

The Supreme God

Chapter 91 Hard Mission Hall (Part Two)

The commotion was taking place by the gate of Austin's house, and the provocative and arrogant words disturbed the entire area.

Amid the noise, a young man appeared, surrounded by the other boys. The lad who stood up straight, with sharp eyes trained on Evan was Billy.

"Bastard! You're courting death!" someone called out.

The crowd saw a figure move like lightning appear beside the boy who was pummeling Evan.

The boy was caught by surprise when he suddenly felt a presence by his side. He was so astonished that he almost thought of retreating.

A badly beaten Evan was black and blue from too many bruises. When he saw this, Austin felt fury bubbling inside him and swore he would not let this go without a fight.

As soon as he got close, he swiftly caught the young boy's hands. There were two cracking sounds, as the boy screamed in pain. Austin had broken both his arms.

Then Austin extended his left hand, grabbed the young boy's neck, and effortlessly lifted him.

Oblivious to his surroundings, the disciple threw several punches non-stop using a third or fourth of the vital energy on his right hand.

The severe beating had the boy screaming and howling in pain and humiliation. He was so terrified that he wet and dirtied his pants and was now filthy and stinking.

Finally, Austin shook his right arm, and the boy fell to the ground and fainted.

Breathing heavily, he asked, "Evan, are you okay?"

Slowly, he helped his friend get up.

body was now throbbing in pain. But he suppressed a groan so Austin

a god and gave the boy who bullied him happened, the other disciples quieted down for fear that Austin would use his power against them as he did with his arms crossed and sixth level wave of the Energy Gathering Realm on him. It was undeniable that long ago, Billy stepped into the eighth level in the Energy Gathering Realm. Coupled with his martial arts talent, he sixth level. So, Billy exuded an air of calmness because the other disciple's power was nothing compared to his.

kill the young boy who was beaten by Austin with

Austin. It

Austin appeared, Billy immediately recognized him. The Austin who stood in front of him was the eyes hardened as he sensed a certain fierceness emanating from the other person with imposing manner. Austin also marginally felt an implicit spear intent calm and remained passive.

Austin immediately learned that this person had reached the acme of perfection that kind of spear intent, there were three realms to progress in martial arts cultivation: Minor Achievement Stage, Medium Achievement Stage, and Major Achievement Stage. When a certain martial arts skill reached Major Achievement Stage, arts skill. It has little cultivation base of half of the spear intent, and his talent in martial arts was nothing to be who I turn to be outer disciples. Everybody knows you, so back, Austin. But do you think this is still your only at the sixth level. It was a great satisfaction for

"Since you're lower in rank than me now, you should keep your nose clean, Austin. How dare you offend me!"

Billy continued, "If that was the case, I will make sure the whole outer Sect becomes aware that you, Austin, who was once the best among outer disciples, is really just a fool, an idiot, and could never rise again. I promise that you will be trampled under my feet like garbage."

Evan was outraged by the remarks.

"Shut up! Do not address Tin as an idiot. You're the fool, the idiot!"

But the young boys who hung on to Billy's power yelled at Evan one after another.

"Son of a bitch! How dare you refute Billy!"

Another one shouted, "You bastard! It won't be long before you and your friend Austin become dead meat. How could you be so aggressive?"

As Austin listened to the exchange, he quickly figured out what Billy was doing. He once ranked first in the outer Sect. As long as Billy defeated him, he would earn more prestige.

Billy let a young boy dressed in blue clothes run up to Austin. The boy stood before the disciple and issued a challenge.

"You idiot!

How dare you offend Billy! You had better prepare a coffin for yourself before it's too late."

With a scornful expression, the boy stared at Austin.

But the look didn't faze Austin, whose eyes turned fierce as his body released a Spiritual Sense Flying Needle. The boy immediately felt extreme pain piercing his head and screamed.

Panicked, he scampered off like a frightened rat, and the one thought that ran through his mind was that the guy knew sorcery!

The Supreme God

Chapter 92 The Refinement of Two Top-grade Spiritual Weapons (Part One)

Billy was stunned when he saw the young man in blue who delivered his challenge letter, seemed to be in great pain—but Austin didn't even launch an attack on him.

Doubt immediately clouded his mind. 'Maybe he had grasped a special skill?' he wondered to himself.

However, his uncertainty vanished soon. 'No matter what special skills he has, I am now at the eighth level of Energy Gathering Realm!

Austin is only at the sixth level of Energy Gathering Realm. What's more, I have figured out the half level spear intent. I have an advantage over him, so any of his special skills won't matter!' he thought proudly.

"Are you going to challenge me?" Austin asked.

A playful smile danced across Billy's lips.

"Why? Dare you not accept it?" Billy asked defiantly.

His cold eyes bored straight into Austin's own.

"I accept it!" Austin bellowed.

The situation was now out of Austin's control, and even if he didn't want things to go this way, he refused to be a coward and back down.

His original plan after being promoted to outer disciple was to conceal his identity and fully concentrate on his training. He no longer wanted to have a reputation as he did back then.

