Chapter 1439-1441

Chapter 1439

“Mother, don’t worry. Jack went with Father and the others. Surely nothing will happen!”

Selena comforted Joan with a gentle smile.

Just as her words fell, in the distant sky, a flying sword was rapidly flying over toward their direction, and on top of that flying sword, stood hundreds of people.

“They’re back! They’re finally back!”

Elaine was the first to see Jack and the others. She shot up from her seat and shouted; she could hardly contain her excitement.

“Mother, look, they’re back!”

Selena was smiling inside. She had not seen Jack for more than a month, and honestly, it would be a lie if she had not missed him at all. But, she also found that time passed quickly when she tried her best to train and breakthrough. She did not have much time to miss Jack.

“Yes, it’s great that they’re back!”

Joan nodded in return.

“Wow, Daddy is so cool! He has a flying sword! When I grow up, I want to be as cool as Daddy!”

Kylie's beautiful eyes were as big as a saucer when she saw Jack, and full adoration sparkled inside them.

"Sure, my little Kylie. You have to work hard and train hard in the future, okay?"

Selena turned her head and looked at Kylie as she said.

Just as they finished conversing, everyone had hopped off of the flying sword and landed onto the open ground one by one, meanwhile many young members of the White family, as well as the elders and patronums, rushed over to welcome them.

"In-law, you guys are back! You guys have worked hard. How was the competition? How's the result?"

Fiona and Ben were pacing over to Jack and the others too. Their face was plastered with warm smiles.

Nash returned them with a gentle smile and said, "Don't worry, we got first place in two events of the competition! We were rewarded with quite a lot of spirited grass, and our men tried their very best to win! Besides, we've found a lot of spirited grass in the forest, but unfortunately, a few dozen of us perished in the competition.

The seventh elder immediately frowned upon listening to Nash's words. "Master White, a few dozen is a little too much, right? In the past competitions, we had not lost that many men!"

"Sigh, it's a long story. How about this, I'll let Jack tell everyone about the specific incidents that happened in the competition. After all, I'm not very clear about what happened during the competition."

Nash smiled bitterly and said.

Jack then stood out upon Nash's cue. "Well, this was what happened. The competition this year was different from the previous ones; in the previous competitions, they'd have a ring tournament and other small competitions, but this time, the competition is..."

The crowd listened to Jack's narration attentively, especially the incident where Jack distracted the Young Master Hunt to save the others. When the crowd heard of this, they were worried and nervous for Jack, specifically Selena and Joan. If it were not for the power of Jack's flying sword, Jack would not have survived at all!

Chapter 1440

"Dear, that was too dangerous for you! If it were not for the flying sword, I'm afraid that you won't be able to come back alive!"

Selena's heart burst with fear; she could imagine Jack being surrounded by threats and danger in that forest and Jack could not afford the slightest mistake and carelessness at that point in time.

"Haha, now there's no need to be afraid. I see this as a blessing in disguise!"

At this moment, Nash laughed out loud. "Jack this brat, after he killed Tyrent Hunt, he got all his alchemy prescription! Now he is capable of creating pills on his own, and has become a second-grade elementary alchemist! Moreover, with the help of a second-grade elementary pill, he has managed to breakthrough to the late stage of the true god realm! I think his combat prowess is as good as mine now!"

"No freaking way! Jack is that powerful?"

Fiona gasped at the latest information. She truly did not expect that her son-in-law was that excellent, and possessed an incredible martial talent, as well as combat prowess!

"My goodness, a second-grade elementary alchemist? Brother Jack, you're a godlike figure to me right now! Does it mean that in the future, if Brother Jack is happy, he could also refine some second-grade pills and reward me?”

Ben’s mood was drastically elevated as well. With such an excellent brother-in-law, he would not have to worry about training pills in the future! As long as he maintained a good relationship with Jack, getting one or two pills from him occasionally would not be a difficult task!

Fiona’s eyes lit up and shined bright like a diamond upon hearing that. “That’s for sure! You’re his brother-in-law! After all, he married your pretty sister, Selena, and is living a happy life. How can he not be happy with this? Right, Jack?”

Jack could not help but smile. “Sure. When I’m refining pills, I’ll definitely give one or two. However, the creation and refinement of pills depend on time too. The alchemy process can’t be performed too often, otherwise, my skill could not be stabilized in the secondgrade realm.”

“Hehe! No worries, Jack, as long as we have your words, that’s fine!”

Andrew, on the other hand, laughed. Without a doubt, Jack would be the next head of the White family. Andrew did not care much about himself, he was at his old age after all; he was happy to live a leisure life here for a few more years. But for his own son-Ben, if Jack would help him, he could become a strong martial artist with a semi-god or even true god level. That would be great for him.

After all, as parents, they naturally want their children to live a good life.

“Haha, in-laws, don’t worry! Jack will certainly treat them well!”

Nash laughed wholeheartedly, he looked satisfied. Jack’s overall ability and capability had long and far surpassed that of Lance, and he was relieved that the White family could be handed over to Jack in the future.

Besides, he was very sure that Jack could handle it. Jack was already extremely powerful right now, and he was highly likely able to breakthrough to the peak stage of the true god realm in the next few years. By that time, even the head of the Hunt family may not be a match for Jack!

Although the head of the Hunt family's martial power was considered number one in the peak stage of the true god realm, Jack's overall combat prowess was not weak as well.

"Great! Looking at our pace, the White family is going to rise soon!"

"Yes, the Church, the Lagorio, and the Hunt family have lost so many geniuses this time. Our White family can take advantage of this to rise up!"

"But, the incident of Young Master Jack killing two young masters of the Hunt family must be kept secret. Everyone must not spill anything, otherwise, once the Hunt family finds out, they would certainly seek trouble with us sooner or later. What we need to focus on now is to secretly improve our martial prowess and enhance the overall strength of the White family!"

Many people of the White family started to discuss the next steps after hearing what had happened in the competition.

"By the way, we found out a big secret this time! That is, the Seven Dangers is likely to be related to the legend of the ultimate god realm! However, all of the families, including us, have agreed to gather at the Cabello family in a month's time, and then we will discuss the exploration in the Seven Dangers together!"

"So, I decided that, within this month, everyone will stop going out to look for resources and materials. We've got a lot of training materials this time, coupled with the rewards from the tournament. We have quite a lot. And I also decided that the White branch families do not have to offer the White main branch training materials for this month. All White branch families should keep their materials, use them and train hard this month. As for the White main branch, we will distribute according to everyone's needs. So, everyone should break through train hard this month!"

Chapter 1441

“For the eighth and ninth-grade grandmasters, please strive to break through to the semi-god realm; for those who are at the peak stage of the semi-god realm, please strive to break through to the early stage of the true god realm. It’s particularly crucial for those at the peak stage of the semi-god realm because once you’ve broken through to the true-god realm, that would be a big upgrade in your overall strength. After all, the number of the fighters with the true god realm status in a family is truly important!”

Nash looked at the crowd, and once again announced aloud to everyone.

Lancelot White, Chad White, and the others were bursting with joy. They could imagine everyone’s faces once they brought back such a news to the White branch families.

Looking at the White family’s current situation, they were going to rise fiercely to the sky.

All of them, all of a sudden, could finally see a glimpse of light at the end of the tunnel.

“By the way, Miss Daniella, why are you and your sister here too? Or you are here to deliver the Bone Marrow Cleansing Water?”

Fiona quickly noticed the presence of Daniella. Once the thought of that divine water could purify her body and allow her to become a martial artist ran through her mind, she could barely conceal her impatience.

In her point of view, the competition had ended and Daniella should have gone back to the Cabello family after the competition. But she actually followed Jack and the others back to the White family, hence, most likely she had brought the divine water with her.

“Auntie Fiona, I... I haven’t gotten the chance to go back yet. Next time when I go back, I’ll definitely bring it to you!”

Daniella was rendered speechless at Fiona's behavior. After all, she did not tell the other Cabellos about this matter, because she had told them that she would go back and secretly get the divine water for them. However, Daniella truly did not expect Fiona to be so anxious that she asked her about it in front of others.

Well. Actually, it did not matter if Fiona said it aloud, the problem was Helena was here too!

"Alright, alright. No rush, alright?"

Fiona forced an awkward smile, but everyone could sense the impatience in her.

Helena, who stood beside Daniella, frowned at the situation but she did not say anything.

"Alright, everyone, go have some rest. We'll set up a banquet in the square halfway up the mountain tonight to celebrate our victory together, how about that? It's been a long time since we've had fun!"

Nash quickly announced again.

"That's great! Haha! Tonight we must drink ourselves to death! Hahaha!"

The First Elder and the others chuckled aloud; their spirits obviously lifted and brightened.

"Oh ya, I almost forgot one thing! I still need to arrange accommodation for Miss Daniella and Miss Helena!"

Nash thought of something and added.

“It’s okay, Uncle Nash. I’ll stay in the same room I stayed in before, and my sister will stay with me. Please don’t be bothered!”

Daniella shot Nash a bright smile. She stayed at Jack’s residence with Jack and the others before.No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1442-1444

“Haha, alright! I’m good with that!”

Nash chortled aloud in return.” Moving onwards, the White and the Cabello families are one big family! Our relationship has been reconciled and we are on a good term with the Cabello family right now. We’ll help each other in the future, and the same goes for the Lancaster family!”

“That’s for sure!”

Daniella responded with the corners of her lips curled upward.

Soon, the crowd dispersed.

“Miss Helena and Miss Daniella, please go and rest. Then come join us in the victory celebration this evening! Both of you are welcome to the party!”

Jack wheeled to the two Cabellos and invited them.

“Sis, the scenery over here is absolutely stunning! Let me take you around!”

Daniella bobbed her head and then she pulled Helena along with her and left the scene.

Daniella was sensible and considerate. She knew very well that Jack and Selena had not seen each other for more than a month; the two must have had endless words and stories to share, so she did not want to be here, making a nuisance of herself.

“My little Kylie, come here! Give Daddy a hug!”

Jack lifted Kylie up with his strong arms, planted a kiss on her chubby cheeks, and laughed, “My little Kylie, let daddy see you. You’ve grown chubbier and a little taller, have you? It’s only been a while, and my little Kylie has obviously grown a little taller!”

“Daddy, you’re so cool! When I grow up, I want to be like you, standing on a flying sword and fly around the sky! And I want to fly to the moon!”

A faint hint of childishness was present in Kylie’s voice, and a rare spirit was seen in her big and bright eyes.

