

Sweet Love 2751

Chapter 2751: Song Enya Called, Right?

This was probably very ridiculous.

However, the birth of a life could greatly change a man's mentality.

When he first learned of the baby, he was at a loss. He even had some doubts.

After all, he was always careful about contraception—although he rarely made her take pills.

It was not as if he had never slept with a woman outside. However, after a passionate night together, he would usually urge the woman to take the morning-after pill. After all, there were countless women desiring to conceive his child. Naturally, he would not let anyone succeed.

However, when it came to his relationship with Meng Qingxue, he was more proactive. Usually, he would take the initiative to take precautions. Sometimes, if he really could not control himself and failed to make prior preparations, he would ask her to take the morning-after pill.

Still, this happened very rarely.

After all, he knew that it was not good for a woman's health to take such pills.

However, the moment he found out that she had a child with him, he found it hard to accept.

He was not ready to be a father.

As a man in his twenties, he was still very playful. Especially at this critical juncture, when the Mu Group was in a crisis, he was even more averse to that idea.

But gradually, after Meng Qingxue left, he suddenly realized that he had such deep feelings for her—feelings that should never have existed.

He was also secretly looking forward to the birth of the baby in her stomach.

He actually did what he used to think was the most foolish thing.

For example...

Mu Yancheng carefully supported her head, bent down slightly, and gently placed his ear on her stomach. However, after listening for a while, he did not hear anything special.

Three months. There shouldn't be any fetal movements yet, right?

Mu Yancheng furrowed his brows as he grumbled silently. He looked up, unexpectedly meeting Meng Qingxue's indifferent gaze.

Why is she awake?!

An embarrassed expression crossed Mu Yancheng's face at the thought of her seeing his foolish actions. He could not help but feel uneasy.

When did she wake up?

Wasn't she asleep?

Then...

She saw everything that I just did?

Mu Yancheng bit his lip speechlessly.

Meng Qingxue could not help but ask him, "What are you doing?"

"Ahem..." Mu Yancheng furrowed his brows and pretended to be calm. "Picking something up..."

"If you're picking something up, why were your ears placed on my stomach?" Meng Qingxue asked with a smile.

Mu Yancheng was at a loss for words.

Meng Qingxue suddenly said, "It's still early, so you won't hear any fetal movements."

"I..."

Mu Yancheng did not bother to hide it anymore. He cleared his throat awkwardly as his cheeks turned unnaturally red.

At this moment, his phone suddenly rang.

Mu Yancheng was stunned for a moment. He picked up his phone and saw a phone number flashing on the screen. The number was not saved, but when he looked at the last few digits, he knew that it was Song Enya's number.

He did not save her contact.

Mu Yancheng stared at the phone number in a daze. After hesitating for a while, he suddenly rejected the call.

Meng Qingxue's expression turned strange. She could not help but ask, "Why didn't you answer it?"

"Oh, it's not a particularly important call."

"Was it Song Enya?" Meng Qingxue asked.

Mu Yancheng's expression froze once more. Before he could give an explanation, his phone rang again. Song Enya had persistently called him again. The constant ringing urged him to pick it up.

He immediately felt vexed.

Chapter 2752: He Is With Meng Qingxue?

Meng Qingxue said calmly, "It's okay. Just pick it up. She must have called you for something important."

Mu Yancheng said, "I don't want to pick up the call."

"But if you don't pick it up, she'll keep calling you. The ringtone is really noisy."

Since Meng Qingxue said so, Mu Yancheng had no reason not to pick up the call. He was worried that Meng Qingxue would mind, but when he saw her nonchalant expression, he accepted the call.

"Hello?"

"Yancheng! Why did you hang up on me just now?" Song Enya's gentle voice came from the other end. "Is it inconvenient for you?" She asked patiently, but her words expressed her dissatisfaction.

When Mu Yancheng heard her voice, he felt inexplicably frustrated!

