

Sweet Love 2761

Chapter 2761: Information Comparison

Chu He agreed with this suggestion.

Even if Baby Chu really encountered an accident, calling the police would allow her to get updates about him. However, the best case scenario was probably not getting any news at all.

In conclusion, she should first contact the local police station to report the case. What if there were clues?

With such hope in her heart, Chu He picked up her phone and called the police station. After her call was accepted, she described Baby Chu's characteristics and basic details for the report. Now, all she could do was to wait, while hoping that he was still alive.

As they drove towards the city center, Chu He suddenly received a call from the police station.

"Hello, are you Miss Chu? I'm from Yanhu District's Public Security Bureau. The call center received a report from you earlier. You reported that your son went missing and his name is Chu Xiaobao, right?"

"Yes!"

Chu He got a little excited when she heard that. She held her phone tightly and asked, "May I know if you have any updates?"

"Oh, it's like this... I didn't find any information when I searched this name up at the Household Registration Center. However, I did some research in the database. The Public Security Bureau previously also received a report saying that a child was lost. The person who reported the case asked the Public Security Bureau to find the child's relative. However, just ten minutes ago, a family member called to close the case. Apparently, the child has already found his family."

"What?!" Chu He was stunned as she furrowed her brows. "Officer, are you sure?"

"Yeah, I'm sure."

How's that possible?

Chu He could barely stand on her feet. For a moment, many doubts arose in her mind.

She gritted her teeth and said with difficulty, "Could the person who claimed the child be an imposter?"

She once saw on the news that some criminals would fake the identity of the child's family member and falsely claim the child. Previously, something like that happened in Sea City. Due to the negligence of several police officers at the Public Security Bureau, the child was falsely claimed by an unrelated stranger and was about to be sold to a remote mountain area.

Fortunately, it was discovered in time. Through the police's surveillance cameras, they managed to capture the culprit's face.

The police officer immediately said, "That's impossible. The case report stated that the child and his family member had undergone a DNA test, therefore confirming their kinship. That's why the case was closed!"

Chu He's expression turned unpleasant.

"However, we can't rule out the possibility that it's a coincidence. Maybe, the children shared the same name. After all, apart from providing the name and general information, you didn't provide any other significant clues. Is it convenient for you to come to the police station now? We can collect your DNA information and conduct a detailed investigation. Perhaps, it's just a coincidence. However, don't worry. When the case was closed, the person in charge said that the child's DNA completely matched with his father's. Without confirming their kinship, we wouldn't have closed the case so easily."

Chu He hung up the call with a complicated expression. At this moment, she felt emotions rushing through her while her head throbbed painfully.

She rubbed her forehead, but it was already covered in cold sweat.

When Meng Qingxue noticed Che He's unpleasant expression, she could not help but walk towards her worriedly. She asked anxiously, "Chu He, is there any news regarding Baby Chu?"

Chu He turned around and looked at her with a complicated gaze before sighing. "There are some updates, but we have to go to the police station to confirm it."

Chapter 2762: Waiting For The Results

"The police said that there was indeed a child called Chu Xiaobao who was lost and sent to the police station. However, after an investigation, he was brought home by his family member and the case has been closed."

"Family member?!"

Meng Qingxue was shocked. "How is that possible!?"

"I also think this is very strange! This is completely absurd!" exclaimed Chu He.

Mu Yancheng said from the side, "There's no point in saying so much now. Calm down. We might as well go to the police station to take a look. It's better than being flustered here!"

It was rare for Chu He to not rebuke him. Instead, she merely nodded.

The car drove towards the Public Security Bureau of Yanhu District.

Yanhu District's Public Security Bureau was not far from the highway exit.

The intersection between the highway and the provincial road was the only road that led to the suburbs, which was where the abandoned industrial area was located. However, Yanhu District was only responsible for the jurisdiction of this territory.

Chu He arrived at the police station twenty minutes later. While Mu Yancheng parked the car, Meng Qingxue followed closely behind Chu He and entered the police station. The police officer in charge of this case welcomed them.

