

Sweet Love 2871

Chapter 2871: Yun Na Is Not Dead!

Butler Fu walked towards the trolley bed. When he saw Gu Xingze on it, his eyes reddened instantly. "What... What happened... He was fine and now... why..."

It was not as though he did not have any affections for Gu Xingze.

Butler Fu was devoted to serving Gu Liancheng in the Gu family. After Gu Liancheng passed away, he started serving Gu Jinglian.

However, his heart was extremely gentle.

Her heart ached for Gu Xingze, and he pitied the young man.

Gu Xingze had lived in the Gu family residence for a period of time. At that time, only Butler Fu could get close to him.

Ever since he was young, Xingze had been extremely introverted. He rarely interacted with outsiders and lived in his own world.

He loved hiding away in his study to read and flip through comics.

The only person who would communicate with him every now and then was probably Butler Fu.

Right from the onset, very few people could get close to him.

But those who did, stayed that way.

He was obsessed with love.

Butler Fu felt that although the child appeared cold and distant, he valued relationships more than life itself.

He could not help but shed tears as he looked at Gu Xingze's pale face, and quickly wiped them away.

"How did Young Master Xingze..."

Mu Yazhe also entered the emergency room at this point.

He had initially planned to wait outside the operating theater for his wife.

When he was informed of the accident, he rushed over, only to see Yun Shishi lying on the operating table covered in blood. He did not know if the blood on her clothes belonged to her or someone else!

This was especially true for her eyes, which were smeared with blood. When he saw this, it felt like his heart had been being stabbed by a knife!

What was the feeling of heartache!?

He wished he could bear the pain on her behalf.

Eyes were the most vulnerable part of a person.

The doctor said that there were many tiny bits of glass in her eyes, which resulted in corneal hemorrhage!

Bits of glass!?

How did these damn things end up in her eyes?!

Mu Yazhe really could not figure it out and did not have the time to probe further. He was focused on accompanying her by her bed. At that time, she was unconscious but kept mumbling and seemed to be spouting nonsense.

He leaned closer to listen, but couldn't make out the gist of it.

When she finally woke up and opened her eyes, she was pushed into the operating room!

The man could only talk himself into remaining calm and collected.

If he lost his composure as well, the situation could get completely out of control!

Right now, he had to watch over her until she was safely out of the operating theater!

He was not too concerned about her eyes or whether she might end up losing her vision!

He only wanted her to live well. Even if she could no longer see, he would do everything he could, to bring back her sight!

However, Mu Yazhe saw Gu Jinglian walk into the emergency room. At first, he did not care, but when he heard Butler Fu's sorrowful cry, "Young Master Xingze..."

His eyebrows twitched for a brief moment, looking vaguely as though he suspected something. Then he walked to the emergency room.

However, the scene he saw was such a desolate one.

Gu Xingze lay on the trolley bed, his face pale, a body without a soul. It was cold, devoid of warmth.

His body had already turned cold.

Rigor mortis had set in.

His handsome face was stained with blood yet strangely calm, as if he had just fallen asleep.

Any ordinary person, after suffering so many injuries, would inevitably wear a hideous expression upon death.

He, on the other hand, was exceptionally gentle and quiet, as if he had left this world without suffering any pain.

Gu Jinglian looked into his face, surprised by his appearance.

Chapter 2872: Yun Na Is Not Dead??

He had never thought that they would meet under such circumstances.

Gu Jinglian sized him up and asked expressionlessly, "Why are you here?"

"What happened to him?"

Mu Yazhe answered with a question.

Gu Jinglian cast a frosty glance at Gu Xingze.

"Well... he's dead."

He left peacefully.

He had initially thought that he'd be unmoved by anything regarding Gu Xingze.

Unexpectedly, he realized that it hurt, nevertheless, with this family member's passing.

Gu Xingze was dead.

His heart was heavy.

Gu Jinglian narrowed his eyes and demanded, "Who did this?!"

"...Old Master..."

"Who did this!?"

Gu Jinglian gripped the armrest tightly. There was a viciousness in his eyes as he repeated, "Who did this?!"