When he thought of how this woman ruthlessly forced Qingxue to such an extent, he found it utterly unreasonable.

However, he still had no idea how to deal with this issue.

"What's the matter?"

Annoyed by his impatient tone, she became sulky too. "Must something happen before I call you?"

"It's fine. There's nothing much to talk about, is there?" Mu Yancheng's attitude was cold—much colder compared to his previous distant attitude towards her.

Thus, she said unhappily, "Where have you been the past two days? You didn't even answer my calls. You seem very busy!"

How was it possible for Song Enya to not know Mu Yancheng's whereabouts?

She knew that Mu Yancheng had personally led his men to Yancheng, but she did not know that he was already on the way back to the capital with Meng Qingxue.

"There's no need for you to ask so much about my whereabouts, right?!"

"Yancheng!"

Song Enya was a little unhappy and aggrieved at the same time. "You are my fiancé and my future husband! No matter how unwilling you are, you can't deny the fact that you are my fiancé! As your fiancée, am I not qualified to ask about your whereabouts?"

Meng Qingxue heard her voice through the phone.

She could not help but frown as her gaze turned cold.

When Meng Qingxue discovered that the two men had acted under Song Enya's instructions, and that she was the culprit who tried to kill her baby, she was filled with hatred for Song Enya!

This was her motherly instincts acting.

As a mother, she would never tolerate anyone harming her own flesh and blood.

Even though she did not know who Song Enya was, she was already at loggerheads with this woman.

At the thought of this, her lips suddenly curved into a cold smile. She suddenly reached out and hugged Mu Yancheng's arm. Furrowing her brows slightly, she pretended to be uncomfortable and moaned softly.

On the other side, Song Enya was holding the phone. Yet, she heard no response for a long time. Just when she was feeling surprised, she suddenly heard the faint moan of a woman.

"It hurts..."

Meng Qingxue gently clutched her abdomen with a painful expression.

"Yancheng..."

Song Enya was certain that she had heard a woman's voice from the receiver. Suddenly, she became nervous, instantly suspecting that the woman was Meng Qingxue!

*He's with that b*tch!?*

Meng Qingxue?!

Who else can it be but this woman?!

He went to Yancheng this time for Meng Qingxue. Can it be that he is together with her now? Or are the two of them already on their way back to the capital?!

Chapter 2753: A Brazen Declaration Of War!

Is he going to bring Meng Qingxue back to the capital to take care of her baby?!

At the thought of this possibility, fury raged within her. She felt a great sense of danger!

"Mu Yancheng! Did you hear me?!"

At that moment, Mu Yancheng was shocked and worried by Meng Qingxue's weak moans of pain. However, Song Enya's harsh voice on the phone made him lose his patience. An irritated tone crept into his voice. "What?"

"Mu Yancheng, who is that woman beside you?!" Song Enya pressed.

"Are you questioning me?" Mu Yancheng retorted expressionlessly. "It's none of your business who I'm with! Mind your own business and don't bother about me!"

With that, he looked at Meng Qingxue with a worried expression. Seeing that her face was pale, his gaze suddenly became flustered. "What happened?"

"It hurts..."

Meng Qingxue's voice was like an invisible provocation to Song Enya. Although her voice was extremely weak, it was brazenly getting on Song Enya's nerves!

It's obvious who made that sound!

I can even tell that Meng Qingxue is deliberately diverting Mu Yancheng's attention. At the same time, she's blatantly provoking me through the call!

Meng Qingxue must know that I'm calling Mu Yancheng. That's why she's provoking me so arrogantly!

*D*mn it!*

"Mu Yancheng!" Song Enya was so furious that the veins on her forehead throbbed.

"I have something on now!"

Mu Yancheng hung up after saying that coldly.

Song Enya held her phone in a daze as she listened to the busy tone on the phone. Her eyelids twitched violently for a moment before she smashed the phone on the floor in anger!

"B*tch!" She cursed angrily.