The police officer had already printed out the document. He explained to them briefly,

“The child is 120cm tall. He looks very handsome, and is around five years old. As we can’t find his file in the household registration center, he probably isn’t registered. Three days ago, in the morning, a middle-aged man brought him to the police station to report a case. He said that the child had gone missing and asked the police station to find his family. However, after a series of efforts, we couldn’t find any information about the child. After that, we collected the child’s DNA and ran it through the DNA bank for a match.”

“Three days ago?”

Chu He frowned. The time matched.

But where was Baby Chu before the case was reported?

“Where did they find the child?” Chu He asked.

The police officer shook his head and said, “We don’t know. The person who reported the case only said that he picked the child up by accident along the roads. At that time, it was already very late, and the child was alone on the road in the suburbs. It seemed like he had lost his family members.”

“Then... didn’t you say that you collected the child’s DNA and sent it to the database to check?” Chu He paused and asked nervously, “Did you get any results?”

The police officer said, “The details aren’t recorded. It’s only stated that the child found his father and was brought back home by him. Hence, the case was closed.”

“He’s my child!” Chu He declared confidently, “If the details stated in the report are true, my child matches all the characteristics described! Even the time of his disappearance completely matches. He’s my son. His name is Chu Xiaobao! Officer, can you help me find my child?”

“Just based on your one-sided narrative, of course not. Is it convenient for you to do a DNA test? If the data matches, we’ll bring you to see the child.”

“...” Chu He gritted her teeth and took a deep breath, forcing herself to calm down. She asked, “Then, if something goes wrong and the man and the child are not related, can you guarantee the child’s safety?”

“The child’s safety will definitely be guaranteed. Don’t worry about that!”

“Alright.” Chu He nodded. “I will cooperate with you.”

“Don’t worry, as long as you cooperate with us to collect the DNA information, we will be able to give you the results immediately!”

...

Chapter 2763: The Proud Father and Son

On the other hand, Baby Chu, to whom the world also seemed very absurd at this moment, stood in front of Gu Jinglian dazedly. With unfocused eyes, he gazed at Gu Jinglian, his face filled with a look of suspicion.

He stole another glance at Gu Jinglian, before peering cautiously at Butler Fu. It took him a while to process what Butler Fu had said.

He then looked at Gu Jinglian with doubt and fear in his eyes. He could not help but shuffle towards Butler Fu and grumble pitifully, "This joke is not funny at all! How can this bad uncle be my father?"

Butler Fu did not know whether to laugh or cry at his words. He squatted down, placed his hands on Baby Chu's shoulders and explained in a serious tone, "Baby Chu, I'm not joking with you! He's really your father!"

"He doesn't look like my father at all!"

Baby Chu pinched the corners of his clothes tightly, looking reluctant to accept the fact.

No matter how he looked at it, this uncle was a bad person. He was like Hades from the underworld—mean and terrifying. A single glare from him was enough to make one's blood run cold and send chills down one's spine!

In his imagination, his father was someone strong and imposing. He was a tall, gentle and handsome person who would give others a sense of security.

However, this uncle matched the criteria of being handsome and tall. However, when it came to being gentle...

His temper was obviously terrible.

Plus, that evil man even scolded him and glared at him so viciously, unlike what a gentleman would do!

He naturally could not accept this fact!

Gu Jinglian also felt extremely awkward.

A little boy suddenly appeared out of nowhere. All the evidence proved that this five-year-old kid in front of him was his own kid. For a moment, he was overwhelmed by confusion. Even his mood took a gloomy turn!

He had no intention of becoming a father.

When it came to children, other than being annoyed, all he could feel was resentment and impatience towards them.

Therefore, even though the entire Gu Family was extremely enthusiastic and hopeful about him starting a family, he believed strongly against marriage.

He had never even entertained the thought of having children.

However, this little brat appeared out of thin air. Butler Fu even pushed this brat towards him, and told him to call him his Daddy! In an instant, he panicked, feeling at a loss for what to do.

