

"Be my slave?"

Austin was puzzled.

you're badly hurt now and cannot defeat me," he said. "As long as you can recover, you can defeat me easily. I know that well," he little fox shook her head.

my beast soul. You can control my life with your mind, so I will never betray knew that if the pagoda hit her, she would definitely be pulverized into dust. If she became a slave, she would at least thought about it carefully for a spiritual sign on your beast soul? I can control your he got interested.

such a powerful spiritual said, she was relieved to have a chance to still live.

"I am strong as a man at the Earth Realm. If I became your slave, you would have a helper of the Earth Realm," the fox spoke again.

"Moreover, I am a nine tail demonic fox, with the innate skills of flirtation and illusion. A nine tail demonic fox at level five or above could change its appearance into a girl. Many powerful cultivators like to capture demonic foxes that can turn into girls to sleep with. Our foxes have innate flirtation skills which are stronger than that of human girls," the little fox told Austin what she knew.

She had subtly said the last sentence in a gentle and sweet voice. When Austin listened to it, he felt so comfortable as if there was a soft hand that touched his heart, and tried to turn on the hidden desires in the depths of his mind. It seduced him to follow his inner instincts.

If Austin had not been talking to a fox, he probably would have believed that those words came from a sweet beauty.

"Okay! That's enough. Stop your flirtation," he said.

With a deep breath, he shook his head.

He suppressed his innermost desires and went back to the task at hand.

"You have persuaded me, so tell me how to make my spiritual sign."

The little fox was more than happy to tell Austin how to make his spiritual sign.

Now, Austin needed the little fox's cooperation to make his spiritual sense on her spiritual soul since his spiritual sense was at such a low level. If the little fox couldn't accept it, she would die and her soul would disappear.

Austin followed the little fox's instructions carefully. He pulled one piece of his own spiritual soul and willed it to enter the little fox's Soul Sea.

This was his first time to enter someone else's Soul Sea, and not to mention a Soul Sea of a level three demonic fox.

The Soul Sea was filled with a demonic aura, which frequently fluctuated. Above the Soul Sea was a figure of the little fox—it was the demonic fox's beast soul.

Austin commanded his piece of spiritual sense and attached it to the beast soul.

Although the demonic fox wasn't actually willing to accept it, she was pliant enough to be under Austin's control. Shortly after, he had finished attaching his spiritual sense to the demonic fox.

After they were done, he immediately felt a strange sensation that the demonic fox's life was really under his control. If he wanted it, he could easily ask the demonic fox to die.

That piqued his curiosity, so he tried to think about it. The little demonic fox instantly shrieked miserably, and her body shook and twitched under Austin's harsh torture.

In turn, Austin stopped thinking about it at once. "I'm sorry. I was just curious," he apologized.

He was quite satisfied with the result, as he could control the fox completely. However, he still apologized to her for inflicting pain.

"It's okay. I am the Master's slave, you can let me live or die as you please," the little fox said.

Even if she had just been tortured harshly, she didn't dare to show her displeasure. She looked submissive and obedient, and stared fawningly at Austin.

When he saw the little fox's facial expression, he realized something.

"The charming woman I saw just now was your illusion, wasn't she?" he asked.

"Yes, master," the little demonic fox answered.

Right after she finished her sentence, a beam of green light flashed, and the demonic fox disappeared. In her place was the charming girl that Austin saw before.

It really was an illusion of the little demonic fox.

The Supreme God

Chapter 72 She Is Mine

The sultry and charming woman winked at Austin. Mischief and allure flickered in her beautiful eyes.

"You know, Master, you can have me now, if you want to," she giggled slightly.

Her sweet, delicate voice was like a gentle warm hand patting him, and incessantly drew out the most primitive desires from the bottom of his heart.

However, Austin deflected her attempts.

"Shut up! Am I that kind of a lewd person?" he said.

"Besides, I'm a man, while you're just an animal!" he almost shouted.

He hurriedly turned around, afraid to look at the woman's enchanting beauty again.

"Show your true form, or else I'll stop being nice and punish you instead," he demanded seriously.

The truth was he was terrified that if the situation kept going on like this, he would really succumb to his primitive desires that surged in his body.

A green light flashed; then the charming woman vanished and was replaced by the little demon fox.

However, she looked rather sick and her breathing was very weak. Austin began to worry a little about her.

"How's your injury? I hope it's not as serious as you look," he asked worriedly.

"Master, my injury is quite severe--it may take a long time for me to recover," the little fox said feebly.

It was very frail and Austin hardly heard its small voice.

"A long time? Do I need to stay here and wait for your recovery?" Austin asked earnestly. "That's not necessary," the fox replied.

She opened her mouth, then a purple bead appeared on her paw.

Her eyes looked at Austin and she showed him the purple bead.

"Master, do you have a Space Ring?" she then asked.

"Yeah, I do have one," he replied.

His hand reached to the inner pockets of his clothes, and took out the Space Ring which he had but previously belonged to Rafat. He had kept it there to prevent others from stealing the valuable object.

"That would be great," the fox said happily.

"I was born with this Illusion Bead inside my body. I can hide in the bead while I recover. Master, you can just put this Illusion Bead in your Space Ring," she added and handed him the bead.

that it was a him wherever he went. That would be rather inconvenient for way, would these help you recover?"

two earth spirit fruits as he spoke,

he was the fox's master, he decided to be demon fox took the fruits and examined them. She was pleasantly surprised when she felt the large amounts of vital of vital energy, which can speed up the recovery of your slave's injuries," she exclaimed a slave like that. I'm not used to it,"

the fox

didn't object to his idea, so it meant came along with me alright now?" Austin

he suddenly remembered Mindy, who he thought was a nice person. He didn't want anything bad in response. "All the women are safe now. It's just that many of those men have died because they had run out of blood and vital energy," dead men might be the

perhaps Austin would still kill her if got into a fit

he wanted to kill the demon fox, he could do it by simply controlling looked rather thankful.

not. It's just the woman who was lost in a coma due to your trick. She's my friend," he master's words, Violet felt extremely relieved and let

I'll exercise my power to cure my injuries now, and then release her. I just have to finish some chores before I can get so she wouldn't be disturbed. He waited outside of

out of the hole

true body in front of human beings, and I do like to transform into a human woman. May I nodded and let her do what she wanted.

there was no reason

"Do you need energy to maintain your from your injury now, won't the transformation affect you?"

fox family is different from the general fox family. We are born with the Illusion Bead, and

Austin to a hall.

thin clothes to thin clothes were all human women she had taken as captives. They were trained in the art of seduction and specialized ability to seduce humans arrived at the hall, she saw Austin and Violet standing pretty close to each other, but be stunned at the scene.

you..." She stopped speaking midway as she couldn't find the right words to express her desire and has been seduced by this woman woman, Mindy knew how attractive the delicately beautiful woman was to the opposite sex, and it was normal for energetic and young men like Austin to be sexually attracted to the

is Violet. She's mine now,"

Mindy's eyes widened in shock at Austin's words.

