

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3471 - 3475 -

Chapter 3471

"I managed to become the king of all these beasts thanks to my technique, not because of my level! I'm different from you humans. I can't use techniques other people created. I can only rely on my own natural-born ones!"

"I've already reached the storm god rank with my technique! You're a mere human who's nothing more than an ant in my eyes. I can kill you with just a flick!"

No words

No wonder the beasts were all so afraid of it. No wonder it was so fearless.

No words

Jackie frowned and took a deep breath, "What stage have you gotten to?"

No words

Diante scoffed and said, "I'm only one step away from the second stage. Brat, are you scared now? It's already useless, though! You'll definitely die at my hands today!"

No words

So what if Jackie knew?

It was still the truth that could not be changed.

When Jackie heard that, he took two deep breaths and tossed all the uncertainty and fear away from his mind. He started to form even more seals, not wasting any time as he prepared to fight.

No words

Diante suddenly felt offended by that. However, it only lasted for a moment before it forgot about it. Its right hand condensed the blood to shield against the lightning while its left hand started to form seals.

No words

The snakes started to gather together incredibly quickly. The greenish-gray glow flashed on those snakes.

No words

Diante sneered, "This is my natural-born technique, brat! Even though I'm not in my best state right now, you're still no match for me! As long as you touch the poison gas, it will break through your true energy. Your body will rot away after being contaminated, and nothing will be able to save you!"

A sinister glint flashed in Diante's eyes.

Chapter 3472

The broken Soul Blade started to buzz!

No words

All of the beasts widened their eyes at that moment. Even though they felt like Jackie would be no match for Diante even if there were two Jackies there, they were still interested.

Mijas raised an eyebrow, "This brat is dead! Nothing can save him!"

The moment Mijas said that the Broken Soul Blade clashed with the green sword!

Bang!

No words

Rocks flew all around the stage from the explosion. A crater had formed on the ground. The poisonous liquid dripped on the stones, quickly melting the stones! Jackie clutched his chest and started to cough a few times.

No words

His hands started moving again, forming seals that started to merge in the air. A hundred Soul Swords floated in front of Jackie.

Jackie clapped his hands together, and a hundred Soul Blades merged into one. It went into the sword in Jackie's hand.

Jackie's expression turned cold. At that moment, he tossed all thoughts aside as he looked right at the center of the stage. He shot forward like an arrow.

No words

At that moment, Diante was no longer as confident as before. It clutched its chest with its left hand, and there was even green blood flowing out of its mouth. Its whole body was trembling.

No words

Thankfully, it was not at full force, and Diante quickly had it under control.

No words

Diante was panicking at that moment.

It did not expect Jackie to be so strong! Diante shouted at Jackie, "Stop right there!"

Jackie completely ignored Diante. If he stopped at such a good chance, then he would really be a fool. With a squelch, the slash went right into Diante's left chest. Destroying the Void's power suddenly started to rip into Diante's soul.

No words

Jackie clenched his teeth and sent out another strike. He needed to kill Diante before Diante could fight back!

Diante was a threat to him. He could not let Diante live for a second longer.

While Diante was suffering from the pain, Jackie slashed right at its throat. After his strikes, Diante could no longer sustain the blood.

No words

Chapter 3473

No words

How could he forget this?!

No words

The most important reason for killing Diante was the blood essence stone in Diante's body. If such a valuable stone was scorched to crisp by his carelessness, then even Jackie would feel emotional.

No words

There was pure silence outside the Blood Lake.

No words

Were they hallucinating?

Their king had been killed?

By a human at that?!

Mijas' voice trembled as it said, "Didn't the king say that his technique was already at the storm god rank? How did that brat beat the king? Could he be using a storm god rank technique as well? How?"

No words

The king was so strong. Even when the king was not at full power, Diante was still far above a mere human.

That brat really was strong, but he should not have been able to compete with the king.

How could this be the result?

