And although she was grateful that he was thinking about her well-being, right now, this wasn’t what she wanted.

“Just start with the good part already!”

Ember exclaimed.

Nux looked at her and blinked a few times.

Well, this... was surprising...

However, since he got the green signal, a big smile appeared on her face.

“I didn’t know you were such a big pervert, General Ember.”

Nux teased.

Ember, however, just closed her eyes.

“What did you say? Sorry, I fell asleep.”

Ember muttered without opening her eyes and hearing those words, Nux’s face twitched in annoyance.

“Now you have done it.”

Then, Nux quickly pulled his rod near the opening and then,

“AANNNhhhhhh!!!”

He drilled his dick right inside her pussy again.

Ember moaned loudly and at the same time, she tightened her hug around Nux’s neck.

This time, Nux didn’t care about anything and moved his dick back and then, he drilled it inside again and again and again.

“AAanh! AAanh! Anhh!”

The more he drilled, the louder Ember moaned and soon, her grip around Nux’s neck got weaker.

She was losing all her strength.

Jolts and jolts of pleasure assaulted her body, making it more numb and eventually, weaker.

Her mind was already in a blank state right now and all she could think of was to match her moans with Nux's drilling.

Yes, that was all the General of an incredible army was thinking right now.

However, Nux wasn't done yet.

Feeling that it wasn't enough, Nux grabbed Ember's left leg and placed it on his shoulder, then, he bent down, Ember's leg moved with him and continued to stretch further and further.

Her cave opened up as well and soon,

Nux drilled his rod even deeper.

“AAannhhhh!!”

Ember's eyes widened as a giant jolt of pleasure assaulted her mind.

She felt like Nux's rod has touched something it shouldn't have.

Nux, however, didn't care and continued to thrust his rod inside Ember's body.

This time, his hands didn't stay idle either, he grabbed Ember's squishy breasts gently and then, he started stroking that mountain gently while playing with that beautiful peak with his fingers.

*Pah* *Pah* *Pah*

“AAanhh! AAnhh! Anhh!”

The pounding continued, the sounds of flesh meeting flesh and Ember's moans echoed inside the tent.

Nux, on the other hand, was trying his best to not moan and continued to play with Ember's body.

Soon, Ember's insides tightened, Nux quickly understood what was about to happen and to make everything much more pleasurable, he thought of a small plan.

Soon, a Black Coloured Mist oozed out from his body, it then moved towards Ember's eyes, taking away her vision. His hand trailed down to her entrance, his mouth moved close to Ember's ears and then with his other hand, he continued to play with her breasts.

Then suddenly,

“AANNgggnHHhhh!!!”

He used every weapon at the same time.

He bit her earlobe, pinched her nipple, pressed her clit and drilled inside her with all the power he had.

Ember, who was attacked by the waves of pleasure from all over her body wasn't able to take it and she moaned out loud.

Her walls tightened to an unbearable extent and she,

*Squirt* *Squirt* *Squirt*

Came nonstop.

On the other side, Nux wasn't any better either, as Ember's cave tightened, the pleasure he was feeling rose by multiple folds and,

“Ugghhh!! I am cummingggg!!”

His penis released its load inside her Ember's body.

His milk mixed with Ember's juice and a strange smell spread inside the tent, Nux and Ember, however, didn't care.

Right now, they just supported their body on each other and breathed heavily.

“Haah... Haa... So... haah... how was... your... haah... first time...?”
Nux questioned with sweat rolling over his forehead while he lay on top of Ember’s soft body.

He then looked at Ember, waiting for his reply and soon, he saw a small smile on Ember’s face, “Haa... haahh... haah...

We... haah... the night isn’t over yet...

Right...?”

Hearing that answer, a big smile appeared on Nux’s face.

“Of course not.”

Little Nux rose up again.

Chapter 337

“Ugghh!! I am cumming again!!”

Nux groaned in pleasure as he painted Ember’s insides white with his milk again.

However, this time, Ember, who was moaning as loudly as possible a few rounds ago, didn’t let out any voice.

She was too tired to do so.

Even opening her mouth and moaning was a tiresome job for her right now.

She has orgasmed many times this night, however, those orgasms weren’t alone, they were accompanied by countless minor orgasms.

Right now, her body was so numb that she couldn’t even move a muscle, however, at the same time, her body was so sensitive that even a minor touch would send a jolt of pleasure into her body.

It was a strangely good feeling and Ember felt that she would get addicted to it.

*Squirt*

With Nux pushing his rod inside her with great force and then shooting his milk inside her, Ember’s already sensitive insides reacted and,

“AAaannnhhhhhh!!!”

She came again.

Then, Nux’s body fell on top of Ember’s, he then kissed her cheeks lightly and then rolled beside her.

“Haah... Haahh... Haah...”

“Haaahh... haa... haaa...”

The two of them took deep breaths.

Then, Nux felt a strange, but familiar energy entering his body.

Nux knew that he had levelled up, however, he did not bother looking at his status.

After all, the information in his Status would change very soon, there was no point in looking at it again and again.

‘Keke’

Thinking about it, a small smile appeared on Nux’s face.

Then, he moved his body towards Ember then grabbed her from behind, his hand naturally grabbed her firm breast while his other hand kneaded her well-toned abs.

Feeling his touch, a small smile appeared on Ember’s face and with all the strength she had, she moved her tired hand and placed it on top of Nux’s hand that was kneading her abs.

“That was amazing...”

She whispered softly.

“Indeed.”

Nux nodded in agreement and then, he continued.

“I never thought I would be in this position so soon.”

Ember smiled,

“So I was right, you did have your eyes on me...”

“Trust me, Ember. Every man present here in this Army Camp has his eyes on you,

You are just too hot to be ignored, a sinful body that would arouse even a eunuch combined with that fiery, wild and dominant attitude, there is no way anyone can resist you.

You are a cheat-like existence.”

“You sure have a sweet tongue, Boy...”

Hearing him praise her like that, Ember’s face turned a little red, however, since he was currently hugging her from behind, Nux couldn’t see that beautiful sight.

“Believe me, these are not just empty words.”

Nux muttered and then, a small smile appeared on his face,

“However, you were wrong about one thing.”

“Hmm? About what?” Ember questioned.

“The favour, I am not working so hard in stacking that because I wanted to fuck you. Your assumption was wrong.”

Nux revealed and Ember’s eyes widened in surprise.

If she had more energy, she would have turned around and looked at Nux with a shocked look on her face.

‘Did I give away my virginity without any reason?’

This question popped into her mind.

However, before she could think more, Nux’s hug tightened around her tired body, she could feel Nux’s mouth coming close to her ears and for some reason, a subtle wave of pleasure was released inside her body.

Then, Nux started,

“You see, if I only wanted to spend a night with you, I would have asked it the first time I saved your army.

As you said, like a Warrior, I would have been direct with my approach and I would have asked you directly. I would not have waited for so long.”

Nux muttered and then, his smile widened.

“However, you see, I am a special case.”

“Special case?”

Ember frowned.

Nux then moved even close to Ember, tightened his hug around her, and placed his half-erect dick between her soft thighs, then, he bit her earlobe and kissed her nape.

“You see, I have this strange problem,

I did not know about this before, however, after spending so much time with Thyra and my other women, I am finally sure of this.

I do not just have sex with a woman and get over it.

There is a greedy demon living inside me, once I spend a night with a woman, I want her to be mine and mine alone.”

Then, Nux’s Golden eyes turned dark,

“I will not allow them to get away from me.

Therefore,”

Nux’s hand then trailed down from her abs and reached towards her pussy,

“What I wanted was not just a simple one-night stand,

The Greedy me wanted the complete Ember Windstar all for myself.”

Then, Nux gently grabbed Ember’s little sister, and,

“Annh~”

A small moan leaked out of Ember’s mouth. Right now, her face was completely red, however, as a strong woman, Ember still wanted to stand up for herself.

“D-Did you think that stacking favours would be enough to have ‘Ember Windstar’ all for yourself?”

“Of course not, how could the woman I set my eyes on be that cheap?

I knew that no matter how many times I save your or your soldiers’ life, it won’t be enough to get what I wanted, therefore, I changed my plans.

Rather than getting Ember Windstar, what I wanted was the ‘way’ to get Ember Windstar.”

Hearing that answer, a satisfied smile appeared on Ember’s face.

Then, she spoke,

“I like you, boy.”

“You don’t need to stack any more favours, I will give you what you want right now.

Since ancient times, there is only one way to get what you want,

Fight for it.

Getting ‘Ember Windstar’ all for yourself is simple,

Defeat ‘Ember Windstar’ in a duel and you demand anything you want.”

“Can I get ‘Ember Windstar’ as a reward as well?” Nux questioned with a smile.

Suddenly, Ember smiled wildly and a ferocious aura was released from her body.

“Winner takes all, boy.”

Chapter 338

Suddenly, Ember smiled wildly and a ferocious aura was released from her body.

“Winner takes all, boy.”

“Winner takes all, huh...”

An Aura, that overpowered Ember’s Aura released from his body then, and a wild smile appeared on Nux’s face.

“Alright then, Ember Windstar, I, Nux Leander, challenge you to a Duel, Accept it only if you are willing to be mine for the rest of your life.”

A serious expression appeared on Ember’s face.

“Are you sure you want to do it right now? With your talent, it is only a matter of time before you become a King Stage Cultivator, it won’t be too late to challenge me by then.

Keep in mind, I, as a Warrior, won’t go easy on you no matter what.”

Nux shook his head,

“No, now that I see the path right in front of me, I won’t be able to wait for long.

I am an impatient man.”

Nux then moved his mouth close to Ember’s ears and whispered.

“I want you to be mine as soon as possible.”

This time, however, Ember didn't blush or feel any sort of pleasure, even if she did, she didn't show it on her face.

Rather than pleasure, there was a frown on her face,

“You seem pretty confident that you will win against me.”

Ember narrowed her eyes.

“With the thought of winning you in my mind, I am very motivated.”

“Motivation won't help you in a battle against absolute power.”

Nux chuckled,

“I won't be holding back.”

Ember's face turned solemn,

“How much time do you need?”

Without wasting any more time in small talks, Ember questioned.

“As soon as possible.

I am ready even if it is right now.

I want you to be m-”

“Tomorrow evening.

You must be tired right now, rest well,

I will meet you tomorrow evening.”

Ember muttered and then, she stood up.

...or she tried to.

Nux, however, grabbed her from behind and tightened his hug around her.

“Stay with me~”

At the same time, Nux started kneading her breasts and rubbing his dick against her soft and perky butt.

A small blush appeared on Ember’s face, this time, however, her pride as a Warrior was on the line. Therefore, she battled the pleasure she was feeling and even though she was tired, she forced herself to stand up and then she looked at Nux with a solemn look on her face.

“Be prepared for the battle.”

Then, she wore her clothes and turned around.

...

‘She got away...’

After Ember left her tent, a big, wide smile appeared on Nux’s face.

‘She is too much...’

Nux thought inwardly, then, he placed his hand on his chest and felt his heart that was beating so quickly that it felt like it would burst out.

‘She is too fucking much...’

I will make that Wild General mine!’

Nux swore in his heart and his smile widened even more.

He was really enjoying this chase.

“Tsk Tsk, just look at that smile on your face, you are really enjoying whatever is happening, aren’t you?”

Nux finally came out of his reverie, then, he turned towards Thyra who was looking at him with an extremely jealous look on her face.

“Tsk Tsk, look at you, so? Did you enjoy peeking at us?”

Nux questioned with a playful look on his face.

“Naah, it was good,

But I still feel me and you looked better together compared to Ember and you.”

Thyra smiled.

Nux chuckled as well.

...

Time passed and soon, it was time for the battle.

“Assistant General Nux.”

And soon, Nux heard a voice.

A big smile appeared on his face and he walked out of the tent.

“Assistant General Nux, General Emb-”

“Take me there.”

Nux ordered impatiently.

“Y-Yes, Sir.”

The soldier saluted and then, he turned around.

Nux followed the soldier and soon, he appeared in front of Ember’s room.

“The General is waiting for you inside her room.”

The Soldier muttered.

Nux nodded and then, he stepped inside the room.

“You look unbearably beautiful, General Ember.”

Nux smiled as he glanced at the General who was wearing her normal Coat, this time, however, her hair were tied into a pony and there was a red golden sword in her hand.

“Don’t bother, I won’t go easy on you.”

Ember replied with a solemn look on her face.

Nux just smiled and questioned.

“Where are we fighting?”

“Follow me.”

Ember muttered and then, she turned around.

Ember then moved out of the room from the backdoor and started running in a certain direction.

Nux followed her without any problems and soon, the two of them appeared in front of a plain field.

“This will be our Battle Arena.”

“It is finally starting huh...”

Nux muttered as he glanced at Ember who was pointing her sword at him.

“I hope you are prepared for defeat.”

Ember spoke.

Nux just smiled and his sword appeared in his hand.

Ember took it as his approval and then,

She disappeared.

Nux turned around and saw that she was already behind him.

With her sword covered with flames, she attacked.

*Clank*

Their sword clashed.

Nux then jumped back however, soon, Wind Blades were shot at him.

Nux jumped to the side and dodged, however, as if his moves were already predicted by his opponent, a fireball appeared right in front of him.

Nux slashed his sword, his sword and the Fireball clashed and soon,

*BOOM*

The fireball exploded.

Ember Windstar, the General of the Woods Dynasty, even though she wasn't a Peak King Stage Cultivator, she was still considered one of the strongest King Stage Cultivators in the world and the reason for that was her Double Affinity.

The Wind Element that drastically increases the Speed, and the Fire fire that increases the Power,

This woman had affinities with both of them, this combined with how smartly she uses her two elements to her advantage, her battle sense and surrounding awareness,

She was a scary opponent to fight against.

Chapter 339

She was a scary opponent to fight against.

However, this is only true for a normal cultivator, in front of a Monster like Nux,

Things were different.

The smoke that spread around the area after the explosion cleared up and Ember narrowed her eyes as she glanced at the scene in front of him with a solemn look on her face.

“Water Element...”

She muttered as she noticed Nux standing in front of her, his entire body was covered with a layer of Water Shield that had cracks all over it, however, Nux, that was protected by the shield was completely fine.

“That was a precise use of [Water Shield], it seems you have practised it well and have good control over your element.

Good.”

Ember praised honestly and Nux chuckled.

Then, he pointed his sword at Ember, his pose was quite similar to Ember’s, thinking that he was taunting her, Ember narrowed her eyes and decided to act again, however, suddenly,

Nux disappeared.

*Clank*

He then appeared right in front of Ember and slashed his sword at her, she blocked his attack with her sword, however, this time, Nux was the one who was overpowering her.

Ember frowned, however, since she was currently in the battle, she didn't have much time to think and analyse this, therefore, she did what was required and jumped back.

*Whoosh* *Whoosh* *Whoosh*

At the same time, she also shot some Wind Blades at Nux to distract him.

Wind Blades weren't as strong as Fire Balls, however, they were faster, and dodging one in a battle was troublesome.

Ember's plan was simple, she wanted Nux to stop there and block all the Wind Blades, and while he is doing at, she would regain her balance and would prepare for her next attack.

This time, however, things didn't go as she planned and Nux's next actions surprised Ember to her core.

*Whoosh* *Whoosh* *Whoosh*

Wind Blades formed behind Nux and soon, they were shot towards the Wind Blades made by Ember and the opposing Wind Blades cancelled each other perfectly.

“W-Wind Elements...”

‘He has affinities with two elements as well!’

Ember realized.

However, this was just the beginning.

Nux then appeared in front of her and attacked.

*Clank*

Their swords clashed with each other, and Ember jumped back again, however, while she was jumping back, she noticed that the ground behind her had turned into Sharp Spikes.

“!!!”

Ember’s eyes widened in surprise.

‘Earth Element!’

She couldn’t believe what she was seeing.

Then, she shifted the weight of her body to the other leg and avoided this situation with just a small mark on her shoe.

However, right as she landed on the ground, she felt that the temperature around her has changed. She then looked in front of her and,

“!!!”

Her eyes widened in horror.

A big Wave of Fire was moving towards her!

And she had no way to defend against it!

In the end, Ember could only embrace herself for the impact and swung her sword toward the Flames coming towards her.

*KABOOM***

An explosion sounded, Ember’s body flew back and fell on the ground.

She was hurt, her armour was burnt and was falling apart, her clothes behind her armour had burnt as well, even her white skin had a few marks,

It could be said that her condition was bad, however, she wasn’t done yet.

She still had what it takes to win this fight!

Therefore, Ember moved and then stood up.

Or so she wanted to...

However, before she could,

A sword was placed on her neck.

Ember then looked at the man who was standing right behind her head,

“That was my strongest Wide Area attack, [Fire Slash], cool right?”

Nux questioned with a small smile on her face and soon, Ember realized something.

“Fire... Fire Element as well...

Water, Wind, Earth and Fire... y-you...

You have an affinity with all four elements!”

Nux’s chuckled,

“I do.”

Ember, however, couldn’t digest this,

“H-How is this possible!

People with affinity with 2 Elements at the same time are rare, I have never heard about someone who has an affinity with 3, how do you have an affinity with all 4 of these elements!?”

“I am a special case.”

Nux’s smile widened and then, he continued,

“Well, a normal person can’t have Ember Windstar all for himself now can he?”

“ ... ”

Ember turned silent and soon, she realized another thing.

She lost...

She lost a battle against an Expert Stage Cultivator...

And as if confirming that fact, Nux smiled,

“Ember Windstar, the opponent’s sword is on your neck, do you accept your defeat?”

With a bitter look on her face, Ember answered,

“I do.”

Nux’s continued with the same smile,

“Winner Takes All,

According to this statement,

I, the winner of the Duel, can demand anything I want, correct?”

“Yes, that is correct...”

Ember answered with a lost look on her face.

She still couldn’t accept her defeat, and in her mind, she was repeating the battle and was trying to find ways to win.

However, Nux’s next actions brought her out of her reverie.

He moved his sword from her neck, then stored it inside his storage ring, then, he extended his hands towards her,

Ember took the hand and Nux pulled her up.

Then, a healing potion appeared in Nux's hand.

He then looked at Ember and his smile widened,

“Then from now onwards,

You, Ember Windstar, will be mine and mine alone.”

Nux quickly drank the healing potion and then,

“!!!”

He sealed Ember's lips, bringing her out of her reverie.

Ember then drank the healing potion, directly from Nux's mouth, once the potion was finished, the two of them started kissing and exchanging their saliva.

Nux's tongue moved wildly and explored Ember's mouth while his hands moved towards her butt and he pulled her close to him.

2 minutes later, the Kiss finally ended, and then, Nux questioned,

“Do you accept it?”

“Can I deny it?”

Ember questioned with a playful smile on her face.

“The Loser has no right to deny the Winner's demand.

From now on, whether you want it or not,

You are mine.”

Nux answered as his golden eyes shined brightly and then, he sealed Ember's lips again.

This time, Ember reciprocated as well and her tongue moved as well.

Their tongues clashed with each other for supremacy, rolling around and licking each other, Nux, however, cheated and started kneading Ember's butt.

“Mhf~”

A small, muffled moan leaked out of Ember's mouth and soon, Nux's tongue dominated the match.

After sharing a 3 minute-long kiss, the two of them separated and then, Ember smiled,

“You actually won against me, Nux.”

A satisfied smile appeared on Nux's face.

Hearing the word 'Boy' again and again was getting annoying.

He felt that the distance between the two of them was too far, maybe Ember understood that and changed her way of addressing him.

“I told you I would.”

Nux nodded.

“Were you that confident in your strength, or am I just too weak for you?”

Ember questioned.

“...”

Nux didn't know how to answer this question.

However, Ember wasn't done yet.

“And why are you stronger than a normal Expert Stage Cultivator? How were you, an Expert Stage Cultivator, were able to push away me, a King Stage Cultivator?”

This is just not possible.

Even having an affinity with all 4 elements doesn't explain this.

Just ho-"

"Don't bother."

Suddenly, Ember heard a voice and a frown appeared on her face.

This voice...

She then turned around and there, she saw Thyra leaning on a tree with a casual look on her face.

Seeing that she has gained her attention, Thyra continued,

"Don't use normal standards to judge him, he is different."

"W-Why are you here?"

Ember questioned with a flustered look on her face.

Seeing that look, Thyra smiled inwardly.

'Heh, I can finally get back to you, 'General' Ember.'

"Why would I not be here? How can I miss the scene where after which another woman would become my sister?"

Ember's face turned red.

"Y-You already knew about it?"

"Of course I did. You think my man would hide anything from me?"

Thyra smiled and then continued,

"Woman, the moment you tried to tease him, your fate was sealed."

“Tsk Tsk, why do you make it sound like I am a bad person.”

Suddenly, Nux snorted.

“You are a bad person, Nux.”

Thyra muttered.

“Why are you acting like you already knew that I would lose this match?”

Suddenly, Ember questioned.

“Huh? Isn’t that obvious? Because I did know about the results already, there is no way you can defeat Nux.”

Thyra answered as if it was the most obvious thing in the world.

“Wha-”

Eber wanted to question, however, Nux interrupted.

“Thyra, wear your mask, Ember, wear another Coat, this one is all torn up.”

While saying that, Nux wore his mask.

“Huh?”

Ember frowned, she then looked at Nux before her eyes fell on Thyra, she then realized that Thyra had already covered her face with a mask and was surprised.

She then copied Thyra and did as Nux said.

*Step* *Step* *Step*

Then, Ember, Thyra and Nux heard the sound of footsteps.

Someone was coming towards them.

Chapter 340

“General Ember!”

The soldier saluted.

“Why are you here? I told you not to follow me, right?”

Ember questioned with a frown on her face.

She knew that her soldiers won't dare to disobey her orders, not until something that they can't handle on their own happens.

The soldier reported and as soon as Ember heard that name, her face turned solemn.

“Finkelstein? Who is he?”

Nux questioned with a frown on his face.

Ember doesn't show this type of expression why often.

Nux was sure that something was wrong with this Finkelstein guy.

Ember turned towards Nux and answered,

“He is a troublesome man to deal with.”

“Huh? How can there be someone more troublesome than me?”

Nux's ego was hurt.

And hearing those words, Ember shook her head in helplessness. She look at Thyra for help, however, the woman was busy nodding her head, agreeing with Nux's statement.

‘Whatever, let’s just meet him.’

In the end, Ember just shook her head and gave up.

She then turned towards the soldier and ordered,

“Let’s go.”

“Yes, General.”

The four of them then left the plain fields and returned to the army camp, there, they saw a man wearing lavish clothes, standing in front of the 3 Deputy Generals of the Woods Dynasty’s army with an arrogant look on his face.

“Why is she not here yet? Does she not respect the Dynast of this Dynasty?”

The man questioned in anger.

“Don’t act like you are the Dynast of this Dynasty.”

Laurence, one of the Deputy Generals snorted.

“Deputy General Laurence, I may not be the Dynast of this Dynasty, however, I still hold the message from the Dynast, which means, that right now, I represent the Dynast himself.

And even if I am not representing him, you are not someone who can talk to me like that.

Know your place.”

Finkelstein narrowed his eyes as he glanced at Laurence.

“As expected of the Soldiers who work under that Ember, they are all rude and useless.”

Finkelstein snorted.

Laurence gritted his teeth.

He wanted to lash out and attack this man standing in front of him, however, he could not do it.

This man was a King Stage Cultivator, he was stronger than him and was comparable to the General.

Of course, Lawrence wasn't scared, however, if he was the one who attacked first, this bastard might use that as a reason to cause trouble for the General.

This was something Lawrence cannot accept.

Therefore, all he could do was grit his teeth and stay silent.

Seeing this, a big, wide smile appeared on Finkelstein's face and he continued,

“Heh, rude and useless, I guess I should add coward to that list as well.”

Lawrence clenched his fist in anger, and the other soldiers who surrounded them felt uncomfortable as well.

However, they didn't have to stay that way for long,

“Did you just call the soldiers serving the Army of the Woods Dynasty useless?”

Ember questioned with a curious look on her face.

Finkelstein turned towards Ember and scowled.

“ ... ”

However, he did not have any answers to her question.

And seeing that, Ember smiled,

“What happened? Why are you not answering my question? Did you perhaps say those words by mistake? Do you want to apologize for that?”

“The way a subordinate act reflects on how a leader deals with different situations.

If your subordinates are so easily cornered, it tells a lot about you as a leader.

The Soldiers of our army may not be useless, rude, or cowards, however, with you as their leader, they certainly look like one.”

Ember narrowed her eyes.

“I am just asking this for confirmation, but,

Did you just call me a coward?”

A ferocious Aura was released from Ember’s body.

The suffocating Aura affected everyone around the area and Finkelstein was no exception as well.

He took a step back and didn’t say anything.

“ ... ”

Seeing this scene, Nux, who was standing behind Ember chuckled,

“Heh, and he called our soldiers coward.”

“Pfft.”

Thyra didn’t even try to control herself and laughed out loud.

Seeing this, the rest of the soldiers smiled as well.

“And who are you?”

Not liking Nux's comment one bit, Finkelstein questioned as he narrowed his eyes in anger.

“Heeh? Why do I have to answer you?”

Nux questioned.

“Because I am someone who can Kill you with my eyes closed.”

Finkelstein answered arrogantly.

Hearing those words, Nux chuckled.

“Oh God, I am so very scared.”

Again, the soldiers started chuckling and this time, the Deputy Generals started sympathizing with Finkelstein. They were in the same position as him a few days ago after all.

Finkelstein already started hating this man in front of him.

“Aren't you a little too arrogant for someone who is just an Expert Stage Cultivator?”

“Hmm? At least I have the guts to fight against Cultivators who are in the same Cultivation Stage as me.”

Nux smiled and a vein popped up on Finkelstein's forehead.

In the end, he couldn't control himself anymore and a sword appeared in his hands,

“That's it. I gave you enough chances already.”

He roared in rage, however, just as he was about to dash towards Nux, a sword appeared in Ember's hand.

Seeing that, Finkelstein paused.

He might act all mighty and great, however, in his heart, he knew that he was no match for Ember even though they both are King Stage Cultivators.

He might be able to fight against her for a while, however, he knew that eventually, he would lose.

Not only that, but this was Ember's territory, he can't act recklessly here. Even if he does defeat her, there is no guarantee that others won't attack him.

Therefore, Finkelstein had to hold back.

Actually, in truth, he doesn't have to hold back at all.

He might not be able to defeat Ember through his strength, however,

That doesn't mean that he cannot use any other means.

He could always use some 'other means' after all.

Thinking about it, a small smile appeared on Finkelstein's face.

“Whatever, let's not talk about useless stuff anymore,

I am here for something much more important.”

Chapter 341

“Whatever, let’s not talk about useless stuff anymore,
I am here for something much more important.”

Seeing that smile on Finkelstein’s face, Nux narrowed his eyes in doubt.
For some reason, he did not like that smile at all.

And as if she was thinking the same thing, Ember’s expression wasn’t good either.

“What is it?”

She questioned.

“It is the response from the Dynast to your recent letter.”

Finkelstein muttered with a big smile on his face and then, the ring on his finger shined and an envelope that had Dynast’s insignia printed on it appeared in his hand.

Ember and the other soldiers present here bowed their heads and placed their right hands on their chests. Nux looked around with a frown, Thyra then looked at him and nodded.

The two of them then followed the other soldiers and bowed their heads as well.

With a solemn look on his face, Finkelstein looked at Ember and muttered,

“The topic of this letter is a little sensitive, order everyone else to leave.”

This time, Ember didn’t debate about this either, she had talked about the Emperor Stage Cultivator in her previous letter, the topic of this letter was indeed a bit too sensitive for everyone else to hear.

Therefore, she nodded her head and turned toward Lawrence.

Lawrence understood what she wanted and turned around.

“Everyone, I would be the one training you all today!

Show me your spirit!”

“YEAHHHH!!”

The soldiers roared together and then, everyone followed Lawrence.

Ember then looked at Nux and nodded.

Nux nodded back and then, he and Thyra turned around.

Ember then turned towards Finkelstein and muttered,

“Follow me.”

Finkelstein nodded.

‘I don’t like that smile on that man’s face.’

As they were leaving, Thyra muttered.

Nux nodded.

‘I don’t like that as well, don’t worry, I am not planning to leave just yet.’

Instantly, Thyra understood what Nux was going to do and nodded.

The two of them then ‘left’ the area and once Nux was far enough, he activated his [Conceal] and returned to Ember’s room.

There, he saw Finkelstein opening the letter, and then, he started reading it with a wide smile on his face.

” ‘To General Ember Windfall.

I have received your reports and I only have one comment on this matter,

If you can't lead the Army anymore, just say it directly, don't make up useless stories. The Emperor of the Solid Earth Kingdom making a move on his own? Do you think it is a joke? Can you be more absurd? Do you even know what you are talking about?

Do you think you are strong enough to survive if your opponent is the Emperor?

Who do you think you are?

And why would the Emperor move for someone as insignificant as you? Do you think he has that much time in his hands?

You fail to calculate the enemy's moves, your spies are unable to enter the Solid Earth Kingdom, you do not have any information in your hands and in this bad situation, all you are doing is coming up with absurd stories like that!?

Do you not want to be a General anymore?

If that is the case, you can come forward and say it right to my face, I have better options who can surely do a better job than you are doing.

Ember Windstar, keep this in your mind, this is your last warning, if you come up with something as absurd as this again, or if you fail to show me the results again, I will take away your position and will give it to someone who actually deserves it.

As for the help you asked for regarding this matter,

I believe I don't have to say anything anymore.

Ellinger Woods, The Dynast of the Woods Dynasty' ”

Finkelstein then rolled the letter respectfully and the letter disappeared from his hands.

Then, he looked at Ember, his solemn expression turned into a wide smile and he snorted.

“Tsk Tsk, to think you would come up with something so absurd. No wonder the Dynast is so angry. I knew you were not that good, however, I had no idea that you were that useless.

This is truly shocking.”

Hearing those words coming from his mouth, Ember, who was still a little doubtful was now sure.

Thinking that Finkelstein, a King Stage Cultivator, coming here on his own just to deliver this message was absurd, he must have another goal in his mind.

And now, the goal was revealed.

Him coming here while carrying this letter only meant one thing.

The Dynast was sending him to make a Statement.

The ‘replacement’ that the Dynast was talking about in this letter was this man right in front of her.

The Dynast and the Finkelstein, the two of them were in this together.

‘To think you would go this far.’

Ember thought inwardly, however, outwardly, she didn’t show any other expression.

Seeing this, Finkelstein pouted.

He wanted to see despair and hopelessness on this woman’s face.

“Heh, I hope you do a better job next time, General Ember, don’t trouble our Dynast with something so absurd and childish next time. You are a mature King Stage Cultivator, you should understand the weight of responsibility that is on your shoulders and consider everything before you make a move.”

He ‘guided’.

Of course, he wasn’t actually guiding, he just wanted to tease Ember.

Ember, however, didn’t care about it at all,

“Now that you have delivered your letter, I believe you should return, you are a busy man, after all, right?”

Finkelstein’s mouth twitched in frustration, however, in the end, he just nodded.

“I will take my leave then.”

‘Act all you want you bitch, I would like to see your expression once your position is taken away from you. Heh, then, you will show me the expression that I long to see on your face.’

An evil smile appeared on Finkelstein’s face as he left Ember’s room.

“Is the relationship between you are the Dynast of the Dynasty bad?”

Chapter 342

“Is the relationship between you and the Dynast of the Dynasty bad?”

Nux questioned with an extremely joyful look on his face.

Seeing that face, Ember frowned,

“Why do you look so happy after hearing that?”

“Oh... Ah, I mean,”

Nux’s face then turned solemn and he questioned.

“It seems that the relation between you and the Dynast is not very healthy, is that true?”

Ember’s face twitched when she noticed how quickly Nux’s expression changed, however, in the end, she just shook his head and answered,

“Yes, you are correct, the relationship between me and the Dynast isn’t good.”

“Why?” Nux questioned out of curiosity.

Ember then glanced at Nux for a while and then, she answered,

“It started 10 years ago when the previous Dynast of the Kingdom died of illness and his oldest son took over and became the new Dynast of the Dynasty.

The new Dynast was strong, thoughtful, and mature, however, he had one weakness, his extreme lust.

After I returned to the Capital to greet the new Dynast, I caught that man’s eye and he asked me to be his woman, I, of course, rejected that offer.

My condition was simple, defeat me and ask what you want from me.

However, since the Dynast is only an Expert Stage Cultivator, he wasn't strong enough to defeat me as you did, neither was he brave enough to challenge me, nor was he patient enough to wait and become stronger in order to defeat.

He chose the easiest way possible.

And that was to use his newly gained power and force me into marrying him.

However, I, who has been serving as a General of the Dynasty for so long had a considerable amount of influence as well.

The Dynast soon realized that his methods won't work on me and since then, he has been holding a grudge against me.

This is not the first time something like this has happened, he had tried to get his revenge on me before as well,

Sometimes, he would cut short our food supply, sometimes, he would ask us to do impossible missions with less manpower or something like that. His goal was simple, he wanted to take away my position as the General of the Dynasty and once my influence weakens, he would use that chance to force me into marrying him.

However, I did not give in, me and my soldiers still charged through and passed all his trials without giving him any chance to complain.

Things were going well but I never expected that the Dynast would take the involvement of the Emperor Stage Cultivator so lightly and use it to pressure me again.

This is simply ridiculous, he is not thinking about the lives of the Soldiers serving the Dynasty at all!"

Ember smashed the table in front of him in anger.

Nux, who heard everything frowned.

This story wasn't really surprising, a perverted ruler going after a beautiful woman, it was a pretty common story, heck, with how beautiful Ember is, he could completely relate with the Dynast. Of course, his steps were too extreme and he was a moron, but still, they both had the same initial thought,

Ember was beautiful and they both wanted her all for themselves.

He could understand what the Dynast was thinking, what he couldn't understand was what Ember was thinking.

“If the Dynast treated you so unfairly, then why did you not quit your position yourself?”

“Won't I just be giving him exactly what he wants if I do that?”

Ember questioned.

“Huh?”

Nux did not understand.

“There is a reason why the Dynast wants to take away my position so desperately.

That bastard is playing a long game, after my position is gone, a few years later, my achievements would be forgotten and the influence I hold will weaken.

Once my influence is not strong enough to protect me anymore, the Dynast would pressure me into marrying him and I won't be able to reject him.

So giving up on my position is just playing right into his hands.” Ember explained.

Hearing this, Nux's frown deepened,

“Is it worth going through so many troubles for?”

Why not just leave the Dynasty and settle somewhere else?”

“Settle somewhere else? Where?”

In any other Kingdom? Do you think any Kingdom would agree to let the General of the enemy nation live in their land?”

Ember questioned.

“Why not hide your identity?”

Nux questioned.

“Again, do you think, I, as a King Stage Cultivator can hide my identity so easily?”

“There are those wandering cultivators, right? The cultivators who live in seclusion, avoiding all the troublesome situations and only getting involved in something that actually interests them, can’t you live like that?”

Ember shook her head,

“If I was a Wandering Cultivator from the start, I would have been able to do that, however, I am the General of the Woods Dynasty, there are certain things that I know that a normal wandering cultivator shouldn’t know.

The Enemy nations would try their best to capture me and extract the information they want, and my own nation...

Well, since the Ruler of the nation wants me, there aren’t many places where I can hide and live freely.”

A long sigh then escaped Ember’s mouth and she continued,

“In the end, being the General of the Army, defending the Dynasty, and strengthening my influence is the only way for me to live safely and independently.”

“ ... ”

Nux turned silent and started thinking about everything more deeply.

Today, he finally realized how strong the Ruler of the Nation is.

Even though he is just an Expert Stage Cultivator, he has the power to trouble a strong King Stage Cultivator like Ember, and he is not even using his trump card yet.

‘Teacher Arvina... you asked me why I wanted to become the King, right?’

You asked me what my goal is, right?’

I think I finally found the answer to that answer.’

A strange shine lit up in Nux’s beautiful eyes, he then looked at Ember and questioned,

“Ember Windstar, do you trust me?”

Chapter 343

“Ember Windstar, do you trust me?”

“Huh?”

Hearing the sudden question, Ember frowned.

“C’mon, you belong to me now, Ember.

You trust me with all your heart, right?”

Ember’s face momentarily turned red before turning back to normal and she questioned,

“What are you planning?”

“Well, I’ll tell you after you answer my question.”

Nux smiled.

“You are annoying.”

Ember complained.

“So? Do you trust me?”

“It doesn’t matter if I trust you or not. I am yours now, you have the responsibility to take care of me. You can do whatever you like, I will follow you.”

Ember answered.

“Hmmm, I didn’t you were the shy type.”

Nux muttered.

Ember's face twitched and she retorted in anger.

“Are you going to tell me what you are thinking or not!?”

“Alright Alright, you don't have to be so aggressive, I will tell you.”

Nux chuckled and then, he revealed his plan,

“Let's run away.”

“Huh?” Ember frowned.

“...”

Nux, however, did not explain any further and continued to look at Ember with a smile on his face.

“Didn't I just tell you the problem? I can't run away, I don't have anywhere else to go.”

“You do not have to worry about that, I have a perfect place where you can live without any troubles at all.

You just have to agree and follow me.”

Nux replied.

“...”

Ember turned silent and started thinking.

“...what about my soldiers...?”

In the end, she voiced her worries.

“They will be going against an Army that is a lot stronger than them, if I am not here with them, many of them would lose their life.

I don't want that to happen.”

“Things would be worse if you stay here, Ember.

Currently, there is no way for you and your army to win, if the two nations clash, your defeat is inevitable. There are 7 King Stage Cultivators in the opponents camp and I am not even talking about the Emperor right now.

If your army wants to win this war, the only way is to seek the Dynast’s help. However, with your relationship with the Dynast, that man would never help you and your soldiers will be the ones to suffer because of this.

Right now, the only thing you can do is leave, this way, you will be safe and the Dynast would be forced to help the army since the newly appointed General would be his subordinate.”

“...”

Ember turned silent.

“So the real problem is me...?”

She questioned.

“No, the real problem is not you, Ember.

The real problem is the Dynast. However, since the Dynast holds the power, we can’t go against him right now.

We can only back down.”

Nux answered.

Ember nodded and then, she spoke,

“I understand, I will leave with you. However, we won’t be leaving today.”

This time, the determination in Ember’s eyes was unwavering.

She won’t back off, and Nux knew him.

However, he was curious.

“Why do you say that?”

“I will write a resignation letter to the Dynast and will only leave once the next General arrives. I absolutely won’t leave my soldiers leaderless, even for a single day.

I don’t know when those bastards will attack us again.”

Nux looked into Ember’s fiery red eyes and couldn’t help but smile,

“Alright, we will do as you say but the talk with the Deputy Generals, you would only tell them what I tell you, okay?”

“Deal.”

Ember nodded and then, she started writing the letter.

...

‘I need your help.’

‘Leave it on me.’

Thyra nodded and then, she walked towards the three Deputy Generals who were standing together discussing something with solemn looks on their faces.

“I did not like the expression on Finkelstein’s face when he left.”

Thyra spoke.

The three Deputy Generals looked at her and Lawrence nodded,

“I did not like that as well.”

Thyra continued.

“The General hasn’t come outside as well, I am worried.”

Lawrence looked towards Ember’s room and narrowed his eyes,

“Don’t worry, she will come out soon.”

“I know that.”

Thyra nodded and continued talking with the three Deputy Generals.

Time passed and soon, Ember walked out of her room with a solemn expression on her face.

Thyra and the Three Deputy Generals rushed toward her.

“General, what happened, what did the Dynast’s letter say?” Lawrence questioned.

Ember then looked at the 4 people in front of her and then, she answered,

“He refused to help us in any way possible.”

Lawrence frowned,

“Why do you have that expression on your face then? Hadn’t we already expected that?”

“There is something that you are not telling us, isn’t there?”

Thyra narrowed her eyes and questioned.

Lawrence and the other two Deputy Generals frowned as well.

Seeing that she couldn’t hide it anymore, Ember sighed,

“The Dynast has ordered me to give up on my position as the General of the Army and return.”

“WHAT!?”

The three Deputy Generals shouted in shock.

“Why would he do that!?”

“Is he out of his mind!?”

“Where else would he find a better General than you!?”

“Wait... is it that Finkelstein bastard?”

“NO! I would never serve that bastard as my leader!”

“I agree! I would rather die!”

The Deputy Generals showed their rejection, however, Lawrence...

He was oddly silent.

“General...”

“What is it?” Ember questioned as she turned towards Lawrence.

“...is it related to ‘that’ incident?”

“...yes.” Ember nodded and the three Deputy Generals turned silent.

“That bastard! He still wants to force you into marrying him!”

“This is unacceptable!”

“Yes! I don’t accept this! I would leave the army as well! I don’t want to serve this Dynasty anymore!”

“Yes! I will follow the General as well!”

“Indeed.”

“No, I won’t allow it.”

Ember, however, shook her head.

“Why?”

“Remember, your family is still living in the Dynasty. Don’t do something stupid, it might harm your family in the future.

I am different, my family has already abandoned me.”

“ ... ”

The Deputy Generals turned silent.

“...what would you do now?”

After a long silence, Lawrence questioned.

“I can’t return to the capital, you know what would happen if I do that,”
Ember answered.

“Then where are you planning to go?”

“She will be going with me.”

Chapter 344

“She will be going with me.”

Lawrence and the other two Deputy Generals frowned as their eyes fell on Nux who was walking towards them.

“Why would General Ember go with you?”

A Deputy General couldn't hold himself back and questioned out loud.

Hearing his question, Nux smiled, he then grabbed Ember's hand, crossed his fingers with hers, and smiled,

“Well, you don't have to know about it.”

Nux tried to shake it off, however, this little action of his left a huge impact on 3 Deputy Generals' minds.

Especially when they saw that General Ember wasn't resisting Nux's touch at all.

“Y-You... you two...”

Lawrence didn't know what to say.

Nux, however, understood what he wanted to ask and smiled,

“What you are thinking is current.

I and Ember are one now~”

And as if to prove what he said,

Nux moved his head and kissed Ember's cheeks right in front of them.

“!!!”

The Deputy Generals couldn't believe what they were seeing!

This man was bold enough to Kiss General Ember and the General just stood there without doing anything.

Her reaction to this entire situation was just the initial shock and a small blush on her face that disappeared as soon as it appeared. Other than that, General Ember did not react at all.

Her reaction proved it.

This man wearing black clothes and a mask on his face wasn't lying.

He actually managed to make The Fiery Killer his woman.

Not only that, but he was even flexing about it in front of everyone as he wants.

“You are just an Expert Stage Cultivator, how did you defeat the General?”

Ember Windstar is a very popular woman inside the Woods Dynasty and many men had tried to win her heart, therefore, her ‘condition’ of winning against her in order to win her heart was very popular and a lot of people knew about it.

It was the only reason why flocks of men trying to woo Ember didn't surround them every single day.

Hearing this question, the other 2 Deputy Generals got curious as well and looked at Nux with doubtful looks on their faces.

‘This guy defeated General Ember?’

‘Is he that strong? It doesn't look like this.’

‘Did he... cheat?’

‘That might be the case...’

The Deputy Generals then narrowed their eyes and looked at Nux suspiciously.

Nux, however, just chuckled and continued,

“Tsk Tsk, you guys wouldn’t understand, that ‘condition’ was just a farce arranged by Ember to keep the men she didn’t like away from her, it acted like a ‘reason’ that she could use in order to reject the men she didn’t like and,”

Nux then looked at Ember and smiled. He moved his hand from her hand and placed it around her waist, pulling her close to him,

“And wait for the man she actually likes.”

“Does that mean...”

“Yes, you are right, I did not defeat Ember, I just impressed her and managed to win her heart.”

Nux answered as he kissed Ember’s cheeks again.

The 3 Deputy Generals were shocked and at the same time, they were extremely jealous.

Just how...

Just how could someone else do what... what they were trying to do for so long...

This is not fair!

Also, why was the General acting so meekly!?

She hasn’t said a word from the moment Nux appeared!

She is just standing there, blushing like a teenage girl while trying to keep a straight face!

This!

This was so annoying and heartbreaking!

“Umm... aren't we going off-topic here?”

While everyone present here was lost in their thoughts, Thyra, who was extremely jealous of Ember right now spoke with a spiteful look on her face.

“Right, Thyra is correct. We don't have the time to discuss it right now.”

Ember, who thought of Thyra as the only light of escape in this darkness of embarrassment quickly jumped on this opportunity and changed the topic.

Knowing exactly what was going on inside Ember's and Thyra's minds, Nux just smiled, and then, he continued,

“So as I was saying, Ember would be leaving with me. According to the letter sent by the Dynast, the new General would come within a week.

We three would be staying in this Army Camp till the next General returns and once he is here, we will leave.”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

The three Deputy Generals turned silent.

Then, the Deputy General named Hasten turned towards Nux and warned,

“You better take good care of the General or don't expect to live an easy life. We three will come after you with everything we have if anything happened to her.”

“Heeh? Do you think that my Ember would need anyone’s protection? Believe me, the only reason I am taking her away with me is that I want to keep her all to myself, as for protecting her,

I don’t think there is anyone else who can do a better job in that than Ember herself.”

Nux smiled and hearing those words, Ember smiled as well.

“Where are you going to stay?”

Lawrence questioned.

Nux, however, shook his head,

“I think it would be better if you don’t know about it.”

Lawrence narrowed his eyes,

“Are you thinking that we would betray the General just because she is quit her position?”

“No, I trust Ember’s judgment,

She placed her trust in you, so I am sure you won’t betray her, however, I still think that the fewer people know about this, the better it will be. It is actually for your own good. I hope you understand.”

After thinking about it for a while, Lawrence nodded. He and the other two Deputy Generals stepped back.

Nux looked at the three Deputy Generals who had gloomy looks on their faces and smiled widely.

“Alright you guys, don’t be so down, your General would stay here for the next whole week, won’t you make this the most memorable week for her?”

The Deputy Generals’ eyes started shining brightly,

“Yes, this is it! Show your excitement, show your spirit!”

Nux clenched his fist as if he was trying to motivate the gloomy Deputy Generals in front of him, then, however, a playful smirk appeared on his face and he continued.

“However, try not to disturb us too much, you see, we two just found out about our love for each other and would like to explore it more deeply.

Make sure to not interrupt us while we spend lovey-dovey time with each other, okay?”

Nux smiled very politely and the three Deputy Generals who heard his words wanted nothing more than to kill this guy right here, right now.

Even Ember was shocked by how shameless Nux was.

However, she wouldn't deny it,

She was actually looking forward to those lovey-dovey times.

Thinking about it, Ember's pussy twitched a little and a small smile appeared on her face.

She really was looking forward to the blissful week that she is about to spend together with her 'man'.

'Fufufu~

This is going to be a long week indeed.'

‘Haah... finally...’

Nux thought inwardly as he looked at so many messages that had appeared in front of him. A small, satisfied smile appeared on his face.

He finally did it.

He had finally become a King Stage Cultivator.

Nux’s eyes then fell on Ember who was sleeping next to him with a small smile on her face.

Seeing her breasts that were touching each other while being sandwiched by her two arms while Ember slept soundly aroused him to no extent.

‘Ughhh... this figure... it is just too delicious...’

Nux groaned inwardly as he felt his dick twitching again.

He had just orgasmed around 5 to 6 times and was completely dried out, however, even after that, he still wanted to just grab this woman in front of her and devour her.

Ember was just that enticing.

With her long black red hair that contrasted well with her white skin, her calm expression while she is asleep that is completely opposite to the wild and dominant expression that she usually has on her face, those arousing abs on her waist, and that dangerously pretty face, no man would be able to resist himself in front of a beauty like this.

Especially when that man's jizz was leaking out of her cave like that.

Nux then moved closer to Ember and hugged her body.

Her soft breasts touched his hard chest, while his dick was surrounded by the warmth of her thighs,

He felt incredible.

'Ahh, this is amazing~'

Nux sighed contently.

"Mhfhmm..."

Ember, who was sleeping peacefully let out a strange voice as her hands moved towards Nux's back, she unknowingly pressed her breasts on Nux's chest and placed her head on his shoulders.

Nux's hand moved towards her perky butt and he started kneading them gently.

"Mhhmm~"

A soft moan leaked out of Ember's mouth and the smile on her face widened.

She was feeling good.

However, right now, she was too tired to wake up, she had orgasmed countless times after all.

Nux understood that as well, therefore, after hugging this beautiful woman in front of him and placing himself in a comfortable position, he finally looked back at the messages in front of him.

‘Regeneration...’

Nux focused on his newly gained ability and then, another screen appeared in front of him.

[Regeneration]

[Effects: Doubles the Regeneration of the Host.]

‘...’

Nux turned silent.

‘...that’s it?’

He questioned inwardly.

This was the vaguest ability description he has ever read.

‘Doubles the Regeneration? Regeneration of what? Why is that not mentioned here? Why in the hell just happened? Why is the description so vague?’

Nux couldn’t understand.

He had a few guesses in his mind about what the ability is actually about, however, if he was being honest.

He was a little disappointed.

No matter what this ability does, in the end, it is only a support ability, Nux actually wanted an ability that focused on attack power.

Something strong enough to hurt an Emperor.

Actually, Nux hoped that the ability he would get after becoming a King Stage Cultivator would be his key to dealing with the Emperor Stage Cultivators in the future.

However...

Things did not go as he planned.

Even after becoming a King Stage Cultivator, there was no major change in Nux's strength.

He has gotten stronger, yes, however, was he strong enough to fight against an Emperor?

Nux didn't know.

He has never seen an Emperor with his own eyes after all.

However, this time, he had a vague feeling that he wasn't.

Emperors are different.

Only an Emperor can fight an Emperor.

He has been hearing words like these countless times.

Even Ember, who is full of confidence and fighting intent admits that if she and an Emperor Stage Cultivator fights, the chance of her winning is absolute zero.

Mind you, she hasn't said the same words for Nux, she admits that Nux is stronger than her, however, she still thinks that she has a chance to defeat him, even if it's very low, that is just how strong and indomitable her will was for.

However, in front of an Emperor, even her strong and indomitable will was weak.

Against an Emperor, even Ember had to admit her defeat.

This was the reason why Nux was doubtful if he could defeat an Emperor or not and wanted to rely on the ability he would receive in the future.

However, today,

His hopes were crushed.

‘This will be complicated...’

Nux thought with a solemn look on his face.

‘They are here.’

While Nux was thinking about all this, he suddenly heard a voice.

He then narrowed his eyes and a frown appeared on his already solemn face,

Then, he gently moved his body away from Ember, wore his clothes, and disappeared.

...

Nux then appeared in an Area that was 30 km away from the Army Camp, he looked around, and soon, his eyes fell on Thyra who was pointing in a certain direction.

Nux moved his head towards the direction Thyra was pointing at and activated his [Sense].

He saw a Familiar face.

A face he wanted to squash on the ground when he first met him.

Finkelstein.

That annoying bastard was here.

However, this time,

He was here to replace Ember and become the General of the Woods Dynasty.

Nux wanted to kill this man right here right now, however, in the end, he controlled himself and calmed down.

Then, a small smile appeared on his face,

“Oh well,

It seems that we can finally return.”

He shouldn't be sad.

He would be meeting his women soon, he hasn't seen them for more than a week after all.

They must be angry.

Chapter 346

“Soldiers of the Woods Dynasty, gather here as soon as possible!”

Early in the morning, while most of the soldiers were busy with their own work, a loud sound was heard and it attracted everyone’s attention.

“This is an Order!”

The confused soldiers then moved quickly and soon, everyone gathered around 3 men who were looking at everything with wide smiles on their faces.

Seeing that everyone has gathered, one of the three men stepped forward and the coat he was wearing fluttered due to the wind.

Many soldiers frowned when they saw the coat that the man was wearing, however, every single one of them knew who this man was, therefore, they didn’t dare to say anything out loud and continued to observe.

“I am sure many of you have countless questions in your mind.

What is Lord Finkelstein doing here?

Why is Lord Finkelstein wearing this coat that only the General is allowed to wear?

Why has Lord Finkelstein ordered us to gather here?

Don’t worry, I will answer all your questions right now.

Now before I start, let me make a few things clear,

From now on, you are not going to address me as ‘Lord Finkelstein’, from now on, you all would address me as General Finkelstein!”

Finkelstein announced loudly and soon, the soldiers frowned.

“What? General Finkelstein? Why would he call him that?”

“Also, why is he wearing that coat?”

“Is he going to become the General as well?”

“Huh? How is that possible? How can there be 2 Generals in the Army?”

“Indeed, there must be something else.”

“Is it one of General Finkelstein’s games?”

“Hmm, that might be the case.”

The soldiers started chatting with each other and,

“Silence!”

A loud roar was heard.

“...”

Silence fell over the area.

Finkelstein then looked at the soldiers in front of him and continued,

“You lot are not allowed to speak until I am done with my part, is that clear?”

“...”

No one answered.

“IS THAT CLEAR!?”

Finkelstein shouted and at the same time, he released his suppressing aura. His technique worked and the soldiers’ bodies moved instinctively.

“Yes Sir!”

“Good.”

Finkelstein praised.

No matter how one looked at this scene, although he did use a little force to do it, Finkelstein proved that he indeed had leadership capabilities.

“Due to some unforeseen events, General Ember Windstar will be retiring early and will no longer serve as the General of our Dynasty.”

The soldiers’ eyes widened in surprise.

However, before they could react, Finkelstein continued.

“General Ember has served the Army for 60 long years and has achieved countless things in this time. She is without a doubt one of the strongest and most successful Generals that has ever served our Dynasty,

However, now that she is leaving, the Dynast has given me this difficult task to fill the void she has left and become the next General of the Army.

Now, I call General Ember Windstar who would like to give her final goodbyes to her dear soldiers.”

Finkelstein then turned in a certain direction and soon, a woman walked forward and stepped inside the encirclement.

“General Ember.”

Seeing Ember standing right in front of her, Ember raised her eyebrows in surprise, however, soon, her surprise disappeared and she turned toward the Soldiers.

“Soldiers of the Woods Dynasty...”

Then, another speech followed.

Nux, who was observing everything from afar was surprised.

This Finkelstein, that man was smarter than he thought.

Unlike how he predicted that Finkelstein would act arrogantly and try to insult Ember, Finkelstein did the opposite and has been showing his 'respect' for Ember from the moment he arrived here.

That was a mature move on his part.

Nux, Thyra, and Ember were impressed.

“With this, I will be taking my leave,

However, I will leave my one last order here,

Do not die a wasteful death.

Is that clear?”

“YEAAAHHHH!!”

A roar countless times louder than before was heard.

Nux noticed a small twitch on Finkelstein's face, however, he quickly turned that into a smile and turned towards Ember.

“General Ember, Dynast has prepared these 2 escorts for you, they will take you to the Capital city safely, I have also prepared the carriage for you and have ensured that you will have a comfortable journey.”

Finkelstein bowed as he pointed at the two men who were standing behind him.

Nux and Ember's expressions turned solemn when they saw the two Expert Stage Cultivators.

‘Heh, Escorts my ass. Aren’t they here just to keep an eye on me and ensure that I reach the Capital without any hitches?’

Ember thought inwardly and chuckled.

‘Well, it’s not like two Expert Stage Cultivators are going to make any difference.’

Ember’s eyes then turned cold,

‘The Dynast is just wasting 2 precious lives by sending them here.’

“That is very thoughtful of you, General Finkelstein.”

Ember smiled.

Finkelstein smiled back and then he bowed his head,

“I hope you have a safe journey, General Ember.”

‘Just leave already, isn’t that what those words actually mean?’

Ember chuckled.

‘Don’t worry, I’ll don’t plan on stalling for more as well.’

“Alright, I will be taking my leave then.”

Ember smiled and then, she turned around.

Finklestein then looked at the two men he brought with him and nodded. The two men nodded back and then started following Ember from behind.

Finkelstein, the 3 Deputy Generals, and the soldiers did the same.

Yes, every single one of the soldiers wanted to escort Ember to the carriage, the situation would have become a big mess if the Deputy Generals hadn’t made their moves and settled the soldiers.

“Have a great life ahead, General Ember. I hope your life as Dynast’s concubine is fun.”

Seeing that no one was around, Finkelstein looked at Ember with a big smirk on his face.

Ember just looked at Finkelstein and smiled,

“Be careful out there.”

“Huh?”

Finkelstein frowned in confusion, however, Ember already entered the carriage and only spoke one thing,

“You know me, I wouldn’t have given up if I wasn’t in a hopeless situation. I just hope you can deal with what I, Ember Windstar, see as hopeless.

I wish you luck, New General.”

Under the confused and doubtful expression on Finkelsten’s face, the carriage started moving.

Chapter 347

“Hmm? Why did you stop the carriage?”

Ember questioned with a frown on her face.

The Escort named Jack, who was sitting with Ember inside the Carriage frowned and knocked on the carriage walls,

“Jerry, why did you stop the carriage?”

“There is a man standing in front of the carriage.” The other escort named Jerry, who was driving the carriage answered.

And as if confirming those words,

“Whatever you are carrying is mine! Return what belongs to me back to me!”

Hearing those words, Jerry frowned and looked at the ‘Bandit’ with a deadpan look on his face,

“You Idiot, at least look at the Cultivation Stage of the man you are trying to rob before making a move...”

Jerry was pretty sure that the bandit would soon panic when he noticed how strong he is and would stop bothering him. He was too bored, however, since he wanted to leave a good impression on Ember, he didn’t kill this man right now.

However, contrary to his expression, rather than fear, the Bandit only looked at him as if he was looking at an Idiot and,

“You Idiot, at least look at the Cultivation Stage of the man you are trying to talk big to.”

Jerry blinked a few times, then, he narrowed his eyes to check the Bandit's Cultivation and,

“!!!”

Jerry panicked.

He quickly moved from the driving seat and rushed towards Ember.

“General Ember! You have to help us!”

“Huh? You can't even handle a mere Bandit now?”

Ember questioned in a disinterested tone.

Even Jack had a frown on his face, he couldn't understand why Jerry would ask General Ember's help for something so trivial like this, however, Jerry's next words shocked him to his core.

“He is a King Stage Cultivator!”

“WHAT!?”

Jack exclaimed in shock.

“Yes! I am not lying!”

Jack quickly rushed out of his carriage and glanced at the bandit who was looking at them in patience.

“!!!”

Jack's eyes widened in surprise and he quickly turned toward Ember and asked for her help.

“General! You have to help us! He is not an opponent we can defeat ourselves.”

“Huh? Aren’t you the escorts sent here to protect me and ensure my comfort during my travel? Why should I do your work?”

Ember questioned and the two Escorts were speechless.

“General! This is not the time to pla-”

Jack wanted to complain, however, soon, someone tapped on his shoulders and,

“Excuse me, I think I have been very patient for a while now, can you return what you guys took from me, I am in a bit of a hurry.”

The bandit seemed like a gentleman.

“W-We do have anything inside the carriage except for a human. However, if you want money, then you ca-”

Jerry turned around and tried to talk to the bandit, however,

“Huh? Why would I want money? Do you think I lack money? I am not trying to rob you guys, I only want what is already mine.

Now do it while I am asking it politely, or you won’t like where this will lead to.”

The Bandit threatened.

“B-But w-we don’t have anything that belongs to y-you...” Jack stuttered.

The bandit then shook his head and sighed,

“I guess you want to take the hard way.”

Saying that, the bandit raised his hands, the escorts tried to defend themselves, however, the Bandit was too fast, his hands appeared on their faces and he pushed them to the side, throwing them to the ground like they are stone statues.

“No! Don’t go inside!” Jerry shouted.

However, Jack stopped him and shook his head.

‘Let him do what he wants, once the General gets annoyed, she would deal with him herself.’

That was his plan.

There weren’t many people who could defeat General Ember in a battle after all.

And as if he had the same thought in his mind, Jerry turned silent and just looked at the scene in front of him with a sly smile on his face.

However, what the two of them saw after that caused their jaws to drop on the ground.

The Bandit, whose half of the body was inside the Carraige moved out with General Ember in his arms, the man then turned towards them and snorted,

“Hmph! You dare lie to me when you were hiding what belongs to me inside this carriage of yours!?”

Do you have a Deathwish?”

“ ... ”

The Escorts, however, didn’t listen to whatever the bandit said since they were too busy looking at General Ember who was hugging the Bandit like a Koala.

‘This... this the Fiery Killer...?’

They wondered in their heads.

The two of them were so shocked that they didn’t even notice their impending deaths.

Soon, a Sword appeared in Nux's hand,

Seeing the sword, the two escorts finally came out of their reverie, however, it was already too late.

*Whoosh*

*Thud* *Thud*

A sword slashed and two heads flew into the air.

Before they could even understand what happened, the two escorts were beheaded.

“Tsk Tsk, to think you will kill these two escorts so mercilessly, are you sure that you are just an 18-year-old boy and not a merciless killer?”

Ember questioned with a small smile on her face.

“Trust me, I am only an 18-year-old boy.

A boy who managed to defeat the Fiery Killer and made her his woman.”

“Heh,” Ember just smiled.

“So... how long are you planning to stay there?”

Thyra, who walked towards the two of them questioned with an extremely jealous face.

Ember looked at Thyra for a while and then,

“Heh.”

With a small chuckle, she turned her face away.

Thyra's face twitched in annoyance.

Nux enjoyed their attraction and at the same time, he attacked the carriage with a [Earth Spike] Spell, then burned the ground with Fire spells and started using all the elements around the Area.

Once he was done, he turned towards Thyra and smiled,

Thyra, who was glaring at Ember, smiled lovingly and nodded.

Chapter 348

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

In the middle of the night, someone aggressively knocked on Arvina's room.

“Who is this!?”

Arvina questioned in an annoyed tone as she sat up.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Since the knocking on the door still continued, Arvina stood up from her bed and walked towards the door with an angry expression on her face.

‘Is this isn't something very important, whoever it is, he or she will pay dearly for ruining my sleep’

Arvina swore inwardly and aggressively opened the door.

“You better have a good reason-”

However, before she could even complete her sentence, she paused.

“Nux?”

She questioned with a frown.

Yes, the man who was knocking on her doors for so long was none other than her student.

A student who...

“Shouldn't you be in the Woods Dynasty right now?”

Arvina questioned with a confused look on her face.

“Teacher Arvina, we need your help.”

However, unlike his usual playful smile on his face, Arvina noticed that Nux was looking at her with a nervous and somewhat desperate look on his face.

Arvina was even more confused now.

She has never seen this expression on Nux’s face.

“What happened?”

Arvina questioned.

However, instead of answering, Nux just turned his head and looked in another direction, Arvina frowned, however, before she could ask, another woman walked out and appeared in front of her.

A woman she knew very well.

“Ember...?”

Arvina narrowed her eyes.

“It has been a while, Arv.”

Ember smiled lightly.

“What are you doing here?”

Arvina questioned in confusion.

“Teacher, we need your help, Ember left the Woods Dynasty and now is looking for a place to hide. No other place came into my mind and I brought her help.

Please hide Ember in your mansion, Teacher Arvina. I beg you.”

However, those words did not lessen Arvina's confusion at all, rather, they only increased the number of questions in her head.

“Left the Woods Dynasty? Why? Aren't you a General of the Woods Dynasty's army? Why do you want to hide here? Who are you hiding from? What happened?”

“Things are bad...”

Ember muttered and this time, a solemn look appeared on Arvina's face.

She looked at Nux and questioned in a tone that demanded answers.

“What happened in the Woods Army Camp? Why are you here so suddenly? Why is the General of the Woods Dynasty here with you? And who are you running away from?”

I need answers to all these questions, and do it as clearly as you can.”

Nux then looked at Arvina and with a serious look on his face,

He answered,

“An Emperor is making a move.”

Arvina's eyes widened.

“What?”

“Yes, so what happened was...”

Nux then started recounting whatever happened until now in detail and an hour later, Arvina, who, right now was sitting inside her room, on a chair, with her hands on her chin and an extremely serious look on her face, summarized.

“So you are saying that Lord Herms is making his moves and has taken control over the Solid Earth Kingdom. The Kingdom is now completely changed, with close to no criminals roaming around. Not only that, but the Kingdom has also started recruiting strong Sect Members, Wandering Cultivators, and Adventurers into its ranks and now have 7 King Stage Generals in their army?”

“Yes, that is correct.”

“You have reported all of this to your Dynast, however, that man is still stuck in his past and wants to use this opportunity to weaken your influence and then pressure you into marrying him?”

“Indeed, he thinks that since I am making all of this up and nothing I reported to him was true. He told me to deal with all this on my own and is not willing to help me at all.”

Hearing those words, Arvina frowned,

“How does that make sense? With your past achievements as a General, it is clear that you are not someone who would make this up.”

“He is nothing but a fool. He is not thinking things through at all, with him as the leader, the Woods Dynasty will face heavy losses, however, the problem is that the one suffering from this would be Ember.

If she stays there and fights, she would lose her influence when the War ends and she loses, if she quits and refuses to lead the Army, she would be called a coward and would be blamed by others as someone who fled in front of difficulties, this would affect her influence as well.

No matter what step she takes, things wouldn't end in her favor at all.

Therefore, I told her to leave that messy situation and brought her here.”

Nux answered and then, he continued,

“And now, I want your help and request you to hide her here. No matter how dumb that Dynast is, won't dare to search inside the Strongest Kingdom in this world, especially not inside the Academy that is the heart of that Kingdom.”

Arvina looked at Nux and a small smile appeared on her face,

“Nux, you look a little mature now.”

“Hmm?”

Nux frowned.

He matured?

When?

Why didn't he notice anything?

“Well, I don't know how to say this, but I definitely feel that you changed a little, don't worry, we will analyze this together.

As for your request, I accept it.

General Ember helped and guided you, as your teacher, it is my duty to help her when she needs it.”

A big smile appeared on Nux's face.

“Teacher Arvina, you are the best!

I love you!”

Arvina just chuckled and shook her head.

Ember, however, looked at this situation with an amused smile on her face, and soon, she nodded her head.

Suddenly, Nux stood up from his chair and looked at the two women in front of him with a smile on his face.

“Well, this is good, now that General Ember is living here, you two old friends can catch up to each other.

As for me,

Well, I have to meet, so I would be taking my leave now.

You two have a good night ahead.”

Saying that, Nux turned around.

However, just as he was about to leave, Arvina noticed his cultivation.

“!!!”

Chapter 349

Just as Nux was about to leave, Arvina noticed his Cultivation and her eyes widened in surprise.

“King Stage!!”

She wanted to talk to him about this, however, when she came out of her shock, Nux had already left her room.

“Nux wait!”

Arvina didn't give up, she stood up and dashed outside her room, however, when she looked around the corridor outside her room, Nux was nowhere to be found.

It was as if he disappeared into thin air.

Arvina frowned.

“Don't bother, Arv.

There are people he wants to meet, he was getting impatient so he must have ran with all his might and you already know, if a King Stage Cultivator gives his all, you won't be able to catch him no matter what.”

Arvina looked at Ember and seeing the calm look on her face, she shook her head.

“You do not understand, that boy is just 18 years old, he was a Grand Master Stage Cultivator when I met him and it was just a few months ago.

That boy became a King Stage Cultivator from a Grand Master Stage Cultivator in just a matter of a few months!

Isn't that ridiculous!?”

“Well, he is Nux. He was a monster from the start.”

Ember shrugged with a nonchalant look on her face.

Seeing that reaction, Arvina frowned.

She wanted to retort to her words however, now that she thinks about it...

Isn't that the perfect reason and the best explanation there is?

How did he become a King Stage Cultivator so quickly?

Well, because he was Nux.

He has done so many impossible things before, why not just add another one to that list?

When Arvina thought about it that way, she wasn't as shocked as before.

She has to admit, this was indeed a good way to think things when it was related to Nux.

However, Arvina didn't like the fact that the one who came up with this theory was not her but Ember.

Why...

Just why did this woman come up with a Theory to deal with her student?

Shouldn't she be the one who should come up with something like this?

The more she thought about it, the more Arvina frowned.

She then walked towards Ember and sat down next to her.

“You understand him well, huh...”

“Well, I have been observing him for more than a month now.”

Ember smiled.

Arvina frowned inwardly,

‘I have been doing the same, you know?’

However, she didn’t say that out loud and nodded her head,

“Hm hm, that sounds reasonable but still... aren’t you acting a little too nonchalant right now?”

He is an 18-year-old King Stage Cultivator, after all, you have to be a little shocked, right?”

“It’s not like I am not shocked, I just got numb.”

“What do you mean?”

“That boy has done a lot of things in these past few days he has been with me.

It won’t be wrong to say that this boy has practically saved me and my entire army many times.

He has achieved feats that most of the soldiers who have countless years of experience haven’t.”

Hearing those words, a proud smile appeared on Arvina’s face.

“Heh, as I expected.”

Although she didn’t say it out loud, the words ‘He is my students’ were written on her face, in capital letters.

It couldn’t be any more obvious.

Ember, of course, understood what she wanted to say as well, she wanted to smile with her as well, however, before that, she wanted to confirm something else.

“Arvina, I have a few questions that I want you to answer,

Would you mind doing that?”

Suddenly, the frown on Arvina’s face disappeared.

The two of them are meeting each other after years and they are not as close to each other as they were before, however, this didn’t mean that they have completely forgotten about each other.

Arvina knew what the look on Ember’s face meant right now.

She was dead serious right now.

“Ask.”

Arvina nodded her head.

Ember then placed her hands on the table and moved her upper body close to Arvina, then, her red eyes shined brightly as they scanned Arvina’s facial expressions as if trying to see if she would lie or not.

“What is your plan? Just what are you thinking right now?”

She questioned.

“Huh? Plans? What plans?”

Arvina frowned.

“I am talking about Nux, why are you helping him? You know how monstrously talented he is, correct?”

With his talent, sooner or later, he and the Skyfall Kingdom would become enemies.

What will you do if that happens?

Who will you side with that day?”

Ember questioned.

“Huh? What kind of question is that? Isn’t it obvious? I would side with my student of course.”

Arvina answered without even thinking about it, Ember, however, wasn’t done yet.

“So you are going to betray the Kingdom you have lived your life in?”

“No, I am not ‘betraying’ the Kingdom, I am just betraying the Skyfall Family.

I feel that whatever happens after this would be better for the Kingdom, it just won’t be ‘Skyfall’ anymore.”

Arvina answered with the same resolution as before.

“You are close to the Emperor Stage Cultivator of your Kingdom correct? I heard that she has been protecting you and that she is the reason why that perverted King of yours hasn’t touched you, right?

Are you going to betray the woman who has been protecting you for so many years for a student who you have just met a few months ago?”

Ember tilted her head as she probed.

“...”

This time, Arvina didn’t answer as quickly as before.

This time, she hesitated, and after hesitating for a while, she nodded,

“T-The situation where Nux and Teacher Astaria face each other won’t happen.”

Ember narrowed her eyes.

“You didn’t answer my question.”

“That is my answer to your question.”

Arvina shot back.

“Alright, let me create a hypothetical situation for you.

Let’s say your Teacher and Nux do fight each other,

What would you then?

Who would you side with?

Nux, your student,

Or your teacher?”

Chapter 350

“Let’s say your Teacher and Nux do fight each other, What would you then?

Who would you side with?

Nux, your student, or your teacher?”

Ember narrowed her eyes and questioned.

Hearing those words, Arvina turned silent and started thinking.

Her Teacher who supported her throughout her life, or her student? Who would she choose?

It was a big question, she needed time to think about it.

However, even after thinking for a good 5 minutes, Arvina was unable to come up with an answer.

“So you haven’t decided that, have you?”

Ember questioned.

Hearing those words, Arvina snapped,

“This question is wrong to begin with.”

Ember frowned, however, Arvina didn’t care about that and continued,

“A hypothetical situation means nothing.

What you are saying doesn’t make any sense.

As I said before, I will make sure that my Teacher and Nux don’t face each other. I have talked about this with Nux and I am sure he would respect my words and my plans.

Talking about something that won't happen is useless.”

Arvina snorted.

Ember, however, didn't seem satisfied by that answer.

Well, she can't be blamed either.

Unlike Arvina, she knew how Nux's ability works.

If they follow Arvina's plans, Nux would never become an Emperor Stage Cultivator and would always be stuck in King Stage.

To break through the King Stage, Nux would need Arvina's Teacher's help. Therefore, he can't wait and lay low until she dies.

The two of them have to meet each other.

And once they meet, they would most probably be enemies.

That was the reason why Ember was trying to prepare Arvina for this situation.

“It is a hypo-”

However, before she could even complete her words, Arvina questioned.

“Why do you care?”

“Huh?”

Ember frowned at the sudden question.

“You were too aggressive with your previous questions for someone who only knew Nux for like, a month.

In the end, he is just a boy sent by me to your army camp so that he can gain a little experienced, why are you so involved with him?

It is not like you cannot run away from the Woods Dynasty on your own, it might be more complicated than just directly getting Nux's help, but I still believe that if a King Stage Cultivator like you wants to, you can easily hide from the world.

Isn't Nux just a more convenient way out for you?"

"No, Nux is not just a more convenient way out for me, our relationship is a lot deeper than you think."

Ember's reply was instantaneous. From her tone, it was clear that she did not like Arvina's words one bit.

Arvina, however, did not back down.

"Oh? What is your relationship with him then?"

What would you do if Nux ends up fighting an Emperor Stage Cultivator, would you run away, or would you fight together with him?"

"I will fight together with him of course, I would use my life to protect him if the situation asks for it.

Remember, Arvina, I was the General of the Army before coming here, I am not scared of losing my life."

Arvina was taken aback by those words.

She never expected Ember to say such words and with such convictions at that...

It was a bit overwhelming if she was to be honest.

"J-Just what is your relationship with Nux for you to say those words without any hesitation?"

Arvina questioned.

She didn't know if even she could say those words with such determination.

Suddenly, a small smile appeared on Ember's face as she revealed.

"We are lovers."

"HUH!?"

Arvina's eyes widened in surprise.

"You heard it, we two are lovers now."

Ember repeated.

"HOW!?"

Arvina still believed that Ember was lying to her, however, seeing that Ember wasn't saying anything else after that, Arvina realized that she wasn't fooling around...

Ember was actually serious.

"W-What about that challenge of yours? About the man defeating you before winning your heart?"

Arvina questioned.

"Didn't you see his cultivation just now?"

Ember questioned back.

"I did, he was a King Stage..."

Arvina realized.

"He... he defeated you?"

A wry smile appeared on Ember's face.

"Although it is a bit embarrassing for me to lose against someone so younger than me, in the end, I just accepted the reality and my loss"

Then, a beautiful smile appeared on Ember's face as she continued,
I got the love of my life in exchange, after all."

"..."

Arvina turned silent.

She couldn't believe that the woman blushing and smiling in front of her was that fierce General who has killed thousands of people with her sword.

'J-Just how did he do that?'

She wondered in surprise.

With the help of her newly gained insight, Arvina wasn't shocked by the fact that Nux is now strong enough to defeat Ember, one of the strongest King Stage CULtviator in this world, however, that smile on Ember's face...

It is not something that a woman who got into a relationship with a man by a bet or a challenge would show.

That was the smile on a Woman in love.

She has seen this smile on countless women's faces, however, never in her wildest dreams did she think that she would see this smile on Ember's face.

This was...

This was simply amazing...

Arvina was surprised and overwhelmed, however, at the same time, she was a little annoyed,

'Why is that boy going around charming countless women like it is some sort of competition?'

Half of the girls in the Academy dream about him, even a few married female teachers have their eyes on him, but as if that was not enough, this boy just went to an Army camp and brought back the General of that Army with him as his woman!?

Just how ridiculous is that!?

Arvina was out of words, her eyes then fell on Ember, who seemed to be lost in her own fantasy and couldn't believe her eyes.

'What is with that silly smile on your face? You are doing this on purpose, aren't you?'

Arvina questioned inwardly, however, seeing that there was no change in Ember's expression, she couldn't help but shake her head and curse in her head.

'Nux, you little bastard...'

"A-A-Aaanchii!"

On the other side, Nux, who was about to meet Amaya sneezed, and then, he frowned,

'Huh? Just who is thinking about me?'

He wondered inwardly.

Soon, a playful smile appeared on his face as he nodded to himself,

'I bet she is a woman.

Kukuku~'

Chapter 351

“It feels good...”

Amaya muttered in a soft voice as she tightened her grip on the Nux’s hand she was holding.

A smile appeared on Nux’s face as he strengthened his grip as well.

“Indeed, it feels good to walk around like this.”

Nux nodded as he looked around with a curious look on his face.

“That Royal Garden is a good place to spend your time with your loved ones.”

Nux stated and Amaya couldn’t agree more.

Yes, right now, the two of them were roaming around in the Royal Garden inside the Royal Palace, right in front of the Guards!

Of course, the guards couldn’t see them, but that is beside the point.

The two of them were using [Conceal].

Why go through that much trouble? Why not stay in Amaya’s room and spend time there?

Well, that was an option, however, Nux knew that Amaya has been trapped inside that room for a very long time now, especially with her ‘curse’ where she can’t move her body and could only lay down and stare at the ceiling of her room,

Therefore, he decided to change things a little and with that smile he was seeing on Amaya’s face right now, he would say it was a perfect decision.

“Ugghh... I am tired now...”

Suddenly, Amaya muttered.

“Huh?”

Nux frowned, however, soon, he understood what she meant and couldn't help but shake his head.

Then, he walked in front of Amaya and crouched, Amaya smiled and quickly jumped on his back, Nux then stood up and carried the woman on his back.

“Hehe~”

Amaya chuckled.

“Is this comfortable enough for you, princess?”

Nux questioned ‘respectfully’.

“Yes, now move forward,

March!”

Amaya pointed in a certain direction and the Nux started walking.

Of course, he didn't do this service for free.

Since Amaya was taking advantage of him, it was only natural for him to do the same thing after all.

Nux's hands moved from her hands and he grabbed her thighs, then, his hands moved inside the gown she was wearing, touching her smooth skin, they then moved higher and higher, and soon, Nux's hands were very close to Amaya's forbidden region.

As if satisfied by where he has reached, Nux's hands stopped moving and started caressing Amaya's inner thighs.

Amaya, of course, didn't have any problems with that at all, she just continued to look around and observe the beautiful flowers, the leaves that moved due to the wind, the well-trimmed grass, the stars in the sky, and at the same time, enjoy Nux's touch.

This small little walk was a memorable experience for her.

...

Time passed by and since the time limit of [Conceal] was about to end, Nux and Amaya decided to return.

A solemn look then appeared on Amaya's face as she started,

"We need to make our move, and we have to do it as soon as possible."

"Hmm?" Nux tilted his head.

"With the Emperor Stage Cultivator of the Woods Dynasty coming into the picture, everything has become a lot more complicated than before.

Not only that, but I have noticed that the Kingdom of Skadi is making some strange moves as well, I tried to get some information out, however, all my information network was blocked. I do not know if it is related to the Emperor Stage Cultivator of the Skadi Kingdom or not, however, I do believe that something is happening.

A Storm is brewing, Nux.

A storm that we have no information about."

Amaya declared and Nux's face turned serious.

"Do you think the Emperors making their moves is related to us?"

It was a dumb question,

If the strongest beings living in this world are moving, of course, it is going to affect every being living in this world, Nux knew that as well.

However, he still wanted to confirm a few things.

“Well, there aren’t any direct relations yet. However, with the goal that we have in our mind, it is certain that we are going to clash with them in the future.

Actually, what I am talking about isn’t actually related to the Emperors, they will be a big problem today, however, currently, we have an even bigger problem to deal with.

And that is, Allura.”

Nux’s nodded in agreement.

“She is indeed in some trouble right now...”

“She has become an Expert Stage Cultivator from a Master Stage Cultivator in just a few months, she has practically skipped the whole Grand Master Stage.

This has attracted many eyes on her, even the King was interested in her. They have placed many spies around her to see if she is hiding anything and things have become a little complicated.

I am different, I can just blame it on my ‘curse’ and get away with it, however, Allura can’t do that.

Things might seem calm right now, however, with you becoming a King Stage Cultivator now, it is only a matter of time before she becomes a King Stage CULTviator as well.

And once that happens, I am sure she would be surrounded by the King and his men.”

Nux’s face turned solemn as well, actually, once Allura’s Cultivation was revealed, he wanted to return, however, Allura ensured him that she would deal with it and convinced him to focus on their mission.

Of course, she did what she said she was going to do splendidly and got more time, however, Nux still didn't like the fact that there were countless eyes keeping tabs on his woman's actions.

“Do you have a plan?”

Nux questioned.

“We have to Kill Allura.

Just like we killed Edda.”

Nux frowned.

“But the King...”

“Yes, with his nature, he would go berserk and would use everything he has to find the murderer, however, I have a plan to deal with this situation. A plan that would keep him busy and would stop him from poking his nose in our business. Not only that, but if things go well, we might even get the chance to kill him.

I also plan to bring out the Emperor who is still inside seclusion. This way, you would be able to see the Emperor in action and this would allow you to judge if you can defeat her or not.”

Hearing her words, a small smile couldn't help but appear on Nux's face.

‘As expected of my Amaya, she is indeed a Genius.’

“What is your plan?”

He questioned and then,

“So what I plan to do is...”

A long conversation continued.

Chapter 352

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Someone knocked on Evane's door, Evane, who was busy with her painting, frowned, she then stood up and opened the door.

“Who is i- hmm?”

“Princess Evane, I am back.”

Nux, who was wearing Armour while carrying a helmet in his hand spoke with a smile on his face.

“N-Nux?”

Evane blinked a few times.

“Hmm? Why that expression? You did not forget about me, did you?”

Nux questioned with a playful smile on his face.

“Of course not.”

Evane's answer was instantaneous.

Hearing those words, Nux nodded to himself as well,

“Indeed indeed, there is no way your mind would forget about me, right, Princess Evane?”

Nux's smile widened.

Evane snorted and nodded to herself.

“Well, you are Nux alright.”

Nux had that unique way of talking, a little arrogant, a little playful, it wasn't disrespectful in any way, rather, it had its own unique charm and was like his identity. Evane, who was missing this for a while now smiled inwardly.

“It is good that you recognized me.”

Nux nodded and then, he extended his hands towards Evane,

“So? Where is my Welcome Back hug?”

“H-Huh?”

Evane frowned at the sudden request.

“Well, I returned after fighting a long, tiresome, and cruel war and you are the first person I reported to,

Princess Evane, your knight is back,

He deserves a Welcome Back hug as a reward, does he not?”

Nux questioned with a playful look on his face.

Evane blushed a little and didn't move. She just stood there with an embarrassed look on her face and hesitated.

Nux, however, had a very thick skin.

Nux just stood there with his hands extended towards Evane

Something like this won't make him feel awkward at all.

“Princess Evane, you aren't planning to abandon your knight, are you?”

He questioned.

“W-What's with that Princess Evane this Princess Evane that you are talking about? This is the Royal Academy, I am not a Princess but a Teacher here.

So don't call me that.”

Evane retorted.

“My hug, Princess Evane.”

Nux, however, did not listen to Evane's words at all, he just stood there with his hands extended towards Evane, and this time, he even closed his eyes.

His intention was clear, he would stay in this place as long as he does not get the hug he wanted.

Evane understood that as well, therefore, in the end, she finally gave in, and with a face as red as a tomato, she finally moved and hugged Nux.

With the thick armor he was wearing, Nux wasn't able to enjoy this hug at all.

However, he was not annoyed by that at all.

It was all for the greater good after all.

This little sacrifice was worth it.

Nux then moved his hands and hugged her back.

Evane's face turned even redder when she felt that thick armor all over her body, especially on her breasts.

For some reason, she felt very comfortable and safe in this situation.

She did not hate this feeling at all.

‘!!!’

Soon, however, Evane's eyes widened in surprise and she shook her head repeatedly.

'Evane! Just what are you thinking!?! He is your student!

Your Student!'

However, while she was lost in her own thoughts, Nux place his chin on Evane's shoulder and whispered softly,

"It feels good, Princess Evane."

"T-That's Teacher Evane for you."

Evane retorted.

"Well, to be honest, I am fine with Evane as well. Only if you would allow me to call you that, of course."

"W-W-W-What are you talking about?"

Nux's words were like a jumbled puzzle for Evane's mind, a mind that was already a big mess right now.

"Teacher Evane, after participating in this war, I realized something."

"W-What is it?" Evane questioned back.

"In these last few days, I have killed a lot of people, I have seen many enemies and allies dying on the battlefield, I have even picked up bodies of my allies to whom I talked with just a day before the battle and while going through all of this, I realized.

I realized that life is too short to hold yourself back in fear of what others would think.

We might be alive and doing well today, however, the next day, someone might assassinate us and take our most precious thing away from us.

Therefore, it is better to just do what you want and live however you want.

And this is exactly how I will live from now on.”

Nux smiled.

“That sounds like a good way to li-H-Huh?”

Evane nodded and agreed with Nux’s words, however, before she could even complete her sentence, Nux moved and tightened his hug around her.

“Therefore from now on, I will not hold back my thoughts and do exactly what I wanted to do since the first day I met you.”

Nux whispered, this time, however, Evane noticed the change in his tone.

His words sounded...

Possessive...

It was as if Nux was trying to say something to her, and of course, Evane had a rough idea of what it was.

That was the reason why she was so flustered.

She wasn’t ready to hear those words right now, however, Nux didn’t seem to know about her thoughts and continued.

“I know what I am going to say is morally wrong since we are teacher and student, however, the moment I laid my eyes on you, my heart started beating unnaturally and I fell in love.

Everything happened so quickly that I was unable to react in time.

I know that what I am saying might strain our current relationship, however, if I don’t say these words when I have the chance, I will regret it for the rest of my life.”

Nux then released Evane from his hug and grabbed her shoulders.

With his golden eyes shining brightly, he looked straight into Evane's eyes and,

“Evane, I love you.”

*Ba-dump*

Evane's heart skipped a beat.

She had already guessed what Nux wanted to say and was already thinking about different replies in her mind, Should she accept it? Should she reject it? How should she reject it? Should she be strict and yell at Nux for thinking about something so wrong? Or should she reject him politely while being considerate of his feelings? Actually, why even reject him? Should she just accept his proposal and live a whole new life? No no no no, it was definitely better to reject him, or maybe accepting it was better. Or...

Yes, her mind was a big mess right now and she wasn't able to come up with a certain, fixed answer.

However, in the end, when she heard the three magical words,

The Mess in her mind cleared up.

And now,

Her mind was completely blank.

She wasn't able to think about anything at all.

“...”

Therefore, she just turned silent and didn't reply.

Nux, of course, expected something like that.

He just stepped back and smiled,

“I know this is all too sudden for you, Evane.

I don't want you to rush it. Think things through at your own pace, you can answer me whenever you want.

I will wait for your response.”

After saying that, Nux turned around and left.

*Clank* *Clank* *Clank*

The heavy armor he was wearing produced different sounds as his body moved, those sounds echoed inside Evane's mind, and seeing his walking figure, Evane felt a strange pain in her heart.

She wanted to stop the man who was walking away, however, the thought that this man was just an 18-year-old boy and her student stopped her steps.

Just like Nux said, this wasn't something she could think about in just 5 or 10 minutes, she needs to think about it thoroughly and then come up with a good answer.

Evane nodded to herself and with a heavy heart, she walked into her room.

There, her eyes fell on a certain painting, a painting where a man wearing thick armor was walking toward a woman wearing expensive-looking clothes.

This painting was about a Princess meeting the Knight who has just returned from war.

This was a painting she drew.

The story behind this painting was simple,

The Princess and the Knight loved each other, however, due to the difference in their status, they couldn't get married to each other. The Knight, however, still dared and confessed his love for the princess, the princess accepted and the two of them lived happily ever after.

How they lived, and where they lived didn't matter.

The only thing that mattered was that they lived together, overcoming all the hardships they faced.

‘Living happily ever after huh...’

Evane thought about it for a while and turned silent.

With heavy thoughts weighing her mind, she decided to call it off and closed her eyes.

...

The next day, Evane woke up, took a bath, ate her breakfast, and then, she walked toward her class.

As she entered the classroom, she noticed that many girls were standing around a certain seat and, on that seat,

There sat a boy who was smiling at her.

“Oh, Teacher Evane is here.

Good Morning, Teacher Evane.”

For some reason, seeing that sight in front of her,

Evane felt annoyed.

Chapter 353

“Oh, Teacher Evane is here.

Good Morning, Teacher Evane.”

Nux smiled playfully and for some reason, Evane did not like the sight in front of her at all.

Just why in the hell were all the girls in the class standing near Nux’s seat?

She couldn’t understand it and neither did she like it.

“What is happening here?”

She questioned in a strict tone.

“Teacher Evane! Nux is back!”

Anna spoke with an excited look on her face.

She was excited to see her friend after so long. Her excitement was shared by other girls in the classroom and they nodded as well.

“It is good that he is back but why are you guys surrounding him like that?”

Evane questioned.

“W-We just wanted to catch up to our classmate who has not been attending classes for such a long time.”

Another girl stepped forward and answered.

Evane’s mouth twitched in annoyance.

‘What a blatant lie.’

She couldn't believe that her students were lying like that.

“Oh? Then why didn't you catch up with Myrill when he returned to the class after a week of being in Medic's care?”

Evane questioned.

This was a topic that she, as a teacher, shouldn't talk about, however, right now, since her emotions were a big mess, she didn't think too much and questioned.

All the students in the room turned their heads towards Myrill, who didn't have any reaction on his face.

Right now, he couldn't care less about what his classmates thought of him. He had bigger problems to deal with.

His family was pretty much over right now, his father was a cripple, and he, as the older brother, would now have to take care of his younger brother all on his own.

For that, he needs to use this Royal Academy to his advantage, in this safe environment, he would work hard, train diligently and become stronger, only once he is stronger would he be able to protect his younger brother and live a normal life.

Yes, he was a lot more mature now.

This was a little late, however, as they say, it is never too late to improve yourself.

This change might lead to him achieving something unbelievable in the future.

Seeing the students' reaction, Evane finally realized what she just said and couldn't help but curse herself inwardly.

Nux understood the situation and frowned inwardly,

Then, a small smile appeared on his face and he continued,

“Teacher Evane, aren’t you happy to know that I am back as well?”

“H-Huh? Of course, I am.”

“Aren’t you curious about why I didn’t attend the class for a whole month?”

“I already know about it though?”

Evane tilted her head in confusion.

“Exactly, you already knew about it, but my classmates didn’t, that’s why they were curious and came up to me.

I am one of their closest friends after all,

Right, my friends?”

“Indeed.”

The girls answered with smiles on their faces and Evane’s face twitched again.

‘And why are all your ‘friends’ just girls?’

She wanted to ask out loud, however, she knew she couldn’t do so.

In the end, she could only force herself to calm down and sighed,

“Alright, catch up with each other later, go back to your seats now. The class is about to start.”

“Yes, Teacher Evane.”

The students nodded and returned to their seats.

Evane then turned around and started the class.

...

Time passed by quickly and soon,

“Alright, this will be enough for the day.

I hope you revise today’s lecture after going back, we will meet tomorrow.”

Evane spoke and just as she was about to turn around, Nux and most of the girls in the class stood up.

“Where are you all going?” Evane questioned with a frown.

“Didn’t you say that we can catch up after the class ends?”

Anna questioned back.

“What about your other classes?”

“Well, I only attend your class, Teacher Evane,” Nux spoke with a playful smile on his face.

“You are my favorite after all.”

A small blush appeared on Evane’s face, however, since she was in front of other students, she quickly hid that and spoke with a stern look,

“You should focus on other classes as well, or you might not fail to pass this Decade.”

“Yes, I will keep that in my mind.”

Nux’s smile widened.

Seeing that smile, Evane realized.

‘He can’t even fail... he is stronger than most teachers here...

What an infuriating fellow.’

Evane just wanted to strangle this man alive.

“We will be taking our leave now, Teacher Evane.

You have a good day!”

Anna spoke and then, she pulled Nux out of the class.

Other girls followed back.

Evane didn't like this scene at all, especially the smiles on those girls' faces.

‘They are up to no good...’

She complained inwardly.

However, she knew that she couldn't do anything about it.

In the end, she could only shake her head and prepared to leave.

“Teacher Evane...”

Just as Evane was about to leave, a girl called out.

“Hmm? Julie? Is there anything I can help you with?”

Evane questioned.

“Teacher Evane, I am facing difficulties in understanding a new Fire Skill I have been learning recently, can you help me with it?”

The girl named Julie questioned.

“Of course, I am free right now, you can come to my office.”

The girl smiled and nodded.

Evane and Julie then left the classroom and started walking toward Evane's office.

“Alright, what do you guys want to eat? Since I came here after so long, it will be my treat.”

“Oh my, Nux, aren't you generous.”

“Hehe~ When it comes to academy points, I am the richest person in our classroom.”

Nux joked and the girls surrounding him chuckled.

“...”

Evane, who saw that scene paused.

Again, she didn't like this strange feeling in her heart.

Was she jealous?

She thought inwardly, however, she quickly shook her head.

‘He is just my student, why would I be jealous?’

This doesn't make any sense.

Also, that boy has some guts, to propose to me yesterday night and then roam around with so many girls the next day, right in front of me.

Hmph Hmph'

Evane snorted.

“He is quite popular.”

Suddenly, Julie, who has been silent this whole time spoke.

Chapter 354

“He is quite popular, especially amongst the girls.”

Julie, who has been silent this whole time spoke.

“Indeed, a little too popular actually...”

“Well, he is strong and talented...”

Not to mention incredibly handsome.

The only thing holding him back is his humble background, however, that wouldn't be a problem once he breaks through Advance Stage and becomes a Master Stage Cultivator.

With his talent, he will become one in a few years and once that happens, there would be flocks of women rushing toward him, therefore, it is only natural that those girls would try their best to get their hands on him.

After all, the sooner they try, the higher the chances of their success.”

Julie analyzed everything in great detail.

“Thinking about marriage already? Shouldn't you focus on your studies?”

Evane raised her eyebrow.

Hearing those words, Julie smiled wryly.

“Let's be honest here, Teacher Evane, majority of the students joins the Royal Academy not to learn, but to find a perfect partner for themselves.

This is the only place where we could properly interact with people of our age and status, in other words, this is the only place where we are free to choose our partners ourselves.

Once we leave the academy, our parents would be the ones deciding our marriage partners.

By then, we won't have the freedom to choose.

We would be forced to comply with our parents' demands.

Of course, students of Prodigy class are a little different and don't focus much on this stuff, however, with someone like Nux right in front of their eyes, they won't give up on this opportunity at all."

"..."

Evane couldn't help but be amazed.

She has been teaching in this Academy for years, why hasn't she noticed this tell now?

'Are these really just children? Why are they worried about stuff like marriage so early?'

This was a big shock for Evane.

"T-Then why aren't you going after him?

Do you not like him?"

Evane questioned in curiosity.

"I find it hard to believe that there would be any girl who would not like someone like Nux. I am not an exception either.

However, my parents have already arranged my marriage with Earl Andrew, I don't have the luxury to choose now."

Julie answered with a small smile on her face.

"Huh? Marriage? So quickly?"

“Teacher Evane, we might be students, but we are still more than 20 years old, some of us are even 30. It is a perfect time for us to get married.

It is you who is unusual for staying single for so long.

Well, I think that is a little expected since you are the Princess of the strongest Kingdom in the world, your parents don't force you to marry someone, right?

Though I will say, Teacher Evane, you are missing out.

Marrying someone you like is a big change in your life, it is an experience that I am looking forward to.”

Julie smiled.

Again, Evane turned silent.

‘I am the unusual one...?’

She questioned inwardly.

She thought about it a little more, however, suddenly, she recalled someone Julie said,

“You are marrying Earl Andrew?”

“Yes, that is correct.”

Julie nodded.

“Isn't he, like, 3 times older than you? Are you comfortable in marrying someone like that?”

“...”

Hearing that question, Julie turned silent.

There was a change in her expression for a second, however, she quickly hid that and smiled,

“Of course not. Due to Cultivation, age is nothing more than a number.

He may be in his 70s right now, but doesn't he still look like a man in his 30s? What's the problem then?

Also, I have heard that he is caring and cherishes people close to him.

What else could I wish for?”

‘Age is just a number huh...’

Evane muttered inwardly.

‘She is marrying someone who is 3 times older than she is and is completely fine with that...’

Doesn't that mean me getting together with Nux is fine as well...?’

Evane thought inwardly and soon, her face turned red.

‘No no no no! Just what in the hell am I thinking!?’

“I truly believe that as long as you like someone, you should truly pursue him, factors like age, status, and anything else are irrelevant. In the end, your inner satisfaction is what matters the most.”

More and more strange thoughts started entering Evane's head and her face turned redder and redder while she glanced at Nux who was standing right in front of her.

If anyone else saw her right now, they would easily guess her feelings right now, however, the girl, who was standing with her right now, didn't notice anything.

Julie was lost in her thoughts.

What she said earlier was a lie.

She did not like that bastard Andrew at all. She has heard that he was a pervert who lusts after women and is unbearably rude. Of course, she didn't believe those rumors at first, however, she has met this man before and was sure that he wasn't a good man at all.

He was a far cry from the dream man she had imagined in her mind.

The only reason she was marrying him was that her parents forced her to.

Their reasoning was clear, since he is older than her, he would be dying sooner than her as well, once he dies, all his properties would belong to her and would indirectly belong to their house.

It was a long-term plan and recently, it was quite popular amongst the noble houses.

Of course, there were some problems with this plan like children and stuff, however, that would be dealt with later. Julie didn't bother with those either.

However, no matter what, Evane was still a Princess that belongs to the Royal family, there is no way Julie can tell her the truth, this might destroy her family after all.

Therefore, Julie just lied.

What she didn't know, however, was that her lie had opened a completely different path in Evane's mind.

Chapter 355

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Heavy silence enshrouded the entire room, the people sitting inside the room looked nervous, some were even trembling, while some were sweating profusely.

If any other normal man enters this room, he would pass out just because of the aura the people inside this room were unconsciously emitting.

Yes, unconsciously, that was how strong these people were.

However, even these supposedly strong beings were trembling in front of the man sitting in front of them with a serious look on his face.

The man's hair had turned white, a sight that is not very common in this world since most people cultivate and extend their lifetime. Once these cultivators get old enough to have white hairs, they would just lock themselves inside their rooms and go into seclusion, desperately trying to break through and live longer.

This man, however, was different from others, he knew he could only live for two decades at best, however, he did not care. He didn't bother to go into seclusion to try and break through since he knew he can't do it.

He had already reached the peak, after all.

“So you are telling me...”

That a single man infiltrated our army camp, killed around 6 Expert Stage Cultivators, caused chaos throughout the camp, alerted everybody, and still ran away?”

The man questioned in a serious tone.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Again, everyone just decided to stay silent.

They all were too scared to say anything right now.

This, however, annoyed the man even further,

“Answer my questions.”

He spoke, no, he threatened.

“Y-Yes, t-that is what happened, L-Lord Herms...”

In the end, a man finally spoke up.

The white-haired man or Lord Herms turned towards the man who spoke and questioned,

“What was his cultivation stage?”

“He was a K-King Stage Cultivator, Lord.”

“There were 7 King Stage Cultivators in the Army Camp.

You all, combined with all the soldiers you had under your command, failed to capture a single King Stage CULtviator?”

“Lord Herms, there were not 7 of us present there, General Armando was not present in the army camp when that man attacked.”

Another man named Fredgelord spoke as he pointed at General Armando.

Herms narrowed his eyes and questioned.

“What were you doing when the Army Camp was attacked, Armando?”

Noticing his gaze, Armando’s entire body trembled in fear. However, he quickly regained control over his emotions and answered,

“My subordinate saw some traces of fighting outside the army camp, these traces were very recent, therefore, I decided to act on my own and left the Army Camp to check them.

I never expected that the army camp would be attacked by an assassin when I was gone.”

“What about the traces you are talking about? Did you find anything peculiar there?” Herms questioned.

“I did not, however, if I had to guess, I would say that those traces were of that assassin fighting someone else there.”

Herms frowned.

“So you are saying that the assassin who was capable enough to kill and then escape from the clutches of 6 King Stage Cultivators was fighting someone else outside our army camp?”

“This is just my assumption, my lord. I am not very sure about this.”

“Hmph! Don’t you think it’s too much of a coincidence? General Armando leaves the Army Camp and the assassin attacks, it is almost as if the assassin knew that you wouldn’t be there.”

Fredgelord snorted.

However, another man named Marcus shook his head,

“I believe it is just a coincident.”

“Hmm? Why do you think so, Marcus? You aren’t in this together with Armando, are you?”

Fredgelord provoked.

Marcus, however, was too experienced, to fall for that cheap provocation, he took a deep breath and continued,

“That assassin was capable of fleeing from 6 King Stage CULTviators and thousands of soldiers without any major injuries, I don’t think the addition of another King Stage Cultivator would have changed anything.”

Hearing those words, the others inside that room nodded as well.

These words sounded credible.

“Indeed, Fredgelord, rather than talking about this nonsense, I believe it would be better if you use your brain and think about ways to identify that Assassin.”

Another man spoke up.

“Tch.”

Fredgelord snorted.

“Forget it.”

Suddenly, Herms, who has been staying silent for a while spoke.

“Hmm?” Armando and the other King Stage Cultivators turned towards Herms and frowned.

Herms, however, didn’t care about what they were thinking and continued,

“If that assassin is as good as you guys say, there is no way we would be able to identify him, Golden Eyes might be rare, however, this does not mean that we can look for golden eyes men in the whole world.

For all we know, that eye color might be a disguise to distract us.

Therefore, rather than looking for someone so sneaky like him, it would be better for us to focus on our future plans.

In the end, only a few Expert Stage Cultivators lost their lives, they might be rare, however, in the end, we are still stronger than the Woods Army.

I don't think we would face any problems in crushing them.”

Herms spoke.

The other Generals nodded their heads and suddenly, one of the Generals raised his hand.

“Lord Herms...”

“What is it?”

“Lord Herms, I heard that Ember Windstar, the General of the Woods Army has given up on her position as the General and has left the Army.”

“Huh?” Herms and the others present in the room frowned.

“Are you certain?” Herms questioned.

“Yes, Lord. This news was reported by my trusted subordinate. A new General named Finkelstein has replaced General Ember.

Although not as good as Ember, he still has decent Skills as the General, however, he still hasn't won the trust of his soldiers yet.

It can be said that right now, the Woods Army is even weaker than before since their strongest General has just turned her back on them.”

Hearing those words, a cold smile appeared on Herms's face

“Heh. Why don't we advance with our plans then?”

Chapter 356

“Heh. Why don’t we advance with our plans then?”

Herms questioned with a playful smile on his face.

However, before they could continue, Marcus questioned.

“Do we have any information about why General Ember left?”

The General who reported about this shook his head,

“We do not. Actually, General Ember’s resignation was very random and unpredictable, our spies are unable to come up with any decent reasons that made her do something like this.”

“...”

Marcus turned silent and started thinking.

For some reason, General Ember resigning just when they are so close to initiating their plans... He felt that something was off about this.

“Actually, there is another thing I received from my Spy’s report.”

“What is it?” Marcus questioned.

“Do you remember those two Assistant Generals?”

“The ones who killed many of our soldiers in the previous battle?”

This time, Herms was the one who questioned.

“Yes, them. According to the reports, the two of them left the same day General Ember left.”

“Huh? That’s strange. Were they Ember’s subordinates?”

Herms questioned.

The General, however, shook his head,

“We don’t have any information about them. The only thing we know about them is their name, Nux, and Thyra, but then again, since the two of them always covered their face with a mask, these names could be fakes as well.”

Herms nodded.

“Tsk. Those bastards are blessed by Lady Luck,

They have killed quite a lot of my subordinates in the previous battle, if I had gotten my hands on them in the next battle, I would have made them regret ever being born into this world.”

Fredgelord snorted as he clenched his fist in annoyance.

“What about their faces, have your spies mentioned anything about that?”

Fredglelord questioned.

“Well, since they always had a mask on their face, we only know about their eye color, the woman named Thyra has icy blue colored eyes, and the man named Nux has Golden Coloured ey-”

Suddenly, the General who was reporting this turned silent as he realized something.

“Golden Coloured eyes...”

He repeated.

“Similar to the assassin who attacked our Camp...”

Marcus understood what he wanted to say as well.

However, Armando shook his head,

“Have your minds stopped working or something?”

This man named Nux is an Expert Stage Cultivator, while the assassin was a King Stage Cultivator, the two of them are not the same person.”

“Ah... that’s true...”

The other Generals nodded in agreement.

“Indeed, we shouldn’t bother wasting our time on small fries.”

Even Herms seemed convinced.

“Alright then, enough discussion.

Since Ember has left, Woods Army’s Morale must be low right now, we will use this chance to attack and reclaim the lost Deathspike Fort and further destroy their morale.”

“What about the Generals, how many Generals should we send this time?”

“Well, we will be taking this a little seriously now.

Fredgelord and Marcus, you two will follow Armando and participate in this War.

Remember, you only have one Goal, and that is the New General’s Head.”

“Hahaha! I have been waiting for this day for a long time now! I can finally move now! Hahaha!”

Fredgelord laughed out loud.

Marcus, however, frowned.

“Sending 3 King Stage Cultivators... won’t that make the Woods wary of us?”

“Don’t worry too much about it.

It's not like I am acting on my own.

Sending Three King Stage Cultivators is nothing.

The Woods have lost 1 King Stage Cultivator already, if we kill another one, they would be 2 King Stage Cultivators down.

That Dynasty only has 6 King Stage Cultivators, if they lose 2 of them, it would be a big advantage for us.

And I am sure that even after losing 2 King Stage Cultivators, that Old Geezer won't make his move.

In the end, the Woods would only send the 4 King Stage Cultivators they are left with on the battlefield and we will use that chance to Kill all 4 of them.

With all the King Stage Cultivators gone, defeating the Woods would be a simple job.”

“What if their Emperor Stage Cultivator interferes?”

General Armando questioned.

“Don't worry, he will not interfere, he knows that if he does, it would mean that he is breaking the Treaty of Eternal Peace, I would then request help from other Kingdoms and destroy the Woods Dynasty.

He won't take that risk. That old geezer is not that foolish.”

“But according to the Treaty, the Emperor Stage Cultivator can't interfere until the Fate of the Kingdom is at stake, the position the Woods Dynasty will be at that time, won't he justify his actions as saving his nation that is about to be defeated by the enemy nation?”

General Armando questioned.

“Heh. Don't worry, his Nation's fate won't be at risk.

After winning this war, rather than marching inside their capital city and trying to gain control over the whole Dynasty, we would only take some 'rich' cities and exploit those.

This way, since the capital is not threatened, he wouldn't be able to move without breaking the Treaty."

"So either he lets us exploit their cities all we want, or he moves and breaks the treaty, causing his country to be destroyed, these are the only two options he will be left with, right?"

Fredgelord questioned with a wide smile on his face.

"Indeed."

Herms nodded with a small smile on his face.

He could already see his victory right in front of his eyes.

The others inside the room smiled as well.

As for Armando,

'I need to report this to Master...'

Although he was smiling on the outside, just like the other Generals, inwardly, he was thinking about different things.

"Alright, the meeting is over, you people can leave now."

Herms waved his hand, the Generals stood up and left the room one by one.

Once the Generals left, the smile on Herms' face disappeared and he narrowed his eyes.

'What a useless bunch. Can't even catch a normal Assassin.

If only I didn't need them for our future plans...

I would have killed them all.

Tsk Tsk.'

Herms snorted.

'Master Nux...'

Outside Herms's room, General Armando quickly contacted Nux, however, the answer he got from him was very unusual.

Chapter 357

‘Master Nux.’

‘Armando? What it is? Why are you contacting me right now?’

Nux, who was about to return to his room questioned with a frown on his face.

‘Lord Herms is here in the Army Camp.’

Armando reported.

Hearing those words, Nux’s face turned solemn and he nodded,

‘Continue.’

‘He wants us to attack and reclaim the Deathspike Fort.’

Nux noted this detail in his head.

‘Did you learn something else?’

He questioned.

‘Yes, He shared his future plans with us.’

Armando answered and Nux’s eyes brightened in joy.

‘What are they?’

‘After winning this war, he plans to exploit the Woods Dynasty until their Emperor Stage Cultivator loses his patience...’

Armando then started talking about everything Herms said in the meeting, however, suddenly,

‘Armando, wait a minute.’

Nux, who was interested in this topic from the start, spoke.

‘What is it, Master Nux?’

Armando frowned.

‘...’

Nux, however, didn’t reply.

Right now, he had just entered inside his room and,

‘We will talk about secondary things like these later, Armando.’

Something really urgent came up, so I will be breaking this connection now.’

‘Huh?’

Armando frowned.

Secondary Matters?

This is an Emperor Stage CULTviators and his future plans they were talking about!

In what world is this topic a secondary one!?

Shouldn’t his Master stop everything and focus on what he is saying right now!?

Armando couldn’t understand this at all.

Nux, however, didn’t care about this at all.

Emperor Stage Cultivators and their plans don’t matter.

Right now, what mattered the most was the woman in front of him.

“Teacher Evane...”

Nux called.

Evane, who was wearing a blue gown looked at Nux and for some reason, Nux’s heart skipped a beat.

This wasn’t the first time he has seen Evane in that gown, actually, he have seen her in that gown quite a lot of times, however, this time, along with that gown, there was a deep red blush on her face, her movement seemed a lot more sensual, a lot more alluring and a lot more...

Womanly.

“A-Are you sure you want to do it...?”

Evane questioned with an awkward, yet alluring look on her face.

Seeing that expression, Nux’s inner sadistic woke up and,

“What are you talking about, Teacher Evane? I do not understand, can you say it more clearly?”

Hearing those words, Evane’s face turned even redder.

“I... I am... a-about... relationship... ours...”

“I really don’t understand what you are talking about, Teacher Evane.”

Nux’s smile widened.

“I...”

Evane wanted to reply, however, in the end, she decided to give up.

What she was going to say was too embarrassing for her.

She would come back later after she is more prepared.

With that thought in her mind, she quickly moved her legs and while hiding her face from Nux, she rushed towards the door.

Seeing that scene, Nux's inner sadistic died down at a record speed and he panicked.

“!!!”

Just as Evane's hand was about to touch the door, Nux hugged her from behind and placed his chin on her shoulders.

“I am sure.”

He whispered.

“S-S-Sure about what?”

Evane questioned back.

She knew that Nux understood what she was talking about, she also understood what he was talking about, however, she wanted revenge.

H-How dare he embarrass her like that!

She wanted to see a flustered expression on that annoying face!

However,

“I don't care.”

Nux was ready with an answer.

“Huh?”

“I don't care about what it is, however, if it is anything related to you, Evane, then I am sure.

If we are in this together, I am more than ready to do it.

That is just how important you are to me.”

Nux spoke and again, Evane’s face turned red.

She didn’t expect Nux to answer her question like that.

And the way he was hugging her like that...

That... that felt very comfortable as well.

In the end, Evane just closed her eyes and enjoyed this strange and new feeling.

Nux then moved his face from her shoulders and brought his lips close to her nape, he then took a deep breath, Evane’s fresh and pleasing body odor entered his nose, and after sniffing it a few more times, Nux kissed her nape.

Evane felt as if strange jolts were coursing throughout her body.

It was a strange and... king of addictive feeling...

While she was lost in this new sort of pleasure, Nux tightened his hands around her waist and picked her up.

Again, Evane didn’t complain at all.

She was actually enjoying this fresh and thrilling feeling.

“!!!”

Soon, however, her eyes widened in surprise when she realized that Nux had placed her on the bed and was now on top of her.

She finally realized.

By coming to his room and saying those words, she has practically said yes to their relationship, not as Teacher and Student,

But as Lovers.

And now that they were lovers...

The next step was...

K-K-K-Kiss!

Evane's heartbeat quickened.

Right now, both her hands were above her hands, grabbed by Nux, while he was kissing all over her body, especially around her neck and shoulders.

For some reason, she felt weirdly relaxed, and whatever Nux was doing felt good.

She...

She was looking forward to what would happen in a few minutes.

Nux continued to kiss her body and helped her relax, once he was sure that it was enough, he finally raised his head and his eyes then met Evane's.

Nux was momentarily lost in those beautiful Green eyes, then, he looked at Evane's beautiful face from up close,

Thin Eyebrows, a straight nose, a face with no blemishes or pimples, perfect features that matched each other well, and those juicy light pink lips that were quivering a little.

'I wonder what they would taste like'

With this question in his mind, Nux lowered his head, and soon, he closed his eyes.

The distance between his and Evane's lips reduced and just as he was about to claim those beautiful lips,

A Hand blocked his lips and he heard a voice.

"I-I am n-not ready for this!"

Chapter 358

“I-I am n-not ready for this!”

Evane muttered with a flustered look on her face.

Nux’s eyes then fell on her face and he noticed that right now, her face was as red as a tomato. To be honest, this embarrassed face was too alluring for Nux to not do anything.

However, in the end, he respected Evane’s decision.

Everyone was not straightforward and aggressive like Ember, some people were like Evane as well.

People who want to take their time to get comfortable around you.

People who want to take things slowly.

That was completely normal.

Nux then moved his body and he fell beside Evane.

“I apologize for rushing like that, Evane.”

He spoke as gently as he could.

Hearing those words, Evane felt guilty...

“I apologize...”

Therefore, she apologized.

“I should be more open to things like these, I kno-”

“You do not have to force yourself, you won’t enjoy this if you do.”

Nux interrupted.

Then, he looked at Evane's face and smiled gently,

“Trust me, it would be much more pleasurable if you and I both are ready for this. I am already the happiest man in the world now that you have decided to give me a chance.”

“Thank you.”

A small smile appeared on Evane's face.

“Alright then, it is decided. We will take things slowly,

So no touching until you are comfortable enough.”

“I-I never said t-that touching isn't allowed...”

“Hmm?”

“Y-You can touch... If you want...”

Her voice was practically inaudible when she said those words.

“Heh.”

A small smile appeared on Nux's face.

“Now that makes it easier.”

He spoke.

“W-What?”

Evane frowned.

“I now know what we can do for the rest of the night.”

“R-Rest of the night?”

Evane questioned with a shocked look on her face.

“Hmm? Of course. You weren’t planning to go back, were you?”

“I wa-”

“Don’t bother, you will be staying here with me for the rest of the night.

Kukuku~ It would be a great night indeed.”

Nux chuckled and seeing the smile on Nux’s face while he was looking at her, Evane started imagining something.

‘S-Since I allowed t-touching... i-is he going to h-hug me for the rest of the night? Is that what he plans to do?’

Evane’s heartbeat quickened as her mind started imagining things in more and more detail.

‘T-That doesn’t sound that bad...’

Evane concluded in her mind and was actually looking forward to the rest of the night. However,

“Let’s paint.”

Nux’s next words crashed all her dreams.

“Huh? Paint?”

“Yes, isn’t that something you like? After staying with you for so long, I have come to like that as well.

So let’s draw something together.”

Nux spoke cheerfully and stood up with an excited look on his face.

The ring on his finger shined, canvas, paints, drawing sheets, everything appeared one after another, while Evane just stayed there with a shocked look on her face.

‘Is... is he holding himself back after I stopped him the first time...?’

A question appeared in her mind.

However, before she could ponder much about it, Nux questioned,

“Hmm? You don’t look very excited about this.

Do you not wish to draw right now?”

“Hmm? No, I am fine, just give me a second.”

Evane then stood up, tied her messed-up hair into a ponytail, and walked towards Nux.

As someone who has been drawing and painting for decades, she has a deep love for this in her heart, therefore, in just a minute, all her thoughts vanished and she started thinking about what to draw.

“!!!”

While her mind was occupied with these thoughts, Nux grabbed her from behind, pulled her close to him, and sat down with her sitting on his lap.

He then moved his mouth close to her ears and whispered,

“Shall we start our painting now?”

“H-Huh?”

Evane couldn’t answer.

Nux grabbed her hand that was carrying a paintbrush, then gently moving his hands, he dropped the paintbrush she was carrying on the paint, and then he moved it back to the canvas.

“What are you thinking about, Evane? Don’t you want to draw with me?”

Nux whispered again.

Evane, who was busy enjoying Nux's warmth and the way he caressed her waist, finally came out of her reverie and questioned inwardly,

'I-I have to draw like that!?'

However, before she could think too much, Nux moved her hand again and started drawing.

Evane started to enjoy this strange way of painting as well, soon, she started moving her hand on her own accord, and Nux,

Well, he completely ignored the painting and continued to touch, kneed, and kiss Evane's body to his heart's content. Not only that, since Evane moved her body a lot while she painted, her butt moved as well, Nux's little brother approved this as well and although it couldn't act today like it used to, it still enjoyed the feeling of being rubbed by Evane's perky butt.

The drawing session continued for the rest of the night and Nux dared to say that,

This was the most enjoyable painting session he has ever experienced.

Actually, this wasn't true for just him alone,

Evane was the same.

This was the most pleasurable drawing session for her as well.

Sitting on his lap, she felt strangely comfortable and safe, and although Nux touching her like that was a little embarrassing, with how gentle he was and how good it felt,

She allowed him to do whatever he wanted while she drew and chatted with him for the rest of the night.

...

The next day, Evane and Nux entered the classroom at the same time, Nux then reluctantly left Evane's side and walked towards his own seat.

This time, however, neither the boys nor the girls in the classroom greeted him,

They just sat on their seats while looking at Nux and then looking at Evane who was standing near her table and narrowed their eyes in doubt.

‘Something is wrong here...’

The whole classroom collectively thought.

Chapter 359

“Alright, that will be enough for today.”

Evane dismissed the classroom.

“Teacher Evane.”

A student called out.

“Yes, James?”

Evane questioned.

“I had a few doubts I wanted to ask, are you free right now?”

Evane’s eyes momentarily fell on Nux, who was looking at this boy named James with a threatening gaze, and she smiled wryly,

“Yes James, I am free right now. Follow me to my office, you can ask me what you want there.”

“It would be better if you try to solve your problems on your own though. You would turn into an Idiot if you seek help for every little problem you face.”

Nux commented.

James turned towards Nux and looked at him with a blank look on his face,

“Aren’t you the one who asked for Teacher Evane’s help the moment you entered our classroom?”

“Well, I am different.”

Nux replied.

James narrowed his eyes,

“Why are you different?”

The other boys in the class had serious expressions on their faces as well.

“Well, I am already an Idiot.”

“...”

The whole class turned silent.

In the end, they decided to ignore Nux’s words and continued with whatever they were doing.

James followed behind Evane and seeing that, Nux snorted inwardly.

‘You should just disappear, you bastard.’

In the end, Nux shook his head and decided to go to Arvina’s mansion.

“Teacher, I am here.”

He spoke with a big smile on his face.

“So you finally got the time to visit your teacher, huh?”

“Hahaha~ Well, I was busy with my classes.”

Nux chuckled.

“What’s the point? You don’t need those classes, if you want to skip them, I can arrange that for you.”

“No no, I need to attend those classes, it is very important for me.”

Nux smiled brightly.

Arvina narrowed her eyes suspiciously, however, in the end, she decided to stay silent and continued,

“Alright, whatever you wish, let’s start with your trai-”

However, before she could even complete, Ember entered the room and hugged Nux from behind.

“You haven’t visited me for 2 nights now, am I not good enough for you now?”

Are you going to leave me after you used me?

Are you not going to love me anymore?”

Ember complained dramatically.

Hearing those words, a small smile appeared on Nux’s face, then, his smile turned evil.

“Huh? Who are you?”

How dare you hug me as if you know me, woman?”

“Now you act like you don’t even know me? Have you really abandoned me!?”

Ember, who understood what to do questioned even more dramatically.

“You bastard, how dare you!?”

Ember then grabbed Nux’s collar in anger and shouted.

“Ember, look, you were an amazing woman, but,

It just doesn’t feel the same anymore.”

Nux replied with a guilty look on his face.

Ember's grip on his collar weakened, taking this chance, Nux stepped back,
“I...”

Ember didn't know what to say.

She was too shocked to say anything.

Dropped shoulders, furrowed eyebrows, moist eyes, her sadness was clear from her body language.

Arvina, who was seeing everything from afar was speechless.

Just what in the hell were these two doing?

Even she could tell that the two of them were just acting and were not serious.

But the point was...

Why?

Just why in the hell were these people doing this?

She couldn't understand.

She then noticed that Ember's body language suddenly changed, she then appeared in front of Nux with a wild smile on her face and then, she picked him up.

“Alright, don't blame me for what's going to happen to you from now on.”

“W-What are you going to do to me now?”

Nux questioned with a 'panicked' look on his face.

“Heh. I am going to take you with me and lock you inside the room with me.”

Then, a seductive look appeared on Ember's face and she whispered,
"There, I would do 'bad things' with you.

Kukuku~"

Hearing those words, Nux, who was in her arms, panicked even more.

"B-Bad things."

"Kukuku~"

Ember laughed again.

"..."

Again, Arvina was speechless.

Just... Just how in the hell did this turn into something like this?

Why are these two so random?

Is that how normal couple acts like?

Also...

Why are they doing this right in front of her!?

While Arvina was busy with her thoughts, Ember turned around and walked towards the door, with Nux in his arms, of course.

"Where are you going?" Arvina questioned.

"Huh? Can't you see? I am going back to my room to do 'bad things' with him."

Ember answered as if it was the most natural thing in this world.

Arvina's face twitched,

“You can do ‘bad things’ with him later, he needs to train right now. So you can take your leave, but Nux is staying here.”

“Huh? What’s the point?”

Ember questioned.

Arvina narrowed her eyes.

“Isn’t he already stronger than you? What can you possibly teach him now?”

A logical question.

“I can still teach him swordsmanship.”

Arvina answered.

“He has already formed his own style now, you do not have to teach him.”

Ember replied.

“He can always refine that style by sparring with me.”

“I hope you won’t take this offensively, but the current you is a little too weak to be a challenge him, his learning speed would be too slow if he trains with you.

You do not have to worry about that. I will spar with him after I am done with some other spars with him.”

Ember smiled seductively.

“...”

Arvina turned silent.

This time, she didn’t have any reply.

Seeing that, Ember walked out of the room.

“...”

Arvina, who was left inside the room stayed silent for a long time.

There were different thoughts in her mind, but...

Soon, she started hearing voices that she would rather not hear...

“So goood~~”

“Annhh! Aannh! Aanh!!”

“Ugghhh!!”

“...”

Arvina’s body twitched in annoyance.

‘T-These two...

They are shameless!!

Especially that bitch Ember!

I can’t believe she is doing something like that with an 18-year-old boy!

Shameless!’

Chapter 360

“Just... how...?”

“You do not have to force yourself so much, Ember. I know you are strong but, if you and I fight, you will lose.”

Nux spoke as gently as he can.

“Losing in a fight and not being a match at all are very different.”

Ember spoke with a wry smile on her face.

At the same time, she grabbed the hand Nux had extended towards her and stood up.

She didn't promise in vain, after she was done doing 'bad things' with Nux, the two of them started sparring against each other.

However, Ember soon realized something.

Nux was too strong, no matter how she fought, defeating her was a simple task for Nux.

It was as if she was a child in front of him.

Ember couldn't understand...

“We are both King Stage Cultivators, you could even be called a newbie King Stage Cultivator, then why is the gap between us so huge?”

Just how is this possible?”

Ember questioned.

“That's because of his Body Cultivation.”

The one who answered was a woman with a lean physique, who walked toward Nux, kissed his lips, and then turned towards her with a small smile on her face.

“Body Cultivation?” Ember frowned.

“That is correct.

Don’t you ever wonder how Nux defeated you when he was just an Expert Stage Cultivator?”

Thyra questioned.

“Isn’t that because he has an affinity with 4 Elements?”

Ember replied.

“That is not correct.” Nux shook his head.

“Having the ability to control all 4 elements is certainly good, however, it doesn’t allow me to defeat someone who is stronger than me.”

“Then this Body Cultivation...”

“In this World, Cultivation is divided into two parts, Mana Cultivation, what we people usually practice, and Body Cultivation, which, for some reason, is not practiced by any of the people I have met.”

“This is my first time hearing about Body Cultivation.”

Ember spoke.

“Yes, that is the reason why no one practices it,

Nobody even knows about it.”

Thyra nodded.

“Then how did you...?”

Ember questioned.

“Well, I don’t specifically practice body cultivation on my own.”

Nux answered and Ember frowned in confusion.

“His special ability.

It not only raises his Mana Cultivation but Body Cultivation as well.”

“!!!” Ember’s eyes widened in surprise.

She quickly understood what that implies,

“It means that just by having sex with us, he becomes...”

“Yes, he doesn’t just become King Stage Mana Cultivator, but a King Stage Body Cultivator as well.

This is the reason why he is so strong.

He is twice as strong as a normal cultivator of the same stage.”

“!!!”

Again, even though she had already thought about it, Ember was still shocked.

“C-Cheating. You are cheating!

You are cheating in life!”

Ember complained like a small child while she pointed her trembling finger at Nux.

She actually looked quite cute right now.

A small smirk appeared on Nux’s face as he glanced at Ember,

“Isn’t it a good thing that the man who is all yours is special?”

Ember, who was pointing at Nux aggressively, blushed a little.

Then, she nodded her head in agreement.

It’s a good thing indeed.

“Tsk, fucking cheat.”

This time, Thyra was the one who complained.

Again, Nux just kissed her lips as a bribe,

The bribe worked, the woman just closed her eyes, moved her hands around his neck, and enjoyed the Kiss.

“Hey...”

Suddenly, Ember called out.

“Hmm? What is it?” Nux questioned.

“This Body Cultivation...”

I know your ability won’t help me with this, but... do you have any technique through which I can start this?”

“Hmm?” Nux narrowed his eyes.

“Well, I don’t want to admit it, but I know that I have already used up all my potential. No matter how much I cultivate, I can’t improve my Mana Cultivation now.

Not only that, with your ability, once you get stronger, I will get stronger as well, therefore, I was thinking,

That rather than just depending on you to get stronger, why don’t I try this Body Cultivation?”

“Well, it’s not a bad idea, but the problem is that we don’t really have a ‘technique’ you can use.”

Thyra answered and Ember turned silent.

‘I guess I was hoping too much.’

Ember thought inwardly and shook her head in disappointment.

However, suddenly,

“Actually...”

Nux spoke.

“I do have a Body Cultivation technique with me.”

“Huh?”

Thyra and Ember both looked at Nux with shocked looks on their faces.

“You do!?”

Thyra, however, was more shocked compared to Ember.

“Why didn’t you give it to me then?”

“Umm... You never asked...?”

Nux smiled wryly.

Actually, before Ember mentioned this, he never thought about it. It just... skipped his mind.

It was pretty strange.

‘Why hasn’t any of us ever thought about this?’

Nux wondered in his head and after thinking for a while, he finally realizes.

Every one of them was busy with their own goals in their minds,

Thyra was trying to be ‘useful’ to him. Always trying to become an Expert Stage Cultivator as soon as possible.

Felberta was busy catching up to Skyla and others and defeating them no matter what.

Skyla was busy learning Killing Techniques.

Lane just wanted to stay together with everyone.

Edda... well... her mind was filled with other thoughts. As for getting stronger, well, she didn’t really care.

Amaya had her physique. She only focused on her physique and thought of ways to increase her mastery over it.

As for Allura, well, she was influenced by Edda and didn’t care much about strength either. As long as she was with Nux, nothing else mattered.

Ember, however, was different, she was someone who had used up all her potential and didn’t have any ways to get stronger than her current self.

For someone like her who values strength over her life, this was devastating.

Therefore, this Body Cultivation Technique was a new hope for her.

“Alright then, Ember.”

Nux smiled, then, a book appeared in his hands and he extended it towards Ember.

“Here.”

Ember took the book, however, as soon as she read the title, her eyes widened in horror and surprise.

“S-S-Seven Star Cultivation Technique...”

Chapter 361

“S-S-Seven Star Cultivation Technique...”

Ember’s eyes widened in shock.

Even Thyra, who was standing beside Ember had a shocked look on her face.

“I want a Technique as well.”

She spoke.

“Well, you two sisters would have to share it with each other.”

Nux replied with a playful smile on his face.

“No.”

Thyra, however, shook her head.

“Hmm?” Nux frowned.

“I think we need to share this with everybody. They are too weak and many of them still can’t defeat cultivators who have the same cultivation as them.

I can also see that not many of them are fit to learn my techniques, therefore, I believe introducing Body Cultivation to all of them is important.”

Thyra’s inner teacher woke up.

Nux welcomed this idea with open arms.

“But we won’t be forcing anyone, okay?”

He spoke.

Suddenly, a cold smile appeared on Thyra's face,

“Heh, you don't need to force anyone.

I am sure every one of them will accept this idea with open arms.”

Nux narrowed his eyes.

For some reason, he didn't like that smile on Thyra's face.

However, in the end, he shook his head.

Thyra has been training all his women for so long now, she knows what to do and what not to.

Everything will be fine.

Probably...

Hearing their conversation, Ember smiled wildly, then, she passed the technique to Thyra,

“Hmm?”

Thyra looked at Ember and frowned.

“Why are you looking at me like that?

You are the one who is responsible for training them, right? I think it would be best if you keep this technique with you.”

Thyra looked at Ember for a while and then she nodded her head.

“However, do note that if I feel that you are lacking and are unable to train my 'sisters' properly,”

Ember walked closer to Thyra and whispered.

“I will take away your position.”

Hearing those words, Thyra smiled as well.

“Don’t worry,

I will train them as intensely as I can.”

Ember’s smile widened as well.

For some reason, she could feel that she would be getting along with Thyra a lot.

Thyra shared the same thoughts as she and Ember continued to smile at each other.

A new friendship was formed.

And the rest of Nux’s women...

Well, their fates were decided and they don’t even know what happened.

Poor souls indeed.

“Ahh, yes, remember, keep Amaya out of this.”

Suddenly, Nux spoke.

“”Hmm?””

Both Ember and Thyra had the same reaction.

Ember then turned towards Thyra and questioned,

“Who was this Amaya again?”

“Princess of Kingdom of Skadi, Royal Consort of the Skyfall Kingdom, one of the Two Untouched Flowers, Leader of the Thousand Information Chamber.”

Thyra answered and Ember raised her eyebrows in amazement.

“That’s a long list of titles.”

“Indeed.”

Thyra nodded.

Amaya was someone that even she respected.

She was an intelligent woman, even though the change in her attitude when things come to Nux is a little worrying.

“Is that the reason why he is showing such blatant favoritism?” Ember questioned as she looked at Nux and pouted.

Nux found the pouting War General especially cute.

However, he then decided to clear the misunderstanding.

“That is not the case, Amaya is a little different.”

Saying that, he raised his hand and Black Mist came out.

Nux then explained about Amaya’s Physique and Ember finally understood.

“So she already has something that would make her stronger.”

“Indeed.”

Nux nodded.

“Alright, we will leave her alone then.”

Ember and Thyra nodded.

No one knew when the training became something ‘they’ were responsible for.

It could be said that the new ‘friendship’ is stronger than what anyone predicted.

Nux looked at the two of them and smiled.

It is always good to see his women getting along with each other, after all.

While he was lost in these thoughts, Ember turned towards him.

“Hmmm, I want to meet my new sisters as well,

How about we call them here?”

“Huh?”

Hearing that, Nux frowned.

Then, after thinking a bit more about it, a smile appeared on his face.

“Hmmm, that is not a bad idea.”

Since he had to spend the night with Evane now, he is unable to take out more time for them, however, if they all come and live with him here...

Things would be different.

Also, he was missing living with all of them as well.

“That does not seem like a bad idea at all~”

Nux’s smile widened.

“But where are they going to live? Your room might be an option, but there are too many people there.

Other teachers would notice something sooner or later.”

Thyra questioned.

“...”

Nux’s smile disappeared.

“Hmm, can’t they just stay in Arv’s house? It is quite big, I don’t think anyone would notice.”

Ember suggested.

“HmMMM.”

Nux thought about this and a minute later, a small, playful smile appeared on his face.

He could see the way.

The way to get close to his lovely Teacher Arvina.

“Alright, I’ll talk with my ‘Teacher’~”

Nux chuckled and then, he turned around.

“Where are you going?” Thyra questioned.

“To talk with Teacher Arvina.”

Nux answered and then, he walked away.

“Well, he looks excited.”

Ember commented.

Thyra, however, didn’t say anything.

She felt that something was off, however, she was unable to place her finger on it.

In the end, she just decided to trust Nux and forgot about it.

...

On the other side, rather than going to Arvina as he said, Nux walked out of Arvina’s mansion, activated his [Conceal], and started walking around the Academy.

‘I failed to use such a big asset even though it was right in front of me...’

Nux narrowed his eyes.

Body Cultivation is a completely different path of Cultivation that nobody in this world knows about.

However, with his system, not only does he not know about it, he even has ways to use it to his women’s advantage.

However, even after being here for half a year, he hasn’t acted on it.

This was... unsettling...

‘I need to use my system more efficiently...’

Chapter 362

Careless.

Way too careless.

To not use his assets efficiently...

This couldn't get any dumber.

The more Nux thought about this, the more he cursed himself.

However, he knew doing something like that won't help, in the end, rather than cursing himself fruitlessly, it is better to learn from this and think a little more about all this.

Thinking about all this, Nux started his walk.

A walk where he just thought about different things on his own.

The walk where he thought about the problems he was facing on his own, without Amaya's, Felberta's, or Thyra's help.

The walk where he would talk with himself.

Something that he hasn't done for a long time now.

His system is strong.

A little too strong.

It is a good thing, however, this can also be considered bad as well.

With so much power in his hands, Nux became conceited.

Since he never really faced any challenge, he got careless.

From a mortal to a King Stage Cultivator, his journey has been incomparably smoother compared to any normal person.

However, now, things have changed.

His next goal, the Emperor Stage...

This Stage was different.

It was incomparably different than any other cultivation stage.

If he doesn't change the way he acts, he would face serious consequences.

'Status.'

[Name: Nux Leander]

[Ability: Craving Touch, Eye Of Discerning, Sense, Professional Killer, Conceal, Harem Seal, Slave Seal, Trickster, Harem's Gate, Sound Seal, Dash, Regeneration.]

This time, he carefully read the abilities he has bought and unlocked.

‘Not enough... These are not enough to deal with Emperor Stage...’

Thinking about it, Nux's eyes fell on another section.

[System Points: 84,534]

A small smile appeared on his face.

‘System Shop’

[System Shop]

[Cultivation Techniques]

[1 Star Cultivation Techniques – 100 System points]

[2 Star Cultivation Techniques – 200 System points]

...

...

...

...

[7 Star Cultivation Techniques – 10000 System points]

There were still more, but Nux quickly decided to ignore them and moved to the next columns.

[Skill Books]

[1 Star Skill Books – 10 System points]

...

...

...

...

...

[7 Star Skill Books – 1000 System points]

[Weapons]

[1 Star Weapons – 10 System points]

[7 Star Weapons – 1000 System points]

[Abilities]

[1 Star Abilities – 100 System points]

[2 Star Abilities – 200 System points]

[3 Star Abilities – 500 System points]

[4 Star Abilities – 1000 System points]

[5 Star Abilities – 2000 System points]

[6 Star Abilities – 5000 System points]

[7 Star Abilities – 10000 System points]

Again, he opened the shop and jumped directly to the abilities section.

There, he saw a section that he usually ignores.

[8 Star Abilities – 100000 System points]

8 Star...

Technically speaking...

This level was 1 level higher than Emperor Stage.

These abilities should be incomparably stronger than 7 Star Abilities, which Nux believes are too powerful.

These abilities...

Should be something Nux can use to defeat Emperor Stage Cultivators.

And he has been ignoring this for a long time now.

Of course, he is that big of an Idiot to just ignore something like this.

He had his reasons,

When he came to this world, 100000 System points was a huge deal for him, therefore, he didn't even look at this section now, even now, after he has grown so much, 100000 is still a big number for him.

However, right now, he has 85000 System Points, reaching 100000 wasn't hard.

Just one trip to Bloodhill Wilderness and boom,

He has the points he needed.

Why wasn't he doing it then?

That was because this was a scam.

No matter how much he tries, he could never select 8 Star Abilities.

This section was locked!

Initially, he thought he needed to 100000 before being able to unlock this, however, he later realized that this was not true because,

[8 Star Weapons – 10000 System points]

The 8 Star Weapons that cost 10000 System Points,

He had more than 10000 System Points right now, however, even after that, the 8-Star Weapons section is locked.

The same is true for everything else as well.

Anything that is above 7 Star inside the Shop is locked and Nux had no Idea about how to break that lock.

This was the reason why he has been ignoring this section for a long time now.

This was also one of the problems he is currently facing.

'Ugghh... whatever, I will just buy a few 7 Star Skills and Weapons for them...'

In the end, Nux just shook his head and stopped thinking about this 8 Star lock and started thinking about different ways to get stronger.

Of course, he won't be buying anything right now.

For this, he will discuss things with his women.

In the end, they are the ones who will use these Skills and Weapons after all.

Noting this in his mind, Nux shifted his attention to his next problem that was related to his [Conceal] and [Sense].

[Conceal] and [Sense] are the abilities that he has been depending on for a long time now and are two of the most used abilities he has, however, recently, these 2 abilities have been failing him.

Nux has noticed that whenever Ember is involved, [Sense] fails.

[Conceal], on the other hand, works perfectly fine against Ember.

Actually, other than the time when he was assassinating those Solid Earth bastards, [Conceal] has never failed to work.

However, that is what makes it so dangerous.

For [Sense], Nux had a rough idea of why it failed when Ember is around.

[Sense] is a 5 Star Ability.

Ember, however, is a King Stage Cultivator, which is comparable to 6 Star.

Nux believes that since Ember's 'tier' is higher than his Ability, [Sense] fails in front of her.

However, this introduces another problem,

[Conceal] is a 7 Star Ability, something that even an Emperor can't beat, then why...

Why did it fail...?

‘Wait...’

Suddenly, Nux paused his steps as he realized something.

His eyes then moved and fell on his abilities again,

[Ability: Craving Touch, Eye Of Discerning, Sense, Professional Killer, Conceal, Harem Seal, Slave Seal, Trickster, Harem’s Gate, Sound Seal, Dash, Regeneration.]

He finally realized.

Chapter 363

[Sense]

[5 Star Ability]

[Description: When activated, the user will be able to sense everything around him. The range will depend on the user's MP (1 MP = 1 meter).]

[Note: The ability will be activated automatically if someone is deliberately hiding his/her presence and is in the detection range of the user.]

[Note: The ability will fail to detect the presence of a cultivator who is concealing his presence and has 2 times more MP than the users]

[Conceal]

[7 Star Ability]

[Description: When activated, no one will be able to sense the user's presence or see him if the user doesn't wish for it. Only a cultivator with 3 times more MP than the user can detect the user's presence. Or else, the user can only be detected if he touches or is touched by the user.]

[Note: If the user's killing intent is detected by a cultivator, the effect of the ability, [Conceal], would wear off]

‘So that's it...’

Nux finally realized.

Then, he clicked on another ability, and information about that appeared in front of his eyes again.

[Professional Killer]

[3 Star Ability]

[Description: A passive skill that controls a user's killing intent to such an extent that it could only be released after the user's attack has landed, or has failed to land on the target.]

Reading about this ability, a small smile appeared on Nux's face.

Finally.

He finally figured this out.

The 'Star' of his ability doesn't tell if the ability is good or bad, it tells about its Tier.

A 5 Star ability won't work on a 6 Star, or a King Stage Cultivator.

Or in other words, an Ability won't work on someone who is 'stronger' than the Ability's Tier.

[Sense] a 5 Star ability won't work on Ember, a King Stage Cultivator.

As for his [Conceal], well, [Conceal] never failed to begin with.

What failed was the [Professional Killer], as a 3 Star Ability, it failed to work against Grand Master Stage Cultivators, therefore, it failed to hide Nux's killing intent and once his Killing Intent leaked, the [Conceal] wore off.

“Haahh...”

A big smile appeared on Nux's face.

“Good job, me.”

He patted himself on the back and then,

He continued his walk.

This time, however, his mood was a lot lighter than before.

He still doesn't know if he could defeat an Emperor Stage Cultivator or not, however, he was sure he would find a way out eventually.

He just needs to be more careful and focus on things around him.

...

“...”

“...”

Right now, Nux was sitting in front of Arvina and Arvina was looking at him with an annoyed look on her face.

“So... you are telling me to let your ‘other women’ live here with you as well?”

“...yes.”

“How many ‘other women’ do you have again?”

Arvina questioned as she placed her elbows on the table and her chin on her fists.

She looked very serious right now.

“I have 9 lovely women around me.”

Nux answered with a small smile on his face.

His answer, however, was a big shock for Arvina.

“N-NINE!?”

“Yes.”

Nux replied honestly.

“How is that possible!?”

Arvina questioned.

“Hmm? We fell in love and became lovers...?”

Nux tilted his head in confusion.

Arvina’s face twitched in frustration when she heard that answer.

In this world, a capable man with high social standing having nine or more than nine women in his harem was possible.

And of course, with Nux’s monstrous talent, he is incomparably better than those ‘capable’ men out there.

Therefore, him having 9 women should not be weird if,

“But you are only 18 years old!

Just how in the hell do you have 9 women already!?”

How is this possible!?”

Arvina couldn’t understand.

“Didn’t you think that an 18-year-old boy being a King Stage Cultivator was impossible as well?”

Nux replied calmly.

“...”

Arvina turned silent.

If he can be a King Stage Cultivator at the age of 18, then why can’t he have 9 women as his lovers at the age of 18...

Arvina couldn’t help but agree with Nux’s words.

In the end, an 18-year-old boy having 9 women as his partners sounded more logical in Arvina's mind.

However,

“And why should I let them stay here in my mansion?”

Arvina questioned.

“Because I miss them.”

Nux answered again.

“I fail to see how that's my problem.”

Arvina didn't back down.

“It is not your problem, it is mine.

However, I am your beloved student.

You aren't going to abandon me, are you?”

Nux questioned with a small smile on his face.

“ ... ”

Arvina didn't reply.

“Teacher Arvina, it's been months since I have seen them.

I really do miss them badly.

There are so many free rooms in your mansion, can't you just give them a few rooms? 3 would be more than enough.”

Nux requested.

Arvina looked into Nux's eyes and in the end, she couldn't ignore her student's sincere look.

“How long will they stay here for?”

Nux's eyes brightened up.

“A week, no, 2 weeks, no, a Month!

Yes, a month would be enough!”

He replied with an excited look on his face.

“2 Weeks, that's it. I won't let them stay for a second more than that.”

Arvina spoke with a strict look on her face.

“Alright, 2 weeks it is then.”

Nux didn't argue and smiled brightly.

“Teacher Arvina, you are the best!”

“Now leave my room, I still have some work to do.”

“Yes, teacher.”

With a bright mood, Nux stood up and turned around.

“Also.”

However, just as he was about to leave, Arvina called.

Nux turned around and seeing that she has gained his attention, Arvina spoke with a slight blush on her face.

“T-Tone it down a little...

When... you know...

When they arrive...”

A playful smile appeared on Nux’s face as he nodded,

“Don’t worry teacher.

I will make sure that you won’t hear a thing.”

“You can leave now.”

Arvina didn’t show her face to Nux and ordered.

Nux smirked.

Then, he left Arvina’s office and,

‘Did you all miss me, my darlings?’

Chapter 364

‘Did you all miss me, my darlings?’

Nux questioned with a small smile on his face.

‘Heeh? What’s with that tone huh? And since when did you start caring about us?’

Felberta questioned back.

Nux couldn’t see her right now, however, he was sure that she had a playful smile on her face when she said those words.

‘Oh c’mon, you know I care about you guys the most in this world, right?’

‘Hmph, you are all words~’

Felberta snorted.

‘Tsk Tsk, I was a fool for thinking about you guys when you think so badly of me.’

Nux pouted.

‘I am different, I don’t think like her. For me, you are the best~’

Skyla chimed in.

‘My lovely Skyla, you are the best as well.

I love you~’

‘Hehe~ Love you too~’

Skyla chuckled cutely.

‘So? What were you talking about before when you said that you were thinking about us?’

Felberta questioned.

‘Hmm, are we finally going to have sex in the middle of the War?’

Edda questioned.

And from her tone, she didn’t look like she was joking at all.

Yes, she was damn serious about it.

She had a checklist in her mind.

A checklist that holds her deepest fantasy.

A checklist that no one has ever seen.

‘...’

Nux turned silent.

‘So? What were you talking about before when you said that you were thinking about us?’

Felberta repeated her question without changing her tone at all.

Her voice and tone sounded so similar that Nux felt he had just returned back to time.

Felberta’s message was clear.

Ignore that horny bitch.

Nux, of course, couldn’t do that.

‘I am very sorry, my perverted maid, I still haven’t arranged that for you, however, I will make sure to compensate you a lot.’

‘Are we going to use ropes?’

‘Ropes are overrated, I was thinking about using Vines.’

‘Hmmm, feels closer to nature. That is not bad at all.

I wonder why have I never thought about that?’

‘You are not creative enough. You need to be more creative.’

Nux suggested and Edda noted her shortcoming.

‘ ... ’

Felberta and other girls, who were listening to this conversation were speechless.

‘Edda, I have never seen you before, however, I sure am excited to meet you.

I want to know how your brain works.’

Ember spoke in a curious tone.

‘Sure, I want to meet a previous General as well. I want to ask if it is possible to have se-‘

‘Meet her?’

Ember’s words were cut off by Amaya, who focused on something much more important.

A satisfied smile appeared on Ember’s face,

‘You are as intelligent as I have heard.’

She complimented.

‘Thank you for the compliment, now can you explain more about the meeting part.’

Unless the compliment was from Nux, Amaya didn’t care and this was very clear from her unchanged tone.

‘Well, Nux just talked with Sister Arvina and you all can now live inside Sister Arvina’s mansion, where Nux and we two live.’

Thyra answered.

“What? Really!?”

Skyla questioned with an excited look on her face.

‘Yeah, I missed living with you guys, so I thought, why not?’

Aren’t I the best?’

Nux questioned, of course, his target wasn’t the one he was talking to, but someone else.

‘Well, I guess you still think about us.’

Felberta spoke.

There was a small smile on her face while she signed the documents in front of her.

She may not show it openly like Skyla, but everyone knew that she was very happy about this.

However,

‘But you, Miss Intelligent, you can’t come here due to, well, you know, reasons. The same goes for you, Allura.’

Ember muttered.

‘Don’t worry, I am a very patient woman, I can wait for as long as it is required.’

Allura answered without hesitation.

‘Of course you wouldn’t have any problem.’

Thyra snorted.

‘Heh, she would be dying soon, after all. A dead person has no wants.’

Edda chuckled.

Allura’s smile widened,

‘Well, I am different from others,

I will have many many needs once I die.’

‘Fufufu~ You are too perverted, Allura.’

Edda laughed.

‘...I don’t want to hear that from someone like you.’

Allura replied.

‘Fufufu~’

Edda chuckled again.

‘...’

The two of them were chuckling and giggling, however, someone inside the room didn’t share that happiness.

‘Amaya, I promise I will make it up to you somehow.’

‘Don’t worry about it, I can understand.’

‘...’

Other girls turned silent.

They have been talking with each other for a long while now, therefore, they knew that this wasn't Amaya's normal response.

Right now, they were actually pitying the girl.

However, Amaya's next words changed their minds.

‘The one whose love is the strongest is often the one who sacrifices the most.’

‘...’

The other women who heard Amaya's words could feel their faces twitching.

‘Since I love you the most compared to anyone in this world, I have to make this sacrifice for the sake of our future plans and happiness.’

‘Bitch...’

‘Fucking bitch...’

‘Hmph.’

Others turned their head away even though they knew that Amaya won't be able to see a thing.

‘Still, I promise I will make it up to you.’

Nux spoke in a serious tone.

‘I believe you.’

Amaya replied with a small smile.

‘I believe you with all my heart.’

The smile on her face stayed the same, however, the intensity in her eyes...

Felt different.

It felt a little intimidating.

‘Mhm, you won’t have to wait for long.’

Nux, however, wasn’t intimidated at all. Rather, he only felt closer and closer to Amaya.

He was changing as well.

‘So? When are we going to leave?’

Felberta questioned.

‘Hmm? You haven’t packed up already? I am already ready to leave.’

Skyla spoke with a smile.

‘A-Already?’

Felberta was shocked.

‘Uhh... Are we not leaving right now...?’

Even Sister Lane is ready with her stuff.’

‘Lane? You as well?’

‘Umm... I am ready as well.’

Edda nodded as well.

Felberta just blinked a few times and then, she sighed and stood up.

“What happened, Lady Felberta?”

Joyab questioned.

“This is enough for today,

Also, I won't be coming tomorrow and a few days after that.”

Joyab frowned.

Chapter 365

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

“Who is it?”

“It’s me, Teacher Arvina.”

Nux informed.

“Nux?”

Arvina frowned.

“Come in.”

She ordered.

Nux then opened the door and walked into Arvina’s office.

“What is it? Didn’t you just leave half an hour ago? Why are you here again?”

Arvina questioned with a frown on her face.

“Do you not like me being inside your office, Teacher Arvina?”

Nux questioned with a dramatically sad face.

“...”

Arvina looked at Nux with a deadpan look on her face.

“That is correct, I do not like your presence at all.”

She replied.

“Ahh! What have I done to ever deserve such hate from this cruel world?”

Nux placed his right hand on his chest, raised his left hand in the air, and delivered his dialogue efficiently.

Arvina facepalmed.

“Alright, you might have a lot of time in your hand, but I am not free. Tell me what you are here for.”

She questioned.

“Well, the thing I talked about before.”

“About your lovers?”

“Yes...”

They are here...”

Nux smiled.

“...”

Again, Arvina turned silent.

She didn't say a word and just continued to stare at Nux and 2 minutes later, when she finally registered this news, she replied.

“Already?”

“Well... yeah...”

Nux replied as he pointed his at the door.

At the same time, the door opened and 5 beautiful women walked in.

“Thank you for taking care of Nux all this while, Teacher Arvina.”

One of the women spoke.

“ ... ”

Arvina, however, didn't reply.

Or more precisely, she was too shocked to say anything.

She stayed like that for 5 minutes, her eyes shifting from Nux to his women, then returning back to Nux and repeating.

In the end, when she finally let everything sink inside her head, she calmed down (acted as if she calmed down) and questioned.

“Are Expert Stage Cultivators so common now?”

Hearing those words, Nux chuckled,

“Well, they are my women, they have to be special compared to others, right?”

“But how is every single one of your lovers an Expert Stage Cultivator? Just how is this possible!? And why do I not know about any of them!?”

Most Expert Stage Cultivators were well-known people.

Even Wandering Cultivators who aren't affiliated with anyone were popular because of how strong they were.

After all, there were only around 50-60 Expert Stage Cultivators living inside the Skyfall Kingdom.

They were rarest of the rare.

And right now, Arvina was seeing 5 of these 'Rare' existences in front of her and she didn't know any of them.

Just what was going on here?

“Well, we don’t like much attention. So not many people know about us.

I hope you will keep our meeting a secret as well.

Not like I need to say much about that, since you are already hiding Nux’s secret.”

The woman smiled.

“ ...”

Arvina looked at Felberta and narrowed her eyes.

“You...

Have we ever met before?”

“That was rude of me, I should have introduced myself first.

My name is Felberta Leander.

She is Skyla Leander.

She is Lane Leander.

She is Edda Leander,

And she is Thyra Leander.”

Hearing her words, Arvina narrowed her eyes.

“I was told that you guys are his lovers.”

“We are.”

Felberta nodded.

“Then why are your nam-”

Arvina wanted to question, however,

“We will be getting married soon. So it doesn’t matter.”

Skyla, who already understood what she was thinking answered with a smile on her face.

Hearing those words, a smile appeared on Nux’s face and he nodded his head.

“Indeed, we will get married soon.”

His other women smiled as well.

“Why are there only 5 women? Didn’t you say you have 9 lovers?”

Arvina questioned.

“I do have 9 lovers, these are 5 of them. Ember is in her room right now, as for the other three, well, they are a bit busy so they won’t be coming here.”

Nux answered.

Arvina nodded in understanding, and then, her eyes fell on a certain girl, who had tanned skin, white-pink hairs, and pink-purple eyes, tan skin wasn’t rare, however, those hairs and eyes, Arvina has seen them before.

Not only that, but even the name of this woman matched a woman who Arvina knew.

However, Arvina also knew that the woman in front of her couldn’t possibly be the woman she was thinking about. That was because,

The woman she was thinking about was already dead.

“What about you? Why have you hidden your face?”

“I don’t like to show my face to others, I hope you understand,” Edda answered.

Arvina was now even more suspicious, however, thinking that it would be rude to ask her to remove her mask, she backed off.

“I understand.”

However, suddenly, another question popped up in her mind.

“How did you people enter the Academy?”

Entering the academy wasn't difficult, however, if 5 unknown Expert Stage Cultivators enter the academy without prior notice like these 5 women have, there will be a big commotion for sure.

Even the Head Master of the Academy would have to personally come out and deal with the situation accordingly.

Therefore, Arvina couldn't understand why nothing has happened yet.

“We sneaked in.”

Thyra was the one who answered this question.

“You sneaked in?”

Arvina frowned.

“As she said, we don't like to attract unnecessary attention. Therefore, we sneaked in.”

“You can do that...?”

Arvina opened her mouth in surprise.

Isn't the Academy supposed to be safe?

How did 5 Expert Stage Cultivators just sneak into the Academy like it was nothing?

Where were the guards?

What were they doing?

“It was quite easy actually.”

Thyra smiled.

Arvina finally realized.

Nux’s women were just like him.

Fucking monsters.

Although they weren’t as young as Nux, they were still pretty young compared to other Cultivators.

Therefore, for dealing with them, Arvina used the same strategy.

“Ahh, I still haven’t prepared any rooms for you people.”

“You don’t have to worry about that, Sister Arvina, we can adjust in Sister Ember’s room for a while.”

Skyla answered with her usual smile.

However, Arvina frowned.

“Sister?”

Chapter 366

“You don’t have to worry about that, Sister Arvina, we can adjust in Sister Ember’s room for a while.”

“Sister?”

Arvina frowned.

Skyla’s face changed.

She couldn’t believe she blurted that out loud.

Arvina is her sister, that was not a lie.

However, that was something that would happen in the future! Not now!

She can’t spoil the future like that!

Skyla wanted to slap herself for this blunder.

However, right now, the more important thing was to deal with this situation.

“Ah, I apologize for her rudeness, Skyla here has this bad habit of making new Sisters wherever she goes.”

However, Skyla didn’t have to worry about that since Felberta stepped in on time.

“Hmm? Making new sisters?”

Felberta waved her hands.

Hearing that, Arvina shrugged her shoulders and smiled,

“Well, it is always better to build connections with someone as talented as her.”

Then, she turned toward Skyla and nodded,

“You can call me Sister Arvina if you want.”

Skyla’s eyes brightened up as she heard those words, then, a little evil smile momentarily appeared on her face as she continued,

“Then I will call you that, Sister Arvina.

Today and in the Future.

You should call me Sister Skyla as well, it would be helpful in the future. The faster you start the quicker will you get used to it, after all.”

Hearing those words, Felberta, Thyra and Lane smiled a little as well.

“Hmm?”

Arvina frowned.

For some reason, she felt that she and all the other people in this room were out of sync.

It was as if they were talking about completely different things.

However, in the end, she just shook her head and stopped thinking about it.

It must be her misunderstanding.

“Teacher Arvina.”

Suddenly, Nux called out.

Arvina looked at him.

“Can I take them to Ember’s room?”

“Ah, sure. You do that and I’ll make some arrangements for them before the night.”

“Hmmm, we can stay in one room as well,

Sevensome doesn’t sound bad.”

Is it even necessary to mention who spoke these words?

However, even Edda was cautious enough to not speak her last line loudly and only muttered it to herself.

However, Felberta, who was standing right beside her was able to hear what she said, though as someone who was already used to this woman, she didn’t show any reaction.

“No, I cannot do that, you are my guest, I will make sure that your stay here is comfortable.”

Arvina answered.

Nux smiled,

“Teacher Arvina, I know I have said this before, but you really are the best.”

“Oh? Even better than your Teacher Evane?”

Arvina questioned playfully.

“Ember must be waiting, I will take my leave now, Teacher Arvina.”

Acting like he didn’t hear those words, Nux turned around and left the room. His women followed behind him as well.

And Arvina, well, her smile faded away when everyone left her room.

‘Ember, my dear friend Ember,

You have no clue what kind of freaky family you have become a part of.’

...

On the other side, once Nux and the others entered Ember’s room, Ember, who was sitting on her chair stood up with a smile on her face.

“It is nice to meet you, ‘Sisters’”

Ember smiled and at the same time, a fierce Aura mixed with Killing Dense Killing Intent released from her aura.

Felberta, Skyla, Lane, and Edda were a little overwhelmed by that Aura. Even Thyra was affected a little, however, she didn’t show anything on her face.

Nux, of course, didn’t feel a thing.

Ember continued to observe her new ‘sisters’ and once she was satisfied, the oppressing Aura disappeared.

“So? What do you think about your Sisters?”

Thyra walked toward Ember with a smile on her face.

“They are good.”

Ember smiled.

“Especially them.”

She then pointed at 2 women, one was Skyla and the other was,

Felberta.

“Hmm? Felberta?”

Thyra raised her eyebrow.

Skyla, she understands, the woman was skilled. Felberta, however, wasn't very gifted in that department.

“She has the Will.”

Ember, however, thought otherwise.

“Initially, she was the one who was affected the most by my Aura, however, her strong Will didn't allow her to step back.

She faced my Aura with just her Willpower alone.

I won't be surprised if she surpasses all of them in the future.”

Ember was full of praise.

“What are you two talking about?”

Felberta, however, didn't like this situation one bit.

This woman was praising her, she could understand that.

However, Felberta could notice that she was still looking down on her.

It wasn't intentional, it was an unconscious action but that just makes it even more frustrating.

It was as if Ember already knew that she was better than everyone present in this room and only looked at the rest of them from afar.

“”Nothing””

Thyra and Ember answered at the same time.

Seeing this, Ember frowned.

‘It finally happened huh...’

She realized.

In the end, another Harem Faction besides hers was formed.

Felberta knew this would happen sooner or later, actually, she even felt strange that it hadn't happened already.

However, the attitudes, goals, behaviors, and thoughts of all the women who became Nux's lovers were so different from each other that no other faction was formed.

Today, however, things changed.

Second Faction was formed.

“Heh.”

Suddenly, a small smile appeared on Felberta's face.

And as if sensing what she was thinking, Skyla and Lane smiled a little as well.

Especially Skyla, whose cute eyes were shining brightly.

“It is nice to meet you, Sister Ember.”

She spoke.

“It is nice to meet you as well, Skyla.”

For some reason, Ember's eyes turned a little warm when she spoke with Skyla.

Yes, even she was affected by Skyla's charm.

“I wish to spar against you someday, Sister Ember.”

Skyla spoke with an excited look on her face.

“I will be looking forward to that.”

Ember smiled.

“You should be.”

Felberta smiled.

“Don’t worry, we are always ready.”

Thyra smiled.

“Heh.”

Everyone in the room smiled at each other.

However, Nux could see the sparks that were appearing between their line of sight, and seeing this, he couldn’t help but smile.

“You guys sure are getting along.”

Chapter 367

“You guys sure are getting along.”

Nux spoke with a small smile on his face.

“Heh, we sure are.”

Felberta smiled.

Nux’s smile didn’t change.

He then turned towards Thyra and extended his hand,

“My Lovely Assassin, can you give it to me for a second?”

Thyra nodded with a smile on her face, the ring on her finger shined and she gave the book that appeared in her hand to Nux.

“Thank you.”

Thyra nodded again.

Nux then turned towards his other women and started,

“So, I believe you all know about Body Cultivation, correct?”

“The second path of Cultivation. Something that no one in this world knows about.”

Felberta answered.

“That is correct, and well, I found a Cultivation Technique that can help you walk in this unknown, undiscovered path.”

Nux smiled as he showed the book in his to Felberta, Lane, Skyla, and Edda.

Felberta's eyes shined when she heard those words,

“So rather than wasting time when you are not around, we can use this technique to enter the Realm of Body Cultivation.

Isn't that amazing?”

Even Skyla's eyes were shining now.

“Yes, that is correct.”

Nux nodded.

“So what we are going to do now is that we will copy this technique and distribute a copy to everyone...”

Nux continued and seeing this, a small frown appeared on Thyra's face.

This...

Nux was taking things into his own hands for some reason.

Was it not her duty to distribute the technique and train all of them?

So why is Nux...

‘Is it because of this little quarrel?’

A thought appeared in her mind, however, she soon disregarded this possibility.

When it came to his women, Nux was a direct man, if he has any problems with anything, he would say that directly, he won't be standing there smiling like that.

‘It was all fine when he gave that book to me an hour ago...’

Thyra started analyzing the situation.

It would be a lie to say that she wasn't affected by Nux's decision at all. She only wanted to help him and make his life easier, however, somewhere in her heart, she felt that Nux stepping up like that was a good thing.

"I will be counting on you guys to copy it, I need 11 copies, and I need them as soon as possible."

"Don't worry, I'll deal with that." Felberta stepped forward.

Nux nodded, then, he continued,

"Also, I want you guys to give the weapon you use."

"Huh?"

Ember frowned.

"Wh-"

She wanted to question, but,

"Here."

Skyla walked towards Nux and gave her daggers to him with a big smile on her face.

Nux smiled, took her weapons, and patted her head.

"Hehe~"

Skyla grabbed this opportunity to sneak her way toward his chest.

Her intentions were now clear to everyone present in this room,

She would be occupying this place for a while now.

Nux, of course, didn't reject her at all.

He would need the heart of a monster to do that, after all.

He just moved his left hand around Skylar's waist and started kneading her bud.

“Anhhaha~”

Skylar laughed adorably.

“I underestimated her.”

Ember, who was looking at the sight in front of her muttered with a solemn look on her face.

“Don't let her appearance fool you, she's a lot smarter than she shows. Though her brain only works with things related to Nux.”

Thyra commented.

“Tsk Tsk” Edda snorted.

Lane, like always, didn't say anything, however, she took this opportunity to walk toward Nux and gave him her sword.

Nux smiled, accepted the sword, and the Sword owner who was now hugging her just like Skylar.

This little session soon turned into a competition and a minute later, Nux was enjoying a mass hug with 6 beautiful women at the same time.

‘Heaven indeed.’

Nux thought inwardly and smiled.

Everyone stayed in this position for a while and soon, Skylar, who was in the most comfortable position after Nux, spoke.

“Nux...”

“Mhm?”

“I want to meet Sister Evane.”

Felberta and Lane rolled their eyes when they heard those words.

“Don’t you have Ember already?”

Felberta questioned with a frown.

“Huh? Me? What?”

Ember frowned as well.

“Don’t worry about it.”

Thyra shook her head.

“Well, I do have Sister Ember... but that’s just for tonight...”

Skyla replied.

“Heh, I am sure you can extend this to 10 to 20 nights with ease.”

Felberta chuckled and Lane nodded her head in support.

Even Thyra and Edda were nodding their heads.

“But... it would still be better to have Sister Evane as well right?”

Skyla smiled.

“What a greedy and horny woman.”

Edda chuckled.

“Hey Hey Hey, w-what are you guys talking about?”

Ember, who was completely thrown off by this conversation questioned.

From her voice, it looked like she was panicking for some reason.

“I am telling you this right now, I won’t do anything strange no matter what.

My body belongs to Nux and Nux alone.”

“Huh?” This time, Skyla and the others frowned.

Nux realized what was happening and why Ember was acting like that, however, he didn’t bother to say anything.

He was too busy enjoying this sensational feeling right now.

‘Maybe Edda is right.

Sevensome doesn’t sound bad at all.

I now certainly have the stamina for it.’

A small smile appeared on his face.

A few seconds later, Felberta understood what happened as well and a disgusted expression appeared on her face.

“Just what in the hell are you thinking, Ember? Why is that the first thing that came to your mind?”

“...it’s you guys who were saying it like that.”

“We were not.”

Felberta shook her head.

By now, everyone understood what happened.

“Sister Ember, you don’t need to worry, I don’t need anyone besides Nux as well.”

“Then what were you talking about?”

Ember questioned.

“Girls talk~”

Skyla laughed like a little devil.

Everyone in the room found that adorable.

“What do you mean?”

Ember questioned.

“You will find it soon enough.

Fufufu~”

Skyla laughed, then, she turned towards Nux and questioned,

“So? Can I meet Sister Evane tomorrow?”

“Of course, you can, my cute little maid.”

Chapter 368

“I can feel it, this would be the best painting we have ever made,”

Nux spoke with a confident smile on his face.

Hearing those words, Evane just smiled and shook her head.

“Do you want to say, the best painting ‘I’ have ever made?”

She questioned with a soft chuckle.

“Whatever do you mean?”

Nux couldn’t understand.

“You haven’t even touched the paintbrush since ‘we’ started this painting this, Nux. All you are doing is...”

“Oh C’mon, don’t act like I am not doing anything.”

Nux smiled as he moved his chest towards Evane’s back, while his hands moved around her waist slowly, and alluringly.

“Mmhmmm.”

Evane’s back arched up as she took a deep breath.

“Tell me, what have you done then?”

She questioned.

Nux then placed his chin on Evane’s shoulder and answered,

“I made sure that your state of mind is in the best possible condition with my intensive care.”

“My state of mind?”

Evane smiled as she questioned.

“Well, of course, you aren’t going to claim that my presence here means nothing to you, right?”

“Of course not. Your presence means a lot to me, however,

I still don’t see how that is considered as you helping me in this painting in any way?”

“Well, as I said, it’s your state of mind.

With me here, you feel different, you feel comfortable, you feel calm, you feel good, you feel fresh,

With my presence, you feel relaxed.

It may not look much from the outer perspective, but trust me, it is helping you a lot.

So make sure to always call me whenever you start your painting, alright?”

Nux whispered softly while he rested her head on Evane’s head.

Heating his words, Evane just smiled.

Although she didn’t know if her art improved or not, one thing was sure, Nux’s presence here indeed lightened her heart.

Especially his gentle touch.

That made her feel protected.

She treasured that feeling.

“Oh? But how am I going to call you?”

“That is a simple task, all you have to do is think about me in your mind, and I will appear right in front of you.”

“And how are you going to do that?”

Evane raised her eyebrow while she continued to paint on the canvas.

“With the power of Love~”

Nux answered dramatically.

Evane shook her head, then, she balanced her head with Nux’s.

“Alright then, from now on, I will use the power of love to contact you, I hope you will answer me.”

Saying that, Evane turned her head a little and then,

She gave a small peck on Nux’s cheek, which, actually surprised Nux a lot.

“So kissing is allowed now?”

He questioned.

“A-As long as you don’t go overboard...”

Evane answered with a red face.

It has only been a few days since the two of them decided to become lovers and all this while, their relationship has grown a lot deeper than before.

Therefore, Evane wanted to take things even forwards, therefore, she allowed these little kisses.

Was she going too fast?

She was asking this question to herself as well, however, in the end, she decided to place her trust in Nux.

“Heeeheeeheee”

Who, right now, was laughing creepily.

“What happened?”

Evane questioned.

“Nothing, nothing happened at all. You can continue to paint, don’t worry.”

Nux answered with a playful smile on his face.

Evane frowned.

She was sure that something did happen, however, in the end, she just shook her head and decided to focus on her painting.

However, as soon as she turned her face toward the painting,

Nux attacked and started kissing her cheeks as if he was a hyena who was munching on its prey.

“Stooopp~”

Evane felt ticklish all over her body and told him to stop.

Nux, however, didn’t stop and continued.

“Stooopp~ Hahaha~”

Evane laughed out loud.

She tried to move away, however, Nux tightened his arms around her, he even moved his legs around hers, locking her legs as well.

Right now, Evane was completely at her mercy and Nux enjoyed this moment to the fullest.

“Hahahaha~”

Evane continued laughing as this ticklish sensation only got stronger and only after 5 minutes passed did Nux finally decide to stop.

“Haah... Haahh... Haah...”

Evane took deep breaths.

“That was good, thanks for the meal.”

Nux smiled.

“Y-You... you are a brute...”

Evane pouted.

“You are the one who gave the permission.”

Nux replied with an Evil smile.

“I take back my permission.”

“You can’t do that.

Extra charges to take back the permission you gave.”

“W-What charges.”

“A kiss on the lips.”

Evane’s face turned redder.

“S-Shameless...”

“Hahaha~”

Nux laughed out.

The two of them continued to chat like that, and Evane soon shifted her focus on the painting. Nux, as usual, continued to enjoy the feeling of cuddling a beautiful woman like her.

The time passed and suddenly, Nux called out.

“Evane...”

“Hmm? What is it?”

Evane, who was absorbed in her painting questioned without looking back.

“Tomorrow, I want you to come with me and meet a few people.”

“Hmm? Meet who?”

“My other lovers.”

Nux answered honestly.

Evane froze.

10 seconds later, she slowly turned around and tilted her head,

“Y-Your lovers...?”

“Yes. I want you to meet them.”

Evane frowned.

“You have more lovers other than me?”

Hearing that question, Nux frowned.

This...

Did he just do something stupid?

But how?

Having a harem in this world was common, very common.

A man having other lovers was not frowned upon, rather, it showed that the man is capable, or had a significant status.

Therefore, Nux couldn't understand why Evane was acting like this.

“Yes, I do.”

In the end, Nux just decided to answer honestly.

“...why didn't you tell me this before?”

After a long silence, Evane questioned.

“I was afraid.”

“Afraid that I won't allow you to have other lovers?”

“Afraid that you won't give me a chance to be with you.”

“...”

Evane turned silent.

Nux frowned as well.

He did not like where this was going.

He was now cursing his past self for doing something so stupid.

“...alright, I'll meet them.”

Suddenly, Evane answered.

However, Nux could feel that something was wrong.

He tried to tighten his hug around Evane, however, Evane stood up.

“I think we have painted enough for the day.

I had a tiring day, so I will go and sleep now.”

Saying that, Evane turned around.

Chapter 369

“Alright, this will be enough for today. We will be ending our class here.”

Evane spoke with a small smile on her face. She then looked at the students in front of her, her eyes momentarily stopped on Nux, before they continued to observe other students.

Once she was sure that no one had any doubts, she turned around and left the classroom.

The other students stood up as well. Nux hurriedly left the class and chased after Evane.

“Teacher Evane.”

He called out.

Evane paused, she looked at Nux, and then, she smiled.

Nux smiled back.

Then without wasting any more time, he questioned.

“You are coming with me, correct?”

“As I said yesterday, I am. Don’t worry.”

“So when are you free?” Nux questioned.

“When are they free?”

“Well, they are free right now.”

“But I can’t leave the academy right now, I still have a few more classes later.”

Evane frowned.

“You don’t have to leave the academy.”

Nux replied.

“Huh?”

Evane’s frown deepened.

“They are here in the academy.”

Nux answered.

Evane’s eyes widened,

‘Wait... his lovers... is he talking about the girls in our class?’

Evane realized how strange it would be to share a man with her students for the rest of her life.

However, she soon recalled that the ‘man’ she was talking about was her student as well...

The strange one here wasn’t her students, a student being in a relationship with another student was completely normal. She, on the other hand, was a teacher who was in a relationship with her student. She was the strange one.

Thinking about that, Evane felt even worse.

“Shall we go now?”

Nux, who seemed oblivious to her thoughts, questioned.

“Where are we meeting, the Academy’s Canteen?”

“Hmm? Of course not. They can’t roam around here and there freely, they are not the students of this Academy after all.”

Nux smiled.

“H-Huh?”

Evane was now confused.

Her mind then started different possibilities and soon, another answer popped up in her mind and she widened her eyes,

“T-They sneaked in here?”

“Bingo.”

Nux smiled widely.

“IT’S TRUE!?”

Evane couldn’t believe what she was hearing.

One had to know, the Royal Academy had a very high level of security. If anyone sneaked inside and got caught, the punishment will be very harsh.

One might even lose his or her life.

“Why would you tell them to do something like this!? Do you know how serious the consequences will be!?”

Evane questioned.

“Teacher Evane, you worry too much.”

Nux however, just shrugged.

“I am not worrying too much!

It is you who is taking this too lightly!”

Evane shouted.

However, she quickly realized they were gardening attention, therefore, she lowered her voice.

“You might be an Expert Stage CULTviator, but if you or anyone related to you breaks the Academy rules, you won’t be able to save them from punishment.

Remember, the Headmaster of the Academy is a King Stage CULTviator.”

“Teacher Evane, as I said, you are worrying too much, just come with me.”

Nux just smiled.

Evane realized that he wouldn’t understand, therefore, she shook her head in defeat.

“Alright whatever, just take me there now. We don’t have much time to waste here.”

She wanted to end this as soon as possible.

She knows that the faster she ends the meeting, the faster they would be able to leave the Academy, and the lower the risk of them getting caught would be.

Nux smiled, he wanted to grab her hand, however, there were too many eyes here.

He can’t do something so lewd in public.

He was shy.

Nux chuckled inwardly, then, he started walking while Evane followed behind.

However, as they continued to walk, a frown appeared on Evane’s face.

“Nux...”

She called out.

“Yes?”

“Where are going...?”

Evane questioned with a doubtful look on her face.

She knew where this path led, however, she highly doubted that this is what they had to do, however, Nux’s next answer cleared her doubts.

“To Teacher Arvina’s mansion.”

Or rather... made her even more doubtful and fearful, even.

“W-Why are we going there?”

They are hiding near Teacher Arvina’s mansion? They are hiding near the Vice Headmaster’s Mansion!? That was the best place they could find in this huge Academy!?

Evane couldn’t believe it.

She was panicking a little.

However, her little panicking soon turned into big panicking when Nux directly entered Arvina’s mansion.

‘They are hiding inside!?’

This was ridiculous.

Wait...

This was too ridiculous...

Evane realized something.

“Why are we here?”

“Hmm? To meet them of course.”

Nux answered naturally.

“But it’s Teacher Arvina’s mansion.”

“I was unable to think of a better place than this. It’s big, it’s comfortable, so they won’t have any problems living here.”

Nux answered.

Evane narrowed her eyes,

“Does Teacher Arvina know about this?”

“Of course she does. I asked her permission before I brought them here.”

“And she agreed?”

Evane was surprised.

Arvina wasn’t someone who would agree to something like that.

She was a very strict person.

“Of course she did, I am her favorite student, after all.”

Nux smiled.

“Are you not my favorite student?”

Evane narrowed her eyes even more.

“Heh, our relation is a lot closer than that now, won’t you agree?”

Nux turned around and smiled wickedly.

Evane blushed a little.

“As I said, I have the permission, you don’t have to worry, let’s just go and meet them. They are very excited to see you as well.”

Nux chuckled and then he turned around.

Evane continued to follow him and soon, they were standing in front of a door.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

“It’s me.”

Nux spoke.

The doors were quickly opened and soon, a rocket was shot toward Nux.

Nux caught the flying rocket and patted her head.

“I missed you~”

Skyla spoke as she snuggled close to his chest.

“I missed you as well.” Nux smiled.

Skyla’s eyes then finally fell on Evane, who was standing beside Nux and she smiled even more,

“Are you Sister Evane?”

“S-Sister?”

Chapter 370

“Are you Sister Evane?”

“S-Sister?”

Evane was surprised.

“Hmmm?”

Skyla frowned.

Arvina being surprised by that, she could understand.

But why was Evane getting surprised by something like this?

“Well, you are Nux’s wife,

I am Nux’s wife,

Since both of us are his wives,

Doesn’t that make us sisters?”

“W-W-Wife...”

Evane’s face turned red.

Seeing this, a playful smile appeared on Skyla’s face.

“Fufufu~ You look so cute when you blush.

Fufufu~”

Skyla started copying Edda’s laugh.

Hearing her words, Evane blushed even more.

“Skyla, shouldn’t you introduce yourself before teasing your sister?”

Felberta spoke from behind.

“Oops.”

Skyla smiled, then, she turned towards Evane and patted her chest.

“My name is Skyla Leander, it is nice to meet you, Sister Evane.”

“N-Nice to meet you as well. I am Evane Skyfall.”

Although she was a little flustered, she quickly put herself together and replied.

She then turned towards the others and started observing them.

“I am Felberta Leander.”

Seeing this as an opportunity, Felberta introduced herself.

“Lane Leander.”

Lane did the same and the others followed as well.

“Edda Leander.”

“Thyra Leander.”

“Ember Leander.”

Hearing this, a big smile appeared on Nux’s face. Of course, Thyra didn’t use to take this opportunity as well.

“Heeh? Since when have you become a Leander.”

She teased as she turned towards Ember.

“What are you talking about?”

Ember looked at Thyra and frowned, then, her eyes turned towards Nux and she questioned.

“Am I not your lovely wife as well?”

“Of course, you are, my love.”

Nux answered with a big, satisfied smile on his face.

Ember’s smile widened as she turned her head back to Thyra,

“Hear that? I am a Leander as well.”

“Tsk.”

Thyra snorted.

She wanted to see Ember blush, but...

It seems that it would be a hard task.

She has noticed that Ember is getting increasingly bolder every day. Yes, she was a bold General before, however, this woman was a newbie when it came to sex and relationships just a few days ago. Thyra couldn’t believe how quickly she adapted and changed herself.

‘Now this bitch acts like she has years of experience. Tsk Tsk’

Thyra snorted inwardly.

Of course, she completely ignored the fact that she was the same as Ember a few months ago.

Nobody should know about that.

So, Shhhh.

Seeing the two women talking to each other like that, a surprised look appeared on Evane’s face. She weakly pointed her trembling finger at Ember and questioned.

“A-A-Aren’t you G-General Ember W-Windstar?”

Yes, she knew who this woman was!

How could she not!?

Well, she had her doubts before, but when she introduced herself, she was even surer.

Ember Windstar!

Just what is she doing here!?

“Hmm? Well, I did go by that name a month ago.”

Ember nodded.

“W-What are you doing here?”

Evane questioned.

“Hmm? Didn’t I say it before? I am his wife. That’s why I am here.”

“...”

Evane was speechless.

She then looked at Nux and found him smiling at her.

“W-When d-did you two meet? Aren’t you from the Woods Dynasty? How do you know each other?”

She questioned.

“Hmm? Did you forget?”

I left the Academy to participate in a War.

I brought the General back as my price.”

Nux winked at Ember.

The previous General just shook her head and smiled.

“Though I will admit, it is surprising that Princess Evane knows about me.”

“H-How could I not!?”

You are one of the Strongest King Stage Cultivators in this world!

Even the Headmaster of the Academy might not be your match!”

“Huh? Why are you comparing me with that Baldy? I can defeat someone like him with my eyes closed.”

Ember seemed offended.

“H-Huh?”

Evane was confused.

“You can?”

“Hmm? What’s so hard about that? Even I can Kill that baldy.”

Evane’s eyes then fell on the woman who was trying to tease the General before and what she saw in her eyes was genuine confusion.

Evane then looked at the others inside that room and...

None of them looked surprised.

‘This is a King Stage Cultivator we are talking about! Why is everyone so calm and unbothered about it!?’

“I think you are missing the point here, Princess Evane.”

Suddenly, Ember stepped forward.

“That man named Baldy, he is not strong.

The only good thing about him is his high Talent. He only cultivates, he never trains. Someone like his can only overpower those weaker than him.

Arv is much better than him if you want to talk about strength.”

Ember spoke, and Thyra who was standing beside her nodded her head in agreement. Others didn't seem like they disagreed either.

Hearing these words, Evane was filibustered...

‘His name is not Baldy...

Also, why are these people so laid back!?

Just how strong are th-

“!!!”

Evane's eyes widened in surprise.

‘Everyone in this room is a monster!’

Evane couldn't believe her eyes.

General Ember, she knew about her already so that's fine, but others weren't normal either.

Everyone else in this room was an Expert Stage Cultivator!

Even that cute and tiny woman who was hugging Nux was the same!

That cute and tiny woman was a lot stronger than her!

And she was younger than her!

Just like most of the women in this room.

‘Just what the hell is this place!?’

Why are so many talented women gathered in a single room?

Why do I not about any of them except the General?’

Evane’s head was a mess.

Then, her eyes fell on Nux was patting that cute girl with a smile on his face.

Nux’s eyes fell on Evane as well and he smiled,

“What happened, Evane? Do you feel a little uncomfortable?”

“N-No, I am alright.

I am just a little overwhelmed.”

Suddenly, Evane felt a tap on her shoulder, she turned around, and there she saw Felberta standing behind her with a smile on her face.

“Here, you should have a seat.”

Evane smiled back and complied.

The others settled down as well, Skylia placed her chair close to Evane and smiled,

“It is very nice to meet you, Sister Evane. I want to talk to you, a lot.”

“I feel the same way... Skylia...”

Chapter 371

“So Royce, the boy Nux saved was your son?”

Evane questioned with a surprised look on her face.

“He is.”

Felberta smiled.

“Wait...”

Evane’s eyes then widened in surprise.

“No, it is not what you thinking.”

Felberta, however, shook her head before Evane could say anything out loud.

“He is my son, not Nux’s.

I was a Widow before I met Nux.”

Felberta answered with a smile on her face.

“Ahh,”

Evane understood.

“So that’s why he decided to go after Candice.”

“No, that is not the only reason.”

Nux spoke.

“Hmm? What’s the other reason?”

Evane questioned back.

“She was rude to the teacher I had a crush on.”

“Teacher you had a crush on...”

Evane frowned, however, just a second later, her eyes widened, and then, she blushed.

“Y-You...”

“Ahahaha~ Sister Evane, you are so cute~”

Skyla couldn't control herself and laughed out loud.

“She is like an Apple. Hahaha~”

Other women in the room had smiles on their faces as well.

“Wait...”

Suddenly, Skyla recalled something.

“Sister Evane, didn't you say you had another class? When is it?”

“!!!”

Evane's eyes widened in surprise.

She then quickly looked at the time and then she stood up!

“It has already started 10 minutes ago! I completely forgot about it!”

Evane was already at the door when she ended the sentence, however, just as she was about to leave, she paused and turned back.

“Skyla... I want to meet you... after class. Is that okay?”

“Hmm? Sure.”

Skyla was quick to nod.

“Alright.”

Evane nodded and then, she left.

“Tsk Tsk, another woman charmed by Skyla’s cuteness. You little devil.”

Felberta snorted.

“Well, that is just how strong my Skyla’s Charm is.”

Nux smiled.

“Skylaaa~”

Suddenly, Skyla felt a hand on her shoulder,

She turned around and saw a tanned skin woman wearing a mask on her face looking at her.

“What is it, Sister Edda?” Skyla questioned.

“Don’t you dare talk about the ‘Thing’ when you are with her okay?”

“I-I won’t.”

Skyla smiled back.

“No, no, that’s not how it works.

You have to promise me.

Promise me that you will not talk about the ‘Thing’ with her.

If you break it, you have to give your session time to me for 2 days.”

“What would I get in return?”

Skyla questioned.

“You will get my eternal Love.”

Edda smiled as her eyes shined perversely.

“I don’t want that.”

A disgusted look appeared on Skylia’s face.

“I will keep my promise, and in return, you stay away from me.

I am Nux and Nux’s alone.”

“Deal.”

Edda smiled back.

“HmMMM.”

Suddenly, Skylia placed her hand on her chin.

“What are you thinking about, Skylia?”

Nux questioned with a curious look on her face.

“Hmm, I was thinking... that if I have to meet Sister Evane later...

Then how about we start with my session first?”

“Huh? How is that fair? It is my turn today.”

Thyra complained.

“Oh please, you had your time with him for so long.”

Felberta stepped in.

“So you are on her side?”

Thyra questioned.

“No, I am on Justice’s side.”

Felberta smiled.

“Tsk.”

Thyra snorted.

She knew this woman all too well to know what she was thinking.

‘Siding with you faction member I see. Hmph.’

“Well, we can do that, we don’t know how long it would take for you to return, after all. Thyra, my lovely assassin, can you be a little considerate and exchange with Skyla?”

“Whatever.”

Thyra just nodded.

In front of this man, she couldn’t say no.

Well, in the end, Thyra stopped thinking about it.

It was better to think about the compensation she would ask for since she sacrificed so much.

‘Roll play doesn’t sound like a bad option...’

...

2 Hours quickly passed by.

Right now, Evane was sitting in front of Skyla, inside the room Arvina gave to Skyla.

“What did you want to talk about, Sister Ember?”

Skyla questioned.

A serious look then appeared on Evane's face and she questioned,

“Doesn't that bother you?”

“Hmm? What?”

“Calling me Sister.”

Skyla frowned.

“Why would that bother me?”

“While I was talking to you guys, I realized something.

Not everyone refers to each other as 'Sisters'. Some of them don't even have a good relationship with each other.

You are the only one who seems to get along with everyone and refer to them as 'Sister'.

Doesn't that bother you?

After all, no matter what, in the end, these are the women who have a relationship with your man. Shouldn't you hate them since you have to share your husband with them? Don't you want to have Nux all for yourself?”

Evane spoke what was in her heart.

Yesterday, when she realized that Nux had other lovers, she was disappointed.

She even felt a little betrayed.

She understands that having a Harem is completely normal, however, in the end, she still wanted to have Nux all for herself.

Just like how the princess had the knight all to herself in the picture she drew.

“I do not hate them.”

Skyla, however, shook her head.

“Hmm?”

Evane frowned.

“Wanting Nux all for myself, every single one of them wants to do that, of course, I am the same as well.

However, you have to think about things from Nux’s perspective as well.

Just think,

‘Will I be able to live without Nux?’

Your mind would return a big no as an answer.

I cannot live without him, I know that and I am sure that he cannot live without me either.

However, in his case, this goes further.

Just like me, he can’t live without Sister Felberta, Sister Lane, Sister Edda, Sister Thyra, Sister Ember, and you, Sister Evane. We are now part of his life. An unbreakable part of his life.

Forcing him to live without any one of us would be like breaking him.

This will only distort and destroy our relationship with him, eventually destroying us all in the process as well.

Also, you are right, some of my sisters don’t have a good relationship with each other, however, that doesn’t mean they hate each other. We all are bound together with a chain named Nux.

We may fight against each other, but we cannot hate each other.”

Chapter 372

“We may fight against each other, but we cannot hate each other,”

Skyla answered.

This was one of those rare moments when she was actually serious and wasn't just playing around.

“...”

Evane turned silent and started thinking about Skyla's answer.

A while later, she asked another question.

“You can't hate against each other, I understand.

You can't wish to have Nux all to yourself, I understand that as well.

But what about defending Nux? What about restricting him? Why not stop him from getting together with more women? Why don't you try and avoid me? Why don't you show your rejection towards me?

Why are you so good to me? Why call me 'Sister'?”

Evane still couldn't understand.

“As I said before, I won't do anything that would hurt Nux. Restricting him is impossible. With his charms, no matter where he goes, he will attract women.

Also, believe it or not, this 'restriction' you are talking about.

Nux has placed several on himself.

He may act like a pervert who is attracted to any woman he finds, however, he will not go after a woman just because of her beauty.

If that was the case, then Sister Felberta's friends, his new 'friends' he made in this academy, and even Candice,

He would have gone after every one of them.

Trust me, it is not that hard for him.

I shouldn't be saying this, but all he has to do is push a woman to a wall and most would accept him.

With his looks, talents, and strength, something like this is not difficult at all.

However, since he genuinely cares about all of us and wants to spend more time with us, he tried to limit himself."

This was something Nux has never talked about or discussed with anyone before. However, after being with him for so long, his women understood this on their own.

Nux may seem like a pervert on the outside, but inwardly, he truly loved all his women and genuinely cared about them.

Thinking about all this, a beautiful smile appeared on Skylia's face.

Then, she glanced at Evane and continued,

"Of course, there are certain women,

Women who even he cannot resist.

You are one of those.

You are someone who won his heart even though he was trying not to lose. You are someone who forced him to break his restrictions.

He won't chase after a woman that easily, he will chase after a woman after a long fight in his heart and since he is already doing so much while thinking about his relationship with us, we see no need to place any restrictions on him.

He is already a perfect husband for us, after all.”

Skyla's eyes shined beautifully.

Even Evane was taken aback by that smile on her face.

She seemed... genuinely happy.

Very happy.

However,

“Still... don't you...

Don't you want to be even more... selfish...?”

The matters regarding the heart were complicated.

These feelings... they were complicated...

Hearing Skyla's words, Ember may not want to restrict Nux anymore, however,

She still wanted to be his first woman...

She wanted to be someone who took all his firsts.

His first kiss, his first midnight cuddles, his first time, she wanted all of them.

However, knowing that someone has already taken them made her feel...

Sour...

“I can’t blame you.”

Suddenly, Skyla spoke.

“Hmm?”

“In the end, no matter what,

You are the Princess of the Strongest Kingdom in this world.”

“...what does that have to do with anything.”

“It does. A lot, actually.

What do you think a homeless man desires?”

“Huh?”

Evane frowned.

She couldn’t understand how that jumped into their conversation.

“He would desire to live like a normal, common man. A small house, food to eat, that would be enough.

Now answer this, a simple commoner, who has everything that the Homeless man desires, is he satisfied?

The answer is no he is not.

The commoner isn’t satisfied. He desires to live a life where he has a loving family, a life where he spends all his time with his children, and a loving wife.

Just like this, a man who has this all would desire money. Money with which he can buy things that would make him and his family happy.

A man who has this all would desire even more money. The man with lots of money would then desire power, he would desire to become a noble. A

Baron would desire to be a Viscount, a Viscount would desire to be a Marquee, a Marquee would desire to be a Duke, and the Duke would desire to be the King.

Even the King, the King would desire to rule the whole world.

Everyone would desire different things and the desire gets higher and higher the better your position is.

A homeless person wouldn't even dream of a partner.

I, a normal maid, only desired a normal, loving partner. Thoughts about me having him all to myself didn't even appear in my want. I was fine as long as the man is not abusive, and is sane. I had very low standards.

You, on the other hand, are the Princess,

Your desires and the standards you have set up for your future partner are too high. So high that a man like that might not even exist.

And of course, it is not your fault. If I was in your place, I would have probably done the same.”

Skyla patted Evane's shoulder.

However, Evane narrowed her eyes,

“So you are saying... that Nux is not up to the standards I have set in my mind?”

“Trust me, Nux is incomparably better than whatever standards you have set in your mind.”

Skyla was quick to deny.

There was even a rare, disdainful look on her face right now.

It was as if she wanted to say,

‘Nux doesn’t meet your standards? Who do you think you are, bitch?’

Of course, our cute Skyla wouldn’t say those words out loud.

“I do not understand... What are you trying to say... first you say my standards are high, then you say that Nux surpasses my standards...

Why are you making things more confusing than they already are?”

Chapter 373

“I do not understand... What are you trying to say... first you say my standards are high, then you say that Nux surpasses my standards...

Why are you making things so confusing?”

Evane frowned.

“Haahh...”

In the end, Skyla exhaled deeply.

She would admit, she got a little defensive when Evane said that Nux didn't meet her standards and got derailed from the topic, but seriously, shouldn't she understand it by now?

Hmph!

Skyla snorted inwardly and then, she continued,

“What I am trying to say is that,

Nux is the best man you can ever find.

However, however, you would never be able to monopolize him or restrict him because you simply do not deserve that.

He is too good for you.

Of course, the same goes for us as well, he is too good for us as well.

That is the reason why we have to share him amongst ourselves. Otherwise, it wouldn't be fair to Nux.”

“ ... ”

Evane turned silent.

Skyla's words sounded a bit harsh...

However, these harsh words answered some of the questions that were in her mind.

And at the same time, she realized,

“You really really really love him, don't you?”

Skyla's eyes shined brightly as she answered,

“He is my all.”

“...”

Evane smiled back.

Honestly, she was taken aback by that how strong the feelings behind Skyla's words were.

She doesn't think that she could say those words so strongly and admired Skyla for this.

“Why do you love him so much?”

Suddenly. Evane questioned.

“Huh?”

Skyla frowned.

“Because he cares about me?”

Skyla blurted out the first thing that came into her mind.

“Hmm? Most men take care of their women, don't they?”

“They do?”

Skyla questioned back.

“I think so?”

Evane tilted her head in confusion as well.

Do they? Or do they not?

Evane didn't really know.

“Does your father take care of your mother properly?”

Skyla questioned.

“Hmmm, not really. He practically ignores her existence. Though I can't say that my mother is any different.”

Evane answered.

“What about you?”

“I don't have parents so I don't know.”

Skyla shook her head.

“Hmmm, but I still believe that the reason you gave me was a little too bland.”

Evane muttered.

“Hmmm.”

Skyla then started thinking and soon, another answer popped inside her mind.

“Sex feels good.”

“Huh!?”

Evane’s face turned red.

“W-W-W-What are you talking about?”

“What? Don’t you agree with me? Isn’t sex the most wonderful thing in this world? Though I realized after talking with a few of my friends that it is not as pleasurable as it is for me or my sisters.

But then again, Nux is just too special.

Having sex with him feels amazing.”

A dreamy look appeared on Skylia’s face.

She could feel her little sister tingling a little.

“Ahhh~ I am getting weak just after thinking about it...”

Skylia spoke with a silly smile on her red face, and then, she questioned,

“What about you? You don’t like having sex?”

Uggh, that was a stupid question, let me rephrase it,

What do you like the most when you are having sex, and why?”

“...umm... I don’t like anything in particular...”

Evane answered.

“Huh?”

Skylia came out of her reverie when she heard Evane’s words.

Then, she turned her head towards Evane and questioned with a doubtful look on her face.

“You... Don’t tell me you haven’t... had sex with Nux yet...”

That was the only conclusion Skyla can come up with.

If someone doesn’t like having sex, then it could only mean that he or she hasn’t had sex before.

It was a perfectly logical statement.

Evane lowered her face and then, she nodded lightly.

This proved that Skyla’s theory was correct.

She would have celebrated for being correct, however, she couldn’t do that right now.

She was just too shocked by the revelation.

“You... you really haven’t... done it already...?”

Evane shook her head with an embarrassed look on her face.

Even she couldn’t understand why she was so embarrassed right now.

“You aren’t joking with me, are you?”

“...I am not.”

Skyla turned silent.

However, after thinking about this for a while, she nodded inwardly.

She is an Idiot.

Wasn’t this something predictable already?

If her sister here had tasted the forbidden fruit, then why would she think about so many useless stuff?

Why would she think about being selfish, restricting Nux, and all that crap?

Won't she only think about sex?

The more Skylia thought about it, the more she was convinced.

This new sister of hers really hasn't had sex with Nux.

Skylia then observed the pitiful woman in front of her and then, she did what she had to do.

She gossiped.

'Sister Evane hasn't done it yet.'

'What!?'

'Really!?'

'How!?'

And within a millisecond, she got responses from her other sisters.

'How is this even possible?'

'I don't know-'

Skylia wanted to answer, however,

Suddenly, the doors of her room were smashed open and a tanned skin woman walked in,

"Is it true?"

She questioned.

Evane, who was taken aback by her abrupt entry questioned,

"W-What?"

“Is it true that you haven’t done the deed with Nux yet?”

“The deed?”

“Sex! You haven’t done it till now, is it true?”

“Yes, it is.”

Evane answered, however,

“!!!”

Suddenly, her eyes widened in surprise.

“How do you know that!?”

She questioned with a terrified look on her face.

Edda, however, completely ignored her and,

‘Guys... Skyla isn’t lying...

It really is true...’

Evane, of course, didn’t like when she was ignored like that, therefore, she called out.

“Hey! I am asking some-”

Or so she tried to.

Before she could even complete her sentence, Felberta, Thyra and Ember walked inside the room and questioned.

“It is really true?”

Felberta questioned.

Ember then looked at Evane and raised her eyebrow in amazement.

“I can’t believe it...”

“Right? This is shocking.”

Thyra agreed.

“W-What are you guys talking about? What is unbelievable?”

Evane questioned.

“The fact that you two haven’t done it already.”

“HOW IN THE HELL DO YOU KNOW THAT!?”

Evane shouted.

Chapter 374

“WHY IN THE HELL DO YOU KNOW THAT!?”

Evane shouted in shock.

“...”

The entire room turned silent.

“Umm... Sister Evane...”

I may have told them... by mistake...”

It was not a mistake at all.

“You told them? When? You were sitting right in front of me.”

“...”

Skyla didn't know how to answer that question.

Suddenly, Ember patted Evane's shoulder and sat right next to her.

“We have our ways to do that, you will know about them soon, but let's not talk about this right now.

Tell me, how have still not done it yet?”

“Indeed indeed.”

Edda walked forward and sat near Evane as well,

“I am curious as well.

I am sure Nux you and Nux have spent the last 3 nights together with each other.

Tell me, my Sister Evane, just how in the hell did you resist that walking piece of, ravishing, delicious meat?"

"M-Meat?"

"Ughh... don't listen to her. She has some...
Problems in her brain."

Felberta walked up to Evane as well.

She then sat down and questioned,

"Though I will ask, just how did you not jump onto Nux when he was right in front of you in the middle of the night?"

Evane's face turned red.

"Tsk, you said the same thing I did."

Edda snorted.

"Sister Evane, please tell us, just what did you guys do in these past three nights?"

Skyla questioned.

"Umm..."

Evane blushed.

However, when she saw these women looking at her with such a determined look on her face, she decided not to hide anything and answered.

"We... we painted..."

"You painted?"

Edda frowned.

“Y-Yeah.”

“You kept painting for 3 whole nights?”

Edda questioned.

“Y-Yes.”

Evane nodded with a deep blush on her face.

“Why are you blushing? You used to do it a lot of times, right?”

Edda couldn't understand.

“Well... we did more than just painting...”

Evane answered.

A smile appeared on Edda's face.

“Now we are talking. Eh? So? What ‘more’ did you do than just painting?”

Edda questioned with a wide smile on her face.

The others were smiling as well.

“W-Well, I sat on his laps while I drew... w-while... he h-hugged me from behind...”

Evane answered with a mosquito-like voice.

“So you two cuddled?”

Edda questioned.

Evane nodded.

“You cuddled for the whole night?”

Evane nodded again.

She looked quite adorable right now.

“Hmmm, cuddling with him for the whole night...

That doesn't sound bad at all.

I am quite tempted.

It sounds romantic~”

Felberta muttered.

“Don't forget, we are talking about the 'session time' right now.”

Edda commented.

Felberta frowned.

“It does not sound very romantic anymore...”

Cuddles were good, Felberta loved cuddling with Nux, however, sex was better.

“I am actually amazed...”

Ember commented.

“Just how do you resist jumping on him?”

Edda nodded.

“Indeed indeed.”

Ember nodded as well.

“She should learn from you, attacking him in the middle of the night after distracting Thyra... Now THAT sounds like a pleasant night.”

Edda smiled.

“Fufufu~ It was pleasant indeed.”

Ember chuckled.

“Fufufu~”

Edda chuckled as well.

The two women were bonding quite well with each other.

An unexpected friendship indeed.

“Tsk Tsk, don’t make it sound like she fooled me, I was the one who left on my own.

I could have easily rejected when that soldier came to me.”

Thyra defended herself.

“Yeah yeah, whatever.”

Ember just waved her hands.

“Tch.”

Thyra snorted.

“But I have to admit, that was really bold of you, to enter his room in the night, I mean.”

Felberta commented.

Ember smiled wildly.

“That man was taking too much time. I got impatient.”

“What a pervert, you couldn’t control yourself, even though you knew that the man you were aiming for had another woman with her. Fufufu~”

Edda chuckled.

“Hmph! Don’t make me a sexual predator.

The ‘man’ you are talking about was giving me hints, he was making it too obvious. I only hastened the process.”

“Hehehe~ It did end up greatly, didn’t it?”

Skyla chuckled.

“It did indeed.”

Ember smiled.

“Though I still failed to stay on the top until the end.”

“Haah... don’t bother with that. I have been trying to do that for a long long while now.”

Felberta sighed.

“Heh. You and I are different. You are failing because you aren’t good enough. I, however, am different.

You can ask Nux if you want, I nearly defeated him in our last session.”

A perverted smile appeared on Ember’s face.

Felberta just chuckled dryly.

“You can ask him as well, I ‘nearly’ defeated him in my last session as well.”

“Huh?” Ember frowned. She could feel that Felberta’s words were hinting at something.

“You started out strongly, you were even making him moan continuously, not only that, you even succeeded in making him cum and placed him on edge, right?

However, soon, you started losing, then, he turned around and comes to the top.

Then, he pounds and pounds and pounds while you just moan and moan and moan.

Eventually, you lose.

That's what happens, right?"

"How did you know?" Ember was shocked.

She couldn't believe how accurate this was.

Felberta just smiled wryly.

"Wait..."

Ember finally understood.

"Yes, you 'winning' the game is just him acting just so he could enjoy your expression after you are defeated. That man is a bastard."

Felberta snorted, however, soon, her face turned red,

"A caring bastard..."

Ember was shocked, while Edda, Skyla, and Thyra has beautiful smiles on their faces.

Evane, who was watching everything finally realized what Skyla was talking about before.

These women did not hate each other.

Rather, they actually had a good relationship with other.

Yes, unlike before, she couldn't sense any dislike from their expressions.

They just looked like teenage girls discussing their love life with their closest friends.

They actually looked like real sisters right now.

Suddenly, Evane noticed that the door of the room opened and Lane walked in,

“Where were y-”

She wanted to question, however, Edda, who was sitting beside her quickly stood up while her purple-pink eyes shined brightly.

“Have fun bitches.”

Saying that, she disappeared.

“Where did she go...?”

Evane was shocked.

“To have sex.”

Felberta answered with a jealous look on her face.

Chapter 375

“To have sex.”

Felberta answered with a jealous look on her face.

“T-To have s-sex?”

Evane was taken aback.

“Well, yeah. Why else do you think that pervert would run like that.”

Thyra replied.

“W-With whom?”

Evane, whose emotions were a little mess right now, asked a strange question.

“...”

Everybody in the room looked at her as if they were looking at an Idiot.

Evane understood.

“With Nux...?”

“Duh.”

Ember shrugged.

Suddenly, Evane’s eyes fell on the woman who had just entered the room and a thought appeared in her mind,

“Wait... does that mean that she...”

“Yeep, Sister Lane was doing the deed with Nux while we were talking. That’s why she didn’t come here.”

Skyla chuckled, she then stood up and walked towards Lane.

“So? Sister Lane, would you mind sharing your experience with our new Sister?”

Lane’s eyes then fell on Evane, who was blushing uncontrollably.

If it was before, Evane would have stepped forward and would have denied this without any hesitation.

However, after being surrounded by these women for so long, and hearing about how good sex feels again and again and again, even Evane got curious.

So, although she didn’t show any reaction on her face, inwardly, she was still hoping that Lane would share some details.

No!

Actually, now that she thinks about it, Evane would rather not hear about her lover making love with another woman. She was still not that open-minded yet.

Yes, Evane had finally made up her mind, no more discussions were needed.

Evane doesn’t have to hear anything like this. She would figure things out on spot. W-While she is facing that directly...

With that thought in her mind, Evane closed her eyes.

“Well... we tested out a new thing today...”

Lane started with a blush on her face.

“Heehhh? I was just asking for Sister Evane’s sake, but now I am actually curious. Hehe~”

Skyla chuckled.

“Come, have a seat, Sister Lane.”

Skyla then pulled Lane towards her bed, and the rest of the women shifted themselves around Lane with excited looks on their faces.

Evane, however, didn’t move much from her seat.

She remained true to her words.

“So? What happened, Sister Lane? Tell us every single detail~”

Skyla questioned.

Then with a blush on her face, Lane questioned.

“H-Have you guys ever wondered why Sister Edda likes ropes so much?”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

The whole room turned silent.

No, it was not because of the question, rather, it was because of the underlying meaning of the question.

“Lane... you tried ropes...?”

Felberta questioned.

Lane’s face turned even redder however, in the end, she nodded weakly.

“Give us a little more description, Sister.”

Skyla urged.

Ember, who noticed the excitement in Skyla’s eyes couldn’t help but chuckle,

“Now this feels familiar.”

“You will get used to it.”

Thyra answered.

“I sure hope so as well.” Ember chuckled and continued to enjoy Lane’s embarrassed expression while her own lovely Sister interrogated her without any mercy.

“H-H-He tied those ropes a-around my breasts... my waist... and... e-even there... I... I couldn’t move at all...”

Lane described.

“A-Around your breasts...”

Even Felberta was taken aback.

She even started imagining how the ropes would be tied around her boobs, and once she imagined herself like that, she was unable to get that thought out of her mind.

The other women inside the room were the same.

They all listened to Lane’s words and imagined themselves in that position.

“I... I... was completely at his mercy...”

Lane continued her discussion.

“My hands were tied behind my back, in that condition, where I could barely move, he placed me on the ground near the door and sat on the bed with his erect shaft out in the open.

Then, he ordered me to crawl towards him in that state. At the same time, he also moved his dick up and down, as if trying to entice me with it.

My instincts took over,

I couldn't control myself and in the end,

I decided to crawl.

However, it was a lot harder since my hands were tied behind my back, to do what he wanted, I had to put in extra effort, balance my weight correctly, lift my back up with all the energy I have, and then use my knees to crawl towards him till my upper body falls down again.

The ropes that were tied all around my body didn't make things any easier either, the more I moved, the more those ropes tightened up.

S-Some part of the r-ropes even slid i-into my... in t-there...

That made it even more difficult.

To be honest, I didn't want to continue.

However, when my eyes fell on him, who was looking at me with a small smile and that hidden little worried face, a strange energy entered my body.

With that, I lifted my back again, crawled towards him as quickly as possible,

And once I was there...

It was heaven..."

A silly, perverted smile appeared on Lane's face.

At the same time, similar smiles appeared on other women's faces as well.

They all were imagining it well...

Lane continued her description about how Nux caught her as soon as she arrived near him.

However, he placed her on his lap, how his hands moved towards her sensitive regions, how his fingers entered her forbidden place, how he then threw her on the bed.

How his mouth moved towards her little sister, how his tongue entered her cave, how she...

How she had a great orgasm, washing his face with her juices.

How his shaft then entered her cave, how the pounding begin, how she was hammered till she couldn't think straight, how her body had turned weaker.

Ho-

“Hey... I missed the part where he grabbed her hair...”

While Lane continued her discussion, Evane, who was imagining everything with her eyes closed moved her head towards the person closest to her and questioned.

“It doesn't matter, just imagine something yourself. Fill in those voids with your imagination, go wild~ Only then will you succeed.”

Skyla gave life advice.

And Evane noted it deep down in her heart.

Chapter 376

Lane's story ended and none of the women present inside the room said anything. Right now, all of them were adding their own twists and kinks in this story.

For some odd reason, the room was filled with a strange smell.

However, no one inside this room noticed this smell.

They just stayed silent, with their eyes closed, until,

“Hmmm, ropes don't sound bad at all.”

Until Ember broke the silence with her comment.

“I agree.”

Felberta nodded.

“Girls, I have some things to do, so I will see you later.”

Suddenly, Thyra stood up.

“Just say that you want to relieve yourself, you pervert.”

Ember teased.

“Hmph, I don't do something so lowly, not when I have MY loving husband taking care of me.”

Thyra snorted and then, she left the room.

After her, other women stood up as well and left the room.

Evane did the same thing and returned to her room as well.

Usually, after she returns home, she would start painting right away, however, today, her mind was filled with some other thoughts.

The painting was the last thing she wanted to do right now.

In the end, she just walked toward her bed and lay down.

Then, she started thinking.

What was she thinking?

She didn't know.

Her mind was wandering around, she wasn't able to focus on anything, in particular, however, she still continued.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Suddenly, Evane heard a knock.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Then, she heard the knock again.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

And again.

This time, she finally came out of her reverie.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

She then quickly stood up and rushed towards the door.

“Who is i- Huh?”

She wanted to question, however, she was surprised to see Nux standing right in front of her.

“Are you okay? Is everything fine?”

Nux questioned.

There was a hint of worry in his eyes.

Evane’s heart felt a little warm.

“Everything is fine, don’t worry.”

She smiled as she signaled him to enter.

Nux entered her room and then, she questioned.

“So? Why are you here?”

“Hmm? Do you not want me here?”

Nux frowned.

“It is not like that, but, um... aren’t you busy with... you know... your... ahem...”

Evane couldn’t say that.

She was still too shy.

Nux frowned.

“Busy with what?”

He couldn’t understand what she was talking about.

“Umm... you were... shouldn’t you be having s-s-sex with Edda right now?”

Evane questioned.

“Huh? I did that hours ago.”

Nux answered.

“Huh?” This time, Evane frowned.

She then looked outside from a window and her eyes widened in surprise.

It was night.

Evane then looked at the watch and realized that it was 12 in the night.

“Evane, are you really alright?”

Nux placed his hands on Evane’s shoulder and questioned.

“I-I am fine.”

Evane nodded.

“Do you want to paint tonight?”

I am completely fine with it if you want to rest. You look tired.”

“No, I want to paint.

With you...”

Her last words were barely audible, however, Nux didn’t miss them.

A smile appeared on his face, he then picked Evane up like a princess and walked towards the painting.

Evane, who was now in Nux’s arms smiled beautifully.

Then, she closed her eyes to enjoy this ride, however, before she could even start to enjoy it, Nux paused.

She opened her eyes and realized that they were already standing near the painting.

Nux smiled, he then sat on the chair and placed Evane on his lap.

Evane made herself comfortable, as for Nux, well, he didn't even waste a single second, his hand directly moved towards Evane's body while his chin went towards Evane's shoulder.

"I think we will complete our masterpiece today."

He whispered softly.

Evane, however, shook her head,

"I don't think so."

"Hmm? Why is that?"

Nux questioned.

"You are distracting me."

"Hmm?" Nux frowned.

"You are being a big hindrance here."

Evane's hand moved and soon, it touched something.

"Especially this. This is being a big hindrance and is distracting me. Therefore, I believe that we would have to take care of this before we continue with our drawing.

However,

For some reason, I have this gut feeling that once we start taking care of this, we wouldn't be able to stop and would fall into an endless trap of pleasure and nastiness."

Nux was forced to tighten his hug around Evane's body as she stroked his dick through his pants.

“You really want to deal with this distraction?”

Nux whispered softly.

“Yes, I have to.”

Evane nodded.

“Are you sure about this? I will warn you beforehand, you might not want to paint ever again after this.”

“Heh, you sure are confident.”

Evane smiled back.

“Oh believe me.”

Nux’s smile widened even more and then,

“Anh~”

His hand moved and touched her breasts.

“This is going to be the best night you have ever spent.”

Nux chuckled and then, he got to work.

Right now, Evane was still wearing her coat over the shirt, the dress which she usually wears while she teaches.

This gave Nux the chance to undress the ‘Teacher Evane’.

A chance that he did not give up at all.

With a quick movement, he quickly removed the coat that Evane was wearing, however, when it came to the shirt,

Nux’s hands got unbearably slower.

He moved his hands towards her buttons, unbuttoning them one by one.

He took his special time on the buttons that were on her breasts, he didn't give up on the opportunity to touch those soft breasts in any way he wanted.

While he did that, Evane, whose hands were locked in due to Nux's hands, couldn't move.

As if this gave her the time to think about what she was doing, a deep red blush appeared on her face, and as if trying to deal with that,

“D-Do it faster! We can't just stay on the undressing part for the rest of the night!”

She urged.

Nux smiled.

“Why did you decide this so suddenly, Evane?”

You know that I can wait till you are completely ready, right?”

“I... I want to do it right now...”

Evane didn't back down.

“Why the hurry though?”

“I... it's nothing.

What? Do you not want t- Anh~”

A moan leaked out of Evane's mouth as Nux suddenly bit her earlobe.

At the same time, a thought appeared in his mind,

‘My lovely wives, you all are the best!’

Chapter 377

Evane has spent her entire day with Nux's women.

And what did those women always talk about?

Heh.

The answer was obvious.

Therefore, Evane's mind was preoccupied with those lewd things.

Of course, something like this wasn't enough to make her push herself this strongly.

The deciding factor was something, or more precisely, someone else.

Ember Windstar.

Evane had heard about this woman.

One of the strongest King Stage Cultivators in the world, a top class General, a Great Leader, a fierce Warrior, a Merciless Killer,

All these titles were used to describe her.

Due to this, although Evane had never met the General before, she still had a certain imaginary image in her mind.

However, today, that imaginary image was tarnished.

Today, that rumored woman was smiling perversely while talking about lewd things with a few other women.

This was a big shock for Evane.

The fact that this rumored woman and the women she was talking with, were fantasizing about a single man, who just happens to be her lover as well.

‘Just how good does... sex feels for them to talk about it for the whole day with such an interesting look on their faces?’

This question popped up in Evane’s mind.

Also...

Though she would never admit it out loud, she was jealous of the fact that some women knew more about her lover than her.

Therefore,

She decided.

She would do it.

She would have sex with Nux today.

This was what led to this current scenario.

And that is why,

‘My lovely wives, you all are the best!’

Nux was thanking his women in his heart.

“Heh, I would be a fool to miss out on a golden opportunity like this.”

He chuckled and his hand continued to unbutton Evane’s shirt.

Evane’s heartbeat quickened and her face turned red.

Soon, Nux was done unbuttoning the whole shirt, his hands then moved towards Evane’s shoulders and he removed the shirt, revealing Evane’s bare skin and a tame, white-colored bra.

“White, the color of pureness, this is so you Evane~”

Nux commented.

“S-Shut up.”

Evane snorted.

Nux chuckled and then, his hands moved towards her pencil skirt.

“!!!”

Evane’s eyes widened.

“W-W-What are you doing?”

