

Sweet Love 2921

Chapter 2921: Hateful and Pathetic

It was actually very easy to suppress a hot topic.

The reason why some news were so popular was because of the media's constant pursuit and attention. Just like Gu Xingze's memorial service, the coverage on the internet was overwhelming, so it naturally became more popular.

When all the media outlets stopped paying attention to this matter, the popularity quickly subsided!

Other than Gu Xingze's hardcore fans, the public's interest in this matter was limited. If the media did not report it, they would naturally forget about it.

Qin Zhou felt that the best form of respect for Xingze was to give him some peace and quiet.

After spending a lot of money to bribe the various media outlets, all the first-tier media outlets finally stopped paying attention to this matter, as though they had collectively lost their memory of the matter.

Soon, the entertainment circle returned to peace.

The media no longer covered this matter. Even though there were still many fans who were extremely persistent, it remained difficult to stir up any waves.

The popularity of Gu Xingze on the internet continued to wane.

On television, all the programs and advertisements related to him were taken down immediately.

"Extreme Youth" was also ordered to stop all its promotions during this period.

Qin Zhou hoped that the public would forget about Gu Xingze's passing as soon as possible and minimize the damage to others.

Especially Yun Shishi.

Almost everyone thought that Gu Xingze's death had something to do with her.

Even Yun Shishi herself was convinced that she was the culprit behind Gu Xingze's death.

However, Qin Zhou did not think so.

Just like what Gu Xingze had said to Yun Shishi in the video, "I'm willing to love you with my life."

Although this love was indeed a little heavy to bear.

Perhaps he did not think too much at that time. It was just his reflex to protect her.

His most selfish thought was probably that he hoped she'd preserve memories of him in her heart, even if it were only a second of it.

He probably did not expect that what would eventuate, was this sort of final remembrance.

This was not his intention.

“Lethal Beauty” was nearing its final episode.

Qin Yuyan’s ending left the audience sighing.

The character Qin Yuyan had been perfectly interpreted by Yun Shishi. Even Gu Xiaoyang had not expected that a new actress could be so thorough in her understanding of a character, and bring it to life with such fine acting skills!

In the entire series, she was probably the most tragic and authentic character.

The female protagonist, Qin Changle, played by Lin Zhi, made a clear distinction between love and hate. Even though she had the characteristics of a female lead in a period drama, Qin Yuyan’s character portrayed the selfishness of human nature to the extreme.

She became a demon and a fool, for the sake of love.

She went from an innocent and harmless girl to someone who would risk her life and scheme against everything for love, ending up in a pathetic state.

On the verge of death, she lamented to the male lead played by Hua Jin, “Do you know that for you, I risked everything, so that the world is yours for the taking?! But in the end, I realized that my greatest mistake was to have fallen in love with you. You hate my viciousness, but in the same way, I hate your heartlessness. What can I do? There’s nothing I won’t do for your attention, even if it’s just a glance from you...”

She cried herself hoarse, and the audience too, broke down in tears.

A pathetic yet hateful character.

But that was what made it all the more authentic.

The selfishness of love and hate was portrayed to perfection by Yun Shishi.

In the end, many of her haters among the audience turned into fans. They really liked the role of Qin Yuyan!

Chapter 2922: Giving A Name (1)

The main point was that Yun Shishi’s portrayal was too beautiful and completely eclipsed the elegance of Qin Changle’s character.

Her acting skills were also better.

Qin Yuyan’s scenes definitely played a big part in sending the viewership ratings of “Lethal Beauty” soaring.

Indeed, many among the audience became fans of Yun Shishi because of her superb acting skills.

“Yun Shishi’s acting is amazing! I’ve never paid much attention to her in the past!”

“The first movie I watched with her in it was “The Green Apple”. While many media outlets praised her acting skills, I didn’t think much of it. But now, I’ve finally seen what it means to have acting skills that will turn haters into fans!”

Yun Shishi’s acting skills received the enthusiastic approval of the audience!

The image she created was too vivid and memorable.