Still angry, she picked up the phone and smashed it on the floor again. She ravaged the phone viciously, treating it as Meng Qingxue.

Is Meng Qingxue planning to officially declare war on me?!

Is she declaring her possession of the man with her actions?!

At the thought of this, Song Enya was so angry that she could not control herself. Her face was ashen as she clenched her fists tightly. Suddenly, her lips curled into a bloodthirsty sneer. "Fine, Meng Qingxue! Since you've declared war on me, I'll naturally play along with you till the end!"

...

Mu Yancheng hung up the call and focused all his attention on Meng Qingxue. Thinking that she was in pain again, he carefully placed his large palm on her abdomen. Then, he said nervously, "Hang in there for a while longer! We'll reach the capital soon. Once we reach the capital, I'll help you settle the procedures for the hospital transfer."

"Just now, there was a pain in my lower abdomen. Now, it's better!" Meng Qingxue smiled weakly. When he hung up on Song Enya without any hesitation, she felt a little satisfied!

Between her and Song Enya, this man was clearly on her side!

This knowledge made her somewhat elated!

At least, he cared about her!

"Alright, don't worry. Don't be so nervous too. Didn't the doctor say that I'm fine?" Meng Qingxue consoled him with a smile.

He reminded her worriedly, "If you feel uncomfortable, tell me immediately. Don't hide anything."

“Okay, got it,” said Meng Qingxue as she rested her head gently on his shoulder. At an angle where he could not see her face, Meng Qingxue’s gaze suddenly turned cold.

Chapter 2754: Bringing Him to Play Games

Butler Fu brought Baby Chu to Wanbao Shopping Mall for an outing.

Wanbao Shopping Mall had a very famous children’s entertainment center called “Smart Kiddie”. There were many game machines suitable for the little kids to play. Baby Chu had never seen such a bustling shopping mall, much less such a lively entertainment center. “Smart Kiddie” sold products for babies between 0 to 13 years old. There were clothes, milk powder, calcium tablets, and toys.

When Baby Chu, who was originally in a gloomy mood, stepped into “Smart Kiddie”, he was immediately attracted by the many toys displayed there.

Instantly, he was overcome with delight. All his unhappiness was thrown to the back of his mind!

“Look, look!” Baby Chu ran over to a Whack-a-Mole game console, his eyes shining. “What’s this?”

Butler Fu walked over and squatted down beside him. Then, he said patiently, “This is a game console! Do you see these mice?”

After a pause, Butler Fu smiled and picked up the small red hammer hanging by the side. He handed it to Baby Chu and explained, “When the game starts, the mice’s heads will pop out of the hole. You’ll have to use the small hammer to smash their heads. This way, you will get one point!”

“Wow!” Baby Chu’s eyes sparkled brightly.

It seems very fun!

Baby Chu’s eyes were filled with anticipation. “Does this game require money to play?”

Although the little boy was still young, he already understood the concept of money.

He knew that when he went out, there were many things that cost money.

However, his mother had instructed him not to spend someone else’s money so casually.

Hence, he did not say that he wanted to play the game. Instead, he looked at the game machine, which was constantly flashing with red lights, with a yearning look.

Naturally, Butler Fu read his mind. He smiled knowingly and immediately called for the shop assistant. He bought some tokens and went back to the game machine. When he saw that Baby Chu was still holding the small hammer and motionlessly staring at this novel toy, he deliberately teased him, “Do you want to play?”

“Yes!” Baby Chu nodded his head without thinking much. However, he suddenly thought of something and said carefully, “This game costs money! Forget it! I’ll just look at it without playing!”

“Here!” Butler Fu opened his palm. Baby Chu glanced over and saw a few game tokens lying in his palm. He was surprised. “What is this?”

“Game tokens! As long as you insert the tokens, you can play!”

Once he heard that he could play the game, Baby Chu could not help but feel excited. His face was flushed red with excitement and anticipation. He probed, “Can I really play?”

