“HONK! HONK!”

Tires Screeching

Bam

The driver tried to apply breaks, but it was already too late. He never expected a random man to appear in front of his truck on a clear road.

“Ugggh! Truck-kun, though I did request you to hit me in a few of my comments, I just did that because I thought it would make me look funny and cool... you weren't supposed to take it seriously...”

“Fuck! It hurts!”

Nux, the 35-year-old man who was hit by the truck felt his whole body searing in pain, it did not take much of a time for his body to fall limply on the ground, his eyes turned heavy, he did try to keep them open but couldn't bear it anymore, and soon, his consciousness faded away.

“Hwa!” Nux's whole body flinched as he woke up.

“That was a scary dream...” He sighed, his forehead still sweating but suddenly, he furrowed his brows.

“Where is this place...?” He looked around and found himself in an unknown room.

Unlike the normal rooms made from cement and bricks, this room was built from wood, though it was clean, it was clear from the furniture that the living condition of the person living in this room wasn't very good.

Of course, Nux didn't have the time to think about all this since he was already panicking due to the weird circumstances.

‘Was I kidnapped?’

No, it doesn't make sense, there is no way someone would kidnap me since I don't have any value at all. There is no merit...

Wait, does that mean it wasn't a dream and I was really hit by that truck?’

He thought about several things that can lead him to his current situation. He raised his hand to touch his forehead and could feel an unusual bump on his head.

‘Was I saved by someone?’

Hmm, that must be it...

Damn, now I would have to pay for hospital bills, haah... if I knew this would happen, I would have bought health insurance...’

Nux cried inwardly, already thinking about different ways to pay the bill and was ready to say goodbye to all his games and novel for the next few years since he would have to work overtime.

However, he suddenly felt something was different.

Due to all that confusion, he might not have noticed this earlier, but now that he is thinking clearly, his hands were whiter and thinner than before. He looked down and noticed that he was wearing completely different clothes from what he is normally used to.

He touched his face and noticed his beard was completely gone and even his face felt different than before...

Hold on...

Chapter 2

He touched his face and noticed his beard was completely gone and even his face felt different than before...

Hold on...

Suddenly, a whole new theory appeared in his mind and a strange excitement welled within him.

‘Hehe, is this what I think it is?’

Ignoring the pain he felt, he quickly ran towards the door and as soon as he opened it, he took a deep breath, his eyes shining brightly and a big smile appeared on his face.

“Yup! It’s definitely what I think it is!” He exclaimed.

The air is different, the scenery is different, there is no doubt about it. He was in another world.

“Hahaha! I transmigrated!”

“Truck-kun, my friend! I was definitely serious when I said I wanted you to hit me! Hahaha!” He laughed loudly and after taking another deep breath, he returned to his room and sat on the ground with an excited look on his face.

“According to the script, now is the time for my cheat to make an entry right!?” His eyes shined in excitement as he waited for his cheat to appear.

5 minutes passed...

10 minutes passed...

...

30 minutes passed...

His excitement dimmed down...

His cheat did not appear...

“Okay... it’s alright, some cheats like to play with mc’s feelings and only appear when mc is in danger... yes it must be like that...” thinking that, he looked around and his eyes fell on a slightly sharper rock lying on the floor.

Without hesitation, he picked the rock up and stabbed it right through his abdomen.

...or not.

“Nope. No no no no no Nope! Not doing that!

I can’t hurt myself based on a fantasy story now, can I? That makes no sense.

Not that I am scared or anything... this is just not practical... Haha...”

He chickened out and decided to wait a little longer.

Time passed, nothing happened...

Finally, Nux gave up on receiving his cheat.

‘As expected, ain’t no way will lady luck ever be beside me...’

...

‘Truck-kun, you weren’t supposed to take my comments seriously...’

He sighed as he accepted his fate and decided to find a way to live yet another normal life.

His eyes then fell on a small mirror in the corner of the room, he walked towards it and as soon as he looked at his reflection, he cursed.

“Fuck! I am Handsome!”

He instantly threw away the thoughts he had about living a normal life.

“Alright, Imma become a Gigolo and find a Sugar Mama to take care of me! Yay!”

An instant decision!

Chapter 3

“I am Handsome indeed”

Nux spoke in delight as he glanced at his face from different angles, the more he watched the more he liked it. His long thick raven hair, combined with his smooth white skin with a perfectly carved face. His golden eyes had a unique shine within them. His sword-like eyebrows, thin nose and sharp jawline made his face immortal-like even though it was a little bruised.

“With this face, combined with this frail-looking body, I am indeed the best quality gigolo anyone can ever have! I have to work hard to find a customer worthy of me!”

Nux nodded to himself but then furrowed his brows.

‘But why am I bruised?’ He thought.

After his transmigration, nothing was going according to the script, he didn’t get his cheat, and neither did he have his predecessor’s memory.

‘Were they jealous of my overly handsome face? Hmm, that should be the case... Hmph! Losers! Wait till I find a good sugar mommy, I’ll have my revenge then. Hmph! Hmph!’ Nux snorted inwardly as he hypothesised.

Growl

Just as he was thinking about his revenge, he heard his stomach growling, only then did he realise that he was very hungry. He looked around and found some peach-like fruits on his table.

‘It should not be poisonous since it is in my house...’

Thinking that, he quickly took a bite. They tasted like green apples, finding them delicious, he devoured them all without wasting any time.

Though that little amount of fruits could not satisfy his hunger completely, it was not as bad as before.

However, if he learned that what he just ate was equal to 2 days meal of his predecessor, he would not complain about not being satisfied at all.

Knock Knock

Smash

Suddenly, he heard a knock on the door but just as he was about to answer, the door was slammed open and 3 rough looking guys came in.

‘Why did you even bother knocking if you wanted to slam open the door...’ Nux thought inwardly but he knew it was not the time to ask questions like these.

“Have you decided to come with us?” the scar-faced man, who Nux presumed was the leader of this group asked.

Nux took a deep breath as he glared at them without saying anything, however, there was no trace of fear on his face.

The leader frowned as he glanced at his subordinates, only when he confirmed that they had the same confused look on their face did he turn to Nux and raised his eyebrow.

“I asked, have you decided to come with us?” He asked again, this time, his tone a little heavier than before.

“Of course!”

Chapter 4

“I asked, have you decided to come with us?” He asked again, this time, his tone a little heavier than before.

“Of course!” Nux quickly answered without even knowing where they would take him.

His logic was simple, he knew he stood no chance against them if they fought, so if they wanted to harm him, they could have done it here. They would not bother taking him somewhere where they have set up a trap just to deal with a weakling like him.

Mmmhmm, he agreed after thinking it logically, not because he was scared of the scar-faced man in front of him. Not at all.

The leader, the scar-faced man was shocked by his answer but his face quickly returned to normal as he nodded and threw a glass bottle containing a weird purple coloured liquid in it.

“Drink it”

Without asking anything, Nux quickly emptied the bottle, although it was a little bitter, as soon as it travelled down his throat, he felt warm energy coursing throughout his body and his face, which was bruised, was healed without any mark left!

Though surprised, he didn't have the luxury to think what kind of godly thing he had just drunk as he quickly followed the men.

After walking for a while, he appeared in front of a building, which was completely in contrast with his worn-out wooden house. It was a large building made from white coloured marbles which gave the building a holy feeling. There were a few words written on it, but Nux couldn't recognize the language so he ignored them.

Soon, the party entered the building and walked towards a specific room, although he could not read what was written on the door, by the design and others' attitude, it was clear that the room belonged to someone important.

Knock Knock

After a knock, the door was opened by a beautiful girl wearing a classic maid costume, she nodded to the scar-faced man before glancing towards Nux, a little surprise could be seen on her face before it went back to her normal, expressionless face.

She walked into the room and the party followed her trail, there they saw a man wearing expensive-looking robes who was sitting on a chair with a leisurely attitude. The man had blonde hair with a French moustache, making him look like a classic merchant.

He then glanced at Nux before asking, "You know why you are brought here, right?"

Countless thoughts ran wild inside Nux's mind,

'Should I tell him I do not know anything?

But from that scar-faced man's attitude, it is clear that he had told my predecessor about the situation. Won't they know that I am not who they think I am?

But this is my only chance to know what is happening, I should not waste it...'

Due to all these quick thoughts, Nux panicked a little and nodded and shook his head at the same time, looking quite funny.

The man raised his eyebrows at his response as he glanced at the scar-faced man before turning back to Nux.

“My name is Elton Peyton, I am the head of this Merchant guild.

You, my friend, are a lucky man who caught the eyes of Viscount Felberta.”

Nux’s eyes opened wide as he looked at Elton to see if he was joking.

“Yes, my friend, Viscount Felberta wishes to take you as her personnel boy toy,” Elton revealed and Nux’s eyes couldn’t hide the shock he was experiencing.

‘Fuck Yes!’

Chapter 5

Seeing Nux's shocked look, Elton nodded in satisfaction and questioned,

“Well, are you ready to meet Viscount Felberta?”

“Of course! But shouldn't I first prepare myself and buy some suitable clothes to look my best possible?” Nux questioned, already thinking about ways to get on Viscount Felberta's good side.

He was a good Gigolo.

As good as a natural.

Hearing what Nux said, Elton glanced at Nux's stunning face and his lips twitched.

Still, as a professional merchant, he hid his expression and replied, “No, I don't think you should do that. A woman like Viscount Felberta has a thing for weak boys, you know what I mean? Your frail-looking body combined with those worn out loose robes will make her more excited.”

“I see” Nux nodded solemnly. His expression looked like he was contemplating something serious.

“Alright, let's not make viscount wait for longer than we already have” Elton said as he clapped his hand and rushed everyone to get ready.

An hour-long carriage ride later, Nux found himself in front of a woman.

As the lady's gaze fell on Nux, her eyes brightened and a big smile appeared on her face.

“Hello, Nux, My name is Felberta Alveye, I was the one who bought you from the merchant guild. From now on, you will stay here with me and will do whatever I say, alright?”

Whatevveerrr~ I say, okaaaay?”

Nux on the other hand stood still as he gazed ahead with a dumbstruck look on his face.

Noticing his intense and kind of lost gaze, Viscount blushed a little before she asked, “Do you have any questions?”

“...” Nux remained silent.

Seeing this, everyone in the room furrowed their brows but it didn't matter to Nux at all.

He didn't bother about anyone present in the room, not even Viscount Felberta. Right now, he was busy examining the screen that appeared in front of his eyes along with a ding sound inside his head.

The more he read, the better it got, an unusual glint shone in his eyes.

‘Finally, finally, I got my cheat! Now I don’t have to live a normal life anymore!’

Chapter 6

‘Finally, finally, I got my cheat! Now I don’t have to live a normal life anymore!’

He rejoiced inwardly.

“Nux!”

Suddenly, he heard someone shouting his name and his thoughts quickly returned to earth.

“Ah, wha- what?” he asked as his gaze finally fell on Viscount Felberta.

“What are you thinking that is so important that you had the galls to ignore me?” Viscount questioned as she glared at Nux.

“Ah, U-Um , S-Sorry, I-I am sorry. I-I just never saw someone as beautiful as you s-so I was lost...” He replied awkwardly with a slight blush on his face.

Real Smooth.

His answer worked like a charm as Viscount’s gaze changed from glare to a warm gaze.

‘Haah! This game’s on easy mode’

Nux thought inwardly as he noticed the change in her expression.

But he wasn’t lying, he was really surprised when he saw her.

He thought that she would be like some fat ugly lady, but she... Man, she was a classic example of a MILF!

Her perfect hourglass figure was as enchanting as it could ever get, Nux couldn't help but glance at those milky breasts that were enough for a normal weeb to die from a nosebleed. Her raven hair matched Nux's, while her black eyeballs were as deep as an abyss. Her thin eyebrows, small nose and cherry-like red and luscious lips made her look like an alluring succubus.

He even wondered why a woman like her wants a boy toy and why would she even pay for it? Heck! People would pay themselves if they can have a chance to be her boy toy.

“It's not a problem, just be careful from now on.

Okay, I will ask you again, are you ready to abandon your normal life and stay with me for the rest of your life?”

“Of course!”

Though this reply was the same as before, if one looks deeply, there was a different glint in his golden eyes.

A look of a predator.

Earlier, he just wanted to be a boy toy so that he can live a stable life while he spends some time with someone but now...

Now he wasn't here just to be a boy toy or a gigolo, now he wanted to conquer this woman called Felberta.

He glanced at his ridiculously overpowered ability, the [Craving Touch], and thought of different ways to get more women and increase his power.

‘Truck-kun, my friend! I was definitely serious when I said I wanted you to hit me! Hahaha!’

“Haahh...”

Nux sighed in relief as he sat on a soft bed and looked around, right now he was in a new room that was completely different from his previous worn out room. It was clear that Viscount treated him quite well.

Nux shook his head as he glanced at the system screen in front of him.

[Memory fragment detected, would you like to retrieve it?]

[Cost: 10 Blank points]

[Y/N]

‘This should be my predecessor’s memories... Should I retrieve it? Mmm, but is it really worth it? I mean he was just a nobody what could he know that can help me? Sure it would be more convenient but should I spend 10 Blank points? That is all the blank points I have right now.

Also, I don’t know what is the drop rate of these blank points, so I don’t know their value...

But according to the system, a normal human’s limit for a certain attribute is 10, which means if I add all the blank points on strength, it can directly double my strength compared to normal humans. That’s definitely a huge gain, yup, I can’t waste these precious blank points on something I am unsure about.

Now technically, I should save these blank points and not add them to any other attribute so I can grind more points while being weak and add these points when I can’t gain them anymore.

But this only sounds good if it is a video game, and my life is certainly not one.

Okay, I have decided, I'll add these points right now and will preserve the points I will gain later.

Alright, there is nothing much to think about it, 6 points on Agility, 4 on Stamina.'

Nux felt a unique stream of energy flowing through his body, suddenly, he felt that his body was a lot lighter than before, He felt like he could easily overtake the world's faster runner in a race. It felt weird and good at the same time.

[Name: Nux Leander]

He nodded in satisfaction as he glanced at his stats.

‘With this, I can run away easily if I ever get stuck in a difficult situation.’

Security is important, after all.

After settling the matter of his stats, he shifted his attention to his system as he started reading about its features to get a better understanding of it.

Chapter 8

Time passed and evening fell, Nux noticed that it was time for the Viscount to return from her office. He didn't know the exact time she would return but since he didn't have anything else to do he stood up and walked towards the viscount's room.

He had done some research and learned that the viscount's husband died and her only son lives in Royal Academy and rarely comes home.

Yup, a clear path ahead.

Chuckling inwardly, he appeared in front of the viscount's room, noticing that she hasn't returned, he decided to sit in front of the room and wait for her.

...

"Nux? What are you doing here?"

It didn't take a long time for Viscount to return along with 2 maids, she had a surprised look on her face when she saw Nux sitting in front of her room and she questioned.

"O-Oh nothing m-mam, I-I just thought that you would be tired after working for so long, so I decided to come here and check if there is anything I can help you with..." Nux stuttered as he answered, of course, he didn't forget to glance at her face before lowering his gaze in shame and a slight blush.

Seemingly pleased by his answer, Viscount smiled and questioned, "Oh? What would you help me with?"

"I-I can m-massage your shoulders... it will help you r-relax..." Nux answered, keeping his gaze down.

Viscount chuckled as an intense urge to tease this boy welled inside her. She walked towards Nux with an enchanting smile, her face, half a finger away from Nux's as she questioned.

“Why are you looking down? Am I too ugly for you to look at?”

“No! You are just too beautiful! AHH! I m-mean no, that's not it, no I mean you are beautiful but but um mmm” Nux panicked when he looked up and noticed that her face was too close to his, he tried to back away but slipped and fell to the ground, unable to come up with an explanation, he decided to keep his gaze on the ground.

Seeing this, not only Viscount, even the two maids following her chuckled, the Viscount smiled as she crouched in front of Nux as she questioned.

“Are you telling me I am not beautiful?”

“N-No”

“Then you think I am beautiful?”

“Yes”

Viscount's smile widened as she questioned,

“Are you hitting on me?”

“N-No! I didn't mean it like t-that! I-I-”

“Hahaha!” Seeing the flustered look on his face, the Viscount laughed out loud before she flicked her finger on his forehead to gain his attention and replied.

“Alright, you don't need to be so flustered, I was just teasing you. As for you massaging me, well, what are you waiting for? Follow me”

Saying that, the viscount stood up and she entered her room with a very satisfied look on her face, Nux also followed her back to her room obediently.

Of course, nobody noticed that small, imperceptible smile on his face.

A Predator's Grin.

Chapter 9

Viscount Felberta's room was much more elegant and well furnished than Nux's but he didn't bother looking around as his gaze was fixed on that ripe ass that is swaying left and right as she is walking. Combined with the red gown she is wearing that does nothing to hide her hourglass figure, and even enhances it, she looked as if she is teasing her just by being there.

A really enchanting woman.

[Ding]

Suddenly, a sound rang inside Nux's head.

[Mission: Fuck Felberta Alveye]

[Description: Well, Fuck Felberta Alveye]

[Reward: Eye Of Discerning.]

[Warning: If the mission fails, the Ability [Craving Touch] will be disabled.]

[Time Limit: 30 days]

'Huh? A mission? Wow, it really is like an RPG game huh... The punishment is quite scary though... as for the reward, I don't know what that is'

'Eye Of Discerning'

'Discerning Eye'

"Eye Of Discerning"

Nux tried to say the ability name in his mind, he even tried touching the screen, not only that, he even called it out loud even though he was near Viscount Felberta.

‘ ... ’

But even after all this, nothing happened.

‘Yoo? Mr. System? Do I not get any description??’

Nux tried to call the system but again, nothing happened.

The system was ignoring him...

‘Hm? Is it one of those systems that do not have consciousness? Well, to be honest, I do prefer it that way... I don’t really want a talking system, that’s too annoying...’

Oh well, whatever. As far as I know, this mission is very easy. I mean, this woman bought me as a Boy Toy right? Won’t it be stupid not to fuck the boy toy she spend her money on?

This mission is a freebie. Hehe~ I am looking forwards tot he rewards though...’

“Hmm? What are you standing there for? C’mon, start with my shoulders.” Viscount who was sitting on the huge bed ordered. Nux came out of his reverie and his eyes fell on Viscount Felberta sitting on the huge bed and his heartbeat quickened.

The contrast between the Viscount’s red gown and white bedsheets was really great, combined with how she was sitting there defencelessly while looking at him with her overly charming face, he couldn’t help but gulp and blushed.

This time, he wasn’t acting, it was his natural reaction.

Viscount Felberta was too beautiful.

Seeing him blushing like that, a smile appeared on Viscount Felberta's face.

Who doesn't want their beauty to be appreciated by others? Of course, as a Viscount and a beautiful one to boot, there are many people who admire her beauty but there was a difference between Nux and them.

Others always had some sort of hidden intentions behind their praises. She was a noble, she knows how two-faced other nobles can be, so she never let her guard down in front of them.

Nux however, was different, he was just a powerless little boy. He can't do anything to her, therefore, his praises were honest. This added to the fact that he isn't really praising her and is just blushing uncontrollably, Felberta was even surer.

Chapter 10

As a Viscount and a beautiful one to boot, there are many people who admire her beauty but there was a difference between Nux and them.

Others always had some sort of hidden intentions behind their praises. She was a noble, she knows how two-faced other nobles can be, so she never let her guard down in front of them.

Nux however, was different, he was just a powerless little boy. He can't do anything to her, therefore, his praises were honest. This added to the fact that he isn't really praising her and is just blushing uncontrollably, Felberta was even surer.

Of course, this wasn't the only reason why Nux and the others were different.

This boy Nux was really handsome!

A little too handsome!

Just looking at his perfectly carved face combined with that beautiful golden eyes, Felberta felt her heart racing.

All of this combined with the frail-looking weak body he has...

Felberta was really happy with her find.

Yup, good looks really helps with many things.

“C'mon, Nux, why are you not coming here? Do you plan to make me wait for so long?”

“N-No mam, I-I am c-coming”

Nux then walked towards the bed, the closer he walked the more his face blushed, then without waiting, he climbed onto the bed and then moved behind the viscount.

“I-I will be s-starting m-mam...”

“Yes, do it”

Nux’s hand then touched Felberta’s shoulders. His gaze then turned focused and he started massaging them.

His massaging skills, however, were anything but good, the viscount wanted to say something but when she turned her head a little and noticed his immersed gaze on his stunning face, she ignored the bad massage and just closed her eyes.

However, as she remembered the concentrated look and compared it to the flustered look he had a while before, a mischievous smile appeared on her face. She then turned her head and questioned.

“It must be difficult for you to massage without direct contact with the skin right? Wait, let me remove this gown”

She then stood up, deliberately forming an arch between her back and ass to tease Nux before she grabbed her gown and with one move, the whole thing fell on the floor.

She stood in the room wearing nothing but a black pair of bra and panty. She quickly glanced at Nux and seeing the flustered look on his red face, her smile widened.

“M-Mam it was a-alrigh-” Nux wanted to persuade her but she cut him between his words and replied.

“Don’t worry, I am not an unreasonable person, I know that massage should be done with direct skin contact. Now don’t worry and continue what you were doing.”

The Viscount sat back on the bed and quickly placed Nux's hands on her shoulders, urging him to continue.

Nux, of course, couldn't go against her orders and continued with the massage.

This time when Viscount turned her head, she saw the same focused gaze but she didn't miss the tinge of red that he was trying hard to hide. Not only that, even his hands were shaking a little.

'Hahaha! He is so cute and innocent~'

Chapter 11

‘Hahaha! He is so cute and innocent~’

Viscount laughed inwardly as she admired her past self for deciding to buy and have him all to herself.

Nux, on the other hand, smiled inwardly when he saw the satisfied look on her face. He then glanced all over her body and he had to admit, she has the best body he has ever seen. Adding it to the fact that she was already in her black undergarments...

Nux already had a boner.

‘Alright, let’s advance to the second part’

With that, Nux shifted his body a little and the tent that was formed on his crotch directly touched Viscount’s lower armpit.

“Hmm?” Startled, Viscount quickly glanced at the thing poking her and was shocked to find what it was.

She then glanced at Nux and seeing his same focused and flustered look, she understood that Nux has no clue about what is happening.

Thinking that, she smiled and directly cupped his balls with her fair, tender hand.

“Oh? What is this, Nux?”

Nux’s eyes opened wide when he saw her cupping his thing, he jumped back in shock and apologized.

“M-Mam! I am really sorry! I don’t know h-how it happened!”

He tried to hide his boner with his hands as he tugged it between his thighs and stuttered.

‘Just as I expected’

Seeing him responding just like how she expected, Viscount Felberta smiled before she grabbed his hand and smiled,

“It’s alright, it’s a perfectly natural thing. To be honest, I would have lost my confidence if you didn’t have this sort of reaction after seeing my body.

Hmm, let’s see, how should we take care of this?”

“I-It is alright mam. It w-will go away quickly” Nux replied in a very low voice. The tinge of red that was on his face turned a little brighter.

“What are you talking about? Do you take me as someone selfish? You waited in front of my room so that you can help me relax when I was tired, now that you are in this situation, do you think I will leave you alone?”

“B-But that is my duty”

Hearing that, Viscount grabbed his chin, forcing him to look into her eyes, and she replied softly,

“You are mine now, it is my duty to take care of you as well, now don’t waste time and lie down on the bed. I’ll help you out”

Her voice was a lot more seductive than it was normal. Nux didn’t argue and quietly did as she told her.

Smiling, the Viscount removed his pant and underwear gently and a 6-inch rod popped out.

Let alone the Viscount, even Nux himself was surprised by his size, mind you, it was still not completely hard yet.

‘Damn, I never thought my weapon was this strong...’

“Oh? That’s quite a size you have here” Viscount nodded, clearly surprised that such a cute boy has such a huge rack.

Not that she complained, rather, she was happy since she knew it was all hers.

With that thought, she grabbed Nux’s rod with her soft and tender hand gently. As soon as she touched his shaft, Nux felt a huge electric bolt coursing through his body, starting from his tailbone and ending near his neck. He bit his lips and grabbed the bedsheets, trying to contain his moan.

Seeing his reaction, the countess smiled before she started stroking his rod gently.

‘OOhhhh! FUCK! This is good! Way too good compared to masturbation’

Mind you, Nux was a 2 times Virgin, this bit of a simulation was enough for him to climb to cloud nine, especially when the one doing it was such a beautiful milf and a viscount to boot.

His whole body flinched in pleasure but he still controlled and stopped himself from letting out a moan.

As if seeing through his intention of not moaning, the viscount took the challenge and sped her stroking.

‘AAHHH! FUCK!!’

Thick veins bulged on his dick, his rod now as hard as a rock and an 8-inch sword stood tall and proud even though the owner’s body was quivering since the simulation was too much for a 2 time virgin like him.

Feeling that he was about to cum, Nux tilted his body a little and without telling her anything, his load burst out covering the viscount’s whole face with his hot, thick jizz.

“AAhhh~~”

Nux sighed in pleasure as he glanced at the viscount, and seeing her face covered with his thick and slimy jizz, he smiled and admired himself inwardly before he put on a panicked expression and shouted.

“AH!, Mam I am sorry! I can’t believe I did that! I am so sorry!” He tried to stand up but his body, which was relishing the aftertaste of the frighteningly good feeling denied his command and he was forced to lie down.

On the other hand, viscount Felberta still couldn’t believe what happened, in a daze, she used her finger to gather some jizz that was on her face before she put it in her mouth and tasted it. Finding it quite pleasant, her eyes brightened as she spoke,

“Hooh? Now, why didn’t you tell me that you were cum? Huh?”

“I-It just felt really good and everything happened very quickly... I-I never experienced this before so I didn’t know it would happen...” Nux replied apologetically and emphasized the last part.

“It’s alright, next time warn me when you are about to cum okay?” The Viscount had a big smile on her face when she heard him.

Nux nodded embarrassedly.

“Alright, now go outside and the maid will take you to the bathroom, take a bath before sleeping,” She replied gently.

“Y-Yes, I’ll do it after I clean this ro-”

“There is no need for that, we have maids to do all that. You just have to take care of yourself and return in time.” Viscount smiled gently.

“R-Return?”

“Of course, from now on, you will be sleeping with me, the room you have is just for you to spend time in when I am busy in my office, after I return, you have to stay here with me. Am I clear? Do you have any questions?”

“N-No, none at all”

“Good” The viscount nodded before she walked into the bathroom that was attached to her room, hiding her embarrassed look.

This is the first time someone came on her face. It was a new experience for her as well and... she did not hate it since she got to see his embarrassed expression.

Of course, the major part of the reason was that Nux's jizz wasn't smelly or sour. Rather, it was somewhat pleasant.

Nux on the hand smiled widely as he saw the viscount walking into the bathroom. He achieved his today's goal and the whole process was even easier than he imagined. The viscount's Shota-con nature is stronger than he thought.

Of course, he wasn't actually a shota but his body style matches one for sure.

As he recalled the Viscount's face smeared in his jizz, he grinned wickedly and after recalling the effects it would have, his grin widened even more.

It had other effects? Of course, it did. Nux wasn't foolish enough to risk offending the viscount just because of his satisfaction. He can't afford to do that, at least not at this stage.

When he was reading about his system and his abilities, he found out that the closer and more erotic the contact between him and his target, the stronger the effects of his [Craving Touch] gets. The viscount getting smeared with his jizz would make her crave for him even more.

And obviously, the more the craving, the faster he will achieve his goal.

His smiling face looked like a handsome demon who just tricked another innocent person do to his bidding. He quickly stood up and walked outside and entered the bathroom the maid pointed to.

He wanted to bathe with the viscount but he controlled his urges and calmed down. He knew if he plays his cards well, the viscount will be the one to ask for this instead.

After taking a long bath, Nux returned to the room and saw the viscount lying on the bed, glancing at him with a seductive smile. She was wearing a sky blue coloured, loose nightgown, her hairs were still wet, making her look more captivating than normal.

Nux didn't forget to continue his act as he blushed and glanced down.

“After smearing all your jizz on me, you still dare to blush in embarrassment?” The viscount chuckled.

“N-No I didn't mea-”

“Hahaha~ It's so fun to tease you~ Alright, now don't keep standing there, come over, I am already very sleepy.” Seeing him panicking, the viscount chuckled.

Nux walked over with an embarrassed look before he lay down beside her.

“Okay, good night~” Viscount muttered as she closed the lights and hugged Nux from behind like a body pillow, her ample chest touching his frail back, causing him to have a slight reaction in the lower part of his body.

“G-Good night” Nux replied.

He knew this night would be a sleepless one since there is no way he can sleep while an alluring woman like Felberta hugs him from behind and her long legs crosses over his.

She was practically glued to him. Not that he hated this feeling; he could have never gotten someone as beautiful as the viscount to hug him while she sleeps in his previous life so, currently, he was fully satisfied.

Thinking about how potent his [Craving Touch] will be after this night, he got even more excited.

He noticed that even his previous calculations were wrong.

He didn't need 5 days at all; 2-3 days would be enough to complete this mission.

It was an error on his part.

Of course, such Errors were warmly welcomed by him.

Chapter 12

Jolts of pleasure forced Nux to wake up from his sleep, he then subconsciously glanced at his dick, which was somehow out in the open while his pants were down. He then saw a jade white hand stroking his rod lovingly.

He didn't need to think twice and instantly knew the culprit who was behind this, he slowly turned his head and saw Viscount Felberta with a slightly red face, smiling at him.

“Oh, you are awake. I noticed your little brother was quite excited about this new morning so I decided to give him a hand”

“M-Mam i-it happens every morning, you don't have to trouble yo-”

“It's alright, as I said before, you belong to me, it's my duty to take care of you” Viscount Felberta replied. Though she said the thing as before, this time, her breathing was a little erratic while her face had a tinge of red.

‘The [Craving Touch] is absurd’

Nux thought inwardly while he blushed and nodded meekly.

Bolts of pleasure assaulted him wave after wave but it wasn't as bad as yesterday. Last time, he was someone inexperienced, but now that he had already experienced it once, he will try his best to hold out for as long as possible.

As if she knew what he was thinking, Viscount Felberta instantly changed her strategy as bent her body and she crawled towards his crotch.

“Alright, I'll show you something good today~”

Saying that, she pulled her gown down, only enough for her large milky breast to pop out, standing upright, as they were being supported by the gown. Seeing those white twins with a pink cherry on the top could make any man drool.

Nux dreamt of squeezing those soft mounds of flesh as much as he wanted, it took all his willpower to not stand up and grope those juggers.

But moments later, he thanked himself for not giving in and staying where he was since what happened next was something he never imagined would happen, at least not in the recent future.

Viscount Felberta positioned herself carefully and then her two huge mountains engulfed his huge rod, and a soul-stirring pleasure assaulted his mind. Thousands and thousands of bolts of pleasure ran throughout his body and he felt this weird numbing sensation all over his body.

‘The legendary Titfuck!!~’

“Ahhh~” Despite trying his very best not to, he couldn’t help but release a satisfied moan.

His whole body twitched, and the pleasure he felt as his dick rubbed her cleavage while being mushed by two soft and beautiful pair of breasts was a thousand times better than the handjob she gave him yesterday. His eyes rolled back and his back arched up, trying to resist the enormous pleasure he was feeling.

Satisfied by his reaction, Viscount Felberta smiled and increased her speed, further intensifying the pleasure he was feeling.

However, Nux still resisted. He still fought the urge to cum right away. As if provoked by this, Viscount Felberta’s eyes met his, while maintaining eye contact, she lowered her head, and licked her luscious red lips, before she kissed the tip of his dick that popped out of her breasts.

“OOhhh~” Stimulated by this heavenly scene, Nux wasn’t able to hold it any longer and his jizz burst out, once again spreading all over Viscount Felberta’s face and her milky breasts, this time though, it was more concentrated near her mouth.

“Haah... Haah... Haah...”

Nux breathed heavily, his chest moving up and down in quick successions. This time, there were no thoughts about how this would help him with his goal, or how should he act to please the viscount. His mind was already numb because of all the stimulus it has received.

“You really like to spread your milk all over my face, don’t you?” Viscount Felberta teased.

“It haah... it just felt too good... haah...” Nux replied without thinking.

Seeing him like that, Viscount Felberta smiled as she shook her head.

“You don’t take my orders seriously, do you? I told you to tell me before you cum but you ignored it”

This time, Nux’s head cleared up and he quickly replied, “I-I am extremely sorry mam! I-” he thought he somehow offended Viscount Felberta but soon he noticed that teasing smile he had on her face.

Although that smile looked more like a foolish smile with his milk spread all over her enchanting face.

But that too gave her a different kind of a charm and was enough for Nux to feel a slight reaction in his lower body even though he had just cum a moment ago.

“Heh~ I never said I don’t like it... Although you still require some punishment for listening to my order” Viscount Felberta muttered.

“I-I will go through any punishment mam gives me to without fail!” Nux nodded seriously.

“Hahaha! Look how serious you are. It’s like I will punish you with death or something. Don’t worry, it will just be a light punishment...”

You might even enjoy it a little bit~” Viscount Felberta replied as she licked her lips sensually and at the same time she tasted Nux’s milk again.

A different kind of satisfaction washed over her body as she noticed the jizz all over her and that handsome boy lying on her bed with a tired look.

‘My money is not wasted at all~’ she nodded inwardly before she smiled.

“Alright, it’s time for me to go to work after I take bath, I will see you after I return. Okay?”

“I-I will wait for your return in front of your room like yesterday...”

‘I really did not waste my money at all~’

...

With an unusually bright mood, Viscount Felberta walked toward her office to start the day. As a viscount, most of the matters are handled by her subordinates, of course, that does not mean she does not do anything.

She is more like a CEO who takes care of everything around and manages everything. However, these few days, she is exceptionally busy.

This is the last week of the 8th month, and also the week in which the viscount has to work harder than normal since she can’t ignore the tax collection and leave it to her subordinates.

She has to read reports about the amount of tax collected, how to deal with those who haven’t paid the taxes and all that.

She settled down on her chair and a few minutes later, a man wearing a black coat over a white shirt walked over and bowed.

“Greetings, Viscount Felberta” He was Joyab, the butler of Viscount Felberta.

Felberta nodded and Joyab started.

“The farmers are unable to pay the taxes this month due to the draught. They say that they spent all their saving on paying the tax last month and can barely afford food to eat right now. I had some men check the situation, and confirmed that what they say is true and the farmers are really having a hard time.”

Felberta nodded before she closed her eyes, Joyab stayed silent without interrupting her thoughts and a few minutes later, Viscount Felberta spoke.

“Alright, take their lands and free them from taxes for the next whole year.”

Joyab’s eyes widened when he heard that and he countered, “But Viscount, the land they own has a lot more value than the tax they owe us. Aren’t we just extorting them?”

“Of course not, those farmers are fools, if we force them to pay tax, they will sell their land to someone else at cheaper prices just to pay the taxes for the next few months and then will become homeless without anything to do.

This will lower the food production and reduce our taxes as well, therefore, it is better to take their lands, of course, we aren’t really taking them, we will just have them on paper. We will allow the farmers to farm on them and if they pay 10% higher taxes for the next 12 years, we will return their lands to them.

As for the taxes, use the treasury to pay for it”

Joyab was enlightened and inwardly praised Viscount Felberta for coming up with this plan, but soon, he furrowed his brows and questioned,

“But what if the draught reappears within the next 12 years? What shall we do then?”

“We will just increase the number of years they will have to pay extra taxes, no big deal” Felberta waved her hands nonchalantly and Joyab couldn’t help but be more impressed by her vision.

“I believe I can leave this matter to you now?”

“Yes, Viscount Felberta! I’ll give you the report within the next two days!” Joyab nodded, as efficient as ever.

...

The meeting continued, and the more time passed, the more uncomfortable the viscount felt. She sneakily lowered her head and felt a weird twitching inside her little sister.

She rubbed her thighs with each other, trying to calm this weird feeling but nothing happened. Feeling helpless, she ignored this and continued listening to the reports.

“Viscount Florence Reids has asked if 9 in the morning is a good time to meet up”

“Hmm? Meet up? Did we plan on meeting tomorrow?”

Joyab furrowed his brows in confusion before he replied,

“Viscount, it’s Marques Eduart’s daughter’s 21st birthday and they plan to celebrate it. We have received the invitation a week ago; I believe it would be disrespectful to the Marques if we don’t go there”

Felberta then recalled reading the invitation letter and nodded. Being a mere viscount, she can’t afford to offend someone like Marques so she has to go there. Also, this party will have some sort of political importance since many nobles who haven’t decided which prince they would support will appear there, so it is speculated that even the princes will join the party.

“Alright, tell her that I will be ready by 9 and we shall leave before 9:30. We can’t afford to be late. Also, have you thought about the gifts?”

“Viscount need not worry about that, I have already prepared it”

Felberta nodded as she said, “Alright, you can take a break now. We will discuss the rest after 2 hours”

“As you command,”

Joyab, even though he noticed that today’s break was a little early and longer than usual, didn’t think too much and bowed before he left.

As soon as Joyab left, Viscount's solemn face changed and she quickly lifted her gown before plunging her finger into her canal and started pleasuring herself.

'Haah~ What is happening... What is this tickling feeling? This never happened before...'

Although it felt really good as she masturbated, she still felt something was missing. Suddenly, a face that has been appearing in her mind, again and again, appeared once more.

She then calmed down, fixed her gown and called her maid.

"Call Nux"

The maid bowed before she left.

A while later, a boy with an otherworldly face entered the office and greeted in a low voice,

"Good afternoon mam"

Viscount smiled as she signalled him to sit on the chair beside her.

"Now Nux, do you remember how I helped you this morning?"

Nux's face turned red as he nodded embarrassedly.

"Now I want you to help m-"

"Of course! You can order me to do anything! I will surely do my best to satisfy you!" Before Felberta could even complete her sentence, Nux stood up and replied quickly.

Felberta chuckled seeing him like that as she replied,

"Good, now touch me here~"

Chapter 13

“Good, now touch me here”

“Wha- What?”

Nux stood there, dumbfounded. He could not believe that she was being so direct.

“What? Didn’t you say you would do anything I say, are you going back on your words?”

“N-No, I’ll do it...” Nux’s face turned red, and then even redder before he quickly got on his knees as he glanced at the red coloured gown.

Gulp

He gulped inwardly.

Viscount Felberta is really too beautiful...

He then held the lower part of the gown before pulling it up, revealing her slender, long legs. His movements were very slow, It might look like it was because he was embarrassed, but Nux was just relishing and appreciating the feeling of unclothing a beautiful lady like her.

He felt like he living a dream...

A dream he would never want to wake up from...

On the other hand, the slower his movements, the more Felberta anticipated what was about to come as her heart started beating loudly.

The tingling sensation which she barely suppressed burst out, this time more potent than the last.

Soon, Nux's hand reached her little sister before he glanced at her. She nodded, signalling him to continue.

Nux smiled seeing her rushing like that, he wanted to tease her a little, but he knew he was not in a position to play it like that.

He needs to be careful and act as an obedient boy toy. Time was in his favour, he just needs to wait for a while and then he will be able to do what he wanted.

Without any delay, Nux directly shifted her black panties aside, revealing her gorgeous pink pussy with a little to no hair around it, and seeing a clear way, he immediately plunged the tip of his middle finger into her canal.

“Anh~”

Getting the reaction he wanted, Nux smiled inwardly before he pushed forward.

“Annh~”

Jolts of pleasure assaulted the Viscount's body, somehow, the pleasure was a lot more powerful than when she did it herself. Not finding anything to hold, she directly clasped Nux's head and pushed his face right into her plump breasts.

Nux noticed that she was a lot more sensitive than normal, he then smiled as he slipped his index finger inside as well.

“Anh~”

He felt her grip getting tighter around his head as she pushed him deeper into her cleavage, her legs also crossed around his, as if afraid that he will go away. Although this position might look like it was a little uncomfortable, her body's softness made it one of the most comfortable positions he can ever be in.

With his two fingers, he teased her wet, squishy insides without rest.

Her moans sounded like blessed music to his ears.

“Anh~ Anh~ Anh~”

The more she moaned, the faster he moved his finger, and as soon her moans decreased; he would reduce his speed, forcing her to moan louder.

“Anh~ Anh~ Anh~”

Noticing the pattern, the viscount continued to moan with all her might while she also tightened her grip around Nux, as if trying to merge his body with hers.

Soon, Nux felt her insides twitching uncontrollably and he knew she was about to cum, without warning he increased his speed even further, his movements, a lot rougher than before.

“Anh~ Anh~ Anh~ Anh~ Anh~”

“AAAnngghhh~”

Felberta's body twitched uncontrollably before she arched her body and her juices gushed out without pause.

Nux's whole hand was covered in her juices, he felt her grip around him weakening, he stood up and questioned.

“M-Mam, was my performance satisfactory?” He sounded very nervous.

Viscount Felberta, on the other hand, was breathing heavily before she slowly raised her eyes to meet his and replied,

“Haah... Satisfactory? It was Haah... as if you have done Haah... this countless times...”

Hearing that, Nux shook his head in panic as he replied, “N-No I d-did not! I... I just thought that I will be doing something like this soon, so I started reading about it so that I can do my very best...” His last sentence was almost inaudible as he lowered his voice in shame.

Viscount Felberta chuckled hearing that, but then she was surprised by the unexpected action Nux did.

He sat down on the chair, before patting his thigh, with a face as red as a tomato, he spoke,

“I-I also read that after the woman cums... it would feel better if she sits on the man’s lap...”

“Haha... a man, huh...” Felberta chuckled weakly as she saw him sitting there with a red face but then, she stood up and walked towards him before sitting on his lap.

“What the book said is really true... it does feel better than before...”
Saying that, Felberta leaned her back on Nux’s chest before she closed her eyes.

Nux smiled as he rolled his arms over her thin waist and placed his chin on her shoulder.

‘Maybe one more day, and she will be mine’ He thought inwardly.

What Viscount didn’t notice was how she turned from someone who was always in control of the situation to someone who is sitting on his lap, tired and unable to move, and how scarily quick this whole transition was.

Of course, even if she does notice this, she wouldn’t care about this since right now, she was too tired and was busy enjoying the Nux’s cuddles.

Nux also wanted to knead her breasts but he knew his limit. He will wait a little more. Viscount Felberta’s mind is clearing up little by little, he needs to act meek right now and just have a blush on his face...

Nux and Felberta stayed like that for a little longer, but Nux knew that they couldn’t continue like this for a long time and muttered shyly.

“M-Mam, I think your break is about to end, you should stand up now”

“Mm? No need, let me stay here like this, we still have an hour”

“But we also have to get this place cleaned, and...” Without saying any further, Nux started fixing her panties, and then her gown. There was no way he was going to let go of this chance to make her more dependent on him.

“You can’t do your work like this, can you?” He muttered.

A small smile appeared on Viscount’s face; she waited for him to fix her clothes before she finally opened her eyes and stood up lazily.

“You are right, let me go to the bathroom, you ask a maid to clean this place. Okay?”

Nux nodded, this time, although his face was still red, it was not to a degree where his movements were slow and stiff, showing that he is adapting to all the changes. It was also his way of slowly gaining control over the whole situation.

Not noticing anything, the viscount left and then Nux called the maid and got everything cleaned.

15 minutes later, Felberta returned, she had already fixed her makeup; looking at her giving off a strong and independent woman’s aura, nobody could imagine she was the same lady who sat on Nux’s lap powerlessly.

“Hmm? There are still around 40 minutes before my work resumes, what should we do by then?” She asked.

“Y-you still haven’t eaten your lunch yet, mam... so you should eat it first.”

“Ah! I completely forgot about that...”

I wonder why is that? Hmm, maybe it’s because I have been having nutrients through some other means that I don’t feel hungry anymore, what do you think?” She smiled mischievously as she glanced at Nux’s crotch and licked her lips.

Nux's face turned red as he lowered his gaze in embarrassment. To divert her attention, he ordered the maid to bring lunch and acted as if nothing happened, however, he did not look very convincing with that red face of his.

“Hahaha~” Felberta laughed out loud when she saw him acting like that.

The maids in this palace were efficient as ever.

As if they were just waiting for the order, delicious and sizzling food was brought into the office.

After the maids left, Felberta smiled before she glanced at Nux and teased, “Now Nux, where should I sit? Does your lap sound good?”

Nux blushed and Felberta laughed,

‘It is really fun to tease him... Hahaha’

Just as she was about to sit on her seat, Nux's voice was heard,

“Y-You can if you want to”

She glanced at Nux who was sitting on his chair with a red face, patting his thigh while avoiding her gaze.

Viscount was surprised by his response, she just wanted to tease him a little, she never thought he would take it seriously. She wanted to shake her head and deny but when she glanced at his lap, something inside her stopped her.

‘It is very comfortable there...’

She walked towards him and sat on his lap, her face had a tinge of red which she desperately wanted to hide from Nux. Noticing this, Nux smiled inwardly while he pretended that he didn't notice the red face at all.

‘Just wait... it is still not the time yet...’

He was very patient.

The viscount made herself comfortable on her new seat before she hid her embarrassment and replied.

“Alright, now feed me”

Expecting something like that from her, Nux shook his head inwardly while he nodded with a red face.

By the time the two of them were done with the lunch, it was already the time for the break to end.

“Okay, it’s time for you to leave, but don’t miss me too much okay? I’ll return soon.” Felberta teased as she stood up from his lap.

After he left, a smile appeared on his face as he thought about today’s gains.

He got one step closer to his goal, if he wished, he could complete his tonight but he decided not to rush things and be a little more patient.

A few good things happened today, the first one being that he touched her little sister. He also got her to sit on his lap and then the last one was where he got her to feed him.

Yes, after he was done feeding her, the viscount offered him to do the same, which he of course accepted with a ‘blush’.

He thought about tonight and decided that he would let her decide the pace for today. If he is the one deciding everything, he might give her a feeling of not being in control which he did not want, not until she is more attached to him.

At the same time, he was also surprised by the monstrous ability he had, the [Craving Touch]. He still remembered her slightly red face when he entered her office and when he touched her canal, it was already wet.

‘She might have masturbated but after noticing it did not work, she called me.’

That was straight-up scary...

On the other side, as Joyab entered the office he saw an unusually energetic Viscount Felberta sitting with bright, shiny eyes as she declared.

“Alright, let’s end what’s left so that we can leave and go back home as soon as possible!”

Chapter 14

The next day, Nux and Fleberta were in a rush since it was already 8 in the morning and Felberta has to get ready by nine.

“Ugghh! This is all because of you, who told you to have morning boners every morning? Not only that, you even had the galls to rub your tent on my ass!”

Viscount Felberta exclaimed in frustration.

Nux on the other hand froze when he heard that and complained inwardly,

‘What the hell are you talking about woman? How the hell do I control myself when I am hugging you? And I am rubbing my tent on you? Who are you kidding? Who was the one who was wiggling her fat ass in front of my dick and started teasing me? HUH?’

Of course, he can’t say that out loud so he continued his act as his face turned red,

“I-I am sorry... I w-would make sure I don’t get like that in the morning...”

“Ah! No, you don’t have to do that... it’s a good sign that you get hard every morning, don’t change it”

Viscount Felberta felt that she lost something precious when she heard him and quickly corrected him.

“O-Okay, I’ll make sure to get as hard as I can get every morning then...”

This time, it was Viscount Felberta’s turn to turn red, she was dumbfounded by his answer but in the end, she could only nod.

“G-Good”

The chaotic morning continued, maids were called to clean the bed which had Nux's milk spread all over. Felberta rushed into the bathroom while Nux continued staring at the maids cleaning his jizz with an expressionless face.

It was as if they were trained to not show any expression in any situation.

Noticing that, an uncontrollable urge to see some lewd expressions on these maids' faces welled inside Nux's head.

At that moment, the maids' bodies quivered for some unknown reason, it was as if they were locked onto by some wild beast.

Around 45 minutes later, Viscount Felberta entered the room, ready to go to the party, she was wearing an eye-catching black gown which was made from silk, and her hair was combed into a bun while she only had light makeup on. Combining all of this with her beautiful face and a succubus like body, she looked really captivating.

"How do I look?" She glanced towards Nux and questioned.

"..." Nux stood where he was, frozen.

She furrowed her brows and waved her hand, "Hello? Nux?"

"Ah! Huh?"

"How do I look?"

"Beautiful... too beautiful...." He muttered softly before he came out of his reverie and replied, "Ah! I mean, you look really good, Mam"

Satisfied by his reaction, the viscount nodded and smiled, "Alright, I will take my leave now. You take care of yourself, ask the maids if you want anything, okay?"

Nux does not have the status to go with her, in the end, he was just a boy toy. Even though Viscount Felberta might not see him like that, in others' eyes, he is just that. Of course, Nux wasn't too bothered either, it has just been 2 days since he came to this world, he isn't in a rush to rise in position.

Who knows? Maybe at the next party like this one, he might be called as a chief guest?

Of course, Nux didn't forget to take advantage of this situation and deepen his impression in Viscount's mind.

"Y-Yes, c-come back soon..." Nux muttered softly.

"Oh? Why should I come back soon? Would you miss me if I don't?"

"Ye- No! No! I mean, take your time and please enjoy the party to its fullest extent... I'll wait for you..." Nux replied with a red face.

"Hahaha~ Don't worry, I was just teasing you. I will come back as soon as possible." The viscount smiled as she left.

As she entered the living room, Felberta saw two women, wearing red and purple silk gowns sitting in front of her chatting with each other with smiles on their faces.

These two were Florence Rieds and Willa Harte, both of them were viscounts and Felberta's close friends.

There were two men wearing the same suit as Joyab standing behind them. These two were their butlers.

Willa noticed Felberta coming and stood up as she greeted, "Morning, Sister Fel"

Florence also stood up and her eyes brightened when they fell on Felberta.

“Oh ho, someone is looking really charming today? What’s the matter? How come your face is looking so bright and lively?”

“Huh? What do you mean? Don’t I always look bright and lively?”

“Ha! There you go again with your narcissism.” Florence rolled her eyes.

“But Flor is right, although you are always a charmer, you do look a little different today...” Willa muttered.

Although Flor and Willa were not as beautiful as Fel, they could still be called beauties in their own right. Flor had a petite body, blonde hair, and a small nose, combined with her energetic attitude, she looked lively and cute and was the youngest of the three, being only 24 years old.

Willa, on the other hand, was the opposite, her breasts were larger than Fel’s, combined with her black hair with brownish texture, she had a motherly charm and was the oldest of the group, being 31 years old.

“C’mon sister Willa, I know she is a lost cause, but why are you teaming up with her?” Felberta complained.

“Haah!? Who are you calling a lost cause!? You wanna fight!?” Flor snapped.

“Hahaha!” The two others started laughing and then Willa muttered, “Alright, we can talk in the carriage, let’s go, we can’t be late for this party”

Felberta and Florence nodded as the three women entered the carriage.

After a 1 hour ride on the carriage, the three appeared in front of a large mansion where different people wearing expensive-looking clothes were roaming around.

Seeing the lively atmosphere, Flor took a deep breath as she rejoiced, “Haah! This feels good! Finally! I don’t have to stay in my stinky mansion doing stinky work!”

Fel and Willa rolled their eyes when they heard her. The three of them were accompanied by their respective butlers and Flor's butler couldn't help but shake his head inwardly as he lamented.

'Why are you even complaining, I am the one doing all the work...you just sit there and complain...'

Nobody knew his troubles...

While the three were looking around excitedly, a voice was heard which caused the three of them, along with their butlers to furrow their brows, especially Joyab.

"Viscount Felberta, I see you are looking as stunning as always"

"Yes, that is true, I do look stunning even if I do say so myself, but Viscount Heydon, I must stay, you are still as uncreative and ever. This is the 13th time I have heard you repeating the same line to start the conversation."

Felberta turned around as she saw a man standing behind her, his face twitching due to her reply.

He was Heydon Youngee, a Viscount who fancies Fel but was rejected and now he pesters her everywhere they meet hoping to win her heart.

Appearance-wise, although he couldn't be called ugly, he wasn't handsome either. Blonde hair, refined attire, pointy nose combined with that mole on his cheek, gave him a cunning look, which, actually isn't far from his actual personality.

Of course, no matter how cunning he is, he never dared to use any tricks on Viscount Felberta.

No, it was not because he was scared of some rules or something like that, but because he was scared of Felberta herself.

A beautiful woman with a dead husband, a mother of one, and a noble Viscount to boot; who won't be charmed by her and would want to make her his? Many tried but they all failed.

Her being able to survive in these conditions proves that although she may look like a mere viscount, she was not as simple as that.

Heydon, considering this factor searched her past and learned a piece of shocking news.

A few years back, there was an Earl who fancied Felberta and wanted to make her his concubine, after being rejected, he raged and decided to drug her and force himself upon her.

Not only did his plan fail, but Felberta even demanded compensation, thinking that it should be solved with this payment, Earl agreed.

But ‘coincidentally’ the day after he delivered the compensation, all his crimes were exposed to the public along with their proofs.

Of course, there is no noble in this world who hasn’t committed any crime.

But as they say, cheating is not an act worth punishing, getting caught is.

The king was forced to take action and the Earl was demoted to a mere baron.

Of course, the punishment wasn’t as simple as it looked, how could an ex-earl now a baron, survive while being in the bad books of one Viscount and countless other enemies he created while being an Earl?

Unable to take the pressure, the Earl sold all his properties and left the kingdom.

What happened to him later was unknown.

Knowing this, Heydon dared not play any tricks. Even an Earl was unable to escape, how could he, a mere viscount take this risk? Although he liked beauties, he liked his life even more.

“Alright, if you have nothing else to say, we will be taking our leave, since we have to meet a few of our friends later”

Seeing that he was thinking about something, Felberta took this chance and walked away without giving him another glance.

Heydon gritted his teeth, and then his eyes fell on another woman. Fixing his hair, he smiled and walked toward her,

“Viscount Friede, I see you are looking as stunning as ever...”

...

The party started, in truth, normal birthday parties are only held in the evening, but Marques Eduart really adores his daughter and therefore launched this grand party which covers breakfast, lunch, and dinner for the whole day.

In these types of grand parties, only low ranking nobles like barons and viscounts are required to arrive by the morning. Actually, in the past, it was these low ranking nobles who arrived in the morning to build connections, but as the time passed, it became a trend and it was considered disrespectful if a baron or a viscount doesn't arrive in the morning.

So right now, all the people here were either barons or viscounts. Of course, the noteworthy thing was that Marques Eduart personally greeted all the guests without caring if they were barons or viscounts. This made everyone happy, and they even felt lucky that they joined this party.

After the Marques left, the barons tried to get into Viscount's good books, some introduced their children to each other, and some formed relationships in other ways.

Of course, as experienced nobles, Fel and her friends didn't bother with viscounts and barons, they just greeted their friends before the three sat together and started chatting, catching up with each other.

Although Fel, who was enjoying the conversation had already started missing a certain someone.

Time passed and afternoon fell, this was the time for the Earls to make their entry.

One by one, all the Earls entered the hall, and after greeting each other; they were greeted by viscounts and barons. Even Fel and her friends greeted the Earls they knew before everyone sat at the table and had their lunch. This time, Fel and her friends didn't sit alone, they were with a few Earls along with some other Viscounts.

Fel, however, was already feeling that familiar sensation inside her little sister. She closed her legs tightly and straightened her back as she suppressed the feeling before she smiled and continued eating.

After lunch, the garden was opened, Fel and her group excused themselves as they walked towards the garden, getting some fresh air.

Time passed and it was time for the main party to start, starting with Marquess, then the four Dukes of the kingdom, and finally the 3 princes, all these big faces appeared one by one.

After another round of greetings, Fel finally couldn't take it any longer as she spoke, "Willa, Flor, I need to go the bathroom, I'll be quick, okay?"

"Kay~" Flor replied and waved her hand nonchalantly while Willa nodded.

Felberta walked away elegantly but when she detected no one around her, she quickened her pace and rushed into the bathroom before sitting on the seat and plunging her finger into her little sister.

"Ahh~ The relief~"

Chapter 15

After a quick session of self-care, and suppressing the tingling feeling to a great extent, Felberta fixed her hair and her dress before walking out of the bathroom and joining Florence and Willa.

“Hah? What took you so long?” Flor questioned as she raised her eyebrows.

“Nothing, I was just fixing my makeup a little.”

“Hmph! Then why don’t I see any changes? Your face just got a little red like a monkey!” Flor Snickered.

“Yo-”

“Alright, alright, stop fighting, there are dukes and princes here, think about your image.” Willa, as mature as always stepped in before the two could embarrass themselves.

“Also Fel, you came at the right time, the Marques daughter is about to appear”

“Oh right! Have you seen the Marques daughter before? I once got a chance to and I can tell that she is prettier than Fel!” Flor chimed.

“Hmm? I also saw her before, although she is indeed beautiful, I can say for sure that she is at best, on par with our Fel, why would you say she’s prettier than her?” Willa questioned.

“Tsk Tsk, Fel is already an old woman, in just a few more years, her face will be full of wrinkles, how can she be on par with the girl who is in her prime right now” Flor snickered.

Felberta’s lips twitched when she heard that.

Noticing that, Willa quickly changed the topic, “Oh, I also heard that Candice, the Marques’s daughter is one of the strongest students in the Royal Academy. It is said that she’s one of the most talented individuals in the empire right now and has a bright future ahead.

Not only that, even the Empress asked her hand for marriage for her son, the first prince. Although the Marques rejected, saying that she would be the one deciding who she marries.”

“What? The first prince? How can someone reject him? Just look at his face, he is so handsome! Money, Power, and, face; what does he not have? He is a perfect man!” Flor glanced at the prince with stars in her eyes.

Although Felberta would have agreed with her in the past, now when she glances at the prince’s face, another face, which is a lot more attractive than his appeared in her mind and she shook her head with a smile.

She then glanced at Flor and furrowed her brows.

‘I have to keep this bitch in heat away from him. Otherwise, she’ll find all sorts of ways to pester me to get hands on him’

A few minutes later, Candice Waters, the star of the party appeared. And though unwilling, Fel admitted she was indeed a beauty.

She had blonde hair just like her father, fair, delicate skin, beautiful blue irises, wearing a sky blue coloured gown with a dark blue design, she carried herself with elegance and a smile on her cherry-like lips.

A beauty who is talented and has a bright future ahead of her.

Felberta subconsciously compared herself with her, and couldn’t help but shake her head.

Flor is right, although she was beautiful, in a few more years, wrinkles would start appearing on her face. It could have been avoided if she had cultivated since young, but she, like many other lower-level nobles thought that creating more contacts is much more important than cultivation and ignored it.

By the time she matured and realized its importance, it was already too late.

This was also her biggest regret in her life and also the reason why she forced her son to join the Royal Academy even though he had the same thought as the past her.

Sigh...

Felberta sighed deeply before she shook her head to get rid of these useless thoughts.

A face appeared in her mind as she smiled,

‘I am sure he is missing me right now. I wonder if he is crying sitting in a corner with his face on his knees~ Fufufu~’

She was eager to go back home.

The party continued, many boys tried to impress Candice, even the princes but she, like an untainted flower rejected them all with a smile.

On the other side, the political war between the three princes had already started.

Right now, three princes each have a Duke supporting them, as for the fourth duke, who should have been the breaking point and the deciding factor of this game, he decided to stay neutral since the one he supports is the second princess who, for some reason has no wish to participate in this battle.

Of course, although a woman becoming a queen is rare, it was not like it did not happen in the past. Not only that but it was noticed that every time a woman ascends to the throne, the kingdom has seen unprecedented glory.

But when he learned that the Second princess has no desire to fight for the throne, he declared his neutrality and stayed back.

This caused the other princes to focus on other nobles, the Marquesses and the Earls, so they started securing the support of these nobles while the viscounts and barons readily tried to ‘support’ any prince so they could rise in ranking.

This game continued till dinner.

Felberta, on the other hand, was already getting impatient and uncomfortable since the suppressed tingling feeling inside her little sister has already started acting.

Flor and Willa also noticed her weird attitude and asked in worry, she just shook her head, saying she was not feeling well and continued eating dinner.

The dinner ended, and many nobles still stayed talking about various things, mostly discussing which prince to support or how to win the heart of Candice Waters, who might be the next pillar of the kingdom.

This time, Felberta didn’t wait any longer and as soon as the dinner ended, she rushed back to her mansion.

Seeing her walking figure, Florence couldn’t help but mutter.

“It looks like she really is sick...”

Chapter 16

Author Notes:

I had 2 major things to address, I know that after reading the chapter, you wouldn't bother reading author notes and would rush to the s, so I will write about it here.

1st, Spam Reviews.

DaoiseCxRH5L, look my friend, I really appreciate how much you like and love my novel but think about it from my side,

I promise you guys extra chapters for your reviews because I want more readers to read my novel and then give a genuine review. It would raise my novel rankings, reading time, valid reads, in the end getting more views and reaching more readers, and you guys will get your extra chapter, but now you have posted around 40 reviews, making my total reviews reach 50, but I only have around 15 genuine reviews.

That isn't really fair to me, right? Isn't that the same thing as me reducing chapters length from 1000 to 250 words and then posting 16 chapters a day? You guys will be disappointed as well right?

So let's do this, since you have posted 40 reviews, with 3 different reviews saying different things, I will treat them as 3 reviews and give you guys extra chapters calculating that.

I hope you understand my plight and please don't get offended, I really value all my readers, especially readers who love my work!!

If you guys still feel I am in the wrong, comment here, and I will try to post more than 20 chapters... but please think about it from my side as well...

Now the second issue, the readers are divided into 2 parts, some wanting 1st option, some the 2nd (chapter 5's Author's note)

So what I will do is I will take DespairHope's suggestion and divide the girls into two categories, 1st, being the main harem, the girls with real personalities and characters.

The 2nd one will be combat maids or maid assassins, you can choose between these two options.

Thank you <3

...

As soon as Viscount Felberta reached her mansion, she jumped out of her carriage and rushed towards her room, although the servants were surprised by her actions they didn't dare ask anything and her two maids started following behind her silently, keeping up with her with ease.

Seeing a familiar figure sitting in front of her room, Felberta smiled and shouted excitedly,

"Nux!"

"Ma-"

Nux wanted to act like he was excited seeing the viscount again but he didn't expect her to rush into him and hug her without thinking about anything.

He then noticed the unusual stiffness in her legs and understood what happened.

Again, surprised by the ridiculously overpowered ability he has, he glanced at the maids and ordered,

"I'll take care of Viscount Felberta from here; you can excuse yourself for the day"

The maids noticed the change in his tone in just two days but seeing the viscount acting like that, they shook their heads and bowed before leaving.

Nux on the other hand, smiled as he held Felberta's plump butt and carried her into her room. Though surprised by his actions, the viscount didn't complain and let him do what he wanted to.

Nux then gently placed her on the bed before he said in a soft tone, "Mam, you must be tired, let me massage your body and help you relax"

This time, there was no stutter in his words, his tone only carried a gentle but a compelling tone.

"Mm," Felberta nodded before she closed her eyes.

"Then shall I help you remove your gown?"

Surprised by his words, Felberta opened her eyes and glanced at Nux.

Nux blushed before he explained, "You know how difficult it is to massage without direct skin contact, since I want you to feel the best, I request you to remove your gown"

Finding his explanation logical, she nodded and allowed him to remove her gown.

A small smile appeared on Nux's face before he quickly removed her gown and glanced at Felberta lying on the bed wearing nothing but a sexy black coloured bra and panties, with her back facing him. He also opened her hair since he liked open hair rather than the bun.

With everything ready, he rubbed his hands together before she started with her shoulders, and slowly started moving down, her back shoulders, to her back, then her lower back, before he started kneading her plump ass with extra care and gentleness.

"Anh~"

Jolts of pleasure assaulted Felberta's body, she wanted to question what he was doing but when his hands kneaded her butt, the tingling feeling which had been suppressed after she hugged erupted, and this time, it was far stronger than before. Combined with how good it felt when he touched her butt, she completely forgot all her questions and gave up.

However, before she could thoroughly enjoy the feeling, Nux's hand continued down to her plump thighs and then to her legs and feet.

Feeling frustrated, she wanted to tell him to continue massaging her buttocks and thighs, but she then felt his hands coming back to her legs, noticing the pattern, she stayed silent and enjoyed the massage.

Nux smiled widened seeing her acting like that.

Of course, this time, he wasn't here to just massage her body, he was here to complete the mission and make Felberta his. Thinking it was time to jump to the next step, he massaged her butt before moving up.

As his hands moved towards her back, Felberta shook her head inwardly before her eyes widened when she felt something touching her little sister.

She quickly turned her head and saw a huge tent right in front of her little sister, she then glanced at Nux who was still massaging her back. Then he leaned forwards to massage her shoulders and his tent started rubbing her canal.

"Anh~"

She released a soft moan, Nux however 'wasn't able to hear it'.

Her little sister started trembling, the tingling sensation this time was incomparably stronger than before.

Gulp~

An image appeared in her mind and she gulped thinking about that possibility.

"Haah... Nux," She called out.

"Yes?"

"I Haah... I want you to massage me down there..."

Nux then stood up before he touched her butt and questioned, "Here?"

"No, there"

Nux's face turned red before he touched her little sister and questioned, "Here?"

"Yes..."

"Okay..." Nux nodded before he started 'massaging' around her canal, enhancing her sensitivity.

"Mmnh~ N-No, not with your hands,"

"Then how should I do it?" Nux questioned, perplexed.

Felberta glanced at his crotch as she answered, "W-With that..."

"Wha- What?" Nux stuttered as he blushed.

He couldn't believe what she just asked.

"J-Just do it!" Felberta ordered, her tone stern, although it would have been better if she wasn't stuttering.

"A-As you s-say..." Nux nodded with a face as red as a tomato before he lowered his pant and a big, 8-inch monster popped out.

Gulp

Felberta gulped audibly, her anticipation and excitement, both were on another level.

Nux also didn't waste much time, he skillfully removed her panties, and his rod directly entered her canal.

"Ooohhh~"

"Annnhhh~"

With her insides already wet from all the teasing and stimulations, Nux's dick directly slipped into her deepest part without any resistance whatsoever.

"AAnnhh~"

Felberta moaned in delight. All the tingling she felt the whole day finally subsided and was replaced with the immense amount of pleasure, the pleasure so extreme that her eyes rolled and she took a deep breath before she let out a loud moan.

She felt as if she was finally full. It has been 7 years since her husband died, well, though she did call him her husband there was no romantic feeling between them. So after they had a son, they never had sex.

Also, his weapon was a little small so she can't really say she felt very good when they did it, which, is completely different from now, where she was on cloud nine in just a single thrust.

"Ugghhh~"

Of course, Felberta wasn't the only one feeling good. The two times virgin who finally lost his virginity feels jolts of pleasure assaulting his body as her warm and squishy insides clustered around his dick while her womb was already sucking his dick deeper and deeper as if it wanted to engulf the whole thing.

If not for the training that he had been through in the last two days, he would have just cummed in this single thrust.

Taking a deep breath, he collected his thoughts as he pulled back his dick before plunging it even deeper than before.

"AAnnhh~"

"Ugghhh~"

Relishing the otherworldly feeling, Nux paused for a moment before he drilled her again, then again, and again, before he lost in pleasure and continued.

"AAnnhh~ AAnnhh~ AAnnhh~"

"Ugghhh~ Ugghhh~ Ugghhh~"

The two moaned as they mated like animals. Nux tried to go deeper with every thrust. Felberta clenched the bedsheets hard as she bit her lips so that she can control her moans, but it was clear that she failed miserably.

Noticing that he was about to come, Nux slowed his thrusts before,

Click

With a single click, he unplugged her bra and removed it. He then turned her body, making her face him.

Felberta opened her eyes and seeing his naked body and otherworldly face covered with sweat, she smiled.

She wasn't alone, even Nux was enjoying the view of her raven hair spread all over, a smile that was on her cherry-like juicy looking lips while her delicious looking twins moved up and down as she breathed.

He did not waste any more time as he bent down and started licking her pink nipple while he kneaded her other breast with his hands.

Another jolt of pleasure assaulted the viscount,

"AAnnhh~"

She moaned in pleasure before she grabbed his head and forced it deeper into her chest.

Her lower body twitched in pleasure, her canals tightened, squishing and crushing his dick with her soft insides.

"Ugggggnnhhh~"

Unable to cope with sudden pleasure, his milk burst out and he came.

As his thick milk filled her insides, it was as if her last wall was broken and she moaned in ecstasy before her juices gushed out as well.

"AAnnnnnnhhhh~"

Suddenly, Nux felt some weird power flowing into his body, he wanted to check what it was but he was too tired to, also, he wanted to relish this heavenly feeling without any sort of interruptions.

Nux then let his body fall on top of Felberta's, both of them didn't have the power to think about anything and stayed in the same position for the time being.

After a while, when Nux finally had the power to move, he moved to the right of the viscount. Noticing the movement, she opened her eyes, and when her black irises looked into his golden eyes, she smiled sweetly as she nodded.

"It felt really good..."

Nux didn't answer, he just moved his weak body close to her and sealed her lips with his own.

He didn't use his tongue since he was tired, so he just sucked her juicy lips for a while before he returned to his original place and nodded.

"It really did"

Felberta on the other hand was dumbfounded and couldn't react to his sudden action at all. She just felt something amazing on her lips before the feeling disappeared, confusing and shocking her at the same time.

"You are quite bold..."

She commented.

"I-I read it in the book..." Nux blushed as he tried to avoid eye contact.

Viscount smiled as she lifted her head and kissed his lips.

"I would really like to see the book you are reading~"

This sentence caused Nux to sweat uncontrollably.

Did he read any book? Of course, he did not!

Heck, he didn't even know how to read!

Of course, as a professional actor, he continued his acting without panic and nodded with a red face.

A few more minutes later, he finally removed his little brother out of her little sister before he moved her body a little hugged her from behind.

He also did not forget to place his dick in the second most comfortable position which was between Felberta's plump thighs while slightly touching her canal.

The viscount's body trembled a little but she was too tired to say or do anything, so she directly closed her eyes and enjoyed Nux's gentle kneading of her breast with a smile on her face.

Seeing her like that, Nux chuckled inwardly but just as he was about to close his eyes, he heard a sound in his mind.

[Ding!]

[Mission Accomplished!]

Chapter 17

[Ding]

[Mission: Fuck Felberta Alveye]

[Would you like to receive the rewards?]

[Y/N]

Excited, Nux pressed yes quickly.

[Ding!]

[Fusing Eye Of Discerning into host's body]

Suddenly, Nux felt unbearable pain in his eyes, but noticing Felberta sleeping soundly beside him, he gritted his teeth and used all his willpower to not scream in pain.

Veins popped on his forehead while his whole body trembled.

“UUggghh...”

Suddenly, drops of blood trailed out of his eyes and it continued for a while.

After a while, the pain finally subsided and a message popped out.

[Ding!]

[Eye Of Discerning fused successfully]

Nux breathed heavily before he wiped the blood and opened his eyes. If one looked closely, different golden coloured patterns could be seen moving inside his golden irises, making him look more mysterious.

His eyes then fell on Felberta and suddenly, a screen popped out.

[Harem Members: Felberta Alveye]

He levelled up!

He calculated and concluded that with each level up, he gains 2 stat points for every attribute other than the intelligence stat, which he only gains 1 point for and 3 blank points.

That means, he gets a total of 14 points with each upgrade. That's fucking overpowered!

He thought about why he didn't get 2 points for intelligence stat but was unable to come up with an explanation so he shrugged.

'Wait, will my stats increase if I work out?'

'Wait... why did I not think about this when I arrived in this world!? Ahh! I was too busy finding ways to fuck Fel!'

Hmm? Is this what they call post nut clarity?

Okay, let's not think about this nonsense. Let's sleep; I'll wake up early in the morning, and test my theory out.'

Thinking this, he tightened his hug around Felberta and entered the dreamland.

The next day, Felberta woke up with a satisfied smile on her face, she turned around before her eyes widened as she couldn't find Nux!

All her drowsiness disappeared as she called the maids, "Skyla! Lane!" There was a tone of urgency in her voice.

"Master," two women quickly rushed into the room as they bowed.

“Where is Nux?”

The two maids glanced at each other before one called Skyla replied, “Master, Nu- Um, Master Nux is in the garden” She didn’t know how to address Nux after the... night the Viscount and he had so just called him master.

“Hmm? What is he doing in the garden?” Fel questioned.

“H-”

“Leave it, I’ll go check it out myself” Before they could answer, Fel quickly stood up and just as she was about to leave, Skyla shouted.

“Master! At least wear some clothes!”

Fel looked down before she blushed a little, clearing her throat; she quickly wore a normal gown and walked towards the garden with two maids following her.

As she walked into the garden, Felberta saw a handsome man, drenched in sweat doing pushups on the ground.

Although Fel could see his arms quivering, he continued and after a few more, his body finally fell. Fel wanted to rush towards him but when she saw a satisfied smile that suddenly appeared on his face, she stopped and decided to look at him a little more.

Nux who was now lying on the ground smiled as he saw his status. His experiment was proved successful, although he didn't receive many stats, his defence still improved by one point and he could feel that if he continued for a few more days, his strength would increase as well.

He was regretting his decision of adding some of his points to his agility and stamina but he didn't think too much about it. He can't play with his life, he was sure he could gain many points in future.

This was not his only gain though, he experimented a little and found out that unlike his [Craving Touch], [Eye Of Discretion] was an active skill that would activate whenever he thought about it.

It was a good thing, it would be weird if he was in front of a large group and all he could see is the system screen.

He chuckled as he stood up and just as he turned, he saw Felberta looking at him with a smile on her face. He smiled back before he activated his [Eye Of Discretion] and his eyes widened in surprise.

‘They can crush me with their fingers...’

He gulped inwardly and swore that he would treat them with respect.

Now that he thinks about it, he realized that a viscount like Felberta can’t possibly be left around unprotected. If not, then even random cultivators could destroy a noble’s whole house and chaos would ensue. He also noticed that MP stat which he did not see on his own, or Felberta’s status, thinking that it may appear after he levels up a little, he ignored it.

“Why the sudden need to exercise?” While Nux was lost in his thoughts, Fel questioned with an amused smile.

“I just thought I should start exercising a little now that...”, he blushed midsentence and stopped.

“Now that what?”

“Nothing...” Nux replied as he sneaked a few glances towards Fel’s crotch area.

Understanding what he was thinking Fel blushed and just as she was about to say something, Nux continued.

“By the way, you look really beautiful today, Lady Fel”

He also subtly changed the way he addressed her. He can’t stay in this weak position forever, right? Nux had decided to initiate his second plan. Of course, he will still be patient with everything since he knew he should not rush things.

Surprised by the sudden compliment, Fel didn’t know how to react and retorted,

“Huh? What do you mean? I didn’t even take a bath yet”

“So what? Just look at your face, other women can’t have this beauty even if they bathe 100 times a day” Nux hushed and before she could even react he walked towards her and continued.

“Of course, after you take bath, you will look even more attractive and also, you are getting late for the office so let’s get going. Sister Lane, please prepare bathwater for Lady Fel”

Saying that, he took Fel’s hand as they walked toward her room.

Lane on the other hand was confused, ‘How did he know my name?’

...

“You changed” As she was walking with Nux, the viscount muttered.

“Huh?”

“I said you changed. You are bolder than usual...”

“W-Well, I did transform into a Man from a Boy...” Nux replied as he blushed.

“A man?” Fel muttered before she thought about a possibility.

“Wait, is that the reason you were working out this morning?”

“...” Nux didn’t reply as he continued walking while he tried to hide his red face.

“Hahaha~ So that’s why~ Now I know why you were acting so weirdly, you became a man! Hahaha~” Fel laughed out loud while Nux continued walking without responding.

As they walked inside her room, Fel smiled mischievously as she questioned,

“But Nux, what if I want you to stay how you were?”

“I can’t do that” Nux replied instantly.

“Oh? But didn’t you say you will do whatever I want you to?”

Fel questioned with an amused smile when suddenly, Nux stopped walking before he cornered her to a wall and placed his hand in front of her shoulder, cutting all her escape routes.

His movements were so fast that Fel couldn’t react to them.

“I did say that, Lady Fel. But I won’t do anything that you might be sad about in the future even if it is you who tells me to”

Although surprised and a little excited for some reason, Fel kept her calm as she questioned,

“Oh? Why would I be sad if you stay like the cute little boy you are?”

Nux smiled at her question before he closed his eyes, tilted his face and moved closer to her.

Fel’s heartbeat quickened, she closed her eyes and moved her lips a little forward but suddenly, she felt Nux’s lips moving past hers and they arrived in front of her right ear as he whispered seductively.

“Oh you will~ You will definitely miss out on a lot of things if I stay like the cute little boy I was. Why don’t you trust me with this one? Kay?”

Felberta’s heart raced and her face turned red, and as if compelled by some force, she nodded weakly.

She only opened her eyes when she felt Nux had moved away from her.

But unexpectedly, instead of his confident look, she thought he would have, she found a Nux with a bright red face as he muttered,

“I-I am still not very e-experienced with this... g-give me some time...”

“...” Felberta didn’t know how to act. Her emotions were in turmoil, she found the ‘man’ Nux extremely attractive but she also found this ‘boy’ Nux extremely cute. She was confused about who was better.

But just as she thought about this question, the image of Nux cornering her into a wall popped into her mind, she felt her little sister tingling and she quickly came to an answer.

She then glanced at Nux who was blushing and avoiding her eye contact and couldn’t help but laugh out loud.

“Hahaha~ Alright, I am getting late. I’ll go and have a bath while um... you do whatever you want.”

Nux nodded and Fel quickly walked towards the bathroom.

Her heart was still beating rapidly as if she ran a marathon.

Her face was red as she recalled her being pushed into a wall.

“Dangerous... that was too dangerous... My heart nearly exploded”

She muttered.

Chapter 18

Author's Note: Alright, you guys, from now on, the chapters will have the normal length, 1000 words.

Thank you for bearing with me on this weird rollercoaster-like ride.

I hope you Enjoy the future chapters.

Right now Viscount Felberta was sitting inside her big bathtub wearing absolutely nothing, her face was red and her movements were stiff. At the moment, her mind was occupied by a single person, and that was Nux.

Remembering how he pushed her to the wall her face turned even redder as she snorted, "Hmph! How dare he talk to me like that! He has become a 'Man' he says..."

Suddenly, the images of him drilling his hard dick into her appeared in her mind and her movements stopped,

"But it did feel good though..."

"What felt good? Lady Fel?" Suddenly she heard a familiar but unfamiliar voice, she turned back and saw Nux standing in front of her, completely naked other than a towel covering his crotch.

"W-Why are you here?" She questioned with a flustered look on her face. She did not expect him to appear in front of her like that just when she was thinking about him.

"Hm? I figured that I should help you take bath and decided to come here" saying that, he walked into the bathtub and sat beside her as if it was completely normal.

In reality, even Nux was feeling a little embarrassed and shy about this, he was worried that his actions might backfire but then he shoved all his worries away.

He had to take the risk, he can't stay too passive or he will stay like a boy toy forever. He needs to be bolder and more unrestrained.

Of course, he could only do it now because he was sure that the Viscount can't live without him anymore. So although she might punish him if she was dissatisfied, she won't kill him.

And since the rewards were enough, he decided to take this risk.

“Ha? When did I say I needed your help to take bath?” Felberta questioned.

“How can someone as intelligent and beautiful as you need someone's help to take bath? I just thought that it would be more convenient for you if I did that. After all, I was brought here so you can relax, wasn't I?” He says that as he picked her up and placed her on his lap. He then positioned his chin on her shoulder and questioned seductively.

“I am sure you prefer it that way, don't you?”

And before she could reply, he offered,

“Of course, if it's uncomfortable for you in any way. Just say a word and I'll leave as quickly as possible”

He even slightly pushed her away as he said that.

“No! I-It's okay. You can do it if you want to...”

She couldn't win against this 'man' Nux...

Nux smiled and picked up the soap as he replied,

“Then I believe I should start it quickly since viscount must be getting late”

He picked her a bit and then placed her in a more comfortable position, for him of course. He placed his dick right between her thighs and pussy as he interlocked his legs with her.

Then he started from her thin waist, before avoiding her beautiful bare breasts as he cleansed her shoulders and arms.

He then moved down, avoiding her breasts again before cleaning her thighs, of course, he gave special care to her inner thighs, going marginally close to her little sister before pulling back. Filling her with anticipation and disappointment at the same time.

“Mmhm~~”

A soft moan came out of Felberta’s mouth.

Deciding that he teased her little sister enough, he returned to her waist, but this time, he circled around her lower breasts without touching her before moving to the shoulders and repeating the same with her upper breasts.

Viscount Felberta on the other hand felt different sensations as his hands moved, her little sister quivered in frustration while her breasts felt some weird itch and her soft, light pink nipples hardened.

The smile that appeared on Nux’s face when he saw her reaction made him look no less dangerous than a scheming demon who traps maidens with his plans.

At the same time, his rod also hardened as he started moving it a little, experiencing pleasure from her plump thighs and at the same time teasing her little sister more and more.

The Viscount’s breathing quickened as her body started trembling in frustration, finally, she gave in to the temptation and requested,

“C-Clean there as well...”

“Where, lady Fel?”

“M-My breasts...”

“As you say”

Saying that, he suddenly grabbed her squishy breasts and started ‘cleaning’ them roughly.

“Anhh~” The viscount yelped in pleasure and surprise, causing her to tighten her fleshy thighs, which suddenly increased the pleasure Nux was feeling.

“Ughhh!!”

The sudden stimulus forced him to leak his milk as he stained the viscount’s thighs and her little sister with her jizz.

“Oops, looks like I have to clean that area again...”

Saying that, his hands moved towards her thighs as he washed them again before his fingers moved towards her canal which was already twitching uncontrollably after his jizz fell on top of it.

His finger circled around her entry for a little while before he pinched her erect clitoris, causing her to moan in ecstasy.

“AAnngg~~”

“Hmm? I think it somehow went inside, let me clean it thoroughly then”

Without waiting for confirmation, his middle finger directly entered her pussy followed by his index finger. His two fingers rubbed her wet and mushy insides, finding all her weak points.

“AAnnhh~ AAnnhh~ AAnnhh~”

Felberta kept moaning in pleasure as he played with her pussy, suddenly, a weird idea popped in Nux’s mind as he brought his lips closer to her left ear and

“Fhwoo~~”

He blew some air into her ear softly.

Felberta’s body jerked weirdly before her canal tightened and,

“AAnnnhh~”

She came.

Her juices gushed out without stopping, staining her thighs all over again.

“Haa... it looks like I have to clean it again...”

Chapter 19

After what could be called the longest bathing session she ever had, Viscount Felberta walked out of the bathroom with a satisfied yet strict expression.

“We are late and this is all because of you. What do you have to say in your defence?”

“I deeply apologize for the inconvenience I have caused although I will say, It felt really good, did it not?”

Viscount Felberta’s lips twitched when she heard his remark. She wanted to reprimand him but when she thought about it,

It really felt good!

‘Agghh! I am being led astray by him!’

She clenched her fist in frustration but when she remembered the pleasure she felt a few minutes ago, she decided to let him go.

‘Haah, I am really weak against him...’

“Alright, no point complaining since we are already late, let’s move quickly so we can save some time,” She stated as she quickened her pace.

“Wait, I am going with you?” Nux questioned.

“Yes, I decided to take you as my butler from now on”

“But I don’t know anything butlers do”

“You don’t have to worry about it. Joyab will take care of that, you just have to follow me. You can’t keep staying here, can you?”

“Lady Fel, you don’t have to go through this roundabout way, just tell me that you can’t bear to stay away from me and I’ll follow you even if you walk into hell”

Felberta’s lips twitched, she wanted to retort to that but deep down, she knew what he said was true.

‘Ugh! He is annoying! Where the hell did my cute Nux go!?’

“You sure have a glib tongue, don’t you?”

“I believe Lady Fel knows more about it than I do” He purposefully glanced at her firm breasts before he licked his lips seductively.

Understanding what he meant, Felberta’s face flushed before she sighed...

“Haah... I really miss the past Nux... he was so sweet and cute, unlike the now you, you are just a rude person”

“Do you really, really mean what you said? Lady Fil? Why don’t you ask your pus- heart and see what it says?”

“...” Felberta used her right to remain silent.

Although she did miss the ‘boy’ Nux a little, if she were given a choice, she would choose the ‘man’ Nux any day.

After all, no matter how much thick faced she has, whenever she ordered Nux to do anything, she always felt like she was manipulating a little boy, although it felt good, in some part of her mind, she felt a little weird.

Nux now, on the other hand, steps up and seduces her on his own accord. His playful words feel good and his little forceful methods get her heart racing.

After all, in the end, she bought him as her boy toy, someone who would satisfy her sexually.

Of course, what Felberta doesn't realize is that Nux's importance in her heart has long passed what any random 'boy toy' has. If she was given a choice to choose between her close friends and Nux, she might not be able to choose her friends even if she was given enough time to think.

...

As the two of them entered Fel's office, they saw a middle-aged man standing inside the office, wearing a black suit.

Without wasting any time, Nux activated the Eye of Discretion and this man's information appeared in front of him.

[Name: Joyab Frey]

...

“Joyab, let me introduce him to you, he is Nux, he will be my new butler from now on”

Hearing that, Joyab frowned as he questioned, “Viscount Felberta, isn’t he the b-”

“Yes, he is. But from now on he is my butler”

Joyab couldn’t help but notice the defensive tone she had when she cut him off mid-sentence.

‘What kind of magic has this kid done on her?’

He couldn’t help but doubt if Nux was some sort of evil cultivator who somehow hypnotized Viscount Felberta. If it wasn’t for how he could not feel even an ounce of energy coming out of his body, he would have attacked him already.

“But Viscount, does he know what he has to do as your butler?” He questioned.

“You don’t have to worry about it”

“Then what about his cultivation? How would he protect you if he is so weak? You know that a butler is also a bodyguard who guards his master with his life”

“Oh yes, thank you for reminding me, I have decided to provide him with our house’s best cultivation technique, he is still young, and I believe he can catch up with others.”

“But...” Joyab wanted to argue further but he couldn’t find any points.

Noticing that he was acting weird, Felberta thought about it and quickly understood his dilemma and smiled,

“Butler Joyab, you have taken care of me ever since I was a child. You don’t have to worry; I won’t treat you or your family badly. I know you have been training your son to become my butler after you retire, this won’t change after Nux’s appearance. I am not firing you or your son”

Joyab glanced at viscount before he tried to avoid her gaze, embarrassed that he was seen through easily. Also, a sense of relief washed over his body when he heard her and he sighed.

“Yes, although I have appointed Nux as my butler, he is not exactly my butler, he is more of an assistant, no wait, you are kind of my assistant as well. Umm... forget it, just remember you two have different jobs.”

Viscount’s words not only confused Joyab but even she couldn’t understand what she was saying.

Behind her, Nux snorted inwardly when he heard her words,

‘Tsk tsk, what’s the point of covering up? Just tell him that we both are your assistant the only difference being that while he works on the papers, I work on your body’

Chapter 20

Author's Note: Again, I will warn you, if you don't want to get blue balled, wait for the that I will post in 2 hours~~

...

After introducing Nux to Joyab, the viscount continued with her work. However, soon she noticed that her speed and efficiency has improved a little. It was only a little but it couldn't be hidden from the viscount's eyes.

Also, now that Nux was standing right behind her, even after working for a long time, she didn't feel that tingling feeling she was so annoyed by.

Of course, that doesn't mean that they wouldn't have their fun during the break time. The viscount smiled, looking forward to the lunch break.

On the other hand, seeing her working so efficiently and elegantly, Nux was thoroughly impressed. He was awed by how she solved the farmers' problem, her fast decision-making skill was something very hard to have.

She looked like a perfect, empowered lady.

And when he thought about how he had this empowered lady sitting on his lap, he smiled evilly and waited for the lunch break.

“Alright, this is enough. You can take your lunch break now, you have 2 hours”

“As you say, Viscount”

After a bow, Jayob quickly left and noticing that Nux was still inside, he finally understood what kind of ‘assistant’ he was.

Nux didn’t know what Joyab was thinking about, even if he knew, he wouldn’t care. He just smiled as he walked towards Viscount Felberta, placing his hands on her shoulders, he smiled.

“Lady Fel, you must be tired after working for so long”

Knowing that she wouldn’t need to ask what she needed, Felberta smiled inwardly, looking forward to how he will turn this situation to his advantage and do something lewd.

“Mmhm” Of course, she didn’t forget to help him with his script and nodded.

“Your whole body must be stiff, is it not?”

“Mmhm. My whole body is veeryy~ stiff”

“I understand, I could help you with some massage, but I believe that would make you a little too relaxed, affecting your work in later hours.”

“Hmm, that’s certainly true.”

“Then how about I help you with some stretches?”

“Stretches?”

“Yes, then Lady Fel, since we are tight on time, let’s start it as quickly as possible”

Though she couldn’t understand what he wanted, she nodded then stood up and let him do whatever she wanted.

“Alright, first, let’s get rid- I mean, let’s remove your Gown”

Then without waiting for her response, Nux quickly and skillfully removed her gown. Today, she was wearing a purple coloured bra and panties. The contrast between her pure white skin and these dark purple undergarments made her look really alluring.

‘Damn, she has a very irresistible body’

No matter how many times he has seen her, he would always get enraptured by her. Her perfect hourglass figure that he could only imagine in the past fantasies, even those film stars or models did not have a body like hers...

“Alright, now sit down, straighten your knees and open your legs as wide as possible”

Felberta did what he told, she stretched her legs as wide as possible and though it was not a straight line, it was still very close to it.

Nux was impressed by how flexible her body was, he also did not miss the chance to rub her inner thighs, ‘helping’ her to stretch more.

“Now bend down, and try to touch your toes with your hand~” Nux whispered as he supported her back.

She bent down, feeling the stretch on her thighs but she couldn’t really focus on it since that demon was still kneading her inner thighs while teasing her little sister again and again.

“Alright, now do the same with another toe”

Completely ignoring her frustrations, Nux continued to take advantage of her body as he ‘helped’ her with her stretches.

“Okay, now to the next stretch”

He then made her sit in the classic Japanese position, (the Seiza position) and then told her to slowly push her back backwards.

Felberta’s body was very flexible, her head nearly touched the floor while being in this position. Of course, Nux still supported her head on his lap, as he kneaded her soft and fleshy breasts without removing her bra.

“Annh~” She moaned in delight and seeing her face flushed in red, Nux felt his little brother twitching.

“Alright, a little more... yes, that’s enough. Breathe a little as we move to the next one.”

He then made her sit on all fours, though embarrassed; Viscount still did as he told.

Smiling, Nux instructed,

“Now arch your back, lift your butt and head and stay in the same position till I say otherwise”

Nux smiled evilly as he placed his hand on her firm but juicy ass, teasing her as much as he wanted.

He felt her body twitching and was sure it was not due to the stretching she was doing.

Felberta felt the familiar tingling sensation inside her little sister. His hand circled around her ass, teasing her little sister from time to time. Her pussy twitched in frustration, the viscount could feel her little sister was missing something.

Something big...

Satisfied after groping her for a while, he instructed,

“Alright, this should be enough, now to the ne-”

“It’s enough, I think my body is fine now...” knowing full well that he only wants to tease her, Felberta interrupted him. Her body was screaming in frustration within just 10 minutes, she didn’t know what would happen if she continued to let him do whatever he wanted.

Nux smiled, thinking that he couldn't tease her more, although it was fun, he still wanted to jump on cloud nine together with her, thinking about it, he smirked as he questioned.

“Are you sure? Because I can definitely feel this part of yours is very stiff”

“AAnh~”

Viscount's body jolted when Nux boldly grabbed her little sister.

“Trust me; I know a very good exercise to heal this stiffness~”

Chapter 21

“Trust me; I know a very good exercise to heal this stiffness~”

Nux then rubbed his tent on her butt as he whispered seductively,

“Would you like to try it?”

“I’ll give you one chance” Felberta replied with a red face.

She was just too weak against him. Even though she had decided to end this, with just some of his whispers and teasings, she gave in again!

She could not decipher how she ended up like this...

“I promise it would be worth it” Nux smiled before he lowered his pants and his large dick appeared.

He then used his dick to slap the viscount’s firm ass a few times before he removed her already wet panties and started rubbing his dick on her entry.

“Anh~”

This was already too much for Felberta to handle and a moan leaked out of her mouth.

“AAnnnhh~”

Completely drenching his rod with her love juice, he slammed it right into her insides without any warning, making her moan in pleasure.

After all that teasing she has been through for the past 10 minutes, her body, especially her pussy was already very sensitive to touch. Thus, as soon as he rammed his cock into her, Viscount’s whole body quivered in ecstasy and her arms felt weak.

Since she was still on her fours with her arm weakening like that, she was about to fall but soon, a pair of hands gently grabbed her waist, supporting her from behind.

“I believe that my method is already working, is it not? Lady Fel?”

She then heard a soft voice from behind, the voice so hypnotic that she couldn't help but go with the flow and she nodded in reply.

Nobody could have guessed that the viscount who was so noble and elegant half an hour ago, would be down on all her fours, being drilled by an unknown man, inside the office she works in.

On the other hand, Nux could also feel her insides trying to engulf and merge with his dick. Feeling the squishy insides squirming around his rod, he closed his eyes and moaned inwardly.

‘Uugghhh~’

He was sure that he would need a lot of time before he could get used to this lovely sensation.

Tsk, who was he kidding? He might not be able to get used to this his entire life!

He then bent down as he placed his head on her back, her sweet perfuming assaulted his nostril, inhaling deeply, he gazed at her purple bra before unplugging it with his teeth, freeing her two giant and firm mountains.

He moved his hands from her thin waist to her firm Breasts, kneading them with love and care. He could feel her body twitching every time he rubs the area close to her nipples.

‘Her nipples are sensitive’

He smiled before he gently flicked her nipples and as if confirming his thoughts, her canal narrowed, clenching his dick harder and the viscount moaned out loud.

“Annnhh~”

The pleasure Nux felt soared instantly, he moved his head towards her right shoulder, and he gently kissed her nape before he whispered.

“I’ll start moving now”

Under the intense suction from her womb, he pulled back his dick to the entry slowly, before ramming it back in one thrust.

“AAnnnhh~”

His hands played with her breasts, sometimes flicking her hanging nipples, while he kissed her nape and her cheek gently, and drilled his huge dick inside her roughly.

“AAnngh~”

His different approaches to different parts of her body sent countless jolts of pleasure into The viscount’s body, weakening it even further.

She had long given herself to the pleasure, her whole body was handed to Nux for him to do with it as he sees fit.

He, of course, didn’t disappoint, supporting her body with his arms, he continued drilling his dick into her, making her moan in delight as she asked for more.

“AAnngh~ AAnngh~ AAnngh~”

“Don’t Stop AAnngh~ Continue what AAnngh~ you are AAnngh~ doing AAnngh~”

AAnngh~ This feels so goooood!”

It was already afternoon, the sun was shining strongly; their bodies were already drenched with sweat. The sweat mixed with perfume and love juices forming a weird but pleasant scent that spread in the whole room.

If someone walked into this room right now and sees them, he would instantly compare them with two dogs mating together on the street without caring about anything else.

Viscount Felberta's eyes were opened but there were no eyeballs there, her tongue was hanging outside, she couldn't even speak properly but she was still moaning and asking for more in her whole language. She looked like she had already lost her senses.

Nux wasn't any better either; he kept drilling his huge rod that was drenched with her love juice into her repeatedly, his one hand was holding and squeezing her bare breast, while the other was pinching the other breast's nipple.

His handsome face rested on her upper back as it kisses her back and nape sometimes before he bites his lips, seemingly trying to prevent himself from moaning but was unable to notice that the grunts he released were even worse than her moans.

“I AAnngh~ I am cummingggg~ AAnngh~”

Unable to take the pleasure anymore, Felberta's pussy contracted before a huge amount of love juices come out of her pussy. Spraying all of it on Nux's already drenched dick.

As if finally achieving his goal, Nux's eyes opened wide before he finally let go as he grunted,

“UUggghh~ Fel! I am cumming as weeelll~”

From Lady Fel, to Fel... but nobody noticed...

Fresh milk burst out from his, his body quivering in the pleasure of releasing his jizz after holding it for such a long time. Weird energy entered his body but he was already too tired and fell beside Felberta.

The two stayed like this for quite some time, their bodies twitching in pleasure as they relished the aftertaste of their orgasms without any words.

“Haah... I believe haah... this cured all your stiffness... did it not? Lady Fel?”

“Haah... The stiffness Haah... has spread all over my body Haah... but Haah... but since it felt so good Haah... I’ll forgive you Haah...”

“Many thanks...”

Chapter 22

After the intense session and a few minutes of rest afterwards, Nux and Felberta finally woke up and came to their senses. Felberta quickly wore her clothes and rushed towards the bathroom while Nux called the maid and told her to clean everything.

However, this time the maid wasn't as expressionless as before, as she had a tinge of red that she desperately tried to hide but couldn't do it.

Nux smiled when he saw her acting like that, this little missy was peeping on them when she heard Viscount Felberta moaning like that. Nux noticed it but didn't say anything because this was essential for the next mission the system gave him.

[Mission: Fuck Skylia Hale]

[Mission: Fuck Lane Wynee]

[Description: Well, Fuck Lane Wynee]

[Reward: 10 System Points.]

[Warning: If the mission fails, the Ability [Craving Touch] will be disabled.]

[Time Limit: 15 days]

...

He received these two missions when he saw these two maids in the morning. Not that he needed the system to give him any mission since they were already his targets when he discovered their cultivation level.

He did not know what the System Points were, but he shrugged, thinking there was no harm in getting extra rewards for something you were already going to do.

Skyla quickly left in embarrassment after she cleaned the office, Nux also went to the other bathroom, cleaned up and returned before Felberta.

Felberta then returned, the two had a quick lunch before Joyab entered.

...

Joyab who just entered the office smelled the strange scent before he glanced at Viscount and then looked at Nux.

Felberta blushed a little, while Nux completely ignored his gaze. Shaking his head, Joyab forced himself to focus on the work.

After the work was over, Viscount Felberta walked towards her room while Nux followed her from behind, suddenly Felberta questioned without stopping her walk.

“Did you learn anything today?”

“I did, I learned that your nipples are the most sensitive part of your body second only to your pussy. Also, I noticed that slowly pulling back my cock before ramming it deep into your pussy in one go excites you the most”

Felberta paused as she turned around glaring at Nux with a completely red face.

“No matter how much you glare, your face won’t look scary if you are blushing like that. You will only look cuter and cuter.” NUX complimented.

He knew the risk he was taking when he was talking about things like these, but as he had thought before, the risk-reward ratio is favourable for him.

“You... You are really rude!”

“You talk as if you dislike it”

“I do dislike it!”

“You are not very convincing when you are blushing so hard, My beautiful Fel~”

Nux replied with a smile.

“What did you call me?”

Suddenly, Felberta’s gaze narrowed and all the redness that was on her face disappeared.

“My beautiful Fel?”

“You can’t call me that. I have an image, a servant can’t call me as my friends do or it will affect my authority” She corrected in a serious tone.

Nux quickly bowed as he replied in a formal tone, “It was too presumptuous and daring of me to call you like that, Viscount Felberta. I apologize for my mistake and swear that it will not be repeated in the future.”

He did not even call her ‘Lady Fel’ anymore and directly addressed her as other servant does.

Seeing him acting like that, Felberta frowned and felt some sort of weird sensation in her heart. It was as if she lost something she shouldn’t have.

“You don’t have to bow and act all formal like that...”

Without raising his head, Nux replied, “Viscount Felberta, I believe that as a servant I was indeed going a little too far with the way I addressed and talked to you. So I decided to change myself and talk to you like this so that I can become a better servant and someone who doesn’t affect your image”

“I said don’t bow your head.”

“As you say, Viscount Felberta”

He raised his head and looked at her with a serious face. No signs of previous playfulness could be seen on his handsome face, there was just a submissive look that said, ‘I will do whatever you tell me to’

Felberta’s heart ached when she saw his face but it was still better than when he was bowing. She believed that she should take it step by step.

“Good, now stop acting formal”

“Viscount Felberta, forgive me for being ignorant, but I cannot seem to understand how should I act as a servant without being formal”

“Uggh! Just act like how you previously did!” Felberta yelled in frustration.

“I apologize but I cannot do that, Viscount Felberta. I am just a mere servant; it will affect your image if I act like that”

“You don’t have to worry about that! Image is just a stupid concept, we don’t have to restrict ourselves just so we could impress people we don’t even know”

She quickly contradicted herself without a single change in her expression and even made it sound enlightening. Nobles really are thick-skinned.

“But this will still affect your authority, Viscount Felberta.”

“Haah? How can that be? I am still me, Viscount Felberta! If someone has a problem with the way I handle things, they can come and talk to me!” Felberta declared proudly.

“Heh! As expected of my beautiful Fel, I knew you couldn’t bear to see me like this~” Nux’s serious expression crumbled in an instant as he smiled playfully.

“You... You were acting!”

“Huh? Of course, I was. What do you take me for? How can I change my character so quickly?”

“Y-You... Hmph!” speechless, Felberta snorted and turned around.

“Oh c’mon, don’t be angry. How about this, you cheer up and I’ll kiss you?”

Felberta continued walking, treating him like air.

Suddenly, she stopped and replied.

“Combine it with another night session and we will talk”

Chapter 23

For the next 5 days, Nux spent most of his time with Fel. They started the morning with a beautiful bath session, at the lunch break, they have office sex, and at the night, they have bedroom sex.

As for his mission with the maids, Nux decided to postpone it for now as he focused on Felberta.

Why? It was because of [Craving Touch].

No, he did not want to increase its effect, it was quite the opposite.

He wanted her body to get used to him, with that, her body would be able to adapt to the craving of the [Craving Touch], he did not want her to just start masturbating like crazy when he was not around. She was a refined and elegant lady, not a horny slut.

No, that did not mean the craving will end. If left unattended, it will be back with the effect 2 times stronger than normal, rendering her unable to do anything.

Of course, Nux would let that happen no matter what.

This was not the only reason, the other one being that he wanted to increase his stats through his hard work, even if it was just a little increase. He knew that once he had sex with the maids, he would jump levels at a tremendous pace, making it a little harder for him to gain some stat points.

Of course, that did not mean that having sex with Felberta had no benefits, he got even closer to her and also, he levelled up to Level 3! He also gained a few stat points from the exercise he did. He also noticed that the exercise became too simple for his current body so he increased the intensity.

From,

100 push-ups

100 sit-ups

100 squats

10 km run

To

300 push-ups

300 sit-ups

300 squats

30 km run

No, his hair did not fall off, that information was wrong. A shocker right? Even Nux was shocked.

Of course, this doesn't mean that he completely ignored the two maids. He teased them whenever he had a chance to, making them comfortable in his presence. This will make it easier for him to complete the mission when he starts it.

The failure of this mission would cost him the best ability he has, Nux wouldn't dare to take it lightly. Although he was confident that he can complete the mission within 5 days, it does not mean that he will only start when there are only 5 days left. That would be just plain stupid.

Accidents can happen.

It would be laughable if he somehow failed this easy mission due to his overconfidence.

After he did his last push up, his stats appeared in front of him. Nodding in satisfaction, he turned around and saw Felberta standing there accompanied by her two maids. He smiled as he walked towards them before Felberta sighed,

“I can’t believe you improved so quickly and you haven’t even started cultivating the technique I gave you.

Look, I can notice that you have a talent for cultivation; you can achieve heights unachievable by others. Don't waste it. I can even release you from your duty as my butler; just don't end up like me."

There was a tinge of regret when she said her last sentence.

Nux smiled gently as he patted her head to comfort her.

"Don't worry, I won't slack off but I have a different plan in my mind. Although I will need you to release me as your butler"

"Wha- Why?"

"Oh C'mon now, don't make that face. I will make sure I come when it's a lunch break, I can't miss the chance to taste you, now can I?" Nux chuckled as he fondled her ass.

"Wha- What are you talking about!?" She then glanced at her maids before she blushed, "They are still here"

"Hah! It's not like they don't know what we do. The two of them peek at us all the time! Heck, you can even ask them what's your favourite position and they will tell you in a jiffy."

Hearing him, the two maids blushed as they looked down, avoiding the Viscount's shocked gaze.

"What!? You two peek at us!?" Felberta questioned in shame and anger. She couldn't believe that her two maids would do something like that.

"Now Now, you can't blame them, it is your fault for moaning so loudly, you can't blame them for taking a peek or two."

Felberta glared at Nux as she snorted, "If you weren't that good at sex, I would have killed you for being so annoying!"

"Hahaha~ Alright calm down, anger doesn't suit your beautiful face. Come, let's go to the bathroom, I'll help you relax. Skyla, Lane, prepare the water.

I'll give you another chance to peek at us and see your viscount moaning cutely.”

Felberta blushed in shame but before she could retort, Nux picked her up and walked towards the bathroom. Before going, he did not forget to glance at the two maids and wink at them.

Why?

Just for fun.

The maids also smiled seeing him act like that. Although at first, they were wary of him as he got close to Viscount Felberta abnormally quick but now that they have seen him for a long time, they lowered their guards. Since they were sure that he wasn't going to hurt Viscount Felberta.

Why?

Because he already had many chances to do so and get away successfully.

Also, they lowered the bars for him to get in their good books because he was a little too handsome, but they would never admit it openly.

So forget I said that.

Chapter 24

After a warm and cosy bathroom session, Nux and Felberta walked out of the bathroom with a smile on their faces.

However soon, Felberta's smile disappeared when she realized that she had to go without Nux today.

“Oh C'mon. Don't make that face my lovely viscount, I promise you that I will come when it's lunch break. Don't you trust me?”

“You promise?”

“You really think I'll let go of the chance of spending time with such a beautiful woman like you? I am sure that no man is willing to do that, if there is, then he is gay”

“Okay, then remember, if you don't come on time, I will declare you a gay”

“ ... ”

Nux used his right to remain silent.

“Hahaha~” Felberta laughed as she walked towards her office.

Seeing her walking figure as her ass jiggled right and left, Nux shook his head, he still couldn't believe that he actually managed to have sex with a beauty like that, and she's a viscount to boot.

...

On the other side, in the bathroom, Skyla was washing Viscount Felberta's clothes when her eyes fell on Felberta's panty, she blushed before she picked them up, she looked around sneakily before she placed it on her nose and inhaled deeply.

She then blushed even more as she muttered.

“Uuuu! Her panty is wet yet again.”

Then Felberta’s ahego face when she was being fucked by Nux appeared in her mind and she blushed again.

“AAhh! this is so indecent, but from the looks on her face, sex feels really good... I wonder if it’s true”

“Hmm? Of course, it is true” Suddenly she heard a familiar voice behind her and she panicked.

She quickly turned around and saw a 1.75 meters tall man with a devilishly handsome face standing behind her. He had a teasing smile on his face as he questioned.

“Little Skyla, what are you doing with Viscount Felberta’s panty I wonder?”

“N-Nothing! A-And how dare you call me Little Skyla, I am older than you! It should be I who should be calling you little Nux!” Skyla retorted as she did a wasteful attempt to hide the panty behind her back.

Skyla was a beautiful fair-skinned woman; she was 1.68 meters tall, with short auburn hair, big green coloured eyes, a cute small nose, and pouty red lips. Her breasts weren’t really big but they weren’t small either. They were what they call, ‘they would perfectly fit in my hands’ type. She had a perky bottom and although she might appear serious, if one gets to know her, she was a clumsy type.

Although she wasn’t as beautiful as Felberta, she was wearing a classic French maid costume so that increased her charm to another level.

“You can call me whatever you like, but first tell me, what were you doing with Fel’s panty?” Nux replied as he walked towards her.

“Wha- What panty are you talking about? I don’t know anything”

Nux chuckled as he held her chin before lifting her face and bringing his face dangerously close to hers.

“Then what are you hiding from me?” He whispered seductively, his lips really really close to hers.

Skyla felt her heart beating quickly, although she was 25 years old, she has never interacted with any man before, let alone someone as charming as Nux. Seeing him standing so close to her, holding her chin like that, how can her maiden heart not beat uncontrollably?

However, she quickly came back to her senses as she cried inwardly.

‘This man is too dangerous, he almost fooled me. I mustn’t let him see the panty!’

Nux’s other hand moved towards her back but before he could get the panty, she shifted her arms a little.

Of course, Nux didn’t care, his target wasn’t the panty, to begin with.

He then grabbed her perky bottom and suddenly, Skyla’s whole body twitched as she perked up and she moved back.

‘Hm? What happened to her?’ Nux thought inwardly before he glanced at her red face and smiled knowingly.

‘It might be easier than I expected’

He didn’t expect to learn about her weak point so randomly.

He slowly walked toward her, the smile on his face didn’t disappear as he questioned.

“C’mon, tell me what you are hiding, I promise I won’t tell anyone.”

“You promise?”

“Don’t you trust me? Do I look like someone who betrays others’ trust?”

Skyla slowly glanced at his handsome face and suddenly she felt guilty that she doubted someone so handsome-looking person like him.

She then slowly moved her hands from her back as she showed Fel's purple panty that was in her hand.

“What were you doing with it?”

“I will not tell you!” Skyla rejected firmly.

“Oh C'mon~ Sister Skyla, aren't you like my big sister? Will you really hide this from your younger brother?” Nux questioned with a sad look on his face.

Skyla wanted to ask when she became his big sister but seeing the sad look on his face, she couldn't bear to.

“O-Okay, I will tell you, b-but you have to promise that you will not tell anybody”

Nux's face brightened as he quickly rushed towards Skyla and hugged her tightly.

“Yay! Sister Skyla, I knew you were the best!”

Skyla was unable to react to his sudden outburst, but since it felt really good, she allowed her 'younger brother' to hug her.

“So, sister Skyla, what were you doing with Viscount Felberta's panty?”

Skyla blushed when she heard her question, but since she already agreed to tell him, she admitted,

“I-I was wondering i-if s-sex felt a-as good as others say...”

“Hmm? Just that? Then why were you so confused and shy about it?”

“Why not confirm it yourself?”

Chapter 25

Author: same warning, proceed with caution skeleton face

...

“Why not confirm it yourself?”

“Huh? What?”

“If you are so interested in knowing that, then why not confirm it yourself?” Nux repeated, his face showing utmost confusion as if he couldn’t believe that she hasn’t thought of such a simple solution.

“H-How do I do that?” Skylia questioned in confusion.

“By having sex, of course,” Nux answered as if it was a matter of fact.

“S-Sex? But I don’t know who to ha- have it with...” Skylia muttered shyly, her last part of the sentence barely audible.

“Huh? Don’t you have me? You can do it with me”

“Yo- You? B-but aren’t you doing it with Viscount Felberta?”

“Who says that if I am doing it with Viscount Felberta, I can’t do it with anyone else?”

“Isn’t that wrong?”

“Oh C’mon, there are many noblewomen who share their husband with other women”

“B-But they are nobles... and I am just a servant...”

“Haah? What do you mean? Am I not a servant as well? If noblewomen can share their nobleman partner with other women; then why can’t normal women have the same partner who is also a normal man?”

“T-That makes sense.”

That made no sense at all.

Nux smiled brightly as he replied, “Riigght? We are both servants, so there is nothing wrong with having sex together”

“B-But I don’t know anything about s-s-sex”

“Don’t worry, I know all about it. After all, it is the only thing I am good at~”

Nux whispered into her ears seductively before he grabbed Fel’s panty, and put it aside before picking Skyla into his arms as he walked towards the empty bathtub.

“Huh?” It was only after he placed her inside the bathtub did she finally reacted and questioned in panic,

“Wha- What are you doing?”

“Hmm? Did you not want to try having sex?”

“R-right now!?”

“The earlier the better, isn’t it?”

“B-But I am not ready yet!”

“You don’t have to do anything, just trust your body to me.”

He then smiled gently, and whispered like a demon enticing a person to form a contract with him,

“You trust me, don’t you?”

Skyla felt her heart beating faster and faster the closer he got to her, she blushed deeply before she nodded with a soft “mm”

Nux smiled as he moved forward before planting a soft kiss on her forehead.

“You can’t do it with a tense body like that, let me help you calm you down. Just close your eyes.” He instructed.

Something inside Skyla told her to do what he said and she closed her eyes. With that, her other senses increased, she could feel Nux’s every move even though her eyes were closed.

Then Nux’s lips moved down before he planted the same, gentle kiss on her eyes before moving towards her small nose.

The closer he got to her mouth, the faster her heart started to beat. Her body was trembling in fear and... expectation.

And soon, she felt a pair of soft lips touching her own. Her body shuddered; she even felt that her heart would burst out in that instant.

Their lips parted and a weird sense of loss welled inside her heart.

She then felt his soft lips on her chin, then her neck and then it moved down.

Skyla waited in anticipation, she wanted to open her eyes but her body didn’t listen to her command. Suddenly, she felt the clothes covering her breasts being removed and fresh cool air stroking her bare breasts.

“Your breasts are beautiful, Skyla”

She then heard a gentle voice, hearing him calling her name with such gentleness, Skyla’s little heart bloomed in happiness and a smile appeared in her small mouth.

She then felt a pair of soft lips touching her right nipple before they sucked the whole thing inside and a wet tongue started licking it.

It was as if a jolt of pleasure was released into her body, and her pussy started trembling in excitement as if knowing and fully accepting what was about to come.

Then a hand started kneading her other breast, sending another jolt into her body.

Her body started to get a hang of this foreign feeling but suddenly, another wave of pain and pleasure assaulted her body as she felt her left nipple being pinched by his fingers.

Her back straightened up but before she could think more about this weird painful but pleasurable feeling, she felt his hand sliding down her waist through her clothes before it entered her skirt and suddenly it grabbed her bare butt.

“Anh~”

Her body jolted in pleasure, she wanted to move but suddenly, she felt something biting her right nipple that was in Nux’s mouth.

It was as if he was telling her not to move. Her body followed his command and he continued stroking her butt, His other hand also joined in the fun and they started playing with her ass, moulding it into various shapes, the more he played with her, the stronger the pleasure she felt.

“Anhh~”

She felt her pussy trembling in joy as it released her love juices continuously; she couldn’t believe that her pussy was already this wet before he even touched it.

As if hearing her thoughts, his right hand started moving before it arrived in front of her entrance and directly pushed his middle finger into her.

“Anhh~”

She moaned in pleasure, but before she could get used to it, another finger entered her canal and the two fingers started stroking her inner walls, making her moan in ecstasy and forcing her pussy to keep releasing her juices to welcome them.

“Anhh~ Anhh~ Anhh~”

She moaned out loud, her body twitching in pleasure. She never felt this good when she did it herself.

Her canals tightened and just as she was about to cum, she felt his fingers stopping, cool air stroking her wet right nipple, his other hand stopped kneading her butt, and she heard a voice,

“Since the side dish is over,

I believe you are ready for the main course now”

Chapter 26

“I believe you are ready for the main course now”

‘T-This was just s-side dishes!?! How good would the main course be!?’
Skyla thought inwardly before the images of a huge rod, drilling Viscount Felberta as she screamed in pleasure appeared in her mind.

Her face blushed and her little sister, that was already very sensitive twitched even more.

She finally opened her eyes and saw that Nux was removing her white coloured panty.

She may be clumsy, but she wasn't stupid. She knew that this was her last defence, once he succeeds, there was no turning back.

Her little sister, on the other hand, had no such thoughts. It trembled uncontrollably as if reprimanding her that she was thinking too much.

Her eyes moved up and met Nux's gaze, he smiled gently and suddenly, all the thoughts about her panty being her last defence left her mind.

‘It will happen eventually, why not do it now...’

Confirming her thoughts, she smiled and nodded, ready and anticipating what was about to come.

Nux was taken aback by her smiling like that, his smile widened before he removed her panty and finally saw her clean and beautiful vagina, with an erect, pink clitoris on the top.

He then removed his pant and his huge dick popped out, already excited about the new and untouched cave he going to explore.

When Nux noticed Skyla's eyes widening in surprise, he smirked inwardly.

It boosted his ego. Any man would feel proud if he saw a reaction like that.

He placed his little brother's head in front of the canal, glistening it with her overflowing juice, he pushed it in and then glanced at nervous Skyla.

“Don't be nervous, I am here.”

Skyla nodded, trying to calm her body as well as her excited and nervous heart.

Nux then moved his head closer to hers as he instructed.

“Just focus on me”

He then sealed her lips with his own.

Smooch

He didn't move his tongue; instead, he started sucking her lower lip.

Smooch

He then left it alone before started sucking her upper lips, and a few moments later, he started sucking her lower lips again.

Her lips felt soft and tasted sweet, Skyla soon understood the pattern and reciprocated with her sucking.

Smooch Smooch Smooch

The smooching sound echoed throughout the bathroom, when Nux noticed that she was busy sucking his lips, he directly pushed his dick inside her tight canal, breaking her hymen in one go.

“Uunnghh~~”

Skyla bit his lower lip, before he felt her already tight canal tightening even more, her mushy insides squirmed around his body tightly for a few seconds before they finally relaxed and his dick was drenched in love juice.

Nux furrowed his brows, he stopped kissing and distanced his face before he questioned,

“Did you just cum?”

Skyla’s face turned red, her body was already too stimulated by his ‘side dishes’, the kiss she just had also felt very good, her pussy was already twitching in frustration since his dick just stayed there without moving while her lips relished unknown amount of pleasure.

Therefore, just as he slammed his dick into her, rather than the pain she expected, her already sensitive pussy reacted differently and she came.

“mm” Skyla nodded embarrassedly.

“In just one thrust?” Nux was dumbfounded.

“mm” Skyla nodded again, this she could feel smoke rising from her head. She was too embarrassed.

Nux on the other hand couldn’t decide how to react, in the end, he sighed and questioned.

“Do you want to continue?”

If she refused, he would just control himself and leave unsatisfied, it was her first time, he wasn’t going to force her to continue for another round if she wasn’t ready.

“Hm? O-Of course I want to. W-wait, you don’t want to do it with me anymore since I came without telling you? I am sorry, I-I will make sure not to repeat this mistake”

Nux now frowned even more before he recalled that although clumsy, this girl in front of him is still a cultivator. There is no way she’s going to get tired with just one thrust!

He smiled seductively as he replied,

“Of course not! I was just teasing you! Do you think I will let you go now?”

You wanted to know how good sex felt right? I’ll show you!”

Saying that, under the suction of her pussy, he moved his dick back before slamming right into her in one go!

“AAnnggh~” Skyla moaned loudly, her body twitched in pleasure.

“Shh~ You can’t moan loudly like that, here, let me help you”

Nux sealed her lips with hers, this time, he wasn’t as gentle as before and his tongue invaded her mouth as he continued his thrusting.

“Mmmnngghnn~ Mmmnngghnn~ Mmmnngghnn~”

Skyla’s muffled moans were heard inside the bathroom. The pleasure was starting to get over her head as she couldn’t think straight. Her body was already numb with pleasure, Nux tongue dominated hers in the battle easily, while her eyes had already rolled back in delight.

Her body completely submitted to Nux with no resistance whatsoever.

If Skyla could think straight, she would match her current condition with Viscount Felberta and would find many similarities, but of course, those types of thoughts were too high level for her current state of brain to think about.

Her mind had already given itself to pleasure and the only thing she could think of was ways to keep this pleasure going on and on and on.

Nux was also very satisfied as he fucked her silly. Her pussy was very welcoming, her walls squirming around his dick, sending jolts of pleasure into his body.

Suddenly, a thought appeared in his mind as he smiled evilly. His hand moved before grabbing her ass cheeks roughly.

Skyla's body suddenly arched up, he could feel his canal tightening to another level as if wanting to suck him dry.

“Uuuggghhhh~”

Her pussy walls managed to achieve their goal as Nux grunted and his white jizz burst out, filling her insides without stopping.

“Aannnhhhh~ I am cummiiinnnggg~”

Skyla also moaned loudly as her body twitched and she came again.

Nux's tired body fell beside Skyla's, as he was enjoying the aftertaste, an enormous amount of energy gushed into his body and a screen appeared in front of him accompanied by a sound in his mind.

After Nux relished the aftertaste of the intense session he just had, he hurriedly glanced at his status and was pleasantly surprised.

He directly jumped from Level 3 to Level 9!

It was a huge gain!

He also noticed that other than his intelligence stat, his other stats were already close to Skyla and Lane and he wasn't even level 20 yet!

'Doesn't that mean that my foundation is peerless?'

He smiled inwardly, he then noticed that his blank points had shot up to a whopping 33!

He can already recover his predecessor's memory!

Just as he thought about it, he threw that thought out of his mind.

'Hmph! He was only a commoner, what could he possibly know? I am gaining levels quickly for now, I don't know how long will this continue. It is completely illogical to waste my precious blank point on this memory I might have no use for.

If I want to know something, I will directly ask Fel. I refuse to believe that a mere commoner will know something a viscount does not!

I will only accept his memory if I have more than 1000 blank points, that way, I won't feel too bad even if they are wasted a little. Who knows, I might get something out of it'

Nux then clenched his fist, he could already feel a vast amount of strength boiling inside his body. He was very eager to test it out but he soon calmed his emotions and glanced at Skyla who was lying beside her and questioned.

“So? How was it? Was sex as good as you thought it would be?”

“It was a thousand times better~” Skyla answered with a bright smile.

Nux smiled back as he replied, “Alright then, be ready tomorrow, I'll meet you here at the same time, kay?”

“W-We can do it again?” Skyla questioned in surprise, her breathing quickened.

“Huh? Of course, now that we had sex, you are my woman now, why should we not do it again?”

“Your w-woman? But you said that no-” before she could complete, Nux sealed her lips with a short kiss.

“We had sex, so you are my woman now, kay?” he whispered into her ears seductively.

Skyla's face turned red, her body moved on its own as she nodded.

“Good, now be here on time tomorrow, kay? Unless you don't like having sex, of course, I won't force you if that's the case”

“No! N-no, I- I’ll be here on time...” Skylia nodded embarrassedly.

Nux chuckled before planting another kiss on her lips before he questioned,

“Good, now Skylia, can I leave cleaning this up to you? Please?”

“O-Of course, you don’t have to worry, I also have to wash viscount’s clothes so I’ll clean this up as well”

“Thank you~”

“mm”

“Alright, I will be leaving now, kay?”

“mm”

“Okay, love you~”

Saying that, Nux walked out of the bathroom, eager to test his strength, Skylia on the other hand just stood there, her face as red as it could get before she finally muttered in a mosquito voice.

“L-Love you too”

Embarrassed, she covered her face with her hands.

...

Nux quickly rushed into his room, excited by the sudden power-up he gained.

It had been 6 days since he last entered this room since he has been spending his time with Felberta and is often staying in her room. To be honest, this room was only there for show, his actual room was the room where he and Fel lived and fucked together.

Of course, though he didn’t use this room, it did not mean that it wasn’t cleaned by the servants. Nux quickly sat on the bed and sat cross-legged.

He had seen a new term on the system screen and wanted to check them out.

‘System Inventory’

He thought inwardly if it was what he think it is, then it would be very convenient for him. Just thinking about it made him excited but soon, his excitement dwindled as he read the message in front of him.

[System Inventory: Locked]

[This feature is locked; level up to unlock this feature]

‘What!? Then what about my reward for this mission!? Didn’t you say they were sent directly to system inventory? How do I get them?’ Nux questioned but no one replied.

‘At least say something! Hey! Hello!?’

Again, no one replied.

‘What an annoying fucking system!!’

Nux cursed, but he knew he couldn’t do anything about it. He calmed his agitated emotions and closed his eyes.

‘I will level up eventually; I think I will get my rewards then. I should not think too much about all this and should just check my strength.’

He clenched his fist again, feeling the power surging into his body, he looked around to find his target. He glanced at the wall of the room and then glanced at his fist.

‘No no no no no! I am still too agitated, I can’t hit the wall, it will be too painful- er, I mean, it will cause a commotion if the wall breaks’

He hurriedly shook his head, he then glanced at the wooden comb that was placed on the table. He picked it up before putting some pressure.

Crack

The comb broke into two without any resistance.

‘Am I too strong or is this comb too fragile?’

Chapter 28

...

In the end, Nux gave up on the idea of testing his strength for now. He decided that he will ask Felberta about this. He reckoned that since this is a world based on strength, they might have better ways to test someone's strength.

With that, he lay down and relaxed his body for some time since he was a little tired after having sex twice in a short interval. Not that he was complaining, no man would ever complain about having too much sex if it was with a woman or women of his own choice.

After a few hours of rest, he right now was sitting in front of Fel's office waiting for the lunch break.

"Alright, that will be enough for now, we will continue this after the break"

He didn't have to wait for a long time as heard Fel's sweet voice, announcing the start of lunch break.

"As you say, Viscount Felberta"

Moments later, Joyab walked out of the office but when he saw Nux sitting on the floor as if waiting for something, his face twitched.

When he noticed that Nux did not come with Viscount Felberta today, he thought that maybe viscount Felberta have had enough fun and was bored of Nux, but seeing him here, he knew he was wrong.

Of course, he didn't have anything against Nux; he just thinks that it is not good for Viscount Felberta's image to have a boy toy following around her all the time. If they want, they can have all the fun they want in the night, but doing it so openly might affect her influence as a noble.

Neither Nux nor Felberta bothered about his thoughts, seeing him exiting the office, Nux stood up before he entered the office with a smile.

Felberta's eyes brightened when she saw Nux walking inside the office,

“Nux!”

She hurried over and jumped on him in excitement.

“Hahaha~ What are you? A monkey?” Nux laughed as he carried Fel into his arms.

“Haah? Who are you calling a monkey? Do you want to die!?”

“Hoh? How are you going to kill me?”

Fel smiled seductively as whispered into his ear, “I can suck you dry, till you die.”

“Hmm, you know, that's actually not a bad way to die at all. Dying with beauty in hand.” Nux joked.

“Alright, then I'll let you have that honour today”

“Talk after you don't lose your mind with just one thrust.”

Felberta's face turn red as she muttered, “You are really shameless...”

“Hahaha” Nux laughed as he walked towards her chair, he sat down and placed Fel on his lap as he questioned.

“So, Miss dominant one, how would you like to start our afternoon session”

“Hmph! You don’t have to worry about it, since I am one in charge, I’ll do everything”

Viscount snorted, last night, she noticed that every time they have sex, she ends up as a weaker one, the one being drilled while moaning like a whore whereas Nux was always the one who controlled the pace.

She then decided that from now on, she will be the dominant one, controlling the pace while Nux will be at the receiving end.

But the reality is often disappointing...

She tried to take control of the things this morning, but that ended with her being drilled mercilessly.

“Alright, Miss dominant one, I’ll wait patiently to see what you got” Nux smirked provocatively.

“Hmph!” Fel snorted again before she got on her knees, she removed his pants and a semi-hard 6-inch rod popped out.

She grabbed it gently before giving it a few jerks, she then smiled seductively before kissing its head. All the while, she did not break the eye contact between them.

She had already noticed that though he feels good with her breasts as well, a blowjob works wonders if she wants to turn him on.

“Ugh...”

Nux’s body shuddered when he saw her kissing his dick with her red juicy lips like that.

The Viscount continued licking his shaft before slowly sucking his balls, when he saw his dick lying on top of Fel’s face like that, a weird sense of satisfaction washed over him and his semi-hard dick turned hard.

The scene was just too stimulating!

He then saw the viscount smiling at him, she kissed the head again before gobbling up the whole thing in one go.

“Ahh~”

Nux moaned in pleasure as jolts of pleasure assaulted his body. The inside of her mouth felt warm and squishy, the viscount slowly moved her head back and then she started sucking.

“AAangghh~”

The suction force was too much for Nux to bear and he moaned out loud. The viscount’s tongue moved all around his cock as if it was the tastiest thing she ever had.

All this while, Fel never broke the eye contact, she noticed his reaction when her tongue licked different parts of his dick and quickly figured out all his weak points.

She smiled in satisfaction when she saw him moaning like that, she could feel thick veins bulging out of his dick when she licked it. She moved her head back and forth, increasing and decreasing the pace whenever she wanted.

“Ahh~ Fel! It feels too good!” Nux moaned again, his legs quivering in pleasure. He had long since closed his eyes to relish this otherworldly feeling to the greatest extent.

Just as he was about to cum, he felt Felberta slowing her face before she stopped.

He frowned as he opened his eyes and he saw Felberta smirking at him.

“Should I continue?” She asked playfully.

“W-What do you mean should you continue, Of course, you should!”

“Then why aren’t you admitting your wrongdoings and apologizing for teasing me so much?” She smirked.

“My beautiful Fel, I deeply apologize for everything I have done, please be the bigger and kind person you already are and continue what you were doing”

An instant reply!

Fel was taken aback by his sudden reply and was a little disappointed, she wanted to see him struggling a little before saying what she wanted but the instant reply didn't satisfy her.

Still, she smiled and engulfed his whole dick in one go, resuming the blowjob.

Chapter 29

“Ugghhh! Fel, I am cumming~”

Nux grunted in pleasure, this time, he held her head so she couldn't pull the trick she did earlier. Fel's tongue moved around his dick quickly, waves and waves of pleasure assaulted his body before he finally let go and fresh milk burst out from his dick.

“Mmmnm!”

Felberta's mouth was filled with Nux's jizz, she wanted to move but with Nux's newly gained strength, she couldn't. Her cheeks bloated before she slowly started swallowing his cum.

Gulp Gulp Gulp

“Aanh~ That felt good” Nux moaned in relief after he unloaded all of his cum inside her lovely mouth and finally released her head.

“How could you do this to me, I nearly choked to death!” Felberta complained.

“It's not my fault, you were just too good. Also, we need to keep your office clean, don't we?”

“You!”

“C'mon, at least control your pussy if you are going to act that you are angry. I can smell your juices from here, that's how wet you are right now. Who gets wet when they are angered? You horny woman”

Felberta blushed; she couldn't believe her little sister gave her away, still, now that she had won the first round, she did not want to let him take the lead as she continued.

“Don’t act like you know everything. As I said, just stay put and let me do everything.”

She completely ignored the fact that she was the one who blamed him. Of course, Nux did not mind, he found it rather cute.

Also, it satisfied his ego seeing such a beautiful girl trying to satisfy him with everything she has.

Fel stood up, removed her black panty before she lifted her gown to her waist and sat on Nux’s lap facing him.

She then held his still hard dick as she gave it a few strokes up and down.

“You dare call me horny when you are still hard after coming just a few moments ago?”

“I would doubt my sexuality if I don’t get hard seeing a beautiful girl like you trying so hard to seduce me”

“Hmph! At least you have this much sense” Felberta smiled sweetly before snorting, she then placed his perfectly hard dick in front of her little sister and inserted it in one go.

“Aanh~” She let out a moan of pleasure.

“Uughh~” Nux didn’t have it any better either and he grunted in pleasure.

After having so many rounds of sex with Felberta, her insides have already taken the shape of his dick, it was as if her vagina was specially made for him.

Her squishy insides surrounded every part of his rod, sending him to cloud nine just after entering it.

Suddenly, Felberta hugged him tightly, his face stuck between her two giant but soft mountains that were still covered with her gown.

The sweet scent of her lavender perfume assaulted his nose, Nux even wondered if it was an aphrodisiac because he could feel the sudden urge to just grab her and start pounding her like crazy.

Of course, since he promised to play by her rules, he controlled that urge.

He also wanted to see how far she could go to ‘dominate’ him.

Felberta then lifted her butt before slamming it down again, sending jolts of pleasure inside his body.

He could feel her soft and perky but hitting his thigh, jiggling after the collision.

“Ugghhnhh~~”

“Aanh~”

Felberta also couldn’t resist the pleasure and moaned out loud. Her pussy has already been moulded into the shape of his dick, which means that with just one thrust, Nux can hit all her weak points making her body shudder in pleasure.

The viscount bit her lips and continued moving,

“Ugghhnhh~~”

Nux continued moaning in pleasure, but Felberta had it worse.

The more she moved, the more pleasure assaulted her body and soon, it was clear that her body was too numb and weak to continue.

Nux smiled before he raised his head that was buried in her cleavage and whispered.

“Oh? Tired already? It’s okay, just entrust your body to me like you always do.”

He then grabbed her perky butt, before lifting it up and as soon as he released it, he moved his crotch up as well, his dick exploring the area it couldn't do before when Felberta was 'in charge'.

“AAngnhh~” Felberta shuddered in pleasure as his dick directly entered her womb. She grabbed his head tightly to cope with the pleasure, still trying hard to remain in control.

Nux smiled before he lifted her butt again, thrusting in the same way he did before and sending another wave of unbearable pleasure into her body.

“AAnnghh~ AAnnghh~ AAnnghh~”

Phat! Phat! Phat!

The sound of moans and flesh meeting flesh echoed throughout the office.

Felberta's grip over Nux's head had already loosened, the only reason she was not falling was Nux's hand supporting her back from time to time.

Her body was already numb; again, she completely entrusted her body to Nux to do as he see fit.

Her mission to dominate him and be the one deciding the pace has failed miserably but she didn't care, the pleasure she felt right now marginally surpassed any pleasure she could ever feel after dominating Nux.

Her whole body moved rhythmically with Nux's and her moans. Her ahego face has long appeared.

“Aannnggghhhh~”

Suddenly, she felt Nux biting her nipple through her gown, her body jerked due to sudden stimulation, her canals tightened and a huge amount of love juice was released by her little sister.

She came.

Having his dick showered by her fresh juice, accompanied by her canals tightening around his dick trying to suck it dry, the pleasure he felt rose exponentially and,

“Ugghh! I am cumming again!!”

His milk spread all over her insides.

Chapter 30

Right after he came, Nux felt an almost negligible amount of energy entering his body, he quickly understood that after levelling up, in the future, the amount of energy he gains from Felberta would not help him with anything.

Of course, that does not mean that he will stop having sex with her. He had other plans in his mind; he then glanced at Felberta, before activating his [Eye Of Discerning].

[Name: Felberta Alveye]

[Age: 28]

...

Just as Nux came into her, Felberta felt a huge amount of energy entering her body, normally, she would have ignored it as she was too busy enjoying the aftertaste of their session but this addressed something she was very concerned about right now.

She felt her strength increasing, and it was not by a little. She even felt she was hallucinating since she has been thinking too much about this issue but Nux's words confirmed that she was indeed not hallucinating.

“Do you feel your strength increasing?”

“Hah? Wha- How?”

Nux smiled as he kissed her forehead and explained,

“Do you remember when you told me to cultivate the technique you gave me and I said I have my ways to get stronger?”

“Y-Yes? What about it?”

“Well, this is the way. I have this ability that whenever I have sex with a woman, weird energy is released and is distributed between the couple. Of course, the weaker one gets the most shares. I call this Dual Cultivation”

Fel's eyes opened wide in shock, she couldn't believe that such an absurd ability actually exists.

“T-Then-”

“When we started, I was just a weakling; you on the other hand were stronger than me, that is also the reason how my strength grew so quickly, that is also the reason why you couldn't feel any changes since the energy you got was too minimal for you to notice while you relish the aftertaste of our session.”

“B-But that still doesn’t describe how you got stronger so qui- wait,” Felberta realized something, her expression turned black as if she was still processing what she learned. She was so shocked by what she learned that she started contradicting her brain, trying to find ways to prove her theory wrong.

However, after thinking for a while, nothing came up and she glanced at Nux with unconcealed anger.

It wasn’t playful anger she always had, she was really angry this time.

“I will not hide it from you, I did have sex with another woman.”

“You! How dare you!? Do you think that just because he got a little stronger, I can’t kill you!? I have countless ways to have you die without even getting my hands dirty!” Felberta roared as she grabbed his collar in anger and hatred.

“...” Nux on the other hand, stayed silent. He knew he was in the wrong, but he also knew that this is his only way to survive and live a good life in this new world.

Not getting any reply from him, the viscount’s anger soared, tears threatened to leak out from her eyes, she then took a deep breath, stood up from his lap and ordered.

“Leave.”

“Fe-”

“I said, Leave.”

Nux nodded before he walked out of the office.

Outside the office, Skyla was there and glanced at him, she looked especially worried and wanted to talk to him but Nux shook his head.

Lane was out for some work today, so no one would be here to tend to Felberta's needs if she left.

After Nux left, Felberta wore her panty, fixed her gown before she walked into the bathroom and washed her face.

She then returned to her office and sat on her chair, all this while, there was no expression on her face.

...

An hour later, Joyab arrived. He frowned when he noticed the unusual atmosphere and questioned,

“Viscount Felberta, is something bothering you?”

“No.”

Joyab realized that this no meant yes, he then thought about it and noticed that Nux wasn't here anymore. His eyes suddenly turned cold before he questioned.

“Viscount Felberta, if it is that boy toy who has hurt you in any way, we can get rid of him.”

Viscount frowned when she heard him and muttered, “Boy toy...?”

Joyab furrowed his brows as he asked, “That is what he is, right?”

Suddenly, Felberta thought about something and her brows furrowed even more. Unable to take it anymore, she stood up and announced, “Today's work is over, we will continue what's left tomorrow”

Then without waiting for his answer, she stood up and left the office.

“Where is Nux?” She questioned.

“I believe he is in his room” Skyla replied, there was a tinge of fear in her tone but the viscount failed to notice that.

Felberta nodded as she increased her pace and rushed towards Nux’s room.

Bam

Nux turned towards his door that was slammed open by someone and saw a familiar figure entering before closing the door with another Bam. He stood up to receive his guest as he heard her question.

“Why did you do it?”

“Do what?”

“Why did you have sex with me instead of just running away after you completed your goal here? You know me, I might send someone to search for you, I wouldn’t have hurt you.”

“And then what would I do later?”

“With your looks, I don’t think you would have difficulties finding and seducing any other woman. You could have kept increasing your strength that way”

“Do you think that I don’t have control over my ability? If I wanted to hide, I would have just disabled the dual cultivation ability and stayed here as if nothing happened; but...”

“But what?”

“But if I did that, then what about you?”

Chapter 31

“But if I did that, then what about you?”

Nux questioned, of course, his talk about him controlling his ability was all bullshit, he didn't have that level of control yet.

Heck, he didn't even know if he could control it in the future.

“W-What about me?”

“Look, Fel, my goal is a lot bigger than you think. You might be a beautiful woman right now, but in a few years, your age will catch up to you, your body wouldn't be able to handle all the pleasure and we wouldn't be able to have sex as we do now.

You are the first woman I fell in love with, there is no way I would let that happen. You are just a 28-year-old woman right now, 28 can be considered young if you are a cultivator. You might not be able to cultivate now that your 'prime' is over, but that does not mean I cannot help you.

I plan to force you to be with me in all my adventures from now on, and not just for a few years, but for many many years to come ahead”

Felberta's anger soothed a little when she heard that, her age was her biggest worry right now, seeing him thinking about her and also finding ways to help her warmed her heart a little.

Also, the words, 'you are the first woman I fell in love with' filled her heart with an immense sense of satisfaction and delight. She had long since stopped considering him as her boy toy. She felt happy that he felt the same way.

Of course, that doesn't mean she will forgive him so easily, she kept a tough front and questioned.

“Then what would you have done if I had ordered to get you killed in a fit of anger?”

“Hmph! As if you can bear to see me get killed” Nux snorted.

“You! How would you know that!?”

“Isn’t me standing here in front of you enough proof?” Nux smirked arrogantly.

“You!” Felberta wanted to strangle him to death after seeing his arrogant expression.

“Okay, now calm down. How about I apologize with my body instead?” Nux smiled as walked toward her before embracing her lovingly.

“...mm” Felberta nodded weakly.

Nux’s smile widened as he picked her up and placed her on his bed to start another round of lovemaking.

...

“Annggh~ Annggh~ Annggh~”

“AAAnnnngggghh~”

Hearing the loud moaning sound coming out of the room, Skyla couldn’t help but widen her big green eyes.

‘Wasn’t the viscount angry? Why is she moaning like that? What did Nux do?’

“My strength increased again”

While being in Nux’s warm embrace, without wearing anything, Felberta muttered, still surprised by how absurd his ability was.

“It did, but not as much as before” Nux nodded.

“How do you know?”

“I can see others’ strength with my eyes,” Nux pointed at his hypnotic golden eyes. Felberta stared at them before noticing some sort of golden patterns moving around as if they were alive.

“I wonder how many more surprises you have for me”

“Oh just wait, your future journey would be nothing sort of fantasy. I promise you”

“Mmhm.” Felberta nodded with a smile.

“Nux...” suddenly, Felberta called out.

“Hmm?”

“Can you tell me who is the other woman y-you spend time with...?”

“Do you promise not to say anything to her?”

“That’s not it, I have already accepted that you will meet and spend time with a lot more amazing women in the future. Many of these women would be even better than me, I-I am just thinking that since I have the advantage of meeting you the earliest, I would create a faction under me to increase my influence over you”

“Hahahaha~ I can’t believe you thought this far ahead. You really are a viscount, aren’t you? Hahaha~” Hearing her words, Nux laughed out loud. The more he laughed, the redder Felberta’s face got as she pinched his waist in anger.

“Ouchh! I give up! I give up! Don’t do that anymore!” Nux cried in pain. Of course, with his defence right now, it didn’t hurt him that much but it was still fun to see her reactions. Moments later, Nux turned serious as replied,

“Fel, remember it, no matter how many women I meet, no matter how amazing they are. You, as my first love will always have a special place in my heart. I will always love you, kay?”

Felberta’s heartbeat quickened, her face turned redder every second and she replied in a voice as low as a mosquito,

“I will always love you as well...”

Seeing her acting like that, Nux tightened his embrace around her. His hand played with her soft breasts while his limp rod stood up again.

Sensing a hard and very familiar thing poking her ass, Felberta's face reddened even more before she threw away her bashfulness and returned to her previous viscount mode.

“Tsk Tsk, you got hard again, what kind of horny animal are you?”

“Hmph! You don't sound very convincing when your ass is moving like it is trying to get my rod closer to your canal”

“In your dreams! I would neve- Annh~”

Felberta wanted to retort but just as Nux placed his dick right in front of her entrance, she moaned.

“Tsk Tsk and you had the galls to call me a horny animal”

Nux snorted before he drilled his rod right into her canal.

“AAAnnnngggghh~”

Countless messages appeared in front of Nux as he released his jizz inside Skyla. A large amount of energy that gushed into his body felt great. He slowly removed his dick from her body as he smiled,

“It felt really good”

“It felt g-good for me as well” Skyla muttered shyly.

Nux kissed her forehead before he hugged her from behind as the two stayed in the same position for a while.

Since lane was back today, they couldn't have sex in the bathroom, therefore, Nux sneakily brought her to his room after Skyla asked Lane to do her part of work as well for a while.

Though confused, Lane nodded in agreement and Skyla quickly sneaked away with Nux without letting anyone know about this, not even Lane.

Skyla enjoyed his embrace as she snuggled even closer to his body, which has now gained some muscles, making him manlier than before.

After a few hours, outside Felberta's office, Joyab's mouth was twitching uncontrollably after he saw Nux entering viscount Felberta's office with a smile on his face.

Nobody will know how he will react if he was told that his words were the ones responsible for their relationship getting back on track and getting even stronger than before.

However, Nux wasn't here to have sex with Felberta like before, today, they were on a mission.

Nux and Fel smiled when they glanced at each other as Nux remembered the time after they had sex last night.

"Nux"

"Yeah?"

"You still haven't told me who the other woman is yet"

"It's Skyla."

"It's her! But how did you know that she was a cul- oh, your eyes..."

"Mmhm."

"Then what about Lane, what do you plan to do with her?"

“Of course, I plan to have sex with her as well, but I still can’t think how” Nux replied honestly. He might’ve ignored her since she and Skyla had around the same level of strength, but he had that mission with the penalty of him being stripped of his [Craving Touch].

He can’t afford that.

“Hmm, but tricking Lane won’t be as simple as it was with Skyla.”

“Huh? Why do you sound like I always trick women to get under their skirts?”

“Huh? Isn’t that what you do?” Felberta did not waste the chance to retort to him.

“...” Nux thought about it a little and decided to remain silent. He knew himself well, heck! He even tricked this woman in front of him. How can he retort back?

“Hmph!” Felberta snorted before she continued, “As I was saying, Lane isn’t that easy to deal with, Skyla is a little clumsy so it was easy to trick her but Lane is too serious about her work. She would shun you away before you could even touch her”

“Hmm, this will be a little trickier then” Nux muttered.

“I can help you if you do what I told you to do for the rest of the night. What do you think?” Felberta offered.

“You’ll help me? Aren’t you against me spending time with other women?” Nux questioned in surprise.

“I am, but I also know that with a weird ability like that, it will benefit you greatly. Also, Skyla and Lane are different, I know them already so I can bring them to my faction.”

“Hahaha! I can’t believe you are still thinking about it~”

“You don’t have to worry about that, just tell me, do you accept or not!?”
Fel snapped.

“I will be under your care for the night then, master~”

Felberta smiled seductively before she brought her hand in front of his mouth and just like an obedient servant, he gently kissed her hand, showing his submission.

“Skyla! Lane!” Felberta called out.

Moments later, two beautiful women wearing French maid uniforms entered the office.

“Lane, I want you to go out and buy grains and some spices for this month.”

“Viscount Felberta, I have already bought everything for this month when I left yesterday”

“O-Oh is that so, good, you are as efficient as ever. Oh right! I think it’s time we buy a new set of utensils, don’t you think? Lane, I’ll leave it to you. Go and buy some new set of utensils, I want to see them by today evening.”

“As you command, Viscount Felberta” Lane bowed though she thought that the Viscount was acting weird, she did not think too much about it and nodded.

“Oh right, Fel, you see, I have gained some muscles after exercising for so long, don’t you think I should buy some new clothes for myself? Should I go with Sister Lane, I can also protect her if someone dares to bully her, what do you think?”

“Hmm. Okay, you do that. Lane, I will leave him in your care. Okay?”

“Haah? Why would you leave me in her care, you think I am a child? Sister Lane should be left in my care” Nux complained.

Of course, Fel completely ignored his words like they were nothing.

Skyla and Lane smiled when they saw them acting like that.

“Alright, Sister Lane, let’s go. Don’t worry, I’ll protect you”

Nux grabbed her hand naturally before the two left the office.

Felberta then glanced at Skyla, being stared at her like that, Skyla panicked before she questioned,

“V-Viscount F-Felberta, is there anything I can help you with?”

“You still dare to act ignorant after stealing my Man like that? Hah?”

Chapter 33

“You still dare to act ignorant after stealing my Man like that? Hah?”

Felberta snapped.

Skyla’s face turned pale when she heard that, she then quickly bowed and apologized,

“I-I am very sorry, Viscount Felberta, I-I was the one who s-seduced him, it was not Nux’s fault. If you are angry, then p-please punish me!”

“Pfft” Seeing her acting like that, Felberta couldn’t help but laugh out loud. She just wanted to tease her a little; she didn’t expect her to react so strongly.

Skyla on the other hand got even more confused when she saw her laughing like that.

“Don’t worry, I won’t punish you. It’s not your fault, that Nux is a scoundrel. Once he lays his trap, no one can escape it”

“That’s not it! I am really telling the truth, I was the one who seduced him. It was not his fault”

Felberta was dumbfounded when she saw her acting like that. She felt like she was a tyrant of a love story of a couple and is forcing them apart.

“I said I am not angry, not at you, neither at Nux. So don’t worry” Felberta clarified.

“Wha- what?” Skyla stuttered. She was already panicking when she learned that the Viscount learned about her and Nux. Although she wondered how she learned about it, she did not have the time to think about it.

She only wanted to protect Nux by taking the blame on herself. She knew that if she wasn't curious about sex, Nux wouldn't have shown her.

Not only that, she then even got addicted to how good it felt and they both continued doing it...

It was all her fault...

She did not want Nux to suffer because of her but when she heard that the viscount wasn't angry at them even though she knew what they did, she could not believe it.

"Yes, so don't worry about unnecessary things since we don't have time for that. Come here, I need your help with something"

"As you say, Viscount Felberta" Seeing Felberta confirming her words, Skyla smiled brightly as she quickly walked towards her.

Felberta wanted to change the way she called her since they were both the woman of the same man, but deciding that it was Nux's headache, she did not bother with it.

"Do you know why I sent Lane and Nux together?" Felberta questioned directly.

"What? Wait... Viscount Felberta, you don't mean..."

"Yes, it is exactly as you think it is. I want Lane and Nux to be together and for that, I need your help. Okay?"

As Felberta confirmed her doubts, Skyla couldn't help but get even more confused, she clearly remembers how mad she was when she learned that Nux had sex with another woman yesterday, but today, not only she's not mad anymore, she is even helping him get another woman!

What kind of magic did Nux do on her? Was she really the Viscount Felberta she knew?

“What are you thinking about? Do you agree or not?” While she was still wondering about it, she heard Viscount Felberta’s question and quickly nodded.

“Good, now remember, when Lane comes back...”

...

On the other side, Lane was being dragged by Nux as he held her hand tightly.

“Sister Lane, don’t leave my hand till I say, okay? I can only protect you if you stay with me.”

Although she was stronger than Nux, or she believed, Lane nodded lightly. She did not dislike this foreign feeling that arose in her heart.

Sister Lane, or Lane Wyne, was a beautiful and serious woman. She had dark brown colour hair and eyes, she had a well-carved face, with sharp brows, a thin nose and soft pink lips. Nux’s favourite part about her was her big but firm breasts which were even larger than Fel’s. Her body curves were wonderful, coupled with her maid uniform; she was an ideal dream maid girl in any teen’s fantasy.

“Why didn’t you and Viscount Felberta hav- err I mean, stay together today like you two always do?”

“Hmm? What do you mean?”

“I m-meant that why did you and Viscount Felberta not have your a-afternoon s-session like you always do?”

“Hahaha~”

“Why are you laughing!?” Lane glared at Nux.

“Sorry~ I just find it funny how you are so ashamed of saying the word ‘sex’ Hahaha~”

“T-That’s not it! That’s not it at all!” Lane quickly retorted.

“Oh? What it is then?”

“Y-You are too young to understand that so there is no point explaining”

“Hahaha~ Look how flustered you are. Sister Lane, although you are older than me, you are still too immature. Even Sister Skyla is more mature than you”

“Huh? Skyla? What do you mean?” Lane frowned.

“Nothing~” Nux snickered inwardly.

After a long walk, the two finally entered the market. Nux also understood why Fel said that she was not easy to deal with.

During the whole journey, she didn’t utter a single word. Of course, Nux also did not allow her to free her hand. The two walked hand in hand without saying any word.

Nux sighed, he realized that if he did not initiate the conversation, she would not speak at all.

“Sister Lane, why do you work as a maid?” He questioned whatever came to his mind.

“Hm? What kind of question is that?”

“I mean, why do you work as a maid for Viscount Felberta? Why not other nobles? Is there any reason for it?”

“Viscount Felberta’s father picked me and Skyla up from an orphanage, not only did he provide us with a decent place to live and food, he even gave us cultivation techniques to cultivate. We are both indebted to him for changing our lives and decided to work as his daughter’s maids.”

“Hmm? You are Sister Skyla are orphans? Then you two must be really close, huh?”

“We are.” A small smile appeared on her face when she talked about her,
“Skyla is the only person I am close to”

“Sister Lane, would you mind if I ask a personnel question?”

“You can ask, whether I will answer or not depends on the question”

“Sister Lane, do you have someone you love?”

“L-Love?”

Chapter 34

“L-Love?”

“Mmhm, do you have someone who makes your heart race just with a mere mention of his name?”

“Huh? Of- Of course not! A maid doesn’t need love”

“Haah? What kind of logic is that? Who said that? Who doesn’t need love?”

“Why would anyone even need love? Won’t that just waste their time?”

“Then do you plan to be a maid even after you get old? Don’t you wish to have anyone who is there with you at all times? Anyone, who you can share your joy and sadness with?”

“Don’t I have Skylia for that? She is there for me whenever I need her, and I can share anything I want with her” Lane countered.

“But you can’t have sex with Sister Skylia now, can you?” Nux snickered.

“Wha- What?”

“Err, I mean, then what if Sister Skylia found someone she loves? She definitely won’t have much time for you if that happened, will she?”

“Huh? Skylia finding someone she loves?” Lane frowned.

“Of course, you can’t be thinking of forcing Sister Skylia to live your way, are you? Finding someone you love is natural, even if you force yourself not to, it doesn’t mean Sister Skylia won’t. What will you do after Sister Skylia isn’t there for you anymore?” Nux questioned.

“That would never happen! Skylia would never do that!” Lane retorted.

“Who knows? Nobody knows what the future holds. What if Sister Skyla found someone she loves? Would you want her to force her heart and continue living the boring life you two are living right now?”

Isn't that a very lonely way to live?”

Nux's words had a huge impact on Lane. She looked back and noticed that their life was true as Nux said, boring.

Since they both cultivate, they are different from other servants and are treated differently, this caused other servants to avoid them.

Of course, it did not matter to Lane because that was how they were used to live to begin with.

As long as they were together, everything was fine.

But that's where another problem came in. The two of them had the same job in the same place, no matter how close they were, they didn't have any topic to talk about. The two of them just eat and sleep together without having anything to talk about.

She has seen other servants talking with each other about their respective spouses, some complained, some bragged, but in the end, they still had something to share but she and Skyla did not.

When she imagined them living like that for the rest of their lives, Lane shuddered.

But when she imagined Skyla finding someone she loves and leaving her behind, Lane shuddered even more!

‘I-I have to talk about this with Skyla’ she thought inwardly.

Just as she was about to contemplate even more, she felt Nux pulling her somewhere. She then glanced at his face and seeing the excited look on his face, she smiled unconsciously.

“Sister Lane, look! A gift shop!” Nux exclaimed, his eyes gleaming in excitement.

He then picked up 3 simple looking black coloured bangles and bought them.

“Why did you buy this?”

“This one for Viscount Felberta, this one for Sister Skyla, and this,”

She saw him smiling before she felt something on her hand, she looked down and saw a black bangle on her wrist.

“And this is for you. This is also my way of saying that I will be there for you. If you ever feel lonely, you can come to me.”

Lane felt her heart racing like never before as a warm feeling filled her heart but the feeling soon disappeared when she heard his next words.

“We can also have sex if you want”

“You!” Lane glared at him angrily.

“Hahaha~ I am joking, I am joking! Even though I am actually not~”

“You are really shameless!”

“C’mon, you need to have some sort of fun in life, don’t you? Or else you would die of boredom!”

“Hmph!”

Lane snorted outwardly but inside, she had a little smile on her face as she glanced at the bangle in her hand.

The two bought everything Felberta said, Nux let her choose clothes for him and Lane did it excitedly.

Of course, Nux did not forget to tease with every chance he gets and their shopping trip that continued throughout the afternoon ended.

“My strength increased again” After their night session, Felberta muttered as she clenched her fist.

“Mmhm, a few more sessions before you will finally step into Beginner Mana Cultivation Stage.”

Felberta nodded with a smile, she couldn't believe the problem she thought so deeply and gave up was will be solved so easily and... the process will be so pleasurable.

“Did you succeed in the mission today?” She suddenly questioned.

“Are you doubting my skills? The two of them should be talking about it right now!” Nux affirmed.

“Yeah yeah, how can you fail when it comes to seducing an innocent woman? I myself am a victim.”

“You are really thick-skinned enough to say that when you are grabbing my little brother in your hands, huh...”

...

Nux was right, just as Skylia and Lane were done with the work and returned to their room, Lane questioned.

“Skylia, do you have someone you love?”

“Wha- What?”

“Do you have someone you love, someone whose mere mention of his name fills your heart with joy?”

Suddenly, Skylia blushed.

Lane's eyes widened in surprise as she questioned,

“Do you have one?”

Skylia nodded embarrassedly.

“S-Sister Lane, w-why are you asking about it?”

“Who is it?” Lane questioned without answering her question.

Skyla slowly glanced at the black coloured bangle she was wearing. Matching her gaze, she glanced at the bangle on Skyla’s hand and her eyes widened.

“Is it Nux!?”

Chapter 35

“Is it Nux!?”

Skyla slowly nodded her head without raising it; she was too embarrassed to face her.

“Skyla! You mustn’t!” Suddenly, Lane shouted as she grabbed Skyla’s shoulders.

“Skyla, I know Nux is extremely good looking and...” She blushed midsentence as she glanced at her bangle, “...and very caring as well. Although he acts like a pervert sometimes, that also has its charm. He might as well be the most perfect person you could have as your partner...”

Nobody knew if she was convincing Skyla, or just confirming her own thoughts as she continued, “...but you mustn’t fall in love with him! He belongs to Viscount Felberta”

“Bu-”

“No buts, remember, he belongs to Viscount Felberta. I know it will break your heart, you must have already fallen in love with him by now and must be continuously thinking about him while you work, but you mustn’t make a move on him or it will hurt Viscount Felberta.

I’ll give you a tip, remember all the things Sir Alveye has done for us, he is the reason why we have a roof on our heads and good food to eat every day. With how much he has done for us, how can we hurt his beloved daughter like that? No, we are not that selfish! Do you understand?”

Nobody knew where the ‘we’ come from.

“But Sister Lane, Viscount Felberta has already agreed!”

“Good, I knew you wo- What!?”

“Yes, Viscount Felberta already knows about our relationship and has given her approval!”

“A-Are you sure?”

“Of course, why would I ever lie to you?”

Lane was so shocked by her words that her mouth opened wide.

“N-not only that, but I... I already belong to Nux” Skyla dropped another bomb.

“W-What do you mean?”

“M-My body a-already belongs to him now...” Skyla answered with her face so red that she looked like a tomato.

“Oh my lord! How? When?” Lane shouted in shock as she questioned.

“Y-Yesterday was the first time and today morning w-was the second...” Skyla replied shyly.

“You did it twice!?” Lane screamed in surprise, somewhere in her heart, a sense of disapproval and dissatisfaction welled in.

She wanted to be happy for her sister but she couldn't... instead, she was jealous of her. She wanted to throw this feeling away, but she couldn't.

“S-Sister Lane, w-why don't you consider Nux as your partner as well?” Skyla dropped another bomb as she questioned.

“Huh? No, of course not! I would dare not go after your man. We are sisters after all” Lane placed a huge stone on her heart as she replied.

“No, it will not hurt me... On the contrary, it will make me feel good. Sister Lane, you see, I have spent my whole life with you.

From what I know, Nux will leave this mansion sooner or later and I would have to choose between you and him, which will put too much pressure on my heart.

Both of you are irreplaceable parts of my life; please don't make me choose one of you.

Sister Lane, just imagine, we two sisters having the same man, we can live together forever along with the man we love! Won't that be so amazing!?" Skylia suggested, her eyes glimmering with hope.

'And this is for you. This is also my way of saying that I will be there for you. If you ever feel lonely, you can come to me.'

Suddenly, Nux's words echoed inside her mind and Lane blushed. She considered Skylia's suggestion and couldn't help but think that it was too attractive.

"Sister Lane, tomorrow morning, I will be going to Nux's room, why don't you come with me?" Skylia questioned.

Suddenly, Lane glanced at Skylia as she questioned seriously, "You will have sex with tomorrow as well?"

"Of course, we w-will have s-sex e-everyday"

A sudden emotion welled inside Lane's heart.

'I mustn't miss out! I have already lost too much!'

"Okay, I'll go with you!" Lane decided.

"Yay! Sister Lane, you are the best!" Skylia jumped in joy as she hugged her tightly.

'I am not the best, my little Skylia, I am just a selfish person... ' Lane muttered inwardly, clearly disgusted by herself.

...

The next morning, after sending Felberta off to her office, Nux returned to his room, waiting for someone, or some people.

He didn't have to wait for too long as the door opened and Skyla walked in.

“Oh! Skyla! You are he- Hmm? Sister Lane? What are you doing here?”
Nux questioned in surprise.

Hearing his question, Lane blushed before she pinched Skyla's waist, signalling her to explain it to him.

“AAhh! N-Nux, I had a request” after screaming in pain, Skyla started.

“You can ask me anything, love,” Nux replied gently.

Skyla and Lena blushed a little before Skyla continued,

“Nux, you see, Sister Lane and I have always been together. When I was thinking about it, I couldn't seem to choose between you two. S-So that's why; I want you to accept S-Sister Lane together with me.”

“So in other words, you want me to have sex with both of you at the same time?”

Before Skyla could even answer, Lane nodded readily.

“I am very excited and happy about this offer, but I am sorry, I can't do that” Nux directly shook his head.

Skyla opened her eyes wide in shock.

Lane however had it worse, her heart plunged into despair. She thought that everything Nux said to her yesterday was fake and her whole world crumbled, tears welled up inside her eyes but just before they could fall, Nux's next words pulled her from despair and brought her to heaven.

“This should be Sister Lane's first time right? A woman's first time is very precious. I have to give her special attention. Skyla, my love, would you mind leaving the room for a while? You can come back in an hour and I promise I will make up to you”

Chapter 36

“This should be Sister Lane’s first time right? A woman’s first time is very precious. I have to give her special attention. Skyla, my love, would you mind leaving the room for a while? You can come back in an hour and I promise I will make up to you”

After Skyla left, Lane’s heart started beating faster. She was now alone with Nux inside his room. She felt a sudden need to say something and opened her mouth.

“I... I d-don’t know anything about s-sex...”

“Oh! So you can indeed say the word sex” Nux nodded in realization.

Lane’s face blushed in embarrassment, she then saw Nux walking towards him. The closer he came, the faster her heartbeat rose.

“You don’t have to worry, just leave your body to me, okay?”

She heard Nux’s gentle voice and nodded. She felt Nux’s hand on her butt before he carried her in his arms and placed her on the bed.

Suddenly, she felt something soft on her lips. She glanced below and saw Nux’s lips touching her. She moved her lips a little forward, feeling his lips even more.

She then felt his right hand moving down before directly entering her skirt before reaching her sacred place.

The closer it got, the stiffer her body got. She then heard a calming voice that seemed to ease all her insecurities.

“You do not have to be so tense. Just relax, kay?”

Lane nodded as she took a deep breath and calmed her body.

She soon felt his fingers moving her forbidden area sensually, her body trembled and she could feel her juices building inside her.

Then suddenly, a long finger entered her canal sending a jolt of pleasure into her body.

“Mnhff!!”

She wanted to moan but at the same time, a wet something entered her mouth and started fighting her tongue for dominance. Since she was already facing so many attacks at the same time; her tongue lost without much of a fight.

Soon, another finger entered her cave.

“Mmhggnh~” Again, she wanted to moan but her mouth was already dominated by his, so only a muffled moan was released.

The two fingers started exploring her cave. The pleasure she felt already surpassed the pleasure she even thought was humanly possible to feel.

Unable to moan, her body found another way to show how good it felt, her back arched up and her eyes rolled up.

“AAnnggh~ It feels so good~~”

As if understanding her plight, he freed her already defeated mouth, allowing her to moan to her heart content.

Soon, she felt her giant mountains getting freed. She felt an otherworldly wave of pleasure assaulting her body as soon as his wet tongue then started licking her already erect nipple. Her canals tightened and she moaned even more!

“AANnggh~”

She felt his tongue stopping for a second before it continued to assault her nipple, sending waves of pleasure all over her body.

It didn't a long time before her body finally gave up, her canal tightened more than ever and she screamed,

“I am cummmiinnnnggg~~~”

Spurt

She came, drenching his hand with her cum.

Moments later, her arched back fell, her eyes balls that weren't visible returned, and her large breast moved up and down as she started breathing heavily.

“Haah... Haah... Haah...”

Just as she thought that pleasure couldn't get any better; she felt something that was not his hand or fingers touching her canal.

She slowly opened her tired eyes and saw a huge dick, which she has seen being drilled into Viscount Felberta's pussy, standing proudly in front of her entrance.

“Alright, next jump to the next stage” She heard a voice but before she could reply, his little brother's head already entered her little sister and she moaned.

“Anh~”

“It might hurt a little, be brave, kay?”

Lane's mind wasn't really clear, her body just knew that had to nod at whatever this man said, and it did that.

Lane was then jolted awake by the sudden pain she felt, but before she could even register it, another wave of pleasure entered her body through her breast, more specifically her nipple.

She glanced down and saw Nux biting her nipple, sending shivers to her body.

“AAhnnnnhh~~”

With this weird combination of pleasure and pain she was feeling, Lane moaned weirdly but soon, the pleasure overwhelmed her pain as she could feel her nipple being sucked on by Nux while being licked by his tongue inside his mouth.

“AANnggh~~”

Her body quivered in pleasure as her pussy released her love juice uncontrollably; her tight cave loosened a little, allowing his dick to move.

Soon, she felt the dick that has invaded her pussy moving, after a few little back and forward moves, his rod moved back, nearing the entrance before directly drilling into her deepest parts.

“AAhnnnnhh~~”

She could feel him repeating the same move, drilling it even deeper this time.

“AAhnnnnhh~~”

The process started getting smoother as Nux increased his pace while exploring deeper and deeper.

“Annggh~ Annggh~ Annggh~”

Lane continued to moan in delight, the pain she felt was long since overwhelmed by the huge amount of mind-numbing pleasure that assaulted her body. Her back arched up again, eyes rolled back and she continued to moan while being drilled by his rod mercilessly.

“Annggh~ It Annggh~ feels so Annggh~ gooooodddd~~ Annggh~ Annggh~”

“UUgghh~”

Nux was also trying his best to not moan in pleasure, her pussy was unusually tight, and his both hands played with her plump and large breasts, while he drilled deeper and deeper.

He could then feel his dick twitching, knowing that he was about to cum, he pinched and pulled her nipples,

“Annggggghhhh~ Am cumminggg agaiinnnn~”

She moaned loudly, her pussy walls tightened to a ridiculous degree and her love juice drenched his dick. Not able to take the pleasure anymore Nux grunted and his milk burst out.

“Uugghhh~”

[Mission Accomplished]

Chapter 37

Just as he painted her walls white, a huge amount of energy entered his body, revitalizing his body.

A screen appeared in front of him, announcing the mission being accomplished.

Since Lane was still tired, he did not force her to go for the second round. There was still some time before Skyla returned, Nux sat cross-legged before he looked at another feature he got a day ago.

[System Shop]

[Current System Points: 20]

Nux could see a few other sections but they were locked and he couldn't even read what they were so he decided to ignore them as well.

'Ahh... so this is where I can use my system points...' Nux realized but when he saw the price, he quickly backed off.

He didn't even have enough money for a 1-star cultivation technique or ability.

Not that he needed a cultivation technique since he already had this cheat but damn, it was expensive.

The skill books and Weapons aren't any better either; he would have nothing left if he bought two 1 star skills or weapons. Nux then shook his head and decided that he would just talk to Felberta and get whatever skills and weapons she had.

That way, he would be able to save some System Points and buy something good later.

Of course, that did not stop him from reading about some skills books and abilities, thinking of different ways to use them.

He learned that these 'skill books' were like spells a magician has, while these 'abilities' are more like innate power or something like his [Craving Touch] and [Eye Of Discerning].

Of course, his two abilities were very high levelled; at least he didn't find something of similar use in the 1, 2, or 3-star abilities section. He didn't dare venture deeper as 1000 System points were still a pipe dream for him.

Time passed, and soon, Skyla entered the room with a big smile on her face.

"Sister Lane is sleeping, huh? I guess she was too tired just after one session" She muttered.

"Heh, it is not like you are anything better. You always pass out after I cum inside you" Nux teased.

"I-I was inexperienced back then... I can guarantee I have improved now"

"Hmm? What back then are you talking about? Didn't you pass out just yesterday?"

"Yesterday was yesterday, today is different"

"Heh~ we'll see about that"

Skyla blushed a little before she walked towards the bed before she fell on top of Nux. Nux then quickly turned around, lying on top of Skyla.

Without wasting any time, his hand moved towards her pussy and when he touched her entrance, he noticed that she was already wet.

"Hmm? Were you peeping?"

"I... I only looked a little before I went back to my room..."

"And what did you do in your room?"

“N-Nothing...” she tried to avoid his gaze.

“Hahaha~ You so cute, Skyla~”

Skyla blushed in embarrassment.

“Alright, since you are already ready, shall we start with the main dish directly?”

“mm”

Nux did not wait any longer, he quickly removed her white panty before he inserted his half-hard dick inside. Her warm insides wrapped around his half-hard dick, caressing him as if eager for it to grow up.

After enjoying the pleasure for a while, Nux started moving rhythmically.

Skyla on the other hand bit her lips, she wanted to control herself and not moan like she always does.

Some maids working in the mansion have already heard her moans. She could hear when they talk about it and it made her too embarrassed.

Nux then lowered her uniform, freeing her cute breasts as he played with them to his heart's content.

It did not take a long time for his dick to harden; its veins bulged out, going deeper and deeper with every thrust.

“Ah...”

“Annh... So good~”

“AAAnngghh~”

“Anngghh~ Anngghh~ Anngghh~”

Skyla tried to keep her voice down, it started with a little moan, then with a bigger one, and then even bigger, before she finally decided that it would be too difficult to complete her task and decided to let go.

Her mind was already numb with pleasure as Nux drilled her rhythmically; she was too busy enjoying the pleasure to think about these minor things like her moans.

Yes, she will regret it later.

Nux continued his drilling, Skyla's pussy was way too soft and since it had already taken his shape, no point of his rod wasn't tended by her walls, pushing him to cloud nine, his body and mind numb with pleasure.

“Uuggghh~~”

It didn't take a long time for fresh milk to build up, he then grabbed her perky butt before filling her insides with his jizz.

“AAAnngghh~ So gooooodddd~”

Skyla shouted, her canals tightened before her pussy drenched his long rod with its juices.

Nux took a deep breath and felt familiar energy entering his body, just as he was about to lie down, he heard another voice calling him.

“Hey... Don't leave me out...”

Chapter 38

“Hey... Don't leave me out... I want to join as well...”

Lane said sleepily as she crawled towards the pair. She was sleeping soundly when she started hearing loud moans, her dreams turned into wet dreams and soon, she woke up.

The moment she woke up, she saw Skyla being drilled by Nux mercilessly as she moaned in ecstasy.

Lane also noticed that Skyla's face was very close to Viscount Felberta's. The sight turned her on while she pondered how could Skyla show such an indecent face.

Of course, she didn't know that she had a similar expression just an hour ago.

Seeing her crawling towards him while her huge breasts hanging down, swaying back and forth, Nux felt his dick twitching again. It didn't take a long time for his rod to stand proudly again, ready for another round.

“Since you want it so badly, why not?”

Of course, even he was tired after ejaculating so many times, but the energy he received after he came inside Skyla helped him recover a bit.

Also, seeing her huge mountains swaying like that, as if needing attention was another boost to his will, he believed he shouldn't turn her down no matter what.

“I-I want to join as well...” suddenly, he heard another voice.

He glanced at Skyla who was lying on the bed as he questioned,

“Aren't you tired?”

“Didn’t I say that I was too inexperienced back then? I can go for another round without a problem now”

Skyla replied with a smug smile.

Nux glanced at her before he glanced at Lane and suddenly, a thought made him excited.

‘Am I going to have the legendary threesome!?! Damn! I became one of those characters that my previous virgin self was jealous of!’

Thinking that, he smiled as he replied, “Then you are welcome to join as well. Alright, from now on, you two shall listen to me and I promise I will fuck you to the 9th heaven!”

The girls blushed in embarrassment, they couldn’t believe how bold he was to say indecent things like that out loud. However, when they saw him waiting for their reply, the two of them nodded.

“Alright, now the placing!”

As a certified virgin and a man of culture, Nux had watched enough hen-Ahem, source materials to know what he can do to make them feel the most pleasure.

Of course, since this was his first time as well, he was a little nervous as well but he quickly hid it and continued confidently.

“Lane, now crawl over here, place your ass on Skyla’s face and place your mouth in between her thighs” Nux ordered.

Lane blushed before she nodded with a determined look and crawled over to them. The sight of her breasts jiggling was a huge turn-on for Nux. Even though her movements were a little stiff, she quickly placed herself as Nux told. All this while, hers and Skyla’s faces were red like a tomato.

“Alright, now continue licking your sister’s little sister until I tell you to stop, kay?”

Lane nodded before she licked Skylia's pussy for the first time. Her body was trembling in nervousness and... some excitement. She imitated Nux's fingers as she licked the surroundings slowly before she inserted her tongue inside.

“Anh~” Skylia's pussy was already a little sensitive since she had just cum, therefore she moaned in pleasure when Lane's tongue entered her cave.

“Good, don't forget to tease and knead her butt from time to time, do it just like I knead your milky breasts~”

Lane did as she was told as her hands grabbed Skylia's perky butt. Skylia's moan already filled her with some weird sense of satisfaction, right now, she was even more excited to continue what she was doing, her nervousness transformed into excitement and thrill.

“AAng-”

Skylia's moan was abruptly stopped as a huge rod was placed on her forehead, nose, and lips. As if controlled by some force, her lips moved forward automatically, planting a small kiss that looked more like a kiss of submission.

“Mmnnfff~”

The dick's strong scent assaulted her nose; she closed her eyes and took a deep breath.

“Look closely how it enters and pleasure's your sister's little sister, kay?”

Skylia nodded as she opened her eyes. The sight of a huge dick placed right above her eyes made her tremble in excitement. Her pussy leaked her juices endlessly.

“!!!”

By the sudden influx of fresh juice, Lane was surprised, but then she started drinking her sister's juices greedily as if it was the most delicious thing in the world. Her hand movement quickened, sending waves and waves of pleasure inside Skyla's body.

“Mmmnn~”

Skyla wanted to moan but since her lips were busy kissing Nux's dick, she couldn't and let out a weird sound instead.

Nux then started rubbing his dick in front of Lane's entrance. Lane's body trembled in excitement; she wanted to stop her tongue and moan but was stopped as she heard Nux's order.

“Don't stop your tongue till I say otherwise, kay?”

Lane nodded without stopping, showing how obedient of a girl she was.

Her fresh juice leaked out of her pussy, and Nux smiled as he glistened his dick with her juices, preparing to enter and conquer her insides. Suddenly, he felt a jolt of pleasure coursing through his body and he looked down.

Skyla, since she couldn't kiss and lick his dick anymore, she shifted her mouth to the next target.

His balls.

She kissed and licked them a little before she gobbled them up and started sucking.

“Good~”

Nux smiled as he praised before he turned to Lane's ass and drilled his dick right into her in one go.

“Mmnnhhhh~”

Chapter 39

Lane's body jolted in pleasure as Nux drilled his dick into her. Since she wasn't allowed to stop licking her sister's little sister. She let out a muffled moan and tightened her grip around Skylia's perky butt.

This sends another jolt of pleasure into Skylia's body as she intensified her sucking, increasing Nux's pleasure.

Impressed by the cycle of pleasure he created, Nux smiled before he pulled his dick backwards, and then smashed it right into her. He then repeated this again, then again, and again, before his movements turned smoother and caught a rhythm.

The more he pounded Lane, the more pleasure she felt and she tightened her grip around Skylia's ass, sending more pleasure inside Skylia's body, causing her to suck even more.

“Uuggghh~ This feels so good” Nux grunted in pleasure before his eyes fell on Lane's huge breasts swaying back and forth in rhythm with his drilling.

They looked extremely soft, it was as if they were enticing him to grab them.

He bent down, placed his head on her back and grabbed her mountains as he started playing with them.

“AANnghhh~” as the pleasure she was feeling exploded, Lane stopped her licking and squeezing, and moaned out loud.

This caused the cycle to stop, Nux, of course, wasn't exactly happy with it. He smiled as he slowed his thrusting before stopping.

Lane's body trembled in frustration, she wanted to ask why he stopped but soon heard her answer.

“I said don’t stop until I tell you to”

Lane nodded before she quickly started licking Skylas pussy and kneading her butt. She didn’t waste time telling him how good it felt or anything; she just wanted him to start his pounding as soon as possible.

Nux, of course, did what she wanted and the cycle continued.

As he kneaded her breasts, he remembered that her weak point was the same as Felbertas, he wondered if the women who have larger breasts have the same weak point but he quickly threw that thought out as another, far better thought entered his mind.

He smiled evilly before he pinched Lane’s nipples.

“Mmnnhffhh~”

This time, Lane did not repeat her mistake and continued licking while her canals tightened, but Nux wasn’t done. He quickly started pulling her nipples as if he wanted to tear them apart.

Lane’s body jolted due to this weird sense of pain and pleasure, her canals tightened more than ever. To not moan out loud, she started sucking Skylas pussy intensely, causing Skylas to suck on Nux’s balls even more strongly.

“Uugggh~ I am cummingggg~”

The stimulation was too much for Nux to bear, his milk burst out, painting all Lane’s insides in white while he pinched her pink nipples even harder.

“Mmmmmnnnnhhhhhh~”

As if her last defence was broken, Lane orgasmed like there is no tomorrow. Her whole body trembled before turning weak and she passed out.

Nux’s face twitched when he saw her passing out like that, he wanted to pass out too but he still had to go for another round. He glanced down and when he saw Skylas licking and sucking on his dick, trying to keep it as hard as possible and his heart turned warm.

‘So what? It’s just one round. With the energy I received from Lane, I believe I can make it’

He thought inwardly as he glanced at Skyla again.

He had to admit, Skyla licking and sucking his dick’s head drenched with his and Lane’s juices while his balls laid on her hairline, his dick laid on her forehead, her nose, all the way to her mouth was really turning him on.

He enjoyed her service a little more before he chuckled,

“Skyla, my love, don’t worry, I am not leaving you behind and unsatisfied.”

Skyla stopped her sucking and her face turned red, “T-That’s not it”

Nux chuckled again before he placed the sleeping Lane to the side before he turned and placed his hard and sensitive dick right in front of Skyla’s entrance. He looked at her face before smiling as he directly shoved his dick inside.

“AAAnngghh~”

Skyla moaned as her body twitched in pleasure. After all the teasing and licking Lane did, her body was a lot more sensitive than Nux thought.

With just one thrust, her body arched up, her eyes rolled back, and her small tongue popped out.

Nux smiled as he pulled his dick before shoving it again.

“AAAnngghh~”

Nux then thought of something and placed her legs on his shoulder and shoved his dick into her again.

This way, he entered her deepest area, the one that he never entered before.

“AAAnllgggggghhhhh~”

Skyla was jolted awake by the sudden influx of pleasure, but before she understand what happened, Nux started his pounding, fucking her to the ninth heaven.

“Annggh~ Annggh~ Annggh~”

She moaned uncontrollably, her body was already numb, especially her thighs.

Nux didn't have it any better either, his dick was already sensitive after cumming so much. As he entered deep inside her cave, the tightness made him feel numb.

Then Skyla's pussy tightened even more as the pleasure she was feeling increased.

He was already trying his best to hold out for a second longer. Right now, he wanted nothing more than to feel her cave tightening signalling that she was about to cum. His mind moved as he thought of different ways to make it happen before an idea came into his mind.

He raised his hand high in the air before,

Pat

He slapped her butt.

Feeling her butt tightening, he slapped again, then again, and then again.

Pat Pat Pat

Skyla, who was already on cloud nine, felt another wave of painful but immense pleasure assaulting her body. Her body jolted as her walls tightened before,

“AAnnllgggggghhhh~”

She came.

Right, when her juices drenched his dick, he let go and another burst of milk was shot from his little brother.

“AAAnngghhh~”

“UUUnngghhhhhhhh~”

This was doubtlessly one of the best orgasms he ever had.

Chapter 40

Right after he came, streams of energy entered Nux's body and a bunch of messages appeared in front of him but he was too tired to bother with them and directly passed out in Skyla's embrace.

Of course, Skyla wasn't any better either, right after she came, she passed out as well.

“..ux”

Time passed quickly, and Nux heard a voice as he slept.

“Nux”

“Nux!”

“NUX!!”

Slowly, the soft voice turned into a shout that pierced his ears as he retorted in anger.

“What!?”

But when he saw who was calling him, his anger turned down, he smiled wryly and questioned in a sleepy voice.

“Fel, what happened?”

Yes, the one who was calling him was the Viscount, Felberta. Skyla and Lane were already standing behind her, their faces tinged with red.

“Do you know what time it is?” Fel questioned.

Nux glanced at the window and saw the sun shining brightly, he smiled wryly as he understood that it was already afternoon.

“Fel, my love, I am really too tired for our afternoon session. Please forgive me this one time; I will definitely make it up to you in the future. How about this? Tomorrow is your day off, right? How about I spend my entire time with you tomorrow?” Nux offered.

Felberta on the other hand frowned before she quickly understood that he misunderstood her intention for coming here. Although she did come here to complain here initially, she understood what happened and just wanted to ask if he wanted to have lunch. She didn't come here to get compensation.

Of course, she was a little disappointing since she missed her afternoon session; but she has already made up her mind and knew something like this might happen in the near future.

Of course, her mood improved when she heard his offer, she had no intention to clear this misunderstanding. Having him all to herself for a whole day was an offer worth lying.

“Hmph! Since I am so gentle and forgiving, I will let you off for today but do remember your promise tomorrow. Also, lunch is ready, eat before going back to sleep.”

Nux nodded with a smile, he then planted a kiss on Felberta's face before he walked towards the dining room.

After he had his lunch, he walked back into his room and slept.

Seeing him like that, Felberta glanced at the two maids as she chuckled,

“You really dried him out huh...”

The two of them blushed in embarrassment, seeing this, Felberta smiled before she continued,

“Tell me? How was it? Did you feel good? How did it feel to suck each other's love juices?”

The more she questioned, the more they blushed.

The viscount enjoyed teasing her ‘new sisters’ and her future faction members.

A few hours later, Nux finally woke up, he still felt a little tired but it wasn't as bad as before. He then looked at his body and could see that his muscles were more defined than before. He clenched his fist and felt an enormous amount of power welling inside his body.

He suddenly remembered the bunch of messages that appeared in front of him right before he passed out. He thought about it and those messages reappeared again accompanied by his favourite Ding sound.

‘A quest system... hmm, this is just like missions but more convenient... cool.’

Then, Nux began thinking.

‘Should I accept these quests?’

I can gain system points if I complete this.

Not only that, but I will also gain some fighting experience. Right now, I am just a brute with strength without any skill to back it up. If it comes to real fights, I might even lose to someone weaker than me.

Although I don’t need much strength now since I am very safe right now, the same can’t be said for the future. This is a world that revolves around strength, being weak here is a crime.

I should not take it lightly even if I have this cheat. Rather, now that I have this cheat, I should use it to the best of my abilities and live a longer, happier life.’

Thinking about all this, Nux decided to accept this quest.

Of course, he wasn’t planning to leave until he strengthens Felberta’s cultivation to the Advance stage.

‘With this, I can finally leave and go to the Blood Hill Wilderness.’

He has learned quite a few things about this world.

This world only has one continent which was around 6000 km far if you match the two opposite ends, four kingdoms ruled this continent, namely,

The Sky Fall Kingdom, where Nux lives.

The Kingdom Of Skadi.

The Solid Earth Kingdom.

The Woods Dynasty.

There were a few cultivation sects, but they were too weak in front of these large kingdoms and could only continue to exist if they submit to one of the kingdoms.

These four kingdoms were surrounded by the Blood Hill Wilderness, no one knew how deep or wide it was, but from what little information people of this world had gained, they divided it into 3 levels.

The outer area, the inner area, and the forbidden area.

The outer area was occupied by 1-3 star beasts.

The inner area was occupied by 3-5 star beasts.

As for the forbidden area... well it was forbidden to enter so no one knows about it.

100 years ago, the King of Solid Earth kingdom thought that there must be some sort of treasure in the forbidden area and he prepared a huge army to find it.

The army was accompanied by two strongest experts of the kingdom, but the only survivor of this expedition was the bloody soldier who returned with a torn arm and a bloody note that said,

‘Never enter the forbidden area’

The king tried to talk to the survivor, but he was already psychologically affected and wasn’t able to answer anything at all.

He just mumbled a few muffled sentences, only a few words could be recognized. 2 of these were,

‘Killed’

‘Too Strong’

The whole incident had a major impact on the Solid Earth Kingdom, from being the second strongest, it fell to the last and is still not able to recover.

After that, no one dared to enter the forbidden area anymore.

Of course, Nux wasn't even planning to enter the inner area let alone the forbidden one. Thinking about this, Nux stood up as he walked out of his room.

Just as he exited his room, he saw Felberta, Skyla, and Lane looking at him worriedly.

“Do you really have to go to Blood Hill Wilderness?” Felberta questioned.

“You know I have to, I may be strong, but I still don't have any fighting experience. You know how this world is, the stronger you are, the more freely you live. So I have to do this to fulfil my dream” Nux replied gently.

“Take care of yourself. Don't do anything rash and endanger your life, okay?” Skyla muttered.

“Don't worry; I am too much of a coward to do something rash. I will run away as soon as I notice that I can't handle the situation. I am really confident in running away” Nux smiled.

Lane didn't say anything but you could see that she was really worried.

The three ladies wanted to come with him, but he directly rejected them. He wouldn't be able to use his strongest skill (running away) if they followed him.

Chapter 42

“Have you kept everything I gave you? Your sword, your armour, healing potions, mana potions, and the skill books?” Felberta questioned.

“Don’t worry, I have kept everything, although I will repeat what I said before, the armour you gav-”

“Yeah, I don’t care. Nothing is more important than your life. If you came back with broken armour, rather than being mad, I would be happy that it could be used to save you. I can always buy new armours, no problem.”

“But that is a 3-star armour! That’s your family treasure; you can’t buy it with money!”

“Yeah yeah, the same thing” Felberta completely ignored his words and waved her hands nonchalantly before her expression turned serious.

“Just come back safely okay?”

“Mhm,” Nux smiled as he kissed her soft lips. He then repeated the same thing action with Skyla and Lane.

“I’ll be back soon”

The three nodded as they accompanied Nux outside the mansion.

Nux waved his hands as a farewell sign as he walked away.

...

As Nux was walking toward the wilderness, he smiled when he remembered their worried looks and shook his head.

He was really lucky to have them.

He then sorted the other things he gained in these last few days.

First, the skill books.

As a viscount, Felberta had four 1 star skill books, each belonging to different elements. These skill books were given to her most loyal and trusted subordinates, as for what element skill they receive, it depends on their elemental affinity.

Skyla, for example, had a medium rank Wind affinity, and Lane had a medium rank Earth affinity. Therefore the two of them received the Gale Steps and Earth Fists techniques respectively.

When Nux's talent was examined, it showed that he had a low level with all the basic elements, which was not enough for him to cultivate any of these skill books.

However, two days later, Nux requested to test himself again and surprisingly, it showed that now he had a medium level affinity with every basic element.

Nux understood how it worked.

The 'talent' in his system doesn't represent the cultivation speed, it shows the level of affinity a person has with a certain element.

At first, he indeed had low-level talent but after a few sessions with Skyla and Lane, he gained their talent as well.

He first concluded that the talent drop rate was low therefore he didn't get it in just one session, but now he learned that it was not that the drop rate was low.

He was receiving their talent from the first time they had sex, but the system was distributing it to all his elements simultaneously, hence slowing the process.

So right now, he had four 1 star skill books, a 2-star sword, a few mana and Healing potions, and a 3-star armour in his system inventory, this all would have cost him 110 System points (he cannot buy potions from the shop yet) if not for his Felberta.

Of course, he also used all his System points to buy a 2 star Body Cultivation Skill, The Nine Strikes Of Sword, from the system.

Yes, he bought a body cultivation skill because his body was 2 times stronger than a normal cultivator. Also, body cultivation skill books were already very rare in this world, so he would be able to surprise his opponent at the last moment.

Not only that, but he also found that, unlike the normal skill books where he has to read and decipher everything on his own, the skill books bought from the system could already be cultivated to the beginner stage after buying it.

The levels of mastery of a skill book go by, Novice, Beginner, Small Achievement, Big Achievement, Master, Perfection, and finally, Assimilation.

And he was already at the beginner stage.

Nux smiled as he again realized how awesome his system is, he then activated his Steps Of Gale, and increased his speed.

The Blood Hill Wilderness was on the outskirts of the kingdom, where they live in the capital city. The journey was roughly around 700 km far. If he took the carriage, it would take him about a day to reach there, but he wasn't planning to.

He was planning to train his speed using this chance and wanted to reach there within 3-4 hours while running nonstop. Of course, it wouldn't be too hard on himself if he failed to achieve it but he would try his best.

“Alright! Let's start!”

Nux roared excitedly after he left the capital city, he stretched his legs, and then his back before jumping a little.

He then looked above, It was already 4 pm, the sun was still shining brightly but he knew in just an hour or so, it would set. He sighed as he started running.

...

“Haah... Haa... Haah...”

Nux breathed heavily as he finally reached the last town before his destination. It was already 10 when he reached here and he wasn't dumb enough to directly enter this dangerous forest without any rest.

And yes, he failed to achieve his goal by two hours but that wasn't his fault.

He completely ignored the time he would have to line up to enter the city gates. He even felt that he had to stay in a city for a night before coming to the wilderness but the farther away he moved from the capital city, the lesser and lesser the city gates appeared.

In the end, he didn't even have to stop and crossed 4 cities in one go before reaching here.

This town was called Clover Town. Since this town was closest to the Blood Hill Wilderness and was constantly attacked by star beasts, the people have already abandoned it, and the only people staying here were adventures that came here to hunt the star beasts.

Nux walked towards an inn, he booked a room before taking a bath since he was too sweaty after running.

“Haah~” He sighed in relief as he jumped into the bed and slept.

Author Notes: Yeah, I know, kind of a boring chapter, I felt the same...

I just rushed it since it wasn't important. I wasn't planning to extend his trip for 3-4 chapters or something. Let's just get over the boring part...

“Grrr...”

The next day, Nux was standing frozen stiff in front of a ferocious-looking Tiger with fresh blood dripping from its mouth.

He was wearing a silver colour Armor that covered his chest and was holding a long sword in his hands that were shaking nonstop. From his pale expression, it was clear that he was frightened out of his wits.

What happened?

Well, nothing in particular, after checking out of the inn, he entered the forest in high spirits, but soon, he encountered this ferocious looking Tiger that was glaring at him with menacing eyes and he was frozen in fear.

It wasn't that the Tiger was too strong or something, rather, this Tiger was one of the weaker creatures in this wilderness, a 1-star beast, but Nux was still frightened by how scary it looked.

You can't blame him either, just a few days ago, he was just a normal man who would be scared even if a street dog barked at him. How can someone expect him to fight against these scary looking monsters?

He was stronger and learned a few techniques, right, but you don't go fighting animals in a jungle after learning some martial arts right?

When it saw how scared this human in front of him was, the tiger smiled even more menacingly. It would have a delicious meet today as its breakfast. Without thinking any further, he quickly dashed towards Nux with its eyes shining brightly.

Roar

A huge mistake.

What the tiger did was a huge mistake on its part. It might have been better if it had walked towards Nux slowly and intimidatingly, but now that he dashed towards Nux, his expression changed a little.

‘Too slow...’

Nux thought inwardly, slowly starting to gain some confidence.

He quickly activated his [Eye Of Discursion] and all the information about this tiger appeared in front of his eyes.

[Gale Tiger]

...

‘Hmm? I am at least 3 times stronger than this beast’ Nux thought inwardly before his eyes fell on the beast. Seeing the delight and mockery in its eyes, he panicked a little before he quickly regained his confidence as he looked at its stats.

“What are you acting so confident for?”

The tiger then jumped at Nux, Nux also raised his sword before stabbing it down in a crude way. There were no traces of his Nine Strikes Of Sword that he practised before.

The sword stabbed right through the tiger's nape, pinning it on the ground.

Roar!!

It roared in pain, it still did not have any idea how or when this weak human stabbed his sword through his body. He glanced up and looked into Nux's eyes to make sure if it was him or someone else who sneak attacked it from behind.

Another big mistake.

Seeing that the beast still hadn't died, Nux panicked, he did not think about removing his sword and stabbing it again, instead, his most primal instincts kicked in, he raised his leg and stomped on the poor beast's face mercilessly.

“Roar!!”

“Rooaaarrr!!”

“Roar...”

“Grr... Grr...”

“...”

The translated version,

“How dare you kick me!?”

“You dare kick me again!?”

“Please don't kick me...”

“Please, I am begging you, just stab your sword and end me... why to humiliate me like that...”

“ ... ”

Of course, Nux didn't know what it said or wanted to say, neither did he care. He kept attacking until he could hear him roaring or growling.

‘Damn... it was harder than I thought...’

Nux thought inwardly, his heart felt like it was about to burst out by how fast it was beating.

“Haah...”

He took a deep breath as he calmed his racing heart before glancing at the messages that appeared in front of him.

‘Wind affinity? Was it because I killed the Gale Tiger? Does that mean I will gain more affinity to a certain element if I kill a star beast of a certain element? That's cool!’

‘But I need to calm down, I was lucky that this beast I encountered wasn't that strong, or else I would have been in trouble. I should find some 1-star beasts and practice the skills I have learned and... also get used to this blood...’

Of course, as a normal human, he hasn't witnessed this huge amount of blood before, let alone the being the cause of it.

He then glanced at the Gale tiger's body; he picked up his sword and waved his hand as the body disappeared into his inventory.

Although the body isn't that valuable, he wasn't dumb enough to leave free resources. No sane man would reject extra cash.

He then moved forward and soon, he found another beast.

'Another one-star beast, this should be easy since I can make the first move'

Right now, this bear was enjoying its prey, not knowing its impending doom.

Nux activated his Steps Of Gale, it was the technique which he had most control on other than the Nine Strikes Of Sword, he could feel it reaching closer to Beginner Stage after yesterday's run.

Nux disappeared before he appeared right before the bear, and without wasting any time, he slashed his sword according to Nine Strikes Of Sword, cutting its head off.

The poor bear didn't even know how it died. He couldn't even enjoy its last meal before his head got slashed.

Nux stood there, frozen still as the blood flowed out of the bear's body like a fountain and fell on his face. He felt nauseating; he wanted to vomit but controlled himself. He knew this would happen, he knew that he will have to face blood one day or another.

He wiped the blood on his face and stored the bear's body in his inventory.

Chapter 44

To be honest, even Nux was surprised by how quickly he killed the bear. He finally understood why skills were so important to a cultivator. With just 1 star and 2-star skills, his power increased so much.

Nux felt a little excited, he wanted to get stronger and stronger.

Thinking about it, he then started his search.

He continued killing beasts nonstop, some were sneak attacks, some were one on one fights, and sometimes, he was even sneaked attacked by a beast but Nux continued fighting and continued growing stronger at a frightening rate.

It is said that experience can help you learn what books cannot. As he continued using his skills, he could feel how frighteningly quick he was mastering them.

After his 23rd fight, his Steps Of Gale was already at the beginner stage and his other skills were at peak novice stage. He was also very close to the small achievement stage in his Nine Strikes Of Sword.

He did not stay at 1-star beasts either, he found that once he was a little experienced he didn't even need to use his skills to kill them so after killing around 14 1 star beasts, he shifted to 2-star beasts.

[Gale Tiger]

...

Right now, he was fighting a 2-star beast, Gale tiger, that sneaked attacked him. Well, one can't call it a fight. It was more like a training drill.

This gale tiger was just a bigger version of the first beast he killed.

Right now, Nux was just practising his fire-based skill, Fire Ball, on it, increasing his accuracy and lowering his MP cost. He wanted to increase his mastery of the skill to the beginner stage

However, things never go as one plan. The Gale Tiger's body was already covered with burns and black marks, it already knew that it wasn't this human's match and it had no intention of becoming his practice partner. It quickly turned around and ran away.

Or it tried to, when Nux noticed that it was trying to run away, he activated his Steps Of Gales and appeared in front of it before slashing its head.

“Haah... you could have lived longer if only you had decided to be obedient and become my training partner.” He sighed before he stepped back. After killing so many beasts, although the blood didn't bother him that much, he still wasn't a fan of it and would not allow it to spray on his face if he could avoid it.

[Ding]

[Wind Affinity: +2]

Nux stored its body in his inventory before he frowned; he noticed that the sneak attacks he was facing has increased a lot. He was planning to spend the night in the wilderness, but if it continued like this, he would tire himself out and would certainly die.

A thought appeared in his mind and he sniffed,

“Smnf Smnf”

His eyes lit up in realization as he nodded.

“So that’s how it is...”

He was covered in blood, no, he was practically bathing in blood, especially his silver armour which was now red.

The beasts had strong senses, when they smelled the scent of blood, they would treat him as an injured or a dead person, no beast would leave that chance.

Nux quickly removed his armour, before washing dried blood from his face. He was thinking about saving water until he found a river or something but now it seemed that he had to use it. If he couldn’t find any water sources by the end of the day, he would just leave the wilderness and come back tomorrow.

After washing his face and armour, Nux also changed his clothes.

He then walked around for a while and as expected, there were no sneak attacks anymore. Nux smiled and continued his killing but this time, he avoided getting blood on his clothes. For that, he had an ingenious idea of using his Water-based skill, the Water Shield to cover his body with a thin water shield that does not take much MP and it worked!

There was not a single drop of blood on his body!

This was much better than being covered in blood. He was not a brawny bloodthirsty man, he was a handsome refined man, being covered in blood did not suit him at all.

He even thought that this Water Shield skill was created just so a person could avoid the blood falling on his body.

If the creator of this technique heard his words, he would probably rise from the dead to hunt him down.

...

As Nux walked after killing another beast, he heard a sound.

‘A river.’

Nux was pleasantly surprised; he quickly walked towards the direction where the sound came from.

“Did you see how I single-handedly killed that beast?”

“Yeah yeah, Alden, we know you are strong, why don’t you just sit down and relax? It’s still our first day here, we have to stay here for more than a month.”

“Yes, now sit down and fill your water reserves”

“Hmph! You guys are no fun”

After a while, when he walked closer to the sound of the river, he heard some people talking. His steps quickened before he saw 4 people, 1 woman and 3 men sitting beside the river talking to each other.

He quickly hid behind a tree but before he could observe them with his [Eye Of Discerning], a series of notifications rang in his mind.

[Ding]

Chapter 45

e the leader of the team carried a huge shield and ordered.

“I will fight with the leader of this pack, Alden, you take care of the two wolfs following the leader, Osker, you fight with the rest of the wolves, don’t worry, Annice would help you from behind”

“Haah! Finally some action! Although I want to fight that leader, I will follow your order and finish these two weaklings first.” Another muscular looking man, Alden, answered as a giant Axe appeared in his hand. He then slashed his axe at the two wolves, mercilessly.

His attacks carried huge momentum with them, even the ferocious-looking wolves had to back off and stay defensive under his attacks.

The silent looking man just gave a nod before a sword appeared in his hand and he rushed toward the rest of the wolves without any fear. His movements were nimble as he didn’t give any chance to any of the wolves to attack him.

“Yes leader!” A bow appeared in the hands of the only girl in this group. She was the deciding factor in this group. Her arrows were sharp and precise; it was as if each arrow released from her bow had a meaning.

Her arrows were merciless as they attacked the weak points of those wolves, their eyes, their ears, their nose, their mouth, no arrow missed. She was so confident in her shots that she didn’t even look at the result before shooting another arrow.

“GRrrr!”

“Graarr!!”

Her arrows greatly lessened the pressure the silent man was facing as he quickly started killing these wolves.

As Nux was excited, another message appeared in front of his eyes, he glanced at the battlefield and saw that the muscular man with the axe had already killed one of the wolves and was attacking the other one without stopping.

He then glanced at the leader of the group and saw him defending against the attacks of the leader of the pack without much difficulty. It was clear that he only intended to prolong the fight as his team deals with the rest of the wolves.

“AAuuuuu!!”

The wolf leader howled in anger when he saw so many of its subordinates dying and its attack turned ferocious, although it didn't affect the leader that much.

Chapter 46

After killing all the wolves, every member of the team took out a dagger and started skinning the dead bodies, before storing the meat, fur, and teeth. It was clear that they were very experienced by how fast their hands moved.

‘A tank, a warrior, a marksman, and an assassin, a perfect RPG team’

Nux praised inwardly.

“Move your hands! We don’t have much time; too much blood has been spilt. Quickly wash and let’s get out of here.” The leader of the team ordered after they took all the loot.

The rest of the team nodded and within 5 minutes, they moved out.

As if on cue, four 2 star beasts appeared in the area, Nux raised his eyebrows in surprise and admiration.

‘Damn, this is what they call experience.’

He then smiled before he waited for the beasts to leave.

...

After filling his water reserves, Nux left the area as well. This time, his goal was not to hunt any beasts; he had killed enough for the day. His goal was to find humans he can form parties with.

Just now, he got 18 system points without even lifting his finger. It was important to note that he had only collected 50 System points after hunting beasts for a whole day.

There is no limit to the number of humans he can form a party with and the range is 100 km long.

If he could form a party with around 10 more teams like the ones he found, how many points would he gain!?

Many, many points!

That's why he called the party system an absolute bug!

Because that's what it was!

Excited, he ran around the wilderness searching for other humans. Since it was already evening, he knew he couldn't wander around for long. After finding and secretly partying with 1 other party, he found a safe area and lay down.

...

The next day, he woke up with an eager look. He started his journey to find other humans. Of course, he didn't miss the chance to one-shot any lonely 1 or 2-star beast he could find. They were free system points; he wasn't going to leave them.

By the afternoon, he had already partied with 5 more teams, he had noticed that this range of 100 km is like a radius with him as a centre, if used correctly, the range is around 200 km.

Nux was very happy with the huge influx of notifications but afraid that he might get complacent; he decided to ignore these messages.

As if reading his thoughts, no more messages appeared. He frowned and then opened his system to glance at his system points, noticing that they were still increased, he knew that the system decided to be generous and had hidden these notifications for him.

Nux smiled at the thought and continued finding his new points sla- team players.

“AAhhh!! Someone! Save me!”

While Nux was walking around, he heard a scream and frowned. He then rushed towards the sound and found a boy who should be around his age, sitting on the ground, his eyes filled with horror as he glanced at the dead body lying beside him.

The body was still twitching, indicating that it died recently.

He also saw two men surrounded by 8 two-star wolves, by their wounds, it was clear that they were in a bad position.

‘Should I save them?’

Nux thought about it and decided to act. He wasn’t a cold-blooded person, if he can save them without getting into trouble, he will help them.

Also, they will be his future points sla- teammates, he wasn’t going to let them die.

He then activated his Steps Of Gale and appeared behind a wolf, slashing its head with one slash before fighting the other.

The guards’ eyes widened when he saw him appearing out of nowhere.

With all his skills on the beginner level, combined with his peak beginner level Sword skill, Nux was already strong enough to deal with these wolves alone, and with the two guards holding some of them, he quickly killed all the wolfs without any problems.

“T-Thank you! My name is Wybert Longe, the son of Marquis Longe of the Sky Fall kingdom” Wybert introduced.

Of course, Nux already knew about it due to his Eye Of Discerning.

“A Marquis’s son? What are you doing here in the wilderness?”

“I am here to gain some fighting experience... but I didn’t expect someone to die because of me” Wybert replied in a sad tone as he glanced at the dead body of his guard.

“You came into the wilderness with just 3 guards?” Nux questioned in surprise.

“No, I have more guards, it was just that the head guard heard some sound coming from there and he took some men to check it out, we were then attacked by the wolf pack and this happened...”

“Oh?” Nux raised his eyebrow as he heard that.

“Ah! Mr Savior I still don’t know your name”

“It’s me, Dio”

Nux replied.

The head guard, who had the duty to protect the son of marquis left because he heard a sound? Not only that, right after he left, the son was attacked by a pack of wolves. If this didn’t sound shady, Nux didn’t know what did.

There was no way he was going to tell his real name to him.

“Oh, Mr Dio, why don’t you join-”

“Ah, I am extremely sorry, young master, but I am about to leave this wilderness so I can’t join you but I do hope you have a safe and fulfilling adventure.”

Saying that Nux ran away.

Chapter 47

Nux ran away, or so the guards thought...

After a while, he returned and hid behind the trees.

No, he didn't have any intention to help the boy.

Someone was planning to get the son of a marquis killed.

On one side, there was a Marquis and on the other, was someone who dared to kill Marquis's son. Both of them aren't someone he could afford to offend.

Not only him, but even Felberta also might not be safe he offended them. He was even regretting his decision to help the boy initially.

Well, what's done was done; he couldn't change it and just sighed.

If he doesn't want to help, why was he back here then?

Of course, that is to form a party with the rest of the guards who should be returning soon. Who knows, he might earn some extra points.

He didn't have to wait for long as the head guard along with the other guards appeared. If the head guard was surprised to see the boy alive, he didn't show it on his face, he just showed his concern and asked if the boy was safe and acted calmly.

Nux was even more scared seeing that, he quickly formed a party and ran away.

This time, he ran away for real.

Nux continued his search for the whole day as he killed some beasts while he was at it. After forming parties with around 14 teams, he found a relatively safe place and rested for the night.

The next day, Nux stood up with a fresh smile. Today, he wasn't going to find any humans anymore; of course, it was a different case if he found them by chance. He would be stupid if he didn't party with them.

[Blank Points: 108]

His stats rose again, and this time, it wasn't due to a level up. This was all due to his Sword Skill, being a body cultivation skill, it didn't require mana, only raw strength, therefore, the stronger his mastery over it, the stronger his strength will be. Therefore, he decided that he was going to raise his mastery of the skill to a small achievement stage within the next few days.

He walked towards a group of four 2 star bears he found and fought them while only using his Nine Strikes Of Sword. Of course, he also used his Water shield to prevent blood from falling on him.

The more he fought, the more he could feel his mastery over his sword was increasing. His movements turned smoother and smoother and even his speed increased.

His improvement speed was frightening.

After defeating the bears, he found another group of 2-star beasts and continued fighting them in the same way.

Of course, he wasn't unscathed as well since he wasn't experienced enough right now, but his wound wasn't that serious since his armour was very tough.

There were just a few scratches here and there which quickly vanished after he drank the Healing Potion.

For the next few days, Nux continued fighting the same way, from four 2 star beasts, he fought more than ten 2 star beasts at the same time without many injuries.

Even a 3-star beast cannot do that. He was now sure that he can fight any 3-star beasts without any problem but he didn't fight right away and continued fighting 2-star beasts.

His Nine Strikes Of Sword has already reached the mid-level small achievement stage. As he has already achieved his goal, he had decided to fight these beasts with just his 4 basic elements skills to train them.

However, the more he fought, the quicker he found out that training his 4 skills wasn't as simple as his Sword skill.

He had a limited amount of MP, although he can force himself with his sheer will if he was low on stamina, he can't do the same with his MP because he would pass out if his MP reaches 0.

Of course, he can use Mana Potions, but Felberta warned him not to use them too much since they contained impurities and might affect his body in the future so he avoided them as much as possible.

This was annoying. Although he can feel his skills improving, the process was really slow compared with his sword skill.

It took him 15 days to raise all his skills to the small achievement stage, among which, only his Steps Of Gale was at a mid-level small achievement stage.

However, even with that, he still wasn't able to defeat more than five 2 star beasts since these beasts run away as soon as they feel that they cannot fight him anymore.

Unlike his sword skill, which has the power to deal significant damage in one attack, his attacking skills, Earth Fist and Fire Ball weren't as strong.

The time it took him to defeat one beast is enough for the rest of them to run away.

Nux shook his head, dejected.

He had to give up.

No matter how much he tried, the skills he has are still just 1-star skills, it is difficult to kill 2-star beasts with them. Also, MP wasn't his strong point either.

Nux sighed as he returned to his safe point and rested for the day.

He has decided to fight with 3-star beasts from tomorrow.

Chapter 48

Using Steps Of Gale, Nux appeared behind a star bear, he slashed his sword, but unlike how previously, the head is hacked off without any resistance, he could only leave a deep wound on its neck.

However, Nux wasn't how he used to be either.

After 20 days of continuous fighting, his instincts and experience were better than the last time.

He quickly stomped his foot and jumped back, not only that, he even created a water shield in front of him, in case the bear reacted faster than he expected and attacks him.

His worries, however, were unfounded, only when he landed on the ground, did the bear finally turn back and attacked.

“Roarr!!”

‘Damn, a 3-star beasts defence is really something... my sword isn't strong enough to defeat it in one move...’