She questioned with a panicked look on her face.

“Preparing my meal, of course.”

Nux answered as if it was the most obvious thing in the world.

“P-Preparing your m-meal?”

Evane was flustered.

“Indeed.”

Nux smiled and,

*Click*

With an echoing sound, he unhooked her skirt.

Evane’s back arched up.

Nux, however, didn’t give her any chance to adjust and started removing her skirt.

Evane’s face turned red and her heartbeat quickened even more.

She could see how her skin was being revealed to another man while she was sitting on that very man's lap.

Evane closed her eyes in shame and... excitement.

Finally, Nux completely removed Evane's skirt.

The woman just sat there without saying anything, however, from her red face, it was clear that many things were going on inside that mind of hers.

A few seconds later, Nux moved his hand around Evane's waist and pushed her closer to his body.

"Hmm?"

Evane opened her eyes.

What was that warm feeling she was feeling on her back right now?

She wondered in her head.

Then, Evane turned around and,

"!!!"

Her eyes widened in shock.

Nux was bare-chested!

That warm feeling she felt was from her chest.

In shock, she moved away from him.

Or... so she tried to, Nux, however, tightened his grip around her even more and then placed his chest on her shoulders.

A strange wave of comfort washed over Ember's body.

This warmth...

She liked it a lot.

It felt as if she was a budding plant, while Nux was that giant tree that was protecting her and providing her with warmth.

Evane closed her eyes again.

This was too comforting.

However, tonight was not meant to be comforting at all.

“!!!”

Evane’s eyes widened again.

Something...

Something went inside!

In an instant, Evane lowered her head and saw Nux’s hand inside her panty!

“What are yo- Annh~”

She panicked and wanted to question, however, before she could,

Nux moved his finger that was inside Evane’s forbidden region.

Evane’s back arched up again and her breathing turned haggard.

Nux, like the gentle and caring man he was, allowed her to regain her energy.

A few seconds later, Evane calmed down and,

“Take it o- Aahnnh~”

Nux moved his finger and Evane moaned again.

This time, Nux didn't give her any opportunity to relax and continued to explore her forbidden region while noting her weak points inside her mind.

Evane was helpless.

All she could do was push her back towards Nux's chest and enjoy that warmth.

Nux, of course, didn't deny that, rather, he used his other hand to pull her even closer, while his other hand continued the exploration of the forbidden cave.

“How does it feel?”

Nux whispered.

Evane, who was busy dealing with this strangely fulfilling feeling smiled,

“Warm.”

“Hmm? Warm?”

“Then what about this?”

“Aaannhh~”

Another moan leaked out of Evane's face as Nux teased her weak point violently.

“I-It feels good.”

Evane answered.

A satisfied smile appeared on Nux's face.

Then, he pulled out his finger.

“Huh?”

Evane frowned.

“What happened?”

“Hmm?”

Nux smiled.

“Why did you stop?”

Evane questioned.

“Heeh? Someone looks awfully disappointed.

Was I that good?”

Nux teased and Evane’s face turned red.

“N-No, that’s not it.”

“What it is then?”

Nux questioned out of curiosity.

“You should end what you started.”

Evane came up with a random reason.

“Heehh? Didn’t I end it already?”

A big smile appeared on Nux’s face.

Evane took a deep breath.

“You should properly end what you started.”

Her annoyance was clear in her tone.

“I didn’t know.”

Suddenly, Nux commented.

“Didn’t know what?”

Evane questioned back.

“You are actually quite adorably when you are flustered.”

“I-”

Evane was about to reply, however, suddenly, Nux stood up, and with her in his arms, he walked towards the bed,

“Evane, my darling, you are right.

I should properly end what I started.”

Chapter 378

“Evane, my darling, you are right.

I should properly end what I started.”

Nux spoke with a playful smile on his face.

Evane, who now lay on the bed, looked at Nux, who was standing right in front of her, bare-chested.

This time, she finally had a clear look at him and she,

**Gulp**

She gulped.

Nux was... handsome.

Unbearably handsome.

All of this combined with that playful smile on his face, and the state she was in, Evane could feel her forbidden region twitching unstoppably.

Her body was burning,

Evane knew,

Her body was demanding something.

Her body wanted this man in front of her.

Evane then saw Nux walking towards her. A small smile appeared on her face. She looked into Nux's eyes with passion boiling in her eyes.

This time, she was really ready.

Nux crawled up on the bed, then he moved his face to her legs, and from there, he moved up.

Her knees, then thighs, Nux moved and continued moving, he paused near her forbidden region, then, he took a deep sniff.

Evane blushed.

“Now that smells alluring~”

Nux commented.

Evane blushed even more and didn't reply.

Then, Nux made a bold move and kissed Evane's crotch through her panty.

This sent a big jolt of pleasure inside Evane's body.

Her insides, which were already trembling nonstop, calmed down for a small while, however, once Nux's lips moved away, the itching grew stronger.

Evane pressed her thighs on each other, trying to deal with that itch, however, it did not work.

Oblivious to her troubles, Nux continued his journey, he slid through her thin waist smoothly, with his lips barely grazing Evane's belly, this 'barely grazing' however, only added to Evane's trouble.

She finally understood why the girls called Nux a bastard.

He indeed was a bastard.

Right now, all Evane wanted was to grab Nux's head, pull him close to herself, then force him to speed things up, however, right now, for some reason, she couldn't move.

Yes, her body was strangely weak.

Therefore, she couldn't move.

And this gave Nux the leverage to do whatever he wanted.

And of course, Nux didn't give up this chance.

The smooth journey he was having found an obstruction.

There were two mountains in his path.

A wicked smile appeared on Nux's face.

His lips then touched Evane's bra, then, with his mouth grazing Evane's breasts, Nux climbed the mountains.

Then, he moved forward towards Evane's upper breasts, then her collarbone, her neck, and finally,

Their eyes met.

*Gulp*

Evane gulped again as she found herself lost in Nux's golden eyes.

She then noticed that Nux's face was coming closer and closer to hers, a sudden urge took over Evane and she close her eyes. Her lips formed a pout and then,

Their lips met.

At this instance, all the itching Evane was feeling vanished.

A big wave of comfort washed over her body while Nux sucked on her lips and she sucked on his.

A few moments later, Nux's lips parted.

Evane opened her eyes and looked at Nux with a starry look on her face,

Nux smiled.

Evane closed her eyes again.

Nux chuckled softly and then, they kissed again.

After enjoying it for a minute, their lips parted again.

Evane opened her eyes, and at that moment, their mutual understanding grew so much that Nux instantly knew what she wanted.

And as if Evane realized that her message to Nux was delivered, she closed her eyes again.

Another Kiss.

Then another.

Another one, again, again, one more, and again.

The two of them continued to kiss each other again and again, tasting every single part of the other's lips.

Evane was addicted to this.

However, all good things must come to the end.

The kissing session ended and this time, Nux moved his face away, ignoring whatever Evane was 'saying' with her eyes.

Seeing this, Evane pouted.

'Bastard indeed.'

She even cursed.

And as if the god was punishing her for cursing, the itching returned as well, this time, even stronger than before.

Evane was helpless.

In the end, she could only rub her thighs with each other.

“Hmm? Is something wrong, my darling?”

Suddenly, Nux questioned.

Evane looked at him with hope, however, when she noticed that playful smirk on his face, she turned her face away.

Nux chuckled.

“Oh well, I guess I would need to help you, don't I?”

“Hmm?”

Evane turned her face back towards Nux.

Suddenly, she felt Nux's fingers below her waist.

Evane understood what he was trying to do and her heartbeat, which had calmed down a lot after the kissing session quickened up again.

Nux then removed Evane's panty, another jolt entered Evane's body when the cold air directly touched her forbidden region.

“This is... beautiful...”

Nux commented with a lost look on his face.

However, this complement didn't make her happy at all.

As soon as her panty was removed, the twitching had become stronger and was growing with every passing second.

The more time Nux 'wasted' while he was lost in her beauty, the more that itching would increase.

How could he not understand!?

Evane was annoyed.

In anger, she finally reacted.

“...hurry.”

Yeah... The response didn't come out as strongly as she wanted it to be.

Rather than a command, it looked more like a plea.

Nux crawled back, and then, he lowered his head again.

Then, he kissed Evane's crotch again, this time, however, there was no panty in between.

“Ahhh~”

A wave of comfort washed over Evane's body and she moaned.

However, things had just started.

Nux's moved his mouth and soon, his lips touched Evane's lower lips.

“!!!”

Evane's eyes widened in surprise.

However, Nux didn't give her any chance to react and his tongue entered her insides.

“Aannhh~”

Another moan leaked out of Evane's head, this time, however, it wasn't from comfort, this time, it was a moan of pleasure.

Unable to control herself, Evane gave herself to desire.

Her legs moved and locked around Nux's legs, she then sandwiched Nux's head with her thighs, pushing him even closer to her little sister and allowing his tongue to explore deeper.

“AAnnnhhh~”

Another moan leaked out from the woman's mouth.

Chapter 379

“AAAnnhhhh~~”

Evane moaned loudly.

Nux, who was busy with his tongue, could feel Evane’s pressing her thighs against his face, and at the same time, she was trying to push his face right into her forbidden area.

Nux had to admit it,

This was a heavenly feeling~

With her meaty thighs pressing against his face, and her tasty lower lips right in front of his mouth, this was all a man would ask for.

Nux then continued to move his tongue, he already learned where the weak points were when he explored this cave for the first time.

Of course, it did take him some time to find them again with his tongue, however, as soon as he did find them, his work got easier.

Weak points were all he focused on and as a result,

“AAAnnhhhh~~”

Loud and pleasureful moans were all the things that could come out of Evane’s mouth.

As for her other mouth, well, it only secreted juices.

Divinely delicious juices.

Of course, Nux had full access to them.

Without waiting for any permission, Nux quickly gulped down the juices Evane's lower lips released.

The process was simple, Nux's tongue worked on generating more juice, while Nux drank the juice generated.

“AAnnhh~~”

Evane, of course, continued to moan as well. The pleasure she felt continued to stack up, all the itching she felt completely disappeared, her grip around Nux's face loosened up, giving him the chance to move a little more, this way, his tongue explored even more areas, and soon,

Nux felt Evane's cave twitching.

He paused.

A second later, he realized what was happening and decided to speed up the process.

His upper teeth then nibbled on a small bud that was on top of Evane's lower lips,

“!!!”

Evane's eyes widened in surprise as a big jolt of pleasure passed through her entire body, her walls tightened and soon, they loosened up and,

*Squirt* *Squirt* *Squirt*

Nux's face was washed by the purest liquid that exists in this world.

“AAaannnnNnhh~~ So Goodd!!”

Of course, this was followed by a loud moan.

Nux, who was busy gulping down everything he had collected smiled,

“It was good indeed.”

Evane's eyes then fell on Nux and,

“T-That is... My...?”

She questioned with a tired, as well as shocked look on her face.

“Yes, your assumption is correct, my darling, this liquid is indeed yours. I have to say, I never expected you to release this much. Even I failed to gulp down all of that. Quite a shocker, if I am being honest.”

Nux answered with his usual playful smile on his face and the more he spoke, the redder Evane's face got.

She was embarrassed.

Nux, however, wasn't done yet.

“Which brings me to another question, Darling. Just how often do you masturbate?”

Evane averted her eyes.

Nux raised his eyebrows and tilted her head.

“Now that, is quite an amusing reaction.”

He then crawled onto the bed again, placing his face right in front of Evane's he questioned.

“You aren't planning to hide things from the person who you love the most, are you?”

“...”

Evane, however, didn't answer.

“...”

Nux didn't say anything and just continued to stare at her.

In the end, Evane finally gave in,

“Once...”

“Hmm? Once a day, that’s pretty normal.”

Nux nodded.

“Not a day...

A month.

Sometimes, once every 2-3 months...

I... I don’t d-do it very often.”

Again, Evane was embarrassed.

“...”

This time, even Nux was silent.

“Now that’s straight up depressing...”

He commented.

“...”

Evane didn’t say anything.

“We have to correct that, now don’t we?”

Suddenly, a big smile appeared on Nux’s face.

“Hmm?”

Evane tilted her head.

Seeing her face, Nux couldn’t help but shake his head.

“Evane, oh my lovely Evane, just how could your pure self mingle with a sin like me~

Oh ho ho ho~”

Nux then moved his mouth closed to Evane’s ear and whispered,

“Evane Skyfall, I am going to ruin this pureness of yours.”

Evane felt her little sister twitching a little again.

Yes, with just a few words, Nux managed to arouse Evane again.

Nux then stood up, Evane’s gaze followed him, then, with a smile on his face, Nux lowered his pants, revealing the already erect little Nux which was not little at all.

Evane’s heartbeat quickened as well.

Nux chuckled, then without saying anything else, he walked towards her legs and hopped onto the bed again.

“Aanh~”

Evane moaned as Nux placed little Nux on top of her lower lips. Nux then started rubbing little Nux on Evane’s slit.

This act alone was enough for Evane to moan more and more, when suddenly,

Nux inserted the head inside.

Then, he crawled forward, his eyes meeting Evane’s and,

“AAAAnnnnNnhhh”

He pushed the whole thing inside.

This time, Evane's moan wasn't full of pleasure, this time, pain accompanied it as well.

"Calm down, everything will be fine in a minute,"

Nux's whispered into Evane's ears.

His voice was full of love and care.

Even though she was in pain right now, seeing him so close to her, Evane felt assured, and then, she closed her eyes.

Suddenly, she felt something soft touching her lips.

Within a moment, she realized what it was.

She reciprocated with her own kiss.

The two of them sucked each other's lips lovingly.

Evane completely forgot about the pain and focused on Nux's lips.

Nux, on the other hand, tried his best to hold back.

Evane's insides were too soft.

Too soft.

He had a rough idea about this when he touched her insides before, however, now that he was actually inside, he realized just how absurdly pleasurable it was.

Nux was having a hard time holding himself back.

Right now, his body was urging him to start moving and explore more of this feeling, his body was urging him to ravish this woman in front of him.

However, he held himself back.

Now was not the time yet.

Right now, kissing and calming her down was all he could do.

Chapter 380

“Are you alright now?”

Nux questioned in a calm voice.

“mm.”

Evane nodded.

“Really?”

Evane’s smile widened and she nodded again,

“Yes, yes I am.”

A wicked smile then appeared on Nux’s face.

“Heh, that’s good.

Get ready to be not alright now.”

Evane chuckled as she looked at Nux with unconcealed love in her eyes.

‘Gentle Bastard.’

She muttered inwardly.

Nux smiled as he moved his face away, then, he pulled his shaft out of Evane’s body as slowly as he can.

He stopped right when he was about to fully pull it out, then, he moved back in.

Again, he was very slow with his movements.

Actually, this was the hardest time for him.

These unbelievably soft and warm insides crawled all over his penis, sucking it with a tremendous force, he really had to give his all just so he couldn't cum.

Nux continued his slow movements until he noticed some levels of ease in Evane's expression.

Then,

“AAAnnnNnahhh~”

A got a little rougher.

With just one thrust, his dick moved into Evane's deepest parts. Sending jolts and jolts of pleasure inside her body.

Those unbearably soft insides welcomed him well.

Controlling the urge to cum right here and now, Nux moved and thrust his dick again.

“AAAnnhhhHh~”

And again,

“AaAnnNhhh!”

And then again,

“AaannnnhhhhHH~~”

With each thrust, the pleasure Evane felt became stronger and stronger, while the pain she was feeling got weaker and weaker.

“Now you look more comfortable.”

Nux commented.

Evane smiled back and nodded,

“Guess I don’t need to hold back anymore.”

“Huh?”

A frown appeared on Evane’s face, however, before she could think too much about what Nux said,

He thrust again.

“AAAnnnNNNHHhhh!!”

This was Evane’s loudest moan so far.

This thrust...

It was much stronger compared to the last ones.

However, Nux was done yet.

Before she could even cope with the pleasure he was feeling, Nux pulled his rod out, before putting it right inside.

“AAnnhhh! Aannhh! Aannhh!!”

A Series of loud moans were heard.

The pounding had started.

Jolts and Jolts of pleasure completely overwhelmed Evane’s mind and body.

Now, all her questions were answered.

She finally realized why those girls were so crazy over this. She finally realized why even Ember Windstar failed to resist this. She finally understood how they could talk about this and only this for the whole day without getting tired.

Sex just feels too good!

Just how could something possibly feel this good!?

Evane couldn't understand.

“AAannnnhhhhHH!!”

Suddenly, another, big moan leaked out of Evane's mouth.

Evane then opened her eyes, there, she saw Nux who was... biting her bra...?

Evane frowned.

However, suddenly, Nux's eyes fell on hers, with a smirk on his face, Nux pulled away her bra, revealing her bare breasts that jiggled from the sudden movement.

After revealing those beautiful mountains, Nux didn't wait at all.

He rested his head on Ember's right breast.

A comfortable feeling washed over his body.

Just like her insides, Evane's breasts were incredibly soft as well.

Nux snuggled his face and enjoyed this feeling for a while, and then, his tongue popped out.

The desire to taste those pink nipples, he couldn't fight it anymore.

“Annhh~”

Evane moaned as Nux licked the tip of her right nipple.

He didn't stop there, after licking it for a few seconds, his insatiable greed grew and he place the whole thing inside his mouth.

Now, while his tongue still played with the tip, his mouth sucked on the whole nipple, and Evane,

“Aannnhhhh~~”

She moaned in pleasure.

The rough pounding on one side, and this on the other side, was too much for her.

The waves and waves of pleasure that continuously assaulted her mind were too overwhelming. Her mind couldn't take it anymore, therefore, it blanked out.

She couldn't think straight anymore. The pleasure was the only thing she had in her mind right now.

Her body wasn't holding out any better either.

After so many merciless thrusts, her lower regions had turned completely numb, the only thing they could do was to release juice.

Yes, she has already had countless small orgasms.

Due to this, the rest of her body was very weak as well. Her hands, her back, her legs, her head, she couldn't move anything at all.

The only thing she could do was moan.

To be honest, if it wasn't for her moans, one would think that she was dead.

Of course, Nux wasn't holding out any better either,

Actually, his condition was even worse than Evane's, which was quite rare these days.

He has been holding the urge to cum for a long time now, however, Evane's insides were too scary.

He was at his limits right now.

He doesn't even know how he held on for so long.

‘Uggghh! Fuck it!’

In the end, Nux finally gave in.

He had to resort to cheating.

He has no other options.

In the end,

“AAnnnhhnHNNh!”

He bit Evane’s nipple.

Her walls tightened, the pleasure he felt increased and,

“Ugghhhhhh!! I am cumminggg!!”

He painted her insides in white.

Evane’s walls loosened up as well and,

*Squirt*

“AAnnnNAnnnhhhh!!”

She came again.

This time, it wasn’t a minor orgasm, it was a big, much more pleasurable one.

Their juices mixed and then,

Evane felt a strange energy entering her body.

If she was in a normal state right now, she would have definitely frowned and would have checked what this energy was.

However, she wasn’t in her normal state right now.

Therefore, she didn't bother about it at all.

Heck, she didn't even realize that an energy had entered her body.

After all, something else, something much more important had just entered her body.

A smile appeared on Evane's face.

Nux just stayed where he was, his face resting on Evane's breasts while her nipple was inside his mouth, the rest of Nux's body was on top of Evane's, while his little brother comfortably stayed inside those soft insides without the care of the world.

“How... haah... how was it...? Did you... hahh... enjoy your first time?”

Nux, who was still a little out of breath questioned.

“Best... night...”

Evane only answered with 2 words.

She didn't have any energy to say anything else.

The two of them closed their eyes and with their bodies mingled with each other like that, the two of them entered the dreamlands.

Chapter 381

“So according to thi-”

While Evane was teaching, the doors of her classroom opened,

“Sorry, I am late.”

Seeing the person who has just entered, Evane frowned,

“Where were you?”

“Well, I woke up early.”

Nux replied with a fresh smile on his face.

The rest of the students, however, frowned when they heard his option.

‘Huh? Is he out of his mind? Just what kind of person arrives late when he got up early.’

‘What kind of strange excuse is that?’

‘As I thought, he is crazy.’

Nobody understood what he was talking about.

Except for the one he was talking to of course.

“So where were you?”

Evane questioned.

“I was training.”

“With Teacher Arvina?”

“No, with her friend.”

Nux smiled.

Evane realized and nodded.

“Alright, enter the class now.”

Nux smiled and walked in. Evane smiled back, and seeing this smile, Nux couldn't control himself.

“Teacher Evane, I have to say, your face looks very bright today. Don't you think, you think so as well, guys?”

The rest of the students nodded as well,

“Yes, I was thinking the same as well.”

“I had the same thoughts in my mind as well.”

“Yes, Teacher Evane, your face looks quite rosy today.”

“Teacher Evane, did something good happen?”

One of the students questioned.

“Well, something good did happen.”

Evane nodded with a small smile on her face.

“Ohh? What happened, Teacher Evane?”

Evane's eyes momentarily fell on Nux before they quickly turned away and she shook her head,

“That's a personnel matter.”

“”””Ooohhhhhh!”””””

The entire class smiled.

Evane's face turned a little red.

“K-Keep quiet. Focus on the class!”

“Guys, listen to Teacher Evane, don't ruin her mood okay?”

Suddenly, Nux spoke up.

“We aren't ruining her mood, don't worry. You just take care of yourself. Your actions are the ones that would ruin her mood the most.”

A student retorted.

“Oh c'mon. How could you possibly say that?”

Nux was hurt.

“My actions would never hurt Teacher Evane, on the contrary, they would only put a satisfied smile on her face. That is just how good I am.”

Nux then turned towards Evane and smiled,

“Isn't that right, Teacher Evane?”

“S-Stay silent. We w-will be continuing with the class.”

Evane stuttered.

She couldn't believe that Nux would place her on the spot like that.

“Yes, Teacher Evane, don't worry, I am looking forward to that class.

And the sessions we will have in the future. I really enjoyed the last one.”

Evane blushed.

“Huh? Why only the last one?”

A student couldn't help but question.

“Because the last one was special, of course.”

Nux answered.

“Hmm? I didn't find the last session very special, what are you talking about?”

The student questioned back.

“Well, you weren't even there, how would yo-”

“Alright, stop talking now.

Nux, stop talking.

Joe, you stop as well.

We will be continuing our class now.”

Evane quickly interrupted Nux's words and ordered everyone to settle down.

Seeing her acting like that, Nux chuckled.

Evane looked at him and her face twitched.

‘This bastard is having fun...’

Evane thought inwardly.

She really wanted to go and strangle him right now, however, she controlled that urge and calmed herself down.

The class went on smoothly.

Some students still thought about how strange the conversation between Nux and Teacher Evane was, however, in the end, they just accepted the fact that Nux was not right in his head and shrugged.

There were better and more important things in their lives to worry about.

1 hour passed by and,

“Alright, this is enough. Does anyone of you has any questions?”

A student raised his hands,

“Teacher Evane, I do have some questions.”

Evane looked at the student and nodded,

“What are they?”

Evane questioned.

“They would need some time, can I come to your office?”

The student questioned.

“I have a prior arrangement, so we cannot do that right now. You can come to me after 3 in the afternoon, I will available by then.”

“I understand, Teacher Evane.”

The student nodded.

Evane nodded back and then, she turned towards Nux,

“Nux, come to my office.”

Nux frowned, however, soon, a smile appeared on his face and he chuckled,

“Ah yes, we do have some, ‘prior arrangement’, after all.”

This time, Evane controlled her expression well and didn’t react,

“Yes, now move faster, I do not have a whole day. I have a busy schedule today.”

“I am sure you do, Teacher Evane.”

Nux smiled.

Evane then walked out of the class and Nux followed her with a big smile on his face.

Evane entered her office and then waited, a few seconds later, Nux entered as well. Evane smiled, Nux smiles back, then he shuts the doors and locks it.

Evane’s smile widened, and without waiting or saying anything, she walked towards Nux.

Their lips met, Evane’s hands moved all over Nux’s back, while Nux’s hand touched her lower waist gently, then one of them moved down to her perky butt, while the other moved up to her breast.

“Mhhmmnm~”

A moan leaked out of Evane’s mouth. She then tightened her hug around Nux, pulling him even closer to herself. Nux, of course, did not reject this offer at all.

He just intensified his sucking and soon, his tongue moved out.

Evane’s eyes opened a little when she felt his tongue entering her mouth, however, soon, they returned to normal as she started using her tongue as well.

Their tongues clashed with each other, Evane’s movements were clearly inexperienced, however, Nux still enjoyed the kiss a lot.

After a full 5 minutes long and passionate kiss, their lips finally parted, with a silver lining of saliva in between.

Nux licked the saliva around his mouth and smiled,

“So this was the prior arrangement you were talking about? I can’t even think of what my dear classmate would think if he sees this.”

Evane blushed.

“S-Shut up. I-I really d-did have something I wanted to talk to you about.”

Nux turned Evane’s body and then hugged her from behind, his one hand caressing her breasts, while the other one moved towards her forbidden region.

“Annh~”

Waves and waves of pleasure assaulted Evane’s body and she moaned.

“What is it?” Nux questioned.

After biting her lips to cope with pleasure,

Evane answered.

“I-I got stronger...”

Chapter 382

“So... you are telling me that your power grows stronger, the more... you make love with your woman...?”

“If the woman I am making love to is stronger than me, then yes.”

Nux nodded and Evane, who, right now was sitting on his lap comfortably, blinked a few times. Showing clear disbelief.

Yes, even though she was hearing these words from her lover’s mouth, she was unable to accept this.

What Nux was telling him was simply too absurd.

“And if the woman is weaker than you?”

Evane questioned.

“If the woman is weaker than me, then she is the one who gets stronger. As in your case, after the lovely session we had, you felt that you have become stronger.

It is not just your illusion, it actually happened.

Right now, the current you are stronger than the day ago you.

And this won’t be the last time you would feel this because, well,

We will be having a lot of sessions from now on,”

Nux whispered into Evane’s ears while caressing her breasts gently.

Evane’s face heated up, she hands grabbed Nux’s hand that was on her waist and she continued to enjoy his touch, while hearing what he was saying of course.

“So until you become a King Stage Cultivator, you would keep getting stronger the more time you spend with me.

So make sure not to leave me, alright?”

Nux chuckled, however, this time, Evane was not as calm as before.

“King Stage?”

She questioned.

“As I said, as long as your cultivation is not the same as mine, you would keep getting stronger, since I am a King Stage Cultivator, your growth would only stop after you be-”

“You are a King Stage Cultivator? Weren’t you an Expert Stage Cultivator before!?”

Evane’s eyes widened in surprise.

An 18-year-old King Stage Cultivator...

Absurd...

Too absurd...

Her lover was now as strong as the King, and the headmaster of the academy...

Not only that, but according to him, she would become that strong as well...

Just how absurd is that!?

“Of course, I am King Stage Cultivator, didn’t you meet Ember before?”

Nux replied.

“Ember?” Evane frowned, however soon, it suddenly clicked.

“She is a King Stage Cultivator!”

“Indeed, and because of her, now I am a King Stage Cultivator as well.

Now, with me, all my wives would become King Stage Cultivators as well, including you.”

Nux smiled.

“This... this is ridiculous!”

Evane still couldn't believe him.

However, now that she thinks about it, she finally realized it.

The reason why every single one of Nux's women was absurdly talented, the reason why Nux's Cultivation rose so ridiculously quickly.

It was all because of this ability.

It all made sense now.

“Well, your husband is just too special.”

Nux chuckled as he moved his hands towards her forbidden area and grabbed her lower lips.

“Annhh~”

Evane moaned and her face turned red.

“H-Husband... I-It sounds nice...”

She muttered in a mosquito-like voice and a beautiful smile appeared on her face.

However, suddenly, her expression changed,

“Wait... so does that mean soon we would have 7 King Stage Cultivators on our side?”

“Yes, that is current.”

Nux nodded with a smile on his face.

“I can't believe this.”

Evane just shook her head.

This was too much for her. This man, sitting in front of her was breaking all the logic here left and right, however, even for him, this was just too absurd.

Impossible! Yes, it was entirely impossible!

“Well, we already have 6 Expert Stage Cultivators on our side, don't we?”

However, Nux's next words somehow made it believable.

“We are really going to have 7 King Stage CULTivators on our side...”

After thinking for a few minutes, Evane finally came to a conclusion.

A shocking conclusion.

These many King Stage Cultivators were enough to build another Kingdom.

Their strength would soon rival the strength that the 4 Strongest Kingdoms in the entire world possess!

Ridiculous!

Wait...

Suddenly, another thought appeared in Evane's mind.

“Nux...”

She called out.

“Mhm?”

“Let’s say you make love with 100 women, will they all become King Stage Cultivators as well?”

“Well, if I continue to have sex with them for a month or something, then yes.”

“Then why haven’t you done that yet? Won’t that make you unparalleled in this world?”

“It might but…”

Nux then placed his chin on Evane’s face and whispered,

“Won’t that reduce the amount of time I could spend with my lovely women?”

“…”

Evane turned silent.

“Kekeke~ You see, I have this fatal weakness, I can’t stay away from my lovely wives for too long.

Also, imagine having 100 wives, I don’t even know how would I spend time with you all. As high as my stamina is, I believe even I would be sucked out if I would try to satisfy you all~”

Nux chuckled.

Evane laughed out loud.

“I love you…”

Suddenly, Evane muttered in a small voice.

“Oh? I didn’t quite catch that, can you repeat that for me?”

Nux smiled.

Evane pouted.

However, in the end, she repeated what she said, this time, a little louder.

“I love you...”

Nux’s smile widened. Then, he stood up with Evane in his arms.

“Hmm?” Evane frowned, however, as soon as Nux placed her on the sofa, she quickly understood what was happening.

“I love you too, Evane.”

Then, he brought his mouth close to her ears and whispered.

“Now let me show you how strong my love is.”

Evane and Nux smiled.

Their lips met, the tongues clashed, the saliva was exchanged, the clothes were removed at lightning speed with their naked body mingling together, and Nux’s erect dick finally entered Evane’s warm and especially soft insides.

“AAAnnnhhhh~~”

A moan leaked out.

“Ugghhh! Evane~ This feels too good~”

A grunt was heard.

Then soon, the sounds of flesh meeting flesh and pleasurable moans and grunts echoed inside that room.

However, no one outside of that room was able to hear these sounds.

The only two people who were able to hear these voices were the two responsible for it.

“AAAnnnhhHHhh~~ I love itt~~~”

Chapter 383

Evane walked out of her office with a big smile on her face.

She could feel that she had gotten stronger again, and according to Nux, if they continue this pace, then within 2-3 days, she would break through and would become an Expert Stage Cultivator.

A stage that she practically gave up on, was now merely a few days away.

This was a great feeling.

However, this wasn't the reason behind Evane's happiness.

Well, it was a small part of it, however, the main reason was her talk with Nux. Now that she had gotten to know him better and had learned about all his strange and absurdly powerful magics, she felt that their relationship had strengthened a lot.

Just thinking about this fills her heart with immense happiness.

“Oh ho, someone looks quite pleased today.”

Suddenly, Evane heard a voice and came out of her reverie.

Her eyes then fell on a couple in front of her and she smiled,

“Good afternoon, Teacher Amanda, Teacher Kevin.”

“The one for whom this afternoon is actually looking good is you, Teacher Evane.”

Teacher Amanda chuckled.

“It is nothing like that.”

Evane smiled.

These two people in front of her were a husband and wife couple. Evane wasn't exactly close with them, or any of the other teachers working in this Academy for that matter, however, they still had a certain relationship as work colleagues and often greeted each other when they met.

“No, but seriously, that smile looks beautiful on your face, Teacher Evane.”

Amanda praised.

“I certainly agree with that.”

Kevin laughed out loud.

“Of course you do.”

Amanda rolled her eyes and Kevin chuckled again.

Seeing the two of them, Evane laughed a little as well.

“So? Teacher Evane, are you really not going to share the good news with us?”

Kevin questioned with a smile on his face.

“Umm...”

Evane didn't know what to say.

“Let me guess, you fell in love, didn't you?”

“Huh?”

“Huh?”

Amanda received two reactions from two people in front of her.

First, was her husband, who couldn't understand how she came up with that conclusion, and second was Evane, who was wondering how she guessed it correctly.

Amanda completely ignored her husband and turned toward Evane,

“You don't have to look so shocked, that tinge of red on your face is giving it all away. Though I must say,

You really did fell hard, did you not?”

Evane's blush deepened and she nodded meekly.

Kevin was surprised, as for Amanda, well, she just smiled.

“Are you two together now?”

Evane nodded again and Amanda's smile widened,

“Now I know why you are smiling like a fresh rose.”

Evane smiled a little.

Amanda then patted Evane's shoulder and,

“I hope you two stay together and true to each other for the rest of your life.”

“Thank you.”

Evane smiled beautifully.

Then, with a blush on her face, she walked away.

“Heh, to think our princess finally found someone. She took her damn time.

Also, the man who managed to win her heart, he is one lucky bastard.”

Kevin chuckled.

Amanda didn't say anything and continued to look at Evane, who was walking toward her class.

“We should go to our classes as well.”

Kevin muttered.

Amanda nodded and then, the two of them turned around.

...

“Lady Arvina, she is here again.”

Right now, Arvina was sitting inside her office, in front of her was the servant working in her mansion.

Arvina looked at her servant and questioned,

“Where is she going?”

“Inside ‘her’ room.”

The servant answered.

Arvina frowned and after a while, she nodded.

“Alright, you can leave now.”

“As you command, Lady Arvina.”

The servant bowed his head and left the office.

After he left, Arvina frowned again.

“Why is she here again?”

She wondered in her head.

The woman she was talking about was Evane, who, right now, is inside Ember's room, where Nux's wives and Nux are staying and talking with each other.

Actually, a teacher meeting her student's wives wasn't a problem, if the relationship between student and teacher is close, something like this was very common.

However, meeting her student's wives consecutively, for two days and that too at night.

Now that, is a bit... strange.

Weird thoughts boiled inside Arvina's mind.

However, as soon as those thoughts appeared, she shook her head.

'I am sure she must have her own reasons.'

Arvina thought and then, pushed out those weird thoughts out of her mind.

She couldn't imagine Evane of all people doing that sort of thing so brazenly.

However, Nux's charm wasn't something to scoff a-

No, no, it is all just a misunderstanding, she must have something really important to talk about. This is why she is here, that's all.

With these thoughts in her mind, Arvina closed her eyes.

However,

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Another knock on the door was heard.

"Who is it?" Arvina questioned.

“Lady Arvina, the Headmaster is here to meet you.”

Her servant reported.

Arvina frowned.

‘Headmaster? At this time?’

She couldn’t understand what was going on.

“Let him in.”

In the end, she couldn’t let him wait for long.

He was the Headmaster of the Academy after all.

The doors opened and soon, a bald man walked inside.

“Vice Headmaster Arvina.”

He called out.

“Headmaster, I do not think it is appropriate for you to visit me at this time.”

“Oh C’mon, don’t act like it’s the middle of the night, Arvina. It is barely 9.”

“I still don’t believe that you can visit me at this time.”

Arvina didn’t back down.

“Haahh...”

The Headmaster sighed in defeat and shook his head,

“Alright, I will admit, it is my fault, I shouldn’t have come here at this time, I apologize.

Can we talk about the problem now, or do you want me to hold my ears and stand here for 5 minutes?"

Arvina's frown deepened.

From his words, what the Headmaster wanted to talk about sounded very urgent, however, for some reason, she didn't have a good feeling about this at all.

However, she had no other choice.

"What is it?"

Chapter 384

Evane entered Arvina's mansion with an excited look on her face. She was looking forward to meeting all her sisters today.

After all, she has finally done the deed.

Now, she could actively take part in the conversation and could finally talk about how incredibly good it felt.

How she needed an hour just to cope with the pleasure she felt.

How her entire body turned numb.

How Nux thrust his dick inside her.

How absurd his magics are.

And more and more.

She really was very excited to discuss all of this, however, as soon as she entered the room, the excitement on her face faded away.

“Evane, we were waiting for you.”

Seeing her, Nux smiled, then, he patted the spot beside him, signaling her to come and sit there.

Evane complied as she walked forward while observing everyone's expressions.

They were all smiling, however, Evane could still feel that there was a strange tension in the air.

“What happened to you guys?”

In the end, Evane couldn't control herself and questioned.

However, instead of the women, Nux was the one who answered,

“Evane, there are a few things that I believe you should know.”

“Hmm? What are they?”

“Other than the women inside this room, I have 2 more wives.”

Nux revealed.

“ ... ”

Evane frowned.

She couldn't understand.

“Is that it...?”

Why were they all acting like it is a big deal?

Nux having more women around him was very logical.

There is no way someone like him won't attract female attention to himself.

That is just not possible.

Actually, after thinking about this for a while, Evane has finally come to a conclusion.

The number of women Nux had didn't matter. Nux genuinely cares about her, she knows that. Therefore, now, or in the future, Evane was sure that she would never regret her choice of choosing Nux.

All she has to do is trust Nux.

“Look, if you were worried about me acting out after learning that you have more women, you don't have to worry.

Just bribe me and I will forget that you ever hid anything from me.”

Evane winked at Nux.

Seeing her like that, Nux couldn't help but let out a small chuckle.

“I see a Skyla.”

Felberta commented.

“I was about to say that...”

Lane, who usually doesn't speak much, commented as well.

“Indeed.”

Thyra nodded her head.

All the women smiled, the atmosphere inside the room lightened up a little and then, Nux continued,

“Don't worry, I will bribe you plenty later, however, I think you should learn about your two other sisters first.”

“Mhm, I am ready. Tell me about them, also, tell me when I can meet them. I am very excited to meet them.”

“Well, you have probably met them before.”

Nux commented.

“Hmm?”

Evane frowned.

“Who are they?” She questioned.

“Her name is Allura Skyfall.”

Nux revealed.

“!!!”

Evane’s eyes widened in surprise.

“Allura S-Skyfall? As in Consort Allura? T-The Royal Consort? The K-King’s Wife?”

“My wife, not the King’s.”

Nux was quick to correct.

“Y-You had the balls to g-go after the K-King’s wife?”

“As I said, she is MY wife, not the King’s.”

Again, Nux corrected.

“You call her Sister Allura, Allura, or anything, don’t call her Consort Allura.”

Evane could feel that Nux was actually getting a little irritated, therefore, she quickly corrected herself,

“So Sister Allura is... your wife?”

She still didn’t know how to digest this news

“Yes, that is correct.”

Nux nodded with a smile on his face.

“What about the King? What if he finds out?”

Evane questioned.

“Well...”

Nux didn't know how to answer.

Well, he did have an answer, however, he was hesitating to say it out loud, because, in the end, the King was still Evane's father.

He didn't think that he should say what he wants to say right now.

However, Nux knew that one way or another, he had to explain his plan to Evane. He cannot escape.

This was also the reason why Nux called her here.

However, in the end, he decided to take things slowly, at first, he should tell her about Allura and Amaya.

However, Evane treated Nux's silence in a different way.

“Hmmm, I can understand, just like the King, you are a King Stage Cultivator as well, you are as strong as the King, also, soon, you will have 7, no, 9 King Stage Cultivators by your side.

The King won't be able to do anything in front of you.”

“Umm... that is not entirely correct, however, for now, just know that I have a certain plan in my mind.”

Evane nodded,

“Mhm, I understand, what about the other one, who is she?”

“Amaya Skyfall.”

“Conso- Sister Amaya?”

Evane frowned.

“Isn't she curs-”

“Yes, you are correct. That one.

However, my Amaya is not cursed at all. Rather than a curse, that is a blessing for her and me.”

“It is not a curse? But I heard that the King tested it...”

“Yeah, those tests weren’t that great. Those people just didn’t have enough knowledge, so they termed it as a curse.

Welp, it protected my Amaya though, so that’s a good thing.”

Nux smiled.

“Well, so there you have it, Allura and Amaya, they are your sisters as well. You can actually talk to them using the telepathic connection.”

‘Hello, Princess.’

And as if she heard Nux’s words, Allura talked to Evane using the connection.

‘You are Cons- Sister Allura?’

Evane questioned back.

‘I am.’

‘What about Sister Amaya?’

‘Well... she, she won’t talk to you in front of everyone. I believe she would talk to you personally when you are alone.

Right now, she is probably just sneaking around, hearing our conversation.

She is a bit of a weirdo.’

Evane chuckled.

“Wait...”

Suddenly, a question popped up in Evane's mind.

“Why are you telling me about this right now?”

Hearing that question, Nux's face turned a little serious,

“Well you see, Allura is facing a problem inside the castle, so we ar-”

Suddenly, Nux paused in between his words and a frown appeared on his face.

Chapter 385

“Well you see, Allura is facing a problem inside the castle, so we ar-”

Suddenly, Nux paused in between his words and a frown appeared on his face.

Thyra, who was the most perceptive of the changes in Nux’s expression quickly understood what happened, and to confirm her theory, she activated [Sense].

Felberta and the others followed behind and soon, Ember did the same as well.

Evane, however, was lost.

She didn’t know what happened.

Everything was going fine, Nux was about to reveal his plan to her, however, suddenly, he paused, his expression changed, and a second later, the expressions of everyone present inside that room changed as well.

She felt left out again.

‘Use [Sense]’

However, suddenly, Evane heard Skyla’s voice in her head, she looked in her direction and saw her winking at her with a smile on her face.

A smile appeared on Evane’s face as well.

Then, she used her instincts to activate [Sense] and,

“!!!”

Her eyes widened in surprise.

She could see everything around her!

She could even see what was happening behind her, in front of her, above her, below her, she could see everything. Not only that, but she could even see outside the room even though she was inside the room right now.

‘Focus on Sister Arvina’s office,’

Then, Evane heard Skylar’s voice again.

‘Alright.’

She nodded, then, she focused on Arvina’s office.

She was surprised to see how easily she could peek into her office, however, soon, she stopped thinking about this useless stuff when she noticed the presence of that bald man standing inside Arvina’s office.

‘The Headmaster...’

She now realized why everyone’s expression changed.

This man shouldn’t be here right now.

And as if he had the same thoughts, Nux spoke out loud.

“Everyone, use [Conceal], hide your presence, I would go and see what is happening.”

“Alright.”

His women nodded and used [Conceal] to hide their presence, Evane did the same as well.

Nux smiled and then, he turned around and left the room.

A few seconds later, he was standing outside Arvina’s office.

“What is it?”

Arvina questioned.

“Vice Headmaster Arvina, I believe you should know that guests aren’t allowed here in the Academy.”

The Headmaster started without wasting much time.

“Guest? What are you talking about?”

A frown appeared on Arvina’s face as she questioned.

Seeing her expression, it actually looked like she didn’t know what the Headmaster was talking about.

Her reaction was pretty believable,

However,

“Oh C’mon, Arvina, do you really think that you would allow someone to stay inside your mansion and your servants won’t know about this?”

Arvina’s eyes turned cold when she heard the Headmaster’s words.

“Don’t make that face.

You didn’t really think that the servants working inside the Royal Academy would go against the Headmaster of the Academy and hide things from him, did you?

It is not their fault, their livelihood is at stake here.”

“ ... ”

Arvina turned silent.

“Arvina, you have been here for many years and we have a good relationship with each other, that is the only reason why I am willing to ignore this.

However, keep in mind, that guest of yours, I don't care whoever he or she is, I want him or her to leave, by tomorrow.

If I learn that he or she is still here even after my warning, then I would have to take action personally, are my words clear?"

"..."

Arvina didn't reply.

"Vice Headmaster Arvina, are my words clear?"

"Yes, they are, Headmaster."

Arvina finally replied.

"Good."

The Headmaster smiled and then, he turned around.

Nux, who was hearing everything from outside, clenched his fist and a cold expression appeared on his face.

The doors of the office opened, and the headmaster walked right passed him without being able to see him, Nux completely ignored the man, deactivated his [Conceal], and entered the office.

"What you doing here?"

Arvina, whose eyes fell on Nux questioned with a mildly surprised look on her face. Then, however, she shook her head,

"No, actually, that isn't really important. Since you are here, you must have heard the Headmaster's words, correct?"

"Yes, I have."

Nux nodded.

“Then you know what you have to do.”

“Teacher Arvina, I need your help.”

Nux spoke.

“I can’t really help you, Nux. That Baldy is unusually strict on this matter.”

“I need a Base of Operations.”

“Huh?”

Arvina frowned.

“Base of Operations, why do you need that?”

“The world is going to change soon, Teacher Arvina, and I need a place where I and my loved ones can stay safely, hidden from all the people, and at the same time, also keep an eye on the situation and the changes that are happening around us.”

“The World is changing, what do you mean?”

Arvina frowned.

“I mean exactly what I said, Teacher Arvina. I believe that we will see a big, world-shaking event soon.

And I am not saying that on the basis of stupid productions, I have my reasons to say what I am saying.

I have been to war and I have seen it,

The Emperor Stage Cultivator of the Solid Earth Kingdom is making his move without caring about the Treaty.

The Dynast of the Woods Dynasty is a fool.

According to my sources, the Skadi Kingdom's movements are strange as well.

The only Kingdom that does not seem to be doing anything strange things is ours, the Skyfall Kingdom. Which itself is a little suspicious because, in the end, we are the strongest out of the four nations.

There has to be something that our Kingdom is doing, we just don't know it.

4 Strongest Nations, making strange, unpredictable moves, do you really think nothing is going on?"

Nux questioned and Arvina turned silent.

"..."

Nux's words were logical, just the fact that the Emperor is moving is enough for the people to be on alert. The rest of the things were concerning as well.

"This Base of Operation, do you have any place in your mind?"

Arvina questioned.

"I do have a place in my mind."

Chapter 386

“I do have a place in my mind.”

Nux nodded.

“Where is it?”

Arvina questioned.

“Right here.”

“Hmm?”

“The Academy.”

“Academy?”

“Yes, this Academy.

This is the perfect spot, it is located inside the capital, therefore, we won't face any troubles in obtaining any information we want. And since this is the Royal Academy, a place that has the support from the Kingdom and has a King Stage Cultivator protecting the place, it is a perfect place to hide as well.

A perfect Base of Operations.

Now all I need to do is take over it.”

Nux answered with a smile on his face.

“Take over the Academy?”

Arvina frowned.

“Nux, just like you said, this Academy has a King Stage Cultivator protecting it, you can’t just take over the Academy like that.”

“Do you really think I can’t?”

Nux questioned with a smile on his face.

“Nux, I know you have the famed General Ember on your side, and I certainly believe that she is much stronger than the Headmaster, however, the fight between King Stage Cultivators is not that simple.

Even if Ember can defeat the Headmaster, all he has to do is run away and report to the King about what is happening here. Once that happens, we would have to face the entire Kingdom, and you already know that we are not ready for it.”

“Teacher Arvina, did you really forget how strong your student actually is?”

Nux chuckled and then, his face turned serious.

“I do not need Ember’s help to deal with that Baldy.”

“You plan to do everything yourself?”

“That is correct.”

“You do not need anyone’s help?”

“To deal with that Baldy? Trust me, me going myself is an overkill already.”

Nux was confident.

“Oh? Then why are you here?”

Arvina questioned.

“Well, I should at least inform my teacher about my next plans, shouldn’t I? You have trained me and taught me so many things. It is the least I can do to show my respect, right?”

A satisfied smile appeared on Arvina’s face.

“Are you absolutely sure you don’t need any help? How about you take Ember with you, just to be sure that nothing goes wrong? This is a very risky move, you need to think this through and you must have plan B and plan C even.”

She suggested.

Nux looked at Arvina for a while and then, he commented.

“You are underestimating me.”

“No, I am no-”

“No, I understand that. You are right in your own way, one should indeed have backup plans if when he making a risky move.

I agree, I will bring Ember with me as a backup plan, however, along with her, I want to bring you as well.”

“Me?”

“Yes, I want to show you how strong your student actually is.”

Nux smiled.

“Heh, you sound confident.

What if you mess up in front of your teacher? Won’t that be embarrassing?”

Arvina teased.

“I wouldn’t have invited you if I wasn’t confident, teacher.

Trust me, I don’t plan on messing up. I want to impress you and win your heart, after all.”

Nux chuckled.

Arvina chuckled and furrowed her brows at the same time.

‘Win my heart? That sounds so strange.’

She commented inwardly, however, thinking that it was only a joke, Arvina ignored it.

“Alright then, I would love to see how you will take over this academy. When are we leaving? How much time do you need to prepare everything you want?”

“Hmm? What prepared? I was born prepared teacher, we are leaving right now.”

“Huh? Right now?”

“Well, I wanted to wait for a few days, however, with that Baldy barging into your office like that, I decided to do it right now.”

This was actually true.

Nux wanted to wait till all his wives are King Stage Cultivators, including Evane.

Why his wives?

Well, they will all be acting as his backup plans in this operation after all.

Yes, Nux was doing a lot more thinking than before now.

He already had thought of backup plans before Arvina even proposed it, though his grand backup plan only involved his wives standing at the exit and the entry of the Academy, just to make sure the Baldy doesn’t run away.

This wasn’t really a Master plan, however, it was foolproof.

Since Nux even had a backup backup plan for the case where his women fail to catch the Baldy. Then, the Baldy, who would be near the Royal Palace would meet a certain white-haired woman.

He would then trust that white-haired woman and go with her, only to be betrayed later of course.

Yes, he was cautious.

Too cautious even.

One could say that he was, 'ready perfectly'.

“Aren't you being too spontaneous...?”

Arvina questioned.

“Trust me, teacher, I am not.”

Nux assured.

Arvina decided to place her trust in her student and nodded.

“Alright, I trust you, let's call Ember now.”

“I have already called her, she will be coming here in a minute.”

Nux smiled.

“Huh? When did you call her? You were right in front of me all this while.”

“Teacher, we two are lovers, we don't need to talk to each other to say what we want.

Our hearts are connected, with this, we can talk with each other no matter how far we are.”

Nux answered and Arvina stepped back a little.

There was a strange expression on her face.

It was clear that she didn't believe Nux at all.

Actually, Arvina was having a hard time digesting such a corny line, especially since it was coming from her student.

“It looks like you don't believe me, teacher.”

Nux commented.

“What's there to believe? That's an obvious lie.

Heart connection my fo-”

“Hmph, admit it, you are just jealous.”

Arvina's sentence was interrupted by Ember, who was standing behind her.

“Huh? When did you come here?”

“Just now. My husband called me so of course, I will be here. We are going to that Baldy, right?”

Nux told me that the Baldy barged into your house and ordered you to kick all of us out by tomorrow.”

“!!!”

Arvina's eyes widened in surprise.

Chapter 387

“H-How did you know!?”

Arvina questioned with a shocked, almost horrified look on her face.

“Hmm? I told you right, Nux told me.”

Ember shrugged, not caring about Arvina’s shocked look one bit.

“How? He was right in front of me!”

Arvina wasn’t having it.

“I told you before, didn’t I, Teacher? Lovers have a Heart connection with each other, they can communicate with one another no matter the distance.”

“Don’t fool me! I have never heard of something like that!”

“Well, you have never met real lovers, have you?”

Ember chuckled.

“I mean, most of the couples you met were either forced by their families, wanted the status, or were trying to kill each other.

Your own relationship isn’t any different either now, is it?”

“...”

Arvina turned silent.

She only looked at Nux and Ember smiling at each other and narrowed her eyes.

“Shall we leave now?”

Ember questioned as she glanced at Arvina.

“Alright...”

Arvina nodded.

Nux smiled as well.

‘Are you guys ready?’

‘We are already in our position, captain!’

Skyla saluted.

‘Yes, we are ready, don’t worry, I will protect Evane, she is right here with me.’

Thyra spoke as well.

‘I-I’ll be careful as well... You do the same, okay?’

Evane spoke.

‘I’ll be careful.’

Nux nodded.

‘Good luck.’

Felberta smiled.

‘Meh, it’s not like he needs it, it’s only the Baldy.’

Edda shrugged.

Nux chuckled and then, his face turned serious.

Arvina, Ember, and Nux then walked out of Arvina’s mansion and sneaked inside the Badly’s Mansion.

The plan was to knock out any servant they meet while moving toward Baldy's room, however, Nux moved around so greatly that it felt like he had the map of the entire place in his mind.

“ ... ”

Arvina was speechless, she has been inside the Headmaster's Mansion a few times, however, even she has not seen some paths Nux was taking.

5 minutes later, Nux, Arvina, and Ember were right in front of Headmaster Eliyard's room.

“What are we going to do? Barge right in? Or do we lure him out?”

Arvina whispered.

“That sounds so discourteous, Teacher. How could you even suggest something like that?”

Nux couldn't believe how rude his teacher sounded.

“Teacher Arvina, one should always be courteous while doing something like this,”

Nux explained and then,

*Bam*

He kicked the door open.

“Courteous...”

Arvina commented.

Ember chuckled.

“Who are you?”

Headmaster Eliyard questioned with a frown on his face.

“We meet again, Headmaster.”

Nux smiled.

Eliyard narrowed his eyes,

“Nux...?”

He recognized this student.

“That is correct.”

Nux smiled.

“What are you doing here?”

Eliyard questioned with a strict look on his face.

“Well, you did barge into my Teacher’s Office at an untimely hour, consider it as payback.”

Eliyard’s expression turned cold, his eyes then fell on Arvina who was following behind Nux, and spoke coldly.

“Arvina, if you don’t give me a good explanation, don’t think you would be able to save him, or yourself. Also, don’t rely on the fact that you are the Royal Consort becau-Ugghhh!”

*Bam*

Eliyard’s body was sent flying and collided with the wall.

Nux stepped forward.

“I have to say, you are quite brave to talk to my teacher like that right in front of me.”

“K-King S-Stage... You are a King Stage Cultivator!!”

Eliyard received the biggest shock of the century.

“Did you really not check that when I entered your room, you dumbass?”

“H-How is this possible!?”

Eliyard couldn't care less about Nux's insults. He was just too shocked to say or do anything.

However,

Nux just appeared right in front of him and kicked his face again.

*Bam*

*Clank*

This time, Eliyard's body clashed with the table, breaking the table and the vase that was on the top of the table in the process.

Blood trailed down from Eliyard's forehead.

Eliyard touched his forehead, seeing the blood on his fingers, his eyes widened in surprise, and then,

His face distorted in anger.

“You bastard!”

The Baldy then dashed towards Nux and a sword appeared in his hand.

He didn't care if this boy was a student of this academy.

This boy was a King Stage Cultivator of unknown background who barged into his room and attacked him. This was enough reason for him to deal with this situation as he sees fit.

Yes, he was planning to kill Nux.

*Bam*

*Clank*

Or that's what he wanted to do at least.

However, Eliyard was completely oppressed.

With just one slap, Nux had sent him flying away. This time, his body clashed with the wall, and the painting that was placed on the wall fell down and broke down.

Nux then walked towards Eliyard and stepped on his sword.

Eliyard looked at Nux's face and any change in his expression,

Nux attacked his head with his knees. Eliyard's head was sandwiched between the wall and Nux's knee and his nose broke.

Nux, however, wasn't done.

He continued to crush Eliyard's face with his knee again, and again, then again.

“AAgg- Bgghh!!”

Eliyard couldn't even scream properly. His vocal chord was being clogged with blood.

With each attack, his face was disfigured to another degree, while more and more blood dropped on the ground.

After Nux was finally satisfied, he grabbed Eliyard's neck and lifted him in the air.

“This... is this really a fight between two King Stage Cultivators...?”

Arvina, who was looking at everything questioned with a dumbstruck look on his face.

“Trust me when I say it... but your student is holding back...”

Ember replied. Her words sounded confident, however, deep inside, even she was a little shocked.

This one-sided beat-up was a fight between King Stage Cultivators... it was hard to believe...

“He is much stronger than I thought...”

Arvina finally realized.

“He is.”

Ember nodded.

“No wonder you lost when you fought him.”

If Arvina had said those words before, Ember would have retorted angrily, however this time,

“I had no chance from the start.”

She admitted.

“Though I will say, I wasn’t beaten up that brutally.”

She pointed at Eliyard.

“I kind of feel bad for him...”

Arvina commented and Ember agreed.

Chapter 388

Nux looked into Eliyard's eyes with a cold expression on his face.

Eliyard glared back.

The anger, rage, and defiance were clear in his eyes.

“Heh, and I here I thought you were just a coward.”

Nux chuckled.

“W-Who are you?”

Eliyard questioned in a hoarse voice.

“Did you forget about the student of your own Academy, Headmaster?”

Nux questioned with a playful smile on his face.

“You are not a student of my Academy. You are a Spy. A Spy sent by an enemy Kingdom!

Tell me, which Kingdom sent you here? Is it the Skadi?”

Eliyard's face was completely red right now and he was desperately gasping for air, however, even after that, he didn't show a single sign of weakness and questioned with his eyes full of anger.

Nux commended that unyielding attitude of his.

However, right now, that wasn't something he wanted to see.

He wanted a weak Eliyard right now and he didn't mind making things a little more painful to get what he wanted.

“Nothing personnel, Headmaster.”

Saying that, he threw Eliyard's body away as if it was a bag of trash.

“Aggh!! Ugghhh!!”

Eliyard groaned in pain.

Nux walked towards him leisurely and,

He kicked on his stomach, sending him flying again.

“Ugggkghkkhh!!”

Nux then observed Eliyard and noticed that he was still looking at him with the same defiance on his face.

He sighed.

“Do you want my help? I am an expert when it comes to dealing with these types of people.”

Ember raised her hand and spoke with a fresh smile on his face.

“Oh really?”

Nux questioned.

“Who do you think I am?”

Evane smiled even more.

A smile appeared on Nux's face as well.

“Alright then, how about you give me a few tips?”

Nux turned towards Ember and questioned with a smile on his face.

“Hmmm, so for the starters...

How about keeping an eye on your enemy?”

Ember smiled.

Nux frowned, he then turned around and noticed that Eliyard was already near the back door.

He was running away!

“Haahh... I guess I was right before, he is a coward.”

Nux sighed. He actually looked a little disappointed.

“You got overconfident.”

Ember commented.

“You are right. I will be careful in the future.”

Nux nodded.

“Mhm, you should. When the stakes are high, these small mistakes can be heavier.”

Ember nodded back.

“Hey! Can't you see!? That man is running away!! Why are you two so calm!?”

Arvina shouted in panic.

Just what were these two thinking!? Cant, they discuss the mistakes or whatever after capturing Eliyard!? What if he runs away and reports everything to the Kingdom?

No matter how strong Nux and Ember were, acting so carelessly was not acceptable!

“You worry too much, teacher.”

Nux smiled.

“What are you talking about!?”

Arvina couldn't believe it.

“Ember! You know how dire the consequences will be if he reports it to the King, right!? Why aren't you doing anything!?”

“Well, I know about the consequences, however, I, think trying to do everything by myself is too... lonely.

I should try and place my trust on my sisters...”

Ember replied.

Her expression looked a little lost right now, it was as if she was thinking about something important and her mind wasn't here.

“Sisters?”

Arvina frowned and suddenly,

“Agggghh!! Leave me you bitches! Help! Somebody help me!!”

She heard a voice.

Arvina glanced at the door and soon, Thyra walked in while dragging the injured Eliyard with his leg.

Behind her, Felberta, Skyla, Lane, Edda, and Evane walked in as well.

‘What is she doing here?’

A question popped inside Arvina's mind, however, she had more important things to talk about right now.

“We captured him.”

Thyra spoke with a smile.

A big smile appeared on Nux's face.

He then turned towards Ember and spoke,

“See? You can trust your back on your sisters, they are all very awesome.”

Ember smiled back and nodded.

“They are better than I expected at least.”

“Hmph, don't get carried away. I will surpass you soon enough, bitch.”

Thyra snorted.

“We will see about that.” Ember chuckled.

“Wait Wait Wait, I think you guys are missing something here.”

Suddenly, Arvina spoke up.

“Hmm? What's the matter, Teacher Arvina?”

Nux questioned with a confused look on his face.

“He is a King Stage Cultivator, just how did they capture him!? How can a few Expert Stage Cultivators stop a King Stage CULTvator from running away!? This is unheard of!”

Arvina questioned.

“It's not that hard if you stab the calf muscle~”

Skyla smiled cutely as she pointed at Eliyard's body.

“...”

Arvina's eyes finally fell on Eliyard's body.

She noticed that both his calves muscles were stabbed by two knives.

However, that wasn't it.

There was one knife on his right thigh, one on his left foot, one was pierced inside the right shoulder and his entire face was swollen up, but that was probably Nux's doing.

Arvina could now imagine what happened and how it happened.

“Hmm hmm, if we use assassination techniques more creatively, you can capture someone alive. You just have to stab nonlethal points rather than the critical ones.”

Thyra spoke with a fresh smile on her face.

“Though I will admit, I almost pierced his heart out of instinct.”

“Now now, we have to treat him properly, okay? He is the key to our base after all.”

Edda chuckled.

“...”

Although there were a lot of things in her mind, Arvina decided to stay silent.

“Which kingdom sent you bastards?”

Eliyard questioned with eyes full of rage.

“Alright, you can drop this act now.

You are not fooling anyone.”

Ember spoke while she glanced at Eliyard.

“Act?”

Nux tilted his face in confusion.

“Yeah, him acting all brave like this, it is all an act.

Although rare, I have seen a few people act like that.

They are the type who fear ‘pain’ more than death.

They would try to make you feel that they are not afraid of death, just so they could fool you into thinking that they are not the ones you can break with torture and you would kill them right away.”

Ember then walked towards Eliyard and soon, the smile on her face turned demonic,

“In other words, they act brave, however, in reality,

They are the biggest cowards you would ever meet in your entire life.”

Chapter 389

“In other words, they act brave, however,

They are the biggest cowards you would ever meet in your entire life.”

Ember spoke as she looked at Eliyard with a demonic smile on her face.

“Aren’t I right, Eliyard Kingson?”

“W-Who are you?”

Eliyard questioned as his body trembled a little.

Ember crouched and with her face close to Eliyard, she whispered,

“You are not the one asking questions here, Eliyard.”

“E-E-Ember... You are E-Ember W-Windstar...”

Eliyard finally recalled.

He always thought that Ember was a little familiar, however, he didn’t care much about it because he was dealing with other, far more important matters, however, now that Ember’s face was so close to his, he finally recalled who she was.

“Oh ho? I didn’t know you were so popular, Ember.”

Nux chuckled.

“What can I say? You can’t contain my awesomeness no matter what happens.”

“Indeed, Indeed. I agree with that.”

Nux nodded repeatedly and then, he questioned,

“So? What about him? What you said about him, is it really true?”

“Don’t we have a better way to find out?”

Suddenly, Thyra walked forward.

“Hmm? What are they, Thyra?” Nux questioned with a smile on his face.

Thyra smiled back, then she walked towards Eliyard and crouched.

“We can always test it out, can’t we?”

Saying that, Thyra stabbed a knife into his left thigh.

“AAaaGGGhHHhh!!”

Eliyard screamed in pain.

“HMMMMMMMMM.”

Thyra nodded to herself.

“What did you find out, Detective Thyra?”

Nux questioned with a playful smile on his face.

Evane noticed that he was awfully unbothered about the man screaming in front of it and narrowed her eyes. Different thoughts about this situation filled her mind after that.

Of course, everyone else was oblivious to these thoughts.

“Hmmm, I was wondering this when I stabbed him before, but now I am sure. His screams are louder than the screams I usually hear when I stab other people.

This is very strange. It is almost as if he feels more pain than the others.”

“Hmmm, that is an interesting theory.”

Nux smiled.

“But how does that prove my point?”

Ember questioned curiously.

“Well, it does not, for now.”

“For now?” Felberta frowned.

“We can always run more experiments, can we not?”

There are many non-life-threatening places on his body, we have a lot of healing potions in our stock, so why don't we find more about this?”

Thyra proposed.

“That seems like an interesting idea.”

Nux and his other women nodded, however,

“NO! NO! You can't hurt me anymore! You don't need to prove it. She's is right! I am afraid of pain, so don't hurt me! Please! I will do anything you want, just don't hurt me.”

Before the experiment could continue, Eliyard spoke up.

He had finally realized.

He was cornered by a group of crazy people.

Absolute maniacs!

Just how could one not care about someone who is screaming in agony and just talking about things like it is a normal Sunday?

How ridiculous is that!?

Eliyard didn't have any intentions to against these crazy people.

He was cornered here, he needed an opportunity to get out of this place. However, he will do all of that later, for now, ensuring that he won't get stabbed anymore had a higher priority.

“Oh? Well, this proves your theory, doesn't it, Ember?”

He is a coward.”

“I never doubted myself for even a second.”

“I certainly believe that.”

“Well then, I believe it is my turn now, correct?”

Nux smiled as he stepped towards Eliyard and then, he questioned.

“Eliyard Kingson, are you willing to be my Slave?”

“Yes, I am. I definitely am. I would do anything you say, no matter what it is.”

Eliyard answered without a second of hesitation.

Even Nux was a little taken aback.

“A simple yes would have sufficed.”

“W-What have you done to me?”

Suddenly, Eliyard questioned in panic.

Right after he said those words, a strange energy entered his body, and for some reason, he got a bad feeling about this energy.

For some reason, he knew that whatever it was, it wasn't a good thing.

And of course, he was 100% right.

“Nothing much, really. Just a little magic of mine that would ensure that you remain loyal to me from now on.”

“Huh?”

Eliyard frowned.

However, before he could even ask anything, Thyra removed all the knives that were stabbed into his body.

“AAaagghhH- Ummghgfgffff!”

He opened his mouth to scream, however, Thyra forced a healing potion into his mouth.

The man wasn't even allowed to scream.

The wounds started healing up, and although the healing wasn't very fast, Eliyard's condition was certainly better compared to before.

Thyra, Ember, and Nux moved away from him, leaving him alone.

Seeing this, Arvina frowned.

“What are you guys doing? What if he runs away?”

“Hmm? Didn't he admit to being my Slave? Everything will be fine from now on, don't worry.”

Nux smiled,

“Isn't that right, Eliyard?”

“Y-Yes, of course, yes. I would never run away, how could I possibly do that when I gave you my word? Don't worry, I am a man of my word.”

Eliyard answered with a smile on his face, at the same time, he continued to tie up the wounds on his legs with bandages.

As someone who fear pain more than anything, he had a decent knowledge of first aid.

Soon, the ring on his finger shined, another Healing Potion appeared in his hand and he gulped it down as well.

Nux and his women did nothing but watch him do whatever he wanted with a smile on their faces.

It was as if they were waiting for something.

This confused Evane and Arvina a lot.

“So? Shall we discuss how things are going to change after today?”

When Eliyard was finally done with everything and was now standing on his two legs, Nux questioned.

Eliyard smiled.

“Ah, sure. Of course, I am your slave now, you could tell me whatever you want. I will make sure...”

Eliyard started walking towards the doors while talking, making it look as natural as possible.

Arvina panicked when he was near the doors, however, suddenly,

“...all you have to do is give the ord- AAAGGGGHHHHHH!!!!!!”

Eliyard shrieked in agony.

“You thought of running away, didn’t you?”

Nux chuckled.

Chapter 390

“Alright, fire all the servants who work here, I will bring my own people here,”

Nux ordered while he and his wives walked around Eliya- Nux’s new mansion.

“As you command, Master.”

Behind them, Nux’s most loyal slave walked with his head bowed.

“Hmm, finally those people would have a place to live, they aren’t doing any good while staying with Bannermane and Hardwick.”

Thyra smiled.

“Indeed. Those assassins would be moving a lot now, tell them to be prepared.”

“Don’t worry, I will make sure they don’t slack off.”

Thyra nodded.

“Also, which is the most lavish room in this Mansion?”

Nux questioned.

“That would be mine, Master.”

“Yeah, that would be mine now.”

“Yes, Master.

I would make sure to change the curtains, bedsheets, no, I would just change the whole bed and would... umm...”

Eliyard then looked around and muttered,

“I would make sure to place the largest bed possible inside that room.”

“...”

The whole area turned silent.

“Mhm, Nux, I like this new Slave of yours, you Pass.”

Edda gave a thumbs up.

“I thank you for your praise, Lady umm...”

“Edda.”

“Yes, Lady Edda.”

Eliyard bowed respectfully.

“See that? Cowards really are the best, aren't they?”

Ember whispered into Nux's ears.

“Indeed.”

Nux nodded with a satisfied look on his face.

This all started after Eliyard experienced that hellish pain after he tried to run away.

Mind you, the pain that the Slave Seal inflicts was so strong that even someone like Thyra had no choice but to give up, a coward like Eliyard didn't even stand a chance of resisting it.

And as someone who fears pain more than his life, Eliyard made a point to not betray his Master for the rest of his life.

And that, was how the most Loyal Slave to ever exist in this world was born.

“Huh? Teacher?”

While Nux and the others were exploring their new mansion, a familiar person appeared in front of them.

“What are you doing here?”

Candice narrowed her eyes when she saw Nux.

Nux, however, completely ignored her words and turned towards Eliyard.

“What is she doing here?”

“S-She is my student, so she has the right to live in my mansion.”

“Well, not anymore, kick her out.”

Nux ordered.

Eliyard nodded and then walked towards Candice.

“Candice, you should leave. You are not allowed to live here any longer.”

“Huh? Why?”

Candice frowned.

“Because I said so. Now leave.”

“But according to the rule-”

“Yes, I, as the Headmaster of the Academy have made a new rule, that you, aren’t allowed to stay here.

Now leave.”

Eliyard ordered.

There were no signs of his previous tamed behavior, now he looked like the old headmaster again.

“That is quite a transformation.”

Felberta commented.

“Indeed.”

Nux nodded with a smile on his face.

Enjoying the show that was happening in front of him.

“My father will know about this.”

Candice threatened in a solemn tone.

“A father who is merely a Marquee? You think I care about him? Trust me, child, if even 10 of your fathers were to come at me, nothing would be changed.

Now leave.

Also, keep in mind, do not call yourself my student anymore.”

“...”

Candice didn't say anything, however, with how moist her eyes were, it was clear that she was affected by her tea- past teacher's words. Momentarily, her eyes fell on Nux, who ignored her this time as well, she clenched her fists and turn around.

“Tell someone to keep an eye on her, the moment she leaves the Academy, inform me.”

Nux spoke as he glanced at Candice who was walking away.

“I will do that, Master.”

Eliyard nodded.

The exploring continued for a while longer, Nux changed everything that he didn't like, of course, his wives ordered the changes they wanted in their new rooms.

An hour later, the exploring finally ended and Eliyard bowed.

“Master, I have noted all the things you have asked for and will make sure everything is ready by tomorrow morning.”

Nux nodded.

“I will be taking my leave now, Master.”

Nux nodded again and Eliyard turned away.

“I... I can't believe you subdued Eliyard so... easily...”

Arvina commented.

“I told you, didn't I? I am a lot stronger than you think, Teacher.”

Nux smiled.

“Can... I ask you something?”

After a moment of silence, Arvina spoke.

“You can ask me anything you want, Teacher.”

“Why... why did the Headmaster start screaming at that time...?”

“Y-Yes, I would like to know that as well...”

Evane stepped forward as well.

“Well, it is one of my magics that ensures someone’s loyalty to me. At that time, he was thinking about running away from me, which was interpreted as him betraying me, thus, the pain.”

Nux didn’t hide anything.

Evane understood what he was talking about.

‘I will tell you more about it later, love.’

Evane then heard Nux’s voice in her head and she nodded with a smile.

“Huh? Magic? What Magic? Is it some sort of Skill Book?”

Arvina on the other hand, frowned.

“Heh. Your student has many secrets, Teacher.”

Nux chuckled.

“...”

Arvina didn’t know what to say.

Whatever technique Nux used... it was...

Brutal...

Of course, she wasn’t planning to call him out on that.

In this world, how you achieve something doesn’t matter, the only thing that matters is that have you got what you want or not.

Therefore, Arvina didn’t talk much about this ‘magic’.

“Also, why did you fire all the servants working here?”

She questioned.

“Teacher, your servants leaked the news about Ember living with you, what guarantees that these servants won’t leak the news about us living here?”

“Then who were the new servants you were talking about?”

“They are my people.”

Thyra answered.

“Your people?”

“Yes, I have trained them and now, they will be working for him.”

Thyra answered.

“Have you contacted them?”

Nux questioned while they were on this topic.

“Yes I have, they will be coming here soon. Just tell Eliyard to deal with the guards.”

“Don’t worry about that.”

Nux replied and Thyra nodded back.

“Heh, now, all we have to do is wait.”

Felberta chuckled.

“Indeed.”

“I am excited to meet Sister Allura.”

Skyla spoke with an excited look on her face.

“Hmm? Allura?”

Arvina frowned.

“She is my wife, Teacher.”

“Oh... it’s just that I know a person who has the same name.”

Arvina replied.

“Ahh,”

Nux nodded back.

Felberta and the others smiled.

Chapter 391

“Your Majesty.”

A servant bowed with a respectful expression on his face.

A black-haired handsome man looked at the servant and questioned with a lazy look on his face.

“Why are you here?”

“Lady Allura wants to go out on her tour again.”

The Servant informed.

A small frown appeared on Ricardus’s face.

“Didn’t she go on her little tour 2 weeks ago?”

“That is correct, Your Majesty, but now the Royal Consort wishes to go out again.”

“...”

Ricardus started thinking.

The servant who was looking at the King of the Kingdom couldn’t help but shake his head.

‘Everyone in the Royal Palace knows that Consort Allura likes to go out every week, however, here he is, getting surprised that she wants to go out after 2 weeks. Shouldn’t he be more worried instead? Does he not know anything about his wife at all?’

Ricardus, of course, was oblivious to the servant’s thoughts.

“Alright, let her go wherever she wants, however, tell her to return within 2 hours.”

“2 Hours?”

The Servant frowned.

Isn't that too less? You could barely even look around if you just have 2 hours. Normally, Consort Allura only returns after 6-7 hours, how is she going to return in just 2 hours?

“What? Did you not hear what I said?”

Ricardus narrowed his eyes.

“Nothing at all, Your Majesty. I will inform Consort Allura right now.”

In the end, this wasn't a matter where the servant should butt in, therefore, he just bowed and left the room.

After the servant left, Ricardus's face turned serious.

“Keeve,”

He called out.

A man wearing black colored clothes appeared in front of him and kneeled.

“Your Majesty.”

“Have they reported anything?”

Ricardus questioned.

Keeve, however, shook his head,

“They have not. Let alone using a different way to cultivate, Consort Allura doesn't cultivate at all.

All she does is idle around, read books, eat food, chat with servants and just stare at the building with a silly smile on her face.

We have searched her room quite a few times, we have even interrogated the servants she talks to, however, we are unable to find anything.

There is no major change in Consort Allura other than her Cultivation.”

“ ... ”

Ricardus thought about everything for a while and then, he nodded his head.

“I am sure that she is hiding something from us, just keep an eye on her, I am sure she would let her guard down soon enough.”

“As you command, Your Majesty.”

“Also, as you have heard, she is going out again, order your men to follow her, I don’t trust her bodyguards now.”

“Yes, Your Majesty.”

Keeve nodded and then, he turned around.

After Keeve left his room, a sigh escaped Ricardus’s mouth and he smiled,

“Allura, oh my dear Allura, just what is it that you are hiding from me? Is it a secret cultivation technique?”

Then, his purple eyes shined in greed.

“Is it something that would make me an Emperor?”

I will know about it soon enough.”

...

‘I am inside the Carriage now.’

30 minutes later, Allura finally walked into her carriage and informed her real husband with an excited look on her face.

‘Kekeke~ I can’t wait to see you, Allura.’

Allura heard a reply and a beautiful smile appeared on her face.

‘I can’t wait to see you either.’

She replied.

‘Alright, you two know about the plan, correct?’

Amaya, couldn’t hear them talking to each other with so much love interrupted.

‘Yes, we know. Don’t worry.’

Nux and Allura nodded.

‘Do you want me to go over it again?’

Amaya questioned.

‘No, we are fine.’

Allura smiled.

A small pout appeared on Amaya’s face.

‘Whatever.’

She snorted.

“Lady Allura, we are ready, shall we leave now?”

“Yes,”

Allura nodded with a graceful smile on her face.

Her carriage then left the Palace, this time however, along with her 2 Grand Master Stage Bodyguards, there were,

‘3 Expert Stage Cultivators are following me.’

‘Heh, the King really values you, doesn’t he? You might have the chance to become King’s favorite consort, Allura.’

Amaya chuckled.

‘You can take this chance from me, I don’t care.’

Allura snorted.

‘I would rather stay as Nux’s favorite wife.’

Amaya commented.

‘Huh? Since when did you become Nux’s favorite wife?’

‘From the start, of course.’

Amaya answered confidently.

‘Heh, keep dreaming.’

Allura snorted.

‘Girls, let’s focus on the mission, shall we?’

Nux’s danger senses started tingling when he heard what they were talking about, he could easily predict what situation he would be placed in if he let them continue this conversation, however, he, who has been dealing with these girls for months now, was experienced.

Therefore, without even wasting a second, he changed the topic.

‘There are three Expert Stage CULTvators following you, correct, Allura?’

Tell me, how strong are they?’

Nux questioned.

‘Huh? Well, not very strong, the strongest one is only at the middle of the Expert Stage, while the rest seems to have just broken through Grand Master Stage.’

Allura answered.

‘Hm hm, I understand. They won’t pose much difficulty then.’

Nux nodded.

‘Heh, you talk as if they would pose trouble if they were at Peak of Expert Stage.’

Amaya chuckled.

‘Well, if they were all Emperor Stage Cultivators, it would have been problematic.’

Nux replied.

‘Sure sure.’

Amaya just shook her head.

‘Hmm, I have arrived at the spot.’

A few minutes later, Allura spoke.

Hearing those words, Nux sighed in relief.

He managed to avoid the arrow by avoiding that topic.

After a light chuckle, Nux’s face turned serious.

‘Alright, I can see your carriage now.’

‘Start the plan.’

Amaya spoke in a solemn tone as well.

Allura nodded and then, she ordered.

“Stop the Carriage.”

“Hmm? Here?”

The driver frowned.

“I said stop the carriage!”

Allura repeated.

This time, her voice was filled with panic!

“Stop the Carriage you bastard!”

She shouted in fear.

The driver frowned, however, before he could reply, he heard another shout.

“Who are you!? How did you get inside!?”

No! Don’t!!!

Someone! Save me!!

HELP!!

HEL- AAagghhhhHhhhH!!!”

Chapter 392

‘Ugghhh... Why do I have to follow her like this...’

A man groaned inwardly.

He was Trent, one of the men working under King’s Personnel Unit known as the Shadow Guards.

Though not many people knew about this Unit, however, if Ricardus were given a choice to choose between the Skyfall Army or the Shadow Unit, then without a doubt, he would choose the Shadow Unit.

That was how strong this Unit was.

Not only that but they were all extremely loyal to the King as well.

Capture them and they would kill themselves the second they get the chance to.

The Shadow Unit was the King’s most trusted Unit and knew almost all of the King’s Dark secrets that others didn’t know about.

The assassination of the troublesome nobles, stealing from rich nobles, finding out about a piece of certain information, burying down a piece of certain news, spreading rumors, there was nothing that the Shadow Unit didn’t do.

And being part of this Unit, Trent was dissatisfied with the fact that rather than risking his life for the King, he was assigned to this pathetic job of spying on his wife.

‘Ugghhh... how boring can one person be...?’

Trent groaned inwardly.

‘She is just going to eat, roam around like an idiot, then return... why are they sending me after her...? Don’t they have anything better? How about I kill some nobles? Now that would be interesting...’

Trent was full of complaints.

He wanted to live a thrilling life, after all.

And unfortunately,

His wish came true.

Suddenly, Allura’s carriage stopped.

Trent frowned.

‘Why has the carriage stopped in the middle of a busy street? Wasn’t she planning to go inside the restaurant?’

He wondered inwardly.

Then, his eyes fell on the driver, who stood up from his seat and rushed towards the carriage with a panicked look on his face.

Without any manners or constraints, the driver opened the carriage doors and his eyes widened in horror.

“Lady Allura! Lady Allura!!!”

He screamed at the top of his lungs.

“Lady Allura is not here!”

‘Huh?’

Trent frowned.

She’s not here? Where else could she be?

He was sure that he has seen her entering the carriage with his own two eyes. He couldn't possibly be mistaken.

Trent wanted to go out and see what is happening, however, he knew it wasn't the time yet.

Lady Allura had her 'official' protectors, after all.

As if on cue, the two protectors quickly rushed towards the driver.

“What happened? Where is Lady Allura?”

One of the protectors questioned.

“I-I don't know!”

The driver answered in a panic.

The protector frowned.

Then, he pushed the driver away and peeked into the carriage.

“Blood...”

A solemn look appeared on the Protector's face.

There were some signs of a struggle inside the carriage.

“AAGGGHHHHHHH!!!!”

Before the two protectors could talk more about it, one of the commoners, who had circled around the carriage to see what was going on screamed in horror.

The others looked in the direction he was pointing at and,

“AAGGGHHHHHHH!!”

“It's a Head!”

“Murder!!”

“He was beheaded!!”

Chaos ensued.

There was a bodyless head that was rolling on the ground with endless blood coming out of the neck...

Trent’s eyes widened in surprise when he saw that face...

‘That’s Stark!’

He recognized that face.

It was a man from the Shadow Unit.

Not only that, but he was also one of the 3 members who were following behind Allura, just like him.

What’s even worse?

He was the strongest out of all of them!

‘How did he die? Why didn’t we see or notice anything? When did all this happen?’

Many questions popped inside his mind, however, now wasn’t the time to think about these things.

Right now, he had to act.

The enemy was in the shadows and was trying to hunt them, they don’t know anything about the enemy, however, with how effortlessly he killed Stark, Trent assumed that he was a King Stage Cultivator.

The best move in this situation would obviously be to run away, however, King’s wife went missing, and the only proof they have is the carriage.

They couldn't leave it here, not in the hands of those useless protectors.

Therefore, the best solution would be,

Trent dashed towards the Carriage. There, his eyes fell on another man who was running towards the carriage as well. He knew that man.

He was the other member who was assigned to this mission.

It seemed that he had the same thought process as Trent.

The two of them nodded at each other and stood in front of the carriage with their backs touching each other.

“W-Who are you!?”

One of the protectors questioned in panic.

“Shut it, we will be taking over this case now.”

Trent declared, and at the same time, a badge appeared in his hands.

Seeing that badge, the two protectors' eyes widened in surprise.

“K-King's Badge!!”

*Whoosh*

*Crackle* *Crackle*

While Trent was dealing with the protectors, his partner quickly fired a firecracker in the sky.

Within a few seconds, the blue Sky was shining with red, and yellow colors, however, no one had the time to admire that beautiful sight.

The crowd continued to run away hysterically, the protectors just bowed their heads, and Trent and his partners just stood there, with their backs touching each other.

“The guards should be here soon.”

Trent’s partner, Tim, spoke.

“Yes, don’t let your guard down. The attacker can attack any time.”

Trent replied.

“Don’t worry, I am prepared.”

Trent and Tim stood there on full alert.

Seeing that sight, Nux, who was looking at everything from afar smiled,

“So they are the Shadow Unit? Doesn’t look very strong to me.”

He chuckled.

“Don’t joke around.”

Allura, who was on Nux’s back spoke in a solemn tone.

“Well, I will admit, their reaction was faster than I thought. I wanted to kill 2 of them, but they grouped up too quickly.”

“You should have asked for help.”

“Indeed.”

Nux nodded.

Realizing his mistake.

“Not that it would matter anyway. In the end, what we wanted to achieve has been achieved.”

Allura chuckled.

“Then let’s watch the show, shall we?”

Nux pointed at the unit of soldiers that were rushing towards the area.

Chapter 393

“Everybody, calm down, no one will move, listen to what I say, otherwise, don’t blame us for being cruel.”

The Man who was leading the Unit of Soldiers ordered.

“Lord, they are not listening to us at all!”

“Hmph! Why are they panicking about a little head? If they are that scared, I need to use this fear to my advantage.

Guards, behead whoever dares to disobey you. You have my permission.”

As soon as this order was released, 3 more heads fell on the ground.

“...”

This time, no one shouted.

The entire area turned silent.

“I will repeat.

Nobody moves. If anyone dares to disobey my words, you would meet a similar fate.”

“...”

Everybody turned silent.

With a satisfied look on his face, the Head of the Guards continued, “Royal Consort Allura has been Kidnapped by some filthy rats, not only that, but those bastards dared to kill one of our people, if anyone of you has any idea about what has happened, come forward.

If the information you provide turns out to be helpful, you would be heavily rewarded.”

Everyone looked at each other, clearly interested in the ‘heavy rewards’ the Head Guard was talking about, however, nobody stepped forward.

No one knew what happened, not even the people who gathered here first.

Seeing this, the Head Guard just sighed.

Then, he turned towards Trent and Tim and bowed,

“Sir, we have surrounded the Area.”

Trent and Tim nodded.

“Alright, I think we should begin the investigation.”

“Lord...”

Suddenly, one of the protectors called out.

“What?”

Trent questioned.

“You should look inside the Carriage.”

“...”

Trent looked at the protector and then nodded.

With a serious look on his face, he peeked into the Carriage and narrowed his eyes.

“Blood...”

“Blood?”

Tim frowned.

Trent nodded, Tim then peaked into the carriage as well and his face turned serious.

“You.”

Trent pointed at the Head Guard.

“Call the Driver.”

Trent ordered.

A few seconds later, the Driver appeared.

“What happened here?”

“I d-do not know anything, Lord.”

The Driver stuttered.

His face had lost all its color and his body was trembling.

It was clear that he was scared of something.

“Why did you stop the carriage so suddenly?”

Trent questioned.

“Lady Allura ordered me to.”

“Huh?”

Trent, Tim, and the Head Guard frowned.

“Lady Allura ordered you to?”

“Y-Yes Lord.”

“Why would she do that?”

Tim couldn't understand.

“I-I do not know, however, I could feel that her voice sounded a little shaky...”

The Driver then told everything that happened and the more they heard it, the more they couldn't understand what had happened.

“You... are you trying to fool us...?”

Suddenly, the Head Guard looked at the Driver and narrowed his eyes.

“NO! Lord! Believe me, I am not lying!

That is exactly what happened!

Please, believe me!”

The Driver practically begged.

“Actually... what he says makes sense... Even the people who were passing by attested that they heard those words.”

Suddenly, Trent spoke up.

“What if they are in this plan as well?”

The Head Guard questioned.

Trent, however, shook his head.

“That's not it. I do not trust people, I only trust evidence.

And the evidence says that this man isn't lying.”

“Hmm?” The Head Guard frowned.

“Think with me,

‘Who are you? How did you get inside?’

These words clearly mean that someone somehow entered Consort Allura’s carriage.

‘No, don’t kill me. Someone, Save me. Help.’

These words mean that the person who enter tried to harm Allura, and clearly, he overpowered her, who was an Expert Stage Cultivator.

There are signs of a struggle inside the carriage, along with blood, which, I believe should be Consort Allura’s.”

“So you are saying that someone just randomly entered the carriage we were keeping our eyes on, attacked Lady Allura, took her away with him, and we didn’t see anything?”

“Yes...

As absurd as it sounds, that is the only possibility I can think of.

Don’t judge them by normal means.

Look at Stark’s head...

With how clean the cut is, I am sure that the one who did it was a King Stage Cultivator...”

Trent’s tone got heavier when he talked about Stark’s death. Clearly, he was affected by the death of his partner.

“Do you think it was the same person?”

Tim questioned.

“No, I think they were different. One entered Lady Allura’s carriage, while the other killed Stark.”

“And both of them were King Stage Cultivators?”

“Yes, I can’t think of anyone weaker doing anything like this.”

“But... why would they kill Stark? If they wanted to kill him, then why didn’t they kill the two of us as well?”

Tim questioned with a frown on his face.

It was scary how he was talking about his own death like that.

But that was just how the Members of the shadow unit were. They never cared about their own death. For them, failing to successfully complete a mission and disappointing the King was much worse than death.

“To send a message.”

Trent answered.

“Those bastards clearly knew that Lady Allura has left the Mansion, which, of course, wasn’t very hard to know, however, that was not it, these bastards also knew that we were following her.

Therefore, not only did they harm Lady Allura right in front of us, they even killed the strongest among us.

I do not see any other reason for doing this other than sending a message.

A clear show of strength.

A clear challenge.

To not only us, but the entire Shadow Unit.

Whoever these people are, they are clearly not your average men, they have a goal in their mind.

A scary goal.”

Trent answered with a grim look on his face.

Tim's face turned serious,

“So they left us alive so we could become there...”

“Messengers, yes.”

“...”

The two of them turned silent.

“What are we going to do?”

Tim questioned.

After thinking about things for more than 5 minutes, Trent just shook his head.

“We have no other option, we have to report to the King.”

“...alright.”

Although he wanted to report this after catching the criminal, Tim knew he couldn't do that right now.

They didn't have any way to catch the culprit.

Therefore, they could only return empty-handed.

“You there.”

Trent called.

“Yes Sir.”

The Head Guard stepped forward.

“Search everyone present here, though I highly doubt it, there are chances that the culprit or someone who is related to the culprit is still here.

Capture anyone you think suspicious and don't back off from using violence if you want."

"Yes sir!"

The Head Guard Saluted.

"We will report this to the King."

Saying that, Tim and Trent looked at each other,

And disappeared.

Chapter 394

“So you are telling me that my wife disappeared in the middle of the crowded speed, right in front of 3 Expert Stage Cultivators’ eyes, and not only were you not able to stop it, you even failed to see what had happened?”

King Ricardus, who right now was sitting on his throne questioned with a solemn look on his face.

Right now, he looked nothing like the lazy and carefree man that didn’t bother with anything his ministers said. Right now, he looked like a ferocious beast who is trying his best to hold his soaring anger.

In front of him, 2 men wearing black colored clothes were kneeling with expressionless looks on their faces.

“We failed you, your majesty. We are willing to give up on our life as compensation.”

Trent replied in a respectful tone.

“You think your pitiful like can pay for the damage that has been done to my reputation?”

The King spat in anger.

“My wife suddenly disappeared! Most probably killed or kidnapped by someone, right inside the capital of my Kingdom, in broad daylight!

I will become a laughing stock!”

“...”

Trent and Tim didn’t say anything.

They knew that the King is angry, and it was best not to say anything at this moment. Also, it was not the time to say anything right now, someone else would do it.

“Your Majesty, you need to calm down.”

Keeve, the Leader of the Shadow Unit stepped forward.

He was someone that even the King respected.

“Keeve, you better have a solution in your mind.”

This time, however, even Keeve wasn't very sure.

“...I would need some more time to think about my plans, your Majesty.”

“...what?”

Ricardus frowned.

Keeve didn't dare to look into his eyes.

Ricardus then turned towards his 4 Ministers,

“You guys must have some sort of plan in your mind, correct?”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

The Ministers, who always tried to impress the King and show off their intelligence stayed silent.

This King couldn't believe this.

However, Keeve and the Ministers were not to blame.

This incident was too strange, to begin with.

How can an Expert Stage Cultivator just disappear in broad daylight, in the middle of a busy street when 3 more Expert Stage Cultivators were following her from behind?

This just does not make any sense.

There were many questions they all wanted to ask.

Why did Consort Allura order the Driver to stop the Carriage?

Who was the person that entered the carriage?

Why was Consort Allura so scared of him?

Did she try to fight him?

How strong was he?

Also, how just how did that person enter the carriage without being seen?

How did he leave?

Did he kill Consort Allura and then placed her body inside his storage ring?

Or did he take Consort Allura with him?

What does he want?

Why target Consort Allura?

Is it related to her getting stronger so quickly?

Also, who killed Stark, the Expert Stage Cultivator?

Was he the same person who attacked Consort Allura? Or was he someone else?

Did those two fight against each other?

Why didn't Trent and Tim notice anything?

Just what the hell happened?

Their heads were filled with countless questions that they couldn't find the answers to. The more they thought about it, the scarier this got.

*Bam***

Suddenly, the King slammed his hand on the armrest of the throne, breaking it in the process.

The King then stood up and glared at Trent and Tim.

“You two will receive your punishment once this case is solved.”

“We will give our all to solve this case and wash this shame.”

Trent bowed and Tim nodded.

“Keeve, follow me.”

Suddenly, the King ordered in a solemn tone.

Keeve wanted to ask where they were going, however, with how angry King was, he didn't dare to ask anything and followed him quietly.

As for the rest of the ministers, well, since they were ordered, they didn't follow the king and started talking with Trent and Tim, trying to get more information about the incident.

...

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock***

Hearing the knock on the doors, Kelton opened the door.

“Your Majesty?”

Kelton frowned.

“I want to talk to Amaya.”

Ricardus spoke with a solemn look on his face.

Seeing this, Kelton’s frown deepened, however, he didn’t dare to keep the King standing.

“Please, enter.”

Saying that, he stepped aside.

Ricardus entered the room and soon, his eyes fell on Amaya, who was lying on the bed, covered in that dangerous Black Mist.

Ricardus also noticed that the Black Mist looked more... lethal than before...

His eyes then fell on Amaya, who was ‘sleeping’ peacefully.

“Your condition is not getting any better, I see.”

Ricardus commented.

Hearing his words, Amaya finally opened her eyes, her deep black eyes met Ricardus’s purple eyes, and once again, Ricardus was taken back.

His consort really was beautiful.

It is a pity that she is cursed.

“So you are finally here, I was waiting for you.”

Amaya spoke with a small smile on her face.

“Hmm?” Hearing her words, Ricardus finally came out of his reverie and questioned.

“What do you mean by that?”

Amaya didn't answer that question directly, she just turned her head towards Kelton and ordered.

“Leave, I would like to talk with his Majesty, alone.”

Kelton frowned, however, since he didn't go against Amaya's order and nodded.

It wasn't like he could save Amaya if the King decided to harm her.

Once Kelton left, Amaya turned towards Ricardus and smiled,

“Allura was kidnapped, correct?”

I was wondering when you would come here to seek my help.”

“How did you know about it? And why did you send him out?”

Ricardus questioned.

“You know who you are talking to right? I may be in a state where I can't move very often, but I am still the leader of the Thousand Information Chamber.

As for sending him out, well, I didn't know if you have made this news public or not.”

Amaya replied.

“Isn't he the one who reports everything to you?”

King questioned with a curious look on his face.

“I can't trust a single person, now can I?”

Amaya smiled.

Chapter 395

“I can’t trust a single person, now, can I?”

Amaya smiled.

“...”

The King narrowed his eyes, he believed that Amaya trusted this butler more than anyone in this world, however, it seems that he was wrong.

Of course, in the end, it didn’t matter to him at all.

Whatever was happening between Amaya and her servant wasn’t something Ricardus would bother himself with.

He was here for a reason, and the reason was,

“Look, if you are here to ask me where Allura is, or anything related to this case, then sorry to disappoint you, but even I don’t know anything about this.”

Amaya shook her head.

“Even you don’t know anything about this?”

The King was a little surprised. This wasn’t something he expected to hear. Not after Amaya was the first one to talk about this incident.

“Your Majesty, you have to understand, we are talking about a man who can somehow enter and leave a Royal Consort’s carriage without being noticed in the broad daylight.

I have never heard about this sort of absurd Skill in my entire life.

This is definitely not the work of a normal cultivator.

He must be someone special...

The one behind it...

I have a hunch that he is a very scary enemy, a lot scarier than we are imagining him to be.”

Amaya spoke in a solemn tone. Then, she looked into the King’s purple eyes and cautioned.

“Your Majesty, I would suggest you to be cautious...”

Keeve, who heard those words fell into deep thoughts, for some reason, the priority of catching the culprit rose marginally in his mind.

This King, however, didn’t take Amaya’s words seriously.

“I do not need your words of caution, Amaya. What I want is your assistance.

Use that head of yours and think of a way to find the culprit.

And if you can’t even do that, then you might as well close that little chamber of yours.”

The King spat.

“As I said before, I do not know anything about this case. We have practically zero clues, there is nothing to narrow down our search upon, no one knows what the culprit looks like, no one knows if it is a single individual or a group, and if they are indeed a group, no one knows how many of them are there.

Nothing is known at all, therefore, Your Majesty, I cannot help you.”

The King Clenched his fist.

“Useless.”

Spitting those words, the King left Amaya's room after shutting down the doors as loudly as he could.

*Bam*

After the King left, a small smile appeared on Amaya's face.

'Who knows, the culprit might be a Handsome devil who likes to kidnap beautiful women...'

Then, she pouted.

'I wonder when that devil would kidnap me...'

Am I not beautiful enough?'

"Lady Amaya! Are you alright!?"

While Amaya was thinking about all this, a man entered her room with a panicked look on his face.

"Yes, Kelton, I am alright."

Amaya nodded with a calm look on his face.

"W-Why was the King here? And why did he look so angry when he left?"

Kelton questioned.

"Well, he lost one of his trophies."

Amaya chuckled.

"Huh?"

Kelton failed to understand, however, Amaya didn't bother to explain.

She just smiled, looking forward to what would happen in the future.

“Useless! All of you bastards are useless!”

The King started throwing and breaking everything he could find, trying to vent his frustration.

Keeve, Trent, Tim, and the Ministers stayed silent and let the King do whatever he wanted.

5 minutes later, after breaking about everything he could find, the King finally calmed down, his eyes, however, were still red in anger.

With his body trembling in anger, the King ordered.

“Search.”

“Huh?”

The Ministers frowned.

“Search for Allura.

Search every single house, inn, tent, restaurant, shop, or any sort of building, abandoned or not, search every single of them.

If you find anything or anyone suspicious, capture him.

Form search parties, use all those useless guards who are doing nothing but wasting the Kingdom's food.

Find Allura.

I do not care how you do it but I need Allura standing in front of me within a week.

If this does not happen then...

Don't even think of living an easy life from now on."

The Ministers frowned.

This Search order...

This was impractical!

Just how in the hell were they supposed to do that within a week!?

Just how much manpower would they have to use?

What about the Palace?

Who is going to protect the Palace?

What if the one who attacked Consort Allura attacks them? How would they defend themselves?

The Minsters panicked.

However, the King didn't care about what they were thinking.

All he needed were results.

He wanted his Allura back.

He wanted the culprit behind this kneeling in front of him.

He wanted to torture the bastard who dared to touch what was his.

Only then, would he be able to wash this shame away.

“Now what are you doing here!? Leave!”

The King shouted again.

No matter how unwilling they were, Keeve, Trent, Tim, and Ministers left the Hall.

Then, they gave out commands, every one of them calling their subordinates, and head of guards. Messages were sent to noble houses, even the Skyfall Army was involved.

Within the next few hours, the entire Palace and then the capital fell into Chaos.

Guards and Soldiers roaming here and there.

People being captured left and right.

Guards searching nobles' and commoners' houses alike.

The inns, the shops, each of these places were thoroughly checked.

More and more guards joined this operation, adding up the number and boosting the search speed.

This absurd behavior carried on for days.

From the Capital to the other cities, then to the outskirts of cities and villages, every place was searched.

Many many criminals, who were hiding and trying to avoid the guards for years were captured.

However, the Criminals the Guards were looking for,

They were nowhere to be found.

Chapter 396

“Headmaster Eliyard, I am sure you already know what has happened, therefore, I would appreciate it if you were to step back and let me do what I came here for.”

Keeve looked into the Headmaster’s eyes and spoke.

“I didn’t expect you to come here personally.”

Eliyard spoke.

Keeve wasn’t someone who appears in public very often. Therefore, Eliyard was surprised to see this man in front of him.

“I am tasked to search the Royal Academy and the Dukes’ Houses.”

Keeve replied with an expressionless face.

“Sending a King Stage Cultivator to search the places where the King Stage Cultivators reside... I see.”

Eliyard nodded to himself.

Keeve narrowed his eyes,

“You aren’t going to stop me, are you?”

“Hmm? Of course not. Why would I go against the King’s orders? I have nothing to hide.

Search anywhere you want.

Of course, I hope you do it in moderation because you know, even I have an image I need to stand up to.”

Eliyard smiled.

“Heh. I understand, you don’t have to worry, if you have nothing to hide, which, of course, I am sure is true, I will mind this ‘image’ of yours.”

Keeve chuckled and then, he ordered,

“Alright, come in. Search every place you want, if you see anything suspicious, contact me.”

“Yes Sir!”

The Guards standing behind Keeve entered and soon, they spread around.

Keeve then turned towards Eliyard,

“I would like to visit your mansion.”

“Mhm, I welcome you with open arms.”

Eliyard nodded.

“Follow me.”

Saying those words, Eliyard started walking.

A minute later, Eliyard and Keeve entered Eliyard’s Mansion.

Keeve started looking around, trying to find anything suspicious, trying to find anything related to Consort Allura.

However, what he didn’t know was that ‘Consort Allura’ herself was standing right behind him, looking at him with an interested look on her face.

“So he is that Keeve, the famed Leader of the Shadow Unit?”

Nux spoke.

“Indeed.”

Allura answered.

“Hmmm, doesn’t look very special to me.”

Nux muttered as he looked at Kieve while his golden eyes shined.

“Hmmm, he is different from Eliyard.”

Ember commented.

“Hmm? How can you tell?”

Nux questioned.

According to the System, there wasn’t much difference between Eliyard and Kieve, however, Nux knew that the previous General wouldn’t say anything without any reason.

“Well, his posture, his aura, the air around him, everything is different.

He may not be a Warrior, however, he has seen blood. A lot of blood.

He is a capable man.

To be honest, I want to fight him.”

Ember spoke with an excited look on her face.

“Tsk Tsk, just fight me.”

Nux snorted.

Not liking this at all.

He was not going to lie, he was jealous.

For a moment, he wanted to Kill this man named Kieve.

It wasn't something big, however,

“Hmm?”

This little thought was enough for Keeve to sense that something was wrong.

He turned around, however,

“ ... ”

There was nothing to see.

“What happened?”

Eliyard questioned with a frown on his face.

“Nothing...”

Keeve frowned.

He was sure he sensed something.

Actually, he didn't just sense something, he sensed his death.

However, that feeling disappeared the moment it appeared.

A strange thing indeed.

Thinking that, Keeve turned around and continued to walk with Eliyard.

Behind him, Nux reappeared in front of his women.

“That was close.”

He spoke.

“You need to control your Killing Intent.”

Felberta spoke.

“Well, don’t blame now, alright? It was a mistake.”

Ember spoke with a wide smile on her face.

“Tsk.”

Thyra snorted.

“The Harem’s Gate saved you.”

Allura chuckled.

“Indeed.”

“Harem’s Gate and Conceal is a scary combination.”

Skyla muttered.

“Scary? It’s a cheat! An absurd combination.”

Thyra snorted.

“Indeed, Indeed.”

Felberta nodded her head.

Nux just smiled.

He already knew how much of a cheat he was, however, right now, it wasn’t about him. He was more interested in this Keeve in front of him.

“He is sharp.”

He commented.

“I told you he is sharp.”

Ember smiled.

“Mhm, I never doubted you for a second.”

Nux and his women continued to observe this man named Keeve with relaxed looks on their faces.

Soon, half an hour passed by, right now, Keeve was inside the last room inside Eliyard's mansion, however, he was unable to find anything, even though the one he was trying to find so desperately was standing right in front of him.

“Are you going to leave now? Or would you like to have a cup of tea with me?”

Eliyard questioned with a small smile on his face.

Keeve looked at the man in front of him and narrowed his eyes,

“Eliyard, recently, I heard that you fired all your subordinates and hired new ones, what's with that?”

His eyes looked scary right now, he looked as if the moment a lie comes out of Eliyard's mouth, he would kill him.

Eliyard, however, wasn't scared.

He was used to acting like a brave, fearless man for many, many years, Something like this wasn't enough to threaten him.

“Those workers weren't doing their job properly, so I fired them. It's not a big deal, now is it?”

“The Timing is very coincidental though.”

Keeve looked into Eliyar's eyes, trying to pierce through all the walls he had placed inside his mind.

Eliyard, however, just shook his head,

“Well, coincidence happens.”

“...”

Keeve was unable to say anything.

“Lord!”

Soon, the Guards who were searching the rest of the Academy returned as well.

“Did you find anything?” Keeve questioned.

“No, we did not.

It is just like we suspected, the Royal Academy has nothing to do with all this.”

The Soldier commented.

“Of course.”

Eliyard chuckled.

“Well, Keeve, it was nice catching up with you, however, as you know, I am the Headmaster of the Academy, so just like you, I have some things that I need to do.

I hope you successfully find that culprit.

Whoever he is.

And of course, don't hesitate to come here and ask for assistance if you want.”

With that, Keeve was sent out of the Academy.

“Alright, we will be visiting Duke Fulvianus next.”

With that, the Search operation continued.

Chapter 397

“Useless, you all are absolutely useless.”

The King declared with his eyes fuming in rage.

“Failing to find a single person even with so many men under your command, hmph, useless.”

This time, however, the Ministers didn't stay silent.

“Your Majesty, things aren't as simple as they seem.”

One of the Ministers stepped forward.

“What does that mean?”

The King narrowed his eyes.

Right now, the last thing he wanted to hear were excuses.

“Our men have been searching all around the Kingdom and although we were unable to find Consort Allura, it doesn't mean that we returned completely empty-handed.”

“What did you find out?”

The King questioned.

He was desperately hoping for a piece of good news.

However, luck didn't seem to be on his side.

“Lady Allura wasn't the only person to get kidnapped.”

“Huh?”

The King frowned.

“Yes, many missing cases have been reported within these last few days.

A Viscount named Felberta Avelye is missing along with her two closest maids. The method of kidnapping was very similar to Consort Allura, the carriage they were riding stopped and they disappeared in broad daylight.

Along with this Viscount, a few other nobles have been Kidnapped as well, even some of the commoners met the same fate.

With this, we can be assured now.

This isn't a work of a single individual.

It's an organization, a big, and strong organization.”

Hearing these words, the King narrowed his eyes.

“Is there a connection between Allura and the others who were Kidnapped?”

“We have been trying to find that out, however, we were unable to come up with anything. Allura and all these people are not related to each other at all.”

The Minister shook his head with a disappointed look on his face.

“To have so many strong Cultivators as their members, this organization is definitely not a normal organization, they must have been staying in the dark for decades, looking for an opportunity to strike.

I don't think they would act so brazenly just to kidnap some people at random.

There has to be a reason.

There has to be a pattern.

There must be some sort of hidden connection between the people they are Kidnapping. There has to be.”

The King spoke.

The Minister, however, shook his head,

“No, there is nothing in common, we have searched and thought about every single possibility.”

“Then think more.”

The King ordered.

“But-”

“No buts. I do not want any excuses, use that brain of yours and think of something. I am already holding back a lot since I haven’t beheaded you all for being so incompetent, now don’t make me regret my decision.”

The King snapped.

Seeing this, the Ministers looked at each other and frowned.

Then, collectively, their eyes fell on Keeve.

Seeing this, Keeve sighed, and then, he stepped forward.

“Your Majesty, I don’t think it would be that easy to track these people down.”

“What do you mean?”

If it was someone else who had said those words, the King would have snapped by now, however, Keeve was different, he was the man who the King trusted the most.

He was his strongest and the most loyal subordinate.

Therefore, the King treated him with respect.

“These people are stronger than we expected.”

Keeve replied.

Ricardus’s frown deepened.

“A few days ago, Ember Windstar, the General of the Woods Dynasty, was about to return to the Capital in a carriage when suddenly, she disappeared.

The men who were hired to escort her were found dead near the carriage.

Doesn’t this sound familiar?”

Keeve questioned.

“You are trying to say...”

The King finally realized.

“Yes, I suspect that the ones behind the disappearance of General Ember Windstar are the same people who have attacked Consort Allura.

This means that those bastards do not operate in the Skyfall Kingdom alone, they operate in Woods Dynasty, and presumably in the Solid Earth and the Skadi Kingdom as well.

The entire world is their playground.

That also means that searching inside the Skyfall Kingdom is foolish, there is a possibility that Consort Allura is in another Kingdom.”

“Another Kingdom?”

Ricardus frowned.

This makes things a lot more complicated than before.

In the Skyfall Kingdom, he could do whatever he wanted. However, there is no way this wide-scale search would be allowed inside any of the Kingdoms.

This would simply mean a slap to their face, after all.

No Kingdom would take it with smiles on their faces.

Ricardus's face turned solemn, after a long time, he felt insecure...

There were chances that he might fail to clear the stain on his reputation...

However, suddenly, a question popped inside his mind,

“How was an organization this strong and influential, hid its traces so cleanly?”

Ricardus questioned.

“We thought of the same thing.”

Noticing the chance, a minister finally stepped forward.

“And after all the considerations, we finally came to a conclusion.”

“What conclusion?”

Ricardus questioned.

“This organization is supported by one of the four strongest nations.”

“...”

The King narrowed his eyes.

There were chances that what the minister said was true, and, the King didn't want to admit it, however, if one of the Kingdom actually does have control over this organization, then that Kingdom is stronger than the Skyfall Kingdom.

“What do you guys think? Who do you think are the ones behind this organization?”

Ricardus turned towards Keeve and questioned.

“If I had to guess then it would be the Solid Earth Kingdom.”

“Solid Earth Kingdom? Why them?”

The King couldn't understand.

Aren't they the weakest?

How could they possibly support an organization this strong?

The King couldn't understand.

However, Keeve had his own reasons,

“The Solid Earth Kingdom has been acting strangely.

From what we know, after the losses they suffered in their previous expedition inside the Bloodhill Wilderness, they have become the weakest out of the four Kingdoms.

However, even after that, that Kingdom is still waging war against the Woods Dynasty and was actually winning. Let alone fighting back, the Woods are finding it hard to even hold their grounds and stand firmly.

Just how is something like that possible?

Something must be wrong inside the Solid Earth Kingdom.

I strongly believe that we should place our focus on them.”

Chapter 398

“Something must be wrong inside the Solid Earth Kingdom.

I strongly believe that we should place our focus on them.”

Keeve spoke with a serious look on his face, and this time, someone unexpectedly agreed with his words.

“I agree with him.”

Hearing a voice that he shouldn't be hearing right now, the King frowned. He then turned towards the source of the voice and saw Amaya standing in front of him.

“What are you doing here?”

The King questioned.

“I wanted to talk to you about the Solid Earth Kingdom.”

Amaya answered.

The King narrowed his eyes and questioned.

“Is it so important that you would use 2 hours of your freedom to come and talk to me?”

Everyone in the Palace knew that Amaya had a deadly curse eating her from inside. The curse was so deadly that she couldn't even move and usually stayed inside her room.

However, every day, at random, the curse weakens for two hours, in these two hours, Amaya can move wherever she wants and could do whatever she wants.

Other than using her energy, of course.

She has tested it before, the moment she tries to use her cultivation that she has gained due to her curse, that annoying curse returns and breaks her entire body with agonizing pain.

The King still remembers the day when Amaya was howling in agony while lying on the floor withering in pain and with that scary Black Mist surrounding her body, no one dared to pick her up.

Amaya spent that entire day staying on the floor, that was the day when everyone inside the Palace learned about her curse and...

Distant themselves from her even more than before.

Her curse was just too strong.

Amaya termed these 2 hours and hours of freedom, the time where she would move wherever or do whatever she wanted and instructed everyone to not bother her.

This was the time when she wouldn't talk to anybody, even the King.

Therefore, the King was surprised that she used this time she so valued to come here.

“What I want to talk about is just that important.”

Amaya answered with a serious look on her face.

“What is it? What do you want to talk about?”

Ricardus questioned.

“I can't contact any of my spies that I have planted inside the Solid Earth Kingdom.”

“!!!”

The King's eyes widened in surprise.

Not only him, but the ministers, Keeve, or anyone who actually knew a bit about Amaya was shocked to their core.

“None of them...?”

Keeve couldn't help but question.

“None of them...”

Amaya nodded with a solemn look on her face.

Ricardus's face turned serious as well.

They weren't just talking about three or four spies here, Amaya had planted more than a thousand spies inside all the Kingdoms, her information network was greatest for a reason.

Although not as strong as the network inside the Skyfall Kingdom, it was still stronger than most of the information networks that existed inside their home Kingdom.

Heck, she even knew some secrets of the noble that even those noble's wives didn't know about.

“I tried to place more spies, however, I soon lost contact with them as well. This can't be a coincidence, there is something wrong.

Your Majesty, you need to send someone there and check what is going on there.

This matter...

I believe it is much more important than Allura's incident.”

Amaya spoke.

The King narrowed his eyes when he heard her last sentence, it was clear that he didn't like those words at all, and as if Amaya sensed that, she continued,

“Just like Keeve and the Ministers said, these two incidents can be related to each other. This organization you were talking about, there is a high chance that its base is inside the Solid Earth Kingdom.”

The King thought about all this for a while and then, he nodded.

“Alright, I will focus on the Solid Earth Kingdom.”

Amaya smiled a little, however, the smile on her soon disappeared and she continued,

“There is a high chance that the Spies you send there will be dealt with before they could find anything valuable.

Once that happens, contact the Woods Dynasty.”

The King narrowed his eyes again.

‘Once that happens’ these words triggered him.

It was as if she was sure that he would fail, of course, the King didn't like this at all.

Amaya was clearly looking down on him.

Keeve, however, didn't care about these trivial things right now.

“Why the Woods Dynasty?”

Amaya turned towards Keeve and questioned back,

“Have you heard about Ember Windstar?”

“About how she went missing?”

Amaya nodded.

“Yes, I have heard about it and I believe the ones behind this incident are also the ones who attacked Consort Allura.”

Keeve nodded back.

“There is a very high chance that what you think is correct, however, that is not what I am talking about right now.”

“What is it then?”

Ricardus questioned.

“Where was Ember going when she was attacked?”

Amaya questioned Keeve.

“To the Capital.”

Keeve answered.

“Why was she going to the capital?”

Amaya questioned again.

Keeve narrowed his eyes and then, he shook his head.

“I do not know.”

“She resigned.”

“She resigned...? That woman...?”

Keeve frowned.

“Yes, the woman who was known to be the best General that the Woods Dynasty has seen in so many centuries resigned while the Dynasty was in danger.

There has to be some reason for it.”

“She might be running away in fear.”

A Minister chuckled.

Amaya and Kieve looked at him with expression faces, the woman turned silent and turned away.

“Ember Windstar wasn’t the type who would be scared for her life, she wouldn’t just run away because she was scared.

There has to be a reason behind this.

I assume that it has to do something with the Solid Earth Kingdom.

Try to find some clues from there, talk with the soldiers close to her maybe.

I think this will give you a lead you can work on.”

Amaya suggested and Kieve noted all her words in his mind.

At the same time, he couldn’t help but look at Amaya with an amazed look on his face.

He wondered how that woman was able to come up with something like this.

‘She’s not called the Smartest Woman in the entire Kingdom without a reason.’

“Oh, before I forget, there is something else that I need to tell you.”

Chapter 399

“Oh, before I forget, let me tell you about another reason why I am here,”

Amaya spoke as she turned towards Ricardus.

“Hmm? What it is?”

Ricardus questioned.

“In the future, I would sneak out of the Palace.”

“Huh? What does that mean?”

The King frowned.

“It means just what I said, I need to leave the Palace for a while. I will return soon of course.”

“Huh? Where do you want to go?”

The King questioned.

Amaya rarely left the palace.

In fact, she hasn't left the Palace more than 5 times in all these years, therefore, her talking about leaving was a little... strange.

Especially in a condition like that.

“I can't tell you that.”

Amaya, however, didn't answer Ricardus's questions.

“Why do you want to leave?”

Ricardus changed his question.

“The Solid Earth Kingdom somehow blocked my network, I need to find out what happened. I can’t let it continue like this any longer.”

“Are you planning to go there yourself?”

Ricardus questioned with a frown on his face.

“Consort Amaya, you can’t do this. This is a rash decision.”

Keeve spoke up.

Amaya looked at Keeve and frowned,

“Why would I go there myself, especially with this annoying curse on me? Do you think I am a fool?”

“Umm... then what are you planning?”

Keeve couldn’t contain his curiosity.

“You do not have to worry about that. Just leave it to me.”

Saying that, Amaya turned around and started walking towards the doors.

“Oh right.”

Suddenly, she stopped and turned towards Ricardus.

“Your Majesty, I would appreciate it if you would respect my privacy and will not send your men behind me.”

Ricardus smiled.

“Of course, I will certainly respect your privacy.”

“I am thankful.”

Amaya smiled back and then, she left.

“Keep an eye on her.”

Right after Amaya left, Ricardus’s smile disappeared and he ordered.

“As you command, your majesty.”

Keeve nodded.

“Also, try to plant some spies inside the Solid Earth Kingdom and...

If that fails... then... contact the Woods Dynasty.”

“Yes, Your Majesty.”

Keeve nodded again and the meeting continued.

...

On the other side, Amaya, who has just left the meeting room, smiled.

Then, she walked toward the garden and ordered,

“Prepare a tea for me,”

The Maid she ordered to bowed and with a slightly fearful expression on her face,

“Y-Yes, Lady Amaya.”

She ran away.

It was clear that was trying to go as far away from Amaya, who was ‘cursed’.

Of course, Amaya didn’t care about it.

It was rather convenient, to be honest.

Unlike Allura, she didn’t like chatting with random people.

Actually, she didn't like talking with anyone.

All she needed was one person.

As long as she had him to talk to, she didn't care about anyone. Not even her 'sisters'.

Thinking about that man, a smile appeared on Amaya's face.

"Y-Your Tea, Lady Amaya."

While Amaya was lost in her thoughts, the maid placed the cup of tea and some snacks on the table, and then,

"I will be taking my leave now, Lady Amaya."

She hurried away.

Again, Amaya didn't care.

She just leisurely picked up the cup and started sipping on the tea.

Waiting for certain someone to come here.

...

Time passed by and soon, Amaya heard a voice,

"Lady Amaya! What are you doing here!? You could have at least informed me that you were here!"

"Calm down Kelton, I am not a child."

Amaya answered in a calm voice.

"How can you say that!? You know that your 'Freedom Time' is about to end, don't you!?"

"Well, I had to meet the King."

Amaya replied.

“Huh?”

Hearing those words, Kelton frowned.

“The King? Why?”

However, instead of answering that question, Amaya questioned.

“Kelton, what do you think? Who would become the next King of the Skyfall Kingdom?”

“Hmm? Since when were you so interested in that?”

Kelton couldn't understand. This question just popped out of nowhere.

“Well, I would be a fool to not show my interest in this topic, won't I? Ricardus won't live for long, after all.”

Amaya chuckled.

“Huh? What does that mean?”

Kelton questioned.

“Well, he is getting older and older. Even his hairs have started turning white, maybe 20 to 30 more years and...”

“Ahh, so that's what you meant.”

Kelton realized.

“Of course, what did you think?”

Amaya questioned with a smile.

“Nothing...”

Kelton turned silent.

Amaya chuckled and Kelton continued,

“Well, you are right... I believe it is time that the King chose the Crown Prince, isn't it?”

“Indeed. Who do you think he will choose?”

Amaya questioned.

“Well, I believe it would be the First Prince.”

“Why do you think so?”

“Well, given his recent breakthrough to the Expert Stage, he has this absurd advantage over all the others.

The Second Princess isn't interested in the Throne.

The Third Prince... well, he was a good competition, he is certainly more talented than the First prince, however, with more than 40 years of gap between the two of them, he loses out.

Especially now that the First Prince is an Expert Stage Cultivator.”

“Mhm, I had the same thoughts as well.”

Amaya nodded repeatedly and then,

“However, the King seems to think otherwise.”

A smile appeared on her face.

“Hmm? What does that mean? Does the King not favor the First Prince?”

Kelton questioned.

“Well, from his words, I have an inkling that he favors the Third Prince. Which, actually makes sense according to me.

The First Prince is 123 years old and has recently become an Expert Stage Cultivator, however, the Third Prince is only 64 but is already a Grand Master Stage Cultivator. I believe that in 15 more years, he would become an Expert Stage Cultivator, which is more than 40 years faster than the First Prince.

I believe that he has the potential to be a Great King.”

Amaya praised.

“That is true indeed...”

Kelton nodded as well.

“No matter how strong the First Prince is, if the King doesn’t favor him, he would not become the King, no matter how hard he works.”

“Indeed Indeed.”

Amaya nodded with the fakest smile she could muster.

Of course, she wasn’t the least bit interested in this conversation.

What she was interested in was the maid hiding behind the bush.

‘Now now, my little butterfly, go spread what you heard all around the world,

Make it big.’

A small smile appeared on Amaya’s face.

Chapter 400

“Bastards!!!”

*Crash*

*Clank*

The King screamed in anger and frustration and threw a Jar made of glass on the ground, breaking it into pieces.

In front of him kneeled a man wearing black colored clothes and beside him stood a man wearing the same, black colored clothes.

“Keeve, what happened? Why have all your subordinates become so useless? Have I become too lenient? Is that the case?”

Ricardus, who was trying his best to hold back his anger, questioned.

“That is not it, your Majesty.”

Keeve declined.

“Then what is it? What happened? Have you started recruiting useless pieces of shit into my Shadow Unit, by any chance?”

The King questioned again, glaring at the man kneeling in front of him with unconcealed anger.

“No, that is not it either, your Majesty.”

“THEN WHAT IS IT!?”

*Crash*

*Clank*

The King threw away another Jar and roared.

“Your Majesty.”

Unlike his subordinate, Keeve was intimidated by Ricardus’s actions and replied calmly.

“You have to understand, we are talking about Consort Amaya. You know it better than anyone else what type of woman she is.”

The King glanced at Keeve and Keeve continued.

“Yesterday, she came here to inform you about how she was going to sneak out of Palace. Notice the words she used, Your Majesty. ‘Sneak’.

She wouldn’t say those words if she wasn’t sure of herself.

You have to understand, it is not his fault and neither has the Shadow Unit become ‘useless’. It is just that the opponents that we are facing are too strong or smart this time.”

“So are you saying that you are too weak to handle your enemies?”

The King stepped towards Keeve and questioned while his purple eyes shined in ruthlessness.

“No, what I am saying is that our enemies have become too unpredictable. However, it does not mean that we can’t take care of them. We just need a bit more time.

And Your Majesty, I dare say, we, the Shadow Unit are the only ones who can actually go against these enemies. You know that as well.

So, Your Majesty, I believe that rather than just pointlessly blaming everything on your subordinates and cursing them, I think it would be better if you would try to find out how Consort Amaya snuck out and figure out a way to ensure that something like this does not repeat in the future.”

Keeve looked back into the King’s eyes.

The Staring contest continued for a few minutes and then, Keeve stepped back and bowed,

“I apologize for my rude behavior, Your Majesty. I guess I have been on edge lately. Things... aren't really going my way...”

Ricardus looked at Keeve for a while and then, he narrowed his eyes,

“I would have executed you for talking to me like that if you hadn't proven your worth to me before.”

Keeve kept his head low and didn't retort.

The King snorted and then, he turned towards the man kneeling on the floor.

“So? What happened? How did you lose her track? She shouldn't have been able to use her cultivation, so she is no different than a mortal.

How did you let a mortal escape your eyes?”

“I was attacked... from behind...”

“Who attacked you?”

Keeve questioned.

“I do not know...”

“Tell me what happened, from the start.”

Keeve ordered.

His subordinate nodded and then, he started.

“Just like you ordered me to, I started keeping an eye on Consort Amaya from yesterday. Everything that happened was natural, after drinking her tea, she returned to her room and lay down on her bed.

30 minutes later, that horrifying Dark Mist started oozing out of her body, from her expression, I knew she was in pain. Soon, her entire body was covered with Black Mist and she stopped moving.

The rest of the day passed, then early in the morning, the Mist surrounding Consort Amaya's body started disappearing, then, she stood up.

After freshening up, she ate some food then...

Then she started walking..."

"Walking?"

Keeve frowned.

"Yes, walking..."

She started walking aimlessly, first, she walked into the garden, then she walked around the palace, this continued for 30 more minutes and then suddenly,

She looked at me."

"She looked at you?"

"Yes, she looked at me, she smiled at me, and then..."

I passed out..."

"..."

Keeve narrowed his eyes.

"Someone attacked you from behind, correct?"

Ricardus questioned.

"Yes."

The man nodded.

“And of course, you did not see his face, did you?”

“No... I did not...”

“Heh.”

The King chuckled condescendingly.

“Well, we can say that whoever he was, was related to Amaya.”

“Yes, that is what I assume as well.”

The man nodded.

“But... but how did Amaya know that you keeping an eye on her?”

The King couldn't understand.

“It's the walking.”

Suddenly, Keeve spoke up.

“Hmm? What?”

“Yes, her walk.

It wasn't just pointless walking. It was Consort Amaya's plan to figure out who was keeping an eye on her and where he or she was.

If she moves, you would have to move as well, then, her subordinates would trace you down. No matter how far away you hide, if you follow her for 30 minutes, even a child could tell that you are the one she is looking for her.

And well, once she found out...

The only thing she needed was to take you out.

Once that was done, she left the Palace.”

“But how did she even leave? Why was she not seen by anyone?

She is just a mortal, how can she fool so many cultivators and sneak out?”

The King questioned.

“Or maybe, she didn’t ‘fool’ anyone. She didn’t have to.”

Keeve spoke up.

“You mean...”

“Yes... the guards who saw her simply didn’t say anything because...”

“They were already on her side.”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

The three of them turned silent.

A few minutes passed by and then,

“We need to catch those traitorous bastards.”

The King spoke.

Keeve, however, shook his head.

“We can’t do that. We do not have any leads. There are thousands of guards inside the Palace, we can’t capture every single one of them.

We need to find out who they are first.”

“How do we do that?”

The King questioned.

However,

“I do not know...”

Keeve shook his head.

“...”

The room turned silent again.

Chapter 401

On the other side, the woman who was responsible for the King's and his closest subordinate's headache was currently standing in front of a few beautiful women with a smile on her face.

“It is nice to finally meet you all.”

“Indeed. Though I will say, you are indeed beautiful.”

Felberta chuckled.

“I agree. Those features, oh my fucking god, no wonder that bastard fell for you the moment he saw you. He got so greedy that he didn't even notice this ‘curse’ of yours.”

Allura nodded as well.

“Well, I will admit, you are the most beautiful woman I have ever seen, after me of course. Though I am much more curious about what goes on inside that head of yours.”

Evane looked at Amaya with her eyes shining with curiosity.

“Well, thank you for the warm greeting and your compliments, however, I do not plan to sleep with any of you.

I am already taken.”

Saying that, Amaya looked at Nux and smiled lovingly.

Then, her lovingly smile turned into a disdainful one when her eyes returned to the woman again.

“Though I will say, looking at your faces, I am now even more rest assured that you bitches won't be able to take my Nux away from me.”

Hearing those words, Felberta's face twitched in annoyance.

“That's why I didn't want to meet you.”

Yes, this was Amaya's first time meeting... everyone.

Indeed, she hasn't met any of Nux's women even though she has been with him for such a long time. She hasn't even met Allura or Edda, who have been living in the Royal Palace just like her.

Well, that was how she was,

She didn't like socializing.

Everything related to talking to people was done by Kelton, her butler.

“Same. I didn't want to meet her either.”

“I agree as well.”

“Well, she sounded like a bitch. Now it turns out she actually is one.”

Thyra snorted.

“Trust me, the feeling is mutual. I only came here because it was necessary.”

Amaya retorted.

Nux could swear that he saw sparks flying around in the air.

He had to intervene, he knew it, however,

Someone beat him to it.

“But I wanted to meet you, Sister Amaya.”

“Well, yes, except for you, Skyla.

I wanted to meet you as well.

You are, way way way better than all these bitches.”

Amaya smiled warmly as her dark eyes fell on Skyla.

“Oh ho? Even this Amaya can’t escape your charm, good job Skyla.”

Ember chuckled.

Amaya looked at Ember and narrowed her eyes.

“What do you mean by ‘this’ Amaya.”

“Nothing, don’t take it seriously. It’s just a habit.”

Amaya narrowed her eyes even further.

Ember smiled and looked right into Amaya’s eyes.

She was definitely enjoying this.

“Alright girls, this is enough greetings, right? Though I preferred for if it was slightly... warmer...”

This time, Nux finally interrupted.

“Oh, why? Were you expecting a Tensome?”

Edda questioned with a playful look on her face.

“Just so you know, I am down for that. Call me anytime you want.”

She chuckled.

“I am not down.”

Amaya was quick to refuse.

“This is something you and I can agree on.”

Felberta nodded.

“Indeed.”

Thyra nodded as well.

“Too messy...”

Lane spoke.

“...”

The rest of the women looked at her.

“What...?”

Lane questioned.

“Why are you even imagining that, Lane.”

Felberta couldn't help but shake her head.

“Hmph! You guys just don't realize what you are missing out on.”

Edda shrugged.

“You say it like you have done it before.”

Thyra retorted.

“It won't hurt to try, will it?”

Edda questioned.

“”””No.””””

Nux looked at the girls and then, he started thinking.

Tensome... does not seem like a bad idea at all...

Actually, he was a little interested now.

“Amaya, don’t you think your actions are a little too rash.”

Suddenly, Allura questioned.

“What do you mean?”

Amaya questioned.

“Well, you know, sneaking out of the Palace like that. I know you have [Conceal], but won’t this just alert the King? Won’t he become warier? You did just sneak out of his Palace, right under his man’s nose, after all.”

Allura explained.

“Well, you do not have to worry about that.”

Amaya however, shook her head, and then, a wicked smile appeared on her face.

“He will be warier of me, yes. However, he won’t be able to act on it. He simply won’t have the manpower to do so.”

“He will know about the Emperor soon, won’t he?”

A similar smile appeared on Allura’s face as well.

“Heh, that’s not it.”

Amaya’s smile widened.

“These next few days would be a nightmare for our dear King. Problems here, problems there, problems everywhere.

Problems out of the Palace, problems inside the Palace, the problems just won’t end.

Heh, I just hope that he would take everything on bravely and won't just give up in between."

"Not going to lie, that does sound incredibly wonderful."

Felberta smiled as well.

"Indeed."

Allura nodded.

Others nodded as well, smiling.

Amaya nodded back.

"So? Are you finally going to discuss your plan?"

Ember questioned with a curious look.

Yes, this time, other than Nux, nobody knew what was going on inside Amaya's head.

According to Amaya, it would be better to discuss the plans while facing each other, unlike the other plans that they discussed with the telepathic connection.

That is the reason this meeting was arranged in the first place.

"Indeed, I will tell you guys what I have in my mind,"

Amaya nodded but then,

"However,"

Her eyes fell on Evane Skyfall.

She walked towards her and greeted her.

"It is nice to meet you, Princess."

“Y-Yes, I feel the same... C- Sister Amaya.”

Evane stuttered, for some reason, she felt... timid... around her.

“I actually wanted to meet you the most compared to all others.”

Amaya smiled.

Skyla pouted.

As if sensing that, Amaya turned towards her and corrected herself,

“After Skyla, of course.”

Skyla smiled.

Amaya smiled and turned back to Evane.

“W-Why?”

Evane questioned.

“Well, I wanted to ask something.”

“What is it?”

“Princess Evane, would you like to be the Ruler of this Kingdom?”

Chapter 402

“Princess Evane, would you like to be the Ruler of this Kingdom?”

Amaya walked towards Evane and questioned with a curious look on her face.

“H-Huh? R-R-Ruler? A-As is the Queen?”

“Of course, what else would it be?”

So? How about it?

Would you like to participate in the Battle for the Throne and fight with your dear brothers?”

“O-Oh.”

Evane didn't know how to respond.

Seeing this, Amaya stepped back and explained.

“You see, our initial plan was simple, we were planning to kill the King and then overthrow his reign. Nux would then become the next King and we would then live the rest of our life together with him, as Queens.

His Queen, mind you, I am not interested in ruling the Kingdom.,

My only wish is to see him sitting on the Throne and ruling the world.”

Amaya looked at Nux and smiled lovingly.

Nux chuckled and then sent a flying kiss in her direction.

Amaya's smile widened and then, she turned back to Evane,

“However, there are certain problems with that plan.

One is Astaria Skyfall, the Emperor Stage Cultivator that is protecting the Skyfall Kingdom, she would not allow anyone who is not a Skyfall to sit on that Throne.

Well, to be honest, we would have dealt with her one way or another,

However, we have now stumbled upon a new problem, a problem I can't deal with."

"E-Even you can't deal w-with it?"

"As much as I hate to admit it, I cannot."

Amaya shook her head with a disappointed look on her face.

"What's the problem?"

Evane questioned with a curious look on her face.

The moment she met Amaya, she could feel a strange pressure emitting from her, it was as if this woman was capable of doing literally anything.

Initially, she only thought of Amaya as a pitiful girl who was abandoned by everyone.

However, after having a chat with Skyla and the others, she finally realized, Amaya was anything but pitiful. Yes, whatever happened to her might be sad, however, she wasn't dejected, she continued fighting and with her frightening intelligence, she successfully raised the largest information chamber in the whole world in just 5 years.

In Evane's eyes, Amaya was an invincible woman.

Someone who is completely different than...

Her.

Therefore, she didn't know how to react to what Amaya said.

“Well, her name is Evane Skyfall or Evane Leander.”

Amaya smiled as she looked at Evane.

“M-Me?”

Evane was surprised.

Amaya chuckled and then she explained,

“You see, killing the King is easy, however, now that you are here, Nux is hesitating.

No matter how distant the two of you are, in the end, you two are still related by blood.

Well, to be honest, I can't really relate, if it were me, I would rather support him in killing that sorry excuse of a man who claims to be my father, and from what I have seen, your father isn't very different from mine. I don't know why you would feel bad about his death.

But now that I have seen you, I can understand.

You are too timid, Evane.

Although you won't say anything out loud, you would still be affected by his death. You might even blame yourself for it and this is something this man wouldn't accept, no matter what.”

Amaya spoke as she pointed at Nux.

A small smile appeared on Nux's face as he glanced at Amaya.

‘And here I thought that I hid it from you.’

He chuckled.

‘Hmph! Boy, try training for another 1000 years before trying to fool me.’

Amaya snorted.

Nux shook his head with a wry smile on his face.

He thought that Amaya would only discuss the plan she had discussed with him, however, clearly, she has some other things in her mind.

‘Amaya... just how can you be so amazing?’

‘I was born amazing.’

Amaya lifted her chest in pride.

‘Oi Oi Oi, how dare you two talk to each other using the connection.’

Suddenly, Ember interrupted.

‘Hmm? How did you know?’

Nux frowned.

He was sure his connection with Amaya was a personal one, others shouldn't be able to listen to it.

‘Just look at her.’

Ember spoke.

Nux then glanced at Amaya and,

“Pfftt!”

He burst out in laughter.

Amaya, who was talking to Evane was now standing with her chest lifted up, closed eyes, and a proud smile on her face, while others looked at her with a confused looks on their face.

The scene looked quite comical.

*Cough* *Cough*

Hearing his laugh, Amaya soon came out of her reverie and coughed to hide her embarrassment.

Then, as if nothing happened, she turned back toward Evane and continued,

“And since Nux wouldn’t accept this, I need to come up with something else.

Something that doesn’t involve killing that useless father of yours.”

Amaya’s tone sounded... disappointed for some reason.

Evane didn’t know what to say.

She knew that Nux wanted to become the King.

She wasn’t a fool, she knew something like this won’t happen until the King, that is her father, is dead.

She was given a choice.

Her future husband or her father.

A man who she just met a few months ago, or the man who shared the same blood as her.

The answer was obvious.

Her future husband.

Unlike Nux, with whom, she could now spend her entire day without any complaints, she wasn’t really close to her father. She didn’t even have to think for a second to come up with an answer.

It was that obvious.

However, if she was actually honest, and could be a little more selfish,

She would rather not choose at all.

And Amaya finding out about this and actually doing something about it...

This was... touching...

She felt like she was around the people who actually cared about her.

A small smile appeared on her face.

However,

“You really don’t want the King to live now do you?”

Ember questioned with a curious smile on her face as she glanced at Amaya.

“Hmph! Who would want that bastard to live any longer?”

Chapter 403

“You really don’t want the King to live now do you?”

Ember questioned with a curious smile on her face as she glanced at Amaya.

“Hmph! Who would want that bastard to live any longer?”

Before Amaya could even answer, another woman snorted.

Evane, Amaya, and Ember turned towards Allura, and Ember smiled.

“Heeh? Sister Allura, I didn’t know you hated the King so much.”

“Try living with him for a few days, you would have the same reaction.”

Allura snorted.

“Thank you very much but I am very fine here.”

Ember chuckled.

“Tch.”

Allura clicked her tongue.

“Umm... Sister Allura... why do you hate the King so much?”

Evane couldn’t help but question.

Allura’s eyes fell on Evane and she finally realized what she has done.

“Nothing, I was just joking.

The King won’t live for a long time anyway, we don’t have to kill him if it is not absolutely necessary.”

“No, you don’t have to hide it, Allura.”

Suddenly, Thyra stepped forward.

“Our initial plan was to Kill the King, which was put on hold because it might affect Sister Evane, however, and as much as I hate to say it, you are also part of the family.

If you are dissatisfied, Nux wouldn’t be happy either and I wouldn’t allow that. Therefore, say what you were going to say.

Why do you hate the King so much?”

‘Thyra standing up for Allura, now that is surprising. Not complaining though, it is pleasant to the eyes.’

A smile appeared on Nux’s face.

However, then, a frown appeared on his face,

He didn’t know Allura hated the King so much.

She never mentioned it before.

“I am not lying, nothing happened between me and the King, I... well, I would just prefer if I don’t have to see his face anymore.”

Seeing that everyone was now looking at her, Allura sighed.

“My name is Allura Winfer, I come from Winfer family.

My family didn’t have a very strong influence, we were just Baron, I, however, was different, unlike other members of my family, I had a Medium Level Affinity with Water Element, of course, it is nothing much compared to some monsters here, however, for a Baron Family, it was big deal.

If I trained well, I could become a Master Stage Cultivator, someone who is as strong as an Earl.

When I learned about it, I was overjoyed, the only thing I wanted to do was to raise my family's status.

And for that, I joined the Royal Academy, faced all the bullying and harassment bravely, cultivated with everything I had, but one day,

My family called me back.

I returned, and realized that while I was working hard, doing my best to help my family, my so-called family sold me to the King, in exchange for raising their status from Barons to Viscounts.”

Allura revealed her past with a smile on her face.

However, Nux and everyone present in the room could see how painful that smile was.

Nux appeared behind that Allura and hugged her from behind,

Allura's fake smile was instantly replaced by a warm, lovely smile.

‘This bitch.’

Thyra cursed in annoyance when she realized what Allura was trying to do.

Of course, she wasn't going to let her win.

“I still don't understand, I get that you were betrayed by your family, but why do you hate the King? You aren't blaming him for this, are you?”

Thyra questioned.

“Well, after I was arranged to marry the King of this country, the naïve 20 year old me thought another thing.

‘So what if my family betrayed me? I am leaving them anyway, therefore, rather than focusing on them, I should focus on the future. I would give everything to my future husband.’

With that fragile attempt to heal my heart, I focused on the King and tried to love him with all my heart, initially, things were going well, the King reciprocated my feeling and visited me from time to time, I actually thought that the King loved me back, the two of us then... well, spent a night together and then,

The King disappeared.

I waited.

I waited for a whole year.

And then I finally realized.

He betrayed me as well, just like my so-called family.

I realized that since my birth, I was just a trophy.

And whenever I see that man, and that unbothered, slightly disdainful look in his eyes, I realize that again.

Therefore, I would rather not see that bastard-”

Before Allura could even complete, Nux tightened his hug around her and whispered,

“You are not a trophy, Allura.”

“Of course, Allura Winfer and Allura Skyfall was,

Allura Leander isn't, right?”

A big smile appeared on Allura's face.

“Indeed.”

Nux then started kissing Allura's shoulder.

Allura held Nux's head with her arm and enjoyed his touch.

At the same time, she glanced at Thyra and smiled.

Thyra shook her head and smiled back.

‘You really are a bitch.’

She muttered.

‘Thank you for your kind words.’

Allura chuckled.

‘But Nux is right, you are not a Trophy.’

Thyra spoke in a serious tone.

Allura looked at Thyra for a while, and then, she smiled,

‘I know that already.’

Thyra nodded.

“Wait, so you hate King just because you don’t like the look in his eyes?”

Ember questioned.

“As I said, I don’t really hate him, I just don’t want to see him. Killing him would be better, however, if that would hurt one of my sisters, I wouldn’t want that.

As long as I don’t see that ugly face, I am perfectly fine.”

Allura answered.

“Well then, just like we decided, we won’t be killing the King, rather, we would just make Evane the new Queen, which would automatically make Nux the King.

Is that okay with you, Evane?

Are you ready to participate in the Battle of the Throne?”

Evane looked at Amaya and then others with a determined look on her face and then, she nodded.

“I am ready.”

Chapter 404

“Talk to him, if he dares to disagree, ki-”

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

In a lavish room, a man with red colored hair and eyes, wearing black-golden colored clothes, was sitting on his chair and was instructing his subordinate who was kneeling on the floor with a respectful expression on his face.

The man had sharp features and a charming, yet dangerous Aura.

He was Leofric Vestalis, the Head of the Vestalis Duke House, and was one of the strongest Expert Stage Cultivators of the Skyfall Kingdom.

A man who was feared by many and only a few people in this entire world dared to go against him.

Today, however, Duke Vestalis was interrupted by a knock.

This normally wouldn't have been a problem, however, the man who knocked on the door dared to enter without waiting for his permission.

Now, this was getting out of line.

The Duke narrowed his eyes and looked at the guard who entered his office.

“You better have a good reason for this blatant disrespect you have shown me, Zane, because if you don't, then don't even think about meeting your family again.”

The Guard, who just entered the Duke's office felt a shiver run down his spine.

He was a Grand Master Stage Cultivator, however, in front of the Duke, he wasn't nearly as impressive.

The Duke could destroy him in seconds, and he knew it.

However, he had a good reason for doing what he did.

“Lord Vestalis.”

He called out.

The Duke looked at him, seeing that he has gained the Duke's attention, Zane reported.

“Princess Evane is here to see you.”

Suddenly, those eyes that looked like they would pierce Zane into pieces shined in gleam.

“Evane is here?”

An excited look appeared on Vestalis's face.

“Yes, Lord Vestalis,”

A small smile appeared on Zane's face and he continued,

“And I apologize for my rudeness, but I have already brought the princess in since I couldn't let her stand outside like others. I am ready to accept any punishment you deliver.”

Hearing those words, Duke Vestalis laughed out loud.

“Hahaha~ You don't have to worry, Zane.

You have done a good thing. It is indeed not correct to treat Evane as if she is a normal guest. She is my Grand Daughter, of course.

Don't worry, rather than a punishment, I would reward you instead.

Tell me, what do you want?”

Duke Vestalis questioned with a happy expression on his face.

Zane smiled inwardly.

It was just as he expected.

The moment he talked about his Grand Daughter, the cold and ruthless Duke disappeared.

Zane never thought about getting punishment for even a second, he knew about the Duke, and he knew how he would react.

It was a calculated move.

However, now wasn't the time to be relaxed.

“Lord, you are generous, and I would love to accept a reward, however, the Princess is still waiting outside, please meet her first.”

“Hahaha~”

The Duke laughed again.

“Good Good, Zane Riverson, I give you a day to decide what you want, tomorrow, you can come to me and demand it.

Think well.”

“As you command, Lord Vestalis.”

Zane bowed his head.

“I will send the Princess in now.”

Then, he stood up and left the room.

A few seconds later, the door opened, and a breathtakingly beautiful blonde walked in.

“Grandpa.”

Evane greeted with a fresh smile on her face.

“Evane!”

Duke Vestalis rushed towards Evane and hugged her.

Evane hugged back.

“I missed you, Grandpa.”

“Hmph! If you missed me, you would have visited me sooner.”

Vestalis pouted.

His subordinate, who was standing behind him couldn't help but shake his head.

This Duke Vestalis...

Who would believe that this man is a cold-blooded killer if he saw him acting like this?

Just a few minutes ago, he was talking about killing someone, and look at him now, fawning over his granddaughter like that.

Just how can one change his attitude so quickly?

His subordinate, however, was used to this.

Duke Vestalis was filled with unconditional love for his first Grand Daughter.

The moment he held her in her arms when she was born, his ruthless, expressionless face crumbled and was replaced by a delightful one.

It was truly a bizarre sight that even the people close to Duke couldn't understand.

Not even his daughter, Princess Evane's mother could understand why her father loved her daughter so much, even she didn't receive this much love from the Duke.

"Well, I am here now, aren't I?"

Evane replied with a smile on her face.

"It is good that you are because if you hadn't visited me for a few more days, I would have barged into that academy of yours and would have demanded to meet you.

How dare you stay away from your Grandpa for such a long time?"

Duke Vestalis snorted.

Evane chuckled.

"See? I knew you would try to do that, therefore, I visited you before you could barge in."

"Hahaha~ My Evane knows me well."

The Duke laughed out loud.

"Alright now, have a seat."

Then, he pulled Evane's hand and placed her on the chair.

Then, he sat on the chair opposite to Evane's and turned towards his subordinate.

"What are you standing there for? Bring the Tea, also, make sure to bring those chocolate cookies,"

"As you command."

The subordinate bowed and then walked away.

‘Who would believe that a Duke would remember his Granddaughter’s favorite snacks? Tsk Tsk.’

The Subordinate thought inwardly and clicked his tongue.

“Now, let’s have a long chat, shall we?”

On the other hand, the Duke looked at Evane and smiled.

“So? How was the Academy? Did anyone bully you?”

Evane chuckled, and then she replied,

“No one bullied me grandpa, and the Academy was good as well, however,”

Suddenly, Evane’s face turned serious.

“I am not here to talk about that.”

Seeing the serious expression on his Granddaughter’s face, a frown appeared on the Duke’s face.

“What happened?”

He questioned.

“Grandpa, I need a favor.”

Chapter 405

“Your Majesty, I think I have made it very clear before, I do not want to entertain anyone in my Hours Of Freedom.”

Amaya, who was currently sipping her tea inside her room, questioned with a calm look on her face.

Yes, she was indirectly telling the King of the Kingdom to get the hell out of her room.

Actually, it wasn't even indirect, it was pretty straightforward.

She just didn't say the words, 'get the fuck out' directly.

However, the King understood what she wanted to say and narrowed his eyes.

“You cannot talk to me like that. I am the King of the Kingdom.”

Amaya smiled,

“I apologize, if I sounded rude, Your Majesty. It is just I lose control over my emotions due to this annoying curse, I am forced to stay in one place for the whole day, therefore, I really value these 2 hours I have where I can move and do whatever I want.”

The King looked at Amaya and narrowed his eyes even more.

Her words were polite... however... why did the King feel that she was saying, 'I don't give a fuck' right in his face?

“Where did you go yesterday?”

In the end, the King decided to completely ignore it and questioned directly.

Dealing with Amaya was hard, especially after she has been ‘on edge’ due to her curse.

“Hmm? Didn’t I tell you before? I snuck out of the Palace.”

Amaya answered with an innocent look on her face.

The King’s face twitched in annoyance.

“You did tell me that. However, that is not what I am talking about right now. What I want to know is where you sneaked out yesterday.”

He questioned.

“Well, it wouldn’t be called sneaking out if everyone knew about my destination, now will it?” Amaya smiled.

“Amaya, I am not in the mood for any jokes.”

The King spoke with a serious look on his face.

“I am not joking, your Majesty.

All I can tell you is that I went there because I wanted to send some of my special spies into the Solid Earth Kingdom.

I can’t tell you anything other than that.”

The King looked at Amaya for a while, and then, he questioned.

“Did you succeed?”

“Well, I have already made my moves, and whether it will succeed or not, I will know within 2 weeks.”

Amaya answered.

The King nodded.

“What about your Majesty? Did you manage to place your spies into the Solid Earth Kingdom?”

Amaya questioned.

The King shook his head,

“I do not have any answer to that question, Kevve is the one who handles all of that, he hasn't reported anything to me yet.

Actually, I am worried about another thing right now.”

Amaya noticed how the King refused to answer her and changed the topic.

‘He is smarter than he looks.’

She noted inwardly and smiled inwardly.

Then, she ‘frowned’,

“Hmm? Another thing? What happened, Your Majesty?”

She questioned.

Successfully allowing the King to change the topic.

“It's about the Princes. The fight between them has become even fiercer than before.”

“Hmm? What happened?”

“A rumor spread, saying that I would soon choose the Crown Prince and that I favor the Third Prince. I do not know who has spread this rumor, but I am sure he or she has done it intentionally. Everything happened way too quickly for it to be natural.”

“Oh? So this flamed the War between the princes?”

Amaya questioned with an interested look on her face.

“Indeed.”

The King nodded.

“Then what about you, Your Majesty? Who do you support?”

Amaya questioned.

“Well, everyone has their own strong points.”

The King replied.

Clearly, he had no intention of answering this question.

Amaya lost interested.

A Meaningless conversation was the thing she hated the most.

Unless it is with Nux of course, with him, she could talk about the most meaningless matters of the world. Just his presence alone was enough for her.

Of course, Ricardus wasn't Nux, therefore, now that she has learned what wanted, Amaya wanted to end this conversation.

And she had a perfect way to do so.

“Indeed, they are you so-”

Amaya stopped inwardly and then, she cursed,

“Shit.”

Her face contoured into a painful frown, and Black Mist came out of her body. In an abrupt manner, she stood up and jumped into her bed.

Then, she groaned in pain.

“Uuugghhhh!!!”

More and more Mist came out of her body.

Seeing this scene, the King stepped back.

Amaya clenched the bedsheets and gritted her teeth.

Clearly, she was in immense pain.

“I will take my leave now.”

The King muttered and then, he turned around.

He wasn't interested in that curse of hers.

Especially when there are chances that he might be cursed as well.

He quickly left Amaya's room and the moment he left, Amaya's face returned to normal.

‘My butterfly did a good job.’

She spoke.

‘Well, she was your butterfly after all. She has to be good.’

Nux replied.

A small smile appeared on Amaya's face.

‘Indeed Indeed.’

‘Did you talk with the King?’

Nux questioned.

‘Heh, that coward just left.’

Amaya snorted.

‘Oh? Did your ‘Curse’ return?’

‘Yeah’

‘Hahaha~’

Nux laughed.

Amaya chuckled as well.

‘It is really convenient.’

She commented.

‘Indeed.’

Nux nodded.

Then, he questioned.

‘So? What was he talking about?’

‘Nothing really. He was really tight-lipped today.’

‘Well, whatever. It’s not like his answers would really help us in any way.’

Nux shrugged.

‘Indeed.’

Amaya nodded, and then, she questioned.

‘What about Evane? Did she leave?’

‘Yes, she is talking to her Grandpa right now. I just hope that man is as good as she believes him to be.’

Nux answered.

‘Don’t worry.’

Amaya smiled.

‘What about him? When do you think he will visit you?’

Nux questioned.

‘Hmmm? With how the Coward was talking, the rumor spread faster than I expected. He should come to me soon enough, maybe in a day or t-‘

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Suddenly, Amaya heard a knock.

Immediately, she used her [Sense] and her smile widened,

‘He’s here.’

Chapter 406

“Heeh? Is that True? The Third Prince? But I thought the First Prince would become the Crown Prince.”

“I used to think the same thing, however, that is incorrect. Think about it logically, the only advantage the First Prince has over the Third Prince is that he was born earlier than him.

The Third Prince is smarter, more loved, and has higher potential compared to the First Prince, if it wasn't for the 60 years of age gap between them, the First Prince wouldn't even be a competition.

The King would have to be a fool to choose the First Prince as the Crown Prince.”

“Now that you say i-”

*Step* *Step* *Step*

“Prince Raguel!”

The two servants who were talking to each other suddenly paused and bowed hysterically as they saw a handsome man, with black colored hair, Crystal Blue eyes, well-carved face, wearing Purple colored coat standing in front of them.

‘Zel, you bastard! Why the hell were you talking so loudly!’

The Servant cursed his friend inwardly, his face was pale white and his body was trembling.

Clearly, he was scared.

The man in front of him was Raguel Skyfall, the First Prince of the Skyfall Kingdom.

And, was also the man who they were talking about.

‘I am dead...’

The Servant started thinking about his family as he closed his eyes.

“You are not paid to talk about useless stuff, go do your work.”

The First Prince ordered.

“Huh?”

The Servant, who has closed his eyes suddenly opened them and frowned.

“What? Was I not clear enough?”

The First Prince questioned.

“No! i-I Apologize, Prince Raguel! We will return to our work right away!”

Saying that, the two servants rushed away.

Seeing them running away, the First Prince sighed.

‘This is the 4th time already...’

Raguel couldn’t understand.

Everything was going fine 2 days ago.

Everyone respected him and believed that he would be crowned as the next King.

Just what in the hell happened in these last two days?

Why have the odds fallen in favor of his brother? And so drastically at that?

Why was the Third Prince’s so-called Potential wasn’t mentioned before?
Why now? Did something happen?

He talked with many people, his mother, his Grandfather, and his loyal servants, but no one was able to come up with an answer.

This lack of answers annoyed the First Prince.

In reality, the First Prince was panicking.

He could see his chances of becoming the King disappearing right in front of his eyes.

And in panic.

He decided to talk to a certain woman.

A woman whom he had never talked to before.

Amaya Skyfall.

If anyone would know the answers to his questions, it would be Amaya Skyfall.

A princess from another Kingdom. A woman with the largest information network in the world. A woman he normally avoided because of her scary curse.

Of course, it was clear that he couldn't avoid her now.

Therefore,

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

He knocked on the doors of her room.

“...”

No one answered.

The First Prince frowned and

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

He knocked again.

“...”

But again, no one answered.

The First Prince's frown deepened, then, without waiting,

He directly opened the door and entered the door.

‘Hmm?’

Inside, he saw a woman covered in ominous-looking Black Mist laying on the bed with an expressionless look on her divinely beautiful face.

‘She... really is beautiful...’

The First Prince was taken aback.

For the next two minutes, he just stood there, admiring Amaya's beauty.

Amaya, who was waiting for him to speak up, felt her lips twitching in frustration.

Why the hell was this monkey looking at her?

Does he want to die!?

Tsk!

After snorting inwardly, Amaya decided to open her eyes on her own.

“It's rather disrespectful to enter a woman's room without her consent, don't you think, First Prince?”

Amaya spoke in a calm but oddly soothing voice.

There were no signs of her frustration in her voice.

The First Prince finally came out of his reverie when he heard his voice,

“I-I apologize.”

He replied and then continued,

“I knocked a few times but no one answered.”

“And I believed that not answering meant that I wasn’t ready to meet anyone.”

A mannerly way to call someone a rude bastard.

“Again, I apologize, but I really wanted to talk to you about something that is very urgent.”

The First Prince wasn’t offended, rather, he felt that he was in the wrong for disturbing Lady Amaya’s sleep, therefore, he apologized.

Amaya looked at Raguel’s face for a while and then, she muttered,

“What is it?”

She questioned.

Raguel’s face twitched.

She could at least offer him a seat.

Just why is she being so unwelcoming?

In the end, he just sighed, then grabbed a chair and sat down,

“Have you heard about the recent rumor about me and Lovis?”

He questioned.

However, instead of answering, Amaya looked at him with a deadpan expression on her face.

Raguel soon realized his mistake and reframed his question.

“This Rumor about me and Lovis, do you know how it spread? Who is behind it? Why did it spread so quickly? Also...

Is it true?”

“I don’t think I am obligated to answer any of your questions,”

Amaya replied.

“You are not.”

Raguel agreed.

“But you can still help me, can’t you?”

“And why would I do that? What is in it for me?”

Amaya questioned.

“What do you want? Name your price, I will buy this information from you.”

Raguel proposed.

Amaya, however, just chuckled,

“Heh. Did you forget who you are talking to? Why would I want your money?”

Raguel clenched his fist.

“Then what do you want?”

However, he soon controlled his anger and questioned.

“ ... ”

Amaya observed Raguel for a while.

A few more seconds passed by, and now, Raguel felt a little uncomfortable. It felt as if Amaya was investigating him.

Suddenly, as if she was done with her little investigation,

Amaya turned around and closed her eyes.

“This information is not for sale.”

A vein popped up on Raguel’s forehead and then, he warned.

“You better answer me when I am asking nicely.”

Chapter 407

“This information is not for sale.”

Amaya replied as she turned around and closed her eyes.

The First Prince didn't know how to react to that.

If it was just a normal rejection, he would have probably left quietly, however, that little observation Amaya did before answering...

That annoyed him.

It was as if Amaya was trying to say, ‘you are not worthy of buying this information from me.’

And of course, as the First Prince of the Strongest Kingdom, Raguel didn't like that answer at all.

A vein popped up on his forehead and he glared at Amaya.

“You better answer me when I am asking nicely.”

Hearing those words, Amaya opened her eyes again and glanced at Raguel,

“Oh? What if I don't?”

“It is not hard to hurt a cripple who cannot move,”

Raguel threatened.

“Are you threatening me?”

Amaya narrowed her eyes.

“I am not, I am just saying that you shouldn't make enemies, especially in that condition.”

“Heh.”

Suddenly, Amaya chuckled.

Raguel frowned in confusion and a smile appeared on Amaya’s face.

“You don’t even have the guts to admit that you just threatened me, a cripple and you want to become the King? Quite laughable.”

This time, Raguel lost control over his emotions and tried to grab Amaya’s neck.

“Sure, c’mon, try and touch me, I would like to see how many seconds this Mist needs to completely obliterate the First Prince of the Strongest Kingdom.”

However, Amaya’s next words stopped him.

Raguel clenched his finger in anger and threatened.

“Don’t think you are invincible just because I can’t touch you.

I still have many ways to kill you.”

“Are you threatening me, First Prince?”

Amaya repeated her question with a smile on her face.

This time, however, Raguel didn’t back down and replied in a cold voice.

“I am, can you do anything about it?”

Hearing those words, Amaya chuckled again.

“Are you threatening a Royal Consort? I didn’t know you were so brave. I wonder what the King would have to say about it.”

“ ... ”

Raguel turned silent.

He completely forgot the woman in front of him is his father's woman.

*Gulp*

Raguel gulped as he glanced at Amaya with a wary look on his face.

This woman... she was playing with his emotions!

Raguel finally realized why his mother was so wary of this woman.

She may not be strong, but, she knew how to play with the person in front of him.

She made him say things he would normally never say, especially to a consort.

The First Prince narrowed his eyes and observed Amaya.

On the other side, Amaya was doing the same.

‘Arrogant, short-tempered and...

A fool.’

And within a few seconds, she formed a character chart in her mind.

“I may not be able to harm you right now, however, I still suggest you to not to underestimate me.”

A few seconds later, Raguel questioned.

Amaya looked at him and smiled, clearly, she was not taking him seriously.

“Once I become the King, your status as the Royal Consort will not save you anymore,” “Heh. This would have scared me 2 days ago, not now.”

Amaya dropped a bomb.

The First Prince narrowed his eyes.

“...”

Amaya looked at him, waiting for his next question.

“...”

Raguel, however, didn't say anything.

‘Haahh...’

Amaya sighed inwardly.

‘I guess I need to spoon-feed him.’

“You becoming the King is imposs-”

Amaya wanted to say something, however, she paused mid-sentence and turned around.

It was as if she was hiding something.

The First Prince finally realized.

“You know something, don't you?”

He questioned as he narrowed his eyes.

Amaya sighed.

“I will not answer your questions.”

She repeated.

“Lady Amaya, please, I need your help.”

Raguel spoke, sincerity shining in his eyes.

Amaya looked at him for a while and spoke,

“Why? Didn’t you say you would kill me once you become the King?”

“I give you my word that I won’t.”

Raguel answered with a serious look on his face.

Of course, normally, his ‘word’ wouldn’t have been enough.

However, that is only when Amaya was actually scared of him.

She could kill someone like Raguel with just a mere thought.

He posed no threat.

She looked at Raguel for a while and then, she finally dropped a bomb.

“You know, I really hate Ricardus.”

The First Prince narrowed his eyes.

“What do you mean?”

“I am sure you know what it means, don’t you?”

Amaya questioned as her dark black eyes shined.

“Do you... want me to Kill the King?”

After some hesitation, the First Prince questioned.

‘Huh?’

Amaya frowned.

She had to admit, this was not something she was expecting when she was playing her little game.

Then, a small smile appeared on Amaya’s face.

She wasn't expecting this, however, she would definitely walk on this new road of possibilities.

Within a few seconds, a whole new set of questions appeared in Amaya's voice and she continued, “Look, I will be honest with you Raguel.

It doesn't matter if this new rumor about King favoring Lovis over you is true or not, there are some events that are going around in this Kingdom that are not in your favor at all.

If things continue to move as they are moving right now, the Throne will never be yours.”

“What are these ‘events’ you are talking about?”

Raguel questioned.

Amaya, however, chuckled,

“Now hear me out, will you?

Why do you even need to know what these ‘things’ are?”

“What do you mean?”

“Answer me, who would become the new King if suddenly, Ricardus dies tomorrow morning?”

Amaya questioned.

Right now, her eyes were completely focused on any minute changes that appears on Raguel's face.

Raguel's eyes widened, but soon, he replied.

“That would be me.”

“Indeed. That would be you.

You are the Strongest of all the Princes, you are the Oldest, and right now, you are the only possible option.

However, the question is.

Are you willing to take the right step?

Are you willing to betray your father to make the Throne yours?”

Chapter 408

“Are you willing to take the right step?

Are you willing to betray your father to make the Throne yours?”

Amaya questioned with a curious smile on her face.

One thing was clear, she was definitely enjoying different reactions that were appearing and disappearing from the First Prince’s face.

“ ... ”

The Prince remained silent for a good while and then, he looked at Amaya and seeing her smiling at him, his face turned cold and he stood up.

“I do not need to take these extreme steps, I am sure, father the King will make the right decision and will make me the next Crown Prince.

Now if you don’t have anything substantial to say, I will be taking my leave.”

Saying that, the First Prince turned around.

Looking at his back, Amaya chuckled.

This wasn’t the reaction she was hoping for, but, oh well, it was still better than other scenarios in her mind.

At the very least, the First Prince doesn’t seem to be against the idea of going against the King.

How and why she concluded that?

Well, it was pretty clear from his reaction.

If the First Prince was actually against the Idea of going against the King, then with his short-tempered attitude, he would have stood up and attacked her right there. Of course, it was possible that he was holding himself back.

However, Amaya believed that it was highly unlikely.

Out of all the emotions, Raguel showed when she talked about betraying the King, anger was missing.

Therefore, Amaya believed that at the very least, Raguel was not very loyal to his father.

Which, of course, was completely reasonable since the King was the worse father a child could hope for.

He never treated his children with love.

No, let alone love, he didn't show a single emotion to his children.

His children meant nothing to him.

He only cared about his Trophies.

It would be weirder if a child would actually be on his side even after all that.

“Raguel.”

Just as the First Prince was about to move out of the room, Amaya called.

“What is it?”

Raguel turned back.

“You should look into Duke Merula and Duke Vestalis.”

Saying those words, Amaya closed her eyes.

From this action, it was clear that she wasn't going to talk about this anymore.

Raguel understood that, therefore,

“I will look into it, thank you.”

He walked away with a solemn look on his face.

These two names that Amaya spoke of.

These two were very important people.

Duke Merula was the Duke who supports the Third Prince, his biggest rival, obviously, the relationship between the First Prince and Duke Merula wasn't good.

Duke Vestalis was the Duke who stepped back from this battle and has declared his neutrality. Currently, he is the pivot point of this battle. He could even be called the strongest Duke.

If he stays neutral, the Battle continues without any problem, however, if his neutrality changes, it would change the whole course of this Battle.

If these two people are communicating, then this was not a piece of good news for Raguel.

Just as this thought popped up in Raguel's mind, his walking speed increased and soon, he left the Palace.

Where was he going?

He wanted to meet Duke Fulvianus, his Grandfather.

He had to talk to him about this incident.

And he had to do it urgently.

...

“Did you know? Teacher Evane left the Academy.”

On the other side, Arvina walks into Nux’s room and informed.

“Hmm? Of course, I do.”

Nux frowned.

Why was she so surprised?

He wondered inwardly.

“You know?”

Arvina raised her eyebrow.

“Of course I do. She is my wife after all, how could I not know?”

“What!?”

Arvina’s eyes widened in surprise.

“Hmm? What happened? Why do you look so surprised, Teacher Arvina?”

Nux tilted his head in confusion.

“Teacher Evane is your wife!?”

Arvina, however, wasn’t as calm as him.

“Hmm? I thought you knew?”

Nux was still as confused as before.

“How would I know something like that!?”

“Did you not notice how she was visiting us every night? She was also there when I fought against Baldy. I thought you already connected the dots.”

Nux replied.

“I thought that she was just coming here to meet her student’s wives! The same thing happened with the Principal, I thought she was just here to help her student!”

“Hmm? Then why would she visit us again and again if she just wanted to meet my wives? Also, how would she help me deal with a King Stage Cultivator when she is only a Grand Master Stage Cultivator?”

Nux questioned in confusion.

“I was there as well wasn’t I!? I am also just an Expert Stage Cultivator! Also, didn’t I meet your wives multiple times, didn’t I!? Does that mean that I am your wife as well!?”

Arvina questioned back.

‘Well, I don’t mind that at all. I am actually looking forward to that day actually.’

Nux wanted to say this out loud, however, he knew it wasn’t the time yet.

Therefore, he held himself back and stepped back.

“I apologize, Teacher Arvina. I didn’t think about it that way. I should have talked to you about this sooner.”

He admitted his mistake.

“Let me correct my mistake now, Teacher Arvina.

Yes, Evane is indeed my wife. I fell in love with her when I first met her, then I proposed to her after I returned from the Woods Dynasty and luckily, she accepted.”

“S-She accepted.”

Arvina stuttered.

She couldn't believe what she was hearing.

Evane, who was a Teacher just like her was in a relationship with her student...

“H-H-How could you... she is your Teacher...”

Arvina pointed her trembling finger at Nux and questioned.

“Look, Teacher Arvina, I know it feels wrong, and I perfe-”

Nux wanted to explain things, however, suddenly,

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Suddenly, the two of them heard a knock.

Arvina frowned and walked towards the door, however, before she could, the door opened itself and a white-haired beauty walked in.

“You weren't going to let me wait outside, were you?”

The woman spoke and seeing the woman in front of her,

Arvina's eyes widened in horror.

“A-A-Allura Skyfall!”

Chapter 409

“A-A-Allura Skyfall!”

Arvina’s eyes widened in horror.

Allura’s eyes then finally fell on Arvina and she smiled,

“Arvina, long time no see. How are you doing?”

Then, she turned towards Nux and frowned.

“Did I interrupt anything? Are you busy?”

“Of co-”

Nux was about to answer, however, Arvina beat him to it.

“W-W-What are you doing here!?”

“Huh?”

Allura frowned.

“Weren’t you... weren’t you-”

“Kidnapped?”

Allura smiled.

“Kidnapped?”

Arvina frowned.

“Ahh, it isn’t yet clear what happened to me, is it?”

Allura chuckled.

Arvina couldn't understand a thing about what Allura was talking about, therefore, she turned towards Nux and questioned.

“What happened? The entire Kingdom is busy trying to find her, why is she here!? Wasn't she attacked? Didn't she just disappear in the middle of a busy street?”

Just what in the hell is happening here?

And what is the relation between the two of you?”

Arvina shot a series of questions at Nux.

“Umm... well...”

Nux was a bit overwhelmed by all these questions.

Therefore, Allura took over.

“Well, allow me to answer your questions, Arvina.

Yes, I was attacked and was kidnapped by an extremely terrifying and possessive man who was unable to stay away from me for even a second longer and that kidnapper is standing right in front of you.”

Allura chuckled as she pointed at Nux.

“N-N-Nux?”

Arvina tilted her head in confusion.

“Indeed, he is the one who kidnapped me in the middle of a busy street, right under the eyes of spies sent by the Kingdom.”

Allura smiled.

Nux placed his hand on the back of his head and chuckled embarrassingly.

“You don't have to repeat it like that...”

“Fufufu~”

Allura laughed.

And Arvina, couldn't take this anymore.

“What the hell are you two talking about!?”

Then, she turned towards Nux.

“Nux! Do you realize what you have done!? You kidnapped the Royal Consort! The King's Wife! Why would you do something so stupid!? What would you do if you if the King finds out!? You know you can't fight against the entire Kingdom right now! Why would you Kidnap the King's wif-”

“My Wife.”

“Nux's Wife.”

Nux and Allura corrected at the same time.

“W-What?”

Again, Arvina couldn't believe what she heard.

“Can you not call me that bastard's wife again and again, I feel uncomfortable.”

Allura questioned.

“W-What do you mean?”

“I am not that bastard's wife, you know I was forced by my family. I didn't do it of my own will. So I am not his wife.”

Allura spat with a disgusted face.

Then, a beautiful smile appeared on her face as she looked at Nux.

“I belong to Nux.”

“You are his wife...”

Arvina finally realized.

At the same time, Nux spoke up.

“I did not do anything wrong, Teacher Arvina. I only wanted to stay close to my wife.”

Arvina turned towards Nux and looked at him with disbelief clear in her eyes,

“Y-You went after the King’s wif-”

“Again, don’t call me that.”

Allura interrupted.

Arvina turned towards Allura and couldn’t help but question.

“W-Why did you do that? Why did you betray the King?”

Hearing that question, Allura narrowed her eyes.

“Betray the King? Oh please Arvina, I don’t want to hear that from someone who rarely sees the King’s face in her life.

Not everyone is lucky to avoid that bastard like you.

I did not betray him, I merely did what I actually wanted to.

I don’t want to do things that others tell me to do. I will do what my heart desires.”

“What your heart desires...”

Arvina repeated Allura’s words with a lost look on her face.

“Indeed, what my heart desires.”

Allura repeated those words as well, this time, there was a seductive smile on her face as she looked at Nux.

Nux chuckled as he extended his arms toward her.

Allura’s smile widened and she walked into his embrace.

Seeing that scene, Arvina felt a strange... feeling...

Seeing Allura’s face... that worriless, happy face...

Arvina felt something.

However, she still couldn’t understand.

“Why did you kidnap your own wife?”

Arvina questioned.

“Didn’t I say it before? He was unable to stay away from me. I am just that attractive.”

Allura answered with a haughty look on her face.

Nux chuckled and then, he nodded,

“She is right. I was missing her.”

“How did you do it?”

Arvina narrowed her eyes and questioned.

“Well, I have my ways.”

Nux smiled.

Arvina’s face twitched in annoyance.

She was dying to know how Nux kidnapped someone in broad daylight under so many eyes, however, she knew that he was not going to tell her.

She knew how he worked.

If she tries to ask more, he would just change the topic in a way she wouldn't realize and once she does realize it, she would feel embarrassed.

Therefore, it was better to just not talk about the topic he doesn't want to talk about.

Therefore, Arvina asked another question.

“What if her location is revealed and the King finds out?”

“Why do you think I killed that Idiot from the Shadow Unit?”

“What do you mean?”

Arvina frowned, however soon, she realized what Nux was talking about.

The current investigation...

It was focusing on a completely opposite theory...

The King and his men were trying to find Allura Skyfall who was attacked by a 'mysterious organization.' After further investigation, it turns out that this Mysterious Organization is stronger than they expected and its scope covers the entire continent.

It is believed that Allura was currently being held in another Kingdom and the King's men were still investigating where she is.

However, in truth, the woman they were looking for was staying right inside the capital of their Kingdom, inside the building that is under their control and this 'mysterious organization' they were looking for doesn't even exist!

Nux was literally playing the King and his men.

All of them were dancing on the palm of his hands!

The Top echelons of the strongest Kingdom in the world were being played by an 18-year-old boy!

Just how scary is that?

Chapter 410

“Y-Y-You... j-just what kind of student have I been teaching?”

Arvina shook her head as she glanced at Nux who was smiling at her.

“A really really really good and hardworking student,”

Nux answered.

“Heh.”

Arvina snorted.

“Umm... Arvina.”

Suddenly, Allura called out.

“Hmm? What is it?”

Arvina turned towards Allura.

“You still train him, don’t you?”

Allura questioned.

Hearing that question, Arvina sighed,

“Yes, I know, he is stronger than me, I know it already and I don’t want to hear it again. My answer is clear, his form might be good, but he can still improve and I believe that I can help him improve.”

A while before, Ember teased Arvina about being weaker than Nux and still training him, Arvina didn’t like that feeling. Therefore, she was a little sensitive about this.

Allura, however, didn’t care about all that.

“Woah Woah, I didn’t ask for any explanation alright, I just wanted a small yes and no. Do you still train him or not?”

“I do. Yes.”

“How many hours?”

“He has been busy, so only 3 hours a day.”

“Lucky you...”

Allura sighed and then she placed her hand on Arvina’s shoulder.

“Alright, Arvina, you can spend your next hour with Nux, I will be taking my leave.”

Then, Allura turned towards Nux and winked playfully.

“I will have 2 sessions tomorrow, don’t forget.”

Nux chuckled and shook his head. Allura turned around, however, Arvina interrupted.

“Wait, I am just about to leave, you can stay here.”

Allura, however, didn’t turn around and just shook her hand,

“No no nope, not happening. You already wasted 15 minutes of my session time. I won’t compromise here at all.

I would rather postpone it to tomorrow.”

Saying that, Allura left Nux’s room.

“...”

Arvina turned silent.

Nux just chuckled.

Arvina then turned towards Nux and snorted.

“You even laid your demonic hands on the King’s Wi- umm... the Royal Consort.”

“It still means the same but whatever.”

Nux commented.

“You really wish to go after the King, don’t you? Do you have some sort of hatred for him?”

Arvina questioned in curiosity.

“Teacher Arvina, I think you got something wrong.”

Suddenly, Nux spoke.

“Hmm? What do you mean?”

Arvina questioned.

“I did not go after Allura because I want to make the King’s wife mine, or I want to go against the King, or because I hate him.

I want to take the King down because I want to stay with Allura.”

Well, initially he did approach Allura because she was the Royal Consort, but now, she meant more to him than that.

She owns the part of his heart, after all.

Arvina observed her student’s smile when he was looking at the door Allura walked out from and couldn’t help but comment.

“What a playboy.”

Nux’s smile widened.

“I just can’t do anything, there are just too many amazing women in this world. You can’t help but fall in love.”

“Hmph!”

Arvina snorted.

Nux just smiled.

Arvina then questioned.

“Hmph! First, you go after your Teacher, then you go after a married woman, how many taboos are you going to break?”

Nux chuckled. Then, he looked at Arvina’s face and commented.

“I might be thinking of breaking one more taboo, Teacher.”

“Huh?” Arvina frowned.

“Are you going to target another married woman? Or are you going to target another one of your teachers?”

Arvina questioned.

Nux’s smile widened and he answered,

“Both.”

Arvina’s eyes widened,

“You are going after two more women!?”

“No, just one.”

Nux looked into Arvina’s brown-red eyes.

“One?”

Arvina frowned.

“Does that mean you are going after a woman who is your teacher and is marr-”

Suddenly, Arvina turned silent.

A teacher and a married woman.

“...”

Arvina then looked at Nux’s expression and...

She stepped back.

Nux, however, didn’t let this chance go and stepped forward.

Then, his golden eyes shined and he directly looked into Arvina’s eyes.

“Teacher Arvina, I want yo-”

“No, do not say anything else.”

Arvina, however, interrupted him midsentence.

“I am your teacher.”

She spoke.

“Is this the only reason you are rejecting me?”

Nux questioned.

“Only reason?”

Arvina raised her eyebrow.

“Nux, I am not Evane.

She might ignore the fact that she has been teaching you as her student for more than a month, but I cannot.”

“Why? What’s so bad about a Teacher and Student being in a relationship?”

Nux questioned back.

“Everything. What is not bad about this!?”

Arvina raised her voice.

“And if you forgot about it, then let me remind you, I am already married!”

“Married to a person you don’t even like!

No, fuck like, you hate him!

You loathe that man.”

Nux raised his voice a little as well.

“How do you know that? I might secretly like the King.”

Arvina retorted.

“Teacher, please don’t. I know why you are here in the Academy. I know perfectly well how close you and the King are.

At least don’t lie right to my face.”

Nux shot back.

“...”

Arvina turned silent.

“I don’t get it. What is the issue here? Why not? Are you rejecting me because you are my teacher or because you are married? Are you worried about what others would say? Since when do you start to care about that, Teacher Arvina?

Aren't you a warrior? Shouldn't a Warrior do whatever he or she wants?

Then why hesitate here?"

Nux questioned.

Arvina and Nux stared at each other, different emotions shining in their eyes, a whole minute passed by with just the two of them standing there, staring at each other.

"You want to know the reason, correct?"

Suddenly, Arvina spoke.

"Yes, I do."

Nux nodded.

"The reason I reject you is that I do not like you, Nux. I do not see an 18-year-old boy as a man. You are not the type of man I would fall in love with. You are not the one.

You and I, can't happen."

"..."

Hearing those words, Nux turned silent.

"Is that a better reason?"

Arvina questioned, her eyes shining strangely.

Nux stared into her brown-red eyes for a while, his eyes turned moist, and then, he started nodding his head.

"Yes..."

Yes, that is a better reason indeed.

I accept this reason.

I am not the one.

Alright, I accept this reason.”

Nux continued to nod his head and then, two crystalline tear drops rolled down his cheeks.

“You and I, really can’t happen.”

Chapter 411

“You and I, really can’t happen.”

Nux spoke in a hoarse voice.

“Nux you...”

Arvina stepped towards him, her cold expression suddenly changed into worry, no, extreme worry.

This was the first time she had seen Nux like this.

She was shocked.

She wanted to wipe those tears, however, Nux stepped back.

Then, a shocked look appeared on his face.

His hand quickly moved towards his cheek and he finally realized,

He cried...

He cried right in front of...

“Nux I-”

Arvina stepped forward but before she could touch Nux, he disappeared.

“Huh?”

Arvina frowned.

How in the hell did he disappear into thin air?

Is that even possible?

She knew Nux was fast, however, she was sure that he wasn't fast enough to move past her and leave the room before she could even react.

Even an Emperor Stage Cultivator cannot do something like this.

Was that one of his magic?

A thought appeared in Arvina's mind, however, soon, thoughts like these disappeared.

There were more important things she had to worry about right now.

She didn't know what Nux would do right now.

She just hopes that he doesn't do anything reckless.

And... she hopes that... he is fine...

...

"Nux?"

Amaya frowned as Nux suddenly appeared in front of her. However, her frown soon turned into a smile.

It was not the time yet but, why not?

She was ready.

However, as soon as he appeared, a veil of Dark Mist surrounded Nux's body. Amaya frowned,

"Nux?"

She called out.

"..."

However, there was no answer.

Amaya's frown deepened.

She then used her [Sense] and realized.

Nux was not there.

He...

He used the Devouring Mist as a cover to move out of her sight, then, he activated his [Conceal] and disappeared.

A genius idea that Amaya would normally appreciate, however, right now, she could feel that talking to Nux was more important.

'Nux?'

She called using her connection.

'I will talk to you later, Love. I am a bit busy now.'

She then heard Nux's calm voice.

'But you just here.'

'Yes, I needed to go somewhere, the Royal Palace was close, so I used the Harem's Gate.'

'But why did you hide?'

Amaya questioned.

'I was in rush,

I hope you understand.'

Nux replied.

'Alright...'

Amaya nodded in understanding.

‘You are the best.’

Nux smiled cheerfully.

‘Of course I am.’

Amaya smiled back.

A minute later, her smile disappeared.

She could feel it, something was wrong.

Though he didn’t sound like it, for some reason, Amaya knew something was wrong with him.

‘Did something happen?’

Therefore, she contacted her sisters.

‘Hmm? What do you mean?’

Felberta questioned.

‘With Nux, I mean. Did something happen there?’

‘Hmm? With Nux, nothing. Why? What happened?’

Seeing her seriousness, Felberta didn’t joke around and questioned.

‘He looks... sad...’

Amaya then told them everything that happened, however, since none of the women were there, they couldn’t understand what Amaya was talking about.

‘Wait...’

Suddenly, Allura spoke.

‘He was with Arvina 10 minutes ago.’

‘I will talk to Arvina, she would know about it if something actually happened to him.’

Ember spoke.

The others nodded, Ember nodded back and walked towards her door.

However, before she could touch the door, the door opened and Arvina walked in.

“There is a problem.”

Arvina spoke.

“What happened?”

Ember frowned.

“Nux disappeared.”

“Huh?”

Ember’s frown deepened, however, she soon realized that Nux must have used Harem Gate and calmed down a little.

“What happened?”

She questioned.

At the same time, the rest of the women except Amaya and Evane walked into Ember’s room and questioned.

“”””What happened?””””

“W-Why are you all here?”

Arvina couldn't help but ask.

“That is not important right now, tell us, what happened?”

Thyra spoke.

Arvina agreed with her words, therefore, she nodded and,

“He proposed to me.”

She started talking about everything that happened.

...

10 minutes passed by and Arvina was done with her story.

“...”

The room turned silent.

“...”

Arvina was silent as well.

Her worry was clear with how she was sweating and how pale her face was.

She really was very worried about her student.

However, Ember... she was thinking about a completely different thing.

“You really rejected him... Arv, I am amazed. I never thought a woman could reject a man like Nux.”

“I agree.”

Felberta nodded.

“It is surprising indeed.”

Thyra nodded her head as well.

“Teacher Arvina, you are... amazing... You managed to resist Nux’s Charm.”

Skyla was amazed.

This time, she didn’t even call her ‘Sister’.

She was just that impressed.

The others had the same reaction.

And seeing that, Arvina couldn’t help but shout.

“What are you guys talking about!? Why are you praising me!? Shouldn’t you be worried about Nux!? He is not emotionally stable right now. What if he does something reckless!? Aren’t you guys worried!?”

“Huh? What are you talking about?”

To Arvina’s sudden outburst, Ember just replied with a small frown.

“W-What?”

Arvina was taken aback.

“Look, I know Nux is your student, so there is a chance that you see him as a child, however, you have to understand that he is not a child.

He is mature enough to hold himself back.

What do you mean by ‘he would do something reckless?’

He is not stupid.

He knows how to control himself.

He just needs some time.

It is the first time he got rejected by the woman he loved, after all.”

Ember smiled a little.

“Y-You knew about it?”

Arvina questioned.

“Why do you think Skyla was calling you Sister?”

Ember questioned back.

Arvina then looked at Skyla, who just smiled foolishly.

“You all knew about it?”

Arvina couldn't believe it.

Felberta smiled,

“Well, he has been talking about you from the day he fought with that Candice girl.”

“That's when...”

“Yep, when you first met him.”

“He...”

“Well, it wasn't really love at first sight, unlike my case.”

Felberta first asserted her dominance as she placed her one leg on top of another and then, she continued,

“But yes, he did fall in love with you after spending some time with you.”

“...”

Arvina didn't know what to say.

“Oh, don't take it as if we are trying to convince you or something.”

Suddenly, Felberta spoke.

“Hmm? What do you mean?”

Arvina frowned.

“Mhm, I know Nux, he will respect your feelings, so you don’t have to change yourself because you are worried about him.

He will come back, don’t worry.”

Felberta explained.

“Mhm, he is a strong man, after all.”

Ember smiled. Then, she looked at Arvina and her smile widened,

‘Just make sure you are not trying to fool yourself.’

Of course, she didn’t say those words out loud.

Chapter 412

“Heeh? The First Prince is interesting indeed.”

Ember commented with a smile on her face.

“Heh, to be honest, if I had a father like the King, I would be the same.”

Edda spoke.

“Indeed, Indeed, that bastard is the worse.”

Allura nodded in agreement.

“Well, whatever the reason, in the end, it is good for us.”

Nux commented and the others nodded,

“We will be using the First Prince to our benefit, therefore, we will be changing our plans. Amaya already has a few plans in her mind, just give her some more time, she just needs to refine whatever she is thinking.”

“Tsk Tsk, I still don’t know what goes on inside that mind of hers.”

Ember shook her head.

“Heh, if it was that easy to find out, she wouldn’t be the one planning everything for us.”

Nux smiled.

“The Princess of Skadi is intelligent indeed. The Skadi must be regretting their decision right now.”

Ember laughed.

“I am than-”

Nux was about to answer, but suddenly,

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

A knock was heard.

Nux and the others used [Sense] and soon, Ember's, Felberta's and Allura's smiles widened as they glanced at Nux.

Nux glanced at them and shook his head in defeat.

Then, with a big sigh, he stood up and opened the door.

“Teacher Arvina, how are you?”

He smiled.

“Nux...”

Arvina called out.

“...”

Nux turned silent.

“...”

Arvina didn't know what to say either. However, she knew she had to break this silence, otherwise, this relationship of hers with her student would become awkward.

“W-Where did you go, yesterday? You didn't even show up for your training today.”

“Ah, well, I just recalled that I had to be somewhere else at that time, I had no choice but to leave and I just returned from that place.”

“I understand.”

Arvina nodded.

Nux nodded back.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Again, the two of them turned silent.

Ember, Felberta, and Allura were definitely enjoying whatever was happening in front of them.

It was their first time seeing Nux acting so awkwardly after all.

An interesting sight indeed.

“Ugghh, alright Teacher Arvina, listen here.”

Nux, who could practically feel their gazes on him couldn't take it anymore and spoke out loud.

“W-What is it?”

Arvina questioned.

“It's getting too awkward. I can't take this anymore.

Let's just act like yesterday never happened, alright?”

“That is a good idea.”

Arvina nodded.

“Mhm, just forget about everything. We are just like any other normal Student and Teacher.”

“Yes, that is correct.”

Arvina nodded again.

Nux's smile widened as he smiled,

“So, Teacher Arvina, what happened? Why are you here?”

“I am just here to check up on you. You know... about...”

“Ah, don't worry about it. I am fine now.”

Nux's smile widened.

“That is good.”

“Mhm,”

Nux nodded.

And then, he continued,

“Well, Teacher Arvina, I am talking about something important right now, so would you mind...”

“Ah, yes, alright. I will take my leave. I will talk to you later.”

Arvina quickly realized what Nux was talking about and nodded.

Then, she smiled at Nux's women and turned around.

“Thank you for understanding, Teacher Arvina.”

After Arvina left, Nux closed the door and sighed again.

“You know that you are not going back to normal, right?”

Ember questioned.

“Well, we can at least try.”

Nux replied.

“I just don’t want to stand in front of her and have all those awkward conversations about whether and whatnot.”

“You have not moved on yet, have you?”

Felberta questioned.

“Of course not.”

Nux shook his head.

“It is my first time facing a rejection, after all.”

Hearing those words, Ember couldn’t help but speak out loud.

“You do know that all is not over yet, don’t you?”

Nux narrowed his eyes.

“What do you mean?”

“There are chances that Arvina is not being honest with you and with herself. I mean, she is your teacher, it would be hard for her to believe that she is in love with you, just like Evane.

Her case, however, is even more complicated since she is a wife as well.”

“So you are saying that she might actually love me but is unable to accept me?”

Nux questioned.

“Yes.”

Ember nodded.

“And how are you sure that what you say is true, and Arvina really does not like me as someone who she can spend the rest of her life with?”

Nux questioned.

“Well... because it is you...?”

Evane answered back.

Nux looked at her with a blank look on his face,

“So you are not sure.”

“Well... I am... not...”

Ember replied.

“Ember, don’t complicate simple things, I liked Teacher Arvina, I proposed to her. She didn’t have the same feelings, so she turned me down.

It is just that simple.”

“Matters of the heart are never simple, Nux.”

Suddenly, Felberta spoke up.

“They actually are. It is we who try to complicate them. Just listen to your heart.

Didn’t you all do that same thing? Was it that hard? Cause in my case, my heart told me that I love you all, and I walked right in.

Didn’t you all do the same?”

“We did. My heart told me you are the one when you hugged me that day.”

Skyla nodded with a big smile on her face.

“See? It is just that simple.”

Nux nodded.

“ ... ”

Felberta turned silent.

“Not everyone can hear their hearts so easily.”

Ember spoke.

“Then what do you think I should do?”

Nux questioned.

“Why not try to confirm if she actually has feelings for you or not?”

Ember suggested.

Nux, however, shook his head.

“That would be harassment.

A no means no.

And Teacher Arvina has made her stand clear.

I have made a mistake before, I do not plan to repeat it again.”

Nux answered.

A loving smile appeared on Thyra’s face,

“You can repeat that mistake on me if you want.”

Thyra spoke as she bit her lower lip seductively while winking at Nux.

Nux chuckled.

“Why not talk to Amaya? I am sure she can come up with a better answer”

Suddenly, Felberta spoke.

“Hmm? Well, we can do that.”

Nux nodded.

Soon, Amaya joined the conversation, Ember then told her about the theory in her mind and asked what she thought.

Amaya’s answer was, however, well... Amaya’s answer...

‘Huh? Why should he do it? Aren’t there enough of you bitches around him already?’

Chapter 413

‘Huh? Why should he do it? Aren’t there enough of you bitches around him already?’

A typical Amaya answer.

‘Tsk Tsk, so selfish.’

Ember snorted.

Well, if it was anyone else other than Arvina, she would probably think the same way, however, she didn’t want to lose her friend again.

‘You know Nux likes her, don’t you?’

She questioned.

‘I do. However, if she doesn’t like him back, then just leave her alone.’

Amaya replied.

‘You know perfectly well that not liking Nux is... difficult.

Arvina likes him, she just doesn’t realize it.’

Ember spoke.

‘Alright, let’s say what you said is all true. Then what? If she doesn’t realize that she likes him, then that means that she doesn’t want to realize it.

The pressure from society, not breaking the ‘taboo’ and whatever is much more important to her than Nux.

Why should Nux go after a woman like her?

Didn’t he already tell her how he feels?

It's not like he is running away from here, is he?

If she loves him back, and that love is stronger than this stupid society pressure she is facing, then she would come to him.'

'...'

This time, Ember turned silent.

'I agree with Amaya.'

This time, Felberta sided with Amaya.

'Indeed, if a woman can't even understand her own feelings, then it is her fault.'

Thyra nodded as well.

'Mhm, taboos are nothing, didn't I and Evane break them? Our love is real.'

Allura looked at Nux with a loving smile on her face.

'Tsk'

Amaya snorted.

Then, she changed the topic,

'Alright, let's not talk about this useless stuff anymore.

The King and his men are close to finding out the truth.'

Amaya muttered.

'Hmm?'

This gained everyone's attention and soon, everyone forgot about Arvina.

...

“Your Majesty,”

Keeve kneeled.

“You are back.”

Ricardus spoke.

“Yes, Your Majesty.”

“So? Did you find anything?” The King questioned.

“Yes, I did.”

Keeve nodded.

A smile appeared on The King’s face.

“Finally some good news.”

“I would not say so, Your Majesty.”

Keeve, however, didn’t allow him to stay happy for a long time.

“What happened?”

The King narrowed his eyes.

“The Solid Earth Kingdom just attacked the Deathspike Fort and... the War ended in just 10 minutes.”

“WHAT!?”

The King and the Ministers who were hearing the report shouted in disbelief.

“Yes. The General of the Woods Army barely ran away, however, he is in critical condition. From what I have heard, he won’t be back to normal for the next 5-10 years.”

“...how did this happen?”

The King questioned with a solemn look on his face.

“There were 3 King Stage Cultivators on the Solid Earth Kingdom’s side.”

“What? How is that possible? Did the Dukes join the war?”

“All the Generals had covered their faces with masks, so no one knew their identity.”

Keeve reported and then, he spoke his thoughts.

“I do not think they were the Dukes.”

“Then who were they?”

The King questioned.

“I do not know, however, if they were the Dukes, I don’t think they would cover their faces like that. Just think of those old geezers, do you really think those greedy bastards would cover their faces when they are fighting the War for the Kingdom?”

Hearing those words, the King nodded.

“Yes, those geezers would make sure the entire world knows that they are participating in the War.”

“...”

Hearing these words, the Ministers turned silent and averted their eyes.

They knew better than anyone that whatever the King and Keeve were talking about was true. However, they did not like the fact that Keeve, a mere servant was using words like Bastards for their Protectors.

Of course, they wouldn’t show their opposition directly.

Servant or not, Keeve was a King Stage Cultivator.

He is at a stage where even though he is just a commoner, nobles would still have to bow their heads in front of him.

“I don’t get it, why is the Woods Dynasty losing this war bad for us?”

One of the ministers questioned.

“I was coming to that.”

Keeve nodded and then, he started explaining.

“First, these 3 Mysterious King Stage Cultivators, we don’t have any idea who they are. Well, they could be Part of the Kingdom’s private forces, so that’s not the problem.

The real problem is the Woods Dynasty.”

“Why is that?”

The King questioned.

“When I arrived there, they treated me well and answered all of my questions in detail. They even told me about how they will react in this bad situation and their next plans.

However, when I talked about General Ember...

The Dynast turned silent and tried to avoid the topic.

He was... strangely silent about this matter.

Not only that, he even order a few of his men to keep an eye on me after I asked this question.”

“...”

The King and the Minsters frowned.

“He is hiding something.”

A minister spoke.

“Of course he is. But the question is, what?”

“Why did General Ember give up on her position?”

The Ministers started discussing, however, before they could delve deeper, Keeve interrupted.

“Well, you do not have to worry. I heard that the Deputy Generals of the Woods Army were especially close to General Ember, if the Dynast is indeed hiding something, then I think they would know about it.

Although I couldn't meet them on my own since there were too many eyes on me, I sent one of my men to them.

He should come back with the answers soon enough.”

“As I expected of you, Keeve.”

The King nodded in satisfaction.

The Ministers, however, didn't agree,

“And why would the Loyal Subordinates disclose their Master's secrets to your men?”

“Heh, because we would bring justice to the dead General Ember.”

Keeve smiled.

Hearing those words, the King and the Ministers smiled wickedly.

“We would indeed.”

The King muttered then, he turned towards Keeve and nodded,

“You did a good job, Keeve.

You can go rest now.”

“As you command, Your Majesty.”

Chapter 414

“What did the Marquee Feldrik say?”

A man with black hair, green eyes, a thin nose, and a well-structured face was sitting on a lavish chair with a calm expression. He wore a White colored coat, with a golden-colored design and had an imposing aura.

He was Duke Thronton Fulvianus. The Strongest of all four Dukes, a great and overbearing leader, and the Duke who supports the First Prince.

“He agreed.”

In front of him, stood his butler, the man he trusted the most out of all his servants.

“That is good.”

The Duke smiled.

The Marquee’s response was well within his plans, this placed a smile on his face.

The Duke preferred things to be under his control and to achieve that, he has sometimes taken extreme steps.

“What abou-”

The Duke wanted to ask about something else, however, suddenly, the doors of his room opened and a man walked in.

“Ho-”

The Butler was about the shout at the man who had just entered the Duke’s room so rudely, however, before he could even say a word, his eyes fell on the man who just entered.

“Smith, leave.”

The man who just entered ordered.

The Buttlar, however, didn't dare to raise his voice at him.

He just bowed his head and turned his head towards the Duke. The Duke nodded, Smith, the butler nodded back, and then, he answered,

“As you say, Prince Raguel.”

Smith then stood up and left the room.

“Grandfather, you need to know this.”

As soon as Smith left, Raguel turned towards his Grandfather, Duke Fulvanus, and spoke.

Hearing his hurried and tensed voice, the Duke frowned.

“What happened?”

“I talked with Amaya.”

“Amaya? That Cursed Consort?”

Duke Fulvanus guessed.

“Yes, I talked to her.”

The Prince nodded.

“Why were you talking to that bitch?”

An annoyed look appeared on the Duke's face.

From his reaction, it was clear that he didn't have a good relationship with Amaya.

And that was true.

The Duke didn't like the Cursed Consort at all.

He had talked to her before, actually, he wanted to help her expand the Thousand Information Chamber, however, the woman rejected it.

He even offered to invest more money into the Chamber, however, he didn't even realize when the woman changed the topic and talked about an entirely different subject.

In the end, he had to leave that room with a disappointed look on his face.

He couldn't believe that the woman managed to manipulate him into talking about useless stuff and he only realized it after the meeting ended.

Thornton gets embarrassed every time he thinks about that day.

Amaya Skyfall was a woman who even he could not have control over and since he couldn't control that woman, he hated her.

Amaya, on the other hand, didn't even know that a Duke hates her so much, of course, she didn't care about it either. For her, it was just a normal, everyday meeting.

“Have you heard about the rumors?”

The First Prince questioned.

“About the Third Prince?”

The Duke questioned.

“Yes, about him becoming the Crown Prince.”

“I have heard about it. However, these are just baseless rumors, I believe it is just their pathetic attempt to turn the situation in their favor.

They were the ones who spread the rumors, that is the reason why they spread so quickly.

Don't worry, baseless rumors like these do not remain for a long time. I think these rumors would disappear within a week or so."

The Duke just shrugged it off.

"Amaya has different thoughts about these matters."

Raguel replied.

"..."

The Duke turned silent.

If it was any other time, he would have just slammed the table in front of him and shouted,

'You think she is better than me!? If I said don't worry then don't worry. Her thoughts don't matter.

She is not always right!'

However, this time, he didn't say those words.

Too much was at stake here.

Deep down, he knew that Amaya won't say anything without a proper reason. If she said something, the chances of it being correct are very high.

Therefore,

"What did she say?"

The Duke questioned.

"Well, she didn't really clarify, however, she said my chances of becoming the King aren't very high."

The First Prince answered.

“Why did she say that?”

The Duke frowned.

“Does that mean that the King is actually thinking about making Lovis the Crown Prince?”

He questioned.

“She said that it doesn’t matter what the King thinks.”

“Huh? Is she out of her mind? Is the curse getting over her head? Is it affecting her?”

Heh. Can’t say that the bitch didn’t deserve it.”

A wicked smile appeared on the Duke’s face.

“She said that I need to look into Duke Merula and Duke Vestalis. She was hinting that the two of them were collaborating with each other.”

Raguel replied.

“Huh? Two Dukes collaborating? Don’t be ridiculous!

Also, there is nothing to ‘look into’, I have already planted my spies in their Mansions, and nothing is happening between the two of them.

Don’t worry.”

The Duke snorted.

This time, however, Raguel wasn’t silent.

“Grandfather, I need you to look into the Two Dukes, more thoroughly.”

“I told you, I ha-”

“Grandpa, the stakes are high. Don’t take unnecessary risks just because of your ego.

It is Consort Amaya we are talking about. You know perfectly well what kind of woman she is.

And about her Curse affecting her head, trust me, I had a talk with her, and there is nothing wrong with her.

She is as scary as the mother told her, even scarier maybe.

Actually, she looks so sharp that for a moment, I thought that this ‘Curse’ is all a façade.”

Hearing those words, the Duke turned silent.

After thinking about it a little, he realized that his Grandson was right.

He shouldn’t take unnecessary risks.

“Alright, I will look into it.”

“Mhm.”

The Prince nodded.

“But I still don’t understand, why is that Cursed Bitch helping you?”

The Prince shook his head and joked,

“I don’t know,

Maybe she likes me?”

Chapter 415

“Teacher Evane!”

A student exclaimed in excitement.

“I can’t believe it! You have become an Expert Stage Cultivator!”

Another student exclaimed.

“What’s not to believe? Wasn’t it clear from the start? Teacher Evane, I knew that you were different from normal cultivators. Becoming an Expert Stage Cultivator was only a matter of time.”

“Indeed, Indeed, I knew that as well.”

“Mhm Mhm.”

More and more students nodded in agreement.

Evane, who was hearing all their comments couldn’t help but smile.

“But Teacher Evane, are you really leaving?”

A female student stepped forward and questioned.

“Yes, I am.”

Evane nodded with a smile on her face.

“I wanted to leave earlier, however, I then realized that I couldn’t leave without saying a proper farewell, so well, here I am.”

“Is it really that important? Why not stay here in the Academy, you are the best teacher we have.”

A student tried to convince Evane, however, she had already made up her mind.

“No, I have to leave.”

“Where are you going? Are you going back to the Royal Palace?”

Another student questioned.

“You will know that very soon.”

Evane didn't answer clearly.

“Then wha-”

“Alright Students, I know all of you are curious, however, Teacher Evane can't answer all your questions like that.

There are certain reasons why she has to leave our Academy, it is unfortunate, however, I believe that rather than being sad about it, we should send Teacher Evane with smiles on our faces and wish her the best of luck for her future.

Can you all that?”

A bald man stepped forward.

‘Eliyard, I didn't know that you were so good with this stuff.’

Nux praised.

‘I have been doing this for many years now, Master.’

Eliyard answered respectfully.

Again, all the weight around his words disappeared the moment he talked to Nux.

‘Good, Good, continue.’

Nux nodded and didn't waste much time.

Today, he was not the main character.

Evane was.

He would just stand among the students, silently.

“”””Yes we can, Headmaster.””””

The Students nodded collectively. Right now, they were all inside the Academy's Auditorium. Evane has been a Teacher in this Academy for 34 years now, and the number of students she taught was not fixed to just 20 students in Nux's class.

The number was in the 100s.

Students from her other class and the students she taught years ago, all of them have come here to bid her goodbyes. Some of the students weren't even taught by her, but they were still here.

Teacher Evane was just that popular in the Academy.

“Good,”

Eliyard smiled amiably.

Then, he turned towards Evane and spoke,

“Alright, now rather than asking her questions, let us call Teacher Evane here so that she can say her farewells to us properly.”

Evane stood up from her chair and walked forward.

“Good morning to you all...”

Then, she started her farewell speech.

The Event continued, some students then stepped forward and praised their teacher, Evane then distributed some sweets to all the students here, and then, after bidding her final farewells, she walked out of the Auditorium.

Tears threatened to come out of her eyes, however, she didn't cry.

She held those tears back.

'You are too weak, I am not talking about your cultivation, but your mind. You are too kind, Evane, your heart is too pure.

You need to change that, you need to learn how to control your emotions.

The Place you are going is a place where people who you think are closest to you would stab you with a knife the moment they get the chance to.

You can't show your emotions there like you do now.

You need to change.

This will be heart, however, I know you can do it.

You can do anything for Nux, can you not?

I will be there to help you, but in the end, it all depends on you.'

These were the words Amaya said to her personally before she left for the Palace.

And she, as a Princess who was born in that place knew that these words were true. She had realized that the Royal Palace was not a suitable place for her.

That was why she joined the Academy in the first place.

However, now, she had to return.

And this time, she would need to jump into the very marsh she has been avoiding for such a long time now.

Funny how fate works really.

Of course, Evane was not against any of it.

She had a goal in her mind.

She wanted to help Nux.

Isn't it just simple politics? Well, she had the master of this game right by her side.

Bring it on, she was ready.

And to show that she was ready, she would start by not crying on this simple farewell.

“Evane.”

While Evane was thinking all of this, someone called her.

She finally came out of her reverie and turned towards the voice.

“Teacher Arvina.”

She called.

Arvina smiled.

“So you really are leaving huh.”

“Yes, I am.”

Evane smiled.

“Do you really want to? No one would force you if you don't.”

Arvina wanted to confirm.

Evane chuckled.

Nux has said these exact same words many many times now, however, every time he said those words, her answer has remained the same.

“I am stronger than you think.”

Hearing those words, Arvina couldn't help but smile.

“I know. You do not have to tell me. You are strong. Very strong.

Much stronger than me.”

Suddenly, Evane frowned.

Something was wrong.

She could feel it.

Arvina's words sounded a little... different.

“Teacher Arvina, is something wrong?”

Evane questioned.

She has just returned from her Grandfather's house, therefore, she didn't know about what happened between Arvina and Nux.

Nux wanted to fill her in, however, he realized Evane was already dealing with a lot since she would be going back to that place, therefore, he decided to let her enjoy her moment and didn't say anything.

He was planning to tell her everything later, however, he didn't expect Arvina to appear in front of Evane like that.

“Evane...”

Arvina called.

“What is it, Teacher Arvina?”

“Can I talk to you about something?”

Arvina requested.

Chapter 416

“So, how have you been?”

Arvina questioned with a small smile on her face.

“Fine, no, more than fine actually, I am doing better than I ever have.”

Evane answered with a bright smile on her face.

Mind you, Evane was a Princess, fooling her was definitely not easy.

She had noticed that Arvina was not acting like her usual self. She was... well, it was as if she was trying to hide something.

However, Evane didn't have a solid proof of that, also, she trusted that Arvina was not going to hurt her.

That's why, she decided to play this little game of hers.

It can actually act as a practice session before she actually plays these games with every other person she meets in the Royal Palace.

“So? Why leave so suddenly? Did someone say anything to you?”

Arvina questioned.

Evane looked at her and smiled,

“Do you really think someone has the galls to say anything to the Princess of the Skyfall Kingdom?”

A surprised look appeared on Arvina's face.

This was the first time Evane talked about her status in front of her.

Evane however, didn't care about what she was thinking and just continued to smile.

'You dare to against the Princess of the Skyfall Kingdom?'

'Do you think you can say those words in front of the father, the King? How do you think he would react if he finds out?'

'Are you threatening me? The Princess? You sure are brave, aren't you?'

'Think about the consequences before you do anything.'

'Name your Price.'

These were the few sentences Amaya has taught her. She needs to learn a lot of things, changing the topic, finding out small details, knowing whether someone is lying or not, intimidating the target, planting self-doubt or any other feeling in anyone's mind,

She needed to learn all these things, it was not a fast process, but these sentences would help a lot.

Therefore, like the good student she was, Evane was using these sentences and noting her target's reactions to them.

This time, her aim was to change the topic.

However, these amateurish moves wouldn't really work in front of a woman like Arvina.

"It is because of Nux, isn't it?"

Arvina questioned directly.

"Hmm? What do you mean?"

Evane acted confused.

However, Arvina wasn't going to let her go that easily,

“You are going back to Royal Palace and you are going there because of Nux, aren't you?”

She directly jumped onto the topic, something that would rarely happen in the Royal Palace.

Evane didn't know how to answer that, therefore,

“Think about the consequences before you do anything.”

She directly repeated one of the sentences Amaya told her to speak.

“What...?”

Arvina tilted her head in confusion.

“...”

Evane, however, didn't say anything and continued to look at Arvina with a serious look on her face.

A serious look appeared on Arvina's face and she nodded,

“Don't worry, I am prepared for anything.”

“...”

This time, Evane was actually confused.

What the hell was she talking about? What is she prepared for? Is that some sort of signal? Hmm?

Seeing that she wasn't replying, Arvina decided to move further.

“I know about you and Nux already.”

This time, Evane's eyes widened in surprise.

“You do?”

“Yes, he told me about it.

Don’t forget, I am his teacher, he shares everything with me.”

Hearing that, Evane just shook her head,

“Trust me, he does not share everything with you.

You are missing out on the best part.”

The Skyla inside Evane woke up.

“Huh?”

Arvina frowned.

“Ah, don’t worry about it. I just... spew some nonsense from time to time.”

Evane shook her head and then, she changed the topic.

“And yes, you are right, I am going back because of Nux. He has a certain plan in his mind and according to that plan, I need to enter the Royal Palace.”

“A plan?”

Arvina frowned.

“Yes, but before you ask me any further questions, let me tell you that I will not tell you anything, my lips are sealed.”

Arvina looked at Evane’s serious face and understood that she wasn’t joking at all.

“But you told me that you were going back on your own accord?”

Arvina questioned with a frown.

“Of course, I am.”

Evane nodded.

“Your two statements don’t match up.”

Arvina commented.

“It does, for Nux’s plan, I need to be in the Royal Palace, and since I want him to succeed, I will go to the Royal Palace. What’s the problem?”

“You are going there because Nux wants you to, not on your own accord.”

Arvina answered.

“Didn’t you say Nux is your student? You have been with him for so long, do you really think he will force his wife to do something she doesn’t want to?”

“...”

This time, Arvina turned silent.

“He did not force me, I am going there on my own accord.

I want to help him.”

Evane spoke with a beautiful smile on her face.

“...you really love him a lot, don’t you?”

Arvina commented.

“Of course I do.”

Evane nodded without a second of hesitation.

“Don’t you... feel a little strange?”

Arvina finally asked what she wanted to ask.

“What do you mean?”

Evane tilted her head in confusion.

“I mean, he was your student just a few days ago... don't you think find it strange that he is now... your husband?”

Arvina questioned.

A small chuckle escaped Evane's mouth and then she nodded.

“It does feel a bit strange.

To be in a relationship with your own student, feels like I am doing something wrong.”

“ ... ”

Arvina turned silent.

This is exactly what she was going through after Nux proposed to her.

She just couldn't imagine herself with a student she was teaching.

“However,”

But, Evane was not done yet.

“When I compare this strange feeling and the desire in my heart.

Desire wins by a big margin.”

“Desire?”

Arvina frowned.

“Desire for Nux of course.

My heart desired him, this strange feeling did stop me at first, however, in the end, I decided to take a single bold step, and now,

I am proud of my past brave self.

I truly believe that it is all about that one brave step.”

Chapter 417

“Duke Fulvianus, there is a problem.”

Smith, the Butler of the Duke, Thornton Fulvianus spoke with a solemn look on his face.

“What is it?”

The Duke questioned.

“It is about what the First Prince said.”

Smith answered and Thornton’s face turned solemn.

“Is it about Duke Merula and Duke Vestalis?”

He questioned.

“Yes.”

The butler nodded his head.

“What is it?”

“After our investigation, we noticed that there are indeed some secret letters that have been exchanged between the Dukes.

The two of them are definitely communicating with each other, and they are doing it very secretly.”

“ ... ”

Hearing these words, Thornton narrowed his eyes.

He was the Strongest of the 4 Dukes, however, in reality, this didn’t really mean anything. He may be strongest when it comes to one on one fights, however, this didn't mean that the Fulvianus Duke House was the strongest compared to all.

The real power of the Duke's House depended on their Protectors.

The King Stage Experts who were protecting their house in secret.

Just like Emperor Stage Cultivator behind the Kingdoms, these Protectors didn't show themselves either. Therefore, not much is known about them and since the strongest of the Duke Houses were a mystery, nobody knew which Duke house was the strongest.

Not even the Duke Houses themselves.

All the Duke Houses were wary of each other and all of them are presumed to be on the same level.

Therefore, when Duke Merula and Duke Vestalis decided to stay silent about their secret communication, nobody was able to find anything, however, the moment Duke Fulvianus tried searching with the certainty that the two parties were communicating,

He was able to find the Truth.

“Did you find out the content of these letters?” Thornton questioned.

The Butler, however, shook his head.

“I did not, they were very secretive about it. The letters were probably burned the moment they were delivered and read.”

Thornton turned silent.

This was not good.

Two Dukes communicating with each other.

This was definitely not a piece of good news for him.

Thoughts similar to his Grandson started appearing in his mind.

‘This is not good at all.’

With a tense look on his face, the Duke started thinking.

“ ... ”

The Butler didn’t say anything either.

He knew better than anyone that disturbing his Master while he was thinking wouldn’t lead to a great ending.

He just stood there, with his head bowed, and ears perked up, ready to answer whenever the Duke sought his assistant.

He was a loyal butler indeed.

More and more time passed, and the Duke didn’t say anything and had already closed his eyes, he was thinking about all the possibilities and the worst-case scenario, however, in the end, he opened his eyes and shook his head.

“No, this can’t be.”

“Hmm?”

The Butler frowned.

The Duke then explained,

“We are taking this too seriously. The Two Dukes are talking to each other in secret, that conversation could be about anything.

We should not assume anything without knowing the content of the letters.”

“But those letters are probably in cinders now, and even if they do exist somewhere, I highly doubt that we would be able to find them very quickly.

This time, the Targets are Dukes, we would need months just to get a small lead and we wouldn't even know if that lead would actually be a lead or just a trap set by our opponents."

The Butler spoke.

"Heh, this is why I am the Duke and you, smith, are just a butler."

Thornton snorted.

Smith frowned in confusion.

Seeing his expression, Thornton just smiled, and then, he started explaining.

"You are correct, the letters have probably turned into ashes now and even if they are not, we definitely don't have enough time to find where they are."

Hearing these words, the Butler frowned even more.

Why was the Duke repeating the words he already said?

What happened?

He wondered in his head.

And as if knowing what was going on inside his mind, the Duke's smile widened,

"However, who said that we need to find the letters to know about the contents of the letters?"

"Are you saying that we need to capture the servants who read the letters?"

The Butler finally realized.

They couldn't possibly capture a Duke, however, capturing a servant should not be very hard.

The Duke, however, shook his head.

“There is no way those bastards would allow any servants to read those letters.”

“Then what should we do?”

The Butler questioned.

“Did those two geezers realize that you were looking into them?”

The Duke questioned back.

“If they look into it, they would find out, however, I don’t think they know about it right now.”

The Butler shook his head.

“This is good enough.”

The Duke smiled and then, he ordered.

“Write a letter to Duke Vestalis.”

As soon as he said those words, a paper, and a pen appeared in the Butler’s hands.

No matter how confused he was, once the Duke orders anything, he must ensure that he doesn’t let him wait for more than it is needed, otherwise, he is a failure as a butler.

The Duke nodded and then, he cleared his throat before starting,

“To Duke Leofric Vestalis,

I do not wish to waste your and my precious time in small, meaningless talks, therefore, I would directly come to the topic.

As you already know, the King would soon elect the Crown Prince and this Game of Thrones is about to see its conclusion. However, even when we have come this far, you, one of the main players in this battle have not participated.

Honestly, it is surprising to see that a smart man like yourself will not benefit from this Game.

However, worry not, as I have a way with which you can benefit from this battle as well.

An Alliance.

An Alliance between you and me.

The terms are simple, you place your support on my Grandson, Raguel Skyfall, and in return, when Raguel becomes the King,

Your House will receive direct benefits.