Right from the start, he was already feeling conflicted. However, he looked at Baby Chu, who was also scrutinising him with an awkward expression. He did not seem willing to acknowledge that Gu Jinglian was his father as well.

The father and son faced each other, their air of awkwardness being completely identical.

Gu Jinglian snorted, still in disbelief. He suddenly uttered coldly, "How can my son be so stupid?"

Baby Chu heard him.

Not only did he hear it, but he also understood what Gu Jinglian meant. He was so angry that he scrunched up his face in fury. Glaring at Gu Jinglian fiercely, he placed his hands on his hips and pouted. With utmost pride, he declared, "My father will never be so fierce! I will never admit that you're my father!"

His expression was full of disdain, while his eyes brimmed with a look of repulsion.

Enraged, Gu Jinglian glared at him. If it was not for the fact that Baby Chu was already used to his cold and threatening gaze, he would probably be trembling in fear by now!

After interacting with Gu Jinglian for the past two days, he had gotten used to Gu Jinglian's bad temper and hostile expression. Hence, he no longer harboured any fear. Instead, he raised his eyebrows and provoked, "Why are you glaring at me?! Since you don't want to acknowledge me, I don't want to acknowledge you either! Hmph!"

"You...!"

Gu Jinglian was so angry that he was rendered speechless.

Chapter 2764: He Is Not My Father!

Gu Jinglian was so angry that he was rendered speechless.

He cursed aggressively in his mind. Little brat! You're learned how to speak so fiercely now, huh?

Butler Fu immediately shot Gu Jinglian a look. He squatted down and patiently coaxed, "Baby Chu, didn't you say that you really want to find your Daddy? Now that you've found Daddy, why are you saying that you don't want him anymore?"

"He's not the kind of father I want!"

Baby Chu huffed angrily, "Besides, not only does this uncle look fierce, but he also clearly doesn't like me at all! Why should I still try to suck up to him if I know that he won't reciprocate?"

Pfft...

Suck up to him?

Butler Fu couldn't help but be amused by Baby Chu's innocent, yet brutal words!

As Baby Chu complained, he glared at Gu Jinglian with an extremely resentful gaze as if he was silently judging him.

Gu Jinglian was not a good-tempered person either. He threatened, "If you glare at me again, I'll dig your eyeballs out!"

Baby Chu immediately pursed his lips and shrank behind Butler Fu. His two small hands grabbed onto the corner of Butler Fu's shirt in fear. However, since Butler Fu was around, he was certain that Gu Jinglian would not dare to do anything to him. Hence, he continued to provoke, "Dig my eyeballs out if you can! Hmph! Big baddie! I won't be threatened by you! I'm a brave man. I'm not afraid of you!"

"Oh, really?"

Gu Jinglian smirked evilly and strode towards Butler Fu. He suddenly reached out and grabbed Baby Chu's collar, tugging him over!

"Ahhh!"

Baby Chu cried out in alarm. Before he could evade Gu Jinglian's grasp or before Butler Fu could stop Gu Jinglian, he had already lifted him up by the collar.

Coincidentally, Butler Fu had specially bought a pair of suspenders for Baby Chu today. Just by exerting some strength, Gu Jinglian could easily grab his collar and lift him up.

Gu Jinglian sized him up. His gaze was cold and sharp, as if he was about to devour Baby Chu whole.

Baby Chu swallowed nervously, only to see the corners of Gu Jinglian's lips curl into a cold smirk. He said coldly, "Look at you being all cocky. Do you really think that I wouldn't dare?!"

"I..."

Baby Chu's shoulders began to tremble uncontrollably.

He did not dare to struggle and only bit his trembling lips tightly. Tears started to brim in his eyes.

He was truly terrified now, believing that Gu Jinglian meant what he said instead of just threatening him.