Nux muttered as he glanced at the 2.5 meters huge Earth Bear in front of him.

‘I just need another strike to end him but... I don’t think it would be that easy...’

Nux thought as he glanced at the earth bear that was looking at him with red eyes and a maddened look. It was as if it was ready to fight to the death.

Nux looked into its eyes and threw a fireball toward it. Of course, he wasn’t trying to hurt it with it, he just didn’t want to give him time to rest, even a second.

While the bear dodged the fireball, Nux’s figure blurred; the bear knew that Nux was too fast for him and he couldn’t block his attacks very well, so he directly covered its wounded neck with its paws.

“Hmph! In the end, you are just a brainless beast.” Nux then appeared right in front of it as he stabbed his sword right through its heart.

Nux was merciless with his moves, even though he understood that now that he pierced its heart, he won’t live for long. He still activated his Earth Fist and punched its nose continuously.

Bam

A few seconds later, he retrieved his sword and the bear’s huge body finally fell to the ground.

[Ding]

[3-star beast Killed]

[Earth Affinity: +5]

Nux felt overjoyed.

It was a 3-star beast! A beast that can rival and even defeat a normal Master Rank Cultivator and he defeated it without a scratch!

He has indeed grown stronger.

However, he didn't get complacent, he had a big advantage in this fight since he was the one who attacked first and dealt with so much damage.

He will now take on a 3-star beast one on one and later, he will fight a group of beasts, just like the wolf pack his first party members encountered a few days ago, alone.

...

Five days later, Nux sat on top of a huge rock, breathing heavily. Even after wiping it, again and again, the traces of beasts' blood on his face still weren't gone.

Although he wasn't injured since he had Recovery Potions, the same can't be said about his armour.

The original thick looking silver armour had many dents on it. There were many deep cuts on it as well, although there were no holes, these deep cuts weren't any different from them either.

After washing his face, and getting rid of the blood scent, Nux changed his position again and directly lay down on the ground. He was very tired...

He just fought three 3 star beasts alone. That was the reason why his armour was damaged. Or else, even when fighting with a 3-star beast accompanied by some lower-level beasts, he didn't face many problems.

Of course, he gained a lot from this fight.

His sword technique rose to the peak level small achievement stage.

‘The harder you fight, the more you grow...’

Thinking that he glanced in the direction of the inner area of the Wilderness.

‘A 4-star beast... I should be able to defeat them...’

Nux smiled inwardly before he stood up and returned to his temporary base and called off the day early.

If he was going to do what he was thinking to do, he needs to rest well and do it when he is at his peak.

...

The next day, Nux woke up and stepped into the inner area.

Three-star beasts were the weakest here, he has just walked into the area and could already see a group of five 3 star beasts sitting together.

Nux walked further and before long, he found his target.

A beast with the same size as the lion, but its aura was a lot stronger; its mane was covered with flames which gave off an imposing look.

Nux used the same old tactic, activating his Steps Of Gale, he appeared behind the lion and slashed his sword.

This time, however, the beast sensed his attack and moved a little. The attack which should have hit its neck only grazed its shoulder.

Nux was surprised, not because the beast sensed it but because the damage his attack caused was very low. It was like a deep scratch.

“Roar!”

The lion attacked with its paws, Nux tried to defend it with his sword but,

Clang

His sword broke.

‘Fuck! I am doomed!’

...

Author’s Note: Okay, I know some of you might think that mc is weak since he couldn’t even defeat a beast that has lower stats than him, but you have to understand that he has very low-level equipments.

A 2-star sword can’t hurt a 4-star beast.

His best skill is only a 2-star sword skill. While the rest of the skills are even worse. Mc is strong, okay? If he had a better sword, he could defeat the beast easily.

If your question is that how can a beast be so strong without a weapon or whatever?

Then please understand that they have their claws, teeth etc as weapons and they are definitely better than a 2-star sword.

Also, remember he has only been here for around 30 days, he can't become a Mr. know it all with such a limited amount of time.

So please bear with it, next time, you will see mc defeating opponents whose stats are even higher than his.

Thank you <3

Chapter 49

The lion attacked with its paws, Nux tried to defend it with his sword but,

Clang

His sword broke and he was sent flying. His body clashed with a tree before stopping.

“Cough...”

He coughed blood before he glanced at the lion that stood in front of him with a wary look.

‘Uggh... it hurts...’

He then looked below and sighed,

‘A hole finally appeared on it...’

Yes, there was a 10 cm hole in his armour, he then glanced at his broken sword that now looked like a dagger.

However, before he could think about anything else, a fireball was shot at him; the fireball was a lot stronger than the little 1-star parlour trick he uses.

It was dangerous.

He dodged the fireball and saw the fiery flame lion rushing toward him.

‘Heh... its fighting style is similar to mine...’ Nux chuckled before he pushed his body to the limit as he activated his Steps Of Gale and appeared beside the beast. He crouched and,

Earth Fist.

He punched its balls.

“Rooaarrrrr!”

The lion roared in pain, but Nux wasn't done, he moved and stabbed his broken sword, and the horn of the 3-star Rhino beast into its eyes.

“Rooaaaaaarrrr!!”

The Lion howled in agony as he moved its limbs randomly hoping to hit Nux but the said person had already jumped back and was staring at him.

The lion had sensed that Nux was not around him, it quickly gave up and decided to run away.

‘Haah... did you really think I will fight fairly after losing my weapon? No way! How do you think I defeated three 3 star beasts alone?’

Nux didn't have any plan to let it go, he dashed towards the beast as another rhino horn appeared in his hand and he directly stabbed it into its leg.

“Rooaaarr...”

The lion fell, crying in agony.

Losing its sight, and the ability to run, it knew its end was near. Still, it dragged its body, trying to get away if it can.

Nux then removed the rhino's horn from its eyes and stabbed it toward its heart. He knew his sword wasn't strong enough to pierce through its skin, so he directly used a better alternative.

“Roar...”

The fiery flame lion took his last breath before its consciousness fell into darkness. The flames surrounding its mane died down, signalling its end.

Nux sighed; he then took out the horns and his broken sword, before storing the lion's body in his inventory.

This was his last fight in this wilderness for now. With his weapon gone, he had decided to go back home.

But he promised in his heart that he will return, with better skills and weapons and defeat all the beasts present in this wilderness.

Of course, even though he decided to go back, this did not mean that he would get complacent. He quickly left the area and washed his face before getting rid of the bloody scent as much as it was possible.

15 minutes later, he appeared in the outer area and after another hour of walking, he left the Blood Hills Wilderness and walked into Clover Town.

However, he soon noticed that people here were avoiding him. Nux frowned but then he ignored them. He was too tired to care about others.

He then entered the same inn he used before and walked towards the counter. The counter has the same person taking care of it, and when his eyes fell on Nux, they widened in surprise.

“W-Wow... are you that person who booked a room a month ago?”

“You remember me?” Nux questioned in surprise.

“Of course, I remember every customer's face”

The man lied right through his teeth, he sees countless new people every day, how can he remember every one of them? It was just that Nux's face was hard to forget that he remembers that 'handsome dude that booked a room before'.

"Nice" Nux nodded.

"But man... you really changed in a month, huh..." the man muttered.

"Changed?" Nux frowned.

"What? Didn't you notice how people are avoiding you?"

"I did, but I just thought something happened and ignored it"

"So you really didn't notice the bloodthirsty aura surrounding you huh..."

"Hahaha! The same thing happened to me when I first entered the Blood Hills Mountains but man, your aura surpasses mine by a huge margin. How many beasts did you kill in there?" Another man laughed as he joined the conversation.

"A bloodthirsty aura?" Nux muttered in confusion.

"Yes, when you take too many lives in a small amount of time, some changes happen to your aura without you knowing. It becomes more overbearing and lethal. Of course, how much your aura change depends on your experiences and the number of lives you have taken, and judging by your aura, it must be around 500 if not more." The man explained.

"Hmm, I understand." Nux nodded in understanding. He did kill quite a lot of beasts in these 30 days.

"But kid, you look really young, how did you get strong enough to enter and survive in Blood Hills wilderness alone for a month in such a short time?"

Nux smiled at his question as he smiled,

“I ploughed real hard.”

‘Well, that’s a weird way to say you worked hard...’

Nux chuckled at his reaction and then booked his room after taking a bath, he then walked in front of the mirror while only wearing underwear.

‘Damn... would you look at that...’

Nux praised himself.

This trip was really beneficial to him; his frail body was now lean and muscular. His height had increased to 1.81 meters; his muscles were tightly packed and dense, without any ounce of extra fat around them.

His posture was also a lot better than it was before, giving him an aura of a natural-born fighter.

His face looked more chiselled, improving his looks by another level.

He was most definitely a charmer.

After admiring his looks and muscles for a while, Nux smiled in satisfaction before jumping into the bed as he called,

‘Status’

Chapter 50

[Name: Nux Leander]

[Age: 18]

[Mana Cultivation: Advance.]

[Body Cultivation: Advance.]

[Talent: Medium]

[LVL: 24]

[HP: 620/620]

[MP: 410/410]

[STR: 61 → 64]

[AGL: 69 → 74]

[VIT: 62]

[STM: 64 → 67]

[INT: 41]

[DEF: 58 → 61]

[Blank Points: 108]

...

Satisfied by his progress, Nux nodded before he smiled in excitement and looked at the biggest gain he got in this trip to the Blood Hills Wilderness.

‘System Shop’

[System Shop]

[Cultivation Techniques]

...

[Skill Books]

...

[Weapons]

...

[Abilities]

...

He directly scrolled over everything before his eyes fell on the most important thing.

[Current System Points: 15,748]

‘More than 15 thousand! Holy Fuck!’

Nux’s eyes widened in surprise and he smiled widely.

“Ha... Haha... Hahaha”

“HAHAHAHAHA!!”

He couldn’t control himself and laughed out loud. He then moved his eyes towards the [Abilities] section.

[1 Star Abilities – 100 System points]

[2 Star Abilities – 200 System points]

[3 Star Abilities – 500 System points]

[4 Star Abilities – 1000 System points]

[5 Star Abilities – 2000 System points]

[6 Star Abilities – 5000 System points]

[7 Star Abilities – 10000 System points]

[8 Star Abilities – 100000 System points]

He didn't think much and directly jumped into 7 Star Abilities.

To be honest, he did calculate a bit and had a rough idea that he might get enough points to buy a 7-star ability, of course, the results still surprised him, but he calmed himself and directly scrolled to the ability he had his eyes on.

[Conceal]

[7 Star Ability]

[Description: When activated, no one will be able to sense the user's presence or see him if the user doesn't wish for it. Only a cultivator with 3 times more MP than the user can detect the user's presence. Or else, the user can only be detected if he touches or is touched by the user.]

[Note: If the user's killing intent is detected by a cultivator, the effect of the ability, [Conceal], would wear off]

[Price: 10,000 System Points]

This ability was really good, not only that, but Nux has also found another ability that would help him turn this ability from good to overpowered.

[Professional Killer]

[3 Star Ability]

[Description: A passive skill that controls a user's killing intent to such an extent that it could only be released after the user's attack has landed, or has failed to land on the target.]

[Price: 500 System Points]

'A perfect combination.'

Nux thought inwardly as he smiled and quickly bought the two abilities, he felt a weird power entering and then blending into his body.

Nux then suddenly learned how to activate his [Conceal] ability, and it felt as natural as breathing or moving an arm.

The best part and the reason why Nux bought abilities instead of skills or weapons was that just like [Craving Touch] or [Eye Of Discerning], he didn't need MP to activate them.

Yes, if Nux wanted, he could use [Conceal] for as long as he desired without feeling anything.

That is how scary his ability was.

Wanting to test it, Nux activated his newly gained ability and left the room.

He went towards the cafeteria, and as expected, no one noticed him. He then picked up a fruit, he thought that he would be like an invisible man eating a fruit, scaring everyone here but to his surprise, no one noticed it.

He then walked towards the table where two men were sitting, he then picked up the spoon that was there on the man's plate and although the man frowned a little, he didn't notice anything and picked up another spoon before continuing eating.

He then disabled the ability and appeared in front of someone, however, even after activating [Conceal] again, he was still visible to him.

He concluded that if someone has already seen him, then unless he moves out of his sight, he will not be able to activate his ability again, of course,

Nux didn't complain about it since disappearing in front of someone would be a little too ridiculous.

'This... this is great!

As expected of a 7-star ability!'

He walked around and did some tests, and double-checked the description of the ability. He even tried to talk to people but no one replied. He waved his hands, lowered his pants, and even danced in front of others but no one noticed him at all.

He was now sure,

As long as he didn't touch or get accidentally touched by someone, no one would be able to see him if he doesn't want it.

'My days in the wilderness would have been much more comfortable if I had this...'

Nux thought inwardly as he sighed. Of course, he wasn't planning to return either.

He was missing his Fel, Skyla, and Lane.

He then returned to his room and lay down as he closed his eyes.

But soon, he sat up as a thought appeared in his mind.

His ability was scary, how tragic was it that you died without even knowing who killed you? How tragic was it that you died while you were sleeping?

Or worse, how tragic was it that you died while having sex and were just about to cum?

Nux shivered as he thought of the last possibility and started searching his ability section.

After an hour of intense search, he finally found something he needed.

[Sense]

[5 Star Ability]

[Description: When activated, the user will be able to sense everything around him. The range will depend on the user's MP (1 MP = 1 meter).]

[Note: The ability will be activated automatically if someone is deliberately hiding his/her presence and is in the detection range of the user.]

[Note: The ability will fail to detect the presence of a cultivator who is concealing his presence and has 2 times more MP than the users]

[Price: 2,000 System Points]

Nux quickly bought the skill and just like before, he knew how to activate it as if it was the most natural thing to do.

He then quickly activated the skill, and suddenly, images of everything less than 400 meters around him appeared in his mind. He could even see an ant carrying something huge on its back while walking towards its hole.

The images he was seeing were clear, as if he was seeing them with his own eyes, he could zoom in or zoom out however he wanted and it would still be as clear as it was before.

Not only that, he can even hear the images if he wants. That means, if he is spying on someone and that person is talking to someone else, he can even hear their conversation as if he is present there.

What Nux found even more ridiculous was that he could use his [Eye Of Discerning] along with this skill! That means he doesn't have to see the cultivator even if he wants to see his stats!!

“Holy shit... how is it just a 5-star ability? It's so cool!!”

Chapter 51

The next day, Nux woke up at 7. He paid at the counter and checked out.

He then activated his [Conceal] skill and after some stretching, he dashed towards the capital city. This time, since no one could see him, he didn't have to stop and wait at any of the city gates, therefore within just 3.5 hours, he appeared in front of Felberta's mansion.

He then directly walked towards the bath and took a long comfortable bath before he walked into his room and lay down.

All this while, no one knew he has returned. Not even the maids who he passed through while he was walking towards his room.

He decided not to meet Fel, Skyla, and Lane since he wanted to surprise them. He then closed his eyes and looked at his gains.

2 hours later, he stood up, stretched his body and walked into Felberta's office.

He saw the familiar scene of Joyab reporting while Felberta nodding and answering when necessary.

He sat on the chair that was placed at the corner of the office and waited for the meeting to end.

Since he appeared at the time of lunch break, he didn't have to wait for too long and he quickly heard Felberta's voice.

“Alright, we will continue this after the lunch”

“As you command, Viscount Felberta” Joyab bowed and walked out of the room.

This month, he had been given a lot of surprises.

Viscount Felberta's cultivation level suddenly entered the Advanced stage and the speed was so fast that he felt that she was hiding her cultivation through some methods and finally decided to show it.

Not only that, even that boy, Nux, had suddenly disappeared but seeing how calm Viscount Felberta was, Joyab knew that she knew where he was so he didn't care much about that boy. Although he will say, now that he wasn't here, Viscount Felberta was getting increasingly better at her work so he was very happy and satisfied.

Right after Joyab left, Skyla and Lane walked into the office and they placed the food on the table.

"Viscount Felberta, please eat your food" Skyla spoke in a serious tone.

"Haah... how many times should I say it? We both belong to the same man now, can you not call me so stiffly? If not by my name, just call me Sister Felberta, or Sister Fel"

"I cannot do that, at least for now. You still have your image as a Viscount."

"Ima-"

"No, image is important for a noble like you. It won't be good if other nobles learn about your servants calling you by your name. They might look down on you and it will affect your position and influence."

"Alright alright, just keep the food here. I'll eat it in a while" Felberta shook her head and gave up. She knew it was too difficult to convince these two maids.

Especially Lane who was standing behind her and was staying silent. If it was Skyla alone, she might be able to do it, but with Lane standing behind her... The difficulty was just raised by a few levels.

The two maids then left the office, of course, they weren't gone anywhere, they were just hiding and protecting the viscount from the shadows.

Felberta then stood up and stretched her body, suddenly, Nux smiled mischievously as he stood up.

He walked towards the viscount and grabbed her from behind before pulling her into his embrace, sitting on her chair and making her sit on his lap.

His movements were so fast that the viscount couldn't react in time but when she did, she boiled in anger, "Wha- You Bastard! Who are you!? How dare you touch me!?"

She used her full strength to struggle out of his grip, but this person was too powerful, she was completely helpless against him.

Felberta continued struggling, she wanted to call for help but before she did, Skyla and Lane had already appeared.

However, right after entering the room, the two just stood there on spot and did nothing.

"Skyla! Lane! What the hell are you two doing!? Hurry and help me! No wait! Call Joyab, you two aren't strong enough to deal with him!" Felberta ordered but the maids completely ignored her and continued staring in her direction in a daze.

"Hey! Why aren't doing anything!? Hurry and call Joyab I can't stand his touch anymore!"

"Oh? Then should I not touch you then?" suddenly Felberta heard an extremely familiar voice, a voice she was longing to hear for the past month. She slowly turned around and saw a familiar and extremely handsome face and was shocked.

"Nu- Nux?"

"What? Did you forget me in just a month?" Nux smiled playfully.

"Nux!" Felberta exclaimed in surprise before hugging him tightly. Nux stood up, carrying Felberta in his arms as he glanced at the two maids.

“What? Are you two just going to stand there? Where is my welcome back hug?”

The two maids finally came out of their reverie and dashed towards him at the same time.

“Nux!”

Nux smiled in contentment as he was hugged by 3 beautiful girls.

This was pure bliss.

The true heaven.

Getting stronger and gaining new abilities might feel good, but that feeling is nothing compared to this one.

After hugging him for a good 5 minutes, Felberta finally regained her senses and questioned.

“Wait, when did you get behind me? No, when did you even enter the office?”

“I have been here for a while now,” Nux replied.

Felberta rolled her eyes, not believing him. She soon forgot her question and asked another, a more important one.

“You sure got muscular huh... I wonder if your weapon changed as well”

“Oh, he has been craving for your little sisters for a long time and is aching to meet them” Nux smiled seductively.

“What a coincident, our little sisters is the same as well”

“Sooo... shall we begin?” Nux questioned.

“Why not” The three of them answered simultaneously.

Chapter 52

“Wait!”

Just as Nux was about to grab Felberta’s butt, Lane exclaimed.

“Hm? Is there something troubling you? Lane?” Nux questioned.

“No... you have just returned and must have worked hard for so long, I just thought that why not we three help you relax...” Lane replied.

Suddenly, Felberta’s eyes brightened as she exclaimed, “Lane you are a genius! We can use this opportunity to try and test the thing we were talking about before!”

“The thing you were talking about?”

“You don’t have to worry about it, just sit back and let us do all the work” Felberta pushed Nux and forced him to sit on the chair.

She then pulled the two maids and walked towards the corner of the office, as if trying to hide something from Nux.

“So, which one should we choose? The first one or the second one?” Felberta questioned, her voice was a little low since she was trying to hide it from Nux.

Lane blushed a little but Skyla was bolder, “Both.”

“Both?”

“Yea, both is good.” Skyla nodded.

Felberta nodded, the more they talked, the redder Lane’s face turned.

“Okay, we’ll do both, we will start with the second one since the food will turn cold and won’t taste good later.”

Skyla and Lane nodded, and Felberta nodded back.

As if on cue, the three of them turned towards Nux at the same time.

Nux smiled, he found their interaction quite funny.

Although he could hear what they were talking about if he wanted, he respected their privacy and didn’t use his [Sense].

The three of them walked towards him and suddenly, Felberta and Lane fell on their knees as they started removing his pants, freeing his little brother.

Felberta then held it in her hands gently before giving it a few gentle strokes, under the stimulation, Nux’s rod reacted and turned hard.

“Fufu~ Look at how lively he is...”

“He has been missing you for a while now” Nux replied.

Then he noticed Skyla walking towards him with a plate in her hand, as she sat on the chair’s handle.

“Alright, you must be tired after fighting so many beasts, here have some food made by me and regenerate your energy.” She then moved the fork carrying a piece of meat towards his mouth and fed him.

“Mm, your cooking as delicious as before”, Nux praised while his hand moved towards her butt.

“Ahh~” Skyla’s body jerked due to the sudden touch.

Suddenly, Nux felt something incredibly soft touching his dick, he turned to look at it and the sight he saw would never leave his memory.

Never.

Felberta and Lane had freed their large mountains, and surrounded his rod from all four directions, giving him a double boob job.

The softness he felt was on another level, countless bolts of pleasure were released into his body, when the two of them started moving, the pleasure intensified even more and his body twitched.

The sight of their erect nipples touching each other was so good that he wanted to burn it in his memory.

“Ooonhh~” Nux couldn’t control himself and moaned in pleasure.

Seeing his reaction, Felberta grinned, Lane, whose face was a little red since she was ashamed smiled as well.

They have been planning this for a while now. The one leading it was Felberta of course.

Since she has already accepted that Nux would have many more incredible women around him, she decided to keep Skyla and Lane in her faction.

The double boob job was one of the carefully thought out moves she and her faction members created after intensive research.

The two of them nodded at each other and increased their speed.

“Ooohhhhhh!!”

The sensation was too much for Nux to handle and he moaned without stopping.

As Nux moaned in pleasure, Skyla moved another bite in front of his mouth. He ate it obediently while he felt an otherworldly pleasure down below.

“Anh~” To feel more of their breasts, Nux tilted his body a little, the head of his dick touched Lane’s nipple and she moaned.

Nux felt good as well and he started moving his body a little, feeling the soft and mushy breasts surrounding his dick as much as he wanted.

His left hand played with Skyla's firm butt while she fed him lovingly.

Nux felt like he was the luckiest man alive.

He felt like a king! An emperor who was surrounded by otherworldly beauties, all loving him with their hearts.

A picture of him sitting on a golden throne, surrounded by Felberta, Skyla, Lane, and many other beauties whose faces weren't clear, appeared in his mind.

Nux's heartbeat quickened.

A thought appeared in his mind but he was then brought back to the real world by Felberta and Lane as they increased their speed. The pleasure he felt intensified even more and his rod started twitching.

Veins bulged out on his rod, Nux's back arched up, he tightened his grip around Skyla's firm butt and,

“Uuggghhh~”

Squirt

He came.

Fresh milk exploded from his dick, covering Felberta's and Lane's faces and breasts.

Felberta then licked and moved her finger throughout her face, collecting all his jizz before swallowing it all in one go.

“My my, what a huge amount~”

Although Lane didn't say anything like Felberta since she was too embarrassed, she too quickly gathered all his milk and swallowed it.

“Oh don’t worry~ Just look at his weapon, does it look like it is satisfied to you?” Felberta pointed towards Nux’s veiny erect rod with a mischievous smile while still sucking her finger that collected Nux’s milk.

“Hehe~ With how lively it is, we don’t even need to do any foreplay to start the second round”

Skyla snickered.

Chapter 53

“Hehe~ With how lively it is, we don’t even need to do any foreplay to start the second round”

Skyla snickered as she quickly placed the empty plate on the table before rushing and kneeling between Felberta and Lane.

She then glanced at the two and they all nodded to each other, Skyla was clearly the most excited among them.

Nux was amused by the way they are acting. He was even looking forwards to what they were going to do; he felt that if it is even a little closer to how good it felt compared to the double boob job, he would be very, very satisfied.

Smooch

He didn’t have to wait for long as Skyla started the performance with a kiss on the tip of his dick.

She then started licking and cleaning it diligently, when his whole rod was drenched in her saliva, she smiled and opened her mouth, gobbling the whole thing inside.

“Oohh~”

Nux moaned in pleasure, but he then noticed that the other two haven’t even started yet.

“AAnnhhh~~”

However, before he could look down, his body shuddered in pleasure and he moaned out loud.

He barely opened his eyes and saw Felberta and Lane sucking his balls.

Combining with the blowjob he was given by Skyla, the pleasure surged up. His back arched up, and he closed his eyes. His hand held Felberta's and Lane's heads while his body kept twitching.

“T-This is too gooooodddd~ Fuckkkk~~”

Even though he just came a few minutes ago, his dick twitched uncontrollably and at the same time, Skyla intensified her suction.

“Uughhhhh~ I am cumming~~”

Squirt

As the pleasure he was feeling increased again, Nux couldn't control himself anymore and came again.

‘What!?’

He couldn't believe it himself! How did he cum so soon!? This only happened when Felberta gave him a handjob on the first night he spent with her! And that was because he was still inexperienced!

How did they manage to make him cum so quickly!?

Nux wondered inwardly.

Felberta smiled as she saw his face. This was her faction's other move, the triple blow job!

And just as she thought, its effect is even stronger than the double boob job.

“It felt really good... I am really glad to be back” Nux muttered with a smile.

“Heh, you believe our service is for free?” Felberta chuckled.

“Of course not, don't worry, I'll personally come to you all in due time to pay you all” Nux replied as he smirked.

Lane and Felberta nodded, Skylia also nodded, but she was busier swallowing all the milk she had received.

...

A few minutes later, Felberta and the others had already changed their clothes and had washed their faces, right now, the four of them were sitting inside Felberta's office as if having a meeting, then, Felberta started,

“So, let's start in a better way. Nux, how was your trip?”

“It was good; I gained a lot of things and have become a lot stronger”

“Well, I can see that...” Felberta smiled seductively, she was talking about Nux's newly gained muscles, she really liked them.

Then she turned serious and questioned.

“So, what's your next goal?”

“To get even stronger”

“And how will you do that?”

“You already know the answer to that question, Fel” Nux smiled.

“Yeah... I do...”

Hmph!” Felberta snorted.

She knew he was going to fuck some new chicks.

Of course, albeit not happy, she had already accepted it.

“So, do you want my help with anything?”

“I do, I want to ask where can I find stronger girls?”

“Yeah, I thought you would ask me that, I thought about it before and have some suggestions...”

The maids of Marquis Lana should be stronger tha-”

“Wait wait wait, How am I supposed to get maids of this Marquis Lana you are talking about?” Nux questioned and let alone Felberta, even Skyla and Lane glanced at him with a deadpan expression.

“Wha- What?”

“Do you really want me to answer that? How did you get mine, Viscount Felberta’s maids?”

“So you want me to enter this Marquis Lana’s mansion and get those maids?”

“Of course, also, unlike Viscount and Baron, one cannot become a Marquis without having cultivation; the minimum requirement to become a Marquis is Master Level, so even Marquis Lana is a good target for you.”

“I get that, but I will not repeat the thing. What after I am done with her and her maids? Enter another noble’s mansion? It’s too long, and I won’t have much time to spend with you three. We can’t do that” Nux directly shook his head.

“Then what do you want to do?”

“Tell me a place where there are a lot of strong female cultivators. It will be a lot more efficient that way.”

“Hmm... there are those cultivation sects, but if you want to get the best of the bests... The finest place would be the Royal Academy.”

“The Royal academy...” Nux muttered.

“Yes, I can provide you with a recommendation letter and you join it as a student... the students there are strong, and of course, the teachers are even stronger. If you are careful, your gains will be immeasurable.”

“Who is the strongest female cultivator there? And what’s her level?”

“After the headmaster of the Academy, the strongest person there is Consort Lauren, she is also the strongest female cultivator in the academy, as for her cultivation, she should be at Expert Stage”

“Hmm... An Expert Stage cultivator huh...”

The cultivation levels in this world were as follows:

Mortal

Apprentice

Beginner

Advance

Master

Grand Master

Expert

King

Emperor

However, this world hasn’t seen an Emperor Level Cultivator for a long while, the strongest person, the king of the Sky Fall Kingdom is a King Level Cultivator.

Nux then noticed something and couldn’t help but question,

“Wait, you said Consort Lauren, consort as in...”

“Yes, the king’s consort, but their relationship wasn’t the best so she left the palace and entered the Royal Academy.” Felberta nodded.

Suddenly, the picture of him sitting on a throne and surrounded by different beauties appeared in his mind again, he thought about it... and then took a deep breath as he questioned.

“What about the King’s wives? The Royal Harem? How strong are they?”

“...huh?”

Title: What About The King’s Wives? The Royal Harem? How Strong Are They?

Chapter 54

“What about the King’s wives? The Royal Harem? How strong are they?”

“...”

“Fel?”

“...huh? Wha- What did you say?” Skyla, Lane, and Felberta were all shocked by his question.

“I asked how strong king’s wives are, also don’t look at me like that, I am just curious”

Felberta sighed and then answered,

“They are strong of course; I heard the strongest consort is at King Stage.”

A smile appeared on Nux’s face as he asked another question,

“Fel, what do you think about the current king?”

Not liking his tone and that smile on his face one bit, Felberta’s face turned solemn,

“Nux, it does not matter what I think about the king. He is the king, the strongest person in this kingdom. Don’t think something unrea-”

“Fel, do you really think I will do something I am not confident in? You know how scared of dying I am, right?”

“What confidence are you talking about!? How strong are you, huh!?”
Felberta snapped in anger.

“I am very strong”

“How strong!? You might be the strongest person in the Advance stage! There are countless people stronger than you out there! Heck, even my butler is stronger than yo-”

“I am strong enough to defeat 5 Joyabs without breaking any sweat,” Nux replied, Felberta, Skyla, and Lane, were stunned but Nux wasn’t done yet.

“Not only that,

I can fight against a Grand Master Stage cultivator if we fight without weapons or have the same level star weapons.”

“ ... ”

“I can even assassinate an Expert Stage Cultivator. ”

“ ... ”

“That is how strong I am.”

“ ... ”

The three of them were dumbfounded by his words...

Just what did he do there to get so strong?

Suddenly, a thought appeared in Felberta’s mind but before she could even question, Nux answered.

“No, it is not what you are thinking. I will not touch other women without telling you.”

“... Then how did you get so strong? At what cultivation level are you right now?”

“I am still at the Advance stage”

Hearing his answer, Felberta boiled in anger, she thought that he was teasing her.

“So you are telling me that while being an Advance stage cultivator, you can defeat an Expert stage cultivator!?”

“I never said I can defeat an Expert Stage Cultivator, I said I can assassinate him. It is not the same”

“Th-”

Bam

Felberta wanted to say something but turned silent when a beast corpse appeared in front of her.

“Fiery Flaming Lion, a 4-star beast, which should have the same strength as a Grand Master Stage cultivator.”

She then heard Nux’s words and was dumbfounded.

“...Did you kill it?”

“Of course. It was so simple that I couldn’t believe it myself”

“...”

“How about this, I will fight Joyab right in front of you, then you can decide for yourself if I am lying or not” Knowing that she still did not believe him, Nux offered.

“We’ll do that then”

Felberta nodded in agreement.

Although she wanted to believe him, she just couldn’t do it! This man in front of him was twisting all her logic! How can an Advance stage cultivator defeat a Grand Master stage cultivator?

...

Half an hour ago, the break ended and Joyab returned, but when he entered and saw Nux sitting on Felberta's chair with a smile on his face, his lips twitched in frustration.

'He returned...'

"Joyab, I want you to have a friendly spar with Nux" Felberta ordered.

"Huh? Viscount Felberta, isn't he just an Advance Stage? What if I hurt him?"

"Butler Joyab, you don't have to worry about it. Let's just start. Don't worry, I won't hit you too hard" Nux chuckled.

Joyab lips touched even more.

"Yes, Viscount Felberta, I will do as you said and will have a spar with him" Joyab bowed as he glared at Nux.

How dare a mere Advance Stage boy act arrogant in front of him?

I won't hit you too hard!? Should you not beg me not to go too hard on you instead!?

'I will punch that arrogant face yours...'

Joyab was angry.

"Alright, let's move to the garden" Felberta nodded.

...

In the garden, Nux and Joyab stood in front of each other.

Joyab was very eager to start and he didn't have to wait a lot as Viscount Felberta announced,

“Start”

Joyab then activated Steps Of Gale and disappeared from his spot.

Of course, that was only for Fel and the two maids, Nux on the other hand could clearly see Joyab running towards him with a pathetic display of Steps Of Gale.

He wasn't even at the beginner stage.

A few seconds later, Joyab appeared in front of Nux and tried to punch his face. Nux just dodged lazily and slapped his face.

Slap

Bam

Joyab's body was sent flying and he passed out.

The fight ended.

Felberta, Skyla, and Lane couldn't react in time and when they did, they couldn't believe their eyes.

They only saw Joyab dashing towards Nux at an incredible speed before flying back at an even faster speed.

What in the hell happened?

That was the only question that ran through their mind.

Skyla quickly woke up from her reverie and rushed towards Joyab.

Her eyes widened when she saw his state and she shouted,

“He passed out!”

“What!?” Felberta and Lane exclaimed in surprise.

“I told you right? Even 5 Joyabs won’t make me sweat, let alone one. Do you believe me now?”

Then they heard Nux’s words and couldn’t help but believe them.

Nux was a monster.

An anomaly.

They can’t judge him with logic.

“So, My Darling Fel, I will ask you again,”

