

No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1759

"Yes, First Fortress Master, that guy might have already broken through into the second-grade or even third-grade ultimate god-level!"

Ella thought briefly and answered.

Austin went into thinking mode again, and then he finally spoke, "How about this? In my view, the Bloodshed Clan would not start a war against any of us recklessly, after all, if we and those outsiders fight against them, they would suffer a great loss even if they win the battle in the end. I don't think that they are ready to pay such a heavy price. So, I think this isn't something we can pretend that we don't know!"

"First Fortress Master, are you saying that we will help those people?"

When Arthur heard Austin's words, his spirit lifted and asked excitedly.

Austin nodded his head in confirmation. "Let's not talk about anything else. We should at least try to get those talented masters among the outsiders over. Moreover, they will definitely fight each other for the treasures and resources in the forest, plus the disciple of the Bloodshed Clan will hunt them as well. So, they will certainly lose quite a few people, and by that time, those remnants will be those strong and talented fighters. After all, it's about the survival of the fittest! We only need the elites!"

Kieran was as though he was lost in a thick fog as he listened to Austin. "First Fortress Master, what do you mean?"

Austin smiled in return. "Even if we send people to seek help from the Pavilion of Billow Cloud, the round trip will take at least four days. We can't rush ourselves and act recklessly if we want to help those people, right? We need to be patient so we don't lose out. Not only will our image and reputation be improved in front of the Anti-Alliance Guard, but we could also take this opportunity to recruit some great elites as well."

Kieran finally understood what the First Fortress Master meant, he then smiled. "The wisest person is still our First Fortress Master! What he means is that we should pretend that we don't know anything about this, or perhaps just say that we are still in the middle of the discussion, thinking of what to do about the situation. Wait for another two or three days until the Pavilion Billow Cloud arrives then we will make a move to help those people. Is that right?"

Austin nodded with satisfaction and said, "That's right! You're sharp! We have two to three days' time to stall. We will focus on training, pretending not to know anything. We will wait until when the Pavilion Billow Cloud is about to arrive, then we will save the outsiders. And when the Pavilion Billow Cloud sees that we, the Nine Armies, are fighting for the Anti-Alliance Guard, not letting them down, they will respect us too! We'll let those outsiders fight with the Bloodshed Clan for a few days first!"

An old man from another fortress, who had refused to help Jackie and his group before, was excited after hearing Austin's idea. His eyes lit up and said, "First Fortress Master, your idea is truly brilliant! There are a few of those outsiders who have broken through to the first-grade ultimate god-level, and some of them even broke into the second-grade ultimate god-level. Besides, with so many outsiders, they could definitely kill some disciples of the Bloodshed Clan and give them a heavy blow. Then we could weaken them without having to make a move!"

“Haha! That’s amazing! What a good idea! Let those people fight with the Bloodshed Clan for a few days, and this way, we don’t have to suffer high casualties. Furthermore, we can also get appreciation and praise from the Anti-Alliance Guard. Then, those who we will save in the end would be the elite ones, and these people will be grateful to us too! It’s a gain for us!”

That middle-aged man laughed out loud, his eyes beaming happily. “Besides, so many of them came in and took away so much of our training resources. Let those people suffer for a bit more and pay a price! Consider it a punishment for their reckless intrusion into this place!”

Kye opened his mouth and then shut it again, wanting to say something, but in the end, he did not. Because he knew in his heart that Austin’s idea was the most rational and reliable, and it would be the most beneficial for the Nine Armies. Most of the Nine Armies had also agreed to this idea, even if he opposed it, it would be useless and created a more unpleasant aura to the Nine Armies.