“Haha! Great! My little Kylie will definitely fly to the moon when she grows up!”

Jack giggled wholeheartedly, with Kylie in his arms, his heart was filled with the warmth of sunshine. He was glad that his family could stay harmoniously together, even if Jack had to work his *ss off to sustain the family, it was worth it.

“Alright, Daddy! I’ll work hard in my studies. My teacher said that I am the best learner in the class and my memory is good too!”

Kylie nodded and said in a gentle and well-manner tone.

“Really? That’s awesome! Make sure you listen to your teachers, alright?”

Jack caressed Kylie’s little head, with a fatherly smile plastering on his face.

“Let’s go inside and take a good rest. You must be exhausted from the long journey since you have no time to rest. Others had a chance to rest on your flying sword while you were flying it. I think you’ve used up a lot of Chi energy to control the sword to fly back here!”

Selena gazed at Jack; the heartache was visible in her eyes.

“Mm, alright!”

The three of them soon went back to the courtyard where they lived.

When they arrived at the courtyard, Kylie went down to play in the courtyard, while Jack and Selena entered their room.

“Dear, do you miss me?”

He immediately pulled Selena into his embrace right after closing the room’s door; he could no longer resist his longing for Selena. He took a whiff of her scent and became addicted to the light fragrance emitted from Selena’s body.

Indeed, the charmingly matured yet gentle aura in Selena was not something that any ordinary woman possesses.

Selena could not help but for her cheeks to turn pink. “Of course I miss you! How could I not miss you?”

Sometimes when I'm missing you badly, I'd distract myself with martial training and that enables time to pass by quickly! Hehe. In this way, it made me feel as if you've not been out for too long!"

"That's a good idea!"

Jack nodded in agreement." Let me guess, my dear wife must have broken through to the grandmaster level. Hmm but I still don't know which grade of grandmaster you're at right now. Hmm...are you a second-grade grandmaster? Wait! Or perhaps a third-grade grandmaster?" He guessed.

Selena, who was enjoying the warmth of Jack's embrace, was flabbergasted with joy; sunshine flooded her soul and happiness glowed inside her." Hehe, Silly, you're wrong! I'm a fourth-grade grandmaster now!" she pressed her lips and smiled.

"Wow, wow! Aren't you too talented? I had already guessed a higher grade, but I truly didn't expect I was still underestimating your talent!"

Jack's eyes lit up as though he was a kid who just got a compliment from his teacher." You should take a good rest for a few days to stabilize your current martial level. I have just broken through a few days ago as well, so I need to stabilize and adapt to my current martial level. Let's train together when we're free and well-rested. I'll refine some first-grade pills for you too! For sure it'll be helpful for you to raise your martial level!"

"Right, Dear, I've heard that you and the First Young Mistress Cabello-Helena, are in a relationship and that she even forcibly kissed you, right?"

Selena peeked at Jack and expressed her thoughts.

Jack's forehead immediately puckered the moment he heard Selena's words.

"Sigh, she indeed kissed me by force, and I totally didn't see that coming. But we're not in a relationship!” he expressed bitterly.

“You guys are not?”

Selena furrowed and questioned with a doubtful expression. “I studied Miss Helena for a moment just now. She is not only beautiful and captivating but also exudes a noble yet benevolent aura. Don’t worry about me though, and you know my parents too; they can’t wait for you to marry a noble daughter of a prominent and powerful family! As for me, I’d need to train really hard to improve, so I won’t have much time to accompany you hence a woman like Miss Helena is someone you should consider!”

Jack felt a surge of warmth inside his heart upon hearing Selena’s thoughtful words. He did not expect that Selena would be this understanding, gentle and kind.

However, he shook his head and explained, “Honey, I’m not in a relationship with her. The thing is, the Hunt family that you know, they’re the strongest among the eight reclusive families and they always behave domineeringly. At that time, the Second Young Master Hunt had a desire for Miss Helena and was always pestering her. So Miss Helena, kissed me on the street to get rid of him!”

“You and Helena are really not a couple?”

Selena gave the matter some thoughts then she laughed at herself bitterly. “In fact, I also felt that that was not the case. If you were to tell me that Miss Daniella and you are a couple, then I’d feel that that was more plausible. After all, you and Miss Helena have only met for a few days, so the possibility of you being in a relationship with her is rather low. As for Miss Daniella, you’ve known each other for a while, and she seems to be interested in you too!”

“How do you know that she’s actually interested in me?” Jack gasped and asked shockingly. He did not expect Selena’s sixth sense to be so accurate.

“Of course I know. The Cabello family is almost at the other end of the earth yet she is willing to follow you around, not to mention her gaze toward you. It’s so affectionate as though you’re the only man she could see in her eyes. Her affection and admiration toward you is crazily strong and obvious, I can naturally sense it!”

“Besides, Miss Daniella is willing to steal their family’s treasures for my parents and your mother, this cannot be merely a friendly act between ordinary friends, right?” Selena rolled her eyes at Jack as she laid out her observation.

Selena continued speaking as she saw that Jack was pondering deeply. “Daniella is a simple girl; no evil thoughts nor dirty tricks present in her mind and she treats you so well. So I think you shouldn’t let her down. If you like her, take the first step to approach her!”

“Sigh!”

Jack heaved a loud sigh, only then spoke his heart out, “Indeed, Daniella treats me quite well and is a decent woman. Sigh...I shall tell you the truth. The truth is Daniella and I are in a relationship. It’s just... just that I didn’t know how to tell you and I’m afraid of Kylie’s reaction too. I’m afraid that you and Kylie will not be happy!”

“Tsk tsk, I knew it! The relationship between you and Daniella is not simple!”

Selena rolled her eyes again at Jack and then added, “Don’t worry about it, I’ll not blame you. As for Kylie, I’ll talk to her about it.”

“Dear, the thing is I got drunk the night when I had monkey wine with Daniella. I didn’t see myself getting drunk at all, but I did. And...and... I was so drunk that night that Daniella and I... Sigh! If I didn’t drink that stupid monkey wine, I wouldn’t have committed that mistake. Daniella was a decent lady and now I’ve ruined her purity. I am a man; I shall be responsible for my behaviors!”

Jack returned a bitter smile. Selena’s thoughtful words eased up his heart and lifted the heavy boulder away. Before that, he did not know how to break it to Selena about Daniella and he was so afraid that Selena would be upset and disappointed.

However, he truly did not anticipate Selena to be thoughtful and reasonable, which warmed his heart and eased his frantic mind. In fact, Selena's kind-heartedness made him feel even guilty. He genuinely hoped that nothing had happened that night.

Chapter 1444

"So that's what happened. I've said that someone like you who's so dense and straightforward won't go chasing after girls yourself. Instead, the girls will come chasing after you. You haven't known Daniella for long, and logically speaking, I think that your relationship wouldn't have progressed so fast. I didn't think that that would happen!"

Selena took in Jack's demeanor and spoke in a solemn tone instead, "If that's the case, you have to take responsibility for bullying a fine young lady like that while you were drunk. If you don't take responsibility, I'll be embarrassed by you!"

"Don't worry, dear. I've had a good impression of her since the beginning, and she's a fine woman. Since this has happened, I'll definitely treat her well!"

Jack tightened his grip on Selena, then he ducked his head and kissed her.

After they kissed for a while, a passion sparked within Jack.

However, Selena quickly clamped down on his hand. "N o. It's broad daylight. You should rest!"

"You said so yourself. Don't simply pin the blame on me later!"

Jack smiled, then planted

Another longing kiss on Selena's face.

In the afternoon, Ethan, William, and the others had also arrived. During this period, they all cultivated their strength at the White family Estate, and many of them broke into another level.

Especially William, Yoseph, Adam, Riley, and Sam, who had broken into the peak stage of the semi-god realm, only one level away from the beginning stage of the true god realm.

Meanwhile, Ethan, Lana, and Abner had broken into the advanced stage of the semigod realm. All of them had improved tremendously.

After they found out that Jack had returned, they were all overjoyed. At night, they all drank aplenty while they were celebrating.

After the night's celebrations were over, Jack and Selena went to bed after they were done bathing.

Meanwhile, in another room, Helena spoke to Daniella, unable to contain herself any longer, "Daniella, aren't you being too much? The Bone Marrow Cleansing Water is a true treasure to the Cabello family, and more importantly, we don't even get much of it throughout an entire year. And you're actually going to steal it and give it to them?"

"You cannot tell Father about this, Big Sis," Daniella replied, grinning. "After all, Jack has been so nice to me. Besides, his mother and parents-in-law can't cultivate themselves because they've long passed the prime age to begin training. Only our treasure can help them, so we should help them!"

Helena shook her head hopelessly. "Fine. You would have gone ahead and stolen it even if I refused to help," she said. "And you've promised them already. What choice do I have?"

Daniella immediately tugged on Helena's hand, simpering. "You're the best sister ever, Big Sis!"

Right there and then, Daniella suddenly thought of something and added, "Oh, right. Now that the two young masters of the Hunt family are dead, and so are the three young masters of the Norman family, Big Sis. Heh. This is great! Those fellows had been the ones to pester you the most. Especially Second Young Master Hunt, who was the worst of them all. Now they're all dead and you don't have to worry about them bothering you anymore!"

"That's right!"

Gratefulness flashed across Helena's expression. "Thank god for Jack. I didn't think that he would be able to get rid of all those b*stards during the competition!"

Daniella pursed her lips. Her big, beautiful eyes darted to the side once. "Sis, so you're not afraid anymore, right? Since Second Young Master Hunt is dead," she said to Helena.

"Then when will you end the fake relationship with Jack? When are you going to break up with him? Then everybody will know that you've broken up, and you won't need to be afraid of Second Young Master Hunt pestering you anymore right?"

Helena eyed Daniella for a while, poking her skull with a forefinger. The former rolled her eyes. "What's the rush? We've only just started being a fake couple. It'll be embarrassing if we were to announce that we've broken up now. Second Young Master Hunt may be dead, but if Master Hunt finds out that Jack and I had separated so soon, he'd definitely suspect that we were fooling his son. He might hate us even more then!"

Helena then paused for a while before continuing, "I think we should wait it out for a while more, at least until everybody has forgotten about it. Then we'll make the announcement!" No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1445-1447

“Sis, you said that Jack stole your first kiss. I’m wondering if your acting is slowly turning to reality and if you like him now.”