Butler Fu immediately said, "I sought clarification on the situation just now. It's said that the criminal has been taken into custody. It's a woman. Her accomplice had died from fatal injuries by the time I got to the scene!"

"A woman?"

Gu Jinglian frowned and repeated, "A woman?"

"A woman?"

Mu Yazhe expressed his doubts at the same time.

Butler Fu immediately replied, "I heard that Young Master Xingze wanted to see Miss Yun Shishi one last time before he left the country. He was probably attacked during the meeting."

"Had he offended anyone!?"

Gu Jinglian's expression turned even colder. "As I recall, he had never offended anyone. How could he be attacked for no reason?"

"All these can only be concluded after the police have carefully investigated! I've already sent someone to put pressure on the relevant departments. I believe that we'll be able to come to a conclusion soon!"

Mu Yazhe frowned and suddenly asked, "Have you asked clearly what that woman's name is?!"

When Butler Fu heard this, he and Gu Jinglian turned simultaneously to look at him.

After hesitating for a long while, he finally said slowly, "I only know that it's a young woman who is slightly disfigured. Her surname is Yun and her name is Na. That's all I've found out!"

Mu Yazhe was stunned. The muscles on his face instantly tensed up.

Yun Na...

It was this woman!

He narrowed his eyes, somewhat guessing what had happened!

Bang!

The door to the resuscitation room flew open.

Startled by the sudden movement, Hua Jin stood up at once, only to see Mu Yazhe walking out coldly. He strode up to him and instructed, "Stay here and watch over her!"

"...What's wrong with you? You look like you're in a hurry. Where are you going?!"

Hua Jin was puzzled.

Mu Yazhe said, "I have something very important to settle!"

"What —"

Mu Yazhe could not wait for him to finish asking his question, and did not have time to continue talking to him. He only instructed the man to watch over the emergency room and take care of Yun Shishi, before leaving in a hurry.

Numerous police cars were parked at the entrance of the hospital. They had escorted the injured parties to the hospital and had taken their statements. And now, the police officers were about to go home.

Mu Yazhe followed closely behind the police cars until they entered the police station. He parked the car and rushed into the station lobby!

At once, he spotted Yun Na, whose hands were cuffed.

Her hands were cuffed and her feet were shackled. She sat on the long bench in a daze. Her clothes were stained with blood and her hair was in a mess. She looked like she was deranged, as if she was possessed!

Chapter 2873: Bailing Yun Na

Mu Yazhe did not recognize her at first glance, but he inadvertently noticed the hideous scar on her face.

He vaguely remembered hearing Youyou and Shishi mention that Yun Na's face had been cruelly disfigured by Lu Jingtian because she had offended her.

Using an eyebrow scraper.

Her face was covered in blood.

Mu Yazhe frowned and walked towards her.

Yun Na was trembling. She lowered her head and muttered incoherently. It was as if she was possessed. He couldn't tell what she was mumbling about!

His handsome brows sank slightly.

He had no idea what had happened.

By the time he reached the hospital, Yun Shishi's eyes were badly injured and Gu Xingze had died on the way to the hospital!

What exactly happened here?

He had no idea!

However, he could vaguely guess that it most certainly had something to do with Yun Na!

Mu Yazhe's face darkened with anger. He did not know that Yun Na was still alive, nor did he know that Yun Yecheng's accident had something to do with her!

He also did not know that Lu Jingtian's burn injuries were Yun Na's doing!

She had returned from hell like a malicious spirit seeking revenge!

After registering the case, the three police officers walked over with their recorded statements. When they saw Mu Yazhe standing by the side, they were stunned for a moment. Obviously they did not know who he was.

"What are you doing here!?"

The officer-in-charge asked first.

Mu Yazhe swept a glance over them and coldly said, "I'm the victim's family member."

"The victim's family member!?"

The police officer looked at him, then at Yun Na, and said with a sudden realization, "You're Yun Shishi's family member?"

"Uh huh."

"Who are you to her? Your identity?"

"Husband."

"Hus..."

The police officer was stunned.