“What do you think about the current king?”

~~~Volume 1 End~~~

Author Note: This is it, folks, the 1st volume ends today,

Thank you to everyone who supported me through this journey, and I hope you will keep supporting me in the future as well~

Chapter 55

“So, my dear Fel, I will ask you again, what do you think about the current king?”

“...are you really sure you want to do it?” Felberta questioned.

“Don’t worry, as I said, I am very scared of death. I will not act restlessly. Also, you can be sure about one thing, if I want to run away, even a king stage expert won’t be able to catch me” Nux assured with a confident smile.

Of course, he was lying with a straight face. He has no clue if a king stage or even an expert stage could detect his conceal or not.

However, he knew that he would get stronger at a never seen rate and someday not that far away, even the legendary emperor stage cultivator won’t be able to detect and defeat him.

“...mm” Felberta nodded, though she thought it was a ridiculous notion for a king stage cultivator to not be able to catch an advance stage cultivator, Nux was an anomaly.

“Fel, you still haven’t answered my question” Nux reminded gently.

Then, Felberta’s sighed in defeat as she answered,

“The current king... he is not a good king, but he is not a bad one either. He is just an average king, nothing special really.”

“Hmm? We can’t have an average king leading us, can we? How about I become the new king?” Nux spoke with a smile.

Felberta’s lips twitched as she thought inwardly, ‘Why are you even asking me? No matter what I think about the king, won’t you still plan to replace him?’

“Yeah yeah, we can’t have an average king... you should really become our new king...” Felberta replied bland tone.

She couldn’t believe she was saying it. If someone else heard her, they would be scared shitless.

What she said was nothing less than treason!

She would die if her words were heard by someone.

However, when she saw Nux’s face, she smiled inwardly,

‘It might not be a bad thing to die for him...’

Love really makes one blind and stupid...

“Fel, do you have some information about the royal harem? Some good information, a consort I can get my hands on for example.” Nux asked seriously, as if he was talking about something very important and not about cucking the king of the kingdom he lived in.

“Not really, but I can find it if you want”

“Hm? Can a normal Viscount get information like this?” Nux questioned.

“Of course not! But I have my ways” Felberta smiled.

“Can it be traced back to you?” Nux asked seriously.

“Hmm... it can” After thinking about it for a while, Felberta replied.

“Then forget about it” Nux directly shook his head. He wasn’t going to let Felberta take such a big risk.

“Fel, who do you think would know more about the royal harem?” Nux questioned.

Felberta thought about it but couldn’t come up with an answer; everyone who knew something more about the royal harem is someone important and can't be offended. They couldn't target him/her right now.

"The head maid!" Suddenly, Skyla's eyes brightened as she replied.

"The head maid?"

"Yes, the head of all the maids working in the Royal Palace. She should know a lot of things about the royal harem!" Skyla nodded.

"Hmm... but the head maid won't leave the Royal palace easily right? How do I contact her?"

"That... I do not know" Skyla lowered her head, embarrassed.

"It shouldn't be that difficult to contact her" Felberta replied.

"No, we can't use your name" Nux shook his head.

"You don't have to. You just have to disguise yourself as a merchant from another kingdom and introduce some items to meet her. Then you can perform your magic on her later."

Nux stayed silent for a while before his eyes brightened,

"Fel, you are a genius!"

"Hmph! Of course, I am!" Felberta snorted but a small smile appeared on her face.

"Umm... but... how can any random company merchant meet the head maid of the royal palace? Won't we need some authentication...?" Lane interjected.

"..." the room turned silent.

Lane was right, how could any merchant meet the head maid? if that was possible, the head maid would have been long dead due to overwork.

“Umm... what if the merchant was introduced to her by a maid of a royal palace? Would that be enough?” Skyla questioned.

“That should be enough for the head maid to take a look” Felberta answered.

“T-Then I know a maid who works in the royal palace. We’re not that close, but I can introduce you to her... then...” Skyla suggested.

“Are you talking about Annice?” Lane questioned to which Skyla nodded.

“That might work, for Nux, it should be easy to convince that Annice you speak of, isn’t that right?” Felberta glanced at Nux. “After all, fooling innocent girls is what you are best at”

Nux didn’t know how to respond to the jab which was completely uncalled for.

He decided that it would be best to stay silent in this position and didn’t reply.

“Hmph!” Felberta snorted seeing him acting like that. She then glanced at Skyla and questioned.

“How and when will you introduce her?”

“According to her holiday schedule, her next time off would be a week later, I can introduce you to her then”

“Okay, so it’s decided, we will meet her and decided what to do later next week. Till then, Nux is all ours, enjoy to your heart’s content~” Felberta announced without even asking the man they were talking about.

Not that the man minded or anything.

Chapter 56

“So, my dear Skyla, did you miss me when I was gone?”

Nux whispered seductively into Skyla’s ears.

Right now, he was inside his room with Skyla sitting on his lap facing him. He was caressing her whole body gently and slowly as if preparing his meal.

“I did” Skyla replied as he enjoyed his touch.

“How much?”

“A lot- Anh!” Skyla replied before she moaned out loud as Nux grabbed her butt.

She does not know why, but whenever he touches her there, the pleasure she feels instantly heightened.

“Aren’t you a lot more sensitive than normal?” Nux chuckles as he started kneading her firm but soft butt.

“T-That’s all your fault... it has been a long time since you touched me, so I am a little more sensitive than usual...”

Skyla complained with a cute pout. With her childish face, her pout looked lovable and could melt any man’s heart.

“Did you not touch yourself when I was away?”

“I did, but... but it didn’t feel as good as when you do it so I wasn’t very satisfied...”

That is also your fault!”

Skyla blamed him again.

“Hoh? How is that my fault then?”

“I used to feel good whenever I touched myself before, it is only when you started touching me, I... it felt so good that I can't satisfy myself anymore...”

Skyla replied honestly, her face was a little red, but that wasn't because she was embarrassed, it was because she felt good under his touches.

She was a simple girl, now that she has given her heart to this man in front of her, she won't be embarrassed talking about her masturbating in the past or anything like that.

“Then isn't your fault that you are a horny little girl who can't even pleasure herself?” Nux questioned in amusement.

“It is not! It was you who made me like this! I could easily satisfy myself before I didn't meet you- Anhh!” Skyla pouted even more but then Nux smiled as he tightened his grip around her butt, making her moan again.

“That makes sense. I will admit that it was my fault for making you like this but since we can't change it, how about I compensate you differently?” Nux questioned as he stood up and carried her in his arms.

“H-how will you compensate me?” Skyla questioned with a red face. She didn't really need to ask since she already knew the answer, and to be honest, she won't have anything else for the compensation.

“I will help you relax this perverted body of yours~” Nux whispered into her ears before placing her on the bed.

Skyla then felt something soft on her lips, knowing what it was, she didn't waste any more time and started the attack with her tongue. Her tongue then knocked on his teeth before entering and mingling with his tongue.

She then circled her hands around Nux's neck before pulling him even closer to her. Nux's hand didn't stay idle either; they first lowered her uniform to free her lovely breasts before removing her skirt.

His one hand then gently kneaded her soft breasts, while his other hand travelled down and entered her panties.

Without wasting any more time, his middle finger entered her squishy canal, exploring her already familiar insides. His index finger didn't wait for long either, and once her little sister was wet enough, it penetrated in as well.

“MMnnfgg~”

His two fingers created a mess in her insides, stimulating all her weak points without any mercy.

Skyla's body shuddered in pleasure.

‘Yes! This is itttt! It feeellls soo gooddd~~’

‘I would never be able to pleasure myself like this. Only he can do it’

Skyla thought with whatever little sense she has left before giving it to pleasure and continuing moaning.

It was as if Nux knew everything about her body, the amount of time and intensity he should rub her certain weak spot, where should he touch gently, and where he should be a little rougher, everything he did ensure that Skyla feels most pleasure out of it.

“Mmmmmngggfhh~~”

Under the intense stimulation, Skyla couldn't hold any longer, her canals tightened and her body twitched before she came.

Right after she came, Nux parted their lips, allowing her to regain her breath.

“Haah... Ha... Haa...”

“Hehe, look at how tired you look, my dear Skyla, don’t forget, the real part is about to begin”

‘The... the real part is about to be- begin...’

Skyla thought inwardly and when her eyes peeked at Nux’s weapon that was standing tall, ready to march inside her canal, her breathing quickened even more.

Satisfied by her reaction, Nux sat up, placed his rod in front of her canal, and started stroking her pussy’s entrance with his dick.

Skyla’s body shuddered due to his teasing, then as if having mercy on her, Nux stopped his teasing and plunged his rod right into her canal.

“Aahh~ So good~”

Skyla moaned out loud. Her expression showed only one thing at the moment, and that was pure bliss.

Nux too felt a wave of pleasure assaulting his body, after not being boned for a month, Skyla’s vagina was tighter than usual, Nux needed some time to get used to the tightness and once he did, he pulled out his dick and then plunged it again.

“AAnnhg~”

His movements quickly turned smooth and the drilling started.

“Annhh~ Annhh~ Annhh~”

“So Annhh~ so gooodddd~”

Skyla moaned in pleasure, jolts and jolts of pleasure were released into her. Her body soon turned numb, she clenched the bedsheets hard and accepted the drilling wholeheartedly.

She felt like she was finally full.

The pleasure she felt continued increasing, she could feel that Nux was wilder than usual but she didn't complain. In fact, it felt even better.

“Annhh~ Annhh~ Annhh~”

She continued moaning, her back arched up in pleasure, eyes rolled back, and canals started to tighten. She was already sensitive since she came just now, and the pleasure she felt was already too much for her to bear.

She wanted to orgasm, but somewhere inside her mind, she knew that the moment she did, the pleasure that was assaulting her body will stop so she forced herself not to cum.

This, however, caused her canals to tighten even more, Nux, was surprised by the sudden tightness and felt that he was about to cum.

He then increased his speed even more and grabbed her juicy butt tightly.

“AAannhhhhgghhh~”

“Uggghh~ I am cumming~~”

This action caused all her efforts to be in vain and Skyla squirted like there was no tomorrow. Nux also let go and painted her walls white before falling on her body.

“It Haah... felt really Haah... good~”

Saying that, Skyla closed her eyes and passed out.

Chapter 57

Seeing her sleeping so soundly, Nux smiled as he gently kissed her soft lips before lying right beside her.

Streams of energy entered his body after he came inside but this time, the amount wasn't enough for him to level up. Nux shook his head as he closed his eyes and relished the aftertaste of their intense and delightful session.

...

2 hours later, Nux opened his eyes; he then turned around and glanced at Skylia who was still sleeping soundly and with a small smile on her face.

Nux smiled as well and stood up, he didn't wake her up and directly left his room.

After exiting, he activated his [Sense] and quickly found her next target. He then activated his [Conceal] and started walking towards her.

After a while, Nux could see Lane walking towards the corridor and decided to follow her. A mischievous smile appeared on his face.

Lane kept walking without knowing how the person who she was thinking about right now was following her.

However, suddenly, she stopped and glanced toward the three maids who were talking happily.

Nux frowned and followed her gaze and quickly found those three maids.

“What!? Edric proposed to you yesterday!?” One of the maids questioned.

The other maid, who was a little shorter than the two nodded with a blush on her face.

“Took him a long damn time!” the first maid snorted.

“Hey hey, did you have your first time yet?” The third maid questioned excitedly.

The other maid’s face turned even redder as she nodded, “...last night”

“Kyaa!! Quick! Tell me the details!”

The maid’s face was now as red as a tomato as she shook her head cutely, “I won’t...”

“Wha- What? That’s so mean!” The third maid complained.

“Alright alright, don’t tease her now. Oriel, tell me, when are you two getting married?” The first maid questioned.

Oriel smiled a little as she answered, “A month later...”

“You will invite us to the marriage right?” The first maid teased.

“Of course... you two are my best friends after all...” Oriel nodded with a red face.

Nux then turned his head and glanced at Lane. He was surprised to see that her eyes were gleaming with excitement and jealousy as she glanced at the trio.

Nux frowned, excitement was okay but jealousy?

What was she jealous of? Wasn’t her man the most handsome and the most caring person in this world?

However, soon Nux realized.

What was different in the thing the maids were talking about?

Marriage.

Nux has confessed to his women many times, but he noticed that he hasn't proposed to marry any one of them yet. Of course, he was happy to marry them anytime, but it won't make difference if he just thinks about it in his mind.

Could they read his mind?

No.

He has to tell them himself.

Nux nodded inwardly, he promised himself that he would propose all three of them personally.

The three maids then continued talking; the third maid was persistent and continued asking Oriol about her first time. Oriol blushed each time and continued denying it.

As if remembering something, Lane quickly shook her head, she then walked towards the maid and congratulated her.

“Congratulations”

Then before Oriol could reply, Lane quickly rushed away awkwardly.

Nux chuckled seeing her acting like that and quickly followed her. A while later, Lane entered the bathroom and Nux finally decided to reveal himself.

With a mischievous smile, Nux walked in front of her, letting her bump into him.

“Huh? Lane? What are you thinking about that you are so lost in your thoughts that you can't even see your man walking in front of you?” of course, he also took the opportunity to take her in his embrace.

“Nux?” Lane didn't mind being hugged by him but she was shocked. She was sure that she didn't see him standing there. When did he appear? Was she really so lost thinking about marrying Nux that she couldn't even see him standing in front of him?

“Were you thinking about me?”

Being caught like this, Lane panicked as she replied, “N-No”

“Oh? Then were you thinking about another man?”

“No! Not at all! Why would I think about another man!?” Lane panicked even more.

She then heard Nux chuckling before picking her up. Knowing what he was going to do, Lane quickly shook her head as she replied.

“Nux, we can’t do that yet, I still have work to do”

“You can always do it later, right?”

“N-No I cannot, I still have to was-” Suddenly, Lane felt something soft on her lips and saw Nux kissing her gently.

“You can always do it later, right?” He questioned gently.

“N-no, I ha-” Again, Nux sealed her lips.

“You can always do it later, right?” he repeated, his tone even gentler.

Lane’s face turned red and her heart started beating quickly, however, as a serious person, she quickly came back to her senses and replied, “Nux, I cannot do it ri-”

He sealed her lips again.

“You can always do it later, right?” he repeated, this time, his voice so gentle that it was almost seductive.

Lane’s will to fight disappeared as soon as it appeared, however, his kisses felt good so she tried to deny it again, “I can-”

“Right?” After sealing her lips again, Nux questioned before kissing her lips a few more times without letting her answer.

“Right?” He then questioned again.

‘I can always do it later, right?’

Lane thought inwardly as she nodded with a red face. She then let Nux carry her to the bathtub and place her inside.

Chapter 58

Lane's heart was already beating very fast due to his kisses, but now that he placed her in the empty bathtub, she felt like it will burst out.

She wasn't stupid, she clearly knew where this is going, and was inwardly very happy and excited thinking about it. It's been so long, she missed him a lot.

“You really like it when I kiss you on your lips huh...” Nux muttered.

Lane nodded shyly.

She then felt him kissing her lips again, however, this time; it wasn't just a gentle peck. Soon, something wet entered her mouth and started mingling with her tongue.

While she was enjoying the kiss, she felt Nux's hands moving. He soon removed her skirt and proceeded to do the same with her top.

He freed her soft but firm milky white breasts and after giving them a soft kneading, he removed her bra entirely and then did the same with her panty.

He then ended his kiss and stepped back. She could see him glancing at her completely naked body with his enchanting golden eyes and her heartbeat quickened.

“You are really beautiful” she then heard his voice.

Her heart beamed in joy when she heard him, her joy was then felt by her mouth and a smile appeared on it.

“And when you are naked like this, you are explosively beautiful. Ha! I am glad that I am the only man who could see this seductive sight”

Her face turned red in embarrassment hearing him.

“R-Remove your clothes... I c-can't be the only one naked here...” She then muttered.

“Mmhm, someone's getting naughty”

Hearing him chuckling like that, Lane felt even more embarrassed, however, seeing him removing his clothes, she felt better.

Nux first removed his robes, revealing his muscular body, with every muscle looking strong and divine. He then removed his pants and Lane saw his rod that was already half-awakened, perhaps aroused due to seeing her body.

Lane smiled thinking about it before her gaze returned to his whole body.

‘You are also really dashing when you are naked like that’ she thought inwardly.

She then saw him walking towards her and felt excited.

He then moved his rod and placed it on the top of her right breast, or to be more specific, her nipple.

“Anh~”

Lane didn't know what he was doing, but she felt a strange jolt of pleasure assaulting her body and she let out a moan.

Then, he started sliding his dick up and down.

Seeing the round head of his rod crushing her nipple again and again filled Felberta with a weird sense of excitement, not only that, she even noticed his dick turning even harder the more it moved.

Her little sister trembled in excitement and anticipation but Lane's eyes were glued on how his huge penis and her erect nipple collided.

“Heh... look how your pussy is crying for attention”

Lane was brought out of her reverie when she heard her voice. She glanced below and saw her juices leaking out of her canal, she blushed in embarrassment.

“You don’t need to be so embarrassed; I am your man after all. Isn’t it normal for your body to crave my body? Even my body craves your body. Look how hard and ready to go my little brother is.”

Lane nodded, still a little embarrassed.

She then felt Nux’s dick moving towards her little sister.

He then started sliding his dick up and down on her entrance, drenching his dick with her juice.

“Annhhh~”

Soon, Nux entered her insides. Lane’s body shuddered in pleasure.

Her little sister moved its wall around his dick, feeling and gobbling up the entire thing like a very hungry person gobbling the food he received.

Soon, Nux pulled his dick backwards and Lane’s insides started trembling they only calmed down when he plunged it inside again.

“Annhhh~”

Lane moaned in satisfaction, every time Nux thrusts his dick inside her.

The waves of pleasure that assaulted her body numbed her mind, and her body shuddered.

While the pleasure she was feeling was already too much to handle, she saw Nux bending down, he then lowered his head and started licking her left nipple with a seductive smile on his face.

Not having enough, he gobbled up her erect nipple before sucking it intensely as he continued licking it with his tongue.

“Aannnhhhh~”

Lane’s body was assaulted by yet another wave of pleasure. Her back arched up as she held her head and pulled her close to her body.

Nux’s other hand also started playing with her other nipple, intensifying the pleasure even more.

“Annhh~ Annhh~ Annhh~”

Lane moaned uncontrollably, her body was already numb due to pleasure while Nux kept drilling her insides.

Suddenly, Nux bit her nipple at the same time when he pinched her other nipples, the sudden and intense feeling of painful pleasure jolted her awake.

Her Vaginal walls tightened and started twitching hysterically.

“I Annhh~ I a-am Annhh~ cummmingggggg~~ Annhh~”

She then finally let go and her pussy squirted.

Being sucked by her walls and drenched by her juices, the pleasure Nux was feeling heightened to another degree, he couldn’t hold on any longer and,

“Take it all in!! Uggghhh!”

He filled her insides with his milk. His body felt weak as he lay beside Lane before kissing her lips.

“I Haah... really missed Haah... you...”

Lane muttered as she enjoyed the aftertaste.

A smile appeared on Nux’s tired face as he replied,

“I missed you as well~”

Chapter 59

“Okay, that’s enough for the day. You can take your leave!” Felberta announced.

Joyab, who was now conscious and was reporting everything to Felberta, felt his mouth twitching.

There was still an hour before the office hours ended and he still had a few reports to make.

As expected, that man’s return is bad news, it was so good seeing Viscount Felberta working seriously but now that he has returned, she’s announcing early offs again.

What’s worse, he has become so strong in such a short time that he can’t even say anything to him now. What a frustrating and annoying man!

Of course, he didn’t dare say any of this out loud and just bowed before leaving.

Felberta smiled before she quickly stood up and rushed towards her room. She knew that Nux would be in her room, waiting for her right now. She was eager to spend time with him after so long.

However, just as she was imagining doing this and that with him, her two maids, now sisters, appeared in front of her and spoke,

“Viscount Felberta, the dinner is ready”

“What?”

“The dinner is ready”

Felberta frowned, these two should know what and where was she going. They shouldn’t disturb her right now but when she saw the sly smile that leaked out of Skylia's serious expression for a second, she quickly understood what they were up to.

'After having your fun, you dare stop me from having mine!? How vicious!'

"Viscount Felberta, don't look at us like that, we only mean your well. As someone who has already experienced what you are about to experience, I believe you will require a lot of energy. Thus, having dinner before doing the deed is advisable" Skylia advised, barely able to hold her laugh.

"You..." Felberta was speechless.

"You dare talk like you are more experienced than me!? Mind you, while you were just peeking through the wall, I was experiencing the real thing!"

How could Felberta take it lying down!? She retorted viciously as well.

Skylia blushed, this was her dark memory, she was just teasing her, why would she be so vicious to bring that up...

Felberta was satisfied by her reaction and then replied, "You don't need to worry about me not having energy since I am more experienced in this matter than the two of you who were virgins just a month ago."

With another sly jab, Viscount Felberta walked towards her room. Skylia and Lane on the other hand just blushed in embarrassment; they decided in their heart that they would never listen to his words and tease Viscount Felberta ever again.

Nux, who initiated everything, was chuckling as he witnessed this scene with his [Sense]. He had to admit, the two maids were nothing in terms of wordplay when compared to the Viscount. She handled them like a boss.

He chuckled and then waited for Felberta to enter the room.

*Bam***

The door was then slammed open and Felberta appeared, she then saw Nux smiling at her gently as he patted his lap.

“Hmph!” She then snorted before walking towards him and sat in his embrace before questioning, “How dare you ask Skyla and Lane to hinder me from coming? Do you not want me anymore?”

“What are you talking about?”

Seeing him acting ignorant, Felberta snorted again as she replied, “Stop acting! Do you think I don’t know my own sisters? Skyla is too clumsy to come up with something like that, while Lane is too serious to do it. The two of them would never do it until someone tells them to”

“Haah... you can’t really win against an extremely beautiful and intelligent noblewoman huh...” Nux sighed, not forgetting to compliment her ‘unknowingly’ through his words.

“Hmph! Of course, you can’t!” Felberta snorted and then smiled a little. She missed bantering like this while he caressed her body all over.

“Hey Fel, I had something to ask you about...”

Suddenly, Nux muttered.

“What is it?”

“Why did you look for a boy toy? I mean, with your looks, I won’t be surprised if you found any person to become your boy toy. Heck, some might even pay for it!”

Suddenly, Felberta blushed before replying,

“It wasn’t really my idea...”

“Hmm?”

“I actually did not need any man. After my husband died, I raised my child alone without anyone’s help. Many nobles, even Marquees asked me to be their concubine but I rejected them all. Then my friend, Flor, told me that I was a dominant type and advised me to keep a boy toy.

I felt it was an interesting concept and agreed. I wasn't really planning to have sex with you... or at least till I was not ready for it but..."

"Hehe~ But I was too hard to resist huh~" Nux whispered into her ears.

Felberta nodded with a red face, she looked extremely cute right now.

"But the way you acted that day looked like you have done that several times... you can't underestimate a noble's acting, can you?"

"Heh! You are one to talk!" Felberta scoffed.

"Huh? What do you mean?"

"C'mon, stop acting dumb, 'V-Viscount F-Felberta, y-y-you are really beautiful' to 'My dear Fel, you look really amazing today~' do you think this is a transition one can have in just a few days?" Felberta questioned as she glared at Nux.

"Hahaha~ You caught me" Nux laughed, he decided to be honest.

"You fooled me!" Felberta stated.

"I did, however, that was the only way I could have you all to myself and you were just too beautiful for the greedy me to leave you~" Nux whispered into her ears softly.

He then picked her up and placed her on the bed before asking, "How about I compensate you with my body?"

Felberta smiled before she rolled over, changed the positions as she sat on him,

"Don't worry; I wasn't planning to let you go without compensating me with your body"

Chapter 60

“Don’t worry; I wasn’t planning to let you go without compensating me with your body”

Felberta smirked as she rolled on top of Nux.

She might be a little mud-headed when Nux was still there with her, but last month when Nux left to go to the Blood Hills Wilderness, she thought about it with a clear mind and deduced that the change in Nux’s behaviour wasn’t natural.

He was fooling her.

The revelation wasn’t exactly a joyful one for her. Being tricked by someone you love isn’t a very good feeling and Felberta felt sad about it.

But after thinking about it a little more, she realized that Nux didn’t want to harm her, on the contrary, she benefitted a lot while being in a relationship with him.

If Nux wanted, he could have left her after she outlived her use, but he did not. Not only that, he even helped her become an Advance Stage cultivator.

Thinking a bit more, she realized that if Nux has chosen any other way to woo her, the result might not be what they were now and she would have missed out on having an amazing partner like him, who embraces her with love.

She then remembered how cheeky he was and smiled.

She will forgive him, she was very happy now, and she would like to keep it that way.

Of course, since no one knew her thoughts, nobody mentioned that her thoughts were heavily biased towards her wanting Nux to be with her but since the conclusion she got was correct, there was no need to mention it either.

Although Nux was acting before, now he loved her and very deeply at that. So everything was fine the way it is.

However, forgiving him was one thing, using it as a chance to get her compensation was another.

Felberta quickly removed his pants and freed his little brother that was already half erect.

“Tsk Tsk, would you look at that, I haven’t even started anything and this filthy thing is already soaring to go.” Felberta snorted.

“Heh, don’t forget, this ‘filthy’ thing was in your mouth a few hours ago, and you were licking it as if it was the most delicious thing in the world”

‘H-Has he swore not to let me play the dominator role!?’ Felberta cried inwardly as her face blushed.

“Y-You are the one compensating, you are not allowed to speak!” She then ordered in a strict tone.

“As you command, my dear Fel~”

Felberta felt shivers coursing throughout her body when he called her like that.

I-It felt really good.

“Y-Yes, now stay silent...” she ordered, this time, her tone was a little weaker than before.

Nux smiled and obeyed.

Felberta’s hand moved towards his dick as she stroked the ‘filthy’ thing gently, feeling her soft hands, it didn’t take a lot of time for his half-erect dick to turn hard, ready and flaring to explore the cave.

Felberta then removed her seductive black panty, before she lifted her gown and then sat on top of him in a cowgirl position.

She then held his rod and stroked it on her entrance for a little while, jolts of pleasure assaulted her body when she did that.

‘Anhh~’

She moaned inwardly as her insides screamed in frustration and anticipation. She then glanced at Nux, who had his usual smile on his face and her lips twitched.

She knew she cannot win against him like this and would end up moaning out loud. She then ceased the game she couldn’t win and directly sat down, allowing his dick to enter her cave.

“Anhh~”

Felberta was unable to hold back and she moaned.

“Ugghh!”

However, when she heard his grunt, she felt a little better.

At least she wasn’t the only one to moan.

She then stopped thinking about these weird things and enjoyed the feeling of his dick entering her vagina. Her insides were overjoyed as they sucked his rod intensely.

When Felberta enjoyed the feeling to her heart’s content, she lifted her butt before slamming it down again.

“Ugghh~”

This time, Nux was the only one who moaned, and this brought a smile to Felberta’s face.

However, inwardly, she wasn't any better either. Jolts and jolts of pleasure assaulted her body, numbing her mind. She waited for a little to get used to the pleasure before she repeated the process.

“Uggghh~ Fuck! So good~”

Nux muttered and then grabbed her giant breasts without removing her gown.

“Annh~ D-Don't touch t-them! Y-you are the one compensating!” Felberta complained.

She was already finding it hard to control her moans, if Nux kneaded her breasts like he always does, how will she ever control herself and dominate him?

Nux chuckled at her childishness but finding it quite cute, he pulled back his hands, and placed them behind his head, glancing at her with a leisure attitude.

Felberta nodded and then moved again, and again, and then again.

“Uggghhh~ Fel, that felt good~”

Nux moaned in pleasure, he thoroughly enjoyed the sight of Felberta trying so hard to please him while her giant breasts move up and down with her momentum.

That sight was gorgeous.

Felberta, on the other hand, did not have it so simple, although her movements were now smoother and faster than before, the same could be said for the pleasure she felt.

The waves of pleasure kept assaulting her body continuously, her body was already numb and she was finding it hard to move. Her eyes were barely open at this moment.

“Aannhh~”

She couldn't hold back and moaned in pleasure. She wanted to lift her body again but she was already at her limit.

She then glanced at Nux who was looking at her with the same, enchanting but annoying smile and gave up.

It was too hard to dominate him. Also, the feeling was too good and she did not want to stop at all. She opened her mouth and ordered.

“You move now”

“But di-” Nux wanted to tease her a little but she interjected.

“You are the one compensating, listen to what I say!”

Chapter 61

“You are the one compensating, listen to what I say!”

Nux chuckled and then quickly rolled over; the one on the top was now him.

Then without giving her any time to react, he pulled his rod out before thrusting it deep inside her without any mercy.

“Oooohhhh~~”

Felberta’s body jerked in pleasure as he smashed his rod inside her so roughly.

“My dear Fel, do I now have the permission to touch your beautiful breasts?” Nux teased.

Felberta on the other hand was already on cloud nine and wouldn’t allow the pleasure to stop in any way.

“D-Do whatever you want...” she nodded.

Nux smiled as he didn’t tease her anymore. He removed her gown and then her black bra as he bent down and started licking her beautiful nipple.

At the same time, he moved his rod out before slamming it in.

“Annnnnhh~ So So gooooodddd~”

Waves of pleasure assaulted her body from two different places, the feeling was too much for her already sensitive body and she moaned out loud.

Pleased by her reaction, Nux increased the speed of his hips moving while he started sucking on her erect nipple.

“Annh~ Annhh~ Annghh~”

Felberta kept moaning in pleasure as Nux drilled her mercilessly and at the same time, he played with her beautiful breasts.

Her body twitched uncontrollably as her back arched up and her eyes rolled back.

With what remaining strength she was left with, she used it to hug his head that was sucking her nipple before pulling it towards her mouth and forcing a kiss on him.

Nux, of course, did not refuse the lovely offer and his tongue moved quickly as it entered her mouth.

Their tongue fought for supremacy as they exchanged their saliva with each other. The scene was incredibly alluring.

Her saliva felt sweet and just as Nux was enjoying the taste; he felt her walls tightening as her legs started trembling. He then felt her grip around his head tightening.

The pleasure he was feeling also increased, knowing that they both were at their limit, Nux decided to speed things up.

“Mnnghh~ Mnnghh~ Mnnghh~”

His hips started moving at a faster rate, while his hand moved towards her erect nipple and he pinched it.

“Mmmnnhhffghhh!!”

The pleasure shot up through the roof, and Felberta’s whole body twitched uncontrollably before her juices gushed out.

“Uggghhhh!!”

Nux also performed one last thrust before he filled her insides with his jizz.

He then felt Felberta's grip weakening, he kneaded her soft breasts gently as he lay right beside her.

“That felt good~~” He muttered softly as he grabbed her from behind and touched her body all over.

“mm”

Felberta let out a soft ‘mm’, too tired to say anything else.

Feeling that she was tired, Nux decided to stop touching her but just as his hands were about to move away, Felberta grabbed his hand before placing it on her breast.

“mm”

She let out a small ‘mm’ again, letting Nux guess what she wanted to say.

Nux, of course, did not disappoint and he smiled before he started caressing her breast gently.

The two of them cuddled for a long time before they slept.

...

The next day, Nux and Felberta woke up. There was a big smile on Felberta's face.

Suddenly, Nux remembered something and apologized.

“Fel, I am really sorry”

“What happened?”

Nux didn't say anything and directly brought out the 3-star armour she gave him.

“I destroyed your family treasure...” Nux muttered guiltily.

Felberta's eyes widened in disbelief when she saw that huge hole in the armour, she touched Nux's chest in panic as she questioned.

“Are you okay? Were you hurt somewhere?”

“I am okay, but your ar-”

“Don't worry about it; it's just armour after all. It was made to protect someone, and it did.” Felberta waved her hand nonchalantly.

Nux nodded and smiled a little, he knew that she was just trying to act nonchalant, how can the armour not be precious if it was treated as a family treasure by a viscount's family?

“But how did it get damaged so badly? Even a 3-star beast can only dent it, how can there be such a big hole like that?”

“Didn't you see the 4-star beast's corpse?”

“Right, Wait! But you said that you can defeat a 4-star beast easily, how did this happen then?”

“Ahem... I said I can easily defeat a 4-star beast now; I wasn't that strong back when I fought it. Also, this did not happen because I was weak,”
Saying that, Nux took out his broken sword.

“My sword broke when I was defending against its attack. If it weren't for that, I could have defeated it easily”

Felberta widened her eyes in horror!

How strong must an attack be to break a 2-star sword and then a 3-star armour!

What if that attack had landed on Nux!?

She then glanced at Nux with a worried look. Knowing what she was thinking about, Nux smiled as he patted her head.

“Don’t worry, as I said, I am strong. I mean, I did defeat a 4-star beast without a weapon right?”

Only then did Felberta realise that even after losing his sword and armour, he still defeated a 4-star beast and came back uninjured.

Although he had the healing potion, it can’t heal if the injury is very deep.

‘He is really amazing...’ Felberta thought inwardly.

“Hmm, now that I have destroyed your family treasure, how about I compensate you with my body?”

“Hahaha~ Why not~” Felberta laughed out loud as the two rolled over each other and started another round of pure bliss~

Chapter 62

For the next whole week, Nux spent his blissful days under the skirts of Felberta, Skyla, and Lane.

He was really happy to get back to his previous schedule. Although he did not gain any decent improvement in his strength, the pleasure he felt and the happy smiles his women had the whole time was enough for him.

However, this did not mean that he didn't work.

A day ago, he activated his [Conceal] and left the kingdom to enter the Woods Dynasty, he then entered one of the most renowned merchant companies before sealing a few of their products.

No, he did not buy them, and he did not feel even the slightest guilt in his heart while stealing them.

'It won't affect a big company like this one if I steal some of their goods.'

Thinking that, he stole whatever he found was good and returned it.

It took him 2 days to leave, steal, and return.

After that, he spends another blissful day before it was time to meet Annice, the maid of the Royal palace who is out on her week off.

...

Right now, Nux was wearing an expensive-looking purple coloured robe. Combined with his raven hair, his hypnotic golden coloured eyes, and exquisitely carved face, he looked amazingly charming.

"Looking like that, would you even need to bribe that Annice girl at all? She might even agree to do anything for you say just so she could talk to you for a little longer. Hmph! Hmph!" Felberta snorted.

Although they didn't say anything, from the way they were nodding, Skyla and Lane completely agreed with her.

"I can bribe her with my body, can't I?" Nux chuckled, Felberta just snorted in answer, neither agreeing nor disagreeing.

"Haha~ You are so cute~ Now tell me, do I look good?" Nux questioned with a charming smile.

The three women nodded, Lane even had a blush on her face.

"Then why don't you three give me a good luck kiss on my lips?"

The three of them nodded again with bright eyes before coming forward one by one and sealing his lips.

After tasting all of their lips, Nux turned towards Skyla and nodded, "I will be counting on you today"

Skyla nodded with a determined look as if she was going into a war. With her child-like face, her expression looked very adorable.

...

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

An hour later, Skyla knocked in front of a door of an unknown house.

The door opened and a girl in her twenties appeared.

She was Annice Welche, a 27-year-old girl who works as a maid in the royal palace. She had blonde hair, crystal blue eyes, a small nose, and cherry red lips. She had cute freckles on her face and a thin body.

She was definitely above average in terms of looks, but when compared to the likes of Skyla, Lane, or Felberta, she was greatly overshadowed.

"Annice! Long time no see!" Skyla greeted with a smile.

“...” However, Annice, right now, was busy glancing at the charming man with an exquisite face standing right in front of her and didn't reply.

“Annice!” Skyla then patted her shoulder and she finally came out of her reverie.

“O-Oh! S-Skyla! Long time no see! What are you doing here?” She questioned, however she kept sneaking a few glancing at Nux as she said that.

“Nothing, I was just buying something for Viscount Felberta when this gentleman approached me and questioned the way he can get in touch with a maid working in the royal palace. I instantly remembered that it must your off right now and brought him here” Skyla explained.

“Oh! I understand” Annice nodded to Skyla before her eyes glanced at Nux and she smiled brightly, “What can I help you with, gentleman?”

“Hello, beautiful lady, my name is Dio Brando, the leader of Brando Merchant Company from the Woods Dynasty. Can we talk inside?”

Nux replied with the most charming smile he could make, of course, he did not forget to use his [Eye Of Discerning].

...

His smile seemed to have worked as Annice's face turned a little red as she replied,

“O-Oh I am so sorry! Ple- please come inside”

“T-Then I'll take my leave” Skylia muttered.

“Miss, I am thankful for your help”

“D-don't mention it” Skylia replied.

“Skylia, don't forget to meet your best friend later, come over tomorrow, we will catch up”

“Yeah, I'll come” Skylia wondered when she became her best friend but since she didn't want to sound rude, she nodded before leaving.

‘Looking at her expression, I think the first step will be easy’ she thought inwardly as she continued searching a few shops to continue her act before leaving.

On the other hand, Nux entered Annice's house and sat on a chair.

“I-I am really sorry, I don’t live here often so the furniture isn’t well maintained.”

“I understand, to work so hard that you don’t even have the time to furnish your house, you are a hardworking lady.” Nux complimented with a smile.

Annice blushed when she heard that and a small smile appeared on her face. Although he misunderstood what she meant, she did not have any intention to correct him.

“Oh! Where are my manners, let me bring something for you to eat”

“You don’t really-”

“I can’t do that; I have to treat my guests well”

Nux gave up and nodded. Of course, he used his [Sense] to see if she was doing or thinking anything weird but seeing that she was just making tea with a blush, he smiled and shook his head.

...

A few minutes later, Annice returned with tea and some cookies.

“I am sorry for the wait”

“It’s not a problem” He then drank a sip before his eyes lit up, “Delicious! Waiting for a few minutes? I can even wait for hours to drink this tea. Your hands are simply magical!” Nux praised wholeheartedly.

Chapter 63

Annice blushed under his praises and smiled. This man in front of him was really pleasing to the eyes, not only that, he was even polite and respectful to her, unlike all other rich men who treat her like nothing.

Annice had a good impression of him.

She then sat on the other chair and questioned,

“Sir Dio, may I know your purpose for coming here?”

“You see, my Brando Merchant Company is new but I can guarantee you that the products we have are all high quality. The competition we faced in the Woods Dynasty is too much, so I decided to come here and test my luck believing that products from another kingdom might sell faster here and have more demand.

I also wanted to sell my products to the royal harem and learned that the best way to do that is through the head maid. Since I can't directly contact the head maid, I came to you.

I hope you can help me with this.”

Annice nodded in understanding, this wasn't the first time someone came to her like this, but unlike others, this person treated her politely and is good looking. She wanted to help him to the best of her abilities.

Seeing that she didn't reply, Nux continued, “Of course, I will not ask you for this favour without giving you anything-”

“Mr. Dio, please don't say that, you don't need to give me anything. Today was my last day off; I will return to the royal palace tomorrow and tell the head maid about you.

Don't worry, I guarantee you that you will be talking with the head maid day after tomorrow at the same place, at the same time. I just request you to not be late since the head maid is strict when it comes to time"

"Ah, thank you very much." Nux then took out a bottle of perfume and spoke, "Miss Annice, this is my little gif-"

"Mr. Dio, as I said, you don't need to give me anything-"

"This is not for you helping me meet the Head maid; this is for the delicious tea you served me. Miss Annice, please take it. Consider it me gaining some points so that I can come back here again someday and drink the tea" Nux replied with a smile and placed it in her hands.

Annice did not deny it this time; she blushed a little before keeping the perfume in front of her mirror.

The two then talked a little more before Nux left.

...

"Tsk Tsk, last day off my foot! According to Skyla, she should still have at least 4 days off. Tsk Tsk, to think that she would choose to annul her week off just so she could help you quicker. Having a good looking face really helps huh..." Felberta snorted in annoyance.

"Oh, c'mon, it wasn't due to my face, it was because I was gentle and respectful with my approach"

"Do you even hear yourself? Gentle and respectful? If only it was that easy!

Hmph! Won't she will be willing to sleep with you if you asked her more 'gently and respectfully'!?"

"..." Nux stayed silent.

"...she might, huh..." Felberta understood what his silence met.

“Having a good looking face really helps” Skyla muttered from behind and Lane nodded.

Nux’s lips twitched seeing the three of them acting in sync, he then calmed himself and smiled,

“C’mon girls, isn’t that a good thing? The faster we meet the head maid, the faster our plan progresses, right?”

“...That’s what the problem is.” Skyla and Felberta replied at the same time while Lane nodded in agreement.

Nux just shook his head and chuckled.

“Alright, alright, doesn’t act like this; don’t we still have two days before I meet the head maid? Shouldn’t we enjoy the time we have rather than talking about this?” Nux suggested.

Felberta’s eyes brightened as she snorted,

“Hmph, you don’t have to tell us that! We know what to do!”

...

“Miss Annice, I believe I have been honest with you and did not offend you in any way; then why are you still trying to cheat me?” Nux questioned as he glanced at the woman in front of him and Annice following her.

“W-What do you mean, Sir Dio?” Annice questioned in panic and confusion. She didn’t cheat him at all! Why would she ever try to cheat such a han- gentle man?

“I have obviously done some research before coming here and know that the head maid is a woman who is over 40 years old, how is this lady you brought here is no older than 25?

Even if you wanted to cheat me, you could have at least brought an older woman, rather than bringing this beautiful girl here”

A smile appeared on the ‘young girl’s’ face when she heard him and she replied.

“Mr. Dio, you have misunderstood. Annice did not cheat you in any way, I am indeed the head maid of the royal palace, Edda Osburn”

“Wha- What?” Nux put on a surprised expression before he completely changed his expression into an appologatice smile and turned towards Annice.

“Miss Annice, I am really sorry for not believing you”

“N-No, it’s alright...” Annice nodded with a smile.

Nux then turned towards Edda and smiled, “Miss Edda, I must admit, you have maintained yourself well. You look stunning”

He was still surprised that this girl who looked no older than 25 was a more than 40 years old head maid of the palace... well, not really.

He already knew the truth, he just wanted to compliment her and get on her good side.

Chapter 64

“Miss Edda, I must admit, you have maintained yourself well. You look stunning”

Nux praised.

Edda was a 1.65 meters tall woman, she had white coloured hair with shades of pink on the tips, this combined well with pink-violet eyes, and her tanned skin gave her a different charm than others.

Her small nose, and rosy red lips, combined with the perfect hourglass physique that rivals Felberta made her an extremely beautiful and alluring woman.

She was indeed a beauty that could be compared with Skyla and Lane, adding it with her tanned skin, she delivered a lethal blow to Nux.

Suddenly, a sound chimed inside Nux’s head.

[Mission: Fuck Edda Osburn]

[Description: Well, Fuck Edda Osburn]

[Reward: 10 System Points.]

[Warning: If the mission fails, the Ability [Craving Touch] will be disabled.]

[Time Limit: 15 days ]

Nux smiled and shook his head,

‘Mr. System, as always, you are a step too late. I have already decided to do it so your mission is pointless, Of course, I am not complaining, it’s free System Points after all’

“Thank you, Mr Dio. You look dashing as well”

Edda smiled and complimented back.

Nux then turned towards Annice and smiled,

“Miss Annice, would you please allow me to drink the tea made by your hands again?”

“O-Of course, you two, have a seat and talk, I’ll prepare the tea.” Annice nodded and rushed into the kitchen with an excited look.

“Alright, Mr Dio, although I would love to talk with you more, I still have some work to attend so let’s cut to the chase”

“I understand,” Nux didn’t waste time and a bottle of perfume appeared in his hand.

“Miss Edda, can I please have your hand for a second?” Nux asked gently as he moved his hand towards her.

A tinge of red appeared on Edda’s face before it disappeared within a second and she nodded.

Nux then gently grabbed her hand and sprayed some perfume on her wrist.

Edda moved her hand close to her nose and sniffed. The fresh scent of Gardenia entered her nose and she smiled.

“It smells really good” She praised.

“As they say, you are never fully dressed without a perfume.

This perfume is called, Fragrant Memories, one of our best products.”

Of course, he wasn’t creative enough to introduce the perfume like that; he was just imitating the person who was selling it back in the Woods Dynasty. All he did was that he changed the name, but even that was given by Felberta.

Yes, not only did he steal their products, he even stole their introduction.

Nux then boldly walked over as he touched her shoulder and sprayed the perfume on her neck.

“This is my first product and, my gift to you~”

Nux smiled charmingly as he returned to his seat. Edda was still in a daze due to his smile, but she soon pulled herself out of her reverie and replied.

“You don’t have to give anything to me”

“That is not possible. One should always appreciate beauties, and giving you this perfume is just me doing so”

“You sound like an experienced playboy”

“I am just being honest with my thoughts.”

Edda smiled a little, Nux then brought out a purple coloured gown and introduced.

“Next is this beautiful, made of pure silk, Gown. It will add 2 extra stars to the beauty of any girl who wears it.”

Nux then kept introducing a few more items as they drank the tea made by Annice.

...

An hour later, Nux decided that it was enough and stated,

“I still have a few more items with me but I know that Miss Edda is a busy person, how about we two meet tomorrow? The Silver Moon Restaurant is really popular here, how about we meet there at the same time?”

“Mr Dio, I still have some time, we can finish this today”

“We don’t need to rush it, do we? Or is it that you don’t like spending some time with me? Did I do something that offended you?” Nux questioned with a slightly sad look.

“No, of course not. Rather, meeting you was a really pleasant experience. Alright, we will do as you say and I will meet you tomorrow.” Something inside Edda forced her to agree when she saw his sad look.

She had a good impression of this man. Although she had dealt with many merchants, and many of them praised and bootlicked her a lot, most of them only saw her as a golden egg-laying hen.

Nux on the other hand looked genuine with his compliments and treated her with respect as well. Not only that, he was very pleasing to the eye.

“Then it is decided, we will meet tomorrow then.” Nux stood up and offered his hand to her

Edda smiled as she grabbed his hand and stood up, “I will make sure to free enough time and sit with you for a longer period.”

Nux smiled as he walked her to the door and answered, “I would be grateful for that”

“It was pleasant meeting you, Mr Dio”

“Pleasure’s all mine, Miss Edda.”

As Edda walked away, Nux sighed before he glanced at Annice.

“What do you think? Did I manage to get on her good side?”

“Don’t worry Mr Dio, I can guarantee that she had a good impression of you” Annice replied with a smile.

“Oh? How are you so sure?”

“Do you remember Head Maid Edda saying that she was busy and has some work to do?”

Nux nodded.

“She wasn’t just saying it for the sake of just saying it. She really had something to do. She told me that she had to leave in half an hour. However, she sat here and talked with you for an hour and was even ready to sit for a longer time.

She is a person who is very strict with time, she never does what she did unless the person she is talking to is a high ranking noble or she has a very good impression of the person in front of her and trust me, no one has managed to get into her good books in just one meeting”

Nux smiled when he heard it and muttered,

“Guess I got a little lucky then”

Chapter 65

“Ah, Head Maid Edda, you are here, this way please”

A waiter bowed respectfully and pointed at a certain room. Edda raised her eyes when she saw that.

Although she was treated with respect everywhere she goes, it wasn't to this point.

She shook her head to shake off these useless thoughts as she walked into the room the waiter pointed to.

Entering the room, she saw 'Mr. Dio', wearing magnificent black coloured robes as he sat on the chair. When 'Mr. Dio's' eyes fell on her, they brightened as he quickly walked toward her with a smile.

“Miss Edda, you look even more stunning than you did yesterday”

He complimented as he offered his hand to her, Edda held his hand and a small smile appeared on her face. She put up some make-up on today and was glad that he noticed it.

“Mmhm, you smell really good as well,”

Nux complimented again, this time, with a meaningful smile. Edda smiled back as she replied,

“I tried your perfume today”

“As they say, a gem would only shine if it is in the right hand. I am very proud of my yesterday's self for finding the right gem for my perfume”

“Please have a seat, Miss Edda.” Nux then pulled the chair like a gentleman and offered it to her. Edda took the offer with a smile and sat down.

“Since I don’t know much about this place, I will let you order the food for us; I believe that your judgment would be the most accurate one I can get.” Nux smiled softly.

Edda ordered the food and Nux brought out a pink coloured gown and introduced,

“This is one of the items I failed to introduce yesterday, just like yesterday’s gown, this one is also made from pure silk, however, it’s designed by one of our finest tailors, the combination of the pink coloured gown and purple designs match your eyes as well. I am especially proud of this product”

“It is amazing indeed...”

...

Nux then took out a few more items and introduces them, Edda liked them all however, when Nux was about to take out another item, she stopped him and questioned.

“Mr Dio, please be honest, do you intend to sell your products to the Royal Palace through me?”

At her question, Nux smiled and answered,

“That was the initial plan, yes”

“Initial?”

“Yes, the goal is still the same but I found a more important goal right now”

“Is that goal perhaps me?” Edda guessed and asked honestly. She wasn’t stupid, although she liked the items he introduced, half of them, including the pink gown suited her, a lot.

The way Nux talked with her, the way he acted in front of her, it was as if he was giving some signals to her.

“As expected, beauty with brains, Miss Edda is sharp.” Nux smiled.

“Since you have already guessed, there is no point hiding it anymore.

I want you to be mine, Edda”

Nux declared with intense passion burning in his golden eyes. Edda was taken aback by the intense look in his eyes, her heart jumped in excitement but when she thought about something, she sighed and answered.

“Mr Dio, I am very pleased to learn about your feelings, but you have to understand that although I might look young, I am more than 40 years ol-”

“It does not matter.” Nux interrupted.

“As I said, I want to make you mine, Edda. The moment my eyes fell on you, that was the first thought that appeared in my mind. It does not matter how old you are. As long as you are not against me, I never back down”

“...”

Edda remained silent, she was too overwhelmed by the sudden emotions that welled inside her. Pleasure, happiness, doubt, insecurity... myriads of emotions attacked her mind and she was unable to come up with an answer on the spot.

And as if knowing about it, Nux continued, “Of course, I do not expect you to accept me just because I said it and I know that you will need time to think about all of this.

How about this, 2 days later, we will go on a date. We will spend a full day together, we will go shopping, watch some plays if you like, have breakfast, lunch, and, dinner together, and after that, it will be up to you.

Of course, if you still can't decide by then, we can go on another date next week and will keep on doing it until you make up your mind.”

“W-We can do that...” Edda muttered quietly.

“However, I will warn you before,” Nux then walked towards her before he moved his face closer to her and lifted her chin.

“I am a very possessive man. Once you accept me, you will be mine. I won’t let you get away from me” He whispered seductively.

Edda’s heartbeat quickened and her face turned red.

Too close!

He was too close!

As if hearing her thoughts, Nux moved away and smiled.

However, Edda, who should feel better now that his face was away, felt a tinge of disappointment welling in her heart.

“Hmm... now that we have talked about this, I think it’s time to end the meeting?” Suddenly, she heard Nux muttering and felt more disappointed.

*Pat*

But then she heard a sound and saw Nux bringing his chair next to her,

“But since we still have time, why don’t we spend it together? I am still hungry, shall we order food?” He also grabbed her hand as if it was the most natural thing to do. However, for some reason, Edda didn’t reject him either.

The two then spend some time together before Edda suddenly remembered,

“Ah! Mr Dio, I am very sorry that I forgot about it, I can’t go on a date with you 2 days ago. As I am head maid, if I want a day off, I need to apply it a week ago. So we will have to postpone it for a week.”

Nux did not take it to his heart and smiled, “Don’t worry, Edda, we will take it with your pace. I have already told you where I live, you can always send me a message even if you want to postpone it for another week”

“N-No, I won’t postpone it more... I-I want to go on a date as quickly as possible as well...”

Edda muttered with a blush.

Chapter 66

“So, how did it go with the head maid?”

Felberta questioned as she sat beside Nux and stroked his large dick with her soft hands.

“Anhh~ It was good... I asked her out on a date... Annh~”

Nux replied as he moaned in pleasure. He then picked her up, placed her on his right thigh grabbed her large breasts.

“So quick?”

“Well, your man is an incredible man after all” Nux smiled as he removed her clothes and started kneading her breasts before flicking his finger on her sensitive nipples.

“Annhh!” Felberta’s body jolted in pleasure before she questioned, “So... when are you... going?”

“She told me to meet after a Oohh~ ...a week, but I believe I will receive a message to change that and I will go with her two days later”

Nux replied.

“How are you so sure?”

“Because your man is an incredible man” Nux smiled as he answered.

“Hmph! You are no incredible man, you are just good when it comes to fooling innoc- AAnnhh~~”

The Viscount wanted to complain, but her words were exchanged with her moan as Nux’s finger’s entered her cave.

“Tsk Tsk, who’s innocent? The one who was going around finding boy toys because she was bored?”

Nux teased.

“AAAnnhhh~” Felberta wanted to retort, but Nux’s fingers were causing chaos inside her walls, touching all her sweet spots, causing her little sister to shiver in pleasure.

However, she has already been with him for more than two weeks, how could she take his jab while doing nothing in answer?

“Uuggghh~” She increased the speed of her hand and used another hand to cup his balls, the pleasure Nux was feeling increased and his fingers slowed down.

“Hmph! At least I am not shameless enough to become someone else’s boy toy!”

She retorted back with an expression that expressed her victory, however, she couldn’t keep it for long. Nux already knew everything about her body, not only that, the [Craving Touch] makes her body much more sensitive to his touch.

How could she possibly resist him?

“AAAnnhhh~~”

Nux’s fingers moved again, this time, a lot faster than last time and Felberta’s body trembled in pleasure. Nux then placed her body on the bed before sliding his penis in front of her entrance.

“Unnhhh~ Don’t tease me anymore!!”

Felberta’s body twitched while her little sister screamed in frustration.

“Do you believe that your man is incredible?”

“I do! I do!” Felberta quickly accepted her defeat.

No, it was not her defeat; it was just a tactical retreat. She will give in to pleasure this one time and would soon plan another attack and think of another way to dominate him.

“Good girl~” Nux smiled before he slammed his dick right into her pussy!

“AAnnhhh~~~”

This way, another night filled with alluring moans passed.

(Author’s Note: Should I add small sessions like these as well? It will not affect the pace of the story and will also give every girl their respective screen time. What do you guys think? To be honest, I think I am a genius for coming up with an idea like this.)

...

“Alright, I am going to the Crown Plaza”

The next day, Nux told everyone, ready to leave.

“Is it really important to leave? Can’t you just stay here for 2 days?” Skyla questioned.

“Hmm? Didn’t I visit you yesterday afternoon and you were too tired to continue after 1 round? Since you send me off like that, what’s the use of staying here?” Nux chuckled.

Skyla blushed in embarrassment, she knew Nux was just teasing her but she still felt bad.

“Don’t worry, I will return in one or two hours and will visit you first, okay?”

Skyla nodded excitedly as her eyes brightened. Felberta has already had her bathroom session so she was satisfied, Lane, however, pouted.

“Heh, you should speak more if you want more, my dear Lane. If you don’t speak, how will I know how much you love and miss me?” Nux chuckled.

Lane's face turned red as she muttered, "... visit me first next time." Her face then turned even redder and she lowered her head.

"Okay~" Nux smiled seeing her like that and patted her head.

"Alright, I will be leaving now"

Nux then activated his [Conceal] and left.

Crown Plaza was an inn he booked and stayed in as Dio, this is also the place where Edda would send a message if she had a change of plans.

He then appeared in front of the inn before deactivating his [Conceal] and walked in.

"Ah! Sir Dio, someone sent a message to you"

The receptionist informed him before passing a closed envelope to him.

Nux smiled, he thanked the male receptionist before walking into his room and opening the letter.

'As expected'

Nux thought inwardly.

It was Edda's letter that told him to be ready for their date tomorrow.

Nux had already expected this.

No, it was not because he thought that he was so handsome that she couldn't resist meeting him, but because of his most overpowered ability.

The [Craving Touch]

He has been using every chance he gets to touch her, yesterday, he even spend an hour holding her hand as they talked and ate food.

Although the effect might not be as potent as with Felberta since she practically slept hugging him like a pillow and had his jizz all over her face, she would still think about him oftentimes a day while her little sister tingles in anticipation.

Then when she thinks that it will take a week for her to meet him, just the thought would be too much for her to bear, and she will send this message.

His [Craving Touch] was as overpowered as always.

Chapter 67

The next morning, Nux smiled as he saw Edda standing right in front of him wearing the Pink coloured dress he gifted her two days ago.

The dress matched well with her pink-purple eyes, and the contrast between her white-pink hair and her tanned skin made her look very enchanting.

“I don’t know how many times I have told you this already, but Edda, you look gorgeous, especially in that dress.” Nux complimented.

He was very proud of his choice when he stol- bought the dress since it matched her eyes so well.

He then extended his hand towards her with a gentle smile, a small blush appeared on Edda’s face before she grabbed his hand and replied.

“You also look as dashing as always...”

“Thank you~ Then shall we enter the carriage?”

“Carriage?” Edda muttered in surprise.

“We can’t enjoy our date here in this city, Edda. There are many eyes here” Nux replied.

Thinking about it for a while, Edda nodded as well and the two walked towards the carriage Nux had prepared.

Like a gentleman he was, Nux first helped Edda get into the carriage before climbing in as well. Of course, Edda was a Master Stage Cultivator so she didn’t need his help, but Nux wasn’t going to miss the opportunity to get into her good books.

The two of them sat inside and the carriage started moving. Of course, Nux did not forget to hold her hand, which she allowed with a slight blush on her face.

‘His hand feels warm...’

Edda thought inwardly before her attention was grabbed by Nux’s question.

“So Edda, although I want you to be my woman, I recalled that I don’t know anything about you, so while we are waiting to reach our destination, how about you tell me something about yourself?”

“Well, there’s nothing really special about me. My mother was the previous head maid of the Royal Palace, as for my father... I don’t know who he is...”

Her face was full of disgust when she talked about her father however; a thin smile appeared on her face as she continued.

“My mother worked very hard, starting from a normal maid, she rose and became a head maid. She then put all her efforts to train me as the next head maid. She made sure that I live a comfortable life ahead.”

Nux smiled as he recalled his mother from his past life,

“Mothers are the best huh...” there was a bit of melancholy in his voice.

He was missing his previous family...

However, he had already accepted that he had died and won’t be able to see them anymore, he shook his head and a mischievous smile appeared on his face.

“So, how is my mother-in-law right now?”

However, a sad look appeared on her face as she replied,

“She isn’t here in this world anymore...”

“ ... ”

Nux turned silent and didn't say anything more, he just tightened his grip around her hand to show her that he was here with her.

“Oh c'mon, it's our date! We shouldn't have this environment right now. My mother must be watching me from afar, she would kill me if she sees me being all emotional on my date”

Edda then smiled brightly as she chimed.

Nux smiled as well, he knew that she was sad, but he respected her for thinking about this date and trying to lighten up the room. He moved closer to her as he held her waist and smiled seductively.

“You are right, you can't be sad right now since I need to prove to my mother in law that I am indeed the best person his daughter can be with. How am I supposed to do that with you being all emotional? Huh?”

Edda blushed in embarrassment as she lowered her head.

Nux was too close to her, but since it felt really good, she allowed it.

A small smile then appeared on her face, Nux's eyes brightened up and he chimed.

“Nice! That's what I was talking about, look how beautiful you look with that lovely smile of your~ Smile more~ Moar~”

Edda smiled more as he requested, her face turned even redder than before.

...

Their carriage then entered the Lucky Spring city, their date continued as they first had breakfast and then did some shopping before having their lunch.

They also watched some plays and then entered a fate to play some games.

After they had dinner in a famous restaurant and were walking around at the night, hand in hand, Edda was looking at Nux with a weird look.

Feeling strange due to her gaze, Nux furrowed his brows as he questioned,

“Why are you looking at me like that? Am I too handsome?”

“No...”

Nux then made an exaggerated expression as he replied,

“What? Are you telling me I am not handsome!? How is that possible? You must be the first girl who thinks that! Are you sure your eyes are okay? C’mon, c’mon, tell me how many fingers are these??”

“Pfft! You are a narcissist!” Edda chuckled.

Nux then fixed his hair as he replied, “Of course I am, gods won’t bless everyone with a face like this~”

“Hahaha~” Edda laughed out loud seeing him acting like that.

“Still, why were you looking at me like that?” Nux questioned.

“I just find you weird...” Edda muttered.

“What? How?”

“Hmm, I just thought that you would drug the dinner we had and then take me to an inn and... ravish me... but you didn’t...” Her voice was very low when she said her last sentence and there was already a blush on her face.

She even looked a little...

Disappointed?

Nux halted his steps when he heard her and looked at her weirdly,

“Woman! What kind of sick thoughts run wild inside that head of yours!?”

...

Author's Note:

Okay... I have read all your comments, and we have a mixed response yet again...

So hear me out.

As our Daoist friend said (It's very hard to take your full name, the one with a great review, m talking abt you) It is completely idiotic to act all hubby hubby with an enemy, That is what I call a simp who thinks with his other head when he faces a woman, I hate that kind of MC.

But I also understand that most people don't like forceful things.

Then again, since I am a genius, I came up with another genius Idea.

*A little Spoiler ahead*

MC will have slaves, through the contract, he will be able to control their bodies but he will not have sex with them.

This way, he will not be a simp to the enemy and he will not **** his enemies as well, I believe this will satisfy the guys who do not want forceful sex.

As for cultured men with different fetishes, the next few chapters are for you~~

So Enjoy~~

Chapter 68

“Woman! What kind of sick thoughts run wild inside that head of yours!?”

Nux couldn't help but exclaim out loud when he heard her. Is this woman okay? That thought didn't even cross his mind.

Where are they? In a novel? And why the hell does she look disappointed!?

Seeing his reaction, Edda's face turned red in embarrassment and she lowered her head. If it was an anime world, smoke would have come out of her head. That was how embarrassed she was.

Nux didn't know what she was thinking, but what he knew was that he had a chance and a big chance at that.

“Hahaha!” He laughed out loud seeing her face, causing her to get even more embarrassed.

“S-Stop! Don't laugh...” She requested.

“I can't help it! Hahaha~ I can't believe you were thinking that!”

“S-Stopp!” Edda nearly cried out.

Suddenly, she felt 'Dio' pulling her and pinning her to a nearby wall in a nearby alley.

Her heart started beating quickly and her face turned even redder. She looked at 'Dio's' face which was very close to hers in excitement and... anticipation...

“Edda~” Nux called out as he moved his face even closer to hers. Gaining her attention, he continued.

“I think you have misjudged me. When I said I want you to be mine, it did mean your body but I want your heart to be mine as well~ I want all of you~

I am not stupid enough to cheat you for a moment of pleasure and then leave you for any other stinky man to have you. I won't allow that.”

Edda's heartbeat quickened even more, she could feel that her heart was so excited that it might even burst out. She felt unusually happy when she heard 'I want all of you' and a small smile appeared on her face.

She then felt a finger lifting her chin up, she looked at 'Dio' and noticed that his face was moving even closer to her and his red lips were moving forward into a pout.

Although she looked young, she was a 40-year-old woman, she wasn't someone innocent, and she knew where this was going.

She felt different emotions assaulting her mind, fear, excitement, nervousness, and... anticipation.

Her pink-purple eyes looked into Nux's golden eyes that were filled with unconcealed desire and passion. Just as she noticed his gaze, her anticipation won and dominated all other emotions.

She closed her eyes and decided to let him do whatever he wanted.

She did not have to wait for long as she felt an extremely soft pair of lips touching her own.

As if they had their own will, her lips moved forward and mingled with his.

Nux's lips sucked her lower lip while hers sucked his upper one before they exchanged the targets.

They shared a long kiss before Edda felt 'Dio's' lips moving away. In that instant, her mind was filled with disappointment. She didn't want things to end this soon.

She wanted more~

“That being said,”

She then heard ‘Dio’s’ voice.

“Although I did not plan to drug your food and force you into my bed, I did book an inn for a night to ‘ravish’ you~”

Edda’s face turned red as she opened her eyes in surprise.

“You booked an inn!?”

“Of course, a man should always be ready, in case he gets his chance. Of course, it all depends on you. If you don’t want it, I won’t force you” Nux left the decision to her.

Edda’s thoughts moved quickly, she was really confused, she felt that everything was going too fast and she should wait for a little more time, but she also anticipated how it would feel and her heart burned with excitement, she wanted to grab her hair and pull them!

She was just too confused...

However, before she could think too much, Nux’s voice sounded in her head.

“Although I will say, if you miss today’s chance, you will regret it in the future because I can promise you that if you accept it...” Nux’s face moved closer to her as he whispered into her ears.

“These next few hours would be the best few hours in your whole life~”

Edda’s felt her entire body shuddering.

She had decided, although it was a little faster than usual, it was just because the two of them bonded well.

Her heart feels happy when she is with 'Dio'. She even wished that the time slow down so she could spend more time with him.

Yesterday, when she was working in the palace, his face was constantly appearing in her mind.

She wanted to see and meet him quickly. The feeling was so intense that she used some of her connection to force the person looking over all the holidays of palace maids to give her a holiday today.

She then glanced at 'Dio' who was looking at her with eyes filled with desire and felt a twitch inside her vagina. She then took a deep breath and finally made her decision.

She would do it!

She would experience her first night today!

Chapter 69

Author's Note: Hehe~ the Same warning, don't read it and wait for tomorrow.

Muahahah~ I love cliffhanger~

MUAHAHAHAH!

...

Right now, Nux was standing in front of Edda and from her stiff movements and the redness that never left her face, he knew that she was nervous and excited at the same time.

He smiled and walked toward her with a smile and picked her up in his arms.

“Anh!” Edda exclaimed in surprise due to his sudden movement.

Nux then placed her stiff body on the bed and smiled in satisfaction. Looking at how she was avoiding his gaze, he chuckled as he promised inwardly to make this her best night.

Nux's hands moved towards her gown, and he then started removing it slowly. Whenever his hands touched her skin, Edda's body jerked, showing how nervous she was.

“Calm down, I am not going to eat you...” He spoke gently as he patted her head.

Then, as if he thought about something, he corrected himself.

“Well, I am going to eat you up, but you don't have to be nervous about it”

His face had the same, gentle smile as before.

Edda's lips twitched, 'Can you not contradict yourself!? I am already very nervous here!'

However, since his head pats felt good, she allowed him to do what he wants.

What she didn't notice was that her body had calmed down as she was thinking about all this.

Nux's then removed her gown and muttered in surprise,

"Hoh? A serious head maid of the Royal Palace wears a sexy black coloured bra and panty..."

That's surprising~"

Edda blushed but before she could say anything, Nux continued.

"Of course, it's a warmly welcomed surprise~ You look very alluring... Especially this combination of untanned and tanned skin of yours"

Nux complimented before he bent down and sealed her lips. This time, however, his tongue took the charge and moved into her mouth. What surprised him was that though timid, Edda's tongue responded to his tongue and the two started mingling with each other.

His hand didn't stay idle as he quickly removed her panty and the bra, freeing her large, milky breasts.

He then ended the kiss as his lips travelled down, kissing her chin, then her neck, and her shoulder before moving to her breasts.

"Anh~"

Just as he kissed her nipple, he felt her body twitch. He then kissed her pink nipple again before he started licking it.

"AAnnh~"

‘Hmm?’ Seeing her moan like that, Nux thought about something.

‘Was my theory correct? Do all large breasted women have nipples as their weak point?’

He then shook his head inwardly as his hand moved towards her little sister. He circled his finger around her entrance, teasing her to his heart extent.

“Annhh~”

Her body twitched even more, she tried moving her body a little so she could get his finger inside her pussy, but Nux just smiled and moved his finger away.

“D-Don’t do it...”

“Do what?” Nux questioned innocently.

“D-Don’t t-tease me... I beg y-you...”

Nux frowned as he glanced at her. He then noticed that her eyes had tears gathered in the corner, ready to fall at any moment.

‘Why is she so sensitive? Is it because of [Craving Touch]’

Nux shook his head and hurriedly plunged his middle finger into her pussy.

“AAAnnnnhhh~”

Edda’s body twitched a little and...

She came.

She came just after Nux’s finger entered her vagina.

“... You came?”

Nux questioned in surprise.

Holy! How is this possible!? Was his teasing a little too much for her? Was it because of [Craving touch]?

Did its effect get stronger with him as well?

But that shouldn't be the case at all. He had read everything about his abilities, and nothing like this was mentioned.

“I-I am fine... you can continue”

He was pulled out of his reverie by her voice. He then glanced at her face, and rather than looking tired after coming, her face screamed anticipation and her want for more!

This woman is a little weird... Of course, Nux did not complain about it at all.

He smiled evilly as he plunged his index finger inside as well.

“Annhh~”

His fingers then moved into her canal slowly, as he noticed the changes in her face.

“Annh~”

Every time she moans or her expression changes, he noted that spot before touching the same spot a while later and confirming his thoughts.

“Annh~ Annh~ Annh~”

Within just a few minutes, all her weak points were saved in his mind and he specifically teased those spots causing Edda to moan uncontrollably.

Our 2 times virgin has become a professional now.

After he explored her cave like an experienced adventure, Nux lowered his head and started licking her another weak point, her nipple.

“AAnnhhhh~”

Edda’s body jerked in pleasure as her cave tightened.

Nux however, didn’t show her any mercy, on the contrary, he increased his speed and his fingers created a blissful havoc inside her vagina.

“AAaaannnnhhhhhh~”

Edda’s back arched up, her eyes rolled back as her caves tightened even more.

Nux took this chance and bit her nipple,

“I ANnhh Am cumminngggggg~~~”

As if a button was flipped, her tight cave loosened and a large amount of fresh juice gushed out.

Then her body fell on the bed, breathing heavily.

Nux however, stood up as he placed his already large dick on her entrance and slide it up and down.

“By any chance, you aren’t thinking that this is it, are you?”

Chapter 70

Author's Note: New week New Goals, right?

No.

I am too tired, plus, I already have a lot of extra chapters to give, so no goals this time.

However, I will still be counting on your support. I need the motivation to work, you know? So even though we don't have any goals, keep the power stones, comments, and reviews coming.

Kay?

Thank you~~

Gimme POWAA!!

...

By any chance, you aren't thinking that this is it, are you?"

"This haah... this is haah... not?" Edda muttered as she breathed heavily.

An evil smirk appeared on Nux's devilishly handsome face as he replied,

"Of course not!"

With that, he plunged his dick, which was drenched in her juices, inside her in one go.

"AAh-Mmhhmm!!"

Soon, however, he faced incredible tightness, and he felt that he broke something.

‘S-She was a virgin!?’

Nux exclaimed inwardly.

‘How could a Royal Palace Maid be a virgin!?’

He has learned a lot about this world and knew that although Skyla and Lane were safe because they were Felberta’s maids, not every maid was so lucky.

Most of the maids have to ‘serve’ their masters and sometimes, their master’s guests without complaining.

This was especially true for the maids of the Royal Palace which has many visitors.

Although a head maid might be able to stay safe due to her status, Edda wasn’t a head maid from the start. She started as a normal maid and her mother’s identity as a head maid wasn’t enough to protect her!

That was the reason why Nux was so surprised.

As for her initial stiffness, he just thought that it might be her first time with someone she has taken a little liking to.

However, feeling her tight walls clenching around his dick, as if wanting to engulf it, he knew he was wrong.

He wanted to hit himself for being so inconsiderate.

“Are you hu-”

He wanted to ask if she was hurt, but seeing her arm covering her eyes as she bit her lips, he knew she was trying her best to hide the pain.

He felt even guiltier but respected her decision of not letting him know and acted ignorantly.

He then bent down and started licking her pink nipple, trying to overshadow pain with pleasure.

“Mmhhmm~”

His method seemed to have worked as he heard a little moan, he continued licking her nipple as he kneaded her other breast with his hand.

“Mmhhmmmmm~”

However, as soon as he touched her breasts, she moaned even louder.

‘Hmm? Is her weak point not her nipple but her breasts?’

To test his theory, he kneaded her breasts even more and felt her vagina starting to twitch and release more juice.

‘So that’s how it is’

Confirming his theory, Nux continued kneading her two breasts and soon felt her walls loosening a bit.

He stayed like that for a little more time before he pulled his dick and slammed it deeper.

“AAnnhhh~”

Edda moaned as her walls tightened around his dick.

“Ugghh~” Nux grunted in pleasure as well.

Her tight walls felt amazingly good.

It took him a while to get used to her tightness before he pulled his dick outside and thrust it inside again.

“AAnnhhh~”

After getting used to her tightness, Nux's movement turned smoother and he increased his thrusting speed slowly.

“AAnnhhh~ AAnnhhh~”

“AAnnhhh~ AAnnhhh~ AAnnhhh~”

The more he drilled into her, the more Edda moaned. Her body twitched uncontrollably and accepted his thrusts without any resistance.

She was too tired to resist it anyway and since she can't do anything, she decided to trust her body to him.

Of course, the waves and waves of pleasure that kept assaulting her mind and body continuously further strengthen her thoughts.

‘It feels too good~’

She never thought that she could feel this good~

And it was increasing even more!

‘He was right! I would have regretted it my whole life if I had rejected it today~~’

“AAnnhhgghh”

Suddenly, a jerk of pleasure assaulted her body; she then noticed that ‘Dio’s’ grip around her breasts had tightened which filled her body with a weird feeling of pain and pleasure.

Nux felt her walls tightening and her pussy twitching, knowing that her body was already sensitive and was about to cum again, he lifted her legs and placed them on his shoulder before drilling his huge red even deeper.

“AAnnhhh~ AAnnhhh~ AAnnhhh~”

His movements turned a little rougher but Edda didn't care as she moaned in pleasure.

Her thoughts were already a mess. This just felt too good!

Too good that she was unable to think straight!

She just knew that she had to keep moaning so that the pleasure would never stop.

Never.

So she just moaned.

Nux felt her cave tightening to the limit before it suddenly loosed, her body arched up, eyes rolled back, and her tongue popped out.

She came.

“Ugghh~ I am cummingggg~”

Seeing her perfect ahego face, Nux’s dick twitched and it painted her walls white.

His body then fell beside Edda’s and a huge wave of energy entered his tired body along with a very familiar sound which sounded inside his head.

He knew very well what this energy was very excited.

He finally levelled up and completed his mission.

[Ding!]

[Mission Accomplished]

[Mission: Fuck Edda Osburn]

[Description: Well, Fuck Edda Osburn]

[Reward: 10 System Points.]

[Warning: If the mission fails, the Ability [Craving Touch] will be disabled.]

[Time Limit: 15 days (11 days left)]

[Mission Status: Completed]

[The reward will be sent to System Inventory]

Just as he was about to open his status he heard a weak voice...

“H-How about you t-tie my hands to the corner of the b-bed for the next round...?”

“W-What!?”

Chapter 71

“H-How about you t-tie my hands to the corner of the b-bed for the next round...?”

“W-What!?”

Nux just couldn't believe what he was hearing. He felt like he was just hallucinating but when his eyes fell on Edda who was looking at him with a tired and excited look, he knew he wasn't.

What the hell is this woman talking about?

Is she okay?

What kind of weird woman did he entangle himself with?

Just to be sure that he wasn't dreaming, he questioned.

“C-Can you repeat what you said? I believe I misheard it”

“I a-asked if y-you could t-tie my hands to the c-corner o-of the b-bed for the n-next round...?” Edda answered, her voice shaking this embarrassment.

‘Woman! Do you still have the galls to look embarrassed!?’

Nux exclaimed inwardly.

He was now sure he wasn't dreaming...

‘Alright... let's not act pure and shocked anymore...’

Suddenly, Nux smiled inwardly as he replied.

“A-Although t-this is a weird request... i-if you really like it then... why not?”

Who was he kidding? As a true man of culture in his last life, how could he not know there were people with weird tendencies and fantasies?

Although he was initially shocked due to her request, after he registered it completely, his mind was filled with joy.

Who doesn't have the fetish to tie their partner up and have sex with them!?

He did!

Of course, he couldn't do it with Fel, Skyla, and Lane since they wouldn't like it and he wouldn't force them.

Edda, however, was different; she was the one who requested it of her own free will!

Nux would be an idiot to let go of this one in a thousand chance!

Although he did not have a rope with him, he quickly took out one of his old robes and tore it.

He then held Edda's hand before tying them up against the wooden pole that was there in the corner of the bed (It might not be easy to imagine so here's the picture of that bed).

Edda's heart started beating faster when he tied her hands like that.

She still couldn't believe that she asked something like that... It was only not Nux who was surprised, she was surprised as well.

She didn't know what happened, she just felt that she wanted to try it out and something in her body compelled her to say it out loud.

With both her hands tied to the poll, Nux forced Edda to sit on her knees, in a doggy position with her ass facing him.

“Aaaannhnnh~~”

Then without giving her any time to rest, he plunged his dick into her pussy.

She had already orgasmed 2 times, so her body, especially her little sister was extremely sensitive. Just this one thrust was enough for her pussy to convulse and have a minor orgasm again.

Her body lost all her strength but since her hands were tied to the poll, and she was on her knees with Nux standing behind her, she couldn't do anything and was forced to accept everything Nux drilled into her.

However, rather than being lost or feeling bad about this situation, a weird sense of pleasure assaulted her body, this pleasure was a lot more potent compared to the pleasure she felt during the last session.

‘H-He is treating me like an object!’

A sudden voice rang inside her mind and she couldn't believe that it was hers.

She just cannot believe she would feel so much pleasure with something like this.

However, there was no trace of any of her confusion on her face, instead, there was a big smile pinned on it. Seeing her smile, Nux confirmed something.

‘She’s a closet pervert and she doesn’t even know it!’

He was excited, so excited due to this thought that he increased his speed and slammed his dick inside her without any mercy.

“Hahaha~ I didn't know Edda, the head maid was a pervert who feels pleasure when others treat her like an object!”

“Aannhh~ Aannhh~ Aannhh~”

Even if Edda wanted to retort or disagree, the pleasure she was feeling was too much and she was too busy moaning so she didn't reply.

However, seeing that wide smile on her face, she didn't look like she disagreed either.

'I will make her accept her perverseness'

Nux swore inwardly. His face looked very determined.

Who didn't want a serious-looking, but a pervert inside, big breasted beautiful woman?

Everyone did!

Nux then grabbed her butt but then,

“AAannnnnnhh~”

She suddenly moaned loudly and her walls, which were already numbed due to pleasure and weren't moving much tightened.

'Is her actual weak point her butt?' Nux questioned inwardly.

'Wait... could it be...?'

Suddenly, he thought about a possibility.

To test it out, Nux raised his hand and,

*Slap*

“AAannnnnnhh~”

Slapped her butt, Edda moaned in ecstasy, as her walls tightened even more and the smile that was on her face widened.

Nux then raised his hand again,

*Slap*

And he slapped even harder, and this time, Edda moaned even more loudly and her walls tightened even more.

A big smile appeared on Nux's face as he confirmed his thought.

'She's a masochist!'

*Slap*

He spanked her ass again.

“AAannnnnnhh~”

Edda's pussy convulsed as she came again...

This time, she was very tired and didn't look like she could continue.

However, just as her eyes were about to close,

*Slap*

“AAannnnnnhh~”

Nux spanked her again and she was jolted awake due to pleasure that coursed throughout her body.

“How can you sleep while I have yet to cum?”

Nux snapped angrily.

“I-I am sorry!”

Edda's cave tightened when Nux scolded her, she didn't know why, she felt pleasure assaulting her body as he screamed at her.

She... She really liked that feeling...

Nux also smiled as he continued drilling and spanking her tired body.

He used her as an object without caring about her feelings and she relished that feeling, even though she knew that she could pass out at any moment now.

She had already orgasmed around 7 to 8 times, even though she was a cultivator, she couldn't continue any more. Nux also sensed it as he spanked her one last time before unloading all of his milk inside her pussy.

“UUgghh! Here, take it all!!”

After he unloaded all his jizz inside her, Edda came again and then passed out from pleasure.

Another wave of energy entered Nux's body as he finally freed her hands before lying beside her and opening his stats.

...

His strength increased again, Nux smiled as he saw that. He then glanced at Edda who was lying beside her, her breathing was calm, and there was a small smile on her face.

She looked like a dignified lady right now.

Nux couldn't even believe that this beautiful and serious looking woman was a perverted masochist who gets off from pain but then he smiled as he realized that he will be the only person who will see this lovely sight.

Who didn't want a serious-looking outside, but a pervert inside, big breasted beautiful woman, who is also a masochist?

Everyone did!

Nux chuckled inwardly as he closed his eyes.

...

“Ahhh! I am late! I am late!!”

The next morning, Edda was roaming around the room, panicking.

“Oh c'mon, you are a head maid, so what if you are a little late? Does it really matter? Just ask your subordinates to lie and cover for you” Nux waved his hand nonchalantly.

“It doesn't work like that! Many maids are eyeing my position, I have already made an exception after leaving the duty without prior notice and now I am late! I am sure there will be many maids who will take advantage of this”

Nux shook his head and sighed.

‘I guess there is competition everywhere...’

Then a mischievous smile appeared on his face as he replied.

“To be honest, I would be happy if you lose your position as a head maid, then you could quit your job and become my maid-wife”

“Hmph! Can you even pay me as much as the Royal Palace do?”

“Do you think that Royal Palace of yours can provide you the pleasure I can?”

Do you think they can tie you up and make you orgasm so many times that your whole body turns numb?”

Edda’s face turned red and her little sister trembled in delight as she remembered yesterday night.

“My, little pervert~”

“I am not a pervert!”

“Do you even believe what you say yourself?”

“...yes I do...” She replied in a meek voice, clearly not very confident in herself.

“H-How about you t-tie my hands to the corner of the b-bed for the next round...?”

Nux mimicked her words and questioned again,

“Do you really, really believe what you just said before?”

“...” Edda just lowered her head and decided to ignore him. However, soon she recalled the previous problem and panicked again.

“I am late! I am late! I am late!”

“Alright, Alright, don’t act like this is the end of the world. Trust me, just get ready, I will make sure you return in time”

Although she didn’t know how would he help her, Edda decided to believe him and nodded. She then quickly washed her face before she wore her maid uniform and was ready to leave.

“Although you do look gorgeous in this as well, the gown you wore yesterday is still the second best”

Nux complimented.

“Hm? Second best? What’s the best then?”

Nux looked at her as he could not believe that she asked that and replied,

“You being naked of course.”

He said as a matter of fact.

Edda blushed, Nux then stood up and extended his hand towards her, Edda smiled and grabbed his hand, two of them left the inn but rather than walking towards their carriage, Nux directly brought her outside.

“Why aren’t we sitting in the carriage? How are we going to leave?” Edda questioned with a frown.

“You are already late, we can’t use a carriage.”

He then picked her up and ran towards the capital city.

“!!!” Edda’s eyes widened in surprise when she saw his speed.

‘What level is this!? A Grand Master? No, an expert! T-This is absurd!’

The speed was so fast that she had to hold him tightly if she didn’t want to fall off.

Within just 15 minutes, the two of them entered the city.

“W-What stage level cultivator are you?” Edda questioned.

“Late Level Advance Stage”

“Hmph! If you don’t want to tell me, you don’t have to!” Edda snorted.

Advance stage? Advance stage my ass!

“Hmm? But I am not lying. Shouldn’t you be able to sense that?” Nux questioned.

After a moment, Edda’s eyes widened even more.

Advance Stage!

He was actually an Advance Stage Cultivator!

‘Then how did he run that fast!?’

‘Ahh! I don’t have time to think about this! I am late!’

It was a good thing that he was strong, she will ask how is he so fast even though he is just an Advance Stage Cultivator later.

Right now, she was Late!

She then quickly rushed towards the palace but suddenly, she was stopped by Nux’s next question.

“Edda, what time are we meeting today?”

A small smile appeared on Edda’s face as she replied.

“After 9 in the night”

“Oh? In the night? But what fun thing could we possibly do in the night?”

Then a perverted smile appeared on Edda’s face as she replied,

“The night is the best time if you want to have a fun time with a woman”

“Heh... you really are a pervert aren’t you?” Nux chuckled.

“...maybe I am”

Edda admitted.

She admitted that she might actually be a pervert...

Chapter 73

Being a Head Maid of the Royal Palace comes with its own perks. Since you are a head maid, you aren't anyone's personnel maid and you don't have to be ready to serve them 24/7.

After 9 in the night, the head maid is free of her duties and is even allowed to leave the Royal Palace.

Of course, just like Edda, most of the head maids in the past had already given their life to the Palace and don't have anything to do even after they are free of their duties.

Therefore, they stay just in the room that is given to them by the Palace.

Today, however, it was different for the current head maid of the Royal Palace.

Just as her work ended, Edda rushed outside and left the castle.

Walking a little more, she arrived at the assigned site and a big smile appeared on her face when she saw the person she has been yearning to see for a long time standing right in front of her.

“As always, you look stunning, my perverted maid”

Nux complimented with a smile.

“I am not a per- thank you...”

Edda wanted to retort to his remark but she soon remembered what she did last night and just accepted the compliment, ignoring the pervert part.

Seeing that she was not refusing him calling her a pervert, Nux smiled before he extended his hands towards her.

Edda smiled as well and the two then sat inside the carriage Nux booked beforehand.

This time, their destination was The New Malia City, no, there is nothing special about the city, Nux just thought that he shouldn't book the same inn every day since his partner is the head maid of the Royal Palace.

Also, he still hasn't seen many places in this world so this was a good chance to see more.

However, unlike last time, when he was very excited when he left the capital, this time, his face had a solemn look.

Edda wanted to question what happened but he just raised his hand and told her to wait.

...

“Stop the carriage”

As the carriage entered a deserted alleyway, Nux ordered the driver to stop.

“What happened?” Edda questioned again.

“Two Master stage Cultivators are following us, both of them are stronger than you”

Nux informed, he had already sensed that these 2 people were following them, more precisely Edda as he only noticed them when Edda appeared.

He did not take action since they were still in the capital and the person behind them might send some more later.

Therefore, he waited...

Waited until he reached a deserted alleyway like this one...

Also, he will admit that it did feel really good acting all-knowing like those novel protagonists.

“Wait for me here, I will deal with them”

While Edda was panicking, she heard Nux’s voice.

“What can you do!? You are just an adv-”

She wanted to retort but then remembered the speed he showed her this morning and decided to stay silent.

She knew he was a lot stronger than a normal Advance Stage Cultivator.

Nux then activated his [Conceal] before he leisurely walked out of the carriage and walked into one of the houses.

Then he entered a room and saw a man covered in black, looking outside through a window, clearly having no idea that one of his ‘targets’ is standing right behind him.

[Name: Colby Wilton]

[Age: 55 ]

[Mana Cultivation: Master.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal. ]

[Race: Human ]

[Occupation: Assassin of Marquees Bannermane House]

[Talent: Medium]

[LVL: 36]

[HP: 280/280]

[MP: 390/390]

[STR: 44]

[AGL: 44]

[VIT: 46]

[STM: 42]

[INT: 62]

[DEF: 39]

...

‘Bannermane House...’

Noting that name, he chopped the back of his neck with his hand, causing the man to lose his consciousness.

Nux then reactivated his [Conceal] and walked into another house, doing the same with another man.

He noticed that he was an assassin of another house, the Hardwick house which was also a marquee house.

He then dragged his body into the room where he dealt with another assassin before he walked towards the carriage and called Edda.

Edda just couldn’t believe how calmly and leisurely ‘Dio’ dealt with these two assassins, it was as if they couldn’t even see him!

“They are from Bannermane and Hardwick house; do you know why these two marquee’s houses are after you?” Nux questioned.

“How do you know these two are from those houses? I am sure that they would never tell you that even if they are dead” Edda questioned in shock.

Nux then pointed at his golden eyes as he muttered,

“I can see everything with these eyes, I don’t need them to tell me that”

In the darkroom, Nux's golden eyes shined, Edda was enchanted by their beauty and was brought back by Nux's question.

“So? Do you know why these two marquess' houses are after you?”

“I do, these two houses want to get close to the royal harem through me.”

Nux was shocked when he heard her, wasn't their goal similar to his? Nux felt weird when he thought about it as he muttered.

“You must be very loyal to the kingdom, huh... You are refusing them to the extent they even sent assassins after you. I am sure they must have promised you some benefits before.”

“Hmph! Loyal my ass!”

“Hmm? Didn't the palace provide you with everything you have right now? Shouldn't you be loyal to them?” Nux questioned.

“Things aren't as simple as you think, Dio. Did I not say I don't know who my father was? That was not because he died too early, it was just that...”

Edda didn't need to say anymore. Nux also understood what she meant and stayed silent, however, a question arose in his mind.

“Then how di-”

“I just rose in ranks too quickly. My body was still not fully mature so they decided to wait. They just failed to calculate that I would become a head maid so soon therefore I was saved” Edda replied.

“And could give my first time to you...” She then muttered with a small smile on her face.

Chapter 74

“And could give my first time to you...” She then muttered with a small smile on her face.

“Hehe~ And thanks to that, I could get a perverted maid all for myself~~” Nux replied with a chuckle and Edda blushed.

“So, if you are not loyal to the palace, why are you not helping them? I mean, I am sure they must have offered you some benefits before using these methods right?”

“That is true, and I would have normally helped them, but I just don’t get a very good feeling about their house. I have this weird feeling that tells me not to trust them and since I was small, I have always trusted this type of feeling...” Edda answered.

“Hmm, I understand” Nux replied as he nodded continuously, at the same time, a big weight was lifted from his head.

“So? What do we do with them?” Nux questioned.

“Hmm? What else, let’s just burn their bodies” Edda muttered as if it was the most natural thing to do.

“Huh? What about the dro- I mean, the loot?”

“Loot?”

“Yeah? Won’t you take the things that belong to them? You didn’t even check their storage ring!”

“Hmm? Why would I do that?”

“Huh? Is it not normal to loot someone you killed?”

“...why would you do that?”

“Umm... so that we don't waste resources?”

“...you really are a merchant huh?”

‘No! I am just a perfectly logical man!’

Nux wanted to scream but he just smiled.

He then took their storage rings and his eyes widened in disbelief.

‘A 3-star sword and two 3 star daggers!’

What kind of rich assassins were they?

One had to know that a 3-star armour was a family treasure of a Viscount!

Nux then showed the weapons to Edda and seeing the normal look on her face, he knew these weapons were not as rare as he thought!

No, maybe a person who spent her entire life in the royal palace has a weird perception.

Nux nodded to himself before he stored the weapons and the money he got in his inventory. He also kept the storage rings in his pocket.

Yes, since the inventory and the storage rings were both space-related things, the storage rings couldn't be stored in the inventory.

Edda then slit the two assassin's throats and then burned their bodies. Nux thought that the scene might disturb him but was surprised that he didn't feel anything at all.

He then thought that it was maybe because he got used to blood when he was in the Wilderness and shrugged.

It was a good thing.

He knows that he has to get used to blood, and even killing humans with his own hands.

He has still not killed any human and has decided to avoid it till it was required.

He was not a bloodthirsty brawny man who is out for blood; he is a refined man who would not kill unless it is required.

As Edda dealt with the bodies professionally, the two of them then entered the carriage as it drove to the New Malia City.

...

The New View Inn, inside a room.

Right now, Nux was standing inside the room, waiting for Edda to return from the bathroom.

Since she directly came to him right after her duty ended, she was still sweaty and she requested to take a bath before they started their blissful night.

Nux told her that it was okay, but she was adamant about it and quickly walked towards the bathroom. Nux then shook his head in defeat as he walked into the room and waited for her obediently.

Half an hour later, Edda, whose hair was still wet entered the room wearing a white coloured bathrobe. Her cleavage was completely visible and the loose bathrobe did nothing to hide her perfect hourglass figure.

Her white-pink wet hair combined with her tanned skin looked very appealing.

Seeing her standing at the door with a blush on her face, Nux couldn't control himself any longer and quickly walked toward her.

“Hehe~ This might be your new second best look, wearing a loose bathrobe, combined with wet hair. Look how enchanting you look~”

He then quickly pulled her closer to him as he complimented her.

“What is the bes- oh...”

Edda wanted to question what her best look was if this was the second best but then she quickly remembered what he told her last night and stayed silent with a blush.

Nux smiled seeing her acting all shy, he couldn't control himself any longer and quickly sealed her lips with his own.

Her lips were still a little cold and wet since she had just taken a bath, this further improved the pleasure Nux felt as he sucked her juicy lips greedily.

Her sweet scent combined with the soapy scent assaulted his nose as he pulled her even closer to her.

Edda too sucked on his lips without thinking anything else. His strong embrace felt safe to her.

She sucked his lower lips when he sucked her upper one and then shifts to the upper one when he sucks her lower lip.

The more she kissed the better she felt, finally, she couldn't control herself any longer and her tongue entered his mouth to find its prey.

Finding it in an instant, Edda's tongue attacked Nux's tongue that was already prepared to receive the attack as the two tongues mingled together.

While they shared a deep kiss, Nux's hands moved towards her butt before he grabbed them roughly.

This sent a jolt of pleasure into Edda's body, causing her tongue to lose its advantage and fell into an unfavourable position.

Seeing his method working, Nux continued kneading her butt roughly, sending jolts and jolts of pleasure into her body.

Under the assault, Edda's tongue couldn't fight any longer and was quickly subdued by his tongue.

Satisfied with his victory, Nux ended the kiss as he picked her up before walking into the room and placing her on the bed.

He then lied on top of her and just as he was about to seal her lips again, her voice sounded.

“Wait!”

“Hmm? What happened?” Nux questioned with curiosity.

Suddenly, ropes appeared in Edda's hands and she replied with a blush.

“H-How about you t-tie a-all my limbs to the c-corner of the bed today...?”

Chapter 75

“H-How about you t-tie a-all my limbs to the c-corner of the bed today...?”

Nux was dumbfounded.

After all that serious talk about her father and how things work in the royal palace, combined with how this woman was blushing in front of him just a few minutes ago, Nux somehow forgot how big of a pervert this woman is!

Seeing that this woman even prepared the ropes beforehand, Nux couldn't help but shake his head.

This woman is unredeemable.

A completely lost cause.

What a perverted fellow!

Nux shook his head again.

It seems like he would not have to use the ropes he brought today...

Hmm? Did he bring the ropes?

Of course, he brought them!

He might have forgotten about her being a pervert due to all their talks before, but he had still planned to make Edda accept her perverted nature openly and make her completely his.

Who wouldn't want a beautiful, serious-looking outside but actually a perverted masochist inside, big breasted woman all for themselves?

Nux for sure did!

An evil smile appeared on his face as he grabbed the ropes.

“Heh! I was looking forward to how long can you hide that perverted nature of yours but it seems that you can’t do it for very long”

Edda blushed a little but when she felt her right hand being tied with the pole on the corner of the bed, her heart started beating quickly.

Nux then tightened the ropes to the limit and Edda felt a weird jolt of pleasure being released into her body.

Her heartbeat then quickened even more when her left hand was tied to the other pole.

“Haah... Haa... Haa...”

A few minutes later, when all her limbs were tied to every corner of the bed, Edda was breathing heavily with a red face and a weird smile on her face.

“Tsk Tsk, look how happy you look, you perverted masochist!”

Nux then roughly removed her bathrobe, revealing her tanned and untanned body. Her milky white breasts moved up and down as she breathed even more heavily.

This woman wasn’t wearing anything under her bathrobe, meaning that right now, she was completely naked.

Nux felt his soldier twitching a little, but he controlled himself for the greater good and glanced at her little sister.

Since her legs were tied to the two corners of the bed, her pink cave had nowhere to hide even if she wanted to.

When Edda felt his gaze on her vagina, she tried to close her legs but since her legs were tied, she couldn’t.

Her breathing turned even heavier and her smile widened as well.

Nux saw her juices leaking uncontrollably, then without giving her any prior warning, he plunged his index, middle, and ring finger inside her pussy.

“Annhh!!”

Without waiting, Nux’s three fingers assaulted her weak points roughly, creating a mess inside her walls.

“Annhh! Annhh! Annhh!”

Edda’s body was already very sensitive when he tied her like that, her pussy had already started twitching when she felt Nux’s gaze on it, combining all this with his three fingers entering and creating havoc inside her insides, the pleasure she felt soared uncontrollably and she moaned without stop.

“Hmph! Look how are you moaning like a slut! A serious and elegant head maid? Pfftt! More like a slut in heat!”

Nux felt her canals tightening as he said these words, he quickened his fingers’ movement and her back arched up.

“AAannhhgghhh~~”

Her walls tightened to the limit before her juices gushed out uncontrollably.

“Tsk Tsk, you came just with that?”

Nux questioned as he glanced at her with eyes filled with disdain.

“Haah... Haa... Haa...”

Edda’s body twitched when she saw his gaze, she wanted to answer but was too busy breathing and gaining her breath.

“Hmph! Don’t think I am done with just this!”

Nux then lowered his pant and a huge 8-inch rod popped out. Seeing her breasts moving up and down while imagining all sorts of things he would do to her later, Nux's weapon turned hard without him doing anything.

His deepest and the darkest fantasies are about to be fulfilled, how can his dick not be ready at such a crucial moment?

He then placed his hard dick in front of her entrance and rammed it inside.

If it were Skyla, Lane, or Felberta, he would have given them some rest because they had just come, and would have glistened his dick with their juices so that it would slide in without any difficulties.

With Edda, however, he did not need to do anything like that, the rougher he was with her, the better she felt. And it didn't take a long time for his theory to be proven.

“AAnnhhhhghhhhh~”

With just one thrust, Edda moaned in ecstasy as her back arched up, however, since her limbs were tied, she couldn't move any other part of her body.

This further increased the pleasure she felt.

After enjoying the feeling of her squishy walls tightening around his rod, Nux started moving his drilling without caring how Edda felt.

His pace quickened as his hips moved back and forth at a very high speed.

“Annhh! Annhh! Annhh!”

Although Nux didn't care how Edda felt, the woman was already moaning uncontrollably as waves and waves of pleasure assaulted her body, her mind was turning numb for pleasure, however, before she could lose her mind completely,

*Pat*

“Annhh!”

She was jolted awake as Nux slapped her breast.

She then felt Nux's movement slowing down before it turned frustratingly slow.

She glanced at Nux and seeing her smile that was filled with contempt and mockery, her heart raced.

She then saw him opening his mouth as he questioned.

“Hey, Edda, how about you become my personnel pleasure toy? A mere object whose sole purpose of existence is to satisfy all my sexual needs? Hmm? How about it?”

Chapter 76

“Hey, Edda, how about you become my personnel pleasure toy? A mere object whose sole purpose of existence is to satisfy all my sexual needs? Hmm? How about it?”

Edda’s whole body twitched weirdly when she heard his words, but before she could think what to answer, Nux started increasing his speed again.

However, the rate at which his speed was growing was very slow.

This filled her with a sense of frustration and anticipation...

*Pat*

Soon, however, her mind was jolted awake as Nux slapped her nipple again. A weird pleasure assaulted her body but before she could relish it, she heard his voice.

“Haa? Do you think you can keep me waiting? Answer me quick! Are you willing to be my pleasure toy?”

Edda wanted to stay silent but she then felt Nux’s dick moving out of her cave.

Looking at his expression, it looked like he was really about to pull out his dick and end this session if she did not answer his question.

He only wanted an answer and a positive one at that.

He did not care about her feelings at all!

Being treated like that, Edda’s pussy twitched again, she didn’t know what was happening and was unable to understand her own body, but she knew one thing.

This man, standing right in front of her, was perfect for her.

A perfect partner...

And a perfect master...

As if having a will on its own, her mouth opened and,

“Y-yes, Haah... I am Haah... willing to be Haah... your pleasure toy...”

“Good” An evil smile appeared on Nux’s face as he rammed his dick into her pussy.

“AAnnhhhhghhhhh~”

Her pussy walls convulsed uncontrollably and with just one thrust, she squirted and drenched Nux’s dick with her juices.

“Uuggghhhh!!”

The unusual tightness amplified the pleasure he felt, his hips twitched in pleasure and his milk burst out, painting her walls white.

“Haah... Haa... Haa...”

Nux then pulled out his dick as another wave of energy entered his body, he however did not care about it.

His weapon was still hard, he wanted to enter her pussy again but when he glanced at her body tied that way, he knew he could do anything he sees fit to her and won’t face any resistance.

Then his eyes fell on her milky breasts moving up and down as she breathed heavily.

An evil thought then appeared in his mind.

He then crawled towards her breasts before he sat on her waist and placed his dick on her right breast.

When Edda saw the smile he had on his face, her body twitched in anticipation of what is about to come and she couldn't help but look forward to it.

Nux then slides his dick into her cleavage before pressing her two large mounds of flesh on his dick.

“Uggghhh~~”

Nux grunted in pleasure as his back arched a little, after he got used to the soft sensation that surrounded his rod, he started moving his hips back and forth and waves after waves of pleasure assaulted his body.

“T-This feels too good!”

Nux moaned in delight as his speed increased. He then tried tilting his body and his dick's head rubbed on her left upper boob.

“Edda! Your breasts feel too good~”

Nux complimented in delight. Another idea welled inside his mind as he quickly moved his hands from her breasts to her erect nipples.

“Annhh!!”

He pulled her nipples roughly and a weird wave of pain and pleasure assaulted Edda's already sensitive body. Nux however, didn't care about it; he started rubbing her two nipples together and smiled.

He looked like a curious kid who got something to play with and was doing all sorts of experiments with it.

“Annhh!!”

Edda continued moaning in pleasure, her moans filled Nux with satisfaction, he then joined her two nipples before holding them with his right hand as he kept thrusting.

*Pat* *Pat* *Pat*

“Annhh! Annhh! Annhh!”

With his left hand now free, he started slapping her big breasts, making Edda moan in ecstasy.

Her little sister, that was already numb in pleasure, started releasing her juices again, an unbearable tickling sensation welled inside her pussy but since her legs were tied, she couldn't close her thighs to control it.

With her pussy lying bare, cold air assaulted it, amplifying the tickling sensation. A perverted smile appeared on her face as she started moving in what little ways her body can move.

A few minutes later, Nux too felt that he was about to cum, he released her nipples and grabbed her breasts, mushing them towards his dick tightly, and he then strengthened his thrusts.

“Uuggghhhh~~”

The pleasure overwhelmed his thoughts, his dick twitched before he released all his fresh jizz all over Edda's breasts and face.

With her tied hands, Edda couldn't do anything to clean the jizz that was on her face, she moved her tongue to clean the milk that was around her mouth but was helpless with the places where her tongue couldn't reach.

Powerless to do anything, she glanced at Nux who was smiling at her, when he noticed her gaze, his smile widened even more as he replied.

“Consider this your master's first gift to you. I will not allow to you clean my milk from your face for the entire night, this will constantly remind you of your position as my personnel pleasure toy.”

His words caused her pussy to twitch and a perverted smile appeared on her face as she nodded.

Nux then moved closer to her face before he placed his huge dick which was drenched in his cum in front of her mouth as he ordered.

“Now, kiss your master’s cock to show your undying submission and pure devotion”

As if hypnotized by his words, Edda lifted her head as she moved her lips forward, planting a soft kiss on Nux’s dick.

A satisfied smile appeared on Nux’s face as he ordered again.

“Now lick it clean”

Edda did as she was told as started licking his rod as if it was the most delicious thing in the world.

His half-erect dick stood up again, and when she was done with her cleaning, Nux moved towards her already tired pussy and rammed his cock inside.

“AAnnhhhhhhhhh~”

Chapter 77

A huge amount of energy entered Nux's body as he came inside Edda's already numbed pussy 5th time.

His eyes then fell on Edda who had finally passed out and he smiled.

He came a total of 6 times today, as for Edda, she lost count on how many times she came but it was well above 10.

This was very easily the most blissful night she had.

After around 8 orgasms, her little sister was so sensitive that with just a few thrusts, she would cum again.

With her hands and legs tied, she had no way to resist Nux's advance and couldn't help but continue taking in all his merciless drilling.

In the end, she couldn't even think, she just moaned and moaned while her body did whatever Nux commanded as if it was a Divine order.

Finally, after Nux unloaded another load of fresh milk inside her, she couldn't take it anymore and passed out.

Of course, after cumming 6 times, Nux was tired as well and even though his eyes noticed some new things, they felt heavy and closed down as Nux entered the dreamland.

...

The next day, after dropping Edda in front of the Royal Palace, Nux quickly returned to Felberta's mansion, he then took a nice bath before he returned to his room as he sat on his bed and sighed.

'This... This is so amazing!!'

The more Nux read about these abilities, the wider his smile got!

These abilities are the perfect solution to the thing that worries Nux the most!

The [Craving Touch], his own ability.

Nux does not like the fact his women would turn into some sort of dick craving sluts if he isn't there for them for a while. Although having sex with them improves this a lot, it is still not the perfect solution.

Nux has been trying to find some sort of ability or cultivation technique to resist it but he couldn't, but now, the system gave it to him itself!

What a good system he has!

He then rushed towards Felberta's office and barged in.

Joyab frowned when he saw his attitude, but when he remembered how he defeated him so quickly in the past, he knew that he couldn't do anything against him and shook his head in disappointment.

However, this time, even Felberta was just as confused as him. She knew that Nux wouldn't do something like barging into her office while she is working without any reason, but when she saw the excited look on his face, she sighed as she realised that it wasn't something bad.

However, she still looked forward to what made him so excited that he directly rushed into her office without caring about anything.

Nux didn't know what was going on in their mind, right now, he was so excited that he even forget that these were office hours, else, he would have surely waited a few more hours before coming here.

Nux then walked towards Felberta as he placed his hand on her table, looked into her eyes, and questioned.

“Felberta Alveye, Are you willing to be my woman with all your heart?”

Chapter 78

“Felberta Alveye, Are you willing to be my woman with all your heart?”

“You basta-”

Joyab was about to burst out in rage when he heard what Nux said, however, Felberta raised her hand, signalling him to stop.

“Joyab, we will have an early break today”

Viscount Felberta commanded.

“But Viscoun-”

“Joyab, we will have an early break today”

Viscount repeated, her tone was stricter than before.

Joyab gritted his teeth before he glared at Nux, who from the moment he entered the room, treated him like air.

Joyab then bowed before he left the office, however, he was very disappointed.

He had no clue what kind of magic that boy toy had done on the Viscount. Not only that, now he had even dared to say something so outrageous to her face! How dare he!?

‘Willing to be my woman!? You are nothing but a Boy Toy!’

However, he knew that he wasn’t strong enough to face him, not only that, when he left the room, he noticed the change in that boy’s aura.

He was a Master Stage Cultivator now!

An 18-year-old Master Stage Cultivator was already a genius level, what would happen if the people knew that he was just a mere mortal 2 months ago!?

They might die due to shock!

Now that he thinks about it, that boy is indeed a suitable man for the Viscount.

He is handsome, he is powerful, and most importantly, he has monstrous potential!

When he thought about it, Joyab felt a little better in his heart and he walked into his room.

...

On the other side, Nux sat on Felberta's chair with her sitting on his lap as he questioned again.

"Now that the hindrance is gone, let me ask you again, Felberta Alveye, Are you willing to be my woman with all your heart?"

"I am"

Even though she was confused about what was happening, Felberta did not think too much and answered honestly.

"Good"

Suddenly, she felt peculiar energy entering her body, though the feeling she felt was similar to how she gained strength after their session, she knew it was something different.

Soon, the energy merged with her body, although she felt something change inside her, she wasn't sure what it was.

'How is it?'

Suddenly, she heard Nux's voice inside her head. She turned toward him and noticed that his mouth wasn't moving but she could still hear his voice in her head.

'Hehe~ Does it feel weird hearing my voice even though my mouth isn't moving?' Nux questioned jokingly and Felberta nodded.

'You can do it as well, try talking to me'

Nux replied.

"Hello"

'Don't open your mouth you dumbo, try talking in your mind while thinking about me'

Nux explained in the best way he could.

For him, using his every ability is as easy as using his limbs, he did not know about others, but he guessed that it shouldn't be that hard.

'Hello? Nux? Can you hear me?'

His thoughts were proven right when he heard Fel's sweet voice in his mind, he smiled as he replied.

'Yes, My darling Fel, I can hear you loud and clear'

'W-What is happening? How can we talk like this??'

Felberta questioned in surprise.

'Don't worry, I will explain everything in a while'

He then glanced at a certain area as he called,

"You two, come out, I have something important to discuss'

Skyla and Lane then appeared in front of him. Nux smiled as he asked the same question again,

“Skyla Hale, Lane Wyne, are you two willing to be my women with all your heart?”

“Yes, I am!”

“Mmhm”

The two of them replied simultaneously and felt the same energy that entered Felberta’s body entering their body.

...

It took Nux half an hour to explain to the three of them about his newly gained ability.

He also told them about his [Slave Seal] ability, Lane offered to test it out but Nux rejected her without any second thoughts.

Although he trust his system a lot, he was still scared about testing a dangerous ability like the [Slave Seal] on her.

He then made them practice all his active abilities and helped them whenever they needed.

Within the next hour, his women were capable of using, [Eye Of Discerning], [Conceal], and [Sense] without any problems.

Nux smiled in contentment as he saw that.

This [Harem Seal] is great. Now that the girls can use his abilities, they would be a lot safer than before.

Especially with the [Conceal], which can easily save their lives.

Just how cool is that??

Not only the ability to share, even the ability with which they can talk which each other no matter the distance is really helpful. Just imagine how easy information transfer will be in the future.

“Oh, right! I completely forgot about it, Fel, how much do you know about, Bannermane and Hardwick house?” After their training ended, Nux questioned.

Hearing his words, Felberta’s face turned serious as she questioned back,

“Why are you asking about them?”

“They sent assassins after Edda because she rejected cooperating with them with their plan, and before you ask, I’ll tell you that she and I don’t know what their plan is”

“This isn’t an information a normal Viscount should have, but I’ll tell you about i-”

“Wait, before you start, let me ask since I always forget to ask this question, why do you know something a normal Viscount shouldn’t?”

“Hmm? Cause I am special of course”

Felberta answered as a matter of fact.

“My Darling Fel, I know you are special, you are very special to me. But my question is, why do you know something a normal Viscount shouldn’t know? What is it that you are hiding from me?”

Chapter 79

“What is it that you are hiding from me?”

Nux questioned as his golden eyes shined.

“Why would I hide anything from you? The only reason I know of some inside information is that I am the part of The Thousand Information Chamber”

Felberta easily revealed what others would label as high class certified information.

“The Thousand Information Chamber? What is that?”

“As the name suggests, it is an information association, nobody knows where its headquarters are, or who the leader is, however, everyone who knows about The Thousand Information Chamber also knows that if they want any sort of information, the Chamber would have it”

This was Felberta’s trump card, this is the reason why she survived as a beautiful lonely milf without being targeted by others.

She could easily find anything about anyone in this kingdom and could destroy him/her and all this was just when she is just a mere member of the chamber, she didn’t know the benefits the higher-ups receive but she didn’t care either.

She was happy where she was, she wasn’t that power-hungry. Just let her live in peace and she will live without disturbing anyone.

Now, however, the things are different, now she was with Nux, whose goals were... well, too high and ambitious.

“Then how did you join this Information Chamber?” Nux questioned.

“I did not join them, I was invited by them. Marques Everly who should be a higher up in the chamber invited me”

“T-That should be a classified information right?”

“What?”

“Marques Everly or whatever being a higher up in the chambers?”

“Well, yea, that, and the whole mention of the Thousand Information Chamber is a classified information”

“O-Oh...”

Nux nodded. Then a serious look appeared on his face as he questioned,

“Can it be traced back at you if you find the information about the Bannermane and Hardwick house?”

“Every time I search for information, it can be traced back to me. This time, however, you don’t have to worry about it. I had to pass this information to someone else a few months ago so I don’t need to search for anything about it.

I already know about these two houses. However, I don’t have any proof, no, actually, even the chamber doesn’t have any proof”

“What? Even the chamber doesn’t? Damn, they must be some big shots huh...”

“Well, that might be true... but according to the chamber, they are nothing but fools... however, they are dangerous fools. I suggest you do not go against them”

“Why is that...?”

“According to the information gained by the chamber, these two noble houses are spies that belong to another kingdom. Their forces are a lot stronger than normal Marques, and the two of them plan to start a rebellion to usurp the throne.

Of course, since the kingdom doesn't have any proof, they can't do anything to them.

That is the reason the Chamber called them fools. If the king could be overthrown by some marquesses, he would have long died.

However, their strength and the support they have from the other kingdom make them dangerous fools."

Felberta replied with a solemn look.

"Haah... looks like Edda has some troublesome opponents..." Nux sighed as he shook his head.

"No, not really, Edda is the head maid of the palace. Though it might not seem like much, inside the Royal Palace, even a Duke won't be able to harm her"

"What!?"

"Of course, why else do you think she is alive after rejecting the two marquesses? That's because she never leaves.

However, things are not the same as before, you two can't continue your sessions in the palace, so you would have to leave the place and as long as you leave, the Bannerman and Hardwick house won't let you two off."

There was a trace of worry on her face, but when she remembered how strong Nux is right now, combining it with his [Conceal], she calmed down.

The Strongest Force in a Marquess' house is an initial Stage Grand Master, even if they are stronger than a normal Marquess house, the best they would have is a Late-Stage Grand Master which is already very unlikely.

The Expert Stage is already at the level of the dukes, so they shouldn't have an Expert in their ranks.

However, even if they have an Expert Stage cultivator as their strongest, they wouldn't send him/her to deal with Edda just because a normal assassin failed.

As for a Master or Grand Master Stage Cultivator, Nux could already defeat them when he was at the Advance stage, defeating a Grand Master Stage cultivator would be even simpler since he had risen to the Master Stage.

“Hmm, that won't be a problem, I will meet her again tonight, at the very best, they will send a few more assassins, I'll deal with them today and later when I put the [Harem Seal] on Edda, she would be able to use my [Conceal] and we won't face any major problems”

Nux nodded, thinking the same way as Felberta.

As for the two houses planning to go against the kingdom? He couldn't care less about it.

Chapter 80

After spending the rest of the blissful day with Skyla, Lane, and Fel, Nux activated his [Conceal] as he left the mansion.

He then walked towards the Royal Palace, he was extra careful on his way and had already activated his [Sense].

Although Edda and he had decided to meet at a certain point, he scratched that idea and directly walked towards the Royal Palace. Edda was his woman now, there is no way he is going to let someone hurt her.

He appeared in front of the gates and waited for Edda to leave, 15 minutes later, Edda left the Palace wearing her Maid uniform and with a serious look on her face.

Nux compared that face with the one she had yesterday when she was tied up and couldn't help but chuckle. He felt happy that he was the only one who could see her hidden perverted side.

He then used his [Sense] and found that there wasn't anyone following Edda, he sighed and followed Edda all the way to the meeting point before appearing in front of her.

“Haah... you are making me repeat myself huh...” Nux sighed as he glanced at her.

“You look really stunning, My perverted maid~”

“It's you who made me a pervert...” Edda replied with a smile on her face, unlike last time, she readily accepted her identity as a pervert without any resistance this time.

To be honest, she didn't care about it now either, the pleasure she felt yesterday when she accepted being his 'Pleasure Toy' was so out of this world that she would do anything to experience that again!.

Not only that, this man treats her so well even though she was his ‘pleasure toy’ that she has nothing to complain about! She was really happy and thankful to the god that she met him.

“Let’s go?” Nux then extended his hand forward, just like how he did the first day she met her.

“Why do you still treat me like that?” Edda questioned with a confused look.

“Hmm? What do you mean?”

“W-Why do you treat me all gentlemanly like that?”

“Hmm? Because you are my woman?”

“W-Woman? B-But didn’t you say that I was your ‘P-Pleasure Toy’?” Edda replied with a deep blush.

Nux blinked his eyes in shock before he laughed out loud.

“Hahahaha~”

“W-Why are you laughing?”

“Hahaha~” Nux did not bother replying and continued laughing.

After laughing for a good 3 minutes, he calmed down before he moved toward Edda as he raised her chin seductively,

“My perverted maid, I just like to be gentlemanly with my ‘Pleasure Toy’ as well, do you have any complaints about it?”

Edda’s heartbeat quickened as she replied meekly, “N-No”

“Good”

Nux then grabbed her hand as the two of them entered the carriage Nux had prepared beforehand before they left the Capital City.

Inside the carriage, a serious look appeared on Nux's face as he grabbed her hand and questioned,

“Edda Osburn, are you willing to be my woman with all your heart?”

“I-I am already your object. I belong to you”

Her weird answer was somehow accepted as a yes by the system and a mysterious energy entered Edda's body.

“W-What is that?”

‘Don't worry, I'll explain everything one by one’

She heard Nux's voice directly into her mind and she jerked in surprise.

...

On the other side, in a hall that was a lot bigger than the one in Felberta's mansion, two men, one with blonde hair, a handsome face, wearing black robes with brown coloured patterns, and the other with a silver hair, equally or even more handsome face, wearing pure looking white coloured robes with golden patterns, were sitting on two thrones side by side, indicating that they had the same status.

These two were Heath Hardwick and Alger Bannermane respectively.

A woman was wearing skin-tight black clothes that covered all of her body, and a mask that concealed her face, kneeling in front of them, seemingly reporting something.

“So, can you tell me why that bitch Edda isn't dead yet?”

The silver-haired man, Alger Bannermane, questioned.

“Yes, what happened to 8 and 9, why haven't they reported back yet?”

Heath Hardwick questioned as well.

“We can’t find any traces of 8 and 9, we checked our secret meeting place as well, but they aren’t there either. I believe they are either killed or captured.”

“Captured!?” Alger shouted in surprise, there was a tinge of fear on his face.

The woman frowned when she saw his behaviour, but her face returned to normal and she continued.

“Don’t worry, Marquees Alger, even if they are captured, we have trained them not to say anything else. They will kill themselves the moment they get the chance”

The Marquees finally sighed in relief when he heard those words, as for caring about his subordinates’ life?

What villain does that?

Never read anything like that.

Suddenly, heath Hardwick frowned as he questioned,

“That Edda is a Master Stage Cultivator, 8 and 9 are both Master Stage Cultivators as well, even if they can’t beat her for some reason, running away shouldn’t be a problem? How were they defeated? Is someone helping her?”

Alger’s eyes widened as well before he clapped his hand and a man wearing a black coat over a white shirt appeared,

“Greeting, Marquees Alger”

He was Marquees Alger’s butler.

“Who was the person travelling with Edda?”

“Marquees Alger, he is the leader of some sort of merchant company that comes from Wood’s Dynasty and is here to sell some items.”

“I don’t care about his company or whatever, what is his name?”

“Dio Brando”

Chapter 81

“Dio Brando”

“Dio Brando... how strong is he?”

“Not that strong, he is only an Advance Stage Cultivator, however, he looks younger than 20, even if that is not his actual age, he shouldn't be older than 30, so he must highly talented.” The butler answered.

“It doesn't matter how talented he is, he can't help Edda if she is surrounded by 2 master stage cultivators, which means there is someone else helping her! Is that person from the Royal Palace?”

“To defeat 2 Master Stage Cultivators, a Grand Master Stage Cultivator is required, although the Royal Palace has a lot of those, they are still considered elites. The Royal Palace won't send an elite to protect a mere head maid.” Heath muttered.

“Then do you think that Dio is strong enough to defeat 8 and 9?” Alger questioned.

“Hmph! Don't joke! How can an Advance Stage Cultivator fight against a Master Stage Cultivator? I believe it is someone protecting that man behind the scenes and he protected that bitch just because it was convenient”

Heath answered.

Alger nodded at his answer, finding it quite logical.

He then glanced at his butler and ordered,

“Search this man called Dio, I want to know everything about him by tomorrow, don't miss anything out”

“As you command, Marquees Alger.”

The butler bowed in agreement.

“Alright, since the discussions are over, I will be taking my leave”

Suddenly, the woman in black stood up and left the hall without waiting for their approval.

When Heath and Alger saw how rude her behaviour was, their lips twitched in frustration.

However, they could only grit their teeth in frustration, they can't do anything else to this rude woman, if they could, they would have already raped her a few times before killing her brutally.

Although it might look like they were the leaders here, they had no right to control or order this woman around. They can just make a request, if she feels like it, she will do it, or else she will ignore them completely.

This woman works for the kingdom that supports them and she only takes order from that kingdom.

Not only that, the two believed that this woman reports everything they do to the kingdom and keeps an eye on them.

The moment the two of them try to do anything funny against the kingdom, they would know about it and the two of them will be easily dealt with.

“Sigh...” Alger sighed in frustration and then shook his head in defeat.

The next morning, Nux smiled when he saw his status again, he then glanced at Edda who was wearing her uniform in rush.

Just like usual, the two of them were late, and Nux will have to carry her and run to the Royal Capital.

“Let’s go!”

After wearing her clothes, Edda exclaimed before she extended both of her hands towards Nux. Nux chuckled when he saw her acting like that before he picked her up and the two of them checked out of the inn.

Nux then ran towards the Royal Capital and within 15 minutes, the two of them were in front of the Gates.

Of course, Nux wasn't carrying her in his arms anymore and the two of them were walking hand in hand.

When the guard's eyes fell on the two of them, he couldn't help but shake his head.

"It seems that our lovely Head Maid finally found someone for her, huh?" He muttered as he glanced at Nux before looking at Edda.

"No, you got it completely wrong, Brock, there is nothing like that between us."

Nux shook his head as he replied.

"Please, Mr Dio, do you think I am a 10-year-old kid you can fool that easily, it's the 3rd time you guys have spent your night out together. I know you have already stolen our Head Maid's heart, don't try to deny it"

"Oh c'mon, you know I am a merchant, right? I just have to show her a few of my items so I can get her approval and sell them to the Royal Harem"

"Haa? What kind of items are these that you can only show them at the night, why not do it in the morning. And why would you leave the city? Why not do it here?"

"My items are kept in different cities for safety purposes, as for the items, they are indeed the items that can only be shown at the night"

Nux replied with a weird smile.

Brock, the guard's mouth twitched when he noticed his tone and just as he was about to let them go, Nux's next words sounded.

“Not only that, Miss Edda really likes my items as well? Right? Miss Edda?”

“Yes, I do like your items, Mr Dio” Edda replied with a profound look.

Brock’s mouth twitched even more when he heard the two of them.

Since he couldn’t take it anymore, he shook his head in frustration and exclaimed.

“Yeah, whatever whatever, just pay the entry fees and get in! Don’t let others wait!”

Nux smiled gently as he paid the entry fees and the two of them entered the city.

Chapter 82

“Did you look for what I ordered you to?” Marquees Alger questioned his butler.

“Report, I have searched everything about the man named Dio Brando, but wasn’t able to find anything. All the information about him is just recent. It was as if he was just born a few days ago.”

The butler replied in a confident tone.

Hearing the undesired answer but noticing the confident tone of his subordinate, the Marquees knew something was up and signalled him to keep going, “Continue”

“I then sent someone to the Woods Dynasty and learned that there is no company named Brando Merchant Company there. With that, I was sure that his name was a fake one.

Then I had some men draw what he looked like and found out that his actual name was Nux Leander, who is also Viscount Felberta’s boy toy. I even found out that the two of them were very close and were most definitely not the normal Master and boy toy.”

“Hmm, this Nux guy is quite lucky huh... not only that bitch Edda, he even has that Felberta with him...”

“That is correct, Marquees Alger”

“Hmm... Viscount Felberta... isn’t she the one who is connected with The Thousand Information Chamber?”

“Yes, that is correct,” The butler nodded.

“Hmm, the Head Maid Edda, the Viscount Felberta who has connections with the Thousand Information Chamber... are they planning to somehow expose me? Are they laying a trap?"

Marquee's face turned solemn, after pondering for a while, although unwilling, he decided to use his trump card.

"Call One" Marquee's Alger ordered.

Even his butler's face turned solemn when he heard him. A maid then left the hall and walked in a certain direction. The further she walked, the darker the place got.

Soon, she appeared in front of a simple, wooden door and she knocked.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

"Marquee's Alger has called for Miss One." Without waiting for any response, the maid directly revealed her purpose of coming here before she walked away.

From how indifferent her face was, it was clear that she has done it quite a few times, however, when one would look at her closely, they would notice that her hands were trembling.

No matter how many times she comes here, the creepy vibes surrounding this place... she would never get used to it.

She rushed into the hall and when she saw the light, her beating heart calmed down and she took a deep breath.

...

A few minutes later, a woman wearing skin-tight black coloured clothes walked into the hall.

Yes, she was One, the woman who was kneeling in front of Alger and Heath yesterday, and also their trump card in this kingdom.

"One, I want you to help me with this"

He then told her everything he knew about Edda, Nux, and Felberta, and requested.

“I want you to kill that Felberta, and capture her boy toy, with him, we can lure Edda out and then deal with her as well. That will be three birds with one arrow”

“Haah? You want me to deal with a Master Stage, an Advance Stage, and a mere mortal? So you are telling me that you can’t even deal with this pathetic group of people by yourself?”

A strict and disdainful voice was heard.

“That is not the case, I don’t need you to go there personally, I just want you to send your team. Or are you telling me that your team isn’t even capable of doing something as simple as dealing with these bunch of losers?” Alger smirked disdainfully.

“Hmph! Don’t try acting smart in front of me, I know very well what you are thinking about” One snorted but she knew she couldn’t go against him.

Although she wasn’t required to accept his requests, Felberta wasn’t a simple woman, and if the head maid and Felberta are trying to expose them, this might affect her kingdom’s plans.

Therefore, she decided to help him.

“Alright, I’ll send 4, 5, 6, and 7 to deal with them” One agreed.

“Hmm? Why not send 3 as well?” Alger questioned with a frown.

“You want a Grand Master to go deal with an advance stage cultivator?”

“But isn’t Viscount Felberta’s butler a Master Stage Cultivator?”

“Hmph! Him? The person who has never even seen blood all his life is no better than that advance stage cultivator, don’t worry, even sending 4 peak Master Stage Cultivators is overkill for them”

One snorted before she walked out of the hall.

‘Hmph! What a bitch! I hope that one day, you will lose the Kingdom’s support and I can do whatever I please with you!’

Alger snorted inwardly, he always fantasized about raping this bitch while she begs for mercy.

Of course, he knew full well that his wish would never come true. One is very loyal to the kingdom, she is so loyal that she is even willing to die for it, therefore, the kingdom will never take away its trust and support from her.

And even if he was lucky, and somehow, the kingdom decides to take away its support, he won’t be able to do anything to her since she is a lot stronger than him.

Even though they were both Grand Master Realm Cultivators, she could easily defeat two of him without any problems. That is how wide the gap between them was.

However, no matter how impossible it was, there was one way to make it possible...

And that was in his dreams...

Therefore, he always dreams about it and relishes how it feels.

A man can always dream~

Don’t judge.

Alger then shook his head in disappointment before he walked into his beloved wife’s room.

Chapter 83

At the moment, Nux was having dinner and was accompanied by three beauties, Skyla, Lane, and Fel.

The three of them were taking turns feeding; he could even feel some sparks flying around when their eyes met.

This caused him to have a wide smile on his face, a smile that was filled with immense satisfaction and contentment.

He was living the life we guys can only be jealous of, and he was enjoying it thoroughly.

“Hmm?”

A few minutes later, however, his brows furrowed as he glanced at the wall, it was as if his gaze pierced through the wall and he could see what others could not.

Nux's [Sense] activated and he saw 4 strangers lurking and hiding around Felberta's Mansion.

‘Assassins’

A thought appeared in his mind and he activated his [Eye Of Discerning] and their information appeared in front of him.

‘Bannermane House again... that house is getting on my nerve now...’

Nux thought inwardly before he contacted Edda,

‘My Perverted Maid~’

‘Huh? O-Oh! Dio! What happened? Why did you contact me?’

‘Dio? Oh...’

Nux then realized that he hasn’t told her his real name yet, however, since there were more important things to deal with, he decided to postpone it a little.

‘My Perverted Maid, don’t leave the palace today since I won’t be able to meet you’

‘Hmm? Why? What happened?’

‘I have some guests that I need to entertain in my house’

‘Guests?’

‘Yes, the Bannermane house decided to send some assassins here’

Nux decided to be honest.

‘What!? Wou-‘

‘Alright, alright, you don’t need to panic, they are just some random Master Stage Cultivators, I can beat them with my eyes closed.’

Nux replied confidently.

However, Edda's mouth twitched when she heard his words...

What do you mean 'some random Master Stage Cultivators!?'

She was a Master Stage Cultivator as well!

No matter where they are, even in the royal palace, Master Stage Cultivators are still considered decent, they should be elites when it comes to a house that is on a Marquess level!

This shows how seriously Bannermane House takes you!!

And this was all because of her!

Edda felt guilty since she pulled him into her problem.

'Where do you live, tell me and I will come to help you'

She offered, no matter what, she was still a Master Stage Cultivator, she might be able to help him.

Nux thought about it and nodded, he might not need her help right now, but he will need her help later.

Also, it was time to meet Edda as Nux Leander, not Dio Brando.

'Hmm, come soon, also bring the strongest sword or dagger you have with you'

'Okay, but... where do you live?'

'Oh, right! Just come to Fel- Umm, I mean, Viscount Felberta's Mansion'

'Viscount Felberta?'

'Yes, just come here, I'll tell you everything soon'

‘Okay...’

Edda then kept the matter aside. The assassins were the priority right now.

...

On the other side, seeing the solemn look on his face, Fel knew something happened and she questioned.

“Why do you look so serious?”

“Hmm? Nothing really, I noticed that there are some uninvited guests here, you wait here, let me welcome them with a warm smile”

Then with a ‘warm’ smile, Nux activated his [Conceal] and walked towards Ash Winterr, the strongest assassin.

After a 1 minute long, leisurely walk, he appeared behind Ash, who was hiding behind a wall and positioned himself in a way that he won’t be located when his [Conceal] wears off.

*Pat*

A chop on her neck, and she’s down.

Nux dragged her body a little further; making sure her partners won’t see her. He then reactivated his [Conceal] and appeared in front of Aldora Horne, the second strongest of the group.

The same treatment, a chop on the back of the neck, and she’s down.

This time, however, the girl named Lona somehow saw him while he was dragging her body and she shouted.

“Four! Seven! Be careful! He has already dealt with Five!”

“What!?”

Nash spoke out loud, dumbfounded by how he appeared behind Five, but he wasn't given the chance to think about it.

Nux's eyes then fell on Nash who was hiding behind the tree and he dashed towards him at an unbelievable speed.

Nash wasn't able to react in time when he saw that scary speed, Nux quickly appeared behind him and...

Well, another chop.

Another one bites the dust~

'H-He's at the Advance Stage!? Bullshit!'

This was Nash's last thought before he lost consciousness.

Nux then glanced at the last woman, Lona and a charming smile appeared on his face.

Lona was taken aback by how handsome he was but she quickly recovered and glared at him.

However, before she could make any plans, the man suddenly walked behind the tree and did not come out.

Her body tensed up and was in a fully active state. She kept glaring at the tree, afraid that she would miss his figure and that won't be any good for her.

Suddenly, she felt someone patting her shoulder and she heard a voice.

"What are you looking at the tree all lost for? Were you charmed by my smile?"

Lona's eyes widened in horror, she turned her head back but before she could do anything,

A chop, and she fell unconscious.

‘W-Was I really charmed by his smile?’

Chapter 84

Edda quickly activated [Conceal] and left the Palace. She ran the fastest she could as many thoughts ran into her mind.

‘I just hope that he won’t start fighting them! I am really scared about it. No matter what, they are still assassins of a Marquee’s house, they must be strong!’

She then increased her speed even more and a few minutes later, she appeared in front of Felberta’s Mansion and directly entered the place.

Since she had activated [Conceal], no one could see her entering so without any restriction or blockage, she quickly entered the dining room, however, the scene she saw dumbfounded her to a great extent.

Dio and 3 other women, one of them should be Viscount Felberta and the other two should be her maids, were sitting at the dining table having dinner.

The three girls competed to feed the next bite to him and Nux watched everything with a smile.

The atmosphere might seem lively, but when she noticed four bodies lying behind the table, her eyes widened.

‘They are the assassins he was talking about??’

She stood there in a daze and only came out of her reverie when the four of them ate their dinner and Nux muttered,

“Hmm? Why is Edda so late? Is she lost? Does she not know where you live?”

“No, as a Head Maid, though she may not be close to me, she must know where I live” Felberta replied.

‘Where are you? My Perverted Maid?’

Nux’s voice sounded in her head. She then quickly deactivated her [Conceal] and appeared in front of them.

“Oh! You’re here”

Nux muttered, however, he was inwardly surprised.

‘Why didn’t my [Sense] detect her? Is it because [Conceal] is a higher tier ability than [Sense]? Hmm, that may be the case...’

He then shook his head and with a gentle smile, he walked towards Edda and offered his hand.

Edda smiled back as she held her hand as the two walked over and sat on the chairs.

“Hmm, so let me start the introductions”

Nux smiled before he pointed at me.

“I am sorry to hide that from you, Edda, I’ll tell you my reasons later, but for now, just know that my name is not Dio, my real name is Nux Leander”

Although Edda was surprised, she didn’t care too much about it, right now, she was looking at Viscount Felberta who was smiling at her.

She was very, very curious about her identity, even though she had a rough inkling of what it was.

“Well, now moving to the one you are the most curious about, she’s Fel, you know her as Viscount Felberta Alevye, she is also the first woman I fell in love with”

A big smile appeared on Felberta’s face when she heard him, she then glanced at Edda, who was looking at her with some hints of dissatisfaction, a disdainful look appeared on Fel’s face before it was replaced by a sweet smile.

“Hello, Edda~ I am looking forward to having you as my sister~”

“This is Skyla, my sweet little cheerful maid”

“And this is Lane, my serious but shy maid”

“And you guys, this is Edda, a very perverted maid”

“Perverted?” Skyla questioned as she blinked her eyes.

“Yes, she’s very perverted” Nux answered with a smile while Edda’s face turned red in embarrassment.

Though she has already accepted her being a pervert, she was still embarrassed when it was known to others.

Skyla’s eyes brightened in understanding as she glanced at Edda, she couldn’t believe that the always serious-looking head maid was a pervert.

Since she was a maid as well, she was very curious about Edda, but she always forgets to ask Nux about her since she was too busy with other thoughts.

The same happened with Fel and Lane well, they were curious about Edda, but weren’t curious enough to ask Nux about it when they were busy with ‘other things’.

“I-I am n-not a pervert...” Edda muttered, trying to preserve whatever little dignity she has left as a head maid of the royal palace but when her eyes fell on Nux who was smiling at her playfully, her face turned redder as she admitted.

“I-I might b-be a little p-perverted...”

“Hahaha~” Seeing her acting like that, Nux couldn’t help but laugh out loud.

He then felt that it was unfair to Edda and started spilling all the secrets, “Don’t be so shy Edda, everyone has a little something about them that only a few people know about, it is not embarrassing, rather, it adds to your charm.

For example, Fel here has an uncontrollable urge to be the ‘dominant one’ in the bed, but she always fails miserably.”

This time, Felberta’s face turned red but Nux wasn’t done yet, he then pointed at Skyla and continued.

“Skyla here has a weird tendency to smell panties after the night sessions. She says that she is curious about sex, however, I feel that she’s just a pervert.

Lane here is so weird that though she likes having sex, she is too shy to talk or ask for it. I always wonder how that is possible when she was the loudest one when it comes to moaning”

Skyla and Lane’s faces also turned red, the sight of 4 beautiful women lowering their heads in shame was amazingly alluring. Nux smiled inwardly as he patted Skyla’s head.

However, soon, Edda’s eyes fell on 4 bodies lying on the floor as she questioned.

“Umm... are these the assassins sent by the Bannermane House?”

Nux then blinked his eyes before he glanced at the bodies and muttered.

“Oh right, they were here as well...”

Chapter 85

As assassins, they were tortured in countless different ways and were pretty much immune to it, but that did not mean that they liked getting tortured.

“You guys are awake”

Nux stated with a smile and seeing his charming smile, Lona remembered what happened before she lost consciousness.

‘He defeated all of us alone, and he didn’t seem like he was tired at all...’

She thought inwardly.

“Alright, I will not waste time and will question you directly. Are you guys willing to be my slaves?”

His question surprised the 4 assassins, and the strongest one, Ash, snorted.

“Hmph! We have already sworn our life to Bannermane House and will not betr-”

“Yeah, yeah, I can do my worse, but you guys won’t submit and whatever. I know all that.

Also, stop lying to me, you have not submitted to Bannermane’s house, your real master is the kingdom. You are just working for the Bannermane and Hardwick house.”

The assassins did not have any change in their expressions.

Nux shook his head as he continued, “Well whatever. You do whatever you want, however, I do have one question... Why are you guys so loyal to the king- I mean, the Bannermane house? What’s the point? You will die if you reject me, you might even get tortured to death.

The Bannermane house won't care about it, just like how they didn't care about the other 2 men who died a few days ago. I believe you will just be replaced and no one will remember you.

Then why die?

Why not be my slave, and then return to where you came from. Nobody will know what happened and you can continue living."

Suddenly, a strange glint was shown in Nash's eyes as he questioned.

"Will you really let us live?"

"Seven!"

Ash screamed in anger but Nash completely ignored her.

"Yup, I will let you leave if you become my slave" Nux nodded.

"Then how would you make sure that I will not betray you in the future?" Nash continued questioning.

"Hmm? Did I not save your life? Why would you even think about betraying me? However, if you do, I'll just tell the Bannermane House that you betrayed them, they would deal with you later" Nux threatened.

A weird smile then appeared on Nash's face as he nodded. Nux smiled as well and then he questioned.

"So, number Seven, are you willing to be my slave?"

"I am"

[Slaves: Nash Reve]

Suddenly, another section appeared on Nux's status right below his Harem Members Section. He smiled as he looked at Nash, who felt a weird power entering his body but since he did not see anything, he ignored it.

He was just too happy that he found someone so stupid and he would be able to leave this place quickly!

“Alright, number Seven, you can go now, remember, if I ever contact you, do come back. You promised” Nux smiled as he untied the ropes binding him.

“Of course, I always remember my promises” Nash then stood up and smiled before he walked towards the door, the closer he got to the exit, the wider his smile got before he finally walked through the door and left.

Seeing him leaving so quickly and easily, Ash, Lona, and Aldora exchanged glances as a single thought appeared in their mind.

‘This man is too Naïve, we might get out alive’

Ash nodded at the other two before she started,

“Will you really let us go if we become your slaves just like you did with Nash?”

“Of course, I am a very honest person, however, remember, if you do betray me, I will inform the Bannermane house about you becoming my slaves and they will do anything in their power to kill you. So don’t do that, okay?”

The three assassins nodded and a big smile appeared on Nux’s face as he questioned,

“So, number Four, Five, Six, are you willing to be my slaves?”

Chapter 86

“So, number Four, Five, Six, are you willing to be my slaves?”

Although they felt that the smile he had on his face while he questioned was a little uncomfortable, the three assassins’ thoughts were too clouded with a chance to get out of here alive and did not think too much about this minor detail.

“We are”

[Slaves: Nash Reve, Lona Wilk, Aldora Horne, Ash Winterr]

A big smile appeared on Nux’s face when he saw their names on his Slave section.

The three assassins felt a peculiar power entering their body, then their eyes fell on Nux’s devilishly charming and wicked smile before they felt something was wrong.

This man doesn’t look like he is this Naïve and dumb...

He can’t possibly let them go like this...

Just as Ash was about to question Nux, his voice sounded.

“Alright, let’s call your partner back as well”

With that, he activated the telepathy skill the [Slave Seal] had and called.

‘Nash, return.’

With just two words, Nash, who was running back to the Bannermane house stopped.

‘What?’

Nash's eyes widened in horror when he realized his body had started running back to Felberta's Mansion.

He then remembered the voice that echoed in his mind and his body trembled.

'W-What has he done to me?'

A few minutes later, Nash returned and stood beside the 3 assassins.

"Good"

When Nash returned, her fear and uncertain feeling exploded. She knew something was wrong.

She was sure of it now!

That deal was too good to be true!

However, it was already too late.

"What have you done to us!?" Ash questioned in panic and horror.

"Hmm? Nothing?" Nux replied with a confused look.

"Nothing!? Then why is Seven back!?"

"Because I called him? Isn't a slave supposed to listen to whatever his master said?"

"Then how did you contact him when he was so far away!?"

"H-His voice sounded in my h-head..." This time, it was Nash who replied.

Ash and the other assassins' eyes widened in surprise, they don't know what was happening, but they knew it was bad.

"AAhhgghhhh!!"

Suddenly, Ash screamed in pain as she fell on her knees.

“W-What happened!?” Lona questioned in panic.

One had to know that they have been through intense torture and were used to it. So she knew that Ash would never scream like that...

“What did you do to her!?” She then questioned as she glared at Nux who was looking at everything with a curious look.

Actually, even he was surprised when he heard her screaming but he soon realized what happened.

“I think she was having thoughts about betraying me, her master”

Nux replied.

“This isn’t the time to jo-”

“AAGGHHhhhhhh!!!”

Lona wanted to continue but suddenly, Ash’s screams turned louder as she clenched her head tightly and she rolled on the ground.

“S-Stop i-it! I am b-begging you!! I’ll do anything you say!!” Ash begged in a hoarse voice.

The pain was too much for her to bear, and she could feel that it was increasing without any signs of stopping.

Lona and the other assassins’ eyes widened when they heard her.

She’s begging?

Is the pain that intense?

Their body shuddered in fear.

Even Nux felt a little weird seeing her rolling and begging like that, however, he still kept a tough front as he answered.

“Stop thinking about going against me and it will end”

This time, Ash took his words seriously, she quickly got rid of her thoughts about attacking him and muttered continuously.

‘I am loyal to him’

‘I am loyal to him’

‘I am loyal to him’

‘I am loyal to him’

This worked seemed to have worked as soon, she felt the pain subsiding before it faded away.

“Haah... Haah... Haah...”

Ash lay on the ground, breathing heavily.

She didn’t want to experience that again... never.

“T-Thank you... Master...”

She then glanced at Nux as she crawled towards his feet and placed her forehead on his shoes.

Nux frowned when he saw her acting like that, he wanted to step back but Felberta placed her hand on his back secretly.

He glanced at her and saw her shaking her head.

Nux nodded and stood where he was.

“Good”

“W-What did you d-do to us?”

Seeing What Ash was doing, Lona knew the pain she experienced was a lot stronger than they thought and questioned. This time, however, her tone was a tamer than before.

“As I said, I did nothing, it is you guys who agree to become my slaves. Remember, I can see through your thoughts, the moment you guys think about betraying me, I’ll make sure you suffer the pain far worse than you can ever imagine and the pain would keep increasing till you throw that thought out of your mind

In other words, do what I tell you to do, be obedient, and you won’t face any problems. Is that clear?”

Nux replied and then questioned.

“Yes”

“That’s yes Master for you”

“Yes M-Master”

“Ash, now stand up”

No matter how tired she was as if his command was a divine order, Ash’s body stood up and stood beside the other assassins.

Seeing the four Master Stage Slaves standing in front of him, Nux smiled in contentment.

These weren’t normal Master Stage Cultivators, they were the strongest of the batch. With them, he can easily defeat an Earl House without even doing anything.

However, this time, his target wasn’t a mere Earl House...

His eyes then turned cold before he glanced at the assassins and questioned.

“Tell me everything you know about the Bannermane and Hardwick house.”

...

Author’s Note: My other book is already on the 3rd position!

Yeah!!

Here, I’ll start with the extra chapters!!

However, don’t rest!

Keep the PS coming there!!

WWAAAHHHH!!!

Chapter 87

Author's Note: 60 more ps needed for second place, 90 more for the 1st one.

Of course, this might increase if other books get more, so yeah. i will count on you guys.

GIMME POWWAAA!!

...

...

“Tell me everything you know about the Bannermane and Hardwick house,” Nux questioned as his eyes turned cold.

First, they attacked Edda. That was already too much, and now they even dared to attack Fel!?

Now that is too too too much.

He needs to show them that he isn't easy to bully.

However, he would need to learn how strong the two noble houses are, he can't be rash.

“The leader of the Bannermane House, Alger Bannermane is at Initial Grand Master Stage, the same is for the Hardwick House leader. However, the latter is a little stronger.”

Before Lona could think how to reply, her mouth moved on her own and her eyes widened in horror.

‘T-This is too scary!!’ Lona thought inwardly... her thoughts about being loyal to her new master strengthened even more. e

“Hmm? Just an Initial Grand Master Stage? Heh, then it will be too easy” Nux smiled as he already formed different plans on how to deal with him.

Edda, Felberta, Skyla, Lane, and the other assassins’ lips twitched at his response.

What do you mean ‘Just an Initial Grand Master Stage’?

He a Grand Master!

A GRAND MASTER!!

Then they quickly remembered how abnormal he is and just shook their head.

‘Yup, as expected, he is an anomaly.’ Felberta confirmed her thoughts again.

She mustn’t think of him like a normal person.

“No, master. It isn’t that simple. The Kingdom of Skadi is behind the 2 houses and has sent a group of assassins for them to use. As you already know, we are the said assassins. If these houses are attacked, these assassins will fight with their life and it will be troublesome for you to fight them.”

Although she was not questioned about this, Ash decided to share extra and important information as a way to show her loyalty.

The immense pain that was way more painful than any torture she has ever been through had left a deep mark on her heart.

“Kingdom of Skadi”

Edda and Felberta muttered at the same time... They then glanced at each other and chuckled.

“Oh? Then who is the strongest amongst you assassins?”

Nux however, completely ignored the extra information.

He just did not care. He wasn't strong enough to care.

Also, he was more interested in the Assassins, Bannermane, and Hardwick Houses.

“I don't know her name but we call her 'One'. The strongest assassin amongst us, she is at the peak of Grand Master Stage, however, it would be a mistake to treat her as a normal Grand Master Stage Cultivator.

She is a Grand Master Stage Cultivator who has assassinated 3 Expert Stage Cultivators in the past so I believe it would best if we treat her as an Expert Stage Cultivator”

Ash replied, pouring out all her thoughts and betraying the teammates she once swore to never betray.

Although Lona, Nash, and Aldora felt a little weird, they quickly understood that they don't have a choice as well.

They weren't scared if Nux could or will take their life, however, they were scared of that hellish looking pain Ash has been through.

Also, their body moves on their own whenever Nux wants anything, so they can't really hide anything either.

And if that was the case, they might as well be loyal to him from their heart. At least they won't have to go through torture or be worried about their life.

“Hmm... an Expert Stage... this might be a little troublesome...” Nux muttered inwardly.

He was sure he could take on an Expert Stage Cultivator and might even defeat her, but if he was surrounded by other Cultivators at the same time, the odds weren't in his favour.

It seems like he has to wait before he could take his revenge.

Well, it was not like he was in a hurry either.

He wouldn't risk his life.

“I have something in my mind that might work.”

Just as Nux was about to give up and postpone the plan, Felberta's voice sounded.

Nux then turned towards her and seeing a weird light that was shining in her eyes, he questioned.

“What is it?”

“Well, I have 2 ways to deal with it actually but you might not want to use the 1st method.”

Felberta muttered.

A wry smile then appeared on Nux's face as he questioned,

“Is the 1st method you are talking about sneaking in and killing the ‘One’ she mentioned?”

Felberta smiled back as she nodded.

Nux then shook his head and continued,

“Leave it, tell me the second method, I am sure you must have thought something”

It was not like Nux can't deal with the Expert Stage Assassin, he could easily use his [Conceal] to follow these assassins, and once they meet ‘One’, he could kill her and then deal with other assassins.

However, Nux did not want to use this method.

He has just witnessed how scary and great his Slave Seal is. If used correctly, this ability can help him tremendously.

These assassins are a strong force...

If he could get them under him... he would be a step closer to his actual goal.

Of course, his main aim was that 'One'

A peak Grand Master Stage Cultivator, if he can get her as his slave, how much will his strength improve?

Also, who doesn't want an Assassin Slave, ready to do whatever he orders her to?

Nux did!

And seemingly seeing through his thoughts, Felberta came up with her 'Second' method.

"Do you remember when I told you that someone asked me for Bannerman House's information?"

Her words attracted Nux's attention and he nodded.

"I do"

"The actual information he wanted was about..."

Chapter 88

In the Bannermane Mansion, Alger was walking around nervously while a woman wearing black clothes was standing in front of him.

“Ugghh! Why are they not here yet? How long will it take?”

This was the 11th time he asked that question and this time, the woman, who was always ignoring him couldn't hold out any more and snapped.

“What the hell is wrong with you!? Assassination is a work of patience, not to mention that they have to kidnap someone as well. Also, it has only been an hour since they left you idiot! Now stop moving around like a bug!”

Alger then paused as he glared at the woman in front of him,

“Don't talk to me like that, I am not your subordinate.”

He replied in a threatening tone.

“Oh yeah? Well I am not your subordinate as well, so stop annoying me”

The woman threatened back, her voice sending chills down to Alger's spine. However, he controlled his fear and gained some confidence as he replied.

“What would you do if I don't? No, let me rephrase, what can you do if I don't?”

The woman's gaze turned cold, her icy blue eyes glared at Alger and before he could react, a dagger was placed in front of his neck.

“Don't think you can talk to me like that just because you are a useful pawn for the kingdom. Remember, pawns are always the first ones to be sacrificed. Although a pawn dying without fulfilling his role hurts, it is not to the extent that the kingdom would take any action themselves.

So don't think I can not kill you because of the kingdom. Am I clear?"

Her threatening voice was so cold that Alger's scalp went numb.

The icy cold eyes that shined menacingly told him that she wasn't fooling around.

One more word and he will die.

*Gulp*

Alger gulped audibly and nodded.

"Good, and don't disturb me for today"

Saying that, the woman turned around and left.

Only after she left the hall did Alger's stiff body return to normal. He then took a few deep breaths to calm his racing heart.

Then his gaze turned cold and a green-black dagger appeared in his hand.

"Should I do it?" Alger muttered.

Soon, however, he shook his head and calmed down.

The woman wasn't alone, if anything happened to her, all those assassins might come after him.

He then stored his dagger inside his Space Ring and sighed.

"Let's just take a bath"

Alger muttered to himself before he walked into his bathroom.

...

After his bath, Alger was sitting at his dining table, along with his wife and 7 consorts. A servant then walked over before he put some food on the table and ate it in front of everyone.

Alger nodded and the servant started putting food on everyone's plates.

“Alright, let's start”

Alger ordered and everyone started eating.

...

After the dinner, Alger wanted to spend some time with his harem, but when he remembered that the assassins still haven't returned yet, his mood worsened and he just walked into his room to have some rest.

He then jumped onto his soft bed and soon, he entered the dreamland at an astonishing quick speed.

While Alger was sleeping peacefully without the care of the world, he did not notice a pair of captivating golden eyes watching his every movement.

Suddenly, a figure wearing skintight black clothes and a black mask that covered his nose and mouth appeared in front of his bed. The figure then took his Space Ring and a green-black dagger appeared in the figure's hand.

*Slap*

He then walked towards Alger and slapped his face.

*Bam*

Alger's body flew out before it crashed with the wall. He quickly woke up and looked around, but he couldn't see anyone.

His brows furrowed as he stood up, just as he was about to call his servant, an intense pain assaulted him on his right leg.

‘AAAGGhhhhhH!’

He saw a big, deep cut on his calf as blood flowed out uncontrollably. He then finally saw a figure wearing black clothes, carrying a familiar dagger in his hands looking at him with his exquisite golden eyes.

“Wow, this dagger is really great. It’s already showing its effect”

Alger then heard his joyful voice and he quickly understood what that numbing feeling on his calf was.

That dagger in the man’s hand wasn’t just a familiar dagger, it was his dagger!

How did he get his hand on it!?

He then looked at his hand and noticed that his ring was gone! Alger then thought of a possibility and his eyes widened.

“Yes, you are right, I poisoned your food. The Strangler, if you know about it”

Alger’s eyes widened in horror when he saw the poison the man carried in his hand.

“Oh! It seems you know about it!

Maannan, it is really a ruthless poison huh... first it makes the target fall into a deep sleep, and when he wakes up, he won’t be able to speak anything for the next hour... Giving an assassin all the time he needs to kill the target...”

“Also... your dagger is pretty cool. A peak 5-star dagger, with a numbing effect on the target, with that slash on your calf, your whole leg must be numb now, closing all your paths for running away.”

“Hmmm? Bruh, I just noticed, you are in a really bad position, aren’t you? Can’t run away, can’t call for help... completely at my mercy... If I were you, I would pray to the god that I am not a bad person.”

The more the man spoke, the more fear Alger felt.

‘Who is he!?’

As if reading his mind, the man smiled and answered,

“Oh, you must be wondering who I am right?”

He then lowered his mask and Alger’s eyes widened.

‘Dio- No! He is that Nux!

Nux Leander!’

Chapter 89

Outside the room, Alger's butler was rushing into Alger's room since he heard the sound of crashing, however, a servant then appeared in front of him.

"You can't go in there"

"Clif, what are you doing? Why are you stopping me? Also, as Marquees Alger's personnel guard, shouldn't you rush in and check what happened as well? Why are you still here?"

"Nothing is happening inside; I don't want to stop you. I am just fulfilling Marquees Alger's wish. He says he doesn't want to be disturbed.

Also, the voice you heard was him throwing around a fit, he seems really angry."

"Angry? About what?"

Clif then gave him a blank look as he replied,

"How would I know?"

"True..."

"Now look, I don't care about you, but I still want to live. So if you want to go inside, just knock me unconscious, else I won't let you"

"Uggh... okay, I will leave. By your expression, he must be really angry huh..."

"Yes, I don't know what happened bu-"

*Smash*

Another sound came out of the room and the Butler was sure that a vase must have been broken.

“Yeah... I don't want to go inside either...”

“Mmhm”

Clif nodded however, if the butler was a little observant, he would have seen a small sigh of relief he released.

...

If the butler had entered the room, he would see that rather than Marques 'throwing around a fit', it was the Marques who was being thrown around here and there.

After confirming who his assailant was, the Marquees gained some confidence and noticed that Nux was just a Master Stage Cultivator.

A big smile then appeared on his face.

Although he might be injured and his right leg might not be working properly, it was still easy for him to defeat a Master Stage Cultivator.

He was a Grand Master Stage Cultivator, after all.

With the newly gained confidence, he stumbled but then balanced his body as he dashed towards Nux.

*Slap*

However, what he foresaw did not happen, rather, Nux just sent him flying with one slap!

And he made it look so effortless!

*Smash*

*Cough*

His body then smashed at his favourite vase, and the Marquees coughed out some blood.

“Tsk Tsk, do you really think I would have appeared in front of you and then wake you up with a slap if I wasn’t sure enough to beat you? Use your brain, you idiot.

Oh, if you were expecting that someone would enter the room due to the sound, forget that. Everyone outside knows that ‘Marquees Alger is throwing around a fit in anger’” Nux spoke nonchalantly as he crushed his dreams.

Alger’s eyes widened in surprise in horror, although he believe that he could defeat this man alone, for double security, he still wanted his guards to enter the room.

However, Nux word’s poured cold water on his dreams.

He then saw Nux walking toward him with a smile, the dagger he was holding was shining brightly. (Oh, right, I will upload the dagger’s picture in the auxiliary chapter. Well, I will upload it here as well, so you lazy bums wouldn’t have to move too much)

Nux then appeared behind him and before he could react, he slashed his left calf.

‘AAAghhhhh’

Marquees let out a painful shriek in his mind, soon, however, he felt a numbing sensation all over his leg and the pain started to decrease. Of course, it wasn’t something to be happy about!

With this, both of his legs won’t work for a while!

He is completely helpless at the moment!

“Hehe~ Now let’s see, how do I start this...

First, you send someone behind my perverted maid, Edda. That calls for one limb.

Then, you were even bold enough to attack my beautiful Fel. That calls for 2 more limbs.

That means I will sever your 2 hands and 1 leg...

Ah, don't think I will use your dagger for it, I'll use a simple steel sword, since our body is really strong, it would need me quite a few moves to sever even one of your limbs, so let's not waste any more time, okay?"

Alger's eyes widened in horror and fear! His body started trembling, he wanted to beg for mercy, he wanted to say that he would do whatever he wants, but he could not.

However, Nux seems to know to mind-read as he quickly suggested his next offer.

"Well, if I am being honest with you and you can also judge it from my face as well.

I am a refined and handsome person; I don't like being a bloodthirsty maniac, so I will present you with another offer.

We can stop all of this torture if you accept being my slave. What do you say?"

Suddenly, Alger's movement stopped.

'Slave?

His slave?

How will he ensure my loyalty?

Will he poison me and then keep the antidote with him?

Yeah, that must be it!

No worries, I can find a potion maker who will make the antidote... right now, my life is much more important'

Seeing the determined light that showed in his eyes, Nux smiled as he questioned.

“So, Alger Bannermane, are you willing to be my Slave?”

Alger nodded with a determined face, and soon, he felt a peculiar energy entering her body.

‘Not good’

Although he did not know what this energy was, matching it with the timing, he knew it wasn't something good. However, before he could think much, Nux suddenly forced a potion into his mouth.

“This is the antidote of Strangler, now take your ring and find some antidote for this dagger”

Alger furrowed his brows, a few seconds later, he could feel that he could now speak, he wanted to scream and call for his guards, but just as that thought appeared.

An intense pain assaulted his head.

“AA-”

“Don't shout, shut your mouth”

Alger wanted to shout but his mouth closed automatically and even his throat refused to let out a muffled scream.

The intense pain continued to assault his head, and it kept increasing. However, the worst part was that he couldn't even scream!

‘AAAAGHHGGHHHHHH!!!’

Poor Marquees Alger...

Chapter 90

“Remove the thoughts about betraying me out of your head and the pain will subside”

After torturing him for a good 15 minutes, Nux suggested.

After what could be said the worse pain he ever experienced, Alger heard Nux’s next words and quickly did as he was told.

Actually, Nux found out that once the pain starts, the target doesn’t have the time to think about betraying him or anything along those lines since the pain is already too much.

The requirement is to be loyal to him. Once the target thinks about being loyal to him, the pain will subside.

Of course, when assaulted with that level of pain, no one would be able to think about anything, and the pain will continue until someone tells the target to be loyal to Nux.

Nux could stop the pain, but he wanted to torture him a little as a punishment for attacking Edda and Fel.

‘Haah... haa... haahh...’

Alger breathed heavily after the pain subsided.

“Now stay loyal to me. If you even think about betraying me, the pain will return and it will be even more powerful than before. Remember that”

Alger’s whole body shuddered in fear when he heard him.

Betraying Nu- Master?

No way, he will become the most loyal servant the world has ever seen.

If his Master wants him to do anything, he would do it. Even if it costs him his life!

He just doesn't want to bear that horrifying pain again.

“Y-Yes Master”

“Good, now take the antidote and cure your numb legs”

“There is no antidote for this Master. The numbness will subside within 30 minutes”

“Haah... whatever. Just stay on the floor then”

Saying that, Nux took back Alger's ring again and stored everything in his inventory before throwing it back at him.

He then lay on Alger's bed comfortably as he questioned.

“So, where does that ‘One’ live?”

“One? She and her assassins live in the back of the mansion. However, master, I will warn you though, One has killed a few Expert Stage Cultivators, so be careful around her.”

Although Alger wanted to ask how he learned about One, as a loyal servant, he did not and just answered his question. However, he still warned his Master about how strong the woman he was asking about is.

Nux nodded before he closed his eyes and waited.

‘How was it? Success?’

Suddenly, he heard Fel's voice in his mind.

‘Yes, he is now under me’

‘Good, now let's discuss the second part again to make sure it doesn't fail’

‘Yes’

Nux smiled as he, Skyla, Lane, Fel, and Edda discussed the next plan. Well, only Fel and Nux were discussing, the other three were just silent and saying a few words a few times.

...

Half an hour later, Alger’s numb legs returned to normal. Since he had already taken a few healing potions, the cuts in his legs were almost healed as well.

At the very least, he could stand up and move around now.

However, seeing Nux ‘sleeping’ on his bed, he thought about dealing a killing blow, but the horrifying pain returned.

This time, however, he quickly removed the thoughts about betraying him and replaced them with him being loyal to him and the pain subsided.

He didn’t scream in pain since he did not want Nux to know about him thinking about betraying him. This also ensured him that whatever N-Master said before was right, the pain will return every time he thinks about betraying him even if the Master himself is sleeping.

This solidified his resolution to remain loyal even further.

“Master, I am healed now”

He then called him out politely.

Nux’s eyes opened as he woke up. He then glanced at Alger standing beside him with a respectful look on his face.

“Now, tell me about your personnel army, is it also under the control of the Kingdom of Skadi?”

Alger was surprised that his Master knew the name kingdom supporting him.

One had to know, even the Thousand Information Chamber doesn't know the name of the kingdom.

How did he know?

However, although he was surprised, his body moved on its own and answered the Master's question.

“No, my army is under my control”

Baron, Viscount, and Earl aren't allowed to keep their private armies, however, the same is not true for Marquees and Dukes, these two noble ranks have the permission to keep their private army that listens to their orders.

Of course, they are required to tell the name of every single soldier and his cultivation stage to the kingdom. If somehow, a soldier whose name is not mentioned is found, the punishments are very harsh.

“Alright, take me to your general or whatever is the highest position”

“As you command, Master”

...

The two of them walked towards the head of the Bannermane army's room.

Yes, since he was the Head of the army, he was required to stay in the mansion. Not that he complained either, the room he and his family was provided with was very lavish and safe, so he was happy to oblige.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Alger then knocked on the door, actually, he always calls him through a servant whenever he needs but since Nux has ordered him to take him there, he obliged to like the obedient servant he was.

“Hm? Marquees Alger? What brings you here in the night?”

The head of the army, Hawk Reed, opened the door as he questioned.

Nux could feel that he was a Late Master Stage Cultivator without using his [Eye Of Discerning] and nodded.

Then without wasting any time, he asked what he was here for.

“Hawk Reed, are you willing to be my Slave?”

Chapter 91

“Hawk Reed, are you willing to be my Slave?”

Countless questions appeared in Hawk’s mind, but the first and the most prominent one was,

Who the hell is this person?

However, before he could ponder much about the things, Alger’s angry voice sounded.

“What the hell are you thinking about? Answer the damn question! Do you even know who the master is!? You are making him wait!”

‘Master?’

A new thought appeared inside Hawk’s mind. He already knew that there was someone powerful who supported Marquees Alger from the shadows. Is this person sent by them? That is the only reason Alger will respect him so much.

He then glanced at the masked man who looked more like an assassin but did not think too much about it.

“Hawk Reed, are you willing to be my Slave?”

Not willing to wait any longer, Nux questioned again. This time, his tone was stricter.

‘Is he asking me to work for him? Hmm, that’s a weird way to put it... Well, whatever.’

“Yes”

As soon as Hawk replied, he felt a peculiar energy entering his body. He then frowned and thought about what this energy was before he glanced at Nux. He did not know what it was, but from the timing, he was sure that it has something to do with Nux.

“You don’t have to think too much about it, just be loyal to me and everything will be fine”

However, rather than explaining, Nux turned around and left.

...

Nux did the same thing with some other high ranking members of the Bannerman Army, and while he was at it, he questioned.

“Alger, do you have any enemy amongst the nobles? A Marquess or a higher rank would be better. A person who will give his all to get rid of you.”

“Master, I recently made an enemy out of Marquess Longe. He will do anything he can to kill me, even if it costs him his title as noble”

Nux frowned, he had heard this name before he just did not remember where. However, he soon shrugged his shoulders in nonchalance, it wasn’t important right now. He will think about it later.

“Why is he so adamant about killing you?”

“Well, I bribed his head guard and tried to kill his son in the bloodhill wilderness, but the boy was saved by someone and the Marquess learned about my plan.

“Ahh... so that’s him”

Nux quickly realized why it sounded so familiar. He was the father of that boy he saved in the wilderness.

“That boy actually survived huh...”

“Master?”

“Nothing, let’s just continue”

...

Two hours later, Nux prepared everything and his face turned solemn. It was now the time for the final step. Although he wasn’t really scared, he still wanted his plan to succeed.

His gaze then moved in a certain direction as he then glanced at Alger, who nodded his head as well.

The two of them walked in a certain direction of the mansion, and then a wide, dark hallway appeared.

It looked very spooky.

The further they walked, the darker it got, however, with his [Sense], Nux had no problem with his vision.

Alger has already told him that there are no guards here. It were the assassins who told him not to place any guards.

It affects their movement they say.

Soon, Nux and Alger appeared in front of a simple wooden door and the two of them nodded to each other.

*Bam*

Nux then wrapped his arm around Alger’s neck before he kicked the door open and entered.

As soon as the door was slammed open, more than 20 assassins wearing skin-tight black clothes and masks appeared in front of Nux and Alger.

“Soldiers of Bannermane House, don’t waste your life pointlessly and surrender. Your Marquess dared to try and harm our young master in the wilderness, he will have to pay.

But I know you are just soldiers and are innocent. I am a good man, surrender and I will let you live. However, I am warning you beforehand, don't try doing anything funny because you are already surrounded by our army..”

*Stomp* *Stomp* *Stomp*

“Hyaaaaa!!”

As soon as he said that, countless stomps and soldiers' excited roars were heard, signalling that they were indeed surrounded.

‘One’, the leader of these assassins, looked at Nux with her icy blue eyes. She was quick to notice a few words he said.

First, he called them soldiers, not assassins. So most probably, the man does not know about the kingdom supporting them.

She then glanced at Alger and his mouth moved.

‘I have a plan’

One's mouth twitched in frustration.

This man was using them to get rid of his enemies!

The thing about harming our young master, he must be talking about Marquee's son. Then this must be a Marquee's attack, and Alger knows that if he uses his army, the loss will be terrible. He was using them to avoid his loss.

However, she still did not understand one thing.

If they fight with these soldiers, the commotion will ensue, and after they win easily, the kingdom will learn about their strength, however, the names and cultivation of the soldiers they submitted weren't supposed to have this sort of strength...

This will put them under the eyes of the kingdom, and their movement will be severely restricted. What is this man thinking? Is he trying to betray the kingdom?

No, he cannot, he will be killed for betraying the SkyFall kingdom as well...

She then glanced at Alger and he repeated the same words he did before.

‘Trust me, I have a plan’

Chapter 92

While 'One' was looking around, thinking about every possibility and also planning her next moves, Nux was also looking at her with his [Eye Of Discerning]

[Name: Thyra Cruse]

[Age: 44 ]

[Mana Cultivation: Grand Master.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal. ]

[Race: Human ]

[Occupation: Assassin of Bannermane House]

[Talent: High]

[LVL: 49]

[HP: 600/600]

[MP: 860/860]

[STR: 59]

[AGL: 66]

[VIT: 60]

[STM: 61]

[INT: 86]

[DEF: 53]

...

‘Thyra... She’s almost at the Expert Stage. Strong... I might be able to defeat her, but with all these assassins around, it will make things tougher...

‘I need high-level skills...’

Nux then shook his head; he was on a mission right now. He should not think about things like these.

“Soldiers of Bannermane house, surrender”

Thyra then glanced at Alger and he mouthed.

‘Do what he says’

‘He won’t be able to live if he betrays kingdom either... I don’t think he is stupid enough to risk offending both kingdoms at the same time.’

After thinking for while, Thyra decided to trust him and stepped forward with both of her hands in the air, signalling her surrender.

Seeing their leader, the other assassins also raised their hand in the air and surrendered.

“Good, now let me ask you guys again, are you all willing to be my slaves?”

Thyra frowned as she noticed the change in the question, she then glanced at Alger who was looking at her while nodding with a serious expression.

“Hey! What are you two signalling each other for!? You think you can fool me!? I will ask you again, are you all willing to be my slaves? If your answer does not please me, I will kill every one of you”

Suddenly, Nux ‘noticed’ Thyra and Alger talking with each other and then placed a dagger on Alger’s neck.

Alger's eyes widened as he glanced at Thyra, although he did not say anything, it was clear that he was requesting her to continue her act.

Thyra also did not want to fight the army surrounding them. Since she didn't have much time to think, she nodded and replied.

“Yes, I am”

“Yes, we are”

Seeing their leader, other assassins also nodded. Suddenly, the assassins felt some weird energy entering their bodies but before they could think what it was, Nux's was sounded.

“You, you and you, I didn't hear your approvals. Are you willing to be my Slaves?”

This time, Thyra felt something was wrong, but before she could say anything, she heard a voice in her mind.

‘Stay silent and do not do anything. Just stand there like others’

As if she had lost control of her body, Thyra was unable to move her body and just stood there.

The assassins Nux pointed at were first surprised that he noticed that they did not say yes in this crowd before looking at ‘One’ to ask what she wants them to do.

‘Nod’

Nux's voice sounded in Thyra's head, her body moved on her own and she nodded.

“Yes we are”

The three of them approved as well and then sensed the energy entering their body.

After accomplishing his goal, a big smile appeared on his face. Nux then released Alger and he stood straight with his head down.

Nux then glanced at his status and smiled even more. Today, he had gained more than 30 slaves.

“Good, now let’s see my gains”

He muttered out loud as he started counting how many assassins there were.

The assassins frowned when they saw that he released Marquees Alger.

Wasn’t he supposed to be his defence here? And why is Marquees Alger standing there like a servant? Why is he not running towards them so he can be safe?

“AAAGGHHhhhhh!!”

However, before they could think too much, 2 assassins fell to the ground as they howled in pain. Their screams send shivers down the other assassins’ spines.

Like the 3 assassins before, all of them were tortured and were pretty much numb to pain. They have never seen their partners scream like that for years and seeing them grabbing their heads, and rolling on the ground while screaming like that.

They felt fear.

Thyra, though not afraid, she was still surprised, her eyes then fell on Nux who was looking at the two of them with cold eyes.

Since this was not the first time he has seen people screaming and howling like that, Nux wasn’t as surprised as before and managed to keep a straight, cold look on his face.

“What have you done to them?”

Thyra questioned.

“Hmm? I was standing here from the start, what could I have done?”

“Just tell me what you did and don’t annoy me, or else your end won’t be good” She threatened.

Nux blinked in surprise when he heard her.

‘Why isn’t she feeling any pain?’

He questioned inwardly. Did his ability not work on Grand Masters? No, it worked on Alger. Then what is happening... Feeling that he should analyze it a little more, he continued.

“Oh? You think you can defeat me?”

“Don’t think hiding behind Alger will save you from me. If you annoy me too much, I will kill you even if that results in Alger getting killed”

“Haah, you really think you can kill me? I’ll like to you try” Nux challenged with a smirk.

Thyra’s icy blue eyes turned cold but just as her hand moved towards her dagger, agonizing pain assaulted her head and even her, a cold-blooded assassin, fell to the ground as he shrieked in pain.

“AAAGGHHHHhhhhh!!!”

Seeing their leader screaming in pain just like the other two assassins, the other assassin’s eyes widened in horror.

Thyra however, did not lose her mind like others, with whatever little thinking ability she was left with, she tried to bite the poison pill she had in her mouth.

“AAAAGGGGGHHHHHHHHHHHHH!!!”

However, just as she thought about it, the agonizing pain increased to a horrifying degree as the poison pill fell out of her mouth and she kept shrieking in pain.

Chapter 93

“AAAAGGGGGHHHHHHHHHHH!!!!”

Seeing her scream like that, and then noticing the pill that fell from her mouth, Nux quickly understood what happened.

She tried to kill herself, for a slave, killing themselves without their master’s permission is not different from betraying them.

Since she tried to betray her master, the pain she felt increased by several folds.

Nux did not know how terrible this pain was; he just walked toward her and muttered.

“Stay loyal to me and the pain will subside”

The words ‘pain will subside’ echoed inside Thyra’s mind, she quickly threw all the thoughts about killing herself or attacking Nux and finally felt the pain subsiding.

“Haah... ha... haa...” She then closed her eyes as her whole body trembled.

“All of you, throw the pills you have in your mouth and don’t try to kill yourself. Else you might be the next one suffering from this pain” Nux then glanced at the other assassins and ordered.

Seeing ‘One’ lying on that ground, completely defeated, the assassins felt weird, however, their body did as Nux ordered and they all spat out the poison pill they had in their mouth.

“Good”

Nux then glanced at the two other assassins who were screaming in pain and told them the same thing he did to Thyra.

A while later, Thyra stood up and she glanced at Nux with an expressionless and tired face, Nux glanced at her curiously as he questioned.

“What happened?”

“You are not with Marquees Longe. You did everything to trick us... even Alger was with you in this act”

“Hm? Why do you think so?” Nux questioned with a smile.

“If Marquees Longe had the power to command someone like you, Alger wouldn't be alive till now.”

“You are sharp”

“I still don't understand a few things”

“What are they?” Nux questioned.

“How did you manage to move your army so close to us without even letting us know?”

“I do not have any army, those were Alger's soldiers.”

Thyra's and the assassins' eyes widened in surprise as they glanced at Alger, who was still standing there with his head bowed. Thyra then shook her head and questioned.

“Why are you after us?”

“You people attacked my Edda and Fel”

“Edda and Fel?”

“The Head Maid Edda and Viscount Felberta”

Nux replied as he removed his mask.

“You are...”

“Nux Leander. The one you send ‘Four’, ‘Five’, ‘Six’, and ‘Seven’ after”

“You advanced to Master Stage.”

“I did”

“Okay, next question, what have you done to us?”

Alger’s ears perked up when he heard that question. He also wished to know what happened to him.

“I turned you all into my slaves. You can’t deny any of my orders from now on. Also, if you even think about betraying me, that intense pain will assault you again. In simple words, your life is mine now.”

Thyra’s body twitched when she thought about the pain she felt.

“How did you do it?” She questioned.

“I can’t tell you that”

“...”

Thyra stayed silent for a while before asking another question.

“Last question, You should know about the kingdom that supports us, are you sure you can go against it?”

“Kingdom of Skadi, I know that. And as for going against it, I don’t have those plans right now, but if we do clash in the future, I am sure that the kingdom won’t come out of it scratch less.”

Hearing his words, Thyra’s icy blue eyes turned cold as she replied,

“You won’t be able to do anything to the kingdom. Although you might control my body, my mind will remain loyal to the kingdom. I will find a way to get back at you and then...”

Kill you”

Again, Nux was surprised, she did not feel any pain when she said those words. Aren't those words equal to betraying the Master? Why isn't she feeling anything?

“Tell me, why aren't you feeling any pain?”

In the end, Nux decided to ask her.

“I don't know how the tortures activates, so I tried to remove the ‘intent’ from my words and it worked”

Nux stared at her blankly and ordered.

“Tell me in simpler words. I don't understand what you just said”

“I removed the ‘intent’ from my word, that means, though I said I will kill you, it is more like a statement, I am not actually thinking about killing you”

Although she did not want to answer him, Thyra's mouth moved on her own as she replied.

Nux blinked in surprise. Although she made it look like it was nothing special, it wasn't as simple as that. This hiding the ‘intent’ thing was not that easy.

Every time you say something, your subconscious mind would think about it. For example, the words, ‘I will kill you’. Your subconscious mind would think about killing even if you try not to. It is more like an involuntary action.

“Can you use this technique to betray me in the future?” Nux questioned.

Thyra screamed in her mind to not reply to it but again, her body moved automatically and she answered.

“I cannot, saying words without the ‘intent’ might be possible, but doing something without ‘intent’ is not. No matter how hard one tries, he can’t hide the ‘intent’ of what he is going to do.”

Thyra gritted her teeth after she answered and seeing the smile that appeared on Nux’s face after her answer, she gritted her teeth even more.

“Heh... then how are you planning to kill me?”

“Don’t worry, in the future, I will find a way to deal with this pathetic magic of yours and will kill you for sure. It’s not like a weak Master Stage cultivator like you can defeat me anyways”

“Wow, you are really good at this, aren’t you?” Nux chuckled; he was very impressed by this Thyra.

“I am not good, it is you who is really bad” Thyra answered with an expressionless face.

Nux’s face twitched at her response and he replied.

“Your mouth is really loud huh. Why don’t I shut that up and put it to good use?”

...

Author’s Note: 14 Hours left for the competition.

We are at the 1st, so you can get the 8 extra chapters, however, the second dude isn’t that far away, if he uploads a new chapter, he will surpass me so I don’t know if I will end up at the 1st, or the 2nd place.

However, no matter what place I end up in, I am very thankful to you all for the support you showed me in these past few days.

Thank you very much, and I hope you enjoy the Future chapters!

Chapter 94

“Your mouth is really loud huh. Why don’t I shut that up and put it to good use?”

“What do you mean?” Thyra tilted her head in confusion.

Nux then smiled a little before he turned around and commanded,

“Thyra, follow me”

Thyra’s body moved on its own, but this time, she was surprised by another thing,

“How do you know my name?”

She was sure that not even other assassins and Alger knows her name, then where did he learn it from?

“I have my ways.”

Nux replied with a smile before he turned towards Alger and informed him.

“I will be using your room today, find another one for you”

He did not wait for his response and continued walking, Thyra, who was still wondering how he learned her name also followed behind him.

Seeing their departing figure, Alger couldn’t help but be jealous. He has always dreamed about doing what Nux was about to do to One. But not only will Nux be the one doing it, but he would also even use his bed to do it!

How shameful is that?

His eyes then fell on other assassins, trying to see if anyone is willing to spend a night with him, but when he saw them looking at him with a threatening gaze, his body shuddered.

“Why did you bring him here?”

An assassin stepped out and questioned in anger. If he had not brought that man here, they would still be free and would be working for their kingdom.

Now, not only they will betray their kingdom, they will even do it for a random nobody who is not even Grand Master Stage!

It is only a matter of time before they all get caught and then they will be dealt with.

“Yeah? Do you think you can defy his orders? Why don’t you try it then?”

Alger then retorted.

He was a Grand Master Stage Cultivator, these Advance and Master Stage Cultivators do not have any right to talk to him like that!

The assassin turned silent as well. He has seen ‘one’ screaming in pain, that scream still sends shivers down his spine. He can’t even imagine what sort of pain someone has to go through to scream like that. It easily surpassed all the torture he suffered.

He then glanced at the two assassins who suffered from the same fate of being tortured and noticed that their faces were still a little pale and they were unusually silent, this made him shiver and shivered even more.

However, he was still inwardly jealous of Nux. He do not how beautiful One is, but he was sure of one thing, her body was alluring. Plus that strict and rude attitude of her, he was sure that it would feel good to shut her mouth with his rod.

...

“Remove your mask”

Inside Alger’s room, Nux sat on the bed leisurely and ordered. Again, Thyra’s body moved on its own and she removed her mask. Nux then laid his eyes on her face and admired.

“Wow, to have such a beautiful Grand Master Stage Cultivator as my slave, and you are an assassin to boot. I struck it big huh...”

Thyra was a beautiful fair-skinned woman with short raven hair and Icy blue eyes. She had a small nose and cherry-like lips. She had a lean physique; her breasts were of the same size as Skyla.

Her black coloured clothes contrasted well with her fair skin and icy blue eyes. All in all, she was a really beautiful woman.

“That is true... to have me as your slave, this may have sucked all the good luck you will have in this and all the other lives you will live from now on. Heck, you might even be a lowly beggar in your next life.”

Thyra replied in her usual strict tone.

Nux’s lips twitched at her response as he replied,

“Wow, you are trying really hard to annoy me aren’t you?”

“Hmph!”

“Alright, I believe it is time for me to show you your position”

Then, Nux’s gaze turned cold and he ordered.

“Get on all fours”

Again, Thyra’s body moved on its own and he quickly knelt before placing her hands on the floor as well.

“You see that? On the floor, on all fours, just like a bitch, that is where you belong. That is what you are now, a bitch, my bitch, who will listen to whatever I will say from now on”

Humiliated, Thyra was extremely humiliated, she wanted to move her body and stand up but her body did not listen to her command.

After trying and failing several times, she threw that idea out of her mind and retorted.

“So what if you can command me? I will still not submit to you willingly”

Then a disdainful smirk appeared on Nux’s face and he replied,

“Do you think I care about you submitting me willfully or not? I can command you to do anything. I can ask you to tell me everything. What else would I need?”

Thyra glared at Nux with hatred, she still wasn’t willing to lose to him.

“Hmm? What’s with that gaze? Oh? Do you not believe what I said? How about I give you an example? So let me ask you, will you ever bark like a bitch in front of your previous master?”

“My master is a respectful and dignified person, I will never be ordered to do anything like that”

“Yeah, whatever in the end, the answer is no right? However, if I command you to bark like a bitch you are, you will do it without question.

Would you like to try?”

“ ... ”

“Thyra Cruse, bark like a bitch you are”

...

Author's Note: Yeah yeah, I know a lot of you will not like how Nux is acting rn, tbh, I agree, I do not like it as well.

So don't worry, just read.

You can trust me.

I believe after a ride of 90+ chapters, you guys know me well enough to trust me.

Chapter 95

“Thyra Cruse, bark like a bitch you are”

“Wwarrf”

Thyra’s body moved on its own again and she barked.

However, at this moment, her whole body was trembling in shame and humiliation, and Nux’s next words did not help either.

“A cold, Grand Master Stage Assassin, who is capable enough to kill Expert Stage Cultivators, is barking like a bitch in front of a mere Master Stage Cultivator.

See that? If I can make you do what you will never do in front of anyone, why do I need you to submit to me willingly? There is no merit in that.”

Thyra’s eyes turned red in rage, however...

“AAAGGHHhhhhhH!!”

Just as she thought about attacking him, that intense pain assaulted her again and she fell to the floor.

‘I am loyal.

I am loyal

I am loyal

I am loyal’

Only after thinking about it continuously did the pain subside, and she sighed in relief.

“Alright, this is enough. I don’t have much time to waste. Come here, on all our fours of course” Nux ordered as he patted his thighs.

Thyra’s body moved and she crawled towards him and only stopped when her face was close to his crotch. However, her eyes were still red in rage and she had an extremely repulsed look on her face.

Nux completely ignored her expression as he patted her head and caressed her face with a smile.

“Good good, now lower my pant with your mouth.”

Thyra buried her face in his crotch as she grabbed his pant with her teeth and tried to remove them. All this while, Nux never stopped patting her head, and her repulsed expression never changed.

She tried very hard to deny his command and control her body, but it was all meaningless.

After a few more tries, Thyra finally managed to lower his pant and a huge 8-inch monster popped out.

Seeing a cold-blooded assassin on all her fours like a bitch, doing whatever he wanted, Nux’s emotions were stimulated and his little brother was already ready to go and explore a new cave.

After a blow job of course.

“What a filthy thing”

Thyra muttered in disgust, Nux’s lips twitched but he controlled his emotions and ordered.

“Start licking this ‘filthy thing’ then”

Nux slapped her cheek with his dick a few times before he rubbed it on her cheek. Thyra’s body trembled in disgust but a small tongue moved out from her mouth.

Nux then stopped moving and waited for her to do what he ordered.

With her eyes filled with hatred as she glared at Nux, Thyra started licking his shaft.

“Yes, just like that, lick everything, from the head to the body and then the balls as well, lick it like it is the most delicious thing in this world.”

Again, Thyra’s body started moving on its own and she moved her tongue quickly and continued licking.

The contrast between her licking his shaft greedily and the hatred in her eyes stimulated Nux even more. He doesn’t know why, but this felt amazing.

It was as if he was exploring something new.

It was exciting and thrilling.

“Ughhh~ You are good, I feel like you are a natural at this”

Thyra’s body trembled in anger, she wanted to cut his dick off but knew that if she even thought about it, that agonizing pain would return and torture her.

Her body then shuddered in fear as she continued licking obediently.

She can deal with anything...

Anything but that pain...

“This should be enough, now gobble the whole thing and start sucking”

Thyra’s body moved and she quickly gobbled up his shaft and started sucking.

“Ughhhh~ As I thought you are a natural. With just some training, you will become a fine blowjober.”

Nux praised as waves and waves of pleasure assaulted his body. Thyra on the other hand, did not feel any good from his praises, rather, she got even angrier.

Also, why is he patting her like she's some sort of pet!? She hates it!

“Don't just keep sucking, move your head up and down as well”

Another order was heard and her head started moving.

“Roll your tongue all around my dick, keep sucking, and keep moving your head”

Her body did as she told and a slurping sound echoed throughout the room.

*Slurp* *Slurp* *Slurp*

“Ugghhhhh~~”

Waves and waves of pleasure assaulted Nux's body as he grabbed her head with his hands and increased her speed.

*Slurp* *Slurp* *Slurp*

The slurping voice quickened, the pleasure he felt increased and he felt his milk forming up.

Nux couldn't control himself anymore, he stood up and started moving his hips as well, thrusting his dick deep inside her throat. He did not know any mercy with his thrusts, treating Thyra's mouth like an object.

*Slurp* *Slurp* *Slurp*

The slurping sound increased, and tears welled within Thyra's eyes as she choked.

“Ugghhhhh! I am cumming”

Nux also reached his limit, he moved his dick out of her mouth and sprayed all his jizz on her face.

Thyra's felt even more disgusted by this and was quick to try and clean everything...

However,

“Do not clean it, let my milk stay on your face for this whole night. This will help you remember where you belong and you won't use that worthless mouth of yours to say some useless stuff.”

Her hand that was about to clean her face stopped moving and returned to the floor.

Thyra glared at Nux with eyes full of hatred but that look combined with his jizz on her face only worked to turn him on and his rod stood up again.

Chapter 96

“Heh! Glare all you want, I don’t care. I’ll show you where you belong, you bitch”

Nux’s smirk widened as he ordered.

“Now turn around and show me your ass!”

Thyra’s body trembled but as always, it did what he ordered and turned around before lifting its butt.

A single crystalline tear streamed down from her eyes, her shoulders trembled as she blinked a few times to get rid of the tears welling in.

She would not cry.

Nux however, couldn’t care less about her struggle, he stood up but just as he was about to slam his dick inside her pussy, he heard a voice.

‘What are you doing?’

‘Hm? ...nothing’

He lied.

‘Are you sure?’

Felberta questioned.

‘...Y-yes...’

‘Well, then it’s okay. Although I will say, if you are doing something that you feel you should hide from me, that might not be the best thing to do.’

She could feel his emotions to some extent due to the [Harem Seal] and she did not like what she felt.

Although she isn't planning to control his life, she will still give her advice if she feels he's doing something wrong.

Saying that, Felberta did not reply anymore.

Nux also paused his movements and then noticed Thyra's shoulder trembling. He walked closer as he saw her face and couldn't help but be shocked.

She was crying...

Nux was then assaulted by different emotions.

This was not the same as Edda, she wasn't enjoying it...

He was raping her!

He nearly became what he hated the most.

Nux then closed his eyes as tried to calm his racing heart.

“Sorry. I have gone too far”

A deep sigh came out of his mouth as he apologized.

Thyra turned back as she saw Nux standing with his eyes closed and couldn't help but frown.

‘What happened to him?’

She then saw him opening his eyes and the previous glint that shined inside was nowhere to be seen, there was even a hint of sadness there.

His excited dick had also calmed down. However, before Thyra could think more about it, Nux ordered.

“Go wash your face and clean up. You can take your time but after you are done, return, I still have some things to ask. Don’t worry; I won’t force you to do this again.”

Although his voice sounded calm, Thyra could notice something weird in it. However, since she was disgusted by the thing that was spread on her face, she did not think too much and rushed into the bathroom.

Nux also sighed as he fell on the bed and muttered.

‘Thank you...’

‘Don’t worry, I will always be here for you’

A small smile appeared on Felberta’s face before she closed her eyes and entered her dreamland.

Inside Alger’s room, Nux also closed his eyes as he thought about the past events and the reason why he did that.

‘Hmm... my stay as the Wilderness affected me more than I thought... combining with that rough plays with Edda...’

I have gone overboard...’

Nux then reflected on it a little more and realized that he was too hungry for power.

Thyra was a Grand Master Stage cultivator, if he could fuck her, his power will soar. However, instead of waiting and letting his [Craving Touch] work, he tried to outright **** her, now that is just shameful.

Nux then calmed his mind and breathed evenly as he waited for Thyra to return.

30 minutes later, Thyra returned, her expression was the same cold expression he saw the first time he met her.

Nux then stood up and started,

“I will apologize for what I did before.”

“ ... ”

Thyra did not reply.

Nux had already expected that and he did not really care what she thought either. No matter what, in the end, she was still a slave.

He won't treat her the same way he treats his women. He was just apologizing for his own heart.

Her feelings did not matter to him.

He should at least be this cold now that he was in this new, crueller world.

“Alright, let's get to the business. Are these all the assassins the kingdom sent here?”

Nux questioned.

“No, the kingdom sent a total of 55 assassins, 5 of them died so there are 50 left”

“How strong are these assassins?”

“Including me, there are 3 Grand Master Stage Assassins; I am at the Peak Grand Master Stage, the strongest amongst them. The other two are in the Middle and Early stages. We are named One, Two, and Three.

Then from Four to twenty, we have Master Stage Cultivators, the rest are at Advance Stage. In other words, the lower the number, the stronger the Assassin.”

Nux's eyes widened in surprise when he heard her.

50 Assassins!

3 Grand Masters.

17 Masters.

And 30 Advance Stage Cultivators.

What kind of force is that!?

This is way stronger than a Normal Marquess house. Only Dukes and the Royal Family can take this force on!

And this force will be under him after some time.

Nux smiled in contentment when he thought about it. He had now gained some standing in this world. Although he is still in the shadows, he was now stronger and had more power than an average noble.

Barons, Viscounts, and Earls?

He could take any Marquess' house with ease!

And that too without doing anything by himself.

With eyes filled with anticipation and desire, he turned to Thyra and questioned.

“Where are the rest of the assassins then?”

“They live in Hardwick Mansion.”

Although she knew what he was thinking, and did not like it one bit, she knew her thoughts would not matter and she would have to answer and even help him with what he is about to do.

Thyra sighed at her fate.

She really wanted to kill Alger for targeting this monster's women.

“Alright, we are heading to the Hardwick Mansion, now”

“W-What?”

Chapter 97

“Alright, we are heading to the Hardwick Mansion, now”

“W-What?”

“Did you not hear me? Take me to the Hardwick Mansion”

“B-But, although I can deal with the Two and Three, that does not mean I can deal with every assassin alone, are you thinking about taking all the assassins we have and go for an all-out attack?”

“Huh? Do you think I am stupid? Why would I make my men fight each other and weaken themselves? I will just repeat what I did earlier. The only difference will be that with you here, the process will be a lot simpler.”

Nux shrugged before he stood up.

“What are you waiting for? Lead me”

Actually, even Thyra was curious about how he managed to turn Alger into his slave, now that she is about to witness it again, she couldn't deny that she was looking forward to it.

As for her comrades who were about to become this man's slaves. Well, she couldn't do anything about it no matter how much she thinks about it.

So as not to further torture herself, she decided that she will find some ways to get rid of him later.

He is just a mere Master Stage Cultivator after all.

She then nodded before she turned around and left the room. Nux followed her, and when the two of them left the Bannermane Mansion, he activated his [Conceal] with only Thyra being able to see him.

Thyra did not notice what he did, however, she was surprised by how easily Nux was matching her speed.

As an Assassin, speed was her strong part, she felt annoyed that a mere Master Stage Cultivator was keeping up with her, and he is a hateful one at that.

She then used her skills, and increased her speed to the maximum, however, she was horrified that although not completely, Nux still matched her speed to a great extent!

She was a Peak Grand Master, even a new Expert Stage Cultivator might not be her match in speed!

How is a Master Stage Cultivator matching up with her speed!?

What kind of freak was he!?

“Hmm, I feel like Steps Of Gale is too slow for me now...”

After they appeared in front of Hardwick Mansion, Nux muttered to himself and Thyra froze.

“A-Are you talking about the 1 Star Skill, the Steps Of Gale?”

“Yes, I got it from Fel, but I think it is too low levelled for me now.”

“...”

Thyra stayed silent, however, inwardly, she was having an existential crisis.

‘He is using a 1 Star Skill!? H-How is he keeping up with me then!? I am using a 4 Star Skill! How is he a Master Stage Cultivator!? Is he a hidden Expert Stage Cultivator!?’

A monster!

A complete monster!?’

“Alright let’s not waste more time and enter the Mansion. Lead the way”

Nux ordered and Thyra started moving. Although she did not know how he will enter the Mansion with her, she did not care and just walked into the Mansion.

She had covered her face, but it was not the first time the guards have seen her, so they did not stop her.

She wondered why the guards did not stop Nux but then she concluded that they thought of him as her servant and let him go.

Thyra shook her head as she walked into the mansion and then moved towards a dark hallway.

She noticed that the maids and other guards did not even look at Nux and couldn’t help but smile a little.

‘Hmph! How does it feel to be treated like air by everyone? Huh?’

The two of them then appeared in front of a wooden door that look very similar to the one in the Bannermane Mansion.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

“It is me, One”

The door was then opened and the two of them entered.

However, soon, Thyra realized something.

Just like those maids and guards, the assassins were ignoring Nux as well, but she knows them well, they would never do that.

They might let him enter here since he was with her, but they would still look at them vigilantly, or at least question her about him, or something like that.

Anyways, they would never outright ignore his presence.

Just as she was thinking about what is happening, Nux answered.

“They can’t see me”

“What?” Thyra muttered out loud.

“What?”

‘Two’ questioned with a frown as he looked at Thyra.

“Hm?”

“What are you talking about?” he questioned again, feeling a little weird about her actions.

“Nothing” This time, Thyra was sure. It is as Nux said, no one can see him...

What kind of sorcery was this!?

He is standing right in front of everyone and no one can see him!?

Is he a ghost!?

Then why can she see him!?

“Alright, don’t think too much about it, gather all of them”

Thyra’s mouth moved on her own as she ordered. “Alright, everyone, gather up”

Two frowned when he noticed that she was acting strange but when since she was the strongest, and the leader of this group, he nodded and stood straight. Other assassins were also gathered here and more than 20 assassins assembled around.

“Now question something they would answer with a yes”

Thyra frowned due to the weird order but since she couldn't do anything to go against it, she started thinking and she questioned after some time.

“Have you guys eaten?”

The assassins looked at her weirdly.

Under their judgmental look, Thyra felt strange.

“Question in a stricter tone” Nux ordered.

“I asked have you guys eaten yet.”

Thyra felt even more weird asking a question like that in a strict tone but she felt even weirder when she heard Nux questioning something at the same time as her.

“Are you guys willing to be my slaves?”

Chapter 98

“I asked have you guys eaten yet.”

“Are you guys willing to be my slaves?”

“Yes”

As the assassins answered, a big smile appeared on Nux’s face. Seeing that smile, Thyra also understood what happened. She remembered that they only answered with a yes before that weird energy entered their bodies and that was when everything happened.

‘Haah... I can’t believe such an absurd ability exists.’

Thyra sighed inwardly, however, she then noticed that his smile had faded and was replaced with a frown.

‘It did not work...’

Nux muttered inwardly as he realized that his plan did not work. This proves that he cannot cheat others with this. The target has to know what they are approving of. Just saying yes won’t work.

Nux took note of it and nodded inwardly.

Of course, Nux only treated this as an experiment and knew that it might fail. Therefore, he had already prepared the countermeasures.

Since Plan A failed, he started Plan B.

“Introduce them to me, tell them that I am...”

He then told everything to Thyra before he walked behind ‘Three’ and grabbed her before placing a dagger on her neck.

Why did he not do this with ‘Two’?

Well, who would like to touch a man if there is a woman next to him?

Nux wouldn’t.

As he touched ‘Three’ his [Conceal] wore off and he appeared in front of everybody.

Three couldn’t believe that someone had closed in on her and her body stiffened. The other assassins were also surprised but they quickly recovered and prepared to attack.

“Stop!”

However, before they could move, Thyra’s voice sounded and the assassins looked at her with a frown.

“He won’t harm her. If he wanted to harm us, he would have killed us all by now and we won’t be able to do anything... did you forget? None of you sensed his presence till now.”

Thinking about it a little more, ‘Two’ nodded and shuddered at the same time.

Who was this man?

Why was he unable to sense him?

However, though surprised, his condition wasn’t as bad as three.

She still couldn’t believe that someone sneaked behind her and placed his dagger on her neck and she was unable to do anything.

If this man had wanted to kill her, she wouldn’t have known how she died.

How scary was that!?

Seeing that the assassins had calmed down, Nux released 'Three' from his grasp before he walked in front of the group with his hands behind his back.

“Let me introduce him to you. He is Levi Ackerman, a veteran assassin sent by the Kingdom to train us, also, don't look down on him just because he is at Master Stage Cultivator. He is a lot stronger than that. If you do not believe me, you can challenge him.

Although I will say it beforehand, Master Levi will only fight any one of you, he doesn't have much time and has important things to attend to, so choose wisely.”

“I will fight”

'Three' stepped up.

She was very embarrassed when he appeared behind her and got her in such a helpless position, however, when she noticed he was just a Master Stage Cultivator, her embarrassment turned into anger.

Now that she has a chance to get back at him, she will do her very best to defeat him and wash her embarrassment.

“Alright”

Thyra nodded before she glanced at Nux who nodded back.

Then, a gold coin appeared in his hand as he glanced at Three.

“I will toss this coin up, the moment it falls on the ground, our fight will start.”

Three nodded as well and Nux tossed the coin.

Three then glanced at the coin that was tossed in the air for a second, however, that little second cost her the whole match.

Since her eyes were not on him, Nux quickly activated his [Conceal] and then waited for the coin to fall to the ground.

Three on the other hand panicked when she couldn't see Nux and started looking around vigilantly.

*Kknn*

The coin fell on the ground and Nux started moving towards Three who was still looking around.

He then appeared behind her and placed his dagger near her neck and grabbed her from behind.

“Well, I guess the fight's over”

Nux muttered before he released Three from his grasp.

Three, on the other hand, was frozen stiff as she couldn't believe that she lost so quickly.

“H-How...”

However, Three wasn't the only one surprised, the assassins who did not look at the coin were even more surprised than her.

All they saw was Three acting strangely, and when the coin fell, Nux leisurely walked towards Three before grabbing her from behind.

All this while, Three just looked around and did not move at all...

“T-Three... why didn't you fight him when he walked towards you?”

One of the assassins couldn't control himself and questioned.

“W-What are you talking about? How am I supposed to stop him when I can't even see him?”

“B-But wasn't he just standing right in front of you?”

“In front of me?” Now Three was even more confused.

What the hell was happening here? How could others see him when she could not? What kind of absurd ability is that?

“Alright Alright, stop talking. I don’t have time to waste here. I was sent here by the kingdom since Master thought you would need more training. So you all will be under my control. Is that clear?”

“Yes”

Every assassin answered simultaneously. This time, no one doubted his strength but they were still confused and wondered how he was doing all this.

“Good, now just for confirmation, let me ask you guys again,

Are you all willing to be Slaves?”

Chapter 99

“Are you all willing to be Slaves?”

The assassins felt weird about the change in question but when they glanced at Thyra, who just stood there without saying anything, they did not think too much about it and answered.

“Yes”

Strange energy then entered their bodies and this time, their names finally appeared on the Slave column.

This put a smile on Nux’s face before he glanced at them and activated his [Eye Of Discerning]

While the Nux was examining every assassin, the assassin felt odd and doubted the energy that entered their bodies.

“Did you feel that as well?”

Three questioned Two.

“You did as well? I thought I was not feeling well today...”

“What was that energy?”

“No clue”

“Don’t worry about it, it’s normal”

Thyra assured.

The assassins then nodded, trusting Thyra.

However, the one who they were trusting, Thyra, felt bitter in her heart. She only assured them because she was ordered by Nux!

That energy is not nothing!

It is something that will change their life!

However, she then calmed a little and frowned, technically, these assassins should already be under him, so why is he avoiding talking about his power?

Nux's reasoning was simple.

He just did not want to waste time on this worthless talk since he found something much more interesting than this.

He then glanced at Thyra and questioned.

“Aren't you all spies sent by the Kingdom Of Skadi?”

“Technically, we are assassins, but you can say it like that”

Nux then pointed his finger at a female assassin and questioned.

“What about her? Is she any different than you?”

“Hm? Her? No, she's 'Eleven', she's an assassin just like us”

Thyra answered.

A frown then appeared on Nux's face before he glanced at Eleven and activated his [Eye Of Discerning] again.

[Name: Maida Ayers]

[Age: 54 ]

[Mana Cultivation: Master.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal.]

[Race: Human ]

[Occupation: Spy sent by the Kingdom Of Skadi.]

[Talent: Medium]

[LVL: 35]

[HP: 460/460]

[MP: 600/600]

[STR: 43]

[AGL: 46]

[VIT: 46]

[STM: 38]

[INT: 60]

[DEF: 37]

...

‘A spy? Why is her occupation different than these assassins?’

He then looked into Eleven’s eye and questioned.

“Are you different from these assassins in any way?”

Eleven frowned at this question, however, her mouth moved on its own and replied.

“Yes. I am a Spy”

Soon, Eleven's eyes widened in horror but before she could think too much, Nux questioned again.

“A Spy? What kind of Spy? Who do you Spy on?”

Even Thyra had a frown on her face. As a leader of these assassins, she knew everything about them. However, this was the first time she was hearing something like this.

“A Spy sent by the Kingdom to keep watch on ‘One’. I report every action ‘One’ takes to the kingdom”

Thyra's eyes widened in surprise, however, it wasn't over yet.

“Why do you keep eye on One? Isn't she working for the kingdom?”

“She is but the kingdom does not trust her.”

“An Orphan cannot be trusted with such matters”

Eleven's eyes widened in terror.

She wasn't going to say the last line, she just heard 'Levi's ordering in her head to say it and her body moved on her own.

“W-What...?”

Thyra's eyes widened with shock...

The kingdom she was so loyal to does not trust her at all...

An Orphan cannot be trusted with such matters...

Was she really just that...? All the loyalty, devotion, and love she had shown for the kingdom just amounts to this much?

They actually send a Spy just to keep watch on her?

She was in dismay...

She couldn't believe what she was hearing...

When he saw her reaction, a smile appeared on Nux's face before it disappeared in an instant.

This woman was too loyal, although he used a Slave Seal, he still wanted to win her over so that she will give her all for his ambitions.

Therefore, he came up with a plan when he learned that 'Eleven' is a spy. He did not have to do anything. He just needed to add some fire.

He learned about Thyra being an Orphan when he asked about her background.

And then ordered Eleven to say that line so that it will leave a strong impact on Thyra; with this, he will be able to gain Thyra's loyalty little by little.

Actually, even other assassins, who were orphans as well, had different expressions on their faces, however, Nux did not care about them.

Maybe he cared a little about Two and Three. But the rest of them were just slaves, them having thoughts about betraying him doesn't matter.

He only needs the important ones.

He needs Thyra.

So he planned for it.

A perfect plan.

"W-What have you done to me!?"

While Nux was thinking and admiring how perfect his plan was, Eleven questioned in panic.

"Huh? What do you mean?"

“M-My body moved on its own! Why else do you think will I tell you that I am a spy even if I was one!?”

“Why else? Well, let me show you”

Nux then pointed at another assassin and questioned.

“You, tell me everything about yourself”

The assassin’s mouth moved on its own and he started telling his back story.

“My name is Afton Stonee, I came fro-”

“Yea, yea, that’s enough.”

Before he could even complete it, Nux waved his hand and he stopped.

However, the assassin’s eyes were wide in shock and horror.

“See that? You guys agreed to become my slaves, from now on, you will do whatever I tell you to. Got that?”

However, just as Nux replied, an Assassin fell to the ground and started screaming.

“AAAGGGHHhhhhh!!”

Chapter 100

“AAAGGGHHhhhhh!!”

By now, Nux was already used to seeing this scene and did not feel anything.

“Oh yeah, I forgot to tell you, if you think about betraying me, you will suffer from an agonizing pain so... don't do it”

Thyra's mouth twitched at the laid back explanation, she then calmed her mind and walked towards the assassin who was shrieking in pain.

“Calm down, think about being loyal to him. Keep muttering, ‘I am loyal to him’ in your mind and the pain will subside”

A few seconds later, the assassin who was rolling all over the floor screaming in pain turned silent as he breathed heavily.

Thyra then turned towards assassins and instructed.

“Do not take this lightly; do not think about betraying him. This pain is no joke, trust me, I say it from experience”

“H-have you suffered from this pain?” An assassin questioned.

“I did, and I do not want to go through it again”

“...”

The assassins turned silent.

If even One says that she does not want to go through that pain again... there is no way any one of them would try something funny.

Also, that assassin who is now lying on the ground breathing heavily with a pale face ensured their thoughts.

“Okay, I do not have much time for all this. C’mon, let’s go. Two and Three, you follow me. As for the rest of you, carry on with whatever you were doing. You will get further orders from Two and Three” Nux ordered as he turned around.

However, he then stopped and glanced at Eleven,

“You too, report what you normally do. Just say everything is fine, don’t make them suspicious. Alright?”

She nodded in agreement and Nux turned around.

“Where are we going?”

Thyra questioned.

“To deal with Marquees Hardwick of course.”

Nux replied nonchalantly as he walked out.

When he entered here, he had already sensed his presence, so he knew where he was. Thyra and the other two assassins shrugged as well and followed him.

In their eyes, Marquees Hardwick was a weakling, an untrained brute without any techniques. They were sure that they could defeat him easily even if they fight one on one, let alone three of them together.

Four of them then stepped out as they walked towards Marquees Hardwick’s room. Soon, however, they stopped as they looked at the two guards standing in front of his room and Nux questioned.

“Do you people know the guards?”

“Well, we do but I don’t think they will let us in without alerting him first”

Two answered.

“Meh... too bothersome, wait here, I will deal with them”

Nux then casually walked towards the guards and appeared behind them,

*Bam*

A chop on their necks and... done.

The guards didn't even know how they lost consciousness.

“D-Did that how it looked like when he f-fought me?” Three questioned as she watched the scene in front of her.

She only saw him walking toward the guards, somehow, the guard failed to notice him even though he was right in front of them and he knocked them out.

“Y-Yeah”

Thyra answered, although she has seen this before, it was still as shocking as ever.

“It's ridiculous... he can kill anyone without any effort... He is a perfect assassin” ‘Two’ muttered as he glanced at Nux in a daze.

Nux then deactivated his [Conceal] and then kicked the door open before entering.

‘Damn! I always wanted to do this’ Nux thought inwardly before he shook his head and smiled.

Heath Hardwick, or Marquees Hardwick, who was sleeping calmly was jolted awake and his eyes widened when he saw a man wearing black clothes, with his face covered standing right in front of him.

‘An assassin’

His heartbeat quickened when he realized that the man was an assassin, however, he calmed down a little when he noticed three more familiar assassins entering the room behind him.

“Heath Hardwick, are you willing to be my slave?”

Suddenly, the unfamiliar assassin questioned.

“W-What?” Heath felt that he had heard him wrong and questioned.

“What? Are you deaf or something? I will ask you again, are you willing to be my slave?”

The man repeated, this time his tone was a lot stricter than before.

However, instead of getting afraid, Heath’s eyes turned cold as he roared.

“Who do you think you are!?”

Then without any warning, he took out his 4-star sword and attacked.

The three assassins rejoiced inwardly when they noticed that Nux hasn’t ordered them to defend him. They were hoping that he would get killed by Heath so that they could be free.

Nux of course, did not know their thoughts, if he wanted, he could have directly activated [Conceal] and have dealt with Heath as he did with Alger, but he wanted to take this opportunity to show his strength to his new slaves.

*Clank*

Just as Heath thought he will cut his head off, a green-black coloured dagger appeared in Nux’s hand as he blocked his attack.

“Meh... weak.”

Nux then forced his sword back before slashing Heath’s arm, leaving a deep cut there. The dagger’s paralysis effect triggered and Heath’s entire right hand turned numb within seconds.

“T-This dagger!”

“Yeah, that’s your boyfriend’s. Oh right, he is also my slave, so you can enjoy his company after you become one as well”

*Bam*

*Smash*

He then kicked Heath’s chest and his body flew back before clashing with a wall.

One, Two, and Three, who were looking at this scene had wide eyes...

What is happening?

How is the defeating a Grand Master Stage Cultivator even though he is just a Master Stage Cultivator?

And why does it feel so effortless?

Heck, he hasn’t even used the ability where he turns invisible!

Marquees Heath could see him very well!

That means he is still holding back!

What kind of monster is he!?

“Alright, let’s not waste more time, Heath Hardwick, are you willing to become my Slave?” Nux did not seem to care about what these assassins were thinking, he casually walked towards Heath as he placed his foot on his head and questioned.

Heath then raised his head as he glared at Nux and replied.

“In your drea- Ugghh!”

Before he could even complete it, Nux kicked his head as if it was a football.

“Hmm, it feels like your willpower is stronger than Alger’s, he submitted when he lost 3 fingers, I don’t know if that was cowardly or smart...

But let’s see how many fingers would I have to cut off before you submit.

This should be an interesting experiment...”

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face.

Chapter 101

“Hmm, it feels like your willpower is stronger than Alger’s, he submitted when he lost 3 fingers, I don’t know if that was cowardly or smart...

Let’s see how many fingers would I have to cut off before you submit.

This should be an interesting experiment...”

Seeing the disdainful look in his eyes, Heath knew he wasn’t kidding. The dagger’s numbing effect has already started its effect and he can’t move his arm anymore.

Even if he could, there was no way he would have won against this man. He had somehow gained a little confidence when he saw his cultivation was only at Master Stage.

But this man is a monster!

Even though he was just at Master Stage, the way he fought and overpowered him made it look like he was an Expert Stage Cultivator!

What a Freak!

However, as a Marquee, how could Heath be willing to be someone’s slave?

His eyes then fell on the three assassins following this man and his eyes brightened.

“What are you three doing!? Why aren’t you saving me!? Although he might be a little strong, I believe with the three of you working together, you can deal with him!

One! You can even kill Expert Stage Cultivators right!? Then why aren’t you fighting him!? Could it be that you are afraid of a Master Stage Cultivator?”

“ ... ”

An unusual silence descended on the room after Heath's words.

“ ... ”

“...Are you... dumb?”

Nux questioned with a confused look on his face, did he hit his head too hard?

“W-What?”

“Can't you see they are following me? Look how they are standing, does it look like they even intend to stop me? No right? Of course not. Why would they stop me? They are my slaves as well”

“Y-Your Slaves?”

“Yes, One, Two, Three, all fifty of them, Alger as well, all of them are my Slaves. Only you are left.

Do you understand it now? Don't think I won't kill you because I want you as my slave, if worse come to worse, you will die while being tortured and I will find someone to replace you as the new head of this Marqueses house.

Your greatest trump card is already mine, so it doesn't matter if you give up or not. You'll just increase my work a little, that's it.”

Seeing that nonchalant attitude, Heath's will to resist him dimmed.

It was true, his trump card, the assassins were already under him, and he was pretty much worthless.

His only worth was that he was needed as a 'face', the head of a Marqueses house my ass, that was only a title and it is very easy to replace a 'face'.

“A-Are you from the kingdom?”

Heath questioned.

With the assassins on his side, he had already given up. He just wanted to confirm something.

“Yes. The kingdom send me since your progress wasn’t on par with our expectation.”

Then without wasting any time, Nux took out a normal dagger before placing it on his index finger.

“Well, this will be the last time I will ask this without hurting you, are you willing to be Slave?”

Heath’s face twitched, ‘Without hurting you my ass! I can’t move my right hand, and my head is still hurting from that kick! How dare you say without hurting me!?’

However, he did not say that out loud and quickly gave up.

“Yes, I am willing to be your slave”

“Good”

A smile appeared on Nux’s face when he heard him, he then finally removed his mask and took a deep breath.

“Haahh... it’s finally done. What a long night...”

“Y-You...”

However, just after he revealed his face, Heath was given another shock.

He recognized that face...

He was...

“Nux Leander. You sent your assassins after me and my Edda.”

“Y-you are not from the kingdom!”

“ ... ”

Again, silence descended on the room after his words ended.

“You really are dumb huh...” Nux muttered as he glanced at Heath with a blank look.

“One! He’s not from the kingdom! He fooled you! Atta-AAAGGGHHHHHHHGH!!!”

Heath wanted to stand up and attack Nux but then he was assaulted by the agonizing pain and fell to the floor.

While Heath was rolling on the floor, screaming in pain, Nux muttered with a nonchalant look.

Within just one night, he had already seen countless people screaming in pain like this...

Actually, he was getting bored with this, it would be a lot better if he was with his Fel, Skyla, Lane, or Edda.

Well, whatever, he was handsome and a responsible man, he needed to work hard to secure his future. This little sacrifice was needed.

Not that he wasn’t rewarded for his hard work, he now got control over 2 Marquees’ houses plus the Assassins which are a lot stronger than these Marquees’ houses.

However, that wasn’t his real gain, his real gain was Thyra.

With a peak Grand Master Stage Assassin as his slave, it won’t be long before he becomes a Grand Master.

With that, it would be easy for him to defeat an Expert Stage Cultivator and he might even be able to fight against a King Stage Cultivator.

However, he will not **** her.

He won't repeat that mistake.

He will use the approach he always had, combining it with his [Craving Touch], this will be easy peasy!

“Umm...”

While Nux was still thinking about all this, he felt someone patting his shoulder, he turned around and saw Thyra looking at him as she then pointed at Heath who was still rolling all over the floor, screaming in pain.

“Oh... I forgot about him...”

Nux muttered before he walked towards Heath.

Thyra's mouth twitched but deep inside her, she also liked seeing this piece of shit being tortured like this.

‘He deserves it’

After a while, Heath stopped rolling on the ground, he had learned how this worked and swore in his heart that he would never think about betraying his Master.

“Alright, get some rest, you have 10 minutes, after that, take me to your army head and other important members of your army.”

Chapter 102

After putting the [Slave Seal] on the head of Hardwick Army and some other higher-ups, Nux and Thyra left the Hardwick House while Two and Three stayed there.

“An Orphan cannot be trusted with such matters... huh...”

While they were walking towards the Bannermane house, Nux muttered what ‘Eleven’ said.

“...”

Thyra’s movements paused a little before she continued like she did not hear him.

A smile appeared on Nux’s face as he realized that it was working.

“I can’t believe she said that... well, it’s not really her fault either, it’s the kingdom’s...”

“...”

Again, Thyra did not react.

“I really pity you... Thyra Cruse”

Thyra couldn’t take it anymore as she glanced at Nux and replied in a hoarse voice.

“I do not need your pity.”

“Of course, you do not. You are a strong woman. The kingdom you gave your all for does not trust you at all. If I had faced something like that, I would be broken by now”

“Hmph! That just means you are weak”

Thyra snorted, Nux’s face twitched a little but it quickly returned to normal as he shook his head.

“No, I am not weak, it is you who is just too strong. With your talent, you can easily live a lavish life without any troubles, but you chose to live a dark life for your kingdom.

However, even after such a big sacrifice, you did not even win their basic trust. I am impressed that you can talk normally right now”

Nux continued with a slight smile on his face, if Felberta was here, she would know it in an instance that he was enjoying it.

“The kingdom does not work on feelings, they have to make sure their plan does not fail. It is not wrong for them to have double security” “Thyra replied in monotone.

It felt like she was trying to convince herself rather than convincing Nux.

“I do not need any double security, I trust whoever I trust with my whole heart. If they betray me, that will be my fault for trusting them.”

“Hmph! Don’t act like you are any better. You literally control our bodies and just the thought about betraying you tears apart our body with agonizing pain.” Thyra snorted.

“When did I say that I trust you? Remember, you guys were my enemies, and you swore to get back get your revenge against me. I would be a fool to trust you.

I am honest about it, at least I do not create a fake image of trusting my subordinates only to send another subordinate just to keep eye on the former one.

I show what I am upfront, and I believe that alone makes me better them.”

Nux replied before he increased his speed.

Thyra too increased her speed as she followed behind him, however, she was lost in her thoughts as she pondered his words.

He was right, they were enemies...

She completely forgot about that...

She then remembered how guilty he looked after what he did to her, however, as soon as she thought about it, she shook her head in disgust.

‘Hmph! That was just an act!’

Images of her sucking his penis appeared in her mind and she felt slight twitching in her crotch area.

Feeling that twitch, Thyra’s eyes widened in shock, she couldn’t believe her body was acting like that.

Her eyes turned cold as she glared at Nux with hatred.

Of course, Nux did not know what was going on in her mind, nor did he care, he just needed to use the newly found hatred she has for the kingdom and make her completely loyal to him from there.

Step by step...

And he has achieved what he wanted for today.

“Alright, you can return to Bannerman House, we will meet at the meeting tomorrow”

Saying that, Nux rushed towards Felberta’s mansion before walking into her room and sleeping right beside her; while hugging her of course.

...

The next day, Nux and Felberta were sitting in the hall, however, this hall was a lot bigger than the one in Felberta’s mansion.

They were in Bannermane house, Alger and Heath were standing in front of them and they bowed their head.

“Greetings Master”

“To have two Marquees bowing in front of you, how does it feel, Master~?” Felberta chuckled.

“Meh, not that good, you feel better.” Nux looked at Felberta before glancing at her crotch with a meaningful smile.

Understanding what he meant, Felberta blushed, however, since she was already used to his ways, her face quickly returned to normal as she laughed before her voice turned seductive and she questioned.

“Then how about you feel me later~?”

“That’s an amazing idea. As expected of my beautiful and intelligent Fel~”

Alger and Heath, who were still standing there with their heads bowed, felt their lips twitching.

They were completely ignored...

Let alone them, even Thyra, who was hiding behind the hall looked weird when she saw Nux and Felberta acting all playful.

She noticed the smile on Nux’s face before she glanced at Felberta and she couldn’t help but be... jealous.

She then hurriedly shook her head to get rid of these stupid thoughts.

How could she be jealous of her, instead, she should pity that woman who has chosen such an evil person as her lifelong partner.

Felberta then glanced at the two nobles and continued.

“Then what are we waiting for, should we start what we came here for?”

“Have you brought what I asked?” Nux glanced at the two as well and questioned.

“Yes Master”

The two of them nodded at the same time before a few servants walked in carrying two huge tables in their hands.

One table had around 8 books and many weapons on top of it, while the other table was filled with weapons.

“These are all the Skill Books we have. However, we did not bring all the weapons here since that would be too many, but we have brought all our best weapons.”

“All of these weapons are above 3 star or above, with the best one at 5 star.”

Heath explained.

“Also, a Peak 5 Star Dagger, that is already in Master’s hand.”

Alger added hurriedly.

Chapter 103

Nux ignored the weapons and quickly grabbed the 8 skill books, however, soon, a frown appeared on his face.

“Two Marquees house only have 8 Skill books?”

“Master, these are all 4 star Skill Books” Alger answered hurriedly.

“I can see that, but shouldn’t you guys have more? I am not asking about 4 star Skill books, but you guys should still have 3 star or lower-level books right?”

“Master, since we already have 4 Star books, we usually sell all the lower-level books in exchange for something more useful.”

“Huh? Why would you do that? I know that you can’t combine the skills to make a better one, but should you not at least keep more books? Lower-level books are easier to comprehend; some people might not have a high affinity, isn’t it better for them to use a low-level skill book?”

“The Star level of a Skill Book is absolute, Nux” This time, Felberta was the one who answered.

“Even if you comprehend a 3 Star Skill to a Beginner Stage, a Novice Stage 4 Star Ability is still stronger. So it’s always better to learn high levelled books.” She continued.

“Of course, there are people with low-level affinity, who can barely learn 1 star skills, however, people like them aren’t needed here so we don’t keep lower-level skills. Also, It’s not like we can’t get it. If for some reason we ever need it, we will just buy it” Heath muttered.

“Alright”

Nux nodded deeply.

He then glanced at the 8 books and read their titles with an excited look on his face.

[Fire Slash]

[Fire Arrows]

[Earth Shield]

[Rock Ray]

[Water Shelter]

[Water Shied]

[Wind Walk]

[Wind Lance]

‘They all seem good...’

Nux muttered inwardly before storing everything into his inventory.

“Now to the weapons, I already have the Dagger, now I want a Sword...”

Nux muttered before he picked a 5 Star black coloured with silver on the edges, Sword and stored it in his treasury.

Then he stored all the other weapons in the treasury as well.

Heath and Alger frowned as they looked at Nux with eyes filled with confusion.

“As you know, I will have a lot of subordinates from now on; So I will need to provide them with better weapons, right?”

Nux explained with a bright smile on his face.

“Ahahaha... Of course... Of course...” Alger quickly nodded with a laugh, Heath too nodded with a big smile on his face. However, inwardly, two of them were crying blood as their tears.

That was all of their Skill Books and weapons!

Their entire wealth!

And he took everything without batting an eye!

“Alright alright, you guys can leave now. I will be a little busy in a while”

Nux waved his hand nonchalantly before he glanced at Felberta with a meaningful smile.

Felberta smiled back as well before she glanced at his crotch and licked her lips seductively.

“Oh right, Alger, your room will be mine now, so find yourself another one. The same goes for Heath as well”

The two nobles wanted to cry in frustration!

This man isn't satisfied even after taking their weapons and skills!

Now he even wants their room!

What a greedy bastard!

“Yes, Master”

However, no matter how angry or frustrated they were, their life was in his hand, and they would die if they do not do what he says.

Therefore, they nodded like the good servants they were and left.

“What are you waiting for? You leave as well”

Nux then turned towards Thyra and the other servants and ordered them to leave as well.

When everybody left the hall, Nux turned towards Felberta, he then picked her up and placed her on his lap.

“Hehe~ This is much better~” He laughed.

“Indeed. This is much more comfortable.” Felberta laughed as well.

She then shifted her attention to the tables in front of her and muttered.

“I can’t believe we now have 2 Marquesses houses under us.”

“You have to get used to it, My dear Fel, soon we will have a whole kingdom under us” Nux tightened his grip around her waist and muttered.

“Mmhm.” Felberta’s face turned a little red and she nodded.

But how can she remain in this passive position?

She looked around and thought about something before she questioned.

“So, which skill are you are you going to learn?”

“Is that even a question? Obviously, I will learn all of them~”

“A-All of them?”

“Of course, now that I am a Master Realm Cultivator, the skills I have now are too low levelled for me; it is time for me to upgrade and learn them all.”

“That is true, a master level cultivator using 1-star skills is a waste of his talent... So which one of them are you going to learn first?” Felberta questioned with a curious look on her face.

A mischievous smile appeared on Nux’s face as he answered, “Heh, I am too handsome, there might be some people who are jealous of my looks and go after me, so I need to be prepared.

Running away is the best option, so I will learn the [Wind Walk] first.”

Felberta’s face twitched in annoyance. Even after staying with him for so long, she still couldn’t get used to his shamelessness, however, when she turned around and glanced at that nigh perfect face, she felt that...

That he wasn’t wrong...

‘Ughh... what am I thinking...’

Felberta shook her head repeatedly. Her face had already turned red.

“Oh right, I will give all of these skills to you, distribute them to Skyla, Lane, and Edda. Of course, you can learn whichever you want as well”

A sad look appeared on Felberta’s face as she muttered, “I can’t learn any of them, I am one of the people with low talent that Heath mentioned earlier... my talent is too low... But these will be beneficial to others.”

“Heh, who said your talent is too low? You are a top-class” Nux chuckled.

Felberta furrowed her brows, she turned around to ask what he meant by that, however, she suddenly felt his hand entering inside her clothes and moving towards her special place.

Her little sister twitched in response and her juice started leaking.

“You are a top-class woman, Felberta. A top-class woman~”

Chapter 104

“You are a top-class woman, Felberta. A top-class beauty~”

Nux whispered into her ears as he circled his finger around her canals.

Felberta’s body shuddered in anticipation, then a mischievous smile appeared on her face as she slapped his hand lightly.

“What are you doing, huh?”

“Haah? You act as if you don’t know what I am doing or what I am about to do.” Nux retorted.

“I really don’t know what you are going to do” Felberta replied with a slight smile on her face.

A sly smile appeared on Nux’s face as well, his other hand moved and grabbed her soft breast as he started kneading it.

“You really don’t know what I am about to do?”

“Why would I lie to you?” Felberta questioned back.

“Ohh, so tell me, are you enjoying what I am doing?” Nux quickly understood her play and started thinking of ways to end it well.

“I feel uncom-”

“Are you enjoying what I am doing right now?” Before Felberta could answer, Nux slightly brushed her cliterous as he moved his mouth close to her ear and whispered.

“Anhh~” a slight moan leaked out of Felberta’s mouth and a jolt of pleasure passed through her spine.

“My dear Fel, let me ask you one last time, are you enjoying what I am doing right now?” Nux’s soft and seductive voice entered her ear, and another jolt of pleasure was released into her body.

Combined with his caresses, Felberta had no way of going against him and she lost again.

“I-It feels amazing~”

Nux’s smile widened as he asked, “Then I should continue what I am doing right?”

“C-Continue” Felberta replied with a soft blush on her face.

She doesn’t know why, but she could see that her resistance today was a lot more fragile than before.

Nux has barely touched her little sister and she already lost.

How is this possible!

How is this happening!

While Felberta was thinking about all this, suddenly, Nux’s movements paused.

A frown appeared on her face, however, before she could think more about it, Nux picked her up like a princess and muttered.

“I think we should continue all this in our new bedroom, what do you think?”

Seeing that enchanting smile, and how her pussy was crying for attention, Felberta had no option but to agree, and that’s what she did.

Seeing her small nod, Nux smiled even more before he kissed her forehead and started walking towards Alge- his bedroom.

While walking towards the hallway, he walked passed a few maids, and the more maids he passed by, the redder Felberta's face got.

She was embarrassed by how Nux was carrying her, however, she didn't want to walk on her own either.

A conflicted feeling.

However, one thing was for sure, she wanted to stay like this forever. She hoped that Nux would carry her like this every once in a while.

She then tightened her grip around his neck and smiled. Nux smiled back at her and her smile widened.

However, as another maid passed by, Felberta realized something.

“Nux... isn't our relationship a secret? Wouldn't these maids spread rumours about us? Not only that, won't us taking over Marquees house be known to all if we walk around without Conceal?” She questioned with a frown.

The last thing she wants is their plans to be ruined because of a moment of pleasure.

Seeing the worried look on her face, Nux's smiled, “Ah, Fel, you are just too precious.”

He kissed her forehead again and then answered, “Don't worry, this is Alger's house. All the servants here are extremely loyal to him, and none of them is allowed to leave the mansion.

This mansion is very secure, Alger's personnel soldiers and even the assassins have made sure that there are no spies.

Also, even if there are one or two spies, it doesn't really matter if our relationship or us taking over Alger's house is leaked.

Things like these require solid proof. They can be suspicious of us, but as long as Alger doesn't say something himself, they won't be able to prove anything on their own.”

“Hmm? Isn’t that weird? If a noble has taken over another noble’s house, a slight suspicion is enough for people to start investigating and even prove it. Why is Alger’s statement required in our case?” Felberta questioned in confusion.

“If it was a duke who had taken over a Marquee’s house, slight suspicion was enough to start the investigation, but how could a ‘mere’ viscount take over a Marquees’ house? How is that possible?” Nux replied with a sly smile on her face and Felberta’s eyes widened in realization.

Indeed, according to records, she was a mere Viscount, a little special one, but she was nowhere strong enough to take over a Marquees house.

They could investigate her and her house a little more, but since she doesn’t have people other than the ones she had already mentioned, she is still a weak viscount.

She can’t take over a Marquees house.

She doesn’t have the strength to do that.

As for her relationship with Nux, well, most of the nobles will just hear and forget about it.

This news was not spicy enough, she has bought Nux as her ‘boy toy’. News of her having a ‘good time’ with him isn’t tangy enough for the nobles to think or talk more about it.

Of course, it was a different story if she was the princess or the royal concubine.

Now that would have been news worthy of nobles’ attention.

“Hehe, we are too weak huh” Felberta smiled mischievously.

“Indeed, we don’t even have our own private army... we are too weak...” A similar smile appeared on Nux’s face and he continued walking.

A few minutes later, the two of them entered a lavish room, with a shiny wooden texture floor, peach-coloured walls, a huge, comfortable-looking bed with a dark red colour bedsheet, in the centre, two light lamps on either side of the bed, an exquisite mirror on the side and finally, an elegant chandelier on the top.

The room was leagues above Felberta's own bedroom.

"Beautiful," Felberta muttered.

"Not as beautiful as you~"

How could he possibly leave the opportunity to say such a cliché line?

That would be a sin.

A slight smile appeared on Felberta's face and she shook her head.

'Cheeky' She muttered inwardly.

Nux then entered the room with Felberta in his arms, then without much looking around, he directly walked towards the bed and gently placed Felberta on it.

He then took a deep breath before a sweet lavender smell entered his nose and he smiled.

"We can continue what we were doing here. No one will disturb us~"

"Heh, just get ready to moan like crazy. I'll not go easy on you like I always do" Felberta smiled disdainfully.

She had lost too easily before, that was not acceptable. The time it took them to walk into this room from the hall was enough for her to come back to her senses and gain back her footing.

She is not going to lose that easily.

She will be the one dominating this time!

She was sure of it!

“Haah... where did that sweet Fel go? How come you replaced her again?”

Seeing the glint in her eyes, Nux could easily determine what she was thinking and sighed dramatically.

“Huh? What do you mean ‘that sweet Fel’? Haven’t I always been the sweetest?” Felberta questioned.

“What are you doing, huh? No, I don’t know what you are doing?” Nux mimicked her words from before a little dramatically before a bland look appeared on his face and he continued,

“Heh, from acting ignorant to now talking about making me moan like crazy, how can you shift so quickly, huh?”

Felberta’s cheek flushed, however, she wouldn’t repeat the same mistake she did last time.

Since she couldn’t answer, since she couldn’t win with words, she is going to win with force and her charm.

She grabbed Nux’s hand and pulled him onto the bed and without giving him any chance to react, she rolled over and appeared on top of him.

She then lowered her head, her mouth moved close to his and their lips met.

However, Felberta didn’t give him much time to enjoy, after a small peck, she raised her head and broke the kiss.

She then lowered her head again and kissed before she raised her head back.

She continued this for a little while, before her hand moved towards Nux’s crotch, she then caressed Nux’s rod through his pants a little and smiled.

“Heh, look at this. Your little brother is soaring to go huh? And to think it happened with a few kisses. Tsk Tsk.”

Felberta then licked her lips seductively and smiled.

She had the momentum today.

She can win.

This was her moment.

This was her chance.

“Well, I can’t really blame you as well. It is natural to have such a reaction, after all, this time, I am not holding back like I used to.”

Chapter 105

A/N: So this, and the next few chapters will be snu snu with his girls, Skyla, Lane, Felberta and Edda. You can skip the rest if you want, but don't miss the snu snu with Edda, it will be important for the plot.

As for me skipping these snu snu chapters, I can't do it. I can't just forget my other characters.

“Well, I can't really blame you as well. It is natural to have such a reaction, after all, this time, I am not holding back like I used to.”

“Indeed, in front of such a beautiful woman, I would consider myself gay if I didn't have this reaction.” Nux, who quickly understood what was in her mind, replied.

He would never give her the satisfaction she sought.

It is extremely enjoyable to see Felberta work so hard to 'dominate' him. However, it was even more enjoyable when she fails and starts moaning without considering anything.

He didn't enjoy that feeling enough yet.

“Yes... just stay where you are, and let me do everything...” Felberta muttered.

Normally, she should be happy about the praise, however, she has been with Nux for enough time to know that the smile he had on his face was not a good one.

Suddenly, she felt like her chance, her moment... they all faded away and this is going to end like it always does.

However, just as that thought appeared in her mind, she shook her head repeatedly to get rid of it.

A seductive smile appeared on her face and she repeated.

“Yes, just stay where you are and enjoy~”

She then swiftly removed his pant and a half-erect rod popped up.

