Chapter 3156

Luther looked at Jackie with gritted teeth as hatred oozed from his eyes. "No! It's all because of your petty tricks. If I knew what you're truly capable of, I would've been more defensive! Your skills wouldn't have rendered me in a fatal state!"

"I can use that to improve myself, entering perfection with my technique! You wouldn't last against me then, you'd die a horrible death! I just lacked a bit of luck and lost to you because of that!"

Jackie snorted, feeling like Luther was already in a state of complete incoherence.

Even with the state Luther was in, he still felt like he did not lose because of his skills but because of his rotten luck and someone else's supposed disguise.

With how Jackie usually was, he was merely amused after hearing all of that.

He would not continue dwelling on the problem, because there was no meaning to it. However, Jackie was particularly annoyed that day.

He coldly looked Luther right in the eye and said in a low voice, "Guess... What level is the technique I'm using?"

Luther's breathing got more erratic as he looked at Jackie. It was as if he could prove that he did not lose by doing that.

He narrowed his eyes and said with all his might, "Is there any need? It's in the upper earth rank! If you... Managed to do that, you must already be at the second stage of mastery, right?!"

After he said that, Luther continued, "Why did you need to ask? Do you think that others can't see it? Are you just trying to show off in front of me?"

In truth, Luther knew that Jackie was stronger than him, which was how he had lost so terribly.

After his dark energy had been pierced by the Soul Sword, he had completely lost control of it.

At that moment, he might have been panicking, but he still did everything he could to gain back control. Alas, it was all for naught.

He held onto his stubbornness partially because he did not want to see Jackie being too pleased. After all, he saw him as a madman who only knew how to brag the whole time.

In the end, he realized that Jackie was not a madman at all but an expert pretending to be weak.

Luther could not accept the fact.

Another part of it was also because he kept on feeling like he would have been able to level up his technique if he managed to toe the line between life and death. The battle would have been more righteous!

Jackie laughed and said, "Brag? What's there to brag about? Since you're being so obstinate, I'll just tell you..."

As he said that, Jackie deliberately stopped.

Jackie slowly knelt until he was incredibly close to Luther. He could even hear Luther's weak breaths.

Jackie deliberately lowered his voice as he spoke, "I asked that question because it's impossible for you to get the right answer. In my eyes, you're not even an ant. It's so easy to kill you. Even if you manage to level up, nothing will change."

Luther widened his reddened eyes as he retorted viciously, "You're bragging!"

Jackie laughed as he sneered, "Why do I need to brag? When we fought, you were the one constantly shouting at me. I'm just saying all of that to expose you a little."

"Do you know how amused I am listening to you speak? Even if you burned your blood essence and leveled up just now, you'd still be no threat to me at all. Your technique is absolute trash!"

Chapter 3157

Hearing all of that, Luther's breathing grew erratic.

Blood oozed out of his mouth as he completely stiffened. He was already at the stage where he could die at any moment.

Jackie finished his words while Luther was still alive.

"Upper earth rank techniques are nothing to me because I'm using an upper ultimate god rank technique, Destroying the Void. It came from the first-grade world, the Divine Void World..."

Luther widened his eyes as he fell deep in shock.

After thinking for a while, he shook his head vigorously. "Nonsense! You... You're lying! It's impossible! It can't be!"

Jackie laughed. "You're about to die anyway. What's the point of lying to you? Do you really think an upper earth rank technique would be able to take away control of your technique? You know very well that you didn't just lose control of the darkness, my technique devoured yours entirely!"

Luther's lips trembled slightly as he shuddered. This time, he could not help but start to recount everything that had happened when he was facing Jackie.

Jackie was right after all. He did not slowly lose control of his technique, but it had instead been swallowed up by a massive power.

Thinking about it, his dark energy had probably been absorbed by Jackie's technique and turned against him!

At that moment, Luther's mind raced as various thoughts surfaced in his head.

What sort of technique would be able to swallow his like that?

He might not truly be using the power of life and death, but it still contained a sliver of it.

Normally, even if he lost, he should have lost because his opponent shattered his technique. It should not have been swallowed.

The fact that Jackie's technique had swallowed his dark energy meant that the two attacks had the same source of energy. Otherwise, it would not have fused. It meant that Jackie's technique was also of the soul attribute!

The power of darkness and the power of light came from life and death. Darkness represented death and was the soul attribute. On top of that, he had not felt any massive energy fluctuations when Jackie used his technique. There was only one explanation for that, which was that Jackie was using the soul attribute.

Only soul attribute techniques would have such weak energy fluctuations when used!