“Yes! Of course!”

Butler Fu smiled and inserted a game token into the machine. After a while, the screen showed “Start”. He urged softly, “The game has started!”

“Ah!” Baby immediately raised the small hammer and smashed it heavily on the mouse’s head that popped out of the hole!

“Squeak, squeak!”

The “little mouse” let out a pitiful squeak and retreated back into the hole.

“How fun! How fun!”

It was Baby Chu’s first time playing the game, so his reaction was not particularly fast.

Chapter 2755: Results

It was Baby Chu’s first time playing the game, so his reaction was not particularly fast. Even though he used a lot of strength, he was occasionally nervous and could not perform well. He even missed a few strikes.

Butler Fu started to get nervous as well. He kept guiding Baby Chu, “Quickly, attack that side!”

“Over there, over there!”

“Here...!”

Baby Chu panted as he continuously smashed the small hammer.

Butler Fu watched from the side and couldn’t help but sigh silently.

Thinking back to his master’s childhood, he still remembered that when Gu Jinglian was six years old, he went to the shopping districts to play. At that time, there was a very big pirate ship in the middle of the street. At the young age of six, Gu Jinglian was at the most playful stage of his life.

He kept making a fuss, wanting to play on it.

However, as the heir of the Gu family’s power, the family had extremely high hopes for Gu Jinglian.

As the eldest son of the Gu family, Gu Jinglian’s every word and action was strictly controlled.

He started to undergo strict training when he was just four years old.

Shooting, karate, jiu-jitsu...

He still remembered that when Gu Jinglian first went to the shooting range, he threw a tantrum because he did not like such a serious place. In the end, he was thrown into the detention room by his strict father. For the entire night, he was punished to kneel in the detention room, not allowed to even stand up.

The next morning, Butler Fu personally carried him back to his room.

His knees had become so numb that he could no longer stand.

From then on, his personality changed drastically. He was no longer as energetic as other children, and his personality became increasingly gloomy. He no longer liked to get close to anyone.

At the age of six, Gu Jinglian had already witnessed countless bloody scenes with his father.

Once, in the casino, the six-year-old Gu Jinglian watched helplessly as a gambler cheated and had his hands crippled by the casino's hitman. He saw blood being spilled across the entire floor, yet there was no longer a hint of fear on his young face. He looked calm, as if it was just a normal scene.

Butler Fu looked at Baby Chu and sighed.

After one round, the little boy was already drenched in sweat. However, he only got ten points.

The staff stood at the side and watched. Baby Chu's serious expression when he played the game was simply too amusing. She could not help but ask, "Little kid, is this your first time playing?"

Baby Chu nodded and looked at her shyly.

The staff said, "If you can pass this round and break the record, you stand a chance to win a top prize!"

Baby Chu's eyes sparkled as he excitedly asked, "What prize is it?"

The staff pointed at the rules of the game and briefly introduced them.

The latest record was 100 points. Butler Fu took a closer look. If Baby Chu could break the record, he would win the latest intelligent robot developed by "Smart Kiddie". It was a limited edition worldwide.

However, the prerequisite was that parents could not offer any help when their child was playing this game. The child had to break the record alone in order to win this reward.

Butler Fu told Baby Chu about it. He clenched his fists, looking like he was determined to win. "I'll definitely work hard and win the award!"

His eyes were filled with an ambitious look.

Butler Fu stayed by his side, responsible for inserting the tokens and watching over him silently.

Halfway through, he received a call from the police station.

Butler Fu wanted to ensure that the little fellow would not run away. He only felt relieved after confirming that Baby Chu was still deeply immersed in his game.

Chapter 2756: Confirming the Parent-Child Relationship

Hence, he walked to the side and picked up the call. On the other end, the deputy director's voice sounded concerned. There was a complex emotion in his tone.

"The diagnosis report is out. It's basically confirmed."

Butler Fu frowned when he heard it.