As an expression of my goodwill, I am sending 10,000 gold coins along with this letter, and not only that, once we come into an alliance, the Gold Mine you always wanted will be yours as well.

I hope you make a wise choice.

Duke Thornton Fulvianus”

Chapter 418

“Haah...”

A tired sigh escaped Raguel’s mouth as he burned the letter he was reading.

“So Duke Merula and Duke Vestalis were exchanging letters...”

Grandfather, I know you are right, this is a serious problem and I have to come and meet you, however...

I really cannot visit you right now as I...”

The First Prince sighed as he observed the letter turning into ash in front of him.

Once the letter was completely turned into ash, the First Prince waved his hand, a gust of wind was generated and all the ash disappeared.

The Prince then walked in front of a mirror and started fixing his hair and then fixed the coat he was wearing.

Looking at himself for the last time, Raguel nodded to himself, and then, he walked out of his room.

“I have my own share of troubles to deal with...”

After another sigh escaped his mouth, a noble, charming smile appeared on his face and he walked towards the entrance of the Royal Hall where an old member would return after, many many years.

The prince stood amongst the crowd of people who were waiting for his Sister, the Second Princess and he did what others were doing.

Wait.

10 minutes later, an extremely beautiful woman with a gentle face walked in, her green eyes shined in delight, while the black gown she was wearing enhanced her beauty to a ridiculous degree.

The Woman was being followed by 2 butlers and 8 soldiers who stopped the moment the Woman entered the Hall, they were not allowed to go any further.

The woman continued to walk forward and soon, she was standing near the throne, where a black-haired man was seated with a smile on his face.

“Father, the King.”

The Woman bowed elegantly.

Placing a silly smile on many men’s faces.

She was indeed a beauty.

“I am glad that you finally decided to return to where you belong, Evane.”

Ricardus, The King of Skyfall Kingdom spoke with a smile on his face.

“I am glad that I am back as well, Father.”

Evane smiled.

The King’s smile widened and he then picked up the Glass of wine that was served to him.

Raising that Glass in the air, he announced,

“The Second Princess, Evane Skyfall is finally back.

For the Second Princess’s return.”

“””For the Second Princess’s return.””””

The people inside the room raised their wine glasses as well and cheered.

The King then took the first sip, the others followed, and soon, the music started.

A few minutes later, the King left, and then, the real party started.

Evane picked up the Glass of Wine as well, and then, she took a deep breath.

‘Everything starts now.’

And as if they read her mind, more and more people started walking towards her.

“Princess Evane, welcome back.”

“I am glad to be back.”

Evane smiled.

“Princess Evane, I missed your presence.”

“Princess Evane, how was your stay in the Royal Academy, did you learn anything?”

“Princess Evane, did anyone bully you while you were there?”

“Yes, Princess Evane, if anyone did, you can tell me, and I will make sure to deal with that person.”

Evane could feel it.

These stupid games had already started.

No one here meant what they say, no one here actually cared about her, they only cared about one thing.

Why is the Princess back? Is she planning to participate in the Battle Of Thrones? Is there any way they can benefit from this?

These were the only things they cared about.

Of course, Evane was already prepared for it. She knew this was how things worked here, therefore, she wasn't very affected by it.

She observed these people with a smile on her face and just nodded or answered their questions with one simple sentence.

However, she couldn't do this forever,

“Sister.”

A Blonde, attractive man with brown eyes walked towards her and called out.

Seeing this man, a small smile appeared on Evane's face.

“Hello, Little Brother.”

Yes, this man was Evane's little brother, the Third Prince, Lovis Skyfall. The renowned Genius of the Royal Family with a High-Level affinity with Earth Element.

“I am glad that you are here, Sister, things were getting rather boring without you here. You know, I wasn't facing any decent challenge.”

Lovis glanced at Raguel and chuckled.

Evane's eyes momentarily fell on Raguel and she chuckled.

“You have grown well, Lovis. You seem much more confident than before.”

Evane smiled.

“Well, things are going rather well for me. I can't help but be a bit confident.”

Lovis smiled.

“I see, I see.”

Evane’s smile widened as she glanced at Raguel again.

Raguel, who was looking at Lovis and Evane from afar narrowed his eyes.

He had his doubts before, but now, he was sure.

Something was definitely going on between these two.

Duke Vestalis, the man supporting Evane, and Duke Merula, the man supporting Lovis, these two are talking to each other secretly, and now, Evane and Lovis, these two are acting all friendly with each other, he would be a fool to not realize it.

These two were definitely collaborating.

Amaya was right, Duke Vestalis would soon support the Third Prince, and once that happens, the King will be forced to choose the Third Prince and he would be left behind.

However, Raguel still didn’t know why Duke Vestalis would do something like this.

Just what does he stand to gain from this?

Money?

Would a Duke do all of this for money?

He wasn’t sure.

“Sister.”

Suddenly, another man called Evane out.

“Ah, Forth Brother, how are you?”

Evane questioned with a smile on her face.

“I am fine, how about you? How are you?”

The Forth Prince smiled.

The Forth Prince, Lucas Skyfall, had green-colored hairs, and an above-average face, he was only 3 years younger than the Third Prince, however, he was still a Master Stage Cultivator.

In reality, he stood no chance of winning this Battle of Throne, however, since he had a Duke supporting him, he was still fighting this battle.

His Green eyes had a tinge of red on the edges and they looked heavy, it was as if he was tired and would fall asleep any moment.

“I am fin-”

Evane wanted to answer, however, suddenly, she stopped and narrowed her eyes.

Chapter 419

“I am fin-”

Evane wanted to answer, however, suddenly, she stopped and narrowed her eyes.

“Fourth Brother... are you drunk?”

It may have been hidden with so many perfumes the man sprayed on himself, however, the moment he opened his mouth to talk, Evane caught that smell and frowned.

The people around her frowned as well, however, soon, their faces went back to normal.

Not here, this was not the time to act like that. Especially against someone who might have a shot at becoming the King of the Kingdom, no matter how small the chances were.

Also, they weren't really surprised by this anyway.

This wasn't the first time something like this has happened.

The Fourth Prince was a well-known drunkard.

The Black Sheep of the Royal Family.

Evane knew about that, however, she didn't expect her brother to come here like that. From what she remembers, her little brother knew how to hold himself back.

Well, he did when she left this place.

Actually, other than the First Prince, her relationship with her other brothers was not that bad, especially her Fourth Brother, since he was the youngest, she liked him a lot and spent a lot of time with him.

Unlike her Third Brother, who only cared about Cultivation, the Fourth was different, he actually liked to have fun. Therefore, the two of them were very close.

However, as Lucas grew up, Evane got busy with her own stuff and failed to spend much time with him. He then found new friends, the friends Evane didn't like at all. However, little Lucas didn't listen to his sister and started spending more and more time with his new friends.

The Distance between the two of them started growing.

And before she knew it, the 14-year-old Lucas had already started drinking and abusing women.

This was also another reason why Evane decided to leave the Royal Palace.

Everyone here was so busy thinking about themselves. The First Prince didn't talk to any of his brothers and sisters, the Third only cultivated, while the fourth, well, he was busy with his so-called friends.

In this place, no one cared about anyone but themselves.

“I was happy okay? Happy that you are coming back. So... I drank a little.”

“How much did you drink?”

“Only about 10 bottles.”

“...”

The entire place turned silent.

‘That’s a little!?’

Of course, nobody said anything.

“I can't believe this.”

Evane spoke and then chuckled dryly.

“And here I thought you would not drink today out of your respect for me. Guess I was a fool.”

“Oh C’mon!”

The Fourth Prince then shouted.

“Stop this Drama, will you? What respect are you talking about? Please don’t act so pure and saintly. I know why you are here.

You are here for the throne, are you not?”

“What?”

Evane frowned.

The others looked at her face with interested looks on their faces.

“What ‘What?’, just say the truth.

Why bother hiding? Everyone here knows that already.

I bet that you leaving this Palace was a stunt in the first place, right?”

“No. You are wrong.”

Evane shook her head.

“Oh? Then why are you here? Why did you return?”

“I...”

Evane didn’t answer.

According to the script, here was the part where she would say that she is not here for the Throne. However, for some odd reason, Evane couldn’t lie.

“What? Why don’t you answer? Wait, do you have some sort of plan in your mind? Something you can’t disclose to us right now?”

Then, Lucas’s smile widened,

“Wait wait wait wait, did I just expose your grand plan? Did I just crush your dreams of becoming the Queen of this Kingdom?”

Oh I apologize.

Hahahaha~”

Lucas laughed out loud and Evane... well she just stood there.

“Hahahaha~”

The Fourth Prince continued to laugh.

Clearly, he was drunk and was not in his right mind, therefore, a few men wearing skin-tight black clothes appeared and took the Fourth Prince with them.

“W-Were... were they from the Shadow Unit?”

Someone from the crowd muttered.

“The Shadow Unit? As in the King’s personnel Unit?”

“I-I think it was them.”

“No way...”

“Why is the Shadow Unit here?”

“Don’t you know? The King has been on edge since Consort Allura was attacked. It is natural that the level of security would be improved.”

“Yes, I suggest that you all do not act impulsively, Prince Lucas is a Prince, the Son of the King, so nothing would happen to him, however, the same can't be said for you guys.

If the Shadow Unit sets its eyes on you, then you wouldn't come out of it unharmed."

"Indeed. We all should be careful."

"Make sure not to get drunk."

The moment the Shadow Unit appeared, everyone's faces and plans changed.

The Shadow Unit was a feared Unit. Nobody except the King and people close to him knew much about it.

However, everyone knew one thing.

The Shadow Unit has the power to destroy any noble house if they wish to.

They were strong, and not someone to be trifled with.

Parties like these would come and go, there was no rush to execute their plans, and the intelligent ones decided to halt all their plans and continued to observe.

"Little Sister."

Finally, Raguel called.

Evane came out of her reverie and turned towards him.

"First Brother."

She smiled a little.

"Don't mind the Fourth Brother, he was clearly drunk. I am sure he didn't mean what he said."

"Yes, I know... he was drunk. I understand."

Evane nodded with a small smile on her face.

“Mhm. Also, it is great to have you back.”

The First Prince smiled.

Evane smiled back.

“Alright, I will take my leave now.

As the oldest brother, I need to have a little chat with the Fourth Brother. What he did today was very inappropriate, and I should talk to him about this.”

Saying that, Raguel turned around with a smile on his face.

‘Finally, Finally some good news.’

Chapter 420

“Tsk, that bastard, he just had to cause a ruckus there.”

Lovis, the Third Prince snorted in anger, soon, however, he controlled his emotions and turned towards his sister.

“Sister, don’t think too much about him, he is a gone case. You have a seat here, Leo, bring the Tea.”

“As you command, Third Prince.”

The Butler standing behind Lovis bowed his head and left the room.

Evane looked at her brother and sat on the chair he was pointing at.

Seeing that, Lovis smiled and sat in front of her.

“Haahh... after that annoying party is over, we can finally talk to each other freely.”

“You still don’t like all these parties, do you?”

“Hmph! A place where everyone keeps that disgustingly fake smile on their faces? Sorry, but I would never like something like that.”

Lovis snorted and then, he looked at Evane and smiled,

“I would rather stay in my room with my sister and drink tea peacefully while we two catch up.”

As he said those words, his butler, Leo, returned, behind him was a maid who was pushing a table that had snacks and tea on the top.

“Ah, the Tea is here.”

Lovis's smile brightened up.

Before the maid could move, he picked up the cup and placed it in front of Evane, then, he picked up the kettle and served the tea to his sister.

“Here.”

“You do not have to do that.”

Evane spoke.

“Ugghh... Sister not you as well.

Can't I serve my own sister?”

“It's not like that, but you are a pri-”

“Yes, Yes, I know I am a prince, however, along with the prince, I am your brother as well. Now just sit tight and let me serve you the tea.”

Saying that, Lovis continued to pour tea into Evane's cup and once he was done, he started pouring the tea into his own cup.

“C'mon, what are you waiting for, let's drink.”

Saying that, he picked up the cup and started drinking.

There was no sign of his previous mannered self that he showed while he was attending the party. Right now, Lovis looked more... free.

Seeing this, a reminiscing smile appeared on Evane's face.

This indeed felt good.

With a smile on her face, Evane drank the tea slowly and elegantly.

“Hmmm, this is strange.”

She muttered.

“What happened, Sister?”

Lovis frowned.

Evane then looked at Third Prince and smiled,

“Why are you not cultivating today?”

Hearing those words, Lovis scratched the back of his head embarrassingly.

“Oh C’mon, Sister, I know you are mad about me not meeting you and only focusing on Cultivation, but you should not tease me like that.

Do you really think I would not greet you after you returned to the Palace after so many years?”

“Well, I can definitely imagine you thinking,

‘So what if she is here? It is not like she is only here for 1 or 2 days, she is going to stay here from now on, I can meet her later, it is not a problem, reaching the Expert Stage is more important. Muahahaha”

“I do not laugh like that!”

Lovis complained.

“Hahaha~”

Evane laughed out loud. Then she extended her hands and pinched Lovis’s nose.

“You are still as cute as before.”

Lovis slapped her hand and pouted.

“I am not a child.”

“Oh don’t worry, even if all your hair turns white, you would still be a child in my eyes.”

Evane chuckled.

“I am not a child!”

Lovis snorted.

“Hahaha~”

Evane laughed out loud.

“Whatever.”

Lovis gave up and then, he questioned.

“So? How was the Academy? Did you enjoy teaching those noble children?”

“Well, I won’t say it was boring.”

Evane answered.

“Oh? What can possibly be so interesting there?”

Lovis questioned with an interested look on his face.

“Oh, there are many interesting things there, much more interesting than cultivation.”

Evane smiled.

“I doubt that.”

Lovis replied.

“Well, students all cultivate together and have fun.”

“That is just a waste of time. Cultivation requires focus and a calm mind.”

Lovis retorted.

“Well... not all types of cultivations require focus...”

Evane mumbled.

“What?”

Lovis couldn't hear properly.

“Ah, nothing. I was saying that we have a very good restaurant there.”

“Oh C'mon, we have the Best Chefs in the Kingdom working in our kitchen.”

Lovis answered and Evane sighed.

Seeing her like that, Lovis finally realized.

“Haah... now I see why you are back.”

“Hmm? Why?”

“The Academy sounds like a boring place. I would never spend my whole life there.”

“Well, it is still better than the Royal Palace, at least no one keeps up a façade there.”

Evane was quick to defend the Academy.

“Oh? Then why are you here?”

Lovis questioned with a curious smile on his face.

“That...”

Again, Evane didn't know how to answer that question.

Just like what happened at the party, she didn't know what she should do. She didn't want to lie to her brother, however, she couldn't say the truth either.

She was confused.

Seeing her acting like that, Lovis smiled,

“You are here for the throne, aren’t you?”

“Huh?”

Evane’s eyes widened in surprise.

“N-No, of cou- why wo-”

“Hahaha~ Just look at you, panicking like that. Don’t worry sister, I know you better than anyone. You don’t want the throne. I am sure you just missed us. That is why you are here, right?”

“R-R-Right.”

Evane nodded with a smile on her face.

“Mhm, I missed you a lot as well.”

Lovis nodded.

Evane nodded back and then, Lovis muttered,

“Though I will say, Sister, you came at a really bad time.”

“Hmm? What do you mean?”

Evane frowned.

“Well, according to the Rumors, the King will elect a Crown Prince soon and many think that you are here because you want the Crown for yourself.”

Lovis answered.

“Of course, I know you have no interest in the Throne, however, as your brother, I suggest you to be careful.

First Brother is...

Pretty desperate right now.”

Lovis muttered with a small smile on his face.

“What do you mean?”

Evane frowned.

“Nothing...”

Don’t worry, I will protect you.”

“Alright...”

Chapter 421

“Haah... things are not good at all...”

Raguel, the First Prince sighed as he walked into his Grandfather’s room. There, his eyes fell on Smith, his Grandfather’s Butler. He looked at the Butler and nodded.

The Butler looked back, then he glanced at The Duke, the Duke nodded, the Butler then bowed and left the room.

Once the Butler left, Raguel continued.

“Evane is back.”

“I heard that.”

The Duke replied with a Solemn look on his face.

“And things are bad.”

Raguel spoke.

“...”

The Duke didn’t say anything.

Raguel understood what his Grandfather wanted and continued his story.

“So she walked into the Palace today, and there, she met the Lovis and Lucas, Lucas acted just like he always does, like an idiotic drunkard.

That is not a problem.

Lovis, however, was different than normal.

First and most surprising was that he decided to take part in that Party. A cultivation maniac like him rarely shows up for any parties, of course, I know that the relationship between those two is good, however, I still don't think that Lovis would join a party for just that reason.

There must be something else.

Something other, hidden reason.

I was cautious, and then, I noticed, Evane and Lovis looked a lot closer than before.

Grandfather, with how close they looked, I believe there is a high chance that the two of them are collaborating with each other.

However, not everything is bad.

There is some good news as well.”

“What good news?”

The Duke questioned.

Raguel smiled and then, he continued.

“Well, we can be sure that Duke Vestalis is not going to side with Lovis.”

“Why is that?”

“If he wanted to side with Lovis, Evane wouldn't be back.”

Hearing those words, the Duke frowned.

“Hear me out, Grandfather.

Evane is back, however, she hasn't changed at all.

She still doesn't know how to control her emotions. Today, Lucas asked her if she was here for the Throne and Evane was unable to answer that question.”

“What does that mean?”

The Duke questioned.

“If Evane didn’t have any thoughts about the Throne in her mind, she would have said that without a second of hesitation, however, today, she didn’t answer.

This only means one thing, she wants the Throne.

And for that, she would need Duke Vestalis’s support. With this, we can be sure that Duke Vestalis is not planning to support Lovis.

We can say that we have avoided the worst-case scenario.

Evane and Lovis are collaborating, however, in the end, they are still aiming for the Throne and are each other’s enemies.”

The First Prince smiled.

The Duke, however, shook his head.

“I wouldn’t be too sure about that.”

“Huh?”

The Prince frowned.

The Duke’s ring then shined and soon, a letter appeared in his hand. He passed the letter to the Prince and the Prince frowned.

Skipping all the less important things, The Prince directly read the most important line,

“You think you can buy me with those pathetic gifts? Dream on. I would never give in to your stupid demands. Hmph! Even if I wanted something out of this, I would have contacted Duke Merula, not you.

Know your place!

Duke Leofric Vestalis.”

Raguel’s eyes widened in surprise when he read that letter.

“This was the letter sent to me by Duke Vestalis. With this, we can be sure that he plans to side with Lovis. He wouldn’t have mentioned Duke Merula’s name if he hadn’t thought of it already.”

“It can be a Trick to fool you.”

The First Prince narrowed his eyes.

“And what would he get after that? Look, with what you said, there is no way Evane has what it takes to be the Queen of the Kingdom. She is too naïve to be the King.

There is no way the King would choose someone like her as the next Ruler of the Skyfall Kingdom.

She is just like Lucas, not even in the competition.

The only people who are in this competition are you and Lovis.

Duke Vestalis knows that as well.

Therefore, I believe that he has already made his choice.

And this is the worst-case scenario for us. We can be sure of that.”

Duke Thronton spoke with a serious look on his face.

“ ... ”

Raguel turned silent.

“ ... ”

Duke Thornton didn't say anything either.

The situation was serious, the two of them could see the Crown slipping away from their grasp.

“What should I do?”

Raguel questioned.

“ ... ”

However, the Duke didn't have an answer to his question.

Even he was confused. He was thinking about all this for the whole day, however, he was still unable to com-

Suddenly, an idea popped up in the Duke's mind.

“What did you say about Lucas?”

“Hmmm? Lucas?”

Raguel frowned.

“Yes, him. What did he do again?”

“Well, nothing much, he just came to the party, drunk and created a little scene. Nothing abnormal, he is a hopeless drunkard after all.”

Hearing those words, a smile appeared on the Duke's face.

“What do you think the Fourth Prince desires?”

“Hmm?”

“Do you think he wishes to become the King?”

“Of course he does.”

Raguel nodded.

“Why do you think he wants to do that?”

The Duke questioned.

“Hmm?”

The First Prince tilted his head in confusion.

“I don’t know, maybe he just wants to live a carefree life and drink all day? I mean, I don’t think he has anything else in his mind other than alcohol and women.”

Duke’s smile then widened,

“And what if we promise him all that without any need to become the King?”

Hearing those words, Raguel paused.

“You mean...”

“It is time to make Lucas your best friend, Raguel.”

Duke Thornton smiled wickedly.

A similar smile appeared on Raguel’s face and nodded his head.

“I understand. I understand it all.”

The two of them smiled at each other and then, Raguel left.

He wanted to meet his new friend as soon as possible.

After all, there were a lot of things he wanted to talk about.

Chapter 422

“You look tired, brother.”

“Huh? How did you get it?”

Lucas, the Fourth Prince who was just sitting on his chair with a tired look on his face looked at Raguel with a surprised look on his face.

“Through the door, of course.”

Raguel answered with a small chuckle.

“But I ordered them not to let anyone in. Those bastards dared to go against my orders, I will make sure they wi-”

Lucas was about to stand up and confront those guards, however, before he could do so, he was stopped by Raguel’s chuckle.

“Oh C’mon, don’t blame them, brother. It is not their fault.

Do you really think they will have the galls to stop me, the First Prince from entering your room?”

Hearing those words, Lucas narrowed his eyes,

“How would you feel if I entered your room, unannounced?”

“Now don’t act so grumpy, we are brothers. Of course, you can enter my room whenever you want.”

Raguel, however, stayed calm and answered with a smile on his face.

“Oh? What happened? Why are you showing that ‘brotherly love’ now?”
Lucas raised his eyebrow.

Hearing those words, Raguel smiled, then he grabbed the bottle of Alcohol placed on Lucas's table and poured some for himself in a glass.

“Brother, please don't act like this is the first time I have shown my 'brotherly love' for you.”

He chuckled.

“It is the first time though. You haven't even talked to me for so long before today.”

Lucas was direct with his words.

Unlike normal members of the Royal Family, he didn't play complex games whenever he talked with anyone. He just talked normally, he said what he wanted to say and did whatever he wanted to do.

He never cared about what others thought about him.

And of course, as someone who has never really talked to him before, Raguel was having difficulties holding up the conversation.

With Lucas shutting him off every time he tried to talk to him, he didn't know how to continue, however, no matter what, he couldn't give up here.

It is pretty much confirmed that Duke Merula and Duke Vestalis are collaborating with each other, defeating the two of them alone would be nearly impossible. There is no way the King would choose him over Lovis, who has the support of Two Dukes.

Therefore, to remain in this battle, he needed Duke Centho on his side.

However, talking to the Duke directly wouldn't work. That old monster has many years of experience under his plate.

If he or his Grandfather talks to him, he would understand their motives in an instant, and soon, he would realize how bad their position actually is. Once that happens, there is no way the Duke wouldn't try to exploit their weakness and benefit from it. That is the most common and logical move. Even Duke Fulvianus would do that if he was in his position.

Therefore, talking to Duke Centho directly wouldn't work.

Targetting the gullible Lucas was a much safer option.

The Process is simple, just promise him a lavish life, full of booze and women and he would talk to the Duke himself.

It was just that simple,

Or that was how it should have been.

Lucas, however, was much colder than Raguel expected him to be.

“Is that true? Hahaha~ I apologize for that. I have been a bad brother.

However, now I am here to redeem my mistakes. Give me a chance, will you?”

Raguel smiled a little and extended the glass he was holding forward.

Lucas looked at him for a while and then,

*Clink*

He raised his own glass towards Raguel. Their glasses touched each other's, and Raguel's smile widened.

Finally, he was going somewhere, he kept the momentum and spoke,

“To our new and better relationship.”

Lucas nodded.

Seeing that, a smile appeared on Raguel's face.

He would see his grasp around the Throne getting stronger again.

However, suddenly, a smile appeared on Lucas's face.

Seeing that smile, Raguel frowned.

That smile... it wasn't a warm smile that should be appearing on his face right now... that... that was a...

Disdainful smile...

Wait, Disdainful?

Raguel's frown deepened.

"What happened, brother?"

He questioned.

Hearing that question, Lucas's smile widened,

"Nothing really, I am just wondering how more fake can you be."

"What? What are you talking about, brother?"

Raguel tried to keep his smile.

"Ugh, you can stop with the acting, 'Brother'. This makes me sick."

"What are you talking about?"

Raguel couldn't understand.

"You will be a better brother? You are looking forward to a better relationship between us? Don't make me laugh.

I know you well, First Brother.

Before this, you didn't even talk to me properly, I could tell from the look in your eyes that let alone 'loving me', you didn't even think of me as your blood brother.

I was and am nothing in your eyes. That will never change and I know that.

So why don't you stop this pathetic act of yours and directly spit what you want to spit out and then get the hell out?"

Lucas spat with a cold look on his face.

This time, his words were a lot harsher than they were when he was talking to Evane.

This time, he was sober.

Hearing those words and that tone, Raguel realized that coaxing him like that wouldn't work. He finally realized that his brother might be a lot smarter than he gives him the credit for.

However, in the end, he was still the First Prince, he quickly changed his approach and started,

"Alright, you are right and I agree, this act didn't suit me in the first place. I was way out of my comfort zone."

Saying that, Raguel placed the glass of alcohol he was holding on the table and wiped his hand with a handkerchief.

"Mhm, now that is much like you."

Lucas nodded with a smile and drank the whole glass in one gulp before refilling again.

"Alright, I will stop with all these unnecessary talks and will directly jump to the topic."

"Much appreciated."

Lucas shrugged.

Then, a solemn look appeared on Raguel's face and he questioned.

“Lucas Skyfall, do you actually believe you can become the King of the Skyfall Kingdom?”

Chapter 423

“Lucas Skyfall, do you actually believe you can become the King of the Skyfall Kingdom?”

Raguel questioned with a solemn look on his face.

Hearing that question, Lucas smiled and answered confidently.

“Of course I do.”

Raguel looked at him with a blank look on his face and continued to stare at him.

“What?”

Lucas frowned.

“Answer me honestly, do you actually believe you stand a chance in this Battle To Throne?”

Raguel questioned again.

“First Brother, do you have a hearing problem or something? Didn't you hear it the first time?”

I said Yes.

Yes, I believe I have what it takes to become the King of this Kingdom and I believe that I have a good shot at becoming one.”

Lucas answered.

Raguel's face twitched when he heard that answer.

This time, he decided to be blunt.

“A 59-year-old Prince of the Kingdom who knows nothing but to drink liquor and waste his time with different women. A Prince who never focused on Cultivation and barely managed to become a Master Stage Cultivator even after all this year.

A man who has no clue about military tactics has no political stand other than the fact that his Grandfather is a Duke, a man whose guards easily allow someone else to enter his room despite his clear orders against it,

Do you really think a man like you is fit to become a King when the ones you are competing with are me and Lovis?

I, a 124-year-old Expert Stage Cultivator, who is much more experienced when compared to his siblings, am currently the strongest of all the contenders, have the support of the Strongest Duke of the Kingdom, and have the most number of Nobles supporting him.

Then there is Lovis, a 62-year-old Grand Master Stage Cultivator who is aiming to become an Expert Stage Cultivator soon, a man who has dedicated his life to cultivation and has a solid foundation in the Palace.

Do you actually think you stand a chance?”

Raguel repeated his question again.

“Actually, I believe that even Evane, who is too naïve for all the throne and is not even in the competition is a better contender than you.

Trust me when I say it, little brother.

You cannot win.”

“ ... ”

Lucas turned silent.

“ ... ”

Raguel didn't say anything, he just continued to look at Lucas, making him more and more uncomfortable.

Lucas lowered his head and avoid eye contact in order to get out of this situation, however, the more time passed, the more uncomfortable he felt, in the end, he couldn't hold it anymore and questioned.

“Are you here to make fun of me?”

“No, I am not. On the contrary, I am here to help you.”

Hearing those words, Lucas frowned,

“Help me? Help me how? You are going to help me become the King?”

“...”

Raguel looked at Lucas with a lost expression on his face.

“Just why do you want to be the King so badly?”

He couldn't help but question.

“Huh? Don't act like you don't want to be the King.”

“I do, I want to become the King because I want to rule over everyone. I want the power to do anything I want, I want to push the Kingdom to new heights and I plan to unite the whole continent under my banner.

But what about you?

Why do you want to be the King?”

Raguel questioned with a curious look on his face.

“My intentions are not as grand as yours, I just want to become the King so that I can do whatever I want and however I want.

Once I become the King, people wouldn't have to barge into my room without knocking."

Lucas muttered as he glanced at Raguel and narrowed his head. Raguel chuckled a little and Lucas continued,

"Once I become the King, I can drink anything I want, I can sleep with any woman I want and no one would dare to say a word about it."

"Hmmm, that is quite a goal."

Raguel nodded.

"Huh?"

Hearing that, Lucas frowned.

"What happened?"

Raguel tilted his head in confusion.

"You don't think that my goal is... childish?"

"Hmm? Of course not. You want freedom, how is that childish?"

Raguel answered and a small smile appeared on Lucas's face.

Seeing that smile, Raguel smirked inwardly.

The Fish has taken the bait.

Now, it was time to slowly pull it out of the water and capture it.

"But what if I say that there is a better and a lot easier way to achieve this dream of yours?"

Raguel questioned.

"Hmm? What are you talking about?"

Lucas questioned back, clearly interested.

“Think with me.

The King’s brother, who is supported by the King, does whatever he wants, drinks whatever he wants, sleep with any woman he wants, and offends anyone he wants, however, since the King has his back, no one dares to go against him.

He is weak, however, his brother is the King, therefore, even the Strong were forced to bow their heads in front of him.

A man who only drinks and sleeps with women while other, much more competent people serve him.

How does that sound?”

Raguel questioned.

Lucas started imagining that lifestyle.

“Lucas, you have to understand, even if you become the King, you would not be able to achieve your dream, there would be many people who would still bother you, especially the other Kingdoms, if you become the King, you will definitely not achieve the freedom you desire so much.”

Raguel spoke and Lucas...

He started understanding what his brother was talking about.

“So what you are trying to say is...”

He spoke.

Seeing him like that, Raguel’s smile widened.

“Yes, this is what I am talking about.

How about you become that carefree King's brother who could do whatever he wants, while I, take the bigger responsibility and become the next King?

How about it?"

"So I only need to support you and once you become the King, you would let me do whatever I want?"

Lucas questioned with a silly smile on his face.

"Indeed Indeed."

Raguel nodded.

"Alright, I agree."

Lucas nodded without even thinking.

Raguel's smile widened.

"You have made a wise choice."

He wanted to comment, however, suddenly, again, a similar disdainful smile appeared on Lucas's face.

"If only it was that easy, right, brother?"

Chapter 424

“If only it was that easy, right, brother?”

Lucas questioned with a disdainful smirk on his face.

Seeing that look on his brother’s face, Raguel finally realized,

Lucas was making fun of him.

He had no plans to work with him from the beginning. He was deliberately saying what he wanted to hear because,

“Hahahaha~ My acting skills have improved a lot, wouldn’t you agree, brother?”

I must say, seeing how all the expectations just flushed out of your face when you realized the truth, Hahahaha~ It was so amusing.

Hahahaha~”

He was saying all that because he wanted to laugh at him.

Raguel realized and clenched his fist in anger.

The thing he hated the most was being made fun of, especially by someone far weaker than him.

All the ‘gentle’ look on his face faded away and his eyes burned in anger and loathing.

“You have gone too far, Lucas.”

He glared at Lucas and spoke in a hoarse voice.

Seeing that look in his eyes, Lucas exclaimed.

“Aha! There is it!”

Raguel furrowed his brows a little.

“There is that usual look on your face.

The look full of loathing and disdain towards me.

Brother, even a child could tell that your gentle look before was just a ruse. In truth, the only thing you feel towards me is disdain.

You want me to become the King’s brother who does nothing but is backed by his brother? Who is going to have my back? You?

You? A man who doesn’t even think of me as his brother.

Brother, you are the most selfish person I have met, you think I would rely on someone like you?

Heh. If I wanted to rely on anyone, I would choose Third Brother, he is harsh, however, at least he doesn’t keep on that fake gentle persona like you.

Also, I believe that he has a better chance of becoming the King than someone like you.

You are nothing but an arrogant fool.”

“What did you say?”

Raguel narrowed his eyes and walked towards Lucas with a threatening look on his face.

Lucas backed down a little, however, soon, he forced a smile on his face and replied,

“What? You think you can scare me?”

Hearing those words, Raguel smiled wickedly and moved his face closer to Lucas.

“Oh, I definitely can.”

Lucas’s face turned pale.

However, this time, he decided not to back down.

“Do you really think Lovis can become the King of this country?”

“Trust me, First Brother, if not me, then he is the one who will become the King, which I think would be a lot better than you becoming the King.

You want to unite the whole continent under your banner? Heh, You? A man who couldn’t even realize that a ‘drunkard’ was fooling him until the Drunkard hinted at it himself.

If someone like you becomes the King, then rather than making the Skyfall Kingdom the only existing Kingdom on this Continent, you would just make wipe the Skyfall Kingdom from this continent.

You will destroy our Kingdom.”

This time, Raguel failed to hold himself back and grabbed Lucas’s neck in rage.

“And you think you, a drunkard bastard like you can become a better King than me?”

Raguel spoke in a hoarse voice.

“Y-Yes, I can.

A King who does nothing b-but enjoys his life is definitely a better King than someone who overestimates himself.

At the very least, I won’t try to go after other Kingdoms and destroy ours in the process.”

Lucas answered.

“Oh yeah? Then what would you do once the other Kingdom comes after you?”

“Skyfall Kingdom is the strongest Kingdom, brother. No Kingdom would come after us no matter how useless the King is. You know that as well.”

Raguel didn't say anything for a while.

He knew Lucas was right.

The current Skyfall Kingdom was very stable, they had the highest number of King Stage Experts, the highest number of soldiers in their army, strong trading networks, and many more.

Even if the King turns out to be a useless one, the Kingdom would still stand strong.

However, knowing was one thing, admitting was another.

Raguel would never admit that Lucas was right, therefore, he tightened his grip around Lucas's neck and narrowed his eyes.

“You are speaking too much. Do you want to die that badly?”

“Haah... Haahh... Haahh...”

Lucas started struggling even more, he was having difficulty in breathing, however, even though he was in that condition, he just smiled.

“S-See that? You lost control over your emotions so easily, do you really think you can become the King, brother.”

Raguel didn't answer, he just tightened his grip around Lucas's neck even further.

It was clear, he wasn't just trying to scare him anymore, right now, he was actually planning to kill him!

Lucas was getting on his nerves!

He wanted to see fear in his eyes.

However, Lucas didn't give him that satisfaction, he just smiled even more,

“H-Heh, d-do it, brother. I-I would love to see how you w-will become the King after k-killing your own brother.”

Hearing those words, Raguel's eyes, which were red in anger widened in surprise and he quickly backed up.

He had finally come out of his reverie.

He then looked at his own hands with a panicked look on his face.

“Haah... haah... haa...”

On the other hand, Lucas was desperately catching his breath, his face was red and there were finger markings on his neck, however, he still had a smile on his face.

A smile full of satisfaction.

This was the first time he felt that he actually won against this brother of his.

“Haa... Haha... Hahahaha~”

Slowly, the smile on Lucas's face widened and then, he started laughing.

“...”

Raguel just glared at this little brother of his, his rage was clear on his face, however, he held himself back.

He can't do anything reckless right now.

He would deal with this bastard later.

“Hmph!”

With a snort, Raguel turned around and left Lucas’s room.

Chapter 425

‘Nux, can you come here?’

Amaya requested with a solemn tone.

‘Hmm? Did something happen?’

Nux questioned while defending against Ember and Thyra’s combined attack.

‘Yes.’

Amaya nodded.

Nux’s face turned solemn.

‘Alright, I’ll be there in a moment.’

Nux replied, and at the same time, he blocked Ember’s sword, then he attacked her right leg.

Ember lost her balance and fell on the ground. Knowing that it would be impossible to win if Ember is out, Thyra attacked from behind, trying to save her teammate, however, Nux grabbed her hand, lifted her up, and slammed her to the ground right next to Ember.

Then, with his hands, he grabbed their necks, not allowing them to move.

With his face covered in sweat, he glanced at the two beautiful women under him and smiled,

“That was good.”

“What happened?”

Thyra questioned.

Nux tilted his head in confusion.

“You would never end the fight so quickly. How would you take advantage of us if you do that.”

Thyra explained her reasoning.

Nux chuckled and then answered,

“Amaya called. It sounded serious.”

Hearing Amaya’s name, Ember pouted.

“Hmph!”

Seeing her acting like that, Nux smiled.

Then, he kissed her on the forehead, then did the same with Thyra, and stood up after.

“I will take my leave now.”

Ember nodded,

“Alright, we will go and see how others are doing.”

Nux smiled and then, he disappeared.

The next moment, he appeared in front of Amaya, and as soon as he entered the room, he activated his [Sense].

“No one is there, don’t worry, I wouldn’t have called you if I was under someone’s observation.”

“Hooh? That’s rare. Why is there no one watching you today?”

“The King is busy with his own thing.”

Amaya smiled.

Nux nodded, he then walked towards Amaya and placed her on his lap.

“So? What happened?”

He questioned while his hands started moving around Amaya’s body.

Amaya, of course, didn’t stop him.

A small smile appeared on her face and she replied,

“Raguel just met Lucas.”

“Hmmm, Raguel is the First and Lucas is the Fourth, am I correct?”

“Yes.”

“Ah, so the two of them met. Well, you did say something like this might happen.”

“Indeed,”

“So? What happened? Did Lucas accept his proposal?”

Initially, when Amaya and Nux were planning everything. Amaya had predicted that Raguel would try to contact Lucas, the weakest of the four contenders for the Throne, and would try to ask for his support.

Or, the support of Duke Centho, to be more precise.

This worried Nux before, however, Amaya later said that Lucas wouldn’t accept, well, because if it was that easy, someone would have already contacted him by now and he wouldn’t be fighting for the Throne.

Since these words sounded logical, Nux agreed and didn’t think too much about it, however, if Amaya had called him here to discuss it, then something must have gone wrong.

Therefore, Nux guessed.

“No, Lucas did not.”

Amaya, however, shook her head.

“Hmm? Then what’s the problem? Isn’t everything going according to what we have planned?”

Nux questioned.

“No... things are not as simple as we thought.”

“What do you mean?”

Nux frowned.

“I used [Sense] on Lucas and Raguel while the two of them were talking to each other and saw the entire thing fold out on my own.

Therefore, I noticed something.”

Amaya spoke.

“What?” Nux questioned.

“The Fourth Prince was too calm today.”

Amaya answered.

“What do you mean?”

Nux couldn’t understand.

“According to what I know, Lucas is just a drunkard who has no control over his emotions and often bursts out and creates a scene just like he did at the party, he is reckless and not very intelligent.

However, when he was talking with Raguel today, he didn't seem like his usual self.

He was playing mind games with Raguel. I know, Raguel was the one who wanted his help, so him being in a bad position was logical, however, the way Lucas was playing with his today still felt strange."

Amaya started her analyses.

"This sudden change could only mean two things.

First, the Fourth Prince is actually a wolf in sheep's clothing and is hiding his capability. However, something like that is highly unlikely because even if he is hiding his intelligence and all that drunkard prince persona is just a façade, the fact that he is a Master Stage Cultivator remains.

No matter how intelligent one is, if he isn't strong enough, he would never become the King. Lucas doesn't stand a chance, so all this acting doesn't really make sense.

This brings me to my second theory, Lucas knew something Raguel didn't."

"He knew something Raguel didn't?"

"Yes. Something that made him very confident. Confident enough to go against Raguel, someone who has a decent chance to become the King."

"There are only a few things like that," Nux commented and Amaya nodded.

"Indeed. I replayed their conversation again and soon, I realized something.

Lucas mentioned Lovis."

"The Third Prince."

"Yes, I was doubtful, therefore, I checked the connection between the two of them. I wasn't able to find anything between them, however, when I investigated Duke Centho and Duke Merula, I found a connection.

The Two of them have been talking to each other for a while now.”

“Do you mean...”

“Yes, the Third Prince is not as straightforward as we expected him to be.”

Amaya nodded.

“This is bad.”

Nux commented.

“Indeed.”

A solemn look appeared on Amaya’s face as well.

The two of them were not actually worried about Lovis, the man was just a Grand Master Stage Cultivator, he was barely a threat, however, what they were worried about was Evane.

Evane was close to Lovis and Lucas.

However, now it was clear that there was more to Lovis than what meets the eye, therefore, Nux was worried that the man might hurt his Evane.

Of course, he wouldn’t let that happen no matter what.

“We need to investigate this Lovis dude...”

Chapter 426

“Nope, nothing, I cannot find anything about the Third Prince.”

Amaya shook her head as she skimmed through some papers.

Nux, who was sitting right next to him frowned,

“He is too clean. So clean that it is suspicious.”

Amaya smiled and shook her head,

“Well, now it is just your bias speaking. You have already assumed that the Third Prince is hiding something. It doesn't matter if we find anything on him or not, you would still be suspicious of him.”

Nux looked at Amaya and then, he nodded.

“I will not disagree, however, I still feel that guy is suspicious. He is a Prince for god's sake, why is he so mysterious? How do we not have any information on him other than what most people already know?”

“Well, he is known to be a Cultivation Maniac who stays inside his room most of the time. So collecting information on him is a little harder.

People have tried talking to his servants, however, they didn't get anything useful out of them.”

Amaya answered.

“See? This proves it.

His servants are oddly tight-lipped, something is definitely wrong with Lovis.”

Nux pointed out and Amaya chuckled again.

“Or it could also mean that he really has nothing to hide.”

Nux looked into Amaya’s eyes with a deadpan look on his face and then, he questioned.

“You really don’t think that, do you?”

“Well, all the logic points towards the fact that the Third Prince is actually innocent, and everything we have been talking about is just our assumption.”

Amaya answered.

Nux’s frown deepened, seeing that, Amaya’s smile widened and she continued.

“However, my assumptions are never wrong.”

Hearing those words, Nux smiled,

“So you mean...”

“Indeed, if we can’t find anything about this Lovis then we just need to have a chat with him.”

Amaya nodded and a Nux’s smile widened.

“So, my genius wife, how do we do that?”

“It’s not that difficult, we have Lovis’s sister on our team, remember?”

“We are going to involve Evane in this?”

Nux furrowed his brows.

“Oh? You think she wouldn’t help?”

Amaya questioned.

“She would of course, however, it would hur-”

“Nux, Evane is not a child, she might trust her brothers a little too much and is close to them, however, that doesn’t mean she is going to trust them blindly and won’t even try to find out the truth.

If anything, she would try to use this chance to prove to you that Lovis is not the type of man we think he is.”

Amaya answered and after thinking about it for a while, Nux nodded.

“Alright.”

“Good, now contact her and explain everything to her.”

Nux did as Amaya told him to do and after explaining everything to Evane, the woman nodded.

‘Alright, come to my room, we will go and talk to Lovis right now.’

Then a small smile appeared on Evane’s face and she spoke,

‘I guess meeting your brother-in-law in person would clear all your doubts.’

Hearing those words, Nux looked at Amaya and smiled dryly.

To be honest, Amaya was a scary woman.

She could predict literally anything and most of the time, her predictions would come true.

Just like what happened with Evane’s case.

“Is she ready?”

Looking at Nux’s expression, Amaya guessed.

Nux chuckled in defeat, then, he kissed Amaya on her lips and replied,

“I will take my leave now.”

Amaya nodded with a smile, then she grabbed Nux’s head and kissed him again.

Nux didn’t fight back and allowed her to do anything she wanted, 5 minutes later, when Amaya was finally satisfied, she released her grip and nodded.

Nux nodded back and then, he disappeared.

He then appeared in Evane’s room, where the woman was waiting for him with a smile on her face.

“Welcome.”

Nux looked at the blonde woman standing in front of him and hugged her soft body.

“Shall we leave now?”

Evane questioned with an excited look on her face.

“Have you remembered Amaya’s questions?”

Nux questioned back.

“Of course.”

Evane nodded.

Nux nodded back and after he covered half of his face with a Mask, wore skintight black clothes, and set his cultivation at Grand Master Stage, he bowed his head.

“After you, Lady Evane.”

Evane chuckled and then, she walked out of her room.

Nux followed her from behind like a loyal servant, of course, he didn't waste this chance and continued to observe Evane's perky butt jiggling left and right as she moved.

Evane felt his gaze and shook her head with a smile.

The two of them didn't share any words, however, they still created their own moment out of this small walk.

A few minutes later, Evane appeared in front of Lovis's room and knocked.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

'You need to knock before entering your brother's room, suspicious.'

Nux narrowed his eyes and commented.

'What if you and I are enjoying our time and he barges into our room without knocking?'

'That makes sense, knocking is important I guess.'

Nux nodded in understanding.

A few seconds later, the door was opened by Lovis's butler.

"Hmm? Lady Evane? Are you here to meet Master Lovis?"

The Butler questioned respectfully.

Seeing the Butler, Nux narrowed his eyes again.

'Expert Stage Butler, even Raguel, the First Prince only has Grand Master Stage Cultivator as his butler.'

'There are people who are protecting the First brother from shadows, Lovis doesn't have anyone like them.'

Every Prince has their own way of protecting themselves.'

Evane answered.

‘Yes, I know, don’t bother with me, I am just making some observations.’

‘I know what you are trying to do.’

Evane replied.

Nux wanted to reply, however, before he could, Evane turned towards the Butler.

“Yes, I am here to see him.”

“Umm... Lady Evane, Master Lovis is currently cultivating. So if it is no-”

“It is important, I need to talk to him,

Right now.”

Evane spoke in a firm tone.

Seeing Evane act like that, Nux couldn’t help but smile.

Lovis’s Butler was taken aback, however, he regained his composure soon and nodded.

“Alright, I will talk to Master Lovis, please have a seat and wait for a while.”

Chapter 427

“Sister? What happened? Is something bothering you?”

Lovis questioned with a frown on his face.

“No, I am just here to talk with you.”

Evane answered with a smile on her face.

Hearing those words, Lovis’s frown deepened,

“Leo told me that you are here to talk about something important.”

‘He is indirectly saying that you aren’t just wasting my precious time to talk about random stuff right? If you are then you should leave.’

Nux translated as he continued to observe the Third Prince.

[Name: Lovis Skyfall]

[Age: 62 ]

[Mana Cultivation: Grand Master.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal. ]

[Race: Human ]

[Occupation: Third Prince of the Skyfall Kingdom.]

[Talent: High]

[LVL: 46]

[HP: 600/600]

[MP: 860/860]

[STR: 58]

[AGL: 65]

[VIT: 60]

[STM: 61]

[INT: 86]

[DEF: 52]

‘Huh? He’s nothing special.

Even that Candice is better than him...

Is he really the best the Skyfall Royal Family could offer?’

Nux wondered inwardly as he continued to stare at Lovis.

Sensing his gaze, Lovis turned towards Nux and saw those Golden eyes looking at him with... disdain? Lovis frowned.

“Who is he, Sister?”

He questioned.

He was indeed different than Raguel, if it was the First Prince, he would have lashed out at Nux for looking at him like that, Lovis, however, was a lot calmer.

He was affected by that gaze, that was clear, however, he didn’t show it on his face.

‘Maybe he is not that bad.’

Nux admitted.

“Ah, he is my Bodyguard.”

“Hmm? I have never seen him before...”

Lovis narrowed his eyes as he glanced at Nux.

“Didn’t you say that I came at a bad time and that First brother is getting pretty desperate? I thought that I should not depend on you much and hired him as my bodyguard.”

Evane answered.

“Is that so...”

Lovis started observing Nux more carefully, trying to pressure him with his gaze, Nux, however, completely ignored his gaze and even started yawning.

He was blatantly disrespecting Lovis, however, Lovis didn’t lose his temper and turned towards Evane.

“Why is he covering his face?”

“Well... he has some... problems with his face.”

Evane replied.

‘Indeed, being too handsome can be a problem sometimes.’

Nux agreed.

‘Oh C’mon.’

Evane shook her head and chuckled.

Lovis, however, narrowed his eyes even further and then questioned.

“Are you sure you can trust him?”

This time, before Evane could answer, Nux stepped forward.

“Yes, she can. She is not a fool, she wouldn’t have hired me if she didn’t trust me. Heck, I can even say that she trusts me more than she trusts you, someone, she hasn’t met for more than 20 years.

Who knows how much you have changed in these last 20 years.”

“Don’t go too far, little ant.”

This time, Leo couldn’t hold himself back anymore and roared in rage.

He had already brought out his dagger and was ready to attack Nux, however, before he could do that, Lovis stopped him.

Then, he glanced at Nux and smiled.

“Heh, you are brave, I will give you that. To go against me, the Third Prince of this Country with your meager status, commendable indeed.”

“Of course, that is all you guys have to say for yourself, your status, but that is understandable, you don’t have anything noteworthy apart from your status do you?”

Nux smiled lightly.

Leo tightened the grip around his dagger, he could feel it, even Lovis was about to lose control over his emotions.

Lovis, however, held himself back and turned towards Evane.

“Sister, your bodyguard is a little too disrespectful. Please tell him to leave, there is a limit to how much I can listen.”

Evane glanced at Nux and smiled inwardly,

‘See? Did you find anything suspicious? He doesn’t have that inflated ego and is even willing to let you go just because you are my bodyguard.

Do you think that he would go that far if he was just acting like he cares for me?’

Nux glanced at Lovis and this time, he couldn't help but nod.

Evane was right, maybe he and Amaya were wrong about Lovis.

‘Continue with the Act.’

However, before he could say anything, he and Evane heard Amaya's voice.

Evane narrowed her eyes.

‘Why now?’

‘Trust me, I can feel it.

Something is wrong here.

He is a little too calm.’

Amaya replied.

Evane glanced at Nux, and Nux nodded a little.

Evane sighed, and Nux smiled wryly.

‘Just a little more.’

Nux knew Amaya well, unlike him, she wasn't an unreasonable person, she must have seen something if she told them to continue with this little act of theirs.

Evane then finally nodded and turned towards Lovis.

“I apologize for his behavior, Third Brother. I give you my word, he won't say a single word from now on.”

Lovis narrowed his eyes, however, in the end, he just nodded.

“Tsk.”

Nux snorted and turned his head away.

“Have a seat.”

Evane pointed at the chair next to her.

Lovis looked at Evane and then sat on the chair Evane pointed at.

“So? What did you want to talk about, Sister?”

“The Throne.”

Evane answered in a solemn tone.

“The Throne?”

Lovis frowned.

“What do you want to talk about?”

He questioned.

“Do you remember when I told you that I am not interested in the Throne before?”

Evane questioned.

Hearing those words, Lovis’s expression changed momentarily, and then, he nodded.

“Yes, you said you have no interest in the Throne. Was that a lie?”

“Hmm? Of course not. Why would I lie to you?”

Evane replied and at that moment, all the seriousness that had appeared on Lovis’s face turned into confusion.

“Then what are you here for?”

Lovis was getting a little impatient now.

“I wa-”

Evane was about to answer, however, before she did, she turned toward Nux.

Nux nodded, then, he walked towards Leo, Lovis’s butler and,

“Come with me.”

Took him with him.

Lovis frowned, however, before he could say anything, Evane dropped the bomb.

“What if Duke Vestalis supports you in this Battle of Throne?”

Chapter 428

“What if Duke Vestalis supports you in this Battle of Throne?”

Evane offered with a smile on her face.

“W-What?”

Lovis was stunned.

He couldn't believe what he was hearing.

He tried to hide his excitement and was trying not to show any reactions to Evane's words, however, no matter how hard he tried, Nux could see those eyes shining in uncontrollable greed.

‘His Desire was the Throne is too Great, even greater than Raguel.’

Amaya, who was seeing everything from afar spoke.

‘I can see that and I refuse to believe that he is the person Evane thinks he is.’

Nux nodded his head and narrowed his eyes as he glanced at Lucas.

He was doubtful at first, however, now he was sure.

Evane was wrong about Lucas.

This man was definitely not as simple as Evane portrays him to be.

He has many secrets.

‘Evane needs to stay away from him.’

‘We need to prove everything to her.’

Amaya replied.

Nux then glanced at Evane and his face turned solemn,

‘It won’t be that easy.’

‘Don’t worry, let the act continue, I am sure this man would fall for this.’

Amaya smiled.

Nux smiled back.

“What are you smiling about, you bastard?”

Leo, Lovis’s butler, who Nux pulled away, questioned in a frustrated tone.

“...”

Nux, however, completely ignored the man and continued to observe Lovis and Evane with his [Sense].

“Lovis, I need your help.”

Evane muttered.

“Help?”

Lovis frowned.

Weren’t you about to help me? When did our situation turn around?

Wait...

Was her sister playing with him?

Lovis narrowed his eyes.

However, before he could make any more absurd conclusions, Evane continued.

“Yes, I need your help with Lucas.”

“With Lucas?”

Lovis tilted his head in confusion.

He just couldn't understand what was going through his Sister's mind.

“I am observing that boy ever since I returned and I realized that his addiction to Alcohol has increased even more compared to the time I left. Not only that, he has even started going around touching random women and prostitutes, I heard that he even assaulted a few women.”

Evane spoke about her worries.

This time, although what she was saying was according to the script, she wasn't acting.

She was actually worried about Lovis.

“I have to do something, I can't allow him to destroy his life like that and for that, I need your help.”

She spoke in a determined tone.

Although Lovis couldn't understand where Lucas suddenly popped into this conversation, he still questioned.

“What can I do for you?”

“Listen, I have a plan.”

Evane then moved her body close to Lovis and continued.

“I will talk to my Grandfather, I will ask him to support you instead of supporting me. You can then talk with your Grandfather and tell him to give my Grandfather some benefits, I am sure he will agree and support you in this Battle of Thrones.

With two Dukes supporting you, there is no way you would not be chosen as the next King of this Kingdom.”

Evane explained her plan and hearing her words, Lovis’s eyes shined in excitement and a smile appeared on his face.

‘He is not even trying to hide his excitement now.’

Nux shook his head.

‘He is too excited to care about it.’

Amaya replied and Nux nodded.

Evane’s face then turned solemn and she continued,

“Once you become the King, I want you to put Lucas in Prison.”

“Prison?”

Lovis frowned.

“Yes, I have realized that normal methods won’t work against him. We need to use force. In prison, he wouldn’t be able to touch any alcohol or women, in a few years, I am sure Lucas would get rid of this annoying addiction.

I know it is wrong, however, if it can place him back in the right path, I am ready to do it.”

Evane answered with conviction.

“So... you will support me as long as I promise to imprison Lucas after becoming the King?”

Lucas questioned.

“Yes, I will.”

Evane answered.

“And what if I don’t keep my part of the promise?”

“Huh? Why would you do that? You are not planning to go against your Big Sister are you?”

Evane narrowed her eyes jokingly.

“Of course not. How can I do that.”

Lovis chuckled.

A smile appeared on Evane’s face as she grabbed Lovis’s cheeks.

“I know I can trust your words, Lovis.”

“Ugghhh! I am not a child!”

Lovis complained.

“For me, you will always be a child, even after you become the King.”

Evane answered.

Lovis chuckled and at the same time, he realized.

His Sister was as naïve as before, she hasn’t changed at all.

She was not a threat.

A smile appeared on Lovis’s face as he glanced at Evane.

“Oh right,”

Suddenly, Evane spoke up.

Then, two papers appeared on Evane’s hand and she passed them to Lovis.

“Alright, write what you just said on this paper and then sign it.”

Hearing those words, Lovis narrowed his eyes.

“Didn’t you say that you trusted my words?”

“I did, however, I do not trust your memory. You will forget about it, therefore, it is better to write it.”

“Why two papers then?”

Lovis questioned.

“One for you and the other for me, of course.”

Evane replied.

Lovis narrowed his eyes even further, however, in the end, he decided to give in.

The rewards were just too enticing for him to not give in.

Also, it is just writing on paper, what could possibly go wrong?

Once he actually becomes the King, would he really be threatened by a piece of paper?

Of course not.

In the end, Lovis decided to fulfill his sister’s wish and started writing on paper.

“Hm hm, good.”

Lovis quickly wrote on the papers and as soon as he was done, Evane smiled.

“Alright, now stick this paper in your room, so that you will never forget it.”

Lovis chuckled, and then, he called,

“Leo.”

“At your command, Master Lovis.”

Leo appeared within a second.

“Stick this paper to the wall of my room, make it so that I can see it every day.”

“As you command, Master Lovis.”

Lovis then turned towards Evane and smiled.

“Are you satisfied, Big Sister?”

“Good Boy.”

Evane smiled.

Chapter 429

“Looks like you are having a great time, aren’t you?”

A woman with short black hair, wearing skin-tight black clothes that highlighted her lean physique walked into a room with a calm expression on her face. Half of her face was covered with a mask, however, her Icy blue eyes were hypnotic enough to win any man’s heart.

Of course, if you ignore the fact that she just barged into the room with a dagger in her hand.

That was scary.

“Who are you!? How dare you bar- Acckk”

A guard shouted in rage, however, before he could even complete his sentence, the woman disappeared and appeared behind him.

With a single chop on his neck, the guard passed out.

The same thing happened with other guards who rushed out, the guard who had already run away and was planning to report everything was taken care of by another woman who wore similar clothes, Auburn hair, and big green eyes.

“W-W-Who are you?”

The only person left in the room questioned with a frightened look on his face.

“Hmm? Why do you look so scared, Fourth Prince? Don’t worry, I am not here to harm you, if I wanted to do that, you would have died already.”

The woman smiled.

Then, she pointed at the guards lying on the ground and spoke,

“See? I didn’t even kill them. I just knocked them out.”

However, even after hearing those words, Lucas didn’t calm down.

A woman suddenly barged into his room, he would be excited if this was a normal situation, however, it was anything but normal right now.

He was scared shitless.

All his drowsiness due to alcohol had faded away and his eyes and ears were wide open right now.

“W-W-Why a-are you d-doing this?”

He stuttered, tears were threatening to come out of his eyes and his face was pale in fear.

Seeing him acting like that, Thyra just shook her head.

She knew he was pathetic, but still...

Just how pathetic can one be?

He was a Prince of a Kingdom for fuck sake!

In the end, Thyra just sighed and continued with what she was here for.

“I just wanted to talk to you.”

“A-About what?”

“You and your Grandfather, Duke Centho now support the Third Prince, Lovis Skyfall, correct?”

Hearing those words, Lucas’s eyes widened in horror.

“N-No. O-O-Of course not! W-Why would I do t-that? I-I want to become the K-King.”

Although Lucas was not very adept in politics and anything related to it, however, he knew that the fact that he secretly supports Lovis couldn't come out yet.

If that happened then... then bad things will happen.

Or at least that's what his Third Brother, his Grandfather, and his Third Brother's Grandfather told him.

“You do not have to deny it, we already know about this fact. We knew about this for a long time now.”

Thyra replied.

“W-We?”

Lucas caught her words.

“W-What do you mean by ‘We’? A-Are you from some organization? W-W-Who are you?”

Lucas questioned in panic.

“Have you heard about Consort Allura's disappearance?”

Thyra questioned back and Lucas's eyes widened in surprise.

Consort Allura's disappearance!

Even someone like him knew about it.

He had heard that it was done by a mysterious organ-

Lucas finally realized.

And as if she knew about it, Thyra continued.

“Yes, I am from ‘that’ organization.”

Lucas’s pale face turned even paler.

“Don’t worry though, I am not here to hurt you.”

“T-Then why are you here?”

Lucas questioned.

“You support the Third Prince because he promised you a tension-free life full of Alcohol and Women, correct?”

Thyra questioned.

This time, Lucas was so scared that he didn’t even deny what she said and came clean.

“Yes, that is all I want, however, if you wish, then I can take back my support, I will even quit alcohol and would never touch a woman. If you want me to support First Brother, I would do that as well, just let me live. Just give me one chance!”

Lucas begged.

“Why would I want you to support that idiotic first brother of yours?”

Thyra tilted her head in confusion.

“Well, anyway, as I said, I am not here to hurt you. I just wanted to tell you something that I feel you should know.”

Saying that, a paper appeared in Thyra’s hand and she passed it to Lucas.

With trembling hands, Lucas grabbed the paper Thyra passed to him, and then, he started reading.

Soon, however, his eyes widened in surprise, all the fear from his face turned into shock and he increased his reading speed.

“It is not a fake, your brother’s signatures are on it.”

Thyra spoke.

Lucas didn’t reply and directly looked below.

There it was.

His brother’s signatures, the paper even had his stamp on it.

“Why would he do something like this?”

Lucas questioned.

However, instead of answering, Thyra just stepped back.

“I will leave this to you, do with it as you see fit.”

Then, she disappeared.

Lucas, who was now left alone in his room started thinking.

Even a fool like him knew that he was being played by this ‘mysterious organization’, these people would never bother him if they didn’t have some sort of plan in their mind, however, he didn’t care.

He didn’t care that this mysterious organization was using him as a tool.

This paper was authentic, it was his brother’s handwriting.

His brother was planning to put him in prison after he becomes the King.

To help him with his alcohol and woman addiction? What bullshit!

He was the one who brought different women for him in the first place!

That was how he gained his support in the first place and now he plans to go back on his words!?

No way!

Lucas wouldn't let that happen!

He would not let Lovis use him like this!

He will not become Lovis's tool!

He would rather become a tool for this mysterious organization that at least showed him the truth.

With an angry look on his face,

Lucas stepped out of his room and walked towards Lovis's.

Chapter 430

“Looks like you are having a great time, aren’t you?”

To help him with his alcohol and woman addiction? What bullshit!

He was the one who brought different women for him in the first place!

That was how he gained his support in the first place and now he plans to go back on his words!?

No way!

Lucas wouldn't let that happen!

He would not let Lovis use him like this!

He will not become Lovis's tool!

He would rather become a tool for this mysterious organization that at least showed him the truth.

With an angry look on his face,

Lucas stepped out of his room and walked towards Lovis's.

Chapter 431

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

“Open the door, you fucking bastard!”

Lucas shouted in rage as he continue to bang on the door in front of him.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

“Open the fucking door!”

Seeing him acting like that, the servants who were walking around frowned in confusion, however, no one dared to step up.

The Fourth Prince was drunk again, they didn't plan to get themselves involved in this stupid thing.

“Open the-”

Lucas shouted again, however, this time, the door was opened by Leo, who frowned.

“Master Lucas?”

“I need to see Lovis.”

Lucas spoke.

“Master Lucas is cultivating righ-”

“I don't care! I need to see him, now!”

Lucas raised his voice.

Seeing that, Leo frowned.

Just why the hell does everyone talk to his master so badly? Was his master always that popular? Or was there something special going on today?

Leo couldn't understand.

And he didn't try to understand either.

He just needed to perform his duty as the butler properly.

“Please come in and have a seat, Master Lucas. I will go and pass your message to Master Lovis.”

He bowed his head but just as he turned around, Lucas spoke.

“I don't have time to wait, I need to talk to him right now!”

Saying that, Lucas walked in and started walking towards the Cultivation Chamber.

“Master Lucas, you can't!”

Leo shouted, if it was anyone else, he would have stopped him by force, however, Lucas was a prince, and he couldn't possibly use force against him. Not until his or his master's life was in any sort of danger.

However, just as Lucas was about to walk into Lovis's Cultivation Chamber, the doors of the Chamber opened and Lovis walked out.

With a frown on his face, he glanced at Lucas, then he glanced at Leo and nodded.

Leo nodded back and walked away.

When Leo laughed, Lovis glanced at Lucas and narrowed his eyes.

“Why are you here? You shouldn't be here, don't you know that. There are too many eyes in this Palace. You and I can't be linked together right now.”

Hearing those words, Lucas's rage soared even higher.

“You dare act like that after all this!?”

“What are you talking about?”

Lovis frowned.

“You think you will plan to imprison me and I wouldn’t know?”

You bastard, you dare go against me when I am the reason why you are so confident in winning the Throne in the first place!? Huh!?”

Lovis was shocked.

How did he know!?

He couldn’t believe it.

However, he didn’t show his shock on his face, he kept his frown on his face and continued,

“Just what are you talking about? Are you out of your mind, why would I try to imprison you? Who told you this stupid thing?”

Lovis questioned.

For him, fooling Lucas was simple, just act as if nothing happen and soon, Lucas would start doubting himself.

Not only that, he would even tell him who told him everything and once he gets the name, Lovis was planning to get rid of that bastard.

However, this time, things didn’t go as he planned,

Rather than doubting himself, Lucas just threw a paper on Lovis’s face.

Lovis caught the paper and started reading, soon, however, his eyes widened in surprise.

“You think you can fake your way out of this!? Do you think I am a fool!?”

Lucas shouted in rage.

“...”

This time, however, Lovis didn't have an answer.

He couldn't believe it.

This letter...

Just how did Lucas get his hands on this letter?

How is this possible?

He had a talk with Evane just a few hours ago, just how...

Suddenly, a theory popped into Lovis's mind.

However, before he could think too much, Lucas walked towards him and warned.

“Look Lovis, I don't know what you think of me, however, I am not as big of a fool as you think I am.

Do not treat me like a tool.

If I can give you a direct way to the Throne, I can take it away as well.”

Lucas then walked even close to Lovis and threatened.

“I am just a drunkard, Lovis. I have nothing to lose.

You, however, are different.

You are talented, you have worked hard, and you have a bright future ahead of you.

However, If you do not give me a reasonable expression within a week,

I will destroy you.

Even if I have to sacrifice myself in the process.”

Saying those words, Lucas turned around and left.

“ ... ”

All this while, Lovis didn't say anything and even after Lucas left, he just stayed silent.

He was fooled.

He was fooled by his 'Naïve' Sister.

He got too greedy.

3 Dukes supporting him would have cemented his position as the next King.

Blinded by his greed, he underestimated both, Evane and Lucas.

He took Lucas for a granted.

A drunkard like you, what can he possibly do in front of him? Nothing, he could do nothing.

Then there's Evane.

His Naïve and stupid sister.

That idiot was thinking about getting rid of her brother's alcohol addiction rather than thinking about the Throne. That Idiot nearly cried in front of everyone just because a drunkard spoke a few things to her.

Someone like her could never become the Ruler of this Kingdom.

She never stood a chance.

That was his thoughts.

However, he finally realized how wrong he was.

Lucas was a lot more aggressive than he thought he would be.

He was not the Lucas who could just be fooled by giving him a beautiful woman. He has changed, and though still stupid, he was now 'less' stupid.

As for Evane.

That Bitch.

Rather than a naïve girl, she was a scheming bitch who planned this all from the start.

Lovis realized.

He had to do something about that bitch.

She was a threat.

A threat he had to deal with as soon as possible.

First, he would need to patch up with Lucas.

He was his trump card right now, however, before doing that, he had to meet that bitch first.

After all, he needed a scapegoat to direct Lucas's anger on.

Thinking about it, a cold smile appeared on Lovis's face.

Chapter 432

“Hmm? Lovis? What happened?”

Evane frowned in confusion as she saw Lovis standing in front of her room. Then, a smile appeared on her face and she questioned,

“What? Were you missing this Elder Sister of yours?”

Lovis, however, clearly wasn't in the mood for any jokes.

“Heh, trying to act ignorant I see.”

Lovis snorted.

Seeing that, Evane frowned,

“You seem to be in a bad mood.”

“Oh yeah? It seems that way to you?”

Lovis snorted again.

This time, Evane realized that something was wrong.

She then turned towards Nux and questioned,

‘Did you do something?’

‘Hmm? Of course not.’

Nux denied.

‘Other than stealing some paper from his room.’

He completed the sentence.

‘What did you steal?’

Evane questioned with a frown.

Nux smiled.

‘Nux, tell me. What did you steal?’

Nux, however, did not reply.

He was waiting for something.

‘Nu-‘

Evane was about to say something, however, suddenly, Lovis spoke up.

“Are you thinking of an excuse right now? If that’s true then I must say, you are shit at planning something. If I were you, I would already have an excuse even before you meet me.”

Lovis spat.

“Huh? What are you talking about?”

Evane questioned.

“Ahh, so that’s it. Your dumb brain couldn’t come up with an excuse, therefore, you are planning on acting ignorant. I must say, that’s quite dumb but that’s to be expected of you.”

Evane’s face turned serious.

“Lovis, I don’t know what you are on about, however, that is not the correct way to talk to your Elder Sister.”

“Haah? Do you think I care about the fact that you are my Elder Sister? Stop daydreaming! Just because I indulged with you for a while, you think I am someone you can fool anytime you want? Did you think you can play around and I wouldn’t know?”

Lovis shot back and Evane's eyes widened in surprise.

Just what is Lovis talking about?

And... why is he acting like that?

He has never done something like this before!

However, Lovis was not done yet. He walked close to Evane and spat,

“You are here for the Throne, aren't you, bitch?”

Evane's eyes widened even further.

“What? Surprised that I found out? Did you really think that you can hide it after doing something like this?”

“Just what are you talking about!? Are you going to tell me what happened!?”

Evane shouted.

“You!”

Seeing that she was still acting, Lovis couldn't control himself and was about to attack Evane, however, before his hand could touch Evane's face, Nux grabbed it.

“I stopped myself before, I won't do it again. Back off.

Or you will regret it.”

‘Haah... I told you to wait a little...’

Amaya sighed.

‘And let him hit Evane?’

Nux questioned back.

‘She can defend herself, she is about to become an Expert Stage Cultivator after 1 or 2 more sessions, remember?’

‘That bastard cursed her. He should be glad that he is still alive.’

‘You need to control that temper of yours, the plan won’t work as we want it to.’

‘We will think of another plan, I am not planning on letting anyone touch my wife.

The Throne can go fuck itself.’

Hearing those words, Amaya sighed.

‘Whatever... let’s just see how it goes.’

Then she glanced at Nux and a small smile appeared on her face.

On the other side, Lovis, who glanced at Nux could feel a dominant aura suffocating him. As a cultivation maniac, he could feel it.

The disparity in strength, he could feel that prince or not, if he does anything reckless here, he will die.

Therefore, he quickly calmed down, and then, he stepped back.

Seeing that Lovis had calmed down a little, Evane questioned.

“Now can you tell me what happened?”

“Please stop acti-”

“Will you shut up and tell me what happened!?”

Evane questioned in frustration.

“Stop acting like you don’t know! Acting Ignorant! Playing with me! Why are you talking in codes!? Just tell me what happened and we can talk about it!”

She shouted.

Lovis couldn't believe that Evane was still trying to act as if nothing happened, however, this time, he wasn't planning on backing down.

“Alright, tell me then, where is the paper where I wrote about Lucas? You should have it with you, correct? Show it to me.”

Evane tilted her head in confusion and soon, a paper appeared in her hands.

“Here.”

Lovis took the paper and then, his anger turned into confusion.

“How do you have it?”

He questioned.

“You were the one who gave it to me...”

Evane didn't know what her little brother was talking about.

However, soon, she realized something and turned towards Nux.

‘You stole his paper!’

‘Umm... I borrowed it for a little while...’

‘What did you do with it!?’

Evane questioned.

‘I... kinda gave it to Lucas...’

Nux answered with a wry smile on his face.

Evane's eyes widened in surprise.

‘So that’s why you wanted him to write 2 papers.’

She realized.

‘I just wanted to show you your brother’s true face. Didn’t you see? He came here without even checking his own paper first. He didn’t even consider the possibility of checking his own room and directly blamed everything on you.’

If the relationship between the two of you was as strong as you think it is, he wouldn’t have doubted you.

He sees you as a threat, Evane.

He is wary of you.

He is scared that you will take away the Throne he always desired.

He cares about the throne a lot more than he cares about you, or anyone for that matter.’

Nux explained everything and Evane turned silent.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

On the other side, Lovis was silent as well.

He couldn’t understand, if Evane has this letter, then how did Lucas get his hands on it?

Does that mean...

Another thought appeared in his mind and without saying anything, he turned around and rushed towards his own room.

‘You see that? He didn’t even apologize for acting like that. Do you really think he is as innocent as you think he is?’

Evane, you need to understand, this is the Royal Palace, everyone here only cares about one thing, the Crown.

Everyone here is selfish. They only think about themselves and your brother,

He is no different.'

Chapter 433

‘Evane, you need to understand, this is the Royal Palace, everyone here only cares about one thing, the Crown.

Everyone here is selfish. They only think about themselves and your brother,

He is no different.’

Nux spoke in a calm voice.

He knew Lovis was not the type of person Evane thought he was, and now, Lovis just proved his point.

Nux knew that this might be a shock for Evane, however, it was still better than her being fooled by her ‘innocent’ brother.

Now that she is aware of his true reality, Evane would not be fooled.

Or... that was what Nux thought would happen. Evane, however, had a different opinion.

“No, that is not correct.”

After thinking for a long long while, Evane came to a conclusion.

“You are Amaya are biased against him, therefore, you are not thinking it properly. Think about this, for him, I am someone who returned from the academy after more than 20 years and my return was definitely not something predecided, it was instantaneous.

Many were confused as to why I returned and though he didn’t ask directly, it is natural that Lovis was confused as well.

I told him I do not desire the Throne, however, after that, I told him to write on that paper. It is only natural that he would doubt me, especially after the paper appeared in his 'benefactor's' hands after a few hours.

If he didn't trust me, he would have never written anything on that paper, however, he did write, showing his trust. However, soon, his trust was broken and the paper appeared in Lovis's hand.

Isn't it natural that he would get angry?

Heck, even I would be angry if I was in his position.

Actually, he didn't just come and attacked me directly, this shows that he still cares about me."

Evane then turned towards Nux and spoke.

"Nux, please don't doubt him, he is exactly like I told you, he is not some sort of selfish manipulator who would get rid of the people after they are no longer of any use to him."

Hearing those words, Nux turned silent.

Evane's words actually made sense... Lovis's reaction made sense...

This was not enough to prove anything to Evane.

She is too naïve to even consider the possibility of her brother being a manipulative player.

He had to do something else.

Nux starting thinking.

Seeing that Nux was not saying anything, Evane continued her explanation.

"As for the fact that he returned without even apologizing, again, think about this from his perspective. The paper was with me, this meant that I was not the one who did this.

The only people who knew about the paper were you, me, him, and his butler. I am innocent, you are on my side, and you don't have any motive if I don't have one, he, of course, would not do something like this, so the only one left would be his butler.

A butler who has stayed beside him for who knows how long.

A servant he trusts the most.

And there is a chance that that servant betrayed him.

Anyone would be shaken by that conclusion and obviously, he isn't in his right mind currently, therefore, he wasn't able to apologize.

He must be too occupied with thoughts about his butler.

He must have forgotten it.

I am sure he would return and apologize soon.”

Evane smiled.

Nux forced out a smile as well.

‘Uggh... why is she naïve... I guess that is what attracted me to her in the first place...’

Nux just shook his head.

‘Step back, let things continue... You can't do anything about it right now...’

Amaya had the same thoughts.

‘Can I really not do anything?’

Nux questioned.

‘Evane doesn't understand the meaning of ‘Trust’ means.’

Amaya commented.

‘What would you have done if you were in Lovis’s position? Would you even consider that Evane was the one who betrayed you?’

‘Of course not.’

Nux’s answer was instantaneous.

‘Yes.’

When you say you ‘Trust’ Evane, it means you trust her enough to show your back to her.

Trusting someone is dangerous, you can only say you trust someone when you are ready to lose something precious the moment that person goes against you. If you think about how would defend yourself when the person behind you attacks you, then you actually do not trust that person.

The same goes with Lovis, he does not Trust his Sister, heck, he was even ready to turn back and attack the person behind his back.

Evane, however, would not understand it.

At least not now.

Therefore, the only thing you can do is to stay with her for a while and protect her.’

Amaya spoke and Nux nodded with a serious look on his face.

‘I need to step back.’

‘Indeed.’

The two of them nodded, then Nux glanced at Evane and smiled.

“Alright, I will wait for him to come and apologize to you.”

Hearing those words, Evane smiled lovingly.

“Mhm.”

Seeing that smile on her face, Nux smiled as well. Then, his smile got perverted, he closed the doors, and then, he questioned,

“Alright then, how about we make you an Expert Stage Cultivator?”

Evane’s face turned red and then, she nodded meekly.

“A-Alright.”

“Hehehe~”

Nux laughed evilly and picked her up.

The two of them quickly jumped on the bed and Evane’s Cultivation session started.

...

On the other side, Lovis walked into his room and called.

“Leo.”

“At your command, Master.”

Within a second, a man appeared in front of him and bowed.

“Where is the paper that I gave you before?”

Lovis questioned.

“Hmm? That paper? I placed it in your room as you ordered me to, Master Lovis. Should I bring it to you?”

Leo questioned.

Seeing his reaction, Lovis narrowed his eyes and spoke.

“No need, you just follow me. I will get that letter myself.”

“As you command, Master.”

Leo bowed his head and the two of them walked into Lovis’s room.

“Where is the paper?”

Lovis questioned.

“Ther-”

Leo pointed at the wall, soon, however, his eyes widened in surprise.

“Where is the paper?”

Chapter 433.1

“Where is the paper?”

Leo questioned with a surprised look on his face.

“Yes, that is what I am asking, Leo. Where is the paper?”

Lovis narrowed his eyes.

Leo turned around and glanced at Lovis,

“Master Lovis, I really don’t know, I placed it here. I remember it well. I am sure that I am not mistaken!”

“Oh? Then where is it? Did it fly away on its own?”

Lovis questioned.

“I do not know! I placed it here a few hours ago, how can it just... disappear?”

“Maybe you picked it up?”

Lovis questioned.

“Of course not, why would I do something like this? Master Lovis, you know it, I am not that careless. If I had picked it up, I would know where I placed it.

I am a responsible man.”

Seeing his butler’s reaction, Lovis frowned.

He already knew that the paper wouldn’t be here, it was obvious, Evane had her own paper, so of course, the paper he had must be missing.

And just like Evane thought, the second person he doubted was his own butler.

That was the reason he asked him to come with him.

He wanted to see his butler's reaction.

However, now that he has finally seen it, Lovis found it hard to believe that his butler was the one who betrayed him.

Even after seeing that the paper is missing, his butler didn't even realize the fact that he is suspicious of him.

Leo thought that Lovis actually wanted his help to find the paper.

This was not the reaction that a traitor would show.

There were two choices here,

First, Leo was a great actor and knew how to fool him.

Second, Leo was actually innocent.

Both options had an equal likelihood of being true.

Leo has been living with Lovis for a long long time now, for him, fooling Lovis wasn't a hard job.

However, Lovis was inclined to believe the second option.

Leo was innocent.

He had many, better opportunities to betray him, but he didn't. He has no reason to.

Lovis trusted Leo a little.

Therefore, another question popped into his mind.

If not Leo then who?

Evane had the paper, so she couldn't possibly b-

Suddenly, Lovis stopped.

'That bitch...'

He cursed again.

He realized.

He was played.

Again.

'That was the reason she asked me to write on two papers in the first place! She wanted to prove her innocence using the other paper!'

Lovis realized and his anger boiled.

'That fucking bitch! Acting all innocent like that, you disgusting whore!'

However, this time, Lovis didn't let anger get the best of him.

He started thinking.

'But how did she steal the paper from my room? How is that possible?'

He questioned inwardly and started pondering.

'Is there a strong Cultivator backing her up? Who is he? Why is he helping her? Is he an assassin?'

Lovis's face turned solemn.

Evane was a far greater threat than he thought she would be.

He didn't expect that she would have such a strong expert backing her up.

‘I need to be careful around her’

Lovis thought inwardly.

He can’t as aggressively as he did previously.

Evane has changed too much.

She is not that naïve girl he thought she was all those years ago.

He needed more information about her before acting out.

His thoughts were simple,

If she can steal something from his room without alerting anyone, what’s stopping her from assassinating him?

A shiver ran through his spine the moment he thought about it.

He needed to plan.

He needed to wait.

He needed to collect more information.

And that is what he will do now.

Lovis sat down on his chair and started thinking even more.

...

On the other side, Duke Fulvianus and the First Prince, Raguel Skyfall were sitting inside the room with solemn looks on their faces.

“Are you sure this is true?”

Raguel questioned.

“I checked it myself, it is 100% true.”

Fulvianus nodded.

After listening to the conversation between Raguel and Lucas from Raguel, he had the same thought as Amaya, and after some interrogation, he found out about the connection between Duke Merula and Duke Centho.

After that, it wasn't hard for him to figure out that Lucas was actually on Lovis's side.

Raguel stayed silent for a long time and then, a defeated smile appeared on his face.

“And here I thought that I would become the King.”

Seeing his reaction, the Duke frowned,

“Are you giving up?”

Raguel glanced at the Duke and questioned back,

“Does it look like I have any other options?”

3 out of 4 Dukes support that bastard, there is no way I would become the next King.

Cultivation, being the strongest of all the princes, none of this mattered, I never had a chance to win this battle from the start.”

Raguel replied with a dull look on his face.

“You cannot give up like this.”

Duke Fulvianus spoke with a strict look on his face.

“What can I do, the King will definitely choose the Third Brother.”

Raguel countered.

“That is only if the King has the chance to choose.”

The Duke replied with a cold, merciless look on his face.

Hearing those words, Raguel's eyes widened in surprise.

“A-Are we going to do what Consort Amaya suggested?”

He questioned.

“Does it look like we have any other option?”

The Duke questioned back.

Hearing that reply, Raguel's shocked look turned into a determined one and he commented.

“I think father has ruled for long enough.”

A cold smile appeared on the Duke's face.

“Indeed.”

The First Prince smiled as well.

He would become the King and no one in this world can stop him.

Not even his own father.

“Alright, I will contact my Brother.”

Duke Fulvianus spoke.

“Minister Gibson?”

Raguel questioned.

“Indeed, we would need his help and opinion if we want to organize a successful coup.”

Then, the smile on the Duke's face widened,

“I am sure he must have a lot of grievances against that Ricardus Bastard.”

Chapter 433.2

“So... you two plan to kill the King?”

Gibson Fulvianus, one of the four Ministers working directly under the King and older brother of Duke Thornton Fulvianus, questioned with a strange expression on his face.

Seeing his expression, Duke Thornton and Raguel frowned, this wasn't the reaction they were expecting.

They thought that Gibson would have a cruel and cunning smile on his face and would start giving different ideas on how to Kill the King in the cruelest ways possible. Well, if not this, then he might start dreaming about being the King's Grandfather and gaining an influence stronger than ever before, or maybe he would have some other reactions, however,

They never expected he would act so... calmly... even looking at them with a doubtful look on his face.

However, even after all that, Thornton didn't back down and nodded with a determined look on his face.

“Yes, we do plan to Kill the King.”

“Haahh...”

Hearing that answer, a big sigh escaped Gibson's mouth.

He glanced at Thornton with a disappointed look on his face and spoke.

“So let me get this straight, the Third Prince somehow has 3 Dukes supporting him, and the Odds that Raguel becomes the next King is close to zero.

Therefore, as a solution to this problem, you guys came up with a plan to get rid of the King before he crowns the Crown Prince and once that happens, Raguel, the oldest and the strongest would become the next King.

Correct?”

“Yes, that is correct.”

Thornton nodded again.

Gibson glanced at the two people sitting in front of him with an expression that looked like he was looking at the dumbest people in the entire world.

Seeing that reaction, Thornton’s frown deepened.

What happened? Why was his brother acting like that?

He tilted his head in confusion.

Gibson, who realized that his brother still did not understand what was wrong shook his head in disappointment.

“Thornton, I gave up on the Duke’s position because I believed that you would become an amazing leader, now I realized that father was right, you do not deserve to be the Duke.

I was wrong.”

Hearing those words, Thornton’s face turned cold.

“Don’t take that man’s name.”

He warned.

The person he hated the most in his life was his father.

A father who always underestimated him, a father who never valued him and always favored his older brother.

He was sick of his father.

He wanted nothing more than the death of his father.

Actually, if he had the chance, he would have stabbed his father on his own.

However, his father was not someone who could be fooled very easily, he would never show his back to him.

Never.

‘I will get that bastard someday.’

Thornton cursed inwardly.

“You must be thinking about getting rid of the father now, correct?”

Gibson guessed and Thornton’s eyes widened in surprise.

Gibson sighed again,

“Thornton, can you get any more foolish? Father is the only King Stage Cultivator backing us up, our house will be destroyed if something happened to him before the next King Stage Cultivator joins in.

You fool, when will you ever think about the consequences of your actions?

You want to Kill the King? Have you ever thought about the consequences?

What if the King survives, then what?

What if Lady Astaria returns and comes after us?

What will you do then?

You haven’t thought about it, have you?”

This time, Thornton couldn’t control himself and rebutted in rage.

“So what other option do we have!? There is no way Raguel would become the King if I don’t do anything! What? Should I just back down and let that Lovis become the next King!? Or do you have any better plan!?”

Gibson, however, didn’t lose control over his emotions and replied calmly.

“I do have a better plan.”

“Oh? Why don’t you enlighten us, brother?”

For more chapters, please visit

Thornton spoke sarcastically.

“Kill Lovis.”

Gibson answered without any change in his expression.

“!!!”

“!!!”

Hearing those words, Thornton’s and Raguel’s eyes widened in surprise.

“I do not understand, why would you go as far as contacting other Kingdom, lure Lady Astaris away, and then try to Kill the King? That bastard can only live for 30 more years, why not be patient?

Why not calm down and directly eliminate the source of all the problems?”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Thornton and Raguel turned silent.

Gibson continued.

“You two are worried about the King choosing Lovis as the next King and are willing to Kill the King before he does that. What kind of bullshit thinking is that? Why not just eliminate the man the King wishes to choose?”

Raguel and Thornton realized how thoughtless their plan actually was. Raguel, however, wasn't planning to hear an hour-long lecture and tried to retort,

“But... but...

But that Amaya told me to g- ...shit.”

However, he stopped midsentence.

He finally realized what happened.

Gibson heard his words as well.

“What were you saying? Amaya what? Are you talking about Consort Amaya?”

“...”

Raguel didn't answer.

“I asked you a question!”

Gibson raised his voice.

This was the first time he had done that ever since he came here.

“Raguel, tell me what you were saying. Amaya what?”

He questioned again, this time, his tone was a lot heavier than before, he wasn't requesting.

He was ordering.

His theory was clear, anything related to Amaya must be done with extreme caution.

If that woman is somehow involved, then something is definitely wrong with this situation.

Feeling overwhelmed by his Aura, Raguel gave in and answered,

“I had a talk with Consort Amaya a few days ago...”

Hearing those words, Gibson’s eyes widened in surprise.

“Why would you do something like that!? Didn’t I tell you not to go near that woman!?”

“I-I wanted to confirm something...”

Raguel lowered his head.

Gibson took a deep breath.

This was definitely bad.

Amaya was definitely involved with whatever is happening here. He was doubtful about how his little brother came up with such a ridiculous idea of going against the King, however, now he was sure.

It was that Bitch.

She must be manipulating him somehow.

Gibson shivered.

Going against that bitch... was the last thing he wanted to do...

However, he had to solve this mess.

That woman must have done it with thorough planning.

He needed to deal with this situation layer by layer.

“Tell me, Raguel, tell me everything from the start, and don’t you dare leave a single thing out.”

He spoke with a solemn expression.

Chapter 433.3

“Let’s assassinate Amaya Skyfall.”

Gibson spoke with a worried look on his face.

After hearing Raguel’s story, no matter how much he thought about it, he couldn’t understand what that woman was thinking.

There were too many things that simply doesn’t make any sense.

And since he couldn’t think what she was thinking, he decided it was better to just eliminate that cursed bitch.

“I would gladly get rid of that bitch if I can, but why right now? Shouldn’t we deal with Lovis first?”

Raguel questioned.

Gibson, however, shook his head,

“Amaya is a lot scarier than that little boy.

Look, we have no clue why she helped you in the first place, that must be where she started her manipulation.

The information she provided you was empty, she only told you about Duke Vestalis and Duke Merula, she didn’t talk about Duke Centho at all.”

“Is it possible that she did not know ab-”

“Trust me, if she was interested in the Dukes, there is no way she would not know about something like that.

She hid that information from you for a reason, as for what that reason is, I do not know.”

After a little pause, Gibson continued.

“Raguel, I believe that you were only a little pawn in her actual. Her actual goal was to reach Thornton through you.”

“Reach me? Why?”

Thornton questioned.

“Isn’t it obvious? She wants to Kill the King for some reason, that is why she manipulated you through Raguel. You almost did what she wanted, didn’t you?”

Gibson replied, Thornton frowned,

“But I don’t understand, what does Duke Centho has to do with all this? Why leave him out?”

Gibson shook his head,

“As I said, I do not know, however, if she did that, she must have a reason. I guess there must be some connection between the two of them.”

“Should we search for it?”

Duke questioned.

“You think you would find something? Thornton, you are dealing with Amaya Skyfall, the leader of Thousand Information Chamber, you would never find what she wants to hide from the World.

Trust me, if you find something that can actually be used against her, then you must have found it because she wanted you to find it.”

Gibson spoke with a solemn look on his face.

“Aren’t you mystifying her a little too much?

I don’t think she is as terrifying as you make her out to be.”

Raguel couldn't help but comment.

“Heh.”

Gibson just chuckled at his statement.

Seeing that he was underestimating him, Raguel frowned and after thinking for a while, a smile appeared on his face.

“Didn't you say she wants to kill the King? Why do you say that?”

“Didn't she say that to you? She was the one who planted the seed of a coup inside your head. I am sure about this, she wants to Kill the King.”

“Then why don't we just tell father about it, I am sure he will believe me and get rid of her. If there is one thing I know about father is that he is a coward, if someone threatens him, he would get rid of him or her as soon as possible.”

A winning smile appeared on Raguel's face.

‘Heh, it's not that hard to deal with that bitch, we just need to think a little.’

However, despite his seemingly perfect plan, Gibson wasn't impressed. Actually, he looked even more disappointed.

“See? I told you right? You shouldn't have talked with her.”

“Huh?”

Raguel frowned.

“Look, Amaya is a lot scarier than you think she is. She is not strong, however, the way she plays with people makes her a big threat. Do you think she would reveal her motive to you so easily?”

She would never do it unless she is sure that you cannot reveal it to anyone who could threaten her.”

“What do you mean?”

Raguel frowned.

“Why do you think Lovis hasn’t revealed that he has 3 Dukes supporting him until now?”

“Where did that come from?”

Raguel tilted his head in confusion.

“Just answer the question.

“Well... I don’t know.”

“He did that to protect himself. If the fact he is a man backed by the 3 Dukes is revealed, then he would be in danger since there would be people that would try to assassinate him in order to create chaos.”

Raguel frowned.

“It would be revealed sooner or later, what’s the problem?”

“Raguel, ‘The Crown Prince is backed by 3 Dukes’ is very than ‘The Third Prince is backed by 3 Dukes’ remember that.”

“Then why not just reveal it to the King and become the Crown Prince?”

“That would mean that he is too scared and desperate for the King’s Protection. Making him a bad heir.”

“...”

Raguel thought about it a little and understood, however, he still couldn’t understand one thing.

“What does it have to do with that Amaya?”

“Well, if you tell the King about Amaya, he would surely investigate and in one way or another, he would investigate the link between you and her, and soon, he would find out about the Dukes supporting Lovis.

Of course, that is the last thing we want and that is what Amaya is betting on.”

Gibson answered.

“...”

Raguel turned silent.

He didn't know if Amaya had thought that far or not, however, he certainly can't tell the King about her right now.

No one can know about the fact that Lovis is backed by 3 Dukes, especially the King.

However, he had to do something...

“So what should we do?”

He questioned.

“Look, Amaya tried to manipulate us, we can't let her get away from this. Also, we don't know what she is planning however, we do know that it is certainly not good for us. Therefore, getting rid of Amaya is the best-case scenario in this situation.”

“And you think that the all-knowing Amaya wouldn't have considered this?”

Raguel questioned and hearing those words, a cruel smile appeared on Gibson's face.

“She must have and I am sure she is depending on the Palace's security right now, however, what she doesn't know is that Palace's security is at all time low right now.”

“Huh? It is?”

Thornton frowned.

He didn't have any information about this.

“It is a top secret. The King is busy with something else, most of his men are working on it and only the Four Minsters know about this. Even Amaya won't know about this. This is a perfect opportunity.”

Gibson's eyes shined in delight.

“Alright, it is decided, we will get rid of Amaya Skyfall the day after tomorrow.”

Gibson declared.

“How about we add Lovis into the Equation as well?”

Thornton questioned.

Gibson frowned a little and after thinking about it, he nodded.

It was a little risky, but it was worth it.

“Add that bitch Evane as well.”

Raguel spoke.

If he was going to eliminate the competition, he was going to do it thoroughly.

He wouldn't let anyone become the King.

No one but him.

Chapter 434

“Add that bitch Evane as well.”

Raguel spoke with an evil smile on his face.

If he was going to eliminate the competition, he was going to do it thoroughly.

Gibson glanced at this Grandson of his and frowned.

“Why Evane?”

He questioned.

Hearing that question, a solemn look appeared on Raguel’s face and he replied,

“Her sudden return is too suspicious, she says that she doesn’t want the Throne, however, I still don’t trust her.”

“She can be the contender for the throne with her cultivation.”

Gibson nodded.

“However, if we kill her as well, then people might get suspicious of you.”

A cold smile appeared on Raguel’s face,

“It doesn’t matter if they get suspicious of me. As long as they don’t have enough proof, no one can do anything. Not even the Dowager.”

Hearing those words, a disdainful smile appeared on Gibson’s face.

“Heh. You are Ricardus’s son indeed.”

“Indeed.:

Thornton nodded with a similar smile on his face as well.

“Huh? What do you mean?”

Raguel questioned with a frown on his face.

“Nothing. Forget about it, we have more important issues to talk about.”

Gibson shook his head.

This wasn't something important right now.

Right now, they needed a plan.

“We can't send 3 separate Units to deal with 3 different people. 2 is already stretching it.”

Gibson spoke.

“How about we attack when Lovis and Evane are together?”

Raguel presented an Idea.

“That's not bad, but how will we know when the two of them will be together?”

Thornton questioned.

“Don't worry, I have a perfect way to arrange that.”

Raguel smiled.

“Oh? Do share.”

Gibson spoke with a curious look on his face.

Raguel smiled evilly and explained his plan,

“We will...”

The planning continued and the more they thought about it, the more confident they felt.

Raguel's path to the Throne will soon be clean and clear.

...

"Master Lovis."

Two days later, Leo, Lovis's butler walked into Lovis's room with a letter in his hand.

"Hmm? What is it, Leo?"

Lovis who had just come out of his Cultivation Chamber questioned.

"I believe you should see what it is."

Leo spoke while passing an envelope to Lovis.

Lovis frowned and took the envelope. He noticed that this letter was sent by Evane and seeing that, his frown deepened.

"Why is that bitch contacting me through a letter? Doesn't she know how risky it is?"

Lovis couldn't understand, however, he didn't have any other option.

He opened the letter and his frown deepened even further.

'If you want Duke Vestalis's support, come to my room at 1 in the morning. Of course, do it in secrecy.'

That was it.

There was nothing else written on the letter, no greeting, no name of the sender. However, with the stamp on the envelope and the letter, it was clear who the sender was.

“Why is she calling me so late in the night?”

Lovis couldn't understand.

“And what's with this threatening letter?”

The letter's meaning was clear, if you don't come, don't expect my Support from now on.

A clear threat.

Something Lovis never thought Evane would do.

However, after thinking about it, a smile appeared on Lovis's face.

“She's finally going to reveal her true face, huh.”

He muttered.

He was getting tired from playing this idiotic game. He tried a lot in these 2 days, however, he couldn't find anything out of ordinary about Evane.

Her life was so normal that he felt like someone was deliberately leading him to false information.

He had to admit.

Evane was indeed capable.

He realized that she was the actual threat to him, not Raguel.

Raguel was just an arrogant nobody after all.

“Alright Dear Sister, now that you have decided to come out of your shell, it is time for us to clash directly.”

A cold smile appeared on Lovis's face and he desperately waited for the sun to go down.

...

Lovis didn't have to wait for too long, the time passed by fairly quickly and in the middle of the night, he walked out of his room while covering his body with a black shawl.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

He knocked on Evane's door.

"..."

However, nobody answered.

Lovis frowned and knocked again.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Lovis knocked again.

"..."

But again, no one answered.

Annoyed, Lovis was about to answer, however, soon, she heard a hurried voice.

"Wait, I am coming."

Lovis paused and waited.

2 minutes later, Evane opened the door, and seeing her face, Lovis frowned.

Her face was a little red, her upper forehead and the region near her ears were wet, signifying that she has just wiped the sweat off her face, the dress she wore looked a little disorganized as well, signifying that she has worn it in hurry,

Seeing all this, Lovis couldn't understand,

“Wh-”

“Why are you here?”

Before Lovis could ask anything, Evane questioned.

“Is something bothering you? Are you okay? It is very unlike you to come here in the middle of the night. And what's with the Shawl? Are you hiding something?”

Evane continued to question with a worried look on her face.

Hearing all those questions, Lovis tilted his head in confusion.

Wasn't she the one who called him?

Why is she acting like this right now?

He couldn't understand.

Seeing that he wasn't answering, Evane frowned, her worry deepened, and then she pulled him into her room.

“Come inside first. Standing here will make us suspicious.”

Lovis was pulled inside, there, he could smell a faint, funny smell, however, before he could point it out, his eyes fell on another person.

“Why are you here?”

He questioned.

“I am her bodyguard, of course, I would be here. Else people like you might try to harm her.”

Nux replied with an annoyed look on his face.

Lovis shook his head.

Talking to a servant was not worth it, he just turned towards Evane and spoke bluntly.

“Sister, I need to sleep, so I would appreciate it if you don’t play any games with me.”

“Games?”

Evane frowned.

Seeing that she was hellbent on acting like that, Lovis just threw the letter at her.

“Here, you were the one who called me here, aren’t you? It even has your stamp on it. Now tell me, why did you call me here?”

Evane frowned, she quickly grabbed the letter, and soon, a solemn look appeared on her face.

“Lovis... I did not send this letter.

This Stamp is fake...”

Chapter 435

“Lovis... I did not send this letter.

This Stamp is fake...”

Evane spoke with a solemn look on her face.

“What?”

Lovis quickly snatched the letter and looked at the Stamp more carefully.

2 minutes later... he realized that what Evane said was true.

The Stamp was fake.

He didn't think about it before because the content of the letter contained classified information and was not something anybody would know.

‘Wait... is this one of her games?’

Lovis thought inwardly and glanced at Evane.

However, seeing the confused and worried look on her face.

He doubted that possibility.

Something was wrong.

The sender of this letter knew about such a piece of classified information, this was definitely not a harmless prank.

But why would the sender want him to meet Evane in the middle of the night? If he or she wanted to hurt him, then wouldn't it be better to call him somewhere more... isolated?

‘Unless... his target is not me but Evane as well?’

Lovis quickly came up with a conclusion and a shiver ran through his spine.

He was being targeted and he fell right into the enemy's trap!

He fell into panic.

'Both of us are Grand Master Stage Cultivators, they will surely send Exp-'

Suddenly, Lovis paused when his eyes fell on Evane.

Then, his eyes widened in surprise.

"You broke through!?"

"Huh?"

Evane frowned.

"What?"

"You are an Expert Stage Cultivator now!"

Lovis exclaimed in shock.

"Ahh... that, well, yea..."

Evane answered with a small blush on her face. Her eyes fell on Nux, however, they soon returned back to the ground.

She was definitely embarrassed.

Seeing that, Nux couldn't help but chuckle inwardly.

"She is indeed an Expert Stage Cultivator. Let me tell you, Third Prince, but Second Princess Cultivates very 'hard', trust me, I say this from first-hand experience."

He spoke with a playful smile on his face and Evane's face turned even redder.

“She goes wild~

Something you would not expect that innocent and pure nature.

I was quite surprised.”

Nux continued to give more information and Evane couldn't take it anymore.

“S-Stop! D-Don't say anything anymore!”

She ordered with a red face.

Nux felt that if he teased her a little more, smoke would start coming out of her head.

That was how embarrassed she looked.

‘Ahhh, she's so cute~’

Nux couldn't help but sigh inwardly.

Lovis, who couldn't understand the thing he said frowned.

‘Just what the hell is he talking about? Cultivating hard? Going wild? Does that mean all she does is cultivate?’

Why have I not heard anything about it?

Also, why is she getting embarrassed about something like this!?

Wait...

This isn't the time to think about all this.’

Lovis finally realized.

Evane becoming an Expert Stage Cultivator was a big disadvantage for him.

Now, 2 out of the initial 4 contenders were Expert Stage Cultivators!

This was not a piece of good news for him.

Raguel was alright, he was more than 120 years old, nearly double his age, him being stronger than him was normal and his strength will definitely not be the deciding factor in this battle for Throne.

Evane, however, was different.

She was only 20 years older than him.

Even though he was sure that he would also become an Expert Stage Cultivator in 20 years, he didn't think anyone would wait for that.

For more chapters, please visit

If he could only provide what Evane is capable of providing right now, then why would anyone wait for him?

The choice would be obvious.

Anyone with a sane mind would pick Evane!

'Wait...'

Suddenly, Lovis frowned.

'Doesn't she have Medium Level affinity with Fire Element? How in the hell did she manage to become an Expert Stage Cultivator!? Grand Master Stage should be her limit!

Just how!'

Lovis couldn't understand.

His eyes widened in shock.

His whole world was falling apart.

Soon, his eyes turned red as he glanced at Evane.

He was being played.

He was being played from the very start.

He finally realized what happened.

Why everything happened finally made sense now.

His biggest trump card, his unmatched talent, Evane had already taken it away from him.

However, that was not enough.

Evane wanted a sure-shot victory.

Therefore, she targeted his other cards.

First, she returned to the Palace.

Got close to him. Then, baiting him with ‘support of the Third Duke’ she made him write that cursed paper. Planted a seed of doubt inside that stupid fourth brother.

This would eventually take away Duke Centho’s support from him.

However, that was not it, Evane’s greed didn’t end there.

Who will Duke Centho support if not him?

That idiotic Lucas? Of course not.

He would choose someone else.

And that someone else would be none other than Evane, a woman who has a talent similar to him.

Not only that, even the Nobles following Duke Centho would support her.

Yes, within just a few days, Evane, who didn't have any support from any of the nobles except her own grandfather, would receive the support of 2 Dukes and many other nobles as well.

She was planning to take away everything he had built in all these years.

'You greedy bitch!'

Lovis roared inwardly.

He never thought his sister would be so devious!

'Huh? What happened to him?'

Nux, who was looking at Lovis's expression frowned in confusion.

He was fine when he entered before, wasn't he?

Just what happened?

Why did he look so... angry?

Was he planning something?

Why was he here in the first place?

Nux finally realized.

He was here to blue ball him.

Fucking bastard!

Nux wanted nothing more than to kill this bastard.

He knocked right when he was about to cum.

'Fuuckkk! Lovis you bitch!'

Nux cursed inwardly.

‘Nux.’

Suddenly, Nux heard a voice.

‘Hmm? Amaya? What happened?’

Nux questioned with a frown on his face.

‘I am surrounded by 5 assassins.’

Amaya replied in a calm voice.

“WHAT!?”

Nux, however, was not as calm as she was and questioned out loud.

“What happened?”

Seeing him shout like this, Evane questioned in worry.

Chapter 436

Just like any other night, Amaya was lying on her bed, her body was covered by Black colored Mist and even though her eyes were wide open, she didn't move an inch.

In front of her face, there was a black colored Mist. Or that is how anyone looking from afar would see it as. However, if someone glanced at this mist from Amaya's angle, they would see a portrait of a man's face.

There was a silly smile on Amaya's face while she continued to make changes to the portrait before bringing it back to normal.

'As I expected, if his nose was any sharper, it wouldn't look good at all. He is perfect the way he is.'

Amaya noted and then continued to enlarge Nux's eyes.

'Nope, that won't do either. I need to try something else.'

Yes, believe it or not, that was how Amaya passed most of her time.

Thinking about Nux.

She was beyond crazy at this point.

*Step*

While Amaya was enjoying her time, suddenly, her expression changed.

Without wasting any other second, she activated her [Sense] and soon, she noticed 5 men walking toward her room.

She frowned, then, she increased her Mana output, widened her search range just to be sure, and once she was sure there was no one else, she informed Nux.

‘Nux, I am surrounded by 5 assassins.’

She didn’t receive any response from another side, however, Amaya was still calm.

‘You don’t have to worry too much, also, don’t shout out loud, I can’t hear you that way. Talk to me through connection.’

‘Are you okay? Do you need my help!?’

She soon received her answer.

A small smile appeared on Amaya’s face and at the same time, those 5 Assassins walked into her room, 3 through the door and 2 through the window.

They had blocked all her escape routes and even though they had covered their faces, Amaya could tell that they were smiling at her.

‘Don’t worry, there is only 1 Expert Stage Cultivator and 4 Grand Master Stage Cultivators, I can deal with them alone.’

‘You carry on with your session with Evane, I will not give my time to her.’

‘Hmph, don’t even talk about it. That Bastard Lovis interrupted us.’

Nux snorted. Hearing the assassins’ cultivation, he calmed down.

Amaya can handle those idiots with ease.

‘Hmm? Are you guys being attacked as well?’

Amaya questioned.

‘No, we are not being attacked. It seems that someone send some sort of letter to this Lovis using Evane’s stamp, this idiot fell for it and came here.’

Nux informed.

‘Nux... use your [Sense].’

Amaya spoke.

‘I know, I have used it already, other than Lovis’s Butler, no one else is around us.’

Nux answered.

‘What about the servants?’

Amaya questioned.

‘...’

Nux paused and then a minute later, he spoke while scratching the back of his head.

‘Well, I guess we are going to be attacked as well.’

‘Raguel is pretty bold.’

Amaya spoke.

‘Well, it is a good chance, is it not? We should thank him.’

Nux smiled as he glanced at Lovis.

Amaya chuckled.

“Hmmm? Does she not realize that she is in danger?”

One of the assassins surrounding Amaya questioned with a disdainful smile on his face.

“It’s not like she can do anything, can she? She can’t move, remember?”

Another assassin answered.

“But she can still react, can’t she? I heard that she can talk even if she is in this condition.”

The first assassin replied.

“You really want to hear my voice, don’t you?”

Amaya smiled.

The assassin was taken back by the smile on her face and soon, he sighed,

“I can’t believe that they are making me kill a beauty like you, Lady Amaya. Trust me, I feel so bad, however, I can’t go against them, I need to feed myself, after all.”

Amaya just laughed lightly.

“Don’t worry, no hard feelings.”

“I knew you were different than other women, Lady Amaya. If only you could be my woman, even though you are cursed, I would have treasured you with all my heart.”

The assassin replied.

“Can you fulfill my last wish though?”

“What is it?”

“I want to know why I am dying, who ordered it?”

Hearing that question, the assassin sighed,

“Lady Amaya, I am sure you already know how things work in our field. I can’t tell you about it.”

“Well, you people don’t really talk to your target like you are doing either, now do you?”

Amaya smiled.

“Haah! You got me there.”

The assassin smiled.

“Alright, I will fulfill your last wish, Duke Vestalis sent us here.”

“Hmmm.”

Amaya nodded her head.

“You had already guessed it, hadn’t you?”

The assassins questioned.

“I had a rough idea.”

Amaya nodded.

“You are amazing indeed.”

The assassin nodded.

“Though I would like to ask, how did you know it was Duke Vestalis? It could have been any other Duke as well. Duke Merula for example.

I mean, sorry to say this, Lady Amaya, but you aren’t exactly liked by any of the Dukes.”

“They have terrible taste.”

Amaya replied.

“They do, indeed.” The assassin nodded.

“As for your answer, well, it’s simple really, Lovis and Evane are currently being attacked, and Lucas is... well, Lucas, completely useless, so I don’t think Duke Merula will do anything risky for that boy, he stands no chance to win the throne, after all. Why take such a huge risk?

The only one left is Raguel, the first Prince, so it had to be Duke Vestalis.” Amaya generously explained.

Hearing those words, the assassin nodded. “Now that I hear this from you, it does make a lot of sense, you are indeed the most intelligent woman in this Kingdom, lady Amaya. Even a muscle brain like me understood what you just said.”

Amaya nodded back with a smile.

The assassin continued to nod as well, however, suddenly, he paused.

He then turned towards Amaya and questioned with a solemn look on his face.

“How did you know that Sir Lovis and Lady Evane are being attacked?”

Chapter 437

“How did you know that Sir Lovis and Lady Evane are being attacked?”

The assassin questioned and hearing that question, the other assassins' expressions changed as well.

They all alerted themselves and started looking around with cautious looks on their faces.

With their years of experience, they could feel it.

Something was about to happen.

Seeing their reaction, Amaya smiled.

“You know...” She called out, “I must say, you have a lot to learn as an assassin. You should never talk to your target like you did now, what if your target was planning something and was just stalling for time?” She questioned.

This time, however, the assassin wasn't playing around, “Answer my question, how did you know that Sir Lovis and Lady Evane are being attacked?” He repeated his question as he pointed his dagger at Amaya.

Initially, Amaya wasn't a threat, a woman who couldn't even move, what could possibly go wrong when someone like her was his target? She couldn't even defend herself. Therefore, he was relaxed and started talking.

A mistake, but it wasn't fatal. Even assassins want to indulge a little.

However, the assassin finally realized that something was wrong. He wanted to correct himself and quickly shot his dagger at Amaya, trying to pierce her heart in one move.

However, things didn't go as he planned.

The dagger he thought would directly pierce Amaya's heart without any problems was caught,

It was caught by Amaya herself.

“!!!”

The assassin's eyes widened in surprise.

“You can move!?”

He questioned in shock.

Seeing his face, Amaya's smile widened, and then, she stood up.

“I must say, Duke Vestalis sending a mere Expert Stage Cultivator and 4 Grand Master Stage Cultivators to kill me, a King Stage Cultivator is quite disrespectful.

Shouldn't he at least send around 10 King Stage Cultivators?”

'10 King Stage Cultivators my ass! Where do you think he would find those from!? Even he himself is only an Expert Stage Cultivator!'

The assassin thought inwardly.

However, this wasn't something he should worry about right now.

Amaya was moving.

That Black Mist was still surrounding her, meaning the Curse was still active. This was unheard of.

Suddenly, another idea popped into her mind and he commanded.

“Don't be scared, remember, she can't use her cultivation! Just kill her, she is just trying to put up a strong front, don't fall for it, and just kill her!”

The other assassins, who were just as confused and afraid as he was came out of their reverie and nodded.

Their leader's words made sense.

The 4 of them looked at each other and nodded, however, just as they were about to attack Amaya, they noticed that she was looking at them with a smile on her face and then,

The Mist covering her body moved and rushed towards them.

The assassins tried to dodge it, however, as if it had eyes, the Mist followed behind them, and soon, it surrounded their body.

“Ugghhhh!!”

The assassins groaned in pain.

“W-What is this!?”

One of them shouted in panic.

“It is eating my Mana!”

Another assassin shouted in horror.

“Push it out of your body! Don't block it! Push it out! Don't let it stay inside for long!”

An assassin spoke.

Hearing that, Amaya smiled and clapped.

“You figured it out, congratulations. You are much smarter than I thought you were. Here, as you prize,

I will increase the difficulty.”

*Whoosh*

A second later, more Devouring Mist was released from her body and rushed toward the four assassins.

The assassins, who were barely resisting the mist were now completely surrounded now.

“Captain! Save us!”

“Uggh! Keep this thing away from me!”

“Captain!!”

The assassins shouted in fear.

The leader of the assassin, the Expert Stage Cultivator, the one who was talking with Amaya looked at him with a shocked look on his face.

“H-H-How are you doing this?”

“Doing what?” Amaya questioned.

“Y-Your curse! How are you controlling it!?”

The assassin raised his voice.

Amaya smiled, “You think I am a fool like you? Why would I reveal any information to you?”

“Yo-”

The assassin wanted to say something, however, before he could, another assassin interrupted.

“You can talk to her later! Save us first!”

The assassin finally came out of his reverie and rushed towards Amaya, however, suddenly, Amaya, who was standing right in front of him disappeared.

The Assassin looked around in caution and soon, he heard a voice.

“It was nice talking to you, Cervic.”

Before he could react, his throat was slit open, and then he heard Amaya’s voice again.

“Also, don’t bite more than you can chew, I would never be your woman. I already belong to someone else. Know your place, Cervic Malfoy.”

“H-H-Hkow do you knhow mky name?” Cervic, the assassin questioned, however, since his throat was being clogged by his own blood, his words weren’t clear.

Amaya just smiled at him, he soon felt all his energy leaving his body.

He turned around and noticed that all his subordinates were lying on the floor, motionless.

He didn’t know if they were dead or alive, however, he knew that they would die soon. The Black Mist was still surrounding their bodies.

In his last moment, his eyes fell on Amaya again, and seeing how she was just sitting on the bed, looking at him with a curious look on her face while that scary Black Mist was dancing in her hands, he could only think of one thing,

‘Fucking monster...’

Cervic finally took his last breath and closed his eyes.

Amaya smiled, then, the Mist on the top of her hand moved and covered Cervic’s body.

She then waited for another 10 minutes, the Devouring Mist not only devoured the assassins’ mana and inner organs, it even devoured their bones, muscles, skin, and everything else.

Other than their Spatial Ring, their entire body was devoured by the Devouring Mist.

Amaya stood up, picked the Space Rings, stored them in her pockets, and then smiled.

‘I should start my act now.

Are you guys ready?’

‘Whatever.’

Thyra replied.

Amaya’s smile widened, a dagger then appeared in her hand, and then,

*Pierce*

She pierced it into her thigh.

Chapter 438

“Who’s there!?”

In the middle of the night, a guard questioned as he noticed a figure trying to run out of the Palace.

The figure, however, the figure didn’t stop and continued to run away.

Its speed was not high, it was only comparable to a mortal, however, the guard was still wary since it was the middle of the night.

“Jimmy! Come here!”

He shouted and called for his partner.

His partner, who was patrolling on the other side rushed towards him.

“What happened?” the partner questioned.

The guard pointed at the figure who was still running away, the partner’s eyes turned solemn and he ordered,

“We need to capture him.”

The guard nodded and the two of them dashed toward the figure.

The two of them were Advance Stage Cultivators, for someone like them, catching up to a mortal was a simple task.

A minute later, they already appeared in front of her figure, however, as soon as they saw the figure’s face, their eyes widened in surprise.

“L-Lady Amaya!?”

Jimmy questioned in shock.

Seeing the guard, a relieved look appeared on Amaya's face,

“Thank God... I finally found someone...”

Amaya sighed deeply.

However, soon, her expression changed.

“Shit, you are only Advance Stage Cultivators!”

The Guards frowned, confused, and before they had any more time to think, Amaya ordered.

“Look, you two have to run away else you will die as well. Remember, Raguél Skyfall, the First Prince is the one behind this attack. You need to expose him! Now run!”

Saying those words, Amaya passed them and started running away.

The guards frowned in confusion, they didn't know what was happening, however, they knew it was serious.

Confused, the two of them did what Amaya ordered them to and started following her. Jimmy then noticed the blood that was coming out of Amaya's thigh and his eyes then finally fell on the dagger that was pierced into her thighs.

“!!!” His eyes widened in surprise.

“Lad-”

He wanted to question about it, however, Amaya quickly turned around and shouted.

“You fools, why are you running after me!? Go in the opposite direction, get out of here! They will come here soon! You cannot get caught by them! Remember what I told you and run away!”

The two guards finally realized what was happening.

It was apparent after seeing that dagger pierced into Amaya's thighs.

Consort Amaya was being attacked, she was trying to escape.

However, the two guards doubted that she could get away in her state.

"Lady Amaya, we can help yo-"

Jimmy spoke, however, he was again cut off by Amaya.

"They all are Grand Master Stage Cultivators, you wouldn't be able to do anything! Just run, I will survive... somehow, you two just run away!"

Saying that, Amaya turned away again.

"G-G-Grand Master."

The two guards stood there in shock.

They knew it well, they would never be able to go against Grand Master Stage Cultivators. The two of them looked at each other and nodded.

They ran away.

They respected Lady Amaya and whatever, however, they were still unwilling to die uselessly for her. She was going to die anyway, what's the point of them dying with her?

They should at least save their lives.

With this thought in their mind, the two of them ran away as fast as possible.

*Step* *Step* *Step*

A minute later, the two of them heard a few footsteps, they turned around and noticed 5 figures wearing black colored clothes rushing towards the direction Amaya ran into at an absurd speed.

“Don’t let her get away, follow the blood trail. That bitch won’t get away this time.”

The one who was running at the front spoke.

The Gurads’ eyes widened in surprise and the two of them hid behind a tree.

“Haah... Haa... Haa...”

2 minutes later, when the guards were sure that the assailants had gone after Consort Amaya, the two of them breathed heavily.

Even though they haven’t done anything, they could feel their heart pumping erratically.

It may not look like it, but the two of them had just survived a life-and-death situation.

If the assailants had noticed them, they would have died today.

“L-Lady Amaya saved us...”

Jimmy spoke with a tired voice.

“She did indeed...”

The other guard, Adam, nodded back.

“But she...”

Jimmy wanted to say something, however, he didn’t.

Adam understood what he wanted to say and a guilty look appeared on his face.

“Do you think she got caught?”

Adam questioned.

“No doubt about that,” Jimmy replied.

“But she is Consort Amaya, do you think she would get caught like that?” Adam still had some hope.

“She might have ran away in normal conditions, considering how intelligent she is, however, that blood trial... it would give her away. In the end, she is just a mortal, how could she escape the pursuit of 5 Grand Master Stage Cultivators?

Also, keep in mind, she can only run for two hours.”

“Her curse...” Adam realized.

“Indeed, her curse would act up in 2 hours, there is no way she would be able to run away after that. Though I don’t think she would be able to dodge her assailants for so long, even if she did, two hours later, she would definitely get caught.” Jimmy spoke.

“...” Adam turned silent.

“...” Jimmy didn’t say anything either.

“What should we do about it?” Adam questioned.

“About what?” Jimmy questioned back.

Adam glanced at Jimmy for a while and then answered,

“We know who sent those assassins after Consort Amaya, it was the First Prince, she told us to expose him, but who should we tell this to?”

Jimmy turned silent and after thinking for a few minutes, he sighed,

“No one.”

“What?” Adam frowned.

“If you want to stay alive, then bury this secret with you. Consort Amaya is already dead, who do you think would protect us for the sake of the dead?” Jimmy questioned.

“B-But she gave up her life to save us!” Adam countered.

“She didn’t, they were after her in the first place, she didn’t do anything for us. Now keep your mouth shut, otherwise, not only you, but your entire family would die a gruesome death.”

Chapter 439

On the other side, Amaya, who was running away from her assailants, finally managed to run out of the Palace, there were around 10 guards who saw her running away like that, however, the moment they learned about the situation, all of them backed off and ran away.

Of course, Amaya didn't fail to tell them who the culprit was.

She told that to everybody.

Her idea was simple, some might chicken out of this situation, but everybody couldn't possibly be the same, can he?

“Heh, to think you managed to run this far, praiseworthy indeed.”

While Amaya was still running, she heard a voice from her behind.

She quickly turned around and saw that 5 beings wearing black colored clothes were standing in front of her.

“However, this is the end, Amaya Skyfall.”

The leader of the assassins muttered.

Seeing them, Amaya sighed, all the energy left her body and she fell down.

“Are you giving up?”

The leader of the assassins questioned with a smile.

“Alright, this is enough, don't get too involved in it. I am actually tired, running with a dagger pierced into my thigh, it's a lot more painful than I thought.” Amaya sighed and at the same time, she removed the dagger from her thigh.

“Ugghh!”

She groaned in pain, covering the wound with her hand, and with her other hand, she drank a healing potion.

The leader of the assassins looked at her for a while and then, she sighed as well.

She walked towards Amaya and crouched.

“I can’t believe you pierced your own thigh.”

Thyra spoke while tending to Amaya’s wound.

“I can do anything for him. This is nothing.”

Amaya spoke with a smile on her face.

Thyra glanced at Amaya and smiled,

“This is why I acknowledge you. You are willing to go so far for him, just like me.”

The two of them looked at each other for a while and then,

“I am not into women, I only belong to him.”

Amaya clarified.

“I have the same thoughts.”

Thyra nodded as well.

She then continued to tend to Amaya’s wound and then, Amaya questioned.

“Did you bring what I told you to?”

Thyra didn’t say anything, she just pointed at the woman behind her.

Three stepped forward and nodded.

Soon, a body appeared on the floor.

“He was assaulting a woman.”

Three informed.

“Ah, perfect.”

Amaya smiled and ordered.

“Slit his throat, make sure a lot of blood drops on the ground.”

Three did what she was told and slit the man’s throat.

Amaya then waited for a few seconds, letting the blood fall on the ground and once she was satisfied, she pointed at the tree nearby and ordered,

“Drag him to that tree and burn his body.”

Three nodded, then she turned towards the people behind him.

“Ugghh! Why should I do it?”

Two complained.

“You have a problem?”

Three narrowed her eyes.

Two raised his hands in the air and stepped back.

“Alright, I will do it.”

He and the other assassin dragged the body to the tree and then burned it.

15 minutes later, nothing but ashes were left.

After that was done, Amaya ordered,

“Now erase all the traces within 1 minute.”

“Are you sure?” Thyra questioned.

“Just trust me.” Amaya smiled.

Thyra shrugged and waved her hands.

The other assassins nodded and 4 assassins started removing all the blood trail quickly, they even mixed the ashes with the mud in the ground and erased all the footsteps they could find.

Once this was done, Amaya smiled.

“Now we just need to wait for Nux.”

“Mhm.”

Thyra nodded.

...

On the other side, inside Evane’s room,

“WHAT!?” Nux shouted in shock.

“What happened?” Evane rushed towards Nux with a worried look on her face.

For Nux to act like this, something bad must have happened. She quickly forgot that her brother was there and waited for Nux’s answer, Nux, however, didn’t answer.

Evane quickly realized that he was using the telepathic connection to talk to someone and decided to wait.

Lovis, who saw this scene frowned.

Wasn't he just a bodyguard? Evane's Servant?

Why does he look like a leader?

What is this situation?

Can a servant just randomly shout like this in the middle of the night?

And even his Sister, why was she acting like this? Why is she so worried about a mere servant?

'Wait... something is not right... that bitch took too much time to open the door, her face looks like she just wiped all the sweat, while her dress looks like she wore it in hurry...'

Lovis started connecting all the dots.

However, before he could come to a conclusion, Nux called out.

"Hey, Third Prince."

"Huh? What?"

Lovis came out of his reverie.

"You should call your butler inside."

"Huh? What are you talking about? I have not brought him here. Why would I bring him, I just came her-"

"You don't have to come up with any excuses, I know that butler is outside, call him in," Nux spoke.

"Are you doubting my words?" Lovis narrowed his eyes.

"Just call him in, it would be too late to regret if you don't." Nux wasn't the least bit intimidated by his gaze and spoke nonchalantly.

Lovis frowned, "Are you threatening me?"

Nux sighed, “I am not threatening you, you fool. We will be surrounded soon, call him in, he would be of help.”

“Huh?” Lovis frowned.

“Why do you think someone would go as far as to write a fake letter to call you here? Just because you brother and sister can have a nice little chat?”

Nux didn’t need to explain more, Lovis understood, and with a serious look on his face, he ordered,

“Leo, come in.”

As if waiting for this order, the butler walked into the room with a frown on his face.

“Hmm, 2 Expert Stage Cultivators, 4 Grand Master Stage Cultivators... I think we have a fair chance in this battle.”

Nux muttered.

“Are you a fool? We only have 2 Grand Master Stage Cultivators. Me and you.” Lovis snorted.

“I know that, of course.” Nux nodded with a confused look on his face.

“Why did you say 4 Grand Master Stage Cultivators then?”

“I was talking about the enemies, you dumb fuck.”

Chapter 440

“I was talking about the enemies, you dumb fuck.”

Nux snorted.

Lovis narrowed his eyes and retorted, “Who do you think you are talking to? If you forgot, then let me remind you, you are just a servant, a servant I can get rid of any time I want. Know your place, insect.”

Nux glanced at Lovis and just smiled, “Ahh, I am so scared. Third Prince Lovis is using his trump card, his status, to threaten me again. What could I possibly do when he sends 100 King Stage Cultivators to hunt me down.”

He then rushed towards Evane and hugged her from behind,

“Lady Evaneeee, I am so scaaaarred. Save meeee~”

Evane, of course, didn't mind being hugged by Nux, however, Lovis couldn't help but widen his eyes in shock,

“You bastard! Get away from he-”

However, before he could say anything, the doors of the room were burst opened and 6 assassins wearing black colored clothes entered.”

“Oh, they are here.”

Nux spoke with a smile on his face.

The assassins raised their eyebrows when they saw Nux hugging Evane from behind, however, in the end, they didn't care about anything.

Unlike the assassins who were after Amaya, these assassins didn't waste their time and directly attacked.

‘What are you doing? Isn’t dealing with all of them a simple task for you? Why aren’t you fighting?’

Seeing that Nux had no intentions of moving, Evane questioned.

‘If you get into a dangerous situation, I would help.’ Nux replied.

‘Isn’t this situation dangerous already!?’ Evane questioned again.

‘Heh, it’s not nearly dangerous... for you.’

Evane narrowed her eyes, ‘For me?’

‘I am not planning to save that bastard, I’ll only save you.’ Nux revealed.

‘You can’t do this!’ Evane eyes widened in surprise and she dismissed.

‘Well, he is your brother, isn’t he? Save him then. I’ll only act like a normal Grand Master Stage Cultivator.’ Nux shrugged.

Evane couldn’t believe what she was hearing. She turned and looked at Nux with a shocked look on her face, however, Nux just pointed behind her with a smile on his face.

Evane quickly turned around and blocked the attack of the Expert Stage Assassin.

Collecting all her strength, she pushed the assassin away, and then, she ordered,

“Leo, you fight that Expert Stage Assassin, Lovis, go after the Grand Master Stage Assassin and try to get rid of him as soon as possible! And Nux... you go and fight that Grand Master Stage Assassin.”

“What about the remaining assassins!?”

Lovis questioned.

A determined look appeared on Evane’s face and she spoke,

“I’ll take care of them.”

Saying those words, a red-orange colored sword appeared in her hand and she dashed toward the Expert Stage Assassin.

*Clank*

The assassin’s dagger and Evane’s sword clashed, from the clash, it looked like the two of them had the same level of strength, however, suddenly,

*Whoosh*

Scorching Flames covered Evane’s sword, the assassin could feel that heat burning his hand, and his grip on his weapon weakened. The assassin didn’t panic, he decided to bear the heat, however, he soon realized that his 4 Star Dagger was being affected by Evane’s sword.

For more chapters, please visit

There was already a 1 cm long cut on the blade!

If this continued, his dagger would break in the middle of the battle! He had to do something!

Using this moment of confusion, Evane slashed her sword, due to the sudden force, the assassin stepped back, and Evane quickly rushed towards the assassin and slashed at his neck.

The assassin blocked her attack with all his might, soon, however, he felt a scorching pain in his lower body.

He lowered his head and noticed a grievous cut on both his thighs. The skin around this cut was burned and the more it was exposed to air, the more it hurt.

‘When!?’

He couldn’t understand. Evane never aimed at his thighs, just how did she...

He soon realized.

Her sword.

He didn't know what tier it was, however, it was definitely not her 4 Stage Sword that was written on the information.

‘Just where did she get that ridiculous sword from!?’

He wondered inwardly.

Evane, however, didn't care about what he was thinking, seeing this chance, she just kicked his chest. Due to the immense force behind the kick, the assassin's body flew away.

Evane then turned around, another, red-black sword appeared in her hand and she rushed towards the two Grand Master Stage Assassins who were about to attack Leo and Lovis.

‘She has another!?’

The Expert Stage Assassin who fell down couldn't believe his eyes.

He wondered where these weapons came from, however, he realized that he didn't have the time. There is no way the other assassins would be able to fight Evane, he had to get up and fight again.

However, just as he tried to get up, he lost his balance and fell down.

His wound was more serious than he thought.

In the end, the only thing he could do was drink a Healing Potion and tend to his wound.

“Ugghh!!”

He groaned in pain and frustration and gulped an entire Potion in one go.

On the other side, Evane fought against 2 Grand Master Assassins alone, she knew she didn't have much time, the Expert Stage Assassin would get back soon.

At best, she only had one minute, therefore, she decided to inject more Mana into her Swords, and the Flames around her two swords increased.

With just one slash, she cut an Assassin's body into two, while the other had to sacrifice his entire arm from his shoulder in order to stay alive.

“Haah... haa... haahh...”

Evane took deep breaths.

She had used almost all her Mana she was left with in this attack, however, she knew it hasn't ended yet.

She rushed towards the assassin who was still shivering in pain and attacked. The assassin blocked the attack with his dagger. Evane didn't stop and continued to attack ruthlessly.

The assassin, who had already lost his major arm couldn't stand more, and soon, Evane beheaded him.

Evane's hands trembled.

This was the first time she had killed someone.

Seeing the blood flowing around in her room, she wanted to throw up.

Seeing her just standing there, the Expert Stage assassin, who was still tending to her wound had another idea.

Chapter 441

Seeing her just standing there, the Expert Stage assassin, who was still tending to her wound had another idea.

A 3 Star Crossbow appeared in his hand, then another bottle appeared in his other hand, he spilled the content of that bottle on his Crossbow's arrow, then without wasting any moment, he shot at Evane.

On the other side, Nux, who was fighting against a Grand Master Stage Cultivator was in a tough situation.

This Grand Master Stage Assassin was really strong, he was dominating the entire battle and,

*Clank*

This time, when their daggers clashed, Nux's dagger flew away.

“Oh, how careless of me.”

Nux slapped his forehead lightly and dodged the assassin's blade.

Another dagger appeared in his hand and he continued this difficult battle.

*Clank*

His dagger that flew away clashed with the arrow that the Expert Stage Assassin had shot toward Evane.

‘Huh!? What!?’

The Expert Stage Assassin's eyes widened in surprise.

His attack failed, Evane, who was clearly lost in something would have been attacked, however, this dagger just appeared out of nowhere and deflected his arrow!

Just how lucky can one get!?

The assassin couldn't believe it.

Can this get any worse!?

He wondered inwardly and soon, he received his answer.

Yes, it can.

Evane, who was lost in her thoughts came out of her reverie when she heard the sound of the dagger and arrow clashing. She turned around and then, her eyes fell on the assassin.

'Fuck me.'

The assassin cursed himself, the wound on his thighs still hurt like hell. He knew that he still couldn't stand yet.

However, with Evane looking at him like that, he knew it was the end.

In the end, he just glared at the assassin who was fighting with Nux and cursed all his generations in his mind.

Evane didn't waste any time either, she dashed toward the assassin and beheaded his head.

With how her hands were trembling, it was clear that she wasn't feeling well, Nux realized this as well, however, he knew he had to give her the time to figure everything out.

He can't help her with this.

Their path was never clean, they needed to stain their hands with blood.

Initially, he wanted to avoid getting blood in his women's hands, however, Ember and Thyra continued to press him, telling him how important it was.

In the end, his other women, even Evane agreed and he nodded as well.

His women had to grow as well.

And after this incident, he knew that Evane would grow as well.

Therefore, he just continued his ‘difficult’ fight and didn’t help her.

“Haahh... Haa... Haa...”

Evane breathed heavily.

After using almost all her Mana, she was very tired.

She was sure that if it wasn’t for the Body Cultivation that she has been practicing for a while, she would have already fallen down.

“SISTER! If you are done then come help me! This bastard is a Peak Grand Master Stage Cultivator!”

Suddenly, Evane heard Lovis’s call for help.

For more chapters, please visit

She quickly turned around and as soon as she did, her eyes widened in surprise.

Lovis’s entire body was covered with wounds.

The wounds weren’t fatal, however, with how things looked, if someone didn’t help him, he would die!

He was barely holding on against this assassin.

Actually, for Lovis, who had become a Grand Master Stage Cultivator not so long ago, it was already a great feat to fight against this assassin for so long.

However, in the end, there was only so far he could go with his strength. The difference between him and the assassin was absolute.

A worried look appeared on Evane's face, she then glanced at Nux, however, seeing that he was still fighting against that Assassin, she realized that he wasn't planning to help. In the end, she had to do it all by herself.

With a determined look on her face, she tightened the grip around her swords, and just as she was about to dash towards Lovis and the Assassin, she heard Nux's voice.

'You can't inject more Mana into those swords, you would pass out in the middle of the battle.'

Evane paused and glanced at swords.

These were 7 Star Swords that Nux had gifted her. It was ridiculously overpowered, Nux even said that its attack power was the strongest amongst all the 7 Star Swords, however, along with that, its Mana consumption was ridiculously high as well.

Therefore, Evane had to be careful with these swords.

Her second sword disappeared, and then, she dashed toward her brother.

Her body felt like it was 10 times heavier than normal, however, she still attacked the assassin with all her might.

The assassin dodged her attack.

He panicked when Evane appeared before him like that, however, as soon as he looked at Evane's posture, he realized that she was very tired.

His smile widened, although he was outnumbered, one of his opponents was covered with wounds, while the other was tired.

He couldn't see himself losing this battle.

With a confident smile on his face, he dashed toward Evane and Lovis at the same time.

“Aaaahhhh!!”

Lovis slashed his sword at the assassin, but the assassin simply blocked his attack, and at the same time, he kicked Evane’s stomach.

“Cough!”

Evane was forced back and coughed a few times.

The assassin took his chance and aimed at Lovis’s neck, Evane’s eyes widened in shock, and she quickly dashed towards Lovis and blocked the assassin’s attack.

Lovis took this chance and aimed at the assassin’s thigh.

The assassin, however, attacked Lovis’s face with his knee, Lovis stepped back and covered his nose.

The assassin then focused on Evane and started attacking.

With each attack, it was getting more and more difficult for Evane to block those attacks.

She was waiting for Lovis to attack the assassin, however, after more time passed, she frowned.

She turned around and noticed that Lovis was still standing behind her, covering his nose.

“What are you doing!? Attack him!”

She shouted.

“You are an Expert Stage Cultivator, can’t you take out a mere Grand Master Stage Cultivator!?”

Lovis complained.

Hearing his words, Nux narrowed his eyes.

He could see what was going on inside Lovis's mind, actually, he had predicted something like this already, in the end, he just shook his head and decided to give Lovis a chance, just like Evane wanted him to.

“Lovis, keep in mind, if Evane dies, you will be killed next. You two need to work together if you want to win this battle.”

Chapter 442

“Lovis, keep in mind, if Evane dies, you will be killed next. You two need to work together if you want to win this battle.”

Nux spoke in a calm tone.

Lovis glanced at Nux, seeing that he was still fighting against the Assassin, an angry look appeared on his face.

“Talk after you defeat that assassin first! You useless bastard, you couldn’t even defeat a single assassin, what right do you have to order me around!?”

After saying those words, he turned towards Evane and the assassin he was fighting again, he could see that Evane was being pushed back.

‘If Evane is killed, you will be next.’

He then remembered Nux’s words.

“Uggghhhh!!”

With a long groan, he dashed toward the assassin and attacked him.

“Good!”

Evane praised.

Lovis forced out a smile and the two of them started attacking the assassin again.

Even though he was fighting against 2 opponents, the assassin wasn’t pushed back, Evane’s attacks were getting weaker and weaker, and Lovis was the same too, the assassin knew that as more time passes, his victory would be much clearer.

However, the assassin couldn't waste any more time.

His partner, who was fighting against Leo was in a disadvantageous position, he had to help him before he is defeated.

The assassin fighting Nux was in a strange situation where even though he had a clear advantage, he failed to land a single blow on his opponent. He didn't know when he would get rid of Nux and will be free.

Therefore, everything depended on him.

With that thought in his mind, the assassin attacked Evane with more force than normal, Evane, who didn't expect that was pushed back, and taking this opportunity, the assassin attacked Lovis with full force.

“AAAGGghhhhhHHh!!”

Lovis shrieked in pain. Looking down, he noticed a huge cut on his chest with blood coming out continuously.

Lovis panicked and completely forgot about his opponent who was right in front of him.

Seeing this chance, the assassin's eyes shined and he attacked again, this time, he aimed at Lovis's neck.

“NOO! LOVIS!!”

Evane shouted in fear and panic.

Flames burned around her sword again and she dashed toward the assassin.

The Assassin frowned and decided to block, the Flames surrounding Evane's sword turned even fiercer and she slashed her sword at the assassin.

“Aggghhhhh!!!”

Evane's sword tore through the assassin's 3 Star Dagger and slashed his chest.

A wound similar to Lovis's appeared on the assassin's chest, however, Evane did not stop.

“AAhhh!”

With another roar, she appeared in front of the assassin and beheaded him.

*Clank*

Evane used her sword as support and stood up.

“Haahh... Hahh... Haahh...”

Her face was pale, her entire body was drenched in sweat, her limbs were trembling and she was breathing heavily, it was clear she had already used every ounce of her Mana.

How was she still standing up, no one knew.

Lovis, who was standing behind Evane couldn't help but widen his eyes, his sister defeated 3 Grand Master Stage Assassins and 1 Expert Stage Assassin on her own.

How ridiculous is that!? How is she so strong!?

Leo was an Expert Stage Cultivator as well, however, even though he is still fighting his enemy and although he had an advantage, he still hasn't defeated him.

Lovis knew that the cultivation, more difficult it is to kill the opponent of the same Cultivation, then, how, just how did his sister defeat his opponent so quickly?

Lovis was confused, terrified, and impressed.

He momentarily forgot about his pain and looked around.

For more chapters, please visit

Leo was winning, he would defeat his opponent soon, Nux was still fighting against the Grand Master Stage Assassin, he and Evane were now free, however, both of them were too tired to help anyone.

After analyzing everything, Lovis concluded that he was now safe.

He had survived this dangerous situation.

His eyes then fell on the person responsible for his safety and a small, genuine smile appeared on his face.

“Sister...”

He called out and even though his wound was still bleeding and it was unbearable and painful, he still walked towards her.

Evane, who heard his voice, smiled,

“Don’t worry, everything is fin-”

Before Evane could even say anything, Lovis had already taken out a dagger and was about to pierce him.

The tired Evane couldn’t possibly block this attack, this attack was too sudden, and in truth, Evane was too shocked to even respond to this attack.

‘No...’

Evane muttered in shock. She couldn’t believe that she was going to die at the hands of the brother she trusted.

Soon, however, Lovis’s expression changed.

The wide smile on his face was replaced by a frown, he then turned a little and his eyes widened in surprise.

Evane turned her head and saw Nux standing beside her, holding Lovis’s hand with an emotionless look on his face.

“H-H-How!?”

Lovis’s eyes widened in shock!

He glanced at the place where he was fighting against the assassin and only found that assassin, lying on the ground, lifeless.

“When did you...”

Lovis couldn’t believe his eyes.

Nux, however, didn’t bother to reply, he just turned towards Evane and spoke,

“You believe me now, don’t you? You nearly sacrificed your life to protect him and this bastard still tried to stab you from behind.”

“ ... ”

Evane didn’t know what to say.

“Evane,”

Nux called with a serious look on his face.

Evane looked into his eyes.

“I have to do this. I am sorry.” Nux spoke.

“Wha-”

Evane frowned, however, before she could react, Nux pierced Lovis’s stomach with his own dagger.

“Ugghhh!!”

Lovis’s eyes widened in surprise.

“NUX!”

Evane shouted in worry and tried to rush toward Lovis, however, Nux grabbed her from behind and narrowed his eyes.

“He tried to kill you, Evane.”

“B-But-”

“He is still my brother, I know, don’t give me that bullshit. He is your brother who tried to kill you, that is even worse than these assassins.”

Nux spoke in a serious tone.

“Look, Evane, I didn’t say anything before because I didn’t have any solid proof, but if you still try to defend him,

Then you disappoint me.”

Chapter 443

“Look, Evane, I didn’t say anything before because I didn’t have any solid proof, but if you still try to defend him,

Then you disappoint me.”

Nux spoke with a solemn look on his face.

“Ugghhhhh!”

On the other side, Lovis, who was pierced by his dagger fell down and his body stopped moving.

Seeing him like that, Nux narrowed his eyes even further.

“His dagger was laced with paralyzing poison, heh, he was completely prepared to get rid of you.”

“...”

Again, Evane didn’t say anything, she just looked at Lovis, who was lying on the ground with a lost look on her face.

Lovis, who noticed her gaze pleaded for mercy with his eyes, however, seeing that she wasn’t responding, he turned towards Nux.

Nux, however, didn’t care about him, he just lifted the limitation on his Cultivation and appeared before Leo and the assassin fighting him, with just one slash, he beheaded the assassin.

“!!!”

Lovis’s eyes widened in surprise. ‘King Stage Cultivator!’

“K-King Stage Cultivator!!”

Leo had the same reaction as his Master.

“Y-You are a King Stage Cultivator!”

He pointed at Nux and screamed in fear.

“Why are you posing as her servant!?”

Leo couldn't understand.

“You don't have to know that. Just answer my question,

What are you going to do?

Are you going to stay loyal to your Master and die? Or are you going to become my Slave?”

Nux questioned and Leo didn't know how to respond.

“I do not have all day, Leo.”

Nux spoke.

“...”

Leo stayed silent and a few seconds later,

“Aaaahhhh!!”

He rushed towards Nux with a dagger in his hand.

“Well, option 1 it is.”

Nux shrugged and then, he beheaded Leo.

He then turned towards Lovis to finish everything, however, a frown appeared on his face when he saw Evane standing next to Lovis and Lovis was looking at him with a boastful look in his eyes.

Lovis had realized that Nux wouldn't move against him as long as his sister was willing to protect him and seeing that his sister was standing right next to him, he was sure that he was saved now.

Actually, he was thankful to his sister, even though he was trying to backstab her, she still stood up for her.

Maybe his sister was not a bitch like he thought she wa-

**Pierce**

Suddenly, Lovis's eyes widened in surprise.

He looked below and saw a red colored sword piercing his neck. Since his whole body was paralyzed, he didn't feel any pain, however, he could feel his life draining away slowly.

With a panicked look on his face, he turned towards his sister and saw her holding the sword that had pierced his neck.

'Y-You b-bitch...'

He cursed in his head.

He couldn't believe that his Sister, who was protecting her with her life on the line was the one who killed him.

This time, however, he wasn't the only one who was surprised, Nux, who was looking at everything was the same as well.

'She... She killed him?'

He continued to look at Evane with a lost look on his face.

Evane glanced at him and a second later, tears started rolling out of her eyes.

Nux walked towards Evane and placed her head on his chest.

“It’s all fine, don’t worry, you did the right thing.”

More tears started streaming out of Evane’s eyes, Nux continued to pat her head and soon, Evane passed out.

Nux carried her like a princess and then glanced at Lovis.

‘I didn’t think you would kill him.

You are stronger than I thought, Evane.’

With a small smile on his face, Nux walked out of the room.

Just like that, a long night finally ended.

...

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

The next day, Kelton walked towards Amaya’s room and knocked.

“ ... ”

However, he didn’t receive any answer.

Kelton frowned,

“Lady Amaya.”

He called out and knocked again.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

“ ... ”

But again, no one answered.

Kelton waited for a while and continued to knock, however, 10 minutes later, when no one answered, a worried look appeared on his face and he decided to barge in.

He tried opening the door but he then realized that the door was locked.

A solemn look appeared on Amaya's face.

Ever since Amaya's 'Curse' had gone out of control, she had stopped locking the doors.

Something was definitely not right.

Kelton realized it, therefore, without waiting, he smashed the door open and barged inside Amaya's room.

"Lady Amaya?"

He called out.

"..."

Again, he didn't receive any answer.

'Is she not here?'

Kelton wondered in his head, soon, however, his eyes widened in surprise.

There was blood!

He quickly rushed and crouched near the blood, then he noticed the trail going toward the window.

Missing Amaya, blood inside her room, something was definitely wrong.

Kelton panicked, he followed the blood trail and opened the window.

His eyes then fell on the blood on the ground and he assumed the worse possibility.

With a determined look on his face, he rushed out of Amaya's room and rushed towards the King's room.

“Stop!”

However, there, he was stopped by the guards.

“I need to talk to the king! Something happened!”

Kelton shouted.

“The King is busy, he cannot talk to anyone right now.”

The Guard shook his head.

“This is important!” Kelton didn't back down.

The Guard, however, shook his head again. “As I said, the King is busy, no matter how important it is, come later.”

“Lady Amaya is missing, there is blood inside her room, I assume that she was attacked last night! I need to talk to the King, we need to search for her if she is still alive! We also need to catch the culprit!”

Kelton described everything.

Hearing his words, the guard frowned,

“What? Lady Amaya was attacked as well?”

“Of course she is, do you think I am lying to y- Wait, as well? What do you mean?”

Kelton questioned.

“Princess Evane and Prince Lovis were attacked last night and,

Prince Lovis didn't survive.”

The Guard revealed.

Chapter 444

“So you are saying that the Emperor of the Solid Earth Kingdom has broken the Treaty and is now involving himself with the country politics and is even harming other Countries?”

“Yes, that is correct. That is why I came here to talk to you. I wouldn't have bothered you otherwise, but with Emperor involved, you are the only one I can come to.”

Ricardus, the King of the Strongest Kingdom, replied as he bowed his head with a respectful look on his face.

In front of her, sat a woman wearing a red-black gown, the woman had long black hair, brown eyes, a thin nose, and light pink lips, the woman had an alluring hourglass figure and a beautiful face, however, her sword-like eyebrows and cold eyes didn't allow anyone to appreciate her beauty.

The woman had a fierce aura around her that commanded absolute obedience, her intimidating aura didn't allow anyone to look directly at her face or her body, the only available option was to bow your head while addressing her.

Even the King of the Strongest Kingdom wasn't an exception.

She was Astaria Skyfall. The Strongest Cultivator in this world and the sole reason why the Skyfall Kingdom stood out as the Strongest Cultivator even though it was ruled by an incompetent King.

(Picture)

“I seek your assistance, Lady Astaria.”

Ricardus spoke in a respectful tone.

His, words, however, did not bring any change to Astaria's expressionless face,

“I do not know what games are you trying to play, Ricardus. Just know that I won't be playing any of this stupid game with you.

Leave.”

“But-”

Ricardus tried to argue, however, he turned silent when Astaria raised her hand.

With her sharp eyes, Astaria glanced at Ricardus, the King stepped back out of instincts and Astaria questioned.

“How do you know that the Emperor of the Solid Earth Kingdom is moving? What is your source?”

“I have not come to you without any proof, Lady Astaria,”

Ricardus then told her about the recent events where Solid Earth Kingdom, the supposedly weakest Kingdom defeated the Woods Dynasty one-sidedly. He also told her about how Ember, the General of the Woods Dynasty left the Dynasty.

“General Ember was not a Coward, Lady Astaria. If she left, there must be a reason, however, when I brought up this topic while talking to the Dynast of the Wood Dynasty, he tried to change the topic.

His behavior was strange, therefore, I decided to investigate.

I had some people sneak into Woods Army, my people then had a talk with Deputy General named Lawrence, he was General Ember's closest subordinate.

Thinking that he would know why General Ember left, I sent my subordinate to talk to him.

He told me that General Ember found out how the Emperor of the Solid Earth Kingdom was involving himself in this war, she reported this to the Dynast and asked for his assistance, however, the Dynast refused, forcing her to leave.”

The King reported everything.

“And the random Deputy General knew about the existence of an Emperor? You think I am a fool?”

Astaria narrowed her eyes.

“He was not a random Deputy General, he was General Ember’s clo-”

Ricardus tried to argue, however, again, Astaria raised her hand and ordered, “Enough.

An Emperor will never move unless his or her country is in danger.

Come to me when you actually see the Emperor with your own eyes.

Don’t be fooled by any random Grand Master Stage Cultivator.

Now Leave.”

After saying those words, Astaria closed her eyes, signaling that she would not hear anything else.

Ricardus didn’t know what to do...

‘I would die if I see him with my own eyes...’

He thought inwardly, however, he knew saying anything else was useless, therefore, he decided to walk out and think of something else.

‘I need solid proof.’

With that thought in mind, he walked out of Astaria's room.

However, as soon as he walked out of the room, Keeve, who was waiting for him outside bowed his head.

“Your Highness, this is bad.”

“What happened?”

Ricardus frowned, it was very unusual for Keeve to act like this.

“Third Prince Lovis was assassinated! The Suspects are Second Princess Evane!”

“WHAT!?”

Ricardus's eyes widened in surprise.

Inside Astaria's room, Astaria, who had closed her eyes, opened them again when she heard Keeve's words. She sneered.

“Killing her own Brother, heh, Ricardus, I expected nothing less from your children.”

Then, her eyes shined with curiosity,

“I would like to see how you would handle things, Ricardus.”

Saying those words, Astaria stood up.

Yes, she had decided to come out.

Astaria walked out of her room, seeing her coming out, Ricardus and Keeve's eyes widened in surprise, Keeve quickly fell on his knee and greeted her respectfully.

“Dowager.”

Astaria, however, narrowed her eyes, hatred was clear in her eyes.

“Do not call me that.”

Keeve momentarily glanced at Ricardus and then greeted her again,

“Lady Astaria.”

“Much better.”

Astaria nodded her head, she then turned her head towards Ricardus and questioned with a curious look on her face,

“I heard your daughter killed your son, how are you going to punish her, Ricardus? I am sure, you, as a just king already have thought about this, haven't you?”

“Lady Astaria, Evane is just a suspect right now, we don't know if she is actually the Killer or not.”

Keeve spoke up as well, “That is correct, Lady Astaria. Although she is the prime suspect, that is only because the two of them were together last night when they were attacked.

To be honest, she is more of a victim than a suspect.”

A frown appeared on Astaria's face.

“They were attacked?”

“Yes, we have found 6 assassins' bodies in Second Princess's room, the room where The Third Prince and Second Princess were in last night.”

Keeve reported.

“6 Assassins entered the Royal Palace and attacked Second Princess and Third Prince?”

Astaria raised her eyebrows.

Ricardus turned away.

“Lady Astaria, we needed our men to investigate the Solid Earth Kingdom and Woods Dynasty, therefore, the Palace’s defense was compensated.”

Hearing that, Astaria sneered,

“They really found a perfect time to attack, didn’t they?”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Keeve and Ricardus didn’t say anything.

“Call the Second Princess, I need to talk to her.”

Astaria ordered.

Chapter 445

“Reeve, you have to help me.”

On the other hand, Kelton, who was already panicked because of Amaya’s sudden disappearance, decided to talk to Reeve.

Just like Keeve, Reeve was one of the leaders of the Shadow Unit that is loyal only to the King. He was also a King Stage Cultivator and unlike Keeve, who involved himself in different matters and even takes missions from the King, Reeve’s only responsibility was to protect the King.

In others’ eyes, Keeve was the King’s strongest subordinate, however, in truth, Reeve was even stronger than Keeve, he just didn’t show himself in front.

Not many people knew about him, even the Ministers of the Royal Palace didn’t.

Kelton, however, was of course different than others, as Amaya’s subordinate, he knew many things that normal people didn’t know.

“I owed you a favor, that is why I came here when you called me, however, what you are asking is impossible, as you know, other than the King’s security, I do not handle anything, Keeve does.

However, even if you ask him, I can assure you that he wouldn’t be able to help you much.

You have to know, Kelton, A Prince has died.

We need to find the culprit as soon as we can, I am sorry to say this, but we cannot waste our time on Consort Amaya.

And you know Consort Amaya, do you not? This whole blood in her room and her being missing might be one of her normal plays.”

“It is not!”

Kelton, however, was sure.

“You have to believe me, this is not a play, Lady Amaya is actually missing! She might be in danger!”

Reeve shook his head.

“I cannot do anything, Kelton. Lady Amaya is just a consort, Prince Lovis is the Third Prince, someone who could have very well become the next King of the Kingdom. We need to investigate this first, only after this investigation is completed would we shift to Consort Amaya.”

Kelton clenched his fist in anger.

In the end, he didn't say anything and turned around.

With a determined look on his face, he decided.

‘I will investigate everything on my own.’

With this thought in his mind, he returned to Amaya's room.

He then saw the blood trail and walked towards the window. Then, he jumped out.

After looking around a little, he noticed more blood on the ground.

A large splatter.

Obviously from the impact of jumping out of the window.

‘It was most probably Lady Amaya.’

Kelton thought inwardly and followed the blood trail again.

While following the Blood Trail, he soon appeared in front of Palace Waals, there, he noticed a bloody handprint on the edge of the wall.

‘She was trying to climb up.’

Kelton noted.

He did what Amaya did and climbed, then, he jumped out of the Royal Palace.

Many soldiers noticed him doing all this, however, he didn’t care.

Nothing else mattered.

He could already imagine what had happened.

Lady Amaya was attacked by the assassins, the assassins underestimated her because she couldn’t move, however, luckily, Lady Amaya must have gained her hours of freedom right when she was attacked.

Then somehow, she must have stopped her opponents, and using this chance, she must have run away.

However, while doing all that, she was injured and bleeding, the assassin didn’t even give her a chance to drink a healing potion and continued to chase after her.

Just thinking about all this made him boil in rage.

Kelton then looked around, trying to find the blood trail, however, this time, he was not able to find anything.

He frowned,

‘Was she caught here?’

However, he then shook his head.

‘If she was caught here, there should have been more marks on the walls, not just a simple handprint.’

Kelton thought inwardly and started looking around again, in the second search he finally realized why he couldn't see any more blood.

The trail was wiped out.

If it was someone else, they would be out of options, however, Kelton decided to follow this 'wiped out trail', it was a little difficult, however, for someone like him, it wasn't that hard.

Kelton followed the trail and after walking for a while, he noticed that the signs of wiping away were too strong on the ground. He frowned, then, he crouched and started digging.

He didn't need to dig for long, 2 seconds later, red sand appeared.

Kelton's face turned solemn.

For the sand to get red, the blood fallen on this ground must have been too much and it must have been fresh.

Kelton looked around and his face turned even more solemn when he noticed that there was no more blood trail after this. Not even the 'wiping out' marks were there.

Lots of blood, no more blood trails,

This could only mean one thing,

There was a high probability that Lady Amaya was captured here.

Kelton looked around, trying to find something that would go against his assumption, however, his eyes then fell on a tree.

The sand under that tree was a bit strange.

Kelton rushed towards the tree and started digging the sand, soon, the sand turned black.

Something was burned here.

Kelton's entire body trembled.

He assumed the worst-case scenario.

However, somewhere in his mind, he hoped that he was wrong.

To fulfill that hope, he had to investigate more.

Soon, a few documents appeared in his hand, he didn't waste any time, he sat on the ground and started searching through the documents.

5 minutes later, he finally found what he was looking for.

Night Guard's schedule.

He started searching and soon, he figured out the names of the guards who might have seen Lady Amaya last night.

Soon, more documents appeared in front of him and he started skimming through them.

An hour later, Kelton already had the addresses of all the guards and the next moment, he had already rushed towards the first guard's house.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

He knocked on the guard's door aggressively.

A few seconds later, a woman opened the door,

“Yes?”

“Is Jimmy Decker inside?”

Kelton questioned.

“Yes, who are you?”

The woman answered.

“I need to talk to him.”

Chapter 446

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

A guard knocked on Evane's new room, her last room was currently under investigation, also, with all that blood flowing around, Evane didn't wish to stay there a second longer, therefore, a new room was arranged for her.

"Come in."

A few seconds later, the guard heard Evane's order, he then walked into her room and saw Evane sitting on her chair with an expressionless face, and beside her stood her mysterious bodyguard. The guard didn't really care about anything and after a respectful bow, he told why he was there,

"Second Princess, the Dowager summons you to the Royal Hall."

Without any change in her expression, Evane nodded and,

"I will be there soon. You can leave."

The Guard nodded, and after another bow, he left.

"Heh, she is finally out."

Evane smiled.

Nux narrowed her eyes, "You know that you do not have to go, right?"

"Do I really have any other option? The Dowager herself has summoned me, plus, don't you wish to meet her as well?"

"I do wish to meet her, however, you are much more important to me right now. As long as you are not completely fine, I do not wish to do anything." Nux was honest.

Evane chuckled, “I am fine, don’t worry.”

Nux didn’t know what to say.

Yesterday night was too much for Evane, she had seen too much blood, she killed a human for the first time in her life, she was betrayed by the brother she trusted so much, and worse of all, she killed her brother with her own hands.

There is no way she wasn’t affected by it.

However, Evane continued to act as if nothing happened, and this worried Nux.

He talked about this with his wives, however, they didn’t have any solution. Even Amaya didn’t say anything.

Evane has to deal with it on her own.

This was the only thing they said.

“So? Do you want to come with me?”

While Nux was busy thinking about all this, Evane questioned.

“There is a high chance that she will see through your cultivation if you come.” Evane continued.

“I know.”

Seeing that she was still not talking about last night and was trying to avoid it, Nux did the same.

He will give her the time she needs.

Thinking about that, Nux continued,

“She will probably figure out my actual cultivation, however, this is the best chance for me to observe her as well. I can’t use [Conceal] around her, getting caught while sneaking around is much more dangerous than directly meeting her.

I am willing to take this risk.”

“Alright then, follow me, my bodyguard~”

A playful smile appeared on Evane’s face.

Although he didn’t like that forced smile on Evane’s face, Nux still smiled back,

“As you command, Second Princess.”

Evane started walking, and Nux followed behind her. While walking, a serious look appeared on Evane’s face and she questioned,

“You remember what happened yesterday, correct?”

“Mhm, don’t worry.”

Nux nodded.

Evane nodded back and then, the two of them entered the Royal Hall.

This was Nux’s first time here, he looked around with a curious look on his face, first, his eyes fell on the 4 ministers sitting on either side of the Throne, however, they all were only Expert Stage Cultivators, he wasn’t trying to be overconfident, however, for the current him, Expert Stage wasn’t worth mentioning, therefore, he ignored them and then his eyes fell on the King,

[Name: Ricardus Skyfall.]

[Age: 231]

[Mana Cultivation: King.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal.]

[Race: Human]

[Occupation: The King of the Skyfall Kingdom]

...

‘Hmm, nothing special.’

That was Nux’s first thought. He then looked around and then his eyes fell on Keeve,

‘Ah, I have seen him before.’

Nux recalled, he continued to look around, he saw there were 10 members of the Shadow Unit in this Hall, 3 of them, including Keeve, were King Stage Cultivators and the rest were all Expert Stage Cultivators.

Seeing this, a smile appeared on Nux's face,

'The Royal Family is stronger than I thought.'

If anyone heard how strong the Shadow Unit actually is, they would simply tremble from fear, Nux, however, was different. Even if all these come at him together, he was sure that he could deal with them.

However, he also knew that this wasn't the Royal Family's main power.

The interesting thing to note was that the King was not sitting on the Throne.

He was sitting on the seat below the Throne.

On the Throne sat a black-haired woman that had a suffocating aura around her.

The moment Nux's eyes fell on the woman, his danger senses kicked in, this woman was dangerous, and he could feel it.

He didn't need [Eye Of Discerning] to tell who she was.

She was Astaria Skyfall, the strongest being in this world.

Nux took a deep breath, his golden eyes then shined and soon, Astaria's information appeared in front of him.

[Name: Astaria Skyfall.]

[Age: 318]

[Mana Cultivation: Emperor.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal.]

[Race: Human]

[Occupation: Dowager of the Skyfall Kingdom.]

[Talent: Exceptional]

[LVL: 70]

‘Huh? What?’

Nux frowned.

‘That’s it?’

He couldn’t understand.

Why couldn’t he see anything?

Name, Age, Cultivation, Race, Occupation, Talent, and Level?

Why is there only irrelevant information? Where is the rest?

What about her MP, her HP, her STR, her main stats? Why couldn’t he see them?

What happened?

“Hmmm?”

While Nux was busy analyzing her, Astaria, who wanted to meet Evane quickly ignored her as her eyes fell on someone much more interesting than whatever was going on here.

Yes, her eyes fell on Nux.

And soon, a question popped up in her mind.

“Second Princess Evane.”

She called out.

“Y-Yes, Dowager.”

Evane replied.

If it was any other situation, Astaria would have frowned and would have told Evane not to call her that, however, right now, she wasn't even actually looking at Evane.

With her eyes still stuck on Nux, she questioned.

“Why is a King Stage Cultivator following you as your servant?”

Chapter 447

“Why is a King Stage Cultivator following you as your servant?”

“Huh!?”

“WHAT!?”

Hearing that question, the Four Ministers, the King, and the Members of the Shadow Unit widened their eyes in surprise.

“King Stage!? Isn’t he just a Grand Master Stage Cultivator!?”

The King couldn’t control himself and questioned.

Astaria, however, completely ignored him and continued to observe Nux with a curious look on her face.

Nux, who was still trying to figure out why his System wasn’t showing Astaria’s status properly quickly came out of his reverie when he felt Astaria’s gaze piercing his entire body as if it was a sharp arrow.

Unconsciously, he stepped back.

‘Maybe coming here was not as good of an idea as I thought it was...’

Nux was even regretting it a little now.

However, unlike him, Astaria was enjoying this a lot.

After so many decades, she finally found something worthwhile, Nux was like the most delicious chicken in her eyes.

“You are hiding too many secrets, boy.”

Astaria commented.

“ ... ”

Nux didn't say anything and continued to look at her.

Seeing her looking at him like that, he felt that he couldn't hide anything from those sharp, intimidating eyes,

“Tell me, boy, why is a King Stage Cultivator like you following a mere Expert Stage Cultivator like a servant?”

Astaria questioned.

“ ... ”

Nux, however, didn't answer.

Astaria frowned, however, she didn't mind, she had way too many questions in her mind, and Nux will obviously answer one of them,

Right?

“How did you hide your Cultivation from everyone? Why am I the only one who can see through your real Cultivation?”

“ ... ”

Again, Nux didn't answer.

There were too many people around.

Also, Astaria wasn't exactly an ally.

“How old are you boy? I am sure you are not any older than 50, but I still want to know your exact age.”

Astaria asked another question.

“WHAT!?”

“A less than 50-year-old King Stage Cultivator!? What kind of absurd talent is that!?”

The others present in the Royal Hall received another shock.

Nux on the other hand, was now actually regretting his decision of coming here.

His Cultivation was alright, but how did she determine his age? Also, shouldn't she focus on Lovis who was killed by assassins? What about the missing Consort that was most probably assassinated?

Aren't there many more important topics to talk about other than a normal servant?

Nux realized it.

He was too careless. He should have waited for a better opportunity to use [Eye of Discerning] on an Emperor Stage Cultivator,

Not that it actually helped with anything at all.

A complete waste.

“You aren't really answering any of my questions, boy.”

Suddenly, Astaria commented, she then narrowed her eyes and questioned.

“Do you think I won't do anything even if you ignore me like that?”

Suddenly, the calm and silent atmosphere turned heavy, and everyone could feel a suffocating aura around them.

*Cough*

Suddenly, Nux coughed blood.

“NUX!”

Evane shouted in worry, however, just as she was about to rush toward him, she realized that she couldn't move.

Something was restricting her movement.

On the other hand, Nux felt as if a whole mountain was placed on her head, trying to crush him, forcing him to kneel, Nux, however, didn't kneel.

He glanced at Astaria who was looking at him with a curious look on her face, a sword appeared in his hand, he pierced his sword into the floor and using it as a support, he continued to stand and glanced at Astaria.

Seeing this, a smile appeared on Astaria's face. She placed her right leg on top of her left and smiled,

Suddenly, the pressure around Nux increased dramatically,

His eyes widened in surprise and,

*Crack* *Crack*

“AGGghhhhhh!!”

He howled in pain.

Both his left and right leg bones were broken, and his body was trembling in pain, however, he still continued to stand.

Impressed, Astaria tried to increase the pressure, however, suddenly, Evane appeared in front of Nux and glared at Astaria.

“You do not have any right to hurt my man!”

She shouted in rage.

Astaria frowned.

How did she break through her restriction?

Was she too focused on the boy that she completely forgot about this girl?

Ah, that must be it.

“Hmm? Right? Why would I need something like that?”

Astaria smiled and then suddenly, she narrowed her eyes,

“And talking about right, what right do you have to question what I am doing?”

“As the next ruler of this Kingdom, I have the right to question anything I want.”

Evane didn't back down and spoke in a determined tone.

Her words not only surprised the King and the Ministers but even Nux.

“Hoh? The next Ruler? From what I have heard, the Crown Prince hasn't been announced yet, what makes you so sure that you will become the next Ruler of this Kingdom?”

Astaria questioned with a curious look on her face.

“Do you have any other options besides me?”

Evane questioned back.

“What? Are you going to choose a man who hired assassins to get rid of his own brother and sister?”

“What do you mean?” Astaria narrowed her eyes.

“It was Raguel, the First Prince who sent assassins to kill me and Lovis,” Evane replied.

“Do you have any proof to support your argument?” Astaria questioned.

“There were no servants around my room when I was attacked, this means that the attack was preplanned. Not only that, the attack was planned by someone who has the power to move servants around the Palace.

Who do you think has that much power? It was obviously a Duke.

Duke Centho, Duke Vestalis, and Duke Merula have no reason, the only one left is Duke Fulvianus.

Who has connections to Duke Fulvianus? It is the First Prince.

Who will have the most to gain if I and Lovis are killed? It is the First Prince.”

Then, a letter appeared in Evane’s hand,

“Not only that, Lovis received this letter with my fake stamp on it, calling him into my room in the middle of the night. If I was the one who sent this message, why would I use a fake stamp? It was clearly sent by the killer.

The First Prince has the power and influence to pull all this off, not only that, but he also has the motive,

The Culprit has to be the First Prince.”

Chapter 448 - Sounds Like You Really Loved Your Brother.

“The Culprit has to be the First Prince.”

Evane spoke with a confident look on her face and at the same time, she supported Nux and gave him a Healing Potion.

Hearing her words, Astaria chuckled,

“Did you really think you could skip the main part so easily?”

Evane’s face turned solemn, and Nux had a similar reaction.

‘Shit.’

He cursed inwardly.

‘Get ready.’

He then heard Evane’s solemn voice.

His eyes then fell on Evane and he noticed that she had turned her back towards him, making it easier for him to stab her from behind.

Of course, he was still reluctant to do so.

And as if she had sensed it, Evane spoke,

‘We have already talked about this Nux. You will run away the moment something is wrong.’

‘Yes, I know.’

Nux nodded.

‘Then get ready.’

Evane spoke.

Nux then clenched his fist and just as he was about to take out his dagger from his storage ring, Astaria spoke.

” ‘Duke Centho, Duke Vestalis, and Duke Merula have no reason, the only one left is Duke Fulvianus,’ this is what you said, did you really think that giving out more proves against the First Prince would bury your statement?’”

“Huh?”

This time, Evane frowned in confusion.

“This cheap trick will not work, Evane. Explain yourself.

Duke Merula and Duke Vestalis I understand, they are yours and the Third Prince’s and your Grandfathers, but what is stopping Duke Centho to attack you two?”

Astaria questioned.

‘Ah, so that’s what she was talking about.’

Nux and Evane sighed in relief, a serious look then appeared on Evane’s face and she continued with her script.

“Duke Centho and Duke Merula already had a deal. Rather than supporting Lucas, who did not have a very high chance of sitting on the Throne, Duke Centho decided to support Lovis. It doesn’t make sense for him to go after someone who carries all his hopes.”

Hearing her words, the Ministers and King frowned and glanced at Ministers from Centho and Merula families, the two ministers, however, didn’t show any reactions. Presley Merula, however, glanced at Evane and wondered inwardly,

‘How does she know about that?’

Astaria wasn't a least bit interested in the Ministers, she just questioned Evane.

“And do you have any proof of your claim?”

“Of course not. There is no way Duke Merula and Duke Centho would allow me to keep the proof for something so confidential, this matter was related to Lovis's life after all.

However, I am sure if you investigate on your own name, you will definitely find something.”

Evane replied.

“Alright, let's assume that what you say is true, doesn't this practically ensure Lovis's position as the next King of the Kingdom? This is definitely something that would bother you, wouldn't it?

What if you were the one who killed him?”

Astaria questioned.

“I wouldn't have made it so obvious if I wanted to kill him.”

“What do you mean?”

“Why would I use a fake stamp? Although it didn't, however, there was a very high chance that Lovis might realize that the stamp is fake and might not come, I wouldn't take such a stupid risk after arranging everything.

Also, I never said I wanted to be the ruler. Rather, I wanted to support Lovis, I even talked with my Grandfather, although the talks were yet to be concluded.”

“WHAT!?”

“Then the Third Prince would have had 3 Dukes supporting him! Who could have defeated him!?”

The people in the hall couldn't control themselves and exclaimed out loud.

Astaria, however, remained calm,

“Are you saying that you do not wish to become the next ruler?”

“At first, yes, I did not.”

Evane nodded.

“At first?” Astaria raised her brow.

“After my brother was assassinated, I made up my mind. No matter what happens, I would not let that Raguel sit on the Throne.”

Evane spoke with a solemn look on her face, her solemn look then turned into an angry one and she clenched her fist.

“He killed my brother for the Throne, now I will take that Throne away from him.

I know that Lucas is not suitable to be the next king, therefore, as the only eligible heir, I had to step forward.”

Then, a chilling smile appeared on Evane's face and she commented.

“I can definitely sacrifice this much in order to get my revenge.”

“...”

The King narrowed his eyes,

‘You want to Throne for you petty Revenge?’

He wanted to ask, however, he knew that right now, he couldn't ask anything.

Astaria was in control right now.

“Sounds like you really loved your brother.”

“...”

For a while, Evane didn't say anything.

Many scenes played in her mind, scenes where she and Lovis played together as children, the scenes where the two of them drank together, the scenes where the two of them laughed together, however, soon, that scene was replaced by the scene where Nux grabbed Lovis's hand that was about to stab a poisonous dagger in her back.

Her eyes glistened up, however, she then took a deep breath and an emotionless look appeared on her face,

“Yes, I did. He and I were close.”

Astaria completely ignored all the changes in Evane's expression and only focused on her words. In truth, living in the Royal Palace for so long had made her numb, even though the woman in front of her was her granddaughter, and from the looks on it, it looked like her granddaughter was about to cry,

She still didn't care.

Heck, for all she knew, she might be acting right now and truth be told, Astaria actually believed that Evane was indeed acting and was actually the one who killed Lovis.

“Then what about him? He was there with you when you two were attacked right? As a King Stage CULTivaor, he could have easily defeated all the assassins on his own.

If you loved your brother so deeply, why didn't you order him to kill all the assassins?

It should have been an easy fight with him around, now?”

Astaria questioned.

Chapter 449 - Absolutely Not.

“If you loved your brother so deeply, why didn’t you order him to kill all the assassins?”

It should have been an easy fight with him around, now?”

Astaria questioned.

Hearing her questions, the Ministers and even the King frowned.

Yes, with a King Stage Cultivator with them, this battle should not have been difficult at all. In truth, Evane’s bodyguard could have dealt with all the assassins alone, Lovis and his butler shouldn’t have died.

It was now clear, Evane was lying.

Every eye fell on her.

Evane trembled, not because she was nervous, but because of anger.

She clenched her fist and spoke with a cold expression,

“It was because of that bastard butler of his.”

“What do you mean?”

Astaria frowned.

“Leo, Lovis’s Butler betrayed Lovis.”

Evane continued to explain.

“We were attacked by 2 Expert Stage Cultivators and 4 Grand Master Stage Cultivators, at that moment, my bodyguard was still a normal Grand Master Stage Cultivator.

I wasn't planning on revealing my trump card unless it was absolutely necessary.”

Evane explained and a few people nodded.

That was something they might have done as well.

“The battle started, I and my guard were fighting 1 Expert Stage Cultivator and 3 Grand Master Stage Cultivators, Lovis and Leo, on the other side were fighting 1 Expert Stage and 1 Grand Master Stage Cultivator.

The battle was going fine and we were even winning, if it had continued the way it was going, we would have won, and maybe he was pressured because of this, Leo, Lovis's butler suddenly turned against Lovis, with 2 Expert Stage and 1 Grand Master Stage Cultivators attacking him at the same time, Lovis couldn't hold up and was killed.

In anger, I ordered my guard to kill everyone present there but...

I was too late...”

“...”

The entire hall turned silent.

“You know, the way you are throwing blame on people one after another isn't really supporting your story. It looks like a made-up story.”

Astaria commented.

“I agree, Leo would never betray the Third Prince, I can assure you that.” Presley Merula, the Minister who came from the Merula household spoke with conviction.

He then glanced at Evane and narrowed his eyes,

“Princess Evane, you can end your fake story now and reveal the truth.”

Marlee Vestalis, the Minister from Vestalis Duke House wanted to support Evane, however, she was unable to come up with any argument.

A butler betraying his master...

This wasn't something that happened very often.

Butlers were very loyal, they were trained to be that way.

Especially butlers like Leo, who had stayed with Lovis ever since he was born.

Evane, however, completely ignored everyone and continued,

“Even I was shocked when I saw Leo brandishing his sword against Lovis, that was the reason I lost my control in the first place.

However, now that I think about all this, it all makes sense now.”

“What do you mean?” Presley frowned.

“A few days ago, I made Lovis right something on two papers...”

Evane then explained the Paper incident that happened a few days ago.

“That day, I had my paper with me, however, the paper from Lovis's room was missing. Obviously, that was the paper that was sent to Lucas.

Now Lovis would have never done something like that in the first place and the only person other than him who knew where the paper was, was Leo.

For more chapters, please visit

I think everything started after that day,

Lovis must have started doubting Leo and Leo must have felt it. This is why Leo decided to take this risky step and end all of it together.”

“...wait, Duke Merula did say something about Lovis asking some questions about Leo...” Suddenly, Presley spoke in a doubtful tone. “And it did happen 3 days ago.”

“Yes, that was the time when this happened.”

Evane nodded. With one more person supporting her, her argument got even stronger.

The Entire Hall turned silent and, in this silence, Gibson Fulvianus sweated continuously.

Things weren't looking good for them, he had to do something.

“Lady Astaria.”

He called out.

“What?”

Astaria questioned.

“We need to keep in mind that all of these are mere speculations, we can't be sure about anything. Everything Princess Evane said might be forged.”

Gibson spoke.

“As I said before, with your power, it won't be difficult to reconfirm whatever I said,” Evane answered back.

Gibson snorted and then continued,

“Also, the fact that Princess Evane's servant is a King Stage Cultivator is suspicious itself.

Where did she find him? Why is he serving her? There are too many unanswered questions.”

“I do not think that has any relevance to anything here. The First Prince tried to assassinate his brother and sister and succeeded in killing his brother.

This is a grave crime, we need to focus on that first.”

Evane shot back.

“I agree, we should investigate this matter thoroughly, if The First Prince is actually behind it, then I believe he should be beheaded.”

Although she didn't know many things, Marlee Vestalis could see a future where Evane would become the ruler of this Kingdom. Therefore, even though she herself was suspicious of Nux, she decided to ignore it and turned against the First Prince.

“I agree.”

Presley Merula nodded as well.

He wanted Justice for his Grandson.

If that Bastard Raguel was actually behind it then...

“You bastards! What are you talking about!? This Bastard might be a spy from another Kingdom!”

Gibson pointed at Nux and shouted.

“Oh yeah? A spy is still better than a Prince who has killed his own brother!”

Presley shouted back.

“You Idi-”

Gibson wanted to retort, however,

“Silence.”

A wave of unbelievably powerful pressure was felt and everyone turned silent.

“We will investigate this matter. Evane, you can leave, however,”

Astaria then glanced at Nux and her brown eyes shined,

“He has to stay.”

Evane, however, had a different thought in her mind, she directly picked Nux and spoke, “Absolutely not.

Because of your stupid stunt when you were testing him, he is injured, I have to tend to his injuries. If you want to talk to him, talk after he is cured.”

Saying that, Evane turned around and with Nux in her arms, she walked away.

Chapter 450 - The First Prince Was The Culprit.

“Absolutely not. Because of your stupid stunt when you were testing him, he was injured, I have to tend to his injuries. If you want to talk to him, talk after he is cured.”

Evane replied in a cold tone and walked away.

Ricardus took in a cold breath when he heard what his daughter just said.

Acting so arrogant just because you have a chance at becoming the next King?

Even he, who is currently the King never dared to talk to her like that.

He slowly and carefully turned his face towards Astaria and as soon as he saw his face, he returned to his original position with his heart beating loudly.

As expected, Astaria’s face didn’t look good.

“Where do you think you are going?”

She questioned.

Evane, however, didn’t stop and continued to move,

“Didn’t I tell you already, I need to tend to his injury, I don’t have time to waste. You can play your games later.”

Astaria narrowed her eyes,

“Little girl, do you really think I won’t kill you just because you might become the next Ruler?”

Evane turned around, she directly looked into Astaria's sharp eyes and replied,

“Kill me then.”

This time, Astaria narrowed her eyes in confusion.

“I do not fear then, Lady Astaria. The person who has been protecting me all this while is hurt, I need to tend to his wound. You can kill me if you don't like that, however, I am not planning to lose another person close to me.”

“...it is just some broken bones...”

Don't make it something so serious...”

Astaria was somewhat speechless.

“I am a little sensitive, Lady Astaria. Excuse me then.”

Saying that, Evane started moving again.

This time, Astaria didn't stop her either.

Ricardus frowned.

‘She isn't killed yet?’

With a confused look on his face, he turned toward Astaria and his eyes widened in surprise when he saw a small smile on Astaria's face.

‘She is impressed?’

Ricardus couldn't believe it.

Evane managed to impress the Dowager in her first meeting!

Ricardus couldn't help but glance at Evane who was walking away.

Just like him, members of Shadow Unit and all the Ministers observed at Evane as well.

Suddenly, Nux grabbed Evane's gown and she stopped.

Nux then glanced at Astaria and after thinking for a while, he spoke,

“The Solid Earth kingdom, do not ignore it.”

Astaria frowned.

“What do you mean?”

“Herms Lyzander has broken the Treaty.”

Hearing those words, Astaria's eyes widened in surprise.

“How do you know about it?”

She questioned, Nux, however, did not answer and Evane walked away.

After Evane and Nux left, a solemn look appeared on Astaria's face,

‘How did he know his name?’

She couldn't understand.

Not many people knew about Herms's name. Heck, even Ricardus might not know about it.

Every Kingdom keeps their Emperors a secret, after all.

‘No wait, he said that Herms has broken the Treaty, does that Old Bastard really has the Guts to do that?’

Astaria wondered inwardly.

Ricardus has reported the same thing, she didn't believe him at first, however, with Nux saying the same thing.

Even she had to think about it for a while.

Yes, for some reason, Nux's words had a much stronger impact on her mind than Ricardus's.

Astaria had decided.

She would visit the Solid Earth Kingdom and will observe everything on her own.

However, before she does, there were a few things that she wanted to do here.

“Investigate the First Prince, see if he has any hand in the fake letter that was sent to the Third Prince.”

Hearing this order, Gibson's eyes widened in surprise,

“Lady Astaria, you aren't actually believing that Girl's story, are you!? It is clearly Forged!”

He couldn't help but jump in.

He couldn't let this investigation start.

He was confident of hiding his tracks if it was a normal investigation, even if the King led it himself, he would have a chance at hiding his tracks, however, if Lady Astaria leads this investigation, there is no way he would be able to hide anything.

That woman has no restraints at all!

“Why do you look so scared, Minster Gibson?” Astaria narrowed her eyes and questioned with an amused look on her face.

However, before Gibson could answer, someone else did.

“He is scared because the First Prince, his Grandson, is indeed the Culprit.”

Everyone in the hall turned toward the voice,

“Who are you?”

Astaria questioned the man who had entered with two guards following behind him.

The man kneeled and introduced himself,

“Lady Astaria, I am Kelton Ackerg, I am Lady Amaya Skyfall’s butler. Yesterday, just like the Third Prince and Second Princess, my lady was attacked as well.”

While he was saying all this, anyone could see that his eyes were bloodshot and his eyelids were puffed, it was clear that he was crying.

Soon, however, his eyes got even redder, then with anger and hatred, he glared at Gibson and continued,

“I investigated the attack myself and found that the one behind the attack was the First Prince.”

“BUL-”

Gibson wanted to interrupt, however, before he could, Kelton pointed at the guards behind him and spoke.

“These are the guards who were on night duty yesterday, Lady Amaya, who was trying to run away from those assassins met them, and a few other guards yesterday.

Tell them what you saw.”

Kelton ordered.

“We saw Lady Amaya running away, there was a dagger that had pierced her thigh and Blood was continuously coming out of there.

She couldn't even move properly, however, she still continued to run.

We rushed towards her when we saw her, however, she told us to go away since she feared that the assassins might kill us, the only witnesses as well.”

‘As well’

These two words meant a lot.

“ ...”

The entire hall turned silent.

“What did Lady Amaya say to you?”

Kelton, who could barely control his tears, questioned.

“She told us that the one behind this attack was Raguel, the First Prince.”

Chapter 451 - Stay Within Your Boundaries.

“She told us that the one behind this attack was Raguel, the First Prince.”

The Guard revealed.

“LIES! They are lying. Hey, you! What is your name? Do you know how grave the consequences of lying inside the Royal Hall are? Your whole family will be implicated in this.”

Gibson shouted and pointed at the guard who came with Kelton.

“Of course! More than 10 guards are lying at the same time, aren't they?”

Kelton laughed angrily.

“Hmph! It isn't very hard to bribe them, is it?”

Gibson shot back.

Kelton couldn't believe what he was hearing.

To think he would try to deny his claims so shamelessly!

This is just absurd!

No, actually, it was not that absurd.

If Kelton was right in his mind, he would have already expected this, however, after talking to the guards and learning about the condition Amaya was in, he couldn't control his emotions.

How could Amaya, who is comparable to a normal mortal, run from the pursuit of 5 Grand Master Stage Cultivators with an injured leg?

She was caught.

Although Kelton didn't want to believe it, this was the truth.

Once he concluded that, he was overwhelmed with grief, his grief then turned into anger which was now directed at Gibson.

“What? Staying Silent because I caught your act and exposed you? Hmph! I knew you were lying.”

Gibson snorted.

This time, Kelton couldn't control himself and,

“AAgghhhh!!”

He dashed towards Gibson in anger, trying to kill the man in front of him and even forgetting that the man he was targeting was actually stronger than him.

Gibson was more than happy to clash fists with him.

First, it would empower his argument, ‘Kelton couldn't lie anymore, so he decided to use force’

Secondly, he would be able to silence this man in front of him.

It would only be called self defense after all.

How would he know that the man in front of him would be so weak that he died in just one attack?

This was perfect.

A small smile appeared on Gibson's face.

Soon, however, his smile disappeared and his face paled as a suffocating aura overwhelmed his entire body and his movement paused.

“ ... ”

He glanced towards a Throne and sure enough, Astaria was looking at them with an emotionless look on her face.

“To dare fight in front of me, you two sure are gutsy.”

“ ... ”

Gibson turned silent.

Kelton, however, was different.

“I attacked because he is lying! That bastard Raguel was the one behind this attack! And this bastard must be the one who helped him! That’s why he is defending him so hard! Lady Astaria, you have to believe me! Raguel, no not him, but the entire Fulvanus house must be behi-akkk”

Kelton shouted, however, suddenly, the pressure surrounding his body increased and he fell down.

This time, he was forced to stay silent.

“I have heard what you said, Kelton. I want you to tell me about the entire process and I will investigate the whole thing on my own.”

For more chapters, please visit

Astaria spoke in a calm tone and at the same time, she lowered the pressure on Kelton, allowing him to speak.

“What is there to investigate? I am telling you who the culprit is right now! Why would you lengthen the proc-Ugghhh!!”

Suddenly, the pressure around Kelton increased dramatically.

*Crack* *Crack* *Crack*

“AGGGHHhhhHH!!”

Kelton couldn't take the pressure anymore and he screamed in agony.

'Now this is a normal reaction.'

Inwardly, Astaria sighed.

The pressure she used against that boy was countless times stronger than what she was doing now, however, the boy didn't even fall down, let alone scream in pain.

Astaria had to give her all just to pressure him and all it did was break that boy's leg, a normal King Stage Cultivator would have turned into meat paste a lot sooner.

That is just how scary an Emperor is.

Astaria just didn't know what kind of little monster she faced today.

Thinking about it, a small smile appeared on Astaria's face, however, when her eyes fell on Kelton, who was screaming in pain, a serious look appeared on her face. She reduced the pressure on Kelton and spoke.

"Stay within your boundaries."

Whether he was right or wrong didn't matter, there is no way Astaria would allow him to shout like that. This was the Royal Hall, everyone must stay within his or her limit. This was not a place anyone can take lightly.

"..."

Kelton turned silent.

Astaria wasn't someone he could offend. Not until he has taken his revenge.

Seeing that he had calmed down, Astaria explained,

"What Gibson said was not wrong either, the evidence you provided could be easily forged and since this is a sensitive topic, I can't take any rash decisions."

“ ... ”

Kelton didn't say anything.

However, inwardly, he snorted.

'Lady Amaya is not from this Kingdom, that's why you people are not serious about this. Even after I gave all the evidence, you still don't capture that bastard. I need to think of something else.

I can't depend on these selfish bastards. .'

Astaria obviously didn't know what Kelton was thinking and in truth, she didn't care either.

Her guts told her that Kelton was not lying, however, she knew better than anyone to not believe her gut in this situation.

She turned towards Gibson, and seeing the nervous look on his face, she just shook her head.

“Alright, you can leave. The Guards will stay here, I also want the names of the other guards you were talking about.”

Kelton nodded.

“Yes, I will give that list to Keeve, I'll give their guarding schedule along with it as well, through the blood trail, you can notice the direction Lady Amaya ran into. With their Schedule, they would have seen her, I was not lying.”

Astaria nodded.

Kelton nodded back and then after giving a few documents to Keeve, he turned around and left.

Kelton didn't even return to his room, he directly walked out of the Royal Palace.

He had decided.

‘Since these people won’t do anything, I will go to someone who will.’

With this thought in his mind, Kelton started running.

His destination?

The Skadi Kingdom.

Chapter 452 - The Kiss Healed Me.

‘Hmm hmm, that went better than we thought it would, didn’t it?’

Nux questioned with a small smile on his face.

‘Better my foot.’

Evane, who was carrying Nux in her arms answered with a cold look on her face.

Since there were too many servants around, the two of them were using the connection to talk to each other.

‘Didn’t we already expect that she would try to attack me? However, she only used her Aura, isn’t that better than what we thought?’

Nux questioned.

‘Your legs are broken, you fool. How is that better?’

Evane retorted.

‘Oh C’mon, don’t be so mad, it is not as bad as you think. Everything is fineee~’

Nux shrugged.

‘Heh. It didn’t look very ‘fineee~’ when you were panicking like a little child back there.’

Evane snorted.

‘...’ Nux turned silent. He didn’t know how to answer that.

Well, he couldn’t be blamed either. He was really surprised.

Auras.

He has seen many scary auras.

Ember, the General of the Woods Dynasty has killed and led many, her fierce aura was suffocating and frightening as well. It could overwhelm and intimidate the target, however, it could never hurt someone.

Astaria, however, was different.

Her Aura was so fierce that with just her Aura alone, she was able to break his legs.

And that is when he is a King Stage Body Cultivator, he didn't imagine what would happen if he was just a normal cultivator.

It was frightening.

‘Hmph!’

Evane snorted again.

Seeing that, a teasing smile appeared on Nux's face.

‘Oh hoo~~ Looks like the cold Second Princess is angry~

Hehe~ You looked so badass when you left the Royal Hall~’

‘...’

Evane didn't say anything and just continued to walk.

Nux, however, noticed the slight change in her expression. Seeing that it worked, his smile widened and he continued,

‘Hehe~ ‘Absolutely not. Because of your stupid stunt when you were testing him, he was injured, I have to tend to his injuries. If you want to talk to him, talk after he is cured.’ Oh damn, saying that to the strongest being in the world, Evane, I didn't know you were so badass~

That useless father of yours was gawking at you as if he was seeing a ghost.
Kukuku~'

This time, Evane couldn't control herself, her cold expression broke and a small smile appeared on her face.

'Ohohoho~ You are laughing~'

'Shut up.'

Evane retorted.

'Kukuku~'

Nux continued to laugh.

'My wife is so cute~'

He commented.

'...'

Again, Evane didn't say anything, she just increased her speed.

However, anyone who looks at her face would be able to see that slight blush and the smile that she was trying her hardest to hide.

Nux continued to tease his wife, a minute later, the two of them entered Evane's room.

Evane placed him on the bed and spoke in worry,

"I will call a medic, stay here for a while, I will be back."

She then turned around, however, just as she was about to walk away, Nux grabbed her hand.

“Just stay with me, kiss me and I’ll be healed~”

Saying that, Nux moved his lips, expecting a kiss.

Evane, however, just lightly slapped his lips,

“Shut up, stay here like a good boy.”

However, again, just as she was about to go, Nux strengthen his grip.

Evane frowned, suddenly, Nux pulled her towards him, she fell into his bed, Nux then rolled over, and with his target right in front of him, he stole lips.

Evane tried to resist, soon, however, she gave in and kissed him back.

Seeing that she was now responding, Nux continued further and his tongue entered her mouth. Soon, their tongues twirled around each other. Nux then pulled his tongue back, he enjoyed the sensation of her soft lips touching his.

Evane broke the kiss, and after taking a short breath, she moved forward and kissed him again, this time, she was the one who took the initiative, her tongue entered Nux’s mouth and their tongues entangled again.

Evane then broke the kiss and rolled over again. This time, she was on top of Nux, her hair fell near Nux’s face, with their faces close to each other, they continued to look at each other,

“Your legs are completely fine, aren’t they?”

Evane questioned lightly.

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face as he replied, “I told you, didn’t I? Kiss me, and I will be fine~”

Evane then placed her index finger on Nux’s lips, Nux turned silent, he just continued to look into Evane’s green eyes and enjoyed this strange but pleasurable feeling.

“I clearly heard your bones breaking, how did it fine now?”

Evane questioned and at the same time, she moved her finger on Nux’s lower lip, allowing him to speak.

“With your kiss of co-”

Again, Evane placed her finger on his lips.

“I need a proper explanation.”

“Well, I don’t really know, it was painful, but after you gave me the Healing Potion, the regeneration was scarily quick.”

Evane narrowed her eyes.

“Is it related to that new Magic you got?”

She questioned.

“It might be.”

Nux nodded.

The [Regeneration] he received when he became a King Stage Cultivator, well, it was not as useless of an ability as he thought it was at first.

Although it didn’t help him in fighting against an Emperor Stage Cultivator, it still helped him in other ways.

His stamina regenerated quicker than before, what does it mean? More sex of course!

With his scarily high stamina, combined with fast regeneration, he was like a God of Sex!

Ahem, that was not the only use, he could train a lot more.

Even his Mana Regenerated quicker than before, the same went with his HP.

And now, he learned that the [Regeneration] even increased the working speed of the Potion he consumed, and most probably, it would be the same for Mana Potions.

A scary ability indeed.

“Though the Kiss helped as well.”

Nux chuckled.

Evane couldn't hold back and chuckled out loud.

“It should have helped you as well, did it not?”

Suddenly, Nux questioned.

Chapter 453 - What If L Become The Ruler Of This Kingdom?

“It should have helped you as well, did it not?”

Suddenly, Nux questioned with a slight smile on his face.

“...” Suddenly, Evane turned silent.

Nux then pulled her near him, her breasts touching his chest, their forehead and nose touching each other's, Nux's hands touching Evane's lower back while her hands touched his shoulders.

The two of them could feel each other's breath on their lips and in this position, Nux spoke in a low voice,

“You know you can talk to me when you feel troubled, don't you? You don't have to deal with everything alone. I want you to be a strong Evane like you were back in the Royal Hall, however, it is okay to be weak around someone you love. I will not hurt you.”

This time, there was no playfulness in Nux's voice, his voice was filled with warmth and gentleness.

He started caressing her hair lovingly and questioned,

“Lovis's death still affected you, didn't it?”

“...”

Evane didn't say anything.

Nux didn't force her either, he continued to caress her hair while synchronizing his breathing with hers. He knew that he had to be patient here and he was ready to give as much time as Evane needed.

“...He didn't just die... I was the one who killed him...”

After a long silence, Evane finally said something.

“You didn't do anything wrong.”

Nux's answer was firm.

“But I killed my own brother.”

“A brother who was trying to stab you with a dagger that was laced with poison when you were fighting with your life on the line for him.”

“H-He was wrong... I admit, but he was still my brother.”

“Again, that makes it even worse. Trust me, you didn't kill him, in truth, you saved him. I was saving him for the last, I would have taken a good amount of time to deal with him, his end wouldn't have been so quick and painless. You saved him from endless misery.”

Nux replied and after pulling Evane even close to him, he spoke,

“No one hurts my Evane and survives.”

“...”

Evane turned silent.

Nux sighed, he started caressing her hair again and continued,

“Don't worry, what you did was not wrong, rather, it was a strong move. It proved that you are not the weak woman others think you are. You are someone who can take a hard decision and stick with it.

That is a Quality of a Queen.

You, my Evane, will become an amazing Queen.

A True Queen.”

Evane spoke in a weak voice.

“ ...”

Nux paused.

A weak smile then appeared on his face, he placed Evane’s head on his chest and nodded,

“It is, it is very painful to become a Queen, but don’t worry, I will be here with you. You can share this pain with me. That will ease the pain.”

Hearing Nux’s words and feeling his pats, Evane finally decided to let go, and soon,

Streams of tears fell out of her eyes and she started crying.

Nux closed his eyes and continued to pat her.

Time passed, and under Nux’s gentle pats, Evane fell asleep, seeing that, Nux smiled, he gently wiped her tears, placed her cheeks in Evane’s head and he closed his eyes as well.

...

The next day, Nux woke up from his sleep.

He then turned around and noticed that Evane was looking at him with a small smile on her face.

“What are you looking at?”

He questioned in a sleepy voice.

“Nothing, I was just looking at you.”

Evane replied with a small smile.

“Heh. You pervert.”

Nux chuckled and at the same time, he yawned.

“I am a pervert indeed. Staying with you for a long time has its downsides.”

Evane commented.

“Oh?”

Nux raised his eyebrow.

“Downsides? What downsides? Sleepless nights? Too much pleasure?”

“Heh.”

Evane chuckled.

Nux started laughing as well.

“Nux.”

Suddenly, Evane called out.

“Yes?”

“Why do you want to become the King?”

Evane questioned with a curious look on his face.

A smile appeared on Nux’s face when he heard that question,

“Teacher Arvina asked me this question earlier, at that time, I didn’t have an answer, saying that I was not mature enough, she sent me to a war.”

“And did you find a reason there?”

Evane questioned.

Nux nodded, “I met a Deputy General named Lawrence there. He actually wanted to follow Ember when she was coming here, however, following Evane would be considered as a betrayal, and since his family still lived in the Woods Dynasty, he couldn’t do what he wanted.

If he was tagged as a ‘traitor’, his family would suffer.

What man would do something like that?

Therefore, to protect his family, he stayed there.”

Nux then glanced at Evane and answered,

“I do not wish to be like that. To be forced to do something I don’t want to, my family being held hostage inside the kingdom they live in, I will not accept that. That is the reason I want to become the King. If I rule this country, I would be able to do whatever I want and my family wouldn’t be targeted by anyone.

Of course, I know all of this is not that simple, however, becoming the King is still better than not becoming one.”

“So you want to become a King because you want to protect your loved ones and want to be free? You don’t want your family to become a hostage, is that right?”

“Yes,”

“Becoming a King and wishing to be free, the two are contradicting, don’t you think?”

Evane questioned.

Nux scratched his head and smiled awkwardly,

“I admit, it is contradicting, but I do not have any other options. Plus, don’t I have you guys? Won’t you guys keep an eye on the Kingdom for me?”

“We will help you, of course, but I have a better plan.”

“Oh? Enlighten me.”

Nux smiled.

“What if I become the Ruler of this Kingdom? That would solve all the problems, won't it?”

Chapter 454 - First, I Want You To Answer My Question.

“What if I become the Ruler of this Kingdom? That would solve all the problems, won't it?”

Evane glanced at Nux and questioned with a curious look on her face.

Nux sat up and looking into Evane's eyes, he nodded,

“That would be the most ideal outcome, it was also my initial plan, however, since you didn't seem very willing to be the Ruler, I didn't force you.”

“Don't worry, I will become the next Ruler, no, I want to become the next Ruler, help me become one.”

Evane spoke with a solemn look on her face.

Nux narrowed his eyes,

“Why do you want to become the next Ruler?”

“I want to know why everyone craves it so much.”

Evane answered.

“Huh?”

Nux frowned.

That was... a strange reason.

“If someone is willing to kill his own brother or sister for this thing, there has to be something very very very amazing about this throne, right? I want to know what it is. I want to know what am I missing all these years.”

Nux shook his head,

“There is nothing interesting about it, you are saying this because of Lovis and you kn-.”

“Me becoming the next Ruler is a much better plan than you becoming one.”

Evane interrupted Nux and spoke.

“I have the Skyfall Blood running in my veins, Nux. You, do not. If you become the King, you would have to go against Astaria Skyfall, the strongest being in this world. The plan you currently have is too complicated and depends on many things for its success.

It has too many inconsistencies, it is not a good plan.”

“ ... ”

Nux turned silent.

Evane wasn't wrong, even though it was Amaya who came up with a plan, there were only so many ways to deal with an Emperor Stage Cultivator. Even someone like Amaya couldn't come up with something that is will definitely succeed.

“Nux.” Suddenly, Evane called out.

“Just make me the next ruler, I will be fine, don't worry.”

“Are you sure?”

Nux narrowed his eyes.

“What could possibly go on? Plus, don't I have you with me? There is also Sister Amaya, if I fail to manage anything, I am sure she will help me.”

“ ... ”

Nux fell into deep thought.

“It will be much more convenient, Nux.”

Evane spoke again.

Nux glanced at her, and then, he nodded.

“Alright then.”

After thinking about this for a while, Nux agreed.

“Get ready to rule this kingdom, Queen Evane.”

Evane smiled.

Nux smiled as well.

It was not like he was going anywhere, he would be here to help Evane. Plus, just like Evane said, it would be a lot more convenient than him becoming the next King.

‘Are you awake?’

Suddenly, Nux heard a voice.

‘What happened?’

Nux questioned back.

‘Come here. I need to talk.’

Nux glanced at Evane, she looked at him and smiled,

“Let’s go, shall we?”

“What about that idiot outside?”

Nux questioned back.

“What? Should I knock him out?”

Evane chuckled.

“There are chances that Astaria is keeping an eye on us.”

“Heh, the all-powerful Emperor shouldn't be that free.”

“Whatever.”

Seeing her nonchalant attitude, Nux shrugged as well.

Activating his [Conceal], he walked out of the room and knocked out Reeve, who was keeping an eye on his room.

Since the man wasn't peeking inside the room, Nux decided to go easy on him and was a little gentle.

Nux then returned, Evane smiled, she activated [Conceal] as well, and then, they left the Royal Palace.

A few minutes later, Nux and Evane were inside the Skyfall Academy, sitting inside Nux's room.

Nux's other wives were here as well.

“So? How was your meeting with the strongest being in the world?”

Amaya questioned with a small smile on her face, at the same time, she walked towards Nux and hugged him, Nux didn't reject, he hugged back and stuck to him like a koala.

Seeing this, the others frowned, Skylia acted the fastest and rushed towards Nux as well.

Soon, Nux was surrounded by his beautiful wives.

‘Heh. Heaven indeed.’

Nux smiled inwardly.

‘I need to make a big bed so that I can sleep with all of them.’

A random thought appeared in his mind.

A thought Edda would definitely like.

“It was not as bad as I thought it would be.”

Nux replied to Amaya’s question.

“Do you think you can defeat her?”

Ember questioned.

“Of course not. If she and I fought, I will be defeated in a single move.”

Nux answered without hesitation.

“...”

Ember turned silent.

That is not something you say so proudly.

She spoke inside her mind.

Thyra had the same thought.

“What if all of us attack her together?”

Suddenly, Felberta questioned.

Except for Evane, all of them were King Stage Cultivators, if they attacked someone together, it would be a nightmare, however,

“There is no chance, Emperor is a different realm.”

Nux shook his head again.

Repeating the same words his women told him in front of them.

“Alright, it is not like we didn’t predict it.”

Amaya spoke.

“Indeed, we predicted it already.”

Nux nodded.

“Mhm, we will continue with the plan.”

Amaya nodded, however, suddenly, Nux interrupted.

“Actually, I think we can make a better plan now.”

“Hmm? What do you mean?”

Amaya frowned.

A smile appeared on Nux’s face, he then glanced at Evane and revealed,

“Evane wants to become the Ruler of this country.”

Amaya narrowed her eyes,

“I am sure you didn’t feel the same way before, then why now? Why so suddenly, what happened?”

She questioned.

Thyra and Ember had a similar question in their minds.

Especially Ember, she could feel it, Evane has changed.

How does she say it...

Her aura...

It was different than before.

“Well, we can discuss about the reason later.”

Suddenly, Nux stepped in.

He then placed Amaya back on the ground and questioned,

“First, I want you to answer my question.”

“What is it?”

“Your Physique. How did you increase its Mastery level so quickly?”

Chapter 455 - Devouring Mist Is Different.

“Your Physique. How did you increase its Mastery level so quickly?”

Nux questioned.

He was doubtful. When Amaya was fighting with all those assassins, he was looking at everything with his [Sense], and he saw that she used Devouring Mist to Kill all those Grand Master Stage Cultivators.

With just Acquired Level Mastery, she shouldn't be able to do that. She needed Advance Level Mastery over her physique to perform something like that.

Therefore, when Nux saw her today, he used [Eye of Discerning] and,

[Name: Amaya Skyfall ]

Yes, Amaya had managed to increase the Mastery Level of her Physique in less than a year.

Hearing Nux's question, a proud smile appeared on Amaya's face.

“Hehe~ I was about to tell you that. I had thought of a more romantic way to do it though.”

She pouted.

Nux looked at Amaya, who was sulking like a little child and couldn't help but shake his head with a smile.

‘What a snake.’

‘Attention craving bitch.’

‘Hmph!’

Nux's women, however, just snorted when they saw her acting like that.

Of course, though they were dissatisfied, they didn't interrupt.

They knew it as well, if they were in Amaya's position, they would have done the same thing.

Didn't Thyra take a big advantage and went to another country with Nux alone? Tsk Tsk, what a dream come true.

"Alright alright, I will pretend that I don't know about it, is that alright?"

"It won't be the same."

Amaya shook her head.

"Alright, whatever." Suddenly, she just shrugged, then she looked into Nux's eyes and muttered,

"Nux, I will tell you something very very amazing, however, I need a reward."

"What reward?" Nux questioned.

A big smile appeared on Amaya's face as she glanced at all the women standing in the room.

The women's faces twitched.

Even Ember, who prides herself in being coolheaded was annoyed.

"Come to my room, I'll tell you there."

Amaya spoke.

"Right now?" Nux frowned.

"Of course, the earlier the better. Trust me, it will be worth it."

Nux didn't know what to do,

They were in a meeting, after all.

“Just go, don’t worry.”

Suddenly, Felberta spoke.

Nux turned towards her, he then noticed Thyra who was nodding as well.

Lane, Skyla, and Allura nodded as well.

Nux frowned, suddenly, Amaya grabbed her hand and pulled him away.

In the end, Nux didn’t say anything and walked away with Amaya.

After the two of them left, Skyla walked towards Evane and grabbed her hand.

“???”

Evane tilted her head in confusion.

Skyla just smiled, she then pulled and her made her sit on the bed.

Then, she sat next to her, and with a gentle smile on her face, she questioned.

“Are you okay?”

“What do you mean?”

Evane frowned.

Thyra stepped forward,

“Your brother’s dead, don’t let it affect you.”

“Indeed, don’t keep anything inside you, if you want to share anything, we are here.”

Allura nodded.

“We are your sisters, after all.” Felberta smiled.

Hearing those words, a smile appeared on Evane’s face.

She then glanced at everyone present inside the room and chuckled,

“Didn’t you guys help me enough already?”

“What do you mean?”

Skyla frowned.

“You gave up on your session time so that Nux can stay with me, didn’t you?”

Evane smiled.

Hearing her answer, a smile appeared on Felberta’s face,

“That is nothing, we can do at least this much for you, can’t we?”

“Indeed.”

The others nodded.

“Of course, you would have to pay us back in the future.”

Edda chuckled.

Evane pouted, “I am still a little down.”

“Don’t worry, we won’t be taking your time.”

Allura placed her hand on top of Evane’s hands and smiled.

Evane smiled back.

“Any time soon.”

Edda completed Allura's sentence and Evane pouted again.

The women laughed.

“Still, remember to talk to us if you need anything, alright?”

Felberta spoke.

“Yes, I will.”

Evane nodded. She could feel it, the family love that she craved, she knew that she could experience that here.

With her sisters.

The women then continued with their conversation.

On the other side, Amaya, who pulled Nux into her room made him sit on the bed and smiled,

“Alright then, let me tell you what I found.”

“Please enlighten me, Lady Amaya.”

Nux bowed dramatically.

Amaya chuckled, then, her expression turned serious and she continued,

“According to the book, the more we used this Devouring Mist, the faster we can increase the Mastery level, correct?”

“Yes, that is the reason you started this whole ‘Curse’ thingy.”

Nux nodded.

“Yes, I wanted to increase my Mastery Level, therefore, I surrounded myself with Devouring Mist. However, something didn't feel right.

The Process was too slow.

It was as if something was missing and since I had a lot of time to think, I started experimenting.”

Nux continued to listen to Amaya’s words attentively.

Amaya then raised her hand, Devouring Mist seeped out of her hand, it then moved towards the nearby Vase and surrounded it.

Soon, the Vase disappeared.

Nux frowned in confusion.

This shouldn’t be possible.

The Devouring Mist is only able to ‘devour’ flesh, Bones, and all that.

It cannot devour just anything.

How did she do it?

“Try to understand The Devouring Mist.”

Suddenly, Amaya spoke.

“Understand?”

Nux frowned in confusion.

“Yes, understand it. Don’t treat it like a simple Ability, only using it and never bothering with anything else. Neither should you treat it like a Skill, training to get better.

Devouring Mist is different.

Understand its Principles.

Understand how it works.

Try to use those principles to your advantage,

Only then would you be able to increase your Mastery.”

“So you are telling me that the method the Book gave us is-”

“It’s useless, too wasteful. It will take ages to improve if you follow it.”

Amaya shrugged.

“...”

Nux turned silent.

He knew Amaya was intelligent, but for her to practically ‘invent’ a whole method.

This is just...

‘Haahh...’

In the end, Nux just sighed.

“Alright, how about you share all the Principles you have learned with me?”

Chapter 456 - Devouring Mist.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Nux and Amaya continued to stare at each other for 2 minutes straight. In the end, Nux sighed.

“I do not understand anything you just said.”

“It is so simple, how can you not understand, Devouring Mist is Darkness that devours matters, in theory, it could devour anything, however, we are not strong enough to us-”

“Alright, alright, that’s enough.”

Nux raised his hand, and with his other hand, he grabbed his forehead.

“I don’t get it at all.”

Amaya frowned.

Nux was a fool, she knows that.

For him to not understand anything she says...

Something was not right.

“What do you not understand?”

Amaya questioned.

Seeing that she was still trying to help him, Nux smiled,

“Look, I understand everything you say, however, the moment you describe how you actually increased your mastery with them, I blank out. It is as if I am listening to someone without knowing what language they are talking in.

It is extremely complicated.”

“...”

Amaya turned silent and started thinking.

Nux, who had used all his energy fell on the bed, not thinking about anything.

Seeing this, Amaya pouted, she stood up from her chair, climbed on the bed and lay next to Nux with her back facing his chest. She then grabbed his hand and after placing it on her waist, she started thinking again.

Nux didn't say anything either, he tightened his hug around her petite body, his chest touched her back and their legs intertwined together.

In this comfortable position, Nux closed his eyes.

5 minutes later, Amaya spoke,

“Everyone's understanding of the Devouring Mist must unique to them.”

“Hmm? What are you talking about?”

Nux opened his eyes and questioned with a curious look on his face.

“I got it. My understanding of the Devouring Mist can't be passed to you.”

“Why?”

Nux frowned.

“Everyone sees this world in their own different ways, for them, different things might have a different meaning. The same goes for Devouring Mist.

Your views on the Devouring Mist must be different than mine.

That is why you can't understand the connection between the principles I have understood and the way to increase your mastery.

Because if you want to increase your Mastery, you have to understand the principles on your own.”

Amaya explained.

“I somewhat get it...”

Nux nodded.

“So in conclusion, I need to work hard, correct?”

“Indeed.”

“Alright. I'll work hard and understand all the principles there are.

Later.”

With that, Nux closed his eyes.

“You aren't forgetting something, are you?”

Suddenly, Amaya questioned with a seductive smile on her face.

Nux, who had closed his eyes suddenly smiled.

“Ask what you want.”

“Don't you know it already?”

For more chapters, please visit

Amaya smiled seductively, at the same time, she moved her hips and teased Nux's crotch.

“You don't want any foreplay today, do you?”

Nux questioned.

“Nope. I want you to lose control and pounce on me~”

Amaya whispered.

A wide smile appeared on Nux's face, his hand that was on Amaya's waist moved towards her butt, then without wasting any time, he tore open her pants, and lowered her panty, with his other hand, he had already lowered his own pants,

“Remember, you asked for it.”

Saying that, Nux pushed his little brother inside Amaya's cave.

“Annhh~”

A session filled with loud moans and grunts started.

...

2 hours later, Amaya was sleeping in her bed with a satisfied smile on her face, juices were still coming out of her cave and it still felt a little tingly, however, she just crossed her legs, changed her position a little, and continued to sleep.

Seeing this sight, Nux, who has just returned from the bathroom couldn't help but smile.

If it was any other day, he would have walked towards the beautiful woman who sleeping on the bed and would have slept with her, however, today, he didn't do it.

He sat on the ground and crossed his legs.

He then closed his eyes and started ‘comprehending’ the Devouring Mist.

‘Try to imagine the Mist in your mind, try to understand how it works, what it contains, why it does what it does, try to understand everything.’

He then remembered Amaya’s advice and went into deep thought.

Suddenly, he felt a strange feeling of weightlessness washing all over his body.

He frowned and opened his eyes.

‘Hmm?’

His frown deepened.

He wasn’t inside his room. He was inside a strange place, everything around him was black.

Nux remembered this feeling well. It wasn’t his first time in this place, he came here when he increased the Mastery Level of his Physique using Blank Points.

The last time when he was here, he panicked, this time, however, he was much more mature and sensitive.

He could feel it, around him was not darkness.

It was Devouring Mist.

This Place was filled with Devouring Mist.

No, it was better to say that the Devouring Mist has devoured this place altogether.

A scary conclusion but for some reason, Nux felt strangely calm here.

Unlike his last visit, Nux sat down, and with great attention, he continued to observe the Devouring Mist.

He couldn't exactly see anything since everything was so dark, however, since he could still feel the Devouring Mist around him, he felt that he could actually comprehend the principles Amaya was talking about.

Time passed, and Nux stayed in that position for who knows how long.

In the real world, Amaya had woken up as well, a frown appeared on her face when she saw Nux sitting on the floor, covered with devouring Mist.

'Is he trying to copy my method?'

She wondered inwardly.

Soon, however, she shook her head,

'No, it is something different.'

Amaya couldn't point it out, however, she could feel something was different.

Not wanting to disturb him, she silently walked out of the room after cleaning herself.

"Tsk Tsk, I know you wanted a reward, but don't you think this is going too far?"

The moment Amaya walked out of the room, she was surrounded by Nux's wives.

"Yeah, and how are you still walking?"

Edda had a different question in her mind.

"What do you mean?"

Amaya frowned.

"Hmph! You still dare to feign ignorance after staying with Nux for 8 straight hours? Have some shame."

Thyra snorted.

Chapter 457 - What Do You Think L Should Give Heras A Meeting Gift?

“Hmph! You still dare to feign ignorance after staying with Nux for 8 straight hours? Have some shame.”

Thyra snorted.

“8 Hours?” Amaya frowned.

“Still acting?” Thyra raised her eyebrow.

“No wait...” Ember, however, frowned.

“Edda is right, how are you still walking?”

She questioned and then answered to herself,

“This could only mean one thing, you two did not have sex for 8 hours, did you?”

“Of course not. As much as I want to do that, I know that I would pass out a lot sooner.”

Amaya shook her head.

“Indeed, 8 hours is too much, even for me.”

Edda nodded to herself.

“What were you doing inside then?”

Thyra questioned.

“Where is Nux?”

Evane questioned.

“Well, he...”

Amaya didn't know how to answer, therefore, she just opened the door.

The women peeked into the room and,

“That's... Nux?”

Ember frowned.

“I have seen this before.”

Thyra spoke with a serious look on her face.

“Don't worry, it is not dangerous. On the contrary, it is good for him.”

“How long has he been like this?” Felberta questioned.

“6 hours.”

Amaya answered.

“How is that safe!?”

Thyra shouted.

“I told you, it's safe. He is in control. Just treat it as if he is cultivating and don't disturb him.” Amaya explained.

“Heh, Nux cultivating... feels strange.”

Felberta commented.

“Indeed.”

Lane, who is usually silent nodded as well.

“It’s because we can’t help him anymore.”

Thyra spoke.

Ember’s face turned solemn as well.

“We should cultivate as well.”

Felberta suggested.

“Indeed.”