Many new fans who had fallen in love with her because of “Lethal Beauty” went on to search for pictures of her in the variety shows. They discovered her humble appearance, her gentle and unconstrained character, and her occasionally amusing side. All of these only made the fans fall deeper in love with this actress with superb acting skills.

As Hua Jin had flown to Paris for a fashion photo shoot, the minute he returned, he rushed to the hospital to visit her.

He postponed some of his less important jobs, and when he had time, he stayed in the hospital to watch over her.

Soon, the doctor came up with a few plans.

He presented two proposals to Mu Yazhe and Yun Shishi.

“One is to undergo a cornea transplant first. A cornea donor has been identified recently, she is a twenty-two-year-old girl from Guang City. However, because we will be taking a huge risk to perform the surgery during the pregnancy, we will be more strict with controlling the medication. But even then, we cannot completely rule out the adverse effects on the fetus! Ultimately, it’s risky!”

Mu Yazhe and Yun Shishi turned towards each other, as though exchanging a look.

Having observed their expressions, the doctor knew that they could not accept this proposal. Hence, he continued, “The second plan is to pass on this donor and wait until after childbirth to recover enough energy before looking for a suitable donor. However, this cycle can be very long. As your vision continues to decline, it might cause a lot of inconvenience in your daily life!”

After all, for a normally healthy person to suddenly lose his vision, his daily life would definitely be restricted and it would be difficult for him to lead a normal life.

And cornea donors could only be chanced upon by luck!

Encountering one would be a very lucky opportunity!

Giving the opportunity a miss could mean a few more years of waiting!

And in those few years, too many changes could happen!

Mu Yazhe furrowed his brows and asked worriedly, “We were planning to hold a wedding. Will this situation affect the wedding?”

The doctor offered his sincere advice, "My suggestion is not to rush the wedding."

Hearing this, Yun Shishi suddenly looked a little forlorn.

Was the wedding that she had been looking forward to going to be delayed indefinitely because of this?

She pouted aggrievedly.

After returning from the doctor's office, she leaned against the bed with a gloomy expression.

Her sense of anticipation for the wedding was shattered by the cruel reality.

Gong Jie looked at Mu Yazhe questioningly when he saw her sulking upon her return.

"What's wrong?"

"The wedding may have to be postponed," Mu Yazhe replied as he walked to the bed and sat down next to it. He looked at Yun Shishi and asked, "Are you upset?"

She shook her head. "No."

However, even though she said no, the desolate expression in her eyes was almost palpable!

Chapter 2923: Giving A Name (2)

"You deny it, but it's obvious that you're upset."

Mu Yazhe suddenly reached out and pulled her into his embrace. He rested his chin lightly on her forehead and said gently, "Don't worry. I'll definitely give you the wedding I owe you."

She looked a little startled.

During this period that she was hospitalized following her pregnancy, signs and symptoms of her pregnancy steadily developed. The anxiety and emotional changes experienced by most pregnant women were even more apparent on her.

To a normal person, blindness was terrifying.

Things that could be done effortlessly in the past had become extremely difficult.

Normally, when she drank water, picking up and raising her teacup was almost reflexive.

But now, even lying in bed and leisurely watching television had become an overly indulgent thought!

Knocking things over had become a norm.

Once, she accidentally broke the vase that Youyou gave her.

She had complained once, that the ward smelled of disinfectant and she kicked up such a big fuss that it gave everyone a headache.

Hence, Youyou specially went to the florist and selected a vase. And then, he placed a few stalks of flowers in it and used it as a decoration on the windowsill.

Realizing that the vase had been knocked over, Yun Shishi hurriedly went to the corner to try to retrieve it. In the process her hand was cut by the shards of glass and covered in blood.

She had knocked over that special vase that Youyou had given her!

Worried that Youyou would be upset...

When Gong Jie walked in, he saw Yun Shishi sitting by the bed, her hospital gown bloodied and looking rather disheveled.

He quickly dashed over and grabbed her hand. "Why is there so much blood?"