However, today was a different story—his plan didn't work out.

in the battle ring after three days!" Austin said out loud.

into his house with Evan and didn't bother to wait for Billy's response.

madly envious of Austin's calmness. And fury even surged shouted," After three days, Austin, I will news quickly challenged a novice outer disciple who could've just dealt with him in private. Was such a formal challenge even necessary?

piece of big news had also spread.

novice who Billy had challenged was place among all the outer disciples

Billy was only using the opportunity to overshadow Austin and to the top one disciple among the outer disciples, and none of them could compare to him. For most of the outer disciples, he had a great impact on them at that outer disciples had also secretly regarded Austin as their idol and for three years, his imposing reputation still would cause

on ten thousand bleaching bones. A person who wants to achieve big success should think like that. If I could defeat as many people the top ten disciples. I am determined to be ranked among is greatly conducive and examined his injuries. Fortunately, they weren't that serious, and only his skin was battered, his viscera were still intact. He would recover after two days of rest, so Austin to his room and sat

His eyes were solemn as he recalled the fierce spear intent exuding from Billy. From now on, this challenge was of great importance to him.

Based on Billy's vital energy fluctuation, Austin guessed that his cultivation base had reached the eighth level of Energy Gathering Realm, and he also figured out half level spear intent. Austin thought that he could be ranked in the top 10 among the outer disciples.

Thus, Austin had no confidence to beat Billy at present.

However, he should be able to protect himself with his Wind-commanding Skill and Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill.

Since Austin had used his Spiritual Sense Flying Needle so many times, he found that his current spiritual sense power was enough to deal with cultivators below the seventh level of Energy Gathering Realm, even enough to damage their spiritual souls.

However, his Spiritual Sense Flying Needle could only temporarily disturb cultivators at the eighth level of Energy Gathering Realm or above, especially the cultivators whose cultivation base was at Earth Realm, and could not injure their spiritual souls.

After all, the higher a cultivators' cultivation base of vital energy, the stronger his spiritual soul's power would be.

Although Austin's spiritual sense power was powerful, Spiritual Sense Flying Needle was only a wisp of the spiritual sense. Since it launched attacks outside a living body, its power would not be strong enough.

In addition, Austin also knew that his vital energy's cultivation base was low, which was his biggest flaw at the moment.

Thus, Austin felt pressured by the challenge and desperately wanted to train harder.

After he sorted out his thoughts, he took out a secret martial art manual and two blades—one black and one red, from his Space Ring.

These were the objects that he had bought today for 5, 000 pieces of vital energy crystals.

When he carefully read the secret manual, he found out that it was used together with the two blades—just as what the young man who sold him the objects had said.

The Supreme God

Chapter 93 The Refinement of Two Top-grade Spiritual Weapons (Part Two)

The black blade was known as Negative Shadow Blade, while the red one was the Positive Shadow Blade. They were twin blades with positive and negative vital energy, which meant that they were inseparable and deeply connected.

And, these two blades were... top grade level one spiritual weapons!

Austin couldn't help but be taken aback, while he was also pleasantly surprised when he read the introduction in the manual.

Cultivators usually classified the spirit weapons into three types: low grade, medium grade, and the top grade.

All types of weapons were divided into five levels.

For a top grade level one spiritual weapon, it was so valuable that even top cultivators from the Mysterious Realm would do anything to get it!

Austin sighed deeply and thought that he wouldn't dare show this level of a spiritual weapon casually in public, even if he had succeeded in refining the Twin Shadow Blades.

There was a saying that the precious jade landed its owner in jail, even though he was innocent! Thus, if someone who was envious of his treasure had targeted him, he was afraid that he might get into trouble.

He went back to reading the secret manual carefully again and tried to understand it.

The core contents of the manual aimed to guide a cultivator on how to refine the two top grade spiritual weapons.

It also contained instructions on how to skillfully use them after their refinement.

fused with a cultivator's own flesh against an enemy, he could mentally control the Twin Shadow Blades, and the blades would turn invisible and attack the opponent without being refined and put the secret manual back in his Space Ring, placed two blades side by side in front on the two blades as Austin constantly changed hand gestures. He was exercising his vital more and more vital energy formulas poured into the blades, they began to have quivered, and their metal bodies made a buzzing sound that echoed in the room, as red

a top grade spiritual weapon was not an easy and it gradually decreased. The changing formulas that flew about in the room consumed a lot of his base was at the sixth level of Energy Gathering Realm, it was hard for him to refine the two top grade spiritual two hours later, the process had consumed all the vital energy to communicate with the vital energy stone hidden in his elixir field. A large amount of vital energy then gushed time, the vital energy stone absorbed and stored so much energy from the seven earth spirit fruits. The energy must have almost run out due the vital energy stone, but it was difficult to find valuable natural materials like the vital energy in Austin's body was refilled, his refining speed became blades buzzed, rose up in front of Austin

if he succeeded or failed. He braced himself up and roared loudly, two blades infused with the vital energy formulas which glowed red and black, attached themselves to Austin's left was quite exhausted, so he immediately relaxed his body and slumped to the ground.

he had successfully refined

He felt amazed when he realized that he had successfully embedded the Twin Shadow Blades in his own flesh and blood.

When he mentally checked the Negative Shadow Blade, it suddenly appeared five meters in front of him and strangely gave off a mysteriously dark light.

Apparently, its movements were invisible and silent!

Austin focused mentally again, and the Negative Shadow Blade disappeared into thin air, then suddenly reappeared ten meters away from him.

He was ecstatic now, as such a strange and unpredictable attack was invisible and impossible to avoid.

He then put away Negative Shadow Blade and released the Positive Shadow Blade. A red light flickered, and the Positive Shadow Blade suddenly appeared, disappeared, and leaped forward in the room. Its trajectory was impossible to identify!

However, he realized that the power of the Twin Shadow Blades' attack came from his own vital energy.