The women nodded to each other and returned to their rooms.

Except for Amaya...

She just walked back into the room where Nux was cultivating.

“What are you doing?”

However, just as she was about to close the door, Thyra appeared in front of her and questioned with a doubtful look on her face.

“Nothing, I just want to cultivate.”

“But why in his room?”

“It is my room.”

Amaya replied.

Thyra narrowed her eyes, “He is inside, so it is his room for now. You can use his room.”

“I want to stay in the same room as him,” Amaya answered.

“You are not special.” Thyra narrowed her eyes.

“I know, I am just here because it would help me.” Amaya, of course, had an answer.

“What do you mean?”

“You see that Mist? I feel like I can get stronger if I observe it, it is different from the normal Mist.”

And to show that she wasn't lying, Amaya raised her hand, and Devouring Mist seeped out of her hand.

Thyra looked at the two Mist and turned silent.

She then glanced at Amaya's face for a while and,

“You are lucky.”

Saying that, she turned around.

She sensed it, Amaya wasn't lying, and the Mist surrounding Nux was different.

It felt... much more threatening.

For more chapters, please visit

Thyra didn't know much about this, therefore, she decided to step back.

Seeing this, a smile appeared on Amaya's face.

She closed the doors and walked near Nux.

Sitting cross-legged right in front of him, she focused and soon, started comprehending the Mist surrounding Nux.

Others started their respective cultivations as well and the entire mansion turned oddly silent.

...

“You can come in, teacher.”

The next day, Nux, who finally opened his eyes sensed his teacher standing in front of his room.

A second later, Arvina walked into his room.

“Lovely evening to you, teacher.”

Nux smiled.

Arvina smiled, her eyes then fell on Amaya, who was sleeping on Nux’s bed with a smile on her face.

“I can’t believe I am seeing this expression on her face. She usually had an expressionless mask on her face back in the Royal Palace.”

Arvina couldn’t help but comment.

“Mhm, I saw that expression as well, it had its own charm, to be honest, however, this smile suits best on her beautiful face the best.”

Nux smiled as he glanced at Amaya who was sleeping without the care of the world.

“I guess she is relieved because she doesn’t have to return to the Palace anymore,” Arvina spoke.

“She will return soon.” Nux, however, shook his head.

Arvina frowned.

“As the Queen of course.”

“You are ready to become the King, aren’t you?” Arvina smiled.

“No, I am not.” Nux shook his head, then with a smile on his face, he explained.

“The plans have changed, I do not wish to become the King anymore. I just want to stay with my wives and enjoy my time with them.

Plus, I don't really wish to go against that monstrous teacher of yours.”

Hearing him say that, a smile appeared on Arvina's face,

“So she is finally out huh?”

“Indeed.”

Nux nodded.

“So? Did you meet her?” Arvina questioned with a playful smile on her face.

Nux sighed helplessly, “Meet? She even gave me a gift.”

“A Gift? What Gift?” Arvina frowned.

“She broke my legs.”

“...”

Arvina raised her eyebrows.

Nux then told her what happened and after hearing all that, Arvina sighed,

“You are lucky she didn't kill you.”

“Well, I did what you told me to. I won her interest, and with Evane backing me up properly, I survived. It may not look like it, but I thought about it for a long long time before deciding to meet her.”

“And what would you have done if she had insisted on killing you there?”

Arvina narrowed her eyes and questioned.

“I would have run away, of course. Though that would have affected our future plans badly.”

“And how exactly do you plan to run away from an Emperor?”

Arvina questioned.

“I have my ways.” Nux smiled.

“...” Arvina didn’t know what to say.

“Oh right, teacher.”

Nux called out.

“Yes?”

“I am planning to meet her again, what do you think I should give her as a meeting gift?”

Arvina couldn’t believe what she was hearing.

“Do you not value your life anymore?”

“It will be more suspicious if I don’t meet her now. Also, this time, I am planning to be honest with her. So I believe she won’t hurt me.

I don’t wish to become the King any longer, remember?

I am not her enemy.

I am just a person who supports her granddaughter.”

“...”

Arvina didn’t know if she should be impressed or ashamed of her student’s shamelessness.

“C’mon teacher, give me some tips, will you? How do you think I should deal with Lady Astaria?”

“Haahh...”

Arvina sighed.

This would be a long discussion.

Chapter 458 - We Were Going To Be Honest With Her!?

“These are all the things I could think of.”

Arvina spoke.

“Hm hm.”

Nux nodded.

Seeing him like that, Arvina couldn't help but speak,

“Just... just don't offend her, alright?”

“Of course, you don't have to worry about that.”

Nux replied with a confident look on his face.

Arvina didn't like that confident look at all, however, in the end, she decided to trust her student.

‘Nux? Are you awake?’

Suddenly, Nux heard Evane's voice in his head and he frowned,

‘Hmm? What happened?’

‘Lady Astaria is summoning you. Well, she is actually summoning me, but I think the main reason for that is because she wants to meet you.’

‘Hmm? Didn't we tell her that I was injured?’

Nux frowned.

‘Only your legs were broken, 2 days are more than enough for them to get healed, we can’t keep using this excuse.’

Evane replied and Nux’s frown deepened.

‘2 days?’

‘Hmm?’

Evane frowned as well.

‘Evane, where are you?’

Suddenly, Nux questioned.

‘In the Palace of course.’

‘Why did you return so quickly?’

‘You know I can’t stay out of the Palace for more than a day, right?’

‘More than a day?’

Nux couldn’t understand.

‘What are you talking about?’ Nux questioned.

‘Huh?’

A strange confusion.

“Oh, you finally woke up. I never thought your cultivation session would last for more than 20 hours.”

Suddenly, Amaya, who had just woken up spoke up.

“More than 20 hours?”

Nux frowned.

“Yes, you were sitting cross-legged for more than 20 hours.”

“Wait... does that mean...”

“Yes, you have stayed here for more than a day. Evane had already returned.”

Amaya clarified.

Seeing his confused face, Arvina frowned,

“What happened? Why do you look so confused? It’s pretty normal to lose the Track of time when you are cultivating. This must have happened in the Past as well, didn’t it?”

“Huh? Ah- yes, of course! Of course, it has happened in the past. Hahaha~ I just didn’t expect it to happen right now.”

Nux laughed.

“What are you talking about? It is not something you ‘expect’ to happen. It just happens.” Arvina couldn’t understand.

“Well usually, his control over this is strong, so he rarely loses track of time, also, he has to meet Lady Astaria as well, that’s why he said that he didn’t expect this to happen.”

Amaya smiled.

“Ah, I get it.”

Arvina nodded in understanding.

“Don’t worry, you can tell her what happened. Teacher is not someone who will point at you if you lost track of time during Cultivating. She is not that petty.”

“I understand.”

Nux nodded.

A smile then appeared on his face and he bowed a little,

“Teacher Arvina, I am already late, I don’t think I should make Lady Astaria wait anymore, so I will be taking my leave.”

“Alright. Be careful though.”

“Yes, I will be.”

Nux nodded, he then walked towards Amaya, the two of them shared a light kiss then Nux left the room.

Then he kissed all of his wives and then disappeared.

The next second, he appeared right in front of Evane and smiled,

“Well, I am back.”

“Finally.” Evane smiled.

“Well, don’t blame me alright, that was my first time ‘Cultivating’, okay?” Nux scratched the back of his head.

“Hahaha~ People would die in shock if they heard a King Stage Cultivator say something like this.” Evane chuckled.

Nux smiled as well.

He understood it well.

His System was a fucking cheat, without it, he was nothing.

‘Oh well, let’s think about all these sentimental things later. I have more important things to do right now.;

Thinking that, Nux took a deep breath, he then turns towards Evane and smiled,

“So? Shall we meet Lady Astaria?”

“Alright.”

Evane smiled, she then lifted her chest and,

“My bodyguard, follow me.”

“As you command, Second Princess.”

Evane and Nux walked out of the room and a few minutes later, they appeared in front of a lavish-looking room.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Evane knocked.

“Enter.” A command was heard.

Evane and Nux nodded at each other and entered. There, they saw a black-haired beauty sitting on a chair with a leisurely expression on her face.

The moment the woman’s eyes fell on the two of them, they brightened,

“Oh ho? You two finally decided to show up, huh?”

Astaria questioned with a smile on her face.

“Greetings, Lady Astaria.”

Evane bowed, and Nux, who was standing behind her bowed as well.

Astaria just shook her head,

“Yeah Yeah, I don’t need any formalities, have a seat.”

Evane sat at the seat Astaria pointed at.

Astaria waited for a while, then she glanced at Nux and spoke,

“Do I have to give you a special invitation? Have a seat.”

“Yes, Lady Astaria.”

Nux sat down as well.

“I investigated what you said a little, and yes, Prince Raguel might actually be the one behind this attack.”

Astaria spoke.

Evane’s face changed, however, there weren’t any major changes in Nux’s expression.

“You don’t seem very surprised.” Astaria glanced at Nux.

“I already knew that. Lady Evane didn’t lie, the proofs would of course support her statement.” Nux shrugged.

After talking with Arvina, he had a better understanding of the woman sitting in front of him and he wanted to use this information as much as he can.

Hearing his answer, a smile appeared on Astaria’s face,

“Alright then, let’s not waste any time on these useless conversations. Let me talk about what I actually called you here for.”

Astaria glanced at Nux and spoke.

Nux looked into her eyes and smiled,

“I am glad that we are on the same page.”

In an instant, the air around the room changed, Evane, who was the main character before now turned into a side character, Astaria completely ignored her presence and shifted her entire focus on Nux.

“Boy, I want you to answer some of my questions and be sure to answer them honestly, your life is at risk here.”

Rather than being intimidated, Nux just smiled and nodded,

“Please ask, Lady Astaria.”

“Why are you helping Evane? You have a bright future ahead of you. You might even reach my level if you try ha- no, scratch that. With your absurdly high talent, you will definitely reach my level in the near future.

Then why bother with something so fruitless, why is someone like you degrading himself to be a servant of someone who will never reach your level, let alone surpass you?”

“Because I love her, of course.”

Nux answered honestly and Evane’s eyes widened in surprise and horror.

‘We were going to be honest with her!?’

Chapter 459 - L Am Not Your Enemy

“Why to bother with something so fruitless, why is someone like you degrading himself to be a servant of someone who will never reach your level, let alone surpass you?”

Astaria questioned with a solemn look on her face.

“Because I love her, of course.”

Nux answered honestly and Evane’s eyes widened in surprise and horror.

‘We were going to be honest with her!?’

Evane questioned through the telepathic connection. Nux, however, didn’t answer and continued to look at Astaria with a smile on his face.

Astaria narrowed her eyes.

“You love her?”

“I do.”

Nux nodded and to prove his point, he grabbed Evane’s hand.

Evane, who was scared about the consequences was now even more surprised, however, even after that, she didn’t reject him.

She tightened her grip and glanced at Astaria with a determined look on her face.

‘Whatever. If she decides to attack you, you know what to do.’

Evane spoke.

‘Don’t worry.’

Nux replied in a calm voice.

“With my talent, I certainly deserve to be your granddaughter’s hand, right, Lady Astaria?”

Nux questioned.

“ ... ”

Astaria didn’t say anything and just continued to observe the two of them.

Nux was just smiling at her, Evane, however, looked a little scared. However, she wasn’t scared because Nux was lying, she was scared thinking about what her reaction will be. Still, Evane was looking at her with a determined look on her face. Astaria liked that look.

At the very least, she can be sure that her granddaughter actually loves this boy.

However, that was not her concern right now.

“Love huh?”

She spoke,

“What if you only want control over the Throne through her? What if you want to use her as your puppet so you can rule this Kingdom?”

“Heh, why would I do something so pointless if I wanted that? In a few years, I will become an Emperor, the strongest existence in this world.

Once that happens, I can create a Kingdom of my own, why would I work so hard to take control over some other Kingdom?” Nux replied with a smile on his face.

Hearing his answer, Astaria couldn’t help but chuckle,

“Do you really think making your own Kingdom is that simple, boy?”

“Is it not?” Nux tilted his head in confusion.

Astaria smiled,

“If you, as an Emperor, try to create your own Kingdom, your action will be seen as a revolt against the Four Strongest Countries in this world.

Skyfall, Skadi, Solid Earth, and the Woods, all of them would attack you and this includes the Emperors supporting these Kingdoms. There is no way you can go against all these Kingdoms alone.”

“If I become an Emperor, then I can.”

Nux, however, didn't back down.

Astaria narrowed her eyes.

“I am sure you have already felt it when you tested me, I am not your average King Stage Cultivator, I can defeat 10s of King Stage Cultivators alone. That King Stage Cultivator you sent to keep an eye on me can be considered as an example.

Lady Astaria, I am a lot stronger compared to a normal King Stage Cultivator, what do you think will happen once I become an Emperor?”

“ ... ”

Astaria didn't say anything, however, she understood what Nux was trying to say.

If he became an Emperor, he will be a lot stronger than a normal Emperor.

This statement sounds absurd at first, King Stage cannot be compared to Emperor Stage, however, how many Emperors were confident enough to go against 10s of King Stage Cultivators when they were only King Stage Cultivators?

No one.

Even she, the strongest of all the Emperors in this world could only fight against a maximum of 3 King Stage Cultivators and even she would have to retreat in front of them.

Talking about 10... it was impossible.

She would have been surrounded within a few minutes.

Nux, however, was different. He was strong, she had felt it when she used her 'pressure' on him, even after using all her energy, she only managed to break his bones.

This was not something a normal King Stage Cultivator could do.

Thinking about all this, Astaria started believing Nux's words, and soon, an evil smile appeared on her face.

“Boy, aren't you scared that I would feel threatened and would try to kill you to remove a future threat?”

“Are you really going to kill your Student's Student?”

Nux questioned back.

Astaria frowned. A badge then appeared in Nux's hand and he passed it to Astaria.

Astaria took that badge and after looking at it for a few seconds, a smile appeared on her face,

“So you are Arvina's student. That answers why you know so much about Emperors and stuff.”

“I am not your enemy, Lady Astaria. There is no need for you to feel threatened by me. If I become an Emperor, I will only be a dependable Ally. My lover would be Queen of this Kingdom, after all. Why would I try to go against my lover?”

Nux smiled as he glanced at Evane. Evane smiled back.

“What if your ‘lover’ does not become the Queen? Won’t you try to go against us to get your revenge?”

Astaria questioned with an amused look on her face.

“You do not have any other choice.”

Nux shrugged.

Astaria raised her eyebrow.

“What? Don’t look at me like that. The First Prince tried to kill his own brother and sister, there is no way he is fit to become the king, too greedy and merciless. He would destroy the Kingdom.”

Hearing those words, Astaria’s face turned solemn and... a little... sad?

“The Third Prince is dead, the Fourth Prince is a useless man who decided to waste his life on alcohol and women. The only good choice is My Evane, the Second Princess.”

“Alright, whatever.”

Hearing his words, Astaria’s mood changed a little.

She sounded... annoyed?

Nux frowned, he didn’t know what happened.

“Are you the one Arvina chose to be the next Emperor who will protect this Kingdom?”

Astaria changed the topic.

Chapter 460 - Lady Astaria, L Hope You Answer My Question Honestly.

“Are you the one Arvina chose to be the next Emperor who will protect this Kingdom?”

Astaria questioned with a curious look on her face.

“Initially, yes. That is what Teacher wanted.”

Nux nodded and hearing his answer, Astaria frowned,

“Initially?”

“Yes, initially, however, when I learned about it, I rejected the Idea.”

Again, Nux was honest.

“Why would you reject that?”

Astaria frowned.

“You become the Strongest Being in the Kingdom, a being who has control over everything, a being who can order around anyone, even the King. You can just stay in your room and do whatever you want, literally no one can say anything to you.

Why would you reject something like that? You gain absolute power.”

Hearing her words, Nux couldn't help but chuckle,

“Absolute power my foot. Staying in a single room for the rest of my life, isn't that comparable to being a prisoner? You get to order around people?”

What are you talking about? You rarely even meet people.

Tell me, when was the last time you left your room before this?”

Nux questioned.

“ ... ”

Astaria turned silent.

“See? This Absolute Power is just a prison. I will rather stay as an independent Emperor Stage Cultivator, go wherever I want, live wherever I want, and do whatever I want.” Nux spoke with a big smile on his face.

“And who said you can’t do it as the Protector of this Kingdom?”

Astaria questioned.

“Hmm?” Nux frowned.

“Do you really think anyone in this Kingdom has the power to imprison me? Do you really think that I would stay in that room if I don’t want to?”
Astaria smiled.

Nux narrowed his eyes,

“Then why do you stay in that room? Isn’t it... lonely?”

“I am always immersed in my Cultivation, I don’t have any time to think about such stuff. Yes, you will be free from any responsibilities whatsoever if you do not become the Protector, however, if you do that, you won’t be able to focus on your Cultivation. And Trust me, after becoming an Emperor, a cultivation session of a few hours wouldn’t help you in any way.”

Hearing those words, Nux frowned,

“Cultivation? You still cultivate?”

“Of course I do.”

“But isn’t Emperor Stage the peek? You are already the strongest in the world, why cultivate now?”

“Heh.”

Astaria couldn’t control herself and a small chuckle leaked out of her mouth.

Seeing that, Nux frowned,

“Wait... you are not the Strongest in the World?”

He guessed.

“I am.”

Astaria nodded.

Nux was now even more confused,

“Nux, Emperor Stage is not the Limit, there is something above the Emperor.”

“Above the Emperor?”

“Yes, don’t ask me what it is, since even I don’t know, however, the moment I stepped into this Realm, I knew it wasn’t the Limit, I can still accumulate energy in my body, there has to be another Realm above the Emperor.

Other Emperor feels the same, the reason they stay in a single room for most of their life is that they all want to reach that realm.

You know about the Treaty, correct?”

Suddenly, Astaria questioned.

“Yes, I do.”

Nux nodded.

“Why do you think the Treaty the signed?”

“Is... is it because you all wanted to cultivate, and didn't want anyone to bother you?”

Nux guessed.

Astaria chuckled,

“Indeed. Well, it wasn't us, it was the Second Generation Emperors, they all could feel this Realm as well, therefore, they signed this Treaty. Of course, the damage caused by the Battle between 2 Emperors is also a reason.”

“So you have been Cultivating all these decades inside that room?” Nux questioned.

“Indeed.”

Astaria nodded and now, Nux was even more confused.

He glanced at Astaria again and soon, her information appeared in his mind.

‘Is my System wrong?’

Nux couldn’t understand. With a confused look on his face, he turned towards Astaria and questioned,

“Lady Astaria, I hope you answer my question honestly.”

“Alright, ask what you wish.”

Astaria smiled a little.

“After Cultivating for all these years, have you experienced any improvements? Can the present you defeat the past you, who had just become an Emperor?”

“...”

Astaria turned silent.

“Please answer my question, Lady Astaria.”

Nux urged.

“I can defeat my past self, yes.”

Astaria nodded. Hearing that answer, Nux’s frown deepened.

“However.”

Suddenly, Astaria continued,

“I have not experienced any improvements in my cultivation. In all these years, only my control over my energy has improved.”

‘As I thought.’

Nux nodded inwardly.

Astaria was still Level 70, and even after all those years, her level has not improved, that was also the reason Nux believe that Emperor was the peak.

“I don’t understand, if you have not experienced any improvements, then why bother? Why not just enjoy your life?”

Hearing that question, an emotional smile appeared on Astaria’s face,

“I am determined to see that peak.”

“And this is the same for all the Emperors?”

Nux questioned.

“You cannot become an Emperor if you are not curious enough, Boy. All those geezers are desperate to see the peek, even more desperate than me.”

Astaria answered.

“Some of them might not be that desperate.”

Suddenly, Nux commented.

“What do you mean?”

Astaria frowned.

“I told you, did I not? Focus on the Solid Earth Kingdom.” Nux spoke with a serious look on his face.

Hearing those words, Astaria’s face turned solemn as well.

“Herms Lizander has broken the Treaty.”

“I wanted to ask you this before but couldn’t since there were too many people.

How do you know that man's name?"

Astaria questioned.

"The General of the Solid Earth Kingdom, Armando, he is my subordinate."

Nux revealed and Astaria's eyes widened in surprise.

"A General serving the Solid Earth Kingdom is your subordinate? How did you do that?"

"I have my ways."

Nux smiled mysteriously. Astaria's face twitched, however, before she could attack him in annoyance, Nux continued.

"This only proves my point further. Herms is actually breaking the Treaty, if you want, I can even tell you what he plans to do."

A solemn look appeared on Astaria's face, seeing that he successfully managed to gain his attention, Nux smiled and started telling her everything he knew.

Chapter 461 - You Really Are Planning To Go After My Grandmother, Huh...

“This is a serious matter.”

After listening to what Nux had to say, Astaria commented.

“I know.” Nux nodded.

With her sharp eyes, Astaria glanced at Nux and warned,

“I will visit the Solid Earth Kingdom myself and if I find that you lied, that my Student’s Student or not, you will face serious consequences.”

“I would never joke about something like this.”

Nux nodded with a serious look on his face as well.

Astaria then stood up and started walking out of her room, however, before she actually walked out, she turned back and glanced at Nux.

“The investigation about the assassin case will continue, Raguel might try to attack Evane. I am counting on you to protect her.”

“Don’t worry, no one can hurt even a strand of her hair with me here.”

Nux replied confidently.

“You might lose some corrupt subordinates though.”

He warned.

“That’s the problem for the next Ruler, not me.”

Astaria glanced at Evane and smiled.

Evane chuckled.

Astaria chuckled as well and then,

“I hope what you said turns out to be true.”

Saying that, she disappeared.

“Did she just use an ability similar to your [Harem’s Gate]?” Evane questioned.

“No, she just moved very fast. So fast that we couldn’t even see her.”

“As expected of the Strongest being in this world.”

Evane smiled wryly.

“She is a monster.”

Nux nodded.

“Haaahhhh....”

Suddenly, a relieved sigh escaped from Nux’s mouth as he fell on the bed with a relieved look on his face.

“That is not your bed...”

Evane spoke.

“Heh.”

Nux just chuckled.

“With that monster gone, I am the strongest being in the Kingdom.”

Nux commented.

“That is true.”

Evane nodded.

“Just a few more days and our plan will be fulfilled. Raguel would be proven Guilty, you will be crowned as the next King, then we will force Ricardus to abdicate the Throne and you will finally become the actual Ruler.

You will then strengthen yourself, gain more and more support from all the nobles, get rid of useless subordinates, filter out the whole Kingdom and once you have absolute power, you can introduce me and the others.

Haahh... peaceful days are coming soon.”

Nux sighed.

“And what about that Herms?”

Evane questioned.

Everything was going a little too well, Evane felt that something was not right. The only aspect they couldn't control was what Harms Lyzander was planning to do, therefore, she was worried about it.

“Astaria would take care of it. We don't have to worry about it.”

Then suddenly, a perverted smile appeared on his face and he continued,

“If she cannot, then we can always create our own Army of Emperor Stage Cultivators with Astaria's help.”

“You really are planning to go after my Grandmother, huh...”

Evane commented. No matter what, she felt strange whenever she thought about it.

“Oh c’mon, please don’t call her your grandmother. From what angle does she look like a Grandmother? She looks like a perfect MILF in her early 30s.”

Nux smiled perversely.

‘There he goes with his perverse fantasies.’

Evane shook her head in defeat.

However, after talking with Nux, her worries lessened.

Nux was right, if something goes wrong, they can always get her Grandmother and her husband to... have sex with each other.

‘Ugghh!! That sounds so wrong...’

Evane couldn’t help but think.

Anyways, after Nux and Astaria’s fucks, Nux will become an Emperor Stage Cultivator and not just a normal Emperor Stage Cultivator, he would become a man who is Emperor Stage Mana Cultivator and Emperor Stage Body Cultivator.

Once that happens, he would be strong enough to defeat many Emperor Stage Cultivators on his own.

He would be absurdly powerful. No one in this world would be able to go against him.

No matter what the other emperors were planning it would all be useless if front of Nux.

Soon, with Nux, all his wives would become Emperor Stage Cultivators as well. With that much power in their hands, no one would go against them and they would live a life without any worries.

Just thinking about all this places a smile on Nux’s face.

“Alright, let’s get go into your room.”

Suddenly, Nux stood up and spoke.

Evane smiled.

“Alright.”

The two of them then left Astaria’s room and walked into Evane’s room.

There, without wasting a second, Nux walked towards the bed. Evane blushed a little, however, suddenly, a confused frown appeared on her face when she saw Nux sitting cross-legged.

“What are you doing?”

She questioned.

“...” Nux, however, didn’t reply. Soon, Black Mist surrounded his body.

‘Is he... cultivating?’

Evane was shocked.

A smile then appeared on her face,

She walked towards the bed as well, sat cross-legged, closed her eyes, and started cultivating as well.

...

“AAAHHHHH!!!”

*Smash* *Crunch*

On the other side, in the Fulvanus Duke House, a man who looked in his early 60s threw a vase in fury. In front of him, stood 3 men, Duke Thornton Fulvanus, Gibson Fulvanus, and Raguel Skyfall. All 3 of these men were incredibly influential and had control over many lives, however, in front of this man, all three of them were bowing their heads and didn't dare to utter a word.

“To actually dare to send assassins after a Prince, a Princess, and a Royal Consort at the same time...

Are you guys out of your mind!?”

The man shouted in rage.

However, even after all that, the three men didn't dare to say anything to him.

This man was Cyneheard Fulvianus, Thornton and Gibson's father and Raguel's Great Grandfather, he was also the King Stage Cultivator protecting the Fulvianus Duke house.

Cyneheard glanced at Gibson and spoke,

“I could expect something like this from Thornton, he is a fool, I have known that for a long time now, but you? How could you do something so foolish, Gibson?”

Gibson just bowed his head and didn't say anything.

Thornton, however, couldn't control himself and he,

“Are you just going to keep shouting like an Idiot or are you actually going to do something!?”

Chapter 462 - He Was Asking For It.

“Are you just going to keep shouting like an Idiot or are you actually going to do something!? You are usele-”

Before Thronton could say anything else, Cyneheard appeared in front of him, grabbed his face, and smashed it into the floor.

*Whoosh*

*Bam*

*Crash*

“Ugghh!”

Cyneheard didn't stop there, after pummeling his son into the ground, he kicked his face, his body flew back and clashed with the wall.

In just two moves, Thronton's face was crushed and disfigured and the only thing he could do was groan in pain.

“Uggh...”

All his anger and irritation at being compared to his brother faded away.

Cyneheard glanced at Thornton and spoke in a cold tone,

“I think you forgot who actually makes the rules here just because you have been leading this house for too long.”

“...”

Thornton didn't say anything.

For some reason, seeing his son lying around like that annoyed Cyneheard even more.

He appeared in front of him and kicked his face again, crushing his head between his leg and the wall.

“Great Gra-”

Raguel tried to stop his Great Grandfather, however, Gibson grabbed his arm and shook his head,

“Don’t do anything foolish.”

“But he might di-”

Raguel wanted to counter, however, Gibson interrupted.

“He was asking for it.”

“Well... he was”

Raguel couldn’t help but agree.

The two of them just stood in silence and continued to see Cyneheard taking out his anger on his poor son.

After 5 minutes of merciless beating, Thornton’s face was unrecognizable, this time, he wasn’t even groaning, most probably, he had passed out from the pain.

“Know your place.”

Cyneheard spoke coldly.

“...”

Of course, Thornton wasn’t in any condition to reply.

“Hmph!”

Cyneheard snorted, he then turned towards Gibson and Raguel and spoke,

“You people messed up.”

“We apologize, father.”

Gibson lowered his head and apologized, Raguel repeated his actions.

“This is not something a simple apology can solve. Let’s leave the Royal Consort out of this for a while, you targeted both the Second Princess and the Third Prince at the same time. It would have been fine if you had managed to kill them, however, with the Second Princess surviving and blaming everything on you,

You are in a difficult position.

Merula House, who lost their chance to have some power over the Throne will now come at us, Vestalis House would not leave this chance, they might contact Merula House and even Centho House will come after us as well.”

“Will their Protectors interfere as well?”

Raguel questioned with a solemn look on his face.

Cyneheard shook his head,

“You don’t get it, they won’t directly fight us. With Lady Astaria out, they would never dare to act recklessly, they would use this chance to take advantage of us.

They will pin many blames on us and would try to make up for all their losses.

Rather than going against Lady Astaria by fighting us directly, they will ask for her help and would ‘seek justice’.

They are going to play dirty.”

Cyneheard's expression was not good.

“B-But it is just our imagination, correct? This might not happen, right?”

Raguel still had hopes.

His hopes, however, were crushed.

“The moment our attack failed, I set up a few of my men to keep an eye on the Three Duke Houses, the three of them are exchanging letters very frequently. They are definitely planning something.”

For more chapters, please visit

Gibson spoke with a solemn look on his face.

“I expected that...”

Cyneheard nodded.

However, even though his prediction was correct, he was not the least bit happy about it.

“If Evane becomes the Queen, things would be even worse.”

Suddenly, Gibson commented.

Raguel's eyes shined momentarily, however, he controlled his emotions and questioned in a serious tone,

“What should we do about her then...?”

“...”

Gibson didn't say anything and glanced at Cyneheard, waiting for his answer.

“We need to deal with the Second Princess.”

Cyneheard spoke with a solemn look on her face.

“Are we going to kill her?”

Gibson questioned.

“Are you a fool!? How are we going to Kill her, let alone the fact that she has a King Stage Cultivator as her subordinate and there are 2 Duke Houses supporting her, Lady Astaria is out right now.

Any reckless action and our whole house will be destroyed.

Do not underestimate an Emperor, you people do not know how scary she is.”

Cyneheard warned.

“Then what should we do...?”

Gibson questioned.

“ ... ”

Cyneheard turned silent.

Even he didn't have an answer to this question.

They were surrounded.

They have lost most of their Expert Stage Cultivators in this attack, the other Three Duke Houses were looking at them like hungry wolves looking at injured prey. Astaria Skyfall, the strongest being in the world is out of her Cultivation room and was now investigating the entire incident.

He couldn't think of anything that could save them.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

The entire room turned silent.

“There is one way.”

After a long silence, Cyneheard spoke.

“What is it?”

Raguel questioned with an excited look on his face.

“This might affect our reputation and would definitely lower our overall strength, however, this is the only way I can think of right now,

We need to break all our relationships with the Expert Stage Cultivators that were killed in this attack.

From now on, we don't have anything to do with those assassins, we were innocent.

If we manage to prove this, then they would have no choice but to give up on attacking us, of course, we might even have the chance to fight for the throne.”

“I have already cut all the ties with those assassins.”

Gibson spoke.

Hearing that, a satisfied smile appeared on Cyneheard's face.

“You did well.”

“However, I do not believe we can prove our innocence in this incident. Vestalis House is giving its all to prove us guilty. I believe that they have already convinced Merula House, the two houses our working together to forge even more evidence against us.

With our current power, we can't go against them.”

“ ... ”

Cyneheard turned silent again. After thinking for a while, he spoke,

“We do not have any choice, we can only wait. If things don't go in our way, then,”

A cold look appeared on Cyneheard's face and he spoke,

“Then we would go all out in order to get rid of that Evane Bitch.”

Chapter 463 - A Messenger?

“Are you alright? You are not hurt anywhere, are you?”

Leofric Vestalis, or Duke Vestalis rushed towards her Granddaughter, grabbed her shoulders, and asked her in worry.

“Grandpa, don’t worry. I am not hurt anywhere.”

Evane answered with a smile on her face.

Hearing her answer, Leofric sighed in relief, soon, however, his expression changed and he clenched his fist,

“Don’t worry, I will make sure that bastard pays for it. How dare he try to hurt my Granddaughter!? I will make him and his entire house pay for it. You focus on staying healthy, Evane, Grandpa will take care of all this.”

Leofric and Evane smiled.

“Also, why didn’t you tell me that you had a King Stage Cultivator as your subordinate? How did you even recruit him? He is not trying to hurt you, is he? Are you sure that he is trustworthy?”

Leofric asked a series of questions.

“Don’t worry, he is trustworthy.”

Evane replied.

“Where is he? I need to meet him.”

Leofric spoke. Evane, however, shook his head,

“He is cultivating, he can’t meet you yet.”

“Hmm? You can always call him, can’t you?”

“I don’t want to disturb his cultivation.” Evane shook her head.

Hearing that, Leofric narrowed his eyes.

Evane’s response was strange, it didn’t look like she was talking about her servant...

Leofric tried to test the waters.

“Hmph! He is just a servant! Why can’t he meet his Master’s Grandpa!? I need to meet him, now! Where is he? In your room, right? Let me meet him.”

Saying that, Leofric started walking, Evane, however, appeared in front of him.

“He is not a servant.”

She spoke in a strict voice.

Leofric narrowed his eyes, he has never seen this expression on Evane’s face.

“Who is he then?” He questioned.

“He...” A small blush appeared on Evane’s face and she answered, “He is my husband.”

“H-H-H-H-Husband!?”

Leofric shouted out loud.

So loud that a few servants turned towards him and Evane.

Evane panicked.

“Keep your voice down! Not many people know about it.” She shushed.

Leofric, however, couldn't believe what he just heard.

He expected that the relationship between Evane and her mysterious subordinate wasn't simple, but a husband? Not even a Lover, a husband?

Just how...

When did his Granddaughter marry?

And why didn't she invite him!?

As if knowing what he was thinking, Evane smiled,

"We haven't married officially yet, we will arrange a big wedding once I become the Queen."

"Now I have to meet him, I can't give my Granddaughter to just any random nobody."

Leofric spoke.

"Don't worry, I will come to your house with him, but don't disturb him right now."

"Alright, I will be waiting for you then." Saying that, Leofric turned around.

However, before he moved out, he turned around again and, "Visit me as soon as possible."

"I will, now go." Evane chuckled.

Leofric finally left. Evane sighed, she then stood up and walked towards her room.

There, Nux was sitting cross-legged, covered with ominous-looking Black Mist.

Evane sighed, she then walked towards him and started cultivating as well.

The next few days went peacefully.

However, Nux added another thing to his schedule.

Cultivating.

And he was oddly immersed in it.

So much that he would continue to cultivate for days before finally waking up, then he spent time with his women, and once they all were satisfied, he returned to cultivating again.

His wives found this sudden seriousness very peculiar, however, they didn't complain.

They were actually happy that Nux was working hard.

Although the time he could spend with them was reduced, seeing him working so hard was a delight in itself.

More and more days passed by, Nux and his women continued to cultivate peacefully,

However, on a certain day, someone unexpected contacted Nux.

'Master.'

Hearing his voice, Nux, who was cultivating, opened his eyes and frowned,

'Alger? What happened?'

Yes, it was Alger. Alger Bannermane, one of Nux's first slaves.

'Master, someone wants to meet Mistress Thyra.'

Alger reported.

‘Thyra? Who is it?’

‘I don’t know but...’

‘But what?’

Nux questioned.

After some hesitation, Alger replied,

‘He is a King Stage Cultivator.’

Nux raised his eyebrow.

King Stage Cultivators were rare, for a King Stage Cultivator wishing to meet Thyra... something was not right.

‘Also, he seems to be sent by the Skadi Kingdom.’

Alger reported and Nux’s face turned serious.

‘Have you told anything to Thyra?’

He questioned.

‘No, I have not. I reported to you first.’ Alger replied.

Nux nodded, alright, stall him for a while, I will be there with Thyra.

‘As you command, Master.’

Alger nodded.

Nux ended his conversation with Alger and contacted Thyra.

‘I am coming there, we will go meet that man together.’

After telling everything to Thyra, Nux turned towards Evane and smiled,

“I need to go.”

“Alright.”

“Call me if anything happens.”

“Mhm. Don’t worry, I don’t think many people can defeat me now.”

Evane chuckled.

Nux chuckled as well, then, he disappeared.

The next second, he appeared in front of Thyra. Thyra smiled, she walked towards Nux, placed her hands on his shoulders, and their lips met.

After thoroughly enjoying his lips, Thyra stepped back.

“Shall we leave?”

She questioned.

Nux smiled.

Thyra then started running towards Alger’s Mansion, Nux activated his [Conceal] and followed behind her.

A few minutes later, the two of them appeared in front of Alger’s Mansion.

Nux narrowed his eyes,

“1 King Stage and 3 Expert Stage Cultivators.”

“That’s an intimidating lineup.”

Thyra smiled.

“Indeed.”

Nux agreed.

“Shall we surprise them?”

Thyra chuckled as her eyes moved toward the 3 Expert Stage Cultivators who were hiding.

“Meh, let’s just meet the boss.”

Nux shrugged.

He wasn’t interested in surprising anyone. It would have been different if it was a female assassin, of course.

Seeing a cold, emotionless assassin’s surprised expression was never less amazing.

Just thinking about it, Nux smiled.

Thyra then walked into the mansion and entered the room where the King Stage Cultivator was sitting.

Seeing her enter, the King Stage Cultivator stood up.

“One, you are not responding t-”

Suddenly, the man turned silent.

Chapter 464 - L Do Not Wish To Serve Her Anymore.

“One, you are not responding t-”

The man wanted to say something, however, he turned silent.

“Your Cultivation...”

He couldn't believe what he was seeing.

However, after seeing it with his own eyes, he finally understood something that was bothering him for quite a while.

Thyra smiled,

“Thyra.” She spoke.

“Huh?”

The Man frowned.

“Thyra, not One. Call me properly, with proper respect.” Although she was still smiling, the man knew he couldn't mess this up.

Thyra was now a King Stage Cultivator. Although he was a King Stage Cultivator as well, Thyra was someone who could assassinate an Expert Stage Cultivator when she was only a Grand Master Stage Cultivator.

She was the best Grand Master Stage Assassin under his Master's command.

He was not planning to against someone like her when she has the same cultivation as her.

“Miss Thyra.”

He spoke respectfully, however,

“Mrs. Thyra.”

Thyra corrected him again.

“You are married?” The man frowned.

“If I am not wrong, then that is what ‘Mrs.’ mean.”

A polite version of ‘Yes, you dumb fuck’

The man’s face twitched in annoyance.

He wanted to reprimand On- Thyra for not replying to her Master’s Letters, however, right now, he was being treated like a fool. He was frustrated, however, there was nothing he could do.

Seeing him like that, Thyra smiled. She then walked towards the chair the man was sitting on and sat,

“So? Why did you call me?” Thyra questioned with a smile on her face.

“I was sent here by Master.”

The Man spoke.

Thyra frowned and at the same time, she recalled the ‘Master’ who has trained her since she was small.

It was not a happy memory, however, it wasn’t bad either. Her Master didn’t treat her with love, however, she didn’t live a bad life either. Of course, that is if you don’t consider killing innocents, being tortured to insane limits, training for 20 hours a day, and more as a bad life.

The Thyra before meeting Nux never lived a life different than that, therefore, she didn’t have any opinion on her life. However, the Thyra now, who has lived with Nux and has finally felt how it was like to be loved by someone,

She termed her past as ‘Hell.’

“I do not wish to serve her anymore.”

Without even hearing anything else, Thyra spoke her thoughts.

She wouldn’t go back to being an Assassin, at least not her Master’s Assassins, she would now be Nux’s assassin.

Just thinking about this placed a smile on her face and she glanced at Nux.

‘Hmm? What happened?’

Nux questioned when he noticed her.

‘Nothing.’

Thyra smiled.

‘Kukuku~ Am I looking too handsome today?’

‘So handsome that I can’t hold back.’

Thyra chuckled.

‘Should I just knock this Idiot? We can start here.’

‘A tempting offer indeed.’

Thyra glanced at the man in front of her and actually started considering Nux’s proposal.

“This will be Master’s last request for you. I know you have already decided to quit this life and have started a new life here, but can you do this last mission for your Master?

Treat it as your farewell mission.

You will be fairly rewarded, of course.”

Suddenly, the man muttered.

“You do not have the authority to decide that.” Thyra narrowed her eyes.

“I don’t, however, I do know how that this is how the Master would react if she was here.

This Mission is extremely important for her.”

The man spoke.

Hearing his words, Thyra frowned, however, she didn’t say anything.

‘Just ask what it is. You don’t have to contain your curiosity. If you want, you can even decide to complete this mission as a farewell to your Master.’

Suddenly, Thyra heard Nux’s words.

She then glanced at Nux and after thinking for a while, she questioned.

“What is the Mission?”

Hearing her words, the man’s eyes brightened up, soon, however, his face turned serious and he revealed.

“Assassinate Raguel Skyfall, the First Prince of the Skyfall Kingdom.”

Thyra raised her eyebrow. Even Nux was a little interested.

“Why does she want to Kill him?”

Thyra questioned.

The man, however, shook his head,

“I do not know, all I know is that she wants this mission to be completed as soon as possible.”

Thyra nodded.

That was how it usually went, they never knew why they had to kill someone.

And for her Master to even send a King Stage Cultivator for this Mission, this must be an extremely important mission.

“As you already know, he is an Expert Stage Cultivator, he is also being protected by a Duke house that has a King Stage Cultivator backing them up. Master didn't know that you have already become a King Stage Cultivator, therefore, she sent me and 3 other Expert Stage Cultivators to aid you in this Mission.”

The Man continued to explain.

“She wants me, who is only a Grand Master Stage Cultivator, to lead a King and Expert Stage Cultivators?”

Thyra questioned with a doubtful look on her face.

“Don't act like you don't know. You are the subordinates she treasures the most, even when it is compared to us King Stage Assassins.”

Whether it was true or not didn't matter, the man had to say whatever he could in order to win Thyra over.

And what he said was not entirely wrong either, with Thyra's Talent, it would have only taken 100 or 150 years for her to become a King Stage Cultivator, therefore, her Master treasured her more than the other assassins.

Of course, Thyra didn't care about all that.

“I am not doing this mission.”

Thyra shook her head.

If they wanted, they could have killed Raguel anytime, however, they had other plans and Thyra wasn't planning to ruin their plans for this stupid Mission.

“And I suggest you do not do this Mission either, someone much more dangerous than that King Stage Protector is out right now.”

Thyra warned.

“Lady Astaria, I know about her.”

The man nodded and this time, Nux and Thyra raised their eyebrows in surprise.

Chapter 465 - What Is Master'S Real Name?

“Lady Astaria, I know about her.”

The Man nodded and Thyra and Nux’s faces changed.

“You who about her?” Thyra narrowed her eyes.

This wasn’t something this man should know about. This was Skyfall Kingdom’s deep secret. The fact that Lady Astaria is out shouldn’t be revealed to other countries so soon.

If it was before, Nux and Thyra would have ignored it, however, now, when Evane is about to become the next ruler of this Kingdom, they can’t ignore it.

They had to know, how in the world did this man know about this?

Is there a Traitor inside the Kingdom? Or maybe there is more than one?

Nux and Thyra had to make sure.

“Master told me.”

The Man answered.

“How did she know?”

Thyra questioned and again, the Man shook his head,

“I do not know.”

‘Ask him how he plans to Kill Raguel under Astaria’s watch’

Nux instructed.

“How do you plan to kill the First Prince under her watch?”

“Master said that currently, Raguel is not living inside the Royal Palace because he is being blamed for the Third Prince’s Assassination. He is living in Duke Fulvianus Mansion. Therefore, Lady Astaria wouldn’t know if we attack him.

The only problem is that King Stage Cultivator protecting the Duke House, well, it was a problem before, however, with two of us, two King Stage Cultivators fighting in this, completing this mission would be as easy as killing a bug.”

The man smiled.

“ ... ”

Thyra frowned.

‘So they know about the fact that Raguel assassinated the Third Prince, it is a little faster than I expected, but still not too abnormal. Raguel is staying in Duke’s House is something that you can guess yourself.

The fact that they do not know about Astaria’s Journey to the Solid Earth Kingdom means that the informant is not the King or anyone in the Shadow Unit.

I think it is one of the 4 Ministers.’

Nux already had a rough guess in his mind.

‘Gibson...’

However, since he wasn’t sure, he wasn’t planning to take any action.

At the same time, he told everything that happened to Amaya.

After thinking about this for a while, Amaya shook her head.

‘It cannot be Gibson.’

‘Why not? He is the only one who has the reason to collude with other Kingdom.’ Nux frowned.

‘He has the reason, yes, however, the timings don’t match. The Response is just too quick. Even if Gibson wanted to do something, he wouldn’t have done so right after the assassination. He would have waited for at least a Month.

It was not like Raguel and he will be implicated within a month, due to their status, it would have taken a lot more time than that. Gibson should know this as well.

There is no way he would do something as dangerous as contacting the other Kingdom when all eyes are on him.

Even if it is proved that Raguel is the killer, Fulvianus House would only lose some of their power, however, if the fact that they are in contact with the other kingdom secretly is revealed, the whole Duke House would be destroyed.

The stakes are just too high.’

Amaya explained and Nux turned silent.

‘Then how does this ‘Master’ know about all this?’

‘I don’t know.’

Amaya snorted.

Nux frowned.

A strange reaction.

Why is she acting like that?

He wondered in his mind.

Suddenly, a question popped into her mind.

‘Amaya.’

He called out.

‘What is it?’

‘What is your mother’s name?’

‘Why do you want to know?’

‘I want to go after her, the woman who gave birth to someone like you must be a beauty.’

‘Don’t even dare.’ Amaya threatened.

‘I am just joking, now tell me her name.’

‘Riona Skadi.’

Amaya answered, however, her expression was not good.

Nux nodded, he then turned towards Thyra and questioned.

‘Thyra, what’s this Master’s name again?’

‘Her name?’

Thyra frowned.

‘Yes, what is it?’

‘I don’t know...’

Thyra shook her head.

‘Huh?’

‘I was not ranked high enough, though I met her a few times, every time I did, she had a mask on her face.’

‘What about this idiot? He should know about it, correct?’

‘He should...’

Thyra nodded and then without needing Nux’s instruction, she questioned,

“What is Master’s real name?”

“Huh?”

The Man frowned.

“Just answer the question.”

“...”

The man didn’t know how to reply.

His Master’s name was a secret, however, Thyra here was someone very important for this Mission, and this Mission was very important to his Master.

He didn’t know what to do.

“What? So much for the final farewell and all that? You can’t even trust me with something so simple? How can I trust you with my life then?”

You can leave.”

Thyra spoke in a cold tone.

“Find someone else to help you.”

Saying that, Thyra stood up and started walking away.

“Riona, Riona Skadi, the Queen of the Skadi Kingdom.”

Thyra's eyes widened in surprise.

On the other hand, Nux finally realized.

'So the woman they are talking about is your mother.'

'She is not my mother, she is a bitch.'

Amaya's response was instantaneous.

'You really hate her, don't you?'

'Hmph, try getting abandoned by your mother when you are only 12 years old, you would know how I feel, honestly, I would have preferred if I was an orphan.'

Amaya snorted.

'So she was the one who sent you here.'

'Yes, Skadi's attacked one of the cities in the Skyfall Kingdom, afraid of retaliation, they 'sold' me to the perverted King here. This bitch was the one who proposed this Idea.'

'Sending her 12-year-old daughter away as a gift... disgusting...'

Nux clenched his fist.

'What else can you expect from a power-hungry bitch.'

Amaya commented.

'Do you know why she wants to Kill Raguel?'

Nux questioned.

'I don't.'

Amaya snorted.

Nux realized that he shouldn't ask anything from Amaya in this situation. Her hatred for her mother will cloud her judgment.

'You don't have to be so worked up, I am here, you are not with the King or the Skadi's anymore. You are trapped with me now.'

'I am not worked up, I don't care about that bitch.'

Amaya snorted again.

'...'

Nux turned silent.

He realized that he had to visit Amaya, however, right now, he had to do something else.

Chapter 466 - My Amaya Is Much More Important To Me Than Any Random Slightly Beautiful Woman.

‘Thyra, can you describe what kind of person this Riona is?’

Nux questioned.

Thyra placed her hand on her chin and started thinking, a few seconds later, she replied,

‘Cruel, selfish, emotionless, distant’

‘A terrible person.’

Nux analyzed, Thyra, however, shook her head,

‘No, she was not a bad person, she may be all that, however, she still cared about her subordinates. Whenever one of the assassins dies in any mission, although in front of everyone, she would remain emotionless,

However, one day, I found her standing in front of an assassin’s dead body, she looked genuinely sad but as soon as she saw me, she picked up the body and buried it.

I clearly remember, she didn’t use her leg to push the body into the pit, although coldly, she still picked the body with her own hands and buried it properly. That is not something an ’emotionless’ master would do.’

‘So she was only acting as if she was emotionless.’

Nux muttered.

‘That is what I believe at least.’

Thyra nodded.

Hearing these words, Nux frowned,

Thyra's description was different from Amaya's.

If Riona was actually caring, then why would she give her daughter away as her gift?

Did she not have enough power?

Or...

Another thought appeared in Nux's mind.

'Thyra, can this all be just an act to ensure your loyalty?'

Nux questioned.

Thyra narrowed her eyes and shook her head.

'I was only an Advance Stage Cultivator back then, I don't think she would go that far for a mere Advance Stage Cultivator.'

'You were not a normal Advance Stage Cultivator, Thyra. You were someone with High-level affinity, someone who had the chance to become a King Stage Assassin, you were definitely worth the effort.'

'...'

Thyra turned silent.

'This could all be an act, can it not?'

Nux questioned again.

'It can.'

After thinking for a while, Thyra nodded.

While Thyra and Nux were talking to each other, the King Stage Cultivator lost his patience,

“Mrs. Thyra, are you going to help us?”

He questioned.

Thyra glanced at the man in front of him, then after thinking for a while, she shook her head,

“I have been thinking about this for a while,

I will not help you.”

The man finally lost his patience, he wanted to attack Thyra right here, however, for some reason, he felt that it would be a huge mistake.

Therefore, he controlled his anger and started walking away.

He would think of another way to complete this Mission.

However,

“I will not help you, not until I know why she wants to Kill the First Prince.”

Thyra completed.

“I told you before, I really don’t know why she wants Raguel dead.” The man spoke with a genuine look on his face.

“I know.”

Thyra nodded and then, she smiled,

“Therefore, I will come and meet Master on my own.”

The man’s eyes widened in surprise, even Nux was surprised.

Thyra then turned towards Nux and smiled,

‘Everything she did could be an act, I know. However, I still believe that it wasn’t. Why don’t you meet her and find out on your own?’

‘But that’s the Skadi Kingdom, we don’t know anything about their Emperor, he might attack us.’

‘They don’t know who we are or our relationship with Evane, in their eyes, I am only an assassin who has come here for her last Mission, they won’t kill us as long as we haven’t killed Ragueel.’

Thinking that what she said made sense, Nux nodded.

‘Alright then. Tell him that we are leaving tomorrow.’

Nux had already used his ‘Free’ Teleportation for today, therefore, leaving tomorrow was the best option.

Thyra smiled and then turned back to the man,

“You want to meet Master?” The man questioned again.

“What? You are not scared are you?”

“...”

The man turned silent and after thinking for a while, he nodded.

“Great, we will be leaving early in the morning.” Thyra smiled.

The man nodded and then, he started walking away.

“I will meet you in front of this Mansion at 4 in the Morning.” He spoke.

“Alright.” Thyra nodded and the man left.

5 minutes after the man left, Amaya, Ember, and all of Nux's wives except for Evane walked into Alger's Mansion.

"You are going to the Skadi Kingdom?"

Amaya narrowed her eyes and questioned.

"I am." Nux nodded.

"You are not thinking of going after that bitch, are you?" She narrowed her eyes.

"Woah Woah, What do you think of me? I am not a pervert, okay?"

"..." Amaya didn't say anything and continued to look at Nux's face.

"..." Nux realized that she wasn't joking, therefore, with a serious look on his face, he nodded,

"Don't worry, I won't go after your mother. I will not do anything that would hurt you."

"What if that bitch comes after you?"

"I will reject her."

Nux's answer was instantaneous.

"My Amaya is much more important to me than any random slightly beautiful woman."

A small smile appeared on Amaya's face, however, she retorted.

"She is not beautiful."

This time, Nux shook his head,

"She is your mother, there is no way I would believe that."

Amaya turned away.

Seeing her acting like that, Nux realized that her mood was now better, a small smile appeared on his face.

“But why do you want to meet her? Riona Skadi is not a normal person.”

Suddenly, Ember questioned.

“Hmm? You know about her?” Nux questioned with a surprised look on his face.

“I was the General of Woods Kingdom, you know? Of course, I know about her.”

“Why don’t you know anything about the King’s Wives then?”

“Heh, don’t compare someone like Riona to those idiots who only play ‘beautiful me’ all day. Riona Skadi is different. A lot more different.”

Ember chuckled, and Amaya snorted.

Nux narrowed his eyes, he couldn’t contain his curiosity and finally questioned.

“What are you talking about? Why is Riona different.”

“In front of normal people, she might just be the King’s Wife, however, in truth, she holds a lot more power compared to that Idiotic King. Her influence is far higher than any of the King’s Wives. In truth, it is not wrong to say that she is the actual ruler of the Skadi Kingdom.”

Chapter 467 - It Is Nice To See You Without Amask, Thyra.

“In front of normal people, she might just be the King’s Wife, however, in truth, she holds a lot more power compared to that Idiotic King. Her influence is far higher than any of the King’s Wives. In truth, it is not wrong to say that she is the actual ruler of the Skadi Kingdom.”

Ember revealed and again, Amaya snorted. Thyra, on the other hand, raised her eyebrow in surprise. She didn’t know that her previous Master was so influential.

Seeing Amaya’s reaction, Nux frowned,

“It seems that you knew about this.”

“I did.”

“And why didn’t you tell me?” Nux narrowed his eyes.

“What’s there to tell? She has a little influence, so what? Every bitch has some sort of influence, she just happens to have a little more than others.”

Amaya shrugged.

Hearing her words, everyone present in the room could feel their lips twitching.

A little influence?

She is a fucking Queen!

A Queen!!

Suddenly, a smile appeared on Nux’s face,

“You are right, she only has a little influence, since when did we care about it.”

“Indeed.”

Amaya nodded.

Nux nodded as well.

The people in the room glanced at the two of them and couldn't help but shake their heads.

“So? Why do you want to meet her?”

Ember questioned again.

“It's Thyra who wants to meet her.”

Nux pointed at Thyra. Thyra then told everyone about the relationship between her and Riona, at the same time, all of them also started discussing why Riona wants to kill Raguel and not Evane.

This time, Amaya didn't contribute much to the topic, she just acted spoiled and sat on Nux's lap.

The discussion continued for a long time, and soon, the topic of discussion changed. Time slots were divided and another round of pleasurable sessions and loud moans started.

Time passed, and soon, it was time for Thyra and Nux to go.

Nux, of course, would follow them using his [Conceal].

The King Stage Assassin soon appeared in front of the mansion, behind him, there were 3 Expert Stage Assassins, yes, they were the same assassins who were hiding yesterday.

“Are you ready?” The King Stage Assassin questioned.

Thyra nodded, and the man nodded back, "Let's go." He shouted and then, he started running.

At their level, traveling by carriage was too inefficient, rarely anyone used a Carriage.

Everyone then started running towards the Skadi Kingdom.

Since no one was in any sort of hurry, they took their time to reach their destination.

A day later, all of them appeared near the outskirts of Skadi Kingdom, here, the King Stage Assassin stopped, he then turned towards Thyra and spoke,

"Stay here, I will talk to Master and bring her here."

"Alright."

The Assassins nodded and then they started running away, this time, Thyra didn't follow them.

Once they left, Thyra explained,

"Even though she was the Queen, she never met us in the Royal Palace, to be honest, I didn't even know that she was the Queen. Heh, to think Amaya was my Master's Daughter."

Thyra chuckled dryly.

She knew her Master was someone influential, but the queen? She had no idea.

To be honest, she was never curious about her Master's identity, she only wanted to clear her mission and then clear another mission.

That was her life. The same was true for all the other assassins around her.

"Heh, to think she was able to hide her identity from assassins who are experts at finding out anything they desire. I have to admit, she is amazing."

Nux commented.

“Well, don’t forget, she is Amaya’s mother.” Thyra pointed out.

“Indeed. Someone who gave birth to Amaya can’t be normal.”

Nux smiled.

Then, he walked towards Thyra and hugged her from behind.

“What about you? Are you alright?”

“Hmm? Of course, I am. Why do you ask?” Of course, she didn’t reject the hug, she placed her hands on top of his and smiled.

“Well, you learned a lot of things in successions. I am sure you are overwhelmed.” Nux spoke gently.

“Heh, I am not as weak as you think.” Thyra chuckled.

“My previous Master is the Queen of a Kingdom who actually has more influence than the King, well, it doesn’t matter now. I am not connected to her in any way now. I only came here because I want to know what she is planning.”

Thyra’s eyes then turned cold,

“And if her plan is something that goes against ours, we need to get rid of her.”

There was no trace of doubt or uncertainty in Thyra’s tone.

“Tsk, you should have let me pamper you.”

Nux snorted.

Thyra smiled, then she pushed her body towards Nux, her butt touching Nux's crotch, she then turned a little, her blue eyes looked into Nux's and she smiled,

“Who said you can't pamper me now?”

Nux's smile widened.

He tightened his hug around Thyra.

The two of them cuddled in the middle of nowhere.

Time passed quickly, 1 hour later, Nux's hands, which were kneading Thyra's breasts stopped.

“They are here.”

He muttered.

“Is there anyone else with her?”

Thyra questioned.

She was worried about the Emperor Stage Cultivator following her. Of course, Nux had the same doubt in his mind as well, however, after using his [Sense], he sighed in relief.

“No, only that King Stage Assassin is with her.”

Thyra smiled.

She was right, even if Riona wanted to kill her, she wouldn't call Emperor Stage Cultivator, even she shouldn't have enough influence to order an Emperor.

Nux then stepped away from Thyra and reactivated his [Conceal].

Thyra adjusted her clothes a little, a minute later, Riona and the King Stage Cultivator appeared in front of her.

“Thyra.”

Riona called out.

When her eyes fell on Riona, Thyra stood up and smiled,

“Lady Riona.”

“It is nice to see you without a mask.”

Riona spoke.

“Well, I can’t say the same to you. You are still covering your face with that mask.”

Thyra chuckled.

“Ah, it’s a habit, I apologize.”

Riona chuckled back, then, her hand moved towards her mask, and for the first time in her entire life,

Thyra saw her Master’s face.

Chapter 468 - Riona Skadi

‘Well, she is Amaya’s mother all right.’

Nux couldn’t help but comment in awe.

‘...’

Thyra didn’t say anything.

Riona was an exact copy of Amaya, well, not exact, Amaya’s features were more clearly defined, and her face was more well structured, if Amaya was a prime example of perfect beauty, Riona was a woman with a mature charm around her.

Raven hair, black eyes, thin eyebrows, luscious red lips, a lean figure, just like Amaya, Riona’s breasts weren’t large, however, they weren’t small either, they were a cup size bigger than Amaya’s.

All in all, Riona was a beautiful, charming woman.

It would be a lie to say that Nux wasn’t attracted to her.

However, just like he said before, he didn’t have any plans to go after this woman.

He would stay loyal to his words, and loyal to Amaya.

“What are you silent? Am I too ugly?”

Riona questioned with a gentle smile on her face.

Thyra shook her head, “You are an attractive woman, Riona.”

It was a little strange for her to call her previous Master directly by her name, however, Thyra had decided to do that from now on. She has to forget her past. She wasn't the emotionless killing machine she used to be.

Riona didn't seem to mind it as well,

“The same goes for you, Thyra. Well, it's not really a surprise, I knew you would turn into an attractive woman from the moment I first met you.

Kukuku~ You were such a cute little girl back then.”

Riona chuckled.

Thyra frowned. Riona was being a little too talkative.

To be honest, Thyra was getting a little suspicious.

This Riona was too different from the 'Master' she knew.

“Adding your current strength, you have turned into the perfect woman there is.”

Riona commented.

Thyra just smiled while she continued to observe Riona.

“Though I will say, I thought that you would still need around 80-100 years to become a King Stage Cultivator. I never imagined that you would break through into the King Stage so quickly. You practically skipped the entire Expert Stage.”

Riona chuckled and then, she questioned,

“Just how did you do it, Thyra?”

Thyra finally realized.

‘So that was why she was being so friendly.’

She sighed in relief.

Now that she could read this woman in front of her, things were better.

A small smile appeared on Thyra's face and she replied,

“I got a little lucky.”

“A little lucky? Heh, you skipped an entire cultivation stage, Thyra, that is not a ‘little luck’.”

Riona chuckled.

“Hahaha~”

Thyra started laughing as well.

The two women continued to laugh, however, both, the King Stage Assassin following Riona, and Nux knew that none of them were actually happy.

Finally, Riona stopped this tiresome game and continued,

“Then I am right to assume that you won't be accepting any more missions, correct?”

“Indeed.”

Thyra nodded.

“What about this Mission?”

“I will consider accepting it if you tell me why you want to kill Raguel.”

“That is not what you said befor-”

The King Stage Assassin retorted, however, before he could even complete his words, Thyra glanced at him with her icy cold eyes and spoke,

“Your words are not required here, stay silent.”

“You...” The King Stage Assassin glared at her in anger and hatred, earlier, he held himself back because he was in Thyra’s area, however, here, things were different. This was his yard.

Here, he coul-

Just as the King Stage Assassin was about to attack Thyra, Riona raised her hand and glanced at Thyra,

“Your attitude has changed quite a lot after you became the King Stage Cultivator.”

“I am not the same as before.”

Thyra shot back.

“That is good. However, keep in mind, there are always people who are stronger than you.”

“Indeed, there are always people who are stronger than you.”

Thyra smiled.

Riona’s face turned serious.

She then released her aura.

Her aura was strong, just like Ember, however, unlike Ember, whose Aura was dominant and intents to suppress her target, Riona’s Aura was dangerous, something that intents to pierce open her targets.

An Aura of Assassin, an Assassin who was stronger than Thyra.

Although Thyra was not overwhelmed by her Aura, she was a little affected.

Riona stepped forward and threatened,

“Don’t try to bite more than you can chew.”

Thyra, however, did not back down,

She stepped forward and looked into Riona’s black eyes.

There was no trace of fear in her eyes, the two women continued to look at each other but no one moved.

2 minutes passed by, however, the tension between the two women only continued to increase.

Suddenly, however, Riona stepped back.

“Alright, be honest, why do you want to know my reason? I don’t think you are the type who was ever curious about something like that.”

“I told you already, didn’t I? I am not the same as before.” Thyra replied.

Riona, however, narrowed her eyes,

“I stepped back, you should step back a little as well. Deals are made when both parties are willing to provide their best. It is never a one sided effort. Not unless you have a ridiculous advantage and trust me, you don’t have that.”

Thyra thought about this for a while and finally decided to answer Riona’s question, “Targeting Raguel doesn’t benefit you in any way, sooner or later, he will be punished by the Skyfall Kingdom for attacking his own brother and sister. If you wanted to target someone, it would be Princess Evane. She is the one who will become the next ruler.

Killer, her would affect the Skyfall Kingdom, now that is something that benefits you. Killing Raguel, on the other hand, is useless. Rather, you would just be taking the risk of exposing yourself and would be forced to pay for the consequences if you get caught.

It is not worth it.

You are not someone who will make irrational decisions, so why this?

Why do you want to kill the First Prince so badly?”

“My reason is personal.”

Chapter 469 - Do Not Touch My Wife.

“Why do you want to kill the First Prince so badly?”

Thyra questioned.

“My reason is personal.”

Riona spoke.

Thyra narrowed her eyes.

“I stepped back, you should step back a little as well. Deals are made when both parties are willing to provide their best. It is never a one sided effort. Not unless you have a ridiculous advantage and trust me, you don't have that.”

She then repeated Riona's own words.

“Oh? And how are you so sure that we don't have a 'ridiculous advantage'? Just in case you forget, there are 2 King Stage Cultivators standing in front of you and you are alone.”

The man standing next to Riona threatened.

Thyra glanced at the man, then completely ignored him and looked back at Riona,

“Do you really want to do this?”

She questioned.

Riona frowned. She then turned towards the Assassin and spoke coldly,

“Stay silent.”

The man snorted, however, he didn't dare go against Riona's order and turned silent.

Riona then glanced at Thyra and spoke,

“You should also know your limits, Thyra. Don't be too overconfident.”

“I will not help unless you decide to be honest with me, I have no reason to risk my life for someone who is still hiding things from me.”

Thyra replied.

“...” Riona didn't say anything.

“Alright then, it was nice meeting you again, Riona.”

Saying that, Thyra turned around.

“Lady Riona...”

The King Stage Assassin wanted to say something, however, Riona raised her hand again, signaling him to stay silent.

Then, she glanced at Thyra's back and,

“That bastard killed my daughter.”

She answered.

“Huh?”

Thyra turned around.

“That bastard killed my daughter. He will get caught, the Kingdom will punish him, he is finished, I do not care about anything like that. Whether the Skyfall Kingdom will punish him harshly or leniently, I don't care about that either.

I want to deliver him his punishment on my own. That is the least I could do for my daughter.”

Thyra narrowed her eyes, even Nux was surprised when he heard her reason.

“Don’t act like you care, you were the one who sent your daughter away in the first place.”

Thyra retorted.

“How do you know about that?” Riona, however, narrowed her eyes.

“What are you talking about?” Thyra feigned ignorance.

This time, however, Riona didn’t control herself, she released her Aura again, this time, it was a lot more suffocating than before.

She then walked towards Thyra and questioned her in a threatening way,

“How did you know I was the one who sent my daughter away?”

Riona’s entire aura changed. It was as if everything she had shown before was just an act, now, however, she looked serious, scary even.

Thyra, however, was not intimidated.

“I have my sourc-”

She replied, however, before she even completed her sentence, Riona disappeared and with a dagger in her hand, she appeared behind Thyra, taking her by surprise.

Thyra’s eyes widened, she didn’t expect Riona would attack her like that.

This was too aggressive, the cool-minded Riona would never do something like that.

Thyra tried reacting, however, Riona was faster than she expected.

Just as Riona's dagger was about to touch Thyra's throat, a hand grabbed Riona's hand, stopping her attack with ease.

"Who are you? How did you get here?"

Riona questioned as she glared at Nux.

Nux, however, completely ignored the woman and turned towards Thyra.

"Are you alright?"

"I got careless." Thyra narrowed her eyes.

"Heh. That's good."

Nux chuckled.

Thyra narrowed her eyes.

"You keep your guard down since you know I am around, it feels nice."
Nux chuckled.

Thyra smiled a little, however, before she could reply, another dagger appeared in Riona's hand and she attacked Nux.

Nux, however, blocked her attack with ease and grabbed her hand.

"Khwak!"

He then kicked Riona's stomach and pushed her away.

"Who are you!?"

Riona questioned again.

Just this small encounter was enough for her to realize that the man in front of her was not a normal King Stage Cultivator.

He was much stronger than that.

He was not an Emperor, that she knew.

He was just a ridiculously strong King Stage Cultivator.

Riona decided to take things seriously.

Dark Mist surrounded her body, Nux frowned, soon, however, he realized that this Dark Mist was not the Devouring Mist. It was just a cheap imitation. This was not his first time seeing this, Kelton used a similar technique, Riona's looked more refined, however, in the end, it was still nothing more than a cheap imitation in Nux's eyes.

“You are lucky that you are her mother. You would be lying dead on the ground if not for that.”

Nux narrowed his eyes and warned,

“Do not touch my wife.”

Riona, however, completely ignored his warning and focused on more important talk.

“You knew my daughter?”

She questioned.

“We were a little close.”

Thyra stepped forward and replied.

“Then why aren't you accepting this mission!? Weren't you close with her!? Do you not desire revenge!?”

Riona shouted.

The King Stage Assassin standing behind was shocked.

He had never seen Lady Riona acting like that.

“Did you not hear me? We were only a little close. She wouldn’t have risked life to avenge me if I had died, I am doing the same.”

Thyra shrugged.

“Who are you kidding!?! With that monster with you, killing that bastard would be as easy as killing a bug! Heck, you don’t even have to assassinate him, you can directly barge into that Duke’s house and directly kill him!”

Riona retorted.

“Heh, aren’t you speaking too much for someone who sent her daughter to Skyfall Kingdom in the first place? I mean, rather than Raguel, aren’t you the one who killed her?”

Sending a 12-year-old girl into another Kingdom was no different than killing her, don’t you think?”

Nux chuckled as he blamed Riona, at the same time, he observed her reacting with a curious look on his face.

Riona’s eyes turned bloodshot,

“You bastard! Do not spout bullshit if you don’t know anything!”

She then dashed towards Nux with a dagger that was covered with her mysterious Black Energy.

Chapter 470 - That Mist...

“You bastard! Do not spout bullshit if you don’t know anything!”

Riona shouted in rage and then dashed towards Nux with a dagger that was covered with her mysterious Black Energy.

A normal, 2-star dagger appeared in Nux’s hand and,

*Clank*

He blocked Riona’s attack with a smile on his face.

“Heh, do you think you will get stronger if you get angry? What? Did you think you were the main character here?” Nux chuckled.

“Huh? What?”

Riona furrowed her brows in confusion.

“Nothing.”

After a small laugh, Nux pushed her away.

“Also, don’t try to scare me with that stupid Black energy of yours, it is nothing but a combination of Fire and Wind.”

“How do you know that?”

Riona narrowed her eyes.

“Amaya told me of course.” Nux shrugged.

Suddenly, Riona frowned.

She then glanced at Nux and narrowed her eyes,

“What was your relationship with my daughter?”

“Didn’t she tell you already?” Nux pointed at Thyra.

“Don’t think you can fool me, that girl would never reveal the secret of this technique to anyone random.”

Nux smiled disdainfully, “You talk as if you know her.”

Riona narrowed her eyes again, “Trust me, I know her better than you do.”

“I highly doubt that.”

Nux shook his head with a smile on his face.

‘If only you knew.’

Thyra, who was listening to their conversation shook her head and sighed.

“So you admit you were close to my daughter, don’t you?”

Suddenly, Riona muttered.

“...”

Nux turned silent.

He couldn’t believe that he got played so easily.

‘This bitch.’

He cursed inwardly.

He glanced at Riona again, however, rather than the winning smirk that he expected would appear on her face, her expression looked rather serious.

“You were close to my daughter, why are you hesitating even though I am giving you a chance to avenge her?”

“ ... ”

Nux didn't say anything.

“Are you perhaps scared of the retaliation? No, with your strength, there is no way you would be scared of Duke Fulvianus coming for you. Ah, so it must be her.

You are scared that Lady Astaria would go after you, aren't you?”

Riona questioned.

“...” Again, Nux didn't say anything and continued to look at Riona.

“You do not have to fear her, just like Lady Astaria, my Kingdom has an Emperor Stage Cultivator as well. After you complete this mission, you can come to live in our Kingdom. Without anything in return, of course. Rather, if you wish, I would even give you a position where even the Dukes would have to bow in front of you.

Of course, if you wish to not reveal yourself, then I won't give you any position and you can stay in seclusion, doing whatever you want...”

Then Riona glanced at Thyra and spoke,

“And with whomever you want.”

“ ... ”

Hearing those words, Thyra turned silent and Nux chuckled.

Riona really was Amaya's mother.

“Your man is too simple.”

Suddenly, Nux spoke.

“What?”

Riona questioned with a confused look on her face.

“We are not scared of anyone, neither do we need your Kingdom for refugee. As for the revenge, heh, we will avenge Amaya on our own. Your plan is just too simple.

Just assassinate someone who dared to attack Amaya? Heh, too simple, too easy. Death is an easy way out. I will show Raguel was hell on earth looks like.

He would regret ever laying hands on my Amaya.”

Nux spoke with a crazy smile on his face.

Riona was taken aback, soon, however, she focused on much more important work.

“My Amaya? What do you mean? What was your relationship with my daughter?”

“Heeh? Didn’t you say you know your daughter better than me? Why are you asking me then?”

Nux snorted.

He was still a little salty about before.

Riona’s face twitched in annoyance.

“Just answer the question.”

Riona ordered.

“And who do you think you are to order me around?”

Nux chuckled.

“I am her mother.”

“Heh.”

Nux laughed out loud again.

“What I did was important.”

Suddenly, Riona spoke.

Nux and Thyra narrowed their eyes,

“What do you mean?”

Nux questioned.

“...”

Riona didn't say anything for a long time.

“You are correct, I was the one who sent her away when she was just a child, I was a cruel mother who abandoned her child. I know that.

However, I was forced to do so.

If I hadn't, Amaya would have died.”

“Explain yourself.”

Nux spoke with a serious look on his face.

“Why should I? Who are you? What is your relationship with my daughter? Do you even deserve to know the truth?”

“I'll only give you one chance to explain yourself, believe me, if you don't explain yourself, you will regret it in the future.”

With such a vague reply, Riona would have walked away if it was someone else, however, since the topic was about her daughter, she didn't walk away and started thinking.

After thinking for a while, she finally decided to reveal everything,

“In the Kin-”

However, before she could begin, Nux interrupted.

“Actually, you should come here tomorrow, and explain everything properly, with as much proof as you can, if you manage to convince me, then I promise you, something great will happen.”

“Something great?”

Riona frowned.

“Just trust me.”

Nux smiled mysteriously.

Riona frowned.

“Be sure to prepare well, Riona. Remember, tomorrow, same place, same time”

After he said that, Dark Mist seeped out of his body and covered his and Thyra’s body. A few seconds later, the Dark Mist disappeared and Nux and Thyra were nowhere to be seen.

“Where did they go!?”

The King Stage Assassin spoke in panic.

He couldn’t believe that two people, who were standing right in front of him just... disappeared!

This was ridiculous!

She turned towards Riona to see if she knew anything, however, the woman was just too shocked to say anything.

“Lady Riona?”

The man frowned, what they saw was shocking, but for Lady Riona to just stay in one place with her mouth opened in shock...

What he didn't know was that Riona had different thoughts in her mind.

“That Mist... It... it w-was the c-curse...”

Chapter 471 - She Loves Her More Than Her Own Life.

The next day passed by very quickly, Riona spend her entire day preparing for her meeting with Nux.

No matter what, she had to talk to Nux and win his trust.

There were many questions in her mind, especially after what she saw yesterday and only Nux could answer her questions.

With a nervous look on her face, Riona walked to where she met Nux and Thyra yesterday. This time, the one following her was not the King Stage Assassin, but a Grand Master Stage Cultivator.

A move to show her trust in Nux and Thyra.

For her to go in front of 2 King Stage Cultivators alone, it required guts. Of course, this was all just for a show. Riona had met Nux and even fought against him for a while, she knew how strong he was, bringing another King Stage Cultivator won't make much of a difference, however, as they say, it is the thought that counts.

Well, the man who followed her was not normal either. A man Nux has seen quite a few times but has avoided every time.

Kelton.

Amaya's butler.

"I hope you are prepared." When his eyes fell on her, Nux smiled.

"..."

Thyra didn't say anything and continued to observe the woman in front of her.

“Let's not waste much time and continue, I am sure you have many questions in your mind, I will answer all those questions if your so-called explanation is convincing enough.”

Riona nodded, she didn't wish to waste much time either.

“As you already know, Amaya was born with an incurable curse. Her entire body was filled with a certain Dark Mist that doesn't allow her to cultivate, forcing her to live like a mortal. However, in truth, Amaya wasn't the first person who was born with that curse.

In truth, that Dark Mist is not a curse but a physique.

Devouring Mist Physique.

A Physique that many descendants of the Skadi Family inherit. They call the inheritors Physique Holders.

It is something that should have been a gift, something that should have made the Skadi Family the strongest family there is. However, even after searching for generations, we never managed to find a way to cultivate this Physique.

For us, this physique was nothing more than a curse to us and the Physique Holders are considered harbingers of misfortune.

The hatred that the Skadi Family has for this physique is unimaginable. It is to the point where they kill the Physique Holders in order to show their dissatisfaction to the Sky about the Physique.

A foolish custom, I know.

However, even with all the power I have, there is nothing I can do to change this.

Stopping the King was not a problem, however, Lord Amletus, the Emperor of the Skadi Kingdom is not someone I can go against.

If he had found out about Amaya's Physique, he would have killed her for sure.

I could have faked Amaya's death and could have allowed her to live somewhere else, however, this was too risky. I may have power in this Kingdom, however, unlike Lord Amletus, my power is not absolute.

I have many enemies that would do anything they can to destroy me.

There was no way for me completely hide Amaya inside the Kingdom, one day, her physique would have been revealed and once that happens, she would have been executed.

Therefore, the only option I had was to 'use' Amaya."

"That's why you 'sold' her to the Skyfall Kingdom."

"Indeed, since we got what we wanted without 'giving away' anything, Lord Amletus, who now knew about Amaya's Physique made an exception and decided not to kill her."

"So you planned everything and sent her away because you didn't wish for her to be executed?"

"Yes."

"Then why didn't you say anything to Amaya?"

"How could I talk to the harbinger of misfortune, that girl only had one use, once I used her, I don't care about her anymore."

Riona replied and Nux understood.

"So that was the persona you opted."

“If I talked with her, even in secret, someone would have found out, and again, things could have gotten worse.”

Riona replied, then, she lowered her head and smiled bitterly, “I regret not talking to her...”

Thinking about it, Riona clenched her fist in anger.

‘If only I could talk to her.’

“And I presume this man is the ‘proof’ of everything you said?”

Nux questioned as he glanced at Kelton who was wearing a mask.

“Yes, if you were close to Amaya, you must have met him.”

Amaya nodded and at the same time, she signaled Kelton to remove his mask.

“Kelton, long time no see.”

Nux smiled.

“Master Nux...”

Kelton greeted back.

“Kelton was my most loyal subordinate, I sent him away so that he could protect Amaya from all the harm and take care of her.”

“Heh, it doesn’t seem like he is very good at his job.” Nux chuckled.

Kelton clenched his fists in anger.

No, he was not angry at Nux, he was angry at himself.

“I deserve death.”

He spoke.

‘Ask if Kelton reported everything I did to her.’

Suddenly, Nux heard a voice in his head.

“Did Kelton report everything Amaya did to you?”

Nux questioned.

“He did, although I wasn’t there on my own, as a mother, I had to keep an eye on my daughter. Of course, if what she was doing was something that the Skadi Kingdom shouldn’t know, I kept it a secret.

Before I a Queen, I am a mother.”

Riona answered.

“Heh, so you were a spy.” Nux glanced at Kelton and smirked,

“No wonder I didn’t like you from the beginning.”

“I was not a spy, I never betrayed Lady Amaya. Lady Riona would never harm her.”

“And what if she did?”

Nux questioned.

“I have seen how miserable she has been when she sent her daughter away with my own eyes, Lady Riona is simply incapable of hurting Lady Amaya.

She loves her more than her own life.”

Chapter 472 - You... You Aren'T A Necromancer,Are You?

“I have seen how miserable she has been when she sent her daughter away with my own eyes, Lady Riona is simply incapable of hurting Lady Amaya.

She loves her more than her own life.” Kelton answered with a solemn look on his face.

“It still doesn’t change the fact that you betrayed me.”

Suddenly, another person wearing an oversized cloak that hid her face walked in.

Kelton’s eyes widened in surprise, with his trembling fingers, he pointed at the woman who had just walked in and stuttered,

“L-L-Lady A-Amaya.”

“...”

The lady didn’t say anything.

“Y-You are L-Lady Amaya aren’t y-you?”

Kelton questioned.

“...”

Again, the cloaked lady didn’t reply.

“Amaya!”

On the other hand, Riona didn’t wait for anything, without any confirmation, she directly dashed toward the cloaked lady. However, before she could hug her, the lady disappeared and appeared behind Nux.

She then revealed her face and the moment Riona's and Kelton's eyes fell on her face, their eyes widened in surprise.

“Lady Amaya!”

“Amaya!”

They both called out in joy, however, just as they were about to rush towards her again, two swords appeared in Nux's hands and he glanced at Riona with a cold look on his face,

“I have already warned you before, do not touch my woman. That was the first and last warning, don't break it. Your end won't be good.”

He then glanced at Kelton and narrowed his eyes,

“Traitors should stay away as well.”

“I am not a-”

Kelton wanted to retort, however, when he saw Amaya looking at her with a cold look on her face, he stayed silent.

Even his master was doubting him.

What could be worse?

“I didn't think that you would reveal yourself.”

After dealing with the two, Nux turned towards Amaya and spoke. Then, a strange expression appeared on his face and he questioned.

“What's with the strange cloak though...?”

A small blush appeared on Amaya's face and she pointed toward a certain tree.

“What? It looks cool, doesn’t it?” Edda pouted.

“I agree, it fits the situation well.” Skyla nodded with an excited smile on her face.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Nux, Amaya, and Thyra turned silent.

These two women were really enjoying themselves, weren’t they?

“Well... it does look kind of good... it has a different appeal.”

Nux admitted.

Amaya wearing an oversized black cloak gave her a strange, new charm.

Hearing his words, a small smile appeared on Amaya’s face, however, that smile soon disappeared when she heard Riona’s excited voice.

“You are alive!”

“To your disappointment, I am.”

Amaya replied coldly.

“What are you talking about? Why would I be disappointed? This is the greatest day of my life!”

“Good for you.”

Amaya replied.

“Amaya, my lovely daughter.” Riona smiled widely and started walking towards Amaya.

Nux, however, stepped in.

“Get away, I need to talk to my daughter.”

“Your daughter doesn’t wish to talk to you.”

Nux replied.

Riona’s eyes fell on Amaya and she finally noticed her expression.

There was no trace of love in those eyes, Amaya’s cold, emotionless eyes looked like she was looking at a stranger.

“Amaya...”

Riona called in a weak voice.

“Please don’t call me like we are closed, I barely remember your face.”

“Amaya, I know you are angry that I abandoned you, but I had a reason-”

“Yes, I know, I would have died if you hadn’t done that, I heard all that. Thank you for saving my life, are you happy now? Or would you like to be compensated in any other way? Is monetary compensation alright with you? How much do you want?

Make sure it is a reasonable price, alright? I am not the one who asked you to save me after all.”

Amaya’s sharp words pierced Riona’s heart, the more she spoke, the more Riona was hurt. Riona’s expression changed, her eyes turned moist, she lost all the power she had and fell on her knees.

Or, she was about to, however, before she could, Skylia appeared next to her and supported her.

“Alright, this is too much, Sister Amaya. You can’t treat your mother like this. She may have abandoned you, but as she said, she had a perfectly valid reason. Don’t be so unreasonable.”

“ ... ”

Amaya turned silent.

She knew she was acting unreasonably, this was something she would normally not do, however, for some reason, she... she couldn’t take a logical step.

She wanted to talk to this woman in front of her as well, however, at the same time, she wished to never see her face again.

A conflicting thought.

“Alright, don’t put the blame on Amaya.”

Nux placed his hand on Amaya’s shoulder and spoke up.

“It wasn’t Riona’s fault, however, it wasn’t Amaya’s fault either, Riona made a decision to abandon her daughter to protect her on her own, now as her daughter, Amaya has the right to decide what she wants on her own.

Whether she wants to talk to Riona or not, she has a right to choose that on her own.”

“Indeed, I agree with Nux. Amaya isn’t at fault either.”

Feeling left out, Edda deactivated her [Conceal] and walked in as well.

Seeing another woman walking in, Riona was surprised.

However, Kelton’s reaction was even more extreme than hers.

“Y-You are Edda! The Head Maid!”

“Oh, it’s been a while since I heard someone addressing me like that.”

Edda spoke with a surprised look on her face.

“Y-You! You should be dead! How are you alive!?”

Kelton questioned in surprise and horror.

Seeing this reaction, Edda pouted,

“Huuuh? Why did you only have this reaction when you saw me? Why didn’t you have the same reaction when Amaya walked in front of you?

Why didn’t you ask the same thing when it came to her?

She should be dead as well, doesn’t she?”

Kelton and Riona finally realized.

They were so happy to see Amaya standing right in front of them that they completely forgot something.

Amaya should have been dead...

How...

How is she alive?

Suddenly, Kelton’s eyes fell on Nux.

“You... You aren’t a Necromancer, are you?”

Chapter 473 - Don'T You Dare.

“You... You aren't a Necromancer, are you?”

Suddenly, Kelton pointed at Nux and questioned with a doubtful and fearful look on his face.

“ ... ”

Nux turned silent.

He didn't know how to reply to that.

“Pfft!”

Thyra, who was standing beside Nux couldn't help but laugh out loud.

“Indeed. He is a Necromancer.”

Edda nodded.

“We were killed, however, with his magical powers, he turned us into his undeads. Woohoo~

We are undeads now~~”

Edda did a 360 rotation and acted dramatically.

Soon, Skyla joined Edda as well and although Thyra didn't join, from her expression, it was clear that she was having fun.

“ ... ”

Nux glanced at his women with a deadpan look on his face.

“”Woohoo~ Woohoo~~””

“O-”

Nux wanted to call out, however, before he, Riona retorted.

“Stop this Nonsense. Amaya is not undead. She is perfectly fine, her heartbeat and breathing are completely normal. She is a perfectly fine human.”

“ ... ”

Kelton turned silent.

Seeing that he realized the truth, Edda and Skyla stopped as well.

Riona then walked towards Nux and bowed her head.

“Thank you for saving my daughter.”

“I did not save her. She did it herself, those weak assassins weren’t her match.”

Riona frowned,

“What do you mean? Those assassins were Grand Master Stage Cultivators, she couldn’t possibly fight against the-” Suddenly, Riona realized.

“Can’t you see? She is a King Stage Cultivator. Grand Master Stage Cultivators are nothing in her eyes.”

“But she couldn’t use her cultivation because her Curse wouldn’t let her.”
Kelton frowned.

Riona’s eyes widened,

“It was not a curse to begin with!”

‘She is indeed intelligent, I now know where you got that intelligence from.’ Nux spoke to Amaya through his connection.

‘Hmph! She is still too slow, she needed so many hints to figure out something so simple. Don’t compare me with her.’

Amaya snorted.

‘Of course, the child is always better than the parent.’

Nux nodded continuously.

‘...’

Amaya didn’t reply.

“Amaya, you found a way to cultivate your physique! This is so amazing! If we give this way to Lord Amletus, then the Physique Holders will not be considered as Harbingers of Misfortune, rather, they will be praised and raised with love and respect!

Lord Amletus would definitely accept you, he might even make you the next queen!

Great! This is just great!”

Riona failed to control her emotions.

Everything that was happening was too good to be true.

Her daughter was alive, now her daughter has even found a way to cultivate her physique! Her daughter can now live with her, she can make up all the time she has been unable to spend with her! She can definitely spoil her little princess as much as she wanted.

Seeing the smile on Riona’s face, Nux was taken aback.

‘What’s with that beautiful smile?’

He couldn’t help but think inwardly.

‘Don’t you dare.’

And as if knowing what he was thinking, Amaya warned.

‘I... I didn’t do anything!’

Nux countered.

‘Now now, you can’t blame him, Amaya, just look at the smile on that woman’s face, that is just too beautiful. It shows how much this means to her.’

Thyra, who somehow knew what Nux and Amaya were talking about joining in.

Amaya’s face twitched, she then looked at Riona and spoke coldly,

“And who said I would share any details about what I found with that Amletus or whoever he was?”

Riona’s smile disappeared, and soon a bitter smile appeared on her face,

“The Kingdom abandoned you when you needed it, I guess it is natural that you wouldn’t want to share your technique with the Kingdom.

I thought I could finally spend some time with you...”

“Huh? Who said that we have to share the technique for you to spend some time with Sister Amaya?”

Suddenly, Skyla questioned.

Riona turned towards Skyla and frowned.

“What do you mean?”

“I know you are a queen so you must be busy, however, I am sure you can take some time out for your daughter, right? We can stay on the outskirts of the Skadi Kingdom for a few days. I am sure you can secretly sneak out of the Palace and spend some time with your daughter. What do you think?”

Skyla questioned.

Riona’s expression brightened up.

She grabbed Skyla’s hands and questioned,

“Will you really do that?”

“Of course! Why won’t we?”

Skyla nodded with a bright smile on her face.

“Alright! Kelton, buy the biggest mansion in the Shikari Village, clean it up and prepare it within 30 minutes.”

Without wasting even a single second, Riona ordered.

“A-As you command, Lady Riona.”

Kelton nodded and then disappeared.

“I didn’t agree to any of this.”

Amaya narrowed her eyes.

“Sister Amaya...” Skyla called out with a kind smile that didn’t look kind at all.

“What...?” Amaya questioned.

“You agree, right?”

Skyla questioned.

‘Amaya, I think you should give her a chance. Circumstances parted you two away, however, everything is not over yet. I am not trying to force you to like her, but you can at least talk to her a little, right?

How about you start everything anew? Try forgetting everything and just treat it like a normal meeting. Just let things go by naturally and see what happens.'

Nux suggested.

Amaya thought about it and then, she finally came up with an answer,

“Alright... We will stay here for a few days, but make sure that no one knows about you and only come at a specific time, don't just pop up randomly in front of our house. Also, don't stay for more than an hour.”

Hearing her answer, a big, wide smile appeared on Riona's face.

Unable to contain her overflowing joy, Riona hugged Skyla, lifted her up, and started rotating like a top.

“Thank you so much! I would never forget this favor! Thank you!”

“Don't mention it!”

Skyla, who was picked up like she was a doll replied.

Suddenly, Riona increased her speed and,

“Thank you so much!!

Hahahaha~”

She started laughing.

“Her smile really is beautiful.”

Nux commented.

“Don't you dare.”

Amaya warned.

Chapter 474

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

A figure wearing an oversized black cloak knocked at the doors of a Mansion.

A few seconds later, the door was opened by a beautiful woman with auburn-colored hair.

“Oh! You are here!”

Skyla spoke cheerfully, then with a big smile on her face, she welcomed,

“Please come in!”

The cloaked figure then walked into the mansion and without wasting any seconds, she removed the cloak, revealing her beautiful face.

The beautiful woman then started looking around, soon, her black eyes shined when her eyes fell on another beautiful woman who was sitting on a sofa with an emotionless look on her face.

“Amaya! I am here!”

The woman chimed and rushed towards her daughter.

Without any approval, she sat beside her daughter, hugged her, and then placed her head on her shoulders.

“I missed you!”

The woman spoke.

Amaya, however, didn't show any reaction, other than slight discomfort.

“Ahem Ahem.”

However, just as Amaya was about to get away from her mother, Skylia coughed.

Amaya glanced at Skylia and seeing her looking at her with a ‘kind’ smile on her face, Amaya sighed.

This little sigh was enough for Riona to realize that her daughter had accepted her advances, overjoyed, she started patting Amaya’s head gently.

“ ... ”

Amaya didn’t say anything.

On one hand, she was feeling uncomfortable because she was so close to her mother but on the other hand, she was also feeling very comfortable under her mother’s gentle pats.

She could feel her mother’s love through these pats, it was a comforting feeling where she felt protected and loved, however, at the same time, the fact that she couldn’t enjoy this warmth for so many years because of this very person haunted her as well.

“So? How was your day?”

Riona questioned.

“ ... ”

But again, Amaya didn’t answer.

Seeing how things were proceeding, Skylia sighed.

It can’t go like this. The walls that Amaya had built around her were too strong, she had to do something.

“It was nothing great, we all just cultivated.”

Skyla decided to join the conversation.

Seeing what Skyla was trying to do, Riona couldn't help but smile and she nodded at Skyla with a thankful look on her face.

Skyla just smiled back and the two of them continued.

“You people are still cultivating even though you are in another country? Why not try moving around? Have you eaten the food here? I don't want to act arrogantly, however, I can proudly say the cuisines our country serves are much better than whatever you people eat in the Skyfall Kingdom.

How about it? Would you guys like to take a look around and try anything? How about we go out right now?”

Riona questioned.

“We were planning to roam around with Nux.”

This time, Amaya was the one who answered.

“Hmm? We can always take him with us, can't we?”

Riona suggested. At the same time, she was happy that Amaya finally answered one of her questions.

“First, he is not here, second, we were planning to go with Nux, alone. Only us lovers.”

“What is your relationship with that man?”

Suddenly, Riona questioned.

Well, it was not like she didn't already have a slight idea, however, she still had to make sure.

“Is it not clear enough? We are lovers, of course.”

Amaya answered.

Hearing her answer, Skyla, Edda and Thyra smiled as well.

“All of you...?”

Riona questioned with a frown on her face.

“Yep, all of us. Though I am still the favorite.”

Amaya answered.

“Haah? Since when were you the favorite? It is clear that I am the favorite, he spends the most time with me.” Thyra stepped in.

“Heh, kids, do you guys even know about his deepest, darkest desires? I am the only one who knows that and it is because I am the favorite.” Edda stepped in as well.

“No, that is because you a pervert and trust me, I know all his desires.”

Thyra snorted.

“Sisters, look, I love you all and I really value you people, however, you should not lie to Lady Riona like this, just tell her the truth, I am the favorite.”

Skyla wasn't going to back down either.

“Hmph! Delusional.”

Amaya snorted.

“It is you who is delusional.” Thyra retorted.

The women continued to fight with each other and Riona, who was the one who initiated the fight couldn't believe what she was seeing.

Four incredibly beautiful women, all King Stage Cultivators, are fighting with each other for a man.

Wait... suddenly, Riona realized something.

All these women in front of her were King Stage Cultivators. All of them were powerhouses, and all these women loved a single man. Not only that, but the man in question was even more monstrous and was stronger than any King Stage Cultivator she has ever met.

Isn't it the world's strongest harem!?

To think her daughter belongs to the world's strongest harem.

Riona's eyes then fell on Amaya, who was still fighting with others, and even though she was fighting, Riona could feel that Amaya was happy.

At the very least, she was expressing her emotions, completely different compared to when she is with her.

Another thought popped into Riona's mind and she smiled,

“So you are saying that all of you are his favorite?”

Riona questioned.

“I never said that, I said I am the favorite.”

Amaya turned towards her mother and replied.

“And that is clearly a lie.”

Thyra snorted.

“Indeed.”

Edda and Skyla nodded.

“You-”

Amaya wanted to retort, however, Riona jumped in.

“Stop, I have a way to decide who is the favorite.”

She can't allow these women to fight with each other and completely ignore her presence as they did last time.

She had to mix in with them.

“What's the method?” Thyra questioned.

“Let me ask a few questions and let's see who answers them first.”

“”””Heh, easy.””””

The three women spoke at the same time.

“So, question one, what is Nux's favorite color-”

“”””Black.””””

The women answered at the same time and Riona finally realized, this was going to be harder than she thought.

Of course, thinking about it, a smile appeared on her face.

The harder it is, the longer it will take and the longer it takes, the happier she would be.

Chapter 475

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

,m Riona, Amya, Edda, Thyra, and Skyla turned silent.

Especially Riona, she couldn't believe that all these women would know the answer to every single question she asked and would answer before she could even finish the question.

Just... just how is that possible.

She was sure that if it was her and the questions were about that idiotic King, she would struggle to answer even one question, the same would be true for all the other consorts and concubines.

“Ughh... I think I need to change the questions...”

Riona muttered.

“Indeed, you should ask better questions, even idiots like them would be able to answer questions like these.” Amaya nodded.

Thyra, Skyla and Edda snorted.

“Yes, ask about the night sessions. It would be clear who the winner is.”

Edda spoke.

“ ... ”

Riona couldn't help but stare at this tanned skin woman.

“Yes, night questions sound good, I need to show you all just how close I and Nux are.”

Amaya nodded.

Riona couldn't believe that her genius daughter would allow something like this.

“Night questions it is then. Hmph, none of you has ever done it inside a war tent, have you?” Thyra snorted.

Riona's eyes widened in shock.

Inside a war tent!? What!?

Also, is this the same serious Thyra who never fails her mission and kills without mercy!? Just what happened to her?

“Hmph! That is nothing! I know a lot more than you people! Lady Riona, please ask the questions!”

Skyla joined in as well.

‘Even this naïve looking girl...’

Riona couldn't believe her eyes.

“Yes, ask the questions.”

Edda spoke.

The women looked at Riona with their utmost serious expressions.

Riona was overwhelmed...

“I-I don’t think I would a-ask anything about t-that...”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

The women turned silent.

“Useless.”

Amaya snorted silently but Riona’s ears caught on.

“B-but don’t worry, I have a different set of questions.”

“What questions?”

Amaya questioned.

“So? Who was the first? As you guys know, the first to join the harem always has a special place in the man’s heart. So? Who among you is the first.”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Again, the women turned silent.

Riona frowned.

What happened? Why aren’t they answering quickly as they did before?
Did she ask the wrong question?

Wait...

Suddenly, another possibility popped up in Riona's mind and she widened her eyes,

"Don't tell me all of you did it together!"

"What!? Of course not! What the hell are you talking about!?"

Amaya retorted with a red face.

"Then...?"

Riona frowned.

"None of us were first."

Amaya replied with an annoyed look on her face.

"The first was Felberta."

Thyra spoke. Her expression wasn't good either.

"If you compare the four of us, then I was the first!" Skyla smiled proudly.

"First doesn't even matter. The question is not about the first, it is about who is the closest!" Edda snorted.

"Indeed."

Thyra agreed.

"Yes, it was a stupid question."

Amaya commented.

"Wait." Suddenly, Riona paused.

"This Felberta you are talking about. Where is she?"

“She is not here,” Amaya replied.

Riona realized and a sad look appeared on her face,

“I am sorry about that...”

Amaya understood that her mother misunderstood.

“She is not dead. She is just not here, she is in the Skyfall Kingdom, but you can rest assured, she is not the favorite, the favorite is me.”

Amaya commented.

“Again, you ar-”

Thyra wanted to counter, however, this time, Riona didn't let her.

“There are more women other than you four?”

This bastard...

Does he dare to go after more women even though he has four King Stage Cultivators who love him with all their heart?

Just how greedy can he be?

“As much as I hate to admit it, there are more of these bitches around him and he loves them all. Not more than me though.” Amaya snorted.

“...how many women exactly...?”

Riona questioned with an unsure look on her face.

“There are Nine.”

“NINE!?”

“Hmm? Why are you so shocked, normally, Kings have more than 20 wives, don't they? Are you saying my Nux is any less than a King?”

Amaya narrowed her eyes and questioned.

“...”

Riona didn't know what to say.

“As much as I hate the fact that he is surrounded by so many women, the number is not that big for you to react like this.”

Amaya spoke.

“No... you don't get it. Kings have more than 20 wives because all those wives are useless. How many of them do you think are King Stage Cultivators, take that idiot Roman Skadi for example, other than me, none of his wives are Expert Stage Cultivators, let alone King.

The same goes for that Ricardus Bastard, he only has 1 King Stage Cultivator as his wife, well, if we add yo-”

“I am not his wife. I only belong to Nux.”

Amaya narrowed her eyes.

“R-Right. You are not. See? He only has 1 King Stage Cultivator as his wife, you people, on the other hand, are all King Stage Cultivators. As top experts of the world, you should have your own self-respect, don't share your man with random women. Fight for yourself.”

“What are you talking about?”

Suddenly, Thyra questioned.

“Huh?” Riona frowned.

“Random women? Woman, you used those words right now but don't use that in front of him. He won't tolerate it.”

Thyra warned.

“ ... ”

Riona turned silent.

“Also, the ‘random women’ you are talking about...

All of them are King Stage Cultivators.”

Thyra revealed.

“WHAT!?”

Riona’s eyes widened in surprise.

Seeing her reaction, a small smile appeared on Thyra’s face.

She would have never revealed their strength if it was before, however, with Emperors coming into the picture, they all have decided to not hide themselves.

Once Evane becomes the next queen, they would have to come out as well.

Whatever Herms was planning was not something they can take lightly.

They couldn’t hide forever.

And since they were already planning to come out, there was no point in hiding everything from Riona.

Plus, after revealing this small information, they can find out whether they can actually trust Riona or if everything she has been doing all this time was just an act.

“N-N-Nine K-King Stage Cultivators?”

Chapter 476

“N-N-Nine K-King Stage Cultivators!?”

Riona finally reacted.

Nine King Stage Cultivators!

This is absurd.

Even if she counts the Cultivators that are hidden from the world and only act in secret, the entire Skadi Kingdom would only have around 10 King Stage Cultivators.

And here, Nux alone has Nine King Stage Cultivators in his harem, adding him into the count, and they would have 10 King Stage Cultivators.

The same number of King Stage Cultivators the Skadi Kingdom has...

“This doesn’t make sense! Why would you all stick to a single man? No matter where you go, you would be respected, you can get literally anything you want, why would you settle fo-”

“Tsk, you would never understand.”

Amaya snorted.

She already realized what Riona was talking about and didn’t wish to hear it.

“Indeed.”

Thyra agreed.

“Hehe~ We can have anything we want, however, nothing in this world is better than having Nux~”

Skyla chuckled.

“...”

Riona was taken aback.

She couldn't understand.

Just what kind of strange magic has this man done on her daughter and these women? Why are they so attached to him?

“So... so where is the man we have been talking about for all this time?”

She questioned.

“Bloodhill Wilderness.”

Amaya answered.

“Huh? What is he doing there?”

Riona frowned.

“Training.”

Amaya replied with a sad look on her face.

Recently, Nux has been too absorbed in his training, he didn't neglect his women, however, the time he spent with them has certainly been affected.

Even now, when all of them were here, rather than going out with them, he disappeared and went into the Bloodhill Wilderness.

No one knew why he was suddenly being so serious, he would only smile whenever any of his women asks about this and wouldn't reply.

The women found it strange, however, after a while, they accepted it.

“Well, I guess it is good for us.”

Riona muttered.

“What do you mean?”

Thyra narrowed her eyes as she glanced at Riona.

Riona looked at Thyra and then replied,

“The Beasts in the Bloodhill Wilderness has been acting up for a while, the frequency of their attacks has increased without any apparent reasons, many adventurers died under their hands, many adventurers have complained that they have seen Beasts that shouldn't be inside the Outer Region roaming around.

The Kingdom was forced to send a few soldiers to deal with these Beasts, the situation is under control right now, but no one knows what will happen in the future.”

Riona revealed.

Hearing her words, Amaya nodded,

“It is not the Skadi Kingdom alone, Skyfall Kingdom and Woods Dynasty are facing the same problem, knowing anything about the Solid Earth Kingdom is currently difficult, however, I believe that they must be facing the same problem as well.”

“Since the Bloodhill Wilderness is connected to all 4 Kingdoms, assuming that is wrong.”

Riona nodded.

“Therefore, since Nux has gone into the Wilderness, he would for sure kill a few beasts, which would help my soldiers directly or indirectly.”

“Heh, the soldiers would help him as well.” Thyra chuckled.

“What do you mean?” Riona questioned.

“Nothing.” Thyra chuckled and then she decided to change the topic.

“Do you know the reason why the Beasts are acting like that?”

Riona, however, shook her head,

“According to our Kingdom’s history, something like this has never happened before, so we have no clue.”

“Why not send some strong people to investigate?”

Edda questioned.

Suddenly, a serious look appeared on Riona’s face. She looked at the women who were looking at her with curious looks on their faces, she started considering whether she should talk about this or not.

She then glanced at Amaya, who was looking at her with the same, curious expression, and in the end,

‘Fuck it, it doesn’t matter.’

She decided to tell everything she knew.

Nothing matter more than her daughter. She wasn’t planning to spoil her relationship with Amaya before even managing to rebuild it.

She would give her all the love she had, and this time, she would do it directly, without hiding anything.

“Bloodhill Wilderness isn’t simple.”

“What do you mean?”

Amaya questioned.

Seeing that she was interested in this conversation, a small smile appeared on Riona’s face and she continued,

“Most of the Secrets that the Bloodhill Wilderness contains are inside the Forbidden region, the reason why the beasts are reacting strangely might also be related to the Forbidden Region, however, we can’t just send people inside the Forbidden Region.”

“Why? The Beasts are Killing adventurers and soldiers, why not send a King Stage Cultivator to investigate? It would be better if he or she can find a way to stop all this, correct?”

Thyra questioned.

Riona shook her head,

“As I said, it is not that simple. No one is allowed to go inside the Forbidden Region, and the King Stage Cultivators are not excluded from that rule.”

“Even the King Stage Cultivators are forbidden to go inside?” Skyla questioned with a surprised look on her face.

Suddenly, Riona’s expression changed.

“Wait, you said that Nux went inside the Bloodhill Wilderness, right?”

“Yes, he did.”

“He is not planning to go inside the Forbidden Region, correct?”

Riona questioned.

“Hmm, I don’t think so...” Amaya shook her head.

Nux never talked about going inside Forbidden Region, he didn’t look particularly interest-

“He might.”

Suddenly, Thyra spoke with a serious look on her face.

“When we visited the Bloodhill Wilderness last time, he showed some interest in going inside the Forbidden Region and at that time, he was just a Grand Master Stage Cultivator. If it is right now, there are chances that he might go inside the Forbidden Region.”

Thyra talked about the time when Nux and his women visited the Wilderness for a ‘date’, and to collect points for Amaya’s technique.

Hearing her words, Riona’s eyes widened in horror.

“We have to stop him, let’s go. It is not too late. We can catch him if we leave right now.”

“What happened?”

Amaya questioned.

“Don’t ask, just come with me. If he enters the Forbidden Region,

The Chances that he would come back are zero!”

Chapter 477

“Don’t ask, just come with me. If he enters the Forbidden Region,

The Chances that he would come back are zero!”

Riona replied with a panicked look on her face, she then quickly grabbed Amaya’s hand and tried to pull her outside the mansion.

In truth, she wasn’t really worried about Nux.

She was actually worried about Amaya. This daughter of hers seems to truly love this man, if something were to happen to him, she knows that Amaya would be heartbroken.

Riona, however, wasn’t planning on letting them happen.

She would save Nux before something could happen.

She would save him no matter what.

“???”

Suddenly, Riona frowned.

She turned her head and questioned,

“Why aren’t you moving?”

Even though she was trying to pull her, Amaya didn’t move, rather, she was using force to stop her as well.

A confused look appeared on Riona’s face, she then glanced at other women inside the room, and seeing calm looks on their faces, her frown deepened.

Why aren't these women affected? Why do they look so calm? Didn't they love Nux? The Love of their life was in danger, how could they be so calm?

She couldn't understand.

“Don't worry, I have already called him, he is coming back. He didn't step into the Forbidden Region yet. You can calm down.”

Amaya replied.

However, at the same time, she frowned inwardly.

Why was her mother acting like that? Why was she panicking when Nux was in danger? Wait...

Suddenly, another possibility popped into Amaya's mind.

She then glanced at Riona with a hostile look on her face.

“What happened?”

Riona tilted her head in confusion.

“Nothing.”

Amaya shook her head.

She was still not sure yet.

She would need to wait and find more clues before acting.

“No, leave that, what do you mean he is coming back? How do you know he hasn't stepped into the Forbidden Region?” Riona questioned.

“Secret.”

With a playful smile on her face, Amaya placed a finger on her lips and muttered.

“Amaya, it is not the time to joke around, Nx’s life is actually in danger.”

Riona warned with a serious look on her face.

“Hmm? Why is my life in danger?”

Suddenly, the doors of the Mansion opened up and a handsome man walked in.

“Nux!”

Skyla didn’t miss the chance, she jumped on Nux with an excited look on her face.

Nux caught the girl and hugged her gently. He then started patting her head and Skyla closed her eyes, enjoying the treatment.

“Y-You... weren’t you in the Bloodhill Wilderness?” Riona questioned with a surprised look on her face.

“I was, but then they called me so I returned,” Nux replied.

“Called you?”

Riona frowned.

“What? You don’t know about this?”

Nux frowned.

“Know about what?”

Riona was now confused.

“About the connection,” Nux answered.

“What connection?”

“The connection of love, of course.”

“What in the hell is that?” Riona had a strange expression on her face.

“ ... ”

Nux just stared at her in silence.

“What are you keeping the suspense for? Just tell me what it is.”

Riona spoke.

“Well, when you love your partner with all your heart, you can hear their voice in your mind no matter how far apart the two of you are. This is called the Connection of love.

Didn’t you know about it? I thought everyone knew about it.”

Nux spoke with an innocent look on his face.

Seeing his expression, Riona frowned.

Something like this existed? Why did she not know about it?

“Alright, you can stop your games.”

Suddenly, Amaya stepped in.

A smile appeared on Nux’s face.

“It was fun seeing her reaction.”

Nux chuckled.

Riona’s clenched her fist in frustration.

“You...”

“Well, I can deny that.”

Amaya nodded.

“Amaya?” Riona opened her mouth in shock.

She couldn't believe that her daughter betrayed her like that.

“Alright, let's not talk about useless things right now,” Nux stepped forward, he then glanced at Riona and questioned with a serious look on his face.

“Amaya told me that you said that The Forbidden Region inside the Bloodhill Wilderness is dangerous, why do you say that?”

Riona, however, was not some random woman without any ability to think,

“What do you mean useless topic!? I need to know. How did you return? Also, how do you know about what I told Amaya, you weren't even in the room.

No, that's not it, yesterday as well, all your women, even Amaya, just appeared out of nowhere. How is that possible? How could I not sense any of them?”

Riona questioned.

Suddenly, a playful smile appeared on Nux's face as he placed his finger on his lips and replied,

“Secret.”

Riona noticed that Nux's and Amaya's reactions were too similar to each other. Again, she was taken aback.

“Alright, now answer my question,” Nux spoke.

“You didn't answer mine,” Riona complained.

“This is not something we can answer, we already told you about things that we have kept secret from the rest of the world, I believe that should be enough for you to trust us.”

Amaya stepped up.

In front of her daughter, Riona didn't have any choice but to give up.

“I would have told you anyway...”

Riona spoke with a dissatisfied look on her face.

Seeing her like that, Nux couldn't help but smile inwardly.

‘She actually loves her daughter.’

“Well, if I am being completely honest with you, even I don't know much about the Forbidden Region, I have not visited it.

Lord Amletus warned me not to enter the Forbidden Region.”

“Lord Amletus?” Nux frowned.

If an Emperor was warning about something, it has to be a serious issue.

After meeting Astaria and feeling the difference in power between the two of them, Nux was overwhelmed.

He considered himself to be strong, however, in front of Astaria, he was nothing.

Actually, he was proud that he was able to maintain his sanity and act normally in front of that monster.

Yes, Nux was affected by that monster.

And if someone who has a similar strength to that monster was saying something, he had to take it seriously.

“Yes, I don't know the details, but Lord Amletus said that let alone us, even if he himself went into the Forbidden Region,

He wasn't 100% certain about returning alive.”

Chapter 478

“Yes, I don’t know the details, but Lord Amletus said that let alone us, even if he himself went into the Forbidden Region,

He wasn’t 100% certain about returning alive.”

Riona spoke with a serious look on her face and hearing her words, Nux and his women turned silent.

“A 7 Star beast...”

Nux narrowed his eyes and commented.

“Most probably, and as you know, Beasts of the same level are stronger than the humans... that is the reason why even he is uncertain.”

Thyra nodded.

Riona, however, shook her head.

“I thought about the same thing, but Lord Amletus didn’t reply, I don’t know if it is true or not.”

Nux frowned,

“Why is he keeping this a secret?”

“Well, he did warn me, didn’t he?”

Riona replied.

“This doesn’t feel right.”

Nux commented.

Riona just chuckled, “I was thinking the same when I heard about all this, however, since there was no other way to deal with my curiosity, I had to just bear with it.”

“Something is wrong, I feel like this is something I should know.”

Suddenly, Nux spoke.

“Lord Amletus won’t say anything, no matter what I or you say to him.”
Riona shook her head.

“Heh, he is not the only Emperor Stage Cultivator in this world, is he?”

Nux chuckled.

“I’ll just ask Lady Astaria, I am sure she will answer my questions.”

A smile appeared on Nux’s face.

“Hmmm, she should know about this as well.”

Riona nodded, however, suddenly, she paused.

“Wait.”

“Hmm? What?”

“You are close to Astaria Skyfall?”

Riona questioned with a surprised look on her face.

“Hmm, well not exactly close, we only met 2 times after she came out of that stupid room of hers, and she attacked me the first time. Well, it wasn’t really an attack, she was testing me and it seems that I passed whatever her test was.

The second meeting was a lot better though.”

Nux replied.

“You passed her test?” Riona frowned.

“What? You know something about this test?”

Seeing her look, Nux got curious.

“No, I just... for you to meet her 2 times within just a month, that is very surprising. Emperors don't really like to meet people.

And... you seem confident that you can meet her the third time.”

Riona spoke with a strange expression on her face.

“Oh don't worry, I am sure I'll meet her again, it is not that hard.”

“...”

Riona didn't reply.

Nux didn't pursue the matter either.

On the other hand, Amaya, who was looking at the two of them from afar shook her head and sighed.

‘If only you knew that not only does he plan to meet that woman again, he was even preparing to make her fall in love with him...’

Amaya then looked at her clock and soon, a smile appeared on her face,

“Alright, this is enough.”

She spoke.

Everyone turned towards her.

“What happened?” Nux questioned.

“Time is up, it has already been an hour, it is time for you to go.”

Amaya spoke to Riona.

Riona frowned, she then took out her own watch and looked at the time there.

“...”

She turned silent.

One hour had indeed passed.

“Everything in the Palace might get suspicious, you should leave.”

Amaya spoke.

“You look oddly happy for some reason, do... do you really hate me that much?” Riona questioned with a strange look on her face.

“The people in the palace would get suspicious, don’t waste more time.”

Amaya didn’t reply and repeated her own sentence.

A small sigh escaped Riona’s mouth, in the end, she smiled wryly and turned around.

However, just as she was about to walk out of the mansion,

“I do not hate you.”

Amaya spoke.

With a big smile on her face, Riona turned around, however, no matter where she looked, she failed to find Amaya.

“Fufufu~ I didn’t know Amaya was the shy type, for her to disappear right after she said those words... I am seeing a new side...”

Nux chuckled.

He then turned towards Riona and smiled,

“I think whatever you doing is working, just be patient.

Let her act out a little more.”

“She can act out as much as she wants.”

Riona spoke with an incredibly beautiful smile on her face and walked out of the mansion.

‘Her smile really is beautiful...’

Nux thought in his mind and suddenly, someone pinched his waist.

“Oww!”

He cried in pain.

Turning around, he saw Amaya standing next to him and glaring at him.

“Don’t you dare.”

She warned for the umpteenth time.

“I didn’t even do anything!”

Nux complained.

The other women chuckled.

...

On the other hand,

Amaya, who had just walked out of Nux’s mansion turned serious. She then rushed towards the Royal Palace with all her might, a few minutes later, she appeared in front of the Palace and walked in.

Then, she entered her room, where a man was already waiting for her.

“Lady Riona.”

Kelton greeted.

“Tell me everything you know about that boy named Nux.”

Riona ordered.

Kelton frowned.

Riona, however, didn't explain herself, Kelton sighed, and then, he started talking about what he knew.

Knowing that his master was now in a relationship with someone, he was curious and started looking around immediately, therefore, his memory was quite fresh.

Kelton's report ended within 5 minutes, to be honest, he couldn't find anything much about the man named Nux Leander.

In his report, Nux was a meek man who barely managed to earn enough to eat a meal in a day. There was nothing special about him other than his appearance, soon, he was scouted by a Merchant who sold him to a noble named Felberta Alveye.

After that, Nux... disappeared.

There was no further information about him.

Hearing his report, Riona frowned.

The man in the report and the man she just met didn't match each other.

“I believe Lady Amaya has some hand in tempering the information about this man,” Kelton spoke.

Hearing her daughter's name, a smile appeared on Riona's face,

“Heh, she is very overprotective about him. Fufufu~ So cute~”

Kelton didn't say anything.

“Alright, don't look, it is useless if Amaya was the one who tempered that man's information.

I want you to investigate something else.”

“At your command, Lady Riona.”

“Find out all the people Astaris Skyfall has met after coming out of her seclusion.”

Chapter 479

“Find out all the people Astaria Skyfall has met after coming out of her seclusion.”

Riona ordered and soon, a frown appeared on Kelton’s face,

“Lady Riona... information related to an Emperor is not something I can find...”

“I know, let alone you, no one would be able to find that, however, you should know about something, when she came out of her seclusion, you were inside the Kingdom, weren’t you? Who were the people she met with?”

“Umm... the King... the Ministe-”

“These all are too obvious, she would meet these people every time she comes out of her seclusion, I need to know about the people who had never met her before.”

“Well this time, I heard the First Prince and the Second Princess met Lady Astaria as well.”

“It was about the incident related to the assassination?”

Riona questioned.

Hearing that, Kelton’s expression turned unsightly.

He was still angry about this whole incident. How dare that bastard go after his Master? He wanted to Kill Raguel.

Riona had the same thoughts, however, now that she has met with her daughter, who has not only found a way to cultivate her physique but has also found a man she loves and is living happily, her anger has reduced.

The 'dead' status was very beneficial for current Amaya, Riona knew about it.

And knowing her daughter and from how her eyes shined when she talked about Nux today, Amaya was sure that even if Raguel hadn't attacked her, Amaya would have faked her death just so she could live with the man she loved.

Raguel actually helped her.

"The First Prince and the Second Princess, correct?"

"Yes."

Kelton nodded.

"How strong is the Second Princess again?"

Suddenly, Riona questioned.

"Expert Stage."

'Ahh, so she can't be one of those nine...'

Riona thought inwardly.

"However, she has a King Stage subordinate under her."

Kelton informed.

Riona raised her eyebrow.

"A King Stage subordinate? A Princess has a King Stage subordinate serving her?"

"Yes, that man is the reason why she didn't die during this assassination attempt."

Kelton nodded.

A frown appeared on Riona's face.

Why would a King Stage Cultivator serve a Princess?

Was it the protector of the Duke house that supports the Princess? No, that shouldn't be the case, those turtles would never leave their shell, especially not all the time just for the sake of a single girl.

This man had to be someone else, but again, why would he serve a Princess?

Was he betting on the fact that Evane would surely become the next ruler? But why not serve the King directly, no King would reject a King Stage Cultivator...

Riona couldn't understand.

"Wait... if the Second Princess had a King Stage Cultivator as her subordinate, why did that fool even bother to attack her?" Riona questioned.

"This isn't known by all because the information was contained later, however, I heard that the subordinate used a strange technique to hide his cultivation, he only appeared as a Grand Master Stage Cultivator in front of others.

It is said that Lady Astaria was the one who saw through his technique and exposed him."

Kelton answered with a strange look on his face. Even he couldn't believe what he was saying.

"..."

Riona couldn't understand.

Hide his cultivation? How could such a strange technique exist?

However, suddenly, her expression changed.

These strange techniques... aren't these strangely similar to the techniques Nux and his wives showed? Somehow communicating when they are miles apart, suddenly disappearing from the sight, suddenly appearing from behind...

These techniques shouldn't exist either, but they do.

She has seen it with her own eyes.

Suddenly, a smile appeared on Riona's face,

She was going in the right direction.

"Describe this subordinate you were talking about. How does he look?"

She ordered.

"I never saw that man on my own, also, he heard that he always had a mask on." Kelton shook his head.

"You should go and ask around, I am sure someone else must have seen him, correct?"

"That might be possible. I will try searching for the masked man following the Second Princess who was a Grand Master Stage Cultivator."

Kelton narrowed it down.

"Good."

Riona nodded.

"Alright, now tell me, you said Lady Astaria saw through this subordinate's cultivation, correct?"

"Yes."

Kelton nodded.

“So this means that the subordinate met Lady Astaria, correct?”

Kelton nodded again.

Amaya’s smile widened.

She could roughly guess the entire situation, however, she didn’t rush out and concluded, she needed to be thorough, especially with this.

“Kelton, find out everything that happened when Lady Astaria and this King Stage Subordinate met with each other. Tell me if Lady Astaria attacked this man.”

“Attacked?”

Kelton frowned.

“Yeah.”

Riona smiled.

Kelton frowned, however, he didn’t ask too much and nodded.

Lady Riona was indeed very similar to Lady Amaya, however, he had to admit, Lady Amaya was much sharper. Or maybe it could be said that since Lady Riona is more thorough and only works on proof, Lady Amaya, on the other hand, predicts things whenever she feels she has enough information.

Therefore, Amaya was much faster with her deductions.

Riona, on the other hand, was much more thorough with her answers.

Well, no matter how much one sugarcoats it, Amaya was still the more intelligent one.

Her ‘predictions’ have never been wrong before, after all.

She was fast and precise.

“Collect all the information I told you to. You can use Ribson to exchange letters with your informant.”

While Kelton was comparing Amaya and Riona in his mind, Riona ordered.

“Sir Ribson?”

Kelton questioned in surprise.

The man they were talking about was a King Stage Cultivator.

“Yes, it is an important matter, do it as fast as possible.”

Riona nodded.

“As you command.”

Kelton bowed his head, then, he walked out of his room.

After he left, a small smile appeared on Riona’s face as she started thinking about the future.

She realized this after spending some time with her today, Amaya would not talk to her unless the one they talk about is Nux or something related to Nux.

Therefore, to continue her conversation with Amaya, she had to keep using Nux.

She had to take this slow, starting with talking about Nux and once Amaya is more comfortable, she would start subtly changing the topic and soon or later, she and Amaya would be just like any other mother and daughter.

Fufufu~

Chapter 480

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

A knock was heard, the door was opened, and seeing the woman who knocked, a smile appeared on Skyla's face,

“I was waiting for you.”

“What a coincidence, I was waiting to meet you guys as well.” A mysterious smile appeared on Riona's face.

“Please come in.”

Skyla welcomed.

Riona walked in, then after looking around, her eyes fell on Amaya, who was sitting on a chair, looking at her with a bored look on her face.

“You are here again? As a queen, don't you have things you have to do?”

Amaya questioned.

This was already the fifth day and Riona hasn't missed even a single day of the meeting, let alone a day, she hasn't even missed a single second, she always arrived a few minutes earlier and always tried to leave as late as possible.

Hearing her words, Riona wasn't annoyed, rather, a smile appeared on her face, she walked towards Amaya and buried her head into her breasts, “Nothing is more important than my lovely daughter.

Work? I'll just work restlessly for a few nights, nothing I can't handle.”

Riona patted her nonexistent biceps with a proud look on her face, before continuing to pat Amaya's head.

Amaya didn't reject either, with an annoyed expression on her face, she allowed Riona to do whatever she wanted.

Of course, Thyra, Edda, and Skyla, who were seeing this from afar could easily tell that Amaya wasn't the least bit annoyed. Rather, she was enjoying her mother's company, of course, Amaya will never admit this openly.

"As Nux used to say... a tsundere."

Thyra muttered as she continued to observe the scene in front of her with an amused look on her face.

"Indeed."

Edda nodded.

"Hmm? But he said that Amaya was more like a Yandere though?"

Skyla frowned.

"Ask him, it's not like I know what exactly these foreign terms mean."

Thyra shrugged.

Skyla shrugged as well and all the women continued to observe the scene.

Riona didn't hold back either, since she was allowed to do anything she wanted, she quickly placed Amaya's head on her lap and smiled,

"How about you get some rest?"

"I had plenty of rest yesterday."

Amaya replied in a monotonous tone.

“Trust me, no rest can be compared to resting on your mother’s lap.”

Riona replied.

“Try ‘resting’ with your lover after having an intense session, you would know what I am talking about.”

Amaya shrugged.

“...”

Riona turned silent.

As she thought.

Talking with Amaya without her bringing Nux into this topic was nearly impossible.

Riona sighed. It was good that she was prepared today.

“Oh yeah? Why don’t you describe to me how good it feels then? Since I never experienced this, after all.”

“Are you trying to interfere with my love life?”

Amaya narrowed her eyes.

“...” Riona didn’t know what to say.

“But I do pity you for not experiencing something so good.”

Amaya spoke.

Suddenly, a smirk appeared on Riona’s face as she offered,

“Then how about you sleep with me then? I don’t know how good it feels to sleep with a lover, but I am sure I would be satisfied if I can sleep with my daughter again.”

“I am sorry, I only sleep with Nux.”

Amaya shook her head.

“Well, he can join us, I don’t have any problems.”

Riona spoke without thinking too much.

Her words, however, shocked the others present and they looked at Riona with strange expressions on their faces.

“What?” Riona frowned.

Soon, however, she realized what she said and her eyes widened in surprise,

“No! I didn’t mean it that way! I meant... wait, I really shouldn’t have said that, huh? That sounds so inappropriate.”

Riona started talking to herself.

Amaya, however, continued to glare at her mother.

‘I knew I was right, this bitch was going after him. That’s why she has been talking so much about him.’

Amaya was ready to go on a war.

She can allow anyone to join Nux’s harem, anyone but her mother.

No! Never!

Nux will not become her stepfather!

As soon as this thought appeared in her mind, Amaya shook her head continuously.

She affirmed her thoughts.

She would never allow this to happen.

“Tsk, you really don’t like lying on my lap, do you? Geez, you are moving so much.”

As Amaya continued to shake her head, Riona complained.

In the end, she allowed her to sit back up, not forcing her to lay on her lap anymore.

Amaya didn’t break her eye contact with Riona, seeing her looking at her like that, Riona smiled playfully,

“Why are you looking at me like that? What? Am I looking incredibly beautiful today?”

Yep, she had no clue about what Amaya was thinking about.

“...”

Seeing that Amaya didn’t reply to her again, Riona sighed, in the end, she decided to use her trump card.

“I didn’t expect that even Princess Evane is one of your sisters.”

“How did you know?” Amaya narrowed her eyes.

“Who do you think I am?”

Riona smiled proudly.

“Did you do a background check on Nux?”

“I got curious, okay? Just think about it, a single man attracting the attention of nine women who are all King Stage Cultivators. Anyone would be curious.

You may not realize it, but nine King Stage Cultivators is a very big deal.”

Riona answered.

If Amaya was in her right mind, she would have understood what Riona was talking about, however, in her right mind, she was not.

She narrowed her eyes and continued to observe her mother.

‘As I thought. She is planning it.’

Her thoughts were now even more confirmed.

“Hmm?”

Riona, who didn’t have a single clue about what her lovely daughter was thinking frowned, soon, however, a playful smile appeared on her face and she spoke,

“I have an amazing gift for you.”

“ ... ”

Amaya didn’t say anything and continued to observe her mother. Riona found her reaction strange, however, she didn’t think too much about it, with a smile on her face, she took out an envelope and gave it to Amaya.

“It is sent to me by someone you know very well.”

Amaya frowned, took the letter and a confused expression appeared on her face.

“Raguel Skyfall?”

Chapter 481

“It is sent to me by someone you know very well.”

Amaya frowned, took the letter and a confused expression appeared on her face.

“Raguel Skyfall?”

Riona’s smile widened.

“Read it. I am sure you will like it.”

Amaya’s face then turned serious and she opened the envelope.

Thyra, Edda, and Skyla appeared behind her and the three of them started reading the letter.

The more they read, the more their expression changed,

A minute later, when Amaya was finally done with reading the letter, a strange paper with different stamps printed on it appeared in her hand, she then compared a certain stamp with the stamp on the letter, and the two stamps matched.

“This letter is authentic.”

She spoke.

“He is bold, I will give him that.”

Edda spoke with a playful smile on her face.

“That bastard is targeting Evane.”

Thyra spoke with a solemn look on her face.

“Heh, it’s not like he can do anything.”

“Not unless...”

Thyra glanced at Riona.

Seeing her gaze, Riona understood what Thyra was thinking and smiled.

“Well, he did ask for my assistance in this matter, he told me that if I help him get rid of Evane, he will owe me a favor and once he becomes the King, he would do anything I want to return that favor.

It is a tempting offer, I won’t lie.”

“To have the King of the enemy country owe you a favor, it is tempting indeed.”

Amaya agreed.

“But how are you so sure that he would return the favor? What if he ignores you after becoming the King? Once he becomes the King, Astaria would be protecting him, I don’t think there is anything you can do against a monster like her.”

Thyra questioned with a curious look on her face.

However, before Riona could answer, Amaya spoke,

“The same Astaria would become his enemy if something like that happens.”

Thyra frowned.

Amaya then pointed at the stamp at the end of the letter and spoke,

“This right here is the proof that this letter was sent by the First Prince, this texture is unique to the stamp given to him, this can’t be copied. Once it is revealed that the First Prince has colluded with the enemy Kingdom, King or not, he would face the death penalty.

Actually, by sending this letter to her with his own stamp on it, he is putting himself at a big risk as she can always use this letter to blackmail him.”

“Would you look at that? As I thought, my daughter is indeed a genius. Just as I thought. Fufufu~ You explained everything so amazingly~”

Riona chuckled.

Amaya, however, didn't react to her words.

“He is trying to show his sincerity.”

Thyra commented and Amaya nodded.

“Well, it is still a stupid move nonetheless.”

Edda commented.

“You can't let someone, especially your enemy, get a hold of your weakness.”

Amaya nodded, “You are correct, however, if you think about it from Raguel's perspective, he doesn't really have many options. He tried to remove both the Third and Second Princess from the equation, however, the Second Princess.

The chances that the Second Princess would become the next ruler are close to 100%, the strongest Cultivator of the entire Kingdom is out now. To make it even worse, in his eyes, the relationship between the Third Princess, who he had killed, and the Second Princess, who will become the next Ruler is not good at all.

She would definitely take her revenge once Evane gets in power. His life would be anything but easy.”

“...”

Everyone in the room turned silent,

Riona, however, continued to smile, “As I said, my daughter is indeed a genius.”

She then walked towards Amaya and buried her face into her breasts again. Again, Amaya was helpless.

While Amaya and Riona were doing their thing, Thyra glanced at Riona and questioned,

“So? What about it? Are you going to help him?”

“Well, I can always blackmail him using this letter, I don’t even need to help him, however, there are only so many things I could get from a mere prince, a King owing me a favor is much better for me.”

Riona spoke.

“But how are you going to help him? Lady Astaria is still inside the Royal Palace you know? Are you going to ask Lord Amletus’s help?” Thyra questioned.

“There is no way she would help me with something so insignificant. Not that he can help me even if he wants to, a treaty holds him back.”

Riona replied.

“Then you are not going to help him?” Thyra questioned.

“I just said it, a king owing me a favor is much better than a mere Prince owing me one.”

“Heh. Sure, try it, I am sure the outcome would be as you expect.” Thyra smiled disdainfully.

“Are you challenging me?”

Riona narrowed her eyes.

“You can take it like that.”

Thyra didn't back down either.

"Tsk, you people are ungrateful." Suddenly, Riona snorted.

"What do you mean?"

"Wait..." Suddenly, Amaya frowned.

"If you actually wanted to help him, you wouldn't have shown this letter to us."

Amaya spoke.

Riona pointed her finger at Amaya and,

"Pippon!! As I thought, as expected, only you are the one who understands me.

*Sniff* *Sniff*

As they say, blood is indeed thicker than water."

Then, Riona hugged Amaya again.

"W-Why don't you explain your plans before hugging me again?"

Amaya, whose face was buried into her mother's breasts for the third time in a single day, spoke.

"Hmm hmm, why not."

Riona understood that she was going a little far and coughed.

She then stood straight, then glanced at all the women present inside the room, and questioned,

"Your plan is to make Evane the next Queen of the Skyfall Kingdom, correct?"

“Well, that is the plan, but we don’t need any help, Evane becoming the next King is something that will happen eventually.”

Thyra replied.

“Eventually, you don’t know how long it will take, how about we move forward with that plan? And while we are at it, we will also deal with that idiot Raguel, what do you say?”

Riona spoke.

“Heh. Sounds amazing, how about you explain your plans first?”

All the women standing in the room chuckled.

Chapter 482

“Alright, time is up, you should leave now.”

Amaya spoke.

Riona looked at her and pouted,

“You really hate me, don’t you?”

Amaya sighed, “I already told you this before, I do not hate you, if you do not leave, someone will get suspicious of you, it is foolish to extend this meeting for a few minutes when it may ruin our future meetings.”

“Tsk, having a daughter who is a genius has its fair share of troubles as well.”

Riona snorted, then, she stretched her hand outwardly and stood up,

“Alright, I will be taking my leave guys. We will meet again tomorrow, you people can discuss the plan with Nux, if he agrees, we can have an even more detailed discussion. Is that okay?”

“Don’t worry, we will discuss it with him.”

Thyra nodded.

“Yeah, now leave.” Amaya waved her hands.

It looked as if she was shooing her away.

The scene was quite comical with Riona pouting like a little child. One might even wonder who is the daughter here.

Riona then walked out of the mansion with a sad look on her face.

“You could be a little more polite to her, you know...” Seeing this scene, Skyla commented.

“Don’t be fooled by her, she is the Queen of the Kingdom, that too in a Kingdom where females never had power before. She is not the type of woman who would get affected by something like this.”

Amaya spoke with an expressionless look on her face.

“What do you mean?”

Thyra felt that Amaya’s words had a hidden meaning behind them, so she questioned.

“Think about this. Raguel send assassins and ‘killed’ Amaya, Riona Skadi’s blood daughter, do you think he would be stupid enough to ask for her help?”

“Well, she did ‘sell’ you to another Kingdom, so I don’t think he would care about your relation with her while talking to her. In the grand schemes of things, something like this is useless.” Thyra replied.

“I understand that, however, if you were in Raguel’s position, would you still choose to go for the Skadi Kingdom?”

I mean, since he has 2 other options that would give him the same result as this one, he would be a fool to choose the Skadi Kingdom.”

“ ... ”

Thyra turned silent.

Amaya was correct.

Raguel could have chosen the Solid Earth Kingdom or the Woods Dynasty as well, the result would have been the same in both cases. Choosing a Kingdom that could potentially be holding a grudge against you is a foolish decision.

“Something is wrong here.”

Thyra commented.

“Indeed, that woman is hiding something. The timing is too accurate for it to be just a coincidence. Think about this, we are here and in just a few days, Raguel sent a letter like this to the Skadi Kingdom.

He had a month, why didn't he send it before? Why the Skadis? Why not someone else? And why did he decide to move so suddenly?”

Amaya nodded and pointed out a few more suspicious things.

Now, even Skyla and Edda realized something was not right and Skyla's face turned serious.

“Do you think that woman is planning something?”

Skyla questioned.

Skyla might look cute and innocent at first, however, do not forget, she is Thyra's best student. She has killed quite a few people, she was warm and innocent, however, she was not naïve, the moment she realizes that Riona was trying to harm her sisters or Nux, she wouldn't hesitate to kill her off.

“That woman is definitely planning something.”

Amaya replied.

Skyla's expression turned icy.

She had decided, she would get rid of that bitch with her own hands.

“However, I don't know whether her plan is to harm her or not.”

Amaya spoke and hearing those words, Skyla calmed down.

She interacted with Riona, she could feel that her love for Amaya was genuine, she didn't know whether she was fooled or not, however, she would like to believe that what she was feeling was correct.

Riona might have an ulterior motive, however, Skyla wanted to believe that her ulterior motive doesn't involve hurting them.

“So what are we doing?”

Thyra questioned.

“What else? We would talk to Nux and the others, know what they think about it and then come up with a decision.” Amaya shrugged.

“Alright.”

Thyra nodded.

Time passed, and a few hours later, Nux returned,

“Hello, you beautiful ladies~”

With an elegant bow, he greeted. The scene looked quite funny considering that his clothes were rather dirty, completely different than the elegant look he was going for.

The women chuckled and shook their heads in helplessness.

“You are finally back,” Amaya spoke.

“Indeed.”

Nux nodded.

“Why are your clothes so dirty? You didn't go to the Forbidden Region, did you?” Thyra narrowed her eyes and questioned.

“Of course not. There is no way I would face a beast that even an Emperor is wary of. Did you forget? I am someone who would run the moment I think that my life is in danger. Why would I risk my life by doing something so stupid?”

“So you are saying that your clothes got dirty in the inner zone?”

Thyra raised her eyebrow in doubt.

One had to know, even when Nux was just a Grand Master Stage Cultivator, his clothes didn't get dirty in the inner zone.

He always had a little layer of waiter shield all around his body that protects his clothes and his face from all the dirt and blood in the Wilderness.

It was not like Nux would struggle desperately fighting normal beasts, he can even one-shot a 6 Star beast now, who would force Nux to the extent that his clothes got dirty?

“Well, don't worry about it, I was trying a few new things.”

Nux chuckled.

“New things?”

Thyra narrowed her eyes.

“What new things? Tell me! Tell me!”

Skyla questioned with a curious look on her face. At the same time, she grabbed this chance to rush and Nux and hug him. She didn't mind getting a little dirt on her clothes.

A small price to pay.

“It's a secret~” Nux chuckled.

Skyla pouted.

Chapter 483

‘Hmm? What’s the problem here?’

Nux questioned with a frown on his face.

‘What? Don’t you realize it, she might try to harm us.’

Felberta spoke with a serious look on her face.

‘Do you really think he can harm Evane with me there?’

Nux questioned back and everyone turned silent.

‘That is correct... With Nux there, as long as Riona doesn’t send Amletus, harming Evane would be impossible no matter how many King Stage Cultivators she sends.’

Thyra nodded.

‘And even she wouldn’t have the power to make Amletus move.’ Amaya nodded.

The women finally understood what Nux was talking about, a small smile appeared on Amaya’s face and she spoke,

‘Alright then, we don’t need to think more about this. We are going to carry on with this plan. In the end, if this is successful, we would get rid of a few annoying things at the same time, and Evane becoming the next Queen would be then 100% assured.’

Nux smiled as well.

‘Fufufu~ This is getting fun~’

Ember commented with a smile on her face.

‘Okay, we should stop wasting more time, let’s start.’

Suddenly, Allura spoke with a competitive look on her face.

‘Heh, eager to lose today as well, aren’t you?’

Amaya provoked.

‘Heh, we will see about that.’

Ember snorted.

Amaya, Thyra, Edda, and Skylia glanced at Nux at the same time.

This was the signal.

Leave the conversation, now it’s time for women’s talk.

Nux sighed and with an unwilling look on his face, he disconnected the call.

He then noticed Amaya’s, Thyra’s, Skylia’s, and Edda’s expressions changed. It looked as if they were about to fight a war.

Nux sighed again and then he turned around.

This was something new his women started.

Battle for the Beloved.

That is what they call it.

In summary, it is something that decides which group would Nux visit today first, the ones in the Skadi, or the ones in the Skyfall. What they do, however, is not known by Nux.

The women had decided to keep it a secret.

From their sky and embarrassed expressions, he knew it was something fun, however, whenever he asks about it, they just smile and don’t answer any of his questions.

‘Haahh...’

Nux sighed at his lonely life and walked into his room.

30 minutes later, his women would come and decide who the victor was, and then finally something fun would happen.

Thinking about it, a small smile appeared on his face.

Now the question was, what was he going to do in these 30 minutes? Well, the answer was simple.

Nux walked towards his bed, sat cross-legged, and closed his eyes. Devouring Mist covered his body and he started cultivating.

...

Time passed, soon, 30 minutes passed by, and the doors of Nux’s room opened, since Nux wasn’t in deep meditation right now, he quickly opened his eyes.

His eyes then fell on the dejected looks of his women’s faces, a smile appeared on his face.

“It seems they were well prepared for today, weren’t they?”

“Tsk, numbers advantage.”

Thyra snorted.

Nux chuckled and then stood up.

“Don’t worry, I will be back soon.”

“mm.”

The women nodded.

Nux then kissed all the women on the lips and then he disappeared.

The next second, he reappeared 1500 km away, right in front of Ember. The lioness-like woman was sitting on the bed, wearing a bold outfit that was barely hiding her curvy body.

Ember's red eyes shined dangerously as she glanced at Nux, the woman then placed her right leg on the top of her left, this little movement was so sensual that Nux couldn't help but feel a little twitch in his lower region.

Ember was looking especially alluring today, adding her suppressing aura that she unconsciously releases, Nux knew that he was going to have a hard time holding himself back.

His golden eyes shined as well, an aura even more suppressing than Ember's was released from his body, a wide smile appeared on his face and without wasting any time, he removed all his clothes.

“I like that dress.”

He commented.

“That was the aim.”

Ember chuckled.

“You certainly succeeded, now just make sure you are not broken.”

“Try your best.”

Ember challenged.

Nux's smile widened, he then walked towards Ember, his hand moved and directly touched Ember's soft but perky breasts, without much effort, he removed the so-called clothes, which were nothing but two straps covering Ember's pink and delicious-looking nipples and a cap that she wore when she was a General.

Feeling his touch, Ember moved her body backward, slowly falling on the bed, Nux followed her body, and soon, both of them were lying on the bed with Nux on top of the General.

“Where will you run now?”

Nux whispered.

“I never planned to run in the first place.”

Ember replied.

Nux smiled, he then lowered his met and their lips met.

While their lips tasted each other, their naked bodies mingled together, Ember’s well-trained, but somehow curvy body touched Nux’s lean, well-built body.

Nux’s hand moved, one on Ember’s lower back, the other on the back of her head, both of Ember’s hands were moving around his wide back, touching every single inch there was.

The temperature of the room increased, and the hot scene turned even hotter and continued to get hotter and hotter.

The night continued, and soon, the foreplay and the kissing were over,

“Annhh~”

Nux’s dick finally entered Ember’s vagina, a small moan leaked out of Ember’s mouth.

“With just that?” Nux questioned.

“That was just to cheer you up.” Ember didn’t give up.

“So thoughtful~”

Nux chuckled, he then moved his hips back then without waiting, he pushed them back with all the strength he had.

“AAAaaannhHHhh~~”

This time, Ember’s moan was much louder than before.

Nux smiled,

“Continue to ‘cheer me up’ like this, you are doing quite good.”

“...”

This time, Ember didn’t say anything. She was too busy trying to keep her face straight.

Nux chuckled, he then kissed Ember’s lips again and the hot and sizzling session continued.

Chapter 484

“Alright then, it is decided, we will continue with the plan, you prepare things on your own end, I will talk to that idiot King, once the preparations are done, we will discuss the date of the operation.”

After seeing Amaya agreeing to her plan of betraying Raguel, Riona spoke with a smile on her face.

“Alright, we can discuss more about this tomorrow. You can complete your preparations, there is not much to do on our side.”

Amaya nodded with a small smile on her face.

Riona nodded, and this time, without waiting, she walked out of the Mansion.

She knew what Amaya’s next words were going to be.

The time was already up, and the topic they were talking about was already over, she had a few other topics to start about, however, Amaya wouldn’t really be interested in them and even if she was, she wouldn’t let her start another topic since the time was already up.

Riona had no choice but to leave.

And since she was leaving, why not leave without her daughter needing to say it today?

Thinking about this, Riona left.

After she left, Thyra raised her eyes,

“Something is wrong,”

She commented.

“Of course something is wrong, we decided it yesterday, if you about it.”

Edda came with her sassy reply.

Thyra completely ignored the woman and continued,

“What preparations was she talking about? Why does she need to talk to the King? Isn't she the one who holds the most power in the Kingdom?”

Hearing her words, Edda frowned as well.

Amaya, on the other hand, shook her head,

“Things are not simple. The Skadi Kingdom works differently from the Skyfall Kingdom. She may hold most of the power, however, with that power, the responsibility she bears is much heavier.

Keep in mind, the one who is sitting on the Throne is still the King, not her.

One wrong move, and she would lose most of her power and influence. Her position may look strong and mighty from the outside, however, in truth, it is as weak as a castle made my cards, one little push and everything will be destroyed.

And right now, she was about to make that wrong move.

The King Stage Cultivators that she sends in order to ‘assassinate’ Evane, would die, if she makes this move on her own accord, she might even get executed, therefore, she needs the King’s permission to continue with this plan.”

Amaya explained, showing why she was called a Genuis again.

Hearing her explanation, Edda raised one of her eyebrows,

“So she is trying to use the King as a scapegoat?”

“You can say that.” Amaya nodded.

An amazed look appeared on Edda's face, she then glanced at Amaya and joined her hands in a respectful way, "Amaya, your mother is a fucking genius,"

Amaya just snorted.

"How is she sure that the King would agree with this plan? She has even formed so many plans, shouldn't she have asked for his permission first?" Thyra questioned with a frown on her face.

"These tasks are usually done by the order of their difficulty, if she has talked and convinced all of us and made a few more plans before talking to the king,

Then she must be confident that she would be able to manipulate the King to do what she wants."

Amaya replied.

Edda was now even more amazed, "I will bow to her and hold her legs next time she is here. I only thought of her as a stupid mother who cares about nothing but her daughter. To think she was this savage. To treat the King of a Country like a fool, to not even consider him as a factor that might ruin her plans, oh my god, she is like... a beast!"

Now Edda was simply fangirling.

"Do not underestimate that woman, as I said before, she is someone who holds power in a Kingdom where women never had any power, she can't possibly be a simple woman. A stupid woman who only cares about her daughter? Heh, I guess she succeeding in fooling you as well."

Amaya snickered.

Edda didn't care that Amaya was laughing at her, she was just too busy thinking about how cool that woman was.

She found her new role model.

“ ... ”

Seeing her acting like that, Amaya shook her head and sighed.

Skyla, who was silent this whole time questioned with a frown on her face,

“I wanted to ask this earlier, however, I forgot about it that time so I will ask right now, when you say that a Kingdom where women never had any power, what do you mean?”

“I meant exactly what I said. The Skadi Kingdom never had a female ruler. There are many strange traditions in this Kingdom, and one of them is this one. They feel that women’s position is lower than the men’s, therefore, being ruled by a woman was a disgrace for them.”

Amaya explained and continued further,

“With her cultivation talent and intelligence, she would have become the next Ruler of this country, however, since she was a woman, her brother, who was nothing but a useless bastard who rarely cultivates was chosen as the next King. That Idio-”

“Wait Wait Wait.”

Amaya wanted to continue, however, she was then interrupted by Edda.

“You are telling me that your mother is married to her brother!?”

Hearing her question, Amaya frowned,

“Didn’t you know that already? The Skadi Kingdom has been following Incest since the time the Kingdom was established. This is another one of their strange traditions. They do this to keep the blood pure. Only a child that has a complete Skadi Bloodline is allowed to become the next King.”

“What if the brother and sister don’t want to marry each other?” Skyla questioned.

“In the matters of the Kingdom, their wishes are ignored and overlooked.”
Amaya answered.

“So they are forced.”

“Yes.” Amaya nodded.

“Wait...” Suddenly, another thought appeared in Thyra’s mind.

“You are Lady Riona and the King’s daughter, so you are a pure-blooded Skadi, correct?”

“I am.” Amaya nodded.

“Do you have a brother?”

“Yes, there is one.”

“So won’t you be forced to marry him?”

Chapter 485

“So won’t you be forced to marry him?”

Thyra questioned with a frown on her face.

Edda and Skyla’s expressions changed. Amaya, however, had a ridiculous expression on her face as she turned toward Thyra.

“What are you talking about? I am dead, remember?”

“Ahh, right.”

Thyra, Skyla, and Edda remembered.

“But what if Riona reveals the truth? What if she is actually not on our side and all of this is just an act?” Thyra questioned.

“Well, I don’t think there is much of a problem, the King has many wives, two of them are his blood sisters, and my brother has many choices, also, I am the ‘cursed’ child, remember? If they wanted me to marry my brother, they wouldn’t have sold me off to Ricardus.

If you are worried, you should worry about Riona revealing that I have found a way to cultivate my physique. That is something that would even temp Amletus to make a move.”

“What would we do if something like that happens?”

Thyra questioned.

“Heh, don’t worry, Lady Astaria would protect us. Nux has arranged that already.” A mysterious smile appeared on Amaya’s face.

Thyra sighed in relief, since they were already prepared, they didn’t have to worry about anything.

“I still don’t think Lady Riona would betray us,” Skyla spoke.

“Well, let’s see what happens, shall we?” Amaya spoke.

To be honest, even she hoped that her mother won’t betray her again.

Whatever Riona has been doing for these past few days, well, although she may not say it out loud, and although not all of them were liked by Amaya, she still enjoyed spending time with her mother.

Only a little.

She wished that this time would continue, and the mother who was showering her with all her love and care...

She hoped that she was not a fake.

Yes, whatever Riona was doing was working.

Amaya, who had defenses all around her has finally loosened up and placed her heart at risk again.

Of course, what happens in the future all depends on Riona.

...

On the other side, Riona, who has just walked into the Palace, was greeted by a servant,

“Lady Riona.”

Riona nodded, she glanced at the maid in front of her and questioned,

“Where is the King?”

“His Majesty is in his room.”

The Maid replied with a respectful look on her face.

“Is there anyone with him?” Riona questioned.

“Yes, he is with Lady Athela.” The maid replied.

“Alright, you can leave now.” Riona nodded, the maid bowed and walked away.

With an expressionless look on her face, Riona walked toward the King’s room.

In front of the door, 2 guards were standing. These guards were ordered to stop anyone who tries to enter the room. The King was clearly ‘busy’ right now, any matters that are to be discussed with the King would be discussed tomorrow.

However, when Riona walked towards the door, the guards didn’t dare to utter a word and moved aside.

Riona didn’t react, she directly opened the door and walked in.

“Who dares!?”

A frown appeared on Riona’s face the moment she entered the room.

She had expected this to happen, but still, no matter how many times she saw this sight, it was still repulsive.

A fat pig like this bastard, lying on top of that bitch, both of them naked while the room was filled with this strangely disgusting smell of alcohol, aphrodisiac drugs, and body fluids, it really was repulsive.

“I need to talk.”

Riona, however, ignored whatever she was feeling and spoke.

“You cannot barge in like that when the two of us are busy.”

The woman who was lying on the bed with the King spoke with an angry look on her face while covering her body with bedsheets.

Just like Riona, the woman had black hair and black eyes, she was a beautiful woman with an amazing figure, however, when compared to Riona, she seemed... lacking.

The woman's name was Athela, Riona, and the King's blood sister.

"I don't care if you two are busy or not, I need to talk about something important, I urge you do it right now, the faster you finish, the faster you can return to your... activities."

Riona replied.

"Didn't you hear? I am busy. Just because you have a little power, don't forget who the real King is.

Now leave."

The King, Eardwolf Skadi, spoke with an annoyed look on his face. Just like his two sisters, he also had black eyes and hair, with his features, he should have been quite a handsome man, however, with all that flesh surrounding his body, he looked like a pig.

A pig who was in power and was now annoyed at the woman in front of her.

Riona, however, wasn't a least bit bothered by his gaze, rather, she was infuriated. She released the fearsome aura that she has attained after killing countless people and putting her life at risk for countless years.

"Do not make me repeat myself.

I need to talk.

Right now."

Feeling her aura, Eardwolf was intimidated.

"I promise you, it is something good."

Riona spoke with a smile on her face. In the end, Eardwolf was the King, he may be useless and a coward, but, she still had the crown on his head.

She couldn't just use force on him, she had to threaten and offer him something good at the same time, she needed to successfully win his curiosity, she needs to make him listen to what she had to say.

“Alright... I will come, wait outside for a while.”

Eardwolf nodded.

Hearing his words, Riona's smile widened,

“I'll be waiting.”

She then turned around and left the room.

She didn't wish to spend even a single more second here in this room.

Athela, who saw her moving out clenched her fist in frustration. She then turned towards Eardwolf and spoke.

“You are the King! How can you let her boss you around like that?”

“I am not allowing her to ‘boss me around’. This matter seemed important.”
The King replied.

“Important matter my ass! Just admit it, you were scared.” Athela snorted.

“Athela.”

Suddenly, Eardwolf's aura changed, he glanced at Athela with a threatening look on his face and warned.

“Do not overstep your limits.”

Chapter 486

“Do not overstep your limits.”

Eardwolf glanced at Athela and spoke with a threatening look on his face.

Athela stepped back.

“Good.”

Eardwolf praised and then after wearing his clothes and fixing his hair, he left the room.

After Eardwolf left, Athela snorted.

“That Pig, he only acts like that in front of me, what happens to you when Riona stands in front of you? Heh, you don’t even have the balls to directly look into her eyes.”

Just thinking about this annoys Athela to her core.

If only she had Riona’s Cultivation Talent, she would have shown her how things are done.

‘That fucking bitch! You always look down on me, don’t you? Don’t worry, there will come a day when I would make you regret everything you did to me.’

Athela snorted again and a cruel smile appeared on her face when she imagined Riona and Eardwolf, kneeling in front of her and begging for their life.

‘I will make this happen one day.’

Athela swore inwardly.

...

On the other side, Eardwolf walked into the room Riona was waiting in, he then sat on the chair next to Riona's and questioned.

“So? What happened? Why did you call me? You already have everything under your control, what more do you want?”

Hearing his question, a beautiful smile appeared on Riona's face and soon, a letter appeared in her hand.

She passed the letter to Eardwolf, the King started reading the letter and soon, a solemn look appeared on his face,

“So he wants our help in order to assassinate the Second Princess of their Kingdom and he would owe us a favor once he becomes the King?”

“Yes.”

Riona nodded.

Eardwolf started thinking,

“This Stamp, is i-”

He wanted to ask, however, before he could complete his question, Riona replied,

“Yes, it is real, I have verified it already.”

“Heh, that Raguel is quite a fool. Does he really think that things would end with just a single favor? With this letter with us, we can ask anything he wants and he would have to do it for us.

Heh, he is practically giving the Strongest Kingdom of the World in our hands, Hahahaha~

Poor Skyfall Kingdom.

That Bastard Ricardus, I knew his son couldn't be good at anything.
Hahahaha~”

The King started laughing.

Riona, on the other hand, didn't say anything.

Unlike this fool, she actually went ahead and analyzed the situation. Rather than saying that Raguel was a fool, it was better to say that Evane's sudden return was a change that he couldn't react to.

Maybe it was Nux who was involved or something, but as soon as Evane returned, everything went south for Raguel.

His move of contacting other kingdoms was not wrong, the letter can only be used for a while, once he becomes the King and succeeds in spreading his influence, then even if she wants it, Astaria would still not be able to kill him.

Just like what happened with Ricardus.

So even if they have this letter, they can only use it 2 to 3 times at most, after that, it will lose its value.

Of course, this idiot doesn't have to know all this.

“So? Why are you here? Everything is under our control and is going in our favor, why discuss it with me?”

Eardwolf questioned.

“Only King Stage Cultivators can help in this situation,” Riona spoke.

“Yes, I know that.”

“I need you to send Sir Vloyd or Sir Razor to the Skyfall Kingdom,” Riona spoke.

“Why do you want to send one of them specifically? You have so many King Stage Cultivators who are loyal to you, why don’t you send them?”

Eardwolf raised his eyebrow in suspicion.

In the Skadi Kingdom, where Women are seen as inferior when compared to a man, Riona gaining power and influence was a big change. The fact that the current King was useless played a huge part in this.

Riona played the correct moves at the correct time and soon, she gained the support and loyalty of most of the subjects.

However, not everyone was happy with these changes.

The people who took traditions very seriously, people like them didn’t like the fact that Riona, a woman, had so much power in their Kingdom.

Riona wouldn’t care about most of these people, however, Vloyd Skadi and Razor Skadi, these 2 were the people she couldn’t ignore. These two were the only King Stage Cultivators who were not loyal to him, rather, she was sure that if given the chance, they would bare their fangs at her.

They were a time-ticking bomb that she had to dispose of in one way or another.

Unlike Eardwolf, Riona knew the Truth behind this ‘Mission’.

The King Stage Cultivator who will be sent on this Mission was a sacrifice.

He would never return.

Riona couldn’t find any better chance to get rid of one of these thorns in her eyes. Once one of them is gone, only one King Stage who opposes her would be left.

She would think of something else to get rid of that bastard as well.

Yes, once this plan succeeds, Riona’s position would be strengthened to the point where she wouldn’t need to fear anyone or anything.

A smile couldn't help but appear on her face when she thought about all this.

Yes, Riona was using this chance to not only get close to her daughter but also to strengthen her position.

She was greedy, however, she couldn't be blamed, in the end, she was a Queen, and if something benefits her in any way, she would do it.

That is how she got so much power in the first place.

However, not everything was set in stone right now, she still had to manipulate this fool into doing what she wants.

A simple task really.

“I will not send my subordinates anywhere unless I have 100% surety that the Mission would succeed.”

Riona answered.

“Are you saying that there are chances that this Mission would fail?”

Eardwolf raised his eyebrow.

Chapter 487

“Are you saying that there are chances that this Mission would fail?”

Eardwolf raised his eyebrow and questioned with a doubtful look on his face.

“Hmm? Of course, there are. There is always a chance that your plan might fail, however, things are different here.

The Stakes are just too high, I won't be able to take the responsibility if one of my King Stage Subordinates dies here.” Riona answered.

“Heh, so the Great Riona Skadi is afraid?”

Eardwolf provoked.

Riona, however, replied with a straight look on her face,

“I am not afraid, I am just being careful.”

“How will the plan fail? What bothers you? Discuss it with me, only then will I think about sending someone for this mission. Is it Astaria Skyfall?”

Eardwolf spoke.

Hearing his words, Riona smiled inwardly,

The fish has taken the bait.

“Lady Astaria is not a problem.

Since Raguel sent this letter, he must have a way to do things without involving Lady Astaria. The Problem is the Target herself.

Evane Skyfall.

I investigated that woman, she is not as simple as you think, she has a King Stage Cultivator as her subordinate.

We are sending 1 King Stage Cultivator to deal with that subordinate while Raguel's Grandfather would kill Evane before teaming up with our King Stage Cultivator to Kill that bodyguard.

But what if that bodyguard is not the only King Stage Cultivator supporting her? What if there is one more? Won't things go south?"

Riona replied.

"You are telling me that you suspect that two King Stage Cultivators are protecting that Princess 24 hours a day and seven days a week?"

Eardwolf raised his eyes and questioned.

"Yes."

Riona nodded.

"Do you know how absurd you sound?"

Eardwolf couldn't help but question.

"King Stage Cultivators are National Treasures, one of them is just a mere bodyguard is already absurd, but now you are saying that there are two bodyguards protecting a little girl all the time?"

"I know it is a very unlikely scenario, however, I would still not send my subordinates until I am 100% sure, and in this case, I can't be 100% sure since everything involving that 'little girl' is too mysterious."

Riona spoke in a way that showed that no matter what happens, she won't do otherwise.

"So my subordinates dying is not a problem, but your subordinates dying is something you can't accept?" Eardwolf spoke.

“Of course, I am only responsible for my subordinates’ lives, not yours.”

Riona was direct with her answer.

“What if I don’t agree to send them?”

The King questioned.

“Then we will abandon the Mission, Raguel would be charged for assassinating his brother, and that Evane would become the Ruler of the Skyfall Kingdom.

It was a good opportunity to gain control over the Skyfall Kingdom and a chance to recruit a few of their King Stage Cultivators, but we don’t have to take unnecessary risks.”

Riona shrugged.

“ ... ”

The King fell into deep thought.

Seeing this, a smile appeared on Riona’s face, she then stood up and,

“Well, whatever, I guess it was a waste of time, you can go continue with whatever you are doing, I still have some work to do.”

Saying those words, Riona turned around.

“Wait.”

Just as she was about to leave the room, the King called out.

Riona’s smile widened,

‘Easy peasy.’

She chuckled inwardly. Then, her smile disappeared and she turned around,

“Hmm? What is it?”

“So you are not going to do it?”

“I won’t.”

“Give that letter to me.”

The King spoke.

“Why?”

Riona frowned.

“Heh, unlike you, I am not a cow-”

Before Eardwolf could even complete, Riona’s expression changed,

“I warned you, didn’t I? Don’t do something that you might regret later.”

“This is a great opportunity, abandoning it because of some random ifs is not something wise, it might be a little risky, but I feel like I should take this risk.”

“So you are planning to help Raguel?”

Riona questioned.

“I am.” Eardwolf smiled.

“That would be gre-”

An excited smile appeared on Riona’s face, however, before she could continue, Eardwolf interrupted.

“However, I will be the one taking credit once this succeeds. I am the one who is taking all the risk after all.”

“That won’t be a problem, you can take all the credits you want. I don’t care.”

Hearing her answer, Eardwolf frowned,

Eardwolf felt that something was wrong, Riona was being a little too agreeable today. Why would she give up an opportunity like this to him?

Won’t it increase his influence? That isn’t something she would wish for.

The more he thought about this, the more suspicious it everything seemed.

And as if knowing what was going on in his mind, Riona spoke,

“Look, I know it is suspicious, if it was something else, I wouldn’t help you, however, this is something important for this Kingdom. I might lose some of my influence, however, if it can strengthen us, it is only a small price to pay.”

Eardwolf was not sure, something was definitely wrong.

Riona was not this saintly of a woman.

She was definitely planning something.

Eardwolf started thinking.

This Mission would definitely be beneficial for the Kingdom but the question was, what would Riona gain from this?

No matter what Eardwolf thought, he couldn’t come up with an answer.

‘Other than influence, there is nothing she needs, and influence could only be gained if the credit goes to her.

Wait...’

Eardwolf finally realized.

‘She was planning to steal my credits.’

Thinking about this, a cold look appeared on Eardwolf’s face.

‘Not today, you bitch.’

“Alright, I will help him, let me write a letter.”

“A letter?” Riona frowned.

A wide smile appeared on Eardwolf’s face and he answered,

“A letter to Vloyd and Razor, I will command them to go to the Skyfall Kingdom and talk with Prince Raguel.”

Eardwolf snickered inwardly.

Once everything was written, Riona wouldn’t be able to steal his credit. Thinking about this, a smile appeared on his face.

He then glanced at Riona to see her confused and troubled face, and seeing that face, a great sense of joy washed over his body.

‘Haha! Got you, bitch!’

Chapter 488

‘Haah! Got you, bitch!’

Overjoyed by his victory, Eardwolf laughed inwardly.

To confirm this victory, he continued.

“Since sending only 1 King Stage Cultivator might be a little risky, I will directly send two, that way, even if they have another King Stage Cultivator protecting that little girl, she wouldn’t be able to survive.”

To keep the act running, Riona questioned with a troubled look on her face,

“What if there is another King Stage Cultivator?”

“Don’t be ridiculous Riona, there is no way that a little girl would be protected by 3 King Stage Cultivators. Two is already stretching it far.”

Eardwolf snapped.

With a frown on her face, Riona continued to think.

To be honest, it was getting difficult for her to continue with this act, she was barely holding back the urge to smile.

She only wanted to get rid of 1 King Stage Cultivator, but now this idiot was offering both his King Stage Cultivators to her. Not only that, but the idiot was even planning on writing a letter to get written proof, once that happens, even if the King tries with everything he has, the blame will still not shift on her. That Idiot wasn’t even considering the possibility of failing the mission.

“What do you think?”

As if trying to gloat on his victory, Eardwolf questioned with a smile on his face.

“ ... ”

Riona didn't answer.

Seeing this, Eardwolf's smile widened and he questioned again,

“Is there some problem with my plan?”

“That is not it...”

Riona replied with an awkward look on his face.

“Then what is it? Explain clearly.”

Again, the expression Eardwolf showed to Athela appeared on his face.

Riona was disgusted by the way Eardwolf was trying to order her around, however, for the sake of her plan, she didn't have a choice but to continue.

“How... How about I help you with this plan? I will make sure everything runs smoothly.”

Riona offered.

Hearing this offered, Eardwolf laughed inwardly.

‘Haha~ Now that I have come up with such an amazing plan, you want the piece of the pie? In your dreams!’

However, suddenly, another idea popped into Eardwolf's mind.

It is not every day that he gets a chance to get one up over Riona, since he has finally gained this chance, why not fully utilize it?

“I don't think there is anything wrong with that, only when the two of us are working together would this plan succeed properly. We should, no, for the sake of the Kingdom, we must do it together.”

The King spoke.

Hearing his words, a big smile appeared on Riona’s face.

Seeing this look on her face, the King smiled inwardly.

‘Heh, smile all you want, work for me with everything you have, and once I am done using you, I will throw you away.’

Seeing his expression, where he was trying his hardest to hide that smile on his face, Riona shook her head inwardly.

‘That is the reason why you are so useless. Can’t even hide your expression properly. Tsk.’

...

Time passed quickly, the King was quick to take the action and with Riona helping her, the process was faster than ever.

In the Skyfall Kingdom, inside the Fulvanus Duke House, Prince Raguel, who was sitting on a chair was reading a letter, once he was done reading, a big smile appeared on his face.

He then turned towards an Old Man sitting in front of him and spoke,

“It’s them.”

Hearing his words, a small smile appeared on the Old Man’s face, soon, however, his smile disappeared and he replied,

“Took them long enough. Especially for someone who approached us first.”

“Well, they must have different things to work on, right? At least they are here. With the King Stage Cultivator, there is no way that bitch would come out alive.”

Raguel laughed.

However, seeing the look on his face, the Old Man's face turned especially serious.

“Raguel, keep this in mind, although you are getting help from them, do not lower yourself in front of them. You have to know, you will become the next King.

Act like one.”

Hearing his words, a serious look appeared on Raguel's face and he nodded.

“I will keep that in mind.”

“Good, remember, you only owe them one favor, and that too, only if they are smart enough to ask before you stabilize the Kingdom under your rule.”

“Yes, Great Grandfather.”

Raguel nodded.

“Great Grandfather, you should also be careful, although you will be teaming up with the King Stage Cultivator they send, you must keep an eye on them as well. There is a chance that they might backstab you once the Mission is complete.”

“Hahaha~ You do not have to worry about that, my old bones have observed this world for a long time now, I won't fall for something like that.

Don't worry, Evane won't survive this.”

The Old Man laughed.

Raguel smiled.

“What about him? Are the preparations complete?”

Suddenly, Gibson, who was sitting beside the two of them questioned.

“Yes, don’t worry, everything is prepared, now we only have to wait for the Skadi’s Cultivator.” Raguel nodded.

“Good.”

Gibson nodded.

To be honest, everyone in the Duke’s house was worried.

With 2 King Stage Cultivators working together, killing Evane wouldn’t be a problem, however, if Astaria learned about this somehow, no matter how many more King Stage Cultivators they have, their Mission would fail.

Not only that but their entire house will be destroyed as well.

Everything depended on how much Evane loved her brother.

Raguel prayed that she was still that stupid and naïve girl that she was all those years ago because if she was not, then their entire plan would fail.

What the three of them didn’t know was that the woman they were so worried about was not even inside the Kingdom. She is inside another Kingdom and currently, she was dealing with a problem lot worse than all these useless political stuff.

Not that it would change the outcome of this ‘Mission’ in any way.

Astaria wasn’t needed.

At least for now.

Chapter 489

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

A knock was heard, Evane opened her door and a frown appeared on her face,

“What is it?” She questioned.

“I apologize for disturbing your sleep, Lady Evane, but Sir Benjamin told me to give this letter to you. He told me it is an urgent message that can’t be delayed.”

Evane grabbed the letter and nodded.

“Alright, you have done your job, you can leave.”

“Yes, Lady Evane.”

The guard nodded and hurriedly walked away.

“Hmmm? Why don’t we catch that guard?” Felberta, who was sitting inside Evane’s room questioned with a frown on her face.

“There is no use, that man wouldn’t even know what is written inside the letter, he was just ordered to deliver. He is not involved in this.”

Ember replied.

“That guard looked plenty suspicious to me,” Allura spoke.

“The way he walked away so hurriedly looked suspicious indeed,” Felberta commented. That was the reason why she talked about capturing the guard in the first place.

“He is bothering the woman who would very likely become the next Ruler of this Kingdom in the middle of the night, of course he would act strangely, don’t think too deeply about it.

Things like these are usually done with the help of vast chains, if we try to capture them from the bottom, we would only move around and around while the ones behind them would run away.”

Ember spoke.

“Is there a network really that deep? Isn’t it dangerous? We should get rid of this network once Evane becomes the Queen.”

Felberta spoke.

“We will have all the time in the world to do so, don’t worry.”

Ember chuckled.

Felberta smiled as well.

“It is as we expected.”

Suddenly, Evane muttered.

The women’s attention turned towards her and Evane continued,

“They kidnapped Lucas while he was drinking inside a bar.”

“Sometimes I feel like Amaya can time travel. TO predict something so accurately, is it even possible?”

Suddenly, Ember commented.

“Well, Lucas drinks, while Raguel would need someone who could force Evane out of her room and essentially the Royal Palace, so it was pretty obvious.”

Felberta replied.

“It is only obvious because it has already happened. She predicted this the moment Riona talked about this plan. It’s not the same.

Also, it is not like this is her first time doing something like this, is it?”

Ember questioned.

“I would agree, she is indeed gifted.”

Felberta nodded.

Ember nodded as well, however, Felberta continued,

“She is still a bitch nonetheless.”

“I won’t disagree there.”

Ember nodded.

Seeing how these women had started talking about a completely random topic while her brother is kidnapped, Evane couldn’t help but shake her head and sigh.

These women didn’t care about her brother at all.

Well, she understood what they were thinking as well.

Lucas didn’t exactly have a likable personality and after what happened with Lovis, Evane’s attachment with her brothers decreased a little.

She won’t lie, she was still worried about her brother, however, unlike before, when she would have tried to rush to the location without any plans, she was sitting on a chair without much change in her expression.

Another reason she wasn’t that worried was that she knew that they won’t hurt Lucas until she is not there.

They might rough him up a little, but at the very least, they won’t kill him.

That much was enough.

“Girls, are you ready?”

Suddenly, a figure appeared inside the room where all the women were and spoke.

“We are.”

Ember nodded with a smile on her face.

This time, Lane was the one who took the initiative and quickly walked toward Nux to hug him.

Nux, of course, hugged her back and, after covering his face with a mask, he smiled,

“Shall we go then?”

“Mhm.”

Evane nodded.

The two of them then left the room, the rest of the women activated [Conceal] and left as well.

...

On the other side, Raguel who was standing next to Lucas smiled with a wide smile on his face,

“W-Why are you doing this!?” Lucas questioned with a frightened look on his face.

“Heh! Don’t blame me, blame that bitch Evane.” Raguel smiled as he stomped on Lucas’s head.

“Ugghh! What h-h-have I done?”

“Well, you were quite rude to me that day, weren’t you?”

Hearing his words, Lucas’s face went pale.

“B-Brother, E-E-Eldest Brother, I was only joking that day! No one else but you can become the Next King! You want my Grandfather’s support, do you not? I-I will talk to my Grandfather myself.

You don’t have to get your hands dirty by killing me.”

“Hmm? Who said I am going to kill you?”

Suddenly, Raguel frowned.

“W-What do you mean?” Lucas frowned.

“You are only a bait, you idiot. My real target is our beloved sister. Also, I do not need your Grandfather’s help now, once I deal with that bitch, there would be no option left but you.”

“B-Bait?”

Lucas frowned in confusion and fear.

“Yes, that Bitch Evane is quite affectionate with you, right? Hope that her affection is not just a show. I have already sent her a letter if she cares about you, she would come here for sure, however, if she doesn’t, then... hehehe~”

Raguel laughed creepily.

Lucas’s face paled even more.

“N-N-No! I am sure she will be here! Our relationship might have soured a little since I was a little rude to her, however, I am sure she still sees me as her dear brother, especially after Lovis is dead.

I am sure she will be here.”

Lucas spoke.

Even though he knew he was bait and they were targeting Evane using her, he didn't care about it at all, with all his heart, he hoped that Evane would be here to save him.

He hoped that the two of them would fight and kill each other, that way, he could run away and come out of this situation alive.

“Hahaha~ Just hope what you said is true.”

Raguel laughed.

“Yes Yes! I am sure she will be here. S-So please let me go.”

“Let go? Do you real-”

Raguel wanted to reply, however, suddenly, a figure wearing black colored clothes walked in and spoke,

“I heard footsteps, they are here.”

Hearing this, Raguel's smile widened even more.

His plan would succeed, and he would finally become the Next King.

Chapter 490

“I heard footsteps, they are here.”

The man wearing black colored clothes spoke with a solemn look on his face.

Hearing his words, a big smile appeared on Raguel’s face.

He then turned towards Lucas and chuckled,

“It seems that your Sister is still as naïve as before.”

Lucas’s face brightened up,

“S-S-See? I-I told you already, she still values me. You have already achieved what you wanted, n-now please let me go.”

Thinking that Raguel’s mood was better than before since his plan succeeded, Lucas begged.

However, Raguel just glanced at Lucas with the same smile on his face,

“No, I have another use for you.”

“W-W-What do you want me to do?”

Lucas questioned.

“I will capture Evane and bring her here, once she is here, I want you to be the one to kill her.”

“W-What?”

Lucas’s eyes widened in surprise.

“What? You don’t want to?”

Raguel narrowed his eyes,

“A-A-Alright, I will do as you command.”

Frightened by his expression, Lucas nodded in agreement.

Raguel chuckled inwardly,

‘To be killed by the one who you were trying to save, now that is a fate befitting for a bitch like you.’

“Goo-”

Raguel wanted to continue, however, suddenly, the man standing beside him snapped.

“We don’t have the entire day, continue with your stupid plans later.”

Raguel turned towards the man and looked at him with a threatening look on his face.

The man looked back into his eyes without a trace of fear in his eyes, rather, a dangerous aura suddenly burst out of the man’s body.

Feeling this aura, Raguel’s expression changed and he stepped back in fear.

“Unlike you, I have things to do, it would be better if we complete the mission sooner.”

“Y-Yes, as you say.”

Raguel nodded.

The man nodded and then turned around.

Seeing his back, Raguel’s expression contorted into anger, however, in the end, he just gritted his teeth and clenched his fist.

He had to hold back his anger.

Raguel then followed the man, the rest of the Soldiers inside the room placed their eyes on Lucas, making sure that he doesn't plan anything unnecessary.

Seeing their expressions, Lucas's body trembled again and he decided to not do anything.

Not that he was planning to do anything from the beginning.

Moving suspiciously meant nothing but a death sentence and Lucas wasn't planning to die here.

...

On the other hand, when Raguel walked out of the room where Lucas was locked, his eyes fell on his Great Grandfather who seemed to be waiting for him.

“We shall start.”

Raguel's Great Grandfather, Cyneheard spoke with a serious look on his face.

The King Stage Cultivator beside him nodded as well.

However, just as they were about to move, another King Stage Cultivator, wearing black colored clothes appeared.

Seeing this man appear in front of them so suddenly, Raguel and Cyneheard panicked, Cyneheard took his fighting stance and questioned,

“Who are you!?”

“Don't act up, he is with me.”

However, just as Cyneheard was about to attack the King Stage Cultivator who had suddenly appeared, the King Stage Cultivator sent by the Kingdom spoke.

“Lord Vloyd? What does this mean?”

Cyneheard questioned.

“Well, our King predicted that something might go wrong, so he sent the two of us here, just to be sure that the girl is dead.”

Then, Vloyd turned towards the man who had just appeared and spoke,

“And since he is here then there must be something wrong.”

Raguel and Cyneheard frowned.

“The information we received was wrong.”

Suddenly, the man who had just appeared spoke.

“What do you mean? Is there another King Stage Cultivator protecting her?” Vloyd questioned with a frown on his face.

“Even worse, that girl is a King Stage Cultivator herself.”

The man revealed.

“WHAT!!?” Hearing what he said, Raguel shouted in shock.

“Are you sure that you did not make a mistake? She just became a King Stage Cultivator a month or two ago.” Cyneheard questioned. Though the disbelief on his face was not as evident as Raguel, he was still shocked.

“Do you think I would make a mistake like this?”

The man narrowed his eyes.

“And do you think someone can become a King Stage Cultivator in just a month?” Cyneheard questioned back.

“ ... ”

The man turned silent.

“...I did not make any mistake, she was definitely the Second Princess and she was a King Stage Cultivator, not only that, she was even followed by another King Stage Cultivator, however, the man had covered his face with a mask.”

“That must be her bodyguard,” Cyneheard spoke.

“Alright, we don’t have much time, I don’t know how she became a King Stage Cultivator so quickly, however, even though she is now a King Stage Cultivator, we still have 3, while they are only 2. We even have more than Soldiers with us, killing them will not be difficult if we surround them properly.” Cyneheard spoke.

“Indeed.”

Vloyd nodded, he then turned towards Raguel and spoke,

“We don’t have the time to continue with that stupid plan of yours.”

This time, Raguel didn’t say anything either, he knew this wasn’t the time to fool around,

Evane has become a King Stage Cultivator, once this fact is revealed, her becoming the next King will be pretty much guaranteed no matter if he is proven guilty or not.

She had to die and she had to die right here.

Raguel nodded and turned back into the rooms where Lucas was locked.

“All the Soldiers are there.”

The King Stage Cultivators followed him.

The 4 of them walked into the room and Raguel walked towards Lucas.

“D-D-Did you get rid of her? Will you let me live now?”

Lucas questioned, however, soon, a frown appeared on his face and he questioned,

“Wait, but you told me to kill her? Why didn’t you capture her and bring her here? Did you change your mind? Well, that is not a problem either, she will be dead either way, heh, with that bitch gone, now you can become the next King easily.

All hail King Raguel!”

Lucas cheered.

Raguel, however, didn’t react much and replied,

“Lucas, there is a change in plans.”

“W-W-What do you mean?”

“I will kill Evane with my own hands.”

“That is completely fine by me. You can let me go, she is already here, isn’t sh-”

Lucas nodded.

“Well, since you are not useful anymore, you will be sending you away first. You still have Royal blood flowing in your veins, don’t you? I can’t take any risks.”

Raguel smiled evilly.

“W-What?”

Lucas’s face paled.

Raguel walked towards him with a smile on his face, a dagger soon appeared in his hand.

“NO! YOU CAN’T KILL ME!”

Lucas shouted in fear.

Raguel's smile widened, he raised his dagger, ready to kill,

However, just as he was about to lower his arm,

“Ahh, that would be a problem, I can't let you kill him,

So you need to stop, First Prince.”

Chapter 491

Raguel's smile widened, he raised his dagger, ready to kill,

However, just as he was about to lower his arm,

“Ahh, that would be a problem, I can't let you kill him,

So you need to stop, First Prince.”

A calm voice was heard.

However, the reaction to that calm voice was not calm at all.

Everyone present in the room, Raguel, the Three King Stage Cultivators, the Soldiers, and Lucas, all widened their eyes in horror or surprise.

Raguel and the Three King Stage Cultivators quickly turned around and their eyes fell on Nux, who was standing in front of them with a small smile on his face.

“W-Who are you?” Cyneheard questioned.

“Hmm? Don't you know me already? Ahhh, wait a second.”

Suddenly, Nux turned around, and Evane from behind him as well.

“E-Evane...”

Raguel stuttered.

“S-Sister Evane! You are finally here! I was so worri-”

Lucas wanted to quickly jump sides, however, Evane just looked at her with a cold, icy look, and Lucas quickly realized that if he didn't shut his mouth right now, he would face something lot more than death.

Lucas's body trembled in fear.

And at the same time, he wondered in his mind,

Was this really her sister?

Her expression looks... so chilling... so... frightening...

Was her Sister capable of showing such expressions?

“So you really are a King Stage Cultivator...” Cyneheard spoke as he analyzed the two people in front of him with a composed look on his face.

“Hmm? Why are you still confirming that? Didn't this guy tell you that already? I thought that he ran away after observing us for a few seconds for that.”

“Y-You saw me!?”

The man wearing black clothes, Razor Skadi, questioned with a shocked look on his face.

“Did you really think you could run away from me? Wait, were you even trying? I thought you were telling us to follow you here.” Nux replied.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

The three King Stage Cultivators turned silent.

“Wait...”

Suddenly, Nux called out.

He then stepped forward and narrowed his eyes,

“Hmmm? Aren’t you two Razor and Vloyd? So you are the ones who were sent for the sacrifice. Well, you two are quite old, I think the Skadis will lose the least if you two are dead.”

“What are you talking about?” Vloyd questioned.

At the same time, he started pondering how this baster knew their names even though their faces were covered.

“Nux, do you really think those people would tell them that they are sacrifices? They must have been thinking that Mission is going to be an easy one, where they would only have to kill a single Expert Stage Cultivator.

I am sure that they didn’t even know about my real Cultivation until today.”

Evane chuckled.

“Ahh, you are right about that, my bad.”

Nux nodded.

Razor and Vloyd, on the other hand, didn’t know what the two of them were talking about.

“Are you two out of your minds?”

Razor questioned.

Nux just chuckled.

“Heh, he is standing in front of 3 King Stage Cultivators and more than 20 Soldiers, of course, he will lose his sanity, give him some time.”

Cyneheard smiled.

However, suddenly, Nux frowned.

“Hmm? 20 Soldiers? What are you talking about?”

“Heh? Do your eyes have defects as well?”

Raguel laughed, he then spread his arms and his eyes shined brightly,

“Look around you! You are surrounded wit-”

However, before Raguel could even complete his sentence,

*Pierce* *Pierce* *Pierce* *Pierce* *Pierce*

Some strange Black-Purple Spikes popped out of the Ground and pierced through all the soldiers’ bodies, directly coming out of their heads.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Yes, all the soldiers were dead.

None of them could even scream before their entire body was piredced through with these Spikes.

They were utterly helpless.

“What soldiers are you talking about? I only see dead bodies here...”

Nux questioned with a confused look on his face.

Let alone Raguel or the King Stage Cultivators, even Evane was surprised.

‘W-What is that technique?’

She couldn’t understand.

She knew about all the abilities Nux had, however, this...

She had no clue that he possessed something so monstrous and fearsome.

To deal with all these soldiers in one attack, mind you, these soldiers were not weak, there were even a few Expert Stage Cultivators there. Even the Armor that they were wearing, it was a 4-Star Armor...

This was not something that could be pierced through so easily, normal swords can't even dent it no matter how much strength is used, however, these Spikes pierced through them like they were nothing.

"T-That attack must have cost a lot of Mana! Don't let him recover his Mana! We still have the numbers advantage, kill them!"

Cyneheard ordered and dashed towards Nux, however, suddenly, Nux disappeared from his position and appeared right in front of Cyneheard.

He then grabbed the Old man's head and slammed it into the Ground.

"Ugghh!"

The Old man groaned in pain.

Nux, however, was not done yet,

"AGGHHHHHGGGHH!!!"

Four Spikes popped out of the ground, Piercing through Cyneheard's limbs and at the same time, razing his body into the air right to the level where he could see Nux's face.

Nux then glanced at Razor and Vloyd.

The two of them flinched.

They had realized it already, there was no point in fighting.

Although the two of them were also King Stage Cultivators, they still couldn't be compared to this Monster.

The two of them were now looking around and were thinking of a plan to run away.

The Mission is impossible, especially if this Monster was protecting the Second Princess.

“Man, I can't believe it, Riona is just amazing, to directly send two King Stage Cultivators to die here... She could have just asked though, I would have let you live.”

Nux shook his head and sighed,

“I guess that can be expected from that woman, she is a perfectionist after all. The skit needed to be real so that even Raguel and Cyneheard would fall for it, and what can be more real than the actors thinking that what they are doing is a real mission?”

“R-Riona? W-W-What are you t-talking about? W-We are here because the K-King ordered us to.”

Chapter 492

“R-Riona? W-W-What are you t-talking about? W-We are here because the K-King ordered us to.”

Vloyd’s expression changed and he stuttered.

Hearing his question, a frown appeared on Nux’s face and he tilted his head in confusion.

“Hmm? The King? Was King involved as well?”

“That can’t be true, the relationship between the King and Riona is not good.” Evane shook her head and informed.

“Then why...” Nux wanted to question but stopped midway.

However, even though he didn’t complete his sentence, Vloyd and Razor realized what he was talking about.

“She must have manipulated the King.”

Evane answered. She then glanced at Vloyd and Razor and questioned with an amused look on her face,

“Was your relationship with Riona bad? I can’t think of any other reason why she would sacrifice King Stage Cultivators.”

Vloyd’s and Razor’s expressions changed.

Nux finally realized,

“Ahhh, so that’s it, I was wondering why she did this... You were her enemies. Hahaha~ She is truly an incredible woman, to manipulate the King and even get rid of two King Stage Cultivators who have bad blood with her.

She is indeed Amaya's mother.”

“Indeed, she is incredible.” Evane nodded as well.

“W-What are you talking about!?” Vloyd questioned in anger and fear.

“Well, I don't see any reason to explain anything to you and as they say,

The dead don't need to know the reasons.”

“”You bastard! We are not dead yet!””

Vloyd and Razor shouted at the same time, and as if they were planning it for a long time, the two of them created a huge fireball and shot at Nux at the same time.

*BOOOM***

A huge explosion was heard, Raguel was sent flying due to the impact, Lucas was even worse, the man lost his consciousness, however, the one who had it the worst was Cyneheard. The old man's limbs were pierced through and the spikes piercing them were connected to the ground, therefore, even though he wanted to move away, he couldn't and was forced to face the entire impact on his own.

The huge blast burned the skin on his face.

“AgggghhhhHhhhh!”

He shouted in pain.

However, not a single being cared about it. Vloyd, Razor, and Raguel's attention were fixed on the center of the blast, which was still covered with smoke.

Or... at least what Raguel thought.

In truth, Vloyd and Razor had already made a run for it. Whether the attack worked or not didn't matter, staying here was foolish. There was no need to take any risks, especially after knowing that this Mission was a trap.

Also, they needed to report it to the King, Riona had gone too far this time.

That bitch tried to kill them, she had to pay for it.

Just thinking about it angered the two of them. They increased their speed even more, however, suddenly,

“Ugghh... what took you so long? I have been waiting...”

Vloyd and Razor paused and looked at the man in front of them with shocked looks on their faces.

‘H-How...’

They couldn’t believe it.

Let alone this monster was affected by their attack, he was even waiting for them here...

Just how is this possible?

Seeing their reaction, Nux questioned with a curious expression on his face.

“You know how thorough Riona is, correct? Did you really think you could run away?”

“NOW!!!”

Of course, the two of them weren’t willing to have a chat with him. Their lives were on the line here.

The two of them shouted at the same time, then they ran in the opposite direction.

Yes, they planned to sacrifice one of them.

The others who would survive would report everything to the King.

Nux just sighed, he disappeared and appeared in front of Razor, “Heh, my luck is the worse...” Razor chuckled dryly.

He had already given up.

However, soon, a sword appeared in his hand and he took his fighting stance,

“I won’t go down without a fight.”

“You are finally willing to talk, I thought you would try to run again.”

“Heh, you are just lucky that you didn’t meet me at my prime.”

Razor chuckled.

He was speaking anything that came into his mind.

He wanted to waste time, after all.

Nux didn’t mind it either.

“Oh? Were you really that strong at your prime?”

Seeing that he was still talking to him, Razor smiled inwardly and continued,

“Heh, dealing with people like you would have been a simple task.”

“Ahh, what about the Emperors? Could you fight against them?”

“Hmm? You even know about the Emperors?”

“Why would I not know about them? Hey, don’t change the topic, answer me, what was his name again? Ahh, right, Amletus. So? Could you defeat Amletus when you were at your prime?”

Nux questioned and Razor’s expression changed,

“How do you know his name?”

“Riona told me of course,” Nux replied.

“What is your relationship with Riona?”

“I won’t tell.” Nux turned away.

“...”

Razor frowned.

“You still haven’t answered my question yet.”

Nux reminded. Razor realized,

“Well, of course, defeating Lord Amletus is impossible, I was strong, but not strong enough.”

Even though he was bragging, he couldn’t brag that much. Defeating Amletus, even in his imagination was impossible.

“Ahh, so you weren’t that strong.” Nux nodded.

Razor, however, completely ignored his words and questioned.

“So? What is your relationship with Riona?”

“Why should I tell you? You are about to die anyway.” Nux shrugged.

“Treat it as my last wish.”

“HMMMMMM,”

Nux started pondering.

“Alright, if you say it that way... I can’t deny.

Riona is my wife’s mother. So she is my mother-in-law.” Nux replied.

“Mother-in-law?” Razor frowned.

Riona only had 1 child, and that child was cursed...

What was her name again...?

Razor started pondering.

“Amaya?”

“Mhm, correct.”

Nux nodded with a smile on his face.

“Wait, she was married to Ricardus, why are you calling her your wife?”
Razor frowned, then, his expression changed,

“Did that bitch cheat on Ricardus!?”

Hearing his words, Nux’s expression changed,

‘Fuck...’

Razor realized what he has done.

A sword appeared on Nux’s hand and Razor prepared himself to embrace death.

He had already wasted enough time, Vloyd must have run far away now, there is no way this man could possibly catch hi-

However, suddenly, Razor’s expression changed.

Chapter 493

He had already wasted enough time, Vloyd must have run far away now, there is no way this man could possibly catch hi-

However, suddenly, Razor's expression changed as he saw a black-red-haired woman walking towards him and Nux.

“What is taking you so long?” The woman questioned.

“...”

Nux, however, didn't reply.

Seeing this, Ember frowned, she then turned towards Razor and questioned,

“Did you say something stupid? Perhaps anything to one of his wives?”

“...”

Razor didn't reply, Ember, however, understood his answer from his expression and sighed,

“There were better ways to die, you know...”

Razor didn't know what to say...

He didn't do it on purpose, he was just trying to waste as much time as possible, however, it was all useless now.

The man he was trying to buy time for...

Was lying on the floor, being dragged around by this woman, whether he was dead or alive, Razor didn't know, however, he knew that their plan had failed.

He... he had to think of something-

Suddenly Razor's eyes widened...

He lost his balance, he then glanced below and then, he noticed that his left leg was sliced off from his knee,

His brain finally registered the pain and,

“AAGGGGhhhGGHhhh!!!”

“Well, this might take a while...”

Ember sighed and then, she turned around.

Leaving Nux alone with that Idiot.

She then walked where Evane was and saw an interesting sight.

“Sister Evane! I know that our relationship wasn't the best, but we are still related by blood, please, spare me! Spare me just this once!”

Raguel was kneeling on the ground, his head near Evane's foot and he begged.

“I already spared you once.”

Evane replied with an expressionless look on her face.

“I... I... Just this once! Please, Sister Evane. The last chance! Please spare me! I promise that I won't ever appear in front of you again! I will disappear! I will disappear and the Throne will be yours!”

Feeling that it was interesting, Ember smiled and walked toward the scene,

“Hmm? You might disappear, but what about the Fulvianus Duke House? They would not sit still right?”

Ember questioned with an amused smile on his face.

Raguel's eyes then fell on Ember and seeing her standing with Evane, placing one hand on Evane's shoulder and the other dragging Vloyd's body as if it was trash... Raguel realized that she was not a normal woman.

"D-Don't worry about the Fulvanus house! They won't do anything either! They would even serve Evane with loyalty once she becomes the Ruler!"

He answered.

"We can't take your words now, can we? You are not the Leader of the Fulvanus House, are you?"

Ember spoke.

"T-Then Kill him! Once he is gone, the Fulvanus House wouldn't dare to bare their fangs against you!"

Raguel pointed towards Cyneheard and shouted.

"Hmmm, that is a good idea."

Ember nodded.

"R-Right?" Raguel's expression changed.

"Hmm? How about we kill him and make you the new head of the Fulvanus House? I am sure you will be loyal to us, right?"

Ember questioned.

"Of course! To show you how loyal I am, I will kill him right in front of your eyes."

Raguel quickly stood up, a dagger then appeared in his hand, he walked towards Cyneheard, who still couldn't move and blood continued to pour out of his body.

"I await your orders,"

Raguel bowed.

“...”

Seeing his Great Grandson standing in front of him, ready to kill him, Cyneheard didn't say anything.

He just glanced at Ember and questioned,

“You are General Ember from the Woods Kingdom, correct?”

“You know me?”

Ember questioned back, not denying his claim.

“How can I not know one of the strongest King Stage Cultivators of the World? But what are you doing here? Why are you helping this girl?”
Cyneheard questioned.

Evane just smiled.

“It's not about the girl, is it?” Cyneheard questioned.

“It must be that man, you are not helping her, but him.” Cyneheard then glanced at Evane and spoke,

“The same goes for you, he is not your subordinate, it is the reverse... you are going to be his puppet... Heh...”

I would like to see how Lady Astaria would react once she learns about this...”

Cyneheard chuckled.

The old man clearly misunderstood, however, Evane and Ember didn't bother to correct him.

In the end, Cyneheard glanced at Raguel and chuckled.

“I thought of this before, however, you are indeed similar to your grandfather, Thornton. Both of you are fools...”

“What are you talking about?”

Raguel narrowed his eyes.

“You are ready to kill the man who supported you for so long while demonstrating your loyalty... do you really think you are making a strong argument here?”

“...”

Suddenly, Raguel turned silent.

He then slowly turned towards Evane and Ember, Evane didn't have any reaction, however, Ember was looking at him with an amused look on her face.

Raguel finally realized.

“You were being fooled...”

Cyneheard laughed.

Raguel's expression changed.

He looked around, and noticed the Soldier's dead bodies, those scary spikes that pierced their bodies, a King Stage Cultivator who was being dragged around like trash, a King Stage Cultivator who was half dead...

He couldn't do anything...

Raguel fell on his knees again.

Tears rolled out of his eyes as he glanced at Evane and Ember and begged,

“Please... let me live...”

“Ugghh... it is not fun anymore...”

Ember groaned with a bored look on her face.

She then glanced at Cyneheard and spoke,

“You spoiled my fun.”

“...”

Cyneheard didn't know what to say.

Seeing that he was completely ignored, Raguel didn't know what to do.

He then stood up and started walking towards Evane,

“Evane, do you know, I really regret the time when we were children, you, Lucas, and Lovis were especially close, I, however, was different. Due to my stupidity, I completely ignored you three, thinking you were fools, however, now, I really regret it...”

I should have spent more time with you guys, I was secretly jealous...”

Raguel continued to walk towards Evane,

“So jealous that I-”

And once he was close enough, he jumped at her with a dagger in his hand,

‘If I am going down, I will take you down with me!’

Chapter 494

‘If I am going down, I will take you down with me!’

With that thought in his mind, Raguel launched his final attack, trying to Kill Evane before he died.

Evane took everything from him, he had to take it all back.

A cold smile appeared on his face, however, suddenly, that smile disappeared when Evane simply stepped back and dodged his attack without any change in her expression.

Ember, who was standing beside Evane smiled widely and punched Raguel’s face. The First Prince’s body flew away and crashed on the ground.

“Ugghhh...”

He groaned in pain.

Ember then started walking towards him, but suddenly,

“We can’t kill him.”

Evane spoke.

Hearing those words, Raguel’s face brightened up. Evane still had a soft spot, she was still that naïve little girl who couldn’t bear to kill her family members.

It was a good news for him.

“Ugghhh...”

This time, he didn't thank Evane, he knew this wouldn't work after what he did, however, he just continued to groan in pain, trying to gain more sympathy, only Evane could save him today and he was planning to hold on to that hope.

“Ahh, don't worry, I know that, we need to give him to Riona, alive.”

Ember smiled.

Raguel's face changed, he then glanced at Evane and saw her nodding at Ember. Raguel's eyes widened in surprise.

“W-What are you talking about?”

He questioned.

**Pierce**

Suddenly, another black-purple spike popped out of the ground, this time, it pierced Cyneheard's heart. The man was finally put out of his misery. He then glanced at the man who was responsible for killing him and seeing the cold look in Nux's eyes and Razor's body that Nux was dragging, he considered himself lucky.

“Alright, the fun is over,”

Nux walked towards Evane and Ember and spoke.

He then waved his body, all the Spike disappeared, then Razor's, Vloyd's, and Cyneheard's bodies disappeared.

“This would be enough for proof.”

Nux spoke.

“Indeed.”

Ember nodded and then she started walking towards Raguel.

Raguel tried to crawl away, fear evident in his eyes, however, since Ember wasn't playing around anymore, she quickly caught him and with just one punch on his face, Raguel passed out.

"I'll take him to the Skadi Kingdom."

Ember spoke.

Nux nodded, he then turned towards Evane and spoke,

"We will continue with the rest of the plan."

Evane nodded back.

She didn't even look at her brother, who was lying unconscious, and started walking away.

Seeing this, Nux sighed, he walked towards Lucas and picked him up.

Then, Evane, Nux, and Ember left, leaving the dead bodies of the soldiers Raguel and the others brought inside the room.

...

*Bam***

5 Minutes later, Nux and Evane opened the doors of the Royal Hall with Brute Force and walked in. Nux had covered his face with his Mask again while Evane's had an angry look on her face.

"Call the King."

She ordered all the subordinates present inside the Hall.

"R-Right now?"

One of the Guards Blurted out loud.

It was the middle of the night, the King must be sleeping right now. Disturbing him at this time, was it really something so important?

Everyone wondered in their head.

Evane, however, didn't care about what the Guards were thinking and repeated her order,

“Call. The. King.”

“...”

The guards turned silent and looked at each other.

Evane clenched her fists, suddenly, one of the guards pointed at Evane, his finger trembling,

“S-She... her C-Cultivation...”

The other Guards' eyes widened in shock.

Evane was now a King Stage Cultivator!

Just how was this possible!?

Didn't she become an Expert Stage Cultivator just a few months ago?

Are you telling me that she became a King Stage Cultivator in just a few months!?

Ridiculous!

The Guards couldn't believe their eyes.

“CALL. THE. KING.”

Evane shouted, her green eyes, shining in anger while a wild Aura was released from her body.

“The King is currently sleeping, Lady Evane.”

Suddenly, a man wearing Black Clothes appeared and spoke.

“Wake him up.”

Evane turned towards the man and replied.

“Is it really that important? Can it not be postponed till tomorrow?” Keeve questioned.

“It would be too late by then.”

Evane answered.

“...” Keeve didn’t say anything and continued to observe Evane for a while.

“Alright.” In the end, he agreed and then turned around.

...

In a matter of minutes, a session was set up where the King, the Ministers, and a few members of the Shadow Unit, who were protecting the King from the Shadows appeared.

The King, who was sitting on his Throne spoke with an annoyed look on his face,

“This better be worthwhile, Second Princess.”

In truth, he was surprised by Evane’s cultivation, and just like everyone in the room, he was also wondering how Evane became a King Stage Cultivator in just a few months.

However, in the end, he was the King, and he had to control his emotions and act maturely.

Of course, this didn’t mean he wouldn’t investigate.

If Evane actually had a way to increase Cultivation speed, then as the Princess of the Kingdom, she had to reveal this way to the Kingdom. Especially to him, the King, the man who ruled this Kingdom and made sure that the Kingdom prospers.

However, right now, he had to listen to what Evane had to say.

Seeing that she has gained everyone's attention, Evane turned towards Nux and nodded.

Nux nodded back and waved his hand and two dead bodies appeared on the ground.

Everyone's eyes widened in surprise, leaving the other body aside, they recognized one of the bodies very well,

It was Cyneheard Fulvianus, the Ancestor of the Fulvianus Duke House and a King Stage Cultivator.

But why was he here?

Who killed him?

“Raguel tried to assassinate me, again.”

Evane spoke and everyone's eyes widened in surprise again.

Unconsciously, everyone's eyes fell on Gibson Fulvianus, whose face was pale in fright as his eyes couldn't stay away from his Father's dead body.

“I don't know how or when, but Raguel managed to contact the Skadi Kingdom and it seems that the Kingdom is helping him.

The other dead body belongs to the King Stage Cultivators sent by the Skadi Kingdom to help him kill me.

While we were fighting with these two, one of their King Stage Cultivators ran away and took Raguel with him.

They shouldn't have gone far away since that King Stage Cultivator was injured, therefore, I urge you to send your men to find him.

Colluding with other kingdoms is a Crime that can only be punished with a death sentence, Raguel cannot be allowed to get away from this.”

Chapter 495

Chapter 495 J-Just Where Did She Find That Monster?

“Colluding with other Kingdom is a Crime that can only be punished with a death sentence, Raguel cannot be allowed to get away from this.”

Evane commented with a cold look on her face.

“H-H-How dare you! Your Majesty! There is no way the First Prince would do something like this knowing full well how dire the consequences are, especially when Lady Astaria is out!

This Girl is lyin- UgghKkhhhKkhhkkk!”

Gibson wanted to continue, however, suddenly, Nux appeared in front of him and grabbed his neck, and lifted him in the air.

Everyone present inside the hall widened their eyes in shock.

No one could react to Nux’s movements.

Even the King Stage Cultivators like the King, Keeve, and Reeve, they all just stood there, just like all others, and only realized what happened once Nux was already holding Gibson in his arms.

W-What if he had attacked me?

The same question appeared in everyone’s mind.

The Shadow Unit and the King perspired.

Only after an entire minute passed by did Keeve finally manage to regain his composure and stepped up.

“What are you doing?”

He questioned with a cold look on his face.

Nux turned his head towards Keeve, his Golden eyes were now locked onto Keeve, Keeve felt his entire body tremble, he took another 10 seconds to get used to Nux's gaze, and only after that did he finally react.

“T-T-This is the Royal H-Hall... do you think this is the place you c-can run amok?”

Keeve questioned, however, his authoritative tone, which he tried so hard to keep was nowhere to be seen. It looked like rather than confronting Nux, he wanted nothing more than just to run away.

Nobody in the Hall blamed him either.

With just one move, Nux has proved that if he wanted, he could get rid of anyone in this room and no one could do anything to stop him.

‘J-Just where did she find that monster?’

Everyone wondered as they glanced at Evane.

Evane didn't show any change in her expression, she just glanced at Keeve and replied,

“I apologize for his rude actions, he is a little sensitive after what happened.

After being attacked by Raguel and 3 King Stage Cultivators and barely making it out alive, someone tries to say that everything is a lie, even after you showed all the proof, it is only natural that one would be annoyed.”

Evane then turned towards Gibson, who was still trying his best to get out of Nux's hold, however, couldn't do anything to overpower him.

“I only want to ask one thing, if what I am saying is a lie, then how come Cyneheard is lying there, dead? Are you saying that Raguel isn't involved but only Cyneheard is?”

Suddenly, a cold smile appeared on Evane's face,

“Because if that is the case, then not only him, the entire Fulvanus Family would be executed.”

Gibson’s eyes widened in surprise.

Nux then loosened his grip and lightly threw him away.

“*Cough* *Cough* *Cough*”

Gibson grabbed his neck and coughed continuously.

At the same time, his entire body perspired in worry and fear.

He was trapped, with Cyneheard’s body lying there, there is nothing he could do to save the situation.

“Or are you saying that I attacked the Fulvanus Duke House in the Middle of the Night and killed Cyneheard?”

Hearing her words, Gibson’s eyes widened in surprise and then he jumped onto the chance he saw,

“Yes, that is it! You must be desperate to become the next Ruler, therefore, you directly attacked the Duke House, trying to kill the First Prince, father must have tried to protect him and using this chance, Raguel must have run away, that is why you are here, trying to cover your mistake, blame everything on the First Prince and trying to use the King to get rid of him.”

Hearing his words, Evane’s smile turned into a sneer,

“What do you have to say about this King Stage Cultivator? The one from the Skadi Kingdom? Why is he here?”

Raguel couldn’t have possibly run away if 2 King Stage Cultivators attacked him.”

Suddenly, Evane pointed at Nux, and continued,

“Also, let’s be honest here, if he wants, he can get rid of any King Stage Cultivator present here in just one move, there is no way Cyneheard could have fought both me and him and the same time.

Then it must mean this King Stage Cultivator helped him, and if a Skadi Kingdom’s King Stage Cultivator is helping the Fulvianus House,

Then we need to do a serious background check, no matter if I attacked Raguel or Raguel attacked me.”

Evane spoke and Gibson finally realized that he has fallen into a trap set by Evane.

He glanced at Evane, with his eyes burning with anger, Evane just looked at him with an expressionless look on her face.

Another second later, she just turned around, completely ignoring him, and looked at the King,

“Please send a few of your men to catch Raguel.”

She repeated her request.

The King’s expression turned serious.

There were many questions in his mind, however, right now, the blame placed on the Fulvianus Duke House and Raguel was too serious, he couldn’t waste more time on this.

He will investigate this entire incident on his own, however, right now, catching Raguel was the priority.

“Keeve.”

The King called out.

“Yes, your Majesty.”

Keeve bowed respectfully.

“Send a few men to catch the First Prince.”

“As you command, your majesty.”

The King nodded and then turned towards Reeve,

“Investigate this entire incident.”

Reeve nodded.

“As you command, your majesty.”

The King then turned towards the rest and ordered,

“The content of this discussion must remain confidential until further notice.”

“”As you command, your Majesty.””

Everyone bowed.

“Leave.”

The King ordered and everyone walked away.

The only ones left inside the Hall were the King and Reeve,

“Should I inform Lady Astaria?”

Reeve questioned.

“The Skadis are involved, we have to inform her.”

The King replied and at the same time, he gulped in fear when he imagined how pissed Astaria would be.

Chapter 496

“Ugghh...”

Raguel slowly opened his eyes as he groaned in pain, he felt like his head would explode from the pain he was feeling.

Raguel grabbed his head in agony, as time passed, the pain started subsiding, and only then did Raguel notice that his surroundings were unfamiliar.

A frown appeared on his face as he started looking around.

He was inside a dark room with only one exit.

He finally recalled what happened before he passed out and panicked.

“Is anyone there!?”

He shouted.

“...”

No one answered. Raguel’s heartbeat quickened as he panicked, even more, he then rushed towards the door and started banging it loudly,

*Bang* *Bang* *Bang***

“I asked if anyone is there!?”

He shouted again.

Since he has just woken up, his body was still weak, therefore, even after all his strength, he still couldn’t break the iron door.

“Hello!! Can anyone hear me!?”

Raguel questioned again.

He felt like the silence in this room was killing him.

He had seen too much today, the death of 3 King Stage Cultivators, how 20 Soldiers were killed without even resistance, it would not be wrong to say that his mental state was at its weakest currently.

However, his shocks were not over yet.

*Step* *Step* *Step*

“Let me Ou-”

While Raguel was shouting like a fool, he suddenly heard footsteps and quickly turned silent.

He wanted to shout and call whoever was outside his room, however, at the same time, he also feared meeting the monsters who kidnapped him. Thinking logically, who else but them could they be? They kidnapped him, rather than shouting and alerting all of them, he should have thought about it carefully and should have tried to find a way to get out of this place.

Raguel finally realized his mistake, however, it was already too late.

*Step* *Step* *Step*

Raguel then noticed that the sounds of footsteps were turning louder and louder.

His face turned pale, he tried to crawl away from the direction the voice was coming from, however, soon, his back touched a wall.

His body trembled.

In the end, he glanced at the door, waiting to peek at the face he would see through the small window.

To be honest, he hoped that was Evane, heck, even that General named Ember was fine as well.

Anyone but that monster.

That fucking bastard...

Raguel trembled as he recalled how scary Nux's expression was, that disdainful and mocking smile on his face while he faced 3 King Stage and more than 20 Soldiers alone.

It sent shivers down Raguel's spine.

*Step* *Step* *Step*

The Sounds of footsteps finally stopped, Raguel realized that the person was now standing in front of the door, he glanced at the window, however, when he saw the face, his eyes widened in surprise.

“A-Amaya...”

Amaya's black eyes fell on him and a small smile appeared on her face.

This smile, which was extremely similar to Nux's smile sent another shiver down Raguel's spine.

Amaya, however, didn't care about what Raguel was going through at all, she directly opened the door and walked in.

“Long time no see, First Prince.” Amaya greeted.

“H-H-H-How are you alive!?”

Raguel stuttered as he questioned with a shocked look on his face.

“Hmm? What could possibly happen to me?” Amaya questioned with a confused look on her face.

“Y-Y-You should have been dead!”

Raguel shouted.

“Why? Because you sent those weak assassins after me? Did you really think those weaklings could have defeated me, a King Stage Cultivator?” Amaya questioned with a playful smile on her face.

“B-B-But your curse-”

Raguel wanted to question, however,

“The fact that I couldn’t move due to my Curse, the fact that I couldn’t use my Cultivation because of my Curse, and even my Curse itself, everything is fabricated.

None of them is true.

So, if you were hoping for something like that, then... well, sorry to disappoint you.”

Amaya spoke with a warm smile on her face.

As if she was trying to prove what she said, Amaya raised her hand and Black Mist came out of her body,

“See? I can control this ‘curse’ of mine without any problems.”

“!!!”

Raguel’s eyes widened in surprise.

Foiled.

He was fooled.

Not only him, but the entire Kingdom was fooled.

“W-Why would you d-”

Raguel wanted to question, however, Amaya interrupted.

“Alright, I am not here to have a chat with you, I am here to ask a few questions and if you want to stay alive for a little more time, you should answer them honestly.”

Suddenly, Amaya’s tone changed.

“...little more time?” Raguel quickly caught on to Amaya’s words.

“Ignore that, just answer my question,

Why did you contact the Skadi Kingdom for help when you were suspected of assassinating the Skadi Kingdom’s Princess?”

Hearing this question, Raguel looks at Amaya with a deadpan expression on his face.

He really wondered how shameless one can be, however, seeing that Amaya was still looking at him with a solemn look on her face, he decided not to talk about it.

“I-If I answer your question... would you let me live?”

Raguel questioned.

“Well, I can guarantee that your death would be less painful.”

Amaya replied.

“...”

Raguel turned silent.

Amaya quickly realized what he was thinking and threatened.

“Trust me, it is not an offer you should miss, we have many ways to ensure that you beg for sweet death, however, if things go that far, I am sure you won’t receive a sweet release.”

*Gulp*

Raguel gulped.

Not because of Amaya's threatening words but the sadistic smile that she had on her face when she said what she said.

It was as if she was hoping that he won't answer so that she could inflict as much pain as she wants on him.

'This bitch is crazy!'

Raguel thought inwardly.

It didn't take long for his will to crumble and he opened his mouth.

"I-I didn't contact the Skadi Kingdom... They were the ones who contacted me..."

Hearing these words, no particular change appeared on Amaya's face and she ordered,

"Continue."

Chapter 497

d

“And you still haven’t found that bastard?”

Ricardus, the King of the Skyfall Kingdom was currently bowing in front of a woman who sitting on his throne with one hand on her chin while the elbow was resting on the armrest of the throne. Her left leg on placed on top of her right, and the pressure she was releasing was... frightening.

Keeve, Reeve, Ricardus, and all these so-called experts were trembling in front of her.

They knew it well, Astaria’s mood was anything but good.

For every word they speak today, they had to be extremely careful, one wrong step and they will definitely lose their lives today.

“W-We are still looking for him. The best men of the Shadow Unit are on it.”

Reeve reported, he knew that Ricardus wouldn’t speak a word, he had to step forward.

Hearing her words, Astaria narrowed her eyes.

Reeve stepped back a little, he clenched his fists, trying to stop his body from trembling, however, the method was not very helpful.

“...”

Astaria continued to observe the three men standing in front of her and after a while, she closed her eyes and sighed.

“The First Prince of our countries contacts the enemy Kingdom, plans the murder of his blood Sister, then with two King Stage Cultivators sent by the Kingdom, he kidnaps his brother, blackmails his sister, calls her in a secluded location, and surrounds her...”

She summarized the entire incident, and with each passing word, her tone got even colder. She then finally opened her eyes and glared at Ricardus.

“Heh, the apple doesn’t fall far from the tree.”

She may have chuckled, however, from her tone, anyone could tell that she was boiling with anger right now.

Ricardus’s body trembled in fear as he recalled a past incident.

“I-I didn’t get in contact with Kingdom...” He felt the need to clarify. Who knew what Astaria might do in her anger?

Hearing his words, Astaria chuckled again,

“Indeed, you didn’t contact any other Kingdom, you didn’t need their help, you directly planned and,

Assassinated all your siblings.”

The room turned silent.

This was something no one was allowed to mention, however, rules like this never applied to Astaria. She only stayed silent because she didn’t want to think about this situation, she didn’t wish to think about how powerless she felt during that moment.

It was around 100 years ago, At that time, Ricardus was just a Prince and with his mind only filled with women, he wasn’t someone who was a favorite to become the next King.

However, Ricardus had one advantage.

His Cultivation Talent.

Even after not focusing on his cultivation compared to others, his growth was shocking.

Using this to his advantage, Ricardus started gaining support from other nobles, slowly, he amassed influence that could be compared to the other Princes who were the Favorites.

Due to this, Ricardus's hunger grew, and his eyes fell on the King's Harem, he noticed how the King held absolute power over all, he noticed how the King could spend time with practically any woman he wanted and this flamed a new feeling in his heart.

He wanted to become the next King.

Ricardus wasn't particularly good at scheming.

His Grandfather, however, was different.

Swordfeck Fulvianus, the King Stage Cultivator of the Fulvianus House, Cyneheard's father, Ricardus's Grandfather, planned everything. Ricardus followed his plans, gained influence, and when the time was ripe,

He killed all the Princes who belonged to Duke Houses, even his own blood brother who belonged to Fulvianus House.

Dekdom Skyfall, Astaria's son also lost his life in this massacre.

At that time, Astaria was still a King Stage Cultivator, to be honest, for her, killing Ricardus was but a simple job.

A man who spent his entire life running after women and an old man who would die within a few years, how hard would it be to kill these two for someone like Astaria who dedicated her entire life to sword and cultivation?

However, even after all that, she still couldn't kill Ricardus.

He was the only Prince left who had a Duke House supporting him, the other Princes and Princess didn't belong to any of the Duke Houses.

The Skyfall Kingdom has a stable foundation that has the Royal Family on the top and 4 Duke Houses right below them, if another Duke House is added into this equation, the entire Kingdom would turn into a mess as the Houses would battle each other in order to gain more influence.

If the King is someone who does not belong to a Duke Family, then there are chances that the situation where another house would rise to power, to avoid this situation, a rule was passed.

The King needs to have the Blood of the Royal Family and the Duke Family running in his vein.

At that moment, only Ricardus was the only prince who satisfied this condition, therefore, killing him was impossible.

Astaria had to calm her anger by just killing Dekdom Skyfall.

After that, she directly entered secluded Cultivation and stopped involving herself with Kingdom Politics.

38 years later, she broke through the King Stage and become an Emperor Stage Cultivator, however, even after gaining absolute power, she didn't kill Ricardus.

Ricardus had already solidified his position, there was no other heir who could replace Ricardus, therefore, Astaria didn't kill the bastard and tried to forget about this incident.