Luther's expression soured as realization sank in. He paled as he thought about it emotionally.

The more he thought about it, the more he realized that Jackie was not lying.

Jackie truly was strong. Jackie was so strong that Luther could not believe it!

Jackie's technique devouring him only meant one thing, his technique was so strong that his own technique stood no chance!

Luther's breathing got more and more erratic as his eyes darted all over. He felt like his mind was about to explode. He felt like he was being boiled alive.

He wanted to just die on the spot!

He looked up as he straightened his body, trembling as he shouted with all his might, "Who... Who are you?! You... You're not a normal person!"

Chapter 3158

Jackie slowly got up and looked down on the breathless Luther. "You don't have the right to know."

"I... I don't have the right?" sneered Luther bitterly.

He remembered everything he had said earlier and felt like he was the buffoon all along.

If he had heard Jackie say anything like that in the past, Luther would have refused to acknowledge it angrily. At this moment, however, he had to.

After breathing out his last breath, he held on and said one last sentence, "You're right, I really don't have the right to know..."

The moment he said his last words, Luther coughed out some more blood. The moment the blood left his mouth, Luther lost his fight, falling to the ground heavily as he breathed his last.

Jackie shook his head slightly.

If Luther had not run into him, Luther might have been able to level up as he expected. Even if he still died in the end, he would at least be able to accomplish his dream. However, Jackie did not feel any pity, this was the fruit of his labor.

If Jackie had really been complete trash like Luther thought, it would have been him dead instead.

He looked around and saw that it was still a desolate wasteland around him. After thinking about it, he flew up into the air and chose a direction before he shot forward.

All of the warriors in the viewing area became visibly solemn.

Luther was dead.

Before this, they were even discussing if Luther could reach the next level with his technique and challenge Chris and Edward. They were even discussing how likely it was that Luther could win. However, everything was overturned in just a flash as Jackie struck him down, sparing him not a chance to fight back.

It caused a great stir among all the warriors there.

“Luther must’ve regretted saying everything he did. If not for that verbal spat before the battle, Jackie probably wouldn’t have tortured him so much...”

“That’s true. His corpse is just left there. Jackie didn’t even bother burning it or burying it. It looks like Jackie isn’t that tolerant.”

“Have you ever seen any powerful person being nice? You should wake up. Jackie isn’t a crazy alchemist; he’s an expert who didn’t mind disguising himself. I’m beginning to wonder if he’s even stronger than David!”

More of them started to accept that Jackie’s skills were definitely not average.

They also started to understand why Jackie acted like he did before such as angering Chris, ignoring David, and being impolite to everyone. They had thought that Jackie only participated in the slaughter gambit because he was crazy.

At this moment, everyone felt that it was no longer that simple.

A wandering warrior from White Marsh Continent mumbled, “It just doesn’t add up. Why did Jackie deliberately whisper to Luther before he died? What did they say for Luther to react like that? Thinking of Luther’s expression... It’s just off...”

After that person said that, many of the warriors with similar doubts started to speak up.

“That’s true. Luther’s final expression really was strange! He first refused to admit defeat and was in disbelief, but all of a sudden, his expression changed as though realizing something and accepting his fate.”

“What he said in the end doesn’t make sense with his temperament either. Jackie said, and I quote, ‘didn’t have the right’, and Luther actually accepted it just like that?”

Chapter 3159

“He had been adamant in saying that he only lost because of Jackie’s tricks and that he was just unlucky. Why did he suddenly accept the truth just like that? What did he say to him? Someone tell me! I’m so curious!”

Jackie had lowered his voice when he knelt and spoke to him. This meant that Jackie had told Luther a secret, and it shocked Luther so badly that he accepted his fate after knowing it.

It was a drastic change. He even accepted Jackie's ridicule. It meant that the secret must be incredible, enough for Luther to admit his defeat.

Because of that, everyone desperately wanted to know what was said, but they had not been there. No matter how they thought about it, they could not figure it out. All of them were frantically scratching their heads like monkeys.

In the isolated space, a man in light purple robes arrived just five minutes after Jackie left.

He shot over incredibly quickly. Chris had not stopped at all the whole way. He was worried that he would lose track of Jackie or that someone else would beat him to it.

Even from a distance, Chris could see someone lying down on the ground.

Before he could see who it was, he assumed that it was Jackie and thus cursed, "What dog killed my prey? They better not let me find out, or I'll tear them to shreds!"

Jackie had to die, but it had to be done with his hands to vent Jackie the hatred he felt.

Jackie's earlier actions had not only stomped on his dignity but insulted his character as well. Even if Jackie was crazy, Chris would never forgive him!

