

One Night Surprise Chapter 78

Chapter 78

"But you were already losing your job." Alexander pierced straight through her heart. "Are you planning to bet your all on this celebration and just see how it goes? If something happens at that time, you'd just quit and leave me a huge mess to deal with."

Courtney let out a dry cough. "I admit that I thought of that before. You wouldn't believe me anyway even if I denied it. Besides, I'm only doing this for my performance. If my performance turns out good, I won't leave, and the hotel will be in a better situation. Both of us win."

Courtney was fast with her words, but this little trick of hers had no effect on Alexander.

Overall, the hotel is the sole bearer of risk due to the change in plan. She has nothing to lose at all.

However, he still agreed, but he didn't know why he did it. For some reason, he wanted to give her a legitimate opportunity and reason to stay.

"Thank you. I'll definitely make good preparations."

"Your thanks are meaningless to me. How about you buy me a meal when the celebration is over?"

Courtney immediately agreed.

After hanging up the phone, Alexander opened the curtains and gazed at the beautiful moonlight outside. Suddenly, he had an urge to rush back to Melrose City.

Before he went to sleep, he made a call to Josh. "For the centennial celebration, I want you to contact the finance department tomorrow morning and tell them to increase the original budget by 20%."