"Are you sure?"

"It can't be a mistake. As long as there's no problem with the sample you provided, it's basically confirmed."

Butler Fu couldn't help but gasp.

In the end, Butler Fu could not be bothered to play the game anymore. He carried Baby Chu and hurried back to the Gu residence, immediately asking where Gu Jinglian went.

A subordinate reported that Gu Jinglian had just left to survey a piece of land.

The Gu family intended to invest in a piece of land to build a financial center. Gu Jinglian had previously liked that piece of land and bought it through a bidding. The area was not particularly prosperous, but the transportation was very convenient. In the future, when it was developed into a financial street, it would have bright prospects.

"Did Master say when he will be back?"

The man shook his head. "No, Master didn't say anything."

Butler Fu furrowed his eyebrows. Carrying Baby Chu, he placed him onto the seat at the side. He paced back and forth a few times before suddenly asking, "Ah Yi, you've been working for Master all this time. Do you know the women he has around him?"

"Uh..." Ah Yi looked at him in a daze, clearly not understanding why he had asked this question.

"Butler Fu, why are you suddenly asking this?"

"Naturally, I asked you this for a reason. Just answer me!"

"It doesn't seem appropriate to discuss Master's private matters behind his back, does it? Master hates this the most. If he finds out that I was nosy, wouldn't he..." Ah Yi said doubtfully.

"Don't worry! Just tell me. You don't have to worry about what happens next!"

Ah Yi rubbed his chin as he reminisced. Then, he sighed helplessly.

"Master has a lot of women around him!" Ah Yi said.

Not giving up, Butler Fu probed, "How many are close to him?"

“Not many.” Ah Yi shrugged and said calmly, “Although Master has many women by his side, he doesn’t maintain a close relationship with many of them! Most of them are a one-night stand. Butler Fu, you know it too! Master doesn’t care for women at all. Even if he has slept with many women, it’s just a biological need! He’s a man, after all. Besides, you know that Master doesn’t believe in marriage. He said he will never get married, which has always been a sore point for the entire family!”

“Are there no special exceptions?”

Ah Yi shook his head. “No.”

Butler Fu sighed, feeling very confused.

Ah Yi glanced at his expression, but tactfully did not ask further.

An hour later, Gu Jinglian returned. He had gone to survey the land. After ensuring that there were no major problems, he returned home.

As soon as he returned to the Gu residence, the first question he asked was, “Has that brat been sent home?”

However, his subordinate reported that Butler Fu had just brought that little fellow back to the Gu residence!

“Call that old man over!”

Gu Jinglian felt frustrated. He tugged at his collar and went upstairs.

Butler Fu hurried to the study room. Gu Jinglian went straight to the point and questioned him, “Why did you bring that little brat back again?”

“Master, I was just about to tell you about this!” Butler Fu was so nervous that his face flushed red.

Chapter 2757: Baby Chu Is His Child

“The police verified it again. They took your hair and the blood samples collected from the boy and did a paternity test. In the end, they concluded that you and the boy are related by blood!”

“What?” Gu Jinglian found it hard to accept such a conclusion. He stood up in shock and glared at him with a dark expression. “Where did you get the hair samples from?”

“From your pillow. The doctor said that luckily, there were still residual hair follicles remaining on the strands of hair. Hence, the test report is valid.”

Gu Jinglian’s expression froze for a moment. His handsome brows furrowed slightly. “You’re not allowed to joke about such things!”

“Master, how can I joke about something like this?!” Butler Fu immediately cried out in grievance. “The truth is right in front of us! From the first time I saw this child, I already had some doubts! Master, didn’t you notice? This child looks very similar to you! Of course, we can’t rule out the possibility of some kind of coincidence in this world. However, not only does this child's facial features look similar to yours, but his expression at times also looks like yours! What made me even more certain is when I heard the news from the police station. They collected the boy's DNA and ran it through the entire country's genetic bank. In the end, the one who matched him is you."