Daniella frowned, speaking nonchalantly, “What are you saying? No way! He’s a married man. No way that I’d like him. Besides, he’s your boyfriend. No way that I’ll snatch him away from you!”

Helena immediately answered in hasty tone, “Why are you so nervous? I was just asking!”

After Daniella thought about it, she asked another question, “Oh, right, what did it felt like when you were forcing a kiss on him, Sis?”

“Daniella Cabello, why on earth are you asking all these strange questions! It’s so late already. You either go to bed now, or you properly cultivate yourself!”

Helena could not be bothered to answer her. She turned to her side on the bed, her back facing Daniella, ignoring her.

“I was just curious. Forget it then!”

Daniella said, pursing her lips.

The next morning, Trenton and the others finally returned to the Lagorio family estate.

Only a few dozen geniuses of the Lagorio family had survived the competition, out of the initial number of over four hundred. That made Trenton extremely furious.

“Dad, why are there so few who are back? Where are the others?”

Lily saw that so few had returned home, and instantly asked in surprise.

“That’s right. Why are there only these few people left, Master? Where are the others? Don’t tell me that they’ve all died. What happened during the competition? Was it necessary for so many to die?”

The other Lagorio family members who had stayed behind were also confused.

“Ah...”

Trenton released a long sigh. At that moment, it was as though he had aged ten years.

After he sighed, he told everybody about everything that happened during the competition.

After listening to everything, Lily was so angry that she clenched her fists. “So you’re saying that the White family only lost a few people, and obtained plenty of martial enhancement materials? And they even won the individual and group categories? They won that many prizes?”

“That’s right. I thought that the gap between our two families have narrowed when I broke through to the peak stage of the true god status But I never expected their First Elder to have broken through to the peak as well. And the White family have benefited greatly from this competition! It’ll be even more difficult for us to take revenge now!”

Trenton heaved another sigh, restlessness boiling within him.

“Ah!”

Lily released a sudden roar after she heard that. She felt as though she was going to go insane. She had thought that with her father breaking into another level, they could make the White family suffer great losses during the competition. She did not think that everything would end up like this.

How was she going to take revenge from now on?

After she has rested over a period, her body had recovered aplenty, and she had started training again. Up until then, she was only a third-grade martial artist. This cultivation level was a far cry from her previous condition.

“Ah, I’ve tried my best, my dear daughter. I wanted to avenge you as well. But it seems that we have no way to do it with this turn of events. After all, since the White family has received so many benefits, they’ll definitely be training themselves properly and strengthening themselves!”

Trenton sighed, looking at his distressed daughter. His heart clenched as well.

“Why? Why are the gods so unfair? We helped them so much before, but now we are left suffering in the dust like this?”

“The position of house heir belonged to my son anyway. Lance definitely hasn’t died yet. He’s definitely still alive. I will take revenge, Dad, I must take revenge and find my son!”

Tears welled in Lily’s eyes, dissatisfaction broiling in her.

“Ah!”

Trenton sighed again. “I truly understand your feelings, my daughter. But there’s nothing we can do about the current situation. Unless... unless I can break into the ultimate god status!”

As Trenton spoke, his eyes gradually brightened. Excitement stirred his heart. That’s right. If he could break into the ultimate god realm, he could probably kill Nash, Jack, and the others easily. The ultimate god status was a whole other level, and it would yield a denser and more powerful pool of Chi. According to the rumors, someone with the ultimate god status could defeat a few fighters who were at the peak of the true god status alone.

“Ultimate god status?”

Lily’s lips twisted into a bitter smile after she heard that. “It’s a pity that this ultimate god status is nothing but a myth. We don’t even know if it even exists. We might as well be dreaming!”

“No, it must exist. The ultimate god status does exist. We even have a few clues! Didn’t Quentin manage to repair the summoning circle? When the competition was ending, a picture actually appeared in the sky...

“That’s why we suspect that the Seven Dangers have something to do with the ultimate god status!”

After Trenton thought about it, he told all of it to Lily.

“There are only Seven Dangers, and there are Eight Major Families. Then will the Eight Major Families allow second-class and third-class families in?”

Lily furrowed her brows when she heard this. “What if you can find a way to break into the ultimate god status inside there. Then won’t the White family have an advantage if they go in? If they do find a way, they will definitely not tell us after they are out. How are we going to take revenge then?”

“We have to go. The Hunt family members already said that they would agree to this matter, even if the other families don’t. Furthermore, we have pretty good relations with the Hunt family now. They’ll definitely bring us along!”

Trenton clenched his fists. “I’ll definitely fight for the chance. Not only must I break into the ultimate god realm, but I must also do it fast,” he said. “I want to be the first who does so, and help to avenge you!”

Chapter 1447

“Thank you, Dad. I would take revenge myself, but my cultivation level is useless now. I can only rely on you and the other Lagorio family elders!”

Lily’s expression was grateful.

“You’re my daughter. I’ll never allow you to be bullied!”

Trenton smiled, features soft.

“Oh, right. Why is there not a single trace of Lance, Dad? Quite a few members from other families went along with him. Who knows if they have some news!”

Lily asked after she thought of it.

Trenton shook his head again, hopeless. “There’s no news at all. I asked them before I came back, and they haven’t found a single clue. And those families are ready to stop searching!”

“Why are they giving up? How cruel. It’s their family members that have disappeared, and they’re not going to bother?”

Lily grew angry after she heard that. If the other family members send in search parties, there would be more people on the job, and there would be a higher possibility of finding the lost members

Now though, they were giving up on the search. That meant that the possibility of being able to find Lance had shrunk.

“Ah, it’s different from them. They’ve been searching for a few months already. Some are the sons of a Patronum, some are sons of an Elder, some are even grandsons of an Elder. Basically, the lost family members didn’t hold very high positions. That’s why they don’t want to waste their time and resources since their search has not been fruitful. Besides, the place that Lance and the others went into is near the dangerous zones. Nobody dares to venture deeper into it!”

Trenton felt helpless. “My daughter, it’s likely that Lance is truly dead, and that his body had been consumed by monsters,” he told Lily. “I hope that you will be able to accept this reality.”

Trenton paused before continuing, “But we’ll still conduct the search parties for another twenty days. If there’s still no news after that period, we’ll have to give up. We can’t just go on searching forever, right? The other families have also given up, and our chance of succeeding is even smaller!”

“All right, Dad. I get it!”

Lily nodded her head forlornly. She mulled over the situation, then she thought of something. “Oh, right, Dad. I’m guessing that the Four Ancient Clans don’t know anything about the ultimate god status?” she asked Trenton.

The Four Ancient Clans were colossal and powerful families. A family like the Lagorio family was nothing before them. Any one of the Ancient Clans was just that formidable and did not care about the reclusive families at all.

Of course, the members of the Four Ancient Clans also never mingled with the mundane. They have cultivated themselves contentedly within their own grounds, and nobody dared to provoke them.

The Four Ancient Clans also rarely interacted with one another.

“Heh. We, the reclusive family members are not fools either. Why would we tell them something like that? If we do, we probably don’t even stand a chance to get the scraps!”

Trenton chuckled and was about to leave. “This is the one secret weapon the reclusive families have. If we have a chance to turn the tides, why would we want to be oppressed by the Four Ancient Clans?” No.

Chapter 1448

Trenton quickly left while Lily returned to her room alone.

She lay on the bed, unable to fall asleep. Soon, she sat up again.

“No way. If this goes on, I’ll never be able to take revenge for the rest of my life. Jack also has good talent. With the White family crowned as the champions this time, they’ll definitely improve immensely. I’ll have to think of something to take revenge!”

Lily clenched her fists, beginning to scheme in her head.

After a while, her eyes brightened. “Oh, right, instead of going on like this, why don’t I secretly inform the Four Ancient Clans about this and strike a few deals?”

The more Lily thought about it, the better the opportunity seemed. The Four Ancient Clans would not be bothered about other news, but they would definitely be interested in something about the ultimate god realm.

After all, there were plenty of powerful fighters in the Four Ancient Clans, and a lot of them were in the true god realm. There were practically over a dozen fighters at the peak of the true god realm in every Ancient Clan.

Although they seemed to be lofty, as if they were a cut above the rest, they still could not avoid death.

That was why the ones who wanted to find a way to the ultimate god status the most were naturally the powerful fighters at the peak of the true god status.

After she thought about it, Lily finally fell asleep. The next morning, she sought out an elder who was at the beginning stage of the true god realm.

“Eldest Miss, what’s the Matter?”

The old man frowned. Lily certainly needs something from him.

“It’s nothing much. I just want to go out for a stroll and was hoping that you could come along with me, Eighth Elder. After all, my cultivation level is so low now. I probably won’t be safe if I go out alone!”

Lily said, giving a wan smile.

“Oh, so you want to go out? No problem at all. But I think you should inform the master first, Eldest Miss. That might be a better idea!”

The old man finally understood everything. He suggested it with a small smile on his face.

“Don’t worry. I’ll inform my father later!”

Lily nodded her head and went out with the old man, then she informed Trenton of this.

Trenton agreed happily when he heard that Lily wanted to go out for a walk. After all, he had been afraid that his daughter would do something foolish outside. That was why he had ordered everyone to keep their eyes on her.

Now though, it seemed that Lily was feeling a lot better. It was a good thing that she wanted to go out.

After she had gotten Trenton's approval, the elder used his small flying carpet and ferried Lily, slowly flying down the mountain.

"Eldest Miss, which city do you want to go to? We can't just waste the entire day at such a languid pace now, can we?"

The elder sat to the side, asking after thinking about it.

"Let's head for the Pavilion of Gods and Kings!"

Lily spoke in a soft tone after remaining silent for a few seconds.

The old man was shocked when he heard this. He immediately stopped the flying carpet mid-air, staring at Lily, stupefied. "Eldest Miss, surely my ears have not deceived me? You-you want to go to the Pavilion of Gods and Kings, the place that belongs to one of the Four Ancient Clans? All of the Ancient Clans are so mighty. They won't even spare a second glance at us reclusive families. Why do you want to go to the Pavilion?"

Chapter 1449

"I want to avenge my son, Eighth Elder. That's why I hope that you can keep this a secret. Please don't tell anyone about me going to the Pavilion of Gods and Kings and how I'm seeking the Four Ancient Clans!"

Lily looked at the Eighth Elder, speaking solemnly, "I'll tell my father about this once we get back!"

"All right. But I just think that they might not even see when you go there!"