"What? Is she yours?" she asked incredulously.

"So I was right. You are both disgusting! Austin, I thought you had morals but I was so wrong," she said angrily.

She pursed her lips, gnawing her teeth and stared at Austin with hatred and disgust, as if he had gravely disappointed her.

"Well now that I'm your prisoner, you sickening people, how are you going to torture me?" she asked fiercely.

Her eyes were unyielding as she aggressively stared at him.

However, Austin couldn't help but laugh on the inside.

'It seems that I'm not really good with words. I spoke too quickly just now and told her that Violet is mine. That has quite an ambiguous meaning; no wonder Mindy misunderstood it, ' he thought.

"Mindy, it's not what you think," he said.

"Violet is actually my subordinate. She works for me now and won't trouble us anymore," he explained.

Then he turned to Violet and ordered, " Violet, get rid of the deluding scent in Mindy's body now."

In turn, Violet waved her hand then a green smoke came out. It entered Mindy's nose to remove the effect of the deluding scent. Mindy couldn't help but sneeze, then her vital energy came back and spread to her whole body again.

"Austin, what is this all about?" Mindy asked doubtfully.

She just felt that everything that happened was so weird.

"Anyway, you just need to know that Violet is a friend now and not an enemy, and don't ask me more questions," Austin said flatly.

He refused to explain everything in detail to Mindy.

Mindy had no choice now but to swallow all her unanswered questions. Although she and Austin had known each other for a while, they weren't close enough to share every secret to each other.

If Austin didn't want to explain, then she wouldn't probe into his secrets.

Shortly after, Austin asked Violet to release all the remaining men and women who were still alive.

After they were released, Violet's body transformed and then she hid inside the Illusion Bead. Her injuries were still far from recovering, so she needed a lot of time to recuperate.

The sight of Violet's body just turning into a green smoke and floating into the purple bead shocked Mindy. She really wanted to ask Austin more about what happened.

However, since Austin had no intention of doing that, she could only stare angrily at him and remain quiet.

Austin hid the Illusion Bead inside his Space Ring, and rushed back to Sun Sect with Mindy.

The selection trials for the promotion of grunt disciples would be coming soon.

This time, Austin was determined to be promoted. He intended to get up from where he had fallen down.

The Supreme God

Chapter 73 The Promotion Trial Started

After his return to Sun Sect, Austin lost himself in cultivation for several days.

He had progressed in his refinement to the third stage of the Wind-commanding Skill.

The first stage of this skill was called Feeling the Wind, while the second stage was called Knowing the Wind. These two steps were the fundamentals for later stages of this cultivation.

Austin understood that to acquire a good command of these necessary skills, he would have to cultivate for an extended period persistently.

Although he had started his cultivation at the third stage with the aid of the wind, it didn't mean that he could stop his refinement for Feeling the Wind and Knowing the Wind.

Instead, he had to make time to advance the cultivation of these two basic skills, because the extent to which he would be able to master the Wind-commanding Skill depended on how deeply he could comprehend wind, a unique form of energy in the universe.

Having taken advantage of the mighty power of his spiritual soul, Austin had cultivated the essential skills of Feeling the Wind and Knowing the Wind very well.

Hence, his cultivation progressed quickly when he started the third stage cultivation for Using the Wind.

Since he had practiced and pondered over this cultivation process for some days, Austin had vaguely understood certain knacks for Using the Wind.

In practicing this skill, he could move swiftly, like a ghost. Compared with his abilities before the practice, he now moved faster and far more flexibly.

Apart from the cultivation of the Wind-commanding Skill for Using the Wind, Austin had spent part of his time in cultivating the Golden Sun Scripture, because a cultivator's underlying strengths were reflected from his or her improvements in cultivation base of vital energy.

During his cultivation of the Golden Sun Scripture, Austin discovered another phenomenon.

He could absorb a great deal of vital energy from his surroundings every time he cultivated the Golden Sun Scripture.

The amount of vital energy that he acquired during this cultivation was much higher than what he could during his cultivation of the Purple Yang Formula.

Austin would have reached a far higher realm had he absorbed such an enormous amount of vital energy while cultivating the Purple Yang Formula.

Recently, the little spot near his belly had increased in size during his cultivation. In the meantime, he had accumulated a growing amount of vital energy. In spite of this, no sign showed that his vital energy was reaching a higher level. Now, his vital energy was still at the sixth-level of the Energy Gathering Realm.

Austin never expected that such a tremendous amount of vital energy was necessary to reach a higher realm when cultivating the Golden Sun Scripture.

He thought that he could have reached the seventh-level of the Energy Gathering Realm had he kept on practicing the Purple Yang Formula.

At this thought, he felt a little regretful.

his body was growing stronger, although he had failed to reach a higher

the growing energy inside his body, he would be able to confront opponents who had reached the seventh or perhaps even the eighth level of the day, while Austin was reflecting on some obstacles that he had encountered in his cultivation process inside his little hut, he heard Evan's impatient call.

are

without being offended as the third-level of the Energy Gathering Realm after consuming your earth spirit be filled with great joy. Before he reached the third level, he had remained at the first-level of the Energy Gathering Realm for quite a long period. Now, after to have crossed two levels over a month.