Today, however, she was reminded of this incident again.

A chilling pressure released from her body as she glanced at Ricardus.

“Dekdom had waited long enough.”

She spoke in a voice so cold that it felt like it could freeze even the blazing fire.

Hearing what she said, Ricardus's turned pale and he stepped back, Keeve and Reeve stepped forward.

Astaria glanced at the two of them, her eyes unusually dark without a tinge of mercy in them.

Even though she didn't say it, Keeve and Reeve could feel what she wanted to say,

'If you value your life, get away.'

Astaria was serious.

"L-Lady Astaria, you can't!!"

Volume 6

Chapter 498

“L-Lady Astaria, you can’t!!”

Both Keeve and Reeve shouted at the same time.

Ricardus, who was standing behind them widened his eyes in surprise. Things were a lot more serious than he imagined.

He could see his death right in front of him.

He wanted to run away, however, his body didn’t move.

He was frozen in fear.

“...”

Astaria glanced at Reeve and Keeve, the two of them could take the invisible but invincible pressure that was leaking out of her, however, protecting the King was their duty, in the end, Reeve’s Dagger and Keeve’s Sword appeared in their hands and they pointed it at Astaria.

“Lady Astaria, we can’t allow you to Kill the King,” Reeve spoke.

Keeve, who was standing behind him nodded as well.

However, both their legs’ were trembling.

Astaria was not an opponent they could face.

“You two are wasting your life.”

Astaria commented.

Her tone, still as chilly as before.

Memories of her son continued to cloud her mind and her anger continued to increase as she glanced at Ricardus wearing that Crown.

However, even after all that, she didn't lose her control, the Kingdom that she swore to protect, she still had its best interest in her mind. That was the responsibility of the Previous Queen and Present Protect, she couldn't just abandon the Skyfall Kingdom.

“You two are valuable assets for the Kingdom, dying here would affect the Kingdom negatively.”

Astaria spoke.

Reeve and Keeve turned silent.

From Astaria's words, it was clear that she valued the two of them and wanted them to live, however, she never said that she would not kill them if they didn't move.

‘It would be Kingdom's loss.’

These words induced another level of fear in their body.

“K-Killing the King would affect the Kingdom even more negatively!”

Reeve collected all his strength and retorted. He tried to use the same thing that has been binding Astaria for such a long time.

“How?”

This time, however, Astaria had a different thought in her mind.

“Huh?”

Reeve frowned in confusion.

“Explain it to me, how would killing the King affect the Kingdom?” Astaria questioned.

Reeve was taken aback.

He couldn't believe that someone like Astaria, who probably was the most experienced amongst them all was saying something like that.

However, Reeve knew that she was emotionally affected right now, therefore, he decided to answer,

“The King is the man who supports the entire Kingdom, every single operation in the Kingdom needs to go through King's verification directly or indirectly, a Kingdom without a King... would never be stable...”

“We just need to make a new King.” Astaria chuckled.

“We do have an heir ye-”

Reeve wanted to reply, however, suddenly, he turned silent.

His eyes then widened as he glanced at Astaria.

A cruel smile appeared on Astaria's face.

“Evane Skyfall, an 83-year-old, King Stage Cultivator, quite a monstrous talent, if you ask me. She is even better than me when it comes to potential, do you really think that someone like her cannot replace this idiot who does nothing but chases after women?”

Astaria questioned.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Keeve and Reeve turned silent.

The strongest argument that always stopped Astaria,

‘You can't kill the King because there is no one who can replace him. There is no competent heir,’

It will not work now.

The Skyfall Kingdom has an heir, and not a normal one, but an heir with potential so immense that it can be called the best of all the Kings the Kingdom has ever seen.

Someone like Evane, someone who survived 2 Assassination attempts, one from Experts and Grandmaster Stage Cultivators, one from King Stage Cultivator, someone who now has two Dukes supporting her, she is definitely better than Ricardus, who is...

Pretty much useless.

“Evane will replace Ricardus, the Skyfall Kingdom will have a Ruler even better than the current one, killing the current ruler would rather be called doing the Kingdom a favor since the Kingdom would come under better management sooner.”

Astaria spoke, an excited smile pasted on her face.

From her expression, one could easily tell that she was barely holding herself back right now.

“B-But the King is still a King Stage Cultivator, the Kingdom will lose a King Stage Cultivator if you kill him!”

Keeve came up with another argument.

This time, Astaria’s face turned cold as she glanced at Keeve,

“Then select.”

She spoke.

“Select between a King Stage Cultivator and an Emperor.

Select who you will side with.”

Reeve’s and Keeve’s eyes widened in surprise.

Astaria's words were clear, either him or me.

The two of them couldn't believe how far she was willing to go.

But it was understandable, this man killed her only son, after all, it was already impossible that she waited for so long.

"I don't have an entire day, choose."

Astaria spoke.

Reeve and Keeve glanced at each other,

The choice was obvious.

Suddenly, Ricardus stepped back and ran away.

He had received plenty of time to think things through and recover the lost control over his body. He wasn't going to wait for his death here.

"Bring him here. The farther he runs, more chaos would ensue." Astaria ordered.

Reeve and Keeve glanced at each other, then, they started running after Ricardus.

"You bastards! Are you going to betray your King!?" Ricardus questioned in fury.

"King, if you truly value the time you spent as the King, you should stop, it is time to return the favor to the Kingdom that has provided you so many things for so many years."

Reeve spoke respectfully.

Ricardus, however, was not planning to listen to his words.

Reeve sighed, then a dry chuckle leaked out of his mouth.

“Why did I expect this response already?”

At the same time, a dagger appeared in his hand and he aimed it at the King’s leg.

Ricardus dodged, however, before he could celebrate, another dagger was shot. The King dodged again and continued to dodge more and more daggers that Reeve threw.

However, suddenly, Ricardus realized that Keeve was missing.

His eyes widened in surprise, he tried to run away again, however, as soon as he turned around, he saw Keeve standing in front of him, and before he could react, Keeve punched his stomach.

“Ugghh!”

Ricardus groaned in pain.

“AAAGgggGGhhhhHh!”

His anguish, however, has just started.

Reeve’s dagger pierced into his left calf as she screamed in agony.

Chapter 499

“Ugghh...”

The King groaned in pain as he opened his eyes.

His head felt heavy, he tried to grab his hand, however, he soon realized that he couldn't move his hand, he looked and finally noticed that his hands were bound.

His eyes widened, he then looked around and noticed that he was kneeling in front of Astaria, who was standing in front of him with a mocking smile on her face.

Beside her stood Keeve and Reeve, who was looking at him with expressionless looks on their faces.

“You Bastards! How da-Uggh!”

Ricardus shouted in anger, however, Astaria kicked his head.

“How dare you raise your voice in front of me, criminal?”

She questioned.

“C-Criminal?”

Ricardus stuttered.

“Ricardus Skyfall, for the crime of killing your own Brothers and Sisters for the Throne, you will be executed on the full moon night, right after the next Ruler of the Kingdom is Crowned.”

Astaria sentenced.

Hearing these words, Ricardus's eyes widened in surprise,

“W-What are yo-”

“Take him away.”

Astaria ordered.

2 servants walked out and grabbed the King.

“Ugghhh!! Let go of me, you bastards!”

The King tried to break free by using his strength, however, he soon realized that he couldn't activate his Mana.

His eyes then fell on the Chains that bound him and his face paled in fear.

“MineralStar Iron...”

These chains were used to bind Cultivators, even the strongest of Cultivators are helpless against these chains since they break their connection with the Mana in the air, without Mana, even the body strength is reduced to a mere 1% of the original.

Once bound under these chains, even the King Stage Cultivators would be at a Beginner Stage Cultivator's mercy.

“Y-You can't do this!

You can't do this to me!!”

Ricardus shouted in fear, however, no one cared about the previous King and he was dragged away by the very servants who he used to order around.

Once the previous King was dragged away, Astaria sat on the throne and ordered,

“Call Evane, and tell her to bring that subordinate of hers with her.”

A servant bowed her head and walked out.

“It is not like Queen Evane goes anywhere without that man following around her.”

Reeve chuckled.

Yes, they were already referring to Evane as their Queen, to be honest, they were even excited to serve her.

They wanted to feel how good it would feel to actually work under someone competent.

However, at the same time, they were nervous. Not from Evane herself, but this subordinate of hers.

“I wonder if she would trust us as much as she trusts that man.”

Keeve spoke.

“That would be quite difficult.”

Astaria, who actually knew the truth chuckled.

“But isn’t it concerning? We have no information about that man, where he came from, what he did before he met Queen Evane, how is he so strong, or why was he supporting Queen Evane, we practically have zero knowledge about him.

We could let this go before since Lady Evane was just a Princess, however, now that she would become the Queen, having a man from an unknown origin as her right-hand man...”

Although Reeve didn’t complete his sentence, Astaria understood what he wanted to say and even agreed with him to some extent.

However,

“So what do you think Evane should do? Kick her subordinate away now that she will become the Queen?”

“Of course not, I know Lady Evane well, she would never do something like this, however, I would at least like to have some information about that man.

I will not lie, I tried to do a background check on him, however, other than his name, I couldn't find anything.”

“Have you sought Thousand Information Chamber for help?” Astaria questioned.

“Thousand Information Chamber is... currently facing problems...” Reeves answered.

“Ah, that girl was assassinated.” Astaria realized.

“Indeed.” Reeve nodded.

“Anyways, you don't have to worry about it, I am still here. Even if that boy has bad intentions, I will make sure that he won't succeed. For now, don't target him.

Evane is a Prodigy, and that boy is even more of a prodigy than her, there is no point in going against them for something even we are unsure about.”

Astaria spoke and Reeve and Keeve nodded in understanding.

“Lady Astaria.”

While the three of them were talking, 2 more people walked into the Hall and bowed.

A smile appeared on Astaria's face as she glanced at Nux and Evane,

“You are here.”

Evane raised her head and smiled back, soon, however, a frown appeared on her face when her eyes fell on the Crown that was placed on a lavish Red colored velvet cloth.

Seeing her expression, Astaria smiled and didn't hide anything.

“You will be Crowned in 5 days, I hope you are ready for the responsibility.”

“WHAT!?”

Not only Evane, even Nux was shocked by this news.

Astaria then talked about everything that happened and the more they heard about it, the more Nux's and Evane's expressions changed,

“Father like son.”

Nux couldn't help but comment.

“Indeed.”

Astaria nodded.

“So you want me to execute father once I become the Queen?”

Evane questioned.

“Is it still too much for you? Killing your own family member, I mean.”
Astaria questioned back.

Hearing her question, a dry chuckle escaped Evane's mouth,

“The more I involve myself with all this, the more I feel that killing my family members would actually do good to this world.”

“...”

Hearing this sentence, Keeve, Reeve, Astaria, and Nux turned silent.

Nux already knew how much Evane was going through, however, in this situation, where she refused to share anything with him and wanted to deal with this strange feeling in her heart on her own, he couldn't do anything and only stay by her side to show his support.

Astaria smiled weakly as well,

“Right, you are the normal one here.”

“Hmm?”

Evane frowned.

“Don't burden yourself too much, the Royal Family has always been a mess, no one is innocent here. A pure heart like you being born into the Royal Family is an exception here, however, when it comes to being a human, you are better than us all.

Don't treat it as your weakness and let it weaken you. Stay strong, stick to your beliefs, observe, learn, adapt and grow.

As for difficult matters, leave them to us.”

Strange but heartfelt words.

Evane smiled a little as she glanced at Nux, Nux smiled back and nodded.

Leave everything to me, I will be there for you.

Even without him saying these words, Evane heard them.

‘I love you.’

She spoke.

‘Love you too.’

Nux replied.

The two of them would have kissed if it weren't for so many people here.

Nux was already making plans for the future session in the Royal Bedroom.

“Evane,”

Suddenly, Astaria called out. Evane glanced at the woman.

“Come to my room after this.

We need to talk.”

As Astaria spoke, her eyes looked at both, Evane and Nux.

Meaning that she wasn't calling her alone.

Evane and Nux nodded.

“As you command, Lady Astaria.”

Evane bowed.

Chapter 500

“Haah, it’s been a while since I have seen you, I didn’t think you would become a King Stage Cultivator in such a short while.”

Astaria spoke with a smile on her face.

“I just got lucky, Lady Astaria.” Evane smiled back.

“Grandma.”

“Huh?”

“You can call me Grandma when we are alone, I won’t mind.”

“A-Alright.” Evane nodded.

Astaria then turned towards Nux and spoke,

“You too.”

“Huh?” Nux frowned.

“Aren’t you her husband?”

“I am.” Nux nodded.

“Then since you are my Granddaughter’s husband, you are my Grandson-in-law, so you can call me Grandma as well.”

“I... I would rather not...”

Nux was quick to shoot her down.

“I would stick to Lady Astaria.”

There is no way he would call her ‘Grandma’, not after whatever is going on inside that mind of his.

“Hmm?”

A frown appeared on Astaria’s face, she could feel Nux’s aversion from far away.

“Hmm, you are the first person I have seen who is not trying to deepen his relationship with an Emperor Stage Cultivator. What? Is Emperor Stage not impressive enough for you?”

Astaria questioned with an amused look on her face.

Evane also had a smile on her face, she, who knew about Nux’s intentions was enjoying this situation to the full extent.

“That’s not it.”

Nux shook his head, he then glanced at Astaria’s body from head to toe and replied,

“Calling someone like you ‘Grandma’ is simply unacceptable. Someone as beautiful as you cannot be a ‘Grandma’, Lady Astaria suits you the best.”

‘Astaria is even better.’

Of course, he didn’t say that sentence out loud.

“You have a way with words.” Astaria smiled.

No matter how mature one gets, a woman would never hate compliments.

Astaria was the same.

Nux, however, was not done yet, he shook his head again and replied,

“Having a way with words implies that I am good at lying or currying favors, however, currently, I am not doing anything like that.

I am simply telling what I feel.

Lady Astaria, you are an elegant beauty, please don't demean yourself by making others call you 'Grandma', you may not know it but there must be many men who regard you as the woman of their dreams."

"Oh?" Suddenly, Astaria raised one of her eyebrows and an amused look appeared on her face.

"Are you one of those men?" She questioned playfully.

"If I get a chance, I would definitely try to woo you."

Since he got the chance, Nux didn't back down from taking his chance.

"Oh? You think you can say these things in front of your wife?"

"She is an understanding wife, you are a beautiful woman, of course, she would know that as a man I would be attracted to you."

Nux replied.

"But isn't that where your loyalty should kick in? Won't you drag the Queen's reputation to mud if you keep getting attracted to any beautiful woman you meet?" Astaria questioned.

"Do you really consider yourself as a 'any beautiful woman?' You should know that you are different from the rest, do you not?" Nux didn't back away either.

"..."

Astaria was out of words.

"..."

Nux continued to look at her with that playful smile on his face.

"You are quite shameless," Astaria commented.

“I only speak the truth,”

“Whatever, you are still too young for me, boy.” Astaria commented.

“Hmmm? Are you into old men? The ones with a bald head and a bloated belly?” Nux questioned.

Astaria squinted her nose.

“I was referring to maturity level, not bald head and bloated belly.”

“Ahh, got it, I thought you would be more adventurous since you have a fiery temperament but I guess everyone has their boring sides.” Nux nodded in understanding.

Astaria, for some reason, did not like his tone.

“What do you mean ‘boring’? I am just too done with all this tiring stuff, some level of maturity is important for me to keep my sanity.”

“Tiring stuff? What are you talking about?” Nux frowned.

“Haah. See? You are too young. You won’t realize it right now, but once you grow up, you will come to realize that keeping up all these relationships is a tiring job to do.”

“That will never happen.” Nux quickly shook his head. He then suddenly grabbed Evane’s shoulder and pulled her close to him.

“Staying with Evane would never be tiring for me. I am willing to spend the rest of my life, grow old, and die together with her.”

Nux spoke and a beautiful smile, accompanied by a small blush appeared on Evane’s face.

“That’s the immaturity I was talking about,”

“Well, if seeing my loved ones as dead weight is ‘maturity’ for you, then I don’t want to be mature at all.

I very much love all my wives and plan to keep it the same way.”

Nux replied, Evane looked at his face and smiled as well.

Seeing the two of them, a strange feeling welled up in Astaria’s heart.

Nux’s words resounded in her mind.

His definition of ‘Maturity’ was wrong, however, the more she thought about it, the more she realized that that is what Maturity was in real-life scenarios.

Wait...

Suddenly, she caught another thing that Nux said.

“Did you say Wives? As in, more than 1 wife?” she questioned as she narrowed her eyes.

“I did.”

Nux answered honestly.

He wasn’t planning to hide his other wives in the first place, since Astaria would joi- know about them eventually, why not tell her right now?

“Are you telling me Evane, the future Queen of the Skyfall Kingdom, will share her husband with other women?”

“Well... yes...?”

Suddenly, Astaria’s expression changed.

“That cannot be allowed.”

She spoke and closed her eyes, her action made it clear that we will not allow further discussion.

Harems were allowed in this world, however, the Queen of a Kingdom sharing her husband with other women would destroy the Kingdom's reputation and Astaria, a woman who even let the killer of her own son live for so many years just for the sake of the Kingdom would never allow someone to tarnish the Kingdom's reputation.

“Find another Queen then.”

Nux replied.

Astaria opened her eyes and glanced at Nux,

“You do not have the right to take this decision, it depends on Evane.”

Nux glanced at Astaria for a while, he then shrugged his shoulders and turned towards Evane. Astaria glanced at Evane as well, waiting for her answer.

Evane's answer, however, was obvious.

“I will not leave Nux.”

Chapter 501

“I will not leave Nux.”

Astaria narrowed her eyes.

“I do not want to throne if it means that I would have to give up on Nux.”

“I never said you have to give up on Nux, I only want him to give up on his other wives,”

“I wi-

“Nux would never give up on any of his wives.”

Before Nux could even say something, Evane spoke up.

Suddenly, a mocking expression appeared on Astaria’s face and she questioned.

“Heeh? What happened to staying with you for the rest of your life?

If he loves you as much as he says he does, something like that would be simple, no?”

In Astaria’s mind, Evane’s words directly proved her point. Relationships were nothing but a burden.

Evane, however, thought differently.

“He loves me, however, I am the only person he loves, there are others as well, forcing him to choose one over the other is something that would hurt him.

Love is a two-way road, just like he cares about me, I care about him as well, I would never do something that would hurt him, therefore, I would never force him to choose me over others.

That is not love, that is selfishness.”

“ ... ”

Astaria turned silent.

“Well, as long as you control his drinking habit, I am sure Lucas would become a fine King.”

Suddenly, Evane spoke and stood up.

“As for me, I will be taking my leave now.”

Saying that, she turned around.

“Did you think I would give in to you just because you are the most suitable heir to the Throne?”

Astaria questioned.

Evane stopped, she then turned towards Astaria and replied,

“I did not think about you giving into me or anything like that. I have already made things clear, I will not become the Queen if it harms my relationship with Nux.”

“What would you do if someday you would have to choose between the Kingdom and Nux.”

“I would choose Nux, of course.”

Evane replied without wasting any time.

“So you will abandon those millions of people you are ruling over for one man?”

“Yes, I will.”

“You are really not suited to be the Queen.”

Astaria commented.

“Maybe that is true.”

Evane smiled.

Astaria smiled as well,

“I am jealous.”

Evane’s smile widened as she tightened her grip around Nux’s hand, “I do consider myself lucky.”

“Well, you are still better than the Ruler who killed his own brother for the Throne, or a ruler who has wasted his entire life on alcohol.”

Suddenly, Astaria commented.

“Hmm?”

Evane frowned.

“Haahh... I guess the Skyfall Kingdom would never receive a decent King...”

Astaria sighed in disappointment, soon, however, a smile appeared on her face as she glanced at Evane,

“Well, whatever, I guess we have to make due with whatever we have, Evane Skyfall, I hope you rule this Kingdom properly.”

“...so you would allow me to marry him and be the Queen of the Kingdom?”

Evane questioned.

“Do I have any other option? Well, it might harm our reputation a little, however, I feel like I can take a little chance and invest in you.”

Astaria spoke. She then turn towards Nux and ordered,

“Though I would like to see these ‘wives’ of yours before the coronation.”

A smile appeared on Nux’s face,

“Well, some of them might surprise you.”

“Oh?”

Astaria raised her eyebrow,

“You seem quite confident.”

“I am.”

“Then I am excited to meet them.”

“How about tomorrow?”

“Sure.”

Another exciting event was arranged.

Astaria then changed her posture and spoke,

“Alright, with that done, I would like to talk about why I actually called you here.”

“What is it?” Evane questioned.

“Where is Raguel?”

Without wasting any time, Astaria questioned.

“Huh?”

Evane frowned.

“Lady Astaria, what are you talking about?” Nux questioned.

“Tsk, still lying I see.”

Astaria snorted.

“I don’t know what you are talking about.” Nux tried his luck.

“You expect me to believe that you fail to catch an Expert Stage Cultivator?”

“Well, I had to fight a King Stage Cultivator.”

“Boy, don’t act so smart, I have already gauged your strength, there is no way a single King Stage Cultivator could stop you, I doubt even 10 King Stage Cultivators could do that, you are a monster of a different dimension.

Now tell me the truth, where is Raguel? Did you kill him?”

“Well, he did try to harm my wife. He had it coming.”

Nux decided to be honest.

“Is he alive?”

Astaria questioned.

“I killed him.”

Nux replied.

Astaria frowned. “I thought you would have tortured him before finishing him off.”

“Why are you asking about all this? He committed a grave sin, me killing him shouldn’t be a problem, should it? Rather, I did the Kingdom a favor.”

“Killing him is not a problem, however, I wanted to know how and why he contacted the Skadis, something doesn’t add up here.”

“What are you talking about?”

Nux questioned.

“Think about it, he assassinated Amaya Skyfall, the Princess of the Skadi Kingdom, if he did something like that, why would he contact the Skadi Kingdom? I know that there are chances that the Skadi Kingdom does not like Amaya are high, however, why would Raguel take unnecessary chances when he could just contact other Kingdoms? It doesn’t make sense.”

Astaria spoke and Nux raised his eyebrow,

‘The same thought process as that of Amaya’s.’

“What are you trying to say?” Nux tried to probe deeper.

“I believe that it was not Raguel, who contacted the Skadi, but on the contrary, the Skadis who contacted Raguel.

The Skadis are planning something, I think they are in cahoots with the Solid Earth Kingdom.”

“Solid Earth Kingdom?” Nux frowned.

“Yes, as you know, I went to Solid Earth Kingdom and it was as you said, that Bastard Herms is making moves.

Herms is a shrewd man, he wouldn’t do something as reckless as breaking a Treaty without any plans. He is definitely planning something.

I tried to find out what it was, however, I couldn’t find anything.

I believe the Skadi Kingdom is somehow connected with all this.”

Chapter 502

“I believe the Skadi Kingdom is somehow connected with all this,”

Astaria revealed.

“...”

Nux stayed silent.

Amaya had already guessed that Riona was the one who approached Raguel first, however, she didn't know why she did it.

However, if Astaria's guess is correct, then things might turn even more complicated than he thought.

Different expressions appeared on Nux's face and Astaria didn't miss them,

“You seem to know something.”

“Well, I am still not sure.”

Nux replied.

“What do you mean?”

Astaria narrowed her eyes.

“Let me ask first, what did you find out?” Nux questioned.

Astaria looked at Nux and tilted her head, Nux, however, didn't back down and continued to look at her, demanding an answer to his question.

In the end, Astaria gave in,

“I didn't find much, just that Herms is directly involved with the Solid Earth Kingdom, this itself isn't wrong, however, he has threatened 8 Sects and 17 famous Adventurer Parties and forced them to join the Kingdom's Army which threatens Woods Army. Not only that, but I heard that he is even leading the Army in secret.”

“ ... ”

Nux looked at Astaria with a blank look on his face.

“What?”

Astaria questioned.

“Is that all?”

“Huh?”

“Is that all you found out? You have been gone for so long and that is what you found? Honestly, I could have given all this information to you on my own...”

A vein popped on Astaria's forehead.

Nux's body trembled and he quickly changed his tone,

“Ahh, but your information is indeed more trustworthy, Mhm, I get it, good job, Lady Astaria.”

“ ... ”

Astaria turned silent.

Evane, who was sitting beside Nux couldn't control herself and,

“Pfftt!”

Laughed out loud.

Seeing her laughing like that, Astaria couldn't help but smile as well, she then glanced at Nux and shook her head,

“I didn’t know you were a coward.”

“Tsk, it’s called being smart. I am not stupid enough to go against an Emperor Stage Cultivator, I don’t stand a chance. I won’t make a move until I can defeat you, there are my wives waiting for me back at home, I can’t make them widows, now can I?”

Nux didn’t feel a tinge of shame saying all those words.

Astaria was speechless.

However, she soon noticed some words that Nux said,

“You seem sure that you can defeat me soon enough.”

“I didn’t say anything like that. I am too weak to go against the Emperors.

I am just a weakling, a chicken.”

Nux shrugged again.

Astaria shook her head with a smile on her face and then continued,

“You don’t have to act like that, I am not that cruel. I won’t kill you just because you have the potential to defeat me in the future.

And you don’t have to hide it either, I have never seen anyone with a potential as monstrous as you, I believe that you can definitely defeat me in the future.

So lift your head up, Nux. You can be more open to me, I am your family after all.

I am your gra-”

“No. Nope. Nah ah.

I already said it.

You are not my Grandma.

You are someone I trying to woo, how can I call you Grandma?”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Evane and Astaria blinked as they looked at Nux.

“What?”

Seeing them looking at him like that, Nux questioned.

“You are shameless, boy.”

Astaria spoke and Evane nodded, fully supporting her grandma.

Nux was indeed shameless.

“Also, I already said it, I am not into little boys, I like mature men.”

“You just haven’t experienced it yet.” Nux did not give up.

“ ... ”

Astaria turned silent again.

She noticed that she often finds herself out of words whenever she talks with this boy.

‘Tsk, shameless men are hard to handle.’

She snorted inwardly and then she brought back the initial topic,

“So, as I was saying,

Revealing the existence of Emperor Stage and using his power to affect other kingdoms, this definitely goes against the Treaty the Four Countries signed, I tried to find why Herms was doing something so dangerous, however, I couldn't find it.

Though I still have some conjectures”

“What are they?”

Nux questioned.

“Well, first is simple, they have joined with another Kingdom, they are fighting against the Woods, so it can't be the Woods, we, of course, can't be the one since well, I am not aware of anything, and deal with Emperors involved can't be done behind my back, the only option left is the Skadis.”

“Do you have any other guess?”

“Well, it is highly unlikely, but there are chances that the Solid Earth Kingdom now has 2 Emperor Stage Cultivators.”

“!!!”

Nux and Evane's eyes widened in surprise.

“T-That is highly unlikely indeed.”

Nux admitted.

“Indeed, even if they have 2 Emperors, breaking the treaty doesn't make any sense, I think it is the first case.”

“Wait, what are you talking about? How can you take 2 Emperors so lightly?” Nux frowned.

“Huh?” Astaria frowned.

She then finally realized and couldn't help but chuckle,

“There is finally something that you are shocked by. Fufufu~”

“ ... ”

Nux turned silent.

“Well, a country having 2 Emperor Stage Cultivators is not that surprising, just think about it, it is not like another Emperor would appear as soon as I die, right? It is not like a throne that only one person can have.

In the end, it is a Realm.

Even before I die, another Emperor Stage Cultivator might appear, for example, you. Then the Skyfall Kingdom would have 2 Emperor Stage Cultivators. Just like that, Solid Earth Kingdom might also have 2 Emperor Stage Cultivators. To be honest, Herms doesn't have a lot of time left, 50 more years maybe.

So it is high time that the Solid Earth kingdom produce another Emperor.”

“If they have 2 Emperor Stage Cultivators, then won't that make them the strongest Kingdom, who is stopping them from breaking the Treaty?”

Nux questioned.

“It is not that simple, Nux. You are only thinking about it from a one-on-one perspective, however, there are 4 Countries in this world.

Even if a Country has 2 Emperors, breaking the Treaty means that they would have to go against 3 Emperors, in the end, it would only cause their own destruction.”

“Then what if they have 2 Emperors and 1 Kingdom supporting them? Won't it make it 3v2?”

Nux questioned.

Astaria's expression turned serious.

Chapter 503

“Then what if they have 2 Emperors and 1 Kingdom supporting them? Won't it make it 3v2?”

Nux questioned.

Astaria's expression turned serious, however, before she could even answer, Nux realized his mistake,

“Ahh, a Kingdom would never support another Kingdom that has 2 Emperors since they wouldn't know when they might get betrayed after they are used.”

“Indeed.”

Astaria nodded.

“Then what about 3 Emperors, no 4? What if a Kingdom has 4 Emperors.”

A wry smile appeared on Astaria's face,

“Although I said more than 1 Emperor is possible, it doesn't mean producing one is that simple. 2 is already stretching it, 3 might be possible if the Kingdom is extremely lucky, 4, however... well...”

“It is not really possible, is it?”

Nux questioned and Astaria nodded.

“Indeed, it is not possible.”

Nux couldn't help but smile,

“If only you were mine,

I would have shown you more than 10 Emperors.”

“Huh?”

“Huh?”

“Huh?”

“Haaah?”

“What?”

“What did you say?”

“I didn’t say anything.”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

A strange conversation indeed.

‘Your ability is quite scary.’

Evane spoke through telepathy.

‘If only your grandma agree-‘

Nux wanted to say it, however, he stopped midway.

This sounded strange as well.

‘Haahh... I feel like I am breaking all the boundaries of degeneracy...’

Nux sighed inwardly.

‘ ... ’

Seeing his expression, Evane didn’t say anything and turned silent.

“Well, even if there is a 1 in a trillion chance that the Solid Earth Kingdom has 4 Emperors with them, breaking the treaty still doesn’t make sense.”

Astaria said something absurd.

“4v3 would definably be simple, actually, if their power is so overwhelming, another Country might even help them with a promise of keeping them alive once they rule over the whole world.”

Nux spoke, however, Astaria shook her head.

“This ‘rule over the whole world’ is not possible, and Herms should know it.”

“What do you mean?”

Nux narrowed his eyes.

“Akibrus Valhein.”

“Is that a chant or something?”

Nux questioned.

Astaria looked at him with a deadpan look on her face.

“It is the name of our Ancestor.”

Evane answered.

“Hmm? So he is the Ancestor of the Skyfall Kingdom?” Nux questioned.

Evane shook her head,

“No, he is the ancestor of all the Kingdoms.”

“Huh?” Nux frowned.

“Well, it is just a legend.

They say that Lord Akibrus was the one who found this Land and settled here, with his children. Then more and more people came in and started living here. When Lord Akibrus died, his children founded the Four Countries that we currently have.”

Evane explained.

An absurd look appeared on Nux’s face,

“So you are telling me that all the Kingdoms have the same ancestor? Doesn’t that mean that they are all brothers and sisters?”

“Well, it is just a legend,” Evane spoke.

Nux, however, glanced at Astaria.

Astaria understood what he wanted to ask and nodded,

“Everything Evane said is true, Lord Akibrus actually existed and this legend is true.

Well, not completely true, there were a few details that were left out.

Lord Akribus’s children indeed founded the 4 Kingdoms, however, they did not do it after he died. They did it before his death.

Actually, it was Akribus’s wish.

The Four brothers had a harmonious relationship with each other, however, Lord Akribus forced them to find 4 different Nations and warned them not to let this land come under a single man’s rule.

If this rule is broken...”

Astaria’s face then turned serious as she revealed,

“Then a catastrophe would fall over this world.”

“...”

“ ... ”

Nux and Evane turned silent however, the reason they turned silent was different.

Evane was thinking about this legend and how all of this was true, at the same time, she was also thinking about the catastrophe that would fall over the world if it is united under a single man's rule.

Nux, on the other hand, was looking at Evane with a strange look on his face.

“So the treaty...”

He spoke after a long time and Astaria nodded.

“Indeed, it was not signed because of Peace, well, it was one of the reasons, however, it was not the main reason.

The main reason was Lord Akibrus's warning.”

“ ... ”

Nux didn't know how to react.

“So... you are telling me that all of you have been following a man's 'warning' so seriously for all these years?”

The more Nux thought about it, the stranger and more absurd it got.

Hearing his question, Astaria chuckled out loud,

“Do you seriously believe that we humans can hold back our greed just because of a mere warning of a man we don't even know existed or not?”

“ ... ”

Nux tilted his head in confusion.

This was indeed his thought, the humans couldn't possibly hold themselves back due to some warning.

“Lord Akibrus was not a fool.”

Astaria spoke.

“His sons might follow his warning, his Grandsons might do the same as well, but what about his Great Grandsons? Or his Great Great Grandsons? Would they follow it? He was not sure.

He never trusted humans to begin with, the one he trusted was his most Loyal Companion.”

“His most Loyal Companion?”

“Indeed, a Mythical Creature, stronger than anyone or anything you can ever imagine.”

Nux's face turned serious.

“Lord Akibrus didn't ensure the longevity of his rule with feelings like ‘Trust’,

He used ‘Fear’.

As Lord Akirbrus expected, the Great Great Great Great Grandson tried to break his rule, however, what happened next was something that was recorded in history with red color.

The Woods Dynasty, who at that time had 3 Emperor Stage Cultivators tried to unify the land, however, soon,

It appeared.”

“Who?”

“Lord Akibrus's Companion.”

Nux narrowed his eyes.

“That Monster killed 3 Emperor Stage Cultivators in a blink of an eye and without saying a single word, it disappeared.

The Battle that should have been written down in history, the battle that should have decided the fate of the entire world, the battle between 6 Emperor Stage Ciltivators,

That impactful battle ended before it could even begin.”

Chapter 504

“That Monster killed 3 Emperor Stage Cultivators in a blink of an eye and without saying a single word, it disappeared.

The Battle that should have been written down in history, the battle that should have decided the fate of the entire world.

That impactful battle ended before it could even begin.”

Astaria revealed with a solemn expression on her face.

“W-What?”

“E-E-Emperors... lost?”

Nux and Evane couldn't believe what they were hearing.

Weren't Emperors the strongest Cultivators in the world, how could they possibly lose?

“Do not underestimate that Mythical Creature, Emperors may very well be the strongest Cultivators in the world, however, even we Emperors couldn't possibly go against that Monster.”

Astaria spoke with a solemn expression on her face.

“How sure are you?”

Suddenly, Nux questioned.

Astaria looked at him and frowned,

“How sure are you that the story you told us is not just a baseless rumor?”

A perfect doubt.

Any normal person who hears this story would have the same question in his mind. The majority of people in the world don't even know about the presence of Emperor Stage Cultivators, for them, Emperor Stage is just a myth.

Saying that there is a Mythical Creature who killed 3 Emperor Stage Cultivators within a blink of an eye was not something anyone could digest without any problems.

Nux was the same.

He couldn't accept it either.

He hoped that this was just a rumor believed by the 4 Kingdoms, a legend of sorts.

Astaria, however, thrashed his hopes.

"It is written down in the history of the Skyfall Kingdoms and the other 3 Countries as well. History is not written on basis of baseless rumor, Nux."

"Then what if that creature is already dead? I mean, at the end of the day, nothing can defeat time, can it? How do we know that the creature we fear so much isn't dead yet?" Nux questioned.

"Do you think someone who can kill 3 Emperor Stage Cultivators would die that easily?"

Astaria questioned.

"Let's be honest here, even you can kill 3 King Stage Cultivators easily, correct? It doesn't mean you cannot die, does it?"

Nux questioned back.

"Are you comparing King Stage Cultivators with Emperors?" Astaria narrowed her eyes.

"I know I am wrong to do so, however, no matter how we think about it.

At the end of this, that ‘mythical creature’ should be nothing but an 8 Star Beast. It might have a longer lifespan than an Emperor Stage Cultivator, however, I refuse to believe that it is immortal.”

“ ... ”

This time, Astaria turned silent.

Nux’s words might be disrespectful, however, they weren’t wrong either.

“Just think about this, you said that that Mythical Creature was Lord Akibrus’s companion, was he not? So most probably, it must be a beast that Lord Akibrus had tamed.

Even Lord Akibrus couldn’t go against the Trial of time, do you think the beast he made a contract with could do so?”

“ ... ”

Astaria started thinking about it more deeply.

The more she thought about it, the more she felt like Nux’s words were correct.

Different thoughts started appearing in her mind, however, in the end, she shook her head,

“The information we currently have is too inadequate, we can’t make any assumptions based on theories alone.”

“But the Solid Earth Kingdom is already moving, I am sure they didn’t dare to move on the basis of theories alone either, they must have found something. They must have found a way to be sure about that Mythical Creature’s whereabouts.”

Nux commented and started thinking about different ways to confirm that beast’s whereabouts.

“Well... it is not that hard...”

Suddenly, Astaria spoke.

Evane and Nux glanced at the woman and frowned,

“What do you mean?”

“The whereabouts about that Mystical Beasts... it is not that hard to confirm it...” Astaria spoke.

Nux and Evane looked at Astaria with deadpan looks on their faces.

‘Why haven’t you done that yet?’

That was what their expression was screaming.

Astaria understood it as well, feeling a little ashamed, she clarified herself.

“It is not that confirming its whereabouts is difficult or impossible, it is definitely possible to do that, however, the risk behind it is too much.

No Kingdom would ever dare to take such risk.”

“What do you mean?”

Nux questioned with a confused look on his face.

“You remember the Forbidden Zone inside the Bloodhill Wilderness?”

Astaria suddenly questioned.

“Yes I do.” Nux nodded, then suddenly, his expression changed,

“You don’t mean...”

Astaria nodded,

“Yes, that is where that Mythical Creature resides. That Creature doesn’t like crowds, that is the reason why we restricted everyone from entering that Area.

It is that Creature's territory.”

“Wait...”

Suddenly, Evane spoke.

Nux and Astaria turned towards Evane and Evane pointed out.

“Didn't the Solid Earth Kingdom send an army into the Forbidden Region a century ago? If they knew about the Mythical Creature, why did they do something foolish?”

“Well, we had the same questions as well, however, since their actions didn't affect other Kingdoms, we just let them be.” Astaria shrugged.

“Also, not everyone knows about the Mythical Creature, this information is only passed through the Emperors of the Nation. There are chances that the King of the Solid Earth Kingdom didn't know about it and he sent an army inside the Forbidden Region due to his greed.

There are chances that Herms wasn't aware of this action and by the time he was, it was already too late.”

Astaria continued.

Nux, however, had a different thought in his mind,

“So you are telling me that the Solid Earth Kingdom sent an army to where the strongest existence in this world lives, to the region where even the Emperors fear to go in, without telling their protector?”

I find that highly unlikely.

Also, the fact that the Solid Earth Kingdom is moving the way it is moving proves that they definitely know something we don't.

And wasn't there a survivor in this expedition? There is no way the all-strong Mythical Creature, who killed Emperors like it was nothing failed to kill normal cultivators. There has to be something else going on here.

Something we don't know and
Something that we must know.”

“And wasn’t there a survivor in this expedition? There is no way the all-strong Mythical Creature, who killed Emperors like it was nothing failed to kill normal cultivators. There has to be something else going on here.

Something we don’t know and

Something that we must know.”

Nux spoke with a solemn look on his face.

Astaria’s face turned solemn as well.

Nux’s words now made sense.

The Solid Earth kingdom moving strangely after coming out of the Forbidden Region...

Something is definitely wrong here.

What about the survivor?

The Kingdom said that the survivor was mentally affected and wasn’t in the condition to talk to anyone, they even refused to share the information about the survivor with the public.

This was definitely suspicious.

Actually, Astaria was now regretting not finding all this strange in the first place.

She needed more information about that survivor.

The more she thought about it, the more she felt that the Solid Earth Kingdom was hiding something.

Astaria clenched her fists in anger.

However, in the end, even she knew that anger wouldn't solve anything here.

She took a deep breath and then glanced at Nux.

“What should we do then?”

Nux, however, shook his head,

“I would like to help, however, I am not exactly the brains in my group.”

“Huh? What do you mean?” Astaria frowned.

“I am saying that I need my wife's help to think or comment more about this situation. Too much is at stake, and honestly, I do not trust myself in making a wise decision when the stakes are high.”

Nux answered honestly.

“So you are saying you will discuss it with your wife?”

“If you allow me to, then yes. I can also keep it a secret since it contains some Kingdom's secrets, however, if my wives are not involved in this, I won't help you either.

I don't hide anything from my lovely wives after all.”

Nux replied and a small smile appeared on Evane's face. Nux glanced at Evane and smiled back, Evane smile widened even more.

‘Hehe~ How loyal.’

Evane commented.

Nux smiled,

‘If only you weren’t trying to woo my grandmother.’

Evane gave a light jab.

‘ ... ’

Nux turned silent.

“ ... ”

Astaria turned silent as she glanced at Nux and Evane, who were now lost in their own little world and couldn’t believe that she was being ignored so easily.

“This matter is too serious. The Kingdom’s secret won’t mean much if the Kingdom itself won’t remain, also, you are the Kingdom’s future Queen’s husband, your wives would be the Queen’s Sisters.

Hiding something from them wouldn’t make sense.

Alright, let’s do this.

You do not have to discuss anything with your wives.

Tomorrow, you will bring them here.

I was already going to meet them anyway, so we might as well discuss everything together.”

Astaria spoke with an amused smile on her face.

A smile appeared on Nux’s face as well,

“Let me ask you then, how do you want me to enter?”

“What do you mean?” Astaria tilted her head in confusion.

“Well, didn’t I say it before, some of them might surprise you, this holds true not only for you, but everyone else as well.

Bringing all of them here would cause a huge ruckus in the Royal Palace, however, I also have a way for them to sneak in and directly meet you without causing any ruckus.

So?

What do you say?

How do you want to meet my wives?

Should I bring them all, causing probably the biggest ruckus inside the Royal Palace,

Or Should I just sneak them in, making it as less impactful as possible?”

Hearing his question, a small smile appeared on Astaria’s face,

“Why do I feel like you dislike the second option?”

“Well, I do not dislike it, however,

I would definitely prefer the first option more.

It is only right that my lovely wives get to make an amazing and flashy entry in the Royal Palace, no?”

“Alright then, boy.

The way you say it makes me look forward to what would happen tomorrow.

So just for tomorrow, I would let you cause as much ruckus in the Royal Palace as you want.”

Astaria gave her permission and a wide smile appeared on Nux’s face.

“I will make sure that you won’t regret it.”

“You better do.”

Astaria nodded.

Nux nodded back, then, he bowed his head a little and smiled,

“Alright then, since I have to prepare a lot of things for tomorrow, I will be taking my leave for now.”

“Mhm, go and prepare well.”

Astaria chuckled.

She definitely liked this boy’s strange behavior and the air of confidence that surrounded him.

Evane stood up as well, Nux grabbed her hand and the two of them walked out of Astaria’s room.

Astaria glanced at the door and shook her head with a smile on her face.

She really was looking forward to tomorrow.

On the other hand, Nux, who had just left Astaria’s room contacted Amaya.

‘Amaya.’

‘Good, I was about to contact you.’

He heard Amaya’s voice and a frown appeared on his face.

‘What happened?’

He questioned in a worried tone.

‘Come here.’

Amaya spoke.

‘Ah, is it about yesterday?’

Nux questioned.

‘Yes, she will be here any moment, I wanted to talk to her in your presence.’ Amaya replied.

‘Alright, I will be there in a moment.’ Nux nodded. Then, he narrowed his eyes and spoke,

‘I also had a few questions that I wanted to ask.’

‘Mhm. I will be waiting.’

Amaya nodded.

Nux then turned towards Evane and spoke,

“I need to go.”

“Is she there?” Evane questioned.

“Well, she will be soon.” Nux nodded.

Evane nodded in understanding and the two of them continued to walk.

Nux couldn’t possibly disappear into thin air when there were so many eyes on them, they had to first enter Evane’s room.

After entering her room, Nux and Evane shared a small kiss, the two of them smiled and then,

Nux disappeared.

Chapter 506

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

A knock was heard and soon, the door opened.

This time, however, there was no short-haired woman standing with a smile on her face like before. This time, only silence welcomed the cloaked figure who had knocked on the door.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“Well this isn't exactly a warm way to greet a guest, now is it?”

The cloaked figure spoke as she removed her cloak with a smile on her face.

The others inside that room, however, didn't seem to be in an as good mood as her.

“We captured Raguel.”

Suddenly, Amaya spoke with a solemn look on her face.

“Well... that's a good news, is it not? Why do you all look so serious?”

Riona questioned with a confused look on her face.

Amaya narrowed her eyes,

“Are you just trying to be ignorant or do you truly believe that we are the fools who wouldn't realize what you did?”

Amaya questioned.

“W-What are you talking about?”

Riona stuttered, she didn't know why her daughter was acting like that.

Why was she acting so cold toward her?

Everything seemed fine yesterday, just what happened?

Seeing that she pretended to continue to act, Amaya decided to reveal everything directly,

“Raguel told us that it was you who contacted him first, not the other way around.

What do you have to say for yourself?”

“...”

Riona turned silent.

She finally realized what happened.

“What are you planning?”

Thyra questioned as she glared at Riona with a hostile look on her face.

“I am not planning anything.”

Riona answered.

“Oh yeah? Then why didn't you tell us anything about it?”

Thyra questioned again.

“Was it really important?”

Riona questioned back.

“Yes, I may have manipulated him into sending that letter to me, however, I only did that because I thought it would be beneficial to you guys, and in the end, it was, right?”

You achieved what you guys wanted, didn't you?

So does who contacted first matter?”

“It does.”

Amaya glanced at Riona and replied,

“This deal was about trust, to be honest, we didn't even have to go through this farce, Evane would have become the next Queen anyway.

This entire farce did nothing but quicken the process.

The main objective behind all this was to know whether we could trust you or not, and with this little stunt you pulled, we got our answer.”

“Are you really going to base your decision on just this!?”

Riona widened her eyes as she defended herself.

“I only did it for you guys, with how foolish this idiot was, he would have never come up with a plan like that, if you had used the law, it would have taken months before his crimes were proven, therefore, contacting him was important!

I did it all for your sake, I wasn't trying to harm any of you.

Amaya, haven't you realized it already, I am on your side, I will never do anything to harm you or anyone close to you!”

“If you did it purely for our sake, then why didn't you tell us from the start? Why did you feel the need to hide this from us?”

This time, Skyla was the one who questioned.

Riona couldn't believe that Skyla was making an expression like that, however, she didn't have the time to think about all this, the interrogative gazes of everyone in the room were tearing through her body, in the end, she glanced at Amaya and decided to be honest.

“It was not like you were willing to talk to me. I noticed that you only talk with an interested look on your face when the talk is about Nux, or anything that might be useful to Nux. I don't know what magic this man did on you, however, you are completely ensnared by him.

I was annoyed, but at the same time, I also realized that if I did something that might help Nux, then you and I can talk as much as I want.

That was the reason I prearranged all this and look at the result, knowing that this would help Evane, which would in turn help Nux, you were excited about this and after ignoring me for so many years, you finally decided to talk to me, even though it was mostly about how to carry on with the plan...”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Everyone present in the room turned silent.

Skyla, Thyra, and Edda glanced at Amaya and nodded continuously.

They completely agreed with Riona.

Amaya never talked to any of them with a straight face unless it involves Nux, for a mother who is trying to get close to her child, this experience could be heartbreaking.

Skyla even went as far as patting Riona's head and hugging her.

“You guys...”

Amaya, on the other hand, couldn't believe that the three of them turned sides so quickly.

She was completely and utterly speechless.

“I agree with Lady Riona, I have seen her trying so hard to talk to Amaya, but she never talked to her, to be honest, I feel like Lady Riona is a genius for not only manipulating the King of this country, but also manipulating the enemy into thinking that she would help them.”

Skyla started fangirling again.

Thyra and Edda nodded as well.

“...”

Amaya turned silent.

She was left alone, therefore, she directly turned around and hugged Nux.

Nux hugged her back and smiled, then, he glanced at Riona and questioned.

“First, I would never understand why you think talking to Amaya is so hard, she is such an amazing, cute, and friendly girl.”

A small smile appeared on Amaya's face as she enjoyed Nux's pat and closed her eyes.

The current her resembled a little cat.

Riona, Skyla, Thyra, and Edda's mouths twitched when they heard what Nux said,

‘Friendly my ass.’

Thyra snorted inwardly and although Riona didn't want to say this for her own daughter, however, even she agreed that her daughter wasn't the friendliest of persons she has ever met.

“Second.”

Nux, however, was not done. His main question was pending,

“What does Lord Amletus have to say about all this?”

Chapter 507

“What does Lord Amletus have to say about all this?”

Nux questioned.

“Hmm?”

Riona tilted her head in confusion.

“Lord Amletus?”

“Well, your Kingdom just lost 2 King Stage Cultivators, didn't you? What does he have to say about all this?”

Nux questioned.

“That was not my fault, it was the King's.”

A small smile appeared on Riona's face as the letter that was sent to the two King Stage Cultivators, telling them to go to the Skyfall Kingdom and kill the Princess, stamped by the King himself, appeared in her hand.

“...”

Nux turned silent.

Was it just him, or the women from Amaya's family were really too dangerous?

Just... just what is with all this shrewd planning.

Nux thanked all the gods he believed in that Amaya was on his side.

He didn't want to know what it would feel like to have her as an enemy.

At the same time, he also pitied the King of this Kingdom, first, he was a fool, second, his opponent was someone like Riona...

That bastard really had the shitiest luck possible.

“Would Amletus believe you? I mean, I am the King would tell him the truth that you were the one who told him about this plan, to be honest, with how you described, I would rather believe the King, than believing you if I was in Amletus position.

There is also that letter Raguel sent, and the fact the King Stage Cultivators who died was sort of like your enemies.”

Nux spoke.

“Well, I never said I would deny the fact that Raguel contacted me or that I was interested in this plan.

However, if I actually wanted to jump onto that plan, I would never talk with the King, I only talked with him since I wasn't sure.

I wasn't 'manipulating', I just felt that it was a good opportunity so I discussed it with him.

I even tried to warn him when he jumped on it too quickly, however, it was the king who jumped on it too quickly.

It is not like I am lying, there is no reason for Lord Amletus to not believe me.”

Riona shrugged with a carefree smile on her face.

“So what you are saying is you are planning to be honest with him.”

“Yes, he will catch on if I try to lie, therefore, I will just omit a few things and tell him the truth. Even that pig wouldn't be able to retort me, let alone Lord Amletus.”

“...”

Nux turned silent.

‘Fuck, she is scary.’

He was in awe, however,

Emperors weren’t the ones you would want to play around with,

“Are you sure you want to play around with someone like Lord Amletus?”

Nux has met Astaria, he has seen just how scary she can be, even in his wildest dream, he wouldn’t try to fool her.

Riona just smiled,

“You have to take little risks if you want to achieve something, the worse that could happen is that I will lose my life.

I have nothing to lose.”

“ ... ”

Nux turned silent.

He was getting nothing out of this situation, therefore, after thinking for a while, he changed his questions.

“What do you think about the Solid Earth Kingdom?”

“Hmm?”

Riona frowned.

Why did he change the topic so suddenly, she wondered inwardly.

However, seeing the serious look on Nux’s face, she decided to answer his question.

She also wanted to talk about this with someone else.

“Strange.”

“Hmm?”

“The Solid Earth Kingdom, its recent movements are too strange. It wasn’t long before it lost a lot of power for doing something foolish, however, now they are attacking the Woods Dynasty and not only that.

They are winning.

They have already defeated 2 of their Generals and the new General that has replaced the previous one after he was killed is barely holding on.

I don’t know how, but there are 3 Generals in their Army.

I was suspicious about this, so I tried to send a few spies inside that Kingdom, however, I soon lost contact with those spies.

Something is definitely wrong with the Solid Earth Kingdom, I just don’t know what.”

“Have you tried talking to Lord Amletus about this?”

“His response was even stranger.”

“What do you mean?”

Nux questioned.

“Normally, Lord Amletus would have been curious, and would have tried to look things on his own, however, when I reported things to him, he told me that since their Emperor isn’t making a move, he couldn’t do anything about it. This behavior was completely different from normal.”

Nux narrowed his eyes.

“That is strange...”

He then glanced at Riona and narrowed his eyes even further.

No matter how he thinks about this, it didn't seem like Riona was involved with whatever was going on with the Solid Earth Kingdom.

Unlike what Astaria believes, Riona only contacted Raguel because she wanted to talk with her daughter.

Of course, with what he has seen today, Nux didn't plan to trust Riona completely either. Riona was smart, for her, fooling and manipulating people around her wasn't a hard job.

“Where is Kelton?”

Suddenly, Amaya questioned.

“Hmm? He is back in the Palace.”

Riona replied.

“Tell him to come here once you return,” Amaya spoke.

She then turned towards Nux and used the connection,

‘Use Slave Seal on him, we need to plant a spy in this Kingdom.’

Maybe Amaya understood what Nux was thinking, trusting Riona was a mistake, she may look earnest but she was still a Queen of the Kingdom.

Therefore, they could only use Kelton.

Normally, Amaya wouldn't have allowed used Slave Seal on Kelton because of everything he has done for her.

However, if it was something that might benefit Nux, she was willing to do it.

Morality or things like that didn't matter, if it was for Nux, Amaya was willing to fall to any lengths.

“What are you planning to do with him?”

Suddenly, Riona questioned.

“What do you mean?”

Amaya questioned back.

“You may not look at him favorably, but don’t forget, he is someone who looked out for you in your worse time.

Do not hurt him.”

Chapter 508

“Do not hurt him.”

Riona spoke.

“You seem rather worried about him.”

Amaya commented as she glanced at Riona.

“Well, he is one of my most Loyal subordinates, plus, I don’t want you to do something that you might regret,” Riona replied.

Amaya narrowed her eyes.

“I can see that in your expression, Amaya. I see a little reluctance but also a resolve in your eyes. I don’t need much time to guess it,

Whatever you are planning for Kelton is something that might hurt him, you don’t want to do it, however, it seems like you are forcing yourself to do it.

Trust me when I say it, these decisions are usually the ones that you will regret in the future, it is better to stop right now.”

“...”

Amaya didn’t say anything.

Nux and the others, however, were impressed, Amaya wasn’t the one whose thoughts appear on her face, her face mostly remains neutral.

Although Nux was here, making that little poker face a little weaker, however, it still should not be that easy to read Amaya’s expressions, especially to this degree.

“We will not hurt Kelton,” Suddenly, Nux jumped in.

In truth, unlike Amaya, he didn't care about Kelton at all. He was the first one to suggest using Slave Seal on him because of how close he was with Amaya. Amaya, however, denied it before.

Nux also understood that she still wasn't happy that they were planting the Seal on him, however, he wasn't going to reject her idea.

Just like Amaya, he knew the importance of planting a spy in the Skadi Kingdom, the General he had planted inside the Solid Earth Kingdom is helping him a lot. Although Nux does not contact him very often, whenever he does, he learns new things.

Rejecting Amaya's offer would mean that he is underestimating Amaya's resolve, which would, of course, affect Amaya more, Nux, of course, wouldn't let that happen.

He would just make sure that Kelton is taken care of and does not go through much trouble.

Riona glanced at Nux and a smile appeared on his face.

‘If he is as loyal as he claims to be, that is.’

Of course, he didn't say those words out loud.

“What are you planning?”

Riona questioned as she narrowed her eyes.

Nux just smiled.

There was no way he would tell her anything, that would ruin the whole point of this, won't it?

Riona raised her eyebrow,

“I have answered every question you had for me, don’t you think it is unfair that you are still trying to hide things from me?”

“ ... ”

Nux turned silent, but suddenly, Amaya walked forward.

“We are ensuring that he would be loyal to me, just like he was usually meant to be.”

Nux frowned, Amaya, however, continued,

“Not only that, but we are also going make it like Kelton can contact any of us anytime without anyone else noticing,”

Nux’s frown deepened, he couldn’t understand why Amaya was telling her everything.

And as if knowing what he was thinking, Amaya used the connection to explain,

‘We have already placed too much attention on Kelton, even if we hide it from her, she would still be wary of Kelton from now on, using Slave Seal on him would be useless, rather than that, it is better to place her on the spot.’

‘On the spot?’

Nux frowned.

‘If she knows that Kelton is our spy, she would try to avoid him, however, if she still wants to maintain a relationship with us, or if she ‘only cares about her daughter’ as she says she does, then her daughter’s spy around her shouldn’t bother her at all.

Now that she knows Kelton will be my spy, it would now confuse her, she wouldn’t know how to handle and act around Kelton, whether she should avoid him, or keep him around, or whether she should feed him with false information,

She wouldn't know what to do and her real nature would finally be revealed.'

A cruel smile appeared on Amaya's face before it disappeared.

Nux raised his eyebrows in amazement.

He may have been praising Riona for a while now, however, in front of his wife, even someone like Riona was helpless.

"A way he can contact you anytime he wants without anyone noticing? A way to ensure his loyalty?"

Suddenly, a frown appeared on Riona's face.

Nux and Amaya looked at her, observing her expression,

Riona glanced at Amaya and questioned,

"Is it related to those weird magics of his?"

"You can say that, I can only tell you that it will be untraceable, even by Lord Amletus."

Amaya smiled lightly, enjoying this woman's confused expression.

It was high time she would pull the game back into her own hands.

However, contrary to Amaya's expectation, an excited smile appeared on Riona's face as she looked at Nux.

"Why didn't you say you had something like this before!?"

"Huh?" Amaya and Nux frowned.

Suddenly, Riona disappeared and appeared in front of Riona, she grabbed his shoulders and spoke,

"Kelton is not needed, use that magic on me!"

“W-What?”

Nux was taken aback.

“You are still suspicious of me, correct? Then use this magic, this would ensure my loyalty to you, and I would also be able to talk to my lovely daughter anytime I want.

Fufufu~ This is just amazing~”

Riona smiled brightly.

“I-It is not as simple as you think it is. It might get painful, torturous even.”

“Heh, it is not something I can’t take.”

“You can’t, trust me.”

Suddenly, Thyra jumped in as well.

As someone who has experienced everything firsthand, she knew just how horrifying the Slave Seal could be. To be honest, she still has a trauma deep in the corner of her mind.

Seeing Thyra’s expression, Riona suddenly turned silent.

Nux saying it was different, however, she knew Thyra well. If even Thyra was saying it was painful, then...

Riona wouldn’t even want to imagine how painful that would be for Thyra to make that expression.

However, a small smile then appeared on Riona’s face and she spoke,

“If it is for my daughter, I will go through anything you throw at me.”

She then looked at Nux and a determined look appeared on her face,

“Using that magic on me would be a lot better than using it on Kelton, won’t it?”

Do it.”

“...” Nux didn’t know what to do.

He turned towards Amaya and even she had a perplexed expression on her face.

Suddenly, Riona turned towards Amaya and spoke with a determined look on her face.

“Amaya, I only want to stay close to you, without any schemes going in both our minds.

I want a pure, mother-daughter relationship, and I know that somewhere in your heart, you want it as well.

This magic is the only way to achieve what the two of us want, please don’t take this opportunity away from me,”

“...”

Amaya looked at Riona’s face,

“You will become our servant if you allow this to happen.”

Many may think that Amaya’s tone was similar to before, cold and indifferent, however, Nux and Riona knew the truth.

Those little cracks in her voice told them that she was holding herself back.

Amaya was trying to put up a strong front, however, right now, tears would stream out of her eyes from even the lightest of push.

“I don’t care.”

Riona smiled as she glanced at Amaya.

Amaya looked at Nux, her expression was clear.

Nux took in a deep breath.

He doesn't want to do it, however, if he rejects it now, he knew Amaya could start crying, that was something he couldn't see.

He clenched his fist, then he took a deep breath again, and looked at Riona,

“Riona Skadi, are you willing to be my Slave?”

Chapter 509

“We are being attacked!!”

“What!? Who dares!?”

“Fuck you! Stop shouting! Prepare for war! Send all the Cultivators before Master Stage Cultivators away! They would only get in the way.”

“But how did they appear right in front of the Palace? Why didn’t we hear any reports before? Also, how many of them are there?”

“There are 9 of them. Now go, quick!”

“...”

The soldier suddenly turned silent, he stared at another soldier with a blank look on his face and questioned,

“9? Seriously? Is it a prank or something?”

“You bastard-”

The other soldier wanted to answer him, however suddenly,

“You bastards! You still have the time to talk around like that!? Keep your feet moving, or I’ll make sure you will die before the enemy even reaches you!”

“G-G-General Phorus!”

The soldier’s eyes widened in horror and surprise.

If the General, one of the strongest beings in the Kingdom himself has appeared, this was definitely not a prank.

The Soldier's body trembled in fear.

His friend, however, grabbed him from the side and started running away.

“Don't take those bastards lightly, there might be only 9 of them, however, all of them are King Stage Cultivators.”

“!!!”

The Soldier's eyes widened in surprise.

He felt like his eyes would pop out today by how much surprise he has been receiving.

“N-Nine K-King Stage Cultivators? W-Which Kingdom is attacking us?”

He questioned.

“We do not have any information about that, we are currently unprepared, the Shadow Unit is already talking with Princ- Queen Evane, you only do what you have been told and bring away all the Soldiers who are below Master Stage Cultivators and prepare them.

If 9 King Stage Cultivators have attacked, the rest of the army must be near as well.

It might even be a coup from one of the nobles, be prepared for anything.”

The soldier instructed.

The other soldier nodded, a determined look appeared on his face and he reorganized himself.

...

On the other hand, Keeve and Reeve appeared in front of Evane's room and reported,

“Queen Evane, 9 unknown King Stage Cultivators are attacking us, currently, we only have 7 King Stage Cultivators including you and Lady Iria.”

Lady Iria, or Iria Skyfall was Ricardus’s strongest wife, however, she was not one of those ‘lucky’ women to bear the King’s children in their one-night session, of course, Iria didn’t care about it either, she only pursued cultivation and if it weren’t for her family forcing her to marry the King, she would have stayed unmarried for her entire life.

“We can ask Lady Astaria’s help to deal with all of them, however, I believe many people would have their eyes on this situation, if Lady Astaria appear, things might get worse because of the Treaty.

I suggest calling for help from all the Duke Houses and the Academy, if we add their 4 King Stage Cultivators, we would have 11 Cultivators, that would be more than enough to deal with those bastards and prepare to defend against the main army.”

Reeve reported quickly.

However, unlike him, Evane didn’t look in hurry at all.

She gently placed the tea she was drinking on the table and stood up,

A smile then appeared on her face and she spoke,

“Let’s go and welcome them.”

Reeve didn’t understand what she was trying to say, however, since Evane had already walked out of the room, he and Kevve followed her in.

Soon, the three of them appeared in front of those 9 masked King Stage Cultivators.

They weren’t alone, along with them, more than 20 Expert Stage Cultivators and 50 Grand Master Stage Cultivators were standing in front of those masked cultivators, looking at them with wary looks on their faces.

That was not it, the other 2 King Stage Cultivators of the Shadow Unit, Lady Iria and General Phorus were there as well, prepared to fight against these people who had suddenly appeared in front of them.

To be able to prepare 7 King Stage Cultivators and so many Expert and Grand Master Stage Cultivators in a matter of minutes, it showed how strong, Skyfall, the strongest Kingdom of the World was.

It was not a force a mere 9 King Stage Cultivators could defeat.

However, even though they were standing against so many cultivators who were ready to take out their swords and kill them, the 9 King Stage Cultivators didn't look worried at all.

Their body postures looked rather calm.

This made the Kingdom Soldiers frown.

Do they have some sort of plan?

They all wondered in their mind.

Tension in the air continued to rise.

Then suddenly,

*Step* *Step*

Evane stepped forward.

The soldiers turned silent and observed the woman, who would soon become the next Queen of this Kingdom.

They waited for the Queen to address these 9 Masked Cultivators, however,

*Step* *Step* *Step*

Contrary to their expectation, Evane continued to walk towards these masked cultivators.

“Queen Evan-”

Reeve wanted to call out, however, Evane suddenly raised her hand, signaling her to stay silent and continued to walk.

‘Is she planning to challenge all of them alone?’

General Phorus thought of something absurd.

He then shook his head and sighed,

‘She is still a child, she might be a gifted cultivator, however, she is not mature enough...’

He then glanced at Lady Iria and noticed that she was looking at him.

She had the same thought in him.

The two of them nodded at each other and prepared to defend Evane once things get worse.

The other King Stage Cultivators, including Reeve and Keeve, prepared for the same as well. Some Expert and Grand Master Stage Cultivators were even prepared to sacrifice their life to protect the future queen.

*Step* *Step* *Step*

The closer Evane walked toward the masked cultivators, the tenser the atmosphere got.

*Step*

Then, once she was an arm’s length away from the masked cultivator, Evane stopped.

The Kingdom cultivators prepared their weapons, but suddenly,

“!!!!”

Their eyes widened in surprise.

Evane Skyfall, the Future Queen of the Kingdom, suddenly hugged one of the masked cultivators right in front of all the soldiers.

Chapter 510

Evane Skyfall, the Future Queen of the Kingdom, suddenly hugged one of the masked cultivators right in front of all the soldiers.

“!!!”

Everyone widened their eyes in shock.

What the hell was happening?

Why was the soon-to-be Queen hugging someone like that in front of everyone?

The people who were ready with their weapons and battle stance stood still with bewildered looks on their faces. The tensed atmosphere that had built up until now completely disappeared.

Everyone's eyes were on the two people who were hugging each other without the care of the world. No, actually, their eyes were not on two people, rather, they were only looking at Evane, they wanted answers.

As if understanding their intentions, Evane turned towards the Kingdom 'Army' that was looking at her and smiled,

“I am sure all of you are confused and are wondering what is happening.

Don't worry, I will explain what is happening.

First of all, don't be so tense, sheathe your weapons, they are not here to attack. They are not even our enemies, rather, they are our allies.”

“Lady Evane, who are they?”

Phorus, the General of the Skyfall Kingdom questioned as he narrowed his eyes.

Evane looked at the General, then she turned towards the man she hugged and nodded.

The man nodded back, then, he removed his mask, revealing his perfectly carved face, well-structured nose, raven hair, thin eyebrows, hypnotic, golden eyes, and all in all, an extremely handsome face.

“This man is Nux Leander,”

Evane introduced.

Nux looked at everyone standing and smiled.

Reeve and Keeve frowned, they knew who this man was, he was Lady Evane’s subordinate, but why did Lady Evane hu-

Suddenly, Evane dropped a bomb.

“My husband.”

“Huh...?”

A deafening silence fell over the place.

Evane allowed others to let it sink in, 3 seconds later,

“WHAT!!??”

Their emotions exploded.

“H-H-Husband?”

Even Reeve and Keeve, who usually do not show many expressions could help but look at Nux and Evane with stunned looks on their faces.

“Lady Evane, what do you mean he is your husband?”

Iria was the first one to recover from this shock and she questioned.

“Huh? Do you perhaps not know what husband means?” Nux questioned with a confused look on his face.

“I am not talking to you, Boy.” Iria narrowed her eyes.

Nux narrowed his eyes as well, he could sense hostility from Iria’s eyes, however, he couldn’t understand why that was the case.

This was his first time meeting this woman, he hasn’t offended her, yet.

‘Well, whatever.’

Then, Nux shrugged inwardly, a playful smile then appeared on his face as he glanced at Iria and,

‘You started it.’

“Hmm? You asked Evane and since I am her husband, I have the right to answer your questi- ah, wait, you don’t know what a husband is.

So it is like this, when a man and woman marr-”

“I know what husband means!” Iria snapped.

Seeing this, Evane and the other ‘masked cultivators’ shook their heads and sighed.

There he goes again.

Nux was an expert when it came to annoying people.

“Hmm? Then why were yo-” Nux wanted to continue, however, as if Iria understood what he was trying to do, she didn’t give him any chance.

“I am asking how can you be the husband of our queen when barely anyone here knows you.”

“Huh? It is not like I am marrying you all, you are not that lucky, get off your high horses.

The only opinion here that matters is Evane's, how do you guys even fit in this equation?"

Nux questioned back.

"We fit here because we are Lady Evane's future subjects." Phorus was the one to reply.

"Then act like subjects. Don't involve yourself with her personal life. Evane is allowed to choose anyone she wants." Nux shot him down.

"We can't allow any random person to fool our Queen, you can't be her husband until we make sure that you are not here to harm her." Phorus wasn't planning to back down.

With his words, the soldiers supporting him looked at Nux with hostile looks as well.

"Are you saying that your future Queen is a fool?"

Suddenly, Nux narrowed his eyes.

"I did not say anything like that, do not twist my words."

"You can't be her husband until we make sure that you are not here to harm her', don't these words means that Evane is a fool who can't even judge a person's character and can be easily fooled?

Is this something a subject can say about his Queen?"

Nux then narrowed his eyes even further and tilted his head in a threatening way,

"Are you underestimating her authority?"

A wild pressure was released from Nux's body.

"..." The General turned silent.

“We are not underestimating her authority, however, the Queen is still young, and a little immature, at her age, there are many people who would try to trick her for their own benefit, but this does not mean that the Queen is a fool, she just doesn’t have much experience, that is where our role as her subjects comes in.

We will prevent anyone from hurting our Queen.

We need to suspect everyone, especially an unknown man who appeared out of nowhere and the Queen announces him as her husband.”

Iria stepped in, unlike Phorus, she has spent some time in the Royal Palace, and when it came to a fight with words, she doubted many could defeat her.

And indeed, her words were sharp and she placed all the blame on Nux, saving Phorus from a tight spot.

Nux snorted inwardly but just as he was about to reply,

Evane stepped in,

“As much as I would like to thank you ‘subjects’ for trying to ‘prevent’ me from being tricked, I don’t think you are allowed to meddle in my personal life.

I introduced Nux to you all not because I wanted your opinions, but because I wanted to inform you all.

Nux Leander is my husband, all further discussions will not be entertained.”

Her cold and emotionless tone forced everyone to turn silent.

Everyone, except Phorus,

“Lady Evane, you are still too immature to decide this on your own, also, let me remind you,

You are not a Queen yet, you currently do not have the authority to order us around.”

Evane looked at Phorus with a cold look on her face, Phorus didn't back down either.

The two of them stared at each other, the tension in the air suddenly rose up, then suddenly,

“Though I did allow you to cause some ruckus, I did not expect you to go this far, Boy.”

Chapter 511

“Though I did allow you to cause some ruckus, I did not expect you to go this far, Boy.”

Suddenly, a voice was heard, the tension in the voice disappeared and everyone turned towards the source of the voice.

There, their eyes fell on a black-haired woman who unconsciously had a strange but suffocating Aura around her.

Seeing the woman, Iria, Phorus, Keeve, and Reeve bowed their heads. A few others who knew who this woman was bowed their heads as well.

The rest were confused, however, seeing how all the higher-ups were bowing their heads with respectful looks on their faces, they did the same and bowed their heads as well.

Nux glanced at the woman and smiled,

“Did you think I was joking when I said you will be surprised?”

Iria, Phorus, Reeve, Keeve, and other King Stage Cultivators widened their eyes in horror when they saw how this man was talking with Lady Astaria.

‘You are dead.’

Phorus already predicted it.

However, unlike how he and everyone else predicted, Astaria didn’t seem angry, rather, she had a smile on her face. It was as if she was enjoying this conversation!

“Tsk, you only said that introducing your wives would cause a ruckus, but you took so much time to just introduce yourself.”

Astaria snorted jokingly.

“The Main Character needs to have a long introduction, that’s the rule. I obviously can’t go against it.” Nux shrugged.

“Shameless indeed.” Astaria shook her head.

“Also, how could I possibly introduce my wives when you are not here?”

“Hmm, that seems like a valid point.”

Astaria nodded.

She was shameless as well.

“...”

Others didn’t know how to react to all this.

This woman, who seemed to be respected by all the higher ups was acting friendly towards this man who the higher-ups were fighting against. Nobody knew how to react in this situation.

The Kingdom’s King Stage Cultivators, however, had different thoughts in their mind.

“His wives?” Iria frowned.

“Are you saying that the Queen’s husband has a Harem?” A man wondered out loud.

There is no way anyone would accept this.

This would destroy the Skyfall Kingdom’s image.

“Lady Astaria, we cannot allow this! A Husband from unknown origins was already big enough, but the husband has his own Harem as well? You can’t possibly allow this!”

Phorus shouted.

This time, even Reeve and Keeve agreed with him.

This was going too far.

Astaria then glanced at Phorus and suddenly, all her playfulness disappeared,

“Did I ask for your suggestion?”

Phorus’s body trembled and he bowed his head,

“N-No, Lady Astaria.”

“Then Stay silent.”

“A-As you command.”

Phorus stepped back, indicating that he won’t be speaking anything anymore.

Iria frowned, she couldn’t understand why Lady Astaria was supporting this man, however, a few seconds later, she frowned.

She couldn’t care less about the Kingdom or its reputation.

She only jumped in because it was her duty, in all honestly, she didn’t care who Evane marries.

She would end up being bored with this man one day or another, just like her father.

Iria stepped back and closed her eyes as well.

Seeing this, other King Stage Cultivators backed away as well.

Nux took this opportunity and smiled,

“Well, now that I have the stage all to myself, let me introduce you to my lovely wives,”

Although he was standing in front of everyone, the only person he was looking at was Astaria, he couldn't care less about the others.

“First, Felberta Leander, my first wife.”

As he said that, Felberta removed her mask and smiled.

“Wait...”

Suddenly, Astaria's expression changed.

She finally realized that she has missed something all this while,

These 8 Women...

All of them were King Stage Cultivators!

8, no 10 including Nux and Evane,

10 King Stage Cultivators!

All 10 of them were together!

How absurd is that!?

Nux didn't notice Astaria's expression and continued to introduce others.

“Skyla Leander, Lane Leander, Edda Leander, Thyra Leander,”

Then, Nux paused.

The real shock would start after Thyra, he knew it full well, therefore, he waited for everyone, or mainly Astaria to settle down, a few seconds later,

He pointed at another masked woman and introduced,

“She is Allura Leander.”

These were simple words, however, the reaction to these words was,

“ ... ”

Silence.

Deafening silence.

Everyone looked at Allura with shocked looks on their faces.

“I-Isn’t that Lady Allura!?”

In the end, one of the soldiers pointed at Allura and shouted out loud.

“Why is she here? Wasn’t she Missing!?”

“No wait! She was a Master Stage Cultivator! How did she become a King Stage Cultivator!?”

“You dumbass, that is what you are worried about,

That man just introduced the Royal Consort as his own wife!”

Another soldier shouted and another wave of silence fell all over the place.

A Royal Consort was introduced as someone else wife.

Everyone’s eyes fell on Astaria, they wanted to see how she would react to this situation.

“ ... ”

However, this time, even Astaria was too shocked to say anything.

Nux realized that introducing his wives like this was a little too much... if he gave them any more shock, some might even pass out, therefore, seeing that many of them were still too shocked to say anything, he decided to use this opportunity to introduce all his wives.

“This is Amaya Leander, then Ember Leander, then last but not the least, Evane Leander, Mhm, that’s it, I don’t have more wives.”

“T-That’s Lady Amaya! She is also a Royal Consort!”

“She is also a King Stage Cultivator!?”

“Wait, wasn’t she cursed!? What happened to her curse!?”

“Wait! Wait! Wait! Wasn’t she less than 50 years old!? You are telling me that she became a King Stage Cultivator when she is not even 50 years old!? What kind of monstrous potential is that!?”

Everyone’s emotions burst out and chaos ensued.

No one could believe what they were seeing.

10 King Stage Cultivators!

Absurd!

Simply Absurd!

Just how in the hell is this possible!?

Phorus didn’t know how to react either, nobody reacted when she was introduced, however, to him, the most surprising out of all these women was not Allura or Amaya,

It was the General of the Woods Dynasty.

That fucking monster who killed thousands and led ten thousands,

Just how in the hell did this boy manage to marry someone like her!?

Chapter 512

The General of the Woods Dynasty.

That fucking monster who killed thousands and led ten thousands,
Just how in the hell did this boy manage to marry someone like her!?
Phorus couldn't understand.

“You really weren't lying when you said you would surprise me...”

After a long while, Astaria commented.

Nux glanced at the woman in front of him and smiled.

“I never lie.

Never.”

Seeing that he was focusing on the word ‘never’ a lot, a frown appeared on Astaria's face.

He wanted to say something, she understood that, but what was he trying to say?

Astaria started wondering.

Soon, her cheeks turned a little red and a flustered expression appeared on her face.

Of course, it only appeared for a second before it was replaced by her normal expression, however, that little second was enough for Nux to understand that she understood his message and he smiled playfully.

Astaria understood what was going on inside his mind, therefore, she decided to change the topic and glanced at his woman again.

“I see a lot of familiar faces here...

Some of the dead ones are there as well.”

Astaria commented as she looked at Amaya.

Amaya smiled, however, unlike Nux, she didn't receive Astaria's smile back, Astaria only looked at her with an expressionless look on her face before looking back at Nux, her expression demanded an explanation.

“What? Everything is fair in love and war.”

Nux only had a simple answer.

Hearing his answer, Astaria's mouth twitched.

“First, you have the audacity to go after the King's Wife, the Royal Consort, then, you plan their 'death' and 'kidnapping' so they could stay with you, then you go after the King's daughter, the Princess of this Kingdom, help her become the Queen, appearing as a Queen's husband with a harem of his own, then you introduced the previous King's wives as your own wives,”

Astaria then narrowed her eyes.

“Aren't you taking the Skyfall Kingdom too lightly?”

An expression similar to the one she had the first time Nux met her appeared on Astaria's face and again, she used her Aura to try and suppress Nux.

This time, however, Nux wasn't intimidated,

“He didn't deserve them.”

His answer was simple. He didn't even try to explain himself.

“Also, I am not the one who is taking the Skyfall Kingdom too lightly, it is you guys.”

“Huh?”

A frown appeared on Astaria’s face.

“To make someone like Ricardus the King of this Kingdom, the one who is not only lusting after new women every day, but is even incompetent when it comes managing the Kingdom,

Are the standards of the Skyfall Kingdom so low?

Are you telling me that a competent Queen who is a King Stage Cultivator when she is just 80 years old and is part of a harem where the bests of the best women, all excelling in their respective fields like Strategizing, Assassinations, and War, are gathered, is more harmful to a Kingdom’s dignity than an incompetent and womanizing trash ruling over the bests experts there are?”

“ ... ”

Astaria and the others turned silent.

General Phorus narrowed his eyes and started thinking, although he didn’t like this boy one bit, what he was saying wasn’t incorrect at all. Ricardus didn’t deserve to be the King.

Also, although the Queen was a part of a Harem, the fact that this was possibly the most elite Harem in this world couldn’t be ignored.

He knew about Ember Windstar, a General that even he wanted to avoid.

Amaya Skyfall, a woman who troubled so many nobles, even the Ministers of the Royal Palace, when she didn’t even leave her room,

Although he doesn’t know about other women, the fact that almost all of them are less than 100 years old and are already King Stage Cultivators was not something anyone could scoff at.

Then there is that man...

The man who gathered all these amazing women into one group, the Man of the Harem, the man who single-handedly played with all the ministers, the King, and the so-called elite shadow Unit, the man who could smile playfully and act so carelessly when he is standing in front of Astaria Skyfall, the strongest being in the world...

This man couldn't possibly be normal.

In truth, this entire group was full of freaks never seen before,

The Queen of this Being part of this elite group...

It was...

Not bad...

Maybe the others had the same thought process, many people started looking at Nux in a different light.

Of course, not all of them were convinced, however, Nux didn't have to convince all of them.

As long as the Majority supports him, he could always use force to settle the minority.

Hehe, politics 101.

Cough Cough; Ignore me 😊

Nux then glanced at Astaria and a rare, earnest expression appeared on his face,

“Trust me, Evane will be a lot better Ruler than Ricardus could ever be,”

Astaria narrowed her eyes and questioned,

“Will it be Evane, or you?”

This was the main question.

The other King Stage Cultivators present here narrowed their eyes as well.

Evane was part of Elite Harem, she was amazing and all that was fine, however, who will actually rule the Kingdom?

Will it be Evane?

Or will she just be a puppet used by him to rule the Kingdom?

The probability of the latter was a lot higher, no, in truth, the probability of the latter not happening was close to zero.

“Aren’t you there to keep a check on that?”

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face.

“Let’s say I ‘use’ Evane for my own benefits and start ruling the Kingdom from behind the scenes, doing whatever the hell I want,

Do you think I have the ability to hide all this from your eyes?

Do you think I have what it takes to go against you?”

General Phorus’s and others’ eyes shined in enlightenment, Nux was right, if he tries to take over the Kingdom, he would have to face Lady Astaria, that is simply not possible.

Astaria, however, wasn’t convinced yet,

“You may not have the ability to go against me right now, but the same can’t be said about the future, what about the time you surpass me? Who would keep their eyes on you then?”

Hearing her question, General Phorus, Iria, Reeve, Keeve, and the other King Stage Cultivators widened their eyes in disbelief.

D-Did Lady Astaria just say that this man would surpass her, the strongest being in the world!?

Chapter 513

“You may not have the ability to go against me right now, but the same can’t be said about the future, what about the time you surpass me? Who would keep their eyes on you then?”

Hearing her question, General Phorus, Iria, Reeve, Keeve, and the other King Stage Cultivators widened their eyes in disbelief.

D-Did Lady Astaria just say that this man would surpass her, the strongest being in the world!?

This man definitely has a freaking talent, even more than Lady Astaria, everyone agreed on that, however, Lady Astaria has already reached the peak,

No matter how high someone’s talent is, they couldn’t possibly surpass the one who has achieved the peak.

Of course, they might take less time to reach the peak than the one who is already there, but in the end, surpassing them was still impossible.

Or...

Or was Lady Astaria indicating that this man would... break the boundaries and...

Surpass the peak?

Was that even possible?

“Heh, you really think I have the ability to surpass you, I am flattered.”

Nux smiled.

“Don’t change the topic.”

Astaria spoke.

Nux looked at her and then sighed,

“Look, there is no way to control the strongest, if I surpass the strongest person in this world, it is only natural that you would fear that I would take over the Skyfall Kingdom, but to be honest, even if I don’t, will that change anything?”

Let’s take you for example,

Ricardus was the King, and Evane will be the Queen, however, once you appear, who would the subordinates listen to? Will it be them or you?

The answer is obvious.

Why is that?

Because you devoted your entire life to the Kingdom?

No, it is because you are strong.

People would always follow the strong.

Whether I want it or not, if I become the strongest being in the world, others will see me as the representative of the Skyfall Kingdom.

I am sure you know it as well.”

“That means you plan on ruling this Kingdom,” Astaria concluded.

“I don’t, I want to be free, without being bound to anything,

However, I will protect my wife’s Kingdom if it faces any troubles.”

“ ... ”

Astaria narrowed her eyes as she looked at Nux.

Nux looked into her eyes with an honest look on his face.

The two of them maintained eye contact for a while and suddenly,

Astaria smiled,

“You passed.”

Nux smiled playfully as well,

“Of course I would, I never doubted myself, even for a second.”

“As shameless as ever,” Astaria commented.

“You have to be shameless to get what you want.”

Nux distributed his endless knowledge, then he glanced at Astaria and smiled playfully again,

“You have to constantly ask for what you want until that person finally gives in.”

Astaria understood what he was trying to say, however, she completely ignored this shameless man.

Nux shook his head and sighed.

Then, he glanced at Astaria and spoke,

“Now that we are done with this, don’t you think there is something you have to do?”

Astaria narrowed her eyes and spoke,

“Don’t order me around, Boy.”

Nux bowed his head,

“Lady Astaria, please do what you must do.”

“ ... ”

Astaria was out of words.

In the end, she shook her head, then, a serious look appeared on her face and she called,

“Keeve.”

“At your command, Lady Astaria.” Keeve bowed.

“The Royal Palace will be in complete lockdown from now on, no one will be allowed to leave or enter the Royal Palace from now on, the guards on leave will stay out of the Palace until they go through a thorough examination, all the letters sent out of the Palace would be thoroughly checked, all the discussions about the Kingdom welfare will be halted, no more Royal Meetings will be held, the Coronation of the New Queen will be done privately, a big celebration will be conducted once the Lockdown is released.”

Astaria instructed.

“As you command, Lady Astaria.”

Although he was confused and couldn't understand where the sudden instructions came from, Keeve still bowed his head and nodded.

His duty was to follow orders, he could always ask questions later.

Just like him, many others were surprised as well.

However, some of the bright ones started to understand Astaria's actions.

10 King Stage Cultivators, almost all of them were less than 100 years old, what does that mean? Almost all of them have a shot at becoming the next Emperor Stage Cultivator,

10 potential Emperor Stage Cultivators, and the Skyfall Kingdom has all of them.

This information couldn't possibly be leaked to other Kingdoms or else it will be a catastrophe.

And once it is leaked, the Emperors of the other Kingdoms might even break the Treaty and combine their powers to go for an all-out attack against the Skyfall Kingdom.

With the number of spies currently residing in the Palace, a news like this couldn't possibly be contained.

Were there spies in the Palace? Of course there were. It was a well-known fact.

Then why hasn't anyone dealt with it?

Well, it is not that simple, identifying all the spies is not possible. Even if they are identified, a strong proof was needed to even start the thorough investigation on the spy, it was a complicated process and too much politics was involved.

Of course, once Lady Astaria, the Emperor was involved, things were different.

In front of her absolute strength, politics was useless.

Anyone can be thoroughly investigated if she was the one who orders it, whether they had tied with normal nobles, the Dukes, or even if they had Royal Blood flowing in their veins.

Decisions like Complete Lockdown, this was definitely only possible if Lady Astaria was the one who ordered it, because only then would all the strongest experts in the Kingdom would take it absolutely seriously.

“Lady Astaria,”

Suddenly, Nux called out.

“What is it?”

Astaria questioned.

“How about we conduct a few investigations as well, there are a few people who I believe do not have the Kingdom’s best interest in their mind.”

Nux glanced at a particular Grand Master Stage Cultivator standing in the crowd and smiled playfully.

Chapter 514

“How about we conduct a few investigations as well, there are a few people who I believe do not have the Kingdom’s best interest in their mind.”

Nux glanced at a particular Grand Master Stage Cultivator standing in the crowd and smiled playfully.

The Grand Master Stage Cultivator widened his eyes when he noticed Nux’s eyes on him, a weird jolt spread all over his body when he saw Nux’s smile and how his Golden eyes were shining as he was looking at him.

For some reason, the Grand Master Stage Cultivator panicked,

He felt like something bad was going to happen to him.

[Name: Nixon Halt]

[Age: 72 ]

[Mana Cultivation: Grand Master.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal. ]

[Race: Human ]

[Occupation: Spy from the Solid Earth Kingdom.]

[Talent: Medium]

...

And the man was correct.

With just one look, Nux's eyes learned everything about the man, the deepest secret that he has been hiding for so many years, was right before Nux's eyes.

The Grand Master Stage Cultivator, Nixon's instincts were warning him to run away from here, however, with so many powerful people here, running away would do nothing but draw more attention and suspicion.

“What are you talking about?”

Astaria narrowed her eyes and questioned.

Nux's smile widened, then, he started walking towards Nixon.

Nixon looked around, trying to understand why Nux was coming here, he even turned behind, as if trying to confirm whether Nux was looking at him or not, since it wasn't clear from just that, he tried moving to the right and left, however, no matter how hard he tried to deny it, Nux was definitely looking at him.

Feeling his stare, Nixon's heartbeat quickened, however, soon, he took a deep breath,

‘I am overthinking, this is my first time seeing this man, there is no need to panic, be calm, Nixon, be calm. He is not coming here for me, this is all just a misunderstanding. It is obvious he would look at the man who started moving around like an idiot in the middle of the crowd, yes, that must be it.'

Nixon tried to console himself,

However, false hope can only last for a certain while,

**Step**

Under everyone's eyes, Nux stopped right in front of Nixon, everyone else moved away, leaving only Nux and Nixon in the middle, Nixon tried to mix in with the crowd and move away as well, however,

"Are you Nixon Halt?"

Nux questioned.

Hearing this question, Nixon's eyes widened in surprise.

'How did he know!?'

He wondered inwardly, however, he soon controlled his expressions and chuckled,

"I think you have the wrong person, my name is Riley Zane."

Nux tilted his head in confusion and questioned again,

"Are you really not Nixon Halt?"

"N-No, I have n-never even heard that name before."

Nixon stuttered a little, Nixon was his real name, however, currently, he was using the name Riley Zane as his alias.

This man shouldn't possibly know his real name.

Just how is this possible!?

Nixon was panicking inwardly and suddenly, he noticed a demon-like smile appear on Nux's face,

“Lady Astaria, please investigate this man. From his birth till this day, every single thing this man has ever done, investigate every little thing and reconfirm everything twice, also, please thoroughly search the room allotted to this man as well.”

Nixon's heart skipped a beat.

This man knows.

There was no point in trying to deny it anymore.

A cold look appeared on Nixon's face,

“Sir Nux, I know you are our future Queen's husband, but I don't think you hold the power to hold an investigation against me and dishonor my privacy, without any explanation no less.”

The others narrowed their eyes as well.

This man has just appeared in front of them and he is already trying to push them down.

How dare he?

Nux, however, didn't care about what anyone was thinking and shrugged,

“I do not hold any authority to do anything, I am just a husband, not the King, the one who holds all the authority is my wife and my future wi- I mean, Lady Astaria.”

Astaria's mouth twitched when she heard what Nux said and she clenched her fists in annoyance.

This was too shameless, she will deal with him later,

However, currently, this matter was more important,

“You want to use my identity to investigate this man?”

Astaria narrowed her eyes and she glanced at Nux.

“Indeed,”

“You know the consequences of doing this, correct?”

“Of course, my image of the perfect man I have managed to create in your mind will be ruined, I can’t take that risk yet, I have to do my best to impress you after all.

I will not say anything that would reduce my chances.”

Nux answered with a serious look on his face.

Others only thought that he was trying to impress Lady Astaria because he was going to be the part of Skyfall Family soon, and anyone with Astaria’s favor would have an easy time,

Astaria, however, understood his real meaning and clenched her fists even more.

She would definitely deal with this man later today.

“Alright, Keeve, do what he said.”

Astaria ordered.

“As you command, Lady Astaria.”

Keeve bowed his head.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Everyone turned silent for a while.

A Frown then appeared on Nux's face as he glanced at Keeve,

“What the hell are you doing?”

“Huh?” Keeve frowned.

“Get moving already, we don't have all day.”

“Huh?”

“The information, bring it, I don't have all day, I have things to prove here.”

“I-It is not that simple, I need to start the investigation, verify, compile, and only then would the complete information would be reported,” Keeve replied.

Nux scratched his head and questioned,

“How much time will it take?”

“I need a week at the very least.”

“Nux scrunched his nose, he then glanced at Amaya,

Amaya understood what he wanted and sighed,

“Give me half day. I will do it.”

A satisfactory smile appeared on Nux's face,

“As I expected. You are the best.”

A small smile appeared on Amaya's face that subconsciously attracted many men's attention.

Nux's eyes turned cold for a moment, however, he decided to ignore it for now and turned toward Astaria,

“You will have all the proves you need within a few hours, let’s start with the room investigation first, I am sure we will find something interesting.”

“Y-You can’t invade my privacy!

Y-You can’t do it!”

Chapter 515

“You will have all the proves you need within a few hours, let’s start with the room investigation first, I am sure we will find something interesting.”

“Y-You can’t invade my privacy!”

Y-You can’t do it!”

Nixon shouted out loud.

“Keeve, go and look into his room,”

“As you command, Lady Astaria.”

Keeve nodded, this time, he didn’t repeat his mistake and turned around.

“Wait.”

Suddenly, Nux called out.

“What is it now?” Keeve questioned in a slightly annoyed tone.

Nux looked at Thyra, the woman nodded,

“Let her go with you,” Nux spoke.

Keeve looked at Lane for a while, then he turned back to Nux and nodded.

Lane and Keeve then walked away.

“Doesn’t that man work in Security Division?”

“Mhm, he does, I am sure I have seen him many times, however, I am not that close to him, but Leigh, aren’t you and him friends, I have seen you two talking to each other quite often.”

“Indeed, I know him for many years now, I don’t know what this man wants to do, however, this is definitely unsettling to see someone random being allowed to investigate us all like we are some disposable tools.

Was our years of hard work and dedication to the Kingdom amount to nothing?”

The man named Leigh was not happy.

“It is unsettling indeed, however, that woman seems to favor that boy.”

“Who is that woman anyway?”

“Oi, lower your voice, don’t you see how all King Stage Cultivators and most of the Expert Stage Cultivators are still bowing their heads, none of them are saying anything since she has arrived. They didn’t act like this even in front of the King, but they are doing it in front of that woman.

It is not respect, it is sheer fear at this point.

That woman is not normal.

Even General Phorus is addressing her as Lady Astaria.”

“Yes, and did you see how she just made him turn silent with just a look, I even noticed that he was trembling.”

“To make General Phorus tremble... I can only imagine how fearsome this woman is...”

“Indeed...”

The discussions started.

“Also, I don’t think that man is saying random things...”

Suddenly, someone spoke.

“What do you mean?”

Leigh, Nixon's friend narrowed his eyes.

“Think about it, that man just randomly selected Riley out of so many of us, if it was you and your room was being searched, how would you react?”

“I would be angry of course! How can they invade my Privacy on basis of some random man's words!?” Leigh retorted.

“Indeed, I would think the same, but would you have dared to raise your voice when that woman is here and even the King Stage Cultivators are silent?”

The man questioned and suddenly, Leigh turned silent.

“ ... ”

“See? There is no way you would raise your voice in front of a fearsome woman like her and so many King Stage Cultivators just because of your privacy, or would you?”

“ ... ”

“Riley's reaction is strange, I think that man knows something. I am actually looking forward to what would happen in the next few minutes.”

Leigh didn't know what to say, he understood what that man wanted to say, but Riley was someone he was close to.

Won't he be implicated if Riley turns out to be guilty?

Suddenly, Leigh noticed everyone turning their heads in a certain direction, he followed everyone's gaze and saw Keeve and that woman had returned.

‘Hmm? They are back already?’

He then noticed Lord Keeve had a strange on his face, the woman who had gone with him, on the other hand, had an expressionless look on her face. Suddenly, a small, beautiful smile appeared on her face and she increased her pace.

She then walked towards that man and soon, a few papers appeared in her hands.

The man smiled, Leigh noticed that as soon as those papers appeared, Riley's face changed.

A determined look then appeared on Riley's face, however, before he could do anything, that golden-eyed man suddenly grabbed him by his throat.

Leigh's eyes widened in surprise,

How could he just attack a man working for the Royal Palace like that!?

He wondered inwardly.

Soon, however, he noticed that Riley coughed up a Black Colored Pill.

“Ugghhh!!”

Riley struggled, however, in front of Nux, he was helpless.

Nux smiled, then he increased his strength, and soon, the man passed out.

Nux threw his body away like he was trash, he then picked up the Black Colored Pill that the man had coughed out, and turned towards Astaria,

“I don't need to give you any more proves, do I?”

Astaria raised her hand, Nux understood what she wanted and threw the Pill at her,

Astaria caught the pill and observed it carefully.

“Poison.”

She commented.

“A very serious one at that.”

Nux commented.

“Do you know what that pill is?” Astaria questioned with a slightly surprised look on her face.

“Of course not.

I just thought that if a Spy is using that, then it must be of good quality or something.”

Nux shrugged.

Astaria’s mouth twitched.

“Anyways, so as I was saying, you don’t need any proves, do you?”

Nux questioned again.

“Indeed.” Astaria nodded.

“I will give you all the details once Amaya is done with her expectation, don’t worry, it won’t take long.”

Nux smiled.

Keeve lowered his head, he then glanced at Nux and snorted,

‘That bastard, he is flexing on basis of Lady Amaya’s skills. Tsk.’

Astaria glanced at Nux for a while and then nodded.

“Alright.”

“Right, you would also want some information from this guy’s mouth, don’t you?”

“Of course I do, that man will be an important resource.”

Astaria nodded,

“Yes, you don’t have to worry about that, if anything, I am confident in extracting information.”

Nux glanced at Kieve for a while, then, he turned back towards Astaria and continued,

“So as I was saying, give this guy to me, and I will make sure you will know everything you want.

Trust me, I have the best experts in this field.”

Nux smiled as he looked at Ember and Thyra.

The two women smiled and seeing those smiles, many men felt a chill running through their spines.

“So as I was saying, give this guy to me, I will make sure you will know everything you want.

Nux smiled as he looked at Ember and Thyra.

The two women smiled and seeing those smiles, many men felt a chill running through their spines.

“...”

Astaria glanced at Nux for a while and didn't say anything.

“Wait.”

Suddenly, Evane spoke.

“What is it?” Astaria questioned with a frown on her face.

“I have a better option.”

“Oh?”

A curious look appeared on Astaria's face. This was the first time he saw Evane taking the lead,

“What is it?”

She questioned, at the same time, she observed Nux's expression, however, he just stood there with a proud smile on his face, he then stepped back, giving Evane the space to walk ahead of him.

“Leave the matter of the spies to us.

Give me the full authority to deal with them, investigate them, and extract information from them, I will not disappoint you.”

Evane requested.

“You, as the Queen of the Kingdom have to request for the authority to deal with spies?” Astaria narrowed her eyes.

Evane, however, wasn’t intimidated, a determined look appeared on her face and she replied,

“This is not about spies.”

“Hmm? What do you mean?” Astaria narrowed her eyes.

“I’ll not only deal with the spies, I will also deal with their connections, the nobles backing them up, from Barons to Dukes, I will leave no one. I am planning to clean the entire Kingdom and for that,

I need permission from the Kingdom’s Protector, the strongest person in the world.”

Astaria glanced at Evane and then questioned,

“Will there be a need for me to interfere?”

“Of course not. You just need to give me the Authority. I will deal with everything else on my own.”

A satisfied smile appeared on Astaria’s face,

“Alright, I will give you the full authority to investigate anyone you want, arrest anyone you want, and use the Kingdom’s forces as you want, I also give you the authority to use force against anyone who tries to resist your orders.

Become a Tyrant.

A Tyrant who will be a nightmare for all those who are even thinking of going against the Kingdom.

I give you the authority to use the name, Astaria Skyfall, anywhere you want,”

Astaria announced.

General Phorus, Keeve, Iria, Keeve, Reeve, and the other 2 King Stage Cultivators of the Shadow Unit widened their eyes in disbelief when they heard what she said.

T-That was practically telling her to do anything she wanted!

Evane now had the power all the power she could ever want.

She had gained power that Ricardus never had in his entire ruling period.

And she wasn't even the Queen yet.

“However,”

Astaria wasn't done yet.

“If the results aren't on par with my expectations...”

“I will accept any punishment you want, even execution,” Evane replied.

“...”

The entire place turned silent.

“Heh.”

A small smile appeared on Astaria's face,

“I am looking forward to seeing the results, Girl.

Don't let my excitement go down in vain.”

“I will not.”

Evane smiled, she then turned towards Nux and the others and nodded,

Once the signal was received, Nux and his women moved, the 9 of them appeared in front of 9 people and before anyone could react, they knocked them unconscious.

“W-What happ-”

Before the people around could even react, Nux and Ember moved again and knocked two more men.

“W-What just happened?”

Only after 11 Bodies were lying unconscious on the ground did the others manage to react.

Nux and his women, however, completely ignored others, Nux grabbed the hair of the man he had attacked and smashed his head into the ground.

Nothing happened so Nux did it again, then again, and only after smashing the poor man’s face 3-4 times did a black-colored pill come out of his mouth.

He then turned around and noticed everyone except Lane, Allura, Felberta, and Amaya, were doing the same thing he did,

Skyla looked like she was enjoying herself, so the others allowed her to smash the heads of people they knocked out as well.

A smile appeared on Nux’s face as he noticed how cute Skyla looked, in the end, he stepped back as well and gave the second man he attacked to her.

Skyla cutely smashed his head into the ground as well.

‘How cute~’

Nux thought inwardly.

His thought, however, wasn't shared by the others.

“T-They are all d-demons!”

Someone in the crowd spoke.

The others agreed.

Nux and his women then stood up, on the ground, those 9 people were lying down, each of them had a disfigured face and a black colored pill in front of their faces,

They were all spies.

Seeing this, a smile appeared on Evane's face, she then turned towards Astaria and,

“I will definitely not disappoint you.”

“...”

Astaria didn't know what to say...

Just how in the world were they finding all these spies?

And to think that there were 12 spies in just this many people, how is that even possible? How were so many spies planted so in the Royal Palace?

Just how badly did that fool rule for the Royal Palace to be in a condition so bad?

However, no matter what, Astaria still couldn't act surprised,

A 'satisfied' smile appeared on her face and she nodded,

“Alright, I will leave everything to you then, Queen Evane.”

She then turned towards Nux and her eyes turned cold.

“We need to talk.”

“Anytime,” Nux nodded with a smile.

“In my room, after you are done with all this,” Then Astaria glanced at his wives and continued,

“Bring them as well.”

“Alright.” Nux nodded.

Astaria then disappeared.

And once she did, as if thousands of chains binding them suddenly disappeared, all the King Stage Cultivators of the Kingdom expect Keeve, and Reeve sighed in relief.

“Keeve.”

Suddenly, Evane called.

“Y-Yes, Lady Evane.”

“Seal off the entire Royal Palace by today, make sure no one leaves.”

“As you command, Lady Evane.”

Evane then looked at others and ordered,

“And you all, whatever happened here should not be disclosed,

Trust me, I have the ability to find out who opened his or her mouth.”

A threat.

“Our mouths are shut, Queen Evane.”

Surprisingly, General Phorus was the one who replied.

Evane nodded, she then turned towards Keeve and ordered,

“Make an announcement in the entire Kingdom.

All the spies living staying in the Skyfall Kingdom have 7 days to leave,

After that, a purge will start.”

A direct challenge.

Chapter 517

“Make an announcement in the entire Kingdom.

All the spies living staying in the Skyfall Kingdom have 7 days to leave,

After that, a purge will start.”

A direct challenge.

The spies, who pride themselves to be able to hide and get away with anything, were now directly challenged by the Queen.

Her message was clear,

Abandon your pride and run away, if you do not, none of you will be spared.

Those words were arrogant, however, seeing what Evane and... these people captured all the spies amongst them, capturing and killing all the spies in the entire Kingdom wasn't that difficult either.

To be honest, most of the people here felt that this 7 days' time period is Queen Evane being merciful to the spies.

Of course, whether they take this as a mercy and use this opportunity or whether they take this as a challenge and go against her orders, this depends on those spies.

“As you command, Lady Evane.” Keeve nodded.

He won't lie, even he was getting a little excited to see the future of the Skyfall Kingdom.

“Also, summon the entire Shadow Unit here,”

“Huh?”

Evane ordered and suddenly, a frown appeared on Keeve’s face.

“Why?”

Reeve couldn’t hold himself back and question.

“The Shadow Unit is the Kingdom’s pride, the Unit that is filled with Elites of Elites, the Unit that is responsible for the ruler’s protection. Since it will be serving me in the future, I need to know the strength of my subordinates in order to use them properly.”

Evane answered.

“Lady Evane, I apologize if it sounds rude, however, Shadow Unit does not ‘serve’ the ruler, we are only responsible for the protection of the ruler. Of course, we would be happy to assist you if you request anything from us, however, even the ruler does not have the authority to ‘see’ every member of the Shadow Unit.”

Reeve replied as respectfully as possible. He didn’t wish to offend or disrespect Evane, however, what Evane requested couldn’t be done either.

“I think you forgot something.” Evane, however, didn’t back down and a smile appeared on her face,

“Or are you saying that the Shadow Unit’s secrecy is even higher than Lady Astaris’s status?”

“...The Shadow Unit will report you within an hour.”

Reeve couldn’t do anything but step back.

“Good,” Evane spoke.

“Alright, now prepare for the lockdown.”

“As you command, Lady Evane.”

“You all are dismissed.”

Evane ordered and everyone turned away.

Nux, Evane, and the others had left a huge impact on their minds, they needed some time to digest everything.

They can't spit it out in front of others, after all.

...

“Hahaha~ As expected from Queen Evane~

Just look at that elegance, that aura, damn, now wasn't that perfect?”

Nux clapped as he walked towards Evane and hugged her from behind.

As soon as she was hugged, Evane's serious and cold face crumbled in an instant, and an embarrassed look appeared on her face.

“Y-You don't have to tease me like this...”

She stuttered as her face turned red.

There was no trace of the previous, Queen-like authoritative aura around her,

It was as if Queen Evane and Evane now were two completely different people.

“Hmm? Why would I tease you? I am praising you. You were so amazing there.

I fell in love with you all over again~

Fufufu~ Queen Evane, so beautiful, so amazing.”

Nux spoke as he started moving his finger around Evane's belly button.

A small smile appeared on Evane's red face, it was a sight worth painting. It was just that beautiful.

Nux then kissed Evane's cheeks and whispered,

“Keep doing your best like this, Queen Evane.”

“mm.”

Evane nodded.

“Tsk Tsk, how long do you plan to hug her like this?”

Allura snorted in dissatisfaction.

“Heh, how jealous. It just shows your insecurity.” Thyra didn't miss the opportunity and shot.

“Says the one who is clenching her fist, barely holding herself back.” Allura snickered.

Thyra lowered her head and her expression changed, soon, however, she turned towards Allura and retorted,

“At least I am holding myself back!”

“What is so good about that!?” Allura retorted as well.

The war between the two was just about to start, but suddenly, Amaya questioned.

“Are we going to meet Lady Astaria now?”

“Oh? She left you alone?” Nux questioned with a teasing look on his face.

An annoyed expression appeared on Amaya's face,

“I wish... she only let me go because I told her I was about to meet Lady Astaria.”

She answered.

“Hahaha~”

Nux laughed out loud.

“She is annoying.”

Amaya complained.

A genuine smile appeared on Nux’s face as he replied,

“But she loves you with all her heart.”

Although still annoyed, Amaya’s cold expression melted a little,

“She practically sold herself just so she could talk to you, her love is selfless, treasure it.”

“She is still annoying.”

Amaya snorted.

Nux shook his head and sighed,

He couldn’t believe his Amaya was such a tsundere when it came to her mother.

‘Haah...’

Nux sighed inwardly.

‘At least try to hide that small and warm smile on your face before complaining about how annoying your mother is...’

Seeing Amaya acting like that, the other women smiled as well.

“Alright, let’s not make Lady Astaria wait for long.”

Suddenly, Ember spoke.

“Indeed, we should not let her wait, let’s go.”

Nux nodded and quickly turned around, ready to go.

His women stared at him with blank looks on their faces.

“At least try to hide that you are happy...”

Thyra complained.

“I am with my lovely wives, of course, I would be happy.”

Nux turned towards Thyra and replied with a big smile.

“Shameless bastard.”

Skyla snorted.

“S-S-Skyla?” A shocked look appeared on Nux’s face.

“Sister Felberta taught me that.”

Skyla quickly deflected the blame.

“Huh? W-What? When?” The innocent Felberta didn’t even know why she was blamed.

“Fel, don’t teach my cute Skyla all these things.” Nux also played along.

“What did I do!?” Felberta felt that she was wronged.

“Don’t act ignorant, it is always better to realize and understand your mistakes, only once you have that capability would you grow further.” Nux shook his head and acted like a teacher.

“My sizes are perfect already, I don’t think I want to grow any further.” Felberta smiled sensually.

“That, I can’t disagree with.”

A perverted smile appeared on Nux’s face.

Chapter 518

*Knock* *Knock*

“Come in.”

Astaria ordered and Nux walked in with his wives following behind him.

“Ah, are finally free.”

Astaria nodded.

Then, she noticed Nux’s women continuing to walk in her room, only then did she once again recall how ridiculously large this boy’s harem was.

Within just a minute, her entire room was filled.

“ ... ”

She didn’t know what to say.

“So? What do you want to talk about?”

Nux questioned with a smile on his face.

“Are you seriously asking that?” Astaria raised her eyebrow.

“Hmm? Is it something I should have known?” Nux tilted his head in confusion.

In the end, Astaria decided to give up, she directly looked at Nux’s women and questioned.

“What are they?”

“That’s rude. What do you mean ‘what are they?’, they are not some sort of items, one of them is your Granddaughter even.”

Nux retorted.

“That’s not what I am saying, I am asking how the hell did you find these women!? How is every single one of them a King Stage Cultivator? Not only that, some of them even look less than 50 years old, just like you. Where did you find these monsters!?”

Astaria shouted.

She believed that Nux’s talent was ridiculously high!

He was an anomaly!

However, now here he was, bringing all these women, some of them even had a talent similar to his!

He brought a bunch of anomalies!

If she goes by potential, every single one of these women has the potential to be an Emperor.

How absurd is that!?

10 Emperor Stage Cultivators? How is that even possible!?

This man already has the strongest harem in the world, however, he is even trying to build a force so strong that it would make anyone fall on their knees, giving up without even a fight.

This man would break the Balance of this World!

No, actually, let’s leave all of this aside for now,

Astaria then looked at Amaya before questioning,

“I won’t ask about her assassination, which was clearly forged, however, I still need to know one thing, what about her curse? I have seen her with my own eyes, this girl was just a mortal when she arrived here, she was cursed, and couldn’t cultivate,

But now suddenly, she comes out as a King Stage Cultivator, a Stage that most people can only dream about, as if it is nothing.

How is that possible?

What happened to her curse!?”

Astaria wasn't done here though, she was only starting,

“Then there is this girl, a woman who was only a Master Stage Cultivator a year ago, and now again, here she is, standing there, becoming a King Stage Cultivator...

Evane was the same, she was only a Grand Master Stage Cultivator, with her talent, she shouldn't have the ability to become a King Stage Cultivator, but here she is.

Just...

Just what is happening!?

Was becoming a King Stage Cultivator always that easy?”

Suddenly, Astaria narrowed her eyes and glanced at Nux,

“Or maybe I am thinking in the wrong direction...

It is not that these women are talented...

Rather, it is you.

An anomaly far deeper and stranger than I thought.”

Saying that, Astaria started walking toward Nux,

“I had my subordinates look into you, they were having difficulties looking for your information, however, I guess with her being with you, finding something about you is close to impossible.

I didn't have any problem before since your character was likable and Evane truly loved you,

However, as the protector of this Kingdom, Nux, I need to know,"

Astaria then brought her face close to Nux and questioned,

"Who are you?

Or rather, what are you?"

Nux won't lie, with Astaria so close to him, rather than being turned on, he was intimidating.

No matter how beautiful this woman was, the fact that she is capable of ending his life with just a flick of her finger was frightening. This woman was frighteningly strong.

And when she was looking at him with such a doubtful and serious expression, Nux couldn't possibly think about all this stuff.

His heartbeat quickened, he was panicking inwardly, however, soon, he controlled his instincts and tried to calm himself down.

A paper then appeared on his hand and he passed it to Astaria.

Astaria grabbed the paper and started reading it.

Soon, a frown appeared on her face and she looked at Nux, however, before she could say anything, Nux continued,

"An orphan who was abandoned by his parents and was left alone in front of an Orphanage, grew up there, then was adopted by a woman named Cadela, 4 years later, Cadela was killed, then he lived alone, barely making up ends meet and continued to live like that for years.

This was the information your subordinates found out, is it not?"

Nux questioned.

“Yes, that is correct.”

“That information is not wrong, that is indeed my past.”

Nux revealed.

Astaria narrowed her eyes as she glanced at Nux, Nux looked back into her eyes, and Astaria frowned.

She couldn't tell if Nux was lying or not,

“Alright, let's say I believe you. What's next? The information after this day is completely blank, it is as if you suddenly disappeared.

How do you explain that?”

“Well, I only that the information wasn't edited, I never said it was never deleted.”

Nux laughed awkwardly.

Astaria looked at Nux with a deadpan look on her face, suddenly, Nux's danger senses kicked in and he continued,

“Of course, although we deleted some history, it doesn't mean there is no way to know it.

Especially for Lady Astaria, you can directly hear it from the source.

A special service.”

“I am not in the mood for jokes, Nux,” Astaria warned.

“Alright, I understand, let me continue then, a lovely and merciful woman then noticed my situation, and soon, she took me in and supported me.

The woman's name was Felberta Alveye, and while I was living with Felberta,

I realized that I...

Was different than others.”

Chapter 519

“While I was living with Felberta,
I realized that I was different than others.”

Nux replied.

Astaria narrowed her eyes,

“What do you mean?”

She questioned.

“While I was having sex with Felberta, I noticed that as soon as I came inside her and she orgasmed as well, a sudden surge of energy moved inside my body.

I was a pure innocent soul back then, so I thought that it was my imagination because of how good it felt, however, the next day, I noticed that my body had gotten stronger than before.

I didn't know what to do, therefore, I decided to ignore it.

I and Fel continued to spend time with each other and I noticed that each time I had sex with her, that energy entered my body and I grew stronger.

Then, Skyla walked into my life, and after some fortunate series of events, I ended up having sex with her as well and this time, the energy that entered my body was far greater than the time I spent with Felberta.

I and Skyla did it a few more times, and soon,

I broke through.”

“Huh?” Astaria frowned.

“Yes, I became a Beginner Stage Cultivator.”

“Y-You broke through after having Sex?” Astaria couldn’t believe how absurd it sounded.

“That is correct.”

Nux nodded and then continued with his story.

Everyone in the room listened to his story with curious and excited looks on their faces, each of them wondering when they will be introduced in the story.

Astaria, on the other hand just couldn’t believe how absurd it all sounded.

However, when she tracked the events she knew about and the events Nux was talking about, the story started becoming more and more believable.

It still sounded ridiculous though.

The story continued, of course, Nux edited some details that he wanted to hide from Astaria, however, it still took a long time for the story to finally end.

“...so you are saying that you grow stronger if you have sex with a woman stronger than you?”

“A woman at a higher cultivation stage than me would be a better way to interpret it.” Nux answered and then continued to explain,

“I call this process Dual Cultivation where I can rise my cultivation to the stage of the woman I am having sex with.”

“And this Dual Cultivation of yours also works in an opposite way?”

Astaria questioned again.

“It does indeed.”

“So that’s the reason why all your women are King Stage Cultivators, you only needed one King Stage woman and once you become a King Stage Cultivator with her help, you can help your other wives as well.

So the one you helped you become a King Stage Cultivator was this General, correct?”

Astaria pointed at Ember.

“Mhm, it was a wonderful experience. She barged into my room that night, fufufu~ She was so direct and bold, Ahh~ I am blushing.”

Nux placed his hands on his cheeks.

Seeing him acting like that, his women shook their heads and sighed.

That man still had the balls to joke around in front of the strongest cultivator who was currently shaken.

‘Just look at that woman’s face, you dumbass!’

They wanted to shout that out loud when they glanced at Astaria, who had a combination of different expressions on her face.

Nobody knew what she was thinking, however, one could definitely guess from her expression that whatever she was thinking about wasn’t something to be happy about.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

The room turned silent for a while.

Astaria was still thinking about this absurd thing she has heard while the others were observing the changes in her expressions as she continued to think.

Suddenly, Astaria glanced at Nux and questioned,

“So you are telling me that if you have sex with 1000 women, you could produce 1000 King Stage Cultivators?”

“H-Huh?”

Even Nux couldn't believe what he just heard.

A small laugh leaked out of Astaria's mouth,

“Heh. 1000 King Stage Cultivators, if the Skyfall Kingdom had so many King Stage Cultivators, its position as the Strongest Kingdom wouldn't be affected no matter how worse of a person is throned as the next King.”

“Tsk, that's stupid. Having 11 Emperor Stage Cultivators would be much more efficient and faster.”

Nux was quick to take his shot.

“ ... ”

Astaria frowned, soon, however, she realized what this man was talking about and her face twitched again.

“I can't believe you can say that in front of all your wives.”

“A man should go for it whenever he gets the chance, who knows? He might get lucky and a particular shot works out.” Nux gave out his wisdom.

Astaria shook her head and sighed,

This man really was shameless.

“Why didn't you do it?”

Suddenly, Astaria questioned.

“Do what?”

Nux questioned back.

“Why didn’t you go for 1000 women? If you had their support, you could have ruled over this whole Empire.”

“Heh, do you think I am a fool, you can easily take on 1000 King Stage Cultivators.”

Nux shrugged.

“Maybe I can, maybe I cannot, then what about more? If not 1000, then maybe 10,000? Even if I would eventually run out of Mana, no matter how strong I am, I can’t possibly defeat 10,000 King Stage Cultivators alone.”

Astaria answered.

“I told you already, didn’t I? I don’t want to rule this country, and I don’t treat women like tools to achieve what I want.

Also, do you think it is possible to find 10,000 women as awesome as my wives?

If yes, then think again!

Every one of my wives is one in a million Gem, there is no way any random woman can even compete with them!”

Nux spoke with pride brimming through his eyes.

Hearing his words, a smile appeared on his wives’ faces.

Astaria, who heard his answer couldn’t believe what this man just said.

“You are a fool.”

She commented.

She felt like Nux didn’t use his gift properly, if it was anyone else besides him, he would have definitely done things more efficiently.

There were so many ways for him to rule this world when he had a power like that.

Astaria shook her head,

Soon, however, a small smile appeared on her face,

“You are a fool indeed.”

She muttered inwardly.

Chapter 520

Soon, however, a small smile appeared on Astaria's face,

“You are a fool indeed.”

She muttered inwardly.

Seeing her acting like that, a teasing smile appeared on Nux's face and he questioned,

“Oh? What's with that beautiful smile? Did I manage to touch your heart? Are you finally ready to marry me?”

“Who is willing to marry you!? Touched my heart, my foot! Also, you are trying to court your wife's grandmother, don't you feel awkward at all?”

Astaria shot back.

Hearing those words, Evane's face turned red.

Seeing Nux flirting with her grandmother was indeed awkward.

Nux glanced at Evane and realized that he may have gone a little too far, he should stop doing this in front of Evane...

‘Fuck, this is a little awkward now...’

Is this what they call Oyakodon?

No, I am going a level even further than that...

Damn, to think I would go for Oyakodon Plus without even trying Oyakodon first, I am a genius indeed.’

Nux nodded to himself.

Then he glanced at Astaria and continued,

“Tsk, next time I will meet you alone,”

“H-Huh?”

Astaria didn't know what to say.

“Also, I think I told you this before, don't call yourself a ‘Grandma’, sheesh, just look at yourself before saying things like that.

To be honest, you are the first woman who likes to scream ‘I am an Old Woman!’ out loud, and here I thought women like to stay and act young.

Guess that is not the case for all, huh...

Hmmm, preferring to be seen as an aged woman by others... a strange quirk indeed...

Of course, I won't judge, I will accept you as you are.”

Nux continued to nod his head and spoke with an earnest look on his face.

“I do not prefer to be seen as an aged woman!”

Astaria shot back.

“Heeh, that doesn't seem to be the case...” Nux spoke.

Astaria glanced at Nux who was looking at him with a doubtful look on his face, she then turned towards his wife and although they weren't looking at her with the same expressions as Nux's, Astaria still felt like they were judging her.

“I do not have a strange quirk like that!”

Astaria shot back.

Amaya, on the other hand, glanced at Nux and started analyzing.

To make an Emperor Stage Cultivator so flustered with just mere words alone...

Was Nux always this good with words?

Or was it a recent development?

No, now that she thinks about it, Amaya realized that although Nux may not be the brightest card when it comes to strategizing and things like that, when it comes to women, his brain starts working like a genius's brain, always coming up with new and ridiculously perfect ideas.

A strange quirk indeed...

'Or maybe he is just a pervert.'

Amaya thought of another possibility and seeing him looking at Astaria while enjoying her flustered expression, Amaya solidified her thoughts.

'A pervert indeed.'

"Alright Alright, let's stop this now, I can't watch the strongest existence in the world flirt with my husband."

Suddenly, Ember stepped up.

"Which part of all this looks like I am the one flirting with him to you!?"

Astaria shot back.

Ember, however, just shrugged her shoulders, and then, a serious look appeared on her face,

"I think we are gathered here to discuss an issue more important than this."

Hearing the words, the air in the room changed and a serious look appeared on everyone's face.

"The Solid Earth Kingdom..."

Evane spoke in a solemn tone.

Nux turned towards Astaria and spoke,

“I have already informed them about all this.”

“Oh? Then what do they suggest?” Astaria questioned back.

“Cooperation.” This time, Amaya was the one who answered.

Astaria turned towards Amaya and titled her question in confusion.

“Cooperation?”

“Yes, if things involve Emperors and even that Mythical Creature, then the stakes are too high, we can’t deal with this alone. We need to cooperate with other Kingdoms and seek their help. Well, more accurately, their Protectors help.”

Amaya explained.

“Then who should we contact? The Skadis?” Astaria questioned.

Amaya, however, shook her head,

“We cannot contact the Skadis. I suspect that they are involved in all this, and they might not be on our side.”

“What do you mean?”

“It is just suspicion, but from what my mother told me, I think Lord Amletus, the protector of the Skadi Kingdom is in cahoots with the Solid Earth Kingdom.”

Amaya replied and suddenly, Astaria narrowed her eyes,

“Mother? As in...”

“Riona Skadi, yes.” Amaya nodded.

“You met your mother?”

“I was in the Skadi Kingdom for the last few days, I just returned yesterday,” Amaya answered.

“And what does your mother has to say about all this?” Astaria questioned in a suspicious tone.

It was clear that she didn't like the fact that Amaya met her mother.

“You can trust Riona, she is not our enemy, rather, you can even treat her as an ally, however, she can't do much to help her since the protector of her Kingdom is thinking something else,” Nux spoke up.

Astaria turned towards Nux and questioned,

“You seem to have a good impression of Riona, wait... Don't tell me...”

Astaria then widened her eyes as he considered another possibility.

Nux raised his hand and stopped her mid-sentence,

“Whatever you are thinking, throw that thought out in the gutter, I am not going after Riona, even though she is an extraordinary woman.”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

All the women turned silent.

Nux, however, acted as if he didn't notice the strange silence and continued,

“Just trust me on this one, Riona is not our enemy, she can even act as our informant, the moment Amletus makes a move, we will get informed. You can think of her as a spy.”

“A Spy...? You aren't really thinking about what would happen if she gets caught, are you?” Astaria questioned.

“She won’t get caught, I am confident. This is not the first time I have planted a King Stage Cultivator as a spy to keep an eye on an Emperor after all.”

“Huh? What do you mean?” Astaria frowned.

“The General of the Solid Earth Kingdom, do you know him?”

“I have heard about him, yes.”

“He is my spy as well.”

Nux revealed nonchalantly.

Chapter 521

“The General of the Solid Earth Kingdom, do you know him?”

“I have heard about him, yes.”

“He is my spy as well.”

Nux revealed nonchalantly.

“Huh!?”

Astaria widened her eyes in surprise.

“Well, he is not that useful, to be honest, the best he can do is report how much damage has been done to the Woods Dynasty, that Herms isn’t exactly sharing anything with his Generals, he is just treating them as his tools.

The only useful thing he told me so far is that Herms is trying to force the Emperor Stage Cultivator who is protecting the Solid Earth Kingdom to act and defend his Kingdom, once he does, Herms would say that the Woods Dynasty broke the treaty and all the would ask for other Kingdoms’ help in order to destroy the Solid Earth Kingdom.”

Nux explained further, ignoring Astaria’s surprise.

“Forcing him to act...” Astaria narrowed her eyes, soon, however, she shook her head and questioned,

“No no, wait, why is that General even acting as your spy?”

Astaria then narrowed her eyes,

“Are you sure he is not trying to fool you?”

Nux shook his head,

“I am sure, trust me.

He won't dare to fool me.” A threatening smile appeared on Nux's face.

Astaria narrowed her eyes,

“Are you saying that he fears you more than an Emperor?”

“I am.”

Nux smiled.

“Heh, aren't you getting a little too overconfident?”

“You left dealing with spies to us, didn't you? Just wait till we are done with that, you will know what I am talking about.”

Nux just smiled.

“...”

Astaria turned silent.

This boy is acting too mysterious.

She won't lie, it was getting a little annoying now.

Especially that smile on his face which seems to doing one thing and meaning another.

“Anyway, I am not sure if Riona would be able to help us a lot, it depends on how much Amletus would reveal to her, however, having her as an ally is still better than nothing.”

Nux continued with the topic.

“And about the cooperation, we thinking of cooperating with the Woods Dynasty.”

“The Woods Dynasty? They already have their own troubles, how could they possibly help us?” Astaria questioned.

“It is not like we need their help to do anything, we just need their Protector’s help.”

“Hmm, that is true, Alcimus would be helpful in this situation.” Astaria nodded.

“Yes, the Woods are in a desperate situation, we can take advantage of that and use them.”

Amaya nodded.

Astaria looked at Amaya and Amaya understood what she wanted,

“Due to Herms’s plan, the Woods are stuck in a difficult situation where the only thing they could do is to look at how the Solid Earth Kingdom continues to plunder their villages and cities, the people are losing their trust in the Royal Family and some are even mocking them.

If this continues, They wouldn’t be able to hold it any longer.

Even if we tell them that Herms is involved, they wouldn’t be able to do anything since they won’t have any proof.

In a situation this desperate, we would seek their cooperation, we would offer them to get rid of the enemy armies attacking their cities, not only that, we would even offer to capture 1 or 2 Generals alive, they can use those Generals to prove the involvement of Herms, allowing them to use the Treaty.

I am sure that Lord Alcimus would jump on that offer, he would finally be able to have his revenge, after all.”

Amaya explained her plan.

“And how exactly are we going to defeat the Solid Earth Army? Are you planning to use the Skyfall Army?”

Astaria questioned.

“That would be too inefficient, we know how strong the Solid Earth Army is, if the Shadow Unit is not involved, the Skyfall Army would be destroyed. Even if we involve Shadow Unit, there would be casualties,”

“Then what are you planning.”

“Me, Ember, Thyra, and Skyla would go.”

Nux spoke.

“What?”

Astaria narrowed her eyes.

“Only you four? Do you think you can fight against an entire army on your own?”

“Are you worried about me?”

Nux questioned with a teasing smile on his face.

“I am not joking around, Nux.”

Astaria replied.

“Don’t worry, I alone am enough, however, since I don’t want to take unnecessary risks, I will take them with me, trust me, with 4 of us there, the Solid Earth Army doesn’t stand a chance.”

Nux smiled.

“Are you sure?”

“You think I would joke around with my life?”

“ ... ”

“I am not planning to die before I get you, Astaria.” Nux saw a chance and took his shot again.

“ ... ”

Astaria was out of words.

“Why would you go this far? What do you want the Woods to do in return?”

Astaria then changed the topic.

“We want them to enter the Forbidden Region.”

Amaya revealed.

“HAH!?”

Astaria widened her eyes in surprise.

“The Solid Earth Kingdom started acting strange after they sent an army inside the Solid Earth Kingdom, where the Mythical Beast lives. They must have found something there. We need to know what that is.

Of course, there are chances that the Kingdom has already hidden what they found, however, we still need to know the current condition of the Mythical Beasts.

We need to know if it is alive or not.

We suspect that it is dead, and that is the only reason why the Solid Earth Kingdom is acting like they are acting, however, due to how important this information is, we still need to be sure.

Sending our own people inside the Forbidden Region is useless, therefore, we will use the Woods Dynasty for that.”

Amaya explained.

“And you think the Solid Earth Kingdom will agree to this?”

A smile appeared on Amaya’s face,

“They do not have a choice,

They can either send a few people inside the Forbidden Region to investigate what we want them to investigate, where the chances of their people surviving this situation still exist.

Or they continue their pointless struggle against the Solid Earth Army, either sacrificing their soldiers, or Alcimus joining in and putting the whole Kingdom at risk.

What do you think they would choose?”

Astaria observed Amaya’s expression and blinked a few times.

She then glanced at Nux, even without forming a telepathic connection with her, Nux could still read her expression,

‘Just where in the hell did you find this demon?’

Chapter 522

“What do you think they would choose?”

Astaria observed Amaya’s expression and blinked a few times.

She then glanced at Nux, even without forming a telepathic connection with her, Nux could still read her expression,

‘Just where did you find this demon?’

Seeing this, a proud smile appeared on Nux’s face, he then walked towards Amaya and patted her head,

“See? I told you, didn’t I? All my wives are amazing women.”

“I believe you, your wives are indeed amazing.”

Astaria nodded.

“So? Do you wish to joi-” Nux was about to shoot his shot again, but this time, Astaria had already read him.

“No.”

“Y-You could have at least let me complete my sentence...”

“...” Astaria stared at Nux with a blank look on his face.

“Do you really wish to fight the Solid Earth Army with just you 4 alone? Don’t forget, it may only look like they have 3 Generals in their ranks, but in truth, Herms has used his influence to recruit more King Stage Cultivators in his army.

In truth, they have 7 King Stage Cultivators in their rank. Even if 1 one of them is somehow your subordinate, it would still be a 5v6 battle, not to mention more than 20,000 soldiers behind those 6 King Stage Cultivators.”

Astaria spoke.

“Don’t worry, I can deal with them.”

Nux assured again.

“You seem quite confident in your ability.”

Astaria commented.

“Well, I am strong after all,” Nux spoke as if it was a fact.

“Are you sure it is not overconfidence?” Astaria narrowed her eyes.

A smile appeared on Nux’s face and he replied,

“My belief in my ability is strong, people often misjudge it as overconfidence, but I can assure you, it is not.

I do not do anything I am not sure about.”

Nux smiled.

Astaria however, was still not sure, she knew Nux was strong, stronger than all the King Stage Cultivators she has ever seen, however, in the end, he was still too young.

After gaining that much strength at a young age, it is normal for him to get arrogant.

However, a war is not something one can look down upon.

It is not just a matter of defeating the opponent in front of you, you also have to think about others who might try to attack you from behind, there are chances that you will be surrounded by enemies, there will be a time when you will even run out of Mana, not to mention the allies, you have to look after and support your allies as well.

All in all, participating in a war is not an easy task.

Especially for someone like Nux.

Therefore, after careful consideration, a plan formed in Astaria's mind.

“Alright, I will allow you to go to the Woods Dynasty, however, I have a condition.”

“What is it?”

“Pass my test.”

“Huh? A test?”

“Yes. You say you are stronger than a normal King Stage Cultivator, correct?” Astaria questioned.

“I am.” Nux nodded.

“I need to see how strong you are with my own eyes, therefore, you need to give a test. If your performance is satisfactory, I will allow you to go to the Woods Dynasty, however, if I find your performance lacking, you will listen to what I say and will take more people with you.”

Astaria proposed.

“Alright, I will accept your deal.”

A playful smile then appeared on Nux's face as he continued,

“This will also allow me to show off my skills in front of you.

Fufufu~ look forward to being impressed.”

“Heh, we will see about that.”

Astaria laughed as well.

“Alright, 1 month, the test will be held 30 days later, before that, you can help your wife to deal with the spies.”

“Huh? 30 days is too long, we don’t have that much time, hold the test 3 days later,” Nux replied.

“3 days?” Astaria frowned.

“Yeah, the thing with the Spies won’t take much time anyway. 3 days are more than enough.”

“...”

Astaria didn’t know what to say.

Three days he says...

If dealing with all the spies inside the Kingdom was that easy, the Royal Family wouldn’t have been troubled by this for so long.

Even if he has Amaya, the Leader of the Thousand Information Chamber with her, dealing with all the spies in 3 days is...

Simply impossible.

‘Oh well, it is not like the test will take much time. I am sure he can take some time out.’

Astaria thought inwardly and nodded.

“Alright then, 3 days it is.”

A big smile then appeared on Astaria’s face,

“Be prepared, boy.”

“Heh, be prepared to be surprised as well.”

Nux smiled back.

The two of them looked into each other's eyes for well, and then, Evane stepped in.

“Nux, we should go, it has been an hour, Kelton must be waiting with the Shadow Unit.”

Nux turned towards Evane and nodded,

“Heh, to think I would finally meet the famed Shadow Unit.”

“Even I am looking forward to seeing the Skyfall Kingdom's trump cards.” Ember smiled.

Although Amaya didn't say anything, from her bright expression, Nux was sure that even she was looking forward to it.

Thyra was the same, others, however, didn't seem to be too excited.

They were rather neutral.

Nux smiled, he then turned towards Astaria and bowed his head,

“Then we will be taking our leave, Lady Astaria~”

“I wish you luck.” Astaria smiled back.

Nux and his wives then turned around and left the room.

Once the room was empty, Astaria sighed,

“Monster...”

She muttered to herself.

“Ability to increase his cultivation by having sex, huh...

Absurd indeed.”

’11 Emperor Stage Cultivators is much more efficient.’

Suddenly, Nux's words rang inside Astaria's mind and she clenched her fists.

“Shameless bastard. I need to teach him a lesson. He needs to learn how to respect his elders.”

Arvina spoke and suddenly,

‘Preferring to be seen as an aged woman by others...’

Nux's words rang into her mind again.

“Ugghhh! He is annoying.”

Astaria narrowed her eyes.

Chapter 523

“So Lady Astaria has allowed that little girl to do whatever she wants, huh.”

A man wearing black colored clothes spoke.

“I don’t understand what Lady Astaria is thinking, does she truly believe that the little girl or that husband of hers would be able to find all the spies in the Palace?”

Another person, wearing the same, skintight black colored clothes spoke.

“Well, I have seen how they captured those 12 spies, it seems that those people do have some skills to back up their claims.”

“Don’t fall for obvious traps. I am sure what they did was preplanned. Those so-called spies must be their accomplices.”

“I think so as well. Just think about this, is it really possible to tell apart a spy from a normal person just from one glance? Of course not.

We need to investigate everything properly, even tail the suspect if required, only after days of investigation can one make sure if the suspect is actually a spy or not. It is a complicated process that should not have been left on children’s hands.”

“Haah, Lady Astaria should have given the authority to investigate those pesky nobles to us, if we had that chance, I am sure we could have cleaned the entire Palace within a few months.”

“Indeed.”

“Hmph, now all the authority has been given to that little girl who knows nothing other than fooling others.”

“I think the Skyfall Kingdom is doomed, first, Ricardus, that bastard became the King, and now this little girl who has not even seen the world is going to rule...”

“Alright, I have heard enough.

Stay silent.”

Suddenly, Reeve spoke.

Hearing his words, the other members of the Shadow Unit turned silent.

“I know most of you are not satisfied because Queen Evane summoned you like this, however, you have to know, no matter what, she was someone who was chosen by Lady Astaria and this time, Lady Astaria did not do it out of compulsion.

This time, she actually looks satisfied with the new ruler.

I am sure Lady Astaria saw something before choosing Queen Evane.

I advise you to respect her judgment and give Queen Evane a chance. We do not act on emotions, we only act on proof.

So wait for the proof before coming to any conclusion.”

“We respect Lady Astaria’s decision, that is why we are here in the first place, however, if you are asking me to respect that little girl from the bottom of my heart, then I am sorry, I just ca-”

A King Stage Cultivator was about to reply, however, before he could complete his sentence,

*Creek*

The doors of the Royal Hall opened and Nux and his wives walked in, this time, however, the one who was walking in front of Evane.

“Queen Evane.”

Seeing her, Reeve and Keeve bowed their heads and greeted her.

Evane nodded, then she glanced at other members of the Shadow Unit and noticed that many of them had dissatisfied expressions on their faces.

Evane quickly understood what was going through their mind, a cold look appeared on her face as she started walking towards the Throne.

She climbed the 3 stairs and then, she sat on the throne.

Evane placed her right leg over her left, Nux and his other wives stood behind her, after observing the 100 members of the Shadow Unit in front of her, Evane turned towards Keeve and questioned,

“Are these all the members?”

“Yes, that is correct.”

“I will ask again, none of them is missing, right? Anyone on a mission or something, you need to inform me if that is the case.”

“No, Queen Evane, these are all 100 members of the Shadow Unit.”

Keeve replied.

Evane nodded her head, then she glanced at the Shadow Unit again and soon, she heard Nux’s voice,

‘None of them are spies.’

“Six King Stage Cultivators, 24 Expert Stage Cultivators, 30 Grand Masters, and 40 Masters, that is a strong lineup.”

Evane commented. She then turned towards Evane and questioned,

“I presume that the lockdown is already established?”

“Without a hitch, Queen Evane.”

Keeve nodded.

“Alright, then let’s stop wasting any more time, where are those 12 spies?”
Evane questioned.

“They are locked in the basement, all of them are still unconscious,” Keeve reported.

Evane glanced at Nux.

Nux looked at Keeve and spoke, “Take me there.”

Keeve nodded, he raised his hands and one member of Shadow Unit stepped forward,

“He will take you there,” Keeve replied.

Nux nodded, he then looked at the member who had stepped up and ordered,

“Take the lead.”

The member nodded and started walking.

Nux and Ember followed behind him.

Soon, the three of them left.

“Alright, the two of them will get us new leads.

Now Keeve,”

“Yes, Queen Evane,” Keeve questioned.

“Do you have any suspicions in your mind?”

The question wasn’t clear, however, Keeve understood what Evane wanted to know,

“I am not sure, Queen Evane.”

“That doesn’t matter, even if it is only slightest of the suspicion, just say the name. Also, I am sure you already know this, but their status doesn’t matter either, so you don’t have to hold back.”

Evane then turned towards the other members of Shadow Unit and announced,

“The same goes for you all, if you are suspicious of anyone, just say the name. Leave the investigation to me.”

“Heehh? Does the mighty Queen Evane require our help?”

One of the King Stage Cultivators stepped forward and questioned in a teasing voice.

A frown appeared on Keeve and Reeve’s faces when they heard what the man said, they wanted to step up and stop him, however, Evane was a step ahead.

“If I have to do everything on my own, then what’s the use of feeding you people?”

“What did you say?” The man narrowed his eyes.

“Do you have a hearing problem?”

Do not forget, even if you are King Stage Cultivator, in the end, even if you grew up in the Royal Palace, all the Skills you use, even the Cultivation technique you cultivate, everything was provided by the Kingdom and I am the Queen of this Kingdom.

You are my subordinate who has to do what I order without any other choice.

Keep that in your mind and,

Know your limits.

Don't try to bite more than you can chew."

Chapter 524

“Don’t try to bite more than you can chew.”

Evane spoke in a cold, emotionless tone.

“Y-Y-You, how dare you!? Don’t bite more than I can chew? Trust me, little girl, I can definitely bite what I am chewing right now.

Everything I have was provided by the Kingdom, not you!

You are not even the Queen yet!

Don’t try to order me arou-”

“That is where you are wrong,

Right now, I am the Kingdom.

Under the name of Astaria Skyfall, I have the authority to do whatever I want and order any subject of the Kingdom I want.

And that includes you.”

Evane didn’t allow the man to speak any further and interrupted him.

The man’s face was currently red in anger, he was about to reply, but, before he could, another man stepped forward and interrupted.

“Queen Evane, I apologize for my friend’s behavior, after completing so many missions for the Kingdom and living in the wild for most of his life, he is a little aggressive.

I hope the Queen will be the bigger person here and forgive him.

Of course, I will make sure that this is not repeated again, I take full responsibility.”

Evane glanced at the man who stepped up and her green eyes shined,

[Name: Wysten Karrey.]

[Age: 237]

[Mana Cultivation: King.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal. ]

[Race: Human]

[Occupation: One of the Leaders of the Shadow Unit.]

[Talent: High]

[LVL: 69]

[HP: 840/840]

[MP: 1550/1550]

[STR: 80]

[AGL: 87]

[VIT: 84]

[STM: 79]

[INT: 155]

[DEF: 81]

...

Evane raised her eyebrow when the man's information appeared in front of her.

She had to admit, he was the strongest King Stage Cultivator she has ever seen, after Nux of course.

A level 69, only one step away from the Emperor Stage, however, Evane knew it well, this man will not make it.

He was already 237 years old, he barely had 15-16 years left, with his talent, breaking through the Emperor Stage is nearly impossible.

The frosty look in Evane's eyes warmed a little,

She was not here to fight, since this man has given her the opportunity, she would use it and continue with what she was here for.

“Out of my own respect for you, Senior Wysten, I would let this matter go, since you have already taken the responsibly, I will put my trust in you and continue with what I am here for.”

“!!!”

Hearing her words, Wysten's eyes widened in surprise.

How did she know his name!?

One had to know, even Ricardus didn't know the true strength of the Shadow Unit, and as the strongest member of the Shadow Unit, his identity was confidential, and only Lady Astaris and other King Stage Cultivators of the Shadow Unit knew about him.

Then how...

Wysten's eyes then fell on Amaya who was standing behind Evane.

He observed the woman for a while and a solemn look appeared on his face,

‘Don’t tell me, does her information network extends to even the Shadow Unit?’

This was not a good news.

It could mean many things, there might be a spy in the Shadow Unit.

‘But how is that possible?’

Wysten couldn’t understand.

“Alright, I won’t repeat myself after this, any suspicions, just write them down.”

Evane ordered again, the man who fought with her last time wanted to say something, however, Wysten glared at the man and he lowered his head in fright.

“As you command, Queen Evane.” Wysten bowed and then a paper appeared in his hand.

Seeing him, other King Stage Cultivators followed as well, and seeing them, all the Members of Shadow Unit started writing on the paper.

Evane waited patiently.

‘That man is strong.’

Suddenly, Thyra spoke.

Evane nodded, ‘He is indeed.’

Then, a question appeared in Evane’s mind and she asked,

‘Can you defeat him?’

Thyra turned silent. She narrowed her eyes as she observed Wysten for a while and replied,

‘I can’t.’

‘Hoh? Thyra is admitting her defeat, that’s new.’

Allura jumped into the conversation as well.

‘You were someone who could kill Expert Stage Cultivators when you were only a Grand Master Stage Cultivator, why are you so sure that you would lose to him even though you both are King Stage Cultivators?’

Amaya questioned as well.

‘That man is different.

Just like Keeve, he has been through countless battles and has honed his skills while risking his life, for him, defeating a King Stage Cultivator is an easy task.

Truthfully, even if I was on the same level as him, I am not sure if could defeat him. His experience is far greater than mine, after all.

Of course, it won’t be the same a few years from now on.

In the next few years, I would become an Advance Stage Body Cultivator, by then, defeating him would be a simple task.’

Thyra explained, and the others nodded in understanding.

“Alright guys, let’s get to work, shall we?”

Suddenly, everyone heard a playful voice and turned toward the source.

Their eyes then fell on a handsome man and a beautiful woman, walking while holding each other’s hands with a smile plastered on their faces.

Behind them, there were 12 other people who wore different colored clothes.

The members of Shadow Unit widened their eyes when their eyes fell on those 12 people,

Those were the spies!

This Idiot has freed them!

The members were ready to capture them again, however, soon, the more intelligent ones frowned.

If the spies were freed... then why did they come here, where all of them were present?

Also...

Why are all their faces paler than normal?

It is as if they were...

Scared?

Nux, of course, ignored all the members of Shadow Unit and walked towards Evane.

Evane nodded, she then turned towards the Shadow Unit and ordered.

“Keeve, collect all the papers.”

“As you command, Queen Evane.”

Keeve nodded, then he turned towards the Shadow Unit and raised his arm.

In an orderly manner, the members in the back passed their papers to the members in front, and soon, all the papers were in Keeve’s hand.

“Make a list having all the names here, right the number of times the name was repeated in front of the name, I need the list ready by the time we return.”

“As you command, Queen Evane.”

“Alright now,

Form 12 groups,

1 Expert, 2 Grand Masters, and 3 Master Stage Cultivators in each group.

The leaders of each group will be Keeve, Reeve, and us 12.

Be quick,

We have spies to catch.”

Chapter 525

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

A man wearing black colored clothes knocked on the door,

“Why the hell are you knocking? Just smash the doors.”

He suddenly heard an order and he nodded,

“A-As you command, Queen Evane.”

The man then kicked on the door and,

*Bam*

The door was smashed open.

“Go in.”

As soon as Evane passed the order, 6 men wearing black colored clothes barged into the room.

“W-What? What is happening? How dare you barge into my room like this!? Do you think you can get away- Princess Evane!?”

The room owner, who had just taken a bath, came out of his bathroom wearing a bathrobe with an angry look on his face. However, as soon as his eyes fell on Evane, they widened in surprise.

“P-Princess Evane! What brings you to this lowly servant’s place? You could have summoned me if you needed something, why did you bother to come here?”

As confused as he was, the man didn’t let that affect his judgment and questioned politely.

Evane, however, completely ignored his words and her Green Eyes shined,

[Name: Derrick Role ]

[Age: 25 ]

[Mana Cultivation: Advance.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal. ]

[Race: Human ]

[Occupation: Spy]

[Talent: Medium]

[LVL: 26]

[HP: 280/280]

[MP: 390/390]

[STR: 28]

[AGL: 39]

[VIT: 28]

[STM: 31]

[INT: 39]

[DEF: 29]

...

Evane confirmed her thoughts and,

“Capture him. He will most likely have poison Pill in his mouth, take care of that.”

The 6 Men then pounced on the poor Advance Stage Cultivator and soon, he was apprehended.

Evane then activated [Sense],

Soon, she pointed at a particular wall and ordered,

“You, punch there.”

The man she ordered frowned, however, he still walked toward the wall and punched,

The wall broke down and a safe was discovered,

The man took out the safe, seeing that, the room owner’s eyes widened in surprise and he shouted,

“T-That mine! You can’t do this! My Priv-”

“Shut him up.”

Evane ordered.

The Shadow Unit Member forced a cloth inside the man’s mouth and then tied a cloth around his mouth to ensure that he doesn’t throw the cloth out.

“Mmmhhmmmffmppp!!!”

The man still tried to scream, however, this time, it was a lot less annoying than before.

The safe was then opened by force and other than some gold, a few documents appeared.

Evane took the documents, skimmed through them for a bit, and nodded to herself.

“This much is enough, let’s go. There are more.”

By then, the room owner was tied up and was taken out of the room, while they were taking him out, the spy's eyes fell on a man and they brightened in joy.

He knew this man!

He could save him!

Or that's what he thought, however,

“Who's next?”

Evane questioned.

The Spy's ray of hope crumbled when the man answered,

“Brook Leyn, a woman working in the clothing department, she should be on duty right now,”

The Spy couldn't believe what happened right in front of his eyes...

The man who he trusted... was actually working for them!

Not only that, he was even rating out his other allies!

He betrayed them! He betrayed all of them!

“MMhhMMmmkpp!!”

Even though he couldn't speak, the spy didn't back away from showing his anger, his eyes were red, however, nobody cared about him.

“Alright, let's go to the clothing department,” Evane ordered and started walking.

She then noticed that two men were needed to take this spy with them, an inefficient way indeed.

Evane turned around and suddenly, she kicked the spy.

The spy fell on the floor helplessly, Evane tied a rope around his neck, then she passed the rope to a Master Stage Cultivator,

“Here, drag him with this.”

“A-As you c-command, Q-Queen Evane.”

The Master Stage Cultivator nodded with a surprised look on his face.

Evane, however, started walking, the others started walking behind her, and the man was forced to follow the group as well while dragging a spy by a... rope...

“P-Princess Evane.”

Every servant bowed their head when they saw Evane passing by, however, at the same time, they observed how the man was being taken away and couldn't help but discuss.

“W-What in the hell is happening...”

“Why was he taken away like that...?”

“I don't know... but that... that... seems painful...”

“Painful? That man is nearly choking!”

“Just what did he do to deserve something like this?”

“Who knows...?”

All the people who witnessed this were shocked, scared even, they didn't know what was happening.

Actually, Evane and these 7 were not the only people who were doing this, there were 11 more groups, all of them breaking into people's rooms, capturing people without any explanation, and taking them away.

The guards, the people of the security division, the clothing division, the kitchen, the maids, and many other servants, off duty or on duty, were being captured from all over the Palace.

People were panicking, nobody knew what was happening, this 'random' capturing scared them. Many felt like they would be the ones next.

Some even tried asking the higher-ups, however, all of the higher-ups were silent.

'If you are innocent, then you will be fine...'

That was their only answer.

The Higher-ups knew what was happening.

They saw what happened today, Queen Evane promised to catch all the spies in front of everyone. That woman who seemed to be highly respected by all the King Stage Cultivators gave her the permission to do anything she wanted, to capture anyone she wanted without needing to explain herself.

They knew this was going to happen...

However, they never thought it would this quickly...

A complete cleanup was being carried on in the Royal Palace...

All the higher-ups were looking forward to seeing the results of this cleanup.

Of course, they would have preferred if the responsibility of cleaning all this mess didn't fall on their shoulders...

Explaining everything to the panicked crowd, sealing out the rooms that have been searched through, placing guards everywhere to ensure nobody does anything stupid...

Haahhhh...

All the higher-ups sighed.

Chapter 526

“...”

“So... you are telling me that they are dragging around the people they captured with the ropes that they have... tied around their necks?”

“Y-Yes, that is correct.”

Wysten nodded with a strange expression on his face.

This was his first time witnessing 2-3 people tied up and being dragged around with Ropes around their necks as if they were some dogs. To be honest, even with their limbs tied, some were trying to crawl in order to avoid choking...

Honestly, it was a frightening scene.

Wysten didn't know how Queen Evane was planning to deal with the innocents who were dragged around like spies because of a misunderstanding...

“Is this... cleanup still going on...?” Astaria questioned.

“It has slowed down, Keeve and Reeve have stopped after capturing 2 Suspects each, to be honest, they are the only ones who dragged around the suspects in a proper manner.”

Wysten answered.

Inwardly, he hoped that if there are innocents amongst the spies, they should be amongst the 4 Suspects Keeve and Reeve captured.

“So... the rest of them are still going...?”

Astaria questioned.

“Yes, that man named Nux has already captured around 5 suspects...”
Wysten replied.

“And those 5...?”

“Being dragged around in the same way...”

“...”

Astaria didn't know what to say.

In the end, a long sigh escaped her mouth,

“I feel bad for the Head of the Security Department, the leader of the Royal Guards, and the head of the Management Section...”

“Indeed... they have a lot to do...”

Wysten couldn't help but nod.

The three of them would be the ones to deal with all this chaos after all. He was sure that their office was already filled with complaints.

Yes, complaints against the Future Queen of the Kingdom...

Most of the people in the Royal Palace only treat Evane as a Princess, of course, after what has happened to other Princes, the only available option is her, they had a rough idea that Evane would be the next Queen, however, not many knew what had happened to the current King.

Therefore, not many of them knew that ‘Princess Evane would become the Queen in the future,’ actually means that ‘Princess Evane would become the Queen in the next few days.’

Wysten couldn't even imagine how difficult it would be to manage and read the complaints about your future Queen.

“Should I... send some of the Shadow Unit Members to help them?”

“Do you even have the authority to do that?” Astaria questioned.

“Huh?”

Wysten frowned in confusion.

He was the lead-

He suddenly realized.

“Don’t forget, the entire Shadow Unit is under her right now. Some of you might be free, however, she might order you again. Don’t do anything unnecessary.

The Shadow Unit’s first encounter with her is already bad enough.”

“...”

Wysten turned silent.

“I already had a little chat with him.”

“That is good, don’t let it repeat again.”

“I won’t.”

Wysten nodded, then, a frown appeared on his face,

“But I still don’t understand.”

“What?”

“Those spies... they are the people who keep a pill inside their mouth, ready to die at any moment in order to not leak any information.

People like them are extremely loyal.

I get it if 1 or 2 out of those 12 would give in to torture and would be willing to rat out their allies in order to escape it, but...

All of them?

To turn all the people, who are even willing to kill themselves for the sake of their masters, to his side...

Just what did that man do?

Torture, bribe, or is it something else?

Just how in the hell did he do it?"

No matter how hard he thought about it, Wysten couldn't come up with an answer.

"You sent one of your members with him, right? You didn't ask him?"

Astaria questioned back.

To be honest, even she was curious how that boy did it.

Actually, not just these spies, but even that General of Solid Earth Kingdom... just how did that boy manage to turn them into his side?

"I did, however, he was ordered to stop outside the prison. Other than screams, he didn't hear anything.

To be honest, from what he told me,

Those screams were straight-up horrifying.

And this was coming from a man who has tortured countless people before..."

"So it is some sort of torture huh..." Astaria nodded to herself.

"If I am being honest, I think it is something different.

The time that man took was far too less. There is no way he could torture 12 people in that much time and force them to listen to his orders."

Wysten replied.

“ ... ”

Astaria turned silent.

“ ... ”

Wysten didn't say anything either, he was still thinking about all this.

“That boy is a mystery huh...”

Suddenly, Astaria commented.

“It is not just him, everyone around him is the same, they are all monsters with ridiculously high Cultivation Talent, to be honest, Ember, the General of the Woods Dynasty, a prodigy dulls out when she is among those monsters.

She is the least talented in that group.

For a prodigy renowned throughout the world to seem dull when she is in that group...

One can only imagine how ridiculous that group is...”

Wysten spoke.

“Not to mention they have someone like Amaya in their group as well and this time, she is someone who is not being held back by that curse of hers.

I can't even imagine how ridiculously troublesome having the current her as her enemy might be.

The entire Thousand Information Chamber is moving as if they have been possessed.

To be honest, I sometimes fear that even our Queen might be dulled out if she stays in that group.

None of those women seems normal to me.”

Hearing his words, Astaria sighed.

‘If only you knew that all those women’s cultivation came from that boy alone...’

Then, a small smile appeared on her face,

‘I wonder what other secrets are you hiding, boy.’

“Alright, I want you to do something for me.”

“Just give the command, Lady Astaria.”

“3 days later...”

Chapter 527

“Sir Oswin.” A servant entered the room and called out.

“What? Is it another complaint?”

The head of the Security Division, Oswin Aiere, questioned with a frustrated and annoyed look on his face.

“Didn’t I tell you to collect all the complaints and only give them to me when you collect 100 of them?”

Wait, did you collect 100 of them already!? But you just came in an hour ago.”

Oswin’s face paled.

“No, that’s not it, there are only 43 right now,”

“Then why are you here?”

“It is Princess Evane.”

“Princess Evane? She is here?”

Oswin stood up.

“No, I am here because she has summoned all of you and all your direct subordinates, urgently.”

“Huh?” Oswin frowned.

“Your subordinates are already waiting for you outside.”

“But why have she summoned us?”

“The messenger didn’t clarify, he only told us that all the higher-ups of the Security Division, Management Division, and the Royal Guards are summoned.”

“A-alright, I will be there, wait for me.”

“As you command.” The servant nodded and walked out.

A frown appeared on Oswin’s face, he quickly wore his coat, then walked in front of a Mirror and fixed his appearance, once he was ready, he walked out and saw all his direct subordinates waiting for him.

“Shall we go, Sir Oswin?”

Oswin nodded.

The 8 of them started walking towards the Royal Hall.

“ ... ”

Once they walked into the Royal Hall, Oswin and his subordinates turned silent as their eyes fell on over 100 people, tied up and lying on the floor.

Above them, on the Throne, sat Evane, and behind her stood the Queen’s Husband and her Harem Sisters...

Oswin’s eyes then fell on the people of the Management Division and the Royal Guards, who, just like them, had shocked and dumbfounded looks on their faces.

“You people are here.”

Evane called out.

“Queen Evane.”

Oswin, the Head of the Management Division, and the Leader of the Royal Guards bowed their heads at the same time.

Their subordinates followed their actions as well, however, at the same time, a frown appeared on their faces.

‘Queen Evane?’

Why are they calling her the ‘Queen?’

Also, why was Princess Evane sitting on the Royal Throne?

Where is the King? What about the Royal Ministers?

Where are they all?

They couldn’t understand.

However, seeing that their heads had no problem with what they were seeing, they didn’t raise their voice either.

“These were all the Spies who we captured in the first round of cleanup. The proof of their crimes is tied on their backs.”

Only when Evane pointed it out did they notice some papers that were tied on those people’s backs.

“In total, there are 117 of them, you can read, copy, take, or do whatever you want with these proves, I don’t care.

However, I want you all to imprison all of them, make sure that they don’t kill themselves, calm the people who are panicked, and arrange their execution in two days, by today.”

“B-By today?”

Oswin stuttered.

Evane glanced at him and narrowed her eyes,

“Is that hard?”

“W-We can do all of that, however, currently, the panic amongst people is too high, and our offices are flooded with complaints, questions, and whatnot. Calming them down by today...

It would certainly not be an easy task.”

“...”

Evane placed her finger and thumb on her chin and started thinking about it.

“You already have all the proves you need, why are you worrying so much?”

Suddenly, Amaya questioned.

“I don’t understand.” Oswin tilted his head in confusion.

“Use the proof we gave you to talk with everyone.

‘The people who were captured were the people who were the spies who have been eating out our Kingdom from within. They were the enemies who were planning our fall and were helping enemy nations. Capturing them all like this was a great mission that was only executed today after many years of planning. Now with all the traitors gone, the Kingdom would operate a lot more smoothly than before, with the innocent people receiving many benefits and security will never be sacrificed.’

Using words like ‘more security’, ‘benefits’ or more positive words should calm them down without any problems.”

“Mhm, you people should divide all the work amongst you.

The Management Division should calm the people, the Security Division should prepare the execution and the Royal Guards should imprison these people.

I don’t think all this is anything complicated at all.”

Ember nodded to herself.

“Or maybe they are just incompetent?”

Suddenly, Nux teased with a small smile on his face.

Oswin narrowed his eyes as he glanced at Nux.

“Surely Nux is wrong, right?” Suddenly, Evane questioned.

“Yes, Queen Evane.” Oswin nodded.

“Then prove him wrong,” Evane ordered.

“”As you command, Queen Evane.””

All the heads bowed their heads.

“You are excused.”

Evane then closed her eyes.

“Ummm, Queen Evane...” Suddenly, the Head of the Management Division, Esmond, called out.

“What is it?” Evane glanced at him and questioned.

“You said that this was the result of the First Round... does that mean there are more rounds...?” Esmond.

“There should be more Spies hiding in the Palace, yes, however, these were all the spies that had ties with the higher-ups, the ones who were responsible for the main information leak.

Of course, that doesn't mean that I am planning to leave the spies left, there will be more cleanup rounds in the future.”

Evane answered, then suddenly, her expression changed. She glanced at Amaya and the woman nodded. A small smile appeared on Evane's face as she turned toward the Head of the Management System.

“Aldway.”

She called out.

“At your command, Queen Evane.”

“I have another job for you.

Once you have calmed everyone down, make an announcement.

‘For the next 7 days, everyone is allowed to file a ‘Suspicion’ against anyone they want. If their suspect actually turns out to be a spy, he or she will be awarded greatly. You are to create a separate division to manage that all. The Division will come under your upkeep, you can even appoint someone you trust as a Leader.

Talk with Lady Amaya here to make the system more robust so that it is not misused.

Establish this Division within the next 2 days.

This way, the spies won’t just have to worry about us, but even the people around them as well.

From now on,

Everyone will be hunting the spies.”

Chapter 528

“From now on, everyone will be hunting the spies.”

The new Law was enacted, a new Division was created, the spies who had barely survived after the first wave of clean-up were all tensed.

The new Law was simply a nightmare for them since everyone was out there trying to hunt spies since the rewards were so tempting.

Of course, it was taken care that the law wasn't misused, every person was only allowed to have 5 failed guesses, and even those guesses should have a valid reason behind them.

10 more spies were caught using this method, and when people saw how the one who filed the suspicion was actually rewarded, they were even more motivated to catch spies and started paying more attention to their surroundings.

At the same time, Princess Evane's reputation took a huge boost, both amongst the innocents and the guilty.

For the innocents, Princess Evane was like an angel of justice, who was sent by the heavens to reform the entirety of the Royal Palace, and for the guilty, Princess Evane was a cruel demon who is hunting them down from the depth of hell.

Was the combined reaction positive or negative?

Well, it was positive for now, however, the more perceptive people could see a small wave that rising silently but at an alarming rate.

In the end, the Royal Palace was not a place filled with saints, quite the opposite actually, the Royal Palace was filled with the most corrupt of the people one could ever find.

Princess Evane was only going after Spies right now, however, who could guarantee that she won't go after others in the future?

The corrupt officials had already started spreading rumors about how Princess Evane was not suitable to become the Queen, how she is getting rid of people she does not like by calling them spies and forging fake proof, how Princess Evane plans to change the entirety of the staff of the Royal Palace to replace them with her own people to take full control over everything, and more and more.

Of course, these officials worked in shadow, and tracing who started the rumors was difficult, however, rumors like these spread fast, and Evane's reputation, which was rising at a significant rate was also being negatively affected by this.

What did Princess Evane do about it?

Well, it was easy.

Tracing those officials may be difficult, however, with someone like Amaya and the absurd abilities of Nux, it wasn't that hard.

Then what? A series of silent assassinations.

A Royal Statement was then declared,

'Loyal and Honest Officials lost their lives, this could only mean that the spies are getting restless from our operations and are acting recklessly, we will not let the sacrifices of these honest Officials be in vain,

We will continue our operation.

The rewards of successfully suspecting a Spy and reporting it to the Spy Division are now increased, we promise to catch these assassins soon.'

With this little trick, everything was solved, with no one fueling the rumors, they soon died down, and Princess Evane's reputation continued to grow.

Just like that, 3 days passed by.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

In the morning, someone knocked on Princess Evane's room, Nux opened the door,

“Sir Nux,”

The Servant greeted, Nux nodded, an envelope then appeared in the Servant's hand and he passed it to Nux,

“I was ordered to deliver this to you.”

Nux accepted the envelope and nodded. The servant walked away, Nux closed the door and opened the envelope.

‘In the afternoon, 3 pm, Main Training Hall.’

Yes, that was it.

That was the letter.

Seeing this, a smile couldn't help but appear on Nux's face as he shook his head,

‘That is so like her.’

“What happened?”

Evane walked towards Nux and questioned.

“Well, it seems that she is done with her preparations, 3 pm.”

“Heh, a wonder how she is going to test you.”

Thyra chuckled.

“Well, since it is about fighting a war, I believe it would be a 1vmany battle,” Ember spoke with a confident look on her face.

Out of all of them, she was the one who knew about war the most, if she wanted to test if someone is suitable for war or not, 1vmany battles would definitely be on her test list.

“I agree, it would be 1vmany.” Amaya nodded.

“It is not like it is going to be hard for Nux.” Skyla smiled brightly.

“Tsk, he would just use this opportunity to try and impress her.”

Felberta snorted.

“Ahh, my love knows me so we-”

Nux wanted to reply, however, before he could complete his sentence,

“Hmph!”

Felberta snorted.

Nux turned towards the other, and as if they had planned it before, they all snorted as well.

Nux sighed,

He would need a lot of time to deal with this...

Well, without waiting any further, he walked towards his women and... continued with his thing.

...

Time passed, it was now 2:50 in the afternoon, Nux and his women walked out of their room with bright smiles on their faces, and within a few minutes, they arrived in the Main Training hall.

“Now isn’t this a party~”

Nux commented with a playful smile on his face.

In front of him stood Astaria, behind her stood General Phorus, Royal Consort Iria, and a few others.

“Are you prepared, boy?”

Astaria questioned with a smile on her face.

“Of course I am.” Nux smiled back.

Hearing his answer, frowns appeared on Iria and Phorus’s faces.

‘How can this man talk to Lady Astaria so disrespectfully? Insolent!’

Astaria, however, didn’t seem to mind, she just smile and pointed in a certain direction,

“You see those Camps there?”

“Mhm.”

“That’s where your enemies are.”

“Got it.”

“You will attack their camp.”

“Ahh, so is this a sort of flag game, where I have to grab a flag or something?”

“Huh? There are no flags or anything like that, you just need to attack their camp and,

Come back alive.”

“Hmm, well that seems simple, so I just need to walk into their camp and defeat them, right?”

“Don’t you want to know who your enemies are?” Astaria questioned.

“I already know about it,

I am quite excited to fight them, actually.”

Nux replied.

Hearing his answer, Astaria’s smile widened and she replied,

“All the best then,

I hope you do not underestimate the Shadow Unit.”

Chapter 529

With a smile on his face, Nux walked towards the camp in front of him.

“How long do you think he will survive?”

General Phorus questioned.

“15 minutes.” Iria was quick to answer.

“You have quite a high opinion of him, don’t you?” General Phorus spoke.

“Well, he seems quite confident, I gave him additional points for that,” Iria spoke with a small smile on her face.

“Oh ho? Well, I think it would be a great feat if he survives even for 10 minutes.” General Phorus replied, he then turned towards Astaria and questioned,

“What about you, Lady Astaria, what do you think?”

“Hmmm, if the boy gets lucky, then 30 minutes, if not then 20 maybe, it depends really.”

Astaria answered.

“Heeh? 30 Minutes huh... I don’t understand why you two have such a high evaluation of him.” Phorus commented.

“But I still don’t get it.”

Suddenly, Iria frowned as she glanced at Astaria,

“This test of yours, it is simply impossible to pass it, even you know it. Why even bother doing something like this then?”

“Well, what he wants to do is simply impossible as well, I won’t allow him to lose his life by doing something stupid.

Can’t let our future Queen become a widow, now can I?”

Astaria replied.

An amused smile appeared on Phorus’s face as he turned towards Evane,

“What about you, Queen Evane, how long do you think he will survive.”

Evane frowned, she was about to answer with her usual cold look, however, before she could, Amaya jumped in.

“10 Minutes would be enough.”

Hearing this answer, the General laughed out loud.

“Hahaha! As expected of Lady Amaya, your analysis seems as accurate as always, surviving for 10 minutes would indeed be a great achievement. Even I don’t think I can survive for that long.

He is up against the Shadow Unit, after all.

This test is unfavorable for him to begin with.”

“I don’t think you got what she wanted to say, General Phorus.”

Suddenly, Ember spoke as well.

“Huh?” Phorus frowned.

A smile then appeared on Ember’s face and she commented,

“She meant that 10 minutes would be enough to finish this test. However, I would like to say, her analysis seems wrong here, 5 minutes would be more than enough.”

Amaya, however, shook her head,

“Along with 6 King Stage Cultivators, there are 94 small fries as well, defeating them would take some time. Don’t forget, he is cannot kill them, so it makes things a little more complicated.”

“Ahh, he can’t kill, right.

I failed to notice that, my bad.

It would indeed take around 10 minutes to deal with the small fries.”

Ember nodded in agreement as well.

Amaya nodded back.

The others nodded as well.

As for General Phorus, Iria and Astaria... they couldn’t help but stare at these women with dumbfounded looks on their faces.

S-Small fries...?

Did they just call the members of the Shadow Unit, the strongest Kingdom in the whole world, small fries?

A-And why were they acting like no killings was actually a disadvantage for him!? He will die if it was an actual battle you know!? What the hell were these women talking about!?

“D-Do you people even know how strong the Shadow Unit is? Or are you just spouting nonsense with half-baked knowledge?” General Phorus couldn’t control himself and question.

“Trust me, I know what I am talking about.”

“You...”

Before the General could say anything,

“It is starting.”

Evane who was looking at the ‘battlefield’ spoke.

Everyone turned towards the battlefield and noticed that without any strategy whatsoever, Nux directly walked into one of the larger tents, the tent that should belong to a...

King Stage Cultivator.

General Phorus, Iria, and even Astaria became excited, thinking how intense the fight would be, however, to their shock,

Nux suddenly walked out of the Tent without any changes in his appearance whatsoever.

“W-Was the tent empty?” General Phorus couldn’t help but question.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Iria and Astaria turned silent.

Nux’s women just smiled.

Nux then walked into another tent and around 30 seconds later, he walked out again.

He repeated the same step, this time, however,

*Weeeeeeeeeuuueeeeeee*

A loud siren sound was heard, Nux walked out of the tent with a slight frown on his face.

He then noticed all the members of the Shadow Unit had come out of their tents and were running around.

“Where is he!?”

“When did he attack!?”

“Check all the tents, he must be hiding in one of them!”

Chaos ensued, General Phorus, on the other hand, couldn't believe what he was seeing.

“What are they!? Blind!? He is right there! How the hell can they not see him!?”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Iria and even Astaria had frowns on their face.

Nux, however, didn't know what they were thinking, he followed a group that went inside a tent to search for him and knocked all of them down. Then he reactivated his [Conceal] and walked out.

Then, he followed another group going into another tent, and knocked them out as well. He continued the same method and Phorus on the other hand couldn't believe the absurdity,

“H-He just passed through Reeve! How did he not see him!? He was right in front of him! Wait, has he already talked with the Shadow Unit!? Are they taking his orders?”

“You think the Shadow Unit would go against Lady Astaria?”

Allura couldn't help but question.

“ ... ”

Phorus turned silent.

“What is happening there...?”

Iria questioned as she turned towards Nux's women.

The women, however, just smiled and didn't say anything,

“The small fries are taking longer than expected,

8 minutes have passed by already.”

Ember frowned.

“Mhm, well, I guess following them inside the tent is taking some time, plus, they also know that their members are missing and are sticking together now.” Felberta nodded.

“I think he will stop sneaking around now then now, he has already dealt with so many, taking on the last 30 in a direct fight should be simple,” Thyra spoke.

“Do you think he will go after the 3 King Stage Cultivators left before appearing in front of them?” Suddenly, Ember asked an interested question.

A smile appeared on Amaya's face as she answered,

“He will not. I am sure he will take them on directly.”

“Yeah, he still has to ‘impress a certain someone’ after all. Hmph!”

Felberta spoke sarcastically and then snorted.

Chapter 530

*Loud Siren Sound*

“Where is he!?”

“Have you checked that tent!?”

“No, I have not!”

“Hey! There are 12 more unconscious here!”

“Leave them, search other tents!”

“9 unconscious here!”

“7 here!”

“11 here!”

“If every tent is filled with unconscious bodies, then where the hell is that man!?”

“Hey! Don’t keep standing there, look for him!”

Chaos was spread around the area, the whole Shadow Unit’s Camp was a big mess with every member running around, panicked, confused, and clueless about what to do.

“Lord Keeve! He is not here as well, what should we do?”

“...”

Keeve, as one of the leaders of the Shadow Unit, only stood there with a shocked look on his face.

‘W-What is happening?’

He couldn't understand.

He was only sitting around, knowing that his Unit will be attacked soon by that man. He was already informed about this test by Lady Astaria.

He was told to hold back and to let that man take out a few lower-level members before he went into action.

This was meant to be a test for that man, a test he shouldn't be able to pass.

But...

But what in the hell is happening!?

W-What is that monster!?

He has already taken out more than half of their members, and it was not just low-level members, 3 King Stage Cultivators were among them as well!

And it hasn't even been 10 minutes since this test started!

And this all wasn't even the worst part,

The worse part was that they still had no idea where that man was!

He continued to eliminate more and more members of his Shadow Unit, but nobody could see how and where he did it.

The members try to find him in a tent, but the only thing they find is the unconscious bodies of their teammates.

A single man was playing around with his entire Unit.

Keeve couldn't believe it.

“Lord Keeve!”

Another member shouted for help.

‘Don’t blame me for playing dirty as well.’

Keeve thought inwardly then, he took a deep breath and shouted,

“Everyone, Formation O!”

As soon as they heard these words, all the members of the Shadow Unit stopped whatever they were doing and quickly gather around Keeve.

Within 10 seconds, all the members regrouped.

The logic was simple.

There was no point in going against that strange monster, with him sneaking around like that, they would only end up losing their teammates.

Therefore, regrouping was the only option left.

Rather than hunting for Nux in different groups, they would form a big group, waiting for Nux to appear in front of them instead.

It was not a test for them, it was a test for Nux.

They were in no rush to complete it, they could stand there for days, Nux, however, did not have that option. He had to appear in front of them eventually.

A cowardly move, yes.

However, the Shadow Unit losing a battle against a single man was even more shameful.

Keeve cannot allow this to happen.

A solemn look appeared on Keeve’s face, of course, he wasn’t the least bit happy about his plan, even if he won, his heart would never accept this victory, however, in the end, a fight was a fight.

Keeve prepared himself and waited for Nux to appear in front of him.

“ ... ”

An eerie silence fell over the place, everyone waited for Nux to appear, and all the members of the Shadow Unit were on high alert.

*Step*

Suddenly, everyone heard a sound.

Their heads turned towards the direction in a millisecond,

*Step* *Step* *Step*

There, they saw Nux walking out of a tent with a small smile on his face.

“You finally regrouped huh... It took you longer than I expected...”

“You are strong,” Keeve spoke.

“Don’t act like you didn’t know it already.”

Nux smiled.

“I di-”

Keeve was about to reply, however suddenly, Nux disappeared.

“!!!”

Keeve’s eyes widened in surprise, his whole body went on full alert,

*Thud*

Soon, he heard a sound, he turned and saw one of his unit members pass out, behind him stood Nux, who was already attacking another member.

“Attack him!”

Keeve ordered.

All the members of the Shadow Unit, including Keeve, Reeve, and Wysten rushed toward Nux. Nux of course, wasn't scared, he continued to attack more and more members, the moment he thought that he would be surrounded, he disappeared and appeared in another direction and continued his attacks.

He wasn't using any skills, in particular, he only used his hands to attack behind their necks, knocking them out.

This made it even more shameful for the members of the Shadow Unit and raised their anger and frustration.

Nux, however, was not doing that to annoy them or anything like that.

The answer was simple, if he used his skills here, they would die.

He wanted to impress Astaria, however, he was not planning to kill these people, they would be his wife's subordinates in the future.

“Attack him!”

“Don't let him get away!”

“He disappeared! Be aware! He will appear behind y-Uggghh!”

“Stop shouting you idiot, you have to be alert as well.”

Nux shook his head in disappointment.

“You bastard!”

A Grand Master Stage Cultivator jumped at him with his sword in his hand,

Nux easily dodged his attack and attacked the back of his neck as well.

“Uggghh!!”

The man passed out as well.

Another man rushed towards Nux and tried to punch his face, Nux crouched, punched his stomach, the man fell on his knees and started coughing, Nux then kicked another man who was rushing towards him from behind, the man's body flew away and fell on a tent, destroying the whole thing.

Nux then knocked out the man who was still coughing due to his punch.

Four more members attacked him, and he dodged and knocked them out as well.

By now, the King Stage Cultivator realized what he was trying to do.

Therefore, to respect his wishes, or... may be trying to save the last strand of self-respect they were left with, none of them attacked.

They waited for Nux to defeat all the... 'small fries' and once Nux was done with it.

The three of them would face him together.

Nux, however, had a different plan in his mind.

As he knocked down the last of the small fries, he glanced at the Three King Stage Cultivators.

Their body felt a slight shiver when they felt their gaze, soon, however, they took their battle stance, showing that they were ready for the last battle.

Nux, however, pointed at the 3 King Stage Cultivators who had passed out and smiled, “Wake them up, you don't stand a chance without them.

I want to fight the bests of Shadow Unit, this time, without any tricks involved.”

Chapter 531

“I want to fight the bests of Shadow Unit, this time, without any tricks involved,”

Nux spoke with a small smile on his face.

Hearing his words, Keeve narrowed his eyes and commented.

“You are underestimating us.”

“Huh?”

Nux, however, just frowned and looked around him.

“...”

Keeve turned silent.

Nux was right.

He was not underestimating them.

More than 30 bodies lying around him proved that. Not to mention other bodies that were still inside all these tents.

Suddenly, Wysten closed his eyes and sighed.

Then, he walked towards the unconscious King Stage Cultivators, fed them a healing potion, and started tending to them.

“Sir Wysten...”

Keeve called out.

Wysten however, shook his head,

“Don’t bother, we had already abandoned our pride when we use Formation O.”

Wysten replied, he then turned towards Nux and spoke,

“I underestimated you, bo- no, Lord Nux.”

Nux just smiled.

“However, this last fight will not be easy for you.”

“We will see about that.” Nux didn’t back down.

Soon, the 3 King Stage Cultivators woke up.

With fuzzy heads, they looked around, and as soon as they did, their eyes widened in horror.

The members of the Shadow Unit were lying around as if they were all dead.

J-Just what happened?

Who attacked the Royal Palace?

How did they take out so many of them?

Why don’t they remember anything?

They all wondered inwardly. They then tried looking around and their eyes fell on Wysten.

“Sir Wysten...”

Wyot, the man who went against Evane the first time they met, questioned.

“J-Just what happened?”

The other King Stage Cultivators had the same question so they nodded.

Wysten sighed, he didn't reply and directly turned towards Nux, who, just like the good person he was, patiently waiting for them to finish this little touching act.

Of course, he didn't forget to have a villainous smile on his face.

Couldn't continue without it, now could he?

Wyot and the other two King Stage Cultivators turned towards Nux and seeing all those bodies lying around him, their eyes widened in horror.

They quickly recalled how they had passed out, especially Valora, the King Stage Cultivator who was able to activate the siren before she was knocked unconscious.

“Get up, we need to fight.”

Wysten spoke.

Keeve and Reeve walked towards them as well, the Three King Stage Cultivators understood what happened.

A glint shone in their eyes as their expression turned determined, they stood up facing Nux, then, their weapons appeared in their hands.

Wysten, Keeve, and Reeve didn't hold back either, their weapons appeared in their hands as well.

The Shadow Unit was not known as the strongest unit in the world just because they had 6 Cultivators in their rank, the other reason, and probably the major reason for that is because of the synergy between these 6 King Stage Cultivators.

Out of the 6 King Stage Cultivators, Keeve and Reeve used swords, Wysten used a Great Sword, Valora used a bow, Wyot used a huge Shield and his Fist, and the remaining King Stage Cultivator, Trever, used daggers.

Yes, a perfect team, with perfect synergy, a near-perfect defense, and offense, this was the reason why the Shadow Unit was known as the strongest.

“Are you ready?”

Wysten, keeping his Great Sword on his shoulder, questioned.

Seeing this, Nux’s smile widened.

“You all look like Power Rangers.”

“Huh? Power Rangers?”

Wysten frowned.

“Nothing, forget I said anything.”

Nux shook his head, the ring on his finger shined and a Black Sword with Purple colored patterns appeared in his hand.

“Huh? Is he that serious?”

Ember questioned with a curious look on her face.

“He has his reasons.”

Amaya answered as she momentarily glanced at Astaria.

Ember and others understood and shook their heads.

“Alright, this time, I will take the initiative.”

Nux’s smile faded away and then, he disappeared.

*Clank*

This time, however, Wyot reacted quickly and blocked his attacks with his huge shield.

Valora jumped back and aimed her bow at Nux, waiting for an opportunity to attack.

Keeve and Reeve appeared from opposite sides, trying to attack Nux. Nux glanced at Wyot, then, he increased the strength behind his attack and pushed him away.

Suddenly, 2 Black Purple colored Walls popped out of the ground,

*Clank*

Successfully blocking Reeve and Keeve's attacks.

Nux then turned towards Wysten who was attacking him with his Great Sword,

*Clank*

Nux blocked the attack with his own sword,

*Whoosh*

Seeing this opportunity, Valora shot an arrow, aiming at his back.

Nux, whose [Sense] was active throughout the battle knew what she was planning, he waited till the last moment, and just as the arrow was about to touch him, he crouched.

The arrow passed right above his head, without harming him, however, the same couldn't be said for Wysten, who lost his balance due to Nux's sudden movement.

Not having enough time, he was forced to take this attack head-on, in the end, he protected his head and the arrow pierced his right shoulder.

“Ugghh!” He groaned in pain.

Nux used this opportunity to rush towards Trever, who was still hiding.

Trever's eyes widened in surprise.

'How did he find me!?'

This was the question that appeared in his mind before he was knocked out, again.

Suddenly, Keeve and Reeve appeared in front and behind Nux, their swords aiming at his vital points.

However, before they could even attack, their eyes widened in surprise and they quickly jumped away.

As soon as they jumped away, Purple Black Spikes popped out of the spot they were standing at.

If they hadn't moved, these large spikes would have pierced their bodies.

However, before Keeve and Reeve could sigh, they noticed that the spot where they were about to land had turned Purple Black as well, their eyes widened in surprise, they prepared their swords, to clash with the spikes since they couldn't avoid it anymore.

"Ugghh!!"

On the other hand, Valora, who was completely defenseless was attacked by Nux and was knocked out as well.

Nux didn't miss this opportunity, he rushed towards Wysten, the two of them shared a few blows before Wysten was knocked out as well.

The next to be knocked out were Keeve and Reeve, and the only one left was...

Wytot.

"Heh, I wanted to have a little chat with you,"

Suddenly, Nux smiled.

“W-What do you mean?” Wyot questioned.

“I heard that you greeted my wife quite warmly when you two met,

As a responsible husband, I have to return the favor, don't I?”

Nux's smile turned demonic.

Chapter 532

“I heard that you greeted my wife quite warmly when you two met,
As a responsible husband, I have to return the favor, don't I?”

Nux's smile turned demonic.

Seeing that smile on his face, Wyot's body trembled.

He was definitely regretting saying whatever he said earlier.

‘Why the hell do you have to open that fucking mouth of yours everywhere, you idiotic bastard!?’

He cursed himself inwardly.

“Hmm? So what did you say? That you won't listen to her orders, that she is not even the actual Queen? Hmmm? What else? Was there something else?” Nux started pondering.

“I-I...”

Wyot didn't know what to say.

No traces of his past arrogance could be seen.

Who was he kidding!?

Just look at the ground.

Valora, Trever, Keeve, Reeve, and even Sir Wysten, all of them were lying on the ground, unconscious, just how can he defeat a monster who defeated all of them at the same time?

Not to mention, that he did it after defeating all of the other members of the Shadow Unit.

“I... I... d-didn't...”

In the end, Wyot could only stutter.

Suddenly, Nux's demonic smile disappeared and,

“Hahaha~”

He started laughing out loud. Then, he started patting Wyot's shoulder.

“Hahaha~ Don't worry, I am not that petty to bother about things like that. Also, my wife is not someone who needs my protection, she can stand on her own. So don't worry, I was just joking around.”

Nux spoke.

Wyot smiled and nodded his head,

Inwardly, however, he was cursing his luck to get on this bastard's bad side.

‘Joking around? Are you telling me that Killing Intent surrounding your body was all a joke!? Joke my ass! You aren't fooling anyone with that fake smile of yours!’

Wyot swore inwardly as he continued to look at Nux's face.

Suddenly, Nux's face turned serious again.

Wyot's heart skipped a beat.

‘D-Did he hear my thoughts?’

He even started thinking about absurd things now.

“Well, the jokes and all could go on, I still need to finish this test.”

Wyot finally realized that they were still in the middle of the battle.

‘How could I forget that?’

He thought inwardly, then suddenly, his eyes widened in surprise, he prepared his shield, ready for Nux’s attack, however, before he could even take his battle stance,

He felt a slight impact on the back of his neck and he felt his vision blurring away.

It was something very similar to what happened a few minutes ago.

With different thoughts in his mind, Wyot finally lost consciousness and fell on the ground.

*Thud*

“Haahh... that was the last one.”

Nux sighed deeply, then he wiped out his clean forehead, acting like he did a big job, his sword disappeared and he turned towards Astaria and the others.

“That was a difficult test indeed.”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Iria and Phorus’s mouths twitched.

Monster, this man was a complete monster.

The two of them then turned towards Nux’s women, however, a frown appeared on their faces when they noticed a disappointed frown rather than a happy smile on Amaya and Ember’s faces.

“It took 17 Minutes, our calculations were wrong...” Amaya commented.

“It’s not our fault, that bastard was talking and chilling around while fighting, if he was a bit more serious, he could have done it within 10 minutes,” Ember spoke.

“But it is Nux... we should have calculated the time he would waste in... being Nux...”

Amaya started thinking and analyzing.

“...” Ember turned silent.

“Oh c’mon, don’t be too hard on yourself. You did good, though I don’t know what you even did.”

Nux then appeared in front of Amaya and started patting her head.

As he continued to pat, Amaya’s frown continued to fade as well, soon, the frown on her face was replaced by a tiny smile and as if trying to hide her expression from others, she buried her face in Nux’s chest and continued to enjoy his pats.

“Tsk, sometimes I feel like you act like this just so you could get his attention.”

Seeing this scene, Ember commented.

Amaya turned her head towards Ember, then, without saying anything, she buried her face into Nux’s chest again.

Ember’s eyes widened,

“Wait... you don’t actually do it to gain his attention, do you?”

“...” Amaya didn’t answer.

Different possibilities appeared in Ember’s mind.

“Tsk, don’t act like you don’t ever try to act spoiled to get his attention.”

Felberta, who was standing beside Ember snorted.

“W-What are you even talking about?”

Ember retorted as quickly as she could.

Felberta just snorted.

Nux sighed and then started hugging all his women.

Seeing this scene, Iria and Phorus didn’t know how to react.

This scene was just too... bizarre.

Especially when it is compared to a scenery of around 40 bodies lying on the ground, just a few meters away from this... flowery scene.

Their eyes then fell on their future Queen, who was currently resting her head on that man’s chest, there was a warm smile on her face as the man hugged her and moved his hand around her waist.

Different thoughts appeared in their mind.

Where was that cold girl who ordered a mass cleanup throughout the Royal Palace, the girl who caught criminals and dragged them around the Palace as if they were dogs, just where is she?

Who is this girl who just had a beautiful smile on her face while she enjoyed her husband’s care?

Just what is with this contrast?

Iria and Phorus couldn’t understand.

“Are you done with your lovey-dovey show?”

Suddenly, the flowery scene was broken away when everyone heard a voice.

Nux glanced at Astaria and smiled.

He then walked towards Astaria and questioned,

“So I passed out the test, didn’t I? How was my performance? Was it satisfactory?”

Nux knew that what he showed today had definitely shocked Astaria, her mind was currently full of questions, and Nux was interested to see how she would react.

What would she ask about first?

Would it be about his sword?

Or maybe the spikes that appeared out of the ground?

Or how no one could see him during the fight?

Or maybe something else?

Nux didn’t know, however, out of countless possibilities in his mind, he definitely didn’t expect this one.

“Fight me.”

“H-Huh?”

Chapter 533

“Fight me.”

Arvina spoke with a serious look on her face.

“H-Huh?”

Nux didn't know how to react, there were many scenarios that he had played in his mind, however, this was definitely not something he expected.

“Fight me.”

Thinking that he didn't hear her clearly, Astaria repeated.

“F-Fight you?”

Nux frowned.

“Yes.”

“I-I thought the test was only defeating the Shadow Unit...?”

Nux questioned.

If it was the Shadow Unit, defeating them was simple, however, Astaria was in a completely different league of her own.

Heck, if Nux had what it takes to defeat her, he wouldn't even be here, asking for her permission to go to another Kingdom.

Why would the strongest seek any sort of permission?

It wouldn't make sense.

“It has nothing to do with the test, you already passed it.”

Astaria replied to Nux's question.

"If I already passed, then why bother fighting now?" Nux couldn't understand.

"You held back."

Astaria revealed and Phorus and Iria's eyes widened in horror.

They turned towards the battlefield again and seeing so many bodies lying on the ground, their heart skipped a beat.

'T-This was him h-holding back?'

They couldn't believe what Astaria said, and thought of another possibility,

'Could it be that Lady Astaria judged incorrectly?'

"Well, I did hold back a little, but that has nothing to do with this test, does it?"

However, Nux's answer left them even more speechless.

'What the heck!?! That bastard was actually holding back!?!'

Phorus and Iria turned towards Evane and the others, hoping to see their shocked expressions, however, seeing that proud smile on their faces, they didn't know how to react.

"I want to see how strong actually are."

Astaria replied.

"Hmm, well, you can say I am the strongest King Stage Cultivator in the world. Actually, I am a lot stronger than an average King Stage Cultivator, I may sound arrogant, but I doubt there is a King Stage Cultivator or a team of them who can defeat me.

However, I am still not strong enough to go against an Emperor, so if you are asking about my strength...

Then you can say I stand far higher than the King Stage Cultivators and just behind Emperor Stage Cultivators.”

Nux replied with an honest look on his face.

If people here hadn't seen his fight with the Shadow Unit, they would have definitely called him arrogant and would have laughed at him, however, since they had all seen the fight, no one refuted his words.

“You seem to be awfully against the idea of fighting me.”

Hearing his answer, a teasing smile appeared on Astaria's face,

“Are you scared?”

She pushed even further.

“Is that even a question, of course I am.”

Nux replied.

“H-Huh?”

This time, even Astaria couldn't help but make a dumbstruck expression.

“You are scared?”

She questioned again.

“Oh c'mon, you are an Emperor Stage Cultivator, of course I would be scared if I had to fight you directly. You are the strongest person in the entire world!

It is completely impractical to fight you.”

Nux shared his thoughts.

Astaria couldn't believe it.

Well, it was not like she didn't agree with Nux's words, however, to openly admit that he was scared...

Just where is his dignity as a King Stage Cultivator?

Shouldn't he strive to fight stronger opponents in order to improve himself?

Also, why is he acting like he is the right one here?

What's with the look that screams,

'I don't know why everyone fails to understand such a simple thing?'

Astaria didn't know how to react,

She wanted to fight this boy, however, with that attitude of his, there is no way she could do that.

Even if she forces him to fight her, he would simply act weak and run from the situation, he would not fight her seriously.

Astaria needed a way,

A way to make Nux fight without holding back or... being scared.

Suddenly, a small smile appeared on Astaria's face.

She then glanced at Nux and spoke,

"Fight me."

"I told you didn't I? There is no point in testing it, I am weaker th-"

"If you defeat me, I will agree to what you wanted."

"Huh? What I wanted? What are y-"

Nux frowned however, soon, his eyes widened in surprise and a wide smile appeared on his face,

“Are you sure?”

He questioned again.

“Do you think I would lie to you?”

Actually, let me clarify it right now,

If you want to get what you want, the only way you can get it is by defeating me.”

“So I just need to defeat you, right?”

Nux questioned.

“Heeh? I never thought defeating me was so simple.” Astaria teased.

“It doesn’t matter,”

Nux’s smile widened,

“I just have to do it.”

“So? I will ask again, do you want to fight me?”

“You didn’t leave me any other option, did you?”

Nux answered and Astaria’s smile widened,

The two of them took their battle stance, Astaria then turned towards Iria and Phorus, and,

“You two should step back,”

Nux turned towards his wife and nodded,

His wives nodded back and stepped back,

“W-What just happened?”

Suddenly, Iria questioned with a shocked look on her face.

“Same question, that boy seemed so unwilling to fight her.., just what happened?” Phorus questioned.

“Yes, what were they talking about? What does that boy want? He seems quite motivated to get it.” Iria questioned.

Amaya, however, just sighed,

“Just think of it as two of them signing a deal...

A deal Lady Astaria would look back on a lot in the future.”

‘Hehe~ We should call her Sister Astaria now~’

Skyla was already ready.

Hearing Amaya’s answer, Iria frowned,

“Why do I get the feeling that you are insinuating that Lady Astaria would lose? That boy is strong, but do you really think he can defeat her?”

“Who knows? I only know that where he was walking was a dark area without any directions, now he can see a direct path.

A thorny one, but a path is still a path, and if it is him,

He would definitely walk through that path.”

“What do you mean?” Iria narrowed her eyes,

“Forget about it,

Just know that you are about to see a remarkable fight today,

A fight where a King Stage Cultivator would go against an Emperor with everything he has.”

Chapter 534

“Heeh, I like that confident air surrounding you, boy.”

Astaria smiled teasingly.

Nux smiled back,

His Black Purple Sword appeared in his hand and he replied,

“Let’s start the fight, shall we?”

“Heh.”

Astaria chuckled, then, she raised her hand and pointed at Nux,

“Come.”

Nux didn’t wait either,

He disappeared and then appeared right in front of Astaria, without giving her any chance to react, he aimed at her neck, Astaria, however, simply stepped aside and dodged his attack.

Unlike Keeve, Reeve, and the others, who were having a hard time reacting to his speed, Astaria did it with ease.

This didn’t affect Nux, he continued to attack, aiming at the neck, legs, shoulders, and chest, repeatedly however, Astaria continued to dodge his attacks with a teasing smile on her face.

“You are quite slow, aren’t you?”

Astaria questioned.

Nux, however, completely ignored her teasing and continued to attack.

Astaria shook her head, she then dodged the sword that was aimed at her right shoulder, using that chance, she closed the distance and,

“Let’s end it.”

She punched his abdomen.

Soon, however, a frown appeared on Astaria’s face.

She knew that her punch connected, however, something felt wrong.

She felt that most of the power behind her punch was... dispersed?

It was a strange feeling that Astaria was having a hard time describing, however, in summary, she felt that her punch didn’t have the effect that it should have had.

And that was clear from how Nux was only pushed back rather than passing out and losing consciousness.

“How did you do that?” Astaria questioned.

“...”

Nux, of course, didn’t reply. He would be a fool if he revealed his tactic in the middle of a battle.

However, Astaria’s curious side was already chewing her out, she wanted to find the answer to her question.

A wide smile appeared on her face and a fierce aura was released from her body.

“Don’t want to answer? Alright, you give me no other choice, boy. I just have to punch you again to see and analyze it myself.”

Suddenly, Nux felt his body getting heavier.

He quickly realized that it was Astaria's Aura. The technique she used the first time he met her in the Royal Hall.

The technique that rendered him completely useless and immovable before.

He glanced at Astaria and saw her walking towards him with a sadistic smile on her face.

“Don't blame me, boy. You should have answered when I asked.”

However, to Astaria's smile, in this seemingly dire situation, a smile appeared on Nux's face.

Astaria then noticed a strange Black Mist coming out of Nux's body, the strange Mist quickly surrounded his entire body and Astaria noticed that something was wrong with her Aura.

It was... weakening?

A frown appeared on Astaria's face.

She then increased the pressure to maximum, a move that broke Nux's legs last time, however, this time, let alone breaking his legs, it couldn't even faze him.

Astaria narrowed her eyes when she realized what was happening.

Her Aura wasn't weakened, that, she was sure about, and at the same time, she also knew that Nux's strength hasn't increased compared to that time,

The problem was that Mist.

That Mist was working like a protective layer that was somehow 'eating out' her Aura, making it completely useless against Nux.

“That Mist...”

Seeing that strange Mist, Iria quickly turned towards Amaya, however, she then noticed that even Amaya had a frown on her face.

‘Did he just Devour her Aura using the Devouring Mist?’

Amaya questioned inwardly.

‘Is that even possible? How can he Devour something that doesn’t even have a form?’

Amaya couldn’t understand.

She has been trying hard to understand the Devouring Mist for quite a long time now, however, from her understanding, the Devouring Mist could only devour something that actually has some sort of Form.

Aura, on the hand, was something like... it reflects a being’s presence, it is supposed to be formless.

A better example would be Mana,

Mana inside a Being’s Body has a form, which is the reason why the Devouring Mist could devour it, however, the Mana present in the air is formless, it wasn’t something Devouring Mist could just... devour...

That isn’t how things work!

“Heh, that is quite an interesting thing you got.”

Astaria laughed.

“Anything for you~”

Nux replied with a playful smile as well.

“Was that how you dealt with my punch before?”

“Who knows?”

Nux just shrugged.

Astaria smiled.

Well, she was smiling, however, inwardly, her frustration was at new peaks.

Of course, she knew she could defeat him in one move, she wanted to do that, however, at the same time, she wanted to see how far this boy could go.

“Boy, you are definitely showing me many more interesting things than I thought you would.”

Astaria gave a strange compliment in her own way, then,

She disappeared.

Nux’s face turned serious, his body took his Battle Stance and he activated his [Sense].

Astaria appeared behind him, punching him from behind, but again, Astaria felt that similar feeling. The major portion of power that her punch contained had dispersed.

Astaria frowned, however, at the same time, a smile appeared on her face as she continued to deliver more and more punches while Nux tried to dodge a few and use his strange technique to disperse others.

*Bam* *Bam* *Bam*

The fight continued.

‘Hmm?’

A frown appeared on Ember’s face as she turned into another direction.

‘Was it just me or did you guys feel a movement as well?’

She questioned using the connection.

‘Huh? What are you talking about?’

Thyra frowned, she then quickly used [Sense] but didn’t see anything.

‘I didn’t notice anything.’

Amaya spoke.

Ember’s frown deepened.

‘I definitely noticed some- You felt that?’ Ember spoke.

Thyra narrowed her eyes.

At the same time, Astaria punched Nux again, since he wasn’t in any position to dodge, he had no choice but to take on the punch directly.

Amaya tilted her head in confusion.

‘Is it Nux’s doing?’

Chapter 535

[Mirror]

[7-Star Ability.]

[Description: Allows the Host to open an invisible Portal of radius 10 cm, which can Transfer a certain amount of damage to an Area the Host desires.]

[Cost: 100 MP per use.]

[Note: The Damage that exceeds the Portal's Threshold is endured directly by the Host.]

[Damage Nullification: 4000 HP]

An absurd ability, an ability that completely nullifies the attack that can cause up to 4000 HP of Damage.

This reduction was more than twice Nux's Health.

What does that mean?

It means he could completely nullify the attack that could kill him more than 2 times.

That was how absurdly powerful this ability was.

Nux wouldn't be wrong to call it Absolute Defense.

Of course, the ability wasn't an ultimate ability, it had its flaws as well.

The Radius of the 'Portal' for example, so if he fails to block the entire attack within that Radius, or makes a wrong calculation and created a portal at the wrong place, the attack would harm him.

In fast-paced battles, using this ability was difficult and required high focus and Battle Senses.

However, Nux had a cheat.

He had [Sense], this ability made executing [Mirror] a lot easier.

To be honest, Nux believed that as long as he successfully creates the [Mirror] at the correct place, harming him would be impossible.

However, just like always, Astaria was breaking all his beliefs.

Her attacks weren't strong enough to break the [Mirror], so technically, the [Mirror] should be able to Transfer her attack completely, however, for some reason, Nux was still taking damage every time Astaria punched him.

Not only that, but the Mana Consumption of this Ability was insanely high, even with his Mana, which was boosted by his Blank Points, Nux couldn't use it more than 20-25 times.

Of course, this amount should be enough in a regular fight, however, fighting against Astaria, who didn't seem to be tired at all even after unleashing so many monstrous punches, this was nowhere near enough.

“Boy, whatever you are doing, it is praiseworthy, a normal King Stage Cultivator would have died if he had taken on any of these punches.”

Suddenly, Astaria chuckled.

“...”

Nux didn't say anything and just showed a confident smile, but inwardly, he was boiling in anger.

‘Of course he would have died! Just what kind of monster are you!?’

At the same time, Nux created a [Mirror] in front of him again, the power behind Astaria's punch disappeared, and the impact pushed Nux away.

Just like before, Astaria didn't give Nux any time to recover and dashed toward him.

Suddenly, a smile appeared on Nux's face, and as soon as Astaria appeared close to him, a Big, Black-Purple spike right below Astaria's foot.

A frown appeared on Astaria's face, the Mana surrounding her Body quickly moved to her feet, she increased the pressure and then jumped away.

The Spike, which should have pierced her body into two parts, was destroyed before it was even formed.

“This is quite an Amusing Trick as well. If only it was a little denser and stronger, it would have been much more useful.”

Hearing her words, Nux's face twitched in annoyance.

These Spikes were the ones that pierced through so many soldiers, wearing 4 Star Armors, the Spikes also parried the attacks of King Stage Cultivators, when it came to density, even the Durability, it could be called one of the Most Durable Materials in the world.

And...

And here she was... breaking it apart like it was nothing.

“Though I wonder, what type of material is that? Is it the Earth Element? I have seen a few Cultivators use Earth like you use this, but... this thing is stronger than what they use.”

“...”

Nux however, didn't answer any of her questions, he was busy thinking about different ways to fight against this monstrous woman in front of him.

Seeing this, a smile appeared on Astaria's face, the Nux who was always smiling as if he had everything under his control, seeing him make an expression like that,

It was oddly satisfying.

“Still, for you to continue this fight for so long, I must say, it is quite impressive.”

Astaria teased even more.

Suddenly, a small smile appeared on Nux’s face,

“Indeed, for a King Stage Cultivator to stand against an Emperor Stage Cultivator for so long, I am sure this has never happened in history before.”

“...”

Astaria turned silent.

“You are quite good at ticking your enemies off, aren’t you?” She questioned.

Then, she disappeared and appeared right in front of Nux.

But again,

Black Purple Spikes popped out of the ground, this time, 4 of them targeted Astaria’s limbs, and one targeted her eyes.

This time, Astaria tried to jump back but she soon realized that there were two Spikes behind her back as well.

In the end, a sigh escaped her mouth and,

*Bam*

She punched the Spikes and destroyed all of them.

“...”

Nux didn’t know what to say...

“I let my guard down...”

Astaria commented, then, she glanced at Nux and narrowed her eyes,

“But I can afford to let my guard down, you, on the other hand, cannot.”

“What do you mean?”

Nux frowned.

“Stop holding back, people would laugh at you if you tell them that you were holding back against an Emperor Stage Cultivator.”

“ ... ”

Nux didn't reply.

“What? Do you seriously think you have what it takes to Kill me?”

Astaria questioned with an amused smile on her face.

“ ... ”

Seeing that he was still not reacting, Astaria frowned.

“Nux.”

She called.

Nux glanced at Astaria then Astaria revealed,

“I haven't even used half of my strength yet.”

“Huh?”

Nux's eyes widened in surprise.

“What? Did you really think you could go against an Emperor?”

“ ... ”

“Do not hold back, Nux.

Show me everything you have.”

“Alright then.”

Nux then took a deep breath.

Seeing his reaction, Astaria smiled, a silvery white sword appeared in her hand, she then pointed it at Nux, waiting for him to attack, however, as soon as she blinked,

Nux disappeared.

Chapter 536

‘Huh?’

Astaria frowned. This time, Nux actually disappeared from her vision, which, shouldn’t have been possible considering that her speed was way higher than his.

Many questions popped up in Astaria’s head, however, she kept all of them aside and in a fraction of a second, she prepared her body to take on Nux’s attack and enhanced her senses.

“ ... ”

More than a few seconds passed but nothing happened.

A frown appeared on Astaria’s face.

Wasn’t he going to attack her?

What happened?

Wait...

A smile appeared on Astaria’s face and she joked,

“After all that build-up, you aren’t telling me that your ultimate technique is hiding from me?”

“ ... ”

There was no answer.

Astaria narrowed her eyes. She turned towards Nux’s wives to see their reaction, however, seeing the frowns on their faces, she realized that they were as confused as she was.

‘Is he... using [Conceal]?’

Felberta questioned with a frown on her face.

‘But we still had our eyes on him, [Conceal] won’t take effect unless he uses it when he is out of the target’s vision.’

Thyra pointed out.

‘Yes, [Conceal] doesn’t work like that, also, I am pretty sure Nux told me that [Conceal] wouldn’t work on Astaria.’

Amaya nodded.

‘Then what is it?’

Ember questioned.

‘I don’t have any idea.’ Amaya shook her head.

‘Heh, it’s not like we know what those Purple Spikes are, also, the way he is dealing with her punches, that doesn’t seem normal either,

Don’t forget, Nux has been visiting the Bloodhill Wilderness pretty often nowadays, he seems much more serious about Cultivation than ever before, I am sure he has developed some new abilities.’

Allura smiled proudly.

‘Heh, to think he would go toe to toe against an Emperor Stage Cultivator.’ Ember commented with an amazed look on her face.

‘Guys...’

Suddenly, Felberta called out.

‘Nux has been focusing and training to get stronger a lot more than before...’

You don't think it is because he predicted what Lady Astaria's demand beforehand, do you...?'

'...'

'...'

'...'

Everyone turned silent.

'That... that... might actually be possible...'

Suddenly, Ember spoke up.

Everyone turned towards her and Ember started explaining.

'It is not like it is his first time being challenged like this...'

'Yes, you challenged him as well.' Thyra nodded.

'Yes, if I think about it now, me and Lady Astaria have a lot in common, she may not show it directly as I do, but, I can still feel that there is a warrior inside her. There are chances that that warrior is now resting since Lady Astaria's cultivation talent is simply absurd and she has already reached the peak,

However, I can perfectly see a warrior challenging a man who confessed to her and giving herself away as a reward.

Not only that, but Lady Astaria is also an Emperor, just like how a strong and capable man would never enter the Harem of a woman weaker than her, she wouldn't just enter Nux's Harem when he is weaker than her. That would be disrespecting her cultivation which she has worked for so many years now.

If he thinks about it, predicting her conditions wouldn't be too difficult for Nux, and since he knows he can't just grow stronger using his previous method...'

‘He is using all these methods to get stronger.’ Evane completed Ember’s sentence.

‘Indeed.’ Ember nodded.

The women came to a new conclusion and turned towards the battlefield.

‘And his method seems to be working...’

Amaya commented.

‘Indeed.’

Felberta and the others nodded.

‘Don’t conclude things too early.’

Ember, however, shook her head.

‘Emperor is called the peak for a reason.’

She commented, her expression turning serious.

On the other hand, since she failed to provoke him, Astaria took a deep breath and closed her eyes to heighten her senses.

However, as if he was waiting for this exact moment, Nux appeared right behind Astaria, in a position where Astaria couldn’t dodge even if she wanted to.

His sword moved, Astaria’s eyes widened in surprise, she tried to defend herself, however, it was already too late.

In a desperate situation, Astaria was forced to move her Mana to her shoulder, where Nux was aiming at, and prepared for the impact.

*Tap*

However, in the end, Nux just placed his sword on her shoulder, without any force in it.

Astaria frowned.

‘Is he trying to show me that he won? Does he really think that successfully aiming at my shoulder defea-‘

Suddenly, Astaria’s eyes widened in surprise and,

*Pukes*

She puked blood.

However, Astaria didn’t have the time to remain surprised, a horrifying feeling enshrouded her entire body.

Fear, she felt fear.

Her instincts kicked in, the Mana inside her body moved as quickly as it could and quickly dispelled Nux’s attack.

Seeing this, a weak smile appeared on Nux’s face,

“I still couldn’t do it huh...”

Blood trailed out of his mouth and,

He passed out.

“NUX!!”

Seeing that, his women quickly rushed towards him, Ember, being the fastest quickly appeared beside him and placed his head on her lap.

“Nux!”

She shouted, she then wiped the blood that came out of his mouth, however, as soon as she touched his skin, her reaction changed.

She quickly grabbed his arm, then touched his biceps, then her hand went over his chest and her eyes widened in horror.

“What happened?” Amaya questioned as she and the others crouched around Nux’s body.

“E-Every single one of his muscles are shaking... something is wrong!” Ember replied.

“Call a Medic!”

Amaya shouted.

Lane, however, was already on her way to the Royal Palace.

The rest of the women prepared a healing potion and tried to feed it to Nux but it came out of his mouth.

“He isn’t drinking it,” Amaya spoke.

Without a second of hesitation, Ember drank the potion and then kissed Nux.

Soon, however, she broke the kiss and shook her head,

“His body is rejecting it.”

“Huh? What does that mean!? Let me try it!”

Amaya shouted.

Ember, however, stopped her before she could do anything, with a serious look on her face, she spoke,

“His body is rejecting it, there must a reason behind it.

Calm down and think properly.

Let’s wait for the medics.

Don't act recklessly.”

Chapter 537

“His body is rejecting it, there must a reason behind it.

Calm down and think properly.

Let’s wait for the medics.

Don’t act recklessly.”

Ember spoke with a serious look on her face and Amaya finally calmed down.

“A-Alright.”

She stuttered.

She then waited for the medic, and she didn’t have to wait for long as she suddenly heard screams coming from afar.

“Put me on the ground! On the ground! Aagaaaggghhhh!!”

Everyone turned towards the shout and saw Lane carrying a man in her arms and running towards them.

She then quickly appeared in front of them all and placed the medic right in front of Nux.

“Your broken door will be repaired, now take a look at him. He is unconscious.”

Lane spoke.

“ ... ”

Iria and Phorus didn’t know what to say.

“W-Wasn’t she the calmest out all...?”

Iria questioned.

“I-I thought so as well...” Phorus nodded with a strange expression on his face.

‘Wait...’

Suddenly, He felt like he was forgetting something.

His eyes then widened in surprise, he quickly turned around and saw Astaria sitting on her knees with a shocked look on her face.

“Lady Astaria!” He shouted and quickly rushed towards her.

Iria’s eyes widened in shock as she ran towards Astaria as well.

“Lady Astaria, are you alright?”

Phorus questioned.

Astaria then finally came out of her reverie and stood up.

“Y-Yes, I am fine. Not a problem.”

At the same time, she wiped her mouth which still had some blood.

Seeing that, Iria and Phorus turned silent.

The two of them looked at the ground, where Astaria had puked blood, and then turned towards Nux who was currently surrounded by his women.

‘Lady Astaria bled...’

The two of them had the same line of thought.

That man made Lady Astaria, the strongest being in the world, puke out blood... monster, fucking monster...

How in the hell is he so strong!?

They couldn't understand.

Phorus then noticed that Astaria had started walking toward Nux,

“Is he alright?”

She questioned.

“You dare ask that!?”

Amaya quickly turned towards her and questioned. She was fuming with anger.

Felberta quickly placed her hand on Amaya's shoulder and turned towards Astaria,

“Lady Astaria, I apologize, she is a little concerned, please forgive her rude behavior.”

Astaria glanced at Felberta and nodded.

Then she turned towards the Medic and questioned again,

“How is he?”

The medic quickly recognized her as the woman who even the King Stage Cultivators were afraid of and answered as respectfully as he can.

“L-Lady Astaria, I apologize for n-not being capable enough, but I c-can't seem to figure out what the problem is.

To me, it only looks like he has overworked himself, but if I am being completely honest, the shaking of his muscles is too much to be considered as an effect of just overworking...”

“So you are saying that you can't understand and diagnose the problem?”
Amaya narrowed her eyes.

Seeing her gaze, the Medic took in a deep breath.

“Amaya.”

Ember called out. She then patted the Medic’s shoulder and questioned again,

“You don’t have to be nervous, you can say what you want to say.”

“N-No, Lady Amaya is n-not wrong, I can’t say anything for certain, I have never seen anything like this before.” The medic replied.

“Do you have any suggestions or any other Medic that you think might know about this situation?” Felberta questioned.

The Medic, however, shook his head,

“I am the best Medic in the entire Kingdom, I can’t think of anyone who can help you. I can only suggest you place him on a bed and since his body is not accepting the Healing Potion, please don’t force it.

It might have bad effects.”

“So we can only wait...?”

Allura questioned.

“For now, that is indeed the only option. You can place him in the Royal Infirmary, there, I can keep my eyes on him all the time and if something happens, I can deal with it accordingly.” The Medic replied.

“Alright, we will do as you say.” Ember nodded.

She then stood up with Nux in her arms and all of them walked towards the Royal Infirmary.

The ‘Test’ ended.

...

2 Days passed by and after lying down, without a single movement for 2 whole days, Nux's pinky finger finally moved.

This little reaction was enough to alert all 10 women who were in his room.

Yes, 10, not 9, Astaria was inside the room as well.

Everyone then turned towards Nux, his muscles had stopped shaking and his breathing had calmed down, according to the Medic, he was completely fine, however, the women still insisted on staying in his room.

Nux's eyes finally moved and under everyone's desperate gaze, he finally opened his eyes.

“””Nux!””””

The women spoke.

“Now isn't that an amazing welcome...”

Nux replied in a weak tone.

“You still have the mood to joke around, you bastard,” Felberta spoke.

“Heeh? What happened? Why are you all acting like that?” Nux questioned.

“...”

His women looked at him with blank looks on their faces.

Nux then looked around and a frown appeared on his face.

His eyes then fell on Astaria, who was standing behind all his women, near a wall and he finally recalled what happened.

“Ahh... the spar...

I passed out huh...

How many hours was I out for?”

He questioned.

“2 Days.”

Edda answered.

“Huh? 2 Days?”

Nux was shocked.

“Yes, 2 whole days, you idiot!”

Felberta complained.

“Awee, were you worried?” Nux didn’t let this chance go by.

Felberta’s mouth twitched,

“If only you hadn’t just woken up...”

She swore.

Nux chuckled.

“You are so cute~ Tsundere~”

“I don’t care! I don’t even know what this darn Tsundere is!” Felberta retorted, her eyes a little moist.

Seeing that, Nux stopped his teasing,

“Don’t worry, I am perfectly fine, there is no way I will ever die, you know that, don’t you?”

The recoil of the move I used was a little more than I thought, that’s it.”

“Right, that move,”

Suddenly, Ember's face turned serious.

“Nux, what was that?”

Chapter 538

“Nux, what was that move?”

Ember questioned with a serious look on her face.

Hearing this question, Nux’s face turned serious.

“Alright, you all catch up with each other, I will be taking my leave now. Nux, don’t overwork yourself, you look fine right now, but just to be sure, take rest for the next few days.”

Suddenly, Astaria spoke and then turned around.

“Huh? Lady Astaria, where are you going? Do you not care what happens to me?”

Nux dramatically sad expression appeared on Nux’s face.

“That’s not it, you know Nux, Lady Astaria was just as worried for you as we were, she has been staying in this room for the last 2 days waiting for you to wake up, and just like us, she didn’t even eat anything.”

Skyla spoke with a small smile on her face.

Others may not know what she was trying to do, Nux, however, knew about it perfectly well.

A small smile appeared on his face as he thanked her inside her heart,

‘Skyla, how can you get more and more lovelier with each passing day? Just how is this possible?’

Nux then glanced at Astaria and smiled teasingly,

“Oh? Lady Astaria, I didn’t know you cared so much about me.”

“Don’t be ridiculous. I was only here because I had nothing else to do.”
Astaria replied with an expressionless face.

At the same time, she momentarily glanced at Astaria.

Nobody knew what she was thinking.

Nux, of course, wasn’t planning to leave this golden opportunity this easily.

“You may say that, but I know you care about me deep in your heart, and your actions just proved that.”