"Xiao Jie, I... I just wanted to go to the washroom," she said in frustration. "I accidentally broke the vase as I was groping along the wall. What should I do? I can't even do the most basic thing."

Gong Jie laughed and said, "Didn't I send a caregiver?"

"She went to dinner."

"Didn't you ring the bell for help?"

"I wanted to try and see if I can do it myself. After all, I'm not used to... people coming into the bathroom with me..."

She couldn't even take care of herself.

She was lying in bed every day, and even had to seek help to solve her most basic biological needs.

Being almost blind and unable to see much, everything looked to her like they were shrouded in a thick fog.

She felt uneasy about the future.

The thought of not being able to see her child on the day she would give birth made her heart ache with regrets.

As a result, she became extremely anxious and tense, she would even lose her temper for no apparent reason.

Fortunately, Mu Yazhe and Gong Jie were unconditionally tolerant of her anxious temper.

Even if she was angry, anxious, or in tears over a trivial matter, Mu Yazhe would still patiently soothe her emotions until she calmed down.

Gong Jie said, "Losing your sight is only temporary! Right now, it's mainly for the baby you're carrying! The doctor said that it's very risky to undergo surgery now. We're not willing to take the risk!"

"I understand..."

"There will be chances in the future."

“What if... there’s no such chance?”

Gong Jie immediately said, “Impossible! There’s no such if. Sis, don’t let your imagination run wild. You just have too much time and too little to do every day, and you easily let your imagination run wild! Actually, it’s not as bad as you think!”

“...I understand.”

Yun Shishi immediately said, “Don’t worry. I won’t let my thoughts run wild and make you guys worry.”

When Mu Yazhe found out about this, he felt that it was inappropriate to keep her in the hospital to recuperate.

Chapter 2924: Giving A Name (3)

There were too many people in the hospital, and the ward was always dark, so it was hard to get any real peace. Hence, he discussed with the doctor and brought her back to Yun Shan Shi Yi to recuperate.

Yun Shan Shi Yi was a piece of land with excellent Fengshui that was perfect for cultivation.

It was originally built as a resort.

After Yun Shishi was taken to Yun Shan Shi Yi, Gong Jie finally felt relieved and decided to return to Hurricane.

He had a pile of work on hand that was waiting for him to settle.

He was worried that his father would become suspicious if he stayed any longer.

Gong Jie did not make a big event of the farewell. He took his private jet and flew straight back to the Hurricane headquarters.

Yun Shishi began to recuperate.

Of course, although her days were overly leisurely, she also found herself some things to do.

For example...

“What should I name the little guy?”

At night, after the twins had fallen asleep...

Mu Yazhe was reading his email when Yun Shishi, who was lying down on the sofa, muttered to herself,

“I have a headache when it comes to naming.” She had been thinking a long time for a name for the child and now seemed troubled. She had not been able to come up with anything satisfactory.

Mu Yazhe put down his notebook and walked to her side. He pulled her into his embrace and kissed her forehead lovingly.

“We don’t even know if it’s going to be a boy or a girl. Isn’t it too hasty to think of a name now?”

“Because I’ve got nothing else to do!”

She mumbled, "I'm at home every day with nothing much to do, so I started thinking of a name for the child."

"Do you know the little guy's gender, before rushing ahead to think of a name? What if you come up with a boy's name and end up having a girl..."

"Then think of names for both a boy and a girl!"

Mu Yazhe laughed and let her be. He asked further, "Do you want a girl or a boy?"

Yun Shishi laughed and said, "It's not like I can have a child of whichever gender I choose! This is something that can't be decided!"

"But do you like girls or boys?"

"I like them all!"

She then asked him, "What about you?"

"I hope to have a little princess." It was widely known that Mu Yazhe wanted a daughter. Men just have a very soft spot for daughters.

It's often said that a daughter is a father's lover in his previous life.

This saying is well-founded.

Mu Yazhe was looking forward to having a little princess, and if that really happened, he'd be overwhelmed with joy.