The Eighth Elder flashed a bitter smile. He continued to guide the flying carpet toward the Pavilion of Gods and Kings.

The White family members were all training hard. Meanwhile, Yoseph, Adam, and the others all hoped that they could break into the beginning stage of the true god realm within a month.

After all, they had caught wind of rumors of the ultimate god status too. They wanted to achieve that.

Nash was also elated, seeing how Jack's disciples were all working hard to cultivate themselves.

When Jack was free, he would accompany the ladies to shop in the city or teach Kylie about cultivation. He also helped to purify her body so that she could become a martial artist and start training.

However, something unexpected occurred. Kylie was still young, but after purifying her body, her talent was revealed to be shocking. Immediately after her body was purified, she was already at the level of a third-grade

Martial artist.

Her talent was comparable to that of Selena's. More importantly, she was still young. She would definitely be a powerful figure if she trained properly from then on.

After seeing Kylie's strength, Nash and the other White family members were overjoyed. Furthermore, Kylie's wise yet adorable behavior made everybody dote on her more.

Daniella was obviously trying to win Kylie over these few days. In the beginning, Kylie had been rather antagonistic toward the beautiful stranger.

However, over the next few days, Daniella had brought Kylie shopping. After buying a few toys and other things for the little girl, the two were practically like sisters.

At this moment, Lily and the Eighth Elder of the Lagorio family arrived outside the Pavilion of Gods and Kings.

"Who are you? Do you know where you stand?"

Outside the gates, the two were immediately barred from entering by two guards of the Pavilion.

"Greetings, my friends. We are from the Lagorio family, one of the reclusive families. I am the Eighth Elder, and this is our First Young Mistress, Mistress Lily!"

The Eighth Elder studied them for a while, fearing that their cultivation levels were high. He immediately raised his hands into a fist-to-palm salute and spoke in a respectful tone.

"There is a Lagorio family among the reclusive families?"

One of the men was taken aback. He spoke with a mix of confusion and suspicion on his face.

It was evident that he was mocking them, looking down on the Lagorio family.

"I think so. Usually, we only hear about the eight first-class families. But the Lagorio family isn't too shabby either. I think they're second-class!"

Another girl chimed in after thinking about it.

"A second-class family? Forget that. People from second-class families have no right to speak to us about the Pavilion of Gods and Kings!"

The man from before hardened his expression when he heard this. "Go. All the elders and masters here are busy people. They don't have time to spare for you second-class families."

The Eighth Elder and Lily exchanged a glance. The two's expressions were awkward.

Chapter 1450

Lily was furious.

Before, she was the eminent young mistress of the Lagorio family, born with a silver spoon in her mouth and coddled by her parents since

Young.

After she got married, she was the wife of the First Young Master of the White family. After the White family had become a first-class family, her position had been further elevated. Plenty of people traipsed their way around her and curried her favor.

She never thought that she would see the day where she was dismissed so easily by these people in the semi-god realm. That greatly embarrassed her.

“You...”

Lily was so angry that she clenched her teeth, and her veins purpled.

“Eldest Miss, we should leave!”

The Eighth Elder feared that Lily would not be able to control her feelings when he saw her expression. It would be troublesome if she offended the members of the Pavilion of Gods and Kings.

He was of a high cultivation level, and these guards were no match for him.

But the fighters inside would definitely catch wind of any fighting. They would rush over, and it would be terrible then.

The guards had powerful people supporting them. Furthermore, this was their headquarters. There were over ten thousand apprentices in one Pavilion. If they dared to stir up a ruckus there, they might as well be digging their own graves!”

“What are you saying? Is the Eldest Miss displeased?”

The Pavilion apprentice gave a cold smile, folding his arms across his chest. “You look like you’re over forty years old,” he said. “You have a good figure, and you’ve managed to maintain your beauty pretty well, but I don’t like aunties like you. Hah. Perhaps we’d be nice if you were young and beautiful!”

“Hah!”

The others laughed together as well.

Lily released a long sigh, tamping down on her anger. Then she smiled and said, "Heh. You have pretty good eyes, being able to tell my age at a first sight. Not bad at all!"

Here, she rolled her eyes at him and continued, "Young man, we won't see your elders nor your masters. But why don't you see if we can talk to a Patronum? Can you allow us to see them?"

The man seemed to be in a much better mood after Lily praised him.

However, he still grinned and answered, "This is the Pavilion of Gods and Kings. Not even a Patronum is so readily available. Our Patronums here are all at the beginning or intermediate stage of the true god realm. People of that status among the reclusive families can already become an elder, right?"

Lily immediately batted her lashes at the Eighth Elder, who was standing beside her, signaling to him to bring something out.

The Eighth Elder was stunned for a while, then he recovered and flipped his palm, taking out a stalk of first-grade premium spirited grass. "We truly hope that you can help us, young man," he said. "Just spread the news. As for whether they grant us an audience, that's up to them."

The man saw that it was a first-grade premium spirited grass, and his eyes brightened.

However, he quickly responded, "There are five of us here. Why are you only taking out one stalk of spirited grass? How are we supposed to divide this? Are you kidding me? Do you take us so lightly?"

The corners of the Eighth Elder's mouth twitched violently. He was seething, but he knew what the brat was hinting at. He flipped his palm and took out another four stalks of first-grade premium spirited grass. "I hope that the rest of you won't take my oversight to heart!"

The five apprentices exchanged glances, clearly delighted.

The man from before flew forward and took the spirited grass, passing it to his comrades.

“How about this? Since you came from afar and your journey was arduous, I’ll get someone to report your arrival to our Patronum. What message do you have for him?” No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1451-1453

Chapter 1451

The man smiled before agreeing to the deal.

“Please inform your head Patronum that I want to see your grandmaster,” Lily immediately said.
“Because we have information about the ultimate god status!”

“Ultimate god status!”

The disciples were shocked when they heard this. Naturally, they had heard of this legend, but no one had found any clues leading to it all these years.

They did not think that Lily would mention it then.

“Carlos, I think you should bring them to see the First Elder. I’m sure that the First Elder will take them to see the Grandmaster after listening to them. Even if the Head Patronum knows about this, he’ll probably just take them to see the First Elder!”

The man frowned and immediately turned serious. He told another man beside him, who was clothed in a long green gown.

“All right. You two, follow me!”

The male disciple named Carlos nodded his head and waved at Lily and the Eighth Elder.

They exchanged a glance, delighted, and followed him in.

After the three flew some distance away, one of the female disciples asked the man from before, “Brother Darren, no one has been able to find any clues about the ultimate god status all this while. Even the Four Ancient Clans have not found a single clue even as we continue to search in secret. Do you think we can trust those two?”

The man named Brother Darren gave a cold smile. “They should be pretty trustworthy. If they didn’t come bearing the truth, they would be serving their heads on a platter,” he said. “This is the Pavilion of Gods and Kings. They can’t just swing by and attempt to swindle us as they please. Besides, each of us gets a stalk of first-grade premium spirited grass by bringing them over. There are no visible disadvantages to us!”

“Heh. You’re right, Brother Darren!”

The girl instantly chuckled.

At that moment, the First Elder of the Pavilion was leisurely drinking tea in the courtyard, basking in the sun. His white hair and long beard gave him the appearance of a being from the heavenly realms.

He placed his teacup on the stone table, frowning. He craned his head slightly to catch sight of the three people flying in through the entrance. He did not look happy.

“Who are these two, Carlos? I’m the First Elder here. Don’t bring anyone who walks up to our entrance to me. Understand?”

Before Carlos could say anything, the First Elder spoke in a patient tone.

“I would not have brought these two here if they did not have any important business, First Elder. I think you’ll definitely be interested in what they have to say. That’s why I brought them to you!”

Carlos stepped forward and said, raising his arms in a fist-to-palm salute.

“Really?”

The First Elder gave a cold smile. “Then let’s hear them out. If I’m not interested, I might just kill these two outsiders.”

The corners of their mouths twitched slightly when Lily and the Eighth Elder of the Lagorio family heard him. The First Elder of the Pavilion of Gods and Kings was way too brutal.

“Greetings, First Elder. I, Lily Lagorio, am the daughter of the head of the Lagorio family, Trenton Lagorio, of the reclusive families. Indeed, I did come here on an important business today, and I would like to see your grandmaster! So...”

Lily raised her arms in a demure fist-to-palm salute. She bowed over slightly, speaking with reverence in her voice.

The old man furrowed his brows, slightly vexed. “What are you trying to say? Even I can’t handle your problem? The matter is so big that you must see our grandmaster? You’ve got guts!”

Chapter 1452

When he heard this, the disciple was shocked as well. He immediately told Lily off, "What are you saying? This is our respected and venerable First Elder. It's your honor to be able to meet him. Besides, even first-class family members won't get to meet him so easily. You're only a daughter of a second-class family. It's good enough that we let you in, and still, you're not satisfied?"

Lily was so frightened that cold sweat beaded down her forehead. At that moment, the First Elder got onto his feet. The frightening aura that he radiated made her, whose level was only a martial artist, unable to stand on her two feet. She dropped to her knees, and even the Eighth Elder next to her was starting to turn pale. He too sensed the immense pressure.

"I—I did not mean that, First Elder. What I meant was that you would still seek out the grandmasters to discuss the matter even after I've consulted you. This is a matter of unimaginable proportions to the Pavilions!"

Lily clenched her teeth, her face turning paler by the moment. "Because I have clues that lead to the ultimate god status!" she said hurriedly.

"The ultimate god status?"

When he heard this, the First Elder of the Pavilion immediately frowned. The frightening aura radiating from his body slowly dissipated until it completely vanished, as though it had never appeared.

"That's right. The ultimate god status!"

Lily heaved an internal sigh of relief. She wiped at the sweat filming across her forehead.

"Hmph!"

Yet she did not think that the old man would simply just smile. “Every day, there are plenty of people who come bearing news of this, but they’re all liars and tricksters. You should know that you will die if you provide useless information!”

Lily took a sharp intake of breath after she heard that. If there were not any rewards from going into the Seven Dangers, did that not mean that she was in danger?

However, after she thought about it carefully, she still spoke to the old man in a resolute tone, “Do not worry, First Elder. The information I have will definitely be useful. Besides, the eight first-class reclusive family members have already discussed this, and they’re prepared to move out!”

“All right. Tell me!”

The First Elder of the Pavilion retook his seat, leaning against his chair, and slowly closed his eyes.