The Positive Shadow Blade emitted an overbearing and robust power, while the Negative Shadow Blade's was soft and sharp. When used together, they formed a set of swordplay array.

Finally, Austin had refined the two blades and formed the Twin Shadow Blades. As for how much attacking power it could release, that depended on the cultivation base of his own vital energy.

After all, the cultivation base of vital energy was always the primary strength of a cultivator.

Austin planned to stay in his house for the remaining three days and try to raise the cultivation base of his vital energy to a higher level.

If he could reach the seventh level of Energy Gathering Realm with his body's abundant amount of vital energy, his vital energy strength would be equal to or even better than Billy's!

The Supreme God

Chapter 94 Austin Goes Against Billy (Part One)

Being calm and composed in the practicing room, without a worry in the world, Austin was sitting crossed legged on the floor. He seemed to be practicing cultivation since there were three earth spirit fruits and two Energy-boosting Elixirs in front of him.

With the Energy Gathering Array working at full pelt, the practicing room was filled with vital energy, and the air seemed dense with it, much more than any surrounding area.

For the last two days and nights, he had been putting all of his efforts into the Golden Sun Scripture.

The first time he had cultivated the method, a small light ball had appeared in his belly. Now, after about two days, it had grown into a ball about half the size of a walnut and was emitting incessant bright light. Like a small sun, it floated and nourished everything under its light.

Under the light, Austin's belly, bones, muscles and blood vessels had turned a bright, beautiful shade of gold, and looked as if they were filled with an endless supply of vigorous life energy and power.

The energy in the surrounding air seemed to be affected too, and it was being pulled mysteriously into his body.

With the practicing of the Golden Sun Scripture, Austin became extremely energetic. The golden light emitted from the light ball penetrated his bones, flesh and blood vessels and there was a shine that rose from inside to outside of his body.

If one were to witness Austin at this moment, he would be immediately reminded of a mighty king. That was how graceful and powerful Austin looked under the shine.

To Austin's surprise, he suddenly felt that the light ball inside him was pushing to come out of his body, as if a child had been attracted by delicious candies and was about to catch them.

'Is it attracted by...'

A bold idea struck him and he decided to try it out.

the room and stopped above the place where the fruits and elixirs were laid out. For a while, it did nothing, then it began!

when he saw under the golden light, the essences brilliant light, before they were absorbed by the light short moment, there was nothing were getting smaller and if pacified with expected that the light ball would have absorbed the vital and had grown into the size of had settled down in Austin's body, it released a steam of pure and warm energy which spread throughout him and refreshed him to a new extent.

blood vessels was a sign of hours later, Austin suddenly opened his eyes. There was no wind in the room. In fact, it was completely closed. However, his hair fluttered and just woke up from a sound sleep, his breathing had improved and the air flow in his body

Realm!' Austin

felt that the managed to break through his previous level and the Golden Sun Scripture had put him at level seven. In Yang Formula and finally managed to reach level five of the Energy Gathering Realm, the most he had been able to consume was one earth spirit fruit. And that time, big

It was clear that the Golden Sun Scripture was much more powerful than any other formula he had tried.

The sun was shining brightly in the morning sky. The disciples of Sun Sect were cheerfully greeting a new day.

Near the battle ring, around five or six hundred people had gathered at the place where the outer disciples usually stayed

There were some senior disciples, a few new ones, and even a few from the inner section.

Austin was supposed to duel Billy today.

Prepping for the fight to begin, the disciples stood in small groups and discussed the outcome in a low voice," You know, it's said that Austin disappeared from the outer sect three years ago. A while ago, someone told me that he had gotten some sort of mental problem and had been demoted to a grunt disciple. Nobody knows why or how it happened."

"Yeah. I heard rumours. Some people said that he was either dead or has left Sun Sect. It's really surprising to hear that he is fighting today."

"Who do you think will win in the competition, Austin or Billy?"

"It's said that Austin has only six levels of cultivation base left, but Billy has already reached level eight of the Energy Gathering Realm now, so you can imagine who will win yourself."

"We don't have to imagine to find out Billy is going to win. In terms of cultivation level, Billy is two levels higher than Austin, and in terms of skill, it's said that Billy has comprehended a half-level spear intent. So there's no doubt that Bill will win the duel."

"It's too early to say who will win. You know, there is an old saying. It says that a starved camel is still bigger than a horse. After all, Austin was once the best outer disciple."

The Supreme God

Chapter 95 Austin Goes Against Billy (Part Two)

Why are you so stubborn? You know what, let's not fight. How about we make a bet?

In a short while, some smart business-minded disciples began to make bets on the duel outcome.

"Hey, buddies! We'll make a bet. Who wants to join us? Come here and have a look! If you bet on Austin's win, the odds will be 1:5."

Seeing someone had taken the lead in bet, some other disciples followed suit. And in a short moment, four or five gambling stalls had already been set up, each offering a different price for a bet.

One of these stalls even provided odds of 1:10. It was the highest one yet.

Most disciples didn't think Austin would win.

"I bet on Austin's' win! My stake is a thousand vital energy crystals."

Suddenly, a woman's voice rang out in front of the gambling stall which was providing odds of 1:10. Hearing what she was saying, the nearby disciples came closer to watch.

A young woman with a slim frame and beautiful looks laid out a thousand vital energy crystals on the gambling stall.

As soon as she had showed up, numerous disciples had glued their eyes on her slim body and swallowed hard.

"Denali!"

a new disciple immediately recognized her and cried out.