However, even though he was so scared that his whole body was trembling, Baby Chu still pretended to be brave and clenched his fists tightly. His tear-filled eyes widened as he stared at him. Even though tears were brimming in his eyes, he tried his best to hide any signs of timidity in front of him. Instead, he feigned calmness and declared, "I'm not afraid! You're taller than me and stronger than me. If you bully me, I can't defeat you! But I won't beg for mercy from you, nor will I be afraid! Because... because Mommy said that Baby Chu is the bravest child!"

After he finished speaking, Baby Chu clenched his fists tightly. He looked as if he was ready to embrace death.

However, no matter how hard he tried to seem intimidating and unafraid, his trembling voice still betrayed him!

"You're afraid." Gu Jinglian said calmly.

"I'm not afraid of you!"

Chapter 2765: Yearning for Father

Baby Chu snorted. He waved his clenched fists in the air, as if he was showing off his "martial arts" skills. "I'm not afraid! Didn't you say that you're going to dig out my eyes? Just do it! I won't beg for mercy or cry out in pain!"

"Oh?" Gu Jinglian raised his eyebrows. He shrugged his shoulders and raised his hand slightly.

Unexpectedly, the single act of raising his hand terrified Baby Chu, who was already on the brink of terror. Unable to suppress his fear anymore, and he covered his eyes tightly with his hands while clenching his jaws. Tears flowed incessantly through the gaps between his fingers!

He gritted his teeth and tried not to cry out. Yet, his shaking shoulders betrayed the fear he felt at that moment.

Butler Fu could not stand it anymore. He immediately walked forward and snatched the child away from Gu Jinglian's hands. Slightly furious, he chided, "Master, Baby Chu is still young. You can't scare him like this! The child is so young. He'll be easily frightened!"

"Isn't he very stubborn?" Gu Jinglian disagreed. "Since he's my son, how can he be so melodramatic?"

"Master!"

Uncle Fu asked helplessly, "Don't you feel sorry for Baby Chu?"

Gu Jinglian glanced at him, the emotion in his eyes unreadable.

"Sorry for him?"

Butler Fu was about to say something, but on a second thought, he realized why Gu Jinglian was acting like that. He was just not mentally prepared on how he should treat his son!

Men were different from women.

A woman's innate maternal instincts would be triggered immediately by the birth of her child.

But men were different.

Gu Jinglian was like that.

Ever since he was young, he had always been indifferent to the concept of a family. In addition, he harboured no feelings towards this child—Baby Chu was no different from a stranger. It was indeed quite difficult for him to immediately accept this child as his.

Hence, his cold reaction was normal.

Butler Fu asked in a serious tone, "Master, what do you plan to do with this child?"

Gu Jinglian sized Baby Chu up and replied indifferently, "Do whatever you want."

"Does that mean we can keep Baby Chu in the Gu family?" Butler Fu's eyes lit up.

Baby Chu seemed to understand something. His whole body trembled as he yelled, "I don't want to!!"

"Baby Chu!"

"I don't want to be with this uncle! He's a bad guy! He's not my father! He wants to dig out my eyes. He's the devil king! The devil king!" After Baby Chu shrieked his refusal at the top of his lungs, he could no longer hold back his sorrow anymore. Sobbing, he wailed, "I want to go home, I miss Mommy, I want Mommy... I want to go home..."

"Baby Chu..."

Baby Chu could not listen to any of Butler Fu's consolation. He wiped his eyes pitifully and burst into tears.

Actually, from the first time he met Gu Jinglian, Baby Chu sincerely liked him. At that time, when Gu Jinglian brought him to eat KFC, he was still filled with anticipation. If such a handsome and nice uncle was his biological father, how happy would he be?

He has not had a father since he was born.

His yearning for a father was not just a simple fantasy.

However, children were very sensitive and vulnerable. After spending some time with Gu Jinglian, he realized that this uncle did not like him at all.

In fact, Gu Jinglian seemed to really hate him.

How annoying am I to be hated like that?

Chapter 2766: First Time As A Father

Baby Chu felt aggrieved. I don't want a Daddy anymore. Just my Mommy is enough!