Yet he did not think that Lily would just frown and say, “I think we should meet the grandmaster instead before deciding further on the matter. After all, you’re well aware of the value of information like this. Besides, the other families have not told you of this, so you should know what it means. It means that they’re confident in this clue leading toward the ultimate god status!”

After Lily said that, the First Elder could not help but chuckle internally.

It seemed that the information would likely lead to a way to break into the ultimate god status. If the first-class family members snatched the opportunity and a few of them broke into the ultimate god realm, the Four Ancient Clans would no longer be as powerful as they once were.

After all, who knew how terrifying a fighter at the ultimate god status could be?

The First Elder suddenly realized the gravity of the situation and sprang onto his feet. "All right. Let's go. I'll take you to see our grandmaster!"

When they heard this, Lily and the Eighth Elder exchanged a glance, delighted. They could finally meet the Grandmaster of the Pavilion of Gods and Kings.

After a while, the First Elder of the Pavilion took the two of them before the Grandmaster.

At that moment, the Grandmaster was playing chess with the Vice-Grandmaster. When the First Elder brought the two of them to where they were, they did not dare to disturb them. They could only stand to the side and wait in silence.

After they finished the game, only did the Grandmaster and the Vice-Grandmaster acknowledge their presence.

Chapter 1453

"Who are these two, First Elder?"

The Grandmaster of the Pavilion of Gods and Kings was also a white-haired elder, and he looked very old. If he could not break into the ultimate god status, he could only wait for his death, just like the grandmasters before him.

However, the Vice-Grandmaster looked a lot younger, and he was probably forty or fifty years old. He looked like he was full of life.

The First Elder raised his arms into a fist-to-palm salute. "Grandmaster, this is the first daughter of the second-class Lagorio family, and this is their Eighth Elder. They came bearing news of critical importance, which is why I had to bring them before you!”

“Really? Tell us then! It’s been quite boring lately too. Who knows how interesting their news can get!”

The Grandmaster glanced at Lily, speaking slowly.

Everyone thought that Lily would just spill everything this time.

Yet she raised her arms into a fist-to-palm salute and said, “Greetings, Grandmaster. This news is of utmost importance, and I fear that the first-class families will be furious if they hear that I’ve revealed this. I can tell you, of course, but…”

The Grandmaster was well-versed with human intentions, and he immediately understood what Lily wanted when he heard her words.

He gave a wan smile. “You will be rewarded, of course,” he said. “But it depends if your news is of any value!”

He then paused for a while before continuing, “If your news has no value, not only will you not be rewarded, you will not be able to walk out of the Pavilion of Gods and Kings alive! After all, it’s difficult for a second-class family member to even negotiate niceties with us!”

“Do not worry. It is valuable enough. This concerns your ability to break into the ultimate god status, and the news I bring this time is real enough.”

Lily smiled and said, “I do not ask for much. I only want five hundred stalks of second-grade intermediate spirited grass, as well as some pills. You are free to give us as many pills as you wish!”

“Eldest Miss...”

The Eighth Elder was shocked when he heard this. She was too bold, actually daring to lay out those terms. She was overstepping her boundaries, even though the Pavilion of Gods and Kings could certainly fulfill those demands. However, they were lofty and proud. If they were unhappy, they would kill them both. That would be troublesome.

Yet Lily did not seem to care. She looked at the Grandmaster in earnest, as though she had never heard him.

“No problem. Speak now!”

The old man nodded his head after giving it some thought. If he could break into the ultimate god status, it was a small price to pay.

Besides, no one else had brought information like that to them before, while the first daughter of the Lagorio family did. This meant that her family probably lacked martial enhancement materials.

Lily was delighted. She then told them everything.

The corners of the Grandmaster’s lips curled into a cold smile after he finished listening to her.

“I never thought that the first-class families were so clever. They actually repaired the summoning circle, which showed images and a few cryptic clues. I think we should be able to find something in the Seven Dangers!”

The Grandmaster bobbed his head. “All right, First Elder, take them down and give them the items they requested for,” he told the First Elder. “This information is worth the price. Give them fifty first-grade premium pills. If we give any less, they might call me an old miser!"No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1454-1456

Chapter 1454

"This is great. Your plan is fantastic, Eldest Miss. I even thought that we would get ourselves into trouble if you only intended to tell the news to them. I didn't think that we'd get so many rewards. If this is the case, we didn't come here for nothing!"

After they got out of the Pavilion of Gods and Kings, the Eighth Elder's nerves were still on the edge. He had been afraid that they would have been killed if the Ancient Clan was not happy. They would truly be in dire straits then.

Furthermore, the two of them had sneaked here. If they died, the master would not have known how they died.

Lily gave a mirthless smile. "Think about it. The Lagorio family is only a second-class family right now," she said. "We're much weaker than the White family, to begin with, and after the competition, we suffered great losses with so many geniuses dead. It'll be difficult for us to rise again. Who knows how long we'd have to wait till then?"

Here, Lily paused before continuing, "That's why even if we don't tell the Four Ancient Clans about this, we won't be able to get much out of an excursion into the Seven Dangers. Why don't we then secretly spread this information? This way, our losses won't be so great, and we'll even get rewarded for our efforts. Isn't that the ideal situation?"

"Hah. You're getting smarter, Eldest Miss!"

The Eighth Elder burst into laughter. "Just by using the spirited grass and pills we've obtained, the geniuses in the Lagorio family will be able to grow in a shorter time. This way, the gap between us and the White family won't be as big until we can never hope to catch up to them."

“Next, let’s go to the Pavilion of Divinity!”

He did not think that Lily would give a wan smile as she responded to him.

“The Pavilion of Divinity? You want to go there?”

The Eighth Elder drew his brows together. He was surprised.

“Heh. I didn’t say that I would only leak the information to a single Ancient Clan,” Lily said a cold smile on her lips. “We should visit each Ancient Clan. Wouldn’t that be better? Think about it. We can multiply our gains by four. Wouldn’t that be amazing?”

“Hmm. You’re right. That’s true!”

The Eighth Elder immediately bobbed his head after he heard this.

At that moment, in the main hall of the Pavilion of Gods and Kings.

The Vice-Grandmaster looked at the Grandmaster. “Grandmaster, why did you give them those items just now?” he asked, tone serious. “They can’t do anything even if we don’t give them anything. They’re only a second-class family!”

The Grandmaster of the Pavilion shook his head, smiling. “We would seem like a petty clan if we didn’t. Besides, I’m in a good mood today after hearing such great news. Think about it. It’ll be fantastic if we can break into the ultimate god realm. We’ll be able to live for two hundred years then. Two whole hundred years. I’ve been dreaming of this day for so long, and it’s finally dawning!”

“You’re right!”

The middle-aged man nodded his head, and his eyes brightened. “Then when should we make a move? The first-class families all fear the Seven Dangers, but we have nothing to be afraid of. Heh. There are plenty of fighters in our clan. No need to wait for external parties, right?”

Grandmaster Harry gave the suggestion some thought. “How about this? We’ll have a meeting with the elders first, then we’ll dispatch seven units to search each of the Seven Dangers,” he said.

The middle-aged man was excited when he heard this. “That sounds good. But we can’t afford to hold our numbers back. The Seven Dangers cover an enormous expanse. It won’t do if too few of us go!”

Harry nodded his head. “That’s true. We’ll have at least two hundred people per unit. They’ll move out tomorrow!”

Chapter 1455

“Hah. All right!”

The middle-aged man laughed and went down to inform the other elders.

Lily only thought of getting rewards, but she had no idea that the people of the Pavilion of Gods and Kings were already discussing how to dispatch people to the Seven Dangers. After all, these people would not rush over to the Seven Dangers according to the time that the eight first-class families had set.

After they arrived at the Pavilion of Divinity, Lily and the Eighth Elder managed to see their grandmaster without a hitch and obtain the rewards they wanted.

The Grandmaster of the Pavilion of Divinity was slightly more generous than the Grandmaster of the Pavilion of Gods and Kings. They gave ten more pills.

Soon, they exited the Pavilion of Divinity.

“No, no. We can’t just keep asking for these rewards. Even if we have this much, other than being able to allow us to increase our cultivation levels quickly, the Lagorio family will still have a hard time catching up to the White family!”

On the way to the Pavilion of Skies, Lily quickly thought of something and frowned.

These materials will last us for a long time, Eldest Miss. We won’t be able to catch up to the White family, but we can’t help that. If we ask for more, they might not be willing to bargain with us!”

The Eighth Elder answered after he thought about it.

“We can’t ask for rewards this time!”

Lily clenched her fists, venom filling her gaze. “This time, I’ll ask for an even better favor!”

“Really? What favor would be better?”

The Eighth Elder was confused. It was evident that he did not understand what Lily was trying to say.

“Hmph. It’ll be easy enough for the Pavilion of Skies to help me take revenge. Isn’t the White family going into the Seven Dangers as well? We'll get the people from the Pavilion of Skies to kill the entire White family then! That'll be great. Haha. This way, we'll get our revenge without lifting a finger!"

Lily emitted a cold harrumph, a dark smile curving the line of her lips.

"This—will they agree to this? Asking them to give spirited grass and other things is different from asking them to wipe out the White family!"

The Eighth Elder frowned when he heard this diabolical plan. "It'll indeed be easy enough for the Pavilion of Skies to wipe out the White family, but the White family has two fighters at the peak of the true god realm. Not to mention they have plenty of other fighters in the true god realm. If the two families clash, the Pavilion of Skies would emerge victoriously, but not without great losses. If you're asking them to get into a situation that might risk some of their most valuable fighters, they won't help you!"

"This is indeed troublesome!"

After listening to the Eighth Elder's reasoning, Lily realized that there was a good possibility of that happening.

However, after remaining silent for a moment, she could not help but say, "How about this? They won't agree to kill the entire White family, but it shouldn't be a problem for them to find an opportunity to kill Nash or Jack, right? And they should kill their First Elder as well! If those three are killed, the White family won't have proper fighters!"

Here, Lily climbed to her feet on the flying carpet and clenched her fists. "I would have practically taken revenge if those three were dead," she spoke confidently. "Then if the Lagorio family fights the White family then, the remaining fighters can only await death

Without their heroes there to defend them!"

Chapter 1456

“If they’re only asked to attack these three, they might just agree!”

The Eighth Elder nodded his head after giving it some thought. “After all, it’s impossible to walk away with zero losses if they were to fight a huge family such as the White family. Once news of how one of the Four Ancient Clans attacked a reclusive family gets out, it’ll be troublesome!”

