

Sweet Love 2991

Chapter 2991: Grateful For His Care

“Who?”

“Red Lotus!”

Butler Fu was stunned and immediately made his way to the room. Just as he pushed open the door, he saw Chu He sitting quietly on the bed. A servant was trying to persuade her, but she took no notice of her and held onto the bedside table with a firm gaze.

“What’s wrong?”

Butler Foo walked over and looked at her, then at the servant, with a puzzled expression.

“Butler Fu, she’s just woken up. The doctor told her not to move about, but she’s insisting on getting out of bed and walking around!”

When Butler Fu heard this, he was relieved it was only a small matter. “You’ve been lying down for so long, you should really move around!”

The servant fell silent.

Butler Fu walked over and smiled at her. “Miss, you’re finally awake! You’ve been lying here for two months!”

Red Lotus looked at him and opened her mouth. Before she could say anything, Butler Fu seemed to have guessed and interrupted, “Don’t worry! I know what you’re worried about! Baby Chu is fine! He went to school and probably isn’t back yet!”

“School?” She looked even more confused.

“Baby Chu has already been included in the household register. Like other kids his age, he’s started kindergarten.”

The elderly man added, “When this little lad heard that he could go to school, he was so happy that he danced around! After all, children at this age are most playful! How lonely would it be if he had no friends?”

When Chu He heard this, her cold expression softened a little. Her gaze was filled with gratitude as she softly said, “Thank you.”

She could tell that Butler Fu took very good care of Baby Chu.

Most importantly, perhaps because of his age, there was a sense of benevolence around Butler Fu. It was hard to imagine that he and that cold and cruel man were master and servant.

As long as it was someone who was truly good to Baby Chu, she was grateful for it.

Chu He said, “I’d like to get out of bed and walk around.”

Because she had been lying down for so long, the lack of movement had caused the function of her limbs to decline.

She knew very well that she needed immediate rehabilitation.

When Butler Fu heard this, he immediately said, "Don't be in a hurry to get off the bed and walk around! You just woke up and your body hasn't adapted yet! Besides, you haven't eaten for two months. Why don't you eat something first? Otherwise, if you insist on getting off the bed, I'm afraid you'll have low blood sugar."

Chu He smiled gratefully. "Alright then!"

Butler Fu returned a satisfied smile before he turned around and instructed, "Get the kitchen to prepare some porridge and side dishes!"

"Alright."

About ten minutes later, the servants brought porridge and some delicious side dishes. They were afraid that her stomach would not be used to the sudden intake, so they did not give her rice for the time being. Instead, they had prepared coarse grain porridge.

Chu He was touched by Butler Fu's thoughtfulness. One could tell from minute details whether a person was truly concerned.

Chu He picked up her chopsticks with trembling hands and started to eat slowly.

Butler Fu looked at her and felt sorry for her.

This woman used to be enemies with the Gu family.

But for some odd reason, he was caring towards her. Could the reason be that she was Baby Chu's mother?

Or was it because he felt too sorry over the fact that a woman should have to go through so much physical hardship in order to survive?

Especially when he saw her struggling to hold the chopsticks and then trying to slowly swallow the food. He obviously felt a stinging pain in his heart.

"Is it too hot?"

Chu He slowly shook her head.

Butler Fu smiled and sat by the bed, giving her an update about Baby Chu.

Chu He listened attentively.

Chapter 2992: Slap In The Face

As long as it was something related to Baby Chu, even if it were only an interesting anecdote that happened while he was eating or sleeping, she did not want to miss it.

After she was done eating, she put down her chopsticks. Chu He looked at Butler Fu and asked with a slight frown, "Butler Fu, will I be able to leave with Baby Chu once I've recovered?"

Butler Fu was quiet for a long time before asking her, "Isn't it good to let Baby Chu stay in the Gu family?"

Chu He clenched her fists and bit down on her lip. She took in a deep breath of cold air.

"Not if it's with that man, I don't want to."

Butler Fu was puzzled. "Why?"

"Because he is Gu Jinglian."

If she were to leave Baby Chu in the Gu family with a devil like him, her fear was that the boy would turn out to be cold and cruel too.

Upon hearing this, Butler Fu said tactfully, "Chu He, you seem to have some misunderstanding about our Old Master!"

"Misunderstanding? What misunderstanding?"

"Old Master is actually not that scary!"

Butler Fu smiled and said, "Old Master is actually a very gentle person."

A knock was suddenly heard on the door.

Butler Fu frowned and walked to the door. A subordinate in black stood at the door, looking ashen as he said, "Butler Fu, what should we do? Something has happened!"

"What is it?"