"What?" Gu Jinglian felt that this was too outrageous to be true.

There were countless astonishing coincidences in the world.

But it was hard to imagine that such a coincidence would actually happen to him.

So, that little boy is my child?

How is that possible!?

For all the women he had slept with, he always took strict precaution regardless of anything that happened.

He did not like children. In fact, he would even say that he resented them. He would never let any woman have the chance to conceive his child!

Even if someone managed to, those greedy women who got pregnant with his child would definitely come knocking on his doors and unscrupulously use the child to demand an exorbitant amount of child support. The mother would not hide in such a tiny city with the child, and secretly raise him till he was five years old without alerting the Gu family.

Ridiculous.

"Nonsense!"

Butler Fu sighed. "Master, even if you deny it, some things still remain a reality! Baby Chu is definitely your child!"

Gu Jinglian suddenly looked at him broodingly. Then, he smirked coldly and said, "If I'm not present, this diagnosis report doesn't count. Unless I do it again and see the results with my own eyes, I won't believe it!"

Butler Fu said, "If you're willing, you can immediately go to the hospital for a detailed examination..."

Before he could finish his sentence, there was a small commotion at the door.

Gu Jinglian sensed that someone was eavesdropping at the door and shouted coldly, "Who's at the door?!"

"Ah..."

A child-like voice came from the door.

Baby Chu stood at the entrance with an upset look on his face. He nervously pinched the corner of his shirt. He had followed behind Butler Fu secretly just now. Not daring to enter, he eavesdropped at the door. However, he could not understand what they were talking about.

He could only vaguely hear this annoying, evil uncle scolding Butler Fu.

Baby Chu thought that Gu Jinglian must be blaming Butler Fu for secretly buying him some new clothes and spending a lot of money. Hence, he felt a little guilty.

Chapter 2758: Come here!

Looking at his guilty look, Gu Jinglian frowned. "Why are you hiding at the door?"

"I... I..."

Baby Chu stammered for a while and suddenly said, "Don't blame him! After I grow up and earn money, I'll definitely return you the money he spent on buying me new clothes!"

"..."

Huh... What did he mean?

Gu Jinglian was baffled.

On the other hand, Butler Fu felt moved.

This little boy was worried that I'll be reprimanded by Master for spending money on him, so he secretly followed me here!

Although there were some misunderstandings, this child's kindness still moved him.

Gu Jinglian felt a little irritated. However, for some unknown reason, he could not help but steal a few more glances at this boy. Baby Chu was standing fixedly to the spot with an aggrieved expression. Looking reluctant to back down, he pinched the corner of his shirt and stared at Gu Jinglian somewhat nervously.

Suddenly, he sat back down at the desk and beckoned Baby Chu.

"Come over here!"

"What?"

"Come over here!"

Baby Chu was a little stunned.

This bad uncle is summoning me!

But he looks so fierce! Is he going to scold me?

Feeling fearful, Baby Chu did not dare to step forward.

Noticing that he seemed to be afraid of Gu Jinglian, Butler Fu smiled helplessly and said, "Baby Chu, the uncle is calling you over!"

"But..."

“Don’t be afraid, I’m here.”

Butler Fu encouraged him.

Baby Chu bit his lip and gathered his courage. He slowly walked towards Gu Jinglian and stood still in front of him. Lowering his head guiltily, he did not even dare to look at Gu Jinglian.

Gu Jinglian examined him carefully, from his eyebrows to his little nose and his exquisite facial features. He scrutinised every detail.

He could not help but reach out his hand. However, before he could touch him, his sudden action startled the little boy. From the corner of his eye, Baby Chu spotted him extending his hand out all of a sudden. Thinking that this bad uncle was going to beat him up, he was so frightened that he immediately clutched his head and squatted on the ground. Then, he burst into tears.

“Don’t hit me...!”

“...” Gu Jinglian’s lips twitched.