Felberta grabbed the rod gently and started stroking it with a smile on her face.

She then shifted her body forward as she kissed Nux’s waist, then his chest, his chin and just as she was about to touch kiss his lips, she smiled and kissed his nose. She then continued her journey to his forehead, then she kissed his cheeks, the ears before finally,

She kissed his chin again.

Nux’s body twitched in frustration and this didn’t go unseen by Felberta.

However, she knew that she still had a long way to go.

She noticed that under her care, his half-erect rod was now searing to go. She kissed his chest, her waist and then trailed down to meet the fully erect rod.

“Haha~ Look how lively it is with just a few strokes~” Felberta laughed out loud.

“Indeed, he has been waiting for this for a long time” Nux had to admit, Felberta was getting good at teasing him.

Of course, it was far from enough.

He won’t lose that easily.

“Then I shouldn’t let him wait for long, should I?” Saying that, Felberta lowered her gown and revealed her smooth white skin along with the sexy black coloured bra.

*Gulp*

No matter how many times he sees it, Nux would never get over how alluring her figure is. While Nux was momentarily lost in those black eyes, Felberta then lowered her head and,

Kissed the head of his penis.

All this while, she didn't break the eye contact between them.

Nux was then jolted out of his reverie when a weird jolt of pleasure assaulted his body.

He then glanced at Felberta, and seeing the smirk on her face, he knew he lost the first round.

However, Felberta wasn't someone who will give away the lead she had this easily, she grabbed his dick with one hand, adjusted its position and then without removing her black bra, she directly engulfed the whole thing into her cleavage.

“Ugghh...” Even though Nux already knew what was about to come, he couldn't control himself and groaned in pleasure.

Felberta's smirk widened as she raised her giant breast before lowering them again.

“Uuggghh~” Nux moaned again and closed his eyes.

Felberta has still haven't broken the eye contact yet, however, combining it with her boob job, the pleasure Nux experienced was too much, therefore, he closed his eyes and relished the pleasure.

He was the first one to break the eye contact.

Felberta won another round.

This time, Felberta was overjoyed, she started gaining her lost confidence.

2 rounds in a row, that was amazing.

However, she shouldn't be too overconfident right now, she should not let go of this opportunity.

She would end it once and for all.

With this newly gained confidence, she raised her breast again, before lowering it with more intensity.

Her movement turned smoother and she increased her pace.

“Ughhh! Aahhh~~ This feels so good~~” Nux moaned out loud as he placed his elbow on his head and relished the pleasure.

Felberta's soft breasts had surrounded his little brother, those mounds of softness...

The feeling was otherworldly.

Waves and waves of pleasure assaulted his body and he could feel his mind turning numb. Not only that, Felberta, who was keeping a close eye on every change of his expression, kept increasing and decreasing her pace accordingly.

Her style was similar to his, the more he moaned, the faster she would move.

He was completely at her mercy... he had to moan if he wanted to enjoy more...

Nux was trapped by his own trick.

“Aagghh~ Fel, you are the best~~” Nux continued moaning.

He had no thoughts of resisting, this was just too good.

He had lost another round.

However, he doesn't care about it at all. He's willing to lose more if it ensured that this pleasure would continue.

“Aaanhhh~”

Suddenly, a huge wave of pleasure assaulted his body and Nux was jolted awake from his thoughts.

He opened his eyes and saw that Felberta was kissing his dick's head and was using her hand to rub her breasts against his dick even more.

Every time she lowered her breasts, his dick's head would pop out and Felberta would give it a sweet kiss as if she was rewarding it for coming out.

Seeing this scene, Nux was even more excited, he could feel his milk was building up and with how Felberta was squeezing him dry, he was sure that he would burst out soon.

Felberta continued her boob job and continued to force him to moan, helpless, Nux could only do what she wanted and satisfied her ego.

“Ugghh!”

Several veins popped out on Nux's rod and as if sensing something, Felberta increased her speed.

“Aghhhh~ I am cumminggg~”

*Spurt*

Nux also couldn't hold it in anymore and his milk burst out.

“Haahh... Haahh... haa...”

Nux breathed heavily, he barely opened his eyes and saw Felberta's face and breasts covered with his jizz.

A wave of satisfaction washed over his body and his rod reacted again.

Seeing this, a seductive smile appeared on Felberta's face. She used her hand to collect all the milk spread over her face and started licking and sucking her fingers hungrily.

This scene simulated Nux even more and his rod hardened again.

“Oh? Looks like he's ready and excited for the next stage.” Felberta muttered as he stroked Nux's dick a few more times.

She wasn't going to give him any chance to recover. She removed her gown completely and without wasting any more time, she removed her black panty as well, revealing her lovely vagina.

She then sat on top of Nux in a cowgirl position, placed his rod in front of her entrance and engulfed his rod in one go.

“Ooohhhh~” Nux moaned out loud.

Felberta's insides were already blended into his shape, so when these squishy, soft and wet insides surrounded his rod, trying to devour it, waves and waves of pleasure sent him into cloud nine.

Felberta didn't give him much time and started moving.

“Ahhh~ So gooodd~”

Again, the same pattern, the more he moaned, the higher Felberta's speed was and the more he enjoyed it.

He couldn't stop moaning.

He was completely at her mercy.

However, this time, the situation was not as bad as before.

This time, Felberta was affected as well, and Nux could tell then when he saw her trembling legs which she was trying to hide.

Felberta was enjoying this as well, not only that, he couldn't manipulate her speed with his moans.

So everything was not hopeless, there was a chance.

Felberta's body trembled when she noticed a small smile appearing on Nux's face. She felt something was wrong, however, since she was so close to winning, she stopped thinking about it and lowered her speed.

Nux quickly understood what she wanted and,

“Ahh~~ Fel~~ My love~~”

Felberta smiled as she increased her speed again.

Jolts and jolts of pleasure continued to assault Nux's body, and since he was still sensitive, it didn't take a long time for his milk to build up again and,

“Ugghhhhh!!”

*Spurt*

He filled her insides.

“Annhh~~”

Felberta moaned in pleasure as well, however, she did not cum. She used all her willpower not to cum.

She controlled herself.

She...

She finally won!

*Pah*

“Aanhh~”

However, before she could enjoy her moment, Nux's rod that was inside her moved and she moaned out loud.

She lowered her gaze and glanced at Nux, who was smiling at her.

“I believe it should be my turn, right? My dear Fel~”

With a quick move, Nux rolled and appeared on top of Felberta, even though he had just orgasmed, for some reason, his rod was full of energy.

“Shall we start?”

Nux questioned with a smile on her face as he moved his hips.

“Annnhh~”

Felberta moaned out loud.

With just one thrust, she knew this was over.

She did not win at all...

Chapter 106

“Uughhhh!! Fel~ I am cummiingggg~” Nux moaned as he unloaded his jizz for the 5th time.

“AAnnnhhhh~” Fel moaned, her walls tightened and her juices gushed out.

Nux then released her legs that were on his shoulders and fell down right beside her.

“Haahh... that was good...” He muttered as he turned towards her.

“Indeed...” Felberta replied in a very soft voice, and Nux noticed that in this short time, she had already entered the dreamland.

She was just too tired.

A small, satisfied smile appeared on Nux’s face. The transition of her trying to dominate and then laying down like that was incredible.

As he thought, this feeling was the best.

After laying down for a few minutes, he sat up, turned towards Felberta and kissed her forehead lovingly.

‘Sleep well~ My love.’

“mm”

As if she had heard his thoughts, a small smile appeared on Felberta’s face.

Nux’s smile widened, he shook his head and kissed her forehead again.

He then stood up, wore his clothes, walked out of the room and entered the bathroom.

...

‘Come here’

After a refreshing bath, Nux ordered Thyra.

Within a minute, Thyra appeared behind him.

“What is it?” She questioned with an expressionless face.

“Protect her while I am gone” Nux ordered as he pointed at Felberta who was sleeping calmly.

Although most of the people who can hurt Felberta in this mansion are his slaves, making the mansion very safe for her, Nux still didn’t take any unnecessary risks.

He now had people under him, why not use them?

As for why he called Thyra specifically?

Heh.

There are a few reasons.

One is that Thyra is strong.

And other...

A smile appeared on Nux’s face, he then activated his [Conceal] and moved out of the Bannermane Mansion.

Within a few minutes, he appeared outside Felberta’s mansion and walked in.

He activated his [Sense] and searched for the people he was looking for and,

‘Oh?’

A small smile appeared on his face.

He had found something interesting.

He did not deactivate his [Conceal] and walked forward.

...

On the other side, Skyla was peeking into the room from the slight slit on the door, her face was flushed red.

“What are you doing?”

Suddenly, she heard a voice and her body twitched in panic.

She quickly turned around and when she saw who it was, she sighed in relief.

“Sister Lane... I was just about to punish these two. They aren't allowed to do this while they are at work, are they?” She muttered as she invited Lane to look as well.

Curious, Lane walked towards the door, placed her head on top of Skyla's and watched.

“Aaanhhh~”

“Uuughhh! Oriel, it feels too good~~”

“Edric, I feel good as well~ Annhhh~~”

(A/N: Not important, but this is the couple that was about to get married. Chapter 57, where Lane was slightly jealous of a maid. Yes, she's that maid.)

Within a few seconds, Lane's face turned red as well and she continued watching.

As for punishing?

Both of them forgot about it.

“Annhh~ Edric, I think we should end this quickly, someone will see us.”

“So what? Lady Felberta isn’t here today, don’t worry, you can slack off a little.” Edric answered as he continued pounding.

“But her personal maids are still here, what if they see us?” Oriel questioned. She didn’t know how right she was.

“So what if they see us? Don’t talk as if you haven’t heard their moans during working hours. They do it as well” Edric muttered.

Skyla’s and Lane’s faces turned red.

“Not only that, Sister Lane is sometimes so loud that most of the servants know what is happening when she’s having sex” Edric continued.

Right now, Lane’s face looked like a tomato. That was how red it was.

“They are Lady Felberta’s personal maids, we can’t be compared with them.” Oriel nodded.

“Alright, I will end this quickly,” Edric thought about it a little and nodded.

“T-They are about to finish...”

Skyla muttered, her face showing a little... disappointment?

“...” Lane didn’t say anything. She was too embarrassed to say anything.

“Heehhh, how can these two people do something like this?”

“Right? How shameless” Skyla replied to the unknown voice with a few continuous nods.

“Shameless indeed.” The voice replied.

Skyla and Lane both kept nodding.

“How can my lovely girls peek at a couple having sex? I didn’t expect them to be so shameless”

Suddenly, Skyla and Lane stopped nodding and turned around with mechanical movements. It was as if they were broken robots.

“N-Nux...” Skyla muttered, her face, even redder than before.

“My lovely Skyla, and my serious Lane, what are you two doing?”

Nux questioned with a small smile on his face.

“U-Umm... nothing, we were just about to p-punish these two people for d-doing something like that in while they are working...” Skyla muttered.

Lane nodded at Skyla’s words.

“Oh? So you were going to punish them?” Nux questioned.

The two of them nodded repeatedly.

“Then why haven’t you done it already?”

“...” The two of them started thinking of some excuses.

“Why are your faces red?”

“...”

“Why are you acting like you have been caught while doing something wrong?” Nux continued questioning.

Under his series of questions, Skyla and lane turned silent and Nux’s smile widened.

This scene was interesting indeed.

He can tease them for hours.

He had just arrived at the mansion and had just used his [Sense] to find Skyla and Lane, however, he didn't expect to find both of them standing together, peeking at the couple having sex.

He would be a fool to waste such a great opportunity.

“U-Umm... w-we were not going to punish them... w-we were observing and n-noticing the d-differences...” suddenly, Skyla muttered.

Let alone Nux, even Lane standing beside Skyla was surprised.

‘We were observing? What? When did that happen? Why didn't I know that? Also, what were we observing?’

Countless question marks appeared in her mind.

“Oh? Then what did you observe?” Nux questioned.

“Yours is bigger”

Chapter 107

“Yours is bigger”

Lane turned her head towards Skyla in confusion; however, after thinking for a while, she nodded her head as well.

‘His is indeed bigger.’

Nux didn’t say anything, he just walked toward Skyla and hugged her.

‘A keen observation indeed... I knew Skyla was the best...’ He thought inwardly as he continued patting her head.

Skyla didn’t understand why he was acting like this, but since she was enjoying it, she tightened her hug around him and didn’t say anything.

“That’s a very good observation, Skyla. You did a good job.”

“mm” Although she didn’t know what good job he was talking about, Skyla nodded and snuggled her face into his chest.

“How about I give you a reward?” Nux proposed.

“Hmm? A reward? What reward?” Skyla questioned in confusion.

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face as he grabbed her perky but kneaded it gently.

“Hehe~ Are you acting ignorant as well? Do you really not know what reward am I talking about?” Nux questioned.

“Annhh~”

Skyla moaned out loud, although she didn’t get it the last time, now she was sure what the reward was.

Does she want it?

Of course!

“Ye-” Skyla’s eyes brightened and just as she was about to agree, Lane interjected.

“No. W-We have work to do...”

Nux frowned, he then walked towards Lane and raised her chin as he questioned.

“What work?”

“W-we have to w-wa-” A tinge of red appeared on Lane’s face, however, she controlled herself and answered.

Or at least she tried to since Nux cut her off.

“You can always do it later, right?”

Lane knew perfectly well where this was going, her heartbeat quickened, however, she controlled herself and answered.

“Nux, our image is already ruined... the servants here can hear our moans... that’s not good...”

Skyla’s eyes widened in realization as well.

She completely forgot what happened before due to Nux’s hug.

“Yes! We can’t do it! Especially Sister Lane, she moans too loudly!” She spoke out loud.

Lane’s face turned red in embarrassment.

“Hahaha~ You are embarrassed about that?” Nux couldn’t control himself and laughed out loud.

“This is something to be embarrassed about!” Lane replied.

“Hahaha~ What’s there to be embarrassed about? Shouldn’t you just train more?”

“H-Huh? W-What do you mean by that?” Lane questioned.

A wicked smile appeared on Nux’s face as he picked her up and answered.

“Simple! You should train more to control your moans! Let me help you with this!”

Saying that, he walked towards his room with Lane in his arms.

Lane, who was now being carried by Nux was confused.

She knew something was wrong with what he said but... but why couldn’t she see what was wrong?

Why does it sound so logical?

“Skyla? What are you waiting for? Don’t you want to help your sister as well?” Nux then turned towards Skyla and questioned.

“Coming!” Skyla’s face brightened up as she rushed towards Nux as well.

...

A few minutes later, Nux, Lane, and Skyla were inside Nux’s room, or to be precise, Nux’s bed, naked.

‘What a lovely scene...’

Nux muttered inwardly as he saw Skyla and Lane laying in front of them without wearing anything.

“Alright, we will start slow and pick the pace later, okay?”

Nux muttered as he used his fingers to enter their canals.

Lane and Skyla both had different sensitive points and Nux knew all about it.

Without wasting any time, his fingers directly attacked their sensitive points and,

“Annhh~” Skyla moaned out loud.

Lane, however, controlled herself.

This was her training. She wouldn't moan.

Nux smiled as he presumed what she was thinking and shook his head.

“Anngh- mmffmm” He then bent down and kissed Skyla's lips.

Skyla responded well as her tongue entered Nux's mouth and started fighting with his tongue for dominance. She also used her hand to grab his head and pulled it even closer to her.

However, she stood no chance of winning.

Nux was practically cheating in this battle.

His middle finger entered Skyla's canal as well, and his index finger, combined with his middle one created chaos in her insides.

“Mmnnhh~” Skyla's grip around Nux's head weakened, Nux used this opportunity and started sucking on her little tongue.

“Mmnnnffff~” Skyla couldn't take it anymore, her canals tightened and,

She came.

Nux then finally released her tongue and ended the kiss. After parting, he pecked her lips again before he turned towards Lane and muttered.

“Now try and control your moans.”

Lane's body shuddered when she saw that devilish smile on his face.

However, Nux didn't give her any chance to think more about it and gave her a light kiss.

Then he moved his head in front of her pink nipple and started licking.

Lane's walls tightened around his finger. Nux's smile widened as he plunged his middle finger inside as well.

He then glanced at Lane, who was looking at him with a nervous and determined look on her face and kissed her nipple.

Then without wasting much time, he put the whole thing in his mouth and started sucking it greedily.

"Mmnnmm" Lane quickly placed her hand on her mouth to stop herself from moaning, however, a muffled moan still leaked out.

However, Nux wasn't satisfied with a mere muffled moan.

His ring finger entered her canals as well and Lane's eyes widened.

His 3 fingers simultaneously touched all her weak spots and waves and waves of pleasure assaulted her body.

Strength started leaving her body and

"Annh~"

A slight moan was released.

However, due to that moan, she returned to her senses and shook her head repeatedly. She then closed her mouth shut to stop all the moans.

Suddenly, Nux stopped sucking her nipple and raised his eyes.

"You controlled yourself, good job~" Nux praised.

However, for some reason, Lane didn't feel good from that praise...

Her instincts were screaming that something was wrong.

Her instincts were correct as a big smile appeared on Nux's face as he muttered.

“Now let me level up the game~”

Saying that, he bit her nipple and,

“Annnhhhh~~”

She moaned.

Chapter 108

“Now let me level up the game~”

Saying that, he bit her nipple and,

“Annnhhhh~”

Lane’s canal tightened, the stimulus of three fingers all caressing her sensitive spots along with Nux biting her nipple was too much for her to bear and she came.

With that, she lost control of her body and moaned out loud.

Again.

A smirk appeared on Nux’s face as Lane took deep breaths.

“Oh my, you moaned again, my lovely Lane~”

“Haahh... hahhh... haa...” Lane didn’t reply, she was too busy breathing.

Nux then suddenly felt a hand kneading his rod, he lowered his gaze, and then looked into Skylia’s eyes, who was looking at him with a lustful look on her face.

Seeing the lustful look on her innocent look, Nux got turned on, his warrior woke up and hardened himself for the next war.

A satisfied smile appeared on Skylia’s face when she saw his erect dick, she moved and placed it right in front of her wet entrance and muttered.

“My turn~”

Nux’s smirk widened, he couldn’t turn down that request, not when she requested it in such a way.

He slid his penis in front of her entrance to lubricate it a little and when he felt that it was enough, he,

“Annhhh!!”

He slammed it into her pussy in one go.

“Ughhhh!” Nux groaned in pleasure.

Skyla’s insides were as tight as always.

Those squishy insides trying to engulf down his cock felt heavenly.

Nux enjoyed that feeling for a while and once he felt it was enough, he moved back before ramming it inside again.

“AAnnhhhh!!”

Skyla’s insides were very welcoming, so much that they tightened every time Nux’s warrior was about to leave.

Suddenly, Skyla wrapped her legs around Nux’s waist as she tried to push him towards her.

Nux smirked at her cute attempt and slammed his cock into her again.

“AAANnnhhh!!”

After a few more thrusts, Nux’s movement turned smoother and his speed increased. Droplets of sweat appeared all over his muscular body.

He then picked Skyla’s legs and placed them on his shoulders before he rammed his cock again.

“AAAANNhhhhhh!!”

This time, he went even deeper and Skyla’s moaned even more loudly.

Her moans satisfied his ego and he increased his speed even more.

“AAnnhh~~ AAnnhh~~ AAnnhh~~”

Soon, Nux noticed that Skyla was moaning louder than usual, he felt something was wrong, however, he quickly realized why she was doing that and smiled inwardly.

‘How considerate... She’s such a sweet girl~’

Nux then grabbed her soft butt and her walls tightened.

“Ugghhhhh!! Skylaa~~ So gooddd~~”

He groaned in pleasure.

Her walls clamped around his dick tightly and Nux’s back arched up. The sudden increase in pleasure made him stop his movement and close his eyes.

“Annnnhhhh~~” Skyla moaned as well.

Lane, who had now came back to her senses blushed when she heard her moans. She then turned towards Skyla and saw her being drilled while she moans in ecstasy without caring about anything.

‘Ughhh... isn’t she embarrassed...’ She wondered inwardly, but then her eyes fell on Nux who was looking at Skyla with a smile on his face and she started wondering...

‘What’s there to be embarrassed about?’

The more she thought about it, the more she wondered how stupid she was.

“Annhhh~~ I am cummingggg~~” While Lane was lost in her thoughts, Skyla moaned out loud, her back arched up as she clenched the bedsheets with her hands.

“Ughhhh~~ I am cuming as well~” At the same time, Nux’s voice was heard, Lane saw his body trembling before a sigh escaped his mouth.

Skyla's and Nux's bodies turned weak and Nux fell over Skyla with his eyes closed.

Lane watched everything with great concentration and... jealousy.

Suddenly, Nux opened his eyes and his charming golden eyes met Lane's.

A smirk then appeared on Nux's face as he stood up and crawled towards Lane.

“Are you ready for your training? Don't moan~~”

Lane's heart skipped a beat, a small smile appeared on her face as well.

She then straightened her back, open her legs a little and,

“Try and make me moan.”

A very unexpected line from someone like Lane.

Nux's smirk widened, and he took the challenge.

“Don't regret it then, my dear Lane~”

He then placed his dick in front of her cave and penetrated her insides in one move.

“Oooo~~” Lane moaned weirdly.

“Huh? What? You lost already?” Nux teased.

“N-No! T-That was just too sudden!” Lane exclaimed, embarrassed.

Nux chuckled, he then grabbed her left leg, placed it on his shoulder and moved penetrated her insides again.

“Aanhhhh~~”

This time, however, he went a lot deeper than before.

“You aren’t really doing well in this challenge~” He teased again.

“S-Shut up!”

Nux chuckled, he bend down, the more Lane’s legs stretched and the deeper he entered.

“Hehe~ Admit it, My beautiful Lane, you already lost~”

Nux whispered into her ears seductively before he rammed his cock into her again.

“Anngghhh~”

Lane’s body turned weak and waves and waves of pleasure assaulted her body. Nux’s strong scent assaulted her nose and a deep blush appeared on her face.

Nux then started kissing her ears, his hand moved down and started kneading her large breast gently.

“AAnnhh~~ AAnnhh~~ AAnnhh~~”

Nux’s movements quickened, he played with her breast roughly before he squeezed the soft mound tightly.

“AAhnnnhhh~~” A bolt of pleasure coursed through Lane’s body and she moaned again.

However, Nux wasn’t done yet, he increased his speed yet again and at the same time, he pinched her nipple.

Lane’s body trembled in delight and a foolish smile appeared on her face.

Her canals tightened to an extreme degree, Nux couldn’t control himself anymore and released his semen inside.

At the same time, Lane’s walls tightened even more and as if a switch was flipped, a large amount of vaginal juice gushed out.

After another great orgasm, Nux's body weakened and he lay beside Lane, Lane, whose leg was now released, rolled over and closed her eyes.

“Haahh... haah... haa...”

Both of them started breathing heavily, however,

“This isn't the last round, is it?” Nux heard Skylar's cute and at the same time, demonic voice.

However, unlike before, when he would feel a shiver coursing through his body, a wicked smile appeared on his face as he replied.

“Oh of course, not, my love~”

He was not tired at all~

Chapter 109

3 hours later, Nux stood up and stretched his body.

He glanced at his bed and saw two beautiful women lying there with tired looks on their faces.

A wicked smile appeared on Nux's face and he walked towards Skyla, moved his mouth near to her ear and whispered,

“You aren't tired yet, are you? Shall we go for another round?”

Instead of answering, Skyla just rolled away and pouted.

“Haha~” Nux chuckled out loud before he kissed her forehead.

‘Uuu... why aren't you tired yet?’ Suddenly Nux's heard Skyla's voice in her head. She was too tired to say anything, therefore, she was using [Harem Seal's] connection to talk to him.

‘Secret.’ Nux replied in the same way.

Skyla then opened her eyes a little and when she saw that little smile on his face, she closed her eyes.

‘I won't tease you anymore...’ she muttered.

‘Oh, you can tease me anytime, my love. Just be ready for the consequences.’ Nux answered back and chuckled.

He then noticed a small smile appearing on Skyla's cute face and she nodded.

‘Then I will tease you more.’

Nux smiled and then walked away.

Lane had already fallen asleep, that girl moaned louder than usual today, it was as if she didn't have any restrictions at all.

Of course, the more she moaned, the satisfied Nux felt and the faster he moved.

Because of this, Lane was more tired than usual and entered her dreamland right after cumming for the 6th time.

Nux then finally left the room and walked towards the bathroom.

He was really pleased today.

First, Felberta, then Skyla and Lane, he had orgasmed many times today, however, he was still not tired.

[Blank Points: 159 → 103]

Yes, has finally decided to not be a cheapskate and use some of his blank points.

At first, he only wanted to satisfy his women so he increased his Stamina, however, he then noticed how ridiculously low his intelligence was and increased it as well.

Now he was very sure that a King Level Expert won't be able to see him if he activates his [Conceal].

Although he was not sure if he could assassinate a King Level Expert, he could, at the very least, run away.

He also wanted to use 10 blank points to learn about the past Nux, but then he shifted it ahead.

He had some important things to do right now.

Some very important things.

Thinking about that, Nux smiled before he entered the bathroom and took a long, relaxing bath.

...

30 minutes later, Nux walked out of the bathroom, wore his clothes and started walking around the mansion when suddenly, his eyes fell on a familiar man.

He quickened his speed and called out.

“Yo, Joyab, how it's going dude?”

Joyab, who was minding his own business and was walking around aimlessly, turned around to see who called him in such a disrespectful way. However, as soon as his eyes fell on Nux, his face twitched.

“What is it, Nux?” He questioned with a straight face.

“Nothing, I was just curious. I usually don’t see you wandering around very often.”

“Lady Felberta didn’t come to the office today for some reason, so I had some free time” Joyba answered.

“Oh? She didn’t tell you? Ah, she must have forgotten, she is with me and she’s busy right now. You can treat it as your holiday.”

“Can I know what she’s doing right now?” Joyab questioned.

A small smile appeared on Nux’s charming face as he muttered, “Fel is resting. She was tired after... after working hard...”

Joyab’s lips twitched.

He wasn’t a fool.

He knew what ‘hard work’ she was doing.

As for Nux calling her Fel, he was already used to it by now.

However, he still couldn’t believe the transition he saw with his own eyes, from L-Lady F-Felberta, to Lady Fel, to Fel, this boy really did in 2 months...

‘Haahhh...’ Joyab let out a tired sigh.

He couldn’t do anything about it.

“Haah... you really changed Lady Felberta... she used to be so diligent before...” Joyab muttered.

“Oh she’s very diligent alright~” Nux muttered, however, only he knew the underlying meaning of his words.

“Ah, by the way, I heard a few assassins attacked yesterday.” Suddenly, Joyab’s face turned serious and he bowed his head.

“Nux Leander, I am very grateful to you for saving Lady Felberta and dealing with those assassins. I will remember this favour in my heart”

Nux was surprised by his sudden action.

His and Butler Joyab’s relationship wasn’t very harmonious from the start, however, seeing him setting aside his ego and bowing in front of him, Nux realized how loyal this man is.

A small smile appeared on his face as he muttered.

“Butler Joyab, you don’t have to worry about it. One would have to pass through my dead body if he wants to harm my Fel. Please raise your head.”

Joyab then raised his head and a small smile appeared on his face.

“Also, Felberta is not as weak as you think she is”

Joyab’s smile widened and he nodded.

“Indeed, she is now an Advance Level Cultivator... She’s is not weak at all...” Joyab muttered with a small smile on his face, his eyes were a little moist.

“Ah, Nux, I suddenly remembered something, I will take my leave.”

Saying that, Joyab walked away.

‘Viscount Alveye, your daughter found herself a man worthy of her... You can be rest assured now...’

Tears streamed out of butler Joyab’s eyes as he recalled Felberta’s father, Viscount Alveye.

Joyab was truly happy today.

Nux didn't know what was going on inside Joyab's head, however, his respect for Joyab had increased a lot after this incident.

He then took out the skill book, [Wind Walk], entered the garden, and started practising his newly gained skills.

Chapter 110

In the royal palace of the SkyFall Kingdom.

“Miss Edda, where do I put these clothes?” A girl who should be no older than 12, questioned as she carried a big load of clothes in her hands.

“Ah yes, you can put them in chamber number 6, make sure to separate white and other colours,” Edda replied with a slight smile on her face.

She is usually very strict, but she had a soft spot for this cute little girl.

No, there was no ‘history’ behind them or anything, she just liked the girl a bit.

“Yes, Miss Edda”

The little girl nodded and walked away.

‘It is almost the time now...’

Edda glanced around to see if anyone else needed any help but everything seemed fine.

**Ding* *Dong**

A few minutes later, a bell’s chime sounded and a big smile appeared on Edda’s face.

It was finally 9 P.M.

Just as she was about to walk away, she was stopped by someone, “Edda, I see you are very busy these days, huh? You always leave as soon as the bell rings.” A man laughed out loud.

He was Madison Headly, he worked in the palace as a servant.

As someone who has been here for his whole life, just like Edda, he was a little close to her compared to others.

“Ye-”

“Hahaha~ Madison, you don’t know? Edda has been busy with someone else nowadays. What was his name again... ah yes, its Dio Brando. I heard he is a head of a merchant company. Quite a good target if I do say so myself.”

Before Edda could answer, a high pitched voice was heard. Edda turned around and when she saw who the woman was, she sighed.

Edrea Fox; she is someone who is eyes on her position so badly that she even colluded with Bannermane and Hardwick house.

She is an extremely covetous type of woman who easily gets jealous of others.

“Yes, Edrea, I am meeting a man called Dio Brando and honestly, I don’t think why it has to do anything with you.

Have I ever interfered with you using your loose hole to please Wyot and Ainsley?”

“...” Edrea’s face turned red in rage, however, Edda wasn’t done yet.

“Oh right, I also heard that Eardwulf broke up with you?”

“He did not break up with me!” Edrea retorted in anger.

“Ah yes, that was my fault. How can he break up with you when there was nothing like that between you two, to begin with...”

Didn’t you become his meat hole just so he could make you sub-head maid?

He just got bored of using your already used hole and threw you away, right?”

Edda's every word stung Edrea's heart and her face reddened in anger and shame. Seeing her reaction, a small smile appeared on Edda's face.

Although she didn't show it or abused her position a lot, she was still a head maid of the Royal Palace. Her information network was strong.

She knew everything about most of the servants, especially someone like Edrea, who was coveting her position.

"Alright, if you would excuse me. I have to meet someone special." Saying that, Edda straightened her back and walked away elegantly.

Edrea looked around and when she noticed other servants' gloating expressions, her face distorted in shame.

'Edda, you went too far this time...' She muttered inwardly, however, soon, a cold smile appeared on her face.

'Enjoy all you want, you bitch. Once Bannermane and Hardwick house gets their hands on you, I will request them to give you to me. Then you will be at my mercy...

But don't believe for a second that you will have a good end

I'll make you beg for mercy.'

Edrea thought inwardly.

No one knew how she would react when she learns that Hardwick and Bannermane houses are already under Edda's control.

Edda didn't know what was going on inside Edrea's head and she didn't really care about it either.

She just activated [Conceal] and rushed towards the Bannermane Mansion.

30 minutes later, she arrived at Bannermane's house and entered the dining room where Nux, Felberta, Skylia and Lane were having dinner.

As for Alger and his wives, well, they were now eating somewhere else.

They weren't allowed to disturb Nux's meals.

"Hahh, she's late..." Felberta complained.

"Oh c'mon, she's a busy woman, it's normal for her to be a little late" Nux answered.

"Haah? Are you saying that I am free?" Felberta questioned as she raised her eyebrows.

"Aren't you free for me? For the love of your life?" Nux questioned with a charming smile on his face.

A small smile appeared on Felberta's face as she grabbed his hand gently, "Indeed, I am always free for you~"

"Me too, I am free for you as well~" Skylia chimed in and although Lane didn't say anything, she nodded as well.

"Heh~ Still acting all silent and shy. Who was the one moaning so loudly this afternoon?" Nux teased as he glanced at Lane.

Lane's face turned red and Nux and the others started laughing.

Seeing this scene, a small smile appeared on Edda's face.

She didn't know when, but she had already assimilated in this little family.

Everyone was good to her here without any alternative thoughts in their mind and she was happy about it.

She deactivated her [Conceal] as she walked towards Nux, and hugged him from behind.

"I am free for you as well~"

“Oh~ My perverted maid is here~” Nux muttered as he grabbed her hands and turned towards her.

Edda’s face turned red, she sat on the seat Nux pointed at, and a servant served the food.

“Edda, I suggest you eat well~ Nux is more energetic than usual~”

Suddenly, Felberta muttered as she glanced at Edda with a meaningful smile on her face.

“Yes! He is very energetic today! Sister Edda, you have to be careful” Skyla chimed in.

Lane nodded silently like usual, while Nux had a prideful smile on his face.

A small smile appeared on Edda’s face as she answered.

“Thank you for worrying about me, however,

I am ready for it~”

Chapter 111

A Bannermane's housemaid was walking in a dark hallway, the further she walked, the darker it got.

After walking for a few minutes, a wooden door appeared in front of her, she gulped, calmed her emotions and knocked.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

“Marquees Alger has called for Miss One. He is in his new room.” She muttered and walked away.

Her speed was visibly faster than normal.

Even though she has come to this place a lot of times, she still wasn't used to it yet.

Since her job was now, she rushed out of this creepy place.

As for the ‘new room’ she talked about, well, it was Alger's new room after he ‘gave’ his previous room to Nux.

Many servants found it weird. Most of them had sensed that something had happened, however, nobody dared to point it out.

Marquees Alger was powerful and cruel, if they were wrong, they would die, and even if they were right and something was wrong, someone capable of making things go wrong for Marquees Alger would be able to kill them.

Therefore, they didn't say anything and acted ignorantly. It's not like their life was affected in any way. They just have a few more people to serve.

The new ‘guests’ that have arrived in their mansion, the servants decided to serve them like they serve Marquees Alger and his family.

A smart decision.

The maid sighed when she walked out of that creepy place, she then walked into the kitchen and started doing her job.

...

Alger was now sitting in his new room, waiting for someone. Actually, he was inwardly jealous of Heath. He didn't know why, but Nux was staying at his place, it was suffocating for him since he took every step in with utmost caution.

He didn't dare to offend Nux.

Due to this, he gets tired very quickly.

However, he couldn't do anything about it. He can't just tell his master to go away.

He was helpless.

He could only cry and curse Heath for his good luck.

*Bam***

While he was thinking about this, his door was slammed open and a woman who had covered her face walked in.

“What did you call me for?” Thyra questioned.

“You could have knocked...” Alger muttered.

“Shut the hell up. Tell me what you called for and note, it better be something important, else, prepare to lose your life, I am in a bad mood.” Thyra didn't care what he was thinking.

She was very irritated for some reason.

Alger noticed that and quickly got to the main topic.

“I didn’t want to call you here either. It’s master Nux who wants you to do something.”

“What does he want?” Hearing that name, her mood got even worse.

“He wants you to use all the assassins you have and search if there are any spies in the mansion.”

“Haven’t we done that already?”

“He says he wants you to do it again.” Alger shrugged.

“Fucking Bastard.” Thyra cursed.

Alger didn’t say anything.

To be honest, he would love to have the ability like Thyra’s, an ability to curse Nux whenever she wanted.

He tried it before but was assaulted by that pain, since then, he gave up.

“Is there anything else?” Thyra questioned.

“No.” Alger shook his head.

“Alright, I will take my leave now” Thyra muttered and walked out of the room and slammed the door closed.

‘She’s really angry huh...’ Alger muttered to himself.

This was the first time he had seen her showing so many emotions. Generally, she’s always cold and calm.

‘Heh, she doesn’t resemble an assassin at all...’ Alger chuckled inwardly.

...

Thyra didn’t know what he was thinking, and neither did she care. She just wanted to return to her room.

She has been feeling very weird lately but she doesn't know what's happening.

“Haah! Your mouth is really loud huh? How about you put that loud thing to good use?”

While Thyra was walking away, he heard something.

She narrowed her eyes and turned towards the source of direction.

It was coming from Alger's previous room, which now belongs to Nux.

Hearing the familiar words, Thyra narrowed her eyes even more and walked toward the room.

She then opened the door a little, peeked inside through that little gap and her eyes widened in surprise.

She saw a maid standing in front of Nux, who had a disdainful smile on his face.

“Get on your fours,” Nux ordered.

The maid's body moved, and she fell on all her fours.

“You see that? On the floor, on all fours, just like a bitch, that is where you belong. That is what you are now, a bitch, my bitch, who will listen to whatever I will say from now on”

This scene was extremely familiar to Thyra.

Her whole body shuddered in disgust and craving.

Wait, craving?

Thyra frowned.

She noticed that her certain area was a little too excited for some reason. She moved her hand close to that area; her finger moved and started rubbing her little sister.

“Anhh~” Thyra moaned out loud.

She couldn't believe that just a little rubbing felt so good.

However, she quickly realized where she was and stopped.

Or so she tried to.

As if they had a will of their own, her fingers continued to move and rubbed her opening.

‘What am I doing!?’ Thyra screamed inwardly.

“Anh~” She moaned again.

She couldn't believe how good it felt.

“Hahaha~ Elegant and Proud Head Maid of the Royal Palace, on all her fours, in front of a nobody. Hahaha~ Fate is really cruel, huh. Edda Osburn.” Suddenly, Nux laughed out loud.

Thyra's eyes widened when she heard his words.

Edda Osburn.

Isn't Edda his woman?

Then why is he ordering her like this?

Wait, does that mean she isn't his woman but was just a poor victim to his weird magic?

Are all his women like that?

Thyra began to think.

“Edda Osburn, start licking my dick as if it is the most delicious thing you ever had.”

Thyra’s eyes refused to miss what was happening in front of her and she continued pleasuring herself unconsciously.

Chapter 112

“Edda Osburn, start licking my dick as if it is the most delicious thing you ever had,” Nux ordered.

Thyra saw Edda’s body moving, she crawled towards Nux, placed her head close to his crotch area and used her mouth to lower his pants.

When she did, the 8-inch monster popped out and placed itself on the top of Edda’s face.

Edda moved her head a little, then, she kissed the head lightly.

Her tongue popped out and she started licking Nux’s shaft.

After a few licks, Nux’s whole rod was drenched in her saliva, Edda then moved forwards and started sucking his balls.

“Ughhh!” Nux groaned in pleasure.

Edda continued moving, after she was done with her sucking, she kissed the balls and then started licking his shaft, all the way up to the head.

Her pink purple eyes then glanced at Nux’s, a small smile appeared on her face before she gobbled up the whole thing in one move.

“UUghhh! So good! You are the best, Edda. I’m glad I took you as my pleasure toy~” Nux groaned in pleasure as he closed his eyes and held Edda’s head.

‘What a bastard! She’s not his woman! He is forcing her with that weird magic of his!’ Outside, Thyra cursed inwardly as she watched the whole scene.

‘I knew he was no good! That bastard!’ She continued cursing in hatred and disgust.

If only she could see herself in the mirror right now...

Thyra, who was 'cursing' Nux continuously, had a red face. She was sitting on her knees, her hand were under her panty, and her fingers continued to create chaos in her insides while a few drops of 'something' was on the floor, right under where she was sitting.

No one would believe that this girl was a coldhearted assassin if they saw her like that. Right now, she looked like a pervert who was peeking at a couple having sex.

"Ugghh~ Edda, you are amazing~" Nux moaned again.

He was lying earlier. When it came to a blowjob, Edda was indeed the best.

Not only would she gobble up his whole thing, but she would also continue moving her tongue inside, and would not stop sucking. Her cheeks would always sink inwardly, and her perfect blowjob face would never fail to turn him on.

Edda continued moving her head up and down, waves and waves of pleasure assaulted Nux's body. It was getting harder and harder for him to remain standing.

It was just that good.

His legs were weakening from all the pleasure.

He could feel his semen building up, suddenly, he grabbed Edda's head, and started thrusting his hips roughly.

"Ughhh!! Edda! Drink it all!"

Saying that, he released a massive load inside her mouth.

Edda choked due to the massive amount.

*Gulp* *Gulp* *Gulp*

However, she quickly gulped down everything and once Nux pulled his dick out of her mouth, she opened her mouth to show him that she gobbled everything up.

Nux smiled and patted her head.

“Good Job~”

A bright smile appeared on Edda’s face.

“Hehe~ How about I reward you now?” Nux muttered with a small smile on his face.

“Stand up” he ordered.

Edda did as she was told and stood up.

“Remove your clothes”

Edda started removing all her clothes, revealing her gorgeous tanned and untanned skin, Nux didn’t stay idle as well, as he removed his clothes as well.

A big, perverted smile appeared on Edda’s face when she saw that dreamy, perfect body with perfect muscles.

Even Thyra, who was watching everything was taken aback a little.

“Alright, go near that wall” Nux ordered and Thyra’s heartbeat quickened.

The wall he was pointing at was very close to the door.

She wanted to run away, however, her body refused to obey her and her hand continued creating chaos in her insides.

Edda then turned around, and again, Thyra was taken aback.

This was the first time she had seen Edda’s face and rather than looking like someone who is being forced, she looked like she was enjoying every moment of it.

Heck, the big wide grin on her red face even looked a little creepy.

“Alright, bent down and put your hands on the wall”

Thyra’s heartbeat quickened even more. Edda and Nux were just 2 meters away from her. She could see everything clearly.

“Good” Nux praised.

He then walked close to Edda and started sliding his rod over her little sister.

“Annh~” Edda, who was already wet after the blowjob, moaned out loud.

“D-Don’t tease me~ Master~” She requested.

Nux’s grin widened and,

“AAnnnhh~”

He penetrated her insides in one thrust, making her moan loudly.

Edda’s body shuddered in pleasure, her red face turned even red and her smile widened. She looked like she had gone crazy.

“Alright, let’s start, shall we?” Saying that, Nux pulled out his rod and rammed it inside again.

“AANnnhhh~”

Edda then closed her eyes, her legs weakened, and just as she was about to fall, Nux grabbed her waist.

“Hehe~ My perverted maid, I haven’t even started yet~” Nux chuckled and started his thrusting.

The more he pounded, the louder Edda moaned.

Thyra also increased her speed, and her third finger entered her cave as well. The scene in front of her was just too stimulating.

She could clearly see Nux's rod that entered and exited Edda's insides. She also didn't miss the expression of pure ecstasy on Edda's face.

If Thyra still doubted her moans, the expression on her face told her that Edda wasn't faking anything.

She actually felt that good.

“Annhh~ AAnhh~ ANhh~”

Edda continued moaning.

Her mind turned blank from pleasure and a few more thrusts later, her caves tightened to a ridiculous degree.

“AAANHhhhhhh~ I am cumminngggg~”

She moaned out loud.

“Ughhh~ I am cumming as welll~” Nux moaned as well.

The sudden tightness forced his already sensitive penis to release his semen.

Edda's love juice gushed out and at the same time, Nux released his milk inside her body.

“mmnhhh~”

However, they weren't the only two who orgasmed.

There was another person who came right after them.

Chapter 113

The next day, Edda woke up and her eyes fell on Nux, who was looking at her with a small smile on his face.

“Good Morning, My Perverted Maid~” Nux greeted.

A smile appeared on Edda’s face as well.

It was indeed the best way to start the day.

She nodded inwardly.

Soon, memories of last night entered her mind and her smile widened.

“You were amazing last night, master~”

“You were amazing as well~” Nux muttered.

“What about that assassin, did she leave?” Edda questioned.

“Of course, she left! Hahaha~ You scared her so badly~” Nux couldn’t control himself and laughed out loud.

“Hmph! I didn’t do anything, I was just doing what you told me to” Edda retorted, however, even though she tried to sound angry, the smile on her face betrayed her.

Last night, someone was peeking at them while they were having sense. No, that’s not right, it is better to say that she was manipulated into peeking at them.

If Nux didn’t order Alger to call Thyra, nothing would have happened.

Of course, nobody needed to know that.

So Shhh!

Ahem Ahem.

Of course, since Nux was the one who arranged everything, he naturally knew Thyra was peeking at them and he told Edda to act accordingly.

First, he recreated some scenes that Thyra should be familiar with, he then noted her reactions and once he confirmed that she was 'excited'.

He gave her a first-row ticket to the show.

Thyra continued watching and 'playing' while they fucked and came a few times, however, right after she came the 3rd time, Nux and Edda glanced in her direction at the same time.

Thyra's eyes widened in fear and like a deer who noticed a lion near her, she ran away as soon as she can.

"Hahaha~" Edda laughed out loud when she remembered the terrified look on her face.

It was really fun to tease her, especially when she knew that Thyra was a cold-blooded, serious assassin who has taken countless lives.

Soon, however, Edda's eyes fell on the window and her smile faded away.

"I am LATE!" She screamed in panic as she stood up from the bed.

She then turned towards Nux who was looking at her with a smile on his face and questioned, "Why didn't you wake me up!?"

"You looked so peaceful when you were asleep, I didn't want to disturb you," Nux answered.

Seeing the teasing smile on his face, Edda was sure that he did it just so he could make fun of her.

"Ughhh! I'll be late~" Edda groaned in frustration.

Just as she was about to walk towards the bathroom, Nux grabbed her hand and pulled her into the bed, she tried to struggle, however, he hugged her from behind and muttered.

“So what if you get late? You are the head maid, Edda. No one would say anything to you”

“Ughhh! Nux, let me go~ I am late! It’s not good to be late, especially when I am a head maid, I need to set an example for the others!” Although she said that, she didn’t resist his hug at all, rather, she moved her body close to his and enjoyed his touch.

“Hooh? Since when were you so serious about your job? I thought that the only thing that you think about is new positions to be bound in...” Nux muttered.

Edda’s face turned red and she pouted.

“Hmph! Who said that!? I have to do a good job as a head maid, else I’ll be replaced soon. You know how many people are trying to take away my position, don’t you?” Edda questioned as she remembered Edrea.

Then, a small smile appeared on Edda’s face as she muttered, “Hmmm, I think that once you become the king, I would slack off a little more. You won’t take away my position as your head maid, will you? Master~?”

Nux then tightened his hug around Edda, closed the distance between his mouth and her ear and whispered seductively, “Heh, slack off? What a joke! Once I become the king, you would have to work for 24 hours a day. No slacking off!

You will be forced to accompany me without any rest! Hehe~”

Edda accepted his advances with a huge smile on her face, she really longed for that moment.

Then she wouldn’t have to do so much work, she would just stay near Nux and enjoy.

She really wished that Nux becomes the king as soon as possible, and so that he can achieve that quickly, she's working hard as well.

“Ah, I searched a little and found a perfect target for you.” Then, Edda smiled slyly and muttered, “And don't worry, I made sure she fits your taste.”

“Hmm? My taste? You know my taste?” Nux questioned with a curious look.

“Of course, I know it. You love big breast!” She grabbed Nux's hand and placed it on her breast.

“Why do you say that?”

“Me, Felberta, Lane, all of us have big breasts.”

“What about Skyla then?” Nux questioned.

“That girl can melt anyone's heart with her innocence and pureness. It doesn't matter if she had big breasts or not, no one cannot not fall in love with her. It is simply impossible to resist her.

So she doesn't count.” Edda shook her head.

Out of all the women around Nux, she liked Skyla the most. She was innocent, friendly and cheerful.

She was a lovely girl.

Nux smiled as well, Skyla was cute, that was true. However, that doesn't mean that Edda was correct, he did not prefer large breasts over small breasts.

He liked all of them the same.

Breasts were breasts.

No matter if they were large or small.

Suddenly, his smile widened and he shook his head.

Heh, who was he trying to fool? Himself?

Large breasts for life!

Indeed, large breasts are the best.

He then grabbed her firm breast and questioned.

“So, who are you talking about?”

“Allura Skyfall.”

Chapter 114

‘Thyra, come here.’

Thyra, who had just woken up, heard Nux’s voice in her head and her face turned red.

Yesterday’s memories flooded her mind.

‘Did he see me yesterday?’ She thought inwardly and panicked.

‘Ughh... why is he calling me... I am sure he saw me... I shouldn’t have peeked on him... that was...’

That was so lewd...’

Thyra’s face continued to turn redder and redder.

Her cold assassin image was really taking some heavy blows since she met Nux.

Thyra then quickly wore her clothes and walked towards Nux’s room.

Her mind was filled with how Nux’s rod was going inside and outside Edda’s private part and how Edda was reacting to it.

A few minutes later, she appeared in front of Nux’s room and knocked.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

She knocked.

“Enter.”

Thyra did as she was told and entered. However, as soon as she did, her face turned red.

Nux just had his underwear on. He was practically naked!

“W-Why did you call me when you were changing!?” She questioned out loud as she closed her eyes.

However, if one looked closely, there was a very little gap between her left eyelids.

She was peeking at her.

But nobody noticed that, so that didn't happen.

Okay?

Nux smiled when he saw her reaction, he quickly wore all his clothes and muttered, “Hee? Where did that cold and expressionless assassin go? What happened to you?”

Suddenly, Thyra frowned, ‘Does he not know that I was peeking at him?’ She thought inwardly.

However, when she saw that smile on his face, she started thinking otherwise.

‘No, he always has that hateful smile on his face... it seems that he doesn't really know...’

A deep sigh escaped Thyra's mouth.

She was saved from embarrassing herself.

Her face then turned to her usual expressionless one and she questioned.

“What did you call me here for?”

“Haa? Did you return to normal? That's sad... I liked your previous face more...”

“It is not for you to decide how I act. Of course, you can use your weird magic to force me to act like that, but don’t think I will change myself to fit your taste. Remember, I hate your guts.” Thyra answered in a cold tone.

However, Nux’s smile didn’t disappear, “Nope, you definitely changed a little, the previous you would have never talked about so many random things.”

Thyra’s cold façade threatened to break, however, she controlled herself and didn’t say anything.

Yes, she shouldn’t talk about any random things, lest he will think that she had changed.

She has not changed.

“Why did you call me here?” She questioned again.

Nux watched her for a little while and then questioned.

“Did you do what I told you to do?”

“Are you talking about the checking for spies?” Thyra questioned back.

“Yes.”

“Yes, I did. I rechecked everyone’s information, there is no change in their attitude, their families are under our surveillance and there are no unusual movements. I don’t think there are any spies in the mansion.” Thyra answered.

So that Nux doesn’t know about her peeking at her, she forced all the assassins to work and check everything out in the middle of the night. That is also the reason why she woke up so late, she was working all night.

“Good, it’s good to have assassins as subordinates, efficient indeed.” Nux nodded to himself and Thyra snorted.

“Can I go now?” She didn’t want to stay a second longer in this place.

“Ah no wait, I still want to ask something”

“What is it?” Thyra questioned in a rushed tone.

Thyra’s eyes widened and her face turned red again.

‘D-Does he knows?’

She started doubting her previous judgment.

“W-What do you w-want to ask about last night?” She stuttered.

“Ah, nothing serious, I just wanted to ask if you slept well or not.” Nux laughed.

“...”

Thyra remained silent.

She didn’t know how to react to it.

She can never understand what is going on with him.

And what’s with that hateful smile on his face!

“Whether I slept well or not has nothing to do with you!” She retorted in anger.

Thyra then turned around and walked away.

“If you have nothing else to say, then I will be taking my leave now!”

*Bam*

She then slammed the door closed and left.

“Hahahaha~ I can now understand why you like to tease her so much~ It’s so funnn~~” After she left, Felberta deactivated her [Conceal] and laughed out loud.

“I told you it would be fun~ Have I ever been wrong about something?” Nux smiled as well.

Felberta smiled seductively as she walked towards Nux and wrapped her hand around his neck, “How can you ever be wrong? You are the smartest and the most handsome man alive~”

“Heh, your flattery does not amuse me,” Nux muttered as he wrapped his hand around Felberta’s waist.

“Does it really not amuse you?” Felberta closed the distance between their mouths and questioned.

“Heh.” Nux smiled and sealed her lips.

“Alright, let’s go and eat now. Skyla and Lane must be waiting for us” After a short kiss, Felberta muttered.

Nux nodded and carried her like a princess.

He knew that she liked it a lot.

“Heh, treating me like a princess when you are about to meet a queen~”

Felberta laughed.

“Hoh? Are you jealous?” Nux questioned.

“Hmph! Jealous my ass! I got a whole faction. She might be a queen in the palace, but here, I am the real queen! The queen who has your heart!” Felberta declared proudly.

“I can’t deny that, you are indeed my queen.” Nux nodded.

A satisfied smile appeared on Felberta's face as she muttered, "It is good that you know about it."

"So, what did Edda tell you about her?"

A small smile appeared on Nux's face as he muttered.

"She might be an interesting character."

"When are you going to meet her?" Felberta questioned curiously.

"This evening."

Chapter 115

“Concubine Allura, or Allura Skyfall, is a 1.7-meter tall woman, just like her name, she has an alluring, sinful body and a perfect hourglass figure. White hairs, crystal blue eyes, perfectly carved face. A beauty indeed.” Edda muttered.

“Ohh? You make her sound so beautiful.”

“She’s very beautiful.” Edda praised.

“Really? I am excited to meet her.

So? Why did you choose her?” Nux questioned.

“Allura Skyfall is nicknamed ‘The Bored Concubine’, she always tries to find something interesting in her life, it is as if she is bored of her life already. She hides her identity and randomly walks into the city to find something interesting, and she does that very often.

She isn’t arrogant like other concubines, well, she is a little, but not to the degree compared to the other concubines. She talks to the servants normally and doesn’t look down on them but that’s mostly because she tries to find something interesting in them.

Approaching and talking to her is relatively easier compared to others. You just have to win her interest, once you do that, you can meet her again in the future.

However, if she doesn’t find you interesting, you will lose the opportunity to talk to her in the future.

Of course, you don’t really need to think too much about it, I’ll be surprised if a woman can resist you” Edda explained everything she knew about Concubine Allura in great detail.

It was clear that she was thorough in her search and worked hard.

Nux kissed her forehead and then questioned.

“So how can I meet her?”

Edda smiled as she lifted her chest in pride and answered, “Heh, you don’t have to worry about that, as I said before, she likes to hide her identity and visits the capital city very often.”

Edda then moved closer to Nux and whispered in his ears.

“And she’s going to the Silver Moon Restaurant in the evening.”

“Ohh! Isn’t that where we met for the second time? Heh. It is a lucky restaurant for me.” Nux muttered.

Edda smiled.

“Alright, I am getting late now. I need to go” She then stood up and entered the bathroom.

...

Nux smiled when he remembered his conversation with Edda, right now, he was wearing an expensive purple coloured coat over a white shirt and was standing in the Silver Moon Restaurant.

He observed the beautiful lady sitting in the corner of the restaurant alone, watching everything with a small smile on her face. She was Allura Skyfall, the Royal Concubine.

‘She’s as beautiful as Edda said.’ He thought inwardly and admired her beauty. His golden eyes then shined brightly and her information appeared in front of his eyes.

...

A small smile appeared on Nux's face as he started walking toward her.

However, just as he was 10 meters away from her, he felt someone's killing intent. The person made it clear not to come close to her or it won't end well.

Of course, Nux just smiled and ignored the killing intent.

He already knew who was behind it.

2 Grand Master Stage experts were protecting Allura in secret. The killing intent came from them. Nux had already sensed their presence when he entered the restaurant.

This is also the reason why no ‘bug’ roamed around such a ‘beautiful flower’.

Of course, Nux was different.

He intended to pluck that flower.

“Can I have a seat? The rest of the tables are occupied.” Nux questioned and without waiting for an answer, he sat down.

Her two guards were about to jump on Nux and attack him, however, Allura secretly raised her hands and stopped them.

She can see that this young man in front of her was a Master Stage Cultivator just like her, however, he treated the two Grand Master’s killing intent as nothing but air.

Although she wasn’t a cultivation freak and found cultivation tedious, someone so young, yet so powerful and courageous definitely gained her interest.

She then glanced at the other restaurant tables and muttered with a smile, “More than 10 tables are free right now?”

“Hmm? Where? Why do I not see them? Ah, by the way, you are really beautiful, young lady” Nux questioned with a smile.

“Hoh? Do I look young to you?” Allura questioned with an interesting smile.

“Of course, you look no older than 16 to me,” Nux replied.

“Hahaha~ What a glib tongue you have~ However, you remember that when you praise a woman, you shouldn’t lie so blatantly. Everyone is not as easygoing as I am” Allura muttered.

“Ah, this is my first time doing all this, so I apologize for my inexperience, I will keep that in my mind from now on.” Nux apologized.

“First time doing what?” Allura questioned, interested.

“First time trying to impress a beautiful woman,” Nux answered.

“Heh. I do not believe that.”

“Believe me.”

“Hahaha~ I do not believe you, but if it is really your first time trying to impress a lady, then you are definitely doing a good job.” Allura laughed out loud.

“Really?” Nux’s face brightened up.

“Wait, are you trying to say that I managed to you?” he questioned.

“Hahaha~ You are too impatient, kid. What you are doing right now is definitely enough to impress a normal girl, but not me.” Allura answered, she was looking forward to how he will react.

“Oh... See? I am still inexperienced, how about you teach me how to impress a woman while I pay for the food in return?” Nux offered and again, without waiting for her, he called the waiter.

“Let me give the order. I am sure you will like it.”

Allura kept smiling, however, suddenly, she realized something.

This man changed the topic very quickly.

They were still talking about the free tables and why he didn’t sit there before he changed the topic!

She was completely trapped in his rhythm!

Chapter 116

“You are not from here, are you?” Concubine Allura questioned.

She was definitely interested in this young boy in front of her. Not sexually, obviously.

She was just bored and she felt like this boy was a great way to overcome her boredom for a few hours.

“Oh? How did you know that?” Nux questioned back. His eyes gleamed with interest as well.

The two of them looked quite similar to each other at the moment.

“I have never seen you here before and I am very positive that my eyes won’t miss such a handsome man,” Allura answered.

“Oh ho. Thank you very much for the compliment and yes, you are correct, I am not from here.”

“Where are you from?” Allura questioned.

“I don’t really belong to any place. My friends call me ‘bored wanderer’ since I am wandering around the world, looking for something interesting.” Nux answered with a smile.

Allura narrowed her eyes when she heard him, his nickname, wasn’t it too similar to hers?

She then inwardly shook her head, thinking it was coincident and continued.

“Oh? Bored wanderer huh. That’s a nice name. So, how do you deal with your boredom? What interesting things do you do while you wander?”

“I tried many things and then concluded. Life-threatening adventures are the best way to deal with boredom.”

“That’s pretty extreme, don’t you think?”

“It is extreme, that’s why it is such a great way to deal with boredom.” Nux smiled.

“Oh? Then what life-threatening adventures have you gone through yet?” Allura questioned, the light in her eyes showed that she was very interested in this topic.

“Hahaha~ Just a few days ago, I entered my enemy’s house, sneaked around and stole his treasures. I won’t tell you the details, however, know that my enemy wasn’t a normal person. If someone would have seen me, more than 2000 soldiers would have come after me.” Nux shifted his body towards her a little and whispered.

“And you are telling me all of this? What if I spill the beans and catch you? Your enemy sounds like an influential person, I am sure he will reward me well” Allura smiled.

Nux’s smile widened as well and he replied, “Heh. That would lead to another interesting adventure of running away with you.”

“Hoh? Why would you run away with me?”

“You think you can walk away unscathed after betraying my trust? Heh. Think again.” Nux could feel the two protectors glaring at him, however, he ignored them.

They were nothing to him.

Also, he believed that Allura wouldn’t let them do anything.

“Hahaha~” Allura laughed out loud.

“You really like life-threatening adventures huh?” She muttered.

“Indeed, that’s why I am talking to you in the first place.” Nux nodded.

“Hmm? What does talking to me have anything to do with this?” Allura questioned.

“I don’t know, I just have this feeling that you are not any normal person and I am taking a big risk when I talk to you so casually,” Nux answered.

Allura narrowed her eyes again, this shouldn’t be a coincidence anymore.

“Do you know who I am?” She questioned.

“Hmm? A beautiful lady sitting at a table in the Silver Moon Restaurant?” Nux answered.

“No, that is not what I am talking about.

I just feel like you know who I am.” Allura muttered.

Nux’s eyes widened, “Wow, that’s a good pickup line indeed. It forms a connection with the other person without being too obvious.

This subtle hint would later turn into a spark and then the two of them will mate.”

“Wha- What?” Allura couldn’t believe what she was hearing.

What the heck does that mean? Is he saying that she was trying to woo him?

And where did mating come from?

What are they?

Animals?

That was so random.

“As I thought, you are good at this. I am glad that I took you in as my teacher. I feel like I will be an expert in wooing women after talking to you a few more times.” Nux continued to nod.

“...” Allura turned silent.

She realized that he was trying to change the topic again.

She asked him if she knew her identity and he smoothly changed it to her teaching him how to impress women.

He is...

“You are good at this.” Allura praised.

“Good at what?” Nux questioned with a slight smile on his face.

Allura’s mouth twitched when she saw that expression.

This man was still acting ignorantly.

It is so obvious but he is still acting ignorantly.

This little boy was clearly teasing her!

Suddenly, a scheming smile appeared on her face as an idea popped into her mind.

How could she take it lying down?

“You just mentioned that you liked life-threatening adventures, right?” She questioned.

“I do.” Even though he didn’t know where she was going with this, Nux nodded.

“You also mentioned that you feel talking to me so casually is a life-threatening adventure?” Allura questioned again.

“I do.” And again, Nux nodded.

“Then how about you do something even more life-threatening, even more thrilling?” Allura questioned.

Nux played his role very well and his eyes brightened, “What is it? Tell me! Tell me!”

“How about you have tea with me tomorrow afternoon?” Allura suggested.

“How is tha-” Nux frowned, however, just as he was about to question, she continued.

“But the tea will be in my own room. How about it? Do you dare?”

A small smile appeared on Allura’s face as she questioned.

Hehe, now if this little boy knew who she was, he would back away immediately, and even if he didn’t know her, she will tell him her identity and scare him.

Hahaha~

This was her way of getting back at him.

‘Heh. You are still too young to deal with me, little boy.’ Allura muttered inwardly.

However, something unexpected happened, a small smile appeared on Nux’s face as he answered.

“That sounds fun. Why not?”

He agreed and he agreed without a second thought.

Chapter 117

“W-What did you say?” Allura questioned in surprise.

“I said it sounds fun. I will join you tomorrow afternoon.” Nux answered.

“D-Do you even know who I am?” Allura questioned.

“Hmm? Again with this huh? Do you really think your identity can scare me? Heh. Let me tell you, I am not scared of anything. Rather, the higher your background, the more excited I will get.”

“...”

Allura didn't say anything. After the initial shock, she was able to calm herself.

She then observed the young man in front of her. From the looks of it, he doesn't really know who she was.

‘It might be interesting...’ Allura thought inwardly.

She really hopes to see what kind of face will he make once she reveals her identity.

“Oh really?” she questioned.

“Of course!”

“Then I will be waiting for you tomorrow in the royal palace” Allura muttered with a small smile on her face and Nux's smile disappeared.

“R-Royal Palace?” Nux stuttered as his eyes widened in surprise.

Allura's smile widened, this was the reaction she was looking for.

Yes, this look, this nervous look, it was a lot better than that hateful smile from before.

“Yes, I am Allura Skyfall, the 7th Concubine of the King of the Skyfall Kingdom.” Allura introduced herself with a playful smile on her face.

Nux’s eyes widened in horror.

He then stood up, bowed a little and muttered, “I’ll see you later”

After saying that, he turned around and walked away without waiting for her answer.

“Pppfftt!” Allura, who saw him walk away as soon as she revealed her identity laughed out loud.

She didn’t look down on him, it was a normal reaction.

It is normal to be scared of the king of the country. Not many could walk away after offending him.

She just found his reaction funny.

With how he was talking and then how he reacted, it was amusing indeed.

‘Hahaha~ That was funnn’ She thought inwardly.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

However, after the initial happiness, Allura’s smile faded when she realized something.

Her source of entertainment was gone...

She scared him away.

How is she going to entertain herself now...?

How could she be so stupid to scare away such a great source of entertainment?

She wanted to hit herself...

She then sighed in defeat and started looking around, trying to find something interesting, however, her mind was still stuck on that young man.

She regretted her decision...

“Haahhh...” In the end, she couldn’t take it anymore and stood up. She then left the restaurant and walked toward the royal palace with a dejected look on her face.

“I really shouldn’t have scared him away...” She muttered out loud.

As soon as Allura walked close to the Royal Palace, her two protectors appeared behind her and one of them sneered.

“Heh. He acted like he was some sort of big shot but he didn’t even think a minute before he ran away with his tails between his legs”

That man really got on his nerves and he was really pleased when he saw him running away in fear.

“Indeed. What a gutless man.” other protector sneered as well.

“Heh, you two act like you are any better? Won’t you run away with your tails between your legs if your opponent was the king of a country? Heck, you might run away even if you face a duke, let alone the King. Isn’t that right? Huh? C’mon, tell me.” Allura scoffed.

She was bored, therefore, she tried to tease her subordinates.

This might be fun.

However, her subordinates were familiar with her antics.

They knew the more they tried to defend themselves, the more she will tease them.

Therefore, they remained silent.

“Hmph!” Allura understood their thoughts and snorted.

Maybe she was destined to be bored today...

She sighed.

“Hmm? Lady Allura? You are back?” While Allura was sighing to herself, she suddenly heard a voice. She turned around to look who it was and answered.

“Yes, Edda, I am back.”

“Oh? That is faster than usual...” Edda muttered.

“Indeed...” Allura sighed.

“Why do you look so dejected, did you not find anything?” Edda questioned with a curious look on her face.

She knew Nux and Allura would have met today, as far as she knew Nux and his way of doing things, Allura should be all smiles right now.

However, she looks completely different from what she expected.

“That’s not it... I did find someone interesting... however, I ruined it due to my own stupidity...”

Allura muttered and sighed again.

“What happened?” Edda questioned.

“Haahh... leave it... I don’t want to recall it,” Allura sighed again and didn’t answer.

The more she acted this way, the more curious Edda got, however, she didn't question anymore. She would know it once she meets Nux.

It's no big deal.

Just as Edda was about to leave, Allura questioned.

“What about you, Edda? Where are you going?”

“Just some business talks, nothing much” Edda lied.

“Hehe~ You think you can lie to me? Business talks don't happen every day right?” Allura smiled.

“Haah... I can't hide anything from you... can I, Lady Allura?” Edda sighed in defeat.

Since Allura was bored, she loves to hear about all the gossip flying around the palace and since the head maid leaving the palace every night to meet someone was a gossip the servants talk about a lot, Allura knew about it as well.

“Hehe~ So our beautiful Head Maid finally found someone huh?” Allura muttered.

A tinge of red appeared on Edda's face as she nodded.

A big smile appeared on Allura's face.

This was interesting...

She finally found a new target.

She could use this to relieve her boredom.

“So? Who is it? What is his name? Is he handsome? How tall is he? What is his cultivation level?” Allura shot a series of questions however, Edda just remained silent and looked at Allura with a straight face.

“Lady Allura, I won’t tell you anything.”

“Whhhhyyy?” Allura questioned. She looked like a poor woman who was betrayed by the love of her life.

“Lady Allura, everyone in the palace knows about you. You will keep on teasing me if I tell you anything. Also...”

“Also what?”

A small smile appeared on Edda’s face as she replied,

“I have an inkling that you will know about him soon enough”

Chapter 118

“What...?”

Nux couldn't take the silence anymore and questioned.

His girls have been staring at him for a while now, he thought that they would say something in a while, however, they all just kept staring.

Nux noted that this happened once Edda joined the dinner, before that, everything was fine.

“My lovely girls, can you tell me what happened? Why are you staring at me like that? Am I looking more handsome than usual?” Nux questioned as he moved his hand through his hair.

He was becoming a narcissist.

The type of people he hated in his last life.

‘But what can I do? I am just too handsome~’

He praised himself inwardly.

“How is our fifth sister?” finally, Skyla broke the silence and questioned.

“Fifth Sister?”

“She is talking about Allura Skyfall,” Felberta answered.

“How are you guys so sure that she will be your 5th sister?” Nux questioned.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

The four of them glanced at Nux with a dull look on their faces.

“What?”

“...has any woman ever escaped your clutches? Ever?” Edda questioned and the other three nodded continuously.

Nux felt that these 4 were getting along very well since everything they do looks so organized.

It was as if they knew what the others are going to do.

“I mean... There is Annice right?” He answered.

“That was just because you weren’t interested in her. Try asking her to sleep with you and see how she reacts! That girl has been bothering me for a while now, asking about you again and again.” Edda snorted.

“Hmph! Don’t act so innocent, any woman that enters your eyes end up laying on the bed next to you” Felberta blamed.

“Why are you making me sound like a sexual predator?” Nux questioned.

“Isn’t that what you are?” Skyla questioned.

“ ... ”

“Oi oi. What have you done to my cute innocent Skyla?” Nux questioned.

“Skyla, you should not spend time with them. They are affecting your innocence. You should stay with me from now on.” He then turned to Skyla and muttered.

“No, Skyla is perfectly fine and loves to stay with us.” Felberta then placed her hand on Skyla’s shoulder and muttered.

“Right Skyla?” She then turned towards Skyla and questioned.

Skyla however, glanced at Nux and questioned,

“Staying with you all the time?”

“””SKYLA!””” Felberta, Lane and Edda shouted.

“O-Oh, I meant no. I love to spend time with them...” Skyla lowered her head with a small pout on her face.

Seeing this scene, Nux laughed inwardly.

It was good that they were getting along.

Also,

Skyla is very cute.

“So, how’s Allura Skyfall? How did your meeting go?” Felberta then brought back the initial question.

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face as he remembered the Charming white-haired lady.

“She’s an amazing woman indeed...” Nux muttered as he started talking about what happened today and his impression of Allura Skyfall.

...

*Bam***

2 hours later, the door of Alger’s room was smashed open and Thyra entered.

“What is it this time!?” She questioned, clearly frustrated since Alger called her again.

Alger, who saw the way she entered smiled wryly. He couldn't do anything about her.

“Look, I don't have any interest in seeing your face again and again either but I can't do anything. I am just following orders.” Alger muttered.

Thyra scowled as she questioned, “Is it that bastard again?”

“If you are talking about Master Nux, then yes. He is the one who ordered me to call you.”

“Why doesn't he just call me through that weird magic himself?” Thyra questioned with a frown.

“Well, if you don't know... Master Nux... Master Nux is 'busy' at this time of the day...” Alger coughed awkwardly and answered.

Thyra then remembered what she saw last night and her face turned a little red, of course, Alger couldn't notice that since her control over her expressions was good.

“So, why did he call me this time?” Thyra questioned and this time, Alger's face turned sour.

“Most of your assassins have 2 or 3 star weapons, right?” He questioned.

“That is true,” Thyra replied with a small smile on her face.

She could guess where this was going and she was very content with it.

“Yes, so Master Nux ordered me to give these 3 and 4 star weapons to you... he says that you can give them to the best assassins...” Alger muttered as he passed a few weapons to Thyra.

Thyra kept them all in her storage ring and chuckled, “Hahaha~ What a generous Master”

“Generous my ASS! These are all min- AAAGGGHHHHHHHHH!!!”

Before Alger could complete his sentence, he fell to his knees and screamed in agony.

“These are not mine! It’s master Nux’s!

I am Loyal!

I am Loyal!

I am Loyal!”

A few seconds later, the pain finally stopped and Alger sighed in relief.

Thyra, who watched everything unfold smiled.

This hateful man deserves it!

Although that Nux is hateful as well, at least he is not stingy. He is still hateful nonetheless.

‘Hmph!’ Thyra snorted inwardly and muttered, “Alright, if it is nothing else, I will take my leave.”

She then left the room and Alger, who was on the floor sighed.

He started wondering what bad things he had done in his life that fate put him against Nux.

He really regrets sending those assassins after him...

‘haahh... my shitty luck...’ he then sighed, stood up and walked towards his bed.

He is tired, he needs to sleep.

...

On the other side, Thyra was walking in the hall and soon, she heard something.

“AAnnhhh~”

In an instant, she knew what she was.

‘No, I won’t repeat the same mistake again!’

Thinking that, she walked.

She walked towards the source of the voice.

She walked towards Nux’s room.

‘I should check it out a little... Yes, I need to see if his women are being controlled by his weird magic or not.

Yes, I need to confirm that and save them if they are.’

She thought inwardly and appeared in front of the Nux’s door.

Then opening it a little, she started watching everything from that slight gap.

Chapter 119

“Oooh! New weapons! Are these all 3 or 4 star weapons!?” An assassin girl walked forwards, her eyes shining in excitement.

“Wow! These are so beautiful!”

“Heh. Master Nux is generous!”

“Generous indeed.”

More and more assassins joined.

Right now, Thyra was distributing the weapons Alger gave to her, however, there was a tinge of redness on her face.

The assassins noticed that but didn't dare to say anything.

That was because they learned their lessons yesterday.

Yesterday, Thyra had a similar expression on her face and one of the assassins pointed it out.

That assassin is still in the bed right now.

From his injuries, everyone deduced that it would take him a week to recover and that too only if he takes a healing potion every day.

Poor man.

However, his sacrifice saved the others since no one dared to question the redness on Thyra's face.

“Alright, get in line and all the assassins who have 4-star weapons, you guys stay away from here,” Thyra ordered.

A very few assassins had 4-star weapons, most of the Master Stage Assassins carried 3-star weapons and all the Advance Stage assassins carried 2-star weapons.

However, now, Master Stage assassins can carry 4-star weapons and the Advance stage assassins can carry 3-star weapons.

This will be a big boost to their fighting capabilities.

Therefore, all of them were very excited.

“Heh. Master Nux is such a generous master.” An assassin muttered after he got his new weapon.

“It’s so easy to win you guys over, huh…” Thyra muttered.

“It is not about being easy or difficult, Miss One. I just thought about it a little.” The assassin replied.

“Oh? What are you thinking about? Mind sharing it with us?” Thyra questioned. She wanted to know what was going on in his mind, maybe because she was confused about her current situation as well.

“I remained loyal to most of the Kingdom for most of my life, Miss One. I started killing people at the age of 8, all for the kingdom. I was even prepared to die for my kingdom.

However, if I think about it now, it all started when the kingdom took me in and raised me as an orphan. I believe they gave me a ‘life’ but that was far from the truth.

They did not raise us as humans, Miss One. They raised us as assassins, they raised us as tools.

Heh, they changed our perception, made us narrow-minded, they practically brainwashed us.

What’s there to be grateful about?” The assassin answered.

The other assassins who listened to him nodded their head and one of them stepped forward as she muttered,

“I agree with Twelve, we are nothing but tools, the kingdom doesn’t value us at all.

Look at you Miss One, just like all of us, you gave your entire life to the kingdom as well, heck, you worked even harder than us, and rose to a good position, but what did you get in return?

You couldn’t even win their basic trust, Miss One.

‘An Orphan can’t be trusted with such matters.’

That’s what you got, Miss One.

They sent a spy to keep their eyes on you, your lifetime worth of loyalty counts to nothing in their eyes.

Actually, I am surprised you still have some loyalty left for the kingdom.”

The female assassin muttered and another assassin continued,

“I agree with these two as well, Miss One.” Another assassin nodded.

Thyra then glanced at the other assassins and they all nodded as well.

“I understand your thoughts; however, that still doesn’t explain why you are loyal to Nux? He used his weird magic to control you all, at least you have the freedom of your thoughts when you worked for the kingdom but under him, you don’t even have that.

Just thinking about betraying him a little would activate that agonizing pain and the pain will keep increasing until you get rid of those thoughts and think about being loyal to him.

Isn’t that worse?”

“As you said, Miss One, Master Nux used his weird magic on us, we don’t really have an option other than being loyal to him.

As for comparing him with the kingdom... I feel that Master Nux is still better, the kingdom fooled us and tried to brainwash us, whereas he told us our position up front.

About the pain, Miss One, don’t forget, we were trained to handle the pain ever since we were 12. The kingdom started torturing us at such a tender age.

The kingdom just doesn’t have the way to torture us in a more painful way, else I am sure they would have used that on us as well.

They tortured their ‘allies’ while Master Nux tortured their ‘enemies’, there is a big difference between that, Miss One.” The female assassin answered.

“Also, I am sure the kingdom is a lot richer than Master Nux, however, they still gave us 3 Star Weapons. On the other hand, Master Nux gave us 4-star weapons.

He is generous indeed.” ‘Twelve’ muttered as his eyes shined in excitement when he held the new dagger in his hand.

Seeing him acting like that, Thyra just shook her head and sighed,

“Isn’t it better to say that Nux bought you all with these weapons?”

“Hahaha~ You can say that as well. Our mentality has been twisted after being trained as assassins since we were children, Miss One. Our love for weapons is very high.

A new weapon is a great way to win our favour.” Twelve laughed out loud as he held his dagger gently.

Thyra smiled as well.

They were so simple-minded.

“Also, Master Nux isn’t a normal man. I have a feeling that serving him will be a lot more beneficial to us than serving the kingdom.” Suddenly, Twelve muttered with an unusually serious look on his face.

“Hmm? What do you mean?” Thyra questioned, even the other assassins looked a little interested.

“I don’t know how to explain this to you, ah, I got it.

So hear me out.”

Chapter 120

“So hear me out.

Viscount Felberta, we all know she is related to Master Nux, right?”

“She’s no-” Thyra wanted to say that she was being controlled by his weird magic as well, but after what she saw today, she started having doubts about it.

Her face then turned a little red.

“She’s not?”

However, she was brought out of her reverie when she heard Twelve’s confused voice.

“Ah no, I meant she is his woman, yes.” Thyra nodded.

Twelve nodded back and questioned.

“And what is her Cultivation Level?”

“A Master Stage Cultivat- wait...” Suddenly, Thyra realized that she has missed a very important detail.

“Yes, Felberta Alveye was among those nobles who preferred making contacts rather than focusing on Cultivation.

She was a mortal, however, now, she stands before us as a Master Stage Cultivator. She’s not alone, her maids, Skyla and Lane are Master Stage cultivators as well and coincidentally, they are Master Nux’s women as well.

Don’t you find this weird?”

All the assassins widened their eyes, even Thyra was shocked.

“Yesterday when I went out, I did a background check on Master Nux.”

“Hmm? Didn’t you suffer through that annoying pain due to that?” An assassin couldn’t help but question.

“It’s not like I am trying to betray Master Nux, I am just trying to find out more about him. The pain only occurs when you think about betraying him.” Twelve answered.

“Anyways, that’s not important right now. So I did a background check on Master Nux and found out that he is an orphan and was a nobody before. The only thing good about him was his looks.

He was just a mortal 2 months ago, and now he is a Master Stage Cultivator, a Master Stage Cultivator who can defeat a Grand Master Stage Cultivator.”

Twelve revealed.

The assassins’ eyes widened in shock, they just couldn’t believe what they were hearing, even the greatest genius in the world couldn’t do what Felberta and Nux just did.

“I do not believe this. How can this be possible? I think something is wrong here?” An assassin blurted out.

“Yes, what if Viscount Felberta is behind this all along? What if she was hiding her cultivation before? It is easy for a Viscount like her to hide a lover, who is also a cultivator, from the eyes of normal people.” Another assassin answered.

Thyra nodded. She agreed. Viscount Felberta might be behind everything all along.

“Then how do you explain Skyla and Lane? Those two are Master Stage Cultivators as well, how can a mere viscount have 3 Master stage cultivators serving her? And even though she does have those 2 as her servants, why would she be willing to share her man with them?

Remember, Viscount Felberta is a noble, no matter how close she is with her maids, she would never share a man with others, especially commoners.” Twelve replied and the assassins turned silent.

“Then what are you trying to say?” Thyra questioned.

She had to admit, this ‘Twelve’ was smarter than she thought.

“I think just like his weird magic to control us, Master Nux has a magic that can increase the Cultivation of a person. That is the only reason why a Viscount would choose a commoner as a man and not a boy toy.”

Twelve revealed.

“ ... ”

Silence shrouded the room.

No one was willing to believe what they heard.

“That is not possible. Cultivation is an arduous and slow process, it cannot be increased with magic so easily” Thyra denied.

There is no way that is possible.

“Yes, this is just not possible; else he would have already taken control over the world.”

“Yeah, Master Nux would have already increased our cultivation as well, he could enslave thousands of nobles and then could have increased their cultivation. This way, he would have created a peerless army and he would be undefeated.”

Many assassins stepped forwards and rejected Twelve’s theory.

“I am not saying that the magic is absolute. There has to be some kind of limit. For example, the number of people he can increase the cultivation of.

Or the maximum limit he could raise the cultivation stage of the person, or something like that.

However, I am 90% sure that something like that magic exists.

Also, about the conquering the world..." Twelve then observed all the other assassins and muttered,

"Who says that he doesn't plan to do it?

He already knows the existence of the kingdom behind us, however, he still dared to act against us.

He already knows that the two marquess' houses are not loyal to this kingdom, yet, we and they still exist and aren't wiped out yet, confirming that he hasn't reported anything to the Royal Palace.

He is not scared of our kingdom.

He is not loyal to the kingdom he lives in.

He is strong.

He has weird magic that is completely out of this world.

Who says he doesn't plan to conquer the world?

Why would he leave all of us alive? Why would he provide us with better weapons? There is no free lunch in this world.

Who knows? He might be recruiting us as his subordinates. He might be laying low and cultivating his strength. He might attack when he is ready. He might,

He might take over the world soon."

Twelve answered and everyone turned silent again.

“That’s why I said it before, following Master Nux might be better than following the kingdom. If we can prove our loyalty, not just because of the pain, but actually showing that we are willing to work for him by our own will, the benefits we will receive won’t be small”

The assassins then glanced at each other.

It would be a lie to say that they weren’t interested.

Twelve’s words made sense. His words were logical. What he said might be true.

Even Thyra had the same thoughts.

However, before she could think more, she heard a voice.

‘Thyra, come here.’

It was Nux’s voice.

‘Hmph! Speak of the Devil’

Chapter 121

‘Thyra, come here.’

‘Hmph! Speak of the Devil’ Thyra snorted inwardly as she glanced outside the window. A small frown appeared on her face when she noticed that the sun wasn’t out yet.

‘Why is he calling me this early?’ She thought inwardly.

‘Does he want to...’ Some indecent thoughts started appearing in her mind and she shook her head repeatedly.

‘No no no! I would rather die than do that!’ She screamed inside her mind.

“Umm... Miss One... is everything okay?” Thyra was then brought out of her reverie by Twelve’s voice. She then glanced at everyone’s faces and pouted a little.

They failed to see that lovely expression that had appeared on her face since half of Thyra’s face was covered with a mask.

“It’s nothing. Alright, we have been talking for too long, everyone, return to your rooms. I still have some things to do so I will take my leave.” Thyra ordered.

The other assassins then nodded and walked into their rooms.

However, every one of them had lost expressions on their faces. They were still thinking about what Twelve said before.

Thyra then turned around and walked towards Nux’s room.

...

A few minutes later, she appeared in front of Nux's room and just as she was about to knock, the door was opened and Nux walked out while placing his finger on his mouth.

“Shhh, they are sleeping.” He whispered.

Since she was curious, Thyra peeked into the room and her eyes widened.

“How are all 4 of them here?” She questioned.

She didn't know why, but her voice was very low as well, it was as if Nux's presence affected her somehow.

“What do you mean why are all 4 of them here?” Nux questioned.

“Wasn't there only Felberta before?” Thyra questioned.

“There was- wait...” Suddenly, Nux narrowed his eyes.

“How did you know that Fel was the only one inside before?” Nux questioned.

Thyra's eyes widened in shock, she couldn't believe that she blundered like that.

She was a failure as an assassin!

She cursed herself inwardly.

“I... uhh... I just saw her entering a few hours back...” Thyra muttered.

“Riiigghhhtttt” Nux nodded.

Thyra sighed when she noticed that he had believed her.

“But why do I feel like you are lying to me...?”

She was too optimistic.

“I am not...” Thyra answered weakly. She knew it would all be over once Nux uses that weird magic of his.

“Alright. I will trust you.” Nux nodded.

“You trust me?” Thyra questioned, she was shocked.

“Well, yea. You are going to be my subordinate from now on, I think I should start trusting you a little, I mean, I can’t keep using my Magic, can I?” Nux smiled.

Thyra was taken aback by his smile, however, a cold smile then appeared on her face as she answered,

“Yes, you should trust me a little. Keep trusting me like this and one day, I will find a way to undo your magic and stab my dagger into your heart personally.”

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face when he heard her.

‘She likes to act tough huh...’ he noted.

He knew she wasn’t being serious, there were several reasons behind it.

First and the most obvious, she didn’t feel any pain.

Second, if she was that serious about doing it, she wouldn’t say that out loud and would try to act more ‘servant-like’

Of course, everything might be her plan to make him lower his guard, but Nux believed that a situation like that wouldn’t arrive.

“You wouldn’t do that, would you?”

“Oh try me.”

“Alright, let’s not talk about all this, tell me, did you distribute the weapons I gave you?” Nux questioned.

“...” Thyra remained silent as she glanced at Nux with a blank look on her face.

“Did you call me here this early in the morning to ask this?”

“Yes?”

“...”

“What?”

“Do you think I am free?”

“Yes?”

“...”

Thyra was speechless.

And the biggest problem was that she couldn't retort!

She was free!

“Still! You can't cal-”

“Shhh! Lower your voice, they are sleeping” Before Thyra could continue, Nux muttered.

“You can't call me here for something so stupid. Since you ordered me, I distributed all the weapons to my subordinates.” Thyra lowered her voice, however, her frustration was clear in her tone.

“Hmm? But I wanted to see my best assassin... I can't do that? Why do you sound so angry?” Nux questioned with an innocent look.

“...”

Again, Thyra was speechless.

This man was truly shameless.

“You could have called me a little later... why does it have to be so early in the morning?” Thyra questioned.

“Oh, that? I have some work to do in the afternoon, so I will be busy.” Nux answered.

“Work?”

“Yes, a very important work.”

“You work?”

“...” This time, Nux turned silent.

“You work? I thought all you do was fucking women.” Thyra muttered in shock.

“Exactl- Ahem, no, I mean, no, I still have things to do,” Nux answered.

Thyra narrowed her eyes as she glanced at Nux, she felt something was wrong with how he was acting.

However, she then shook her head.

‘It’s not my problem’

Thinking that, she glanced at Nux and muttered,

“Alright, do whatever you want. I will take my leave since we are done.”
Saying that, Thyra turned away, however,

“Wait!”

“What is it?” Thyra questioned, annoyed.

“I had another question”

“Ask.”

“Did you give weapons to the assassins who are in Hardwick Mansion?”

“ ... ”

Thyra was silent again, however, from the vein that had popped up on her head and how her body was trembling while she had formed a fist, Nux knew that she was pissed.

‘Hahaha~ It’s so fun teasing her~’ He thought inwardly, amused.

Thyra noticed that smirk on his face and realized that he was doing this intentionally.

Her eyes then turned cold as she threatened.

“Mark my words; The day I find a way to overcome your weird magic will be the day you will breathe your last breath!”

Chapter 122

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

“Enter.”

Concubine Allura ordered and a maid walked into her room.

“Lady Allura, your clothes are cleaned, shall I put them into your wardrobe?” The maid questioned as she entered the room while dragging a table that had a few clothes on top of it.

Allura nodded and the maid walked towards the wardrobe.

While the maid was doing everything, Allura watched her with bored eyes. The maid was used to such gaze; therefore, she wasn't very affected and continued doing her job skillfully.

After the maid was done with her work, she bowed, however, just as she was about to leave,

“Wait,” Allura ordered.

“Yes, Lady Allura?”

“I heard Rue broke up with her boyfriend, is that true?” Allura questioned and her eyes shined.

She, as the concubine who was most interested in rumours, knew a lot and felt that this topic could get rid of her boredom for some while.

“Yes, Lady Allura. That is correct.” The maid sighed.

She knew what that look on Lady Allura's face meant.

“You are her best friend, you should know the inside details, correct?” Allura questioned with bright eyes.

“Yes, Lady Allura. I do know a few things about it.” The maid nodded.

“Then what are you waiting for? Tell me everything in detail.”

“As you wish, Lady Allura.

So all of this started a month ago, Rue’s boyfriend felt that the ‘spark’ in their relationship had disappeared and he talked with Rue.

Rue told me about it and I suggested her...”

The maid continued the story, however, in between, the excitement in Allura’s eyes dimmed down.

“Yes Yes, I do not want to hear such a long story. Tell me in short. No wait, you might miss out on some interesting points that way, just let me ask questions and you answer.”

“As you command, Lady Allura.” The maid nodded.

“So, tell me, when did all of this start?”

“A month ago when Rue’s boyfrie-”

“Yes, Yes, a month ago is fine. Now let’s get to the maid question, who started the fight?” Allura questioned.

“Fight?” The maid tilted her head in confusion.

“Yes fight. They broke up right? Who started the fight?”

“Umm... Lady Allura, there was no fight... They just mutually decided that they should break up.” The maid answered.

“Haah? There was no fight?”

“Yes, things were pretty calm; the two of them are still talking to each other as friends.”

“What the hell? Who told them to act so mature? How in the hell are they going to make that entertaining!?” Allura complained.

‘Ughhh... we are not talking about a drama show... Why would they try to make it entertaining? Shouldn’t you be happy that they moved on and no one is sad?’

The maid wanted to say that out loud, but remembering who she was talking to, she shook her head in defeat.

“Ughh... why do mature couples exist? Why are you even in a relationship if you are going to act that mature? Aren’t relationships meant to torture people? Aren’t they meant to entertain people other than the couple?” Allura groaned.

‘What a twisted way of thinking...’

The maid muttered inwardly.

“Haahhh... what a boring day...” Allura then sighed as she glanced outside of her window.

She then turned her head towards the maid and questioned with a small smile.

“So? How about you? Are you in a relationship yet?”

‘Here we go again...’ The maid resigned to her fate and answered.

“No, Lady Allura, I still haven’t found someone for myself yet.”

“Heehh? That’s bad, isn’t it? You are already 40 years old, Leane, you should find a partner soon, or else you will start ageing and will end up alone.”

The maid, Leane was a cultivator as well, so even though she was already more than 40 years old, she still kept her youthful appearance.

“Yes, Lady Allura, I will try to find someone soon.”

“C’mon, be honest with me. Your face is pretty decent, you should have a lot of people going after you, shouldn’t you?” Allura questioned.

“There are a few who seem to be interested in me, Lady Allura.”

“So why haven’t you accepted any of them yet?” Allura questioned, she could smell the entertainment.

“I did a background check on them and didn’t like what I found out.” The maid answered.

Allura’s eyes brightened in joy as she questioned.

“What did you find out?”

“They were going after other women as well.”

“...” Allura then stared at her blankly and questioned.

“What did you expect? Do you want them to be loyal to you even though you haven’t accepted them yet?”

“I... I don’t... but since they proposed, shouldn’t they at least wait for an answer?” The maid replied.

“Heehh? You got that wrong, Leane. In this world, no one waits for anyone. They liked you, they proposed to you, if you stay unclear about your answer, they will move on and propose to another woman.

It is a race.

They don’t have the time to wait for a single woman.”

“...” The maid stayed silent. She didn't think that what Lady Allura said would actually make sense. However, soon, she narrowed her eyes and questioned.

“But why are you telling me all of this, Lady Allura?”

“Because I care about you.

Because I want you to be in a relationship.

Because I want you to find the love of your life.

Because I...”

Allura continued, however, the maid already deduced the real reason.

‘She just wants something interesting around her huh...’

“Thank you for your advice, Lady Allura. I actually remembered that I still had some clothes to wash, so I will take my leave.”

Saying that, the maid stood up and left.

Allura understood that she couldn't keep her for long and didn't stop her, it wasn't that interesting anyway.

She then gazed out of her window again and soon, she heard another knock.

“Enter.”

A maid entered and bowed,

“Lady Allura, your afternoon tea.”

“Alright, keep it there.” Allura nodded, she saw other cups on the maid's table, she knew that she was busy, so she didn't waste her time.

She doesn't want an innocent servant to lose her job just because of her few minutes of ‘entertainment’.

She then grabbed the cup as a young man's face appeared in her mind.

“The afternoon tea huh... if only I hadn't scared him away... I would be having this tea with him right now... that would have been interesting...”

She sighed.

“Heehhh? Lady Allura, are you thinking about another man when you promised to drink tea with me this afternoon? Now that's not very nice, is it?”

Chapter 123

“Heehhh? Lady Allura, are you thinking about another man when you promised to drink tea with me this afternoon? Now that’s not very nice, is it?”

Allura’s eyes widened in disbelief when she heard a voice, she then turned around and saw a familiar young man standing with a small smile on his face.

“Y-Y-You... why are you here!?” Allura questioned in fright.

“Hmm? Aren’t you the one who invited me in the first place?” Nux questioned with a frown.

He couldn’t understand the current situation.

Why is she acting so surprised?

Wasn’t she the one who invited him?

He was full of questions.

“Y-You! Do you even know where this place is!?” Allura questioned in rage.

“The royal palace?”

“YES! The royal palace! This is THE ROYAL PALACE! And do you know who I am?”

“Ughhh... you really like boasting your identity huh... you are Allura Skyfall, the 7th concubine of the king of the Skyfall Kingdom. Yes, I know that. You told me already...” Nux answered nonchalantly.

“...” Allura panicked even more.

This man doesn't realize it at all!

“Are you stupid!? Think a little.

This is the Royal Palace!

I am the Concubine of the king!

You are an unknown man who entered my room!

Don't you understand what that means!?”

Allura questioned, she had completely lost her calm now.

“Wait...” Nux's eyes widened in realization.

“You are a concubine... I am an unknown man in your room... an unknown man in king's concubine's room... If anyone finds out...”

“Yes! The two of us will be executed!” Allura answered.

“Then doesn't this mean that no one should know about it?” Nux questioned.

“Of course! No one! Not a single soul should know about it!” Allura answered, she couldn't believe how slow this young boy in front of her was.

“Then why are you shouting?” Nux questioned.

“...”

This time, Allura turned silent...

She couldn't believe she was acting so irrationally right now...

“Lady Allura! Is everything fine there?”

As if on cue, Allura heard her protector's voice and she panicked.

“Lady Allura!” The protector who was standing outside panicked when he didn’t hear any answer.

He quickly slammed the door open and entered.

Allura’s eyes widened in horror, “T-This is not what it looks like!” She tried to deny it but wasn’t able to come up with any logical explanation.

“Lady Allura! Are you alright!? Why didn’t you answer when I called you?” The protector questioned.

Allura frowned.

This wasn’t the reaction she was expecting.

She then turned around and noticed that the young man wasn’t there anymore.

‘Where did he go?’ She started looking around and soon, her eyes fell on Nux’s face, which was out while his whole body was hiding under her bed.

Allura felt that he was crazy since he was still smiling in this tense situation. However, she quickly realized that she doesn’t have the time to think about all this.

She quickly stepped in front of Nux’s face, hiding it from the protector as she answered.

“A-Ahh that? I was about t-to answer, however, you entered too quickly so I panicked a little...”

The protector narrowed his eyes.

Lady Allura was acting a little unusual today.

“Lady Allura, who was the man you were talking to before?” He questioned.

“Huh? What man? Do you see anyone?” Allura questioned calmly, however, inwardly, she was panicking.

“Wasn’t there a man who you were talking to? I clearly heard you say, ‘this is the Royal Palace! I am the Concubine of the king! You are an unknown man who entered my room! Don’t you understand what that means!?’ your voice sounded a little fearful as well...” The protector muttered.

“Oh? W-What are you talking about, protector?” Allura acted ignorantly, she tried to hide everything behind a smile.

However, the protector took that smile differently.

He knew her personality, he knew how much she liked entertainment more than anyone else and to what length she could go to entertain herself.

He was the one who was guarding her room, anyone who enters and exits the room is always under his eyes and he didn’t see any man entering the room.

This whole thing must be a farce arranged by Lady Allura in order to entertain herself...

‘It was quite a good plan; if it weren’t for that smile on her face... I would have been fooled by her...

Tsk Tsk, just how far would you go for the sake of a few minutes of entertainment?’ the protector thought inwardly as he glanced at Allura and saw that weird smile on her face.

‘Hmph! Try all you want but you can’t hide that smile from my keen eyes! I won’t be playing this game with you anymore!’ He snorted inwardly as he muttered.

“Ah, Lady Allura, it must be my fault. I think my age is affecting me a little and I am starting to hear things. This has happened to me before as well. I am sorry to disturb your rest, Lady Allura. I will take my leave now.”
Saying that, the protector quickly turned around and left.

He didn't want to stay here for a minute longer.

This woman was crazy...

'Huh?' Allura remained silent, dumbfounded by how she got away.

She had no clue that her 'bored' personality saved her.

No one knows what her reaction will be if she found out why she was saved.

After the protector left, Nux came out and stood in front of Allura with a small smile on his face.

"Why are you still smiling? Don't you know how dangerous this is?" Allura questioned, however, this time, her voice was a lot lower than before.

She has learned from her past mistakes.

"I know how dangerous it is. We both will die if anyone finds out about it." Nux answered.

"Then why are you smiling like that!?" Allura questioned with a frown.

"Heh. It is a dangerous situation indeed." Nux admitted.

"However, is it not what makes it exciting?" Nux questioned with a big smile on his face.

Chapter 124

‘Hmm? She let me go so easily? Ahh, she must have pitied my old bones... She’s not as heartless as I thought...’

Outside Allura’s room, her protector thought inwardly and sighed.

He still couldn’t believe that she would go to such lengths just to entertain herself.

‘The Bored Concubine indeed...’

...

“However, isn’t that what makes it exciting?” Nux questioned with a big smile on his face.

Seeing that crazed smile on his face, Allura’s eyes widened.

‘He’s crazy...’ She thought inwardly.

However, soon, she noticed her beating heart.

Her heart was beating like crazy, it was beating like never before.

This situation was exhilarating, especially when her protector was here in the room.

Although she was scared, once the protector left, a never felt before joy filled her body.

‘T-This... this was funnn...’ She thought inward and a smile similar to Nux’s smile appeared on her face as well.

‘Huh? No no no no.’

However, she soon shook her head repeatedly.

She was not insane like this young man in front of her.

She was not bored enough to risk her life.

“Heh. That’s how I get rid of my boredom, Lady Allura. Life-threatening adventures.

Right now, I am inside a king’s concubine’s room, if a single person learns about it, I am dead.”

“Not you! We! W-”

“Shhh!” Allura retorted out loud, however, since her voice was too loud, Nux’s placed his finger on his mouth and signalled her to be silent.

“If anyone finds out, we both die. I am not crazy like you. Don’t involve me in your games!” Allura retorted, however, this time, her voice was a lot lower than before.

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face.

This was fun~

“Oh c’mon, how come you are called The Bored Concubine, don’t tell me you weren’t excited.

You were, right? How many years has it been since you felt so much excitement?

Can’t you take a small risk like this?

Or would you like to keep living as a bored concubine just because you are a little scared?”

Nux teased.

“...”

Allura stayed silent.

A small risk!

That's fucking death!

How is that a small risk!

Is he out of his mind!?

She really wished she could hit that smiling face right now. However, it will cause a commotion for sure and she didn't want that.

"Alright, now, where's my tea?" Nux questioned.

"...you want to drink tea?" Allura questioned, and a few veins popped on her forehead.

She was really holding back right now.

"Isn't that why you called me here? To have an afternoon tea with you?" Nux questioned back.

Allura took a deep breath, she was losing it right now.

"YO-"

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

However, before she could say anything, she heard a knock, the door opened and a maid walked in.

Allura's body stiffened, her heart started racing wildly, she turned her head mechanically and a sigh escaped her mouth when she saw that the young man wasn't there. She glanced below, where Nux hid previously and shook her head when she saw the excited smile on his face.

To be honest... she was feeling excited as well...

The excitement she has never felt before...

But she wouldn't say that out loud.

"Why are you here?"

"Your afternoon tea, Lady Allura." The maid answered.

A frown appeared on Allura's face when she heard her, she then pointed at her hand and the maid's eyes widened.

"I am sorry about that, Lady Allura. There must have been an error in our calculations today, I deeply apologize for this mistake." The maid bowed.

"Alright, no problem. I actually wanted to drink a little more, so it's all fine. Leave a cup there." Allura pointed at the table and ordered.

"Yes, Lady Allura." The maid then placed a cup on the table, filled it with tea and left.

Nux then came out and looked at the teacup on the table, a small smile appeared on his face.

"Heh. To think you had already ordered a cup for me. Lady Allura, you are really shy. You could have told me that you were looking forward to this afternoon tea, that little gesture could have made my day, you know.

Not that drinking with you hasn't already made my day" Nux muttered as he picked up the cup and started drinking.

"Can't you hear? It was a mistake! I didn't order anything! I was not looking forward to anything!"

Allura retorted.

"Shhh!" Nux gestured to be silent again and Allura lowered her head as she looked around cautiously.

A big smile appeared on Nux's face.

As for the tea, he already knew that she didn't order it because it was him who ordered it.

The 'error' in the calculations was done by Edda, the head maid.

A shameless move indeed.

"Lady Allura, won't you ask me to sit?" Nux questioned as he pointed at the chair.

Allura sighed in defeat.

What a luck this bastard has, however, she didn't reject him.

From the moment he entered her room, she still didn't know how he did it without alerting her two protectors, there has never been a single moment where she wasn't excited.

This was thrilling.

Drinking tea with a man that the king doesn't know about inside the Royal palace, heh, this was fun.

'Ughhh... I am becoming like him...'

Allura groaned.

The two of them then sat down on the chair, and Allura finally regained her calm.

She realized that she was being too passive today, she wouldn't let that happen again. She needed to start the conversation this time, this was the only way for her to take the lead.

"Oh, by the way, why did you leave so quickly yesterday? The way you left, I thought you were scared of me" Allura questioned with a small chuckle.

“Ahh, that, I was a little shocked when I learned your identity, so I needed a little time to prepare for our meeting,” Nux answered.

Actually, he did that so he could see her surprised face today and,

It was totally worth it!

“Oh? What did you prepa-”

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Allura wanted to ask, however, someone knocked on the door again and her face, which had barely regained its original colour paled again.

Chapter 125

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

A knock was heard and Allura's face, which had barely regained the original colour paled again.

The door opened and a familiar woman walked in.

“E-Edda? Why are you here?” Allura questioned as she stood up in surprise.

She turned around a little, and although she was sure he would hide, she sighed in relief when she didn't see him.

‘He's quick.’ Allura thought inwardly.

‘Is he used to this?’

Allura began thinking.

‘How many times has he done this before? Wait... how many women has he been with before?’

“Lady Allura?”

Allura was then brought out of her thoughts by Edda's voice.

She then shook her head to get rid of these thoughts as she toward Edda and questioned.

“Edda, why are you here? Aren't you busy right now?” Allura questioned.

“I am on a break right now, Lady Allura. I am actually here to share something with you...”

“What is it?” Allura questioned.

“It is about my... my boyfriend... I don't have anyone to talk to, so I thought I would talk with you.” Edda muttered.

If this was any other time, Allura's eyes would be shining brightly, but today... today she wanted nothing more but to be left alone.

She was even willing to be bored for the next 3 days.

That was how scared she was.

However, she couldn't deny Edda's request, or else the girl would be suspicious of her.

She then grabbed Edda's hand excitedly but just as she was about to walk towards the chair, Edda 'pulled' her towards the bed, where Nux was.

Allura's face paled, however, everything happened too quickly and she couldn't react.

A Royal Concubine was now sitting in her own room with the head maid of the Palace, while an unknown man was hiding under the bed they were sitting on.

How exciting... right?

“D-Did something happen between you two?” Allura questioned.

“No, nothing happened.”

“Then why are you here?”

“My boyfriend is very handsome...” Edda muttered.

“Oh? You aren't flexing in front of me, are you?”

“Huh? Ah! No! Although my boyfriend is a lot more handsome than the kin- I mean, no! I am not flexing, Lady Allura. What I am saying is that my boyfriend is too handsome.”

“Isn’t that a good thing? Why do you look so... confused? Shouldn’t you be happy?” Allura questioned.

“Well, I am happy but there are too many women around my boyfriend...” Edda muttered.

“Oh? Does he not treat you well?”

“No... he does. He treats me really well but he treats other women nicely too...”

“Oh? So you are saying that you are jealous? Do you want your boyfriend all to yourself? Why don’t you lock him up inside a room?” Allura suggested; the topic was getting interesting and as someone who craves anything interesting, Allura was getting into the topic.

She was so excited that she even forgot about the man under her bed.

However, would Nux let that happen?

He was here to see her panicked expression, how could he allow her to gain an edge over him?

Heh.

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face.

He then touched Allura’s leg to call her, Allura’s body stiffened, she lowered her gaze and Nux moved his mouth.

‘I need the tea’

Allura’s eyes widened in shock.

‘Are you ma-‘

“Lady Allura, what happened? Where are you looking at?” Edda questioned.

Allura’s body stiffened, she turned around and laughed awkwardly.

“Haha h-haha~ Nothing... I- I thought there was a m-mouse there...” Allura muttered.

“Hmm? A mouse under your bed? That’s unhealthy, Lady Allura, wait, let me see.” Edda stood up.

“NO! no! It isn’t required, i-it will go away.”

“Lady Allura, it won’t go away like this. You don’t have to worry, I’ll deal with it.” Edda persuaded before she fell to her knees and peeked under the bed.

Allura’s eyes widened in horror and her body started trembling.

‘It’s over... we are dead...’ She closed her eyes.

“Lady Allura, there is no mouse here...”

Suddenly, she heard Edda’s voice and her eyes opened, she turned around and saw Nux standing in front of the table, holding the cup of tea in his hand with a small smile on his face.

Nux then walked forward and,

*Pah***

He spanked Edda’s butt and Allura’s heart skipped a beat.

“L-Lady Allura, w-what are you doing?” Edda questioned as she stood up.

“T-There was a b-bug on your butt...” Allura muttered.

She really wanted to kill that vile man now.

Was he asking to die!?

And why is he dragging her with him!?

“Oh...” Edda muttered, however, her eyes narrowed in suspicion.

Allura noticed that suspicion and quickly changed the topic.

“A-Ah, have you considered leaving your boyfriend? He might realize your worth and would stop chasing other women after that.”

“N-No. I can’t leave him...” Edda muttered.

“Hmm? Why?”

“H-He is very good in bed...” Edda answered and Allura’s face turned red.

“W-W-What...?”

Allura stuttered.

“H-He is very good i-”

“I-I heard that! You don’t have to repeat it...” Allura retorted, then she lowered her voice and she questioned.

“H-How good is he...?”

She just couldn’t control herself.

She had to ask it.

This time, Edda’s face turned red.

“H-He pounds very hard... a-and... he makes me moan like crazy... We d-do it for hours and I always lose myself i-in the bed...”

It is very blissful...” Edda whispered with a deep blush.

Allura's face turned red like a tomato and she questioned.

“Y-You go on for hours...?”

Edda nodded.

“H-How perverted...” Allura muttered as her eyes turned misty.

She completely forgot about Nux who was hiding under her bed.

However, Nux wasn't mad about it.

What man would be mad when his woman is boasting about how good is he in the bed?

He would not!

Also, Allura needs to learn how good her future partner is.

Nux nodded to himself and continued listening, however, soon his eyes widened as Allura asked something he never thought she would ask.

“H-H-How big is he?”

Chapter 126

“L-Lady Allura, I don’t think I was able to talk to you about the correct topic... b-but I did enjoy our conversation... I feel like I got to know you better...” Edda muttered with a slight blush on her face.

“T-This will remain between u-us... I- I can trust you right?” Allura questioned, her face was completely red right now.

She never expected that the talks like that were...

Were so exciting!

However, she knew she couldn’t talk like that with just anybody.

“You can trust me, Lady Allura, not even a soul would know what we talked about here.” Edda nodded.

“G-Good...” Allura nodded as well.

The two of them have indeed gotten a lot closer than before.

“I’ll take my leave now, Lady Allura,” Edda muttered as she stood up.

Allura stood up as well and walked her to the door, something she has never done before.

“Let’s talk again, Lady Allura,” Edda muttered with a small smile.

Allura’s blush deepened and she nodded.

Edda then left the room and Allura sighed in relief. However, as soon as she turned around, her body stiffened.

“I didn’t know Lady Allura had such a side to her. That was so indecent. I believe that rather than calling you The Bored Concubine, they should call you “The Perverted Concubine” Nux teased.

“Forget what you saw today,” Allura ordered, her face was as red as a tomato however, she still tried to keep a straight, strict face.

“Heeeehh? Why would I? That was such a beautiful sight to beh-”

Before Nux could even finish, a sword appeared in Allura’s hand, she rushed towards him and attacked.

Nux of course defended it very easily.

Allura was at the same level as him, plus, she never trained seriously, she was akin to a child in front of Nux.

She was no threat at all.

“You know that I am stronger than you, right?” Nux questioned playfully.

Allura did not stop her attack and continued swinging her swords, “you might be stronger than me, but are you stronger than my protectors?”

“I am not. However, do you really want your protectors to see me in your room?” Nux questioned and Allura paused her attacks.

How is she going to explain how he got here?

Allura’s sword disappeared, she then glanced at Nux and muttered.

“Forget about what happened...” Her tone was a lot tamer than before.

“Why though...?” Nux questioned.

“I’ll die if you don’t...”

“Heeh? But won’t that only happen if someone else found out about it?” Nux questioned.

A frown appeared on Allura’s face when she heard him, “But didn’t you...”

“I never said I would tell what happened here to others.”

“Y-Yo-”

“However,” Nux then walked closed to Allura, she moved back but Nux followed, this continued until a few seconds later, Allura’s back was against the wall.

Nux then moved his face closer to her and smiled,

“However, I will never forget what I saw today, in fact, I would burn it in my eyes... Your red face is just too cute~”

Allura’s face turned even redder.

“You bast-”

“Ahh, look at the time, it’s been so long~” Before Allura could complete, Nux muttered as he glanced outside of the window.

He then turned towards Allura and muttered, “Lady Allura, it’s late. I should take my leave now.”

“Y-You are leaving?” Allura questioned.

“Well, you only invited me for tea, which I drank while I watched you and the head maid talk about indecent things,” Nux muttered and Allura lowered her gaze in embarrassment.

Nux smiled inwardly, Allura Skyfall was cuter than he imagined.

“Even if I do extend the tea time to an hour, it is already beyond that. So I believe it is time for me to leave.” Nux muttered.

“O-Oh...” Allura nodded.

She looked a little...

Sad?

“Why do you look so sad, Lady Allura?” It’s not like this is our last meeting, we are meeting tomorrow again, right?”

“Haa!? Why would I be sad!? I am actually happy that you are leaving! Also, why would we meet again!?”

“Because you are bored?”

“Huh? What does that have to be with meeting you again?”

“Wasn’t meeting me fun? Hasn’t your heart been beating like crazy ever since I entered this room?” Nux questioned.

“...” Allura turned silent.

No matter how scary and risky all of this was, it was...

It was fun...

However, no matter how bored, she didn’t think it was appropriate for her to meet another man like this.

“So? Where are we meeting tomorrow? In your room again?” Nux questioned.

“No! NO! We can’t meet here! We will die! I am not crazy like you! I am not ready to die yet!” Allura shook her head repeatedly, she was panicking.

“Then where should we meet?”

“We can’t meet in public... we just met a day ago...” Allura muttered.

“Then how about this,

You book a room in the Crown Plaza, I will sneak inside just like I sneaked in here and we will have our lunch together. How does that sound? It’s a lot safer than before, isn’t it?” Nux proposed.

“It is safe indeed...” Allura muttered.

“Yes, this is fine. I will book the room tomorrow.” She then nodded in agreement.

Nux’s smile widened, he then walked towards the window and muttered,

“Then don’t forget about it, Lady Allura~” Nux chuckled lightly and then jumped out of the window.

‘Wait... why did I agree?’ After Nux left, Allura questioned herself.

‘How does that sound? It’s a lot safer than before, isn’t it?’

Nux’s words sounded in her head and her eyes widened.

‘I just agreed because it sounded safe! I didn’t think it through! I shouldn’t go!’

Allura was panicking.

“Should I disagree?”

But I don’t know where he lives... I can’t inform him...

Wait...

Should I just... not go?” Allura muttered to herself however, she quickly shook her head.

‘I can’t do that! That idiot might sneak in here again! I can’t take that risk.

Alright, I have decided, I will go and meet him tomorrow, however,

This will be the last time.’

Chapter 127

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

An awkward silence fell in the room.

“...hope that you were ordered to do it... Else things might not end well for you.” Thyra muttered in a dry voice as she glanced at Alger.

*Gulp*

Seeing the half-dead look in her eyes, Alger gulped.

“A-As I said before, I have no interest in calling you again and again... I was ordered...” He muttered.

Thyra clenched her fists.

“So what does he want now?” She questioned.

She was really getting tired of this game.

“...” Alger stayed silent.

He did not want to say what he was about to say at all.

“Hey... I asked something...”

“...” Alger did not reply.

“...” Thyra stayed silent and waited patiently.

“...” Alger still didn't reply.

The poor man was just digging his grave at this point.

“SAY SOMETHING!” Thyra roared in anger.

“H-He asked if you have distributed the weapons to the assassins that are in Hardwick Mansion!” Alger questioned in hurry.

From his expression, he looked like he was ready to die.

“Huh...? Didn’t he ask me this in the morning?” Thyra muttered.

“H-He predicted that you would say something like this, he says that you did not clarify your answer in the morning and were too busy threatening him. Therefore, he is still not clear and wants me to learn about the situation.

That is what he said, I have not made anything up!” Alger was quick to add when he noticed the vein that had popped out on Thyra’s head.

Thyra’s body trembled in anger and frustration, she then glanced at Alger and a cold smile appeared on her face.

Alger’s face turned pale and his heartbeat quickened, it seems that his clarification did not work.

Thyra then walked towards Alger with a smile on her face, the closer she walked, the wider her smile got.

The scene was quite scary, honestly.

Alger closed his eyes.

He had accepted his fate.

...

*Bam***

A few minutes later, Thyra walked out of Alger’s room and closed the door with a loud bam.

She was really annoyed, however, after taking out her anger on Alger, she felt a little better.

She always wanted to do something like this, however, since Alger was a noble and a useful pawn for the kingdom, she couldn't do it.

However, now Alger is as good as useless, therefore, she could also act a little unrestrained now.

If you put it that way, Nux taking over them all was a good thing.

As she thought up to this point, Thyra began shaking her head continuously.

'What are you thinking, Thyra!? Isn't that bastard Nux the main reason for all your frustrations!? Alger is nothing but an idiot who is forced to follow his orders!'

Thyra stopped inwardly, if Alger, who was lying in his room with a bruised face had heard her thoughts, he wouldn't know if he should cry or be happy.

However, Thyra didn't care about what he does, she continued walking and,

“AAnnhhh~”

Sigh... her luck was bad indeed.

She was correct, she indeed heard the thing she did not want to hear at all. Her little sister started twitching again and she paused.

Her feet then turned towards the source of the voice.

'This is just for investigation purposes!' She steeled her heart and walked towards Nux's room.

Yes, she was not lying.

Okay?

...

‘Thyra, come to the garden’

The next day, in the morning, Nux ordered.

Thyra, who was busy talking with other assassins, paused when she heard Nux’s voice.

This was getting really really repetitive.

She took a deep breath, stood up and muttered.

“I need to go.”

“Yes, Miss One.” Twelve and the other assassins nodded.

Thyra then glanced outside of the window and noticed the sun wasn’t up yet.

‘Heh. He needs to ‘work’ this afternoon as well?’

She snorted inwardly as she walked towards the garden.

A few minutes later, she arrived in the garden and saw Nux wearing skin-tight assassin clothes, similar to the ones he wore when he met her the first time.

He was sitting on the grass and once his gaze fell on her, a small smile appeared on her face as he stood up and walked toward her.

“I wanted to talk to y-”

“I know it’s you!” Suddenly, Thyra pointed at Nux and shouted.

“Huh? Of course, it’s me. What the hell are you talking about?” Nux questioned as he furrowed his brows.

“Don’t act innocent. I know it’s you who prearranged this all.

You know that I peek at you guys in the night, don’t you?

No, It's better to say that you manipulate me to peek at you guys, didn't you?" Thyra questioned.

"How did you notice?" Nux questioned with a smile. Although he was surprised by her sudden discovery, he didn't think too much about it and decided to come clean and use it to his advantage.

"Hmph! I am not an Idiot!

Although you act carefree, I know that you are pretty cautious about things.

Someone as cautious as you may overlook things one time.

The second time is acceptable as well, however, if you miss things the third time, something is wrong.

Once I thought of that, everything else was clearer.

You make Alger call me for some random, idiotic reasons, and every time I am about to return to my room, I hear a moan.

I walk towards the door and conveniently enough, you and your partner move closer to the wall that is right beside the door that I am looking from, giving me a perfect look.

How coincidental right?

No it's not!

You planned this all!

I know it!

I am sure of it!

However, I still don't understand one thing..."

Thyra then walked towards Nux and narrowed her eyes,

“Why are you doing all this? What is your motive?

Is this related to another weird magic of yours?

Or do you perhaps have a weird fetish?” Thyra questioned.

Nux’s lips twitched when he heard her last question.

This woman really knows how to get onto his nerves.

However, he knew he shouldn’t lose his calm.

He is a calm, patient and handsome man; he shouldn’t act like a brute.

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face.

“Heh. You are a pervert!”

Chapter 128

“Heh. You are a pervert!”

“W-What do you mean?”

“Hmm? Why are you acting so innocent? I prearranged everything, yes I did.

However, did I force you to come and watch?

For the first time, I understand that you were curious about where the voice came from and you came to check. I can also understand that you stayed there for a while since it piqued your curiosity.

Let’s stretch the reason and say that on the second day, you wanted to make sure you didn’t hear anything wrong, I can understand that to some extent as well.

But then what about the third day, now you were sure what was happening, then why did you come close to my room?

When you knew what we were doing, then why did you peek at us again?

You told me that I was manipulating you, however, isn’t that the opposite?

Weren’t you the one who got manipulated because you...”

Nux then walked closed to Thyra and muttered with a smile.

“Because you are a pervert?”

Thyra stepped back a little as she created some distance between them. She then glanced at Nux with her eyes boiling in anger and retorted.

“I am not a pervert!”

“Then why were you peeking at me?”

“I- I was just curious!” Thyra answered.

“Oh?” Nux’s smile widened. “Curious about what exactly?” he questioned.

He was enjoying this.

That’s for sure.

“I- I was curious about... about...”

“Curious about sex?” Nux questioned as he started walking towards Thyra slowly.

“...” Thyra did not step back, however, seeing that Nux was walking toward her, she continued stepping back to maintain the distance.

However, she seemed to be out of luck as her back touched the wall, she looked back and just as she turned back to face Nux, he was already in front of her, with his right hand on the wall while his handsome face was extremely closed to hers.

For some reason, Thyra’s heart started beating loudly and before she could understand the situation, Nux questioned again.

“Were you curious about sex?”

This time, since he was so close to him, Thyra couldn’t avoid him anymore and nodded lightly.

Nux found this tamed Thyra very cute, his smile widened even more and he continued asking questions in a gentle tone, however,

“Were you curious how my rod slams my women’s insides?”

“Were you curious why my women moan so loudly?”

“Were you curious how good it feels?”

However, the content of his questions was anything but gentle.

The more questions he asked, the redder Thyra's face got.

Nux then finally removed her mask, revealing her beautiful face as he brought his face closer to hers and whispered,

“Would you like to try and see everything yourself?”

At the same time, his left hand travelled all the way down to Thyra's vagina and just as his fingers touched her little sister, Thyra's body trembled uncontrollably.

Her heartbeat quickened, even more, her judgment clouded and her face turned as red as a tomato.

“I-”

She was completely ensnared by Nux's sudden move and just as she was about to say something,

“W-W-W-What are you two doing?” Three's shocked voice was heard as Nux and Thyra turned around in surprise.

“T-T-Two, T-Three, w-why are you here?” Thyra questioned in shock.

“M-Master Nux summoned us...” Two answered.

Thyra then turned towards Nux and seeing the frustrated look on his face, she frowned.

“I shouldn't have called them...” Nux muttered with a scowl.

Thyra, who heard him lowered her head in embarrassment, she then quickly brought out another mask from her storage ring and covered her face.

“W-Why did you call us...?” Two questioned.

For some reason, he had a feeling that he had interrupted something very important and this will come to bite his ass in the future.

Three, on the other hand, had a blush on her face, although she was an assassin, she wasn't clueless; she knew what they were doing and found it very exciting and thrilling.

“Haahhh...” Nux then took a deep breath, he didn't expect that he would make a move on Thyra today, actually, it was a mistake in his calculations, he didn't think Thyra would address him so soon.

He was prepared to let her peek at him for the next whole week.

He was just worried about what excuses he would use to make Alger summon her but that problem was solved as well.

Good excuses weren't needed, he just needs to call order, the one facing Thyra would be Alger, not him.

Of course, all of that went to dust now since Thyra confronted him way too early.

However, a smile appeared on his face when he thought about the results, he then turned towards Thyra, and seeing her 'expressionless' face under the mask, he smiled.

He was content with whatever happened.

‘Tonight...’

He thought inwardly as his smile widened.

Thyra, who noticed his smile snorted and then she questioned.

“What did you call us here for?”

Nux shook his head when he saw her attitude, he then turned towards Two and Three before turning back to Thyra and then muttered.

“I want you to fight me.”

“Huh?” Thyra, Two and Three had the same reaction.

Nux understood what they were thinking and shook his head.

“Let me correct myself, I want you all to spar with me.”

“M-Master Nux, you want to spar with 3 Grand Master Stage Assassins at the same time?” Two couldn’t help but question.

“Yes, I do.” Nux nodded with a solemn look.

“Hmph! Don’t treat us like that waste Heath. We are different, people like Heath never train, they just cultivate, and they don’t know anything about fighting.

However, we are different, I suggest that you do not take us lightly.” Thyra muttered with a cold look on her face.

“I defeated Three, remember?” Nux smiled as he glanced at Three.

“T-That was because of that weird magic of yours!” Three retorted and as if he remembered something, Nux muttered, “Ah yes, I won’t use my ‘Weird Magic’ as well, so you don’t have to worry.

Come, Let’s spar.”

Chapter 129

“I...I don't believe it...”

“What the hell... How is he doing it?”

“Is he really a Master Stage Cultivator?”

“Heh. As expected of my Nux, he is strong indeed.”

Everyone then turned towards Felberta and Edda couldn't help but question.

“Sister Felberta, do you know how he is doing it?”

Felberta then turned towards Edda and shook her head.

“Of course not. How would I know that?”

“T-Then why are you acting like you already expect it?” Edda questioned.

“Because it's Nux?” Felberta replied as she tilted her head.

It was as if she was saying something obvious.

“Ah...” Lane who was standing beside Edda and Felberta nodded.

“It is Nux... That's a good reason...” Skyla nodded as well.

Edda glanced at Felberta, Skyla and Lane in shock.

“What kind of reason is that!? Why aren't you all surprised!? A Master Stage Cultivator is fighting against 3 Grand Master Stage Cultivators! Isn't that weird!?” Edda questioned as she glanced at Nux who was sparring against 3 Grand Master Stage Assassins.

Seeing her shocked look, Felberta sighed...

She remembered how she used to be shocked as well.

‘Heh, this shows the seniority, I know him better than you do!’ A small smile appeared on her face as she thought about it.

“This is not very surprising, Sister Edda” Lane muttered.

“Why!?”

“The Master Stage Cultivator you are talking about was a mortal 2 months ago,” Skyla revealed and Edda, who was hearing this for the first time started questioning her life...

“Wait... wasn’t Sister Felberta a Mortal as well? How are you a Master Stage Cultivator now?” Edda questioned.

“Ahh... she really doesn’t know huh...” Felberta muttered.

She was really enjoying this feeling.

It made her feel superior.

However, she still thought that Edda should act more elegantly. Why is she acting so surprised, she should just accept it as she does.

Don’t let anything disturb you, act and think calmly.

That is how an elegant person should act.

Just accept it, Nux was a monster.

How difficult is that?

‘Inexperienced indeed.’

Felberta nodded to herself as she straightened her back.

“Alright, don’t worry, we will tell you everything about it tonight.” Felberta then nodded.

No matter how good it felt, it was better for everyone if they stay on the same page.

Edda nodded, she wasn't in hurry either, she was more interested in Nux's fight.

The assassins were quick with their attacks and their teamwork was amazing as well. Actually, Nux was facing many difficulties when he was fighting them.

However, since all of them were using wooden weapons, there was no risk of heavy injury.

Thyra rushed towards Nux with a dagger in her hand, Nux jumped back to create some distance, however, as if she already knew he would do that, Three was standing where he was going to land, waiting for him with a big smile on her face.

'They are really good,' Nux thought inwardly and suddenly, something similar to a shield made from something like stone appeared in front of him.

He stepped on the shield and Three, who was waiting for Nux to jump down widened her eyes when she saw a big shield appearing right in front of her.

She activated her [Wind Dash] and moved back.

*Bam*

The stone shield then fell to the ground, Nux, who was standing on it smiled at Three before he moved his hand and a wave of fire appeared in front of him.

He waved his hand elegantly and as if controlled by him, the fire wave in front of him organized itself and,

[Fire Slash]

He attacked two, who was rushing towards him.

[Tornado]

Two used his own technique and a small tornado formed in front of him, the fire faded away. Two then activated [Wind Dash] and attacked Nux.

*Tak*

“Heehh... you are good.” Nux smiled as he blocked his attack. However, his eyes widened when he noticed Two’s smirk.

He quickly moved his body in a weird manner and saved himself from the [Wind Slash] that was about to attack his arm.

However, due to that, he stood in an awkward position, Two did not waste this chance and attacked his legs.

Nux finally lost his balance and fell to the ground.

“YYaahhhhhh!”

Three then rushed towards Nux and attacked his face.

Nux rolled over and defended but Three continued attacking.

Nux continued rolling and defending however, he soon noticed Thyra and Two were activating their bigger attacks.

This was bad...

Nux then shook his head and then sighed.

“Alright, that’s enough. I give up.”

He admitted defeat.

Three stopped attacking and two and Thyra stopped the skills they were activating as well.

“Hahahaha~ We told you didn’t we, Master Nux? We are not like those useless Grand Master Stage Cultivators who never train. Don’t underestimate us!” Three laughed.

She felt better after ‘defeating’ Nux, even though it was an unfair 1v3 battle.

“Yes, Yes, you guys are strong.” Nux nodded as he stood up and cleaned the dust from his clothes.

Three’s smile widened and although Two tried to hide it, a smile had appeared on his face as well.

However, Thyra didn’t share their happiness, she was looking at Nux with a serious look on her face.

“The Skills you were using, were these the 4 Star Skills you got from Bannermane and Hardwick house?” She couldn’t take it anymore and question.

This question attracted everyone’s attention, Three’s and Two’s smiles faded and they turned towards Nux for his answer.

“Hahaha~ Thyra, what are you talking about? He only received those skills 3 days ago, how can he learn them so quickly?” Felberta questioned as she chuckled. Skyla, Lane and Edda nodded.

Not only them but even Two and Three were also nodding.

However, Thyra kept her gaze towards Nux, waiting for his answer.

She didn’t sense wrong, although poorly used, the skills Nux was using were 4-star skills and she was sure that he didn’t have any other 4-star skills than the ones he got 5 days ago.

However, this didn’t make any sense.

The number of people who could learn a 4-star skill within 4 days were no more than 5.

This kind of scary talent isn't that common.

Especially when he learned multiple skills at the same time.

Then how is Nux using these techniques?

Is it related to that weird magic of his?

Since she couldn't come up with an answer, she directly questioned the man.

“Indeed. These were the techniques that I got from Bannermane and Hardwick houses. However, as you can see, I am still not proficient in using them” Nux nodded.

However, his ‘humble’ answer shocked everyone as their eyes widened and they questioned.

“”WHAT!?!?””

Chapter 130

“”WHAT!?!?””

Everyone questioned in surprise.

“No... I do not believe it... that is just not possible... No matter how much of a monster he is... this is just ridiculous!”

Surprisingly, Felberta was the one who was surprised the most.

If anyone had known what she was thinking a few minutes ago, they would question one thing for sure.

What happened to the elegance you were talking about?

Why is your mouth wide open now?

You don't look very elegant to me.

However, since nobody knew her thoughts, nobody said anything.

It could be said that Felberta was lucky, else, her 'superiority' would be gone.

However,

Her surprise wasn't without any reason.

Similar to her, Lane and Skyla, who had known Nux for a longer period of time, were surprised as well.

“B-But... isn't his affinity at Medium level...” Lane muttered to herself.

Thyra, who heard her turned her head in shock and questioned.

“What did you say!?”

“His affinity... it was Medium level with all the elements...”

“Then how...”

Thyra muttered as she glanced at Nux in shock.

Everyone else in the room had similar expressions, and Nux, who was the centre of attention frowned.

He now realized why they were so shocked.

His talent... or his affinity, was medium level.

[Name: Nux Leander]

[Age: 18]

[Mana Cultivation: Master.]

[Body Cultivation: Master.]

[Talent: Medium]

Yes, he rechecked it and his talent was Medium.

He should not be able to learn 4-star skills so easily.

Something was wrong.

“We will check your Affinity again.” Suddenly, Felberta muttered.

Felberta was the one who was surprised more than anyone else.

Affinity, Talent, she always cursed herself for being born with low talent, of course, with Nux’s arrival, her talent did not matter at all, since they can raise their cultivation with snu snu, however, she was still a little sensitive to something related to Affinity.

Nux then turned towards Felberta, placed his hand on her butt and nodded with a small smile.

“As you say, My Dear Fel~”

A small smile appeared on Felberta’s face.

‘Heh. It doesn’t really matter...’

She thought inwardly and closed her eyes.

Thyra who noticed this narrowed her eyes.

For some reason, she did not like what she was seeing at all.

She was... Jealous?

When she realized it, she shook her head repeatedly and walked with the others.

...

A few minutes later, all of them were inside a room, looking at 4 crystal balls that were fixed on the table with solemn looks on their faces.

Nux nodded at Felberta, she nodded back and Nux walked towards the 4 crystals.

‘Let’s try Wind first, this is the most important for running away.’

Nux thought inwardly before he placed his hand on the crystal and injected his mana into it with a determined look on his face.

Nothing happened for the first few seconds.

However, 30 seconds later, the crystal trembled and shined.

‘Low level’ Felberta muttered inwardly.

10 seconds later, the light coming out of the crystal brightened.

‘Medium Level...’

Another 10 seconds later, the crystal shined even more brightly.

‘High level!’

Felberta’s eyes widened in surprise.

His talent increased again!

Just like how it happened before!

However, her surprise wasn’t over yet.

Another 10 seconds later, a blinding light was released from the crystal and everyone present in the room widened their eyes in shock.

“Exceptional!” Three’s exclaimed, her eyes shining with excitement and surprise.

“It’s Exceptional! Exceptional level Affinity!” Skyla jumped in joy as well.

“Wait... isn’t there only one person in the entire Skyfall Kingdom who has Exceptional level affinity?” Edda questioned.

“Yes, Candice Waters. The gem of the Royal Academy. They say she has Exceptional Level Affinity with Water.” Two informed.

“And Master Nux is now second one, Exceptional Level Affinity with Wind element.” Three muttered with a bright smile on her face.

“Don’t conclude too early,” Felberta spoke as she glanced at Nux.

Nux took a deep breath and then placed his hands on another crystal that had a tinge of red mixed within.

‘Fire, a good attack power.’

30 seconds later, the crystal shined and the light it released got brighter and brighter.

“Exceptional again!” Skyla exclaimed in joy.

Nux then placed his hand on another crystal.

‘Earth, good for defence.’

“Exceptional again!”

‘Water, good for... umm... bath.’

“Exceptional... again...”

“...”

“...”

The results were out and everyone in the room, except for Felberta, Skyla and Lane turned silent.

Candice Waters, a prodigy who has Exceptional-level affinity with water is valued deeply by the Royal Academy and the Skyfall Kingdom.

Then what about this man?

A man who has Exceptional Level Affinity with all the elements.

What about this monster?

How will the kingdom, no, the world would react to that?

No one knew.

However, one thing was for sure,

The world is about to change.

Nux Leander was too much of a monster.

Everyone in the room turned towards Nux with shocked looks on their faces.

Of course, no one knew that the man himself was quite confused.

‘My talent is clearly medium level... why is it showing Exceptional here? Is talent not equal to affinity? Did I guess it wrong all along?’

Nux started thinking.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

However, before he could think too much, he heard a knock followed by a voice.

“Umm... Master Nux... the breakfast is ready.”

Nux then glanced out of the window and noticed that the sun was already out.

“Alright, we will be right there,” Nux replied, he then turned to the rest and smiled.

“Alright, let’s stop thinking about all this and eat something~”

Others nodded, Thyra, Two and Three walked away, they never ate food with them and planned to keep it that way.

Nux wanted to invite Thyra, however, since Two and Three were here, he knew she wouldn’t agree so he did not.

Felberta, Skyla, Lane, Edda and Nux then walked towards the dining hall and the breakfast was served.

“Hey Nux, you are going to meet Lady Allura in the afternoon, right? Have you prepared anything?” Suddenly, Edda questioned.

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face as he replied.

“What’s there to prepare?”

I will go with the flow.”

Chapter 131

“Lady Natalia, welcome.”

A receptionist bowed and welcomed her with a big smile on his face.

The Lady he was talking to smiled a little and expressed.

“I need a room.”

“Yes, Lady Natalia, your usual room is already prepared, here’s the key.”
The receptionists answered with a smile and gave her the keys.

One of the two servants following ‘Lady Natalia’ took the keys and nodded at the receptionist.

The receptionist nodded back and Lady Natalia, along with her two bodyguards walked away.

A receptionist’s friend watched everything curiously and once Lady Natalia left, he walked toward his friend and questioned.

“Hey, Adam, why are you so respectful to that woman? I have seen you dealing with other people before, other than the basic courtesy, you aren’t really that submissive to anyone else, is she a high-ranking noble?”

Adam, the receptionist shook his head and answered, “I do not know who she is but I have seen the Plaza owner talk to her before and I clearly remembered the expression he had on his face that day.”

“Expression? What expression?”

“A respectful expression... with some fear hidden behind it...”

“Doesn’t the Plaza owner have a backing of a Markees house, why is he...” His friend muttered in confusion, however, soon, he understood something.

“I don’t know who that lady is, but it’s better not to get on her bad side, I do plan to die so soon. Not after Camila and I are in a relationship.” Adam muttered.

The friend’s face turned sour when he heard what he said.

“Hey, what’s with that face huh? We played it fair okay? She was the one who chose me.”

A sigh escaped out of Adam’s friend’s mouth and he smiled wryly.

“Yeah yeah, I know. I failed... Anyway, I am happy for you...”

‘If only I had gotten the job in the crown plaza... haahhh... money is important indeed...’

Oblivious to his thoughts, Adam smiled and patted his shoulders.

“Thank you~”

...

“Lady Allura, we left the Palace two days ago, I don’t think it’s appropriate for us to leave again.”

“Oh C’mon, protector, how many times will you repeat the same thing? We have already left the Palace. We have even reached our destination. You can stop worrying now. Also, what could possibly go wrong? It’s not like anyone knows who I am.

And even if someone does, aren’t you here to protect me?” Allura muttered as she looked around and observed the room she and her protectors have just entered.

Well, for all the slow folks, ‘Lady Natalia’ who booked the room was Allura all along.

She has left the palace again, which was quite abnormal compared to her usual pattern since she never leaves the palace multiple times in a week.

Of course, nobody doubted her because of something small like that.

She was the Bored Concubine, she does stuff in order to surprise others and entertain others. If it was her, leaving the Palace again wasn't very abnormal.

Of course, it would be a different thing if she was meeting a man.

But that would not happen.

“Lady Allura, we can't protect you from everything. You need to be cautious as well.” Another protector muttered.

“Heehhh? Aren't you the all-strong Grand Master Stage Cultivators? Who are you scared of?” Allura questioned with a smile on her face.

The two protectors, who have been with her for a long time knew that smile very well.

“Ah, Lady Allura, you are right, just let us protect you, don't worry about anything else and enjoy all you want.”

“Yes, we two men will now take our leave. Of course, we will be protecting you from the shadows”

The two protectors laughed awkwardly and left the room in hurry.

A timely retreat.

If this was before, Allura would have snorted and complained that these two old geezers were too boring, however, today was different. Today, she sighed in relief instead.

‘I really left the Palace to meet a man who I don't even know properly and a young man to boot. If someone learns about it, I'll be dead in no time.’

Allura thought inwardly as her heartbeat quickened.

This feeling...

This feeling was scary and thrilling at the same time.

‘If someone else learns about it, they will think that I am cheating on the king...

Wait...

Am I cheating?

Huh? What am I thinking?

Of course, I am not. I am just meeting him, he is not my lover, he is more like a friend.

A friend who can entertain me.’ Allura convinced herself and then, a sad look appeared on her face.

‘Also, it’s not like he will care about it... I am just a trophy after all...’

Allura then shook her head repeatedly to get rid of her thoughts.

She walked towards the bed and pressed a button.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

A few minutes later, a knock was heard.

“Enter”

A servant entered and bowed.

“Bring me a tea.”

“Yes, madam.” The servant bowed and walked out of the room, however, just as he was about to close the door, Allura ordered.

“Keep the door open.”

“Yes madam.”

The servant nodded and walked away with another bow.

A few minutes later, he returned with a table and stood in front of the door.

“Enter.”

He then entered the room, place the cup on the table, filled it with tea and then left.

Allura then grabbed the teacup and started drinking as she looked out of the window.

The sun was out and was shining brightly.

It was already afternoon.

It was time for lunch.

“He’s late,”

“To dare make me wait, I will make sure he pays a price.” She snorted.

“I apologize if I offended you in any way, Lady Allura. However, there are still 15 minutes before lunchtime, so I am not late.

It is you who arrived too early.

Not that I am complaining,

Rather, I am happy to know that you are as excited about our lunch together as I am.”

Chapter 132

“I apologize if I offended you in any way, Lady Allura. However, there are still 15 minutes before lunchtime, so I am not late.

It is you who arrived too early.

Not that I am complaining,

Rather, I am happy to know that you are as excited about our lunch together as I am.”

“!!!” Allura widened her eyes in surprise as she turned around and saw Nux standing behind her with that signature smile on his face.

“Y-Y-You! Are you a ghost!? How do you appear behind me every time without me realizing it? And why are my protectors unable to stop you?” Allura questioned.

“Yes, that was the reaction I was expecting when I appeared behind you the first time. However, you disappointed me and started asking all those questions.

Well, I can understand that as well, you were missing me very much that day, so it was normal.” Nux muttered with a smile on his face.

“I was not missing you!” Allura retorted, she then realized something and retorted again,

“Also, I am not excited about this lunch at all! I am not early!”

“You are early, Lady Allura”

“I am not! Lunch time is 1 pm in the afternoon!”

“Yes, and it is 12:50 right now, you were 15 minutes early, Lady Allura,” Nux muttered as he pointed at the clock that was hanging in the room.

Allura glanced at the clock and widened her eyes in surprise.

Well, it was not like she didn't know about it.

Actually, Nux wasn't playing any games here, she did arrive a little early since she was a little excited about meeting him.

Of course, she would never admit it out loud.

Who would give a free point like this to others?

“Yes, that is what I am talking about. It is 12:50, lunchtime is 12:45 pm, and you are late. I believe you should apologize.”

In the end, Allura was a noble as well, she can lie right through her teeth without any problems.

As long as you don't admit you are lying, you are saying the truth.

Simple.

Seeing her lie, Nux shook his head and sighed, “Haahhh... you are really trying hard to not admit it, huh, Lady Allura. However, if you were not excited and were in rush to come here, how do you explain the missing eyeliner on your left eye?” Nux questioned with a smile on his face.

“!!!” Allura's eyes widened in surprise.

‘Wait! Did the maids not do my make-up right!? Have I been walking around without an eyeliner all this time!? What!?’

Why didn't anyone tell me?

Were they scared about angering me!?’

Or were they laughing behind my back!?’

Allura's whole world crumbled as she thought of countless possibilities. Suddenly, a mirror appeared in her hand and as she glanced looked at her own face, her movements paused.

Suddenly, she closed her eyes and started breathing heavily, however, she still failed to control her anger and lashed out.

“How da-”

“Shhhh!!”

However, before she could say much, Nux placed a finger on his lips and gestured her to stay silent as he pointed at the door.

“They will hear you” He whispered softly.

“How dare you fool me!?” Allura questioned in anger, of course, her tone was a low softer than before.

“Hahaha~ My bad, My bad, Lady Allura. However, this does prove one thing.”

“What?”

“That you were in such a hurry to see me that you forgot to see your face mirror and rushed to here. I am glad to know it, Lady Allura. You truly have made my day.”

Nux chuckled.

Allura's face turned red in anger and embarrassment.

“You bastard! How dare you tease me!?” She roared, and of course, she did it in a low voice.

“Hahaha~” Nux laughed out loud, teasing her was funnnn.

Very very funnnn~

“You dare laugh at m- Wait...”

Soon, Allura realized something.

She then turned towards Nux and narrowed her eyes.

“You changed the topic again.” She complained.

“Hmm? What do you mean?”

“Don’t try to act innocent. I won’t fall for it twice. I asked you, however, you tried to change the topic.

I do not like it.

It is disrespectful if you aren’t going to answer my questions; there is no point in having lunch together this way.” Allura replied in a serious tone.

Nux smiled wryly when he saw her expression.

‘As expected... it isn’t easy to fool her huh...’ he thought inwardly and shook his head. He had noticed that his plans aren’t working that well these days.

First the case with Thyra and now this.

Haahhh...

Well, whatever, he just needs to face it directly, plus, where’s the fun in doing everything according to the script?

“Alright, ask what you want.”

Nux decided to take a chance and be honest.

Of course, how much information he reveals depends on him. He wasn’t going to tell everything to a woman he met a few days ago.

“How did you appear behind me without alerting my protectors?” Allura questioned for the third time.

“It’s beca-”

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Nux wanted to answer, but before he could, he heard a knock.

“What is it?” Allura questioned, she wasn’t very panicked like before, she has seen how scarily quick this young man’s reflexes are, he always hides in time if something goes wrong.

“Lunch” The servant standing on the other side of the door muttered.

“Oh? To think Lady Allura have already ordered Lunch. Considerate indeed.” Nux commented.

Allure decided to ignore his comments.

It wasn’t her who ordered the food, it was her protectors.

Of course, they did that because she told them to.

But, as you know, nobody needs to know that.

“Go hide, I am calling him”

“Just call him, I’ll show you how I appeared behind you so easily. It will be a lot better than to directly explain it to you.” Nux muttered with a smile.

Allura glanced at him with an unsure look.

Nux then nodded.

“Trust me.”

Chapter 133

“Trust me.”

Nux muttered and for some reason, Allura thought she could trust him a little.

“Enter.” She ordered.

She then heard the voice of the door opening, time around her slowed down and she observed the door opening in slow motion. Each passing mini second, Allura’s heartbeat quickened and she started panicking a little.

What if Nux’s trick didn’t work?

What if the servant saw another unknown man beside her?

Actually, the servant seeing them together was fine since he didn’t know who she was, however, what if the protectors saw Nux?

What would they think?

Would they try to side with her and shut their mouth?

Or would they tell everything to the king?

What if the king learns about it?

Will he kill her?

Of course he will!

He will execute her publically!

He wouldn’t even think twice about that!

As countless thoughts appeared in her mind, Allura panicked even more.

Suddenly, she started regretting her decision.

However, it was already too late, the door opened and the servant entered the room.

Allura's heart skipped a beat, she quickly turned her head and her eyes widened in horror when she noticed that Nux was sitting right beside her with a small smile on his face.

'Did his technique fail!?' She thought inwardly and panicked even more.

If Allura was a heart patient, then today, she would have died for sure.

"Don't worry, he can't see me."

Allura was then brought out of her reverie when she heard Nux's voice.

She then turned around as she glanced at the servant and was quick to notice that what Nux said was true, the servant indeed didn't notice him.

A sigh of relief escaped her mouth.

However, Nux had other plans in his mind.

His smile widened as he stood up and walked toward the servant.

Allura's heart which had barely calmed down started beating faster again.

'Why is he moving in front of him!?' She questioned inwardly however, her eyes widened in horror when she saw Nux picking up a meatball from the table and eating it in front of the servant.

"Y-Y-You... do you not see him?" Allura couldn't help but question.

"See what? Lady Natalia?" The servant questioned in a humble tone.

He has heard about this guest and was told that he should act very very respectfully; else this will be his last day at work and probably his life.

Allura's eyes widened in surprise.

'He is standing right in front of you! How can you not see him!?' She wanted to scream out loud however, she didn't do it.

She was sane enough to hold back.

However, she wasn't able to hide her surprised expression which the servant found weird.

"Lady Natalia? Is there something wrong? I apologize for my incompetence, please tell me what I am unable to see, I assure you that I will improve myself and deal with whatever problem you are facing"

The servant practically begged.

He felt that he had somehow missed an important detail that had offended this woman in front of him.

He still had his family, that relies on him, he can't die here!

Allura was taken aback by his question, she then pointed at the window and said a random excuse that came to her mind.

"A crow. There was a crow there. It must have flown away now."

"Lady Natalia, is that crow annoying you? Do you want me to do something about that crow? Should I send someone to catch it?" The servant questioned.

"No need.

Also, I don't really think you can catch him"

She muttered the last line in a very soft voice.

"What?" The servant, who couldn't hear her, questioned.

“Nothing, I said you do not need to do anything, just serve the food. Oh yes, keep an extra pair of cutlery here.” Allura ordered.

“As you say, Lady Natalia” The servant did everything quickly and sighed in relief.

He lived to see another day.

Just 12 more days, then he will get his salary; he was planning to buy a new dress for his daughter.

“I will take my leave now, Lady Natalia. I hope you have a good day ahead and enjoy your stay here” He then bowed and left the room.

When the servant left, Nux smiled at Allura and sat on the chair. However, Allura wasn't as comfortable as him.

“A-Are you a ghost...? A-Are you here to get your revenge? If yes, then I promise I wasn't behind your death, I am innocent. I haven't even killed an animal before. I only eat the meat others hunt. I am innocent.”

She muttered with moist eyes, Nux was sure that if he didn't say anything, she would start crying right here.

“A-Are you not here to kill me? Is it something like only I can see you? Do you want my help to get your revenge? If that is the case, then I can help you. However, I will need to hear your whole story, I won't kill someone innocent for your revenge no matter how much you scare me.”

Since Nux was silent, Allura thought about other possibilities and offered.

“You should stop reading too many fantasy books, Lady Allura.” Nux couldn't help but shake his head.

“I am not a ghost.” He muttered.

“Then how is it that only I can see you?” Allura questioned.

“Didn't your protectors see me the first time we met?”

Allura's eyes widened in surprise as she realized this was true.

"T-Then how..."

"This is my ability, once I activate it, no one can see me unless I don't want him/her to." Nux then brought his face close to hers and muttered.

"This is how I managed to sneak into your room without anyone noticing.

Cool right?"

"D-Doesn't this make you a perfect assassin?" Allura questioned.

"Of course, I don't look like it, but I am strong, you know?"

"How strong?" Allura questioned curiously, for some reason, she felt that Nux wouldn't harm her.

Nux's smile widened when he heard her question and he answered.

"Stronger than the King."

Chapter 134

“Stronger than the King,” Nux answered with a smile and Allura’s eyes widened in surprise.

“S-Stronger than the king? But you are at Master Stage! You can’t even defeat a Grand Master Stage Expert let alone a king.” Allura retorted.

“Do you really think so? Then tell me, how old is the King?” Nux questioned.

“200 years or something,” Allura answered with a shrug, it looked like she wasn’t very bothered about it.

Nux frowned at that, however, he shook his head inwardly and continued.

“And I am just 18 years old.

I only need a few more years before I catch up to the King and then surpass him. Heh, then I can even become the new king.”

Allura raised her eyebrows at that statement.

“You do know what you just said is enough to get you executed, right?” She questioned.

Nux’s smile widened as he answered.

“Yes, I do.”

Allura narrowed her eyes as she questioned.

“What if I tell what you said to the king? Are you not afraid?”

“Heeeeh?” Nux smiled as he moved his face close to Allura and muttered.

“I know you won’t. I trust you.”

Allura’s heart started beating quickly, however, she quickly shook her head and cried inwardly.

‘He is just an 18-year-old boy! What the hell are you beating so quickly for!?’

However, when she saw Nux’s handsome face close to hers, she couldn’t take it anymore and pushed him away.

“Y-You are too close.” She muttered.

“O-Oh. My bad. I didn’t know a mature woman like you would blush so easily. Though it makes me glad for some reason.”

Nux smiled playfully.

“You!”

Allura wanted to retort, however, she noticed her red face on the window’s glass’s reflection and wasn’t able to say anything.

Nux smiled even more and walked towards the table.

“Alright, let’s eat now.”

Saying that, he started placing the food on the plates and signalled Allura to join.

Allura didn’t like that he was the only one doing this and she started placing the food on the table as well.

Nux paused as he noticed what she was doing, a small smile appeared on his face and he continued.

“So Lady Allura, what are your hobbies?” Nux questioned.

“Reading books...” Allura answered.

“Hmm? What type of books do you read?” Nux questioned.

“Fantasy.”

“Ohh, that’s good, I have an amazing story in my mind that matches the genre you read, would you like to hear it?” Nux questioned with a small smile.

Allura’s glanced at Nux with eyes full of interest as she nodded.

She was out of good books lately, so any good story was warmly welcomed.

“So this is a story about a man, who lives in a world that is a lot different than ours.”

“What kind of world?” Allura questioned.

“A world where the concept of cultivation doesn’t exist. The humans there aren’t able to cultivate and live longer. Everyone there is a normal man who is barely able to live for 100 years.

However, although there was no cultivation in that world, there was something called ‘technology’.

With that, the humans there were able to progress so much that they could even leave their own planet and explore other planets outside.”

“Oh?” Allura’s eyes brightened, though she wasn’t able to imagine a world without cultivation, this technology thingy sure did attract her interest.

“Alright Alright, Lady Allura, we are going to stay here for quite a while, don’t just listen to my story, eat lunch as well.”

“Yes.” Allura nodded.

Nux smiled as he continued his ‘story’.

What story was it?

Heh? Nux wasn't really an author was he?

He just spat out random bullshit and since the whole 'science' and 'technology' was new to Allura, she enjoyed whatever he said.

He wasn't dumb enough to tell her stories like Cinderella and all that, because the way people in this world think was different.

Therefore, for them to like the stories the people on Earth liked...

It was highly unlikely.

Well, whatever, the main goal was to talk.

Which he had achieved.

While he was at it, he also probed and learned about Allura's other interests as well.

The two of them continued, well, Nux was the one who spoke the most, but the way Allura's eyes were gleaming with interest, Nux knew that he had succeeded in the first step.

Gain her interest.

An hour passed by, and Nux had long stopped the story on something debatable, the two of them started talking if what the main character did was right or not, and this way, Nux started chatting about another topic.

He didn't realize it, however, he was becoming a master at changing the course of conversation. Unlike him in the past (on earth), now, he was the one who set up the pace of the conversation while the others followed.

How did this happen?

Who knows?

"Hooh, look at the time, Lady Allura, it's already 2 pm."

Allura's eyes glanced at the clock in shock.

She couldn't believe so much time had passed.

"So Lady Allura, when are we meeting the next time?" Nux questioned and before she could think too much, Nux continued.

"The next time we meet, I will make sure to bring a storybook that was popular in my town. It is also about Earth, the world without magic. However, it is a lot better than the one I shared with you before"

Allura's eyes brightened in joy.

"Really?"

"Why would I lie to you, Lady Allura?" Nux questioned with a smile.

Allura was taken aback by the smile and she muttered, "O-Okay, then we will meet 1 week later. I have left the Palace 2 times already, someone will be suspicious of me if I leave again this week."

"Ahh, I can understand that, alright, next week it is then." Nux smiled, he then stood up, and walked towards the window.

"See you soon, Lady Allura."

"Wait!" However, just as he was about to jump out of the window, Allura called.

"I still do not know your name," Allura questioned.

A smile appeared on Nux's face as he replied.

"Nux Leander."

Chapter 135

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

“Who is it?” After Nux left, Allura heard a knock and questioned.

“It is me, Lady Allura”

“Enter”

Then Allura’s protector entered the room and she questioned.

“What is it?”

“I wanted to ask what plans you have for today, Lady Allura.” The protector questioned.

However, before she could answer, the protector furrowed his brows,

“Lady Allura, why are there two sets of plates on your table?”

Allura was shocked when she noticed the plates, however, she didn’t show any change in her expression.

Meeting Nux was her little secret.

She couldn’t tell anyone else about it because she was sure they would misunderstand.

“Nothing, I just wanted to check if the food tasted different if we keep it on two different plates,” Allura answered whatever came into her mind.

“...” Her protector looked at her weirdly, however, he didn’t say anything.

‘Just how bored one has to be to try something like this...’

However, no one was stopping the protector from thinking and judging inwardly.

The protector then shook his head to get rid of these thoughts and then questioned.

“So back to the topic, what are your plans for today, Lady Allura?”

He completely ignored the plate incident.

He felt like it was better to do so.

Allura sighed in relief when her protector didn't question much. Of course, nobody knew what face she would make if she knew his inner thoughts.

“Let's return to the palace.”

She muttered.

“W-What?”

“Is there a problem?” Allura frowned.

“Ah, no! Lady Allura, there are no problems at all, I shall prepare everything.” The protector bowed and left the room in surprise.

“What's with that look on your face, Bruce?” The other protector questioned when he noticed the surprised look on Bruce, the protector's face.

“Lady Allura wants to return...” Bruce answered.

“What? Why?”

“I do not know... I am surprised myself.”

“This has never happened before... she just came here, stayed in a room and now she wants to return? She didn't tease anyone, she didn't observe anyone, she didn't buy out a stall just to see the owner's reaction, why the hell is she returning so quickly?"

"Who knows?"

"Is she sick?"

"Why would she leave the Palace if she was sick?"

"You have a point."

The two protectors started thinking.

Although Allura was pretty unpredictable and does things randomly to entertain herself, she wasn't completely unpredictable either.

Therefore, her protectors, who have been protecting her for years now know a lot about her habits.

They were sure that Lady Allura was acting weird.

"Well whatever, isn't it better for us anyway?" Bruce muttered.

"That's true, maybe Lady Allura is maturing..."

"She's not a child, you know?"

"Ugh, whatever, just go and prepare the carriage, I will stay here."

"Alright."

...

Night, inside Alger's room, a similar, no, a very scene was repeating itself.

"..."

"..."

Thyra and Alger started at each other.

“I am ready, I am ready, you can go ahead and beat me.”

However, Alger was too familiar with where this will go, therefore, he prepared himself for what was about to come and raised his hand in surrender.

No use going through the same script again and again and again.

You might go ahead and hit him.

At least he is mentally prepared for it right now.

“Did Nux order you to call me here?” Thyra questioned.

However, Alger didn't fail to notice that her tone was a lot calmer than yesterday, not only that, rather than calling Master Nux 'that bastard' she called him by his name.

A small smile appeared on Alger's face.

Of course, he was not thinking anything weird.

The poor man just wanted to survive without being beaten.

And he saw an opportunity to do that.

“Y-Yes, Of course, it was Master Nux who told me to call you.” Alger nodded with the friendliest smile possible.

Actually, Thyra wanted to hit him just because of that weird smile of his, however, she controlled herself.

She was not a brute delinquent.

“So? What does he want today?” She questioned and as soon as she did, the smile on Alger's face disappeared.

He had forgotten, there was no way he could save himself from the beating today.

Master Nux didn't leave him any chance to.

Alger gulped as he remembered that question, he did not want to ask that question at all, however, he was helpless. He couldn't do anything about it at all.

Alger closed his eyes, his face paled and he questioned.

“H-Have you learned anything from your spar with Master Nux today? Have you profited in any way?”

“ ... ”

Thyra stayed silent.

Since she didn't say anything, Alger knew she was pissed and opened his left eye to check her reaction.

His body trembled when he noticed that she was just standing there with her head down and her hair were covering her eyes.

“Pfft”

Suddenly, a laugh escaped out of Thyra's mouth.

‘Huh?’ Alger opened his eyes as he glanced at Thyra in confusion.

“Hahahaha~” Thyra then started laughing out loud.

“He really couldn't find a better topic, could he? Hahaha~” Alger's room was filled with Thyra's surprisingly sweet laughter.

‘Has she gone crazy? Am I about to die?’ Alger thought inwardly.

“Don't worry, I know it's not your fault, you are just following orders. Alright, I will take my leave now.” Although she had covered her face with a mask, Alger was sure that she was smiling right now.

Thyra then left the room and smiled.

‘Hmph! What an exhibitionist!’ Thyra snorted.

‘But this time, I will pass through that room without peeking! I will not peek at all!’ Thyra nodded to herself with her eyes filled with determination.

She then started walking, the closer she walked to Nux’s room, the faster her heart started beating.

‘I do not hear anything! I do not hear anything! I do not hear anything! I do not hear anything! I do not hear anything!’

She continued to convince herself as she walked, however, soon, she noticed something.

‘I do not hear anything...’

She frowned.

Was her convincing power too good?

She walked closer to Nux’s room and,

“...”

Still no sound, no moaning.

‘What happened?’

Thyra thought curiously.

In the end, Thyra couldn’t control herself anymore and walked toward Nux’s room.

She arrived at the door, crouched and then slightly opened the door like she always does.

However, She was surprised to see that the room was empty.

‘Hmm?’

She frowned but before she could think too much,

A hand covered mouth as someone grabbed her from behind and carried her into the room.

Chapter 136

A/N: Proceed with caution. *Skeleton Face*

Hehehehehe!

...

Thyra panicked when someone grabbed her from behind, she didn't sense this person at all!

Who was he!?

What was he doing here!?

Thyra moved her body, trying to get out of the man's grip, however,

“Phwooo~”

Suddenly, the man who was grabbing her from behind blew a mouthful of hot air into her right ear and a jolt of electricity streamed into Thyra's body, weakening her resistance.

Thyra frowned.

What sort of person does that to weaken their targets?

Soon, an annoying but handsome face appeared in her mind.

She turned around as much as she could and was now sure who this person was.

She sighed in relief and stopped resisting.

“Heeehh? You gave up pretty quickly, Thyra.” Nux smiled as he released her.

Then, he walked toward the door and closed them.

“Why did you do this to me?” Thyra questioned.

“Do what?”

“Are you really trying to act innocent?”

“Hmm? But I am innocent, am I not?” Nux questioned as he tilted his head in confusion.

“Innocent my head! You grabbed me from behind and forced me into your room!” Thyra retorted.

She doesn't know why, but she always loses her calm in front of this man.

She really hated that!

She was a calm woman, she was not someone who keeps shouting for no reason!

“Heeh? How am I the bad person here? I was only catching the woman who was sneakily peeking into my room, was I not?”

“I-I was not peeking!” Thyra's face turned a little red and she retorted.

“Oh c'mon, how dare you lie so blatantly? I was there when you were crouching in front of my room, then you opened the door a little and you moved your head closer to the gap to look inside. Is that not called peeking?” Nux questioned.

Thyra's face then turned redder as she replied, “I-I was not peeking, I was just curious!”

“Huh? What's the difference? You were attacking my privacy in either case, were you not?”

“Privacy my head! You are an exhibitionist who likes it when other people see you having sex! How can a person like you have privacy?”

Nux's face twitched as he questioned.

“Huh? Where did you get that idea from?”

“Isn't that why you manipulated me into watching you?” Thyra questioned.

“Haaah? Didn't we get over that in the morning? You wouldn't have been manipulated if you were not a pervert! Don't blame me!”

“I am not a pervert!” Thyra shouted.

“Then why were you peeking at me!?” Nux shouted as well.

“Did I tell you just now!? I was just curious as to why there was no voice coming out of your room!” Thyra questioned even more loudly.

“Huh? What kind of sound are you talking about?” Suddenly, a small smile appeared on Nux's face as he questioned.

“Moa- huh?” Thyra stopped midway as she glanced towards Nux and then quickly covered her mouth. However, it was already over. Nux had heard her.

“Oh... so you were curious about why you didn't hear any moans today as you do normally?” He questioned.

Cornered, Thyra couldn't do anything but nod.

Nux's smile widened, he then walked towards Thyra and Thyra stepped back.

“Ah, that is a good question indeed, why didn't you hear any moans today...” Nux muttered as he continued walking towards Thyra.

“There is always a woman who moans when you pass in front of my room, then why wasn't there any moan today? You were curious about this, right?”

Thyra nodded, however, she didn't make eye contact with Nux and continued stepping back.

“Why isn't there any woman inside his room today? Were you wondering that?” Nux questioned.

“Yes... I was curious...” Thyra nodded.

Nux's smile widened even more as he walked towards Thyra, the girl wanted to step back, however, her back was already touching the wall.

Nux then closed the distance between them as he raised her chin and answered.

“That's because the woman inside my room is...

You.”

Thyra's eyes widened in shock and her heart started beating loudly.

“We were interrupted in the morning, were we not? Don't you think we should continue it?” Nux questioned.

“I-I do not think we should continue it...” Thyra muttered weakly, however, she didn't do anything to push him away.

“Oh? Are you sure?” Nux questioned.

“I-I am...”

“Are you not curious about how my rod slams into a woman's body? Are you not curious why my women moan so loudly? Are you not...

Curious about how good it feels?” Nux questioned and Thyra's face turned red.

“You are curious to know everything, right?”

Thyra nodded weakly.

“Then shall we continue what we were about to do in the morning?” Nux questioned again.

This time, Thyra didn't say anything and lowered her head.

Or she tried to.

Nux lifted her chin as he glanced at her crystal blue eyes.

He then removed the annoying mask that covers her incredibly beautiful face and revealed her luscious red lips.

Nux glanced at Thyra with his golden eyes filled with immense desire.

Desire so strong that even Thyra could feel it and due to that, her heart started beating quickly, so quickly that she felt that it would burst apart.

She then saw Nux had closed his eyes, she didn't know why, however, he felt that she should do the same and she closed her eyes as well.

As soon as her eyes were closed, her other senses heightened up, she could feel that Nux's was coming closer to hers.

She wasn't born yesterday, she knew what was about to happen.

Does she want it to happen?

She doesn't know.

However, does she want Nux to stop?

Not at all.

Her lips trembled a little before they moved a little forward and formed a pout.

Soon, an incredibly soft pair of lips touched hers and as soon as the contact was made.

Her body trembled and her heart started beating so fast that she doubted if it was humanly possible.

Nux moved his lips and since Thyra didn't know anything, she just followed his rhythm and continued to enjoy this foreign feeling inside her heart.

Yes, Thyra Cruse was enjoying this first kiss of hers.

Chapter 137

A/N: Proceed with caution.

*Skeleton Face*

...

Nux moved his lips, he first sucked Thyra's lower lip then he started sucking her upper lip, repeated that a few times and soon, Thyra, who was trying to note his pattern copied his actions as well.

However, Thyra couldn't keep up for long as something wet entered her mouth.

It was Nux's tongue.

Thyra's eyes widened in surprise, however, she didn't resist.

She couldn't resist.

She just let Nux do whatever he wanted and with his every action, her heartbeat rose.

It was a new and a weird experience for her.

Nux's tongue then found hers and the two of them started mingling with each other. Their salivas exchanged as Nux's hand moved towards Thyra's back as he pulled her close to him.

Thyra's hands copied Nux's movements as well and they moved towards Nux's back.

Yes, Thyra was hugging Nux as well.

Even Nux was surprised by that action.

Nux's heartbeat quickened as he tightened his hug around Thyra and the two of them shared a long passionate kiss.

“!!!”

Suddenly, Thyra's body arched up in surprise when she felt Nux's hand moving down from her waist to her butt and then to her vagina which has been very sensitive for the last few days.

“Anh~”

Thyra then moved her mouth as she broke the kiss and moaned.

“Heh~ So sensitive~” Nux smiled as his fingers gently kneaded her opening.

“Annh~”

Thyra moaned again.

Nux noticed that her voice was incredibly sweet, he then glanced at her face and saw that she was looking at him as her crystal blue eyes shined with innocence, curiosity and... desire.

Seeing that look on her beautiful face, Nux couldn't control himself anymore and picked her up.

“Ahh!”

Thyra's body jerked in horror.

Nux then gently placed her on the bed as he crawled towards her and whispered,

“You don't need to panic, Thyra~ Just leave everything to me.”

Saying that, he gave her a little peck on her lips and questioned.

“Okay?”

His voice was so gentle that Thyra couldn't help but nod.

Nux then smiled at her, then with another peck on her forehead and then on the lips, he moved down towards her cave and started removing her pants.

As an Assassin, Thyra wore skin-tight clothes, therefore removing her pants turned out to be harder than Nux expected.

However, he enjoyed every second of it.

Heh, her face that turned redder and redder was very satisfying to watch.

After a minute of struggle, he finally removed her pants, revealing her long legs with the most perfect pair of thighs Nux had ever seen.

*Gulp*

Nux gulped.

He doesn't know why, but he felt that he would develop a new fetish.

However, Nux quickly shook his head.

This was not about him right now, it was about Thyra.

He then turned his gaze towards the white panty Thyra was wearing and with a smooth movement, he removed that panty out of his way, revealing her beautiful, pink entrance.

Thyra tried to close her legs as soon as Nux removed her panty, however, Nux held her leg and didn't let her move.

"Leave everything to me, Thyra." He repeated in a very gentle voice.

Thyra nodded, her heart was about to explode now. She felt Nux's gaze on her private part, this filled her heart with unexplainable feeling.

She didn't know what this feeling was, however, she knew that she didn't hate it.

Nux then observed her entrance for a little while and soon, he moved his finger and started circling it around her entrance.

Thyra's body trembled again and soon, her liquid started leaking out.

Nux smiled mischievously as he flicked her erect clit.

“Aanhhh~”

Thyra moaned out loud.

“AAnnhhh~”

However, Nux didn't give her any chance to react as his finger entered her pussy.

When Nux noticed that she was comfortable with one finger, his other finger entered as well.

His two fingers then started creating havoc inside Thyra's pussy.

Every time Thyra's body jerked a little, Nux noted that place in his mind and continued teasing other parts of her insides.

Like an expert, Nux found out many of her weak points in just 5 minutes.

“AAnnhhhhh~”

However, these 5 minutes were anything but 'just 5 minutes' for Thyra who was breathing heavily right now with her eyes closed.

She used to masturbate as well, however, she never felt this good before.

Never.

This was simply unreal.

Waves and waves of pleasure assaulted Thyra's body as Nux's fingers continued exploring her cave. Every single touch sent another wave of jolt that coursed throughout her body.

She was on cloud nine.

‘I-Is this how g-good sex feels?’

She wondered inwardly.

However, as if Nux had heard her thoughts and had wanted to deny her conclusion,

His third finger entered her cave as well.

Then, these three fingers simultaneously teased all the weak points Nux has found and Thyra’s eyes widened in shock!

“AAANhhhh~”

Another, incomparably huge wave of pleasure coursed into her body and her back arched up. She couldn’t control herself at all and moaned loudly.

Her mind turned a little hazy as her walls tightened, her juice built up and,

*Squirt*

She came.

She came and she continued coming for the next 30 seconds.

This was the best orgasm she had ever had in her life.

And this will be the best orgasm she will ever have in her life.

Or at least that was what she thought,

However, Nux didn’t seem to agree with her last thought as the smile that had appeared on his face said something else.

He continued watching closely as Thyra's lower lips opened and closed uncontrollably as her juice gushed out of them.

Once he was sure that Thyra was done with her orgasm, he moved up and brought his head close to hers.

Thyra sensed his movement and opened her eyes, she then saw the smirk on his face, however, before she could say anything, Nux questioned.

“Should we start the main thing?”

Thyra's eyes widened in horror as she questioned back,

“T-This is not the Main Thing!?”

Chapter 138

“T-This is not the Main Thing!?”

Thyra questioned in surprise and a smile appeared on Nux’s face.

“Oh, C’mon, Thyra, don’t act like you haven’t seen the main thing, you peeked on us for 3 days straight remember? I am sure you know that” Nux then brought his face dangerously close to hers and whispered.

“We have not even started yet~”

The scenes of Nux ramming his cock inside Edda’s ass appeared inside Thyra’s mind and she blushed deeply.

‘We have not even started yet... yet it feels so good... how good will it feel when we do the real thing...?’ Thyra thought inwardly as her body trembled in anticipation.

And as if hearing her inner thoughts, Nux quickly removed his pants and freed his little brother that was roaring to explore another, unexplored cave.

“B-Big...” Thyra muttered when Nux placed his rod on top of her little sister.

Nux then moved and placed his rod in front of her entrance, since she was already wet, Nux didn’t have to wait for long once he was done lubricating his rod with her juices, he put the head in.

He then bent down and moved his face close to Thyra.

“It will hurt a little, okay?” He warned.

“mm,” Thyra nodded.

Actually, she wasn’t really scared of it.

She knows that the first time hurts, however, she never thought too much about it, the pain she has been through is much worse than any normal girl can bear.

A little pain was nothing for her.

Another reason why she wasn't very afraid was that every time she peeks at Nux and his women, she had never seen a painful expression on any of their faces. There was just pure bliss.

Therefore, Thyra was sure that the pain was nothing.

Suddenly, Nux hugged her body, Thyra frowned, however, just as she was about to ask, she felt his little brother had moved and had entered her cave.

However, she did not feel any pain at all.

“Are you okay?” Nux questioned in worry.

“Yes, I am fine” Thyra nodded.

She didn't feel any pain at all.

She just felt a little weird when something entered her insides.

“Alright, I will move a little now, okay? Tell me when it hurts.” Nux muttered in a gentle tone.

A small smile appeared on Thyra's face as she nodded.

“Okay.”

Nux then moved and slowly but steadily, he continued entering deeper and deeper.

“Ugghhhh!!” He groaned in pleasure.

Thyra's insides were unusually tight, too tight.

The way they surrounded his dick, he felt like they were sucking all of his energy, rendering him unable to move.

Nux was barely holding back right now, he had to use all his will to not cum right away.

“Ugghhhhhh!!”

Finally, a minute later, Nux entered Thyra’s inside completely.

“Ugghhhh!!”

However, the tightness had increased.

Thyra’s pussy was too greedy.

The way it sucked on Nux’s dick was too violent.

But, how could Nux lose so easily?

He gathered all his willpower and moved back.

And as he moved back, he frowned.

There was no blood...

‘Was she not a virgin?’

Nux questioned inwardly, however, when he remembered her face, he shook his head.

He was sure that Thyra was a virgin.

‘Ahh,’ Soon, Nux realized.

Thyra was an Assassin, she trained hard since she was young.

He had heard some cases where the hymen breaks due to excessive training.

This was normal.

Nux's eyes then fell on Thyra's red face and he quickly got rid of these useless thoughts.

"I'll move now, okay?" Nux whispered gently.

Thyra nodded and with one thrust, Nux entered deep inside her pussy again.

"Ugghhhh!!"

"AAnnhhh~~"

This time, Nux wasn't the only one who moaned in pleasure.

Thyra was already sensitive since she came earlier, therefore, although she knew Nux would enter again, she still wasn't able to control herself and moaned out loud.

Nux's felt his body weakening due to the pleasure, he then moved his rod back and rammed it into Thyra's insides again.

"Ugghhhh!!"

"AAnnhhh~~"

The two of them moaned again.

Nux then raised his head before he sealed Thyra's lips with his own and started another round of tongue fight.

His hand did not stay idle as well and they entered inside Thyra's top and then played with Thyra's breasts.

He had to force Thyra to cum, he had to force her to cum earlier than him.

"Mmhhffmm~~"

Since Thyra's mouth was sealed, only a muffled moan escaped as Nux played with her beautiful breasts.

They may not be large, however, they were incredibly soft. Nux played with them gently while his waist continued to move as he rammed his cock inside Thyra's body.

“MMhhhhmmfff~~”

Thyra moaned again.

Nux then removed her top as well, and then he unhooked her bra, revealing her bare breast. With more space to move, Nux played with those beautiful breasts differently while he continued ramming his cock into Thyra's body.

Nux then broke the kiss as he raised his head and started increasing his speed.

“Annhh! Annhhh! Anfhh!”

*Pah* *Pah* *Pah*

Waves and waves of pleasure assaulted Thyra's body, she didn't know when, but the pleasure she was feeling suddenly spiked up and she lost her thinking ability.

Her body turned numb due to all that pleasure and she just lay there on the bed, accepting Nux's thrust without any resistance whatsoever.

She was in another realm of pleasure, a realm where she denied thinking about anything else but pleasure.

“Annhh! Annhhh! Anfhh!”

Her back arched up, eyes turned back and her tongue popped out as well. Her expression was very similar to Nux's other women.

She was lost in ecstasy.

“Annhh! Annhhh! Anfhh!”

“Ugghhhhhh!!”

Of course, Nux was in a bad situation either.

Thyra’s pussy was tighter than he expected, he could cum at any moment now.

However, he couldn’t cum before Thyra, his pride won’t allow it.

Therefore, he sped up his thrusting while he played with her breasts with both his hands. He was desperately trying to make Thyra cum as soon as possible.

“Annhh! Annhhh! Anfhh!”

He then increased his speed again, for the final touch, he pinched her nipples, and soon,

Thyra’s walls tightened even more.

‘I did it’

A small, victory smile appeared on Nux’s face as he groaned,

“Ughhhhhh! I am cuming!! Thyraaaa~~”

Nux then finally let go and released his milk inside Thyra’s little sister.

This cum shot accelerated Thyra’s reaction, her walls tightened even more, engulfing and sucking on Nux’s rod intensely before they suddenly loosened up and,

*Squirt*

“AAANNnnngghhhhhh~~”

She came.

Chapter 139

“AAANNnnngghhhhhh~~”

Thyra moaned loudly a mind-numbing pleasure assaulted her body.

Strength left Nux’s body as well and he fell on the top of Thyra’s body, tired.

A big wave of energy entered Nux’s body and a small, tired smile then appeared on Nux’s face, he knew what that energy was.

However, he didn’t care about it right now.

He hugged Thyra’s body gently as he placed his chin on her shoulder and whispered,

“That was good.”

As soon as he whispered, Nux suddenly felt her cave tightening. His rod wasn’t out of her warm insides yet, therefore, he could feel every movement her pussy walls make very clearly right now.

‘Hmm?’

Nux furrowed his brows.

What happened?

He didn’t even do anything?

Suddenly, an idea popped into his head, he moved his mouth close to her ear and whispered.

“That was good, right?”

Again, he felt her caves tightening, and this time, it was tighter than before.

“mm” Thyra didn’t move her mouth, however, with how red her face was right now, Nux knew she liked it as well. She looked very adorable right now.

However, unlike her cute appearance, Nux had an evil smile on his face. He wanted to test something.

He then took a deep breath and,

“Phhooo~~”

Blew a mouthful of air into Thyra’s ears gently.

Thyra’s eyes widened, a weird jolt of pleasure coursed through her body and her walls tightened.

Nux’s smile widened as he felt the tightness.

‘So that’s her weak point’ He realized.

While they were busy fucking, Nux was trying to find her weak point, he tried grabbing her butt, her breasts, and her nipples, however, other than the normal reaction, he couldn’t notice anything above that.

He was confused about it.

However, he now understood the reason.

Thyra’s weak point wasn’t her breasts, nipples or her butt.

It was her ears.

‘Heh. Just wait for the next time, I will make you moan like there is no tomorrow.’ Nux thought inwardly as his evil smirk widened.

However, soon, his smile turned into a gentle one and he removed his rod from her and rolled over.

‘Rest for today~ Mu cute assassin~’

This was her first night, he will let her rest today.

They will spend a lot more nights together; he can always do it later.

Nux then finally decided to open his information.

‘Status’ he called out.

[Name: Nux Leander]

[Age: 18]

[Mana Cultivation: Master.]

[Body Cultivation: Master.]

[Talent: Medium]

[LVL: 31 -> 33 ]

[HP: 850/850]

[MP: 820/820]

[STR: 83->87]

[AGL: 93->97]

[VIT: 81->85]

[STM: 120->124]

[INT: 80->82]

[DEF: 80->84]

[Blank Points: 103->109]

‘Hmm? Only 2 levels? That’s weird...’ Nux frowned as he glanced at his status.

Normally, he would gain a lot more levels since Thyra’s level was very high compared to her. It was weird that he didn’t gain anything much after this session.

Actually, he had noticed this before.

Edda was level 33, however, even after spending so much time with her, he was still level 31, that doesn’t make sense.

‘Has the god nerfed me since I am too strong?’

Nux thought inwardly and smirked.

‘Heh. So what? I just need to fuck more.’

Nux chuckled.

And as if hearing his inner thoughts, Thyra opened her eyes and questioned.

“A-are we going for another round?”

Nux turned around and looked at her face.

Her crystal blue eyes and short black hair, combined with that deep blush on her face made her look incredibly cute.

“Hehe, didn’t I say this before? You are a pervert.” Nux teased.

“...” Thyra pouted and then she turned to the opposite side, showing her naked back to Nux.

Nux smiled, this cute Thyra was just too lethal for him.

His dick turned hard and he moved closer to Thyra and hugged her from behind.

“I’ll not go easy on you this time, okay?” He whispered into her ear and felt her body trembling.

Nux moved even closer, he placed his large dick between her perfect thighs and her entrance while one of his hands held her thin waist and another hand gently kneaded her breast.

Her body was warm and soft, hugging her body felt so good that Nux wanted nothing more than to hug her more and more and join their bodies together.

He wasn’t alone, when Thyra’s felt Nux’s hug all over her body, a weird sense of security filled her heart and once his dick was placed so close to her sacred place, her heartbeat quickened.

Her body trembled even more and,

“Anh~” her moan leaked out.

Her already sensitive cave leaked out more and more juice, and once Nux thought it was enough, he placed his dick in front of her entrance and,

“Annhhh!!”

He entered her insides in one thrust.

“Ugghhhh!!”

Nux groaned in pleasure as well.

Thyra’s insides were as tight as before. Nux had a feeling that he would need to lot of time to get used to this blissful tightness.

“Annh~”

He grabbed her breast tightly causing Thyra to moan out loud.

Nux then rolled over on the top of Thyra and pulled his dick out till the edge before he rammed it deep inside!

“Anhhh~”

Thyra moaned.

Nux, however, controlled himself, and this time, he succeeded to control himself.

He then repeated the same movement.

“Annhhh~”

However, this time Thyra’s walls tightened even more and,

“Ugghhh!” Nux groaned in pleasure.

“Ahh! Fuck it!”

In the end, Nux decided to let go of this stupid thought of controlling his moans and he increased his speed.

He should focus on enjoying the moment.

Competitions can wait.

“Anhhh~ Annh~ Annh~”

“Ugghh! Uggh! Ugghhhh!”

The room was then filled with Thyra’s and Nux’s moans, since Thyra was a lot stronger compared to Nux’s other women, her stamina was better as well.

Therefore, even though it was her first time, the two of them continued for the whole night.

Of course, Nux didn’t try many new poses, that was for the later.

He just continued ramming his rod inside Thyra’s pussy while the girl moaned without stopping.

“T-This is too gooodd~~”

Chapter 140

A/N: This chapter might leave a bitter taste in some readers' mouths and I apologize for that in advance.

You can skip it if you want, I'll leave the summary in the comments.

...

The next morning, Nux woke up with Thyra sleeping on his chest. Since she was an assassin, she was very light and with the way she was sleeping, Nux felt like she was a cat.

He moved his hand towards her silky hair and he started caressing them gently.

“mmm” A small smile appeared on Thyra's face as she moved her body cutely and made herself even more comfortable.

Nux chuckled inwardly, he never thought that this cold-looking assassin would have such a cute side to her.

It was very surprising.

Of course, he welcomed such a surprise with open arms. Nux then continued caressing her hair and called,

‘Status’

A screen that had his information appeared in front of his eyes.

[Name: Nux Leander]

[Age: 18]

[Mana Cultivation: Master.]

[Body Cultivation: Master.]

[Talent: Medium]

[LVL: 33 → 35 ]

[HP: 890/890]

[MP: 840/840]

[STR: 87→91]

[AGL: 97→101]

[VIT: 85→89]

[STM: 124→128]

[INT: 82→84]

[DEF: 84→88]

[Blank Points: 109→115]

‘115 Blank Points huh...’

Nux thought inwardly. He then looked down and after the status screen, another screen that had another message was present.

[Memory Fragment Detected, would you like to retrieve it?]

[Cost: 10 Black Points.]

[Y/N]

‘Should I do it?’

Nux questioned inwardly and soon, he stopped thinking and sighed.

He firmly believed that this memory would be useless because if his predecessor knew something that could benefit the current him, he has to be someone important, which he was clearly not.

The guy was barely eating, after all.

However, although he believed that his predecessor was useless, there was one thing that still bothered Nux.

His predecessor rejected a Viscount.

Not every commoner has the guts to do it.

Therefore, it was worth a shot.

‘Whatever, it’s only a matter of time before I gain a few more levels, it’s only 4 level-ups worth of blank points, even if the memory is useless, it’s okay.’

Nux had decided.

‘Alright, let’s do it.’

Nux then nodded to himself and clicked yes.

Suddenly, the scenery around him changed and he appeared in the night sky.

“Uwaaahhhh! Uwaaaahhh!”

Nux then looked around and heard a voice, he looked in the direction and saw 2 humans carrying a child who was crying, the humans then entered what looked like an orphanage and gave the baby to the caretaker there.

“We found this child in front of our house, we don’t know who he is or who left him there, however, we certainly cannot keep him with us,”

The caretaker nodded and took the child.

An interesting thing to note was that Nux did not see the world from his predecessor's eyes, he saw everything from a third-person perspective.

It was as if he was watching a movie.

The child then grew up in the orphanage and lived an ordinary life just like other children.

He cried, he ate, he slept, he did everything a normal child does.

However, he was a little different from others.

Black hairs, beautiful golden eyes, chubby face, the child was extraordinarily beautiful.

Therefore, he was favoured and spoiled by many.

Even the other children in the orphanage liked him and he lived a happy life.

Till now, previous Nux lived a completely normal life.

However, today, something changed.

Today was the day previous Nux snuck out of the orphanage with other children.

Unfortunately, he caught an eye of a crazy woman.

Cadela.

Since Nux was 8 years old now, his feature got sharper and he became less 'cuter' and more 'handsome'

And this 'handsome' Nux caught the Cadela's eyes.

This was the start of Nux's hellish days.

The next day, Nux was adopted by that crazy woman and left the orphanage.

For the first few days, the crazy woman treated him well, and he was happy.

But then,

For some reason, the crazy lady couldn't control herself anymore.

She then walked into Nux's room, locked the door and,

Raped him.

Yes, she raped an 8-year-old child.

Of course, as an 8-year-old child, Nux didn't know what was happening to him, he experienced his first premature orgasm. Like any normal person, he liked that weird tingly feeling as well.

However, this is where something happened.

“I am not here to pleasure you, You are the one who is supposed to pleasure me, you bastard!”

The crazy woman continued to do what she was doing even when he had just orgasmed, in a single night, Nux was forced to come countless times.

The first few felt good, however, soon, Nux started losing all his strength.

The experience after that was anything but pleasurable.

Nux tried to stop her, but he was powerless.

He was assaulted the entire night.

The next night was the same, then the next night, the night after that, Cadela continued to assault Nux without any reservations.

Soon, she gained more and more confidence and things escalated.

She tied him up and forced him to stay inside the room.

She would force Nux to do 'things' on his own accord, if he refuses, she would let him starve for days.

Sometimes, she would even take out her anger on Nux by beating him up.

She would constantly make him beg for food and then give him something stale.

When she was bored, she would even bring her friends so that Nux could 'entertain' them and she would earn some 'money'.

According to her, she fed Nux, and she 'invested' in Nux. Therefore, he shall work to repay her now.

That small room became Nux's prison, where he was abused every single day.

This torture continued for 4 years.

In these 4 years,

The playful, cheerful and naïve Nux died.

He was replaced by a gloomy, downcast and scared Nux.

A Nux who was hopeless, helpless and had already given up on himself and his life.

However, maybe the gods pitied his poor soul, one day, while the Cadela was walking down the street; she accidentally stepped in front of a nobleman's carriage.

The arrogant nobleman did not like the fact that a filthy commoner dared to step in front of her and the Cadela was beheaded.

A fitting end?

Maybe.

Maybe Not.

Nux however, didn't care.

From that day forth, he was free from all the torture.

He then started living on his own, working and barely managing to buy one meal a day.

Though his life was still full of hardship, it was a lot better compared to before.

Nux then continued living, however, these past 4 years left a major impact on Nux's life.

Gynophobia.

Yes, due to these agonizing 4 years,

Nux Leander feared women.

Chapter 141

Nux Leander feared women.

Being tortured by that crazy woman was a horrifying experience. However, that did not stop him from living his lifeless life.

He tried to fight his fear and talk to women, however, every time he sees a woman, an overwhelming fear takes over his body and he stops moving.

Even if a woman came out of her way to compliment him for how cute he was, he would run away before she could even say a word.

Nux even lost a few jobs because he ran away after seeing a female customer, or he was scared of a female co-worker.

In a world where 40% of the humans were women, Nux was living a very hard life.

However, he still somehow managed to live.

This continued for 6 years, and then, one day few men knocked in front of Nux's house's door.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Nux opened the door and a scar-faced man, accompanied by 2 other men entered.

“W-What can I help you with?” Nux questioned in panic.

These people looked overbearing.

“So is he the one? Heh. What a lucky bastard.” A man following the scar-faced man, Akhil, muttered.

“Lucky indeed. I wish I could be in his place.” Another man nodded.

“Alright you two, shut up.” The scar-faced man instructed.

He then turned to Nux and questioned.

“What is your name?”

“N-Nux L-Leander, s-sir...”

“Hahaha~ What a pussy!” Akhil laughed out loud.

“I told you to shut the fuck up!” the Scar-Faced man turned around and glared at Akhil.

“S-Sorry sir” Akhil lowered his head in fear.

“So Nux, I am here to tell you that you have caught Viscount Felberta’s eyes and she wants you as her boy toy, are you willing?” The scar-faced man questioned.

The two men behind him showed clear signs of jealousy, actually, even the scar-faced man felt jealous, however, he was more ‘professional’ and didn’t show it on his face.

“W-What?”

“I am asking, are you willing to be her boy toy?” The scar-faced man repeated his question.

Actually, according to him, this question was only a formality, even though he just took him here, once he sees Viscount Felberta’s face, the boy will agree.

Being Viscount Felberta’s boy toy and even getting paid for it, only a fool will reject such a deal.

“N-No.”

However, Nux's answer was different from his expectation.

“W-What?”

“I said NO!” Nux repeated.

“Are you sure? Dude, have ever seen Viscoun-”

“I SAID NO!!” Nux shouted and tried pushing the scar-faced man.

The scar-faced man frowned.

He didn't expect this answer and he defiantly didn't expect such a strong denial from someone as weak as Nux.

However, no matter what, he was still a thug, when he saw Nux rushing up to him, trying to push him away, his body acted on reflex and,

*Bam***

He punched Nux's face.

Nux's body fell to the floor, and the scar-faced man stepped on his back and questioned.

“Are you sure you want to oppose me?”

“I SAID NO!!” Nux shouted.

The scar-faced man's face twitched and a vein popped out on his head.

He has had enough.

“Beat him up!” He ordered.

“Hahaha! I was waiting for this order! This idiot dared to reject such an offer? There must be a screw loose in his head, let me fix it for him!” Akhil laughed as he rushed towards Nux and kicked his head.

The three men then started beating Nux, however, Nux was adamant, and rejected every time they asked him to rethink his answer.

The three men assaulted Nux till he 'lost his consciousness'.

"We will return tomorrow, I hope you will have a better answer tomorrow." The scar-faced man muttered as he walked out of the house.

"Tsk! Now we would have to use a healing potion on him! What a waste!" Akhil snorted.

"I still don't understand why he is rejecting us!"

"That Bastard! Rejecting someone like Viscount Felberta! I wish all the handsome people die a painful death!" Akhil cursed.

...

As the three of them left, Nux's body lay on the floor.

Then like in a certain game where when the main character died, the screen zooms out, a similar thing happened with Nux, who was watching everything.

Soon, everything around him turned black before,

*Clank*

With a clank sound, everything broke down as if it was a mirror and Nux woke up.

Nux then looked around and realized that the memory has ended.

'My predecessor died after being beaten by those thugs.'

Nux realized.

He then looked around and saw that he was still in his room, on his bed.

On top of his chest, Thyra was sleeping.

A woman was sleeping on his chest...

A woman was so close to him...

Nux glanced at Thyra and felt something...

‘Ah, she’s so cute...’ Nux thought inwardly.

A small smile then appeared on his face as he patted her head.

His predecessor might have feared women, but he did not.

These memories did not affect him.

As mentioned before, it was like he saw a movie.

He knows everything about the ‘Character’ and knows how he feels, however, he does not feel the same thing the character does.

‘To think he accepted being beaten to death rather than going to the Viscount, who was a woman.’ Nux thought inwardly and sighed.

‘You lived a tough life... even tougher than my past life...’

Then, his eyes turned cold,

“Don’t worry, I will get your revenge.”

“mm? Whose revenge?” Suddenly Thyra, who was sleeping on his chest opened her eyes and questioned sleepily.

“Good morning, my cute assassin~”

“Good morning...” Thyra rubbed her eyes, she then looked around and quickly figured out her situation. She was sleeping on top of Nux, naked!

Nux was naked as well!

Thyra widened her eyes, she quickly remembered what happened last night and her face turned red.

However, before Nux could enjoy her reaction, he heard Edda's voice in his mind.

'Nux, Nux, this is important.

You have to know this.'

Chapter 142

8 hours ago, while Nux was using his [Conceal] and hiding, planning to grab Thyra from behind and do ‘things’ with her.

Edda, who he had already told his plan, decided to stay in the Palace for a certain mission and was walking towards her room when she was stopped by someone.

“Edda?”

Edda turned around and looked at the person who called her,

“Hmm? Lady Allura, what happened?”

“Nothing happened to me, but why are you here? Don’t you usually leave and meet your lover as soon as your duty ends?” Allura questioned.

“Ugghh...” Edda growled in displeasure.

Of course, even though she knew what Nux was doing and how it could only be done at the night, and how he will make up to her later, she was still disappointed.

She wanted him to fuck her tonight as well!

Allura, who quickly noticed her expressions only had one thought in her mind.

‘This feels entertaining...’

A smile then appeared on her face as she questioned,

“Do you need an ear? You can tell me everything you want, you know.”

Edda glanced at Allura, she has known this Lady Allura ever since she arrived in the palace, she knew her well enough to know what she was thinking.

‘However, sharing my pain with my future sister doesn’t seem so bad...’

Edda thought inwardly.

‘Plus, I need to get close to her, it might help Nux and he might ‘reward’ me for it!’

A small smile then appeared on Edda’s face and she nodded.

“Alright, Lady Allura.”

Allura’s smile widened.

She found tonight’s entertainment.

She then quickly grabbed Edda’s hand and pulled her towards her room.

“Alright, follow me to my room, we will talk there.”

The servants who passed the two of them glanced at Edda with pity in their eyes.

‘So it’s the head maid today huh...’

‘Sigh... even a head maid can’t defend herself from Lady Allura...’

‘Just how much bored Lady Allura is?’

Of course, Allura, as usual, ignored all these servants and rushed into her room.

She then locked the door and questioned.

“So? What happened? Why didn’t you go meet your lover? Did you guys fight? Who started it? You? Nah, it must be him! He started it right? Don’t worry, you can share everything with me.”

Edda shook her head inwardly,

‘She’s really bored huh...’

“Lady Allura, we didn’t fight.” She answered.

“Hmm? Then why are you here?” Allura questioned with a displeased look on her face.

She doesn’t want to hear another story like that maid told her yesterday.

Tsk Tsk! A mature couple!

Hmph! What a joke!

People like them should just die!

“He is spending this night with another woman,” Edda replied with an unhappy look on her face.

“Huh?” Allura turned to look at Edda with a shocked look on her face.

She didn’t expect something like that.

No, actually, she did expect something like that, it was normal in this world.

Powerful men have Harem.

Usually, men like these get a new woman, stay with her and spend the night with her for a few days, then forget about her.

It was a very common occurrence.

A sad look appeared on Allura’s face.

She wanted entertainment; however, she didn’t want someone’s life to be ruined by it.

Weird coming from someone like her; who wanted couples to fight and break up so that she can enjoy the drama.

“So you will now become a trophy huh...” Allura muttered.

“Huh?”

“Don’t you know what trophy means? It’s a term that represents a woman who doesn’t get any attention from her husband or lover.”

“No, Lady Allura, I know what ‘Trophy’ means, however, I did not become a ‘Trophy’. He said he will make it up to me tomorrow. I am just sad that I can’t spend a night with him today.”

“Huh?”

This time, Allura was the one who frowned.

Usually, men like these don’t really care about the ‘Trophy’. Most of them do not create any false hopes like ‘I will make it up to you tomorrow’. Then why is her lover doing something like this?

Is it fun to break a woman’s heart over and over again?

Does he want her to keep up her hope and crush it every single day?

A cold look appeared on Allura’s face when she thought about this.

“Don’t worry, I’ll deal with him for you,” Allura spoke in a cold voice.

“Huh? What do you mean, Lady Allura.” Edda questioned in confusion.

Allura then shook her head and sighed,

“Edda, you are still too innocent, that bastard is just giving you false hope. People like them don’t care about the woman once they have had their fun. But don’t worry, I am with you. I will deal with that bastard no matter who he is!”

“Lady Allura, you got it wrong.” Edda finally understood what she was talking about and shook her head.

“Hmm?”

“Lady Allura, I am not a naïve child. I know how to judge people. He is not like that... he...” then a smile appeared on Edda’s face.

“He is a very gentle and caring man. Also,”

Then Edda blushed,

“He is very good in bed.”

Allura blushed as well, she soon recalled their ‘talk’ yesterday and started imagining things she shouldn’t imagine.

“Don’t worry, Lady Allura. He isn’t that type of man. I can say that for sure, he didn’t leave his other woman when I appeared. He treats them well and spends a lot of time with them, just like he does with me.

He is a good person.” Edda smiled.

A smile appeared on Allura’s face when she saw the expression on Edda’s face. Edda looked so innocent and beautiful right now.

However, soon, Allura kicked that thought out of her mind.

“And he is very good in bed.”

“...you don’t have to repeat that again.”

Allura muttered as she glanced at Edda with a dry look on her face.

“But I am not lying, he is really good in bed,” Edda repeated again, trying to tell her sister how good her future man is.

She really wanted that reward.

“Ugghhh! I get it! I get it! Don’t make me jealous...” Allura groaned.

“Huh? Jealou- wait...”

Suddenly, Edda realized something and her eyes widened, she then looked around cautiously, then brought her face close to Allura and questioned in a low voice.

“Is the king not good in bed?”

Chapter 143

“Is the king not good in bed?”

Edda questioned in a low voice.

A wry smile appeared on Allura’s face and then she shook her head.

“Let’s not talk about this, you tell me, how i-”

“Heeh? Lady Allura, that’s not fair you know? I share so many things with you and you don’t share anything with me. Am I just a source of entertainment for you?” Suddenly, Edda questioned with a sad look on her face.

“No, it’s not like that.” Allura quickly shook her head.

Initially, Edda was nothing more than a source of entertainment for Allura, however, for some reason, after that long talk between her and Edda yesterday, Allura felt that she was a little closer to Edda.

She wasn’t just a source of entertainment, she actually cared about Edda a little.

“Then why aren’t you sharing anything with me? Don’t worry, you can share whatever you want with me, I won’t tell anyone else.

Now tell me, is the king bad in bed?

Does he have a small weapon?”

Edda questioned.

Allura’s face widened in surprise when she heard her question, She didn’t expect Edda to be so...

Perverted.

“C’mon, Lady Allura, tell tell, does the king have a small weap- mhphhf?” Edda questioned again.

“You are really daring huh, Edda. Don’t you know? If the king learns what you are saying, you will be executed!” Allura questioned.

“Aren’t we the only 2 here? How will the king know about me? You won’t out me, will you, Lady Allura?” Edda questioned back.

“Walls have ears, you know? Especially walls of the Royal Palace.” Allura smiled as she pointed toward the walls.

However, rather than a panicked expression that Allura thought Edda would show, a small smile appeared on Edda’s face as she muttered,

“Heh. Don’t worry, Lady Allura. My lover will save me if something happens.”

Allura raised her eyebrow and questioned.

“Hmm? You think he can save you from the king of this kingdom?”

“He can do anything, Lady Allura. With him around me, I do not fear anything.” Edda’s smile then widened and she continued.

“So, Lady Allura, do not worry about my security, just tell me the truth, is the King’s weapon too small?”

A sad smile appeared on Allura’s face as she shook her head.

“Hmph! I hoped that was the case... At least it would be better than my current situation.”

Actually, she has been hiding this for a long while and didn’t dare to say anything out loud however, now that Edda, who took interest in this topic and asked without fearing anything, Allura thought about something as well.

If even the head maid isn't scared, then why should she be?

She needed to share her miseries as well.

"Hmm? What does that mean?" Edda questioned.

She got a feeling that she was going to learn something important.

"Outwardly, the king may seem an average king, not too good, not too bad, however, don't you think he is too normal?" Allura questioned.

"Huh?" Edda frowned.

An Average King, everyone calls him that.

Not too good, not too bad.

This was like a catchphrase used to describe the King of the Skyfall Kingdom.

'Don't you think he is too normal?'

Edda thought about this question, soon, however, she shook her head.

"I never thought about the king too deeply, Lady Allura."

"That is understandable."

Allura nodded and then continued.

"There is a reason why everyone finds the king average and that is because he doesn't really care about this kingdom and its affairs."

"Huh?"

"Yes, he doesn't spend much time in affairs of the kingdoms. He just accepts whatever his subjects propose. Some decisions are good, some are bad, therefore, he comes out as average."

“But won’t his subjects use this fact to their advantage and eventually control everything themselves? Why aren’t they doing anything like that?” Edda couldn’t help but question.

“That I do not know. However, I have seen the king handling the official affairs once. He doesn’t think and listen to anything; he just hears the solution the subjects came up with and agrees with it without even knowing the initial problem.

The only thing he cares about is ending everything as soon as possible.”

“B-But why is he always so eager to leave? What else does he do other than ruling the kingdom?” Edda questioned.

A wry smile appeared on Allura’s face and she answered.

“He is a ‘Trophy Collector’ or that’s what he likes to call himself.”

“Trophy Collector?” Edda frowned.

“Yes, a Trophy Collector.

He likes collecting Trophies, or in other words, he likes collecting women.” Allura revealed with a dissatisfied look on her face.

“So he is a playboy?” Edda questioned.

“He can be called a playboy, but...

But he is a little strange.”

“Hmm? Why?”

“Once he has sex with a woman, he would never touch that woman again.

This is also the reason why he only has 6 children even though he has 4 wives, 50 concubines and countless other women outside the Royal Palace.

Only those who were ‘lucky enough’ to bear a child gave birth to one, as for the rest, they were trophies, never touched or cared for again.”

Allura revealed and gritted her teeth in anger.

Edda’s eyes widened in surprise as well.

People always wondered why the king only had 6 children.

Now she knows the reason.

“Heh. What a bastard, that king.” Edda couldn’t help but mutter.

“You really aren’t scared of death huh...” Allura shook her head, however, a smile appeared on her face.

She agreed with Edda.

“As I said, my lover would protect me. I am not scared.” Edda answered.

A sad smile appeared on Allura’s face,

“You are lucky to have a lover like that...” She muttered.

Suddenly, a small smile appeared on Edda’s face as she answered,

“Don’t worry, Lady Allura. Soon, you will find your happiness as well.”

Allura chuckled dryly.

She knew Edda was just saying it for the sake of saying it.

She didn’t really mean it.

Edda knew what she was thinking and shook her head.

She then noticed the sad look on Allura’s face and decided to change the topic.

The two of them started talking about another topic, then they talked about another topic, then another, and then a different one.

They talked for the whole night and then Edda excused herself.

‘Nux, Nux’ She called while she was walking in the corridor. She needed to deliver this good news.

‘This is important, you have to know this.’

Chapter 144

A small smile appeared on Nux's face as he heard Edda's 'report'.

'Heh. How convenient.'

Nux muttered inwardly and smiled.

'Edda, you did a lovely job, thank you very much.'

'Heh. You are wrong if you think a 'thank you' would cut it'

'Oh? Then how do I show you my appreciation, my perverted maid?'

'Now that we know about it, my mission here is over' Edda muttered.

'Indeed, we don't have to worry about that thing anymore.' Nux nodded, however, soon, he understood why Edda was saying it right now.

A big smile then appeared on Nux's face and he questioned in a very gentle tone,

'How about I show you my appreciation with a long night session, My perverted maid?'

'That would work...' Edda agreed, actually, she wanted to ask more and put her terms forward more clearly, but in front of Nux's gentle voice, she forgot about it and nodded.

'However,' Suddenly, Nux muttered.

'What?'

'We won't be spending this night in Felberta's or my new mansion.'

'Why?' Edda frowned in confusion.

Nux then smile wickedly and answered,

‘Because what I am going to do with you shouldn’t be seen by others.’

Edda, who was in her room, getting ready for work paused and her body trembled. Images of her being tied up while Nux lay on the on of her body appeared on her mind and, ‘Shit... I would need to change my panty...’ She muttered as she lowered her gaze and glanced at her little sister that had gone a little out of control.

‘Heh. Make sure to bring a lot of panties, An no actually, screw it, you won’t be needing any clothes once we meet each other.

However, just bring one to be on a safer side.’

Edda then her Nux’s voice and her face turned red,

‘S-Sure...’

‘Alright, then remember, you don’t need to come to the mansion today, I will come and pick you up. Okay?’

‘Y-Yes.’ Edda nodded.

Nux then broke the telepathic link between the two of them and a big smile appeared on Edda’s face.

‘Lad- no, Sister Allura, I didn’t lie to you. He is indeed the best man you could ever wish for.’

Edda then walked towards her wardrobe and took out another pair of sexy black panties.

She might not be able to focus on her work today.

Well, not that she has been focusing on it for the last few days.

...

On the other side, once Nux was done talking to Edda, he opened his eyes and glanced around, however, Thyra was gone.

‘Ah fuck! I missed her reaction! Shit!’

Nux cried inwardly and shook his head.

He then activated his [Sense] and quickly found Thyra, who was inside the bathroom. A small smile appeared on Nux’s face when he saw what she was doing.

‘Cute...’ he muttered inwardly, activated his Conceal and walked towards the bathroom.

Naked of course.

A minute later, he walked into the bathroom and Thyra wasn’t visible.

He then walked towards the bathtub and behind the bathtub, he saw a petite girl, sitting with her head on her knees, unaware of a man standing behind her.

Nux’s smirk widened, and then, he picked her up, stepped into the bathtub and sat down.

Thyra’s body was amazingly light, for some reason, Nux really enjoyed picking her up.

“Huh!?” Thyra’s eyes widened in shock when someone grabbed her from behind without her noticing. However, she soon realized who it was and didn’t even try to resist.

“So, My cute assassin, what are you doing here?” She then heard a voice and turned around.

“What are you doing here?” She questioned.

“Yes, that is my question, you heard it right.” Nux nodded.

“I am asking you!” Thyra replied in anger.

“Oh, me? I was just here to spend some time with my cute assassin.”

“But I don’t want to spend a single minute with you! Also, what’s with this ‘my cute assassin’? I am not your assassin!” Thyra retorted.

“Oh? That didn’t seem to be the case yesterday when you were moaning so loudly~” Nux whispered into Thyra’s ears.

Thyra’s face turned red as she recalled what happened last night.

Soon, she felt Nux tightening his hug around her and then,

“Pheewwww~”

He blew hot air into her ear and Thyra’s body trembled as a weird jolt crawled all over her body.

Nux then tightened his hug around her waist, even more, crossed his legs with her and whispered,

“Also, from now on, you are mine, My Cute Little Assassin~”

Another jolt was sent into her body when she heard those words, her heartbeat quickened and at the same time, her face turned redder.

Nux then turned a little and opened the tap.

Cold water touched their warm bodies and Thyra’s back arched up again.

However, that was not because of the water,

There was another reason.

She could feel something poking her butt.

“Ah, I apologize, wait,” She then heard Nux’s voice, he picked her up, adjusted his little brother and placed her back on his lap.

“Ugghh! As expected~~ It feels gooodd~~” Nux moaned in pleasure.

Thyra’s face turned even redder and her little sister started reacting as well.

Why?

Because Nux’s little brother was now between her two thighs, dangerously close to her little sister.

And whenever his little brother was there, it never ended well.

No actually, it ended really well since she felt a lot of pleasure as well.

“Y-You are a pervert...” Thyra muttered, her voice was a lot tamer now.

“I am?”

Thyra nodded.

“Heh. I can’t help it. You are just too beautiful, My cute assassin~”

Nux muttered as he placed his chin on Thyra’s shoulder.

A small smile appeared on Thyra’s face.

“Now shall we take a bath?” Nux questioned.

“T-Together?”

“Well, since we got ‘dirty’ together, shouldn’t we clean ourselves together as well?” Nux questioned.

Thyra thought about it a little and then nodded.

“T-That makes sense.”

Then, a long, no, very long and blissful bathing session followed.

Chapter 145

After a blissful bathing session combined with another bathroom sex, Thyra and Nux finally left the bathroom with smiles on their faces.

The two of them then started wearing their clothes, Nux wore his normal robes while Thyra wore her skin-tight Assassin clothes.

“Huh? What are you doing?” Nux questioned.

“What?” Thyra frowned.

Nux then walked towards Thyra and took away her mask.

“I don’t want you to wear your mask anymore, how am I supposed to admire your beauty if you do that?” Nux questioned with a sly smile on his face.

“But I am an assassin.”

“You are MY assassin, so you are not allowed to wear a mask,” Nux whispered.

“Whatever,” Thyra shrugged.

She knew she wouldn’t win against Nux in an argument anyway, so why try?

She was a calm-headed assassin.

She won’t waste her energy like that.

Nux smiled and nodded to himself.

“Alright, now let’s go and eat our breakfast”

“H-Huh? T-Together?” Thyra questioned.

“We spend a night together, naked.

Then we bathe together, naked.

What’s the problem with eating breakfast together?” Nux questioned.

“...” Thyra turned silent and although she tried to hide it by lowering her head, Nux could clearly see her face had turned red.

‘Heh. It’s so fun to tease her...’ he thought inwardly and chuckled.

“Will Felberta, Skyla, Edda and Lane be there?” Thyra questioned.

“Hmm? Of course, they will be. Edda won’t be there though, she is in the Royal Palace. She didn’t come here yesterday since someone else took her place.” Nux replied with a small smile on her face.

Thyra’s face turned even redder and she retorted.

“I did not take her place! You forced me!”

“When did I say you took her place?”

“I am not dumb! I know what you are talking about!”

“Hmm? What do you mean? What am I talking about?” Nux questioned with a smile.

“Yo- you...” Thyra wanted to say it out loud but was too embarrassed to do so.

“Shameless!” She retorted.

“Hahahaha~” Nux laughed out loud.

‘She’s adorable and fun to teas- ahem, and she’s cute.’

Nux thought inwardly and then he grabbed her hand.

“Alright, let’s go and eat,”

However, Thyra did not move,

“I-I won’t have breakfast with you! I want to eat breakfast with other assassin friends!”

Nux then glanced at Thyra with a blank look on his face.

He has seen and dealt with these assassins for days now, he has noticed that other than basic respect for each other, they do not have any other feelings towards each other.

They are not close at all.

Nobody is anybody’s friend.

And of course, Thyra was the same.

Nux then pulled her close to him and whispered,

“You are coming to eat with me, else I will ‘eat’ you for breakfast”

“What do you mean, ‘Eat’ me?” Thyra questioned.

Nux smirked, he then lowered his eyes and glanced at Thyra’s little sister before his smirk widened.

Thyra, of course, quickly understood what he meant.

“Alright, I need to eat with my assassin friends!” She answered quickly as she tried to walk away.

Nux chuckled inwardly and shook his head.

He then picked her up and whispered.

“How perverted~”

“W-What do you mean?” Thyra acted ignorantly.

Nux smiled and then he sealed her lips.

Thyra’s eyes widened in surprise, however, soon, she closed her eyes and her tongue entered Nux’s mouth.

Yes, she was the first to attack.

She was only shy when it comes to foreplay, once it is time for the real thing, she was a lot more active than normal.

Nux learned it yesterday night as well.

Of course, he welcomed that with open arms.

However, this time, he needed to keep things short.

After a 2 minute-long kiss, he moved his lips away and looked into Thyra’s blue eyes.

“You are going to eat with me, right?” He questioned in a very soft voice.

Thyra nodded with a slight blush on her face.

Nux smiled, he then gave her a small peck and then placed her back on the floor.

“Should we leave then?”

...

“Oh ho~ Look at you two~ Acting like a couple after the first night, huh?” Felberta commented as she glanced at Thyra and Nux.

“They are holding hands~ How lewd~~” Skylia placed her hands on her face and laughed.

Lane didn't say anything and just nodded.

Of course, there were clear signs of jealousy on her face,

She wanted to hold Nux's hand as well.

Not that she has never done that before, but she still wanted to do it.

“Good morning, my lovely girls~” Nux greeted with a big smile on his face.

“Good morning~” The girls repeated.

“Good Morning, Sister Thyra~” Skylia of course, was the first one to greet Thyra and waved her hand at her energetically.

“Good morning~” Thyra smiled and waved back, although her movements her a bit stiff, she was still doing fine.

Skylia then patted the chair next to her and smiled joyfully.

“Sister Thyra! Come sit here!”

Thyra nodded and then walked towards the chair Skylia pointed to.

Nux walked behind her and sat on the chair next to Thyra.

After the 5 of them were seated, Nux glanced at Felberta and smiled,

“So? Did you enjoy the show?”

Felberta smiled back, she then glanced at Thyra and answered,

“WE did. WE enjoyed it a lot.”

Skylia nodded with a playful smile, while Lane had a blush on her face.

“Huh?” Thyra frowned.

She realized that something was wrong when the 3 women glanced at her.

“What show?” She questioned.

“Hehe~ Sister Thyra, you peeked on us, you think we won’t peek on you?”

Thyra’s eyes widened in surprise and she turned towards Nux.

“You knew!?”

Nux nodded.

“Why didn’t you say anything then?” She questioned.

“Umm... well, your insides felt too good, I didn’t want to stop...” Nux replied awkwardly and then laughed.

Thyra’s face turned red.

“Hehe~ Don’t worry Sister Thyra, you don’t have to be so shy,

We only saw the part where you questioned,

‘This is not the main thing!’

And the next few hours after that.”

Chapter 146

“Hehe~ Don’t worry Sister Thyra, you don’t have to be so shy,

We only saw the part where you questioned,

‘This is not the main thing!?’

And the next few hours after that.”

Skyla muttered with a big smile on her face as she placed her hand on top of Thyra’s as if she was trying to console Thyra.

“Doesn’t that mean you watched the whole thing!?” Thyra questioned in shock.

Skyla’s attempt to comfort her did more harm than it did well.

“No no, we missed the first 10 minutes,” Skyla replied with a sad look on her face.

“...”

Thyra turned silent as she glanced at Skyla with a blank look on her face.

She really couldn’t tell if she was a cute angel or a scheming demon.

“You missed the first 10 minutes huh...” Thyra muttered.

“Yeah... we needed to hide since we didn’t know when you will arrive... things then happened faster than we had calculated and we missed the first 10 minutes...”

Skyla shook her head and lamented.

“So you knew everything beforehand?” Thyra questioned.

“Hmm? Of course, we did. How else do you think Nux’s room was silent in the night?”

Heh. It Nux’s room is never silent, you know, especially at the night” Skyla smiled as she glanced at Nux and winked.

A smile appeared on Nux’s face.

This little demonic angle.

She was really too cute.

“O-Oh is that so...”

“Indeed indeed.” Skyla nodded.

“B-But are you g-guys fine with me? I ordered assassins to kill you all...”
Thyra questioned.

Actually, this was also the reason why she didn’t want to meet Skyla, Edda, Lane and Felberta, she thought that they all wouldn’t like her.

As for Nux?

He was a perverted man, he wouldn’t care.

If Nux knew her thought...

He would agree.

If he was worried about it, he wouldn’t have approached Thyra in the first place.

Thyra knew about this as well, therefore, she was comfortable around Nux however, the same can’t be said with the women.

“You don’t have to worry about that. Everything that happened was in the past. As long as you don’t try to harm us, we are fine with having you around.” This time, Felberta answered.

“Yes, we are fine with having you around! Actually, I am even looking forward to it!

Hehe~ A cold blooded assassin is my sister, how exciting~” Skyla laughed out loud as she formed a fist and punched in the air.

She then turned towards Thyra and requested,

“You have to teach me some killing techniques, okay?”

“Hmm? Why do you want to learn that?” Nux questioned with a curious look on his face.

“Hehe~ I want to try killing a few people, I want to see how it feels~” Skyla answered with a small smile on her face.

Nux blinked in surprise.

He then turned towards Felberta and Lane and narrowed his eyes.

“What have you guys done to my cute Skyla?”

“We didn’t do anything...” Felberta replied, actually, she was surprised by Skyla’s answer as well.

“Ummm...”

“Hmm? Lane, do you know something?” Nux heard Lane’s voice and questioned.

The girl nodded and answered, “This is just her way to get close to Thyra...”

“Sister Lane!” Skyla jumped in shock.

She didn’t expect her sister to out her like that.

She felt betrayed.

Thyra, who heard Lane, smiled.

She never expected someone to go so far just to talk to her.

It felt nice.

A small smile appeared on Nux's face and he sighed in relief.

“Thank god.., as I thought, Skyla is still my adorable Skyla~”

Skyla, who heard his words blushed, however, from the big smile that was plastered on her face, anyone could tell that she was happy because of the compliment.

“As expected from someone of my faction, what a pure heart! Just like me!” Felberta nodded to herself as well.

Lane, who heard her words couldn't help but comment,

“L-Lady Felberta... you are being influenced by Nux's shamelessness.”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

With Lane's single sentence, Felberta and Nux turned silent.

“Is that so... Lane? I am a bad influence now? Hmm?” Nux couldn't help but question.

He was hurt, you know?

“U-Umm, I meant... umm...”

“Mhm, I am waiting, tell me what you meant, I am all ears.”

“I... I am sorry... I was wrong... you are not a bad company at all...”

Since she couldn't come up with an excuse, Lane lowered her head and apologized.

"Nope, a simple apology won't cut it, My dear Lane, I would need you to work hard and please me." Nux smiled.

Lane knew well enough what that smile meant, she smiled back and nodded with a blush on her face.

"Okay..."

"Heh. How lucky, should I start dissing you as well?" Felberta questioned with a smirk.

"Oh? Are you craving me so hard that you can't control yourself now? Didn't we have a great session yesterday afternoon? Did you forget about it, or are you just becoming more perverted?" Nux questioned back with a smile.

"Hmph!" Felberta snorted and didn't say anything.

Fighting Nux using words was useless.

Hmph! Hmph!

She will silence him in the bed.

That's the true battlefield.

Thyra, who heard and understood what these people were talking about couldn't help but lower her head in embarrassment.

She couldn't believe that they were talking about it in the open.

"Heehh? Sister Thyra? Why is your face so red?" Skyla, who quickly noticed Thyra's change questioned.

Thyra's face turned even redder and she shook her head,

“Nothing,”

“Oh C’m-”

Skyla wanted to continue chatting, however,

“Alright guys, let’s start eating now,” Nux muttered, he then turned towards Thyra and informed.

“If you don’t know, then let me tell you, Two and Three would be coming here soon. I need to train, so I will be fighting you guys again.”

Thyra was about to nod in agreement however, Skyla grabbed her hand and,

“No! You can train with Two and Three, I need to talk with Sister Thyra!”

Chapter 147

“So... where is Miss One?” Three questioned with a frown as she glanced at Nux who was standing right in front of her.

“Umm... she’s busy...” Nux answered.

“Hmm? Busy? Miss One? Are you sure?” Three questioned in confusion.

Noticing her confused expression, Nux was quick to realize that there was a story behind this.

“Hmm? Why are you so surprised?” Nux questioned.

“Miss one loves sparring. When we were still in the Kingdom, she used to spar with us every month. Obviously, as an assassin, we do not need many fighting techniques, what we practised were killing techniques.

Sneak attacks, lethal attacks and attacking the neck, heart, crotch and brain.

Miss one used to see all of this and observes our weakness.”

Three answered.

“Oh? So she loves sparing huh?” Nux muttered to himself.

“She does.”

‘But she still chose to talk with Skyla and the others... is this because Skyla talked to her so cheerfully? Is she trying to get along with others?’

A smile appeared on Nux’s face as he thought of that.

‘It’s a good thing.’ Nux nodded to himself.

“Well, she’s busy right now, so only you two will be sparring with me, you are not scared are you?” Nux teased.

“Heh. We defeated you before, it won’t be tough to defeat you again.”

Three chuckled and dashed towards Nux while Two positioned himself to where Nux is going to appear after dodging Three’s attack.

“Heh.”

Nux smiled, ready for today’s training.

...

“Sister Thyra, tell me tell me, how was your first night with Nux?” Skyla questioned excitedly as she glanced at Thyra was sitting beside her on a large bed.

After breakfast, she pulled Thyra to have the ‘talk’ with her. Of course, she brought Felberta and Lane along with her as well.

No one shall be left alone.

Hehe.

“Ughhh... did you guys not see the whole thing with your own eyes?” Thyra questioned with a frown.

She did not want to discuss last night at all.

Else...

Else she will get horny again...

“Oh C’mon, Sister Thyra, although we watched everything, we didn’t ‘feel’ what you felt! C’mon C’mon, don’t be stingy, share your experience with us!”

Skyla questioned, her eyes practically had stars shining inside.

Skyla did the same thing when she met Edda.

When she met Edda for the first time, she excitedly asked her about her first night and that day, Skyla realized that she really enjoyed talking about the 'first night'.

Since that day, little Skyla has been going around asking everybody.

First, she asked Felberta,

Felberta, of course, nodded with a smile and shared anything without shame.

Skyla was like her little sister after all.

Then she moved and talked to Lane, and even though she was there when Lane spent her first night with her, she still asked about the time when she was gone.

She then tried talking to other maids, however, Skyla soon realized that she doesn't like talking about the first night unless the man they are talking about is Nux.

Therefore, she stopped talking with other maids.

From that day to this, Thyra was the first woman she could talk with.

And she was really excited about this.

"I-It felt good..." Thyra answered.

"Heeh? That's it? Sister Thyra, you have to be creative with these matters. Try explaining it in more detail"

"W-What detail?" Thyra questioned.

"Like, how good it felt.

What were you thinking about when he was about to put his penis inside your little sister?

Did you feel the pain?

Did you feel particularly good when he did something?

Did you like it when he touched your breasts?

Or did you like it when he touched your butt?

Also, how soon do you want to have another session with him?"

Skyla then shot a series of questions and Thyra opened her mouth in shock.

"There she goes again..." Felberta sighed as she shook her head and then glanced at Lane.

"She is Skyla... so it is understandable..." Lane muttered.

"True, this girl is really a chatterbox huh..." Felberta sighed and Lane chuckled.

Of course, although it may look like they weren't interested, actually, they were completely focused on the 'talk'.

They were curious as well.

"Heh. Look how red her face is..." Felberta chuckled.

"That is understandable... anyone would blush after being questioned like that just after your first night..."

"True, one has to remember the blissful night to answer Skyla's questions." Felberta chuckled.

"Indeed." Lane nodded.

As she recalled last night, Thyra's face turned red, she was really embarrassed to talk about her last night, however, seeing those starry eyes, Thyra was unable to reject Skyla.

One by one, she started talking and answering every question Skyla questioned.

"Heeh? Ears? That's different from what I thought, to be honest, I like it when he kneads my butt. Of course, that doesn't mean I don't like it when he touches my breasts, that feels good as well.

Ah, talking about breasts, I learned a massage that could help increase your size, do you want to try it?" Skyla questioned.

"..."

Thyra, however, remained silent and glanced at Skyla.

"What?"

"...it doesn't sound much convincing coming from you..." Thyra answered.

"What do you me-" However, soon, Skyla realized what Thyra was talking about...

"Pffft!" Finding the scene quite comical, Felberta laughed out loud.

Skyla turned and glanced at Felberta's laughing face, she then turned towards Lane and saw the smile on her face as well. She understood that Sister Lane was trying to hide her laughter as well.

"Y-Y-You are mean!" She pointed at Thyra and blamed her.

"I was only trying to help you! Because yours were small!"

Thyra's face twitched.

"Mine are bigger than yours." She retorted.

“No! Mine are bigger!”

“Hmph! Dream all you want!”

Skyla then turned towards Felberta and questioned.

“Sister Felberta, you tell us, who has bigger breasts, me or Sister Thyra?”

“Does it even matter?” Suddenly, Felberta questioned.

“Hmm?” Skyla tilted her head in confusion.

Thyra was looking forward to what Felberta was about to say as well.

“Why compete? Does it even matter whose breasts are bigger amongst you two?”

In the end, you both have small breasts.”

Chapter 148

“I do not believe this! Let’s spar again!” Three stood up in anger and pointed her wooden sword at Nux. From the bruises on her face, it looked like she didn’t enjoy today’s spar.

“Nope, we won’t be sparing anymore, I have things to do.” Nux however, shook his head.

“Am I right to assume that you are scared? If that is the case, I can back down for you,” Three smirked, trying to use reverse psychology on Nux and hoping to get him to fight her.

“Heh. That won’t work on me,” Nux smirked.

“Tsk Tsk!” Three snorted.

“Three, that is enough, learn to accept your defeat.” Two muttered.

His face was bruised as well, however, he seemed more calmed than Three.

“Two! How can you accept this so easily? Although we had Miss One with us yesterday and it was easier to defeat him, I don’t believe we cannot defeat him with the two of us working together!

He is only a Master Stage Cultivator.

We are Grand Master Stage Cultivators, how can we lose so easily!?” Three questioned out loud.

“...”

Two remained silent.

Actually, he found it a little unusual too. Yesterday, although Nux was able to fight against 3 Grand Master Stage Cultivators, that was only because they were holding back.

Today, although they did not have Thyra with them, they could still give him a decent fight and even defeat him.

However, the results were a lot different than what he expected.

They were defeated.

And although it was not a crushing defeat, it wasn't a very tough and challenging fight either.

He couldn't understand how it happened.

'Did he improve so much in a single day? What kind of progress is that?'

Two questioned inwardly as he glanced at Nux with a frown on his face.

Nux noticed his expression and could pretty much deduce what he was thinking.

However, in the end, these two were just slaves, he didn't need to tell them anything.

"Alright, that will be enough, we will spar tomorrow, I have things to do. You two can return." Nux ordered, this time, his tone wasn't playful and Three understood the difference.

Therefore, although dejected, she turned around and walked away.

Two bowed and followed Three as well.

Nux then stretched his body a little, and just as he was about to return, he heard a voice.

"Master Nux!"

Nux turned to the source of the sound and saw Alger running towards him.

“Hmm? What happened?” Nux questioned.

“Master Nux, here. I thought it was a little important so I should share this with you” Alger muttered as he passed an envelope to Nux.

Nux furrowed his brows; he took the envelope, he noticed that there was a little red mark on the edge, however, he ignored it and opened the envelope.

Then, he took out the letter inside it and started reading.

‘To My one and only love, Algerama,

The bird did not fly out today, maybe she didn’t want to meet her lover? Did they fight? Was the bird feeling sad? What about the bird’s lover? Was he sad?

I do not know, however, what I know is that I am brokenhearted since I have not met you for so long.

I just keep looking at the bird, dreaming about the day when you and the bird will meet.

Would you like that bird?

Would you like how it chirps?

Would you like her voice?

Or would you like me more?

I hope you will find the bird outside soon because if it stays in her small cage, it will break my heart.

You, of course, wouldn’t be able to bear seeing me like that, it will hurt you as well.

And when I think about you being in pain because of worrying about me, my heart shudders.

Thus, I hope you find the bird soon.

I hope you find her soon'

After reading the whole letter, Nux's glanced at Alger with a dead look on his face.

"What kind of shitty letter was it? Was the writer drunk? And why the hell are you sharing that cursed thing with me?" Nux questioned.

Alger panicked, "Master Nux, don't come to any conclusions so quickly, please read the name of the sender."

Nux frowned, however, he did as Alger told and read the sender's name.

Edrea Fox.

Nux then narrowed his eyes, he had heard this name before.

"It is Edrea Fox, a Sub Head Maid of the Royal palace," Alger revealed and Nux's eyes widened in realization.

Edrea Fox, the bitch who eyes on Edda's position.

Wait...

Soon, Nux realized something.

"This is not a love letter, Master Nux.

The 'bird' she is talking about is Miss Edda.

She is saying that Miss Edda didn't leave today, maybe she had some fight with her 'lover', that is you. She is worried that Edda won't leave the Palace a lot and wants me to deal with her as soon as possible."

Nux's eyes widened in realization...

That... somehow makes sense...

“Why is she sending this to you?” Nux questioned.

“Well, we had a deal. I will umm... kill Miss Edda, obviously, since she is the subhead maid, she will become the new head maid, then she would let me get close to the Royal Harem.” Alger answered, however, with how his legs were trembling, anyone could tell that he was scared.

However, Nux didn't care, Alger has already got what he deserved, plus, there is a much more important question in Nux's mind right now.

“Why do you want to get close to the Royal Harem?”

“Because the Kingdome Of Skadi ordered me to.”

“Hmm? What does the kingdom want with the Royal Harem?” Nux questioned.

Previously, he wasn't interested in world politics, however, now, things were different.

Plus, this directly affected Allura and Edda, Nux had to do something, at the very least, he should know what was going around.

“I do not know what the kingdom wants with the Royal Harem; however, I do have a theory in my mind.”

Chapter 149

“I do not know what the kingdom wants with the Royal Harem; however, I do have a theory in my mind,” Alger answered.

“What is your theory?” Nux questioned, however, inwardly, he was surprised.

‘He can think something through? What? Why didn’t I know that?’

“The Skyfall kingdom is going through tough times right now, Master Nux,” Alger muttered.

“Huh? But I heard that it was the strongest among the 3 kingdoms? Is that not the case?” Nux frowned.

“It is as you say, Master Nux. However, Skyfall Kingdom is facing a critical period right now.”

“Critical Period?”

“Yes, 20 years later, the king will abdicate his throne and one of his heirs will become the next king.

Initially, it wasn’t much of a problem since the crown prince practically had no competition, he was strong and had Duke Fulvianus supporting him from behind.

However, in the last 50-60 years, the Third Prince’s cultivation has increased by leaps and bounds.

The third prince, who is 89 years old, is already at the peak of the Grand Master Stage which is similar to the first prince, who is 122 years old.

Duke Merula, who was supporting the Third Prince didn’t fail to use this fact and started gaining support from other nobles.

‘If the Third Prince is as strong as the first prince even though he is 33 years younger than him, then doesn’t that mean the potential the Third Prince has is a lot higher compared to the First Prince? Won’t the Kingdom see unprecedented growth if it is under a genius like Third Prince?’

Words like these were spread around and many nobles started supporting the Third Prince.

This started the spark, it was not a rebellion, it was an appeal, an appeal to make the Third Prince, Lovis Skyfall, the crown prince of the Skyfall Kingdom.

The Appeal, however, was rejected.

But, everything wasn’t in vain.

The First Prince, Raguel Skyfall, lost the title of the Crown Prince.

This added fuel to the fire.

Since the Crown prince position was now empty, The Fourth prince, Evander Skyfall, who had the support of Duke Centho, joined in as well.

When it was noted that three out of four Duke supported the Three Princes, all eyes fell on Duke Vestalis, the remaining Duke.

Most of them thought of him as the breaking point, however, the Duke declared his neutrality on the matter.

The person he wanted to support, the Second Princess Quiriana Skyfall was not interested in the Throne and didn’t participate in this race.

With this, the politics inside the Skyfall kingdom is now revived with three Major Princes fighting with each other, each having a Duke Supporting them from behind.

Since historic times, these were the times when most of the Kingdoms fell, this is why I said that the Skyfall Kingdom is going through a Critical Period.

As for why the Kingdom of Skadi is interested in the Royal Harem, I assume that it is because they are trying to 'support' a prince from behind the scenes as well.

The Fifth Prince, Lucas Skyfall, should be their target, since the man doesn't have any support from any major noble, he would be happy to have a Kingdom supporting him from behind.

I am sure someone like him wouldn't mind being a puppet King.

Of course, that is just my prediction.”

Alger reported.

The more he spoke, the more Nux realized that this Alger might not be as useless as he initially thought.

He knew a lot more than Felberta, that's for sure.

Of course, that wasn't Felberta's fault either.

She was a Viscount, it is normal for a Marquee like Alger to know more about the situation than a Viscount like her.

'Haaahhh...'

Finally, Nux shook his head and sighed.

The situation was a lot more complicated than he initially thought.

Everything within the kingdom was okay, however, he didn't expect the Kingdom of Skadi to play it like this.

Of course, as Alger said, it was just his prediction, what he said might be wrong however, Nux had a feeling that he was right.

Just the fact that the Kingdom of Skadi controls 2 Marquees' houses inside the Skyfall Kingdom tells that the Kingdom of Skadi isn't simple.

‘I was too naïve. The way I think isn’t broad enough; I am unable to think about all the situations at the same time. I need to improve.’

Nux realized.

‘Why wouldn’t a kingdom use this golden chance to try and take over the other kingdom? This is the prime time to do whatever they wanted. They would be fools if they miss this chance. It’s a perfectly logical move on their part.

Now the question is... what should be my next move?’

Nux questioned inwardly and started thinking about the current problem more deeply.

However, in the end, he shook his head and sighed.

It was not the time yet.

He needs to discuss everything with his girls.

Only then could he come up with something.

“Alright, I heard you, I will think a little more about all this, you can go now.

As for what to say to that maid, I’ll tell you later.” Nux turned towards Alger and instructed.

“Yes,” Alger nodded and left.

Inwardly, Alger was happy.

‘Heh, I showed my worth, I hope I won’t get treated badly from now on. I don’t want to call Miss One every single day, though she left me alive yesterday and acted a little different from before, I have this feeling that she will kill me if I keep calling her like that.

Haahhh...

Master Nux, please don't treat me badly from now on...'

Yes, that was all the marquee wanted now.

To live a normal, tension-free life.

Nux didn't know what was going inside Alger's mind.

His mind was already filled with other thoughts, in the end, he decided to meet Felberta.

A small smile appeared on his face when he thought about it.

Being serious did not suit him.

He should spend time with his beloved women.

He will think about other things later.

Hehe~

Chapter 150

“And then I returned from the part-”

“Returned? That is such a weak word, Sister Felberta. You did not return from the party, You ‘rushed back’ from the party.

Hahaha~ I still remember how the servants looked at you when you walked out of the carriage and started running towards your room.

Hahaha~ You looked so desperate that day, Sister Felberta”

Skyla stopped Felberta midway and laughed out loud.

She was still angry about when Felberta called her out on her breasts.

Heh. She will have her revenge now.

After Thyra was done sharing her story, the others girl started sharing theirs as well. Of course, Skyla, Lane and Felberta already knew each other’s stories, however, they still shared them.

An enjoyable topic was never not enjoyable; no matter how many times you repeat it.

“Pffft!” Thyra laughed out as she glanced at Felberta.

Lane, who was the shyest one in the group didn’t say anything but she was smiling as well.

“Sister Thyra, you have to know, back then, Lady Felberta was still a mortal, however, she was so desperate that day that she ran and she ran so fast that we, who were Advance Stage cultivators were having a hard time catching up to her”

Skyla laughed even more.

“Doesn’t that just mean that you two were useless since you were unable to catch up with a mortal like me?” Felberta questioned.

“Oh C’mon Sister Felberta, you know I don’t mean that in a literal way, we could easily catch up to you since you were a mortal.

What I was trying to tell was that you were so desperate that you didn’t care about your image and ran towards your room so you could meet Nux.

Hehe~ I even remember how you hugged him like a monkey as soon as you saw him.”

Skyla, however, didn’t back down and teased even more.

Lane, who was sitting right beside Skyla nodded in agreement.

Felberta’s face twitched in annoyance and she answered,

“So what if I was desperate? I was desperate for someone who belonged to me!

Tsk Tsk, at least I wasn’t shameless enough to peek at a couple having se-”

Felberta then paused.

Initially, she wanted to talk about how Skyla and Lane were peeking at her and Nux having sex, however, she quickly realized that Thyra here also peeked at them.

If she used the word ‘peek’, Thyra, Skyla and Lane would be categorized into the same category and that would be disadvantageous for her since she would become their target.

‘Haahh... if only Edda was here...’

Felberta sighed inwardly.

She then quickly changed what she was about to say and continued,

“Tsk Tsk, at least I am not shameless enough to spend my first night with the man I love and my Sister!”

Since she can't target Skyla, she targeted Lane instead!

Lane, who was now targeted opened her eyes wide in surprise.

“What? Did you spend your first night with Nux and your Sister? Who was that Sister?” Thyra questioned in surprise, she didn't expect this serious-looking girl to be so...

Perverted...

Lane's face turned red and Skyla who was beside her smiled slyly.

“Hehe~ I was that Sister! She spend her first night with Nux and I was there as well~

Actually, Sister Lane should be thankful to me, if not for me, she would have remained a virgin for the rest of her life, no, even worse, she would have found a useless man for herself and would have married him.

Hahaha~ That would have been so sad~” Skyla laughed again.

Her Sister Lane was laughing when Felberta targeted her.

Hehe~ She wouldn't leave her either.

However, that was her mistake.

‘Heh. All according to my Plan.’

Felberta smiled slyly as she watched Skyla and Lane, especially Lane, whose face was now as red as a tomato.

“T-That is because I was not perverted enough to smell Lady Felberta's panty in the bathroom!” Lane retorted with a red face and Thyra's eyes widened in surprise.

Thyra then turned towards Skyla and questioned,

“You did what?”

Skyla blushed as well, she glared at Lane with an expression that said,

‘How could you?’

However, Lane turned her head away,

‘You started it first’

That was her reply.

“Hahaha~ Indeed indeed~ Our little Skyla here was found smelling my panty when she was washing them~

Heh. How perverted~” Felberta commented.

Skyla lowered her head in shame.

“Wait, you really did that?” Thyra questioned and the more she questioned, the redder Skyla’s face got.

“Hahaha~” Felberta laughed out loud, Lane was smiling as well.

“T-That wa-”

“Haah? Why are you girls bullying my cute little Skyla?” Suddenly, Skyla heard a voice and her eyes brightened.

She then quickly turned around, and soon, a big smile appeared on her face as she dashed toward the voice.

“Nux!” She shouted.

Nux hugged her petite body gently and patted her head.

“Don’t worry, Don’t worry, no one will bully you, I am here”

“Hmm hmm” Skyla nodded as she snuggled into his chest and closed her eyes.

“Tsk Tsk. You are late so you don’t know what happened. We weren’t bullying her, instead, that little demon was the one who was bullying us. We were just getting back at her” Felberta retorted.

Lane nodded and although Thyra didn’t nod, she now knew that Skyla wasn’t as innocent as she looked.

“Sister Felberta said I have small breasts!” Skyla complained.

Nux frowned, he then moved his hand toward Skyls’s right breast and started rubbing it gently, “Hmm? How are they small? Don’t they have the perfect size?” He questioned in confusion.

“Yes, they fit your hand perfectly, they are perfect,” Skyla muttered and Nux nodded in agreement.

“It is Sister Felberta and Sister Lane who has unnecessarily large breasts!” Skyla continued however, this time, Nux didn’t nod.

He didn’t have a death wish.

“Ohh?”

Hearing Skyla, a small, sly smile appeared on Felberta’s face.

“Say... My darling Nux~” Felberta called.

“Y-Yes, what is it, My dear Fel?”

“What type of breasts do you prefer? The ones that ‘fits your hand perfectly’ or the ones that are ‘unnecessarily large’?”

Chapter 151

“Say... My darling Nux~” Felberta called.

“Y-Yes, what is it, My dear Fel?” Nux forced out a smile.

He had this feeling that he won't like her question.

At all.

“What type of breasts do you prefer? The ones that ‘fits your hand perfectly’ or the ones that are ‘unnecessarily large?’”

And, his feeling was correct.

“H-Huh? What kind of question is that, My Dear Fel?” Nux tried to act ignorant.

“I am asking if you prefer mine, or Skyla's breasts,” Felberta repeated. A lot more clearly this time.

Skyla, who was enjoying Nux's pats opened her eyes and glanced at Nux's face with her eyes shined with curiosity.

She wanted to know as well!

She was confident in her victory after all.

“Ahh, so that's what you are asking?” Nux finally realized.

“Yes, that is what I am asking. Now answer the question,” Felberta narrowed her eyes.

“Well, actually, I don't have any preference. I am a simple man, I like everything equally.

Your breasts are big and squishy, they feel fantastic when I touch them and I want to keep touching them forever.

Similarly, Skyla's breasts are soft and lovely, combining them with Skyla's cute face, I get a boner every time I think about it."

Nux smiled and then continued,

"What I mean to say is, everything has its own advantage.

For example, let's talk about Edda, Edda is so amazing that yesterday night when she was talking with Allura, she found out something very interesting.

Something so good that will make our future journey a lot simpler than what we predicted.

She found out a good piece of news.

However, her subordinate, the subhead maid of the royal palace, that bitch is the opposite.

That bitch sent a letter to Alger that I did not like all."

Was what he saying and the topic that was going on had anything in common?

No.

However, was Nux able to succeed in what he was trying to do?

Hehe~

"Hmm? Good news? Letter? What are you talking about?" Felberta frowned and questioned.

Nux's smile widened and he continued, "That's why I was here in the first place, let's leave the letter aside, I will first tell you about what Edda found out."

“Alright.”

Felberta nodded.

Nux then started talking about the King of the Skyfall Kingdom and his weird hobby.

The more he talked, the more Felberta and the others narrowed their eyes in anger.

This way, Nux successfully changed the topic and started talking about ‘important’ things.

He successfully managed to dodge the bullet.

After the discussion about the king and the letter ended, Nux smiled perversely and started talking about ‘most important things’.

It was then decided that Skylia will be the first, then Lane and then Felberta.

As for Thyra, she will be receiving special special attention in the evening.

What happened next was Heaven for Nux as he enjoyed the four women for the rest of the day.

...

At the night, Nux was standing in front of all the four women and he had a smile on his face.

“I will go meet Edda now.”

“You have to treat Sister Edda nicely, she worked hard~

So reward her well~” Skylia muttered as she winked at Nux playfully.

“I’ll make sure to do that.” Nux smiled back.

“Also, don’t forget to talk about that letter with her,” Felberta muttered.