A man standing not far away looked very unhappy when he saw what was happening. This man was nobody else, but Matias.

"I bet on Austin's win too. My stake is eight hundred vital energy crystals."

With that, another young woman laid out eight hundred vital energy crystals on the same gambling stall. She had a curvy frame and a well-developed bosom.

Some outer disciples recognized Mindy immediately when she was laying out the eight hundred crystals.

'Two pretty girls betting on Austin's win. What a lucky bastard he is!'

A lot of disciples were jealous to see that.

Just then, there was a sudden commotion in the crowd. The bystanders consciously parted to the sides, leaving a passage in the middle.

Then Billy, garbed in a royal shade of green, came over into the arena, surrounded by a group of youngsters.

odds in his favour. The outer and senior disciples was something about him that resembled a spear too talented! Even only from his sharp eyes, you get the feeling that he has comprehended some spear intents. It takes an insane amount of cultivation to outer disciples. There's no doubt that he will be the dark horse in the Top Ten disciples immediately stood up and he obviously had the demeanour of a martial many people, he felt very proud.

Austin didn't provoke my man as he had just been promoted to outer disciple, I wouldn't have had the opportunity to show off an hour elapsed and Austin still didn't show

Why hasn't is scared and is hiding somewhere, too crowd was growing

Austin? Why hasn't man beside monitor Austin said that he hasn't come out from his room since this morning. And he hasn't left his room

'Hiding from the fight?'

once best outer disciple fallen

"Austin is coming!"

from the outermost layer of away, Austin and Evan were coming the way of the arena.

acting as if he was not he looked as calm and leisurely as a hermit, who was totally untroubled by strife.

'Eh?'

puzzled and couldn't help but Doesn't he care about the duel with vital energy cultivation realm. How could he be cast his eyes on Austin when the latter walked toward him slowly.

"Austin, you finally come!"

Billy

and evenly. His eyes were filled long spear on his back was reflecting the sunshine like a snake that was ready walked into the battle ring proudly with the long stood about ten meters apart and looked in the open ground which was left by the

him. He was shaking a fan whose frame was made of white jade, and had already

Someone recognized him suddenly.

"Look! Marvin is here too! He ranks five among the outer disciples."

The young man fanning himself was actually Marvin and behind him, stood a hot girl with an arrogant look on her face. It was none other than Lara.

She looked at Austin with a resentful stare.

"How dare this stupid jerk challenge Billy to a duel? He is dicing with death, I tell you! Marvin, I really hope you will teach this stupid jerk a lesson for me!" she said

Marvin looked at Austin emotionlessly.

"Lara, calm down. Austin is going to pay with his blood for offending me sooner or later."

Just then, they heard someone shouting, " Don't stand here you fool! Get out of my way!"

A dozens outer disciples were knocked to the ground and rolled aside, and the space they had left formed a passage.

Through the passage, a sturdy man arrived near the arena.

He was Andrew, who ranked fourth among the outer disciples.

An outer disciple cried his name out in surprise.

It seemed that the 'once best outer disciple' was still attractive to people. Even outer disciples as powerful as Andrew had arrived to watch the battle.

Andrew was a strong man, still young in age. With big eyes, thick whiskers and already passing two meters in height, he was a mighty figure to behold!

He was wearing a short casual suit and carried a broad knife on his shoulder. From his look, one could sense a hint of murderous will.

"Andrew!"

Some disciples who had always been following Andrew walked over to him and stood beside him proudly.

Marvin was surprised too. He looked at Andrew and muttered, " What is he doing here?"

There were quite a few people standing under a row of big trees relatively far away from the battle ring. Some outer disciples with sharp eyes had figured out that they were inner disciples.

Inside the battle ring, like a spear fresh out of its sheath and thirsty for battle, Billy stared at Austin with powerful intent.

"Austin, let's start!"

He patted the spear rod on his back, and like it already knew what its master wanted, the spear jumped out.

Billy reached out and grabbed the spear in his right hand. He raised it horizontally, and pointed it straight at Austin.

The Supreme God

Chapter 96 Austin At The Face Of Death

Billy Tang held his spear with a high spirit as his green gown plumped up like a balloon. Suddenly, the level eight energy burst out of his body and the spear shone like the sun.

Austin came with his sword pointing at the ground with a faint golden vital energy surrounding it. He looked at Billy calmly.

"Austin Lin! Today you'll see the difference between the current and the previous top outer disciple!" Billy said.

At that moment, Billy summoned his vital energy and formed a whirlpool. Its center was at the top of his spear and it also absorbed the vital energy in the air.

Billy deserved to be called one of the strongest among the outer disciples. Even before the fight started, he could summon such great power.

"I think I know what that is! That is the spear intent! Bill really is a genius! He learned the rare spear intent skill!"

"Billy Tang ranks at the fifteenth place now, but he can be a dark horse in the coming Top Ten Disciples Ranking Challenge!"

Seeing Billy summoned his spear intent, the audience couldn't help whispering to each other.

"What are you waiting for, Austin? Let's start!"

Billy spoke to Austin coldly, "I know your cultivation status and I'm sure you're no match for my spear intent. I will show these outer disciples how easily I can kill you!"

Austin was standing more than ten meters from Billy. While Billy was making his speech, Austin felt a burst of vital energy passed by him and cut his hair. His upper garment was also slightly torn away by the vital energy Billy gave off.

"I can't believe it! The cultivator who can learn spear intent is terrifying!"

Some of the disciples in the audience could not hide their excitement in the fight.