Of course, Yun Shishi was no stranger to them!

She was a popular up-and-coming star. Her movies broke box office records and the television dramas she starred in had ratings that kept going up.

Her fight with Ji Yan had caused a huge commotion. Everyone knew that her husband was the former chief of the Mu Group and founder of the Shengyu Financial Group – Mu Yazhe!

Hence, the moment they heard that he was Yun Shishi's husband, they immediately became respectful!

"It's Chairman Mu..."

The three officers looked at each other and smiled uneasily.

Mu Yazhe glanced at Yun Na again, and saw that her eyes were fixed on a certain spot. It was as if she was in a private world of her own. Her body swayed back and forth, and her expression was dull as she repeatedly muttered something!

"What's she saying?"

Upon hearing his question, one of the police officers immediately smiled and said, "Please wait a moment, I'll go over and listen!"

Another captain-level police officer immediately stopped him. "You'd better not, be careful not to get attacked by her! I don't know if this woman is really crazy or just pretending to be crazy! On the way back to the police station, she was acting all mysterious, as if she was possessed. I sense evil in her!"

"Is she mentally ill? If she is, she needs to be tested!"

Mu Yazhe immediately shot an icy look at the man, who immediately fell silent.

"Mr. Mu, do you have any instructions for us, since you came all the way here?"

Mu Yazhe sized up Yun Na with a sinister expression before instructing, "Help me with the bail process."

"This..."

"Bail..."

"This case hasn't been fully investigated yet. I'm afraid it's not appropriate to just go through the bail process?"

Chapter 2874: Xingze, Open Your Eyes!

The three of them were well aware.

If Mu Yazhe wanted to bail someone out, he did not need to ask for their opinion. However, it was indeed too brazen to go through the bail process without interrogating the criminal!

“I’ll give you twenty minutes to go through the procedure.”

Mu Yazhe glanced at his watch expressionlessly before looking up and saying coldly, “My time is very precious.”

The three of them could not help but be shaken by the man’s gaze. They shuddered and exchanged looks...

...

At the hospital.

The emergency room was filled with people.

The news of Gu Xingze’s accident spread like wildfire among the media. It was unknown if the hospital’s insiders leaked the news, but many media outlets found out that Gu Xingze had an accident and his condition was unknown. Having found out which hospital he had been sent to, they all went to the hospital to wait.

Huanyu also received news from the Gu family and sent Ji Lin and Qin Zhou over at once.

Qin Zhou arrived in the hospital first and hurried towards the morgue. There was only a trolley bed in the huge morgue. This was a room specially set aside by the hospital for Gu Xingze’s body.

Soon, someone walked hurriedly into the room. The person was the mortuary makeup artist, responsible for performing cosmetic services for Gu Xingze.

By the time Qin Zhou arrived, Gu Xingze’s clothes had already been removed and the blood on his body had just been wiped clean. However, the wounds were still ghastly.

The moment he reached the door and saw Gu Xingze lying quietly on the bed, he was thunderstruck!

His mind went blank for a few seconds before he reacted. He rushed up to the bed frantically, and was greeted only by Gu Xingze’s dull and lifeless face.

“Xingze!!”

He cried out Xingze’s name in grief, but to his chagrin, the man on the trolley bed ultimately could not respond!

“Xingze...”

Qin Zhou was devastated!

All along the way here, he was anxiously hoping that this was fake news!

Perhaps there was some miscommunication while the message was being relayed!

How could a person who was alive just a second ago be dead now?!

Qin Zhou could not believe it.

However, when he rushed to the hospital and saw Gu Xingze, he was shocked to realize that it wasn’t fake.

Xingze was really...

Gone.

Qin Zhou rarely shed tears. He had always been a cheerful person, so no matter how pessimistic things were, he wouldn't be too affected.

However, this incident made him feel suddenly vulnerable. His eyes turned red as tears fell onto the white sheet.

He was brokenhearted and started to cry aloud.

"Xingze, didn't you say you were flying off to America? Why..."