He lowered his head, sobbing and feeling extremely despondent. Perhaps due to how helpless he looked when he cried, Gu Jinglian felt his heart soften at the sight of Baby Chu.

He actually did not plan on acknowledging this child who appeared out of nowhere.

He was not mentally prepared at all. A child had appeared out of thin air, claiming to be his son. He did not, and would not, accept that fact.

However, blood was thicker than water.

After all, Baby Chu was his biological son.

Gu Jinglian was not so cold to the point of being heartless, especially when he saw Baby Chu's tear-stricken face. His resolve finally collapsed. Upon seeing how helpless and vulnerable Baby Chu looked, his heart softened. Hence, he reached out his large palm and gently stroked Baby Chu's fringe.

"Stop crying."

He was at a loss as to what to do. Looking at Baby Chu, he furrowed his brows. He wanted to console him like a father, but because of his pride, he could not bring himself to do so. Yet, it was not a feasible option to let the child keep crying.

If he did not stop this, he would not be able to have a peaceful night.

Forget it.

Why should I stoop to the level of a child?

Should I coax him a little?

But how does one coax a child?

As a new father, he lacked any experience.

Gu Jinglian's gaze darkened as he sized up Baby Chu. After deliberating for a while, he uttered with an awkward expression, "Don't cry anymore. Don't you know that you look really ugly when you cry?"

"..." Baby Chu blinked his teary eyes and suddenly wailed even louder.

How is this coaxing a child?

Exasperated, Butler Fu interrupted, "Master, this is not how you coax a child! If you say this, the child will only cry harder!"

An embarrassed expression crossed Gu Jinglian's face for a moment, before he glared at Butler Fu coldly. "Who's coaxing him?! I just think that his crying is very irritating."

"..." Butler Fu's lips twitched.

He could tell that Gu Jinglian still took pity on the child. Although he claimed that he was annoyed by Baby Chu's crying, he certainly still harboured affectionate feelings for Baby Chu.

However, Gu Jinglian had always been so arrogant and wild. It was impossible for him to relent to a child.

Butler Fu sighed. Carrying the crying child to Gu Jinglian, he instructed sternly, "Master, hug him!"

Gu Jinglian looked in disdain at the crying Baby Chu in Butler Fu's arms, who had tears and snot all over his face. His head throbbed.

Even though he was an influential figure capable of handling any thorny issues, he was utterly stumped by this little child.

Children were such fragile little things. From head to toe, they were soft and chubby, yet as fragile as a glass. It was as if they would break if he exerted a little more force.

He did not even know how to hug him.

“Master, children are very easy to coax. Just hug and console him, and he won’t cry anymore! Baby Chu is still young, so you mustn’t be so fierce to him! Since you’re Baby Chu’s father, you should at least shoulder the responsibility of being a father!”

A father’s responsibility?

Gu Jinglian sized up Baby Chu with a stiff expression. After Butler Fu’s repeated urging, he finally reached out hesitantly, placed his arms under the child’s armpit, and carried Baby Chu into his arms!

Chapter 2767: Uncle, Let’s Reconcile

Baby Chu realized that he had already left Butler Fu’s arms. When he looked up and met Gu Jinglian’s disdainful and gloomy gaze, his tears fell even more violently.

“Boo hoo.., I don’t want you to carry me...” Baby Chu turned around and reached his little arms out towards Butler Fu. Waving his arms around, he pleaded, “I don’t want him to carry me... Boo hoo... I don’t want him to carry me...”

Butler Fu could not bear to see Baby Chu like this, feeling sorry for him. However, he looked at Baby Chu and knew that the most important thing now was for Baby Chu to strengthen his relationship with his father.

Thus, he steeled himself, spun around and strode out of the room.

With a bang, the door closed. Only Gu Jinglian and Baby Chu were left in the huge room.

Baby Chu cried even more helplessly.