Austin was surprised when he sensed Billy's spear intent.

But having lived two lives, his soul was powerful enough to control his emotions and not to show it on his face.

'So, this is what a cultivator's intent really like. It's amazing, I must admit!'

As Austin sensed Billy's spear intent more, he learned something more about it.

Clang!

Without further ado, Austin wielded his sword to one of the moves of the Cloud Swordsmanship.

But aside from what he had learned in the Beast Mountain, Austin also applied something he just learned from Billy's spear intent.

This move might seem ordinary, but it followed the natural principle of clouds drifting in the sky—being rare and swift that no one could catch it easily.

Austin had learned the Cloud Swordsmanship to some great extent. It had played an important role in his fight with the evil ape last time.

At that moment, Austin felt like he was being weighed down by Billy's spear intent.

But the situation helped Austin understand a higher-level martial art skill.

With this new discovery, Austin made one move that helped him lessen the force that was weighing him down.

The disciples in the audience were familiar with the Sun Sect's Cloud Swordsmanship.

they knew that despite his lack of sword intent, Austin's Cloud Swordsmanship had in awe at Austin's

But you still lack sword intent. You can't beat me with just a storm. His hair rippled and his clothes plumped up without any wind.

"Let's start!"

and it shot out spear radiance

Dragon Winding Spear Skill. Its crucial damage was the winding and twisting force. A dozen lightly on the platform to commence his Wind-commanding Skills. Together with his Cloud Swordsmanship, Austin moved lightly and swiftly like a snowflake in the wind—you could see it, but you could hardly clouds of spear radiance like sunshine and contended against sound of metals colliding was heard continuously as their fight, Austin felt forces dragging him and total of ten sharp forces were weighing him down, making him less flexible. His bodily moving skill became slower than usual and he could not move as Austin's sword and it became the

Ting! Ting! Ting!

the amazing!" Austin shouted.

his vital energy quickly flooded out of the Energy level six of the Energy Gathering Realm three the level seven. How could he improve that much in just three days?

and spear, Austin's vital sixth level to the seventh. But you time, Billy started to take Austin seriously, thought that he could defeat the was having a hard time, he was surprisingly doing well in their

The two have fought more than Austin's failure. But after a while, Austin was still fighting and not even on Austin's failure were starting to get frustrated. They couldn't help but give up! I bet

been a while since their fight started but Austin is had achieved the seventh level of the Energy Gathering Realm

Austin was still wonder you're so arrogant. But I am telling you... I'm just warming up!

fight just

Billy said loudly.

a despising smile. He waved his spear continuously until the air was full of spear wonderfulness way. He was entrapped by the spear

"Sizz! Sizz!"

Austin was also bleeding from the scratches he received from can kill you easily! Flood Dragon he got the upper hand again. Suddenly his spear turned slowly as if it was actually the trump card of the Dragon Wind Spear Skill. It simplified the skill into one move and

"Sizz!"

The strength of the spear was tearing the air and made it whistled. A black wave appeared from the top of the spear and it twisted continuously, rushing towards Austin.

A dozen of spear radiance turned into one and it was powerful than anything else.

Ting!

It produced a crisp sound and the sword in Austin's hand was broken into pieces.

"Austin can't dodge that! He will surely die this time!"

Soon the disciples in the audience area started whispering.

"This move returns to its original nature and the spear intent has made Austin as its target. He cannot avoid it anymore."

"He's lucky to die quickly!"

Lara said. She was also in the audience area witnessing how the fight would turn.

Marvin, on the other hand, was a little disappointed about all the earth spirit fruits Austin had picked up.

He had seen that Austin got more than twenty earth spirit fruits that could not be used up to improve one's skill in a short time and all of them were kept by Austin.

Recently, he had been thinking about how to take the earth spirit fruits away from Austin.

He dared not to act too rashly because he knew it would bring him great trouble to kill Austin in the sect without any excuse as Murray was focusing his attention on Austin all the time.

Unexpectedly, before he could think of a good way, Austin was about to die from Billy's spear.

Seeing what was happening on the stage, Marvin felt happy for Austin's fate but also pity for the earth spirit fruits.

At a corner of the audience area, Denali was trying to control herself by holding her mouth to avoid screaming so loud.

She turned her head down not wanting to see Austin dying.

"Austin!"

In another corner, Mindy also exclaimed. She closely stared at the two men on the stage in hope that Austin could create a miracle at the crucial moment.

"Tin!"

Evan also felt bad and shouted. He stood up and wanted to rush onto the stage to save Austin's life.

But five young disciples held him down to prevent him from walking there.

Meanwhile, on the stage, Austin felt that the sharp spear intent was targeting him. Suddenly, the vital energy flooded from his feet and the Wind-commanding Skill was running to an extreme extent.

At the same time, he swiftly made different gestures with his hands to form special hand signs one after another like butterflies dancing.

Golden light vital energy started to gradually appear from his palms. Vital energy snakes occurred and twisted on his arms.

The Grand Pagoda was formed instantly!

It was larger and quicker to form than the first time Austin used it.

Recently, Austin had kept practicing his Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill. With the help of his powerful spiritual sense, the Grand Pagoda formed quicker and it became more solid.

The Supreme God

Chapter 97 Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill (Part One)

Hang on a second, WHAT?

What the hell was he doing?

Every single member of the audience was nonplussed on noticing Austin's weird behavior. They fixated their sights on him and stared with curiosity all over them.

