

No. 1 Supreme Warrior chapter 1724

“Mpfh!” Helena flew backward, and her face turned pale after she vomited blood. Alas, she was no match for Tom in the end; she could not even react when he attacked her up close.

Just as she nearly fell to the ground, two figures rushed toward her nimbly. One of the figures hugged her by the waist and slowly descended to the ground.

The man who held her was a stranger and looked extremely handsome. Unlike the masculine, tough look like Jackie's, this man had a slightly feminine type of handsome.

It made her rather flustered as he held her to his form.

As she gazed at the man before her with a light blush, Helena then recalled her situation and urgently warned, “T... Thank you for rescuing me, young master, but there are too many of them, and you can't fight against them. Run, quickly! What's happening here has nothing to do with you!”

“It's... It's alright. Let me help you!” Hendrick sheepishly smiled and scratched his head shyly. It was the first time he saw such a beautiful lady, and it puzzled him just as much when he felt a pang in his chest when he saw her wounded. It was then that he rushed forward and caught her.

Arthur, who was a second or two slower, was so angry that his face turned pale. He was elated when Helena was sent flying, thinking his chance had come. That was why he rushed out without hesitation.

However, he never expected Hendrick to act faster than him and was a step ahead of him.

Still, Arthur was no fool, despite his displeasure. He quickly took out a healing pill and passed it to Helena. “Young lady, I have pills that'll heal your wounds. You can try one of them, they'll help you a lot!”

“Thank you! Thank you!” Helena had never seen those two men, but their kindness moved her to be very thankful. After she took the pill and swallowed it, she smiled at Arthur.

Helena’s smile completely won Arthur over. The way she smiled made her all the more charming.

Hendrick, who was by their side, regretted his action. He was so smitten when he held her against him, catching a whiff of her scent, that he forgot to take out a healing pill for Helena. That gave Arthur the opening, and Hendrick wanted to punch himself.

Arthur smiled indifferently and said confidently, “Don’t worry, pretty lady. With us here, these fellas are no sweat!”

At that moment, Ella and the others also immediately flew over. Around a dozen people stood there and stared down at the men before them in anger.

The sudden appearance of these people caused both sides to be in a standstill.

Tom could not help but frown when he saw the situation. “Which family are you guys from? You guys are awfully presumptuous. Do you guys plan to rush over and help them?”

Obviously, Tom thought that those who came to Helena’s aid were members of some random family. From the mainland. After all, members of the Hall of Divine had always lived in the seas, and they did not know many of the forces from the mainland. They naturally felt that those youths who came to Helena’s rescue were members of some family from the mainland.

“Haha... Why do you want to care so much?” Arthur smiled coldly and pointed at the other party. He condescendingly spoke, “F*ck off if you understand the situation. Otherwise, the amount of people here isn’t enough for us to show how we’ll kill!”

“You’re too full of yourself, young man!” Tom did not want to flee when he was so close to winning. With a wave of his hand, he yelled, “Attack! These nosy people who rushed into the battle have no regard for their lives. Kill them all!”