After Butler Fu left, Gu Jinglian became less restrained. When he heard Baby Chu’s relentless crying, he threatened fiercely, “If you cry again, I won’t be nice to you.”

“Mmm...”

When Baby Chu heard this, he felt wronged and afraid. However, such threats were very effective on him. He stopped crying in an instant.

When Butler Fu was present just now, he dared to challenge Gu Jinglian because of him.

Now that Butler Fu had left and his only pillar of support was gone, he did not dare to act rebelliously. After the scare from Gu Jinglian’s, he learned to behave himself. Pouting, he did not utter a single word.

Right now, there was only him and this bad uncle in the room. He had no one to rely on, nor was there anyone to back him up. Therefore, he must not overstep his boundaries anymore. It was time to stop when appropriate!

Seeing how Baby Chu deferred so quickly to threats, Gu Jinglian did not know what to feel.

“You’ve learned your lesson, huh?”

Seeing that Baby Chu had finally stopped crying, Gu Jinglian was naturally satisfied. As expected! Children should not be spoiled. When it’s time to be fierce, I had to be fierce.

Just by shouting at Baby Chu, he immediately stopped!

He carried Baby Chu to the sofa and sat beside him, only to see Baby Chu staring at him innocently. He trembled as he cowered in a corner of the sofa, scrutinising Gu Jinglian’s expression timidly. A child at such a young age actually knew how to observe someone’s expressions. Seeing that Gu Jinglian’s expression was no longer as menacing as before, Baby Chu’s frantically beating heart finally calmed down.

Baby Chu thought to himself, How should I return to my mother’s side?

After thinking for a while, he scrutinized Gu Jinglian again. Since crying and kicking up a fuss did not work, the little fellow decided to use a stalling tactic.

Hence, he pursed his lips and asked carefully, “Uncle, can we reconcile? I’m not angry at you anymore, so don’t be fierce to me, okay?”

Gu Jinglian glanced at him and grunted. Baby Chu took it as a silent agreement.

“Then, we’ll reconcile!”

As Baby Chu spoke, he raised his little hand and clumsily wiped away the tears on his face. His eyes darted around nimbly and he suddenly asked, “Uncle, Butler Fu said that you’re my father. Is that true? Or is it a joke?”

Gu Jinglian narrowed his eyes slightly. He did not know what this little fellow was up to, so he casually crossed his legs and gracefully stretched. He affirmed, “It’s true.”

“No way!”

Baby Chu naturally did not believe them. He asked suspiciously, “Are you guys lying to me?”

He cursed silently.

Chapter 2768: Grasping the Clues

As he spoke, he silently cursed. Although this uncle looks very handsome, he’s so fierce and has such a nasty personality. He definitely won’t be able to find a wife.

Mommy said that as many men can’t find a wife, they have no choice but to buy children from human traffickers at a high price.

Some of those children were abducted, while others were scammed.

I’m sure that because this uncle can’t have a child, he lied to me and claimed to be my Daddy!

Yeah!

That must be the case.

When Gu Jinglian heard Baby Chu's speculations, the corners of his eyes twitched.

Can't find a wife?

Physically unable to have a child?

Can it be that this brat is implying that there's something wrong with my body?

When Baby Chu noticed his awkward expression, he thought that he had hit the nail on the head. Hence, he tried to console Gu Jinglian with a straight face, "Uncle, it's actually not that embarrassing to have some physical defects. You don't need to feel inferior. Perhaps, there's still some hope of having a baby! However, I can't be your son! I still have my Mommy. She'll be worried if she can't find me!"

Gu Jinglian was rendered speechless.

Does this brat still think that I'm lying to him?

He furrowed his eyebrows and suddenly took out his cigarette box. Holding a cigarette between his teeth, he lit it up silently. Then, he took a deep puff and gently flicked away the ashes. He asked calmly, "What kind of person is your mother?"

"Huh?" The sudden question stunned Baby Chu.

"Didn't you say that you wanted to go back to Mommy?"

Gu Jinglian continued, "Why don't you tell me your mother's name and characteristics? As long as I know the details, I can help you find her!"