“Mhm, I won’t.”

“Have fun~” Skyla laughed.

Nux smiled, he then kissed all the four girls, and before leaving he turned towards Felberta and requested,

“Take Thyra to her new room.”

“Alright.” Felberta nodded.

“H-Huh? New room?” Thyra, who didn’t know anything about it questioned with a frown.

Skyla quickly grabbed her hand and exclaimed excitedly,

“Of course! Your new room is right next to mine! So we will talk at night. Hehe~ Teach me all those killing techniques, I want to kill people!” Skyla smiled innocently.

“H-Huh? But don’t I already have a room for myself?” Thyra questioned.

“Nope, you won’t be living there anymore.” Nux shook his head.

“Why?” Thyra questioned.

“That place is too far,”

“Huh? What do you mean?”

“I would need a few minutes to come to your room, it is too far from mine,” Nux muttered.

“Actually, you can stay in your previous room as well, however,”

“However what?”

“Do you want other assassins to see that perverted face of yours or hear you moans when we have sex?” Nux questioned with a sly smile on his face.

Thyra's face reddened in embarrassment.

She has just had a lovely session an hour ago and she was sure that she wouldn't be able to control her moans while having sex...

It just felt too good...

"A-Alright, I will move to a new room." Thyra nodded.

She had no choice.

This man was forcing her.

"Good girl," Nux smiled.

"Alright, I'll go now." He then activated his Conceal and left.

...

A few minutes later, he was already in front of the Royal palace and soon, he saw Edda walking out.

He deactivated his Conceal and just like how he did it the first time,

He extended his toward Edda and smiled,

"Miss Edda, shall we go?"

A sweet smile appeared on Edda's face as she took Nux's hand and nodded.

"But we don't have any carriage today," Nux muttered.

"Hmm?"

"How about I carry you to our destination on my back?"

Edda's smile widened and she nodded.

Heh, this was a lot better than riding a carriage.

She then quickly climbed on Nux's back and Nux dashed towards a random city.

...

2 hours later, Nux and Edda were sitting in an expensive-looking restaurant and a waiter placed delicious-looking food on their table.

"So that subhead maid, umm... I forgot her name..." Nux started.

"Edrea?"

"Yes, that woman, she send a letter to Alger that told him how you didn't leave the Royal Palace yesterday and requested to capture you quickly," Nux informed.

"Oh? She's keeping tabs on me? Not that I am very surprised. Heh. I wonder what face she will make when she learns that the person she is depending on is already our subordinate." Edda commented with a smile.

She didn't look very surprised by the news.

"Heh. That would be fun to see, although I would prefer not to see her face." Nux replied.

Edda smiled and nodded.

"Indeed, you don't have to see an abomination like her, it might hurt your eyes since you are so used to seeing a beautiful woman like me."

Nux smiled and then he questioned.

"How would you like to deal with her?"

A sly smile appeared on Edda's face as she answered,

"I do have something in mind."

Chapter 152

A/N: I suggest that you wait for the and read both at the same time.

*Skeleton Face*

...

Inside a dimly lit room, a brown-skinned woman was hanging in the air, her hands were tied behind her back, while her legs were tied in a way that her ankles were touching her butt, and the ropes that tied her were then masterfully tied to the ceiling of the room, leaving the woman hanging in the air without any support whatsoever.

“Hahaha~ That’s a good position for you, is it not, Edda?” Suddenly, a voice was heard and a naked man walked inside the room.

“...” The woman didn’t say anything, she just observed the man’s dreamy figure and felt a little tingle inside her important area.

That woman was Edda and the one who tied her was Nux.

This was the ‘reward’ Nux was talking about.

He was sure that Edda would enjoy this.

He thought about it for hours, after all.

Nux then walked closer to Edda, and finally, she was able to see his charming face.

However, that wasn’t what Edda was focused upon.

Nux had tied her at a perfect height.

His little brother, that was standing tall was right in front of Edda's eyes, it was practically touching her nose.

"You want this, don't you?" Nux questioned as he moved forward and his little brother touched her cheek.

Edda's tongue popped out of her own as she tried licking it, however, she didn't forget to answer the question her 'Master' asked.

"Yesh"

Nux's smile widened, he always moved his waist a little as soon as Edda's tongue touched his little brother, a weird sense of satisfaction fulfilled his mind when he saw Edda changing her angles of approach just so she could lick his penis.

"Where do you want it?" Nux questioned.

"My Pusshy" Edda was quick to answer, however, her mind was still focused on the dick in front of her.

"Do you want it that much?"

"Yesh."

"Then how about we play a game?" Nux stepped back a little and questioned.

"A game?"

"Indeed." Nux's smile widened as he pointed at a large clock that he had placed on the wall.

"I call it, 'Time Game.'"

"Time game?"

"Yes, the rules are simple, I can do whatever you want with your body and you just have to NOT moan for 1 whole minute. Simple right?" Nux questioned.

“...” Edda, however, didn't reply, she knew the explanation wasn't over yet.

“If you succeed,” Nux then moved his rod in front of Edda's eyes and whispered,

“Then I will ram this rod inside your pussy till you pass out from pleasure,”

Edda's felt her little sister twitching when she heard it.

“However,”

Then, Nux's smile widened and he continued.

“If you fail, then the game will be reset, but the time you have to control your moan will get added on by the time that was left.

For example, if you moan after 40 seconds, then for the next round, you will have to control your moan for 1 minute 20 seconds.

Are the rules clear?” Nux questioned while he rubbed his dick all over Edda's face while the girl tried to lick it with her tongue.

“Yesh.”

“Alright, so the game... begins!”

Suddenly, Edda's eyes turned focus and she sealed her lips!

She will not moan.

Nux smiled, he then walked towards Edda's little sister, he slid his rod onto Edda's shoulder, her arm, then her back and finally, it found its place on her butt.

“Mmm~” Even though Nux didn't do anything yet, just his dick touching all her body sent waves of pleasure inside Edda's body.

However, she did not moan.

Heh. Not that easily.

Nux smiled, and his right hand then moved towards Edda's sacred place, Nux raised his eyebrows when he noticed that her pussy was wet.

He smiled, he then gently started circling his finger outside Edda's entrance.

This little gentle touch sent waves and waves of pleasure inside Edda's body as more and more juices gushed out of her little sister.

However, Edda was determined to win.

She did not moan.

Nux was patient as well, he continued circling his finger around her entrance, Edda's body, which was hanging in the air started moving slowly like a pendulum.

Since she was hanged, every little movement Edda made to overcome that itchy feeling she felt was reflected amazingly.

Edda then glanced at the clock and her eyes widened in surprise.

20 seconds.

Only 20 seconds have passed.

And this was already getting unbearable for her, Nux was doing nothing but circling his finger around her pussy...

Shouldn't he just ram his finger inside now!?

She didn't realize one minute was such a long time.

Edda gritted her teeth, she then closed her eyes and tried to ignore her little sister's frustrations.

She waited...

She waited for entire an entire hour, resisting that unbearable frustration with sheer willpower. She then opened her eyes, and,

Only 5 seconds had passed.

That meant 25 seconds in total...

Edda's whole body trembled in frustration. The pendulum-like motion her body was doing increased, indicating that Edda was getting frustrated.

However, no matter how frustrated she was, Edda did not moan.

Nux continued what he was doing with no pressure at all.

He was actually enjoying the frustrated look that had appeared on Edda's face.

Soon, he noticed that 5 more seconds had passed.

His smile then widened, his forefinger and thumb met and,

**Flick**

He flicked Edda's Clitoris.

“AAAnnhhhh!!” Edda, who didn't expect that Nux would do something like that so suddenly moaned out loud and her eyes widened in surprise.

If her hands were tied, she would have slapped herself with all her strength.

She couldn't believe she moaned so easily.

“30 Seconds.

Good Job, My perverted Maid.

Good job on holding out for 30 seconds.

However, in the end, you still lost.

Therefore, now you would have to hold out for 1 minute and 30 seconds to win.

Are you ready for that?"

Chapter 153

“Now you would have to hold out for 1 minute and 30 seconds to win.

Are you ready for that?”

Nux questioned with a wide smile on his face.

“...”

However, Edda did not reply.

She was more focused on winning the game.

1 minute and 30 seconds weren't difficult.

She just has to make sure that this time does not increase anymore.

“That's the spirit”

Nux complimented.

“Alright, round 2 begins... now!”

Nux announced and his finger moved back to her clitoris.

Edda's body tensed up when she sensed where his hand was moving.

“Mmhhmmm~”

Her body trembled in pleasure when Nux's forefinger touched her clitoris. A big wave of pleasure assaulted her body, however, Edda bit her lips to stay focused.

She would not lose!

Nux continued to rub her sensitive clitoris gently without any mercy for the next 10 seconds, and Edda's pussy, which was already on an edge, trembled and,

*Squirt*

“Mmmnhmmmm~”

She came.

There were no sudden movements, no sudden pain, just plain, gentle rubbing and Edda came.

Well, she can't be blamed either, she was more focused on not moaning rather than containing her orgasm.

“Was that a moan?” Nux questioned.

Edda, who had sealed her mouth with everything she had replied quickly,

“NO! That was no- AAnnhhhh~”

Nux grinned.

He knew that Edda wouldn't open her mouth no matter what happened, therefore, he used this little trick and as soon as she opened her mouth to reply, he flicked her clitoris again.

*Squirt*

Edda didn't say anything, she just enjoyed her previous orgasm to the full extent and once she was done, she turned toward Nux and,

“You cheated!”

“Heeh? When did I cheat? You can't be thinking of placing the blame on me, are you?” Nux questioned.

“...”

Edda turned silent.

She didn't know how to answer.

She moaned.

Nux had won fair and square.

“10 Seconds,

That was how long you could hold out for in this round.” Nux muttered.

Edda lowered her head in disappointment.

“So subtracting 10 seconds from 1 minute 30 seconds makes it 1 minute 20 seconds.

So for the next round, you would have to stop yourself from moaning for 2 minutes 20 seconds.

Can you do it, My perverted maid?”

“Shouldn't it only be 1 minute 50 seconds? Why is the penalty of the previous round being counted!?” Edda questioned in surprise.

“Heeh? Didn't I say it before? The time you have to hold back your moan will get added on by the time that was left? I said that, right?”

“...”

Edda turned silent.

“Alright, round 3 starts... now!” Nux announced and his fingers had already started moving towards her little sister.

This time, he didn't circle around her entrance like before, this time, he directly plunged his forefinger inside her vagina.

“Mmmhhmm~~”

Edda's body was already sensitive due to the orgasm she had just had, therefore, as soon as Nux's finger entered her insides, her body trembled in delight.

"Is that a moan I heard?" Nux questioned.

"..."

But of course, Edda wasn't going to fall for the same trick.

Nux smiled, and then without wasting any time, his middle finger and ring finger entered her insides.

"Mmmmmnnmm~~"

His 3 fingers then started making a mess inside Edda's vagina. He teased and rubbed 3 of her sensitive spots at the same time.

However, that was not it,

With his thumb, Nux started rubbing her clitoris as well.

This heightened the pleasure Edda was feeling to an unbearable degree, her eyes widened in surprise and,

"MMMHhmmmmm~~"

*Squirt*

She came again.

And this time, she came very quickly.

"Shouldn't you inform me before you squirt like this? You are such a bad girl Edda," Nux questioned with a teasing smile.

"..." However, Edda didn't reply.

She was not stupid, she knows that he was trying to open her mouth.

She won't do it no matter what happens.

However,

“And you know what happens to bad girls?

They get punished!”

Nux's smile widened and,

*Pah*

He slapped Edda's juicy ass.

“AAAAnnnhhhhH~~”

Edda had just orgasmed a second ago, her body was incredibly sensitive right now. The mixture of pain and pleasure she felt due to Nux's spank forced her to moan out loud.

“30 Seconds, My perverted Maid.

Now you would need to control yourself for 2 minutes and 50 seconds.”

Nux announced with a smile on his face.

Finally, Edda realized that this game might not be as easy as she imagined.

And, she was right.

The game continued, it was as if Nux had mastered the ways to make her moan.

Sometimes, he would let her play with her breasts before pinching her nipples, sometimes, he would use his dick and rub it on her entrance.

Sometimes, he would pull the ropes to increase her pain, then he would flick her clitoris, or he would directly plunge 3 fingers inside her pussy at the same time.

All in all, every action he did was incredibly pleasure-inducing and to make matter worse, the more time passed, the more Edda came and the more sensitive her body became.

...

“Now you have to hold back your moan for 10 minutes 15 seconds,” Nux muttered with a smile on his face.

Right now, Edda was a mess.

A complete mess.

Her juices were leaking out uncontrollably, her body was being swayed like a pendulum without stop.

Actually, Nux was now sure that if he does touch her and let her stay like this, she would moan out loud within 10 minutes.

That was how sensitive she was right now.

“I-Is this a r-reward of a p-punishment...?” Edda couldn’t take it anymore and question. Her face was completely red now.

An evil smile appeared on Nux’s face, he then walked in front of Edda and questioned.

“What do you think? Are you enjoying it?”

Then, a perverted smile appeared on Edda’s red face as she answered,

“I am loving it~”

As she said that, her body swayed even more, indicating how much she was trying to move but couldn’t.

“However,” Suddenly, she called.

“I am at my limits now~”

I need that Dick!” Edda screamed out loud.

“Heh. My perverted maid.” Nux called out and he then placed his rod in front of Edda’s lower lips,

“You should have said that sooner.

It was hard for me to hold back as well.”

He then started lubricating his rod with her juices and,

“The game is over, it’s now time for awards!”

“AAAGNNnnnhhhhhH~~”

Edda moaned loudly as Nux entered her insides in one move.

“Ugghhhhhh!”

Nux groaned in pleasure as well.

Edda’s walls were a lot tighter than normal. Maybe that was because she was left unattended and was teased for such a long time.

“Ahhhh~~ This is the best~” Edda closed her eyes as she enjoyed the heavenly feeling.

Nux’s one thrust, and she already entered her own world.

A world full of pleasure and delight.

“Aannhhhhh~~”

Nux then pulled his dick back and rammed his dick inside her again.

He then bent down a little and grabbed Edda’s breasts roughly.

The way she was tied, Edda couldn’t move much, therefore, she was completely at his mercy.

And Edda loved that feeling.

She didn't have to care about anything, she just has to moan.

“AANNnhhhh~~ NUX! You are the best!”

And she will do just that.

Nux smiled, suddenly, he grabbed her pink white hair and rammed his dick inside her pussy as he pulled her hair.

“AAHHhhhhnnnN~”

Edda's walls tightened even more and she moaned die to pleasure and pain.

Soon, Nux's movement turned smoother and faster,

“Annnhh! ANNH! Annhh~”

*Pah* *Pah* *Pah*

The room was filled with sounds of flesh meeting flesh and Edda's moans.

The scent of Edda's juices and sweat had already spread all over the room, if anyone enters the room right now,

He would surely be surprised by the depravity these two have fallen two.

“Annnhh! ANNH! Annhh~”

*Pah* *Pah* *Pah*

However, Edda wouldn't have cared.

She would have just continued moaning.

Being hanged like that was something new for her, and when Nux started fucking her in this position, her excitement rose to another level.

Whenever she looks at the floor below, she feels excited.

The one thing stopping her from falling on the floor under Nux's merciless thrusts were the ropes and Nux's hands.

She somehow got very excited thinking about it.

*Pah*

“AANNNHhhhhhhHH~”

Suddenly, Nux spanked her ass and as if a switch was flipped,

Edda moaned out loud and her walls tightened to an unbearable degree.

It was as if her pussy was trying to merge with Nux's dick.

“UgghhhhhhhH!! SO GOOD!!” The pleasure Nux was feeling increased.

Nux felt his body weakening, therefore, he quickly grabbed Edda's breasts for support and since his grip was hard,

“AANnnnhhhh~” Edda moaned even more and her walls tightened again.

“I am cumminnnngggg~” Nux groaned in pleasure and finally let go!

He filled Edda's insides with his semen, and Edda's body trembled in delight.

“I am Cummiingggg againnnnn~”

Her already sensitive body came again.

However, this orgasm she had was a lot more pleasurable than the ones before.

“Haaahhh... haahh.... Haa...”

Edda breathed heavily, this was most definitely the best session the two of them had.

Being hung in the air like this...

She might get addicted to this.

Her eyes then felt heavy, however, just as she was about to close them, a strong, manly scent assaulted her nose.

She opened her eyes and saw Nux's half-erect dick right in front of her face, touching her cheek right under her right eye.

“Clean it.”

The night was still long!

Chapter 154

‘This was the best night I have ever had in my entire life!’

‘Heh. It was an amazing experience for me as well’

‘Mhm! Let’s do it again!’

‘Hahaha~ Calm down Edda, we can’t do something like this regularly. Even though you are a cultivator, you will tire yourself out~’

‘Ughh... I wish I could raise my cultivation faster...’

‘Don’t worry, you will become a Grand Master Stage Cultivator soon.’

‘Hehe~ You and I will need to work hard for it, especially you’

‘Heh. I am not scared of hard work, rather, I enjoy it’

‘Of course you do’

A big smile appeared on Edda’s face as she recalled her conversation with Nux.

Last night was truly awesome and anyone could tell how happy Edda was by looking at the wide and silly smile on her face.

Right now, she was rushing towards the Royal Palace.

No actually, rather than her, Nux, who was carrying her was hurrying towards the Palace.

Why?

Because she was late again.

However, she wasn’t as panicked as before.

It had already happened a few times.

She doesn't really care about it now.

Also, she won't be able to change anything even if she panics, so what's the point in worrying about it?

Wouldn't it be better to just tighten her hug around Nux and enjoy the ride?

"Heeh? You are pretty relaxed today huh..." Nux commented as he noticed it as well.

"Indeed..." Edda answered lazily.

"Huh? Didn't you say that you will work hard so that we can have a session like this again? Why are you acting all lazy now?" Nux questioned.

"I am saving my energy so that I can work later."

"Ahh, that makes sense."

"Also, it's not like I will work hard as a head maid of the Royal Palace... that, I will do slowly and lazily.

I will only work hard for the plan that you have for Lad- Sister Allura." Edda answered.

"Tsk Tsk, what a bad head maid," Nux commented.

"Hoh? Aren't I the best head maid? Am I not your favourite?" Edda questioned.

"I am just talking from the Royal Palace's point of view. In my point of you, you are the best Head maid I could ever hope for. My serious outside but a pervert inside head maid." Nux smiled.

A smile appeared on Edda's face as she answered,

"I only care about your point of view~"

“Hahaha~”

The two of them soon appeared in front of the Royal Palace and Nux stopped.

“Ugh... I need to work again...” Edda groaned in displeasure.

“Just keep it up for a few more days~” Nux smiled.

Edda smiled back before she climbed down from his back and started walking towards the Palace.

“Alright, I will meet you soon~” Edda smiled and waved her hand at Nux.

Nux smiled, he kissed her lips and then turned around.

Edda then turned around and walked towards the Palace as well.

However, as soon as she entered the palace, she heard a high-pitched voice.

“Head Maid Edda, You are Late.

I know that the spring has bloomed a little late in your life, however, that does not mean you can ignore your duties.

This is the 4th time now, how many times are you going to keep repeating the same mistakes?

How are you going to fix that 5 minutes gap that you have created?”

Edda sighed inwardly and glanced at the woman standing in front of her with a dead look on her face.

‘What a bitch like voice and face.’

She thought inwardly and soon, a smile appeared on Edda’s face.

“I apologize that I am late, however, being loved by someone is a completely new experience for me since unlike you, who goes whoring around sleeping with any men they find for the tiniest of advantage, I was a pure and innocent woman a few days ago.

And having just tasted the forbidden fruit, it is a little difficult for me to handle up with everything.”

Suddenly, a strict expression appeared on her face and she narrowed her eyes.

“However, Sub Head Maid Edrea, I still do not understand how and since when was this your duty to keep tabs on my schedule?

I believe people responsible for this can do their work just fine, you do not need to involve yourself.”

Edrea’s face turned red in anger.

‘This bitch really has a vile mouth’

“”Head Maid Edda, I indeed do not have any obligations to keep tabs on your schedule, however, I feel that if the Head Maid of the Royal Palace shows irresponsible behaviour like this, other maids might not do their work properly.

I just don’t want you to set a bad example, Head Maid Edda.”

“Oh? Is that so?”

“Indeed.” Edrea nodded with a smile on her face.

“Ah, I just remembered, have you checked the rations?”

“Yes, Head Maid Edda, I have checked the ration, wheat, pulses, fruits and vegetables, everything is stocked up and is ready to use.

You don’t have to worry about it, I do not slack off”

“What about clothes, have you made sure all the washed clothes are sent back to where they came from?”

“Yes, I had a few maids check the whole process, it is done. As I said, you do not need to worry, I do not slack off.”

“Good, Ah yes, I remembered, Liliana is on a holiday today, have you distributed her work to other maids?”

“Huh?” Suddenly, Edrea frowned.

“What? Have you done it or not?” Edda questioned.

“But you did not order me to do it...”

“Haah? Aren’t you the subhead maid? Aren’t you the one who is responsible to manage everything after me? Don’t tell me you need an order to do something as simple as this!

What’s the use of having you around if I need to remind you to do things like this?

Aren’t you practically useless?

Why don’t you become a normal maid?

You asked me how I am going to compensate for those 5 minutes I have wasted but what about you? How are you going to compensate for this?

Who will do Liliana’s work? You? Huh?

What a useless woman!” Edda screamed in anger.

What was Edda doing?

She was using her status to bully Edrea.

Actually, even if Edrea had done something about it, Edda would have simply found fault in something else.

She was the boss here!

Can Edrea do anything about it?

Heck no!

Actually, her trying to go against her superior was a stupid idea to begin with.

Edda was not easy to bully.

Now, Edrea could only listen and grit her teeth in frustration.

“It’s better to focus on your own work rather than doing useless things. I have had enough of your incompetent ass roaming around here.

Fix yourself or you will have to face the consequences, am I clear?”

Edda questioned.

“...”

“I asked, Am I Clear?”

Edrea gritted her teeth in anger however, in the end...

“Y-Yes”

She could only bow and nod.

Chapter 155

“I heard you got a little angry in the morning? What happened? What happened?” Allura questioned with an excited look on her face.

“Oh C’mon Lady Allura, don’t act like you don’t know what happened. I am sure you have heard this already.”

Edda answered as she shook her head repeatedly.

“Hahaha~ That is true, however, if I can directly ask everything in detail from the person responsible for the hot news, why would I do that?” Allura laughed out loud and answered.

“Haahh... why are you so interested in something like this, Lady Allura.”

“Oh C’mon, don’t take away my fun. Tell me! Tell me!”

Edda glanced at Allura’s excited face and sighed.

“Alright, I’ll tell you what happened. It all started when I walked into the palace...”

Then, Edda started talking about how Edrea stopped her and how their fight started.

...

5 minutes later, when Edda recounted everything that happened, a sly smile appeared on Allura’s face.

She had finally found her source of entertainment for today.

“Hmm, I understand. So that’s what happened...”

However, Edda, don't you think you were too rude?" Allura questioned with a smile.

"Huh? How was I rude?"

"In the end, it was all your fault wasn't it?"

"Huh?"

"Don't act innocent, you were the one who was late, although she might have come out as rude, in the end, she was in the right," Allura muttered.

"Hmph! She has no right to call me out on being late, there are people who are responsible for it and my salary is being deducted accordingly every time I am late!" Edda snorted.

"Heehh? I didn't know you were that addicted~" Allura teased.

"Didn't I already say? My lover is just that good in bed." Edda replied.

After the reward yesterday, she would use every single chance she gets to increase Nux's points in Allura's eyes.

Of course, it wasn't beneficial right now since Allura didn't know that Nux and Edda's lover was the same person, however, this won't be kept hidden for a long time.

"Yea yea, I know, your lover is good in bed, I get that. Don't repeat it again and again."

"Important things must be repeated as many times as possible" Edda nodded to herself.

Seeing her acting like that, Allura shook her head, this girl was a lost cause, also, she would lose her entertainment if the topic is changed.

She needed to keep talking about the same topic.

She could smell the entertainment.

“However, Edda,” Allura called.

“Hmm?”

“Although we were not very close before, from the few interactions and rumours I heard about you, I predicted you to be a calm and elegant person.

I didn’t know you would shut someone up using your authority just because she pointed at your mistake.

No, actually, I am sure you wouldn’t do something like this normally, did Edrea do something I don’t know about?

Is there bad blood between you two?

You are the head maid and she is the subhead maid, is there some kind of rivalry going on between you two?”

Allura questioned as her eyes gleamed in interest.

Edda could see stars of excitement shining inside those blue eyes of hers.

“You are right, Lady Allura. That Edrea isn’t as innocent as you think.” Edda muttered.

“Heeh? What do you mean? I do know about how she slept with men to rise to her current position, however, are you telling me that there is something more?” Allura questioned.

“Wait, you know about it?” Edda questioned in surprise.

“It’s not really a secret you know; also, I have many eyes inside the Royal Palace. I know a lot more than you think,” Allura smiled like a mischievous child, however, with that alluring body of her that oozed out mature charm, she looked more like a succubus than a child.

“Ughh... alright, I get it...” Edda nodded.

Then, her expression turned solemn and she continued,

“However, Edrea is a lot bigger bitch than you think,”

Saying that, Edda passed the letter Edrea sent to Alger to Allura.

Allura quickly opened the letter with an excited look on her face,

‘To My one and only love, Algerama,

The bird did not fly out today...

...

...I hope you find her soon’

“What is this?” Allura questioned with a frown.

‘If it was a poem, the writers need to work hard on it, no, maybe he should quit, at least he won’t create something as cursed as this...’ She thought inwardly.

“This is the letter that Edrea send to Marquee Alger.”

Edda revealed.

Allura’s eyes widened in surprise and soon, her eyes gleamed in interest as she joined a few dots.

“Are Marquee Alger and that Edre-”

“No, there is nothing like that. This isn’t a love letter, Lady Allura.”

“Then what is it?” Allura questioned.

“It is a letter that carries information, information about me.

The ‘bird’ in this letter is me, she’s telling the Marquee that I didn’t leave the mansion yesterday.

And by ‘I hope you find her soon’, she means that she hopes that Marquee capture me soon.”

Edda then told everything about how and what Marquee and Edrea were planning and how they were trying to capture her.

The more she listened, the wider Allura’s eyes got.

This wasn’t mere entertainment now, lives are at stake here!

“Why is she doing something like that?” Allura questioned.

“To become the head maid,” Edda answered.

“But is it worth it, is it worth it to become a Head maid at the cost of someone’s life?” Allura questioned.

“Hmph, not only head maid, that bitch is willing to kill and get rid of anyone if she can profit in some way. I have investigated a little, I am not the first person she is trying to kill.

She has done this before and has succeeded in it.

She’s not just a whore, Lady Allura.

She’s a scheming woman who would do whatever she can to achieve her goals.”

“T-That’s terrible...”

Allura muttered in shock.

However, soon, she narrowed her eyes and questioned,

“Wait, this letter should be a secret, how did you get your hands on it?” Allura questioned.

A smile then appeared on Edda’s face as she answered,

“I got it from my lover.”

Chapter 156

“Wait, this letter should be a secret, how did you get your hands on it?” Allura questioned.

A smile then appeared on Edda’s face as she answered,

“I got it from my lover.”

“Hmm? Your lover?” Allura frowned.

“Didn’t I tell you before?”

“Yes, yes, you have already told me that your lover is good in bed but what does it have to do with this?”

“Pffttt!” Edda laughed out loud.

“Lady Allura, though it is indeed true that my lover is good in bed, right now, I am not talking about it.

I am saying that along with being good in bed, My lover is very strong as well.”

“Huh? Strong?”

“Yes, otherwise, do you think I am stupid to leave the Palace even though I know someone is after my life?”

“I do not understand what you are trying to say” Allura shook her head in confusion.

“Marquee Alger, the one who that bitch sent a letter to,”

“Yes, what about him?” Allura questioned.

“That Marquee is my Lover’s subordinate,” Edda revealed.

“What!?”

Allura questioned in surprise.

“Yes, the one who gave the letter to my lover and translated it was the Marquee himself,” Edda informed.

“B-But, isn’t a Marquee... a Marquee?”

“Huh?”

“I mean, a Marquee is a leader of a Marquee’s house, how is he someone else’s subordinate?”

“Heh. There are many nobles who are subordinates of other nobles, Lady Allura.”

Allura then narrowed her eyes and questioned,

“Is your lover a Duke?”

“Huh? Of course not. My lover is a commoner that is not common at all.” Edda replied with a smile.

Heh. The roles are reversed now.

Now, Edda was the one who was seeking entertainment by seeing Allura’s different reactions.

“T-Then why did a Marquee become a subordinate of a commoner?” Allura questioned.

“That, is a secret”

However, Edda placed a finger on her lips and smiled.

Allura pouted and then, another question popped into her mind.

“Wait, if Marquee Alger is a subordinate of your lover, then why did he make a deal with Edrea?”

“Well, it’s a long story, let’s just say that the Marquee wasn’t my lover’s subordinate from the start, it was only because he attacked me that he became my lover’s subordinate.”

“I do not understand what you are saying at all...”

Allura was full of questions now.

Edda just smiled and answered, “You will understand everything soon enough, Lady Allura.”

Allura felt that she would start having a headache if she talked more about Edda’s lover, the Marquee and all that.

It was better to return to the initial topic.

Plus, Edda seemed very chill about Edrea trying to kill her, so Allura didn’t think that she would come out as rude.

“So, what are you planning to do with Edrea?” Allura questioned.

Suddenly, Edda’s smile widened and Allura couldn’t help but feel a little unsettled when she saw that smile.

“Are you going to kill her?” Allura questioned.

“Hmm? Of course not, Lady Allura. I am an elegant lady, not a blood-loving psychopath.” Edda replied and Allura sighed in relief.

“Then what are you going to do?” Allura questioned.

“Heh. I will force her to work more and more and more.”

“Huh? What do you mean?” Allura questioned with a frown.

Edda’s smile widened even more and she questioned,

“How do you think I am here in your room, chatting with you so leisurely?”

“How?”

Edda then shook her head and recalled what happened a few minutes ago.

...

“Edrea, I need to talk with Lady Allura about something important, be sure to check with the cleaning department and read and check all their reports.

Remember, the cleaning department messes things up a lot, so you would have to personally go and check every single room and see if it is cleaned or not.

If it is not, then you would have to note that room number. Once you are done, give all those room numbers to the cleaning department so that they can clean the room again.”

Edda walked towards Edrea, who was sitting on her chair comfortably, taking her well-deserved 15 minutes of rest after working for 3 hours consecutively.

“Huh?” Edrea then frowned, however, Edda wasn’t done yet.

“After you are done with this, you will have to go to the kitchen and distribute the food amongst the maids. Do it quickly, we don’t have a lot of time before breakfast.”

“Huh? But isn’t that your duty?” Edrea questioned.

Edda then glared at Edrea and retorted.

“Are you dumb or something? Or are there some unneeded fluids inside those ears of yours? Didn’t I say that I need to talk with lady Allura about something important?”

“...” Edrea gritted her teeth in anger, however, she did not reply.

‘You bitch! What ‘important talks’ are you just going there to ease her curiosity?’

Of course, she can’t say that out loud.

She might be able to say something to Edda, however, there was no way she would have an easy life if she offended Allura.

She could only do whatever Edda was telling her to do.

‘Alright whatever, it will only take 1 hour... if I do it quickly, I might finish everything in 45-50 minutes, then I can rest for 10 minutes.’

However, as if she had read her mind, Edda continued,

“Ah right, I totally forgot, the guards said that there were rats in the south guard post, every other maid is busy so you would have to go and clean it yourself.

Do it after you are done with the things I mentioned before.”

“I would need to go inside the guard post myself?” Edrea questioned in disgust.

“Haahh? What’s with that face? You didn’t look very disgusted when you used to go there at the night, so why now?” Edda retorted and Edrea’s face turned red in anger.

Edda was using her authority to bully Edrea again!

“I will be busy talking with Lady Allura for the next few hours, be sure to do everything I said before I return else, be ready to face the consequences,” Edda ordered in a strict tone.

Edrea lowered her head and then bit her lips before she calmed down and answered,

“Yes,”

Chapter 157

“Edrea, listen here, Mina, Sarrah, Malika and Maya won’t be coming today. Therefore, you would have to do their part of the work as well.

This is the list of everything you have to do, I am busy since I need to talk with Lady Allura, I hope everything is done before I return.

Am I clear?”

“Yes...”

Edrea took the list from Edda and saw there were 15 extra things she would have to do today, alone.

Edrea, however, did not complain.

No, it was better to say she did not have the energy to complain.

There were big black dark circles below her eyes, her makeup was a mess and her shoulders were hung as if she did not have any energy left.

She looked like she was a walking corpse.

However, no one could blame her either, for the last 5 days, Edda has been forcing her to work for 25 hours a day.

She did not even give her a chance to take a carefree and calm breath.

Not only that but,

“Hey... don’t you think Head Maid Edda is abusing her authority?” A maid who saw everything questioned another maid.

“Are you new here?” The other maid questioned.

“Yes, I am. I joined 2 weeks ago”

“Ah, so that’s why you said something like that. I am still fine, however, don’t say that in front of any other maid, okay?”

“Hmm? Why?”

“Head Maid Edda is very popular amongst the maids and her popularity is well-deserved. She works extra hard just so she could ease our workload, not only that, she even talked with the minister to hire more maids so that our workload can decrease.

A few years ago, we maids had to work so much that many of us died due to overexertion, however, ever since Head Maid Edda became the head maid, everything changed for the better.

Head Maid Edda is an idol of almost every maid in the palace.

If you say that Head Maid is abusing her authority in front of someone else, you might not get along with other maids, remember that.”

“But why does it look lik-”

“Who knows? But I am sure it is Sub Head Maid Edrea’s fault and Head Maid Edda is just punishing her.”

“Oh... I understand...”

The maids then walked away and Edrea, who heard them, gritted her teeth.

Yes, no matter how much she complains against Edda, no one was willing to believe her and everyone just placed the blame on her.

There was no justice for her at all!

Edda was not only abusing her Authority but she was abusing her popularity as well!

This was simply unfair!

Edda, who noticed her expression smiled coldly.

For these past 5 days, she has only done 3 things, talking with Allura, spending blissful nights with Nux and bullying Edrea.

She was really having a time of her life right now!

...

“Thyra Cruse, are you willing to be my Woman with all your heart?”

Inside Alge- Nux’s Mansion, Nux stood in front of Thyra and questioned.

“I-I am...” Thyra, whose face was as red as a tomato answered.

Then, she felt weird energy entering her body and she frowned, this was similar to the time when she became Nux’s slave, however, at the same time, it was different.

“W-What did you do?” Thyra questioned with a frown.

“Another magic?”

“Yeah.”

“Aren’t I already under that weird magic of yours? Why bother with another magic?” Thyra questioned in confusion.

“Huh?” Nux frowned.

“Huh?” Thyra frowned because Nux frowned.

Suddenly, a smile appeared on Nux’s face as he realized what she was talking about.

“Hahaha~ My cute little assassin, I have already removed the Slave Seal from you, I did it 4 days ago.”

“What!?”

“Yeah? Didn’t you realize it?”

“...” Thyra stayed silent. She felt that he lying, however, she still found it hard to believe that she didn’t notice that the weird magic was lifted from her 4 days ago.

“What? Do you need proof?”

“Hmm, let’s try this,

Thyra Cruse, jump into the air!” Nux ordered.

Normally, Thyra’s body would have done what Nux ordered, however, this time, it did not move on its own.

“Do you believe me now?” Nux questioned.

Suddenly, a dagger appeared in Thyra’s hand and in one quick movement, she placed her dagger on Nux’s neck. Her movement was so quick that Nux was unable to react and now, her dagger was 1 cm close to his neck, any simple movement, and he would be beheaded.

“Do you remember the promise I made to you before?” She questioned with a cold smile on her face.

“The promise to be my woman with all your heart?” Nux questioned back.

“NO! Not that! My promise to kill you as soon as I get rid of this pesky magic of yours!”

“Ah, you are talking about that...” Nux nodded in realization.

Thyra frowned when she saw how carefree Nux was, however soon, she saw a glint in Nux’s eyes, however, before she could react, Nux moved and,

Kissed her lips.

However, the kiss didn't last long as Nux quickly broke it, he then looked into Thyra's icy blue eyes and smirked.

“How are you planning to kill me? Sucking me dry with your tight pussy?”

Thyra's face turned red as she answered,

“D-Do not think I am joking! I will r-really kill you!”

“Uh huh,” Nux nodded as he gave her another peck on her lips.

Then, Nux grabbed Thyra's waist and pulled her close to him.

“How about you try killing me in the evening after I am done with what I am about to do? What do you say?” Nux questioned.

Thyra's face turned even redder and she nodded.

“A-Alright, be prepared...”

“Sure sure, now you are coming with me, right?”

“mm”

Nux smiled.

Heh.

Thyra was cute indeed.

‘Are you ready? She's about to leave’

Then, a playful glint flashed in his eyes as he heard Edda's voice.

‘Yes, I am about to leave as well~’

‘All the best. Not that you will be needing it, I have done a good job filling Sister Allura's mind with indecent thoughts after all’ Edda replied.

Nux shook his head and chuckled.

Yes, today was the day he will have another 'lunch' with Allura.

Chapter 158

‘Ugh... Why am I so nervous today...?’

Allura groaned inwardly.

‘Isn’t it just a normal lunch?’

She thought inwardly.

She was really confused and couldn’t understand her own thoughts.

‘Isn’t it just a normal lunch with a young man I met a week ago?’

So what if my husband, the king of this kingdom does not know about it?

It is still a normal lunch, right?’

Allura thought inwardly and soon, her face turned a little red.

‘Ughh... Allura you idiot what are you thinking!’

Allura shook her head repeatedly.

‘It’s all because of that Edda~

That girl only talked about how good her lover is, how he cares about her, how he looks after her, how incredibly handsome he is and... and how good he is... in the bed.

It’s all because of those indecent things that Edda talked about.

Also, why is she using my name to bully that other maid!?’

I mean, I don’t really have any problem with it... but still...’

Allura's thoughts then diverted to other topics as she looked out of the carriage through the window.

Yes, Allura Skyfall has left the palace again.

Anyone who knows about her would find it completely normal.

She was named 'The Bored Concubine' after all.

However, if they knew what she was going to do, they won't find it normal at all.

Meeting a man for the first time could be called a coincidence.

Meeting him the second time could be blamed on curiosity.

The third time could be said that they were now friends.

However, if you leave the palace to meet the man again, especially when you have not told anyone about this 'friend' of yours,

That is definitely not normal.

That is suspicious.

Of course, since we are talking about the Royal Palace, a place that is filled with scheming and plotting, where everyone has their own goals and is trying different things to achieve those goals, a place where no one cares about anyone but themselves,

Nobody knew about this suspicious behaviour of Allura Skyfall.

And since nobody knew,

Nothing was suspicious.

Everything was as normal as it could possibly be.

Normal indeed.

“Stop the carriage.”

While Allura was lost in her thoughts, the carriage was stopped. The doors of the carriage were opened and Allura’s protectors appeared.

“Lady Allura, I think we should return.” One of the protectors suggested.

“Huh? Why? What happened?” Allura questioned with a frown.

She could see that the protector wasn’t just saying it so he could ease his work, rather, he looked worried about something.

“This place is too quiet. I have a bad feeling about this. Bruce has gone ahead to check the place, but I still feel it is wiser to return.” The protector informed.

Allura frowned, she wanted to nod since she didn’t want to take any needless risks.

‘But the lunch...’

She was conflicted, she wanted to meet Nux as well, he promised that he would give her an interesting book after all.

“William, we should leave.” However, before she could think too much, Bruce, the other protector, returned and spoke hurriedly.

“What happened?” William questioned.

“I checked everything ahead, it is eerily silent. I checked the houses but no one was inside, all the houses are empty, this is a busy area, something like this is definitely not normal.

I don’t know what is happening, but I suggest we should leave this place as soon as possible,” Bruce reported.

“Alright, we will return.” William’s face turned solemn and he nodded.

This time, he didn’t even ask Allura’s permission.

For them, her safety mattered the most.

This situation was suspicious, to avoid unnecessary danger, they would have to act on their own, even if it offends Lady Allura.

‘But the book...’

Allura wanted to deny, however, she knew she wouldn’t be able to change her protectors’ minds.

She would have to miss her lunch today.

A sad look appeared on Allura’s face, however,

Suddenly, a black figure rushed toward William and aimed its dagger at his neck, William reacted at the last second and blocked the attack.

“Who are you!?” Bruce questioned out loud.

However, rather than answering, another figure wearing black clothes appeared behind Bruce and attacked.

Just like William, Bruce dodged the attack.

“They are both grandmasters!” William shouted!

He was having a hard time against his opponent; the same could be said for Bruce as well.

These opponents were unusually quick and flexible.

They were not normal Grand Master Stage Cultivators, they were trained assassins.

“Do not kill them, we need them alive.”

Suddenly, William and Bruce heard a voice that belonged to a female, they turned a little and saw a female wearing a skin-tight black dress and a mask that covered half of her face.

She was watching everything with a calm look on her face and from the aura around her, it was clear that she was the leader.

“Who are you!? Why are you doing this!? Do you know who we are!?” William questioned, however, the female assassin did not answer.

Actually, only a fool will answer.

And only a fool will play question answers while they were fighting.

“Ughhh!”

Since he was distracted, William was unable to dodge one attack and his opponent’s dagger grazed her shoulder.

William groaned in pain and his focus shifted to his injury for a second.

Another thing only a fool would do.

The assassin did throw away this opportunity and attacked again.

“Ugghhhh” Another cut appeared on William’s body.

Bruce on the other hand was doing fine, actually, he was even suppressing his opponent that seemed to be a woman as well.

However, he was the least bit happy.

The leader hasn’t moved at all.

It was as if she was sure of the victory.

This would be problematic.

Bruce started thinking about different ways to deal with the situation.

As if angered by how he was ignoring her, the assassin fighting Bruce quickened her attacks and Bruce was forced to step back.

Allura, who was watching everything had a tensed look on her face.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Suddenly, she heard a knock, she turned around and saw the carriage door has been opened.

She panicked when she saw a man wearing clothes similar to the one attacking William and Bruce standing in front of her.

The man didn't say anything, he just picked her up and placed her on his shoulder as if she was a potato sack.

Then, he started running.

“Save me!” Allura screamed in fear and panic.

William and Bruce, who were fighting the assassins quickly turned around and their eyes widened,

“Lady Allura was Kidnapped!”

Chapter 159

“You bastard! Let me go!”

“ ... ”

“Let me go! Ugghhh! Let me go!”

“ ... ”

“Don’t you know who I am!?”

“ ... ”

“Do you have a death wish or something!?”

“ ... ”

“I am Allura Skyfall! The concubine of the King of the Skyfall kingdom! Let me go and I will try my best that you are not punished for the crimes you have committed.”

“ ... ”

Allura tried her best, she moved as much as she could however, the man who was carrying her had a very strong grip.

She had sensed his cultivation and knew she was a Master Stage Cultivator as well, however, Allura knew that for some reason, he was a lot stronger than a normal Master Stage Cultivator.

No matter how hard she tried, she wasn’t able to escape from his clutches.

In the end, she decided to give up.

She won’t use force, she should try intimidation.

He would surely let her go if he knew about her background? Right?

She did that.

She told him about his background.

However, as if the man was deaf, he did not react to her words at all.

Actually, Allura was too panicked right now, if not, she would have surely realized that telling him about her background was the worse move she could have made.

Of course, even if she realizes it now, it would already be too late.

The assassin then carried her like a sack and didn't say anything.

Allura continued resisting as well.

The scene looked very comical from afar, however, no one could see it.

Soon, the assassin stopped running and started walking.

Allura looked around and realized that they were somewhere near the edge of the capital city. Somewhere secluded.

Her heart started beating quickly and she panicked.

'I was kidnapped!'

She was really scared right now and the assassin who just continued walking without saying anything creeped her out even more.

Allura then looked around and noticed that she was in the slum area, however, this slum area was desolated.

Other than the two of them, no one was here.

Due to this, Allura was even more scared.

*Step* *Step* *Step*

Everything was so silent that Allura could even hear the assassin's footsteps. Actually, it was as if the assassin was deliberately trying to create this noise however, that might be her imagination.

A few seconds later, the assassin finally entered a house and a frown appeared on Allura's face.

The house's inside was not how she expected it to be.

It was a lot more... clean.

The assassin walked inside and Allura's eyes widened in surprise.

She saw a huge table with delicious-looking food placed on top of it.

The food was still hot, so it was clear that it was placed here not long ago.

Suddenly, the assassin released Allura as well however, instead of being happy, Allura frowned.

“Who are you?”

Allura's sword appeared in her hand as she pointed it at the assassin and questioned.

“...”

However, the assassin did not reply.

“I asked who you are! Why did you bring me here!?” Allura screamed!

She heart was beating really loudly, and beads of sweat had appeared on her forehead.

Even her hands that were holding a sword were trembling.

“Pffftt!”

Suddenly, the assassin laughed.

“W-Why are you laughing!?” Allura screamed.

“Hahaha!”

Instead of answering, the assassin laughed more and suddenly, Allura frowned.

She felt like she had heard this laugh before...

“Hahaha~ You look so scared, Lady Allura~” the assassin spoke and as soon as he did, Allura’s eyes widened in surprise.

“Y-You...” She pointed at the assassin and stuttered.

“Did you finally find out?” the assassin muttered as he removed his mask.

Allura’s eyes widened even more as she saw an incredibly charming and familiar face.

“You are Nux!” Allura screamed.

“The one and only,” Nux smiled as he bowed a little.

“So? What do you think? Does this assassin suit look good on me?” Nux questioned as he opened his arms wide and turned around a little.

“W-What are you doing!? Why did you kidnap me!?” Of course, rather than answering his question, Allura questioned back in a voice full of surprise and confusion.

“Well, you were late for the lunch,” Nux answered.

“W-What?” Allura couldn’t believe what she was hearing.

Nux smiled, he then started walking towards Allura and answered,

“Look, Lady Allura, I have been waiting for this day for this whole week, I have been very patient, okay? However, when you didn’t arrive for the dinner, my patience ran out and I kidnapped you~”

“W-What are you talking about!? I was only 5 minutes late!”

“Same thing, Same thing” Nux shrugged nonchalantly.

“What do you mean same thing!? Do you know what you did!? You kidnapped the concubine of the king of the Skyfall Kingdom, inside the Skyfall kingdom’s Royal Capital!”

“Indeed, that is what I have done. It was quite fun as well.” Nux nodded with a proud look on his face.

“This is no joke, Nux! What you did will get you killed! Not only you but even I will also be killed since I tarnished the King’s reputation!” Allura shouted in panic.

“Heeh? Lady Allura, you are really a scardy cat huh?” Nux muttered.

“S-Scardy cat?”

NO, I AM NOT!

I am just a normal person!

Don’t compare me with someone crazy like yourself!”

“Crazy?”

“Yes crazy! You are simply asking to die!”

“Oh C’mon Lady Allura, don’t tell me you didn’t enjoy this. Your heart is still beating fast, right?” suddenly, Nux grabbed Allura’s back as he pulled her close to him and questioned.

Allura’s face turned bright red and her eyes opened wide in shock, her heart, which was already beating very fast started beating even faster and some indecent images, which have been filled inside her mind by Edda, appeared in her mind.

Soon, however, she came back to her senses as she pushed him a little and muttered with a red face,

“I-I am the concubine of the king of this kingdom, y-you can’t t-touch me like t-that”

“Concubine of the king huh... that is unfortunate indeed.” Nux nodded to himself and then, he muttered,

“It must be tough living a life where your husband won’t touch you and treats you like an object.”

Allura’s eyes widened in shock when she heard him and,

“W-What did you say?”

Chapter 160

“Concubine of the king huh... that is unfortunate indeed.” Nux nodded to himself and then, he muttered,

“It must be tough living a life where your husband won’t touch you and treats you like an object.”

“W-What did you say?”

Allura’s eyes widened in surprise and she questioned.

“I said it must be tough living as someone’s trophy.” Nux repeated as he shook his head in ‘pity’.

“H-How do you know that?” Allura questioned.

Not many people knew about the king’s ‘hobby’.

Although the king himself hasn’t forbidden anyone to talk about it, it is still an unspoken rule to not say unnecessary things out loud.

“Edda told me,” Nux answered honestly.

“Edda? Why would she tell something so sensitive to you? No, wait! Why would she tell anything to you? How do you know her?”

Allura asked countless questions at the same time.

Her mind wasn’t working properly right now.

First, her carriage was attacked by a few unknown people.

Even her protectors, who were supposed to be strong Grand Master Stage Elites, those protectors weren’t able to stop these unknown people at all.

Then, she was kidnapped.

After that, she realized that the person who kidnapped her was this young man who she was going to have lunch with.

Now, she realized that this young man also knows her new 'friend' and not only that, her friend has even revealed an extremely important secret to this man.

Just what the hell is wrong with this day!?

Fear, surprise and then fear again, all these emotions attacked Allura one after another.

However, Nux wasn't done yet.

“What do you mean how do I know Edda? Didn't she tell you about me?”
Suddenly, Nux questioned.

“H-Huh?” Allura frowned, she then thought about it a little more and,

‘I have a lover, he is very handsome~~’

She recalled what Edda talked about the most.

“Y-You are Edda's lover!?” Allura's eyes widened in surprise as she questioned.

“Took you long enough to realize. You are surprisingly slow, Lady Allura. Hahaha~” Nux laughed.

However, Allura wasn't in a mood to laugh with him at all.

She just couldn't digest so many things at the same time. Her head was aching now.

“But why would Edda reveal everything to you?”

“Hmm? I am her lover, what’s wrong with her telling me something?” Nux questioned back.

“T-That was a secret! I trusted her thinking she won’t out me however, she betrayed my trust! She wasn’t supposed to tell that to anyone else, not even her lover!” Allura shouted.

Her emotions were getting the better of her.

“Edda was right about you.” Suddenly, Nux stated.

“H-Huh? W-What did she say?”

“She said you are a person with a good heart,” Nux answered.

“O-Oh... that’s nice of her...” Allura muttered.

A small smile appeared on her face, it felt good to be complimented like this, though it was a little sudden.

“However,”

“Hmm?” Allura glanced at Nux.

“She said that although you are a good person, you have a fatal flaw.

You are a scaredy-cat.”

“Huh?” Allura frowned.

“She says that you have already given up and have accepted your fate as the King’s object, his trophy.

Your ‘boredom’ is nothing but a veil that covers your fear.

You are not bored, you just crave attention which you already know that you will never receive from the king.

However, you are still too scared to do anything about it, that's why she called you a scaredy-cat.

Initially, I didn't agree with her, I had met you 2 times and although you do get flustered easily, you did not come out as a scaredy-cat.

However, now...

Now that I see you acting like this, I have to agree with her,

You are a scaredy-cat indeed.”

Nux smiled.

“...then what am I supposed to do?” Suddenly, Allura questioned.

“Hmm?”

“I asked, what else am I supposed to do?” Allura questioned again.

She couldn't say Edda was wrong.

Actually, Edda was right.

She craved attention.

She craved her husband's attention and she also knew that she won't get it.

However, what can she do?

Her husband was the King.

Can she go against the king?

Isn't that akin to suicide?

No sane person would even consider that as an option.

Therefore, this question comes into Allura's mind,

“What am I supposed to do?”

You call me scaredy-cat; you say that I am afraid. I admit.

However, what other option do I even have?”

“Find what you want,” Nux answered.

“You crave attention? Find a man that will give you attention.”

Allura’s snickered, “And then what? Die along with that man in the crime of betraying the king?”

“Wouldn’t dying be a better option compared to living like a dull, pitiful object?”

Nux questioned with a smile.

“That may sound cool in a fantasy books, Nux. However, in reality, death is a lot scarier than you think.” Allura answered.

Truth be told, she wasn’t willing to die just because she was ‘bored’.

She lived a comfortable life.

Though she was treated like an object, she wasn’t a mistreated object.

She was treated as a trophy, placed wherever it was with no one bothering her.

Though her life was dull, it was still far better than dying.

“That is true. Dying is scary indeed.” Nux nodded in agreement as well.

“It is good that you realize it,” Allura muttered.

A wide smile then appeared on Nux’s face as he suggested,

“Then how about you find a strong man, a man who can defend you from the king AND give you all the attention you need?”

“Heh. You talk as if there are any men like that in this world.” Allura smiled wryly.

However, instead of answering, Nux just walked toward her with a smile.

Allura felt that something was wrong with that smile on his face, therefore, she stepped back.

However, she could not escape from his clutches, after 5-6 steps, her back now touched the wall, and she could not move anymore.

Nux had her cornered and as if keeping her from escaping, he placed his hand near her head and moved his face dangerously close to hers.

Allura’s heart which had barely calmed down started beating again.

“Try looking around, Allura. You will find a man that matches the description a lot sooner than you think.

A lot lot sooner.”

Chapter 161

“Try looking around, Allura. You will find a man that matches the description a lot sooner than you think.

A lot lot sooner.”

Nux brought his face close to her ear and whispered seductively.

“Actually, you do not even have to look around, just look where you are already looking and you will find that man soon~”

He continued.

“A-Are you perhaps t-talking about y-you?” Allura questioned with a red face. She wasn’t dumb, she could understand what he was implying...

He was saying something dangerous.

Very Dangerous.

Her emotions were in turmoil right now and this turmoil was a lot scarier than the last one.

“Bingo.” Nux smiled and nodded.

However, Allura still wasn’t sure yet.

In the end, Nux was still a Master Stage Cultivator.

How is he going to protect her?

Heck, he might even die since he dared to kidnap the king’s concubine.

She still didn’t know if he could protect himself, let alone protect her.

And Nux knew about her thoughts.

“Think about it, Allura~” And since he knew about them, he continued.

“Think about this situation a little more calmly.

I am someone who has the balls to kidnap the King’s concubine inside the capital city of the kingdom.

Do you really think I am crazy?

Do you think I would have survived in this world if I was this crazy?

Obviously, I have the strength to back me up.

Didn’t you see those Grand Master Stage assassins attacking your protectors?

They were my subordinates.

Do you think Grand Master Stage Cultivators would submit to a mere Master Stage Cultivator? Do you think that makes sense?” Nux questioned.

And as he spoke, Allura started thinking as well.

He was right.

If he is this bold, he must have the strength to back it up.

Plus, he had Grand Master Stage experts as his subordinates, not only that, there was that woman wearing black clothes as well.

From the way she stood, she was a lot stronger than all 4 of those Grand Master Stage Cultivators who were fighting there.

And most probably, she is Nux’s subordinate as well.

‘Heh. My lover is strong.’

‘As I said, my lover would protect me’

Suddenly, she recalled what Edda kept saying whenever she warned her to lower her voice or questioned if she isn't scared of the king.

'Was he the reason she was so confident?'

Allura started thinking even more.

She knew the woman called Edda, long before Nux did. Although they weren't close, she could deduce her character from the rumours and the few interactions she has had with him. At the very least, Edda wasn't a reckless woman.

She plans all her moves and is cautious as well.

She is not a woman who will just leave her safety in someone else's hand if she wasn't sure whether that man can protect her or not.

'Can I trust him...?' Allura thought inwardly, her eyes then fell on Nux's face that was dangerously close to hers and her heart started beating quickly again.

"So you are saying you are the man who is strong enough to protect me from the king and give me the attention that I crave?"

Suddenly, Allura became a lot calmer now.

Why?

'Fuck it...'

Because she had decided to let go.

Maybe she doesn't want to be a bored concubine anymore.

A smile appeared on Nux's face when he heard her question,

It seemed that Allura has decided to take the risk.

"Yes, that is what I am saying." He nodded.

“Then I have a question,” Allura muttered with a smile on her face. She was now looking back into Nux’s golden eyes, not with a shy and flustered look, but with a confident and playful look.

“What is it? Ask away.”

“How are you so sure that the attention I crave will be attention from a man like you?”

“Heehhh? Didn’t Edda tell you about me?” However, instead of answering, Nux asked another question in return.

And just with that question, Allura’s face turned red.

She doesn’t have to be a genius to know what Nux was referring to.

Edda said a lot of things about her lover.

However, what did she say the most?

‘My lover is very good in bed!’

She repeated it many fucking times.

“I-I am not talking a-about that!” Allura was quick to deny.

“Oh C’mon, Allura, we all know what sort of ‘attention’ you are craving for.”

“N-No! I am not craving anything like that. I just want someone who takes care of me, spends time with me, laughs and talks with m-”

“Yeah yeah yeah, you can continue that for as long as you want, however, the truth is that, Allura Skyfall, you,

You are horny.”

Nux declared and Allura’s face turned even redder.

If they were in an anime world right now, Nux would have seen smoke coming out of Allura's head.

“I-I am not Horn- Anh~”

Allura denied the accusation,

Or so she wanted to, however, before she could even complete her sentence,

Nux's hand moved and grabbed her little sister.

This sudden movement caught Allura off guard and she moaned due to surprise and... a bit... a teeny tiny bit of pleasure.

“See that? As I said, you are horny.

Which, I believe is a completely natural reaction.

I would become horny too if I don't have sex with my women for more than a week, let alone you, who has been suffering from lack of sex for years.”

The past Nux, who was a 30-year-old virgin, would have surely tried to kill this current Nux if he had heard what he said.

But well, god is kind to every poor soul. He got another chance, which he was making good use of.

He was going after the wife of a King.

“If you moan and react like that to even a small touch like this, then, Allura Skyfall,

You are horny. ”

“Y-You're wrong... you just caught me off guard!” Allura still wasn't willing to admit her defeat so quickly.

Nux smiled and shook his head, then, a playful glint shone in his eyes and he questioned.

“How about we play a game?”

Chapter 162

A/N: Same warning.

Read it later.

*Skeleton Face*

...

“How about we play a game?” Nux proposed with a playful smile on his face.

“What game?” Allura questioned.

“Hmmm, the rules are very simple...” Nux then grabbed Allura’s hand and walked towards another room.

“Come with me.”

“W-What about the food?” Allura questioned as she pointed at the dishes that were placed on the table.

“Hmm, we have much more important matters to deal with right now. Don’t worry though, we won’t waste the food, we will just distribute it to other people.” Nux muttered.

Allura nodded and followed Nux.

Nux then opened the door and Allura’s eyes widened.

The room was...

Different from what she imagined.

Remember, they were in a slum area, therefore, the rooms here weren't the best they could have.

This was one of those rare houses that had more than 1 room.

The walls of this room had some cracks, and signs of leakage could be seen around the corner, that was completely normal and wasn't out of Allura's expectations, however,

There was a completely clean and cosy-looking bed right in the middle of the room! And it took more than 80% of the whole space.

The contrast between the broken, paintless walls, bad-quality floor and all that with a comfortable, expensive-looking bed was shocking.

“W-What is this game you were talking about?” Allura questioned.

Looking at the bed, she had a feeling that the game won't be a good one at all.

Nux smiled.

A smile that Allura did not like at all.

Suddenly, a big clock appeared in Nux's hands.

He then placed the clock on the wall as he turned toward Allura and smiled even more.

“I call it, ‘Time Game.’”

“Time game?”

“Yes,”

Nux then walked towards Allura and continued.

“The rules are simple.

I can touch your body in whatever way I like; you just have to NOT moan for 1 minute.

You can do that easily, right?”

Allura frowned...

To not moan for 1 minute... that sounded simple enough...

There must be a catch right?

“If you win, I will personally help you find a man who is capable and loving.

However, if you lose and you let out a moan in less than 1 minute, the time will reset, not only that, even the time left would be added to it.

For example, if you moan after 40 seconds, then for the next round, you will have to control your moan for 1 minute 20 seconds.

Also, if you cum even once, no, that would be too easy for me, if you cum 2 times while playing this game,

The game will end and you, Allura Skyfall,

You will become mine.”

Nux announced and hearing his last line, Allura’s heart skipped a beat.

“Are the rules clear?” Nux questioned.

“A-Alright.” Allura nodded.

Actually, she felt that the game was too easy, she was actually hoping that Nux would increase the time so that he would have a better chance. Of course, if he fails, she might even moan out of her own w-

Ahem,

The game was too easy for her.

She would win for sure.

Then she would have the upper hand in this conversation.

“Alright, so the game begins... now.”

Nux announced and then, he walked towards Allura and grabbed her from behind.

Allura’s body was very soft, Nux tightened his hug around her and smelled her hair.

Her odour was fragrant as well.

“Mmmmmnnffff” Nux took a deep sniff and enjoyed her aroma.

“I hope I win this game~” He whispered into Allura’s ear, and then, his hand started to move.

His left hand moved towards her waist, and then it moved up and touched her soft breast.

The fingers of his right hand trailed down from her back, to her lower back, then her butt, her thighs and then her legs, from there, Nux grabbed her black gown and his hand returned to her thighs and then he moved towards Allura’s little sister.

Nux quickly noticed that Allura’s legs were trembling, he moved his eyes and observed her face and then, a smile appeared on his face.

Allura’s face was red, although her lips were sealed and she did not let out any sound or moan, she was breathing heavily.

Combined with her trembling body, Nux knew that she was on edge.

Thinking that, Nux smiled even more and his left hand started kneading her breast gently while the fingers of his right hand circled around her cave.

Suddenly, his index finger entered Allura's cave.

“Mmhm!” Allura's whole body jerked in pleasure, her eyes widened in surprise and a sound sneaked out of her mouth.

However, she did not moan.

She won't lose that easily.

But, things were so simple.

Nux's index finger moved, and Allura's body jerked in pleasure again.

Allura took a deep breath as she closed her eyes and lifted her head.

She was desperately trying to not moan.

She then glanced at the clock and her eyes widened in surprise,

Only 20 seconds had passed!

Only now did Allura realise.

This game was not simple at all!

It was unfair.

Unfair to her!

“Phhewwww” Suddenly, Nux blew hot air into Allura's ear and a jolt of weird pleasure rushed into her body.

At the same time, Nux pinched her right nipple and,

“Aanhhhh~”

She moaned.

She was distracted, first, she saw the time, then the weird thing Nux did near her ear! She was distracted by them, therefore, she wasn't able to focus and control her moan.

“20 seconds.”

Nux muttered as he released Allura's body and walked towards the clock.

Allura's body trembled, especially her little sister, she was feeling so good after so long but then suddenly, the pleasure was gone!

Allura's little sister twitched continuously, demanding the return of the fingers.

Allura, however, bit her lips and controlled herself.

She can't lose so easily!

She needed to fight back!

“You held back your moans for 20 seconds, Allura.

According to the rules, for the next round, you will have to hold out for 1 minute 40 seconds.

Are you prepared?”

Chapter 163

“You held back your moans for 20 seconds, Allura.

According to the rules, for the next round, you will have to hold out for 1 minute 40 seconds.

Are you prepared?”

Nux questioned.

“Yes, I am.” Allura nodded with a determined look on her face.

Nux smiled, he was just about to start the game when he noticed Allura’s body trembling, especially her legs.

His smile widened as another evil plan appeared in his mind.

“Are you sure you are ready?” He questioned.

“Of course I am!” Allura answered.

“Hmmm, but you don’t look very ready to me, I mean, you just moaned a few seconds ago, are you sure you want to start right away. I can allow you to rest for a while you know. That is perfectly okay with me.”

Nux smiled ‘gently’.

“I said I am ready! Start the game already!” Allura screamed in frustration.

Nux’s smile widened when he noticed her frustration.

His plan was working.

What was his plan?

Simple.

He wanted to waste time.

Allura's little sister has been craving for attention for a long time. Now that she finally got the attention she needed, she was happy, however, before she could even satisfy herself, the attention was gone.

Obviously, her little sister was angry and frustrated because of that, by wasting more time, Nux was doing nothing but adding on to that frus-

“You don't need to stand there for so long, I am fine. Start the game!”

Yes, her little sister was affecting Allura's judgment.

In simple words,

Allura was getting horny.

“Alright, Allura. Round to begins... now!”

Nux decided not to torture her anymore and announced the start of the next round.

The clock started clicking again and, soon, Nux reappeared behind Allura and hugged her body.

Allura's body trembled, and this gentle hug felt very calming and comfortable.

“Be careful not to moan, Allura~”

Nux whispered into Allura's ear.

A familiar jolt of pleasure ran through Allura's body, however, this time she was prepared.

She didn't moan.

Nux then tightened his hug around Allura's soft body, and again, his left hand kneaded her breasts and his right hand moved towards her little sister.

Then, Nux's forefinger entered her cave and Allura's body shuddered.

*Breaths*

Allura inhaled deeply as her back arched up and her ample chest rose up.

Nux, however, wasn't done yet.

His middle finger entered inside as well.

Then, the two fingers started kneading Allura's walls.

"Your breasts are amazingly soft, Allura~"

Nux told the obvious.

"..." Allura, however, didn't say anything.

She was trying not to open her mouth because she knew the moment she did it, she would moan.

"Your little sister is wet as well~"

Nux continued whispering into her ears shamelessly.

"Heh, look how your walls surrounded my fingers~ So cute~"

While he said all that, his fingers didn't stop exploring her cave.

Suddenly, Allura's body flinched.

"Oh? Is that a soft spot?" Nux questioned with a smile as he rubbed the same part again.

And again, Allura's body flinched.

"That is a soft spot indeed." Nux nodded to himself.

Then, he rubbed the same spot again and Allura's body trembled again.

Waves and waves of pleasure assaulted her body.

“Hmm, your body is too sensitive, Allura~” Nux commented with a small chuckle.

“...” Allura didn’t reply, however, from the way her legs were trembling, Nux knew that she was about to lose it.

He then remembered the sensitive point he has found and then his finger started exploring the rest of the unexplored cave.

Allura breathed heavily, the heavy waves of pleasure that were assaulting her body continuously calmed down a little, she then opened her eyes and glanced at the watch, however, she then heard Nux’s voice.

“You don’t have to worry about the time, Allura, there are still 1 minute and 10 seconds left. We can take it slowly at our own pace.”

Nux whispered into her ears.

And for some reason, after saying this, Nux removed his fingers out of her cave, leaving her little sister hanging again.

He was really acting like a demon right now.

“W-What are yo-”

Allura wanted to ask, however, before she could, Nux raised his right hand and showed it to Allura.

“Look what your little sister did. My whole hand is wet from your juices, it is as if I have washed my hands with water.” Nux whispered.

“And you said you were not horny?” he chuckled.

Allura’s face turned a little red and when she glanced at Nux’s hand, her little sister trembled even more and she released even more juice.

“T-Time...” Allura muttered.

“What?”

“Y-You are wasting t-time...” Allura stuttered.

“Don’t worry, I have a lot of time. I know what I am doing~” Nux smiled.

Then, he brought his right hand in front of his mouth and then,

He started licking his finger as he glanced at Allura playfully.

For some reason, this made Allura even hornier and her body trembled.

“I-I want a fair match... c-continue what you were doing...” Allura muttered.

Nux smiled and then he shook his head.

“Alright,” He nodded and then his right hand started moving back to her little sister, however, this time, he moved it a lot more slowly than before.

Started with her shoulder, then he kneaded her breasts, then his fingers trailed down to her thin waist and then,

Then it moved down towards her vagina slowly.

Allura’s body trembled, then, it suddenly stopped as Nux’s finger neared her little sister. She was waiting and welcoming Nux’s fingers.

However, rather than fingering her again, Nux grabbed her erect clitoris and,

*Squirt*

As if a switch was flipped,

Allura’s little sister released her juices uncontrollably and her body trembled.

“AAnnnhhhh~”

She came.

And she moaned at the same time.

However, this orgasm was a lot stronger than what she was used to, Allura's back arched up and her body lost all her strength, if it wasn't for Nux who was holding her, Allura would have fallen to the floor.

“Allura, I was thinking...”

Suddenly, Allura heard Nux's voice.

“Haaahh... hhaa... haahh...” She, however, didn't have the energy to reply, she was too busy catching her breath.

Nux understood that and continued with his question,

“How about we fuck this stupid game and move to the next, more pleasurable step?”

Chapter 164

A/N: You guys can read now.

All fine~

...

“How about we fuck this stupid game and move to the next, more pleasurable step?”

Suddenly, Allura’s brain stopped functioning.

Next Step?

More pleasurable step?

Allura wasn’t stupid; she knew exactly what Nux was talking about.

Her little sister started trembling again.

Even though she has just orgasmed a moment ago, it was still craving for more attention.

‘Am I really that horny?’ Allura questioned herself.

Actually, her little sister was reacting more strongly than normal.

Normally, once she comes, she will be fine for the next whole week.

However, now, let alone being fine for a month, her little sister was craving for more!

It was as if she didn’t want to let go of the opportunity!

“Or would you like to continue with this game?”

Allura was then brought out of her reverie when she heard Nux's voice again.

Her eyes then fell on Nux's face and seeing the gentle smile on his face, her heart started beating faster and her lower lips opened and closed continuously.

“W-We can skip the game...” Allura felt that her mouth was moving on her own.

She couldn't believe she was saying such stuff, especially to a man who was a lot younger than her.

Then, she saw Nux's smile widening.

For some reason, she felt a little happy that she agreed.

Nux then stepped forward and hugged her again.

His hug felt safe...

And calming...

Then, Nux lifted her into the air and carried her like a princess.

“Heh. I'll make sure you won't regret this decision, Allura~”

Allura smiled, she was proud of her decision as well.

And being carried like that filled her heart with some weird sort of satisfaction.

Nux then moved a little forward and then gently placed her on the bed.

All this time, Allura's gaze did not move away from Nux's eyes.

Then, Nux grabbed Allura's gown and he removed it smoothly, revealing her beautiful hourglass figure and her sexy purple-coloured bra and panty.

Combining it with Allura's red face, Nux was even more aroused.

Nux's hand then moved masterfully and soon,

**Click**

Allura's bra was removed as well, revealing her large but perfectly shaped and firm breasts with light pink nipples on the top.

"You are beautiful..." Nux complimented with a dazed look.

Allura's heart skipped a beat and her face turned even redder.

"Y-You undress a-as well... I-I will be embarrassed if I-I am the only one naked," Allura muttered in a mosquito-like voice.

For some reason, she was acting like a little girl now.

Nux smiled playfully,

"Alright." He then stood up and removed his skin-tight black-coloured clothes, revealing his perfectly lean and muscular body with perfect and strong-looking abs.

Allura gulped.

Nux was really too handsome.

However, that was not what she was surprised about...

She was surprised about another thing.

'I-Is that supposed to be this huge!?'

She exclaimed inwardly as she glanced at Nux's weapon.

Nux noticed where she was looking and smiled,

"Do you like what you see, Allura?"

Allura blushed and,

“I do...” She nodded.

“Oh? You are surprisingly honest huh, Allura”

It was only now that Allura noticed that Nux had started calling her Allura rather than Lady Allura, which, she actually liked.

Lady Allura was too formal.

With Allura, it feels that they were close to each other.

Darling Allura was better, to be honest.

However, she won't say that out loud.

“Alright, let's start, shall we?” Nux smiled as he placed his little brother in front of Allura's lower lips and started sliding his dick on her wet opening.

After he thought that the lubrication was enough, he inserted the head and then he bent down and moved his face close to Allura's.

“I am about to put it in~” He whispered softly.

Allura smiled and nodded.

“Do it.”

Nux's smile widened, he then moved his hips forward and entered her insides.

“Ugghhhh!!”

Nux groaned in pleasure.

Soft, too soft!

Allura's insides were amazingly soft. It was as if her walls were welcoming his cock with lots and lots of kisses.

It was just heavenly.

“AAhhhh~~”

Allura moaned in relief as well.

Her frustrations, her pent-up desires, they were all gone in one thrust.

She then grabbed Nux's head and sealed his lips with her own.

Nux's eyes widened in surprise, he didn't expect Allura, who has been so passive for such a long time to take the initiative and such a strong one at that!

How was it a strong initiative? Cause her tongue was already inside his mouth.

Searching for its prey.

And it didn't need long to find its prey.

Nux and Allura's tongues collided and started the fight.

Allura's hand didn't remain idle either, her right hand pushed Nux's head even close to hers while her left hand moved over all over his strong and muscular back.

Since she was so strong and active, Nux thought that he shouldn't waste too much time either.

He pulled back his hips, before moving them forward in one go, this time, it was a lot faster than before.

“MMhhffmmmm~~”

Allura released a muffled moan and her body lost all her strength in one thrust.

Nux then broke the kiss as he stood up and smirked at her.

“Heh. Prepare yourself.”

Saying that, he moved his hips again and soon, his speed increased.

*Pah* *Pah* *Pah*

“Annhh~ Annhh~~ ANhhh~~”

Allura grabbed the bedsheets with all her strength. She felt like her soul would be sucked out since the pleasure she was feeling was so out of this world.

With each thrust, her body felt weaker and weaker, in the end, she didn't have any strength left at all.

The only thing she could do was moan.

And she was doing that in a very lewd way.

Her face was red, her eyes were rolled back and only the white part of the eyes was showing, there was a silly smile on her face and her tongue was out in the open as well.

The refined and noble Lady Allura had completely disappeared and was replaced by a perverted woman who was going crazy due to the immense pleasure she was feeling.

‘That man was not even close to this!’

A sudden thought appeared in her mind, however, soon, it disappeared.

She was busier dealing with the pleasure.

This was the only thought in her mind right now while she continued to moan in ecstasy.

Suddenly, Nux grabbed her right leg and placed it on his shoulder.

Then, he moved a little forward, stretching Allura's legs to the limit and then, he rammed his cock inside.

“AANnhhhhh!!”

Allura's eyes widened in surprise as an incomparably intense bolt of pleasure rushed into her body.

“That was good huh?” Nux questioned.

However, in answer, he only received a weird response where Allura moved her head in random directions.

Actually, she was trying to nod, however, she spared too little effort on it and once it didn't turn out what she expected, she just didn't care.

He would understand.

That was her thought.

And she was right, a smile appeared on Nux's face as he pulled his cock and rammed it inside her body again.

“AAANNnhhhhhhh!!”

Nux's hand then moved towards Allura's right breast and as soon as he grabbed it, her walls tightened to a scary extent and,

“Uggghhhhhhh!!”

Nux was forced to cum.

Allura wasn't any better either, as Nux released his juice inside her body, her walls tightened even more and then,

*Squirt*

She came as well.

‘That was good...’ Allura muttered inwardly and a satisfied and tired sigh escaped her mouth.

‘W-What the hell happened?’

Nux, however, wasn’t as calm as her.

He still did not understand the reason behind that sudden tightness.

However, before he could think more about it, he heard Allura’s confused voice.

“W-What is this weird energy that entered my body...? Why do I feel stronger...?”

Nux’s golden eyes shined and,

[Name: Allura Skyfall]

[Age: 47 ]

[Mana Cultivation: Master.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal. ]

[Race: Human ]

[Occupation: Concubine Of the King Of Skyfall kingdom]

[STM: 40 → 41]

[INT: 57 → 58]

[DEF: 36 → 37]

...

Allura's information appeared in front of his eyes.

'She levelled up, huh...'

"Nux?"

Nux came out of his reverie as Allura called him again,

"Don't you feel that normal cultivation is too boring?" Suddenly, Nux questioned.

"I do find it tedious..." Allura nodded.

Nux's smile grew and he answered,

"You don't have to cultivate that way from now on,

The way I cultivate is a lot more interesting~"

"The way yo-" Allura wanted to question, however,

*Bang* *Bang* *Bang***

Someone knocked on the door violently and Allura and Nux heard a voice.

“We are the Royal Soldiers! Open the door, or we will break it!”

Chapter 165

“We are the Royal Soldiers! Open the door, or we will break it!”

“Why are the royal soldiers here!?” Allura questioned in panic as her eyes widened in fear.

Nux narrowed his eyes well.

How did that happen?

Did the king learn that he kidnapped his concubine?

But how?

The only possible way for that to happen is that Allura’s protectors defeat Thyra, Two and Three and then rush towards the Palace.

But even then, how did they know he was here?

Nux frowned.

He was worried.

He was worried about Thyra.

If Thyra lost, then why didn’t she inform him?

Is she safe?

Suddenly, Nux started panicking as well.

He needs to know what happened to Thyra.

He has to escape.

It isn't really difficult to do so if he uses his Conceal, however, Allura would be left alone.

And although he can store the bed and table in his storage ring, the smell in this room would be enough for the soldiers to know what had happened.

Allura would be executed if the king learned that she had cheated on him.

Nux then glanced at Allura and started thinking.

Allura was important,

But Thyra was at risk as well.

Who should he choose?

“Nux.”

Suddenly, Allura called out.

Nux then glanced at her and saw her blue eyes brimming with determination.

“Let's go out and fight together. I am a Master Stage Cultivator as well, if we try really hard, I think we can escape. If not...

We will die together while fighting our enemies.”

“Huh? Why would you do that? You can escape. I will hold them back and buy you time.”

A small smile appeared on Allura's face as she replied,

“I am not an attention-seeking whore, Nux.

I am a faithful woman, you stepped forward and took my hand, you promised to give me the attention I crave, I won't betray you when it actually counts.

I'll be with you even if it means we die together." The determination in her eyes did not fade away.

"..." Nux stayed silent as he glanced at Allura.

Then, a small smile appeared on his face and he commented.

"The king really missed out on an amazing woman, huh?"

"Heh. Isn't that good for us? This allowed us to meet each other." Allura smiled as well.

Then, she continued,

"Let's fight our way out, Nux.

I promise, even if we die, I will find you in the afterlife and we will spend the rest of our time together."

"Hahaha~ Why are you acting like this is the end of the world?" Suddenly, Nux laughed out loud.

"Huh?" Allura frowned.

Has he gone mad from the pressure?

That was her thoughts, however, the reality was completely opposite.

He had calmed down now.

Thyra or Allura?

That was a stupid question.

He was a greedy man.

He will choose both!

Suddenly, Nux's expression turned serious as he questioned,

“Allura Skyfall, are you willing to be my woman with all your heart?”

“Huh?”

“Answer the question,”

“Y-Yes I am willing.”

Though she was confused, Allura still nodded, then, she felt another weird energy entering her body and she frowned even more.

“There is an ability called [Conceal]. Activate it and run away, I will take care of these soldiers.”

“Huh? W-What do you mean?”

“Use the Ability and run away. I know it’s confusing but I am sure you will figure it out.

You know how to use the ability, you just have to trust your instincts.” Nux instructed.

“I-I won’t let you sacrifice yourself!”

“Haah? Who the hell is sacrificing himself? It’s those soldiers who will die!” Nux retorted.

“I wo-”

“Allura, we don’t have time, just trust me.” Nux tried to explain, however, he soon realized that it will only waste more time.

“Alright, let’s do this, you can run away and hide somewhere. If you see that I am losing, you come and save me, okay?”

“O-Okay!”

Allura nodded.

She then thought about it and somehow, she activated [Conceal].

It was as if she has been using this ability since she was a child.

“Alright, I’ll leave, but I will be watching,” Allura muttered.

Nux nodded.

Allura then left through the window and Nux walked towards the door.

*Bang* *Bang* *Bang*

“Open the door or we will break it!”

Nux then heard the same voice again, however this time, he frowned.

What the hell were these soldiers doing for so long?

Were they waiting for him and Allura to finish and formulate their plan?

Where are they? In a novel?

In what world does that happen?

Nux then activated his [Sense] and soon, a smile appeared on his face and at the same time, he sighed in relief.

He then shook his head as he walked forward and opened the door.

3 soldiers wearing Golden colour armour that had Skyfall Kingdom’s crest on it were standing in front of him.

The three of them had covered their faces and when his eyes met Nux’s, the one who was banging the door turned silent.

“Took you long enough! Why didn’t you open the door when you were ordered to!? What were you doing!?” The soldier in the middle questioned in a hoarse voice.

Nux then raised his hand and answered,

“Nothing... I wasn't doing anything...”

“Step aside! We want to enter and search your house. We suspect that you have kidnapped the Royal Concubine, Allura Skyfall!”

“Are you sure you want to enter?” Suddenly, Nux questioned.

“Huh!? What do you mean? Are you planning to go against us?”

Nux, however, ignored the person in the middle and turned toward the other two.

“Are you sure you want to enter my house? You might get punished for not respecting the privacy of the citizen of the Skyfall kingdom.”

The two soldiers stopped.

They felt like Nux's words have other meanings behind them.

Soon, their eyes widened in surprise and they stepped back.

‘Master Nux, it was all Miss One's plan, we were only following her orders.’

Suddenly, Nux heard two's voice in his head and he smiled.

‘Where are you?’ Nux questioned.

One of the two soldiers lifted his feet a little.

‘The left one?’ Nux questioned.

‘Yes, Master Nux.’

‘Who is Thyra?’

‘The one in the middle.’ Two answered.

‘As I expected.’ Nux’s smile widened.

“Who do you think you are!?! Do you think we will care about your privacy? Step aside, else you won’t be able to handle the consequences.”

The soldier in the middle shouted.

“Tsk Tsk, bad soldiers need to be punished,” Nux commented, he then pointed at the soldier in the middle and announced.

“Especially soldiers like you, Thyra Cruse!”

Chapter 166

“Especially soldiers like you, Thyra Cruse!”

“W-What are you talking about? A-Are you out of your mind?” The soldier in the middle questioned back.

“How long are you going to act, huh?” Nux questioned.

“H-How did you know?” The soldier retorted in a rather feminine voice.

Yes, Thyra decided to give up.

She knew that somehow, Nux realized it was her.

“Tsk Tsk, you think I won’t know if my woman is standing right in front of me? Your Icy blue eyes are as clear as a day; I would be a fool if I can’t recognize something like that!” Nux replied.

‘What a perfect liar...’ Two thought inwardly as he shook his head and sighed inwardly.

‘Recognize my ass, you asked me who and where she was...’

That was what he thought, however, Nux already knew about this as soon as he used [Sense].

Why did he ask Two then?

Well, he just did.

No apparent reason.

“Alright that’s enough, remove that mask and that weird armour you are wearing.” Nux then waved his hand and muttered.

Thyra nodded as she sighed...

She really wanted to scare this man...

But she totally forgot about [Sense].

Even though she uses that ability very often.

Sigh, shameful indeed.

Well, whatever, at least she achieved her goal.

Thinking that, Thyra smiled a little and removed her mask and the armour.

...

“Huh? What are they doing?” Allura, who was watching everything from afar tilted her head in confusion.

Weren't they supposed to fight?

What are they talking about?

Isn't the talk going on for too long?

Were the Royal Soldiers always so chatty?

Then, Allura saw the soldier in the middle removing his armour, no, her armour.

After she removed her armour, Allura noticed that she was a woman.

Then, she saw a smile appearing on Nux's face.

Something was weird about this situation.

Allura frowned.

However, she decided to stay here and hide.

It might all be Nux's plan, she will just wait patiently and see how it goes. If Nux is in trouble, she will rush forward to help him immediately!

...

"So? Why are you here?" Nux questioned.

"It was Miss One, Master Nux. She was the one who ordered us to come here and act like Royal soldiers."

Two revealed everything.

"Two!" Thyra shouted.

"Miss One, you are Master Nux's woman now, so you are safe from that torturous pain, I am not."

Two spoke honestly.

"You might get away if you play pranks on Master Nux, however, a servant like me can't do something like that. I have to be loyal to Master Nux"

"Yes, Two is right, we are not like you, Miss One. We are not Master Nux's woman" Three nodded as well, and her voice was filled with...

Jealousy?

Naahh, that's not possible.

Thyra pouted.

Nux just smiled as he walked toward Thyra and questioned,

"Why are you here?"

"N-Nothing." Thyra avoided his gaze and did not reply.

"Wait..." suddenly, Nux realized something and his eyes widened in realization, then, a hateful smirk appeared on his face and he questioned,

“Were you jealous?”

“N-No! What would I be jealous of?”

“Hehe~ You are definitely jealous~” Nux’s smile widened.

“No, I was not jealous!” Thyra denied the accusation with all her might.

“Then why are you here?”

“I was just here to check on you.”

“Hmm? Check on what exactly? Wait... were you thinking of peeking again?”

“NO!” Thyra denied as she shook her head repeatedly.

She really did not want to peek!

Umm... she won’t reject it if Nux asks her to, however, she wasn’t here to peek.

She really wasn’t!

Trust her.

“Then why are you here?”

“As I said, I was here to check on you.

You and Allura can’t stay here for long. Allura needs to return to the Royal Palace, else the people in the Royal Palace will be suspicious.” Thyra answered and Nux nodded.

Of course, he didn’t believe her one bit.

He knew she was jealous.

However, he liked that.

He liked a jealous Thyra.

Also, Thyra was right, Allura can't stay here for long.

“Have you captured the two protectors?” Nux questioned.

“Of course I have. It was as easy as breathing for someone like me.” Thyra smiled as she raised her head in pride.

“Yeah yeah, you did a good job, My lovely assassin” Nux smiled as he patted her head.

“Also,” Thyra didn't deny the pats, and continued,

“I think controlling those old men would be a lot easier for you.”

...

On the other side, Allura frowned even more when she saw Nux walking toward the female soldier.

She was very familiar with the smile that Nux had on his face.

It definitely did not look like they were about to fight.

Something was wrong.

Soon, Allura's eyes widened in surprise when she recognized the black clothes the girl was wearing.

‘She is one of the assassins who attacked us! She's is Nux's subordinate!’

Allura realized but then, she frowned.

‘But why did they act like they were Royal Soldiers?’

She then noticed that Nux was moving unreasonably close to his subordinate. She realized she couldn't stay here anymore.

‘I need to go there.’

Thinking that, Allura walked out of her hiding spot and rushed towards Nux and the others.

...

“Nux, who are they?” Allura questioned as she walked toward Nux and Thyra.

“Oh, Allura, you are here.” Nux smiled, he then pointed at Thyra and muttered,

“Allow me to introduce you to my woman, Thyra Cruse.”

Nux then turned towards Thyra and repeated,

“Thyra, as you already know, she is Allura Skyfall, my woman.”

Thyra nodded, she then turned her head towards Allura and muttered,

“I am Thyra, I am Nux’s woman, and your senior.”

Allura frowned, she could feel an unsafe aura that was leaking out of Thyra.

No, it was not a killing intent, it was more like superiority, Allura knew that Thyra was trying to show her superiority.

She was trying to tell her that she was a better woman for Nux than her.

However, how can Allura take that lying down?

She won’t lose, especially when it’s Nux they are fighting for.

She then scanned Thyra’s body and soon, a disdainful smirk appeared on her face as she raised her chest and muttered,

“I have bigger breasts.”

Chapter 167

“I have bigger breasts.”

Thyra’s mouth twitched as she glanced at Allura who was looking at her with a disdainful smile on her face and as if trying to tease her more, her breasts jiggled as well.

*Boing* *Boing*

A vein popped out on Thyra’s face however, soon, she controlled herself and replied.

“Heh. They are nothing but unnecessary mounds of flesh that will hinder your movement when you fight.”

“Huh? Fight? Where did that come from?” Allura frowned and tilted her head in confusion.

“Yes, Fight. Have you heard of something like that before? I guess you haven’t. How come a weakling like you knows how to fight others?”

Hmph! You are only a hindrance who wants to be protected for the rest of her life.

Tsk Tsk, how can you ever help Nux with that pathetic strength of yours?

Not to mention those useless mounds of Flesh you carry.”

Thyra spat out and Allura turned silent.

This was the first clash between Allura and Thyra,

And it was Thyra’s complete victory.

However, Thyra was ruthless.

She didn't stop here and continued,

“In the end, big breasts or not, all that matters is that you are strong. If you are, you can help you man, just like how I am helping Nux.”

Saying that, Thyra grabbed Nux's hand and walked towards another hut.

Nux wanted to say something to cheer up Allura, however, he was now an experienced man.

He knows that you should not step between women's fights.

That is a foolish move.

Therefore, he did not say anything and just followed Thyra.

Of course, Two, Three and Allura followed behind as well.

The 5 of them then entered the hut and Allura's eyes widened in surprise when she saw her two protectors lying on the floor, unconscious and bruised.

She then turned her head towards Thyra and thought inwardly, 'Did she do it? Did she defeat two Grand Master Stage Cultivators alone? No, that's not it... those other two assassins must have helped her.'

“Thyra, you said before that subduing these two would be a lot easier and shorter process, why do you say that?” Nux questioned.

A bottle of water appeared in Thyra's head and,

*Splash*

She splashed the water on their faces.

“H-Huh?”

“W-What? W-Where am I?”

The two protectors then woke up and looked around, soon, their memories started to return and their eyes widened.

“Lady Allura was kidnapped!”

“Run away! There is no use fighting these peop- Aaggghhh!”

“Shut up!”

Thyra then kicked the protector named Bruce and shouted.

Bruce and William then finally realized where they were and their eyes widened when they glanced at the monster who defeated them.

“Y-You... who are you? How can you be so strong!?”

William questioned in fright as he glanced at Thyra.

“Do you not understand simple words? I said Shut. Up.”

Thyra raised her voice and William’s body trembled and he obediently shut his mouth.

‘Why does he look so scared?’ Allura thought inwardly and frowned.

“As soon as you took away Allura, they stopped fighting and tried to run away.” Thyra turned towards Nux and answered.

“Hahaha~ Poor them, the one they were facing was you.” Nux smiled.

A small smile appeared on Thyra’s face as well.

She liked being praised by Nux.

“So? Were they trying to inform the palace?” Nux questioned.

“Inform the palace? Heh.” Thyra smiled disdainfully.

“They are not that loyal, Nux. They were trying to run away. In their mind, they had already abandoned Allura.”

Thyra muttered as she glanced at Allura.

However, Allura didn't look very surprised. It was as if she had expected that.

Nux, however, was different; he frowned, “Hmm? Aren't they supposed to protect Allura? Why would they run away? At the very least, they should inform the kingdom, no?”

“They won't.” This time, Allura answered and then she continued.

“As soon as they say that they failed to protect the concubine, the chances are that the king would kill them as a punishment. No sane person would risk their life to do something so thankless.”

Thyra glanced at Allura and nodded as she turned back to Nux,

“Not everyone is loyal enough to give up their life for the Kingdom, Nux.

Especially someone like them who came from a normal background, they work as protectors because of the money, they won't risk their life for it.”

“I understand.”

Nux nodded in understanding.

However, the two people Nux, Thyra and Allura were talking about, had their eyes opened wide in shock.

“L-Lady Allura? W-Why are you with them?” William questioned in shock.

“Wait... You! Aren't you that young man who met Lady Allura a few days ago!?” Bruce who didn't like Nux's attitude recognized him and widened his eyes.

“Oh, you remember.” Nux smiled.

“Why did you kidnap Lady Allura!?” Bruce questioned.

“And Lady Allura, why are you with them? Are they threatening you!?”
Then he turned toward Allura and questioned.

“Huh? So what if we are, what can you do?” Suddenly, Thyra questioned and the two protectors turned silent.

‘The two of them are really scared of her huh...’ Allura thought inwardly.

Thyra then walked towards William and stepped on his chest as she bent down.

“Listen here, worm.

This is not a place for you to question.

Know your place.

What is your Lady Allura doing here?

You do not need to know that, you just need to shut that mouth of yours and listen to what we say, do you understand?”

“Y-Yes.” William nodded and he bowed his head.

Although his hands and legs weren’t tied and he can move just fine, he didn’t dare to go against Thyra.

This woman defeated both of them alone, and that too within 5 seconds.

She was simply a monster.

Going against her was no different than courting death.

Thyra then turned towards Nux and nodded.

Nux nodded back, and then, a small smile appeared on his face as he questioned,

“So, Williams and Bruce, are you willing to be my Slaves?”

Chapter 168

“Ughhh... I have to go back to the Royal Palace now...” Allura groaned in displeasure.

“Heeeeh? Did our first time feel so good that you don’t want to return any more?” Nux smiled playfully and questioned.

“N-No. That’s not it.”

Allura wasn’t honest.

Nux’s smile widened even more as he questioned, “Oh? Then why do you don’t want to return to the Royal Palace?”

“T-That’s because that place is boring...”

“Oh really? But I heard that the Royal Palace is the most interesting place in the whole world right now.”

“Huh? What are you talking about?” Allura questioned with a frown.

This time, she was actually confused.

“Hmm? Aren’t the princes fighting each other for the throne? Won’t that make things around the Royal Palace interesting?” Nux questioned.

Then, a wry smile appeared on Allura’s face and she sighed,

“I thought the same thing as well...”

I was very excited when I learned about the Princes’ fight for the throne, I thought I could finally get the entertainment I have been craving for, however...”

Allura paused.

“However what?” Nux questioned.

“However, rather than getting excited, things have gotten a lot more tense and boring now.” Allura sighed in disappointment.

She couldn’t understand how they are fighting for the throne. When has a fight for the throne gone without some drama?

What kind of stupid politics were the princes playing that there is no drama at all?

Are they idiots?

Create some drama for her to enjoy, damn it!

“What do you mean?” Nux, however, did not understand what she meant.

“Normally, you can always find something interesting revolving around the price, for interesting, a prince slapped the other, a prince was found having an affair with a maid, a prince fell from the stairs and was laughed at by others, or something like that.

You can always hear about something like that once every year or two.

However, after the political war between the princes started, every prince is more cautious and mindful of his actions and images, making things a lot more silent and boring.

And I do not like this at all.”

Allura complained with a wronged face.

Nux nodded in understanding.

“Hmmm, that does sound boring indeed.”

“Right? Stupid princes!” Allura cursed.

“Then to make things interesting, how about we spread a rumour?”
Suddenly, Nux suggested.

“Heeh? What rumour?” Allura asked with an excited look on her face.

“The 7th Concubine of the Skyfall Kingdom, Concubine Allura Skyfall, has an affair with an unknown young man.

How about it?

That would create a spark, won't it?”

Nux questioned with a playful smile.

Allura's smile froze then, a minute later, she came out of her reverie and questioned,

“I don't want to make things interesting at the cost of my own life, Nux.”

“Hahaha~” Nux laughed out.

“Then go back to the royal palace. If you are late, someone will be suspicious, there are lots of eyes in the Royal Palace.”

“Oh? How do you know that?” Allura questioned.

“There's a certain perverted maid in there who told me that.” Nux smiled.

Allura smiled as well.

She knew perfectly well who this perverted maid was.

Nux then turned towards the two men kneeling on the ground and ordered.

“If anyone asks you where you all were, tell them that you didn't go anywhere specific and just moved around the town in a carriage. Do you understand?”

“Yes, Master Nux.” The two men nodded and bowed.

After the pain they went through a few minutes ago, they would not dare to go against this man in front of them.

That woman who defeated them alone in under 5 seconds was scary, however, she was nowhere close to this monster and that weird magic of his.

That magic kept tabs on even their thoughts!

Just the thought of betraying this man would activate an excruciating pain that was worse than any torture.

Too scary.

“Remember, protect Allura with your life. Do not do things half-heartedly because trust me, if something happened to her, death will only be a luxury.” Nux threatened.

Bruce’s and William’s body trembled in fear and they nodded.

Allura, who watched the scene turned silent as well.

She has witnessed that weird magic and the agonizing pain as well.

To be honest, it was scary.

However, when she realized why Nux did it, she couldn’t help but smile inwardly.

She then walked towards Nux and,

Sealed his lips.

Nux was taken aback however, soon, he came out of his reverie and kissed back as he grabbed her back and pulled her soft body close to his.

After a minute-long kiss, their lips parted and Allura smiled.

“I will be leaving now, okay? Don’t miss me too much.”

“Just leave, don’t waste our time. We have other, far more important things to do.” This time, Thyra was the one who answered.

She has been standing aside for a long time, waiting for the woman to go, however, it has been 5 minutes and the woman was still there.

Thyra’s patience was already running out.

“Tsk Tsk, I am going, okay. Have some patience, woman.” Allura snorted as she glanced at Thyra.

Then, she walked towards her carriage and after winking at Nux, she moved inside and her carriage left.

“I do not like her at all.”

After Allura met, Thyra commented.

“Oh? Is that because she said you have small breasts?” Nux questioned as his eyes gleamed with interest.

“Huh? Of course not! Also, she was wrong, my breasts are not small, it’s hers that are unnecessarily huge.” Thyra replied with a straight.

“You really are daring, aren’t you?” Suddenly, Nux questioned.

He had a feeling that if he didn’t change the topic, something bad would happen.

“Huh? What do you mean?” Thyra questioned with a frown.

“You dared to fool me and ruin the fun I was having, you are really daring, huh?” Nux repeated as he glanced at Thyra and his golden eyes shined.

“H-How did I ruin your fun?” Thyra acted ignorantly.

“Don’t bother, Thyra Cruse,” Nux muttered.

Then, a wicked smile appeared on his face,

“You won’t get away without any punishment.”

Chapter 169

“You won’t get away without any punishment”

Nux muttered with a wicked smile on his face.

“P-Punishment?” Thyra stuttered.

“Yes,” Nux smiled, he then walked towards Thyra and pulled her close to himself.

His face was so close to Thyra that the woman could feel his breath on her skin.

“And your punishment will be that you can’t deny me for the rest of the day, do you accept it?” Nux whispered softly and for some reason, Thyra’s heart skipped a beat.

However, she wasn’t an innocent Thyra like she was before, now, she could resist Nux’s charm.

“W-What if I don’t listen to you?” She questioned back bravely.

“Hmm? Well, if you don’t then you don’t. I can’t really force you, can I?” Suddenly, Nux shrugged and released Thyra from his grasp.

“Huh?” Thyra frowned.

Was it that easy?

What?

Did she win?

But why doesn’t she feel happy?

No, screw happy, she was now... disappointed?

What is happening?

Thyra couldn't understand this at all.

However, suddenly, Nux grabbed her again, and then, bringing his face very very close to her, he whispered.

“However, I will say,

If you don't listen to what I say, you will miss out on something so amazing and pleasurable that you might regret it for your whole life.”

“...”

Thyra's heart skipped another beat and her little sister twitched.

Fuck winning or losing.

Pleasure is more important and,

When it comes to pleasure, Nux never lies.

“I-I will listen to you then...” Thyra muttered in a mosquito-like voice and a red face.

She was embarrassed.

A smile appeared on Nux's face as she gave a light peck on Thyra's lips.

“Good girl”

A small smile appeared on Thyra's face, “mm”

Two and Three, who were watching everything couldn't help but widen their eyes in surprise.

Are you sure she was the cold and collected Miss One?

Why does she look like a teenager in love?

‘S-She’s completely charmed by him...’ Two couldn’t help but think.

As for Three...

Well, she was looking at everything as she gritted her teeth.

“Miss One... How lucky you are... Ughhhh!” She muttered.

“Oi oi, your jealousy is leaking out...” Two couldn’t help but mutter as he glanced at Three.

However, it was as if the woman didn’t listen to him at all.

She just continued watching everything as her eyes gleamed with envy.

...

“Alright, you two can go,” Suddenly, Nux turned towards Two and Three and ordered.

“As you say, Master Nux.” Two nodded, however, Three couldn’t control herself and questioned,

“W-What about you two, Master Nux?”

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face as he glanced at Thyra for a moment before turning back to Three,

“Thyra needs to be punished.”

Thyra’s face turned red in embarrassment.

She looked incredibly cute right now.

“O-Oh... I understand...” Three nodded then, she turned around and walked away. Two followed her and left as well.

Nux then turned towards Thyra and ordered,

“You, come with me.”

Thyra nodded, right now, she was being punished.

She has to do whatever Nu- her master said.

The two of them then walked into the room where Allura and Nux spend a blissful time.

Since the window was opened, the room was now fresh again.

Nux then walked inside the room, Thyra followed in, then, with a wicked smile on his face,

Nux ordered.

“Thyra Cruse, get on all your fours.”

A familiar, a very familiar order.

However, this time, Thyra’s body wasn’t being controlled.

Thyra’s whole body trembled as she recalled those memories, her heart and mind were now confused.

Were those good memories or were those bad ones?

She didn’t know.

She was forced against her will, which is certainly bad, however, she met Nux that day... so it couldn’t exactly be called bad either.

It was rather lucky.

Ughh... this was confusing.

“Thyra Cruse, get on all your fours.”

Nux ordered again.

Thyra's body trembled, and then, she fell on her knees.

“Good, now come here. On all your fours, of course.” Nux smiled and ordered again.

Thyra did as she was told and crawled towards Nux.

“Now lower my pants with your mouth”

Thyra buried her face in Nux's crotch and tried to lower his pants with her mouth.

A few more tries later, she succeeded and a 6-inch half-erect rod popped out.

“What a filthy thing,”

Thyra commented with a smile on her face.

“Oh?” A smile appeared on Nux's face as well.

Thyra was playing her role as well.

“Is that so? Then start licking this filthy thing,”

Nux ordered in a strict tone and Thyra opened her mouth.

This past week, Nux has never asked her for a boob job or blow job, there were a few reasons, but the main reason was that Nux was a little scared.

He feared that it would affect Thyra.

But after a week, he was now sure.

Thyra was a strong girl.

And it was time to take their relationship a step closer.

Without any insecurities.

Thyra's tongue popped out and Nux placed his dick on her tongue.

Thyra then started licking his dick, from the head to the shaft and even the balls, she licked everything without any orders.

She did it on her own.

Nux patted her head as if rewarding her and then, he ordered,

“Now put it inside your mouth.”

Thyra nodded, and then, she opened her mouth and swallowed Nux's dick.

“Oohhhhhh!!” Nux groaned in pleasure.

Thyra's mouth was warm and it felt way too good~

And this wasn't over yet.

As if she recalled what Nux ordered the first time, her body moved on her own and she started sucking.

Her cheeks sunk inwardly while her tongue moved inside her mouth, licking the whole thing like before.

“Oohhhhhhhh!! This is too goodd~~”

Nux groaned in pleasure, his legs started trembling, that was how good it felt.

Thyra smiled inwardly when she realized her method was working, then, she initiated the last step and started moving her head.

“Aaaggghhhhh~~”

Nux moaned out loud as he grabbed Thyra's head for support while the girl moved her head up and down as slurping sounds echoed inside the room.

*Slurp* *Slurp* *Slurp*

“Ugghhh! I can’t take it anymore!!”

Chapter 170

“Ugghhh! I can’t take it anymore!!”

Nux groaned in pleasure as he then grabbed Thyra’s head and started thrusting his hips.

“!!!”

Thyra’s eyes widened in surprise, this was too deep!

Nux’s dick had entered her throat, she couldn’t breathe!

“Ugghhh! So tight!” Nux groaned in pleasure, in the end, he couldn’t control him anymore and,

“I am cumminnggggg!”

He thrust his dick inside Thyra’s mouth and came directly inside her throat.

Then, he pulled out his dick and breathed heavily.

*Cough* *Cough* *Cough*

Thyra coughed as tears began to well up in the corner of her eyes.

Nux finally came out of his reverie and his eyes widened in surprise.

“A-Are you okay?” He questioned in worry.

He couldn’t believe he lost control again.

He was cursing himself inwardly.

“I-Is that it?”

Suddenly, Thyra questioned inaudibly.

“What did you say?”

Thyra then lifted her head as she smiled provocatively,

“Is the punishment over?”

Then, a small smile appeared on Nux’s face as he chuckled,

“Heh. You are dreaming if you think this is over.”

He then glanced at his dick, Thyra followed his gaze and noticed that Nux’s little brother was yet to settle down.

Nux then stood up as he walked towards the bed and lay down.

“You will be the one working today, Thyra.” He smiled.

A small blush appeared on Thyra’s face as she nodded.

Her hands then moved as she started removing her skin-tight assassin clothes, revealing her beautiful body slowly.

Nux knew that she wasn’t doing it purposefully, however, when he saw her removing her clothes like that, he couldn’t help but get even hornier.

A cold female assassin removing her clothes with a blush on her face, if this scene didn’t excite any men,

I don’t know what will.

Soon, Thyra was standing in front of Nux, completely naked and with a small blush on her face.

*Gulp*

Nux gulped.

Thyra then walked towards him and then she started removing his clothes as well.

Thyra's blush deepened as she felt Nux's strong abs with her hand. Then, her hands moved to his rod that was standing tall, jiggling up and down as if screaming for attention.

“Oohh~”

Nux felt a weird jolt of pleasure coursing through his body when Thyra held his little brother.

Then, Thyra started moving her hand up and down and started observing Nux's expression.

Soon, a small smile appeared on her face.

This was interesting.

She noticed that a more interesting expression appears on Nux's face when she changes her speed periodically.

This was the first time she was in the control and she liked that feeling,

However,

“This is your punishment, you are not allowed to play around.” She then heard Nux's voice.

“W-What do I do?” Thyra questioned.

“Insert it in your pussy.” Nux ordered.

Thyra then sat in a cowgirl position and for some reason, Nux's heart skipped a beat.

Thyra, of course, was oblivious to it.

She was focused on accurately placing Nux's little brother in front of her opening.

Once she was sure, she lowered her body and,

“Uuugghhhh!!” Nux groaned in pleasure.

Thyra’s insides were as tight as ever.

He won’t ever get used to this.

“Start moving.” After enjoying the tightness, he ordered.

Thyra nodded and then, she lifted her body and then lowered it again.

“Ugghhh!”

As she heard Nux’s groan, a smile appeared on Thyra’s face and soon, she increased her speed.

*Pah* *pah* *Pah*

Sounds of flesh meeting with flesh echoed inside the room.

“Oohhh~~ This is gooodd~~” Nux moaned in pleasure.

Thyra smiled even more and increased her speed again.

“Ugghhhhh!!”

Combined with her excellent tightness, Nux was on edge, however, he won’t cum that easily.

Thyra knew that, therefore, she increased her speed again.

She wanted him to cum, as soon as possible.

Nux understood her thoughts, then, a smile appeared on his face.

“ANnhhh!!”

Suddenly, just when Thyra lowered her hips, Nux pushed his hips upward, Thyra’s womb and Nux’s little brother’s head collided and a big jolt of pleasure assaulted Thyra’s body.

“ANhhh!”

However, Nux wasn't done yet, he pushed his dick again and continued doing it again and again and again.

“Haahh... hahhh... haahhh...”

As waves and waves of pleasure assaulted Thyra's body, her body turned weak and then,

Nux ordered with an evil smile on his face.

If one compares, his smile would really match the king of hell.

He looked like a devil incarnate.

Of course, since it was her punishment, Thyra didn't deny his order and even though she was tired... she moved.

However, now, her pace was a lot slower than before.

Nux then placed both his hands behind his head as he glanced at Thyra's tired body and smiled.

For some reason, this slow pace excited him even more.

Now, he controlled the pace again, since Thyra's speed decreased a lot, he could now predict when she will move, therefore, he won't be taken by surprise.

Thyra continued moving and once Nux noticed that things she was getting used to it, Nux moved his hips again.

“AANnnhhhh~”

A devil incarnate indeed.

“ANnhh! Annh! AAnnnnhh!”

*PAh* *Pah* *Pah*

The sounds of flesh meeting flesh echoed inside the room again but this time, Nux was the one moving while Thyra just accepted his thrusts and continued to moan.

Then, once she was tired enough, Nux smiled and stopped moving again.

“You are not tired already, are you, Thyra?” Nux questioned with a smirk.

Thyra glanced at his face with a tired look on her face, she then shook her head and started moving.

“Annhhh... Annh... Annhhh...”

However, this time, even though she was the one moving, she still couldn't control her moans.

Her body was just too sensitive.

But, in the end, she was just too tired.

Nux understood that and soon, he rolled over and appeared on top of Thyra's body.

Thyra was taken aback, however, Nux didn't give her too much time to think, he just grabbed her body, turned it around, lifted her butt and,

“AAANnnnNNhhhhh!!”

Chapter 171

Thyra was taken aback, however, Nux didn't give her too much time to think, he just grabbed her body, turned it around, lifted her butt and,

Rammed his cock inside.

A huge wave of pleasure assaulted her body. This time, Thyra couldn't control herself anymore, her insides tightened to an unbearable extent and then all of a sudden, they loosened,

*Squirt*

“AAANnnnNNhhhhh!!”

And Thyra came.

Nux was surprised by how sudden everything was, he didn't think that Thyra's body was this sensitive right now.

However soon, a smile appeared on his face as he questioned in a very very gentle tone.

“This is not over, is it?”

Thyra didn't reply.

She did not have the energy to, she just shook her head and continued breathing.

Nux's smile widened.

He then grabbed Thyra's hand and started moving his hips again.

“Annhhhh~”

He wasn't planning on allowing her to rest.

This was her punishment after all.

“Annhh! ANnh! AAnnnhh!”

Thyra moaned out loud as Nux drilled her from behind.

This was definitely not the first time he did this to her, however, this was most definitely the wildest.

And she liked it.

“Annhh! ANnh! AAnnnhh!”

Now, she knew she didn't have to move at all.

Nux will be the one who will do everything from now on, he will now take control, of course, she didn't care about it at all.

Rather, she was happy.

Now she could just moan to her heart's content and enjoy this heavenly feeling.

“Ugghhhhh!”

Nux, who was on edge now groaned in pleasure.

She then glanced at Thyra and knew he had to do something to make her orgasm again.

Then a smile appeared on his face and he bent his body and placed his chin on Thyra's shoulder.

Before, he thought that Thyra's sensitive to someone blowing a mouthful of hot air into her ears, however, after some 'testing' and countless 'difficult and precise' experiments, he realized that he was wrong.

Thyra's actual weak point was,

“AAAnnnnnNNhhhh~~”

Her ears.

Thyra's eyes opened wide as Nux bit her ear, her walls tightened up and since she was already very sensitive after cumming too much, combined with how Nux was still pounding her from behind,

She couldn't control herself and,

*Squirt*

She came again.

“Uuuughhhhhhh!!”

However, this time, she wasn't alone, as her walls tightened; Nux couldn't hold back either and he shot a big load of fresh milk inside her body.

Right now, Thyra could barely open her eyes, she was very tired after cumming so many times in one row, however, Nux wasn't done yet.

An evil smile appeared on his face as he grabbed her body from behind, and then without pulling his dick out of her body, he lifted her up and then walked towards a wall.

“How about we copy the pose you like the most when you used to peek at us?” Nux chuckled and teased.

However, Thyra didn't care, she barely even heard him.

She only interpreted, ‘How about another round’

And that was enough for her to nod.

She would not deny such an attractive offer.

Her most primordial instincts kicked in, her body moved on its own and did whatever Nux told her to do.

She placed her hands on the wall, arched her back, and lifted her butt, ready to accept another round of pounding.

*Pah*

Nux smiled, he then spanked Thyra's juicy ass and then, he started pounding.

“ANnnnnhhhhh~~”

...

After that, a 5-hour long session of continuous sex followed.

The room they were in was filled with the stench of body fluids and sweat, it felt like they were in a prostitution house without perfume.

“Ugghhhhh!! I am cumming!!”

In the end, Nux groaned in pleasure and came inside Thyra again.

*Squirt*

Thyra's body twitched and she came as well.

However, she did not moan.

She was too tired.

Too too tired.

By the end of the session, she just accepted the pounding without moving at all. If she wasn't breathing, one would have thought that she was dead, that was how tired she was.

Her mind was already blank and she would need some time to recover from it.

Nux then finally released her body, she fell on the bed, and Nux fell right beside her.

Then, weird but extremely familiar energy entered his body along with a screen containing countless messages,

[Congratulations to the host for rising to a Grand Master Stage Mana Cultivator from a Master Stage Mana Cultivator.]

A tired smile appeared on Nux's face.

He has finally levelled up.

He was a Grand Master Stage Cultivator now.

Now, sparring against Thyra, Two and Three won't be difficult anymore.

‘Hmm, I think I should add Bruce and William as well...’

Nux thought inwardly and nodded.

Then, his eyes fell on the new ability he has unlocked, [Dash]

Then, a screen carrying a description of the said ability appeared in front of his eyes.

[Dash]

[Active Skill]

[Effects:]

[Doubles Host's AGL for 5 seconds]

[Invincibility: While the Ability is active, the host will not take any damage]

[Can only be used once a day.]

[Warning: While using this ability, if the host does some action other than a dash, the [Invincibility] will lose its effect.]

Nux raised his eyebrows when he glanced at the ability description in front of him.

‘Wow... isn't it the perfect ability to run away?’

That was his first thought.

Then, an excited smile appeared on his face, however, before he could think too much, he heard Thyra's weak voice.

“Nux... did you perhaps... liked it when I ruined your fun with Allura?”

“Huh? Why do you say that?” Nux turned towards Thyra and frowned.

“Umm... I just felt like it since...” Then, a small smile appeared on Thyra's face as she muttered,

“What you did to me felt more like a reward than a punishment.”

Chapter 172

“What you did to me felt more like a reward than a punishment,” Thyra muttered with a small, perverted smile on her face.

“Oh really?” Suddenly, Nux turned around as he glanced at Thyra, then, he moved a little and hugged her from the front.

Her breasts touched Nux’s chest while Nux’s dick touched Thyra’s thighs, The situation was getting heated up again and Thyra’s heart skipped a beat.

‘Hmm?’ however, suddenly, Thyra noticed something.

‘How does he have so much energy left? Wasn’t he tired a minute ago?’

She frowned.

Then, she narrowed her eyes and soon, her eyes opened wide in shock when she noticed Nux’s cultivation.

“Y-You broke through!?”

“Heh.” A small smile appeared on Nux’s face as he answered,

“It’s all thanks to you, My Lovely assassin.”

“W-What a ridiculous ability...”

Thyra muttered in surprise.

Nux had already told her how he cultivates and although she nodded at that time, she didn’t really believe it.

You can’t blame her either; Nux’s ability to cultivate while he fucks straight up defies the very common sense of this world. It will be impossible to believe it unless you experience it on your own.

“Y-Your ability straight up ignores all the h-hard work I have done so far...” Thyra muttered.

She didn't know if she should be sad or happy.

She should be happy since her man has such an amazing ability which would later benefit her as well, however, she couldn't help but feel bad about it when she realizes that all the hard work she did all these years were pretty much useless in front of someone like Nux.

What was the point of working so hard?

She couldn't help but think about it.

Nux understood her thoughts as well.

His ability was ridiculous indeed, however, there was a catch.

“You didn't work hard for so long for nothing, Thyra.” Suddenly, Nux muttered.

“What do you mean? Won't it be pretty much useless when Felberta, Skyla, Lane, Edda and Allura become a Grand Master Stage Cultivator as well?

You are fine; however, It doesn't really feel good when they reap the rewards for my hard work you know...” Thyra finally expressed what bothered her the most.

“A-Am I selfish for saying that...?” and as soon as she said that, she questioned.

The last thing she wants is Nux thinking she was selfish and hating her...

However, no matter what...

She still felt it was unfair when others reaped the rewards of all the hard work she did.

“That thought process is completely normal, Thyra”

Thyra then felt Nux’s hug around her tightening and her emotions started calming down...

For some reason, when she heard Nux saying it was completely normal to have thoughts like that, her heart was at peace.

“Also, as I said before, your hard work was not in vain,”

Then, Nux continued, however, his tone was a lot more gentle and loving.

“It is true that sooner or later, Felberta and the others would have the same cultivation level as you do, however, that does not mean they would be as strong as you.”

“Hmm?”

“Yes, I am not lying.

This is all just my own theory, however, I am fairly confident it is correct.

I have divided cultivators into two categories.

Tenacious Cultivator, A cultivator who got stronger by arduous cultivation.

And Pleasure Cultivator, a cultivator who got stronger by, well, fucking.

You are a Tenacious Cultivator, Felberta is a Pleasure Cultivator.

And according to my theory, they are not the same.

A Tenacious Cultivator is stronger than a Pleasure Cultivator if they are at the same level.”

What Nux was saying wasn’t just some bullshit he came up with to lighten Thyra’s mood.

It was his actual theory and he had come up with this theory after some observations.

Right now, Felberta and Edda are at the same level, however, whenever the two of them spar, it is Edda who wins.

At first, Nux thought it was due to skills and experience, however, later, he asked the two of them to sprint without using any skills, and then he told them to arm wrestle.

In both cases, Edda won.

Her Speed and Strength were higher than Felberta's even when both of them are at the same level.

This is not just for Felberta and Edda.

Even Skyla and Lane, who are now Master Stage Cultivators, are stronger than Felberta, but weaker than Edda.

The weirdest thing about all this was that according to the status the system shows, Skyla, Lane, Felberta and Edda, should all have similar strengths, which is not true at all.

Due to this, Nux started thinking and in the end, he came up with a Theory.

The Pleasure Cultivators are weaker than the Tenacious Cultivators.

The system may not show it, but it was true.

The only reason Nux is a lot stronger than someone who has the same cultivation stage is that his system allows him to cultivate both Body and Mana at the same time.

His stats are overwhelmingly stronger than the cultivators who have the same cultivation as his.

This also means that Nux can never defeat someone who has similar stats as him.

The incident where he faced a 4 Star beast in the Bloodhill Wilderness was a good example of that.

A 4-star beast was weaker compared to him, however, he still needed to put a huge amount of effort to defeat it.

Of course, the experience was a factor in that as well, however, Nux truly believed that experience was not the sole factor.

The main reason for that was that Nux isn't as strong as the System suggests he is.

Or at least that's what Nux believes.

He wants to test his theory to be 100% sure, however, he wasn't foolish enough to challenge someone who has the same stats as him just so he could test a theory.

“So are you saying that I will be weaker than a normal Expert Stage Cultivator if I advance to Expert Stage by Pleasure Cultivation?”

Suddenly, Thyra questioned.

“I am not 100% sure, however, there are high chances that it is true.” Nux nodded.

Thyra's eyes shined in determination as she replied,

“Then I will advance to the Expert Stage with my own efforts.”

Chapter 173

“Then I will advance to the Expert Stage with my own efforts.”

Thyra muttered with a determined look on her face.

She was an assassin and although she wasn't given a choice and was pretty much forced to work as an assassin, she now craves power and strength.

If becoming an Expert Stage Cultivator through sex makes her weaker than a normal Expert Cultivator, then she will become an Expert Stage Cultivator on her own.

“I hope you achieve that,” Nux muttered as he patted Thyra's head.

Thyra then closed her eyes and enjoyed the pats.

“However,” Suddenly, Nux muttered.

“Hmm?”

“I suggest you become an Expert Stage Cultivator as soon as possible, don't expect me to hold back, I am telling you now, if I become an Expert Stage Cultivator faster than you,

I'll pull you into the room, ram my cock inside your little sister and will make you an Expert Stage Cultivator as well~” Nux whispered into her ears seductive.

Thyra's face turned red in embarrassment, she then snuggled close to Nux and nodded,

“mm”

‘Cute indeed~’ Nux thought inwardly and continued patting her head.

The two of them stayed like this for 30 minutes and then, Nux muttered.

“We should return to the mansion now.”

“mm”

Thyra nodded.

The two of them stood up, wore their clothes, Nux waved his hand and the bed disappeared.

As for the table and the food, it was already taken by Two and Three.

Thyra and Nux then dashed towards Nux’s mansion.

No, actually, only Nux was the one who was running, he was carrying Thyra on his back.

The girl wasn’t willing to run at all...

She said she was too tired.

Of course, even though Nux knew she was lying, he didn’t say anything, he just silently carried Thyra on her back and ran towards his mansion.

...

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

In the Royal Palace, someone knocked on Allura’s room.

“Who is it?” Allura questioned, however, instead of answering, the door opened and a woman walked in.

“Edda? What’s with the angry face?” Allura questioned with a frown.

“Lady Allura, how dare you go after my lover!?” Edda questioned in anger.

She was fuming right now!

“H-Huh?”

“What? You think I wouldn’t know!? Weren’t you just going on lunch, how come you slept with my lover if you were just going there for lunch? Aren’t you ashamed!?” Edda questioned.

Suddenly, a small smile appeared on Allura’s face as she answered,

“Heeh? What can I do? Weren’t you the one who told me how good your lover is in the bed? You just told me so many times that I couldn’t control myself and went to check it out myself.”

“Y-You! I told you because I trusted you! Why did you betray my trust!?” Edda was even angrier now.

“Heh? Trust? Head Maid Edda, I think you are forgetting something, I am Allura Skyfall, you are just a servant, why would someone like me value the trust of someone like you? That is just too pointless.” Allura smiled disdainfully.

“Hmph! I am your servant only because you are the concubine of the king! However, do you think you will keep that status if I tell everyone what you did!? Heh. You might even be executed.” Edda threatened.

“Oh? And then what? Do you think the king would leave your lover alone? No! He will order to find and execute him as well! Can you bear to do that? Can you bear to see your lover being executed? Can you bear to see your lover’s eyes full of hate when he looks at you? Huh? Can you bear something like that?” Allura’s smile widened.

“...”

This time, Edda stayed silent.

In the end, she just sighed and suddenly, her angry expression turned into a smile,

“Tsk Tsk! Do you think all those books I have been reading is just for show?” Allura smiled as well.

She didn’t mind being called sister.

Heh, rather, she liked that.

She felt closer to Nux that way.

“Hmm, those books did have some benefits,” Edda muttered as she sat down on the bed beside Allura.

Then, a perverted smile appeared on Edda’s face as she questioned,

“So? How was it? How was my lover compared to the king of the kingdom?”

“Heh. Is that even a question, OUR lover was on a completely another level. Heh, the King and his small peepee can’t even compete let alone compared.” Allura replied with a smile as well.

“Tsk Tsk, how indecent, Lady Allura, to think you will say something like that about the king? Aren’t you scared?”

“My lover would protect me.”

“Hahahaha~” Edda laughed out loud.

“You really trust him now, don’t you?” Edda questioned.

Then, a small smile appeared on Allura’s face as she nodded.

Edda smiled as well, and then, she questioned,

“So? How did it feel like when you were kidnapped by unknown men?”

“Heeh? So you knew about it?” Allura questioned, however, she did not look flustered at all.

“Of course, I know about it. Nux told me everything, heh, I was the one who suggested to take you to those slums.” Edda snickered.

“Hoho, well, I was a little scared at first, then, when I saw Nux, I was surprised, then I was even more scared.

It was a fast and risky ride of different emotions,

Quite thrilling actually.”

Allura answered.

“Hmm, I am envious,” Edda spoke her real thoughts.

Then suddenly, her eyebrows rose up as she remembered something and muttered,

“Oh right, I almost forgot. Sister Allura, I am not here to just gossip today, I am here to teach you about all those abilities you have gained after you became Nux’s woman.”

“Hmm? Abilities? Like the one that hid my presence?”

“Yes, that is one of the abilities, there are a few more and I will teach them to you.”

“Ah, alright, but why do you sound like you are in a hurry?” Allura questioned with a frown.

Suddenly, a small smile appeared on Edda’s face as she answered,

“It is my last day in the Royal Palace after all.”

“Huh? Last day? What do you mean?”

“I will be captured today, Sister Allura.”

Chapter 174

“Subhead Maid Edrea,” A maid called.

“Ughh?”

Edrea turned around, her lump shoulders and deep dark circles were honestly scary right now.

The maid gulped, she did not want to talk to this zombie-like subhead maid at all, however, she has to do her duty or else she will be fired.

“What is it?” Edrea questioned in a hoarse voice.

She still had a lot of work to do.

Lots and lots of work.

Too much work.

Ughh...

She wanted to die.

She was actually regretting offending Edda now...

The Subhead Maid position wasn't that bad either.

“Subhead Maid E-Edrea... there is a letter for you...” The maid was even more creeped out when she heard Edrea's voice, she quickly passed the envelope and ran away.

Edrea, who noticed the small red mark on the letter frowned, she then looked around and seeing that no one was there, she quickly opened the envelope and started reading.

‘The bird flew away,

However, since she had taken away your heart with her, I had no choice but to capture her.

The bird is with me now’

Edrea’s tired eyes brightened up!

This explains why Edda wasn’t back yet!

Marquees Alger captured her!

“Ha... Haha... HAHAHAHAAAA!”

Suddenly, Edrea laughed out loud.

Then, the ring on her finger shined and a paper appeared in her hand.

This was the list of things Edda told her to do.

She then walked towards a lamp and burned the list.

“HAHAHAHAHA! You bitch! I finally got my hands on you!”

Edrea laughed like crazy, then, she returned to her room with an excited face and then started writing another letter.

‘To my one and only Love, Algerama,

So you captured the bird that I set free.

I don’t know what to feel about this, however,

I hope you will let me meet the bird again,

Please give me a date and time,

I would like to see you and my bird again,

Maybe this time, the bird will understand my feelings,

Maybe this time, the bird will finally understand me.’

Edrea’s eyes shined in delight as she put the letter in the envelope.

“You bitch! I have had enough of you!

Hahahaha! Soon! You will finally beg me to let you go!

Hahahaha! I am looking forward to seeing you beg in front of me!

I want you to kneel in front of me!

However, no matter what you do, I would never let you go away, I will torture you! I will make your life a living nightmare!

HAHAHAHA!”

Edrea laughed like crazy again.

She was really looking forward to meeting Edda again.

However, she will do that later.

For now...

She would like to sleep.

She was too tired...

Edrea then walked towards her bed and as soon as she lay down, she entered the dreamland.

...

2 days later, Edrea stood in front of Allura’s door and she knocked.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

“Enter.” Allura’s voice was heard and Edrea entered her room.

“Did you summon me, Lady Allura?” Edrea questioned with a bow.

“Subhead Edrea, I have a question,” Allura muttered.

“Please ask, Lady Allura, I will try my best to answer you,” Edrea responded.

“Then I will come directly to the point, where is Edda?” Allura questioned as she squinted her eyes.

Edrea was taken aback by the question, she knew that Allura and Edda were talking with each other for the last few days, but she had no idea that they were close enough for Allura to personally call and interrogate her.

However, no matter what she was thinking inwardly, there were no traces of worry on her face and she answered,

“Lady Allura, I do not know where the head maid Edda is. The last I saw her was 3 days ago. She left the palace to meet someone, however, she didn’t return the next day.”

Edrea muttered, not revealing too much and acting ignorantly.

“Is that so?”

“Yes, Lady Allura.”

“Are you sure you don’t know anything else?” Allura questioned.

“Yes, Lady Allura.”

“Alright, you can leave.”

Allura nodded.

A small smile appeared on Edrea’s face as she bowed again,

“As you say, Lady Allura,”

Then, she turned around and left the room.

After she left, Allura turned her blue eyes towards the curtain of her room, a maid walked out from that direction, she was Leane, a maid who was very close to Allura.

Well, they were not that close, but she was closest compared to all other maids.

Leane’s has a good ‘information network’ she also knows most of the rumours going around the palace, which is also the reason why she is so close to Allura.

“Keep a close eye on her,” Suddenly, Allura ordered.

“Huh? Why?” Leane frowned and questioned.

“Don’t you find her suspicious?” Allura questioned back.

“Suspicious? Why?”

“Edda was bullying Edrea, have you seen that?”

“Of course I did, Lady Allura. However, many maids say that Head Maid Edda was just punishing Subhead Maid Edrea for something she has done.

She wasn’t bullying her.” Leane answered.

“That doesn’t matter, in the end, Edda was bullying her.”

“Yes, she was,” Leane nodded.

“And now, Edda is missing,” Allura commented.

“She i- wait...” Leane wasn’t stupid, she knew what Allura was trying to say.

“Lady Allura, are you saying that Edrea might be the reason wh-”

“It is just a speculation, I am not sure, however, there are high chances of that happening...” Allura answered.

“I understand.” Leane nodded.

Allura nodded.

Seeing that Allura had nothing else to say, Leane muttered,

“Lady Allura, then I will be taking my leave now,”

Allura nodded again.

Then, Leane quickly left the room with an excited smile on her face.

Heh.

Sure or not, what she learned was still something spicy.

She would be a fool if she did not spread it.

Allura, who saw her leaving, smiled.

She knew what type of girl Leane was.

Just like her, she liked rumours a lot.

However, rather than listen to rumours, she liked to spread the rumours.

And that is what she was going to do now,

And that is what,

Allura, Nux, and Edda wanted her to do now.

Chapter 175

“Have the cleaning department cleaned the rooms I told them to?”

“Yes, subhead Edrea, I have checked it, the rooms are cleaned.”

“What about the washing department?”

“Yes, they have washed all the clothes as well, the clothes are currently being sent to the ones they belong to,”

“Good job.”

“Yes, thank you, subhead maid Edrea,”

“Hmm,”

“S-Subhead Maid Edrea?”

“Yes?”

“C-Can I leave now? I still have some work to do...”

“Alright, you can leave.” Edrea nodded.

“Y-Yes, thank you! Subhead maid Edrea!” The maid bowed and then hurriedly left Edrea’s room.

She was panicking hard.

She was scared!

It was only after she left Edrea’s room did she sighed in relief and rushed away.

Soon, the maid found her friend that looked as worried as her and her friend questioned,

“You did not offend her, did you?”

“N-No. I did everything she told me to.” The maid answered.

“Good.” Her friend nodded.

“I just hope that I don’t catch her eyes, I don’t want to end up like Head Maid Edda...” The maid muttered with a pale face.

“Sssshhhh!! Don’t say that out loud! What if she hears you!? You will die as well!” Her friend placed a finger on her lips and whispered.

“I-I am sorry...” The maid’s face turned even paler, and then, the two of them quickly left the area.

Edrea, who heard everything from behind sighed.

It was the fourth day after she received Alger’s message about him capturing Edda and rather than getting better, things were getting even worse for her.

‘Subhead Maid Edrea killed Head Maid Edda just because she punished her a little’

This rumour spread all over the palace and the more days passed by, the stronger the rumour got.

In just 4 days, all the maids knew about it and they avoided Edrea like a plague.

Actually, it wouldn’t have mattered to Edrea if she was just avoided by the others, however, things didn’t stop there.

If the rumour gains more popularity, then the authorities might hear about it...

And if that happened, then they might-

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

While Edrea was thinking about all this, someone knocked on her door.

“Enter,” She ordered.

Then, a man entered her room, followed by two soldiers, a small smile then appeared on the man’s face as he muttered,

“Edrea Fox?”

“Yes, it is me.”

“The Security department summons you. I hope you follow me without any resistance.”

The man muttered with a small, ‘gentle’ smile on his face.

Edrea gulped inwardly.

That is what she was worried about.

If the authorities heard about it, they might take action.

And they did.

“Yes, I’ll follow you.”

However, Edrea couldn’t panic here.

She was innocent.

She didn’t do anything.

“Alright.” The man smiled.

Then, Edrea followed the 3 men and left the room.

...

A few minutes later, Edrea was sitting inside a room, in front of her, sat a man who had a small smile on his face and he wore clean refined clothes.

He had a scholarly look, however, Edrea dare not underestimate him.

He was a Grand Master Stage Cultivator.

“So, Miss Edrea, I won’t waste much of our time. You have heard about the recent rumour going around, have you not?”

“I have”

Edrea was honest.

“Then what do you have to say about it?”

“I do not know how this rumour started, however, I can assure you that I did not do anything. To be honest, I don’t even believe that Head Maid Edda is dead.

I think she just took a leave.”

“A leave? Without informing the authorities?”

“It is not like she has never done it before, she just used her connections to hide it and took an ‘official’ leave,” Edrea revealed.

The man interrogating her didn’t show a surprised expression, with Edda’s influence, she could do something like that very easily.

However, he noticed something much more interesting,

“Hmmm. But Miss Edrea, even if Head Maid Edda did something like this, why do you know about it?

Your relationship with her wasn’t exactly the best, there is no way she would have told you something like that, so am I right to assume that you were keeping eye on Head Maid Edda?”

“ ... ”

Edrea stayed silent.

Actually, she was panicking inwardly.

FUCK!

She spoke too much!

There was no reason to do something stupid!

However, soon, Edrea calmed down and answered,

“Head Maid Edda was my competitor, of course, I kept my eyes on her,”
Edrea answered.

“Competitor?” The man interrogating Edrea narrowed his eyes.

“Well, I will admit, I wanted to become a head maid as well. However, I believe it is perfectly natural to aim higher.

Of course, that doesn’t mean I will use unethical ways to achieve what I want.”

Edrea answered.

She knew she can’t fool this man, therefore, she stopped lying and started hiding the truth.

This way, it would be a lot harder to find holes in her story.

“Hmm, I understand, Miss Edrea” The man interrogating her nodded.

From his interrogation, he could feel that something was wrong with this maid. However, he wasn’t sure if she was the one who killed Edda.

Of course, once he starts investigating, everything will be as clear as a day.

Suddenly, a smile appeared on his face and he muttered,

“Then Miss Edrea, you won’t mind if we investigate you a little, do you?”

“Of course, not, sir. I am an innocent woman, I do not mind if you investigate me.” Edrea answered.

She had already expected this would happen, therefore, she did not react much and nodded.

She was innocent after all.

“Alright, Miss Edrea, I thank you for your support, I will request you to not leave the Royal Palace for the next few days.” The man muttered.

He then pointed at a bulky man and then turned towards Edrea.

“He will be staying with you for the next few days, I hope you two get along with each other.”

“I understand,” Edrea nodded as she glanced at the man who is going to ‘stay’ with her.

“I hope you are proven innocent, Miss Edrea.”

Chapter 176

“I hope you are proven innocent, Miss Edrea.”

The man muttered.

A small smile appeared on Edrea’s face as she nodded.

“So can I take my leave now, sir?”

“Ah yes, you can go.”

“Thank you, sir,” Edrea nodded and then stood up.

Then, she left the room, and the bulky man who was going to ‘stay’ with her followed behind her.

‘This is going to be tough...’ Edrea thought inwardly as she glanced at the man following her.

She would be a fool if she couldn’t understand why the man was now ‘staying’ with her.

He was going to keep his eyes on her and prevent her from escaping.

However, Edrea had to escape.

Why?

Because of the investigation.

She has not killed Edda and her link with Marquee Alger won’t see be proven either, therefore, if this incident was investigated, she would come out as innocent.

However, that was only if THIS incident was investigated.

But this wasn't the only thing she has done.

She has killed many people before and some of them can directly be linked to her.

So once her past is investigated, she will be executed.

Her innocence in Edda's case won't matter.

She cannot stop the investigation now, therefore, she can only do one thing now,

And that is run away.

She could only run away and hide for the rest of her life.

'Fuck! That bitch was really like a curse to my good life, wasn't she!?'

Edrea blamed Edda in her head.

'And that Marquee! That Bastard still hasn't replied to my letter yet!'

Then, she cursed Marquee Alger.

She was cursing everyone who was responsible for this situation.

Then, Edrea turned around and glanced at the man following her.

The man may look like a muscle head; however, he was still a Master Stage Cultivator. It won't be that easy to fool him.

'I need time...' Edrea thought inwardly.

She needed to know what type of man this man was, his hobbies, his likes and everything else.

If she knows about all that, she could probably do something to fool him, however,

‘I don’t have time...’

Yes, she did not have time.

She needs to leave today.

If not, then once the Security department finds out about her past, they would execute her for sure.

‘Alright, I guess I would need to take the chance.’ Edrea thought inwardly and took a deep breath.

Then she walked forward and continued with her work.

...

Allura, who was just ‘walking by’ saw Edrea’s tensed look and a smile appeared on her face.

‘Acting like a spy who is on a mission, heh, this is really exciting...’

Then, a look of pitiful expression appeared on her face as she glanced at Edrea’s back.

‘I really pity you woman... you are nothing but a chess piece now...’

Haahh... it’s not like you deserve any pity, it is the consequence of your own actions.’

Then, Allura shook her head and walked away.

...

In the night, Edrea and the bulky man entered Edrea’s room.

Edrea sighed, this man was following her all day long, she has not left her alone even for a second.

This man was really serious about his work.

Edrea then glanced at the bulky man and questioned with a small smile,

“I’ll go take a bath now; you aren’t going to follow me inside, are you, Mason?”

“You have 15 minutes, if you do not come outside in 15 minutes, I will enter the bathroom,” Mason muttered.

“Oh? Wait... are you...

Are you signalling me to stay inside the bathroom for more than 15 minutes?” Edrea questioned with a slight smile.

Suddenly, the man’s face turned a little red.

Edrea quickly noticed that change and soon, she laughed.

“Hahaha~ I was just joking, don’t worry, I will come out before 15 minutes.”

“G-Good.” Mason nodded.

Then, Edrea turned around and entered the bathroom.

...

10 minutes later, Edrea walked out of the bathroom wearing nothing but a towel that covered her from her breasts to her knees.

Her black hairs were still wet and seeing her walking out of the bathroom, Mason’s face turned hot.

No matter how her character was, Edrea was a beauty.

Her black hair and brown eyes may be common, but her seductive body was anything but common.

She had a great, curvy body and a perfect hourglass-like figure; she was an alluring woman indeed.

“Do you like what you see, Mason?”

Edrea questioned with a small smile on his face.

“H-Huh?” Mason came out of his reverie when he heard Edrea’s voice.

Edrea smiled even more, she then walked towards Mason and once she was close enough, she repeated her question.

“Do you like you see, Mason?”

“Y-You are pretty indeed...” Mason tried to act calm but failed when Edrea’s soap’s scent assaulted his nose.

She smelled too good.

It was turning him on.

“Haha~ Thank you for the compliment~”

Edrea laughed.

Then, she made another bold move as she brought her hands around his neck and questioned in a very gentle tone.

“How pretty do you think I am?”

As if hypnotized by her charm, Mason grabbed her thin waist and answered,

“You are the most beautiful woman I have ever seen in my entire life.”

Edrea’s smile widened, her right hand then trailed down and soon, Edrea started touching Mason’s little brother.

Mason didn’t just stand there either, he first quickly removed that annoying towel, revealing Edrea’s sexy body, her eyes shined in desire as he started groping her soft breasts.

“Hahaha~ Shall we continue this there?” Edrea laughed charmingly and then pointed at the bed.

Mason nodded with an excited look on his face, Edrea smiled and then pulled him to her bed.

Mason, of course, let her do what she wanted to, what kind of man wouldn't like when a beautiful woman makes a move on him?

Edrea then pushed Mason onto the bed, then, she crawled on the top of Mason's body and once her face was right in front of Mason's, she stopped.

Mason smiled, Edrea smiled back, then, Edrea closed her eyes, Mason closed his eyes as well and soon,

Their lips met.

Mason tightened his grip around Edrea's body, Edrea played with his rod with her right hand while she kissed.

Then, her tongue entered his mouth, and Mason's tongue started moving as well,

Suddenly,

Edrea bit the pill she had stored in her mouth then using her tongue, she forced the pill into Mason's mouth.

Before Mason could react, the pill already entered his stomach and his eyes widened in surprise.

Chapter 177

Suddenly, Edrea bit the pill she had stored in her mouth then using her tongue, she forced the pill into Mason's mouth.

Before Mason could react, the pill already entered his stomach and his eyes widened in surprise.

Edrea broke the kiss, then she spits her saliva into Mason's mouth, confirming that no poison was left inside her mouth and then she stood up.

Mason glanced at Edrea in shock, he felt betrayed.

“Kkkhhh!!”

He wanted to say something, however, he could not.

He didn't know what Edrea fed him was, but the way his body was losing strength and how he couldn't breathe any more air, he knew it was a poison.

A very lethal poison.

‘Why?’

That was the only question he wanted to ask.

“Don't look at me like we were lovers for years and then I betrayed you. Do you seriously think you had a chance to spend a night with a woman like me?”

Are you dumb?

Well, you are, but...

Just how dumb are you?

Well whatever, thank you for being so dumb.

I can escape now and it's all thanks to you.”

Edrea muttered as she wore her clothes.

Tsk Tsk, all men are the same.

Thinking with their groin!

Hahaha!

Mason glanced at her and his eyes turned red, was it in anger or due to suffocation, no one knew.

However, the regret in his eyes was as clear as day.

He regretted trusting this venomous woman.

He was a fool to think that she wasn't a killer and was being framed!

She was definitely the killer!

Mason hoped in his heart that she gets caught and get what she deserves.

“Kkkhhkkkk!”

Then, Mason's body twitched uncontrollably, the lack of air was too much for him, his eyes turned even redder, in the end, his body stopped moving and he died.

A small smile appeared on Edrea's face, she then placed a few pillows beside Mason and then covered him with a blanket with only his legs showing.

If one looked from far, it would look like two humans were sleeping together in the room.

Then, Edrea covered her face and left the room.

She has already checked, no other people were keeping an eye on her.

Mason was a Master Stage Cultivator, no one could predict that an Advance Stage Cultivator could escape right under the eyes of a Master Stage Cultivator, that is just not possible.

Edrea left her room, then sneakily, she walked out of the hall. She was a subhead maid, she knew about the Palace like the back of her hand.

It wasn't difficult for her to sneak out and that's what she did, she left the Royal Palace and rushed towards the Bannermane house.

She wasn't stupid enough to think that Marquee Alger Bannermane was her ally.

At best, they were someone who came together for mutual benefits.

If Marquee Alger learns about her situation, he would kill her for sure, Edrea knows that.

However, he will only kill her IF she knew about the situation and Edrea wasn't planning on revealing anything.

She would just say that she snuck out since she couldn't control herself, then, she would get her hands on Edda, torture her to ease her heart and then she will kill her.

After that, she will leave the Marquee's house and then settle in another kingdom.

She has that much savings.

She should be able to live a normal life.

Hmm, a good plan indeed.

Edrea nodded to herself.

Then, she increased her speed and appeared in front of Bannermane's house.

She then walked forward and soon, she was stopped by the soldiers.

"Stop! Who are you? What are you doing here so late in the night?" The soldier questioned.

"I am someone who knows Marquee Alger, pass on my message to him and he will know who I am," Edrea answered confidently.

"Are you Edrea Fox?" Suddenly, the soldier questioned.

"How did you know?" Edrea questioned with a frown.

"The Marquee predicted that you will come here soon, he says that the bird is ready, you can do whatever you want to her." The soldier answered and just as she heard about the bird, Edrea's smile widened and she nodded.

"Then can you take me inside?"

"Follow me," The soldier nodded and the two of them then walked towards Alger's room.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

The soldier then knocked on the door and soon, a voice was heard,

"Enter,"

"You can go in," The soldier instructed and then left.

Edrea nodded, she then opened the door, however, a frown appeared on her face when she saw an unfamiliar face inside the room.

She has never met Marquee Alger before, however, that does not mean she didn't know how he looks.

And Edrea was definitely sure that he didn't look like this incredibly handsome man sitting in front of her.

Edrea narrowed her eyes in suspicion, however, soon, she stopped thinking about it.

This was Bannerman House, the Soldier brought her to the Marquee room.

Only a few people could sit inside the Marquee room, that is either Marquee or someone close to him, in any case, both of them were temporary allies.

“We finally meet, Edrea Fox, I have heard a lot about you.”

The handsome man sitting in front of Edrea muttered.

Edrea bowed elegantly and replied, “We finally meet, my lord, however, please forgive me for my ignorance, but I do not know who you are,”

“My name is Goku Bannerman,” ‘Goku’ answered.

Then, a smile appeared on his face as he muttered,

“And I must say, Edrea Fox, you are the same as the rumours say,”

Edrea frowned.

Rumours?

What rumours?

Rumours about her beauty?

Was this a cheap way of praising her?

However, even if it was cheap, Edrea would accept it with an open heart.

It was coming from such a handsome man after all.

She did not mind spending a night or two with him.

Not at all.

“What rumour, Lord Goku?” She questioned curiously.

“Rumours about you and your loose hole.

Your scent is the same as the smell in the prostitution house.

Woman, just how many times have you sold that body of yours? And what kinds of people have you done the deed with?”

Goku grabbed his nose as he glanced at Edrea with disgust clear in his eyes.

“W-What?”

Chapter 178

“Rumours about you and your loose hole. Your scent is the same as the smell in the prostitution house.

Woman, just how many times have you sold that body of yours? And what kinds of people have you done the deed with?”

Goku grabbed his nose as he glanced at Edrea with disgust clear in his eyes.

“W-What?”

Edrea blinked a few times.

She didn’t expect this handsome man to say something so vulgar.

Did she offend him in some way?

Or did she really stink?

No, that can’t be true, can it?

Edrea frowned.

“D-Did I offend you in some way, Master Goku?” Edrea questioned respectfully.

“You see, that is how one can be sure that what I said was true, if you were an innocent woman, you would have retorted me out loud,” Goku muttered.

This time, a vein popped out on Edrea’s forehead.

However, she still controlled herself and a distorted smile appeared on her face,

“You must be jesting, Master Goku. I am an innocent woman, however, along with innocent, I am an elegant woman as well, I don’t retort like some brute. I believe we can settle all the matters with a nice talk, I am sure there is some sort of misunderstanding between her.”

“Damn, Edda was right, your face is as thick as loose your hole is,” Goku exclaimed in wonder.

“Edda? Head Maid Edda?”

“Tsk Tsk, didn’t I say that before? Even you wouldn’t be able to stand her, she is just that repulsive.” Suddenly, Edrea heard a familiar voice.

She turned her head and her eyes widened in surprise when she saw Edda walking toward Goku.

‘When did she arrive here!?’

She wondered inwardly.

“You were right, she is repulsive indeed,” Goku nodded as he grabbed Edda and placed her on his lap with a loving expression on his face.

Then he kissed her cheeks and then their lips met.

They completely ignored Edrea who was standing in front of them.

“E-E-Edda? Why are you here!?” Edrea questioned in surprise.

Although she did expect Edda to be here, she did not expect her to be so...

Happy.

She should have been left tied inside a dark room with no one bothering to talk to her.

“Hmm? What do you mean why I am here?” Edda then broke the kiss and turned towards Edrea.

“Ah, are you surprised how I am alive even after you killed me?”

“I-I killed you?” Edrea frowned.

When did something like that happen?

“Oh C’mon, Edda, do you really expect her brain that is filled with nothing but dunk can understand what you are saying? Simply it for her.

She has sacrificed so much for us, we can at least tell her what she is sacrificing to show our appreciation, can we not?” Goku muttered with a smile on his face.

“Of course, we can. We are good people after all” Edda nodded with a smile.

Then, she turned toward Edrea and explained,

“This is the story about a woman named Edrea. 20 years ago, she entered the royal palace as a maid.

However, how can the story be interesting if the main character is someone so bland?

Our main character was different as well.

Edrea wasn’t just a normal maid, she was a Spy.

A Spy sent by the enemy Kingdom.”

Edda told everything with a smile on her face and Edrea’s frown deepened.

“Edrea was given a single mission.

Rise.

Raise your position as soon as you can.

Become a head maid.

And this is what Edrea did.

She fought hard and rose in position.

All her opponents met 'unfortunate accidents' and Edrea had an easy path ahead.

However, wrong methods can only take you so far.

Head Maid Edda, that is me, quickly realized that something was wrong with this woman named Edrea.

Then, she did a little background check and her doubts deepened when she realized how meteoric her rise was.

However, in the end, Edda was just a head maid, she did not have any authority nor did she have any proof.

Therefore, she contacted someone who had the Authority.

Marquee Alger.

Marquee understood her problem and the two of them worked together.

Then one day, Edda blocked the letter Edrea had sent to someone and soon, she realized that Edrea's next target was herself!

The letter also revealed the existence of a man named Algerama.

No one is sure, but it is predicted that this Algerama is another, powerful Spy sent by the enemy kingdom.

A spy who supported Edrea and the reason behind all the 'unfortunate accidents' Edrea's competitor faced.

Edda and Marquee realized how serious this was. They just thought she was a woman hungry for power, but, a Spy?

That was much more dangerous than normal.

Then, Edda stepped up and offered to become bait.

She left the Palace many times, however, Algerama was too cautious.

He did not attack.

Edda, however, continued to go out, but Algerama didn't move.

Then, Edda came up with another idea.

She started bullying Edrea.

Edrea couldn't take the torture anymore and got impatient.

That day, she sent another letter and this time, Alger found out where Algerama lived.

It was near the Crown Plaza.

Alger planned to capture Algerama that day, however, Edda realized that if the fight started, many innocents will die.

Edda's kind heart couldn't take it, therefore, she used Marquee's authority to seal the area near the Crown Plaza.

However, that was a mistake.

Algerama quickly realized something was wrong and before Alger could capture him, Algerama ran away.

But how could Alger let him run away?

He and his men chased Algerama and in the end, they found him in the slum area.

After a hard-fought battle, Algerama lost, however, he was very loyal to the kingdom, as soon as he realized there was no way he could win, he decided to commit suicide.

However, he didn't go down alone.

He took down Edda, who had come here to assist Marquee Alger, with him.

Edrea, who was in the palace didn't know what happened, however, when Edda didn't return the next day and then the next day, she assumed that Algerama captured Edda.

She then got excited and sent a letter saying how she wanted to get her hands on Edda.

The Marquee got his hands on this letter and he waited for Edrea to come to where Algerama lived.

That was how he captured the Subhead maid.

Although Head Maid Edrea 'died' in the process, her selfless sacrifice made it possible to reveal the existence of such a major threat that was growing inside the very core of the Kingdom.

Head Maid Edda was a selfless and a kind woman indeed.”

Edda ended the story with a smile, then she turned towards Edrea and questioned,

“So? How was the story?”

Chapter 179

“N-No...”

Edrea muttered.

Her face was already pale, her eyes were opened wide and by how her lips were quivering, it was clear that she was scared.

Very scared.

“N-No... I am not a spy sent by any kingdom... I am not a spy...”

“I AM NOT A SPY!!”

Edrea screamed in panic and fear!

“Miss Edrea... things are not decided by how loud you can speak them...”

The man sitting in front of Edrea muttered.

He was the same scholarly man who interrogated Edrea a day ago.

Right now, Edrea was inside the interrogation room, sitting on her knees, with her hands tied behind her back.

“Mr Brian, please trust me, I am not a spy! I will admit it, I am a killer! I am a murderer!

I murdered my competitors and rose to where I am today. The number of people I have killed is around 12. I was also the one who killed Mason.

I poisoned him.

I am a selfish, manipulative and scheming woman, however,

I am not a Spy!

Please!

Believe me!”

Edrea admitted all her crimes, her face was covered in with snot and tears. If anyone who doesn't know what she did saw her, he would find her pitiful.

Why was she crying?

Why was she admitting all her crimes?

Why was she so against being called a Spy?

Did she love her kingdom so much that even being called a spy filled her with disgust?

Of course not.

Edrea was a selfish woman.

She didn't care about the kingdom she lived in at all.

The reason she was so against being called a spy was due to her own selfishness.

She was scared.

If she is a murderer, the worse they will do is execute her.

However, if she were suspected to be a spy, things would change.

She would be interrogated and even tortured so that the kingdom could extract information from her.

And since she wasn't actually a spy.

There is no way she would know something that would satisfy the interrogators' curiosity.

What does that mean?

That means she will be tortured till she dies.

She will be tortured to death!

The worse possible way to die.

“Miss Edrea, this is the last letter you sent to your lover, Algerama, the spy. Is that true?” The scholar-like man, Brian questioned.

“N-No... I did not write that letter!” Edrea lied.

Then, a cold smile appeared on Brian’s face as he suggested.

“I suggest you do not lie to us, Miss Edrea. You will only make things more difficult for yourself if you do that.”

Then, a paper appeared in his hand as he continued,

“This is the paper where you wrote the room numbers of the room that needed to be cleaned and gave them to the cleaning department.

The writing here, and the writing on the letter matches.” Brian muttered, then, he glanced at Edrea and questioned again.

“This letter was written by you, is that correct, Miss Edrea?”

Edrea’s mouth opened wide.

She couldn’t believe her lie was exposed.

She now started panicking even more!

In the end, she started telling the truth.

“Yes, I was the one who wrote this letter.

However, the Algerama you are talking about is not a spy, he is Marquee Alger! I sent this letter to Marquee Alger!”

“Oh? Why did you send this letter to Marquee Alger?” Brian questioned.

“Marquee Alger wanted to get close to Head Maid Edda, however, Edda disagreed, no matter how much money he offered her, Edda rejected all of it.

In the end, Marquee Alger approached me, the subhead maid, what he needed was not Edda, but a head maid.

The plan was simple, he will get rid of Edda, and I will become the next head maid. In return, I will help him with whatever he asks me later.

The bird in that letter was indeed Edda,

I wrote these letters to update Marquee Alger about Edda’s current movement so that he can plan and kill her.”

“Hmm? But from the information we received from Marquee Alger said that Edda and he were rather close.”

“That is a Lie that bastard came up with!

Why would Marquee Alger approach me if he was close to my superior!? There is no motive to do that!”

“As I said before, something won’t become the truth if you say it louder, please lower your voice, Miss Edrea.

Also, if Marquee Alger was your ally, why would he out you and bring you here?”

“I don’t know why he betrayed me! However, I am not lying! The letters he sent to me are there in my storage ring! Check the writing and match it with Marquee Alger’s writing! I am sure you will find similarities!”

Brian furrowed his brows, he then picked Edrea's Space Ring and soon, a few letters appeared in his hand.

Then, a document appeared in his hand.

Alger was a Marquee, it wasn't hard for someone like Brian to find a piece of his writing.

He then started matching the two writings and then, he shook his head.

“They do not match, Miss Edrea. You lied to us,
Again.”

Edrea's eyes widened in shock.

How was this possible!?

All these letters were sent by Alger!

How can the writing not match!?

Soon, Edrea's eyes widened in realization,

“One of his subordinates must have written it!

Yes! I am sure of it!

You should check his subordinates' writing! You will find out that I am telling the truth!”

“Miss Edrea, Marquee Alger has hundreds of servants, you don't expect us to check everyone's writing do you?

What if the writing doesn't match?

Then would you say Marquee Alger found a random commoner to write the letter for him? Then would you ask us to check the writing of every commoner living in the Skyfall Kingdom?

Miss Edrea, there is a limit to how impractical and stupid your lie can be.”

Then, a scary pressure emanated from Brian’s body, his eyes turned colder than the ice and he warned,

“Miss Edrea, I suggest you tell us everything you know, tell us about the kingdom who supports you from behind the scenes, tell us what they want, tell us what your mission is,

Tell us everything, willingly and truthfully.

Otherwise, things will get painful for you.”

“N-No...

I AM NOT A SPY!!”

Chapter 180

In a lavish, grand hall, with large pillars supporting the ceiling, walls that were painted in white with beautiful gold coloured carvings, a red carpet in the middle, 6 chairs on either side of the red carpet, and a throne, that was placed on a floor that was a little higher than the ground, 5 men sat.

“Your Majesty, let’s move on to report number 4 we captured a Spy who lived in the Royal Palace as the Subhead Maid, her name is Edrea Fox,”

One of those men, sitting on a chair muttered as he read the paper in his hands.

He had a thin face, black hair, and crystal blue eyes, his features would have been sharper if it weren’t for those wrinkles that were on his face.

The aura around him was scholar-like and refined, he wore a blue-coloured coat with purple designs, which suited him a lot.

He may look a little old, however, no one should underestimate him,

He was an Expert Stage Cultivator, Gibson Fulvianus, a member of Fulvianus Duke House, and one of the 4 ministers working in the Royal Palace.

“Huh? Report number 4? Gibson, why are you talking about something so minor in report number 4?”

A tough-looking man questioned.

He was an Expert Stage Cultivator as well, he had a large build, and he wore a dark green coat, his attire complimented his Green coloured short hair and green eyes.

He was Warlock Centho, a member of Centho Duke House and another minister.

“Yes, at best, the subhead maid will be an Advance Stage cultivator, those weaklings don’t matter, we should talk about something more important.” A woman, who wore a red coloured gown and had a strict look on her face muttered.

She had red-coloured hair and eyes and her luscious red lips looked alluring, she was beautiful, however, no one dared to look at her for more than 5 seconds.

She was not a normal woman, she was Marlee Vestalis, a Member of Vestalis Duke House, and a minister working in the Royal Palace.

Not only that, but she was also an Expert Stage Cultivator.

“Yes, Marlee is right, let’s talk about important matters,” another man, who had a refined, scholarly face, blonde hair and brown eyes nodded his head.

He wore a white coloured coat with golden-coloured cravings and just like Gibson; he had a refined, scholar-like aura around him as well.

And just like other ministers, he was an Expert Stage Cultivator as well.

Presley Merula, a member of Merula Duke House and fourth minister of the Royal Palace.

“I know what you all are thinking, I wouldn’t have taken this matter seriously as well, however, I found something interesting when I was skimming through the reports, I hope you all will hear me out with patience,” Gibson muttered with a small smile on his face.

“Alright, I will trust you then. Continue,” Marlee muttered and the other two ministers nodded as well.

If it was a normal situation, then as members of 4 different Duke houses, the 4 of them would have fought with each other, and wouldn’t have missed a chance to suppress Gibson.

However, right now, they were inside the Royal Palace.

They weren't members of the Duke House, right now, they are 4 Ministers of the Royal Palace.

They have to discuss things orderly.

"The one who helped us find the Spy was none other than Marquee Alger Bannerman," Gibson revealed.

"Bannerman... aren't they the ones who are suspected to be affiliated with another Kingdom?" Presley questioned with a frown.

"Indeed, that's why I am confused as well..."

Then, Gibson started talking about Edrea, Edda, Marquee Alger, the Spy Algerama and everything related to this incident.

...

"This is weird indeed..." Marlee nodded.

"The whole thing sounds fishy..." Presley muttered.

"Indeed, that's the reason I gave this matter so much importance. What do you guys think about the whole situation?" Gibson nodded and then questioned.

"I think the whole thing is Marquee Alger's plot and that girl Edrea is innocent," Presley muttered.

"Well, that woman isn't innocent, there are proves that she had killed more than 10 people, she admitted her herself."

"Well, she is a murderer, I am not denying that, however, I don't think she is a spy, I think she is being framed.

Otherwise, a woman like her would have broken down from the torture and would have spilled everything she knows." Presley replied.

“Are you saying that women are weak?” Suddenly, Marlee questioned as she narrowed her eyes. There was a dangerous look on her face.

“I am not saying that Marlee, I am just stating what I feel. Also, the Spy Algerama, and Marquee Alger, these names sound a bit too similar, I am more inclined to believe what that Edrea said, Algerama is Alger, and he is the one who was supporting her from behind the scenes.” Presley however, wasn’t too flustered and answered her calmly.

“But if that was the case, then why would he out his subordinate like that?” Marlee questioned.

“Well, Edrea was now under the eyes of the Security Department, rather than helping him, she would have brought more disaster to him, therefore, he must have discarded her.” Presley assumed.

“But wouldn’t killing her and getting rid of her when he found her be a better option for him rather than giving her to us?”

There was no need to form stories like these if Edrea had just died.

You know well enough that if Marquee wanted to hide it, there is no way the security department could have found her body let alone blame anything on him.” This time, Gibson was the one who talked.

“Indeed, Marquee Alger simply had no reason to go through all these troubles if Edrea was actually his subordinate. He had nothing to gain out of this.” Marlee nodded as well.

“No, there is something he can gain.” Presley shook his head.

“What?”

“Image.”

“Hmm?”

“His image amongst other nobles isn’t exactly good right now, however, after this incident, he can clear his name to some extent.

He might have done everything so he could improve his image.” Presley muttered.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Gibson and Marlee turned silent.

That could be possible.

They can’t deny it, however,

“I still don’t believe that Marquee Alger would go through all these troubles just so he could improve his image...”

Gibson was still unsure.

In the end, the 4 ministers turned toward the man sitting on the throne and questioned,

“Your Majesty, what are your thoughts about this?”

Chapter 181

“Your Majesty, what are your thoughts about this?”

The 4 ministers turned toward the man sitting on the golden throne and questioned.

The man had black hair and a beautiful pair of purple eyes, there were some wrinkles on his face, however, he had maintained himself and he still looked handsome. The man had a lean and fit body, which showed he had trained his body regularly. He wore a white coat with stylish golden-coloured designs that were masterfully carved on it.

There was a golden crown on his head and he sat on the throne with an elegant, yet bored look on his face.

However, though he looked a little lethargic and leisurely, he should not be underestimated.

This man was the strongest in the Skyfall Kingdom.

A King Stage Cultivator, the king of the Skyfall Kingdom.

Ricardus Skyfall.

A frown appeared on Ricardus’s face as he heard his ministers’ question,

“Why are we discussing something so useless?”

He muttered with a bored look on his face.

The ministers glanced at each other with frowns on their faces, however, Ricardus didn’t care what they were thinking and continued.

“A Spy? Don’t talk like it is something new. There must be more than 20 spies within our Royal Palace. That is normal.

As for whether that girl is lying or not; who cares?”

King questioned and the ministers shook their heads and sighed.

They were too naive to think that he would even care...

“What does that Marquee achieve from all this?

Who cares?

What is his goal?

Who cares?

In the end, they are just a Marquee and a subhead Maid, don't give them more importance than they deserve.

Just give a reward to the Marquee for his hard work and get done with it.

As for that maid, interrogate her for a few more days, if she doesn't answer, kill her.

We don't have time for something so useless.

Discuss more important topics.”

The king announced, and then, a smile appeared on his face as he turned towards Gibson.

“So? Have you found a way to deal with that annoying curse?”

‘This is the important topic you want to talk about?’

This is what Gibson wanted to ask, however, he didn't dare to. He just shook his head and sighed,

“I have sent our men all over the world to find the cure of that curse; however, most people don't even know about that curse let alone know about its cure.

There is no progress.”

“Haahhh...”

A tired sigh escaped from other ministers’ mouths.

The king then slammed his armrest in anger as he growled,

“That Skadi bastard! He dared to fool me! I will make sure he pays for it!”

The ministers looked at each other with worried looks on their faces, they knew that the king was angry, therefore, they did not say anything.

This was normal, they just needed to stay silent for a while and everything will be fine.

And they were right.

A minute later, the king finally calmed down and sighed then he glanced at his ministers and instructed.

“Continue looking for the cure.”

“Yes, your majesty” Gibson nodded with a bow.

“Hmm, continue with the reports.”

“Yes, so to conclude report 4, I will announce Marquee Bannermane’s rewards, Marquee Alger Bannermane will...”

...

“Marquee Alger Bannermane will receive 5000 gold coins, three 4-star weapons and one 4-star Cultivation technique as a reward for revealing a Spy that was hiding inside the Royal Palace as the Subhead Maid.

The king commends him for his bravery and wits and hopes that he continues the Skyfall Kingdom in the future as well.

Blah Blah Blah.

There was a lot more, but I didn't bother hearing everything that was announced." Allura, who was snuggled close to Nux's chest muttered with a lazy look on her face.

She just had a blissful session with Nux and therefore she was still a little tired.

Plus, Nux's embrace was just too comforting; she couldn't help but be lazy.

"Hahaha~ So the plan succeeded huh..." Nux, who patted Allura's head, muttered.

"I can't believe you would portray my kidnapping as a Spy hunt," Allura replied.

"Well, I needed a reason to move everyone from the area." Nux chuckled.

"But I have a question,"

"Ask away."

"Why did you do it?" Allura raised her head, her blue eyes looked into Nux's golden eyes and she questioned.

"Well, there were a few reasons, first,

I wanted you." Nux smiled.

"But I would have been yours either way... You didn't have to do something so crazy..."

Allura answered with a small blush.

“That would have taken too long. If I used the normal method, I would still be finding ways to take you out on lunch. There was no way I would be able to lay down beside you, on the same bed, while we both are naked, like this.”

Nux moved his face close to Allura’s and whispered.

“You are a little too beautiful Allura, I couldn’t control myself and moved recklessly”

Allura’s face was completely red now and she had lowered her head in embarrassment.

“W-What w-were the other reasons...” She questioned in a mosquito-like voice.

Actually, now she didn’t care about the reasons, however, she was too embarrassed right now, therefore, she needed to change the topic.

“Well, other reasons were related to Edda, she wanted to avenge all the people Edrea had killed and she didn’t want to dirty her own or my hands.

Also, she needed to leave the Palace.”

Nux answered and Allura pouted.

“Hmph! I know her well, the first reason is just something she came up with, I am sure the main reason was that she wanted to ‘kill herself’. This way, she could spend all the time with you!” Allura snorted.

“Hahaha~ That’s true~” Nux agreed.

Actually, Edda admitted it herself.

She doesn’t care about Edrea, she just wanted to be with him.

However, he was different.

That maid dared to target his woman, his possessive side took over.

He wanted revenge.

And he got it.

“Tsk Tsk! What a greedy bitch! I want to leave this palace and stay with you as well!” Allura complained.

Then, a sad look appeared on Nux’s face.

“We can’t do that right now...”

“I know, the death of a head maid won’t be a problem, however, if a concubine ‘dies’, the king would use all his force to investigate everything seriously.

He won’t settle down unless he finds out how his ‘trophy’ was broken.”

“Indeed, and currently, we can’t face the king, I need more power to do that, and I will need your help as well.”

A small smile appeared on Allura’s face as she replied, “I will help you in any way I can, Nux.”

Nux smiled, he then sealed Allura’s lips.

Allura, of course, accepted the kiss and used her tongue to attack Nux’s tongue. The kiss got lewder and lewder, Nux then grabbed Allura’s naked body and pulled her even close to him.

The two then rolled on the bed as they shared a hot, passionate kiss.

Suddenly, Nux broke the kiss as he stood up.

“What happened?” Allura questioned, however, soon, just like Nux, her expression turned serious as well.

Nux and Allura quickly wore their clothes, then, they glanced at each other and nodded.

They then walked out of the room.

Then, Nux and Allura turned towards a corner where the light didn't reach.

Soon, Nux frowned.

However, he trusted his ability and walked towards the dark corner.

As he walked closer, Nux finally noticed a dark veil of mist.

Nux extended his hand towards the veil, however, suddenly, a dagger that was aimed at his throat was shot!

Chapter 182

Nux extended his hand towards the veil, however, suddenly, a dagger that was aimed at his throat was shot!

However, before the dagger could hit him, Nux grabbed the dagger with his hand and glanced at the man wearing black clothes standing in front of him.

“Heh. You really saw something you shouldn’t. What a bad luck~” Nux chuckled.

The man in black, however, didn’t reply, another dagger appeared in his hand and he attacked.

However, Nux wasn’t having any of it.

He just slapped the man in front of him and...

The man’s body flew back and crashed into the wall.

*Bam*

*Crack*

“That was loud!” Suddenly, Allura panicked!

She was still in Royal Palace, with this sound, servants and guards would be running here right now.

“Nux! You have to leave! I will take care of this man! Leave quick!” Allura walked towards Nux and tried to push him away.

She was so panicked right now that she doesn’t even realize her voice was louder than the crash’s sound.

“Allura.” Suddenly, Nux called out.

However, Allura didn't like that one bit,

“Why are you so calm!? Run away! What are you doing!?” Allura shouted again.

“Allura, do you really think this sound was louder than your moans?”

“Ru- Huh?” Suddenly, Allura paused.

She then registered what Nux said and she blushed.

“I-I am not that loud...”

“You are louder than this, Allura,” Nux smiled.

“I-I am n-not...” Allura didn't want to agree.

Soon, Nux shook his head and walked toward Allura.

Then, he placed her head on his chest and patted her gently.

“Don't worry, it is nothing to be ashamed of. Rather, it makes me happy to know that you enjoy spending time with me.”

Allura's face turned even redder as she enjoyed the pats.

However, soon, she realized something and her eyes widened,

“Then does that mean many people heard my moans!?”

Then, Allura started panicking again.

“Doesn't that mean we are exposed!? Nux! Let's run away! We are already exposed! I don't know why the king and his soldiers aren't here yet, but they will be here soon!”

Allura exclaimed in panic, however, rather than sharing her panic, Nux just smiled.

Seeing this, Allura frowned.

“...”

She stayed silent and started thinking things logically.

Something is wrong.

Nux wouldn't make a stupid mistake like this and if he did, he definitely wouldn't be so calm about it.

“What is it...?” in the end, she questioned.

Nux's smile widened and he questioned, “So you finally realized?”

“What did you do?” Allura didn't answer and questioned back.

“You don't have to worry about sound. You can speak or moan as loud as you want, no one will be able to hear it outside this hall.”

Then, Nux started explaining.

[Sound Seal]

[5 Star Ability]

[Description: The host can seal the sound within a targeted Zone, no one outside the Zone can hear any sound coming from inside the Zone.]

[Range: The maximum Zone the Host can seal is a sphere with a radius of 10 meters.]

[Consumes 1 MP every hour]

[Note: The Host has to be inside the zone for it to work. As soon as the Host leaves the Zone, the seal breaks.]

[Price: 2000 System Points.]

Obviously, if he is going to enter the Royal Palace to spend some quality time with the Royal Concubine, Allura Skyfall, he has to make some preparations.

The only reason he bought this ability was to let Allura moan as much as she wanted.

However, there were some things that he found were a little weird.

First, the tier of this ability,

It was a 5-Star Skill, to be honest, Nux didn't think it deserves such a high rating.

[Professional Killer], his passive ability, which is only a 3 Star Ability is much more useful and better than this ability.

Not only that, [Sound Seal] is the only ability that consumes his MP.

He didn't use any MP for any other ability.

Last but not the least, [Harem Seal], for some reason, his woman can't use this ability even though it is an Active Skill.

Nux found this a little weird, however, at that time, he was a little 'busy' and didn't think too much.

Of course, this is not the only thing he did as 'preparation'.

[Name: Nux Leander]

[Age: 18]

[Mana Cultivation: Grand Master.]

[Body Cultivation: Grand Master.]

[Talent: Medium]

[LVL: 40 ]

[HP: 1040/1040]

[MP: 1500/1500]

[STR: 106]

[AGL: 116]

[VIT: 104]

[STM: 143]

[INT: 99->150]

[DEF: 103]

[Blank Points: 160->109]

He increased his INT as well, now, only a Cultivator whose MP is more than 4500 can find him.

Right now, Nux didn't know how strong an Expert or a King Stage Cultivator is, neither has he seen their status.

He was just using assumptions to calculate the increase in the MP after a cultivator breaks through, however, since he was not sure about this, he refrained from taking unnecessary risks and increased his INT to a ridiculous level.

“So you are saying I can moan as loudly as I want and nothing will happen?” Allura, who heard about Nux's ability, questioned.

“Heh. You talk as if you ever hold back.” Nux snickered.

“I-I h-hold back you know...” Allura muttered.

“And you are still so loud even though you hold back?” Nux questioned.

“I-I mean I try to hold back... you know...”

Allura lowered her head in embarrassment.

“Hahaha~” Nux laughed out, he then carried Allura in his arms and walked into the room.

Allura smiled, however, while she was being carried, her eyes fell on a man, wearing black-coloured, skin-tight clothes, who lay on the floor, unconscious.

“N-Nux...” She called out.

“What is it?” Nux questioned.

“We forgot about the spy...” She couldn’t believe that they forgot about the one for whom they came out of their room in the first place...

“...”

Nux paused.

He then turned back and saw the black-clothed man as well.

Then, a wry smile appeared on his face as he admitted,

“That was careless of me.”

Chapter 183

[Royce Tatume]

[Age: 49 ]

[Mana Cultivation: Master.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal. ]

[Race: Human ]

[Occupation: Spy Of the Thousand Information Chamber]

[Talent: Medium]

[LVL: 34]

[HP: 390/410]

[MP: 610/610]

[STR: 44]

[AGL: 42]

[VIT: 41]

[STM: 42]

[INT: 61]

[DEF: 40]

...

Nux glanced at the man in front of him and his eyes widened in surprise.

The Thousand Information Chamber; a familiar name.

This is the organization that makes Felberta special, indirectly, it is also the organization that protected Felberta.

For Nux, it was a good organization.

Till now.

He didn't care if the organization was good or not, but if the organization has its eyes on his Allura, then they are definitely messing with the wrong person.

However, Nux was a little surprised right now.

They were in the Royal Palace, the safest place in the whole Skyfall kingdom.

Was Thousand Information Chamber so strong that it even has the Royal Palace under its eyes?

Not a random Spy, but a Master Stage Spy was roaming freely inside the Royal Palace.

And around a Concubine's room to boot.

What the hell?

How is this possible?

Aren't they afraid of the strongest being in this Kingdom?

Aren't they afraid of the king?

Or are they stronger than the king?

Questions like these started popping up in Nux's mind, then, however, she shook his head.

There is no use thinking about it. He should just ask the man in front of him.

“Have you removed the poison out of his mouth?” Allura questioned.

“Yes, I have.” Nux nodded, he then grabbed a jar full of water and splashed the water on the Spy’s face.

The spy tightly closed his already closed eyes, then, after rubbing his eyes, he finally opened them and his eyes fell on Nux and Allura.

He quickly recalled what happened and just as he was about to attack, Nux interrupted.

“Don’t bother. You won’t win anyway. For god’s sake, you passed out with a single slap, what the hell are you trying to act so tough for?”

Nux shook his head.

The spy narrowed his eyes, however, he knew Nux wasn’t wrong, then, he started looking around as his mind started moving, however, before he could even formulate a plan, Nux interrupted his thoughts again.

“Don’t try to run away either, look, dude, I am not stupid, if I wasn’t confident enough to stop you from running away, I would have tied you.

Act calmly and think properly, I don’t want a Thousand Information Chamber’s Spy to die in front of me.”

The spy’s eyes widened in surprise as he questioned,

“W-What are you talking about?”

He tried acting ignorantly.

“Oh, please, I am not here to play this game. Look, I have a good impression of the Thousand Information Chamber, you guys have helped me before, so I will give you a chance.

A chance where you don't have to kill yourself or go through torture.”

The spy narrowed his eyes.

He doesn't know why or how, but the man in front of him knew he was from The Thousand Information Chamber.

There was no point in him lying.

“How do you know I am from The Thousand Information Chamber?”

The spy questioned with a cautious look on his face.

“As I said, I have dealt with Thousand Information Chamber before and have a good impression of them. The moment I saw you, I knew you were from that organization.” Nux answered.

‘Is he talking about the Skill I used?’

The spy thought inwardly and suddenly, he realized something.

‘How did these two find me?’

There was no way anyone could have found him when he used that Skill in the dark, however, this man and Lady Allura walked out of the room and directly walked toward him.

It was as if they already knew he was here.

‘He's not normal’ the spy concluded.

“What chance are you talking about?” then, the spy questioned.

A small smile appeared on Nux's face as he replied,

“It is simple, in exchange for your life, I want you to forget whatever you saw here and, I want you to do one thing for me.”

The spy narrowed his eyes as he muttered,

“That isn’t very descriptive.”

“What is it that you don’t understand?”

“What is this ‘thing’ you want me to do?”

The spy questioned.

“That, I do not know, however, I am sure owing a favour to a Spy of Thousand Information Chamber won’t harm me.” Nux smiled.

“So you want me to owe you a favour so you can use me later?” The Spy questioned.

“Indeed. Most probably, I would ask you for some information directly, of course, you can’t tell it to the Thousand Information Chamber, that deal would be between the two of us.”

“...”

The spy stayed silent and started thinking about this.

Then, he questioned,

“How will you contact me?”

“I have my ways,” Nux answered with a confident smile on his face.

“What if I go back on my words and do not help you later?” The spy questioned.

“My last encounter with a Thousand Information Chamber was a pleasant one, I can trust you, I believe you won’t go back on your words.”

“I won’t tell you anything that will harm the Thousand Information Chamber in any way.” The spy replied.

“I don’t plan to do against Thousand Information Chamber, so I won’t need information like that,”

Then, a small smile appeared on Spy's face and he moved his hand for a handshake.

“Deal.”

Nux and the spy shook hands with smiles on their faces.

‘What an Idiot.’

That was the only thought in Spy's mind.

This man in front of him may be strong, but he was an idiot.

Who in the hell trust a spy?

That is just so stupid.

However, what the spy didn't know was that the man in front of him had the same thoughts as him.

‘What an Idiot.’

Nux smile widened as he proceeded with his plan,

“So? Are you willing to be my slave?”

“Slave?” The spy frowned.

“Well you owe me a favour and will do anything I say to you, that is a slave, is it not?”

The Spy frowned even more,

“I am not your slave, I do not owe you a lifetime favour, I only owe you one favour. That doesn't make me your slave.”

“But you still owe me 1 favour, that makes you my slave. I am sorry, but if you don't answer my question, the deal is off”

Suddenly, Nux muttered with a frown.

The spy frowned as well.

The deal was too good for him to turn it down.

Especially now that he can get out of this situation without paying any price whatsoever.

‘Oh fuck it, it’s not like I will do that one favour for him either. I just need to say it.’

“Alright.”

The spy nodded.

Nux’s smile widened even more as he questioned,

“So, are you willing to be my Slave?”

Chapter 184

“Y-You b-betrayed me...”

Royce, the spy muttered in a hoarse voice.

Right now, he was lying on the ground, his face was pale and he was breathing heavily while his eyes were wide open.

Yes, you guessed it right; he went through that agonizing pain.

3 times.

Thoughts about betraying Master Nux, there was nothing like that in his mind now.

However, he was still unhappy that he was cheated.

“Well, you can’t really blame that on me. You were the one who was stupid enough to trust someone. Especially someone you tried to peep on and had discovered their secrets.”

Nux just shrugged.

Royce couldn’t help but grit his teeth.

He was too careless.

This man in front of him reeked of trouble.

He is a Grand Master Stage at such a young age, he knew that he was from Thousand Information Chamber with just one glance and he was with the Royal Concubine, in the middle of the night, inside the Royal Palace.

There was no way he could be someone normal.

Royce regretted it!

He should have been 100 times more cautious when he met this man, however, he did exactly the opposite.

Nux however, did not care what Royce felt.

He just needed information.

“Alright, now answer me, who sent you here?”

Royce of course didn't have any thoughts about hiding anything from Nux and he answered, “Kelton Ackerg.”

“Who is he? What is his cultivation level? Why did he send you here?” Nux asked another series of questions.

“He is a Grand Master Stage Cultivator and he is the Leader of the Thousand Information Chamber.

As for why did he send me here, I do not know.”

Royce answered honestly.

“So you are telling me that the leader of the glorified Thousand Information Chamber is a mere Grand Master Stage Cultivator? Not only that, a spy, who is just a Master Stage Cultivator reports directly to the leader of the Organization?”

How is this organization even working?” Nux couldn't help but wonder.

As for Allura and Royce who heard him, their lips twitched.

A ‘mere’ Grand Master Stage?

‘Just’ Master Stage?

What the hell!?

Do you know how many people are stuck in these realms for their entire life!?

Was Master Stage weak!?

Was Grand Master Stage weak!?

No it was not!

“We are an organization that deals with spying and information, Master Nux. We are not fighters.” Royce then calmed his anger and answered politely.

“I understand that... but... a Master Stage Cultivator reporting directly to the leader... doesn't feel very believable to me...” Nux muttered and Royce's lips twitched again.

He was sure that Master Nux was doing this on purpose.

However, even though he couldn't do anything against him, he answered a bit rudely.

“Master Nux, the Thousand Information Chamber doesn't just choose people randomly. If you want to become a high-ranking Spy in Thousand Information Chamber, you need to pass through strict requirements.

If you don't pass those requirements, then even if you are an Expert Stage Cultivator, you won't be accepted.”

“Hmm? What are the conditions?”

“You need to have Affinity with both Fire and Wind Elements. And I, have a Medium Level Affinity with both of them!”

Royce muttered with a proud look on his face.

Now, Nux understood, he had read and learned about this world a little.

He knew that having an affinity with more than one element was rare.

If Thousand Information Chamber actually only recruits people with dual affinity with Fire and Wind, then it makes complete sense for a Master Stage Cultivator to report directly to the leader.

“Alright, so where is this leader?” Nux questioned.

He wanted to have a little ‘talk’ with the leader.

“I do not know.” However, Royce shook his head.

“Didn’t you say you report directly to the leader?” Nux questioned with a frown.

“I do, however, I do not know where the leader lives, I just follow the orders he gives and then meets him at the set time and place.”

“When are you going to meet him again?” Nux questioned.

“I need to report what I found here to him, so the next meeting is after 2 hours. Of course, I will only report what you want me to.” Royce answered.

A satisfied smile appeared on Nux’s face as he nodded.

“I will go with you and see this Leader you are talking about. As for what you will report, just say that you saw nothing and Lady Allura was sleeping calmly.”

“You are going to go with me?”

“Yes, but don’t worry, I will hide myself,” Nux answered. Royce then shook his head and then nodded.

“Alright, leave the room now, don’t disturb us for the next 2 hours.”

Nux kicked him out, then, he turned towards Allura and smiled,

“We have 2 hours, Darling~”

He has been with Allura for 2 days now, so he knew she liked it when he called her more intimately.

A small smile appeared on Allura's face and she nodded,

“Whatever are we going to do in these 2 hours?” Allura questioned jokingly.

“How about we play a game?” Nux questioned seductively.

“How about we fuck a stupid game and continue with a more, much more pleasurable step?” An alluring smile appeared on Allura's charming face as she questioned back.

Nux did not need anything, he just picked Allura up and jumped onto the bed.

“Annhh~”

...

2 hours quickly passed by.

Right now, Nux was walking beside Royce with a smile on his face and for Royce, his face was stiff.

‘Didn't he say he will hide!? Why is he following me!?’

That was the only question in his mind.

He was scared of what would happen when they meet the leader.

Although he knew his Master Nux was a Grand Master Stage Cultivator as well, his leader was someone who had affinities with 2 elements!

He was a lot stronger than a normal Grand Master Stage Cultivator.

‘Stop thinking about nonsense and continued walking,’

Suddenly, he heard Nux's order in his head and Royce continued walking.

A few minutes later, they walked into a dark hall and Royce stopped.

'Why did you stop?' Nux questioned.

'Master Nux, this is the meeting spot.'

'What? You are going to meet the Leader of the Thousand Information Chamber here? Inside the Royal Palace?'

'Yes, Master Nux, not only that, but I believe that the leader lives in the Royal Palace as well. Of course, this is just my assumption.'

'The leader of such a big organization lives inside the Royal Palace. Right inside the core of the kingdom.'

What kind of balls does one need to have to pull something like that?'

Nux was shocked; he couldn't help but open his mouth in disbelief.

He then waited for a few minutes and soon, a figure covered in black mist appeared in front of them.

*Step* *Step* *Step*

The closer it walked, the paler Royce's face got, he turned his head from Nux to the leader then back to Nux again and started panicking.

'You aren't going to hide, Master Nux!?'

In the end, he couldn't control himself and questioned.

'Don't worry, he can't see me.'

Nux answered and if proving his point, the leader muttered.

"Beta, what are you looking around for? And why is your face so pale?"

Chapter 185

“Beta, what are you looking around for? And why is your face so pale?”

The leader of the Thousand Information Chamber questioned in a hoarse voice.

He was still covered with a veil of Black Mist, therefore, his face wasn't visible, however, Royce could tell from his tone that he had a frown on his face.

‘He can't see him!?’

Royce thought inwardly and his eyes widened in shock.

Master Nux was standing just in front of the leader! Why can't he see him!?

‘Is this another one of his weird abilities?’

Royce thought inwardly, however, before he could think too much, the leader questioned again.

“Beta? Are you okay? Why aren't you answering my question? Was what you found too shocking for you?”

“O-Oh, I-it's nothing like that, Leader, I was just spacing out... Sorry about that... As for what I found, to be honest, everything was normal, I think...”

Royce then started answering how normal everything was and all that.

As for Nux, he glanced at the Leader of the Thousand Information Chamber as his golden eyes shined brightly.

[Name: Kelton Ackerg]

[Age: 62 ]

[Mana Cultivation: Grand Master.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal.]

[Race: Human ]

[Occupation: Vice Leader of the Thousand Information Chamber.]

...

Information about the man named Kelton Ackerg appeared in front of Nux's eyes and soon, he found something interesting.

'A Vice Leader huh...'

His [Eye Of Discerning] was as helpful as always. It was very hard for one to hide secrets from him.

And this Kelton Ackerg guy failed to do so as well.

However, Nux had to admit, Kelton's control over that black mist was much better than Royce's.

Which is understandable, although he was not a leader, he was still a vice leader of an organization like Thousand Information Chamber.

'Who is the leader then? Is he an Expert Stage Cultivator?' Nux started thinking and soon, his curiosity took over and he decided.

He is going to follow this Kelton guy.

Nux then waited patiently, Kelton and Royce talked for 15 more minutes, and finally,

"Alright, you can leave now," Kelton ordered.

"Yes Leader," Royce bowed and then walked away.

Nux had already told her he would stay here, Royce was free.

For now.

After Royce walked away, a frown appeared on Kelton's face and he started thinking, then, he turned around as well and walked into the darkness.

If it wasn't for his [Sense], Nux would have had a hard time following him.

However, since he did have [Sense], the black mist covering Kelton didn't help him hide at all.

Nux then followed Kelton for 10 minutes and then, he stopped in front of a room and knocked.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

"Enter," an emotionless voice was heard.

Kelton then entered the room and bowed.

“Lady Amaya,”

Nux, who entered the room behind him couldn't help but be shocked when he saw a woman sitting inside a lavish room.

The woman had long dark black hair, juicy red lips, a thin nose and a peerless face.

Nux won't say that out loud, but she was the most beautiful woman he had ever met.

A perfect face, a perfect body, it was as if this woman was born to define the word perfect.

Her breasts weren't large, but they weren't small either, her body wasn't curvy, it was more lean however, combining it with her divine face, she was...

Outright gorgeous.

“What have you found out?” The woman named Amaya questioned.

“The Spy said that he hasn't found anything, however, I have an inkling that he is lying,” Kelton answered.

“Hmm? What do you mean? Why would he lie?” Amaya frowned.

“That, I do not know. However, I am very certain that he was lying. His face was paler than usual, his eyes were wandering around as if he was looking for something and the way his eyes were blinking, he looked afraid of something as well.”

Hearing this, Amaya frowned even more.

She trusted Kelton a lot, however, she still couldn't believe him.

All the Spies were trained and have gone through different torture; very few things can actually scare them.

Also, the spies are extremely loyal, why would they lie? She couldn't understand.

“Why is he lying though?” Amaya questioned.

“I do not know.” Kelton shook his head.

He does not have any answer to that question.

Beta has worked under him for a long time now, he knew how loyal he is, if it was before, he would have never imagined Beta lying to him, however, today, the signs were just too obvious.

‘What can possibly make him betray us? Money? Torture?’

What is it?’ Kelton started thinking however, no matter how hard he thought, nothing came to his mind.

“Heh.”

Suddenly, he heard a small chuckle. He raised his head and saw that there was a smile on Amaya's face.

“I knew something was wrong with that Allura,” Amaya muttered.

“Hmm? What do you mean?” Kelton questioned.

“Think about it, Kelton.

With the whole Edda incident, where they say Edda and Marquee teamed up to catch a spy. The king's minister and the security department must have overlooked this detail, however, it didn't escape my eyes.”

“What are you talking about?”

“They say Edda bullied Edrea and forced her to do more work, right?”

“Yes,”

“And how did Edda do it? She gave all her work to Edrea. But what was she doing while Edrea did her part of the work?”

“Hmm?”

“She walked into Allura’s room and ‘talked’ with her. Now from what I know, Edda and Allura weren’t that close before.

Of course, this is not the first time Allura has taken interest in some ‘maids’, however, this ‘interest’ lasted a lot longer than normal.

Normally, Allura would never talk to someone for more than 2 days, however, she and Edda talked with each other for 7 days, this is not normal at all.

And then suddenly, Edda disappeared.”

As she talked, Kelton started thinking as well.

There was something wrong here indeed.

Nux, who heard everything couldn’t help but raise her eyebrows.

What the hell...

Why is someone suspecting Allura...

Where in the hell did her name come from?

And why does what she say sound so logical?

Who the hell is this woman?

Chapter 186

‘Allura,’ Nux called through their link.

‘What is it? Did you find anything?’ Allura questioned.

‘What do you know about Amaya Skyfall?’ Nux didn’t answer her question, instead, he questioned back.

‘Amaya? Why do you want to know about her?’ Allura frowned.

‘You know her?’

‘Of course, I do. She’s a Royal concubine, just like me. However, that child is a lot more pitiful than me.’ Allura answered.

‘Tell me everything you know about her.’ Nux didn’t say anything and just asked what Allura knew.

‘Well, 10 years ago, Kingdome of Skadi attacked the Skyfall Kingdom, of course, it was not a major attack, actually, according to the Kingdom of Skadi, it was a clash between noble houses that lived inside the Border towns of the two kingdoms.

Of course, the reason didn’t matter, the Skyfall Kingdom was stronger, and the Kingdom of Skadi was weak, therefore, the Kingdom of Skadi was forced to bow and pay compensation.

Amaya Skadi, or now Amaya Skyfall, was that compensation. At that time, she was only 13 years old, and her body still wasn’t fully developed, however, her face, her face was nothing less than perfect.

She was a peerless beauty.

And as soon as the King laid his eyes on her, he accepted the compensation and signed the deal.

However, there was a catch.

Amaya Skyfall was like an Unattainable Flower, she had a peerless appearance, but, she was cursed by the heavens.

She can't cultivate.

She has no talent at all.

Of course, to someone like the king, this doesn't matter, he just happily accepted the compensation and waited for 5 years.

Yes, he would let her turn 18, he would let her body grow, then, he would devour this piece of flower and would collect a new, even shinier trophy.

However, 5 years later, another thing was revealed.

The Curse didn't just stop her from cultivating, the curse stopped her from living like a woman as well.

Amaya Skyfall's curse didn't allow anyone to mate with her.

If one does, he will die the moment he puts his thing inside.

Of course, someone like the king can easily resist the curse; however, it will weaken him to some extent. Obviously, as the king, he cannot allow that.

Therefore, he backed away and started finding the cure to this curse.

From then to now, 5 more years have passed, however, the king was not able to find anything and Amaya Skyfall, well, she just stayed inside her room, as everyone avoided her like a plague.

A 13-year-old girl, who was sold by her parents to another kingdom, there she was ghosted by everyone around her, living a dull, lifeless life, waiting to die.

A pitiful girl indeed.'

Allura muttered, and hearing her voice, Nux knew she was sad.

‘...’

However, he didn’t say anything.

‘But why are you suddenly asking about that pitiful girl?’ Suddenly, Allura questioned.

A wry smile appeared on Nux’s face as he answered.

‘The pitiful girl you are talking about...

Is the Leader of The Thousand Information Chamber.’ Nux revealed and Allura’s eyes widened in surprise.

‘WHAT!?’

‘Yes, Amaya Skyfall is the Leader of The Thousand Information Chamber, and that is not it...’

Nux repeated, then, he glanced at the screen that had appeared in front of his face.

[Name: Amaya Skyfall ]

[Age: 23]

[Mana Cultivation: Mortal.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal.]

[Occupation: The leader of the Thousand Information Chamber.]

Physique.

This was something he had never seen before.

Devouring Mist Demon Physique.

‘Is that the reason behind that curse of hers?’

Nux thought inwardly.

‘Wait...’

Suddenly, Nux’s eyes widened as he recalled something.

‘The Supreme Harem God System has been successfully installed. From now on, the host can gain the power, talent, physique and bloodline of the women he fucks.’

This was the message he got from the system when it was bound with his soul.

However, since Nux has never met a woman with a different bloodline or physique, he had forgotten about it.

But now, it was different.

He has finally found someone who had a Physique.

Soon, Nux's smile widened.

'I have to talk to her.'

He had decided.

The woman has a curse and can't be fucked?

'Hmph! Curse my ass, I'll think of something.'

That was his thought.

He has found his next target.

The Unattainable Flower, Amaya Skyfall.

He then walked into the room, his [Conceal] was on, there was no way Amaya or Kelton could see him.

Then, he walked toward Kelton as a green coloured dagger appeared in his hand, he placed the dagger on Kelton's neck and grabbed him from behind.

Actually, he wanted to grab Amaya, however, he was still wary of her physique, it is better to steer away from the unknown.

"Who are you!?" Amaya, who was talking to Kelton shouted out loud when suddenly a man appeared behind Kelton and placed his dagger on Kelton's neck.

Kelton's eyes widened in disbelief as well.

However, seeing that pointy dagger on his neck, he didn't move.

He quickly calmed down and just as he was about to take out his dagger from his storage ring, he heard a voice.

“Calm down, don’t do something stupid. I could have killed you if I wanted to and you would have died without knowing how and what happened.

I mean no harm.”

Nux muttered.

Of course, Kelton wasn’t going to listen to him, however, Amaya was different.

“Kelton, stop.” She ordered.

A smile appeared on Nux’s face as he commented.

“Who are you?” Kelton questioned as he calmed himself down.

Actually, he was wary of this man who had literally appeared out of nowhere.

However, he was giving himself too much credit.

Nux didn’t even care about it.

He was just a prop he could use to make his entry cooler.

That’s it.

His main target was Amaya, the woman sitting in front of him.

“I didn’t know the Leader of the Thousand Information Chamber was such a young woman.”

Kelton’s eyes widened in surprise,

‘How did he know!?’

That was his thoughts.

Amaya, however, seemed to have expected this and wasn't really surprised.

Then, a small smile appeared on her face as she questioned.

“Are you the lover Allura had been going out with behind the King's back?”

Chapter 187

“Are you the lover Allura had been going out with behind the King’s back?”

Amaya questioned and Nux’s eyes widened in surprise.

“Haha~ From your reaction, it looks like I am right.” Amaya then chuckled.

Nux’s eyes widened even more when he realized what had just happened.

What Amaya said was just a guess!

She wasn’t sure about it!

However, she questioned it so convincingly that he thought that she already knew about it and reacted in a way he shouldn’t have.

‘W-What the hell? Why is dealing with her so difficult?’

Nux wondered in surprise.

He then noticed that Amaya was observing him with a small smile on her face, it was as if she was enjoying his reactions.

And for some reason, Nux did not like that gaze at all.

However, instead of being angry, Nux calmed down.

Then, after taking a deep breath, Nux questioned.

“How did you know?”

“You must have already heard what I was saying before, didn’t you?”

Nux decided to be honest and nodded.

“As I said, Edda and Allura were a little too close than normal. Then, after Edda disappeared and the whole spy thing that continued after that, one thing bugged me.

Edda, Alger, Edrea, and Algerama, the main players of this incident were mentioned, however, no one mentioned Allura, who was unusually close to Edda. Neither did the concubine herself step forward.

Something felt wrong.

I then started reading Allura’s logs and noticed that last week, she left the Royal Palace 2 times. An irregular behaviour.

Of course, this was not enough to suspect her, however, ‘coincidentally’ the day Allura left the Royal Palace, was the day Edda disappeared and everything happened.

Not only that but this time, Allura didn’t stop anywhere, in particular, she just rode in her carriage for a few hours and returned. Another irregular behaviour.

This was suspicious in my book.

I kept my eyes on her for 2 days and although I didn’t notice something weird, I felt something was wrong.

She was unusually quiet.

Then, I sent a spy to spy on Allura and the Spy I sent returned with a pale face and was acting weirdly.

This could not be a coincidence anymore.

Something was wrong with Allura for sure.”

Amaya replied.

However, Nux just furrowed his brows and questioned.

“But that doesn’t explain how you knew why I and Allura were lovers.”

“Well, that was just a guess. You have to be very skilled if you can roam around the Royal Palace and appear behind a Grand Master Stage cultivator like that. Making you a subordinate shouldn’t be easy.

Therefore I assumed you were the boss.

As for your relation with Allura, well, lovers was the first thing that came to my mind and luckily, I was right.”

Amaya answered.

“You are an intelligent woman indeed.” Nux nodded.

“Thank you for the compliment.” Amaya smiled.

Then, a small smile appeared on Nux’s face as he commented,

“However, you aren’t as intelligent as I thought you would be.”

“Hmm?” Amaya frowned.

“If I were you, I wouldn’t tell anything to someone who just barged into my room without me noticing, I would be warier and I would be on guard.

What if I don’t like the fact that you know my secret and decide to silence you?” Nux questioned with a smile.

Amaya, however, wasn’t intimidated, a similar smile appeared on her face as she questioned back.

“Do you know who I am? I am the Concubine of the Skyfall Kingdom.”

“Or in other words, you are a Trophy.” Nux mocked.

Amaya however, shook her head, “I am an ‘unclaimed trophy’, and the king values me the lot.”

“Oh? But are you sure you want the king to know that you are the leader of the Thousand Information Chamber?” Nux questioned.

“Huh?” Amaya frowned.

She then glanced at Nux for a while and then, she questioned.

“Do you really think the King doesn’t know about it already?”

“Huh?” This time, Nux frowned.

“Aren’t you from the Enemy kingdom? Why would the King not do anything if he knew you are the leader of the Thousand Information Chamber?”

Amaya chuckled and then, she answered,

“As I said, I am an ‘unclaimed trophy’, the king values me a lot. Therefore he allows me to do everything I want. He treats this as a child’s play.”

“But what if you send important information to the Kingdom Of Skadi?”

“The king knows I won’t do it and to be honest, even if I do, he probably wouldn’t care. That is just how he is.” Amaya answered.

Nux started thinking.

Amaya observed Nux’s face and she muttered,

“The Royal Palace is a lot scarier place than you think it is. Actually, I am surprised that you can roam here for so long and still be alive.”

Nux glanced at Amaya and understood what she wanted to say.

She wanted to warn him.

And Nux was planning to take this warning seriously.

Maybe he underestimated the Kingdom.

Maybe he got a little too arrogant.

He needs to slow down.

Of course, now that he is here, he won't go back without gaining anything.

A small smile appeared on his face and he questioned.

“So are you planning to call the King? Do you think you can survive till the King comes here? Let me tell you, if you are thinking of depending on this trash, then you will be disappointed.

It would be an achievement for him to resist me for 3 seconds.”

Kelton's face twitched when he heard Nux's words, however, for some reason, he believed him.

This man appeared behind him and he wasn't able to notice it.

What is stopping this man from beheading him?

Actually, even he was wondering why Lady Amaya was telling everything to this man, she is usually cold and aloof and doesn't talk to anyone.

Why is she talking so much with this man?

Suddenly, Amaya muttered.

“Well, actually, I am not planning to call the King.”

Chapter 188

“Well, actually, I am not planning to call the King.”

“Heeh? Do you have any other plans?” Nux questioned with a smile.

“No, I do not have any other plans as well,” Amaya answered and Kelton panicked.

What!?! Lady Amaya was out of plans!?

When has this happened before!?

And why is she so calm!?

“Hmm, then why aren’t you scared for your life?” Nux questioned.

Then, a smile appeared on Amaya’s face as she answered,

“I just believe that you are not here to kill me.”

“Hmm? Why do you think so?”

“Well, what are you wasting so much time for then? C’mon, do it. Kill me.”
Amaya chuckled.

“...”

Nux blinked a few times, then, he chuckled as well.

“You are right, I am not here to kill you.”

Then, he removed the dagger from Kelton’s neck and stepped back.

Kelton sighed in relief as he rubbed his neck.

He won’t deny it, he was scared.

Very scared.

However, now things were better.

“So what are you here for?” Amaya questioned.

Nux smiled, then suddenly, he disappeared and appeared in front of Kelton, with one chop, the man’s body fell to the floor, unconscious.

Then, Nux turned toward Amaya with the same smile on his face.

Amaya raised her eyebrow at his actions, a sigh then escaped her mouth as she muttered, “You weren’t lying when you said that he won’t be able to buy time.”

She didn’t look very shocked for some reason, she was rather calm.

“I never lie,” Nux answered.

“So? What do you want to talk about?” Amaya questioned again.

“I want to talk about your curse or to be more precise,

I want to talk about your Physique.”

Amaya’s eyes widened in surprise, this was the second time that she had shown a reaction, the first being when Nux directly appeared in front of her.

“How do you know about my Physique?” Amaya questioned as she narrowed her eyes.

Even the king did not know about this, he just treated this as a curse and was finding a cure for a curse that doesn’t even exist in the first place.

Nux just smiled as he answered,

“I suggest you do not underestimate me, Amaya.

Treat me as if I am special.”

Amaya narrowed her eyes even more.

She glanced at Nux's golden eyes and for some reason, she got lost in them.

Soon, however, she came out of her reverie and took a deep breath as she calmed herself.

“So? What do you want to talk about my physique?”

After she calmed herself, Amaya questioned.

“Is your Physique the reason why you cannot cultivate?” Nux questioned back.

“...”

Amaya stayed silent as she observed Nux. She knew she shouldn't share something like this with someone she met just a few minutes ago, however, for some reason; her instincts told her to answer this person.

‘Whatever, it's not like nothing would change if I told him.’

With that thought in her mind, she nodded.

“Yes, you are correct; there is no curse on me.

Everything is because of my physique. I cannot use a normal cultivation technique to cultivate Mana.

I could do it at first however, breaking through mortal limits and becoming a beginner stage cultivator is a complex process, I need a proper technique to do it.”

“And what about the belief that you cannot be touched?” Nux questioned.

Instead of answering Nux's question, Amaya picked up a dagger and slit her finger.

Nux's eyes widened in disbelief when he saw Black Mist coming out of her wound, it was only 3 seconds later did the Mist disappeared and blood came out.

“That is because of my physique as well, I do not know much, but I have this Black Mist inside my body and this Mist has poisonous properties.

If a mortal as much as touches this Mist, he will die a gruesome death.

A cultivator isn't spared either.

When the king was 'testing' if the 'curse' was real or not, he used an Advance Stage Cultivator, however, the moment the head of his thing touched my special spot, the poison corroded his body and he passed out.

1 month later, he died and Black Mist came out of his body.

The King of course was scared; he knew that even if he could resist the curse with his cultivation, it will have some effect on him, which he won't allow no matter what.”

Amaya answered.

She had noticed that for some reason, she was talking more than she normally does.

She soon realized that the reason might be because she wanted to talk to someone as equal.

She has been in this Royal Palace for 10 years, most people ghosted her and as for the members of the Thousand Information Chamber, they treated her with the utmost respect.

She doesn't have any friends, she doesn't have anyone to talk to and she lived like this for 10 years.

No matter how smart or intelligent she was, in the end, she was still a 23-year-old woman who has been living alone since she was 13.

Nux was the first one who talked with her as an equal, that was the reason why she talked so much.

Of course, this was all her thoughts, if Nux knew about it, he would just shrug.

‘Naahh, I am just too handsome, you are charmed by my appearance, that’s the reason why you talking more than normal.’

That’s what he would have answered.

“So what you are saying is that as long as you have a suitable cultivation technique, the ‘curse’ will be lifted?” Nux questioned.

“Yes. Although there is no proof, I am sure that once I become a Beginner stage cultivator and start controlling Mana, I will be able to control this Mist as well.”

“How are you so sure?”

“I just know it.” Amaya had no specific answer.

And Nux understood that since he could relate to it.

His Abilities are like that as well.

Somehow, he just knows how it works.

Amaya’s Black Mist must be similar as well.

Suddenly, a small smile appeared on Nux’s face as he questioned.

“So, Amaya, what if I give you a Cultivation Technique that is suitable for you? How will you repay the favour?”

Chapter 189

“So, Amaya, what if I give you a Cultivation Technique that is suitable for you?”

How will you repay the favour?”

Nux questioned with a small smile on his face.

“Do not joke about this.” Suddenly, Amaya’s expression turned serious as he muttered.

“I am not joking,” Nux replied.

“Then you don’t know what you are talking about. You have no clue how hard it is to find a Cultivation Technique that might not even be in this world.”

“Ohh? Why are you so sure that I can’t find it?” Nux questioned.

“What do you think the reason behind establishing Thousand Information Chamber is?” Amaya questioned.

Nux narrowed his eyes as he guessed, “To find the cultivation technique?”

Amaya nodded, “Indeed, this is the only reason I formed it. It has been 10 years and I haven’t even found a clue yet, how are you going to find it?”

Amaya questioned.

Nux, however, just shook his head and replied, “You don’t have to worry about that, finding it or not finding it is my problem. You just have to tell me that if I do find it,

How are you going to repay me?”

“Anything. I will do anything you want.”

Amaya replied as her eyes shined with an unwavering will.

“Anything?” Nux questioned.

“Anything.” Amaya nodded, the determination and seriousness in her eyes did not fade away.

“What if want your life? What’s the point of getting the technique if you can’t use it?”

“You can kill me right now. There is no point in doing it in a roundabout way.”

Nux’s smile widened even more as he questioned,

“Then I will ask you one last time,

Will you do anything I say?”

“If you find a Cultivation Technique that is suitable for my Physique, then yes.” Amaya nodded again.

“Hahaha~” Suddenly, Nux laughed out loud.

“Remember your promise, Amaya.

Ah also, do not tell anything about me and Allura to anyone, okay?”

Saying that, he turned around and left Amaya’s room.

Amaya who saw his back stayed silent.

No one knew what she was thinking.

Then, she turned her head towards Kelton and shook her head.

She then picked him up and placed him on the sofa gently, Kelton has been with her ever since she was a child, he is the only person she trusts and respect.

Although he was defeated by that man today, that didn't affect the respect she had for him.

He was more like her father than her subordinate.

...

On the other side, Nux returned to Allura's room with a smile on his face.

"Heehh, you look happy? Am I getting a new sister?" Allura questioned with a smile on her face.

"How did you know?" Nux questioned back.

"Well, though I have not been with you for a long time, I have a pretty good understanding of your character.

You are a certified playboy that goes around making women fall for his charm." Allura answered.

"You make it sound so evil."

"Tsk Tsk. isn't that what you are? An evil Sexual predator." Allura snorted.

"You know... you and Felberta would get along well."

Suddenly, Nux muttered.

"Hmm, Hmm, other than Thyra, I believe I will get along with all your women," Allura commented.

"I do not understand why you hate each other so much." Nux shook his head.

"Hmph! She is too bossy." Allura complained with a pout.

“She’s not bossy, she is just shy around others,” Nux explained.

“She didn’t look very shy to me.” Allura was going to be convinced so easily. Suddenly, Allura thought about something and questioned,

“What about others? Is Thyra getting along with your other women?”

“Yeah, she is getting along fine.” Nux nodded as he thought about it.

“Why isn’t she shy in front of them, huh? Why do I receive the special treatment?” Allura questioned.

Nux frowned and then started thinking about this as well.

Why is Thyra getting along with others but not with Allura?

What is the reason?

‘Ahh...’

Soon, Nux’s eyes widened in realization as he muttered.

“That might be because of Skyla. She was there when Thyra met other girls.”

Skyla had the power to lighten anyone’s mood with her cheerful face.

One has to be a monster to not like Skyla.

Or at least that’s what Nux believed.

“Ah, Skyla huh... I would like to meet her...” Allura muttered.

“Hmm? You know about her?” Nux questioned.

“Yeah, Edda talked about her a lot. Actually, she talked about all your women; however, the most she talked about was Skyla.

She said Skyla was the one she is the closest to.”

Nux nodded, “That thought is shared by most of them. Skyla is close to all of them. Actually, once you meet her, you will like her as well.”

“I am excited to meet them.” Allura smiled.

The two of them continued talking, soon, the topic turned into something lewd and then, started another steamy session started.

The session continued for an hour, and then, Allura closed her eyes and entered the dreamland. Nux who had hugged her from behind, however, wasn't asleep.

He was searching, searching for the Cultivation technique inside the System Shop.

However, soon, a frown appeared on his face.

He couldn't find what he was looking for.

He has checked everything.

1-Star Cultivation technique.

2-Star, 3-Star, 4, 5, 6...

He searched everything; however, he did not find anything.

In the end, he glanced at another list and exhaled deeply.

[7-Star Cultivation Techniques – 10000 System Points.]

This was his last hope, he can't buy any 8-Star Cultivation technique, therefore, if he didn't find any technique here, he could forget about Amaya.

Nux then started searching, he searched and searched and soon, he found what he was looking for.

[Mantra of the Devouring Mist Demon]

[7-Star Cultivation Technique]

[Price – 10000 System points.]

He found a perfect technique, however, he realized that he didn't have enough System points.

Of course, this wasn't much of a problem for him.

A small smile appeared on Nux's face.

'I guess I need to revisit Bloodhill Wilderness.'

Chapter 190

“My Lovely dovely girls, we all are going out today~” Nux announced with a big smile on his face.

“Heeeh? Are we going on a date?” Skyla questioned as her eyes shined with excitement. e

“We are going on a Date indeed...” Nux nodded with a smile on his face.

Skyla’s eyes shined even more.

A date with Nux?

Heck yes!

Those were her thoughts.

However, Felberta’s thoughts weren’t as simple,

“Date? Why so sudden?” She questioned as she narrowed her eyes.

A date with Nux?

Heck yes!

Those were her thoughts as well.

However, she knew this man in front of him very well.

And that big smile he had on his face...

She is 99% sure that something was wrong here.

“How many of us are going?” Felberta questioned.

“Me, you, Thyra, Skyla, Lane and Edda. We are all going.” Nux answered with the same big smile.

“Oh?” Felberta raised her left eyebrow and questioned.

“Allura isn’t going?” Felberta questioned.

“Well, she is still a Royal Concubine, she can’t stay away from the Palace for a long time,” Nux muttered with a sad look on his face.

He really wanted to get stronger as soon as possible now.

“How long are we going out for?” Felberta questioned.

“It will take us 2-3 weeks,” Nux answered.

“Got it.”

Felberta nodded. Now she was 100% sure.

Something was definitely wrong here.

There is no way Nux would leave his woman alone for 2-3 weeks without any reason. It is either they all go together, or they don’t go anywhere.

“Where are we going?” Felberta questioned as she narrowed her eyes.

“Heh?”

“I am asking where are we going?” Felberta questioned.

“Oh C’mon sister Felberta, it is Nux we are talking about, he must have chosen a fun place, right Nux?” Skyla questioned with a big smile.

“I-Indeed.” Nux nodded.

“Nux, where are we going?” Felberta, however, didn’t back down and questioned.

Now, Lane and Edda started catching up as well.

Something was wrong here.

Thyra, however, didn't care.

She was just inwardly excited to go out with Nux.

Heh. A surprisingly cute attitude for a cold-blooded assassin.

As he glanced at his girls, Nux knew he couldn't hide it anymore.

“W-We are going into the Bloodhill Wilderness.”

He revealed and Skyla opened her mouth in shock.

“How are we going to have fun there?” She questioned.

“Well... I will be honest... we aren't exactly going to have fun there...”

There is a reason why we are going there, however, I am sure anything will be fun if we are together, right?” Nux laughed.

“What is the reason?” Edda questioned.

“Well, I'll tell you guys about it later. I'll tell you guys once we reach there.” Nux replied.

“When are we leaving?” Thyra questioned. Although she sounded nonchalant, Nux could see the excitement hidden in her blue eyes.

“Heeh? You look excited.” Nux commented.

“I am excited.” Thyra didn't deny it.

She then turned towards other girls and suggested.

“You all should get a little serious about cultivation, to be honest, although you are strong and are all Master Stage Cultivators, except for Skyla, all of you would be killed by Advance Stage Assassins if they attack you.”

Thyra muttered.

Felberta frowned, “I can understand what you are trying to say and will follow your advice, however, why is Skyla not included with us?”

Skyla, who was standing beside Thyra raised her chest in pride as a big smile appeared on her face.

“I have been learning Killing Techniques. Hehe~”

“What!?” Nux, Felberta, Lane and Edda opened their eyes in shock.

“What? You can ask Sister Thyra if you don’t believe me.” Thinking that they didn’t believe her, Skyla pouted and pointed at Thyra.

“You were serious about it...? I thought you were doing that in order to get close to Thyra...” Lane muttered.

Then, a silly smile appeared on Skyla’s face as she answered,

“Well... umm... I started it for that reason... but then I liked it... and... Haha...” Skyla laughed out loud.

“She has been learning from me for a while now, although she doesn’t have any practical experience, she should be able to defeat any of you.” Thyra nodded.

“Huh? Even me?” Edda questioned.

She was stronger than all the women before Thyra appeared, when she heard that Skyla surpassed her, her competitive nature rose up and she questioned.

“Well, you might be stronger than her physically, but if you two fight, I would bet on Skyla,” Thyra answered and Skyla’s smile brightened even more.

Hehe~ She was strong, you know?

Edda narrowed her eyes as she glanced at Skyla and challenged, “Skyla, fight with me.”

Thyra, however, shook her head, “What Skyla is learning are Killing Techniques, it isn’t child’s play.

You cannot ‘spar’ with her, especially when you know practically nothing about the technique.”

“Alright, we will be going to the Bloodhill Wilderness, let’s leave after breakfast,” Felberta announced.

She may not show it, however, she didn’t like the fact that she was the weakest among Nux’s all women, however, she couldn’t do anything about it, she didn’t cultivate on her own, she was a Pleasure Cultivator.

However, now that she heard about Thyra’s Killing Technique, she started having thoughts as well.

She would learn it and then she would defeat everyone!

She won’t remain as Nux’s weakest woman.

She was competitive as well.

“Yes, I want to go there as well,” Edda muttered, Lane who was behind her nodded as well.

Nux glanced at his girls and smiled.

“Good.” Then, he turned towards Thyra and nodded.

A small smile appeared on Thyra’s face.

“Alright, now remember, to maximize the efficiency, we will be running towards the Bloodhill Wilderness.

I hope all of you are in Clover Town within 3 days.

Okay?”

“Alright.” Felberta and the others nodded with determined eyes.

“Also, don’t enter the Inner Area, am I clear?”

“Yes.”

“Form a group of 4,

Skyla, Lane and 2 assassins.

Felberta, Edda and 2 assassins.

Thyra, you can do whatever you want inside, I believe your judgment.”

“Wait... assassins?” Felberta frowned.

“Yes, all 50 assassins will be going with us as well.”

Chapter 191

“Damn... are you sure you are Fiery Flame Lion?” Nux questioned as he glanced at the beast in front of him.

The beast was a Lion with Flames as its mane and it gave off a dangerous aura.

Umm... well, not really.

There was no dangerous Aura.

Its whole body was covered in scratches and cuts, its movements were now sluggish, no, sluggish was an understatement, it couldn't move.

Its eyes that were filled with immense pride and ego were now filled with dread as it glanced at Nux.

It wanted to run away, however,

It couldn't move.

Nux then started walking towards the Lion, with whatever strength it was left with, the Lion tried to step back, however, it lost the balance of its body and fell down.

Its whole body was now numb. It only glanced at Nux who was walking beside it and regretted attacking.

Maybe... maybe it would have been left alive if it didn't attack him this monster.

Nux just shook his head, then, a sword appeared in his hand and he pierced it into Lion's head, taking its life.

“Grrr...”

The Fiery Flame Lion then closed his eyes, the flames surrounding its mane died down and it stopped breathing.

“I really got stronger huh...”

Nux, who killed the Lion couldn't help but smile.

Last time, he had to use all the strength he had to defeat it, however now...

Now he defeated him just because the Lion interrupted his 'walk'.

Well, actually, he was the one who deactivated his [Conceal], however, the Lion didn't have to know that.

Back to the topic,

Nux defeated the Lion easily.

The Lion's movements felt so sluggish to him that he felt like he was fighting a 1-star Beast.

Actually, those 'scratches and cuts' all over Lion's body were just Nux testing his Poison Dagger that he got from Alger.

Otherwise, he could have beheaded this Lion like he had been beheading other 4-Star Beast in one slash.

Yes, he has been in the Wilderness for a few hours now, with how clean his clothes were and how tension free his face was, it was hard to believe but it was indeed the truth.

Not only that, he had even killed more than twenty 4-Star Beasts.

The process was very simple, you walk up to a Beast, slash your sword, and boom, the beast is beheaded, simple right?

Of course, don't try something like this if you do not [Conceal], else you will fail on the 'walk up to the beast' part.

[Ding]

[4-Star Beast Killed]

[Reward: 10 System Points]

[Fire Affinity: +10]

Nux completely ignored the message in front of him and continued his walk.

‘Nux, I am here.’

However, just as he was about to attack another 4-Star beast, he heard Thyra’s voice.

‘Aha, as I thought, you are the first.’

Nux complimented.

‘It’s not like it’s a big achievement, I am the strongest one after all...’

Thyra replied nonchalantly.

However, Nux was sure that there was a small smile on her face.

‘Alright, I’ll come to get you,’ Nux muttered.

The beast he was about to attack looked around.

For some reason, it felt like it had overcome a danger.

A weird feeling indeed.

However, the beast didn’t think too much about it and continued moving.

On the other side, Nux activated his [Conceal] and rushed out of the Inner Area, then he moved out of the Outer Area and walked into Clover Town.

‘Where are you?’

He questioned.

‘Near the Entrance.’

Thyra answered.

‘Got it.’

Nux then rushed towards the Entrance and soon he found Thyra.

He completely ignored the man who lay on the ground behind Thyra, he could predict what had happened by how the group of 3 men were looking at Thyra.

The fear inside their eyes was clear.

Nux, however, did not pity these men. Hmph, they should be happy that Thyra didn’t directly slit his throat. She was feeling good today, so she must have decided to let it go after beating the man till he was unconscious.

Nux then smiled, he then walked towards Thyra and offered his hand.

The three men who were looking at Thyra with fear in their eyes finally noticed Nux, then, a small smile appeared on their faces.

Someone else is going to suffer the same fate as them, it made them happy.

However, what happened next shocked them.

That monster that had a cold look on her face showed an amazingly beautiful smile then she grabbed the man’s eyes and the two of them walked away.

“W-What was that...?” One of the men couldn’t help but question.

“T-That woman can show a face like that...?” another man questioned.

“That’s the benefit of having a handsome face.

Tsk Tsk, if we do it, then it’s an assault, however, if someone handsome does the same thing, he is a gentleman!

Where’s the logic in that?

Hmph! Women.”

The last of the three snorted with a bitter face and the other two nodded.

“Hey... don’t tell Alex about this after he wakes up...” Someone suggested.

The other two nodded and agreed.

Their friend would be too shocked if he knew what happened and they won’t let this happen.

They are good friends indeed.

...

On the other side, Thyra and Nux were walking hand in hand, looking like a couple, there was a beautiful small smile on Thyra’s face and Nux, who saw that smile smiled as well.

Thyra was too cute.

“Is anyone else coming right now?”

“Two and Three... I think they would reach here within a few hours...”

“Ahh, so we have a few hours with us, right?” Nux questioned.

A little perverted smile appeared on Thyra’s face before it disappeared quickly and she nodded.

“Hmmm, what should we do in these few hours we have?” Nux questioned to himself.

Thyra's heart started beating faster.

Then, a mischievous smile appeared on Nux's face as he muttered,

“Well, let's go and hunt a few beasts. What do you say, Thyra?”

Thyra's smile disappeared, however, she was too shy to say anything.

In the end, she nodded with a pout.

“Alright... let's hunt some beasts...”

Chapter 192

“Alright, now all of you are here.” Nux smiled as he glanced at the 5 women in front of him.

It was his third day inside the Bloodhill Wilderness, while it would be the first day for Felberta, Edda, Skyla and Lane.

There were still a few assassins that still haven't arrived, however, they can't be blamed either, they were only Advanced and Beginner Stage Cultivators and they aren't as fast as them.

They still needed 2-3 days to arrive.

Of course, that doesn't mean Nux was helpless, he had already formed 'Party' with other adventurers.

Nux then turned towards four assassins that were standing behind Thyra.

They were Two, Three, Four and Five.

“Alright, you know the groups right?” Nux questioned.

“Yes! I have remembered it already; it's me, Sister Lane, Three and Four.

The other team is Sister Felberta, Sister Edda, Two, and Five.

The rest of the assassins are to function according to Sister Thyra's command.”

Skyla answered with an excited look on his face.

Nux smiled, he then turned towards Skyla and questioned.

“Alright, then what about the rules?”

“It is strictly forbidden to enter the Inner Area, well, except for Sister Thyra, she is strong, she can do whatever she wants.

All the teams have to be connected through Telepathic Connection, we have the advantage, and we should use it.

We are not to fight recklessly.

And no deaths are allowed.” Skyla answered like an honour student.

Nux patted her head as a reward and then nodded.

“Good, as expected of my Skyla,”

A smile appeared on Skyla’s face as she giggled.

Nux’s face then turned serious as he glanced at his girls and answered, “Look, you are exploring the Wilderness with the best experts we have right now. Do not hesitate to ask whatever you want.

Learn from them and grow stronger, however, don’t take unnecessary risks, your safety is much more important to me, okay?”

“Don’t worry too much, we aren’t children,” Felberta answered.

She felt especially weird when Nux treated them like children, especially when she has a child of her own.

Of course, knowing that he was acting like this because he was worried about her safety filled her with immense satisfaction and delight; however, she would never say that out loud.

Especially not when there were so many people around them.

“Alright, then let’s move.” Nux nodded, he had already formed Party with everyone, now the only thing that was left was killing the beasts and getting those System Points.

After everyone left, a small smile appeared on Nux's face as he entered the Inner Area.

In these last two days, he alone gathered around 1500 points.

Yes, he killed around One hundred and fifty 4 Star Beasts, alone.

The only good thing is that he did it very far away from where he was right now.

Otherwise, there would be no beast he could kill here.

“Alright, let's start today's killing.

Hahaha!”

Demon-like laughter.

The beasts all around the area felt a shiver in their spine.

They looked around; however, they couldn't see anything.

Well, only the lucky ones would know how they died.

...

On the other side, Skyla, Lane, Three and Four were walking around and Skyla, as usual, was the one who started talking,

“So Three, what's your real name?”

“It's Clara Wingson, Lady Skyla.”

“Ohhh, Clara, that's a nice name.” Skyla complimented, then she turned towards Four and questioned.

“What about you, Four?”

“I am Sasha Simpson, Lady Skyla.” Four answered.

“Ohhh, got it.”

“So, tell me, Sasha and Clara, do you know the Killing Techniques that Thyra knows?”

“We do know about them, Miss One had thought it to us.” Clara nodded.

“Oh, so is Thyra the one who trains you?”

“Yes,”

“How do you guys train?”

“We learn the theory and then use it against real humans.”

“...”

Skyla stayed silent.

She actually wanted to learn more, however, she didn't want to kill humans.

That was bad.

As if knowing what she was thinking, Clara muttered,

“There is another way to train as well, Lady Skyla.”

“What is it?” Skyla questioned with an excited look on her face.

“We spar with each other.”

“Huh? Spar? But Thyra said there you only kill, you don't spar.”

“Well, that is true, the best way is to kill humans, and however, if you don't want to kill, then using wooden swords to spar is a good way to train.

However, I recommend that you spar with someone who had the same skill level as you, that is the fastest way to improve.”

Skyla nodded, she then turned towards Lane and smiled,

“Sister Lane you are going to spar with me after we return, okay? Please?”

Since they were small, Lane has always been weak to Skyla, she just cannot deny when Skyla looks at her like that.

Lane then shook her head and nodded.

“Alright... but you have to teach me those killing techniques as well.”

“Of course! You can count on me!”

“Alright, let’s start killing some beasts now,” Lane muttered.

Skyla nodded, she then looked around, and soon, her eyes fell on a 1-Star Beast and she rushed towards it.

A sword then appeared in her hand, and she then attacked the beast, the beast tried to block her attack with its claws, however, the strength behind Skyla’s attack was higher than normal, therefore, the beast’s body flew away and clashed with the tree.

“Don’t give the opponent any time to rest!”

Skyla recalled Thyra’s teaching as she rushed towards the Beast, which was a Gale Wolf which is known for its speed, however, against Skyla who was a Master Stage Cultivator, its speed wasn’t worth mentioning.

Before the wolf could stand back on its leg, Skyla appeared near her and then,

She pierced her sword into its head, where its brain was.

The beast’s body twitched a little, then, it stopped breathing.

Skyla killed her first beasts and she did it amazingly and decisively.

Clara, who watched everything couldn’t help but be shocked.

“W-What the hell...”

Chapter 193

“W-What the hell...”

Clara’s mouth was opened wide in shock.

Lane, who was standing beside her frowned.

“Why are you so shocked?”

“You aren’t?” Clara questioned.

“Well, she was a little decisive with her moves, I agree, but aren’t you overreacting? It was just a 1-Star Beast.”

“Hmm? About what?”

“Didn’t you see how quick and decisive she was? Isn’t this her first time killing a living thing? Why does she look like an experienced killer?”

Also, don’t you find the contrast between her cute face and decisive killing a little too shocking?”

Clara questioned.

Lane, however, shook her head and answered,

“We are cultivators as well, you know? We were taught cultivation so that we can protect Lady Felberta, how are we supposed to protect Lady Felberta if we aren’t prepared to kill?”

Although we were forced to kill, mentally, we were prepared to do it.

Killing a beast is nothing, we can even kill a human if he wanted to harm Lady Felberta or... Nux...

Our daggers won't tremble like you are imagining in your mind."

A determined look combined with a small blush appeared on Lane's face as she muttered.

Clara was taken aback by Lane's answer, however, soon, a small smile appeared on her face and she nodded in understanding.

Lane and Skyla were the same as her, only luckier.

While she was forced to kill humans ever since she was 7, Lane and Skyla were taken in as bodyguards and were trained to protect someone else.

It is only natural that they are prepared to kill.

Of course, Clara knew it won't be as easy as Lane think.

When it comes to killing humans, the pressure is...

A lot higher than normal.

Although her dagger may not tremble before killing the human, however, it will tremble once you killed him.

A wry smile appeared on Clara's face as she remembered the first time she killed a human.

However, soon, she shook her head and decided to change the topic.

"What about Lady Felberta, how do you think she is doing?"

"Hmm, I don't know, however, I am sure she won't be having a hard time as well..."

...

And Lane was right.

Right now, Felberta was standing in front of a dead 1-Star Earth Bear, there was blood on her feet and she was looking at the Bear with an expressionless face.

Suddenly, she felt a hand on her shoulder, she turned around and saw Edda standing behind her,

“Are you okay?” Edda questioned.

“Yes, I am fine. Something like this won’t bother me.” Felberta nodded and smiled.

She won’t deny it, she was a little shaken, however, it wasn’t much.

She knew she would get used to it if she kills a few more beasts.

‘I need to get stronger,’

She thought inwardly.

‘There are too many amazing women around him now. I need to improve myself.’

This was her motivation.

If Nux knew her thoughts, he would only chuckle and kiss her lips, however, Felberta was serious.

She wanted to get stronger.

“Alright, let’s kill a few more beasts,” Felberta muttered.

Edda who was behind her nodded.

She had already killed humans before, this was nothing for her. She decided to accompany Felberta until she is comfortable, after that, she will start killing beasts as well.

As for the assassins following them, well, the two of them kept the eye on the surrounding, although it was just an Outer Layer where the strongest Star Beast is just a 3 Star Beast, which Two can easily take down alone, they were still cautious.

That was how Thyra trained these assassins to be.

Perfectionists.

The other assassins were obviously faster than Nux's woman; they formed a team of 2 and hunted 3 Star Beasts.

They were quick and efficient and brought Nux lots of points.

As for their leader, well, she left the Outer Area as well and entered Inner Area, she wanted to fight 4 Star Beasts.

3 Star Beasts were too weak for her.

Also, she wanted to become an Expert Stage Cultivator and the best way to do that was fighting.

Ahem, correction, it was the second-best way to do that.

The first was,

Ahem Ahem.

Thyra then started killing 4 Star Beasts. Whether the fight would be long or short depended on whether she was the first one to attack or not. If it was the Beast who attacked her first, things would take more time.

However, if it was her who had the first strike,

Heh.

Of course, it depended on the Beast's strength as well, a 4-star beast is equal to a Grand Master Stage Cultivator. Generally, Beasts are stronger than humans of the same Stage.

A party of 1 Grand Master and around 2 Master Stage Cultivators was required to defeat a 4-Star Beast.

Of course, this is only applicable for adventurers and fighters who are not trained properly.

This does not mean that adventurers aren't experienced, in fact, in this wilderness, they are the ones with the most experienced.

However, they cannot be compared with the likes of Thyra.

Thyra was a remarkably agile assassin, and she knows how to use her speed properly.

If she is the one who gets the first attack, even an Expert Stage cultivator might fall, let alone 4-Star brainless beasts.

Killing these beasts was an easy thing for her, and of course, the number of System points she collected for Nux was the highest.

Thyra continued killing and moving from one place to other, then suddenly, while she was walking, someone tapped on her shoulder.

Her body jerked in surprise, she then turned around and saw it was Nux.

“Hello~ My cute assassin, I see you have been killing a lot of poor beasts.”

“W-What is it?” Thyra questioned with a red face.

She was a little embarrassed by how surprised she acted.

“Ohhhh? You aren't happy to see me here?” Nux questioned with a smile.

“I am but... w-why are you here?” Thyra questioned.

Then, a smile appeared on Nux's face as he answered,

“I have been waiting for you.”

Chapter 194

“I have been waiting for you.”

Nux muttered with a smile on his face.

“Why were you waiting for me?” Although she tried to keep an expressionless face, a small smile couldn’t help but appear on Thyra’s face and she questioned.

“Well, I sensed you were close to me, I felt that you might be able to help me with what I am about to do next,”

“What do you need help with?” Thyra questioned.

Actually, she may look very normal right now, inwardly, she was all smiles.

She was glad that she could help Nux.

“Well, I wanted to kill the 4-Star beasts around this area, however, I thought about a better plan. But I am not sure if I could do it alone.” Nux muttered.

“What’s the better plan you are talking about?” Thyra questioned.

Then suddenly, Nux picked her up like a potato stack as he muttered,

“Follow me.”

“I can’t exactly do what you are telling me to...” Thyra complained.

If he wants to carry her, why not carry her on his back, or even better, carry her like a princess?

Thyra’s face reddened when she thought about it.

Her mind was filled with all sorts of fantasies as well.

As if hearing Thyra's thoughts, Nux adjusted himself a little, then, he carried her like a princess.

A small smile appeared on Thyra's face as she glanced at Nux's face from this new angle.

'He looks handsome from here as well...'

She thought and her face turned even redder.

Suddenly, Nux turned his head and smiled at her.

"Follow me."

"I can't exactly do what you are telling me to..." Thyra repeated her complaint, however, this time, her voice was a lot lower than normal.

She was actually enjoying it.

Only a little though,

She was not a pervert with only indecent thoughts in her mind.

Don't get her wrong.

Nux just smiled and shook his head.

Then, he dashed forward and crossed several trees.

Some beasts wanted to attack him, however, when they noticed his speed, they quickly turned their eyes away.

They won't be able to catch him. It will just be a waste of energy, might as well find something more delicious.

Nux ignored them as well and a minute later, he stopped and hid behind the tree.

Then, a serious look appeared on his face as he pointed forward,

“See that? I want to fight them.”

Thyra frowned, she was a little sad that Nux wasn't carrying her anymore. However, she knew they were not here for something like that.

She needs to get serious.

Then, a serious look appeared on Thyra's face as she glanced in the direction in which Nux pointed.

However, soon, her eyes widened in surprise and horror.

‘You want to go against them!? Are you crazy!?’ She used their telepathic link because she didn't want to alert the pack in front of her.

Yes, there were a total of 6 wolves in front of them, of course, if they were normal wolves, she wouldn't have worried about it, however, there was one 5-Star Wolf.

The leader of the pack.

A 5-Star Beast!

That is comparable to an Expert Stage Cultivators!

No, they are even stronger than normal Expert Stage Cultivators!

And Nux wanted to face it and its pack at the same time.

‘You are only a Grand Master Stage Cultivator, remember?’

‘C'mon Thyra, I am not reckless, that's why I called you here, right?’ Nux then answered her in a calm voice.

Hearing his voice, Thyra calmed down a little and started thinking.

‘Do you have a plan?’

She questioned.

He must have prepared a trap or something like that, right?

‘Yes, I have a plan.’ Nux nodded.

A small smile appeared on Thyra’s face as she nodded and then, she questioned.

‘Then what can I help you with?’

‘Can you deal with those five 4 Star wolves that are with it? I am not sure if I can take all of them at the same time.’ Nux answered.

‘Hmm, taking out those 5 Wolves shouldn’t be that hard. Are you planning to take out the subordinates first and then team up against the 5 Star Wolf?’ Thyra tried to guess the plan.

Nux however, just shook his head.

‘No, we aren’t going to team up.’

Then, a smile appeared on Nux’s face as he continued,

‘The plan is simple, you will those five wolves, while I will take on the leader.’

‘You are going to take on a 5-Star beast alone!?’ Thyra questioned in shock.

‘Remember Thyra, I was able to defeat Grand Master Stage Cultivators when I was just a Master Stage Cultivators.’ Nux replied with a smile on his face.

‘These two are different things, Expert Stage is different. Also, it is not an Expert Stage Cultivator you are facing, you are facing a 5 Star Beasts, it is stronger than a Cultivator.’

‘Don’t worry, I know what I am doing.’

Nux answered, his eyes gleamed in excitement and he continued,

‘I believe I can defeat it.’

[Ferocious Gale Wolf]

[Cultivation: 5-Star Beast.]

[LVL: 53]

[HP: 820/820]

[STR: 81]

[AGL: 88]

[VIT: 82]

[STM: 87]

[DEF: 82]

...

His stats were a lot stronger than this Wolf, this can also be a way for him to test his limits and see how correct the stats his system shows are.

‘Nux, this is too reckless.’

‘Do not worry, if I feel like I can’t defeat it, we both will use [Dash] and run away. Even if we can’t defeat it, I am confident in running away with you.’
Nux answered.

He knew Thyra was worried, and he can understand why she is so worried, however, what he was doing was important.

He needs to know how strong he actually is.

Nux’s golden eyes shined even more.

Was he scared?

Surprisingly, no he was not.

Heh. He was actually looking forward to it.

Then, he walked out of the hiding place and glanced at the Ferocious Gale Wolf.

“Let’s start this, shall we?”

Chapter 195

“Let’s start this, shall we?”

Nux muttered with a smile on his face.

“Grrr...” The wolf leader who saw Nux and Thyra walking in front of it grinned and showed its spiky, dangerous teeth.

“Grrr...” It then growled again and its five subordinates stood up and growled together.

“Grrrrrrr.”

“Grrr.”

“Grrrrr.”

Then, its five subordinates walked toward Nux and Thyra, as for the Wolf leader, it stayed where it was with a grin on its face.

It was confident.

Actually, it was inwardly laughing at these 2 fools who had appeared in front of it.

Other beings in the Wilderness avoid it, however, these fools walked towards it willingly.

It was very happy.

Food walking towards it on its own.

If only this could happen every single day.

“Heh, confident, aren’t you?” Nux smiled.

Then, he turned towards Thyra and nodded.

Thyra, who was worried before now had an expressionless look on her face, then, 2 silver daggers appeared in her hands, she then activated her Movement Skill and disappeared.

The wolves frowned, however, before they could even react, Thyra appeared on top of one wolf and pierced its eyes with her dagger.

“ROOAAARRR!!”

The wolf howled in pain as it moved its body actively as it can, trying to get rid of Thyra who was on top of it and deal with the pain it was feeling, however, Thyra didn't waste this opportunity, she tilted her dagger a little and then forced it out, along with parts of Wolves brain.

Yes, the wolf was dead.

And it was dead in one attack.

Nux, who saw the fight was shocked.

Mind you, the wolf Thyra had attacked was the strongest wolf after the wolf leader.

Not only that, but according to the system, all its stats were a little higher than Thyra.

Of course, using the Skills she had learned, Thyra could definitely increase her speed and be faster than the Wolf.

However, the fact still stands that she killed a beast, that was naturally stronger than her in one attack.

“ROAARR!!”

The other wolves finally came out of their reverie when the wolf's body fell to the ground. They all rushed towards Thyra and attacked at the same time, Thyra however, just jumped up, and then, she landed a few meters away.

The wolves, who were already angry at her didn't give her any chance to rest, the 4 of them rushed towards her and attacked at the same time.

Thyra then turned towards Nux and smiled, then, she disappeared and appeared near another wolf.

Of course, now that the wolf was prepared, it blocked her attack, however, Thyra simply disappeared again and attack the weakest wolf.

The weakest wolf wasn't as fast as the other wolf, it had just become a 4-Star Beasts, therefore, it couldn't react in time, and Thyra appeared on top of it.

She then plunged both her dagger into its eyes.

“RROOAAARRR!!”

The wolf howled in pain.

However, this time, Thyra couldn't kill it.

The other wolves had already arrived, she then blocked the claw of a wolf attacking her then, she gained a bit of balance and continued fighting.

Nux, who saw the fight smiled, then, he turned towards the Leader and smiled,

“I guess your subordinates are busy...” He taunted and since he knew that the wolf wouldn't understand him.

He stepped on the dead wolf's head and smirked.

“Grrrrr.” A dangerous glint shone in the wolf's brown eyes and it growled.

Nux had succeeded in angering it.

Now, it will avenge its subordinate.

Then, a green-coloured dagger appeared in Nux's hand and he rushed towards the Wolf.

He didn't use any movement Skills, he just rushed towards him naturally, however, even then, his speed was a lot faster than the Wolf could imagine.

Nux quickly appeared behind the wolf and stabbed his dagger into its stomach, no, not exactly stomach, it was near his stomach and leg.

He wasn't as skilled as Thyra, although he certainly had that speed, his body control wasn't at the level where he could appear on top of the beast and stab its eyes.

That was something only people like Thyra, who have trained for years could do.

Therefore, he could only appear around the places where he knew the beasts wouldn't be able to defend properly.

He learned this from an adventurer party the last time he was here.

Well, not really 'learned from them', he just stole their idea when he saw them doing it from afar.

"Roarr!" The wolf growled in pain as it jumped away.

Then, it moved quickly and attacked Nux with its sharp claws.

Ferocious Gale wolves are known for their speed; however, against someone like Nux, their speed was not worth mentioning.

Nux easily dodged its attack and then, he stabbed his dagger near the wolf's other leg and jumped away.

He then observed everything calmly.

The Ferocious Gale Wolf was still moving without any problems, which meant,

‘The poison dagger isn’t working... Its numbing power isn’t enough to stop Wolf’s movement.’

Nux noted this in his mind.

Then, a smile appeared on its face.

“You are weaker than I imagined.” He muttered, then, he used [Wind Walk] and appeared around its third leg.

Then, before the wolf could react, he disappeared and appeared near its fourth leg, then, Nux disappeared again.

Testing was over.

He was now using his skills.

He was actually serious now.

“RROOOAAARRR!!!”

Countless cuts and scratches appeared on the Ferocious Gale Wolf’s body and it roared in pain.

Nux, however, didn’t care.

Actually, he could now kill the wolf with the advantage he had, however, he had noticed something.

The wolf’s movement was getting slower and slower.

The numbing effect of his dagger was finally working.

Therefore, Nux didn’t kill it.

He wanted to test how long it will take for this effect to actually work on a 5-Star beast.

Yes, this battle was nothing more than an experiment now.

No, it was not a battle, to begin with.

‘I am stronger than I expected.’ Nux thought inwardly and continued moving around the wolf.

Now, he had even stopped using [Wind Walk], the wolf was getting slower and slower, and it wasn’t able to react to Nux’s normal speed now.

There was no need to waste MP.

Chapter 196

“RROOAAAARRR!!”

*Pierce*

Thyra finally pierced the heart of the Fifth Wolf and sighed in relief. Fighting five 4 Star Wolves at the same time wasn't very hard, however, it was exhausting.

She wasn't a fighter.

She isn't used to long fights, she just goes and kills her opponents.

The process is just that simple.

Therefore, she fell short on the Stamina part.

Thyra then exhaled deeply and turned around to see how Nux was doing.

She might be a little tired, however, it wasn't to the point where she couldn't help Nux. However, when she turned around, she didn't see a hard fight as she had expected.

She only saw Nux sitting on top of Ferocious Gale Wolf's body, which was covered with scars and cuts, with a smile on his face.

“How long have you been watching me for?” Thyra questioned.

“Not too long, just from the part where you killed the 4th wolf.”

“...”

Thyra stayed silent.

‘So he is saying that he defeated a 5-Star Beast, 1 minute earlier than me, who was fighting with just a few 4-Star beasts? And that was when I started first?’

Fucking monster...’ Thyra cursed in her head.

“Thyra, trust me when I say it, you looked unbearably hot when your blue eyes shined in determination and you killed those wolves.”

Suddenly, Nux complemented with a smile on his face and hearing it, a small blush appeared on Thyra’s face.

Nux’s smile widened when he saw it.

‘She’s too cute.’

He has been observing Thyra for a while now, she has two forms, one, her assassin form, a cold expressionless face that looked at everything neutrally.

That was the face she had when she turned around after killing those wolves,

The other is her being all shy and stuttering, lowering her head with a red face and avoiding eye contact.

Something completely opposite to the normal her.

And Nux finds this transition very adorable.

Thyra, who noticed Nux’s smile knew he was teasing her, she then looked around and tried to change the topic.

“I can’t believe you defeated a 5-Star Beast so easily, it is stronger than an Expert Stage Cultivator, you know.”

Suddenly, a proud look appeared on Nux’s face as he answered,

“It seems I am stronger than an Expert Stage Cultivator now.”

“Indeed.” Thyra nodded.