"Oh, right. I've always been curious about the meaning behind Little Yichen's name!"

She was curious.

Surely it couldn't have been randomly picked?

The name she had given Youyou had a meaning behind.

As he had almost died during birth, it was the heaven's blessing that he managed to pull through. Hence she had named him Yun Tianyou, which meant heaven's blessing.

Mu Yazhe explained, "The word 'Yi' means 'light'. 'Chen', the fifth in the Earth Branch, is a dragon. Put together, the name holds the meaning of a handsome and rational person with a life of elegance, success and honor."

Yun Shishi was stunned for a moment before she smiled and teased, "You are really a finance person aren't you? You sure know a lot about this subject!"

"I did my homework too, when naming the child."

"You came up with the name?"

She seemed surprised.

"Yes. Grandfather wanted to do it personally, but I'm wasn't satisfied with what he came up with."

“Then... what should I name this little guy in my belly?”

Yun Shishi racked her brains but could not make up her mind.

Chapter 2925: Giving A Name (4)

“I’ve thought of so many names, but I just can’t decide on one.”

The art of naming is very profound.

Yun Shishi was extremely picky in this aspect.

A name was more than a simple representation. She believed in the knowledge behind this skill. First of all, the name had to sound smooth and pleasant. One had to pay attention to the tone. A name that didn’t fall comfortably on the ear, even if meaningful, was not favourable.

Attention also had to be paid to homophones.

For example, names like “Du Ziteng” and “Yuling” had good meanings, but the homophones which could be heard as “stomachache” and “drenched by rain” respectively, would make these names a bad joke!

The names should not carry too many strokes, or it would be troublesome to write.

The zodiac and the eight characters also had to be considered. People of the older generation would pay much attention to the five elements, and yin and yang.

“What names have you thought of?” Mu Yazhe couldn’t help being curious.

“For a boy, I thought of a few names—”

Yun Shishi paused for a moment and continued, “Mu Tianyi – it has the meaning of soaring towards the skies and achieving great things. Mu Junhao – meaning a gentleman’s boldness.”

“Not good,” he voiced his opinion.

Yun Shishi listed many more.

In fact, the names she had thought of were not only meaningful, they sounded pleasant.

Alas, Mu Yazhe did not like what he heard.

“Have you thought of names for a girl?”

She replied matter-of-factly, “Of course!”

“Oh, really? Such as...?”

“Mu Jinghan, Mu Yiyi, Mu Yueyao...”

“Mu Yueyao?”

He cut her off abruptly.

She raised her brows in surprise and pouted. “What’s wrong?”

He smiled. “Very nice.”

“...Hey, aren’t you being a little too biased?” Yun Shishi said in disdain. “Obviously you prefer girls, that’s why girls’ names sound so pleasing to your ears! This kind of evaluation is not fair at all!”

“Who says so?”

He said in all seriousness, “Yueyao is a really nice name. We’ll select this name.”

Yun Shishi was indignant and said, “What if it’s not a girl?”

“I’m the one who decides if it’s a girl or not, not you. So you don’t have to worry yourself over that.” He tapped her nose confidently. “I think the little guy is definitely a girl.”

“What?! You make it seem as if you and your daughter have telepathy!” Yun Shishi was a little jealous. “If it’s really a girl, there’d be nothing left of my status in this family! You’ll only have your daughter at heart. And wouldn’t my life be tough if father and daughter are united as one?”

“Don’t you already have Youyou and Little Yichen?”

“...”

She was speechless.

“Aren’t the three of you united as one? I’d be united as one with my daughter. What’s wrong with that? Is that not allowed?” He made it seem very reasonable.

“Fine, fine! You’re right! You’re the most logical and reasonable!” Yun Shishi said in a huff.

Terribly amused, he suddenly hugged her tightly and said solemnly, “Don’t worry. In my heart, you will always be the most important! No one can compare to you!”