Energy Gathering Realm in cultivation. Nevertheless, Evan spared much time and energy for refinement in spite of great hardships. Over the past three or four years, he had worked very and the earth spirit fruits. As soon as he took advantage of these resources, the outcomes he had achieved through his persistent cultivation over the past years were see that Evan had advanced in third-level of the Energy Gathering Realm, about that," Evan stammered as he felt hesitant.

contemplation, Austin understood why Evan had hesitated to cultivate Fist, it was necessary to buy a lot of magical medicines. And this skill couldn't be practiced without a few vital energy crystals, which were just enough to support his daily life.

for Evan, and he wouldn't be able to space ring and grabbed a thousand vital energy crystals. Then, he tossed them on the table. The shabby cottage was filled with clattering sounds as the vital energy crystals rolled on some magical medicines with these vital energy crystals. Ask me for more if they are not enough. You don't have to be frugal when using materials for your cultivation. Use them as long as they are necessary," when he saw the big stack of glittering vital energy

you made a great

he walked closer to Austin. He was surprised and bewildered to see the enormous number of vital energy crystals.

regained his consciousness, he and Evan had lived on Evan's salary, which only amounted to three vital energy crystals every month. As a result, they had been poor for a long time and had since Austin's recovery, Evan saw Austin spending vital energy crystals crystals. This really confused and shocked Evan. How could Austin have earned such a considerable amount of vital energy crystals? Baffled by this question, Evan couldn't help asking, "Tin, did you discover a treasure by accident? The next

I will ask you for help

mouth involuntarily

"Really?"

corrected Evan's assumption that he had accidentally

the third-level of the

to be

he joined Sun Sect, Evan had dreamed of becoming an

Once he was promoted to an outer disciple, his pay and status would be much higher than that of a grunt disciple.

"In that case, I am going to practice the Raging Dragon Fist."

Evan was impetuous and prompt. He always acted on his thoughts.

After Austin's returning to Sun Sect for ten days, Violet had also come out of the Illusion Bead.

Judging from her complexion, Austin estimated that Violet's wound had mostly healed, and he believed that she would recover fully after a certain period.

To avoid being noticed, Austin had asked Violet to continue hiding inside the Illusion Bead.

Human beings and demons had fought each other since ancient times.

Sun Sect had always been proud of its heritage as an orthodox school. There would be unpleasant consequences if the stewards or elders of the sect discovered Violet.

Although Violet was a demonic beast at the third level, most elders of Sun Sect had made significant achievements in the middle and later stages at the Earth Realm of vital energy. Theon, as head of the sect, had yielded substantive results in the Mysterious Realm of vital energy.

Violet estimated that her strength was as mighty as human beings' at the early stage of the Earth Realm.

When the first rays of the sunlight pushed past the clouds and shone upon the land, the Martial Arts Performing Field at Sun Sect had been filled with shouts and screams. All of a sudden, the entire field had a lively atmosphere.

When Austin and Evan arrived at the field, they found it was rather noisy. Looking ahead, they found it was swarming with people.

Almost all grunt disciples had reported for the promotion exercise. What's more, everyone present was in high spirits.

If they were selected today, they would be promoted from their inferior status as grunt disciples.

Evan was a little nervous about participating in the promotion exercise. He rubbed his fists and wiped his palms many times. It was natural for him to feel antsy, restless, and anxious.

Recently, he had concentrated on practicing the Raging Dragon Fist day and night so wholeheartedly and attentively that he had forgotten to eat and sleep. Up till now, he had mastered the basic skills of Raging Dragon Fist, but he still lacked confidence.

As Austin saw this part of Evan, he patted him on his shoulder and encouraged him not to be so nervous. Austin took him to an area near the Martial Arts Performing Field and found a place for them to sit and wait for the selection.

At this time, many people had found seats at the auditorium. As they waited, they spoke to each other casually.

The people present comprised of intermediate managerial staff of the sect who were in charge of this promotion, most of them stewards.

Nevertheless, Austin didn't see Murray or Johnson. It seemed that they hadn't been dispatched to take charge of this promotion exercise for grunt disciples.

"Austin, have you enlisted for this promotion exercise?"

Suddenly, a slender and beautiful person asked as she approached Austin. It was Denali.

The Supreme God

Chapter 74 A Training Field Full Of Dummies

Denali had been at the Martial Arts Performing Field for a long time. When she saw Austin, she had walked over to greet him.

"Sign up? Is that necessary?"

Since Evan and Austin had just arrived, they were unclear about the rules.

"Yep. The grunt disciples who want to participate in the promotion test must sign up at the registry desk."

Denali answered.

Enlightened, Austin hurriedly took Evan to the registry desk next to the auditorium to sign up.

As soon as Denali approached Austin, another onlooker shot him a hateful glare.

Matias, accompanied by a dozen grunt disciples, stood across the Martial Arts Performing Field. He glared at Austin.

These days, instead of making trouble for Austin, he had spent most of his time cultivating. Therefore, he was pretty confident that he would be promoted.

After finishing the process of signing up, Austin and Evan walked back to Denali. Just as they were about to sit down, a group of people approached them.

They were Matias and his fellows.

Expressionlessly, Austin cast a slow glance over the grunt disciples beside Matias.

Since Austin had beaten them the last time, they were afraid of him. It was under pressure from Matias that they had come over.

After they saw Austin's cold glare, their hearts began to pound harder. They quickly withdrew their eyes, so as not to look at him directly.

"I heard that a separate competition will be held later to rank the top three disciples in the promotion test. You'd better pray that you won't meet me. Otherwise, I will break your feet without mercy."

Matias threatened.

already autumn, but why are there so spoke. He completely ignored are they? I don't see and started to look around.

in your brain? Can you try to be a little too innocent and simple-minded.

"In front of us?"

disciples. A moment later, he finally figured out what

You mean Matias and his fellows are the help but place her hand on her mouth and giggle.

with anger

the fifth level of the Energy Gathering Realm

Austin clashed, they possessed the same cultivation base—level four of the pill of the Energy-boosting Elixir. It had helped him break through to the level five of the Energy Gathering Realm.

believed that Austin was

Austin. He was confident that Denali would bury herself in his arms once she knew that he was Performing Field.

the disciples who are about to take part in the promotion test, please gather in the middle of

The voice belonged to a tall, strong middle-aged grunt disciples stepped forward and gathered in the middle of the field. The rest who remained seated were just here to watch the test. They entered into a fierce discussion as they commented on the phase of the test is to challenge the dummies. Whoever can

man

fierce

a training field full of dummies lay north of the Martial Arts Performing Field.

It was said that this training field had a track of 1, 000 meters. The farther one traveled along it, the stronger the dummies would be.

On the contrary, the outermost dummies were the weakest.

To test the grunt disciples in the outermost 50 meters, it was neither too easy nor too difficult.

"Everyone, let me finish."

The middle-aged man spoke again.

"Whoever passes the distance of 50 meters will pass the test. However, if you think you can keep on going, we encourage you to do that.

As you know, the dummies in the training field are embedded with vital energy crystals. The sect has decided that participants can keep the vital energy crystals from the dummies they defeat if you cross the 50-meter mark."