“Keep dreaming.” Astaria snorted.

“If this is a dream, I wish to never wake up~”

“W-Whatever. I am going now.”

Astaria turned around.

“If you stayed here for the whole 2 days, then why would you leave now?”
Nux questioned.

“As I said, I was only here because I didn’t have anything else to do, but now I do, so I need to leave,” Astaria replied.

“Oh? Are you telling me that you are not interested in the technique that a King Stage Cultivator used to make the strongest person in the world, an Emperor Stage Cultivator, puke out blood?” Nux questioned teasingly.

He was sure that Astaria’s inner warrior wouldn’t be able to control herself.

“Nux.”

Suddenly, Astaria called out.

“Hmm?” Nux tilted his head in confusion.

“That move is your trump card, your wives are okay, but you should not share your trump card with others, it can bite you back in the future.”

“ ... ”

Nux turned silently.

He finally realized why Astaria was so adamant about leaving.

‘So that’s what she was worried about.

Heh, she is surprisingly cute~’

Nux smiled inwardly, then, he glanced at Astaria and spoke,

“Do you think I would have used that move in front of you if I didn’t trust you?”

“Huh?”

Astaria frowned.

“Lady Astaria, in my eyes, you are just like my wives.”

“H-HUH!?”

Astaria’s face turned bright red as she glared at Nux in anger. If he wasn’t lying on the bed right now, she would have punched this shameless bastard.

Nux smiled at her reaction then changed his words,

“I mean, I trust you just like I trust them. I know for sure that you won’t betray me. I mean, what would you get from betraying an insignificant King Stage Cultivator like me.”

“ ... ”

Astaria turned silent.

Nux's smile widened and he continued,

“Also, this technique is not my actual trump card.”

“W-What?”

Astaria's expression changed as she narrowed her eyes,

“Were you holding back?”

“Huh? Of course not.

You already know about my trump card, don't you?” Nux smiled teasingly as he glanced at all his women before turning towards Astaria.

Astaria realized what this body was talking about, and seeing him smiling like that, her mouth twitched.

“I am taking my leave, I am not interested in that useless technique of yours!”

Saying that, Astaria walked away.

However, before she actually left, she stopped, and without turning around, she spoke,

“Meet me when you have completely recovered, I need to talk to you about something.”

Then, she walked away.

Nux just smiled.

Seeing him act like that, Evane frowned,

“You are really enjoying this, aren't you?”

“I plead guilty.”

Nux raised his hands and smiled.

“I feel like I have seen this scene before.”

Suddenly, Thyra, who was sitting next to Nux muttered as she glanced at Ember.

Ember’s face turned red.

“I looked as defenseless as she is looking right now huh...” She realized.

“It was quite fun to watch actually, seeing you act so strong even though I knew how you would end up.”

Thyra smiled teasingly.

“...”

Ember didn’t know what to say.

She was embarrassed.

“Hehe~ Don’t act like you were any better.”

Suddenly, Skyla chuckled.

Thyra’s face turned red as well.

Skyla then placed her hands on her waist and stood up with a prideful look on her face,

“Hehe~ As your senior, I have seen how every single one of you was defeated shamefully. Fufufu~”

“Haah? Since when were you the senior most? Did you forget your place?” Felberta snorted.

“Oh c’mon Sister Fel, didn’t we fall at the same time? Where is your comradery? Don’t be so selfish. Me you and Sister Lane are the Senior Most.” Skyla waved her hand.

“Comradery my ass, I was the First Wife, don’t try to change it.” Felberta didn’t step back.

“Haahh... Sister Fel, you are too selfish~”

Skyla shook her head and sighed.

Felberta’s mouth twitched, she wanted to reply, however,

“Nux, you still haven’t told us about your new ability.”

Ember jumped in and asked about a more serious topic.

Other women’s expressions changed as well.

They wanted to know what Nux was hiding.

Nux has been training himself for a while now, they didn’t ask about his new abilities since they thought he was keeping it a secret.

However, if any of his ability hurts him like before, they had to know all about it.

Nux’s face then turned serious and he started explaining.

“I now have 3 new abilities...”

Chapter 539

[Mirror.]

[7-Star Ability.]

[Description: Allows the Host to open an invisible Portal of radius 10 cm, which can Transfer a certain amount of damage to an Area the Host desires.]

[Cost: 100 MP per use.]

[Note: The Damage that exceeds the Portal's Threshold is endured directly by the Host.]

[Damage Nullification: 4000 HP]

...

[Dark Amethyst.]

[7-Star Ability.]

[Description: Allows the Host to summon and control the Metal name Dark Amethyst freely. Can be used for Defense, Attack, and Crowd Control.]

[Cost: Depends on the quantity of the Dark Amethyst summoned.]

[Note: Host can only summon Dark Amethyst through Earth, and not through any other medium like Air and Water.]

[Note: The farther the Host summons the Dark Amethyst, the more MP will it cost.]

...

[Blink Fault]

[7-Star Ability]

[Description: Allows the Host to move into a Subspace when the Target Blink, the host will then appear near the Target, the Host's Weapon will be instilled with Ultrasonic Vibrations which allows the Host to send these Ultrasonic Vibrations into the Target's body, dealing damage to the Target's Inner Organs.]

[MP Cost: None.]

[Note: Dealing with Vibrations will have an adverse effect on the Host's body, the Host needs to have a strong body to tackle the backlash of this ability.]

[Note: This ability deals Absolute Damage.]

[Absolute Damage: All defenses are ignored.]

[Damage Dealt: Depends on the Target's inner Resistance and the Organs affected.]

[Maximum Damage Dealt: 6000 HP.]

These were the 3 new abilities that Nux had bought from his System, he was already thinking about buying new abilities after he realized how he was using his system so inefficiently.

After giving the Body Cultivation techniques to his women, he started searching for better Weapons for everyone and new abilities for himself.

And after searching for so long, he finally found techniques that were the most suitable for him.

His first ability, Mirror, it may be a little hard to use in battles, but with proper practice, it was not that hard. With this ability, he now had a strong defense that completely ignores the attacks of any King Stage Cultivators, and can even defend against some attacks of an Emperor Stage Cultivator.

After a technique for defense, what he needed was an attacking technique.

The System had many options, each was better than the other, however, what Nux needed was different.

He never bought any technique thinking about fighting against a crowd.

If his opponents were King Stage Cultivators or less, he didn't need any abilities, he could take them on himself.

When buying new abilities, he only thought about fighting against an Emperor Stage Cultivator.

And to fight against those monsters, he needed a sure shot technique, a technique that only focuses on a single target, never misses, and deals high damage.

[Blink Fault] was a perfect technique.

The concept it used was different from normal.

Rather than using elements like Fire, Water, Air, Earth, or something like that, it used Vibrations.

A concept that Nux deeply underestimated.

He only bought this Ability because of the concept of moving into a subspace and then appearing near the enemy and the feature of Absolute Damage. He completely underestimated the concept of instilling Vibrations into his weapon and attacking the enemy.

It was only after he tested this ability on a 5-Star Beast did he understand how scarily absurd the concept of Vibration was.

To be honest, back then, the backlash of this attack wasn't that high.

Although he felt very weak after his attack and had to keep [Conceal] activated for the rest of the while and had to leave the wilderness after that, he didn't pass out as he did 2 days ago.

He still couldn't understand how that happened.

Well, he had a rough idea but he still wasn't sure, he needs to confirm this after talking with Astaria.

Anyways, the third ability he bought was something he could use for Crowd Control, and [Dark Amethyst was a perfect choice, the moment his eyes fell on this ability, he didn't even read any more abilities and bought it directly.

It is also his most used ability now, after [Conceal] and [Sense] of course.

With these three Abilities, he now had perfect attack, defense, and crowd control abilities.

He wanted to buy more abilities to improve his speed, health, and regeneration, however, as soon as he bought his Third Ability, a message popped up.

[The Host has bought a total of 8 Abilities from the System Shop, the host cannot buy any more Abilities.]

[Note: The limit cannot be increased.]

Yes.

He has used the System Shop to the limit.

A limit that he didn't even know existed.

To be honest, when Nux learned about it, he shouted at the top of his lungs.

'System Bastard! Couldn't you tell me about this Limit sooner!?'

He would have been more careful when buying abilities if he knew about this.

To be honest, at the end of things, he thanked himself for not buying anything randomly, most of the abilities he had bought were still something he could use, so he was happy.

But at the same time, he was also a little disappointed.

The highest ranking ability he has is only a 7 Star Ability, he didn't have even a single 8 Star Ability.

Nux thought that may be... maybe he should have waited till his 8 Star Abilities are unlocked before he could buy more abilities.

Well, anyways, there was no point in regretting anything right now.

It was his system's fault for not giving him a prior warning.

Snorting inwardly, Nux sighed and then glanced at his women, who were looking at him as if he was some sort of monster.

"I don't even know where to start..."

Ember sighed.

"He is as absurd as always."

Thyra sighed as well.

"I have no clue why you have access to these ridiculous abilities." Amaya sighed.

Then, she narrowed her eyes and spoke out her thoughts,

"Actually, I have been thinking about all this since you explained your past to Lady Astaria, and now that I finally have a chance,

Let me ask you a few questions, Nux."

Chapter 540

“Actually, I have been thinking about all this since you explained your past to Lady Astaria, and now that I finally have a chance,

Let me ask you a few questions, Nux.”

Amaya spoke with a serious look on her face.

“Hmm? What is it?”

Nux tilted his head in confusion.

“You were an orphan, correct?”

“Yes.”

“Then you left your orphanage and started living a normal life before you met Felberta.”

“Mhm, that’s right.” Nux nodded.

“However, between the time you ‘started living a normal life’ and ‘meeting Felberta’, something seems to be missing. From what I have learned, the ‘normal life’ you were talking about was not normal at all. Rather, it was a life where you barely managed to earn your meals, sometimes, you even slept without eating anything, which, with your mortal body, must have been very difficult.

I have learned that you were rather meek, didn’t talk to many people, especially females, heck you even rejected Felberta’s offer once.”

Amaya explained and Nux turned silent.

Seeing that, Amaya frowned and made her point,

“However, when you met Felberta, you did a complete 180, let alone not talking to women, you even started approaching them first.

To be honest, I had a hard time believing that you, of all people, stayed away from all the women. I had to verify this information from 7 different sources before believing it.”

Amaya spoke and others nodded.

“Nux not talking to women? That is hard to believe.” Ember nodded.

Others didn’t stay silent either and nodded as well.

Nux didn’t talk with women? Heh, impossible.

“...”

Seeing all of them acting like that, Nux didn’t know what to say.

‘Just what kind of image have they created in their mind about me?’

He couldn’t help but wonder inwardly.

Amaya glanced at Nux and narrowed his eyes,

“So can you tell us what happened to you? How did you change so suddenly? How can someone, who never talked with women turned into the biggest playboy I have ever met? How come do you not have any lover before you met Felberta, even if you didn’t approach them first, I don’t believe that none of the women approached you themselves.”

The other women glanced at Nux’s face, all of them wanted an explanation. None of them would back down when it came to knowing more about Nux.

Seeing their expression, Nux shook his head and sighed, then he glanced at his women and started,

“Alright then, guess I will tell you the truth.”

The women's expression turned even more attentive.

"The real Nux Leander is dead."

Nux dropped the bomb.

"Huh?"

Everyone had the same reaction.

"What are you talking about?"

Amaya questioned.

"I am not the real Nux Leander.

Well, I am Nux Leander, however, I am not the Nux Leander from this world, I came from a different world."

"I don't understand."

Evane frowned.

"Different world? What are you talking about?"

Allura frowned as well.

Nux turned towards her and questioned,

"You remember those stories I used to tell you?"

"Ahh, those oddly entertaining ones?" Allura's eyes brightened.

"Yes, those were popular tales from my previous world."

"Previous world?" Allura frowned.

"So it's like this, when Nux caught Felberta's eyes, she sent a few people to talk to him, however, the people she sent weren't very patient, Nux, who rejected Felberta's offer was beaten by them,

He was beaten to death.”

“What!?”

Felberta's eyes widened in shock.

“Yes, at the same time, I, who died in my original world, my soul entered this Nux's body, you can say I transmigrated into this world.

That was the reason why my personality completely changed, because, I am literally another person living in Nux Leander's body.”

Nux explained.

“ ... ”

His women turned silent.

Nux gave them time to digest what he said.

“That explains why you are so absurd, you are from a different world huh.”

Edda commented.

“To think a different world exists...”

Lane, who didn't speak much commented in awe as well.

“Ahh, so that's why the original Nux didn't rise in rankings because the Dual Cultivation ability was not his, but yours.” Felberta realized.

“I wonder how strong you were in your original world,” Ember questioned.

“Wait, if you were so strong, then how did you die in your original world? Was it because of old age? What was your cultivation stage there?” Evane questioned.

“Uhh... well, you are misunderstanding something...”

Nux started explaining.

“My original world was much simpler than this world, the concept of cultivation didn’t exist there. Everyone was a mortal, and a few lived for more than 100 years. I died when I was 35 years old because I met an accident.”

“A world where Cultivation doesn’t exist? How were the Kings chosen then?”

Everyone frowned.

Nux then started explaining more and more about his original world, answering every question that came into his women’s minds.

“Alright Alright, I get everything, now answer the main question.”

Suddenly, Amaya’s face turned serious and she questioned.

“How many women did you have in your previous world? Or rather, how many women did you have sex with? And do you still have lingering feelings for those women? If you had the chance to return to that world, would you leave us and go for them?”

An eerie silence fell over the room as every woman turned towards Nux, their eyes burning with curiosity and... fighting spirit?

Seeing their expression, a strange smile appeared on Nux’s face as he replied,

“I was a virgin.”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“...huh?”

The women looked at him with blank looks on their faces.

Yes, none of them believed him.

Even if he wasn't very good-looking, or he didn't have this dual cultivation power or anything else, someone like Nux stayed a virgin for 35 years...

That was simply impossible.

Seeing their reactions, Nux just smiled wryly.

“I don't believe you...”

Felberta narrowed her eyes.

“Well, I don't have any reason to lie to you.

Felberta, you were the one who took my virginity, for both my lives.”

Nux spoke and even though she was still narrowing her eyes, doubting him, a small smile appeared on Felberta's face.

Other women glanced at her with jealous looks on their faces.

“So wait, you are saying that you had no lovers in your previous life?”
Amaya questioned.

“Well, I had a few girlfriends but my relationships didn't work, so no,

You all are my only lovers.

So even if I had the option to go back to my world, if I couldn't take you all with me,

There is no way I would leave.”

Nux smiled.

“You all are an irreplaceable part of my life.

My lovely wives~”

Chapter 541

“You are awake.”

General Phorus spoke as he glanced at the man who was lying on a bed.

“I-I did...”

Keeve turned towards Phorus and replied.

“Why are you two here?”

He questioned.

“Well, we just wanted to check on you all.”

Iria answered.

Keeve then turned around and realized all the other 5 King Stage Cultivators of the Shadow Unit were lying on different beds as well.

A wry smile appeared on his face,

“We really lost huh...”

“Don’t be too hard on yourself. That man is simply a monster.” Phorus, who understood what Keeve was thinking about spoke. Iria, who was standing behind him nodded as well.

Keeve chuckled,

“I know that. I had a first-hand experience.”

“I had a few questions that I wanted to ask. I would be grateful if you could answer them, of course, I can come later if you are tired and don’t want to answer them right now.”

Phorus spoke.

“Is it about the fight?” Keeve questioned.

“Yes, that is correct.” Phorus nodded.

“I also wanted to talk to someone about this battle, so please ask.” Keeve smiled.

“Why didn’t you attack him?” Phorus questioned.

A frown appeared on Keeve’s face as he questioned back,

“What are you talking about?”

“The time when he was knocking out all your subordinates, why didn’t you attack him? Were you going easy on him? Why were you acting as if you could not see him?”

Phorus questioned and Keeve’s frown deepened,

“I have no clue what you are talking about. I admit, I was thinking of going easy on him at first, however, when he took down the 3 King Stage Cultivators at the start, I gave up on that idea.”

“...”

General Phorus turned silent and frowned.

He didn’t understand what Keeve was saying.

Suddenly, Iria stepped in and questioned.

“You remember when you all came out of your tents and started looking for him?”

“Yes, I do.”

Keeve nodded.

“That man was attacking all your subordinates, why didn’t you attack him?” Iria questioned.

“Hah? Do you think I didn’t want to? I just couldn’t do it because he was moving around sneakily and we couldn’t find him!”

Keeve retorted.

Iria and Phorus frowned.

Seeing their reaction, Keeve frowned as well.

“Why are you two acting like that?”

“He... he was right in front of you...”

Iria revealed.

“What the hell are you talking about you?”

“It is not just you, he even passed by Reeve and Wysten, but all of you acted like you couldn’t see him. You were not alone, even the other members of the Shadow Unit were acting strangely.

They were running around, trying to find him, when he was walking by right in front of them. He just simply follow the people who entered the tents in order to ‘find him’ and knocked all of them before coming out as if nothing happened.”

“I don’t understand...”

Keeve thought that the two of them were trying to make fun of him, however, seeing their serious expression, he realized that it was not the case.

“So you are telling me that you couldn’t see him?” Iria questioned.

“No, we couldn’t, in the entire battle, we only saw him when we used formation O, before that, we were helpless.”

“Then... how could we see him...?”

Phorus questioned out loud.

“Was it just an illusion?”

Iria, however, shook her head, “No, that was an illusion. I am sure of it. Whenever he came out of the tent, the soldiers inside were knocked out, an illusion can’t do that.”

“...” Keeve didn’t know what to say.

In his mind, the images of him going against that man, and how he effortlessly defeated them continued to run.

The more he thought about it, the angrier he got.

They, the Shadow Unit, the strongest Unit in the world... were played around like they were some bugs and that too, in front of the women they all respected so m-

Wait...

“Where is Lady Astaria?”

Suddenly, Keeve questioned.

“She is with that man.”

Phorus replied.

Keeve clenched her fists and then smiled weakly,

‘She wouldn’t bother to meet the losers, would she?’

“He passed out after the battle, it seemed more serious than your case, so she looked a bit worried,” Phorus explained.

“He... he passed out?” Keeve questioned.

“He did.” Phorus nodded.

Hearing that, for some reason, a smile appeared on Keeve’s face.

‘At least we didn’t lose that badly, even he had to use all his strength and overexert himself to win against us.’

And as if sensing what he was thinking about, Iria spoke,

“Yes, after he seemed to have overexerted himself when he was fighting against Lady Astaria and passed out.”

“Huh? H-He f-fought against Lady Astaria?”

Keeve’s eyes widened in surprise.

“He did...”

Phorus’s expression turned serious.

“W-What was the outcome...?”

Keeve questioned.

“Do you even have to ask that?” Iria questioned back.

“Ha... Haha... hahaha... that’s true, I don’t have to ask... of course Lady Astaria won... didn’t she? It must have been an easy battle for her.

There is no way that man could have fought against her...

So how long did he last against her?

5 Seconds? 10 maybe?”

Keeve questioned.

“...”

Phorus and Iria turned toward each other and didn't answer.

Seeing their reactions, Keeve's eyes widened in surprise as he thought about an absurd possibility.

"H-Hey, you are not telling me that he w-won, right?"

"Huh? Of course not! Lady Astaria is the strongest being in the world, how could she possibly lose against that man? Don't be ridiculous!"

Phorus retorted.

"R-Right, my bad. I... my mind is currently a mess. I apologize."

Keeve nodded with a relieved smile on his face.

"However,"

Suddenly, Phorus's face turned solemn as he revealed,

"That boy still managed to make her puke blood and fall on her knees."

"WHAT!?"

Keeve's eyes widened in surprise.

"Y-Y-You are lying, right?" He questioned with a hopeful look on his face.

Phorus smiled wryly as he replied,

"I wish I was... but..."

I am sorry to tell you Keeve...

The truth is,

That man held back when he fought against you guys."

Chapter 542

“Lady Astaria, we are here.”

Keeve and Reeve bowed their heads as they walked into Astaria’s room.

Astaria glanced at the two of them and questioned,

“How are you people feeling?”

“We are fine, Lady Astaria.”

Keeve replied, however, he didn’t dare to look into Astaria’s eyes as he answered.

He was embarrassed. Not only he, Reeve, Wysten, and the rest of the members of the Shadow Unit, all of them were embarrassed as well.

It has already been 3 days since they were defeated, however, the memories of it were still fresh in their minds.

And Astaria seemed to know about this.

“I shouldn’t have chosen you people to test that man huh.”

She commented, then, she sighed,

“Haahh... I made a mistake. I didn’t know that boy was so strong. I should have chosen someone else...”

Hearing those words, Keeve felt a strange pain in his heart, he couldn’t hold back anymore and spoke,

“It was not your fault, Lady Astaria, we were just too weak to fight against him. We didn’t train properly and got too conceited thinking we were the strongest Unit in the world when in truth, we were actually nothing.”

Reeve nodded as well,

“Yes, we should have trained harder, maybe then we wouldn’t have lost this shamefully.”

Astaria glanced at the two of them and questioned,

“Are you doing it now? The training I mean. Are you working on getting better, or are those just baseless words you are using to make yourself feel better?”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Keeve and Reeve turned silent.

“You people weren’t just sitting around, depressed that you lost for the last 3 days, were you?” Astaria questioned.

Keeve and Reeve tried to avoid eye contact.

“Look, that man was strong, honestly, even I was surprised by how strong he was, however, losing to him was not something to be ashamed of, nor it is something to be depressed about.

Make that man your goal, try to defeat it the next time to fight him, achieve heights that you never thought were possible, work hard and get stronger, if this still doesn’t work, work even harder,

Just don’t give up, you get that.

You are the strongest Unit in the world after all.”

“As you command, Lady Astaria.”

Keeve and Reeve nodded at the same time, their eyes shining in determination and fighting spirit.

Seeing that look in their eyes, Astaria smiled,

“Goo-”

However, just as she was about to praise them,

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

A knock was heard.

“Enter.”

Astaria commanded.

A man with wrinkles on his face walked into the room and greeted,

“Lady Astaria.”

“Wysten, why are you here?”

Astaria frowned.

Wysten glanced at Keeve and Reeve and reported,

“Queen Evane has summoned the Shadow Unit.”

Astaria’s expression changed and a small smile appeared on her face,

“So she is finally back huh...”

She then glanced at Keeve and Reeve and chuckled,

“Alright then, since the Queen herself has summoned you, I won’t hold back. Go and report to the Queen.

And do it with pride.

Show her that although you were defeated, you still haven’t admitted your defeat.”

Keeve and Reeve smiled as they glanced at Astaria and nodded.

“We will be taking our leave, Lady Astaria.”

Wysten spoke.

Astaria nodded. The three men then turned around, however, just as they were about to leave, Keeve turned towards Astaria and spoke,

“We will not disappoint you, Lady Astaria,

We will definitely defeat Lord Nux.”

Astaria smiled and nodded.

The three men then left and walked towards the Royal Palace.

There, they saw other members of the Shadow Unit and Queen Evane and her Sisters.

Their eyes started searching for a certain man, however, it seemed that the man in question wasn't there.

“Queen Evane.”

The Three Men greeted as they bowed their heads.

Evane glanced at them and nodded.

The three of them walked forward and stood near the other King Stage Cultivators.

“Prepare for the Phase 2 of the Lockdown.”

Evane ordered.

The Week that Queen Evane had given to all the spies living inside the Kingdom will be over tomorrow.

Of course, since nobody knew what was happening inside the Royal Palace, not many people took this warning seriously. Most thought that it was just a publicity stunt performed by Evane to increase her reputation.

Many did wonder why she was called Queen Evane rather than Princess, however, they didn't think too much about it and continued with their work.

If they would get scared about every little warning like this, they would have never worked as spies.

If only they knew what kind of mistake they were making...

If only they knew about the condition of the Royal Palace...

Many people inside the Royal Palace who had seen how Evane worked actually felt pity for all the spies who were thinking of going against the Kingdom.

To be honest, they were excited to see how Evane's actions would shock the entire Kingdom.

Everyone knew,

Once the given 7 days were over,

A hunt would begin.

Actually, Evane and others had already prepared for the Hunt and the initial targets were already locked. Nothing surprising, but there were even some Noble Houses that were on that list.

How will they go after the nobles?

Nothing special, they would just barge into their houses under the Royal Authority, and if anyone dares to go stop them, they would face retaliation.

A tyrant-like behavior.

Suddenly, Keeve stepped forward and reported,

“Queen Evane, preparations are already complete, I have sent my subordinates to all the boundary cities and towns, they all would work with the reigning City and Lords, and from there, they would completely lock all the exits.

As soon as tomorrow’s sun sets, leaving the Skyfall Kingdom would be impossible unless my subordinates, who are Grand Master Stage Cultivators, are defeated.”

Hearing his report, a smile appeared on Evane’s expressionless face.

“As expected from the Shadow Unit. Fast and efficient.

You are indeed the pride of our Kingdom.”

Keeve smiled inwardly...

Being recognized by Queen Evane...

For some reason, it felt rewarding...

Much more rewarding compared to the time they worked under King Ricardus.

Chapter 543

d

“We will not disappoint you, Lady Astaria,

We will definitely defeat Lord Nux.”

Astaria smiled and nodded.

The three men then walked out of the room.

As they left, Astaria’s smile turned into a wry one and then she sighed, ‘Defeating him huh...

It’s not possible...

At least not until you become an Emperor Stage Cultivator.’

Of course, she would never say that out loud since this would simply break the Shadow Unit’s morale.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Suddenly, Astaria heard another knock.

“Enter.”

She ordered.

A man with black hair, golden eyes, and a handsome face walked in with a playful smile on his face, “Lady Astaria, I am here.

Did you miss me?”

Astaria glanced at the man with a deadpan look on her face,

“Why would I miss you?”

“Because you fell in love with me and couldn’t get me out of your mind?”

Nux didn’t leave the chance.

“As shameless as usual I see.

And no, I did not fall in love and my mind works perfectly fine, so I don’t even think about you at all.”

Astaria, however, was already used to him and didn’t react at all.

“As cold as usual I see.”

Nux nodded to himself.

“No worries, I just need to defeat you, once that happens, you would naturally give your heart to me.”

He shrugged.

“...”

Astaria turned silent.

Seeing that, Nux frowned, he then glanced at Astaria and smiled playfully,

“You aren’t going back on your words, are you?”

“...”

Astaria didn’t reply.

“No way... are you actually scared that you would lose to me and are going back on your words?”

I don't know if I should be delighted or disappointed.”

“Didn't you...

Win the bet already?”

Suddenly, Astaria questioned in a low voice.

“Huh?”

Nux frowned, he glanced at Astaria and his eyes widened in surprise as he saw an expression he never thought he would see.

Astaria's face was red.

She was trying to avoid eye contact, however, not wanting to appear weak, she would look back at him, only to avoid looking into his eyes again.

Seeing someone like Astaria, the woman who radiated dominance and superiority, acting like that, Nux felt a strange twitch in his lower region.

Unconsciously, a playful smile appeared on his face as he walked toward Astaria and questioned,

“Heeeehh? What are you talking about, Lady Astaria?”

“Y-You won the bet...

You defeated me in our last battle...”

Astaria spoke.

Hearing those words, Nux frowned,

“But I didn't defeat you though?”

“Y-You held back in the end,

If you had attacked properly, the attack would have targeted my heart and I would have died...”

Astaria spoke.

Nux narrowed his eyes as he questioned.

“Are you looking down on me?”

Hearing that question, Astaria’s flustered expression turned into a frown as well,

“W-What are you talking about?”

“I did aim at your heart, although at the center, but I still aimed at the part of it.

If my attack was successful, you would have passed out.

Then I would have placed my sword at your neck and that would have been my victory, you, however, somehow stopped my attack midway before it could reach your heart.

So even if I had attacked at the center of your attack like you said, you would have countered it.”

Nux explained.

“...”

Astaria turned silent.

Nux was correct, even if he had aimed at her heart, she would have survived.

“I did not win that match.”

Nux stated.

However, Astaria disagreed with his statement.

For her, an Emperor Stage Cultivator, to puke blood when fighting a King Stage Cultivator, it was a defeat in her eyes.

And as if knowing what she was thinking, Nux brought his face close to Astaria's, and with a solemn expression on his face, he replied,

“Do not look down on me, Lady Astaria.

I will only accept my victory when I actually defeat you.

I don't want a victory that is given to me because of how pitifully weak I am.

Lady Astaria, I will defeat you.

I will defeat you fair and square, and I,

I will make you mine.”

Hearing those words, Astaria's expression changed.

She had never seen this expression on Nux's face.

An expression brimming with... pride... and confidence...

Nux on the other hand, backed away and stood in front of her.

There were many things going on in his mind.

He had the chance...

He had the chance to make Astaria his... however, for some reason, the inner him didn't allow it...

It was strange, however, when he thought how Astaria was giving him the victory, he couldn't help but feel... angry?

He was not a particularly prideful person and was pretty shameless in his ways...

Even he couldn't understand why he didn't just jump onto Astaria right there... but for some reason, he didn't hate himself for what he did...

Rather, he was rather... proud of what he did...

“Heh, I gave you chance, boy.”

Suddenly, a smile appeared on Astaria's face.

The flustered expression she showed before completely disappeared and was replaced by her usual confident self that radiated an air of dominance and superiority.

“And as I said before, I do not beg for what I want, I will take it myself.”

A similar smile appeared on Nux's face as well.

His Aura started to change...

It... was looking more and more like Astaria's aura...

This time, he didn't look like a man wooing the woman he loved, rather,

He looked like a warrior who was challenging another warrior.

“Alright then boy. I have decided.

I will train you.”

Suddenly, Astaria declared.

“Huh?”

“All the operations of you going to the Woods Dynasty and defeating Solid Earth Kingdom's soldiers will be postponed until I am satisfied with the results of your training and keep in mind, it is not a request.

It is a command.”

Nux didn't know what to say.

A crazy smile appeared on Astaria's face as she declared,

“Be prepared boy,

I will show you what hell looks like.”

Nux, of course, couldn't allow her to get one over him, therefore, his smile widened as well, and he replied,

“Heh, that is a good indirect way of saying,

‘I love you, so I will train you until we are a couple’.

I expected no less from you, Lady Astaria~”

Chapter 544

“Heh, that is a good indirect way of saying,

‘I love you, so I will train you until we are a couple’.

I expected no less from you, Lady Astaria~”

Nux chuckled.

“Stop with your nonsense.”

Astaria retorted.

“We need to contact Amaya, with the sudden change of plans, I am sure that she would need to change her plans about the Woods Dynasty as well.

Wait a minute, let me call a servant,”

Astaria spoke, Nux, however, shook his head,

“Don’t bother, I already told her.

She says it’s a good thing, she needed some more time to contact the Woods as well.”

“Ah, she didn’t do anything for the last 2 days since she was beside you all the time.” Astaria nodded.

Nux smiled as he thought about it.

Soon, however, a frown appeared on Astaria’s face as she questioned,

“When did you contact her though? You were right in front of me...”

“That’s the power of true love, we can talk to each other no matter the distance.”

Nux smiled.

Then, he glanced at Astaria and continued,

“Don’t worry, you will be able to do it soon enough.”

Astaria didn’t react.

“Alright then.

Let’s not waste any more time,

Let’s go.”

“Huh? Right now?”

“Of course, or do you have something to do?”

Astaria questioned.

“Well, they must be preparing for phase 2 of the lockdown.”

Nux replied.

“Isn’t Evane there already? She can take care of that on her own. She is the Queen after all.

Use that magic of yours to tell her that you won’t be coming.”

Astaria ordered.

Nux didn’t have any other option but to do what he was told.

“You are really planning to take your student’s student huh...”

Nux commented with a playful smile on his face.

“Hmph! Now that you say it, I finally remembered that I still had a student.”

Astaria snorted.

“...did you really forget about your own student...?”

Nux questioned with a deadpan look on his face.

“Hmph! If the student forgot about her teacher already, why should the teacher remember her?” Astaria questioned back.

She looked like she was annoyed by something.

Seeing that, Nux frowned,

“What are you talking about? Teacher Arvina never forgot about you, she even brags how amazing you are at every chance she gets.”

“And yet she is still not here to greet the one she ‘always brags about’.”

Astaria snorted.

“Lady Astaria...”

Suddenly, Nux called out.

“What?” Astaria turned towards Nux and questioned.

“You do remember that the Royal Palace is under strict lockdown, right? Not even Teacher Arvina would be allowed to enter right now.”

“...”

Astaria turned silent.

“...”

Nux didn't say anything and continued to look at Astaria.

“I... I will go meet her after we are done with today's training session.”

Nux looked at Astaria's expression and sighed.

A silent agreement about not talking about this incident anymore was made.

...

In the training grounds, Nux and Astaria stood in front of each other.

“Now before I start your training, I would like to say a few things.”

“I am listening.”

This time, Nux didn't have his usual playful smile, he had a rather serious expression on his face.

An expression that Astaria liked a lot.

“You are strong.”

Astaria commented.

“...”

Nux didn't say anything since he knew Astaria hadn't completed her sentence.

“Honestly, when I learned about that absurd ability to grow while as you spend time with your women, I thought you were gifted.

With this kind of absurd talent, it was natural for you to become a King Stage Cultivator.

However, I thought that although you were granted this ability, this ability was also your biggest enemy.

Since attaining power was something easy for you, the respect you have for this power would be less.

I thought that although your cultivation was strong, your reflexes, your decision-making skills, your reaction to danger, your swordsmanship, every one of these things will be your weakness.

However, you proved me wrong.

When I saw you fighting against the Shadow Unit, I realized that your reflexes were rather good and when I fought against you, I understood that you weren't someone who was conceited after getting that absurd power, rather, you trained from the basics.

It is not something that is easy to do, especially when you have the power to rule over the world without doing anything.

You are a strong cultivator Nux.”

Astaria praised.

A smile appeared on Nux's face, however, in reply, he just nodded and his expression turned normal again.

He was sure that Astaria wasn't just telling this to flatter him or something like that, she must have a goal.

“So from now on, I will not be comparing you to the King Stage Cultivators.

I will be comparing you with your next targets,

The Emperors.”

Astaria spoke and a glint shone in Nux's eyes.

“The current you can go against Emperor Stage Cultivators, especially against someone like Amletus Skadi.

To be honest, after a little bit of training, I am certain that you can even defeat him.”

“Huh?”

Nux’s expression finally changed.

Seeing that, Astaria smiled and explained herself,

“Yes, Amletus Skadi, his talent is absurdly high, he never took cultivation seriously but he still became an Emperor. However, since he lacked a basic foundation, he became the weakest of all the 4 Emperors in the world.

Of course, if he is serious, defeating him is next to impossible, however, the thing is,

He is never serious.

He is arrogant and conceited, especially if he realizes the one he is fighting against is a mere King Stage Cultivator.

You can use this in your favor and defeat him using the technique you used against me.”

Nux absorbed every single word Astaria said.

“That technique really is the greatest trump card you currently hold, for the current you, it is even more important than your ability to Dual Cultivate.

If you used this technique correctly and take your opponents by surprise as you did with me, I am sure you can kill Amletus, and even Alcimus Woods, the third Strongest Emperor.”

Nux’s raised his eyebrow in shock and astonishment.

Chapter 545

“If you used this technique correctly and take your opponents by surprise as you did with me, I am sure you can kill Amletus, and even Alcimus Woods, the third Strongest Emperor.”

Nux’s raised his eyebrow in shock and astonishment.

His technique was that strong?

He didn’t know...

To be honest, when Astaria deflected his technique, he realized that his technique may not be as strong as he thought it was.

However, he forgot something when he came up with that judgment...

Astaria Skyfall, this woman standing in front of him, was the strongest being in this world.

No one... absolutely no one could defeat this woman...

The fact that he managed to injure this woman...

It was a great feat that many wouldn’t dare to believe.

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face.

Then, a small frown appeared on his face as she questioned,

“What about Herms Lizander?”

Hearing his question, Astaria smiled and then answered honestly,

“That old man is different.”

“Why is that?” Nux questioned.

“He is not like the other two Emperors.

Herms Lizander, before I became an Emperor, he was known as the strongest being in the world.”

“Oh?”

“Indeed. Unlike Amletus and Alcimus, that man didn’t become an Emperor based on his talent alone. He has participated in countless battles, he possesses an unbreakable will, and his mastery over his skills is strong.

He is a formidable opponent that I respect from my heart.”

“That is quite a high praise coming from you.”

Nux commented.

“Well, he deserves it. There was a time when he was the man I looked up to, after all.” Astaria replied with a smile.

“I don’t get it.” Suddenly, Nux frowned.

“What is it?” Astaria questioned.

“If Herms is so strong, then why was the Solid Earth Kingdom called the weakest? Shouldn’t it be called the Second Strongest?”

“Ahh, you must have heard that the rank of a Kingdom is judged by how strong the Protector of that Kingdom is, right?”

Nux nodded.

“The truth is that the rank is the combination of the strength of the protector and the strength of the Kingdom itself.

Skyfall Kingdom has the strongest army, and obviously the strongest protector, which is why its rank is undisputable first.

Solid Earth Kingdom, on the other hand, is different. Its protector is strong, however, its army... its army is incredibly weak...

Well, at least that's what the people thought before... but as you can see, with Herms interference, their army is a lot stronger than before.

So you can say if the Kingdoms are ranked again, then the Solid Earth Kingdom would be ranked at 2nd place."

Astaria explained and Nux nodded in understanding.

"I have another question."

"Ask."

"You placed Amletus Skadi and Alcimus Woods in the same category, however, when you talked about Amletus, you seem oddly... repulsed? Is there a specific reason?

Do you have some sort of enmity with him?"

Nux questioned.

"Well, if I am being honest, I am repulsed by that man," Astaria admitted.

"Why is that?" Nux questioned.

"He is weak."

"Huh?"

"He is weak, and he is conceited.

It is a combination I hate the most."

Astaria spoke with a disgusted look on his face and continued,

"That man continued to make fun of me even before I became an Emperor.

‘A woman becoming an Emperor? Hahaha~ What a joke! Girl, can you even take this huge responsibility on those tiny shoulders of yours? Hahaha! You should rather go cook for your husband and be a good mother.’

He used to say that whenever we met.

Of course, I always ignored him and didn’t react.

He was an Emperor, he was strong and the strong had the right to do anything, therefore, I couldn’t react.

I continued to train and soon, I become an Emperor.

When he heard that, he rushed and challenged me to a duel.

He was trying to take advantage of the fact that I had just recently broken through and was trying to ‘show me my place’.

Of course, I accepted the battle and that’s why I realized...

That man was pathetically weak...

He wasn’t even a worthy match...

After speaking all highly and mightily like that and then showing that much strength...

To be honest, I don’t hate that man, rather, I hate myself that I allowed that man to talk down to me so many times. It hurt my pride.”

Astaria shared the shortened version of the story.

“ ... ”

Nux didn’t know what to say...

This woman...

Just how badly did that Amletus perform for her to act like this?

If anyone heard her say these words, they would feel like even they could defeat that so-called emperor...

“Anyways, we are not here to talk about all this. We are here for your training, so stop thinking about all this useless stuff.”

“R-right.” Nux nodded.

“Your real training will start tomorrow,

Today, I will tell you about Mana.”

“Mana?” Nux frowned.

Suddenly, a small smile appeared on Astaria’s face and she spoke,

“Let me tell you a secret Nux,

When it comes to raw strength,

You are stronger than me.”

“Huh!?”

Nux’s eyes widened in surprise.

What was she talking about?

He has fought with this woman.

She was someone who somehow affected him, passing through the defense of [Mirror] with just her raw strength alone.

Nux knew that although he was strong, there was no way he could possibly do something like that.

“What we emperors use to strengthen ourselves is Mana.”

Astaria revealed.

“Mana?”

Nux frowned.

Suddenly, Astaria walked towards a thick wall, she took a battle stance and punched the wall.

A few cracks appeared on the walls.

Astaria then walked towards another, a similar type of wall,

“Watch carefully.”

She spoke.

Nux narrowed his eyes,

“Trust your senses more than eyes,” Astaria spoke.

Nux frowned, then suddenly, he realized that the Mana in the air was moving strangely,

*Bam*

*BOOM*

Astaria punched the wall and,

The wall burst into pieces.

“!!!”

Nux’s eyes widened in surprise.

He realized what Astaria was talking about.

Chapter 546

“!!!”

Nux’s eyes widened in surprise.

He realized what Astaria was talking about.

“Y-You are directly using Mana!”

He spoke.

“Indeed.”

Astaria’s smile widened and she nodded.

“Unlike normal Cultivators, who use Elements present in the Mana to partially use the strength of Mana, we, the Emperors directly manipulate Mana.

The Purest form of power.

We use Mana to strengthen our punches, we use Mana to increase our speed and we use Mana to strengthen our defenses.

We use Mana for everything.

We have the perfect attack, defense, and speed,

That is the reason the Emperors are the strongest.”

“T-Then if you run out of Mana...

Does that mean I can defeat you with raw strength?”

Nux questioned.

Astaria, however, shook her head,

“It is not that simple.

The Mana we emperors use is not the Mana we have stored inside our Mana.

The Mana we use is the Mana in the air.”

“What!?”

Nux’s eyes widened in shock.

“Indeed, the Emperors manipulate the Mana present in their surroundings to fight. They do not use their own Mana.

So... for you to defeat us using your raw strength... it would only be possible if all the Mana in the world is dried up, which is of course...”

“Impossible.” Nux completed.

“Indeed.” Astaria nodded.

“So you are telling me that since Emperors will not use up their own Mana, they can continue to fight for as long as they want?” Nux questioned and again, Astaria shook her head.

“Well, there is also our physical stamina, we can’t fight for a long period of time since even we will eventually get tired.

Also, it is not like we do not use Mana at all.

We need to use some of our own Mana to stimulate the Mana in the air.

So although rare, there are cases when even Emperors run out of Mana.”

Astaria explained.

“ ... ”

Nux turned silent.

“What happened?”

Astaria questioned.

“This is absurd...”

Nux commented.

“Please, I don’t want to hear that from you.”

Astaria shook her head.

“Why are you even telling me all this? It is not like I can Manipulate Mana...” Nux questioned.

Soon, however, his expression changed as he questioned,

“Or are you saying that there is a way for me to use Mana directly just like Emperors?”

Astaria, however, chuckled and shook her head,

“That is not possible, don’t be ridiculous.”

“...”

“The reason I am telling all this to you is that if you know this fact, then you can use this to your advantage in a fight against the emperors.”

Astaria spoke.

Nux narrowed his eyes.

Astaria smiled, “Think about it, Emperors are strong, however, when it comes to raw strength, you overpower them. What would happen if you attack them before they have the chance to gather Mana?”

“ ... ”

Nux turned silent and started thinking about what Astaria said.

“If I attack them before they could put up their defenses...

Then I can defeat them.”

Astaria’s smile widened,

“Indeed.”

“So if I somehow manage to launch a sneak attack, then I can defeat an Emperor.”

“Correct.” Astaria nodded.

“However, things are not that simple.”

“Hmm?”

Nux tilted his head in confusion.

“As Emperors use Mana around them, their sensitivity is higher than normal cultivators, sneaking up to them... is a task that is close to impossible since they would react to even slightest of change around their Mana.

And as you know, every being affects Mana in some way or another, so as soon as you go near them, the Mana will be affected and they will be alerted.”

Astaria explained.

Nux’s frown deepened,

“Then what’s the point of telling me all this? I can’t defeat Emperors this way, now can I?”

He questioned.

To be honest, if Emperors are sensitive to Mana, even if [Conceal] worked on them, he still wouldn't be able to sneak up on them.

[Conceal] affects his presence, it has no effect on the surrounding Mana.

“Nux, if defeating Emperors was that easy, anyone would have done it. Just because you know how Emperors fight doesn't mean that you would be able to defeat them.

What I told you was a way.

I showed you the way to defeat an Emperor.

I told you their weakness.

I told you, my weakness.

How you take advantage of this depends on you.

You have to think outside of the box, you have to come up with a way yourself, because if I knew about it, I would have done the impossible and would have defeated the Emperors when I was a King Stage Cultivator.”

Astaria spoke and Nux turned silent.

Astaria was right.

What she shared was incredibly informative, it was something that barely a handful of people in the entire world knew, now how he would use this to his advantage depended on him.

“Of course, that doesn't mean the training is over. The training hasn't even started.

However, what I will train you for is not ‘how you can defeat an Emperor’, I would train you on ‘how to defend yourself against an Emperor’.

I would train your reflexes, I would train your control over your Skills, I would train your swordsmanship.

I would refine you and turn you into the best warrior there is.”

Astaria announced.

Hearing those words, a smile appeared on Nux’s face as he spoke.

“I am looking forward to the training, Lady Astaria.”

“I hope you still keep this attitude after we are done.”

Astaria tilted her head as she smiled wickedly.

Nux, however, wasn’t intimidated and smiled as well,

“Don’t worry, I will keep up this attitude till I defeat you.

I promise you,

You won’t have to wait for long,

Astaria.”

Astaria wasn’t offended that he called her without using honorifics, rather, her smile just widened as a sword appeared in her hand.

“Alright then, let’s see if you are actually capable or are just full of words.”

A glint shone in her eyes as she looked forward to another spar,

Nux, however, suddenly stepped back as he replied,

“Didn’t you have to meet Teacher Arvina?”

“...”

Arvina finally recalled.

“...I forgot about it.”

Nux smiled wryly.

Chapter 547

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

“Hmm?”

A frown appeared on Riona’s face as she heard a knock.

“Enter.”

She ordered.

A servant then walked into her room and bowed,

“Lady Riona, you have been summoned.”

Hearing those words, Riona’s face turned serious.

Not many people could ‘summon’ her in the Royal Palace.

Actually, no one expect a single man had this power.

Even the King of the Skadi Kingdom can only call for her, going or not was still up to her.

However, if she was ‘summoned’, she couldn’t turn it out.

Especially since the person who summoned her was the strongest man in the Skadi Kingdom.

Riona nodded.

The servant bowed and walked away.

Riona quickly prepared herself and walked out.

Then, she walked into Amletus’s room and knocked.

“Enter.”

She heard a voice and walked in.

There, she saw a man whose features matched her own, black hair, black eyes, he wore golden white clothes and a suffocating aura surrounded him.

The man glanced at Riona and unconsciously, she bowed her head.

“Greetings, Lord Amletus.”

Riona’s eyes then finally fell on the King, who was looking at her with an angry expression on his face.

“Fath-”

He wanted to shout, however, Amletus glared at him and he stopped.

Then after correcting himself, the King continued,

“Lord Amletus, she was the one who told me about the mission, she was the one who told me to send my subordinates to help that Prince.”

Riona glanced at the King and didn’t say anything.

Amletus glanced at Riona and questioned,

“Do you have anything to say?”

Riona then turned towards Amletus and replied,

“If the King is acting on my words, you might as well make me the Queen and give me all power.”

“You-!”

The King was about to shout and Riona however, Amletus raised his hand and continued to glance at Riona.

“We have already been over it,”

“I understand that, Lord Amletus, according to our Kingdom’s rules, a woman cannot lead the Kingdom, I know that. However, our Kingdom rules don’t allow an incompetent King to sit on the throne either.”

Riona replied in a calm tone.

The King glared at her with hatred.

Amletus narrowed his eyes as well.

“We will discuss this another day, I wish to know about a different matter today.

Tell me, were you the one who told him to help that Prince?”

Amletus questioned directly.

“I did not tell him.”

Riona replied.

“Lies! She is lying! She was the one who gave me the letter in the first place!”

The King shouted.

Well, he couldn’t be blamed either.

If it was anything else, he wouldn’t have cared either, however, two King Stage Cultivators died in this mission, taking responsibility for this incident was not something he could do.

King Stage Cultivators were the active power of a Kingdom, after all.

“She was the one who came to me, telling me to send my subordinates to the Skyfall Kingdom. She must have already known that they would die, that is the only reason she came to me and didn't send her own subordinates.

It is not a secret that the relation between the Cultivators who died and her wasn't good. Their death would definitely benefit her. She must have planned it.

No, I am sure of it.

She planned to borrow the enemy's blade to get rid of her enemies.

It is not like she has done it the first time.

Actually, I even suspect that she has ties with the Skyfall Kingdom, otherwise, just think about it, how would that girl defend against 3 King Stage Cultivators and survive?

That is simply impossible!"

The King placed all the blame on Riona.

Hearing his words, Amletus frowned. He then glanced at Riona and raised his eyebrow,

"Are you sure you didn't have anything to do with the letter? Would it be alright if I do an investigation of my own?"

Riona, however, shook her head,

"I never said that I had nothing to do with the letter.

And he is right, I was the one who gave him that letter.

However, I never 'told' him to send people to the Skyfall Kingdom, I only suggested it.

He even asked me why I am not sending my own subordinates to this mission, if I successfully completed it, my position would have solidified and there would have been a lot to gain, so why didn't I do it?

At that time, I gave him a clear answer.

I told him that I was not 100% sure of completing the mission due to lack of information, that's why I didn't send my subordinates there.

We actually had a decent chat about it and I even warned him to gather more information before making any moves.

It was he who moved hurriedly and stupidly sacrificed two of his most gifted subordinates, to be honest, as much as I am grieved about their deaths, in my heart, I blame them for following a foolish man's orders."

Riona replied and this time, the King turned silent.

Amletus realized that Riona wasn't lying.

He turned towards the King and narrowed his eyes.

The King avoided his gaze.

"Is what she said the truth?"

"..."

The King didn't say anything.

Amletus's eyes turned cold.

Inwardly, however, he sighed,

'Just how is my own blood so dumb? Did that bitch have an affair?

No, that is not possible...'

Amletus then glanced at Riona and sighed,

'Just why can't he be like her sister? I am sure this girl manipulated him, however, this idiot is such a big fool that he can't even prove his own innocence...

Haaahh...

If only you were born as a male...'

Amletus sighed.

"Be prepared for your punishment."

In the end, Amletus declared.

The King's face turned pale.

"Now leave."

Amletus ordered.

"F-FAthe-"

"I said leave."

Amletus repeated, this time, his tone was sterner than before.

The King turned silent and quickly walked out of the room.

Amletus glanced at Riona and,

"I said leave."

"I have something to discuss with you.

It is important."

"..."

Amletus glanced at Riona for a while and then, he questioned,

"What is it?"

Chapter 548

Amletus glanced at Riona for a while and then, he questioned,

“What is it?”

“It is about the Solid Earth Kingdom.”

Riona replied.

Hearing that, Amletus narrowed his eyes and spoke,

“I told you to ignore that, didn’t I?”

“As someone who manages the entire Kingdom, I can’t simply ignore something that might, no that is affecting my Kingdom.”

Riona replied calmly.

“What are you talking about?” Amletus questioned as he narrowed his eyes.

“The Solid Earth Army is completely overpowering the Woods Dynasty.”

“And?”

“The speed at which they achieved this is not something our army can do. That means, if we do not use our secret force, then their army strength is stronger than ours. Of course, we are not sure that the results won’t be the same if we use all our forces.

After all, no one knows whether they have a secret force for themselves or not.”

Riona reported.

“I don’t understand, it is the fight between two other Kingdoms. How is it affecting us? Rather, since they are destroying each other forces, shouldn’t it profit us instead?”

“It is about the ranking, after seeing their army strength, many believe that the Solid Earth Kingdom deserves the second rank and our Kingdom does not.”

Riona replied.

“Heh, since when were you worried about things like ranking?”

Amletus chuckled.

“Since it is affecting our reputation negatively, I cannot help but worry. Who knows, the Solid Earth Kingdom might target us next and since I am unable to get any information on them, my worries are increasing.”

“You are thinking too much. They won’t attack us right after attacking another Kingdom. You should know that as well.”

Amletus waved his hand and shrugged.

‘Too unbothered...’

It is as if he already knows something...’

Riona noted his attitude inwardly.

“Rather.” Suddenly, Amletus glanced at Riona and his expression turned serious,

“Now that he is gone, let me ask you.

Did you manipulate him?”

“I do not understand what you mean.” Riona’s answer was quick.

“Let me change my question then,

Why did you kill 2 of our King Stage Cultivators?

No matter what kind of enmity was there between you two, killing them was too extreme.”

Amletus spoke as a suffocating aura surrounded Riona.

Riona’s expression changed, she could feel the air around her turning heavy.

She knew she couldn’t make a mistake here, therefore, with a slightly panicked expression, she replied,

“What I said was the truth, Raguel, the First Prince contacted me, I thought it was a good opportunity to get the Solid Earth Kingdom under us, however, I still wasn’t sure so I gave the letter to him.”

Amletus narrowed his eyes,

“I am not a fool like him, Riona.

Why would Raguel contact you, or the Skadi Kingdom in general when there were other options available.”

“No other options were available.”

“What do you mean?”

“The solid Earth Kingdom is completely sealed, entering the Kingdom was impossible, and Woods had their own problem to deal with.

We were the only options.”

“ ... ”

Amletus turned silent.

“You know how incompetent that man is, why did you give the letter to him, why did you not settle it yourself?”

“If I had actual power, I would have taken the risk, however, my position is very critical, I cannot afford to make a mistake.

I gave the letter to him because I wanted to cooperate, but that idiot kicked me out as soon as he received the letter, trying to take all the ‘credit’ for himself.”

Riona replied.

Soon, she felt the pressure around her decrease.

A small smile appeared on her face before disappearing.

She continued to observe Amletus’s reactions and then,

‘Time for phase 2.’

Deciding that, Riona continued,

“Actually, the Skyfall Kingdom is acting strangely as well.”

“Huh? What do you mean?”

Amletus tilted his head in confusion.

“When our cultivators were killed, I also wondered the same thing.

How did that girl survive against 3 King Stage Cultivators? What happened? How did this happen?

I had to know about it.

Therefore, I sent my spies to the Skyfall Kingdom.

There, I found something interesting.”

“What did you find?”

Amletus questioned with a curious look on his face.

“A challenge.”

Riona replied as she continued to read Amletus’s expressions.

Unlike the time she talked about the Solid Earth Kingdom, now his expressions were keen, he looked more alert, more involved, as if he was afraid he would miss some information.

“Challenge?”

“Yes, a challenge.

‘All spies should leave the Kingdom within 7 days.

Else, you will be hunted down.’

This was announced throughout the Kingdom.”

“A challenge to all the spies huh?”

Amletus quickly understood.

“Yes, and that’s not it.

The most interesting part is that the person who ordered this announcement was Queen Evane.”

“Queen Evane?”

Amletus frowned.

“What happened to Ricardus?”

“I had the same question, I ordered my Spies to infiltrate the Palace, however, I learned that the Palace was completely sealed. They couldn’t enter the Palace no matter how hard they tried.”

“Sealed?”

“Yes, just as the Solid Earth Kingdom sealed their entire Kingdom, Skyfall Kingdom Sealed their Royal Palace.”

“This is not something that princess can do on her own...”

Amletus commented.

“Indeed...”

Riona nodded.

“So that woman is out huh...”

“Huh? That woman?”

Riona frowned.

“Astaria Skyfall, the protector of the Skyfall Kingdom.”

Amletus informed.

“Ahh, the one who is called the strongest being in the world?” Riona questioned.

She then noticed a slight change in Amletus’s expression and frowned.

“Strongest my ass, that woman is just lucky.” Amletus snorted.

Riona’s frown deepened.

“So did you not learn anything else about the Skyfall Kingdom?” Amletus questioned.

“There is one thing I have learned, however, this is only a rumor, I do not have any proof yet but if I am being honest, I am positive this is true.”

“What is it?” Amletus questioned.

“The Skyfall Kingdom will help the Woods Dynasty.”

Riona revealed.

“Huh?”

Amletus’s expression changes.

“Yes, they plan to send an army to aid the Woods Army and get rid of the Solid Earth Kingdom’s Army.”

Chapter 549

“Try to condense more Wind Elements under your feet, some with better control are able to do so with such preciseness that sometimes, they don’t even have to place their foot on the ground for running, it is close to flying, however, achieving it is much harder and require years of prac-”

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

“Hmm?”

While Arvina was teaching in her class, someone knocked on the doors, a frown appeared on her face, she turned to the doors and questioned,

“Yes?”

The doors opened and a bald man walked in with a smile,

“Teacher Arvina, someone wants to meet you.”

A strange smile appeared on Arvina’s face as she replied,

“Principal... I am currently teaching, please tell them to wait till I am finished.”

The Principal laughed awkwardly,

“Teacher Arvina...”

I don’t think you should make that person wait...”

“Huh?”

Arvina frowned.

There weren’t many people who could make this baldy act like that.

It must mean that whoever wishes to see her has a very high status.

Even so, Astaria wasn't someone who would bow her head and break her morals. Her expression turned strict and she replied, “Principal, I am currently teaching. No matter who it is, for me, my students come first. I will meet that person later,

Please tell him to wait.”

Arvina spoke.

“Oh? To think that I need to wait in order to see you, you are busy indeed.”

Suddenly, a woman walked into the room.

Seeing that woman, the students frowned.

Who was she?

How can she enter the classroom like that?

Also, why couldn't they sense her cultivation?

Was she a mortal?

If she was, then what's with that suffocating pressure coming from her?

Just who was she woman?

The woman, however, completely ignored all the students and walked toward Arvina.

Seeing her, Arvina's eyes widened in surprise,

“Teacher!”

She called out as she rushed towards Astaria.

Astaria smiled.

“Teacher, you are here!”

“Since my student didn’t bother to come to meet me, I thought I would do it myself,” Astaria replied.

“That’s not it, I did come, however, they didn’t allow me to enter.” Astaria clarified herself.

Astaria chuckled as she patted Arvina’s head, then, she turned towards students and spoke,

“Alright little brats, the class is over. Leave.”

“H-Huh?”

The students frowned.

You can do that?

They wondered in their head, however, seeing that Teacher Arvina didn’t stop her teacher, the students understood that it did happen.

The class was over.

Before students could say anything, Astaria brought Arvina out of the classroom.

“I will leave them to you.”

She spoke to Baldy and Baldy’s body flinched.

“A-As you command, Lady Astaria.”

As they left, the students turned toward their principal and asked with curious looks on their faces,

“Principal, who was that Lady?”

“Yes, tell us, what is her identity? Why does she sound so rude?”

“Yes, she was even rude to the Principal. How dare she, the principal should teach her a lesson.”

Hearing their words, Baldy felt like his soul would be taken away by the grim reaper, his heart skipped a beat and,

“S-Shut up you brats!”

He shouted.

...

On the other side, Astaria and Arvina, who were now taking a stroll started catching up with each other,

“How have you been?” Astaria questioned.

“I am fine of course. With you here, can anyone say anything to me?”

Arvina smiled.

“Hahaha~ Look at you. You got good at flattering huh.”

Astaria laughed, and Arvina laughed as well.

“How about you, Teacher? How are you? A lot of things happened, right? Even you were forced out of your closed-door cultivation.”

Arvina commented.

“A lot of things indeed happened.”

Astaria nodded.

“Mhm.”

Arvina nodded as well.

“I finally got my revenge on that Ricardus Bastard.”

Astaria revealed.

“WHAT!?”

Arvina’s eyes widened in shock.

Seeing her reaction, a smile appeared on Astaria’s face.

“Mhm, now you are free.”

Arvina was someone who was ‘sold’ by her family to the King. However, unlike others who just accepted their fates, Arvina never did that, she resisted Ricardus at every chance she got.

For some reason, Ricardus liked that even more.

Conquering someone like Arvina became like a game for him.

Arvina knew that as well, she knew that this man was just playing with her, however, she didn’t care.

She continued to resist.

Her family had already abandoned her, so she didn’t care about them, with nothing to lose, she continued to fight.

And one day, when Ricardus was trying to force himself on her, she pushed him away and attacked him with a vase.

Of course, since Ricardus was a King Stage Cultivator, he wasn’t hurt, however, his ego was hurt.

All the games were over.

He walked towards Arvina, ready to use force, unlucky for him, Astaria, who was watching Arvina for a while was impressed by her spirit and since it was a great opportunity to take what Ricardus wanted from him, she decided to interfere.

At first, she only did it to annoy that man, however, soon, she got attached to Arvina and even though she wasn't particularly talented, she liked her spirit and started training her.

Since then, their relationship grew and Arvina then learned about Astaria's son.

“D-Did you kill him?”

Arvina questioned.

“Of course not, that will be too easy. He will be executed in front of everyone after Evane is crowned as the next Queen in the next few days.”

“Next Queen... ahh... so that's why they called her Queen Evane in the announcement.”

“Indeed, she has already taken over as the Queen.”

Astaria informed.

“How is she doing?”

Arvina questioned.

She was actually worried about Evane.

As far as she knew, Evane was not suitable to become a Queen.

“She? She is doing incredible. No, she is far more than incredible.

She would be a Great Queen.”

Astaria, however, had a completely different image in her mind compared to Arvina.

Arvina frowned,

“She is that good?”

She questioned in surprise.

“Of course, she is not alone, everyone around her are just monsters.

Especially that man.”

Hearing these words, Arvina’s expression changed.

“A-Are you talking about Nux?”

She questioned.

Chapter 550

“A-Are you talking about Nux?”

She questioned.

“Hmm? Of course, I am. Can you even imagine any other man around Evane?”

That silly girl is practically attached to that man.

I don't even understand how she goes from being a strict, cruel, and upfront ruler, to a girl who does nothing but smile as she stick to that man.

The transition is just too shocking.”

Astaria sighed.

“A-A Cruel, Strict, and Upfront ruler?”

Arvina frowned.

She has seen that side where she just smiles while being spoiled by Nux, that side, she knows well.

But a Cruel Evane?

Was this some sort of joke?

“Hmm? You seem surprised.”

Astaria frowned.

“That girl has been staying in the Academy, right? So you must already have some idea about her, don't you?” Astaria questioned.

“...”

Arvina didn't know what to say.

Seeing this, Astaria frowned,

“Arvina, speak freely, what are you thinking about?”

“W-Well... the Evane I know... s-she is completely different than Evane you are talking about...”

Astaria then started talking about how she views Evane and even gave some examples.

Hearing those words, Astaria frowned.

A person can change, however, it takes time to change their core values.

There is no such thing as instantaneous change.

A person can act differently, however, in the end, a keener person would realize something is missing.

She knew about Nux's Dual Cultivation.

The ability to strengthen women as they mate, it was absurd, however, since she saw the results with her own eyes, she knew it actually exists.

However, for Evane to change to this degree just because she gained power...

That seemed too far-fetched...

Suddenly, Astaria narrowed her eyes as she thought of another possibility,

‘Does that man somehow alter his women's personalities as well?’

His women do seem abnormally attached to him...’

Soon, however, Astaria shook her head.

She has spent a decent amount of time with that man.

His wives may be abnormally attached to him, however, was he any different?

Wasn't he as crazy about his wives as they were about him?

Sometimes, he even looks even crazier than his wives.

Then... then why did Evane change so drastically?

There was only 1 answer.

A person can only change to this degree if he witnesses or goes through something that shakes their entire core.

Evane has been targeted by the assassins twice. Was this an incident capable of shaking her entire core?

Normally, yes it was. However, in Evane's case, where a monster like Nux was always beside her, something like this should not affect her to this degree.

Then it only meant one thing...

Nux and Evane were hiding something...

Astaria's face turned solemn.

'I need to ask that boy directly.'

She made up her mind.

Her eyes then fell on Arvina who was lost in her own thoughts and suddenly, a strange question popped up in Astaria's mind.

"Do you think that man is behind her change?"

“Hmm? Nux? Yes, no, actually, I am sure it has something to do with him. That boy...

He has a strange power of making people think and see things from different angles... and then do something they never thought they would ever do...”

“Huh?” a frown appeared on Astaria’s face as she noticed Arvina’s strange expression.

“What are you talking about?”

She questioned.

“Haa? Huh? O-Oh, I meant, yes, that boy must be behind that change. Well, it is good for us and the Kingdom, and from what you are saying, it seems like Evane is happy as well, so it’s a win-win.”

Arvina answered with an awkward laugh.

Astaria, narrowed her eyes as she continued to glance at Arvina.

“Arvina.”

She called.

“Y-Yes teacher?”

Arvina tilted her head in confusion.

“What do you think about Nux?”

“W-Well, he is an amazing student with exceptional talent. Not only that, he also has the will to learn things. He doesn’t just rely on his talent and works hard.

He is a good student that every teacher would wish to teach, however,”

“However?” Astaria frowned.

“That man is a women magnet.”

Arvina replied.

“Oh?” Astaria raised her eyebrow in curiosity.

“He is handsome, he is skillful and he is good with his words, he is everything a woman would look for in his dream partner, therefore, no matter where he goes, or what he does, he is always surrounded by women and do you know what’s worse?

That shameless man would not run away from all this attention, he would rather enjoy it.

He would talk to all girls politely, sometimes he would talk to them with such a warm smile on his face that he would unknowingly steal those poor girls’ hearts.

However, even after all that attention, he would still go for women who clearly don’t want any relationship with any other man and would pester them till they fall for them, then, he would disappear.

He can be very annoying.”

Arvina explained.

“ ... ”

Astaria, on the other hand, couldn’t help but look at Arvina with a lost look on her face.

‘This girl...’

Astaria realized.

This student of hers has fallen in love with that man...

And to make things worse,

“Arvina.”

“Yes?”

“Do you like Nux?”

“Huh? Of course not, teacher. W-What are you talking about? Why would I like him? He is my student, I am her teacher. As her teacher and as a married woman, although I was forced to marry against my will and hate my husband to the core and hope he dies a gruesome death, which he would soon, how can I fall in love with my own student?”

That is simply not possible. Please don't even joke like that.

I am not that kind of woman teacher.

And you know it as well.”

“ ... ”

Astaria didn't know what to say.

Just as she expected...

This student of hers...

She loves that man and to make things worse, she doesn't even realize it.

‘Nux... you bastard...’

Astaria cursed in her mind.

“Arvina.”

She called again.

“Hmm?”

“You are coming with me to the Royal Palace.

You will be staying there from now on.

It's not a request but an order, so don't even think about going against it.”

“Huh!?”

Chapter 551

“My Lord.”

A man walked into the room and kneeled.

In front of him, sat a man wearing a long white colored robe, and a white colored Kaffiyeh on his head (imagine a better-quality, white-colored sheikh clothes.)

“Report.”

The man spoke with a solemn expression on his face.

“The Delegates from the Skyfall Kingdom are here.”

Hearing that, the man’s smile brightened in joy.

“Don’t let them wait, call them in. Quick.”

He ordered.

It was clear that he was quite desperate to meet these delegates.

And why wouldn’t he be?

The Solid Earth Kingdom has been raiding their towns without stopping.

They have already lost 2 King Stage Cultivators and the number of lower-level soldiers who have died couldn’t even be counted.

They were completely helpless against the enemy.

He conversed with his Grandfather, the Protector of the Kingdom, however, due to that annoying treaty, he couldn’t move in either.

The enemy seemed unstoppable and continued to kill their soldiers.

They have already lost a lot, their reputation is taking a hit with every passing moment and things are getting worse and worse,

And in this hopeless-looking condition, one Kingdom actually came forward and showed them a helping hand.

And it was not just a normal Kingdom, it was the strongest Kingdom in the World, the Skyfall Kingdom.

Of course, Ellinger Woods, the Dynast of the Woods Dynasty would be excited.

The man who reported quickly stood up, bowed his head again and,

“I will bring them in a moment.”

He then turned away and left the hall.

2 Minutes later, a Man wearing black colored skin tights clothes and a woman wearing a long Purple Black Gown and a Black facemask walked into the Palace.

Seeing them, the people inside the Royal Palace couldn't help but keep their eyes wide open.

Especially when their eyes fell on the woman.

Although she had covered half of her face using a mask, just from the rest of the face that was visible, those black eyes that seemed to have stored an entire world inside them, those silky black raven hair, thin eyebrows, and white skin, one could tell that this woman was an unparalleled beauty.

Not only that, but besides being an unparalleled beauty, this woman was also a King Stage Cultivator.

Yes, this beautiful and delicate-looking woman was one of the strongest experts in this world.

As soon as she walked in, she completely overshadowed the man who was walking with her. The man also stood behind the women, showing that he was a subordinate. However, even this 'subordinate' was a King Stage Cultivator.

The message was clear.

The Skyfall Kingdom was showing off its strength.

When Ellinger's eyes fell on the woman, he was taken aback, his heart skipped a beat, he wanted to make this woman his, however, as soon as he looked into this woman's eyes, he completely kicked that thought out of his mind.

This woman was clearly someone influential in the Skyfall Kingdom, if it was a normal situation, he would not have held back, however, right now, he didn't have an option.

If he messed up, his grandfather would kill him.

With a serious expression on his face, he greeted,

“People from the Skyfall Kingdom, I, Ellinger Woods, Greet you from the bottom of my heart, please take your seat.”

His words flowed smoothly, no signs of his previous excitement could be seen, and his tone was neutral, neither submissive nor dominating.

A good sign.

The woman observed the Dynast for a moment, then, she greeted,

“My name is Amaya Leander, I hope our discussion today bears a fruitful result.”

Amaya introduced herself with a slight bow, and the man behind her bowed as well.

Amaya then walked towards the seat and sat down while the man stood behind her.

“I hope the same as well.”

Ellinger nodded at the same time, he started searching for the name Amaya Leander in his head.

This was his first time hearing this name.

A frown appeared on his face since he couldn't recognize this seemingly influential woman, however, he didn't show anything outside.

“Dynast Ellinger.”

Suddenly, Amaya called out.

“Please speak freely, Lady Amaya.”

Ellinger spoke.

“Since we are short on time, I will not beat around the bush and will directly jump to the main topic.”

Amaya spoke, then, her expression turned serious and she requested,

“I want to talk to Lord Alcimus.”

“What!?”

“Impudent!”

“Who do you think you are!?”

“Do you think Lord Alcimus would meet some like y-”

“Silence.”

The ministers sitting in the Hall reacted violently to Amaya's request, Ellinger, however, raised his voice, and as soon as he did, the Hall turned silent.

Ellinger then glanced at Amaya and spoke,

“Lady Amaya, I hope you know how disrespectful it is to bring up our protector in this meeting. It is like saying we are not worthy of meeting you.”

“I do not mean to disrespect you, Dynast Ellinger.

However, the topic I want to discuss is sensitive, it would be better if Lord Alcimus is here.

Actually, it would be better if there are fewer people hearing this conversation.”

Amaya replied calmly as she glanced at other ministers who snorted, but since the Dynast had raised their hands, they didn't say anything.

The meaning behind Amaya's words was clear.

The ministers here shouldn't listen to this conversation.

It was a difficult request considering she was the one who came from outside.

Agreeing to her request would mean that the Dynast is implying that he doesn't trust his own ministers, which in turn, would show how unstable the Dynasty is and would sully its reputation.

“...”

Ellinger turned silent and started thinking.

After 2 minutes, he glanced at Amaya and nodded.

“Alright, then I will be placing my trust in you, Lady Amaya.”

A small smile appeared on Amaya's face as she nodded,

“You will not regret it.”

Ellinger smiled wryly.

The Dynasty's reputation was already being affected with every passing moment, he doesn't have the time to care about things like these right now.

Seeing his expression, Amaya smiled inwardly.

‘Dealing with smart people is always better than dealing with useless fools.’

Chapter 552

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Hearing the knock, Amaya ordered.

“Enter.”

A servant enters and bows respectfully.

“Lady Amaya, the Dynast has summoned you.”

Hearing that, Amaya smiled and stood up, Keeve, who was sitting beside her stood up as well.

“Let’s go then.”

Amaya nodded.

The servant nodded back,

“Please, follow me.”

Then, he started moving.

Amaya and Keeve were then taken into another room. As soon as Amaya walked into the room, her attention was grabbed by a man who wore clothes similar to Ellinger, the Dynast, however, the Aura he exuded was far more impressive when compared.

The man had slight wrinkles on his face and combined with that amiable smile, he looked like a friendly neighbor who always gave you sweets. Amaya, however, knew that the truth was far from it and this amiable-looking man was someone who could destroy an entire Kingdom with just him alone.

He was Alcimus Woods, an Emperor and the Protector of the Woods Dynasty.

Beside him sat Ellinger, although he still carried the same demeanor as before, his presence in the room was still overpowered by his grandfather.

Amaya glanced at Alcimus and bowed her head,

“Greetings, Lord Alcimus.”

Alcimus raised an eyebrow in surprise and smiled,

“You know my name?”

“I have to be informed enough if I want to request Lord’s presence, after all.”

Amaya replied.

A satisfied smile appeared on Alcimus’s face as he nodded his head.

“Good Good, it doesn’t look like you are here to just waste my time, I am glad you aren’t someone overstepping your boundaries.”

Amaya understood the underlying threat in those words, however, she didn’t react to it and stayed still.

“Have a seat, girl.”

Alcimus ordered.

He didn’t have to be respectful to Amaya, even though she came from another Kingdom to help them or is a King Stage Cultivator.

Amaya didn’t mind and sat down. Keeve stood behind her.

“Are you going to keep that mask on?” Suddenly, Alcimus questioned.

Hearing that, Ellinger's expression changed a little, he wanted to see Lady Amaya's face as well, however,

“This is something I must do, Lord Alcius. Please understand, this relates to our Kingdom's interests. I do not aim to disrespect you in the slightest.”

Amaya spilled cold water on Ellinger's head.

Alcius frowned.

This was clearly disrespectful, however, since Amaya had brought up Kingdom's interest, he couldn't force her either.

In the end, he just shook his head and nodded,

“I understand.”

“Thank you for understanding, Lord Alcius.”

Alcius nodded and then, his amiable expression disappeared and turned into a serious one,

“Alright, then girl. You know my time is limited, let's not wait any longer.”

Amaya nodded and then, she started,

“If things continue to go like they are going, the Woods Army will never win against the Solid Earth Kingdom.”

Hearing that, Alcius frowned.

Amaya ignored that and continued,

“There is no way normal cultivators can win against an Emperor after all.”

Alcius's expression changed,

“What are you trying to say?” He questioned as he narrowed his eyes.

“I am saying that Lord Herms, the Protector of the Solid Earth Kingdom is directly participating in this war.”

Amaya revealed and Alcius and Ellinger’s eyes widened in surprise.

“Do you the consequences of what you are saying?” Alcius narrowed his eyes.

“I know it, Lord Alcius.”

Amaya nodded.

Her expression then turned even more solemn as she revealed,

“I know about the Peace Treaty and right now,

The Solid Earth Kingdom is breaking that Treaty.”

“...do you have any proof supporting your statement?”

Alcius questioned.

Suddenly, the ring on Amaya’s finger shined and an Emblem appeared in her hand, seeing that Emblem, Alcius widened his eyes in surprise as he glanced at Amaya.

“Lady Astaria was the one who confirmed this news herself.

She found this situation strange, her spies then reported to her that something was a miss.

Therefore, she personally infiltrated the Solid Earth Kingdom and noticed clear signs of Lord Herms’s involvement in the Kingdom’s affairs.

Not only that, the extra Generals in this War who are attacking your Army, they are King Stage Adventurers or Sect Masters that are recruited into the army by Lord Herms.

Here is a letter Lady Astaria wrote, confirming everything I have said is true.”

Amaya passed the letter to Herms.

Herms quickly opened the envelope and started reading the content.

Amaya gave him a minute to go through everything and continued,

“Now it all boils down to whether you trust Lady Astaria’s words or not. Our future cooperation will depend on your answer.”

Herms continued to read the letter and started rereading it again, just to be sure that he didn’t miss anything.

His expression continued to change as he read the content, and once he reread the letter for the second time, he took a deep breath and spoke,

“So you are telling me... that I have been holding myself back, allowing those annoying bugs to continue doing whatever they want to my Kingdom, allowing them to tarnish the reputation of my Kingdom, all of that just to insure that I don’t break the Treaty while that annoying Bastard had already broken the Treaty?”

Alcimus was pissed.

He had been holding back for such a long time... all for nothing...

He allows those bastards to trample on his pride...

Alcimus wanted revenge.

He wanted to give them what they did to him hundr- no, a thousandfold.

Suddenly, a small smile appeared on Amaya’s face as she momentarily glanced at Ellinger.

Ellinger frowned, however, before he could realize what she was thinking, Amaya continued, “Actually, from what I know, your previous General, General Ember Windstar, reported that she is suspicious that an Emperor is involved, however, the Dynast didn’t take it seriously and berated her instead.

Since she wasn’t confident in going against an Emperor, the General had to quit.”

Ellinger’s face turned pale as his eyes widened in surprise.

“...what?”

Alcimus questioned.

“Actually, that was where Lady Astaria’s spies started the investigation, of course, Lady Astaria didn’t take General Ember’s, who was known to be the most capable General in the World, opinion for granted and acted on it.”

Alcimus narrowed her eyes as he glared at Ellinger.

Ellinger’s face turned even paler.

Amaya just smiled,

“Of course, since it seems like your Kingdom’s internal matter.

I won’t comment on it any further,

Since it would be inappropriate.”

Chapter 553

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

An eerie silence fell all over the room.

Seeing this, a small smile appeared on Amaya's face.

Just as she thought.

Ellinger hadn't told anything about Ember's letter to Alcimus.

If he had done that, Alcimus would have figured it out on his own.

Of course, Ellinger wasn't an idiot either, after losing this badly, he now had a rough idea that Ember's report was correct.

However, even after knowing that, he couldn't tell anything to Alcimus.

His grandfather would have killed him.

That was also another reason Amaya had to come here as soon as possible. Things would continue to get worse from now on.

If this continues, even Ellinger wouldn't hold himself back and would tell his grandfather everything.

His Grandfather may kill him, however, if War happens, then he will, for sure die.

He would need his Grandfather's help, so he would have to tell him the truth and that would be, of course, not good for Amaya and her plan.

She could leave out this situation and hide this from Lord Alcimus without any problems, yes, however, the thing was...

That man berated Ember.

Of course, she couldn't care less about that bitch. However, she knew Nux's personality.

He would have his revenge sooner or later.

If she reports what she did to Nux, then he would definitely reward her.

Yes.

That was it.

That was all the reason Amaya needed to fuck up this Dynast.

Amaya was actually looking forward to what Alcimus will do to this bastard, however, she knew her hopes would be crushed.

“What does the Skyfall Kingdom wants in return for this information?”

Suddenly, Alcimus, who was glaring at Ellinger turned towards Amaya and questioned with an expressionless look on his face.

He completely ignored the matter regarding Ember.

Of course, Ellinger, whose face was now pale knew this wasn't the case.

His grandfather won't do anything to him in front of Lady Amaya, however, the moment she leaves...

He would be seeing hell.

Ellinger gulped.

“We do not want anything in return.

This information was just our way of showing our goodwill.

I have yet to talk about the actual deal.”

Amaya glanced at Alcimus and replied, completely ignoring Ellinger, who was now trembling.

Alcimus’s expression turned serious and he questioned.

“What’s the actual deal then?”

“Do you want revenge?”

Amaya questioned back.

Alcimus’s expression didn’t change or that would be how normal people would perceive it, Amaya, however, didn’t fail to notice that slight sliver in his eyes.

She smiled inwardly.

“What you are presenting?” Alcimus questioned.

“Even if you go there and reveal Lord Herms’s involvement, he would just deny it. He would say that those people came to the Kingdom themselves. He would place all the blame on those adventurers and sects.

From there, the best thing you can do is threaten those sects and force them to back down.

The extra Generals would then go away and then your army would be able to fight back. Of course, with 2 Generals down whereas the Solid Earth Kingdom hadn’t lost anything. Your army would still be at disadvantage, however, it will not be as bad as the current situation.

The War would continue before eventually, it would die down after some negotiations.

Everything would return to normal eventually.

However, the question is,

Do you wish things to end just like that?”

Amaya questioned with a small smile on her face.

Alcimus’s face turned solemn,

“I asked what are you presenting.”

He started.

“The Skyfall Kingdom will help you get revenge,”

Amaya answered.

“...”

Alcimus narrowed his eyes.

Amaya, however, wasn’t done yet and continued,

“Lady Astaria would join in if required as well.”

“!!!”

This time, Alcimus couldn’t control his expression and widened his eyes in surprise.

The Strongest Human in the world was extending a helping hand to him.

If this was true...

Then he would definitely be able to get his revenge.

A small smile appeared on Alcimus’s face.

Seeing this, Amaya smiled inwardly and continued,

“The Skyfall Kingdom will help you get rid of more than 80% of the enemy soldiers who are currently looting and wreaking havoc inside your territory.

We do not require your army’s assistance, therefore, none of your soldiers will be lost, the Skyfall will deal with everything on its own.

Not only that, but in the future, when you reveal that Herms has broken the Treaty, Lady Astaria would support you.

With 2 Emperors, things would definitely be easier.”

Amaya smiled.

Alcimus narrowed his eyes.

She was right.

With 2 emperors, things would definitely be a lot easier.

Alcimus knows it well, in the bigger field, proofs and things like that mattered not.

What mattered was the Emperor’s Opinion.

If 3 Emperors were against you, you would have to back down even if you were in the right.

If he and Astaria, 2 Emperor targets Herms, he would definitely face consequences.

It was a great deal, however,

“What does the Skyfall Kingdom wants in return?”

Nothing in this world was for free.

Alcimus knew it well.

Hearing his question, Amaya smiled.

“A Search Party.”

“A search party?” Alcimus frowned.

“Yes, a search Party that 2 King Stage Cultivators and 3 Expert Stage Cultivators at the minimum, as for the rest of the cultivators, the Skyfall Kingdom and the Woods Dynasty would provide the similar number of soldiers.

40 Grand Masters and 60 Masters would be enough, I believe.”

Amaya replied.

Alcimus frowned,

This was quite a strong party,

“What are we searching for? And what’s the Party’s destination?”

He questioned.

“Bloodhill Wilderness.

We are searching for the Mythical Creature, the Ancestor’s companion.”

“WHAT!?”

Alcimus’s eyes widened in surprise and he shouted.

Seeing his sudden outrage,

Ellinger frowned.

Why was he acting like that?

What was this Mythical Creature they are talking about?

He didn’t know anything about it.

“That is the deal, will you accept it, Lord Alcius?” Amaya questioned with a calm smile on her face.

She didn't look bothered by Alcius's sudden outrage.

“Do you want me to meaninglessly sacrifice 2 King Stage Cultivators and my other subordinates?”

Chapter 554

“Do you want me to meaninglessly sacrifice 2 King Stage Cultivator and my other subordinates?”

Alcimus questioned as he narrowed his eyes.

Amaya just smiled,

“We are offering to get rid of 80% of the Soldiers who are attacking your territories, all on our own. There are 4 King Stage Cultivators attacking your territories currently, however, they have 3 more King Stage Cultivators who are still hiding.

We might lose not 2 but even 3 or 4 King Stage Cultivators if we help you.

If you are still hesitating in accepting the deal, then you can always reject it and we will step back and watch everything in silence.

The conditions of the deal will not change.”

Alcimus narrowed his eyes,

“Are you threatening me?”

A suffocating pressure was released and started choking Amaya.

Seeing this, Keeve’s eyes widened in surprise as he jumped in.

“Lord Alcimus, we are the delegates who are carrying Lady Astaria’s Emblem, are you sure you want to attack us?”

Are you sure you want to go after 2 Kingdoms at the same time?

Because the moment Lady Amaya is hurt, our Queen will not hold back, and Lady Astaria will join in as well.”

Alcimus narrowed his eyes as he glanced at Keeve.

“I can kill you right now, worm.”

“T-Try it.”

Amaya, who was having a hard time glanced at Alcimus and her eyes shined.

It was as if she wanted him to attack her.

Suddenly, the suffocating pressure disappeared.

Amaya glanced at Alcimus and he snorted,

“Be grateful that you had Astaria’s emblem.”

A smile appeared on Amaya’s face,

‘The matter is resolved, don’t worry. Everything is fine.’

Inwardly, however, she sent a message through her telepathic connection.

‘Are you sure?’

Amaya heard a question in a worried tone and couldn’t help but smile,

‘Yes, I am. Why would I lie to you?’

‘Alright, be careful... and contact me if anything happens.’

Nux replied as his sword disappeared.

The plan was simple, the moment Alcimus loses his control, he would appear next to him, since it would be teleportation, Alcimus would be caught by surprise, and Nux would use all his strength to attack.

If the attack fails, he would use [Blink Fault] and take Alcimus out.

Amaya and Keeve would then hold out until his other women inform Astaria.

Astaria would then rush towards the Woods and bring back Nux and the others safely.

Yes...

By holding himself back, Alcimus not only saved himself but also his entire Dynasty as well.

“I am happy that we could resolve it peacefully.

As future allies, I don't think we should go at each other.

I apologize if I somehow disrespected you.”

Amaya bowed.

She had to take a step back here.

Alcimus was a useful tool.

Making him an enemy was foolish, especially after wasting so much time.

Seeing that she was willing to step back, Alcimus's anger disappeared and he jumped on it as well,

“I lost my control there. I shouldn't have done what I did.”

Of course, he still didn't apologize, but Amaya didn't need it.

“About the deal...”

She spoke.

“We accept it.”

Alcimus nodded.

Let alone 2, they might even lose all their King Stage Cultivators if they continue like this. He might force those sects and adventurers, however, his army was weakened, even if the Solid Earth Kingdom uses its own strength,

His Kingdom would still lose.

Therefore, it was better to accept this deal.

Also...

If Astaria was the one who sent these 2, then she must be the one who wants to investigate the Mythical Beast as well...

It wasn't hard to guess her line of thoughts...

And if what she was thinking was true...

Then they have to investigate it.

He might be at a little disadvantageous position here, but that was his Grandson's fault.

He would take it out on this Idiot later, for now, he had to agree to this deal.

Hearing his words, Amaya smiled, her ring shined and a contract appeared in her hands.

"These are the details of our deal, please place your seal of approval here after reading the contents."

"..."

Alcimus glanced at the papers in Amaya's hand and couldn't help but smile wryly,

"You came prepared huh..."

You even got Astaria to sign on it..."

“As a delegate, I have to prepare for every single situation.”

Amaya just smiled.

“Why do I feel that you are a lot more than a mere Delegate?”

Alcimus questioned.

“I do have a certain charm, I agree.”

Amaya chuckled.

Alcimus chuckled as well and started reading the contract.

“You will attack the Solid Earth Army 2 weeks later?”

“Indeed.”

“The Search Party will be formed once the Skyfall Kingdom has successfully delivered on their end of the bargain...”

Alcimus continued to read.

This type of contract where one party delivers their promise first was a risky one, however, when it came to the Skyfall Kingdom, it wasn't a problem.

The reason was simple,

The Skyfall Kingdom was just that strong.

Whether it is their army or their Protector, they were the best in both cases.

Betraying them when they have solid proof against you was simply idiotic.

You will lose more than you would ever win.

“Alright.”

Once Alcimus was done reading the contract, he exhaled deeply, a Stamp then appeared in his hand and,

*Stamp*

He stamped at the end of the contract before giving it back to Amaya.

Amaya smiled as she received the contract.

Then, she stood up and glanced at the two men in front of them.

“Thank you for your patience.

I hope we have successful cooperation.

I will be taking my leave now.”

“A-Ah, let me escort you out.”

Ellinger suddenly stood up and rushed towards Amaya.

Seeing him, Amaya just smiled and didn't deny it.

Well, he can stall it all he wanted, but he would not be able to escape from his own Grandfather.

Amaya, Keeve and Ellinger then left the room.

Alcimus, who was now left alone, sighed as his face turned solemn.

Nobody knew what he was thinking.

...

On the other side, Astaria who had sneaked inside the Royal Palace with Arvina smiled.

“Well then, let me take you to your room.”

“I-I know where my room is, teacher.”

Arvina replied.

“You dare go against me?” Astaria raised her eyebrow.

“...”

Arvina turned silent.

“Good.”

Astaria smiled.

The two of them then walked towards Arvina’s room.

“I would talk to Evane about your return, she would provide you with a personnel maid.”

Astaria spoke.

“...” Arvina didn’t say anything and just continued walking.

“Arvina.”

Suddenly, Astaria called.

“Y-Yes?”

“Don’t forget to come tomorrow morning.”

Arvina’s expression changed,

“I-Is it really necessary?”

“What? Do you not want to see your Student’s progress? You can also meet all his wives there.”

“I have already met with them.”

Arvina replied.

“So what? You can meet them again. Just come tomorrow. I think it will be helpful to train both of you together.”

“Please don’t... You know I can’t be compared to that monster.”

“Don’t worry,

Just be prepared.”

Astaria smiled mysteriously.

“Haahh...”

Arvina sighed.

Chapter 555

A group of men walked towards the Hogarth House.

“Stop!”

As the group continued to walk in, the guard guarding the Hogarth Household shouted.

“Who are you people? Identify yourself.”

The guard ordered.

“Huh?”

“P-Please Identify yourself.”

Soon, however, the Guard changed his tone as he noticed the Cultivation of the man leading the Group.

‘W-What w-with this group...’

The guard thought inwardly as his body started trembling.

His face was already pale.

To be honest, he just wanted to run away, however, since he was on duty... that was not something he could do.

He couldn’t sense the Cultivation level of most of the people in this group.

What does that mean?

It meant that only most of them were stronger than Grand Master Stage Cultivators...

J-Just what the hell is wrong with this group!?

The guard swore inwardly at the same time, he also hoped that they weren't here to cause trouble.

“P-P-Please i-identify yourself a-and state your business.”

Since the people weren't answering the guard questioned again.

His body didn't stop trembling, fortunately, these men didn't waste much time on him and did as they were told.

An Emblem appeared on the Leader's hand and seeing the Emblem, the guard's eyes widened in surprise

“We are here under Queen Evane's order.

We demand that you hand over the Pamela Hogarth, or we would need to use force.”

The Guard gulped.

These people were definitely here to cause trouble.

And what's worse?

They were under the Queen's order.

The guard then took a deep breath and,

“Please wait here, I will go and report to Lord Hogarth, this is not the matter a mere guard like me can deal with.”

The Guard decided to back off.

He wasn't paid enough for this shit.

There was no way he was going to go against a Royal Order.

“We do have that much time. Let us go in.”

The leader of the group demanded.

“P-Please go.”

The guard simply bowed.

The Group then walked into the House, the Leader of the group stepped forward and shouted,

“Pamela Hogarth, we are the Royal Soldiers, surrender yourself and come with us.”

The shout reverberated throughout the house.

Soon, a man walked out and questioned.

“W-Who are you people?”

The leader simply showed the Royal Emblem and spoke,

Hand over Pamela Hogarth.”

“L-Lord, Pamela i-is my wife. C-Can you tell me what has she done?”

The man questioned.

“She is suspected to be a Spy. She needs to come with us for further investigation.”

The Leader replied.

“A S-Spy?”

The man’s face turned pale.

“N-No, that can’t be true. Pamela has been my wife for the last 30 years, she cannot be a spy. There must be something wrong with this information.”

“There is nothing we can do. Pamela Hogarth is under the List created by the Palace, we need to bring her in. Of course, if she is innocent, we will release her with adequate compensation.”

“Y-You think compensation is enough for the mental trauma you will cause her!? Proof! Where is your proof!? How can you capture her without adequ-ugghh!”

*Bam*

*Smash*

Before the man could even complete his sentence, he was sent flying with just a slap.

The leader’s eyes then shined as he glanced at the man.

“Do not test my limit.

Hand over Pamela when I am being cooperative.

Don’t push me enough to use force.

It won’t be good for your house.”

“H-How can you treat an Earl l-like that?”

The man questioned.

The Leader then sighed.

“You forced me then.”

Then, he glanced at his subordinates and nodded.

Everyone rushed in different directions.

The leader then turned towards the servant who had gathered, soon, a bag full of silver coins appeared in his hands and he started,

“Anyone who reports where Pamela is will receive this reward.

You do not have to worry, we are from the Royal Palace, if you agree to help, no one would hurt you.”

Suddenly, a woman raised her arm.

“I-I know where Lady Pamela is.”

“How dare y-Ugghh!”

Before the man could say anything, the leader of the group, Reeve, kicked his face and turned toward the woman.

“Where is she?”

“I-I’ll take you there.”

The servant nodded and then started walking.

Reeve followed behind her.

The other servants followed as well.

The man, Pamela’s husband stood up and followed as well.

However, as they walked into Pamela’s room, they saw something that shocked everyone to their core.

Pamela...

She was lying on the bed with foam coming out of her body.

Yes, she had killed herself.

It was now clear, Pamela was actually a spy...

And when she noticed that the guards were there for her, she killed herself.

Seeing this scene, Reeve's face turned solemn.

"A spy manage to kill herself before being captured..."

Reeve commented.

"H-How could this be...? H-How can my wife be a spy?"

The husband, the leader of the Hogarth Household couldn't believe what he was seeing.

Reeve then turned towards him with an annoyed expression on his face,

"Nell Hogarth, you disrupted the Royal Investigation, I hope you are prepared to face the consequences."

"..."

Nell didn't know what to say.

Seeing this scene, Reeve smiled inwardly.

The plan was successful.

Was Pamela actually a spy?

Of course she was.

However, did they actually want to capture her?

Nope.

It was all just a show.

They never planned to capture her, they just wanted to waste time by talking with the people who couldn't believe that their family member was suspected of being a spy, then they would force their way in, only to see that the said member had already taken his or her life.

This wasn't the only house where this was happening.

It was happening all over the capital city and none of the group planned to capture the 'spy', rather, they hoped that the spies would kill themselves in order to protect the information they were holding.

That was all they, and Queen Evane needed.

Why?

Well...

They needed gossips.

Chapter 556

Do you know? Hogarth's household's Lord's Wife was actually a spy.

What!?

Yes, the Soldiers sent by Queen Evane entered Hogarth's Household, the House Head tried to convince them that his wife was innocent, however, the soldiers were adamant and had to force themselves in when the House Head didn't agree to their request.

However, when they walked into the wife's room, she had already consumed poison and was dead.

What!? Doesn't that mean she was actually a spy!?

Of course, she was! The Queen's soldiers must have thought of something if they wanted to capture her. Do you think they would just capture a completely innocent person?

As they say, there is no smoke without a fire.

Indeed indeed.

Actually, my friend works in Baron Fendel house, something similar happened there as well. The House Head's brother took his own life when the guards walked into the house. He must be a spy as well.

This is so unbelievable, right? To think there are so many spies in our Kingdom and in the noble households at that.

Just think how dangerous it is.

I truly support Queen Evane who is hunting all these spies.

Indeed.

If only she could capture these spies alive... won't that be good?

But to do that, they have to use force and barge into a house, but the household heads won't allow it...

Tsk... this must be so annoying for someone like Queen Evane, who is actually trying to do something kind...

I wish I could help... but we are just powerless commoners...

Indeed...

These were the types of gossip Evane and others needed.

Actually, Evane even sent some people to flare these gossips. Of course, normal people did their own thing and added more spice to these gossips.

Soon, these gossips spread all over the Capital city and as they did, Evane's smile widened.

They finally achieved their goal.

The next day, another announcement was made.

“The Queen has declared ‘Emergency State’ all over the Kingdom for the next month.

During this Emergency State, no one is allowed to question the Royal Guards' moves, resistance will be seen as a capital offense.

Innocents captured during the Emergency State will be compensated by Queen Evane herself.”

This was it.

Something like an ‘Emergency State’ cannot be declared without a proper reason, otherwise, it would cause a big issue.

However, now many people could understand why the Emergency Stage was declared and had no reason to go against it.

The commoners did feel a little insecure about this, however, they weren't against it either.

The only ones against it were...

The corrupt officials.

And since it was a Kingdom, there was a large number of them.

Queen Evane lost the support of many nobles.

Many nobles started wishing to see Prince Raguel, the one who actually deserved to be the King.

However, the well-informed nobles stayed silent.

They knew what had happened.

They knew Princess Evane would soon be crowned as the next Queen no matter what happens, therefore, they just decided to give up on the spies and even started capturing them themselves.

Did they know there were spies?

Of course they did.

The number of spies couldn't grow to this extent if they weren't helped by the nobles, the nobles helped them for various reasons, however, no amount of bribes could compensate for one's life.

The informed nobles quickly cleaned themselves.

As for the uninformed nobles who were on about how Queen Evane was a bad ruler and were repeatedly going against her, filing more and more complaints in the Royal Court and wishing to see King Ricardus,

Well...

Somehow, all the bribes they had taken, all the commoners they had harassed, all the Kingdom's Funds that they had eaten up... reports of all these crimes, with their proof were found in front of the Royal Court the next day...

And all those nobles were arrested and stripped of their titles.

A total of 143 Nobles were arrested this way and a total of 7 Noble Households, filled with corrupt nobles were destroyed in the process.

And all of this happened within 4 days...

The Kingdom was being cleaned and in the process of capturing spies, corrupt nobles were also being captured.

There were no nobles who were free from any sort of crime, everyone had their hands dirty, and honestly, capturing all of them was impossible, however, the ones who had committed the gravest of offenses were all captured.

The Capital City was actually being cleaned as each day, more and more nobles and spies were captured.

Royal Guards could be seen moving around every day, even the Army was involved, the 'Emergency State' really looked like an emergency.

However, at the same time, the Royal Treasury was filled up to the brim.

All the corrupt nobles, all of their properties were confiscated. These greedy nobles had filled up their treasury with huge amounts of gold, and once all this gold was sent back to Royal Treasury...

The people from Management Division who were focused on dealing with the Palace's funds had big smiles on their faces all the time.

At the same time, Queen Evane also provided countless benefits to commoners.

Some taxes were called off as well.

Due to all this,

The Popularity of Queen Evane amongst the common people increased at a frightening pace.

As for the nobles...

Well, the Nobles who still had a shred of righteousness in their hearts were happy, the fully corrupt nobles were arrested, and the other nobles were scared.

However, most of them still supported Queen Evane.

They understood the pattern.

Only the completely rotten nobles were arrested.

The nobles who were corrupt to the core, the nobles who had committed countless offenses like murder, ****, or the nobles who were helping the spies and were going against the Kingdom were arrested.

The rest were given a chance.

Most of the nobles were corrupt, however, not all of them committed crimes like these, therefore, they knew they were safe.

Actually, most of the nobles wanted these rotten nobles to disappear.

This would increase the Kingdom's security after all.

And who didn't wish to feel safe?

Queen Evane was capable of providing them with this atmosphere, therefore, they supported her.

As the cleanup process became more and more stable, the forces moved out of the Capital and repeated the process in the surrounding cities.

Everything was going just like Queen Evane had said.

All the spies, who had not taken her warning seriously,

All of them were being hunted down.

Chapter 557

“You are late.”

Astaria spoke as she glanced at Nux who had arrived.

Nux frowned and quickly shook his head,

“No way, that is not possible, I was so excited to meet you that I came here 10 minutes earlier because I couldn’t control myself.

I think you were just missing me, that’s why you came here even earlier.

I am not late, you are just early.

Of course, I am not complaining, I rather appreciate the gesture.”

He replied with a small smile on his face.

Astaria’s mouth twitched.

“You dare act so brazenly even though both of your teachers are standing in front of you?”

A frown appeared on Nux’s face,

“Both of my teachers?”

He used his [Sense] to scan the surroundings, however, he couldn’t find anyone other than Astaria.

His frown deepened as he started thinking.

Soon, however, Arvina, who was standing behind Astaria walked out.

Nux’s expression changed,

‘Just as I thought.’

His [Sense] doesn’t detect an Expert Stage Cultivator or higher if that particular cultivator ‘intents’ to hide from him.

Well, it was not something new, Nux and his women had tested it already.

Soon, a big smile appeared on Nux’s face as he greeted,

“Teacher Arvina! It’s been so long~

How have you been?”

“Tsk, don’t talk to me.”

Arvina snorted.

“Huh? What happened?”

Nux frowned.

“You dare ask me how have I been?

Why didn’t you visit me for such a long time? Did you forget about me since you found a new teacher?” Arvina questioned.

“Oh c’mon, teacher Arvina, how can I forget about you? I have just been busy.”

“Oh yeah? Did you forget to spend time with your women?”

“Of course not. That is not possible. I will make some time even if I am busy.”

“...”

“...”

Astaria and Arvina didn’t know what to say.

Sometimes... this boy was just too honest...

“Anyway, I apologize, I will make sure to visit you from time to time.”

Nux nodded.

“You better. Now tell me, how have you been?”

Arvina dropped the topic as well,

“Hehe~ Very fine, actually. I will now be learning from the strongest human in this world.”

Nux replied as he glanced at Astaria.

“That is good.” Arvina nodded.

“Though I still don’t understand, Teacher. Why are you here? Not that I mind or anything.

I would never mind someone as beautiful as you being around.

It’s good for eyes.”

Arvina was already used to Nux’s ways so she didn’t react much. She just turned pointed at Astaria and replied,

“Teacher brought me here.”

“She will be helping me train you,” Astaria replied.

“Oh? Was I too much for just you alone?” Nux questioned with a playful smile on his face.

“You wish.

I just want to make sure you learn as fast as possible.” Astaria snorted.

“Ahh, that’s a good excuse.”

Nux nodded his head continuously.

“Excuse my ass. Even 10 of you won’t be ‘too much’ for me.” Astaria snorted.

“Heh, Trust me, in the near future, when I am done, you would be lying down, tired, and won’t even be able to move a muscle.

I say this from prior experience.

I have never lost, you know.”

Nux smiled playfully.

Astaria narrowed her eyes,

“There is a first time for everything.”

She replied.

“Unfortunately, you still won’t be able to beat me.”

“Oh yeah? You seem confident.

I would love to break that confidence of yours.”

“Heh. Challenge accepted.”

Nux’s smile widened.

“Accepted my foot.

To be honest, I don’t think you would even be able to be in a position to challenge me.

You would lose beforehand.”

“Aren’t you training me so that I get into that position as soon as possible?”

“I am not training you for that.”

“That is just what your mouth is saying, I already know what your heart wants. No need to force it.”

Nux smiled and Astaria clenched her fist in frustration.

Talking with this boy...

It really was...

On the other hand, Arvina, who was looking at her Teacher and her Student ‘challenging’ each other couldn’t help but frown.

For some reason, she thought that this ‘challenge’ they were talking about was... not a fight...

At least not the fight she has in her mind.

‘Wait...’

Suddenly, Arvina’s eyes widened in surprise as she thought of another possibility.

Soon, however, she shook her head.

‘No no no no, that is not possible. That boy may be a woman magnet, however, teacher is teacher.

She is not an ordinary woman...

She would never fall for this boy’s plays.’

Arvina explained to herself.

Soon, however, she recalled what kind of monsters were part of this boy’s harem and...

‘No no no no.

It is completely different!

The teacher is the strongest human in the world.

It is just not possible.

I am thinking too much.'

Arvina shook her head and convinced herself.

She then glanced at Nux and her face turned solemn,

'I have been corrupted by this shameless boy.

I need to clear my mind.'

At the same time, Astaria stopped playing around as well and spoke,

"Alright boy, that will be enough.

Time to get serious now."

Nux's playful smile disappeared as well and nodded.

"Alright, we will start with a spar,

You will not use any of that strange magic of yours, I only want you to use your physical abilities and normal Skills.

I want to accurately judge how good your battle sense is.

Ah right, you can use the Magic that consumes less Mana and the one which you can keep using for a long time.

Magic like that is a part of your battle style, you will not get anything by holding them back."

"I understand." Nux nodded and quickly took his battle stance.

Astaria then turned towards Arvina and called,

“Arvina,”

“Y-Yes teacher.”

Arvina came out of her reverie.

“Keep your eyes on him, I want you to note every single mistake he makes, the battle might be a little too fast for you, so it will also be training for your senses.

After the spar, you and I will be exchanging what we noticed and if you have fewer observations than me, you will be punished.

Is that clear?”

“Yes, teacher.”

Arvina nodded with a determined look as well.

Astaria nodded back, then she turned towards Nux and,

“Try not to die, boy.”

Rushed towards him.

Chapter 558

“Alright, that’s enough for now. You can rest now.”

Astaria spoke.

Hearing those words, Nux, who was barely standing and whose entire body was trembling, exhaled deeply and quickly lost all his strength as he fell on the ground.

“Haaahh... haaahhh... haaahhh...”

He breathed heavily as he lay down on the ground.

His entire body was drenched in sweat, his forearms, which he had used to block most of Astaria’s punches... it felt like they would break apart the moment he lifted them.

That was not it, his legs were trembling, and to be honest, he couldn’t even feel them properly, it was a surprise that he was still able to stand.

2 hours...

He fought for straight 2 hours...

His entire body was aching, his breathing was a mess, and all in all, he was in a bad condition.

As for that monstrous woman?

Besides those droplets of sweat on her forehead, it didn’t even look like she had moved.

“...”

Nux didn’t know what to say when he saw her like that.

‘Fucking monster...’

That was the only thing he could think about.

In the end, he just closed his eyes and stopped thinking about it.

Lying on the ground right now, it felt strange. His heart was beating heavily. He felt like his entire body was being buried into the ground and his head was rolling around.

It was a very strange feeling.

Nux thought he would pass out any moment now.

What was worse?

Astaria forbid him from using a healing potion.

‘You aren’t even injured. What do you need the potion for?’

That was her statement.

If Nux had even a little bit of strength...

He would have...

No... there was nothing the poor boy could do...

‘Fuck, I’ll take my revenge soon.’

He opened his eyes as he glanced at Astaria,

‘You will soon be playing in my field... see how I’ll go extra easy on you...

You can’t use your Mana there, can you?’

Thinking about it, a small smile appeared on Nux’s face.

Astaria, on the other hand, completely ignored the man who was lying on the ground, and turned towards Arvina.

“Did you notice anything?”

“I did.”

Arvina nodded.

“I noticed something very big, actually.”

Arvina’s face turned serious.

Hearing her words, Nux frowned and turned towards her.

“What is it?” Astaria questioned.

Arvina then turned towards Nux and replied,

“There were little to no mistakes when you two started, however, as time passed and he started getting fatigued, the number of mistakes he started making increased drastically. It was abnormal.

It was as if he had never fought while he was fatigued before.”

“Good. I noticed it as well. He started making rookie mistakes once he was tired.

Making unnecessary moves, using more force than required, missing feints and more and more.

These are not the mistakes he would make while fighting normally.”

Astaria nodded.

“Actually, you termed it right,

It was as if he never fought while he was tired.”

Hearing the two of them talking, Nux frowned,

He then turned towards Astaria and questioned,

“Is... is it because... my stamina is low?”

He was still tired, so talking was still a little difficult for him, however, Astaria and Arvina didn't mind.

To answer his question, Arvina shook her head,

“No, its not your stamina that is low. On the other hand, it is incomparably better compared to other King Stage Cultivators, the problems come when you have already used that stamina of yours.”

“Then... then should I increase my... my stamina?”

Nux questioned.

Arvina shook her head.

“Then strength maybe? Or should I increase my Vitality?”

“Huh? Why are you talking as if increasing all these is simple? It will take years you know?”

“...”

Nux glanced at Astaria and didn't say anything.

A screen that had his information then appeared in front of him.

[Name: Nux Leander]

[Age: 19]

[Mana Cultivation: King.]

[Body Cultivation: King.]

[Physique: Devouring Mist Demon Physique – Advanced (+)]

[Talent: Exceptional]

[LVL: 60 → 61]

(A/N: It's been a long time since he has leveled up, I just didn't show it. Remember, Ember was level 61. Currently, all of them are at 61.)

[HP: 1620/1620]

[MP: 2110/2110]

[STR: 162 → 164]

[AGL: 172 → 174]

[VIT: 160 → 162]

[STM: 199 → 201]

[INT: 210 → 211]

[DEF: 159 → 161]

[Blank Points: 189 → 192]

Nux had already used his system to increase his strength as much as he can.

He bought weapons, and abilities and did everything he could.

Expect one thing.

The Black Points.

Since he came to this world, he has been saving his blank points and has been using them as stingily as possible.

Therefore, he had saved a lot of them.

A lot lot lot of them.

He had been saving them when he absolutely needed them.

What's a better time than now?

With his every level up, he gains 11 Stat points, and he has saved up a total of 192 blank points.

What does that mean?

It means that if he uses the normal conventions, then just with Blank Points alone, he could level up 17 more times.

Of course, he knew it wouldn't make him an Emperor since he still wouldn't have the ability to control Raw Mana, but it was still something.

Something absolutely incredible.

“What's with that look?” Seeing him staring at him like that, Astaria narrowed her eyes and questioned.

A small, wry smile appeared on Nux's face.

Astaria's expression changed...

“You don't mean...”

“I can increase them...”

My strength, agility, vitality, stamina, defense, and even my Mana reservoir, I can increase all of them.”

Nux revealed and,

“!!!”

“!!!”

Just as he expected, Astaria and Arvina's eyes widened in surprise.

"...how much?"

Suddenly, Astaria questioned.

"Well... if I use everything I have on only one particular thing, then...

I can double it...

Umm, a little more than just doubling it, but yes, you can take it else doubling it."

"Y-You are saying that... you can d-double your current strength... like, right now?"

"I can."

'Fucking monster.'

Chapter 559

“Y-You are saying that... you can d-double your current strength... like, right now?”

“I can.”

‘Fucking monster.’

Astaria couldn’t believe what she was hearing.

How can someone just... increase his strength like that?

Was she a fool for cultivating diligently for so many years?

Just what the hell is wrong with this boy?

“Ridiculous. Absolutely Ridiculous.”

Arvina, on the other hand, was one step ahead.

“Teacher.”

She directly called Astaria and,

“I am taking my leave, I feel that if I stay too close to this boy, I will cough up blood and die. This is absolutely ridiculous.”

Saying that, Arvina turned around and walked away.

“...”

Astaria didn’t know how to stop her either.

To be honest, even she wanted to leave.

This boy...

She glanced at Nux, who was smiling wryly as he glanced at Arvina who was walking away.

“You are a monster.”

Astaria commented.

“I am even better in bed.”

Nux replied.

“...”

Astaria’s mouth twitched.

“Anyway, what should I do? Should I increase my Strength? Or Stamina? Or should I increase everything evenly?”

Nux questioned.

“I still do not know how this magic of yours works,” Astaria replied.

Hearing that, Nux dragged his body and sat up.

“Alright then, let me explain you properly then.

I have a magic that allows me to see my overall strength in numbers.”

“Numbers?” Astaria frowned as she sat next to Nux.

Looking at the two of them sitting next to each other on the ground, one would think they were close, not that there would be anything wrong with that assumption.

Suddenly, a paper appeared in Nux’s hand.

He quickly wrote his stats on the paper and explained,

“I can see my stats this way.”

“Strength, Agility, Vitality, Stamina, Mana, Defense... an interesting way to look at things.”

Astaria commented.

“Mhm, it does give you a decent idea of how things work, let me show you the stats of a normal King Stage Cultivator.

Nux then wrote down the stats of a normal King Stage Cultivator and Astaria’s expression changed when she saw it.

“Y-You are twice as strong as a King Stage Cultivator.”

“Mhm, that’s true.”

Nux nodded.

“That’s why fighting against King Stage Cultivators poses no threat to me.”

Nux explained.

“So what you are saying is that you have these 192 Black Points... that you can use to increase any of these... stats...?”

“Yes, that is correct. I didn’t feel like I had to use them, however, with all the Emperors coming into the picture, I believe that using these Blank Points is important.

And currently, only you can help me distribute them.”

“Do your wives know about this magic?” Suddenly, Astaria questioned.

“They know everything.”

Nux replied.

He knew they wouldn’t understand much about this ‘System’ he had.

To be honest, even he didn't know much about this System, however, he still has told them everything about his abilities, the weapons and techniques that he buys, he told them everything when he was talking about his past life.

“Then why didn't you ask that Ember? She was a General, wasn't she? I am sure she could help you.”

“As I said, I didn't feel the need to use these points, now, however, things are different.

And since I already have the best person to help me with this, why would I ask someone else?”

“Heeh? Are you saying I am better than your wife?” Astaria teased.

“When it comes to commanding an army in a battle, she is a lot better than you.”

Nux's answer was simple.

“How can you be so sure about that?”

“Have you ever led an army before?”

“I alone, am better than an army.”

Astaria answered arrogantly.

“ ... ”

Nux didn't know how to answer that.

“Anyways, so tell me, what should I put my blank points on.”

Nux changed the topic.

This time, Astaria had a better understanding of Nux's ability, therefore, she started pondering.

Then, after thinking deeply about it, she replied,

“Use 89 points on Mana. Increase it all the way up to 300.

Mana is the most important attribute for anyone.

Having more Mana would not only help you when you become an Emperor, but it would also even help you now since it would allow you to use more Skills.”

“Alright.”

Nux nodded.

Even he was thinking about using INT, with 3000 MP, he would be able to use his abilities and skills in a better way.

“What about rest?”

He questioned.

“Well, you need stamina, and everything, however, I suggest you stop here.”

“Hmm?”

“Let’s continue with our spars, the more we spar, the more we would realize what you are missing and we would work on that.

As for the problem with your stamina, well, we would increase your stamina, however, we would do it later.

No matter what, you would never have endless stamina, you need to adapt and understand how to fight while preserving your stamina.

If we increase your stamina now, achieving that would be difficult.”

“So you are saying that we would continue to increase my stats while we spar?”

“Yes. That is correct.”

“Mhm, that’s a good idea.”

Nux nodded in understanding.

Astaria nodded as well.

“Heh... I knew it was better to just ask you rather than doing it on my own.”

Suddenly, Nux laughed.

Astaria shook her head in helplessness.

“Nux.”

Suddenly, she called out.

“Hmm? What is it?”

“You know Arvina likes you, don’t you?”

Astaria questioned as she turned towards Nux.

Nux’s expression changed and a wry smile appeared on his face,

“I don’t know about that...” he replied weakly.

Astaria narrowed her eyes, “Don’t act innocent, there is no way you haven’t noticed it already.”

“I proposed to Teacher Arvina before,” Nux revealed.

“And?” Astaria waited for Nux to continue.

“She rejected me.”

“So you gave up?” Astaria questioned.

“Do I have another choice?” Nux questioned back.

“Oh? Why didn’t I have this option? I rejected you countless times already.” Astaria tilted her head and teased.

Nux looked into Astaria’s eyes and smiled,

“If you really want me to stop, just say the word and I will.

Just say, ‘I do not like you Nux. You and I, can’t happen. So stop harassing me.’

Just say these words with the utmost serious expression and I would step back.”

Chapter 560

“If you really want me to stop, just say the word and I will.

Just say, ‘I do not like you Nux. You and I, can’t happen. So stop harassing me.’

Just say these words with the utmost serious expression and I would step back.”

Nux spoke with a small smile on his face.

This time, however, Astaria realized that he wasn’t joking at all.

Rather, he was the most serious he has ever been.

And she was right.

If Astaria says those words right now, Nux would step back and stop wooing her.

He would act just like he has been acting with Arvina.

‘Hello Teacher Arvina, I hope you have been well.’

Nothing more.

He would treat her just like he would treat any normal teacher, or how one would treat an elder.

Even Nux had his pride after all.

Going after women who had already rejected him wasn’t something he would do.

As for how he would become an Emperor Stage Cultivator?

Well, he would think of something later.

A minimum of Exceptional level Talent was required to even have a shot at becoming an Emperor.

Don't forget, Amaya is someone who has King level Talent.

It is something that has never been seen before.

He would simply rely on his wife and once she grows, he and others would grow as well, living a long, happy life.

And no, he can't do it on his own, he has tried it already, but because of his System, he can't cultivate on his own.

So that was out of the question as well.

Of course, he wasn't really complaining.

Anyway, he was already sure Astaria wouldn't do something like that.

Unlike Arvina, who for some reason still worried about what others would say, Astaria wasn't someone who cared about things like that.

Also, Nux could notice it as well, though she didn't care much about him at first, she is indeed showing some interest in him as well.

The only thing that was stopping her was the warrior inside her.

A situation similar to Ember and for some reason, Nux didn't wish to embrace Astaria without defeating the Warrior Astaria.

Heh, you can say that deep there, somewhere, a Warrior Nux was being born as well.

“So you are saying that you won't go after Arvina no matter what?”

Astaria questioned.

“Mhm.”

Nux nodded.

Astaria nodded to herself.

‘I need to talk to that girl.’

To be honest, even she supported Nux right now, a man has his own pride as well.

If Arvina was forcing Nux to step over his pride because of her stupid thoughts, then maybe...

Maybe Arvina was not worth the effort...

With that thought in her mind,

Astaria stood up and,

“Alright then, enough chit-chat, if you have the power to talk about all this, then I am sure you have the power to spar again.”

“H-Huh? No! Of course not! I am still tired!”

Nux retorted.

There is no way he could fight again, he was barely feeling his legs right now.

“Heh, just take your words back, you won’t ever get into a position to ‘challenge’ me with that spirit.”

Astaria teased.

And of course,

Her teasing worked.

Nux's face turned serious and he stood up, although he still needed his sword to support him.

Seeing this, Astaria smiled and,

“Round 2, let's start.”

Then, Astaria disappeared.

‘Fuck.’

Nux cursed inwardly as he prepared himself to embrace another punch.

...

“Haah... Haahhh... haahhh...”

Nux lay down on the ground and breathed heavily again.

“I didn't say you can rest right now...”

Astaria narrowed her eyes.

“...”

Nux glanced at her and froze.

“Pfft!”

Seeing his expression, Astaria couldn't help but laugh out loud.

Nux's face twitched.

‘Just you wait... just you wait!’

He cursed inwardly.

Astaria continued to laugh as she waved her hand,

“I was just joking, you can rest.

You have been working hard.

Now don't make that face.

Hahaha~”

“ ...”

Nux didn't reply and continued to imagine different scenarios in his mind.

He would definitely create a new game for their first time.

He swore in his heart.

He would have his revenge.

“Oh? You look tired. Now that is something I have never seen before. Training with an Emperor really is different huh...”

Suddenly, Nux heard a voice.

He turned around and saw Ember and his other wives walking towards him.

“Why are you all here?” Astaria narrowed her eyes.

“It has already been 6 hours, do you plan to have him all to yourself for the entire day?”

Evane narrowed her eyes.

“I apologize, Queen Evane, I forgot this man has prior engagements.”
Astaria laughed.

Then, she glanced at Nux and a playful smile appeared on her face,

“Though I don't think he would be able to ‘perform’ that well today.”

“Tsk.” Nux, who was still lying on the ground, snorted.

Astaria's smile widened.

"That's not a problem, we are here to discuss something else."

Suddenly, Amaya spoke.

"Huh? You are back?" Astaria frowned.

"I just returned," Amaya replied.

"How was it?" Astaria questioned.

Amaya gave her the contract that was signed,

"Wait... 2 weeks?"

Suddenly, Astaria frowned.

She didn't read the contract properly before, but they need to attack in 2 weeks...?

She then glanced at Nux...

She had ordered that Nux won't go anywhere until she is done training him and,

"Even with this man's monstrous talent, 2 weeks won't be nearly enough.

We need to postpone this attack."

Astaria spoke.

"The deal is already signed," Amaya replied.

"That doesn't matter, we just need to sign it again. Make it two months."

Astaria ordered.

Amaya, however, shook her head,

“That would be too late. I don’t think we should postpone it anymore.”

Amaya then glanced at Nux who was lying on the ground and spoke,

“Also, you don’t need to stop training Nux for this. I have a proposal.”

“Oh? What is it?” Astaria questioned with an interested look on her face.

“We will be attacking the soldiers in Nux’s stead.”

Amaya spoke and the other women nodded.

“No way.”

Nux was the first to deny the proposal.

Chapter 561

“We will be attacking the soldiers in Nux’s stead,”

Amaya spoke and the other women nodded.

“No way.”

Nux was the first to deny the proposal.

“Why?” Amaya narrowed her eyes.

“It’s too dangerous. I don’t want to put you all in danger.”

Nux shook his head continuously.

Amaya and the others walked toward Nux and formed a circle around him,

“Do you think we will lose?” Amaya questioned.

Nux, however, closed his eyes and shook his head again,

“Attacking more than Ten thousand soldiers is a no no. It’s too risky. If you want to go, then take around ten thousand soldiers with you. Then I would have no problem.”

His women narrowed their eyes.

They knew it would be a little difficult to convince Nux, however, he would flat-out deny it, they didn’t expect that.

The woman then turned towards Astaria, the most powerful person here, Astaria however, shook her head.

“Sorry girls, I would have taken your side if it was anything else, however, in this, I would have to take his side.

A few individuals fighting against an entire army is a ridiculous concept, I know all of you are capable, but fighting wars is not a simple process. Ember, you were a general before, you should know how dangerous it is.”

“I know how dangerous it is, that is the reason I want to go.

I have led countless troops before, I know how things were, and dare I say, I know it more than any one of you present here.

And from all my past experience, I can confidently say that we all can take care of it.

In fact, I would even go as far as saying that this is the battle I am most confident about.”

Ember replied with a confident look on her face.

Astaria glanced at Ember for a while, she then turned towards Nux and replied, “I am still on Nux’s side here.”

“You allowed Nux when he said he wanted to go. Why aren’t you allowing us?” Thyra pointed.

Astaria glanced at Thyra and narrowed her eyes, “Are you seriously asking that? This monster defeated the Shadow Unit alone.

He is different, you, of all people, should know it first hand.”

“Then how about this,

Let us fight the Shadow Unit, if we can defeat them, then allow us to go and since we have a number’s advantage, you can add Consort Iria and General Phorus into the group as well.”

Amaya proposed.

Hearing that, a smile appeared on Astaria’s face, and just as she was about to accept Amaya’s deal,

Nux interrupted.

“Don’t. Don’t allow it.”

“Huh?”

Astaria frowned.

“Tsk.” Amaya snorted. She was this close.

“You think they can defeat the Shadow Unit?”

Astaria questioned.

Nux glanced at his women.

Defeat the Shadow Unit?

They can destroy them.

“...”

He didn’t know how to reply.

Seeing his expression, Astaria narrowed her eyes in doubt and confusion,

“You aren’t thinking they could defeat Shadow Unit, right?”

“...”

“They can huh...”

Astaria understood.

She didn’t know whether she should smile or cry.

She was thankful that none of the members of the Shadow Unit were here.

“Nux, let us go.

You know we are capable.”

Ember glanced at Nux and spoke with a serious look on her face.

“The moment any of us gets injured, we would turn around and run away, I promise. Also, it’s not like you can’t come there to help us, right?

We will call you the moment something goes wrong.”

“ ...”

Nux turned silent.

“Every one of us will allow you to do anything you want with us if you let us go.”

Nux opened his eyes and glanced at his women,

“Anything?”

“Anything.”

“And you will call me the moment you feel something is wrong?”

“Yes.”

“Are you sure?”

“Tsk, just say yes already. Don’t annoy me.” Felberta snorted.

Nux looked at his women helplessly and,

“Whatever, just go.”

His women smiled,

“I knew you the best!”

Skyla didn’t miss the chance and jumped at Nux.

“Uggh! Take it easy, I am hurt~”

Nux groaned in pain.

“O-Oh, I apologize.”

Skyla panicked.

She then quickly took out a healing potion and drank it.

Then, she kissed Nux.

What?

Nux could have drunk it himself?

Huh? Of course he cannot. He was injured.

Mouth-to-mouth was required.

Astaria, on the other hand, didn't know how to react.

Just what kind of monstrous group has she met?

They can defeat 2 Shadow Units on their own.

She wondered if even she was capable of doing that.

But after thinking about it, she realized.

She can.

Very easily at that.

Shadow Unit was nothing in her eyes...

...

Just like that, time passed.

All this while, Nux only did 3 things, Train with Astaria, cultivate alone, and spend time with his wives.

He also met Teacher Arvina a lot of times, however, he just greeted her normally and then ended the conversation.

‘Master Nux.’

4 days later, Nux was contacted by a certain General.

‘Armando, it’s been a while.’

Nux, who was sitting beside Astaria smiled.

‘Master Nux, I just received the news, all the 7 Generals would now be on stand back, ready to battle any time.’

‘Hmm? Why is that? Only 4 of you were attacking perfectly normally, weren’t you?’ Nux questioned.

‘Lord Herms received the news, the Skyfall Kingdom will be helping the Woods Dynasty in this War.’ Armando reported.

Hearing those words, a small smile appeared on Nux’s face.

‘Alright, be sure to inform me if more King Stage Cultivators come.’

‘As you command, Master Nux.’

Nux terminated the connection and smiled,

Seeing him smile like that, Astaria spoke,

“Why not spar again if you have the time to smile like you are crazy?”

“Please let me live...” Nux requested.

Astaria laughed, “Don’t worry, I am joking. So? What happened? Why are you smiling?”

“Our suspicion was correct, Herms and Amletus were indeed working together,” Nux replied.

“Huh? How do you know?”

“Well... Amaya set a trap and they fell for it.”

“Huh? What do you mean?”

“Amaya’s mother, Riona Skadi reported to Amletus that the Skyfall Kingdom will be aiding the Woods Dynasty in this War against the Solid Earth Kingdom.”

Astaria narrowed her eyes.

“Amaya wanted to test the connection between Herms and Amletus, there was no other way the news could have been leaked, the only ones who knew about this were you, me, my wives, the Ellinger, Alcimus, Riona, and... Amletus.

Riona can be trusted completely, Ellinger and Alcimus would obviously not leak this news, the only one left would be Amletus.

The timing coincides as well.”

“So you all deliberately delivered the news to Amletus, an Emperor Stage Cultivator, and pushed him into a trap?”

“Well, if he was innocent, he wouldn’t have fallen for it.” Nux shrugged.

“...” Astaria didn’t know what to say.

Nux understood what she was thinking and sympathized with her.

“The mother-daughter pair can be dangerous, especially now that their relationship has improved.”

Chapter 562

“The mother-daughter pair can be dangerous, especially now that their relationship has improved,”

Nux spoke with a wry smile on his face.

Astaria turned towards Nux and furrowed her brows,

“Rather than dangerous, people like them are just... annoying.

They are weak, but they go around, planning this and that, trying different ways to harm you, even if they are your allies, you won't know when they will betray you, they could never become a person you could trust with everything you have, you would always need to keep your guard up around them.

I prefer straightforward people more.

If they hate you, they will say it right to your face.

That is how things should be, straight and simple.”

Nux listen to Astaria's words and then a smile appeared on his face, “Amaya is not like that.

I trust her with my everything and I don't need to keep my guard up around her.

Rather, I am most relaxed whenever I am with my wives.

To be honest, even Riona, she may be calculating many things while she is with others, however, when she is with people she actually cares about, she will be completely different.”

“I have no clue how you trust people like them, you have to know, manipulation is what they are good at.”

Astaria warned.

“Heh. If I can’t even trust my women, then who would I even trust?” Nux replied with a smile.

Astaria frowned, then, she just snorted,

“I just don’t like people like them...”

“I’ll consider Amaya as an exception.”

“Thank you for that.

Though I do understand why you don’t like people who excel in planning and manipulations, you are the type to solve everything with your swords.”

“That is a much better way to solve things.”

“Hahaha~ I agree.

I am the same as well.”

“No you are not, stop lying.” Astaria shook her head.

Nux smiled wryly, “You are right, I am not...”

I am more like a lazy person who doesn’t want to do anything.

I would rather just stay in a Palace, surrounded by my beautiful wives, and enjoy my life.

Things like manipulations, planning, war, all of them are too troublesome for me.”

Nux spoke as he slowly dropped his head on Astaria’s shoulder.

...or what he tried to do.

However, before his head could touch Astaria's shoulder, Astaria disappeared and appeared a few meters away.

"Don't even try," Astaria spoke.

"Tsk, you are ruthless. You could at least support your student who is now tired, can't you?"

Nux, whose head was now on the ground snorted.

"Support yourself on your own."

Astaria snorted.

Nux sighed.

"Anyways, are you sure you don't want to be with Evane right now?"

Suddenly, Astaria questioned.

"I won't be cultivating today, I'll go straight to her after I have recovered a little," Nux replied.

"Tsk, take a bath before you go, you stink." Astaria snorted as she pinched her nose.

Nux's face twitched, he, however, ignored Astaria's statement and smiled,

"I would go straight to her.

We two will bath together."

"Shameless."

Astaria spoke.

"She is my wife, spending time with her is not shameless.

Of course, you are welcome to join if you want.”

“I would rather not.”

Astaria shook her head.

Nux sighed again.

“Alright, I am going now.”

Astaria spoke.

“At least wait till I recovered enough to stand up,” Nux replied.

“Don’t try to fool me, you monster. You usually only need 10 minutes and 15 minutes have already passed. You are just looking for ways to keep me here so you can spend time with me.

What a pervert.”

“You caught me.”

Nux didn’t deny.

“...”

Astaria turned around and walked away.

Seeing her back, Nux couldn’t help but smile.

Then, he stood up, stretched his body, and turned around as well.

His direction, the Royal Highness’s room.

...

“Queen Evane.”

Nux bowed his head as he walked into the room.

Evane, who was sitting on the bed wearing a thin gown, placed her right leg on top of her left and spoke in a dignified voice.

“You are late.”

“I apologize, my Queen.”

Nux replied.

“You think a mere apology would be enough?”

Evane questioned as she narrowed her eyes.

“I... I have made a mistake, My Queen, please punish me accordingly.”

“Come here,” Evane ordered.

Nux stood up and walked towards her.

Of course, since he was in front of the Queen, he didn't dare look at her face and kept his head low.

“Look at me,” Evane ordered.

Nux finally raised his head and glanced at Queen Evane's green eyes.

“What do you think your punishment should be?”

Queen Evane questioned.

“A lowly man like me don't dare to suggest anything to the mighty Queen,”

Nux knew his limits.

“4 nights then.”

Evane spoke.

“No no no, that's too much.” Nux quickly shook his head.

“3 nights?”

“Still too much.”

“T-Two, I am not going lower than that.”

Evane quickly broke the character.

“Tsk Tsk, you greedy Queen.”

Nux snorted as he climbed onto Evane’s bed and placed her on her lap.

“What’s wrong with being greedy? I am the Queen.”

Evane snorted.

“Now look at that~

Showing off already, aren’t you?”

Nux spoke and Evane chuckled.

“Anyways, are you ready for today?” Suddenly, Nux questioned.

Evane pouted,

“I still wanted you to be with me as well.”

Nux, however, shook his head, “You know we can’t do that yet. With all these Emperors acting out, we are not sure what’s going to happen in the future.

Containing news in Palace is simple, it won’t do good if everyone knew about it right now.”

“...I know that already.”

Evane spoke.

“Of course you do, you are the Queen after all.”

“But I am still sad...” Evane pouted.

“Then how about a bath together to make it up to you?” Nux suggested.

“I won’t ever deny that~”

Evane replied seductively.

She obviously wasn’t planning to keep it as simple as a ‘bath.’

Nux, of course, knew what she was planning.

And who was he kidding?

He was planning the same thing as well.

Chapter 563

“2 packs of Sparklers please~”

A child walked towards a shop and spoke with a cheery look on his face.

“Here is you Sparklers, be careful while playing with them okay? That would be 6 Bronze coins.”

The shopkeeper replied with a smile on his face.

“Okay!”

The child quickly placed 6 coins on the Shopkeeper’s table and rushed away.

The shopkeeper chuckled and then shook his head.

“Hmm? 6 Bronze Coins? Wasn’t that the price of 1 pack? Why did you give him 2 of them?” A man standing next to the shopkeeper questioned.

“It’s a special discount for today.”

The SHOpkeeper replied.

“B-But won’t that be a loss for you? Especially today. You could have made huge profits you know?”

The man couldn’t understand what the shopkeeper was thinking.

“Hahaha~

I have to sell it for cheaper because it is today.”

“Huh? What do you mean?”

“Don’t you know? It is Queen Evane’s Coronation today.” The Shopkeeper replied.

“Of course I know it. That’s why I said it, even if you sold one pack for 10 coins today, people would still have bought it. Everyone wants to celebrate her coronation in their own way. That is just how popular Queen Evane is. You could have easily used her popularity and could have made huge profits.”

“Hahaha~”

The shopkeeper just started laughing.

The man’s frown deepened.

Was his friend perhaps an Idiot?

He couldn’t help but think.

“I don’t need profits.”

Suddenly, the Shopkeeper spoke.

“Especially on the name of our Queen.

There is no way I would try to profit using the name of someone as charming, merciful, and companionate leader as her.

She had already don’t so much for her.

She excused the huge tax that was on my shoulders, she even promised to open better hospitals where they would allow us to use healing potions and could only charge the making charges.

The Royal Court would also be more open to us commoners from now on.

Not only that, but they even say that she would open an Academy, just like the Royal Academy, where the children of commoners could learn cultivation and no one would force them to join the Royal Army after graduation.”

The shopkeeper spoke with a fanatic look on his face,

“When someone who has done and plans to do so much for us is becoming the Queen, how can I be selfish and try to profit off her name?

I would rather make a loss today and show Queen Evane my full support.”

The shopkeeper completely and at the same time, another woman came to his shop, buying 3 packs of Sparklers.

Time continued to pass, many commoners prepared for Queen Evane’s coronation.

Of course, Nobles did the same as they prepared many gifts and pleasantries, however, in Evane’s eyes, these nobles mattered less.

The reason was simple, nobles would celebrate whenever a new Ruler is crowned, it was the commoners who were the exception.

The commoners only supported the ruler they actually trusted, and currently, the number of commoners who had placed their trust in Queen Evane was... uncountable.

She was definitely the most supported ruler in the history of the Skyfall Kingdom and all of this just happened because of a few tax reliefs and some promises she had made.

She was the first ruler to actually think about the commoners, who were completely powerless, rather than the nobles who held the major power in the Kingdom.

*Dhumb*

Suddenly, everyone in the capital city heard a loud sound.

The once bustling capital suddenly turned silent. Only the children, who didn't know anything, and the animals and birds were making a sound.

*Dhumb*

The sound was heard again.

This time, the children, who noticed everyone around them had turned silent as well.

*Dhumb*

The sound rang the third time.

*Dhumb*

Then the fourth time.

*Dhumb*

*Dhumb*

*Dhumb*

*Dhumb*

*Dhumb*

*Dhumb*

By the time it rang the 10th time, the entire Capital turned silent.

This time, even the animals and birds didn't make any type of noise.

Everyone understood what was happening and smiles appeared on most of the commoners' faces, however, they still didn't make any sound.

They all just turned towards the Royal Palace and bowed their heads.

“Evane Skyfall.”

Suddenly, a voice echoed throughout the capital.

This shocked everyone, even the nobles, everyone wondered how this was even possible, the well-informed nobles, however, understood what was happening and couldn't help but be surprised.

“I, Astaria Skyfall, the Dowager, and the Protector of the Great Skyfall Kingdom, declare that you will be crowned as the Queen of the Skyfall Kingdom and henceforth bear the responsibilities of our Great Kingdom and bring it to greater heights.”

Astaria declared as she signaled a maid.

The maid walked forwards, carrying a red velvet base, where a Golden Crown adorned with different jewels rested.

Astaria picked the Crown.

“Now bow.”

Astaria ordered.

Evane tilted her head forward into a light bow.

She didn't completely bow her head, she was the Future Queen after all.

Astaria smiled a little and then, she placed the Crown on Evane's head.

“Long Live Queen Evane!”

“Long Live the Skyfall Kingdom!”

“Long Live Queen Evane!”

“Long Live the Skyfall Kingdom!”

“Long Live Queen Evane!”

“Long Live the Skyfall Kingdom!”

The cheers started.

*Whoosh*

*Bam*

Soon, huge fireworks were launched into the sky, brightening the dark sky.

This was the signal for the commoners.

All of them lit up their fireworks as well and,

“Long Live Queen Evane!”

“Long Live the Skyfall Kingdom!”

“Long Live Queen Evane!”

“Long Live the Skyfall Kingdom!”

“Long Live Queen Evane!”

“Long Live the Skyfall Kingdom!”

Loud, reverberating cheers, that overshadowed the nobles cheering in the Royal Palace were heard.

Seeing this scene, Evane couldn't help but smile. Astaria raised her brow in astonishment as well. The others seemed to be surprised as well.

“Long Live Queen Evane!”

“Long Live the Skyfall Kingdom!”

The cheers continues, the fireworks were continuously being fired into the sky.

Under the cheers from the nobles and the commoners, Evane walked towards the new Throne that was built for her and sat down.

Drinks were served, the nobles finally came forward with their gifts according to their ranks, the commoners, on the other hand, continued to cheer for the Queen.

Only after 10 minutes had passed by did they calm down.

Seeing all this, Astaria smiled.

Then suddenly, her smile turned dark and,

“It’s finally time.”

She spoke.

Chapter 564

*Clank* *Clank* *Clank*

A man sat inside a dark room, closed from all sides, nothing was visible, the only thing that told the man that he was still alive was the sounds of chains clanking whenever he moves.

“Long Live Queen Evane!”

“Long Live the Skyfall Kingdom!”

Suddenly, the man heard a cheer.

It was unusual for the room, where rarely any sounds passes through due to high thick the walls were.

The man opened his eyes, this, however, didn't do anything because of how dark the room was.

“Long Live Queen Evane!”

“Long Live the Skyfall Kingdom!”

The man heard the cheers again.

*Step* *Step* *Step*

Then, he heard the sounds of footsteps.

The man frowned.

Why was someone coming here?

He wondered inwardly as he glanced at the direction the sound came from.

*Creak*

The doors were opened, the light pierced into the man's eyes, he needed some time to get used to it.

Suddenly, the man heard a condensing, disdainful voice,

“Man... what's with that look on your face? Did Lady Astaria not provide you with any food?”

The man glanced at the man who had just entered his prison room and frowned,

Black hair, Golden eyes, a handsome face, he has never seen this man before. Who was he?

And as if hearing his thoughts, the man introduced himself,

“Let me introduce myself,

My name is Nux Leander, if it was normal time, I would have bowed, or even kneeled in front of you, however, since you are already in this position, I would not be doing that,

Ricardus Skyfall, the previous King.

Or I should say criminal who is about to be executed.”

Nux's smile widened.

Hearing Nux's words, Ricardus, who was bound by Ironstar chained widened his eyes in surprise.

“E-Executed?”

He questioned.

Well, he knew he was going to get executed, but still, he didn't think it would happen this soon.

“What are you acting so surprised for? Didn't you already know about it?”

Nux questioned.

“N-No, you can’t execute me!” Ricardus’s pale face turned even paler.

He quickly rushed towards Nux, he was bounded by the Chains so he still couldn’t reach him, however, he got as close to him as possible and placed his head on the ground.

“Y-You can’t do this! Please! You can’t kill me!

Y-Your name is Nux, right? Listen to me, remove these chains, I know a secret tunnel, I would run away from there, you can just say the chains somehow broke apart or either blame someone else. If I make it out of here, I will always remember your favor, you will have me, a King Stage Cultivator as your ally, I am sure I will be useful to you. You stand to gain nothing from my death anyways! This is absolutely a deal wher-”

“Huh? What are you talking about? I stand to gain a lot from your death.”

Nux suddenly frowned and replied,

“H-Huh? B-But I don’t even know you. W-Why do you want me dead?”

“Well, it is true that we have never met before, but my wife doesn’t like you,” Nux replied.

“Y-Your w-wife? W-W-Who is she? I will personally apologize to her if I had wronged her in any way. I-I will even fall on my knees and rub my nose on the ground in front of her. Just tell me who she is.”

“She is your daughter, Evane Skyfall.”

“H-Huh?”

The previous King didn’t know how to react.

“M-My daughter?”

“Mhm.” Nux nodded with a smile on his face.

“Y-You are my daughter’s husband?”

He questioned and Nux nodded again.

“Mhm, the daughter who is replacing you as the next ruler of this Kingdom. You can say that I will become the next King now.”

“W-Wait, but I am sure that E-Evane doesn’t hate me,” Ricardus muttered. He couldn’t care less about who would become the next King or whatever, he just wanted to be alive.

“That’s true, but my other wife hates you.” Nux nodded and then replied.

“W-Who?”

“Hmm, Amaya for the start, she hates you a lot, then there is Allura, then... hmmm... I don’t think others hate you... they don’t really know you that well, but I am sure they would hate you if they knew.”

“A-Amaya and A-A-Allura?”

Ricardus stuttered.

“Mhm.”

“A-A-Are you talking about the R-Royal Consorts.”

“Previous Royal Consorts.”

Nux corrected.

“Now they are my wives.”

“Y-Y-You...”

Ricardus didn’t know what to say.

If it was normal, he would have executed this bastard right now, not only did he go after his daughter, he even went after his wives!

His wives!

How dare he!?

Ricardus was boiling in anger, however, more than anger, he was... fearful.

Fearful of his own death.

“I-I’ll a-apologize to Amaya and Allura!”

He spoke.

“Hmm? You don’t mind that they are my wives now? They really love me deeply you know? I love them a lot as well.”

“L-Loving your partner is good for a healthy relationship.”

Ricardus smiled.

A disgusted expression appeared on Nux’s face as he stepped back,

“Dude... I am amazed...

And I thought I was a coward...”

Ricardus didn’t mind and requested,

“P-Please let me leave! I will ma-”

“I would have if I could, but the thing is, one of my wives hate you so much that just mentioning your name would anger her.

I heard that you killed her son, as a man, I can’t ignore this, now can I?”

“I-I killed her s-son? W-When did I do that? Who are talking about? What is her name?” Ricardus questioned.

“Astaria Skyfall.”

“!!!”

Ricardus’s eyes widened in shock.

“S-S-She is you-”

“Well, not now, but I am still trying my very best,
I will make her mine soon enough.”

Nux replied.

“Y-Y-You... w-who a-are you?”

Ricardus questioned.

“Hmmm. That’s a good question.”

Nux spoke and started pondering.

“I am your son-in-law, then I am your ex-wives’ husband and then I will also become your uncle who you can call a father in the future.

It is kind of a strange relationship.

But meh,

It’s a cultivation world,

Things get a little complicated here.

Anyway,

Ricardus Skyfall,

Get ready for your execution.”

Chapter 565

“Why are we here?”

“I do not know.”

“Look, even all the Dukes seem confused...”

“Duke Vestalis seems to know something.”

“Of course he would know something, he is the Queen’s Grandfather.”

“I don’t see Duke Fulvanus here.”

“Mhm, I have been wondering the same for a while now, let alone him, I don’t see anyone related to the Fulvanus Family.”

“Are they against Queen Evane?”

“Does that even matter now? She has already been crowned as the new Ruler. I don’t think Duke Fulvanus is dumb enough to against the ruling authority.”

“Wait, now that I think about it, where is King Ricardus?”

Shouldn’t he have first abdicated his Throne before giving it to Queen Evane?”

“Actually I haven’t heard anything from King Ricardus for a while now.”

“Well, it is not like he is much active.”

“But still, shouldn’t he be present in his daughter’s coronation?”

The nobles continued to discuss among themselves, they had many doubts in their mind, but the question was why they were taken to the Royal Stage.

The Royal Stage is a building used for big events, a tournament among the top cultivators of the world that was held every once in a while was a good example of such an event.

Did Queen Evane prepare something for them?

They all wondered in their heads.

They tried to glance at the stage to guess what was going to happen, however, other than a peculiar dome made from some Black Purple material, they couldn't see anything.

“Silence.”

Suddenly, a voice echoed throughout the Royal Stage.

All the nobles turned silent.

*Step*

A man walked into the stage and bowed. He was carrying an axe in his hand and looked quite muscular.

“I am sure you all are wondering why you have been brought here when you were celebrating the coronation of Queen Evane.

Today, is the day that will be written down in the history of our Great Kingdom, it is the day that marks the start of Queen Evane's era. It is the day that marks the start of all the changes that our Kingdom would go through and develop to unimaginable heights.

This will also be the day after which the rotten elements of our Kingdom will start to live in fear.

This is the day, which will mark the new beginning.”

As these words ended,

The Purple Black Dome that was created started disappearing and,

“!!!”

People present here all widened their eyes in shock as they saw what was inside the Dome.

King Ricardus, the man who held the greatest power in the Kingdom, the man who was capable of making or destroying anyone, currently had his head forced inside a guillotine.

“T-That’s...”

“K-King Ricardus...”

The nobles couldn’t believe their eyes.

Astaria completely ignored their reaction and continued,

“Ricardus Skyfall, the previous King of the Skyfall Kingdom is a vile criminal who killed his own siblings because of his greed for the Throne.

Not only that, he has even forced himself upon countless women and has even unjustly executed the families of the women who had refused him.

For a vile man like him, no punishment other than death would be adequate.

Today, Ricardus Skyfall would be executed for all the crimes that he is guilty of, and this execution will also be the message for everyone.

The guilty will be punished no matter who they are. Even the Queen blood father will not be tolerated.”

Saying those words, Astaria glanced at the man holding the axe and nodded.

The man nodded back and raised his axe.

Then, he glanced at the Queen.

With an emotionless look on her face, the Queen nodded,

*Whoosh*

The Axe was dropped, the roped was cut and,

*Slice*

*Thud*

Ricardus's head fell onto the ground.

He was executed.

“ ... ”

An eerie silence fell all over the place.

Ricardus's blood continued to flow.

As people witnessed this scene, different thoughts filled their minds.

Some were fearful of the new Queen, they couldn't believe that her influence was strong enough to even execute the previous King.

Some were shocked that she ordered the execution of her father without a single change in her expression.

Some were delighted that the Queen seemed just.

Some thought the Queen was cruel.

‘He is finally gone.’

Astaria, on the other hand, couldn't help but look at Ricardus's head with an emotional look on her face.

She had been waiting for this day for a long long time.

An image of her child appeared in her mind and a small smile appeared on her face,

‘I have finally avenged you, Dek.’ She spoke inwardly.

Arvina, who saw her teacher’s smile couldn’t help but glance at her husband’s severed head again.

Different emotions filled her mind.

She was delighted.

That man was finally gone.

She was free now.

On the other hand, Amaya and Allura, who were also once King’s wife glanced at his severed head,

Amaya didn’t really care.

She was busy trying to avoid her annoying mother, who has been talking to her for a while now.

Allura had the same attitude as well.

She didn’t exactly hate the King, however, she didn’t like him either.

She was pretty much neutral, but she was still happy that filth like this was finally removed from this world.

Nux knew what his women were thinking, therefore, he ignored all of them and only contacted the one who worried him the most,

‘Are you okay?’

He questioned.

‘I am fine.’

Evane replied without any change in her expression.

‘You don’t have to act strong in front of me.’ Nux replied.

Evane might not show it, but she still ordered the execution of her own father right now, this was definitely affecting her.

Or at least that’s what Nux’s thought.

Evane, however, shook her head,

‘It was nothing. That man had to die. If I didn’t order his execution, she would have found another way to kill him.

All of this is just a show planned by Amaya to raise my authority even further.

Something like this can’t affect me.

I am not that weak.’

‘Of course you are not.’

Hearing her reply, Nux just smiled.

He would still spend more time with Evane today just to be sure.

Of course, Evane wouldn’t mind it either.

Anyways, that was how the Coronation of Queen Evane and Execution of King Ricardus ended and the next morning’s sun rose up.

Chapter 566

*Clang*

Nux blocked Astaria's sword with his own, he then punched, aiming at her face, Astaria, however, just tilted her head and kicked Nux's abdomen, Nux defended the attack using his forearm, Astaria smiled and used even more force.

“!!!”

Nux's eyes widened in surprise, he wanted to use [Mirror], however, it was too late and he was sent flying back.

“Heh, you got rusty since you didn't train for the last two days.”

Astaria laughed.

Nux stood up from the ground and smiled back,

“I didn't get rusty, you are just jealous that I spent all my time with my wives and you didn't see me for the last 2 days, and now you are punishing me for that.”

“Tsk, stop being delusional.” Astaria snorted.

“Why would I be jealous over something like that? If you don't want to train, it is your loss. Also, if it was you 2 days ago, you would have been able to use that Mirror Magic of yours to defend against my attack.”

“Tsk.” Nux snorted back.

“People don't get rusty just because they didn't train for the 2 days. And the reason I failed to defend against your attack was that you changed your tactics.

Normally, for the first spar of the day, you don't use Mana, it is more like a warm-up spar where you test how much I have improved, today, however, not only did you use Mana, you even used it at the last moment just to make sure that I won't have the time to block your attack."

"Haah? You think people in real life would tell you that they are going to use Mana or not?"

Astaria snorted.

"Haah? You think I would go around sparring with my enemies?"

Nux countered.

"..."

Astaria turned silent.

Nux glanced at her and smiled.

"What are you looking at?"

"Tsundere."

"What the hell does that even means?"

"Nothing."

Nux just continued to smile.

Astaria continued to boil in anger.

She knew, this man wouldn't wipe that smile off his face no matter what she says, she needed to change the topic.

"So? How was your meeting with Ricardus? It was your first time meeting him, right?"

Astaria questioned.

“Hmm? What’s with the sudden question?”

“I am just curious,” Astaria replied.

“To be honest, he was pathetic.”

Nux stated.

“Why do you say that?” Astaria questioned with a serious look on her face.

“I went to him because I wanted to act like a third-rate winner who had just won.

I wanted to smile widely as I continue to humiliate that bastard just like any low-level scrub would do, he, however, was so pathetic that he started to beg for his life even before I could get into the zone.

Tsk, he ruined all the fun.

Pathetic.”

Nux snorted and Astaria,

Well, she just glanced at Nux with a foolish look on her face.

She didn’t know how to react.

Ricardus was pathetic, that she knew.

But what’s with the strange fetish of acting like a third-rate villain?

Why would anyone want to do that?

Unable to contain her curiosity, Astaria questioned.

“Tsk, you won’t know. Acting like a third-rate villain is fun, you just need a better target.

Just wait for it.

I am sure I will find a target soon enough.

Then I will show you how satisfying it is.

Hehehe~”

Nux laughed with a wide smile on his face.

Seeing that smile, Astaria wanted to punch that face of his.

“Anyways, they are going to leave today, correct?”

Suddenly, Nux questioned.

“Mhm, they said that they needed to look into the situation before making a battle plan,” Nux replied.

“Are you sure about this? Will they be fine?”

Astaria questioned.

Nux’s face turned serious as well,

“Well, the only thing I can do right now is trust them. If anything goes wrong, I am sure they will take care of it.

They all are capable women.”

“They are indeed.”

Astaria nodded as well.

“Alright, enough chitchat, get ready now.”

Hearing those words, Nux took his battle stance, Astaria rushed towards him, this time, the Mana around her moved.

Nux’s face turned serious.

This time, Astaria was serious.

He tightened his grip around his sword and at the same time, the Ground in front of him turned a little purple.

...

“D-Dynast!”

A guard rushed into the Royal Hall and spoke loudly.

“What happened?”

Ellinger, who was sitting on his throne spoke with a slight frown on his face.

He couldn't understand why his guard was acting like that.

It was unsightly.

“D-Dynast, the people from the Skyfall Kingdom are here.”

The guard reported.

“Let them in.”

Ellinger spoke.

At the same time, he couldn't understand,

Why was the guard acting like that?

The Skyfall Kingdom was an Ally, though the fact that they would assist in the war was not announced, many knew that they weren't enemies.

There was no reason for the guard to panic like that.

“S-Should I r-really?”

The Guard questioned.

“Huh? What do you mean? They are our esteemed guests, let them in, now.”

Ellinger spoke with a cold look on his face.

“D-Dynast... t-there are 9 of them.”

The guard reported.

“So what?”

“A-All of them are King Stage Cultivators.”

“!!!”

Ellinger’s expression changed.

He now understood why the guard was acting like that.

If 9 Stage cultivators appeared in front of the Royal Palace, anyone would act like that.

For people who didn’t know about the existence of the Protector, this was a catastrophic event.

“Do not worry, let them in.”

Ellinger nodded.

The guard bowed and rushed out.

Soon, 9 women walked into the Royal Hall.

All these women had covered their faces and seeing all of them, Ellinger couldn’t help but gulp.

‘I-Is the Skyfall K-Kingdom really that strong? 9 King Stage Cultivators...? Just how can they have so many?’

He was sure that the Kingdom had more.

Their general isn't here, the King, the man who came with Lady Amaya, he himself could count 3 more Cultivators.

‘Minimum of 12 King Stage Cultivators...’

Ellinger gulped again.

He now realized why the Skyfall Kingdom is known as the Strongest.

“It is nice to meet you again, Lord Ellinger.”

Amaya greeted.

“L-Likewise, Lady Amaya.” Ellinger smiled back.

“We are here to see the situation of the war-”

“About that, Lady Amaya.”

Suddenly, Ellinger interrupted.

“We wanted to change the conditions a little.”

Chapter 567

“We wanted to change the conditions a little.”

Ellinger spoke with a little awkward look on his face and,

“...”

The entire Royal Hall turned silent as they glanced at Amaya.

Amaya narrowed her eyes and,

“Dynast Ellinger, are you looking down on the Skyfall Kingdom?”

She questioned in a solemn tone.

The atmosphere turned even heavier.

The deal was already signed between the 2 Kingdoms, changing the conditions now was... not possible.

Even suggesting something like this was disrespectful.

It shows that the party doesn't care about the contract and thinks the other party has to oblige to their request because they are better out of the two parties.

Although the Skyfall Kingdom did approach first, it doesn't mean they were the ones who were desperate for help, no matter how one sees it, the party which was on the weaker side is not the Skyfall Kingdom, but the Woods Dynasty.

And requesting to change the conditions in a situation like this...

They were clearly looking down on the Skyfall Kingdom.

“Lady Amaya, please understand, the deal you came up with was too abrupt, we didn’t have much time to think things through.

Why don’t you listen to our request first and decide later?

I assure you that it will not be disadvantageous to the Skyfall Kingdom in any way.”

Ellinger spoke calmly.

Amaya glanced at the Dynast sitting in front of her and after thinking for a while, she nodded.

“State your wishes.”

“We wish to participate in the battle against the Solid Earth Army as well.” Ellinger spoke.

Amaya narrowed her eyes, considering it as a signal, Ellinger continued his explanation.

“According to the deal, the Skyfall Kingdom would take care of the Solid Earth Kingdom’s army on their own and we wouldn’t need to participate in the war at all.

Although it is a great opportunity for us to save our men and deal with our problem at the same time, our reputation is too damaged for us to take this step.

If the Skyfall Kingdom takes care of the Solid Earth Army, it would spread a message that the Woods Dynasty is incapable of taking care of their own Land and has submitted to the Skyfall Kingdom for protection. This would greatly affect our reputation and that is something we cannot allow.

Therefore, I request you to allow our soldiers to participate in the upcoming battle as well.”

Hearing what he said, Amaya and the others narrowed their eyes.

There was nothing wrong with the changes, it was rather beneficial for the Skyfall Kingdom since they would have more options.

At the very least, the Woods were not disrespecting them.

However,

“This affects our Battle plan.”

Amaya stated with an emotionless look on her face.

“This is something we absolutely must do.”

Ellinger couldn't back down either.

A small smile appeared on Amaya's face,

“This will affect our plan, we aren't sure if we would be able to deal with more than 80% of the enemy soldiers if things proceed as you want.”

“...”

Ellinger turned silent.

“Can you kill half of them?”

Suddenly, a voice echoed throughout the Hall.

Amaya's face turned serious.

Alcimus was here.

She and her sisters bowed a little.

An old man walked in and repeated his question,

“Can you kill half of them?”

“We can manage that, yes.”

Amaya nodded.

“Alright then.”

Alcimus nodded.

Then, he turned towards Ellinger and nodded.

*Clap* *Clap*

Ellinger clapped two times, a servant walked in with some papers in his hand and passed it to Amaya.

“This is the new deal, please sign it. We trust that Lady Astaria will not go back on her words, therefore, we do not require her signatures.”

Alcimus spoke.

Amaya raised her eyebrows.

However, after thinking for a while, she just shrugged inwardly.

From Woods’ perspective, it didn’t really matter.

Alcimus already knew what was up, the matter of the Mythical Creature was serious enough so he knew Astaria would never go back on her words.

Amaya read the new deal and just as she was about to agree, Ember stepped forward,

“I have another condition.”

Hearing her words, Alcimus and Ellinger frowned, the two of them glanced at Amaya, she, however, closed her eyes and shook her head.

The message was clear.

She was not the leader here.

The lady who had stepped up had the same standing as her, she did not have the authority to say anything to her.

“What is it?” Alcimus questioned as he looked into Ember’s eyes.

“If the Woods Soldiers want to participate in the Battle, they need to listen to our commands.”

Ember spoke.

Alcimus frowned.

“It is not simple.”

Suddenly, a King Stage Cultivator, who was sitting amongst the Ministers of the Dynasty stood up and spoke.

Ember glanced at the man and frowned.

The man started, “Since all we do is fight, we, the soldiers do not possess the tact of the nobles.

If General Phorus were here he would understand since he knows how things work in the army.

But asking that the soldiers follow your orders just because of the deal... it would only create ridges in the army.

You need to earn the Leader’s spot on your own.

We can’t just give that to you even if we wanted to.”

Hearing the man’s words, a smile appeared on Ember’s face,

“I presume you are the new General of the Woods Dynasty?”

She questioned.

“My name is Vidyut Dore, the current General of the Woods Dynasty.” The man introduced himself and lifted his chest in pride.

Ember’s smile widened,

“Vidyut, when I said that the soldiers need to listen to our commands, I never said we wanted the position of the Acting General.

I only wanted to inform you that I will be the Acting General.

It was not a request, it was a condition.

As for how to make the soldiers listen to my orders,

You don’t need to worry about that,

I believe I am more than capable to do so.”

Chapter 568

“As for how to make the soldiers listen to my orders,

You don't need to worry about that,

I believe I am more than capable to do so.”

Ember replied and unconsciously, a heavy, dominating aura was released from her body.

General Vidyut was taken aback.

Ellinger, on the other hand, couldn't help but feel strange.

This woman...

He felt like he had seen her before.

Her Black Red Hair, those Fiery Crimson eyes, and now this suppressive Aura...

All these characteristics matched a woman he knew.

The two of them were way too similar.

To the point that Ellinger doubted that this woman... might actually be the woman he knew.

“You still haven't introduced yourself, Lady from the Skyfall Kingdom.”

Unable to contain his curiosity, Ellinger questioned.

Ember's smile widened as he introduced herself,

“My name is Ember Leander.”

Hearing her name, Ellinger's eyes widened in surprise.

However, before he acted, another thing bothered him.

Amaya's full name was Amaya Leander as well.

Leander...

Two King Stage Woman had this as their family name, however, Ellinger had never heard of Leander Family.

A family that has 2 King Stage Cultivators should be a well-known family, knowing that he has never heard of this family alerted Ellinger and he decided to hold back and spoke,

“Please excuse my ignorance but I have never heard of Leander Family before...”

“We rose to prominence recently, it is natural that you don't know about us,” Ember replied, then, her expression turned a little fierce and she continued,

“Of course, that doesn't mean we can be underestimated.”

“O-Of course, of course.”

Ellinger started to laugh as well.

‘I would be a fool to underestimate a family that is capable of producing 2 King Stage Cultivators.’

He thought inwardly.

At the same time, he decided not to pursue this matter further.

Even if this woman in front of him was Ember he knew, he didn't care.

Or more appropriately, he didn't have any plans to go against the Leander family, not when he is already tied up from all directions.

“Alright, I will agree to your conditions.

As long as you manage to convince Woods Soldiers, you can have the command of the army.”

Alcimus spoke.

“However, since we are tight on time, I don’t think we should waste time in creating another deal, I hope you show your trust in me and sign the current deal.”

Amaya thought about it for a while and nodded,

“Alright, since Lord Alcimus decided to trust the Skyfall Kingdom, we will place our trust in Lord as well.”

The reason was simple.

The new deal only stated that the Woods Army would participate in the war.

It never stated who would lead that.

So even if they lead it right now, the Woods couldn’t claim that they broke the Treaty.

“Alright, since the negotiations are complete, we would like to head to the Battlezone.”

Ember spoke.

It has been a long time since she last walked into a Battle Zone, it wouldn’t be a lie to say that she was excited.

“So soon? You can rest here for a few-”

Ellinger was about to speak, however, Ember interrupted.

“We are already tight on time, we need some time to prepare our new Battleplan as well. I would appreciate if Dynast would let us leave right now.”

Hearing her words, Ellinger was now sure that this Ember was Ember Windstar he knew.

However, he just decided to smile and nodded,

“Alright then, General Vidyut, I will leave everything to you.”

General Vidyut stepped forward,

“It would be my honor,”

Then, he turned towards the ladies and,

“Please follow me. I will take you to our stronghold.”

The women nodded.

The General walked out of the Hall and the woman followed behind him.

As the women left, Ellinger’s face turned solemn as he spoke,

“Grandfather, do you recognize that Black Red-haired woman?”

“She was that General that you liked.”

Alcimus replied.

“So you did recognize her.” Ellinger nodded.

“Of course, there is no way that stupid mask can hide her aura. Also, it wasn’t like she was particularly trying to hide her identity. Changing the color of your hair and your name isn’t really difficult.” Alcimus spoke.

“But wasn’t she kidnapped? Was it the Skyfall Kingdom who kidnapped her?”

Ellinger questioned.

“With a temperament like hers, she would never decide to side with the people who kidnapped her.”

“Then did the Skyfall Kingdom save her from those Kidnappers?”

Alcimus replied “That is a possibility.

She is not a child, she must have known what you were planning after stripping her of her position, even a fool won't return to the Dynasty when they have another Kingdom offering their support.”

Alcimus spoke as he narrowed his eyes.

Ellinger gulped in fear, however, he quickly controlled himself and questioned,

“Isn't that akin to betraying the Kingdom? What if she leaks our secrets to the Skyfall Kingdom?”

“Don't try to shift the blame, Ellinger.

A King Stage Cultivator left our Dynasty because of your foolish actions.

Man up, and take the responsibility for it.

Also, do you really think the Skyfall Kingdom needs to know your Army Secrets in order to defeat you in a Battle?”

Alcimus questioned.

“...”

Ellinger turned silent as he recalled that the Skyfall Kingdom had a minimum of 12 King Stage Cultivators in their rank.

“If the two countries fight in a battle without the Emperors involved,

The Skyfall Kingdom would absolutely destroy the Woods Dynasty.”

Alcimus spoke.

“ ...”

Ellinger turned silent.

‘Even the Emperors were involved, the result won’t change...’

He wanted to say these words out loud, however, he knew he wouldn’t live to see another day if he did therefore, Ellinger held himself back.

“Anyway, don’t bother thinking about useless things.

She is not Ember Windstar anymore.

She is now Ember Leander.

We have lost her, so forget about her.

Also,”

Suddenly, Alcimus’s face turned even solemn and he spoke,

“Try to investigate this Leander Family.”

“As you say, Grandfather.”

Chapter 569

“We are here.”

General Vidyut spoke with a smile on his face.

“It would have been much quicker if we had just run,” Ember commented.

“That is true, but I can’t have our guest run while they visit us now can I?”
General Vidyut laughed lightly.

“To think you were the one people from the Army were rough, you seem very tactful with your words,” Felberta spoke as she glanced at Vidyut.

“Well, I became the General not too long ago, as you might know already, our Dynasty has lost 2 Generals in this War.”

“From what I have heard, it makes sense to say that your Dynasty lost one of the Generals due to their sheer foolishness.”

Evane couldn’t help but comment.

She has always looked up to Ember Windstar.

And knowing what happened to her... well, although she is delighted Ember is now her sister because of this, she was still a little itchy about it.

“I would rather not comment on that.”

General Vidyut just smiled.

“Anyways, let’s not waste time now. Let’s enter.”

Ember spoke as she patted Evane’s head at the same time.

As Evane calmed down, Vidyut nodded in agreement.

“Lady Ember is right. Please follow me, I will take you to our base.”

General Vidyut spoke and they all entered Ravenhill.

Soon, they all walked into the largest building in the city. It looked like the City Lord’s Mansion, however, currently, the city was being abandoned by the citizens, many had already left, and the others were currently leaving under soldier’s orders.

It was clear that the City Lord had already left.

Looking around, Skyla couldn’t help but comment,

“The situation seems more serious than I thought.”

“...”

Vidyut didn’t say anything and walked into a particular room.

The women followed inside, there, they saw him standing behind a huge table that had the map of the city.

“I know you all already have some information, however, let me summarize the current situation just to make sure that we all are on the same page.”

General Vidyut spoke with a serious expression on his face.

The women nodded and the General started,

“The City we are in is called Ravenhill City, the Solid Earth Army has already taken over our 2 Forts, the Villages and Towns near them. We can say that our first-line defense has already been breached.

All the towns and villages that are between the Two Forts have been attacked and plundered by the enemy.

Ravenhill City is the only city that has strong Walls, this means that it is also our second line of defense. If we lose this to the enemy, all the Towns, villages, and cities behind us will be in danger and we would have to jump back to our last line of defense, the Capital City.

It is clear that we cannot lose this city, however, things are not positive.

The Solid Earth Army is hell-bent on attacking us with more than 30,000 Soldiers, in the end, Ravenhill is a city and not a Fort, therefore, we do not have any traps prepared for this situation.

The worse thing is that the enemy has set up Towers outside the Walls and is looking at all our activities from afar, not even giving us a chance to prepare for a new trap.

We only have 15,000 active soldiers, 20,000 of our soldiers are currently under medical care, and only 10,000 of them would be able to participate within a month, the rest would need more time.

As for the enemies, other than the 10,000 soldiers who attack us every day and the 20,000 who stay behind and rest, we don't know how many soldiers they have.

Currently, the enemies have higher numbers, higher morale, and better conditions.”

General Vidyut explained.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Ember, Amaya, Evane, and the others turned silent.

“So to summarize...

You people are fucked, correct?”

Edda commented.

Everyone in the room turned towards the Tanned woman.

“W-What?”

Edda questioned.

“That is correct... the situation is dire.”

General Vidyut admitted.

“How come do you not have any information about the enemy?”

Allura couldn't help but question.

“We lose contact with all the spies we send there and since the war between the two countries has turned even more serious, we are unable to deploy more spies.”

General Vidyut replied.

Everyone in the room turned towards Ember.

This was the same problem she faced before.

Of course, when Ember was leading the Woods Army, the situation wasn't this bad.

“Alright, we have heard the situation. Now we would like to meet the Deputy Generals and other high-ranking soldiers.”

Ember spoke.

“Of course.” General Vidyut nodded.

A servant then walked into the room and General Vidyut ordered,

“Call all the higher-ups.”

The Servant bowed his head and walked away.

Soon, all the higher-ups, 4 Deputy Generals, and 10 Assistant Generals walked away.

Seeing her previous subordinates, Ember's expression warmed up a little. Of course, she didn't recognize any of the Assistant Generals, however, the 4 Deputy Generals, she was glad that these fools were still alive.

At the same time, Amaya had started analyzing the new faces. They all looked tired, it was clear that they weren't in their best condition. From the sweat that still hadn't dried up, it was clear that they were still in Battle not too long ago, however, since there weren't any injuries, Amaya assumed that it wasn't a hard-fought battle.

“They are reinforcements from the Skyfall Kingdom, treat them as you would treat me.”

General Vidyut spoke in a strict tone, completely different from the tone he used when talking to Nux's wives.

The Deputy and Assistant Generals were already looking at the women who were standing in front of them.

9 King Stage Cultivators...

They had never seen these many strong Cultivators in their entire life.

All of them quickly bowed their head and showed their respect.

‘Any spies?’

Ember questioned Amaya.

‘None.’ Amaya replied.

‘Alright.’ Ember nodded and then stepped forward.

“I have heard enough about the overall conditions, I now need to know about our soldiers, how are they doing?”

Suddenly, Deputy General Laurence stepped forward and spoke,

“It would be better if you see it for yourself, Lady Ember.”

Chapter 570

“It would be better if you see it for yourself, Lady Ember.”

Deputy General Laurence stepped forward and spoke.

“Huh? Deputy General Laurence, I did not introduce them, how did you know Lady Ember’s name?”

General Vidyut questioned.

Deputy General glanced at Vidyut and froze.

The moment his eyes fell on these 9 Ladies, the first person he noticed was this Black-Red haired.

He didn’t need anything more than a glance to identify General Ember.

Her Aura was simply impossible to follow, a mere mask couldn’t hide her.

The other Deputy Generals were the same, they all recognized General Ember.

However, the problem was that in others’ eyes, ‘General Ember’ was at worse, dead, at best, Kidnapped.

She couldn’t be here.

So he couldn’t possibly tell General Vidyut about her.

“I have met Deputy General Laurence before.”

As Laurence was placed in a difficult situation, Ember stepped up.

“Ah, so that’s it.” Vidyut nodded.

Ember nodded.

Then, she turned towards Laurence and spoke,

“I will follow your suggestion, Deputy General Laurence.

Guide me to other soldiers.”

Laurence bowed his head and agreed,

“As you command, Lady Ember.”

“I will be coming as well.” Skyla jumped in.

Thyra didn't say anything but she stepped forward, signaling that she would be there as well.

The 3 Women then turned towards Vidyut and the General questioned,

“Do I need to come with you?”

He couldn't possibly be against Ember's decision. Checking on the Soldier's conditions was a good thing.

“No need to worry, we will manage it on our own.

It is already night anyways, we will start all the operations from tomorrow, General Vidyut should rest.”

Ember then turned towards the other Assistant Generals and nodded,

“You all look tired as well, rest well, you all need to conserve your energies since our counterattack will start soon.”

“As you command, Lady Ember.”

The Assistant Generals nodded with excited looks on their faces.

Seeing 9 King Stage Cultivators today, they were all excited.

They could feel it, they would counterattack soon.

Soon, they would destroy the Solid Earth Army.

“Lady Ember, we would like to follow you as well.”

The 3 Deputy Generals stepped forward and requested.

Ember nodded.

The 7 of them then walked out of the room.

“We will be taking our leave as well.”

The General spoke.

“Rest well.”

Amaya nodded.

The General and the Assistant Generals left the room.

After they left, Amaya’s face turned serious and she spoke,

“I will contact Armando now.”

Felberta nodded.

‘Armando.’

Amaya contacted.

‘Lady Amaya.’

The General of the Enemy Camp replied respectfully.

...

“It’s been a file since I saw you fools.”

As they walked out of the room and started roaming around the city.

“Lady Ember? What are you talking about?”

Laurence frowned and laughed awkwardly.

“Don’t act like that you fool, you can trust them.” Ember quickly understood what happened and replied.

“What? Did you forget about me already?”

Thyra questioned as her blue eyes shined.

“Y-Y-You are Thyra!”

Laurence’s eyes widened in surprise.

“W-When did you become a King Stage Cultivator!?” Another Deputy General questioned.

Thyra just smiled and didn’t answer the question.

The Deputy Generals were shocked.

“Is... Is that man here as well?”

Suddenly, Laurence questioned.

The man who managed to win the Fiery Killer’s heart...

That man had left a deep impression in the Deputy Generals’ hearts.

“No, he is not here.”

Ember shook her head.

For some reason, the Deputy Generals’ sighed in relief.

“Oi, what’s with that reaction?”

Skyla couldn’t control herself and questioned with a cold look on her face.

Though since her eyes were a little bigger than normal and the rest of her face was covered, she only looked even cuter than normal.

“N-Nothing.” A Deputy General replied.

“General Ember, this Lady...” Laurence questioned.

“Skyla Leander, you can call me General Skyla.” Skyla introduced herself with a prideful look on her face.

If Ellinger or Alcimus had heard her, they would have widened their eyes in surprise.

‘She is a Leander as well! 3 King Stage Cultivators!’

That’s what their reaction would have been.

Of course, no one knew how they would react if they knew that all the 9 women they met were Leanders.

“Anyways, let’s not waste much time, Lawrence, give me a report of the current situation,” Ember ordered.

“The situation is bad.”

Lawrence spoke with a grim look on his face.

“I won’t go into detail about the overall situation, that is bad enough already, but the situation of our soldiers isn’t good either.

Their morale is at an all-time low.

When Finkelstein became the General, to improve the situation, he introduced some new rules, these rules completely ignored the soldiers’ mental fatigue and forced them to work for longer hours.

Not only that, General Finkelstein put a complete stop to the consumption of alcohol, the only thing keeping the soldiers sane.

The men with high cultivation still managed to survive, however, the weaker soldiers got weaker and weaker.

The new General, General Vidyut, he is a good General who cares about his soldiers, however, he is still lacking and is kind of a pushover.

We tried to tell him to change some rules and revert back to your rules, however, the Assistant Generals, who feared that we would try to ‘control’ the Generals resisted.”

“I can understand their position, if the General only listened to Deputy Generals without thinking much himself, then the situation would only get worse.” Ember nodded.

“That is correct, we do not blame them. The problem is General Vidyut, he is still too lacking.”

“I noticed that when I was talking to him as well. He didn’t have the Aura that you possess but I ignored it because even that General Phorus didn’t have your Aura.” Thyra spoke.

“Tsk. You think any random King Stage Cultivator would be like me?” Ember snorted.

“Of course not! General Ember is the best General in the world!” One of the Deputy General spoke with a prideful look on her face.

The other Deputy Generals nodded without any hesitation.

Ember snorted and a small smile appeared on her face.

Looking at her expression, Thyra just smiled wryly and shook her head in defeat.

As they were talking, the group noticed a few soldiers who were keeping guard while their comrades were sleeping and as soon as Ember’s eyes fell on these soldiers, her expression turned serious.

“This won’t do...”

Chapter 571

Ember looked at the soldiers' conditions and a frown appeared on her face.

“This won't do...”

She commented.

The soldiers she saw had deep dark circles under their eyes, they weren't drunk, however, their back was still hinged and their soldiers were hanging.

What was worse?

Ember recognized these soldiers.

All of them followed her commands when she was the General.

All these soldiers were once filled with valor and life. They walked with a straight back and bright looks on their faces.

Even when the situation of the War was bad, the soldiers still didn't look this down.

To be honest, their current situation was so bad that they looked no different than a malnourished commoner.

To see her soldiers looking so weak...

It was a big shock for Ember.

Of course, she had considered this possibility when she left with Nux, however, things would be this bad...

She didn't expect it.

“Is the situation the same for all the soldiers?” Ember questioned.

“More or Less.”

Deputy General Lawrence replied.

Ember then turned towards Lawrence and narrowed her eyes,

“Looking at your appearance, I didn’t expect that the situation would be so bad.”

Hearing those words, Lawrence lowered his head in shame.

“I couldn’t do anything.”

“ ... ”

Ember didn’t say anything and continued with her walk.

She met more soldiers as she walked around and just like Lawrence said, all the soldiers were in the same condition. Tired and hopeless.

Their morale was indeed at an all-time low.

After walking around for 2 hours, Ember finally decided to return to the Mansion. She ordered Lawrence and the other Deputy General to go rest while she walked into the Mansion.

“How was it?”

Amaya questioned.

“Worse than I expected.”

Ember shook her head.

Amaya glanced at Ember and questioned.

“How much time do you need?”

“Things are too deep, I will improve the situation of the soldiers considerably in a few days, but they still won’t be as good as they were in their prime,” Ember replied.

“That’s alright. We had to do it all on our own anyways, having extra hands is not a problem.” Amaya nodded.

“How was the talk with Armando?” Ember questioned.

“Hmm? You should have heard it though?” Amaya tilted her head in confusion.

When she contacted Armando, she made sure that all her sisters were able to listen and even take part in the conversation.

“My mind was preoccupied so I didn’t listen,” Ember replied.

“Alright, that’s not a problem, I was about to repeat what he said while discussing my plan anyways.

At the very least, the good news is that Alcimus won’t have to take part in the War, so things won’t get messy.”

“So Herms is...”

“Yes, he is not there. I asked where he is, but as usual, Armando didn’t know.” Amaya nodded.

“It is not exactly a good thing though, we need to know what that bastard is planning as well.” Felberta interrupted.

“Let’s just leave those things for later, just focus on the War right now.” Evane stepped in.

“Have you informed Nux?” Ember questioned.

“I have. He is a little relieved hearing that Herms is not here, but he still told us to keep our guards up.” Evane replied and Ember nodded.

“Anyways, Ember, I would like you to take the role of the General of the Army.”

“Leave that to me.” Ember nodded.

“Alright, now let’s discuss our plan.”

...

“Let’s see how long these Woods Bastards can stay behind this Wall! We will break this Wall and take over the City!”

“YEAHHH!!!”

As the sun rose, the 10,000 soldiers of Solid Earth Army rushed towards the City with high morale.

“Woods Soldiers! Let’s show these bastards that we are not weak! Defend Ravenhill with everything you have!”

“Hooooo!!”

On the other hand, the 15,000 soldiers of the Woods Army, were all deployed on the City Walls, trying their best to defend against the soldiers who were trying to break through their gates.

3000 Soldiers stood behind the Gate, ready to stop the army in case the Gate is breached, and defending the Gate, 6000 Soldiers were standing on the Walls, shooting arrows at the soldiers trying to enter the City. 3000 Soldiers were there solely for collecting more arrows while the last 3,000 stood on the wall, killing any enemy soldier who managed to climb up the Wall.

The Soldiers with higher ranks ordered the ones with a lower ranks while just the presence of General Vidyut mentally supported all the soldiers.

It was a proper system of defense where the distribution of the soldiers was good and placed less pressure on each soldier.

The 9 Women of the Skyfall Kingdom, however, didn't participate in today's war.

According to the deal, they would only take part in the battle 8 days later. Currently, they only observed.

The battle continued, since it was just the first phase where the Gates weren't breached, and no soldier lost his life.

On the Solid Earth Kingdom's side, around 500 Soldiers were injured, however, just like Woods, they didn't lose any soldiers either.

The sun set down, and the Solid Earth Kingdom retreated.

The Woods Soldiers sighed in relief.

They could finally take a rest now.

Or that's what they thought, however, 30 minutes after the war ended, the soldiers were summoned to the City Centre.

One by one, the city center started filling with soldiers, since it didn't have enough space to contain all the soldiers, some soldiers have to climb onto the roofs of the nearby houses.

All the soldiers noticed 9 masked women standing on the Stage along with General Vidyut.

The Deputy and Assistant Generals were standing below the stage.

Normal and Head Soldiers wondered who these women were, the Squad Captains, who could sense these women's cultivation, however, were tensed.

Seeing their captain act like this, the soldiers were even more curious but didn't dare to speak anything.

Suddenly, a black red hair woman with red eyes stepped forward,

“My name is Ember Leander, I came here from the Skyfall Kingdom, to help you all turn the tides and win this battle, these women here are my comrades.

All of us are King Stage Cultivators, so we are more than enough to annihilate the Solid Earth Army.”

Hearing those words, the soldiers’ eyes widened in surprise.

9 King Stage Cultivators!

This was already shocking, however,

Ember had yet to drop the main bomb,

“From this day onwards,

I will be the acting General commanding you all.

Let’s destroy the Solid Earth Army within 2 Weeks.”

Chapter 572

“From this day onwards,

I will be the acting General commanding you all.

Let’s destroy the Solid Earth Army within 2 Weeks.”

Ember dropped the bomb.

“W-What?”

“D-Did she just say 2 w-weeks?”

“Is that even possible?”

“Are you crazy? All of them are King Stage Cultivators! Adding General Vidyut, it is 10 King Stage Cultivators! There is no way those Solid Earth bastards would have the strength to go against us.”

“A war is never fought on individual strength.”

“Yeah! Just because we have 10 King Stage Cultivators doesn’t mean that we can defeat the Solid Earth Army. Don’t forget, they are twice as many soldiers as us and their average cultivation is higher as well.”

“Tsk, you are just ignorant, you don’t know how strong a King Stage Cultivator is. Just imagine, 10 Cultivators at the same level as General Vidyut, we would destroy the Solid Earth Army.”

“B-But why is a woman from the Skyfall Kingdom is allowed to be the General of our army? Don’t we have General Vidyut?”

“Shh, just look at General Vidyut, he doesn’t seem to have any objection, it must be some sort of deal between the 2 countries.”

“But the Skyfall Kingdom isn’t exactly our ally.”

“They are not the enemy either, since they sent 9 King Stage Cultivators, they are definitely our saviors, it only makes sense that one of them becomes the General.”

“But s-”

“Silence.”

While the soldiers continued to discuss with each other, a voice was heard.

The Soldiers turned towards Ember, her domineering Aura forced them to shut their mouths.

‘Hmm?’

Some of the veteran soldiers found this situation familiar, they glanced at the Black-Red haired woman again and the image coincided with another woman who had left a deep impression in their hearts.

“General Ember?”

They couldn’t help but mutter.

All these Vertrains then glanced at each other and by communicating through their expressions, they confirmed their doubts.

The soldiers narrowed their eyes,

“General Ember?”

They all started murmuring amongst themselves as well.

Seeing this scene, the Assistant Generals and General Vidyut frowned, they thought that they would see some resistance when Lady Ember would announce herself as the General but...

What’s this?

Aren't these soldiers accepting everything a little too simply?

“From now on, I will be changing a few things.”

Ember gathered everyone's attention again.

“As I said before, we will be defeating those Solid Earth Bastards within 2 weeks, however, currently, all of you are too weak.

To be honest, you don't even look like soldiers, rather, you look like beggars.”

“Huh?” The Soldiers, Assistant Generals, and even General Vidyut frowned.

Ember, however, didn't stop,

“What's with this defeated look on your faces? How dare you call yourselves soldiers when you stand with your shoulders hanging like that?

Straighten your backs.

Stand like the brave soldiers you are.”

Ember ordered.

For some reason, the soldiers' bodies moved on their own and they corrected their posture.

“Yes! That's it!

If I saw anyone of you standing like that again, I will personally kill you.”

Although Ember was cursing all the soldiers, no one said anything against these words.

This time, let alone veterans, even the normal soldiers realized.

This woman was none other than their General.

General Ember, the one who lead them and achieved what was considered impossible, she was now back!

Only the soldiers who were recruited after Ember disappeared didn't recognize her, however, seeing how their comrades were acting, they couldn't help but feel a strange excitement and energy well up in their hearts.

Seeing this scene, General Vidyut frowned.

'W-Why have I never seen that light in their eyes?'

He wondered inwardly. Then, he glanced at Ember who was standing on the stage, looking at all the soldiers with her domineering gaze and couldn't help but wonder,

'J-Just who is that woman... to be able to change the soldiers' gaze with just her words alone...'

Only one person came into his mind.

'Wait...'

Suddenly, General Vidyut's eyes widened in surprise.

'Black-red hairs... red eyes...'

No way... she can't be...'

"From now on, only 7500 Soldiers would defend the Wall! The rest of the soldiers would rest and cultivate.

For you all to look like undead, it must have been months before you last cultivated.

This won't do, my soldiers need to be strong, I do not accept the Weak."

"Huh?"

Hearing Ember's words, the General and the Assistant General frowned.

“What? How would only 7,500 soldiers defend against 10,000 soldiers?”

An Assistance General named Alam questioned.

Ember glanced at Alam and narrowed her eyes,

“Why can't they? Remember, we are currently defending our own territory, and since our walls are strong, the manpower we need is drastically reduced.

Even 3,000 soldiers would have been enough, however, currently, the soldiers are too weak so I have no choice but to use numbers.”

“No matter what, in the end, the Ravenhill is just a city, it is not a fort, how long do you think the Gate would last?”

“If the Gate falls down, do you think the soldiers would act as temporary Gate? Having more soldiers is useless.”

“And what if the Solid Earth Scouts notice that we have decreased our number and decide to use all 30,000 of their soldiers?” Alam questioned back.

“Huh? What are you talking about? We have the high ground here, if they decided to change anything, we would notice it first.

If they use all their soldiers, we just need to do that as well. It is not like I am sending the other 7,500 soldiers away, I have only ordered them to rest.”

“...” Alam turned silent.

Ember quickly understood how things got so worse, however, she decided not to comment on it.

“From now on, 5,500 soldiers would deal damage to the enemy soldiers, 1000 Soldiers would collect the arrows, 500 soldiers would fight against the enemy who managed to climb up on the walls and 500 soldiers would defend the Gate and transfer information to the Base.

Is that clear?"

"O-Only 500 to fight against the enemy who manages to climb up?" Alam questioned with a doubtful look on his face.

"Those are the enemies who have climbed up the wall, they are already a little tired, and the space there is narrow as well, using more men is just a waste."

Ember explained.

"Anyways, if any of you have any more questions, ask now."

"General Ember."

A soldier raised his hand.

...

The question-answer round started, but due to Ember's aura, not many soldiers dared to ask questions.

Night fell, and this time, the duty to keep a watch was given to General Vidut, Assistant Generals, and the Deputy Generals.

The rest of the soldiers were ordered to sleep.

The next day, Ember's orders were implemented, the battle started, however, unlike how many feared, nothing changed.

The task that was done by 15,000 soldiers was now being done with 7,500 soldiers, within just a day, Ember doubled the efficiency of the Woods Army.

The 7,500 soldiers staying behind continued resting while some started cultivating.

The next day, the soldiers were switched.

This continued and with each passing day, everyone noticed a significant change in the army.

By the end of the 4th day, the soldiers were summoned to the city center again.

Chapter 573 We Are Fucked...

By the end of the 4th day, the soldiers were summoned to the city center again.

New changes were implemented, now the 7,500 soldiers defending the Wall turned to 5000, this time, the soldiers had 2 days to rest and cultivate.

Ember planned to spend another 9 days like this, bringing soldiers to even better conditions.

Honestly, if this was a normal war, this would not have been possible because, in the end, Ravenhill was just a city, not a fort, the Gate shouldn't have been able to hold for this long, it was not the matter of the number of soldiers or anything else.

If the Solid Earth Army did their best, breaking through the doors was just a matter of 2 days.

According to Armando, they weren't ordered to defeat them as soon as possible, they were only ordered to delay it as soon as possible, kill more and more soldiers, plunder as much as they can, and push back the Woods.

Their main goal was never a victory, their main goal was harassment.

There was a limit to how much Alcimus could endure.

And they wanted to break that limit.

That was also the reason why they didn't send more King Stage Cultivators other than Armando.

Even if Alcimus does act, Armando would be the only one to die, the rest of the 6 King Stage Cultivators would still be fine.

Of course, this was what Amaya deduced, from what she knows, Armando still didn't know that he and the 3 more Generals were all sacrifices.

Actually, Amaya believed that not only these 4, but Herms wouldn't mind even if the other 3 Generals were also killed as long as he achieved his goal.

As to what his goal was, they didn't know.

They only knew that the enemy would continue to attack at the same pace, so they could relax and let their soldier regain their energy.

However, 5 days after the new change was implemented, the women received a message.

'Tomorrow, we will be attacking with 20,000 soldiers, this time, 4 King Stage Cultivators will attack together to try and break through the doors.'

Seeing that rather than putting more pressure on the Woods, they were only giving them time to rest,

The Solid Earth Army decided to attack seriously.

"Will it be fine?" Amaya questioned.

"Well, it is a little early but the soldiers have still recovered considerably. We can leave a few enemy soldiers to them." Ember replied.

"Do you have a plan?" Amaya questioned. Although she was the main strategist of the group, when it came to War, Ember was a much better candidate than her.

"Of course. All my soldiers are ready."

A wild smile then appeared on Ember's face as she continued,

"Tomorrow, the Solid Earth Army would break through the Gates and will then perish."

"What's the plan?" Thyra questioned.

Ember glanced at her, then, the map of the city appeared in her hands, she placed it on the Table and started explaining her plan.

...

The next day, as soon as the sun rose, the Solid Earth Army appeared, this time, however, their number was twice the number before.

“Send the message! The enemy forces have doubled!”

An Assistant General shouted.

“As you command!”

The messenger quickly rushed towards the base.

“Everyone! Don’t lose hope! The reinforcement will arrive soon! Continue to shoot arrows! Kill as many enemies as you can! Don’t let them climb up or break the Gate!”

Deputy General Laurence shouted.

“YEAHHHH!!”

The Woods Soldiers roared loudly.

“Hahaha!

You weaklings! You think you would have a chance to hold us back before your reinforcement arrive!? Foolish!

Solid Earth Army! Show these weaklings what we are actually made of!

Destroy them!”

“YEAAAHHHH!!!”

The Solid Earth Army roared in high morale.

*BAM*

In just the first wave of attack, a few cracks appeared on the Gate!

“Hahaha! Let’s see how long this Gate holds on for!” The Enemy General, Fredgelord, shouted.

Seeing the cracks, Laurence’s eyes widened in surprise.

“How is that possible!?”

He shouted in disbelief.

“HAHAHA!”

In answer, he only heard the enemy General’s laugh.

“Woods Soldiers!

RETREAT!”

Laurence shouted.

“W-What?”

The soldiers couldn’t believe it.

“WHAT ARE YOU DOING!?”

RETREAT!

RETURN TO THE BASE! WE CAN’T FIGHT THEM!

The Ravenhill City...

Will be breached today.”

Laurence shouted.

“HAHAHA!”

The Enemy General laughed.

The Woods Soldiers quickly stored their weapons and started running away.

With no one attacking them from above, the Solid Earth Army didn't have to worry about the defense and continued to focus on the Gate.

*BAM*

A few more cracks appeared on the Gate.

“Don't give these bastards the time to run away! Destroy the doors! Kill these weaklings as quickly as you can!”

Fredgelord ordered.

“YEAHHH!!”

*BAM*

*BAM*

*BAM*

The Solid Earth Army continued to attack the Gate, in the end, the Gate failed to hold on after being attacked like this for so long.

*BAM*

*Burst*

The doors were burst open.

Seeing this, Fredgelord's smile widened and he ordered,

“Kill all these Bastards! Don't let them regather with their Main Army! Kill them first! Then we will follow the momentum and destroy the Main Army as well!

Today is the day Ravenhill City would fall!

CHARGE!”

Armando commanded.

“YEAHHH!!!”

The 20,000 soldiers quickly rushed into the city, then under their General’s lead, they all started chasing the Woods Soldiers.

The Chase continued for a while, the Gate had given the Woods Army a 10 Minute Head start, the soldiers continued to run away, of course, the higher rank soldiers were faster, however, even the lower-ranking soldiers were still far from the Solid Earth Army.

The Solid Earth Army, however, didn’t give up and continued to chase.

30 hours later, the Solid Earth Soldiers could now see the Woods Army in their vision.

Seeing this, Fredgelord’s smile widened and he commanded,

“Kill all these bastards!!”

“YEAHHH!!!”

“Wait, who are they?” Suddenly, General Marcus narrowed his eyes as he pointed at 7 people wearing Black Purple clothes.

The other 3 Generals frowned,

“Why does it feel like they are waiting for us?” Armando couldn’t help but question.

“L-L-Look at their Cultivation!” General Marcus shouted.

“Huh? How great can it b-”

General Fredgelord was about to laugh, however,

“We are fucked...”

Chapter 574 Lt Was Not 4V8, It Was 4V9! No, Lt Was 3V9 Now!'

“Huh? How great can it b-”

General Fredgelord was about to laugh, however,

“We are fucked...”

Fredgelord couldn't help but comment.

“How do they have 7 King Stage Cultivators!”

Marcus shouted in fear.

“I heard that the Woods would be receiving help from the Skyfall Kingdom, but did the Skyfall Kingdom really send King Stage Cultivators as reinforcement?” Lexus, the fourth General questioned.

“W-We need to retreat!”

Marcus spoke.

He then quickly turned around and noticed that they were too far from the Gate.

Not only that, but the Woods Soldiers suddenly divided into two groups and started circling around them.

“Surround them all!”

Laurence shouted.

*Steps* *Steps* *Steps*

At the same time, Marcus and the other Generals heard some steps.

They turned around and saw 10,000 soldiers standing behind them, not only that, but the man who stood in front of these soldiers was also a King Stage Cultivator!

General Vidyut!

“8 King Stage Cultivators!”

“W-Where did they come from?”

Marcus questioned.

Lexus’s eyes suddenly widened,

“T-Those houses!

We completely ignored them in order to chase the soldiers.

It was a trap!”

Lexus shouted out loud.

The Generals’ faces turned solemn.

Marcus, the oldest of them all quickly calmed himself and started analyzing.

“There are 8 King Stage Cultivators in the enemy team, however, if we think about it, the enemy only has 15,000 soldiers, which is less than us, not to mention that they are weaker than our soldiers.

If we hold our own against these 8 Cultivators for a while, our soldiers would soon defeat their soldiers and we could gang up on these Cultivators.

In the end, the reinforcement from the Skyfall Kingdom would never risk their lives for the Woods and would back away.

So if w-”

*Whoosh*

*Shot*

*Bam*

*Burst*

While Marcus was analyzing the situation and trying to find a way out, Armando quickly launched into the air.

The Firecracker burst into red color, however, before it could even fade away, Armando released 2 more firecrackers into the air.

Seeing that, Marcus’s eyes widened in surprise.

“WHAT ARE YOU DOING!?”

He questioned in anger.

“Can’t you see!? I am calling for our reinforcement! Do you think we can fight against 8 King Stage Cultivators all by ourselves!?”

“But-”

“No buts! We will use all our strength, an 8v7 would a lot easier than 8v4 and with 10,000 additional soldiers, the other soldiers would have an easy time as well.”

Armando repeated.

The firecrackers he fired were an emergency signal and not the normal one, but the one that depicts the highest degree of emergency.

It was only used when an army was predicted to see a certain annihilation.

When the 3 King Stage Cultivators left on stand-by see this, they would quickly bring the rest of the men, and this time, they would not travel with the army on their mounts, rather, they would rush here with their maximum speed.

“Can’t you see!?! A certain annihilation is not guaranteed yet!” Marcus shouted.

“Don’t be ridiculous!

If you want to die, go ahead, I am not planning to do that.” Armando shouted.

“I agree with Armando.” Lexus nodded as well.

“Yes, rather than depending on these useless soldiers, I would rather go all out against these 8 Bastards!” Fredgelord laughed as well.

“...” Marcus didn’t know what to say.

However, in the end, he just sighed.

The signal was already sent.

There was no point in arguing about it.

‘Anyways, Armando would be the one taking responsibility.’

Marcus thought inwardly and shrugged.

On the other hand, the man he was thinking about was looking at the enemy King Stage Cultivator and,

‘They would be here soon, My Ladies.’

‘You did well, Armando.’ Amaya nodded.

‘I can’t believe these fools have wasted 5 minutes talking to each other. Is that really what war feels like? Why do I feel like it is a debate competition?' Allura couldn't help but commend.

'They are all fools, if we weren't waiting for those last 3 pieces of trash, we would have attacked them by now.' Ember commented.

'Yes, the more time they waste, the better.' Felberta nodded as well.

However, as if he heard what she said, Marcus shouted.

“Solid Earth Soldiers! No need to fear! The reinforcement will arrive soon! No matter how much they plan, these bastards would never best us!

Use Formation O, trust your back to your fellow soldier and hold on until the reinforcement arrives!

For the Victory!”

“FOR THE VICTORY!!!”

The Soldi Earth Soldiers quickly formed a 4 layer circle, 2 layers carried spears, and the other 2 layers carried Large Shields.

Their intentions were clear, they would act like a turtle till the reinforcement arrives.

“For the victo-!!!”

General Marcus was about to shout to raise the soldiers' morale again, but suddenly,

His eyes widened in surprise as a dagger pierced through his neck.

*Pierce*

“Akkcckk!!”

The General tried to say something but, suddenly, his vision turned upside down and he realized.

He was beheaded.

Soon, his head fell on the ground.

“Neeeeiggghhh!!”

The Horse-like-beast that he was riding on neighed as its master was killed just like that.

With whatever power he was left with, Marcus tried to see who killed him, however, with his body detached, the only thing he could still move were his eyes, which couldn't see behind him no matter how hard he tried.

The other Generals widened their eyes in shock as they noticed a masked woman, wearing purple-black clothes, similar to what other King Stage Cultivators were wearing, standing near Marcus's headless corpse with an expressionless look on her face.

Soon, the woman turned towards the other 3 Generals and questioned,

“Are you sure you should be looking at me right now?”

The Generals' eyes widened even more, their weapons quickly appeared in their hands and,

*Clank* *Clank* *Clank*

pAnD a(-)n0ve1.com They defended against the 7 Cultivators who just attacked them.

‘T-They had another King Stage Cultivator!’

The Generals couldn't help but curse inwardly.

‘It was not 4v8, it was 4v9!’

No, It was 3v9 now!’

The Generals trembled in fear as they wished for the backup to arrive as soon as possible.

Chapter 575 You Are Too Weak For That.

‘It was not 4v8, it was 4v9!

No! It’s 3v9 now!’

The Generals trembled as they continued to defend against women’s attacks.

The peculiar thing to note was that General Vidyut had still not attacked them yet. The same goes for the Woods Army, the Solid Earth Army, which had already positioned themselves according to Formation O and was carefully waiting for the Woods to attack, couldn’t help but be confused at this sight.

Seeing this sight, Fredelord couldn’t help but shout,

“Ignore these Woods Bastards! Attack these King Stage Cultivators, there is no way they would stand a chance against 20,000 soldiers even if they are King Stage Cultivators.

Once we get rid of them, dealing with the rest of the army would be a simple thing.

Attack!”

The Solid Earth Soldiers glanced at each other, then, with a nod, all of them rushed towards the 8 women and shouted,

“KILL THEM!!!”

‘Heh, took them long enough,’ Ember smiled inwardly.

‘Amaya, are you ready?’ Felberta questioned.

Amaya just smiled and as the Solid Earth Soldiers came closer,

*Whoosh*

“W-What is this?”

“T-This... this omnious Mist...”

The Devouring Mist didn't give soldiers any time to think and rushed toward them.

“I-It's eating away my M-Mana!”

“Use your Mana to push it out of your body! Don't try to restrict it, just push it out of your body!”

*Thud*

Suddenly, an Apprentice Stage Soldier fell down.

“H-He is dead!”

The soldier near him shouted.

*Thud*

Soon, however, he heard another thud.

He turned around and noticed another soldier fell down.

“H-He's dead as well!”

*Thud* *Thud* *Thud* *Thud*

“Ritin's dead as well!”

“A-Alex!”

“H-Here, he is dead as well!”

“What the hell is happening!?”

“All the Apprentice Stage Soldiers are dying! They can’t resist this any longer!”

Seeing this scene, the Generals panicked.

Lexus glanced at the women he was fighting against and his eyes then fell on Amaya.

“All Apprentice Stage Soldiers! Get out! Don’t stay near this Mist! Other Soldiers who feel they can’t continue to fight do the same as well!

As for the rest of the soldiers, attack her!

She is the one responsible for this Mist!

Get rid of her!”

Lexus ordered.

He then turned towards Armando and Fredgelord and spoke,

“You guys, we need to attack her.”

The other two Generals nodded and the 3 of them rushed toward Amaya.

*Clank*

“Heh. Did you guys really just ignore us?”

However, just as they were about to target Amaya, the other women blocked their attacks and,

*Slash*

“Agghh!”

“Don’t you dare show your back to me.”

Felberta commented as she slashed Fredgelord.

“You bitch!”

Fredgelord cursed and just as he was about to attack Felberta, she jumped back.

“You think you can run away!?”

Fredgelord shouted, however, before he could follow her, Armando shouted,

“You idiot! Stay close to her.

There are 7 of them, the Assassin is nowhere to be seen, the moment you isolate yourself, you will end up like Marcus!”

Fredgelord controlled herself.

The 3 Generals were helpless, they had to stick together, leaving their backs on the other 2, they couldn't move freely because of how fearsome their opponents were.

A single mistake and they would pay for their life.

On the other hand, Amaya continued to release the Devouring Mist, it didn't affect the Generals or the Deputy Generals of the Solid Earth Army, however, for the rest, especially Advance, Beginner, and Apprentice Stage Soldiers, this Mist was a nightmare.

Before the soldiers could properly form an escape plan, all the Apprentice Stage Soldiers had already lost their lives. Most of the Beginner Stage and around half of the Advanced Stage Cultivators were dead as well.

The Master and Grand Master Stage Cultivators didn't have any easier either. Although they could still resist better than the others, the Mist still affected them and rendered them useless in War.

They couldn't end the Zone where Amaya could attack them at all!

100 meter around Amaya was simply a death zone for all these soldiers.

That was just how scary the Devouring Mist was.

The only ones who were of any help to the Generals were the 20 Expert Stage Cultivators or the Deputy Generals that weren't affected by the Mist at all.

However, these 20 Expert Stage Soldiers had another problem to deal with.

Thyra.

That woman was slaughtering them as if they were nothing more than pigs.

She was fast, these soldiers couldn't react to her speed at all.

What was worse?

Thyra wasn't alone.

There was someone else, they didn't know who, but another person was shooting arrows at them as well.

Her arrows seemed endless and surprisingly, these Arrows were sharp enough to pierce through their Armors.

These 2 people alone had the Expert Stage Soldiers tied up and 7 of them had already died.

The Solid Earth Army was in a critical position.

“Agghhh!!”

“Ugghh!”

“N-No!”

“W-Wher-Ahggghh!”

Suddenly, everyone's attention turned toward the Woods Soldiers who were being slaughtered.

Seeing that, the Solid Earth Generals smiled,

The reinforcements were here.

“Don't waste your time with small fries! Come here!” Armando shouted.

The 3 new Generals ignored the soldiers around them and rushed toward the center of the battlefield.

Surprisingly enough, the other soldiers didn't show any resistance either, rather, they just made a way for these new Generals and let them go.

“Hahahah! Finally! Finally we can fight without holding back!” Fredgelord laughed as he glared at Felberta, who had injured him.

The other Generals smiled as well.

Armando was the same.

However, the Generals didn't know that rather than them, the ones who were actually happy were the women who they were fighting against.

‘They are finally here.’ Ember spoke. Her smile then widened as she ordered.

‘Girls, We don't have to hold back anymore.

Destroy them.’

The order was passed and suddenly,

*Clank*

Felberta appeared in front of Fredgelord and attacked,

The man defended the attack,

“You finally decided to attack, heh. Let’s start fighting for real now!”

Fredgelord laughed.

“You are too weak for that.”

Felberta smiled, then she increased her strength and started pushing Fredgelord back.

FRedgelord’s eyes widened in surprise, he didn’t know how this woman’s strenght suddenly increased,

“And foolish too.”

Felberta commented and,

*Slash*

Thyra appeared and beheaded Fredgelord.

Chapter 576 Who Should We Kill?

*Slash*

Thyra appeared and beheaded Fredgelord.

“Huh?”

Fredgelord’s world turned upside down.

He didn’t realize what happened, the two women, however, didn’t care and quickly jumped back.

‘He was quite annoying, it was hurting my ears.’ Allura commented.

‘I didn’t like the way he was looking at me.’ Felberta spoke.

‘I can understand, ugly faces combined with shitty personality can be a bit annoying.’ Allura nodded in agreement.

As the women continued to chat, the Enemy Generals widened their eyes in surprise.

‘Alright girl, stop chit chatting, I told you right, no holding back.’

Ember spoke and then, she rushed towards the Generals.

The other women followed her as well.

This time, Thyra didn’t use [Conceal], according to Nux’s condition, she needed to leave at least 15 minutes of [Conceal] for emergency situations.

She couldn’t use everything here.

“T-There attack pattern change!”

Lexus quickly recognized.

“It doesn’t matter! When would the soldiers arrive?” Armando questioned.

“It would still take 15 minutes.

“We need to hold on till the soldiers arrive, our soldiers here cannot come through because of this Mist. We have already lost around 12,000 soldiers.”

“Should we retreat?” Lexus proposed.

Other Generals flinched.

It was a good decision.

An 8v5 was difficult, not to mention General Vidyut and the Archer still hadn’t shown themselves.

Retreat was a good option, it might even be their only option.

“Do you think those soldiers standing there are just for decoration? There are only standing to stop us from retreating. We cannot retreat.”

Armando pointed out.

“Huh? What can these soldiers do if 5 of us charge through, I am sure we would pave out the way.” Another General spoke.

“That’s why that Vidyut Bastard has not attacked us and is just standing there, he would hold all of us back, even if he held for 2-3 seconds, it would be enough for these 8 women to arrive and with are back exposed, we would all die.”

“Then are we supposed to just sit back and wait for our death!?” Another General questioned.

“Of course not you idiot! That’s why said hold on for the reinforcement, once they arrive, they would break through this formations, then all of us will charge forward and retreat.” Armando replied.

“T-Then what about the soldier?” Another General questioned.

He was the Sect Leader of the Eternal Dragon Sect, his Sect Members, his son included were part of the reinforcement army.

Hearing his question, Armando's face turned solemn and he replied,

“Their survival would depend on their luck and wits.”

The other Generals turned silent as well.

“We cannot announce what we are planning, we would act like we are trying to go all out and would then retreat, the soldiers who can use their wits to understand our actual plans and are lucky enough would make out, as for the rest...

They would need to sacrifice themselves...”

“I agree with Armando's plan.”

Lexus spoke with a solemn look on his face.

He continued to defend against the women's attack and explained,

“There are only two ways to react in this situation,

First, you kill the woman responsible for the Mist, however, this is simply impossible, as you can notice, these women aren't going all out. Although they are attacking, they are still doing it passively, I believe that's because they intend to protect that woman.

The archer is the same, he would only attack us sometimes, however, if you aim for that woman, he would shoot for sure.

This is a combined tactic that cannot be beaten, especially when we are so unprepared.

Therefore, the only option we are left with is retreating.”

“ ... ”

The other generals turned silent.

“I agree to follow this plan as well.”

One General spoke.

“I agree as well.”

Another General spoke, the last General then nodded as well.

He could only hope that his son makes it out.

The Generals decided.

On the other hand, the women continued to attack them, however, Edda couldn't help but question,

‘Are all of them fools? Why are they discussing their plans in front of us?’

The other women nodded.

‘It is not their fault.’ Amaya spoke.

‘The one leading the conversation, Armando, is speaking out loud, they are following his influence as well, thinking that we cannot hear them.’ She explained.

‘Indeed, in critical situations, your mind does not work properly and you tend to follow the one who is taking responsibility.’ Ember nodded as well.

‘Not that they know that the one taking ‘responsibility’ on their side was never on their side.’ Allora chuckled.

The other women smiled as well.

‘And here I thought that only Amaya and that mother of hers were monsters.’ Edda spoke as she glanced at Ember.

Ember just smiled,

‘Heh, when it comes to warfare, I am pretty decent as well.’

Edda and the others rolled their eyes.

Even Amaya was impressed and if Amaya was impressed by your planning, then well, you were a monster as well.

‘Anyways, should we kill another one?’ Suddenly, Thyra questioned.

‘Hmmm, the reinforcement will arrive in around 10 minutes, how many did we have to keep alive again?’ Allura questioned.

‘Three, including Armando.’ Ember replied.

‘Alright, so we kill one now, and another one 5 minutes later.’ Felberta spoke.

‘Who should we kill?’ Allura wondered.

‘Hmmm, should we choose the ugliest one?’ Edda proposed.

‘Leave them, their life is sorry enough already.’ Felberta commented.

‘That Brown-haired one! I chose him! Sister Thyra has been taking away all of them, that’s cheating!’

And I will be the one attack now!’ Skyla jumped in as well.

‘Alright.’ Thyra sighed and backed off.

‘I’ll start.’ Edda spoke and rushed towards the ‘Brown Haired one’, the man defended, Skyla, who had already activated [Conceal] rushed in and beheaded the man.

It was just that simple.

To be honest, these women could kill all these Generals in a matter of 10 minutes, the only reason they didn’t do it was because, well,

It wasn't included in the plan.

They had different plans in their mind.

The 'Battle' continued, 5 minutes later, another General was killed.

Things got difficult for the Solid Earth Generals and just as another one of them was about to be killed,

The reinforcement arrived.

The 10,000 soldiers rushed in and started attacking,

The Generals waited for a while and as soon as their soldiers cleared through and rushed in,

“RETREAT!”

Armando shouted.

Chapter 577 Nux'S Shadow.

The day before Nux and his wives participated in the War,

“Hmm? We are going to let the few of them retreat? I don't understand? Why do we have to do that?”

Evane questioned with a confused look on her face.

Ember then glanced at Amaya and sighed, “Ask her not me, I am only planning to achieve the result she desires.”

Everyone turned towards Amaya.

“It's simple really.”

Amaya started explaining,

“First of all, it is stupid to Kill Armando, who is our informant.”

“That's true.” Felberta agreed.

Amaya nodded and then continued,

“The second reason is more of an insurance move.

If we completely wipe out the enemy, then there is a chance that Herms might use this chance to counter and say Alcimus participated in this battle.

I do not know what he is planning, however, his plan seems to involve Alcimus participating in this War.

There is no reason for us to give him what he wants therefore, to prevent him from forging a story like that, we will keep a few of them alive.”

Amaya explained.

“I don’t get it.” Evane frowned.

“If he wants to claim that Alcimus participated, he could simply force his soldiers to clai- ah, I apologize, we have Armando who can go against this, I forgot about it.” Evane realized and turned silent.

“No wait, Armando’s presence doesn’t insure everything, if he wants, Herms could simply kill all soldiers who returned to the base and claim Alcimus’s participation in the war,” Allura spoke.

Hearing that, Ember’s smile widened, “Well, I have planned that already, even if they leave the city, we would still send Vidyut and some soldiers to follow them and I will also command Armando to enter the Solid Earth Kingdom.

Once he reaches a city, he and his soldiers would rest and start talking about how the Skyfall Kingdom participated with so many King Stage Cultivators and how it was an unfair fight.”

“Ahh, so the soldiers will complain about unfairness while in truth, you want them to spread what happened so that Herms would fail to use this opportunity,” Felberta spoke.

“Indeed.” Ember nodded.

“Heh, that’s a good plan.” Felberta nodded with a slight laugh.

“Of course.” Ember nodded back.

Then, she turned towards Lane and questioned,

“But are you sure you want to stay out of this and not fight them directly? I know your main weapon is not a bow and arrow, I don’t know why you insist on using it.”

“I am fine with bow and arrow,” Lane replied.

Seeing her acting like that, Skyla narrowed her eyes,

“Sister Lane.” She called out.

“What?” Lane tilted her head in confusion.

“You are hiding something from us.”

As someone who stayed with Lane practically her entire life, Skylia could guess it within seconds.

“I am not.” Lane closed her eyes.

“Don’t lie to me, you close your eyes when you lie,” Skylia spoke.

Then, she walked towards Lane and questioned,

“Sister Lane, what are you hiding?”

Lane was forced to open her eyes and seeing that Skylia had already caught her, she sighed,

“Nux told me to keep an eye on you all...”

“Huh?” Amaya frowned.

“Explain,” Ember spoke as well.

“H-He was worried that Herms might appear on the battlefield, and since he is an emperor, there is a chance that we do not get the time to report him.

So he requested me to stay behind and act like his shadow to inform him the moment things go out of his hands.”

“Nux’s Shadow...” Felberta muttered to herself.

“Why didn’t he ask me to be his shadow? I would have been more than happy to do it.” Amaya was a step bolder and spoke her thoughts out loud.

“That’s because...” Lane spoke but then turned silent.

The women turned towards him and narrowed their eyes.

They needed answers.

A small smile then appeared on Lane's face as she replied,

“That's because I am special and he trusts me more than anyone else.”

Lane dropped a bomb.

“Tsk, stop daydreaming.” Amaya was the first one to counter.

“It is clear who is daydreaming here.”

Lane was unusually aggressive.

“...”

The women didn't have any answers so they were forced to turn silent.

“Nux's shadow...

I am more suited to be his shadow...” Thyra spoke to herself.

She then glanced at Lane, who was just smiling to herself, and narrowed her eyes.

Lane may fade out when all of them are together because she doesn't speak too much, however, after she and Skyla...

She was the best assassin in this group.

Yes, even better than Ember.

It was surprising but both these sisters were monsters, to the point that Thyra even wondered how Felberta's father trained these two.

“Alright, let's stop talking about all this.” Suddenly, Ember spoke up.

“Yes, we would talk to Nux later about why he chose her rather than choosing me,” Amaya spoke.

“I told you the reason already.” Lane didn’t back of either.

“Oi, ask him later, be serious for now.” Ember’s tone was stricter this time.

The women turned silent and Ember continued to explain her plan.

...

“RETREAT!”

Armando commanded.

He and the other 2 Generals quickly turned around, seeing this the Expert Stage Cultivators, who were still fighting against Nux’s women frowned, however, the sharper one started following the Generals.

The soldiers were confused as well, however, seeing their Generals and Deputy Generals running away, they all retreated as well.

“Don’t let them run away!

KILL THEM!”

Ember commanded.

The Woods Soldiers, who had surrounded all these soldiers strengthen their defenses and started killing as many soldiers as they could.

However, even with all that, the Soldi Earth Soldiers, under their Generals’ command succeeded in breaking through the already weakened defense line and escaped.

“Vidyut! Chase them!”

“As you command, General Ember!”

Vidyut shouted and,

“Soldiers! Follow me!

Today is the day we wipe all these bastards down!”

“YEAAHHH!!”

The Woods Soldiers were burning with spirit as well.

Just like that the long-lasting War finally ended, and the Solid Earth Soldiers retreated back to the Kingdom.

From the Solid Earth Villages, to towns and then cities, news about how the Skyfall Kingdom helped the Woods Dynasty spread like wildfire.

The Woods were finally free and could focus on recuperating. After raiding the base that the Solid Earth Soldiers, they found quite a lot of gold coins and other things the Solid Earth Soldiers plundered.

Of course, it wasn't all, however, it was still enough to get them started.

Chapter 578 Flag

“The Reinforcements from the Skyfall Kingdom are coming!”

In the Woods Dynasty’s Hall, a huge shout was heard.

All the Ministers, and even Dynast Ellinger stood up to show their respect.

Nux’s women walked into the Hall,

*Clap* *Clap* *Clap*

Under the claps, these masked women walked on the floor that was decorated with flower petals.

“I cannot describe how thankful I am to you all.” The Dynast, Ellinger Woods spoke with a respectful look on his face.

“It was all part of the deal, Dynast Ellinger, you don’t have to be thankful.”