He suddenly reached out and touched the ghastly wounds. Tears continued to stream down his face. "How did this happen?! You said you'd contact me immediately when you've arrived in America. I thought you'd be in the first-class cabin, on the way to America by now!"

He hugged Gu Xingze's shoulders in an instant, filled with pain that could not find an outlet.

"Wake up and tell me that this is a joke! That you're playing a trick on me... Alright, you've won. I've been fooled by you. Xingze, stop keeping your eyes closed. Open them and look at me!"

Gu Xingze had been in the industry for many years, and shared a close relationship with Qin Zhou. In fact, they were so close that most people would find it abnormal.

Chapter 2875: Unbearable Parting

Gu Xingze had been in the industry for many years, and shared a close relationship with Qin Zhou. In fact, they were so close that most people would find it abnormal.

The media had even speculated that the two of them were gay.

The reality was that, "close friends" was probably an inadequate description for the two men.

Qin Zhou regarded Xingze as his own family member, while Gu Xingze, in turn, looked to the other man as a beacon of light.

Throughout his eleven years in the entertainment industry, if it hadn't been for Qin Zhou's support, he would not have attained such a glorious status.

However, to him personally, he was more grateful to Qin Zhou for understanding him. Qin Zhou was about the only person who could walk into Gu Xingze's heavily guarded heart.

Qin Zhou could not accept this fact that was laid out before him now. He held Gu Xingze's face and pressed his forehead against it, but he could only feel the stiff coldness in the depths of his skin.

There was no warmth in the body.

He was gone.

Leaving behind an empty shell!

No matter how he called out to the man, he would not come back!

Qin Zhou clutched the bedsheets in pain, clearly unable to accept such grievous news.

Gu Jinglian stood at the side and looked at this scene. There was a hint of relief on his face.

The separation at life and death, was enough for even someone with a heart of stone to feel deeply.

Very soon, Ji Lin also turned up.

Many of Huanyu's executives followed closely behind. At the entrance to the morgue, Ji Lin instructed them to wait at the door, before entering the room by himself.

When he came up to the trolley bed, his facial muscles visibly twitched.

"What happened?"

Qin Zhou looked at him with reddened eyes, his lips trembling uncontrollably.

Ji Lin frowned when he saw him, but he could not bear to reprimand him. He only said, "Pull yourself together. I still need you to handle the follow-up matters."

"He... is my most important friend! After more than ten years of friendship, he's more important than family!"

Qin Zhou choked on his own sobbing. "How can I not be sad now that he's gone?! How can I not be sorrowful?! You tell me to pull myself together but how do I do that?!"

"Sigh..." Ji Lin sighed helplessly. "Qin Zhou, there are people from the media outside the door. I've already sent people to lock down the hospital, but it's hard to stop the media. Last time, there was a paparazzo who sneaked into the morgue to take photos of Lu Jingtian's dead body and published them online! I don't want such an outrageous thing to happen to Xingze!"

Qin Zhou clenched his fists tightly.

"The news of Xingze's death should be announced to the public! There are already so many people within the hospital gossiping about this matter, so even if we tried to hide it, it wouldn't be for long!"

"D*mn it!"

Qin Zhou cursed, "Which bastard spread this rumor?!"

"Xingze is very popular and is almost a national figure. He can easily cause a commotion on the streets. In the hospital, there must be quite a number of people who are familiar with him! Especially those nurses. On the way here, I saw many nurses crowding at the door, looking around with bloodshot eyes. I guess they want to come in to pay their condolences!"

Qin Zhou immediately declared, "Outsiders are not allowed in here."

"Therefore, I need you to settle the matters that follow! At least, don't let the tragedy repeat itself!"

“Alright, I understand.” Qin Zhou pulled himself together somewhat and straightened his back. However, when he looked at Gu Xingze again, his brows twitched.

He could not bear to look at him anymore.

He could not bear to let the man go.

He really couldn’t bear to.

He wanted to take a few more last looks, but it only got more painful.

Chapter 2876: The Unscrupulous Media

He wanted to take a few more last looks, but it only got more painful.

He found it impossible to accept such a cruel reality!

Was Xingze really dead?