Who’s going to hit him?

How did this brat become so timid?!

When he was roaming in the wilderness alone for so long, I didn’t even see him cry. He’s even so bold as to climb into my car. Why did he become so timid now? I only stretched out my hand, but that already scared his wits out!

Butler Fu wanted to laugh, but his heart ached.

It was probably because of the harsh words Gu Jinglian uttered that night that caused the little boy to feel terrified. Hence, when standing in front of Gu Jinglian, it was inevitable for Baby Chu to feel wary and jittery.

“Baby Chu, be good. The uncle isn’t going to hit you!”

Baby Chu looked up with a few teardrops rolling down his cheeks. He saw Gu Jinglian staring at him coldly, as if he really didn’t have any intention to hit him. Gu Jinglian also didn’t seem as fierce as he remembered him to be. Only then did he stand up, his body and shoulders still trembling.

“Uncle, you agreed not to hit me!” The little boy said while sobbing.

Gu Jinglian took a deep breath before calming himself down. He deliberately softened his tone and coaxed calmly, “Come here! Let me take a good look at you!”

“Mmm...”

Baby Chu was still a little unwilling. When Butler Fu saw this, he gently pushed him from behind. Only then did Baby Chu walk towards Gu Jinglian, still pouting. He raised his head but did not dare to look into Gu Jinglian’s eyes.

For some reason, the uncle’s gaze looks like he’s going to eat me up!

Chapter 2759: Why Do You Keep Staring At Me?

Gu Jinglian sized him up from a close distance and reached out his hand. His slender fingers slowly caressed every inch of Baby Chu's facial features. When he gently ran his fingers across the little boy's eyebrows, he could not help but fall into a daze.

Previously, he had never looked at Baby Chu seriously. It was only when he examined the little boy at such a close distance that he realized that it was no wonder that Butler Fu felt suspicious.

This child indeed looks similar to me when I was younger.

But...

My child?

How is it possible?

Then, who is his mother?

"Uncle... Why do you keep staring at me?"

Baby Chu tilted his head and asked in confusion.

Gu Jinglian remained silent.

Behind him, Butler Fu smiled and said, "Baby Chu, didn't you always say that you wanted to find Daddy?"

Baby Chu turned around. After meeting Butler Fu's eyes, he nodded firmly. "Yeah! I have never had a father since I was young. Mommy doesn't know where he is either, but she said that I have a father. It's just that they were temporarily separated for some reason! I've always wanted to find Daddy!"

Butler Fu asked deliberately, "If you really managed to find Daddy, are you willing to acknowledge him?"

"I'm willing, I'm willing!" Baby Chu nodded vigorously. "If I can find my father, of course I'm willing to acknowledge him! Because he's my father! Without my father, I wouldn't even be here in this world!"

Butler Fu smiled in relief. He walked forward, carried Baby Chu and signalled to him. "Baby Chu, I'll tell you a secret, okay?"

"Okay!" Baby Chu moved closer to him.

Butler Fu whispered into his ear, "Your father is right in front of you!"

"...What do you mean?" Baby Chu could not comprehend what he was saying yet.

Butler Fu shot a glance at Gu Jinglian. "This uncle is your father!"

The afternoon sun was glaring and sinister.

Although it was only April, the weather was gradually turning hot.

There seemed to be no overture between winter and summer, and it came quietly without warning.

Mu Yancheng and his party arrived in the capital. According to the clues and coordinates provided by Luo Qing, they quickly found the exact location. Just like what the clues hinted, there was indeed a very well-hidden industrial area in the suburbs. This industrial area was built in the last century. After finding the warehouse, they walked over and instantly saw the remnants of bread crumbs and broken chairs scattered across the ground.

Chu He walked over and squatted on the ground. She picked up the bread crumbs on the ground and gently rubbed them. The texture had become stiff, so the crumbs were probably from two days ago.