Amaya spoke with a small smile on her face.

“You Ladies saved my Dynasty, Lady Amaya, there is no way I cannot be thankful, even if it was a part of the deal.” Ellinger smiled.

“We only hope that Dynast Ellinger would keep up their part of the deal.”

“Hahaha~ Of course, Of course, I will, not only that, I have already prepared the Search Team you requested, if the Skyfall Kingdom is prepared, we can even leave today instead of waiting for the weak.”

“Then let’s do that.”

“Hmm?”

“The Skyfall Kingdom is prepared,” Amaya replied.

“Are you sure?” Ellinger tilted his head in confusion.

Amaya had been staying in the Woods Dynasty for the past few days and from what he knew, she didn't have any contact with the Skyfall Kingdom.

So for her to know if the Skyfall Kingdom is prepared or not...

“You do not have to worry, Dynast Ellinger.

We are prepared.” Amaya assured.

“T-Then when do we leave?” Ellinger questioned.

“As written in the deal, the two teams will meet in the Bringer Village in the Woods Dynasty. So if they leave today, they would reach there in two days.”

“But how would the Skyfall Kingdom know when to send their search team?” Ellinger couldn't help but question.

“As I said, Dynast Ellinger, we have our ways.

Please order your search team to move as soon as they can.”

“As you wish, Lady Amaya.” Ellinger smiled.

He then nodded at a servant, the servant nodded back and left.

Ellinger then turned towards Amaya and proposed,

“Lady Amaya, our Dynasty has arranged a big feast to celebrate our victory over those Solid Earth Bastards, I would like to invite you all, the Heroines of the War to celebrate with us. It would be an honor if you join us.”

“We would love to join you, Dynast Ellinger, however, we have already been away from our Kingdom for quite a while now,

Our husband must be waiting.

So we must leave.”

‘H-Husband?’

Hearing that word, Ellinger couldn’t help but frown. The other ministers had the same reactions as him.

‘Did she just say husband? As in single husband?’

They questioned inwardly, then, all of them shook their heads,

‘No no no, I must be overthinking, she must have meant husbands with an ‘s’, there is no way a single man could marry all of them.’

“I-It would have been great if we could celebrate with you, however, since you are in a hurry, we will not stop you.” Ellinger smiled.

“We thank you for your understanding.” Amaya smiled. She and the others then turned around and walked out of the Palace.

“Lady Amaya, shall I prepare your Carriage?” A servant questioned.

“Don’t bother,” Ember spoke up.

“Heh, are we having a race?” Skyla questioned with a playful look on her face.

“Alright, turns will be decided by our ranks.”

Saying that, Edda ran away.

“That bitch!”

Thyra cursed and ran away as well.

Others followed them as well.

The servant who asked the question about the carriage blinked.

‘J-Just what d-did I see?’

He didn’t have a clue himself.

...

2 days later, the Woods Search Party, which was led by Vidyut reached the Bringer Village.

The Bringer Village was a small village on the outskirts of the Woods Dynasty, it was a village that was closest to the Skyfall Kingdom and the Bloodhill Wilderness.

Inside the village, Vidyut and another King Stage Cultivator soon met a man who walked towards them,

“Are you the Woods Dynasty’s Search party?” The man questioned.

“Are you from the Skyfall Kingdom?” Vidyut questioned.

The man nodded, “That is correct, my name is Fras William. The Leader of the Skyfall Search Party.”

“Nice to meet you, my name is Vidyut.” Vidyut shook hands.

“When do we leave?”

The other King Stage Cultivator from the Woods Dynasty questioned.

“They ordered me to leave as soon as you people arrive, of course, if you want to rest, then we can wait.

I was ordered to allow you to be the leader since you two are stronger.”

Fras spoke.

Hearing his words, the King Stage Cultivator of the Woods Dynasty smiled proudly,

“That is good.

Alright then, we do not need any rest as well.

Call your men, we will leave right now.”

“As you command.”

Fras left and soon returned with the rest of the Search Party.

The combined search party then walked into the Bloodhill Wilderness.

With the Party’s strength of 2 King Stage Cultivators 3 Expert Stage Cultivators, 40 Grand Masters, and 60 Masters, the Outer Area of the Bloodhill Wilderness, where the strongest Beast was only a 3 Star Beast, which was equivalent to Master Stage Cultivator, was a breeze.

Within just 1 day, they passed through the Outer Area and the main force didn’t even have to move.

Even the Inner Area was similar as well. The beasts there were only around 3-5 Star Beasts, although their number was unusually high, this monstrous party of 105 Cultivators was even scarier.

This time, however, the Master Stage Cultivators alone weren’t enough and the Grand Master Stage Cultivators had to join in.

It took longer than planned, however, 2 days later, they managed to pass through the inner area and the search party finally entered the Forbidden Area without any losses.

“This might be easier than I thought.”

A man that was in the search party spoke.

Yes, he raised a flag.

Chapter 579 The Search Team Was Wiped Out.

Inside a lavish room, a figure was sitting on a bed in a lotus position, Black Mist surrounded the figure's body, whether it was Male or Female couldn't be confirmed because barely anything was visible due to the Mist.

Suddenly, Mist started fading away and a man with Black hair and a handsome face was revealed, slowly, the man opened his eyes, his Golden eyes showed calmness.

*Clap* *Clap*

The man clapped two times.

A servant walked into the room and bowed,

“Lord Nux.”

“Call Lady Astaria.”

Nux ordered.

The servant bowed his head and,

“As you command,”

Saying those words, he walked away.

‘To think someone in the Royal Palace would dare to call Lady Astaria instead of going to her... other than him, I don't think I would ever find someone crazy enough.’

The servant was one of the few people who despite not being powerful enough, knew what kind of existence Astaria was.

As someone who had devoted his entire life to the Skyfall Palace, without any lover or children, he was one of the few who knew about the 'Kingdon's protector' and was one of the servants to tended to Lady Astaria's needs.

And seeing someone like Nux, who had appeared out of nowhere, calling Lady Astaria like this...

The servant couldn't help but be shocked.

'Anyways, it is not something I should bother with.'

Suddenly, the servant shook his head and started walking.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

He knocked on the door of Astaria's room.

"Enter."

Hearing the order, he walked in and bowed,

"Lady Astaria, Lord Nux is calling for you."

Hearing those words, Astaria narrowed her. The servant flinched in fear. Suddenly, a scary smile appeared on Astaria's face,

"Heh, that bastard's guts are growing huh."

Even though she was complaining, Astaria still stood up and,

"You can leave, I will be there soon."

"A-As you command, Lady Astaria."

The servant bowed and quickly walked away.

Astaria's face then turned serious and she walked out of her room and walked towards Nux's room.

Of course, she was not petty enough to punish Nux just because he summoned her instead of coming to her room, however, she was still going to give him an earful, with her status, him calling her like that would leave a wrong message.

Especially when even Evane, the Queen of the Skyfall Kingdom would always come to her instead of summoning her.

She might not care about these useless things, but others did and it had a great impact on the Palace's atmosphere.

With that thought in her mind, Astaria walked into Nux's room without knocking, and then as soon as she entered, she narrowed her eyes,

“Oh? It seems everyone is gathered here.”

“Lady Astaria, please have a seat,” Nux spoke with a small smile on his face.

Astaria frowned, Nux was acting a bit unusual.

“What happened?” She questioned.

“The Search Team was wiped out,” Nux revealed.

“Huh?” Astaria's expression changed.

She then turned towards all the women inside the room and seeing that there was no change in their expressions, she realized that every one of them knew about it already.

“How did you know? Is it that strange telepathy magic of yours?”

Astaria questioned.

Nux nodded in agreement.

The Search Party that the Skyfall Kingdom sent into the Wilderness, all of them were the Spies that Nux and his wives had captured.

All of them had Slave Seal implanted in them therefore, all of them could talk to Nux and give him real-time updates about the situation.

Astaria's face turned solemn, "It happened earlier than I predicted."

She then glanced at Nux and questioned, "Did you find anything?"

"I did." Nux nodded.

"It was as we predicted.

The Mythical Creature is dead."

Nux revealed.

"Then who killed the Search Party?"

"Herms Lizander."

"Did they manage to enter the Forbidden Area?"

"Yes, they did."

"..."

The room turned silent.

"So everything is finally clear now," Astaria commented after a while.

She didn't need to ask much.

Herms killed the Search Party that they sent to the Forbidden Area, this indication was clear enough.

"Indeed." Nux nodded.

"So what are we going to do now?" Felberta questioned.

“Well, Herms killed our Search Party, so he must be thinking that we still think that the Mythical Creature is alive. That is our advantage.”

“We now know why the Solid Earth Kingdom was acting strangely, with the Mythical Creature gone, there is no one to keep an eye on the Kingdoms and the Emperors. Now anyone can kill anyone and now there is even a possibility to unify the continent under one big Empire.

The Peace Treaty, which has been holding up and ensuring the Peace of our Continent,

It is now gone.”

Nux and his wives felt goosebumps all over their bodies as they heard those words.

“Can we safely assume that Herms wishes to unite the continent under his name?” Evane questioned.

“He might be trying that, however, I doubt that the Solid Earth Kingdom has the power to do that. I don’t think he would waste so much time in something so pointless knowing that he would fail.” Astaria replied.

“What if he is positive that he will not fail?” Amaya questioned.

“What do you mean?” Astaria turned towards Amaya and narrowed her eyes.

“We all know why Solid Earth Kingdom waged war against the Woods Dynasty, he wanted Alcimus to lose patience and involve himself in the war.

He would then use the Treaty as an excuse and would try to unite all the Emperors to kill Alcimus.

As we know, Amletus is already on his side, pressuring you wouldn’t be difficult either.

Against 3 Emperors, Alcius would definitely lose, once that happens, only you will be left.

Amletus and Herms would then team up and go against you.

In the end, you are also an Emperor just like them, no matter how strong you are, fighting against 2 Emperors would be simply impossible for you.

Once you are defeated, only those 2 are left, they can simply divide the continent into 2 and rule.”

Amaya spoke.

“That is quite plausible.”

Nux nodded in agreement.

“Let’s say that Herms was planning something like that.”

Astaria agreed and then questioned,

“What step should we take now?”

“I have a plan.” Amaya nodded.

“Amay-.” Nux spoke up but before he could complete, Amaya interrupted.

“You agreed to it already. Don’t go back on your words.”

Nux sighed.

Chapter 580 He Would Not Fall For This Bitch'S Tricks Again.

“WHAT!?”

Eardwolf shouted as he widened his surprise.

“Are you serious?” He questioned.

“Do you think I would lie about such a serious matter?” Riona questioned back.

Eardwolf narrowed his eyes.

He then glanced at Riona again.

This woman might be beautiful, however, those eyes of hers were... scary.

Whatever was going on inside her mind, he didn't know and after the recent events, he was not even warier of her.

“Why are you telling me about this then?”

He couldn't help but question.

“I want you to report this to Lord Amletus,” Riona replied with a small smile on her face.

Seeing that smile, Eardwolf was now even more alert.

“Why aren't you doing it yourself, it is something that would change the entire Skadi Kingdom as a whole. If you report it to father, he would definitely see you in a new light and might even break the tradition in order to make you the Queen.

Why aren't you doing it then?"

He questioned.

"I felt guilty about what happened last time, therefore, I wanted to pass this opportunity to you.

Look, I only want what's good for the Kingdom,

Whether you lead it, or I do, it doesn't matter."

Riona replied with a saintly smile on her face.

"..."

Eardwolf turned silent and started considering Riona's option.

Soon, however, he shook his head and,

"No! No, I do not want any favor from you. I have grown enough to realize any 'opportunity' you pass to me is always coated with poison, I am not foolish enough to get fooled by a similar trick again.

If you think it is something good, then report it to father yourself, whether he makes you the queen or not, I don't care."

Eardwolf had made up his mind.

He would not fall for this bitch's tricks again.

Seeing him acting like that, Riona just smiled.

"Alright then, I will be taking my leave then. I guess I would deliver the good news to him myself."

Saying those words, Riona turned around.

Then, with a smile on her face, she spoke,

‘I won the bet.’

‘Tsk. Whatever.

It was an unfair bet to begin with.’

‘Just don’t go back on your words.’

‘...’

Riona didn’t hear a reply but with the same smile on her face, she continued walking and then appeared in front of a door.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

She knocked.

“Enter.”

Riona walked in.

“What is it?”

Amletus questioned.

“You look annoyed,” Riona spoke.

“That is why you should say what you want to say and get the hell out.”

Amletus replied with a frustrated look on his face.

The Aura he released overwhelmed Riona, however, she did her best to keep her sanity and replied,

“I-I am sure your mood will change when you hear what I have to say.”

Suddenly, the aura that Amletus was releasing disappeared and he questioned,

“Speak.”

“We found the Cure to the Curse.”

Riona revealed with a smile on her face.

“What are you talking about? What Curse?”

“The Devouring Mist Physique.”

Riona said the words and Amletus’s expression changed.

“...are you serious?”

He questioned.

With how he reacted, it was clear that this was something very important to him.

“I am,” Riona replied and without wasting any time, she started explaining,

“As you know, my daughter, Amaya Skadi was born with Devouring Mist Physique, finding her useless, we sent her to the Skyfall Kingdom.”

“Continue.”

Amletus was clearly interested.

“That girl did not give up, she founded something called Thousand Information Chamber that dealt with information and after so many years, she finally found the technique to cultivate the Physique.”

“Are you serious?” Amletus’s expression changed.

“She is currently a King Stage Cultivator.”

Riona revealed and Amletus’s eyes widened in shock.

“Where is she!?” he questioned.

This time, his tone was more hurried.

He was clearly losing his self-control.

This was very important for the Skadi Family, it was something that would push the Skadi Kingdom to new heights and might even make them the Strongest Kingdom with undisputed power in a few centuries.

And if all of this starts in his era, then his name would be written with golden ink in the Ska- no, the World's history.

Seeing his reaction, Riona smiled.

This was the reaction she wanted to see.

Seeing that everything was coming together, Riona dropped the bomb,

“She is here in the Palace, I knew you would want to meet her when you learn about her so I called her here beforehand.

Should I call her?”

“Call her.” Amletus didn't waste a single second and spoke.

Even though he was trying his best, he still failed to hold back the smile that had appeared on his face.

“As you command, Lord Amletus,” Riona spoke.

*Clap* *Clap*

She clapped twice, the door of the room opened and a woman walked in.

Seeing the woman, Amletus's expression changed.

A spitting image of Riona was standing in front of him.

“Greetings, Lord Amletus.”

Amaya greeted with a small smile on her face.

“Hahaha~ What do you mean Lord Amletus? You are my Granddaughter, you can call me Grandpa.

You are a spitting image of your mother.

Hahaha~ Thank god you did not inherit your father’s looks.” Amletus laughed out loud.

Amaya just smiled as she glanced at this ‘Grandfather’ of hers.

Riona had a similar expression on her face.

“I shall call you Grandpa then,” Amaya replied.

“Hahaha~ Of course Of course.” Amletus laughed out loud.

Leaving the technique to cultivate the physique aside, Amaya’s cultivation alone was enough for him to nurture her.

A King Stage Cultivator. Amletus knew that this girl was not more than 50 years old, for someone like her to be a King Stage Cultivator.

It was a never seen before talent.

Of course, this didn’t mean that he didn’t care about the technique.

If he could get both, a genius and the technique, he would obviously not deny it.

“Did you really find a way to cultivate your physique?”

He questioned.

Instead of answering, Amaya raised her hand, Dark Mist came out of her hand, and seeing the mist,

Ameltus’s eyes shined.

Chapter 581 You Two Are In This Together, Aren'T You?

“T-T-This is the Devouring Mist!”

Amletus couldn't control himself and shouted out loud.

Seeing his reaction, Amaya just smiled and continued to observe him.

With a glint in his eyes, Amletus glanced at Amaya and spoke,

“You really did manage to find a way to cultivate your Physique and even became a King Stage Cultivator, that's a big achievement.”

“Thank you, Grandpa.”

“So? Where is the Technique?”

Amletus couldn't control himself and questioned.

“Grandpa.” Amaya called out.

“Yes?”

“Now that we finally attained the way to cultivate our physique, this would definitely increase our Kingdom's strength, right?”

Amaya questioned.

“Hahaha~ Of course! Of course, it will! And it will all be because of you. Hahaha~ I have an amazing Granddaughter.”

Amletus laughed out loud.

“Do you think we would become the Strongest Kingdom in the world?”

Do you think we would have the power to unify the continent under our banner?"

Amaya questioned.

"Huh?"

Amletus frowned.

He glanced at Amaya and seeing her looking at him with an excited smile on her face, he didn't know how to react,

"Becoming the strongest huh..."

He muttered.

"Hmm? Grandpa?" Amaya frowned.

"Hmm?"

"Why does it look like you do not think that we can become the strongest?" Amaya questioned.

"It is not like that."

Amletus shook his head.

"What is it then?" Amaya questioned.

"We cannot unite the other Kingdoms under our banner," Amletus replied.

Hearing his answer, Amaya frowned.

"Why?" She questioned.

"Our ancestor didn't wish for it. He told us not to unite the continent." Amletus replied.

“But if we are stronger than all the Kingdoms, isn't it natural that we should hold the absolute power?” Amaya questioned.

“We do not hold absolute power, Amaya.”

“What does that mean? Who holds it then? Is it the Skyfall Kingdom?”

“Heh. Those Idiots? They aren't even close to that level.” Amletus snorted.

“Then who is it?” Amaya questioned.

Amletus glanced at Amaya again and frowned,

“Why are you asking all this?”

“I want us to be the best after all, and if I don't even know who is currently the best, how will I set a goal for myself?” Amaya replied.

“...”

Amletus turned silent.

After thinking for a while, he spoke,

“You know about the Forbidden Region?”

“Huh?” Amaya frowned.

Amletus then told her about the Mythical Creature and hearing that, Amaya frowned.

‘Is he not involved in Herms's plot?’ Amaya questioned inwardly.

However, soon, she shook her head,

‘That is not possible. There must be something else.’

“So you are saying that we cannot unite the continent because the Mythical Creature might Kill all the Emperors if we attempt it?” Amaya questioned.

“Yes, that is correct.” Amletus nodded.

“Then why is the Solid Earth Kingdom attacking Woods Dynasty then?” Amaya questioned.

Amletus narrowed his eyes.

Amaya, however, didn't back down and continued to question,

“If the Emperors are not going to be involved, then why even fight? It is not like anything could be done without defeating the strongest person in the Dynasty.”

“I don't know what he is thinking,” Amletus replied.

“And you haven't tried to look into it?” Amaya questioned.

“As I said, I, as an Emperor Stage Cultivator, cannot involve myself with these affairs.”

“It is not like I am telling you to attack them or anything, I am just asking why you haven't investigated it?” Amaya spoke.

“...” Amletus didn't know how to answer that question.

He glanced at Riona and noticed that she had a strange look on her face as well.

It was as if she was confused about something.

He understood what she was thinking.

She has been telling him that Solid Earth Kingdom has been acting weirdly for a while now, however, he always told her not to involve herself with it, however, now that Amaya is asking all these questions, his actions definitely look suspicious.

Riona suddenly glanced at Amletus and seeing her expression, Amletus realized that he was right.

Riona was indeed thinking that his actions were suspicious.

“Amaya,” Amletus called out.

“Yes, Grandfather?” Amaya tilted her head innocently.

“As I said, due to the Mythical Creature, we cannot do anything, therefore, looking out for other Kingdoms is simply a waste of time. That is the reason why I am not doing anything.”

Amletus spoke. This time, his tone was stricter than before.

“The Solid Earth Army has been defeated.”

Suddenly, Amaya spoke up.

Amletus narrowed his eyes and Amaya continued,

“The Skyfall Kingdom helped the Woods Dynasty and the Solid Earth Army suffered huge losses. 4 out of 7 of their Generals have died.”

“Why are you telling me all this?” Amletus questioned.

“I am just confused. Why did the Skyfall Kingdom help the Woods Dynasty? They could simply let them fight and then reap rewards later, then why bother? What do they get in return?” Amaya spoke up.

“Amaya.” Amletus called.

“Hmm?” A frown appeared on Amaya’s face.

The atmosphere inside the room had changed.

Right now, Amletus was not looking at her with that amiable smile on his face, his expression was rather dark.

“You were married to Ricardus, the King of the Skyfall Kingdom, correct?”

“Yes, that is correct.”

“From what I know, the Skyfall Kingdom is under a strict lockdown where no one is allowed to leave or enter the Kingdom,

Then how did you come here?”

“I am a King Stage Cultivator, Grandpa.” Amaya replied.

“That you are, however, at the same time, you are also a Royal Consort, there is no way you can simply sneak out of the Palace.” Amletus narrowed his eyes.

“Not only that, but you are now a King Stage Cultivator, a young King Stage Cultivator coming back to the Kingdom that abandoned her,

Something doesn’t add up.”

Amletus then glanced at Riona to ask for her view, however, suddenly, another possibility entered his mind.

His expression changed.

The more he thought about this possibility, the higher the probability of it being the truth got.

Amletus finally realized.

He was being treated like a fool.

“You two are in this together, aren’t you?”

He questioned and Amaya’s expression changed.

Chapter 582 Meh, It Was Nothing.

“You two are in this together, aren’t you?”

Amletus questioned and Amaya’s expression changed.

Riona stepped back a little, she was just a moment away from taking out her weapon. Of course, she knew she wouldn’t be able to do anything against Amletus, however, she could at least attack Amletus till the point Amaya has time to escape.

“Heh, did you really think I was someone like Eardwolf?” Amletus questioned with a laugh. However, his expression was anything but funny.

Riona was now even tenser.

“Haahh...”

Amaya, on the other hand, sighed.

It looked as if a big responsibility was removed from her shoulders.

“It was getting more and more troublesome. Your lips are tighter than normal people, I barely got anything after talking for so long, but I guess that can be expected from an Emperor who had been ruling for such a long time.”

Amaya massaged her right shoulder, then, her expression turned serious as she glanced at Amletus.

“Alright then, I will stop playing around and will be direct.

I already know you are involved with Herms, what I don’t understand, however, is that why are you supporting him? His plan of using the treaty to get rid of Alcimus has already failed.

So even if you two come together, you would need to fight against Alcimus and Lady Astaria, there is no way it would be an easy fight.

So why bother helping him?

Is it because of useless friendship or...

Do you have another trump card that you are holding?"

"What are you talking about, girl?

I already told you that the Emperors cannot fig-"

"The Mythical Creature is dead. We know that already." Amaya interrupted.

"..."

Amletus turned silent.

Riona frowned as well.

Amaya continued to look at Amletus.

"Heh." Suddenly, Amletus laughed.

"To think you already know about all this.

Is it safe to assume that you are on Astaria's side?"

Amletus questioned.

"Not exactly, but you can say that. Yes."

Amaya nodded.

"And you?" Amletus questioned as he turned towards Riona.

"I am only on my Daughter's side, anything else does not matter," Riona replied.

“Good good.” Amletus laughed.

“You still haven’t answered any of my questions yet,” Amaya spoke.

“And why do you think I would answer your questions?” Amletus questioned.

“Is it another Emperor Stage Cultivator? Is that why you are so confident?” Amaya questioned back.

“Heh, you really think I will answer your questions huh.” Amletus just smiled.

“Actually, I am even surprised that you are here all by yourself, that is quite gutsy, I will admit.” Amletus’s expression turned fiercer,

“Without that bitch Astaria protecting you, do you think you can survive in front of me? Or did you think I would not kill you because of our relationship or that stupid Technique of yours?”

He questioned.

“ ... ”

Amaya didn’t say anything.

“Heeh? Why are you all silent now? Are you scared?” Amletus’s smile turned demonic.

“ ... ”

Amaya didn’t reply.

“To think you won’t even say anything. That is quite the change. I guess you still hold your life quite dearly, well, you are young, so I won’t blame you.

How about this?

You give me the technique and I will give you and your mother a painless, quick death. Hmm? What do you think? A good deal, right?"

"H-How about you tell me about what you are hiding and I give you the technique?" Amaya questioned back.

She was trying to keep a brave front, however, her stuttering gave her away.

She was panicking, she was scared.

Seeing that, Riona's sword appeared in her hand, however, before she could even attack,

*Whoosh*

*Bam*

Her body flew back and crashed onto the wall.

"Mother!"

Amaya's expression changed as she quickly rushed towards Riona.

"R-Run." Riona spoke weakly.

"My offer is still valid, girl.

Give me the technique and I will give you two a painless death.

Don't test me, I am quite good when it comes to torture." Amletus smiled.

"I really regret it..."

Amaya muttered.

"Hmm? What do you regret?" Amletus questioned.

"If only I was strong enough..." Amaya replied.

“Hahaha~ Don’t worry, you are plenty strong for your age. With your talent, if you continue, you might even become as strong as me.

But you are correct, you are indeed not strong enough.

Talent doesn’t matter if you are dead after all. Hahaha~”

Amletus laughed.

“Anyways,

Last chance girl.

Give me the technique and I wil-”

Suddenly, Amletus’s expression changed.

‘Huh?’

He frowned.

‘W-What happened?’

He couldn’t understand.

His world was turning upside down and everything was moving upward.

‘H-Huh?’

“If only we were strong enough, capturing you alive would have been much more advantageous.”

He then heard Amaya’s voice and suddenly,

*Thud*

His head dropped to the ground.

He was dead.

Without even knowing how he died.

‘An Emperor is only strong because he has the ability to control the Mana around him, if that ability is taken away, he would be nothing more than a slightly stronger King Stage Cultivator.

So if you, who are an absurdly strong King Stage Cultivator, somehow manage to take on an Emperor Stage Cultivator by surprise, you have a chance to kill him.

Of course, taking him by surprise would not be as simple as it sounds.

Defeating Emperors is not that simple.’

“Meh, she was entirely correct.

Emperors aren’t that big of a deal.”

Nux commented.

“It would have been better if we could get something out of his mouth though...” Amaya replied.

“Well, not everything goes as planned, now does it?” Nux smiled.

“At the very least, Herms is now alone.

We used the advantage we had and got rid of 1 Emperor Stage Cultivator.

Now, all we have to do is make Alcimus fight against Herms and watch what happens.”

“Mhm, it would be a lot easier, that is correct.” Amaya nodded.

“W-W-Wait! H-H-H-How W-What, What is happening!?”

Riona, who just witnessed the murder of the strongest person in her Kingdom couldn’t help but widen her eyes in shock.

“H-How did you kill him!?”

“Meh, it was nothing.

Don’t act so surprised, mother-in-law.”

Nux shrugged.

Chapter 583 Anyways, Shall We Visit Father-In-Law?

“Meh, it was nothing.

Don’t act so surprised, mother-in-law.”

Nux shrugged.

“What the hell are you talking about!? Do you even realize what you have done!? You have killed an Emperor! An Emperor! The strongest existence in the world!

You have disturbed the Balance of the world! Do you realize that!?”

“Oh c’mon, he wouldn’t have died if he was the strongest, you know?”

Nux kept his nonchalant attitude.

He was definitely enjoying his mother-in-law’s reaction.

“You... h-how did you do it? You are still just a King Stage Cultivator, how can you kill an Emperor on your own?” Riona questioned.

She still couldn’t believe what had happened, however, seeing Amletus’s headless body lying on the floor without any movements and his head that had now rolled to the Wall, she had no choice but to believe it.

Amletus, the Emperor, the Protector of the Skadi Kingdom was dead.

“Trust me, I am not lying, he was weak.”

Nux spoke, this time, however, his expression was serious.

“Astaria is much, much stronger than him.”

“ ... ”

Riona didn't know what to say.

She had heard that Lady Astaria had started training Nux about a month ago, she knew it would be very beneficial to Nux, however, she never thought that Nux would become strong enough to Kill an Emperor.

“To be honest, I feel like I could have defeated him without the sneak attack, however, in the end, he is still an Emperor, I couldn't take any chance.”

Nux analyzed.

“Well, Astaria did say you would be victorious if you two fought,” Amaya replied.

She usually referred to Astaria as a ‘Lady’, however, as she witnessed the fight between Nux and Astaria, she soon realized that ‘Lady’ Astaria would be her sister soon.

So using ‘Lady’ to call her was a bit... strange.

Therefore, she had to change the way she addressed her.

She should start preparing early after all.

“Anyways, with now Amletus dead, we have declared War against Herms and the Solid Earth Kingdom.”

Amaya's expression turned serious.

“Now we have to make sure that Herms receives information as late as possible and for that...”

Amaya then turned towards Riona.

“Huh?” Riona frowned.

In the end, she was someone who had ruled over and managed the Skadi Kingdom, her mind was sharper than any normal person's. So even though she was shocked and still couldn't believe the situation, she understood what Amaya and Nux wanted.

"You want to meet Eardwolf."

She spoke.

"As expected of mother." Amaya smiled.

Riona smiled back.

Being acknowledged by her daughter.

This was definitely a good feeling.

She completely forgot about how the strongest human in the Skadi Kingdom was killed and placed Amaya's head on her breasts.

"Of course, you thought I wouldn't even be able to guess that? Is that even possible? Or are you underestimating your mother?"

Don't forget, you were the one who lost the bet.

Although you are smart, you still have a long way to go.

And for that, you would have to stay as close to me as possible."

Riona smiled widely.

"I only lost because I didn't know much about that idiot. I only judged things based on what I had heard about him, you, on the other hand, knew him since you practically grew up with him. There was the difference in data, not intelligence."

Amaya replied with an annoyed look on her face.

Her mother really was annoying.

Hugging her like this, how annoying.

She was a grown-up now, she needed her personal space.

“You shouldn’t have agreed to bet then.” Riona’s reply was simple.

“You forced me to!”

Amaya shouted.

She really couldn’t believe how shameless her mother was.

“I don’t know what you are talking about~”

Riona smiled and tightened her hug around Amaya.

Amaya tried to resist and get out of her hold, however, she failed.

“There There.” Riona then started patting her head.

“...”

Amaya didn’t know what to say.

“Tsk, I can’t believe you two are ignoring me like that.”

Nux, who was witnessing the mother and daughter sticking to each other commented.

To be honest, it was now a common sight for him.

When he placed a Slave Seal on Riona, the first thing Amaya ordered her to do was to tell the truth.

Then, everything was revealed.

The woman called Riona Skadi, the woman who held most of the power in the Skadi Kingdom, the woman who dismissed all the traditions of the Kingdom and managed to gain influence and power using her wits,

In the end, that woman was nothing but a fool who was crazy for her daughter.

The moment Amaya was born, Riona changed.

She realized that ruling the Kingdom meant nothing.

She may not love her 'husband', but her daughter,

Now that was a completely different thing.

She adored her daughter.

All her actions thus far were for the sake of her data.

When this was revealed, Amaya felt guilty.

All this while when she was blaming her mother in her heart, her mother was thinking about different ways of staying together with her.

Amaya, wanting to change things, told Riona to contact her using the telepathic connection whenever she wanted, a decision she deeply regretted because Riona didn't miss a single moment and contacted her to talk about even the simplest matter.

Of course, Amaya may act and say how annoying her mother was or things like that, however, Nux and everyone else knew the truth.

In the end, the relationship between the mother and daughter improved and was now stronger than ever.

“Do you want to join in as well?”

Riona extended her arm towards Nux.

Amaya, however, quickly grabbed that arm and placed it back on her head again.

Anything but Nux.

She was willing to give her mother anything she wanted.

Anything, but Nux.

That, was something she cannot allow.

Not at all.

Seeing her reaction, Riona chuckled.

“Anyways, shall we visit father-in-law?”

Nux questioned with a small smile on his face.

The two women nodded and Nux muttered,

“I am meeting many of my fathers-in-laws right now, it is as if someone is doing all this on purpose.

Hmmmmm.”

The two women just shook their heads.

‘Mother.’

Suddenly, Amaya called out using a connection to which Nux wasn’t connected to.

She wanted to ask something.

Chapter 584 Eardwolf Skadi, Are You Willing To Be My Slave?

‘Mother.’

Amaya called out.

‘Hmm? What is it?’ Riona questioned.

‘You don’t like him, right?’ Amaya questioned.

‘I told you already, didn’t I? I don’t.’ Riona sighed inwardly and then replied.

‘Good...’

Amaya turned silent.

‘How many times are you going to ask me the same question? You even used Slave Seal.’

‘I only did that the first time when I was asking all the questions.’ Amaya defended herself.

‘Alright, but you still question me about this regularly, don’t you? Do you not trust your lovely mother?’ Riona questioned.

‘It is not like that.’

Amaya replied.

She then glanced at Nux for a while and then narrowed his eyes,

‘That bastard is a magnet. He attracts women wherever he goes. It is like a weird illness of his. So I have to make sure everything is okay regularly.’

You can think of this as a regular health checkup.’

‘You really don’t trust your mother, do you?’

Riona pouted.

‘As I said, it is not about you. I need to keep him in check. I have already told him not to go after you so at the very least, he does not have those types of thoughts in his mind about you, and neither does he try to openly woo you, but he is still ill, so I need to make sure you are fine.’

Amaya replied.

This was a serious issue.

And she really didn’t want her mother to become her sister.

Just thinking about it felt weird...

‘...’ Riona didn’t know how to react.

She then glanced at Nux and after observing him for a while, she started understanding the problem.

That man was handsome.

He was the most handsome man she had ever seen in her long life.

He was strong, way too strong.

He was understanding.

He was supportive.

He was funny.

He has the power to create his personnel army by combining Slave Seal and his ‘Dual Cultivation’, however, he doesn’t do it just because of his love for his wives.

Handsome, strong, loyal, and honest love, even one of these qualities would make any man a desirable partner, and this man had it all.

She could definitely see this 'illness' Amaya was talking about.

Nux definitely was a women magnet.

However, that is only the case for other women.

She was different.

'Don't worry, I won't fall in love with him. You can trust me.

I am happy as long as I have you.'

Riona smiled.

'I belong to Nux.'

Amaya was quick to reply.

Riona understood what she was thinking about and punched her head,

'Talking back to your mother, eh?'

'...'

Amaya turned silent.

"Oi Oi, what are you two doing? I am lost."

Nux suddenly turned around and spoke.

"..."

"..."

Riona and Amaya didn't know what to say.

"If you didn't know the way, then why were you walking so confidently?"

Riona couldn't help but question.

“Well, I can find it using [Sense] but since we already have a mother-in-law with us, I thought, ‘why bother?’ and relied on you.” Nux smiled.

“I don't know what my daughter sees in you, you are a fool.” Riona sighed.

“Thank you for the compliment.”

Riona shook her head and spoke, “I will lead the way.”

“Please do.”

Nux spoke as he grabbed Amaya and placed her head on his chest.

It was as if he was saying, ‘It is my turn now.’

Riona frowned but seeing the smile on her daughter's face, she sighed again and just continued walking.

Nux followed behind her.

...

The doors of the rooms opened and Riona walked in.

Seeing her walking in, Eardwolf's expression changed.

‘Those guards are useless.’

He thought inwardly.

“Wh-”

He wanted to ask, but before he could,

“Why are you here?”

The woman who was standing next to him spoke.

However, before Riona could answer, Amaya and Nux walked in.

Nux's eyes quickly fell on the woman who was standing beside the King and his expression changed.

The woman looked at Nux and her expression turned a little soft as well.

“Why are you here?” She questioned, this time, however, her tone was different.

‘Amaya.’

Nux called Amaya using the connection.

‘What?’ Amaya questioned.

‘How the hell is every woman in your family so beautiful?’ Nux questioned back.

Amaya frowned, but before she could say anything, a frown appeared on Nux's face and he continued,

‘Though I sense a bitchy aura around this one.’

‘Oi, that's my sister, mind your language.’

Riona corrected.

‘She is not a bitch?’

‘She is.’

‘...’

“Who are these two?”

Eardwolf questioned as he glanced at Amaya.

Nux and Riona stepped in front of Amaya and Riona spoke,

“I need to talk. Do your business later.”

“You cann-” Athela, Riona’s sister was about to retort, however, Riona wasn’t having any of it.

Her dagger appeared in her hand and she spoke,

“Leave while I am asking nicely, things might take a bad turn if you don’t.”

“Y-You! You think you can threa-”

Riona threw her dagger and it passed through Athela’s body, just an inch away from her cheeks.

“Do not make me repeat myself.”

Riona spoke with a cold look on her face.

Athela’s face turned pale.

Normally, she would have asked for help, however, this time, she realized Riona was definitely serious.

Something was wrong.

Therefore, without thinking anything, she walked away.

“I will make you pay for today.”

Of course, she didn’t forget to use the typical third-rate villain’s dialogue.

“Why are you here?” After Athela left, Eardwolf questioned.

“She is here to introduce me,” Nux spoke.

“Who are you?” Eardwolf narrowed his eyes.

“I am your son-in-law,”

Nux smiled and,

“Huh?”

Eardwolf didn't know how to react.

“Who?”

He questioned.

“Your son-in-law,” Nux repeated himself.

He then stepped back and pointed at Amaya,

“She is your daughter and my wife, Amaya Leander. You are my father-in-law, I am your son-in-law.

Anyways, all of that doesn't really matter, let's just jump to the main matter,

Eardwolf Skadi, are you willing to be my Slave?”

Chapter 585 Now This Is Nostalgic

“She is your daughter and my wife, Amaya Leander. You are my father-in-law, I am your son-in-law.

Anyways, all of that doesn't really matter, let's just jump to the main matter, Eardwolf Skadi, are you willing to be my Slave?”

Nux questioned.

“What the hell are you talking about!? Are you out of your mind!?” Eardwolf was unable to control himself and questioned out loud.

Nux however, just shrugged, and seeing this, Eardwolf was even more angered.

“Who do you think you are!? Do you know who I am!? You might be a King Stage Cultivator but if I want, I can get rid of you right here and now and your family members won't even find your body. Do not force me to do anything th-”

Eardwolf continued to shout however, suddenly, Nux threw a bag near his legs.

“...” Eardwolf glanced at Nux and narrowed his eyes.

“Before you utter any more of your nonsense, see what's inside.

It would make this conversation a lot easier.” Nux spoke with an expressionless look on his face.

“...”

Eardwolf turned silent.

In front of the 3 people in front of him, he crouched and picked up the Bag, and as soon as he peeked in,

“Uh-AAahh!”

His eyes widened in horror and he dropped the bag in fear before stepping back.

He then glanced at Nux, fear clear in his eyes.

Nux smiled,

“The support you are relying on to ‘get rid of a mere King Stage Cultivator like me’ is dead, so it would be beneficial for you if mind your actions from now on.”

“W-W-What did you do?” Eardwolf questioned.

“Are you dumb or something? Don’t you see? I killed Amletus, your backer and if you don’t what to die, then submit.” Nux replied.

His tone was clearly more annoyed than normal.

For some reason, he didn’t like this man in front of him.

“A-Are y-you just going to observe t-things? I-I-If the two of us worked together, then w-we can definitely kill him.”

Eardwolf glanced at Riona and spoke.

Riona had a strange expression on her face,

“I knew you were dumb but how are you this dumb? Can’t you see? I came here with him, obviously, I am on his side.

And let’s say I am not on his side and am willing to work with you, do you think we can go against someone who killed Amletus?”

“...” Eardwolf turned silent.

“Eardwolf.”

Riona called.

“W-What?”

“I suggest you to just do as you are told, at the very least, you would be able to continue living your life peacefully.”

“ ... ”

Eardwolf turned silent.

Nux, however, had enough.

His sword appeared in his hand, he appeared in front of Eardwolf and placed his sword on his neck.

The King widened his eyes in surprise.

He couldn't react to Nux's movement at all.

No matter what, he was still a King Stage Cultivator, how can another King Stage Cultivator be so fearsome?

H-How was this possible?

“Eardwolf Skadi, are you willing to be my Slave?”

Nux spoke and at the same time, a trail of blood leaked out of Eardwolf's neck.

Nux's message was clear.

If he didn't receive the answer he wanted to receive, Eardwolf will be beheaded.

“ ... ”

Eardwolf didn't say anything.

In his mind, he was thinking about many possibilities.

Slapping away Nux's sword, then jumping out of the window, with his cultivation, he would definitely survive, then he would gather his soldiers.

The King Stage Cultivators who are under Riona's command would still listen to his order once he says that Riona had betrayed the Kingdom.

Gathering around 4 King Stage Cultivators won't be difficult, including him, it would be 5v3, there was a decent chance to win, however, for some reason, even if they fail, then as long as they hold out, 5 more King Stage Cultivators would gather.

A 9v3 would definitely be a winnable battle and the other soldiers have not even participated in this scenario yet.

The victory was assured.

However...

As Eardwolf glanced at Nux's eyes,

He had the feeling that the moment he tries to 'slap away his sword', he would die.

In the end, Eardwolf lowered his head and,

"Y-Yes."

Gave up on his pride.

"Good."

Nux smiled.

A strange energy entered Eardwolf's body.

It felt as if some chains were binding all his organs.

Eardwolf was horrified.

“W-What did you do?”

He questioned.

“I turned you into my slave, from now on...”

Nux then briefly explained how the Slave Seal works and the more Eardwolf heard, the paler his face turned.

Seeing that, Riona just smiled,

“Don’t worry, it is not that bad, as long as you stay loyal, you can continue living your life as you did before. You now just need to listen to his orders. Just think as if he is the replacement for Amletus.

And if it makes you feel any better, I have a slave seal implanted in me as well.”

“W-What? S-So you were forc-” Eardwolf widened his eyes.

“No, I was the one who told him to do that. I accepted it willingly.” Riona clarified before Eardwolf even asked his question.

“Yes, the two of you are not the same. Keep in mind, the mother-in-law is the leader here. You will do whatever she says, whether it is abducting the throne, or to even killing yourself, don’t you dare go against her orders.” Nux spoke.

“K-K-Kill myself?” Eardwolf stuttered, however, before Nux could say anything,

“AAAGGHHHAGGHHH!!!”

Eardwolf quickly fell on the ground and started shrieking and withering in pain.

“Now this is nostalgic,” Nux commented.

Amaya nodded in agreement.

Riona, on the other hand, was surprised.

“I can still remove your Seal, you know?” Nux commented.

“I still want to talk to my daughter, thank you very much,” Riona replied.

“It is not a means of conversation...”

Nux just sighed and shook his head.

He then glanced at Eardwolf, who was still withering in pain, and sighed again.

That was how the Skadi Kingdom, the Second Strongest Kingdom in the world came under Nux’s command.

Chapter 586 Uhhh... Fuck.

“Is everything under control?” Nux questioned.

“Of course.” Riona smiled.

“It was faster than I thought,” Nux commented.

“Of course it was. Who do you think you are talking to?”

“Indeed, as Amaya’s mother, you have to be at least half as good as she is.”
Nux nodded.

“She still has a lot to learn.

She lost the bet, you know?” Riona nodded her head and smiled as she glanced at Amaya.

Obviously, she was expecting a hiss in response to what she said, however, Amaya completely ignored what she said and continued to play with Nux’s hair while he placed his head on her lap.

“Mhm, luck is also part of life, I guess.” Nux nodded.

Completely undermining Riona’s victory and blaming it on luck.

“...” Riona didn’t know what to say.

‘The two of them are similar when it comes to certain things.’

She thought inwardly as she glanced at the couple having a moment together.

“Anyways, after that little dose, Eardwolf is now acting like a good puppy. All the servants who attend to Amletus have already been turned into slaves.

Though I am still not the Queen, I hold all the powers now.

We are expecting to get some information out of the letters that Herms send to Amletus.

Now the only thing we have to do is wait.”

Riona quickly reported everything.

“Are you sure I don’t have anything to do?” Nux questioned.

“Nope, you are free to go.” Riona smiled.

Although she had a smile on her face, even a child could tell what she was thinking,

‘Just leave already, why are you taking so long.’

That was the only thing going on in Riona’s mind.

Today, miraculously, Amaya had decided to stay with her mother while Nux returns to the Skyfall Kingdom.

Riona, of course, was very excited to spend time with her daughter and wanted Nux to leave them alone as soon as possible.

“Do you really have to go?”

Amaya, on the other hand, had completely opposite thoughts.

She wished that Nux stayed with her as well, however,

“You know I have to go right? She will kill me if I don’t.” Nux replied with a wry smile on his face.

“Tsk, she is abusing her authority,” Amaya complained.

“She is the strongest after all.”

“Do you think you can defeat her today?” Amaya questioned with a serious look on her face.

Nux’s expression turned serious as well,

“I am not sure.

I won’t lose easily, that’s for sure.

I was able to force her to use her own Mana and Skills in the last battle, though she overwhelmed me because of that.

After another round of training, I feel like I am prepared now.”

“Training you after throwing out a challenge like that, tsk.” Amaya snorted.

“Heh, she is that desperate.”

Nux’s smile widened.

“...”

Amaya just turned silent.

“W-What are you two talking about?”

Suddenly, Riona stepped into the conversation as well.

“The Wager between Nux and Astaria,” Amaya answered.

“Wager?”

“Yes, as you already know, Astaria is now training Nux.”

Riona nodded.

“Well now, she went ahead and challenged him to a little wager!”

“What? Really!? What are the terms?”

“If Nux manages to defeat her,
She would marry him.”

“WHAT!?”

Riona shouted in surprise.

“Why would she marry him!?”

“Do you even need to ask it?”

Amaya questioned back.

Riona quickly connected the dots and turned towards Nux.

“Y-Y-You are going after A-Astaria Skyfall!?”

“I am,” Nux replied with a confident smile on his face.

“If everything goes well, she would be your daughter’s sister after today.”

“...”

Riona didn’t know how to react to this news.

Astaria Skyfall...

She was like a sacred existence to her...

Just her training him was a big deal already, but this man even has the balls to court someone like her?

And to even accept an absurd challenge like that...

J-Just... what the hell is wrong with him?

A-And on the off chance that this man actually succeeds, Astaria Skyfall will become her daughter-in-law?

I-Is that even...

Riona felt like she was going to lose her mind.

“Anyways, you two spend some time together, I need to go. I still need to prepare for my battle after all.”

While Riona was thinking all that, Nux spoke.

He then kissed Amaya and walked out of the room.

Activating his [Conceal], he started running towards the Skyfall Kingdom.

...

“You are finally here, boy.”

As soon as Nux walked into his room, he saw Astaria sitting on the chair.

“Already using your wife’s privilege of coming into my room without my permission, I see.”

Nux commented.

“You wish. I was just worried that you were swatted away by Amletus.”
Astaria snorted.

“You think he has what it takes to kill me?” Nux questioned.

“You are just a mere King Stage Cultivator after all.”

“A King Stage Cultivator who forced the strongest human in the world to use skills to defeat him.”

“I only did that so that you won’t feel too bad after losing.”

“How caring. Just like a lovely wife.”

Astaria clenched her fists.

Fighting against this bastard really was annoying.

She doesn't even know why she starts it.

"Anyways, did you kill him?" Astaria questioned with a serious look on her face.

"The Skadi Kingdom is under our control now," Nux replied.

"Good job."

"It was rather easy."

"Don't get too cocky, as I said, he was the weakest," Astaria warned.

"I will only get cocky after I defeat you," Nux replied.

"That won't happen."

"Admit it, you are waiting for that you happen."

"You are delusional." Astaria was quick to shoot him down.

"Haaahhh... you really are a tsundere."

"Don't use the terms that I don't even know the meaning of."

And again, the two of them started bickering again.

If one sees them from afar, the two of them really would look like a couple.

Of course, Astaria would still deny it with all her might.

"Tsk, whatever, let's just start with the duel."

"There are still a few hours for that," Astaria spoke.

"What? You scared?" Nux questioned and a crazy smile appeared on Astaria's face,

“You asked for this, boy.”

‘Uhhh... fuck.’

Chapter 587 He Changed His Battle Style.

“What? Are you scared?”

Astaria questioned with a wide smile on her face as she glanced at Nux.

“Petty...”

Nux commented with a wry smile on her face.

“Heh.”

Astaria laughed, then, her sword appeared in her hand, and then,

The Aura around her changed and her face turned serious.

Nux’s face turned serious as well.

Right now, the two of them were in a jungle that was around 50 km away from the Royal Palace.

This was the place where the two of them had started training after...

Well... pretty much destroying the training area with their inhuman strength.

Of course, this jungle wasn’t spared either.

Most of the trees here were broken apart, the ground had countless cracks on it, however, it was still a great battlefield.

Nux’s sword appeared in his hand and he took his battle stance.

No further signals were required.

Astaria disappeared and appeared behind Nux.

She slashed her sword, which was surrounded by Mana at Nux. The sword was destructive enough to cut any King Stage Cultivator as if it was cutting butter. Any armor less than 7 Star rating would hold no better than a piece of cloth. That was how strong the attack was.

Nux knew that, therefore, he had already jumped into the air and after blocking the attack with his sword, he was sent flying and after a flip, he stood up again, expecting another attack.

As he expected, Astaria appeared in front of him and attacked him again, this time, the attack was considerably weakened because it focused more on speed.

Nux parried the attack normally, another, a similar sword appeared on his free hand and he slashed it toward Astaria.

Astaria stepped back and dodged, Nux used this chance to free his other hand and attacked again.

Astaria defended with the sword but before she could relax, Nux's other sword attack was in front of her again.

Astaria stepped back again.

“Heh.” Nux chuckled, trying to rile Astaria up, and at the same time,

**Clang* *Clang* *Clang**

He started his chain of attacks, forcing Astaria to step back again and again.

Nux's women, who were observing the battle from afar smiled.

However, the same couldn't be said about Iria, Phorus, or Winston.

The three of them just couldn't believe that Astaria, the strongest human in the world was being pushed back.

And this time, she was not holding back like before.

She was actually giving her all, but Nux's attacks were just too fast, even for her.

“He changed his battle style.”

Winston, the most experienced out of all the people here narrowed his eyes.

“He did.”

Ember nodded and then explained.

“Arvina, his previous teacher taught him the sword, as you already know, Arvina herself learned from Lady Asteria, so the style he learned matched Lady Astaria's. However, as the two of them continued to spar, Lady Astaria noticed that this technique was holding Nux back as it failed to utilize his insane speed properly.

Nux's weakness was his attack power.”

“That sort of attack power is a weakness...”

Winston didn't know what to say.

The General and the previous Queen couldn't help but smile wryly as well.

That attack power, each one of those strikes has the power to kill a normal King Stage Cultivator...

That... it was not weak at all...

Even if they use all their skills and their ultimate attack together, they wouldn't be able to deal the damage that Nux's 'weak attack power' was dealing.

And as if knowing what he was thinking, Ember clarified,

“Well, dealing damage to an Emperor with that attack power was not possible,

Of course, he still has his trump card and other skills, but again, we are talking about only raw attack power here.

To overcome this problem, Lady Astaria came up with the idea of utilizing speed.

She told him to use two swords and use his flexible body to attack as fast as he could.

Nux is fast, even faster than the Emperors when it comes to body movements since Mana can only boost their speed when they focus on their legs, for body movements, Emperors would have to focus on their entire body, which would make it a lot harder and difficult to control.

Nux was told to increase his speed even further, to the point where when an enemy only has time to hit him once, he uses the same time to go for 3 to 4 hits.

And after a long, hell-like training...”

Ember then glanced at the battlefield where Astaria was still being pushed back and commented,

“That... is the result.”

“...”

Winston turned silent.

On the Battlefield, as Astaria was being pushed back, she quickly realized that she was getting closer and closer to a tree.

She smiled, it was finally her chance now.

She got closer and closer to the tree, thinking of using this chance to unleash a big blow on Nux and throwing him away.

“!!!”

Soon, however, her smile disappeared when she noticed that the roots of the tree looked purplish.

Without thinking any further, she crouched.

*Whoosh*

A big Purple Black Spike popped out of the tree.

If she was still standing, her head would have been pierced open by that thing, her eyes widened in horror.

She was using Mana to block Nux's attack, her head was completely exposed.

This would have been lethal if Nux had succeeded.

Nux was not pulling back his punches today.

Astaria knew it was not safe to stay near this Tree.

She used her 7-Star sword, which was given to her by Nux to block his attacks and gather enough strength to unleash a powerful punch.

*Whoosh*

However, just as she punched, she realized that most of the punch's power was diffused.

She quickly realized Nux had used [Mirror].

He had already predicted what she would do.

And when she glanced at him and saw him smiling at her, her mouth twitched.

Nux's barrage of attacks continued and in the end,

Astaria had no choice but to take a few of his attacks head-on, to the point of getting a few bruises on her forearms, her Mana focused on her legs and,

She ran away.

Chapter 588 You Did Well.

Astaria ran away.

Well, she didn't exactly run away, she just created distance between the two of them, but for an Emperor to do something like this...

It was no different than running away.

And judging from the grim look that had appeared on Astaria's face, anybody could tell that she was thinking the same.

“You have improved, a lot more than I thought.”

She commented.

Nux, however, completely ignored her comment and rushed toward her.

The Mana around Astaria moved and surrounded her sword.

She slashed it toward Nux, and Nux was forced to use both his swords to stop the attack.

The Mana then moved from the sword to Astaria's shoulders.

Astaria lifted her sword that carried the weight of Nux's two swords, a space was created,

This time, Astaria used her own Mana and kicked Nux's abdomen.

Mind you, when an Emperor uses her own Mana instead of the surrounding Mana, the output increases drastically.

The strength behind this kick was enough to break Nux's bones.

If the attack connects, there is no way Nux would stand up without a healing potion and at least 2 hours of rest.

However, Nux just smiled.

The power behind Astaria's kick suddenly dispersed.

She quickly understood what happened and narrowed her eyes.

Nux used Astaria's sword as a base and backflipped in the air, appearing behind her.

Astaria quickly turned around, trying to attack him before he lands, but before she could, she quickly moved aside.

She turned around and noticed a Purple Black Spike that was aiming at her heart.

'Annoying.'

She thought inwardly.

Nux landed and

*Clang*

Attacked again.

Astaria defended and Nux used another sword.

*Clang* *Clang* *Clang*

Nux's barrage of attacks started again.

A frown appeared on Astaria's face.

This was a problem.

The monster in front of her had insanely high stamina, especially after his recent 'state distribution', hoping that he would tire out was stupid.

Also, she cannot always dodge those Spikes that aim at her. If she gets hit by them once, the battle would be over.

She had to change her strategy.

She jumped back again.

Nux tried to rush towards her, however, she continued to maintain the distance.

Nux may be faster when it comes to body movement, however, in raw speed, when she uses Mana, she was definitely faster.

There is no way Nux could catch up.

“Are you seriously running away from a 'mere King Stage Cultivator', Lady Astaria?”

Nux laughed as he continued to chase Astaria. He then glanced at Phorus and the others and spoke,

“Your subjects must be disappointed.”

And Nux was right.

Well, rather than disappointment, Phorus and the others were shocked.

They never thought they would see a day like this.

Not only them, but even Nux's wives were shocked.

'Astaria is running away... I can't believe it...'

Felberta commented.

‘I know he was saying he would defeat her today, but this...’ Ember couldn’t believe it either.

‘Are we finally going to welcome Sister Astaria? I am excited.’ Skyla smiled cheerfully.

‘I wish to fight him like this as well. Though a Flogger Whip would be better.’ Edda laughed.

‘What’s that?’ Evane questioned with a frown.

‘Ahh, you weren’t there yesterday-‘

‘Thank god you weren’t. Just leave her be. Ignore most of the things she says.’ Allura jumped in before Edda could corrupt Evane.

Edda pouted.

‘Umm, is that allowed?’

Suddenly, Lane questioned as she pointed at the battlefield.

Astaria, while she was running away from Nux, was consuming both Health Potion and Mana Potion.

‘...’

The women turned silent.

They never expected Astaria would do something so... shameless.

‘Both of them are aiming for vitals and are not holding back at all.

Rather than a spar, it is a Battle.

A real battle.

There are no rules in real battle.

Everything is allowed.’

Thyra commented.

‘That’s correct.’

Ember nodded as well.

‘But... she is Emperor Stage Cultivator...’

Evane complained.

‘Are you saying she should give Nux a handicap because she is better than him?’ Ember questioned and Evane turned silent.

The women then continued to watch the battle.

“You don’t have to run away you know, though I am sweaty, I am sure I don’t smell.”

Nux laughed.

“...”

Astaria didn’t say anything.

Nux sighed and suddenly, he stopped.

“The potions won’t change anything.”

He commented and at the same time, he started consuming Potions as well.

“I simply need to consume Potions as well, it will be another start of the spar, I just need to defeat you again.”

He shrugged.

“Again? Now that’s a strong word.” Astaria smiled.

She then threw the empty vial of the Potion she drank and,

“I commend you, You did well.”

While she said that, Astaria took her battle stance, her face then turned serious and,

“Though I will be ending this fight now.”

Astaria’s aura exploded and she disappeared.

Nux frowned.

He used his [Sense] but Astaria appeared behind him and attacked, he barely fended.

“You trained well, with your speed, I believe you now have the power to defeat any Emperor without using your trump card.”

Nux heard Astaria’s voice.

She was praising him, those were not empty words, it was a genuine praise.

However, Nux’s expression was anything but good.

“Any Emperor,

Anyone but me.”

Astaria appeared behind Nux and attacked again, he dodged, but this time, it wasn’t as flawless, his shoulder was bruised.

“Nux Leander,

Let me show you why I am called the strongest human in the world.”

Astaria spoke and,

*Bam*

She punched Nux's back.

“!!!” Nux's eyes widened in surprise.

He couldn't react to this speed at all.

“Khhaakk!”

He was forced to cough out blood while his body was shot away.

However, Astaria wasn't done yet.

Like a demon, she was already standing at the spot where Nux fell.

*Bam*

This time, she kicked his head.

Nux his entire world blacken for the second and,

*Bam*

*Bam*

*Bam*

A series of scalp numbing attacks were unleashed.

“NUX!!”

Nux's women shouted in worry.

Chapter 589 What The Hell Is Happening!?

“NUX!!”

Nux’s wives shouted in worry.

Those blows were frightening.

Nux was being thrown around as if he was some sort of ball. His face was already covered with blood, his nose was broken and his teeth were stuck in his lips, all in all, his face was discovered.

What’s worse?

*Bam*

*Bam*

Astaria was still going on.

She was planning to continue this until he passed out.

She knew what kind of monster this man was, if she gave him a chance, he might turn everything around.

If any other Emperor Stage Cultivator saw this one-sided beating, his eyes would widen in shock.

Not because Astaria was beating a Nux, but because of how she was doing it.

There are two types of Mana an Emperor can use, one is the Mana in the air, other one is the Mana inside their own body.

The Mana in the air is nearly endless, making Emperors an unstoppable force.

The Mana inside their body, though limited, gave stronger output.

Usually, an Emperor can only use one Mana at a time.

And this is what differentiated Astaria from other Emperors.

She has trained herself to use both Mana at the same time.

A normal Emperor can achieve the speed Astaria is using if they use their own Mana. For them, getting into Nux's blind spot and attacking him from behind is not a difficult task.

But the problem occurs when they are about to hit him, since they are already using Mana to increase their speed, their attack power is not enough for someone like Nux who has a monstrous defense.

Astaria, however, is different.

Since she can use both types of Mana at the same time, she is using her own Mana to increase her speed and the Mana in the air to increase her attack power.

This was why she was known as the strongest human in the world.

No Emperor could ever fight against her.

They tried to copy her method, however, it was not as easy as the theory made it, the process of using Mana to strengthen yourself is complicated in itself, now using two types of Mana to strengthen two different aspects, the difficulty and complexity do not just double, it is squared.

One needed 2 independent brains to achieve something like this.

Astaria achieved after decades of training and even for her, using this technique for an extended period of time was tiring.

It was her trump card.

“Alright, that’s it. I can’t watch it anymore.”

Suddenly, Thyra spoke but just as she was about to rush toward Astaria, Ember held her hand.

“What?”

“Stop it. It’s a spar, don’t interfere.” Ember spoke.

“What the hell are yo-”

“Nux haven’t lost yet.”

Ember replied in a hoarse voice.

Seeing her expression, Thyra narrowed her eyes and freed her hand from her grip aggressively.

“Whatever.”

She turned silent and continued to watch.

Ember glanced at the battlefield as well.

She had an emotionless look on her face, however, if one noticed how she had clenched her fists, they would realize how angry she was.

Of course, there was nothing she could do in this situation, she knew the moment she interfere with the spar, Nux would be angry. And it was not like she could do anything if Astaria decided to do something.

She was just too powerless.

She could only powerlessly watch the fight.

*Bam*

Nux was attacked again and his body was shot away.

Astaria was already waiting on the other end, ready to attack him again, just like she was doing all this time, but suddenly,

Nux disappeared.

“Huh?”

Astaria’s cold expression turned into a frown.

She looked around and failed to find Nux anywhere.

“Nux!”

On the other hand, Nux’s wives quickly rushed towards him as he appeared near them and fell on the ground.

Nux, however, raised his hand with a grim look on his face.

His women stopped.

Nux quickly took out a healing potion and drank it.

He then wiped the blood off his face.

On the other hand, Astaria quickly realized where he was and was rushing toward him.

Nux just smiled and started running away.

He was now copying what Astaria did before.

“You think you can run away from me?”

Astaria questioned.

“Do you think you have enough Mana to catch me now?”

Nux questioned back.

He had realized this when he was getting beaten up like a rag doll, the strength behind Astaria's blows and her speed had decreased, the beads of sweat on her forehead were a clear indication as well.

She was tired.

Astaria narrowed her eyes,

“I can always regenerate my Mana.”

“Do it then.”

Nux challenged.

Astaria tilted her head and then she stopped following him.

She took a Mana Potion.

Nux also waited for his health to regenerate.

The [Regeneration] he had received after he became a King Stage Cultivator kicked in as well.

He realized that it was not as useless as he thought.

Rather, it was a great passive skill.

Mana, Stamina, and Health aside, this ability also boosts the effect of Potions he drinks.

Therefore, after a short break, the two of them had, Nux's smile widened and he rushed towards Astaria.

‘Fucking monster.’

Astaria cursed inwardly. For him to recover from her bruises so quickly... not even half of her Mana is regenerated.

She only had one option, she has to run away.

It was embarrassing, but a battle was a battle.

She cannot lose.

She will never lose.

With a determined look on her face, Astaria gather the surrounding Mana and started running away.

“Heh.”

Nux laughed.

Then suddenly, his speed increased to the point Astaria felt he had disappeared.

While she was looking behind her, trying to find him, Nux appeared in front of her and stabbed his sword, aiming at Astaria’s heart.

She quickly parried his attack, the sword grazed her shoulder. Astaria quickly jumped back however, Nux followed behind her and with his increased speed, Astaria couldn’t react at all.

She could only widen her eyes in surprise, wondering a single thing,

‘What the hell is happening!?’

Chapter 590 L Will Not Lose.

‘What the hell is happening!?’

Astaria’s eyes widened in surprise.

She didn’t know what was happening.

Nux’s speed had suddenly increased to a monstrous degree.

She was sure Nux wasn’t using Mana to do anything.

He doesn’t even know how to do that. Not even he can break the boundary between an Emperor and a King Stage.

He was using a strange technique.

A technique he has never shown before.

Astaria didn’t know how to react, she had already used up her Mana and unlike normal Emperors, who have to compensate their attack powers to increase their speed. Nux’s attack power was still the same as before.

Suddenly, Astaria narrowed her eyes.

She noticed that Nux’s attack speed was similar to what it was before.

It was as if... the recent increase in his speed was just her imagination.

It didn’t even last a second.

**Clang* *Clang* *Clang**

However, the problem was still not solved.

She was again in the same position of being attacked by Nux’s two swords without any rest.

And this time, her position was disadvantageous because she was out of Mana.

Now she had to wait and continue to defend Nux's attack till the Mana Potion she had drank works and she regains some of her Mana.

Nux understood the problem as well.

Astaria was still defending all his attacks, if this continued, things would go back to the first stage again.

And he was not ready for another round of beating.

A wry smile appeared on Nux's face.

'After all this, I still can't defeat her.'

He glanced at Astaria who continued to defend his attacks and shook his head inwardly, then, a determined look appeared on his face and,

'I won't lose this battle.'

Then, Nux disappeared.

Astaria frowned.

She glanced towards his women again, however, this time, Nux was not there either.

She realized.

He was using his ultimate technique.

A wry smile on her face.

This was not a technique one could defend against.

And this bastard chose the absolutely worse time to use it since she didn't have most of her Mana to defend herself.

However, just as Nux now knew her technique, she knew how Nux's technique worked as well.

She quickly used whatever Mana she had to protect her vital points like heart and brain and then, she blinked.

Nux quickly appeared beside her, she tried to defend, but again, it was absolutely impossible to defend against someone who literally appeared right next to you, ready with his attack.

However, unlike how Astaria had expected, Nux didn't attack her heart or brain, he aimed behind her neck.

The sword touched her neck, the vibration was released.

Astaria's eyes widened and then, her vision blackened.

She could feel her entire body freezing up.

She was about to pass out.

**Pierce**

With her remaining strength, she pierced her sword into the ground.

Seeing this scene, a smile appeared on Nux's pale face.

“Kkhaaawk!”

He coughed out blood.

“Heh... I... did not lose...”

Astaria commented weakly.

She had shifted all her weight on her sword, even if she passes out, she would not fall on the ground.

Seeing this, Nux just smiled wryly and...

He passed out.

A satisfied smile appeared on Astaria's face, knowing that Nux had passed out, she stopped resisting and closed her eyes.

She passed out as well.

The two warriors lost their consciousness, Nux's wives and the others quickly rushed towards them and seeing the scene where Nux had fallen on the ground, while Astaria was holding her sword, but had passed out as well, they didn't know what to say.

They walked towards them and quickly noticed small purple-colored spikes formed around them.

"He must have created these, hoping Astaria would fall and get attacked by these. It's quite vicious."

Ember commented.

Thyra had a smile on her face as well.

"She is on a whole different level though," Felberta commented as she glanced at Astaria.

"To remain standing even after passing out... I don't even know what to say..." Allura commented as well.

The other women nodded.

General Phorus, Iria, and Winston, on the other hand, couldn't help but glance at Nux, who was being carried by Lane, and couldn't help but be shocked.

This man fought against the strongest being in this world and the fight ended with a draw.

What does that mean?

It meant that he was now the strongest being in the world, standing right beside Astaria.

A man who is less than 50 years old is on par with the strongest human in the world and he is still not an Emperor yet.

Just what would happen when he actually grows and become an Emperor?

What type of absolute monster would he be?

The more they thought about it, the more they look forward to it.

“Anyways, let’s take them to their rooms.”

Evane gave an order.

Ember nodded, Lane had already picked Nux, she was the first one to rush forward and tend to him.

Felberta walked forward and after placing Astaria’s sword into her Storage ring, she carried Astaria as well.

“Heh, I can’t believe I am carrying the strongest human in the world in my arms.”

Astaria laughed.

The other women smiled as well.

“I could have never imagined it a few months ago.” Felberta chuckled.

“Hahaha~ That’s right, I couldn’t have imagined it either.” Skyla laughed out loud as well.

“...”

Lane didn’t say anything and just looked at Nux who was lying in her arms.

His face was still a little disfigured, however, it didn't matter to Lane at all. She just continued to look at his face and smiled inwardly.

“Tsk.” Thyra snorted as she glanced at Lane.

Lane, of course, completely ignored her.

Evane just sighed.

She needed to act like a queen since her subjects were still here.

She glanced at Phorus and the others and ordered,

“Alright, you all tend to whatever you have to tend to. We will take them to their room.”

“As you command, Queen Evane.”

The three of them walked away obediently, after her recent achievements, Evane's status has risen up to a degree where nobody dared to defy her orders in the Royal Palace.

Her influence has already far surpassed Ricardus.

She now held absolute power in the Royal Palace.

Chapter 591 As Expected Of My Daughter.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

“Enter.”

The order was heard, the servant walked in, there, he saw two incredibly beautiful women sitting on the bed, the one who looked younger had placed her head on the older one’s lap. A normal person would think that these two women were sisters, however, the servant knew that these two were mother and daughter.

The servant had heard about this daughter before, according to what he knew, this woman should currently be in the Skyfall Kingdom, but for some odd reason, she is back in the Skadi Kingdom and no one has any sort of problem with it.

What surprised the servant the most was that he couldn’t sense any cultivation from this girl, it was the same before she was sent to the Skyfall Kingdom, however, the servant knew that it was not the same.

Previously, she didn’t have any cultivation, however, now, the reason he couldn’t sense her cultivation was that she was too strong.

A King Stage Cultivator.

She cultivated and became a King Stage Cultivator from a mere mortal in a matter of few years!

A monstrous talent.

No, even the word monstrous was not enough to explain it.

It was just straight-up impossible.

It was unreal.

Especially when this girl was called a ‘Cursed Child’ who couldn’t cultivate.

“Report.”

While the servant was observing the two women, Riona spoke in a cold tone.

The servant quickly realized that he was lost in his thought and came out of his reverie.

“I-I apologize, Lady Riona.” He apologized.

“Report.”

Riona repeated herself.

The servant flinched in fear.

She made Riona repeat herself.

He had made two mistakes on the same day.

He already started sweating, however, in fear of not making another mistake that might very well be his last, the servant quickly recollected himself and his expression turned serious.

“Sir Deldon ordered me to give this to you.”

The Servant spoke as he extended his hands that carried an envelope.

Hearing the name Deldon, the girl, who was resting on her mother’s lap stood up and grabbed the letter.

“You can leave.”

She ordered.

The servant glanced at Riona, seeking her permission, but for some reason, Riona's expression turned even colder,

“She ordered you to leave.”

She spoke.

The servant's body flinched again,

“Y-Yes, as you command, L-Lady A-Amaya.”

The servant quickly walked away.

“Demote him.”

After the servant left, Amaya spoke while she opened the envelope.

“You don't have to tell me that.”

Riona nodded and walked towards Amaya.

Amaya opened the letter.

It was the letter sent by Herms Lizander to Amletus Skadi.

Just like Amaya predicted, these two were communicating with each other, that was the reason why she stayed here in the first place, even though Nux was lying on the bed, unconscious.

Of course, the servants serving Amletus showed some resistance at first and refused to cooperate even after seeing Riona and Eardwolf, however, after seeing Amletus's severed head, their resistance quickly faded away and they accepted the Slave Seal.

Eardwolf, Riona, Amaya, and Amletus's servants, all of them acted as if nothing had happened and after waiting for 2 days,

They finally got this letter.

“Read it.”

Riona spoke.

Amaya nodded.

This letter was different than normal, it wasn't 'addressed' to anyone or 'sent' by anyone, it didn't even look like a letter, this was probably done to avoid leaving any evidence.

Anyways, Amaya just shrugged and ignored all these details, methods like these were pretty common, and to be honest, it was just a formality, the two emperors exchanging these letters didn't fear anyone, they didn't care, that is also the reason why they didn't use any codes either. They were just too lazy.

“Phase one failed, those Skyfall Bastards interfered with the war, killing four of my King Stage Cultivators and around 18,000 soldiers. Well, those 18,000 are replaceable, but the King Stage is the problem.

If this goes on, Alcimus would not take action.

I need your help, sent some of your King Stage Cultivators. 7 will do. I will arrange a few and get up to 7 King Stage Cultivators as well.

A 14v10 will be doable.

I think the Skyfall Kingdom bastards would leave the moment they feel threatened, however, there is another matter I am concerned about.

The Woods sent a search party into the Forbidden Region.

I have already dealt with them.

However, this is not a good news, I believe that Alcimus is already suspicious of our actions.

We can't give him more time, so sent your reply and reinforcements as soon as possible.

Since the Skyfall Kingdom interfered first, you don't need a reason to do it anymore.

We need to start Phase two as soon as possible. We cannot delay it any longer.

I am expecting your reply soon.”

Amaya read out the entire letter.

“What is this ‘Phase Two’ he is talking about?” Riona narrowed her eyes and questioned.

“It might be related to the War where the Emperors take part. He wants Alcimus to act, I think what we suspect is true.

He is planning to get rid of Alcimus using the Treaty and I believe they plan to attack Astaria after that.

Of course, we still can't be sure.

It would have been great if that idiot cooperated a little.”

Amaya snorted as she recalled how tightlipped Amletus was.

Riona sighed as well.

“Anyways, we need to report this to Nux soon. Should we visit the Skyfall Kingdom? From what I know, he should wake up tomorrow.” Riona spoke.

Hearing that, Amaya narrowed her eyes, “You seem eager to meet him.”

“Oh c'moon.”

Riona cried. She knew what this crazy girl was thinking about.

‘She is a gone case.’ Riona thought inwardly.

“Whatever.” Amaya snorted.

“So? Are we going?”

“We have to.” Amaya nodded with a serious look on her face.

“What about Alcimus?” Riona questioned.

“Well, he should be making his move soon.”

A small smile appeared on Amaya’s face.

Seeing that smile, a proud look appeared on Riona’s face.

Her daughter was playing a game of chess with the strongest beings in the world acting as its pieces.

‘Heh, as expected of my daughter.’

Chapter 592 I'll Defeat You The Next Time We Spar.

“Huh?”

Lane frowned.

“What happened?”

Thyra questioned.

“He moved.”

Lane spoke as she pointed at Nux.

Thyra frowned. She walked towards Nux's bed.

The others walked here as well.

Compared to the last time Nux had passed out, all the women were a lot calmer, however, excluding Amaya, all of them were still present in the room.

Nux's eyelids moved again.

The women frowned and soon, Nux opened his eyes.

“You are awake,” Lane spoke with a smile on her face.

Nux smiled as well.

“What happened? It has only been 2 days, you woke up a day earlier.”
Ember questioned.

“Hmm?” Nux frowned as well.

“And this time, Astaria needed an entire day to wake up.” Thyra pointed out.

“I did increase my defense stat, is it perhaps related to that?” Nux suggested.

“That might be the case.” Felberta nodded.

The [Blink Fault] description only talked about the backlash one faces after using. It didn't tell anything about how it worked or anything like that. So increased defense stat might have made some changes.

“What if you increase it even further? You might reach a state where you won't pass out at all.”

Thyra suggested.

A wry smile appeared on Nux's face,

“I cannot do that.”

“You already spent all the Blank Points you had.”

Thyra realized. Nux nodded in agreement.

“Anyways, Amaya will arrive here within a few hours.

We also received the Herms letter that he sent to Amletus after killing the search team. It can be used as a proof.” Ember spoke.

“Did we find anything useful in the letter?”

Nux questioned.

Ember shook her head, “We did not. It only confirmed most of our guesses, we didn't find any new information.”

“Rather than something useful, we only got a new deadline,” Felberta commented.

“Huh?” Nux frowned.

“The letter asked for a reply as soon as possible, it was not a problem before, however, we realized that we cannot write a reply because our handwriting is different from Amletus’s,” Felberta explained.

“Huh? Just get anyone to copy the writing.”

“We do not have any documents with Amletus’s writing on it. He destroyed all of them after he became an Emperor.”

“...”

Nux turned silent.

“Well, it’s not like it’s a problem. Alcimus is ready.”

Evane joined the conversation as well.

“Is he now?” Nux smiled.

“Yes, we should get an announcement soon.” Suddenly, Astaria walked into the room and spoke.

“Oh? You are here.” Seeing her, a smile appeared on Nux’s face.

“You did well.” Astaria praised.

“I heard you were unconscious for a whole day.” Nux teased.

“I was.” Astaria didn’t deny.

“It seems like training you was worth it.”

“I still haven’t defeated you yet,” Nux replied.

“You did well enough already, you forced me to use my trump card.”

“Well, I had to use mine as well.”

“ ... ”

Astaria didn't say anything but narrowed her eyes.

Seeing Nux acting like this...

It... angered her.

And this time, it was not in the usual joking manner, she was actually angry. Or rather... she was frustrated.

He was just a little boy whose bones were broken just because she used her Aura to test him a little and now, here he was, fighting her toe to toe and ending the fight with a draw. She even passed out after the fight ended.

This was... frustrating...

She felt weak.

A feeling she has never felt before.

Of course, she was happy that her student was getting stronger, but on the other hand, she felt annoyed as well.

It was a strange mixture of different feelings.

And her annoyance only increased when she sees Nux talking about how he had to use his trump card 'just like her.'

The two of them were not the same.

He was a King Stage Cultivator.

She was an Emperor.

They were different.

Astaria continued to observe Nux, and the man continued to look into her eyes, smiling like he usually does.

Astaria, however, felt something different.

She felt as if Nux already knew what she was thinking but was still smiling at her. It was as if he was mocking her way of thinking.

‘You being an Emperor doesn’t matter, I still drew against you.’

Astaria felt like this was what he was trying to say.

And more she thought about it, the more frustrated she got but at the same time, she also realized something.

Nux was right, the cultivation stage doesn’t matter.

Nux fought her to a draw.

He was now as strong as her.

He was not ‘just a King Stage Cultivator.’ He was her rival. A man standing right next to her. A man she could go all out against without worrying and a man, who might overtake her someday if she is not careful.

Astaria clenched her fists and then, a smile appeared on her face.

“You still failed to defeat me though.”

She commented.

“Heh, I’ll defeat you the next time we spar.”

“You said the same thing before and see the result, you are lying on the bed, while I am standing here.” Astaria chuckled.

“Oh trust me, next time, both of us would be lying on the same bed, Together.”

Nux replied with a playful smile on his face.

“Y-Y-You!”

Astaria stuttered and her cheeks turned a little red.

‘T-This bastard!’

She cursed in her head.

This bastard ruined the serious atmosphere they had created with that stupid joke of his.

Astaria couldn’t help but curse him more and more.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Suddenly, the group heard a knock.

“Who is it?” Nux questioned.

“Lord Nux, I have a letter for Queen Evane.”

Everyone knew where to find Queen Evane.

“Enter.”

Evane ordered as she quickly fixed her expression.

The servant walked in, he quickly passed the letter to Evane and stood still.

“You can leave.”

Evane ordered.

The servant bowed and left.

Evane opened the letter and after reading it for a moment,

She turned towards others,

“It is from the Woods Dynasty.

They are calling for the Emperors' Meet."

Chapter 593 We Have To Go To The Emperors' Meet

A man with wrinkles on his face was sitting in a cross-legged position inside what looked like a cave, he looked in his 50s, however, even after that, his build was muscular and the energy radiating from this man was fearsome. He had black-white hair, brown eyes, thin eyebrows, and an overall well-structured face. Even though he looked old, he still looked quite handsome.

*Rustle* *Rustle* *Rustle*

“Huh?”

The man opened his eyes and frowned. He glanced outside the cave and his frown deepened,

“It is still afternoon, no beast should come near this area at this time. Humans? Is it another search party?”

The man’s face turned grim.

This was a problem.

He had just eradicated a Search Party sent by the Woods a few days ago, for another party to be here again, it was definitely not a good sign.

‘Did they realize that the one who killed the search party was not the beast but me? Did I not completely eradicate the party?’

The man thought inwardly, soon, however, he shook his head, denying his own reasoning.

‘This is not possible, I did not detect anyone. There is no way they would send someone who can escape from my detection here. But then why is another search party here?’

The man started thinking again.

*Rustle* *Rustle* *Rustle*

Soon, however, he heard the voice again,

‘Whatever. I just need to kill all of them again.’

A cold glint shone in the man’s eyes, he quickly walked out of his cave and rushed to the direction he heard the sound from.

Rather than a Search Party consisting of around 100 people like he expected, the man only found a single man walking towards his cave. The man wore green clothes that would help him avoid many beasts on his way here, there was a particular insignia embedded on the man’s clothes, an insignia that the old man realized very well.

The old man appeared in front of the man.

The man was surprised at first, however, soon, he recollected himself and knelt.

“Lord Herms.”

The man greeted.

The old man, or Herms Lizander nodded and then questioned,

“Why are you here?”

“We received a letter from the Woods Dynasty 2 days ago. The King wants you to see the letter.” The man did not waste any time and quickly passed the letter to Herms.

Herms started reading the letter and after he was done reading, a solemn look appeared on his face,

“An Emperors’ Meet? Right now?”

A frown appeared on his face. Soon, however, his face turned expressionless again and he turned toward the servant,

“You can leave now.”

The servant nodded and walked away.

After the servant was out of sight, Herms disappeared as well.

He was rushing towards the Royal Palace.

...

A few hours later, inside the Royal Palace of the Solid Earth Kingdom, Herms walked into a particular room where a black-haired man was cultivating.

Sensing his presence, the man opened his eyes.

Just like Herms, this man had Black colored hair, however, his eye color was different from Herms, he had green-colored eyes, a thin nose, and an attractive face.

“Father, I have been expecting you.”

The man spoke with a smile on his face. He was Herms son, Roone Lizander.

Herms nodded and then questioned,

“What’s with this Emperors’ Meet? What happened?”

Roone, however, shook his head, “I do not know, it seems that the Woods are suspicious of us.”

Herms frowned.

Roone's smile then widened as he spoke,

“Phase one has failed father, I believe it is now time to directly start Phase two. We should not waste any more time.”

He looked rather delighted when he said those words.

“Silence.”

Herms raised his voice.

“Do not be impatient, not everything is ruined yet. Everything seed needs time to sprout, give it some time.

For now, ignore this letter, we will delay it for as long as it is possible, I'll personally meet Amletus and discuss our next move.”

Herms spoke.

“We cannot do that, father.”

Roone, however, shook his head.

“What do you mean?”

“Both the Skadi Kingdom and the Skyfall Kingdom have agreed to the meeting, according to the rules, if 3 out of 4 Nations agree to the Emperors' Meet, the 4th Nation has to agree to it as well and have to give out their reply within 2 days.

I was forced to agree to the Meeting as well.”

Saying all that, a letter appeared on Roone's hands and he passed it to Herms,

“The Meet's date has already been decided, it is exactly a week later.”

Herms took the letter and his face turned solemn.

“Not every seed sprouts, father. It is pointless to plan any further.”

“Why did that Amletus bastard agree?” Herms questioned.

“I do not know, maybe he decided to betray us? I expected nothing less from a coward like him though. Since he saw that the First Phase has failed, he thought that it would be a tough fight so decided to act ignorant and stay out of it.”

Roone just shrugged.

“He cannot do that.”

Herms, however, shook his head.

“C’mon father, are you really putting your trust in a coward like him?”
Roone couldn’t help but question.

“I trust him because he is a coward. No matter what happens, he won’t dare to betray us. He knows what would happen if he does.

Something is wrong here.”

Herms replied.

“Father.”

Suddenly, Roone called.

Herms glanced at his son and Roone continued,

“It doesn’t matter. Whatever that idiot is thinking, I do not care, let’s just go and hear what that Alcimus idiot has to say. If it is something manageable, we will continue with Phase one, if he makes it impossible to do so, then we will shift to Phase two, it is as simple as that.

We do not have to overcomplicate anything.

Remember, we are the stronger ones here.”

Herms narrowed his eyes and after thinking for a while, he ordered,

“Alright.”

Roone smiled.

“However,” Herms suddenly pointed at Roone and ordered,

“You are not going with me.”

“Why?”

“You already know it.

You are my trump card. There is no way I would allow you to reveal yourself so quickly.”

Chapter 594 Wait! L-Leander?

Inside a room, Alcimus and Ellinger sat with solemn looks on their faces. There were a few servants around them as well, however, all those servants had lowered their heads and didn't dare to say a single word.

“It is about time.”

Ellinger spoke.

“...”

Alcimus didn't say anything and just nodded.

The two of them didn't have to wait for long, the doors of the room opened and a beautiful woman walked in.

The woman had dark brown hair, sword-like eyebrows, a thin nose and a beautiful face, however, even though she was a rare beauty, no one inside the room dared to look at her face for more than an appropriate time. Heck, the weak-willed wouldn't even dare to look at her for even a second, that was just how scary the aura she unconsciously released was.

“Your face is still as scary as always, Astaria.”

Alcimus commented.

Astaria glanced at Alcimus and narrowed her eyes,

“Of course, I am not saying you are ugly or something like that, I am not blind, you are definitely one of the most beautiful women I know, though I will say, that strict expression of yours makes you look quite scary.”

Alcimus laughed.

“Is that so?”

A smile appeared on Astaria's face.

Seeing that smile, Alcimus was taken aback.

Was this normal Astaria?

He wondered in his head.

If it was before, Astaria would have simply ignored him and would have walked towards her chair.

'Is it because we are allies now?'

Alcimus wondered inwardly.

He had received a letter from Astaria before the meeting.

'The Skadi's and Solid Earth Kingdom are allies, if things go out of proportion, then just like I promised, I would deal with Amletus, however, you would have to deal with Herms yourself.'

'Heh, being allies with the strongest human in the world definitely feels different.'

Alcimus thought inwardly.

While he was thinking all this, Astaria walked towards her seat and sat down.

Alcimus's eyes then finally fell on the masked man who was following Astaria and he commented,

"I expected to see Queen Evane today."

"She is a little busy with a few things."

Astaria replied.

"Ah, I understand."

Alcimus nodded, however, inwardly, he couldn't help but frown,

'Busy? What could be more important than a meeting where the strongest beings in the world meet each other?'

Of course, he didn't voice these thoughts and brought his attention back to the man who was following Astaria.

The man had black colored hair and very rare golden eyes that looked as if they had some sort of hypnotic magic inside them. Even though the man's face was not completely visible and half of the part from the nose to the neck was covered with the mask, Alcimus could tell from just his eyes and eyebrows that this man was handsome and young.

What was even more surprising was that this man was a King Stage Cultivator!

A young King Stage Cultivator!

Alcimus couldn't hold back his curiosity and questioned,

"Who could this man be?"

"He is my student, Nux Leander," Astaria replied with a small smile on her face.

"Your student?" Alcimus's expression changed.

The student of the strongest human in the world.

"Wait! L-Leander?"

Ellinger, who stayed silent till now couldn't help but react.

Alcimus frowned at this behavior, however, as he heard the name 'Leander' again, he quickly recalled something as well,

"2 of the nine King Stage Cultivators that the Skyfall Kingdom sent as reinforcement had the last name Leander as well..."

Are they and your student perhaps connected to each other?”

Alcimus questioned.

“Oh?”

An interested smile appeared on Astaria’s face as she turned towards this student of hers.

“It seems your name is quite popular, boy.”

“What can I do, they are just that good. People can’t help but remember the impact they leave around.”

Nux shrugged as well.

Then, he turned towards Alcimus and replied,

“Yes, they are my wives.

All 9 of them.”

“WHAT!?”

Alcimus and Ellinger couldn’t control themselves and stood up with shocked looks on their faces.

Nux just smiled.

“N-N-Nine wives?”

Ellinger couldn’t help but stutter.

Nux frowned, “What happened? I heard Dynast Ellinger has around 20 wives as well, doesn’t he? Why are you acting so surprised?”

“...”

Ellinger didn’t know how to reply.

'20 wives my ass! Even 1000 wives would compare to the 9 you have! All your wives are King Stage Cultivators! How in the hell did you even find them!'

He couldn't help but shout in his head.

If it wasn't for people around them, he would have rushed towards this man and would have placed his head on the ground to beg for 'the way'. The way to woo so many beautiful women.

He has seen those women before, and though they wore masks, he could still tell that all of them were exceptional beauties, especially the woman named Amaya Leander, he had never seen a woman as beautiful as her.

And Beauty was not the only thing.

Ellinger had heard this from the soldiers.

Those 9 women alone took out most of the Solid Earth Soldiers, all the soldiers only helped with the clean-ups.

No normal King Stage Cultivators could do something like that.

Those women were all monsters.

And the man who convinced those monstrous women to be his wives...

Ellinger couldn't help but think how fearsome this man could be.

Let alone Ellinger, even Alcimus was looking at Nux with a surprised expression on his face.

"Hoh? The atmosphere here seems quite lively."

Suddenly, everyone present in the room heard a voice.

They all turned around and saw an old man walking in.

He was Herms Lizander, he was followed by a normal King Stage servant and quickly walked towards his chair.

“Tsk, I purposefully came a few minutes later to act like a main character, but I think Amletus would be taking that role.

I can’t believe he is so late.”

Herms shook his head and sighed, he then turned towards Alcimus and smiled,

“So Alcimus? I heard my Kingdom gave quite a trouble to your dynasty? Don’t worry though, I already gave an earful to that silly child.

Hahaha~ He was just playing around because he was a little bored.

He didn’t think he would cause you so much trouble just by playing around, I apologize on his behalf.”

Chapter 595 Polite Greetings.

“So Alcius? I heard my Kingdom gave quite a trouble to your dynasty? Don't worry though, I already gave an earful to that silly child.

Hahaha~ He was just playing around because he was a little bored.

He didn't think he would cause you so much trouble just by playing around, I apologize on his behalf.”

Herms spoke with a small smile on his face.

Alcius narrowed his eyes.

Although Herms was apologizing, even a child could tell that he was being sarcastic.

Rather than apologizing, he was making fun of Alcius, saying that his child, the King of the Solid Earth Kingdom made trouble for the Woods Dynasty just by playing around.

He was indirectly calling the Woods Dynasty weak.

“Mhm, I apologize as well, we shouldn't have taken this little prank of yours so seriously, you lost 4 King Stage Cultivators, saddening indeed.”

Alcius replied with a small smile on his face.

“That's true, you guys took it this little prank so seriously that you even begged the Skyfall Kingdom to help you. That was indeed something I did not expect, but I guess the situation did get a little desperate for you.”

Herms replied.

The two old men were smiling at each other, however, the words they spoke were filled with thorns.

Nux couldn't help but scrunch his nose.

The scene was quite disgusting to see.

He then glanced at Astaria, the woman seemed to be enjoying this little war, it looked like she was only missing popcorn and a soda, if she had that, she would simply sit back on her seat, seeing this, Nux sighed and shook his head.

“Hmmm? Why am I getting a feeling that you are salty about the Skyfall Kingdom helping us?” Alcimus frowned.

“I mean, all of us know the Solid Earth Kingdom and the Skadi's are quite close. They didn't help you? Is there some sort of problem between the two of you?”

Alcimus questioned.

“Of course not. They knew we don't need help for something little like that, that's why they didn't make a move.”

Herms just smiled.

“Oh? It didn't look like that. From what I heard, the soldiers you sent ran away quite desperately.”

Alcimus smiled.

And when he saw the frown that had appeared on Herms's face, his smile widened.

He was definitely winning this battle,

“Well, what can I do? Our men just didn't expect your soldiers to be so strong, of course, it was only after a few days passed by did we realize that we were indeed correct.

It was not your soldiers that were strong, they were weak as usual, your kingdom just begged for help.”

Herms replied and Alcius narrowed his eyes.

His expression was now unsightly, however, he quickly controlled his emotions,

“It was no-”

However, before Alcius could complete his sentence, the doors of the room opened again and Riona and Eardwolf walked in.

Seeing them walking into the room, Alcius and Herms, both frowned and turned toward Riona,

“Why is Amletus not here?”

The two of them completely ignored Eardwolf, but it wasn't their fault either. The way Riona carried herself far exceeded Eardwolf, any sane person would think she was the actual reader there.

Of course, the two Emperors knew that it wasn't actually the case and the real King was Eardwolf, but honestly, they couldn't care less about foolish things like this.

Eardwolf knew that, therefore, he didn't react.

Not that he could have reacted anyway.

“Lord Amletus is sick. He cannot come.”

Riona walked into the room, sat on Amletus's seat, and replied calmly.

“You know the consequences of not attending the Emperor's Meet, correct?”

“The Skadi Kingdom will pay the price,” Riona replied.

At the same time, she glanced at Herms.

The old man frowned, Riona suddenly closed her eyes, then she glanced at Alcimus.

Herms understood.

An Emperor not attending the Emperors' Meet, the price a Nation has to pay for rejecting to join the Emperors' meet was very heavy, even the 4 Largest Nations couldn't afford it without seeing a decent fall in their treasury.

In truth, the treasury was the least of their problem.

The matters with Emperors involved are usually hidden behind many layers.

If an Emperor does not join the Emperors' Meet, the other Nations would automatically believe that the Emperor has passed away and now that Nation does not have a protector.

It could be catastrophic for any nation.

Therefore, an Emperor not joining the Emperors' Meet has never happened before.

Herms already realized that Amletus was acting strangely, he hadn't even replied to the letter he sent him before.

He already had some sort of inkling, however, with Riona's confirmation, he was now sure.

Amletus was killed.

And the culprit was this Alcimus bastard.

Of course, it was a grave offense, however, proving it was another task.

With their protector gone, the Skadis have lost their value.

Although Riona, the Skadi's representative was sitting here, this meeting was now between the 3 Nations only.

There is a high chance that the Skyfall Kingdom and the Woods Dynasty are allies.

Without Skadi, the Solid Earth Kingdom is left alone.

There is no way Herms can prove that Alcimus killed Amletus when the judges are not on his side.

Herms's expression turned solemn.

He glanced at both Alcimus and Astaria.

Astaria still looked as unbothered as ever, Alcimus on the other hand, had a frown on his face as well.

'Heh, to think he would continue this little act even now.'

Herms's expression turned cold.

Seeing the change in his expression, Riona smiled inwardly.

'It is done.'

She did what she was here for.

Now all she has to do is protect herself.

Nux smiled, seeing him, Astaria placed her hands on the table and spoke,

"Alright, since everyone is here, let us not waste any more time and start the 104th Emperors' Meet."

The others turned serious as well.

Astaria then turned towards Alcimus and questioned,

“Alcimus Woods, you were the one who is hosting this Meet, I would let you take the initiative.”

Astaria’s signal was clear,

Start with whatever you have prepared.

Alcimus’s expression changed as he nodded and then glanced at Herms.

Chapter 596 You Dare!?

“Herms Lizander has broken the Peace Treaty.”

Alcimus glanced at Herms and spoke.

Herms’s expression changed. He quickly turned his head towards Astaria to see her reaction and noticed that woman had narrowed her eyes in doubt,

“What do you mean?”

Astaria questioned.

“In the recent war between the Solid Earth Kingdom and the Woods Dynasty, Herms broke the treaty as he actively took part in it.”

“Tha-”

Herms was about to answer, however, before he could, Astaria questioned back,

“What the hell are you talking about? My people themselves took part in the war. Do you think anyone would have survived if an Emperor made a move himself?”

Hearing this question, Herms’s expression changed again.

‘Weren’t those two allies? Why is she going after him?’

He then turned towards Alcimus to see his reaction, however, seeing him not reacting much, he realized that it might be true.

The Woods and the Skyfall are not allies.

A ray of hope rose up in Herms’s eyes.

“I know that of course. If he actually participated himself, the war wouldn't last this long and we would all know about it, however, that's where he played smart.”

“Alcimus.”

Suddenly, Astaria called out.

“Stop fooling around. The Allegations you are talking about are very serious and you know it as well. It is not something you can joke about. Stop going around in circles and say what you want to say.”

Astaria spoke with a serious look on her face.

“Do you remember the 4 Generals that the reinforcements you sent killed?”

“Yes, I did hear that.”

Astaria nodded.

Alcimus then waved his hand and the Heads of those 4 Generals appeared on the ground.

“The 4 of them don't even belong to the Solid Earth Kingdom. I investigated and found out that these 3 are from 3 different clans while this man is a part of an Adventurers Party. We already know, people like them never involve themselves with the Kingdom's affairs.

Herms used his influence to recruit them and was making use of them.”

Alcimus explained and this time, Astaria turned towards Herms.

She wasn't going to keep defending him again and again.

She was not on Herms's side after all.

“Do you have anything to say about this?” Astaria questioned.

“This is bullshit.” Herms's stance was clear.

“Making up things like these is simple, yes, they were part of the Clans and a Party, so what? They came to my child and seeing their strength, he recruited them. The Treaty never stopped the Kingdoms from recruiting people.”

Herms shrugged.

“That is true. You need more solid proof to prove your statement, Alcius.”

Astaria nodded.

“This is useless, I can also kill a Clan Member and then say he was recruited by you into the Skyfall Kingdom and that you broke the treaty, all I have to do is threaten the clan leader. It is very simple for us, and you know it as well.”

Herms replied.

His point was clear.

“...”

Astaria didn't say anything either.

Herms words made sense.

Seeing her reaction, a smile appeared on Herms's face, he knew it, he had won this battle, now no matter what Alcius did, converting it into definite proof without papers would be useless, and the best part was,

He never signed any paper when he recruited those idiots, overwhelming all of them with his Aura was enough.

Alcius would never be able to get proof. Herms glanced at Alcius to see his expression, however, a frown appeared on his face when he saw him sitting with a smile on his face.

“Heh. I knew you would make all this bullshit up.”

Alcimus commented.

“What are you talking about?”

Herms’s expression turned cold.

“Nothing, I am just saying that I was already prepared for it.”

“What do you mean?”

*Clap* *Clap*

With a smile on his face, Alcimus clapped two times, then a man walked into the room.

The man who Herms knew very well.

“I am sure you recognize him, right?”

Alcimus questioned.

“What are you doing here?”

Herms ignored the questioned and turned towards the man. Trying to intimidate him with his aura, however, before his aura could affect the man, Astaria’s Aura overwhelmed Herms and his aura was dispersed.

“This is not a place you can play around, Herms.”

Astaria spoke with a cold look on her face.

Herms was taken aback.

This woman was stronger compared to the last time he saw her.

He narrowed his eyes.

“Now let me introduce this man.”

Herms didn't waste this opportunity.

“He is General Armando, the General of the Solid Earth Kingdom. Let's hear what he has to say, shall we?”

Alcimus nodded at Armando, the General nodded back, and then, he started,

“What Lord Alcimus said was true. Lord Herms indeed...”

He started stating everything Herms did, which was clearly breaking the treaty, the more he heard, the more Herms's expression distorted. He glanced at Astaria and her expression was turning colder with every passing moment as well.

The situation was not good, it was actually the worse.

“He als-”

“Stop it!”

Armando wanted to continue, however, Herms ordered.

“He is being threatened. Alcimus must be threatening him.”

He spoke. Then he glanced at Armando and narrowed his eyes,

“Right, Armando?”

There was a little threat hidden here.

Armando's legs turned weak, however, soon, he glanced at Nux, and recalling the pain of the Slave Seal, he quickly controlled himself.

He cannot mess up here.

Even if he has to die.

Anything was better than that hellish pain.

Death was just a release from that hell.

“I am standing in front of 3 Emperors, I am smart enough to know that no one can threaten me here. What I am saying is absolute truth and Lord Herms, you know it as well.”

Armando, though scared, still replied to Herms without holding back.

“You dare!?”

This time, Herms failed to hold himself back, he quickly rushed towards Armando, but before he could do anything, Alcimus appeared in front of Armando and defended him.

“Lady Astaria, do you need any more proves?”

Chapter 597 Did You Really Think A Weakling Like You Could Defeat Me?

“Lady Astaria, do you need any more proves?”

Alcimus questioned with a smile on his face as he blocked Herms’s attack.

“For him to act so irrationally, things must have gone out of his expectation. It is now as clear as day, he broke the treat-”

Before Alcimus could complete his sentence, Herms shouted,

“Of course, things have gone out of my expectation! I never thought you would plan everything so thoroughly, I never thought Armando, the General I trusted would betray me and my Kingdom like this and lie in front of everyone!”

Herms then turned towards Astaria and,

“Astaria! This bastard is lying! He had forged everything on his, it must be his way of taking revenge against my Kingdom because his Army couldn’t do anything agai-”

Before Herms could complete, He was sent flying.

*Bam*

“Khhoocckhh!”

His body clashed with the wall, the wall broke and Herms coughed out blood.

Alcimus punched him out of nowhere, he was unable to use Mana to defend himself.

That's not it, Alcimus also used his own Mana instead of surrounding Mana so as to not alert Herms, therefore, the punch was stronger than normal.

Herms was definitely hurt.

*Cough* *Cough*

Alcimus coughed again, he removed the debris covering his body and glared at Alcimus with an angry look on his face.

“You dare attack me sneakily!?”

However, instead of replying, Alcimus disappeared and appeared near Herms and kicked his face.

This time, however, Herms was prepared, he quickly used his Mana to defend, however, Alcimus's attack was still much more impactful.

His body was sent flying away.

However, Herms quickly recollected himself and stood up.

He understood what Alcimus wanted.

Alcimus appeared in front of him again and punched, he defended the attack and then aimed at Alcimus's face.

Alcimus dodged and then kicked Herms away.

“Heeh? He is stronger compared to the last time I met him.”

Astaria, who was watching the fight with an interested look on his face commented.

“Alcimus?” Nux, who was standing beside her questioned.

“Mhm.”

Nux couldn't help but frown.

“I don't see much difference.”

[Name: Alcimus Skadi.]

[Talent: Exceptional]

[LVL: 70]

...

Nux used [Eye of Discerning] on both men who were currently fighting each other, and just like what happened with Astaria, he failed to see anything useful.

All he could see was that both of them were Level 70, which was quite strange because Astaria, the strongest human was also Level 70.

Why is she the strongest human then?

Nux wondered inwardly.

And as if she heard what he was thinking, Astaria started explaining.

“When one becomes an Emperor, his ability is judged by how great his control over Mana is. When it comes to physical abilities, all of us emperors are pretty much the same, it is the control over Mana that makes us different from each other.

Alcimus’s control over his Mana has gotten better compared to the last time I saw him, therefore, he is a lot stronger than before now.”

“Does that mean Herms will lose?”

Nux questioned.

For some reason, he felt that things wouldn’t be this simple.

And from the looks of it, Astaria had the same thought as well,

“Of course not.”

She replied.

Nux narrowed his eyes, wanting further explanation.

“Herms isn’t called the second strongest human without a reason, keep in mind, before me, he was the one who held the title of the strongest human.

Alcimus may be strong enough to fight him for now, but that is only because he was the one who dealt the first blow sneakily.

Of course, the current situation may look advantageous for Alcimus, but,”

Suddenly, Astaria turned silent.

Nux frowned and Astaria pointed towards the battlefield.

Nux turned around and quickly noticed that Herms had grabbed Alcimus’s hand,

“Did you really think a weakling like you could defeat me?”

“We won’t know until we try.”

Alcimus used force to free his hand and then jumped back.

An evil smile appeared on Herms’s bloody face,

“Don’t fool yourself, Alcimus. We already know who is stronger between the two of us. You wouldn’t have used the sneak attack if you didn’t know.”

“Shut your trap.”

Alcimus didn’t care about anything and rushed towards Herms.

He was called the third strongest human, a glorified title, however, in truth, he was the second weakest among the 4 Emperors.

This was shameful.

And today, Alcimus was planning to wash this shame with Herms’s blood.

His sword appeared in his hand, he quickly appeared in front of Herms, however, soon, a Great Sword appeared in Herms’s hand and he defended the attack.

“Hah~ A coward like you has gained some confidence. Good.”

Herms laughed, then, his smile widened as he spoke with a crazy look on his face.

“Now let me step on that confidence of yours and destroy it.”

He then rushed towards Alcimus and attacked.

Alcimus blocked, however, anyone could see that he was having trouble defending against Herms’s attack.

Herms’s base strength was higher than all the emperors, even Astaria.

When he used Mana to raise this strength to the next level, he became even stronger.

Defending against his attacks was not simple, especially when he attacks continuously like a crazy man.

Herms’s fighting style was rough, which, many wouldn’t believe after seeing his refined attack.

It is as if his personality changes the moment he starts fighting, of course, this side of him was seen very rarely.

*Clang* *Clang* *Clang*

“Hahaha~ how long are you going to keep defending?”

Herms laughed.

Alcimus’s face turned solemn, however, suddenly, a small smile appeared on his face.

*Whoosh*

An arrow aimed at Herms’s shoulder, the man only managed to reflect it when it was just about to hit him.

Herms’s expression changed.

He turned towards the direction the arrow came from and soon, his expression changed.

He was surrounded.

Volume 7

Chapter 598 L, Herms Lysander, Declare War.

Herms looked around him with a cautious look on his face.

The people who surrounded him were not really strong, there were only 3 King Stage Cultivators, 18 Expert Stage Cultivators, and he didn't really care about the others. Of course, he could also sense around 20 or so archers hiding in the corner.

If it was a normal situation, Herms could have simply annihilated all these bastards.

However, right now, Alcimus was standing in front of him.

With him and more than 200 Soldiers that had surrounded him, winning this fight was next to impossible.

Even if he was an Emperor, he was not a god.

The odds were not in his favor at all.

Alcimus was using numbers to make up for the lack of his powers.

Herms's expression turned solemn.

He then glanced at Astaria and seeing that she is still sitting on her seat, he knew that she had no intention of helping.

He could understand her reasoning as well, him and Alcimus fighting against each other is beneficial for her, it makes no sense for her to put her nose into their business.

Riona and Eardwolf were the same, well, it was not like they could actually do anything about this situation, they had already stepped back when he and Alcimus started fighting.

Herm's glanced back at Alcimus.

“Do you really want to do this?”

“Heh. What? Scared?” Alcimus laughed.

Herm's expression turned solemn,

“You know how this would end up right? I can easily escape from here, then, it will be a war.”

Herm's threatened, then without giving Alcimus any time, he continued,

“And you, Astaria, it may look like you would simply be able to reap the rewards later, do you really think this war wouldn't affect you?

Aren't you forgetting something?”

Herm's questioned.

Astaria narrowed her eyes.

“The Mythical Creature. It won't sit idly if the two of us fight, who will guarantee that it won't kill the last remaining Emperor to avoid the unbalance between the Kingdoms?”

It was clear, Herm's was indirectly threatening Astaria.

He was asking her to stop this.

It seemed that even he didn't want war, at least not now.

“Stop with the bullshit.”

Suddenly, Alcimus spoke.

Then, he threw a paper at Herm's.

Herms picked up the paper and soon, his expression changed.

“It is the letter you sent to Amletus. The search party I sent into the Forbidden Region was annihilated by you, that creature is already dead.

Your lies won't work on me any longer, Herms.”

Alcimus spoke.

Hearing this news, Astaria's eyes widened.

“What did you say?” She questioned.

It was the first time this expression appeared on her face.

She really was taken aback by this shocking news.

Seeing her acting like that, Nux couldn't help but smile inwardly. He didn't expect Astaria to be so natural when it came to acting. She was just a few steps behind him.

“T-The Mythical C-Creature is dead?”

Riona couldn't believe it as well.

Herms's face turned serious.

He noticed Riona's and Eardwolf's reactions, and from their shocked looks, it looked like they didn't know about the letter.

This Alcimus bastard must have gotten it when he killed Amletus.

The only thing Herms couldn't understand was why did the Skadi Kingdom stay silent when their Emperor was killed.

Anyway, right now, none of that mattered.

The cat was out of the bag.

He could go on about how Alcimus forged this letter and all that, however, with Armando standing next to Alcimus, and how he himself reacted, Alcimus knew that this situation was not savable now.

Astaria wasn't a fool.

Someone like her could easily put 2 and 2 together and uncover the truth.

“Herms. What is the meaning of this?”

Suddenly, Astaria questioned with a solemn look on her face.

Herms's expression turned cold.

Just as he expected, Astaria was now completely against it.

‘Heh. He was right. Not everything goes as planned.’

Herms thought inwardly, then, he decided to abandon his idea of resisting it any longer.

Phase one, was now over.

Herms glanced at Astaria, then he turned towards Alcimus and warned,

“I will remember this day, Alcimus.

I will make sure you regret it.

Especially you, traitor.”

Armando's legs turned weak as he kneeled on the ground. His face was as pale as paper.

However, nobody cared about his condition because of Herms's next words,

“I, Herms Lysander, declare war on both Skyfall Kingdom and the Woods Dynasty, Astaria and Alcimus, in these last 2 weeks, give goodbyes to your close ones and prepare your neck to be cut by my sword.

I will be the sole ruler of this continent after all this is done.”

Saying those words, Herms ran away.

Alcimus wanted to chase and kill him right now, Astaria, however, didn't move.

“Shouldn't we kill him right now before he creates more trouble?”

“It is not that simple.”

Nux, however, shook his head.

“What do you mean?” Alcimus frowned.

“He will lead us to his territory, there, we will be the ones who will be surrounded,” Nux replied.

Alcimus turned silent.

“Well, it doesn't really matter.”

Nux stretched his body, then, his face turned serious and his eyes shined,

“If it's the war he wants,

The war, he will get.”

An air of confidence surrounded Nux.

Seeing him acting like that, Alcimus frowned. He had a lot to say, however, he held himself back. Eliyard, however, wasn't the same.

“How dare you talk in between when two Emperors are talking with each other?”

Nux turned towards Eliyard,

“You really are a useless fool, just like Amaya and Ember said.”

“H-Huh? L-Lady Amaya?”

Eliyard’s expression changed.

Ember, he understood, that woman didn’t have a good impression of him in her mind, however, he was pretty sure he hadn’t done anything that would disappoint Lady Amaya.

Eliyard started thinking.

Amaya was a woman he cared about a lot, after all.

“Oh? Does this man have a crush on my lovely daughter?” Suddenly, Riona commented.

“Huh?” Elliyard’s expression changed.

“Your daughter?”

“What? You didn’t know?” Riona smiled and Elliyard’s and Alcius’s expressions changed.

They finally realized who this ‘Lady Amaya’ was!

“Wait...”

Alcius suddenly spoke.

He glanced at Riona, then he glanced at Astaria,

And an absurd possibility cooked up in his mind.

Chapter 599 L ... L Have A Question.

“Wait...”

Suddenly, Alcimus’s expression changed.

“Amaya Leander... is she the daughter you sol- I mean, who married into the Skyfall Kingdom, Amaya Skadi?”

Alcimus questioned.

Riona nodded.

She wanted to say something about what Alcimus said, however, in the end, she knew that he was correct. She couldn’t refute it.

Of course, none of that mattered now.

Everything was fine now.

“B-B-But wasn’t she married to-”

Unlike Riona, Alcimus, however, was now even more confused, he had a lot of questions in his mind and just as he was about to voice out his thoughts,

“Aren’t you a little too interested in matters of my household?”

Nux interrupted.

Alcimus glanced at Nux and narrowed his eyes.

Nux looked into his eyes as well.

Alcimus didn't like that gaze.

No matter what, he was still an Emperor.

He might respect Astaria, however, that didn't mean she was superior to her. For her disciple to act so disrespectfully in front of him,

He couldn't allow that.

However, just as he was about to use his Aura to overwhelm Nux,

“Don't try that.”

Nux warned.

Alcimus frowned.

‘Did he just predict what I was about to do?’

He wondered inwardly.

He wanted to deny this possibility, however, Nux's timing was too accurate...

No matter how much he tried, Alcimus couldn't believe that it was a fluke.

And as if confirming his doubts, Astaria spoke up.

“I won't take a normal man as my student, Alcimus.

Arvina was different, I only took her in because I liked her attitude and was bored.

You can say that he is my real student.”

Alcimus realized it.

Nux was indeed not normal.

No wonder 9 King Stage Women, including that General of his Dynasty, agreed to become his.

However,

“Your disciple lacks manners.”

He still couldn't allow this boy to disrespect him. He wanted an apology.

“You wouldn't like it if I asked too many questions about your personal life, would you?”

However, contrary to his expectation, Astaria stood on Nux's side.

“...”

Alcimus turned silent.

He knew he was wrong, but...

“Alright, let's not waste time on this. We have a War to prepare for.”

Nux spoke up.

In the end, Alcimus had to let go.

He still needed Skyfall Kingdom's help here after all.

He had already lost 2 of his Generals, and then 2 more King Stage Cultivators in the Search Party he sent to the Bloodhill Wilderness.

The losses that the Woods Dynasty had taken were not light.

Even if he could face Herms, the chances of his army fighting against the Solid Earth Army... they were low.

Not to mention that after Amletus was gone and with Amaya being Nux's wife, the Skadi's were now strong allies of the Skyfall Kingdom.

The current Skyfall Kingdom was too strong and was not something he should go against for a stupid reason like this.

“Alright. I will start preparing.” Alcimus spoke.

Nux smiled and then he nodded,

“We will do the same.”

Alcimus nodded,

“Alright, we will be taking out leave now.”

Saying those words, Nux turned around, Astaria followed, Riona and Eardwolf were the same.

Alcimus had different thoughts in his mind when he saw these 4 people leaving, but in the end, he didn't say anything and just continued to watch these people as they left.

“Call all the soldiers,

Prepare the army,

This will now be a deciding war.

I'll personally take the role of the General.”

Alcimus announced.

Eliyard nodded and quickly took the action.

...

On the other hand, Nux, Astaria, Riona, and Eardwolf walked out of the palace, and instead of walking toward their respective Kingdoms, all of them continued to move together.

3 Hours later, they walked into a certain spot, in front of them stood 41 King Stage Cultivators. They were the reinforcement that was ready to act the moment something bad happened.

20 of these King Stage Cultivators came from the Skyfall Kingdom alone.

12 of them were from the Skadi Kingdom.

As for the remaining 9.

Well, all of them walked forward and removed their masks.

“Did you find anything?”

Amaya questioned.

Riona, however, shook her head.

It was a failed trial.

Yes, this whole Emperors’ Meet.

All of it was a Trial.

They already knew the Creature was dead and Herms was planning something. Alcimus was already on their side, Amletus was dead, and they didn’t have to convince anyone.

All of this was just a farce.

A farce that was planned by Riona.

Yes, not Amaya, this time, it was Riona.

After learning everything, Riona noticed something that even Amaya failed to notice.

According to their theory, Herms’s plan was to get rid of Herms using the Treaty, then he and Amletus would team up and go after Astaria.

It was a good and executable plan.

However, something bothered Riona.

What would happen after Astaria was killed?

Would Amletus and Herms divide whatever they won amongst them?

For some reason, Riona believed that it was highly unlikely.

She suspected that Herms was hiding something.

Something that he would use to deal with Amletus and then rule the continent alone.

Of course, it was just a theory, however, the more she thought about it, the more loopholes she found.

Amletus was not an idiot.

Even Amaya failed to get answers out of his mouth and they were forced to kill him.

She didn't think Amletus would be fooled so easily.

Then why did he agree to this plan?

Something was definitely a miss.

Therefore, she planned this entire farce, trying to push Herms to the corner, forcing him to reveal his final card.

However, in the end, it ended up as a failure.

Herms didn't reveal anything.

"I... I have a question."

Suddenly, Eardwolf spoke up.

“Huh?”

Riona frowned.

This fatty was not allowed to speak?

How dare he open his mouth here?

Riona was annoyed, however, noticing that the Slave Seal's pain didn't start, Riona realized that he was not thinking about something bad and allowed him to speak,

“What is it?”

“We had 2 Emperors on our side while Lord Herms was alone.

Why didn't we kill him?

Even if he had some sort of trump card, with 1 Emperor less, wouldn't this war have been a lot easier?”

Chapter 600 The First Real War.

“We had 2 Emperors on our side while Lord Herms was alone.

Why didn't we kill him?

Even if he had some sort of trump card, with 1 Emperor less, wouldn't this war have been a lot easier?”

Eardwolf questioned with a confused look on his face.

In all honesty, after going through the [Slave Seal]'s pain 3 times, he had given up on all thoughts of resistance and has accepted his fate.

However, this didn't mean that he actually cared about Riona's or Nux's well-being. The only person he cared about was himself.

If Nux and Riona won the war, he would be able to live on as well. He didn't know how good his life would be now that he is a slave, however, as long as he gets to live, he wouldn't complain about anything.

Eardwolf was very scared of death.

Therefore, he deeply wished for Nux's victory's in this war.

Hearing his question, Riona's expression changed.

Then, she just sighed,

“What did I even expect...?”

She lamented.

“What?”

Eardwolf frowned.

He couldn't understand.

His question was genuine. Why was Riona acting like that?

Seeing the doubtful look on his face, Riona frowned and then questioned back,

“If you have 2 King Stage Cultivators on your side, would you be able to stop the enemy King Stage Cultivator from running away?”

Eardwolf's expression changed.

“Lady Astaria is strong, combined with Lord Alcius, defeating Herms would not be difficult, however, killing him would be a different story. If Herms focuses on running away, even Lady Astaria wouldn't be able to stop him.”

Riona explained and Eardwolf nodded in understanding.

Of course, they could injure him a little, but honestly, it wasn't worth the effort.

Actually, it was not like they couldn't kill Herms.

They had a way.

They had a sure-shot way to get rid of Herms once and for all.

And that was Nux.

His current trump card, [Blink Fault], killing Herms by using it was not simple. Both he and Herms would pass out once the attack connects, then with so many people there, Herms was as good as dead.

However, this method came with a cost.

And that cost was Nux.

Now, Nux was not some weak King Stage Cultivator, he was a man who drew against Astaria.

He was now on par with the strongest human in the world.

Exchanging him with Herms was... not a good trade.

Nux would wake up after 2 days, yes, however, what would happen in these 2 days wasn't sure.

Keeping Nux down in this critical stage was not a good option.

Also,

Alcimus was not exactly their ally.

They might act like one right now, however, a human heart cannot be seen through. There is a chance that he would attack Astaria with his army once Herms is dead.

No one would miss out on the opportunity of ruling the world after all.

Especially Emperors, beings who were filled with ambitions.

Of course, if something like this happened, then just like Herms, Astaria could escape as well, but what about Nux?

He would then become Astaria's weakness.

And that was something Nux would never allow.

Due to all these reasons, the plan to get rid of Herms was dropped, and with them getting practically no information out of this meeting, this Emperors' Meet was... pretty much useless.

“Well, it is not that bad.”

Suddenly, Amaya spoke up.

Apparently, she had a different opinion.

“The Meet was not that useless.

Herms agreed to war even after knowing Amletus is dead.

He wouldn't have this confidence if he was just dependent on Amletus.

Although we still don't know what his trump card is,

We can definitely be sure that he has something up his sleeves.”

“Meh, does it really matter?”

Suddenly, Nux spoke.

Then, he turned towards Astaria and a perverted smile appeared on his face,

“Don't I just need to defeat Lady Astaria? Once that happens, everything would be easy peasy.”

Riona frowned, she couldn't understand.

She knew that this son-in-law of hers drew against Astaria and he might even have a chance to defeat her, but what after that?

What would happen after he defeats her?

Why was he acting as if victory was in his grasp?

“Keep dreaming, boy.

Don't forget, even after a whole week, you still haven't defeated me.”

Astaria wasn't willing to give up either.

“It's not like you could defeat me either.”

Nux just shrugged.

“I just need to perfect my sword, once that happens, defeating you would be as simple as flicking my fingers.”

Astaria shrugged.

As she continued to spar with Nux, even she could feel she was improving.

She didn't know what it was, but she could feel something strange happening with her sword.

It somehow boosted her power.

However, it was still imperfect.

She still needed time to perfect it and she was sure that once she does,

Defeating Nux would be simple.

She would then again be the strongest.

The one and only being reigning on the top.

“Oh yeah? Well, I won't tell you, but I have a hidden card as well. Once I perfect that, defeating all the Emperors alone wouldn't be difficult for me either.”

Nux spoke with a small smile on his face.

Astaria raised her eyebrow,

“Heh.”

Other than letting out a laugh, Astaria didn't say anything else.

“Lady Astaria.”

Suddenly, General Phorus walked towards Astaria.

“Lady Astaria, should I prepare the army?”

Astaria's face turned serious.

“Yes.”

She ordered.

“Prepare all the troops,

I want all the soldiers to gather in front of me in 3 days.

I will personally lead all the soldiers.”

Astaria announced.

“!!!”

Phorus's expression changed.

“D-Does that m-mean...?”

Astaria's eyes shined in determination and she nodded,

“Yes, it is now time the people learn about the Emperors. The real leaders of the Kingdom.”

Phorus gulped, however, soon, he recollected himself and with a determined look on his face, he saluted,

“As you command, Lady Astaria!”

Saying those words, he turned around.

He only had 3 days, after all, he couldn't afford to waste any second.

After he left, Winston walked towards Astaria and bowed,

“I would like to take my leave as well.”

Many Shadow Unit members were out on different missions, he needed to regather them.

Astaria nodded.

Seeing everyone leaving, a strange feeling arose in Nux's heart.

It was indeed a War.

And not a fake war where Nations don't even use all their power,

This... this would be the first real war in the history of this continent.

Chapter 601 For The Skyfall Kingdom!!!

1 week later, in the Army Camp of the Skyfall Kingdom, Astaria walked onto the Stage, in front of her, stood nearly 150 thousand soldiers. She wore Purple Black Clothes, these clothes were similar to what Nux's women wore when they helped the Woods Dynasty in the war against the Solid Earth Kingdom.

In truth, these were not some random clothes Nux and people close to him wore to show off. It was a 7-Star Armor.

[Fiendish Black Panther Armor]

It may just look like clothes from the outside, however, no armor in this world, even the best ones in the Royal Treasury of the Skyfall Kingdom matched this Armor. Not to mention that, unlike other armors, this armor doesn't hinder their movement speed.

This was what attracted Nux the most.

He could have bought armor with even higher defense, however, it would have affected the movement speed, therefore, this was the best choice.

No armor above 5 Star rating exists in this world, therefore, even an armor with a seemingly lower defense than normal 7 Star Armor was the best armor here.

And 11 people, including Nux, wore this armor.

People around Nux were simply overgeared.

However, Astaria's armor was a little different when compared to others.

She had a cape as well.

It hindered movement so Nux didn't buy it, however, Astaria was different.

She was the General of the Army, so she needed to act like one.

Of course, Nux never complained.

Astaria wearing Purple Black Skin tight clothes that enhanced her curves and a cape over it that showed her authority...

It was a deadly combination.

Astaria looked unbearably beautiful in that dress.

Nux couldn't help but continue to look at her.

“...”

Nux's women, who were standing beside him couldn't help but shake their heads.

“Tsk. Pervert.”

Amaya complained.

“You have no right to complain, bitch.”

Thyra, who was standing beside Amaya spoke as she glanced at Amaya with a jealous look on her face.

Currently, Amaya was sitting on Nux's back.

Yes, when all these 150 thousand top soldiers were gathered, Nux and his women were... well... bonding.

“...”

Amaya completely ignored Thyra's exittance and continued to bury her face in Nux's back.

What Astaria was going to say next, she couldn't care less.

Of course, Nux's other women were the same.

The only thing they seemed to care about was how much this Amaya was enjoying herself.

'We are not involving her in the next bet.' Suddenly, Felberta spoke up.

'Agreed.'

This offer was quickly accepted by others.

"Soldiers."

Suddenly, Astaria called out.

The weight behind her voice was heavy enough for the bustling camp to suddenly turn dead silent.

That was just how intimidating Astaria's aura is.

Noticing that Astaria has started speaking, Amaya snorted and jumped to the ground as well. She may not care about what Astaria was going to say, but she couldn't disrespect her either.

Nux and his women's expressions turned serious.

Seeing that she had managed to gather everyone's attention, Astaria continued,

"Today is the day we all march towards Berling Town.

As you already know, this War would be a lot more different than all the Wars you have been through before, here you will witness the Emperors fighting each other.

Let me remind you, the moment the Emperors start fighting, get as far away as you can.

Create at least a 1000 meters distance from us, otherwise, you all will die from the aftereffect. Of our battle”

Astaria warned.

The Soldiers would have generally laughed it off, however, this time, no one took this as a joke.

This was not the first assembly after all.

In the previous assemblies, where most of the soldiers didn't know about the existence of Emperors, many laughed at Astaria's face the moment she warned them like this.

However,

The moment a horrifying pressure engulfed their body, all of them, irrespective of cultivation fell on their knees, gasping for breath while holding their necks.

Most of them thought that they would die, some of the weaker ones even passed out in face of this pressure,

It was then Astaria stepped forward and commented,

“This is the pressure of a single Emperor, just imagine how scary it would be when 2 or more Emperors fight against each other and all exclude pressure like this.

Would you be able to survive?”

The soldiers still remember the scary smile that Astaria had on her face.

They still feel shivers whenever they recall it.

Of course, what they didn't know was that Astaria cheated a little.

She infused her Mana into the ‘pressure’ she was releasing.

This made it even scarier, of course, a normal Emperor wouldn't do something pointless like this. Doing something like this creates a false impression.

Of course, Astaria didn't care about that.

As long as she guarantees absolute obedience from her soldiers, the method doesn't matter.

If this little trick could save a few thousand lives in the future, it will be worth it.

“We will meet the Woods Dynasty's soldiers in Berling city. Their numbers and overall strength are lesser compared to ours, however, they are an important ally in this battle, so treat them with respect.”

Yes, in this war, the Skyfall Kingdom and the Woods Dynasty were allies, as for the Skadis,

They were Solid Earth Kingdom's allies.

This was another one of the cards Nux and his women would be playing if needed.

A betrayal in the middle of the war.

Heh.

Of course, to prevent the leak of information, only the King Stage Cultivators and Expert Stage Cultivators of the Skadi's army were informed about this.

All of them had a Slave Seal implanted in them, so they were very safe and the communication would be simple as well.

Nux was simply abusing his [Slave Seal] at this point.

Anyways, Grand Master Stage and below were just for numbers, their participation didn't really matter.

Amaya and Riona had already thought about how to continue with all this, so things like these didn't matter much for now.

“I will not waste any more time,

Keep the things I told you in your mind, any single mistake could cost your life, be careful, and now,

Start Marching.”

“FOR THE SKYFALL KINGDOM!!!”

“FOR THE SKYFALL KINGDOM!!!”

Chapter 602 Mother Found What Herms Was Hiding.

“ ... ”

Alcimus glanced at the soldiers standing in front of him and didn't know what to say.

No matter how many times he saw it, he still couldn't believe how pathetically weak the Woods Army has gotten.

The recent War really did have a worse effect on them.

Especially after Ember left.

Thinking about all this, Alcimus glanced at Ellinger again and his face twitched in annoyance.

That idiotic son of his, not only is he not a King Stage Cultivator yet, he even sent away the best second best King Stage Cultivator their Kingdom had.

If this bastard was not his blood son, Alcimus would have killed him already.

‘How the fuck is my child so incompetent? Is he really my child?’

Alcimus couldn't help but wonder inwardly.

However, in the end, he just shook his head and sighed.

His eyes then fell on a certain brown-haired man who was standing amongst the King Stage Cultivators with a prideful and confident expression on his face.

Actually, this man was the only one amongst all the King Stage Cultivators who had this type of expression. The rest of them were nervous.

All of them were the nobles, after all.

None of them had ever participated in the war and had only been living off their ancestors' glory and family name.

'What a useless bunch.'

Alcimus couldn't help but snort inwardly.

All the competent King Stage Cultivators in his Kingdom were either dead or taken away.

Of course, he still had the best King Stage Cultivator on his side, that was the brown-haired man who was standing with a confident expression on his face.

However, Alcimus didn't wish for this man to participate in this war.

He didn't wish to introduce this man to the world just yet.

Yes, this brown-haired man was Rashim Skadi, a child Alcimus adopted when he was 3 years old.

He was a 150-year-old peak King Stage Cultivator.

A rare talent.

Of course, compared to monsters like Nux and his women, he fell short, however, in the end, Nux and his women were different, Rashim was a real talent.

One who would become an Emperor within the next few decades.

He was Alcimus's hidden card, a card he didn't wish to show for now, however, he didn't have a choice. If he didn't give his best in this war, the consequences would be dire.

Also, he needed to take revenge against the man who was responsible for this condition of his Dynasty.

He has sworn in his heart that he would destroy the Solid Earth Kingdom.

That was just how much he hated that Kingdom and that Herms bastard who was looking down on him.

“Soldiers.”

Thinking all of this, Alcimus stepped onto the stage.

The 90 thousand soldiers standing in front of him turned silent,

“Our destination will be the Berling Town where we will meet our allies, the Skyfall Kingdom,

March!”

“FOR THE WOODS DYNASTY!!”

“FOR THE WOODS DYNASTY!!”

Amongst the cheers, the soldiers started their march.

...

“I can’t believe it.” On the other side, Nux and his women were sitting in a carriage and Astaria, who was sitting with them couldn’t help but comment.

“What happened?”

Nux questioned with a curious look on his face.

“...”

Astaria didn’t know what to say...

Currently, Thyra and Ember had placed their heads on Nux's lap. Lane was sitting behind Nux's back, acting like his shadow, just like how she normally does.

Actually, she was the only one who only gets intimate with him only when she is alone. Although Astaria was sure to become her sister in the future, Lane was still a bit careful around her.

Anyways, Allura and Edda have placed their heads on Nux's shoulders.

The other women were sitting around him as well.

9 beautiful women staying around Nux, it was a dream come true for any man.

No one can say that they were going for a war that could potentially destroy this world and change its history.

“Would you like to join?”

Nux questioned with a playful smile on his face.

“Do you even have any space left?”

Astaria snorted.

“Oh? It means you do want to join but isn't joining because of lack of space?” Nux questioned.

“I can give you my place if you want, Lady Astaria.”

Skyla was ready for it.

“I don't need it, thank you very much.” Astaria was quick to reply.

Honestly, talking to this man was just...

“Don't you think you should be a little more serious?”

Astaria questioned.

“And what would happen if I do that? We have already prepared the best we could, there is no point in worrying about something we can’t do anything about.”

Nux replied.

“...”

Astaria turned silent.

She didn’t have a reply to Nux’s statement.

“Lady Astaria, there is a chance we all might die in this war, we don’t know what trump card Herms is hiding after all.

However, worrying about it now won’t help us in any way, just be chill and join us.”

Saying that, Nux extended his arms toward Astaria.

“...”

Astaria’s face twitched in frustration, everything was going fine, but in the end, he just had to show his shameless side.

Annoying bastard.

Seeing her reaction, Nux smiled.

It really was fun to tease Astaria like this.

Actually, there is another way for them to ensure that they would win this War.

Nux becoming an Emperor.

He already drew against Astaria, there, Nux had a chance to get what he wanted, however, for some reason, he stopped.

It wouldn't be difficult for him to get it right now, however, Nux could feel it.

Astaria respected him now.

He didn't wish to give up the respect that he had gained just because he was paranoid.

He was a greedy man after all.

He wanted to have it all.

He would defeat her on his own and then would conquer Astaria, body, and soul.

A smile appeared on Nux's face when he thought about it.

“Nux.”

Suddenly, Amaya called out.

Nux turned towards Amaya,

“Mother found what Herms was hiding.”

Chapter 603 The Solid Earth Kingdom Has 2 Emperors.

Just like how the Skyfall Kingdom and Woods Dynasty planned to meet each other in Berlin Town, the Skadis and the Solid Earth Kingdom planned to meet in a town called Fidel.

Normally, after Amletus died, trusting the Skadi Kingdom was something difficult for the Herms and the Solid Earth Kingdom, however, Skyfall Kingdoms and the Woods Dynasty have already allied themselves.

If we add Skadi into that alliance, it would become a 3v1, which would be simply ridiculous.

The Emperors' battle wouldn't even matter because the main army of the Solid Earth Kingdom would lose within a matter of minutes.

This worried Herms, his son, Roone, however, had a different opinion in his mind.

“You are worrying too much, father. The Skadi's won't dare to betray us. Actually, Amletus's death is actually a good thing for us, we gained a loyal dog that would bite anyone we order it to without doing anything.

That Riona is not a fool, just like you said, she already noticed that Amletus had some sort of relationship with you, she also knows that the one who killed Amletus, her father was Alcimus.

There is no way she would ally herself with the people who killed the protector of her Kingdom and have left her Kingdom to face such adversaries.

Currently, we are the only leg that she can grab.” Roone spoke with a smile on his face.

Hearing his words, Herms couldn't help but nod as well, some of his doubts were alleviated, however,

“Do not be so hasty to judge things, Roone.

I won't comment much about that fool, however, that woman named Riona is not simple. She is an ama-”

“Yes, yes, she is an amazing strategist and whatever, I know that already.

But in front of sheer power, all plans fail, she has lost her biggest support, and there is no way she would think straight in a condition like this.

And even if she does, she has no logical reason to join the enemy. ”

Unlike Herms, Roone didn't look particularly worried.

Seeing his child's worry less expression, Herms's expression eased up a little as well.

“Alright.”

He nodded.

Then, a small smile appeared on his face and he stepped back,

“Then I will leave everything on you, King Roone.”

Roone's smile widened.

With a dignified look on his face, he stepped up and glanced at 200 thousand soldiers standing in front of them and,

“Soldiers of the Solid Earth Kingdom.”

Well, in truth, the Solid Earth Kingdom was not capable enough to gather so many troops, especially after the loss they suffered in the Bloodhill Wilderness 100 years ago.

So what happened?

How did they gather so many troops?

Well, just like how they recruited the Generals, they recruited normal soldiers as well.

Yes, they forced the clans, sects, and adventurers.

Of course, none of these soldiers liked this situation, however, no one dared to say a word in front of Roone.

Why?

Because this was the man who singlehandedly overwhelmed their clan, sect, or their party.

Although Herms was the one who recruited all the Generals and the soldiers into the Solid Earth Army, Roone was the one who planned all that.

Not only then, even the locking down of the kingdom and killing all the spies, all of it was planned by Roone.

Of course, for being capable of doing something like that, Roone was definitely different from a normal King the Solid Earth Kingdom has ever seen.

He was an Emperor Stage Cultivator.

Technically speaking, currently, Roone should have abducted his throne and should have chosen the seat of the Protector in his father's stead, however, knowing the real truth, he already knew that being a protector was now useless.

He had a different plan in his mind.

Anyways, as Roone stepped in, all the soldiers turned silent.

All of them knew how terrifying he was, Roone has displayed it before, for these soldiers, Roone was the strongest existence in the world.

“In this war, we only have one goal.”

Roone spoke, then, his expression turned serious and,

“We will destroy the Skyfall Kingdom and the Woods Dynasty.”

“YEAHHH!!!”

The Soldiers cheered in joy and excitement.

“Alright then, without wasting any more time, let’s start our march!”

“YEAHHH!!!”

“FOR THE SOLID EARTH KINGDOM!!”

“FOR THE SOLID EARTH KINGDOM!!”

The soldiers were definitely ready for the battle.

The Solid Earth Soldiers marched towards Fidel Town, the moment they entered the town, they realized that the Skadi Soldiers were already there.

Normally, Herms should have taken the lead, keeping his trump card hidden. However, doing this was practically useless.

Sooner or later, it would be revealed, therefore, Roone didn’t hold back anymore and directly met Riona, the one leading the Skadi Troops.

“I thought King Eardwolf or General Lydian would be leading your army. I must admit, it is quite surprising to see you here.”

Roone spoke with a small smile on his face.

“ ... ”

Riona, however, didn't say anything in reply and continued to glance at Roone with a dazed look on her face.

Seeing her reaction, a satisfied smile appeared on Roone's face,

He waved his hand in front of Riona's face,

The woman finally came out of his reverie and replied,

"I-I wasn't expecting to see you either..."

Roone chuckled.

"You are an Emperor..."

Suddenly, Riona called out.

"Hmmm? Lord Amletus didn't tell that to you? I thought you knew about it."

"Lord Amletus kept his deal with the Solid Earth Kingdom a secret."

Riona replied.

She was giving this man an open invitation.

Place whatever conditions you want, we will follow them.

Roone understood what Riona's words meant and couldn't help but smile.

He glanced at the people standing behind Riona and seeing 12 King Stage Cultivators, his smile widened.

Riona's expression didn't change much, inwardly, however, he contacted her daughter and sent a message,

'The Solid Earth Kingdom has 2 Emperors.'

'...what?'

A grim reply came.

Riona already expected it and nodded,

‘Yes, Herms son, Roone Skadi,

He is an Emperor as well.’

Chapter 604 Is It A War Or A Beauty Show?

‘Yes, Herms son, Roone Skadi,

He is an Emperor as well.’

Riona informed with a grim look on her face.

Amaya’s expression turned serious as well.

‘Oh C’mon, don’t act like you two hadn’t predicted it already.’

Suddenly, Allura jumped into the conversation as well.

‘We did predict something like this, yes but...’

Riona wanted to say something but didn’t know how to explain her thoughts.

After analyzing Herms’s actions, Riona had already predicted this, Nux and Astaria were the same as well, and now that their prediction has come true...

Riona didn’t know how to feel.

‘Let’s not think too much about it, mother. You are being overly cautious.’

Suddenly, Amaya spoke.

‘...alright.’

Riona nodded.

With an inexplicable expression on her face, Amaya ended the conversation.

“Heh, so that’s why he was acting so boldly.”

Astaria laughed.

“Now it makes more sense.

Hiding his trump card till the end, getting rid of Lord Alcimus and then Lady Astaria, the only one left would be Amletus. With Herms and his son working together, Amletus can be dealt with and the Solid Earth Kingdom would become the sole ruler of the continent.

A great plan indeed.”

Evane was impressed.

“Indeed. Now everything lines up.”

Felberta nodded as well.

The other girls nodded as well.

“Anyways, now it is a 2v2 right?” Evane questioned.

“It is.”

Ember nodded.

“What about Alcimus then?” Thyra questioned.

For her, 2v2 meant Nux and Astaria, versus Herms and his son.

“For now, he is our ally, we will use him for as long as he is useful,” Amaya replied.

“So Nux is going to hold back?”

“Yes, he will fight together with us and hopefully, it stays the same for the entire battle.”

“So he will only act if the situation gets worse?”

“Yes, we will discuss the complete plan now, so pay attention.”

Astaria spoke.

The others nodded with serious looks on their faces and the preparation for the war started.

...

30 minutes later, the Skyfall Army arrived at Berling Town.

Astaria was the first one to walk out of the carriage.

The moment she walked out, Alcius came forward with a smile on his face and greeted,

“You are finally here.”

“It took us longer than I thought.”

Astaria nodded.

Nux and the others walked out of the carriage. This time, Nux and his wives didn't have any masks on, therefore, the moment they came out, they attracted attention.

Alcius's eyes fell on Nux's wives as well, or more precisely, his eyes fell on a certain black-red haired woman,

“It has been a while, Ember.”

He greeted.

“It has, indeed.”

Ember nodded as well.

Her expression seemed pretty distant.

Many other soldiers also recognized Ember, the Missing General, however, no one dared to talk about her.

They already knew about Ember when she first came in as reinforcements after all.

Ellinger's eyes also fell on Ember, Ember glanced at him and he soon broke the eye contact.

He knew what he did and he wasn't confident enough to face this woman.

If only he hadn't been this childish and had seriously considered what Ember said... none of this would have happened.

Ember, however, completely ignored the dynast and turned around. Astaria walked forward and walked towards Alcimus,

“Are you prepared?”

“Of course I am, I have prepared 90 thousand soldiers for this war, 5 of them are King Stage Cultivators and 15 are Expert Stage Cultivators.”

Alcimus replied.

“...Alright.”

Astaria stayed silent for a while, however, in the end, she just nodded.

Honestly, she expected a bit more from the Woods Dynasty, however, this Dynasty has already lost 4 of their King Stage Cultivators...

So it wasn't that bad.

They weren't the strongest, after all.

Rather, before the Solid Earth Kingdom's raid in the Bloodhill Wilderness's forbidden region, they were the weakest.

Alcimus knew what was going on inside Astaria's mind and couldn't help but smile wryly.

“Anyways, let's organize our troops and discuss the strategies.

There are only 4 days left, after all.”

Astaria spoke and Alcimus agreed.

The two Emperors then started walking towards a certain building, Nux and his wives followed, Ellinger did the same as well.

The new meeting started.

Formations, plans, and tactics were discussed.

The atmosphere was serious and just like that,

2 days passed by.

...

Celistilla City, a prosperous city built in the neutral zone which borders all 4 Nations but was not a part of any of the city, was also known as the city of Merchants.

Here, Merchants sold the best collections they had, it was a peaceful city where the rich came to relax and take a rest from their daily lifestyle.

Now, however, this peaceful city had become barren.

After the Emperors' Meet, the Great War was announced. The location was that war was Celistilla City.

The once lively city was now barren, completely silent.

And today, the city finally heard a sound other than howling winds and birds chirping.

However, this wasn't a good sign.

2 Opposite armies were now standing against each other, ready to destroy the other the moment they get the chance.

It was now time for the war.

The Leaders of the Armies, Astaria Skyfall, Alcimus Woods, Herms Lizander and Roone Lizander walked out and faced each other.

The youngest and the newest member of this group of elites, Roone, stood there with a prideful look on his face.

There was no hint of nervousness on his face.

A commendable trait.

Roone's eyes suddenly fell on Nux and his wives who were standing in front of the rest of the Skyfall Army without their masks on and he couldn't help but comment, “Heh. Is it a War or a Beauty Show?

I have never seen warriors like them.”

He was clearly ridiculing the Skyfall Army, the so-called strongest.

Astaria, however, just smiled kindly,

“It is a War of course, participation does not require beauty, so you can rest assured.”

Roone's expression changed, however, he didn't give Astaria the satisfaction of getting one over him and commented, “Heh, only strength matters.

I have seen many 'beautiful people', kneeling on the ground, begging for their lives while snot and tears covered their faces,

Heh, that sight is not attractive at all.

I wonder if you guys can make it look more attractive.”

Chapter 605 Alright, Fuck It.

“I have seen many ‘beautiful people’, kneeling on the ground, begging for their lives while snot and tears covered their faces,

Heh, that sight is not attractive at all.

I wonder if you guys can make it look more beautiful.”

Roone spoke with a crazy smile on his face.

“Hehehe, these beautiful women, kneeling, begging me to spare them, Hahaha~ Just imagining it makes my blood boil in excitement.

Or maybe... some of you might try to sell your body to me, now that would be an offer worth considering.”

Hearing those words, Nux’s face turned cold, and just as he was about to lash out, he stopped.

Roone completely ignored the King Stage Cultivator standing in front of him and continued to observe the women in front of him.

“You, you, you, and you, the 4 of you, rejoice, I will accept when you sell your body to me, I do need some concubines after I become the ruler, after all.

As for the rest of you... hmmm, you are not that good-looking, but oh well,

If you act like a good bitch, I might keep you.”

‘Don’t react to what he is saying.

It is a war, he is trying to rile you up, don’t lose your cool.’

Ember sent a message to Nux.

Nux clenched his fists even further.

‘Nux, it is a common tactic enemy use, don’t let him win.’ Ember continued.

Nux then closed his eyes.

After releasing a deep breath, a smile appeared on his face,

“Heh, I see what’s the problem here.”

He commented and then nodded to himself,

“Well, with a face like yours, it does make sense for you to try and find concubines for yourself this way. If I was a girl, I would have a hard time to naturally love a face like that as well.”

Roone’s face turned cold,

“I do it because I am strong. Of course, it is impossible for a mere King Stage Cultivator like you.”

“I don’t really need to do something like this, to be honest, my face is different than yours after all.

I might not be the best-looking guy here, but to be honest, anything works as long as it’s not a nightmarish sight like yours.”

A vein popped out on Roone’s forehead,

“You seem to really like that face of yours, how about I destroy it.”

“Haahhh... jealousy can really make you do things you normally wouldn’t do huh...”

Nux sighed and looked at Roone with a pitiful look on his face.

“God really did an unfair job with that face huh...”

“Alright kid, I have decided, you will be dying first today!”

Roone had enough.

He quickly rushed towards Nux, Nux’s expression changed, however, suddenly, Alcimus appeared in front of him and blocked Roone’s attack.

“Why don’t you fight against someone of your level?”

Alcimus questioned, then, he kicked Roone, Roone, however, blocked the attack and jumped back.

On the other hand, Herms appeared beside Astaria and attacked.

Astaria, however, simply blocked his attack, then using her own Mana, she punched the man’s guts,

“Kkhoovhhfff!”

Herms’s body flew away.

Astaria quickly followed.

“Father!”

Roone rushed behind Astaria in hurry.

“Where do you think you are going!?”

Alcimus rushed behind Roone as well.

“Woods Soldiers!

ATTACK!!”

Alcimus gave an order.

“Soldiers! Let’s take our revenge and destroy these Solid Earth Bastards!”

“YEAHHHHH!!!!”

“Show these bastards their place!”

The Deputy General of the Solid Earth Kingdom shouted as well.

“YEAHHHHH!!!”

The Skyfall and the Skadi Kingdom did not participate yet.

They knew the moment the Emperors starts fighting, things would get messed up. Of course, others knew it as well, however, they were a little too excited since their enmity was far deeper than these two Kingdoms.

On the other hand, Herms quickly rebalanced his body, and Astaria appeared in front of him and punched again. He blocked, however, the punch was stronger than he expected and his body flew away again.

Roone appeared behind Astaria and slashed her sword, Astaria crouched and then lightly kicked Roone. He tilted his head to dodge the attack, however, soon, Alcius appeared behind him and kicked his back.

Astaria rushed towards Herms and punched him again, this time however, Herms was prepared, his Great Sword appeared in his hand and after blocking Astaria’s attack, he slashed his sword at her.

Astaria crouched and as if he had already expected it, Herms changed the trajectory of his sword and attacked again. Astaria was forced to roll back.

Herms didn’t leave this opportunity and ran towards Astaria, forcing him to roll back even further.

“Hmph! Strongest human my ass! Look at you rolling on the ground like a bitch you are!”

Herms cursed as he continued to swing his Great Sword.

“Swinging your weapon like a tactless fool, that’s why you lost your title of the strongest.”

Astaria was quick with her reply and as if to prove her point, she suddenly rolled ahead and kicked Herms's legs.

The man lost his balance, Astaria smiled and stood up.

Her sword then appeared in her hand and she appeared near Herms.

*Clank*

Herms's barely defended the attack.

“As slow as ever I see.”

Astaria mocked with a disdainful look on her face.

“...”

Herms didn't say anything.

He didn't have any time after all.

Astaria's attacks were continuous.

She knew his weakness.

A Great Sword really limited his movement speed, defending against continuous attacks was tiring for him.

If this continued, it won't be long before he tires himself out and loses this battle.

However,

Herms was someone who has been using a Great Sword for roughly 500 years. A Great Sword may not be built for a one on one fighting, however, Herms's Great Sword Technique allowed him to do things others cannot.

Herms activated his Wind element under his sword and even though he was continuously defending against Astaria's attack, he slashed his sword.

Astaria was forced to jump back. Herms then appeared in front of her and using the sword's weight, he unleashed a lethal attack, which, if connected, could potentially cut Astaria into two equal parts.

‘Alright, fuck it.’

Astaria's expression changed.

Chapter 606 Do You Really Think You Can Win?

‘Alright, fuck it.’

Astaria’s expression changed.

The Mana inside her body moved to her legs and she quickly jumped back.

She then glanced at Herms and after a little pause,

She appeared right next to him.

Herms barely defended against her attack. She was so fast that he didn’t even get the time to adjust his Great Sword, in the end, he was forced to use the dagger to block Astaria’s attack.

Herms quickly jumped back, he couldn’t fight in that awkward position after all.

The man then glanced at Astaria and a smile appeared on his face,

“So you are finally going to fight for real, huh?”

He questioned.

“I gave you enough chances already.

The pain is your only option now.”

Astaria smiled.

She wanted to push Herms a little further than this, however, in the end, Herms was the second strongest, and she couldn’t hold back in front of a man like him.

She has already taken this battle a few hundred meters away from the main battlefield where the other soldiers fought. Now everything else depended on the soldiers.

If they managed to successfully use the diversion tactic, they should be far enough for this battle to not affect them.

Yes, even while fighting against the second strongest, she was thinking about things like these.

Of course, she couldn't continue this any longer.

“Heh. You seem to care a lot about those soldiers.”

“Yours are useless, mine are not.”

Astaria's answer was simple.

“Well, I won't deny that.

The soldiers I have are useless. You cannot expect much from a strange mix-up that has barely trained together as a single unit, after all.”

“So now you are openly admitting it, huh.”

Astaria smiled.

“I don't have a reason to hide, now do I?” Herms smiled as well.

“Say.”

Suddenly, Astaria spoke.

“Hmm?”

Herms lowered his Great Sword as he glanced at Astaria.

He knew Astaria wouldn't use tactics like these to defeat him. If she started a conversation, she would not use it to get one over him.

She was too prideful to do something so embarrassing.

“Do you really think you can win?”

Astaria questioned.

“What do you mean?”

Herms questioned with a smile on his face.

“Don’t act ignorant, Herms.

Answer my question,

Do you really think you can win this battle?”

“It’s a 2v2, isn’t it?

I think we have a fair shot at winning it.”

“15 minutes.”

“Hmm?”

“That’s all I need to defeat you.

I can force you to run away within 15 minutes.

Then it would be 2v1.

Your son might not have the chance to run away, Herms.”

Astaria warned.

“You seem pretty confident.” Herms smiled.

“Are you denying it?

Do you really think you can defeat me?”

Astaria questioned with a serious look on her face.

“ ... ”

Herms turned silent.

Astaria narrowed her eyes.

Something was wrong.

Just as she thought.

It was not just Roone.

There was no way Herms would act so boldly just because his son was an Emperor. He was a careful man. He was not someone who would rely on a simple 2v2 battle. Things would never be that simple.

Astaria knew it. However, she didn't have any way of finding out what Herms's real trump card was.

Therefore, she decided to have this little 'heart-to-heart' with Herms.

She wanted to know what he was hiding and since the War has already started and she couldn't do anything to stop it now, Herms didn't have any reason to hide it either.

And just like Astaria expected, a smile appeared on Herms's face.

“Defeating you is definitely not possible.

If I am alone that is.”

Astaria didn't ask anything and prepared herself to face another Emperor.

A 3rd Emperor.

She was expecting something like this, but for this to actually be true...

Astaria didn't know how to react.

“Don't be on edge, Astaria. No one is coming.”

Suddenly, Herms's laughed.

“What do you mean?”

Astaria questioned.

“Let me ask you a question, Astaria.

Can you defeat me and an Emperor who defeated Alcius within 5 minutes at the same time?”

“Huh? What are yo-”

“Why do you think I am chatting here with you?”

Herms asked another question.

Astaria frowned.

“I was simply chatting with you to buy more time.”

Astaria tilted her head in confusion.

Soon, she understood what Herms was talking about and quickly turned around to look at Alcius and Roone.

“Astaria, what if my son kills Alcius? What would you do then? Would you be able to defeat 2 Emperors alone?”

The Emperor who was known as the strongest Emperor a few decades ago,

And an Emperor who can Kill another Emperor in under 5 minutes.

Astaria Skyfall, do you think you can defeat these two Emperors alone?”

“What... What in the hell is happening there?”

Astaria couldn't help but question as she glanced at the battlefield where Alcimus and Roone were fighting.

“The match was never fair to begin with.

This is what you call a rigged battle.”

Herms smiled with a proud look on his face.

“Khookkhhh!!”

Alcimus was kicked and was forced to cough out blood.

*Step* *Step*

Roone walked in front of him.

He was wearing pure white colored armor and just like his armor, he had a white colored sword in his hand.

“W-W-What is that w-weapon...?”

Alcimus questioned with a fearful look on his face as he glanced at the man in front of him.

His sword, that has been with him for more than 2 centuries was now lying on the floor, broken. His armor that protected his chest was broken as well, the same was the case for his ribs as well.

He was being toyed around in this battle.

The man in front of him was not very strong.

However, no matter how much he tried, he couldn't hurt him at all.

This man's sword and armor...

The Armor he wore was unexpectedly sturdy.

Alcimus's sword was sliced into two pieces the moment it clashed with Roone's sword.

It was just ridiculous!

“Aren't you a little too weak for an Emperor Stage Cultivator?”

Roone who walked towards Alcimus with a leisurely look on his face spoke with a disdainful expression.

Chapter 607 Herms, Let Me Introduce You The Trump Card I Was Hiding,

“Aren’t you a little too weak for an Emperor Stage Cultivator?”

Roone who walked towards Alcius with a leisurely look on his face spoke with a disdainful expression.

“You... you bastard...”

Alcius cursed.

“Heehh? Did you say anything?”

Roone questioned with a scary smile on his face, at the same time, he punched Alcius’s guts, forcing him to kneel on the ground.

“Khookkhh!!”

Alcius coughed out blood again.

“I didn’t hear you the first time, mind repeating it again?”

Roone walked closer to Alcius, crouched to bring his face closer to him, and questioned.

“...”

Alcius glared at Roone, his eyes were red in rage, however, in the end, he didn’t say anything. Whatever the reason was, the current Roone is stronger than him.

Actually, Alcius believed that he was even stronger than Astaria.

The Sword and Armor like these shouldn't exist.

“That combat gear is not normal... where did you get it?”

Astaria, who was looking at the fight couldn't help but question.

“And why should I answer you?”

Herms smiled as he questioned back.

Astaria turned around and a beautiful smile appeared on her face.

“Are you really that scared of me?”

“Heh.”

Herms laughed.

For an Emperor with a huge ego, these words were... annoying.

“Alcimus sent a search party to look for the Mythical Beasts, but they didn't find anything.”

“Huh?”

Astaria's expression changed.

“Yes, they didn't find the body either.”

Astaria realized.

That combat gear was made from the Mythical Creature's body.

From the body of the Beast that is capable of killing Emperors in 1 way.

Things were now clear.

That's where Herms's confidence came from.

That combat gear...

It was stronger than the Armor and Sword provided by Nux.

According to Nux, what they currently use is a 7 Star Weapon... however, even if their weapons were good, the difference between their weapons and the normal weapons was not that big...

According to that logic, that combat gear should be... a 10-Star Gear?

Does something like that even exist?

And how did the Solid Earth Kingdom create these weapons in the first place?

One had to know, there were 7 Star Beasts in this world, of course, killing them required all the Emperors to act together, and with the Mythical Creature around, only 1 of them was killed, and even after using that beast's body, they were unable to create a 7 Star Weapon because they didn't have the required equipment and the techniques.

“Hmm? You are unusually silent,

Astaria Skyfall, you aren't scared, are you?”

Herms questioned.

He was definitely enjoying the serious look that has appeared on the ever-confident Astaria's face.

He finally had this bitch under his palms.

However, suddenly,

A smile appeared on Astaria's face.

“That bastard is blessed by lady luck.”

Suddenly, Astaria commented.

“Huh? What are you talking about?”

Herms questioned.

Did she perhaps lose her mind due to pressure or something?

“You see, your son made a little mistake.

He said a few words he shouldn’t have said, and now he is angry.”

Astaria smiled.

“What are you talking about?”

Herms narrowed his eyes.

“I was wondering why he didn’t react much, I guess those girls must have stopped him.

Now, however, he has a reason to act himself.”

Astaria explained. Herms was still confused.

“Let me introduce you to my student,

And possibly my future husband.”

Herms’s expression changed when he heard those words.

‘H-H-Husband!?’

These words jolted him from inside, however, before he could react to them,

Astaria suddenly pointed at the battlefield and smiled,

“There he is.”

Herms quickly turned towards the battlefield and his eyes widened in horror.

A man with black hair and golden eyes, who wore purple-black skin tight clothes stood tall, Roone, the one who was dominating the battle was now lying on the ground.

The man then walked forward and stepped on Roone's head,

“You see, we have 1 thing in common,”

Nux spoke and then, a crazy smile appeared on his face,

“I have seen people kneeling in front of me as well.”

“You bastard!”

Roone shouted in anger, at the same time, he lifted his head. Nux was forced to step back.

Roone quickly stood up and glared at Nux,

“You little insect, you will pay for what you have done.”

“What a coincidence.” Nux smiled politely,

Then, a scary smile appeared on his face and he replied,

“I wanted to say the same thing as well.”

Two Purple Black Swords appeared in his hands,

“You are brave for a mere Ki-”

Roone wanted to say something, however, Nux wasn't having any of it.

He appeared in front of Roone and attacked,

*Clank*

Roone barely defended.

And quickly his expression changed.

Nux, however, wasn't done yet.

*Clank* *Clank* *Clank*

His chain of attacks started and just like Astaria, Roone was forced to step back while taking on those attacks as well.

Nux didn't even give him time to adjust properly.

“Aren't you a little too slow for an Emperor? Ah, maybe the Armor you are wearing is too heavy for you to move properly huh?

You really are a scardy cat huh?

An Emperor wearing an armor this heavy...

What did you think? It would save you from getting beaten?

It might protect you from the attacks that aim at your heart but,

What are you going to do about that gap that leaves your neck unprotected?”

Nux threatened.

“Don't worry though, I won't aim for your neck.

Your death won't be this simple, Roone Lizander.”

Nux laughed as he continued to attack.

*Clank* *Clank* *Clank*

Yes, he was teasing an Emperor in the middle of the battle...

It was as if...

He was playing around... with an Emperor...

A King Stage Cultivator was doing something like that...

Alcimus and Herms...

The Emperors who were witnessing this scene couldn't believe what they were seeing.

“Herms, let me introduce you the trump card I was hiding,

The strongest King Stage Cultivator to ever exist,

The King Stage Cultivator who drew against me, the so-called strongest human in the world.”

Astaria revealed with a proud look on her face.

Chapter 608 Fuck. Did I Go Too Far With My Teasing?

*Bam*

“Khakookk!!”

Roone was sent flying as he was punched again. The Helmut he wore fell down, Nux leisurely walked towards the Helmut and picked it up.

“Hmmm. This really is a good material huh.”

“You bastard!”

Roone cursed in anger.

He couldn't understand.

Just what in the hell was happening here?

What's with this ridiculous monster standing in front of him?

He was clearly a King Stage Cultivator, how in the hell is he fighting against him, an Emperor?

Also, why the hell is he so fast!?

He has spared with his father many times before joining this battle.

He knew how fast normal Emperors are, this man, however, is faster than that. Combining his speed with the double swords he was carrying...

His attacks were almost endless.

The weight of Roone's sword was equal to a normal Great Sword, swinging it was not easy, the power it provides him comes with a price,

And that was his speed.

Roone had to sacrifice his speed to get gain this strength and this King Stage Cultivator was exploiting this weakness with his unnatural speed.

"I have to say, I really am a bad matchup for you huh?"

Nux smiled.

"..."

Roone didn't say anything and continued to glare at Nux.

Nux was right.

Nux versus Roone was like an Assassin versus Tank.

No matter how much Roone tried, he failed to keep up. His eyes were able to see where Nux was going to attack, however, moving to defend that area was another challenge, especially with the heavy combat gear he was using.

Even Astaria had a hard time keeping up with Nux's speed and was forced to take the attacking side in order to deal with Nux's speed, for someone like Roone, Nux's was simply a nightmare.

"AAggghhhh!!"

Suddenly, Roone gathered his strength and rushed towards Nux.

His image matched an angry bull.

Nux simply dodged his attack.

Roone, however, was not done yet and attacked again, Nux dodged.

He knew that blocking Roone's attack was not possible, even his 7 Star Swords won't hold on and would be broken into pieces.

Dodging was the only option.

Of course, that didn't mean that dodging like a mouse was the only thing Nux could do.

"Or maybe... it's not about the matchup, but a skill issue?"

Suddenly, Nux thought to himself and started thinking of another possibility,

"Maybe you are just not good enough when it comes to handling weapons?"

Hmmm, if your father had this combat gear, I am sure he would have done a far better job than you.

Why didn't you give it to him?

Was it because you would be too useless after losing this combat gear? Well, I can certainly see that happening."

Nux nodded to himself.

"You talk a lot for a mere insect who does nothing but keep dodging my attack!"

Roone shouted in anger as he continued to unleash his attacks on Nux.

"Heeh? What kind of logic is that?"

If I am failing to hit an Expert Stage Cultivator, would others think it is because the Expert Stage Cultivator is running around like an insect, or would they think that I am just an incompetent King Stage Cultivator who should just quit everything and give up on his life?"

Nux just continued to dodge.

Emperors have nearly unlimited amounts of Mana as long as they do not use their own Mana, however, this did not mean that they had unlimited stamina.

If Roone continued to move like that, sooner or later, he would tire out.

Once that happens, then without his helmet, Roone would become a walking target.

Therefore, Nux was just riling him up, making him attack him more inefficiently and wasting more and more energy.

Of course, it didn't mean Nux could take this battle easy, if even one of these attacks connect,

It would be lethal to the point Nux wouldn't be able to take part in the future battle, or in the worse case, he might even die.

Therefore, even though he was acting like he was toying around with Roone, he was still giving his all.

“You fucking bastard!!”

Roone shouted again and suddenly, his speed increased.

‘Huh?’

A frown appeared on Nux's face.

This man...

He was using his own Mana to increase his body movement speed...

Even Astaria hadn't done something like this before...

No, more precisely, Astaria wasn't capable of doing something like this.

Body Movement speed was different from overall speed, speed can simply be increased when one focuses on legs, however, when it comes to Body

Movements, one had to spread the Mana all over his body accurately.

It was a risky process that required absolute control over one's Mana.

For Roone to pull something like this...

Nux was in a bad spot.

With this, Roone got rid of his most troubling weakness, not to mention it was a weakness Nux was taking advantage of.

'Well... fuck.'

Nux cursed inwardly.

He quickly jumped back. Roone, however, followed him and appeared right in front of him, and slashed his sword.

Nux barely used [Mirror] to diffuse the attack.

Roone was surprised and couldn't understand how Nux parried his attack, soon however, he decided not to think about it.

Nux's facial expression has changed.

Even though he somehow parried his attack and it looked effortless, Roone doubted that he could continue doing that for a long period of time, therefore,

"It is time you know your place, insect!"

Roone's eyes shined brightly and,

*Slash* *Slash* *Slash*

He started attacking continuously at a speed where now Nux was having a hard time reacting to them.

And unlike Nux, all his attacks were deadly and Nux was forced to continuously use [Mirror], which was eating up his mana.

‘Fuck. Did I go too far with my teasing?’

Nux questioned inwardly as he continued to parry Roone’s attack while jumping back again and again, trying to create some distance, only to be followed up by Roone.

He glanced at Roone again and seeing the excited but determined look on his face, Nux’s face turned grim.

Chapter 609 Luck Or Skill?

He glanced at Roone again and seeing the excited but determined look on his face, Nux's face turned grim.

Even though he was clearly winning the battle, Roone didn't show an ounce of overconfidence.

Nux activated his [Sense] and started surveying his surroundings.

A small smile then appeared on his face as he continued to defend Roone's attack using [Mirror] while rushing in a certain direction.

Soon, Roone's expression changed.

'Haah! Caught you little bug!'

That was his eyes were screaming.

Nux's back was now touching a tree, his escape routes were cut off, and now all Roone has to do is attack till Nux is out of Mana and Nux is dead.

Roone's smile widened as he thought about it.

This insect has been bothering him for a while now, not only that but that Alcimus bastard has also taken a Healing Potion and is now recovering his health. He would soon join the battle soon.

Roone had to get rid of this boy before Alcimus is ready to fight again.

Even he wouldn't be able to take both of them at the same time.

Thinking that, Roone aimed at Nux's neck and slashed his sword, this time, however, unlike when Nux would use [Mirror], he took the risk and crouched.

‘You are done.’

With that thought in his mind, Roone used his speed and changed his sword’s trajectory, aiming at Nux’s head.

This time, Nux couldn’t dodge.

Alcimus’s speed was just too fast for him to react.

However, suddenly, Roone’s expression changed.

**Pierce**

He quickly did a 360 turn, barely dodging the purple-colored spike that suddenly popped out of the tree.

Roone’s eyes widened in horror as he saw the pointy edge of the Spike right in front of his eyes.

It was close,

If he reacted even a mini second later, his head would have been pierced by this thing and he would have died.

Roone’s heart started beating quickly as he gulped in fear.

His eyes quickly turned towards Nux and seeing the solemn expression on his face that seemed to say

‘Fuck, it missed.’

Roone realized that Nux had planned all this for a long time.

“Haahh... Haahh... Haa...”

Roone’s breathing turned heavy as he glared at Nux.

He quickly jumped away from the weird spike, his eyes, however, didn’t leave Nux.

Nux's expression didn't relax either.

He was planning to end this battle using this.

He had already used more than half of his Mana. Creating this Spike took more Mana than Nux normally uses when he uses this ability.

Nux knew he couldn't hold on any longer. Astaria would still need some time before Herms is defeated, the same goes for Alcimur, who needed some time before joining the battle as well. He needed to battle this monster alone.

Nux now understood why Herms was not the one who wielded this combat gear.

Using Mana to increase his body movement speed... it was a monstrous ability...

Nux was having a hard time.

The only two options he now had was to either use [Harem's Gate] and escape momentarily, however, this would put his women in a risky position, this wasn't something he would do.

The last option was to use [Blink Fault], he would pass out, however, he would at the very least, kill this bastard.

Nux prepared himself as he tightened his grip around his sword.

"That's a nice little skill you h-"

Roone suddenly turned silent and his expression changed.

He touched his nostrils and then brought his fingers in front of his eyes.

It was blood.

Blood was coming out of Roone's nose

Seeing this, Nux's expression changed as well. He momentarily canceled the idea of using [Blink Fault], and with a doubtful expression on his face,

He rushed towards Roone, getting ready to attack.

Roone glanced at Nux and prepared to receive his attack, the Mana in his body started moving and,

“Khooookkh!”

He coughed out blood.

A smile appeared on Nux's face when he realized what had happened.

‘Why don't you try increasing your strength and speed at the same time using your own Mana? I know it would burn your Mana very quickly but won't the result be satisfactory? Your opponents wouldn't even be able to react and by the time you run out of Mana, your opponent would be dead.’

Nux remembered asking this question when he realized that using their own Mana gave a greater boost to Emperors compared to using the World's Mana.

Astaria, however, just shook her head,

‘Burning our Mana faster isn't the problem here.’

‘What do you mean?’

Nux frowned.

‘Playing with Mana is risky, Nux.

You need absolute concentration for it.

Using your own Mana to increase both Strength and Speed is not something that can be achieved easily, and even if you do achieve something like that, maintaining it is another problem.

You lose your concentration for even a second and your Mana would run wild all over your body.’

‘What would happen if something like that happens?’

‘You wouldn’t be able to use your Mana for at least a week.’

Astaria replied with a grim look on her face.

As he recalled this conversation, Nux couldn’t help but continue to smile.

He suddenly appeared in front of Roone, and placing his sword inside his storage ring, he glanced at Roone and,

“Why don’t you try taking this punch?”

Saying that, Nux punched.

Roone tried to move the surrounding Mana to defend against the punch, however,

“Khhoockkk!”

He coughed out blood again and at the same time,

Nux’s punch connected.

*Bam*

Roone’s body flew back.

On the other hand, Nux’s theory was confirmed.

Nux knew increasing his body movement speed using Mana wouldn’t be that simple. Roone needed absolute concentration as well. However, the spike he prepared for him took him by surprise, and that little shock was enough for the Mana to completely destroy Roone’s body.

As if scared that something strange would happen, Nux quickly rushed towards Roone, pushed him onto the ground, sat on top of him and, continued to punch without giving him a second to rest.

*Bam* *Bam* *Bam*

Roone was already shocked and was still processing the situation. Combined with the barrage of punches that Nux was unleashing on him, his mind was getting more and more numb.

The Transition between the Nux was who just playing around with and the Nux that was not even giving him a chance to breathe was...

Scary.

Roone still couldn't understand what happened.

Nux didn't give up on this chance, once he was sure that Roone wouldn't be able to move for a while,

He quickly removed his pesky armor and,

*Slash* *Slash*

“AAAGGGGGGGHHHHH!!!!”

He severed both his arms.

Chapter 610 There Are Quite A Lot Of Things We Have To Talk About.

*Slash* *Slash*

“AAAGGGGGGGHHHHH!!!!”

Nux severed both his arms.

“Haaahh...”

While Roone howled in agony, Nux sat down right next to him and exhaled deeply.

He was on his edge throughout the entire battle.

All the spars against Astaria, no matter how real they were, in the end, both he and Astaria knew they wouldn't kill each other.

No matter how much they try, it would never become a real battle.

As for the time with Amletus... well, it was not exactly a battle...

Therefore, this was Nux's first time actually fighting against an Emperor.

At first, he tried to sneak up and behead Roone, ending this in a single move, however, as an Emperor who was sensitive to Mana, Roone quickly noticed him and he had to change his attack.

Nux had a psychological advantage in this battle,

A King Stage Cultivator who was fighting against an Emperor.

He was an oddity, so Roone couldn't guess how powerful Nux actually was.

He had that element of mystery around him, which Nux tried to use as much as possible, by trying to act as calmly as he could. To the point that he was even ridiculing his enemy and was acting like everything was under his control.

Nux did have an advantage of speed, however, Roone's combat gear was too powerful. Roone just protected his neck, as for the rest of the body, the Armor did the job and none of Nux's attacks worked.

That was also the reason why Nux was trying to rile Roone up throughout the battle. He wanted him to make a mistake. He was looking for an opportunity to get rid of him as soon as he could. Roone, however, was much more careful than Nux thought.

Even though the man was reacting to Nux's every word, he didn't let his guard down even for a second, Nux had to give it to him, Roone was a lot better than most of the people he had fought before.

'I guess he isn't an Emperor for nothing...'

Nux thought inwardly as he glanced at Roone who was still wailing in agony.

'Heh. I got lucky.'

Suddenly, Nux laughed.

He would admit, he was in a tight spot there.

Even after weeks of practice with Astaria, defeating an Emperor is not something he could do easily as a King Stage Cultivator.

As the Mana Potion Nux drank starting showing effect, he quickly glanced in Astaria's direction.

She was still fighting against Herms and from the looks of it, she would need some time before the fight ends.

Of course, Nux wouldn't dare go and help her, he knew Astaria well, and she would kill him if he did something unnecessary.

That was her pride as a warrior.

'Do you need any help?' Nux used his telepathic connection and questioned.

'We are fine. Everything is under control.' Ember replied.

'It would be surprising if it wasn't under control.' Amaya commented.

'Once Astaria defeats Herms, we would force the Solid Earth Soldiers to surrender.

No more useless bloodshed is required.' Evane spoke with a solemn look as well.

When it came to the War without the Emperors, Nux and his women never doubted themselves.

The Skyfall Kingdom had the strongest army in the world, the Woods Dynasty was already on their side, not only that, but the upper echelons of the Skadi Kingdoms, all of them were their slaves as well.

The Solid Earth Kingdom never stood a chance.

The only thing they were worried about was the trump card that Herms was hiding and from the looks of it,

This so-called trump card was now in Nux's arms.

Thinking about all this, a smile appeared on Nux's face, and then he turned his face towards Boone, who was lying on the floor.

"Well Well Well, now isn't this quite an interesting turn of events?"

Nux commented.

Actually, Nux was aiming to get rid of Boone as soon as he could. Unlike his other enemies, Boone was an Emperor and was not someone he can play around with.

Nux knew that well and wasn't willing to take any unnecessary risks.

There was no better enemy than a dead enemy, that was what Nux believed.

However, there were certain instances when things changes.

Now, for example.

Boone wasn't able to use Mana now.

His Arms were severed.

Even a Mortal would be able to kill him. He was as good as dead.

Nux then crouched near Boone's face and grabbed his hair,

"Hmmm."

Then, Nux started thinking.

He glanced at Boone's legs and,

"Well, just to be safe..."

Saying those words, Nux stood up and walked towards Boone's legs.

Boone's eyes widened in horror, for some reason, he knew what Nux was thinking about. He tried to use his remaining strength to try and run away, however, the moment he stood up, Nux kicked him from behind and then without giving him any chances,

*Slash* *Slash*

"AAAAGGghGGHHHhHHH!!"

He severed his legs below his knees.

“Hmmm, this would make sure you won’t do something unnecessary, here, drink this, it will stop your bleeding.

I think.”

Nux said and at the same time, he forced a Healing Potion into Roone’s mouth.

It was scary how calm he was while doing all of this.

It was as if he was possessed by an emotionless demon...

Nux was usually an easy-to-go man... but this time...

Roone said some things he shouldn’t have said...

And Nux didn’t forget any of that.

Nux then pulled Roone’s hair and lifted his head, lifting his head in air, Nux spoke with a demonic smile on his face.

“There are quite a lot of things we have to talk about.

I am sure this would be an exciting conversation.”

“AGGGHhGGGHHhHHH!!”

Even though Nux didn’t even do anything yet, Roone shouted in fear.

He wanted to alert his father, but for some reason, seeing him acting like that, Nux just smiled.

“Don’t bother, he wouldn’t be able to listen to your screams. It’s a little magic trick of mine.”

At the same time, he picked one of the Roone’s severed arms and Black Mist came out of Nux’s hand.

The Mist surrounded Roone's arm however, a few seconds later, Nux just snorted and threw the arm away.

'Tsk, it is still not working.' Nux shook his head in disappointment,

"Anyways,"

He then turned towards Roone and questioned,

"So? What did you say again?"

You wanted to see us beg in front of you?

No no, you actually graciously allowed a few of my wives to become your concubines, right, I remember that..."

Nux nodded to himself as he looked into Roone's eyes.

Roone's body trembled.

This...

This was going to get a little painful for the Emperor.

Chapter 611 Tsk, I Can'T Believe He Killed His Opponent Faster Than Me.

*Clank* *Clank* *Clank*

“Heh. You are weaker than I expected.”

Herms laughed as he continued to block Astaria’s attacks with his Great Sword.

“...”

Astaria didn’t say anything and continued with her attacks.

Unlike Nux, she didn’t have to play with her opponent’s emotions to achieve a victory. Her battle style was different.

A Battle Style that oozed out with confidence.

A bold, relentless, and dominant warrior.

That was what Astaria was.

Herms, on the other hand, held an advantage when it came to strength, however, Astaria didn’t give him any chance to use that strength. From the start to now, she has been relentlessly attacking him, forcing him to defend and only defend.

The victor was this battle was already clear.

Of course, this didn’t mean Astaria let her guard down, she continued to attack Herms.

Aiming at his legs, arms, shoulders, abdomen, back, neck, feet, forcing him to move his sword as much as possible and expend as much stamina as possible.

Herms didn't have a choice.

He knew that he would have a hard time fighting against Astaria, however... the battle would be this one-sided...

He never expected it.

Astaria was full of openings.

However, Herms felt like those openings are only there because Astaria was fighting against him and he used a Great Sword.

None of those weaknesses was something he could affect using a Great Sword.

It was as if Astaria has specially reformed her fighting style to match and perfectly counter his own.

Of course, Herms was giving himself too much credit.

He was not alone.

Astaria, who had sparred with all the Emperors there were, had prepared a battle style to counter all of them.

That was the only thing she could train on after becoming an Emperor after all.

A constant will to improve.

Astaria was burning with that.

Of course, this didn't mean she knew everything about all the Emperors.

Only an idiot would go all out while sparring against an enemy.

All the Emperors saved their trump cards.

Herm's did the same as well.

A poisoned needle suddenly appeared in Herm's hand and he quickly threw it, aiming at Astaria's waist.

Astaria, however, completely ignored the needle and continued to attack.

Herm's smile widened.

Astaria was underestimating his hidden weapon. The poison it was laced with could kill a King Stage Cultivator within 10 seconds. Even an Emperor would slow down once the poison affects them.

Herm was planning to keep on attacking Astaria with these needles, and once the effect of poison stacks up, he would end her.

A smile appeared on Herm's face when he thought about it.

Soon, however, the smile that had just appeared on his face disappeared.

The needle was reflected...

It failed to pierce through the Purple Black 'clothes' Astaria was wearing.

Herm's narrowed his eyes.

He had injected his own Mana into that needle... it should have pierced through any normal 3 Star Armor... a piece of clothes shouldn't be able to block it...

Something was wrong...

Herm started thinking.

“!!!”

Soon, however, his eyes widened in surprise as Astaria attacked his arm. This attack was unusually quick, and since his mind was already preoccupied, he only managed to react at the last second. Astaria's sword managed to cut through the vambrace and graze his forearm.

“Uggghh!”

Herms groaned in pain as he clenched the Sword he was holding.

Astaria, however, wasn't done yet and continued her attack since Herms's defense had weakened.

“Aagghh!”

Herms groaned in pain as Astaria's sword grazed his waist.

‘What kind of sword is that?’

Herms questioned inwardly.

That sword was cutting through his Armor as if it was paper.

His Armor was practically useless.

Herms, however, did not have time to think more about it.

Astaria was now unleashing a series of attacks at him just because he temporarily lost some of his concentration for a fraction of a second.

Herms's looked at Astaria's face and seeing that resolute look in her eyes, which seemed to be dead set on killing him, he couldn't help was shiver.

Astaria was reading him as if he was an open book.

Herms's felt that she was reading his mind, the moment he loses his focus, she would jump on the chance and attack again.

Herms clenched his fist in anger, then, he threw 9 hidden needles, this time, he aimed at Astaria's face, hands, and shoes.

Astaria was forced to stop and block some of those poisoned needles, Herms used this chance and for the first time in the entire battle,

He attacked.

*Clank*

Astaria barely defended, however, while doing that, her sword was pushed back, and with her defense crumbled,

*Bam*

Herms kicked her abdomen.

Astaria was pushed back, Herms then rushed towards her and with momentum on his side, he used the weight of his sword, trying to slice Astaria into two parts.

*Clank*

Astaria barely defended, however, Herms easily overpowered her and she was forced to step back again.

Herms's smile widened.

He had now gained the momentum. Now all he had to do was to continue attacking Astaria.

He moved his own Mana again and slashed his sword.

*Clank*

Astaria defended at the last moment, however, the impact was so strong that his body flew away.

“Khookh!”

At the same time, Astaria coughed out blood.

She quickly rolled on the floor and gained her balance, but the moment she did, Herms appeared right in front of her and attack again.

This time, however, Astaria moved her own Mana to jump back.

Herms's sword missed. Stopping it midway was nearly impossible, Astaria used this chance to rush toward Herms,

Herms forcefully broke the momentum of his Great Sword and barely defended against Astaria's attack,

However, suddenly, a smile appeared on Astaria's face and she smiled,

“Oh, I guess their battle ended.

Tsk, I can't believe he killed his opponent faster than me.”

Herms's expression changed.

He moved his Mana again and forced Astaria to move back.

He then quickly turned his head to where Roone and Nux were fighting and seeing that scene, Herms's paused.

Chapter 612 W-What Is That?

...

Herms's movements paused the moment his eyes laid on the scene in front of him.

That man was lifting his son through his hair, Roone's armor was stripped, his arms and legs were severed, and a pool of blood had formed under him.

'N-No.'

Herms's face turned pale when he observed his son's condition more deeply.

His eyes were gauged out. His tongue was cut off, that bastard was cruel enough to make sure that all the blood came out of Roone's mouth, not even allowing him to drown in his own blood.

There were deep scars around her face and chest area. The same was true for his abs and soon, Herms noticed a blood patch on Roone's pants around his crotch area.

What happened was clear...

His... his son's reproductive organ was chopped off as well...

That bastard... he had thoroughly tortured his son.

Herms's eyes then fell on Nux, the bastard responsible for all this. Herms's eyes were filled with rage. A rage so deep and pure that any normal man would tremble in fear if he saw that gaze.

Nux, however, looked back at Herms's face with a resolute expression on his face.

He didn't care.

Roone dared to lay his eyes on his wives, he had to die.

In the most painful way possible.

The longer Herms saw this scene, the more his body trembled in rage.

No matter what happens.

He would kill this bastard!

He would absolutely annihilate him, then cut his body into 10,000 pieces and feed it to dogs!

*Slash* *Slash*

Suddenly, Herms's expression changed.

He knew something happened and as if on cue, his brain registered the pain.

“AAAAGggGGGGGGHhhHHHH!!!”

Herms's screamed in agony.

*Thud* *Thud*

At the same time, both his arms, which were severed by Astaria, fell on the ground.

“To shift your focus somewhere else while you fight me, you sure are gutsy.”

Astaria commented with a cold look on her face.

“AAagAGGAGGgghhGHHH!”

However, instead of answering, Herms continued to scream in pain.

Inwardly, Astaria sighed.

She didn't know it before, but with how Herms completely ignored her presence the moment he saw his son's condition, she realized that Herms's love for his child was stronger than she thought.

An Emperor would never expose his back in front of his enemy no matter what...

If Herms did something like that...

Then Astaria feared that he might even take a nasty step that even she would have trouble against.

Therefore, she had to make sure that Herms never use his sword again.

What was the best way to do it?

It was to get rid of his arms.

And that's what Astaria did.

Now even if something out of the expectation happens, Herms wouldn't be able to do anything.

Confirming her victory, Astaria glanced at Nux, and seeing his face which was still covered in Roone's blood, Astaria didn't know how to react.

That expression...

Somehow it sent goosebumps all over her body. Even she was concerned by that gaze of his.

However, in the end, she forced herself not to think too much about it and nodded.

Nux looked at Astaria and nodded back.

The War had ended.

Nux then pulled Roone up into the air and placed his sword on Roone's neck.

Astaria understood what he wanted to do,

She quickly grabbed Herms's hair and placed her sword around his neck as well.

Herms didn't resist either. He looked nothing more than a lifeless puppet now. He wasn't even screaming in pain now.

Astaria and Nux glanced at each other again and just when they were about to cut off Herms's and Roone's heads,

A frown appeared on Astaria's face.

Herms suddenly lowered his head and spoke,

“Astaria, in this battle between you and me,

You won.”

Astaria's frown deepened, for some reason, she didn't like this situation at all.

She glanced at Nux and noticed that he was the same, he quickly beheaded Roone and rushed towards them.

Herms, who saw his son being beheaded right in front of his eyes didn't react at all.

Rather, he just glanced at Nux and spoke,

“The same goes for you, boy. For defeating Roone when he wore that Armor... even I couldn't do something like that.

The two of you completely defeated us.

However,

I will not congratulate yo-”

Before Herms could complete, Nux placed his sword on his neck and threatened in a cold tone,

“I do not like games like these, old man.

Be quick and make sure whatever you are saying is useful,

Else you will regret it.”

“Heh. You are impatient.”

Herms smiled.

Seeing that bloody smile, Nux and Astaria frowned.

“I hope your end is even more painful than my son’s.”

Herms spoke.

Then suddenly, a strange energy burst inside his body and he disappeared and appeared in front of both Astaria and Nux.

Seeing that energy, Astaria’s expression changed.

This...

This would have been troublesome if Herms had his arms...

But now...

Astaria didn’t know what Herms was planning.

However, she didn’t plan to give him time to do anything.

She quickly rushed towards him, however, the moment she arrived near him, he disappeared, Astaria and Nux quickly took their battle stance, however,

*Pierce*

Soon, their eyes fell on Herms, who...

Who had used the spike Nux had created to attack Roone to pierce his neck and... killed himself.

Yes, he committed suicide.

And that too, in one of the most gruesome manner.

“What... in the hell happened?”

Astaria couldn't help but question.

“I... I have no clue.”

Nux shook his head.

The situation was just too bizarre.

He didn't know how to react here.

“He... killed himself?”

In the end, Nux spoke and even now, his tone was unsure.

“A-Anyways, the war has ended.”

Astaria tried to regain her composure.

“Y-Yes.”

Nux nodded as well.

It was better to just forget what happened.

“I will conta-”

Just as Nux was about to contact his wives, his and Astaria's expression changed as a frightening Aura surrounded their bodies.

“W-What is that?”

Nux questioned as his face turned pale.

Chapter 613 It Seems You Had Quite The Fun When You Were Fighting Him.

“W-What is that?”

Nux questioned as his face turned pale.

He had felt something like this before.

It was the time when Astaria used her Aura to pressure him and broke his knees. However, there was a difference between these two situations.

This Aura...

It was far more frightening than Astaria's.

When Astaria used her Aura against him, Nux's fighting spirit was ignited.

‘I will not give in.’

That was his thought and that was why he decided to fight back to the point that even his knees broke.

Now, however, things were different.

Surrounded by this Aura, rather than the fighting spirit, Nux felt fear.

Yes.

He was afraid.

Afraid to the point where his body was trembling and his face was completely pale.

This pressure...

This suffocating feeling...

It wasn't something he could fight against...

Suddenly, Nux fell on his knees as he breathed heavily.

“Haahh.., Haahh... Haa...”

He gulped again.

His eyes then fell on Astaria and he noticed that she had pierced her sword into the ground.

Her arms were trembling, clearly, it was getting more and more difficult for her to continue standing, however, she still didn't give in.

Her pride was even higher than Nux's.

Her expression was still resolute.

She knew it as well.

This feeling was foreign and wasn't something she had felt before, however, even then, she knew.

Whatever it was,

Defeating it was impossible.

Seeing her, Nux's expression changed.

He clenched his fists and under this immense pressure, he gritted his teeth, pierced his sword into the ground as well, and then, he stood up.

“Khoockk!”

Nux coughed out blood.

However, the fear in his eyes had disappeared.

He would not give in as well.

“Hmmm? They are dead huh.”

Suddenly, Nux and Astaria heard a voice.

They quickly turned around and noticed an extremely handsome man wearing normal, everyday clothes, walking towards them with a smile on his face.

The man had long, white colored hair that was black on the ends, sharp blue colored eyes, fierce white eyebrows, a clean face, a thin nose, light pink lips, and an overall handsome appearance.

One odd thing to note about that man was that he had black stripes all over his body, even his face, and unlike normal, human ears, he had tiger-like ears coming out of his head.

It was a bizarre appearance and the moment Nux’s eyes fell on this man, he realized that this man was not a human.

(Picture in para comments)

Nux’s golden eyes shined and,

[Name: Nawdren Besch.]

[Age: 129-895]

[Mana Cultivation: Pseudo Sage.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal.]

[Race: Mutated Human-Beast]

[Occupation: Protector of the Sealed Continent.]

[Talent: –]

[LVL: 79.5]

The moment all this information appeared in front of Nux's eyes, he couldn't help but frown.

Just what the hell is this?

Was he really looking at the information using the [Eye of Discerning]?

What the hell was it so different?

The last time Nux checked, the age only consisted of a number, he had never seen a hyphen being used in age.

Also, what was this Pseudo Sage?

Mortal, Apprentice, Beginner, Master, Grand Master, Expert, King, and Emperor.

Where the hell is 'Pseudo Sage' here?

Also, why is the level written in decimals?

Then there is race, a mutated human beast, this, Nux could understand.

But then there's the occupation.

Protector of the Sealed Continent?

What is the Sealed Continent in the first place?

Is there a place sealed somewhere around here?

Did they somehow awaken this... strange thing... or man while fighting here?

Nux thought inwardly, however, soon, he shook his head and denied this conjecture.

The timing of this man's appearance was too accurate for it to be just that.

Herms seems to know about this man's existence. The same goes for this man, he knew about Herms as well.

The two of them are definitely connected.

Thinking about all this, Nux's face turned serious.

“He is not someone we can go easy against.

He is someone who is stronger than an Emperor Stage Cultivator.

He is a stage above Emperor.”

Nux spoke with a solemn look on his face as he glanced at Astaria.

“Stage above the Emperor...?”

Astaria questioned with a surprised look on her face.

Nux nodded.

According to how System normally worked, this man should still be an Emperor Stage Cultivator, however, the System has never shown 79.5 as a level.

The same goes for the ‘Mana Cultivation’ section.

A Pseudo Sage.

It was also a stage Nux has never seen.

Nux hypothesized that ‘Level 80’ the stage above the Emperor was ‘Sage’, this man, who was a Pseudo Sage, should still only be an Emperor, however, the energy he released seemed to tell otherwise.

This energy was definitely out of the ordinary and not something an Emperor could release.

“Are you done with this discussion of yours?”

Suddenly, the man questioned.

“...”

Nux and Astaria didn't say anything.

The man didn't mind either, he just glanced at Herms's and Roone's dead bodies and sighed,

“They really are dead...”

His focus then fell on Roone's body and he raised his eyebrow,

“Oh? It seems you had quite the fun when you were fighting him.”

The man spoke as he glanced at Nux.

Nux felt goosebumps all over his body when he felt this man's gaze. His face turned pale again, his legs weakened, this time, however, he didn't kneel down and stood strong.

“Oh? A mere King Stage Cultivator is able to go stand in front of my Aura, that's interesting,

No wonder you were able to defeat him.”

The man muttered to himself as he glanced at Nux with an interested look on his face.

Astaria, on the other hand, couldn't help but think about something else,

‘How does he know that Nux was the one who killed him?’

She was sure that this man wasn't there when they fought.

She didn't sense anyone.

And this man didn't have a reason to hide his presence.

Astaria was 100% sure that this man came here just now,

So just how...

“And you must be the one who killed Herms.”

Chapter 614 Do You Have Any Plans?

“And you must be the one who killed Herms.”

Suddenly, the man turned his face towards Astaria and spoke.

Astaria, who was still immersed in her own thoughts was taken by surprise when the man turned towards her. She noticed the pressure surrounding her body became heavier. She, however, used her own Mana to negate the pressure and looked into the man’s eyes without an ounce of fear in her eyes.

“He was weak.”

She replied.

She never needed any justification to kill anyone.

“Heeh?”

Hearing her reply, the man couldn’t help but smile.

“He was weak huh?”

The man muttered.

Suddenly, Nux stepped close to Astaria. Even though he didn’t say anything, his intent was clear.

He was ready for the fight.

If something happens, he would fight together with Astaria.

“Well, you aren’t wrong, he was pretty weak.”

Suddenly, the man laughed. He then glanced at Boone and nodded,

“The same goes for this man, he was weak as well.”

Then, the man frowned,

“But I remember giving this my combat gear, how did he lose when he had that?

And most importantly, where is my combat gear?” The man questioned as he glanced at Nux.

It was as if asking the question was just a formality, he knew Nux had the combat gear with him.

Nux narrowed his eyes, preparing for the battle.

There is no way in hell he was going to give the combat gear to this man. He was already scary enough as he was. If he got the combat gear with that, things would get even messier.

As if he read Nux’s mind, the man smiled and shook his head,

“You know I can kill you without the combat gear, right?”

“...”

Nux didn’t say anything.

‘Would the [Blink Fault] work?’ Suddenly, Nux heard Ember’s voice.

‘Where are you?’

Nux questioned in a panicked tone.

Anything but that.

His women should not come here. No matter what.

He didn't want to say it directly, but with their current strength, they would become a weakness.

'Don't worry, we won't be coming there.

For now at least.'

Ember knew what Nux was thinking and couldn't help but clench her fist in anger.

She was angry at her weak self. The other women were the same.

They have sensed Nawdren's Aura as well.

All of them were helpless in front of an Emperor, compared to someone who can overwhelm Emperors,

They were like ants.

None of the women were stupid enough to rush toward Nux in this situation, they would only make things worse, they knew it.

At the same time, none of them decided to run away either.

Not because they were planning to help when needed, as mentioned before, they wouldn't be able to do anything, they only stayed there because they didn't wish to stand out.

No one knew how strong Nawdren's perception was.

If he noticed that all of them were running away, he might chase after them, which would in turn make things difficult for Nux.

'It's fine then.' Nux sighed in relief.

'Anyways, what about it, would [Blink Fault] work?' Ember questioned again.

Nux glanced at Nawdren who was picking his nose with a careless look on his face and the shook his head,

‘I do not know... but if I had to guess...

Then I don’t think it would...’

‘...’

Ember and other women’s expressions turned serious.

‘Do you... have any plans?’

Ember questioned.

‘...’ Nux didn’t say anything.

The women turned silent.

Thyra turned towards Amaya, however, this time, even she shook her head.

The same was true for Riona as well.

She didn’t have any way out either.

“Haahh! This is getting boring.” Suddenly, Nawdren sighed.

Then, his relaxed body language changed and he glanced at Nux and Astaria,

“You two killed my subordinates, that is unacceptable.

Surrender, replace these two, hand over your Kingdoms to me, and I will let you live.

How is it?”

“Keep dreaming.”

Astaria responded.

Hearing this reply, Nawdren's smile widened.

“As I expected. You guys are a lot more fun than these two weak bastards! Hahaha!

This would definate-”

Before the man could even complete, Nux appeared in front of him and attacked.

However, to Nux's shock, the man simply grabbed his sword with his finger and a thumb and glanced at him.

“You are quite gutsy, a complete opposite of how you were trembling a while ago. I commend yo-”

Before Nawdren could complete, stepped away.

A huge spike popped out of the ground he was standing on.

He glanced at the Spike with a curious look on his face and started wondering,

“That's quite an interesting Skill you have, is it an 8-Star Skill? But how do you have something like that? Boy, you sure are full of sur-”

Astaria appeared behind Nawdren and attacked as well. Both she and Nux were in no mood of listening to his bullshit.

Only Nux had the right to bullshit while he is battling, everyone else was just annoying.

Unlike Nux's attack, which Nawdren could simply ignore, Astaria was different,

Even though he was strong, Nawdren still had to be a little cautious around Astaria, he quickly dodged her attack.

Nux, on the other hand, attacked again using his other sword.

Nawdren simply used the Nux's sword that he was holding to block his other sword, Nux, however, had already expected it, he let go of both his swords and used this chance to kick Nawdren's face.

*Bam***

However, to Nux's surprise, his kick didn't do any damage to Nawdren even though his attack connected perfectly.

“You shouldn't have done that bo-”

Nawdren was about to warn, however, Astaria used this chance and aim at his neck, trying to behead him for good.

Nawdren narrowly dodged.

Two new swords appeared in Nux's hands as he attacked again.

Both Astaria and Nux showed frightening teamwork, the one that put even someone like Nawdren in a tight spot.

“You fucking pests!!

I was being patient just now.”

Suddenly, the Aura around Nawdren changed.

Now he was actually pissed.

He suddenly disappeared from where he stood and appeared behind Nux.

“Nux!!!”

Astaria shouted in worry.

“!!!”

Nux's eyes widened in surprise.

He quickly activated [Mirror] to block Nawdren's attack. However, Nawdren was faster, his punch connected and,

*Crack*

Nux's spine broke.

“AAagggggghhhhh!”

Chapter 615 That Boy Can'T Live.

“AAagggggghhh!”

Nux screamed in agony as his body flew away.

“NUX!!”

Astaria shouted in worry.

‘NUX!!’

His wives were the same as well.

“We are going there!”

Amaya spoke as she rushed towards Nux.

Ember, however, quickly appeared right next to her and held her hand,

“Are you out of your mind!? What are you even going to do there!?”

“I am sure I can do something much better than just staying here like a spineless bitch like you!”

Amana retorted in anger.

*Slap*

Suddenly, Evane, who was near them, slapped Amaya.

“You would nothing but bring even more trouble to him! You think Nux won’t react when you get hurt!? You think that man wouldn’t notice how much Nux cares for you!? What if that man decides to use you to make Nux do something that he would never do even if it cost his life!?”

Would you be able to see that with your own eyes!?” Evane shouted.

“I-I would kill myself bef-”

“And as if that would make Nux feel a lot better right!?” Evane shouted again.

“You think all of us are happy knowing that we cannot help him!?” Evane questioned as she pointed at Ember.

Ember’s eyes were red.

Lawrence, who was looking at her knew she was angry.

Not angry at Amaya, but at herself.

He had never seen this expression on the always confident Ember’s face.

With how she was clenching her fists... and how her body was trembling... Lawrence knew she was barely holding back.

Amaya finally noticed Ember’s expression as well.

She freed her hand, however, this time, she did not rush toward Nux.

She just stood there, cursing her own weakness and helplessness.

The other women were the same as well.

All of them lowered their heads and clenched their fists.

Even Edda, Allura, and Skyla, the ones who rarely showed this kind of emotion... all of them were the same as well.

Suddenly, a figure rushed towards the battlefield where Nux was fighting.

“Where do you think yo-”

Evane was about to shout at the figure, however, she quickly realized it was not one of her sisters.

“Who is he?”

Felberta questioned.

“That’s Alcius’s disciple,” Thyra answered.

“What is he trying to achieve?”

“Something all of us want to...”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

All the women turned silent.

...

On the other side, just as Astaria was about to rush towards Nux to check up on him, Nawdren appeared in front of her and attacked.

Astaria used her sword to block the attack.

“He is not dead yet, don’t worry.”

“You will pay for that.” Astaria glared at Nawdren and spoke in a hoarse voice.

“You seem to care a lot about that boy,” Nawdren noted.

Astaria didn’t say anything and slashed her sword at Nawdren.

“Though I must admit, he is absurdly strong for a mere King Stage Cultivator.”

Nawdren commented as he glanced at Nux who was groaning in pain.

At the same time, he deflected Astaria’s every attack using his bare hands.

Actually, it didn't even look like he cared much about this battle, it was as if Astaria was someone he could get rid of any time he wanted and he was just playing around and passing his time.

His eyes were fixed,

The King Stage Cultivator who is able to kill an Emperor was much more interesting to him than the so-called strongest human on this continent.

“I have decided.”

Suddenly, Nawdren spoke.

Astaria, however, completely ignored his blabbering and continued to attack, her attack wasn't doing any damage, and Nawdren was simply parrying her attacks as if they were nothing. However, she didn't care.

In the end, Nawdren was still blocking her attacks, which meant her attacks posed some threats to him.

So as long as she can break through his defense, she can do something about this situation.

“That boy can't live.”

Suddenly, Nawdren decided.

“I was thinking of keeping the two of you alive and turn you into my servants, however, keeping that boy alive is too risky, if he manages to become an Emperor, he might even have a shot at defeating me. He is a threat that I should remove.”

This time, Astaria's expression changed.

“Don't even think about it.” She warned.

Suddenly, the Mana around her moved, not to her arms, but to her sword and her sword shined.

Seeing Astaria's sword shining like that, Nawdren's expression changed.

He quickly jumped back and picked up the sword that fell out of Nux's hand and glanced at Astaria.

Astaria rushed towards him and slashed her sword,

Nawdren tried to defend her attack with the sword he picked, however, the moment Astaria's sword touched Nawdren's sword, it sliced it into two parts as if it was cutting butter and her attack continued to move towards Nawdren.

“Ugghhh!”

Nawdren was forced to move back, however, in the process, Astaria's sword grazed through his chest, leaving a big cut.

Nawdren jumped back again and touched his chest.

“As I thought.”

Seeing the blood in his hand and the broken sword in his other hand, Nawdren's expression turned even solemn as he glanced at Astaria.

Astaria, however, didn't give him any time and rushed toward him again.

Nawdren maintained his distance, not allowing Astaria to come near him.

“Running away after talking so big? I expected better.”

Astaria provoked.

“...”

Nawdren didn't say anything and continued to observe Astaria, or more specifically, her sword.

A few seconds later, Astaria's sword, which was shining started glimmering.

That was Nawdren's cue.

He quickly appeared near Astaria,

"I knew you couldn't maintain it for long.

An Emperor shouldn't even have the ability to manifest it in the first place."

He spoke and at the same time, he punched Astaria's abdomen.

"Khocckk!"

Astaria coughed out blood.

"Tsk, he was not alone.

You are an unusual monster as well.

You need to die as well."

Saying that, Nawdren grabbed Astaria by her throat and lifted her in the air.

Just as he was about to break her neck and end this once and for all,

Alcimus appeared.

"Not on my watch, you bastard!"

Chapter 616 You Really Are Underestimating Me, Aren'T You?

“Not on my watch, you bastard!”

Alcimus shouted as he attacked Nawdren from behind. Nawdren dodged the attack, while he did that, Astaria kicked his abdomen and escaped from his grip.

“You...”

Nawdren’s expression changed.

Alcimus, however, didn’t care and attacked again.

Nawdren simply blocked his attack with his hand and punched his face.

“PHoocck!”

Alcimus’s body was sent flying.

Seeing this, a smile appeared on Nawdren’s face and he laughed,

“Heh, finally a normal human.

You must feel out of place when you compare yourself with monsters like them, don’t you?”

“...”

Alcimus didn’t say anything and just glanced at Astaria, who was currently beside Nux who was still lying on the floor.

“How about it?”

Suddenly, Nawdren questioned.

Alcimus tilted his head in confusion and Nawdren's smile widened,

“Herms and Roone are already dead. I remember there was another weakling as well, if he is not here, it means he must have died as well.

I will kill these 2 freaks right now, so you will be the only Emperor left on this continent.

How about it?

Would you like to get rid of these 2 freaks and be my subordinate?

I promise that I will treat you well.”

Nawdren offered.

“...”

Hearing those words, Alcimus turned silent.

He turned towards Astaria and Nux again, who were looking at him and Nawdren with grim expressions on their faces, then he turned towards Nawdren.

It was a good offer.

Even if they somehow manage to kill this bastard, the Skyfall Kingdom would have two beings who are as strong as Emperors, while he would be alone.

In the end, the Skyfall Kingdom would consume everything and he would be left with nothing.

No matter what happens, he would end up in the same position in both these cases.

Then... why not just choose the stronger side and stay alive?

Which of the two sides was stronger here?

The two who were currently sitting on the ground, injured, or the one being who was standing above all, looking down and suppressing all of them as if they were bugs?

Obviously, Nawdren was superior.

That boy named Nux may have tremendous potential, but currently, Nawdren had a clear upper hand.

Not only that, he also had people he wanted to protect, going against a man like Nawdren was simply a suicide.

“I am- Kkhooockk!”

Just as Alcimus was about to agree, Nawdren appeared in front of him and punched him again.

“Hahaha~ I love playing with weaklings like you. To think you would actually start considering my offer?”

Hahaha~

Why would I want a weakling like you who has wasted all his potential and only has a few years left to live as my subordinate?

Not to mention that cowardly nature of yours is disgusting.

People like you would only become a hindrance.”

Nawdren laughed.

Alcimus’s expression changed.

This bastard was playing with him.

Unlike Astaria and Nux, who Nawdren had actually acknowledged and considered them a threat, he was nothing but a plaything for him.

For a prideful Emperor, this treatment was... infuriating.

“You will pay for this.”

Alcimus muttered inwardly.

“What did you say, you insect?” Nawdren questioned.

Alcimus glared at Nawdren and rushed towards him again.

“I said you would pay for hitting me, you bastard!!”

Alcimus shouted as aimed at Nawdren’s neck.

“Oh yeah? Why don’t you make me pay then?”

Nawdren smiled and punched Alcimus’s abdomen.

“Khoocckk!!”

At the same time, Astaria appeared behind Nawdren and aimed at his legs, Nawdren simply lifted his feet and dodged.

“Oh? What is it? You are going to help this weakling who was about to betray you?” Nawdren questioned.

Astaria, however, didn’t say anything and continued to aim at Nawdren’s lower body, forcing him to step back and avoid her attacks.

When she fought Nawdren before, her sword somehow started absorbing her Mana and started glowing.

She didn’t know what was happening, however, she was certain about one thing.

That was something very powerful.

It cut through Nux’s 7-Star Sword as if it was nothing.

Even Nawdren, who was undermining everything was suddenly frightened of that move and started running away, waiting for her to burn off all her Mana. She even managed to put that huge scar on his chest using that Technique.

Astaria drank a Mana Potion however, that move needed absurd amount of Mana. She still didn't have enough Mana to activate that move again, and for some reason, Astaria felt that even if she did have enough Mana, she wouldn't be able to use that move.

She had tried to deactivate that move once Nawdren started running away in order to save her Mana, however, it was as if her sword had a will of its own and it wouldn't stop sucking off her Mana until she had barely any left.

Astaria knew that she cannot control that technique.

Not with how she was like right now.

She needed to get better.

But before that, she needed to defeat this man-beast in front of him, or else, both she and Nux would die here.

And to defeat this bastard, she needed Alcimus's help.

“Ahh, so that's it. You must be thinking of making use of this weakling in order to defeat me. That's why you are helping him, isn't that right?”

Suddenly, Nawdren laughed.

He knew what Astaria was thinking, however, suddenly, he shook his head,

“But I am disappointed.

You really are underestimating me, aren't you?”

Suddenly, a wide smile appeared on Nawdren's face as he questioned.

“Did you really think you, who has spent almost all her Mana and this weaking can work together and defeat me?

Do you really think something like that would work? Do you really believe he can actually be of any help to you? Heck he is not even a good meat shield.

An ant-like existence like him is simply useless.”

And as if trying to prove his point, Nawdren disappeared from his place and appeared in front of Alcimus,

Alcimus failed to react in time and Nawdren,

*Bam* *Bam* *Bam*

Started punching his face countless times.

He then grabbed Alcimus’s arm and started slamming him on the ground multiple times, treating him like nothing but a rag doll.

Chapter 617 Even A Mere King Stage Cultivator Dares To Shout At Me? Heh.

He then grabbed Alcius's arm and started slamming him on the ground multiple times, treating him like nothing but a rag doll.

“Khhkkkkhkk!!”

Alcius groaned in pain.

He was completely helpless in front of Naldren.

Astria tried to help him as well, however, Naldren was simply using Alcius's body like a weapon and was swinging him around, forcing Astria to step back.

She couldn't even swing her sword because if she did, the one who would get hurt would be Alcius.

Of course, she didn't really care about this old man, however, the problem was, if she attacked, her sword would pierce Alcius's body, making it unusable for a few seconds, and those few seconds would be enough for Naldren to end this battle.

“Khhoocckkk!!”

Alcius continued to groan in pain as Naldren continued to slam him onto the ground.

“Yo- fucking bas-KhhHhkkh!”

Alcius tried to kick Naldren in order to get away from him, Naldren, however, simply changed the direction he was throwing him into and completely blocked his momentum.

The scene was similar to a child 'wrestling' with his stuffed toy. Of course, Alcimus was the stuffed toy here.

'This cannot go on...'

Astaria, who was witnessing this scene thought with a solemn look on her face.

She glanced at Nux, who was still lying on the floor.

Their eyes met and Nux nodded at her.

Astaria nodded back.

The plan was clear.

Nux's [Regeneration] has already kicked in, combined with the Health Potion he had drank, his spine was pretty much healed now...

Just a few more minutes, and he would be able to fight back.

Astaria just needed to hold this man for a few more minutes.

What after Nux gets up?

Well, to be honest, both Astaria nor Nux didn't know.

They would team up with Alcimus and try to defeat Nawdren, however, with how things are currently happening,

Astaria doubted they would be able to win.

Nawdren was just too strong.

And with how he was currently playing around with Alcimus... Astaria doubted he would be able to fight with them...

Astaria glanced at Nux again and her expression changed.

Regret.

That man was a King Stage Cultivator who was capable of fighting against an Emperor... if he was an Emperor... then maybe... maybe he could have defeated Nawdren...

If only she had not initiated this stupid challenge and had given into Nux's advance...

Not only Nux, but even his wives would have also become an Emperor.

Nawdren may be strong, but in front of 11 Emperors... even he would have been helpless...

Astaria's eyes turned moist as she thought about all this.

Nux noticed that expression on Astaria's face and seeing the strongest human breaking down right in front of his eyes, Nux clenched his fist in anger.

Helplessness...

This was his first time feeling so helpless...

It was as if all that training he has been through... all of that was for naught.

'FUCK!!'

Nux cursed inwardly.

He was about to stand up, getting ready to attack Nawdren, ending this, even if it cost him his life, but suddenly,

"Father!!"

Suddenly, a man rushed towards the battlefield, and seeing the state Alcimus was in, the man's expression changed.

“Father...”

He called out again.

Alcimus, who was lying on the ground couldn't reply. His face was bruised, some of his bones were broken, it looked as if he was barely alive.

Seeing this scene, the man clenched his fist in anger.

His eyes then fell on the white-haired man-beast who was standing near Alcimus's body with a casual look on his face and shouted,

“You bastard! How dare you hurt my father!!?”

For some reason, the aura Nawdren unconsciously released had little to no effect on this man.

The man then rushed towards Nawdren, his sword appeared in his hand and he attacked, beheading Nawdren in one move.

...or at least that was what he had planned he would do.

However, before he could even attack, the man felt as if 1 million kilos of weight had been placed on top of his body, unable to take it, the man couldn't do anything and fell down, coughing out blood.

“Khhoocckk!”

The man's eyes widened in horror.

Just... just what in the hell was happening.

*Step*

Suddenly, Nawdren walked towards the man who was lying on the floor and placed his leg on the man's head.

“Hoh? Now this is interesting. Even a mere King Stage Cultivator dares to shout at me?”

That bastard has the strength to back it up, but a mere bug like you actually dared to do it?

Commendable indeed.”

Nawdren praised.

Soon, however, his expression changed.

“But do you even realize who you are talking to, little bug?”

“UUugggghhh!!”

The man groaned in pain as Nawdren applied more pressure on his head.

Suddenly, Nawdren’s expression changed.

“N-Nwo!”

Seeing that expression, Alcius widened his eyes in horror, even though he barely had the power to move, he extended his hands towards Nawdren, telling him to stop.

Nawdren glanced at Alcius, a cruel smile then appeared on his face and,

*Burst***

He increased the pressure and...

The man’s head burst apart.

“...”

Alcius froze.

The man who died was none other than the son he adopted.

The son he was so proud of, the son he knew would become the hope of the Woods Dynasty and would follow him and become an Emperor...

A son who he loved more than his actual son...

Kyler Woods.

“You...”

Nawdren frowned when he noticed the change in Alcimus’s Aura.

“...”

Alcimus, however, didn’t say anything and just lowered his head.

It looked as if he had given up.

However,

Nawdren knew something was up.

Not only him, even Astaria knew something was wrong.

She quickly appeared next to Nux, for some reason, she felt this wasn’t going to end well.

“Astaria?”

Nux called out with a confused expression on his face.

“...”

Astaria didn’t reply and just continue to look at Alcimus.

Nux couldn’t understand why she was acting like this.

Suddenly,

Alcimus stood up.

Nux glanced at him and then he realized.

Alcimus was different from before...

The energy around him... Its intensity matched Nawdren's...

Chapter 618 Ha... Haha... Hahahaha...

Alcimus stood up and glared at Nawdren.

His face was disfigured and was covered with his own blood, however, for some reason, that made him even more intimidating. His eyes shining under that bloodied face... Alcimus looked frightening.

And this was not true for just appearance alone.

The energy around Alcimus... Its intensity matched Nawdren's...

Yes, the energy the two of them released were of the same intensity, no, Alcimus's energy was even overpowering Nawdren's energy.

“Y-You crazy bastard.”

Nawdren cursed.

It was the first time he stuttered this whole time. It showed how serious the situation actually was.

Alcimus, however, didn't say anything and disappeared.

Nawdren took his battle stance and a vigilant expression appeared on his face.

Even he couldn't keep up with Alcimus's speed, therefore, he had to be prepared for everything.

He quickly used his Mana to cover all his vital spots, ready to take on Alcimus's attack.

Alcimus didn't play any tricks, he directly appeared in front of Nawdren and punched him.

Nawdren tried to block the punch, however, Alcimus's punch carried a far greater force than he expected. Nawdren's body was shot back and it collided with a tree.

“Khokkcchkkhh!”

It was the second time Nawdren was hurt in this battle.

Alcimus, however, didn't have any change in his expression. As if he was in some sort of hurry, he quickly appeared in front of Nawdren and aimed at his neck, wanting to end this as soon as possible.

Nawdren, however, focused all his Mana on his neck and chest and defended with anything he had.

*Bam* *Bam* *Bam*

Alcimus didn't give up, knowing that it was useless to attack Nawdren's neck, he started unleashing frighteningly strong punches, disfiguring Nawdren's face and hoping he would use his Mana to defend his face.

Nawdren, however, held on as if he was clenching to his dear life.

He continued getting punched, at the same time, maintaining Mana to defend his vital points.

*Crack*

“AAAgggGGghhhHHh!!”

Suddenly, Alcimus changed his tactics and attacked Nawdren's groin with his knee.

A *Crack* sound was heard.

Nawdren's eyes widened in horror and an agonizing scream was heard.

Alcimus used this opportunity to rip Nawdren's head, however, he was so focused on killing him that he didn't notice the 2 large wind spears that were aimed at his shoulders.

[Lance of Destruction]

A 7-Star Skill.

Since the activation time of a 7 Star Skill was too high, using it in the battle between Emperors was impractical, therefore, the 7 Star Skills were completely ignored.

The Skills below this level were too weak to actually be able to do anything, therefore, Emperors rarely used any skills when they fight.

However, Nawdren was different.

He had a lot of time to prepare this. He wanted to rip off Alcimus's arms using this Skill.

However, contrary to his expectation, the moment the 2 [Lance of Destruction] touched Alcimus's shoulders, they disappeared, failing to do any damage.

Of course, it didn't mean they were useless.

Alcimus's hair turned white, Nawdren used this chance to get out of there, thus getting a safe distance away from Alcimus.

He cleaned the blood around his face, and at the same time, started thinking of different ways to get rid of this bastard.

He needed to waste more time.

Alcimus, however, wasn't willing to let him go and rushed towards him again.

...

“W-What the hell is happening...?”

On the other hand, Nux, who was looking at this fight couldn't help but widen his eyes in surprise.

How did Alcius become so strong?

Was he holding back this whole time?

He turned towards Astaria for answers and seeing the grim look on her face, Nux realized she knew something.

“Astaria, what is happening?”

Nux questioned.

“Do you remember when I told you to kill or at least slice both their arms off whenever you win a fight against an Emperor?” Astaria questioned back with a solemn look on her face. Nux nodded and Astaria continued,

“This was the reason I said that...

An Emperor's last Trump Card...

Life Force.”

“Huh?” Nux frowned.

“Alcius is currently exchanging his life for that power. Do you see how his hair is turning white? That's a sign that his Life is diminishing.

It may look like Alcius has the upper hand right now, but...

He won't be able to hold on for much longer.”

Astaria explained.

“Life Force? What's that?”

“It is just what it’s named, it’s your Life Force.

An Emperor can ‘burn’ his Life Force and can convert it into the purest form of Mana. A Mana whose output is incomparably stronger than one’s own Mana.

It is like turning your Life Force into Mana itself.”

Yes, it was also what Herms used in his last moment to free himself from Astaria’s grip. If not for his arms, which were sliced off, he would have killed Nux right there, however, since he knew he was helpless, he didn’t give Astaria the joy to kill him and took his own life.

“Turning your Life Force into Mana...”

Nux repeated those words again.

He had a strange expression on his face when he did that.

“Of course, I also know the best move for us is to rush towards them and assist Alcimus, but the problem is, that battle is currently out of our league...

The speed at which they are moving, the strength behind their attacks...

It is completely different from compared to us.

For now, the only thing we do is hope that Alcimus somehow defeats Nawdren, or even if he can’t defeat him, he should at least injure him to the point the two of us can defeat him.”