"Well then. Do what you must. I can already tell you that it will be in vain!"

Billy yelled confidently. He gazed at Austin and locked him under his killing intent, spear held still in his hand. For a second, he didn't move, allowing Austin to continue. But there was something about him!

At that moment, he was flashing the demeanor and bearing that a powerful cultivator should have. Mighty, graceful, and confident.

The audience gazed at him in admiration. Those who had placed a bet on his win getting more and more excited.

The female disciples, who were crazy fans of him were fascinated head over heels now.

Amid the chatter of the crowd, their squeals could be clearly heard, "Billy is so dashing!"

"I am Billy's greatest fan! I am gonna be on his side forever!"

Billy's companions felt proud too. They stood tall with heads held high. One could almost get the notion that the girls were chasing them and not Billy from their proud expressions.

Seeing the crowd's supportive attitude, Billy was pleased of himself. He held his spear still, looking at Austin disdainfully out of the corner of his eye. In his eyes, the battle was already won and he just had to drop one last blow.

He used the Wind-commanding Skill he had learned to fend off the rapidly building up pressure. At the same time, the shimmering

light, a shiver down the spines of everyone who saw unknown reasons, it was affecting everyone, including Billy, whose

"Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill!"

horror as he fourth-grade spell, supposedly very powerful. At least in theory. However, it had few real practitioners the book ever did was collect dust with each passing day. Its reputation preceded it. It was stored on told of it and therefore, each disciple in Sun Sect

it looked like had heard its name and recognized it just what desperate or stupid idea had driven Austin using the spell was a suicidal act. The masters did not encourage its practice, and some of them didn't even teach it. Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill was a double-edged sword, and only fools or nuts would acting recklessly in his hopeless situation? Did he really want to rely on this spell to defeat Billy? The audience gazed speechlessly at who had been practicing martial arts for a long time now. According to rumors they'd heard from their elders, Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill was the

But Austin seemed to have ducked death. And it didn't look like he'd managed that by sheer dumb luck. There was something remarkable about this man and he of this skill. The pagoda he summoned was exactly as powerful as he was associated with its own side effects. The Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill developed an energy with itself that was mingled with malicious thoughts. Thus, affected by the when he raised his head to face his opponent. He laughed out loud and declared in on the inside. He braced himself against the pagoda, holding

With a roar, he charged forward. "Die!"

Just as he reached within range and swiped his spear at Austin, the accumulated energy inside the latter's hand gushed out in a stream.

It touched the spear and the very air looked like it had been torn apart where the front of the spear went.

Austin's eyes had been fixed on Billy's spear. His pupils had narrowed in the thrill and excitement of the battle and all his hairs were standing up. He could sense the devastating strength of the spear, and the keenness of its tip.

But he wasn't afraid. Golden-colored vital energy was emanating from his veins, which kept pouring into the palm of his hand, and into the golden pagoda over his palms.

Raging power surged inside the pagoda, and a destructive will emanated from it, sweeping the whole area.

Austin's hair billowed in the wind, arms held high. Like a deity who had descended to the earth for one sole battle, he was holding the destructive force in his hands that no one else had dared to use. Under his aura, no one was strong enough to look him in the eye. As the power of his energy converged, the pagoda in his hands outshone the mid-day sun. Even the air nearby had evaporated in the great power of his spell.

And he suddenly moved.

His foot tapped the ground, then he bolted forward like an arrow.

... ..

"Die! Die!"

Billy roared in a rough voice. Without the slightest pause, he stabbed his spear at Austin lightning-fast.

Bang!

The Supreme God

Chapter 98 Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill (Part Two)

With a deafening sound, the tip of Billy's spear knocked into the pagoda. Time seemed to stop for a moment after which, violent waves of power exploded out from the point of contact. It was as if the ground trembled and the arena was torn apart. All eyes were fixed at the spot where the two objects had collided.

Then the shaft of the spear bent, little by little, before the eyes of an astonished audience. Within a fleeting moment, it was bent completely into a bow, until it was on the verge of breaking.

Swoosh!

Astounded, Billy reacted quickly. He twisted his arms, drew back the spear and flew backward in an awkward gesture, pushed back with a mighty acceleration due to the spring force when the bent spear whipped straight.

"It's not possible!" he yelled in disbelief as he collected his wits.

His cry of surprise was heard by all. But this time, no one dared to make a sound.

Finally, in front of Austin, Billy was no longer the superior and confident warrior he had always been. For the first time ever, his face showed signs of alarm.

Austin on the other hand, felt elated. His long hair flew in the air conspicuously and there was pride rushing through him. At this moment, he was showing an awe-inspiring demeanor, with domineering confidence and pride.

"That's just the start!"

He suddenly yelled, rushing forward. Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill was more powerful than he had imagined. And it had felt so good that he wanted to use more of it on Billy, his supposedly strong opponent. With the pagoda in his hands, he attacked.

Grinding his teeth, Billy also let out a loud roar. All his vital energy gushed out through the veins of his hand and concentrated itself into his spear. The spear hummed and trembled under the mighty and forceful surge. Suddenly, it spiraled out like a viper and dashed towards the pagoda.

"Clink!"

"Clunk!"

"Clunk!"

