Surprised Wife With Twins (Ivan and Jennifer) Chapter 283

In the photo, the lights shone bright like diamonds, Jennifer nestled in Ivan's arms, high up on the observation deck railing, and Ivan was taking selfies with his phone.

They both had light in their eyes and their smiles were extremely sincere.

Ivan could tell that he must have been very happy at that time.

He turned the pages and found all the photos were about Jennifer, having dinner together, walking on the street hand in hand, eating cotton candy… They had had a great time.

Ivan couldn't remember these moments, but he felt a throbbing pain inside himself.

Jennifer was in Spencer's villa and was probably lying next to Spencer now.

Overcome by jealousy, Ivan drank a lot and lost sleep again.

Early the next morning.

On the way to his company, Ivan was in a bad mood.

Five minutes later, a news story that the children were kidnapped spread online, and discussions on the internet were at a fever pitch.

On the way to the company, Catherine's face was a bit pale. After a while, a smug smile played on her lips.

Catherine was very happy and hoped the two children could be killed.

Her love for Ivan had become twisted.

Meanwhile, a private plane was parked at a private airport not far from Emerald Bay.

Jennifer sat by the window, waiting nervously.

Spencer broke through the gate of Emerald Bay with fifty people!

They began to fight with the bodyguards.

Gunshots filled the courtyard!

Startled, Jordan and Mary rushed to the door of the living room. They had never seen this.

"Hurry up and tell Mr. Marsh about it!"

At that moment, Alfie and Diana, who hid on the top floor, heard the gunfire and rushed to the window, looking in consternation at what happened in the courtyard.

"Alfie, what happened?" Diana was frightened, "Is someone really going to kidnap us?"

Alfie was also scared. He had never seen this before. He had only watched this on TV.

Hearing the gunfire, Jennifer was stunned, and then she desperately got off the plane and rushed towards Emerald Bay!

In his car, Ivan read the news that the children were kidnapped.

The next second, his phone rang. Jordan said on the phone, "Mr. Marsh, we're in trouble! A large group of people forced their way into Emerald Bay. Our bodyguards fired and killed a few of them."

"Turn around! Back to Emerald Bay!" Ivan said.

He also dialed a number and asked his men to rush over.

Spencer did not expect the bodyguards to shoot.

Looking at the men falling into a pool of blood, Spencer was so angry that he wished to kill Ivan!

Seven bodyguards stood in a row before Spencer and held their guns with one hand, serious.

"We'll show no mercy to whoever enters the door!" All bodyguards looked overwhelming.

Spencer's people stopped in their tracks.

Spencer dared not go forward. No one wanted to die for nothing.

"I want to see Ivan!" Spencer said, "I have something important to talk to him!"

At this time, a few cars stopped in front of Emerald Bay. A crowd of bodyguards in suits swarmed in and quickly surrounded Spencer and his people!

Moreover, all the bodyguards had guns.

Spencer was clearly at a disadvantage.

Jennifer desperately rushed to Emerald Bay! She panted, with fine sweat on her forehead, getting closer and closer to the gate of Emerald Bay.

Jennifer saw Ivan's Lamborghini drive into the yard and that many cars parked in front outside the gate.

Spencer watched the car door open and Ivan got out of the car.

"Good morning, Mr. Marsh!" The bodyguards saluted together.

Ivan put his hands in his pockets with a frown. Standing straight in the sunlight, he coldly stared at Spencer.

They were about three meters from each other.

Seeing Ivan, Spencer put up a long face and said, "I'm here for Alfie and Diana. After all, you did not care about them at all." Spencer's eyes were burning with indignation.