Astaria spoke as she continued to watch the battle with a hopeful look on her face.

However, as if to bash away that hope,

“Khkkhckk!”

Alcimus, who was about to rush towards Nawdren again, suddenly coughed out blood again, his skin turned pale, and then, his body started shrinking.

Alcimus then fell on the ground, his hair completely turned white and the shine in his eyes started fading away.

Seeing this scene, Nawdren's expression changed and,

“Ha... Haha... Hahahaha...”

He started laughing.

Chapter 619 But What If I Torture Him?

“Ha... Haha... Hahahaha...”

As Alcius fell on the ground, a big smile of relief appeared on Naudren’s face and he started laughing.

He then slowly walked towards Alcius, then he grabbed his hair, and lifted his body in the air.

“I really can’t believe it...”

For an old bastard like you, you sure held on for a long time.”

He spoke.

“...”

Alcius, however, didn’t reply.

Seeing this, Naudren frowned, he then moved Alcius’s body a little, however, seeing that he still didn’t respond, Naudren placed a finger near Alcius’s nose and soon, a smile appeared on his face.

“To sacrifice all your life just because I killed that useless King Stage Cultivator, what a fool you were.”

Yes, Alcius was dead.

He had used up all his Life Force.

Naudren laughed out loud and then threw Alcius’s body again.

“I would have turned you into my subordinate if I knew you were so attached to this stupid King Stage Cultivator.”

Then, Nawdren turned towards Astaria and a smile appeared on his face,

“Do you have anyone you would sacrifice your life to avenge as well?”

“...”

Astaria narrowed her eyes.

Nawdren’s eyes then fell on Nux, who was still lying on the floor and his expression changed.

“Hmmm? If I kill that boy, would you use your Life Force to try and avenge him as well?”

Nawdren questioned.

“...”

Astaria just took her battle stance and didn’t reply.

Nawdren, however, already got his answer.

A crazy smile appeared on his face as he questioned,

“Hmmm, what if I spare him?”

Astaria frowned and Nawdren continued,

“What would you do if I spare him and all your subordinates, children, and everyone else? Would you sacrifice your pride and swore your loyalty to me?”

Nawdren questioned with an interested smile on his face.

“Nux...”

Suddenly, Astaria called out.

She didn't have to think.

The answer was clear.

“Get ready to fight...

For one last time.”

Astaria spoke as she glared at Nawdren with a vigilant look on his face.

Alcimus may not have inflicted as much damage as she expected, however, he still did an okay job. In the previous battle, Astaria understood to what extent Nawdren's strength extends to.

He was strong, however, for some reason, Astaria felt that his body movements were a little awkward.

Even though he could see his opponent's movements, he fails to react to them.

His moves aren't amateurish, they show his experience in battles, however, his body movements... they felt forced.

Unlike hers, or Nux's, whose bodies move naturally and smoothly, Nawdren's body movements were... awkward.

It was as if he was not used to his own body.

Astaria didn't know what it was, however, she knew that if she and Nux tried, then they can definitely make use of this weakness and win against Nawdren...

Of course, the chances of victory were low, very low in fact, but at the very least, they weren't nil. With that thought in her mind, Astaria prepared herself for the intense battle ahead, waiting for Nux's reply, however, soon, a frown appeared on Astaria's face.

“ ... ”

Nux... didn't reply.

“Nux?”

Astaria turned her head towards Nux and noticed that he hadn't moved at all. Astaria narrowed her eyes.

Seeing this scene, Nawdren just smiled,

“Do you really expect him to fight together with you?

I know he is strong, but I broke his spine you know?

Even if he took a Health Potion, he wouldn't be standing anytime soon.

He would at least need 5 to 6 days, don't be too hard on him.”

“ ... ”

Astaria didn't bother with what Nawdren was saying, she was more concerned about Nux.

Nawdren, however, didn't like that.

He walked towards Astaria and then questioned,

“You still haven't answered me, girl.

Would you surrender?

Or would you keep your useless pride and witness me kill everything you protected for so many decades?”

“Don't even think about hurting anyone.”

Astaria spoke and at the same time, she stepped in front of Nux.

Seeing her acting like that, Nawdren's smile widened,

“I just love crushing the spirit of people like you.

I have decided,

I would make you surrender to me.”

Nawdren thoughts were ever-changing.

Suddenly, he disappeared and appeared right in front of Astaria.

Astaria jumped back.

She tried to infuse Mana into her sword as she did before, however, she failed again.

This didn't stop her, she appeared in front of Nawdren and attacked.

Nawdren simply grabbed her sword, pulled it close to him aggressively, Astaria lost her balance, Nawdren used this chance and slapped Astaria away.

Astaria's body flew away and she fell down.

“Ugghhhhh!”

She groaned in pain and at the same time, she glared at Nawdren with anger searing in her eyes.

Nawdren simply walked towards her, then he disappeared, and appeared behind her, Astaria turned around in panic and,

*Slap*

Nawdren slapped her again.

*Thud*

Astaria's body flew away again.

She tried to stand up, however, Nawdren quickly appeared right next to her and grabbed her hair,

“Let me ask you again,

Would you surrender?”

“In your dreams.”

Astaria was quick to reply.

The hate in her eyes as she glared at this man was clear.

**Spit**

Suddenly, Astaria spat at Nawdren's face.

It was so sudden that Nawdren failed to react in time and the spit fell on his right cheek.

Nawdren's expression changed.

**Bam**

“Khhoookhhkhkkk!!”

He used his knee to strike Astaria's abdomen.

The blow was so frightening that Astaria coughed out a huge amount of blood from her mouth.

“I will make you regret doing that.”

Nawdren spoke as he pulled her hair, forcing her to look at him.

“You are a strong woman, I know hurting you wouldn't do any good.”

Nawdren spoke, then, his smile turned demonic as he glanced at Nux,

“But what if I torture him?

Right in front of your eyes.”

Astaria’s expression changed.

Seeing that change, Nawdren’s smile widened even further and he continued.

“What would happen then?

Hmmmm? I wonder.

Would you make an interesting face?

I hope you do and I am sure he would hope so as well. His life would depend on it, after all.”

Saying that, Nawdren pulled Astaria’s hair and dragged her with him while he walked toward Nux with a crazy smile on his face.

Chapter 620 I... I Am... Afraid...?

“Would you make an interesting face?”

I hope you do and I am sure he would hope so as well. His life would depend on it after all.”

Saying that, Nawdren pulled Astaria’s hair and dragged her with him while he walked toward Nux with a crazy smile on his face.

Astaria glared at Nawdren with a hateful look on her face.

Then her eyes fell on Nux, who was still lying on the ground, not moving at all.

Imagining what was going to happen in the future, Astaria’s expression changed.

Her fists started trembling in... fear...

‘Huh?’

Seeing this, even Astaria herself was surprised.

‘I... I am... afraid...?’

She questioned inwardly as she glanced at her hands which were still trembling.

She knew for sure that she wasn’t scared of dying. That was just not possible. She was a warrior, dying on a battlefield was a prideful moment for her.

But for her to actually tremble in the middle of the war...

Astaria couldn’t believe this.

She then glanced at Nux again and suddenly, a wry smile appeared on her face.

‘This is all because of you...

What have you done to me, you bastard?’

Astaria chuckled inwardly.

As Nawdren was nearing Nux, Astaria knew she didn’t have much time,

‘Alright, I will ignore my pride for once, you bastard.’

Suddenly, Astaria closed her eyes.

Using her own life in exchange for power.

For her, it was a cowardly move that she swore she would never use.

If an opponent forced her to the point of using her Life Force, then the opponent deserved the victory.

That was what Astaria thought.

That was also the reason why she hadn’t used Life Force until now.

Yes, ‘until now.’

For the first time in her long life,

Astaria decided to put down her pride.

‘Forcing me to do something like this, you bastard, you better make sure you make it out alive.’

With that thought in mind, suddenly, Astaria spoke,

“You know, I am only 318 years old.”

“Huh?”

Nawdren frowned.

“What the hell are you talking about?”

“I am saying I am 318 years old.”

“And?”

“Alcimus was around 490 years old.”

“Woman, did you lose your mind?”

Nawdren questioned.

“I am 100 years younger than him.”

“And you think I care about it? What do you want? Should I praise you because you became an Emperor when you are only 300 years old?”

Nawdren questioned.

“I am just saying that I have a lot more years to live compared to Alcimus.”
Astaria smiled.

Nawdren’s expression changed.

Seeing this, Astaria’s smile widened,

“You are finally realizing what I am talking about, huh...”

“Why go so far...?” Nawdren questioned with a genuine look on his face.

“What do you mean?” Astaria just smiled.

“You know you still wouldn’t be able to defeat me even if you use up all your Life Force, right?”

“But I can critically injure you.”

“I highly doubt that,” Nawdren replied.

Astaria was strong, very strong and if she used her Life Force, she would be even stronger, however,

Don't forget, she wasn't the only one who can use Life Force.

Nawdren could use it as well.

Not only that, but he was only 100 years old.

His Life Force would last a lot longer than Astaria's.

Astaria stood no chance.

The only reason Nawdren is not actually ending her was that he didn't wish to use his Life Force, that power came with a scary price.

He was avoiding having to pay that price, however, if things get troublesome, he wouldn't mind ending Astaria once and for all.

“Why not just surrender? You would lose, in anger, I might even kill everyone you treasure as well. It wouldn't end well for both of us.

Why be so stubborn? I promise I would treat you well.

Not only that, I would also tell you the Truth of the World.”

“Truth of the World?” Astaria frowned. Soon, however, she ignored what this man said and just stood up.

Her sword then appeared in her hands again.

Seeing this, Nawdren sighed.

“You are too stubborn.”

“I thank you for the compliment.” Saying that, Astaria jumped back.

Nawdren and Astaria glanced at each other again and,

*BOOM***

A burst of energy was felt by everyone present there.

Even the weakest soldiers who were present a few Kilometers away from the battlefield felt this energy and trembled.

Some of them even passed out.

Mind you, this was something that didn't happen even when Nawdren had appeared and his Aura was overpowering Nux and Astaria.

No matter how strong the Aura Nawdren unconsciously released was, it wasn't something that could affect soldiers who were standing a few kilometers away.

This new aura, however... was different.

A dark, dull, and suffocating Aura...

“W-What the hell is happening there?”

Riona, who was standing together with Nux's wives questioned.

The War here had already ended, the King and Expert Stage Cultivators of the Solid Earth Kingdom were dead, the Skadi Soldiers had turned sides and the Solid Earth Soldiers had surrendered.

However, none of that was important.

All the King Stage Cultivators were currently focusing on the real battlefield.

None of them could see anything, however, all of them were still wary and didn't dare to go near it.

“He is still not answering...” Evane shook her head.

Nux had stopped responding to whatever they speak using their connection.

“He... he is not d-”

“No.”

Before Riona could complete, Arvina, who was also standing with Nux’s wives spoke with a serious look on her face.

Everyone turned towards her,

“T-Teacher is still their...”

She wouldn’t let anything happen to him...”

Arvina replied.

Seeing her acting like that, Riona narrowed her eyes.

However, she knew it was not the time to comment about something like that.

The situation was too serious for that, therefore, she ignored this woman and glanced at Amaya.

She was worried about her daughter, who was barely holding herself back.

Suddenly, Amaya’s expression changed.

Seeing this, Riona frowned, however, just as she was about to ask something, Amaya muttered with a surprised expression on her face.

“Nux...?”

Chapter 621 A Waste

“Nux...?”

Suddenly, Amaya muttered with a strange expression on her face.

“Huh? Nux?”

Ember frowned.

She then looked around, however, no matter where she looked, she couldn't find him,

“Is he talking to you right now?”

Ember questioned.

“Ask him how he is.”

Felberta spoke with a worried look on her face.

“Yes, ask about the situation there.”

Evane nodded.

“Guys...”

Amaya, however, didn't respond to any of them and called out.

“What is it?” Allura questioned.

Amaya then pointed at the battlefield and muttered,

“Nux...”

“What are you talking about?”

Ember frowned in confusion.

Soon, however, Riona's expression changed.

“T-That Mist...”

“Huh? Mist?”

Felberta frowned.

“Wait...”

Edda's expression changed as well as she pointed at the Sky.

“T-That's the Devouring Mist!”

Skyla pointed at the sky and exclaimed as well.

“Devouring Mist...” Lane muttered.

The light in her eyes suddenly increased.

“He succeeded.”

A smile appeared on Amaya's face.

“We are going there.” She spoke, however, this time, instead of running away, Amaya glanced at Evane.

“What are we waiting for?” Evane smiled.

Amaya's smile widened, she and the other women then rushed towards the battlefield.

Riona and Arvina, who were left behind glanced at each other and then decided to run and follow them as well.

The King Stage Cultivators of the Shadow Unit, General Phorus, Consort Iria, and some other King and Expert Stage Cultivators of the Skadi

Kingdom and the Woods Dynasty started running towards the battlefield as well.

Amaya and the others appeared near the battlefield, soon, however, their expression changed,

The entire Battlefield was Black.

The Devouring Mist was surrounding everything, even though the sun was shining brightly, nothing inside the Mist was visible, the man-beast, Astaria, Nux, Alcius, and his disciple, none of them were visible.

“The Mist has gotten stronger...”

Even though she was still standing away from it and wasn't really in contact with the Mist, Ember could still feel that its power has certainly increased.

“It has...”

Thyra nodded as well.

While they were talking, other soldiers arrived and stood beside them as well.

*Whoosh*

And as if waiting for this moment, the Devouring Mist moved and expanded even further, within a second, it engulfed Nux's wives and all the soldiers who had appeared here.

“W-What is it!?”

“What is this Black Mist!!”

“It's too dark here!”

“AaaAagghh!! I-I-It is eating away my Mana!”

“M-Mine too! It is eating away my Mana as well!!”

“T-This thing! Get away from me!”

“Everyone! Run away! Get away from this Black Mist!”

The Soldiers panicked.

None of them knew what this Devouring Mist was. However, all of them understood how dangerous it was.

Especially this new Devouring Mist.

Mind you, all the soldiers here were either Expert or King Stage Cultivators, they were the beings who could simply ignore the normal Devouring Mist.

For beings like them to actually panic when they are surrounded by the Mist, it just shows how strong the Devouring Mist has gotten.

“Why are they acting like this?”

Suddenly, Edda frowned.

She couldn't see anyone because even her vision was affected by the Devouring Mist, however, from what she heard, she knew that they were all panicking and the Mist was somehow affecting them, however, that was what confused her.

She was surrounded by the Mist as well.

“I don't feel anything at all...”

“I am the same as well... The Mist is not affecting me either...” Allura nodded as well.

“It is Nux's doing. He is purposefully avoiding harming us.” Amaya explained.

The other women smiled as well.

“Even though I can’t see you, I am sure all of you are smiling right now.”
Suddenly, Riona spoke up.

“ ... ”

The woman didn’t reply.

“Anyways, I am not as lucky as you, the Mist is Devouring my Mana, I need to get out of its range.”

“Is it really that bad?” Suddenly, Ember questioned with a frown on her face.

She had a doubt.

Riona paused and turned towards Ember,

“It is not that bad, it is eating away my Mana yes, however, things are still manageable, and the devouring rate is a little slow. Of course, that is adjusted by the quantity of the Mist. It is this harmful when it is focusing on so many people, I wonder how scary it would be when it focuses on a single being.”

“ ... ”

Ember didn’t reply.

Riona then ran out of the Mist’s area, and Arvina followed behind.

“Ember, what happened?” Suddenly, Thyra questioned.

She could feel Ember’s worry.

“The Mist has gotten stronger.”

Ember spoke.

“It has indeed.” Thyra nodded.

The other women frowned.

Wasn't it a good thing? Why was Ember acting like this?

Thyra, however, had a rough idea about what Ember was thinking about.

Unlike Riona, she knew how the Devouring Mist worked.

The quantity of the Mist was never the matter.

It doesn't have the option of 'focusing' on a single target.

The current Devouring Mist and the Devouring Mist that will 'focus' on a single target... both of them would have a similar effect.

"The Devouring Mist is barely affecting a King Stage Cultivator...

Nawdren is stronger than an Emperor...

Would... would the Mist really do... anything against him?"

Ember questioned with a worried look on her face.

Hearing her question, the other women's expression changed.

They now understood what the problem was.

The Devouring Mist has indeed gotten stronger, however, even now... it was still useless.

"That's not it."

Suddenly, Amaya spoke up.

Out of all the women here, she was the one who knew the most about the Devouring Mist.

"What do you mean?"

Ember questioned.

“This Mist...

It is nothing but waste.”

“Huh?” A frown appeared on Ember’s face.

“What do you mean Waste?”

Evane questioned.

“I mean what I just said.

It is just a waste.

This is not the actual Mist.

It is just the waste the has been released after Nux upgraded his Physique Level.”

Amaya revealed and hearing those words, the women’s eyes widened in horror.

“This... this is just a waste?”

“T-Then... what about the real thing?”

Chapter 622 You Aren'T Scared Of A 'Mere' King Stage Cultivator, Are You?

“This... this is just a waste?”

“T-Then... what about the real thing?”

The women couldn't believe what they were hearing.

“Did you really think Nux would let us stay here if the Mist was only this strong?”

Amaya questioned with a small smile on her face.

Hearing those words, a smile appeared on Felberta's face as well.

She was the one who knew Nux the most, after all.

“If he has allowed us to stay here then...”

“Then it means he is now confident in defeating Nawdren...”

Evane completely the sentence.

Hearing those words, the other women smiled,

“This would be an interesting show.”

Ember commented.

“Hahaha~ Would we finally have the chance to ‘Battle’ in the middle of the battlefield?”

Edda reverted back to her usual pervert Edda as well.

“I agree! I want to try it as well!”

Skyla shouted out loud as well.

“I... I agree to it as well.”

Lane spoke up as well.

“I can’t believe it...” Ember sighed

“You people know we aren’t using our connection, right?” She couldn’t help but question.

She can’t believe these women would say something like this out in the open.

They were just shameless.

“Also, I agree as well.”

Of course, Ember wasn’t going to miss out either.

“I don’t even need to say it.”

Thyra nodded as well.

“I agree, but I won’t be sharing him with you bitches.” Amaya’s thoughts were clear.

“Of course, I don’t wish to do that either.” Allura nodded.

“I will be going first then.” Felberta jumped in.

“Huuuh? How are you deciding that?” Skyla questioned.

“Because I was the first one, after all. I am the senior-most wife here.”

Felberta asserted her dominance.

“If we are going by that, then I am the one who loves him the most, the first turn should be mine.” Amaya jumped in.

“I performed my duties as the queen properly, so obviously, I deserve the first,” Evane spoke.

“I am the Shadow, I should be closest to the body...” Lane pointed out.

“Girls...”

Suddenly, the women turned silent as Nux spoke up.

“You know I haven’t defeated him yet, right?” Nux questioned with a playful smile on his face.

“Then what are you waiting for? Do it quickly, you won’t keep us waiting, will you?” Felberta smiled.

“Is that even possible?”

Nux questioned back.

The women smiled.

Suddenly, the Dark Mist that surrounded and blocked everyone’s vision disappeared, revealing Nux, Astaria, the dead Alcimus, and his son and...

Nawdren.

Nawdren was looking at Nux with a solemn look on his face.

“I must say, you are full of surprises, boy.

How are you even standing?

I am sure I broke your ribs.

Also, what was the black Mist?”

Nawdren questioned, his eyes then fell on Nux’s wives and a big smile appeared on his face,

“Are they your wives,

Boy, you sure are lucky.

How about you sha-”

“Don’t.

The last man who said some stupid things about them didn’t have a good end.

I am quite sensitive when it comes to my lovely wives, you see.”

Nux smiled.

“Oh? That’s good.

This would make things even more interesting.”

Nawdren’s smile widened.

Nux just shook his head and sighed.

“Whatever.”

He then started walking towards Nawdren.

Nawdren frowned.

Seeing a mere King Stage Cultivator walking towards him with such a confident look on his face...

For some reason, it annoyed him.

Nawdren disappeared and appeared in front of Nux.

Just like how he did to Astaria, he slapped Nux's face...

Or so he tried to, however, suddenly, Black Mist, which was a lot denser than before came out of Nux's body and surrounded Nawdren's arm.

“!!!”

Nawdren's eyes widened in horror.

He shook his hand as aggressively as possible, trying to get rid of this Mist, however, nothing worked.

Nux facepalmed himself, he couldn't believe this man was this dumb. To think he still didn't realize how to deal with the Mist.

Soon, however, Nawdren realized what to do and quickly used his Mana and pushed the Mist out of his body.

He then jumped back and glanced at Nux with a horrified look on his face.

“Hmm? Your face looks quite pale.

You aren't scared of a 'mere' King Stage Cultivator, are you?”

Nux questioned with a small smile on his face.

Nawdren, however, completely ignored him and rushed toward Skyla, who was closest to him.

He had heard their conversation, and from how Nux was acting, he definitely values his wives a lot.

He could use it to his advantage.

“Ah, you made a mistake.” Nux pointed out.

Just as Nawdren appeared near Skyla, Dark Mist appeared out of thin air and moved toward him.

“Aahh!! AAAGGGGaggggGghhhHH!!”

Nawdren screamed in horror.

He used Mana to get rid of the Mist again, however, more and more Mist started appearing around him, surrounding his body.

Nawdren tried his best to move his body as aggressively as possible, doing anything he could to get rid of this Mist, however, the Mist seemed unending.

The scene was similar to countless ants attacking a big beast, devouring it together.

“No! NOO!!! STOP IT!!”

Nawdren shouted in horror.

This Mist...

It wasn't eating away his flesh...

Neither was it eating away his Mana....

It was... it was eating away his Life Force!

“You see, I recently learned that Life Energy can be turned into Mana.

It was a fascinating discovery, but then I thought,

Doesn't my Devouring Mist has the power to Devour Mana?

This got me thinking...

Since Mana and Life Force were connected...

What if...

I try to Devour Life Force instead of Devouring Mana?

What if...

I try to Devour Life itself?"

A big smile appeared on Nux's face.

"And guess what?

I succeeded."

Yes,

The Last Stage of Physique Mastery,

The Mastered Stage.

The Mastered Stage of the Devouring Mist allowed Nux to Devour Life itself.

“Nawdren.

Be sure to hold out until I am done testing my Mist, Alright?”

Chapter 623 W-What Have You Done...?

“Nawdren,

Be sure to hold out until I am done testing my Mist, Alright?”

Nux spoke with a small smile on his face.

All this while, he always felt close to breaking through and upgrading his Physique Mastery Level, he knew that he needed to ‘understand’ the Mist to increase his strength, and to be perfectly honest, Nux believed that he perfectly understood everything about the Mist, however, no matter how hard he tried, he still couldn’t raise his mastery.

He was missing something.

A Target.

The Mist needed a Target.

The First Level of the Mist, the Acquired Stage, it could Devour Flesh, Blood, and Bones.

The Second Level, the Advance Stage, it allowed Nux to Devour things.

However, for the Last Level, the Mastered Stage, Nux didn’t know ‘what’ to Devour. He couldn’t find the ‘Target’ no matter how hard he tried.

He knew the Mastered Stage Devouring Mist would work against Experts, Kings and might even work against an Emperor, however, he didn’t know how it would work against them.

Now, however, things became a lot simpler.

Life.

Every Being has Life inside them. If he can Devour Life, even beings stronger than Emperors wouldn't survive.

The power to Devour Life... Nux was now nothing short of a Death bringer.

“S-Stop t-this! Stop this Mist!!”

Nawdren shouted in panic.

His entire body was covered with Mist, so Nux and his wives couldn't see him, however, everyone could imagine the expression he had on his face.

Nux didn't say anything he just glanced at Astaria and his wives.

The 10 of them understood what he wanted and walked towards him.

Standing beside him, Astaria saw how Nux was playing around with someone like Nawdren and couldn't believe it.

“AAGgGGGgghhHHH!! YOU BASTARD!!”

Suddenly, Nawdren shouted in anger.

A surge of energy burst out from Nawdren's body and the Devouring Mist surrounding him suddenly disappeared.

He glared at Nux with eyes full of rage and hatred, Nux's expression turned serious.

Astaria and his wives took their battle stance.

They didn't expect Nawdren would get rid of Devouring Mist like this.

“He is burning his Life Force,” Astaria spoke with a solemn look on her face.

“What should we do?” Ember questioned.

Everyone turned towards Nux and suddenly,

Nux’s golden eyes suddenly turned Pitch Black.

His vision changed and as he glanced at Nawdren, a strange white energy surrounded his body. The White Energy seemed calm, dense, and strong, however, Nux could see how it was dissolving away and a rouge-looking purple-bluish Energy rose inside Nawdren’s Body.

Nux now realized it.

This Calm White Energy was Life Force and the Purple Bluish Energy was Nawdren’s Mana.

Nux could see how Nawdren was exchanging his Life Force with this Mana.

He could see everything.

He could see how much Life Force Nawdren was exchanging.

He could see how strong Mana Nawdren was receiving in return.

He could also see how long Nawdren would be able to keep using this rouge Mana until his Life Force runs out.

What was even absurd?

“This annoying Mist would disappear for good if I get rid of you.”

Suddenly, Nawdren, who was glaring at Nux and spoke.

Nux may have become stronger.

The ability to Devour Life, it was indeed scary, however, in the end, he was still just a King Stage Cultivator.

He wouldn't be able to hold against a Pseudo Sage.

Nawdren's plan was clear, he would use his Life Force to get rid of Nux before he can use his Mist on him again.

He just needed to act faster than Nux could ever react.

A small smile appeared on Nux's face.

Nawdren completely ignored that smile and disappeared.

This time, even Astaria failed to keep up with his increased speed.

“Well, I apologize for this little hassle in advance.”

Nux spoke with a calm smile.

His women frowned, then suddenly, Devouring Mist appeared out of thin air and surrounded Nux and his women.

From outside, it looked like Nux and his women were covered by a Black Cloud.

Nawdren was so fast that Nux couldn't even react to his movements, however, the thing was, he didn't even have to react to his movement. He just needed to protect himself and his wives.

Now what would Nawdren do?

To be honest, his best option was to run away.

Of course, burning his Life Force to run away when your opponent was a mere King Stage Cultivator was shameful. There are also chances that Nux and his women would search the entire continent in order to find him and would hunt him down as if he is a dog,

However, running was still the best option.

A lot, lot, lot better than jumping into the Devouring Mist and trying to kill Nux.

Nawdren, however, chose the second option.

He jumped into the Devouring Mist.

The Mist wouldn't be able to kill him so quickly, he wouldn't be able to see, however, he would kill everyone he encounters inside the Mist without fail, once the Mist disappears, that would be his cue that he had successfully killed that little insect.

That was Nawdren's plan.

However, the moment he jumped into the Mist Cloud,

His body lost all his energy and he fell down.

“!!!”

Nawdren's eyes widened in surprise.

“W-What happened...?”

No matter how much he tried, he failed to use Mana around him. Let alone use it, he couldn't even sense it.

It was as if all the Mana in the World suddenly disappeared, or...

The Mana of the World abandoned him...

“You see, burning your Life Force in exchange for Mana may make you ridiculously stronger than you normally are, however,

It has a fatal weakness.”

Suddenly, Nux walked near Nawdren and smiled.

The Mist around Nawdren's face disappeared, revealing his horrified expression and freeing his vision.

Nawdren quickly glanced at Nux who was standing right in front of him, his wives, stood a few meters behind Nux. Only Astaria stood right beside him.

“W-What have you done...?”

Nawdren completely ignored whatever Nux was saying and questioned with a pale face.

Nux could also see how long Nawdren would be able to keep using this rouge Mana until his Life Force runs out.

But what was even absurd?

Nux could even forcefully stop this whole exchange.

A small smile appeared on Nux's face.

Chapter 624 Burning Your Life Force Has A Fatal Weakness.

“W-What have you done...?”

Nawdren completely ignored whatever Nux was saying and questioned with a pale face.

A deadpan expression appeared on Nux’s face.

He then shook his head and sighed,

“So as I was saying,

Burning your Life Force has a Fatal Weakness.

It exposes your Life Force which is usually located deep inside your body under many different ‘barriers’.”

Nux revealed and suddenly, Nawdren’s expression changed.

Exposing his Life Force...

Then for Nux, who could Devour Life Force...

“Yep, what you are thinking is correct,

Burning Life Force in front of me, who has the ability to Devour it...

It is nothing but offering your life to me.”

“!!!”

Nawdren’s eyes widened in horror.

“And you know what’s worse?” Nux brought his face close to Nawdren and questioned.

Nawdren glanced at Nux and gulped, fearing the words he would speak next.

“You don’t just expose your Life Force, you also expose the ‘connection’ you use to exchange your Life Force and Mana.

Do you know what that means?”

“You... You can...”

“Yeep, using My Mist, I can seal away your connection to ‘Mana’ as well.”

Yes, Nux had blocked Nawdren’s ‘connection’ to Mana, no matter how much Mana he generates using his Life Force, Nawdren would never be able to use it.

And since he was using his Life Force to General Mana, Nawdren couldn’t even use his own Mana to attack Nux, and using the surrounding Mana was completely out of the question since the ‘connection’ is already sealed.

Nawdren was completely helpless.

Without his Mana, he only had his Physical Strength.

And in front of Nux, who was a King Stage Body Cultivator... Nawdren didn’t stand any chance.

Nawdren was stuck.

Since all his Life Force was already exposed, it would continue to burn away, generating the Mana he would never be able to use and this exchange couldn’t be stopped until Nux wishes for it or... Nawdren’s Life Force runs out.

Yes, Nawdren was now as good as dead.

And he realized it.

“N-No, Y-You cannot kill me...” Nawdren stuttered with a pale face.

“Hmmm? And what’s stopping me from doing that?” Nux questioned with a curious look on his face.

“I-I know things none of you know! Killing me would be a big loss for you!!”

Suddenly, Nawdren shouted.

Nux’s expression changed.

Noticing that change, Nawdren’s expression changed.

He knew this was his chance.

“The Truth of this World, I am sure you don’t know about it, do you!? I can tell you that.”

“Haah, stop bullshitting, will you?” Nux sighed.

Nawdren looked more like a crazy cultist who believes some bullshit rather than an all strong Pseudo Sage.

“Wait” Suddenly, Astaria placed her hand on Nux’s shoulders. Nux frowned and Astaria replied,

“He said something like this before.

We should hear him out.

I am sure you have some questions in your mind as well.”

Astaria knew Nux well enough to know this.

He wouldn’t have started talking to him if he didn’t have something in his mind.

He needed information as well.

“Yes, why don’t you turn him into your slave? Killing someone like him seems like a waste. He would be a useful slave.” Amaya suggested.

Those words wounded Nawdren’s pride, however, with his Life in this man’s eyes, he didn’t dare to say anything.

Even a Pseudo Sage like him loved his Life.

Actually, he loved his life even more than mortals.

As they say, the longer one lived, the more they get attached to life.

Those words seemed true.

“Yes! Yes! I am willing to be your loyal Slave! I would listen to all your orders and answer all your questions truthfully!”

Nawdren quickly jumped on that offer.

Nux, however, had a strange expression on his face.

Seeing this, Amaya narrowed her eyes.

“Nux, what’s the matter?”

She could see something was wrong. Someone like Nux would jump onto the offer of enslaving a being like Nawdren.

A strong Slave was useful after all.

For him to act like this...

“The [Slave Seal] won’t work on him.”

Nux revealed.

“What do you mean?”

Ember questioned.

“I tried to use it on Roone, but it didn’t work on him.”

“That means...”

“Yes, it doesn’t work on Emperors or beings stronger than Emperor.”

Nux nodded.

“Why don’t you try it anyways? He is not exactly a human, what if it works on him?” Amaya suggested. The chances were low, but it didn’t hurt to try.

Nux nodded and turned towards Nawdren,

“Nawdren Besch, are you willing to be my Slave?”

“I am.” Nawdren replied.

Nux, however, shook his head.

“It’s not working.”

His women’s expression turned serious.

Nawdren couldn’t understand what they were talking about, however, he knew one thing,

His odds of getting out of this alive were diminishing here,

He had to do something.

He gritted his teeth and then, he spoke up,

“I have a way that will ensure my Loyalty to you.”

“What way?” Nux questioned back.

“A Contract.”

“Huh? What’s that?”

“A Contract, or a Pact.

The person you all call Ancestor signed a Contract with my Grand Father all those years ago.”

“Your Grand Father?”

Nux raised his eyebrow.

“You know him as the Mythical Creature.”

“Stop lying, according to the record, the Mythical Creature didn’t have any ‘human’ form. He was a Beast.” Astaria spoke up.

“That is correct.

My Grand Father was an 8 Star Beast, Flying Lynx.”

“An 8-Star Beast...” Nux narrowed his eyes and started thinking.

“That explains how it could kill Emperors like they were nothing...”

“When you say our Ancestor signed a Contract with your Grand Father, does that mean he enslaved it?” Suddenly, Evane questioned.

“Well, not really enslaved him. There are different kinds of contracts, however, if you are asking if your Ancestor defeated my Grand Father, then yes, that is true. He defeated my Grand Father and from what I was told, it was a one-sided battle.”

“To defeat a Beast who was comparable to a Stage above Emperor Stage... just how strong...”

Ember started wondering.

“He was a Peak Sage and was about to break through to become a Great Sage, but unfortunately, he died before he could do that.”

Nawdren explained.

Chapter 625 Let Her Do It.

“A Great Sage...”

Nux muttered inwardly.

“Is that the stage higher than the Sage?” Amaya questioned.

“That is correct.” Nawdren nodded.

“A Stage higher than the Sage...”

Evane muttered inwardly.

The Sage Stage alone was someone unprecedented for her, but to think there is a Stage that is higher than this and to think that her ancestor was so close to reaching this Stage...

This is just...

It was too much to take in...

However, this wasn't the end,

“Is this Great Sage you speak of the true peak of Cultivation?”

Astaria questioned.

As a being who pursued the Peak all her life, she couldn't hold her curiosity.

Nawdren's answer, however, was surprising.

“I do not know.”

He simply shook his head and denied it.

“I only know that your ancestor and my Grand Father came from Yrniel.”

“Yrniel? What’s that?”

“...”

Nawdren didn’t answer.

Nux frowned when he saw that.

Soon, however, he realized what Nawdren wanted.

His expression changed, he then stepped towards Nawdren and spoke,

“I have one more question before I decide whether to kill you or let you live.

Your Grand Father was a Beast, then how are you a Mutated Human-Beast?”

Nawdren glanced at Nux, and from his expression, he understood that if he didn’t answer this question, he would die.

He had no other choice,

Nux was the one who held his life in his palm.

“This body does not belong to me.”

Nawdren replied honestly.

A frown appeared on Nux’s face, and seeing that frown, Nawdren started explaining.

“Just like my Grand Father, I was a Winged Lynx as well. However, unlike my Father or my Grand Father, I, for some reason, wasn’t able to become an 8-Star Beast.

We Winged Lynx are different from normal beasts, we do not need a Mate in order to reproduce, once we become an 8-Star Beast, we use our Life Energy to give birth to our Offspring, and since I couldn't become one, I couldn't reproduce either.

I had already accepted my fate, however, one day, something changed,

Humans finally walked into my domain after many centuries,

My Father did stop me from coming out and harming humans, however, there was one exception, whenever humans entered my domain, I could do whatever I wanted with th-

“You are wasting too much time, just answer my question.” Nux suddenly interrupted.

“...” Nawdren didn't know how to react.

“You do realize your Life Force is being burned even now, right?”

Nawdren's expression changed and he summarized,

“I possessed a human using a Forbidden Skill, the human couldn't take my power and his body mutated and the current me was the result.”

“That's a lot better.” Nux nodded.

“Alright, what's this contract you were talking about?”

He questioned.

Nawdren knew a lot of things.

He couldn't possibly kill someone like him.

But at the same time, if Nux wasn't a 100% sure that Nawdren would not harm anyone close to him, he couldn't possibly let him go.

No matter what, he was still a Pseudo Sage after all.

This man was dangerous.

“A Contract is of many type-”

“Again, summarize.” Nux interrupted again.

He could always ask these questions once he ensured Nawdren is harmless.

“A Contract is a way for you to ensure my Loyalty.”

“I need absolute obedience, even if I order you to kill yourself, you shouldn't hesitate, can a Contract make this possible?”

Nux questioned.

“...”

Nawdren didn't answer.

“It would be better if you answer a few of our questions, you are about to die anyway.”

Nux shrugged.

It was as if he had already given up on subduing Nawdren.

Nawdren's expression changed,

“A Master-Servant Contract can.”

He replied hurriedly.

“...” Nux narrowed his eyes with a doubtful look on his face.

“It is named Master-Servant Contract for a reason! I would die the moment I go against your order! Even if you order me to kill myself, I would have no option but to follow your order.” Nawdren explained.

“And how does this Contract thing works?”

Nux questioned.

“It is not too complicated, I just need to create my Mana’s Contract Circle and once it starts sucking Mana from the world, you need to drop your blood into it.”

Nawdren explained.

A frown appeared on Nux’s face.

Nawdren, however, completely ignored it and started creating something on the ground.

It was the Contract Circle.

Suddenly, the weird circle he drew started sucking Mana and started shining.

“Now you just need to drop your blood on it.”

Nawdren turned towards Nux and offered.

“...”

Nux, however, didn’t do anything and stayed still.

He still had doubts.

How can he possibly trust this bastard?

What if it was something that would kill him the moment he drops his blood into it?

Or maybe it was something that would turn him into a servant.

“Wait.” Suddenly, Amaya stepped up.

Nux turned towards her and frowned,

“What is it?”

Amaya just pointed in another direction and soon, Riona walked in.

“Let her do it.”

Just as Nux was about to react, he heard Amaya’s voice,

‘Don’t act out. Act like she is not important to you.’

Nux’s expression quickly changed.

He had the same plan as well, however, rather than Riona, he wanted to choose someone else and as if knowing what he was thinking, Amaya explained.

‘He is too strong. If he becomes someone else’s servant, then even with the [Slave Seal], things might get complicated.

Keep in mind, the [Slave Seal] doesn’t kill the moment someone thinks of betraying you, it just inflicts pain.

We need to choose someone we can actually trust.

We cannot choose anyone here since this bastard already knows how much we mean to you.

She was the only one I can think of.’

Nux’s expression changed.

‘What he Nawdren pulls something strange?’

He questioned.

He knew how much Amaya loved Riona.

For her to propose something so dangerous...

‘That man loves his life, I don’t think he would dare to do something like this just to kill your servant.’

Amaya was betting it all with a cold expression on her face.

Chapter 626 The Mastered Devouring Mist Demon Physique

‘That man loves his life, I don’t think he would dare to do something like this just to kill your ‘servant’.’

Amaya was betting it all with a cold expression on her face.

Nux clenched his fists.

He knew Amaya the best, even though she was acting as if it was nothing, he knew she was definitely nervous and was panicking inwardly.

She was betting on her mother’s life after all.

‘Don’t worry, nothing would go wrong.’

Suddenly, Nux heard Roina’s voice.

He glanced at her, the woman looked back at him, her dark black eyes shone strangely,

‘I can see in his eyes, he is not going to pull anything.’

‘You don’t act on assumptions.’ Nux replied.

A small smile appeared on Roina’s face as she replied, ‘I don’t, but it doesn’t mean I am not capable of doing so.’

Trust me, when it comes to reading expressions, you won’t find anyone better than me,

I have been doing it for a century after all.

You can trust this Queen.’

Riona puffed her chest in pride.

However, unlike Skyla, who usually had a childlike innocence in her eyes when she does it, Riona had an aura of a confident woman, a true Queen.

A Queen whose aura was far stronger than Evane's, or even Astaria for that matter.

‘...’

Seeing that expression, Nux instantly knew what he had to do.

He had to trust the Queen.

“Riona, step forward.”

Nux ordered.

Riona stepped forwards with an expressionless face.

“She is Riona, she is my most loyal servant, she will be the one who will sign this contract. You don't mind, do you?”

Nux questioned.

“You want me to serve a mere King Stage Cultivator?” Nawdren questioned back.

“You lost to a King Stage Cultivator.”

Nux replied with a cold look on his face, he then stepped on Nawdren's face and spoke,

“Don't forget, you do not get to choose here.

Now answer me, do you agree or not?”

“I... I agree.”

Nawdren didn't have any other option.

Nux then turned towards Riona and nodded. Riona nodded back and stepped up, with a dignified look on her face, she cut her hand, her blood drops fell on the Magic Circle Nawdren created and the circle shined.

*Whoosh* *Whoosh* *Whoosh*

The Contract Circle started sucking more and more Mana.

Suddenly, golden-colored chains formed in the air and ignored all the Life Force that was trapped outside Nawdren's body, his clothes, and his Flesh, it pierced through his body and then disappeared without leaving a mark.

The other end of the chain moved towards Riona, Riona tried to hold it, however, the moment she touched it, the chains disappeared.

Suddenly, Riona's expression changed as she grabbed her head.

Seeing that, Amaya panicked.

Nux's expression changed as well.

"What did you do?"

He questioned as he increased the force he had applied on his foot that was on Nawdren's head.

"I didn't do anything..." Nawdren replied.

"You bastard!" Nux cursed.

However, just as he was about to increase the force even more, Riona spoke up,

"You can stop it, Nux."

"Hmm?" Nux stopped and turned towards Nux.

“He is not lying, it is a Master-Servant Contract, and I am the Master here.

The pain I felt was because information about the Contract was forced into my brain.”

Riona replied.

Hearing those words, Nux quickly stepped away and walked toward Riona,

“Are you sure you are okay?”

“Yes, I am.”

Riona nodded.

Amaya then walked up and hugged Riona from behind.

Right now, she looked like a little girl who craved her mother’s attention.

Seeing this expression, Riona couldn’t hold herself back and a playful smile appeared on her face,

“Oh? You are finally here after you tried to sacrifice your mother for your husband?”

Amaya’s expression changed.

“T-That’s not it!”

“So you are saying that you love your mother more than you love your husband?”

“No.”

Amaya’s response was... direct...

“...” Riona didn’t know what to say.

“Don’t try to steal my wife. Tsk.”

Nux snorted and he hugged Amaya, unknowingly hugging Riona in the process as well.

Seeing this scene, Astaria narrowed her eyes, however before she could say anything,

“Can you get rid of this annoying Mist now?”

Nawdren spoke with an annoyed look on his face.

He has been repeatedly harassed today.

To be honest, he was so angry that if he could kill Nux, he would do it in the cruelest way possible.

If only this bastard wasn't this powerful and didn't have his life in his palm...

Nawdren gritted his teeth.

Nux completely ignored his words and turned towards Riona.

Riona knew what he wanted to ask and nodded. Nux nodded back then, and the Mist surrounding Nawdren's body finally disappeared.

Nawdren was finally able to feel Mana again.

On the other hand, Nux's eyes turned dark, then he saw the White Energy that surrounded Nawdren's body going back into his Body.

To confirm his thoughts, Nux's eyes returned to normal and he activated [Eye of Discerning.]

[Name: Nawdren Besch.]

[Age: 129-895 -> 129-1011]

[Mana Cultivation: Pseudo Sage.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal.]

[Race: Mutated Human-Beast]

[Occupation: Protector of the Sealed Continent.]

[Talent: –]

[LVL: 79.5]

‘He lost around 100 years in around 3 minutes...’

It was a lot slower than it should have been, but Nux understood the problem.

The Life Force he was trying to Devour was a Dense, Raw Life Force.

It is completely different from when the Life Force is inside one’s body, in diffused State.

Of course, Nux was still wasn’t an expert in all of this, however, from a rough idea he had in his mind,

He could now Kill an Emperor, who has around 500 years of Life, within 10 seconds.

Yes, he could Devour 50 Years of Life in just a single Second.

A Mortal wouldn’t survive for 2 Seconds, and even a King Stage Cultivator wouldn’t last more than 5 Seconds.

Of course, no one is a King Stage Cultivator, or an Emperor the moment he is born, even Astaria, the most talented person here needed around 200 years to become an Emperor.

That meant, even at her best, she only had 300 years of life, an amount Nux could Devour within 6 Seconds.

The current Astaria, who was around 300 years old, can only survive 4 seconds in front of Nux.

The Mastered Devouring Mist Demon Physique was just that scary.

Chapter 627 Yrniel.

“Nawdren, cut the fingers of your right hand.”

Suddenly, Riona ordered with an expressionless look on her face.

“What? Why!?” Nawdren questioned back.

Of course, he wasn't willing to do something like this, however, suddenly, a Golden Colored Chain wrapped around Nawdren's neck.

The moment his eyes fell on those chains, Nawdren's eyes widened in horror.

He quickly grabbed a sword and,

“Ugghhhh!!!”

Groaned in pain as he cut off all the fingers of his right hand.

“You...”

He glared at Riona, hatred, and anger clear in his eyes which were red. His right hand was trembling, and his face was red, clearly, he was in immense pain.

If it was a normal situation, he would have killed this bitch standing right in front of him, however...

He could not do that...

He could only swallow his anger back and clench his fist in frustration.

“Why did you order me to do it...?”

However, Nawdren still couldn't hold himself back from asking the reason.

“I just wanted to test if the Contract works or not.”

Riona just shrugged.

Nawdren’s expression changed.

“What... did you say?”

He questioned with a dark expression on his face.

“Do I need to repeat myself?”

Riona glanced back with a single change in her expression.

Nawdren’s aura was intimidating, however, Riona had to make things clear here.

She was not just Nux’s proxy that Nawdren could just ignore or underestimate, her position here was higher than Nawdren’s, and she had to make sure Nawdren knew that.

“You already know everything about the Contract don’t you?”

Nawdren questioned.

“Who knows? The information I received might be something you wanted to feed me. I needed to test it out just to be sure.”

“Oh yeah? Then by that logic, you can even say that I am just acting and only cut my finger to make you all trust me and am not actually under your control or something.”

Nawdren retorted.

He couldn’t believe how ridiculous Riona sounded.

“...”

Riona glanced at Nawdren.

“What?”

Nawdren questioned as he glanced at Riona.

“...” Riona didn’t say anything and continued to look at Nawdren’s face.

“Wait... you are not thinking...”

“...”

Nawdren just couldn’t believe it.

“Should I order him to kill himself to confirm it?”

Riona turned towards Amaya and questioned.

“We still have some questions, we can’t kill him yet.”

Amaya shook her head.

“That’s true.

Do you have any better idea?” Riona questioned.

“We can order him to cut off his legs. I don’t think he would agree to do that since that would make it impossible for him to take his revenge in the future.” Amaya suggested.

Riona started considering this option.

Nawdren, on the other hand, couldn’t believe what kind of merciless demons he was standing in front of. Just... Just how can they discuss something like that with such an emotionless expression on their faces?

However, Nawdren didn’t have time to think about all those things.

“I am not acting! There is no way I would cut my fingers just so I could fool you. The Master-Servant Contract is the real deal!”

“And how do we know that you are not fooling us?” Riona questioned as she narrowed her eyes.

“I am not fooling you! Just what in the hell is wrong with you!?”

“I still can’t trust you.”

“You...!!”

Nawdren was boiling in anger but didn’t have any power to do anything.

While Nawdren and Riona had this exchange, Amaya, who was standing behind Riona glanced at Nux and nodded lightly.

Nux nodded back and then, he stepped forward.

“Alright, I will trust you for now, Nawdren.”

“T-Thank you!”

Nawdren quickly turned towards Nux and thanked him.

These bitches... they nearly forced him to cut off his own legs...

Nawdren sighed inwardly and while he did that, Nux spoke.

“Now I will ask you some questions, answer me as precisely as possible.”

“Ask whatever you want.”

Nawdren’s information appeared in front of Nux again (not showing, it was there in the last chapter) and he questioned,

“What is the Sealed Continent?”

Protector of the Sealed Continent.

That was Nawdren’s Occupation that the System showed. Nux had a rough idea now what this Sealed Continent actually was, however, it was still just an assumption, he still wasn't sure.

“Is there a Sealed Continent around here? Or is it a completely different land?”

Nux questioned.

Nawdren, however, shook his head and replied,

“The continent we currently are living on is the Sealed Continent.”

“Explain.”

“The World we live in is called Yrniel.”

“Yrniel...”

“I do not know much about Yrniel either, I only know what my father told me, however, what I know for sure is that this Continent is a very small part of Yrniel.”

“So you are saying...

That after the Forbidden Region, this continent extends further and there's a bigger world?”

“Our continent is just a small place that is surrounded by Bloodhill Wilderness. If you cross the so-called Forbidden Region, you would understand that our continent is surrounded by an ocean from all directions, we will arrive at the mainland of Yrniel once we travel through the ocean.

My father ordered me to stop anyone who wanted to travel the ocean and explore the rest of the Yrniel.”

Nawdren explained.

“Why did he say that?”

“That’s the Contract my Grandfather signed with the Ancestor. I do not know the reason, but your Ancestor never wished for you people to actually leave this continent and explore Yrniel.

He wanted you all to stay in this small place for the rest of eternity.”

“I don’t get it, why would he wish for something like this?”

Nux frowned.

Nawdren, however, just shook his head,

“I do not know anything about that. I only know that my family has been honoring the Contract even after so much time has passed.”

Suddenly, Evane frowned,

“Why are you still honoring it? Does this Contract even applies to family members?”

“Normally, it shouldn’t, however, my Grandfather and the Ancestor signed a Blood Contract, one of the strongest Contracts there are and yes, it applies to everyone that carries the blood of my Grandfather.”

“Wait...”

Suddenly, Astaria glanced at Nawdren and questioned,

“Are you going to stop us from exploring the rest of the world as well?”

Chapter 628 L Would Appreciate It If You Give Usa Little Personnel Space.

Suddenly, Astaria glanced at Nawdren and questioned,

“Are you going to stop us from exploring the rest of the world as well?”

Yrniel...

To think they were only living on a small continent this whole time...

To think there is a world out there that is much bigger than they ever thought.

To think there are cultivation stages out there that are countless times stronger than Emperor Stage, the Stage they thought was the peak...

Astaria felt like a country bumpkin.

She felt... small...

But at the same time, she also felt her competitive spirit lighting up.

This rest of the World.

The rest of the Yrniel,

She had to explore it and she wasn't going to let anyone stop her.

However, if Nawdren was bound by contract, then she might have to fight him again,

“No.”

Suddenly, Nawdren shook his head,

“I am not going to stop you.”

“But the contract...” Astaria frowned.

“Why are you doing what you are doing?” Suddenly, Nux asked another question.

Nawdren turned towards him and Nux elaborated,

“The contract only told you to keep us away from the rest of the Yrniel, you or your family never interfered with our affairs,

Then why now?

Why are you suddenly acting out?

Why suddenly go after us?

Why suddenly try to rule over us?

And why are you not stopping us from exploring the rest of the world?

Do you not fear the Contract anymore?”

Nux asked a bunch of questions.

He felt that the answers to all his questions were somehow interrelated.

And he was right,

“The Blood Contract is annulled.”

Nawdren replied.

“What do you mean?”

Nux narrowed his eyes.

He felt like there was something a lot deeper here.

“I do not know the specific details of the Contract, however, it was definitely not as simple as ‘we stop you from exploring’, it was much more complicated than that.

However, that contract is now annulled because I do not feel its energy anymore.

A Blood Contract cannot be annulled until the dominant party wants it to be annulled, in our case, the dominant party, that is the Ancestor, is already dead, so why the contract is annulled, I believe it has to do something with what the contract was in the first place.

I have a slight guess what the reason is and that guess is the reason why I am doing all this.”

Nawdren explained.

“And what’s that guess?”

“The Barrier is weakening.”

“Huh? The Barrier?” Nux frowned.

“Yes. The Barrier that protects this continent from the rest of the Yrniel, for some reason, it is weakening.” Nawdren repeated.

“Is... that not a bad thing?”

Nux questioned.

“It is... very bad.

If the people from the main continent come here, it would change the entire structure of this continent and the first to go down would be the 4 Nations.

I highly doubt even that Mist you have would be able to do anything.”

Nawdren spoke and Nux's expression turned serious.

He wasn't alone, his wives, and even Astaria's face turned solemn.

"But all of this is just your hypothesis, correct? Do you have any proof that supports your statement?" Amaya questioned.

"None." Nawdren shook his head.

He didn't have any proof.

All of this was just his assumption.

Yes, he did all of this just because of an assumption.

However, Nawdren was not a fool,

"There is no other reason for the Blood Contract to be released."

"..."

Hearing those words, Amaya turned silent.

She didn't know much about the Blood Contract, neither did she know about the details of the contract signed between the Ancestor and the Beast...

But the Contract being annulled...

This was definitely not a good sign.

Not to mention... this woman...

Amaya suddenly turned towards Astaria.

She could see in this woman's expression.

Her Thirst for power.

Her Thirst for the Peak.

It was clear what Astaria Skyfall wanted.

Even if the beings from the rest of the Yrniel aren't coming here, this woman,

There is no one stopping this woman from going there.

And what's worse?

This woman was not alone.

Ember, Thyra, Skyla, and for some reason, even Edda...

All of them had a similar expression on their faces...

Amaya had already given in.

She knew what was going to happen.

They were going to visit this 'new' and 'bigger' world soon.

"Alright, let's end all this."

Suddenly, Ember spoke up. She was talking about the 'war'. It was time to conclude all of it.

"It is done already," Evane replied.

Ember frowned.

"The Solid Earth Soldiers are all on their knees and their storage rings have been taken away, they are not going to resist now," Evane explained.

"So what are we doing next?" Edda questioned.

"I was thinking of combining all the Nations under one Nation, this would stop the future wars, however, it will make management a lot more compl-"

“Do you really think I care about all that, dear Queen?” Edda questioned with a blank look on her face.

“Huh? But you are the one who ask-” Evane frowned, soon, however, she turned silent as she realized what she meant.

Having perverted thoughts at times like this, shameless indeed. She wondered how Edda can act so shamelessly.

Evane then quickly turned towards Nux, wanting his answer,

She wanted the first turn after all.

The other women had the same thoughts as well.

The 9 of them glanced at Nux with similar expressions on their faces.

Seeing this scenery, Nux smiled.

He then looked around,

A Battlefield where Emperors and beings stronger than Emperors fought... Most of the trees here were destroyed, Nux had unknowingly sucked the Life Force out of the Grass that was on the ground and it had turned completely brown. There were cracks on the ground with some burned marks here and there...

Seeing all this, Nux's smile turned perverted,

“Here?”

He questioned.

Edda was the first one to nod her head.

And as if he was already prepared for this before the war even began,

The ring on his finger shined and a big tent appeared in front of him,

“Alright, you guys,

We are a little busy,

I would appreciate it if you give us a little personnel space.”

Nux smiled politely.

Chapter 629 Pick.

“Alright, you guys,

We are a little busy,

I would appreciate it if you give us a little personnel space.”

Nux smiled politely.

“ ... ”

Nawdren frowned in confusion.

What could they possibly be busy with at a time and space like this?

He had heard their conversation, however, he couldn't understand what they were talking about at all.

Astaria, Arvina, and Riona, the ones who knew Nux and his wives, they understood what this perverted man was talking about.

Astaria couldn't help but sigh.

She couldn't believe that she considers this perverted man a warrior.

The transition was just too... bizarre.

“What are you looking at?”

Suddenly, Nux turned towards Astaria and questioned.

“Huh?”

“Don't be jealous.

You would be joining us soon~”

Nux spoke with a playful smile on his face.

“In your dr-”

Astaria wanted to retort, however, she stopped herself before she completed her sentence.

Seeing this, Nux’s smile widened.

“Fufufu~”

A perverted laugh leaked out of his mouth.

Astaria blushed.

And seeing the red shade that had appeared on her teacher’s face, Arvina widened her eyes in surprise.

‘W-W-What is happening here!?’

She knew Nux was going for her teacher.

A pervert like him was obviously not going to let a woman like Astaria go. Arvina didn’t find it surprising, however, she knew her teacher wouldn’t give in.

There is no way she can, right?

She was the strongest human in the wor-

‘...’

Arvina’s expression changed.

This perverted bastard...

He defeated someone who even her teacher lost against.

Not only that, he even enslaved that man- or beast-man.

The title of the strongest human...

This perverted man holds that title right now!

Wait...

A Warrior like Astaria... obviously someone like her would be attracted to the strong. Adding Nux's caring and loving personality into the picture...

It wouldn't be surprising if her teacher...

'No no no no no! Arvina, what are you thinking!? Teacher isn't someone like that! There is no way she would give in!

This...

This feels so wrong!'

Arvina aggressively shook her head to get rid of these useless thoughts that were haunting her mind.

Her teacher won't lose!

Especially not against a pervert like Nux!

Arvina solidified her thoughts, however, the moment her eyes fell on Astaria's face again, her confidence wavered.

"Hmph! If you are so busy, I would take my leave then!

I need to take care of the army anyways!"

Astaria turned around and walked away. However, suddenly, she turned around and glanced at Evane,

"How do you wish to handle the future matters, Queen Evane?"

Evane, however, just smiled awkwardly and,

“I would leave all that to you, Protector Astaria.”

She pushed all the responsibility to Astaria and quickly held Nux’s hands with a small blush on her face.

‘Wait...’

Nawdren finally realized what is happening.

‘These perverted bastards...’

He couldn’t help but curse in his head.

“What are you watching, leave.”

Riona glanced at Nawdren and ordered.

“You... you are going to join them?” Nawdren questioned with a strange look on his face.

“What are you talking about!? Why would I even think about something like that!? That’s my daughter’s husband!”

Riona berated Nawdren.

“A-Ah, I didn’t know, I apologize.”

Nawdren apologized.

He was quite the gentleman as well.

“Whatever, come with me. You might have some uses.”

Riona spoke, then she followed Astaria and spoke,

“Lady Astaria, if you need anything, just ask me.”

Astaria nodded and the two of them walked away.

Of course, Nawdren followed them obediently.

Now, the only ones left were Nux, his wives, and... Arvina...

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Nux and his wives glanced at Arvina with polite smiles on their faces.

“ ... ”

Arvina looked back with a lost expression.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Nux and his wives were patient.

“ ... ”

Arvina didn't know what to say.

“You know we want you to leave, right?”

Edda wasn't having any of it.

“ ... ”

Arvina glanced at Edda, then she glanced at Nux.

“ ... ”

Nux didn't know what to say.

What was he supposed to say here anyway?

He couldn't understand why Arvina was still standing here, but at the same time, he felt like he couldn't ask her to leave as well.

Of course, he didn't have to do anything.

“Woman, do you have a hearing problem?”

Amaya was even harsher.

The way she moved in front of Nux looked as if she was a mother hen who was protecting her chick. The height difference between her and Nux made this scene even more comical.

“A-Ah, I apologize, I was lost in my thoughts.”

Arvina quickly came back to her senses and apologized.

“Mhm, I apologize if I came out as rude.”

Amaya replied with a small smile on her face.

A smile that screamed ‘Shoo Shoo, move away.’

With her mind filled with different thoughts, Arvina walked away.

“You were rude, Amaya.”

Nux spoke up.

“She was acting strangely.” Amaya's answer was simple.

“...”

Ember didn't say anything. Arvina was her friend, so she refrained from commenting.

Thyra's mind was already filled with different thoughts, so she didn't say anything either.

“Anyways, how are we going on with this? A Tensome!?”

Edda questioned with an excited look on her face.

“No fucking way! I am not sharing with any of you! You all can go for a Ninesome! I will have my own time later.”

Amaya’s response was the same.

“I would have agreed, but I can’t allow her to have a one-on-one while we all share, so I am out as well.” Allura jumped in.

“Same.”

Thyra nodded as well.

One by one, all the women started backing away and as they did, Edda’s expression continued to change...

She still couldn’t live her dream.

“How are we going to decide the turns?”

Felberta questioned with a serious look on her face.

Suddenly, all the women turned towards Nux.

“Eh?”

Nux’s expression changed.

“Pick.”

Felberta spoke.

“E-Eh?”

Nux stuttered.

The women continued to look at him.

The looks in their eyes screamed only one thing,

Pick me first.

Even the calm and silent Lane had the similar look on her face.

“Hahaha... Haha... ha...”

Nux knew.

He was fucked.

“!!!”

Soon, however, a genius idea appeared in his mind and,

“I have a perfect solution.” He smiled.

“What is it?”

“I would now start running.

The one who catches me first, gets the first and all other positions would be selected this way.

Of course, team-ups are allowed as well.”

Saying that, Nux just smiled, he used trickster to limit his cultivation to the point his speed would only be a little faster than his wives, and then,

He ran away.

Chapter 630 It Doesn'T Matter If The Barrier Is Weakening Or Not.

“Nawdren, I have another question.”

While Nawdren, Astaria, and Riona were walking, Riona questioned.

“What is it?” Nawdren asked back.

His response was quite rude, however, Riona let it slide and questioned.

“The Barrier, why do you sound so sure that the Barrier is weakening?”

“...”

Nawdren turned silent.

“You said you assumed this happened just because the Blood Contract has been annulled, but no matter how much I think about it, that reason is too weak for you to act like this.

What is the actual reason you think that way?” Riona questioned.

“...I failed to become an 8 Star beast,” Nawdren answered.

When she heard this answer, even Astaria, who was walking further stopped and turned towards the two of them.

Nawdren continued,

“All of this might just be because I am incompetent, but we the Flying Lynx, none of us has ever ‘failed’ to become an 8-Star Beast.”

“What are you trying to get at?” Astaria walked towards him and questioned with a frown on her face.

Something was wrong.

Nawdren didn't reveal full information before.

“Haven't you wondered why the strongest Stage one can reach in this continent is just the Emperor Stage while there are ridiculously stronger stages outside this continent?”

“Is it because of lack of knowledge or inadequate cultivation techniques?”

Astaria wasn't sure herself.

“Do you really think that's it?”

Nawdren spoke.

“Don't play any riddles, answer properly,” Riona warned.

“The Barrier that protects this Continent also limits the Mana.”

“Limits the Mana?”

“Yes, the Mana we have here is not dense enough. That is the reason none of you humans can go past the Emperor Stage. In this part of the world, Emperor really is the True peak.

However, the same was not true for us, Flying Lynx.

We are biologically different from you.

The Mana we require to become an 8-Star Beast is lesser compared to Mana you humans require to become an Emperor.

For me to not become an 8-Star Beast,

There is a high chance the Mana Density of this world is being affected by something.”

Nawdren spoke with a serious look on his face.

“But if the barrier is weakening, shouldn’t the Mana density increase?”

Astaria questioned.

“The Barrier’s construction is not that simple.

This Barrier shouldn’t have weakened in the first place.

Me failing to become an 8 Star Beast and the Annulment of the Blood Contract, I refuse to believe these two are not interrelated.”

“...”

Astaria turned silent.

Nawdren wasn’t wrong.

“That means that the chances of the barrier weakening are a lot higher than we think,” Riona spoke with a solemn look on her face.

Nawdren didn’t say anything.

Riona then turned towards Astaria and questioned,

“Should we really unite the 4 nations?”

“What do you mean?” Astaria narrowed her eyes.

“If the barrier is weakening, then the people from the main world will for sure come to our continent as well. There is no way they will leave out a free land like ours. It doesn’t make sense for us to unite the 4 Nations, since they will eventually take it away from us.”

Riona or even Astaria, none of them had doubts.

If the people from the mainland come for them, defeating them is impossible, it was not even a discussion.

They barely defeated Nawdren, who is not even a True Sage and there is a high chance that the people from the mainland have cultivators who are at an even stronger stage than Sage.

Fighting against them was simply suicide.

“It’s been 100 years since Nawdren realized that something was wrong with the barrier, however, even now, the barrier hasn’t been destroyed. Don’t forget, Roone still managed to an Emperor.

If the Mana Density was diminishing, he wouldn’t have been able to do so.

Of course, there are chances that he is right but even then,

We still don’t know how long the Barrier will hold on.

It could be a month or even 500 years.

We don’t even know if the people from the mainland are even interested in this place.

Planning based on something so unpredictable seems stupid.”

Suddenly, Arvina walked towards them and spoke.

Riona started thinking.

Arvina’s words made sense.

Before this war, she didn’t even know something like a barrier existed and it was weakening. She should only plan with the best interest in her mind, if something happens later, she should think about it later.

Riona glanced at Arvina and nodded,

“You are thinking too much.”

Suddenly, Astaria spoke up.

“Hmm?” Arvina and Riona frowned.

“It doesn’t matter if the barrier is weakening or not.

The people from the mainland, they may or may not come for us,
But we for sure are going for them.”

Astaria spoke with a confident smile on her face.

“All we need to do is find a new ruler for the Skyfall Kingdom.”

“Huh?”

Riona and Arvina frowned.

“What? Why are you two looking at me like that?”

“You are not planning to take Nux and his wives with you... are you?”

“Are you serious? Of course not.

I am not taking them anywhere, I will be going with them.”

“They...?”

“Mhm, all of them have already decided to leave this continent.”

“How do you even know something like that?” Arvina questioned. She was there will them when the truth about Yrniel was revealed and she didn’t see Nux and others talking about it.

A small smile appeared on Astaria’s face and she just shook her head,

“I just know.”

She then glanced at Nawdren and her expression changed,

“Now as soon as I defeat this bastard on my own, we all will leave.”

“Sure. Go ahead, you can order me to lose any time you want, I would follow it.

As long as it makes you feel good.”

Nawdren shrugged, indirectly taunting Astaria.

“Heh. Don’t get ahead of yourself.

Don’t forget, you started running away in the middle of our battle like the scardy little bitch you are.”

Astaria retorted with a calm, confident look on her face.

Nawdren suddenly turned silent.

He quickly recalled the time when Astaria’s sword had started shining and it cut through his sword to wound his chest.

He still has that cut on his chest.

Astaria then looked at Nawdren and narrowed her eyes,

“You seem to know what that move was,

Now answer me,

What it was, and how do I master it?”

“...”

Nawdren’s expression changed.

Chapter 631 Hear Me Out...

9 days passed by quickly, currently, Nux was lying on a large bed inside the tent. Yes, he was still in the middle of the battlefield, however, not all of his wives liked the idea of...

Ahem...

Well, let's just say not all of them were as bold as Edda when it comes down to it.

Evane, Lane, and Amaya just wanted a pleasant time with him, on a comfortable bed.

Of course, Nux never complained about it.

These 9 days, he gave one whole day to each of his women, doing whatever they wanted and it was not just about sex alone, he spent time with them, visited some beautiful cities, ate some delicious food, making all of them feel special.

Nux also understood this, for the last few days, he couldn't give his wives as much time as he wanted to.

This could be due to the absurd number of wives he had. Unlike the Kings and high nobles with many wives, he does not ignore his wives and only uses them for sex, his wives were not trophies.

He loved each and every one of them and wanted to be there for them, physically and emotionally, and being there for 9 women was certainly not very easy.

Then there was also the Devouring Mist Demon Physique, which he needed to comprehend. He also had to put effort into it.

He was thankful that his wives were understanding and were always ready to support him, also, the telepathic connection they had due to the [Harem's Gate] was helpful as well. It allowed him to be there for them whenever they needed and the women could always contact him if something did happen.

However, even with that, Nux knew he didn't have to be there just when they faced a problem, he wanted to be with them without any specific reason as well.

And that's why he used these 9 days to fully enjoy with his wives.

Of course, they did the snu snu as well, a lot of it.

And now,

Nux was lying on his bed, alone, with a small smile on his face.

His [Regeneration] and high stamina made it easy to give his all to all his wives, however, he still needed some mental rest.

However, if Nux thought he would finally get some mental rest, then he was wrong.

Just as he closed his eyes to sleep, a woman barged into his tent.

"I see you are finally free now."

Astaria spoke with a small smile on her face.

"Oh, Astaria."

Nux smiled as he sat up and gestured Astaria to sit on the bed.

Astaria walked in and a frown appeared on her face,

"What's with this funny smell?"

"You are seriously asking that? What are you, a child?"

Nux questioned with a playful smile on his face.

Astaria's expression changed as she realized what this funny smell was.

“Y-You shameless! How are you even lying on the bed with this peaceful expression on your face!? Doesn't this smell bother you?”

Astaria questioned with a slightly red face.

“Heh~ Just wait for a little longer, Astaria, give me a few more weeks, and once I finally defeat you,

I will help you get used to this ‘funny smell’ as well.”

Nux chuckled.

“...”

A frown appeared on Astaria's face.

“Hmm?” A confused expression appeared on Nux's face.

Astaria then glanced at Nux and narrowed her eyes,

“A few more weeks?”

“Hmmm?”

Nux was now even more confused, soon, however, a playful smile appeared on his face, he crawled towards Astaria, then bringing his face very very close to Astaria's he questioned.

“Are a few weeks too hard for you?”

You should have said that sooner, Astaria~

If I knew you were this perverted, I would have worked even harder~

But don't worry, now that I know, I would change my ways, just give me this week and I would definitely find a way to defeat you~

And then,

I will make you mine.”

Astaria's face turned even redder, she backed away a little, Nux's face was a little too close right now.

An unexpectedly cute reaction, especially for a warrior like her.

“A-Are you underestimating me?”

Astaria questioned as she glanced at Nux with an accusing look on her face. Combining this expression with Astaria's face which was blushing nonstop, made her look... adorable.

*Gulp*

Nux couldn't help but gulp...

The current Astaria was too much to handle, even for him.

“What are you talking about? How am I underestimating you?”

Nux questioned.

“You defeated Nawdren.”

Astaria spoke.

“Mhm.” Nux nodded in understanding.

“Nawdren defeated me.”

“...” Nux now understood, however, Astaria still continued,

“If you can defeat Nawdren, then defeating me is... something you can do without even putting any real effort.”

“It’s different.” Nux, however, shook his head.

“I only managed to subdue Nawdren because he used his Life Force and I was able to trap it and seal his Mana, if I actually use the Mist, then the only I would be left with is to kill.

The Devouring Mist is not a joke,

I cannot use this against you, if it stays in contact with you, even for a second, it can cause irreversible harm.”

“So you are saying that you won’t use the Mist to defeat me and are looking for another way to defeat me before you challenge me again?”

“Indeed.” Nux nodded.

Astaria finally understood.

However, Astaria’s expression turned solemn.

“So you were underestimating me.”

“Huh?”

Nux frowned. He glanced at Astaria and noticed at the blush on her face had disappeared and she continued to glare at him with a... hateful look on her face?

‘Wait...’

Suddenly, Nux’s expression changed.

‘Fuck.’

He finally realized.

“So you think I am so weak that you would find another way to defeat me within a few weeks huh.”

Astaria commented.

‘As I thought...’

*Gulp*

Nux gulped.

He fucked up.

Astaria was a warrior...

From her perspective, him not challenging her would look like he wasn't treating her as an actual challenge.

A wry and nervous smile appeared on Nux's face and he called,

“Astaria...

Hear me out...”

Chapter 632 You Are A Hurdle In My Way.

“Astaria...

Hear me out...”

Nux called out with a nervous smile on his face.

“...”

Astaria didn't say anything and just glanced at Nux. Nux took this as his cue and started,

“You are a hurdle in my way.”

Astaria narrowed her eyes.

“As a warrior, I wish to overpower you, defeat you, and leave you behind. Just like I have done it before, starting from a mortal to Beginner Stage Cultivators, then Advance, Masters, Grand Masters, Experts, Kings, and then the Emperors, I have defeated them all.

And I do not wish to stop here.

The main continent.

Yrniel.

I wish to do the same there as well.

However, you are different from other ‘hurdles’ I have encountered or will encounter in the future.

You are someone I wish to obtain. I want to carry you with me when I encounter future hurdles.

You are someone precious to me, you are someone I cannot leave behind.

Look, I am not some great warrior like you who has an unextinguishable flame inside her, wishing to reach the peak.

I am just a normal man, who wants to live a long, happy life with my family, and in this world, where the strong rules, I have to keep defeating everyone, I have to keep destroying all the hurdles, the Sage Stage, the Great Sage, and the stages after that, I have to surpass them all.

I need to reach the peak as well, however, the force driving me is different.

I wish to reach the peak together with the people I love,

And that includes you.

And since I plan to take you the peak with me,

I cannot do something that would harm you.”

Nux’s expression turned serious, he looked into Astaria’s eyes and,

“I will not use the Mist to defeat you, Astaria.

I will find another way.

It might take longer than a week, and it might even take years, but that won’t stop me.

I will defeat you, Astaria. I will make you mine.

No matter how long it takes.”

A strange aura emanated from Nux’s body when he said those words.

Astaria, however, wasn’t intimidated by that aura.

She continued to look into Nux's eyes.

This time, Nux didn't back down either.

He spoke out his honest thoughts, he wasn't planning to go back on his words.

'Huh?'

Suddenly, Nux frowned as Astaria placed her hand on his chest.

“What would you do after you defeat me?”

Suddenly, Astaria questioned.

“Huh?”

Nux didn't expect this question.

“What? You don't have an answer ready in your mind?”

Astaria questioned as a playful smile appeared on her face.

“I expected better from you, Nux. I didn't think you were the unprepared type.

Or maybe you just don't think you can defeat me in the first place, so thinking about it is pointle-” “Didn't I answer you already?” Nux didn't let Astaria finish and a smile appeared on his face as well.

He then moved his face close to Astaria's, their foreheads touching each other, and,

“I will make you mine.”

“And how do you plan to do that?” Astaria questioned and hearing that question, Nux paused.

Soon, however, he decided to continue pushing forward.

Shamelessness was the way.

“Isn’t that obvious?”

“It is not, please, elaborate.”

“You remember our bet, don’t you?”

“I do. I said I will marry you when you defeat me. You aren’t thinking that I will be yours just because you married me, are you? Don’t forget, I had a husband before. As a matter of fact, I even had a son.”

“I still find that hard to believe. You don’t look like a 300-year-old at all. You have maintained yourself well, Astaria.”

There was no way Astaria was winning when it came to a war with words.

Nux was a champion when it comes down to it.

He has reached the true peak.

Astaria, however, wasn’t planning on giving up.

“I thank you for the compliment, but you still didn’t answer me,

You keep saying you will make me yours again and again, but how exactly do you plan to do that?”

“I will marry you after I defeat you.”

“And?”

“And what does a married couple do?”

“Hmm?”

“You have the experience, don’t you? Answer the question, what does a married couple do?” Nux questioned with a playful smile on his face.

“They live together.”

“Oh c’mon, don’t be like that, Astaria.

You know what I want to hear, don’t you?

Wait, don’t tell me,

You aren’t embarrassed of saying that out loud, are you?

What an unexpectedly cute si-”

“Sex.

Married couple mate with each other, in order to procreate.”

Astaria replied.

The red shade on her face combined with the stern and ‘not giving up’ expression on her face...

Even Nux was having a hard time facing that look.

However, right now, he couldn’t back down.

“And that’s your answer.” He smiled.

“Huh?”

Astaria furrowed her brows.

“What do you mean?” She questioned.

“You asked how I was planning to make you mine, didn’t you?

That’s your answer.

I will 'mate' with you."

"Y-You think I would become yours just because you managed to mate with me, t-that's not how it works. But you can't be blamed as well, you are nothing but a young boy." Astaria replied as she tried to look away.

"Nope, you got it all wrong, Astaria."

Nux, however, shook his head.

"I am not saying I made you mine just because I managed to have sex with you."

A perverted smile appeared on his face as he continued,

"You will become mine because you will enjoy the process so much that you wouldn't be able to hold back and would give yourself to me just to experience my love and care again, and again, then again~"

"You sound confident," Astaria commented.

"Trust me, when it comes to this, I am the best.

And it is not arrogance, it's confidence."

Nux smiled confidently.

"Hoh?" Astaria raised her eyebrow.

Nux continued to smile,

Then suddenly, Astaria pushed Nux onto the bed.

Chapter 633 She Was Better Than He Thought.

Then suddenly, Astaria pushed Nux onto the bed.

“Huh?”

Nux furrowed his brows.

What in the hell was Astaria trying to do?

And what’s with that expression on her face?

Nux had lots of questions in his mind.

Of course, by no means, he was an innocent boy with no knowledge about all this, a woman pushing him onto the bed... this was definitely something Nux has experienced before and he knows exactly what happens after this.

But here, the woman we are talking about was Astaria Skyfall.

A crazy warrior who has nothing but the craving for power inside her mind.

A woman like her was pushing him onto the bed...

Nux didn’t know how to react.

“I admit defeat, Nux.”

Suddenly, Astaria spoke.

“Hmm?”

Nux frowned.

“You don’t have to find any different ways to defeat me, I admit my defeat and I am willing to marry you.”

Astaria spoke. Nux’s expression changed.

Normally, these words would be like honey for Nux’s ears, however, right now, Nux didn’t like these words one bit.

He felt as if Astaria was pitying him.

He still hasn’t defeated her, after all.

Nux wanted to do this, fair and square.

“Astaria, you don’t have to-”

Nux was about to reply, however, before he could even end his sentence, Astaria interrupted.

“I understand that you don’t want to use Mist against me, and I respect it. I am impressed that you are trying to find different ways to defeat me even though you already have one with you, however, you have to see things from my perspective as well.

It will hurt my pride knowing that I am only winning this challenge because you aren’t using your full strength against me.

Even though you don’t intend to do it, it feels like you are looking down on me.

And that is something I cannot allow.

I will admit my defeat here.”

Astaria spoke with a serious look on her face.

Then suddenly, a confident smile appeared on her face as she continued,

“However, this doesn’t mean I am done here.”

Nux narrowed his eyes and Astaria continued,

“You defeated me in the domain where I thought I was the strongest, now I would do the same.”

Astaria then crawled towards Nux, she placed her knees on either side of Nux’s abdomen, her hands on top of Nux’s shoulder, then trying her best to hide the blush on her face, she brings her face close to Nux’s and,

“I will defeat you where you think you are the strongest.”

Right now, Astaria’s face was right on top of Nux’s, it was so close that the two of them could feel each other’s breath over on their faces, Astaria’s sweet body scent assaulted Nux’s nose, he looked into her eyes with a lost expression on his face, soon, however, a big smile appeared on her face and,

“You really think you can defeat me, girl?”

He questioned.

His attitude was strikingly similar to what Astaria had around the time he challenged her.

Of course, Astaria didn’t mind either, she would silence this boy using her skills.

And what’s the best way to shut that annoying mouth of his?

Astaria lowered her head and,

She sealed Nux’s lips.

“!!!”

Nux’s eyes widened in surprise.

Jolts of pleasure assaulted his body.

Astaria was kissing him on her own accord, just the thought of it and Nux felt a slight twitch in his lower region.

Astaria, however, didn't realize it and continued to kiss him.

Her kiss wasn't filled with experience, she was just softly touching her own lips with Nux's. Clearly, she didn't have much experience in this field.

The political marriages weren't exactly based on love, after all.

It can be said Astaria's experience was... well, not very adequate.

She spent her entire life chasing the peak, after all.

Of course, this didn't mean that Nux didn't enjoy this kiss, on the contrary, he was absolutely loving it!

He was fighting the urge to roll over, take control and push his tongue inside Astaria's room, however, his inner sadist stopped him.

Astaria wanted control?

She wanted to be on the top?

She wanted to defeat him?

He would welcome her.

He would let her do whatever she wanted, and once she tries everything in her power, he would make a move.

Just thinking about all this filled Nux's mind with joy. Different scenarios had already started playing in his mind.

On the other hand, Astaria continued to kiss Nux.

She quickly understood that just touching their lips together for a long time would only bore Nux, she needed to be more creative. She needed to provide different sensations.

Astaria broke the kiss, then, she kissed him again.

Then, she broke the kiss again and kissed again.

She continued to do it again, then again and again, teasing Nux as much as she could.

Even Nux was having a hard time holding himself back.

A smile appeared on Astaria's face when she noticed that Nux's body was twitching very lightly.

She might not be much experienced, however, that didn't mean she was clueless about these matters, she had her teenage years as well. There was a time when even she was excited about these matters. She had done some research on her own as well.

The knowledge from that time, she hadn't forgotten it.

“You are much more sensitive than I expected,

This will be easier than I thought.”

Astaria teased.

Nux smiled back.

“Why don't you give your best the-”

He wanted to challenge, however, soon, his expression changed when he realized that something warm had entered his pants and was now touching his little brother.

It was Astaria's hand.

Nux looked at Astaria's face with a surprised look on his face, Astaria smiled playfully, then with her hand, which was a little rough because of the calluses formed due to intense swordplay, she started stoking Nux's rod.

“Ugghh~”

A small moan leaked out of Nux’s mouth.

Astaria...

She was better than he thought.

Chapter 634 The Sadist Inside Astaria Was Born.*

Astaria was a lot better than Nux thought.

No, rather than her being better, it was more of a Nux's problem.

Nux realized this a little while ago, he had a thing for strong women.

No, not the huge bodybuilder women, he didn't know if he had a fetish like that, but he definitely had a thing for strong, independent women.

And Astaria stood at the peak of all those women.

The Strongest Woman in their Continent.

When someone like her was stroking Nux's dick, the pleasure he felt automatically shot up.

Unlike Nux's wives, her hands were not soft, her hands were full of calluses, making them rough, however, these rough hands didn't make this any less pleasurable.

Rather, it made Astaria's hand job even better.

It was a new experience for Nux after all.

For some reason, even Ember and Thyra, who had spent their entire lives, dedicated to weapons didn't have so many calluses in their hands.

"Heeh? Moaning already?" Astaria teased again as she cupped Nux's balls.

Nux's thighs stuck together and seeing him react to her moves in such a way, Astaria's smile widened.

She brought her lips close to Nux's ears and whispered,

“Are you sure you are the best in this field?”

Your wives just didn't say this to you just to make you happy, did they?”

Astaria teased again.

For some reason, it felt as if Nux and Astaria had switched their roles, where Nux was now having a hard time as the reigning champion, while Astaria was revealing more and more of her cards, shocking and teasing Nux and continuously putting in a difficult position.

“If it was one of my wives, I would have cummed already, you look too inexperienced.”

Nux replied with a smile on his face.

Astaria's face twitched,

“Are you sure you should lie to me right now?”

She questioned as she tightened her grip around Nux's little brother.

“!!!”

Nux's eyes widened in surprise.

He didn't expect this.

He couldn't believe Astaria was threatening him by taking his little brother hostage.

“Y-You are doing to do something so cowardly, r-right?”

Nux questioned, trying to move his hips in different ways, he didn't know what it would achieve, but currently, he wasn't exactly thinking.

His little brother was at risk here.

“What do you think?” Astaria questioned.

Nux looked into her eyes and he knew,

She definitely would.

“You won’t lie again, would you?”

“O-Of course not.” Nux smiled politely.

“Good.”

Astaria kissed Nux’s lips again and at the same time, she started stroking Nux’s rod again.

By now, Nux’s rod was standing tall, perfectly erect.

He was definitely enjoying this.

Astaria continued to stroke his rod, however, she knew she couldn’t continue this.

Pleasure was directly proportional to change.

If she continued to do the same thing, then this bastard would definitely get used to it and would be able to hold back.

Astaria’s mind was thinking about different ways to bring this ‘change’.

She could vary the speed, however, that was too uncreative.

When she faced someone like Nux, she knew she needed to be creative, suddenly, a small smile appeared on her face.

She slowly brought her hand towards Nux’s chest and commented,

“Your chest is quite hard, it is well built.”

Nux was wearing a white colored robe right now, so Astaria didn't feel any resistance, she just needed to move the robe and Nux's well-built chest was visible.

Astaria started moving her hands on Nux's chest.

It was simple movements, however, since the one doing all that was Astaria, Nux felt a strange jolt of pleasure coursing through his entire body every time she moved.

Of course, something like this was still not enough for him to move.

However, Astaria wasn't relying on it either,

She slowly brought her knees near Nux's abdomen, all this while, she made sure that her thighs kept touching his body, and then,

“You know... I have heard this somewhere...”

She started.

She placed her right knee in a way that her calf and hamstrings touched Nux's erect rod and,

“Boys like you get turned on the moment a woman uses her legs.”

Astaria smiled playfully.

Nux's expressions were telling her that whatever she was doing was working.

She could feel his lower body trembling slightly and the way she was trying to look into her eyes with a determined look on his face, it definitely showed that he was hiding his real expression.

“Now, I will be honest, I don't know how it works, however,

I am sure you will help me by telling me how it feels, right?”

Astaria questioned and at the same time, she brought her ankle near her thighs, tightening her grip around Nux's dick, and then,

She started moving.

“Ugghh~”

Another moan leaked out of Nux's mouth.

“How is it?”

Astaria questioned even though she knew the answer already.

“...”

Nux decided not to say anything.

He was having a hard time not moaning already.

This sensation...

It was just too good.

Astaria was currently wearing skin-tight clothes. The fabric was soft and combined with her alluring movements, Nux was having a hard time holding back.

Right now, he wanted nothing more than to push Astaria aside, roll over on top of her, tear her clothes, and shove his dick inside her pussy,

Even Nux didn't know how he was still holding on.

He just closed his eyes, trying to think of something else to distract his mind.

However, Astaria wasn't going to let that happen.

She brought her mouth near his ears and,

“Hmmm? Are you going to stay silent?”

“Didn’t you say you were the best in this field?”

“Then shouldn’t you help out your wife here?”

“Wait, you are not scared, are you?”

“You can’t possibly be thinking that I would take away your position and rather than you making me yours, I would make you mine?”

“Nooooo~ No way that is possible, right? You aren’t that weak, are you?”
whispered softly with a playful smile on her face.

At the same time, she also pressed her breasts on Nux’s side chest, attacking him from 3 directions at the same time.

“I-It feels good but it could b-be better.”

Nux replied.

“Mhm, sure, leave it to me, I will make sure I will improve.”

Astaria replied with a seductive look on her face.

She was definitely enjoying this as well.

This was the first time she saw this expression on Nux’s face, after all.

She could definitely get addicted to it.

The Sadist inside Astaria was born.

Chapter 635 How About You Give Me My Turn To Make Things Even? *

Astaria increased the speed, and the pleasure Nux was feeling rose up, however, Astaria wasn't done, she wanted to defeat him as soon as possible,

Suddenly, she moved her mouth close to Nux's ears, Nux glanced at her, she smiled sensually, then she blew inside Nux's ears, a soft whisper of breath stimulated Nux's entire body

“Phooooohhh~”

Jolts of pleasure assaulted Nux's body,

“Uggghhhhh!!”

He moaned in pleasure, his hips rose up, back arched up, and he... he came, spreading his jizz all over Astaria's right leg.

“Haahh... Hahh... Haahhh...”

Nux started breathing heavily.

This stimulation was indeed too much for him.

It was hard to hold back.

“6 Minutes 39 Seconds. You held on longer than I thought.” Astaria commented as she glanced at Nux's face with a small smile on her face.

“Haahh... haa...” Nux didn't reply and just continued to breathe.

Astaria then glanced at her right leg which was now covered in Nux's jizz and a shade of red appeared on her face. Soon, however, her expression returned to the playful one she had and she pouted,

“Look at the mess you created... my clothes are now ruined... It was my favorite dress as well...”

Astaria glanced at Nux with an accusing look on her face, seeing that look, Nux couldn't help but smile,

“So now you must want me to make it up to you, don't you?”

He questioned.

He knew what Astaria was trying to achieve, and honestly, he was quite surprised.

He didn't expect Astaria to be so bold.

If any of Nux's wives saw Astaria right now, she would simply think of her as a female Nux. Her tone, her playfulness, her sadistic nature... all of it was... just too similar.

“I want you to make it up? Don't you think that is something you should do as a man responsible for ruining my favorite dress?”

Astaria questioned back.

Nux's chuckled.

He thought Astaria didn't have much experience in this field, it was true, however, there was a problem.

Her knowledge of the human body was high. She how to produce different stimulations and using that knowledge, even her innocent and inexperienced moves were... scary.

Nux needed to change his tactics.

“You are a coward, Astaria.”

Astaria’s expression changed, but before she could react, Nux continued,

“You had your way with me for more than 5 minutes, you did whatever you wanted, but you still want me to compensate you?

Do you really think it is your victory when I am barely moving?”

Astaria narrowed her eyes,

“What do you want?”

She questioned.

Hearing that question, Nux’s smile widened.

‘Heh, just a little provocation and you jump on it.

Fufufu~ You are still too easy, Astaria.’

He thought inwardly and then, he demanded,

“How about you give me my turn to make things even?”

“Your turn?”

“Mhm, allow me to have my way with you for 5 minutes, just like I did.”

Nux demanded with a perverted smile on his face.

“6 Minutes 39 Seconds,” Astaria spoke,

“I will give you the exact amount of time I used.”

Astaria wouldn’t back away from a challenge.

Hearing those words, Nux chuckled,

“Very well.”

He extended his hands in the air, a 4-meter-long Purple Black colored rod pierced out of the ground. Nux grabbed the rod and broke it from the bottom.

Seeing that rod, Astaria narrowed her eyes and glanced at Nux.

Nux just smiled as he glanced at Astaria.

“Let’s start this, shall we?”

He questioned as he sat up, then, he pushed Astaria onto the bed, just like she pushed her. He removed the robe he was wearing, revealing his entire body.

This definitely wasn’t Astaria’s first time seeing Nux’s body, she has seen it when he trained with her before, however, today...

She knew it was different...

Astaria’s face turned red again, this time, the redness didn’t fade away, especially since all her attention was on Nux’s little brother that stood tall even after he had just orgasmed.

Nux then crawled toward Astaria, the closer he got, the closer his little brother came toward Astaria, Astaria’s eyes were fixed on it, it was as if she was charmed. Seeing this, Nux just smiled.

He then grabbed Astaria’s hand,

“Huh?”

Astaria finally came out of her reverie.

“Now now, stay there patiently, will you?”

Nux spoke gently, he then moved the rod he had just created inside Astaria’s clothes through her arm and passed it out from the other end, forcing Astaria to be in a T position.

Astaria tried to move her arms, however, with the rod tying her up like this, she couldn't her arms at all.

“I used half of my Mana to create this rod, it won't break that easily. Of course, it will be different if you use Mana, but you won't do that, will you?”

I am sure you will not go back on your words, right?”

Nux questioned.

“...”

Astaria didn't say anything.

Nux's smile widened, his eyes then fell on Astaria's pants and,

“Now, let me do something about these ruined clothes of yours.”

His hands slowly moved towards her pants and then,

**Zzzttt**

He then tore her pants, revealing Astaria's smooth, white legs.

“Much better.” Nux smiled.

Astaria's face turned red, Nux, however, wasn't done yet, he traced his fingers through her smooth thighs, moving towards her crotch area covered by her black-colored panties and pressing it gently.

“Anhh~”

A small moan leaked out of Astaria's mouth.

“A Black one huh, as I expected from a bold woman like you.”

Nux praised.

Astaria's face turned redder and she didn't reply.

Nux then moved his face closer to Astaria's, their eyes looking into each other's, noses touching together, lips dangerously close and in this situation, Astaria couldn't help but gulp because she could feel Nux's hot little brother touching her thighs.

"I finally have you in this position, Astaria.

I have been dreaming about it for a loong loong time~"

Nux smiled, his free hand moving inside her clothes, touching her abdomen.

"Annhh~"

Astaria's body reacted again when Nux's cold hands touched her, however, it wasn't over,

She could feel where his hand was moving.

Astaria closed her eyes and started feeling Nux's hand that was moving towards her breasts, Nux movements were unusually gentle and slow.

It was as if he didn't care about the fact that he just had 6 minutes to do all this.

"Annh~"

Another moan leaked out of Astaria's mouth as Nux's cold hand freed her right breast from her bra.

Chapter 636 Are You Ready? *

“Annh~”

Astaria moaned again, Nux had started playing with her right nipple, his other hand was just pressing her crotch, but for some reason, the pleasure she was feeling was already too much.

Her body was on edge, she was forced to use everything she had to not moan, however, even then, she had moaned more than 4 times.

And the arms that she couldn't use didn't make it any better, this helpless feeling of not being able to move her hands made her vulnerable, and for some reason, the thought of being vulnerable in front of this man...

It turned her on...

Suddenly, Nux moved his face away from Astaria and sat up.

He placed both his elbows on either side of her face and continued,

“You seem ready now, shall I move to the next stage?”

“...do whatever you want.”

Astaria turned her face away.

Nux's smile widened, he quickly moved his hands and grabbed Astaria's panties. Astaria's expression changed, however, before she could do anything, Nux quickly pulled down her panties, revealing her pussy that was currently wet.

“Oh ho? What a pervert~”

Nux smiled.

“That’s just a natural body reaction!”

Astaria defended herself.

“Hmmm? Does it get wet when you are tied up? And it’s natural? Are you sure?”

I don’t know much about the female body, but I highly doubt that’s true.

Maybe that’s a natural reaction for a pervert?”

“I-It’s not because I am tied up! It’s because you are moving like that!”
Astaria retorted.

“But I didn’t do anything though? I didn’t even touch this beautiful thing here.”

Nux spoke as he brushed his fingers through Astaria’s lower lips.

“AAaannhhh~”

Astaria moaned loudly because of Nux’s sudden move.

She had a minor orgasm as well.

“And that’s a natural reaction as well?” Nux questioned with a playful smile on his face.

“...yes, t-that’s natural as well,” Astaria replied. This time, however, her voice was a lot lower than before.

“Uh huh. Sure.

I trust you.”

Nux nodded in understanding.

Then he grabbed Astaria’s skin-tight shirt and pulled it up, he didn’t remove the entire thing, he just lifted it to the point where her bra was now visible.

Nux didn't stop there, with a *Click* he quickly removed her bra as well, revealing her beautiful bare breasts.

“How beautiful~”

Nux praised the incredible sight in front of him.

Astaria turned her face away, trying to avoid Nux's gaze.

Nux just smiled, he lowered his face and his lips grazed her breasts.

“Annh~” Another moan leaked out of Astaria's mouth. She was just that sensitive right now.

Nux's hand moved towards her lower lips, he circled his finger around those beautiful lips a few times, and each circle increased Astaria's sensitivity, especially since she was trying her best to control her moans right now.

Nux could feel her legs trembling, however, he knew this wasn't enough.

He needed more.

He needed her body to react even more violently.

With an evil smile on his face, Nux's lips moved towards her nipples and he started licking the tip.

This time, however, Astaria didn't moan. She gritted her teeth and forcefully stopped herself.

Nux didn't mind.

After so many sessions with his wives, he didn't have to hear moans to know if a woman's body was reacting to his touch or not.

The hardened nipples were already enough for him to know Astaria's condition.

He just continued to lick her soft nipples and once then, after a soft kiss, he started sucking on those nipples.

“Uunngghhh~”

Astaria’s back arched up.

Nux smiled, and using this chance, he pushed his middle finger inside her canal.

“Annhhh~”

Astaria moaned loudly.

The attacks from two sides were too much for her.

Nux, however, was merciless, he used his free hand and started kneading her other breast.

Astaria curled up her toes, Nux’s movements were too slow, she wanted to use her hands to pull Nux’s body closer to her body, however, since they were tied up, she could only endure this touch.

Nux’s finger continued to explore her cave, discovering more and more of her weak points, making her body even more sensitive,

Astaria knew.

She couldn’t be able to hold back any longer.

She could sense that huge orgasm that is about to come.

Her body had already started trembling, there was an unbearable itch near her groin area, her walls wanted to be touched, however, Nux seemed to be unaware of all that and was still continuing with her slow and continuous movements.

“Haahh... Hahh... Haa...”

Astaria started breathing heavily.

She moved her legs around Nux's legs, giving him little signs, telling him to move quickly, Nux, however, was still unaware.

Astaria clenched her fists.

The itch was getting unbearable.

All of this felt stale and exciting at the same time, however, the thirst for more overpowering.

Astaria gritted her teeth.

“Unnhh~”

Nux continued with his slow movements.

Sucking and licking her nipple, playing with her breast with one hand, exploring her cave with the other hand, and using his thumb to tease her clit...

All these movements were extremely sensual...

Every single one of these movements sent jolts of pleasure into her body, however, these jolts... they were like weak current signals, that activated her body, making it more and more sensitive, however, it was still not enough to help her reach the end...

Every time she felt that she would finally reach the end, the movement becomes stale, and once she gets used to it and calms down, more and more jolts of pleasure assaults her body.

An extremely frustrating feeling, especially with her hands tied up like that.

“...faster.”

Astaria finally gave in.

Nux paused.

As soon as he paused, the itch Astaria felt became even more unbearable,

“Hmmm? What did you say?”

Nux questioned as he sat up and looked into Astaria’s eyes.

“Faster...” Astaria spoke up.

“What if I say I have an even better solution?”

“...” Astaria turned silent.

Seeing this as a signal, Nux moved his finger out of her cave, her expression changed, however, before she could react, Astaria’s eyes widened as Nux placed his rod right on top of her lower lips.

“Are you ready?”

Chapter 637 L Love You, Star.**

“Are you ready?”

Nux questioned.

“I... I am...” Astaria replied with a deep blush on her face.

And as soon as she did.

“Aannnhhhh~”

A moan of relief came out of her mouth and Nux slowly pushed his rod inside her vagina.

“Aaahhhh~”

However, this time, she wasn't alone.

Nux moaned together with her as well.

Her walls quickly surrounded Nux's rod, Astaria's insides were unbearably soft. Those wet and gushy walls surrounding Nux's rod as if they would gulp it down...

Nux momentarily lost all his strength and fell on top of Astaria.

Her breasts and his chest touched, his face was right beside Astaria's, he could feel her rough breathing and the heat emanating out of her body.

“It feels amazing~”

Without glancing at Astaria's face, Nux whispered softly.

“...”

Astaria however, didn't reply.

Nux frowned, but just as he was about to turn his head towards her, Astaria used her legs, making sure that he wouldn't be able to move his hips and then,

*Squirt*

Nux's dick was showered with the holy juice.

Astaria came.

Nux finally glanced at Astaria's face and seeing the look of absolute relief and pleasure on her face, he couldn't hold himself back and kissed her cheeks.

"You look absolutely lovely, Star~"

Hearing those words, Astaria turned towards Nux.

Her expression looked tired, it was as if she had won a great war, however, the smile on her face was absolutely stunning.

Her walls were still twitching, Nux's rod was still being showered, yes, her orgasm still hadn't ended yet.

Astaria was currently experiencing the longest orgasm she has ever experienced.

"We... we aren't done yet... are we...?"

However, she still craved more.

Hearing her words, Nux's smile widened, he quickly lifted his body and,

"Of course not."

With rejuvenated energy, he moved his dick.

"Annnhhh~" Astaria moaned.

She had just experienced a long orgasm, actually, she was still experiencing a few after orgasms, her body, especially her insides, were extremely sensitive, Nux's any random movement was enough for her to moan, however, Nux, who already knew about most of her weak points wasn't just moving randomly.

“Aaanhhh~”

Astaria moaned again, Nux's rod's head just passed through a specific point that sent jolts of electric pleasure all over her body, her caves tightened, trying to force Nux's dick to stay there, however, Nux didn't listen.

He continued to move his dick, in, then out, then in, then out, and with each thrust, he continue to increase his speed,

Increasing the pleasure Astaria was experiencing to an even greater level.

“Annh~ Annnnh~ AnannannnH~”

Astaria continued to moan as Nux drilled his rod into her body.

He used his hands to play with her lovely breasts, due to his touch Astaria felt ticklish all over her body, however, with her hands tied up, there was nothing she could do.

She could only continue to look at Nux's face, who was still moving his hips, sending jolts and jolts of mind-numbing pleasure into her body, and helplessly accept his thrusts.

“Aaannhhh~ AaaaAannnh~ AAaannnhhh~”

Astaria could feel her legs weakening.

She has just orgasmed, but she could already feel another orgasm nearing.

Just that thought frightened her.

Just a single orgasm was so much pleasurable... what would happen if she experienced another orgasm so quickly?

Would her mind even be able to endure something like that?

She wouldn't turn into a fool, will she?

She couldn't help but think about these foolish questions.

This was her first time feeling something like this.

For her, sex was only an activity used to procreate.

She had always wondered why Nux's wives were so crazy about him, she wondered why their relationship was so abnormally strong, she even wondered how can they so attached to each other, how can they possibly live their life, not thinking about their own goals, but thinking about each other?

And now, she finally realized the answer.

She could feel Nux's love with each of his thrusts.

With how he was gently smiling at her while embracing her body.

His playful and teasing smile was all gone...

That strange challenge she fought for, Nux never took it seriously in the first place, and honestly, she only realized now that even she didn't care about that challenge at all.

The 6 minutes were already over...

She didn't have to give into his demands and stay like this any longer, however, the way Nux moved, it was just so pleasurable that Astaria couldn't help but listen and give in to his wishes.

"I love you, Star."

Suddenly, Nux confessed.

Astaria's mind stopped working.

Her face quickly turned red, this time, she didn't even try hiding her expression, this confession was too sudden...

Astaria looked into Nux's eyes, she knew what she wanted to do, however, she was still too embarrassed.

She recalled the first time she met this shameful bastard, how this bastard continuously pestered and teased her, how she started training him, then the final battle, where the two of them fought together against Nawardren...

All these scenes started playing in her mind, then suddenly, her mind blackened out, Astaria came out of her reverie and noticed Nux's face, which was dangerously close to hers.

He was waiting for her reply.

A small smile then appeared on her face, she closed her eyes, and then, she replied,

“I love you too, shameless bastard.”

Nux's smile widened and he sealed Astaria's lips.

However, this time, he wasn't planning for a dry kiss.

His tongue moved, and Astaria's eyes widened, however, she quickly accepted Nux's advance and allowed Nux's tongue to enter her mouth. She even tried to copy his movements and started rolling her own tongue around Nux's, her movements were obviously sloppy, but Nux didn't care.

He was enjoying the kiss.

The two of them embraced the heat coming out of their bodies.

Amidst all this, Nux continued with his thrusts.

Astaria's sensitive walls tightened even more.

Nux's erect dick was assaulted from all directions, finally, he couldn't hold himself back and,

He came.

His milk gushed deep side Astaria's walls, and as if that was the last straw, Astaria's walls tightened even more, and then, they loosened,

*Squirt*

Nux's dick was bathed once again.

“Mmmfffmhhmpfff!”

The couple's muffled moan escaped the tent.

The couple quickly lost all the strength inside their body and Nux fell on top of Astaria.

Their lips finally parted,

“Haaahh... haahh... haa...”

“hhhaaa... haahhh... haa...”

They then started breathing heavily and suddenly,

Nux felt a huge amount of energy entering his body.

Of course, he didn't have to check what it was, he already knew it.

A big smile appeared on Nux's face, he completely ignored the energy that had entered his body, he just glanced at Astaria and questioned,

“...you don't... haah... think this is the... end...haah... do you?”

“Heh... I would... have haah... been disappointed... if you were haah... this weak...”

Astaria smiled back.

This was definitely not the last round.

Chapter 638 L-Lf It Can Help You Reach The Emperor Stage...

“You finally woke up,”

Nux commented with a small smile on his face.

Astaria, who had barely opened her eyes glanced at Nux who was lying right beside her, propped up on one elbow with his head resting on his hand.

Astaria quickly noticed that this man was naked, her face turned red, and suddenly, she felt a slight chill all over her body, she glanced down and realized that just like this perverted man, she was naked as well, the red shade on her face deepened.

“I can’t believe you can make an expression like this, Star.”

Nux spoke with a playful smile on his face.

He was definitely enjoying this view in front of me.

Astaria’s hairs were messy, there were droplets of sweat on her forehead, and the blush on her face combined with her swordlike eyebrows and narrowed eyes gave her a warrior look,

The contrast between the two was just...

Nux had no words.

Of course, that wasn’t all.

Astaria’s breathing was calm, however, the way her bountiful breasts were moving up and down... it was an alluring sight.

Astaria had an alluring body however, the aura she unconsciously released made it harder for one to focus on her body, even Nux had a hard time looking at Astaria's body for more than a few seconds in a perverted way. This was the reason why Astaria didn't receive the due credit for her body.

Now, however, things were different.

All those barriers were finally down.

Now, Nux could ogle how much he wanted.

He could treat his eyes with this feast in front of him without holding back now.

And that was what he was doing for the past hour while Astaria was sleeping.

Yes, for the past hour, he has been staring at Astaria, burning this beautiful sight in his mind like a creepy pervert.

The Strongest female in the world helplessly lying in front of him, naked,

This was definitely a sight Nux was never going to forget.

"W-Who is this Star? My name is Astaria." Astaria retorted in embarrassment.

"That's for others." Nux quickly shook his hand.

"You might be the oh so mighty Lady Astaria for others, but for me, you are my lovely Star~

You don't mind that do you?

You did lose to me after all~"

Nux chuckled playfully.

Astaria blushed, then, her expression changed and she retorted,

“I was the one who won. 6 Minutes and 39 Seconds had already passed when I came.”

Her competitive spirit was still not down.

Nux glanced at Astaria and didn't say anything.

“What...?”

Astaria's expression changed.

“...”

Nux however didn't say anything and continued to look at Astaria's face.

“What?”

Astaria questioned again.

“Did you seriously forget how you were the one who asked me to move faster? No, rather than asking, it is more appropriate to say that you begged me to move faster.”

“...”

Astaria's face reddened.

“Then you came the moment I entered.

You didn't forget it, did you, my sweet Star?”

Nux smiled.

“...”

Astaria didn't say anything.

“Hmmmmmm?” Nux brought his face closer to Astaria.

Astaria avoided his gaze and seeing this scene, Nux nodded,

“So who won?”

“...”

“HMMMMMMMMMMMM?”

“Even you needed so many attempts to defeat me... I will defeat you next time...”

Astaria replied, however, she didn't dare to look into Nux's eyes right now and had already turned her face away.

If she could bury a hole into the ground and hide, she would have done in already.

She was just that embarrassed.

“Hehehe~ You can try as many times as you want.”

Nux smiled perversely.

Astaria's face turned even redder.

Seeing this sight, Nux failed to control himself and kissed her cheeks.

“...” Astaria didn't react to the kiss and continued to look the other way.

Nux's smile widened and he kissed her again, then again, then again and again.

Astraria's expression finally melted, she glanced at Nux, and using this chance, Nux sealed her lips.

Astaria expected his kiss and reacted back.

After a long kiss, the two of them look at each other, then suddenly, Astaria frowned,

“Didn’t you say you get stronger when you have sex with women who are at a higher stage than you?”

She questioned.

“Mhm.”

Nux nodded.

“Then why aren’t you at Emperor Stage already?” Astaria couldn’t understand.

Hearing that question, Nux smiled perversely.

“You think becoming an Emperor is that easy?”

“Is there a hidden condition or something? Or is it because you are now stronger than me because of the Mist and your magic is not working anymore?” Astaria questioned.

“Hahaha~

It’s nothing like that.”

Nux laughed, then, he glanced at Astaria and replied,

“Emperor is a big stage, I need a lot of energy to reach it.”

“You mean...” Astaria narrowed her eyes.

“Indeed.” Nux’s smile widened,

“We need to do this many many many more times for me to become an Emperor.

You are ready for it, aren’t you?”

Nux questioned.

Astaria's face turned red again,

“I-If it can help you reach the Emperor Stage...”

Saying those words, she turned away, not looking into this pervert's eyes.

Nux smiled, this shy Astaria was just adorable.

He moved his body closer to her and hugged her from behind, his one hand directly moved to her plenty breast and the other one rested on her soft thighs.

A small smile appeared on Astaria's face when she felt Nux's chest touching her back.

It was warm...

A comfortable feeling...

A foreign feeling...

Astaria closed her eyes, however, just as she did,

Something warm poked her butt.

Astaria quickly opened her eyes, she didn't have to see to know what it was.

This pervert...

“Tsk, look how alluring your body is... he is ready again...”

Nux placed all the blame on Astaria.

He quickly placed his dick on her thigh, it was dangerously close to Astaria's lower lips, Astaria's body trembled and her walls started twitching,

Remembering the pleasurable feeling, a jolt coursed through Astaria's entire body.

“I... would let you take the control for today... so rejoice...

But don't be too happy,

I will defeat you the next to next time.”

Chapter 639 How About L Not Punish You This Time?

“Oh ho? Look who it is.”

Felberta spoke with a sarcastic look on her face as Nux and Astaria came out of the tent.

“You finally remembered you have other wives after spending 4 days inside that tent huh.”

She commented as she narrowed her eyes.

Yes, believe it or not, Nux and Astaria spent 4 days inside the tent.

Astaria was still able to hold on far longer than Nux’s any other wives.

This wasn’t very hard to predict.

She had the highest stamina compared to every one of them, after all.

Even for Nux, if it wasn’t for his [Regeneration] holding out for him, even he would have lost the competition.

“Going straight at it for 4 days...

Perverts.”

Thyra commented with a slight pout on her face.

Was she jealous?

Of course she was!

“Oi Oi, we didn’t do it for 4 days like you are all imagining. We were both sleeping for the last 12 hours.”

Nux defended himself.

“Of course you would.

Even you would be tired after all that.”

Allura replied.

“...” Nux didn’t know how to reply to her.

“Still, I expected this from you already, but Lady Astaria? I didn’t know you were a pervert as well.”

Ember spoke with a teasing smile on her face.

It wasn’t an everyday occurrence to get the chance to tease the strongest female in their continent.

To tease a being like Astaria...

There was no way she would let it go.

Astaria, however, wasn’t someone she could mess with.

“Don’t act like you all are saints, girls.

Especially you, General Ember.

You left your Dynasty because of your perverseness.”

“...”

Ember turned silent.

Astaria then turned silent and narrowed her eyes,

“And you all, do you really think I wouldn’t know that you were all peeking at us just because you told Nux to stay silent through the [Harem Seal]’s connection?”

“!!!”

The women’s eyes widened in surprise and they all glanced at Nux at the same time,

Nux was about to reply, but Astaria jumped in.

“Don’t look at him, he didn’t say anything.”

The women, however, completely ignored it and continued to look at Nux.

“I warned you guys...”

Nux smiled wryly.

‘I have the access to this connection as well.’

Astaria dropped the bomb.

“!!!”

All the women then looked at Amaya, this time, even Amaya, who was usually calm had a frown on her face,

“But the [Harem Seal] shouldn’t have worked on her...”

Aren’t the [Slave Seal] and the [Harem Seal] of the same tier?

If the [Slave Seal] failed on Roone, then...”

She started analyzing and couldn’t help but frown even more.

“I was surprised as well.” Nux nodded.

“Does that mean the [Harem Seal] is stronger than the [Slave Seal]?”

Amaya questioned.

Nux, however, just shook his head,

“You know about it as much as I do.”

“Isn’t obvious? The [Harem Seal] allows one to share some of the Nux’s weird Magics, it is also connected to his [Harem Gate], it is obviously a higher tier Magic.”

Astaria replied.

“But he got both these magics at the same time...”

“That doesn’t mean they are of the same tier.”

“...”

Amaya turned silent.

Astaria was right.

Predicting anything about the System was foolish.

They knew next to nothing about it.

And honestly, this worried her.

The System seemed too good to be true.

Of course, it is possible that she was just being paranoid, and honestly, she hoped that was the case.

“Anyways, none of you have the right to call me a pervert.

You are much more perverted than I am.”

Astaria spoke in a commanding tone.

“ ... ”

The women turned silent.

The aura Astaria unconsciously released might not affect Nux anymore, but for women... Astaria was still a role model like existence.

Well, for most women...

Some were completely immune to her Aura.

“Hehehe~ As I thought.

There is no way Sister Astaria wouldn't sense us, she is an Emperor Stage Cultivator after all.

The Strongest Woman in the continent!”

Skyla smiled, then, she walked towards Astaria and grabbed her hands, her eyes shined brightly and she questioned,

“So? Sister Astaria? How was your first nigh- err I mean, first nights?”

“E-Eh?”

The curiosity that leaked out of Skyla's eyes affected even Astaria.

“Hehe~ Did you enjoy it? How did it feel when Nux entered you? Which position did you like the most? Ho-”

“Skyla.”

Just as Skyla was about to shoot her barrage of questions, Edda called with a serious look on her face.

Skyla turned towards Edda and frowned,

Why was she being so serious?

“Stop asking these silly questions,” Edda spoke.

Skyla’s frown deepened, then suddenly, Edda smiled perversely,

“Isn’t the answer obvious? It was when she couldn’t use her hand because she was tied up, of course.

That vulnerable feeling is just~

Ahhh~”

Edda grabbed her hands, trying to hold herself back.

She then glanced at Astaria and smiled,

“Aren’t I right?”

“Y-You are not.” Astaria stuttered.

“Fufufu~”

Edda smiled.

“Yo-”

Astaria was just about to retort, however, before she could, Ember stepped in and replied,

“Girls. He is still here,

Isn’t it better to ask these questions when we are alone?”

Edda then turned towards Nux and spoke.

“You haven’t cultivated for a while, right?

Go stabilize your Mist.

Shoo Shoo~”

“Shooing me away now, huh?”

Nux smiled.

“What are you going to do? Punish me?”

Edda questioned as she smiled playfully.

“How about I try something different this time?”

Nux questioned.

Edda narrowed her eyes.

“How about I not punish you this time?”

Nux smiled playfully and Edda’s expression changed.

“How about no ropes for the next few weeks? We would just have a lovey-dovey all the time.”

Edda’s expression changed.

“Alright Alright, stop teasing her.” Ember jumped in.

Skyla then moved behind Nux and started pushing him,

“Now goooo~ We need to talk to Sister Astaria.”

“Why not talk in front of me?” Nux questioned.

“No~”

Skyla pouted.

Nux smiled and then shook his head,

“Alright Alright, I will take my leave now.

Sighs, can’t believe you all are pushing me away.”

After a dramatic sigh, Nux walked away.

Once he left, the women turned towards Astaria and Ember spoke with a solemn look on her face,

“We need to talk.”

Chapter 640 Turns For What?

“We need to talk.”

Ember spoke with a serious look on her face.

Astaria’s expression changed again. She realized this was not something as simple as talking about her first night or something like that.

She walked inside the tent again, the women understood and followed her in as well.

Astaria quickly realized that none of the women looked bothered by the funny smell that was spread around the room.

Rather, a few of them were now looking at her with teasing smiles on their faces, of course, she completely ignored those expressions and sat on the bed.

“What is it?”

Astaria questioned.

“We need your help,” Ember replied.

“...” Astaria didn’t say anything and Ember continued,

“Train us, we wish to get stronger.”

“All of you will become Emperor Stage Cultivators soon, what’s the problem? You will automatically become stronger.”

Astaria couldn’t understand.

“It’s not the same,” Thyra replied.

Astaria narrowed her eyes.

“Can we defeat you once we become an Emperor?”

“Of course not.” Astaria didn’t have to think.

“A newbie Emperor cannot defeat me.

Of course, that Pervert is different.”

“That’s what we are talking about. Just improving our Cultivation won’t make any difference. We have realized how weak we are.

We will be visiting the main Continent soon enough.

We will encounter beings stronger than Nawdren.

The bottom line is, Nux is far stronger than us, if its an enemy we can take care of, then Nux can defeat him with his eyes closed, however, the moment an enemy who is strong enough to trouble Nux pops up, all of us would become his weakness, just like what happened with Nawdren.

You, however, are different.

Nux might be stronger than you right now, but you still have a chance to fight together with him once you master that Sword Technique of yours.”

Thyra explained.

“So you want me to teach you my Sword Technique? You do realize that it is my Trump Card, right?”

“We will forever be grateful to you.

I know it is unreasonable to ask you this, but I still hope you train us all.

We will give you whatever you ask for in return.”

Ember bowed her head. The other women bowed as well.

Astaria's expression didn't change.

Ember bowing in front of her was definitely surprising, but what they were wishing for was something absurd as well.

If they couldn't even lower their pride for it, then they should have forgotten about learning it.

“How did you learn about the sword technique?”

Astaria questioned.

“Nawdren told us.”

Amaya replied.

“According to him, this was something that Ancestor used, a technique that made him what he was. His trump card.”

“I do not know if this technique is as great as Nawdren makes it out to be, but you have to know.

Even if you learn this technique, there is a high chance that you will not achieve what you wish for.”

Astaria replied and the women's expression changed.

“What you all essentially want is to surpass Nux in terms of strength but you have to know, even if I somehow Master this technique, which I don't know how long it will take, I am not sure if I can defeat him.”

All the women glanced at Astaria with frowns on their faces.

“The Power to Devour Life, it is not something you can take lightly. He can now kill an Emperor in a matter of seconds. To him, the opponent's techniques doesn't matter, he could simply just keep a distance and in a few seconds, he would suck out his opponent's Life Force and he wins.

If he improves his control over Mist even further, then he would simply be invincible as long as the enemy is not strong enough to get rid of him within 10 seconds.

Even if I master my technique, as long as I cannot get near him, it would simply be useless.”

The women’s expressions turned serious and all of them glanced at Amaya, Astaria included. Even she knew where the Mist came from.

Amaya glanced at the women looking at him and shook her head,

“Don’t look at me like that.

I know how strong the Mist is. I know that well.

But you cannot compare My Mist with his, he has the System helping him.

In order to get make our Mist stronger, we need to comprehend our physique, and unlike Nux, who has his System to help him, I have to do everything manually. I even have to artificially create a place that matches the weird place Nux’s soul goes into before I start comprehending.

My progress is countless times slower than his.”

Amaya explained her circumstances.

The women turned silent again.

Comparing themselves with Nux was... frustrating,

And what’s worse?

Astaria wasn’t done yet.

“All of this is just when we are thinking of him as a King Stage Cultivator.”

The women’s expression changed, Astaria continued,

“Don’t forget, he won’t just become an Emperor, he would become an Emperor Stage Mana and Body cultivator.

He would be a lot lot stronger than normal Emperor Stage Cultivators.

I can’t even imagine how absurdly strong he would be once he becomes an Emperor.”

“So...”

“Yes, even if you do learn this technique, which, let me warn you beforehand, is a lot harder than you think and would take an indefinite time for you all, the chances that you can surpass Nux, or even get close to his level are low...

Very low.”

“...”

The women didn’t know what to say.

“It doesn’t matter.” Thyra, however, hadn’t given up.

“Teach us,”

“What will I get in return?”

Astaria questioned with an interested smile on her face.

“Power to exchange turns whenever you want.”

Thyra replied.

The other women widened their eyes in shock, Astaria, however, didn’t seem to understand,

“You may not what or how important it is, so let me explain it to you.”

Thyra started,

“Each time, we all get different turns, I am offering you to exchange our turns whenever you wish,

Say mine is 2nd, and yours is 10th, then you can ask me to exchange it and I will not refuse.”

Astaria, however, was still confused,

“Turns for what?”

She couldn't understand.

“Turns for having sex, of course.”

Indeed, Thyra was betting it all.

Chapter 641 You Don'T Trust Me, It'S Fine, Trust Him,

“Turns for having sex, of course.”

Thyra replied with a serious look on her face.

She was betting all.

Astaria finally understood why the women were acting this way, however,

“Do you think this is enough?”

Hearing that question, the women widened their eyes again, this time, even Amaya had a slightly surprised expression on her face.

“What happened?” Astaria frowned.

She didn't understand how this serious mood suddenly turned so... strange.

The women started looking at each other and frowned.

“She didn't like it maybe?”

Ember was the first to speak.

The other women glanced at her with deadpan looks on their faces,

“Do you really think that's possible?” Felberta was the first to question.

“I mean... she is an Emperor... she might be someone who just does not feel it...?”

Ember defended her claim.

“Are you sure we peeped at the same thing?” Felberta questioned.

“Indeed, those moans were not of someone who was not enjoying it,” Allura spoke with a big smile on her face as well.

Time for gossip?

Count her in!

“Do you people have any other reason she would deny her offer then?” Ember retorted.

“ ... ”

Felberta and Allura turned silent and started thinking.

The others were the same, they all started thinking as well.

“ ... ”

Astaria, who was seeing this happening right in front of her eyes didn't know what to say...

Just...

Just what was wrong with these women...

Just now, all of them looked so serious and now, they completely forgot about all of that and... were now discussing her first night...

“Maybe she didn't like the fact that she was tied up?” Allura suggested.

“I mean, she is an Emperor... so you would think she would like to have control?”

“No way!”

Edda was the first to deny it.

“I clearly remember her moans.

She was the most sensitive when she was tied up.

Rather than not liking it, I believe that she liked it the most.

I even have a feeling that I have finally found my true sister.”

Edda spoke as she glanced at Astaria with a meaningful smile on her face.

“ ...”

Astaria didn't know how to react.

“Then what seems to be the problem here?”

Amaya frowned.

“What the hell are you guys talking about? Why are you suddenly acting like this? What about becoming strong?”

Astaria questioned.

Was she the only normal person here?

All the women then turned towards Skyla.

Skyla quickly understood what they wanted, her smile brightened up, she then rushed towards Astaria, sat next to her, and questioned with an excited smile on her face,

“Sister Astaria, how was your first experience?”

“Why are you asking me that?” Astaria questioned back.

“Don't be so mean, Sister Astaria. Why don't you share your experience? Don't you need to defeat Nux as well? I am sure you would need our expertise in this matter.”

“ ...”

Astaria placed a hand on her chin and started considering what Skyla said.

It was a tempting offer.

She needed their help if she wanted to defeat Nux.

“Skyla, don’t spread misinformation.”

Suddenly, Edda walked towards them and sat next to Astaria.

Then, she glanced at Astaria and questioned with a smile on her face,

“Sister Astaria, do you really want to defeat Nux?”

“Of course I do.” Astaria didn’t even take a second to think.

“But why?”

“Huh?”

Astaria frowned.

“Why bother?”

Tell me honestly, did you really hate it when you were tied and Nux had all the control?”

Edda whispered softly.

“...”

Astaria didn’t reply.

“You don’t have to be shy, Sister Astaria, all of us are sisters here, you can be honest with us. We are a family, after all.” Edda spoke.

“Edda, what are yo-”

Ember stepped in but before she could, Edda retorted,

“Oh C’mon, don’t be so selfish, and please, don’t act like you actually know how to defeat Nux.”

“What are you talking about?” Ember narrowed her eyes.

“If you knew it, wouldn’t you have defeated him already?”

Edda questioned back.

“...”

Ember and the others turned silent.

“Sister Fel has been trying it for such a long time, hasn’t she? Has she ever achieved anything? Look, you can think anything in your mind and do whatever you want, but honestly, I don’t see any of you defeating him anytime soon.

So please don’t spread misinformation and let me talk with Sister Astaria here.”

Edda seemed especially aggressive today.

“...”

Ember was forced to be silent.

She then glanced at Astaria, she was curious about her answer as well.

“Sister Astaria, tell me honestly, did you really hate when Nux had all the control?”

You being vulnerable in his presence, trusting him with all your heart, having unconditional confidence about the fact that he would never hurt you, did you really hate that feeling?”

“I... I did not...”

Astaria finally gave in and replied.

The women had different reactions when they heard her answer, Edda, however, still wasn't done yet.

“You had the control for the first few minutes, did you not? Tell me honestly, what did you enjoy more?

When you were in control?

Or when he was in control?

Of course, Nux's troubled expression is fun to watch, but is it really comparable to that foreign feeling? The thrill that he brings in when he has all the control? The element of surprise that he has, the feeling of not knowing what would happen next, does it really beat all this?”

“ ... ”

Astaria didn't answer.

And that was an answer in itself.

A wide smile appeared on Edda's face.

“Sister Astaria.” She called out.

Astaria glanced at her and when she noticed her expression, she understood that this tanned girl was up to something.

She knew she should ignore this girl, however, something inside her compelled Astaria to continue,

“What is it?”

“How about you listen to what I say, just this once?”

Edda spoke with a mysterious look on her face.

“What would I get if I do?”

Astaria questioned back.

“Pleasure.”

Edda smiled.

“Huh?”

“Just trust me.”

“I do not want to.”

“Do you really think he will ever harm you?”

“...no.”

“You don’t trust me, it’s fine,

Trust him,

I assure you that this would be your best night.”

Chapter 642 Alright, I-If You Are Being So Sincere

I am still not done writing all the chapters, so if you don't want blue balls, then I suggest you wait. I will update the rest of the chapters as soon as I can.

...

“I assure you that this would be your best night.

You are talking with an Expert here, you can trust my words.”

Edda smiled confidently.

“...”

Astaria didn't say anything but from the red shade that had appeared on her face, every woman in the room knew that she had given in.

‘She finally found her first prey huh...’

Ember commented using the connection, this time, she made sure not Astaria wouldn't be able to hear it.

‘I can't believe it...’

Allura nodded with a slightly surprised expression on her face.

‘Well, didn't Lane give in once?’ Felberta questioned.

The women then turned towards Lane, the silent girl blushed and lowered her head.

‘I heard that she has been going wild with the ropes now.’

The women’s expression turned judgy. Lane, who could feel their gazes burning her body blushed even more and then replied,

‘It feels good okay... Why don’t you try it before commenting anything on it?’

‘No way.’

Ember was the first to deny it.

‘Tsk, aren’t you all afraid that you all will get addicted to it as well?’

Edda snorted.

‘Calling yourselves warriors and not even daring to accept a single challenge. Tsk Tsk.’

‘You know this won’t work, right?’ Ember replied.

It wasn’t the first time Edda tried this card of attacking their pride, she has tried and had been rejected before.

‘Why don’t you try it just once!?’

Edda was frustrated.

‘Because we don’t want to be a pervert like you.’

The women knew it.

If it was Nux doing it to them, they would enjoy it no matter what it is. They had full confidence in him, however, they had all built their own fetishes that they didn’t wish to change. Honestly, they were scared that they all would end up like Edda.

Astaria, however, was different.

She was a like a pure, blank paper where Edda could write whatever she wanted.

...or at least that's what she thought.

“Alright, I will listen to you.”

Astaria spoke.

Edda's smile widened, however before she could celebrate,

“However, I have a condition.”

“A condition?”

“Yes, you are not allowed to be there when Nux and I are... together in the room...”

“Haaah? That doesn't make any sense. How am I supposed to tell you what to do then!?” Edda questioned.

“Didn't you say Nux will be the one doing everything?” Astaria questioned back.

“Y-Yes, bu-”

“Then it's decided.

Before everything, you can instruct me what to do, I will note everything in my mind and follow your words, you can even talk with Nux if you wish, then, you will leave everything on Nux and would not participate.

Is that clear?”

There was no way Astaria was going to give in.

She was excited, yes.

Honestly, she was even looking forward to it, however, she cannot allow anyone else to see her moment of weakness, except Nux.

That, she cannot do, no matter what.

“Alright. I agree.”

Edda agreed.

It was enough.

She couldn't fully convert her yet, but that doesn't mean anything.

She still has her chance.

Yes, she was not giving up.

Rather, she was going to make sure that Astaria experiences a completely new world, a world so pleasurable and pleasant that Astaria herself would come to her for more.

‘Fufufu~’

Thinking about all this, Edda smiled inwardly.

“You would do anything I instruct you to, right?” she confirmed again.

“Yes, I will.”

Astaria agreed.

The woman in front of her was now her sister, she trusted that Edda wouldn't do something that would somehow harm her.

If she was someone like that, Nux wouldn't be together with her.

“Alright then, first let's get the less important issues sorted out.”

Edda spoke as she pointed at Thyra and Ember.

Astaria narrowed her eyes,

“You want me to teach them my technique?”

“Hmm? Of course not. I do not have a say in matters like these. It is up to you what you decide. My instructions will only be related to pleasure~

Fufufufu~

Of course, if you can answer them and send them away, we could start right now, that would be helpful.”

Edda replied.

Astaria smiled a little, then she glanced at Thyra and the others, however, before she could say anything, Edda continued,

“Oh right, don’t forget, if you do agree to their terms, then the next turn is... of Lane, I believe?”

Lane nodded.

“Thyra, when is your tur-”

“I-I am willing to do it as well.” Before Edda could question, Lane interrupted.

“Hmm? What do you mean?”

Edda questioned.

“The exchange, I mean.

If Sister Astaria agrees to teach me, I will let her switch turns whenever she wishes...

I wish to get... stronger as well...” Lane answered as she looked into Astaria’s eyes with a determined look on her face.

“I agree as well.”

Ember nodded.

“I agree to it.”

“Me too...”

One by one, all the women started agreeing.

This sacrifice was a little too much...

But that suffocating feeling of not being able to do anything while Nux's back was broken and he was helpless...

They didn't wish to experience it again.

No way.

Everyone, except Amaya agreed to this.

Of course, it wasn't like Amaya didn't care about the technique, however, she had something even better.

Her own path.

The Devouring Mist Demon Physique.

She would spend her time mastering her physique instead.

“Right, if you agree to our terms, then you can exchange your turns with all of us except her.

That means, now when your turn is at last, you can exchange it with Lane and...

Today's night is yours as well~

How about it?

Would you like to do it today?

Or do you wish to wait for 10 more days?

Hmmmm?”

Edda questioned with a playful smile on her face.

Yes, the women had reduced their frequency to once per day.

That was because they wished to focus on building their strength.

At the same time, Nux would also be able to give them more attention, for a longer period of time.

It was a win-win.

“Alright, i-if you are being so sincere,

Then I guess I would have to be the bigger person here.”

Edda’s smile widened,

“Good choice.”

Chapter 643 No One But L Has The Right To See You Like This.*

Darkness.

No matter what she did, where she looked,

Nothing was visible.

It was not just a normal blindfold created from a simple piece of cloth.

It was a blindfold made from a skin of a 6 Star Beast...

No matter what Astaria tried, she couldn't see anything.

And what's worse?

Nux's Devouring Mist was spread all over the room, constantly Devouring all the Mana inside the room, making it impossible for her to use Mana to sense her surroundings.

Of course, Astaria's limbs, which were tied to the 4 poles of the bed, prohibiting any sort of movement didn't help either.

(Bed's Picture here)

The current her could only give in and continue to lie down.

But there was a problem.

She has been lying in this position, completely naked, for an hour now and nothing has happened.

That Edda, first she put a blindfold on her eyes, then brought her to this room.

Astaria quickly realized that this was some secret room because it was too far away from other rooms and was in the basement of Nux's Mansion, she had many questions but that girl didn't answer any of them and just tied her limbs with those poles and left.

Once she left, Devouring Mist filled the room and as soon as it touched her body, it devoured all her clothes, not even leaving the undergarments.

Then, it was absolute silence.

Yes.

She has been left alone.

Many different thoughts entered her mind in this last hour.

It was definitely not her first time being alone.

She spent most of her life inside a single room, after all.

However, left alone in this vulnerable position...

For some reason, she felt a strange sensation all over her body.

*Creak*

Suddenly, Astaria heard a sound.

It was the sound of the door opening, but for some reason, today, the door was too loud.

'Did they not oil it properly?'

Astaria questioned inwardly.

*Step*

She then heard someone walking in.

“Nux?”

She called out.

Who else could it be?

“...”

However, she didn't receive the confirmation.

Oh ho? Look who it is. Don't you look lovely in this position?

That's what she expected and... wanted to hear.

But this unusual silence...

For some reason... this made her anxious.

“Nux?”

She called again.

But again, she didn't receive any reply.

*Step* *Step* *Step*

Astaria could hear it clearly.

The footsteps were getting closer.

The closer they get, the more nervous Astaria got.

Many weird thoughts entered her mind.

The biggest one that troubled her was,

What if it was not Nux?

There was no way she would show this side to anyone but Nux.

“Nux?” She asked again.

“Is it you, Nux?”

“Who is there?”

She asked many questions, but again,

She didn't get any reply.

Astaria's heartbeat increased and just as she was about to move and break these ropes, a hand touched her abdomen and then she finally heard the voice she had been wanting to listen to.

“It's me.

No one but I has the right to see you like this.

You now belong to me, remember?”

Nux's voice was especially gentle...?

No, that was not correct.

It was calm, heavy... it was odd and different from his usual playful tone, but Astaria was sure it was Nux.

The possessiveness in his voice...

That touch of his hand...

She didn't have to use her eyes to know it.

“Why weren't you answering me, you shameless bastard?”

She questioned.

“Hmmm? Did you forget what Edda told you?”

Nux questioned back.

“...”

Astaria turned silent.

Edda only asked her one thing.

No Questions.

Today, Nux had the authority to do whatever he wanted to Astaria, and Astaria didn't have the right to question anything he does.

Astaria felt a strange itch all over her body when she thought about it.

“Aaanh!”

Suddenly, a moan leaked out of Astaria's mouth.

Something cold and wet touched her belly button.

“Aahh!”

Astaria's body jerked again when it touched her belly button again. This time, she realized what it was.

It was an ice cube.

“W-What are you doi-”

She wanted to question, however, she quickly recalled what Edda asked her to do and turned silent again.

Seeing this, Nux smiled and continued with his game.

Astaria couldn't see anything, therefore, her other senses were much more sensitive than normal. She could feel Nux moving the ice cube around her belly button.

His movements were slow and... weirdly sexual.

Then, Nux started moving.

From her belly button, the ice cube moved up, at the same time, Astaria lifted her hips as well.

With her limbs tied, her movements were limited, however, when this cold ice cube was moving on her body, her body moved on its own, trying its best to keep things... normal?

“Aaahhh~”

Another moan leaked out of her mouth when the ice cube reached her breasts, she didn't know what she was expecting, but just as the ice cube neared her breasts, it changed its direction and circled around.

“Aaannnhh~~”

Astaria moaned again, Nux was continuously circling the ice cube around her breasts, making her move her hips strangely to cope with this foreign feeling.

Just as she was getting used to all this, the ice cube moved towards her shoulders and then it moved to her arms.

Astaria didn't know how to react.

She never expected Ice to be so... sexual...

“AAannnNnhh!!”

Suddenly, Astaria moaned loudly as her entire body jolted.

While the ice cube was moving on her left arm, suddenly, another ice cube touched her right nipple which was already weirdly sensitive, and sent a jolt throughout her body.

However, that wasn't it, the other cube that was on her left arm appeared on her left nipple and the 2 cubes started circling around her 2 nipples, making them harder and much more sensitive.

The tingling feeling Astaria felt all over her body increased,

Especially at a certain place.

And as if knowing about it, another ice cube was placed right on top of her crotch.

“Aannnhh~~”

The sudden stimulus was just...

Too... pleasurable...

Chapter 644 P-Please, C-Continue

*

“Aannhh~~”

Astaria moaned loudly.

“N-Nux.”

She called out, Nux, however, continued with his plays and didn't reply,

The tingling feeling that Astaria was feeling between her legs heightened due to the sudden stimuli.

It was cold, wherever the ice cube went and touched sent a weird, numbing sensation into Astaria's body, and since Nux was continuously moving it on her crotch area, the expectation of where it would go next made Astaria even more... uncomfortable...

Of course, Nux's other hand, which was working on her nipple didn't stop either. Astaria was being attacked from 3 points at the same time.

Nux, however, wasn't playing a fair game, to begin with.

It had been more than a minute after he moved the ice cube to her crotch area, however, he still hasn't moved it to Astaria's lower lips, making Astaria more and more uncomfortable and desperate.

“M-Move...”

Astaria muttered.

“...”

But again, Nux didn't answer.

This silent treatment...

Astaria didn't know how she felt about this.

She tried to twist her body in strange angles, trying to cope with the tingling feeling she was feeling in between her legs, but no matter what she did, her legs, which were tied to the two poles of the bed made it impossible for her to use her thighs to alleviate that tingling.

Her nipples were hardened to impossible levels because of the ice cubes, her crotch area, which usually emitted a lot of heat was now being cooled out as Nux continued to circle the ice cube there, her lower lips were itching badly, the same was true was her clit, which was currently swollen and was emitting more and more heat, expecting to be calmed down by the ice,

Yes, Astaria's entire body was currently an absolute mess and was so sensitive that a single slick on her clit would make her orgasm.

She was so close yet it still felt far...

Astaria's mind was filled with different emotions.

Suddenly, Astaria's body reacted.

“Annnh~”

Something touched her lower lips.

However, this 'something' was not the cold ice cube she was expecting it to be, on the contrary, it was something hot.

Something long, thick, and hot...

Astaria didn't have to think,

She remembered this feeling well.

She knew what this something was.

“Aannnnhhhh~~”

Suddenly, Nux started sliding his dick on Astaria’s lower lips, her sensitive body couldn’t take it and Astaria’s walls started trembling, craving for more.

Astaria felt a jolt running throughout her body as her walls loosened a little.

Yes, she just experienced a minor orgasm.

And Nux hasn’t even entered her cave yet.

Astaria couldn’t believe it.

Just how can her body be so perverted...?

She questioned inwardly.

“Should I continue?”

Suddenly, Nux questioned and as if trying to compel Astaria to answer, he completely stopped moving.

“...”

As soon as he did, that tingling feeling returned, this time, a lot stronger than before, and as if to make his intention clear, Nux moved his dick away from her opening and started rubbing it on her thigh.

This little act of his teased her body even further, it made his intentions of not doing anything else until she says something clear, and the tingling feeling she was feeling between her legs heightened even further, making it unbearable.

Astaria was completely helpless.

If only she could break through these ropes and force this man to shove his dick inside he-

“Hmmm? Why haven’t I heard the answer yet?”

Nux questioned.

He moved the ice cubes away from her hardened nipples and started moving them on her thighs, near her inner thighs.

Astaria’s body started trembling.

This was just too much...

This cold and hot feeling...

These two opposites... it was messing with her body so masterfully that even she couldn’t believe it.

“Y-Yes, continue...”

In the end, Nux forced the answer out of her mouth. However, he wasn’t satisfied.

“Is that a request?”

He questioned.

Astaria quickly realized what he wanted.

She gritted her teeth, however, the itch was getting more and more unbearable,

She didn’t have an option.

She had to give in...

“P-Please, c-continue.”

Her body trembled as she said those words, strange thoughts filled her mind.

She was practically begging for it...

Her pride as a warrior...

It was currently being shattered...

But...

But...

She didn't hate this...

It was a complex feeling that Astaria wished to sort out, however,

“Aaaaannhhhhh~”

Nux finally entered her body.

That torturous tingling that messed her body...

The moment Nux filled her up, it all just... disappeared. A big jolt of mind-numbing pleasure coursed through her body.

For a moment, Astaria felt like her soul just left her body and she nearly passed out.

A very familiar feeling.

A very... very familiar feeling...

*Squirt*

Nux's rod was showered again.

Yes, Astaria came.

Astaria's walls cramped around his dick, trying such it in and keep it in there forever, after the 4 days session they had, Astaria's walls had started taking Nux's rod's shape, therefore, Nux's entire dick was currently being kissed by Astaria's walls,

The feeling was just...

Heavenly...

Nux's legs were weakening...

He had to use everything he had to stay awake.

This feeling was just too good.

“Haah... Haahh... Haahhh...”

Nux then heard Astaria breathing heavily.

Seeing this scene, an evil smile appeared on his face and,

He moved.

“Annh~”

Astaria moaned.

Nux's smile widened and without any mercy,

*Pah*

Nux thrust his hip with all his strength.

“Aaannhh!!”

Astaria moaned out loud.

Nux, however, wasn't done yet.

He grabbed another ice cube and then, he started rubbing it on Astaria's swollen and heated clit, sending jolts of pleasure into her body.

Astaria was so out of breath that she couldn't even moan and Nux didn't give her any chance to recover either.

Along with him rubbing the ice cube on her clit, he continued his merciless thrusts as well, under this lethal attack, Astaria nearly lost her mind.

*Pah* *Pah* *Pah*

“Annh! Annnh! AnAnhh!”

Her eyes rolled over, her back arched up and her tongue popped out.

One would have a mental scar if they saw Astaria's expression, the contrast between the warrior Astaria whose Aura overpowered anyone, and this...

It was just unbelievable.

“AaannnNnNnHhHH~~”

Astaria's sensitive body experienced another orgasm.

Chapter 645 Now Then, Shall I Start Wiping Your Body As Well?*

“AAANnNNnNnhhhHH~~”

Astaria moaned in pleasure again.

*Squirt*

This was her 4th non-stop orgasm. n

Her walls tightened around Nux’s dick, and the pleasure Nux was feeling spiked again, his little brother, which was already very sensitive because of how lovingly Astaria’s walls sucked it, couldn’t take it anymore and,

“Ugghhhhh!!”

It released its milk inside Astaria’s body.

Their juices mixed together, a funny smell spread all over the room, however, none of the two cared about it.

Nux had already taken a strange liking to this smell.

As for Astaria...

“Haaahh... Haahh... Haa...”

Well...

She didn’t have the strength to react to anything...

Nux has been pounding her for the last 30 minutes without stopping.

In these 30 minutes, she climaxed 4 times...

And she wasn't even counting the minor orgasms yet...

Her body was pushed to the limit, it became so sensitive that even a small movement was enough to send a jolt of pleasure that numbed her brain for a moment.

Countless times, she wanted to close her legs, wishing that Nux would stop and let her rest for a while... but she was entirely helpless...

Her legs were tied in a position where Nux could enter her whenever and how much ever he wanted and couldn't resist him at all.

It was as if she was just an object he could use to relieve himself...

She... once known as the Strongest Human in the world deteriorated to a mere object...

And what's worse?

She couldn't hate it at all!

With her vision block, her body senses were even stronger, especially the sense of touch.

Nux's touch was like a drug to her body...

No matter how much she gets it, she craved it more and more...

And now she gave her entire body to Nux for him to do as he pleases, even the 'lack of' this drug felt... strangely pleasurable...

It was as if her body would accept anything and everything Nux did to it...

Astaria felt like she didn't recognize her body anymore...

She was turning into a pervert at a scary pace...

She didn't like this feeling at all...

Rather, she hated i-

Suddenly, something fell on Astaria's body,

Astaria didn't need to think, the heat emanating from this 'something' was too familiar, it was Nux.

Yes, currently, Nux was lying on top of Astaria.

His chest touching her breasts, Astaria could feel that his elbows were right beside her head, she could feel his breath, meaning his face was right in front of hers. Nux still hadn't moved his dick out of her vagina, and honestly, Astaria didn't hate this feeling.

However, currently, she was more anxious about what Nux was trying to do...

"It was amazing, Star."

Nux spoke in a gentle tone as he kissed Astaria's lips.

The kiss wasn't perverted, however, Astaria could feel Nux's overpowering love behind that kiss.

"How about you? Did you enjoy it? I tried something new today, I prepared it, especially for you. You have been occupying my mind all this while, after all."

Nux spoke in a gentle tone.

"So? How was it?"

He questioned again.

"..."

Astaria turned silent and clenched her fists.

Nux noticed that and frowned, with a worried look on his face, he questioned,

“Do you not like it? You should have said that if that was the case... why were you silent all this while? I would have stopped if you told me to, you know?”

Wait a minute, let me untie yo-”

Just as Nux was about to move,

“You... you don’t have to...”

Astaria replied.

She was now thankful that her vision was taken away because currently, there was no way she could look into Nux’s eyes.

This bastard...

She cursed inside her head.

‘Not even allowing me to lie to myself... you cruel bastard...’

“I-I d-did not hate it...”

She stuttered.

“So you liked it?”

Nux questioned.

“I-I said I did not hate it, you bastard!”

Astaria retorted.

Nux chuckled and kissed Astaria again.

She didn’t resist.

Rather, these small kisses...

They felt calming...

She wasn't doing anything wrong after all...

She... She was Nux's w-wife...

S-She could show her 'new' side to him without holding back...

Astaria's heartbeat calmed down as well...

It was as if she achieved some sort of enlightenment while being showered with Nux's kisses.

Once he was sure Astaria has calmed down, Nux stopped and with an evil smile on his face,

“Do you want me to continue?”

“T-There's more?”

Astaria was surprised.

“Heh. You don't have to answer me, the way your walls twitched already gave me an answer.”

Nux chuckled.

“I-It's not like that.”

Astaria tried to retort, but,

“So you want to end it here?” Nux questioned.

“...”

Astaria didn't reply.

Nux's smile widened, he finally moved his hips, taking his dick out of Astaria's cave, along with his dick, Astaria's and his juices came out as well.

“Tsk Tsk, would you look at this mess.”

Nux commented.

“We need to clean this up, don't we?”

As he said those words, a bucket of water appeared in his hand and,

**Splash**

He splashed the water all over Astaria's body.

Astaria's entire body and the bed were soaked in water.

Of course, Nux wasn't done yet.

**Splash**

He poured another bucket of water on himself.

**Splash**

Then he splashed it on Astaria, then on himself, then on Astaria again, and then himself and he continued...

A few minutes later, the entire room was wet...

“Haahhh... Haahhh... Haahh...”

Astaria breathed heavily.

Lying on a wet bed with a wet body was definitely uncomfortable.

Not to mention some of her hairs that were stuck on her face and since her limbs were tied, she couldn't move them away. Her blindfold was now stuck on her eyes and it was getting itchy near her ears.

That wasn't it, her body was sensitive after 4 continuous orgasms, so even the chill she felt from due to cold... even it affected her body...

That strange, tingling feeling started again.

Astaria twisted her body at different angles again, and just like before, nothing worked.

“You seem uncomfortable.”

Suddenly, Nux, who was wiping his body leisurely glanced at Astaria and commented.

Then after wiping his entire body, he walked toward Astaria's head and smiled playfully,

“Now then, shall I start wiping your body as well?”

Chapter 646 A Long, Long, Long Night Followed.

“Now then, shall I start wiping your body as well?”

Nux smiled playfully as he walked towards Astaria.

Astaria couldn't see, however, her ears were still working perfectly.

She knew that this man was standing right beside her, Nux didn't waste any time either, first, he fixed Astaria's hair, he then gently wiped her face with a loving smile on his face, and once he was done with that,

His smile turned perverted.

His hand quickly moved towards her shapely breast, with one hand, he groped it to his heart's content, playing with the erect nipple, enjoying the softness by kneading it continuously, and with the other hand, he started wiping it.

He was definitely enjoying this process.

Astaria's breasts were firm, Nux wished nothing more than to kiss that erect pink nipple... lick it with his tongue, suck on it as gently as he could, bite it... and more and more and more...

However, he had to hold himself back.

Not right now.

He had to wipe her entire body, after all.

Nux took his time in 'wiping' Astaria's breast. Once he was done with the right one, he slowly moved to the left one.

His movements were gentle, it was as if Astaria was a gentle object that would break the moment he used more strength.

Nux quickly started playing with her other nipple.

Astaria's body was cold.

Whether it was due to ice or water, Nux didn't know, however, he was definitely enjoying this.

Soon, Nux was finally done with the left breast as well, however, just as he was about to move, he paused.

Something shocking happened.

On the other side, while Nux was playing with her breasts, Astaria, whose eyes were closed, was trying her best to fight against that tingling feeling which was haunting her...

Nux playing with her breast didn't help either.

Rather, it only added fuel to the fire since her mind started imagining how Nux would wipe her lower lips.

Soon, however, Astaria felt something warm near her face.

Right now, Nux was 'wiping' her right breasts, from his position... this warm thing should be...

Astaria's expression changed...

She quickly realized what this warm thing was...

For it to be so close to her face...

Astaria didn't know how to react.

Her face turned red.

Nux continued to wipe her breasts, from his movements, it was clear that he didn't realize what was happening.

The more time passed, the more curious Astaria got...

The heat emanating from it directly hit her face...

Different thoughts filled her mind...

This... this thing right in front of her...

Astaria wanted to look at it... but unfortunately, she could only feel its heat...

And for some reason, this heat attracted her...

This thing was responsible for everything happening to her body...

Now that it was right in front of her... Astaria was having a hard time holding herself back...

In the end, Astaria finally decided to do something she never thought she would do.

She opened her mouth... her tongue moved out of her mouth... she extended it... and then...

She licked Nux's balls.

“!!!”

Nux's expression changed.

Even in the first 4-day session, he didn't ask Astaria to give him a blowjob, for some reason, he felt that she wouldn't like it.

But now when Astaria was the one who initiated it...

All Nux did was bend his knees a little, moving his balls closer to Astaria's tongue.

He was as shameless as ever.

No way he would ever give up on something like this.

A jolt of pleasure assaulted his body as Astaria started licking his balls continuously.

Nux's little brother trembled in joy.

He stopped playing with Astaria's breasts, all his attention was grabbed by Astaria's tongue.

Soon, he started moving his dick, making Astaria his shaft as well. More and more jolts of pleasure assaulted his body and his legs started getting weak.

In the end, Nux failed to control himself, he stood up and placed his dick right on top of Astaria's face with the head right in front of Astaria's mouth.

Astaria's face turned a shade redder.

She understood what this perverted bastard wanted.

The strong scent of Nux's dick assaulted her nose, her body started moving on its own and her mouth opened up.

Astaria then lifted her head and after kissing the head, she gobbled it up.

“Uggghhhhh~”

Nux groaned in pleasure.

Hearing that groan, Astaria's expression changed as well.

She quickly realized that Nux was abnormally sensitive for some reason, not wanting to lose this chance, she started moving, however, with her limbs tied up, her movements were limited.

Nux understood it as well, therefore, he quickly grabbed Astaria's head and then, she started moving his hips.

“Ugghhhh~~”

Astaria's mouth was warm and unbearably pleasurable.

Astaria wanted to make sure Nux moans as much as she did and did everything in her power to make it possible,

Using her tongue, curling it around Nux's dick, sucking it more intensely as Nux moved deeper in her mouth, no one could tell that it was her first time doing something like that.

The pleasure Nux was feeling was so good that he was having a hard time standing up.

Within just 4 minutes, Nux's dick started twitching, and then,

“Ugggghhhhhhhh!!!”

He filled Astaria's mouth with his jizz.

“!!!”

Astaria's eyes widened in surprise.

Her first reaction was to spit this thing out of her mouth, however, just when she was about to do it, she paused, and then,

*Gulp*

She forced herself to gulp it down...

It... It belonged to Nux, after all...

Nux did not miss that.

A smile appeared on his face, then,

He untied Astaria and removed her blindfold.

“Hmm?”

Astaria frowned.

“Plans changed.”

He muttered.

Astaria tilted her head in confusion.

Nux, however, didn't say anything, he jumped on top of Astaria, forcefully grabbed Astaria's hands, and placed them above her head,

“I don't need ropes now.”

As he said those words, A wave of water formed above the bed, and then,

*Splash*

It fell on the two of them...

“I need moarr~”

Saying that, Nux entered Astaria again and,

“AAaAnnnNnnHhhhhh~”

She moaned again.

The two wet bodies rolled over the top of each other on the top of the wet bed, creating a scene so steamy that was so alluring that even the impotent would feel an itch.

The two of them were then lost in their own world, a world full of love and pleasure and,

A long, long, long night followed.

Chapter 647 Your Cultivation...

An incredibly beautiful woman was sitting cross-legged on her bed, her eyes were closed and her entire body except her face was covered by ominous looking Black Mist.

She was Amaya, who was currently trying to decipher the Devouring Mist and increase her Physique's Mastery Level.

*Bam*

Suddenly, the peaceful atmosphere was ruined as the door of her room was broken and another black-red-haired woman stepped in with a panicked look on her face.

“Amaya!”

The woman shouted.

Amaya opened her eyes and frowned,

“What happened?”

Even in front of this sudden outburst, Amaya didn't react abnormally and kept her calm,

Ember's next words, however, changed that.

“The Connection!

I can't feel it anymore!”

Ember informed.

Amaya's expression changed.

She tried accessing their connection, however, just like Ember said, she couldn't access it.

Her face turned pale.

*Thud* *Thud* *Thud*

Suddenly, 3 more women walked into the room, they had horrified expressions on their faces as well.

“You too?”

Felberta questioned.

Amaya and Ember nodded.

“He was with Astaria, let's go!”

Amaya was unable to control herself and quickly rushed out of the room.

The others followed, and there, they saw the other four, Thyra, Evane, Skyla, and Edda outside as well.

The two groups looked at each other and even though they couldn't talk using the connection like they normally do, they quickly understood what they had to do and rushed towards Nux's room.

They couldn't access the [Harem Seal]'s connection, and not only that, they couldn't use [Eye Of Discerning], [Conceal], [Sense], or any other skills either.

This had never happened before.

Different thoughts started appearing in the women's minds. Thoughts that they would rather not think about...

However, in the current situation, it was simply impossible to not think about it.

Even when Nux had passed out due to the backlash of [Blink Fault], the women were able to access the connection and use some of Nux's skills.

For something like this to happen...

There was only one logical conclusion...

Something happened to Nux...

With him being able to Devour Life now, there is no way something would happen to him no matter how strong the enemy is. Even if a Sage appears, the women were confident that Nux would at least be able to fight back to the point that they would know something happened...

For things to happen this fast...

There was only 1 possibility.

Nux was attacked by someone he trusted...

'Astaria...'

All the women had the same thought in their minds.

Even Evane was the same. She was a woman who has seen her brother betray her right in front of her eyes, a woman who has seen her brother try to frame her, a woman who has seen her brother trying to use her. She had grown.

She was not that naive little girl now,

She was now the Queen.

She respected Astaria with all her heart, but if it is about Nux, she would treat her like an enemy in a matter of seconds.

Her sword appeared in her hand and,

With a cold expression on her face, she quickly walked into Nux's room. The other women were the same, with their weapons in their hands, they all barged into the room as well.

“Nux!”

Amaya shouted in worry.

However, soon, their panicked expression calmed a little when they saw Nux sitting right in front of them.

Nux's eyes fell on his women and he smiled lightly,

“Were you all worried?”

He questioned.

“We cannot access the connection.”

Thyra replied.

Nux nodded. From his expression, it was clear that he knew the reason this happened.

Then, Nux's eyes fell on his wives and he frowned,

“Why are all carrying weapons?”

The women's expressions changed.

With shy looks on their faces, they quickly hid their weapons back into their storage rings.

Nux's frown deepened, however soon, he realized what they were thinking...

He then glanced at Astaria, who was lying right beside her, sleeping with a peaceful expression and a beautiful smile on her face.

“Do you really think she will harm me?”

He questioned as he fixed Astaria’s hair.

Astaria’s hand moved on its own when it sensed Nux’s touch and she quickly grabbed Nux’s hand, which was playing with her hair.

“...”

Seeing this scene, the women turned silent...

“I can’t believe she is Astaria Skyfall...”

Ember commented, disbelief clear in her eyes.

“She is Astaria Leander now.”

Nux smiled.

Suddenly, Edda narrowed her eyes,

“Why are her hands not tied though...?”

She questioned.

“Did she... not like it?”

She questioned with a confused look on her face.

Was she not going to get a true sister after all that effort...?

Edda pouted.

Nux glanced at her and shook his head.

He knew exactly what was going on inside the mind of his perverted wife.

To be honest, the pouting Edda was looking absolutely adorable.

“Don’t worry-”

Just as Nux was about to answer Edda,

Ember's expression changed.

“Nux...”

She called out with a surprised look on her face.

“Hmm?”

Nux tilted his head in confusion.

“Your Cultivation...”

Thyra muttered.

Hearing that, all the women focused on Nux's cultivation, and soon, their expressions changed as well.

“Emperor Stage...”

Allura muttered.

Nux smiled.

“Well...”

I am an Emperor Stage Cultivator now...”

He laughed awkwardly.

His women smiled as well.

He finally became an Emperor.

They all wondered how strong he had gotten now,

He was not just an Emperor Stage Mana Cultivator.

He was also an Emperor Stage Body Cultivator.

Nux was someone who has the power to absolutely destroy someone who is at his own cultivation level.

He could defeat more than 10 King Stage Cultivators without even trying when he was a King Stage Cultivator.

Honestly, even 100 King Stage Cultivators didn't make much of a difference.

Does that mean Nux, who was now an Emperor could defeat 100 Emperor Stage Cultivators?

All of them were looking forward to it,

However, before that,

They needed to talk about something much more concerning.

“What happened to the connection? Why can we not access it...”

Amaya questioned.

Hearing that question, Nux smiled wryly,

“Well... something did happen...”

It is a little troublesome...

But it is not a bad thing...”

Saying those words, Nux glanced at the message in front of him and couldn't help but feel excited.

Chapter 648 See? You Are Still Tired, You Should Rest More

[Congratulations to the Host for becoming an Emperor Stage Mana Cultivator from a King Stage Mana Cultivator]

[Blank Points: +50]

[Congratulations to the Host for becoming an Emperor Stage Body Cultivator from a King Stage Mana Cultivator]

[Blank Points: +50]

[The Host has met the required condition.]

[The [Supreme Harem God System] will now undergo an update.]

[Note: During the update, the [Supreme Harem God System] will be in [Down State]. The Host will not be able to use any System Skills.]

[Time Left: 30 days 23 hours 58 minutes 31 seconds]

“It requires a month huh...” Amaya muttered.

“Indeed.”

Nux nodded.

“But it’s a good thing, isn’t it?” Skyla spoke with a big smile on her face. She also used this chance to walk towards Nux and sat on his lap.

“We are going Yrniel soon, I am sure we would need the help of your system.”

“Indeed.”

Nux nodded as he patted Skyla's head.

The other women smiled as well.

Nux, however, had a strange smile on his face.

A smile that all his women missed.

“So you can't use the System Skills for the next 31 days, huh,” Amaya commented.

“That is correct.”

Nux nodded.

“And this involves the [Slave Seal] as well, correct?”

Amaya questioned.

“Yes.”

“What about the people who already have a [Slave Seal] imprinted on them?”

Skyla couldn't help but question.

“...the [Harem Seal] is not working...”

Amaya replied.

“That means...” Thyra muttered and Amaya nodded.

“The ones who had the [Slave Seal] imprinted on them are all free.”

Amaya's expression changed.

“Mother is in danger.”

She muttered.

Nux stood up and walked towards Amaya.

“Don’t worry, Nawdren is with her.”

He patted her head.

“...”

Unlike others, Nawdren was not bound by the [Slave Seal] but the Contract, the System being down wouldn’t affect it.

Amaya glanced at Nux and replied,

“I... still feel...”

“I understand... don’t worry, I will bring her here. Wait for me.”

Saying those words, Nux started walking out of the room.

“You are going right now?”

Ember questioned.

“Mhm, you guys wait here for me, I’ll be back in 5 minutes.”

“5 minutes...?”

Thyra frowned.

The other women furrowed their brows as well.

Mind you... currently, Riona was about 1500 km away...

“Heh. He really did become an Emperor huh...”

Thyra laughed wryly.

“I wonder what her reaction will be once she wakes up.”

Ember commented as she glanced at Astaria.

Nux would now be a lot stronger than before...

For him, defeating the current Astaria will be...

Well, effortless.

And of course, with her attitude, there is no way Astaria would simply accept this fact as it is...

She would try to resist...

However, that's for the latter...

"I really can't believe she is Lady Astaria..."

Ember commented again.

"Just look at that expression..."

She pointed at Astaria's face...

She was sure,

No one.

Absolutely no one in this world has ever seen this expression before.

They were the only ones after Nux.

A defenseless pose with a lovely smile...

She was not Astaria...

Right now, she was Star...

"She looks so adorable~" Skyla laughed as she glanced at Astaria with an excited look on her face.

Skyla was dying to talk to her new sister.

She really wanted to talk about Astaria's first night.

“Oi.” Felberta called out.

“Maintain your distance. You will wake her up.” She spoke.

“It is a little too late to worry about that right now.”

Suddenly, all the women heard a voice and they turned silent.

Collectively, they glanced at Astaria and the woman slowly opened her eyes.

“You are awake.”

Ember smiled wryly.

“It's hard to sleep when there are 9 people inside my room and you 9 are not exactly the silent type.”

Astaria replied.

She had already noticed that she was currently naked.

However, she couldn't react in front of these little girls.

No matter how flustered she was, there was no way she could show it in front of everyone.

With an 'expressionless' face, she stood up and then wore her clothes.

“Anyways, two questions.

Why are you all here?

Where is Nux?”

Honestly speaking, this was not the morning Astaria was expecting.

She wouldn't say it out loud, but she wanted to wake up in Nux's arms...

She wanted to lie on the bed with him for a little longer...

She wanted to cuddle, then kiss, then cuddle again... then kiss even more...

She wanted to do all that...

But opening her eyes and noticing that she was surrounded by 9 women...

Astaria wouldn't say that she wasn't annoyed.

Suddenly, Astaria paused.

She noticed something was a miss.

She wanted to talk to Nux but why couldn't she access the connection?

She glanced at the women again, this time, her expression was fiercer than before,

“Where is Nu-”

She wanted to question, however, before she could, the doors of the room were opened and Nux walked in.

“Oh? You woke up?”

Nux's eyes fell on Astaria, he walked towards Amaya and told her to look after Riona, then, he walked towards Astaria and hugged her like it was the most natural thing to do.

At the same time, he kneaded her soft butt and spoke,

“You should have rested for a little longer.

I am sure you must be tired after all that.”

Under Nux's touch, Astaria's brave and warrior-like front disappeared, and she hugged him back with a cute blush on her face. A complete 180 from the fierce look she showed just a few seconds ago.

Nux continued to knead Astaria's butt, Astaria shifted all her body weight on Nux, giving her body to Nux without any care, and simply focused on enjoying his touch.

“See? You are still tired, you should rest more~

Don't act brave.” Saying this in a gentle tone, Nux carried her in his arms and then placed her on the bed.

After that, he kissed her forehead, patted her head, and then started playing with her hair.

Under his care, Astaria couldn't put a resistance for long, she closed his eyes, and just as she was about to sleep, she suddenly realized something and opened her eyes,

“Your cultivation...”

Chapter 649 Oi Oi, Stand Up, We Don'T Have All Day.

“Your cultivation...”

Astaria finally noticed,

A playful smile appeared on Nux’s face as he replied.

“Our hard work bore fruit.”

Astaria blushed.

“Pervert...”

She muttered.

Then suddenly, she sat up.

“What happened?”

Nux questioned with a frown on his face.

By this time, Astaria’s blush had already disappeared and her signature, a warrior-like confident smile had appeared on her face.

“We have to test how strong you have gotten, don’t we?”

“Do we really need to do it right now?”

Nux questioned with an awkward smile on his face.

“Huh? Of course, we do.”

“But you should rest, your body is still tired.”

“Tired my ass, you think I don’t know what my body is like?”

Astaria replied with a confident look on her face as she quickly jumped out of the bed and stood up.

The battle intent she was emitting was intense.

All the women present inside the room were intimidated.

Even Ember, who is currently the strongest when it came to one on one battles was the same, however, Ember didn’t care about it.

Her attention was on Nux.

She had noticed how unbothered Nux looked.

Not in a disrespectful way.

Neither was it his pride that forced him to keep a straight face.

He was... genuinely unbothered...

Astaria’s fierce battle intent...

He completely and utterly ignored it...

It was as if he wasn’t even feeling it.

And of course, since Ember noticed something it, Astaria did as well.

A big smile appeared on her face.

A competition,

That was what she was looking for.

Nux’s Mist was strong, however, he wouldn’t use it against her no matter what she did,

Not being able to fight against him when he has gotten so strong...

It was frustrating,

Now, however, things were different, she could now fight against Nux, and she and Nux could now go all out.

With an excited smile on her face, Astaria started walking out of the room.

“C’mon, we don’t have time to waste. Let’s go.”

She spoke.

The other women shook his head.

Astaria was unsalvageable...

She has just had an intense session, her body should be tired, heck, she should even be a little sensitive...

But look at her...

There she was, ready to fight...

What a battle freak.

They all liked sparring as well, the feeling of getting stronger... it was addicting...

However, none of them were crazy enough to spar right after a lovely session.

The women glanced at Nux and seeing the wry smile on his face, they realized that even Nux didn’t wish to spar.

‘Well, she is still new... we can’t expect her to know whatever Nux was thinking...’

The women smiled inwardly.

All of them seemed to have same thoughts in their minds.

“C’mon, what are you waiting for, Nux? You aren’t scare-”

As soon as Astaria opened the door, she paused.

“Nux...”

She called out.

The other women frowned as well.

What happened?

Why was Astaria acting like that?

They all wondered and then, Astaria finally questioned.

“What is he doing here?”

Astaria questioned as she pointed at Nawdren, who was lying on the floor breathing heavily.

“...”

Nux turned silent.

All the women in the room looked at him, waiting for his answer.

“Well...”

I thought you were sleeping...

So... I brought him...

Since I wanted to test a few things...”

Nux replied with an awkward smile on her face.

“So you brought him here in order to spar with him?”

Astaria questioned.

“That is correct.”

Nux replied.

“ ... ”

The other women turned silent...

Nux had changed...

Was it because of Astaria?

They all wondered in their heads.

“Anyways, I am now awake.

So you don't have to worry find any replacement.

Spar with me.”

Astaria spoke.

“ ... ”

Nux however, didn't reply, and seeing that Astaria frowned,

She realized it.

Nux was hesitating.

“What's the problem, Nux?”

She questioned as she narrowed her eyes.

“Nothing, you should just rest for a while, you are tired, don't worry, I will spar with you as soon as you wake up.”

Nux replied with a gentle smile on his face.

Nux.”

Astaria called out.

With a solemn look on her face, she questioned,

“What are you worried about? Answer me. Honestly.”

Nux solemn look appeared on Nux’s face and he replied.

“I still cannot control my strength yet.”

“You are worried about hurting me?” Astaria furrowed her brows.

“...”

Nux glanced at Astaria and didn’t say anything.

Astairia understood.

“You are afraid that you might accidentally kill me...”

Nux just smiled wryly.

No more words were needed, the women inside the room understood.

Astaria was right, Nux was actually scared of accidentally killing her.

All of them couldn’t help but wonder how strong he had gotten...

“Heh.”

Astaria smiled depressingly.

She still couldn’t believe it.

To think there would be a day when someone would not spar her, not because he is afraid of her, but because he was afraid of accidentally killing her...

“I want to see your fight against Nawdren.”

Astaria replied.

Seeing the expression on her face, Nux knew he couldn't say no right now.

“Alright...”

He agreed.

“I want to see it as well.”

Ember stepped forward as well.

“I am coming as well.”

Thyra nodded.

The other women followed as well.

Nux sighed and then, he smiled.

“Alright then. You are all welcome to witness the show.”

He then turned towards Nawdren, who was still lying on the floor,

“Did you have enough rest?”

Nux questioned.

“What happened to him?”

Astaria questioned.

“I don't know, he has been acting like this since the moment I brought him here.”

Nux shrugged.

“...”

Riona, who was currently resting in Amaya's arms glanced at Nux again.

This bastard...

He dragged Nawdren all the way from the Skadi's capital to the Neutral City, all of this at a crazy speed where it was hard to even keep their eyes open.

Nux carried her in his arms, her eyes were closed and even after all that, she still felt nauseous.

Nawdren... on the other hand...

“Haahh...”

For the first time in her life,

She actually felt pity for her enemy...

“Oi Oi, stand up, we don't have all day.”

Chapter 650 Who Told You That L Was Using Mana?

“Alright, attack me with everything you got.”

Nux spoke with a confident look on his face.

“...”

Nawdren glanced at Nux with an unsure look on his face,

“How did you become an Emperor Stage Cultivator so quickly? I clearly remember that you were only an early King Stage Cultivator before.”

He questioned.

“Huh? You thought I was only an early King Stage Cultivator?”

Nux questioned with a smile on his face.

“...you were incomparably stronger than a normal King Stage Cultivator, I agree. But I trust my senses, you were only an early King Stage Cultivator.”

Nawdren didn't back down.

“Uh huh. An early King Stage Cultivator who fought against a Pseudo Sage.

Your senses sure are trustworthy.”

Nux chuckled.

“...”

Nawdren turned silent...

Nux wasn't wrong...

In front of a strange monster like him, he shouldn't trust his senses.

He must be a peak King Stage Cultivator before.

It doesn't make sense for an Early King Stage Cultivator to be this strong.

Of course, even a peak King Stage Cultivator shouldn't be that strong, but it is definitely much more believable.

It also explains how this bastard became an Emperor so quickly.

However, Nawdren wondered.

This man fought and even defeated an Emperor when he was merely a King Stage Cultivator. He is an anomaly...

And now that this anomaly has become an Emperor Stage Cultivator...
How strong would he be?

"Are you sure you wish to fight me right now? You must have used a lot of your Mana while you were testing your speed." Nawdren spoke.

"Don't ask useless questions, just attack."

"I can attack without holding back, right?"

Nawdren questioned as he glanced at Riona.

"Oh?"

A big smile appeared on Nux's face as he realized what Nawdren was thinking.

"How about this.

If you manage to somehow kill me, your contract will be released.

Of course, I won't use my Mist for this battle.”

Nux challenged.

Astaria and Nux's other wives, who were watching this play out narrowed their eyes.

They could sense Nux's confidence.

Well, it made sense.

Nux refused to fight against Astaria, there must be a reason for that.

Nawdren, however, didn't care about all that. His expression changed and he questioned with a serious look on his face.

“Are you serious?”

All this while, this spar meant nothing to him.

There was nothing to gain, after all.

But now, things have changed.

“One Hundred Percent” Nux replied.

Nawdren turned towards Riona.

“I will follow whatever he wishes.”

Riona replied.

“Then to make it fair, how about you give me my Combat Gear as well?”
Nawdren questioned with a smile on his face.

“Don't bite more than you ca-” Riona was about to reply but,

*Thud* *Thud*

Nux threw Nawdren's white Armor and Sword toward him.

"Here."

Nux replied.

A frown appeared on Riona's face.

She didn't think it was a good idea.

She turned and glanced at Nux's wives and seeing their expressions, she realized that she wasn't alone.

Astaria, Amaya, Ember, Thyra, Evane... every woman had similar expressions on their faces.

Seeing his sword and armor in front of him, Nawdren's smile widened, he quickly grabbed his combat gear and wore it,

"You are brave, I will give you that."

Nawdren spoke as he glanced at Nux.

"..." Nux didn't reply.

"But,"

Suddenly, Nawdren disappeared,

"You are the sharpest tool in the shed."

Saying those words, he appeared right behind Nux and slashed his sword, aiming to behead him in one move,

However,

Nux simply grabbed his sword with his thumb and index finger.

"!!!"

Nawdren's eyes widened in horror.

He wasn't alone.

Nux's women, especially Astaria had a similar expression on her face.

Nux's move...

It was similar to Roone's.

Using one's own Mana to increase his body movement speed.

Something that gave Roone the confidence to fight against the strongest...

Something that shouldn't be achievable without decades, or even centuries of practice.

Of course, Nux's technique wasn't exactly like Roone's. Astaria could sense that something was different.

She couldn't point out what the difference was, but there was definitely something.

A smile appeared on Nux's face as he freed Nawdren's sword,

“You can do better than this, can't you?”

This is your chance to get to the freedom you wanted so desperately.”

Nawdren came out of his reverie, he quickly pulled his sword and jumped back.

With a solemn look on his face, he activated his own Mana and rushed towards Nux again.

Slashing his sword in speed impossible to follow through.

Nawdren's speed plus the strength of that sword, it was a deadly combination.

If even a single attack connects, it will lead to a fatal blow, however,

Nux was dodging these seemingly impossible-to-follow attacks as if he was fighting against a toddler.

Heck, he was even yawning while doing all this.

And Nawdren didn't like that one bit.

“You bastard! How long do you think your Mana will hold on for!?”

He shouted in anger and irritation.

“The moment you run out of Mana will be the moment you die!

I'll make you regret looking down on me!”

The women's expression turned solemn.

Especially Riona, who was about to use the power of contract to stop Nawdren. However, before she could do anything, Amaya grabbed her hand.

Riona glanced at Amaya and she shook her head.

Riona frowned, Amaya then pointed at Nux, Riona glanced at the battlefield, then, her eyes fell on Nux.

In front of Nawdren's outbreak, he was standing calmly, with a small smile on his face, and continued to dodge his attacks.

Then, he grabbed Nawdren's sword with his fingers again, and then, he questioned,

“Who told you that I was using Mana?”

“...huh?”

Nawdren's expression changed.

Nux then pulled Nawdren's sword, forcing Nawdren to get closer, then, he grabbed his hand and,

*Bam*

*Crack*

“Khhoocckkk!!!”

He punched his abdomen.

A single punch broke that absurdly strong armor, the impact still didn't vanish and broke Nawdren's ribs.

*Cough*

Nawdren coughed out blood.

Seeing that big hole in the armor he was so proud of...

His worldview collapsed.

Nux, however, was about to give him another big shock.

“Trust me, be it traveling from the Skadi Kingdom to here, or while fighting this entire battle,

I haven't used any Mana at all.”

Chapter 651 L Am An Emperor Stage Body Cultivator As Well.

“Trust me, be it traveling from the Skadi Kingdom to here, or while fighting this entire battle,

I haven’t used any Mana at all.”

Nux revealed and Nawdren’s eyes widened in horror.

He was in pain.

His ribs were broken.

However, that didn’t matter.

He...

He was hearing something so absurd...

And he wasn’t alone.

Astaria was the same...

She now understood why Nux refused to fight against her.

*Bam***

Nux then punched Nawdren’s face, his body flew away and clashed against a building, breaking the walls.

“Khoocckkk!!”

Nawdren coughed out more blood.

And with his will crushed, he didn’t even try waking up.

“ ... ”

Nux glanced at the debris in front of him and then...

He sighed.

‘Even he wouldn’t be able to take it...’

Nux needed someone to see how strong he has actually gotten.

However, that didn’t seem possible right now.

Even Nawardren, currently the strongest being in this continent after him, lost.

And Nux wasn’t even serious right now.

With his System down, he couldn’t use the abilities the System provided.

Interestingly enough, he could use the Devouring Mist. However, Nux understood it. Though the Physique was given to him by the System, it now belonged to him.

Just like the weapons he bought from the System Shop, the Physique was his Weapon now.

The same goes for the Skills he learned himself like [Wind Walk], [Fire Lance], and others.

He could use them all.

Only abilities like [Sense], [Conceal], [Blink Fault], and other abilities directly given by System were unusable.

“I can now understand why you didn’t want to spar with me.”

Astaria walked towards Nux and replied.

Nux turned towards her and smiled,

“Did you really not use any Mana in this battle?” She questioned with a serious look on her face.

“I did not.” Nux shook his head.

“What if you do use Mana?”

“I don’t know...”

That was what he wanted to test it in the first place, but...

“I am afraid that I would accidentally kill others if I use Mana to boost my power.”

Nux replied as he glanced at his hand.

“The Mana does give a scary boost to one’s ability.” Astaria nodded.

Nux nodded back.

“You might even pierce through his body, creating a giant hole in it if you use your full power,” Astaria commented as she glanced at Nawdren who was still lying on the floor.

Nux didn’t say anything, however, if he was being completely honest, he believed the result would be a lot more fearsome than this.

“But I still don’t understand, the Mana was definitely moving around you when you were fighting Nawdren. I could feel it, although it was not the same, the pattern was still similar to how we use it to boost our strength.”

Astaria spoke her mind.

The other women weren’t as sensitive as hers when it came to Mana as her, therefore, they couldn’t notice it, she however, was different.

She could definitely feel the movement of Mana.

Whenever an Emperor uses Mana to boost their strength, then whether it is their own Mana or the surrounding Mana, the Mana around them moves in a specific pattern.

This was Astaria's way of judging whether the enemy Emperor is actually going to attack or was it just a bluff to fool her. It was something she used quite often and was something that has helped her countless times before, therefore, she was still having a hard time believing that Nux was not using any Mana in the previous fight even though the Mana around him was moving in a similar pattern.

Suddenly, Nux lifted his hand and clenched his fist.

“Did the Mana move again?”

He questioned and Astaria nodded.

A frown appeared on his face.

Since he wasn't an Emperor before, he wasn't as sensitive to Mana as Astaria, so Astaria didn't bother teaching him this technique.

Astaria did give him a rough idea about this movement of Mana, however, it wasn't much, and therefore, he was still clueless about this.

Now, however, since he was an Emperor with a Mana sensitivity that was probably greater than Astaria's, he could finally understand what Astaria was talking about.

He tried moving his body again, however, he couldn't sense any Mana.

He glanced at Astaria and questioned,

“And now?”

Astaria shook her head as well.

Nux then kicked in the air and soon,

He sensed it.

“The Mana moved, didn’t it?”

He questioned and Astaria nodded her head.

Nux punched in the air, and the Mana moved.

Then, he just stood and the Mana moved again.

Nux finally understood.

The moment he gets ready to attack, the Mana moves automatically.

It is an involuntary action, something he had no control over.

The Mana wasn’t his, that was for sure, and neither was he the one controlling it.

Why was Mana moving like this, he didn’t know.

However, Nux was sure about one thing.

This Mana definitely didn’t wasn’t entering his body and pushing or boosting any of his muscles.

His strength was his alone.

It was not the result of him using Mana to boost it.

And to prove it,

Nux controlled the Mana around him, the Mana moved and surrounded his Fist, and then, he unleashed a punch.

*Whoosh*

“!!!”

Everyone felt a big shockwave when Nux released the punch and their eyes widened in surprise.

Nux intentionally punched in a direction furthest from all of them, one can even say it was aimed nearly opposite of where they stood.

For them to still feel the shockwave even after that...

They couldn't even imagine how strong the punch actually was.

“...”

Astaria didn't know what to say...

That punch...

That simple little punch was stronger than Nawdren's strongest move...

That simple little move...

Nux didn't even use his own Mana yet...

“I finally understand.”

Suddenly, Nux spoke.

The women glanced at him and he smiled,

“Body Cultivation.”

“Hmm?” Astaria frowned.

“I am not just an Emperor Stage Mana Cultivator,

I am an Emperor Stage Body Cultivator as well.

Is this not natural?

If the Mana Cultivation sees a huge leap when a cultivator breaks through King Stage and becomes an Emperor.

Shouldn't a King Stage Body Cultivator be the same?

This Mana movement, I am sure it is the result of Body Cultivation.

Unlike normal cultivators, where one's body affects the surrounding Mana, the surrounding Mana is reacting to my body, the body of an Emperor Stage Body Cultivator.”

Nux explained in the best way he could.

Astaria didn't know how to react to this.

The explanation sounded plausible, but honestly, she didn't know anything about Body Cultivation so she was not in a position to comment.

“Wait...”

Suddenly, Amaya frowned.

She thought of something... and honestly, she didn't like that line of thought at all...

Chapter 652 We Are All Wrong...

“Wait...”

Suddenly, Amaya spoke with a doubtful look on her face.

“Hmm? What is it?” Nux questioned.

Amaya then turned towards Astaria and questioned,

“You said that the pattern in which the Mana around Nux was moving was similar to how it moves around Emperors when they use Mana to increase their strength?”

Amaya questioned.

“It is not exactly similar, but yes, they are alike.”

Astaria nodded.

“And you are saying this is happening because of body cultivation?”

Amaya turned towards Nux and questioned.

“That is the only explanation that comes to my mind.”

Nux replied.

Amaya then narrowed her eyes and started thinking,

“Then are you telling me that the Body Cultivation’s function is the same as Mana Cultivation’s and the only difference is that you don’t have to think about it and can perform it unconsciously?”

Nux frowned.

“Doesn’t this... feel strange...?”

Amaya questioned.

“...”

Seeing the expression on Nux's face, Amaya simplified her thoughts,

“From the start, the Body Cultivation has given you a stronger body, on the other hand, the Mana Cultivation allowed you to use Skills, correct?”

“Yes, that is correct.” Nux nodded.

“The Mana Cultivation allows you to use skills while also giving a slight boost to your body because of the Mana you absorb while cultivating, on the other hand, Body Cultivation only focused on the Body, giving you a completely different level of strength.

Wasn't that the reason you were stronger than everyone?

Your body was far stronger than normal cultivators, even the Emperors weren't able to win against you if they didn't use Mana, and we can safely say that all of that was because of your Body Cultivation, right?”

“Mhm.”

“From the start, Mana Cultivation and Body Cultivation are perfectly divided, Mana Cultivation focused on Mana, while Body Cultivation focused on the Body.

Then why now?

Why do the two of them have the same functionality now?

Why are both of them focusing on the Body?

Where is... the use of Mana apart from using it to increase the Body Strength?”

Amaya questioned and suddenly, everyone turned silent.

“What are you trying to say, Amaya?”

Astaria questioned as she narrowed her eyes.

“I am saying that we a-”

“We are all wrong...”

Nux completed Amaya’s words.

“That is correct...”

Amaya nodded.

“We are... wrong...?”

Ember frowned.

“We are doing everything wrong,” Nux repeated and then, he started explaining,

“The Mana Cultivation, it was never meant to focus on the body. That’s the job of Body Cultivation,

The Mana Cultivation focuses on Mana...

There is no point in fighting like a Body Stage Cultivator when you are a Mana Cultivator, you would obviously lose. Mana Cultivator needs to have a different fighting style.

The people of this continent were using the wrong way, to begin with.”

Nux spoke and Astaria turned silent.

“Then what is the correct way?” She questioned.

“Only the main continent would have the answer to that question,” Amaya replied.

She didn't know the correct way.

But she was sure the current way definitely leads to a wrong result.

“Heh, then why don't we directly visit the main continent? I am sure Nux would find beings he could 'test his full power against' there. At the same time, we can also find the 'correct way' there.”

Suddenly, Edda proposed with a confident look on her face.

A new continent would definitely have a lot of new things she would like, so she was very excited about going there.

Astaria, however, was the first to shake her head,

“That's not a place you can visit without any preparations. Treat it like a completely different world. We don't know how strong the people living there actually are. There is even a possibility that even beings like Emperors are nothing more than servants there.

Going there without knowing the limits of your strength is nothing different than suicide.

We cannot rush things.”

“Tsk, you just want to master your sword technique, don't you?” Edda snorted.

After having the 'talk' with Astaria, she has become much more open to her.

Honestly, in the entire group, Edda was closest to Astaria, the rest, especially the warriors, Thyra and Ember, they were still a little intimidated by her presence.

The impact Astaria had in their life wasn't small after all.

“I will not disagree. It may be selfish, but I still believe waiting is the best option.”

Astaria replied.

“No, I agree.”

Suddenly, Amaya stepped in.

“Rushing to the main continent is definitely not stop. Especially when we know little to nothing about it.

We should be patient.

First, we need to find a way for Nux to test his strength, or at least control it.

It would be great if Astaria could master her technique and also teach it to others.

I also wish to understand my Physique and increase my Mastery level to Mastered Stage.

Once all of this is done, only then should we move out.”

“I agree as well.”

Felberta nodded as well.

She knows it, the moment they visit the main continent, she and her sisters would become Nux’s weakness and if possible, they would like to avoid that from happening.

Learning Astaria’s technique is a way out of this.

There was also the possibility of discovering the correct way, but honestly, none of them had high hopes.

They have been following the wrong way since... well, the start...

There is no way they can just suddenly change everything, they needed guidance.

Astaria's technique was the only way.

Felberta didn't mind waiting for a few years before visiting the main continent, and she firmly believed that her sisters didn't mind it either.

"Mhm, all of you are right, we are not leaving just yet."

Suddenly, Nux stepped up.

"We will train."

Then, a playful smile appeared on Nux's face as he continued,

"And to do that, all of you need to become Emperors first."

"Hmm? Your System is down, would your ability still work?"

Amaya questioned.

"Hmm? What do you mean?"

"That is my ability now."

Nux replied and Amaya frowned,

"Don't worry, everything is fine.

And it won't hurt to give it a try, now will it?" Nux questioned.

Amaya smiled as well.

"You are right,

It won't hurt us at all~"

Nux's days were about to become blissful- ahem, stressful.

Chapter 653 How!?!?!?

With the System Down, the biggest problem Nux and his wives faced was... the [Slave Seal].

Yes, just like the [Harem Seal], the [Slave Seal] had now lost its effect.

What did that mean?

All the people that had a [Slave Seal] implanted on them were now free.

This was a big problem.

There was no way to now contact them from wherever Nux wanted.

Neither could they ensure the Slaves' loyalty.

Communication, which was Nux's biggest advantage, was now taken away. From now on, he needs to use the traditional way to communicate with his subjects.

The same was true for trusting his subordinates as well.

He never trusted his subordinates before, he only placed his trust in the Slaves who couldn't go against his command.

However, now, things were different, he needed to filter out.

He needed to understand who was loyal and who was not on his own.

The first step Nux took when his System was down was contacting his wives. Then he brought back Riona, who lived in the Skadi Kingdom, surrounded by the freed slaves that Nux didn't trust.

Bringing her back was the only way Nux and Amaya could ensure Riona's safety.

Of course, with Nawdren by her side, Riona never needed their help. Heck, even without Nawdren, she has been living in the Skadi Kingdom for her entire life. The Slave Seal's disappearance never changed anything for her.

In the Skadi Kingdom, she was not the prey, there, she stood at the apex, she was the predator.

She had her trusted subordinates with her and honestly, getting backstabbed or harmed by the 'freed Slaves' was simply impossible.

But would Riona ever deny the opportunity to spend some time together with Amaya?

Of course not. Especially when her way to communicate with her daughter was not working. Therefore, she didn't resist Nux's decision and came back with him.

Then, Nux decided to send all the servants serving them in the Neutral city away.

He and his wives were the only ones who now lived in the Neutral City, the Largest City in the world.

It might look like something a coward would do, but Nux didn't care.

The safety of his wives was the most important thing to him.

Suddenly, the Neutral City became Nux's and his wives' new base.

After securing their new base, the next problem was the 4 Nations.

The Skyfall was alright, Arvina was there.

She was only an Expert Stage Cultivator, and honestly, Ember and Astaria wanted to bring her back as well, however, Nux was against it.

There were various reasons for it.

He knew things would get awkward once she is here and honestly, Nux wasn't very excited about pointless drama.

He knew he was wrong for ghosting her, but honestly, after what happened between them, thinking that things would return to normal or move forward from here was... foolish.

They would never be normal teacher student no matter how much they tried.

Similarly, they would never get into a relationship as well.

It was not about Arvina alone now, even Nux was against it now.

If he could, he would rather not stay with her...

He already had too many wives now.

He wasn't willing to have more now.

He wanted to give all his love to his current wives.

Also, Arvina was completely safe in the Skyfall Kingdom.

Keep in mind, the Skyfall Kingdom was the strongest Kingdom in this Kingdom, this was even truer when Emperors weren't involved, they had many King Stage Cultivators, and the strongest King Stage Cultivators of them, the Shadow Unit, they were absolutely loyal to the Throne.

Without any Slave Seals.

With them there, no one would dare to touch Arvina and she could easily manage the Kingdom without any problems.

Just like that, the Skadi wasn't the problem as well.

Riona's loyal subordinates took care of that Nation.

However,

The Solid Earth Kingdom and the Woods Dynasty weren't the same.

Nux had enslaved the Duke that held the strongest power in the Solid Earth Kingdom and had ordered him to rule it.

He didn't know that Duke and that man was definitely not loyal to him.

However, the good thing was that the Duke was scared of Nawdren.

And the sight of Nawdren following Nux and his wives with his head bowed, like a loyal servant, left a deep mark in his heart.

And that mark was enough to ensure his loyalty.

Even with the effects of the Slave Seal gone, the Duke didn't dare to do anything reckless.

Of course, he thought of the possibility of Nux dying, however, in the end, he still knew that he wouldn't hold any real power even if that happened.

If Nux dies, Nawdren would hold all the power.

Therefore, for him to stay alive and have a better position in his life, the best solution was not to do anything and kneel in front of anyone, either Nux, or Nawdren, who appears in front of him at a later time.

The ruler of the Woods Dynasty, however, wasn't that bright.

Ellinger Woods, after seeing the sacrifice of his father, Alcius, Nux allowed him to rule the Woods Dynasty without any problems, however, the death of his father seemed to have a greater effect on Ellinger than expected.

The Ministers of the Woods Dynasty, who didn't know much about how strong Nux actually was only treated Astaria as a real threat had different plans in their mind.

They all had started slowly brainwashing Ellinger, following Nux was useless.

He was just a slightly stronger King Stage Cultivator, he doesn't have the right to rule the world. They didn't have to bow down to him, especially when they won the war because of their protector sacrificed himself.

If anyone deserved to be the Emperor of this world, it was them, the Woods Dynasty.

They should be the ruling Nation, not the Skyfall Kingdom.

With constant feeding of these thoughts in his mind, Ellinger started acting differently. Nux didn't place any restrictions on him, to begin with.

He could do practically whatever he wanted in his Dynast.

Honestly, out of all the current rulers of the 4 Nations, he had the most power, however, his mind was now corrupted.

The Woods Dynasty had started acting differently and this was a problem.

How did Nux and his wives solve this problem?

Simple, Nawdren.

He became the new communicational channel between the 4 Nations and the Neutral City.

He was ordered to run around, exchanging letters, this was the fastest communication channel in the history of this Continent.

A Pseudo Sage Stage Postman.

Even the Main Continent might not have something like that.

Anyways, with Nawdren's appearance, most of the problems were solved, the Solid Earth Kingdom's Duke understood that Nux was very much alive, and stayed loyal, on the other hand, after the firsthand experience of dealing with Nawdren, Ellinger finally understood what he was dealing with.

Let alone him, even the ministers didn't dare to have any useless thoughts anymore.

The communication between the 4 Nations was re-established.

Some of the Slaves had run away, Nux had ordered their hunt down, however, he wasn't very worried.

Most of the problems were solved,

And after a month-long trip to all the Nations, ensuring their loyalty and delivering the letter to them that gave a general future direction, Nawdren, returned to the neutral city.

And as soon as he did.

He paused...

He had seen many things in his life.

Especially after meeting this monster, he has become numb to surprises.

An Emperor who could destroy him as if he was a toy...

It was already surprising enough...

And now this...

11 Emperor Stage Cultivators stood in front of him...

Yes...

11...

11 King Stage Cultivators...

Even when this continent was at its peak, it didn't see 11 Emperor Stage Cultivators.

Heck, the maximum number was 7.

And now...

“W-W-What in the hell happened in a single month...”

He questioned as he glanced at the people standing in front of him.

“Hmmm, he still isn’t completely numb yet, huh,” Felberta commented with a small smile on her face.

“Is it really that shocking?” Allura questioned with a playful smile on her face.

The other women glanced at her and rolled their eyes.

Allura chuckled.

“...”

Nawdren, however, wasn’t finding any of this to be even slightly amusing...

“H-How did you all become Emperors in such a small amount of time?”

That man, I don’t know,

He is a monster!

I accepted it!

You lot, however, are not!

Well, you actually are, considering your age and cultivation, but you were definitely all early King Stage Cultivators,

Just how the hell did you all become Emperors!?”

Nawdren shouted.

“Heeeh? Are you sure we were all early King Stage Cultivators?”

Edda questioned with a smile.

“D-Don’t try to fool me! I am 100% sure you were all normal King Stage Cultivators!”

Nawdren stood firm.

“How did you do it!?”

He questioned.

“Well, you don’t have to know that.”

Suddenly, Nux walked forward and replied.

“Yes, don’t focus on things like these.

It is not important.” Astaria nodded.

Then, she took out her sword and a big smile appeared on her face,

“Get ready now.

We need to spar.”

*Thud*

The Battle ended as Astaria was sent flying.

She was doing well for the first 15 minutes and was able to hold on against Nawdren, this time, the Sword the shine around her sword was dimmer than the first time she used it, however, it was much more stable.

The output wasn't as strong, however, Astaria knew that last time, she was simply wasting Mana.

She still couldn't control this technique very well, therefore, she was limiting the Mana she feeds the sword with. The output was compromised, however, her control was better.

And honestly, even this 'controlled' and 'limited' strength was very much enough to cut through Nawdren's defenses.

In this last month, Astaria hadn't made much progress.

She has only learned how to willingly activate the technique, and that too, only if her Mana reserve was filled to the brim. She tried using the surrounding Mana for it, but it proved to be much more complicated and Astaria had a feeling that she wouldn't be able to learn it anytime soon.

First, she needed to master this technique using her own Mana.

Astaria even had a lead in today's battle at the start, Nawdren knew how dangerous her technique was, one mistake and he might lose a limb.

He needed to be careful.

He fought in a defensive position, just keeping himself safe, and mostly focusing on dodging Astaria's attack.

Previously, the best move for him in this situation was to just run away and return when Astaria ran out of Mana like how he did the first time Astaria used this, now, however, he didn't have that option since Nux was standing right behind.

The moment he ran, Nux would appear and...

Nawdren didn't even want to think about what would happen then.

Anyways, ultimately, he needed to fight Astaria head-on until she masters this technique.

Astaria needed to grow, however, if Nawdren continued to run whenever they spar, she would never learn anything.

Of course, Nux also wouldn't always restrict Nawdren like he is doing now,

Astaria needed to learn how to stop this technique before it stops itself after devouring most of her Mana.

She was still in the learning phase, slowly but surely, she would master this technique, and once she does, Astaria believed that even fighting toe to toe against Nux wouldn't be impossible.

However, for now, her target was Nawdren.

Who, after being defensive for the first 15 minutes, started attacking when her control over this technique started weakening.

Defending against his attacks and at the same time, trying to restabilize the Mana around her sword was difficult, soon, Nawdren's attack connected and Astaria's body flew away.

"I won."

Nawdren spoke as he walked towards Astaria.

"I still haven't lost yet."

Astaria replied.

Nawdren simply glanced at the sword she was holding.

The Sword was not shining anymore,

It was clear, the technique broke off, Astaria didn't run out of Mana yet, however, as mentioned before, she could only activate the technique when her Mana reserves were filled to the brim and without the technique, defeating Nawdren was simply impossible.

Astaria quickly rolled back and stood up.

Glaring at Nawdren, she injected Mana into her sword again, but just as everyone expected, it didn't work, she tried to force it, however, Nawdren didn't just stand there like a puppet.

He quickly rushed towards Astaria and started attacking.

The Spar wasn't over until Nux said so.

And Nux wouldn't say anything until Astaria herself opens her mouth or is put in a difficult situation that might be threatening.

Nawdren continued his attack, Astaria's body was sent flying again.

She tried to roll back again, however, Nawdren appeared in front of her again and kicked her abdomen.

“Khooockk!!”

Astaria coughed out blood.

Nux narrowed his eyes.

Seeing that expression on his face, a smile appeared on Amaya's face,

“He treats her differently.” She commented.

“Indeed.”

Thyra nodded.

“What do you mean?” Evane frowned.

“If it was any of us sparring right now, he wouldn’t have let Nawdren attack us like that,” Thyra replied.

“Well, she wouldn’t like it if he participated in her battle.”

Ember commented.

“Would you like it?” Amaya questioned.

“...I won’t either...” Ember replied.

“And you think he wouldn’t stop the fight if it was you?”

“...he will...”

Ember knew it.

Amaya just smiled as she proved her point.

Ember lowered her head.

“Don’t focus on her nonsense, Ember.”

Thyra spoke as she glanced at Amaya and then turned toward Ember.

“He wouldn’t stop your fight if you were fighting against an opponent he thinks you can defeat. Nawdren, however, is not someone you can do anything against, even though you are now an Emperor.”

“All of us and Astaria are at the same Stage, early Emperor Stage.”

Ember replied.

“Do you truly believe you are comparable to Astaria right now?” Thyra questioned.

“...” Ember turned silent.

“You have your answer.

He treats her differently because she is strong.

We all have his love.

However, that woman is different.

Along with love, she also has his acknowledgment.

He becomes protective when it comes to us, of course, it’s not his fault, he does it because he loves us.

In her case, he holds back his instincts and forces himself to not move.”

“Do you not wish to earn his acknowledgment as well?”

Ember questioned.

“Why do you think I am training with that monster for?”

Thyra replied.

A smile appeared on Ember’s face as well.

“Anyways, this battle is over.”

Felberta commented.

The women glanced at the battlefield and just as Fel said,

“Stop.”

Astaria ordered, stopping Nawdren from attacking.

Nawdren quickly jumped back and raised his hands in the air, clearly showing that he hadn't done a thing the moment Astaria told him to stop.

His eyes quickly rushed towards Nux, wishing to see if he would get beaten up like a ragdoll or not.

“Hmm?”

Nawdren, however, couldn't find Nux.

Nux had already left his position and was currently tending to Astaria, wiping her wounds while helping her drink the Healing and Mana Potion.

“Oi,” Suddenly, Nux called out.

“Y-Yes?”

“Spar with me as well.”

Nawdren's face paled.

“Spar with me as well.”

Nux spoke and Nawdren’s face paled.

“B-But I stopped as soon as she told me-”

“It’s not about that.

I am not that petty.

I progressed a little as well.”

Nux replied.

“Y-You progressed...?”

Nawdren stuttered.

This monster progressed?

Just how far did he wish to go?

Can he get stronger even after this!?

Does the limited Mana in this continent not affect this bastard!?

“Don’t think too much, I am just trying to control my power and I feel like I have gotten used to it.”

Nux replied as he clenched his fist.

Nawdren gulped.

“You don’t have to fight me directly. Just keep running I will try to chase you after using Mana to increase my speed.”

“But won’t you overtake me that way?”

Nawdren questioned with a frown on his face.

“That’s what control means. I need to control the output of my moves.”

Nux replied.

He had been working hard to improve his controls as well and today, he was pretty confident.

“Let’s make this a little more exciting actually.

If I manage to stay an arm’s length distance near you for 5 seconds, I will punch you after boosting my strength with Mana.”

“!!!”

Nawdren’s eyes widened in horror.

“I WILL DIE!!”

Nawdren has personally seen how destructive Nux’s punch actually is.

Truthfully, he was the only one who has seen it.

Even Nux’s wives hadn’t seen his real strength yet.

‘Force me to use it in front of you.’

That was what Nux said when they asked about it.

And this method worked.

The women’s pride didn’t allow them to ask about it anymore.

‘Be ready then.’

They accepted his challenge.

“Oh don’t worry, as I said, I will be controlling the output, you won’t die.

Trust me.”

Nux replied with a confident look on his face.

“Oh yeah? Then why don’t we make this even more exciting?”

Nawdren spoke.

“You have another idea?”

Nux raised his eyebrow.

“Of course.

Why don’t we increase the number of people playing this game?

All your wives are now Emperors, I am sure they would learn a lot if they participate, it would be good training for them and you would find this much more challenging as well.

How about it?

What do you all say?”

Nawdren questioned as he glanced at Nux’s wives.

The women’s eyes brightened up.

Of course they wanted to participate.

Especially Astaria, the fighting spirit in her eyes was engulfing Nux.

The desire to improve...

She just couldn’t hide it even if she wanted to.

“No.”

Nux, however, quickly shook his head.

“Huh?”

The women frowned.

“I won’t put any of you at risk.”

Then he glanced at Astaria who was still in his arms and replied,

“Not even you.”

From his stern tone, it was clear.

This was not happening.

“Hmmm? Why? What’s the risk here, I don’t understand. Please explain.”

Nawdren spoke.

All the women glanced at Nux’s face as well, waiting for his answer.

“...” Nux moved his face away.

“Hmm? Master Nux?”

Nawdren tilted his head, waiting for his answer.

Even Astaria was looking at Nux’s face with a similar expression,

“...I am not sure if I can control my strength well enough...

So you people cannot participate...”

Nux replied.

“So you admit it!!”

Nawdren shouted.

“Just participate in the game okay!? I told you didn’t I!? I won’t kill you!
...probably.”

“Pro- Probably!?!?”

“Oi, don’t you think you are biting more than you can chew?”

Nux narrowed his eyes as he glanced at Nawdren.

Nawdren quickly stepped back.

“Let’s start the game now.”

Nux spoke as he then disappeared and appeared right in front of Nawdren.

“You have 5 seconds, if you fail to get away from me,
I will punch.”

“!!!”

Nawdren’s face paled in horror and he dashed away as if his life depended on it.

Nux smiled, then, the Mana near him moved to his legs and, he ran.

*Whoosh*

A gust of wind passed through Nawdren.

He quickly realized that it was Nux.

He couldn’t believe how unbelievably fast this monster was.

However, soon, he realized something.

‘This bastard said he learned how to control the output...

That’s his control!?’

“Ahh, there was a slight mistake.”

‘That’s a slight mistake!? I would burst into a blood mesh if you make that slight mistake while punching me!!’

Never in his life did Nawdren imagine that he would fear a 20-something-year-old kid to this extent.

This was just...

Horrifying...

However,

Luckily for him, Nux wasn’t lying when he said he learned to control his output.

After the first few failed attempts, he improved drastically and managed to stay an arm’s length distance near Nawdren for 2-3 seconds. Nawdren was forced to modulate his speed in order to get him out of that range.

Once he succeeds, Nux was forced to count from 0 again and this cycle continued with Nux not being able to punch Nawdren.

However, he was improving very, very quickly.

So quickly that Nawdren had already started dreading the time this bastard would stay in the range for 5 seconds and punch him...

He didn’t want to die...

At least not like this...

He wouldn’t mind dying like a warrior, giving his all and fighting against an opponent, injuring him to some extent, taking at least his limb away from him, leaving permanent damage, making his opponent regret fighting against him...

That death, he would accept.

But this...

Running away like a dog and dying while playing a stupid game...

Nawdren trembled in fear.

“1... 2...”

Suddenly, Nawdren heard a voice. Nux was inside the range again.

He quickly slowed down,

“Do you think it would keep on working?”

Nux smiled as he slowed down as well.

“3...”

Nawdren tried to increase his speed but...

“4...”

It didn't work.

Nawdren panicked.

He tried to jump around like a monkey, doing his best to be as less predictable as possible and get out of Nux's range, however, as if he had already read all his moves beforehand, Nux countered them all and,

“5.”

“Be prepared, Nawdren.”

Nux smiled.

Nawdren quickly moved all his Mana to his Back, enforcing the best possible defense he could and soon, he felt the Mana in the surroundings move towards Nux's fist.

‘I am fucked...’

He gulped and then,

Nux finally punched.

*WHOOSH***

“Just participate in the game okay!? I told you didn’t I!? I won’t kill you!
...probably.”

“Pro- Probably!?!?”

“Oi, don’t you think you are biting more than you can chew?”

Nux narrowed his eyes as he glanced at Nawdren.

Nawdren quickly stepped back.

“Let’s start the game now.”

Nux spoke as he then disappeared and appeared right in front of Nawdren.

“You have 5 seconds, if you fail to get away from me,
I will punch.”

“!!!”

Nawdren’s face paled in horror and he dashed away as if his life depended on it.

Nux smiled, then, the Mana near him moved to his legs and, he ran.

*Whoosh*

A gust of wind passed through Nawdren.

He quickly realized that it was Nux.

He couldn’t believe how unbelievably fast this monster was.

However, soon, he realized something.

‘This bastard said he learned how to control the output...

That’s his control!?’

“Ahh, there was a slight mistake.”

‘That’s a slight mistake!? I would burst into a blood mesh if you make that slight mistake while punching me!!’

Never in his life did Nawdren imagine that he would fear a 20-something-year-old kid to this extent.

This was just...

Horrible...

However,

Luckily for him, Nux wasn’t lying when he said he learned to control his output.

After the first few failed attempts, he improved drastically and managed to stay an arm’s length distance near Nawdren for 2-3 seconds. Nawdren was forced to modulate his speed in order to get him out of that range.

Once he succeeds, Nux was forced to count from 0 again and this cycle continued with Nux not being able to punch Nawdren.

However, he was improving very, very quickly.

So quickly that Nawdren had already started dreading the time this bastard would stay in the range for 5 seconds and punch him...

He didn’t want to die...

At least not like this...

He wouldn’t mind dying like a warrior, giving his all and fighting against an opponent, injuring him to some extent, taking at least his limb away from him, leaving permanent damage, making his opponent regret fighting against him...

That death, he would accept.

But this...

Running away like a dog and dying while playing a stupid game...

Nawdren trembled in fear.

“1... 2...”

Suddenly, Nawdren heard a voice. Nux was inside the range again.

He quickly slowed down,

“Do you think it would keep on working?”

Nux smiled as he slowed down as well.

“3...”

Nawdren tried to increase his speed but...

“4...”

It didn't work.

Nawdren panicked.

He tried to jump around like a monkey, doing his best to be as less predictable as possible and get out of Nux's range, however, as if he had already read all his moves beforehand, Nux countered them all and,

“5.”

“Be prepared, Nawdren.”

Nux smiled.

Nawdren quickly moved all his Mana to his Back, enforcing the best possible defense he could and soon, he felt the Mana in the surroundings move towards Nux's fist.

‘I am fucked...’

He gulped and then,

Nux finally punched.

...

*BAM*

Nawdren's body was sent flying.

“Khooooocckkkk!!”

He had used all his Mana to defend against Nux's attack, honestly, it was a useless attempt, Nux's attack was strong enough to break through his defenses even if Nux didn't use Mana.

And if Nux uses Mana...

Then it's not even a question, Nawdren was done for.

That is, if Nux was still unable to control his power.

Luckily for Nawdren, Nux wasn't lying when he said he improved his control over his power.

Nawdren had coughed out blood and around 30 bones in his body were broken, but in the end, he still managed to live.

“Haahh... Haahh... Haahaa...”

And this was something even Nawdren couldn't believe.

When Nux punched, he had sensed the threat behind that punch, he knew what it was.

He felt how that punched absorbed the surrounding Mana, he felt the impact of the punch before it even touched him, that punch...

It was by no means a normal punch...

It was death.

A sure death.

Nawdren's body was in pain and he couldn't move.

However, he didn't care...

He was alive...

He didn't know how it happened and he didn't care either,

He just thanked his luck and the mother nature for being such a grea-

“1...”

Suddenly,

Nux appeared in front of Nawdren.

“2...”

‘Why is he counting?’

Nawdren frowned.

“3...”

“!!!”

Soon, Nawdren realized and his eyes widened in horror.

With trembling body, he glanced at Nux and just as he thought, he was standing at arms distance near him.

That bastard...

He was still playing this foolish game...

“4...”

The count of death.

Nawdren could hear it...

The sounds of bell ringing... it was his time...

“5.”

Nawdren closed his eyes, preparing himself for the impact.

“...”

However, more and more time passed, and nothing happened.

Nawdren slowly opened his eyes, he noticed Nux had crouched in front of him and was looking at him with a curious look on his face,

“You don’t want to play more?”

Nux questioned.

“...”

Nawdren’s mouth twitched.

Nux chuckled, then, a Health Potion appeared in his hand and he fed it to Nawdren.

“I told you to trust me, didn’t I?” Nux spoke.

Nawdren drank the Potion, his body couldn’t really move right now, so he had to depend on Nux.

He glanced at Nux who was feeding him the Potion and realized,

Nux was not an emotionless bastard. He could trust this man.

“Hahaha~ It was difficult at first, but I managed to do just fine, didn’t I?”

Nux spoke and Nawdren smiled a little as well.

He weakly nodded and then, Nux continued,

“Don’t worry though, we will continue to play this game everyday until I get perfect my control.

So get well soon, okay?”

“ ... ”

Nawdren stopped drinking the Potion.

“Oi, what are you doing? It is falling on the ground.”

Nux spoke.

Nawdren clenched his fists.

Nux quickly emptied the Potion then gave him another one.

“You can go to your room when you feel you are fine.”

Saying those words, Nux stood up and walked towards his wives.

“He’s alive.”

Astaria commented with an impressed look on her face.

“What did you think? That I will kill him?”

“Well, that punch did look scary.”

“I am getting better.”

“Mhm, you are working hard.”

Astaria nodded.

At the same time, she again understood why Nux didn't allow them to play.

Even if it was her...

She would have died if Nux the moment Nux's punch had connected.

She stood no chance at all.

This man...

He really was a monster...

And to stand side by side against this monster...

She needed to train more.

"I am going."

Astaria spoke with a serious look on her face.

The other women quickly understood where she was going and,

"I am going as well."

Ember spoke up as well.

"Same."

"Mhm, me too."

One by one, all the women started leaving.

Even Edda had a rare, solemn expression on her face.

Just like that, Nux was left alone.

He glanced at Nardren again.

He wanted to spar, but seeing him, he knew that was not possible...

“Haahhh...”

After a long sigh, Nux stretched his body and walked towards his training area as well.

He would be training alone today as well.

His training schedule was simple, first, he trained his control using Thyra's techniques. Of course, those techniques focused more on body flexibilities, however, after some experiments and tweaking, he created a training method that worked wonders.

And since the essence of this method were Thyra's techniques, it also improved Nux's battle senses, including some of Thyra's moves in the fighting style that he had created.

It was harder since Thyra's main focus was on daggers and Nux used swords, however, attacking unpredictably, going for lethal points, balancing the body on weird angles to aim at hard to defend points, Nux started including all those moves into his battle style.

His Battle Style was now strange mixture of Astaria's and Thyra's Battle Style. It was a combination so complex that it didn't just look like a mixture, rather, it was a completely different Battle Style, the Battle Style only Nux can fight with.

Nux also had a chat with Riona, knowing that she was the one who trained Thyra, he wanted to learn something from her, however, soon, he realized that Riona only taught Thyra the basics, everything else, Thyra created it on her own, from the scratch.

Riona herself fought with a sword, there was no way she could teach anything to Thyra. She just told her what she desired and somehow, Thyra showed the result.

Thyra was no different than a prodigy either.

Anyways, improving his Battle Style and Control wasn't the only thing Nux focused on.

Actually, it wasn't even his main focus right now.

He had 2 main focus right now.

The First one was the Devouring Mist.

Yes, his Physique.

He has achieved Mastered level Mastery and his Devouring Mist now had the power to Devour Life.

What more could he possibly achieve?

Even killing Emperors wasn't a big deal for the current Nux.

However, Nux realized this a while ago.

He has achieved Mastered level Mastery and his Devouring Mist now had the power to Devour Life.

What more could he possibly achieve?

Even killing Emperors wasn't a big deal for the current Nux.

However, Nux realized this a while ago.

This wasn't the Mist's final form.

The System still showed a (+) sign before his Physique.

What did that mean?

It meant that even though he had 'Mastered' his Physique, he still haven't reached the end.

He dared to click on that (+) button when he was free, he wasn't doing very well on the Blank Points right now, and honestly, even if he was doing well, it wouldn't have done anything.

[Blank Points Needed: 1,000,000]

Yes.

1 million Blank Points.

That was the amount Nux needed to upgrade his Physique.

1 fucking million.

Even if he multiplied the total number of Blank Points he had earned till now by multiple folds, he still wouldn't reach close to that number.

Let alone Blank Points, Nux hadn't even collected this many System Points, which were fairly easier to collect.

That was how absurdly high that number was.

Absolutely ridiculous!

Nux didn't even think about trying to upgrade his physique that way,

He could only work his way through.

But honestly, he wasn't seeing much results.

It was as if he had already reached the dead end.

He felt like he already knows everything there was to know about the Devouring Mist.

How else could he comprehend it?

Actually, he even wondered if that was even possible.

However, in the end, Nux still gave decent amount of time, trying to work on his Mist.

The other thing he focused on were the Skills.

Yes, Skills, it was he had ignored before.

Now, however, things were different.

After the System was down, Nux realized something.

His Battle Style relied too much on the System Ability, and for various reasons...

Nux didn't like that at all.

His overreliance on the System, that was not good.

Nux admits it, whatever he currently was, it was all because of the System.

He was a useless 34 year old man doing nothing in his life before he came to this world and got the System after all.

He can confidently say that the System completely changed his life.

However, the source of this System was still unknown.

Nux didn't think too much about this before this because the strongest person he knew was Astaria.

She was comparable to 7 Star Beings and although not active, he did see an 8 Star Level on his System.

At the very least, he knew that his System was better than the world's strongest.

Therefore, he didn't feel any threat.

His plan was simple,

Become an Emperor, help all his wives to become Emperors, live a long, happy life, then die together with his wives.

It was a perfect life for him.

Now, however, things were different.

He now found out about the Main Continent.

The possibilities of beings far stronger than 7 Star...even 8 Star...

The origins of his System, now Nux started thinking about all that.

Where did this System come from?

He wasn't dumb.

He had read his fair share of novels in his previous life. Of course, it was stupid to think about serious matters like these based on novels written by fantasy authors who have never even seen or been into the world they were writing. Authors who didn't even know what Cultivation was, or how a technique works. Basing his life on the novels these authors wrote...

It couldn't be any stupider.

However, Nux had this strange inkling that has been eating him up for a long time now...

In most of these stories where the protagonist gets the system...

The moment he reaches a certain level, that protagonist realizes that the System...

Wasn't exactly his friend...

And in some works, the System was even related to the actual villain of the story.

Of course, this was stretching it far.

Nux knew it as well.

However, his overreliance on his System still bothered him.

His fighting style was entirely dependent on abilities like [Conceal], [Sense], [Mirror], [Dash] and his other abilities.

He is so dependent on them that he has never used the actual Skills at all.

Everything he wished to do, there was an Ability that helped him do it.

It was... almost too easy...

This was unsettling.

Therefore, Nux decided to change.

Of course, this doesn't mean he wasn't going to use the System abilities anymore.

He needed to get stronger, and it would be harder to do it without the System.

Not using System because of these thoughts was stupid.

In this world, if there is something that he never have to doubt, then it was a fact that Strength overpowered everything.

The Origin of the System doesn't matter.

As long as he is strong enough, he can deal with anything.

Actually, Nux was thankful that he got these 6 months without System.

In these 6 Months, he would change and improve his Battle Style to the point System Abilities wouldn't be the core, the root of his everything, but rather the tools that helps him get even stronger.

System Abilities would be like outside weapons.

Nux quickly collected all the top Skills that were spread throughout the continent.

He wasn't greedy.

He only selected 4 Skills.

7 Star Skills, one Skill for one element.

He would train all these skills and would improve his Mastery Level to the point where these Skills would become a usable, no, not usable, a powerful tool.

This was something that even Astaria couldn't achieve,

‘After reaching the level of Emperor, using Skills was not practical. One must use the purest form of Mana.’

This was what the people believed.

However, Nux was different.

He wasn’t willing to give up.

It didn’t matter how years it took.

Nux would do it.

He would use Skills.

He would Master them to a level where they would absolutely destroy his opponents.

Thinking all that, Nux’s face turned serious, the Fire Elements around him started moving and soon, he was surrounded with Fiery Red Flames.

Then, Nux closed his eyes and started moving.

He was looking forward to seeing the future him.