Lilly was well aware that the Four Ancient Clans and the reclusive families had always maintained an unspoken understanding that they would never meddle in each other’s waters.

Besides, the Four Ancient Clans had also promised that they would never interfere in the reclusive families’ affairs to not impede their growth.

Furthermore, there was the occasional scuffle or friction between them and the reclusive families, such as the eight first-class families, but the possibility of an actual war breaking out was pretty low.

They had their disagreements, but once an Ancient Clan attacked a reclusive family, the other reclusive families would definitely band together to oppose the Ancient Clan, even going to war with them.

This was because the reclusive families were aware that if something like that happened once, it was likely to happen again if they did not fight back together. The next target could be any of the families.

The Ancient Clans could attack the families until all of them were destroyed.

That was why it would be difficult to convince the Ancient Clans to attack the White family, which was a first-class family. The chances of them agreeing to the proposition were very small.

However, if it was to attack only a few people, it was extremely likely that they would agree to it. They only needed to target two or three people, and if they secretly killed the targets in the danger zone, nobody would be able to determine if they were the murderers.

“Naturally. But still, I must test their waters. I’ll first suggest that they wipe out the entire White family, and they’ll definitely refuse. This way, they’ll feel like they’ve made a bargain if I reduce my conditions. The chances of them agreeing to it will be even bigger!”

Lily gave a wicked smile and said.

The Eighth Elder’s eyes brightened. He flashed a thumbs up at Lily. “All right. Your plan is great, Eldest Miss. You’ve truly become wiser. Haha. I think we’ll definitely be able to see this through!”

Lily said after looking at the sky.

The two found a small town and rested for the night. The next morning, they continued to make their way toward the Pavilion of Skies.

At noon, the two finally arrived at the gates of the Pavilion of Skies.

Like before, a few disciples standing guard at the entrance halted them.

“Greetings. We’re here to discuss a matter of utmost importance with your grandmaster. We hope that you can pass our message along!”

The Eighth Elder smiled and flipped his palm, taking out four first-grade premium pills and thrusting them toward the guards. “Young lads, just let them know that we’re here. Will these work?”

They had obtained these pills from the Pavilion of Divinity. That was why they were more generous this time, taking the pills out right off the bat.

The four disciples were not of high cultivation levels. Their eyes immediately brightened when they saw the pills. The pills would be of great help to them.

“All right!”

One of the men took the pills without hesitation before dividing them with his fellow guards.No. 1

Chapter 1457-1459

Chapter 1457

“Are you sure about this, Brother? Shouldn’t we inform the First Elder, at least? You didn’t even ask who these people are, and you’re going to bring them in to see the Grandmaster?”

A female disciple frowned when she saw this and then reminded the male disciple.

Only then the male disciple recollected himself and asked, “Right. Who are you people? I can’t just accept gifts from you!”

Lily proceeded to introduce herself and the Eighth Elder to them. “We are here on truly important business,” she said. “We have news about the ultimate god status. Do not worry. I’m sure that your grandmaster will see us once he knows that we are here for this.”

The Eighth Elder also chimed in, “It’s true. He’ll definitely see us. Think about it. Your grandmaster is at the peak of the true god status. But he's old now. I hear that he's over seventy now. He can be stronger and faster than the rest of us, but even he can only await death if he does not break into the ultimate god status. The most important thing to him now is to break into the ultimate god realm and prolong his life..."

"All right, all right. No need to say another word. I'll bring you in if you do have news like that!"

The male disciple was unused to the Eighth Elder's winding speech. He waved his hand and interrupted the older man saying, "Let's go. I'll bring you in!"

"All right. You work so efficiently, young man, taking us to see your grandmaster so soon!"

Lily and the Eighth Elder immediately followed him in.

The three quickly arrived in a huge palace, coming before an old man clad in a red gown.

"Greetings, Grandmaster Collins!"

The three did fist-to-palm salutes before the old man, then they sank into bows, not daring to display an ounce of disrespect.

The old man was playing with a parrot in a cage. He looked at the three then set the birdcage down. "Why did you bring these people here? Didn't I say that all matters should be handled by the Patronums or the Elders? If it doesn't concern the Pavilion's immediate welfare, no need to seek me. Besides, a disciple like you has no authority to come informing me of matters, even important ones."

Cold sweat suddenly beaded down the male disciple's forehead. If not for the first-grade premium pill and the fact that these people were bringing news that the Grandmaster would gladly welcome, he would not have risked his life to bring people in.

He immediately raised his arms into another fist-to-palm salute and said, "Grandmaster, they are here to bring good news to you. It does not concern the Pavilion's immediate welfare, but it is close enough!"

"Close enough?"

The old man furrowed his brows, then he studied Lily. He realized that not only was she beautiful and fair, but she also carried an air of dignity about her. Not everyone had this aura of a mature woman.

Furthermore, her martial aura was rare.

"Look at me!"

He told Lily.

"Yes, Grandmaster Collins. I am the first daughter of the second-class reclusive family, the Lagorio family. I bring good news to you today!"

Lily lifted her head and gave a wan smile. She had already seen two grandmasters of Ancient Clans. She was not so nervous now.

"You're pretty calm. You're not actually afraid of me!"

Grandmaster Collins's eyes brightened when he saw Lily's face. She was a striking woman.

Chapter 1458

“Heh. I have no choice, Grandmaster Collins. After all, I know that it’d be useless for me to be nervous!”

Lily gave a bitter smile. “Besides, I believe that a powerful and benevolent figure such as you wouldn’t bother with us small fry, right?”

“Haha. That’s true, that’s true!”

Grandmaster Collins studied Lily again, and his heart was troubled. The woman maintained her looks well, and she looked as though she was in her thirties. She also had an excellent figure. She was just his type.

He sat down and asked slowly, “All right. Tell me. What news do you bring me?”

“Grandmaster Collins. I’m here to tell you something about the ultimate god status!”

Lily said in a mirthless tone.

Joel Collins’s eyes immediately brightened when he heard this. He had just sat down, but he sprang to his feet again in excitement. “News about the ultimate god realm?”

However, he quickly noticed that something was off, and his lips curled into a frosty smile. “However, why would you tell us of the Pavilion of Skies about such news? Heh. I don’t think you’re that generous!”

“You catch on quickly, Grandmaster Collins,” Lily replied, smiling. “You’ve seen right through us. Naturally, we’d like some sort of reward after coming such a long way to reveal this piece of news!”

“Hah. I knew it. Say it. How much do you want? Spirited grass, pills? What grade do you want? Do you need weapons?”

Joel laughed and said, “The Four Ancient Clans never mingled with the reclusive families for fear that we would be affected by you. We can break that tradition today since it’s about the ultimate god realm!”

Lily looked at the disciple beside her and frowned.

Joel was no fool, and he instantly understood what she wanted. He waved his hand and told the disciple, “Take your leave first!”

“Yes, Grandmaster!”

The disciple who had brought them in exited the hall respectfully.

After he left, Joel said, “All right. You may speak now!”

Only then did Lily say, “I don’t want spirited grass or treasures...”

Joel was taken aback. “You don’t? Then what do you want?” he said, astonished. “Don’t tell me that you admire me that much?”

Lily was internally speechless, but she replied, “Of course I admire you, Grandmaster Collins. After all, you’re the great Grandmaster of the Pavilion of Skies!”

“Haha. Speak then. What do you want? It won’t be a problem so long as I can fulfill it! After all, news about the ultimate god realm is hard to resist for an old man like me!”

Joel laughed again.

“Help us kill the entire White family. How about that?”

Chapter 1459

Lily finally revealed her thoughts, ‘I know that this might be difficult for you, but I have no choice. I need to take revenge. I must take revenge!’

“Wait!”

Joel was stupefied when he heard this. He drew his brows together. “I just remembered that the master of the White family is Nash White, right?” he said. “Isn’t his woman named Lily? Why would you want to kill him?”

“Hmph. That traitor. He found another woman from the mortal realm. Never mind that that was embarrassing enough, he even welcomed her and the illegitimate son they had together back into the house. And never mind that he welcomed them back, he even gave the position of the house heir to that illegitimate son. Of course, I’m angry!”

Once Lily recalled this, fury sparked in her again. “The White family has been growing stronger,” she said. “Their First Elder had broken into the peak of the true god status. As for that good-for-nothing illegitimate b*stard, Jack, he has strong talent and fighting power. I even heard that he has a powerful spiritual tool, probably an ultimate grade tool. During the competition, the Lagorio family has suffered great losses. It’s difficult for me to take revenge now!”

“All right. I get it now. So because of this internal conflict, you are now enemies with your man. That’s why you want our help to get rid of the White family, right?”

Joel had a grasp on the situation after listening to her.

“That’s right. This matter is simple enough for you so long as you’re willing to help. After all, you have over a dozen Elders in the Pavilion of Skies, and all of them are at the peak of the true god status. This will be easy enough for the likes of you!

“Besides, I’m sure that you’ll be able to find a way to break into the true god status with the information we’ll share with you. You’ll definitely find a way no matter the martial art technique!”

Lily grew more excited as she spoke, “That’s why I believe that the ultimate god status is important to you. I’m sure you know this as well. My terms for supplying the information is not too much, isn’t it now?”

It was evident that Joel seemed to have been stirred. He went silent for a while, then said, “I do want to help you, but you should know that the Pavilion of Skies has no reason to attack a reclusive family. If we do attack, all the reclusive families including some of the second-class families will come together and fight us. I’m afraid that even we would be unable to defend against them then...”

Here, Joel paused for a while before continuing, “This has been the agreement between the Four Ancient Clans and the reclusive families, and it has existed for many years. Nobody would dare to break the peace so easily!”

“I know that this is a difficult decision for you to make. But I have no other way around this!”

Lily frowned, thinking for a while before speaking, “That’s why I won’t say a single word if you won’t help me.”

“You won’t?”

After Joel heard that, an amused smile crept across his lips. “Aren’t you afraid that I’ll kill you if you don’t say anything?” he asked.

“Heh. First of all, I trust that you wouldn’t stoop to such underhanded methods, Grandmaster Collins. After all, you are a grandmaster of one of the Four Ancient Clans. If you attack a martial artist from a second-class family, you’d become the laughingstock if news of this gets out. My father and the others all know that I’ve come to meet you!”