Some time in the near future, just like the others who had died before, he’d be turned into a small pile of ashes in the crematorium, and buried in a dark tomb that never see the light of day.

Suddenly, a great sense of sadness overcame him and he couldn’t stop himself from tearing up.

He was not a fragile person, but now that he knew Gu Xingze would never return, he finally felt the pain of losing his best friend!

Qin Zhou endured it for a while before standing up energetically. He gently reached out and closed Gu Xingze’s eyes.

“Didn’t you always say that you wanted a good sleep?”

Qin Zhou looked at him and frowned briefly before he forced a smile. “You can have a good sleep now. Leave the rest of the matters to me.”

Then he turned around and slowly walked out.

At the doorway, a few Huanyu executives were peering in and Qin Zhou stopped them.

“Stop gawking!”

As he spoke, he shut the door behind him.

“What exactly happened to Xingze?”

“We received news that Xingze had an accident. What exactly happened?”

Qin Zhou looked at them expressionlessly and said, “Xingze is asleep. Don’t wake him.”

“This...”

The few executives looked at each other in dismay. They clearly did not know what was going on, but most of them were quick-witted. Qin Zhou's remark had vaguely confirmed their guesses while they were on the way to the hospital.

Gu Xingze was no longer!

He had fallen asleep permanently!

He had been in the entertainment industry for ten years and had always been the most dazzling star around. Now, he had really fallen among the stars of the galaxy like a burnt out meteor!

Xingze is asleep. Don't wake him.

He used to complain to Qin Zhou that he could not sleep well at night. Qin Zhou knew that he was in a bad mental state and got very worried.

He knew very well that Gu Xingze had been in the industry for more than eleven years. Over those years, he had been flying around the world to keep up with the scheduled events, and sleep had been a big issue.

Besides, this was accompanied by severe neurological weakness and depression. His condition had always been managed by medication.

He had announced his withdrawal from the entertainment industry primarily because of Yun Shishi. But more than that, his personal physician had repeatedly urged him to go to the United States to get treated for his depression.

Gu Xingze had given up as well. It was just that his exit from the entertainment industry was very sudden, and caught Qin Zhou off guard.

Why did he fall in love with Yun Shishi?

It was probably because Yun Shishi was about the only ray of hope in the gloomy world he lived in.

However, some things in life cannot be forced.

And this really could not be forced!

However, he had thought of countless things regarding Xingze's future.

Perhaps, he would be cured of his depression in America.

Perhaps he would meet a suitable and loving girl in the foreign land.

Perhaps two years later, he would marry the woman he loved, have children, and live a peaceful life...

But whatever the imagined scenario was, he could never have imagined that he would receive such grievous news.

How could he accept this?

Qin Zhou could only take it that the man was asleep. Perhaps, it was a form of escape for him!

The dead can not be revived.

He just hoped that the man could now rest quietly.

The news of Gu Xingze's death eventually got out. Even though it was late at night, many media outlets rushed over upon hearing the news and stood guard outside the door.

Chapter 2877: Malicious Rumors!

Even though it was late at night, many media outlets still rushed over after hearing the news. They waited outside the door persistently, just for the opportunity to catch headline news!

There were even worse media outlets that did not care if they had grasped the truth of the situation. In order to protest against Huanyu's actions of locking down the hospital, they started burning paper at the entrance of the hospital.

Some media outlets even went ahead to post the news online.

Soon, the Weibo media made use of the platform to release this news.

"Gu Xingze jumped off a building due to depression?!"

This title was a real head-turner.

Very quickly, it attracted the attention of many fans!

But why would the fans believe the media's one-sided story?

Since there were no photographs, no concrete evidence, and no official announcement, the fans did not buy it of course!

They took it to be a publicity stunt!

Hence, very quickly, a large group of fans gathered in Weibo and scolded and accused the unscrupulous media for carrying groundless stories and inciting malicious rumors!

Creating rumors!

These were just rumors!

Soon, this Weibo post was trashed by Gu Xingze's fans!

Within a short span of ten minutes, it had attracted hundreds of thousands of reads from fans and tens of thousands of comments.