She was really surprised, however, she then recalled what Felberta said and shook her head.

‘Nux is an anomaly, don’t use logic on him.’

Thyra knew those words weren’t wrong, however, she was even surer about it now.

“Actually, defeating this Wolf was pretty simple. I didn’t even use my Skills, well, I did, but I am sure I don’t need to use them.”

Then, Nux muttered and Thyra stopped thinking.

She just glanced at Nux with a blank look on her face.

“Dealing with a Beast, that is stronger than an Expert Stage Cultivator, is easy?” She questioned in her usual, cold tone.

“Mhm, it is easier than I thought.” Nux nodded.

‘Fucking monster.’

Thyra cursed in her head again.

Suddenly, she narrowed her eyes as she glanced at Nux, then, she grabbed his hand and shook her head.

“Don’t.”

“What? I haven’t even done anything...” Nux frowned.

“We are not going inside the forbidden zone.” Thyra shook her head and spoke with a serious look on her face.

“We won’t go that deep, we will just take a quick pee-”

“No, we are not going inside the Forbidden Zone, no matter what.” Thyra shook her head.

No matter what, she won't change her thoughts about this matter.

“Why though...”

“It is called the Forbidden Zone for a reason, Nux. I know you want to try and fight against a 6 Star Beast, however, we still don't have any information about the Forbidden Zone.

For all we know, there might be a 7 Star Beast inside.”

“...”

Nux turned silent.

He might have a chance against a 6 Star Beast, however, against a 7 Star Beast, he was sure that he would die.

Then, he glanced at Thyra who was looking at him with a serious look on her face and then, he sighed.

“Alright, I won't go in...”

“Good.” Thyra smiled.

“You won't stop me from hunting other 5-Star beasts though, will you?” Nux questioned with a smile.

Thyra then lowered her head and glanced at the wolf's body that was under Nux. A sigh escaped her mouth before she chuckled dryly,

“If you can overpower them like this in a matter of minutes, then I have no reason to stop you. Of course, I will be coming with you though...”

5 Star Beasts usually move around with their subordinates, I can deal with small fries while you kill the bigger ones.”

Thyra proposed with a smile on her face.

Heh, she would be a fool to lose such a golden opportunity.

“Sounds like a plan to me.” Nux nodded with a smile.

Suddenly, Thyra extended her hands towards Nux’s and smiled.

Nux frowned, however, soon, he sighed and then picked her up like a princess.

Thyra’s smile widened, she then snuggled close to Nux and Nux ran towards his next target.

This visit to the Bloodhill wilderness was a lot smoother and chiller than Nux’s last one.

He, his women, and his subordinates killed lots of beasts and gained lots of points, 2 days later, all other assassins appeared as well and with 50 assassins and those parties he had created, along with the beasts he was killing,

Nux’s system point count increased at a scary rate.

In just 2 weeks, he had already accumulated System Points required, no, more than required.

Then, he gathered everyone together and ended this hunting mission.

The journey back was a lot smoother, the assassins were ordered to rush back as soon as possible, this time, Nux moved with his woman, talking while they ran, sometime, he carried Skyla on his back as she requested.

Of course, the other girls requested the same as well.

Even Felberta.

Nux did not deny and the blissful journey continued for 5 days.

5 days later, all of them were back inside the Royal Capital.

Chapter 197

“Alright girls, I need to go now, Allura is going to kill me, I am sure of it,” Nux muttered with a wry smile on his face.

Felberta observed Nux for a while and started thinking.

What was it that was so important that he took all of them to the Bloodhill Wilderness?

She has been thinking about this question for a while now.

She had asked Nux directly, he said that he needed a Cultivation Technique that is suitable for Amaya’s ‘Physique’, or whatever that is, but hearing this answer, Felberta frowned even more.

Cultivation Technique?

If he wants a Cultivation Technique, then why is visiting the Bloodhill Wilderness?

She asked this, however, Nux just shook his head and spoke with a playful smile.

‘I have my ways.’

And then, he changed the topic.

Felberta had to admit, from the time she met the Nux for the first time, to this, his ability to change the topic has gotten stronger and stronger.

Even she isn’t able to resist his flow now.

Shhhh.

You are not allowed to say that she was never able to resist his flow.

This shouldn't be said,

So Shh.

Ahem,

Carrying on, in the end, Felberta decided to shake her head and sigh.

She trusted Nux, she knew he had some secrets, however, she also knew he would tell her when the time is right.

Nux has done so much for her; she believed that she would be a bitch if she didn't trust him now.

“Yes, you should go. Sister Allura must have missed you all these days.”
While Felberta was thinking all of this, Edda muttered.

Edda was the closest to Allura since she had spent a lot of time talking with her.

Of course, this might not be the same once Skylia meets Allura, but it won't change the fact that Edda and Allura are close.

“Yes, to be away for you for so long, it must have been hard for her, you should leave and talk to Sister Allura.”

Skylia, who didn't even know Allura muttered as well.

Then, a playful smile appeared on her face as she winked cutely, “Also, give her lots of love so that she has no complaints left.”

“I'll make sure to do that.” Nux chuckled when he saw Skylia winking at him, she looked adorable.

“Mhm, You should go, we all will train.” Lane nodded and muttered with a determined look on her face.

Suddenly, the atmosphere around the girls changed as they glanced at each other, even Felberta woke up from her thoughts and started looking at the other women.

Thyra just had a smile on her face, she look the calmest.

Skyla had lifted her chest with a proud look on her face.

Lane, who usually didn't show many expressions, had a determined look on her face.

Edda was looking around with a smile that didn't look like a smile.

As for Felberta, she had clenched her fists.

Nux, who noticed the sudden change couldn't help but shake his head.

“You guys really got addicted to training huh...” He muttered.

“It is important, we can't be left behind,” Felberta muttered.

“Especially not by Skyla.” Lane glanced at Skyla and others nodded.

“Heeey! What's wrong with me overtaking you all?” Skyla pouted.

“Hmph! I should have won!” Edda muttered.

“I swear I will overtake you all.” Felberta snorted.

“...”

Who glanced at them stayed silent before he turned to Thyra who had a small smile on her face.

This all started after their hunt ended.

Nux realized that his women had a little ‘competition’, a competition about who will take the most lives.

The results were as follows,

Skyla was the one with the most kills.

Edda followed behind Skyla, then Lane and the last one was Felberta.

Thyra wasn't allowed to participate.

That would simply be unfair to all others.

Actually, the ranking was similar to what everyone predicted, there was only one variable.

Skyla.

She, who should have been second or third, overtook Edda, and she didn't win by a small margin either.

This shocked Edda to the core.

She thought about it and realized that it was all due to Thyra's training, therefore, she asked Thyra to train her as well.

Lane, who was always beside Skyla felt left out and she started training as well.

As for Felberta, well, she was at last, which everyone had already expected.

However, everyone expected it doesn't mean Felberta was satisfied.

She was the most competitive out of all the women, therefore, she started training as well.

She would not be left behind.

Not at all.

As for Skyla, well, she was already winning, so how could she give her spot to anyone else?

Hehe. She already had a plan on how to get Nux to give her extra attention after she feigns being tired due to the training.

Thinking about it, she smiled mischievously.

Thyra, who saw this as an opportunity was glad to train everyone.

Why?

That was because she wanted them to be helpful to Nux, she didn't want them to be some baggage who are just there to receive Nux's protection.

She would have ignored it if it was someone else, however, these were her sisters.

You can say that it was her own way to show her acceptance and willingness to be with everyone.

Therefore, she didn't hide anything and told them everything she knew.

Of course, since it only started 5 days ago, and they were coming back at that time, the women weren't able to train much, however, their determination didn't fade away.

Rather, it only grew.

Actually, Nux wanted to train as well, he has seen how Thyra fights and he was impressed.

Thyra was simply amazing; he wanted to learn from her as well.

However, Thyra shook her head and refused to train him.

'You will receive my special training, and that would need time. We will talk about it after we return to the Mansion.'

That was her answer.

Actually, he wanted to talk to her right now, however,

Talking with Allura was much more important right now.

And he was planning to do just that.

Chapter 198

“Lady Allura, have you eaten lunch?” A maid questioned.

“Yes I have, you can take the plates.”

Allura answered with a lazy look on her face.

The mode nodded as she then placed the plates on her table. However, just as she was about to leave, she stopped and turned around.

“Lady Allura...” She called.

“What is it?”

“Lady Allura... are you okay...?” The maid questioned.

“Hmm? Of course, I am. Why would I not be?” Allura frowned.

“Well... you and head maid Edda got a little close before she... sacrificed herself... you also look a little lost sometimes... so I thought you are a little sad...” The maid muttered.

She had immense respect for Head Maid Edda, and that respect only increased when she heard about her sacrifice, however, this time, along with feeling deep gratitude and respect, she was feeling sad as well.

She cried alone in her room for 4 days.

“Don’t worry, I am fine. Although I am a little shaken by her death, I know her well enough to know that she wouldn’t want to grieve her death.” Allura muttered.

Actually, only she knew how hard it was for her to say those words.

‘Tsk Tsk, you really presented yourself as a great character huh... if only these people knew that you faked your death just because you were horny. I wonder what kind of face they would make.’

Allura thought about it and then shook her head.

These last few weeks have been too torturous for her.

Why?

Because she was bored.

To make matters worse, there were no other rumours inside the Royal Palace, The whole palace was filled with talks about the sacrifice of Head Maid Edda.

“Hey, why did you think that I was sad?” Suddenly, Allura questioned.

“Well for one, Lady Allura hasn’t left the Palace for 3 weeks straight, that has never happened before...”

The maid answered, and Allura’s eyes shined in realization.

‘That’s true, I haven’t left the Palace for a long time now...’

Allura thought inwardly.

Actually, it wasn’t like she couldn’t leave the palace, she just didn’t want to. She had no will to.

“That is not the only reason,” The maid muttered.

Actually, she never talked to Allura willingly before.

It was always Allura who called her first, however, today, it was different.

The maid’s reason for that was because she realized that Allura was close to Edda, and since she knew she was bored, she took the initiative to talk to her in order to pay respect to Edda’s soul.

A twisted concept but whatever.

“Hmm? What are the other reasons?” Allura questioned with interest.

“Lady Allura has bee-” The maid wanted to continue talking, however, suddenly, Allura’s expression changed and she interrupted her.

“Ah, I just realized it, Mary, I had something to do right now so I can’t talk to you. I will ask you to leave now.”

“Wha- Oh, a-as you say, Lady Allura.” The maid was surprised, however, she quickly came out of her reverie and nodded.

Then, she stood up and bowed, and then she left the room with the table that carried the plates Allura used.

After the maid left, a small smile appeared on Allura’s face, however, as if she remembered something, her smile disappeared and she scoffed.

“Tsk, Tsk, so you finally remembered me, huh?”

Then, a dangerously handsome man appeared in front of her, he had golden eyes, black hair, a muscular build and that annoying but charming smile on his face.

The man then stepped forward as he brought his face dangerously close to hers and whispered seductively.

“I am back~

Did you miss me, darling?”

Allura’s heart skipped a beat, however, this time, she was not some inexperienced girl, she won’t go down so easily, she quickly controlled her emotions as she moved back and turned her face away with a “Hmph.”

“You said you will only be gone for 2 weeks, however, you are back after 3 weeks. Hmph Hmph! Do you even care about me?”

She complained.

“Oh? So are you angry?” suddenly, Nux stood up and walked towards the door in Allura’s room.

Then, he shut the door close, locked it from inside and turned around with a dangerous smile on his face.

“I apologize for what I have done, Lady Allura.

How about I repay the damage done with my body?”

Nux offered.

A small blush appeared on Allura’s face, however, she decided to act like Nux didn’t see it, Nux shook his head with a wry smile, accepting it.

He didn’t see her blush.

Okay?

There was no blush, to begin with.

He was getting good at training his mind.

“Hmph! You think you can get away that easily?” Allura then questioned.

Nux walked towards her with that same dangerous smile on his face, then, he picked her up and placed her on his lap.

Allura, of course, didn’t deny his touch at all.

Nux then placed his chin on Allura’s shoulder and whispered softly,

“Then what would I have to do to satisfy you, darling?”

A weird jolt of pleasure assaulted Allura’s body and she nearly moaned.

However, she still controlled herself.

She needed to be strong.

Only then could she get the best deal out of this.

“Hmph! I want you to be with me for the rest of the day.” She offered.

Of course, she wasn't really thinking this was possible, she just started with a big price, and then, she would negotiate with an upper hand.

This is business.

However, she didn't get the answer she expected,

“Huh? Isn't that a given?” Nux questioned back.

“Huh? What?” A frown appeared on Allura's face.

“I will be staying with you for the rest of the day, darling.”

Nux muttered as he started caressing Allura's soft breasts.

“R-Really?” Allura questioned, trying hard to contain her moan.

“Of course, why would I ever lie to you, darling~”

Nux muttered, then, his hand moved near her important place and then,

“Anhh~~”

Allura moaned out loud.

This would be a long long day~

Chapter 199

“Stop.”

The maid, who was walking towards Allura’s room while dragging a table that had Allura’s evening tea on the top, was stopped by someone.

The maid frowned, she then raised her head and looked at the man who wore a black formal coat over a white shirt, his hairs were a little white, showing that his age was catching up to him, however, his posture was straight and full of strength.

The maid knew this man; he was Bruce, Lady Allura’s bodyguard.

“What is it, Sir Bruce?” The maid questioned respectfully.

“You can’t go in, Lady Allura is busy right now,” Bruce informed.

“But the tea,”

“You don’t have to worry about that, just leave the table here, you can return after at the fixed time,” Bruce instructed.

“As you say, Sir Bruce.”

The maid nodded and then, after a slight bow, she turned around.

While she was walking away, the maid started thinking.

‘Why isn’t he letting me enter the room?’

Then, the maid’s eyes widened in realization and she nodded with a small smile on her face.

‘Lady Allura is kinder than I thought. She is actually sad about Head Maid Edda’s death, however, she doesn’t want anyone else to know about it.

She must be grieving inside the room right now.’

The maid then nodded again.

Her respect for Lady Allura increased as well.

‘Head Maid Edda, though you may have left this world, you are still alive in our heart.’

The Maid muttered inwardly and got a little melancholic.

Then, the maid shook her head as she came out of her reverie and continued with her work.

...

On the other side, Bruce looked at the table in front of him with a blank look on his face.

He then glanced at the room where Allura was and a sigh escaped his mouth.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

He knocked on the room and informed,

“Lady Allura, the tea is here.”

“Enter.”

He heard the order, then, he grabbed the table and dragged it inside the room.

He squinted his nose as soon as he entered the room.

The room was filled with the scent of bodily fluid. Then, he glanced at Lady Allura, whose face was a little red, her hairs were ruffled and her clothes were wrinkled as well.

‘Tsk Tsk, at least Lady Allura tried to hide it.’ Bruce snorted inwardly and then glanced at the other man sitting beside Allura.

The man had a playful smile on his face, his hairs were ruffled as well and his upper body was completely naked.

Anyone could tell what happened in the room before.

Of course, Bruce could tell what happened as well, however, he didn’t comment anything.

“What are you waiting for Bruce, pour the tea.” The man who sat beside Allura ordered.

“Would you like to drink the tea as well, Master Nux?” Bruce questioned respectfully.

“I would have declined if it was any other day, however, I am a bit tired right now since I have been working hard on something. Tea would help for sure.”

Nux answered with a smile on his face.

‘I know what you were working hard on.’

Bruce snorted inwardly.

However, he then shook his head and nodded.

“As you say, Master Nux.”

Then, Bruce poured the tea into two cups, then, he brought the table close to the bed where Allura and Nux were sitting and then, he bowed.

“I will be taking my leave now, please call me if you need anything.”

“Sure Sure.”

Nux nodded with a smile.

Bruce then left the room, and once he did, a smile appeared on Nux's face as he questioned.

“So what are we doing now, darling?”

A playful smile appeared on Allura's face as she entered.

“We will continue after a little drinks break,”

“What a coincident, I had the same thoughts as well~

Ahaha~ We are a perfect couple, darling~”

The two of them then drank the tea and 15 minutes later, the clothes were thrown away.

Lady Allura was really grieving Head Maid Edda's death right now.

...

The next morning, in some other room that was just as lavish as Allura's,

“Good Morning, Lady Amaya, here's your tea.”

Kelton bowed and pushed the table towards Amaya.

Amaya nodded with a small smile as she picked up the cup of tea and took a sip.

Her peerless face, combined with her perfect manners, the whole scene looked beautiful and calm.

Kelton waited for a little and once Amaya was done with her first sip, he started reporting.

This was a procedure they go through every single morning. The Thousand Information Chamber is a big organization, they receive thousands of requests and information every single day. Of course, there is no way a single man or woman could handle all that.

And of course, not all matters had similar importance either.

Kelton had many subordinates, every day, he receives information that his subordinates consider important, he then filters them out and then, reports the more important ones to Amaya.

“Lady Amaya, Viscount Fred-”

*Thud*

A frown appeared on Amaya’s face when Kelton suddenly stopped talking, she then heard a voice and then her eyes fell on Kelton’s body which was lying on the floor, unconscious.

She then raised her head and in front of her, there stood a handsome man.

“Hello~ You didn’t miss me too much, did you?”

“...”

Amaya stayed silent, she observed the man, then she observed Kelton who was lying on the floor and then she shook her head.

“You really hate him for reason, don’t you?”

Nux’s smile widened and he chuckled,

“Well not particularly, but when I thought about how he will disrupt our conversation with his annoying questions, I assumed it’s better if he is unconscious.

Don’t you think so as well?”

“No, I do not think like that.”

Amaya shook her head.

She would never admit it out loud that for a second there, she agreed with him.

It was better if Kelton was unconscious.

But it was only for a second though.

Ahem, she values her subordinates a lot.

It was only for a second, okay?

Chapter 200

“Well not particularly, but when I thought about how he will disrupt our conversation with his annoying questions, I assumed it’s better if he is unconscious.

Don’t you think so as well?”

Different thoughts started appearing in Amaya’s mind, however, in the end, she quickly sorted her thoughts and answered.

“No, I do not think like that.”

“You are no fun~” Nux complained.

Amaya realized that she is being too passive in this conversation, therefore, she decided to change the topic.

“So you finally decided to show yourself huh? Where have you been for the last 3 weeks?”

“Hmm, I have been busy with some stuff,” Nux answered as he sat down on a chair, right beside Amaya.

As for Kelton, well, he just lay there on the floor, without bothering anyone.

“Tsk Tsk, I know what you have been busy with.” Suddenly, Amaya snorted.

“Huh? What do you mean?” Nux questioned with a frown.

“Hmph! Don’t think that I don’t know that you sneaked into the Palace yesterday. I thought you would come to meet me soon, however, you stayed with your Allura for the whole day.”

Nux’s eyes widened in surprise.

“H-How did you know?” He couldn’t help but question.

One had to know that he trusted his Conceal very much.

Even a King Stage Expert might not be able to sense him, then how did Amaya learn about it.

“Your disguising technique may be a lot stronger than normal but don’t think that I can’t find you.” Amaya smiled.

For some reason, she enjoyed seeing a surprised look appearing on this man’s arrogant and confident face.

“How did you do it?” Nux questioned again.

He had to know.

Amaya knowing about it was fine, however, nobody else can know about it.

Is his Conceal not working anymore? Or did Amaya have any other way to know about it?

“It was simple really, Allura did not allow anyone to enter her room after the afternoon lunch. This doesn’t match her regular attitude at all.

She is someone who would go out of her way to talk to a servant just so she could hear some rumours, there is no way she won’t allow a servant to enter her room.

Unless, of course,”

Amaya then smiled as she glanced at Nux and continued,

“There is a man inside her room.”

“She could be emotionally unstable you know?” Nux questioned back.

“Heh, you may not know about it, but I have been keeping my eyes on Allura, nothing that would make her ’emotionally unstable’ happened.”

“Huh? Didn’t the head Maid Edda die? She was close to her.”

“Oh yeah? She is emotionally unstable 3 weeks after her death? You think I am a toddler?”

“...” Nux turned silent as he glanced at the woman in front of him.

This woman was scary indeed.

She is just too good.

He was having a hard time indeed.

“Hmph! I could have understood that you met her first then you came to meet me, however, to spend an entire day with her before coming to me, I feel a little sad.” Amaya muttered as she shook her head, feigning disappointment.

However, this gave Nux a chance, a small smile appeared on his face as he questioned,

“Is that jealousy I sense?”

Amaya paused.

Then, she glanced at Nux and answered,

“I was just teasing you, why would I be jealous? What is there to be jealous of?”

Nux just smiled and didn’t answer.

And for some reason, Amaya did not like that smile at all.

Therefore, she decided to change the topic again,

“So? What were you busy with? What have you been doing for the last 3 weeks?”

“Oh? Were you missing me?” Nux questioned with a smile.

“I feel honoured.”

“Again, you are thinking too much. I am just curious.” Amaya answered with a straight face.

Nux wanted to tease her a little more, however, he had more important things to do right now.

Heh. He has all the time in the world to tease her.

Amaya Skyfall isn't going anywhere.

A small smile appeared on Nux's face as he answered,

“Well, someone said that she will do anything I say if I give them a little something they need, so I have been busy finding that little thing.

I mean, she said she will do Anything I want, I would be a fool to reject such a great offer, right?”

Hearing Nux's answer, Amaya's movement paused.

She wasn't a fool, she knew what he was talking about. However, she just couldn't believe it.

“You didn't forget your promise, did you, Amaya?”

Amaya was then brought out of her reverie when she heard Nux's voice, her body flinched as she backed down when she realized how dangerously close his face was to hers.

“You didn't forget your promise, did you, Amaya? I will be sad if you did, you know?” Nux questioned again.

The playful smile on his face indicated that he was enjoying every second of it.

“D-Did you really found it?” Amaya questioned back.

“There is no reason for me to lie to you,” Nux answered.

“W-Where did you find it?”

Although she had already predicted it, Amaya’s eyes still widened in surprise when Nux confirmed it.

The technique that she was searching for her whole life,

The technique for which she created an organization like Thousand Information Chamber but still couldn’t find it,

This man found that technique within 3 weeks, this was simply unbelievable.

“Tsk Tsk, look at your eyes, the disbelief is so clear.

Hmph! You think I would lie to you?”

Nux shook his head and then, a black-coloured book appeared in his hands and he passed it to Amaya.

Amaya grabbed the book with trembling hands and when she read the title, her eyes widened even more.

Mantra of the Devouring Mist Demon.

Nux, who noticed that her hands were trembling while she held the book couldn’t help but smile,

Then, he brought his face very very close to her again and questioned,

“You did you forget your promise, did you, Lady Amaya?”

Volume 3

Chapter 201

“You did you forget your promise, did you, Lady Amaya?”

Nux questioned again, however, this time, Amaya did not respond to his question at all, she wasn't even bothered by how close his face was to hers.

Actually, she couldn't even see him right now.

That was because right now, all her focus was on the book that was in her hands.

Mantra of the Devouring Mist Demon.

With trembling hands, Amaya opened the book and on the very first page, there was the description of the Devouring Mist Demon Physique.

The book had information about everything she has been through, the Black Mist, and how the Mist inside her body act. How she can't cultivate normal techniques and more and more and more.

Amaya then turned the page, then, she turned another page, then another, another, one more, and at some point, while she was reading, her body started trembling.

This was it.

This wasn't fake.

This technique was something that would allow her to step into the cultivation world.

This is what she has been looking for her entire life.

Thinking about it, a small smile appeared on her face.

Nux's heart skipped a beat when he saw that beautiful smile,

Amaya really had a peerless face.

However, Nux quickly came out of her reverie and a playful smile appeared on his face.

“You finally found what you were looking for.” He muttered.

“However, if you want it,

You would have to pay a heavy price for it.”

Amaya then finally came out of her reverie and turned around, again, her body flinched when she noticed how close Nux's face was to hers, however, this time, Nux grabbed her waist and smiled.

“You would have to pay a heavy price for it.”

“W-What do you want?” Amaya's heart skipped a beat as she found herself lost in those golden eyes.

“You.”

Nux answered with a smile on his face.

“I want you, Amaya Skyfall.

I want your body, your soul, your heart.

I am a greedy man,

I want all of you.”

Amaya's heartbeat started racing and her face turned a little red.

She could feel the possessive feeling in his eyes; she was getting overwhelmed by it.

Also,

His face was a little too close right now.

Even his breath was touching her face.

“Do you accept the deal?” Finally, Nux questioned.

Hearing the word ‘deal’, Amaya came out of her reverie.

Her heart started calming down and her emotions stabilized.

She was the leader of Thousand Information Chamber, someone who had made countless deals with countless people.

She wasn’t someone who would get swayed by her emotions.

She won’t make a rushed and emotional decision.

However, today was different.

Today, the reason she calmed down wasn’t for her own sake. Today, she calmed herself down for the man in front of him.

She is ready to accept the deal, after all, she gave up her entire life to find what this man gave her, it was only natural she would accept the deal no matter what it was.

However, the same could not be said for the man in front of him.

“I am willing to accept the deal, however, I want to ask you,

Are you willing to take me?

Let me rephrase it.

Are you willing the risk to take me as yours and go against the King of the Skyfall Kingdom?”

Hearing her question, a smile appeared on Nux's face as he chuckled,

"Heh. You are talking to a man who has a relationship with the King's concubine, tru-"

"I and Allura are different." Amaya interrupted.

"Allura is just a Trophy, the king won't care about her, however, I am different.

I am an unclaimed trophy, the king is obsessed with me.

The chances of him finding out about your relationship with me are a lot more than the chances of him finding out about your relationship with Allura.

And once he finds out, you are dead.

Even after knowing all that, are you willing to take me as yours?" Amaya questioned again.

However, the determination in Nux's eyes didn't waver,

"I am willing."

He nodded.

A smile appeared on Amaya's face,

"Alri-"

However, before she could say anything, Nux interrupted with a serious look on his face.

"I am willing to make you mine, however,

Know this, I am not taking any risks here."

Amaya frowned.

“Our relationship might stay hidden for a while, however, I am not planning to keep it that way. The same goes with my relationship with Allura.

I am not planning to hide it for a long time.

There is no way I would keep using my ability to sneak into my woman’s room just so I could spend a little time with her.

I will do it openly.

Without hiding it from anyone.”

Amaya frowned even more.

Then, a smile appeared on Nux’s face as he muttered,

“I heard that the King of the Skyfall Kingdom is just an average king.

The Skyfall Kingdom doesn’t need an average king.

It is time to change that.”

Amaya’s eyes widened in surprise and horror when she heard what Nux said.

“Y-You are planning to go against the king!?” She questioned in shock.

“Indeed. As I said, we don’t need an average king, and although I don’t have any way to prove this, I am sure I can do a better job leading the Kingdom than what the current King is doing.”

Nux answered with a smile on his face.

“Y-You are really planning to go against the king...” Amaya stuttered.

She couldn’t digest what she was hearing at all.

Seeing her acting like this, Nux frowned,

He didn't expect a reaction like this from her, he felt that she was a lot braver than this.

“Why are you acting like that? Isn't he just a king? What's so mighty about that?”

Let me tell you, I am only 18 years old but I am already a Grand Master Stage Cultivator, and I am not a normal Grand Master Stage Cultivator either, I am someone who can defeat a 5-Star Beast within 5 minutes.

I can't say it for certainty right now, however, I am sure that once I become an Expert Stage Expert, which won't take me more than a year, I will be able to go against the king of the Kingdom.”

Nux revealed with a smile on his face.

Heh.

He had decided to shock this woman in front of him.

However, instead of being shocked, a wry smile appeared on Amaya's face as she shook her head,

“Defeating the King does not mean you would be able to become the King of the Skyfall Kingdom.

If things were that easy, many would have done it already.”

Chapter 202

“Defeating the King does not mean you would be able to become the King of the Skyfall Kingdom.

If it was that easy, many would have done it already.”

Amaya muttered with a wry smile on her face.

“Huh? Isn’t he the strongest man in the country? Wouldn’t defeating him make me the strongest? What could possibly stop me once I defeat the King of the country?” Nux questioned with a frown.

“You are really clueless about everything, aren’t you? Who said that the King is the strongest man in the Kingdom?” Amaya questioned as she glanced at Nux, who had now stepped back and was looking at her with a confused expression on her face.

“He is not the strongest?”

“Thank the gods that you have me by your side. Who knows what would happen if you didn’t meet me?”

Actually, you should thank me that I sent a Spy to Allura’s room.” A smile appeared on Amaya’s face.

Nux, however, wasn’t sharing her smile.

He was too confused right now.

“Alright, answer this, what is the cultivation stage of the strongest person in a Duke house?”

“The head of the Duke Family is an Expert Stage Cultivator,” Nux answered.

And he was sure about his answer, he had confirmed this from Alger, Edda and Allura.

“That is correct. The head of the Duke Families are Expert Stage Cultivators.” Amaya nodded as well.

“However, that isn’t my question. I am asking about the strongest person inside a Duke family, what should be his/her cultivation stage?”

Amaya questioned.

“Shouldn’t the head be the strongest?” Nux frowned.

Amaya, however, shook her head,

“The Duke houses are a lot more deeply rooted than you think.

The strongest person inside a Duke House is their ancestor.

A King Stage Cultivator.”

Amaya revealed and Nux’s eyes widened in shock.

“I am not talking about only one House, I am talking about all four of them,

Fulvianus House, Centho House, Merula House and Vestalis House, all of them have a King Stage Cultivators protecting them from shadows.”

“F-Four King Stage Cultivators...” Nux muttered in shock.

4 King Stage Cultivators!

This was ridiculous.

He might be able to fight against one King Stage Cultivator, but how would he fight against 5 of them at the same time?

No wait...

Now that he thinks about it, it might not be that tough.

However, before his signature smile could appear on his face, Amaya continued,

“Not only that, but the Headmaster of the Royal Academy, The strongest General that leads the Royal Army and even the Queen of the Skyfall Kingdom, all of them are King Stage Experts.”

Nux gulped.

8 King Stage Cultivators.

Let's say he can fight 5 of them at the same time, however, can he fight 8 King Stage Cultivators at the same time?

The chances were low.

Very low, however, that doesn't mean that they don't exist.

He could still fight against 8 King Stage Cultivators at the same time if he improves himself and buys a few more 7-Star Abilities from the System.

However, thinking about the situation calmly, a frown appeared on Nux's face.

Seeing that frown, Amaya smiled,

“It seems that you understand what I am trying to say.” She muttered.

“Why hasn't anyone betrayed the King yet?” Nux questioned.

If the King of the Kingdom was only a King Stage Cultivator, then how is he able to rule the other 7 King Stage Cultivators?

This shouldn't be possible.

Let's say the Queen and the General are extremely loyal to him.

That makes it 3 King Stage Cultivators on the King's side, but why aren't the 5 King Stage Cultivators collaborating with each other?

“That's a good question.

Everyone says that the King is just an average King, then why hasn't he been replaced yet?

They say that he doesn't care about anything and every decision he makes is mostly decided by his ministers that are from the Duke Houses, then why aren't the Duke houses taking Advantage of this situation?

Why?

Why has the King of the Skyfall Kingdom not fallen yet?”

Amaya shot a few more questions and the more she asked the deeper Nux frowned.

He then glanced at Amaya, waiting for her to answer all these questions.

Amaya understood what he wanted therefore she didn't keep the suspense for long and answered,

“The answer to all these questions is,

The Dowager.

Astaria Skyfall.

The Strongest Being in the Skyfall Kingdom and probably the whole world, an Emperor Stage Cultivator.”

Amaya informed.

“A-An Emperor Stage Cultivator? But didn't they say that there are no Emperor Stage Cultivators alive in the World right now?” Nux questioned.

“That is just a piece of false information. Emperor Stage Cultivators are still alive, however, there are very rare.

There are only 4 Emperor Stage Cultivators in the whole world right now, each living in one of the Four Kingdoms.

And Astaria Skyfall is the strongest of them all.

That is also the reason why the Skyfall Kingdom is known to be the strongest Kingdom in this world.”

Amaya answered.

And then, she continued,

“Also, do not put Emperor Stage and other cultivation Stages in the same category.”

“Huh? What do you mean?”

“An Emperor is different.

A King Stage Cultivator will be overwhelmed if he faces 100 Expert Stage Cultivators, however, an Emperor can deal with 1000s of King Stage Cultivators without any problem.”

“WHAT!?” Nux shouted in surprise.

“As I said, an Emperor is different, it is not just a Cultivation Stage, it is a Realm.

The Strongest realm in this world.

They say that only one who could fight an Emperor is another Emperor, there is no other way around.”

Then, Amaya glanced at Nux and answered,

“That is the reason why no one dares to go against the King and betray the Skyfall Kingdom.

As long as Astaria Skyfall is alive, no man, who does not have the Skyfall Blood running through his veins, would be able to rule the Skyfall Kingdom.”

Chapter 203

“As long as Astaria Skyfall is alive, no man, who does not have the Skyfall Blood running through his veins, would be able to rule the Skyfall Kingdom.”

Amaya declared.

“ ... ”

Hearing her words, Nux turned silent.

Actually, after all these clues, he had already guessed that there was someone stronger than a King Stage Cultivator protecting the Skyfall Kingdom from behind the scenes.

And to be honest, he was confident that he could defeat him/her.

It was pretty logical to think that way as well.

Nux wasn't a normal cultivator, unlike others, who only do Mana Cultivation, he cultivates both Body and Mana at the same time, so technically, he is twice as strong as a normal cultivator who is at the same stage as him.

When he was a Beginner Stage Cultivator, he could defeat Advance Stage Cultivators, when he was an Advance Stage Cultivator, he could defeat Master Stage Cultivators.

This cycle continued till now when he is a Grand Master Stage Cultivator and could easily destroy any Expert Stage Cultivator.

It wouldn't have been a problem for him to defeat a King Stage Cultivator after he becomes an Expert Stage Cultivator and... he thought the same goes for an Emperor Stage Cultivator as well.

He just needed to be a King Stage Cultivator and boom, it's done.

However, with How Amaya was talking, Nux realized that the Emperor Stage was not as simple as any other cultivation stage and logically, she was correct.

It's called the peak of cultivation for a reason.

Nux had a feeling that defeating an Emperor Stage Cultivator while being a King Stage Cultivator won't be very easy.

No, not easy, it might even be impossible, therefore...

He needed to think of other ways.

What other ways?

He doesn't know.

However, that doesn't mean Amaya doesn't. She has to know something, she is the leader of the Thousand Information Chamber after all.

"There has to be another way right?" Nux questioned as he glanced at Amaya.

"I told you, only an Emperor can fight an Emperor.

You will need the support of another kingdom if you want to rule over the Skyfall Kingdom, however, I will tell you this now, getting the support of another kingdom just means that you will become a puppet.

Nothing else, nothing more."

"..."

Nux turned silent and started thinking.

Amaya observed his face with an expressionless face.

Nobody knew what she was thinking.

“She has to have some weakness right? Something I can use in my favour. There has to be.”

Nux still wasn't willing to give up.

Not like this.

Amaya continued looking at him with no change in her expressionless face; Nux didn't back down either and started back into her abyss-like dark eyes.

“Arvina Skyfall.”

Suddenly, Amaya said a name.

“Huh?” Nux frowned.

A smile then appeared on Amaya's expressionless face as she muttered,

“Arvina Skyfall, the Vice Headmaster of the Royal Academy.”

“What about her?” Nux's frown deepened.

If it was any other time, he would be happy to learn more about a woman, especially if her name ends with Skyfall.

However, right now, he wasn't in the mood.

Right now, he was confused and... a little tensed.

“Even I don't know much about Astaria Skyfall.

She is someone who protects the Kingdom in secret, even though she is very strong, there is no way information about her will be out in the open.

Actually, other than the King, no one knows much about her at all.

Except for one person,

And that is Arvina Skyfall,”

Nux’s frown disappeared and he started getting an idea about what Amaya was trying to say, however soon, his frown reappeared and he questioned.

“Even you don’t know much about Astaria Skyfall, then how does Arvina Skyfall know about her?”

“Including me, there are a total of two ‘unclaimed trophies’ in the King’s Royal Harem.

Arvina Skyfall is the other one.

When I heard about it, I started researching more about Arvina Skyfall and found that she does not have any type of curse on her, in fact, she is a perfectly healthy woman who can have a baby whenever she wants.

However, despite that, the king doesn’t touch her.

There is no way that horny bastard is going to hold back just because a woman doesn’t want to spend time with him, he has had many women who were against spending a night with him, however, he was the king, and he had the power, he forced himself upon the woman.

Some of the Royal Concubines have even taken their own lives since they were ‘defiled’ by the man they hated.

Of course, that didn’t end well, angered since he lost his trophies, the king executed their families, nobles or not, no one was spared.

This was King’s warning to all the women in this world.

After becoming his, even killing themselves wasn’t an option, of course, if you are prepared to see your family dying with you, then do whatever you want.”

“Sounds like a jerk,” Nux commented.

“Well, he is,” Amaya nodded.

“Not that you are any different, laying your hands on other man’s wives, and that man is the King of the Kingdom to boot. You really have some balls, don’t you?” She teased.

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face as he replied,

“You will see my balls soon enough,”

Then, he brought his face close to hers and whispered,

“And I promise you will love it~”

Amaya’s face turned a little red, she quickly backed off and realised that they were getting off-topic.

“So, back to what I was saying,

There is no way someone like the King would not touch ‘his’ woman. There has to be a reason why he didn’t do anything, and this reason should be strong enough to stop the King of the Kingdom.

How many reasons do you think there are that are strong enough to help a woman avoid a horny bastard, a horny bastard who is also the man who has the strongest influence in this country?”

Amaya questioned.

“None.” Nux shook his head,

Then, a small smile appeared on his face as he muttered,

“Except for one.

The Dowager.”

Chapter 204

“Except for one.

The Dowager.”

Nux answered and a smile appeared on Amaya’s face.

“Exactly. There is no way someone like the king would let a woman go, it won’t matter if she is from a Duke House, if she is the best student that is being protected by the Academy or if she is from another kingdom.

The only one that can contain the king of the Skyfall kingdom inside the Skyfall kingdom is Astaria Skyfall.” Amaya muttered.

The more he thought about it, the larger Nux’s smile got.

Amaya was right, the key to Astaria Skyfall might be Arvina Skyfall.

Nux then started thinking and he questioned,

“Do you know anything about Arvina Skyfall?”

It would be easier for him to do what he wanted if he knew more about this woman and since he was sitting in front of someone who practically knows about everything and everyone inside the Skyfall Kingdom, he thought it would be a waste of time if he didn’t ask anything.

“I have a good news and a bad news, what would you like to hear first?” Amaya questioned with a playful smile on her face.

“I am a positive person, so I would like to hear the Good news first.” Nux smiled back and answered.

“Arvina Skyfall doesn’t like the king at all, no, not liking is a weak word, the better way to describe it is that she hates the king with all her existence.

That is the reason why she stays in the Royal Academy as the Vice Headmaster.”

“Heh. That’s a piece of good news indeed.”

Nux smiled.

‘The path ahead seems clear.’

This thought appeared in his mind.

And as if knowing his thoughts, Amaya’s playful smile widened and she answered,

“And the bad news is that not only the King, but Arvina Skyfall also hates every man in the world. The Headmaster of the Royal Academy, or her own father, no one is an exception to her hate.”

Nux’s smile disappeared and he blinked a few times.

Amaya chuckled as he observed his face with interest.

‘Heh, the changes in his expressions are really entertaining,’

“Why does she hate men so much?” Nux questioned.

“I don’t know but it’s not like you men have something that makes you likeable, I kind of relate to her thinking,” Amaya answered.

“Oh?” Nux then glanced at Amaya and smiled,

“So you are saying you hate men?”

“No, I do not hate men, however, I can’t say I have a favourable impression of men either.

Hmm, if I have to explain it, then...”

Amaya started thinking and a few seconds later, her expression changed and she continued,

“If there are 2 unknown man and woman drowning in front of me and I only have the option to save any one of them, I would save the woman.”

Amaya continued to nod as if praising herself for coming up with such an explanation.

Nux continued to look at her and then, he nodded with a smile,

“Mhm, if two unknown man and woman are drowning in front of me, I would save the woman as well.”

Amaya glanced at Nux’s face with a deadpan expression.

Nux realized that she wasn’t amused by his joke and decided to continue the conversation as if nothing happened.

“If you do not have a favourable impression of men, then why did you choose to make a deal like that with me?” He questioned with a playful smile on his face.

Amaya glanced at the black coloured book in her hand and answered,

“You had something I wanted. Something I have been searching for my whole life for. It was just a deal, your gender doesn’t matter. Even if you were a woman, I would have accepted the deal.”

Nux looked at her and realized something.

The relationship between him and Amaya was just that,

A deal.

She may have a favourable impression of him, however, that does not mean she likes him.

She just sold herself because she wanted the cultivation technique.

Nux then thought a little more about it and decided to change the topic,
He would change this situation sooner or later.

He just has to be patient.

“So according to you, to deal with Astaria Skyfall, I should meet with Arvina Skyfall, correct?”

“Yes.”

“And to meet Arvina Skyfall, I would have to go t-”

“You would have to join the Royal Academy.”

Amaya answered.

“Hmm, I figured that much.”

Nux nodded as well.

“So, how do I enter the Royal Academy? How hard is the entrance test? Which topics should I prepare for?” He questioned.

“Huh? Entrance test?”

“Well, yeah, there are too many people in the Skyfall Kingdom, they can’t just take in any random student that wants to enter, right?”

“Huh? Of course, they obviously can’t take any random student, however, there is no test to enter the academy, you just need to be a noble and you can go in.”

“Huh? A noble? So a commoner can’t join the Royal Academy?”

“Of course not, in what world would a commoner be allowed to join an Elite Academy?”

“Then how will I join the Royal Academy?” Nux questioned.

“You are a commoner?” Amaya questioned and a frown appeared on her face.

“Yes, I do not belong to any noble house.” Nux nodded and Amaya’s eyes widened in surprise.

“Y-You are a commoner?”

She couldn’t believe what she was hearing.

How is this man in front of him a mere commoner!?

That simply isn’t possible!

Which commoner has the guts to be in a relationship with a Royal Concubine!?

“Yes, Amaya, I am a commoner, now tell me, is there really no way to join the Royal Academy?” Oblivious to her shock, Nux questioned.

“...”

Amaya stayed silent and glanced at Nux with a shocked look on her face.

Nux misunderstood her face and questioned in worry,

“Is there no way for a commoner to join the Royal Academy?”

Hearing his question, Amaya finally came out of her reverie and answered,

“Well, you do not have to worry, there is a way for a commoner to enter the Royal Academy.”

Chapter 205

“Well, you do not have to worry, there is a way for a commoner to enter the Royal Academy,”

Amaya muttered.

“What is it?” Nux questioned with an excited look on his face.

“You just need a noble’s recommendation letter.”

“A noble’s recommendation letter?”

“Yes, nobles recommend the commoner they deem fit to enter the Academy and grow stronger. Most of these commoners would later join the noble’s private army and would try to aim for higher ranks.”

“Oh, I understand.” Nux nodded.

“Mhm, remember, the higher the noble’s rank, the higher are the chances of you being accepted,” Amaya muttered.

“What if I have a Marquee’s recommendation letter?”

“Then there is no way you can be rejected,” Amaya answered and Nux’s smile widened.

It wasn’t like there was no other way he could enter the academy, he just needed to change his name from Nux Leander to Nux Alveye or Nux Bannermane.

It wouldn’t have mattered either way, however, he felt that it would still be better to enter the academy as Nux Leander.

It was high time that this name starts shining.

After all, he was a Grand Master Stage Cultivator.

Wait...

Suddenly, a thought appeared in Nux's mind,

“Amaya... what is the cultivation of the strongest student in the Academy?”

Amaya froze as well.

“The strongest is only at the peak Master Stage...

Ugh... This... will be a problem...

The gem of the Royal Academy, Candice Waters is a Master Stage Cultivator at the age of 21, she is the joy and pride of the Academy and is even called the Pillar of the Kingdom.

Many think of her as the most talented individual to have been born in the last 100 years and already treat her like a goddess.

You, however, aren't much older than her, heck, you might even be younger than her, however, you are already a Grand Master Stage Cultivator, if this is revealed...

I don't know how everyone would react...

You might even be seen as a threat that has to be eliminated.

There is no way you can join the academy like this...” Amaya shook her head and sighed.

Nux however, didn't give up.

He wasn't done yet.

Amaya frowned when she saw Nux's lost look on his face.

However, she didn't say anything and continued watching.

Time passed by and the atmosphere around the room got awkward.

Amaya continued looking at Nux who had a lost look on his face.

‘Is he really that shocked?’

Amaya couldn’t help but think inwardly.

‘Wow... this must be the man in the world who couldn’t achieve something because he was too strong...’

Amaya realized and couldn’t help but pity him.

Failed because he was too successful...

An amazing feat indeed.

These types of weird thoughts started appearing in Amaya’s mind, well, you can’t really blame her either, she has been sitting idle for more than 10 minutes after all.

Suddenly, Amaya noticed a change in Nux’s expression.

Amaya continued observing him with interest and soon, a big smile appeared on Nux’s face.

‘Has he lost his mind?’

Amaya thought, however, the next moment, her eyes widened in surprise.

“Y-Your cultivation...”

Nux’s cultivation fell down; he became a Master Stage Cultivator now, no, that wasn’t the end, it fell even more and he became an Advance Stage Cultivator!

W-What the hell is happening!?

Nux then stood up and turned towards Amaya.

“So? An 18-year-old, Advance Stage Cultivator shouldn’t be a problem now, should it?” He questioned.

“W-What did you do? W-Why did your Cultivation fall down by two stages?” Amaya questioned back.

“Oh? This, it’s nothing.” Nux shrugged his soldier and then, his cultivation returned back to normal!

He became a Grand Master Stage Cultivator again!

‘What the hell is happening!?! Can you set your cultivation to whatever you like!?! Since when is something like this possible?’

Amaya couldn’t help but question herself and everything she knew so far.

“Don’t think too much about me and don’t treat me like a normal man.” Suddenly, Nux muttered. Amaya turned towards her and once Nux gained her attention, he smiled and moved his face close to hers,

“You have sold yourself to a very special man, Amaya~ Don’t treat me like any other men, I am different~” he whispered into her ears seductively.

For some reason, Amaya’s heart skipped a beat and her face turned a little red.

However, before she could fully understand what is happening, Nux moved back and questioned again,

“So? What do you think? An 18-year-old Advance Stage Cultivator, it should cause too much commotion, right?”

“W-Well, it still makes you a genius, however, it won’t be to an extent where you will attract danger to yourself,” Amaya answered.

“Hmmm, good good.” Nux nodded to himself.

“Alright, if you are done, you can leave my room now, I have to cultivate,” Amaya muttered.

“A diligent woman I see.” Nux smiled.

“Yes, now leave, I have to cultivate hard in order to catch up to others.”

“Good Good, cultivate as soon as possible, I am waiting for you as well.”
Nux winked playfully.

Amaya frowned, however, seeing the cheeky smile on his face, she quickly understood what he was talking about and her face turned red.

“Leeaaaveee!”

Nux chuckled and then he left her room.

After Nux left, Amaya’s face turned even redder, she then kept the book on the table and placed her head on her knees.

‘What a bastard...

Hmph!’

She thought inwardly and snorted weakly.

30 minutes later, she took a deep breath and then glanced at the book in front of her.

She then opened it up and started doing what the book instructed.

[Trickster]

[7-Star Ability]

[Active Skill]

[Description: It grants the Host the power to trick his opponents by binding his own Mana. This ability allows the host to decrease his Cultivation Stage to whatever lever he wants.]

[Consumes 1 MP every hour.]

[Note: If the Host uses power greater than the Cultivation Stage he has set, the Ability will deactivate on its own.]

[Price: 10,000 System points.]

‘Ugghhh... there goes all my saved up System points.’

Nux cried inwardly as he glanced at the System screen in front of him.

[System Points: 2531]

He only needed 10,000 System Points to buy the technique Amaya needed, however, just like any other experienced game player, he decided to farm more.

In the end, he got collected more than 20,000 System points, he wanted to collect more, however, he realized that Allura must be feeling lonely, therefore, he decided to leave.

His women were a lot more important than some stupid farming.

Plus, 20,000 System points were good; it was enough for him to feel rich.

Not anymore though.

Now he is poor again.

Chapter 206

“Oi, Alger,” Nux called out.

“How can I help you, Master Nux?” Alger replied in a respectful tone.

He has been happy for the last few days, now, he wasn't forced to call a cold-blooded assassin in his room every night and tell her something she doesn't want to hear.

He doesn't have to risk his life every single day.

He can live a peaceful and happy life now.

However, right now, he was scared.

Why was his Master calling him? Is he going to face some hard trials again?

He doesn't really want to do that.

Not that he had any choice in the matter.

“Give me a recommendation letter; I want to join the Royal Academy.”

“Huh? Royal Academy?” Alger frowned.

“Yes, I am joining the Royal Academy.”

Alger finally processed what his Master was talking about and sighed in relief.

‘Haahh... The Royal Academy... I am safe...’

He thought and then secretly prayed for Royal Academy's survival.

“As you say, Master Nux.” He then nodded readily, not willing to let his Master wait.

“Good, also, arrange everything accordingly; I want to join the Academy in a Month,” Nux ordered.

“Of course, I will make sure everything is prepared.”

“Hmm Hmm, you can leave now.”

Nux nodded in satisfaction.

He might be the first commoner who asked for a recommendation letter from the noble like this.

Actually, ‘asked’ was a weak word, he ‘ordered’ a noble to write a recommendation letter and even submit it to the academy in his stead.

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face when he thought about it.

“So you are finally going to the Royal Academy, huh...” Felberta, who was sitting beside him muttered.

“You talk as if you already expected it.” Nux smiled.

“Well, I just had a feeling that you will join the Academy.”

“Heh. Don’t worry, I will take care of our ‘son’.”

A playful smile appeared on Nux’s face.

Felberta blushed.

Something she doesn’t do very often when she is in front of all the women.

“I-I’ll count on you for that...” She then answered in a meek voice.

Yes, she didn’t reject Nux saying ‘our’ son, although they weren’t officially married yet, Nux was already her husband in her heart.

Obviously, her son would be his son as well.

“Please look after him, he can be a bit too considerate sometimes,” Felberta repeated her words.

“Don’t worry, I’ll look after him.” Nux nodded.

“When will you be leaving?” Skylar who was sitting questioned with a pout on her face.

Why was she pouting, well, one, Nux was about to leave and two...

Thyra was sitting on her spot.

She was very dissatisfied.

“Hmm, I will leave one month later, the academy prohibits their students from leaving and I haven’t spent much time with Allura and Amaya.

It would be unfair of me to just leave so quickly. Everything else can happen whenever, spending time with my lovely women is much more important for me.” Nux answered.

“Hmph! Why are you only talking about Allura and Amaya? Aren’t we here as well? Or did you forget about us?” Thyra, who was sitting on Nux’s lap pouted.

Nux just smiled, then, he tightened his hug around Thyra’s body and replied,

“How can I forget about my lovely women? Or did you guys forget about our today’s blissful session?” Nux questioned.

“I-I don’t remember what you are talking about...” Thyra muttered with a small blush on her face.

The other women understood what she wanted and nodded,

“Yes, we don’t remember what you are talking about...”

“ ... ”

Nux glanced at his women and couldn't help but blink his eyes a few times.

Since when did they have such a great understanding of each other? Why are they acting like comrades in arms?

Nux then shook his head and chuckled.

His women were just amazing.

“Alright alright, since you all ‘forgot’ about it, then how about we proceed for the second round so that you all could remember it well?”

The girls smiled playfully.

Nux knew the best.

“Alright, then whose first?” Nux questioned.

“Heh. It's me of course.”

Thyra answered with a smile on her face.

The other girls wanted to refute it, however, they couldn't go against the rule they all created together.

“I'll surpass you soon, Sister Thyra!” Skyla muttered with a pout.

“Heh. You will need to train for another 1000 years if you want to do that.” Thyra smirked.

“Hmm, you guys are still using that rule huh...” Nux muttered.

“Yes, it motivates us to do our best.” Felberta was the one who answered.

She was the one who is in the least favourable position due to this mission, however, she doesn't want to remove it either, actually, she was the one who proposed this rule.

“Alright, if you want it then go ahead, however, know that I will always love you the same, strong or not doesn’t matter,” Nux muttered as he glanced into Felberta’s eyes.

A smile appeared on Felberta’s face and she nodded.

“Hehe~ I have bought some new ropes as well~~”

Suddenly, everyone in the room heard a small perverted chuckle and no one needed to see to know who it was.

There was only one pervert in the room.

Well, everyone was a pervert in this room, however, there was only one, unredeemable pervert in this room.

Edda then glanced at Nux and winked,

“Hehe~ I hope you have enough energy to satisfy me~”

“Heh. Says the one who lost her consciousness after four orgasms.

Weak.” Nux laughed.

Edda pouted and then turned around.

She won’t be playing this game with him.

“Alright then.”

Nux then stood up, Thyra, who was sitting on his lap was now in his arms as he carried her like a princess. A small smile appeared on Thyra’s face while Skyla glanced at her with eyes filled with jealousy and fighting intent.

“Let’s continue our round two~”

Nux laughed and then he walked towards Thyra’s room.

Another blissful round will start soon~

Chapter 207

Early in the morning, in Royal Concubine Amaya's room, a figure covered in a black veil of mist was sitting cross-legged on Amaya's bed.

The black mist looked scary as it moved around the figure's body however, soon, its intensity started fading away.

5 minutes later, the Black Mist faded away and Amaya's body was finally visible.

A few seconds later, Amaya opened her black eyes and her eyes widened when she saw a very familiar man sitting on a chair in front of her.

"Hmm, that Mist looks scary indeed," Nux muttered with a smile on his face.

Amaya looked around and saw Kelton lying on the floor near the sofa. She then shook her head and questioned.

"Why did you hit him again? He wasn't even in the room." Amaya questioned.

"Well, he was knocking on the door, I thought he would disturb you so I knocked him out." Nux chuckled.

Kelton had a poor fate indeed.

"You have some enmity with him, don't you?" Amaya guessed.

"Trust me, I do not," Nux answered honestly.

"I pity your opponents," Amaya muttered.

Nux chuckled, however, soon, his expression turned solemn,

“Do you trust him?”

He questioned as he pointed at Kelton.

Amaya glanced at Kelton’s body and after thinking for a while, she nodded.

“I do.”

“How much?”

“99%”

Amaya answered.

She trusted Kelton, however, she did not trust him enough to talk to her about her physique.

Of course, she wouldn’t be surprised if Kelton already knew about it from that woman, however, there is no way she would tell him that she found a suitable technique for herself.

That is the reason why she only cultivates at night when Kelton is not around.

“You contradict yourself.” Suddenly, Nux muttered.

“What do you mean?” Amaya frowned.

“You say that you trust him, however, when I ask you how much, your answer isn’t 100%. That’s a contradiction.”

Amaya, however, had different thoughts.

“That is not a contradiction.”

Then, her eyes shined and she answered,

“You can never completely and blindly trust a human heart.”

“99% is already a very high number.”

“ ... ”

Nux glanced at her and then, he proposed.

“What if I say that I have something that can ensure that he will never betray or harm you?”

“ ... ”

Amaya stayed silent and started thinking about it, a few seconds later, she questioned.

“What is it?”

“It will be a little painful, however, after using it, you can trust him with your eyes closed,” Nux muttered.

“ ... ” Amaya turned silent again.

She then glanced at Kelton’s body and started thinking more.

This time, she took a whole minute to think about it and then, she shook her head.

“Leave it, he has done a lot for me since I was a child, I won’t let him suffer through any pain just because of my insecurities.

I am not that selfish.”

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face.

He respected her for this answer.

She would rather reduce her cultivation time by half than harm her subordinate.

Mind you, she is someone who sold her life for cultivation, so something like this is a big sacrifice on her part.

Nux then nodded inwardly, however, he then realized that the atmosphere in the room was a little too boring for him and he decided to spice things up,

“So what about me? How much do you trust me?”

He didn't even ask if she trusts him or not, he is her man after all.

Of course, she trusts him.

The main question is how much.

“O-One?”

“Yes, and that too is just a graceful mark because you gave me Mantra of the Devouring Mist Demon.”

“So you really don't trust me at all, huh?” Nux muttered.

“Not one bit, you are too handsome. You have the balls to touch the King's wife. You can enter my room unnoticed. Plus, the way you talk, it feels like you are a playboy who has played with many women's hearts.

There is no way I would trust someone like you.” Amaya shook her head.

Nux's face twitched when he heard her answer.

“Tsk Tsk, to think you won't trust your future man. Hmph Hmph!”

Amaya glanced at Nux and questioned.

“Why are you here though?”

Nux look at her blankly and blinked a few times.

Really?

Even if you want to change the topic, can't you make it less obvious?

Tsk Tsk,

However, soon, a small smile appeared on Nux's face.

She decided to change the topic, she didn't deny his words.

That's a good thing.

Nux nodded to himself.

Yes, he was a man who says that the glass is half filled.

"Why are you here?" While he was lost in his thoughts, Amaya questioned again.

"Why shouldn't I be here?" Nux came out of his reverie and questioned back.

"Shouldn't you be preparing for the academy?"

"Well, Alger is doing everything." Nux shrugged.

Seeing his nonchalant attitude, Amaya just shook her head.

"When will you leave? Today or tomorrow?" She questioned.

If a Marquee is doing the arrangement, it shouldn't be a problem for Nux to enter the same day he decided to enter, there was no need for any long process and unnecessary waiting.

"1 month later."

Nux answered.

A frown appeared on Amaya's face as she questioned,

“Why are you wasting so much time?”

“Huh? Won’t you miss me if I go to the academy so soon?” Nux questioned back.

Amaya was taken aback by his response.

A weird feeling welled up in her heart, for some reason, she was...

Happy?

Amaya however, quickly shook her head and suppressed this strange feeling,

“No, I won’t miss you at all.”

Nux’s face twitched again.

It was really hard to flirt with this woman.

He, however, did not give up.

“That’s the reason I am not going.”

“Huh?”

“You won’t miss me, so what’s the point of leaving?”

I plan to spend a month and get close to you, then once we get close to each other, I will leave,

That way, you will miss me and you will be forced to take back your words in order to see me.

That’s my plan.”

Chapter 208

“You won’t miss me, so what’s the point of leaving?”

I plan to spend a month and get close to you, then once we get close to each other, I will leave,

That way, you will miss me and then you will be forced to take back your words in order to see me.

That’s my plan.”

Nux muttered with an evil smile on his face.

“ ... ”

Amaya glanced at his and blinked a few times.

She couldn’t believe he was saying something like that.

“Pffttt.”

In the end, she couldn’t control herself and laughed out loud.

“Yep, I was correct, you are a playboy who can’t be trusted.

From your words, I am now sure, you play with the feelings of innocent wome-”

“I Love You.” Suddenly, Nux confessed.

“ ... ”

Amaya’s body froze as she glanced at Nux’s face.

Then, her face turned red and her mind stopped working.

She didn't know how to react to that.

She didn't hate Nux, but she didn't like him either, however, if she thinks about it, her liking him or not doesn't matter, she has already promised herself to him because of that deal.

He only needs to ask and she would do anything he wants.

So should she say yes?

Or should she say no?

She was confused.

It was difficult to come up with an answer.

“Pfffft!”

Amaya then came out of her reverie when she heard Nux's laugh.

“That is what you will have to say after you start missing me. Only then would I come and meet you.” Nux muttered with a playful smile on his face.

“ ... ”

Amaya stayed silent, her mind wasn't working properly right now, she needed some time to register what he said, however, once she did register it, her face turned red in anger and she cursed.

“Y-You B-Bastard!”

“Hahaha~” Nux laughed in amusement.

Seeing him laugh, Amaya pouted and then lowered her face in embarrassment.

She cant believe she fell for this trick.

That was so dumb of her.

Also, she was now even surer.

This man was a playboy indeed, he knows perfectly well how to play with innocent women like her.

She needs to be cautious around him.

“Hahaha~”

While Amaya was thinking all of this, she heard Nux’s laugh that had not stopped for so long.

She pouted, however, and then her eyes shined in determination.

She can’t stay passive for so long.

She needs to do something.

“Actually, I just remembered that I still don’t know your name.”

She muttered.

Nux then stopped laughing and glanced at her with a deadpan face.

Again, similar thoughts roamed in his mind.

‘Really? She is trying to change the topic so abruptly huh...’

If it was something else, he wouldn’t have let it happen, he was enjoying her embarrassed look after all.

However, this was important.

“My name is Nux Leander, your future man.

Of course, you can call me Darling Nux~

But I prefer Darling alone, actually, hubby is fine as well,”

He introduced himself with a smile on his face.

“Oh, so Nux Leander huh...” Amaya nodded.

She completely ignored all the extra information.

Yep, she reckoned that needs to learn to ignore his words if she wants to deal with this man.

Nux chuckled and then he continued,

“Yes, Nux Leander, you can use your men to search and learn a little more about me. You do not have to be mindful, I give you my full permission.

You are my future wife after all.”

“...”

Amaya stayed silent.

‘A shameless man indeed...’

She nodded inwardly.

Nux just chuckled and then continued talking with her.

Why was he here?

He has noticed earlier that Amaya didn’t like him much. Of course, that doesn’t mean that he has nothing, she did look at him favourably, but it was not just to the extent of liking him.

How is he going to solve that?

Well, it was simple,

He just needs to spend time with her.

He just needs to talk with her.

As a friend and as someone close to her.

He just has to make her realize that he is there for her.

He just needs to make her dependable on him.

Actually, there is an easy way to do that as well.

[Craving Touch]

He just needs to touch the girl for some time and let his ability do all the work, however, he was refraining from doing that.

Reason?

Thyra.

Yes, while dealing with Thyra, Nux realized something.

The effect of [Craving Touch] on Thyra was a lot weaker than what it had on Felberta and Edda.

And Nux assumed that reason for that is because of her cultivation.

Thyra is a peak Grand Master Stage Cultivator, this could be the reason why [Craving Touch] didn't work very well on her.

The women he would meet later would be even stronger than Thyra.

There are chances that [Craving Touch] might not work at all.

Of course, Thyra might have resisted [Craving Touch] using nothing but her strong will, that's possible as well, however, even if that is true, then Nux might meet a woman whose will is even stronger than Thyra's.

Therefore, Nux was trying not to rely on his ability.

He would do everything alone.

It might slow down the process and increase the difficulty, but...

Why not?

Let's increase the difficulty a little.

Nux then continued talking with Amaya for the next few hours, then Amaya realized that Kelton was about to wake up, therefore Nux had to leave.

In his mind, Nux decided to hit Kelton even harder tomorrow.

Thinking that, Nux left Amaya's room and walked toward Allura's room.

Of course, this whole month wasn't just for Amaya alone, he will spend time with his other woman as well.

Not only that, he would even train with Thyra and learn her killing techniques.

Combining that with his stats, Nux was sure that he would become an absolute monster.

A deadly monster.

Heh, this month would be blissful indeed.

Chapter 209

Early in the morning, Amaya was cultivating in her room again, however, this time, the Veil of Black Mist surrounding her body was a lot denser than before.

*Whoosh*

Suddenly, the dense Black Mist that was doing nothing but moving around Amaya's body stopped and in the next second, it was sucked into Amaya's body.

No, it was not fading away slowly like before, this time, it was sucked away.

If before the Black Mist looked in control, this time, it looked like some other power was controlling the black mist.

Nux, who was seeing this, frowned and then, his golden eyes shined.

[Name: Amaya Skyfall ]

[Age: 23]

[Mana Cultivation: Mortal.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal.]

[Occupation: The leader of the Thousand Information Chamber.]

[Race: Human]

[Physique: Devouring Mist Demon Physique]

[Talent: King]

[LVL:9 → 10]

[HP: 200/200]

[STR: 11 → 12]

[AGL: 14 → 15]

[VIT: 19 → 20]

[STM: 13 → 14]

[INT: 19 → 25]

[DEF: 14 → 15]

‘She broke through huh... and it’s only been 7 days... her talent is no joke.’

Amaya then opened her eyes and glanced at Nux.

“As I expected, you are here.

Haah... don’t you have anything to do?” She questioned with a playful smile on her face.

“Tsk Tsk, look at you, being all arrogant just because you broke through.”
Nux snorted.

Amaya’s smile widened as she raised her hand and a Black Mist seeped out of it.

“Hehe, I can control this power now, be careful from now on, Nux, you dare bully me and I’ll devour you~”

“Heh. You are barely a Beginner Stage Cultivator, don’t get too cocky. I can beat someone like you without lifting my finger.” Nux snorted, and then, a playful smile appeared on his face as he muttered,

“However, you are welcome to devour me through another way though, I won’t stop you, rather, I am looking forward to it.”

A frown appeared on Amaya’s as she couldn’t understand what ‘other way’ he is talking about, however, when she noticed the smile on his face, she quickly joined the dots and her face turned red.

“Y-You are absolutely shameless. Hmph! A Shameless pervert, don’t worry, once I get stronger, I will devour you using my Devouring Mist.”

“Tsk Tsk, that’s I say Allura is much better than you, when I appear in front of her, she quickly jumps up and hugs me, and you, hmph! You are just thinking of different ways to kill me.” Nux teased.

“It’s your fault that you meet her first and not me!”

“Oh? Are you jealous?”

Amaya’s eyes widened when she realized what she just said.

She then glanced at Nux and seeing that big smile, she knew she had dug her own grave.

She has been talking with this man for a week now, she can tell what is going on in that head of his.

He will tease her to death.

“C’mon, just tell me, are you jealous? If you say the truth, then I might visit you first.”

An unusual glint shined in Amaya’s eyes.

That deal wasn’t that bad.

Amaya then shook her head repeatedly,

‘He is just teasing me, night is the only time when I can cultivate, there is no way he would come to me in the night.’

In these 7 days, their relationship has grown closer than before.

She understood Nux better than before as well.

He may act like a perfect and he may be a shameless, senseless, rude and hateful man, but inwardly, he is a good and considerate person.

He cares about people close to him.

That is his good quality.

Of course, Amaya won't say that out loud.

Nux is just a vile man, he doesn't deserve all these praises.

Hmph Hmph.

“Hmph! I am not jealous or anything, Allura is just a fool for loving you so much. I can tell from a single glance that you aren't a good person. I don't know what Allura sees in you.”

“Heh, says the one who has sold herself to me.” Nux laughed and Amaya's face turned redder.

Nux enjoyed her reactions and he would have kept teasing her, however, right now, he had something much more important to do.

A big, playful smile then appeared on his face and he questioned.

“Hehe~ So can you control the Devouring Mist now?”

“Hmm? Yes, I can, however, I can only control it if it is around 1 meter away from me, any farther than that and it will disappear.” Amaya answered.

Nux's smile widened and he asked another question.

“What about inside your body?”

“Well, I can control it inside my body as well, actually, my control over the Devouring Mist inside my better is a lot better compared to how much I can control the Mist outside my body.”

“Hehehe~” Nux couldn’t control himself and laughed out loud.

A frown appeared on Amaya’s face when she saw his laugh.

‘Why is he laughing like that?’

She started thinking.

Why does that smile look... perverted?

Wait...

Soon, she realized what this pervert was thinking and her face turned red like a tomato.

“Y-Yes, t-the mist won’t hurt you now...” She muttered in a mosquito-like voice.

“Hehehe~” Nux laughed even more and then, he started walking towards Amaya.

Amaya’s heart started beating quickly, she knew what was about to happen, however, since she made a deal, she prepared herself for it.

She would not go back on her words.

She then looked at Nux was walking towards her and closed her eyes.

Then, she felt Nux’s hand touching her body and soon, Nux picked her up and...

And placed her on his lap?

Huh?

What is happening?

Amaya frowned and opened her eyes in confusion.

“Hehe~ Don’t worry, I won’t let you taste that level of intense pleasure so quickly. Hmph! You dare act so cocky in front of me, see how I will take things slowly and torture you!

Muahahaha!”

Nux laughed out loud.

A small smile appeared on Amaya’s face and she nodded,

“mm”

Chapter 210

“Hehe~ Don’t worry, I won’t let you taste that level of intense pleasure so quickly. Hmph! You dare act so cocky in front of me, see how I will take things slowly and torture you!

Muahahaha!”

A small smile appeared on Amaya’s face and she nodded,

“mm”

Actually, right now, Amaya was a little unsure about everything.

She can have sex with a partner without harming them, she was sure of it.

She had made a deal with Nux, that, she understands as well.

However, for some reason, she is scared.

Scared of what?

She doesn’t know.

She just feels unsure and confused.

She needs more time to think about everything.

What Amaya didn’t know was due to her past experience, she started fearing sex.

It wasn’t her fault either, she was used like an object after all.

First, she was presented to the king of another kingdom by her very own parents, the king of that kingdom saw how beautiful she was and accepted her and then, caged her inside a room.

5 years later, it was discovered that she can't have sex with any man, the king even went so far as to let another, completely unknown man come close to her and enter the head of his penis inside her.

Although her 'curse' protected her and the man couldn't do anything, it still left a trauma in her heart.

Of course, Nux didn't know her thoughts or her trauma; however, he had a vague inkling about how she was feeling.

He could still sense some unwillingness from Amaya's expression.

Of course, she would comply with his request if he asks her, however, that won't be from her consent.

Nux was sure of it.

Therefore, Nux decided to take things slow.

He will 'take things slow and torture her'.

Of course, that doesn't mean he won't do anything, he would make sure to tease her to his heart's content, and no one can stop him from doing that.

"Heeeeh? Would you look at that? Why is your face so red, Amaya? Are you perhaps embarrassed? What are you so embarrassed about?" Nux questioned as he hugged her from behind and placed his chin on her shoulders.

"N-Nothing..." Amaya answered as she lowered her head that has turned even redder.

Nux enjoyed that reaction a lot.

Hehe, this girl was completely defenceless right now.

It was a perfect time to tease her as much as he wanted.

“Is it something you can’t tell me? Wait... you are not sad about what I said, are you? Do you not want to wait and continue what couples do? Are you a hidden pervert?” He whispered into her ears gently.

“N-No!”

Amaya was quick to reject.

“Oh? Does that mean you do not what couples do with me?” Nux questioned.

“N-No! That is not what I meant.”

“So you do want to have sex?”

“NO!”

“Hahaha~” Nux couldn’t control himself and laughed out loud.

“You do not want to have sex with me, but you do want to have sex with me, what is it that you want, Amaya? Why are you so confused?”

Nux questioned and Amaya, who realized that he was playing her like a fool couldn’t help but get more embarrassed.

His touch...

The way his chest was touching her back, the way his hands were around her waist, and the way his chin was placed on her shoulder...

All of this...

All of this felt too tingly and strange.

All of this felt a little too comfortable.

However, no matter how strange it felt, Amaya can’t be in such a passive position.

“I-It depends on you, I sold myself to you, you are the one in charge, if you want to have sex, w-we can do it, however, if you don’t want to do it, we will not do it, my decision doesn’t matter.”

Amaya placed all the responsibility on him and then, she continued,

“I-It all depends on you, if you are a pervert who can’t control himself, w-we can do it right now, however, if you are a gentleman like you say you are, then we will do it some other day.”

“Oh? Don’t you know?”

Suddenly, Nux questioned.

“What?” Amaya questioned back.

“I am the biggest pervert in this world,” Nux muttered and Amaya’s face turned redder.

It seems she would have to do it today...

However, now that she thinks about it, maybe it isn’t that bad.

Nux was someone who changed her life.

He brought her the Cultivation technique she was looking for, he gave her hope and helped her step into the cultivation world.

Not only that, but Nux was her only friend, someone who she can talk to without minding her manners and without thinking about politics. She can be free around him.

And... and it was fun being around him, so maybe...

Maybe everything isn’t as bad as she thinks it is...

“A-Alrig-”

Just as Amaya was about to agree, a big wide grin appeared on Nux's face as he continued,

“However, I am a gentlemanly pervert.

And since you can see that the ‘gentleman’ comes earlier than ‘pervert’, it means I am more of a gentleman.

So since I am more of a gentleman, we will do it another day.”

Amaya, who was about to agree, paused.

Her face turned even redder and soon, her expression changed and her embarrassment turned into anger.

“Y-You dare play with me!!”

Black Mist was released out of her body, Nux, who had already expected her outburst was already near the window and was looking at her with a smile.

“We will meet soon, Amaya.”

“Come back here you bastard!”

Amaya roared in anger, however, Nux didn't hear her at all and jumped out of her window.

“Until next time, my cute little Amaya~

Remember my words, I will take things slowly and torture you.

Mauhaha~”

Amaya quickly rushed towards the window, however, as she glanced outside, a frown appeared on her face since she couldn't see Nux anywhere at all.

It was as if he just disappeared.

Chapter 211

It was 10 A.M., and right now, Nux was standing on what looked like 2 bamboo trees that are cut from the same height.

Standing in front of him was Thyra, who was carrying a pile of Stones in her hands.

She then picked on stone and,

She threw it at Nux's head.

Nux, of course, tilted his head and dodged the stone easily.

Of course, Thyra wasn't done yet either.

She picked another stone and aimed it at his hands.

Nux's tilted his body and dodged it as well.

Thyra then aimed at his other shoulders and then his legs and Nux dodged them all.

Then, Thyra aimed at his head again and the round continued as Thyra increased her speed.

Head, shoulders, legs, she continued attacking them again and again, the attacks didn't have any fixed patterns either, she just attacked and Nux dodged.

From the smile on Nux's face, it looked like things were going pretty well, however, Thyra had an expressionless face, so whether she was satisfied or not, nobody knew.

Nux continued dodging every attack for the next 5 minutes and then, Thyra changed her attack pattern and aimed at his stomach.

Nux lifted his left leg and moved his body as he dodged the stone, however, he wasn't able to place his leg back on the bamboo and fell down.

“Ugghh...” He groaned as he rubbed his ass.

“Haahh... I can't believe it...” Thyra sighed.

From her tone, she looked very disappointed.

“W-What? I improved, did I not?” Nux questioned.

“Well you did, I just can't believe that having your level of body balance is humanly possible.”

“Uggh... don't compare me with your standards okay... I wasn't trained since I was a child...” Nux complained.

It has been 7 days since he and Thyra started training together, she first started teaching him the killing moves and everything was going great.

However, as they moved deeper and deeper, the moves got complicated and no matter how much Nux tried, he could not comprehend them at all.

Seeing this, Thyra frowned as well.

She then asked Nux to copy her however, Nux wasn't able to do that as well, somewhere, in some way, his form was incorrect and Thyra wasn't able to find the reason behind it.

Thyra then asked him to spar with her and after 2 hours of sparring, Thyra finally understood the problem.

Nux's body balance was a mess.

A complete mess.

It was such a big mess that Thyra couldn't believe that he was a cultivator who is stronger than her.

To deal with that, she came up with this training, however, Nux wasn't even able to clear this basic level of dodging the attacks aimed at the face, shoulders and legs.

This was troublesome.

Thyra had to end the training that day.

Then the next day, she came up with a set of exercises to increase the flexibility of the body and only after doing that set of exercises for the next 4 days did Nux's body get somewhat better.

Seeing some progress, Thyra then told him to stand on the bamboo again and dodge the stones.

This time, his performance was a lot better than before.

And as for today, Nux was finally able to beat the first level of Bamboo training.

Of course, it was only the first level, there were a total of 4 levels and only after Nux is able to clear all those levels would Thyra teach him other, more complex techniques.

"It's just basic body balance, don't act like it's something very hard to achieve," Thyra muttered.

"Are you saying that Felberta, Skyla, Lane and Edda's body balance is better than mine?" Nux questioned.

"Huh? I don't know about before, but there is no way they can be compared to you now."

"So my body balance is better than them?"

"Mhm," Thyra nodded.

"Then how is it a basic body balance? Aren't I already above average?"

“Hmph! As if being above average would work. Now let’s start it again.”
Thyra just snorted and picked the stones again.

“Wait, let me ask something,” Nux interrupted.

“Why aren’t Skyla and the others going through this training, I heard you are making them practice those killing techniques.”

“Huh? I am sure I told them not to tell you what I am teaching them...”
Thyra frowned.

“Do you seriously think they will keep a secret from me?” A playful smile appeared on Nux’s face.

Thyra’s face twitched in irritation,

“Oh c’mon, don’t be angry, do you seriously think you can keep any secret from me?” Nux questioned as he raised his hand and acted as if he was squeezing something soft.

Thyra’s face turned a little red, however, soon, she returned back to her expressionless face and she muttered,

“Alright, let’s continu-”

“You still haven’t answered me, why aren’t Skyla and the others going through this training?”

“...”

Thyra turned silent as she glanced at Nux.

Then, a sigh escaped from her mouth and she answered,

“What I want to teach you is something I gained through my hard work and relentless efforts. It is not something that can be compared to the killing techniques I taught my subordinates and what I am teaching to Skyla and the others,

It is something much stronger and more complicated.

It is my real treasure.

It is everything I know, my whole life experience.

It is the core of my being.

Call me selfish if you want, but no matter how close I am with Skyla, Felberta, Edda and Lane, I can't bring myself to teach them the core of my being.

I can't bring myself to give them my only treasure.”

“ ... ”

Nux turned silent as he glanced at Thyra who was avoiding his gaze with a guilty look on her face.

The more he looked at her, the faster Thyra's heart started beating and she panicked.

‘Should I have taught them my technique? They are my sisters after all...

I shouldn't be so selfish...

Does he think I am a self-centred woman...?’

However, contrary to what she was thinking, a smile appeared on Nux's face as he muttered,

“You are just so precious, my lovely Thyra.”

Chapter 212

“You are just so precious, my lovely Thyra.”

“Huh?” Thyra frowned.

Then, Nux’s smile widened and he muttered,

“Hehe~ To think you would share the core of your being with me, hehe~”

For some reason, when it from Nux’s mouth, Thyra felt that he was lewd.

“Don’t think too much about it, you are obligated to share something so important with anyone. Keep your treasure to yourself.

That doesn’t make you selfish.

I can completely understand what your techniques mean to you, and I am sure the others would understand it as well.

Also,

I am glad you decided to share them with me, it makes me feel special, thank you.”

A small smile appeared on Thyra’s face when she heard Nux’s words.

She didn’t do this to hear ‘thank you’ from Nux or something like that, she did this so Nux could improve and get stronger.

However, hearing his genuine gratitude, her heart felt happy.

A weird wave of satisfaction washed over her body and then, her blue eyes shined brighter than ever.

“Alright, let’s continue your training.”

She muttered and seeing the look in her eyes, Nux gulped.

Thyra...

She looked unbearably hot right now.

That determined look on her face turned him on for some reason.

“Alright,” He nodded.

Thyra then started throwing stones at him and Nux started dodging all the attacks.

*Thud*

An hour later, Nux fell on his bum for the 10th time and groaned.

“Ughh...”

“Haahh... we need to put in a lot of work...”

Thyra sighed as she walked towards Nux and offered her hand to him.

Nux grabbed her hand and suddenly, she pulled her towards him.

Thyra fell into Nux’s embrace and Nux tightened his hug around her.

“Let me stay like this for a while.”

Thyra, whose face was now as red as tomato nodded,

“mm.”

She had no resistance against Nux whatsoever.

How could she say no to something as comfortable as that!?

Ah, no, that’s not the actual reason.

The real reason is that she is rewarding him for the hard work he is putting in right now.

Yes, she was rewarding her.

She wasn't doing this because it felt good.

Okay?

“Alright... we will stay like this for the next five- no, for the next 15 minutes and then we will spar,” Thyra muttered.

“30 minutes.”

“O-Okay...” Thyra nodded and sighed inwardly.

She was really too weak against him.

The two of them then lay on the ground, covered in dust while hugging each other intimately, for the next 30 minutes without being disturbed by anyone else.

30 minutes later, Thyra's body moved.

No more slacking off.

“Alright, let's restart the training.” She muttered.

“Alright,” Nux didn't reject her either.

He realizes the importance of time now.

He shouldn't procrastinate for long.

He then stood up and activated [Trickster] and limited his cultivation to Master Stage.

Yes, while training with Thyra, he realized that his [Trickster] wasn't just an ability he can use to fool others, he can use it to train as well.

Trickster allows him to manipulate his Mana in a certain way with which he can readjust his cultivation.

Of course, this doesn't mean that he can't gain back his cultivation, however, as long as he doesn't want to or his MP doesn't run out, he can't use the power that is higher than what he has set.

That means, if he sets his cultivation to Master Stage, then it does not mean he has the power of Grand Master Stage Cultivator while others only see it as Master Stage,

It means that he becomes Master Stage Cultivator as long as he does not undo his Ability or his MP doesn't run out.

This was also the reason why Thyra could understand the problem related to his body balance.

If it wasn't for this ability, he could have overpowered Thyra with his cultivation alone and she would have never found it out, however, after limiting himself to the Initial Stage of Master Stage Cultivation, he can spar with Thyra while having similar stats, making it a fair competition and allowing Thyra to find out his flaws.

“I am coming,” Thyra muttered as she then dashed towards Nux.

Nux raised his hands and a wooden dagger appeared in his hand.

The two of them then clashed against each other and started sparing.

Right now, Nux has set his cultivation to the peak of Master Stage, this way, his stats are more powerful than Thyra's, however, combining it with her skills and techniques, Thyra was still able to fight him to draw, no, actually, she was overpowering him.

“Heh. This is fun.” Nux smiled.

Thyra, however, didn't reply, her face was as cold and expressionless as it could get and she continued attacking.

It was as if she could hear Nux at all.

‘Haah... she entered her assassin mode huh...’

Nux thought inwardly and shook his head.

‘I need to get serious as well’

His eyes shined in determination as another wooden dagger appeared in his left hand and he attacked Thyra’s waist.

Or so he tried to, as if she had already anticipated his move, Thyra just tilted her body and using this opportunity, she attacked his left shoulder.

...

The spar continued for another 20 minutes and in the end,

“Alright, I lost.”

*Thud* *Thud*

Nux raised his hand in the air as he abandoned both his weapons while Thyra stood in front of him with her wooden dagger placed in front of his neck.

Then, Thyra’s expressionless face finally crumbled and she smiled,

“You held on longer than last time.”

“Huh? I did?” Nux frowned.

“Indeed, you held out five seconds longer than before.” Thyra chuckled playfully.

Nux’s face twitched, he then removed the restriction on his cultivation and disappeared.

Then, before Thyra could even react, he appeared behind her Thyra and grabbed her tightly.

“Tsk Tsk, now let’s see how long can you hold out for.

However, the rules of the spar will change.

The location for the next spar is the bed.”

Chapter 213

‘He’s not here...’

Amaya thought inwardly as she looked around her room with a frown on her face. It was early in the morning, the time she usually ends her cultivation and opens her eyes to see Nux standing right in front of her, watching her with a smile on his face.

However, today, she opened her eyes to an empty chair.

Nux was not here...

A frown appeared on Amaya’s face.

Why was he not here today?

However, soon, she shook her head and then shrugged.

‘Well, that’s good, I can cultivate more.’

She needed more strength, she had no time to waste.

Actually, it was good that he wasn’t here, that way, she could use her time more efficiently.

Amaya then closed her eyes and started cultivating.

Or so she wanted to, however...

She couldn’t focus.

Different thoughts started appearing in her mind.

‘Did he not come inside the Royal Palace today? Did he visit Allura? Ugghh... I can’t know for sure since it’s night and maids won’t try to go into her room...’

Talking with Nux every single day had become a sort of a habit to her, and as someone who had no one to talk to, her heart valued this conversation more than she expected.

She opened her eyes and then started looking around again,

“Nux...”

She finally called out.

“...”

However, there was no answer.

“Nux...”

“...”

Again, no answer.

This confirmed it.

Nux wasn’t here.

Then, another thought appeared in her mind,

‘Is he angry because I rejected him yesterday? No wait, he was the one who rejected me. Why did he do that?’

Why did he not appear here today?

Did something happen?

Is he busy with something?’

Amaya started thinking and didn’t cultivate.

Even if she did, she wouldn't be able to focus since her mind was occupied with another thing and cultivation requires a calm and focused mind.

...

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Time passed like that and soon, Amaya heard a knock, she quickly came out of her reverie and a big smile appeared on her face, “Enter.” She exclaimed.

The door then opened and an old man wearing a black coat entered the room.

‘Hmm? Why does Lady Amaya look so excited today?’ Kelton wondered inwardly as he saw the excited look on Amaya’s face.

However, soon, Amaya’s excitement died and her expression turned into that of confusion and disappointment.

‘Huh? What’s with that expression? Am I not welcomed here anymore?’

Kelton started thinking.

For the last few days, weird things have been happening, first, him losing his consciousness for two consecutive days in the morning, then Lady Amaya shifting the meeting schedule 2 hours ahead and then how Lady Amaya started acting.

However, though the last thing was strange as well, Kelton thought it was a good thing.

Lady Amaya has always been a cold, expressionless and lonely girl, he was the only person she ever talks to and even then, she talks in a very formal way.

He has never seen her talking like a normal girl of her age.

This worried Kelton a lot, however, for the last few days, Lady Amaya has been a lot more 'cheerful'.

Though the way she talks hasn't changed much, the lonely, dull and expressionless look in her eyes has lessened a little.

"Why are you here?" While Kelton was thinking all of this, Amaya questioned.

"Huh? Are you still not ready yet?" Kelton questioned with a frown.

"Huh?" Amaya frowned as well, she then glanced at the clock and noticed that it was already 10 in the morning, it was time for her to meet Kelton and hear the daily report.

She was late!

She hasn't even bathed yet.

"Lady Amaya, are you not feeling well?" Kelton questioned with a worried look on his face.

"No, that is not it, I just overslept today, give me 1 hour, I will get ready now," Amaya ordered.

"As you say, Lady Amaya." Kelton nodded and then left the room.

Amaya sighed and then she stood up.

'Haah... he is really not here today...'

She then shook her head and then walked into her bathroom.

'Wait... does he not like me anymore?'

Suddenly, a question popped into her mind.

'Does he think it is not worth it? Was I acting like a child? Should I have been a little more forward?'

The more she thought about it, the more she started panicking.

With a lost look on her face, she continued walking while her brain started thinking about different possibilities.

‘No, he must be busy, I am just overthinking too much, yes, that’s it’

She came to a conclusion.

‘But what if what I am thinking is correct?’

No, she did not come to a conclusion.

*Thud*

Since she wasn’t seeing where she was going, Amaya’s head bumped into a wall.

“Watch where you are going, girl.”

“I apologize,” Amaya answered as she walked by.

However soon, she paused.

She then turned around and saw an incredibly handsome man standing right in front of her with a cheeky smile on his face.

“What? What are you looking at?” The man questioned with a smile.

“What are you doing here!?” Amaya’s eyes widened and she questioned in surprise.

The man in front of her was none other than the one she was thinking about all this time.

“Huh? I am here to take a bath. What’s wrong with that?” Nux questioned with a frown on her face.

“Huh?” Amaya frowned as well.

“What? It is a bathroom correct?” Nux questioned and Amaya nodded.

“You use the bathroom to bathe, correct?”

Amaya nodded again.

“Then why is it weird that I am here? Isn’t it perfectly normal?”

Nux questioned with a smile and Amaya nodded again however soon, she paused.

She finally came out of her thoughts and started accessing the situation a little more properly.

She then looked around a little and once she was sure, she roared in rage,

“This is my bathroom!

What are you doing here!?”

Chapter 214

“This is my bathroom!

What are you doing here!?”

Amaya questioned out loud. Nux, however, didn't lose his smile and questioned back.

“Aren't you mine?”

“Huh?”

“We made a deal remember, you are mind, body, heart and soul. Doesn't that mean your bathroom is mine as well?” Nux questioned and Amaya couldn't help but think that what he said made some sense.

Yes, she was his, so her bathroom was his as well.

What's the problem with that?

“I think everything is clear now?” Nux muttered and Amaya nodded.

“Alright, then let's go and bath.”

Saying that, Nux grabbed Amaya's hand and walked into the bathroom.

Amaya didn't resist as well and continued walking, however, soon, she came out of her reverie and panicked.

“W-What are you doing!?”

“Haah? Do we have to get over all of that again? We are about to take a bath in a bathroom, what's wrong with that?”

“Everything! Everything is wrong with that! Why are WE taking bath!? Why are we doing it together!?” Amaya questioned.

“Cause you are mine?”

“Huh?” Amaya frowned again.

For some reason, she couldn't gain any momentum at all.

“According to our deal, you are mind, correct?”

“Yes.”

“Then doesn't that mean we can take bath together?”

“...”

Amaya stayed silent as she glanced at Nux with a deadpan look on her face.

“What?” Nux questioned.

“That doesn't make any sense at all.”

She muttered.

There is no way she would be fooled with something like that.

She wasn't an idiot.

“Huh? A couple can't bath together? But I bathe with Allura many times...”
Nux questioned with a confused look on his face.

“You bathe with Allura?” suddenly, Amaya questioned.

“Huh? Of course, I always bathe with her before coming to meet you but today I thought it would be better to bathe with you but since you don't want it, I'll go bath with her...”

Nux muttered and then he turned around.

“W-Wait.” Amaya called.

A smile appeared on Nux’s face, however, soon, it disappeared and he turned around with an innocent look on her face.

“What is it?” He questioned.

“I-It’s 10 in the morning, she would have already taken a bath, would she have not?”

“Well, that is true, but I am sure she can take another bath if it is with me, bathing with someone else is quite special and a delightful experience after all,” Nux answered with a smile on his face and then, he turned around again.

“W-Wait, y-you don’t have to bother h-her.”

“Hmm? What do you mean?” Nux questioned.

“I said that you d-don’t have to bother her, s-she must be busy, y-you haven’t taken a bath yet, the same goes with me... a-and since I have essentially sold myself t-to you, we are a c-couple...

So we can t-take b-bath together.”

Amaya muttered.

Nux’s smile widened and he nodded his head,

“See? That is what I was talking about, there is no problem if we bathe together, it is completely normal.”

“mm”

Amaya nodded.

This sounds logical indeed.

Suddenly, Nux removed his purple robes and revealed his well-toned muscular upper body, Amaya found herself lost in her own world when she saw that.

Nux was just about to remove his pants, however, Amaya soon came out of her reverie and panicked.

“W-What are you doing?” Her face was completely red right now.

“Huh? We can’t bath with our clothes on, can we?”

Nux questioned back.

“T-True...” Amaya turned silent.

Seeing that she wasn’t stopping him anymore, Nux removed his pants as well and stood in front of Amaya wearing nothing but underwear.

Amaya’s body froze as she glanced at Nux who was standing in front of her, a smile then appeared on Nux’s face as he started walking towards her.

“You are really lost today huh, Amaya. Why are you wasting so much time, here, let me help you.”

Saying that, Nux’s hand moved towards her blue-coloured night robes and with one graceful movement, her robes fell on the floor, revealing her perfect body with perfect proportions for Nux to see.

“B-Beautiful...” Nux couldn’t help but praise as he saw Amaya standing in front of him with a red face while her hands covered her breasts even though she was wearing a black bra.

Her skin was spotless and smooth, there was no extra fat anywhere around her body and combining everything with her raven hair and abyss-like eyes, Nux couldn’t help but gulp.

However, he soon came out of his reverie and continued.

“Alright, let’s move to the bathtub.”

Although he said that, he did not give her any chance to move at all, he directly carried her like a princess and walked towards the bathtub which was filled with foamy water.

He stepped into the bathtub and sat down.

Amaya's brain had already stopped working, she didn't know where she was or what she was doing, right now, she was just going with a flow.

A flow she didn't know where it would lead to.

Soon, she felt water touching her body, she looked around and noticed that right now, she was sitting inside the bathtub, on Nux's lap and she realized how dangerous the situation is.

However, before she could say anything, she felt Nux placing his chin on her shoulder and he whispered.

“Shall we start?”

A weird jolt of pleasure assaulted her body and her the energy she had collected to resist what was happening crumbled into dust.

She was already his...

What's the problem?

Isn't it just a bath?

What could possibly go wrong?

Thinking that, she nodded.

“Alright,”

She then heard Nux's voice and soon,

*Click*

With a click sound, her bra was removed.

...

A/N: So I was thinking, what do you guys think about Anal Sex?

Should I add it? Should I not?

We are gonna do a pole.

In the comments,

Like,

Yes A.

If you want anal.

No A.

If you do not want anal.

Also, keep in mind that the chapter with anal will take some time, I may even forget about it.

Welp, let's just see the results of the Pole first.

Chapter 215

A/N: Ahem Ahem, again, same warning. Read the next 3 chaps together.

Muhehehe.

*Skeleton Face*

...

*Click*

With a click sound, her bra was removed.

‘W-What...?’

It was as if time slowed down for Amaya.

She saw her black-coloured bra falling into the bathtub in slow motion, revealing her beautiful white breasts and her perfectly shaped light pink nipple.

Her eyes widened in surprise and her heart skipped a beat.

Her body reacted on instinct and her hands moved towards her breasts, trying to cover them.

However, before her hands could reach her breasts, Nux’s hand moved and hugged her waist.

Seeing that, Amaya panicked even more and questioned,

“W-What are you doing!?”

Nux then placed his chin on her shoulder and questioned,

“Hmm? What’s the problem?”

Unknowingly, or knowingly, Nux moved his body even close to Amaya while he asked that. Amaya, who felt his body warmth felt a weird sense of comfort, however, soon, she came out of her reverie and questioned.

“W-Why did you remove my bra?”

“Hmm? Aren’t we here to bathe? How are we supposed to do that with clothes on?” Nux questioned back in a confused tone.

“It’s obvio-” Amaya wanted to answer, however, suddenly, she paused.

Wait...

Wasn’t he right?

How are they supposed to take a bath without removing their clothes?

There was nothing wrong with what he was doing right now but...

But... why does everything feel so wrong?

What’s the problem here?

While Amaya was thinking all of this, Nux’s hands moved, he gathered the water in the bathtub and then rinsed Amaya’s waist.

Amaya panicked again, but before she could question, she heard Nux’s gentle voice in her ear,

“Since we are bathing together, won’t it make more sense to bathe each other as normal couples do?”

If we wanted to bathe alone, there was no point coming here together, right?”

Nux muttered and again,

Even though she felt what was happening was wrong, she couldn’t find any way to refute his words.

His words made complete sense.

And since she couldn't refute his words, Amaya didn't say anything and let Nux do whatever he wanted with a red face.

Nux's smile widened, he then continued what he was doing and when Amaya's body was wet, he grabbed the soap and started cleaning her shoulders with his gentle hands.

"Your skin is very soft."

Nux complimented as he washed her arms.

"T-Thank you."

Amaya stuttered.

Nux's hand then moved and he started washing her back, even though he was just washing her back, the way his hands were moving, for some reason, everything looked very lewd.

And with how Amaya's heart was beating, it was confirmed that she could feel it as well.

"You usually can't get your back cleaned huh, one always needs a partner to that," Nux muttered.

"Y-Yes."

Amaya nodded, even saying a one-word answer was tough for her right now.

Only she knew how hard it was, her mind wasn't working properly, she was just there while her mind was somewhere else. Thinking about something very very lewd.

However, as if knowing that, Nux's next action brought her mind back to the bathroom.

He used soap to clean her waist and then, his hands paused.

It was now time to clean Amaya's breasts.

Amaya's heartbeat quickened, Nux's hands moved slowly and soon, he circled them around her breasts a few times and then, he grabbed her breasts as gently as he could.

“Mmnff~”

A weird jolt of pleasure coursed through Amaya's body and she moaned out loud.

Different emotions attacked her mind, pleasure, excitement, thrill, nervousness and... fear.

Yes, she was a little scared about what will happen next.

Oblivious to her thoughts, Nux's hand moved gently and caresse- ahem, cleaned her breasts.

Weird waves of pleasure continued to assault Amaya's body, the feeling of someone else touching her breasts so openly felt strange but pleasurable at the same time.

Her eyes then widened in surprise when Nux's fingers moved and started playing with her nipples.

“Annhh~”

She moaned out loud.

“Are you alright? Am I being too rough right now?” Nux's gentle voice entered her ears and as if it was destroying all her defences, her mouth moved on her own and she answered,

“N-No, it's fine... you can continue...”

Even Amaya herself would have found her answer shocking, however, right now she was busy dealing with this new and unknown feeling.

“Alright~”

Nux nodded and then, his hand continued moving and ‘cleaning’ her breasts thoroughly.

After around 10 minutes of gropi- cleaning, Nux was finally satisfied and then he turned on the shower.

Cold water fell on Amaya’s and Nux’s hot bodies and,

“Annh~”

Another moan leaked out of Amaya’s mouth.

Nux however, did not react to the cold water, he was busy doing much more important stuff. His hands moved all over her body and rinsed her entire body as gently and lovingly as he could.

“Here, you are finally clean now.” Nux smiled gently as he hugged Amaya from behind.

“T-Thank you...” Amaya muttered.

“...”

Nux however, didn’t reply. It was as if he was waiting for something.

Amaya found the silence awkward, she then started looking around and soon, she offered,

“N-Now should I clean your body as well?”

“Of course, that’s why we two are here right?

To take a bath together.”

“mm.”

Amaya nodded and then, she turned around while covering her breasts with her arms.

Seeing her like this, Nux couldn't believe that she was the same woman who was ordering Kilton like some experienced businesswoman.

Her strong, confident and independent side was completely invisible right now.

Currently, she only looked like a normal teenager who was standing in front of her crush, naked, scared, confused, excited and nervous.

“When are you going to start?” Nux questioned with an amused smile on her face.

Amaya then finally realized that she would have to move her hands, which means she won't be able to cover her breasts anymore, she then glanced at Nux and seeing that playful smile on his face, she realized that this was what he was aiming for to begin with.

She then gritted her teeth and moved her hands, revealing her perfectly shaped breasts.

Nux burned that sight into her memory, as for Amaya, her movements paused and her eyes widened in shock.

She was about to rinse Nux's body just like how he did with hers, however, soon, her eyes fell on that huge tent that had formed under the bathtub and her body froze.

“What? Don't act like that,

It is a completely natural reaction.”

...

“What? Don’t act like that,

It is a completely natural reaction.”

Amaya then heard Nux’s word and her eyes glanced at her face.

“Trust me, it is completely natural, you would have to check a guy’s sexuality if he doesn’t get turned on after bathing with you.

Amaya, don’t blame me, it is your fault, you are just too beautiful.”

A small smile appeared on Amaya’s face when she heard Nux’s words.

‘You are just too beautiful.

You are amazingly beautiful.

You are the most beautiful person I have ever seen.’

For some reason, her mind started moulding Nux’s words and the more it was moulded, the better Amaya’s smile got.

For some reason, she got a little too happy because of his compliment.

It wasn’t like she wasn’t complimented before, quite the opposite actually, pretty much every person she had met complimented her for her beauty, however, this was the first time she ever felt happy and contented from a compliment.

“You aren’t going to leave me hanging, correct?” Suddenly, Nux muttered.

“Hmm?” Amaya, who was lost in her thoughts couldn’t hear him properly.

“Since it is your fault, you are going to help me calm it down, right?”

Amaya’s heart skipped another beat, however, when she glanced at Nux’s face and then she glanced back at the huge tent that was formed below, she couldn’t deny him.

“A-Alright.”

She nodded.

Nux’s smile widened, he then shifted his body to a little more comfortable position and glanced at Amaya.

“B-But I don’t know what t-to do...” Amaya muttered.

She was clueless right now.

And it wasn’t her fault either, she has been living alone since she was a 13-year-old girl.

Although she knew what sex was and how the reproduction and reproduction organs work, she had no clue how to calm down an erect penis...

She has never done something like this before and never has she talked with someone else about this either.

‘Oh? She’s surprisingly innocent huh...’

An amused smile appeared on Nux’s face as he glanced at Amaya.

“Remove my underwear first,” Nux instructed.

“O-Okay...” Amaya muttered with a red face, her hands then started trembling because of how nervous, excited and scared she was, however, she then glanced at Nux's face and saw him smiling at her, she smiled back a determined look appeared on her face.

Her hands moved and she quickly removed Nux's underwear, revealing an 8-inch huge monster that stood proudly.

'Woahhh... is it supposed to be this big...?'

Amaya wondered inwardly.

This wasn't the first penis she has seen, she has seen a penis 5 years ago as well, however, that and this...

There was a big difference between the two.

'I-Is he too big or was that guy too small...?'

Amaya muttered inwardly as she stared at Nux's little brother with a lost look on her face.

Nux didn't say anything either, rather, he was enjoying her reactions.

Therefore, he just waited.

2 minutes later, Amaya finally came out of her reverie and questioned,

"W-What do I do now?"

"Grab it with your arms, try to be as gentle as you can," Nux instructed.

Amaya nodded and with a determined look on her red face, her right hand moved and she grabbed Nux's little brother with her soft hand.

'Ohhh...'

Just this little motion sent a jolt of pleasure into Nux's body, however, he wasn't a virgin like he was a few months ago, he wouldn't moan with something like that.

He controlled himself and continued looking at Amaya who was looking at his little brother with a focused look on her face.

Her left hand moved as well and she grabbed Nux's rod with both her hands.

'It is hot...'

Amaya muttered inwardly.

She looked like a curious child who was looking at something completely out of this world right now.

A small smile appeared on Nux's face when he saw her cute reactions.

"Alright, now start stroking it, start slowly and gently."

Amaya nodded and then, her hands started moving slowly and carefully, it was as if she was scared of hurting him.

Her movements were anything but good, however, her innocent look compensated for that, no, actually, it did more than just compensate for that, Nux felt an unbearable sense of satisfaction washing over his body when he saw her stroking his dick with such a focused look on her face.

"Don't forget the balls, cup them and play with them a little as well."

Amaya nodded, her left hand then moved and cupped his balls.

"Ughh..."

Nux moaned out loud.

Hearing him moan, a small smile appeared on Amaya's face.

She felt like she had achieved something.

"Now you can keep experimenting, increase and decrease your speed according to what you feel is good."

You are an intelligent woman, I am sure you will understand how everything works very quickly.”

Nux instructed and then, he closed his eyes.

His actions clearly told what he was thinking.

He was done instructing, now, he would just lay back and enjoy Amaya’s caresses.

Amaya understood that as well, and an even more focused look appeared on her face and she increased her stroking speed.

“Ugghh... That is goof~”

Nux moaned again.

Seeing that, Amaya increased her speed even more, however, this time, Nux didn’t moan. Amaya frowned and then she increased her speed even more.

However, soon, she realized, it does not depend on speed.

It depends on suddenness, the more sudden and unexpected her moves would be, the more Nux would moan.

Thinking about it, Amaya decreased her speed, she continued this for the next 10 seconds and then, she increased her speed again.

“Aahh~” Nux moaned again and seeing that, Amaya smiled.

She understood these dynamics now.

Her hands moved quickly and she tried different variations as she increased and decreased her speed, making Nux moan out loud again and again.

Then suddenly, a thought appeared in her mind and she decided to test it out.

Her fingers moved towards Nux's little brother's head and then, she moved her thumb towards that opening and stroked it.

“!!!”

Nux's eyes opened wide, and a big jolt of pleasure was sent into her body.

He was already on the edge from the handjob and due to this sudden action, he couldn't control himself and,

“Ugghhhh! I am cumminngg!”

His little brother sprayed his fresh hot milk all over Amaya's body.

...

“Ugghhhhh! I am cumminnggg!”

His little brother sprayed his fresh hot milk all over Amaya's body.

Out of reflex, Amaya tried to cover her body with her hands, however, that didn't help at all. Nux's hot liquid fell on her body and seeing how his little brother was spitting out his milk like that, Amaya gulped.

“W-What is this...?” She couldn't help but question.

“It's called ejaculation,” Nux answered.

“I know that! I am not a child!” Amaya refuted.

“...” Nux turned silent and didn't say anything.

Amaya then glanced at Nux and started thinking.

‘Ejaculation... or orgasm, a person only orgasm when he or she feels good, so does that mean he enjoyed what I did...?’

Amaya thought and then, a smile appeared on her face.

For some reason, she felt proud of herself.

She then glanced at Nux’s little brother who was now in half erect state and her smile widened,

“I succeeded in calming it down...”

Nux, who heard her words couldn’t help but smile,

“Indeed, you did an amazing job, thank you, Amaya.”

“mm.”

Amaya nodded and then lowered her head in embarrassment.

Suddenly, a big smile appeared on Nux’s face as he glanced at Amaya’s body which was now covered in his jizz.

“I apologize about not being able to control myself as well, I didn’t expect you to be so good at it even though it was your first time.”

Amaya’s heart bloomed in happiness and she nodded,

“N-No worries... you do not have t-to apologize...”

“How could that be, look at you, you got dirty again, don’t worry though, I will make it up to you.”

“Hmm?”

“I will clean your body again.”

Nux muttered with a smile on his face and Amaya blushed.

She wouldn't deny it, when Nux was cleaning her body, it felt good, however, does she want to do that again?

No.

It was just too embarrassing for her.

However, there was no way just would back off.

He had to 'apologize' for his mistake after all.

Nux then turned the shower on, the cold water from the shower fell on Amaya's body and started rinsing all the jizz from her body.

Nux then smiled as he grabbed Amaya's body, this time from the front and then, he directly attacked her breasts.

“Annhh~”

The sudden attack took her by surprise and Amaya moaned out loud.

“You cannot moan like that, Amaya, it would alert Kelton who is outside,” Nux warned, however, his actions didn't match his words as he suddenly pinched Amaya's left nipple.

“AAnnhh!!”

Amaya moaned louder than normal.

“You need to control your moans, Amaya,” Nux repeated.

“How am I supposed to do that if you keep touching me like that!?” Amaya retorted back, her voice filled with panic. She was scared that she might get found out by others.

Seeing her like that, Nux shook his head and muttered,

“Alright, let me help you with it.”

“Huh?” Amaya frowned?

‘Help? How was he goi-‘

Before she could think too much, Nux sealed her juicy lips.

Amaya’s mind stopped working.

Her body also stopped working.

Her heart skipped a lot of beats at the same time.

For Amaya, everything paused.

She was lost, she was lost by the sudden kiss.

It took her 30 seconds to register what was happening and finally, she felt Nux’s lips on hers while she was in his embrace.

However, she didn’t have any will to resist that as well.

A weird sense of relief, comfort and security washed over her body.

She didn’t resist at all.

Rather, she hugged him back and started moving her hands around Nux’s muscular back as he sucked on her lips like it was the most delicious thing he had ever had.

Nux’s hand didn’t stay in one place either, his left hand stayed on her back, as for her right hand, it moved down towards her perky butt.

He rolled his fingers around that round ass and then, he gave it a gentle little squeeze.

“Mhhmmm~”

Amaya wanted to moan but since her lips were sealed, only a muffled moan could come out of her.

Suddenly, Nux picked her up without breaking his kiss and switched places.

Cold water fell on Amaya's back and Nux's right hand, which was kneading her butt moved again, this time, it moved towards her sacred place.

Amaya's eyes widened in surprise.

She wasn't a child.

She knew what was about to happen.

Nux's hand then reached her sacred place and soon, his index finger entered her canal and a big jolt of pleasure assaulted Amaya's body.

“MMmffffmm~”

Nux then removed his finger back from her cave and broke the kiss.

“Your little sister is wet~” He muttered with a playful smile on his face.

“That's because it is underwater,” Amaya answered.

“Heh.” Nux chuckled, he then brought his hand up and touched his index finger with his thumb,

“Are you sure? It doesn't smell like water to me~”

Amaya blushed.

“Hehe~ Look's like you are aroused. Did that kiss turn you on?” Nux questioned as he moved his lips close to Amaya's ears.

“...”

Amaya, however, didn't answer, her mind was a mess right now.

Things were going to little too fast. She can't understand what was happening at all.

She just stood there, still, with just a deep red blush on her beautiful face.

“You do not have to be so embarrassed, it is a natural reaction,

Your body is craving for me~”

Nux whispered gently as he glanced at the string of liquid that was formed between his thumb and index finger.

Hearing his words, Amaya’s face turned even redder.

Nux then smiled and continued,

“Of course, I am not any different either,”

Amaya then matched his gaze and her eyes widened in surprise when she saw Nux’s little brother, which was underwater, standing tall even though he had just ejaculated his milk just a moment ago.

“My body is craving for yours as well~”

Chapter 218

A/N: PRAISE ME!

*No Blue balls ahead.*

...

“My body is craving for yours as well~”

Nux muttered with a smile on his face as he moved his erect penis close to Amaya’s little sister.

Amaya, who was watching everything with a red face couldn’t help but move her body in a way that her little sister’s entrance touched Nux’s little brother.

A thrilling feeling filled her heart when the two private parts touched each other.

She moved her body a little and the more Nux’s rod slid on her entrance, the faster her heart started beating.

Right now, she wasn’t thinking straight, all her actions were subconscious, even she doesn’t realize what she was doing.

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face as he saw her acting like that, “Shall we move to the next step?” he questioned in a gentle tone.

Hearing his words, Amaya froze.

She knew what the next step was.

Her body started trembling in fear as she recalled some bad memories, however, a weird tingling feeling filled her heart, she glanced below and saw Nux sliding his rod on her opening.

She turned her gaze towards him and seeing the gentle smile on his face, another feeling, that was way more intense than her fear welled in her heart.

She nodded.

She wanted to take the next step as well, she wanted to overcome this fear as well.

Nux smiled, he then moved and placed Amaya's body down in the bathtub with only her shoulders and head out of the water, he himself crawled on top of her body and placed his rod on her entrance.

After adjusting a little, he inserted the head of his little brother inside her cave.

As soon as he entered her cave, Nux felt something approaching his dick and he was sure that it wasn't her walls.

“Amaya, the Mist, you need to control the Mist.”

Nux muttered.

Amaya nodded and then, she closed her eyes.

The Devouring Mist that was inside her body moved from her Cave to her legs, freeing the path for Nux's rod. She then opened her eyes and nodded.

She was ready now.

Nux nodded back gently and then, he moved his waist as slowly and gently as possible.

“Be calm, no need to be scared, I am here~” He noticed that Amaya's body was trembling again so he whispered in a gentle tone.

Amaya nodded and decided to not look down and continued looking into Nux's golden eyes.

Nux smiled, he moved his waist and soon, he noticed something was in his little brother's way.

Amaya's hymen.

He lowered his body and placed his chin on Amaya's shoulder,

“It will hurt a little, okay? Be strong~”

He whispered into her ears.

“mm.”

Amaya nodded and she closed her eyes, preparing herself for the pain.

Then, Nux moved his waist and broke her hymen.

“Uuuugh.”

Amaya groaned in pain.

“I am here~ Don't worry~”

Nux whispered again.

Amaya wrapped her arms around Nux's back and tightened her hug as much as possible. Nux also continued whispering calming words into her ears.

He realized that pain wasn't the problem here,

It was her fear.

Amaya was scared, however, he also realized that she had to overcome that fear someday, and today was that day.

“Good, you are doing great, you are very brave, Amaya~”

He whispered again however, what he didn't know was that Amaya wasn't hearing him at all.

Right now, she was in her own world, her own dark world, all alone. She can't see, hear or sense anything, she was just floating around in immense darkness without knowing where she was going or how long was she floating for.

Suddenly, her still, dark, lonely, and scary world changed, a light in form of Nux appeared.

He extended his arms towards her, she held his hand with hers and the two of them hugged each other.

Nothing much changed, Amaya was still in her dark, lonely and scary world, however this time, it was 'lonely and 'scary' anymore. Now Nux was here with her.

Afraid that she would lose him, she tightened her hug around Nux's body, she used all the strength she can.

Floating was a lot easier now that she was hugging Nux.

Just the two of them...

It was a lot better and more relaxing than before.

No, actually, it was the best possible outcome.

Her and Nux alone in this seemingly endless world, just thinking about it filled Amaya's heart with immense happiness.

She was looking forward to her journey, her lifelong journey with no one but Nux accompanying her.

However, soon, an immense wave of pleasure assaulted Amaya's mind and her dark world crumbled.

“AAAannhhhhh~”

She moaned out loud.

Amaya finally came out of her reverie and saw Nux's face on top of hers.

He had his signature smile on his face, and seeing that Amaya frowned, however, before she could ask what this was all about, she felt something inside her body move,

A feeling of emptiness welled in her heart, however soon, Nux thrust his waist and his rod entered her inside in one go.

“AAANnnnnhhhh~~”

Amaya moaned again.

This pleasure was too much for her to bear.

“Hehe~ Get ready, my Amaya, I'll take you to the world full of pleasure~ Treat it as a reward for being so brave~”

Nux smiled and moved his waist again.

“AAaaaannhhh~~”

Hearing Amaya's moans, Nux's heart was filled with satisfaction and delight.

Just like Thyra, her insides were very tight, Nux was having a hard time controlling his grunts, however, he still controlled himself and continued moving his body.

The more he moved, the more Amaya's insides took the shape of his dick.

“Aannhhhhh~~”

‘Ugghhh! she is too tight!’ Nux groaned inwardly.

Her walls weren't as tight as Thyra's, however, the way her walls surrounded his rod, it was as if they were trying to suck him dry. This suction force was incomparable to anything he has ever felt before.

The pleasure was simply body numbing.

However, Nux was still Nux, he continued his thrusting without stopping.

“AAnnnnhhhh~~”

A few more thrusts later, Amaya’s inside became a lot more welcoming and Nux’s movement smoothed.

“Aanh! Annh! AAnnnh!”

*Splash* *Splash* *Splash*

As Nux increased his speed, the water in the bathtub started spilling on the floor, however, the Amaya couldn’t care less about the water.

She was busy coping with that unbearable amount of pleasure that was assaulting her mind and body.

She knew that if this keeps on, she would not be able to stay sane.

She needed to do something.

She barely opened her eyes and her gaze fell on Nux who was thrusting his waist as fast as he could.

She felt that this scene was a lot similar to the scene where she was surrounded by darkness, the only difference being that rather than feeling lonely and scared, she was dealing with a mind-numbing pleasure that might turn her into an idiot.

In the end, she did what she did before.

She gathered all her energy, lifted her body and hugged Nux.

“Hmm?” Nux was taken aback by her sudden action, then his smile widened and he hugged her back.

Thrusting like that was a little difficult, but it wasn't something he can't do.

He then picked her up and placed her body in a more comfortable position and then,

He started thrusting.

*Splash* *Splash* *Splash*

“Aanh! Annh! AAnh!”

Amaya continued to moan like crazy as her juices leaked uncontrollably and mixed with the water inside the bathtub.

Things didn't change at all, she was still dealing with that mind-numbing pleasure, but right now, it didn't matter.

She was around Nux.

Everything was fine right now.

Suddenly, a weird thought popped into her mind and without thinking much, she took action.

She opened her mouth and then,

She bit Nux's shoulder.

“Uggghhh!”

A weird wave of pleasure and pain assaulted Nux's body and he groaned in pleasure.

“You little...”

He muttered and his right hand then moved towards her butt.

This time, he wasn't as gentle as before, this time he grabbed her butt tightly and then,

*Pah*

“AAAnnnhhhhh~~”

He spanked her ass and as if her a switch had been slipped,

Amaya’s walls tightened as her insides crawled around Nux’s dick as if trying to devour him.

“Ugghhhh!”

Nux groaned and then,

*Squirt*

Amaya’s walls then loosened and then,

She came.

“AAAnnnnnhhhhh~~”

The sudden hike in pleasure was too much for him to bear as well, unable to control himself,

“Ugghhh! I am cumminngg!!”

Nux filled her insides as well.

Chapter 219

*Squirt*

“AAAnnnnnhhhhhh~~”

“Ugghhh! I am cumminngg!!”

Amaya and Nux came together.

“Haah... Haa... Haa...”

Nux’s breathed aggressively, then he turned his body and settled himself on the bathtub, supporting his back on the edge of the bathtub.

“Ha... Ha... Haa...”

He then heard Amaya’s heavy breathing and couldn’t help but question,

“Why are you breathing so loudly? I was the one who did everything. How are you so tired?”

However, instead of replying, Amaya just moved her body and snuggled close to Nux’s body.

Yes, from the time she hugged him till now, she was still hugging him like a koala, in her last orgasm, her body had completely lost all her strength, her juices were leaking out and were falling into the bathtub water and she was pretty much numb, however, even after that, her hands didn’t move from where they were and she continued hugging Nux as her life depended upon it.

Nux actually found this very cute.

As for why she was breathing so heavily.

Well, that was natural, even though she wasn't moving, this was the biggest orgasm she had ever had, being pounded like that with no rest whatsoever, there is no way she won't be tired.

“Oi oi, you aren't going to answer me?” Nux questioned with a small smile on his face.

“mm.”

Amaya however, just replied with a weird nod.

Seeing her sticking to him like this, Nux's little brother reacted.

However, he knew it was her first time, therefore, he controlled himself.

He would have a lot more chances to do this again from now on.

He doesn't have to rush him.

He just smiled and patted the koala that refused to release him.

[Ding.]

While he was thinking about it, a familiar sound rang into his mind and a strange energy entered his body.

Nux frowned.

Amaya shouldn't be strong enough for him to receive any energy out of this session. Then why...

While he was thinking, a message appeared in front of him.

[Congratulations to the Host for obtaining Devouring Mist Demon Physique.]

‘Huh?’

Nux's eyes widened as he finally recalled how absurd his System was.

‘Devouring Mist Demon Physique’

A smile appeared on Nux’s face.

‘Status’

He muttered.

[DEF: 103 → 109]

[Blank Points: 109 → 118]

Nux glanced at his status and smiled.

However, soon, his eyes fell on the (+) sign in front of his physique and he frowned.

He then came out of his reverie when he heard Amaya's confused voice.

“I feel like my cultivation increased...”

A small smile appeared on Nux's face when he heard that, actually, this time, he wasn't sure if his system would work since the cultivation technique needed to cultivate the Devouring Demon Mist Physique was different than normal.

However, it seems that his worries were unfounded.

His system was pretty simply absurd.

Something like this was not a problem for it at all.

‘A 6-level jump...’ Nux’s eyes widened in surprise but then, he nodded.

It was only logical.

He was a Grand Master Stage Cultivator after all.

A playful smile then appeared on his face as he muttered,

“Mhm, 1 or maybe 2 more sessions and you will become an Advance Stage Cultivator.”

“What...?”

This time, Amaya finally reacted and broke her hug.

She then moved her head and then looked into Nux’s eyes.

“W-What did you say?”

“I said that we just need to have sex 2 more times and you will become an Advance Stage Cultivator.”

Nux repeated and her eyes widened in surprise.

“H-How is that possible...?”

She wasn't stupid, she may not know much about sex, however, that doesn't mean she doesn't know anything about this world.

Since when was raising one's cultivation that simple!?

Advance Stage Cultivator after having sex!?

Who is he trying to fool?

Seeing her reaction, Nux chuckled.

“Amaya, do you remember what I said to you when we first met?”

“Hmm? That it would be an achievement for Kelton to stand up against you for 3 seconds?” Amaya muttered as she tilted her head in confusion.

“...”

Nux glanced at her with a deadpan expression.

“That... was not what I was talking about.”

He then decided to not give her anymore opportunity to break his momentum and smiled,

“I told you not to think of me as a normal man,

I am special.”

Amaya recalled that and nodded.

“This is one of the reasons why I am special.”

Nux continued,

“Do you know Viscount Felberta?”

“I have heard of that name.”

“What is her cultivation?” Nux questioned.

“Hmm... from what I remember, only a few Viscount cultivates... Viscount Felberta isn't one of them...

She should be a Mortal.” Amaya answered.

Nux's smile widened and he shook his head and revealed.

“She is a Peak Master Stage Cultivator.”

“What!?”

“Indeed, just like her, Skyla, Lane, her two maids are Peak Master Stage Cultivators as well.

Even the Head Maid Edda, who was an Initial Master Stage Cultivator 2 months ago, is now a Peak Master Stage Cultivator.”

“Edda is alive!?” Amaya questioned in shock.

“Heh. She is very much alive~”

Nux chuckled,

“She's doing quite well actually.”

“Wait... Concubine Allura and Head Maid Edda suddenly got close...

Marques Alger and Felberta, who didn't seem to have any relations with each other got close as well...

Edda, Allura, Felberta, her maids...”

“All of them are Peak Master Stage Cultivators and,

All of them are my women.”

Chapter 220

“Edda, Allura, Felberta, her maids...”

“All of them are Peak Master Stage Cultivators and,

All of them are my women.”

Nux revealed with a smile on his face.

“A-And they all are Peak Master Stage Cultivators...”

Amaya was shocked.

This can't be a coincidence.

There has to be a reason behind this.

Also, Felberta was just a mortal, how did she become a Master Stage Cultivator so quickly? That is simply ridiculous.

Wait...

Then, Amaya realized something and seeing the change in her expression, Nux smiled.

“It seems that you realized.”

“How is this possible?”

Amaya questioned.

“It is one of my abilities, when I and my partner have sex, the weaker one gets stronger, you, for example, were only a Beginner Stage Cultivator whereas I am a Grand Master Stage Cultivator.

Therefore, when we two have sex, you receive a huge boost in your cultivation and it will keep on happening till you become a Grand Master Stage Cultivators.”

“G-Grand Master Stage Cultivator?”

“Yes, you will become a Grand Master Stage Cultivator like me in less than 2 months.”

“H-How can such an absurd ability exists?” Amaya questioned in shock.

“I told you did I not? I am not a normal man.” Nux smiled.

“...”

Amaya didn't say anything and just glanced at Nux with her eyes filled with shock.

Nux chuckled, he then sealed Amaya's lips with his own and started sucking her lips. A few seconds later, his tongue knocked on her teeth, it was Amaya's first time, however, she instinctively knew what she had to do.

She opened her mouth and let Nux's tongue enter, their tongues then mingled with each other and Nux and Amaya shared a long passionate kiss together.

3 minutes later, Nux finally broke the kiss and then, he questioned,

“So, Amaya Skyfall, are you willing to be my woman?”

“Heh. Didn't I sell myself to you alr-”

“I am not talking about the Deal,

I am talking about your own will,

Amaya Skyfall, are you willing to be my woman with all your heart?”

“ ... ”

Amaya glanced at Nux’s eyes that were looking at him with a gaze full of passion, it didn’t take her a lot of time to be overwhelmed by those eyes.

“Yes.”

She answered with an intoxicated look on her face.

Then, she felt a weird energy entering her body.

‘Good,’

She then heard Nux’s voice in her head and was shocked again.

‘This is another one of my abilities.’ Nux chuckled and then started telling her everything about Harem Seal, the telepathic Link, the 1 Hour Ability Time and all that.

However, since they were tight on time, his explanation was a little rushed.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

“Lady Amaya, are you alright?”

“That man is getting impatient,”

Nux muttered as he glanced at the door of the bathroom.

Amaya glanced at the door and secretly pouted.

“Alright, we should leave now, we don’t have much time,” Nux muttered.

“A-Alright...”

Amaya nodded as she lowered her head in disappointment.

Seeing her acting like this, Nux smiled and then he questioned,

“You are going to bathe with me tomorrow as well, correct?”

Amaya’s eyes brightened as she nodded.

“Yes.”

Nux chuckled, he then picked her up and both of them came out of the bathtub.

...

“Are you okay, Lady Amaya? You don’t usually take so much time to bathe.”

15 minutes later, when Amaya came out of the bathroom, Kelton questioned with a worried look on his face.

“I am alright, I just wanted to bathe for a little longer today since it felt good.”

“F-Felt good?”

Kelton frowned.

Huh?

Bathing felt good?

Aren’t you doing that for the last 23 years?

“Alright, let’s not talk about this now, you can start your report, we are already late today.”

Amaya muttered as she walked towards her chair.

Kelton came out of his reverie as well and continued.

As for Nux, well, he already left and right now, he was inside his room in his own mansion, looking at the System screen in front of him.

[Physique: Devouring Mist Demon Physique – Acquired (+)]

‘Acquired...’

He muttered inwardly.

He has read the Mantra of Devouring Mist Demon as well, the book has talked something about stages as well.

However, since it was essentially a cultivation technique and not a book about physique, the information it had was limited.

Nux only knew one thing,

Different Physique holders have different levels of Mastery over their Physique. The higher the Mastery they have, the stronger they are.

According to the Mantra of Devouring Mist Demon, There are 3 different Levels of Physiques.

Acquired.

Advanced.

Mastered.

Acquired level, this is where the person only has the Physique with a basic level of control, no different than a newbie.

However, even with that, a Physique holder can easily defeat an Advance Stage Cultivator.

Why couldn't Amaya defeat an Advance Stage Cultivator?

That was because her physique was in the ‘Dormant’ Stage at that time, it wasn't activated.

She didn't have control over her powers.

Now that she can control her powers, an Advance Stage Cultivator is nothing in her eyes, of course, she still needs some practice before she reaches that level.

A person who has Advanced Stage Mastery over his physique can easily go on par with Grand Master Stage Cultivator.

Yes, believe it or not, but a Beginner Stage Cultivator who has Advanced Level Mastery over his physique can easily defeat a Grand Master Stage Cultivator.

As for Mastered Stage Mastery, the last level,

The book didn't mention anything about that.

Nux would have to find out about that on his own.

The only thing he knew was that it was ridiculously strong.

Now the question arises, how does one raise his Mastery over the Physique?

Well, according to the book, the only way is to keep using the physique for as long as you can until you suddenly gain euphony.

Yes, that's it.

There was no fixed way to increase it.

You just keep doing what you were doing and one day, you will get there and will receive a tremendous boost in your power.

A crude method, if it could even be called a method.

Of course, all of this for other people,

As for someone like Nux,

Heh, here, things change.

Chapter 221

There was no fixed way to increase the Mastery over one's Physique, one just has to keep trying and trying and hope to achieve a Break Through.

Nux, however, was different.

For him, all of this needed only one click.

[Physique: Devouring Mist Demon Physique – Acquired (+)]

He clicked on the (+) sign that was on his system and,

‘Huh?’

Suddenly, Nux's world turned black.

No, that's not right, rather than his world turning black, it was more like he was transported into a Black Space.

‘What is happening?’

Nux frowned.

He started looking around, however, there was not even an ounce of light in this place. He cannot see or hear anything.

He tried touching his face with his arms and it worked.

He could feel his body.

However, he could not feel his clothes.

It was as if he was standing naked right now.

‘Edda, Skyla, Lane, Thyra.’

He tried calling his women.

Or his women that were in Alger's mansion right now.

'Yes?'

'Nux?'

'What happened?'

'Hm?'

The 4 women answered.

'The Harem Seal is working...'

Nux thought inwardly and then, he called everyone.

'You guys, come into my room.'

'Alright'

The girls didn't joke around either, from his tone, they could tell that he was serious.

The girls quickly rushed into his room and soon, Edda's eyes widened in surprise.

"Nux!"

She wanted to rush toward him; however, Thyra grabbed her hand and stopped her.

"What are you doing!?"

"Shut up, you will die if you touch it," Thyra muttered with a calm look on her face.

'What do you guys see?' Nux questioned.

‘Were on lying on the bed?’

‘I was.’ Nux nodded.

‘Your body is covered with some sort of Black Mist, nothing is visible, the fact that it is your body is also just a guess.’ Thyra answered.

‘Black Mist?’

Nux frowned.

‘Yes, not only that, but I sense a menacing energy from that Mist, it is as if it will devour me if I go too close to it.’ Thyra muttered.

‘Alright.’ Nux nodded.

He doesn’t have to be a genius to realize what this Black Mist was,

It was Black and Thyra labelled it as lethal.

Nux was sure that it was Devouring Mist.

‘Why are you two so calm!?’

Suddenly, Edda questioned.

‘Oh my perverted Edda, are you worried about me?’ Nux questioned.

‘Of course I am! What happened to you!? What is this Black Mist covering your body.’

‘Alright now calm down. Nothing happened, I will be back to normal after some time. I just acquired the Devouring Mist Demon physique I was talking about. Don’t worry.’

Nux answered in a calm tone.

Edda and the others calmed down a little and then, Nux continued,

‘Now answer some of my questions.’

Nux then raised his hand inside the black space and questioned,

‘Did my hand move?’

‘There is no movement in your body.’ Edda answered.

Nux then jumped and questioned again,

‘Now?’

‘No, there is no movement,’ Lane answered.

Nux then tried controlling his Mana, however, he quickly realized that he can’t access Mana in this world.

He tried using [Sense], however, other than the pitch darkness, there was nothing else he could see.

‘Nux... you will be alright, right?’

Suddenly, Skyla questioned in worry.

‘Oh C’mon, don’t worry, it will be fine, I know what is happening.’

Nux muttered.

‘Alright, you all should leave the room now, things might get dangerous.’

Nux muttered and his women left the room obediently.

Nux then broke the Telephatic Link and sighed,

‘Now how the fuck do I get out...’

Yes, he did not know how to get out of this situation either.

He was just trying to calm them down.

He started looking around, however, being in this dark place, there was nothing to look for.

Then, Nux closed his eyes and started recalling what was written in the Mantra of the Devouring Mist Demon, however, nothing came into his mind.

There was nothing that is moderately close to his situation mentioned in the Book.

Nux scratched his head in confusion.

Now, even he started panicking.

‘What the hell? Shouldn’t I just level up? Why the heck is something like this happening? C’mon, if there is some sort of task that I have to do, just give me that task. What’s with this pitch black welcome?’

He started talking to himself, trying to keep his sanity and hoping to receive some kind of hint.

“ ... ”

However, only silence greeted him.

No answers, no hints, nothing.

Now, Nux started panicking even more.

‘System! System! Can you tell me what is happening? You can help me right?’

He called for his last resort.

“ ... ”

However, just like always, the System did not respond.

‘Maybe conscious systems are better than unconscious ones, they might be annoying, but at least they answer the questions...’

Nux started thinking about random things while he panicked.

This continued for 5 minutes and Nux, who was about to have a heart attack due to panic felt something change.

The pitch black space suddenly cracked and then, it broke down like a piece of mirror.

Nux then tried opening his eyes and a big sigh escaped his body once he saw a familiar ceiling on the top.

He stood up and looked around and soon, his heart calmed down.

He had returned.

Then, he glanced at his body and although there were no apparent changes, he could feel something was different.

Something in his body had changed.

He raised his hand and Devouring Mist moved out of his palm,

Nux noticed that this Devouring Mist was darker than Amaya’s not only that, he could feel that it was more lethal and stronger.

Then, as if he knew about it since he was a child, he started discovering more and more things he could do with this Devouring Mist.

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face.

‘Two, Three.’

Suddenly, he called.

‘Yes Master?’ the two assassins answered at the same time.

‘Come spar with me.

I need to test something out.’

Chapter 222

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Two and Three glanced at Nux with deadpan looks on their faces.

“Are you seriously going to fight like that...?”

In the end, Three was unable to take it anymore and questioned.

“Hmm? What’s the problem?” Nux questioned back with a small smile on his face.

Two’s lips twitched in annoyance, however, he knew better than anyone to not say anything.

Three, however, didn’t have that level of control and snapped.

“What’s wrong!?”

Everything!

Everything is wrong! How the hell are you going to fight with us if you set your cultivation to Beginner Stage!?”

This wasn’t the first time when Nux had lowered his cultivation to fight against the two of them.

However, whenever he lowered it, he lowered it to Master Stage, he tried lowering it to Advance Stage as well but stopped doing that after trying it once.

Since that day, he always sparred with them while limiting his cultivation to Master Stage.

However, today,

Today he has taken a step further.

Let alone Advance, he decreased his cultivation even more and set it to Beginner Stage!

Just how ridiculous is that!?

“Alright, let’s not waste much time,” he then raised his hand and pointed his fingers at two of them.

“Come.”

He challenged with a small smile on his face.

Two and Three felt their lips twitching, this was ridiculous, however, there was nothing they could do about it.

If they were ordered to fight, they will fight.

Two and Three then glanced at each other and nodded.

‘We will end this quickly and make him realize his mistakes.’

That was their plan.

The two of them dashed towards Nux as their dagger appeared in their hands.

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face and then, Black Coloured Mist came out of his hands.

“W-What is that?” Three muttered in surprise.

Nux, however, did not give her much time to react and the Black Mist rushed toward her.

“Back Off! That’s dangerous!”

Two warned.

He didn't know what that Mist was, however, he knew it was scary, his danger senses, that he has honed after being an assassin for so long, were tingling.

Of course, Three was also an Assassin like him, her danger senses told her that something was wrong as well, however, she still couldn't react in time and some of the Black Mist grazed her pinky finger.

“Uggh!”

She groaned in pain, she then glanced at her finger and saw that it had turned grey. However, this was not the worse part, the worst part was that the grey part was growing at a pace visible to the eyes.

Three panicked, however, in the end, she was still an assassin, she quickly regained her senses and used her Mana to stop it from spreading.

The Mist, however, was scarier than she imagined, the Mana she was using to suppress the Mist was being devoured by it.

‘I need to push it out of my body, I can't just stop it with my Mana alone!’

Three thought inwardly and then she used even more Mana to push the Mist out of her finger.

Her finger finally regained its colour, everything was fine now.

Everything, but Three.

She looked at Nux with a horrified look on her face.

“W-What the hell is that!?”

Nux's smile grew.

“My new ability.”

Three's eyes widened in surprise, however, before she could say anything, a large amount of Black Mist came out of Nux's body.

“The spar isn't over yet, you two.

Try not to be defeated by a Beginner Stage Cultivator.”

Nux muttered and Two's lips twitched in frustration and annoyance.

However, Three didn't have the same expression as him, Three knew, Three had dealt with that Mist, it was definitely lethal.

“Do not underestimate that Mist, once it touches your body, it will spread all over, also, don't try to stop it with Mana, it has the property to Devour Mana as well, the best method is to use a little more Mana and push it out of your body.”

“No, that is not the best method.” Two shook his head with a smile on his face.

“Huh? What do you mean?”

Two's smile widened and he continued,

“The best method is to avoid that annoying Mist and defeat the man who is controlling it.”

Then Two dashed towards Nux at a speed at which no Beginner Stage Cultivator would be able to react.

Even if Nux was not actually Beginner Stage Cultivator and could see his movement, with his cultivation restricted, there is no way his body would react, Two just needed to get close to him and place his dagger on his neck.

Nux, however, had different plans, the Mist around him moved and covered his entire body like a shield.

Then before Two could get close to him, Two tentacles formed with Devouring Mist moved and attacked him.

Two jumped back and dodged, however, before he could be happy, a third tentacle was launched towards him, he dodged that as well however, the fourth tentacle attacked him.

Two was forced to dodge and jump back, this only ended when Two was already very far from Nux and there was a considerable distance between the two of them.

“W-What the hell!? What’s the range of that annoying Mist!?” Two questioned in frustration.

Two and Three’s eyes widened in surprise as they glanced at Nux, however, Nux wasn’t done yet.

“Not only that, but the best part is that I do not need Mana to control the Devouring Mist. So if you two are counting on the fact that I will eventually run out of Mana and won’t be able to control the Mist anymore, forget about it.”

Two and Three blinked as they glanced at each other.

A range of 100 meters and no Mana consumption.

Didn’t that mean that...

They were fucked?

“Two and Three, think of something as soon as you can, otherwise, you two will be making a new record today,

And that is to be defeated by a Beginner Stage Cultivator.”

Chapter 223

“Wow... to think that a Beginner Stage Cultivator would be able to defeat 2 Grand Master Stage Cultivators with a scratch on his body,

Tsk Tsk, how far the mighty have fallen.”

Nux shook his head in disappointment as he glanced at the two bodies that were lying in front of him.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

However, Two and Three did not respond to his provocations.

Right now, they had their own share of troubles to deal with.

Nux glanced at Two and Three, who were lying on the ground and started thinking.

Their entire body, other than the head, was grey right now,

“Devouring Mist is dangerous, if it enters your body, it will start numbing everything, your muscles, blood vessels, your nerves, Mana flow, everything.

The worst part is, that once it is done numbing a part of your body, it will move to another, and this process is scarily fast, it only takes a few seconds for it to start spreading.

You can try and stop it from spreading with your Mana, however, the Devouring Mist even Devours Mana, so that won't work for long either.

There is only one way to deal with Devouring Mist once it enters your body, and that is to force it out using your Mana.

However, this requires high Mana consumption.

Even if you do manage to force the Mist out, the opponent simply needs to force it inside your body again.

A simple process.

Once your entire body is numb and filled with Devouring Mist, the Mist will start doing what it is best at.

It will start Devouring.

Your muscles, bones, tendons, everything, it will devour until your existence is wiped out from this world.

It is simply a nightmare for the enemies.”

There was a scary smile on his face while he was saying all that.

‘Ugghh... Master... please do something about this Mist... you can explain how great your ability is later...’ Nux heard Two’s tiered voice in his mind.

Nux chuckled and then waved his hand.

“Of course, this is only for enemies, since you two are my subordinates, you do not have to worry at all.”

As he said that, Two and Three’s skin started regaining its colour and within the next 5 seconds, it was back to normal.

Two and Three glanced at each other and then they glanced at Nux.

“You lost.

This time, you lost against a Beginner Stage Cultivator.”

Nux smiled.

“T-This is bullshit! What kind of absurd ability is that!?”

It has a range of 100 meters, it has no Mana consumption and there is no limit to how much Mist you can produce this Mist!

This is simply unfair!

How can anyone fight against that!?”

Three complained.

“Well, just get stronger. The Mist won’t work that well against an Expert Stage Cultivator, a Beginner Stage Cultivator would die at the hands of the Expert Stage Cultivator before the Mist could even start acting.

And of course, once the owner of the Mist is dead, the Mist will vanish as well.”

Nux answered with a small smile on his face.

“Haah? Won’t that make you invincible under Expert Stage Cultivators!?”

“Is it anything new? Wasn’t I already Invincible under the King Stage Cultivators?” Nux smiled.

“No, that is not what I am talking about.” Three, however, shook her head.

“Hmm?” Nux frowned.

“You can indeed defeat any Cultivator who is at Expert Stage or lower, however, can you defeat them if you are out of Mana?

Can you defeat that if you are dead tired?”

Nux shook his head.

“But with this Mist, you can defeat any Grand Master Stage or lower stage Cultivator even if you do not have any Mana left or if you are so tired that you can’t move your body anymore.

It is almost as if you can defeat your enemies while you are sleeping, and these aren't normal enemies, these are Grand Master Stage Cultivators!

You can defeat any number of Grand Master Stage Cultivators without using a single ounce of Mana.

This simply doesn't make sense!"

Nux frowned.

What Three was saying was true, he is indeed invincible under Expert Stage if that was the case, however, for some reason, Nux felt that something was wrong.

This shouldn't be the case.

This is ridiculous indeed.

"Alright, I need to perform some tests, you two can leave." He glanced at Two and Three and nodded.

"What about the spar?" Two questioned.

"Do you seriously think you can defeat me? You were lying on the floor just a minute ago, don't you remember?"

Two's face twitched, however, he couldn't say anything.

That Black Mist was simply absurd.

An ability like that shouldn't exist in this world.

Two and Three left the training ground and then, Nux released the Seal on his Cultivation.

Then, he sat cross-legged and a large amount of Black Mist was released out of his body.

Within the next 10 seconds, the Devouring Mist spread all over the area and formed a circle of radius 100 meters with Nux as the centre.

Nux glanced at his MP and saw that there was no change in it whatsoever.

However, even after that, Nux had this feeling that he couldn't keep this Circle for as long as he wanted.

Nux then waited, he waited for something to happen.

The ominous-looking Mist that had formed a Dark coloured circle looked frightening, it was good that Nux had ordered all the people to move out before he started training.

Otherwise, many people would have been shocked by this ominous-looking circle.

Nux, who was at the centre of the circle didn't feel anything and decided to close his eyes.

This was getting boring, however, he needed to test his limits, this was important.

...

Nux sat there for 4 hours and suddenly,

The Devouring Mist started fading away.

“Huh? What happened?”

Nux frowned as he glanced at the Devouring Mist that was disappearing into the air.

And once the Mist completely disappeared,

“AAAAGGHHHHHH!!!”

A stinging pain assaulted Nux's mind.

Chapter 224

“AAAAGGHHHHH!!!”

After the Mist disappeared, a stinging pain assaulted Nux’s mind and he screamed in pain.

“NUX!”

Thyra had heard what happened to Two and Three, so she decided to walk towards the Training Ground and see what Nux was doing.

There, she saw this huge Black Mist that was spread all over the place and decided to wait.

The Mist then disappeared and a smile appeared on Thyra’s face.

‘Heh, let’s surprise him from behind~’

She thought inwardly, however, soon, she heard his scream and rushed towards him.

“NUX!”

Thyra appeared near Nux and grabbed his hands in worry.

Her eyes then fell on Nux’s face and it worried her even more.

Nux’s face was as pale as paper, veins had popped out on his head while he gritted his teeth.

It was clear how much pain he was in, however, since Thyra was here, he controlled himself and did not scream anymore.

“Are you okay!?”

Thyra questioned in worry as she patted his back with one hand and held his hand with her another.

“I-I am fine. Don’t worry.” Nux answered in a hoarse voice.

“That doesn’t look fine to me! Look at your face!” Thyra retorted in panic.

“D-Don’t worry, I am fine, I am not lying. The pain is reducing as well.” Nux muttered, his voice was a lot better than before.

“A-Are you sure...?” Thyra questioned, she was about to cry when she saw him smiling at her so weakly, she did not like this at all.

“Trust me, I am fine...” Nux answered and then, he felt his eyes turning heavy.

“I... I just need some sleep...”

Then, he closed his eyes and his head fell on Thyra’s shoulder as he passed out.

Thyra panicked even more, however, she soon noticed that Nux’s face had started regaining its colour and those veins had disappeared as well.

His breathing was calm, pulse and heartbeat were a little faster than usual, however, it wasn’t lethal.

Thyra sighed in relief.

Then, she picked Nux up and walked toward his room.

...

8 hours later, Nux opened his eyes and as soon as he did, he was greeted by the sight of 5 beautiful women looking at him with worried looks on their faces.

‘Huh? What happened?’

His memories were still a little hazy, however, soon, he recalled what had happened.

He then turned towards his girls and smiled,

“Don’t worry you guys, I am fine.”

Thyra, Skyla, Lane, Felberta and Edda who were looking at him sighed.

“How much time has passed since I passed out?” Nux questioned.

“8 hours,” Thyra answered.

“Oh...” Nux nodded.

He then glanced outside the window and saw it was already midnight.

“So we all missed our sessions for today, huh...” he muttered in disappointment.

“Don’t worry about that, we will make up for it later.”

“Yes, your health is much more important.”

“Mhm, I have contacted Sister Allura as well, she is worried about you, she wanted to come here however, I told her not to.”

“You did a good job.” Nux smiled and Edda smiled back.

Nux then glanced at Felberta and muttered,

“You didn’t have to return either, you need to get proper rest so that you can get used to your work again.”

“It’s not like I am doing it for the first time, I will go back once you are fine,” Felberta answered.

Yes, after enjoying her stay here in Alg- Nux’s mansion, she decided to return and continue her work as a Viscount. She can’t leave everything to Joyab after all.

“I am fine now,” Nux muttered.

“No, you are not fine, you need to rest today.”

Felberta muttered,

“Yes, Sister Allura said the same thing as well, she says that you do not have to go there today, just rest here.” Edda nodded.

“Yes, you need to rest,” Thyra muttered and Lane nodded as well.

“Alright, alright, I will rest.” Nux nodded helplessly.

“Nux...” Suddenly, Skyla called out.

Nux glanced at her and saw a worried look on her face,

“What happened? Why do you look so tensed?” He questioned with a gentle smile.

“Your power... it is not something evil that is harming you, is it?” Skyla questioned.

Nux just shook his head and chuckled,

“My cute little Skyla, anything that is black doesn't mean it's evil. It is not harming my body at all, don't worry.”

“Then how did you pass out?” Skyla questioned.

“I just overused that ability, nothing more,” Nux answered.

Actually, he wasn't sure about this either, however, right now, that is the only plausible explanation that comes to his mind.

There has to be a limit on his ability, else it was a little too absurd, maybe this is some sort of limit. He needs to test it out a little more.

“Alright...”

“Mhm, don’t worry, I am fine now and will make sure not to overuse the ability again.”

“You better.” Skylia pouted.

“Alright everyone, leave the room now. Nux needs to sleep.” Thyra muttered and everyone left the room.

‘Nux, are you okay!?’ After everyone left, Nux heard Allura’s panicked voice in his head and smiled.

Then, after talking with her for a while and calming her down, he broke the telepathic link and his face turned serious.

He raised his hand and soon, Black Mist came out of his palm.

Seeing the Devouring Mist, a big sigh escaped out of Nux’s mouth.

‘I can still use it...’

He was scared that he won’t be able to use his Mist, and he didn’t want to lose this ridiculous ability like this.

However, his fears were unfounded and he can use it just fine.

He checked and saw that everything else was fine as well.

It was as if what happened a few hours ago did not happen at all.

‘I need to think more about what happened. It most probably happened because I might have overused the ability.’

But what did I overuse?

What is required to use the Devouring Mist?

There are still a lot of things about Physiques that I don’t know about.

The Mantra of Devouring Mist Demon doesn't help either.

There is nothing that can help me in the shop as well.'

Nux thought inwardly and sighed again.

'Haah... Looks like the only person I can rely on is myself.'

Chapter 225

Right now, Amaya Skyfall was lying on her large bed with her eyes opened, from her expression it looked like she was thinking about something very deeply.

“Heeh? For Lady Amaya to think so much about someone, just who is that lucky man?”

Suddenly, Amaya heard a playful voice and a man, sitting on her bed, appeared right in front of her eyes.

Seeing the surprised look on her face, Nux smiled, he wanted to tease her more, however,

“What wer-”

“NUX!”

However, before he could say anything much, Amaya reacted as fast as she could and hugged him tightly, burying her face in his chest.

“Are you okay? I heard that you passed out, what happened?”

The worry in her voice was as clear as day.

Nux frowned and questioned,

“How did you know about it?”

“Allura told me,” Amaya answered.

“Oh? You two talked?”

“Yes, we used that telepathic connection,” Amaya answered and Nux nodded in understanding.

It was a good thing.

His girls should get along with each other.

Actually, he was glad that Allura took the initiative to contact Amaya.

From what he has learned, Amaya needs someone who could talk to her like an equal, like a friend.

Of course, he was there as well, however, the more the merrier.

So he wanted his women to talk to Amaya and get along with her. Of course, he can't really force anyone to do it.

His women don't know much about Amaya after all.

“That is not significant right now. Tell me, are you hurt? How did you pass out? Can I do something for you? Wait, why are you even here? Shouldn't you rest right now? If you wanted something from me, you could have just used the Telepathix connection.”

Nux chuckled and patted her head to calm her down.

“Don't worry, I am completely fine now.”

Amaya then finally raised her head and observed Nux's face.

His skin colour looked fine, his breathing was normal and everything else was fine as well, he indeed looked like he was fine.

A sigh of relief escaped her mouth and then, she questioned.

“So what happened? How did you suddenly pass out?”

“Well, I overused Devouring Mist.”

Nux blurt out.

“Devouring Mist...?” Amaya frowned.

Nux then realized that Amaya still didn't know that he had her Physique now. He raised his hand and the Devouring Mist seeped out of his Palm.

“!!!”

Seeing that, Amaya's eyes widened in surprise.

She couldn't believe what was happening in front of her.

“Y-You have the Devouring Mist Demon Physique as well?” she stuttered.

“I did not have one before, I took yours,” Nux answered.

“H-Huh? H-How is that possible?” Amaya questioned in confusion. First, that increase in cultivation with sex thingy and now this.

Her world views were changing yet again.

“Well, you remember how I share the Cultivation with my sex partner, right?” Nux questioned and Amaya nodded.

“My ability doesn't stop there, I can do the same with Physiques as well. I can take, no, take is not the correct word,

I can copy the Physique of the woman I am having sex with.”

Nux revealed and Amaya blinked a few times

It would take some time for her to digest this information.

This was simply ridiculous.

How could such a ridiculous ability exist?

Nux, who looked at her shocked face started thinking about something.

Devouring Mist Demon Physique was something that belonged to Amaya, the fact that he had it might not be very digestible for her.

There are chances that the thought, 'Was I used?' would pop into her mind.

Nux knew that.

However, he still decided to tell the truth.

In the end, the more he hides it, the worse it will get.

It was always better to keep as less secrets as you can.

Nux then continued observing her expressions and soon, Amaya opened her mouth.

“Does that mean I am free now?”

She questioned with a blank look on her face.

“Huh?” Nux frowned, he didn't know what she was talking about.

“You got my Physique, correct?”

“Yes.” Nux nodded.

“Then does that mean you are immune to Devouring Mist?”

“Well, yes I am,” Nux admitted.

“Then does that mean I don't have to hold back anymore!?” Amaya questioned and her blank eyes started shining brightly.

“Huh? What?”

“Since you are immune to Devouring Mist, then it won't matter if I somehow lost control over the Mist inside my body while we are having sex, right?”

“That is true.”

“Won't that mean that I don't have to hold back now!?”

Amaya exclaimed as her abyss-like black eyes shined even brightly.

“...”

This time, it was Nux who was silent.

This is what she was worried about...?

“What a pervert.” Nux chuckled.

Amaya, however, completely ignored his words and hugged him back.

“This is good, I am glad you have this amazing ability, hehe~”

Nux blinked a few times, still confused about what was happening, in the end, he just smiled and patted Amaya’s head.

Actually, he wanted to discuss more about the Devouring Mist Demon Physique, however, he felt that he should do something much more important right now.

“Then how about we test it out?” a playful smile appeared on his face as he muttered.

“Hmm?”

“How about we test out how having sex without holding back feels like?” Nux questioned as he picked Amaya from her bed and placed her on his lap.

A small smile appeared on Amaya’s face as she looked into Nux’s golden eyes.

Nux then brought his lips close to her ears and whispered in an incredibly gently voice,

“You haven’t taken a bath yet, have you?”

Amaya’s face turned red as she recalled yesterday’s bathroom session and then, she nodded.

“mm.”

“I haven’t taken one as well.

How about we do it together?” Nux questioned in his usual gentle voice.

A voice that made him look like a handsome demon enchanting a mortal to do what he wanted.

Then, a small blush appeared on Amaya’s face as she nodded again.

“mm.”

There was no way she could say no to an offer like that.

Nux’s smile widened, he then picked Amaya in his hand like a princess and walked into the bathroom.

Then, a long bath session followed.

Chapter 226

“Aaakkk!”

Allura’s body jerked in surprise when she felt someone grabbing her from behind and placing her on his lap.

She quickly turned her head in panic and disgust, however, when her eyes fell on the man who was behind her, a sigh escaped her mouth and she stopped struggling.

“You surprised me...”

She muttered as she snuggled her body close to Nux.

“Hehe~ I would be a fool if I didn’t do that. Your expressions are too amusing and cute~”

Nux chuckled and a small smile appeared on Allura’s face.

After a bathing session with Amaya, Nux decided to meet Allura, he knew she must be worried after hearing about him passing out.

“So? Are you alright now? Edda told me that you passed out.” And as if on cue, Allura questioned.

“Heeh? You don’t look very worried to me.” Nux teased as he hugged her waist from behind.

“Tsk Tsk, if you can appear behind me and tease me like that, you must be alright.” Allura got her answer.

She had been with him for a while.

She now knew how to deal with Nux.

Heck, she had even created a book in her mind titled, 'How to deal with Nux 101'

The first rule to deal with Nux was to learn how to ignore his teasing.

Whenever you feel like you are at a disadvantage in front of him, you ignore it and change the topic.

Fighting Nux with words was a completely stupid idea.

He would find a way to defeat you eventually. You are just fighting a losing battle.

Don't bother.

"Hm hm, oh right, Amaya told me that you are doing a good job in 'acting normal'. Good, I am proud of you."

Suddenly Nux muttered.

"Of course, who do you think I am? If I want to do something, I will do it like a professional. 'Acting Normal' was a little hard at first, however, now I am getting used to it."

Allura raised her chest in pride.

"Good Good. As expected of my Allura."

Nux nodded with a satisfied look on his face.

What was this 'Acting normal'?

Well, after Amaya deduced that Allura was Nux's woman without him telling her about it, Nux panicked.

Amaya was okay, but what if someone else learns about it? That would be risky.

Therefore, Nux came up with a plan, he decided to ask Amaya for help.

Amaya was of course, happy to help and decided to tell them all the flaws about Allura and how she could change them.

After meeting Nux, Allura has stopped calling maids and stopped asking about the rumours going around,

That's a flaw.

Allura has also stopped leaving the palace every week, which is another flaw.

These combined with a few other things were pointed out and Allura was told to remove all these flaws. They can't reveal their relationship to others after all.

This was 'Acting Normal'.

And Allura was doing a good job in doing that.

A small smile appeared on Allura's face when she heard his praises.

"Well, as I said, it is a lot easier now, I found another interesting topic to talk about with the maids."

"Hmm? What topic is that?" Nux questioned in curiosity however, the reaction he got from Allura was surprising.

"..."

Silence.

Allura didn't answer and her face had turned a little red.

Nux's smile widened,

Hehe, this will be interesting.

"What is that topic, my Lovely Allura?"

“N-Nothing much... you won't find it interesting...” Allura answered.

“How can that be? How can I not like something my woman likes?. This is simply impossible.” Nux smiled.

“Oh right, I forgot to ask, what happened to you yesterday? Why exactly did you pass out?”

Suddenly, Allura questioned.

“Oh, well that happened because I was too curious about what my lovely Allura was talking about with other maids.”

Nux answered with a smile and Allura turned silent.

She added another rule, no another statement in her book.

If Nux doesn't want to change the topic, you might not be able to change it and things might not go as smoothly as you imagine.

“Allura, you aren't going to keep me curious right? What is that interesting topic you talk about with other maids?”

Allura changed the statement,

If Nux doesn't want to change the topic, you will not be able to change it.

Don't try.

In the end, she sighed and then answered with a blush on her face.

“I-I talk about s-sex...”

“Oh? What do you talk about?”

“I-I will not tell you that!”

Allura shook her red head repeatedly and seeing her acting like that, Nux chuckled.

He then placed his chin on her shoulders and whispered,

“Alright, I won’t ask you about it.”

Allura’s face turned even redder and she nodded.

She would never tell him how she hears about maids and their men having sex and then compares it with Nux and her having sex and gloats about it inwardly.

She would never tell him about this.

Never ever.

“Also, I wanted to thank you for something.”

Suddenly, Nux whispered in her ears.

“Hmm? Thank me? About what? What did I do?” Allura questioned.

“You contacted Amaya with Harem Seal’s Telephatic link, I am thankful for that.

The girl is a bit lonely, she needs a friend, however, she won’t make the first step. I am glad that you took the first step.

Thank you~”

Nux muttered as he kissed Allura’s neck while Allura moved her hand towards his face and enjoyed the kiss.

The scene looked quite alluring from the front.

Soon, however, Allura came out of her reverie and answered,

“I wasn’t the one who contacted her first.”

“Huh? You were not?” Nux frowned.

“Indeed, she was the one who did that. She contacted me yesterday afternoon on her own.”

“Oh? She took the initiative? That’s a good thing, it is good that she is looking for friends on her own. That is a good attitude.” Nux nodded to himself with a smile on his face.

“You are wrong.” Allura, however, didn’t share those thoughts.

“She wasn’t looking for friends.”

“Hmm? Then why did she talk to you?”

A wry smile appeared on Allura’s face as she chuckled.

“Talk? It was more like an interrogation.

What do Nux like, what is Nux’s favourite food, what is Nux’s favourite sex position, what is Nux’s favourite colour, what type of woman does Nux prefer the most, what type of clothes turns Nux on the most, what kind of hairstyle do Nux like the most and more and more and more questions.

She continued to ask questions like these until she was satisfied.

Truthfully, she sounded quite scary...”

Allura muttered and Nux turned silent.

Even he did not expect something like this.

“But well, since all she was talking about was you, I felt it was easier to get along with her and I started enjoying her questions too, she asked a few spicy ones as well. Fufufu~” Allura laughed playfully.

“Heehh? What a pervert, to even enjoy questions like these. You are beyond saving, Allura~”

“Heh. Says the one who roams around Royal Palace, spending Blissful times with King’s wife even though there is someone like the Dowager, who could kill you with her finger, living here.”

A smile appeared on Nux’s face as he suggested seductively,

“Then how about we stop talking and move to the ‘spending Blissful times with King’s wives’ part?”

“Heh. A pervert indeed.”

Chapter 227

Right now, Nux was standing on top of the Bamboo Plants that were cut at the same height. In front of her was Thyra, who carried a pile of stones in her hand.

“Alright, we will start.” She muttered and Nux nodded with a confident smile on his face.

Then, Thyra threw a stone at his face and at the same time, she threw stones aiming at his hands and legs as well, this time, her speed was a lot faster than before.

Nux, however, didn't seem to bother by it, he easily dodged all the attacks with a leisurely smile on his face.

Heck, he even had the free time to wink at Thyra who was throwing stones at him with an expressionless face.

Seeing that this wasn't affecting him in the slightest, Thyra decided to increase the difficulty and aimed at his stomach.

Nux lifted his left leg from the bamboo and turned around, dodging the stone elegantly and calmly, his leg then returned to the bamboo and there was no change in his expression.

Thyra then target his right chest, he repeated the same movement, however, this time, he moved his right leg instead of the left one.

This time, Thyra didn't give him the chance, while his right leg was in the air, she aimed at the left leg, Nux however, just jumped into the air to dodge the stone and balanced his body on his left leg alone.

Again, he took out the time to wink at Thyra.

Teasing the expressionless Thyra was just too satisfying.

Thyra, however, didn't react and increased her speed, aiming at the chest, stomach and even Nux's dick. Not only that, but she even increased her speed.

However, nothing mattered to Nux at all, he dodged all her attacks elegantly.

Then, Thyra paused a little and stood silently.

This time, Nux's gaze turned a little serious as well, he knew this was going to be the toughest one.

Thyra attacked his left chest, and he shifted his balance on his right leg, this time, however, instead of attacking his right leg, Thyra attacked his right thigh, a height he couldn't dodge by jumping.

At least not without using his cultivation.

Nux then smiled and jumped into the air, the stone was about to hit his right knee, however, he shifted his body a little, dodging the stone and then he stood on his left leg.

His body swayed a little, however, he opened both his arms wide to balance himself a little and then, he stood up straight.

Nux then placed his right leg on the other bamboo as well and then smiled at Thyra.

Jumping onto the ground, he walked towards Thyra with a grin as he held her chin and looked into her eyes.

“Hehe~ I cleared your Four Stages, are you satisfied now?”

“You failed at the last moment,” Thyra muttered.

“Of c'mon, I did regain my balance later, did I not? It was only for 2 seconds.”

“It is still considered a loss.”

Thyra shook her head expressionlessly.

No, actually, she was not as expressionless as before, with Nux holding her chin like that, there was a tinge of red on her face.

“Tsk Tsk, you are so strict. You should be a little lenient with your lover.”
Nux teased.

“...”

Thyra however, did not reply.

Of course, Nux understood what her silence meant.

‘No way.’

That’s what it meant.

“Well whatever, just 1 or 2 days, and I am sure I will clear this 4th Stage easily as well~” Nux muttered and then carried Thyra like a princess.

This time, Thyra’s expressionless face finally crumbled and she blushed.

“You are a fucking monster!”

She complained.

“I am a monster in the bed, indeed. Thank you for the compliment.” Nux chuckled.

“I am not talking about that!”

Thyra retorted.

“This is simply ridiculous! How can you clear the 4 Stages in just one month! This is not possible! It takes years to master all this!” She complained.

Cultivation, she could understand, he has that strange ability that helps in grow stronger by having sex with stronger women.

But body balance and flexibility? How can an ability help with that?

This is just not possible.

Even if he is talented, doing something that took everyone decades in a mere month, that's not how talent works!

“Hehe~ It was all because I had a great and beautiful teacher~” Nux smiled and kissed Thyra's lips to calm her down.

His trick, of course, worked as Thyra's face turned redder and she calmed down.

Actually, even Nux was surprised how quickly he learned all of that, he credited it all to the fact that he was talented.

What he didn't know was that this was because of Body Cultivation.

He wasn't like normal cultivators; he cultivates his body as well.

That is the reason why his body was able to adapt so quickly.

He wasn't a Grand Master Stage Body Cultivator for nothing.

“Alright, we should return now, I will teach you other complex techniques later...”

Thyra muttered after calming down and Nux nodded back.

Then, he dashed towards Alg- his mansion.

...

A few minutes later, Nux appeared in the garden carrying Thyra in his arms. Then he placed Thyra back on the ground and the two of them entered the Mansion.

“Master Nux.”

As the two of them were walking, Alger called out from behind.

Nux turned around and glanced at Alger.

“What is it?”

“Master Nux, this is your Student ID and uniform, all you need to do is to apply to the Royal Academy tomorrow.”

He muttered as he gave Nux’s uniform and Student ID.

“Good.” Nux nodded with a smile on his face.

Thyra, who heard the conversation put on a sad smile on her face,

“So you will be leaving tomorrow?”

She questioned.

“Oh c’mon, don’t make a face like that, it’s not like we aren’t going to meet again.”

“But our training time would decrease...” Thyra pouted.

“How greedy Sister Thyra!” Skyla, who was passing by and heard the conversation snorted.

“You will be the one who will spend the most time with Nux! How can you complain? Tsk Tsk.”

Thyra glanced at Skyla and her blue eyes shined,

“I think I need to increase your training, if you have so much time to roam around, I am sure you can practice a few thousand more times.”

Chapter 228

“Three 1-Star Beasts, that is 30 Academy coins. Good job, keep working hard like that.” A lazy voice was heard.

“T-Thank you, Senior Manya, me and my teammates worked hard to kill these beasts.” a young boy, who looked around 20 years old laughed awkwardly as he scratched the back of his head.

“Yeah yeah, you did a good job,” Senior Manya, however, didn’t look very interested in the boy’s story, actually, from the start to the end, she didn’t even look at the boy, she just took the proof of the three 1-star Beasts the boy hunted and then gave him 30 silver coloured coins with a lazy look on her face.

Senior Manya was a Brown-Haired, Brown eyed girl, she had a well-structured nose, cherry-like lips and a beautiful smile. Since she looked better than average, she had many people wooing her and this boy was one of them.

The boy didn’t mind that at all.

This wasn’t his first time being treated like that by Senior Manya and he knows that it won’t be the last time either, however, he will keep trying no matter how long it takes.

Thinking about that, the boy’s eyes shined brightly and he left the counter.

“Next...”

Senior Manya muttered in a lazy voice, actually, she hoped that there was no ‘next’ and she can finally take her rest, however, she wasn’t that lucky.

“Hello Senior Manya, I am a new admission to the Royal Academy, here is my ID card, I do not know the procedures, so I will be counting on you to help me with this.”

“Huh? New admission? Then why the fuck are you her-” Senior Manya scowled and raised her eyebrow. However, just when she raised her head to give her peace of mind to the man who said all this, she froze.

“Is there something wrong, Senior Manya? Am I at the wrong place? I apologize if that is the case.” Nux muttered with a gentle smile on his face.

“O-Oh. Y-You are not wrong at all. You might be wrong by a few counters, however, it’s not like I cannot help you. As your future senior, it is my duty to help my juniors.” Senior Manya replied with a small smile.

“As I expected.” Nux nodded to himself and then he continued,

“The moment I entered the office and saw your face, I knew you were a gentle, beautiful and polite person, and I wasn’t wrong.” Nux continued to nod to himself and Senior Manya’s smile widened a little.

“You have good eyes.”

“Senior Manya, I am new here. I request you to will help me with these procedures.” Nux muttered again.

“Of course, that’s why I am here for, after all, let’s not waste any more time. Show me your ID card.”

Senior Manya then took Nux’s ID card and then started reading, “Hm Hm, an 18-year-old Initial Advance Stage Cultivator, as I expected, you are indeed a talented person.

So let’s see, Prodigy Class, Second Decade. Hm hm,”

Senior Manya then started writing the details on the paper.

Senior Manya’s speed was a little slow since she wasn’t used to this work.

That wasn’t the only reason why she was slow though,

“Oi Oi, you newbie, get the fuck off, go to counter number 4 if you are here to apply for the Academy. Don’t disturb Senior Manya.”

The student who was standing behind Nux muttered.

Nux turned around, he then noticed that this man was just a Beginner Stage Cultivator and turned around.

Yes, he simply ignored the student as if he was a bug.

The student did not like this attitude at all.

“Oi! You hear me!? Who do yo-”

“Shut the fuck up!”

Suddenly, Senior Manya, who was busy with her work shouted in rage.

“Who do you think you are to shout in front of my Counter!? How many beasts did you kill!?”

“F-Four 1-Star B-Beasts...” The man replied.

“Huh? Four 1-star Beasts? And you have the gall to act so recklessly? Who gave you the courage after this pathetic display of skills?” Senior Manya questioned with a disdainful look on her face.

“P-Pathetic Display?” The boy opened her mouth in shock.

‘Didn’t you just compliment that boy who killed 3 beasts? Our cultivation is the same, then why do I get the harsh treatment?’

The student was about to cry.

Senior Manya and Nux didn’t care what was going through that boy’s mind, Senior Manya continued her work, as for Nux, he just looked at what Senior Manya was writing since he had nothing better to do.

“Ah, it’s done, you are now a student of the Royal Academy,”

Senior Manya muttered with a smile as she stamped on Nux's ID card and passed it to him.

“You can start the class from today.”

“Thank you for your trouble, Senior Manya.” Nux smiled.

“You do not have to be so polite, it is my duty after all.” Senior Manya smiled back. Her impression of Nux was getting better and better.

“Umm... Senior Manya...” Suddenly, Nux muttered with a hesitant look on his face.

“Hmm? What is it?”

“Senior Manya, as you know, I am new to this Academy, I do not know anything about it. Out of all the people I met here, you are the only one who looks gentle, kind and someone who would be willing to help others when they need it.

Would you mind giving me a tour of the whole academy? It would be a great help.”

Nux questioned with an awkward smile.

“You bastard! Do you know who you are talk-” The student standing behind Nux wanted to interrupt, however, he turned silent when he saw Senior Manya glaring at him.

“Of course, I can, however, I am at duty for the next 2 hours. How about you come back 2 hours later?”

“Umm... I do not know if our timings would match or not, how about I stay here with you, we can talk while you deal with these busybody- students. How does that sound?” Nux proposed.

The faces of students standing behind him twitched, however, they didn't say anything.

They needed to control themselves right now...

This hateful bastard, they will deal with him later.

“Mhm, that sounds good. I would like to know you better as well, here, come on in,”

Chapter 229

“As you should already know, one class in the Royal Academy is a Decade long and there are a total of 4 Decades in our academy.

Decade One Students are Beginner Stage Cultivators.

Decade Two Students are Advance Stage Cultivators,

Decade Three is Master Stage as for Decade Four, well, they are Master Stage Cultivators as well but they are a lot stronger than Decade Three Students.

You can leave the Academy or decide to live here as a Teacher or an Assistant Teacher after you become a Grand Master Stage Cultivator, but most of the students often fail to graduate since the conditions are so harsh.

Of course, there are also some exceptional students who skip their classes, they are the ones who Academy actually focuses on.

Also, every Class is divided into 3 Sections, Basic, Advance and Prodigy.

These classes are determined by your Affintiny with your element and learning ability.

However, since you have High-Level Affinity with Fire Element, you are directly admitted to Prodigy Class.”

Senior Manya muttered while she continued doing her work.

“Two 1-Star Beasts, good job, try to work hard and improve your skills.”

“Thank you, Senior Manya.” The student who received 20 Academy Coins smiled brightly.

“What are these Academy Points used for, Senior Manya?” Nux questioned.

“Hmm? You are a curious one, aren’t you?”

Well, just wait patiently, you will be taught about them by your teachers. I can tell you as well, however, it will be a boring topic. Just treat them as a currency in the academy.”

“Hmm hmm, let’s not talk about it, feels like a boring topic indeed and sitting here with Senior Manya and talking about a boring topic like this is the stupidest thing a man can do.” Nux nodded his head with a playful smile.

“Oh ho~ You are a gutsy one, aren’t you?” Senior Manya chuckled.

“I am just an honest person who can’t lie,” Nux answered.

“Haha~” Senior Manya couldn’t control herself and laughed out loud.

The students who were standing in front of the counter listening to their conversation couldn’t help but feel dissatisfied.

They were in the academy for so long, how dare a new student sit and laugh with Senior Manya!?

This was unacceptable!

Also,

All handsome guys should just die!

To be honest, if looks could kill, Nux would have already died many times with how the students were looking at him. He, however, ignored them all and continued talking with Senior Manya.

“So, Senior Manya, how long have you been studying in the Academy?” Nux changed the topic and questioned.

“Hmm? Are you trying to ask about my age?” Senior Manya questioned with a sly smile.

“Why would I need to do that? With how healthy and flawless your skin looks, I am sure you are not older than 21. As to why I am asking it, well, let’s say that I want to know more about you.” Nux answered.

Senior Manya smiled, satisfied with his answer.

Then, a graceful smile appeared on her face as she introduced herself.

“I am Manya Tashe, the only daughter of the Earl, Wulfsige Tashe, it is a pleasure to meet you,”

“Nux Leander, an orphan and a commoner.” Nux introduced himself as well.

‘Heh. A commoner.’ A sneer appeared on the faces of the students who heard him.

All of them were nobles. A commoner like Nux could do nothing but crawl in front of them.

“You are a commoner?” Senior Manya stopped what she was doing and questioned in surprise.

Seeing the look on her face, the other students sneered even more.

“I am.” Nux nodded.

“Heh. A commoner dared to sit along with Senior Manya, who gave you the galls to do it, huh!?” One of the students questioned with a disdainful look on his face.

Senior Manya frowned,

“Did I allow you to speak?” She turned towards the student who spoke and questioned in a strict tone.

“I-I apologize.”

The student lowered his head in fear.

“You better.” Senior Manya spat and then she turned towards Nux and smiled gently.

“Don’t mind them, they are just brainless fools. You are just 18 years old and are already an Advance Stage Cultivator, with your talent, you can even become a Grand Master Stage Cultivator, with that, you can serve as a General in a Duke’s House.

Then, even someone like my father, an Earl, would have to treat you with respect.

Also, you do not have to call me Senior Manya, I am in the Second Decade as well, so you should directly call me by my name.

I will call you Nux as well.” Manya muttered with a gentle smile on her face.

“ ... ”

Nux blinked his eyes a few times and didn’t reply.

Manya frowned,

“What happened?”

“I... I just can’t believe it...”

Nux muttered with an astonished look on his face.

“Huh? What?”

“Every beautiful woman has a black heart, I thought that when I would reveal my background to you, you would show your true face and laugh at me disdainfully.

But to think you broke this stereotype and are still talking to me so nicely...

I am surprised.”

Nux answered.

‘Fucking bastard...’

‘That was so fucking smooth...’

‘Should I make him my Master?’

The students who heard him had different reactions.

Even Manya was a little surprised.

Soon, however, a smile appeared on her face and she chuckled,

“Haha~ You have good ways with your words, I actually feel like talking to you refreshes my mind, Nux,” Manya muttered.

“I will take that as a compliment, Manya.” Nux smiled back.

The two of them then chuckled and Manya continued to do her work while Nux chatted with her.

These were the fastest 2 hours of her life.

“Manya, your shift is over, I am here to take over,” Suddenly, a man entered the counter and muttered.

“Alright, I will take my leave now,” Manya muttered and stood up.

Then, she turned towards Nux and smiled,

“Shall we start your tour now?”

“I am looking forward to it.”

Nux smiled back.

Chapter 230

“And this is the Battle Hall; students can fight each other here in front of the whole Academy. Actually, this is an open secret, most of the students who have enmity with each other using the battle hall to settle it out.

Most of them bet all their Academy Points in this Battle. Nux, you have to be careful, many students lose all their Academy points in the Battle Hall, especially the new students. Don't let anyone provoke you. Okay?” Manya cautioned.

“Of course, I am not a reckless person, I will take care of it. You do not have to worry at all.”

Nux answered with a smile on his face.

Manya frowned.

For some reason, she did not like the smile Nux had on his face. She felt like he had not understood what she was saying.

“Be cautious, okay?” She repeated.

“Of course,” Nux answered with a small smile on his face and Manya's frown deepened.

She could feel that something was definitely wrong here.

However, she then shook her head and decided not to say anything.

Maybe she was thinking too much.

“Alright, with this, I have introduced you to all the major buildings in the Academy, at the very least, you won't get lost here now,” Manya muttered with a smile on her face.

“And I am very thankful for that. I feel incredibly lucky that I met someone like you on the first day of my academy.” Nux smiled as the two of them shook hands.

“So? Are you going to attend classes today?” Manya questioned.

“I’ll roam around, I actually want to find someone who studies in the academy.”

“Hm? Who is it?” Manya questioned.

“It’s a student, he should be around 8 years old, also, he should still be an Apprentice Stage Cultivator.”

“Ahh, a Zero Decade student huh...”

“Yeah,” Nux nodded.

“Well, it will be tough to find a single student in the whole Academy, especially a Zero Decade student in the afternoon,” Manya muttered.

“Why?”

“Zero Decade students only have a one-hour morning class, the rest of the time, they just roam around the Academy.

So if you want to find a Zero Year Student, it is better to search in their class in the morning.” Manya answered.

“I understand.” Nux nodded in understanding.

“Well, I am not in any kind of hurry, I will just move around and explore more. Of course, it would be amazing if a beautiful friend would accompany me.” Nux smiled as he glanced at Manya.

“Oh ho?”

Manya smiled as well and then,

“Well, I don’t think you have any other beautiful friend here, so I guess you are talking about me.”

Manya chuckled and the two of them continued to explore Academy.

...

“Hah!? Where did you get this Healing Potion from, you piece of shit?”

While Nux and Manya were walking around, they heard a voice and turned around.

There, they saw three boys that looked around 13-14 years old surrounding an 8-9 year-old boy with smirks on their faces.

The boy who was surrounded was trembling, he didn’t dare to look into the other boys’ eyes and lowered his face.

“I-I b-bought it with Academy P-Points.” He answered in a meek voice.

“Heehh? How did you get academy points? There is no way you can hunt Star beasts, then how did you do it?”

“Heh. Is that even a question, Oswald? I am sure he must be doing all the odd jobs like cleaning the academy and all that.”

Another boy sneered.

“Heh. That sounds like something he would do.”

“Actually, it suits someone like. Hahaha!”

“Oh c’mon, he is still a son of a Viscount, you shouldn’t say that~” another boy commented with a smile.

“Hahaha~ You talk as if you don’t say things like that.

Barens and Viscounts are nothing but a little wealthier commoners.”

“Hahaha!”

The boys continued to laugh and the 8-9 year boy continued to listen without retaliating.

“This is a common scene here. Baron and Viscounts are often looked down upon since most of the Barrons and Viscounts are non-cultivators.” Manya muttered as he glanced at the scene with a frown on her face.

“ ... ”

Nux, however, did not reply.

Manya frowned, she then turned around and saw that he was looking at everything with an expressionless face. No, though his face indeed looked expressionless, Manya could sense that something was different.

Nux looked angry.

[Name: Royce Alveye]

[Age: 8]

[Mana Cultivation: Mortal.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal.]

[Occupation: Son of Viscount Felberta Alveye.]

[Race: Human ]

[Talent: Low]

[LVL:5]

[HP: 110/120]

[STR: 7]

[AGL: 9]

[VIT: 12]

[STM: 8]

[INT: 9]

[DEF: 7]

Yes, the 8-year-old boy who was being bullied was Royce, Felberta's son and Nux's future son.

“Alright, whatever, I don't care where you got it from, now give it to me, I need this Healing Potion.”

The boy then sighed and extended his hand to grab the healing potion in Royce's hand, however, Royce avoided his hands and stuttered.

“I-I need i-it as well...”

“Huh?”

The boy frowned.

And then without any hesitation, he used his knee to kick Royce's stomach.

“Guoohffk!”

Royce's eyes opened wide as he fell to the floor, withering in pain.

“Where did you get the guts to reject me from, huh? Did you somehow forget about the lesson I gave you a month ago?”

“Oswald, why are we even wasting our time? Let's just repeat are lesson and get over it.” A boy muttered as he picked the Healing potion that had fallen on the ground.

The ring on his finger then shined and the potion disappeared.

The boy named Oswald smiled evilly and then, he nodded.

“Alright, since we are so generous, we shall repeat our lesson.”

He then kicked Royce’s face as if it was a football.

“Agggghhh!”

Royce screamed in pain as the three boys started kicking him ruthlessly.

“We should stop them! What are they doing to a child of that age!?” Manya couldn’t believe her eyes and was about to rush to save the child, however, Nux grabbed her hands.

She turned around and he shook his head.

Actually, if he wanted to, he could help Royce as well.

However, he wanted to know what would happen.

According to Felberta, Royce has been studying in the Academy for 2 years now, he can save him today, however, he would never know what Royce went through in these past 2 years that way.

Also, he was waiting for something else as well.

“What are you 3 doing?”

A small smile appeared on his face when he heard those words.

Manya turned around and her eyes shined in delight.

“It is Lady Candice!”

Chapter 231

“It is Lady Candice!”

Manya exclaimed in excitement as saw Candice and 4 other students who were following her walking towards the three students.

“It is Lady Candice!”

“Wow, I am so lucky today!”

“Hahaha~ What a lovely day!”

“She is as beautiful as the rumours say~”

“Hmph! Do you fucking stone in place of eyes!? How can you not see that she is more beautiful than the rumours say!? You retard!”

“Ahh, my bad, she is indeed more beautiful than the rumours say.”

“You two! Shut the fuck up! Do you think Lady Candice would care about your cheesy compliments? Rather, you two will only annoy her more.”

As soon as Candice and her men walked into the scene, the surrounding students, who were pretty much ignoring everything that was happening started talking as their eyes shined in delight.

Candice Waters, a beautiful girl with blue hair, blue eyes, a small nose and light pink lips. She wore a normal black coloured academy uniform with golden designs just like all the other students, however, the way she walked, with how her long beautiful hair flew around and the elegance that oozed out of her,

She looked like she was at another level. (Academy Uniform in the Paragraph comments.)

She is liked by everyone in the school and is treated like a goddess by not only males but even the female students.

Of course, her being beautiful is not the only reason why she was revered by all, the main reason for that was her talent.

By no means is she the Strongest Student in the Royal Academy, however, she is without a doubt, the brightest.

She is the first student in the last 200 years who had become a Master Stage Cultivator while she is just 22 years old.

A prodigy who is also known as the future pillar of the Kingdom.

She could also be called the Queen of the Royal Academy.

“What is happening here?” Candice questioned in her noble but strict voice.

“N-Nothing, Lady Candice.” The boy named Oswald answered as he bowed his head.

“Introduce yourselves,” Candice muttered.

“M-My name is Oswald Bourkee, the Second Son of Earl Bourkee,” Oswald introduced.

Candice frowned, she then glanced at one of the men following her and that man nodded.

“I am Harold Wescott, son of Earl Wescott.”

“I am Bardley Greem, Son of Earl Greem,”

The two other students introduced themselves as well.

Candice then glanced at Royce who was lying on the floor, Royce understood what he had to do.

He forced his body, which was aching all over to stand up and then, he introduced himself.

“M-My name is R-Royce Alveye, Son of Viscount Alveye.”

“A Viscount?” Candice raised her eyebrow.

“Y-Yes.” Royce nodded.

“So, Royce, what happened here?” Candice questioned.

“Lady Cand-”

“I do not recall asking anything from you, Mr. Bourkee.” Oswald wanted to speak, however, Candice cut him off midsentence and then turned towards Royce again.

“Answer my question, what happened here?”

A ray of light shined in Royce’s eyes as he answered,

“L-Lady Candice, I-I worked hard for a whole month to earn some A-Academy points to buy a Healing potion, however, the three of them attacked me and took it away.

This is not the first time either, these three have been bullying me for a whole year now, and they take all the money my mother sends to me and keeps beating me from time to time.” Royce complained and Oswald’s eyes shined in rage.

“He is Lyi-”

“Shut up.” Oswald wanted to retort, however, Candice shut him again.

“So you are telling me that they took your Healing potion?” Candice turned towards Royce and questioned.

“Yes.” Royce nodded as he glanced at Oswald before avoiding eye contact as soon as possible.

“Where is the proof?”

Suddenly, Candice questioned.

“Huh?” Royce frowned as he glanced at Candice.

“I asked, where is the proof? How are you going to prove that they took your Healing Potion?”

Candice questioned.

“T-They took it! Everyone saw it! They were beating me because I didn’t give it to them, but they still took it forcefully! You can ask everyone who was present here.”

Royce then turned around and glanced at other students to seek help.

“ ... ”

However, no one stepped forward.

Royce’s face changed.

“I-I am not lying!”

He shouted.

“Shouting something won’t make it true, Mr Alveye. I need proof.” Candice muttered calmly.

Seeing this, Nux and Manya frowned.

“Isn’t she supposed to help him?” Nux questioned.

Manya, however, shook her head in confusion.

“I do not know what is happening either...”

“Y-You can check his Storage ring! He kept my Healing potion there!”

“What proves it that it is your Healing Potion? What if it was his, to begin with?”

“Y-You can ask the Shop owner! I bought it from him a few hours ago!”

“What if you already used yours and you are just trying to take advantage of these 3?”

“...”

Royce turned silent and gritted his teeth.

Oswald, however, was smiling at him and swore in his heart that he would take revenge for outing him like that.

“Do you understand what I am trying to say to you, Mr Alveye?” Suddenly, Candice questioned.

“Huh?” Royce frowned.

“In this world, the weak have no right to say or complain about anything. Do you know why these students aren’t helping you?”

It is because you are weak.

You thought that you could use me to get back at people who attacked you,

That is how the weak think, step up yourself, protect yourself, this is how you live in this world.

Do not rely on anyone else because if you do,

You will be squashed by the others.

These three students are not wrong, they are only showing you how the world works, learn from it.

Get stronger and fight back.

I will ignore what happened here today because you have no proof to prove your innocence, however, I do hope to see a stronger you.”

Candice muttered and Royce turned silent.

“Aahh, so that’s the reason why Lady Candice didn’t help that boy, she wanted to let him know how the world works.

As expected of Lady Candice, she is indeed worthy to be the future pillar of the Kingdom.”

Manya nodded to herself and Nux frowned even more.

“Alright, everyone, disperse now. I don’t want to create any scenes here.”
Candice muttered and with her order, everyone started walking away.

Chapter 232

“Alright, everyone, disperse now. I don’t want to create any scenes here.”
Candice muttered and with her order, everyone started walking away.

Oswald and his friends glanced at Royce and sneered,

“Don’t worry, fellow students, we will keep showing you how this world works, even more than before now.”

Royce’s body trembled.

“Hahaha~ What a pussy! Look how he is trembling. Hahaha~”

Oswald and his friends started laughing and then, they walked away.

Candice and her men left, and following that, the other students started leaving as well.

“Let’s go,” Manya muttered as she glanced at Nux.

“I think this would be enough for today, thank you for helping me, Manya,” Nux muttered and then, he walked in the direction Royce walked into.

Manya frowned, however, and then her eyes widened in surprise when she recalled that Nux was trying to find a Zero Decade Class’ boy.

‘Is this the boy he wanted to find?’

She wondered.

...

On the other side, Nux followed Royce and saw him sitting near a tree with his head on his knees.

Nux walked forward and sat down beside him.

Sensing movement around him, Royce frowned and raised his head.

Right now, his face was bruised, however, Nux still noticed the resemblance he had with Felberta.

Just like Felberta, Royce had black hair, black eyes and a face that still had a little baby fat. His features were quite cute if you ignore the bruises.
(Picture in the Paragraph comments)

Nux smiled, then, his ring shined and a Healing potion appeared,

“Here,” Nux muttered as he passed it to Royce.

“Why are you giving it to me?” Royce questioned.

“Just take it.” Nux shook his hand.

Royce glanced at the Healing Potion and then glanced at Nux’s face.

His body was still aching from pain, therefore, he decided to take it.

In one go, he gulped down the entire Potion and soon, the potion started showing its magical effects.

The bruises on Royce’s face disappeared, however, some marks were still there.

“You want more?” Nux questioned as another Healing Potion appeared in his hand.

“No, it is alright, I will be fine after 5 to 6 days.”

“You sound like it is not your first time being beaten up like that,” Nux muttered.

“It is not, they have been doing this for a year now,” Royce answered.

“Oh? Then why didn’t you tell anything to your mother about this?” Nux questioned in curiosity.

He was sure that if Felberta didn’t know about anything happening in the Academy, otherwise, she would have long removed her child from the academy and would have started finding ways to take revenge.

“What should I tell her? That her son is being bullied by other students?”

“What? Are you ashamed of doing that?”

“No, I just don’t want her to worry about me. Also, I am sure that if I tell her about this, she will remove me from the academy, however, my mother told me about the importance of cultivation.

I want to learn, I want to grow stronger, I want to help my mother in the future.” Royce answered as his eyes shined in determination.

Nux was taken aback.

“You can cultivate outside the academy as well, can you not?” Nux questioned.

“I can, however, the academy is the only place that can bring out my best, I can’t leave.”

Nux smiled.

“What about the teachers? Why didn’t you tell them that those three were bullying you?”

“I was afraid,” Royce answered.

“Afraid that those three would bully you more?”

“No, I do not care about that, they have been hitting me for a while now, it doesn’t matter if they hit me more.

However, they are from an Earl House, mother is just a Viscount, I was afraid that they would target my mother.”

This time, Nux widened his eyes in surprise.

‘This boy is 8 years old? What the heck? Why is he so mature?’

He wondered in his head.

However, soon, Nux frowned.

“Then why didn’t you tell everything to that Candice girl?”

“ ... ”

Royce just gritted his teeth and didn’t reply.

Nux understood.

Being beaten up like this, having his Healing Potion Stolen, his emotions were already a mess, and then Candice came in like a ray of hope.

Royce must have lost control over his emotions when Candice asked her what happened.

He must have thought that he would finally get justice, however, in the end, what he got was a stupid lecture on how the world works.

Not only did he not get justice, he even did what he didn’t want to do and offended Oswald and his friends.

“I-I messed up. Their family might target my mother now.”

Royce gritted his teeth and his body trembled in fear.

Seeing him acting like that, Nux’s eyes turned cold.

Soon, however, a gentle look appeared on his face as he patted Royce’s head.

“Hey... you are worried about your mother right?”

“Of course I am.”

“Do you know who troubles your mother the most?”

“Who?”

“You.”

“Huh?”

“Yes, she is always worried about how you are doing, are you eating fine or not, have you made friends or not, and all that.

How do you think she would feel once she knows about your condition?”

“...” Royce didn't answer.

“She would curse herself, thinking that she is the worse mother who couldn't even protect her own child.”

“No! She is not that type of mother! She is the best mother anyone can have!” Royce retorted.

“Huh? Of course, she is. I do not doubt that at all. The only problem is that she has a child who does not trust her at all.” Nux spoke and Royce's eyes widened in shock.

Nux then smiled and continued,

“Do you seriously believe that those Earls could do anything to your mother?”

“Huh? They are Earls, my mother is only a Viscount-”

“That is not how things work, Royce.

Your mother isn't alone, she has her friends as well, she even has a Marquee as her friend and do you seriously think noble houses would go after each other just because of the fights between their children?

Everything would have been destroyed if that is how things worked." Nux smiled and Royce's eyes widened in surprise.

"You want to make your mother happy, correct?"

"Yes."

"Then there is only one thing you have to do,"

"What?"

"Live happily."

"..."

"Hahaha~ Yes, it is not something complicated, just live your life the way you want, and your mother will be happy."

Nux laughed out loud.

Then, his gaze turned serious and he muttered,

"Also, keep in mind,"

Seeing his solemn gaze, Royce's face turned serious as well,

"Do not let anyone trample on your pride as you did before. Your pride is connected to your mother's pride, you do not want others to trample on it, do you?"

"I don't."

"Then don't let others trample on your pride either," Nux muttered.

“B-But what do I do... they are all Beginner Stage Cultivators... I am just an Apprentice right now. How am I supposed to fight against them?” Royce questioned with a sad look on his face.

He wanted to fight back...

However, he was completely helpless.

“You do not have to worry about them, now that I am in this academy, I will deal with them. You just make sure to tell me if they ever bully you again.”

Nux muttered as he passed his ID card to Royce.

A small smile appeared on Royce’s face when he heard those words, however, soon, a frown appeared on his face and he questioned.

“Who are you? Why are you helping me?”

Nux chuckled and then, he answered,

“I am someone very close to your mother.

Don’t sweat the details for now.”

Chapter 233

*Chatter* *Chatter* *Chatter*

“Excuse me,

Is this the Second Decade, Prodigy Class?”

“...”

The students who were talking with each other turned silent when they heard a voice. All of them turned toward the source of the voice and saw a handsome, black-haired, golden-eyed young man standing in front of the door with a gentle smile on his face.

Many female students were taken aback by his looks.

Of course, they didn't lash out like horny teens, no one is that desperate, no matter how handsome the person is.

Plus, they were afraid of making a bad first impression in front of this young man.

“Yeep, it is the Second Decade, Prodigy Class indeed.”

A girl answered.

She had small, brown-coloured hair, black eyes, a small face and a petite build. From the way her eyes were shining, she looked very excited.

“Oh, thank you very much~”

Nux smiled and then entered the class.

Most of the girls in the class smiled softly and seeing that scene, the boys gritted their teeth in annoyance.

“Tsk. I guess having good looks doesn’t make you good with the brains department huh...

If only you had read the board that is hanging right outside the class, you would have known that it is indeed Decade Two, prodigy class.”

A boy couldn’t control himself and sneered.

“Alright, let’s see I read the board, then what? I just walk into the class and sit wherever I want?” Nux questioned.

“That is how a sane person does things.” The boy didn’t step back and sneered again.

“Haahh... I guess you will always find a few dumb ones wherever you go... even the prodigy class isn’t the exception...” instead of replying, Nux just sighed and shook his head in disappointment.

“Huh? What did you say!?” The boy snapped.

“What? Was I wrong? Let’s say I follow your method, then how am I supposed to make friends and use basic distinction?”

“Huh? Basic distinction?” The short-haired girl who answered Nux’s question before frowned in confusion.

“Ah, this is a little something I always do.

Entering the Class and asking a question,

This is the way you can filter out good and bad people.

For example, you, who answered my question, are a kind-hearted person, a person who people can hang out with, and those four girls over there who nodded to my question are also kind-hearted.

Those 17 students stayed silent and didn’t say anything, those 17 students are neutral in my book right now,

As for him...”

Nux then turned towards the boy who stood against him and then turned around,

“Let’s not talk about him.”

“Huh!? Why did you go through such a huge explanation if you didn’t want to complete it!?”

Say what you were going to say!” The boy’s face twitched in annoyance as he roared.

“Well, let’s just say I would rather not talk to someone like you, please keep a good distance from me.”

Nux just smiled and walked toward the short-haired girl,

“My name is Nux Leander, I will be joining this class as of today, I hope you help me with the future journey.”

“S-Sure.” The short-haired girl blushed and she continued,

“My name is Anna Ranger.”

Nux then turned towards the 4 girls who nodded at him and smiled again,

“I will be relying on you guys as well,”

The girls smiled back and nodded.

“We will be relying on you as well.”

Within just 2 minutes of entering the class, Nux had already made 5 new friends.

He was indeed a friendly guy.

Of course, that is if you ignore those 12 boys who were looking at him with hostile looks.

Nux, of course, completely ignored them, he didn't care what the boys were thinking anyways.

He then walked towards the window seat and sat down.

Why the window seat?

That's because the sun's rays refresh his mind.

Of course, this was absolute bullshit of a reason, he just sat there because,

All the main characters sit near the window.

He was still a weeb deep in his heart.

“Umm... that seat...” Suddenly, Anna muttered.

“Huh?” Nux was about to ask what the problem was but the boy who stood up against him interrupted with a scheming smile.

“Anna, let him sit. He was so smug before, I am sure he can handle him on his own, isn't that right?”

“Yeah, I am sure he can do it.” Another boy muttered with the same, scheming smile on his face.

“There is no reason-” Anna wanted to reply however, soon, she turned silent as she saw a young man with light black hair and greyish eyes entering the class. (Picture in para comments)

Seeing the young man, the other boys started smiling and as for the girls, they looked at Nux in worry.

The boy who had just entered the Class frowned, he then glanced at Nux and started walking towards him.

*Bam*

He then place his hand on Nux's table and ordered,

“That's my seat, give it back to me and I will forgive you.”

Nux frowned and then he lowered his head, his body trembled a little and then, he muttered,

“Mhm, I was told that I should maintain good relations with my classmate.”

The blonde sneered when he heard Nux's words.

The other boys were smiling disdainfully as well, as for the girls, well, they just sighed in relief. These actions further irked all the boys but since they couldn't do anything, they decided to ignore and watch the drama unfold.

Nux then stood up from his seat, picked up the chair he was sitting and moved it away, then, he picked up the chair that was behind him, placed it before his table and sat on it.

“Here, you can take that chair, it was a little uncomfortable for me anyways,” Nux muttered with a very gentle smile on his face.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

The entire class turned silent and looked at Nux who was smiling widely.

The Blonde young man felt his mouth twitching in annoyance, his body trembled and he smashed his hand on the table again,

*Bam*

“Fucking Bastard! Do you know who I am!?”

Chapter 234

“Fucking Bastard! Do you know who I am!?”

The black-haired man couldn't control himself and roared in rage.

Nux, however, didn't seem very intimidated and questioned calmly,

“Are you the son of the King?”

“Huh? No, I am not.”

“I see.” Nux nodded to himself and then questioned again,

“Then are you the son of the Headmaster of the Royal Academy?”

“No, I am not.”

“Then are you the Son of a Duke?”

“No, I am not.”

“Ahh, then you must be the Son of a Marquee?”

“No.”

“Son of an Earl?”

“Yes, I am the son of Earl Bourkee.”

“Ah, I see, a Son of an Earl.” Nux nodded again and then, his expression changed.

“Then how the fuck am I supposed to know who you are?”

“...”

The Blonde's face twitched in anger.

He looked around and noticed that his fellow classmates, especially girls were trying to hide the smile on their faces.

He, however, took a deep breath, moved his face close to Nux's face and threatened.

“Look here you little pretty boy, I don't know who you are, and I don't care either. I may not be the son of the King or a Duke, however, in this Class,

I am the King.

Got that?”

With how his eyes were shining menacingly, everyone in the class was sure that he would attack the new boy the moment he says anything.

However, the new boy's next question confused everyone in the class.

“Why?”

“Huh?”

“Why are you the King of the Class?

Are you the strongest here?”

“No, I am not.”

“Are you the one who scores the highest marks on tests?”

“No, I do not.”

“Then how the fuck...”

Nux didn't even need to complete his sentence, since everyone else got what he wanted to say.

“Pfft.”

Anna couldn't control herself and her laugh leaked out of her mouth. She soon managed to control herself and was able to bury her laughter.

However, this little incident forced other students to smile as well, and this time, even a few male students were smiling as well.

A vein popped on the boy's forehead when he saw how everyone was acting.

Then, he slammed on the table again and roared.

“I may not be the strongest, however, I am the most talented one here!

I am so talented that Candice Water made me her direct subordinate!

That is the reason I am the King of this Class.

Now get the fuck off my seat or I will make you regret it!”

He threatened again and this time, his eyes were red in rage.

Nux, however, completely ignored the boy and turned toward Anna.

“Isn't there a girl name Candice in our Academy? I heard she is quite popular here.”

“There is...” Anna nodded.

“Is he talking about her?” Nux questioned and Anna nodded.

“Yes, he is...”

“...”

Nux glanced at the blonde with a deadpan look on his face.

The boy frowned.

He couldn't understand the way the conversation was going on right now.

He just revealed his identity, shouldn't this boy be panicking right now?

Why does he look so...

Disappointed?

“W-What's with that face? I am not lying, know that!”

He declared.

And this time, Nux finally came out of his reverie,

“Wow... to think someone would be so proud of being a subordinate of a Master Stage Cultivator...

And that someone is a son of an Earl to boot.

I can't imagine how disappointed your father must be...

I kind of pity him...

Poor soul...”

“...Y-You bastard! Do you know who Candice Water is!? She is not just any random Master Stage Cultivator you can find anywhere you want! She is the future pill-”

“Yeah Yeah, she is the pillar of the kingdom, star of the academy and all that.

I have heard that countless times, don't bore me with that shit again.

Seriously, get a life man, just because someone is talented and is a little beautiful, you do have to become her dog and wag your tale joyfully while following behind her.

Can't you just act normally?

I would be finding places to hide my face if I ever did what you are doing, but you on the other hand, not only are you not ashamed, you are even proud of this.

Are you mentally ill?

To be honest, I am starting to believe that my classmates are godsend.

To deal with someone like you for so many years, I respect you all from the bottom of my heart.”

Nux turned toward the other students and bowed his head a little.

“Y-You bastard!”

The boy finally lost his control and tried to attack, however, soon, a lovely voice entered everyone’s ears and the boy was forced to calm down.

“Alright students, it is time to start our lecture, enough chit chats, now go back to your seats.”

“ ... ”

The boy calmed down and decided to sit somewhere else.

No matter what, he can’t create a scene here, not in front of the teacher.

He cannot affect Lady Candice’s reputation.

As for Nux, well, he just glanced at the beautiful woman in front of him with a lost look on his face.

The woman had long blonde hair, beautiful green eyes, a small nose and light pink lips, her features were sharp and combined with her perfect hourglass-like mature body, she looked breathtaking. (Picture in Paragraph comments.)

...

A small smile appeared on Nux's face as he read her information.

'A princess huh...

This is will be good.'

Seeing that all the students were now sitting in their seats, a satisfied smile appeared on Evane's face and she continued,

“Good, now without wasting any more time, let’s start today’s class.”

Nux, however, had a different plan in his mind,

He then raised his hand and muttered,

“Excuse me, Ma’am.”

Chapter 235

“Excuse me, Ma’am.”

Seeing that someone interrupted her class before it even began, Evane frowned, however soon, she noticed a new face and questioned,

“Yes, what is it?”

“Ma’am, I am a new student.”

Nux informed.

“Alright, that is good, is there anything you want my help with?”

Evane questioned out of formality and wasn’t really expecting any questions. New students are given a guide to the academy, of course, she knows that most of the students don’t read that guide, however, how things were in the academy was pretty popular and almost every student knows that before he comes to his first class.

“Yes, there is,” Nux muttered.

“What is it?”

“I didn’t read the guide provided by the Academy, however, I did learn everything I could before joining the class. However, today, I found something new and unexpected and wanted to talk to you about it.”

“What do you want to talk about?” Evane questioned.

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face as he glanced at the boy who was trying to pick a fight with him for a moment before looking back at Evane.

“Is there something called ‘the King of the Class’ in the academy?”

Hearing his question, the student's eyes widened in surprise and Evane frowned.

“King of the Class? What is that?”

“Well, that student over there introduced himself as the King of the Class,” Nux muttered as he pointed at the boy with an innocent smile on his face.

“I asked him the reason why he is called that and he told me that his own-umm, his boss is a Master Stage Cultivator, that is why he is the King of the Class.

I know an 8-year-old child who studies in this academy, his butler is a Master Stage Cultivator as well, I know that butler, so does that make me the new King of the Class?”

Nux questioned and the other students in the class couldn't help but cover their faces to hide their smiles.

Even Teacher Evane was trying not to laugh.

As for the boy...

Well, he was looking at Nux as his eyes shone in rage.

Evane noticed that he was embarrassed so she decided to quickly end this topic,

“There is nothing like ‘King of the Class’ in our Academy, your friend, Myrill here must be joking with you since you are new. It is good that you two are getting along. Also...

Knowing someone who is at Master Stage or higher doesn't matter, what matters is how you perform...”

She said the last line while she was looking at Myrill, the boy who tried to fight against Nux.

“Ahh, so he was joking...”

I was wondering how can one be so dumb...

Turns out he joking all along, hahaha~

Sorry for not catching your jokes, my friend Myrill,”

Nux glanced at Myrill and chuckled.

Myrill forced a smile and nodded.

Then, he turned his face and his smile disappeared and was replaced with unconcealed anger.

‘You are dead...

Whoever you are...’

Myrill swore in his heart that he will take his revenge.

Not only did this bastard dare to sit on his seat and insult him in front of all the students, he even had the balls to insult him in front of a teacher.

Even Teacher Evane was laughing at him!

This boy has to pay for it.

Nux wasn’t oblivious to Myrill’s thoughts; however, he didn’t care nor was he done yet.

Myrill’s hell has just started.

Nux wasn’t planning on letting him go.

Why?

Because his full name was Myrill Bourkee.

The son of Earl Bourkee and big brother of Oswald Bourkee.

Yes, Oswald, the boy who bullied Royce.

Nux has done some research and had learned quite a few interesting things about the Bourkee's and...

Candice Water.

With this new information, he had to change his future actions as well.

The class continued while Myrill continued to plan on how to deal with Nux after the class ends.

However, luck wasn't on his side since after the Class ended, Evane muttered,

“The new student, you, come with me to my office.”

“Yes ma'am,” Nux stood up and started walking.

When he walked passed Myrill's seat, a provocative smirk appeared on his face and he continued walking.

Myrill gritted his teeth in anger,

“Let's see how long you can run for, you annoying pest.”

Myrill mumbled.

...

Nux and Evane then left the classroom and entered Evane's office.

“You name is Nux, correct?”

Evane muttered as she sat on her chair.

“Yes, Nux Leander.” Nux nodded.

Evane then extended her hand towards Nux,

“You ID.”

Nux then gave her his ID and Evane started reading it,

“An 18-year-old Advance Stage Cultivator, you are a talented student, even among the students of prodigy class,” Evane commented.

“Thank you, teacher.”

“Hm hm, have you received the 2-Star Skill book?”

“Yes, I have.”

“Learn that as fast as possible, coincidentally, I have an affinity with Fire Element as well, so I can help you with this.”

“Yes teacher, I will work hard.”

Actually, Nux had decided to ignore this Skill that was given to him by the academy, it was only a 2 Star Skill after all.

However, now, things are different.

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face as he thought about it.

“Also, I will suggest you stay away from troubles,”

“Hmm?”

“That student Myrill, his temper isn’t the best and it is best not to fight with your own classmates.

Of course, I am not saying that you should not defend yourself if they come at you, you won’t be able to live in this world if you act too passively.

However, I will still suggest you to act with caution.”

Evane wasn't dumb, she could feel that something was happening between Nux and Myrill, although she didn't know much about Nux, she knew about Myrill.

He was a petty person who won't forget grudges.

Evane was actually a little worried about Nux.

“Ah, don't worry, teacher.

I will act with utmost caution.”

Nux smiled 'gently'.

Chapter 236

“Alright, we will end our class here.” The teacher muttered and then left the class.

The rest of the students stood up and started talking with each other.

“Hey? What are you going to do now?”

“What else? I am going to cultivate.”

“Tsk Tsk, you are so boring. Don’t you think you should enjoy your life a little?”

“You can waste your life if you want to, I do not have the time to do that.”

“Ugghhh! What a bore.”

“Indeed Indeed.”

“Whatever you call me, I don’t care,”

“Tsk Tsk, alright, I guess I should go cultivate as well.”

“If you know what’s good for you, then sure.”

Some students were serious about their cultivation, while some just planned how they will have fun for the rest of the day.

However, one student didn’t talk to anyone and quickly rushed toward the Classroom door.

“Royce! Where are you going? Aren’t you going to hang out with us!?”
One of the students called.

“Let him go, you idiot. Don’t you know about those First Decade students who target him? It is better to stay away from him.”

“Yeah, stay away from him, it’s not like we can help him either.”

“True True.”

The students muttered and started discussing among themselves.

This was another regular day for Zero Decade Class, unlike other classes, this class wasn’t divided into Basic, Advance and Prodigy sections.

All the students study together and are later put into different sections when they rise to Decade One.

“But why are those First Decade students targeting Royce?”

“I heard that it was because Royce bumped into them a year ago and it offended that Oswald.

I am not too sure of the details though, all I know is that it has been going on for a year now.

Every time they catch Royce, they would either beat him up or humiliate him.” e

“Hmm? Humiliate? How?”

“Well, they would sometimes ask him to go buy food for them, of course, that isn’t a problem, however, Royce would have to use his own Academy Points to buy the food and whenever he would return with food, those 3 would just throw everything at him for bringing ‘shitty’ food for them.

Sometimes, they would ask him to fill their glasses with water and bow in front of them just like a servant then they would throw the glass of water at him, sometimes, they would make him do squats in front of all the students and then embarrass him.

To be honest, I pity and commend Royce at the same time. If it was me, I would have left the Academy a long time ago.”

A boy muttered and other students turned silent.

“This is too cruel...”

“It is... that’s why Royce leaves the class as soon as it is over and then rushes towards his Room without getting caught by those three.”

The students then continued to discuss more as for Royce,

Well, just like usual, he was practically running away since the class is over.

“!!!”

Suddenly, Royce’s eyes widened in surprise when he saw those three boys walking together, he quickly turned around and started running away without alerting anyone.

“Oh! Look who it is! It is our dear friend!”

Royce, however, was unlucky and one of those boys saw him running away.

“Hey! Where are you running away, little rat? Won’t you play with your friends today?” Oswald muttered with a wide smile on his face and he started running behind Royce. His two friends smiled as they looked at each other and then, they followed behind him.

Oswald and his friends were Beginner Stage Cultivators, as for Royce, he was only an Apprentice, the three of them could easily catch him, however, to make things interesting, Oswald and his friends always lower their speed and make Royce run for as long as he can.

This was quite amusing for them indeed.

“Hey! Stop! We can’t catch up!”

“Hahaha! Yeah, little rat! Stop! I feel exhausted!”

“Hahaha!”

The three of them laughed, however, Royce didn't care about them and continued running.

Many students saw this scene, however, no one bothered to do anything, for them, it was just 4 friends playing around.

They didn't have the time to care about it.

Royce quickly passed many students, Oswald and his friends did the same as well.

Royce continued and then suddenly, he passed another student.

Oswald and the others were about to do that as well, however, Oswald was unable to dodge and bumped into the student.

“Uggh! You bastard! Don't you have eyes!?” Oswald roared in rage.

“Who the fuck are you?” The student who Oswald bumped into questioned.

“I am Oswald Bourkee! The son of Viscount Bourkee!”

“You think I care about that?” Suddenly, the other student questioned.

“Huh? Aren't you the one who asked m- Kkhhookhkhk!” Oswald wanted to retort, however, before he could complete his sentence, the other student kicked his stomach with a knee.

Oswald's eyes popped out in pain as he fell to the ground on his knees.

“*Cough* *Cough*”

In just one move, his breathing became erratic and he coughed a few times while holding his stomach.

The student, however, wasn't done yet.

He grabbed Oswald's hair and lifted him in the air with pure strength.

"First, you bumped into me, spoiling all my clothes with all this dirt, and then you even dared to shout at me?"

You have some guts, don't you?"

This time, Oswald finally saw the face of the man who hit him.

The man had black hair, golden eyes and was extremely good looking, however, right now, Oswald didn't care about how the man looked,

"M-My b-brothe-"

He wanted to intimidate the student in front of him, however, suddenly, a big smile appeared on the Student's face.

"I don't care who your father or your brother is.

You messed with the wrong person."

Saying that, Nux grabbed Oswald's head and smashed it onto the floor.

*Bam*

Chapter 237

“You messed with the wrong person.”

Saying that, Nux grabbed Oswald’s head and smashed it onto the floor.

*Bam*

Nux then turned his head and glanced at Oswald’s other two friends.

The two students felt their bodies stiffening up in fear, however, they quickly regained control over their bodies and ran away.

Or so they tried to.

Nux disappeared and then appeared in front of Harold and punched his face.

The impact was so great that Harold’s body flew away and then his head crashed on the tree.

Nux then turned his head towards Bardley and disappeared again.

Bardley, who saw that felt his soul leaving his body and he paused in fear, making things easier for Nux.

Nux then appeared near Bardley and then, he kicked on his right knee.

*Crack*

“AAAAGGGHHHHHH!”

Bardley howled in pain as he fell to the ground.

A clear sound of something breaking was heard, everyone present here knew that Bardley’s knee was broken.

Nux, however, did not show any mercy and kicked Bardley's head like it was a football.

A satisfied smile appeared on Nux's face as he glanced at the three students lying on the floor, groaning in pain.

Then, his smile widened menacingly as he glanced at Harold, whose hands were trembling and he was trying to drink the healing potion.

“That's quite an item you have got there.

How about you give that to me?”

Nux then walked toward Harold and took the healing potion out of his hands.

Not only that, he even took the storage ring that was in his hands and then he repeated the same with the other two.

“You guys are quite rich huh...”

Nux muttered as he looked into their storage rings.

“So many academy points... It is almost as if you guys never spend whatever you earn, or maybe you don't earn anything at all...”

Nux continued to speak and then, his eyebrow twitched.

“You know... for some reason, after seeing your storage ring, I am even angrier now.”

Nux then stepped forward and,

“AAggghhh!!”

“Ugghhhh!!”

“Aakkkhhh!!”

He started beating the three of them till they all passed out.

This continued for the next 15 minutes and then, Nux dusted off his uniform and muttered,

“Alright, let’s leave this place now.”

“A-Are you sure that we should leave them here?” Royce questioned in worry as he glanced at the three unconscious students lying on the ground.

Royce had run far away from his class to come to this area and this place was rarely visited by others.

These students are unconscious there are chances that no one would find them and the longer it takes for them to get medical attention, the worse will their injuries get.

Of course, Royce wasn’t worried about these three, however, he was worried about Nux who might face serious consequences if something bad happens to the three of them.

“Don’t worry, everything will be fine.” Nux however, just shook his head and shrugged.

“A-Are you sure? T-This m-might be risky…” Royce was still a bit worried.

“Royce Alveye,” Suddenly, Nux stopped walking and turned towards Royce.

“I have told you before, and I will say it again, act like a noble, you do not have to worry about something so insignificant, just leave everything to me.

I’ll take care of it.

These guys dared to bully you, these guys dared to bully someone from the Alveye family, this is just the beginning.

I’ll make sure that they thoroughly regret everything.

You just focus on getting stronger, strong enough to not get bullied again.

Am I clear?”

Royce copied Nux and a solemn look appeared on his face,

“Yes, I understand. I will work hard and get stronger as soon as possible.”

“Good, now go to your room and start cultivating, inform me when you are about to break through the Apprentice Stage.”

“Yes, big brother Nux.”

Royce saluted and then he walked away with a determined look on his face.

Then, a small smile appeared on Nux’s face and, he walked toward those three students again.

After another round of beating, he finally sighed and then he walked towards his Room as well.

He needed to learn the 2-Star Skill, Fire Burst.

He has to impress a certain someone, after all.

...

*Chatter* *Chatter* *Chatter*

In a class full of students who were talking with each other, a knock was heard,

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

“Excuse me,”

“ ... ”

The class turned silent and turned towards the young man who was standing in front of the door.

“Is this Second Decade, Prodigy Class?” Nux questioned the same thing.

The response he received today was mostly divided by gender.

Most of the girls just shook their heads and smiled, as for the boys, well, they just scowled as they glanced at him.

“It is Second Decade, Prodigy Class, yes.” Anna decided to play along with Nux and nodded.

“Aha, thank you for answering, I thought I would get lost today, however, I think as long as kind people like you exist, I won’t get lost.

At the very least, I would find a place to live~”

Nux smiled as he walked toward Anna.

“Thank you for the compliment,” A small blush had appeared on Anna’s face, however, she was quick to control herself and answered like nothing was wrong.

“People like you deserve all the compliments in this world~”

Nux whispered softly and this time, a deep blush appeared on Anna’s face.

She was not alone though, most of the girls who were listening to their conversation were blushing while imagining themselves in Anna’s place.

“Tsk. There he goes again.”

“That bastard.”

“All handsome guys should just die.”

The male students, however, weren’t very pleased by what they saw.

Of course, Nux was never the one to care about boys.

He ignored all of them and walked towards his seat, the seat booked for the main characters, the window seat.

He then sat down on the seat, however, as soon as he did,

*Bam***

The doors of the classroom were smashed open and Myrill entered the room while glaring at Nux.

Chapter 238

*Bam*

The doors of the classroom were smashed open and Myrill entered the room while glaring at Nux.

A cold smile then appeared on Myrill's face as he glared at Nux,

“Heh. It's good that you are here.”

The students in the class turned silent.

Everyone knew what happened between Nux and Myrill yesterday. Nux dared to make fun of Myrill in front of the teacher and to make things worse, even Teacher Evane was laughing at him.

Then, Nux left the class with Teacher Evane and didn't return.

This left Myrill annoyed and frustrated.

Most of the students knew something was going to happen when they saw Nux coming into the class, to be honest, they were looking forward to it.

“I've been waiting for you to re-enter the class yesterday, but I guess you must have run away. Though I have a question,”

Saying that, Myrill walked towards Nux's seat and smashed his hand on the top of his table.

“If you already knew what is going to happen to you, then little rat, why did you come into the class today? Did you think I would forget what you did yesterday? If you did, then let me tell you,

You were wrong.”

Nux frowned and then, he smiled inwardly,

‘Heh. So it’s not about his brother huh…’

I guess he still doesn’t know that I was the one behind it…’

Myrill then moved his face close to Nux’s and muttered with a scary smile on his face,

“You were wrong.

I did not forget anything.

I will make sure you pay fo-”

As if intimidated by him, Nux moved his head away from Myrill and then pointed at a chair that was placed a few meters away.

“What are you pointing on that chair for?” Myrill questioned with a frown.

A small smile then appeared on Nux’s face as he answered,

“If you want my seat, you can grab it. I already placed that seat over there.”

“…”

Myrill’s face twitched in frustration.

“Also, if you want to move your face close to someone else, here’s a quick tip, Brush your teeth regularly.”

Nux muttered with a disgusted expression and a hand on his nose.

“It’s a pro tip coming from experience, you can trust it.

Also, try seducing someone else, I am not into guys,”

Nux then glanced at Anna and smiled playfully.

“I very much prefer girls~”

Anna and a few other girls blushed and taking this chance, Nux winked at them.

*Bam*

“I am not seducing you, you bastard!”

Myrill couldn't take this anymore and smashed his hand on the table again as he glared at Nux with eyes filled with rage.

“Oh, you were not?”

Well that's good, I thought your seducing skills were shitty and I was worried about your future. But now that you tell me that you were not trying to seduce me, everything makes sense. I don't need to be worried about your future.”

Nux muttered as he continued nodding to himself.

Myrill's mouth twitched uncontrollably.

The more he looked at this bastard, the angrier he feels.

“You bastard! Stop worrying about my future, rather, you should be worried about your own future because once I am done with you, no one else will be looking at your disfigured face!”

“Oh my~ Possessive much, eh?” Nux chuckled and then, he shook his head,

“But as I said, I am not interested in men.

Don't worry though, there are lots of boys in our class who will be interested in you, right guys?”

Nux muttered as he glanced at other students.

The boys quickly turned their faces away,

They weren't interested in guys either.

Nope, not a chance.

Seeing those boys acting like that, Myrill finally lost control over his emotions and shouted out loud.

“I am not gay you bastard!”

At the same time, a fireball appeared in his hand and it directly shot towards where Nux was sitting.

“DIE!”

*BOOM***

From the Explosion, it was clear that it wasn't a normal Fire Ball, it was the 2-Star Skill provided by the academy, Fire Burst.

A fireball that bursts apart after the collision, a Skill that is a lot stronger than a normal Fire Ball, it is so strong that it is on the borderline of being a 3-Star Skill.

Myrill was quite ruthless to use a skill like this right from the start.

And by how close the two of them were, he was sure that Nux was hit and obliterated by his attack.

Anna and the other girls thought the same and their faces went pale from worry and shock.

Myrill didn't care about them,

He had investigated Nux, he was just a commoner, there is no problem if a son of an Earl like him kills a commoner.

He might get suspended for a few days, but that's it. No other action would be taken against him.

This was also the reason why he dared to do something outrageous in the first place.

Anna, who was frozen stiff from what happened felt someone patting her shoulder from behind, however, she didn't care about that right now and ignored whoever it was.

“Anna...”

However, then she heard a voice, she quickly turned around and her eyes widened in surprise,

“N-Nux!”

It was Nux!

He was standing behind her, without a scratch on his face.

How surprising!

“Nux! How did yo-”

“Anna, you saw what happened, correct?” However, before she could complete her question, Nux questioned back.

“H-Huh?”

“You saw what happened, correct?” Nux repeated his question with his usual smile on his face.

“Y-Yes, I did.”

“Yes, it was Myrill who attacked me first, right?”

“Y-Yes.”

“So whatever that happens from now on...”

Nux’s smile widened and he questioned,

“It could be called self-defence, right?”

“H-Huh?” Anna didn’t understand what he was talking about.

“Since he attacked me first, then even if I attack him right now, it would be seen as self-defence, correct?”

“Y-Y-Yes.”

Anna answered while she felt goosebumps all over her body when she saw that big, crazy and distorted smile on Nux’s face.

“That is good.”

Saying that, Nux disappeared.

And for some reason, Myrill’s body trembled.

Chapter 239

“Good.”

Saying that, Nux disappeared.

Myrill, who was looking in the direction where Nux was standing with a lost look on his face suddenly felt someone patting his shoulder.

He came out of his reverie when he noticed that Nux had disappeared, he turned around only to see Nux looking at him with a big smile on his face.

“You messed with a wrong person, Pest.”

“H-Huh? Wha- Kkhhoookkk!”

Myrill wanted to retort, however, Nux directly punched his gut so hard that his eyes nearly popped out and he directly coughed out blood.

Nux, however, wasn't done.

He grabbed Myrill's hair and then smashed his head on his knee,

“Ugghh!”

Of course, he didn't stop it after doing it once, he lifted Myrill's head, and then smashed it on his knees again, then again, again, and again.

“Ugghh...”

Within a minute, Myrill's somewhat decent face was turned into a disfigured mess that was covered with blood, sweat and tears.

“Heehh? Aren't you the King of this Class? Why aren't you fighting back?”

Suddenly, Nux questioned.

“Ughh...”

Of course, Myrill didn't answer.

No, it was more like he couldn't answer.

His face was all disfigured, his nose was completely broken, there was blood all over, the blood had even cloaked around his windpipe, whenever he opens his mouth, blood instead of words flows out.

“Isn't the King of the Class a little too weak?” Nux questioned as he turned towards other boys in the class.

“Wait... don't tell me you used all the strength in that previous attack.

Well, if that is the case,”

Nux then let go of Myrill's hair and stepped back.

However, soon, a crazy smile appeared on his face and he laughed,

“Then too bad for you!”

Grabbing his hair again, he smashed his face on his knee, again.

Then, Nux took his time to step on the back of the foot of Myrill and then,

*Crack*

“AAAGGGHHHHHHH!!!”

He broke Myrill's ankle and the latter howled in agony.

“Also, what's with that pathetic display of the Skill, I am sure Teacher Evane must be disappointed,

Here, let me show you how it is done.”

Nux then stepped back and soon, a fireball appeared above his hand.

Then, the Fireball shot toward Myrill and,

*BOOM***

It burst apart and Myrill's body flew away and clashed with Teacher's desk.

“Hmmm, I still need some practice huh... well, it is handier of a skill than I expected, I guess I work hard and train it more.”

Nux nodded to himself while the other students glanced at him with horrified looks on their faces.

They were all Advance Stage Cultivators, why the hell is the gap between them so big!?

How did this man defeat Myrill so quickly!?

And why did it seem so effortless!?

He even had the time to chat while he attacked him.

Although Myrill wasn't the strongest student in the class, he was easily in the third or second number when it came to strength and even the strongest student in the class would need to fight Myrill for hours before the results finally come out.

But this...

What the hell is this!?

“What happened here!?”

While students were observing Nux and analyzing the fight, Teacher Evane, who heard the commotion rushed into the class and saw everything.

First, the seats behind were turned into smithereens and by how everything was burned, it was clear that someone had used the Fire Burst Skill.

That, however, wasn't the worse.

The worst thing was that a student's body was lying beside the Teacher's desk.

His whole body was burned, even his hairs were burned and he had now turned bald, his face was disfigured, his foot was turned in a weird way, showing that it was broken as well,

All in all, the Student's condition was critical, the only good thing about this was that the student was still breathing.

"I asked, what the hell happened here!?"

Seeing that no one answered her question, Teacher Evane questioned again. This time, her tone was a lot stricter and louder than before.

"It was self-defence."

Teacher Evane turned towards the source of the voice and saw Nux standing with both his hands in the air.

"What did you say?" She questioned as she raised her eyebrow.

This... this was self-defence? Was this new student kidding her!?

"He was the one who attacked me first, it wasn't a normal attack either, he used Fire Burst when we were barely 10 cm far from each other.

If that attack had hit me, I would have died.

Seeing death in front of my eyes, I was scared.

Then, my fear turned into anger and I lost control over my emotions and attacked back.

Then... this happened."

Nux told everything that happened honestly.

He was an upright person after all.

“T-This is true. Myrill used Fire Burst to attack Nux first and that attack was definitely lethal.” Anna nodded in agreement.

‘Though I don’t think this man was the least bit scared.’

Of course, she didn’t say that out loud.

“Yes, that attack could have killed Nux. It was simply a self-defence”

“I would have lost control over my emotions too, it was too dangerous.”

“Yes, it’s all Myrill’s fault.”

Other girls, who had a good impression of Nux in their minds, supported him as well.

The only ones who were left were the boys.

“Teacher Evane, it was indeed Myrill who attacked first.”

Suddenly, the boy who stepped in front of Nux yesterday stepped forward and muttered.

He didn’t like Nux either, however, today, Nux was right.

No matter how pissed off you are at someone, it doesn’t give you the right to kill them, not only that, Myrill attacked without a warning.

A pathetic behaviour.

Nux was 100 times better than a coward like him.

Seeing him supporting Nux, other students stepped up and started supporting Nux as well.

Within a few minutes, Nux’s status changed from the assaulted to the one who was assaulted.

He had become innocent.

Not like he was not innocent before.

He is an honest and upright person after all.

Chapter 240

“Yes, it was Myrill’s fault.”

All the students agreed and sided with Nux.

Seeing this, Teacher Evane started believing it as well.

She could totally see Myrill losing control over his emotions and attacking Nux, he has done that before and had attacked many students.

However, using a lethal Skill and trying to kill a fellow student?

‘These students are getting a little too bold, aren’t they?’

How dare he do something like that?’

Teacher Evane’s eyes turned cold.

She then bent down, grabbed Myrill’s ring and took a Healing potion out of it.

She was going to use her healing potion before, however, now, she decided against it.

Evane then shoved the healing potion into Myrill’s mouth. Then, she took out another potion from his ring and shoved it inside his mouth again.

Then another one, then another and another.

She continued doing it till he was out of potions.

To be honest, it looked like she was punishing him rather than saving him, of course, most of the students didn’t care about it.

“Will he be okay?” Suddenly, Nux walked forward and questioned with a worried look on his face.

“Huh? Are you worried about him?” Teacher Evane questioned with a frown on her face.

He of all people was worried about him?

Was he some sort of saint?

Teacher Evane was a little impressed by how good-hearted this student was.

“Of course not. Why would I be worried about someone who attacked me?”

However, Nux’s next after took away all that good impression he had unknowingly created.

“Then why are you asking me?” Teacher Evane questioned.

“Well, as long as he is alive, Marquee Alger should be able to protect me, however, if something happens to him, I don’t think that Earl Bourkee will let me go.

In the end, I am still a commoner after all.”

Nux muttered.

Teacher Evane’s smiled a little as she answered,

“Don’t worry, as long as you are in the Academy, Earl Bourkee won’t be able to do anything. And trust me, with your talent, when you leave the Academy, you will reach a level where someone like Bourkee won’t dare to touch you.

Heck, he might even come to you and apologize in his son’s stead.”

Nux however, just smiled wryly and muttered,

“Teacher Evane, you might fool a noble with words like that, however, I am someone who has seen and has gone through many hardships in this world. I know how the world works.

What if Earl Bourkee decided to send an assassin after me? What if I am killed before reaching that level?

The academy might protect their students who are alive, however, a dead student like me has no value to the academy.

As long as concrete proof isn't provided, the academy won't care about it.

And of course, since I am a commoner with no backing whatsoever, no one would ever try and search for clues if something happens to me.

Earl Bourkee would pretty much get out of this without a scratch.”

“...”

This time, Teacher Evane turned silent.

She knew how the world works as well and what Nux said, the chances of that happening are close to 100%

A serious look then appeared on Teacher Evane's face as he muttered,

“Alright, pack your bag.”

“Huh?” Nux frowned.

“Just pack your bag, well, you don't really need anything since everything should be in your storage ring.

After the class ends, you are coming with me.”

“Huh? Teacher Evane, what are you talking about?” Nux questioned with a confused look on his face.

“I'll protect you.” Teacher Evane muttered with a serious look on her face.

“Teacher Evane?”

“What? You don’t believe me?”

“N-No, that’s not it.”

“Then stop complaining. The room next to mine is empty, from now on, you will be living there. This way, I can protect you in case Earl Bourkee tries something.”

“O-Oh! Thank you, Teacher Evane!”

Nux exclaimed with a big smile on his face.

Well, he would have been happier if he was allowed to live with Teacher Evane, instead of living next to her.

But oh well, something is better than nothing.

It was still progress.

Inwardly, Nux thanked his best friend Myrill for sacrificing himself for his sake.

Friends like Myrill are all one needs in his or her life.

“Don’t worry, it is my duty to protect my students.” Teacher Evane smiled, she then turned towards another student and requested.

“Jacob, can you please take him to the Medic?”

“Y-Yes, teacher.”

The student named Jacob stepped forward and picked Myrill up.

Nux then returned to his seat and the class continued after Jacob returned.

Of course, Nux ignored whatever was taught in the class, he would rather take private lessons.

He was sure that those will be much more interesting than whatever was happening here.

Right now, Nux just continued to look at Teacher Evane with a lost look on his face and waited for the class to end as soon as it is possible.

An hour later, the class finally ended and Teacher Evane turned towards Nux.

“Alright, Nux, come with me.”

“Yes Teacher.”

Nux was quick to leave his seat and rushed towards her with a big smile on his face.

The other boys in the class looked at him as their eyes shined in unconcealed jealousy.

‘Tsk Tsk, this bastard is just too lucky!’

‘Fuckk! Should I become a commoner as well?’

‘Living in a room next to Teacher Evane? Fuck! I will exchange half of my life to get this opportunity.’

“Nux you lucky bastard.”

One of the students couldn’t control himself and muttered out loud.

All the boys in the room nodded their heads in agreement.

As for the girls, they just didn’t understand why these boys were acting like this.

What has Nux done to them?

Why are they acting like he stole their most precious treasure?

“Maybe they are just jealous.” A girl muttered.

“Of what?” Another girl questioned.

“His handsome face?”

“Ahh, that could be the reason, most of the guys in our class do look like monkeys, so it’s natural that they are jealous.”

“Indeed.”

Hearing those words, the boys’ mouths twitched.

‘Nux you fucking bastard.’

Chapter 241

“This will be your room from now on.” Teacher Evane muttered as she opened the door of a room.

“Woowww~ It looks so cool, can I actually live here?” Nux muttered in amazement, even without going inside, Nux knew that this was an amazing room.

It was a lot better than the room he got as a student.

Well, it was only natural after all,

The Academy is where all the students and the teachers live, obviously, the treatment teachers get and the treatment students get are very different as well.

One of the examples of different treatment can be the rooms where the two of them live.

If Student's rooms are comparable to the most lavish room in a Baron Household, the room for the teachers is comparable to the most Lavish room in the Marquee household.

Yes, the difference was that big!

Well, it was understandable as well, most of the students are Beginner or advanced stage Cultivators, as for the teachers, the weakest teacher is a Grand Master Stage Cultivator, it is obvious that the two of them are treated differently.

The room Nux received now was a room where teachers used to live, it was obvious that it would be many times better than his previous room.

“Yes, you can live here.” Teacher Evane muttered.

“Are you really sure, Teacher Evane? I am just a student, and a commoner to boot, are you sure I can live in such a lavish room?”

This is a room built for teachers, after all.”

Nux was still doubtful.

Suddenly, a small smile appeared on Teacher Evane’s face and she questioned back,

“Do you know my full name?”

“Of course I do, it is Evane Skyfa-”

Nux paused as he finally realized something.

“Evane Skyfall, yes, ‘Skyfall’, the Princess of the Skyfall kingdom, arranging something like this isn’t hard for someone like me.

Of course, most nobles, even the Dukes might not be able to arrange something like this in the Royal Academy because the Academy doesn’t allow nobles to use their influence inside, however, in the end, the academy still belongs to the Royal Family.

There is no way they can stop me from doing something so small. So don’t worry and live freely.”

Teacher Evane’s face then turned serious and she muttered,

“As I said, I will protect you.”

“Thank you, Teacher Evane.” Nux bowed his head and thanked.

Evane nodded she then pointed at the door of the room beside Nux’s room and muttered,

“This is my room, if you have any problems, you can come to me. Of course, I believe you will respect the basic manners and will only come to me if it’s something really urgent, I can trust you with that, correct?”

“Yes teacher!”

Nux exclaimed with a big smile on his face.

This time, he was actually happy.

Evane didn't impose any rules on him, this meant that she looked at him in a positive light.

That is a good piece of news.

Of course, that doesn't mean he can just barge into her room whenever he wanted, he needs to keep up a good image, therefore, he needs to take things slowly.

Just like he always does.

Slow and steady wins the race after all.

“Alright, I still have some work to do, so I will be leaving, you can check your room or you can join other classes. It is all up to you.”

“Yes Teacher.”

Nux nodded with a smile on his face and Teacher Evane finally left.

Normally, the Decade Two Prodigy class have to attend Four classes, however, other than Evane's class, the rest of the classes are taken by male teachers, therefore, Nux didn't bother going into their class.

It's not like he can learn something from someone who is weaker than him.

It is pretty much a waste of time.

It is better to do something else now that he has time,

A small smile then appeared on Nux's face as he walked out and found a friend,

“Senior Manya,”

Nux waved,

“Oh C’mon, didn’t I tell you to call me Manya? We are in the same Decade after all~”

“Hahaha~” Nux laughed.

“So? Are we roaming around today as well?”

“Of course,”

“Hahaha~ You look happy for some reason,”

“What? Is that a bad thing?”

“Of course not.”

The two of them talked and then continued to move around the academy.

After that, Senior Manya went to her duty and Nux started hanging out with Anna and some other girls.

No, he was not just wasting his time here.

Well, hanging out with girls was a reason as well,

But the main reason is that he was trying to find someone.

However, no matter how much he tries and uses his [Sense], for some reason, he cannot find the Head Master of the Royal Academy.

That is what bothered him a little.

Well, that is not the only reason why he was hanging around,

He needs to look after some other things, information about Arvina Skyfall, for example.

His plan had started after...

...

'...Ugghh... this is boring...' Allura muttered as she glanced at her ceiling with a bored look on her face.

'Tsk Tsk, what a pervert, to think you would act like this within a day...' Edda snorted.

'Don't act like you are any better...' Allura complained.

'Sister Edda, you shouldn't call someone else a pervert.' Skyla nodded her head.

'Indeed, anyone can call me a pervert, but not you... I won't be able to hear it if it comes from your mouth...' Lane nodded in agreement as well.

'See that? Skyla and Lane understands!' seeing that the two of them were supporting her, Allura smiled.

'Tsk Tsk, so what? At least I am honest with my feelings~' Seeing that the three of them teamed up against her, Edda snorted.

'Indeed, being honest with your feelings is a lot better than just lying around, in the bed without doing anything.' Thyra muttered.

Of course, all the girls knew that this was an indirect jab toward Allura.

'Hmph! At least it is better than having small bre-'

Allura wanted to use her usual weapon, however, she turned silent when she realized that one of her team members will be affected by her attack as well.

'Guys... can you shut up, I am still working you know...' Felberta complained.

'You know you can shut off the telepathic connection, right?' Edda questioned.

‘...’ Felberta turned silent.

Of course, she knew that.

But she was scared that she would miss something interesting if she did that.

‘Guys... I was wondering...’ Suddenly, Edda muttered.

‘What?’ Allura questioned.

‘What do you think about Eightsome?’

Chapter 242

‘What do you think about Eightsome?’

‘...’

‘...’

‘...’

Edda questioned and her question was met by complete silence, no one spoke until Allura decided to break that deafening silence.

‘A pervert indeed.’

‘As expected of Sister Edda.’ Skyla nodded her head.

‘Indeed, I think only Edda has the guts to say something like that...’ Felberta nodded her head as well.

‘Never. I will never do an Eightsome! Let alone eight, I won’t do a threesome either!’

Amaya was the one who spoke.

‘Tsk Tsk, why are you so against it?’ Edda questioned.

‘Hmph! Nux is mine! Only mine!’

I know I can’t have him all to myself since he will keep attracting hoes like you, but when we are on the same bed,

Nux is only mine!’

Amaya retorted.

Right now, Nux's women were talking to each other with the Telepathic connection provided by Harem Seal.

Yes, all 7 women were talking to each other.

It will take some time before they all meet, therefore, this was indeed a good idea.

Who started it?

Surprisingly, it was Amaya.

Apparently, the woman contacted everyone to ask about Nux's likes and dislikes. Soon, the discussion went so deep that even Nux's women were confused, therefore, they started discussing it among themselves.

More and more women then joined the discussion and eventually, it evolved into this.

Amaya called it Harem Meet.

And Harem Meet only had one rule,

Nux wasn't allowed to join it.

It was the girls' secret meeting behind his back.

Of course, what the girls didn't know was that Nux already knew about this meeting.

Who told him?

It was these girls.

They promised each other not to tell anything about it to Nux, however, whenever they were alone, all of them told him about it, showing that they were the only ones who were on his side and asking for extra rewards.

They just cannot hide anything from Nux at all.

‘Tsk Tsk, we were his women before you, okay? You are the one who should be called a hoe for coming and sharing our man!’ Edda retorted.

Amaya, of course, decided to ignore this statement.

She won’t speak if she is in a disadvantageous position.

She was not that dumb.

‘Ughhh... you guys... how was last night...?’ Allura questioned and again, everyone turned silent.

‘...’

‘...’

‘...’

‘Bad...’ This time, Lane decided to break the silence.

‘Bad indeed...’

‘Ughhh... I need Nux...’ Edda groaned.

‘I need Nux... all for myself...’ _____ muttered. (Guess who it is.)

‘Tsk Tsk, just look at you guys, can’t you control yourself just a little it has only been a day, how are you guys going to survive for a whole week?’ Thyra couldn’t help but shake her head in disappointment.

‘You are right...’

A week is a little too long...’ Skylar pouted.

‘Too long indeed...’ Lane nodded as well.

‘I am sure he must have his reasons. You guys know him as well, he would never do something like this without a proper reason.’

Remember, the Academy has a King Stage Expert holding the ground, he needs to be a little more cautious since we don't know if [Conceal] would work or not.' Thyra muttered with a serious look on her face.

Yes, after joining the academy, Nux informed all his women that he won't leave the academy and visit them for a week since there is something he has to deal with.

Of course, although the women groaned, they understood that things might be a little tricky and nodded.

'Yes... I understand...' Felberta nodded.

'Sister Thyra... you can think logically like this, I am very impressed... you are indeed worthy of being my teacher...' Skyla praised and a small smile appeared on Thyra's face.

'Hmph! What's so great about that? Remember, I stayed alone for 3 whole weeks!' Allura snorted.

'That is praiseworthy indeed... Allura, my respect for you has increased a little...' Amaya muttered.

'So what? We stayed without him for a month.' Felberta lifted her chest in pride while she continued reading the documents in front of her.

Seeing her sudden act, Joyab frowned in confusion.

However, then he decided to shake his head and ignore it.

It wasn't the first time Lady Felberta is acting like this.

Ever since she met that bastard, she has been acting weirdly, actually, he is just happy that she is actually doing her work now.

'Indeed, we controlled ourselves for a month.' Lane and Skyla nodded.

'Hey... What do you guys think about Sister Arvina?'

Suddenly, Skylia questioned.

‘You are already calling her Sister huh...’ Amaya noticed.

‘Of course, you think she can resist Nux?’ Skylia questioned.