He had said that he would make Jackie pay for it. He would let Jackie know the consequences of offending him. He wanted to see Jackie struggling to survive, only for him to fail.

He glared at the corpse lying on the ground as a string of curses left him. Someone had stolen his chance of killing Jackie. No wonder the mark he had left on Jackie slowly disappeared, Jackie was already killed off!

Without Jackie's life to support it, the mark would slowly fade away.

It seemed like Jackie was unlucky and met someone else not long after arriving. There was no way anyone would spare Jackie if they saw him. It would not have taken long to kill him!

Thinking about that, Chris increased his speed as his mind raced.

Since they had left a corpse behind, he would be able to determine what kind of attack killed Jackie from the injuries. He would look for the person who had dared to steal his prey and have them pay dearly!

Chris was incredibly quick. He was constantly thinking about how he would check the corpse later. He did not notice anything strange until he arrived next to the corpse.

When he saw the somewhat unknown face of the corpse, he frowned.

“That’s... L-Luther?”

Luther had been the last participant, and there had been no conflicts between them, so Chris did not have a deep impression of him, only vaguely remembering his name.

This was Luther, not Jackie!

That had clearly been the last place he had felt Jackie.

He knelt to look at Luther’s corpse. Other than the fact that the clothes were somewhat ripped, there did not seem to be any injuries. It seemed like Luther had been killed in one blow. The person who killed him must be incredibly strong.

Was it Edward?

He did not expect Edward to be around the vicinity.

He shot out his perception of Luther’s body. After checking it in detail, he could feel that strange energy was left in Luther’s body. The moment his senses touched that energy, it started to rot.

Chris was so shocked that he hurriedly pulled his senses back.

Chapter 3160

“What is this?” gasped Chris as his eyes widened.

It was able to rot his senses. That was too strange!

He muttered, “Divine senses are part of the soul. This power is actually able to rot the soul. Could it be poison?”

He was immensely curious, so he sent out his divine senses again. This time, he did not dare to be as careless as the last time. He carefully controlled his senses, avoiding the mysterious power that was left in Luther’s body.

After moving around for a long time, Chris was shocked to find that two-thirds of Luther’s soul had been devoured, and only a third of his soul was left in his body. After a person died, their soul usually slowly dispersed in three days.

Chris had checked Luther's temperature earlier. Based on the heat, he had probably died not too long ago. In such a short time, if Luther's soul had not been affected by any outside influences, it should still be wholly within Luther's body. Even if Luther died, his soul would have slowly dispersed in three days.

There was no way only a third of the soul would be left like what Chris saw. The third of Luther's soul was in disarray as well. It meant that Luther suffered an attack targeting the soul...

"What a strange attack. Who did it? It can't be Edward... He uses wood-attribute techniques, far different from this strange energy! Who was it?"

"Was it David, then? No, that can't be... Could there have been a hidden expert among the other few?"

Thinking about that, Chris frowned as alarm bells rang in his mind.

He slowly got up and walked around with an alert expression in his eyes. He looked around the desolate wasteland, but it seemed like no one else had been here.

There was nothing to obstruct his view around him. If anyone was close, they would not have been able to hide from Chris' eyes.

Nonetheless, he remained vigilant. After all, the energy that had attacked Luther was far too strange.

He gritted his teeth and hissed, "No matter who it is, they'll just die if they meet me!"

After saying that, he turned around and randomly chose a direction to head to. He left the cold corpse behind in the wasteland.

After two hours, Jackie stopped his movements. He was in a hilly area that was dense with grass, and the hills obstructed most of the view.

A breeze blew past, causing the wild grass to move slightly and rustle.

If they were not in an isolated space full of people who wanted to kill him, Jackie would probably have found a comfortable spot to lie down and rest.

The scenery was beautiful with the gentle breeze. It would be even better if there was a bit of rain.

At that moment, he suddenly heard the sound of a shoe brushing against grass from a distance. Jackie raised an eyebrow as he looked over.

After a moment, he saw a familiar figure.

David was walking around calmly and slowly approaching him.

When David saw that Jackie was standing in the distance, David was stunned for a moment before he smiled. The smile threatened to split his face open.

“I heard a bit of rustling. Heh, it was you all along!” David said loudly.

He quickly rushed toward Jackie in delight as if he had found something amazing.

As he moved, he exclaimed, “I really am lucky! I was walking around for quite a long time, but I actually met you!”

“Do you still remember what I told you before we entered the isolated space? I’ll repeat it again. I’ll have you begging for mercy and regretting everything you said!”