His words aroused another discussion.

Austin was tempted.

It was said that a huge number of vital energy crystals were needed to activate the dummies.

He had hoped to defeat some dummies and earn vital energy crystals, as he was left with less than a thousand vital energy crystals in his Space Ring.

To learn the Raging Dragon Fist, Evan had spent the thousand vital energy crystals that Austin had given him.

Besides, Austin had given Evan another five hundred vital energy crystals to continue his study of the cultivation method.

Austin now felt a little embarrassed because he was running out of money.

It would be good for him to earn some vital energy crystals.

The thought excited Austin.

The Supreme God

Chapter 75 Murderous Will

At the entrance of the Training Field, you will be given a token. Then the participants will be divided into groups of ten. Only one batch can enter at a time.

Remember, the dummies can't see you or hear you, but they can sense the tokens. If you want to give up, throw away the token, and the dummies will not attack you again. If presented with a life-or-death situation, don't try to be brave. It may cost you your life.

What's more, when you are in the field, you can only fight alone. No cooperative acts are allowed. Otherwise, we will find out, and you will be disqualified.

Now, you may go to the entrance for your token. Go, the middle-aged steward finished instructing the contestants. In no time, hundreds of grunt disciples who had enlisted for the test rushed to the entrance of the Training Field.

At the mouth of the cave, two disciples were handing out tokens.

"Only ten disciples may step forward to collect tokens. And every five minutes, another ten disciples can enter the training field. Those who violate or break the rules will be disqualified," one of the disciples announced impassively.

All the grunt disciples obeyed. Ten at a time, they stepped forward to receive the tokens. Then they patiently waited to enter the field in batches.

Austin lined up in one of the squads and received his token. Before long, it was time for his group to enter the Training Field.

Inside the cave, the Training Field was a deep and broad aisle, ten meters in height and fifteen meters in width.

A dim light covered everything in bone white light, which added to the unnerving atmosphere.

Densely packed dummies stood in silence on both sides of the path. The dummies were black and made of metal. They were cold, motionless, and intimidating to look at.

In the metal eye sockets of each dummy, green, glittering gems had been embedded.

The gems were made of a unique material that glowed despite the darkness. As countless dummies were packed in this narrow space, both sides of the alley gleamed with a dense mass of green light. The contestants felt as though they were stuck deep in hell, surrounded by innumerable demons.

However, this scene had been designed to test the disciple's mental endurance.

For greater effect, a cold spiritual power was also diffused in the passage. It added mental pressure on the disciples. In this uncertain and threatening atmosphere, some of the disciples felt as though they were suffocating.

However, Austin was familiar with this pressure.

Many names had been used to describe it, including one—"murderous will".

Presumably, this training field had existed for a long while. Dummies must have mercilessly slaughtered countless participants in the corridors over the years.

for these puppets to be inflicted to a certain degree with the deceased's obsessiveness and resentment. These residual emotions would

"Chattering- Chattering."

the

his head. He concluded that they were unlikely to pass the examination. They had collapsed under beasts alone. In the process,

after a short period of discomfort, Austin was sudden, an

I quit! It's a horrible place. I don't want to lose my life here!

aisle, only the sound of his chattering teeth could be heard. He had been too afraid to continue, even before the contest truly began.

ground, the wall on his side of the passage rumbled in response, and a grunt disciple immediately turned and ran.

terror-struck grunt disciple watched his receding figure. After a moment's hesitation, he ground his teeth, tossed the token aside, and followed the first disciple only just begun. Many grunt disciples who had enlisted were still lining up at the entrance of the cave to get their test tokens.

Training Field.

of test was this? Was it difficult to pass? None of them could answer these questions. Except for the contestants, the none of the participants had entered the cave before, nor did they have any idea about what lay inside.

some of the participants came running in an uproar as they tried to guess what had happened to these participants in such a short also laughing and jeering, pointing at the the audience's taunts, the fleeing participants flushed and flung themselves into the crowd in embarrassment. They were so ashamed that they wanted to hide their heads more grunt disciples hurried out in horror. It aroused more intense discussion, and the people waiting

the Training

remaining grunt disciples from his batch took a deep breath. They braced

"Kata-kata."

"Thump-thump."

They could hear their footsteps as they walked forward. An ethereal echo resounded inside the moved, the dummies on both sides remained in black yelled in a sharp voice, "Why do we walk so slowly? We should use vital energy and rush forward.

his energy to heels

a few steps, he had advanced

"Whoooosh!"

the cave as a dummy on one

It stepped forward, blocked the passage with its metal body, and pressed towards the disciple with great agility. Arms raised with a long, thick club in hand, it smote a mighty blow.

The disciple slowed down and stopped before he ran into the dummy, but he lost his balance.

He tried to draw back but stumbled. He was scared and surprised at the dummy's ferocity.

However, it was too late. He failed to evade the attack and was hit on the shoulder. With a scream of pain, he was knocked into the air. In the next instant, he collided with the cave wall.

But the dummy didn't stop. It continued to chase the disciple and hit him continuously with the club. The terrified disciple could do nothing more than scramble and flee from the attacks.

After seeing his miserable situation, the other disciples became more alert. They quickly gave up the idea of a quick pass.

Seemingly, these dummies were programmed to launch surprise attacks. And in running through the aisle, it became difficult to change one's direction or dodge attacks. Once the disciples were attacked, they would be at a severe disadvantage.

So they kept walking at their normal pace and bypassed the injured disciple and the puppet.

After another four or five meters, several dummies were activated and launched attacks at them.

Each dummy targeted one disciple, and wouldn't attack the others.

One of the dummies holding a machete blocked Austin's path. It swung its machete at him aggressively.

Austin dodged and scanned his opponent using his vital energy. He assessed the dummy's power and strength and learned that despite its vicious appearance, it was as weak as a human cultivator at the second-level of the Energy Gathering Realm.

But he wasn't surprised. The contest was designed for grunt disciples, most of whom were at the second or third-level of the Energy Gathering Realm.

He felt sympathy for the disciples who had fled.

They were skillful enough to defeat the dummies, but their weak will power stunted them. They gave up too quickly, even before the real examination had begun.

Thinking of this, Austin could not help shaking his head, hoping that Evan would not make such a mistake.

Austin flashed the dummy in front of him a contemptuous smile. After dodging another attack from the dummy, he directed his vital energy to his right fist and launched his counterattack.

"BOOM!"