‘Well, she is known to be a man-hater.’ Amaya countered.

‘You think she can resist Nux?’ Skylia questioned again.

‘No...’ Amaya admitted.

‘So Sister Arvina it is...’ Skylia smiled cheerfully.

‘So? What do you guys think about her?’ She questioned again.

‘As I said before, she is known to be a man-hater and loves fighting.’
Amaya, who knew the most about her informed.

‘She is an Expert Stage Cultivator, right?’ Edda questioned.

‘Yes, she is.’ Amaya nodded.

‘So is it safe to assume that Nux will become an Expert Stage Cultivator soon?’ Edda questioned.

‘Yes,’ Amaya nodded again.

‘Hehe~ Sister Thyra, your title as the strongest will be taken away soon~’
Suddenly, Skylia chuckled.

‘...’

Thyra however, didn’t answer and stayed silent.

Felberta sensed something and decided to change the topic,

‘Amaya, what do you know about Evane Skyfall? Nux has his eyes on her as well.’

‘Tsk Tsk, what a perverted womanizer.’ Edda snorted.

‘Indeed.’

‘Mhm, he is a pervert.’

‘Tsk Tsk, my bad luck that I fell in love with a pervert.’

All of the women agreed.

‘It doesn’t matter, it is his charm but you guys just won’t understand.’

‘She’s a gone case indeed.’ Allura couldn’t help but shake her head when she heard Amaya’s words.

‘Love makes one blind,’ Skyla muttered like an old man who has lived all his life and is now teaching life lessons to others.

‘It won’t.’

Suddenly, Thyra muttered.

‘Huh? What?’

‘My Title as the strongest,

It is not going anywhere.’

Chapter 243

‘My Title as the strongest,

It is not going anywhere.’

Thyra muttered as her eyes shined in determination.

Although the rest of the women couldn’t see her face, they could still feel the strength and confidence behind those words.

‘I will become an Expert Stage Cultivator before Nux can meet Arvina and then... then...’ suddenly, Thyra’s voice turned weak and she mumbled.

‘Then he will become an Expert Stage Cultivator with m-my help.’

‘I really want to see your face right now, Sister Thyra’ Skyla muttered.

‘Yeah, she must be as red as a tomato. Fufufu~’ Edda chuckled.

‘Tsk Tsk, to think someone like her would have such a cute side to her...’ Allura commented.

The rest of the girls passed their comments as well, however, deep inside their hearts, they all acknowledged Thyra’s words and hoped that her words come true.

Even Allura, whose relationship with Thyra wasn’t the best was thinking the same thing as was wishing for her success.

‘I believe in you, Sister Thyra.’ Lane muttered.

‘Thank you, Sister Lane.’ Thyra nodded with a small smile on her face.

She then rolled over her bed and her smile widened.

She was imagining how Nux would act when she appear in front of him as an Expert Stage Cultivator.

*Bam*

Suddenly, Thyra heard a voice and quickly came out of her reverie.

She quickly sat up and noticed that Skyla had entered her room and she was looking at her with a smile on her face.

‘Tsk Tsk, she is indeed red like a tomato. She’s rolling on her bed while thinking about lewd stuff’ Skyla informed all others.

‘W-Why are you inside my room!?’ Thyra questioned.

‘Hehe~ I can’t miss it now, can I?’ Skyla smiled adorably.

‘You...!’

Then, Thyra quickly dashed towards Skyla and Skyla froze.

‘You guys~ Save me~’ She asked for help.

Although her cultivation was the same as Thyra’s, the gap between their skills was too wide, she was not even close to Thyra when it came to strength.

Of course, none of the girls helped her either.

All they did was break the connection with Thyra and Skyla and continued their conversation.

‘Amaya, when are you going to carry on with your plan?’ Suddenly, Allura questioned in a solemn tone.

‘...soon.’ Amaya answered in a serious voice.

‘Don’t waste too much time, it has already been a week now, the more you push it, the more suspicious will you become.’ Allura muttered.

‘Yes, I know. I will initiate my plan 2 days later.’ Amaya answered and Allura nodded.

‘That’s good, don’t waste too much time and... be careful...’ Edda muttered as well.

‘Yes... be careful... don’t hesitate to use your power if you need...’ Lane suggested as well.

‘Ask for help if you want, although we are not very strong, we aren’t weak either.’ Felberta muttered.

‘Don’t worry, I am sure I won’t need your help.’ Amaya answered with a confident smile on her face.

‘It’s not like any of my plans have ever failed before.’

‘Tsk Tsk, how arrogant.’ Felberta snorted.

‘It is only arrogance when you can’t back it up.’

‘Sure Sure.’

‘Hey... I was just wondering...’

Suddenly, Edda muttered.

‘What?’

‘What do you guys think about Eightsome?’

‘...’

‘...’

‘...’

‘Ahh, Sister Felberta, are you finished with your work?’ Allura questioned.

‘No... I still need to work for 3 more hours before I get my break...

Ughh... this is tiring...’ Felberta answered.

‘Is there any way I can help, Sister Fel?’ Lane questioned.

‘No need... I can do this on my own...’ Felberta answered.

Yes, they decided to completely ignore Edda.

That was the wisest decision possible.

Thyra and Skyla joined the conversation a few minutes later as well and all the women continued to talk to each other.

This was how Nux’s women spent their time when Nux wasn’t here, each doing whatever they were doing while talking with each other through telepathic connection.

The Harem Meeting was quite an interesting meeting indeed.

Of course, more members would join this meeting in the near future.

...

The next day, in the morning, Nux was sitting inside his class and unlike what usually happens, today he was surrounded by the boys who were trying to talk to him.

“Hey, tell us, tell us! How did you manage to sleep knowing that Teacher Evane is sleeping inside the room next to yours?”

“Yeah? Did you feel your heart racing? Did you feel that your heart would just explode right away?”

“Did you enter Teacher Evane’s room? Did you see her in a dress other than her usual attire?”

The boys continued to shoot questions at Nux and he frowned.

“I don’t know what you guys are talking about but knowing that Teacher Evane was sleeping in a room next to me filled my heart with a sense of security and I had a good sleep.”

“...”

Hearing his answer, the boys turned silent.

“Oi... you think you can fool us like that? You are the last person who would have such innocent thoughts in his mind!

Stop acting and tell us how it was!”

“I seriously don’t know what you guys are talking about. I am not lying about anything.” Nux, however, just shook his head.

“You thin-”

“Alright you guys, this is enough, you should leave him alone.” Anna, who noticed that Nux was a little uncomfortable, decided to interfere.

“Yes, Nux is not like you perverts, don’t spoil his innocent mind with your presence.”

“Indeed, you guys should just shoo away, you perverts. Don’t disturb him.”

The other girls decided to not let Anna gain advantage and stepped forward as well.

“Yes, I have no clue what you guys are talking about, you guys should leave.” Nux nodded his head as well.

The faces of the boys in the classroom twitched in annoyance.

Nux, however, didn’t care about them and turned toward the girls,

“You guys are free today in the afternoon, right?”

“Of course, we can’t miss our usual walk around the Academy now, can we?” One of the girls answered.

Nux smiled.

“Inde-”

*Bam*

However, just as he was about to nod, the doors of the classroom were smashed open and a beautiful, blue-haired girl entered the classroom.

Seeing the girl, a smile appeared on Nux’s face.

‘Heh. So you finally decided to come here huh...

As I expected.’

Chapter 244

*Bam*

The doors of the classroom were burst open and a beautiful, blue-haired girl entered. Just like her hair, her eyes were blue as well, combined with her light pink lips and well-structured face, the girl's beauty topped every single female student that was present inside the classroom.

"It's Lady Candice!" (Picture in Paragraph comments)

"Wow, why is she in our class?"

"Who knows? But we sure are lucky today, aren't we?"

Female and male students alike, all of them glanced at Candice as their eyes shined brightly.

Even Anna wasn't any different,

"Why is Lady Candice here?" She wondered inwardly just like every other student.

Candice, however, completely ignored these murmurs and looked around.

"Who is Nux Leander?" She questioned.

Nux, however, did not answer.

Of course, him answering or not did not matter.

There were countless people in the class who wanted to get into Candice's good books.

"He, he is Nux Leander." One of the boys pointed at Nux.

Candice then turned towards Nux and observed him closely,

“Are you Nux Leander?”

A small smile then appeared on Nux’s face as he answered,

“Girl, I think we should get to know each other first. I understand that I am handsome and all, but think about all this from my perspective, I do not even know who you are.

How can I accept your proposal?

I think we should start by being friends.”

“...” Candice Waters turned silent.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

The whole class turned silent as well.

Candice, who couldn’t believe her ears questioned,

“W-What did you say?”

“Oh C’mon, don’t act like you are heartbroken.

I am not rejecting your love, I just said that we should get to know each other.”

“You think I am here to confess my love to you?” Candice questioned.

“I mean, isn’t that the only reason you would approach me for? I don’t know who you are, we have never met before, so I believe the only logical conclusion is that you somehow saw me and were entranced by my good-looking face. Then you couldn't control yourself and came to me to confess your love and give yourself to me.

Oh, and don't be too embarrassed, it is not the first time something like this has happened, although other women weren't as bold as you to barge in directly into my class, they still proposed to me when I was alone.

So don't worry, you are not alone." Nux answered and then calmed her down with a gentle smile on his face.

He was an Expert in knowing how to win a girl's heart.

However, his magic did not seem to have worked on Candice as her eyes turned cold and she questioned.

"Do you even know who you are talking to?"

"Are you the daughter of the King?" Nux questioned with a smile.

"Huh? No, of course not."

"Daughter of the Academy's Head Master?"

"No."

"Daughter of the General of the Skyfall Kingdom?"

"...No"

"Any of the Dukes?"

"...No I am not."

"A Marquee?"

"Yes,"

"I see." Nux nodded and then, he frowned.

“If you are just a daughter of a mere Marquee, then how the fuck am I supposed to know who you are?”

“ ... ”

Again, the entire class turned silent.

‘Where the fuck do you get the confidence of saying that when you yourself are nothing but a commoner?’

Some of the students thought inside their minds and cursed.

“My name is Candice Water, Decade Three, Prodigy Class.”

Candice calmed herself down and introduced herself.

She didn’t share the name of her father or her noble rank when she introduced herself.

Her message was clear,

I do not need to be a Daughter of a Marquee to be someone special. Everyone else knows me here by my name, because of who I am, not because of my status.

A commendable way of thinking, however,

Nux just didn’t care.

“Nux Leander, a commoner and an orphan.”

‘One really needs high-level guts to introduce yourself as a commoner after acting like that...’ The students couldn’t help but comment.

‘Arrogant fucker.’

‘Know your place, commoner.’

All the students, especially boys started cursing Nux in their hearts.

“Are you the one who assaulted Myrill Bourkee yesterday?” Candice questioned.

“Are you here for that incident?” Nux questioned.

Inside his head, he was patting himself for working so hard.

Attacking and bullying Myrill was satisfying, but he didn't do it just because he wanted fun.

His main target was Candide Waters.

Candice Water is known to be someone who is very overprotective of her subordinates.

Therefore, bullying Myrill was a straight challenge to Candice.

She had to come here.

And that is what Nux needed.

As to why he is targetting Candice, heh...

He had his reasons.

“Yes,” Candice nodded.

“Hmm... Ah wait! Are you that Candice Water!?” suddenly, Nux's eyes widened in surprise.

“Do you recognise me now?” Candice questioned with a small, satisfied smile on her face.

“No. Never heard of someone like that in my entire life.”

Nux then shook his head and Candice's face twitched in frustration.

“So are you a Decade Three student?” Nux questioned.

“Yes, I am.”

“Ahh, then you must be new in this Academy just like me.

I am sorry to tell you, but this is Decade Two, Prodigy Class.

To get to Decade Three, you walk out of this classroom, then you turn left, then a right, then another right,

And then you ask someone else where the Decade Three Class is because I do not know that as well.”

“...”

Candice’s lips twitched in frustration and anger as she glared at Nux with hatred.

“Hey Hey, don’t look at me like that, as I said, I am new here as well, I know this Academy as much as you do.”

Nux shook his head and shrugged.

“Don’t change the topic and answer my question.

Are you the one who assaulted Myrill Bourkee?” Candice controlled her anger and questioned again.

“Wait... are you and Myril-” Nux wanted to change the topic again and waste a little more time, however, his [Sense] quickly picked what he was waiting for and a small smile appeared on his face.

“Are you here for the matter regarding Myrill?”

“Yes and I don’t want you to ask any questions now, I will be the one asking.

Are you the one who assaulted Myrill yesterday?” Candice, who didn’t have an ounce of good impression of Nux in her mind questioned in a strict tone.

Nux, however, just smiled and questioned back.

“Are you talking about the incident where Myrill tried to attack me and was then got thrashed by me?”

Chapter 245

“Are you talking about the incident where Myrill tried to attack me and was then got thrashed by me?”

Nux questioned with a small smile on his face.

Candice narrowed her eyes and questioned,

“Are you admitting that you are the one behind it?”

“Hmm? Of course not, I was merely defending myself.” Nux answered.

“Oh? You were just defending yourself, then how did Myrill end up with a Medic?”

“Because he was weak? I mean, we two fought each other, it is obvious that the weaker one would end up in the care of a medic, is it not?”

“So you are admitting that you fought against Myrill?” A small smile appeared on Candice’s face as she questioned.

“Why? You think I was in the wrong?” Nux questioned back.

“You not only fought against your classmate, you even dared to use a Skill inside the classroom and gravely injure your classmate. Of course, you are in the wrong.”

“Hmm hmm,” Nux nodded and then questioned again.

“So you think I am wrong and I should be punished? Is that correct?”

“Yes, you gravely injured your classmate, so you should be punished. According to me, you should be expelled from the academy for breaking the rules, however, before that, you should be forced to pay for all the medical fees that will be required for Myrill’s treatment.

Of course, I know that you are just a commoner and can't pay that astronomical amount of money, so I suggest you take a loan."

"Ahh, so you want me to take a loan and then pay for it for the rest of my life?"

"That should be the least you should do after doing something so horrible." Candice nodded. Her idealistic way of thinking was indeed a little... messed up.

"So, let me get this clear, you think that I was the one who was wrong, and you are here to serve justice?"

"Yes, that is correct."

Candice nodded.

Then, a small smile appeared on Nux's face as he commented,

"I didn't know students of the Academy are smarter and more knowledgeable than the teachers."

"Huh? What do you mean?" Candice questioned.

"Do you not realize it yet?" Nux questioned.

"What?"

"Why do you think I am still here in the academy after 'breaking a rule'?"

This is because the Teacher who was in charge of our classroom didn't think that I was wrong." Nux questioned and then answered at the same time.

Then, his smile widened and he questioned again,

"So? Candice Water, do you think that my Teacher's decision was wrong?"

Do you think that my teacher is a fool who cannot distinguish between right and wrong?"

"..."

Candice frowned.

"That is not what I meant..." She muttered.

"Oh? Then can you explain what you meant, Candice Water? Because from what I deduce, I can tell that you do not approve of my decision at all."

Candice's eyes widened in surprise when she heard another voice behind her back.

She then turned around and saw Teacher Evane standing at the door looking at her with narrowed eyes.

"T-Teacher Evane... t-that is not what I meant..."

Nux smiled.

Heh, he wasn't wasting all that time without any reason, he was waiting for Teacher Evane to come and protect him.

He can't show all his cards here after all.

"Mhm, then please explain what you meant, Candice Water."

Teacher Evane smiled however then, her eyes turned cold.

"You have the audacity to enter my classroom and then blame my student for something that he had not done.

Who do you think you are!?"

"..."

The whole class turned silent.

This was the first time they had seen Teacher Evane being this angry in the last 6-7 years.

“T-Teacher E-Evane...”

“What?”

“I-I was just here s-since I felt like...”

“Since you felt like what? That my decision was wrong?”

“N-No. I-I just believe that things could have been done in a better way.

N-Nux Leander did not have to attack Myrill Bourkee, I heard that he easily subdued Myrill, but even after that, he first broke his ankle and then used Fire Burst against him.

I believe that the Academy should take action against him and his violent behaviour.”

Candice tried to explain herself.

“Do you even realize what you are talking about?” Teacher Evane narrowed her eyes.

“Myrill Bourkee tried to Kill Nux! How do you expect him to be in a normal mental state after barely surviving like that!?”

“Teacher Evane, we still don’t have something that proves that Myrill Bourkee was after Nux Leander’s life.”

Candice countered.

“Oh? So you have proof proving that Nux was too violent against Myrill, however, you do not have the proof of Myrill using a Fire Burst spell when the two of them were just 10 cm away from each other?”

“I do know that happened, Teacher Evane. But we don’t know for sure that that attack would be life-threatening for Nux Leander.” Candice countered again.

“So you are telling me that you, a Student who has an affinity with Water Element know more about the Fire Burst Spell than me, a Teacher who has an affinity with Fire Element?” Teacher Evane raised her eyebrow.

“I-I...” Candice had no answers to her questions and she turned silent.

“Candice Water, I do not know who gave you the galls to enter my classroom and do whatever you please, however, know this.

Skyfall Royal Academy is not your playground.

Know your place.”

Teacher Evane bellowed in anger.

Candice lowered her head in shame and gritted her teeth in anger.

“Now get out of my class before I kick you out of this academy!” Teacher Evane shouted. She was truly enraged today.

“...”

However, instead of doing what she was ordered, Candice just stood there, motionlessly.

Seeing this, Teacher Evane was even more annoyed.

“Did you not hear what I said!?”

She bellowed in rage.

“...you can't do it.”

Suddenly, Candice mumbled.

“What did you say?” Teacher Evane frowned in confusion and questioned.

“I said you cannot do it.

You cannot kick me out of this school, no matter how hard you try.

You do not have the power to do so.”

Candice raised her head and glared at Teacher Evane.

Chapter 246

“I said you cannot do it.

You cannot kick me out of this school, no matter how hard you try.

You do not have the power to do so.”

Candice raised her head and glared at Teacher Evane.

“Do not forget Teacher Evane, a single teacher cannot kick a student from the academy.

Also, don’t give me all that surname bullshit.

I very well know that you are a Skyfall. The Princess of our Kingdom.

However, my Teacher is a Skyfall as well.

Therefore, no teacher will side with you even if you use your Status because in the end, compared to a talented 22-year-old Master Stage Cultivator and the Future Pillar of the Kingdom, no one would be stupid enough to choose an 80-year-old Grand Master Stage Cultivator who has used up all her potential and can’t bring any value to the Kingdom other than teaching a few Advance Stage Cultivators!”

“ ... ”

Candice spat viciously and Teacher Evane turned silent.

This time, the Students in the classroom frowned.

If it was anything else, they would support Candice, the Queen of the Royal Academy with all their heart, however, this time, she was against their Teacher.

And not a normal teacher, but the nicest teacher.

Although Teacher Evane was a princess and had a very high social standing compared to all the students, she has never been arrogant about it and treated every student gently. She treated students even better than other teachers do.

The students respected her a lot as well.

Therefore, now that the Queen of the Academy was standing against their teacher, they like it one bit.

A thought that Nux shared with the rest of his classmates.

“The teacher you are talking about, is it Teacher Arvina Skyfall?” Nux questioned as he walked in front of Evane.

“Huh? You are rather well informed huh...” Candice smiled.

“Yes, I am well informed about certain things, therefore, I want to ask, are you sure you want to involve Teacher Arvina Skyfall in this mess?”

“Huh? What do you mean?” Candice frowned.

“First, you barged into Teacher Evane’s class, then, you blamed one of her students and challenged her decision.

As if this was not enough, you even dared to point your finger against Teacher Evane and called her ‘someone who has used all her potential’ and mocked her job as her teacher.

Does that mean you feel the same way for your teacher as well?

Do you feel that your teacher, an Expert Stage Cultivator isn’t bringing any value to the kingdom other than teaching a bunch of children?”

Nux questioned, he then walked towards Candice and narrowed his eyes,

“Are you sure you want Teacher Arvina Skyfall to hear this?”

“I-I never said anything like this! You are just moulding my words!”
Candice stepped back and pointed her finger at Nux.

“You may have not said anything about Teacher Arvina, but doesn’t your words already tell what you think about all the teachers in general?”

To be honest, I pity Teacher Arvina, she went as far as to take you as her personal student, however, this is how low you think of her.

Dissapointing indeed.”

Nux shook his head and sighed.

“Alright, let’s do this, let’s call Teacher Arvina here and have a big, lengthy discussion about what happened.”

Nux suggested and then he turned towards Anna,

“Anna, can you please go and call teacher Arvina here.”

“Y-Yes, right away!” Anna nodded and just as she was about to rush out of class, Candice shouted.

“Wait!”

Anna paused.

Candice then completely ignored Nux and walked towards Teacher Evane,

Then, she bowed her head and apologized.

“Teacher Evane, I apologize for what I said in a fit of anger.

I am still immature and would request you to be a bigger person and forgive me.

I promise you that I will learn to control my emotions and keep my words in check.

I really did not mean what I said before, again, I apologize.”

“Alright, I forgive you. You can leave my class now, I need to continue with my lecture.” Evane sighed.

Did she forgive her?

Of course not.

However, she had to teach.

She doesn't have any time to waste on a 20-year-old child.

“Yes, Teacher Evane. Thank you very much.”

Candice bowed her head again and then she walked away.

However, before she left, she glanced at Nux, who just smiled at her provocatively, she gritted her teeth in annoyance and then left the classroom.

Today, she had taken a big hit on her pride.

She, Candice Water, the Queen of the Royal Academy, the Future Pillar of the Skyfall Kingdom, had to bow her head in front of an entire classroom.

A shameful act indeed.

And this was all because of one student.

One puny Advance Stage commoner.

Earlier, she just wanted him to pay the price for attacking her subordinate, however now, now everything is personal.

Candice wasn't planning to let that boy go with just a lifelong debt.

Now, everything would be a lot worse than before.

“Keep an eye on that student named Nux Leander.

As soon as he makes one single mistake, report it to me.” She ordered the boy who had joined her after she left the classroom.

“Yes, Lady Candice.”

...

On the other side, Teacher Evane continued with her lecture, however, with how she was delivering her lecture, it was clear that Candice’s words have affected her in some way.

The students, however, couldn’t do anything about it and just look at each other helplessly.

The class continued for more and then,

“Alright, this will be it for today, we will continue this from tomorrow. Have a good day ahead, everyone.”

Teacher Evane muttered with a small smile on her face.

However, just as she was about to leave, Nux raised his hand.

“Teacher Evane, I tumbled into a problem when I was using Fire Burst Skill yesterday, can you help me with it?” Nux questioned.

“Hmm? You learned it already?”

“Of course, I used it against Myrill yesterday, did you forget?” Nux answered with a smile.

It was only then that most of the students realized what had happened.

‘This fucking monster... he learned a 2-Star Skill in just 2 days...

This is absurd!’

Even Teacher Evane was shocked still.

“Teacher Evane, can you help me with it?” Nux questioned again.

“A-Ah, sure. Come to my office, I will help you if I can.”

Chapter 247

“A-Ah, sure. Come to my office, I will help you if I can.”

Although she was confused about how Nux did it so quickly, Teacher Evan quickly came out of her reverie and nodded.

It doesn't matter how he did it, rather, it is a good thing that he is talented,

Her student achieving higher heights is something that will fill her heart with happiness.

Of course, she knows that someone as talented as Nux won't remain her student for long but she would still feel satisfied as long as she had a 'hand' in his growth.

“Alright, thank you very much, Teacher Evane.” Nux boomed in joy and just as he was about to follow Teacher Evane, a boy stood up.

“Teacher Evane, I am also facing some difficulties with Fire Burst Skill, I would like to come with Nux and learn from you as well.”

Nux turned towards the boy and noticed that the boy was looking at him with narrowed eyes.

His expression was clear,

‘You bastard, you already live in the room right next to hers, now you even dare to spend some time alone with her in her office!? Over my dead body!’

Nux's mouth twitched in annoyance.

There are really too many hindrances in this class.

Soon, however, a small smile appeared on his face and he countered, “Ahh, David, you know, the thing is, I only got this Skill 2 days ago, you have been here for a long time now, it is obvious that your mastery over the Skill would be a lot better than mine.

I don't think this session will help you in any way.

I suggest you go to teacher Evane tomorrow or any other day.”

The boy named David smiled as well,

“Ah, no, no, that can't be true. I am not very good with this Skill either, also, I have seen you use this technique yesterday, I am pretty sure you are around my level.

So I am sure this session with helping me a lot, don't worry about it.”

His smile widened when he completed his sentence.

‘How is that sucker!?! You think you can send me away!?!’

David was sure that Nux had no way to reject him now.

Of course, what he didn't know was that he was against someone who has never lost a battle of words.

“Oh, c'mon David, you don't have to act so humble in front of me.

You aren't saying that you, who have been training and learning this skill for so many years now, have the same level of mastery as someone like me, who only got this skill 2 days ago, are you?”

Then, Nux's smile widened as he questioned,

“You can't be that big of a trash, can you?”

David's mouth twitched in annoyance when he heard those words.

‘T-This bastard...’

“Of course, you aren’t that bad, right, David?” Nux smiled even more.

“Y-Yeah... I guess I should stop being humble... Teacher Evane, since Classmate Nux was the first one to ask you, I will back off today and will ask my questions at a later date.”

David turned towards Teacher Evane and forced a smile.

Then, he glanced at Nux and snorted in frustration.

That bastard was really too good with words!

‘Tsk Tsk! Hateful man!’

The last thing he can do is admit that he was trash.

His life would become a living hell if he does that.

In the end, David just sat down on his seat with a dejected look on his face.

Nux smiled and then he walked towards Teacher Evane and smiled,

“Teacher Evane, I will be following you then,”

“Alright.” Teacher Evane smiled and under David’s jealous gaze, Nux and Teacher Evane left the classroom.

...

“Nux...” As the two of them entered Teacher Evane’s office, she muttered.

“Yes, what is it, Teacher Evane?”

“Thank you for standing up for me today.” Teacher Evane smiled and Nux was taken aback.

She really was too beautiful.

“You do not have to mention that, Teacher Evane.

I just couldn't stand the fact that she had the galls to say all that to you, my saviour.

I will do the same thing I did if I have to, no one says anything disrespectful to my teacher and gets away with it.”

Nux snorted.

Teacher Evane smiled, however, then, she warned,

“But you have to be careful against that girl, okay? She is quite popular in this Academy.

Also, she is incredibly strong and talented.

I am sure you must have heard about her.”

A small smile appeared on Nux's face as he questioned,

“You will protect me if something happens, right, Teacher Evane?”

Evane then shook her head and chuckled,

“Don't depend on me you fool. You should just be careful and not mess with her anymore.”

Nux chuckled as well,

“Hahaha~

Don't worry Teacher Evane, I am a very careful person. I won't do something reckless.”

Evane seriously doubted what Nux just said, however, she didn't say anything out loud and continued,

“Alright, so what is your question?”

“Ah right,” Nux then recalled what he was here for and smiled.

“So the thing is, I know that Fire Burst Spell is strong.

Very strong, I have seen its effect first hand.

However, there are too many problems with it.

First, it takes too much Mana.

Second, it takes too much time.

I am trying to adjust it somehow but I am unable to come up with a way...”

“You are already thinking of using it efficiently huh...” Evane raised her eyebrow in surprise.

“Alright, I understand, you are correct about those faults.

Fire Burst indeed takes too much Time and Mana, however, there is a way to reduce that.

Have you learned the 1-Star Skill, Fire Ball?”

Evane questioned.

“Yes, I have.”

“Good, it will be easier then,

So what you can do is that rather than making a huge Fireball from the start, you can start with a simple Fireball, then, while you shoot, you can inject more Mana into it so that it will burst when it collides with your target.

Though this does sound like nothing special, it will help you a lot if you master it.”

Nux, however, just frowned in confusion.

“I do not understand what you are trying to say, Teacher Evane.”

“Alright, I guess that would be too complicated for someone who just started learning this technique,

Let me slow it down a little.”

Chapter 248

For the next few hours, Nux and Evane continued to talk about Fire Burst and how to use it efficiently.

And the more they talked, the more impressed Nux got.

Initially, he thought there he won't be able to learn anything major and just wanted to spend some time with Evane so that she gets more comfortable around him.

However, soon, Nux realized something.

Evane has mastered the Fire Burst Skill, a 2-Star Skill to Big Achievement Level.

This was something that almost no Grand Master Stage Cultivator would do.

2-Star Skills simply weren't worth the effort.

It would be a lot better to learn a better, higher grade Skill.

However, Evane still continued to learn it just so she could teach it to her students and help them in some way.

A commendable attitude indeed.

Evane's image in Nux's heart rose by another level today.

However, no matter what, Nux still had to end this conversation.

“Ahh... Teacher Evane... I think I understand it now...”

He had already achieved his goal, he should act cautiously now so that he does not ruin his future plan.

“Good job.” Evane nodded with a smile.

“Teacher Evane, I should leave now. I think I can increase my strength with this! It is a big discovery!” Nux exclaimed as his eyes shined with unconcealed happiness and excitement.

“Alright, I also have to take a class, you should leave now.”

Evane chuckled as she saw him acting so excited.

He was indeed an innocent and curious student.

She liked him a little.

“Alright, Teacher Evane! Thank you for your help!

You are the best teacher ever!”

Nux exclaimed and then quickly left the office.

Evane’s smile widened when she heard his words and then, she sighed.

“Haahh... He is quick to catch on to things and is eager to learn more...

He is a good student...”

Then, Teacher Evane closed her eyes for a little while and took a 15 minutes rest.

...

Time passed, and Nux, who was in his room continued to learn and experiment with the Fire Burst Skill.

He didn’t exactly care about this Skill, however, he required it for the next set of his plans, therefore, he worked hard for it.

Just like this, 8 hours passed by and Nux finally stood up.

He then stretched his body and glanced outside the window.

It was already night and the moon was out.

A smile appeared on Nux's face.

'Perfect timing.'

He then left his room and knocked on the room next door.

“Knock* *Knock* *Knock*”

A few seconds later, Evane, who was wearing her pale yellow coloured nightgown opened the door and frowned.

“Nux? What happened? Why are you here?”

Nux's eyes shined in delight as he exclaimed,

“Teacher! I was finally able to do what you said! I used the fireball before using Fire Burs-” Suddenly, Nux realized something.

“Ahh, Teacher, I apologize, I was a little too excited and curious so I came here without noticing the time.

I apologize for disturbing you.” He bowed.

“...”

Evane turned silent.

Normally, she wouldn't talk to a student at a time like this, since, obviously, she needs to take out time for herself.

However, for some reason, seeing Nux's excited face, Evane couldn't control herself and muttered,

“Would you like to discuss it inside my room?”

“Huh?” Nux frowned and raised his head in confusion.

“I mean, you are excited to share what you learned with me, correct?”

“I am excited, but I understand it is time for your rest, you work hard for the whole day, I shouldn’t bother you at the night.”

Evane smiled and shook her head,

“Don’t worry, good students are never a bother for a teacher.

Also, I am curious to see what you have learned as well.

Now come into my room, we should not disturb other teachers.”

Nux’s smile widened and he nodded.

“Teacher Evane, you are the best teacher in the Academy.”

Evane chuckled and then, the two of them entered her room.

Nux then started looking around and noticed that there were lots of painting on the walls, then, his eyes fell on a painting on a canvas and paints and his eyes widened in surprise.

“Teacher Evane, you painted that!?”

“I did. Do you like it?”

“What about the paintings over there and the ones on the walls? Did you paint them as well?”

“I painted them all,” Evane nodded.

“Teacher Evane... although I do not know much about the paintings, but I can say for certainty that these are the best paintings I have ever seen in my life.”

“Hahaha~ You don’t have to lie to me like that. These are not that good.” Evane chuckled. Normally, she would ignore compliments like these since most of them are made to please her because of her status, however, this time, for some reason, she actually felt good for being praised like that.

“I do not lie, Teacher Evane. Your paintings are really good.” Nux shook his head.

“Alright Alright, let’s not talk about this right now. You were here because you wanted to show what you learned, correct? Let’s start, I am curious as well.”

Evane changed the topic.

She was bad at taking compliments even though she is a princess.

Nux smiled when he noticed that and nodded.

“Alright,”

Then, a Fireball appeared on the top of his hand and he continued,

“As you said, we shouldn’t make a big fireball from the start.

Fire Burst is a Skill where you solidify a great amount of Mana and then cover it with Fire, then you shoot it on your target, and once it collides, all the Mana explodes.

However, just like you said, the better way to use it is to make a Fireball, then inject more Mana into it and,”

Nux then injected Mana into the Fireball he created and it shot towards the door.

“Boom.

Your attack will work, this way, you will use less time, and since the Mana wasted would be minimal, the output of the Skill would be stronger.”

Nux muttered as his Fireball disappeared into thin air before it could collide with the door.

Teacher Evane, who saw everything couldn't help but blink her eyes in surprise.

“Y-You... how did you do it so quickly...?”

“Hehe~ I still need to work on it a little,

So I will be depending on Teacher Evane's help~”

Chapter 249

Evane and Nux talked about the Fire Burst Skill and the way to improve it for the next 2 hours, however, then Evane's eyes fell on the clock and she realized the time.

“Alright Nux, it is already late at night, you should go and rest in your room, I need to rest as well.”

Nux frowned, he then looked at the clock and realized,

“Ah, is it that late already? I didn't realize it at all...”

Evane chuckled,

“Hmm hmm, it is good that you are eager to learn more.

But now you should leave.”

“Yes teacher.”

Nux smiled and then stood up.

However, just as he was about to leave, he stopped.

Evane frowned,

“What happened? Why did you stop? Do you need something?”

Nux turned around with a red face and questioned in a mosquito-like voice,

“Teacher Evane... can I take that painting with me...?”

“Huh?” Evane frowned.

“Y-You don't have to give me. I can understand...” Nux quickly shook his head and turned around.

“No, it’s alright, you can take it if you like it so much.”

Nux’s eyes brightened up and he smiled.

“Thank you! Teacher Evane!”

Evane smiled.

Nux then picked up the said painting and left the room.

After Nux left her room, Emilia smiled and then she walked toward her bedroom with a lazy look on her face.

...

Outside her room, Nux smiled as he glanced at the painting he took.

Was he interested in the painting?

Of course not.

He was only interested in the painter, not the painting.

Nux then walked into her room and contacted Amaya.

‘Amaya,’

‘Oh? You finally got the time to talk with me?’ Amaya’s response was lightning quick.

It was as if she was waiting for him to start the conversation.

‘How are you doing, my beautiful and cute Amaya?’ Nux questioned with a smile on his face.

‘Not good at all.’

Amaya answered.

‘It has been 2 days.’

And then she complained.

‘Alright alright, just a few more days, then, I will make it up to you.’

‘You better.’ Amaya pouted.

‘So? Why did you contact me?’ Amaya questioned.

‘Nothing much, I just wanted to tell you that your information about Evane Skyfall was correct, she really likes to paint.’

‘Hmph, of course, I am right. Why are you telling me something so obvious?’

Just as Nux mentioned another girl, Amaya’s tone changed.

Nux already learned about her more than extra possessive traits after talking and staying with her for a month.

It was a scary trait.

Naah, who was he kidding?

It was a trait that he absolutely loves.

Who didn’t like a Yandere who is completely in love with you, and she is a Royal concubine and a princess to boot?

Nux sure did.

‘Evane Skyfall, the Second Princess of the Skyfall Kingdom is the daughter of Emilia Skyfall and the Grand Daughter of Duke Leofrik Vestalis, is someone who can easily participate in the Battler of the throne with her status. Her status is high even if you compare it with other members of the Royal family.’

However, she prefers peace and quietness and thinks that politics and wars are unnecessary and tiring.

This is the reason why she left all the glory and became a Teacher in the Royal Academy.

Her hobby is painting and she...'

Amaya then continued to talk about Evane and listening to her, Nux smiled.

That is what he liked about Amaya.

Even though she was extremely possessive, she would go out of her way to find information about his next 'target'.

A completely contradictory and senseless way of doing things.

But Amaya would do it if it pleases Nux. Of course, she would want accurate rewards for her efforts as well.

She won't do it for free.

She needs accurate compensation in form of bathroom sex in 3 different positions.

Of course, anything above 3 is welcomed as well. It can be counted as a bonus since she is doing such a good job.

'What about your Physique? Did your Mastery level increase yet?'

Nux questioned.

'No...'

Amaya answered with a sad look on her face.

'Don't worry, just continue practising, I know you will get there. I trust you.'

A small smile appeared on Amaya's face,

'Yes, I will practice more.

I have arranged everything, from tomorrow onwards, I would have more time to train.'

Suddenly, Nux frowned.

'Huh? What?'

'Nothing...' Amaya shook her head.

Nux then narrowed his eyes and questioned,

'Amaya, you are not planning to do what I am thinking, are you?'

'I-I am not...'

'You think you can lie to me?'

'I am not lying...'

'When are you starting?'

'Tomorrow...'

Amaya couldn't lie.

'I will be coming to the castle then' Nux muttered.

'No you cannot!' Amaya, however, shook her head repeatedly.

'Why?'

'Have you met the Headmaster of the Royal Academy yet?' Amaya questioned.

‘No, I did not. I tried to find him, however, I don’t think he is here at the moment.’ Nux answered.

‘Then how will you know if [Conceal] will work on the King or not?’

‘It most probably will...’

‘We cannot take any chances here, Nux.’ Amaya’s eyes turned serious.

‘But...’ Nux was still unwilling.

‘No, as I said, you do not know how strong a King Stage Cultivator is, as long as you don’t see the Academy Headmaster and confirm everything, you cannot go in front of the King.’

‘How about I sneak into a Duke’s house?’ Nux questioned.

‘And what if the King Stage Cultivator could see you? What then?’

‘...’

Nux turned silent.

‘Nux, don’t do something reckless.’

Amaya’s voice turned solemn.

‘Can’t you delay it for a few more days... I am sure the Headmaster would return soon...’

Nux muttered.

‘You know I cannot do it.

They are already suspicious.’

Amaya shook her head.

‘Just a few more days will be fine...’

‘Nux.’ Suddenly, Amaya called.

‘What?’

‘You know who I am right?’

I am Amaya Skyfall.

I am someone who has formed the largest information chamber in the world without even leaving the palace.

I know how everything will go.

I know how he will react.

Trust Me.’

‘...’

Nux turned silent and in the end, he sighed,

‘Alright, I will trust you.’

Chapter 250

The next day, Amaya was lying on her bed with a tired and dull look on her face.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

A few minutes later, Amaya heard someone knocking on her door and a small smile appeared on her face.

‘It is starting.’

She informed.

‘Alright, I am ready, okay? Inform me if something is wrong and I will come right away.’

From the other side, she heard Nux’s worried voice and a loving smile appeared on her face.

‘Don’t worry, nothing will happen,

My love~’

Amaya’s black eyes turned a shade darker when she said those words. It looked like she was possessed.

Honestly, her face was quite scary right now.

‘I trust you, my Love.’

A crazy smile appeared on Amaya’s face when she heard that.

‘Yes, you should trust the love of your life,

You should trust the person you Love the ‘Most’, you shou-‘

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Amaya was brought out of her reverie when she heard the knocks again.

Then, her smile disappeared and a dull and tired look appeared on her face.

“Enter...”

She ordered in a weak voice as Black Mist started oozing out and covering her body.

The doors were then opened and Kelton entered, however, his eyes widened in surprise and horror when he saw Amaya’s state.

Amaya was lying on her bed, with a weak and tired look on her face while black-coloured Mist surrounded her body.

“Lady Amaya! What happened!?” Kelton questioned in panic.

“...call the King...” Amaya ordered in a weak voice.

Kelton didn’t know how to react when he saw her acting like that. However, in the end, he decided to do what she ordered and nodded,

“As you command, Lady Amaya. Please wait for a second!”

Saying that, Kelton quickly left the room and rushed towards the King’s room.

A few minutes later, Kelton rushed back into Amaya’s room and behind her, a black-haired, purple-eyed man entered the room with a calm look on his face.

The man wore a white coloured coat and a red cloak over the top, he had a lean body and although he had wrinkles on his face, he still looked handsome.

He was Ricardus Skyfall, the King of the Skyfall Kingdom.

When Ricardus's eyes fell on Amaya's body, a frown appeared on his calm face and he questioned,

“What happened?” His voice sounded normal, neither too emotionless, neither too worried.

“...have you found the cure...?” Amaya questioned in a weak voice and a dull look on her face.

“No, I have not.” The King answered.

“...any clues...?” Amaya questioned.

“No.” And The King shook his head again.

“...”

Amaya turned silent and closed her eyes.

It was as if she had accepted her fate.

The King did not like this at all. A frown appeared on his face and he questioned,

“What happened? What is this Black Mist? Why do you look so weak?” He questioned with curiosity.

Yes, curiosity, not worry.

In the end, Amaya was just a Trophy.

What? She is sick?

So what? It is the Medic's duty to look after her and cure her, not the King's.

He was just here because he had time to come here, nothing more.

No, he was a little worried though, especially after seeing Amaya's condition.

She didn't look much healthy and that was bad.

She was still an Unclaimed Trophy, after all, if she is going to die, it is better for him to claim her before she leaves this world.

Seeing that his questions weren't answered yet, the King frowned.

"Answer me."

A sigh then escaped Amaya's mouth and she opened her mouth.

"Look at my cultivation."

"Huh?" The King frowned, however, since Amaya had turned silent again, he decided to do what she said and observed her closely.

A few minutes later, his eyes widened in surprise, this was the first genuine emotion that had appeared on his face since the moment he entered this room.

"How did you become a Grand Master Stage Cultivator?" He questioned in excitement.

He is sure that this Trophy was a weak Trophy and a Mortal a year ago.

There is no way someone can raise his cultivation in just 1 year, this is simply impossible by normal means.

This meant that Amaya had found a shortcut to cultivating, if he could learn about it, he might break through and become an Emperor Stage Cultivator.

Who wouldn't be excited about that?

However, Amaya's next words broke all his hopes.

"This is not my cultivation."

“Huh? What do you mean?” The King frowned.

“It is related to my Curse.”

“...” The king stayed silent and waited for her to continue her explanation. Amaya understood that and continued,

“A month ago, my body started acting weirdly and I started feeling unnecessarily heavy. Initially, I just ignored it, thinking it was all because I was overworking and was tired, however, soon, it became something uncontrollable.

My body started turning heavier and heavier and soon, this Mist started appearing around me.

Initially, it used to disappear within 5 minutes and only appears once every three to four days, however, then, it started to appear more frequently.

Every day, then 2 to 3 times a day and then I noticed that more Mist appeared around me, the weirder my Body became.

From a Mortal to a Grand Master Stage Cultivator, I covered that journey in one month, this should be something to be happy about, however, that’s when I realized that this was not my own power.

This was the Curse.

My curse was getting stronger.

And yesterday, finally, it got to a stage where my body is so heavy that I can’t even move now.”

The King narrowed his eyes and then questioned.

“So this Mist, is it from your Curse?”

“Yes.” Amaya nodded and King quickly stepped back and stood a few meters away from her.

“I have been surrounded by this Mist and have stayed in this position for the past 12 hours,” Amaya muttered and after listening to everything, the King only asked one question.

“So does that mean I cannot claim you?”

Chapter 251

“So does that mean I cannot claim you?”

Yes, that was the only thing he worries about.

He cannot claim Arvina Skyfall for reasons, now if a shiny trophy like Amaya would join her as well then...

It would be disappointing...

“I cannot say for certain.”

Amaya didn't reject or accept.

The best case scenario would, of course, be a no. However, she knew well enough to not reject the king like this.

It is always better than if the King checks it on his own.

“You are not certain?”

The King raised his eyebrow.

“...” Amaya stayed silent, however, the King knew what her silence met.

“Alright, I guess I would have to check it out myself.”

The King muttered and Amaya smiled inwardly.

The King reacted just like she imagined him to.

So does that mean the King would touch her?

Of course not.

She wouldn't have done something like this if that was the case.

“Last time, it was an Advance Stage Cultivator, this time, we will try it with Master Stage Cultivator.”

Yes, the King would make a servant touch her wife.

The King turned around and ordered a soldier.

“Call any Master Stage Cultivator here.”

“As you command, your Royal Highness.”

The soldier rushed out and a few minutes later, a man walked into the room.

The King observed the man and noticed that he was a Master Stage Cultivator.

“You know why you are called here, correct?” The King questioned.

“Yes, your Highness.” The man bowed.

“Alright, you can continue.”

The King nodded.

The man then walked passed the King and moved towards Amaya and soon, a big, evil smile appeared on his face.

Amaya Skyfall, is the most beautiful girl he has ever seen in his entire life. The Queen or any other Royal Concubine were not even close to her when it came to beauty.

Amaya Skyfall’s beauty was simply otherworldly.

And today, he was going to taste this otherworldly concubine.

Does he not know about the curse?

Of course, he does.

He knows that there are chances that he would lose his life due to the curse however, he also knew that even if he survives the curse, the King would kill him in one way or another.

The King may allow another man to touch his trophy, however, he would never let that man live.

There is no way a man like that would exist.

Therefore, he knew he would die either way. He had already accepted that.

However,

He won't die without tasting the forbidden fruit.

He would bathe in the pleasure of sleeping with the most beautiful woman he has ever seen.

Actually, he snorts at the previous man, that Advance Stage Cultivator Bastard who pulled out without even tasting it.

What a loser!

A pussy!

He, however, was different.

He was planning to go all the way and would make sure that the king listens to her wife moaning in pleasure.

Thinking about that, his smile widened even more and he extended his hands towards Amaya's perfect breasts.

However, as soon as his hands came 10 cm close to Amaya's body, the Black Mist surrounding Amaya reacted.

The man noticed a small, disdainful smirk on Amaya's face and his eyes widened in surprise.

However, before he could react, a large amount of Black Mist entered his body. He tried using Mana to block it off however, more and more Black Mist entered his body from his arms, legs, shoulders, and everywhere.

Soon, the man was surrounded by Black Mist.

“AAAHHH!!! SAVE ME!! SAVE MEE!”

The man screamed in horror as everything around him turned black.

He quickly learned that it was better to use more Mana to push out the Black Mist out of his body, however, the amount of Black Mist surrounding his body was too much.

He couldn't deal with that with his Mana alone.

Also, the Black Mist continued to Devour his Organs and his resistance started decreasing.

His hands, feet, shoulders, everything turned grey and soon, his body fell to the ground.

With all his body turned grey, the man didn't have any way to resist the Dark Mist, the Mist continued devouring the Man, his organs, bones, and blood vessels, in the end, nothing of that man was left.

Even his clothes were devoured.

The Man completely disappeared from the room.

There were no traces left at all.

And all of this happened in just 5 minutes.

Yes, a Master Stage Cultivator was completely helpless and died within 5 minutes.

That was how scary the Devouring Mist was.

“ ... ”

The people who witnessed this scene turned silent.

Their eyes then fell silent and seeing the lost, confused, and terrified look on her face, they knew that she was scared as well.

“It has become a lot stronger than before.”

The King commented with a solemn face.

“Indeed.” Kelton nodded in worry.

“The Advance Stage Cultivator died a month after this incident, also, unlike what happened today, his body didn’t disappear.

Your curse has been strengthened for some reason.”

The King turned towards Amaya and muttered.

Hearing his words, Amaya smiled disdainfully.

‘Of course, he died differently.’

The man never died due to a curse.

He was killed.

By her.

Well, she did not do it herself, but she ordered his death.

“... Will I survive?” suddenly, Amaya questioned with a weak look on her face.

Seeing her like that, Kelton’s heart throbbed in pain.

In the end, she was just a little girl.

This curse was too much for someone like her.

Why is fate so cruel to her?

“I do not know. I will continue looking for the cure, you stay here and do whatever you wish.” The King muttered.

After this demonstration, there was no way he would touch this woman.

There are chances that he will survive; however, he wasn't willing to risk it.

Risking his life for a mere woman was a completely stupid idea.

In the end, he could always find another woman.

Amaya, who saw his expression smiled inwardly.

She was correct.

This man did just what she expected he would do.

‘It was successful.’

She muttered and in that instance, she received an answer.

‘Good job,

My beautiful Amaya.’

Chapter 252

‘It was successful.’

‘Good job, my beautiful Amaya.’

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face as he heard Amaya’s words.

Then, a sigh escaped his mouth.

It would be a lie to say that he was not worried.

He was worried sick.

He doesn’t know much about the King, however, there were chances that someone else would touch Amaya.

Let alone him, even Amaya wouldn’t accept that.

That is why he was so worried.

From what he has learned, that girl was a complete Yandere.

What do you think would happen to a man who tries to touch a Yandere?

He would die.

And what if a Yandere can’t kill the man?

She would hurt herself.

She might even kill herself.

Of course, the situation won’t turn that extreme since Nux would rush there as soon as something happens, however, Nux was still worried.

‘Alright, now I will train the Physique, you do whatever you are busy with.’

Nux then heard Amaya's voice and nodded.

This was all Amaya's plan, after today, no one would doubt her cultivation, of course, she would need to cover herself with Devouring Mist but that was just a form of Training.

Amaya's mastery over Devouring Mist Demon Physique was still just at Acquired Level, she doesn't have a system like Nux where she just needs to press a button and boom, she powers up.

She needs to work hard, walk on the path that no one has ever walked on before and get stronger.

Since the book said to use the Physique's power as much as possible, Amaya would do just that.

She would turn her physique into a curse.

'Alright, take care of yourself, I will meet you soon.'

Nux muttered and then, he broke the telepathic connection.

"Sir, how much time until he wakes up?"

"His injuries were severe, even after giving him a healing potion, he would still need a week to wake up."

A man wearing a white coat muttered.

"A week..." Myrill gritted his teeth in rage.

"The person who attacked him was too ruthless, he broke both his legs and assaulted him even after he passed out.

Not only that, but we found the body a lot later than whenever this happened. All this combined made the bad situation worse." The doctor muttered.

Myrill's eyes turned cold when he heard the Doctor's statement and he growled in anger,

“Just wake up, little brother. Leave everything else to me.

Whoever dared to do something like this,

I will make sure that he pays the price.”

Saying that, Myrill patted Oswald's head. Of course, his words didn't sound very convincing when he himself had burnt marks on his body and there were no hairs on his head.

His own condition wasn't very good either.

‘A week huh...’

Nux thought inwardly and nodded to himself.

A week was enough.

He was sure that he could get close to Evane at that time.

Of course, since he was her student, things would be harder than normal and they won't form an intimate relationship within just a week, however, Nux was sure that he would be able to get close to her.

Thinking about it, Nux left the Medic room and started walking towards his own room.

Everything would be coming together next week, he needs to prepare some more things as well.

After all, if he wants to attract her attention, he needs to make sure that he makes everything entertaining enough.

Nux chuckled and then walked into his room.

...

“Nux, tell me honestly, did Candice come to you to find trouble today?”
Evane questioned with a frown on her face.

“Hmm? Why do you feel that way, Teacher Evane?” Nux questioned with a frown.

Right now, it was night and he was inside Evane’s room.

How did he enter?

Well, was it his first time?

He had a few doubts related to Fire Burst Skill of course.

“You didn’t have your usual, confident aura around you today. In fact, you looked a little gloomy.”

Evane answered and then, her gaze turned serious,

“Tell me if something like that happened, I can help you deal with it.”

Suddenly, a small, teasing smile appeared on Nux’s face as he questioned,

“Teacher Evane, are you worried about me?”

However, his teasing words did not work against Nux,

“Huh? You are my students, of course, I would be worried about you.”

Nux did not give up and continued,

“Oh ho? Are you sure that it is just because I am your student?”

“What other reason could there be?” Evane questioned with a frown.

Nux observed her reaction and deduced that she wasn’t acting.

She was actually clueless and doesn’t realize that he is flirting with her.

‘She’s unexpectedly innocent huh...’

“I am sure you are worried because I am your favourite student, right?”

“Since when did you become my favourite student?” Evane raised her eyebrow.

“Huh? I am not your favourite student?”

“Of course not.”

“Then who is it?” Nux questioned with a pout.

“I do not have any favourite students. Everyone is equal in my eyes.”

“I never thought you would be like this, Teacher Evane. You are betraying me.” Suddenly, Nux muttered.

“Huh? What do you mean?”

“You are my favourite teacher, so I thought I was your favourite student as well...”

I feel bad now...” Nux pouted even more.

“Stop talking about these nonsensical things, just answer my question.”

“You should not change the topic like this.”

“...”

Evane then glanced at Nux with a look that said, ‘I will get mad now.’

In the end, Nux sighed in defeat and decided to give up.

“She did not do anything, Teacher Evane. I was just worried about something else today, you do not have to worry about it.”

Evane nodded in understanding and then, the two of them continued talking.

The next day, Nux walked into his class, flirt- talked with girls, made the boys angry, and then attended Evane's class.

In the evening, he would enter Evane's room and talk about Fire Burst, and then would talk about any random things, most of the time, the topics would be related to her paintings.

And just like that, a week passed by.

Chapter 253

“Hmm? Is Myrill still not back yet?” Teacher Evane questioned with a frown as he looked around the class.

She has seen his injury, it shouldn't take more than 3-4 days for him to fully recover, even if he wanted to rest a little, it has already been more than a week.

Shouldn't he come back to the class now?

“Heh. He must be too ashamed to come back.” A student commented.

“Indeed, he was beaten up pretty badly after all.”

“Heh, losing after being the first one to attack, that is quite shameful.”

“Indeed, no matter how much I hate this Nux bastard, I am always grateful since he got rid of a nuisance like Myrill.”

“Indeed.”

The students then turned around, however, they then noticed that rather than listening there talk, Nux was talking with a few girls, completely ignoring what was going on in the class.

“Actually... I take my words back, this bastard is much more hateful than Myrill.” A boy muttered as he glanced at Nux with hatred.

“Indeed. Indeed.”

The rest of the students nodded.

Noticing that another commotion has started because of her question, Evane decided to change the topic.

Whether Myrill attends the class or not depends on him.

It shouldn't concern her.

“Alright, everyone, stop talking, we will start our class now.” She muttered and gained the attention of the rest of the students.

However, before she could start the class,

*Bam***

The doors of her classroom were kicked open by a blue-haired girl.

Seeing the girl, Evane frowned and questioned in a stern tone,

“Candice Water, what are you doing here? Is that a way one should enter a classroom, also, can't you see that I am teaching right now?”

Candice, however, completely ignored Evane's words and pointed at Nux,

“Is he the one who attacked you?” She questioned.

“Y-Yes! He is the one! He attacked me and my friends for no reason and even took my storage ring!”

A 15-year-old student complained as his face turned pale in fear when he saw Nux's face, behind him, two more students of the same age were standing.

“You bastard! You dare attack my little brother!?”

Another angry voice was heard, the class then saw Myrill walking into the class with an angry look on his face.

“Nux Leander, who gave you the galls to attack the student of this academy?” Candice questioned as she narrowed her eyes in a threatening way.

‘Oh ho? Would you look at them go~’

A small smile appeared on Nux's face when he saw what was happening.

Just like the doctor said, Oswald woke up today, of course, many would have questioned who attacked him so brutally and he would have described his face.

There is no way Myrill wouldn't recognize him right away. And he must have already told everything to Candice Water.

Then why was she acting so surprised? Why come here to confirm when they already knew who was behind it?

Well, the reason was simple, they wanted to target him.

In front of all the students.

Of course, Nux had already predicted it.

He was actually happy that everything was going exactly like it should be going.

"Candice, what is the meaning of it? How can you blame my student again?" Evane stepped in, trying to protect Nux.

However, this time, Candice was prepared.

"Huh? I am trying to blame your student? Teacher Evane, I know you favour Nux very much, so much that even after he attacked Myrill, you took his side, but are you seriously going to allow Nux to continue to bully other students in the academy?"

I also heard that you allowed him to live in the room next to you in the Teacher's Abode.

Teacher Evane, Nux is merely a commoner, someone who should have no relationship with you, then why are you going to such a length to protect him?

I heard that you were an honest and upright teacher, then why, wait..."

Suddenly, Candice acted like she realized something and questioned,

“Teacher Evane, you do not have any sort of unspeakable relationship with Nux Leander, a commoner, correct?”

“What the hell are you talking about!?”

Evane retorted in anger when she heard what Candice was talking about.

“How dare you slander a teacher!?”

She couldn't believe Candice said something like this.

However, Candice only smiled at her outburst,

“That is the only logical conclusion I can come up with, after all, a 15-year-old student says that he was attacked by Nux.

Alright, let's leave this topic, you want proof right? I will give you one, I brought a witness he-”

“I do not need any proof.”

Evane muttered.

“Huh?” Candice frowned.

Evane then suppressed her anger and turned towards Nux.

“Nux, you answer me, did you attack this student?”

“Huh!? Why are you asking him!? He, of course, would never accept it!

Was my conjecture all true!? Do you two really have some sort of unspeakable relationship with each other!?”

Candice questioned loudly.

Evane, however, just clenched her fist and tried to ignore Candice's words.

She needed an answer from Nux.

“Yes, teacher Evane, I did attack this student, not only that, I even attacked his friends.”

“What?” Evane’s eyes widened in surprise.

“See? I told you he would never adm- Huh?” Even Candice was surprised, however, soon, an evil smile appeared on her face and she shouted.

“See! I told you he was the one behind it! What are you going to say now, Evane!?”

“N-Nux... why did you...” Evane just couldn’t believe her ears.

However, instead of answering her, Nux stood up and slowly walked toward Candice.

Then, he walked passed her and observed the students that have come here to see what the commotion was about.

“Heehh? You really brought a lot of students with you, huh... Candice.”

Nux commented.

Then, he noticed a familiar figure standing there and waved his hand,

“Manya, how have you been?”

“H-Huh? I-I am fine. W-What about you?” Being pointed out like that, Manya stuttered a little, however, she still managed to answer.

“I am fine as well.

So? Why are you here?” Nux questioned.

“I just saw Lady Manya and noticed that many students were following her, so I tagged along as well.”

“Ahh”

Nux nodded in understanding.

He then turned towards Candice and smiled,

“As I expected, you are good at this, aren’t you, Candice? But...

Are you sure you want to play it like that?”

“Huh? What do you mean?” Candice frowned.

Nux’s smile widened and he shouted,

“You are here, right? Come out.”

“Y-Yes big brother...”

Then, an 8-year-old boy walked out of the crowd and Nux smiled,

“Do you recognize him, ‘Lady’ Candice?”

Chapter 254

“Do you recognize him, ‘Lady’ Candice?”

Nux questioned as he turned towards Candice.

However, before she could even answer, Nux’s eyes fell on Oswald and his two friends and he questioned,

“Surely you three recognize him, right?”

Oswald and his friends quickly averted his gaze, not answering his questions.

Candice frowned, she felt like she has seen this boy somewhere, however, she could not remember where.

“Hmmm, it seems that you have forgotten about this boy, let me help you remember, ‘Lady’ Candice.

9 days ago, Oswald and his friends joined their hands together and surrounded this boy. Then, they attacked him ruthlessly and took his Healing Potion.

‘Lady’ Candice saw that as well. Right?”

Candice started recalling,

“Ye-” She wanted to answer, however, someone else nodded faster than her.

“Yes, I remember it! It happened a few days ago!” Manya nodded her head.

“Ahh, it seems that you remember, that’s a good thing, what about you, ‘Lady’ Candice? You remember it as well, do you not?”

Candice narrowed her eyes and nodded,

“I do. However, I do not understand why are you bringing that topic today.”

Nux just smiled,

“I happened to be there that day as well, and it was only that day that I learned a life-changing lesson that came from no one else but ‘Lady’ Candice.”

Candice frowned, for some reason, she did not like that smile on Nux’s face.

“In this world, the weak have no right to say or complain about anything, whereas the strong can do whatever they wanted and no one would say anything to them.

This is what you taught me that day, ‘Lady’ Candice.

You said that weak should not complain about anything, rather, they should go stronger and rely on themselves,”

“Yes, I remember that lesson as well, I have memorized it by heart.” Manya nodded as well.

She respected Candice a lot, her every word was like a law to her.

“Indeed, I was there as well.” Another person spoke up and seeing that, more and more students spoke up. They didn’t want to miss the opportunity to impress Lady Candice after all.

“Yes, I was there.”

“Mhm, it was indeed what Lady Candice taught us.”

“True True.”

“Those were wise words indeed.”

The students continued to nod and hearing their words, a big smile appeared on Nux’s face.

“‘Lady’ Candice, I was only following your words when I did what I did to these 3 boys.”

“Huh? What do you mean?” Candice frowned.

“These 3 ‘weak’ students dared to block my, someone who is stronger than them, path. Of course, not only that, they even dared to shout at me in return, the audacity.

I had to punish them.

They needed to be taught, they needed to know that they are weak. They shouldn’t stand against strong, therefore, I beat them up.

I did a good job, did I not, ‘Lady’ Candice?”

Nux questioned with a smile and then, the crowd turned silent.

This man’s words...

Why do they sound so logical?

He was stronger, so doesn’t that make him right?

Why was Lady Candice here then?

Noticing the students’ reaction, Candice frowned and then, her anger exploded.

“Huh!? You fought against Beginner Stage Cultivators when you yourself are an Advance Stage Cultivator!

In what world is that fair!?”

‘Tsk Tsk, what an amature.’

Nux couldn’t help but snort inwardly when he heard Candice’s response.

“Hmm? ‘Lady’ Candice, this boy is just at Apprentice Stage...

3 Beginner Stage Cultivators attacked him together...

In what world is that fair?"

"..."

Candice turned silent.

"..."

Not only her, but even the students also turned silent.

"Royce is just an 8-year-old boy and he was attacked by three 15-year-old boys who were stronger than him,

In what world is that fair?

Rather, isn't me, an 18-year boy attacking three 15-year-old boys fairer?

Don't you think so, 'Lady' Candice?"

Nux smiled.

"No. You were wrong!" Candice didn't step back.

"Oh? How so?" Nux questioned.

"These three are from Earl's House, as for this boy, he is from a Viscount House, which means, this boy is their subordinate and every Master has the right to hit his subordinates.

Also, no subordinate has any right to question his superior's decision."

Nux's smile widened and then he questioned,

"Then 'Lady' Candice, how did you question Teacher Evane's decision?"

"Huh?" Candice frowned.

“Although Teacher Evane’s polite, caring and respectful attitude doesn’t show it, in the end, she is the princess of the Skyfall Kingdom, the Daughter of the King.

Then how did you, a daughter of a ‘mere’ Marquee dare to question her decision? Not only that, you even dared to slander her?

Who gave you the galls to do that?”

“Huh!?! Do you not know who Lady Candice is!?! She is th-” Myrill wanted to retort, however, Nux suddenly disappeared from where he was standing and appeared near Myrill.

*Bam*

Then he grabbed his head and smashed it on the ground.

“The weak should remain silent.

They have no right to speak.”

Nux muttered in a cold voice as he stood up and stepped on Myrill’s head.

Then, his eyes turned towards Candice and he questioned,

“I will ask you again,

Who gave you the galls to go against the Princess of the Kingdom, you bitch?”

Candice’s body trembled when she heard Nux’s words. However, she wasn’t trembling because she was angry, she was trembling because,

Nux’s eyes...

They looked scary...

“A commoner talking with a daughter of a Marquee in this tone, let me ask you,

You gave you the galls to do that, filthy commoner?”

Suddenly, a student who was standing beside Candice stepped up and spoke with a disdainful look on his face.

Nux glanced at his face and recognized him.

He was Candice’s lackey and a Master Stage Cultivator.

As he had portrayed himself right now, Nux cannot win against him, neither in status nor in power, however, that didn’t mean that he was helpless.

He had prepared for this day for a long time now.

“Heeh? A son of a ‘mere’ Earl is talking about status, that’s funny.”

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face when he heard an unfamiliar voice.

‘They are here huh... took them a fucking long time...’

Chapter 255

“Heeh? A son of a mere Earl is talking about status, that’s funny.”

A voice was heard.

“Who the fuck-” The boy who had stepped up in front of Nux turned around, wanting to curse, however, soon, his expression changed and his face looked like he had just eaten shit.

“Kane, Smith...”

He muttered.

A smile appeared on the boy named Smith’s face as he muttered,

“It is good that you know who we are, son of an Earl.

So I was saying, you have some guts to talk about status in front of a member of Marquee House.” Smith muttered.

“Huh? What?” The boy frowned.

“The member of Marquee house? Isn’t he just a commoner?”

“So what if he is a commoner, Nux is my, Smith Hardwick’s sword brother. Doesn’t that make him a Marquee?

At the very least, he is someone whose status is a lot stronger than someone like you.”

Smith revealed with a smile on his face and the boy’s eyes widened in surprise.

“W-What?”

Nux smiled and walked toward the boy.

“Yes, now little dog, stop barking and embarrassing your owner, stand back.”

The boy gritted his teeth in anger, however, he knew he couldn't do anything here.

Although he was stronger than this commoner, Smith and Kane were different, Smith Hardwick and Kane Bannermane, both of them were Master Stage cultivators, just like him.

Not only that, but both of them were sons of Marquees, he couldn't do anything against them.

Since the two of them were now protecting this bastard, he could only step back and rely on someone else.

“Huh? Did you just call my subordinate a dog?” Candice narrowed her eyes. She had already come out of her reverie and was cursing herself for being afraid of a mere Advance Stage Cultivator.

Nux tilted his head in confusion,

“Didn't you hear?”

Let alone your subordinate, I am calling you a bitch as well, and I have been doing that for a while now, bitch.”

“...”

Again, everyone turned silent when they heard Nux's words and Candice's body trembled again, this time, however, it was from anger.

“Are you two sure you want to protect him?” She turned towards Smith and Kane and questioned.

“Is that even a question? He is my sworn brother after all.”

Smith answered with a smile on his face.

Actually, he would never do something so tiresome as protecting someone who he doesn't even know. However, this time was different, he has received a letter from his father and the way the letter was written, Smith could feel his father's anxiousness.

Kane was the same.

They could feel how desperately their father wanted to protect this man.

Nux Leander was most definitely not a normal commoner.

He must be someone far more terrifying than that.

"Even if it means that you will fall out against the Water House?" Candice questioned.

"You think we are scared of you?" Smith questioned back and Kane stepped forward as well.

Their meaning was clear, just like every other time, Bannermane and Hardwick house were in this together.

The Water's house may be strong, however, they are nothing in front of these two Marquee houses combined.

Candice gritted her teeth in frustration.

The Royal Family and the Dukes never participate in the struggles between any lower-ranking nobles, therefore, in this academy,

Marquees were the ones with the most influence.

She may be a prodigy and her house might be strong, however, that does not mean children of other Marquee houses would submit to her.

She wasn't that influential yet.

Water Family had allies as well, however, allies were only here allies for profit, and their relationship wasn't as strong as the relationship between Bannerman and Hardwick House.

If it all comes down to political struggle, she knows that her 'allies' would leave her side.

After all, no one wants to participate in a fight. Everyone just wants to reap profits.

Bannerman and Hardwick's houses, however, were different.

They would fight out together as if they had an unbreakable bond between them, that is what makes them so strong.

Therefore, Candice knew she can't do anything about all this.

In the end, she turned toward Nux and challenged him,

“Alright, let's end this pointless conversation as cultivators do, Fight me.”

Nux chuckled in response,

“Man, you really are a two-faced bitch huh...”

“Huh?”

“First, you call me out for attacking 3 Beginner Stage Cultivators while being an Advance Stage Cultivator, but now, you challenge me, an Advance Stage Cultivator while being a Master Stage Cultivator?”

Bitch, are you right with your head and did you damage your brain somehow?”

“Are you scared?” Candice completely ignored his words and smirked provocatively.

But would Nux give into provocations like these?

Of course not.

He still didn't get what he wanted, after all.

“You dared to slander Teacher Evane, she would like to fight it out with you, do you accept?”

“She's a teacher, she isn't allowed to fight against a student.”

“A two-faced bitch indeed.” Nux nodded his head and this time, a few more students couldn't help but look at her with weird expressions on their faces.

Was this really the girl who they called their Goddess? The future pillar of the Kingdom?

Candice's face distorted in anger when she noticed that, and seeing that expression, Nux smiled.

Now was the time.

“You want to fight me, correct?” He questioned.

“I do.”

“I have a way to make it a fair battle,”

“What?”

“Teacher Arvina Skyfall has taken you as your personnel Student, correct?”

“Yes, that is correct.”

“I heard that Teacher Arvina Skyfall is known for her Sword Skill, she must have taught you some, did she not?”

“What are you trying to get at?” Candice narrowed her eyes.

“Why don’t we have a Sword Duel, a Duel where we will not use our cultivation and fight with swords?”

Of course, since Mana has already strengthened our body, we can’t do anything about that, however, we won’t use any Skills in this fight.

We will fight purely with our swords.

And since Teacher Arvina Skyfall is so good with swords, she will act as a judge,

How about it?”

Nux questioned and a big smile appeared on Candice’s beautiful face.

“I agree.”

Chapter 256

“I agree,” Candice answered with a smile on her face.

“A fight where we do not use our Skills correct? I am perfectly fine with that.”

When it comes to fighting against Star Beasts, humans mostly rely on their Skills, a Star Beast’s body is a lot stronger than a human who has the same level of cultivation.

A Star Beast is Stronger, Faster and sturdier than a human, however, there is one difference, and this is the Mana both of them possess.

Humans possess more Mana than Star Beasts, therefore, humans use Skills to fight and defeat Star Beasts who have the same level of cultivation as them.

Of course, only a few humans who have a high-level Mastery over their Skills, like Thyra, can defeat a Star Beasts this way.

It is not wrong to say that Skills are what divides a normal human cultivator and a powerful human cultivator.

From this, one could understand how important Skills are.

However, this also means another thing,

Without using any Skills related to Mana, the difference in strength between an Advance Stage and Master Stage Cultivator decreases significantly.

Master Stage Cultivators are only a little stronger than Advance Stage Cultivators when it comes to body strength.

Therefore, this battle indeed looked fair from an outsider’s perspective.

However, it was not.

A big smile then appeared on Candice's face as she muttered,

“Of course, since we are going to have a battle, it is only right for us to bet something, am I right?”

A similar smile appeared on Nux's face as he increased the pressure on Myrill's face and answered,

“I had the same thought.”

“Alright, then how about this,

The loser would have to apologize to the winner after the Battle ends.”
Candice proposed.

“Huh? Just this?” Nux frowned.

He was actually a little disappointed.

Apologize?

What kind of condition was that?

Tsk Tsk.

And as if hearing his thoughts, Candice's smile widened and she conditioned,

“Of course, it won't just be a normal ‘sorry, I was wrong’ type of apology.

Rather, the loser would have to get on his knees and rub his nose on the ground and apologize.

In front of everyone present in the Battle hall, of course.”

Nux raised his eyebrow when he saw that crazed smile on Candice's face.

Wow...

This girl was ruthless huh...

“T-This is too much!” Evane, who was listening to everything stepped forward.

“Teacher Evane, I believe you do not have any right to decide on the content of our bet.” Candice turned towards Evane and narrowed her eyes disdainfully.

She did not like this bitch one bit.

“Teacher Evane,” Suddenly, Nux called.

He then turned towards Evane and smiled politely.

“I am grateful that you are worried about me, however, this bitch dared to slander you. That is something I, as your student cannot accept and would like to see her apologize.

Please do not interfere in this battle.

I hope you put your trust in me.”

Candice’s face twitched when she heard his words, however, she controlled herself and smiled,

“Teacher Evane, even your student wants to continue with the bet, please do not interfere.”

Evane then glanced at Nux and seeing that the latter was nodding, she turned silent and stepped back.

Candice then turned towards Nux and smiled,

“Do not forget about the bet, commoner.

We fight 2 days later.”

“I would like to the ‘Queen of the Academy’ rubbing her nose on the ground. Heh, won’t it be similar to this dog of yours?” Nux smiled back as he glanced at Myrill who was lying on the floor with Nux’s shoes on his face.

“Uughh!”

The man tried to move and save himself from further embarrassment, however, Nux just increased the pressure and he was forced to turn silent.

Nux then glanced at Oswald and smiled,

“!!!”

Oswald’s entire body trembled in horror and he stepped behind Candice.

Nux then glanced at Candice and smiled provocatively.

Candice, however, didn’t react to his provocations and turned around.

‘Heh. We will see who gets the last laugh, commoner.’

She thought in her head.

She has not forgotten about her vow.

She would make Nux’s life hell, however, she cannot do it if he is part of a Marquee family.

This was why she came up with such a humiliating punishment, once Nux do something like that in front of the entire Academy, the Smith Hardwick would step back and break their ‘sworn’ brotherhood.

No Marquee house would take that Humiliation after all.

And once Smith Hardwick backs away, everything else would be simpler.

Then, she can play around with this commoner’s life as much as she wanted.

As for that bitch who was trying to protect him?

Heh.

There is only so much a mere teacher can do.

There is no way that bitch Evane can protect him if she, the Queen of the Academy was the one who was targeting him.

Thinking about everything, a small smile appeared on Candice's face and she walked away, her followers followed behind her and she ordered.

“Spread this everywhere in the academy, I want every student to know about this.”

“As you command, Lady Candice,”

Her dog nodded respectfully, as for the other dog who was lying under Nux's floor,

She did not care about him.

An embarrassment like him isn't related to her.

Yes, she has abandoned Myrill Bourkee.

Just like that.

“Hehe~ Looks like your owner left you here to rot, little dog.” Nux chuckled as he glanced at Myrill.

Seeing her walking figure, Myrill gritted her teeth.

Let alone saving him, she didn't even look at him!

And that wasn't worse, his brother, that bastard was walking away with her without caring about him at all.

Candice was one thing, but even his own brother had abandoned him.

“Tsk Tsk, and you were so proud about being her subordinate,
Earl Bourkee would be so so disappointed.”

Nux chuckled.

“Nux, that is enough, let him be.”

Evane muttered.

“As you say, Teacher Evane,”

Nux smiled.

He had already achieved what he wanted to do after all.

Chapter 257

“Nux... how are you going to fight against Candice...?” Anna questioned in worry.

This time, she did not use the prefix ‘Lady’ to call Candice.

Her respect for Candice was affected a little when she came to her class and talked back to her teacher, however, that day, Candice managed to recreate her image by apologizing sincerely.

Accepting one’s own mistake was a part of strength as well.

However, today...

Today she saw Candice’s true face.

A power-hungry, arrogant bitch who thinks she is always right.

She was the type of girl who would go against her own principles if that proves her point.

A really hateful character.

And she wasn’t alone, many students, mostly the students of Decade Two, prodigy class thought the same.

Therefore... even though some of them didn’t like Nux, they supported him in this battle.

Seeing their faces, Nux just smiled,

“Don’t worry, I will win.”

“But...”

“Shh... just trust me.”

Anna wanted to counter, however, Nux just told her to be silent.

The girl nodded and then stepped back.

Nux then turned towards Kane and Smith, the two of them nodded to him, he nodded back and then the two of them turned around.

‘Stand up for a student name Nux Leander on Monday morning,

Do not annoy him.

Do not talk to him unless he starts it.

Do not annoy him.

Don’t you dare annoy him.’

This was the letter the two of them had received from their father. They could go against anyone, but not their fathers.

They did not have any death wishes after all.

Therefore, they just nodded and turned around.

Also, they wondered who Nux actually was, but since they can’t do anything now, it was better to just shrug their shoulders and walk away.

Playing with a few women was a lot better than spending time here anyway.

Nux then looked at Evane, their eyes met, Nux knew that Evane wanted to talk about something, however, she held back.

“Alright, I don’t think anyone would have the mood to study after what happened, so I would dismiss the Class for today,” Evane announced.

Everyone then walked away.

“Big brother Nux...” Nux was about to walk away when Royce called.

“Hmm? What is it?” Nux questioned.

“Do you think you can win?” Royce questioned.

Nux smiled as he crouched towards him and questioned,

“What do you think?”

“I think you will,” Royce answered.

Nux chuckled as he ruffled his hair,

“Then what are you worried about? Just go back and play with your friends, no one bullies you now, correct?”

“Yes.” A smile appeared on Royce’s head.

“Good Good, now go back.” Nux chuckled.

Royce left and Nux walked towards his room as well. He wanted to talk to his beloved women a little.

Talking with that bitch ruined his mood, after all, he needs to charge up.

‘Yo hoo~ How are my lovely women doing~’

‘Tsk Tsk, lying on the bed and covering myself with black mist...’

And of course, Amaya was the quickest one to answer.

The other women joined as well and everyone started talking with each other.

Harem Seal was an amazing ability.

...

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

At night, Nux heard someone knocking on his doors. He used his [Sense] out of reflex and a small smile appeared on his face.

He walked towards his door and opened it.

“Teacher Evane? Why are you here? Can I help you with something?” He questioned with a surprised look on his face.

“I want to talk to you,” Evane muttered.

“Please enter.” Nux did not do anything and told her to enter his room.

Evane then entered her room, however, as soon as she did, her eyes fell on a few paintings lying on the floor. She looked around and saw a canvas, in front of the canvas, there was her painting that was hanging on a wall, while the painting on the canvas looked like an incomplete drawing of her painting.

“Ahh, I apologize...” Nux muttered, he was about to step forward to clean everything up, however, before he could, Evane questioned.

“You paint?”

Nux, however, shook his head,

“I do not, I just started it since Teacher Evane liked it, though, as you can see, I am not very good at it”

“Huh? Why would you paint just because I like it?” Evane questioned with a confused look on her face.

“I want to become your favourite student after all.” Nux’s answer was quick.

A small smile appeared on Evane’s face as she questioned,

“How is that related to painting?”

“It’s simple, Teacher Evane like painting, I will learn painting then I will impress Teacher Evane with my painting.

Then, I will become your favourite student.”

Nux answered.

“I don’t think that will work,” Evane muttered.

“Don’t worry, just give me some time.

Maybe a few years,

If I draw at least 2-3 paintings every day for the next few years, I will get better.

I will become your favourite student eventually.”

“Why would you go so far to become my favourite student?” Evane questioned in curiosity.

“Hmm? I don’t know...

Because I like you?”

Nux answered with a confused look on his face.

“W-What?” Evane stuttered due to shock.

This was too abrupt.

And... and why would a student like him...

“Hmm? Why are you so shocked, Teacher Evane? Didn’t I tell you already?

You are my favourite teacher.”

Nux smiled.

“Ahh... so you are talking about that...” Evane realized.

“Huh? What did you think I was talking about?” Nux frowned in confusion.

He really couldn't understand what Teacher Evane was thinking right now.

Teacher Evane on the other hand lowered her head in embarrassment.

‘What the hell am I thinking about...?’

She then glanced at Nux and seeing his confused face, her face turned even redder.

“What are you thinking about, Teacher Evane?” Nux questioned as he brought his face a little close to Evane.

For some reason, Evane's heartbeat quickened.

‘It's all because of that Candice...

Unspeakable relationship, what the hell was she on about!?’

Evane thought inwardly.

A small smile appeared on Nux's face when he noticed her red face,

However, now wasn't the time yet, therefore,

He changed the topic,

“So what are you here for, Teacher Evane.”

Evane then finally came out of her reverie and faced Nux with a serious look on her face.

“Did you really hit those three students?”

Chapter 258

“Did you really hit those three students?”

Evane questioned and Nux’s face turned serious as well.

“I did.” He nodded.

“Nux, look here, if you are being threatened by someone, you can tell me. I am the Princess of this Kingdom, and I can tell you that my influence is far stronger than you know.

So if you have any troubles, all you have to do is tell me and I assure you I will handle everything.” Evane muttered with a serious look on her face. She really didn’t want to believe that her student attacked those three students.

She has spent some time with Nux, she knows his character a little, and she doesn’t think he was someone who hits someone. Therefore, she doubted that he was being threatened.

“Teacher Evane,” Nux called.

“I did it.” He nodded again.

“I am someone who dared to challenge the so-called Queen of the Academy, inside the academy. I am not scared of anyone, I am not being threatened by anyone.”

Nux answered with a serious look on his face.

“Nux, they were 15-year-old children.

Children.

Why did you hit them so hard?

I talked with the medic, do you know what he said?

He said that the person who attacked those three was simply an inhumane bastard, their legs were broken, there were injuries all over their body, and the worst part was they were left alone for god knows how long!

Why did you do it?"

Evane questioned.

"1 Year."

Nux muttered.

"Teacher Evane, those 'Children' you are talking about, bullied an 8-year-old child for 1 whole year.

And trust me, it was not any bullying normal 15-year children do, it was something far worse.

They humiliated him in front of many students, they beat him up for no apparent reason, they took everything he bought with his hard-earned money and the money his money mother sent to him and they did this for a whole, long year.

Not only that, they even dared to talk about his family, they talked about how they were Earls and how his mother was only a Viscount, hinting and indirectly warning him not to complain to the authorities.

Continue this for a few more years and the impact on that child's mind would be so big that his whole life would be destroyed.

This is not something you can just ignore, Teacher Evane.

It won't be wrong to say that those '15-year-old children' tortured him, Mentally and physically."

Nux answered as his eyes shined with rage.

He wasn't nearly done with those Bourkees, however, what happens next would be decided by Felberta, not him.

Actually, he hasn't even told anything to Felberta yet.

He wanted her to see Royce's happy face before telling her what has happened.

Evane, who heard Nux's words was taken aback, she thought about it a little and then, she gritted her teeth,

“But... but couldn't you approach things in a better way...?”

That boy didn't complain to the Authorities, but couldn't you do it in his stead?

Why would you take things into your own hands?

Why not let the authorities do it?

Everything would have been solved more peacefully that way...”

She questioned and a wry smile appeared on Nux's face.

“Teacher Evane... You can talk about things and solve everything ‘peacefully’ because you are the princess of this Kingdom.”

Nux muttered and then he continued,

“With your status, solving things is much easier for you than it is for someone like us.

I apologize if it sounds a little harsh, but the way you think is naïve and a little foolish.

Let's say I had used your way to solve things and complained to the authorities, what do you think would happen?” Nux questioned.

“Authorities would have taken strict action against those three students,” Evane answered.

She wasn't bothered when Nux called her foolish, she wanted to know what he was thinking, she was rather open about it.

“And what is this ‘Strict’ action you are talking about?” Nux questioned.

“They would be expelled from the Academy.”

Hearing the answer, Nux smiled,

“Oh? And then what?”

“Huh?” Evane frowned.

“So you are telling me that the price of destroying the future of a Student is just expulsion?”

Evane frowned.

“What if I bully 20-30 students? What if I make their life worse than hell, destroy their confidence, impact their brain so much that they would never dare to stand against someone in their entire life,

What action will the academy take against me? Expulsion?

Then what about the students who were bullied? What about their destroyed future? Who will compensate that?”

“...” Evane turned silent.

She had no answer.

“This is the reason why I had to take things into my own hands, Teacher Evane.

I had to show him that while being a commoner, I can stand against Earls.

Not only that, I can even stand against someone more powerful than me.

I have to give him hope for his future, I needed to bring back his lost confidence.

And if I have to destroy the future of a few students to do that,

Then call me selfish if you want, but Teacher Evane, I will do it.”

Nux answered as his eyes shined with determination.

Evane was taken aback by those eyes.

That determination.

That will.

If she was being honest, she was impressed and at the same time, the way she was thinking was changing a little.

“Are you related to that boy somehow?” She questioned.

“...he calls me Big Brother,” Nux answered.

‘Though he should be calling me dad soon.’

Of course, he won’t say that out loud.

“So he is like your little brother huh...” Evane nodded.

“Indeed, I won’t go so far for someone I don’t know, Teacher Evane. I would have used your way, I would have complained to the Authorities.”

“...” Evane turned silent as she thought a little more about it.

“T-Then... are you sure you can win against that Candice two days later?” Evane questioned.

A smile appeared on Nux’s face and he answered,

“But of course.”

Chapter 259

“Hey, where are you going?” A boy named Alex questioned another boy.

“Huh? Were sleeping for the last two days?” Mark answered.

“Tsk Tsk, so you are going to the Battle Hall as well huh...” Alex understood.

Mark then shook his head and a posture appeared in his hand,

“Of course I am, Lady Candice is going to fight someone who dared to break the rules of the Academy.”

“Aha, so you saw that posture as well.”

“It was spread everywhere in the Academy, how can I not see it?” Mark answered.

“Indeed.” Alex nodded his head.

“But I am still surprised, I can’t believe that boy dared to break the rules and then challenged Lady Candice to a Sword Battle.

People like him should be kicked out of the school.”

“I agree.

Well whatever, I heard that he is going to apologize after Lady Candice wins this battle.

So it doesn’t really matter.

He will be punished no matter what.”

“Do you think an apology would cut it?”

“Heh, you think we people will end it there? Let the match end, after Lady Candice is done with him, we will give him our own piece of mind.” Alex smiled.

“Hehe~ True True.” Mark nodded with a similar smile on his face.

“But why are you going there an Hour earlier?”

Alex questioned with a frown.

“Huh? I can ask you the same question,”

“...”

The two of them glanced at each other and in the end, Mark sighed.

“Whatever, let’s not talk about it right now.

Shall we go together then? If we go early, we will be able to get the best seats with the best view,”

“Alright.”

The two of them then rushed towards the Battle Hall, however, as soon as the Battle Hall appeared in front of their eyes, their body froze in shock.

There was a huge line in front of the Battle Hall.

The two of them rushed forward and questioned,

“Oi, why is there such a big line in front of the Battle Hall?” Mark questioned a boy.

A boy turned around and sighed,

“You know about the Sword Duel, right?”

“Of course we do.”

“Apparently, a few people have been here in this Battle Hall from yesterday night, and some joined early in the morning.

The Battle Hall is already full...”

“What!?”

The boy sighed...

Battle Hall had the capacity to fit 5000 Students, which was half of the total number of students in the Academy and no matter how grand the occasion was, the Battle Hall was never filled up to the brim.

Some students even called it the Second Auditorium.

However, today...

“Yes, there are only a few seats left, just get in the line, if we are lucky, we will get those seats if not...

Then forget about it...”

Yes, this time, the number of seats fell short.

That was how strong Candice, the Queen of the Royal Academy’s image and her marketing skills is.

“And we thought coming here an hour earlier was overkill...” Mark couldn’t believe it.

...

An hour later, when everyone settled down inside the Battle Hall, while many students were forced to stay out, Nux and Candice entered the stage.

“Lady Candice!”

“Lady Candice!”

Many cheers were heard.

It was expected.

She was the Queen of the Academy after all.

“Nux! You can do it!”

“You can do it!”

“We are with you!”

However, not everyone in the room was supporting the Queen.

Some supported Nux.

Most of them were the students of his own class, while there were also a few other students who heard what had happened two days ago and disagreed with Candice.

Of course, the students who were supporting Nux were fairly low in number compared to Candice’s fanatics.

“There aren’t many people who want to see you win,” Candice smirked.

Nux, however, did not give in to her provocations and answered,

“It’s not like they are going to come here and fight.”

“Heh.” Candice chuckled.

“I will clarify the rules again,

This would be a Best of Three Battle where the challengers will use wooden swords to fight.

Are you two ready?”

The two of them then heard an emotionless voice.

Nux glanced at the woman standing in front of him and smiled.

[Name: Arvina Skyfall]

[Age: 102]

[Mana Cultivation: Expert.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal. ]

[Race: Human ]

[Occupation: Vice Headmaster of the Royal Academy.]

[Talent: High]

[LVL: 54]

[HP: 650/650]

[MP: 1100/1100]

[STR: 63]

[AGL: 69]

[VIT: 65]

[STM: 62]

[INT: 110]

[DEF: 55]

...

‘Heh. I finally get to see you, Arvina Skyfall.’

Nux chuckled.

Brown-red, fiery eyes, sword-like eyebrows, light-blonde hair, luscious red lips and a lean physique, the woman was really enchanting; however, together with being beautiful, she also released a ferocious, dangerous aura.

Aura of a Warrior.

A well-trained warrior.

If Thyra gave off a dangerous, silent type aura, her aura was more of a dominant type of aura.

(Picture in Paragraph comments)

“I am,” Nux answered her question.

“Heh. I am ready as well, teacher.” Candice smiled.

“Alright.” Arvina stepped back.

Seeing this, Candice’s smile widened in joy and a wooden smile appeared in her hands.

“What did you say again? ‘It’s not like they are going to fight in your stead’ right? Heh. You wish they would.

At the very least, you wouldn’t have to go through the humiliation you will be going through today.”

Candice laughed disdainfully.

Nux narrowed his eyes,

“What did you say...?”

Seeing that look, Candice smiled even more and started walking toward him,

“I said I will make sure you crawl on your knees and rub your nose on the ground.”

Then, Candice brought her face close to Nux a crazed look appeared on her face.

“I will take everything from you, your self-respect, then your status, your confidence.

I will make sure to bury you so deep into the ground that you will never rise again.

I will destroy you, Nux Leander.”

Nux stepped back a little and gritted his teeth in anger.

Seeing that, Candice’s smile widened even more and she continued,

“Nux Lender, I will make you reg-”

However, before she could complete her sentence, Nux placed his wooden sword on her neck.

“Huh?” Candice blinked in surprise.

However, before she could react, Arvina’s voice was heard.

“Round One ends,

Nux Leander Wins.

Score, 1-0”

...

A/N: If I find a better picture for Arvina, then I might change her looks.

Though I like this picture as well.

Chapter 260

“Round One ends,

Nux Leander Wins.

Score, 1-0”

Arvina announced in an expressionless tone.

“H-Huh?” Candice couldn’t register what had happened.

And seeing that, Nux smiled,

“Aare you sure you are the Queen of the Academy?

Because, honestly, all I see is a dumb bitch.

I mean, who the fuck talks when they are fighting?

And you did it while coming close to me.

It was as if you wanted me to win.”

Nux chuckled.

“W-What?”

Candice finally registered what happened and her face distorted in anger.

“How dare you attack me like that!?

Weren’t you barking about being fair and just 2 days ago!? What happened!?

Too scared to fight me fairly!?”

“It was as fair as it could get, you dumb bitch, the fight had started.

And from where I come from, we don’t really talk with our opponents when we fight each other.”

“Y-Y-You Bastard!” Candice shouted in rage.

“Challenger Candice, the results are announced.

Come back to where your position.”

Arvina muttered and this time, although her tone was still bland and expressionless.

Nux and Candice could feel a little disappointment hidden inside it.

Nux smiled and for Candice, her face distorted in rage, however, she controlled herself and walked back to her position.

“Despicable! How can you do something like that!?” The audience finally realized what happened and someone shouted in rage.

“You call yourself a warrior!? I only see a cheater!”

“Yeah! Cheater!”

The audience started booing and taunting Nux.

Nux then turned towards the audience and shouted back,

“Oh yeah? Do you guys think you are a better judge than Teacher Arvina? Why not come down here and replace her then?”

“...”

The Audience turned silent.

Arvina glanced at Nux and narrowed her eyes.

This guy just used her to deal with the audience, placing her directly against the audience while getting out of the mess on his own.

That is not something one can come up with on a whim.

‘Is he really a commoner?’ Arvina thought inwardly.

Seeing his method had worked, Nux chuckled.

“L-Lady Candice! Don’t worry, he just won the first round on a whim, it is the best of three! You just have to win the next two rounds!”

Someone in the audience muttered.

“Yes, Lady Candice! His tricks won’t work again!”

“Yes!”

“Lady Candice! You can do it!”

The crowd then started cheering for Candice and seeing this, Nux shook his head,

“Tsk Tsk, dumb people supporting a dumb bitch,

An interesting sight indeed.”

“...”

Again, the crowd turned silent and they glared at Nux with rage and hatred.

Candice was the same as well.

She can’t believe that she lost one round.

This should have been a 2-0 match, now it would be 2-1!

And it was all because of this despicable bastard!

“Teacher, I am ready for the next round!”

Arvina turned towards Nux and questioned,

“Are you ready for the next round or do you need some rest?”

Nux shrugged.

“It’s not like I had to do much.

Thanks to you how dumb my opponent is, I am as good as new right now.”

A vein popped up on Candice’s forehead.

‘Hateful bastard!’

Arvina nodded and then she stepped back.

This time, Candice did not repeat her mistake and dashed towards Nux, trying to attack his head.

*Tak*

Nux blocked her attacks and their wooden swords collided.

Candice shifted her weight and attacked his waste, Nux moved his belly and attacked Candice’s shoulder which she blocked with her sword.

Candice then tried to kick Nux on his neck, but Nux crouched and attacked her legs.

“Despicable indeed.”

Candice jumped and muttered.

Nux completely ignored her and attacked her legs again,

This little advantage, he won’t leave it so easily.

Candice, however, was better than he thought, she stepped on his sword and then, she shot toward him, trying to end this fight.

“This is the end, you bastard!”

However, then, a small smile appeared on Nux’s face.

This fight was unfair, to begin with.

Unfair for Candice, of course.

She was a Master Stage Cultivator who had the advantage in speed, strength, and defence if she fought against a normal Advance Stage Cultivator.

However, Nux wasn’t ‘normal’.

He was a Body Cultivator as well.

Therefore, he had the complete advantage in this battle.

Seeing her coming towards him, Nux smiled and then, he stepped back.

Candice frowned, however, before she could even realise what had happened, Nux used his wooden sword to smack her face.

“Uuuggghh!” Candice groaned in pain.

Nux, however, wasn’t done yet.

He hit on her hand,

“Aaahh!”

*Tak*

The sword Candice was carrying fell to the ground.

And then,

Nux smiled.

“Ugghh!”

“Ugggghh!”

“AAgghhh!”

“Oogghhh!!”

Head, shoulder, arms, legs, he attacked everywhere, however, most of her hits were focused on her face.

And his hits weren't merciful at all.

“Heeh? What did you say?”

“You will take everything away from me?”

Nux chuckled as he smacked his sword on Candice's right cheek.

“Ugghh!”

“My self-respect.”

“Ugghh!”

Candice's tooth broke and fell on the floor.

“My status.”

“Aaagghh!!”

“You? You are going to take it from me?”

Nux chuckled as he used an uppercut and punched her chin.

“Ugghhh!”

Candice lost her balance and fell to the floor.

“You think you can do that?”

Nux walked towards her and kicked her face.

“Aaggghhh!!”

Then, he stepped on her head and grinned,

“Do you have the strength to do that? Oh so mighty Queen of the Academy?”

He didn't care if Candice was a girl.

Nux was a believer of equality.

If women have the right to attack men, then men have the right to do the same.

Therefore, he stepped on Candice's face and even used some pressure to pin her head on the floor.

“AAAGGGHHHH! YOU BASTARD!”

Candice, who couldn't take this humiliation anymore roared in rage!

This bastard could have ended the fight, however, he dared to humiliate her!

He dared to step on her head!

There is no fucking way she would let him go!

“[Water Missile]!”

She used her Mana and attacked.

However, before her Skill even activated, a Strong gust of wind nullified her attack and a cold, expressionless voice was heard.

“Challenger Candice Water used Mana.

Disqualified.

Round Two ends.

Score, 2-0

This concludes today's battle.

Winner, Nux Leander.”

Chapter 261

“Challenger Candice used Mana.

Disqualified.

Round Two ends.

Score, 2-0

This concludes today’s battle.

Winner, Nux Leander.”

Arvina announced in an expressionless tone.

However, again, Nux could notice the slight disappointment in her tone.

Well, he can’t blame her either, Candice was her personal student after all.

He finally stepped away and just smiled.

On the other hand, when her attack was nullified, Candice finally realized what has happened,

“I... I lost...” She muttered, her disbelief was clear in her tone.

“Candice Water, you did not lose.” Nux, however, shook his head.

“Huh?” Candice turned towards Nux and frowned. Actually, his words filled her with some hope.

It was a best of five.

No, it was a dream.

Yes, this was just a bad dream, everything would disappear after she wakes up.

“You did not lose, Candice.” Nux smiled.

“...” Candice glanced at Nux, waiting for him to continue.

“You lost overwhelmingly.”

Nux smiled and then, a mirror appeared in his hands.

Candice then saw her face and her eyes widened in surprise.

Her face was swollen, there were injuries all over the place and there were no signs of her previous beautiful face.

“Yes, you lost overwhelmingly, you weren’t able to land a single hit on your opponent.

If I am being honest, it was a quite pathetic display.

Although I knew you would be nothing much since you were a dumb bitch, I still expected a little better.

Meh, the Queen of the Academy my ass.”

Nux shook his head in disappointment and Candice couldn’t believe her ears.

“...”

Even the audience was silent.

They saw the battle.

It was a completely one-sided battle, Candice stood no chance at all.

All her attacks were either blocked or dodged, on the other hand, once Candice’s sword fell to the ground, everything ended.

After that, she only acted as a punching bag.

She couldn't even dodge Nux's attack.

Let alone the students supporting Candice, even students supporting Nux were surprised by this display.

No one said anything and the battle hall was completely silent.

Until...

“Y-You won!”

A boy shouted.

“Big brother you won!”

Royce shouted on the top of his lungs.

“Yeahhh!!”

“Nux won!!”

Then, Nux's supporters exclaimed in joy and excitement.

“I can't believe he defeated the Queen!” A boy exclaimed.

“Queen my ass! She's more like a dumb bitch!” Another boy retorted.

“Yeah! Even I could beat someone as stupid as her!”

“Hahaha!”

Even some of Candice's supporters started laughing.

In just a few minutes, Candice, the Queen, turned into a dumb bitch.

That is how the popularity worked, there would be people who worship you but there would also be people who would be jealous of you and would do anything to bring you down.

Now, these kinds of people would emerge and wouldn't stop before Candice's image is completely destroyed.

“Hahaha! Indeed Indeed!

She is nothing but a Two-faced bitch who thinks that the world revolves around her just because she is a little talented!”

“Hmph! I knew someone would show that bitch her place!”

“Hahaha! At the very least, it was satisfying to watch!”

“Especially when that boy kicked her face and stepped on her arrogant face.”

“Hahaha!”

The crowd started laughing.

Arvina didn't care about it, she just walked toward Candice and gave her a healing potion.

Candice took the potion and her face started to return to normal, it was injuries from just a normal wooden sword, something a healing potion would easily deal with.

“Treat this fight as a lesson, there is always someone better out there.”

Arvina advised.

“Yes, teacher.” Candice nodded and lowered her head.

No matter how dissatisfied she was, she cannot go against her teacher's words.

*Step*

Candice's eyes then fell on familiar-looking shoes, she raised her head and saw Nux standing in front of her.

“What do you want...?” She questioned in a light tone. Not knowing how to deal with him.

“Our bet.”

Nux smiled and Candice's expression fell.

Arvina narrowed her eyes as well.

Nux noticed the change in Arvina's expression and smiled,

“You aren't going to come between our bet, will you, Teacher Arvina?

If you will, just tell me here and I will step back,

I can't go against the Vice Headmaster of the Academy with my measly status after all.”

Arvina glanced at Nux and then, she stepped back.

Seeing that, Candice's eyes widened in surprise.

“Candice Water, get on your knees and rub your nose on the ground while apologizing.”

Nux ordered in a cold tone.

Candice glared at Nux with eyes filled with hatred and rage,

“You think you can handle to consequences of that!?”

Nux's smile widened.

“I can.

Now do what you are told, bitch!”

Candice turned silent and lowered her eyes.

She could feel it.

She could feel every student looking at her with big smiles on their faces.

They were looking forward.

They were looking forward to seeing the fall of the Queen.

‘Do it!’

‘Do it, Candice Water!’

‘Get on your knees!’

Although no one said anything, Candice could clearly hear their thoughts.

In the end, she couldn’t take it anymore and a stream of tears came out of her eyes.

“P-Please... let me go...

Please change the content of the bet, you want money right? Tell me how much you want, I will give you anything. Just please...”

She begged in a low voice.

She cannot get on her knees here.

Her pride would break apart, not only that, even her father’s pride would take a huge hit.

She cannot do that.

Nux, however, glanced at her with an expressionless face.

“In this world, the weak have no right to say or complain about anything. Do you know why these students aren’t helping you? It is because you are weak.

You thought that you could use your status and money to get away from our bet.

That is how the weak think, step up yourself, protect yourself, this is how you live in this world.

Do not rely on anything else because if you do,

You will be squashed by the others.

I am not wrong; I am only showing you how the world works.”

Candice’s eyes widened in surprise when she heard those words.

Familiar, they were very very familiar sounding words, (Refer to chapter 231)

Then, Nux’s eyes turned cold,

“Now get on your knees and rub your nose on the ground, Candice Water.”

Chapter 262

“Now get on your knees and rub your nose on the ground, Candice Water.”

Nux ordered coldly.

Candice lowered her head in shame and her body started trembling.

The Silent Battle Hall did not help her either,

She knew everyone was looking forward to her fall from grace, however, there was nothing she could do about it.

She knows that the longer she stalls, the more unbearable it will get.

Candice then forced her trembling body to move, then, she placed her knees on the ground and then, she glanced at Nux.

Honestly, she was still hoping that he would stop her...

Maybe he has a secret crush on her, maybe he took pity on her, maybe he doesn't like what she was going to do, Anything.

Anything random reason was okay.

However, what she saw was nothing but an expressionless look that had no signs of discomfort.

“I do not have all day.” And as if taking away her last hopes, Nux spoke.

Candice's body trembled even more and then, she lowered her head.

Her tears fell on the ground and then, her nose touched the ground.

“I...I apologize f-for m-my actions...”

Saying that, Candice rubbed her nose on the ground while her body continued to tremble in shame and anger.

“ ... ”

Then, she waited for Nux’s reply.

She did her part, she just wanted to end everything now.

She didn’t even dare to look around, she didn’t need to look, she could feel those smirks on the faces of students.

Those smirks of the people who used to praise her as their Queen stabbed her body with immense pain and anger.

Nux then turned his head towards the audience, and then his eyes fell on Royce.

He nodded at Royce and the boy nodded back.

Then, he turned around and walked away.

Yes, he did not answer Candice, he didn’t care about that bitch one bit.

He left her alone.

Candice’s body trembled even more, however, she didn’t say anything.

She was too ashamed to do anything.

“Wait.”

However, just as Nux was about to leave the Battle Hall, Arvina called.

“Is there anything I can help you with, Teacher Arvina?” Nux questioned with a smile on his face.

Arvina then turned towards Candice and instructed.

“This is enough, you can stand up now.”

Candice nodded and stood up as quickly as possible.

Then, as if trying to avoid all eyes looking and gloating at her, she walked towards Arvina and stood behind her.

Arvina then turned towards Nux,

“You must be tired after your fight-”

“No, not really, she didn’t really pose any challenge.”

Nux shook his head and shrugged his shoulders nonchalantly.

“You must be tired after your fight with Candice, therefore, I won’t say anything to you today. However, 2 days later, I want you to come to my office.

Is that clear?” Arvina questioned.

Hearing her words, Candice’s eyes brightened in joy.

‘Is she going to take revenge for me?’

She thought inwardly and rejoiced, however, soon, she shook her head.

‘There is no way Teacher is going to do something like that.’

Nux didn’t break any rules today, and Arvina was the last person to show favouritism.

Candice knows her teacher well, there is no way she would take her side in this incident.

Then, Candice frowned,

‘Why is she calling him to his office then?’

Nux had the same question in his mind,

“Can I know what it is for, Teacher Arvina?” he questioned.

“Are you scared that I will act against you for the sake of my student?” Arvina questioned with a provocative smile.

“No, not really. I have heard about you, Teacher Arvina, you are an honest and just person.” Nux shook his head.

“Rumours can be wrong, you know?”

“I trust my source of information.” Nux smiled and then, he continued,

“Of course, if I am wrong and you actually do want to take action against me, I can’t really do anything to defend myself now, can I?

I am just a powerless commoner after all.”

A small smile appeared on Arvina’s face when she heard Nux’s reply.

“Alright, enough chit-chat.

I want you in my office 2 days later, is that clear?”

“Yes, teacher.”

Nux nodded.

Arvina nodded and then, she turned around and left. Candice, of course, followed behind her.

There were a lot of things in her mind right now.

Also, this was the only place that can save her from immense shame, for now at least.

Nux then walked away as well however, just as he left the Battle Hall, he saw Evane standing right in front of him.

“Teacher Evane, I won.” He smiled.

“I saw.

I can’t believe you actually did it.” Evane smiled.

“Hehe~ I told you right?

It was a walk in the park.” Nux chuckled and Evane couldn’t help but shake her head.

“You do realize what you have done, right?”

“Heh. I defeated the Queen of the Academy.” Nux answered.

“That is true, however, that is not the most surprising part,

You defeated a Master Stage Cultivator while being an Advance Stage Cultivator...

Nothing like this has ever happened before.

You have created history!”

“It was not like it was an actual fight though, we didn’t use skills.”

Nux shrugged.

Of course, staying humble is the best way to garden as many compliments as one can.

Ahem.

“It doesn’t matter! You defeated a Master Stage Cultivator! This is worth celebrating!” Evane exclaimed in joy.

“Heehh? Teacher Evane, then are you treating me for food?”

“Aren’t you the one who won? Shouldn’t you be the one to treat your teacher here?” Evane questioned.

“Alright, I’ll treat you, Teacher Evane.” Nux nodded.

“Oh? Really?”

“You think I would go back to my words?” Nux questioned.

“Don’t regret it then.”

“Heh. I won’t.” Nux nodded.

“Alright, then let’s call the rest of your classmat-”

“Huh? When did I say I will treat them as well?” Nux questioned.

“Huh? They are your classmates, are they not?” Evane frowned.

“They are, but they are not my favourite teacher,” Nux then moved his face close to Evane and whispered.

“Teacher Evane, this offer is exclusive for you and you only~”

For some reason, a tinge of red appeared on Evane’s face.

Nux then extended his hands towards her and smiled,

“Shall we go now?”

“A-Alright.”

Chapter 263

Nux then extended his hands towards her and smiled,

“Shall we go now?”

“A-Alright.”

Evane didn't know what was happening, for some reason, when she heard that this deal was exclusive for her, she blushed and stepped back.

Nux then moved forward and extended his hands towards her and her heart started beating for some odd reason.

He was just a student offering a treat to her teacher after winning a duel, why was she acting like that!?

And since her mind was preoccupied with these weird thoughts, she couldn't think properly and accepted Nux's offer so that she can deal with the awkwardness.

She then grabbed the Nux had extended and the two of them started walking towards the Academy's Canteen.

While holding each other's hand.

This caused Evane to blush even more, however, since she had already accepted Nux's hand, she couldn't go back on her words anymore. He would feel awkward if she does that.

Therefore, Evane just closed her eyes, tightened her grip around Nux's hand and continued walking with him.

Seeing her expression, Nux smiled.

...

A few minutes later, the two of them were sitting inside the Academy's Canteen and since most of the students were still stuck in the Battle Hall, the canteen was pretty much empty.

Giving Evane and Nux all the privacy they need.

This calmed Evane down as well.

Nux then picked up the menu and gave it to Evane,

“Teacher Evane, please order anything you like.”

Evane smiled, she then gave her order and then turned towards Nux,

“What about your little brother? Is he fine now? Or is he still being bullied?” Evane tried her best to act normal.

Nux understood what she wanted and smiled,

“Yes, he is not being bullied anymore.”

“Why didn't you bring him here with us?” Evane questioned.

“Hindrance.”

Nux mumbled.

“What?” Evane couldn't catch what he said,

“Ah, I nothing. I meant that I want him to be alone for a while and think about his future steps. I can't help him there in this process.

I have done all I could, I have given him a big enough example, from here on, it's all on him.

Whether he would come out of his shell, or remain there for the rest of his life, it all depends on him.

I do plan to bring her to his mother though.”

Nux answered.

“Hmm? You are going to leave with him?”

“Yeah, I am planning to take a leave for a few days and go with him. I might as well meet his mother now.”

Evane nodded and then questioned, “When are you going to leave?”

“Two days later, after I meet Teacher Arvina.”

“Huh?” Suddenly, Evane frowned.

She had already left when Nux won, she didn't have the heart to see a student going on her knees, even though that student disrespected her.

Therefore, she didn't know anything about Arvina's instructions.

“Why would you go there?” She questioned.

Nux then told her everything that happened and then, Evane frowned even more.

“Why would she tell you to come to her office...?”

Seeing her expression, Nux frowned,

“Hm? Why are you acting so weirdly, Teacher Evane? Teacher Arvina isn't planning to do anything to me, is she?”

He questioned.

Hearing his question, Evane shook her head,

“Don't worry, she is fair and just, she won't do anything to you. She's the last person who would trouble someone just because he/she defeated her student.”

“But I heard that she was a man-hater...”

Nux questioned.

“You are rather well informed huh...” Evane glanced at Nux and then, she continued,

“Well, she can be called a man-hater, but as I said, she won’t do you any harm if you don’t provoke her.

Usually, she just gives any man a cold shoulder, even if it is her student. Of course, if you have any doubt, then she would answer your queries regardless of your gender, however, if you say anything useless, she will ignore you.

The reason I am so surprised was that she has never called for a male student inside her office on her own. This is the first time.”

“Ahh, was she charmed by my handsome face?” Nux questioned with a playful smile.

Evane then looked at him with a deadpan expression on her face as she warned.

“Yes, this is a good example, she usually ignores statements like these. So don’t say anything like this to her if you don’t want a cold shoulder.”

“Hm hm, I got it. So in conclusion, Teacher Evane is the best teacher one can get.” Nux nodded.

“...I don’t know how you came to that conclusion but thank you.” Evane smiled a little.

“Teacher Evane, can you give me some tips on how to not annoy Teacher Arvina? That would be helpful.

I would rather not lose my life there.”

“Look at you, acting all scared.” Evane chuckled.

“She’s not a blood-thirsty monster, don’t worry, she won’t harm you.”

“I don’t want any cold shoulders either.”

Nux muttered.

“C’mon, Teacher Evane, help your favourite student.” Nux requested.

Evane shook her head in defeat and sighed,

“Look, dealing with Teacher Arvina is easy.

You go there, she asks you a question, and you answer it in the shortest way possible, without any useless words.

Then she asks you a few more questions, you answer them all and you come back.

Simple.”

“Hmmm, that’s rather vague...” Nux muttered with a frown.

“Well, that is the only way to do things, as I said, as long as you don’t say anything useless, you will be fine.”

“It’s not like I say anything useless anyway, do I?” Nux smiled innocently and seeing that innocent smile, Evane shook her head.

“Why do I feel that this meeting of yours won’t be any good...?”

“Ahh, don’t worry, Teacher Evane.

I promise you, this meeting would be so good that Teacher Arvina would even praise me many many times.”

Nux smiled and Evane...

She felt like Nux’s words had another meaning behind them.

Chapter 264

Arvina Skyfall was the Vice Headmaster of the Royal Academy, so of course, she was different from other teachers.

Therefore, when they say Teacher Arvina's Office, they don't mean a single room with a table and a few papers,

They are talking about a fucking mansion that has servants working everywhere.

And right now, Nux was standing in front of this big mansion.

"Is there anything I can help you with?" As Nux was walking inside, a servant came up to him and questioned him.

Nux was about to nod, however, then his eyes fell on someone and he smiled,

"I was called here by Teacher Arvina, but you don't have to worry, I know how to get to her office."

"Alright."

The servant nodded and then walked away.

Nux smiled, he then walked towards a certain blue-haired girl who was swinging her sword without stopping.

It has been two days after Candice's spar with Nux.

And, Candice's fall from grace.

The news about Candice's defeat has already spread all over the academy, heck, it has even left the academy and most of the noble houses have learned about it.

Of course, this piece of news wasn't alone, it came with how Candice lowered her head in front of a commoner.

Not only that but why and how the Battle started was told to everyone as well.

However, this time, Candice was the villain.

Protecting the bullies just because he was the younger brother of her subordinate, fighting against someone who only took avenged the person being bullied, defaming Teacher Evane.

All these charges came together and completely destroyed the image she has created for so many years.

As they say, the higher you rise, the harder you fall.

Candice's situation was a prime example of that.

And that is why Candice hasn't left her teacher's mansion for 2 days now.

She has decided that she won't make a public appearance as long as she doesn't become an Expert Stage Cultivator.

That is the only way she can wash away her shame.

As for taking revenge...

Well, she was thinking of ways to get her revenge, however, 2 days ago, Arvina visited her room at the night and warned,

'Do not do anything foolish,'

This was the first time Arvina warned her about anything and with how scary her eyes looked, Candice knew that he was pissed.

Therefore, Candice pledged to not do something stupid.

She can take her revenge when she is an Expert Stage Cultivator and is stronger than her teacher. However, before that,

She would just lay low and won't talk to anyone else.

Of course, not everything works in the way you want it to work.

“Yoo! Ex-Queen of the academy, how are you doing, bitch?”

Candice heard a voice, she then turned round and saw the face of the man she absolutely hate to her core.

“What is it?” She questioned.

As for his provocation,

No, she won't give in.

“What? Did I hit you too hard by any chance? Did you get dumber in these 2 days?”

Candice's face twitched, however, she still controlled herself and questioned,

“What do you want?”

“Damn, you really got dumber huh...”

Well whatever, I am here the meet Teacher Arvina.” Nux answered.

Candice then finally recalled that her teacher invited this bastard here,

“You can ask the servant working there, he will take you to her office.”

Candice pointed at the servant who was cleaning the floor.

“Ahh, but he is working, I didn't want to disturb him...” Nux muttered.

“...”

Candice then looked at Nux for a while and then pointed at another servant.

“What about that servant, he isn’t doing anything.”

“She looked like she was having rest after working so hard, so I didn’t want to bother her either.”

Nux answered.

“Do I look free to you?” Candice questioned.

“Well, yeah, you were just practising your sword techniques... So I thought you were free...”

Candice’s face twitched.

She took deep breaths to control herself and then, she forced out a smile.

“Do you think practising sword techniques is being free? Do you think it is useless?”

“Well, not really, but for someone like you, isn’t it useless?”

I mean, you lost to an Advance Stage Cultivator while being a Master Stage Cultivator...”

Nux answered.

“Follow me!”

Candice roared and then she started walking.

Nux chuckled and followed behind her.

Then, the two of them appeared in front of a room and Candice glared at Nux.

“Go inside! Teacher is inside!”

Then, she walked away.

“Fucking Bastard!! Just let me become an Expert Stage Cultivator! Once I do! Even that Marquee wouldn’t be able to do anything!

Fuck you!!”

After coming back to where she was training, Candice roared in anger.

It was completely impossible to hold back in front of that bastard!

What a poisonous tongue that bastard has!

Candice then picked up her sword and started swinging it angrily.

...

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

On the other hand, Nux knocked on the door and heard a voice.

“Who is it?”

“Nux Leander,”

Nux answered without any introduction.

His face wasn’t that forgettable, was it?

“Come in.”

It wasn’t.

A smile appeared on Nux’s face as he entered Arvina’s office.

Right now, Arvina was sitting on her chair, wearing a white shirt and black waistcoat half jacket over the top, her left leg was on the top of her write and she looked at Nux with her fairy brown-red eyes.

“You are here.”

“I would be a fool to not come when you called me, Teacher Arvina.”

Nux answered and if Evane was here, she would have shaken her head and would have sighed,

‘I only gave you one suggestion,

That was to not speak useless things in front of her.

How hard is that?

How can you not follow such a simple advice!?’

Arvina raised her eyebrows at Nux’s words, however, she decided to ignore them,

“Good.”

Nux nodded and then he smiled,

“So can I know what you called me for, Teacher Arvina?”

Arvina then stood up from her seat and walked towards Nux.

“Nux Leander, I want you to spar with me.”

Chapter 265

“Nux Leander, I want you to spar with me.”

Arvina muttered as she stood up from her seat and walked towards Nux.

“Huh?” Nux frowned and then, he smiled,

“Teacher Arvina, there are better ways to take revenge for your student, you know?”

I mean, you, as an Expert Stage Cultivator asking an Advance Stage Cultivator to spar is a little...”

“Trust me, if I wanted to take revenge, I would have beheaded you right here and right now, and no one would have said anything to me.” Arvina retorted.

Nux turned silent.

Just like Amaya said, this woman was too direct and her hatred for men was apparent.

I mean, what sane teacher talks about beheading her student right in front of him?

Someone like Arvina can easily overwhelm a normal student just by her presence.

Of course, Nux was different.

No matter how dominant Arvina’s aura was, there was no way she could overwhelm someone who was stronger than her.

“What do I get in return?” Nux questioned.

“Huh?” Arvina frowned.

“What do you mean?”

“Sparring with you isn’t exactly easy, Teacher Arvina.

If I do it, what will I get in return?” Nux questioned.

“Of course, you can also threaten me with your status and strength, but rather than going through that troublesome process, it is just better to just bribe me with something.”

Arvina narrowed her eyes.

“Don’t you value your life? Or do you like getting threatened by others?”

Nux chuckled,

“Of course, I value my life, however, I won’t be threatened by others.”

Nux narrowed his eyes as well, “I would rather die than live like a coward.”

Arvina was taken aback by his response, however, soon, a small smile appeared on her face before it disappeared the next second.

Of course, that second was enough for Nux to catch it.

‘Got it.’

He smiled inwardly when he noticed that smile.

It was a long shot, but he was successful in the end.

Arvina Skyfall was a warrior, what does a warrior like the most?

Pride and Fearlessness.

Of course, Nux calls it arrogance and foolishness, but if it impresses Arvina even a little, then they are pride and fearlessness.

“What do you want? If it is something reasonable, I will give it to you.”
Arvina replied.

“I want you to become my Teacher.”

“Huh?” Arvina was taken aback.

“Fighting against Candice made me realize that I might not be as good as I think I am. My swordsmanship is... unrefined.

So I want you to teach me,”

Nux explained his reasoning.

No, he wasn't doing this just because he wanted to spend more time with Arvina, well, that was 90% of the reason, however, the other 10 % was because he actually wanted to learn from her.

So what he said was genuine.

And Arvina sensed that and nodded,

“It is good that you can think about improving yourself even after winning the match against Candice.”

Nux shook his head,

“She wasn't someone who can be seen as a threshold, there are a lot stronger people than her out there. She was just too weak, there is no point celebrating a victory against someone like her.”

“You do realize that she is my student, correct?” Arvina questioned as she narrowed her eyes.

“Bad Student.”

Nux answered.

“Arrogant, selfish and wastes a lot of time on useless stuff. Heh. Queen of the Academy? What kind of bullshit is that? Whenever you see her, you find her walking around with a few of her dogs following behind her.

A girl who has no understanding of how the world works and just likes to live in that fake ‘Kingdom’ she has created in her own mind.

She is the prime example of a bad student.

I, however, am different.

At the very least, I won’t lose to some random student even whom I have challenged on my own and spoil your name.”

Nux answered and a smile appeared on Arvina’s face and this time, her smile did not disappear.

“Alright, I’ll take you as my personal student.”

Nux smiled,

“Than-”

However, before he could complete, Arvina brought her face dangerously close to his and smiled,

“However, your words have made me a little too excited.

So if you fail to live up to my expectations, do not even think about getting away scratch free.”

For some reason, Nux’s heart skipped a beat when he heard those words.

*Gulp*

He gulped.

He felt that he has done something he shouldn’t have done.

However, he soon came back to his senses and nodded,

“I will not disappoint you, teacher.”

Arvina finally backed away and then, her face turned serious,

“Alright, now as your teacher, I would like to point out a few things I found about your fighting style.

As you said, your fighting style is unrefined.

You are not well trained, you were not taught by anyone.

Of course, since you were a commoner, I would say that you had no one to teach you.

Whatever you know comes from experience, you have used your sword and fought many life-threatening battles.

If I were to guess, you have visited Bloodhill Wilder quite a few times and have trained there.

Am I correct?”

Nux blinked a few times and then, he nodded.

“Fighting against humans and star beasts is completely different.

Humans are intelligent, while Star Beasts have a fixed pattern, humans are unpredictable, and every human has a different fighting style.

This is why, whenever you fight against a human, you would realize that some of your moves, that the beasts generally won't block, will be blocked and countered by humans.

That is why you feel that your fighting style is unrefined.

You lack training, so finding a teacher was a wise decision.”

Nux nodded in agreement.

Suddenly, a wooden sword appeared in Arvina’s hands and she pointed it at Nux.

“I also have another theory in my mind, however, I am still not sure about this.

That is the reason why I wanted you to spar with me.”

Chapter 266

‘Huh? Is she actually avenging me?’

Are my eyes playing any tricks on me?

No no no no, there is no way teacher would do something like that.

Wait... did he somehow offend her with her words?

That does sound like something that could happen, his tongue is poisonous indeed.’

A small smile appeared on Candice’s face as she watched Arvina and Nux standing in front of her with wooden swords in their hands.

‘Heh, you finally get what you deserve, you bastard!’

Candice laughed inwardly.

Actually, she wanted to laugh out loud, however, if she did, her teacher would find where she was hiding and would change the location.

She was now sure that her teacher was a shy type of person.

She won’t help her in front of her, however, she would avenge her behind her back.

Hehe~ Her teacher was amazing.

Candice laughed inwardly and looked forward to this battle.

“Shall we start now?” Arvina questioned.

“Yes, teacher,” Nux answered.

“Alright, attack me with everything you got,” Arvina instructed.

Nux nodded and then he rushed towards Arvina and aimed at her head. Arvina, of course, blocked the attack with her sword.

Nux didn't give up, another sword appeared in his left hand and he attacked her waist.

Arvina raised her eyebrow in surprise and then, she stepped back and dodged the attack.

“You use two swords?” Arvina questioned in surprise.

“I use anything I can to defeat my opponent, swords, dagger, spears, stones, fist, anything.”

Nux answered and a smile appeared on Arvina's face.

“Alright, come at me then.”

Nux nodded and then, he dashed towards her again, he first aimed at her feet, Arvina raised her leg to dodge the attack, having already anticipated that, Nux stepped forward and attacked her other leg.

Or so he wanted to, however, there was already a sword that was placed on his neck.

Forcing him to stop.

“Don't just think about your own tactics, think about what your opponent might do as well. You gave me too much time here.”

Nux nodded and stepped back.

He then dashed towards her again and repeated the same move, Arvina raised her leg to dodge and this time, Nux crouched and tried to attack her remaining leg with his right leg, Arvina, however, stepped aside and placed her sword on Nux's neck again.

Or not...

Before she could do so, Nux crawled over and created some distance between the two of them.

Arvina didn't want to miss this opportunity, so she rushed toward him however, Nux quickly threw dust on her face, trying to blind her.

Of course, this trick doesn't work against someone like Arvina, she quickly stepped away and waited for Nux to stand up.

“Despicable attack.”

She smiled.

“As I said, I'll do anything to win, I am not a noble knight,” Nux answered and although Arvina didn't like this answer and what Nux did, she accepted it.

It made his story feel more real, tactics like these are what many adventurers who hunt Star Beasts use, so she had expected something like this from Nux.

“You are a lot stronger than I expected, Candice stood no chance against you.”

Arvina muttered.

“As I said, defeating her wasn't anything to celebrate.

Candice wasn't even a competition.” Nux smiled and Candice, who heard everything from afar, gnashed her teeth.

‘Hateful bastard!

I hope you die as painfully as possible!’

“Alright, now I will be the one attacking you, get ready,” Arvina muttered and a smile appeared on Candice's face.

‘Heh, even teacher didn't like what that bastard said huh...’

Arvina then rushed towards Nux, of course, it was a spar so she didn't use her full speed.

She was an Expert Stage Cultivator, there is no way an Advance Stage Cultivator would be able to defeat her, therefore, she held herself back.

She aimed at Nux's waist, Nux reacted quickly and moved his body, then, he tried to aim at Arvina's neck.

The best defence was an attack!

However, this time, Arvina didn't step back like before, she just tilted her head a little and then, she attacked Nux's shoulder.

She didn't lose this lead, she moved her sword and targeted Nux's knee, her speed wasn't fast, it was similar to Nux's speed, however, her attacks were still hard to dodge.

Nux was barely hanging on, and that was because his senses were a lot stronger than normal.

He was a Grand Master Stage Cultivator after all.

Nux dodged Arvina's attack and saved his knee, then, he used his sword's hilt to attack Arvina's neck, she shifted her body and let him attack her shoulder instead.

And at the same time, she punched Nux's chest.

Nux reacted quickly, however, he noticed that there was nothing he could do to stop this punch. His right hand was near Arvina's face, while his left hand...

Well, it was completely out of the battle area since he was trying to summon another sword in that hand.

In the end, Nux could only tilt her body a little and the punch connected.

“Ugghh!”

Nux groaned in pain as he was forced to take a few steps back.

“That hurts...” he groaned and then he glanced at Arvina, however, he was surprised to see a shocked look on her face.

Suddenly, Arvina disappeared from where she was standing, Nux’s eyes widened in surprise, he quickly turned around and blocked her attack with his sword.

Arvina however, wasn’t done yet.

She used dragged her sword down and attacked Nux’s feet, Nux wanted to do a backflip to dodge that attack, however, his cultivation was restricted, his body couldn’t react as fast as his mind and Arvina’s sword hit his ankle.

“Aaahhh!”

Nux grabbed his ankle and jumped a few times, trying to cope with the pain.

“Teacher Arvina, that really hurts!” He complained.

However, he frowned when he saw the surprised look on Arvina’s face.

Soon, the surprised look disappeared and she closed her eyes,

“As I expected,” She muttered.

“What?” Nux frowned.

Arvina then opened her eyes and glared at Nux,

“You are not an Advance Stage Cultivator, what is your actual cultivation?”

Chapter 267

“You are not an Advance Stage Cultivator, what is your actual cultivation?”

Arvina questioned as she narrowed her eyes.

“Huh? What are you talking about? How can one hide his cultivation? And why would I even do that?”

Nux frowned.

Was [Trickster] not working anymore?

Was he out of Mana?

No... he still has plenty.

Then how did she find out...?

“Don’t try to hide it from me, I don’t know how you did it, but I’m sure you are hiding your original Cultivation.”

Arvina muttered and Nux frowned even more.

His Trickster was working fine...

Then how...

“Your reaction speed is a lot faster than normal.

Your eyes react to changes a lot sooner and your body is often unable to catch up to your senses. This only happens when one suppresses his powers.

I noticed something like that earlier with your battle with Candice as well, however, I still wasn’t sure about it at that time, now, however, I am 100% sure, you are hiding your cultivation.”

“ ... ”

Nux turned silent.

He didn't know he would be exposed too soon.

He has barely been in this academy for 2 weeks...

Just how can someone do something so badly?

“Nux, you didn't answer my question yet.

What is your actual cultivation?”

Arvina questioned again.

This time, Nux knew he couldn't hide it therefore, he just sighed.

“I would rather talk to you alone, Teacher.”

“Huh? What do you mean?” Arvina frowned.

Nux then turned his head towards Candice and muttered,

“Come out.”

Candice panicked.

‘How did that bastard find me!?’

She wondered in her head.

However, she didn't move.

That bastard might be bluffing.

She won't fall for that.

She wasn't stupid!

“Are you trying to change the topic?” Arvina frowned.

Nux then sighed,

“Candice, I can see your shoes, come out now.” Of course, he didn't see any shoes, his [Sense] warned him the moment Candice decided to hide herself behind the bush.

He knew she was here from the beginning but didn't care enough to say anything.

Now, however, things were different.

This time, Candice's body flinched and she moved a little.

This little movement was enough for Arvina to know that someone was hiding behind that bush.

“Candice, come out. Now.” She instructed in a strict tone and Candice finally stepped out and appeared in front of them.

“What are you doing here? Didn't I tell you to go practice your sword techniques?”

“I-I saw you two coming here and got curious...” Candice answered.

Arvina sighed in defeat and then, she turned towards Nux,

“I need to talk to you about something, follow me to my office.”

She then turned towards Candice,

“As for you...” Arvina wanted to tell her to go back and practice again, however, in the end, she just sighed.

“Do whatever you want, I don't really care.”

It was not like Candice would hear what she will say...

Just like Nux said, she was too arrogant and often neglects her training because of how talented she is.

Disappointing indeed.

Thinking that, Arvina turned around and walked away.

Seeing her like that, Nux smiled a little.

If Arvina wasn't here, he would have thanked Candice for proving his earlier words and being the 'bad student'

Now, all he needs to do is become a 'good student' and get close to Arvina Skyfall.

'Hehe~ Candice is a true friend indeed.'

Nux thought in his mind and followed behind Arvina.

As for Candice, well since her teacher told her to do whatever she wanted, she walked towards the room provided to her by her teacher and jumped on the bed.

She was too tired after swinging her sword all day.

'Tsk Tsk, can't Teacher Arvina teach me new moves already?'

She snorted inwardly, however, then, a serious look appeared on her face.

'And what was Teacher Arvina talking about? Nux was hiding his cultivation? What does that mean? And how can one hide his cultivation? Is that even possible?'

Or was teacher trying to say something else?' Candice frowned and then, a determined look appeared on her face.

'I need to learn more about this.'

‘Wait...’ Suddenly, Candice realized something,

‘What happened to Teacher avenging me?’

...

On the other side, inside Arvina’s room, Arvina glanced at Nux and questioned again,

“Alright, now we are alone, answer me.

What is your real cultivation?”

Nux sighed, while walking towards the office, he thought about a few things and in the end, he came up with a conclusion.

He needed Arvina Skyfall’s help in the future when he deals with Astaria Skyfall.

Therefore, his relation with Arvina should be strong.

Also, he has interacted with Arvina for a while, she seemed trustworthy.

Therefore, he decided to tell her the truth.

He was hoping that she would keep it to herself.

He still wants to attend the academy after all.

Also, when there is a secret between two people, it is natural that they will get close to each other.

Nux smiled inwardly as he thought about it.

He then deactivated his [Trickster] and his cultivation returned back to normal.

“!!!”

And seeing his cultivation, Arvina's eyes widened in surprise.

“G-Grand Master S-Stage Cultivator...”

She couldn't believe her eyes.

“H-How old a-are you?” She questioned.

“I will turn 19 soon,” Nux answered and Arvina's eyes widened even more.

A 19-year-old Grand Master Stage Cultivator!!

What kind of monstrous talent is that!?

“Y-You are 19...?”

Arvina stuttered.

Nux nodded.

He was actually 18 but... whatever.

“W-What is your Elemental Affinity? It is written High here, but I am sure that is incorrect.” Arvina questioned.

“Exceptional.”

Nux answered.

“Exceptional?”

“Yes, Exceptional level affinity with all four elements.”

Nux revealed and Arvina just couldn't believe what she was hearing.

Candice, a 22-year-old Master Stage Cultivator, Exceptional Level Affinity with Water element was treated as the future pillar of the Kingdom,

B-But this!?

What the hell is this!?

A 19-year-old Grand Master Stage Cultivator!

Exception level affinity with Fire, Water, Wind, Earth, all four elements!

Just what kind of absurdity is that!?

Monster!

A complete monster!

However, soon, a frown appeared on Arvina's face,

“Why did you hide it?”

Chapter 268

“Why did you hide it?”

Arvina questioned with a frown on her face.

A wry smile appeared on Nux’s face as he answered,

“Teacher Arvina, think with me,

An 18-year-old, Grand Master Stage Cultivator, with Exceptional Level Affinities with all four elements, with no background whatsoever,

What do you think would happen if this is revealed?

Do you think that I will be praised by others?”

“...” Arvina turned silent.

“Do you think they will make me the King of the Academy and then the Future Pillar of the Kingdom?”

Nux questioned.

And Arvina stayed silent.

“What do you think will happen, Teacher?” Nux questioned again.

“You will be killed...”

Arvina answered.

She knows it better than anyone else.

Nux’s talent has never been seen before.

Never.

There would be many who would covet this talent.

There would be many who would be jealous of his talents.

There would be many who would try to recruit this talent, however, at the same time, once Nux is recruited, there would be many who would try to get rid of this talent to avoid any future troubles.

Even if he is recruited by Royal Family, the strongest power in the Kingdom, where no one would dare to cause any harm to him,

There would still be many, inside the Royal family who would try to get rid of him.

There would be many assassins sent by other kingdoms who would try to get rid of him.

Heck, there are chances that the King would feel threatened by his talent and would try to get rid of him.

All in all, the chances of Nux surviving after revealing his talent to the world were close to null.

Thinking about all this, another question popped into Arvina's mind.

“You could have easily refused to answer the question and I would have no choice but to let it go.

Why did you tell me something so important?

Why are you risking your life?”

A small smile appeared on Nux's face as he answered,

“You are my teacher.

I can trust you enough to keep this a secret, can I not?”

Arvina blinked a few times and then, a beautiful smile appeared on her stern-looking face,

“You can.

You can trust your teacher, Nux Leander.”

Nux smiled however, soon he noticed that Arvina’s smile widened,

“However, don’t think you will be living a comfortable life anymore, Nux. You wanted to train under me, correct?

Get ready for hell, because I will polish a refined gem like you with everything I have.

And unlike Candice, I won’t let you slack off at all.”

Arvina smiled even more.

*Gulp*

Nux gulped.

“Umm... Teacher Arvina... I have a request...” He muttered in a low voice.

“What is it?” Arvina questioned.

“I need a leave, for a week.”

“...”

“Teacher?”

“...”

Arvina looked at Nux with a deadpan expression on her face.

“Just after you made me your teacher?”

“I-It is important, Teacher Arvina,

I-I promise to train as hard as I can once I return.”

Nux promised.

Arvina then thought about it a little and then questioned,

“Can you tell me where are you going?”

“You know why I fought Candice, correct?” Nux questioned.

“Umm... not really...

That girl didn't tell me and changed the topic whenever I asked her about it. There are people talking about it everywhere, but I would rather not believe in rumours.” Arvina answered.

Nux smiled disdainfully.

“Of course, she didn't tell you.

Let me tell you what happened then...”

Nux then told Arvina about how Candice first sided with Oswald, then how she entered Evane's class, how she acted and how things proceeded after that.

The more Arvina listened, the colder her eyes got.

“The Weak doesn't have the right to complain huh?” She growled, her anger was clear in her eyes.

“Just because you are talented and have people protecting you from behind, you dare say arrogant words like these?

Who does she think she is!?

She is merely a Master Stage Cultivator right now!

By her concept, should every Grand Master Stage Cultivator bully her then?
How the hell would people of this world get stronger if everyone restricts and continue to bully them?

What kind of fucked up logic is that!?

Also, how dare she talk to a Teacher like that!?

Just who gave her the galls to do something like that!?”

Arvina continued and then, she shook her head,

“Negligent! I have been too Negligent!”

Arvina then turned towards Nux,

“Alright, you take that boy to his mother, I will give you one week.

Also, you don’t need to apply for any leaves, I’ll handle that for you.

As for me,”

Arvina’s eyes then turned cold as she growled,

“I need to fix someone and I need some time to do that.

I guess a week will be enough.”

A smile appeared on Nux’s face as he nodded,

“Alright teacher, I will be back in a week then.”

Arvina’s cold expression turned into a smile and she nodded,

“Enjoy as much as you want, my student.

Your days, once you return, won’t be very good.”

“I will look forward to it.”

Nux nodded and after a bow, he left Arvina's office.

Then, he walked toward Royce's room and muttered,

“Alright, we will be leaving the academy.”

“Huh? Why? Didn't you win? Are they pressuring you?” Royce questioned with a worried look on his face.

“Oh c'mon, don't worry kid.

Nothing like that is happening, I just want to see your mother.”

“Huh?”

“I mean, don't you want to meet your mother?” Nux questioned.

A big smile appeared on Royce's face, however, soon, that smile disappeared,

He didn't want to tell him anything that happened to his mother...

He didn't want to show his pathetic side to his mother.

“You have to tell her, Royce.

This is the only way you can make a stronger comeback. Treat this as a setback of your life.” Nux suggested.

Then, a determined look appeared on Royce's face and he nodded,

“Alright, let's go meet mother.”

Chapter 269

“Mom!!”

Royce exclaimed in joy as he dashed towards Felberta with a big smile on his face.

Felberta got on her knees and extended her hands toward him with a smile on her face.

Royce then ran into Felberta’s embrace and hugged her with his little arms.

“Mom! I missed you~”

“Oh? You did? Then why didn’t you come and meet me last year?” Felberta questioned as she raised her eyebrow.

Of course, anyone who saw this scene would be able to tell how happy she was when they would look at that smile on her face.

Royce didn’t answer her question and continued to hug her.

Felberta chuckled and shook her head as she continued patting his head.

A few minutes later, Royce finally separated from Felberta and then,

“Sister Skyla!” He exclaimed as he hugged Skyla’s legs.

“Hehe~ You finally got time to visit your sister eh? And here I thought you forgot about me.” Skyla patted his head with a smile.

“Ehehe~ How can I forget about you, Sister Skyla~”

Royce laughed out loud.

He then turned towards Lane and hugged her as well,

“Sister Lane~”

“Welcome back, Sir Royce,”

Lane nodded with a smile and patted his head as well.

Then, Royce started looking around and his eyes fell on Edda.

Since he didn't know her, he just bowed his head.

“Fufufu~ What a cute little boy~”

Edda chuckled.

Royce smiled and then, he walked back towards his mother.

Edda's eyes then turned towards Nux and she smiled,

“Ahh, Mr Nux, you must be tired, let me help you remove your clothes in the bathroom.”

Saying that, she walked towards him.

She didn't know that boy named Royce, and in all honestly, she didn't care much about him either, Skyla, Lane and Felberta were different though, they knew the boy and were very happy to see this.

Therefore, Edda saw this as an opportunity.

Opportunity to spend time with Nux all she wants.

Hehe~

She was smart indeed.

However, before she could even get close to her, Skyla moved and grabbed Nux's arm.

“Ah, Miss Edda, you don’t have to worry, you are a guest here, I, on the other hand, am the maid of this mansion, let me do all these miscellaneous works like removing Mr Nux’s clothes.

You can go ahead and rest.”

Skyla muttered with her usual, gentle smile on her face.

Edda’s face twitched, however, she still kept a smile on her face and answered, “Ah, don’t worry, I can see how much you missed this little boy here.

You don’t have to work, you should spend time with the boy, I’ll do all the work.”

Then, Edda used all her brain and turned towards Royce,

“You would like to spend some time with your Sister Skyla as well, right little boy?”

“Ah y-”

However, before Royce could even answer, Skyla interrupted.

“Ahh, he wants to spend time with his mother, I will talk to him later, Mothers are always a priority, right Royce?”

Skyla questioned.

“Y-Yeah...” Royce nodded.

Skyla smiled and then turned towards Edda,

“See that, Miss Edda, so don’t worry and rest. Let me do all the work, I am used to it after all~”

Skyla beamed with happiness. She liked Royce as well, however, comparing him with Nux, Skyla didn't even need to think.

Nux won by a large margin.

She would rather spend more time with Nux.

Edda's face twitched again, she was about to reply, however, both she and Skyla then heard Felberta's voice in their heads.

'Guys... can you control yourself a little, you are making him a little uncomfortable...'

Edda and Skyla glanced at Royce and noticed that Royce was looking at them weirdly.

'I apologize, Sister Felberta... ' Skyla apologized.

'I apologize as well.' Edda did the same.

'Sister Edda, how about we both go with Nux?' Skyla questioned.

'Yeah, that seems to be a good idea.' Edda nodded and then, she smiled.

"Alright, there is no use fighting like this, how about we both go together?"

"Mhm, fighting is useless, alright, Nux, come with us, we will show you where the bathroom is."

Skyla turned towards Nux and smiled.

"Sir Royce, Skyla is right, you should spend more time with your mother." Suddenly, Lane spoke up as well.

Then, she turned towards Felberta and bowed,

"Lady Felberta, I still need to wash some clothes in the bathroom, so I will be taking my leave too."

‘Not you either...’ Felberta groaned.

These people are too horny.

They should try to control themselves.

It is not good to be this angry.

Lane just smiled and then turned around.

Her thoughts matched Skylar’s, she liked Royce, however, that’s it.

He was nowhere near Nux.

Also, she has been waiting for this day for more than a week now.

She couldn’t hold back.

She then followed Nux and others.

Nux then turned around and his eyes met Felberta’s.

A serious look appeared on his face and he muttered,

‘Fel, this is important.

Talk to him, he wants to tell you something.’

Felberta frowned, she then turned towards Royce and one glance was all it took for her to know that he wanted to talk about something.

She then turned towards Nux and nodded with a frown on her face.

She has rarely seen Nux making a face like that...

This looked serious.

“Royce, is there anything you want to share with your mother?” She questioned as she ruffled Royce’s hair.

Royce then lowered his head and then, and a determined look appeared on his face.

“Mother, I want to tell you about the last year I spend in the academy.”

“Mhm, I am listening.”

...

“This is what happened.”

On the other side, Nux finished telling everything that Royce has been through in the academy and Skyla, Lane and Edda had solemn looks on their faces.

“What are we going to do?” Skyla questioned.

Nux, however, shook his head,

“It all depends on Felberta.

We will do whatever she says,”

Then, a cold look appeared on his face.

“Even if it means that we have to destroy Bourkee Family.”

At the same time, a Nux’s heard Felberta’s voice in his head.

‘Nux, please come to my room.’

Chapter 270

‘Nux, please come to my room.’

Nux heard Felberta’s voice in his mind. He then turned towards Edda, Lane and Skyla and muttered.

“Let’s go.”

The three of them nodded and then left the room they were in.

Nux then used his [Sense] and quickly found where Felberta was.

The three girls followed behind Nux with a serious look on their faces and a minute later,

The four of them entered Felberta’s room.

There, Felberta was sitting with Royce sleeping on her lap, she looked at Nux and seeing her face,

Something inside Nux snapped.

Felberta’s eyes were moist and from the dried tears marks left on Felberta’s face, Nux could easily tell that Felberta have been crying for a while now.

Nux narrowed his eyes.

He noticed that there was a different light in Felberta’s eyes.

He understood,

She does not want him to talk about her crying.

Therefore, Nux stayed silent.

Following him, the three other women in the room stayed silent as well. The whole room was enshrouded in a layer of silence for a good while.

“I want revenge.”

2 minutes later, Felberta broke the silence.

“What do you want to do?” Nux questioned.

Then, without any change in her expression, Felberta answered.

“I want to destroy Bourkees.”

Nux took a deep breath and then, he nodded.

“Alright.”

Although she might not show it, Felberta was petty.

Extremely petty.

A few years earlier, she destroyed an Earl’s life just because he tried to drug her.

That man didn’t even succeed, however, Felberta still destroyed him just because he dared to attempt something like this.

Today, she learns that someone has been harassing, hitting, bullying and humiliating her only child, for a whole fucking year.

There was no way she would sit back and forget about it.

“Alright, let’s move.”

Nux muttered.

“Now?” Felberta frowned.

“I want to end this before tomorrow,” Nux answered. Then, a small smile appeared on his face as he questioned,

“You do not want to just kill the Bourkees, do you?”

Felberta smiled back.

Her answer was clear.

“On the second thought, you stay here with Royce, I’ll prepare everything.”

Nux muttered.

Felberta wanted to counter, however, before she could say anything, Nux answered,

“Don’t worry, I will call you when it’s the finale,”

Saying that, Nux turned around and left.

A small smile appeared on Felberta’s face and then, she continued to pat Royce’s head.

...

‘Amaya, I need your help.’

Nux, who just walked out of Felberta’s room contacted Amaya.

‘Hmm? What can I help you with?’

Again, the response was instantaneous.

Nux then told her everything and then muttered,

‘Killing the Bourkees is too merciful for them, I want them to suffer. As much as they can.’

‘...’

Amaya turned silent and started thinking.

Nux waited for her reply.

He knew she was thinking about a plan.

Planning and Scheming, Amaya was an Expert in this field. She has been doing it since she was a child after all.

Of course, this doesn't mean that Nux wasn't thinking anything.

He was thinking of a plan as well, then, he would compare the two plans and would choose the one that would be the most painful for the Bourkees'.

Yes, Bourkees fucked up.

And they fucked up badly.

2 hours passed by in a moment, and then, Nux heard Amaya's voice in his head,

'Baron Crook,'

'Huh?' Nux frowned.

'Earl Bourkee used his status to threaten Baron Crook's daughter and forced her to 'entertain' him. The humiliation was too much for the girl to bear and she took her own life.

This enraged Baron Crook, however, he was powerless to do anything.

He couldn't touch Bourkee.

However, he bores a deep resentment in his heart.'

Amaya muttered.

She had an advantage, as the leader of the Thousand Information Chamber, she has all the information she needed to come up with her plans.

This time was the same.

She used her advantage well.

‘Nux, go to Alger and make him write a letter...’

An evil smirk appeared on Nux’s face when he heard Amaya’s plan.

‘I’ll do as you say.’

‘I am sorry, this is all I can help you with,’

Amaya muttered with a sad look on her face.

‘Don’t worry, this is more than enough, Thank you.’

A smile appeared on Amaya’s face.

Nux on the other hand, didn’t waste any time and rushed towards Alger’s mansion.

Then, he made him write the letter Amaya wanted and then, he wore skin-tight black coloured assassins clothes, covered his face and he rushed to Barron Crook’s house.

He didn’t waste a single second.

He wanted to do everything as soon as possible.

Barron Crook was a 60-year-old man, and since he wasn’t a cultivator, his hair was white and there were lots of wrinkles on his face. He gave off a gloomy aura and looked like someone who have already lost everything in his life.

Right now, this man was working in his office with a tired, dull look on his face. Beside him stood his butler who was a Beginner Stage Cultivator, Nux then appeared behind the butler and with one hand chop, the butler passed out.

*Thud*

The Baron's eyes widened in surprise when he saw a black-clothed man appear inside his office without making any sounds at all.

"W-Who sent you?" The Baron questioned with a pale face.

"Do you hate Earl Bishnoi Bourkee?" Nux questioned in a hoarse voice.

Hearing that name, the fear on Baron's face was replaced with immense rage.

"I absolutely despise that Bastard! He dared to do that to my only daugh-"

"Yeah, I don't care what he did."

Nux shrugged and then, his eyes shined,

"Do you want revenge?"

All the gloominess surrounding Baron Crook disappeared and his deadpan eyes were now filled with unwavering determination.

"If I can destroy that bastard, I would do it even if it costs me my life."

A smile appeared on Nux's face when he heard that.

Then, he gave the letter Alger wrote to Baron Crook and instructed.

"Send this letter to that Bourkee."

"C-Can I read what it is?" Baron Crook held the letter as if it was the most precious treasure and questioned.

"Go ahead."

With a serious look on his face, Baron Crook opened the letter and once he started reading it, his eyes widened in surprise.

Then, an intense light shown within his eyes as he continued to read it.

Seeing his expression changing from confused, to surprise, to a happy smile and then a wicked smile, NUX chuckled inwardly.

This man really hated Bourkee bastard.

He hated him to his core.

“W-Where did you get this letter from?” Baron Crook turned towards Nux and questioned.

“A-Are you sure it i-is not fake...?”

Nux smiled and then questioned, “Are you scared?”

“Bourkee bastard isn’t a problem but with this letter, we will be targetted by Marquees Alger as well...

And I don’t know if Marquee Longe will protect us or not...”

Baron Crook muttered as his body trembled in fear.

“Heehh? Was that the extent you would go to avenge your daughter?”

Nux tilted his head and smiled,

“Is that it?”

“...”

Suddenly, Baron Crook’s body stopped trembling.

“What is the worse thing that can happen? You will be killed, right? So what? Can’t you give up on your life for your daughter?

You can’t do it?

Too scared?

Then why act like someone who has lost everything after losing your daughter?

Why not make another one?

Heh.”

Baron Crook’s eyes turned cold.

He then glanced at the man in front of him and started thinking,

He didn’t know who this man was, he could very well be a lackey of a big shot who is seeing him as nothing but a chess piece and is making use of him.

However,

So what?

If he can avenge his daughter, then being a chess piece for the bigger plot was nothing.

Even if this plot kills him,

Even if this plot destroys this kingdom,

He would do it.

Baron Crook glanced at Nux with his eyes shining in determination,

*Thud*

Then, the old man fell on his knees and bowed his head,

“I will do anything you say.

Even if helping me avenge isn’t your main goal and you just want to use me as a chess piece who you would get rid of later, I don’t care.

I only want one thing,

The downfall of Earl Bourkee.

I beg you.”

“...why are you acting like I am the bad guy?

Oi Oi, I am here to help you okay?

Just do as I say and I will make Bourkee weak enough that even you can get rid of him if you play your future moves correctly.”

A big smile appeared on Baron Crook’s face, he then raised his head and questioned,

“What do I have to do?”

Nux smiled as well,

Hatred is indeed the best fuel.

“Write a letter to Earl Bourkee,”

A paper appeared on Crook’s hand, he then sat on his chair and questioned,

“What do I write?”

Nux smiled and then, he started speaking.

“To Earl Bourkee,

I hope you are doing well in your life...”

Chapter 271

“Master Bourkee, Baron Crook has sent you a letter.”

A man where a black coat over a white shirt bowed as he presented an envelope to a black-grey-haired man sitting on his chair with a leisurely look on his face.

The black-grey-haired man grabbed the envelope and chuckled disdainfully,

“Baron Crook, is he the old fart with that beautiful daughter?”

“Yes, that is correct, Master Bourkee.” The butler nodded.

An evil smile appeared on Bourkee’s face as he then clicked his tongue,

“Tsk Tsk, his daughter was a beauty indeed, it was a shame that the bitch decided to kill herself. I wanted to play a little longer that time.”

Then, Bourkee sighed,

“Oh well, whatever happened happened. We can’t do anything about it, can we?”

But why is this old fart sending a letter to me?

Heh, did he have another daughter? Tsk Tsk”

Bourkee then opened the envelope and started reading the letter inside it, “Earl Bastard Bourkee.

Oh ho, that’s quite a greeting. Who gave him the balls to write like that?”

Bourkee muttered in amusement.

He wasn’t the least bit bothered by how Baron Crook cursed him.

Or maybe he was and was just getting excited by thinking about how he will punish that man.

Bourkee then continued reading the letter,

“I heard about an interesting piece of news and I must say, Bourkee Bastard, to be daring enough to go after a Marquee’s son...”

The more Bourkee read the letter, the serious his face got.

He narrowed his eyes and started reading the letter more carefully.

“What the hell is this guy talking about?” Bourkee narrowed his eyes in confusion.

“To joke about something like this, does this old man not want to live anymore?”

“Master Bourkee, there is something behind the letter as well...”

The butler pointed out.

Bourkee then turned the paper and his frown deepened.

‘I am not just talking around, if you don’t come to Slums in the West at 12 in the night, I will send that letter to Marquee Longe.’

“What letter is he talking about!?”

Bourkee roared in panic.

“Master Bourkee, there seems to be another letter in this envelope.”

The butler mentioned.

Bourkee quickly opened the other letter and his eyes widened in surprise.

‘To Earl Bourkee,

The information about Longe's son being in the Wilderness was accurate, do not worry, you will be compensated properly.

Alger Bannermane.'

Bourkee face paled in horror.

He quickly took out some texts and started matching Alger's writing with the writing in this letter and soon, his body started trembling in fear.

"W-What is Marquee Alger t-talking about...?"

When did I give him any information like that!?"

The incident of Marquee's son being attacked in the Bloodhill Wilderness was quite popular a few months ago, there were many suspicions that Marquee Alger was the one behind this incident, however, since there was proof, the incident got buried.

However, Marquee Longe didn't bury this incident at all.

It is said that he is searing with anger and buys any information related to this incident at a high price.

He is hell-bent on getting his revenge.

If this letter reaches Marquee Longe, then no matter how much he pleads, Marquee Longe will kill him.

Just thinking about this made Bourkee tremble in fear.

'What the hell is wrong with that Alger bastard!?' He cursed in his heart and then, his eyes turned red in rage.

'That Crook bores a deep grudge against me, from what I know, he would rather deal with me on his own than to take that Longe's help.

I don't think he has sent this letter to Marquee yet.

I need to deal with him before he thinks anything weird. I need to kill him, then I need to kill everyone living in his mansion.

Only then, would this letter be buried.’

Bourkee then clenched his fists in anger and slammed his hand on the table,

‘You want to meet me in the Slums, right? Good Good.

Let me do you a favour and send you to your bitch daughter then.’

Bourkee then started thinking,

He was different from other Earls, normal Earls have 3-4 Master Stage Cultivators under them, he, however, had 10 and he himself was a strong Master Stage Cultivator.

Even if that Crook Bastard had prepared some things to deal with him, there is no way he would predict that he would come to the slums with 10 Master Stage Cultivators.

Not only that, but at the same time, Bourkee would send the rest of his servants to Crook’s mansion to kill and burn everything.

According to the rules of the Kingdom, he cannot have more than 30 Cultivators as his servants, however, those 20 servants would be more than enough to deal with a mere Baron House.

Bourkee smiled coldly as he planned everything, then, he turned to his Butler and ordered,

“Call every cultivator; I need them to do something for me.”

The Butler frowned when he noticed the solemn look on his Master’s face.

This looked serious.

“As you command, Master Bourkee.”

The butler then bowed his head and left the room.

After the Butler left, Bourkee crouched, he then moved his table to little and then, he grabbed a tile, using a little force, he opened the tile and placed the letter inside it.

It was an unspoken rule to not keep valuable letters like these in storage rings because storage rings are the first things to get confiscated when something wrong happens.

Therefore, many nobles had secret places like these where they kept important documents.

Bourkee then placed the table back to where it was and then left his room.

He needed to talk with all the cultivators after all.

However, what he didn't know was that someone else was inside his room aside from him and his butler.

After Bourkee left his room, Nux smiled.

He then took out the letters Bourkee was hiding and chuckled,

“This is going to be fun...”

Then, he followed behind Bourkee.

He needed to know all his plans after all.

Chapter 272

Midnight.

Earl Bourkee was walking inside the empty Slum area and was looking around, trying to find Crook.

His eyes then fell on a figure sitting on the chair with an elegant posture, since it was dark, he couldn't see who it was, however, he had a hunch.

“Crook?”

He questioned.

“...”

However, there was no answer.

“Crook you old fart, is it you?” Bourkee questioned again, however, there was no answer.

Bourkee's face twitched in annoyance.

“First! You dare try to frame me with a fake letter, then you dare to call me here and now that I am here, you don't even dare to speak!?”

Do you think this is a joke!?”

You old bastard! Apologize to me this inst-”

Bourkee cursed as he walked towards Crook however after he got close, he paused.

It wasn't Crook.

Rather, it was a beautiful black-haired woman who was looking at him with a cold smile on her face.

“Felberta Alveye...”

Bourkee recognised this woman in an instance.

He has rarely seen any woman who is as beautiful as Felberta after all.

“Bourkee, I heard your child has been bullying my child for quite a while now.”

Felberta muttered with a small smile on her face.

Bourkee’s face twitched when he noticed how she was calling him disrespectfully, however, a small smile appeared on his face and he shook his head,

“Oh really? I thought it was just a few children playing together as friends. Didn’t seem like bullying to me.”

“Stop this nonsense, I don’t care how you see this situation.

I want your children to stop what they are doing.”

Felberta warned in a threatening tone however, Bourkee did not feel threatened at all.

Rather, he just chuckled,

“Oh, I do have a way we can stop this.”

“What?” Felberta questioned.

“How about our children become brothers? This way, let alone bullying, your son would even be protected by my son in the Academy.

What do you think?”

Bourkee questioned with a meaningful smile on his face.

The meaning of his words was clear.

Suddenly, a small smile appeared on Felberta's face,

“So you are admitting that your son bullies my son, correct?”

Bourkee smiled as well,

“It is not my son's fault that your son is weak and doesn't have a good background.

Actually, even if my son doesn't bully him, someone else will, this is how status work, Felberta.

This is why I am offering you,

Become mine and let alone your son, even you would live a fulfilling life.”

Suddenly, Felberta sighed,

“I have no clue how idiotic people like you become nobles in this kingdom,

The future of this Kingdom seems bleak.”

“Huh?” Bourkee frowned.

“Think about this, you idiot,

You were sent a letter that could potentially destroy your house.

You were then called to deserted slums by the man who sent you that letter.

There you see that instead of that man, there was a woman who seemed to be sitting and waiting for you.

Then, the woman talks about how your child is bullying hers and how do you reply?

You threaten her to become yours?

Are you that braindead?

Don't you find this situation weird at all?"

Felberta questioned and Bourkee's frown deepened,

"In all honestly, if I were you, I would have tried to act a bit more mature,

'Alright, I will talk to my son about it.'

'Alright, I will make sure that my son stops.'

'What? Does he bully your son? I didn't know, don't worry, I will punish that bastard accordingly and I deeply apologize for everything he did.'

Any of answers like these would have been better but you..." A cold smile then appeared on Felberta's face as she glared at Bourkee,

"You just decided to fuck up huh?"

Bourkee, however, wasn't intimidated, rather, he just smiled,

"You are wrong,

This is not foolishness, Felberta.

This is confidence.

I am confident that someone like you doesn't have enough influence and power to harm me."

Bourkee then pointed at those 10 men behind him and smiled,

"They are all Master Stage Cultivators, Felberta.

Master Stage Cultivators.

Surprised right?

Didn't think that I had so many Master Stage Cultivators working under me, did you?"

Felberta sighed even more now,

“Arrogant and foolish...”

Out of all the combinations you could choose, you chose the worse one huh...”

Felberta sighed and then, she pointed at Bourkee's men.

Bourkee frowned, he then turned around to look at his men and then, Felberta's voice sounded in his ears,

“However, this is good for me, now I can punish you as much as I want without any guilt whatsoever.

Welcome to Hell, Earl Bourkee.”

At the same time, Bourkee's eyes widened in surprise when a dagger covered in blood came out of his strongest subordinate's chest.

At the same time, a few more figures wearing black clothes appeared and started attacking and killing Bourkee's subordinates.

With the Assassins getting the first hit, Bourkee's subordinates stood no chance against well-trained assassins, within just 1 minute,

All 10 of them were dead.

The all-strong Master Stage Cultivators that Bourkee was so proud of were slaughtered without even a chance to fight back.

Bourkee's eyes widened in horror.

He was fucked!

He knew it!

His brain then worked quickly, he turned around trying to grab Felberta,

She must be the leader, if he captures the leader, he might have a chance to get out of this situation alive.

However, after he turned around, he noticed two individuals standing in front of him, they wore the same black-coloured clothes that those assassins wore however, the aura they released was far stronger.

Bourkee then noticed that Felberta was already standing far away from him and was looking at him with a cold look on her face.

“Do not kill him.”

She ordered.

Bourkee smiled.

“Cut his arms.”

She ordered.

Bourkee’s smile died.

“Do not do it in one go,

Start from his fingers.

Make it as painful as possible.

Also, while you are at it,

Slice his filthy dick as well.”

Felberta ordered and Bourkee’s face paled in sheer horror.

“As you command, Lady Felberta.”

“AAGGGHHHHH!!”

Bourkee’s screams were echoed in the deserted slums.

Chapter 273

After dealing with Bourkee, Felberta returned to Nux's room as if it was hers.

There, she saw a Black coloured, golden-eyed young man sitting on the bed with a smile on his face.

Felberta sighed as we walked towards the man and sat on his lap as if it was her rightful place.

The man didn't have any complaints either, he hugged her mature body from behind, placed his chin on her shoulders and whispered softly,

“Do you feel good now?”

“I wanted to torture him a little more...” Felberta pouted.

“Oh C'mon, things have only started, won't the real troubles he faces start tomorrow?”

You were the one who wanted to take things as slow as possible,” Nux chuckled.

A small, cruel smile appeared on Felberta's face as she nodded,

“I know... That's why I held back and didn't kill him, I want him to take his life with his own hands...”

“Tsk Tsk, what a cruel woman~” Nux snorted as he shook his head. At the same time, he caressed her belly and kissed her neck.

“I am a cruel and petty woman, so be careful around me, okay? Don't you dare think about betraying me.” Felberta answered.

“Heh. You think I will let you go?” Nux questioned with a small smile on his face.

“Felberta Alveye, the moment you bought me as your boy toy was the moment you fell into my inescapable trap.

You can’t run away now even if you want to.”

Nux whispered softly.

Felberta smiled as the sweet memories of the last few months played in her mind and then, she chuckled,

“Tsk Tsk, you were so cute when you stuttered and always had a blush on your face.”

“Hahaha~ You were also very cute when you jumped into the arms of a man who was as frail as a stick.

You looked like a monkey~”

Nux chuckled as well.

“Ugghh...” Felberta groaned in annoyance.

Nux’s hands then moved towards her breasts and,

“Annh~”

A soft moan escaped Felberta’s mouth.

“How sensitive, you pervert.”

“I don’t want to be called that, especially from someone like you. You are the biggest pervert I have ever met in my entire life.” Felberta retorted.

“Tsk Tsk, I am nowhere near as perverted as you, Fel.

You are so perverted that you are sitting on the lap of your son's big brother.”

“ ... ”

Felberta's face turned red in embarrassment and she didn't reply.

She didn't have any reply.

Nux sensed her embarrassment and chuckled,

“Don't worry, he will call me father soon.”

Felberta's face turned even red, then suddenly, Nux tightened his grip around her waist and,

“But before that, I need to prove that I can become his father.”

Saying that, Nux fell onto the bed with Felberta in his arms, he then rolled on top of her and before she could say anything, he sealed her beautiful lips.

“AAnnnhhh~~”

Then, they started the deed and a long long night passed by.

...

Royal Court of Justice, as the name suggests, was a place where people file a complaint, start a case and accuse someone who harmed them in any way, the guilty are then punished accordingly while the victims are compensated.

Earl Bourkee was sitting in the waiting room of the Royal Court of Justice, the arrogance on his face had been washed away, from his limp clothes, it could be seen that his arms were chopped off and by how no one accompanied him even in such conditions, it could be seen that the things were not going well for him.

However, that wasn't the main problem.

“Hey you, enter.”

A guard then walked into the waiting room and pointed at another man, signalling him to enter,

Seeing this scene, Bourkee frowned and turned towards the guard,

“I was here earlier than him.”

The guard then turned towards Bourkee and then, he frowned,

“So?”

“Shouldn’t I be allowed to go inside first?” Bourkee questioned.

“I remember that he came earlier than you. Don’t try to fool me, I am very sharp.

This is your last warning, try it one more time and I will kick you out.” The guard warned and Bourkee gritted his teeth in rage.

This was the tenth time that he was hearing the same line,

Yes, he has been here in this place for 8 hours already, however, he was not chosen by the guard and wasn’t allowed to enter.

Even the people who came after him entered the court and left.

Bourkee clenched his fist- Ahh, he had no fists.

Bourkee gritted his teeth in anger as his body started trembling.

It was clear that this guard was picking on him on purpose.

And the problem was that there was nothing he could do about it. After yesterday’s incident, the strength and status he possessed were destroyed,

The 10 Master Stage Cultivators under him died, the cultivators he sent to Crook’s house were dead, and with his arms cut off, he was no better than any ordinary human.

There was only so much he could do with his legs after all.

And the guard seems to know his condition, therefore, he was picking on him on purpose.

He didn't know who the bastard who spread the rumour about him so quickly was, but one thing was sure,

His life would be changing for the worse now and there was nothing he could do about it.

Right now, no matter how angry he was, he could only lower his head in front of this lowly guard,

“Please, let me go inside, it is something I have to do.

I beg you.”

Seeing a noble lowering his head in front of him, the guard smiled disdainfully, however, then, a strict look appeared on his face,

“You bastard! Haven't I told you already!? You will go inside when it is your turn, just wait here, you dog!”

Hearing his answer, Bourkee was now sure, the guard wasn't just picking on him for fun, he was being ordered.

Ordered by one of his enemies.

Bourkee started thinking about who it could be, however,

What he didn't know was that the one who ordered the guard wasn't any noble,

But it was the Royal Court of Justice.

Chapter 274

Yes, the Royal Court of Justice was the one that was trying to restrict Bourkee.

It wasn't as holy and just place as it was said to be.

In the world of cultivation, where strength rules, something like the Justice Court was nothing more than a farce.

No one who was truly weak had ever won any case in the Justice Court.

This was just a 'legal' way for Nobles to do the crime.

And of course, as an Earl, Bourkee knew it well.

However, he never thought that the Court wouldn't support him.

He never thought that the court would deem him as 'weak'.

He was unable to calculate his position properly.

He wasn't thinking properly right now.

Justice Court's decision was logical, he was just an Earl in the name now, with his cultivator subordinates now gone, his arms now chopped off, he was nothing more than a slightly stronger cripple.

And since he was an Earl, he naturally had many enemies.

They are never going to leave him alone.

Of course, he had his allies too, but, they were nobles who allied for mutual interests, now, there was nothing Bourkee provide them in return, therefore, there is no way they would stay with him.

Heck, some might even try to take advantage of this situation.

Bourkee was completely surrounded now and his future looked bleak.

Therefore, Justice Court decided to not waste their time on someone like him.

Bourkee glanced at the guard, and then he warned,

“Don’t regret your choice in the future.”

Saying that, he turned around and left the Justice Court.

He needed to think of something else, however, right now, he was too tired.

He decided to return to his mansion, get some rest and then think over the situation calmly.

An hour later, Bourkee returned to his mansion, there, a servant approached him and bowed,

“Master Bourkee, you received a letter from the Royal Academy, I believe it is sent by Young Master.”

Hearing that, Bourkee’s eyes brightened.

Yes!

His son had some connections with the daughter of Marquee Water in the Academy, he might be able to help him.

“Read it, quick!”

He ordered the servant.

The servant nodded and started reading, Bourkee heard everything with an excited look on his face, however, the more he read, the gloomier his face got and his excitement died down.

Then, he gritted his teeth in anger.

‘That bastard! How can he fall out with that girl at the time when I needed it the most!? What the hell is wrong with his brain!?’

And he dares asks for help!?’

He wants me to deal with the student that defeated him!? The Student that was now under the protection of the Princess of the Kingdom!?’

How can I give birth to such an unreliable child!?’

Bourkee cursed in his head.

Then, he shook his head and walked away.

He was a fool to even think of relying on his child.

He had to do something on his own.

Bourkee then walked into his room to get some rest, however, before he could even lay down on his bed,

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

A knock was heard.

“Master Bourkee, there are people who would like to meet you.”

He heard his servant’s voice.

“Tell them I am tired, I would talk to them later,” The Bourkee shook his head and sat on the bed.

“H-Hey! You can’t enter like this!”

Bourkee then heard the servant’s panicked voice and frowned,

He was just about to question what happened but before that,

*Bam*

The doors of his room were burst opened and a few people entered,

“Bourkee Bastard! You dare act as a Tyrant!?”

An enraged voice was heard.

“Earl Deniskee...” Bourkee frowned.

He knew this man.

Their relationship wasn't good.

Actually, they could even be called enemies.

“Why are you here?” Bourkee questioned with a scowl on his face.

He did not like where things were going at all.

“You bastard! You dare act innocent after acting like a tyrant yesterday night!? How shameless!”

“What do you mean?” Bourkee narrowed his eyes.

He doesn't want to talk about last night at all.

However, Deniskee had different thoughts.

The ring on his finger shined and a few heads appeared on the floor.

“These are your subordinates, correct?” Deniskee questioned.

Bourkee looked at his subordinates' dissipated heads and his eyes turned cold, then, his eyes fell on an Old man who was standing behind Earl Deniskee and was smiling at him.

“Crook...” He scowled.

“You dare sent assassins to attack my friend!?” Suddenly, Deniskee raised his voice.

“Your friend?” Bourkee frowned.

Since when did a bastard like you make friends with a mere Baron?

How low have you fallen?

Those were the questions he wanted to ask, however, he didn't get the chance to.

“You bastard! You think you are the king of this Kingdom!? Do you think you can do anything you want just because you are an Earl!? You think you are the only Earl in the Kingdom!?”

How dare you send assassins after my friend!?

What would you have done if I wasn't there with him and protected him!?

Huh!?”

Deniskee raised his voice and Bourkee understood what was happening.

A wry, defeated smile appeared on his face.

‘It already started huh...’

“You bastard! I want to you compensate! Otherwise, I would be forced to take this matter into the Royal Court of Justice.”

“...”

Bourkee stayed silent.

“Why are you silent, you bastard!? Say something...”

Then, Bourkee sighed.

He couldn't do anything about it.

It was happening a lot faster than he had expected.

He then glanced at Baron Crook who was sneering at him and gritted his teeth in anger.

Then, Bourkee shook his head,

“What do you want?” He questioned.

A small smile appeared on Deniskee's face.

Heh.

It was time to loot an Earl when he was down.

There was no way he would let that slip.

And he wasn't the only one, many will visit Earl Bourkee soon.

Bourkee knew it as well.

He realized that it was too late to do anything. No actually, it wasn't that he was too late, it was more like everything happened too early.

It was as if someone planned all this.

Of course, in the end, Bourkee couldn't do anything, speculations like these were useless.

He, Earl Bourkee, and the Bourkee house were finished.

Chapter 275

“Mama! Good morning!”

Royce rushed towards the dining table with a smile on his face.

A smile appeared on Felberta’s face when she saw him running towards her. The little boy then hugged his mother and then sat down on the chair next to Felberta’s.

“Sister Skyla, Good morning~”

“Good morning, Little Royce.” Skyla smiled as she ruffled Royce’s hair.

Royce then turned towards Lane and smiled brightly,

“Good Morning, Sister Lane~”

“Good Morning.” Lane smiled back.

“Good Morning, Miss Edda.”

“Fufufu.”

Edda just smiled.

Royce didn’t know her, therefore, after greeting her, he decided to ignore her, he then turned towards Skyla to ask something, however, before he could, Felberta questioned.

“Have you brushed your teeth?”

“Mom! Of course, I have! I am not a child anymore!”

Royce retorted with a red face.

He looked quite embarrassed that his mother asked that.

“You will never be old enough for your mother.”

Felberta used the typical mother dialogue as well.

“Alright, I am hungry, what have you made, Sister Skyla?”

Royce questioned.

“Here, I made Little Royce’s favourite, Egg rolls.”

Skyla answered excitedly, however, Royce pouted.

“Since when have they been my favourite?”

“C’mon C’mon, just eat it.” Skyla smiled.

“I won’t. I don’t like Egg rolls.” Royce shook his head.

“Eat it, they are healthy for you, you want to get stronger, do you not?”

Suddenly, A serious look appeared on Royce’s face,

“Yes, I want to be strong enough so that no one can bully me again.”

“...”

Felberta turned silent when she heard Royce’s words. Then, a small smile appeared on her face and she muttered,

“Don’t worry, no one will bully you from now on.”

“Is it because of big brother Nux?”

Well, if it is him, then I am sure no one would bully me. Many students, mainly male students are scared of him.”

“Huh? Why males in particular I wonder?” Edda questioned with a small smile on her face.

“He is an Idol for female students after all. Some even call him the King of the Royal Academy.”

Royce muttered with a smile on his face.

“Heeh. That’s a good title to start with. We can say he got a little closer to his actual goal now. Hahaha~’ Edda laughed.

Royce didn’t understand what she was talking about, he was about to ask, however, Felberta interrupted.

“Royce, you really trust your big brother Nux, don’t you?”

“Of course, he was the only one who actually did something to save me after all. He even fought against the Queen even though she was stronger than him.

Big Brother Nux is an amazing and caring person.”

Royce answered.

“Ohh? Really?” Felberta smiled.

“Indeed. He is the best!”

Royce nodded with an excited look on his face.

He didn’t know about others, however, for him, Nux was a hero, a hero who saved him from villains, a hero who fought against injustice.

He respects Nux a lot.

“Then how about Big Brother Nux becomes your father?”

Suddenly, Felberta questioned.

“Huh?” Royce frowned.

“You don’t like that idea?” Felberta questioned with a worried look on her face.

“I-Is that actually possible? For Big Brother Nux to become my father?” Royce questioned with a shocked look on his face.

His real father died while he was 8 months old, therefore, he doesn’t remember much about his father and was raised by his mother alone.

However, he still missed a fatherly figure.

He has seen other children talking about their father, usually, he keeps quiet and stays out of conversations like these, however,

If Big Brother Nux could become his new father...

Then he would be able to join that conversation as well!

He would be able to talk about his father as well!

Not only that, but Big brother Nux is strong and has immense potential, he could protect him and his mother from any harm.

Big brother Nux was indeed a perfect candidate to become his father.

However, the question was, is it really possible? Would Big brother Nux accept it?

What if Big Brother Nux rejects this offer and distances himself from him?

Royce started wondering.

However, Felberta, Royce’s mother, didn’t seem very worried about Big Brother Nux’s opinion.

“Of course he can. You just have to say yes, I am sure your big brother Nux would accept it.”

“Really! Then I accept! I accept it!”

Royce exclaimed in joy.

“Ohh? So I have a child now?” Suddenly, Royce heard a familiar voice, he quickly turned around and saw Nux walking toward him with a smile on his face.

“Big Brother Nux!” He exclaimed in joy as he rushed toward Nux, however, just as he walked towards him, Nux flicked on his forehead.

“Ugghh... Why did you hit me?” Royce questioned with a frown on his face.

“Tsk Tsk.

How dare you call me big brother?

Shouldn't you call me daddy?”

“Huh?” Royce frowned.

Then, a big smile appeared on Royce's face as he hugged Nux,

“Daddy!”

Nux patted his head with a smile on his face, then, he picked him up and walked towards the dining table.

“Mr Nux.” Skyla, Lane and Edda greeted.

“You don't have to call me so formally, I am now Royce's father, you can call me by my Name.”

Using twisted logic, Nux first stopped there from using this weird way to call him.

“As you say, Nux~” Edda muttered as she glanced at Nux with a meaningful smile on her face.

“Yes, this is better.” Nux nodded.

“Better indeed~”

Edda muttered again, the playful look in her eyes did not disappear at all.

‘You horny bitch, can’t you see that my child is still here!? Stop acting like that!’ Felberta used the telepathic connection and shouted at Edda.

Edda turned towards Felberta and smiled.

Felberta then turned towards Nux, the two of them smile at each other and then, she muttered,

“Alright then, Royce, from now on,

You will refer to Nux as your father.”

“Yeaahh!” Royce exclaimed in joy.

Then, he turned towards Nux and smiled,

“Father!”

Nux patted his head with a smile.

“Son.”

Chapter 276

Skyla, Lane, Edda, Felberta, Nux and Royce ate breakfast together, then they talked with each other for a while and then, Skyla, the one who had the biggest heart among all other women decided to sacrifice herself and took Royce out in the garden to play.

Felberta, Edda, Lane and Nux talked continued to talk with each other with smiles on their faces.

‘Don’t forget, it will be my turn as soon as I return.’

However, before Skyla left, she turned towards Nux and muttered.

‘Alright, My cute little Skyla,’

Nux nodded with a small smile on his face.

‘Good Good.’ Skyla nodded as well and then, she took Royce out into the garden.

Her aim was simple, play as many games as fast as she could, she would make sure Royce gets tired as soon as possible, and then, she would return and have a blissful session with Nux.

“Alright, little Royce, let’s start with the catch ball. What do you say?” Skyla questioned as a ball appeared in her hand and then without waiting for Royce’s approval, she threw the ball away.

“Now go catch it, quick! I will start the timer, the faster you come back, the better score you will get.”

Royce nodded and quickly fell into her rhythm.

The two of them started playing as for Nux, well he was playing another game with three other women.

...

In the evening, after spending time with Skyla, Felberta, Edda and Lane, Nux was resting in his room with a lazy look on his face.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Suddenly, someone knocked on the door.

Nux frowned and then he walked towards the door,

However, when he opened it, he didn't see anybody. Nux frowned and then, he closed the doors.

He then turned around and was about to walk towards his bed again when someone attacked him from behind.

A small smile appeared on Nux's face, he then grabbed the figure's delicate hands with his hand, and then, he pinned her onto the wall with her hands on the top of her head and his face generously close to hers.

"Tsk Tsk, you dare attack me so sneakily, huh?"

Nux questioned as he gave a small peck on Thyra's soft pink lips.

Thyra blushed and then, she shook her head and sighed,

"I can't believe that I failed to attack you even after getting stronger."

Nux sealed her lips again and this time, he started sucking on Thyra's lips. Thyra didn't resist at all and she started enjoying the kiss.

The Kiss continued for another minute and then, Nux moved his head away from her.

His Golden eyes shined brightly as Thyra's information appeared in front of his eyes.

[Name: Thyra Cruse]

[Age: 44]

[Mana Cultivation: Expert.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal.]

[Race: Human]

[Occupation: Assassin of Marques Bannerman House]

[STR: 59 → 60]

[AGL: 66 → 67]

[VIT: 60 → 61]

[STM: 61 → 62]

[INT: 86 → 107]

[DEF: 53 → 54]

...

“You broke through.” Nux smiled.

“I did.” Thyra replied with a big smile on her face.

She has been fighting against Alger, Heath, Two and Three at the same time, and this time, they weren't using wooden swords, rather, they were using their real swords and it was a dangerous fight.

Thyra even got injured many times, however, she still continued fighting and after doing that for weeks, the pressure piled up and she got the push that she needed to become the Expert Stage Cultivator.

Now, Nux doesn't need that bitch Arvina's help to go stronger, he could rely on her.

She would still be the strongest amongst all his women and will be the most useful one for him.

Thyra smiled as she thought about it.

Hmm? Arvina was an Expert Stage Cultivator earlier than her and was this stronger than her?

Thyra didn't think that was possible.

She has heard about Arvina, the woman likes swords and is like a warrior, she is stronger than normal Expert Stage Cultivators, however, she wasn't a normal cultivator either.

She had the power to kill Expert Stage Cultivators when she was Grand Master Stage Cultivators, now that she has become an Expert Stage Cultivator, she didn't think that someone like Arvina would be able to defeat her.

As long as she gets the first attack, Arvina would be dead if the two of them ever clashed.

Of course, Nux wouldn't let that happen.

Never.

A small smile appeared on Nux's face as he kissed Thyra's forehead gently,

"You have worked hard." He whispered into her ears.

"I-I should be rewarded... don't you think?" Thyra questioned with a red face while she tried to avert her eyes.

“Oh?” Nux was surprised, however, soon, a playful smile appeared on his face as he nodded,

“I agree, you should be rewarded for your efforts.” Saying that, Nux moved his lips towards her ears seductively and then, he whispered,

“However, you dare to attack me so sneakily, don’t you think you should be punished for that?”

“Huh?” Thyra frowned.

As if copying her, Nux frowned as well,

“Rewarding and punishing...

These two are complete opposites... what do we do now...?” He wondered inwardly.

Then, his eyes shined,

“Ah, how about we cancel two of them out?”

“Huh? Cancel?” Thyra frowned as she couldn’t understand what he was talking about.

Nux smiled playfully and explained,

“Yeah, cancelling it out.

You deserve a reward, and you deserve a punishment,

Then how about we cancel them both and leave you alone?

Won’t that be best?”

“N-No!” Thyra was quick to retort.

“I-I have another idea...” She muttered.

She didn't know why, but she was a little more expressive today.

“What idea? Tell me, I am listening.” Nux nodded.

“Rewarding and Punishment... both end up with the same result anyway...

So how about we just double the amount of time spent...?”

Thyra muttered with a red face.

“...”

Nux was taken aback.

He blinked a few more times and then he questioned,

“So you are telling me that rewarding and punishments are one and the same thing?”

Nux's smile widened as he stated,

“Thyra Cruse, what a big pervert you are.”

Chapter 277

“Thyra Cruse, what a big pervert you are.”

Nux stated with a playful smile on his face.

“I-I am not a pervert.” Thyra, however, denied the accusations.

“Ohh? Are you sure about that?” Nux questioned with a smile.

“Y-Yes I am.

I am not a pervert.”

Thyra answered.

Nux then started thinking and then, a big, gentle smile appeared on his face,

“Alright, I often heard that facing the reality is the biggest punishment one can go through,” Nux muttered and then, he smiled.

“At the same time, knowing the reality can also be a reward.”

Nux then glanced at Thyra, sealed her lips again and then, he muttered, “Thyra Cruse, I have decided what to do with you.

I will now show you the reality.

I will now show you, the real you.”

Nux smiled and although Thyra didn't like where this was going,

She liked where this was going.

Confusing thoughts indeed.

“Hmm, hmmm, looks good indeed.”

Nux muttered as he nodded his head repeatedly as if praising himself.

“So I call this the Mirror of Reality.

As I said, this will help you see the Real you.”

Nux smiled.

Thyra, on the other hand, couldn't answer.

Right now, her limbs were tied on what looked like a cross and in front of her, there was a huge mirror.

The mirror was as big as a wall.

And seeing herself in the mirror, a weird sense of tingling feeling assaulted Thyra's little sister.

Then, through the mirror, she noticed that Nux was coming toward her with a smile on his face, her body trembled as Nux stood behind her and then his hands started moving.

First, they touched her waist, then, they moved up and after circling around her lovely breasts, they moved to her shoulders and then her arms.

After that, a small smile appeared on Nux's face and then, a knife appeared in his hands.

“Shall we start?” he questioned with a gentle smile on his face and then without waiting for her answer, he used the knife to cut open her clothes as slowly as possible.

The knife moved from her hands to her shoulder, trailing down her body while cutting her clothes without actually harming her body in any way.

“Don’t move, okay? Things might get dangerous~”

Nux whispered into her ears softly, and for some reason, her whole body trembled when she heard his voice.

The knife then reached her armpit and stopped.

Then, it circled around her armpit and shoulder, and her whole sleeve fell on the floor, revealing her arm.

Nux kissed her shoulder and then, he continued doing the same with her other arm.

When both her sleeves fell on the floor, Nux smiled and then, he placed his knife under her armpits and started cutting her clothes down to her legs.

Then, he did the same thing on the other side, Nux then stepped back and appeared behind her again, then, he placed the knife above Thyra’s breasts and started cutting her clothes in a horizontal line.

Thyra’s clothes fell, revealing the black colour bra she was wearing.

“Ahh, it didn’t completely fall off, did it?” Nux muttered as he shook his head, then, he brought his knife close to Thyra’s thighs.

“Annh~”

Thyra moaned a little when Nux slid the knife’s hilt tilt on the top of her little sister, then, he placed the blade near her little sister and started cutting her pants all the way down to her legs.

After he repeated the same thing to the other side, Thyra’s dress finally fell to the floor, Nux used the same trick to remove her bra and panty as well and once he was done, Nux admired his work with a big, satisfied smile on his face.

“What a beautiful sight~”

Nux complimented.

Thyra's face turned red for some reason.

This wasn't the first time she has been naked in front of Nux, however, this was definitely the first time when he did something like this.

Also, seeing the whole process in the mirror in front of her,

This excited her in a strange way.

“You see how your thighs are wet in the mirror?” Suddenly, Nux, who was standing behind Thyra pointed at the mirror and muttered.

“Huh?” Thyra glanced at the mirror and then, she realized she was wet.

Her little sister was trembling in anticipation and was releasing its juice uncontrollably.

Nux smiled,

“See? That is what the mirror of truth does, it shows you your real self.

Now tell me, what kind of person would get wet after having their clothes removed in such a way?”

Nux questioned and then, he answered.

“A pervert.

Only a pervert would get excited by something like this.”

Thyra's face turned red, however, she quickly shook her head.

“I am not a pervert!”

“Tsk Tsk, to dare deny it even after the proof is right in front of you, Thyra Cruse, you have fallen to a low level.”

Nux shook his head in disappointment.

However, this time, Thyra was prepared with the answer,

She then pointed at the mirror and muttered,

“See that huge tent that has formed on your pant?

Who gets excited after removing someone’s clothes in such a way?

A pervert.”

Thyra smiled as she used his words against him also, she did not give up the momentum she had gained and continued,

“The real pervert in this room is not me, it is you, Nux Leander.”

Nux was taken by surprise, however, he soon came out of his reverie and answered,

“No no no no, you got that wrong, Thyra.

This boner does not show that I am a pervert, rather, this boner is the key.

The key that will show you your real self and prove that you are a pervert.”

Saying that, Nux lowered his pants, revealing his hard dick that had veins popping all over its body, he then placed his dick right under Thyra’s little sister,

And seeing that scene right in front of her,

*Gulp*

Thyra gulped.

Chapter 279

“Annh~”

A small moan leaked out of Thyra’s mouth as Nux placed the head of his dick on Thyra’s pussy.

However, no matter how much Thyra moaned, his did not enter her insides.

This made Thyra’s little sister scream in frustration and she started twitching uncontrollably.

“Thyra, you see how your little sister is twitching? That proves that you are a pervert.” Nux pointed at the mirror with a smile on his face.

Thyra, however, did not give up.

Her body was already shuddering from anticipation, she knew that she couldn’t let Nux tease her anymore, she knew that she should just give in and let Nux do whatever he wanted with her.

However, she didn’t want that.

Where’s the fun in that?

She would rather go against him!

Then he would try even harder.

“Heh. Don’t talk like that when your little brother has veins all over his body, I can see how eager it is to enter my little sister.

You are the real pervert here.”

“So you won’t give up huh...” Nux muttered with a small smile on his face.

Then, he nodded to himself and pointed at the mirror again,

“Thyra Cruse, look at the mirror.”

Thyra frowned in confusion however, in the end, she did what she was told.

“Remember your face, how you are smiling back, how your blue eyes are shining, how confident you look, remember everything. Burn it in your memory.”

Thyra frowned even more.

“Have you remembered your face?” Nux questioned with a smile.

Even though she was confused, Thyra nodded her head.

Nux’s smile widened, and then, Black-coloured Mist came out of his body and moved towards Thyra’s face.

The Mist then covered her eyes and Thyra’s vision turned black.

Of course, the mist wasn’t dangerous for her eyes.

After increasing his Mastery Level to Advance Level, Nux is now able to control how dangerous the Mist would be to some extent, right now, the danger level was zero.

It was no different than Nux covering her eyes with his own hands.

Nux’s smile widened even more and then,

“AANnnnnhhhh!!”

He pierced his rod into her body in one go.

Thyra moaned in pleasure.

With her eyes now closed, all her other senses heightened,

She could feel how her walls were sucking and clustering around Nux's dick, she could feel how her womb was trembling and was sending waves and waves of pleasure all over her body.

She could feel everything.

Then, she felt Nux's dick moving out of her cave, her walls twitched, however, soon, the dick was smashed right back into her cave and,

“AAANNHHhhh!” Thyra moaned again.

Thyra then felt Nux's hands moving towards her breasts, then, she felt his fingers circling around her breasts,

“AAANNNhhhh!”

At the same time, he drilled his rod inside her again.

Then, Thyra could also feel Nux's breath on her shoulders, he was about to kiss her cheek.

Nux did what Thyra expected and kissed her teeth while he rammed his dick into her body.

Thyra continued to moan as well.

For some reason, doing it with her eyes closed felt even better.

“AAnnnhh~~”

Another moan leaked out of her mouth when Nux pinched her nipples at the same time, then, his right hand continued to play with her nipple while his left hand moved down.

“!!!”

Thyra's body shuddered in pleasure when Nux touched her clitoris at the same time he rammed his cock into her body.

Thyra felt her body losing all her strength, however, since her limbs were tied, there was nothing she could do rather than accept Nux's thrusts without any resistance whatsoever.

She could feel him kissing her cheek and shoulder, playing with her nipple, rubbing her clitoris and ramming his cock into her,

He was doing everything at the same time and was releasing waves after waves of pleasure into her body.

“Annh~ Annh~ Annh~”

Thyra moaned helplessly.

*Pah* *Pah* *Pah*

Her ears picked the sounds of flesh clashing with flesh, she didn't need to think much, she knew what that sound was.

“!!!”

Suddenly, Thyra's body shuddered again when she felt Nux biting her earlobe.

Her walls tightened, her body became rigid, back arched up and,

*Squirt*

“AAAannnnNNhhh~”

She came.

*Pah* *Pah* *Pah*

Nux, however, wasn't done with her and even though her little sister was squirting and wavering with pleasure, he continued to ram his cock inside her body.

“Annhh~ Anhnh~ Annhh~”

This multiplied the pleasure Thyra was feeling.

And suddenly, Nux flicked her Clitoris.

“!!!”

Thyra’s already weak body shuddered again and she had another minor orgasm a second after she was done with the main one.

“Heehh? You are more excited than normal, are you not?”

Suddenly, she heard Nux’s gentle voice, however, she did not have the energy to answer his questions.

The pleasure was too much for her, also, with how Nux still continued to drill his rod into her, she could do nothing but moan continuously.

She was helpless right now.

However, that didn’t mean she would let him win,

Thyra then collected her remaining strength and then, tried to tighten her walls.

Her method seems to have worked as her ears picked up Nux’s groan,

“Uggghhh!! I am cumminngggg!!”

Then, Thyra felt a thick liquid filling her insides, this made her body tremble even more, she lost all the strength she had and,

She enjoyed another minor orgasm.

Her nose then picked the smell of her liquids being mixed with Nux’s, she didn’t need to see and was able to tell that these liquids were falling out of her little sister without stopping.

“Haahh... hahh... hahhh...” She took deep breaths.

“Heh. You don’t think we are done here, do you, my lovely Thyra?”

Suddenly, Nux’s voice entered her ears and Thyra’s body froze.

Then, Nux adjusted the cross Thyra was tied on and then, he lowered her upper body and made her bend to an exact 90 degrees.

Then, he moved his towards Thyra’s soft butt and started caressing it.

“We still have lots and lots of time, my lovely Thyra.”

Saying that, Nux rammed his cock inside her again and another round started.

“AANNnhhhhH~~”

Chapter 280

“Annh~”

A small moan leaked out of Thyra’s mouth as Nux placed the head of his dick on Thyra’s pussy.

However, no matter how much Thyra moaned, his did not enter her insides.

“AAannhh~~”

Another moan leaked out of her mouth when Nux pinched her nipples at the same time, then, his right hand continued to play with her nipple while his left hand moved down.

“!!!”

Thyra's body shuddered in pleasure when Nux touched her clitoris at the same time he rammed his cock into her body.

Thyra felt her body losing all her strength, however, since her limbs were tied, there was nothing she could do rather than accept Nux's thrusts without any resistance whatsoever.

She could feel him kissing her cheek and shoulder, playing with her nipple, rubbing her clitoris and ramming his cock into her,

He was doing everything at the same time and was releasing waves after waves of pleasure into her body.

“Annh~ Annh~ Annh~”

Thyra moaned helplessly.

*Pah* *Pah* *Pah*

Her ears picked the sounds of flesh clashing with flesh, she didn't need to think much, she knew what that sound was.

“!!!”

Suddenly, Thyra's body shuddered again when she felt Nux biting her earlobe.

Her walls tightened, her body became rigid, back arched up and,

*Squirt*

“AAAannnnNNhhh~”

She came.

*Pah* *Pah* *Pah*

Nux, however, wasn't done with her and even though her little sister was squirting and wavering with pleasure, he continued to ram his cock inside her body.

“Annhh~ Annhh~ Annhh~”

This multiplied the pleasure Thyra was feeling.

And suddenly, Nux flicked her Clitoris.

“!!!”

Thyra’s already weak body shuddered again and she had another minor orgasm a second after she was done with the main one.

“Heehh? You are more excited than normal, are you not?”

Suddenly, she heard Nux’s gentle voice, however, she did not have the energy to answer his questions.

The pleasure was too much for her, also, with how Nux still continued to drill his rod into her, she could do nothing but moan continuously.

She was helpless right now.

However, that didn’t mean she would let him win,

Thyra then collected her remaining strength and then, tried to tighten her walls.

Her method seems to have worked as her ears picked up Nux’s groan,

“Uggghhh!! I am cumminngggg!!”

Then, Thyra felt a thick liquid filling her insides, this made her body tremble even more, she lost all the strength she had and,

She enjoyed another minor orgasm.

Her nose then picked the smell of her liquids being mixed with Nux’s, she didn’t need to see and was able to tell that these liquids were falling out of her little sister without stopping.

“Haahh... hahh... hahhh...” She took deep breaths.

“Heh. You don’t think we are done here, do you, my lovely Thyra?”

Suddenly, Nux’s voice entered her ears and Thyra’s body froze.

Then, Nux adjusted the cross Thyra was tied on and then, he lowered her upper body and made her bend to an exact 90 degrees.

Then, he moved his towards Thyra’s soft butt and started caressing it.

“We still have lots and lots of time, my lovely Thyra.”

Saying that, Nux rammed his cock inside her again and another round started.

“AANNnhhhhH~~”

Chapter 281

“Ugghhhh! I am cumming again!!!”

*Squirt*

“AAaannhhhhh!!”

Nux and Thyra moaned in pleasure as they both orgasmed at the same time.

Nux then rested his body on top of Thyra’s back and the two of them started breathing heavily.

Then, a familiar energy entered Nux’s body and a bunch of messages appeared in front of his eyes, he, however, ignored those messages and stood up.

Taking his dick out of her little sister, Nux walked towards Thyra with a smile on his face.

Thyra, who still had the black mist covering her eyes felt Nux’s little brother moving out of her cave, then, she heard his footsteps and realized that he was walking towards him.

Then, a strong scent assaulted her nose, she didn’t need to think to know what it was.

*Sniff* *Sniff*

She sniffed even more and moved her face towards Nux’s dick.

However, suddenly, the Mist around her eyes disappeared.

Thyra frowned but before she could say anything, she heard Nux’s voice.

“Look at the mirror of reality, Thyra.”

Thyra then turned towards the mirror and her eyes widened her surprise.

Her face was completely red, she was breathing heavily, her drool was coming out of her mouth, her hairs were a mess and there was a silly smile on her face.

If that was not enough then the way she had moved her head towards Nux's dick and the way her tongue was out on its own shocked Thyra to her core.

“Compare this face to your previous face, Thyra.

Then try to tell me that you are not a pervert.”

Thyra then glanced at Nux's face and saw him looking at her with a smirk on her face.

She then looked at her own face once more and was shocked again.

She couldn't believe it was her.

She couldn't believe that she was able to make that face.

She didn't resemble her usual calm and emotionless appearance at all.

It was as if she was a completely different person.

However...

Thyra's silly smile then widened.

It wasn't a problem, as long as Nux is the only one who sees her this side, it wasn't a problem at all.

“I am a pervert.”

She admitted with a smile on her face.

Nux chuckled, he then brought his dick close to Thyra's mouth.

Thyra knew what she had to do, she opened her mouth and then, she started licking his shaft.

A few minutes later, she started sucking.

*Slurp* *Slurp* *Slurp*

She started sucking as intensely as she could.

“Uggghhh... Thyra, you are too good!!” Nux groaned in pleasure.

With her body tied up, her movements were minimal, however, she compensated for that by how strongly she was sucking Nux’s dick.

It was as if she was trying to force him to cum even more.

And with how her cheeks were sunk inwardly, Nux, who was already very sensitive couldn’t hold back and,

“Uggghhh!!”

He came again.

Thyra didn’t waste any drop, as if she was someone who hadn’t eaten for days, she drank all his jizz without leaving anything.

Then, she opened her mouth as if she was trying to show him that she had drank it all.

Nux felt his dick twitching when he saw that face.

Thyra was tired, he knows that, he knows that the moment he places her on the bed, the girl would sleep, however, even after that, the girl still gave him a blowjob.

What a lovely assassin.

Nux then removed her from her bindings, then he picked her up and walked towards the bed.

“It is good that you admit it.”

He muttered.

“It is good that we have something in common...” Suddenly, Thyra muttered in a weak voice.

“Hmm?”

“We both are perverts...”

Thyra completed and then, she closed her eyes.

The meaning behind her words was clear, even though she was a pervert, Nux was one as well.

Even in the end, she did not completely give in.

Nux chuckled.

“We both are perverts indeed...” He agreed and then he kissed her forehead.

Thyra was already asleep, he wanted to sleep as well, however, there was something he wanted to do before that.

First, he moved the mirror and the Cross into his storage ring, this Cross was something he borrowed from Edda, as for this mirror, well, he carried it around because of this mirror of reality idea that had suddenly come into his mind.

Hehe~

‘It was fun indeed.’

He chuckled inwardly.

Thyra was more sensitive than usual today.

Nux then shook his head, he sat on the ground and then, he called for his system.

Those messages reappeared in front of his eyes,

[Congratulations to the host for rising to an Expert Stage Mana Cultivator from a Grand Master Stage Mana Cultivator.]

Nux Leander was now an Expert Stage Cultivator,

An 18-year-old Expert Stage Cultivator.

And not a normal Expert Stage Cultivator, but a cultivator who can easily overpower any other Expert Stage Cultivators who dare to come in front of him.

‘I got 60 Black Points...’

A small smile appeared on Nux's face as he glanced at Black points, however, then, his smile died away.

He was still far from his goal.

He needed 1000 Black points,

For what?

To upgrade his Physique Mastery to Master Level.

Yes, it needed 1000 Black points!

Upgrade to Advance Level Mastery only needed 100 Black Points, but now a direct 10 times increase!

This was ridiculous!

The system was trying to suck him dry!

Nux, however, quickly calmed himself...

There was no need to get agitated, he should focus on something much more important.

[Harem Gate Unlocked.]

Chapter 282

[Harem Gate Unlocked.]

[Active Skill]

[Effects:]

[Teleports near a Harem Member.]

[1MP: 100 Meters.]

[One free use every day.]

[Warning: If the distance between the Host and his woman is more than the MP required to get there, the ability will not work.]

[Warning: A woman can only be counted as Harem Member if she has Harem Seal.]

The more Nux read the wider his smile got.

‘What a convenient ability...’

He muttered inwardly.

He then quickly walked into the bathroom and washed.

Then, he closed his eyes.

As soon as he got this ability, he realized how to use it.

It wasn't very hard, he just had to choose the woman he wants to go to and boom, he would be around the said woman.

Of course, he was planning to use and test this ability as much as he could.

‘Amaya Skyfall’

He thought inwardly, his body then disappeared and he appeared inside Amaya’s room.

[MP: 1308/1800]

He then glanced at his MP and noticed that around 500 MP has been reduced.

“Amazing...”

Nux muttered in amazement as he started looking around.

It was indeed Amaya’s room.

His eyes then fell on Amaya who was lying on the bed, covering herself with Devouring Mist and acting like a sick person.

A smile appeared on Nux’s face when he saw that.

He then closed his eyes again,

‘Allura Skyfall.’

He thought and then, he disappeared.

[MP: 1301/1800]

“Huh? Nux?”

Then he heard Allura’s startled voice.

Right now, Allura was reading a book while thinking about Nux, she was really surprised that he appeared right in front of her like this.

“How are you, my beautiful Allura? Did you miss me?” Nux questioned with a smile on his face.

“Shouldn’t you come here in the night?” Allura questioned while she walked into Nux’s embrace as if it was the most natural thing to do.

“Should I come in the night then?” Nux questioned with a playful smile on his face.

“Heehh? Can you really stay away from me for that long?” Allura questioned back with a smile on her face.

Nux chuckled.

As expected of Allura, this was indeed the perfect answer.

His hands that were hugging Allura started moving towards her soft and lovely breasts.

Then, a thought appeared inside Nux’s head,

He had already used 500 MP, why not wait here a little and spend some blissful time with his woman?

He could always test his abilities later, can he not?

The more he thought about it, the wider his smile got.

“Wait...”

Suddenly, Allura froze.

“You became an Expert Stage Cultivator...” She realized.

Then, she started thinking.

Only Arvina was the only one who could help Nux, however, she knew that he wasn’t that close to her.

Yet.

Then there was only one option left...

“Thyra broke through...” Allura muttered.

She didn't even think about the possibility of Nux cultivating on his own.

She knew him well, he would rather spend time with his woman than cultivate.

He was a horny pervert.

“Indeed.”

Nux nodded with a smile.

“She worked hard.”

Allura smiled as well.

She was actually happy for Thyra.

Even though the two of them didn't like each other.

While she was thinking all of this, Nux picked her up and walked toward the bed,

Then, he whispered in his usual gentle voice,

“How about we work hard as well?”

A smile appeared on Allura's face and she chuckled,

“Of course.

We should always work hard.”

Nux smiled, he then quickly removed Allura's clothes and pounced on her like a beast!

Rooaaarr!

...

2 hours later, Nux took a bath in the bathroom, with Allura of course.

However, they did not do anything.

It was already time for dinner.

Nux had to return.

Nux, who wore his clothes smiled at Allura,

“We will meet soon, my love.”

Allura smiled back.

Nux then closed his eyes and,

‘Skyla’

Then, he disappeared.

Allura raised her eyebrows in amazement.

Nux had already told her about the ability his new ability, therefore, she wasn't really shocked about his sudden disappearance. However, she was still surprised.

She was again reminded of how absurd her man was.

An ability like this was...

Simply illogical.

...

On the other side, Nux appeared behind Skyla, the girl was startled by his sudden appearance, however, she was quick to recover.

“Nux!” she exclaimed and jumped into his embrace.

[MP: 985/1800]

‘So I don’t need to say the complete name.’

Nux noted in his head.

He still needed to test the limits of his ability after all.

“How are you doing, Skyla?”

“Making food~” Skyla answered.

“Oh ho? I am looking forward to your cooking~” Nux answered as he kissed her lips.

“Mhm~ I will make sure that it will come out tasty~”

Skyla answered with a cheerful smile.

She didn’t even bother questioning how he appeared behind her.

Well, Nux’s [Conceal] worked in a similar way, so you can see that she was already used to Nux appearing around him.

“Alright, I will go now, bye~”

Nux muttered and then, he disappeared again.

He then appeared behind Edda.

[MP: 983/1800]

‘So I don’t need the name at all.’

Nux noted again.

He then looked around and saw Lane and Edda were looking at him.

“Lane, can you go stand towards that wall?” Nux questioned.

Lane frowned, however, she nodded and then did as she was told.

“What are you tryi-” Edda wanted to question, however, before she could, Nux disappeared and appeared beside Lane.

[MP: 983/1800]

This time, no MP was used.

‘Does that mean it doesn’t require MP if the distance is less than 100 Meters?’

Nux questioned inwardly.

He then turned to Edda and muttered,

“Edda, you go stand over there.”

“Alright...” seeing his disappear like that, Edda realized that he got yet another absurd ability, therefore, she did as she was told.

He will tell her everything later.

She doesn’t need to ask any questions right now.

Nux then disappeared and appeared behind Edda, then, he disappeared again and appeared near Edda.

He then repeated it 5 times and,

[MP: 982/1800]

His MP reduced again.

Suddenly, Nux grabbed his head and groaned in pain.

“Ugghh...”

Chapter 283

“ ... ”

Right now, Royce was sitting in front of the dining table with a frown on his face.

He glanced at Felberta, who was eating silently, then his eyes fell on Nux who was doing the same, Miss Edda was standing beside them eating silently as well.

Skyla and Lane were standing behind them without moving.

And there was another woman who was sitting at the dining table.

Normally, this would not be weird, Royce has seen other guests visiting them and having dinner with them before.

However, today, the air around the dining table felt weird.

It was quiet.

Too quiet.

After the initial greetings, the only sounds he heard were utensils touching each other, nothing else.

Generally, the dinner with a guest should have more energy than normal, however, Royce could feel that the energy had decreased and is less than normal.

‘Haahh...’

In the end, Royce decided to ignore this and focused on eating.

Adults seem to think differently than him.

He shouldn't try to understand them.

Thinking about it, Royce ignored everything that was happening and continued eating.

'This is a great ability.'

Thyra muttered with an excited look on her face.

Yes, Nux and the others were using Harem Seal's telepathic link to talk to each other, that is why the dining room was so silent.

Right now, Nux was talking about the new ability he had received.

'A great ability indeed, now we don't have to wait for Nux, all we have to do is call him and he will appear beside us. Fufufufu~'

Edda nodded in agreement.

'That is not what I am talking about you pervert.' Thyra retorted.

'Huh? What? You don't want Nux to come to you whenever you want?' Edda questioned.

'T-That is not what I am talking about. What I am saying is that this ability could be used in a better way.' Thyra answered.

'Tsk Tsk, you act like that right now, but I am sure you will be the one who would abuse this ability the most out of all of us.' Edda snorted.

'Silence, training, increase.'

In reply, Thyra spoke only 3 words and Edda turned silent.

Thyra was the strongest among everyone, and she was the one who taught everyone.

She had the power here.

‘What is this better way you are talking about?’ Felberta questioned in a curious tone.

‘Using this ability, Nux can fight together with us.’ Thyra muttered.

‘Huh?’ All the women frowned.

Nux started thinking and nodded, he had a vague idea about what Thyra was talking about.

‘Since we have this telepathic link, our coordination would already be the best if we ever join the battlefield after a little bit of training.

And if we add this new teleporting ability with it, we would be a dangerous force.’

Thyra started talking, she looked so excited that her eyes started shining while she was eating, making Royce think that she was a weird woman.

Of course, Thyra didn’t care about what Royce thought, heck, she didn’t even realize that he was looking at her, she was just too excited about this new ability and continued,

‘Just imagine, we 7 women and Nux fighting together as a group against many enemies.

Imagine, the enemies think that they would defeat you within the next move, however, suddenly, Nux appears beside us and beheads the enemy.

Or suddenly, knowing that the Nux is the centre of our group, the enemy decides to encircle him and ignore us, then suddenly, he would disappear from the encirclement and would start killing and attacking enemies from behind.

Us eight fighting together would make a complete invincible team with no weakness whatsoever.’

Thyra explained and the other women’s eyes shined brightly.

This indeed looked...

Romantic.

Fighting together with Nux would be a dream come true.

Even Nux raised his eyebrow in surprise when he thought about what Thyra said. It did look quite a lethal technique.

While everyone was thinking about it, Royce frowned.

‘Is there something I don’t know?’ He thought inwardly.

That woman named Thyra alone acting strangely was fine, however, if all the people eating and serving the food acted like that...

Then the strange one is him, correct?

‘Is it because I usually stay alone and don’t talk much?’ Royce started doubting himself.

‘I agree.’ Suddenly, Nux and the others heard Amaya’s voice.

‘Thyra is right, this is indeed an overpowered ability. We can use it like how Thyra said.’

‘But if I teleport too much, my head would start aching like what happened an hour ago, won’t that be disadvantageous in the war?’

Nux questioned.

‘We aren’t going to fight without any practice of course.

Your headache was most probably because your brain was unable to handle the quick changes of surroundings so many times, I believe you just have to train and you will be able to use this ability just fine.’

Thyra muttered.

‘Yes, don’t worry, I have already come up with a training plan.’ Amaya smiled.

‘What plan?’ Nux questioned.

‘Catch ball.’

Amaya answered.

‘Huh? Isn’t that a game children play?’ Skyla questioned with a frown.

‘Yes, there are 5 of you there with Nux. All you 5 have to do is form a circle, Nux would stand in the centre of the circle, then, you 5 will try to hit each other with a ball and Nux would have to use his ability to appear next to you, protect you and catch the ball.’

‘That is a good way to train, I agree.’ Thyra nodded.

‘Hehe~ Nux would protect us? I agree as well~’ Skyla chuckled.

‘Hmph! It is nothing more than training, okay? Don’t act weirdly.’ Amaya snorted.

Her jealousy was clear in her eyes.

‘Hehe~’ Skyla chuckled again and Amaya snorted.

As the plan was made, the 8 of them continued to talk.

The dinner ended, Nux then appeared in Amaya’s room and spent another blissful session with her.

The next whole week, Nux only did two things, spending time with his women, and training his new ability.

He wanted to Train with Thyra as well, however, the woman shook her head.

This ability was much more important right now.

It was a scarily fast way to get stronger after all.

Just like that, a week passed by and Nux's vacation ended.

Chapter 284

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

“Enter.”

Nux knocked on the door and soon, he heard a familiar voice.

A smile appeared on his face as he entered.

“I am back, teacher.” He bowed his head.

Arvina looked at him with her Brown-red eyes and then, a small smile appeared on her face.

“It is good that you are back.”

Soon, however, a frown appeared on her face as she questioned,

“Why are you hiding your cultivation again?”

“There are many eyes here, teacher,” Nux answered.

“Don’t worry, the servants working here are loyal to me.” Arvina answered, however, when her eyes fell on Nux, she paused.

Nux was looking at her with a wry smile on his face.

She understood what that expression meant.

“As I said, they are all loyal to me.”

She repeated.

“Are you 100% sure?” Nux questioned.

“I am.” Arvina answered.

“Teacher Arvina, a human heart can be unpredictable, are you 100% sure that these people are loyal to you?” Nux questioned again.

“Are you 100% sure that these people would die without any hesitation if you order them you?”

Are you 100% sure that these people would not reveal anything even if they are tortured inhumanly?”

“ ... ”

Nux continued to question and Arvina turned silent.

A human heart was unpredictable indeed.

So unless someone had the Slave Seal like Nux has, no one would be able to trust their subordinates without a sliver of doubt.

“Alright, I understand.

You can keep hiding your cultivation.”

Arvina then sighed.

She was pretty positive that her subordinates are loyal to her, however, she could still not be 100% sure about this.

There are always variables.

And Nux’s secret...

Honestly, it was much more dangerous than what Nux thinks.

Things weren’t as simple as Nux made it out to be.

Of course, Arvina didn’t blame Nux for this.

How is he supposed to know the inner workings of the Kingdom that even most of the members of the Royal Family don’t know?

“Yes, it is always better to be careful.” Nux nodded and Arvina nodded back.

“Alright, I believe you have already had enough time to rest, how about we start your training?”

Arvina changed the topic and muttered.

Small talks weren't something she was good at anyway,

Rather than talking about this, they should focus on Swords.

Or at least that's what Arvina felt.

“As you say, Teacher Arvina.” Nux nodded his head.

Arvina smiled she stood up and stretched her body.

Nux felt that she was deliberately trying to tease him, however, he did not avert his gaze.

He would be a fool to do something like that.

Tsk Tsk, he would rather enjoy the alluring sight that was in front of his eyes.

Arvina noticed that he was looking as well, she frowned and then she stopped stretching. Then, she walked out of her office without saying anything.

Nux followed behind her obediently.

The two of them walked into the garden and suddenly, Nux frowned.

“Teacher...”

“What is it?” Arvina questioned.

“Where is the oh so mighty Queen of the Academy?” Nux questioned.

Was she that embarrassed?

“No, she did not leave the Academy, she just left this place.

The headmaster of the Academy returned 2 days earlier and heard about everything that happened.

Hearing that you defeated Candice, he was shocked.

He then came to me to talk about your battle and while he was about to leave, Candice approached him.”

Arvina explained.

“Huh? What did she say?” Nux questioned with a curious look on his face.

“She said that the reason she lost was that I didn’t teach her properly and only told her to practice one move I have taught her again and again.

She said that since she didn’t have a variety of moves to fight against you, she lost the battle.” Arvina answered with an expressionless face. She didn’t look very bothered about this incident.

“Ahh, so she blamed you.

Why am I not surprised?” Nux chuckled, then, he turned towards Arvina and questioned,

“So? What did the Headmaster say?”

“Well, no matter what, Candice still has Exceptional Level affinity with the water element, she has a bright future.

The Headmaster did not reject her and took her in as his student.”

“Ahh, so now she is Headmaster’s student.” Nux nodded with a smile on his face.

“Tsk Tsk, the only thing that was mildly good about her fight was that her moves seemed well practised, to think she would give up on that advantage as well~

A fool indeed.”

“Actually,” Suddenly, Arvina muttered.

“Hmm?”

“The Headmaster came here because he wanted to take you in as his student. Now that you have returned, I believe he will return and try to take you as his student.

You do not have to worry, if you feel like he would be a better teacher than me, then, by all means, you can leave with him.” Arvina muttered.

“Question...”

“What is it?”

“Teacher Arvina, if you and Headmaster fight without using Mana, who will win?” Nux questioned with a curious look on his face.

“Huh? Is that even a question?

I would beat that baldy up.”

Arvina answered as if it was a fact.

“Then why would I go to that baldy and train under him?” Nux questioned with a smile.

“Oi, he is the Headmaster, you cannot call him that.”

“...”

Nux looked at Arvina with a deadpan expression on his face.

“Alright, whatever, let’s start your training.

I will train you from basic, if I feel like you know it already, we will increase the level.” Arvina muttered.

“Yes, teacher.” A serious look appeared on Nux’s face as he nodded.

Arvina liked that look.

A small smile appeared on her face as she continued.

“Alright, let’s start with your posture first. I won’t change much, however, let’s try to reduce the openings it has.”

“Yes, teacher.” Nux nodded with a determined look on his face.

He was very much looking forward to it.

He needed to impress Arvina after all.

And just like that, Nux’s training started.

Chapter 285

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

“Come in.”

The doors of Evane’s office were opened and a beautiful red brown-eyed, light-blonde-haired woman walked in.

“Teacher Arvina, I heard you wanted to talk to me but why did you come on your own? You could have called me in your office.”

Evane muttered as she stood up from her seat.

“Princess Evane, you should not lower yourself like this, you have to take note of your status.” Arvina narrowed her eyes and suggested.

“I am just a normal teacher in this academy, you, on the other hand, are the Vice Headmaster, it is completely normal for me to act like this,” Evane answered with a polite smile on her face.

Arvina shook her head.

She knew her words won’t have any effect, however, she still wanted to try nonetheless.

Evane has already given up on her title as the princess and wanted to live in peace, however, Arvina knew that something like that isn’t possible.

Sooner or later, she will be dragged into politics, whether she wants it or not.

“So what did you want to talk about, Teacher Arvina?” Evane questioned.

Arvina came out of her thoughts and replied,

“I want to talk about Nux,”

“Nux? What about him?”

“I heard that you have allowed him to live in the Teacher’s abode.

Strange rumours have started because of this,”

Arvina didn’t say anymore.

Evane knew how the world works and gossips were the best sources of entertainment for most people.

She knew what Arvina was getting at and she also knew what Arvina wanted her to do.

However,

Evane shook her head,

“I don’t care what those people say.

I am doing this because I want to protect Nux.”

People can think whatever they want, Evane didn’t care.

She would do what she wanted to do. Now that she has promised that she would protect Nux, she would do her best to live up to it.

“You are trying to protect Nux?” Arvina frowned.

“Yes, that boy defended himself in front of a son of an Earl, in the process, he injured his opponent a little, I am worried that the Earl would target him.

He is a commoner with little to no background, although there is a Marquee supporting him, I don’t think that Marquee do anything if he ends up dead.

Therefore, I believe that as his teacher, it is my duty to protect that child.”

Evane replied with a determined look on her face.

However, Arvina's expression didn't change at all. Rather, her frown only deepened.

“You are trying to protect Nux...?”

She questioned again, her mind couldn't believe the absurdity of this situation.

The boy that Evane was trying to protect was probably stronger than her.

Earl?

Someone like Earl is nothing in that boy's eyes.

If he revealed his real cultivation, that Earl would come and beg for merc-

‘Ahhh...’

Arvina finally recalled the problem.

It was hidden.

She knew that Nux was a Grand Master Stage Cultivator however, Evane and the others did not.

Evane was just trying to protect an Advance Stage Cultivator.

Arvina needed to think of another way to solve this problem.

“You don't believe the Academy's security system?”

Arvina questioned.

“I don't,” Evane answered without any filters.

“...”

Arvina couldn't find a way to retort either.

For an Earl, it was pretty easy to get a student killed inside the academy.

The only reason why no one does it is that once it is found out, the consequences would be disastrous.

The Academy's leader was a King Stage Cultivator, getting into his bad books was a bad idea for any noble house.

However, since Nux was a commoner, no one would search this case and it would be buried.

That is why an Earl might try to assassinate Nux inside the Academy.

“What about me? Do you trust me?” Arvina questioned.

“Huh?” Evane frowned.

“Teacher Arvina, what are you talking about?” She questioned back.

“If I tell you that I will protect Nux, will you trust me?” Arvina questioned.

“I need to know how you are planning to do it.”

“I will allow him to live in my mansion, I am sure I would be able to protect him if anyone dares to attack him,” Arvina answered and Evane couldn't help but blink a few times.

What the hell was Teacher Arvina talking about?

“Won't that spread weird rumours as well?” Evane questioned.

“Huh? Of course not, he is my personnel Student, why would there be rumours like that? Candice had a room inside my mansion as well.”

Arvina answered and Evane's eyes widened in surprise.

“He is your student!?”

“Yes, I took him in as my student after seeing his talents,” Arvina answered and Evane couldn’t blink her eyes.

Arvina Skyfall, a man-hater, took a male student as her student on her own accord. What!?

What the hell was happening!?

“So him living in my Mansion should be fine, right?” Arvina questioned again.

“...” This time, Evane had no answer.

She had no more reasons to keep him here but for some reason, she didn’t want Nux to live in Arvina’s mansion.

Or rather, she didn’t want him to leave this place.

“Teacher Evane, it should be fine, correct?” Arvina questioned again.

Suddenly, a determined look appeared on Evane’s face as he nodded,

“Have you asked Nux? What does he say?”

“About being my student? Of course, he agreed.”

“No, I am talking about you changing his room.”

“I have not asked him,” Arvina answered.

“Then that’s it, ask him first, if he agrees, I would agree as well.”

“Huh? Why would he not agree?” Arvina frowned.

“Yes, that is what I am talking about, just ask him first, once he agrees, I will agree as well.”

Arvina’s frown deepened.

Why make a simple process so complicated?

She couldn't understand.

However, in the end, she couldn't force Evane, therefore, she shook her head,

“Alright, as you say, I will ask him first.”

Saying that, she turned around and left Evane's office.

After she left, Evane sat on her seat and then placed her hand on her beating heart.

‘What the hell is happening to me?’

Chapter 286

After talking with Evane, Arvina returned to her mansion, she then walked towards her garden to check on Nux and a smile appeared on her face as she saw Nux swinging his sword with a determined look on his face.

With how his face and clothes were drenched in sweat, Arvina knew that the boy wasn't trying to fake it and couldn't help but smile.

A monstrously talented boy like his is hard working as well...

Arvina knew that his future was limitless.

A thought then appeared in Arvina's mind, she hid behind a bush and started observing Nux.

However, as soon as she hid behind the bush, Nux paused.

Then, he glanced in her direction and smiled,

“Welcome back, teacher.”

Arvina raised her eyebrow in surprise, she then stepped out and commented,

“You are sharp.”

“Thank you.” Nux's smile widened.

“That day, you found Candice who was hiding behind a bush as well, even I was unable to do so, how did you do it?” Arvina questioned.

As a warrior, she was quite perceptive about her surroundings, however, she could see that Nux easily defeated her when it comes to that.

Nux however, did not answer her question and smiled,

“I am just that good.”

“Tsk Tsk, focus on your moves, you arrogant fool, your form is still not perfect.”

“Hmm hmm, just give me a few more hours teacher, I will master this form.”

“Don’t rush it,” Arvina warned.

She didn’t want Nux to do the same mistake Candice did.

“Don’t worry, I won’t move the next moves unless you are satisfied.”

“Heh. It is hard to satisfy me, boy.” Arvina smiled.

“We will see about that,

I will satisfy you for sure~”

Nux muttered with a playful smile on his face.

Seeing that smile, Arvina frowned.

For some reason, she thought that Nux’s words meant something else.

However, she was not sure about it.

Maybe it was just her being overly perceptive and cautious.

She should not think too much about useless things.

Arvina noted in her head.

Then, she suddenly recalled what she wanted to talk about and she called,

“Nux,”

“Yes?”

“You live in the room next to Teacher Evane, correct?”

“Yes, I do, though I am not sure if it could be called a room though, it’s too big,” Nux answered.

“How about you stop living there and shift here?” Arvina questioned.

“ ... ”

Nux frowned and didn’t answer.

Seeing this, Arvina frowned as well,

“There should not be any problem, correct?”

“Umm... Teacher... is it possible to not shift?” Nux questioned with an awkward look on his face.

“Why? Won’t you be more comfortable here? I know your secret, so you can even slack off and stop restraining yourself from time to time. Isn’t that better?” Arvina couldn’t understand Nux’s thoughts.

“That is true... however, I would like to stay there...”

“Why?”

“ ... ”

Nux glanced at Arvina, his mind started thinking about different excuses, however, he was unable to come up with anything.

Soon, however, a smile appeared on his face as he answered,

“Because Teacher Evane is there.”

“Huh?” Arvina frowned.

Soon, her eyes widened in shock as she questioned,

“Are those rumours true!?”

“What rumours?”

“The rumours about you and Evane being a couple.”

“Huh!? Of course not!

I am not that lucky.”

Nux was quick to deny.

Arvina sighed in relief, however, then, she narrowed her eyes and questioned,

“What do you mean you aren’t that lucky? Does that mean you like Teacher Evane?”

Nux then averted his eyes,

“Ah, teacher, I don’t have time to talk right now, let me practice my form. I feel like I can still improve.”

Saying that, Nux started swinging his sword.

Arvina narrowed her eyes, although Nux didn’t answer, his actions made his answers clear.

This boy liked his teacher.

Arvina thought about it and couldn’t believe how wrong it was.

She wanted to talk more about it however, in the end, she shook her head and turned around.

Seeing her walking away, Nux chuckled.

Then, he continued swinging his sword again.

...

“Teacher, I will be leaving now.” After the training ended, Nux bowed his head and muttered.

“You are really going there huh...” Arvina muttered.

Nux just smiled and then, he turned around and left.

Arvina looked at his back with an expressionless face.

No one knew what she was thinking.

...

On the other side, Nux walked into his room and then, he started painting.

No, he wasn't doing this to impress Evane, he wasn't that good, and neither did he think he could become that good in the recent future, he just needed a topic two of them could talk about.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

Nux continued painting as time passed, soon, Nux heard a knock.

A smile appeared on his face, he then opened the doors and greeted.

“Teacher Evane, I hope you are doing well.”

Evane smiled and then walked into Nux's room.

“Did you miss me, teacher?”

Honestly, I missed you a lot.” Nux smiled.

“Teacher Arvina told me that you became her student,” Evane muttered.

“Heehh? Didn't I tell you before? Remember what I said?”

Teacher Arvina would like me so much that she would praise me many many times.

However, it seemed that I underestimated my charm,

Teacher Arvina directly took me as her student.”

Nux answered with a proud smile on his face.

Seeing him acting like that, Evane couldn't help but chuckle.

He has not changed at all...

“I can't believe you managed to impress Teacher Arvina.” She muttered.

“Heeh? Wasn't that expected? Didn't I manage to impress Teacher Evane as well? Didn't I become your favourite student?” Nux brought his face close to Evane's and muttered.

“H-Huh? When did you become my favourite student?” Evane stuttered and for some reason, her face turned red.

“Whaaat? I am still not your favourite student yet?” Nux questioned with a shocked look on his face.

“No, you are not. You have to work harder for that.” Evane chuckle.

“Alright, come with me then, I will show you the painting I just made,

This will definitely impress you and I will then become your favourite student.

I am sure of it.”

Chapter 287

“How’s this? I am quite confident in this one.”

Nux questioned as he showed another painting to Evane with a smile on his face.

“You see, here is the knight, he came after fighting a war and is now in front of the princess...”

Nux then started explaining what he drew and seeing him, Evane smiled.

“Are you going to live with Teacher Arvina from now on?” Suddenly, Evane questioned.

“Knight promised to pro-” Hearing her question, Nux paused.

Then, a frown appeared on his face and he answered,

“Of course not, why would I do that?”

“Teacher Arvina came to me, she talked about how you will be safer if you lived with her,” Evane muttered.

“Safe? Teacher Evane... have you perhaps not heard the news?” Nux questioned.

“News? What news?” Evane frowned.

“Bourkee House is now destroyed,” Nux informed nonchalantly.

“Huh? How did that happen?” Evane questioned in shock, however, Nux shook his head.

“I do not know the details, however, it seems that all the cultivators who were Earl’s subordinates were killed and even Earl had both his arms chopped off.

Coincidentally, it was revealed that Earl Bourkee had raped Baron Crook's daughter in the past, along with this, many other crimes were revealed as well.

The Earl could only compensate the victims to avoid the case in the Justice Court, however, the number of crimes he committed were so many that his money was spent and even after that, someone filed a case against him for another crime.

Since the Earl lost most of his power, his allies refused to help him.

His condition is quite pitiful now.

Actually, I am even wondering who was the one who did something so cruel to him...

He must be a cold-hearted person.”

Nux shook his head with an innocent look on his face.

“...do you really feel that way...?” Evane questioned.

Nux then looked into her eyes and then, he sighed,

“No... I actually feel that the one who did it should be blessed by the gods and should achieve all the goals in his life.

I truly believe that he is a kind-hearted, gentle and handsome person.”

Nux replied with a smile.

“That's... quite the opposite of what you said...” Evane muttered.

“Well, let's not talk more about this.

In conclusion, now no one would attack me so I am safe.”

“What about Marquee Water? You have humiliated his daughter in front of half of the Academy, you know?”

Nux smiled,

“He won’t do anything.”

“Why?”

“Candice would be the one who would try to go against me.”

“Huh?”

“Yes, I only won against Candice because she didn’t use her Mana. If she had used her Mana, she would have defeated me easily.

Therefore, Candice would be the one to take me on, her pride won’t allow her father to step in.” Nux answered and Evane nodded in agreement.

That sounded logical.

“Also, who knows?”

If Marquee Water attacks me, that kind-hearted, gentle and handsome person might go against him this time.”

Nux muttered and again, Evane felt that there was a hidden meaning behind his words, however, she decided to ignore it since she wasn’t sure.

“All in all, I am safe, as long as I am inside the academy.” Nux muttered.

“Then... you don’t need to stay here?” Evane questioned.

“No, I must stay here. I won’t leave as long as Teacher Evane won’t throw me out.” Then, Nux looked at Evane as his golden eyes shined innocently.

“You won’t kick me out, right teacher Evane?”

“But won’t you be safer living with Teacher Arvina, the room there would be a lot better than this room.”

“But teacher Evane won’t be there.” Nux pouted, then, his eyes shined in determination.

“I must have Teacher Evane all to myself!”

He declared.

“H-Huh?” Evane blinked a few times and her heart skipped a beat.

She then noticed that Nux’s face was unusually close to hers, her heart skipped another beat and she quickly stepped back.

“W-W-W-What are you t-talking about!?”

She stuttered.

“I am not lying, I need to stay with Teacher Evane.

How else am I supposed to become your favourite student?”

“Huh?”

Evane frowned in confusion and her brain stopped working for a few seconds.

Then, her mind started processing what Nux said and she realized that she misunderstood what he was talking about.

Her face turned red in embarrassment.

‘J-Just what am I thinking...?’

She couldn’t think straight.

“You won’t kick me out, right teacher Evane?” oblivious to what she was thinking, Nux questioned with an innocent look on his face.

“I won’t, don’t worry.”

Evane answered, then, she stood up and walked away,

“It is late now, I will be leaving.”

“Have a wonderful night, Teacher Evane.”

“Y-Yes, you have a good night as well.”

“Mhm, I am planning to have a blissful night~”

Nux answered.

Evane didn’t think too much about his words, no, actually, she didn’t even hear his words.

She just wanted to get out of his room now.

She was too embarrassed, she can’t believe that she misunderstood her student.

She needs to meditate and calm her mind.

Thinking about it, Evane returned to her room and jumped onto her bed.

On the other side, after Evane left, a playful smile appeared on Nux.

He then looked at the time, it was 11 at the night, and there was still an hour before the day was over.

Nux decided to use his daily free teleportation.

He disappeared and then reappeared inside Allura’s room.

There, he saw Allura sitting on the bed, wearing a thin, see-through purple gown, her hypnotic blue eyes shined as an alluring smile appeared on her face,

“I was waiting~” She whispered.

“I hope you didn’t wait for long.”

Nux smiled and then, he pulled her into his embrace.

A long night followed.

...

The next day, Nux returned to the academy, then, he attended Evane’s class, flirting with female students, ignoring the boys and bullying the timid Myrill.

Then, the class ended, Teacher Evane left, and Nux left the classroom as well,

However, as soon as he walked out of the door,

A blue-haired girl appeared in front of him with a disdainful smile on her face.

Chapter 288

As soon as Nux walked out of his classroom, a familiar blue-haired girl appeared in front of him.

Nux paused a smile appeared on Candice's face.

“Heeeh, you ran away pretty quickly huh?”

Candice commented.

“Were you so excited that you won against me that you took a week's leave just so you could digest the victory?”

Despite doing her best to provoke him, Candice failed to achieve her goal, instead, a small smile appeared on Nux's face as he greeted her.

“Yo~ If it isn't the Ex Queen of the Academy.

How are you doing?”

Candice's face twitched in annoyance.

“What did you say!?” She questioned.

Mind you, in these last few days, Candice has regained quite a bit of her reputation, she became the personal student of the Head Master of the Academy after all.

Of course, Nux didn't care about something like that.

“Hmm? Did I hit you a little too hard? Were your ears damaged?” Nux questioned in worry.

“Have you taken a healing potion, what did the medics say?”

The more he questioned, the more Candice's body trembled in frustration.

“You bastard! Remember, you only won because I didn't use Mana! If we had fought fairly, you wouldn't have lasted for a second!”

Nux smiled,

“You bitch, remember, you can only say this because you are a Master Stage Cultivator, if you were only an Advance Stage Cultivator, you wouldn't have lasted for a second!”

“...”

Candice turned silent and looked at Nux with a blank look on her face.

“Does your words even make sense? What's the point of talking about it when I am already Master Stage Cultivator?”

“Exactly.”

Nux nodded.

Candice frowned in confusion, however, soon, she realized what Nux was trying to say.

A vein popped on her forehead as she yelled in frustration,

“Y-You bastard! Both the conditions are different!

In our battle, I was the one who held back!

As for the cultivation, you weren't forced to hold back, you are just not talented enough!

We are different!”

“We are different indeed.”

Nux admitted.

Candice then smiled, however, before she could celebrate her victory, Nux continued,

“I wasn’t the one who kowtowed in front of the whole Academy and rubbed my nose on the ground.”

“Y-Y-Y-You Bastard!”

Candice roared in rage and suddenly,

“Hahahaha~” A hearty laughter was heard.

Nux frowned and then his eyes fell on the Bald Man who stood behind Candice and was laughing nonstop.

“T-Teacher! Stop laughing!” Candice screamed in embarrassment.

“Hahaha~” The man she called teacher, however, continued to laugh and only after laughing for a good minute did he finally calm down.

“I-I can’t believe there is someone who can handle my student so easily even though he is weaker than her.

It is quite amusing to see her reactions. Hahaha~”

Nux glanced at the man and then, his golden eyes shined brightly.

[Name: Eliyard Kingson.]

[Age: 173]

[Mana Cultivation: King.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal.]

[Race: Human]

[Occupation: Headmaster of the Royal Academy.]

[Talent: High]

[LVL: 62]

[HP: 720/720]

[MP: 1420/1420]

[STR: 70]

[AGL: 78]

[VIT: 72]

[STM: 72]

[INT: 142]

[DEF: 64]

...

‘Ahh, so he is her new teacher.’ Nux realized.

This man was the Headmaster of the Royal Academy, a man who is as strong as the King and the strongest existence in this Academy.

However...

‘Hmmm... how do I say...

Kind of disappointing...?’

Nux thought inwardly.

He thought that a King Stage Cultivator would be a bit stronger than this man, however, he was wrong.

‘Is Emperor Stage the same as well?’

Nux thought inwardly, however, soon, Amaya's warning echoed in his mind.

'Emperors are different.'

Nux's gaze turned serious, he shouldn't be too careless and should stick with his plans.

There is no need to rush things.

"Ahh, allow me to introduce myself, I am Eliyard Kingson, the Headmaster of the Academy."

Eliyard introduced with a smile on his face. He was a 1.8-meter tall man with a large build, he had brown eyes, a straight nose, thin eyebrows and no hair on his head.

He wore a lavish purple-coloured coat and was looking at Nux with a smile on his face.

"Ahh, Greetings, Headmaster." Nux bowed his head a little and greeted.

"Mhm, and I am also this girl's new teacher." Eliyard pointed at Candice and informed.

"My condolences."

Nux lowered his head as if he was actually sad for him.

Candice's mouth twitched again, however, before she could react, Eliyard laughed out loud.

"Hahaha~ No no, this is nothing to feel bad about, rather, she is a rare gem that learns everything like a sponge.

She will become a great cultivator in the future, I am proud to be her teacher."

A smile appeared on Candice's face.

“Ahh, I am sure that would be the case.” Nux nodded his head.

However, with how indifferent and unnatural his movements looked, even a child could tell that he was faking it.

“Hmph! Teacher Arvina just didn’t teach me well, else I would have not lost against you!”

Candice snorted.

“My condolences.”

Nux turned towards Eliyard and lowered his head again.

“Huh? Why?” Eliyard frowned.

“With how she is, I am sure this girl would challenge me again, then when she loses, she will say the same thing again,

‘Hmph! Teacher Eliyard just didn’t teach me well, else I would have not lost against you!’

I just hope that the Headmaster won’t be too heartbroken.”

Nux muttered and Candice’s face turned red in anger.

This bastard was really good at getting on her nerves.

“You bastard! That is not an excuse! Teacher Arvina only taught me a single move and then told me to keep on repeating it again and again!

Just what type of crazy person keep practising what he already knows!?

How will one progress like that!?”

Nux, however, just shook his head,

“Naah, you were just not good enough.”

“Huh?” Candice frowned.

“I started training with teacher yesterday, and she already taught me 3 moves.”

“H-Huh?” Candice’s eyes widened in surprise.

“Alright, we are not here to compare the two teachers.” The Headmaster interjected, then, he turned towards Nux and questioned,

“Nux Leander, I am here to ask you,

How about you become my personnel student as well?”

Chapter 289

“How about you become my personnel student as well?”

“Huh?” Candice’s eyes widened in surprise when she heard her teacher.

She didn’t know that was what Eliyard was planning when he asked her to take him to Nux. If she knew that, she would have tried to change the topic to something else or would have made another excuse.

There was no way she would allow Nux to become Eliyard’s student as well.

Her life would become a living hell if she saw his face more than 2 times a day.

Not only Candice but even the students who were hearing their conversation from behind were shocked as well.

That was the Headmaster!

To think that the headmaster would personally come here to ask Nux to become his student, just how big of an opportunity and honour is that?

The students looked at Nux with eyes full of reverence and envy.

Nux, however, didn’t seem very affected and answered with a nonchalant look.

“No. I don’t want to.”

“Huh?” Eliyard, Candice and all the other students blinked a few times, unable to believe what Nux just said.

“W-What did you say?” Eliyard questioned, just to be sure.

“I said that I don’t want to become your student.”

Nux answered.

“I-Is there a reason why you don’t want to become my student?” Eliyard, who still couldn’t believe that he was rejected questioned.

As for the reasons,

Well, there were many.

But the most important one was that,

Eliyard wasn’t a woman.

Nux was still in his teens, his years where he would spend his youth amidst fresh flower fields.

He would, of course, not spend time with a 100+ years old bald dude like him. He wanted to spend time with flowers, not with dirty old mud.

Of course, a 100+ years old beautiful mature woman was very very welcomed.

However, he can’t say this reason out loud, therefore, he had to give another reason,

“I trust that Teacher Arvina would be able to bring the best out of me.”

“But I am stronger than Teacher Arvina you know?”

Eliyard muttered.

“Huh? What the hell is going on here?”

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face when he heard a cold voice.

He then turned towards his beautiful, matured and wild teacher and smiled,

“They are trying to recruit your cute and hard-working student, Teacher Arvina.” He simply pointed at the Headmaster and walked towards Arvina.

“I, of course, rejected,

How can I ever leave you?”

Nux muttered.

Arvina didn't react to his words and directly turned toward the Headmaster.

“Headmaster, I didn't know you were so interested in my students.” She commented.

“Ah, it isn't like that, Vice Headmaster Arvina, as you know, both Candice Water and Nux Leander are gems of our academy, we have to focus on both of them, do we not?

So I thought it would be better if both students got equal opportunities to grow.”

“That is good thinking, headmaster, but don't you think it would be unfair to these gems if we just provide them average teaching even though we have better teachers just for the sake of being impartial?”

Arvina smiled and Eliyard's face twitched in annoyance.

‘Did she just call me an average teacher?’

He gritted his teeth inwardly, however, in the end, he controlled himself and smiled,

“Nux, are you sure you do not want the chance to learn under a King Stage Cultivator? It is a rare opportunity, you know? Not everyone will get a chance like this.”

Nux just smiled,

“I want to stay by my teacher’s side.”

He refused politely, however, inwardly, he was cursing this man,

‘Just leave us alone you baldie, or do you want me to smack that shiny-looking head of yours?’

“Alright, I hope you won’t regret your decision in the future.” Eliyard smiled and turned around.

“Let’s leave, Candice.”

“A-Ah, yes teacher.”

Candice turned around, however, before she left, she glanced at Nux and smirked.

Nux smiled, and then he pointed at his foot. i

Candice lowered her head and noticed that Nux was moving her foot as if he was stepping on something.

Her eyes widened in anger when she realized what he was hinting about,

She then glared at Nux and turned around.

‘Just you wait, you bastard!

I will make sure you pay!’

She swore inwardly.

Actually, after she became Headmaster’s student and regained a bit of her reputation, she tried to use her newly gained dogs to go after Nux, however, as soon as those dogs heard Nux’s name, they refused.

Their answer was simple, ‘if even Lady Candice was unable to defeat that man, how are we supposed to do it?’

Candice always turned silent when they said something like that.

This further increased her anger towards Nux.

Of course, Nux didn't care what she felt, he just turned towards Arvina and sighed in relief,

“Haah~ Teacher, thank god you are here~

I was so so scared~

I thought they were going to kidnap me.”

Seeing him acting like that, Arvina couldn't help but shake her head and chuckle,

“You really like drama, don't you?”

“It was entertaining.” Nux chuckled.

“But I never thought that the headmaster would actually come and would try to recruit me,” Nux commented.

“Tsk Tsk, that baldie dares to recruit my student. Arrogant.” Arvina smarted.

“Arrogant Baldie indeed.” Nux nodded.

“Oi, show some respect, he is the Headmaster of this Academy.”

Arvina muttered.

“...”

Nux turned silent and looked at Arvina with a deadpan look on his face.

“Follow me, we are already late.”

“Alright,”

Saying that, the two of them walked towards Arvina's mansion and left.

“D-Did the Headmaster and Vice Headmaster fought each other for a student?” After they left, one of the students came out of his reverie and muttered.

“T-That is w-what I saw...” Another student nodded.

“J-Just how good one has to be for two highest ranking individuals in the Academy to fight over him like this? And how can he just refuse the headmaster like it is nothing?”

“Stop thinking about it,

We and he live in two different worlds.

Go back to your class.”

Chapter 290

“Alright, you should rest now, this is enough for today.”

Arvina instructed as a sigh escaped her mouth, her wooden sword disappeared and she sat on a chair with a tired look on her face.

Beads of sweat could be seen on her forehead, and she was breathing heavily, a handkerchief then appeared in her hands and she started wiping her face.

Then, her eyes fell on Nux who was lying on the floor with slightly hurried breathing and a calm look on his face.

Seeing that, Arvina couldn't help but sigh,

“You don't look very tired.”

She muttered.