"Really?!" Baby Chu asked excitedly. "Can you really help me find my mother?"

"Mhm."

"That's impossible, right?" Baby Chu quickly regained his senses and eyed him suspiciously. "Even the police can't find my mother. How can you?"

"I have my ways. The police are useless, but I'm more capable than them."

Gu Jinglian glanced at Baby Chu from the corner of his eyes. "Of course. If you don't want to tell me, I won't force you."

Retreat in order to advance.

The reason why he asked about that woman was because he was curious about who the mother was.

Although he had many women, it was not like there were too many to count. If Baby Chu provided some details, he might be able to find some clues.

Baby Chu mulled over it for a long time. Finally, his desire to find his mother surpassed everything. He hesitated for a long time before saying, "My mother is called Chu He. She's very tall and slightly skinny. She has short black hair and is a police officer! However, I heard from many people that my mother wasn't born and raised in Yan City! They all said that an accident happened when my mother was pregnant with me. More than five years ago, they rescued my mother from the river! At that time, my mother seemed to have suffered a head injury and lost all her memories. She couldn't even remember her own name! Hence, my mother gave herself the name 'Chu He'!"

After a pause, the little boy continued, "After giving birth to me, Mommy worked at a police station and would come back late every day. If I have to describe her features, I'd say that Mommy is very pretty. She has a pair of big eyes, a tall nose bridge, and perfectly-shaped lips!"

As Baby Chu described what his mother looked like, he became a little proud and declared, "My mother is a great beauty!"

Chapter 2769: Codename Vermillion Bird

Based on the clues provided by Baby Chu, a vague outline of face appeared in Gu Jinglian's mind. However, he could not recall interacting with such a woman before.

Short hair?

This alone eliminated any guesses he had.

None of the women he slept with had short hair!

He liked women with long black hair that reached their waists. Hence, none of the women he slept with sported short hair.

She was tall and skinny. If she worked as a police officer, it meant that she fought quite well.

However, to Baby Chu, she might not be as high as he thought. Comparatively speaking, the concept of "very tall" to a child was about 1.5 to 1.6 meters.

Most importantly...

Previously during the DNA testing at the police station, such a person did not show up in the DNA database.

This meant that this woman had not been registered in the system.

Those unregistered personnels shared a few characteristics.

Either she had been missing for too long and her household register had been revoked, or she had a special identity. For instance, she was an undercover soldier, an agent, a spy or an assassin.

Wait... A spy?

A thought suddenly flashed across Gu Jinglian's mind. He furrowed his brows tightly. In his mind, the image of a woman's cold expression briefly surfaced...

She had long black hair that draped over her shoulders. Her facial features were exquisite and her eyes were cold. Every single action of hers exuded a dignified aura that no other average women possessed.

She had no name, only a code name—Vermillion Bird.

Vermilion Bird was the highest-ranking counter-terrorist officer in the Interpol.

Could it be her?

Gu Jinglian no longer had a clear memory of what that woman looked like. However, he could vaguely tell that her exquisite facial features seemed to match Baby Chu's child-like face.

Gu Jinglian fell into a momentary trance.

Six years ago, this woman was arranged to stay by his side as an undercover spy.

Back then, when he first stepped up to his role, he was extremely ambitious. In order to expand his territory, he was unscrupulous and ruthless, offending many major forces. The Gu family's power continued to expand. Due to their transnational sale of military artillery, they even started to build two weapon factories in Vietnam and North America. In the end, their actions alerted the Interpol.

However, the Gu family had informants all over the capital back then. With the added protection of the government, the Interpol could not do anything to him.

At that time, Vermillion Bird worked in the counter-terrorism unit. She was sent on a mission to infiltrate the Gu family as an undercover agent. Through her methods, she got close to him and was about to carry out an assassination plan.

However, as her identity was exposed, the assassination failed and the Gu family sent people to hunt her down. Eventually, she managed to escape and her subsequent whereabouts became a complete mystery.