“That may be the case now, but it might not be the case after our daughter is born!” Her words were harsh but inside, she was feeling all the sweetness. “When our daughter arrives, there won’t be a place for me in this household!”

Mu Yazhe consoled her, “I’m serious! A few thousand daughters can’t compare to you.”

“A few thousand? You have to be able to afford it in the first place.”

Chapter 2926: Yueyao, Daddy Loves You

“Why wouldn’t I be able to afford it? Are you doubting my ability?”

Mu Yazhe suddenly grabbed her hand. With a broad smile, he leaned towards her and said suggestively, “There’s no one I can’t afford to raise, but let’s see if you’re capable of giving birth to them all!”

“I’m not a sow! I can’t give birth to thousands of them! Even an old sow can’t give birth to that many!”

Yun Shishi snorted. “The three of us are already more than you can handle!”

With that, she patted his hand and said sullenly, “Stop fooling around, huh? Let’s think of names together! I’ve thought of so many names, but you haven’t told me what you think of them!”

“Haven’t I already given my opinion?”

With that, Mu Yazhe bent his head and placed it close to her belly. Touching it, he smiled and said, “Yueyao, did you hear that? This is the name Mommy has given you!”

“Hey…”

She was both amused and exasperated. “Are you done fooling around? How do you know it’s a daughter?”

Mu Yazhe remarked solemnly, “Believe it or not, she’ll definitely be a little princess when she’s born.”

“I don’t believe it!”

“Then let’s make a bet!”

Mu Yazhe laughed confidently. “This is probably the telepathy between father and daughter!”

As he said this, he looked at her belly with incomparable love and affection, as if he could see the little guy inside through the layer of flesh. “Yueyao, isn’t this name very nice? Daddy likes it very much too.”

“…”

“Yueyao, behave yourself in Mommy’s belly. Daddy loves you.”

Although Yun Shishi could not see his face, she could imagine the tenderness on his face as he gazed at her belly, with a little squint in his eyes and the gentle curve of his handsome brow.

She recalled that he looked particularly good when he smiled.

His thin lips would turn upwards in a slight arc, and shallow dimples would appear.

The man rarely smiled, and would almost exclusively only do so when he was alone with her.

However, his smile could melt even the coldest snow in the world!

Yun Shishi suddenly let out a satisfied laugh. At this moment, she was overwhelmed by happiness and bliss!

Mu Yazhe did not notice the reaction on her face at all. Instead, he was focusing his attention on her belly. One moment, he was leaning forward and pressing his ear up against her belly, listening intently.

The next moment, he was talking to it as if communicating with the little one!

Amused, Yun Shishi held back her laughter and did not interrupt him.

He suddenly looked up and asked doubtfully, “Did she hear what I said?”

“Are you stupid?”

Yun Shishi could not help chiding the man. “It’s useless to listen to it now! There’s no fetal movement at this time!”

“Oh, is that so?”

He frowned, clearly disappointed. “I thought she could hear me.”

“Of course not! Even a newborn can’t understand human speech, let alone a fetus that hasn’t developed!”

Mu Yazhe caressed her belly lovingly, his lips curving into a satisfied smile. His gaze never left her it, as if there was a rare treasure hidden inside!

Wasn’t it a rare treasure?

He had even named her. He said gently, “Yueyao, you must behave and not be naughty! Develop and grow well. Daddy’s waiting for you!”

“Pfft.”

Chapter 2927: A Daughter Who’s Good Looking Like Me

“Pfft.”

Yun Shishi covered her mouth and chuckled. “I’ve told you, she can’t hear you now. What are you muttering to yourself for?”

“What if she can?” He raised his eyebrows in disagreement, and emphasized again, “There’s telepathy between father and daughter!”

“Alright, telepathy.”

She agreed mockingly.

As he gently caressed her belly, he fantasized, “How would our daughter look, if she were to resemble you?”

Forgiving his limited imagination, the faces he imagined were either shrunken versions of Yun Shishi’s or female versions of Youyou’s and Little Yichen’s faces. There was a strange sense of violation about it.