“I may not look like it, but trust me, teacher, I am very tired,” Nux answered.

With how even his voice was, even a child could tell that he wasn't tired at all, and actually, it made complete sense for him to not be tired.

Even though he was limiting his cultivation to Grand Master Stage, even at that time, his stamina was a lot higher than a normal Expert Stage Cultivator, there is no way he would tire himself before an Expert Stage Cultivator.

He was just too strong.

“Don't even try to deny it... I know you are not the least bit tired...” Arvina shook her head.

She had already accepted that her disciple was a monster.

His attack, defence, stamina, speed, everything was way higher than any normal Grand Master Stage Cultivator she has ever met.

Heck, she might even be better than normal Expert Stage Cultivators at this point.

And things did not end here.

“And I can’t believe that you can now spar with me in just one month. That is a monstrous progress...”

Yes, 1 month has passed since Nux started learning from Arvina, and Arvina only had one comment.

Just don’t compare Nux with anyone at all.

Nux was so good that it was sometimes frustrating.

Arvina’s teaching Style was simple, she had a bunch of moves that she teaches her student,s they practise them and doesn’t move to the next move unless her students mastered the previous one.

Usually, a talented student needs around 2-3 months to master one move, Nux, however, was completely different.

His body was too strange.

It was as if his body was made for swords and fighting.

5 times, he only needs to practice the moves 5 times at max and his body would be able to replicate that move perfectly.

Yes, what took other students months, Nux did that in a matter of minutes.

Actually, if it wasn’t for Arvina doubting and checking his mastered move countless times, he would have finished his training a lot sooner.

Nux only needed 15 days to learn all her moves and since then, they have been sparring with each other.

At first, Nux was having difficulties fighting without using his Mana and using the sword moves he has learned just a few days ago, however, the more they sparred, the smoother his movement got and he integrated her moves into his fighting style.

Yes, he did not change his fighting style, he just integrated her teachings into his own fighting style, he even did some changes and made her moves more comfortable and stronger for him.

In just 15 more days, Nux improved to the extent that he was able to spar with Arvina for 6 hours straight.

And the one who usually ends the fight is not him, but Arvina since she would be too tired to continue.

As for Nux, he would just pretend to be tired while he would continue to move around without any problems.

Arvina finds that very shameful, however, there was nothing she could do about it.

Nux was a complete monster.

All she could do now was to move on to the next step, a step she doesn't usually teach to other students, however, since she had such a gem as her student, she would do her best to refine him.

“Alright, from tomorrow, we will move to the second step of our training,” Arvina muttered.

“Huh? Second Step?” Nux stood up and questioned.

Seeing her standing up so casually, Arvina's face twitched,

‘Weren't you tired? At least act like you are...’

Arvina then shook her head to get rid of these useless thoughts and nodded,

“Yes, the second step, from now on, we will use Mana as well. We will be fighting each other with real swords, and usage of skills is allowed.

Your training is over, from now on, you will learn how the Actual Swordsmen fight.”

Arvina muttered with a big smile on her face. Her smile then widened even more and she warned,

“Be careful, Nux.

This will be dangerous and you would need to use lots of healing potions in the upcoming days.

Hehehe~

Be prepared.”

Seeing her laughing like that, Nux chuckled as well.

Her warrior-like aura was practically oozing out of her right now.

Nux then looked at her and started thinking, he has been with her for a month now. He now has a decent idea about her character and what sort of person she is like.

Now, Nux started thinking.

Thinking about doing what he actually came here for.

Strengthen his relationship with Arvina Skyfall,

Not as a teacher, but as a lover.

And he had come up with a perfect plan to do that.

A warrior like Arvina only likes two things about another person.

Potential to topple all others.

And diligence and commitment to stand on top.

His plan was simple,

He just needs to defeat Arvina Skyfall.

However, he cannot do that as Grand Master Stage Cultivator, that would destroy her pride, therefore, he had to do it as an Expert Stage Cultivator, “Teacher...” Nux called out.

“Hmm? Do you have any questions?”

“I want to spar with you.”

“Didn’t we spar just now?”

“No, I am not talking about that, I am actually talking about a real fight.

Real one-on-one, warrior against warrior spar.”

“Huh? But you are a Gra-”

Before Arvina could complete,

Nux removed his Trickster and Arvina’s eyes widened in shock and horror.

“E-E-Expert Stage...”

Arvina’s face paled in horror.

A 19-year-old Grand Master Stage Cultivator was unbelievable?

What about this then?

Does this make any sense?

Arvina was at a loss of words.

“Y-You are already an Expert Stage Cultivator...” She stuttered as her expression continued to change, from shock to amazement to doubt to acceptance and then, tensed.

Nux didn’t fail to notice it and soon, he frowned.

“Teacher, why the tensed look?”

Arvina looked at Nux’s face and muttered with a solemn look on her face,

“You are more talented than I thought.”

“Hmm? Isn’t that a good thing? Why do you look so tensed?” Nux couldn’t understand.

What teacher makes a face like this when she finds out that her student is talented?

Shouldn’t she be beaming in immense joy?”

“This is not a good thing at all...” Arvina muttered.

“Why?”

“If it is revealed, you will be killed.”

“Huh? That would have happened even if my talent was the same as what you thought it was, won’t it? Why do you look so tensed right now?”

Arvina, however, shook her head,

“No, that is not true earlier, even if your talent was revealed, I could have protected you from even the King of the Kingdom, however, now...

Things aren’t the same...

The Dukes and the King would come after you no matter what and this time, I won’t be able to protect you either.”

Arvina’s expression wasn’t good at all.

Nux, however, couldn’t understand what she was talking about and frowned,

“Teacher... isn’t my talent being better a good thing? I can get stronger faster, and with the way I am going, I won’t need more than a decade to become a King Stage Cultivator, and once I become a King Stage Expert, I would become one of the strongest people in this Kingdom.

Won’t that make me safe?

I just need to stay inside the academy for a while and then, I can do whatever I want.

Isn’t that a good thing?”

Nux questioned.

“...”

Arvina glanced at Nux, who was looking at her with a curious look on his face, in the end, she couldn’t help but sigh.

What she was about to say now,

By no means, this should be told to anyone else, it is the top secret of Skyfall Kingdom and was not something she could share with just anyone.

However, Nux was not 'just anyone' for her now.

He was her student, therefore, she decided to trust him.

“Nux...

Things aren't as simple as that.”

“What do you mean?”

“Do you know why the King is able to rule over the Kingdom even though there are around 5-6 more King Stage Cultivators here?”

“Huh?”

Nux frowned in confusion.

“This does sound strange. How is the King doing it?”

He questioned with a confused look on his face. However, inwardly, a sly smile appeared on his face.

‘She is finally going to be honest with me.’

This was a good sign, at the very least, it showed him that Arvina Skyfall trusted him.

Things were going smoother than he expected.

“Do you know why I am confident in being able to protect you even if all the King Stage Cultivators in the country come after you?”

Nux frowned even more.

“That is because of my teacher.”

“Teacher?”

Nux frowned, and this time, he frowned for real.

“Yes, my teacher, Astaria Skyfall, an Emperor Stage Cultivator.”

Arvina then told him about Astaria Skyfall and her relationship with her.

Something she must never share with anyone because if this was leaked, someone might take advantage of Astaria using Arvina, however, in the end, she decided to trust her disciple and told him everything.

“At first, if something goes wrong, I would have asked for Teacher Astaria’s help and she would have protected you.

Actually, I was thinking of training you as the next protector of the Kingdom.”

Arvina muttered.

“Huh?”

Nux frowned.

He did not expect something like that.

“I wanted you to become the next Emperor Stage Cultivator.

Do you know why Candice Water is so valued?

Do you know why I had to bear with her as my student even though she was so lazy and arrogant?

Do you know why the Headmaster took her in as his student even though she lost against you?”

“Wait...” Nux realized something.

“Yes, Candice Water is a candidate to become the next protector of the Kingdom. A talent like her is rare, however, talent alone can’t do anything, you need to work hard as well.

She didn’t work hard, that was her negligence.

However, with how valuable Candice Water is, we simply can’t give up on her.

Exceptional Level affinity is required if one wants to become an Emperor Stage Cultivator, and in the last 100 years, only Candice has that affinity, that was the reason why the headmaster took her in as his student.

He didn’t know about your absurd talent.

In his eyes, Candice was the only one.

He just wants his ‘student’ to be the next Protector of the Kingdom since that would raise his status and his name would be written down in history.”

“I do not understand.

How are you so sure that Candice would remain Loyal to you?” Nux frowned.

“She will be married into the Royal Family, then, while she is being trained, she will be groomed by the Royal family for more than 100 years,” Arvina answered.

‘Isn’t that like brainwashing?’

Nux narrowed his eyes, however, he didn’t voice out his thoughts, he had more questions.

“I did hear about the First Prince wanting to marry her, but I heard that Marquee Water rejected that offer.”

“He didn’t reject it, he left it on Candice.”

“So if you already take her as the next candidate...”

“Yes, Candice accepted.”

“What if she had rejected it?” Nux questioned.

“Do I really need to say it?”

“...she would have been assassinated...” Nux muttered with a solemn look on his face.

The Royal Family was cruel,

However, he didn't care about it.

Candice can go die for all he cares.

Before, he wanted to get close to her, however, when she saw her character and absolute unwillingness to change, he decided to change his mind.

He doesn't have any need to collect any woman he meets in his harem, he only needs to be with women who are actually good.

Just like his other women.

Nux then looked at Arvina and narrowed his eyes,

“And you wanted me to become the next ‘protector’ of the Kingdom?”

This was something he didn't like.

“That is the only way you can ensure your safety.”

Arvina answered.

Nux narrowed his eyes.

He didn't like her answer at all.

However, after thinking about it, he wasn't very disappointed either.

In the end, Arvina was only thinking about his sake,

“Then what is the problem now? Why can't I be the 'protector' now? Isn't my talent being better than what you expected a good thing?” Nux questioned.

“Your talent is too good.

It is simply absurd,

If before, I predicted that you would become an Emperor Stage Cultivator within 70-80 years, then now, you would only need 30, and 30 years is not enough to make you loyal to the Kingdom.

Not only that but Teacher Astaria still has 200 years left, if you become an Emperor Stage Cultivator in 30 years, then she would think that you would try to go against her.

And someone as talented as you would be a troublesome opponent, therefore, to get rid of the future trouble...”

“She will get rid of me.”

Chapter 292

“Therefore, to get rid of the future trouble...”

“She will get rid of me.”

Before Arvina could, Nux completed her sentence.

Arvina looked at Nux with a solemn look on her face and then, she nodded.

“Yes, she would.”

“And if she comes for me, there is no way I would be able to survive.”

“There is no chance, an Emperor is different.

No matter how strong you get, even if you get to the peak of King Stage, and have a few more King Stage cultivators helping you,

The chances of surviving against an Emperor are nil.”

“...”

Nux turned silent.

He didn't like where this conversation was going, especially the part where he realized why Arvina was training him, however, not everything was bad.

Actually, he might get something even better out of this.

Nux smiled inwardly and questioned.

“Why are you telling me all this?”

“Huh?”

“You are the Dowager are close to each other, correct? Then why would you tell me all this and alert me, won’t it be better for you to just directly report her and then have me killed?”

“Huh?” Arvina’s frown deepened, then, she thought a little more about it and finally realized what Nux was talking about.

She chuckled,

“Are you thinking that I would let you get killed because of my good relationship with the dowager?”

“Well, isn’t that logical?”

“Nux Leander, you are my, Arvina Skyfall’s student,

There is no way I am letting you die.”

Arvina declared.

“Hmm? Isn’t Dowager Astaria your teacher? If she wants to kill me, then why would you go against her and defend me?”

Nux questioned.

“She is my teacher and I am her student, that does not mean that I am her slave with no will of my own,

If I want to protect my student, I will do it even if I have to go against my teacher.”

Arvina declared without a hint of hesitation in her eyes.

Hearing that, Nux smiled.

Arvina was thinking about him and was even willing to go against her teacher to protect him,

He liked that a lot.

However,

“How are you going to protect me? As you said, she is an Emperor Stage Cultivator, there is no way we will be able to win against her.”

Nux muttered.

“Who said we are going to fight with her?”

“Huh?”

Nux frowned.

“What do you mean?”

“The plan is simple, Candice will order it and you will be assassinated.”
Arvina smiled.

“Huh?” Nux’s frown deepened.

This time, he really couldn’t understand what his teacher was talking about.

“The biggest problem is that you will be noticed by others eventually, and even if you have that weird ability to hide your cultivation, in front of a true expert, your cultivation will be exposed.

That would be the end of you,

Therefore, you cannot appear in public.

However, with how you defeated Candice, you cannot do something like that.

Therefore, from now on, you will annoy Candice to the point that her life will become a living hell.

In anger, she will talk to her father and Marquee Water will send assassins after you.

The assassins will 'kill' you.

Then, Nux Leander would be dead,

I will arrange a house for you that is far from the capital city, you will live in that place and cultivate silently.

Take as much time as you need, cultivate, and grow stronger,

Then, once you become an Emperor Stage Cultivator, you will be safe from all the dangers.”

Arvina revealed her plan.

This plan was the most optimal and efficient one out of all others. This was definitely the best choice if Nux was a normal Cultivator.

However, Nux was not a normal Cultivator,

He was a Pleasure Cultivator.

In order for him to grow stronger, he would need to have sex with stronger women, he is not someone who can live in seclusion, cultivate freely and get stronger.

That is just not possible for him.

Therefore, he needs to find another way to deal with this situation.

Nux started thinking, however, he noticed that a strange look appeared on Arvina's face.

“Is there anything wrong, Teacher Arvina?” He questioned.

“I have one request that I hope you will fulfil it.”

“What is it?” Nux questioned.

“I want you to lay low as long as my Teacher is alive, even after you become an Emperor Stage Cultivator.

I don't want the two of you to clash against each other, you both are a precious part of my life.

My teacher will leave this world within 200 years, an Emperor Stage Cultivator can live for 500 years, you would still have 300 years left.

After she leaves, you can become the protector of this Kingdom,

I would have no problems with that.”

Arvina muttered however, a frown appeared on Nux's face.

“I will, of course, do my best to avoid a fight against the Dowager, however, Teacher Arvina, what do you mean by becoming the Protector of the Kingdom after she dies?”

“Hmm? Isn't it obvious? Someone would become the protector of the Kingdom after she dies,

That someone will most probably be Candice.

However, I am sure that you will be a lot stronger than Candice, therefore, it would be easy for you to Kill Candice and become the Protector, don't worry, I will make sure that the process is smooth.”

Arvina muttered and Nux's frowned,

“Teacher Arvina...

Why would I fight against an Emperor Stage Cultivator in order to become the Protector of the Kingdom?”

He questioned.

“Huh?” Arvina furrowed her brows in confusion,

“What kind of question is that? The protector’s position is well respected by all, even the King would have to bow his head in front of you, anyone would want that kind of power, why would you not want it?” Arvina questioned.

“Huh? What power? What respect?”

How many people in this world know about the Dowager?

How many people know about the secret protector of the Kingdom?

Barely 10.

Won’t I just become a shadow living in dark without doing anything?”

“...”

Arvina turned silent.

She cannot deny Nux’s words, however, soon, a frown appeared on her face,

“What do you want to do then?”

A small smile appeared on Nux’s face as he revealed.

Chapter 293

“What do you want to do then?”

Arvina questioned with a frown on her face.

“Why not aim higher?”

“Why don’t I become the King of the Kingdom?”

Nux smiled.

No, he wasn’t stupid.

He knew the risks.

He knew well enough that telling his goals to Arvina was very risky right now, however, Arvina was someone who placed her trump card in front of him, she told her about the existence of Astaria Skyfall and her relationship with her.

This relationship was a double-edged sword, she can use it against people stronger than her and do things her own way, however, if this news is leaked, she would be in trouble as people would come after her and would try to capture her in order to have a high ground against an Emperor Stage Cultivator.

She was practically putting her life on the line by telling this to Nux, however, she still did it.

Therefore, Nux decided to risk it as well.

“What did you say?” Arvina narrowed her eyes when she heard Nux’s words.

“I said that there is no need to become the Protector, if I am the strongest, shouldn’t I become the Ruler?”

Strength rules this world, shouldn’t I be placed at the top since I am the most powerful?

Why should I become a chained dog who is caged in one castle and has the duty to protect it?”

“Protector is not a dog.” Arvina glared at Nux.

“Oh please Teacher, you of all people should talk like that,

Alright, tell me, what does Dowager Astaria do all day?

Where does she live?

When does she enjoy her life?

Why can no one ever see her?

When does she leave the Palace or even her room?”

Nux continued to question and Arvina turned silent.

She knew answered to all his questions, however, she didn’t want to say it,

Her Teacher, Dowager Astaria, lives in the most lavish room of the Palace, a room that is exactly behind the Throne Room, the complete centre of the Palace,

However, although it may sound very grand and impressive,

In reality,

That room is also a cage that binds her teacher.

Her teacher rarely comes out of that room.

What she does inside that room, no one knows.

What she does in order to enjoy her life, no one knows.

The more she thought about it, the more Arvina felt that Nux's words were correct.

Her teacher was caged.

Seeing that her expression was changing, Nux smiled and then, he continued,

“The current King of the Skyfall Kingdom, what does he have?

What makes him the King of our Kingdom?

What good things has he ever done?

I have heard countless times that he is an Average King,

Why is an average man like him allowed to become the King?”

Hearing about the current King, Arvina's eyes turned cold.

Nux noticed that and his smile widened,

‘This is good, she doesn't like the current king, rather, from her expression, it is clear that she hates him.

Heh, King, my amazing friend,

You are just amazing,

Thank you very much, friend.’

Nux smiled inwardly and then, he continued,

“Instead of a man like him, isn't it better for someone like me to become the King? I am sure I can do a far better job than him.”

Nux smiled, however, suddenly, he noticed Arvina's expression changed into a smirk,

“You want to become the King?” She looked at him with a disdainful look on her face.

“I d-”

Nux wanted to answer, however, before he could, Arvina interrupted.

“You think you can do a better job than the current King?”

“I ca-”

Again, Nux was interrupted.

“So what if you can?”

“Huh?”

“There are many people who can do a far better job than him, heck, even a random commoner might be able to do better than him, however, if that is the case, then why was he the one who became the King?

Haven't you ever wondered that?”

“...” Nux turned silent.

“Let me answer that question for you,

The reason behind it is that he has Skyfall blood flowing through his veins.

No, Skyfall Blood doesn't have any unique property, it is the same as any other human's, however, right now, inside the Skyfall Kingdom, having Skyfall blood in your veins means that you are blessed.

It doesn't matter how bad he is, he will become the King just because he is a Skyfall.

That fact will remain unchanged until someone topples up the Skyfall.

Do you think a slightly better than the average leader can topple up the Royal Family?

Do you think an average leader would be able to rule the Kingdom after creating a Chaos like that?

What about the ministers?

What about the other nobles?

Dukes, Marquees, Earls, Viscounts and Barons,

What about the common people who are fed up after being ruled for so many years and want to live their own life as they want?

What about the opposite Kingdom who will direct their fangs towards us as soon as we show them our weak side?

Do you think you can take all of that yourself?

Do you think you are good enough to take care of all that trouble?"

“ ... ”

Nux turned silent.

Arvina, however, wasn't done yet,

“It is very simple to just say, ‘I want to become the King’

However, it is not easy to become one,

What is your Goal?

Why do you want to become the King?

What is the reason?

Do you have anything like that?

Or do you want to become the King just because it sounds cool?"

Arvina questioned and again, Nux was speechless.

Goal...

What was his goal...?

Why was his reason to become the King...?

Did he even have any reason...?

Seeing him staying silent, Arvina scoffed,

"Nux, what you are thinking right now is nothing but an immature fantasy.

You are too immature to take that burden.

The current King might be an average King,

However, the Kingdom is stable,

And I am sorry to say this right in front of you,

But this Kingdom won't be stable if you take over as the King.

You are still too immature for that.

As you are right now, you do not have what it takes to overthrow the Skyfall Family and Rule the Kingdom as the King."

Chapter 294

“As you are right now, you do not have what it takes to overthrow the Skyfall Family and Rule the Kingdom as the King,”

Arvina spoke bluntly without hiding her thoughts.

Nux, who heard her words couldn't help but lower his head.

This time, he had no answers to her questions.

His teacher was right, he had no goals, no reason and no determination to become the King.

He does not know about Politics, he does not know about Ruling, he does not know about etiquette, and neither does he know about what it means to be the King.

All in all, he has no qualities to become a King.

The current King might not be a good King, however, Nux might not be any better than him either.

Actually, the whole idea of becoming the King was something he came up with on a whim.

He was indeed too immature.

Nux realized it.

And as if seeing through his thoughts, a small smile appeared on Arvina's face and she questioned,

“Nux, do you know what your weakness is?”

“What is it?” Nux questioned.

“Your talent is too high.”

“Hmm?” Nux frowned.

“You are absurdly talented, Nux.

Of course, it is a good thing, however, it is a double-edged sword,

Since you are too talented, you grow faster than others and face fewer challenges compared to normal people, everything is too easy for you.

Therefore, you take things too nonchalantly.

You are too carefree and easygoing.

In other words, your high talent has made you arrogant and immature.

You do not understand the actual hardships in this world,

This is your weakness.”

Arvina muttered and Nux listened to her words attentively.

He couldn't deny her this time as well,

She was right again.

“However, this does not mean that you cannot change or not improve.”

Suddenly, Arvina smiled.

“Hmm?” Nux looked in her direction and frowned.

“All you lack is maturity.

You are just 18 years old after all,

You haven't seen the world yet.

All you have to do is explore the world and eventually, you will learn everything on your own.”

Arvina smiled and Nux nodded in understanding,

“However, I know you are not patient enough for that long, therefore, I have a perfect opportunity for you.

An opportunity where you can see the truth of this world.

An opportunity where you can grow without any limits.”

Saying that, a golden-coloured badge appeared in Arvina’s hand as she smiled,

“An opportunity that can turn you from an 18-year-old immature child to a grown-up veteran.

Nux Leander, would you like to take hold of this opportunity?”

Arvina questioned.

A determined look appeared on Nux’s face as he questioned,

“What is it?”

Arvina smiled, she has indeed not judged her student incorrectly, she then gave the badge in her hand to Nux and informed him,

“The Woods Dynasty and the Solid Earth Kingdom are at war with each other.”

“Huh?” Nux frowned.

“I want you to take this pass to the general of the Woods Dynasty and join the war.”

“!!!”

Nux's eyes widened in surprise.

“Y-You want me to take part in war?”

“That is the only place that can help you grow the fastest.”

Arvina replied with a stern look on her face.

“Of course, you can reject the offer and take things slowly, I have nothing against that either.”

She added.

“...I need some time to think.”

Nux muttered.

He cannot answer this right away, he had to discuss it with his women, they were an active component of his life after all, they deserved to hear what has happened and had the right to say what they think.

“Alright, I will give you a week to think about it, you can answer me after that.”

Arvina nodded.

Nux nodded back and then he bowed,

“Then I will be taking my leave, Teacher Arvina.”

Arvina nodded, Nux then turned around and started walking towards his room, at the same time, he used Harem Seal and started talking with his women.

...

‘Huh!? Is that bitch crazy!? Why would she send you to war!?’

As Nux returned to his room and explained everything to his women, Edda shouted out loud.

“I agree with Sister Edda, why would send you to fight a war? This is ridiculous!”

Skyla nodded as well.

‘Agreed.’ Lane nodded.

‘You do not have to go, Nux, just leave that bitch alone, something is wrong with her head.’ Felberta nodded her head.

‘Indeed. Just leave her alone.’

‘Yeah, she just doesn’t know how awesome you are, you can do anything, Nux.’

‘I agree. I agree.’

The other women nodded their heads as well,

However,

‘No, she is not wrong.’

The women then heard a voice.

‘What are you talking about, Sister Thyra?’ Skyla questioned.

‘As I said, Arvina isn’t wrong, Nux is indeed a little immature and is not ready to take over the throne.’

Thyra commented.

‘Nux, you still haven’t killed a human yet, have you?’ she questioned.

‘...’

Nux turned silent as he realized it.

He has tortured humans, however, he has never killed anyone with his own hands.

Why? Was it because he was still used to thinking like a human from the 21st century?

No, that should not be the case, for a 21st-century human, torturing someone is strange and scary as well.

That is definitely not the case,

Then why?

Why hasn't he killed anyone yet?

Nux thought to himself,

'You see? You haven't even killed a human yet, how can you become the King of the country?

This is a great opportunity Nux,

Participating in a War will help you a lot and you will grow splendidly.'

'I agree with Thyra.'

Amaya nodded in agreement as well.

'Nux, you should not miss this chance.'

'Yes, I am even thinking of continuing our training in this war,' Thyra muttered.

'Huh? You are coming with me?'

'Yes, however, it will only be the 2 of us.'

‘Huh? No fair!’ Skyla complained.

‘Disagree.’ Lane shook her head.

‘I will come with you as well. I would like to know how having sex in the middle of the war feels like.’

Edda smiled.

‘...’

Nux was at a loss of words.

Chapter 295

‘I will come with you as well. I would like to know how having sex in the middle of the war feels like.’

‘...’

Nux was at a loss of words.

‘No, I will be going with him, alone.’

Thyra, however, didn’t agree.

‘Huh!?! Who gave you the right to decide that!?’ Amaya countered.

‘Indeed, you have no right to decide something like that! Don’t be too arrogant.’ Allura nodded as well.

‘Yes, it is completely unfair that only Sister Thyra would be able to have sex with Nux, I want to join as well~’ Skyla muttered.

‘Yes, you can’t have him all to yourself.’ Felberta nodded.

‘You guys... have you forgotten about the Harem’s Gate?’ Suddenly, Thyra questioned.

‘Look, Nux has Heaven’s Gate now, he would be able to visit every one of you every other day because he would have one free teleportation every day.’

I am not being selfish or something, however, the next part of Nux’s training has to be done practically.

Nux needs to kill people in order to learn that.

I hope you guys understand.

If you guys think it is unfair, then I am ready to promise you all that I will not have sex with him for one whole month.'

Thyra muttered and the women turned silent.

They could feel Thyra's sincerity.

Yes, now, promising to not have sex with Nux was a new way of showing their sincerity. It was a big sacrifice after all.

So anyways, the ladies could feel Thyra's sincerity from her words, she really wanted well for Nux.

'Alright... I agree... you can go with him...' Surprisingly, Amaya was the first one to agree.

'And you do not have to stop yourself from having sex with him, we do not control yours or Nux's life, do what you wish.

However, I want Nux to come meet us once every two days.' Amaya muttered.

'Yeah, I want that as well.'

'Yes, that would be good.'

'Indeed indeed.'

A small smile appeared on Nux's face when he heard the ladies talking to each other.

They might fight and bicker with each other, however, their relationship was strong.

He enjoys listening to their conversations.

'Nux, you are going to meet us regularly, correct?' Felberta questioned.

'Heeh? Is that even a question?'

You guys think I can live without you all?’

Nux questioned back.

‘Of course not. There is no way you can leave this marsh of forbidden pleasure you have created.

Nux Leander, you are trapped with all of us.’

Amaya smiled and muttered seductively.

‘Hmmm... I wonder what having sex while sinking in a Marsh would feel like.’

Edda muttered curiously.

‘Alright, then it is decided, I and Nux will go to the Woods Dynasty together,’ Thyra concluded.

‘Mhm, I have no problems.’

‘I agree as well.’

‘Yep Yep’

The girl nodded.

Yes, all of them collectively agreed to ignore the perverted Edda.

Edda, however, was used to it.

She would personally talk about it with Nux later.

Fufufu~

This seemed interesting indeed.

...

The conversation ended, and Nux and the girls talked about another topic while Nux continued to complete the painting he was drawing.

Time passed and soon, it was time for Nux to meet Evane.

He stood up and walked towards her room (in the night) and knocked.

*Knock* *Knock* *Knock*

“Come in.”

Nux then heard Evane’s voice.

He entered and Evane, who was panting looked at him with a smile on her face.

“How was your day?” She questioned in a gentle tone.

In this past month, the two of them have gotten closer and closer, she didn’t treat Nux as her student anymore, they were more like friends who shared a common interest with each other.

And since they are busy during the day, they often met at the night.

What?

Hmm? It was strange for them to meet at night?

Oh c’mon, that is so old-school way of thinking.

There is nothing wrong with two friends meeting each other at the night.

What could possibly go wrong?

“It was good, I completed the painting I was working on,” Nux answered.

“Oh? Show me, show me,”

“Ahh, I can’t the paints haven’t dried off yet.”

“Hm hm, I will wait for tomorrow then.”

“Mhm, I will wait for you in my room.” Nux nodded.

“What about you? What are you making?”

Nux questioned as he dragged a chair towards Evane and sat next to her as if it was the most normal thing in this world.

Then, he started looking at her painting.

“Hmm... I see a man wearing armour walking towards a girl wearing expensive clothes...”

It feels like a Knight and a Princess.”

“You are correct.” Evane nodded with a smile.

“Hmm? But what is that red part on the knight’s cheek?” Nux questioned.

“Blood.”

“Huh?” Nux was taken aback.

Usually, Evane’s paintings were all about ‘happy’ things, flowers, stars, rivers and all that, for her to draw something like blood was pretty... unusual.

“The Knight has returned after winning the war and now is meeting the love of his life, the princess.”

Evane explained.

“Oh ho? What a coincidence.”

Nux smiled.

“Hmm? What coincidence.”

“I was about to talk to you about war as well,” Nux muttered.

“Huh?” Evane frowned.

“Teacher Evane, you know about the War between the Solid Earth Kingdom and the Woods Dynasty, correct?”

“I have heard about it.”

“I am going to join it.”

Nux informed.

“What!?”

Evane’s eyes widened in surprise.

“What did you say!?”

“I am going to join that war.”

“Huh!? No way! Are you crazy!?” Evane shouted.

“Teacher Arvina wants me to join the war. She told me that I am too immature right now, therefore, I need to experience war in order to grow up.”

“Is she crazy!?”

You are an 18-year-old boy!

Of course you are immature!

Does she wants you to think like a 50-year-old man!?”

Evane couldn’t believe her ears. Suddenly, a determined look appeared on her face and she muttered,

“No, I need to talk to her! Teacher Arvina is out of mind!

How can she send an Advance Stage Cultivator to a war!?

This is unacceptable!” Evane stood up, however, just as she was about to leave, Nux muttered.

“Teacher Evane, I am not an Advance Stage Cultivator.”

Chapter 296

“Teacher Evane, I am not an Advance Stage Cultivator,”

Nux muttered.

“Huh? What do you mean?” Evane turned around and frowned.

However, her frown only deepened when she saw Nux’s solemn face.

This was the first time she has seen that expression on his even, even while facing Candice Water, he didn’t look like this tensed.

“Teacher Evane, what I am going to tell you right now, I hope you can keep it a secret from others. If not, I would lose my life.”

Nux muttered.

“W-What?”

“Teacher Evane, can I trust you?”

Nux questioned with a solemn look on his face.

Seeing his expression, Evane’s heart skipped a beat and,

Unconsciously, she nodded her head.

“Y-Yes.”

Nux smiled and then, he deactivated [Trickster].

Soon, Evane’s eyebrows rose up and her mouth widened in shock,

“Expert Stage...”

She muttered inwardly, unable to believe what she was thinking.

“Teacher Arvina is not a fool, Teacher Evane. She knows how strong I am, that is why she wants me to participate in this war.”

Nux muttered.

“S-So Teacher Arvina already knew about it?”

Evane couldn't help but question.

“She did.” Nux nodded.

“D-didn't you say that I was your f-favourite teacher?”

Evane face turned red as she questioned.

For some reason, she didn't like the fact that some other teacher knew more about her student than she did.

Even she was confused and didn't know why she was feeling something like that.

Many teachers know more about the students in her class than her, however, she had never felt something like this.

However, for some reason, Arvina knowing more about Nux than her... This didn't sit well with her.

She... she actually felt betrayed.

Nux wasn't a dense idiot as well, he understood what she was feeling as soon as he saw her face and a playful smile appeared on his face.

“I didn't tell Teacher Arvina myself, she was the one who found out. That day, I thought it was the end of me, however, Teacher Arvina was generous enough to keep this a secret.”

“W-What?” Evane looked at Nux.

“Yes, Teacher Arvina found out about this when I fought against Candice, she noticed that my movements looked like I was holding back and started observing me.

That was when she found out.

I was not the one who told her.

Teacher Evane, you are the first person in this academy, who I trust enough to share my secret on my own accord.”

Nux nodded.

A small smile appeared on Evane’s face when she heard Nux’s words.

This...

For some reason, this felt good.

“I hope you can keep it a secret, Teacher Evane.

A secret that is between just the two of us.”

Nux smiled.

“A-Alright...” Evane’s face turned red as she nodded and then,

“C-Can I ask you something?” She questioned.

“Of course, you are my favourite teacher, you can ask me anything.”

“W-Why are you keeping this a secret?”

Nux then told her how his life would be at risk if he was exposed, Evane was a princess, so with just a few hints, she was able to understand everything.

She completely agreed with Nux’s thoughts, however, she still couldn’t understand one thing,

“But why send you to the war though, maturity naturally comes with time, all you have to do is wait. Why the rush?”

Nux shook his head,

“With the speed at which my cultivation is growing, teacher Arvina says that by the time I grow up, I would be too strong and would become arrogant.

That would lead to my downfall.

Therefore, my maturity needs to catch up with my cultivation.”

Nux answered and Evane nodded in understanding.

“So since you are so talented, you need to work extra hard. Is that it?” Evane muttered.

“Something like that.”

Nux nodded.

“I still do not approve of this though... it is too risky...” Evane was unsure.

“Don’t worry Teacher Evane, I am strong. There is no way I would get hurt.” Nux smiled.

“I don’t know much, however, in a war, being strong isn’t enough, you have to be on your guard all the time, even your allies might actually be your enemies, you have to be extra careful since you are not the part of their army.

In the end, even a King Stage Cultivator would die if his heart is pierced with a sword.”

Evane muttered.

“Oh ho? Teacher Evane, are you worried about me?” Nux questioned with a playful smile on his face.

“Huh? What kind of question is that? You are my student, of course, I am worried about you.”

Evane answered without hesitation, however, Nux didn't like that answer.

“Heeh? You are only worried because I am just one of your students?”

Evane frowned.

“Aren't you worried because I am who I am?” Nux then walked towards Evane, moved his face close to hers and whispered.

“Our relationship is a lot lot closer than that, is it not?”

Evane's heart skipped a beat when she heard Nux's words.

She then quickly stepped back and questioned with a red face.

“W-What are you talking about? What special relationship?”

Nux pouted, “I am not just one of your students, I am your favourite student, am I not? I am, right?”

“O-Oh, that's what you are talking about...” Evane realized.

“Hmm? Of course, what did you think?” Nux questioned.

Evane's face turned redder and turned her back towards Nux,

“N-Nothing. I wasn't thinking about anything.”

“Mhm, I understand.”

Nux nodded.

“Also,”

Evane called.

“What is it?”

“You are still not my favourite student.

However, if you come back alive,

I will admit that you are my favourite student.”

Evane muttered and although he couldn't see, Nux was sure that her face was as red as a tomato right now.

“Then I will make sure to come back alive.”

Nux smiled.

...

The next day, he met Arvina and told her about his plans about participating in the war.

Arvina smiled, and told her to rest for a week.

Nux then spent a blissful week in the Skyfall Kingdom and then,

He and Thyra left for the Woods Dynasty.

Chapter 297

“Hey you, stop right there. Who are you?”

A soldier questioned in a strict tone. o

“Heh, wearing Black in the night while walking towards us, aren't you two just begging us to capture you? Maybe you two have some sort of fetish? Hehe~”

Another soldier laughed.

“You two look like a couple, hehe~” A soldier pointed out.

“Hehehe~”

Other soldiers started laughing creepily as they surrounded the two people wearing black-coloured skin-tight clothes.

“We want to meet you general.” The man muttered in a hoarse voice.

“Heh, I want to meet the Queen of our Kingdom as well,”

The soldier laughed.

“Hahaha~

I want to meet the King.”

“Tsk Tsk, why would you even want to meet the King? Queen is a lot better, at least she is pleasant to the eyes, King on the other hand would only make you nervous.”

“Hmmm, true.

Mathew, I never thought you were such a smart person, I shall follow you from now on.”

“Hm hm, you are a little dumb, but since I am such a generous person, I will allow you.”

“Hahaha! He called him dumb!”

“Hahaha!”

The soldiers then started laughing.

The four reeked of Alcohol.

Actually, just from their actions alone, it was clear that they were drunk, however, it was normal.

They could die any day, they went through a tough battle today and they also lost a few of their close friends,

Alcohol was the only way for them to survive.

However, today...

Today was their unlucky day.

“Hehehe~ Hey you two~ How are you goi-”

*Bam*

*Clash*

*Thud*

A soldier wanted to question something, however, before he could, a punch landed on his face and his body flew back and landed on a table that the soldiers kept their alcohol on.

The three other soldiers looked at the man in black with a blank looks on their faces,

This man...

He was strong...

The three of them quickly sobered up, however, when they tried to look into these two individuals' cultivation, they couldn't sense anything.

There were only two ways something like this is possible,

First, they weren't cultivators.

However, since they sent a Beginner Stage Cultivator flying with just one fist, this wasn't possible.

So the only other possibility left was...

Was that these two were incomparably stronger than them.

So strong that they couldn't even sense their cultivations.

*Gulp*

The soldiers gulped in fear.

“What is happening here?”

Soon, however, the soldiers heard a familiar voice and a big smile appeared on their faces.

“Head!”

The three of them dashed towards the man who had appeared and pointed at the man who hit the other soldier.

“Head! These two are picking a fight with us and they hit him for no reason!”

The Head then looked at the Two people in front of him and a solemn look appeared on his face.

These two...

They were Expert Stage Cultivators...

Someone who could easily get the Rank of Deputy General in the army.

They were strong,

However, this didn't mean that they could just barge into their camp and beat their soldiers.

“Go and call Deputy General.” The Head ordered a soldier.

“D-Deputy G-General?”

The soldier stuttered.

“Do it fast, we don't have much time.”

The Head rushed.

He couldn't raise his voice, however, his desperation was clear.

Even he was scared right now.

He, an Advance Stage Cultivator, was standing against two Expert Stage Cultivators, of course, he would be scared.

Honestly, it was praiseworthy that he hasn't passed out in fear.

“We are not here to fight, else you would have died already.” Suddenly, the woman in black muttered in an emotionless voice.

“Yes, we just want to meet your general.” The man nodded as well.

“W-We can’t just let anyone meet the general... y-you have to tell us who y-you are but seeing that you are c-covering your face... I-I don’t think you will t-tell us anything...” The Head muttered.

“...” The two of them turned silent.

“I-I have called for Deputy General, y-you should talk with him, I-I d-do not have the authority t-to do something like this.”

Seeing that these two have turned silent, the head panicked and clarified himself, and only when the two people nodded was he able to calm his racing heart.

...

Time passed and soon, the Deputy General came.

He was a 2-meter-tall man with a large, muscular build, he wore a dark green army uniform and had a strict-looking face. He had a fierce aura around him and as soon as other soldiers saw him, they soluted with a respectful on their faces,

“Deputy General!”

The Deputy General’s eyes then fell on the two people wearing black coloured clothes and he frowned,

“Who are you?”

“I want to meet your general.”

The man, however, didn’t care if he was if the one in front of him was Deputy General or whatever, he just wanted to meet the general.

“Hmph, you think just any random person could meet our General?” The Deputy General snorted.

“Oh? So you are so big of a trash that any random person has the same cultivation as you?”

“ ... ”

The Deputy General turned silent, the other soldiers could see that his body was trembling, and there was a vein that had popped up on his head.

He was angry.

However, the man in front of him had a great point...

There are no ‘random’ Expert Stage Cultivators in this world.

These two were definitely not normal,

However,

“I can’t let you meet the General.” The Deputy General shook his head.

“Why?” The man questioned.

“I do not know you, what if you are an assassin that wants to harm our general?”

“And I thought that the King Stage Cultivators are strong.

Turns out they are just people afraid of losing their life to people who are weaker than him.”

The woman standing behind the man chuckled.

The Deputy General looked at the woman and narrowed his eyes.

“Just let us meet the General, it is not like we can harm him.”

The Deputy General then looked at the two of them and after thinking for a while, he nodded.

“Alright, let me talk to the General.”

Chapter 298

“The General has agreed,
Follow me.”

The Deputy General returned and muttered in a strict tone.

The black-clothed man looked at the woman and his golden eyes shined.

‘You did a good job, my love.’

‘Heh, it’s so easy to handle people with big egos.’ The woman smiled.

‘Thyra, you naughty little girl~’

A smile appeared on the Woman’s face.

Yes, if you guys haven’t caught on, the two people who casually entered an army camp were none other than Nux and Thyra.

Surprising, right?

‘Alright, let’s follow this giant. I want to meet the general and get over this.’

Nux muttered.

Thyra nodded and the two of them appeared in front of the largest tent in this area.

“General, they are here.”

The Deputy General muttered, he didn’t wait for any response and directly entered the tent.

Nux and Thyra followed behind him and soon, Nux's eyes fell on a woman wearing a black coat sitting on a chair with a leisurely look on her face.

No, actually, she did not look leisurely at all, she looked like a wild lioness who was looking at her pray, she was a dangerous woman.

And on top of that, she was a beautiful woman, with black-red hair, sword-like eyebrows, red eyes that shined ferociously, a straight nose and a wide smile on her face,

The dangerous beauty.

A lethal beauty.

A beauty that turned Nux on...

Right now, Nux was so lost that he even forgot to use the Eye of Discerning and just continued to burn the sight in front of his eyes in his mind.

Thyra, who was standing behind him noticed his weird actions and clicked her tongue.

Then, her eyes fell on the General's chest and she clicked her tongue again,

'How the fuck do you fight with those mounds of meat hanging in front of you.'

(Picture in paragraph comments)

Thyra didn't like this General at all.

She narrowed her eyes and a smile appeared on her face when she saw the Deputy General, who was still in the tent.

"Heh. Are you sure you are a King Stage Cultivator? I didn't know that a King Stage Cultivators needed the protection of an Expert Stage Cultivator when they face two unknown Expert Stage Cultivators."

Thyra chuckled.

The General's eyes moved, she looked at Thyra from the head to toe as if she was scanning her, and once she was satisfied, she looked at the deputy general and ordered,

“You can leave.”

The Deputy General didn't say anything and left.

The army had only 1 rule, do not disobey or question your superior's decision.

You can give them suggestions, however, once you are ordered to do something, you have to do it without any complaints.

A good soldier is the one who listens to the orders, not the one who comes up with different strategies and acts as if he is smarter than everyone.

The Deputy General left, seeing that, Thyra chuckled again,

“Heh. How impulsive, I only needed a few words in order to make you do what I wanted. Are you sure you are the General?”

If the Deputy General was here, he would have shouted in anger, however, the general was different,

A beautiful smile appeared on her face and she questioned,

“Do you know why he was here?”

“Isn't it obvious? It was because he wanted to protect you.” Thyra answered.

“Indeed.”

The general nodded.

“He wanted to protect me, and do you know why I ordered him to leave?”

Thyra narrowed her eyes.

The General's smile widened and a crazed look appeared on her face,

"That is because I concluded that you can't harm me even if you were given 100 chances.

You are too weak to do that."

Thyra's face twitched when she heard those words.

She then narrowed her eyes dangerously and muttered,

"I see, not only are you easy to manipulate, you are dumb as well.

Why am I not surprised?"

The general just smiled and didn't say anything, Thyra, however, did not like that,

"Trust me, if I was an assassin, your head would have been rolling on the floor." She challenged with a smirk.

The General's red eyes shined and she muttered,

"Try it then."

"As I said, you are dumb.

What kind of assassin attacks when you order them to? Our speciality is sneak attacks."

"Heh, that's what rats do. Attacking from behind.

Not that it will matter, I am positive that someone like you won't be able to harm me no matter how many sneak attacks you use."

The General smiled.

Thyra smiled back.

Nux, who was looking at the two women smiling at each other knew better than anyone that this wasn't a pleasant environment.

He had to intervene, otherwise, things can get out of hand.

Suddenly, a small smile appeared on his face.

“Girls, you two need to calm down and get along with each other.

You two will be sisters in the future, after all.”

“Huh?” The general frowned.

“What do you mean?”

She questioned as she narrowed her eyes and looked at Nux.

Nux smiled as he then threw the badge Arvina gave to him towards the General and muttered,

“You two will be fighting a war together, so of course, you should get close and treat each other like sisters in order to cooperate well. Isn't that right?”

Nux smiled brightly.

Thyra, however, didn't share his smile.

The General may have been fooled by Nux's words, however, she knew what Nux was talking about.

That man has already set his eyes on this woman.

Thyra knew that she would get another new sister soon, and this sister...

She will join the ranks of Edda, Felberta, Lane and Allura.

Tsk Tsk.

“Hmmm.”

Suddenly, Thyra heard the General's voice.

She turned around and then, she noticed that the general was scanning Nux with interest, soon, the General's smile widened and she questioned.

“Since we are going to fight, we should treat each other as sisters, right?”

“Indeed, indeed.” Nux nodded his head in agreement,

“Then with that logic, should I treat you as my little brother?”

Chapter 299

“Then with that logic, should I treat you as my little brother?”

The General chuckled.

“Pffft.”

Thyra couldn't help but laugh out loud, especially when she saw Nux's reaction.

He was looking at the General with a deadpan look on his face, he even forgot to blink.

“...”

He was at a loss of words.

In the end, Nux could only show a smile and shook his head,

“I was just joking, you don't have to take me seriously, we are fighting a war, there is no need to become brothers and sisters just for that.”

Nux quickly refused and denied his own words.

The general chuckled as she glanced at Nux and then, a seductive smile appeared on her face.

“You are an interesting guy.”

Nux noticed that her red eyes were smiling when she said those words and riding her momentum, a smile appeared on his face as well.

“It would be great if you remove this mask of yours, I want to see your face.”

The general muttered, and Nux nodded his head.

However, just as he was about to remove his mask, he stopped.

Nux's eyes then fell on Thyra before they returned to the general again and he smiled.

'Easy to manipulate my ass.'

Nux muttered to Thyra.

'That was close.'

Thyra nodded her head as well.

The general was different from what she imagined, the woman nearly made Nux do what she wanted with just her words alone.

Thyra could feel it,

This woman was dangerous.

Of course, Nux could see that as well, however, he was not planning to back off.

"Hmm? Are you that interested in seeing my face?" Nux questioned.

"I am." The general nodded.

"I won't show it to you." Nux shook his head.

"Why? Are you hiding something?" The general questioned.

"No, there is a problem with my face."

"Hmm? Is it an injury or a scar? Or is it a scary birthmark? Actually, you don't have to worry, no matter what it is, it won't bother me, as a general I have seen lots of things, the face being completely disfigured so badly that it looked horrendous isn't something that can bother me.

So you don't have to worry because I am sure your face will be better than the things I have seen.”

The general smiled.

“Ahh, I think you misunderstood.

My face is, of course, a lot better than anything you have ever seen.

And this is the problem.

Wherever I go, women would fall for my charm, therefore, I cover my face.

You should be careful as well, general, don't be too curious, else you might fall in love with me.”

Nux smiled.

“...”

The general blinked a few times and didn't have any answer to that.

She has seen a lot of things, but this man's shamelessness is on an entirely different level.

“Ahh, of course, you don't have to worry, if by chance, you did fall for my charm, I will take the full responsibility.

However, I would prefer we take things slowly, get to know each other well, not by face, but by our pure and innocent souls, let our lovely hearts connect with each other,

Only then, can we build a strong, healthy and long-lasting relationship.”

Nux smiled brightly.

“...”

And again, The General didn't have any answers to what he just said.

Thyra, who saw the general's face smiled,

Yes, this was how things usually go by,

Nux isn't the one who loses the words battle, he is the one who stands on top.

He is the winner.

The General just took him by surprise for the first time,

She ain't winning anymore.

Thyra nodded to herself.

Satisfied by this situation.

The general didn't know what she was thinking, however, since she had no answers to Nux's shameless words, she decided to change the topic.

“So Arvina Skyfall send you two?” She questioned.

Nux smiled meaningfully and then, he nodded,

“Yes, she did.”

“And you two are here to assist us in this war?”

The General questioned.

“Indeed.” Nux nodded again and at the same time, his golden eyes shined brightly and the General's information appeared in front of him.

[Name: Ember Windstar.]

[Age: 152]

[Mana Cultivation: King.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal. ]

[Race: Human]

[Occupation: General of the Woods Dynasty.]

[Talent: High]

[LVL: 61]

[HP: 740/740]

[MP: 1450/1450]

[STR: 72]

[AGL: 78]

[VIT: 74]

[STM: 73]

[INT: 145]

[DEF: 75]

...

‘Ember huh...

She is indeed hot~’

Nux chuckled inwardly.

“I am glad that Arvina sent someone here to help me, however, I still cannot accept you two into the army.”

Suddenly, Ember muttered.

“Why?”

Nux frowned.

“I do not know who you are and you two are unwilling to reveal your faces this will create problems, since you won’t be able to get along with other soldiers.

A war cannot be won with personnel strength alone.

Also, you two are too strong, other than me, there are only 4 people here who can go against you, however, even they might not be able to defeat you.

It won’t be easy to add you into the army since I won’t be able to find a leader capable enough to lead you and I, of course, won’t be able to make you two leaders.”

Ember shared her problems.

However, Nux was already ready for something like this,

“This won’t be a problem, we are hiding our identities for certain reasons, however, you have seen Arvina Skyfall’s badge.

You may not trust us but you trust her, correct?

We are someone close to her, so we won’t betray you.

Also, you may be a King Stage Cultivator and Expert Stage Cultivators like us might be nothing in your eyes, however, if we go to the battlefield, we will be a tremendous help.

I don’t think you should disregard us like that.”

Nux muttered.

Thyra stepped up as well.

“And as for you adding us to your army, I have a solution.”

“What is it?” Ember turned towards Thyra and questioned.

“Make us the Leaders.”

Chapter 300

“Make us the Leaders.”

“Huh?” Ember frowned.

“Didn’t I tell you just now? I can’t make you two leaders.

It is not easy, no matter how strong you are, other soldiers won’t follow your lead because they don’t know anything about you.

They are risking their lives in this war, however, this does not mean that they will just throw away their lives like that.

They are humans, not puppets.”

Thyra, however, shook her head,

“I never said that you need to place any soldiers under our command.”

“What’s the point of being a leader then?” Ember couldn’t understand her thoughts.

“Look, I will be honest,

This will be our first time fighting a War, we have no prior experience. We have stayed in Bloodhill Wilderness for a month and have fought against countless beasts, however, we haven’t fought any humans on such a large scale.

We are newbies and if you place soldiers under us, they will lose their lives. We, of course, do not want that.

However, at the same time, we, as Expert Stage Cultivators, cannot be under the command of someone weaker than us.

Therefore, the best solution will be to make us the Leaders without any soldiers under us.

This way, no soldier would lose his/her life because of us and at the same time, no leader would place us in their plans for the upcoming war.”

Thyra explained.

“Then what are you going to do?” Ember questioned as she narrowed her eyes.

“We will just join any random squad when the war will start and once we are close enough, we will assassinate the enemy leaders.”

Thyra smiled.

“Huh? You will assassinate enemy leaders in the middle of the war? How will you do it, don’t you usually assassinate someone when they are not on guard?”

Ember raised her eyebrows.

“Assassination is all about taking the opponent by surprise, don’t worry, we can do it. I promise to bring you at least 5 enemy heads when I return.”

Thyra answered.

“Ew! Why would you do that? That is so gross.

I didn’t know you were a mindless brute.”

Ember then turned towards Nux and smiled seductively,

“You should stay away from brutes like her,”

Then, Ember stood up, walked towards Nux and placed her finger on his chin, then lifting his chin up, their eyes matched and Ember whispered in a seductive voice,

“There are many, much better options out there. All you have to do is look around.”

*Pat*

Thyra was quick to move,

She slapped away Ember’s hand and stood in front of Nux.

“How shameless,”

She muttered.

Ember just smiled and looked at Nux.

“We will meet again,

Very soon.”

“S-S-Sure.”

Nux stuttered.

“Mhm, I am looking forward to me, Mister Golden Eyes.”

Ember chuckled inwardly, finding Thyra’s reaction amusing.

She was doing all this to tease her, after all.

Of course, Nux’s stuttering was cute as well.

All in all, she could feel that she would spend quite an amazing time with these two here.

“We will be taking our leave now.”

Thyra muttered.

“You can leave but why not leave Mister Golden Eyes here? I want to talk to him, Privately~”

Ember smiled.

“No! I won’t allow you to do that, you bitch!

If you want to talk, do it in front of me!”

Thyra shouted in anger.

“I don’t think you would want to hear our talks,

I want to talk about some...

Private matters.”

Ember smiled.

“You two don’t even know each other!

What private matters do you have to talk about!?

Hmph! Hmph!”

Thyra snorted, then she grabbed Nux’s hand and started walking outside the tent.

“That’s why I wanted to talk to him,

To get to know him better~

Won’t it be better if he and I strengthen our relationship?

How do you not understand my pure intentions?”

Ember questioned with a dramatically sad look on her face.

Thyra, however, did not stop and left the tent with Nux.

“Where are you going~~

Mister Golden Eyes, meet me later~”

As they walked out of the tent, Nux and Thyra heard Ember’s words.

“He won’t!” Thyra answered and then she walked away.

Nux, who was following behind her looked at him with a small smile on his face,

“You do realize that she is doing this to tease you, correct?”

Thyra didn’t stop and continued walking,

“Of course I do.” She nodded and then, she continued.

“Whatever she said about spending time with you and all that,

It was all for the sake of teasing me,

She wants to see my jealous face,

However, what would happen if I show her what she wants?”

Thyra questioned with a smile.

“Hmm? What?” Nux questioned.

“Heh. Someone like her would want to tease me more and more and more.”

Thyra’s smile widened.

“Wait...”

Nux realized.

“Do you finally get it now?”

The more she would want to tease me, the bolder her actions would get and the more she will advance towards you,

All on her own.

It would be easier for you to seduce her after that.”

Thyra smiled.

“Oh ho? You are doing this for me? But I thought you didn’t like her.”

Nux questioned.

“Well, I don’t exactly hate or like her,

She is strong, it will help you and it will push others in the group to train more. I like that.

However, she has those mounds of fat on her chest, tsk tsk, she will join Allura and the others.

Tsk Tsk, isn’t that fat useless?”

Thyra complained.

“...”

Nux used his right to remain silent.

“Of course, in the end, it doesn’t really matter. I know you well enough to foresee where this will end.

You have already set you, there is no way she would escape.

I am just speeding up the process.

However, you better not forget about my rewards, got it?”

Thyra warned with a seductive smile on her face.

Suddenly, Nux picked Thyra in his arms and dashed towards the Jungle.

“Alright then, let’s start with your rewards, shall we?” he questioned with a smile.

“Shouldn’t we look around the army camp a little before doing that?”

Thyra questioned. They have just arrived here after all.

“Meh, we can do it later,

For now, let’s try having sex in the Woods while we are in the Woods Dynasty.”

Volume 4

Chapter 301

“Where have you two been? I was looking for you.”

The Deputy General questioned in his usual, strict tone.

“We were busy with some stuff.”

Nux answered with a smile on his face.

The Deputy General narrowed his eyes since he didn't like this vague answer, however, in the end, he just sighed and continued,

“Whatever, I am here to tell you that your tent is ready, follow me, I'll show you where it is.”

“Alright, thank you for your work.” Nux nodded and then, he and Thyra started following the Deputy General.

“I talked with the General, she told me that you two don't know much about the Army and War, so let me tell you a few important things.”

While the three of them were walking, the Deputy General started,

“We appreciate your efforts.”

Nux nodded, a small smile appeared on the Deputy General's face and he continued,

“First, let me start with the Soldier Rankings within the Army.

The First is a Soldier, a normal soldier, they are usually Apprentice or Beginner Stage Cultivators.

Then comes the Head Soldier, or a Head, they are Advance Stage Cultivators and usually have 10-15 soldiers under their command,

These 10-15 Soldiers and the Head Soldier leading them combined is called a Team.

The next Rank is the Unit Captain, they are Master Stage Cultivators and have 20-25 Teams under them.

This is called a Unit.

Next is the Squad Captain, Grand Master Stage Cultivation and 20-25 Units under them. This is called a Squad.

Then comes the Deputy Generals, Expert Stage Cultivators, and have around 20-25 Squads under them.

Then comes the one leading this Huge army, the General, the King Stage Cultivator, she has everything under her control, however, most of the time, she relies on her trusted Deputy Generals and efficiently manages the whole army.

After the Ruler of the Dynasty, she is the one with the most influence in the Woods Dynasty.” The Deputy General informed with a proud look on his face.

Nux nodded his head as he heard this information.

This was indeed a little interesting.

Thyra, who already knew about all this since it was similar to how the Army in the Skaadi Kingdom worked, didn't have many changes in her expressions and questioned,

“So what is our rank?”

“I was coming to that topic.”

The Deputy General looked at Thyra and muttered.

Thyra nodded and the Deputy General continued,

“You two are Expert Stage Cultivators, someone who should be Deputy Generals, however, for the reasons you already know, we can’t make you the Deputy Generals.

Therefore, the General has introduced a new, special Rank for you two.

Assistant General.

This Rank will allow you to roam around the battlefield and do whatever you want. Other than the General herself, no one has the power to command you.”

“Hmmm, so that means we are Deputy Generals like you,” Nux commented.

The Deputy General’s face twitched and he shook his head,

“No, you are not Deputy General, you are Assistant Generals.”

“Isn’t that the same thing? We have the same status after all.” Nux smiled.

The Deputy General clenched his fist in frustration and answered,

“No, we do not have a similar status, although I cannot command you two, unlike you, I have full power to order any other soldier whose rank is lower than mine.

You, on the other hand, can only ask for assistance from anyone who is not the General or Deputy General, and if it forces them to put their lives on the line, they have the right to refuse you.

You do not have absolute power to control them, therefore, you do not have the same status as me.”

“Will the soldiers take their own life if you would order them to?” Nux questioned.

“Huh? Why would I give a crazy order like that?” The Deputy General frowned.

“Just answer the question,”

“There is no answer to a stupid question like this,

I will never give a stupid order like that.”

Nux smiled,

“You can try to deny it, however, I know the answer is no.

They won’t follow your orders.

No matter how I look at it, Assistant General and Deputy General are the same.” Nux smiled.

The Deputy General clenched his fists in annoyance.

This man is too irritating, in the end, he decided to not respond to his words and continued walking.

Nux just smiled and didn’t say anything.

He was really enjoying his stay in this Army Camp.

Thyra, who saw everything couldn’t help but shake her head.

This Deputy General... she found him a little pitiful...

However, she won’t deny it, she was enjoying this as well.

A few minutes later, the three of them appeared in front of an empty space and the Deputy General smiled.

“You can live here, have a nice stay.”

Nux looked around again and then, he turned towards the Deputy General,

“Are your eyes working fine?”

Where is the tent you are talking about?”

He questioned.

“Huh? Tent? Did you think we would arrange a set tent for you as well?”

This is the Army, not your home where you could play around, arrange everything on your own.”

The Deputy General smiled.

Nux raised his eyebrow and then, a smile appeared on his face,

“Hey, you. Yes, you.

Come here.”

He looked around and ordered a soldier to come here.

When the soldier saw that the man calling him was standing with the Deputy General, his eyes widened in surprise and he rushed towards Nux and saluted.

“Deputy General!”

“Hmmm, Master Stage, so you must be a Unit Captain,” Nux muttered.

“Yes, I am.”

The Soldier nodded.

“Well, I am the new Assistant General, your superior, and I order you to set our tent here,” Nux ordered.

Then he turned towards the Deputy General and smiled,

“I can order him to do that, right, Deputy General?”

The Deputy General's face twitched, however, he couldn't do anything about it.

Nux indeed had the power to do it.

He could only nod.

Chapter 302

After the Soldiers made a tent for Nux and Thyra, he saluted and then left.

The Deputy General, who was still bitter about what happened before didn't say anything and left as well.

Now, only Nux and Thyra were left.

“Hehe~ Are we going for another round?” Nux questioned with a playful smile on his face.

Thyra, however, shook her head.

“Don't forget what we are here for.”

“Huh? There are no wars here though? Aren't we free till the next battle starts?” Nux questioned in confusion.

“We are not here for war alone,

We are here to continue your training.”

“Ah, I thought we would continue my training while we are on the battlefield.”

Nux muttered.

“There is no way I would let you enter the battlefield like you are right now.”

Thyra muttered with a solemn look on her face.

“Huh? Why not?” Nux frowned.

“You have to get used to killing first.”

Nux's frown deepened.

“Killing a human is different than killing a Beast, Nux. You cannot enter a war without having prior experience of killing, I can't have you lose your focus just because there is human blood on your face.

This will be the Second Stage of our training, Nux.

The path of an Assassin.

From now on, everything you learn will be from practical experience.”

Thyra muttered as her eyes shined in determination.

Nux smiled and then he kissed her lips and whispered seductively.

“You can do whatever you want with me, my love~

I am all yours~”

A small blush appeared on Thyra's face, however, it quickly reverted back to normal and her face turned expressionless.

Thyra entered her serious mode.

“Follow me.”

She instructed and turned around.

Nux didn't ask where they were going, he just followed his teacher with a small smile on his face.

He was looking forward to it.

A few minutes later, Nux noticed that they have entered the Woods Dynasty's city, this time, they were not using [Conceal], rather, they were using the dark night to hide, just like normal assassins do.

Their footsteps were light and made as little sound as possible.

Someone who is not perceptive enough would never be able to hear it.

In the middle of the night, Nux and Thyra wandered around the silent, deserted streets and after exploring the entire city, they finally stopped.

From the roof of a house, Thyra pointed at the street.

Nux looked where she pointed and found 2 men surrounding a woman.

One had covered her mouth while the other had lifted her legs and was taking her towards a deserted alleyway where no one would find them.

The woman resisted as fiercely as she could, however, in the end, she couldn't do much against them and was taken away.

There, the man finally removed his hand from the woman's mouth and she shouted with all her might,

“HELP! HELP ME!”

Panic was clear in her voice, however, the men didn't care about it, the one covering her mouth now held her two hands on the top of her head.

While the other one was about to remove her clothes.

“Please! Don't do this! I have a husband! I am begging you, don't do it!”

With tears all over her face, the woman begged, however, the men didn't care and continued to do what they were doing.

The man was about to tear open the woman's gown, however, before he could, his world spun.

‘Huh?’

He noticed that everything had started moving up, he then glanced at his friend, who was looking at him with his mouth opened in shock and before his friend understand what happened, a dagger pierced his neck as well.

The man finally realized,

He was killed by the one who killed his friend.

The world wasn't moving up, it was his head that was falling.

And as if confirming his thoughts, his eyes turned heavy and his consciousness drifted apart.

The woman who was about to be raped turned pale in horror as she saw a man wearing black-coloured clothes standing in front of her.

“You did not see anything, is that clear?” The man muttered.

The woman blinked a few times, then, she finally realized what had happened, her eyes shined as she quickly stood up and bowed her head,

“T-Thank y-y-you! Thank-k y-y-you very much!”

“Leave.”

“Y-Yes!”

The woman then ran away, few seconds later, she slipped and fell, however, she quickly stood up and continued to run while tumbling away.

She was grateful to the man who saved her, however, she was too scared to stay there.

Her heart was still beating quickly, she had really avoided a great calamity by hair's breadth.

After the woman ran away, Thyra appeared and glanced at Nux with a blank look on her face.

“What? You didn't expect me to wait till they removed all her clothes and save her at the last moment, did you?”

I honestly hate that storyline.”

“ ... ”

Thyra, however, did not reply and just stared at Nux.

“Why are you looking at me like that? Do I look a little too handsome today?” Nux questioned with a playful smile on his face.

“Do you not feel anything?” Thyra questioned.

Nux’s gaze then turned serious, he then glanced at his hands and shook his head,

“I do not.”

Thyra frowned.

“Are you sure you haven’t killed before?”

“Well, I did kill beasts, however, this is my first time killing a human. Maybe it was because I was already prepared for it?

That might be the reason why I don’t feel anything, right?”

Thyra thought about it a little and then, she instructed.

“Alright, now drag these bodies away and bury them somewhere.”

“Hmm? Why don’t we directly use the storage rings?”

“No, I need you to do it without a storage ring.”

“Alright.”

Nux nodded and then he grabbed the legs of the two dead bodies.

Then, he glanced at Thyra.

“You are coming?”

“I will not come with you, do it alone.”

Nux nodded and then left.

Then, he continued to drag the body and soon, he found a perfect place to bury these two bodies.

He started digging the ground and soon, he felt something strange.

He had just killed a human, the realization stuck in.

Chapter 303

He had just killed a human, the realization stuck in.

He didn't feel anything before, however, now that he was alone, he finally realized what he had done.

To be honest, he still didn't feel anything much however, as he glanced at the two bodies in front of him, his heart started beating quickly.

His movements paused.

Looking at those motionless bodies and the eerie silence that had enshrouded the whole area, Nux felt something strange.

He couldn't point out what it was, however, he knew something was different.

Nux then closed his eyes and started breathing calmly.

This was something Thyra had told him to do when she was suggesting different ways to get over his first kill.

The best way is to accept it.

However, it was not as easy as it sounded.

Sometimes, people won't even realize that they haven't accepted it yet.

The same was happening with Nux right now, he might feel nothing was happening, however, deep inside, something still bothered him.

For someone like him, the best way is to try and forget about everything for a time being.

And he can't use anyone's help for that, he had to do it on his own.

Nux then sat crosslegged and started meditating.

15 minutes later, he opened his eyes.

He didn't look at the bodies, he just continued digging and once the hole was big enough, he kicked the two bodies inside it and started refilling the hole.

Then, he returned.

Thyra noticed that he looked a little lost.

She understood.

Nux would be able to hold on if someone, or more specifically, one of his women is beside him, however, the same can't be said for when he is alone.

Once he is alone, he would start thinking about all of this and wouldn't be able to sleep at night.

This was a problem.

However, he was still doing a lot better than she thought.

“Alright, this would be enough for today,”

“Hmm?”

Nux frowned.

“That's it?”

“Well, the training isn't over, the real training starts after you have killed the person, your brain has registered it, however, your heart hasn't.

You have to stay alone for a while, introspect and then finally get used to this new, strange feeling.

Of course, this wasn't something that can be done in days, you need some more time.

However, I feel that you will be able to do it faster than normal.

You are different from others, after all.”

Thyra smiled.

Nux nodded and the two of them returned to their tent.

There, Thyra and Nux slept in different tents, Nux didn't sleep, he just closed his eyes and thought about what had happened.

He still felt that he hasn't done something wrong, therefore, he didn't feel any guilt.

Then what was this strange feeling?

He didn't know.

And he didn't know if he could ever understand what it is.

The next day, Nux woke up, he and Thyra walked around the army camp, although he was a little gloomier than normal, he still looked fine.

Seeing that, Thyra smiled.

In the night, she went out with him again, this time, Nux killed another human and they returned.

This continued for the next 4 days, by now, Nux has killed 6 humans, however, his reaction to it wasn't as strong as before.

He had even started flirting with Thyra and Ember.

He still wasn't completely over it.

On the fifth night, Thyra and Nux were running towards a city and just as they were about to reach their destination,

Thyra muttered,

‘We are going to increase the difficulty level now.’

‘Hmm? How are we going to do that? Killing more humans?’

‘No, we are going to increase the strength of the human we will kill.

You are already used to killing humans by now,

From now on, you will start assassinating strong humans using the techniques I taught you.’

Saying that, Thyra passed a paper to Nux.

‘Clayton Brook,

In the Woods Dynasty, his status is similar to a Marquee, he is a Grand Master Stage Cultivator who uses his status to oppress commoners.

He is part of many frauds, he has raped many women, killed a lot of men and is an unforgivable person.

However, he always uses his status to dodge any punishments.

Today, we are going to get clean this trash from the world.’

Thyra explained.

‘Thyra...’ Suddenly, Nux frowned.

‘What?’

‘We are not warriors of Justice, Thyra. This is the Woods Dynasty problem, why do we have to take care of it?’

‘We just want a target.’

‘Why bother researching so much?’

‘While I was trained as an assassin, there were three stages of Killing.

First, where I was made to kill a person who deserves to be killed. Since I deemed that the person should have been killed, it was easier for me to get over the fact that I killed him.

This is what I am doing for you by choosing targets that you feel should be killed.

The Second Stage is where you start killing people for your own advantage. As long as killing that person benefits you enough, you will kill.

They made me kill people while I was about to break through the next stage, under the pressure of fighting against those people, I grew faster than normal and I got stronger after killing them, which, in the end, would help me survive in this world later, I killed.

For you, this will happen when you participate in the war, killing the enemy soldiers will help your allies, and it will reduce the number of casualties among your soldiers, this will be your reason to kill.

For a King, as long as killing someone benefits him or his country, he should raise his sword.

The Last stage is where you kill indiscriminately. Right, wrong, innocent, criminal, it doesn't matter. You just kill since you were ordered.

I had killed so many people that I got numb, killing didn't bother me anymore. I turned into an emotionless killing machine that killed someone just because I was ordered to.

The background of that person didn't matter.

Even if he was the most innocent person that hasn't harmed a single soul, I would kill without a second thought.”

Thyra's eyes then shined in determination as she grabbed Nux's hand with her two hands.

“However, I will not let you move to the last stage.

I will not allow you to turn into an emotionless killing machine.

You don't have to walk into that marsh, if you ever need an Emotionless Killing Machine,

I will be there to do that dirty work for you.”

Chapter 304

*Clank*

An expensive-looking vase fell on the ground.

Beside the table, there was a bed and on the bed, there was a man,

“Kkkhhkkk!!”

The man wanted to say something, however, he was choking on his own blood.

Words didn't come out of his mouth, even though he was trying his hardest, he wasn't able to breathe anymore, therefore, the only thing he could do was glare at the two beings standing in front of him in hatred while trying to make as much sound as possible.

He knew that he will lose his life soon, however, he wanted to make sure that these two bastards responsible for it dies with him.

Therefore, he wanted his guards to come and see how he was assassinated in his own room.

The man was Clayton Brooke and the one who assassinated him was Nux.

Clayton wanted revenge, he was so blinded in his rage that he didn't even notice that the one killing him was an Expert Stage Cultivator, someone who could easily kill anyone who enters after hearing that sound.

Actually, even if he did notice it, he would have done the same, even if he can't kill the people who killed him, at least someone would follow him in his death.

It wasn't like his guard was out of fault, he was the one who failed to protect him after all.

Shouldn't he lose his life because of this?

That was completely fair in Clayton's eyes.

Soon, Clayton heard footsteps.

He smiled, it was his subordinate, he knew it.

However, his smile died soon.

The person who killed him and the one following him...

They were running away.

They had jumped out of the window!

Clayton's heart shuddered, he grabbed the bedsheets tightly and started looking around, trying to throw something else to call the guard sooner.

However, Nux and Thyra had already left the room, by the time his guard entered,

"Lord Clayton!"

It was already too late...

Clayton lost his life.

The last scene he saw was his guard rushing towards him with a panicked look on his face.

He couldn't even see a beauty in his last moment, tsk tsk, poor bastard indeed.

Brooke's house fell into panic as the news about the death of Clayton Brooke spread like fire.

On the other side, the people who caused this incident, they were just running away with a calm look on their faces.

Thyra, who was following behind Nux was smiling.

Nux was doing a lot better than she had imagined, killing a human didn't affect him as much as she thought it would.

She understood that the reason behind that might be her.

Since she was with her, he was able to cope up.

She became her support.

Thinking about it, Thyra smiled.

This made her happy.

Actually, the moment she met Ember, she realized that soon, she won't be the strongest within the harem.

She won't be Nux's source of strength anymore.

She wanted to be selfish and stop Ember and Nux from getting close, however, she knew that if she used the normal way, reaching the King Stage would take Decades, this would stop Nux's progress as well.

Therefore, she backed off.

Ember was important,

Even though she will lose her importance,

Ember was still important.

And realizing this importance, Thyra didn't try to stop Nux from getting close to Ember, heck, she was even willing to help him.

“We are here, activate your [Conceal]”

While Thyra was lost in her thoughts, Nux's voice sounded.

Thyra came out of her reverie and did as she was told, the two of them then walked into Nux's tent.

And there, Thyra smiled,

“You did a good job today.”

Nux glanced at his hands and nodded,

“I didn't feel much today when I was killing that man.”

“Mhm, you will get used to it soon, now, we can take a step forward and continue your training,” Thyra muttered.

“What are we going to do?” Nux questioned.

“You will restrict your cultivation, to the point that you are actually weaker than your target and then, you will assassinate him.

A good assassin can kill a target stronger than him.

Remember, no matter how powerful your opponents are, as long as your dagger pierces their heart, they die.”

Thyra muttered with a smile.

“We will take it slow, don't worry.”

“I like it when it's slow as well, you moan louder if I start slow and then ram it in one go.”

Nux nodded to himself.

“...”

Thyra looked at Nux with an expressionless look on her face.

Nux, however, could notice the tinge of red on her face and smiled widely.

Teasing the serious Thyra was indeed the best.

He didn't know why or how, but the serious Thyra is just too hot for him to not do anything.

“Kekeke~”

Nux laughed strangely.

‘Nux, it’s 11:57, why aren’t you here yet?’

While Nux was thinking all this, he heard a voice.

He then soon realized that he had to use his free teleportation for the day right now because if he didn't, he would be stuck in this place,

He then looked at Thyra and smiled,

“Alright, my lovely assassin, I will leave now~

Your sisters are calling me.”

“Alright.”

Thyra pouted however, in the end, she could only nod.

Then, Nux disappeared and reappeared in front of Allura, who was looking at him with a seductive smile on her face.

As Nux's eyes fell on Allura, they widened in surprise.

This woman...

She was completely naked right now!

“How was your day, my love~” Allura questioned as she placed her right leg on top of the left one, teasing Nux with her alluring movements.

*Gulp*

Nux gulped,

Then, he walked toward her with a big smile on his face.

“It was good, however,

I feel that it would become even better soon~”

Saying that, he pushed Allura into the bed and then placed his hands on top of hers,

Allura looked into his golden-coloured eyes and smiled,

“You are perceptive~”

Then, a long night followed.

Chapter 305

“Assistant General Nux, Assistant General Thyra, the General has called for you.”

A soldier saluted and then told what he was here for.

Nux looked at the soldier and nodded,

“We will be there soon.”

“Yes sir!”

The soldier saluted again and left.

Nux then turned to Thyra and smiled,

“It is finally starting.”

“Well, it is just a meeting right now, it hasn’t started yet,” Thyra replied.

“Hmm hmm, it would be my first time attending a meeting like this,” Nux muttered.

“This would be the first for me as well.” Thyra nodded her head.

The two then held each other’s hand and walked towards the General’s Camp.

As they entered, their eyes fell on 4 people living sitting inside the tent around the big round table,

They were Ember and her 3 Deputy Generals.

As Ember’s eyes fell on Thyra and Nux, she smiled,

“Well then, as you all already know, they are the help sent by my close friend, Assistant General Nux and Assistant General Thyra.”

“Yeah, we already know about them, General, the two who have come here to ‘assist’ us, however, are unwilling to show their faces to us.

We know them well,

Nux and Thyra, there are chances that their names are fake as well.”

A Deputy General snorted.

He wasn’t alone, most of the Deputy Generals didn’t have positive attitudes towards Thyra and Nux, of course, the two of them didn’t care.

For Nux, as long as the General smiled at him and treated him well, he was fine, as for Thyra, well, as long as Nux is fine, she was fine as well.

Therefore, the two of them ignored their remarks and walked into the camp.

“So? What are we called for?” Thyra questioned in her usual cold tone.

Ember, who saw that Thyra was still fiery as ever smiled and then, she winked at Nux.

Thyra saw that and she narrowed her eyes,

Then, she tightened her grip around Nux’s arm.

“You didn’t call us here just so you could try to eye on another woman’s hand, right?” Thyra questioned.

Ember smiled in satisfaction and then, her eyes turned serious,

“Have a seat, we are discussing something important.”

Thyra and Nux looked at each other and then, they sat down on the chairs.

Then, the General placed a map on the table and started,

“This all started 100 years ago when the Solid Earth Kingdom entered the Forbidden Area inside the Bloodhill Wilderness.

Since they lost a considerable amount of strength, the other three powers took this opportunity and attacked.

Of course, it wasn't a major attack and the Solid Earth Kingdom didn't lose much in this, however, the boundary line between the four Kingdoms shifted a little.

Just like other powers, the Woods Dynasty didn't lose this opportunity and attacked, in that war, we won the Highcrane Fort, a good defence location that belonged to the Solid Earth Kingdom.

However, 2 years ago, the Solid Earth Kingdom, which didn't do much even though their land was taken away from them finally moved.

With an overwhelmingly strong force, they overpowered our men staying in the Highcrane Fort and took back the land that belonged to them.

If they had only taken what belonged to them, things wouldn't have been that complicated, however, they didn't stop there.

With their immense momentum, they continued at captured our Deathspike Fort as well.”

The General then narrowed her eyes,

“They were ruthless with their moves and didn't spare any soldiers, more than 10,000 soldiers died.

We, the Woods Dynasty cannot let this slide,

Therefore, I was ordered to reclaim our Deathspike Fort.

Our strategy is simple,

We will use our Piercing Flame Squad to destroy their walls, our Absolute Earth Squad to defend our Piercing Flame Squad,

Then after we destroy their walls, we will move with full force and reclaim our Fort.”

The General smiled.

However, hearing this, Nux frowned.

“Isn’t this too... simple...?”

He questioned.

This strategy...

Even a child could come up with something like this.

Thyra agreed with Nux’s thoughts.

This sounded too simple for a War plan.

Were they hiding something from them? Were they still doubtful of them and were not revealing their full plan in front of them?

Thyra believed that something like this was possible.

However, Ember shook her head,

“You are right, this is a Simple Strategy and the reason behind this is that the outcome of this war is already decided.

The Woods Dynasty would win.

And I am saying this, not because I am arrogant but because I have a reason to back up my words.

Since the Solid Earth Kingdom attacked us and took back their Fort, it is clear that they are planning to take back their other Forts as well.

And to do that, they would need soldiers.

There is no way they would use all their soldiers here.

It would have been different if we were attacking their Highcrane Fort, however, since we will only take back what was ours,

They won't retaliate much.”

Ember smiled.

Hearing her words, Nux frowned even more.

“If it was that simple, then why were you, a King Stage Cultivator sent here?”

Ember smiled,

“As I said, we are not going there to just win, we are winning overwhelmingly.

You can say that we are going to make a statement to the world.

The Woods Dynasty is strong, absurdly strong, do not mess with us.”

This time, Thyra frowned,

“If you want to show that, then why not take the Highcrane Fort as well? Only then will you be able to make that statement.”

Hearing that, the General smiled wryly,

“Well, Woods Dynasty is strong, however, the Solid Earth Kingdom is strong as well.”

Nux's brows furrowed in confusion, however, Thyra finally understood what was happening.

“So this is all just a farce.”

She muttered.

“A farce...?”

Nux finally realized it as well.

Ember smiled,

“Yes, you two are correct, this is not a war, it is just a farce, a farce that was arranged by the Solid Earth Kingdom to take back the territories they had lost.

I assume that the two Kingdoms had planned it before,

We are just pawns here,

Pawns playing the game they have orchestrated.”

Chapter 306

“Pawns playing the game they have orchestrated.”

Ember muttered with a small smile on her face and the tent turned silent. The three Deputy Generals didn't say anything, it seemed like they knew about this as well.

Thyra and Nux looked at each other and Nux narrowed his eyes.

Playing the game someone else has orchestrated, he didn't like this feeling at all, however,

‘It doesn't matter.’

Nux heard Thyra's words in his mind.

‘Even if it is all just a farce, you will still gain a lot out of it, you will get what you are here for,’

Then, Thyra glanced at Ember and her blue eyes shined,

‘Heck, you will get something far more important than you hoped for, no matter how you look at it,

You are benefiting from this ‘game’.

So don't think about useless stuff and,

Play.’

Hearing her words, Nux smiled.

Indeed, things like these did not matter.

Also, this made sense.

His Teacher still didn't know how strong he was, in her eyes, he was just a normal Expert Stage Cultivator who has decent swordsmanship.

An Expert Stage Cultivator was strong, however, that didn't mean that his teacher would send her student to participate in a war.

She must have known from the start,

This war was just a farce.

A perfect place where Nux can train without worrying about many things.

“So when are we attacking?” Nux smiled and questioned.

A smile appeared on Ember's face as she nodded,

“2 days.

We would attack 2 days later and would end this farce in 1 hour, we won't be wasting any more time than this.”

Nux smiled.

“I understand.”

Then, the meeting ended.

A few minutes later, Nux and Thyra returned back to their camp,

“Haahhh... talk about disappointment...”

Nux sighed.

Thyra just smiled and then, she started removing her skintight clothes.

Nux understood her intentions,

Therefore, just like the good and supportive man he is, he helped her remove her clothes.

Then, another session continued.

...

Just like that, 2 blissful days passed by.

And today, was the day of the 'War'.

The Woods Dynasty's army was prepared.

With loud and thunderous steps, they marched towards the Deathspike Fort.

Just like other Deputy Generals, Nux was standing alongside Ember.

Right now, he was wearing his black assassin clothes, and on top of that, he wore shiny armour.

Even though his face was covered, he looked quite dashing just with his posture and aura alone.

However, out of everyone on the battlefield, only Thyra understood his inner thoughts just by looking at his face.

Nux was nervous,

And how could he not be?

There were a total of 60,000 men standing in front of him,

This many people...

It was his first time seeing something like this.

And these people would soon participate in an all-out war.

Any sane person would be nervous in this situation.

However, unlike him, Ember was confident.

She then stepped forward and,

“Soldiers!”

She roared, gaining the attention of 60,000 soldiers in front of her.

“The Solid Earth Bastards dared to take what is ours, can we accept it without doing anything!?”

“NO WAY!!”

“Are we just going to sit in our houses and let our enemies underestimate us!?”

“NO WAY!!”

“Then are we going to Fight Back!?”

“YES WE WILL!!”

“Are we going to Destroy the Solid Earth Bastards!?”

“YES WE WILL!!”

Ember smiled, satisfied by the scene in front of her.

Nux, who heard 60,000 people shouting together in perfect sync was taken aback.

He was overwhelmed by the immense energy these soldiers radiated.

However, what overwhelmed him even more was...

‘Beautiful...’

The black-red-haired woman who was commanding these 60,000 soldiers.

Their leader, the General, Ember Windstar, this woman...

She looked too charming right now.

Nux was completely lost in her voice.

“Soldiers,

Formation!”

Ember ordered, the soldiers then arranged themselves into the formation and then,

“March!”

Ember roared.

“YYEAAAHHH!!!”

The soldiers roared loudly.

Their roar was so loud that even Nux, who was lost in his thoughts, came out of his reverie.

The Energy these Soldiers were radiating had increased exponentially.

As Nux saw the soldiers marching towards the Fort, everything around him turned silent.

He didn't hear the Soldiers' cries, nor did he hear Ember's voice, everything around him was unusually silent.

Was it him panicking in this situation?

Was it too overwhelming for him?

Nux didn't know.

He only knew that he had to continue moving, and that is what he did.

He followed others and continued walking as he looked around with a confused look on his face.

He could hear the footsteps of the soldiers, he could hear the sounds of the swords being unsheathed, however, he couldn't hear any words.

This was...

A bit strange...

Nux shook his head again and again, however, this weird situation didn't change.

However, just as he was about to smack his head with his hand,

“Piercing Flame Squad, Absolute Earth Squad, move forward!

Destroy their walls!”

He heard Ember's roar.

Miraculously, the strange feeling suddenly disappeared and everything went back to normal, Nux felt something was pulling him away, however, this time, he didn't lose his focus.

He prepared himself and soon, a serious look appeared on his face.

Then, he activated his [Sense] out of reflex. A second later, the picture of the entire battlefield appeared inside his mind.

He then started the situation around him with a calm mind, Thyra was behind him, Ember was in front of him, the rest of the Army had stopped their advance, and only two squads were moving forward.

They were preparing to create an opening.

The opponents' soldiers were standing on the Fort walls, preparing their arrows and aiming toward the two squads coming for them.

From their expression, they looked quite calm.

It was as if they were sure of their victory.

Nux frowned.

This was strange.

This war was just a farce, however, for the Solid Earth Kingdom's Soldiers; this war was something where they would lose their lives.

Then why are they...

“!!!”

Suddenly, Nux's eyes widened in horror.

“Stop!

Stop Marching Forward!!”

He screamed.

Chapter 307

“Stop! Stop marching forward!”

Nux shouted at the top of his lungs.

The Soldiers stopped marching, and many of them didn't believe this 'Assistant General', however, in the end, he had a higher rank than them, therefore, they could only agree and do what he had ordered.

The General and the Deputy Generals frowned as they saw this.

However, Nux didn't care about it and shouted again,

“Step Back!

Step Back Quick!”

“Huh? What are you trying to do, you bastard!?”

Keep in mind, you are someone who is allowed to roam wherever you want on the Battlefield, however, this does not mean you can order other soldiers as you will!”

A Deputy General shouted in anger.

“Soldiers! March Forward!”

He ordered.

Seeing the two higher-ups fighting with each other, the soldiers frowned in confusion.

What are they supposed to do now?

Nux then looked at the Deputy General and then, he directly turned towards the General.

“Order them to come back!”

He shouted in a fierce tone.

“Why?” Ember questioned.

“I don’t have time! Just or-”

“”AAAGGHHH!!!!””

Nux wanted to reply, however, soon, everyone heard the soldiers’ screams.

Nux, Thyra, Ember and the Deputy Generals turned around and their eyes widened in surprise when they saw large, Black Coloured Spikes impaling more than 2000 soldiers.

The rest of the soldiers panicked and started running back in panic. The enemy soldiers, however, didn’t give them this chance and started shooting their arrows to kill any soldier they can.

They had the high ground, they would be fools if they didn’t use this advantage.

“D-Death Spikes...” A Deputy General’s eyes widened in surprise.

“T-This... how is this possible!?”

The Deathspike Fort belonged to the Woods Dynasty in the first place, there is no way the Deputy Generals won’t know what those spikes were.

The Deathspike Fort was a fort that had spikes surrounding it from all directions, no matter how many soldiers stood on the top of these spikes, once they are activated, they would pierce through their bodies and would kill everyone.

It was a lethal defence system that the Fort was named on.

However, although it was strong, this Defense system wasn't used much, the reason was simple,

It required a large amount of Mana to Activate it, even a King Stage Cultivator won't be able to activate it.

Mana of 30,000 Beginner Stage Cultivators is needed to activate this Trap.

"They shouldn't have enough manpower to activate this fort!" A Deputy General screamed.

Ember frowned.

She did not expect to lose around 2,000 soldiers before the battle even began.

"There are many many soldiers inside that Fort, the number far surpassed the 20,000 soldiers you were talking about.

If you want a rough estimation, there should be around 50,000 soldiers in that fort."

Nux reported.

Ember's eyes widened in surprise.

"How could that be!?"

A deputy general questioned.

"I don't have any reason to lie."

Nux replied with a solemn expression on his face.

The deputy general turned silent.

Ember looked at Nux and nodded,

“We cannot doubt him right now, he saved our soldiers, if he wanted, he could have just stayed silent and we would lose our two Squads before they could even do any damage.

We should believe his words.”

“T-Then w-what are we going to do now?”

One of the deputy generals panicked.

There plans...

Everything was going awry right now.

Ember, however, was different from the Deputy General, she was a lot calmer.

She started assessing the situation calmly.

“With Nux’s help, the Death Spike failed and was unable to do as much damage as it could.

The best way to use Deathspike is to use 20,000 soldiers to activate it, those soldiers have already used half of their Mana, we shouldn’t give them the time to recover,

We will use this chance and attack.”

“But how are we going to break through their walls? With the Deathspike in the equation, there is no way those soldiers would be able to get near the Fort Walls.”

“Order them to attack from where they are standing.” Ember instructed.

“Huh? From that far? The Piercing Flame Squad would have to use twice the amount of Mana to do that.”

“Don’t worry, we already have the advantage in terms of Mana, all we need to do is break the walls, once we succeed in that, they won’t be able to access the Deathspikes anymore.”

The Deputy Generals’ gazes turned serious.

They then looked at each other and nodded,

“Yes, General!”

They saluted and then rushed toward the soldiers.

The Soldiers were panicking, something like a speech won’t help them, therefore, although it was faster than planned, the Deputy Generals had to move.

“Piercing Flame Squad! Heed my orders!”

A Deputy General, the one who had the Piercing Flame Squad under his command shouted loudly,

“Absolute Earth Squad! Stand Tall, we still have comrades that we need to defend!”

The Deputy General with Absolute Earth Squad under him ordered as well.

The other Deputy General ordered the other squads and the three of them quickly took control of the army.

With their leaders with them, the panicked soldiers calmed down.

“Soldiers! Do not back down right now, we have to avenge our fallen brothers!”

“YEAHHH!!!”

The Soldiers roared.

The Absolute Earth Squad stood in front and took the most damage, however, they still stood strong and created Earth Shields that blocked the Arrows fired by the soldiers.

The Piercing Flame Squad then created fireballs and then aimed them at the Fort Walls.

Yes, it was just a 1-Star Skill, Fireball.

However, with more than 10,000 soldiers using this same Skill at the same time, the power was higher than any 4-star Skill. Not only that, but since it was just a 1-Star Star Skill, the Soldiers were able to shoot Fire Balls continuously.

With an attack stronger than a 4 Star Skill falling on the Walls again and again and again,

The Walls cracked,

“Continue shooting!

Don’t think about conserving Mana!

Break the walls!”

The Squad Leader ordered.

And soon,

*BOOOOOM***

The walls were burst open.

Ember then stepped forward and raised her sword in the air.

“Soldiers!

March Forward and Kill all these bastards!”

“YEAHHHHH!!!”

Chapter 308

*BOOOOMMM*

With that huge explosion, the Fort Walls were burst open.

The Deathspikes or any other Trap that requires Mana to activate is usually connected to the Walls, once the walls are destroyed, all traps are disabled.

This was the reason why the walls are valued so much. They are the first and the strongest layer of defence in any fort.

And now that the Woods Dynasty's Army has broken through the walls, “Soldiers!

March Forward and Kill all these bastards!”

Ember, the General was ready to destroy her enemies with her dominant force.

“YEAHHHHH!!!”

The rest of the Squads, who were eagerly waiting for the time to shine roared in excitement and rushed forward.

While the other squads rushed towards the Fort, The Piercing Flame Squad and Absolute Earth Squad turned around and rushed back to safety.

They have spent most of their Mana, the Absolute Earth Squad could still hold up, but the Beginner Stage Cultivators in the Piercing Flame Squad were barely holding on right now.

Shooting so many Fire Balls at the same time was...

Tiring.

However, the results were satisfactory.

With smiles on their faces, the two squads moved towards safety.

Nux, who saw everything smiled and turned towards Ember,

“We will move as well.”

Helping and saving so many soldiers’ lives helped him calm his nerves. Now, he was much more confident and was moving naturally.

Ember nodded,

“Alright.”

Nux and Thyra then nodded at each other, and then, covering their head with helmets, the two of them joined any random squad and rushed towards the Fort.

Ember, who was now left alone smiled as she saw Nux’s backing figure.

‘You saved my soldiers’ lives...

I will make sure to repay you...’

Then, she shook her head, stretched her body and soon, a horrifying aura oozed out of her body.

“Soldiers of the Solid Earth Kingdom,

Prepare to die!”

She shouted and then dashed towards the Fort as well.

...

Nux was right, the number of soldiers inside the Deathspike Fort was 53,431, an absurdly huge number.

Placing 50,000 soldiers in a fort... was too much.

Especially considering that everything that is happening right now is just a farce.

Well, nobody cared about this right now,

Those 50,000 soldiers prepared themselves to face that huge army that was rushing toward them.

Then, the 60,000 Soldiers of the Woods Dynasty clashed against 50,000 soldiers of the Solid Earth Kingdom.

“YEAHHH!!!”

“KILL THOSE BASTARDS!!”

The War Started.

The stronger cultivators continued to behead soldiers around them unless they found their match and continued their clash.

The same was the case for the Generals.

Ember massacred the soldiers around her and finally, she met the Enemy General.

A King Stage Cultivator.

The two of them looked at each other and the enemy General smiled.

“Ember Windfall, I have heard about you.”

“That is good, however, I cannot say the same about you.

You see, I usually ignore people weaker than me.”

Ember smirked.

“Hahaha~ You are just like how the rumours say.”

The Enemy General laughed.

Ember, however, wasn't in the mood to waste this time.

She knew that the Enemy General was here to sacrifice his soldiers, therefore, he didn't care how many of them died, however, she was different, she wanted to have as fewer casualties as possible.

Therefore, she wanted to end it quickly.

Without saying anything, she pointed her sword at the enemy general and rushed toward him.

The enemy general smiled,

“Alright, let's see if you are as strong as the rumours say, the Fiery Killer, Ember.”

*Clank*

Their swords clashed.

Just like that, the 3 Deputy Generals fought against enemy Deputy Generals.

The Squad Leaders fought against Squad Leaders.

Unit Leaders with Unit Leaders,

Head Soldiers with Head Soldiers.

And the Soldiers with Soldiers.

However, some had already found faults in this pattern.

The Solid Earth Kingdom loses in terms of the numbers of soldiers.

Therefore, the stronger men, the Squad and Unit Leaders tried to kill as many enemy soldiers as they could before meeting their match.

This was a very common tactic.

And a man named, Jason Demin, a Squad Leader and a Grand Master Stage Cultivator wasn't looking for his match, rather, he avoided long fights and aimed for Beginner and Advance Stage Cultivators.

Therefore, he normally targets groups of soldiers because only Beginner and Advance Stage Cultivators fight in groups.

Since he targeted the weak, his kill count in this war was already above 100.

This was the way he fights a war and usually kills more than 1000 soldiers on his own.

And just like any other war, he was doing the same this time as well.

After killing 11 soldiers, he targeted another team and rushed toward them,

However, just as he was about to behead a soldier, the man turned around and blocked his attack.

*Clank*

Jason's eyes widened in surprise.

A Beginner or Advance Stage Cultivator shouldn't have this sort of reaction speed,

Something was wrong.

Jason had sensed it.

He then focused and observed the cultivation of the soldier he was attacking, and as soon as he did it,

The hairs on his body stood up from fear.

‘E-Expert... W-What the hell is a-an E-Expert Stage Cultivator doing here...?’

Jason questioned inwardly and this was the last question in his mind as soon, his whole world turned upside down.

He was beheaded.

He didn’t even have the time to react against the man in front of him.

“It was easier than I expected,” Nux muttered with a nonchalant look on his face.

“Don’t be too carefree, it is a war, anyone can attack you from anywhere.”

Thyra, who was just behind him muttered in a serious tone.

Someone like her could easily create chaos around the battlefield with her skills, however, she decided to stay with Nux.

She had to protect him if by chance someone took Nux by surprise.

Suddenly, Nux and Thyra both turned in a certain direction,

Then, they disappeared and appeared behind an enemy Unit Leader who was trying to hide and was trying to search for a chance to attack them.

Without giving him any Chance, Nux beheaded the man and turned toward Thyra.

“Sure Sure, I will be careful~

Don’t worry.”

Chapter 309

“Sure Sure, I will be careful~

Don’t worry.”

Nux muttered with a small smile on his face.

Thyra looked at his face and couldn’t help but shake her head.

“You don’t look very ‘careful’ to me.”

“Hahaha~ Don’t worry~ Don’t Worry~

I will be fine~

Also, don’t I have you right beside me?

What could possibly go wrong?”

Nux muttered with a bright smile on his face.

Thyra looked at him and shook her head.

He was not being serious at all.

Thyra’s thoughts were contradicting.

She liked the fact that killing humans didn’t affect Nux as much as it used to. Of course, it didn’t mean he was completely unbothered by it.

She could sense that he was trying to hide it from her and was trying to act unbothered, however, even after that, Thyra knew that his condition was a lot lot better than before.

She was happy about it,

However, at the same time, she didn't like that Nux was taking this too lightly.

They were in the middle of a War.

Any single mistake could get them killed.

Getting careless here was a grave mistake.

However, Thyra could understand Nux's thoughts as well,

Right now, Nux is a lot stronger than the two Generals, who are fighting each other fiercely and were the main deciding factor of this War.

If Nux wanted, he could easily slay both of them at the same time without breaking a sweat.

He was just that strong.

He alone had the power to change the course of this war.

Not only that but the statement, 'You must always be careful when you fight in a war' wasn't something Nux had to follow.

He had his absurd abilities.

His [Sense] would tell him every time someone aims at him.

His [Conceal] would allow him to disappear from everybody's sight.

His Physique would allow him to release Devouring Mist and Kill every single being who is Grand Master Stage Cultivator or lesser.

His [Harem Gate] would allow him to teleport and leave this area whenever he wants.

With these absurd abilities, Nux was practically invincible.

Getting Carefree was only a natural reaction.

Also, Nux was right, she was here with him.

If everything comes down to it, she could always protect him.

Heck, if it is required, she would even use her life to save Nux's.

Nux's safety was practically guaranteed here.

Suddenly, Nux's expression changed, Thyra understood what happened,

She activated [Sense] and scanned the entire battlefield. Soon, she noticed something strange and then, her eyes turned cold.

The man she was looking at was a Grand Master Stage Cultivator and was hiding behind a few Beginner Stage Soldiers, with how his feet were pointing at Nux, how his left hand was close to the place where he had kept a dagger, how he was looking at Nux every other few seconds, and how he was moving towards him slowly and steadily, his intentions were clear.

He was trying to take Nux by surprise and then pierce his dagger into Nux's heart.

However,

Before he could even achieve his goal,

A dagger pierced his heart.

It was Nux's dagger.

The Enemy Squad Leader died without even knowing what had happened.

Nux stood in front of his corpse.

Thyra smiled and walked toward him as well.

“You did well.”

She muttered.

“Thyra... I was thinking...” Suddenly, Nux muttered.

“What?” Thyra questioned.

“Isn’t finding and killing enemies a lot better than letting the opponents come towards us ‘weaker’ soldiers and then kill them?”

Nux questioned.

“...”

Thyra looked at Nux and turned silent.

Then after thinking for a while, she nodded to herself.

“Just don’t overdo it.

You can’t have too high of a Kill Count, remember, you are just a ‘normal’ Expert Stage Cultivator.

Okay?”

Nux smiled and nodded his head.

“I know that of course.

Don’t worry,

I am not an Idiot.”

Nux smiled brightly.

Thyra, for some reason, didn’t like that smile on his face, however, in the end, she didn’t say anything and turned silent.

From then on,

Nux’s domination and enemy Master and Grand Master Stage Cultivators’ hunt started.

...

“Hahaha~ You are stronger than I thought, Fiery Killer!

A Prodigy who has High-Level Affinity with both Fire and Wind, fighting you was indeed eye-opening!

Hahaha~

I had a lot of fun.”

The Enemy General laughed loudly.

His clothes were a mess right now, there were many cuts all over his body and a serious wound on his lower abdomen, however, the man was still laughing loudly.

Ember, on the other hand, didn't look much different from before except for the sweat on her forehead.

From her breathing, it was clear that she wasn't much tired either.

However, there was still a solemn expression on her face.

Even though she was clearly winning, she could feel that something wasn't right.

The Enemy General...

He was too carefree...

This was something that didn't sit well with Ember.

Suddenly, a sad look appeared on the Enemy General's face when he looked at his abdomen.

“Haahh... I wanted to fight you more, however, it feels like this is the farthest I can go... If I continue, I might not make out of this battle...”

Ember frowned.

“You are giving up?”

“Mhm, I am.

However, prepare yourself, Ember Windfall, we will fight again, and next time, I will defeat you.”

The General muttered and then, he stepped back.

Ember didn't follow him either.

Actually, the reality was that she couldn't follow him.

From the start, a King Level Cultivator wasn't supposed to die in this battle.

You either win this battle or you run away, these were the only two options.

Of course, she could also try to follow him, however, she couldn't leave her army here.

Also, she can't go too deep into enemy territory, that was simply foolish.

Therefore, she could only stay there and announce,

“The Enemy General has fled,

This battle,

We have won!”

“YEAAAHHHHH!!”

Hearing her words, the two armies reacted differently.

The Solid Earth Kingdom soldiers started running away in panic and fear,

The Woods Dynasty Soldiers started slaughtering the soldiers running away and howling in excitement.

The Woods Dynasty's Soldiers then occupied the Deathspike Fort, others started setting up tents for their superiors, the injured were treated and the ones who were tired just lay down on the ground.

The War had ended.

And the Winner was the Woods Dynasty.

Or that's what everyone thought.

Chapter 310

“Heh, the Fort is finally ours now.”

A Deputy General muttered with a smile on his face.

His hairs were a little messed up and he was drenched in sweat, however, other than that, he looked perfectly fine.

He had minor injuries on his body before, however, the Healing Potions showed their magic and all those minor wounds had already disappeared.

“Indeed, actually, the battle was easier than I thought it would be. Aside from that initial Deathspike Trap, the entire battle was pretty smooth.”

Another Deputy General muttered.

“Indeed, there are a lot fewer casualties than I thought.”

The last Deputy General nodded.

“Hahaha~ Those soldiers would drink a lot today, they might even lose self-control.”

“Hahaha~ Don’t worry, they worked hard.

They are allowed to relax a little.”

“Indeed indeed, they deserve it.”

“Hey Hey, don’t talk like that, don’t we deserve a reward as well?”

“Huh? Is that even a question? Of course, we will reward ourselves.

Hehe~ I have even prepared a vintage just for this moment.”

“Hehe~ As I expected, Morrison, you are indeed an intelligent person.”

“Kekeke~”

The three Deputy Generals laughed.

It was very clear that they were in good mood.

Then, the Deputy General named Morrison turned towards Ember,

“General, you are going to join us for a drink, right?”

Ember looked at the Deputy General and then,

A small smile appeared on her face,

“Have I ever denied a good drink before?”

Wide smiles appeared on the Three Deputy Generals’ faces.

“Hahaha~

Tonight is going to be a great night!”

They laughed.

“Of course, since I am here, how can a night not be good?” Suddenly, the four of them heard a voice and soon, two people wearing skin-tight black coloured clothes entered the tent.

As her eyes fell on the two people who had just entered the tent, a small smile appeared on Ember’s face.

“You finally arrived.

What were you two doing?

We were waiting for you.”

Nux smiled then, he turned towards Thyra and his smile widened,

“We were doing something very important.”

A small blush appeared on Thyra’s face.

“Huh? What were you two doing that was so important that you two had to do it just after winning a war?”

A Deputy General couldn’t help but question.

“Ahh, just think of it as a sort of celebration.

It was our own way of celebrating good things.”

Nux smiled.

And this time, the General and the Deputy Generals caught on.

The four of them looked at Nux and Thyra with strange looks on their faces.

Just...

Just how...

How can someone be in the mood to do something like that after fighting a war?

And as if knowing what all of them were thinking,

Nux shook his head.

“Don’t think too much about it, virgins like you won’t understand.”

Ember felt her face twitching when she heard those words.

The Deputy Generals, however, couldn’t control themselves and lashed out.

“Haah!? Fuck you! I am not a Virgin!”

“Indeed, mind you, let alone a Virgin, I am very experienced!

You are nothing but a child in front of me.”

“Indeed Indeed, there is no way we would be virgins.”

“I completely agree.

How is that even possible?”

The Three Deputy Generals nodded continuously.

And Nux, who was looking at them smiled.

Inwardly, he thanked these Three Deputy Generals and then looked at Ember who was unusually silent.

Nux’s words weren’t meant for all four of them in the first place.

They were meant for Ember, the General.

He had managed to get close to her in all these days and from their conversations, he could easily deduce that she was a virgin.

Therefore, his question only targeted the General.

As for the others,

Meh, when has Nux ever cared about guys?

He was just enjoying Ember’s reaction.

However, Ember didn’t allow him that luxury.

“Heh, it was your first war, wasn’t it?” She questioned as she turned towards Thyra.

“It was,” Thyra answered.

“So? How was it? Where are the heads that you promised to bring?”

Ember questioned with a slight smile on her face.

“Don’t tell me you weren’t able to do what you said?

An Expert Stage Cultivator like you can’t be that weak, can you?”

Thyra’s face twitched.

This woman was shameless.

Wasn’t she the one who said she didn’t want it?

Why was she asking for it now?

However, soon, a small smile appeared on Thyra’s face.

She had prepared for something like this before. Then, Thyra threw a Ring toward Ember.

“20 plus Squad Leaders, 400 Unit Leaders, all their heads are inside it, check it whenever you want.”

Thyra smiled triumphantly.

And Nux...

He just noticed how quickly and effortlessly Ember changed the topic.

Nux then turned towards Ember, wanting to see that winning smile on her face, however, what he saw was an expression of pure shock.

“Y-You two killed so m-many?” Ember questioned in shock.

Thyra smiled,

“Well, it was our first war, so we weren’t able to do very well, I hope you can forgive us.”

“...” Ember turned silent.

This time, she had to answer.

20 Squad leaders...

This was simply absurd...

There were only 50-60 Squad Leaders in the enemy team to being with, and these two killed more than a third of that with just them alone.

Not only that, they had even killed 300 Unit Leaders as well...

This...

Just how did they do it?

Just how much were they running around in order to find their targets?

And how did they even have the energy to do... that after fighting for so long!?

“T-That must be the reason why there were so less casualties among our soldiers...” A deputy general muttered.

“...”

The tent turned silent again.

First, they saved 1000s of soldiers and now this...

J-Just who are these two!?

“Yo-”

Ember wanted to say something, however,

“General! General!

This is bad!”

A soldier rushed into the tent with a panicked look on his face.

“What is it?” A Deputy General frowned.

“General! You need to return!”

Chapter 311

When Nux entered Woods Dynasty's Army Camp, there were around 1,20,000 soldiers in the Camp.

Of course, the General did not take all the Soldiers with her for this attack.

Half of the Soldiers were left behind.

However, since they were only going to protect the base, not many higher-ranking officers were left behind.

There were no Deputy Generals, only 30 Squad Leaders, 500 Unit Leaders and the rest were Head Soldiers and Normal Soldiers.

All these soldiers had to do was to stay in the camp,

It was an easy thing to do.

Actually, it was more like a break for these soldiers,

However,

Something happened.

An hour after the Main Army left, 10 Expert Stage Cultivators appeared in this area and together, they assassinated all 30 Squad Leaders and then killed around 100 Unit Leaders while escaping.

This was disastrous.

The whole army panicked.

“How did this happen?”

Ember, who was looking at her subordinates' dead bodies questioned in a solemn tone.

“ ... ”

No one replied.

“Where did those 20 Expert Stage Cultivators come from?”

Ember questioned again.

The Three Deputy Generals started thinking.

A Kingdom's army only has 6-10 Expert Stage Cultivators, however, this does not mean that there are only 6-10 Expert Stage Cultivators in that Kingdom.

There are other Expert Stage Cultivators as well,

“The Nobles...”

Deputy General Lawrence muttered.

The answer was obvious, however,

“I don't understand...”

Why are the nobles moving?

Wasn't this War a farce?

And even if the Solid Earth Kingdom doesn't treat this as a Farce, the nobles moving makes no sense at all.”

When the Two counties are at War, the only time Nobles make a move is when they see the chance to earn some profit.

If they don't see this chance, they would not move at all.

The King cannot force them either, else, the King will be known as a Tyrant and planning a coup would be a lot easier.

In a War, nobles were the least helpful bunch,

It has always been that way.

However, this time, the Nobles of Solid Earth Kingdom were moving...

Ember and her three Deputy Generals could not understand the reason behind it.

“What about our spies? If the nobles were moving, then something must have happened inside the Solid Earth Kingdom, why weren’t we informed about it?”

Ember questioned.

“It might be possible that they only discussed this with the Dukes, not the rest of the nobles. If a big announcement wasn’t made, then the Spies won’t be able to report anything.” Another Deputy General presumed.

“Umm... how are we so sure that these Expert Stage assassins are nobles?”

What if it was something else?

A Hidden Team that belongs to the King alone or something like that...” Suddenly, Nux questioned.

Ember turned towards him and shook her head,

“It isn’t as easy as it sounds.

Grooming an Expert Stage Cultivator is a difficult time that needs a lot of time.

Of course, there are always chances that what you said was true, however, the chances of these assassins being nobles are higher.

In the end, all we are doing is presuming things.

We do not have accurate information.

However, one thing is clear.

The Solid Earth Kingdom's movements are strange.

First, they had an unusually high number of Soldiers inside the Deathspike Fort.

Second, their 20 Expert Stage Cultivators assassinated the leaders of our army that weren't even the part of War.

Something is going on inside the Solid Earth Kingdom...

I would need to report it.”

Ember muttered with a solemn expression on her face.

However, again, Nux couldn't understand,

“How are these actions strange?

They wanted to defend Deathspike Fort and make it there's, that is the reason why they fought so hard.

Then they used their assassins to Kill our Leaders to weaken our army.

All these actions were done in order to weaken our army.

Isn't that completely normal?”

Nux questioned.

However, Ember shook her head again.

“What you said would have been true if the Woods Dynasty and the Solid Earth Kingdom were at war with each other.”

“Huh?”

Nux frowned.

Ember understood his confusion and continued,

“As I said before, all of this was a Farce.”

“I thought it was pretty clear from when we saw that there were 50,000 soldiers defending that fort.

This is not a Farce.

It is an actual War.”

This time, Nux didn't back down.

“I agree with your words, Solid Earth Kingdom's actions are too much.

That is the reason why I said it was Strange.

You see, there is no enmity between the Woods Dynasty and the Solid Earth Kingdom, therefore, they have no reason to start this war.”

“Huh? What's the problem? In the end, the reason is only an excuse.

Even I can form a believable reason and start the War.

‘The Woods Dynasty attacked us when we were down, now, they have to pay for their actions.’

A simple but effective reason.

Thyra was impressed.

However, Ember wasn't.

“What you are talking about is ‘Forging a reason to influence the mass’, however, a War between two Kingdoms won't start with something foolish like this.

Nux, when Two Kingdoms fight, the one that benefits isn't one of those 2 Kingdoms, but the other Kingdoms.

Victory or Defeat doesn't matter, when you participate in War, you are weakened, at the same time, the other Kingdoms just enjoy the show and strengthen themselves.

This is extremely disadvantageous for a Kingdom,

And if we talk about the situation of our continent, where the four strongest Kingdoms rule, 2 Kingdom fighting is other is the worse decision those two Kingdoms could make.

Therefore, unless there is absolute enmity between the Two Kingdoms, they would never go to war with each other no matter what.”

Nux finally understood.

“However, the Solid Earth Kingdom's actions seem like they are pushing for War, which is completely unnecessary in this situation. This is why you think that their actions are strange, am I right?” Nux questioned.

“Indeed.”

Ember nodded and Nux's expression changed.

Chapter 312

Nobody other than Thyra noticed.

There was a small smile on Nux's face, it was only for a second, it would even be misunderstood with a slight twitch, however, Thyra, who was the most familiar with Nux could understand him very well.

Nux was excited.

Thyra frowned.

She couldn't understand why he had that face.

Why was he excited?

However, even though she was confused, Thyra didn't say anything.

And only after the meeting ended and Thyra and Nux returned inside their tent did she question,

“Why were you so excited?”

Nux looked at Thyra and smiled,

“Tsk Tsk, just how closely were you looking at my face for you to notice that?” He whispered seductively.

“Very closely.” Thyra brought her face close to Nux's and answered shamelessly.

“Tsk Tsk, what a pervert.”

“What can I do? It's the aftereffect of living with a certain someone.

That certain someone is so perverted that even I, a completely innocent woman was affected by him.”

Thyra replied and a smile appeared on Nux’s face.

Then, he sealed Thyra’s lips and after sharing a small kiss, he replied,

“Don’t blame that certain someone for your perverseness. He is not to blame, I believe that he is an innocent person.”

“Oh real-” Thyra wanted to reply, however, she soon realized something.

“Oi Oi, why did you change the topic, answer my question.

Why are you so excited?

Is there something I missed?”

Nux shook his head and answered,

“This war would continue.”

“Huh? That’s the reason why you are excited?” Thyra frowned.

“Indeed.” Nux nodded with a smile on his face.

And at the same time, he looked at the screen in front of him.

Yes, just as he dashed towards the enemy Army, his Quest System updated.

And if that wasn't enough then,

[Party System]

Yes, his Party System was activated as well.

He...

Had formed a party with 60,000 soldiers!

Fighting against 50,000 System points packet, with 60,000 Points Slaallies,

What was the result?

He was rich!

He was fucking rich!

When the war started, he had some little reservations about Killing humans, however, these last few days have been an eye opener for him.

He had learned,

In this world, human lives did not matter.

Anyone can Kill anyone and no one would blame him.

That is how this world works.

Of course, from all the novels he had read in his past life, Nux knew about it beforehand, however, knowing and accepting it in your mind are two different things.

Now, Nux had accepted it.

And he had realized his mistake.

He was taking things too leniently.

He needs to think more before taking any action. He needed to be more patient.

It wasn't like he had to figure everything out on his own, he, who was from another world, had a big advantage.

His women.

His women were all amazing people, he should rely on them and discuss things thoroughly before planning everything.

Ahem Ahem,

Back to the topic,

Nux's inner heart hasn't changed.

Killing humans still affected him, however, his mind had strengthened.

His mind had realized that it was all for the greater good.

And now that he gets System Points for Killing humans, his resolve got even stronger.

His calculations were simple, the more System Points he has, the higher number of abilities can he buy, and the higher number of abilities he has, the stronger he becomes.

Him becoming strong is something that increases the chances of him and his women surviving in this cruel world.

Therefore, Nux killed.

Not only that, he even wished that the war would continue so he could earn more and more points.

And things were going the way he wanted, he was obviously happy and was looking forward to the next war.

“Oh? Was your first experience on the battlefield too exciting for you?”

I didn't know you loved War so much.”

Thyra muttered and then, a dramatic expression appeared on her face,

“Wait... don't tell me...”

Is it because I am here with you?

Aha! Now I understand, here, you don't have to deal with those other annoying women, here, you can peacefully spend time with your favourite woman without any problems.

Hmm hmm, I can completely understand that.

Those women can get annoying indeed.

Don't worry, I won't tell them."

Thyra nodded to herself as she muttered.

Seeing her acting like that, Nux chuckled.

Then, he grabbed Thyra's butt, then he stepped forward, soon, his leg 'slipped' and the two of them fell to the ground.

"Let's finish what we started before, shall we?"

Thyra smiled back.

"Why not?"

...

On the other side, after everyone left her tent, a solemn look appeared on Ember's face and she ordered.

"Call Luke."

The soldier standing outside her tent heard her order and saluted,

"As you command, General."

A few minutes later, a man with a thin frame entered Ember's tent.

There was nothing special about him, black hair, black eyes, average looks, not only that, his strength wasn't anything much either.

He was just an Advance Stage Cultivator.

Now the question was, how did Ember know about a mere Advance Stage Head Soldier?

The reason behind this was because this man was Ember's most Loyal subordinate.

Someone so loyal that even though he had the talent to become a Grand Master Stage Cultivator, he decided to give up on his own life and not cultivate in order to become a Spy who can help Ember.

"Luke, I need you to do something for me."

"I will do it."

Without even hearing what she wanted, Luke nodded.

Ember, who was used to his attitude just smiled a little and then continued,

"I want you to visit the Solid Earth Kingdom and look at the situation yourself, I don't trust other spies.

How many subordinates you take with you depends on you.

I just want results within 3 weeks.

Can you do it?"

Chapter 313

It was 9 in the morning and Ember was roaming around the Army Camp, checking if she could find a variable. She has already sent a few Spies inside the Solid Earth Kingdom, now, all she had to do was wait and she would get the gist of the situation there.

Not only that, but she has also reported the incident of Squad Leaders being assassinated to the Dynast, or in other words, the King, however, she has yet to receive any response from that.

Lack of information.

This was a severe issue.

Her limbs were tied because of this.

If things stay the same, she wouldn't be able to plan her next move.

All she could do was act like a turtle, roam around her camp and keep the place safe from any possible future attacks.

Yes, even though they have won this war, the atmosphere of the Woods Dynasty's army camp was stale and silent.

Soldiers were on high alert.

Even drinking wasn't allowed.

“Oh? So you finally returned? Took you long enough.”

While Ember was walking around the camp, she heard a voice.

“Well, they kept me there for far too long.”

Ember frowned. Then, she turned around and noticed that this tent belonged to Thyra.

“Tsk Tsk, they must be very desperate.”

Ember heard Thyra’s voice. Not only that, but she had even recognized the second person’s voice as well, it was Nux.

And from how they were talking, it looked like Nux has returned from somewhere, but the problem is...

That she didn’t see Nux leaving the Army Camp.

Did he sneak out?

Where did he go?

‘Wait...’

Suddenly, Ember thought of a possibility.

From the start, Nux and Thyra were too good.

First, they saved 2 of her strongest squads from getting annihilated by revealing the Deathspike Trap, then he revealed the number of Soldiers inside the Deathspike Fort correctly when even her, the General of the army had no clue about it. Then, that unnaturally high number of Kills.

Everything about Nux and Thyra was too good to be true.

So good that Ember was...

A little suspicious.

Were these two hiding something?

Are these two their allies or enemies?

‘What are they talking about?’ Ember wondered inwardly as she hid and continued to listen to their conversation.

“Haah! They must have sucked you dry huh? Those desperate bastards.”

Thyra muttered and Ember’s frown deepened.

‘Sucked him dry? Is this some sort of code word?’

Are they talking about information?

The enemies sucked all the information out of Nux’s mouth?

Is that what Thyra is talking about right now?’

Ember wondered inwardly.

“Of course not!”

Nux, however, shook his head and then continued,

“Trust me, I still have a lot of energy left.”

‘Energy... does this mean that he still hasn’t fully revealed everything yet?’

Ember had her own opinions and the more she heard their conversation, the surer she felt.

She might be right.

Nux and Thyra might be spies sent by the Solid Earth Kingdom.

“Wait...”

Suddenly, Thyra muttered, then, she looked at Nux’s hairs and his face and her eyes turned cold.

“So you took the bath already?” She questioned.

“Yeah, I did.”

Nux nodded.

“Who was it? Wait, don’t tell me, I can already guess it.

It must have been that princess. I am sure of it.”

‘Princess? He directly shares our secret with the Princess of the Solid Earth Kingdom!?’

Also, what the hell does ‘taking bath’ means?

Is it another code word?

Does this mean exchanging information?

What is he getting in return then? Money? Power? Or is it something else?’

“Indeed, it was her.” Nux nodded.

“Hmph, as I expected.

That girl is a little too attached to you. Hmph Hmph!”

Thyra snorted.

‘Wait... a little too attached to him... does this mean that Nux is the closest spy who works for the Princess of the Solid Earth Kingdom?’

If that is the case, then I can get a lot of information about the Solid Earth Kingdom if I capture him.’

Ember thought inwardly and a determined look appeared in her eyes.

“Oh C’mon, though I have already taken a bath, it doesn’t mean I can’t take another.

If you are jealous, you can tell me, you know?”

Nux chuckled.

“I am not jealous.” Thyra denied it with a firm face.

“And as for bathing with you,
I will take you up on that offer.”

“Hehehe~

Tsundere Thyra. So cute.” Nux chuckled and Thyra blushed.

Ember, on the other hand, furrowed her brows and groaned inwardly.

‘Ugghh... this code language is too complicated, I am unable to decipher it...

If ‘taking bath’ is exchanging information, then why are the two of them doing it? Aren’t they working together? Why would they exchange information with each other?

And what is Tsundere?

Ugghh... this is so confusing...’

Ember was fiery and bold, thinking too much wasn’t her style, therefore, since she couldn’t understand anything after thinking about this for so long, she decided to do it in her own way.

She decided to capture Nux and Thyra and force them to spill everything.

Of course, there is a chance that the two of them were innocent, however, at a time like this when she knows practically nothing about the enemies,

Doubting every single thing is a way to go.

In the end, if she was wrong, she would bow her head and apologize.

Ember made up her mind, then, her red eyes shined and she entered Thyra's tent with her sword in her hand.

“Don't move!”

She roared.

Nux and Thyra's eyes widened in surprise when they saw her entering like that.

“What is the meaning of this!?” Thyra questioned in anger. She couldn't believe that this woman barged into her room like that!

And she did it just as she was about to have a good time!

How shameless!

“...”

However, instead of a reply, all she got to see was Ember's face who was looking at Nux with absolute shock on her face.

“Y-You... you are a child!?”

Chapter 314

“Y-You... you are a child!?”

Ember shouted in shock.

This face... she was sure that it was no older than 25!

And this man is an Expert Stage Cultivator!

What the hell is happening!?

“No, I am not a child, I am an adult.

I apologize if you misunderstood.”

Nux denied.

“Who do you think you are fooling!? Cultivation might extend your lifespan however, you still get older.

A 60-year-old Cultivator may look like he is in his late 20s, however, this...

You don't even look like you are 20!

Do you think I am a fool!?”

“No, that is no-”

“No! no, you can't fool me!

Alright, let's do it.

Let me see your bone age!

This way, I will be able to confirm it.”

“ ... ”

Nux turned silent.

Bone Age, in this world where Cultivators roam around freely and a 100-year-old man, might look like a handsome man in his early 30s, the concept of Bone Age was very popular.

No matter how much one cultivates, bone age was something unchangeable.

The Bone Age is a sure-shot way of knowing the age of a person.

Therefore, when she noticed that Nux was still trying to hide it, Ember suggested checking Nux's bone age.

However,

“As I was saying, I am an Adult.

A soon-to-be 19-year-old Adult.”

Nux wasn't planning to hide it from the start.

“ ... ”

This time, Ember was the one who turned silent.

She couldn't believe the bullshit she was hearing.

A 19-year-old Expert Stage Cultivator...

What sort of absurd talent is that!?

Even a person who has Exceptional level talent doesn't have this sort of absurd growth!

And mind you, Exceptional Level Talent can grow into Emperor Stage Cultivator!

If this boy has a talent higher than that...

Then...

Then... just what realm could he reach?

Just who was this monster!?

Ember wondered inwardly.

“You see that?

This is the reason why we don't reveal our faces.”

Ember finally came out of her reverie when she heard Thyra's voice. She then turned towards her and Thyra continued.

“A 19-year-old Expert Stage Cultivator, absurd right?

Anyone would react like how you are reacting.

However, that's not it.

The more people learn about him, the more dangerous it will get. You are experienced, you would know how others would react, right?”

Thyra questioned and Ember turned silent.

How could she not understand?

She has lived in this world for 100 years after all.

A small smile appeared on Nux's face as he stepped forward and walked toward Ember.

“Ember Windfall, I request you to hide this fact from others. Let this be our personnel little secret, how about it?” Nux whispered sweetly.

“Take it as you returning the favour of the time when we saved your soldiers from that Deathspike trap.”

Thyra muttered.

“Naah, she doesn’t need to see it as returning a favour, right, Miss Ember?” Nux interrupted. Then, he brought his face dangerously close to Ember and smiled,

“You can keep this a secret just because of how close we two are, right?”

Ember looked at Nux’s face and frowned.

This man...

He was a prodigy, she understands that.

But...

But why is he so handsome!?

Just why is god so generous to him!?

However, instead of getting flustered like a girl in her teens, the general smiled.

This was an opportunity, an opportunity to tease Thyra.

Ember then moved her face, placed her hand on the back of Nux’s neck and their forehead touched each other. The two of them could feel each other’s breaths touching each other, then, a small, seductive smile appeared on Ember’s face and she looked at Thyra.

“Indeed, why are you making it sound like a deal, Thyra? I and Nux are close, we don’t need deals. Our hearts are connected to each other. We understand each other. Therefore, I would keep this a secret without treating this as a favour.”

“Tch.”

Thyra snorted and turned her face away.

Seeing her reaction, Ember smiled in satisfaction, then, she turned towards Nux and saw his golden eyes looking at her and shining brightly.

For some reason, Ember's heart skipped a beat and she quickly stepped back.

Seeing that scene, Thyra smiled inwardly.

'You are playing with fire, General Ember Windfall.

A fire that will engulf you no matter how hard you resist.

Of course, you won't realize it until you are completely engulfed in those flames.'

"Oh right, General Ember, why did you rush into our tent with the sword in your hands?" Suddenly, Nux questioned.

"O-Oh, this?" Ember finally realized and then, she shook her head.

"This is nothing."

Her doubts were cleared.

Nux was a monster, if the Solid Earth Kingdom knew his existence, then he would have either died or would have become their most treasured treasure.

There is no way they would send him as a Spy.

However, now that she thinks about it, more and more questions appeared in her mind, but before she could ask anything, Nux questioned.

"Oh c'mon, you won't just barge into our tent with your sword in your hand without any reason, right?"

You can tell me, didn't you say it just now?

We two are very close to each other.

Share it with me.”

“I... I heard your conversation about you returning from somewhere, them sucking you dry, bathing together and thought you were a spy...”

Ember thought about it and then decided to answer.

“ ...”

“ ...”

Nux and Thyra were surprised.

Everything was okay... but...

How the hell is their conversation and them being spies related!?

“Wait...” Suddenly, Thyra frowned.

Then, she turned toward Ember and narrowed her eyes.

“So you heard everything from the start to finish?”

A teasing smile appeared on Ember’s face,

“Yes, I heard about you and him bathing together~

Fufufu~ I want to join in as well~”

Thyra, however, wasn’t in the mood to laugh or act ‘ashamed’.

“So am I correct to assume that you were hiding?”

“W-Well... I apologise for peeping into your conversation like this...”

A solemn look appeared on Thyra’s face.

Seeing that, Ember frowned.

Why was Thyra acting like that? Was she offended because she heard their conversation?

Well, she was in the wrong, so, she was prepared to apologise.

However, Thyra had a different thing in her mind.

She turned towards Nux and used the telepathic link.

‘Your [Sense] didn’t work.’

Nux’s eyes widened in surprise.

Chapter 315

‘Your [Sense] didn’t work.’

Nux’s eyes widened in surprise when he realized that.

Instinctively, he used his [Sense] again, and just like any other time, it was working perfectly fine.

He could see Thyra, Ember, inside the tent, outside the tent, he could see everything clearly.

Nux frowned.

‘It’s working... then why didn’t it work before...?’

Nux thought inwardly.

He then looked at Ember’s status again.

[Name: Ember Windstar.]

[Age: 152]

[Mana Cultivation: King.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal. ]

[Race: Human]

[Occupation: General of the Woods Dynasty.]

[Talent: High]

[LVL: 61]

[HP: 740/740]

[MP: 1450/1450]

[STR: 72]

[AGL: 78]

[VIT: 74]

[STM: 73]

[INT: 145]

[DEF: 75]

...

While he was at it, he looked at [Sense]'s description again.

[Sense]

[5 Star Ability]

[Description: When activated, the user will be able to sense everything around him. The range will depend on the user's MP (1 MP = 1 meter).]

[Note: The ability will be activated automatically if someone is deliberately hiding his/her presence and is in the detection range of the ability.]

[Note: The ability will fail to detect the presence of a cultivator whose MP is 2 times more than the Host's]

'Cultivator whose MP is 2 times higher than the Host's...

Let alone being 2 times higher than mine, Ember's MP is less than mine. Then why is [Sense] not working?'

Nux was confused.

“What happened? Why do you two look so strange? Do you really want me to apologize right now? If that’s the case, I can do i-”

Ember, who was just about to bow her head in order to apologize was stopped by Nux.

“No, General Ember, we aren’t worried about that.”

“Then what’s the problem?” Ember questioned.

“...”

Nux turned silent.

Then, he turned toward Thyra and used their connection.

‘We need to test it out.’

‘I agree.’

Thyra agreed.

Nux’s abilities not working, this would be a big blow to him.

They had to test this out and make sure what happened.

Nux then turned towards Ember and muttered,

“General Ember, I need your help.”

“What do you want? You can tell me anything.”

Seeing the solemn look on Nux’s face, Ember’s face turned solemn as well and she muttered.

“Can you go out with Thyra and do what she said? I promise it isn’t something complicated.”

“Huh?” Ember was taken aback by this strange request.

However, in the end, she didn't think too much and nodded.

“Alright.”

Nux then turned towards Thyra and nodded.

Thyra nodded back, then, she walked towards Ember and the two of them left the tent.

‘Can you still see us?’ After leaving the tent, Thyra questioned.

‘Yes, I can.’

Nux nodded.

‘Now I will deactivate my [Sense], try hiding.’

Nux muttered.

‘Alright.’

Thyra then walked towards the Tent and hid.

And as soon as she did, Nux's [Sense] activated automatically.

‘It is working...’ Nux muttered.

Thyra frowned.

‘Tell Ember to do the same.’

Nux muttered.

Thyra nodded and then walked towards Ember who was looking at her with a strange look on her face.

“General, can you please go and hide there as I did?”

“Hide?” Ember frowned.

“Yes, hide, just like how you hid when you were peeing at our conversation.”

Thyra muttered.

“Is this some sort of strange way of punishing me?” Ember questioned.

“No, it is not like that, trust me, it is important for us.

You promised, now you can’t go back on your words.”

Ember looked at Thyra and then sighed,

“Whatever...”

Then, Ember walked toward the Tent and hid herself.

‘She hid herself. Was your [Sense] activated?’

Thyra questioned.

‘No...’

Nux replied.

‘Try using [Sense] on your own and see if you can see her.’

Thyra suggested.

Nux did as she told, [Sense] was activated, however, Ember was nowhere to be seen.

The [Sense] was unable to capture her...

Nux told this to Thyra and her frown deepened.

‘Tell her to move around.’

Nux muttered.

“General Ember, this should be enough, please come here.”

Ember muttered and then walked towards Thyra.

Nux activated his [Sense] again and this time, he could see Ember with his [Sense].

‘How does this work?’

Nux muttered.

‘I have asked others, they are thinking about it, I think they would come up with their theories soon.’ Thyra muttered.

‘Mhm, you did a good job.’

‘You can bring her in.’

Thyra nodded and she and Ember entered the tent.

“I don’t understand what you two are trying to do.”

“We are trying to confirm something, General Ember.”

“Confirm what?”

“Well, it is related to one of my deepest secrets, I can’t share it with you now, can I?”

Nux smiled teasingly.

“Oh? Didn’t you say that we two are very close? Why are you hiding your secrets from me?” Ember questioned.

Nux walked towards Ember and moved his face close to hers.

“Are you saying that you aren’t hiding anything from me, Ember?”

Ember stepped back.

“Oh well, I guess we are not that close then,”

She muttered coldly.

“Indeed, I would prefer if we were closer than this.”

Nux nodded slowly.

A small smile appeared on Ember’s face as she looked at Thyra before looking at Nux again,

“Well, we can always start slowly by spending time with ‘just the two of us’, right?” Ember chuckled. Thyra’s face twitched and seeing that, Ember smiled in satisfaction.

“Of course, I will look forward to that.”

“Mhm, then why waste time? I will be free in like, 3 hours. How about you come to my tent after that? Alone, of course.”

Ember offered.

“I will gladly take that offer.”

Nux smiled.

Ember’s smile widened and when she noticed Thyra glaring at her, she chuckled.

Then, she turned around and waved her hands,

“Alright then, Nux.

We will meet 3 hours later, don’t be late.”

“I won’t.”

Nux smiled.

Ember left the tent.

As soon as she left, Nux's face turned serious again.

'Have you thought of anything?'

He questioned.

And soon, he got his answer,

'I do have a theory in my mind.'

Chapter 316

‘I do have a theory in my mind.’

Amaya muttered.

‘What is it?’

Nux questioned curiously.

‘From what I know, [Sense] works on ‘Intent to hide’.

That means, if someone ‘wants’ to hide from you, the [Sense] will be activated and you will know where that someone is.

Ember, however, comes out as an exception.

She, for some reason, doesn’t get detected by you [Sense].

Of course, I have thought of a possibility where just like Thyra, who talked about ‘wanting to kill you’ without any ‘intent’ and got away with it, there might be a chance where Ember did the same thing.

That means, she hid without the ‘intent to hide’, however, there are two problems with that.

First, hiding without ‘intent of hiding’ seems impossible. Thyra just spoke those words, she didn’t take any action, Ember, however, was ‘doing’ that action, the possibility of her doing something like that without the ‘intent’ is nearly zero, especially when she doesn’t know about your [Sense] ability.

The second is when you used your [Sense] yourself and still weren’t able to find Ember.

If [Sense] is activated by you, intent to hide or not doesn’t matter.

You will see everything around you without any problems.

Then why did Ember get away with it?

Due to this, I believe that rather than hiding the 'Intent', Ember got away from [Sense] with something else. Not only that, but I also believe that she didn't do this 'something else' on her own.

I suspect that the problem is with the ability, not Ember.

Ember didn't use any special ways to avoid your [Sense], rather, there is something different about Ember that makes her undetectable from [Sense].

And what is the difference between Ember and all the other people you have met so far?'

After a long explanation, Amaya questioned.

Nux narrowed his eyes and after thinking for a while, he answered.

'Her cultivation.'

'Correct.'

Amaya smiled.

'Ember is the Second King Stage Cultivator you have met. Also, the Headmaster of the Academy, the other King Stage Cultivator never tried to hide from you, therefore, you can safely say that Ember is the first King Stage Cultivator you have tried to use your [Sense] on.

Of course, from our observations, we have seen that [Sense] has no problem in 'seeing' the King Stage Cultivator using a normal way, but the problem arises when the King Stage Cultivators try to hide.

So according to me,

[Sense] fails to detect a King Stage Cultivator if he intends to hide from you.

And I believe that it will be the same for Cultivators above King Stage, that means, [Sense] won't be able to detect the Emperors either.'

Amaya explained.

'I still do not understand one thing.

Why is this happening?

According to what I know, as long as my target's Mana isn't twice mine, [Sense] will work. However, since the conditions aren't met in this case, why is [Sense] not working properly?'

This time, however, Amaya shook her head,

'I do not have an answer to that.'

'...'

Nux turned silent.

'Actually, it doesn't really matter.'

Suddenly, Felberta muttered.

'Hmm?'

Nux frowned and Felberta continued.

'Why it is happening doesn't matter, of course, it would be better if we knew what is happening, however, even if we don't know what has happened, we won't be able to change anything. It's not like we can change your ability, right?'

Rather than thinking about this, I believe it would be better to fully understand the limitations of Depth.

Think of every single possibility.

Every single way to beat [Sense].

That would be the best.’

‘I agree with Sister Fel.’

Allura nodded in agreement.

‘I agree as well.’

Amaya agreed as well.

‘You are about to meet Ember, ask for her help.’

Thyra suggested.

‘Hmm? What? He is going to meet Sister Ember?’

Skyla’s ears perked up as soon as she heard Thyra’s words and she questioned.

Yes, she has already started calling Ember ‘Sister Ember’, however, even though she had accepted it already, for some reason, she didn’t like that Nux was going to meet her.

‘Huh? Nux? You are going to meet Ember? Isn’t that too soon?’

Amaya, of course, didn’t like this as well.

‘Too soon? Amaya, I have been here for 2 weeks now...

Or do you want me to stay here for a few months?’

Nux dropped the bomb.

‘No! Of course not!’

‘Amaya you bitch! What are you talking about!?’

“Oi oi oi, you can just not see him if you want!

Don’t group us with you!’

‘Indeed indeed.’

Everyone attacked Amaya.

Except,

‘Hmm, actually, it doesn’t sound that bad.

Guys, Amaya doesn’t mean any harm, she just wants Nux to train more, so don’t blame her.’

Thyra muttered with a small smile on her face.

‘Shut up you bitch!

I did not mean that. Nux, you should go meet Ember as soon as possible, then you should fuck her as soon as possible.

Then you should return.’

Amaya muttered with a smile on her face.

‘ ... ’

‘ ... ’

‘ ... ’

Everyone turned silent.

Nux chuckled.

He really enjoyed talking to his women.

‘Alright Amaya, I will do as you say.’

Nux smiled.

‘ ... ’

‘ ... ’

‘ ... ’

And his women turned silent again.

Nux chuckled again and continued talking.

Just like that, 3 hours passed by, seeing the time, Nux stood up.

It was time to meet Ember.

“You are late.”

As Nux entered Ember’s tent, she muttered while sitting on her chair.

Nux smiled, then, he walked forward and sat on the chair placed in front of her.

“I apologize.”

“Oh well, whatever.

It wasn’t an official meeting.

It is just two friends meeting each other. So we don’t have to be so strict about it.”

“Indeed indeed.”

Nux nodded his head continuously.

“Alright then, my friend.

Let me ask a few questions.”

Sticking to her usual way of doing things, Ember muttered without wasting any time.

“Ask what you what.”

Nux smiled.

Then, a serious look appeared on Ember’s face and she questioned,

“What is your relationship with the Skyfall Kingdom.”

Chapter 317

“What is your relationship with the Skyfall Kingdom?”

Ember questioned with a small, friendly smile on her face.

“Oh ho, starting right from a complex topic I see,”

Nux muttered with a small smile on his face.

“You don’t have to answer me if you don’t want to. I won’t complain.”

Ember muttered.

Nux nodded and then, he answered,

“Other than the fact that I grew up there, I have no relationship with the Skyfall Kingdom.”

Hearing this answer, Ember frowned.

“As I said, you can choose not to answer if you want. I won’t say anything. However, I would prefer it if you don’t lie.

Lying won’t help us in any way, rather, it would only create a barrier between us.”

Nux, however, shook his head,

“I am not lying.

I really have no relationship with the Skyfall Kingdom, however, I do have some relationships with certain members of the Royal Family.”

Nux answered with a playful smile on his face.

“Arvina Skyfall I presume?”

Ember guessed.

“Indeed.”

Nux nodded his head.

“I guessed it. That girl doesn’t give out her badge very often.

So? How are you related to her?”

Ember questioned.

“She is my Teacher.”

Nux answered.

“Teacher? As in your personnel teacher?”

“Yes, recently, I joined Skyfall Royal Academy and caught her eyes. Then, she recruited me as her student and of course, I accepted readily.”

“Sounds like something she would do.”

Ember nodded with a smile on her face.

“You two seem to know each other.”

Nux commented.

“Well, we used to be close when she was small. However, as more and more time passed and she realized her responsibilities as the Consort of the Skyfall Kingdom and me, as the General of the Woods Dynasty, we weren’t able to spend much time with each other.”

Ember answered and Nux nodded.

Then, Ember continued,

“So you are telling me that the Royal Consort knows about your absurd talent.”

“She does, of course. She is my teacher.”

“Then why are you here? Shouldn’t you stay inside the Academy and train under her?” Ember questioned.

“She was the one who send me here. She says that I am too immature and wants me to grow up.”

Nux answered.

“Huh? You are just 19 years old? What does she expect? Isn’t the solution to this problem very simple? We just have to wait for 30-40 years, you will automatically be mature by that time.”

Ember frowned.

Wasn’t her friend being a little too immature?

Why would she send a 19-year-old boy to War?

Why if he dies?

Why would she risk losing a monstrous talent like Nux for something so stupid?

Ember couldn’t understand what was going on inside Arvina’s mind.

Nux adjusted his body as he sat more comfortably on the chair and muttered. “Teacher Arvina said that if we wait for 30-40 years, it would already be too late.”

Hearing those words, Ember frowned.

And seeing that reaction, Nux smiled, then, he bent his body towards Ember, looked around a few times and then, he whispered.

“Since I would already become an Emperor Stage Cultivator by that time and of course, I can’t become mature if I am the strongest, now can I?”

“!!!”

Ember’s eyes widened in surprise.

“Y-Y-You know about Emperor Stage!?”

“Well, Teacher Arvina told me about them, each Kingdom has one protecting them, they are the reason why the Kingdoms rule over all others, right?”

Nux smiled.

Ember was dumbfounded.

What Nux just said was a Kingdom Level Secret that shouldn’t be revealed in any scenario.

She knew that Arvina had some connections with Skyfall Kingdom’s Emperor Stage Cultivator, however, she just couldn’t understand one thing.

Why would she tell something like that to Nux!?

Was she out of her mind!?

Actually, that was okay, but...

Emperor Stage in 40 years!? What the hell is that!? What kind of absurd confidence is that!?

‘Wait... ‘

Suddenly, Ember realized something.

A 19-year-old Expert Stage Cultivator...

The youngest Expert Stage Cultivator she has ever met was 54 years old...

Ember then looked at Nux and started thinking.

‘If it is him... then... he might be able to do it...’

Suddenly, another thought appeared in Ember’s mind,

“If my memory serves me right, the Emperor Stage Cultivator of the Skyfall Kingdom still has many years left...

if you become Emperor Stage as well then...”

Ember didn’t say anymore.

However, the meaning of her words was clear.

A grave expression appeared on her face.

2 Emperors... this would be too advantageous for the Skyfall Kingdom and disadvantageous for the other 3 Kingdoms, which, includes her Dynasty as well...

This was clearly bad for her and her Dynasty’s future, not only that, but the source of all the future troubles is sitting right in front of her.

Ember started thinking...

Should she...

Get rid of him right now?

Then, Ember’s eyes fell on Nux who was looking at her with a small smile on his face.

She quickly shook her head.

‘What are you thinking, Ember!?’

He trusts you!

How can you betray his trust like that!?’

Soon, however, another thought appeared in her mind,

‘It is his fault for trusting you.

This is related to the two strongest powers, if you don’t make a move right now, he will make his move in the future.

This might even destroy the Woods Dynasty.

You have to get rid of him now that you have this chance.’

‘What about Arvina then!? She sent her student here because she trusted you!

Are you going to betray her as well!?’

White Ember questioned.

‘She sent her student here so that he can train. She is treating us as some sort of practice dummy!’

Red Ember muttered.

‘Y-You! How can you think like that!?’

White Ember questioned in rage.

‘This is the truth!’

Red Ember spat.

In midst of their fight, Ember sat there with a confused expression on her face,

However, her confusion was dealt with by Nux’s next words.

“Do not worry, as I said before,

I do not belong to the Skyfall Kingdom.”

Chapter 318

“Do not worry, as I said before,

I do not belong to the Skyfall Kingdom.”

Nux muttered with a small smile on his face.

“Huh?” Ember, however, frowned when she heard those words.

“How is that possible? You are going to become an Emperor Stage Cultivator, there is no way the Skyfall Kingdom will let you go.

I assume that you are being manipulated by your teacher.

The higher-ups in the Skyfall Kingdom must already know about you by now.” Since she was already in a very confused state, she wasn’t able to control herself and spoke directly.

Nux, however, shook his head and muttered.

“Believe me, I do not belong to the Skyfall Kingdom.”

“...”

Ember turned silent.

She wanted to say that Nux was being ridiculous and was being lied to, however, seeing those eyes, she was unable to say those words out loud.

There was not a glimpse of uncertainty in those eyes.

She felt like Nux knew what he was talking about.

However, as a General, she understood the working of her Dynasty.

She knew how what lengths could the higher-ups of a Power could go in order to get what they want.

This is not true for the Skyfall Kingdom or the Woods Dynasty alone. It is true for every single power in this world.

From a Baron's house to the Royal Family, the core of power is always the same.

Nux, however, seems to be completely clueless about this, therefore, for some reason, Ember decided to tell the truth about this world.

“Think with me here.

Since you live in the Skyfall Kingdom, there have to be many people who know about your talent.

There is no way someone like you can stay hidden.

Trust me, if more than 10 people know about your existence, the Royal Family must be knowing about it by now.

And if the Royal Family know about you and you do not wish to become the Protector of the Kingdom, then sooner or later,

You will be assassinated.”

Seeing the solemn look on Ember's face, a small smile appeared on Nux's face, then, he shook his head.

“Do not worry, what you think won't happen.”

Hearing those confident words, Ember wanted to facepalm.

Why is this boy not understanding what she is talking about?

She wondered in her head.

And as if seeing through her thoughts, Nux smiled,

“I am not saying what I am saying without any reason.

My Teacher, Arvina Skyfall, is the one helping me hide my secret from others, she wants me to hide and cultivate till I become an Emperor Stage Cultivat-” “Nux, don’t forget, this ‘Teacher Arvina’ you are talking about is also the Royal Consort of the Skyfall Kingdom.

Do not trust a Royal, Nux.

They are made from lies.

They can come up with a lie right in front of you and make it look like what they said couldn’t be truer.

By now, Arvina, who is helping you hide this secret must have already reported this to the King of the Skyfall Kingdom.”

Ember muttered.

“Hmm? Isn’t teacher Arvina your friend? Why are you talking like that?”

Nux questioned out of curiosity.

“Well, she is indeed my friend, however, it has been years since she became part of the Royal Family, she is different from before.

Of course, the same goes for me as well, I am different from before since I became the General of the Woods Dynasty.”

Ember answered.

“So this means what you said was just you assuming everything just because of the fact that Teacher is part of the Royal Family?” Nux questioned.

Ember frowned.

“She is part of the Royal Family, you are taking this ‘fact’ too lightly here.”

“I will ask again, everything you said just now was just you assuming everything just because Teacher is part of the Royal Family?”

Nux repeated.

“Yes, however, it is not baseless assumptions, I have experienced many people who have gone through many different changes once they became part of the Royal Family.

That place is a deep, dark marsh.

A place of no return.”

Ember nodded.

“Well, what you think isn’t wrong.”

Nux nodded his head.

Ember thought that this boy finally understood what she was talking about, however, these thoughts vanished as Nux continued.

“You are right, however, I will still choose to believe my judgement. The time I have spent with Teacher Arvina, the sincerity I have seen in her eyes, and her pride as a warrior that would never allow her to go back on her words, I would rather believe these things than make assumptions.”

“ ... ”

This time, Ember didn’t have any way to respond.

I would rather trust my Teacher than trust useless assumptions...

Shouldn’t she do the same thing?

Shouldn’t she trust her friend rather than trusting these assumptions?

She should, however, after living for so many years, she has learned that rather than trusting a person, trusting assumptions is often proven correct.

“Of course, if my judgement is incorrect, then I am ready to deal with the consequences.”

Nux muttered with a smile.

And hearing those words, the General came out of her reverie and frowned.

She just thought that Nux might not be as immature as she thought he is, however, he just decided to go on and prove her wrong again.

“Consequences?” She raised her eyebrows.

“You will deal with the consequences? Do you even know what the consequences are?”

“Well, I would have to fight against a Kingdom.”

Nux muttered.

“...”

Again, Ember turned silent.

She was dumbfounded at how nonchalant Nux sounded.

“Or in other words, you will lose your life.”

She muttered.

“Well, not necessarily.” Nux smiled and Ember frowned.

And seeing her expression, Nux’s smile widened.

“General Ember, I am not a fool.

I do not move without a plan.

I decided to trust my Teacher, however, this does not mean I am willing to put my life in her hands.”

“ ... ”

Ember didn't say anything and continued to listen.

“If the King already knows about it, then sooner or later, he will attack me. Of course, the Emperor Stage Cultivator won't show herself just because of a mere Expert Stage Cultivator, at best, there would be 2 or 3 King Stage Cultivators attacking me.

And General Ember, since you are my close friend, let me tell you a secret.

Although I am an Expert Stage Cultivator, I am serious, I can easily get away from a few King Stage Cultivators pursuing me.

I am stronger than I look.”

Chapter 319

“Although I am an Expert Stage Cultivator, I am serious, I can easily get away from a few King Stage Cultivators pursuing me.

I am stronger than I look.”

Nux smiled playfully and Ember narrowed her eyes.

If it was anyone else other than Nux, she would have doubted these words, however, Nux was a monstrous prodigy,

He wouldn't have survived this far if he didn't have a few trump cards hidden.

Also, Nux never said he could defeat King Stage Cultivators.

He said he could run away from them.

Although this wasn't something very common, there have been a few cases where an Expert Stage Cultivator survived an assault from a King Stage Cultivator.

Therefore, Nux achieving that isn't something impossible.

However,

“How are you so sure about it?” Ember questioned.

She wanted to know more about it.

“That,

Is a secret.”

Nux smiled.

Ember narrowed her eyes in frustration, however, she soon controlled herself and questioned.

“Have you tested it before?”

“No, I have not.” Nux shook his head.

“How about you test it with me here? I am sure it will help you.”

Ember offered with a smile.

She had two reasons to do what she did,

First, she wanted to help Nux,

Second, she wanted to see if Nux could actually do it.

Getting away from a King Stage Cultivator, she wanted to see how Nux would do or try to do it.

She wanted to see why he was so confident.

However, as if trying to annoy her purposefully, Nux shook his head,

“As I said, it is a secret and is my trump card.

I can’t show it to you carelessly.”

“But wouldn’t it be better if you knew if it would work or not with full certainty?” Ember questioned.

“It would, however, I will still not risk it.”

Nux smiled.

Ember’s face twitched in frustration, however, soon, a small smile appeared on her face.

“Hmmm, so you are telling me that you won’t use it unless it is absolutely necessary?”

“Yes.”

“You are saying that you won’t reveal your secret unless a King Stage Cultivator is coming for your life? Is that correct?”

“Yes, it is.”

Nux nodded and Ember’s smile widened.

Different thoughts were running wild in her mind right now.

However, Nux shook his head.

“Don’t do what you are thinking of doing.”

He muttered with a soft smile on his face.

“Huh? Why not?” Ember questioned.

She didn’t even try to deny it.

She knew Nux had caught on as well.

“Well, as I said, I will only use it if my life is on the line and if you push me that far,

I will take my revenge.”

“...”

Ember turned silent.

For a moment, she found herself lost in Nux’s golden eyes that were shining uncontrollably.

It took her a good minute to bring her mind out of that frozen state and once she returned, she looked at Nux and smiled playfully.

“Oh? So you will attack me after you become a King Stage Cultivator?”

Nux shook his head,

“No, I will attack you once I become strong enough to kill you.

I am a very petty man, General Ember.

If you come after my life, I won't let you go scot-free.”

Nux muttered with a solemn expression on his face.

Inwardly, however, he was praising himself for acting like that.

He has noticed that Ember was kind of a combination of Arvina, Amaya and Thyra.

She is prideful, she is a good Leader and she can kill without blinking her eyes.

Now the next question was,

What kind of man would a woman like Ember prefer?

The answer was simple.

A wild, dangerous, strong and petty man.

A man who would match her energy.

A man who would be stronger than her.

A man, who would defeat her.

That would be the type of man Ember would like.

And this is exactly how Nux would present himself in front of Ember.

His methods seemed to have worked as a wide smile appeared on the General's face, and along with that, a ferocious aura was released from her body, trying to engulf Nux without any mercy.

However, no matter how experienced she was, no matter how many people she has killed before and no matter dangerous she is, her aura wasn't able to threaten Nux who was stronger than her.

Nux tackled her aura with an expressionless look on his face.

He treated it as if it doesn't even exist.

Seeing this, Ember's smile widened even more.

"I really want to attack you right now."

She spoke out loud as her red eyes shined brightly.

Right now, her whole body was trembling in excitement, however, soon, her body stopped trembling and she calmed down.

"I really want to attack you right now, however, if I do, you will become my enemy in the future.

That, I do not want.

Therefore, I have decided to wait.

I will wait until you become a King Stage Cultivator.

And once you do, I will fight you all I want."

Ember smiled excitedly.

Seeing her acting like that, Nux smiled.

"Be prepared to be defeated."

He taunted.

“Heh, we will see about that.”

Ember chuckled.

The two of them looked at each other with smiles on their faces and after a while, another question popped up in Ember’s mind.

“Mind if I ask you another question?”

“Hmm? Go ahead.”

“Let’s say you are wrong and were betrayed by your Teacher.

You were attacked by the Skyfall Kingdom, however, you managed to escape.

What would you do after that? How will you take revenge against the Entire Kingdom that has an Emperor Stage Cultivator defending it?”

Instead of answering, Nux questioned back.

“What do you think would the Dynast say if I reveal my talent to him and tell him about my intentions of joining ranks of Woods Dynasty?”

Ember raised her eyebrow,

“You would betray your Kingdom just because you want revenge?”

“Betray? Why are you making it sound like I am the one betraying? Aren’t they the ones who attacked me first?

Also, it’s not like I have any attachment to the Skyfall Kingdom, as I said, I was just born there.

I have no other relationship with that Kingdom.”

“What about Arvina?

What would you do with the Teacher who betrayed you?"

Chapter 320

“What about Arvina?”

“What would you do with the Teacher who betrayed you?”

Ember questioned.

Nux’s face turned solemn and he answered,

“I will kill her as painlessly as possible.”

“You will kill her?” Ember raised her eyebrow.

“Yes, I will.”

Nux didn’t back down.

“This is your teacher we are talking about.”

“That is the reason why her death will be painless.”

“...what about the rest of the people who attacked you?”

“They should prey that they had died due to other reasons before I became strong enough to go after them.”

Nux answered with a cold expression on his face.

“...”

Ember looked at Nux for a while and then, and then she nodded her head in agreement.

“Good, good, you did not disappoint me.”

Nux smiled back,

“Well, I won’t let my enemies live, I am not a fool.

However, I will say, I don’t see this happening.

I am sure that Teacher Arvina would not betray me.”

“I hope that is the case.”

Ember smiled.

“Heh. I feel like we have become a lot closer after this conversation.”

Nux commented with a playful smile on his face.

Ember looked at Nux and narrowed her eyes,

“Do you really feel that way? Because to me, rather than a conversation, it feels more like me interrogating you.

You didn’t ask anything and continued to answer my questions”

“Don’t worry, I am getting a lot of answers,” Nux answered with a small smile on his face.

“Huh? What does that mean?” Ember frowned.

However, instead of answering, Nux just continued to smile as he looked at Ember’s face.

“Well, if you are satisfied then I don’t have any problems either.”

Ember shook her head.

“Indeed,

Also, it is not like it is our first and last time talking alone like this, right?”
Nux smiled.

Ember looked at Nux for a while and then, she smiled as well,

“Indeed, it won’t be the last time.”

“Alright then, since you said that we are closer to each other, let me ask more complicated questions.”

Ember muttered.

“Being greedy I see.” Nux smiled.

“I would like it if you term it as saving time.”

“Oh well, ask what you want.”

Nux nodded and suddenly, the air around the room turned heavy.

Nux’s eyes fell on Ember and he saw that all that playfulness was now gone and was replaced by a solemn expression.

“How did you know that the Deathspike Trap was activated during the War.”

Ember questioned.

“Secret.” Nux, however, shook his head and did not reply.

Ember nodded and then continued,

“What about the number of soldiers inside the Fort, how did you know about that?”

“Secret.”

“Where did you come from when I barged into your tent?”

Ember had heard Thyra’s words and that was enough for her to deduce that at that moment, Nux had just returned from somewhere.

This made her curious about where Nux went, however,

“Secret.”

Ember’s lips twitched in annoyance.

“What is your relationship with Thyra.”

“Lovers, soon-to-be husband and wife.”

This time, Nux finally answered.

Ember sighed in relief.

He wasn’t playing with her, he was still serious about answering her questions.

“Why are you making advances towards me then?” She questioned.

As a General leading an entire army, she was very perceptive of her surroundings and people’s feelings. It would be idiotic to think that she wouldn’t catch on, especially with so many hints throughout their conversations.

Nux was trying to approach her, Ember knew it and therefore, she was curious about the reason, however,

“Secret.”

Nux smiled.

‘AAAGGHHHHH!!’

Ember screamed inwardly.

‘Secret! Secret! Secret!’

Is he playing with me!?’

She was frustrated.

She was angry.

And as if sensing her emotions, Nux muttered,

“About your last question,”

Ember came out of her reverie and focused on his next words.

Nux smiled, he then moved his face close to Ember’s and whispered.

“You will know it soon.

Very soon.”

Ember clenched her fist and a vein popped on her head.

This boy was annoying.

She really wanted to hit him right now, however, she controlled herself.

“Alright, we have been talking with each other for a long time now. I think you are tired now. You should go back and have a good rest.”

Seeing her acting like that, Nux smiled.

Then, he nodded and stood up.

“Alright then, my dear friend Ember,

I will take my leave now.”

Ember nodded.

“I am looking forward to our next meeting,

My dear friend Ember~”

Nux muttered and then, he left.

Ember sighed in relief as he left her tent and Nux, well, he had a big smile on his face.

Today, he gained a lot.

The biggest reward he got today was the Path.

The Path to Ember's heart.

He could now see it clearly.

“Took you long enough.

What were you two doing?

And why are you smiling like that?”

As soon as Nux entered his tent, he saw Thyra looking at him with an extremely jealous look on her face. Seeing her face, Nux smiled and then he pulled her petite body into his embrace.

A small smile appeared on Thyra's face as she felt Nux patting her head gently.

She hugged him back and closed her eyes.

Seeing that she has calmed down, Nux finally answered her question.

“Something good happened.”

“What? Did you find something good while experimenting with your [Sense] ability?”

Thyra questioned and suddenly,

Nux turned silent.

“Shit...”

He cursed.

“What happened?”

Thyra frowned.

“...”

Nux didn't answer.

Thyra narrowed her eyes and questioned,

“What happened, Nux?”

“I... I forgot to experiment on my ability...”

Thyra's lips twitched.

...

“Ahem... Ember my closest friend~~” Nux sang politely.

“Huh? You are back? Why so quick?” Ember frowned.

“Umm... I need you to do something for me...” Nux muttered.

“What is it?”

“Can you go stand in that corner and hide?”

“Huh?”

“Don't ask too many questions, just do it.

Please?”

“Whatever.”

“Thank you~~”

Nux smiled and Ember stood up.

Then, Nux tested the limits of his [Sense] according to his women's instructions.

Chapter 321

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Nobody spoke and silence ruled over the place.

Everyone sitting around the table had solemn looks on their faces.

Suddenly, two more people entered the tent and seeing the solemn looks on others' faces, the two of them frowned.

‘Today is the last day.’

Thyra reminded.

‘Ahh...’

Nux realized.

‘I think there was no response.’

Nux muttered as he looked at those expressions on Ember's and other Deputy Generals' faces.

‘That seems to be the case.’

Thyra nodded her head as well.

Nux and Thyra then walked forward and sat on their chairs.

Seeing that everyone have arrived, Ember started,

“We still haven't received any response.”

“This confirms that Luke and his men have met an unfortunate accident, correct?” Deputy General Lawrence muttered.

“Yes, I believe that they were caught.”

Another Deputy General muttered.

“ ... ”

Ember didn't say anything and remained silent.

Luke was her personnel subordinate that directly reported to her. She would be lying if she said that she wasn't feeling anything. However, she can't show those emotions here.

Many soldiers lose their lives every day, she can't show her grief for one particular soldier. This would be unfair to other soldiers who have lost their lives.

Therefore, Ember remained strong.

“What about the Spies sent by the Dynast?”

Lawrence questioned.

Ember looked at the Deputy General and then, she shook her head,

“There was no response from them as well.”

“Does that mean that they were caught as well?”

“No, they still have a week extension to report.”

“We all know that it is just a false hope, if they haven't sent any response in 3 weeks, the probability of them getting caught is near to 100%”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Again, everyone turned silent, however, no one could refute those words.

Nux looked at everyone's expression and couldn't help but think.

It has been a month since Ember sent a spy named Luke and some other men as Spies inside the Solid Earth Kingdom.

These spies were told to send a confirmation letter in 3 weeks, however, 3 weeks later, no letter was received.

The dates were then extended by a week and now that another week has passed, the deaths of those Spies have been confirmed.

The same thing happened with the Spies sent by the Royal Family.

They were sent by a week after Luke and the others, however, they haven't sent any letters either.

Most probably, they were dead as well.

This was a big problem for the Woods Dynasty.

Lack of information, especially in Wartimes can be fatal.

They had to do something and they have to do it urgently.

“...What are we going to do now?”

Lawrence questioned.

“Do we send another batch of spies?”

“Huh? What's the difference? Won't they die as well?”

“It's not like we have many options here.”

“I don’t understand, how is the Solid Earth Kingdom doing this? How are they killing every single Spy that is entering their Kingdom? This is simply impossible.”

“I don’t understand it either... it is as if every single soldier there is working with all his heart without thinking about anything else...”

“Let’s not talk about this right now, thinking about our next course of action is much more important.”

“I suggest that we talk with the Dynast and think of a solution. The Dynast will be able to provide us with more manpower and his advisors might have some strategies in their mind.”

“I have a better plan... We can...”

The discussion continued like this for a long time.

Nux and Thyra, however, stayed silent throughout the discussion and continued to listen.

The meeting continued for 3 hours and then, Ember spoke,

“Alright, we have discussed quite a few plans for the future, I will give you guys 1 day to think about it a little more, tomorrow, we would have another meeting, where we will be finalizing our next course of action.

You all may leave now.”

“Yes General.”

“As you command, General”

The Three Deputy Generals stood up and saluted.

Nux, however, remained seated.

The Three Deputy Generals looked at him and frowned.

“I have to discuss something with the General, I hope you guys will excuse me.”

Nux muttered.

The three Deputy Generals looked at each other and nodded. This time, they didn't have any complaints.

Actually, the relationship between them and Nux has improved a lot.

Nux may ignore them and do things in his own way, however, when it is needed, he can perform. This was all they needed. Therefore, they didn't pick on Nux anymore either.

They just saluted at Ember again and then left.

Ember looked at Nux and questioned,

“What happened?”

“I have heard about all your plans,” Nux muttered.

“Umm... good job?”

Nux looked at Ember with a blank look on his face, soon, however, he continued,

“As I was saying, I have heard about all your plans and I think all of them are useless.”

Ember frowned and then, she questioned.

“Do you have a better plan?”

Nux smiled,

“I do, however, it is very expensive.”

“Hmm? How expensive? How much gold do you need? If it is feasible, the Woods Dynasty will do everything to support you.”

Nux, however, shook his head,

“No no no no, it is not expensive for the Woods Dynasty, rather, it would be expensive for you, Ember Windstar.”

Ember frowned again and seeing this, Nux smiled even more.

“So? Ember Windstar? Are you willing to pay the price?

It will save many of your subordinates’ lives and will help your Dynasty greatly.

Would you do it?

Or would you just let your men die meaninglessly?”

Ember, however, didn’t fall for Nux’s words and questioned,

“What is your plan? How are you going to do something that so many people failed in? Also, what price do I have to pay?”

“Well, the plan is simple.

Rather than sending those weak spies, I would be the one to go inside the Solid Earth Kingdom and report the situation there to you.

As for the price,

Well, you will be owing me a big big big favour after this.

A favour that would be very hard to repay.

So? Ember Windstar, are you going to accept it?”

Chapter 322

“So? Ember Windstar, are you going to accept it?”

Nux questioned with a small smile on his face.

Thyra, who was sitting beside him couldn't help but shake her head inwardly.

‘He started making his move huh...’

“You are going to go there yourself? Do you even know how and what a Spy does?” Ember raised her eyebrow in doubt.

“Huh? Don't I just have to bring back the information I found?”

Nux questioned with a frown.

“Well, that is the most basic thing, however, it is not that easy to become a spy, you have to learn a code language that only you and the person you are sending a letter to can decipher.

You have to manipulate people into giving information that you need. Even licking the target's boots isn't impossible in this job.

You can't just become a Spy just because you want to, you have to go through years of training, just being strong isn't enough.”

Ember explained.

Nux, however, shook his head and smiled,

“Who do you think gave you the information about the Deathspike Fort?”

“...”

Ember turned silent.

“I told you the number of soldiers inside the fort, I told you the trap they were hiding and even saved your soldiers from dying meaninglessly.

Not only that, but I indirectly wasted enemy soldiers’ Mana, making them weaker than normal and I did all this within a few minutes when I wasn’t even trying.

What do you think would happen if I visit the Solid Earth Kingdom with the intention of spying?”

Nux questioned with a smile and Ember turned silent.

She couldn’t help but think that Nux’s words are correct.

Nux had lots of secrets, Ember believed that he had a very high chances of succeeding.

Thinking that Ember still wasn’t convinced, Nux continued,

“Look, Ember, whether I fail or not depends on me.

All you have to do is agree to my conditions.

No matter what happens, you aren’t the one taking the loss in this deal.”

“Alright, I agree.”

After thinking about it for some more time, Ember nodded.

Nux’s smile widened and then, he stood up.

“Alright then, I will take my leave now.

Rest well, General Ember.

You might need it when I return.”

Ember frowned, unable to understand why Nux was saying these words.

Thyra, however, understood the hidden meaning in an instant and couldn't help but nod inwardly.

'It is indeed tiring. Rest is important.'

Then, she stood up as well.

Ember looked at the two of them and stood up.

"When will you be leaving?" Ember questioned.

"Tonight."

Nux answered with a smile.

"And I will return in a week."

"A week?"

"Yes, it won't take longer than that."

Ember raised her eyebrow in amazement and then, she nodded.

"Alright, whatever you say."

Nux smiled, then, he turned around and left the tent with Thyra following behind him.

'We are leaving tonight?'

After they left the tent, Thyra questioned.

'No, 'we' are not leaving tonight, only I am leaving.'

'You are not going to take me with you?'

Thyra frowned.

A solemn look appeared on Nux's face,

'The Solid Earth Kingdom, it is moving strangely.

The fact that it was able to capture every single spy we had sent there is simply ridiculous.

Going there is risky, therefore, I will move alone.'

Nux answered and from his firm tone, it was clear that he won't change his mind.

Thyra tried to talk to and convince him, however, he still rejected her.

Not only that, he even talked about this with his other women and soon, a conclusion was made.

'Nux should go alone.'

Of course, not many women thought about Thyra's well-being when they concluded this.

Their main reason was jealousy.

'Thyra should try staying away from Nux as well.'

Thyra knew about this, however, since the numbers were not in her favour, she could only swallow this defeat with a bitter look on her face.

Just like that, the day passed by and soon, Nux left the Woods Dynasty and rushed towards the Solid Earth Kingdom.

The distance wasn't high, it was only around 20 km, for Nux, reaching there in 10 minutes wasn't a difficult task, however, he didn't choose that path.

The path he chose was a roundabout path that is 300 km from the current border.

This is the path used by most of the Spies since it was easier to blend in with the large number of people that use this path every day. Nux wanted to know how and why the spies were captured too easily, this was the reason why he chose this path.

3 hours later, Nux finally appeared in front of a border town and surprisingly, there were 4 soldiers standing in front of the Gates.

“Who are you? Where did you come from? What is your purpose for visiting Red Sparrow Town?”

A guard questioned.

“I am Elijah Winkson, I work for Flaming Gold Merchant Group, I have arrived at the Red Sparrow Town because I want to visit my Merchant’s Group branch that is in Willow Wood City.”

A merchant answered.

The Guard noted everything the Merchant said and nodded.

“You can enter.”

The merchant nodded and entered.

However, after the Merchant left, the Guard’s eyes turned cold and he muttered,

“This is my first time seeing him.

Draw his face, then go visit the Flaming Gold Merchant Group’s branch and check if it is actually him.”

“Yes, sir!”

The other soldier saluted and then left.

Nux, who was seeing everything from the side frowned.

These guards...

They were working too hard...

Just what is happening?

Nux wondered inwardly.

He noted this in his mind and then, he left.

His first target wasn't this place, but the Army Camp.

He wanted to see how many soldiers were positioned there.

With his [Conceal] activated, he faced absolutely no problems with any of the guards, he just dashed through and reached the Solid Earth Kingdom's Army Camp within two hours.

After reaching the Army Camp, Nux activated his [Sense],

“!!!”

And his eyes widened in surprise.

...

Chapter 323

‘One, two, three... Forty-three...

Forty-Three Expert Stage Cultivators!

What the hell is that!?

Aren’t Expert Stage Cultivators supposed to be rare!?

How and why are there so many Expert Stage Cultivators here!?’

Nux couldn’t help but exclaim in his head.

The number of soldiers in this army camp was similar to the Woods Dynasty’s army camp, however, the strength of the soldiers was incomparably higher.

There were nearly no Beginner Stage Cultivators in this army, on the other hand, the Woods Dynasty’s army was filled with those Beginner Stage Soldiers.

In the Woods Dynasty’s army camp, most of the soldiers except for the ones doing the duty were drunk and living their days as if they were their last, here, however, things were different.

Each and every soldier was active, of course, the ones who were sleeping were different, however, no soldier was consuming alcohol.

Nux was surprised.

However, his surprise did not end here, he moved forward to get an even more detailed understanding and then, he sensed 7 strong auras.

Seven King Stage Cultivators...

‘If this army attacks the Woods Dynasty’s army, they all are dead.’

Nux thought in amazement.

Ember was strong, however, even she won’t be able to take more than 3 King Stage Cultivators at the same time.

The rest of the 4 King Stage Cultivators would go after the Deputy Generals and the rest is easy.

The Woods Dynasty’s army didn’t stand a chance against this army.

‘Why did they not use their full force before?’

Suddenly, a question appeared in Nux’s mind.

‘No wait...

The real question is,

Where did they get this many strong cultivators from?’

Nux frowned.

The Skyfall Kingdom has 8 King Stage Cultivators, however, only 1 of them actually fights in a war, the rest don’t move unless they want to.

The same could be said for the Woods Dynasty.

So the question was,

How did the Solid Earth Kingdom recruit 7 King Stage Cultivators in their army?

‘Are the Nobles of the Solid Earth Kingdom moving?’

Nux questioned inwardly.

‘But why would they move? Just what is happening?’

Nux then used his [Sense] and [Eye of Discerning] at the same time and soon,

All his doubts were cleared.

‘Sect Leaders, Adventurer team leaders, Wandering Cultivators, the Solid Earth Kingdom has recruited every single one of them...

But...

How...?’

Nux couldn't understand.

He knew that all these people value their freedom the most, this is the reason why they don't join any Kingdoms and stayed neutral.

No matter how many benefits one provides them, they would never join them unless they want to.

Therefore, Solid Earth Kingdom recruited so many of them at the same time was...

Unbelievable.

'I need to research more.'

Nux thought inwardly as he narrowed his eyes.

What did the Solid Earth Kingdom offer these people?

What was so valuable that made these people give up on their freedom and become Solid Earth Soldiers?

Nux wanted to find it out.

However, since it was already morning, Nux decided to make his move a few hours later and left the army camp.

His next destination was the Solid Earth Kingdom.

He wanted to see how the people inside the Solid Earth Kingdom were living.

He wanted to see what was the difference between the Solid Earth Kingdom and the other places he has visited.

He wanted to see the atmosphere inside the Solid Earth Kingdom.

Nux then rushed towards his destination and soon, he was inside the capital of the Solid Earth Kingdom.

However, after coming here, a frown appeared on his face.

Other than the strict security at the gates, everything else was completely normal. According to what he has heard from the people talking with each other, this change in their security system started 1 year.

1 year ago, suddenly, the checking at the gates got a lot stricter.

The guards stopped taking bribes, and the one bribing the guard was noted down and his entire background was searched.

If the man/woman turns out to be a criminal, or worse, a spy with no clear background, they, their 'families', and all the people they are close with, all of them were executed without any mercy.

There were no hearings in the Royal Courts, no extension of time, nothing.

Once the crime was proven, the guilty were executed.

People who were familiar with the guards questioned them about the strictness and why they were working so honestly, however, there was only one answer.

Higher-ups are doing the same, we are just following them.

There was no further explanation.

With these changes, the crime rates reduced a lot and eventually, the Solid Earth Kingdom turned brighter than normal.

Therefore, no one complained about the stricter security, rather, they supported it quite well.

“No! I did not do anything! Where are you people taking me!?”

While Nux was sorting out all the information he had received, he heard a voice.

He raised his head and saw a man who was being dragged out of his house by 4 guards. The man was trying to resist as hard as he could, however, with 4 cultivators surrounding him, he, as a mortal was unable to do anything and was taken away.

Nux followed behind them.

Soon, however, he stopped.

The guards were entering the Royal Palace, and since he had some doubts in his mind, Nux stayed behind and didn't enter with them.

After all, it was better to be safe than sorry.

Nux then decided to move around the Solid Earth Kingdom, buy(Steal) some gifts for his women while he waited for the night and once the sun was down.

Nux returned to the army camp and started executing his plans.

Chapter 324

“Deputy General Ansel, General Armando has agreed to meet you. Please enter.” A soldier reported.

Deputy General named Ansel nodded and then, he walked inside the room.

“General Armando.” He saluted at the man sitting inside the room.

“Ansel, it is the middle of the night and I have to wake up early in the morning, you better make this worthwhile.”

“Yes, General.

The reason why I came here is simple, I want you to follow me.”

“Huh?” The General frowned.

“Follow you?”

“Yes, I have to show you something I found.” Ansel nodded.

Armando’s frown deepened,

“Why didn’t you bring it here?”

“I would have if I could,” Ansel answered.

“...”

Armando turned silent.

“General, I promise it will be worth your time.”

“What if it is not?” Armando narrowed his eyes and questioned.

“I-I bet my life on it.”

Ansel muttered after some hesitation.

Armando observed the man in front of him for a while and then, he nodded.

“Alright, take me where you want to.”

Ansel smiled,

“Thank you for trusting me, General.”

“I am not trusting you,

Remember, your life is on the line here.”

Armando warned coldly.

“Yes General.”

Ansel saluted and the two of them then walked out of the room.

After walking out of the room, Ansel stepped forward,

“General, it is a little far from here, let’s run.”

Saying that, he started running.

The General didn’t refuse and kept up with the Deputy General’s speed quite easily.

20 minutes later, the two of them appeared inside a deserted alleyway, a frown appeared on Armando’s face.

“How much more time will it take?” He questioned.

Suddenly, Ansel stopped running.

The General frowned and stopped as well.

“It is here?” He questioned.

“...” Ansel, however, did not reply.

“I asked you something, Ansel.”

“...”

Again, Ansel did not reply.

“Ansel, answer m-AGGGHH!!”

Armando commanded him again, however, before he could even complete his command, he screamed in pain and jumped forward.

With a quick movement, he turned around and there, he saw a man wearing skin-tight, black-coloured clothes, standing there with a dagger in his hand that was stained in fresh blood.

Armando’s eyes turned cold as he glanced at the man in front of him, then, he looked down at his right calf and gritted his teeth.

‘This would be problematic...

Just how in the hell did this man escape my senses?’

While Armando was thinking about all this, Ansel attacked him from behind, targeting his other calf.

However, with Armando’s senses, he reacted quickly and dodged the attack.

Then, a sword appeared in his hands and he slashed it at Ansel.

Ansel blocked the attack with his sword, however, since the impact was too strong, his body flew back and fell on the ground.

“Ansel you bastard! How dare you betray me!? Do you want to die!?”
Armando questioned in fury.

“Now now, General Armando, it would be problematic for you if you ignore me.”

Armando narrowed his eyes as he looked at the man in front of him.

“Who are you?”

Armando questioned in caution. The man, however, just chuckled,

“What kind of assassin tells his identity just because he was asked?”

“Why are y-”

“Alright, let’s not waste time with these stupid questions.

You see, there are other important things that I have to do rather than being here.

So let me end this,

Armando Callen, are you willing to be Slave?”

“Huh?”

Armando frowned.

“You are quite brave for someone who is only an Expert Stage Cultivator.”

He countered with a cold face.

Hearing this, Nux shook his head in disappointment.

“Oh well, it seems that I would have to fight with a King Stage Cultivator now...”

Then, Nux looked at Armando and his golden eyes smiled brightly,

“Do not disappoint me, General Armando.”

Then,

Nux disappeared.

He appeared behind Armando, however, this seemingly fast attack was blocked by Armando without any major trouble.

Nux smiled.

And then, he increased the strength behind the attack.

“!!!”

A shocked look appeared on Armando’s face when he realized that he was being pushed back.

‘How is an Expert Stage Cultivator so strong?’

He questioned inwardly and at the same time, the ground under Nux’s foot moved.

Nux lost his balance and using this chance, Armando pushed him back and aimed at his neck.

However, as if it was boneless, Nux’s body bent down backwardly and then, with a few back flips, he created a distance between the two.

“Ground Tremor, a 4 Star Skill, hmm hmm, that’s quite an effective way to use it.”

Nux muttered as he recognized the move with a single gaze.

In these last few months, his knowledge has increased a lot, if earlier, he was just a person from another world with no knowledge of this world, now, he was a complete part of it and could be considered fairly knowledgeable.

And with Amaya and Arvina’s help, his knowledge about Cultivations and Skills has improved a lot.

“You are stronger than I thought,” Armando commented with a solemn look on his face.

Right now, he wasn't thinking about winning this battle,

It was not that he thought he would lose for sure, but the problem was that Nux wasn't alone, If Ansel attacked with him, things might get troublesome for him.

Therefore, saving his life was a priority.

“Hmm, you were the one who fought General Ember, right?”

Armando came out of his reverie when he heard his opponent's sudden question.

“I heard that General Ember used both Wind and Fire elements, is that correct?”

Armando narrowed his eyes,

“Why do you care?”

“Nothing really,

I just wanted to confirm something.”

“Confirm?”

Nux's smile widened as he straightened his back and a scary aura was released from his body.

“Yes, now answer me.

Who has better control over multiple elements?

General Ember, or...”

A Fireball was then shot towards Armando, the General jumped back however, a Sharp Spike shot out of the ground and attacked him.

The General Barely avoided, however, before he could even gain his balance, Nux used his [Wind Walk] and appeared behind him.

“Me.”

Chapter 325

‘What kind of monster is he!?’

J-Just how is this possible!?’

Is he even human!?’

General Armando was horrified.

This was supposed to be a simple job.

All he had to do was defeat Expert Stage Cultivators, if possible, capture them alive and then return to the base with the two of them.

Then, he would interrogate them and would also torture his subordinate who had betrayed him.

This was an easy thing to do...

Then...

Then... how...

How in the hell did he meet this monster...?

People who had affinities with two elements were considered talented, right?

They were god gifted and were called a prodigy, right?

Then what about this bastard?

Fire, Water, Wind, Earth, this monster had affinity with all these elements!

And as if this was not enough, this bastard also had unreasonable strength, speed, defence and most probably Mana.

Just... Just how is he supposed to fight against this bastard!?

“Oi oi, the strength behind your attack is reducing, are you getting tired?”

The man questioned and Armando’s lips twitched in frustration.

“C’mon, a King Stage Cultivator can do better than that, right?”

Aren’t King Stage Cultivators supposed to be strong? Why are you so weak?”

‘You bastard! It’s you!

It’s you who is abnormal!’

The General cursed in his head.

However, he didn’t say anything out loud.

He didn’t have the time to.

He had to be extra attentive to fight against this man. If he loses focus for even a second, it might lead to a fatal injury.

Yes, it was a difficult and hardcore fight where both parties couldn’t be careless, even for a single second.

Or that was what the General thought.

“Haahh... this is getting boring...

Let’s end this shall we?”

“Huh?”

The General frowned and a smile appeared on Nux’s face.

“I won’t hold back anymore, okay?”

‘You were holding back!?’

The General screamed inwardly, however, before he could even react, Nux disappeared from his vision and appeared behind him.

“Ugghhh!!”

The general was unable to react in time and Nux attacked his left calf.

The General lost his balance and fell down.

Seeing this, a kind smile appeared on Nux’s face,

“With this, you won’t be able to run away.”

The General stood up, however,

“Ugghhh!!”

Nux kicked his stomach and the General’s body flew away.

*Thud*

“Don’t move, you are only going to make this more painful for yourself.”

Nux muttered calmly as he stepped towards him.

“Alright, let me ask you again,

Armando Callen, are you willing to be my Slave?”

“Never.”

The General glared at Nux with defiance in his eyes.

*Bam*

Nux, however, just stomped on his face and contrary to the General’s expectations, a big smile appeared on Nux’s face.

“Oh ho?”

Well don't worry, we have a lot of time to change your mind.

Fufufu~”

“General...”

Suddenly, the man who was looking at everything from far, Deputy General Ansel muttered,

“I would suggest that you give up...

It is for your own good...”

Saying that, Ansel turned silent and his body started trembling.

Seeing this, the General frowned and seeing this, Nux smiled inwardly.

The Doubt was planted.

Now, all he had to plant was ‘hopelessness’.

“Hmph! You think I will be scared of little torture?” The General snorted.

“Y-You might be able to bear it for a few hours... or even a day... but...

Can you bear it for months? Years? Decades?

Can you bear it for the rest of your life?”

Ansel questioned with no emotion in his eyes.

It was as if he was dead from the inside.

“Believe me, general, this man is scarier than he looks.”

“Your words do not scare me, traitor. And don't worry, others will find me soon enough.”

“They won’t,” Ansel answered.

“Huh?” Armando frowned.

“You are already dead, General Armando.”

“Huh?”

“General Armando left his room with his trusted subordinate, Deputy General Ansel, however, Ansel turned out to be a traitor and the General was surrounded by Ember and 5 other Expert Stage Cultivators that the Woods Dynasty sent here for the sake of revenge.

The General fought bravely, however, he was eventually defeated and killed.

The proof of this incident will be the soldier, who ‘by chance’ saw this happening with his own eyes.

Ah yes, don’t worry, that ‘soldier’ is the spy planted by me as well.”

Nux muttered with a small smile on his face.

The General narrowed his eyes,

“You think they will believe this ridiculous story?”

“Of course not.

They will look for proof, therefore, they would come here, where you and I fought.

How many elements do you think were used in this fight?”

Nux questioned.

“...”

The General turned silent and Nux smiled.

“All 4 elements were used, not only that, but your signature move, Ground Tremor was used as well.

Combined with all that blood dropped here and the missing you, what do you think the common interpretation will be?”

“ ...”

The General didn't reply.

Then, a crazed smile appeared on Nux's face as he continued.

“General Armando Callen fought bravely, however, in the end, he was outnumbered and wasn't able to make it out alive.

The case will then be closed and no one will look for you.

After that...

We would have a long long long chat with each other, General Armando.

As I said, we have a lot of time to change that rigid mind of yours.”

“ ...”

The General looked at Nux with a grave expression on his face.

He had to run... he had to leave this place...

However, he wasn't able to defeat this man when he was at his full strength, just how would he defeat him now?

No matter how hard he thought, the General couldn't see a way out.

‘Do I have no other option than to suffer from endless torture?’

He questioned inwardly and suddenly, Ansel muttered,

“General... I know you are loyal to the kingdom... however, this man would torture you for decades if it is required... 20 years ago, I was the same as you, however, within just 5 years, my willpower broke down.

These people are too horrifying... General...

Don't try too hard...”

The General frowned.

‘These people...’

He noted these words.

‘This is a whole organization...

A horrifying organization that works in shadow, nothing is known about them.

He had many questions in his mind.

How strong they are?

How many members do they have?

How deep their roots are?

How long have they existed for?

The more he thought about it, the more solemn his expression got.

Nothing... practically nothing was known about this organization...

‘I need to do something about it...’

A determined look appeared on General's face and seeing that look, Nux smiled.

‘Doubt, hopelessness and then, an opportunity to become a hero.

And what does the hero do?

Self Sacrifice.’

“I agree, I agree to be your slave.”

He decided to infiltrate this organization.

“Good job.

Now let me ask again for confirmation,

General Armando Callen,

Are you willing to be my Slave?”

Chapter 326

“AAAGGGHHHH!!!”

‘I am loyal!

I am loyal!

I am loyal!

I am loyal!’

The General shouted inwardly and finally, the agonizing pain he was feeling subsided.

“Haah... Haah... Haahh...”

The General took in deep breaths and at the same time, he looked at the man in front of him in pure terror.

“I hope you understand your position now.

You see, it will make things easier for me and you as well.”

Nux smiled gently.

“W-What is t-this magic...”

Armando couldn’t help but question.

“You don’t need to know that, just know that this pain you felt will return the moment you think about betraying me.

You be careful about what you think, do you understand?”

Nux threatened.

“Y-Yes,”

Armando’s body shivered in fright and he nodded his head.

Seeing him like that, Nux smiled.

‘Amaya, you are a fucking genius.’

He praised.

‘I told you it would work.’

Soon, he heard a voice full of pride and contentment.

‘After being betrayed by one of his most trusted subordinates, the General’s state of mind was already a mess.

Meeting a monster like you, who has affinity with all Four Elements had another impact on his state of mind.

Then his mental state took an even deeper fall when he was defeated by an Expert Stage Cultivator.

Cutting off all his roads to escape was another blow, by now, he was already hopeless,

‘I will be tortured for the rest of my life, just like my subordinate who was tortured for 5 long years’, a seed of fear was planted in his mind.

However, no matter what, in the end, he was still a General with a strong mentality, just this much was not enough for him to give up, therefore, the last step was an opportunity.

What would he do when he was trapped by a cruel, mysterious organization that no one knows about?

He would become a ‘hero’, he would ‘give in’ to that organization and join it with a goal in his mind, a goal of gathering information about that organization and then plan against it.’

Amaya explain and then, a small smile appeared on Nux's face,

'Heh, 'hero' my ass.

It may sound very praiseworthy from the outside, however, isn't it just him trying to avoid being tortured?'

Amaya smiled,

'That is correct, no matter how well trained they are, no one 'likes' being tortured, however, someone like the General won't give in just because they are scared. Their long years spent in the army won't allow that.'

'They would need a reason'

Nux muttered.

'And that is all you need to do your magic.'

Amaya smiled.

'I can't believe you came up with something like this.'

Nux complimented.

'Wasn't it obvious from the start?

I am better than any of your other women,

So...

Don't you dare leave me, okay?'

Amaya's eyes turned even darker and a wide, creepy smile appeared on her face.

It was honestly quite scary,

However,

‘Huh? Leave you? Amaya, how will I even live without you? Do you think that is even possible?’

My Love, I won’t leave even if you ask me to.

Amaya Skyfall, you are stuck with me.’

A similar creepy smile appeared on Nux’s face as well.

How to deal with an extra possessive girl like Amaya?

Show possession.

A possession even stronger than hers.

‘Hehe~’

Nux’s methods worked and a beautiful smile appeared on Amaya’s face.

‘You should return soon~’

I have something I want to show you~’

Amaya muttered.

‘Heh, don’t talk like that, I might abandon my mission midway.’

Nux chuckled.

‘I love you.’

‘Love you too.’

Nux smiled and then, he looked at the general who was lying on the floor, tired and scared.

“Alright Armando, as I have said before, there are other much more important things that I have to do than being here and being covered in blood and sweat with dudes like you.

So let's get this started,

I will ask some questions and you will answer them, is that clear?"

"Y-Yes, M-M-Master."

"Alright, so question one,

I heard that, a year ago, on a certain day, the security inside the Solid Earth Kingdom suddenly turned stricter. The Guards don't accept bribes anymore, Officials don't slack off anymore, Nobles don't take brazen actions anymore, and all the criminals were being executed without any mercy, all in all, the whole state of the Solid Earth Kingdom changed.

What happened? What did you guys do? And How did everything happen so quickly?"

Nux questioned.

"It all started from the higher-ups."

The General answered.

"Huh?" Nux frowned and then, his eyes turned cold.

"Give me a better answer; explain it in a better way."

He ordered.

"It starts with the King, the King became stricter and ordered everything, and the execution was simple.

If you don't follow the King's order, you will be executed.

And as if he was setting up an example, the head of the Duke's house was executed because he didn't take the King's order seriously."

Nux narrowed his eyes in confusion.

Dukes were different from other nobles, they had Royal Blood flowing through their veins, therefore, they held strong power, a power that even the Royal family had to be considerate about.

Executing the Duke...

It wasn't considered a wise move...

"There were no repercussions?" Nux questioned.

"There were not."

Armando answered and then, he continued,

"After this incident, other nobles took the King's orders very seriously, since most of the officials came from the noble families, they stopped slacking off as well and seeing them, the officials who didn't have noble backgrounds started to change as well.

The same happened with the Guards and others, their higher-ups had turned stricter, and the punishment for offences had become crueller, therefore, they changed as well.

From the Top to the lowest of the positions, everyone changed, and that is how the Solid Earth Kingdom changed."

Armando answered.

Nux thought about it for a while and then, another question popped into his mind,

"What about other Generals, I noticed that they are not from the Solid Earth Kingdom, but are from different Sects and Adventurers parties, how did you recruit them?"

"That was Lord Hermes's doing."

"Huh? Hermes? Who is that? I have never heard that name before."

Chapter 327

“Huh? Herms? Who is that? I have never heard that name before.”

Nux questioned with a surprised look on his face and suddenly, Armando’s face turned solemn.

“Herms Lyzander, the Grandfather of Alexious Lyzander, the current King of the Solid Earth Kingdom, he is also known as the Strongest man inside the Solid Earth Kingdom.”

Armando informed and Nux raised his eyebrow in amazement.

“Is he...

An Emperor Stage Cultivator?”

Nux questioned.

“Y-Yes.”

Armando answered and at the same time, he was shocked.

Emperor Stage, not many people knew about this stage.

It was a National Level secret.

‘Does this Mysterious organization know about the Emperor Stage as well?’

Armando questioned inwardly, then, he thought a little more about it and realized,

‘This man knew about other generals’ origin, he knew that they didn’t belong to the Kingdom. Knowing about the Emperor Stage Cultivators wasn’t shocking. The real shocking thing is,

His Expression.’

The General thought inwardly as he looked at Nux’s calm face.

He couldn’t believe that Nux was so calm even after hearing about the Emperor.

‘Wait...’

Suddenly, the General thought of something, and the more he thought about it, the stronger his doubt got.

‘Does this mysterious organization also has an Emperor Stage Cultivator backing them up?’

The General’s eyes widened in surprise.

Just how is this organization so strong?

And... and why are they hiding even though they are so strong?

What are they planning?

Armando’s body shivered in fear.

“I understand it now.”

Suddenly, Nux spoke as if he was enlightened.

“The reason why the Duke’s Family didn’t take any actions even though their head was killed, the reason why everything went so smoothly, the reason why the King was able to take such a strong stance and the reason why Wandering Cultivators, the Sect Masters of different Sects and strongest of the Adventurers decided to join the Solid Earth Army.

Now I understand everything.

The reason why everything happened and proceeded so smoothly was because of that Herms Lyzander, an Emperor Stage Cultivator.

He must be the one behind everything, am I right?”

Nux questioned and Armando nodded in agreement.

Then, Nux frowned.

“Why is he doing this though?” he questioned.

“From what I have heard, according to a treaty signed between the 4 strongest powers, Emperor Stage Cultivators aren’t allowed to participate in any events happening around the world, not until the fate of their Kingdom depends on it of course. Isn’t that correct?”

‘He even knows about the Treaty...’

The General just gave up on being surprised.

Actually, Nux didn’t know about this, even Amaya didn’t know about a Treaty like this existing between the 4 Kingdoms. It was Ember who told him about this.

“Yes, that is correct.

An Emperor Stage Cultivator cannot take part in worldly events, especially the events related to the war between two Kingdoms, if they do, the other 3 Kingdoms would join hands to destroy that country, this is called the Treaty of Eternal Peace, which was signed in order to maintain the peace of the world.”

Armando explained and Nux frowned,

“Then isn’t Herms breaking this treaty by recruiting all these people and affecting the War between the two Kingdoms? Is he not scared about being surrounded by the other Three Kingdoms and his Kingdom being destroyed?”

Nux questioned.

Hearing this question, a small smile appeared on the General’s face.

“Committing a Crime is wrong, getting caught is.”

“So you are betting on that fact that the other Kingdoms won’t know about it?”

“That is correct. You see, when it comes to matters like this, coming up with a decision is much more complicated than you think.

Even if you take me to another Kingdom and make me admit that Lord Herms is making his move and breaking the treaty, all the Solid Earth Kingdom has to do is deny those claims and there is nothing you or I can do about it.”

Nux frowned.

He didn’t have much knowledge on matters like these, however, even he could understand one thing.

The Solid Earth Kingdom’s actions are too bold.

Making a case isn’t hard.

They can state that the General is lying and deny his claims, however, the sudden changes inside their Kingdom cannot be explained in any other way.

Actually, the other 3 Kingdoms don’t even need to ‘prove’ that the Solid Earth Kingdom is guilty.

All they need is a ‘reason’.

A reason to work together and destroy 1 Kingdom.

No Kingdom would step out of this since everyone would want a piece of pie for themselves.

Nux was no expert, however, even he can feel it.

Something else, something much more different was going on right now.

It is as if everything is a scheme, a scheme where, this war between the Solid Earth Kingdom and Woods Dynasty is just a small event that would give birth to another, bigger event.

Nux didn't like this.

Also, for some reason, he didn't feel safe inside the Solid Earth Kingdom anymore.

Therefore, he decided to return.

He already got what he wanted inside this Kingdom, now, it was time to return.

Nux then turned towards his new Slaves and ordered,

“Alright, this is enough for now. If I need anything else in the future, I will contact you. For now, you two can go and live your normal life.

Of course, don't forget to inform me if something major happens, alright?”

‘He is planting us as his spies.’

Armando understood Nux's intentions.

However, there was nothing he could do about it.

He knew that Lord Herms might have a way to undo this strange magic, however, even if he thinks about that possibility, that agonizing pain returns and tortures him, therefore, he had already given up on this thought.

For now, he would do as this man says.

“Yes, Master.”

Nux then turned around, however, just as Nux was about to turn around, Ansel questioned,

“Master, h-how are we going to return? What will we say to someone who asks us where we went? How do we explain the General’s injuries? How do we explain the marks of a big fight here? What if they doubt us?”

Nux paused.

Then, he turned around and looked at Ansel.

“You need a reason huh...”

A small smile appeared on his face.

Chapter 328

“You need a reason huh...”

A small smile appeared on his face.

“Y-Yes.”

Ansel nodded.

Nux then turned towards Armando and ordered,

“Beat him up.”

“Huh?”

“Huh?”

Both Armando and Ansel had the same, confused reaction, however, they didn't have much time to think about it.

Armando's body moved on its own and he lashed onto Ansel and started beating him up.

“Uggh! Wha- Aggh! What are you doi- aaghh!” Ansel, who was just an Expert Stage Cultivator was unable to fight against a King Stage Cultivator and was being beaten up by Armando.

“I-I can't control my b-body!”

Armando answered with a shocked and horrified look on his face.

‘Just what is this magic!?’

At the same time, he wondered in his mind.

That agonizing pain, the ability to control one's body, just what is this strange and overpowered magic?

Does every member of this mysterious organization have these abilities?

He couldn't help but question inwardly and at the same time, he continued beating up Ansel.

Soon, Armando started enjoying it.

Wasn't Ansel the bastard who led him to his doom? Why not repay this favour to him?

Soon, Armando got control of his body and then, he started beating Ansel of his own accord.

“Agghh! M-Master! A-At least- Aagh! Tell me what's my f- aaghh! Fault!”

Ansel questioned while he covered his face with his arms.

“Alright, this is enough.”

Suddenly, Nux ordered.

Armando stopped and stood up with a refreshed smile on his face. As for Ansel, he just lay on his spot as if he was dead.

“You did well.” Nux complemented.

“Master... I still do not understand why you ordered me to do this.”

Armando questioned.

“Y-Yea... I-I want to know that as well...”

Ansel, who was lying on the ground questioned as well.

“Well, you needed a reason, right?”

Nux smiled and soon, he revealed his plans.

...

30 minutes passed by, right now, Nux was standing inside a Tent and in front of him, there were 6 people sleeping peacefully.

These 6 people were all Expert Stage Cultivators.

The Solid Earth Kingdom secretly attacked Woods Dynasty's camp and killed 30 Grand Master Stage Cultivators, and 100 weaker soldiers.

Of course, this has nothing to do with Nux, however, this did hurt his future woman.

Therefore, Nux decided to take a little revenge.

'30 Grand Master Stage Cultivators... hmm... it should be comparable to 6 Expert Stage Cultivators, right?'

Nux thought inwardly and then, he shrugged.

'Whatever, it is the thought that is counted.'

Do note, that this is the man who was acting strangely for 3 whole days just because he killed someone. Now, killing 3 Expert Stage Cultivators was completely normal for him.

This was the time when Nux truly and officially integrated into this world.

'Alright, let's get this started, shall we?'

Nux smiled and then, he stepped forward.

Since it was dark, he was using his [Sense] to look around. Of course, since his [Conceal] was activated, no Soldier standing outside, or the soldier sleeping inside realized his presence.

This will be a simple mission.

Soon, Nux appeared in front of a man who was sleeping with a carefree look on his face.

A dagger appeared in Nux's hand, he then raised his hands, however, just as he was about to kill the soldier, the soldier rolled aside and dodged his attack.

“An Assassin!

Everyone! Be on guard!”

The Soldier shouted.

The other 5 soldiers reacted quickly and woke up.

Their weapons appeared in their hand and in the next second, they were attacking Nux with everything they had.

“There is an Assassin here! Come inside!”

Another soldier shouted.

The Soldiers outside the tent were surprised.

Just how in the world did an assassin enter the tent!?

Why did they not see him!?

Is he some kind of ghost!?

What kind of trick did he use!?

Also... what is going to happen to them now...?

However, right now, they didn't have the time to think about all these questions.

They all looked at each other and then, they dashed inside the room and attacked the assassin who was already surrounded by 6 other soldiers. Now, that assassin was surrounded by 10 Expert Stage Cultivators.

“Attack him!”

“Try not to kill him, it would be better if we can capture him alive!”

“Hehe~ I wonder who gave him the confidence to attack all of us alone!”

“Hahaha~ Too arrogant, this bastard.”

“Oi oi, you guys, don’t act like that. He might just be a distraction, all of you who had just entered, leave the tent.

We can take him out alone, you guys go and check other tents.

See if there are any other tents that are being attacked.

Increase the security around the area.

Check how they entered our camp without us knowing.

Capture the man responsible for all this.

Inform the Generals and they will be the ones who will tell us what to do.”

One of the soldiers ordered.

Since his words sounded logical, no one complained and soon, action was taken.

The Soldiers who had just entered the tent left and started checking other tents, at the same time, they started informing other soldiers about the attack.

The whole Army camp reacted at a lightning-quick speed and soon, a big search for other assassins was started.

...

Inside the tent, 6 Expert Stage Cultivators surrounded a single assassin.

With their weapons in their hands, all 6 of those soldiers had smiles on their faces.

“Hehehe~ Let’s end this, shall we?”

“Remember, try not to kill him.”

The one who ordered everyone before cautioned.

“Yea yea, you don’t have to remind us again.

I honestly hate killing my opponents.”

“Hahaha~ I know why you hate that you sadistic bastard!”

“Hahaha!”

The soldiers laughed and then, they attacked the assassin at the same time.

As for the assassin who was surrounded by these 6 soldiers, well,

He was confused.

Yes, he was not scared, rather, he was shocked and confused.

‘My...

My [Conceal] didn’t work?’

Nux’s eyes widened in surprise.

Chapter 329

‘My...

My [Conceal] didn't work?’

Nux's eyes widened in surprise.

‘How... why is this happening? Wasn't it working fine just a few minutes ago?’

Or were these soldiers just pretending not to notice me?’

Nux thought about this possibility while dodging the attack that was aimed at him.

Soon, however, he shook his head,

‘No, this is not possible.

This is a completely foolish move.

Then how?

Just how did that man dodge my attack?’

Nux questioned inwardly as he looked at the white-haired man in front of him.

‘Is he special?’

Is he different from the others?’

Nux thought inwardly and then, his golden eyes shined brightly.

[Name: Ajax Wanderer]

[Age: 121]

[Mana Cultivation: Expert.]

[Body Cultivation: Mortal. ]

[Race: Human ]

[Occupation: Deputy General of the Solid Earth Kingdom.]

[Talent: High]

[LVL: 54]

[HP: 650/650]

[MP: 1100/1100]

[STR: 62]

[AGL: 66]

[VIT: 65]

[STM: 62]

[INT: 110]

[DEF: 52]

...

Seeing his information, Nux's frown deepened,

'He doesn't really look any special either...

Is it someone else?

Someone who somehow blocks my [Conceal]?'

Nux then looked at everyone's status but wasn't able to find anything different.

'What in the hell is happening?'

Nux couldn't understand and he wasn't given any time to think about all this either.

"He is inside, the Deputy Generals are fighting him, let's help them!"

Soon, he heard a soldier's voice and he understood that he couldn't waste any more time here. Nux then looked at the 6 soldiers in front of him and sighed,

"It would have been better if the other three hadn't rushed out of this room but oh well, 6 is not bad either."

Hearing his words, the other 6 soldiers frowned.

"What are you talking about?"

One of the soldiers questioned.

Nux, however, didn't reply, the two daggers in his hand disappeared and soon, a sword appeared in his right hand.

Then,

Nux disappeared.

"What!?"

"Where is he!?"

Those were the last words.

*Thud* *Thud* *Thud*

Six heads fell on the floor, followed by a fountain of blood that erupted from their necks. Nux, however, didn't care about anything and he simply dashed out of the tent.

“Look! He is trying to run away!”

“Chase him!”

“Kill him!”

“What about the Deputy Generals!?”

“Someone go inside the tent and report the situation!”

“I will go!”

Amongst the chaos, Nux tried to run and leave the Army camp, however, he soon realized that there were 4 King Stage Cultivators standing near the exit, waiting for him.

‘Fuck, did these bastards already know that their Deputy Generals would lose?’

That is some confidence in your subordinates’ Skills.

Tsk Tsk.’

Nux snorted.

The Generals who were looking at him running towards them chuckled.

“Heh, we finally caught this rat huh...”

“Hahaha~ He’s much more agile than normal rats.”

“Indeed indeed.”

However, the 4 King Stage Cultivators turned silent when they noticed that in this seemingly tense situation, a small smile appeared on Nux’s face. Yes, even though his face was covered, the Generals could still see that smile on Nux's face. That was just how wide the smile was.

“That bastard... is he smiling?”

One of the General questioned with a frown on his face.

“Is he crazy?”

“No, it feels like he has some sort of plan in his mind.”

A General muttered and,

He was right.

The Generals prepared their attacks and aimed at Nux, however, the closer he got, the wider Nux's smile got.

“Don't think too much about this. He is just a crazy bastard.

Everyone, attack in 3,

2,

1,

NO- huh?”

Just as the Generals were about to attack, something different happened.

Nux's speed increased.

Within a second, he bypassed the Generals and continued to run.

“ATTACK HIM! DON'T LET HIM RUN AWAY!”

A general finally came out of his reverie and ordered.

The 4 Generals shot their attacks towards Nux and,

*KABOOM*

A huge explosion sounded.

“Heh. That bastard thought that he could run away. Hahaha~”

A general laughed.

However, then his eyes fell on another general who was looking at the situation with a solemn look on his face.

“Why do you look so serious?” The General questioned.

“We killed him.”

The other General questioned.

“Huh? So wh- oh...”

“You wanted to capture him alive, right?”

“Indeed... he was strong...”

He must have known some good information...”

“Well, we can’t do anything, that bastard and his abilities were too strange.”

“Indeed, killing a variable like him is the best option.”

“Yes, he could be a very troublesome enemy in the future.”

The Generals discussed with each other, however,

“H-Hey... H-H-How the hell i-is that p-p-possible...?”

Suddenly, a General muttered in surprise.

“What happened?” Another General questioned as he looked in the direction the other General was pointing and soon, his eyes widened in surprise.

“He’s alive!?”

He questioned in shock.

Nux, who was attacked by all their attacks combined and got caught by such a huge explosion was still alive!

Let alone alive, he was completely scratchless!

“Just how is that possible!?”

“Should we chase him?”

“You think we can catch that bastard?”

“He is too fast!”

The Generals discussed with each other and Nux,

He ran away.

‘Heh, this ability is absurd.’

Nux chuckled inwardly as he looked at the screen in front of him.

[Dash]

[Active Skill]

[Effects:]

[Doubles Host’s AGL for 5 seconds]

[Invincibility: While the Ability is active, the host will not take any damage]

[Can only be used once a day.]

[Warning: While using this ability, if the host does some action other than a dash, the [Invincibility] will lose its effect.]

Yes, this was the ability that Nux used.

He got it as a reward for becoming Grand Master Stage Cultivator, however, he didn't get any chances to use this ability.

Today was the first time he had used this ability and he had to say,

It is simply broken.

It is like having an Extra life.

'Invincibility... I wonder if I can obtain an ability like that someday...

Not as an after-effect, but a pure ability that I can activate any time I want.

Heh, that would be cool.'

Chapter 330

“That bastard! He ran too fast!”

“Did anyone see his face? I wasn’t able to since he has a Mask covering it.”

“The colour of his eyes isn’t common, we can try using that to narrow down our search list.”

A General suggested and hearing him, the other Generals thought about it and then nodded in agreement.

Indeed, Golden Coloured eyes weren’t common, they could use that as the base of their search.

“Yes, and he had a well-built physique as well,”

Soon, other Generals started pointing out what they noticed and an imaginary picture of Nux was created.

Golden Eyes, muscular built, fair skin and 1.9 meters tall, with this, they had high chances of finding this person.

“General!”

Suddenly, a soldier rushed toward the Generals and shouted.

“What happened?”

“General, the Deputy Generals who fought against that assassin,”

“Yes, what happened to them?”

“They all are dead!”

The Soldier reported with a panicked look on his face.

The Generals looked at each other and narrowed their eyes, from the time the presence of an assassin was revealed to the now, only 15 minutes had passed.

Was this soldier insinuating that in these 15 minutes, not only did that assassin manage to escape from the grasp of their entire army camp, but he was also able to Kill 6 Expert Stage Cultivators?

Just how is that possible?

“Take us there.”

A General ordered with a solemn look on his face.

“Yes, General.”

The Soldier saluted, then, he turned around and started running towards the tent where Nux and the six Deputy Generals fought against each other.

The Generals followed the soldier and soon, a strong scent of blood assaulted their noses. Their expression turned solemn and then, they entered the tent.

“This...”

One of the Generals couldn't believe his eyes.

“We were waiting for the Generals' orders, therefore, we did not do anything.”

The Soldier inside the room muttered with a pale look on his face, obviously, he was scared.

Not from the Generals, but from the sight in front of him.

“You did well, you can leave now.”

One of the Generals nodded. The Soldier nodded back and then, he rushed out of the tent.

Then, a solemn look appeared on the Generals' faces.

“They were killed in a Single Move.”

A General muttered.

“Yes, and with how clean the cut on their neck is combined with how the assassin was able to run away after attacking using an attack like this, it is clear that the assassin was holding back and still hadn't used his full power.”

Another General spoke.

“You guys...”

Suddenly, a General spoke up, gaining everyone's attention.

“Do you think you guys can Kill 6 Expert Stage Cultivators in one move and then escape from 4 King Stage Cultivators?”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Nobody answered, however, that silence was an answer itself.

“D-Does that mean that man was stronger than us?”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Again, no one answered.

“Yes.”

After a long silence, a voice was heard.

The 4 Generals frowned and then, they turned to where that voice came from.

“Armando...”

All the Generals recognised the man who had just entered the tent.

“That assassin is stronger than all of us.”

“How do you know about it?”

Armando then pointed at his injuries and answered,

“I just fought him.”

The expressions on the Generals’ faces turned solemn.

“You lost against him?”

A General questioned.

“No, I did not lose, however, if he wasn’t in a hurry, I am sure he could have killed me.”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Again, the whole tent turned silent.

First, that assassin sneaked inside their camp, then, he sneaked passed the Soldiers and entered the Tent where 6 Expert Stage Cultivators slept.

He then got caught, and the whole army camp learned about him, however, that man simply killed the 6 Expert Stage Cultivators, dashed outside and right in front of the entire Army Camp, he ran away.

And as if this wasn't enough, the man also fought against a King Stage Cultivator and was able to injure him.

Just what kind of monster was that!?

Does he not get tired!?

The Generals were confused.

“Wait...”

Suddenly, a General spoke and then, he looked at Armando.

“How did you catch him?”

And as if he was prepared for this question, Armando answered without missing a beat.

“I did not catch him, he just appeared right in front of me and my subordinate while we were returning to the Camp.”

“Returning? Where did you go?” The General narrowed his eyes.

“We had some work to do.”

Armando gave a vague answer and since their position was the same, the other Generals didn't have any authority to question any further.

“So does that mean that this assassin was a King Stage Cultivator?”

Another General questioned.

“Yes, he is a King Stage Cultivator and a very strong one at that.”

“Was he sent by the Woods Dynasty?”

Armando shook his head,

“That, I do not know.”

“It has to be, right? Who else would be daring enough to attack our army camp?”

Another General muttered.

“That is true...”

“But... But there are no records of the Woods Dynasty having such a powerful assassin in their ranks.”

“Yes, I have never heard about this assassin before either.”

“If the Woods Dynasty had an assassin like this under their command, then why didn’t they use him more often? Why is he not well known?”

“We do not...”

The Generals continued to discuss while one of them ordered the soldiers to take care of the dead bodies and prepared their burial.

The whole army camp was in chaos for the next few hours and the man who was responsible for all this,

Well, he was just lying down on the ground, looking at the stars with a small smile on his face.

‘I guess it’s time to return, huh...’

Thinking that, the man closed his eyes and the next moment, he disappeared and reappeared many miles away, on top of a bed, where a certain woman with a lean physique and icy blue eyes was waiting for him.

‘Hello, love~’

Chapter 331

“This is a problem...”

Deputy General Laurence muttered.

“Why do I feel like the Dynast is taking things too lightly?”

Another Deputy General muttered.

“Because he is an Idiot, he doesn’t understand how serious this situation is.”

“He might be an Idiot, but what about his Ministers? Are they Idiots as well!?”

“Well, as long as the Dynast doesn’t agree, the Ministers can’t do anything.”

“But 10 Beginner Stage Spies!?”

That’s all the help they could offer!?

How do they expect us to get any result with a force like this? Do they think we don’t have Beginner Stage Spies under us? Are they trying to mock us?”

“There is no use discussing this right now.”

The room turned silent when Ember spoke and everyone looked at her face with solemn looks on their faces. Seeing that she had managed to gain their attention, Ember continued.

“The Dynast has made it clear that he won’t provide us with any help, so don’t count on their help. If you have any ideas on how to tackle this situation with our own strength, I am all ears.”

“I do have an Idea but I am not sure if it will work or not.”

Deputy General Lawrence spoke.

Ember turned her head towards him and nodded,

The Deputy General nodded back and explained his plan.

“Our biggest problem is lack of information.

Our spies are unable to sneak inside the Enemy Kingdom due to their tight security and it is becoming quite a big hurdle for our future plans.

Therefore, I would like to weaken this ‘tight security’ they have.”

“How do you plan on doing it?” A Deputy General questioned.

Then, a cold look appeared on Laurence’s face and he answered,

“War.

We will start a War.

However, the main motive of this war won’t be to win over the Highcrane Fort, rather, it would be to send some of our spies into the Solid Earth Kingdom.”

“Ahhh... Since they are fighting a War, their Security System would be weaker and our spies would be able to enter the Kingdom...”

Is that what you are betting on?”

Another Deputy General questioned.

“Yes.”

Laurence nodded and the Deputy General frowned.

“You are going to sacrifice thousands of soldiers just so you could plant some spies inside the Solid Earth Kingdom?”

Laurence, however, did not back down and answered,

“If we don’t get the information we need soon, a lot more than a thousand soldiers would lose their lives.

It is a necessary sacrifice.”

Laurence didn’t deny it.

He was ready to sacrifice a few to save many.

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

Silence echoed inside the room, however soon, one Deputy General agreed,

“I agree with this plan.

This is a necessary sacrifice”

And just after he nodded, the other Deputy General nodded as well.

“I agree as well. I believe this is the only thing we can do right now.”

The three Deputy Generals then looked at Ember for her response, however, before the General could respond, someone else spoke.

“I strongly disagree with this plan.”

The Deputy Generals frowned as they turned their heads towards Thyra.

Ember had a frown on her face as well.

“Why do you disagree?”

She questioned.

Actually, even she thought that this plan was good, however, this was the first time she has seen Thyra rejecting something so strongly, therefore, she wanted to listen to her reasonings.

“I want to talk to you, alone.”

Thyra muttered as she looked into Ember’s eyes.

Ember and the Deputy Generals frowned.

“We can talk after the meeting is over.”

Ember replied, Thyra, however, shook her head.

“It is important.”

“...”

Ember turned silent.

Then, she looked at the Deputy Generals and suddenly, Lawrence stood up.

“General Ember, I believe I need some more time to think about this plan in more detail,”

Ember looked at him and smiled thankfully.

“Alright, I give you one day to think it thoroughly, is that enough?”

“Yes.”

“Good, today’s meeting concludes here.”

Ember ordered and the three Deputy Generals stood up, saluted at Ember and left.

Then, Ember looked at Thyra and questioned.

“Now tell me what’s in your mind. Why did you reject that Idea?”

“As you are right now, challenging the Solid Earth Kingdom to a War is a suicidal action.”

Ember got her answer, however, the one who answered the question wasn't Thyra, but someone else.

Ember frowned and then turned around.

Her eyes then widened in surprise when she noticed Nux standing right behind her with a leisurely look on his face.

“Long time no see, friend.”

“When did you appear behind me?

No, when did you even enter inside the Tent?

No, no, when did you even return from the Solid Earth Kingdom?”

Ember asked a series of questions.

“Well, that is not important.

Aren't you curious about what I learned from my investigations instead?”

Nux questioned with a smile on his face.

Ember frowned as she wanted to ask more questions, however, she knew her priority, therefore, she subdued her curiosity and questioned.

“What did you learn? What's happening inside the Solid Earth Kingdom? Why is it moving so strangely? Why is the security so tight? How is the security so tight? How are they able to catch every single one of our spies?”

Suddenly, Nux's playful smile disappeared and he answered,

“The Emperor is moving.”

Then, Nux revealed everything he learned to Ember and the more she heard, the wider her eyes got.

...

30 minutes later.

“...so you are saying they have 7 King Stage Cultivators acting as the Generals of the Army?”

Ember questioned.

“Yes, their current army is a lot stronger than yours. Following Laurence’s plans is no different than suicide.”

Nux nodded and then, a paper appeared in his hand and he passed it to Ember.

“This is the paper containing all the information about their soldiers, their names, affinities, numbers, and their cultivation, everything.”

“H-How did you get your hands on it?”

Ember questioned in surprise.

Then, a playful smile appeared on Nux’s face and he replied,

“I got it from General Armando.”

Chapter 332

“I got it from General Armando.”

Nux answered with a playful smile on his face.

“General Armando?”

Ember narrowed her eyes and then, she questioned,

“Why would he give something so important to you?”

Seeing her reaction, Nux chuckled,

“Secret.”

He answered.

“...”

Ember continued to look at Nux without any change in her expression.

What she wanted was clear, however,

Nux didn't give in.

“Trust me, I will not betray you.”

He just said these words.

Ember narrowed her eyes even further and then, she started thinking.

3 minutes later, she stopped looking at Nux and then, she started reading the paper Nux handed to her.

The more she read, the more solemn her expression got.

“Are all these other soldiers members of Sects or Adventurers groups as well?”

She questioned.

“Yes, this is the reason why they have so many strong cultivators in their army.

The troops they lost in War against us were nothing to them.

That is the reason why they were so carefree when they lost.

Compared to what they have, what they lost that day was nothing.”

“Following Laurence’s plan is suicide huh...”

Ember muttered with a wry smile on her face.

“Actually, even if you don’t follow Laurence’s plan, your defeat is inevitable.

As I said, their Emperor is moving.

Emperors are different from others, we can’t face them no matter how superior tactics we use.

What you need to do is ask for the Dynast’s help, tell them about this situation and retreat as soon as possible.”

Nux suggested and Ember nodded with a solemn look on her face.

“You are right, we can’t go against emperors,

I will send him another letter and seek his help.”

“Mhm, that would be the best.”

Nux nodded.

Ember looked at Nux and smiled,

“Nux, this is the third time you have saved my army from a devastating defeat and unnecessary sacrifices, no, actually, this time, you haven’t only saved my army, but you have also saved my own life.

I am grateful.”

“I owe you a big favour Nux, as a repayment, you can ask me whatever you want, and if it is something I can do, I will do it.”

Ember had a simple, upright nature.

She was like a foolish and honest warrior.

Owing favours to others or something like that is something she doesn’t like at all. She prefers to even out as soon as possible.

Now that she owes a big favour to Nux, she would do her level best to pay him back.

No matter what he asks, she would fulfil it.

However,

“Don’t worry about it.”

Nux replied with a small smile on his face.

“Huh?” Ember frowned.

“Nux, you have been with me for a while now. You should know that I am not someone who would forget about favours.

I need to pay you back.”

Ember’s expression was very serious right now.

Nux, however, just chuckled,

“I don’t think you are getting what I am saying, General Ember.”

“Huh?”

“I never said I am forgetting or nullifying this favour, what I am doing right now is stacking it.

Hehe~ I am sure that this isn’t the last time you will need my help. You will keep owning me in the future as well.”

Nux then stood up from his chair and walked towards Ember. With his face so close to hers that their noses brushed with each other, Nux continued in an extremely seductive voice.

My plan is to keep stacking these favours up until it becomes so heavy that once I ask you what I want,

You won’t reject me no matter what it is~

General Ember Windstar, I will only make my move when I am absolutely sure that you can’t escape from my trap.”

Ember looked at Nux’s golden eyes with a lost look on her face.

Soon, however, she came out of her reverie and smiled,

“You are making me nervous, little boy.

The more you ‘stack’ this favour, the more I would wonder,

What is it that you so desperately want that requires you to stack so many favours?

What would I lose if I give you what you want?

Questions like these scare me, little boy.”

Seeing that he wasn't able to see her flustered expression, Nux backed off with a disappointed look on his face.

Then, he shook his head and muttered,

“Tsk Tsk, the fearsome General Ember Windstar, a prodigy who has affinities with two Elements is afraid of a 19-year-old boy's request, heh, if others hear about it, their ears might fall off.”

A teasing smile appeared on Ember's face as she turned towards Thyra,

“Heeh? Don't 'others' already know about it?”

“I am not 'others' you bitch, I am a lot closer to Nux than you will ever be.”

Thyra's response was lightning quick.

“Hahaha~”

Ember chuckled and then, she stood up.

“Alright Nux, I will meet you soon.”

“I am looking forward to that.” Nux smiled.

Nux and Thyra then left the tent.

...

“Assistant General Thyra,”

In the middle of the night, a soldier appeared in front of Thyra's tent and shouted.

“What is it?” After a while, Thyra walked out and questioned.

“I apologize for interrupting your sleep, Assistant General, however, the General seeks your presence, and it is urgent.”

The Soldier reported.

“Huh?”

Thyra frowned.

Unable to understand Ember’s action, however, since the soldier said that it was urgent, she didn’t think too much about it and nodded.

“Alright, give me a minute.”

Thyra then entered the tent and after a while, she returned with Nux following him.

“Take me there.”

She ordered, however, the soldier shook his head.

“Assistant General Thyra, General has specifically mentioned that you must come alone.”

Hearing those words, Nux and Thyra frowned.

Thyra then looked at Nux and the latter nodded.

‘If something happens, call me as soon as possible.’

‘Don’t worry.’

Thyra nodded toward the soldier and the two of them walked away.

‘Why does she wants to meet her alone?’

Nux wondered inwardly but then he shook his head and returned to the tent.

‘I am sure she won’t harm her.’

With that thought in his mind, Nux closed his eyes and slept.

“!!!”

However, soon, Nux’s eyes widened in surprise when a dagger’s icy cold blade touched his neck.

Chapter 333

Out of reflex, Nux used his [Sense] to see who it was, however, before he could even activate it,

He heard a voice.

“That is a good expression.

I don’t get to see this expression on your face that often.”

Nux frowned.

“Ember?”

A satisfied smile appeared on Ember’s face and she nodded,

“You can recognize me from my voice, good job.

You would have been in big trouble if you weren’t able to do something like this.”

“What are you doing here, General?”

“I am an impatient woman, Nux.”

Ember smiled.

Then, she moved a dagger a little closer to Nux’s neck and continued,

“Now don’t move.”

Ember then grabbed Nux’s hands, then she placed them on top of his head one by one, grabbing both his hands with one hand, Ember smiled with a satisfied look on her face and then, she finally crawled on top of Nux.

Nux’s eyes widened in surprise when Ember appeared in front of him.

“How do I look?”

Ember questioned with a playful look on her face.

“ ... ”

Nux didn't answer.

He was just too busy admiring this alluring sight in front of him.

Right now, Ember was not wearing her normal suit, rather, she was wearing a very thin, black-coloured, see-through Gown that barely did anything to hide her sinful body.

Other than her private parts, which were covered with a black coloured bra and panty, the rest of her body was practically naked.

“ ... ”

Nux didn't say anything and continued to stare at those well-toned abs.

His little brother twitched.

Today, Nux unlocked a new fetish.

Abs.

‘Fuck, they are alluring.’

He cursed inwardly.

Ember, who didn't get the answer she wanted wasn't disappointed at all.

She may have not gotten the response she had expected or wanted, however, what she got was something far more satisfying than what she imagined.

Especially the little twitch on Nux's lower part.

Of course, she did not miss that.

Ember smiled, then, she moved her body and ‘unknowingly’ placed her little sister on top of Nux’s shaft.

Nux felt a strange jolt of pleasure coursing through his body.

Ember, however, didn’t give him any chance to collect his thought and moved her face dangerously close to Nux’s.

Right now, their faces were so close that if any one of them moved even an inch closer, their lips would meet. The two of them could practically feel each other’s breath.

“What are you doing, General Ember?”

Nux, who was lost in Ember’s beautiful red eyes questioned.

Ember’s black-red hairs falling on his face did nothing to distract him, rather, they made this situation such a way that all he could see was Ember’s face, which, he was very satisfied to keep it that way.

It was a sight to behold after all.

Looking at Nux’s face, Ember smiled seductively.

“I am here to fuck you,

Forcefully, if I have to.”

For some reason, Nux’s heart skipped a beat.

Ember had sprayed perfume on her body, along with her wet clothes, Nux knew that she had taken a bath and prepared herself before coming here.

Just thinking about all this, Nux got hard.

He was completely entranced by this woman in front of him.

Soon, however, his inner sadistic woke up.

A playful smile appeared on Nux's face.

“General Ember Windstar, you do realize that what you are about to do is a crime, right?”

“Yes, I do.”

Ember smiled.

“Won't you get into trouble if you commit a crime?”

Nux questioned.

“Do you think the General of a Dynasty would get into trouble for something so insignificant? Don't worry, I have enough influence to get out of this situation without any problems.

Also, it's not like I will get into any sort of trouble in the first place.”

“Hmm? Why do you say that?”

Nux questioned with a curious look on his face.

“Heh.”

The General chuckled.

“It is called a crime if it gets caught, I, however, won't get caught because the victim in my case won't file a complaint against me, right?”

“Heeh? How are you so sure about that?”

I have a lover, you know? Just thinking about how sad she will be after learning that the love of her life got raped by someone makes me angry.

So angry that I will file many cases against you and seek justice.”

“So you have a lover eh?”

Ember smiled, and then,

She questioned.

“Why did you not think of this lover when you were ‘stacking’ so many favours in order to fuck me?”

“So you knew.”

Nux smiled.

“It is pretty hard to not know when you leave so many obvious hints, boy.

Did you think looking at me with those desperate and passionate eyes would hide it? No, actually, were you even trying to hide it?”

Ember questioned with a chuckle.

Nux chuckled as well.

Then suddenly,

Ember sealed his lips.

“!!!”

Nux’s eyes widened in surprise and he was unable to react in time.

Ember’s lips continued to touch his, however, by the time he came out of his reverie and actually got to enjoy her sweet lips, Ember broke the kiss.

“Boy, you are handsome, you are intelligent, you are strong, you are reliable and you are resourceful.

You are a great man, however, you have one fault.”

“What is it?” Nux questioned.

“You are not direct enough.”

Ember answered.

“Huh?”

Nux frowned and then, Ember explained.

“Looking at me with those eyes full of passion, fantasizing about me and then planning about how to get your hands on me from afar is too passive.

Be a warrior, boy.

If you want something, ask for it.

You don't need any favours or something like this.

If you want to spend a night with me, have enough guts to come up and ask for it.

That is how a warrior does things.”

Ember explained and then, a wild aura was released from her body.

“Don't worry though,

I will show you the way of the Warriors,

In. A. Great. Detail.

Be prepared,

Boy.”

Chapter 334

“Be prepared,
Boy.”

Ember spoke with a wild, crazy smile on her face.

And as if he was influenced by her, a big smile appeared on Nux’s face as well.

Ember smiled in satisfaction and then, she sealed Nux’s lips again.

This time, however, Nux wasn’t lost anywhere else, this time, he enjoyed her sweet and soft lips as much as he can. She was still grabbing his hands above his head, therefore, Nux could not move much, however, Nux didn’t care, he continued to suck Ember’s lips greedily and the two of them shared an extremely lewd kiss.

3 minutes later, Ember finally broke the kiss and look at Nux with a smile on her face.

Nux smiled back and suddenly, Ember bit her lips.

Nux’s little brother twitched again.

Right now, Nux was rock hard and all he wanted was to get behind Ember and ram his cock inside her forbidden cave.

However, he was not the one in control right now.

Ember was the one who had the control.

Ember smiled seductively and muttered,

“Now stay there like a good boy you are, alright?”

Don't worry, appropriate rewards will be given if you listen to what I say, do you understand?"

"Yes, Lady Ember."

Nux nodded with an obedient look on his face.

He wanted to lash out, however, his inner sadist wanted to see how far will this woman go.

Seeing him acting so obediently, Ember smiled contently and then, she moved her face away from him and sat up.

Her hands then moved towards Nux's member that was being unreasonably hard right now.

She wanted to calm this little boy down.

True to her direct nature, Ember directly removed Nux's pants without any teasing, then, she lowered in underwear and soon, an 8-inch shaft popped out of its confines and nearly slapped Ember's face with its body.

Ember's eyes widened in surprise.

However, in the next instant, her expression returned to normal.

However, this instant did not escape Nux's keen observation who was looking at Ember with a small smile on his face.

Ember was acting as if she was bold and fearless, however, Nux knew the reality.

In reality, this 'bold and fearless warrior' was a virgin.

This was probably her first time being so close to a man.

Therefore, the sadistic Nux was excited to see how long will she act like a 'strong' woman in front of him.

Oblivious to his thoughts, Ember continued her little act as she continued to stare at the shaft in front of her.

Then, her hand moved and she grabbed Nux's little brother gently.

Nux's body twitched a little.

This reaction was enough for Ember to know that what she was doing was correct. She turned towards Nux and smiled,

“Good job in following my orders, now let's start with your rewards, shall we?”

Saying that, Ember's hand moved.

She continued to move her hand while looking at Nux's facial expressions, and soon, she figured out the right amount of force that she had to use.

“Ugghh!”

And soon, Nux groaned in pleasure.

Ember's movement may be experienced, but with just how she was looking at him, he felt a strange sense of pleasure all over his body.

Combined with those rough hands that hardened due to years of training, holding his dick was weirdly satisfactory and doubled the pleasure he was feeling.

Hearing Nux's groan, a satisfied look appeared on Ember's face and then, she increased her speed.

Nux moved his body unnaturally to cope with the sudden pleasure and seeing this, Ember's smile widened,

“Now now, boy, if you are about to give in to the pleasure and release something, you better tell me before you do it, alright?”

Saying that, Ember slowed down her speed before suddenly increasing it again.

“Ugghh!”

Another moan of pleasure escaped Nux’s mouth.

This moan motivated Ember even further and she put her heart and soul into giving a handjob to Nux.

Since her movements roughened up, Nux could see the clear picture of her beautiful breasts moving up and down continuously, this sight further aroused him and different fantasies started playing in Nux’s indecent mind.

The pleasure continued to accumulate, Nux continued to moan in pleasure and soon,

“Ugghhhh!!!”

He sprayed his milk on Ember’s gown.

“W-W-What?”

Ember stuttered.

Too shocked to say anything.

She couldn’t believe that she was covered with something like this...

Just what in the hell was happening...?

How did this happen...?

Nux, however, looked very pleased by his work.

Seeing that ferocious warrior and the leader who lead around 60,000 soldiers into the war, being covered in his jizz like this filled him with immense pride.

He burned this sight into his memory and enjoyed every moment of it.

Ember, however, did not like this.

“Didn’t I tell you to inform me before you cum?”

She questioned as she narrowed her eyes.

“You did.”

Nux nodded.

“Then why did you not follow my order?”

“Because I didn’t want to.”

Nux answered with a playful smile on his face.

“Huh?”

Ember frowned.

And seeing this reaction, Nux’s smile widened,

‘This is enough,

I can’t control myself anymore.’

With that thought in his mind, Nux started,

“General Ember, have you ever heard a case where the victim turns out to be the actual hunter?”

“Huh?” Ember’s frown deepened.

“What are you talking about?”

She questioned.

“General Ember, you told me to be direct, correct?”

Nux questioned back and before the already confused Ember could react, he moved.

The next second, the position reversed,

Now, the one who was at the top of another wasn't Ember, but Nux.

“!!!”

Ember couldn't believe how ridiculously fast this happened and failed to react in time.

Right now, Nux had pinned her hands on top of her head, just like she did to him. Ember tried to resist and soon, Ember's eyes widened in surprise again.

‘I am unable to overpower him!?’

“Let's study the case of Victim becoming the Hunter more closely, shall we?”

A small, devilish smile appeared on Nux's face and he,

Tore the thin black Gown Ember was wearing.

Chapter 335

Tore the thin black Gown Ember was wearing.

“!!!”

Ember couldn't believe what just happened, however, before she could even react or say anything,

Nux sealed her lips.

In the next instant, all the resistance Ember was showing died down and she closed her eyes.

Nux smiled and continued,

This time, however, it was not a normal, inexperienced kiss, this time, Nux pushed his tongue inside her mouth and tasted every corner of it.

With his free hand, Nux quickly removed his shirt and then, their naked bodies touched each other while the two of them shared an alluring kiss.

2 minutes later, Nux broke the kiss, and then, the two of them separated with a thin silver lining of saliva joining their mouths. Nux licked his lips, breaking the saliva lining, then, he looked into Ember's beautiful red eyes and smiled,

“How was it?

Your first real Kiss, I mean.”

Ember, who was still shocked by everything that was happening finally came out of her reverie and questioned with an extremely flustered look on her face.

“W-W-What are you doing!?”

Nux looked at Ember's flustered face and his smile widened,

“Playing the hunter.”

Saying that, Nux moved his head down to her chest and with his teeth, he pulled down Ember's black bra, revealing her big, soft, and fleshy mounds with a light pink cherry on the top.

Ember's face turned red while Nux enjoyed the sight of those precious mounds jiggling on the top of her chest.

Nux moved his head again, starting with a light kiss on Ember's lips, he went down, kissed her chin, then her nape, then he continued to move down and soon, his lips appeared in front of Ember's light pink nipples.

Ember, who was seeing everything from so close could feel her heart beating quickly, then, she noticed a small smirk on Nux's face before he,

“Anh~”

Licked her nipple and unknowingly, a moan leaked out of her mouth.

Nux didn't stop there and continued to lick her nipples as he was eating the most delicious dish in the world.

He then buried his face inside her ample chest, feeling those soft breasts all over his face and at the same time, hearing that rushed heartbeat.

As Nux continued to stay in that strange position, Ember felt a weird itch inside her canals. She tried to move her body, however, with her hands pinned over her head, there was nothing much she could do.

Again, she was surprised by how strong Nux's grip was.

She wanted to ask him about this, however, right now, dealing with that strange itch was more important to her.

Since her upper body wasn't restricted, Ember decided to move her lower body.

Rubbing her thighs with each other, Ember tried to get rid of that itch, however, while moving her legs like that, her left thigh touched something.

Something hard and warm.

With Nux laying his head on her breasts and blocking her vision, Ember couldn't see what it was, however, the familiar warmth and size quickly gave it away.

'H-He is hard again...'

Her heart skipped a beat, and as if reacting to that, Nux's other hand moved and trailed down towards Ember's little sister.

Nux knew that Ember couldn't see anything, therefore, he made sure to touch every part of her body with his fingers gently and slowly so that she knows what is going to happen to her.

*Badump* *Badump* *Badump*

A small smile appeared on Nux's face after hearing Ember's increased heartbeats.

His efforts were paying off.

His hands then slipped inside Ember's panty and,

“Anh~”

Another moan leaked out of Ember's mouth.

'Damn, isn't she a little too sensitive? I haven't even touched her properly yet.'

Nux wondered inwardly and with a sudden moment, he directly grabbed Ember's clit.

“Annnhhhh!!”

Ember moaned loudly.

Hearing that loud moan, Nux's body started acting up, veins popped out on his little brother's body, however, he just placed it on the top of Ember's soft and warm thigh and inserted his finger inside Ember's body.

“AAannhhh!!”

Ember moaned and then,

The exploration started.

Ember was a lot more sensitive than normal, her body reacted to his every little movement, therefore, finding her weak points was a simple task.

Once Nux noted down all her special points around her entry in his mind, his middle finger entered Ember's cave as well.

Soon, the two fingers started assaulting those special points crazily, at the same time, Nux's thumb teased and attacked Ember's clitoris and Ember,

“AAannnnhhhhh!!!”

She moaned loudly and moved her body in a strange way to cope with this intense pleasure that was attacking her body.

‘What... what is this!?’

She wondered in her head.

‘Just why does it feel so good!? Something like this never happened when I did it to myself!’

“AANnnnhh!!! S-So goooood!!!”

Ember moaned and moaned continuously.

She believed that this was the peak of pleasure a human body is capable of feeling.

She has finally reached the zenith.

And as if going against that statement, Nux's face, which was just laying on top of her soft breasts moved and he started sucking her nipples fiercely, increasing the pleasure she was feeling.

“AANNHhhhhhh!!”

Nux continued to assault Ember's body while at the same time, he pressed his shaft on her soft tight and continued to rub it against it.

Suddenly, he noticed Ember's walls moving strangely, he quickly realized that she was about to cum, therefore, to give her the best possible experience, he increased the speed at which his fingers were moving, outside of her cave, he used his thumb to press on her clitoris and at the same time,

He bit her nipple.

“AANNnhhhhhhhhhHH!!!”

With a very loud moan, Ember raised her back in the air and,

*Squirt*

She came and,

*Squirt* *Squirt* *Squirt*

Continued to have a few more minor orgasms after the main one.

Nux looked at her face that was expressing pure bliss and his weapon twitched.

“Shall we move to the final part now?”

Nux questioned with a smirk on his face.

Chapter 336

“Shall we move to the final part now?”

Nux questioned with a smirk on his face.

“F-Final p-part...?”

Ember, who was still lost in her own world questioned in a strange voice.

Nux smirked.

No one would believe that she was Ember Windstar if they saw her like this.

Her milky white breasts moved up and down while she breathed heavily, beads of sweat that trailed down from her forehead as if she has fought a big way, the deep red blush on her face, increased heartbeat and those misty red eyes,

She did not match that vibrant, dominant and wild General Ember Windstar at all.

And seeing this sight, Nux’s sadistic side urged him to see more.

Nux then placed his rock-hard dick right in front of her entrance and seeing this, Ember finally came out of her reverie.

“W-W-What are you doing?”

She questioned in a tired voice and a slightly panicked look on her face.

“Completing the Hunt.”

Nux answered with a playful smile and,

“AANNhhhhhhh!!!”

With just one big thrust, he entered her insides and Ember’s loudest moan till now was heard, her back arched up and she moved her legs around Nux’s waist as if she was afraid that he would run away.

The mixture of pain and pleasure assaulted her body and her blood leaked out of her pussy.

Nux, on the other hand, was on cloud nine right now.

Ember’s insides were squishy and warm, her walls crawled around his little brother, massaging and trying to engulf every single part of it.

This incredible tightness...

Nux liked it a lot.

Nux then waited for Ember’s expression to return to normal, and only after he was sure that she was okay did he finally move again.

This time, however, he moved as slowly as possible.

Suddenly, Ember grabbed his hands and pulled his face towards her.

With their face dangerously close to each other, Ember whispered,

“I am not weak.

You don’t have to be so careful. Something like this doesn’t even hurt.”

Ember understood what Nux was trying to do,