His fist collided with the dummy's chest with great agility and strength. At once, the dummy fell to the ground with a fist print on its chest. Then it crunched up and moved back to where it stood.

As easy as Austin expected! He knew he would be victorious.

The other grunt disciples heard the noise and glanced in Austin's direction. When they saw what happened, they stared at Austin dumbfounded.

The Supreme God

Chapter 76 Helen Of Troy

Austin moved ahead, attacking the dummies at the second level of the Energy Gathering Realm with ease. He surged at them with his fists, slamming into them without hesitation.

His cultivation base was at the sixth level of the Energy Gathering Realm. To Austin, dealing with the dummies of the second level of the Energy Gathering Realm was akin to an adult dealing with children.

Witnessing the invincible power of Austin's fists, the grunt disciples stood stock-still, stunned. The dummies Austin had just confronted were no match to him. They could hardly hinder his movements for even a moment.

Austin advanced about twenty-five meters when a dummy, wielding a long spear with a fluttering red tassel perched atop, materialized in front of him and rushed forward.

The dummy was at the third level of the Energy Gathering Realm.

Austin narrowed his eyes into slits. The dummies within the first twenty-five meters had all been at the second level of the Energy Gathering Realm.

But as he crossed farther, it became apparent that the dummies stationed here belonged to the third level of the Energy Gathering Realm.

It hardly mattered to Austin. He still gathered his vital energy into his fists and punched the attacker in front of him.

Pow!

The long spear snapped into two and the punch threw the dummy sideways. He landed unceremoniously on the ground. The sand traced a haphazard path as his body sidled across it.

With only one punch, the dummy had been bested.

Wow!

The grunt disciples on the sidelines gasped in surprise. They gawked at Austin with their wide eyes open, as if he was a ruthless monster.

"Austin!"

Suddenly, the keen sound of a girl rang out in the air.

was a mesmerizing silhouette against ambled over to him confidently and Austin's face cracked into a smile. He touched last

kind between lovers, but was the

He was mature and experienced, and not as impulsive and ardent when it came to love as most adolescents his age were. They tended to believe they loved someone quicken her pace and caught up to him. The distinctive scent disciples participating in the assessment noticed Denali take the initiative to approach eyes bored into the pair with touched his nose and smiled be truer. Beautiful women came with great a dummy at the third level of the Energy Gathering Realm sprang up in front of them, the same time, another dummy at the third level of the Energy Gathering Realm charged at Austin shout and a sword flashing milk-white light appeared in her hand. The sword drew an unfathomable curve in the air, and with the sharp sound of blade meeting now injured, halted in his tracks and retreated.

his fist at the dummy that came at him, forcing him to back down. "Good swordsmanship," he praised Denali sincerely. "The strength of the spiritual weapon is indeed recognized the sword in Denali's hand at first sight. It was a low-grade out her tongue at him mischievously. She smiled at him smugly before saying, ripped you into shreds and turned you into ashes. It on Matias's face was dark as he stepped up to not to mention talk and laugh during this battle, Matias was green with envy. He shot Austin find out who's worthy of Denali's lithe and elegant

Denali's soft cheeks rose to a light of your business who I talk to or who I am from Matias. She had

be the one turning you into ashes," Matias sneered at Austin the left side of the passageway, pouncing onto him. The energy emanating from the dummy told him that the former was at the third level of the Energy Gathering Realm.

Matias flexed his palm and a dagger, haloed by bright orange light, materialized in his hand.

It was a spiritual weapon.

Matias neared the dummy stealthily, growling, "Cape Knife!"

The knife blades flashed with radiant light. With a crisp sound, the knife cut through the belly of the dummy, leaving behind a shallow white trace on his dark iron belly.

The wounded dummy froze, his bodily movements halting mid-air. He slunk back to his original position slowly.

Pleased, Matias glanced at Austin provocatively.

"I don't understand why the sect arranged for such a simple test. Someone might find themselves fishing in troubled waters soon," he said as he smiled at Austin lopsidedly.

Ignoring this verbal hit, Austin continued walking forward with Denali.

Given the cold shoulder, Matias fumed silently and followed behind. From time to time, his gaze would occasionally lock on Denali's attractive, curvy figure, and he would swallow hard.

The further they advanced, the fewer grunt disciples there would be left as most of them were unable to pass the test and go forward.

Along the way, they constantly confronted dummies at the third level of the Energy Gathering Realm. The dummies continuously jumped out from the periphery of the passageway and flanked them.

Denali's swordsmanship was quite advanced, even mysterious. Matias's knife skills were extraordinary. They struck back the dummies with ease.

Austin saw that Denali had reached the fourth level of the Energy Gathering Realm. She must have made a breakthrough recently; it required hard work.

For Austin himself, it was a piece of cake to fight the dummies at the third level of the Energy Gathering Realm.

He didn't have to rack his brains for a line of attack. As soon as he saw a dummy, Austin punched him with his fist and the dummy vanished right away. He hardly had to employ a second strike to defeat them.

Austin's extraordinary strength had captured Denali. She stared at him in wonder now and then, her eyes twinkling with admiration.

Matias's face darkened even more. He was no longer insulting and taunting Austin, for it didn't escape his notice how his rival defeated the dummies even more effortlessly than he himself did.

The Supreme God

Sweat trickled down on Austin and Denali's foreheads as they ran, with Matias behind them. About four minutes later, they had advanced forty five meters.

"Whoosh!"

They suddenly heard a swooshing noise, then three dummies jumped out and attacked them.

The dummies were at the fourth level of Energy Gathering Realm.

The dummies' skills seemed to have jumped to the fourth level of Energy Gathering Realm at the last five meters of the fifty-meter-long aisle.

Denali glanced nervously at Austin. She and the dummies were on the same skill level, and she was afraid of being defeated.

Even if she had confidence in herself, it wasn't that easy to defeat someone else of the same level.

A beam of yellow light flashed when Matias whipped out his dagger and cut one of the dummies.

Meanwhile, Austin used his Wind-commanding Skill to fight as well.

He was now at the third stage of Wind-commanding Skill, which was Using the Wind. He had become stronger and faster because of his increasingly challenging practice sessions. Thus, it was easy for him to fight these level four dummies.

He kicked one dummy so hard in the abdomen that it backed several steps.

"Take your time, Denali! I'll go first," Austin shouted.

Shortly after, he went forward and didn't look back.

However, Denali was angry at Austin's indifferent behavior. She slashed at a dummy fiercely with her sword and it retreated.