It was so sensational that it crashed the Weibo server!

The technical department dealt with it urgently, but the blogger got such a fright that he immediately shut down the comment function.

However, many fans had a frighteningly accurate sixth sense.

There had been no official word even though there was such a huge commotion around this Weibo account. At once, there was a sense of panic among these fans that something could really have happened to Gu Xingze. Hence, they went to his Weibo and begged him to clarify the rumors.

Gu Xingze's last Weibo post was a notice about him quitting the entertainment industry.

The fans eagerly waited.

But unknown to these fans, this Weibo account would never be updated ever again.

No matter how the fans cried and begged in the comments section, there was only silence on Weibo.

Hua Jin had been standing guard outside the operating theater the whole time. As he was worried about Shishi, he was completely distracted!

Youyou and Little Yichen were equally anxious.

They did not arrive immediately, so they did not know what was going on with their mommy!

However, the doors of the operating theater opened and closed every now and then. A group of nurses went in and out hurriedly, who knew what was going on!

Eventually, a nurse in a pink uniform walked in.

Hua Jin stood up with a look of consternation on his face!

Pink uniform?!

In this hospital, only nurses from the Gynecology Department wore a pink uniform!

He could only watch as a few more Gynecology nurses rushed in before the emergency room door slammed shut again.

Little Yichen was so anxious that he was on the verge of tears. "What should we do?! Is mommy in danger?! It's been so long; why isn't she out yet?! I'm so scared!"

Youyou immediately shouted, "Don't spout nonsense! Mommy will be fine!"

"Mmm..."

Feeling extremely aggrieved, Little Yichen started crying.

Qin Zhou, who had just walked out, heard Little Yichen's voice and walked over curiously. Seeing that they were there, he was even more confused. "Why are you guys..."

"Qin Zhou!"

Hua Jin jumped to his feet at once. As Qin Zhou was Shishi's manager, the man finally calmed down a little for the time being, when he saw him!

"Hua Jin, you..."

"Shishi is undergoing surgery!"

Hua Jin continued anxiously, "She was sent here together with Xingze! I saw Xingze being sent to the emergency room and then they took him somewhere else! How is he?"

Chapter 2878: Don't You All Know She's Pregnant?

When Qin Zhou heard Hua Jin mention Gu Xingze, his expression darkened and he frowned.

"Xingze... is gone."

Hua Jin was stunned for a few seconds before he quickly understood what he meant by 'gone'!

"How can this be?!"

Obviously, he found this unbelievable.

When Youyou heard this, he quickly came up to the men and asked, "Uncle, what did you say? Uncle Xingze... is gone?!"

"Uh huh."

Qin Zhou suppressed his grief and said in a muffled voice, "Let him have a good rest! All these years, he's lived a painful life."

They remained silent.

Youyou also looked regretful.

Recalling Hua Jin's words, it was as though Qin Zhou was suddenly jolted awake. "What did you just say? Shishi is in the operating theater?! What's her situation now?!"

"She was sent here together with Xingze! I don't know what exactly happened either. I got here only a little while afterwards, but I heard that her face was covered in blood. I don't know what sort of injuries she's sustained!"

Qin Zhou's face turned solemn on hearing this.

"Why didn't you call me?!"

"I thought you would have already known!"

Feeling a little vexed, Hua Jin said, "When I saw you entering the hospital earlier with a group of people, I thought you knew about Shishi. I didn't expect that Xingze..."

"How long has Shishi been in there?"

"About two hours!"

"Then, have you... informed CEO Mu?"

Hua Jin immediately replied, "He was the one who informed me. Later on, he said that he had to leave to attend to something urgent, and asked me to stay here to take care of her."

“Why isn’t Daddy back yet?” Little Yichen mumbled in confusion.

Youyou immediately replied, “It’s probably something important and he didn’t have time to explain it to us.”

Qin Zhou suddenly felt that this was a thorny issue.

Overnight, something had happened to both of them.

He had not yet figured out how to handle the PR aspect of Gu Xingze’s matter, nor did he know how to announce this grievous news to the public.