When Yun Shishi heard about this, she said, “I heard that daughters will look more like fathers.”

“Oh? Is that so?”

“Of course! Haven’t you heard so?”

Yun Shishi said with a straight face, “It’s been said that sons take after their mothers, while daughters take after their fathers! See how much Youyou resembles me? It’s also said that sons are closer to their mothers, but daughters are closer to their fathers!”

Mu Yazhe scrutinized her face and nodded. "Youyou and Yichen do resemble you indeed! They have delicate features, especially their eyebrows."

After a pause, he said confidently, "Then my daughter will definitely be a beautiful lady when she grows up."

She broke into laughter. "Narcissist! Why are you so narcissistic?"

"It's a fact," he said solemnly.

"That our daughter will resemble you? I can't imagine."

Yun Shishi's mind drew a blank. She could not come up with an image.

Mu Yazhe's started to fantasize.

He was running out of imagination. In his mind, the face of a little baby girl was wearing his facial features. No matter how he looked at it, it seemed grotesque!

He was suddenly taken aback by one of the faces he imagined.

"She'll probably be very pretty." He felt a little guilty, wondering how his daughter would really look if she were to inherit his features.

Yun Shishi thought for a while before she said unhurriedly, "If the child is a daughter, she'd definitely be very pretty if she had your eyes and your nose."

"Mmm..."

"Actually..." Yun Shishi pondered for a moment before suddenly breaking into a smile that was filled with a mother's gentleness. "I too, hope that it's going to be a girl!"

"Mm? You want a daughter too?"

"Of course!" Yun Shishi said matter-of-factly. "Everyone says that daughters are sweet and caring!"

"Youyou and Little Yichen will feel most aggrieved if they were to hear this!" Mu Yazhe's heart went out to the two little boys for a moment.

"If it's really a daughter, I'll definitely prepare a huge cloakroom for her! I'll buy her many beautiful princess dresses from the time she's a kid... Pink, white, and black... I'll dress her up like a little princess!"

The man disagreed. "What do you mean by dressing her up like one? My daughter will be born a princess!"

"..." The corners of Yun Shishi's lips twitched. "Yes, yes, she'll be born a princess, Your Majesty!"

"It's the tenth week now."

Ignoring her amusement, Mu Yazhe drew her into his embrace. He gently kissed her forehead and said with great anticipation, "In other words, in two weeks, it will be three months. In another six months, she will arrive into this world! I must prepare to welcome her."

“How are you going to prepare?”

Yun Shishi asked curiously.

He said with a serious expression, “It’s time to prepare the nursery!”

“Nursery?”

Chapter 2928: Decorating The Princess Room

“Nursery?”

Yun Shishi slapped her forehead. “Oh no, I forgot all about it! I haven’t even started to prepare the nursery! This little fellow came so suddenly that I wasn’t mentally prepared at all!”

She felt a little regretful.

Right now, she could not see anything clearly, so it was difficult for her to come up with any proposals, nor could she personally design the princess room.

Mu Yazhe said, “It’s fine. I’ll prepare it.”

Mu Yazhe was naturally happy to do so.

Even though preparing the nursery was an extremely tedious task, it was an extremely blissful project for him.

Of course, he was not just saying that!

The next day, he led her to the counter together with the twins.

Yun Shishi was wearing her sunglasses, and it was a little inconvenient for her to walk. Youyou and Little Yichen suggested hiring a nanny to support her.

Mu Yazhe, on the other hand, was worried about having a helper. If the helper was careless and if Yun Shishi met with any accident, it would break his heart.

After getting out of the nanny van, Mu Yazhe turned to give her a hand. Yun Shishi held his hand and carefully took a step forward. She appeared to be shrinking back. As she could not see anything, every step she took was extremely cautious.

“Just hold my hand.”

He grasped her hand firmly. “Follow me. Don’t be afraid.”

She held his hand tightly.

Given that she could not see clearly and her entire world was dark, she would subconsciously be worried even if there was someone leading her. If she were to take a step forward, what was the path that lay ahead? It was as if she was walking on the edge of a cliff, on tenterhooks.