Butler Fu said impatiently, "Hurry up and say it!"

"Is Dr. Cheng here?"

Dr. Cheng was the Gu family's private doctor.

Butler Fu raised his eyebrows and asked curiously, "Why are you looking for Dr. Cheng?"

"Ah Yi accidentally knocked over Master's tea and his leg has been broken by Master. He wants Dr. Cheng to quickly come take a look."

Butler Fu was stunned.

This...

It was indeed Old Master's style.

But didn't this slap in the face come way too soon?

He had only just spoken up for his master!

Old Master, Old Master, you're so worrisome indeed.

How was he going to smooth things over now?

He turned his head awkwardly, only to see Chu He giving him a meaningful look in silence.

Butler Fu immediately reprimanded, "Do you need to come to me for such a small matter?! Can't you call Dr. Cheng directly?!"

"I couldn't get through to Dr. Cheng!"

"Then call his assistant!"

The subordinate nodded immediately.

Butler Fu shut the door and turned around. He smiled awkwardly as he walked to Chu He's bedside. Chu He repeated in a quiet voice, "A gentle person?"

"This... The new staff doesn't know any better! Hehe..." Uncle Fu wiped the sprinkling of perspiration off forehead and suddenly straightened his face. He said guiltily, "Old Master just doesn't have a good temper!"

"Is it just bad temper?"

Chu He continued icily, "If Baby Chu stays in the Gu family and becomes influenced by him, the boy will be as violent and cold-blooded when he grows up!"

"This..."

Butler Fu did not know what to say.

"Baby Chu is a very kind-hearted child."

Chu He continued, "If one were to grow up in the Gu family hearing and seeing these things, one would definitely become a heartless person!"

Cold sweat trickled down Butler Fu's back.

"So, Miss, your intention is...?"

"I want to take Baby Chu away from here."

"Old Master won't agree to it!"

Chu He retorted, "I have no need to seek his opinion."

"Old Master is also Baby Chu's biological father, isn't he?"

Chu He was stunned.

Butler Fu continued, "No matter what, I have to make it clear to you! Old Master is really fond of Baby Chu. Given Old Master's personality, I initially thought that he might not have a child even at the ripe old age of 40. However, Baby Chu is very cute. Perhaps he has awakened Old Master's paternal instinct."

Chapter 2993: Welcome Home, Yong Master

Chu He was secretly surprised.

“He... likes Baby Chu?”

She found it hard to believe.

She had always thought that this man was an extremely cold-blooded man. He did not know what kinship was, what love was, and what a father and son relationship was!

He would not show any mercy even towards his own uncle or brother.

He was curious about Baby Chu at best, but he would never develop feelings for the boy!

But, so what even if he had feelings for the child?

Did he know anything about responsibility?

Did he know how to become an outstanding father?

Perhaps, in his heart, there was only heroism – or so-called.

She did not want Baby Chu to become a cruel and heartless person like Gu Jinglian.

Seeing that she was in a daze, Butler Fu added, “Old Master also said that you may leave, but you can’t take Baby Chu away! However, you may stay too, just that you may not take Baby Chu away. Otherwise, Old Master will definitely not show any mercy.”

“He said that?”

Chu He was stunned.

“Yes!”

Butler Fu continued, “You have time to think it over seriously. However, please don’t make things difficult for me!”

As he said this, he turned around to leave.

As Butler Fu approached the door, Chu He suddenly said, “Can I see Baby Chu?”

The man turned around and glanced at her.

“Of course you may. But not now.”

Chu He frowned. “Why?”

“If Baby Chu were to see you in this state, his heart will definitely ache. You have to recover well. At least, don’t let Baby Chu worry about you.”

Chu He nodded in response.

Chu He held onto the bedside table and was about to get off the bed when a servant noticed this and went forward to help her.

She pushed her hand away and slowly raised her head, saying expressionlessly, "I can do it myself!"

"But—"

The servant was rather worried about her. "You've been lying down for so long that your legs would be very weak. If I don't support you a little, you might fall, right? What if you tore open the wound on your back, that would be bad."

Chu He replied coldly, "I don't have the habit of having people help me."

Only then did the servant step aside.

She held onto the bedside table and slowly stood up. However, the muscles on her legs seemed unable to exert any strength. It was as if they had gone numb. Chu He felt a cramp in her legs and hurriedly held onto the wall as she slowly walked forward.

Leaning her weight against the wall, she slowly made her way towards the window.

She opened her eyes wide and soaked in the sunlight streaming through the window. Even though the light caused her tears to flow, she would not close her eyes.

She couldn't remember the last time she saw sunlight.