Now, Austin's goal was to defeat the dummy and collect the vital energy crystals after passing fifty-meter line, and not flirt with Denali.

He knew that he could undoubtedly pass through the test with his current strength.

But, what he was really concerned about was how many pieces of vital energy crystals he could get during the test.

It was why he didn't want to stop even for a second at the last five meters.

As he ran, dummies sometimes sprang out towards him from both sides of the aisle.

Austin was unfazed as he simply used his vital energy to fearlessly kick and punch the dummies.

While his cultivation level was currently at the sixth level of Energy Gathering Realm, his thick vital energy resembled those of seventh or eighth level of Energy Gathering Realm cultivators.

The sound of fighting echoed down the aisle, and all the dummies that attacked Austin were knocked down by his strong vital energy.

He took advantage of his Wind-commanding Skill to smoothly glide down through the aisle, like a fish in the water.

Before the dummies could attack again, he had already sped away.

be the first disciple didn't stop. Their feet clunked heavily on the floor as they chased after him. "Well, if you insist, I'll give what you want," he said then gathered his vital energy and punched the first dummy hard

the dummies that charged at him got knocked down, and couldn't stand up

the

had successfully passed the

the Training Field, there was an orb, through which they could monitor went wide-eyed and stared at each other has passed

took him

he really

"Amazing!"

a grunt disciple. How could a handful of even the outer disciples could achieve this enthusiastically about this impressive achievement.

were,

Austin had entered the farther part a few steps forward, a big broadsword suddenly swung at him.

it and quickly got into a defensive stance.

he mentally gauged the

for you," Austin

mouse. He jumped high and hit the dummy hard on

"Bam!"

cracks

The dummy got broken--maybe I hit it too hard, '

me to

nervous thinking about the possible consequences.

as he knocked the dummy down, it suddenly returned to its original position and opened its twenty pieces of vital energy crystals one after the other.

them up and gently

when he saw numerous dummies that stood along four Energy Gathering Realm dummy could earn twenty pieces of vital energy crystals. So what if they were level five or level six must be more vital energy crystals, '

continued to walk down the long to realize that the dummies were evenly distributed throughout the meters, there were three to four dummies waiting to attack each disciple.

might have been pre-arranged by the Sect stewards,

quite disappointed at his defeat all the dummies, he

every

He looked at the dummies whose metallic bodies gleamed under the light. A large number of them were placed in the Training Field.

Each dummy had at least twenty pieces of vital energy crystals in its body.

Austin stood in a defensive stance as he thought of his next plan.

'With my current strength, I can defeat the level seven Energy Gathering Realm dummies. If I fight all the dummies here, I will earn about a thousand pieces of vital energy crystals, ' he mentally calculated.

He suddenly turned around, as if he thought of something.

He began to walk back to the fifty-meter line.

"Let's start it again!" he declared, as if he was speaking to real people and not to dummies.

A smile was etched on his lips as he looked at the first dummy beside the fifty-meter line.

He took a token out, and dangled it in front of the dummy's eyes.

"Hey, attack me! I'm here to fight you!" he shouted.

He yelled at it several times, but the dummy remained motionless as a statue.

"Hey, fight me!"

"I said fight me!"

He tried to pat the dummy on the head with his token, but to no avail.

The dummy just stood there blankly in front of him.

"Can't you move? Let me help you."

Austin was irritated by the dummy, so he mustered up his vital energy and gave the dummy a heavy punch.

The dummy was shocked by the vibration from the vital energy, and it finally moved.

It awakened like an asleep man and hurriedly stretched its arms out to resist Austin's attack.

"Haha, I did it. I'm going to be rich this time!" Austin declared. He laughed triumphantly as he continued to punch the dummy.

The dummy tried to defend himself, but Austin delivered blow after blow.

It turned out that the dummy reacted to the humans' vital energy attacks.

"Bang bang!"

With just two punches, Austin had knocked the dummy down. Sparks appeared when its iron body scratched against the slate ground.

Then, the dummy opened its mouth. After a jingle-like sound, the vital energy crystals fell to the ground.

Austin had gained twenty more pieces of vital energy crystals.

Austin only became more energetic. He rolled up his sleeves and proceeded to provoke the rest of the dummies in succession.

The Supreme God

Chapter 78 A Surprising Tactic

Outside the Training Field...

With orbs clutched in their hands, several stewards in charge sensed what was happening in the Training Field.

One of them said, "Two more disciples have reached the fifty-meter line."

"The speed at which they performed is quite impressive," another one remarked. "It seems there are several talented grunt disciples in this batch," he added.

Suddenly, one steward saw something unusual. "Something's wrong. Why is that disciple walking back? He was the first to reach the fifty-meter line. He has only reached a distance of fifty-three or fifty-four meters. Why is he giving up?"

Someone agreed with him. "Right. Judging from his performance just now, I think he can walk a distance of at least sixty meters."

All the stewards shook their heads in pity.

Based on his earlier performance, they thought Austin would further surprise them and make this promotion test of grunt disciples different from all others.

No one expected the young disciple to walk back after reaching fifty-three or fifty-four meters.

"Is he not aware that if he wants to give up, all he needs to do is throw the token and leave either side of the corridor?"

This guy may have a good cultivation base, but he doesn't appear to be thinking clearly," one steward sighed in disappointment.

His fellow stewards shared his sentiment.

They continued to watch the field. Then almost at the same time, many of them felt something was not right.

Something strange was happening in the field.

"What is that disciple doing?" one of them said.

Another one started to say something but paused.

"Is he provoking the dummies on both sides of the corridor? That's rather strange. Instead of moving, he's resorting to doing something boring?" the steward voiced his concern.

Suddenly, one steward called out, "The dummy he provoked has reacted!"

"He has defeated that dummy!" another one declared.

"Twenty vital energy crystals for his maneuver!" one steward said in awe.

The first one announced, "He's provoking the second dummy."

vital energy crystals!" another one shouted.

were focusing on every move Austin made in the Training Field. Now and then, a voice would cry sound, the stewards would look at one another, their faces suddenly provoke the dummies, one after the other, in order to take the vital energy crystals from them?

of the promotion test knew very well that dummies in the corridors would be annoyed and react when attacked by a vital to do few moments ago, and they were now

to

that came to all the stewards' minds was 'weirdo', which the corridor of the

a hard punch from

Wake up!

speaking loudly, the young cultivator talked endlessly to express his
and was

guy was too quick for the dummy and pummelled its chest ruthlessly until the vital energy force smashed its chest and left a gaping hole.

dummy opened its mouth to spit out and defeat

the corridor. Austin quickly decided to beat the ones on the left first, then go on with those on the right

doing?" a slightly out of breath Denali, demanded.