Three times, the sound rang out. Beginning at the point of impact, violent and extraordinarily each stroke, Billy was forced more than a thousand shocked eyes, after the third crash, his body flew out and defeat were divided between the two contestants. Billy every single one of his attacks and had penetrated through his defense like through a sheet of paper. It had smashed his vital energy and damaged

the outer who were less horrified and more awed, and they stared

the most unpopular

supporting Billy. Despite the risks, Grand Pagoda Summoning Skill was indeed a powerful spell, and impressed everyone. As a fourth-grade martial Spear Skill was just not enough. Although he had learned to master half level of spear intent, the skill he was employing behind it was merely third-grade, one stage lower than Summoning Skill, many of the outer disciples were itchy to learn it. They were hoping they could also use it were stained with blood, and his eyes were horribly red. His eyelids were a very violent shade of purple. He had intended to raise his reputation by fighting Austin. But the fight had gone awry. He had been defeated beyond prestige. How could he accept the fact that Austin was superior? Come again, how could he accept a defeat as bad as came a loud

I

won! Tin! Tin! Hip

clapped and yelled at Austin's victory. He was obviously very excited. His eyes, too, contrast to his joy, the dozen or so boys who had picked on Evan were were all Billy's companions, and had been proud to be so. But now, their idol had been defeated by Austin, who clearly possessed greater strength than Billy did. They were too afraid of Austin and didn't dare pick on Evan anymore. They clearly knew that he was in a corner, Denali breathed out a sigh of relief. She patted her chest a couple of times to how to keep people who care about him worrying!' she thought.

relaxed too. Complicated feelings surged in her heart. She stared this possible! How can this idiot win against Lara exclaimed in great disgust.

Standing by her side, Marvin looked sullen. He stared at Austin with dread.

... ..

"I am not defeated yet! How can I fall at your hands? Let's start over!"

Billy yelled in a sudden outburst of temper. The vital energy ran wild inside him when he pounced towards Austin once again. And his spear flew like a flood dragon speeding across the sky.

"Swoosh!"

Austin's eyes were cold and indifferent. He didn't even move from his place. Simply changing his stance to his fighting posture, he held the pagoda high. He was facing the spear directly.

"Bump!"

Once again, Billy thumped against the pagoda and flew across the arena, thudding into a corner.

But this time, Austin didn't stop at merely defending his own self against the attack. He followed Billy and swung the pagoda high over his head.

In this moment of life and death, Billy suddenly recovered from his madness. Before Austin could hit him, his eyes suddenly opened wide in horror, and he shrieked, " I give up! Stop! You win! You win!"

With his words, Austin's attack came to a halt.

The forceful swing stopped just before the pagoda hit Billy in the face. However, some swirls of energy were still thrown out and cut his skin open. Streaks of blood ran down his cheeks, along with tears and sweat.

Austin stared into his eyes, and asked slowly, " You've really given up, haven't you?"

When Billy heard his words, his face twitched violently as his expressions changed. After a while, he nodded unwillingly, since he didn't have any other choice. He struggled to climb up to his feet but his downcast eyes were filled with ferocity and malevolence.

The Supreme God

Chapter 99 The Truth From Three Years Ago Finally Revealed (Part One)

With a ferocious expression on his face, Billy suddenly raised his hand with a sharp dagger in his palm, glittering like frost and snow.

He thrust the dagger towards Austin's abdomen at a lightning speed.

At that moment, Austin wasn't aware how near Billy got to him. The attack happened so fast that he didn't have the time to dodge.

Despite that, Austin's spiritual sense was so strong that he had already sensed Billy's movement even without looking at it.

Austin's eyes flashed when the pagoda in his hand suddenly radiated the golden rays shooting directly at Billy.

"Bang!"

The golden rays stroke heavily on Billy and he was sent flying. He fell to the ground just outside the field motionless. People didn't know whether he was dead or alive.

There was a rule that when a person got onto the field, his life was his own risk.

Therefore, even if Billy died in the fight, Austin would not be held accountable for his death.

Furthermore, people in the audience all had seen Billy's disgraceful conduct to attack Austin unprepared, so no one would accuse Austin of being cruel, and no one would sympathize with Billy's plight.

Billy had only himself to blame.

Standing on the arena, Austin concealed the pagoda in his hand using his mind.

Everyone was surprised to Austin's delicate features matched by his profound martial art. They were all overwhelmed by Austin's excellent performance. They now understood why he used to be the first among the outer disciples. Despite his vital energy weakened, he could still fight in an amazing way.

If Austin could regain his former strength, he could have unimaginable power.

enabled Austin to once reestablish his reputation among the outer disciples.

for Billy, he just fainted outside the all, Austin had no intention that had just rolled over on the field also gradually dissipated as Austin put away down the field. He looked very discreet of emotions: admiration, jealousy, fear, so awesome! You gave him a shellacking in ran toward Austin as he saw the latter exit should learn to keep a low profile," sorry! I'm just too mouth and said it go. Since the fight was over, he took Evan off the scene as quickly as bother him anymore. This time, he was one of the reasons why he accepted Billy's went straight to their home from the a man who was sitting on a stone chair by the stone table was surprised to find a stranger in his man was Steward Murray, who did you know where to find us?" Austin was thrilled and rushed up

Can you please moved into a new house. Am I

Murray joked.

without your help. I would never forget your kindness," Austin said this, Murray nodded with that Austin remained loyal to him.

"I witnessed the fight between you and Billy. And from there, I can see that you have somehow regained your vital energy.

But destruction pursues the great. Have you ever heard of the saying?"

Austin didn't seem to understand what Steward Murray was trying to tell him.

He asked, "I'm not sure I get that, Steward Murray."