It was difficult for others to understand this sense of unease.

However, even if a normal person had their eyes closed and was being led by someone, they would be worried.

It was impossible for the person providing support to notice every minute detail.

But he said, "Follow me, don't be afraid."

He would not let her fall, trip or walk into anything.

Yun Shishi trusted him wholeheartedly, so she held his hand and followed him.

He led her to the mother-and-baby counter, BabyQ, the world's leading mother-and-baby boutique.

Yun Shan Shi Yi was their nuptial home, but the nursery had only minimal renovation. It was empty, and even the walls were not properly covered.

He started with the wall covering.

Youyou and Little Yichen also seriously browsed through them. The shop assistant had brought over a thick stack of catalogs, containing samples of wall coverings. Mu Yazhe flipped through them page by page. They were all European-style, and nothing caught his eye.

"Girls should like pink, right?"

From the side, Yun Shishi remarked, "When I was young, I especially liked pink. If the little one turns out to be a daughter, she will probably take after me in this respect."

Every girl dreams of being a princess.

They imagine themselves as the princess in a fairy tale, waking up in a fairytale room every morning. The moment they open their eyes, they'd see a dusky pink world, and lie on the huge bed with pink bed curtains, enjoying the dreamy world to their heart's content.

He snapped his fingers. "Yes, pink. All girls like pink."

He did not react at first.

The shop assistant could read between the lines, so she immediately brought over a huge stack of catalogs with pink wall covering samples inside. Mu Yazhe flipped through them with a serious expression.

He was very fussy and spent a great deal of effort just choosing the covering.

He selected a few designs and discussed with the twins before making a final selection of the design.

Chapter 2929: What If It's Not A Little Sister?

After choosing the wall covering, the family went on to pick out a baby cot, toy boxes, closets, ornaments...

“Can I trust your judgment?” Yun Shishi was skeptical and had no idea what his princess room would eventually turn out looking like

Would it be... very ugly?

Well...

When it comes to a man’s taste, it’s really hard to predict!

If it ended up being a mashup style, she’d be reduced to tears!

Mu Yazhe, however, was very confident in his own taste. The result of his setup was also approved by Youyou!

Of course, Little Yichen’s opinion was swept aside.

He did not seem to know much about aesthetics. When asked for his opinion, he said innocently, “As long as my little sister likes it!”

Youyou could not help feeling exasperated, “How would you know if Little Sister likes it, when she’s not even born yet?!”

When Yun Shishi heard this, she felt even more exasperated. “We don’t even know for sure whether it’s a boy or a girl. What makes you so sure it’s a little sister?!”

“Oh, right!”

Youyou suddenly punched the air with his fist. “What if it’s another brother?”

Mu Yazhe and Little Yichen were stunned for a few seconds.

Youyou said weakly, “I hope that it’s a little sister too, but what if it isn’t? Who knows... the heavens may not be willing.”

Mu Yazhe and Little Yichen’s expressions darkened a little. They appeared to ponder this possibility and their expression turned melancholic.

“If this turns out to be the case, having the baby boy live in a pink nursery seems a little... uncomfortable,” she could not help adding.

“Impossible!”

“Your genes are so strong that even if two of them are boys, the third one is likely to be a boy,” she continued.

Mu Yazhe snorted. “No way! It has to be a daughter. Anyway, we’ll just go ahead and decorate the princess room accordingly.”

“...”

Youyou suddenly pulled Little Yichen aside and whispered, “Mu Yichen, Daddy is so biased. If Mommy indeed gives birth to a little princess, won’t we lose our place in Daddy’s heart?”

"I don't know about you, but as for me..." the aggrieved Little Yichen seemed to have accumulated a bucket of bitter tears. "I've never really had a place anyway..."

"..." Youyou pouted.

"Really..." Mu Yichen was so aggrieved that he was on the verge of tears. "Daddy didn't put in this much effort to decorate my room when I was little! I've never had much of a presence in his heart."