Lily chuckled and added, “Besides, if I don’t say a word, what can you gain from killing me? I didn’t think that I would return home alive when I set out on this journey!”

“You have guts. You’re truly Master Lagorio’s daughter!”

The old man nodded his head in satisfaction. He realized that this woman was exactly to his taste.

However, after he thought about it, he could not help but say, “Why don’t I just give you spirited grass? Even second-grades. And I believe that you’ll need pills and things like that too! Think about it. The White family is a first-class family. They have the numbers. No way that we’d be able to clamp down on all rumors if we kill them. It’ll be troublesome if news of that gets out!”

When Lily heard this, she was delighted. She knew that her original plan would be successful as the old man was now, stirred.No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1460-1462

Chapter 1460

“How about this? I understand that this will be difficult even for you, Grandmaster Collins. I don’t wish to push you into a corner. After all, there will be unimaginable consequences if the entire White family were to be wiped out. See if this works for you then. The White family will definitely go into the Seven Dangers soon. We’ll keep in contact, and I’ll tell you which danger zone they went into!

“After you enter the danger zone and finds Nash, Jack, and their First Elder, Kenneth, help me kill the three of them. That shouldn’t be too hard, right? The area has always been chaotic, so it’s not easy for people to be seen. It shouldn’t be a problem if you only kill these three people!”

Lily pretended to be deep in thought for a moment before speaking her mind, “And so long as the three of them are dead, the Lagorio family will definitely clinch victory if we were to attack the White family. Battles between reclusive families shouldn’t bother you, right?”

“That makes sense!”

Joel nodded his head. Then he looked at the Eighth Elder of the Lagorio family. “However, I still wish to discuss this matter further with your Eldest Miss,” he told the Eighth Elder. “I hope that you can wait outside for a while. There is a banyan tree outside the palace. You can wait there!”

The Eighth Elder was surprised, unable to comprehend why the old man suddenly wanted him to leave but he did not dare to make a single protest. He simply bobbed his head and raised his arms into a fist-to-palm salute, striding out of the palace.

Lily also furrowed her brows. She did not know what the old man wanted from her.

She looked at him for a while. “Grandmaster Collins, I do not understand why you made my subordinate leave all of the sudden,” she said. “He’s the Eighth Elder of my family, and so he is one of my own. He already knows everything we talked about here. Was that truly necessary?”

“Haha, how would you know that wasn’t necessary, sweetheart?”

Joel curled his fingers as if he were pulling Lily over. A frightening energy dragged Lily toward him, and he wrapped an arm of his around her waist.

“You...”

Lily was suddenly so furious that her face went red. She glared at him, and her stomach churned with disgust. After all, she had not the slightest bit of attraction toward this old man.

However, he was the grandmaster of one of the Four Ancient Clans. A powerful figure and his fighting power were not to be trifled with. She was evidently no match for him as someone only at the level of a martial artist, never mind that she had even made a request to him. That was why even though Lily was broiling inside, she could only clench her teeth, not daring to say another word.

“Do you think that that was necessary now?”

Joel emitted a mirthless chuckle and inhaled Lily’s scent. “You smell so good,” he continued. “You have a good figure, Dearie. Not bad, not bad. It was truly love at first sight!”

When Lily recalled her grudges, the anger on her expression immediately dissipated. Instead, she rolled her eyes at him and spoke in a coquettish tone, “Grandmaster Collins, you are in such a high position. Why would you like someone like me? You could always find a younger lady if you wanted a woman!”

“Haha. I feel bad if I go for the young ones and my wives are old too. Now, I prefer women like you! Besides, very few young ladies are as good-looking as you, from my perspective!”

Joel saw that she was playing along, and could not help but plant a kiss on Lily’s lips. “It’s not difficult at all to get me to agree to help you kill those three. But I am afraid that someone will seize the opportunity to strike us if we attack a reclusive family’s members. It will be troublesome then. That’s why I will only agree to your terms if you agree to mine!”

“Seriously? Fine. I’ll tell you about the method to break into the ultimate god realm later, and I’ll sleep with you once. Will that work?”

Lily pulled on a coy mask, batting her lashes at him.

Chapter 1461

“I’m afraid that’s not what I want!”

Yet she did not think that Joel would say, “I intend to marry you and make you my ninth wife. Of course, you must accompany me in a while!”

“Ninth wife?”

When she heard this, the corners of Lily’s mouth twitched slightly. She never imagined that he would want to make her his ninth wife.

She was not interested in marrying such an old man. If word of that got out, it was not something to be proud of. Besides, there would be plenty of people talking behind her back if she married him.

After all, she had never known Joel before. If she married him so suddenly, it was evident that she was only interested in his position.

However, she thought about how she wanted to kill Jack and Nash to take revenge. She thought about how she would be able to command many fighters from the Pavilion of Skies to find her son if she became the ninth wife. She quickly made a decision then.

“All right. I accept your proposal!”

Lily nodded her head. “But since I’m going to become your ninth wife, I hope that you’ll make sure that the announcement is blasted to everyone and that you’ll invite powerful figures to our wedding. How about that?”

“Haha. Of course, of course. I’ll come to visit your parents in another two days after you get back. Okay?”

Joel suddenly burst into laughter, absolutely ecstatic. He carried Lily into the room. “Let’s go, babe. We’ll take a shower first, then you’ll tell me everything about breaking into the ultimate god realm. Understand?”

“All right!”

Lily nodded her head. However, she was internally speechless. If she had known that this would happen, she would not have told the Pavilion of Divinity and the Pavilion of Gods and Kings about the ultimate god realm. She would have come straight to the Pavilion of Skies.

Once she became the ninth wife, the Pavilion of Skies would be able to help her get rid of Nash, Jack, and the First Elder of the White family. The White family would be done for then.

After that, she could give the Lagorio family some martial resources with her connection to the Pavilion of Skies, making the Lagorio family grow stronger and becoming a first-class family. Maybe they could even become the strongest first-class family in a few years and completely overtake the Hunt family and the others.

When she thought about it as she was being carried into the room by Joel, she could see her bright and beautiful future.

“Ah. What are those two talking about? Why aren’t they coming out yet?”

Under the banyan tree outside the palace, the Eighth Elder of the Lagorio family had been waiting for a very long time. He began to worry.

However, he could not just barge in recklessly. He could only wait outside in silence.

Chapter 1462

The Eighth Elder of the Lagorio family waited quietly. After a while, Lily finally came out.

“What happened? I guess that he agreed to the proposition? Why did he ask you to stay behind? What’s so critical that he must talk with you alone?”

When he saw Lily emerging, the Eighth Elder quickly rushed over, confusion filling him.

Lily’s emotions were in a tangle. She still felt disgusted after having been ravished by an old man.

She looked at the Eighth Elder. “Let’s leave this place first,” she said. “I’ll tell you everything in a while!”

“All right!”

The Eighth Elder frowned. He could tell that Lily was in a bad mood, so he did not dare to press her any further. He took out the flying carpet, and the two hopped on it and flew into the distance.

After they had flown for some time, the Eighth Elder finally asked, "Eldest Miss, should we head for the Pavilion of Soaring Eagles?"

Lily had not intended to go there, but she gave it some thought and said, "Let's go. We've been successful so far. Besides, we shouldn't just give up our chances of taking spirited grass. Since the other three Pavilions already know of this, it should be fine if another is in the loop!"

"Haha. You're right, Eldest Miss. We shouldn't waste this opportunity!"

The Eighth Elder burst into laughter after he heard this.

"Eighth Elder, do you want to know why Grandmaster Carter wanted to see me alone?" Lily said. "Since you'll know this sooner or later, I might as well tell you now. The old man fell for me at first sight! He wants to marry me and make me his ninth wife!"

"Ninth wife?"

The Eighth Elder was shocked when he heard this. He frowned and asked, "So what are you saying, Eldest Miss? Don't tell me that you actually intend to marry him? That man is so old. Isn't the age gap a bit too much!"

Lily stared ahead, a wan smile curving her lips. "He'll visit the Lagorio family in a few days to introduce himself. It's a good thing that we're able to establish a relationship like this with the Pavilion of Skies, one of the Four Ancient Clans. This will greatly benefit the development of the Lagorio family. Besides, he agreed to kill Nash, Jack, and Kenneth!"

"Ah!"

The Eighth Elder released a sigh. "Eldest Miss. You sacrificed so much for us!"

Lily flashed him an easygoing grin. "No worries. We can take revenge and kill the White family, and more importantly, I'll be the powerful ninth wife in the future. Hehe. Think about it. The disciples from the Four Ancient Clans from before all looked down on us. Next time, they'll be on their knees when they see me. That'll be such a powerful feeling. I don't think this is a bad thing!"

"Mhmm. It's great that you think that way, Eldest Miss! I was afraid that you would feel like you're suffering!"

The Eighth Elder nodded his head and increased the speed.

Their visit to the Pavilion of Soaring Eagles was successful as well. They quickly told them about the ultimate god status and got their rewards.

Of course, Lily also told them that the reclusive family members would be making a move in another twenty days.No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1463-1466

Chapter 1463

"Master, the Eldest Miss has been gone for a few days already. Why isn't she back yet? Where has she gone to?"

At the Lagorio family, the butler could not help but ask Trenton.

"No matter where she goes, it's a good thing so long as she's enjoying herself. I hope that she'll be in a better mood when she returns this time!"

Trenton gave a bitter smile. "I hope that everybody has been training hard lately?" he spoke to the butler. "There are only a few days left till the meeting at the Cabello family's place. But even if we don't have a meeting, we'd be heading into the Seven Dangers anyway. That's why if we can increase our fighting power, we should. After all, those are dangerous places. Some monsters are probably as strong as fighters at the advanced stage of the true god realm, or even the peak of the true god realm!"

Here, Trenton paused for a while before continuing, "After all, even I might not survive if I go in!"

"Don't worry. Everybody is training hard. However, those that go in must at least be in the semi-god realm. Otherwise, they're going to die!"

The butler, Hilton Lagorio, nodded his head and spoke.

At this moment, the two noticed that a flying carpet was gradually heading toward them in the distance.

"Master, see! It's the Eldest Miss and the Eighth Elder. They're back!"

The butler immediately cried out, pointing at them.

Soon, the flying carpet was before them, and the two jumped down from it.

Lily immediately threw a martial ring at Trenton once she got down. "Dad, there are plenty of pills and spirited grass in there. It's enough to supply the Lagorio family members for a long while. Besides, those pills will help a few of our fighters to increase their cultivation levels in a short time!"