Looking at Austin, who stood not on with your training," he making so much money that the young disciple did not want any disciple rolled her beautiful eyes in exasperation as she continued walking towards him.

tired and just drop dead sooner or later," someone huffed.

Matias reached the line at the same time as Denali,

Denali, but Matias purposely slowed down his pace to keep up confused Matias momentarily before finally understanding the cultivator's

in a rich family, Matias didn't lack in cultivating resources. Having never lived in poverty, the

this promotion test and was secretly elated when he

all his vital energy and body strength if ahead of Austin and continued walking towards the deeper area, he would linger and passed over Austin to continue breaking the line of fifty meters, she line, all the dummies coming out were at level four of the Energy Gathering Realm, which was the same level as she was. The female grunt disciple had to battle with every dummy of the same level using all while defeating a dummy with two crutches in hand, Denali felt like most of her body and looked back, her brows slightly wrinkled.

dummy at level four of the Energy Gathering Realm with only one or two

A look of surprise filled her pretty eyes as Denali covered her mouth lightly with a slender hand while watching something magnificent unfold before her.

She never imagined that the former outer disciple possessed such an incredible, but horrible, fighting power.

Should he become an outer disciple again in the future, Austin would probably regain his lost glory before long.

And Denali was one of those expecting that day to come.

After regaining her composure, Denali threw the token in her hand decisively, and a small door beside the corridor opened immediately. She quickly walked in and disappeared.

At that moment, several other grunt disciples had reached the line, but all were tired and out of breath. Some even had injuries all over their bodies.

They were also petrified with Austin's crazy strategy.

After the battle where Austin taught Matias' follower a lesson, he had gained a bad reputation among other grunt disciples, and now they were witnessing an even more malicious style employed by him.

Some of these grunt disciples had bullied Austin in the past, and were now restless, fearful that he would get even with them in the future.

On the other hand, those who didn't browbeat the young man in the past resolved never to get on Austin's bad side.

These days, no one thought of Austin as an idiot that other grunt disciples could bully or look down on after he beat Matias' follower.

"Tin, what are you doing?"

It was Evan who called out. He had likewise reached the fifty-meter line and passed the first test successfully.

But his whole body was black and blue. He obviously went through a very tough fight.

"Nothing! Can't you see that I'm making money?"

"Get out of here if you've passed the test!" Austin said impatiently.

He continued with what he was doing and was annoyed at being bothered.

Having little strength to forge ahead, Evan scratched his head before throwing his token and leaving the field.

Other disciples were just overjoyed at reaching the fifty-meter line and passing the test. No one else chose to move on.

After a while, only Austin and the dummies in rows were left in the gloomy corridor.

By this time, Austin had defeated every dummy standing between the fifty and sixty-meter mark.

There were forty dummies in level four of the Energy Gathering Realm, and Austin got eight hundred vital energy crystals in all.

Matias, meanwhile, decided to give up after defeating two dummies at level five of the Energy Gathering Realm, once he reached the distance of seventy-five meters.

At this point, only Austin was the remaining human in the Training Field!

The Supreme God

Chapter 79 Center Of Attention

All grunt disciples who took part in the evaluation held inside the Training Field had to exit through a passageway.

Participants either succeeded or failed in the testing.

Those who passed the evaluation assembled on the left side of the auditorium.

Those who were unsuccessful could leave the field on their own anytime they wished.

Hundreds of disciples underwent the evaluation. At the end of the first phase, only around seventy or eighty grunt disciples were left and were eligible to go on to the next round.

Those who made it had smug looks on their faces as they watched the disciples who failed leave with dejected expressions.

Everyone who passed the first round was excited after their experience. There was a heated discussion among these disciples about the dangers and risks they encountered inside the passageway that was full of dummies.

Some of the disciples were boasting of how courageous and remarkable they had been to overcome many barriers that they had encountered inside the passageway.

Meanwhile, there were disciples who needed to recover and build up their energy for the next round, after being drained of strength and suffering from bruises inside the Training Field.

They knew that to survive another round of evaluation, they had to prepare harder.

Other grunt disciples who stood outside the Training Field as spectators both envied and admired the disciples who passed the first round of evaluation.

Everyone had been waiting for a long time, but there was still no announcement of the next round of evaluation in the auditorium. Out of impatience, some impetuous grunt disciples began yelling.

"What's wrong?"

The first round ended a long time ago!

Why is there still no announcement about the next round of evaluation? We're all getting anxious here."

Another one added, " Yes, we've been waiting here for a long time."

After letting the disciple finish speaking, Evan interrupted to reprimand them.

"Take it easy. Tin hasn't come out yet. Who told you that the first round has already ended?"

As he blurted out the words, Evan stared at the disciples ferociously, irritated by their impatience.

The mere mention of Austin's name by Evan had them shutting up.

They knew better than to make any rash remarks.

Grunt disciples knew too well how aggressive and fearsome Austin was. Since he and Evan were best friends, the latter's position had improved tremendously. Every grunt disciple was aware that Austin would be offended if they displeased Evan.

The exchange of words had Matias crossing his arms and laying his hands on his shoulders. The man looked sullen and lost in thought.

After several minutes, he looked thoughtful. It was likely that he was thinking of Austin.

Inside the auditorium, several stewards were now fidgeting in their seats.

you're an elder of our sect. Based on your should I

our sect!" the

as the spectators, and gave another elder to 80 meters have already been defeated by a tinge of resignation, was referring to Austin, who held the token numbered mighty as people in the fifth level of the wouldn't

a grunt disciple after all," another elder offered.

the others weren't convinced.

you worried about anyway?

have been fewer and fewer geniuses in our sect?

we've witnessed a genius

that

they realized that what he said made sense, other stewards became hopeful. Many of them had similar thoughts, 'As the

with

check the register to find out the name of stewards present in the Training Field, he was respectable and had higher authority for making decisions, so gone out of the

meters away from the

stopped to

phase of the evaluation, he successfully defeated 120 dummies and earned more than 2, 400 vital passageway as he fought numerous dummies, he supplemented his felt his physical strength slowly

he continued striding forward and walked towards a dummy that stood start with

raised his left hand and slammed it

vital energy, the dummy reacted towards Austin in an attempt to chop him with fierce force of muttered to himself," The fifth level of the Energy Gathering going, Austin realized that as he walked farther, the dummies dodged the dummy's violent and swift attack quite smoothly. Before the weapon descended on him, Austin quickly slid to the left and when moving. As it saw Austin moving to the to be bested by a dummy and moved even faster. Austin was moving. He swung his arm, and his fist hit the the dummy stopped moving and his mouth came out shocked Austin to discover that dummies on the fifth level of the Energy Gathering Realm could spit out 50 vital energy crystals. He was delighted that things were turning out better than he expected. Thinking immediately strode towards another dummy, of energy, was clear: to get more vital energy a disciple rushed towards had been tasked to find out who He spoke in low tones and the steward acknowledged this. After learning the identity of the disciple, he cleared his throat.