"Daddy values girls over boys?" Youyou came to a conclusion.

"Mmm..."

Little Yichen rubbed his chin. "Still, I hope that Mommy will give birth to a little princess because I've wanted a little sister for a long time!"

Youyou agreed, "Me too."

"A little sister will be so cute! She'll be so soft and cuddly. I can even imagine her smiling at me with little crescent eyes. There will be countless little stars in them and she'll be especially beautiful!" Little Yichen was elated with anticipation.

He imagined the scene of a cute little sister smiling innocently at him, and his heart almost melted!

Thus, the two little boys reached a consensus.

That was, it didn't matter if they lost favor with Daddy, nor did it matter if they lost their status.

The most important thing was that they wanted a little sister!

Whether they fell out of favor or not, a little sister was more important.

"Is it a genetic trait to like a daughter?" Youyou pondered seriously. "If it were up to me, I'd prefer a daughter too."

"Heterosexual attraction..." Little Yichen used an idiom he had just learned.

Chapter 2930: Sons And Daughters (1)

Youyou snorted in amusement.

Under the joint efforts of the father and sons, the princess room was quickly set up.

The walnut timber floor was redecorated, the pink wall coverings, the white wooden crib, the dreamy curtains, and the beautiful crystal chandelier made the room look like the luxurious interior of a castle!

After the princess room was set up, Mu Yazhe took Yun Shishi's hand and showed her around.

Although she could not see anything, Mu Yazhe excitedly described the set up to her one thing at a time.

Yun Shishi touched the wall covering with her hand. It felt really good and she could not help asking, "What color is the wall covering?"

"It's pink, but it's not just a wall covering. One of the pieces is joined to a section of wallpaper that carries a picture of a pink unicorn."

The pink unicorn was Lezhi Holdings' mascot.

After Youyou took over, he designed a new generation mascot which was later incorporated into their brand label and printed on every toy package.

Later on, the rainbow colored unicorn had its own name and became the symbol of Lezhi Holdings.

The children loved the uniquely designed and cute little unicorn, which later was used as an image in countless peripheral products.

When Youyou saw such an image on the wallpaper, he felt that it was very meaningful, hence he discussed with Mu Yazhe and integrated the wall paper into the covering.

Yun Shishi found it a little difficult to imagine the nursery based on description. However, she trusted their taste, seeing how excited the father and sons were!

She had initially thought that Mu Yazhe would take a break after decorating the princess room.

However, little did she know that she had yet to truly experience the man's crazy side!

One night upon returning home, Mu Yazhe went up to the bedroom, to Yun Shishi who was resting.

He said mysteriously, "Shishi, guess what I brought home today?"

"What?"

She was made curious by his mysterious tone and what exactly he could have brought home.

He smiled and said casually, "I bought many dresses for our daughter."

She was stunned and confused.

"Huh?"

Dresses!?

He immediately sounded an order at the top of his voice.

From outside the door, a servant walked in with a stack of dresses and placed them in front of her.

Yun Shishi could not see a thing. She only could sense that there must have been a mountain-high pile of clothes in front of her.

Ever since the naming episode, a certain man seemed to be particularly enthusiastic about the child in her womb.

However, buying dozens of dresses at once did seem overly extravagant!

"The child isn't even born yet. Isn't it a little too early to buy clothes now?" she asked hesitantly.

"How is it early?" Mu Yazhe said disapprovingly, "We'll buy and prepare early."

"But... children grow very quickly. You've bought so many pieces, the child may outgrow them before she even has the opportunity to wear all of them."

“Of course not! You think I didn’t consider that?”

He lightly tapped her nose and explained, “The dresses I bought are all of different sizes. From the clothes she’ll wear as an infant till she’s five or six years old, I’ve picked a few styles of each.”

“Five or six years old?”

Yun Shishi was flabbergasted. “It’ll still be five or six years before she can wear them! By then, these styles will be outdated!”

“That won’t happen!”

“Why not?”