If the fans knew about this, they would suffer a meltdown for sure.

However, it would be impossible to hide it for long.

Many people in the hospital had seen Gu Xingze’s body and knew that he was already dead. Even if Huanyu did not make any official announcements, the news would soon spread like wildfire.

At that point, it would be prickly to handle!

Qin Zhou had to consider carefully.

Except that now something had happened to Yun Shishi as well, he felt even more saddened!

Hua Jin was so anxious that he had broken out in cold sweat.

Qin Zhou immediately tried to calm him down. “Don’t be anxious now. Since you’re staying here to watch over Shishi, you need to keep your cool. Otherwise, who’s going to take care of her?”

“How can I not be worried?! It’s been so long, and she’s still not out yet!” The man was close to tears.

Qin Zhou was about to say something when the door of the emergency room flew open, and the nurses walked out again. They were holding trays with blood-stained gauze.

Hua Jin’s heart skipped a beat when he saw this. He immediately went up to them and asked, “Nurse, what’s going on inside?!”

The nurse sized him up and asked, “Are you her family member?”

“Yes!” Hua Jin nodded vigorously.

The nurse asked angrily, “The patient is pregnant. Do you know about this?”

“Wh... What!?!?”

Hua Jin was shocked and turned ashen at once. Qin Zhou was even more stunned.

Youyou and Little Yichen turned pale as well when they heard this.

Little Yichen widened his eyes and exclaimed, “What?! Mommy is pregnant?!”

Chapter 2879: The Child Was Saved

The nurse asked angrily, "The patient is pregnant. Do you know about this?"

"Wh... What!?!!"

Hua Jin was shocked and turned ashen at once. Qin Zhou was even more stunned.

Youyou and Little Yichen turned pale as well when they heard this.

Little Yichen widened his eyes and exclaimed, "What?! Mommy is pregnant?!"

Youyou was also stunned!

The nurse sized them up and was clearly puzzled by their surprised expressions. "What? The patient is already seven weeks pregnant and you guys don't know about it?!"

Hua Jin furrowed his brows and said worriedly, "We really didn't know about it! Because she hasn't shown any unusual signs, such as vomiting. I've not noticed her having any morning sickness!"

"Not everyone has morning sickness. Some pregnant women don't react in that manner. Besides, it's only seven weeks, so she may not be getting these reactions yet. However, there are obvious differences between pregnant women and normal people! For example, they are particularly sleepy."

After the nurse said this, Youyou immediately asked, "Sister nurse, how is Mommy? Is she out of danger?! You said that she's pregnant, but did you manage to keep the baby?!"

He looked anxious and worried.

Seeing that he was so cute and sensible, the nurse immediately bent over and gently touched his head. She smiled and said, "Your mommy's life is not in danger! The baby in her belly is fine too. However, her eyes are injured, so her vision might be damaged! But what matters is that she's fine."

What everyone did not know was that even though Yun Shishi had fallen to the ground, Gu Xingze had protected her in his embrace.

Gu Xingze had used his entire body to protect her from the most severe fall and had taken all the blows for her. Hence, the baby within Yun Shishi was fine.

"At least, she's fine."

Most importantly, the baby in Mommy's belly was safe!

Did Daddy not know about this?!

If Daddy knew that Mommy was pregnant, he'd probably be excited, nervous, and worried?!

He'd be worried sick.

Initially, he had wanted to tell his father about this matter right away, but on second thoughts, if his father found out about it, he'd panic and not know what to do!

However, it was good that Mommy was not in danger!

Just as Youyou calmed down, he suddenly realized something. His delicate eyebrows knitted together again as he asked in confusion, “Sister nurse, what do you mean by Mommy’s eyes being injured and her vision being damaged?”

Hua Jin nervously added, “Yes, nurse. I also wanted to ask the same, what do you mean by eye injury and how bad is the damage?”

“During the surgery just now, we removed a lot of broken glass fragments from the eyes of the injured person. These glass fragments entered the eyes and pierced the cornea, causing a lot of damage. The cornea of a person is very fragile, but it can also be repaired. However, if the injury is serious, it might cause permanent loss of vision.”