Besant looked at the shocked Mijas and sighed, "Who are you asking? Who do you think can answer you?!"

Quite a lot of warriors had gathered around Weinhord City's transfer array toward the Demon Spirit Kingdom.

No words

Slowly, everyone there started to wonder who would be in the top three and obtain the rewards. Those discussions disturbed the short silence.

No words

Meanwhile, the warriors from the third-grade world said that the warriors from the second-grade world only knew how to brag. They did not think of who was in the Demon Spirit Kingdom. With Jackie there, no one would be able to take the first place away. With Jackie there, even survival was a problem for the warriors from second-grade worlds.

No words

A warrior from Golden Continent shouted, "Stop mentioning Jackie! Is he a god? Do you think the warriors from third-grade worlds will be fine just because he's there? Stop joking! No matter how strong Jackie is, he's still alone."

Chapter 3474

"None of the warriors from second-grade worlds who entered this time might be a match for Jackie head-on, but all fifteen of them will be together! Even Jackie won't be able to do anything to them..."

“You should be more aware. Jackie might end up being reckless and losing his life. It’s not impossible!”

No words

A warrior from a third-grade world shouted, “Stop with your nonsense! Even if your whole family dies, Jackie will still be fine. You’re just jealous of Jackie’s skills. He’s strong enough to beat all you warriors from second-grade worlds up!”

Suddenly, the atmosphere was incredibly tense. Both sides could not stop cursing at each other.

No words

At that moment, they did not hold back. Their words were incredibly harsh, and the warriors from second-grade worlds were furious.

No words

They forgot about time after arguing for a while. It was only when the transfer array started to glow did they realize time was up.

A warrior from a second-grade world said, “No matter what all of you say, it won’t change the results! Quickly count how many warriors from third-grade worlds I left. I think you should be thankful if there are even five left!”

No words

They immediately shouted back, “Stop with your nonsense! Who knows how many will die? I think none of the warriors from second-grade worlds will survive!”

No words

After counting the numbers, quite a few of them let out sighs of relief.

No words

The warriors from third-grade worlds were just about to gloat when they froze. That was because they saw all the warriors from second-grade worlds turn to bow at Jackie before they walked back.

No words

It was not just the warriors from third-grade worlds that did not understand, the warriors from second-grade worlds did not understand either. All of the warriors there exchanged looks of surprise. They were incredibly confused.

Chapter 3475

No words

Jackie did not bother looking at how the others were reacting to them. He turned to nod at Cloud and the others before he left with Rudy without even turning around.

No words

All of the warriors in Weinhard City were shocked.

No words

That explained why Stephen was so respectful to Jackie. As for what happened after that, Jackie did not care and did not want to know. He already got what he wanted, and was not in danger anymore. Even if he suffered some injuries, the injuries were nothing to him.

No words

After five days, Jackie was done.

No words

Soul Sky improved as well, and he was another step closer to the second stage.

No words

When they arrived in front of the level three city, Chaos City, they finally saw people passing by.

Rudy stood in front of the walls and looked at the massive sign, mumbling, "Chaos City! Just the name itself is chaotic enough. I wonder what's inside..."

Jackie walked next to Rudy and said one word, "Killing."

Rudy raised an eyebrow, looking at Jackie curiously.

No words

Just looking at the name felt like it would be a slaughterhouse inside. On top of what Jackie said earlier, Rudy shuddered even more.

Jackie looked at Rudy and slowly explained, "Chaos City has fifty-three third-grade worlds and twenty second-grade worlds. It's true chaos inside. There were two level three cities. One is Cloud City and the other is Chaos City. Most warriors actually go to Cloud City. It's much safer there, and there's no non-stop killing."

Hearing that, Rudy understood something else.

He widened his eyes slightly as he asked nervously, "So you're saying that it'll be very dangerous inside and that many people will die."

Jackie nodded, patting Rudy on the shoulder as he slowly explained the rules of Chaos City.
