The short-haired man scoffed while he started to form seals.

Countless seals began to fuse into the sword he had in hand. The three of them were not afraid of Jack at all, feeling like Jack was acting too boldly!

However, just in case, the three of them still planned on attacking with all their might. They pulled out their weapons at the same time, activating their techniques as they attacked Jack!

Jack did not even blink. If he had not gotten Soul Sky to the second stage, Jack might not have been so confident. However, it was different from before. He had a storm god rank technique.

The three in front of him only had lower ultimate god rank techniques that were at the second or third stage at most. Even if the three of them attacked together, they were still no match for Soul Sky.

The Soul Burst Ring rapidly expanded in the air, completely surrounding the three techniques that were rushing at Jack!

The three of them felt a wave of tempestuous energy charging at them! Before they could react, they heard three explosions near them!

They looked on as their own techniques were utterly destroyed, disappearing, and they were completely stunned.

They knew that the person in front of them would not be easy to deal with, but they never expected him to be so strong!

Even the three of them working together was no match for him at all. After the Soul Burst Ring destroyed those three techniques, it continued to charge at them.

The three of them had just spent all their power and were incredibly weak. They tried to summon up their true energy to protect themselves, but it was completely useless!

The Soul Burst Ring enveloped them and exploded again! The three of them died in an instant.

Jack had only used a few seconds to do all of that. The other warriors were still holding back the three beasts. The explosions attracted their attention, and they looked over to see those three arrogant warriors being completely blown apart, falling onto the ground with blood splattered all over.

Dagda was completely stunned, and was almost hit by that red fox's remaining claw! All of them were gaping as they looked at Jack in disbelief.

They knew that Jack was incredibly strong. They had heard quite a few stories about Jack, but personally seeing it was completely different. The three of them were at a loss for words from the shock.

It was not just them who were shocked. Goran and the others were completely frozen as well, unable to say anything.

When Jack rushed forward, they thought that he would die. After all, Jack was going against three enemies alone. Yet, it had been the complete opposite. Jack fought against those three and won without any pressure at all.

Morrison could not help but say, "That's a monster! My god! He's absolutely a monster!"

Those skills would even be able to stand up to those at the top of second-grade worlds. Most importantly, warriors of that caliber, should not all of them be in the deepest part of the inner region?

Why did one of them suddenly appear here?
The three of them were shocked and confused!
Reyes said, "What do we do now? Should we give up? Or should we go over?"
Morrison was incredibly anxious at those words,
"What are you even saying?! Go over? Do you want to die?! Didn't you see how those three died?!"