She walked over to the chair that had fallen apart and looked at it. The chair was made of solid wood and had been exposed to the elements for many years. Furthermore, many parts of the warehouse were already moldy and decayed. The items inside could be easily broken with a gentle twist.

“Luo Qing said that the warehouse is very humid. They also specially tied Baby Chu to a chair. From the looks of it, this is probably the spot.” Meng Qingxue said.

Chu He frowned and said slowly, “But Baby Chu isn’t here. Where did he go?”

“Could Song Enya have brought him back?!”

Meng Qingxue asked worriedly.

“Impossible,” Mu Yancheng said. “Since this child isn’t the one she wants, she won’t risk bringing the child back! After all, it won’t do her any good to harm a child. She definitely didn’t do anything to Baby Chu.”

“A woman like her is vicious and merciless. What won’t she do?!” Meng Qingxue spat resentfully.

“She’s not stupid. What good would it do to harm a child?”

Chapter 2760: Call the Police!

Chu He suddenly stood up and turned around. She scanned the surroundings and deduced calmly, “Nothing bad happened to Baby Chu.”

Mu Yancheng was startled. “What do you mean?”

When Meng Qingxue heard this, she looked surprised too. “Chu He, how can you be so sure?”

“Did you see this chair?” Chu He kicked the remains of the chair on the ground expressionlessly and said slowly, “Didn’t Luo Qing say that they left after tying Baby Chu to a chair? I looked at the scene and saw no signs of an intense fight. I originally thought that Baby Chu had been taken away by that woman, but when I saw this chair, I can deduce that she probably acted in the same manner as Luo Qing and Luo Hao. She did not care about the child and left directly.”

Meng Qingxue walked to Chu He’s side. She lowered her head to look at the chair on the ground. All she could see was that the chair seemed to have suffered a huge impact. Therefore, it had broken into pieces.

She looked confused. “What happened to this chair?”

“Did you notice this? The chair has been broken and split into pieces. But do you see this? There are traces of someone being handcuffed here. Judging from these traces, it’s probably because the Baby Chu was tied to the chair and wanted to escape, so he dragged the chair to the wall, turned around and slammed against the wall heavily. Thus, he broke the chair. This chair looks very sturdy, but after so many years of exposure to the wind and sun, coupled with being soaked in water, it has long rotted. So, it broke easily upon impact. He probably thought of this method to escape as he was abandoned there alone.”

Chu He explained in detail, which caused Meng Qingxue to arrive at a realization.

“I understand what you mean! In other words, nothing bad happened to Baby Chu.”

“That’s true, but... that’s not necessarily the case!”

Chu He furrowed her brows as she turned around and walked to the door. She scanned the surroundings. This was the suburbs—completely desolate and uninhabited. Even if he could escape, how could a five-year-old child rely on his own ability to leave this place?

When they arrived at the capital and drove to this place, Chu He noticed that it was completely deserted with not a single person in sight. Even an adult would have to walk for three days and three nights if they wanted to leave.

With Baby Chu’s leg strength, it was impossible for him to leave this place.

Chu He furrowed her eyebrows and clenched her fists tightly. For a moment, she felt a little lost.

She wanted to find Baby Chu, but she did not know how to search for him.

Finding a child in such a huge capital was like finding a needle in a haystack.

She did not even dare to imagine the bad things that could have happened, but she was still worried that Baby Chu might have encountered some accidents in the wilderness!

At this moment, other women would probably feel so helpless that they’d collapse in despair and cry loudly. However, Chu He did not.

Meng Qingxue said, “Why don’t we call the police?!”

“Call the police?” Mu Yancheng snorted. “Haven’t you seen how inefficient the police is? Call the police? There won’t be any clues at all.”

“But it’s better than just sitting there and not doing anything!” Meng Bixue said disapprovingly. “What if Baby Chu met a kind person after leaving this place and was sent to the police station? Perhaps, calling the police will give us some clues!”

Chu He agreed with this suggestion, so she nodded.
