

No. 1 Supreme Warrior chapter 1709

Another man also expressed his grievance and looked as if he was going to cry.

“There’s no need for everybody to be too sad as we have learned to take life and death easily since we are trainers. Although the death of the hall master is slightly unfortunate, this is how life is!” Angus also had a pained expression on his face before he continued seriously, “However, there’s no need for everybody to worry. After I become the new hall master, I will definitely lead our Hall of Divine Royal toward a new glorious future.”

Angus paused here before he continued to speak, “However, there are some issues here that need to be resolved and I hope that everybody will work together and help us out. Let’s help to settle our enemies here first before we continue speaking about other things!”

However, Elder Lawrence had a darkened expression on his face and directly said, “Elder Mosley, it doesn’t seem nice for you to self-proclaim yourself as the leader, right? Yes, you’re considered one of the top elders in the Hall of Divine Royal previously and you were well-liked by the hall master. After all, not only are you courageous and smart, you have a high combat power. All of us here weren’t your opponent!”

Elder Lawrence smiled coldly and continued speaking, “However, several elders here have already broken through into the first stage ultimate god-level and are masters of the ultimate god-level. Not only me, Elder Mitchell, Elder Ladd, and Elder Witherspoon also have the fighting prowess of the ultimate god-level. Haha... I think matters regarding the hall master should wait until we’ve gathered all the members of the Hall of Divine Royal and let everybody vote for their choice!”

Elder Witherspoon walked forward and said, “Why should we vote? I think that voting is the most unfair way in my opinion. After all, Elder Lawrence and Elder Mosley are senior elders in the Hall of Divine Royal who had lots of credit. It would definitely be favorable for the both of you if we really vote for our choice. I suggest that we choose our hall master by having a competition. After all, nobody knows who will be stronger by then!”

The corner of Angus' mouth twitched several times when he heard what these two had said. He finally realized that not only one or two people wanted to be the hall master.

"Haha... Sure, I'm also willing to have a martial art competition to make the decision!" Angus smiled coldly before finally releasing his momentum without holding back. "By then, the others will be convinced about who's much stronger by then!"

"A fighting prowess of second-grade ultimate god-level?" After feeling the momentum, Elder Lawrence, Elder Witherspoon, and the others took in deep breaths as they were really surprised by such horrendous momentum. They had never expected Angus to become a master in the second-grade ultimate god-level after ten days of entering the area.

"Hey guys, are you guys done?" Unexpectedly, Jackie, who was observing by the side, could not help but slowly opened his mouth and said, "You guys should think about how you can continue staying alive above anything else. You guys have not yet succeeded in overcoming this challenge here and you guys are already thinking about fighting for the position of hall master. What a joke!"

Angus laughed loudly when he heard this. "Haha... Jackie, you are really daring when you speak. Why don't you take a look at the situation right now? We have more members in the ultimate god-level compared to you and we also have more people. Do you still feel that you have the certainty of winning?"

"It's good that there are more people here. I shall be able to get rid of you people sooner if more of you are here!" Jackie smiled coldly and directly waved his hand. "Attack them and show them our true strength!"