At the thought of this, Gu Jinglian frowned. He mulled over his thoughts with a brooding gaze, while complex emotions flashed across his eyes.

He did not know that the woman was pregnant with his child.

She was an extremely capable woman.

When she was planted beside him, she did not reveal any loopholes. Even he did not discover anything strange about her.

However, five years ago, her whereabouts became unknown.

If his guesses were correct, everything matched Baby Chu's description.

He did not expect it to be her!

He thought she was dead.

Interpol had also been secretly searching for her for a few months. In the end, they could only conclude that she was "dead". Having suffered the agonizing loss of their beloved official, the Interpol secretly erased all her information from their database.

But she had lost her memory?

So, she doesn't remember anything, including memories about me?

Gu Jinglian narrowed his eyes slightly. A sharp and hostile look crept into his eyes.

Chapter 2770: The Child's Biological Father

In the police station, Chu He waited patiently on the bench.

Unknowingly, it was already dark outside.

Mu Yanchen arranged for Meng Qingxue to stay in the hotel. Meng Qingxue's body was still weak. Furthermore, she was now exhausted after an entire day of travelling. Although she was also worried about Baby Chu's whereabouts, Chu He persuaded her that even if she stayed at the police station, there might still not be any progress. Hence, she might as well go back to the hotel to rest.

Meng Qingxue listened to her.

Chu He waited at the police station for an entire night. The police officer had clearly told her progress would be slow even if she stayed there.

The DNA test would take some time. Furthermore, as it was already so late and the hospital staff had left work, there would not be any new updates.

At the earliest, they would have to wait until tomorrow morning when the hospital opened. The police department would send someone to urge the hospital staff before they could get the report.

However, Chu He stubbornly stayed at the police station and refused to leave. She firmly believed that she must get hold of Baby Chu's whereabouts as soon as possible. Otherwise, no matter how tired she was, she would not be able to sleep in peace.

It was a long night.

Finally, dawn arrived.

Chu He waited for a few hours before the hospital finally gave a response at 10.30am.

The police officer brought her to the hospital to personally retrieve the report. When Chu He held the report in her hand, Chu He gazed at the words on the report—"Confirmed parent and child relationship."

Unable to restrain her raging emotions anymore, her eyes reddened as they brimmed with tears.

It's Baby Chu!

He's still fine!

He's still alive and well!

Chu He was so excited that her shoulders started shaking uncontrollably!

She thought that something bad must have happened to him. However, she kept holding herself back, not daring to think of the worst circumstances. She was afraid that her fears would really come true!

However, when she found out that Baby Chu was still alive and well, she was so surprised that she found herself overwhelmed by disbelief!

“Officer, do you see this report?” Chu He handed the report to the officer with a grin on her face. “Since it has been confirmed that the child and I are related, please bring me to him immediately!”

“This is weird...”

Clutching the report, the police officer muttered with an odd expression.

Chu He raised her eyebrows and asked confusedly, “What’s weird?”

“Is this child really your biological child?” The police officer stroked his chin and narrowed his eyes. “But I contacted the Public Security Bureau yesterday. They said that the child was brought back by his biological father. Since you’re the child’s mother, then... What’s your relationship with the child’s father?”

Generally speaking, no matter how abnormal a family was, the child’s parents would still know who each other was.

In other words, even if the parents had gotten a divorce, the child’s parents would still keep in contact.

Furthermore, no matter how he thought about it, he felt that this woman’s background was somewhat unusual.

“I...”

Chu He bit her lip and muttered hesitatingly, “In reality, I don’t know who the father is either.”

“Huh? You don’t know!?” The police officer was shocked. “How is that possible?”

No matter how careless a woman was, she’d still know who the child’s father was, right?

Unless it’s a one-night stand.

After having sex with an unknown man, she accidentally got pregnant and gave birth to the child.

“It’s true!”

Chu He explained, “Five years ago, I got into an accident. My brain suffered an injury, so I lost all my memories.”