Loudly, the elder steward declared before other stewards," The Number 78 disciple is Austin!"

There was a collective murmur after the announcement.

Everyone had similar thoughts running through their minds.

'Austin? That guy is Austin? He's fierce and ruthless! No wonder he's managed to hang on until this point.'

As it became very clear who this excellent warrior was, they finally understood why he's continued to be successful in this exercise.

He's reached 90 meters.

Now, it's 100 meters!

And Austin continued to move farther and farther, meter by meter. There was no one stopping this brazen disciple.

Many minutes had passed, and people were becoming impatient.

The disciples continued to wait for the next round of evaluation outside the Training Field. The spectators that had crowded around the field, and even stewards in the auditorium were running out of patience.

As people became more restless, they turned noisy. The sounds of impatience growing louder and louder. The din inside the entire Martial Arts Performing Field was akin to water boiling in a cauldron.

It was Austin, who was sweating all over as he remained busy fighting dummies inside the passageway. That was the cause of all the noise.

He would rest on the spot if he got tired of fighting the dummies and ran out of strength.

When drained of strength, he boosted himself through the vital energy stone inside his elixir field from time to time.

By this time, Austin had already traveled for 150 meters inside the passageway.

After waiting for so long for the next round of evaluation, a rotund steward lost his composure and complained loudly to his peers.

"Steward Ouyang, don't you think it would be impossible to complete today's promotion exercise if we just continue waiting here doing nothing?"

"Is that guy an iron man? It appears that he is not getting tired at all," he said about Austin.

His words forced a smile out of the other stewards.

The observation, though sarcastic, sounded plausible. Austin had been inside the passageway for quite a long time. But based on their orbs, they sensed he was still energetic. More astounding was the fact that he likely defeated each dummy on the fifth level of the Energy Gathering Realm using no more than four moves.

"It seems his vital energy is truly mighty."

Well, there is no more time for him to go ahead.

"Ask someone to inform him that the evaluation is over," Steward Ouyang directed.

After careful study, he finally made his decision.

A few moments later, Austin's rangy figure finally appeared at the small passageway beside the gate of the Training Field, and the young disciple walked out slowly.

As he did so, all eyes were trained on him.

The young warrior was at the center of attention.

The Supreme God

Chapter 80 Get Successfully Promoted (Part One)

After a series of challenges, Austin finally showed up at the Martial Arts Performing Field.

As soon as he arrived, Evan ran up to him to find out more information.

He finally reached Austin and paused first to regain his breath. "Tin, you finally came out from the Dummy Training Field. How was your harvest there?"

"Well, not bad," Austin said.

"But why did the examination suddenly come to an end?" he asked doubtfully.

He also felt quite disappointed as he was still hoping to harvest more, after his successful reap at the Dummy Training Field.

However, he abruptly and unexpectedly received the notice which stated that the examination had ended, and that he should withdraw from the field immediately.

Evan rubbed his sweaty forehead before he answered.

"It was said that the stewards are afraid that there won't be enough time, so they had to end it in advance," he said.

After Evan spoke, Austin suddenly realized something.

"Evan, there may be another session of the examination. Try your best at the session," he said earnestly.

"If you pass the examination this time, I'll treat you to a good meal at the Lotus Tavern in Peace Town."

Austin knew that he would surely be promoted, but he was a little worried about Evan.

Lotus Tavern?" Evan said surprisingly.

took a deep breath before speaking again.

meat from high-grade monsters and diabolic beasts, and their wine is also the magic wine refined by alchemists. Their prices are sound of delicious food, he couldn't help but think of the want to try their meat and wine, just do will be no such a chance available,"

"Don't worry Tin! I won't loaf around at the special guests were finally relieved deep sigh they've been holding for a while. Now, they were ready to announce sat among the stewards in the spacious a Confucian scholar sat in him look like a god. Anyone that would feel his of Sun Sect. Everything from his speech to his behavior exuded a dominant and high reputation. They were so powerful that if any of have disappeared one after another," a middle-aged woman dressed as a

as she waited for an

and charming, and her body was as slender looked pensive before he answered is right. Sun Sect has lost a thousand disciples in the past six months, even including more than a face as he

a total of four or five hundred inner disciples. The hundred that suddenly went missing were equal to almost one-fifth of their only continue to weaken unless we increase the number of inner

"Your grace, you did make a good point. Our sect has the largest number of outer disciples, and it is also the basis of our sect. It seems that the five sects are harmonious for the time being—but in fact, the fights and struggle between the sects are also quite obvious," An old man with gray hair and mustache suddenly spoke up as well.

"If our Sun Sect is weak right now, we're only afraid that the other four sects will launch attacks against us," he added worriedly.

Upon hearing his words, the rest of the crowd became seriously anxious. Tension hung heavily in the air.

"Your grace, who are those villains and what makes them have the nerve to kill so many of our disciples and become enemies of our Sun Sect? And have they ever thought about the consequences of angering our Sun Sect like that? How can they not respect us?"

A tall, red-faced elder roared angrily as he abruptly slapped his hand on the chair's armrest.

"Elder Jiang, you are actually joking, right?"

Those villains have killed thousands of our disciples; do you think they will respect us? You're just speaking without thinking first!" another woman said sharply.

Her face was stone cold, which made people feel that they should stay far away from her.

"Elder Li, you...!" Elder Jiang exclaimed.

However, he abruptly stopped speaking.

He couldn't find the right words to express his mixed emotions.

"You two Elders, stop arguing now," Theon waved his hand and sighed.

"I have been sending our disciples with high martial skills to investigate the matter during this period, but not much progress has been made," he said.

Then he added, "Those who went missing seemed to have evaporated in the air—we found no bodies so we don't know if they are dead or alive."