“Permanent loss of vision?!”

Hua Jin raised an eyebrow and questioned, “Do you mean going blind?”

“You can say that. If we want to recover her vision, the only way is to consider a corneal transplant.”

...

The nurse hurried away.

Hua Jin and Youyou looked at each other in dismay.

Little Yichen, who was listening by the side, didn’t really understand what was going on, but he had vaguely heard the words “permanent loss of vision”, and was shocked!

“Mommy’s eyes are hurt! Will she be able to see in the future?”

Chapter 2880: Going Blind?

Youyou was obviously dumbfounded.

Going blind!?

Impossible!

The three of them lowered their heads, each harboring their own thoughts.

The good news was that her life was no longer in danger. At least, she was fine. More importantly, her child was safe!

The bad news was that her cornea was severely damaged.

The glass was very hard, and the cornea was not lightly damaged by any standards.

The human eyes are so fragile that they don’t even tolerate a grain of sand, let alone glass shards.

Hua Jin’s heart ached.

Youyou gritted his teeth in hatred!

Something like this would never happen to Mommy for no reason!

It had to be someone!

Someone must have done it!

Who harmed Mommy?!

After much thought, a person's face suddenly appeared in Youyou's mind.

Yan Bingqing?

Her face instantly appeared in his mind and the boy clenched his fists!

No matter how smart he was, he would never have thought that the culprit behind this was Yun Na. He had no idea that Yun Na was still alive and had returned to the capital.

Previously, there had been conflicts between Ji Yan and his mother. After he checked Ji Yan's background, it confirmed his guess that Ji Yan was Yan Bingqing herself!

At the thought of this, he was furious!

The young kid was certain that it was Yan Bingqing who had harmed his mother, so he gritted his teeth in hatred.

He immediately walked to the side, took out his phone, and dialed Li Hanlin's number.

In the middle of the night, Li Hanlin was woken up by the call. Upon being informed of this matter, he immediately agreed to send someone to keep control over Yan Bingqing, who was also Ji Yan!

By the time Youyou was done with the call and returned to the operating theater, Qin Zhou was already busy with Gu Xingze's matters.

At this point, the door of the operating theater swung open.

Youyou immediately rushed forward and saw a group of nurses and doctors briskly exiting the theater, pushing the trolley bed along.

Hua Jin immediately went up to them. Youyou and Little Yichen also ran up to the trolley bed. They held onto the edge of the bed worriedly as they looked at the person lying quietly on it.

Yun Shishi was lying on the operating table with her back straight. Her face was pale as sheet and her eyes were covered with white gauze. However, the bloodstains on the gauze was visible. Hua Jin was even more worried when he saw this!

Youyou and Little Yichen were especially heartbroken.

Local anesthesia was used during the surgery, and its effects wore off very quickly. The moment they were out of the operating room, Yun Shishi immediately reacted. She clutched the bedsheets tightly and tried to open her eyes.

However, the viscous marks at the corner of her eyes seemed to be keeping her eyelids stuck shut. It was painful when she tried to open her eyes.

She gritted her teeth in pain and subconsciously reached out as though she wanted to grab onto something.

Youyou wanted to reach for her hand, but before he could do it, Hua Jin had taken it and was now holding her hand tightly, saying, “Shishi, it’s alright now... I’m here, it’s alright now...”

“Xingze...”

Yun Shishi subconsciously blurted out the name that took him completely by surprise.

Hua Jin was stunned.

Yun Shishi, on the other hand, asked with a sense of urgency as she sobbed, “Xingze... How is Xingze?”

Her voice was weak and feeble, but even so, she stubbornly wanted to know if he was safe and sound.

Hua Jin bit his lower lip. He did not know what had happened back there, but now was not the time to find out!

She had only just come out of the operating theater, so she needed a good rest!

“Shishi, don’t think too much for the time being. We’re about to enter the ward. Sleep well and don’t think about anything right now! We’ll talk about it when you wake up!”

“No, I can’t wait. I have no time...”