Trenton was so stunned that he stood rooted to the ground. He studied the martial ring carefully, then took a sharp intake of breath. "No way. So many? What happened? My God, where did you get these martial resources, my dear daughter? Where did you go?”

“No way!”

Hilton also came over and snatched the martial ring away to take a look. He also took a sharp intake of breath and was completely stupefied. “Eldest Miss, where—where did you get all these treasures?”

“Dad, I—I told the Four Ancient Clans about what we know of the ultimate god status!”

Lily truly dropped the bomb straight off the bat. Her words completely shellshocked the two old men before her.

“You—what were you thinking, Daughter. How could you tell this to the Four Ancient Clans? This is the chance for us reclusive families to turn the tables on them. Do you think we can actually get benefits by doing this?”

Trenton slapped his thigh, furious. His voice was trembling, “I’d rather throw away all these martial resources than tell the Four Ancient Clans about this. Besides, everybody agreed to not breathe a word about this to the Four Ancient Clans. Once the other reclusive families find out that we leaked this information, they will hate us. Then, our relationships with all the reclusive families will be severed!”

“Dad, you’re thinking too much!”

Lily gave a cold smile. “We’re only a second-class family. Did you really think that we’d get plenty of rewards if we did not speak a word about it to outsiders? Even if there are rewards, the eight first-class families would get the lion’s share of it, no? No one knows how we can break into the ultimate god status. What if it’s some kind of magical fruit, and there are only eight of its kind in the world? Do you think the first-class families will give us a portion?”

Here, Lily paused, lacing her fingers behind her back. "Not only will we obtain nothing, but the gap between us and the White family will only grow wider. That's why there's hardly any difference for us if we tell the Four Ancient Clans about this!"

Chapter 1464

"Ah. What do you mean there's no difference, Daughter! I thought that you were just heading out to enjoy yourself so that you can clear your mind. I didn't think that you would tell the Four Ancient Clans about this!"

Trenton heaved another sigh. "You fool. We have these treasures, but the other reclusive families will surely hate us for leaking the information. And the Four Ancient Clans have never meddled in the reclusive families' affairs. We may have gained rewards this time, but we'll be oppressed in the long run. The benefits do not outweigh the losses!"

As Trenton spoke, he slowly squatted as he despaired. "I barely managed to suck up to the Hunt family and build a good relationship with them," he added. "I didn't think that you would actually give them a reason to hate us! Ah. You had good intentions, but you did nothing but drag us down!"

He did not think that Lily would simply give a wan smile after she heard that. "Dad, you can't keep looking at things from your old perspectives. You have to think of the future. This was indeed the case in the past. The many reclusive families and the Four Ancient Clans never mingled and meddled with each other's affairs, and we've maintained this unspoken agreement for a long time.

"But the circumstances are different now. Even if we know the techniques to attain the ultimate god status, we don't know how many of us can actually break into it, and we don't know who will make the breakthrough first. Perhaps it'll be someone from the Four Ancient Clans or someone from the reclusive families. At any rate, the balance will soon be destroyed. This is an opportunity for us, and if we don't seize it, we'll be completely out of the game!"

As Lily spoke, she clenched her fists and spoke earnestly, "At any rate, the Lagorio family must not be shoved out of the game so easily. We must take this chance to rise!"

After Trenton heard this, he thought that it made sense. He sank into a thoughtful silence.

However, after he considered the matter for a while, he still could not help but say to Lily, "But the information about the ultimate god status is all speculation on our part. Who knows if the Seven Dangers actually contain a way to break into the ultimate god "IN status? What if they don't? The Lagorio family will be finished then!"

The corners of Lily's lips twitched ever so slightly, but she quickly recollected herself. "I don't care. We have to throw all our stakes into this now. We can only believe that we'll find a way to break into the ultimate god realm inside there. It might just be some kind of magical fruit. Besides, there are definitely cultivation techniques and martial arts techniques. How would we cultivate ourselves otherwise?"

"That's right, Master. I agree that the Eldest Miss's decision is risky, but if we don't do this now, we'll never get the chance to take revenge!"

After the Eighth Elder thought about it, he also chimed in to support Lily.

"Don't worry, Dad. We'll be able to take revenge soon!"

Lily smiled again. Then she told Trenton, "The Grandmaster of the Pavilion of Skies has already agreed to help us!"

"No way. The Pavilion of Skies is one of the Four Ancient Clans. The White family is not some obscure clan. They're a first-class reclusive family. The consequences will be unimaginable if they wipe out the entire White family. It'll be terrible if word of that gets out. Besides, why would the Pavilion of Skies help us, a second-class reclusive family?"

Trenton was surprised at first, then he quickly shook his head. He thought that it was unimaginable. Something like that would never happen.

“Dad, Grandmaster Carter, and I immediately hit it off when we met. I think he’ll come over tomorrow or the day after to visit you, then he’ll announce the preparations for our wedding!”

Lily managed to smile as she said, “Then I’ll be his powerful ninth wife!

“What!”

Chapter 1465

Trenton nearly fainted right there and then. The grandmaster of the Pavilion of Skies was a few years older than him. He would have to call such an old man his son-in-law?

He staggered backward, and for a moment he could not find his breath. However, he was no fool. He quickly understood the sacrifice his daughter made.

He also understood that the matter had already been settled.

He had no way to change the circumstances. If he disagreed, he might as well have started a war with the Pavilion of Skies.

When the Grandmaster of the Pavilion of Skies came to visit him with his fighters and present their offerings, he could not just turn them away at the door. If he did not spare their dignity, he would be digging a grave for himself.

“All right, since you’ve already decided upon the matter, and if you two get along well, I have no objections!”

At last, Trenton stood up and gave a wan smile. “If we have the Pavilion of Skies supporting us, the other reclusive families won’t simply dare to attack us even if they find out that we leaked the information. Even if they don’t wish to spare our face, they have to at least respect the Pavilion of Skies, right?”

“Of course! I’ll be the powerful ninth wife soon!”

Lily clenched her fists. “If I train in a place like the Pavilion of Skies, I’ll be able to improve quickly with twice as little effort. I believe that one day, I’ll be able to quickly cultivate myself and return to the strength I had before. I’ll even become a fighter that everyone admires!”

“Ah. If you marry into the Pavilion of Skies, you must maintain a low profile too. Your cultivation level is low now, and you’ll be the youngest wife. I’m afraid that the other eight wives might band together to bully you!”

Trenton quickly thought of something and warned Lily.

“Bully me?”

Lily gave a frosty smile. “I, Lily Lagorio, am no pushover. If those women dare to bully me, I’ll make sure that they pay the price for it! Besides, once I’m the ninth wife, I can use the forces of the Pavilion of Skies to find Lance!”

Trenton did not know how to comfort Lily, seeing that she still could not let Lance go, believing that he was still alive. He could only nod his head.

“But even if you marry Joel Carter, I don’t think they’ll just help to wipe out the White family since their numbers are so big. Aren’t they afraid that the other families will come together to fight them?”

After falling into silence for a while, Trenton spoke with worry in his tone.

“Don’t worry, Dad. Joel and I have already negotiated the terms. They won’t directly attack the White family. I just need his men to kill Nash, Jack and Kenneth when they’re in the Seven Dangers. So long as the top three fighters in the White family are dead, we can handle the rest of the White family members without a problem!

“Besides, aren’t we on good terms with the Church family and the Hunt family now? If you can get their help to attack the White family, they’ll be completely wiped out!”

Lily spoke confidently, as though the entire world was in her palm.

Chapter 1466

“Well, when you put it that way, it might just work!” Trenton’s worries were eventually lifted as he nodded in satisfaction.

He then took two steps forward and caressed Lily’s hair as he lamented, “You’ve grown, my daughter. You know how to think and make plans now, but you’ve sacrificed too much for the Lagorio family.”

“Father, what are you talking about? I feel that Joel Collins is a kind man. Though there are rumors of how he loves to toy with women, he’s quite a nice person in other aspects. Our family wouldn’t need to be afraid of anything else after I marry him.” Lily steeled herself and wore a brave façade.

Eventually, Trenton nodded and spoke, “Alright. You must be tired, so you should go take a rest now. I’ll ask the elders for a meeting about these martial enhancement materials and let everybody share some so that everybody can use the materials for training.”

Sure enough, the pavilion master of the Skies Pavilion led several elders and came at noon the next day. They sent a large amount of martial enhancement materials as betrothal gifts once they arrived and decided on the engagement instantly. The wedding was then decided to be seven days later.

Another two days passed and there were about 12 days left before the White family had to go to the Cabello family when they received an invitation.

The elders, Jack, housekeeper Titus, and the others were summoned to the discussion hall. First elder Kenneth White curiously asked upon seeing Nash's hardened expression, "What is it, Master?"

Everybody could see that something serious must have happened when they saw Nash's solemn expression. Otherwise, he would not have summoned them—important members of the family—when everybody was busy training.

"Father, did something happen? Did members of the Hunt family make a move to enter the seven dangerous areas first and find ways to break through to the ultimate god level?" guessed Jack all while he wore a frown, expression shifted into a solemn expression.

It would be troublesome if that truly was the case. After all, he was the one who killed both young masters of the Hunt family, and only a few others could raise the other party's suspicion. Both him and Helena were the highest in the suspicion list.

The Hunts would seek him and the others out sooner or later for it, and it was because of that that Jack hoped someone from the White family could breakthrough to the ultimate god level, or they would be in trouble if the other party broke through first.

"No, that's not it. The seven dangerous areas cover a huge area and nobody knows how deep it actually is, so the Hunts won't dare to act rashly." Nash smiled bitterly. He took the invitation and passed it to Jack. "Take a look. The pavilion master of the Skies Pavilion from the Four Ancients Clans is marrying his ninth wife. He's inviting us to his wedding."

"How's that possible? This...this old man is marrying another wife when he has eight wives?" The First elder was shocked when he heard this, though a chuckle followed soon after. "Master, this shouldn't be a big issue, right? Him marrying again isn't a big deal. Although we'll need to spare some time to go there for a meal, it's nothing much. After all, it's just a meal! Members of the other families will surely attend the wedding. Apart from that, members from the other clans might show up too, right? They definitely have to honor the pavilion master of the Skies Pavilion!"

"That's right. Master, this is nothing, right? It's just him getting married. It's mind boggling how this old pervert is marrying his ninth wife when he's so old!" Another elder also started laughing.