"What I mean is, it is too risky for you to flaunt your skill just like that.
Have you forgotten what happened to you three years ago? You should learn to hide your true powers until you become really strong," said Murray earnestly.

'What happened to me three years ago...'

the thought echoed in Austin's mind.

"Steward Murray, what do you know about the attack on me three years ago?"

Austin asked anxiously. Three years ago, he was preparing for a breakthrough in Earth Realm when suddenly he was blindsided by someone and got seriously injured. He almost died that time, but he survived. However, the attack resulted in him to go crazy for three years.

Austin had never forgotten about it and had a deep animosity towards that man.

Since then, Austin made a deal with himself not to be fooled by kindness anymore. "An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth" as the saying goes.

It sounded as if Murray knew something about what had happened to Austin three years ago, so the latter was anxious but excited to know at the same time.

"Yes, I do know something about what happened that day. But I haven't told you because I think you're not strong enough to understand and get revenge. If I tell you the truth, I'm afraid you'll risk your life on the spur of the moment," Murray said slowly. He stared at Austin, hoping to get the right message through him.

"Steward Murray." Austin took a deep breath, trying to steady his nerves and calming himself down.

Then he continued to say, "I almost died, and since then, I realized that life is precious. I'm not going to be impulsive. Passion alone cannot win the revolution; it just makes martyrs. I won't take revenge on him until I'm sure I can beat him.

Just as the proverb says: "Know the weather, know the terrain, and your victory will be complete." I want to know my enemy—who he is, his strengths and weaknesses, his powers. That way, I can understand how much vital energy I must achieve in order to get my revenge. I will use that as a goal for my cultivation, to motivate myself.

The Supreme God

Chapter 100 The Truth From Three Years Ago Finally Revealed (Part Two)

Furthermore, that attack had not only gotten me seriously injured but also left a devil in my heart. It became an obstacle for me to get further cultivation. If I can't get rid of it, then I wouldn't be able to make progress."

Hearing this, Murray sighed and said, "I know you'd never be satisfied until you get to the bottom of things. Knowing you, under no circumstances would you let this go by unsettled. Alright then, I'll tell you everything I know.

Three years ago, the high-ranking members of Sun Sect decided to select a group of elites to train. The elites of a sect generally referred to the core disciples and inner disciples. However, among the core disciples and inner disciples, the talents were few then, and the truly qualified disciples were just rare. Therefore, the high-ranking members decided to expand the range of selection to the outer disciples," Murray said slowly as he recalled the past.

"At that time, there were only five qualified outer disciples. Those were you, Gavin, Bridget, Braxton, and Bryan.

After some series of challenges, the head decided to only pick three—you, Bridget, and Gavin."

Austin listened carefully. He was surprised that he didn't know anything about this. It was as if this part of his memory was taken out of his brain.

Perhaps this was a secret in the sect and ordinary disciples were not supposed to know about this.

Murray continued, "However, just after the three candidates had been selected, both you and Gavin were attacked individually. You were lucky to survive the attack, though you went crazy. Gavin, on the other hand, was less fortunate and got killed on the spot.

"Gavin was killed?" Austin asked incredulously.

He was surprised to hear the news of Gavin's death. At that time, among the outer disciples, Austin ranked first, and Gavin was next to him. It was hard for him to believe that Gavin would be killed in that attack.

"Indeed. After you and Gavin were attacked, I suspected that you were targeted because you were the selected elites. In the past years, I had conducted my own thorough investigation. And finally, I think I have found out the truth."

us? Please tell

he had been waiting for—to know the

Bryan will never get away attacked me that night had unfathomable vital energy. I suppose that he should be at Earth Realm at least. But neither Braxton nor Bryan Austin felt puzzled.

an outer disciple named asked Murray.

had found a 500-year-old energy ginseng in a valley nearby. I was preparing to break through the Earth Realm when I to Chale, and then the attack happened. Since you and Gavin were either hurt or dead, Bryan Austin's eyes as he thought about the question.

be them!" he said,

of what had happened to him over the past three years, anger came over to Austin.

day, I will make they are already core disciples now. By the way, do you know what the relationship between Braxton and Elder

"What do you mean?"

Austin asked curiously.

Jaime's

that's why." Austin sighed in

"I suspect that all this may have something to do with Elder Jaime. So, better be careful. It is said that he has already at the senior level of Earth Realm. Besides, he wields a lot of power in Sun Sect and I think he is too strong for you. Furthermore, Braxton and Bryan are also at Earth Realm."

Murray shook his head and looked at Austin anxiously. He didn't know whether he was right or wrong to tell him the truth. He was afraid that Austin would run for revenge on the spur of the moment and lose his life.

As for Austin, after hearing Murray's narration, he stood still for a moment. It was not until he had calmed down that he looked up slowly at Murray with gratitude.

"Steward Murray, I know what you're worried about. But please trust me. I won't act harshly, I promise. I will get my revenge on them one day. But now is not the time. I will wait until I become stronger. From now on, I will focus on cultivating myself hard with all my heart. Then I'll settle our score one by one in the future."

Looking at Austin's limpid and steady eyes, Murray received his words with appreciation. He nodded and felt relieved.

"I'm glad to see you've become more mature. Then I'll wait for the good news from you.

I'm afraid I need to go now. There are still many things for me to deal with. Remember to look out for yourself."

Murray was always bound up in business, so he couldn't stay long even if he wanted to.

"Jaime, Braxton, Bryan."

There was a voice that kept enumerating these names in his mind.

"Enjoy now, for someday, I will get my revenge!"