Having woken up from the long and deep sleep, it felt as though she was now in a different world.

Outside the window, someone shouted, "Young Master has finished school!"

Slightly stunned, Chu He quickly looked through the window.

Outside the window, in the courtyard, twenty-odd subordinates suddenly stood upright in two rows, looking very respectful.

"Welcome home, Yong Master!"

Baby Chu walked into the courtyard with his school bag on his back. He looked up and curiously studied the men who were standing in two rows to welcome him home. As if he was used to it, he nonchalantly walked past them.

Chu He's eyes finally regained focus when she saw Baby Chu. She looked at his back view as he walked towards the main hall.

The little guy was skinny like before, but he was not as dejected as she had imagined!

Butler Fu had really taken good care of him!

He didn't look as though he had suffered much, even after staying with the Gu family for so long!

Seeing that he was fine, Chu He finally felt more at ease. At least the little fellow hadn't been mistreated, which made her feel relieved!

Chapter 2994: The Mu Family's Wedding Invitation

For the next week, Chu He worked hard to recover.

Her body had suffered heavily, and just like what the doctor had said, she had overdrawn herself and suffered countless internal injuries when she worked at the Interpol.

In order to recuperate and nourish her body, Butler Fu followed the doctor's instructions and went to the pharmacy every day to collect Chinese herbs to brew medicine for her.

Although the traditional Chinese medicine was very bitter and Chu He rarely used it, she now endured it for the sake of a quick recovery.

The Gu family had their own pharmacy and their own private doctors.

The main residence alone housed four to five doctors.

Gu Jinglian was a firm believer of everything Chinese.

This was something that Chu He understood only too well.

He recorded his daily schedule with a brush on rice paper. Three of the doctors he hired were Chinese physician and only one was a Western doctor.

The Gu family's main residence retained the appearance of the 100-year-old mansion. Its renovations featured a beautiful Chinese-style courtyard, artificial mountains and flowing water, the atmosphere was filled with classical charm!

The Gu family had even hired a famous geomancy master to design the fengshui of the residence. The piece of land that the Gu family had originally occupied was known for its excellent fengshui.

A location of excellent fengshui should never be underestimated. Behind it lies deep wisdom and highly specialized knowledge .

The Gu family residence was backed against mountains – Azure Dragon to the left and White Tiger to the right. The dragon and tiger provided stability to the entire residence.

Facing a longevity hill, the house was like a place full of lively spirits seated among the hilly terrain, blessed by the qi of the flowing water, bringing wealth and riches.

The surroundings of the Gu family residence was vast and could accommodate tens of thousands of horses, signifying that their descendants could travel thousands of miles with great fortune.

The natural mountains and rivers lie beneath the foundation of the house, resisting all disasters; the location was auspicious and would bring prosperity.

This location of excellent fengshui was the envy of many people!

In all of the capital, only the seats of the Mu and Gu families were designed this way!

Chu He had thought initially that Gu Jinglian would make things difficult for her when she woke up.

But for seven consecutive days, she had not once caught a glimpse of Gu Jinglian, and Butler Fu had promised her that he would let her see Baby Chu once she had recovered. All she could do now was to just stand by the window and peep at him.

She had no complaints and understood Butler Fu's good intentions.

After all, she was in such a weak state now. It would hurt the child to see her this way.

Although Baby Chu was young, he was very intelligent and knew how to be considerate. If he saw her so sickly, he would be worried.

Initially, Chu He could only get out of bed and walk around the room. However, her will power was unbelievably strong. A normal person would definitely be in great pain during their rehabilitation period after suffering such a serious loss.

Her legs had deteriorated severely. The moment she tried to walk, her muscles would twitch and cramp, making it difficult for her to even stand steadily.

However, she insisted on walking, and when she got really tired, she would rest for a while, before she pushed on for another fifteen minutes.

On the third day, she could walk around the backyard by herself.

The doctor said it was good for the bones to get more sun and calcium.

Chu He kept that in mind and once the sun came out, she went to the courtyard.

On the sixth day, she could actually run. The astonishing speed at which she recovered made Butler Fu's eyes pop out.

However, Chu He thought to herself that she should recover as soon as possible. And when the chance would come, she would leave the Gu family with Baby Chu.

At the same time, Gu Jinglian received an invitation from the Mu family.

At night, he was reading in his study when Butler Fu knocked on the door and came in. He asked in a lowered voice, "Master, are you busy?"

"What is it?" Gu Jinglian replied without looking up.

Chapter 2995: Wishing To Attend A Wedding Banquet

Butler Fu replied, "It's from the Mu family. Do you want to take a look?"

Gu Jinglian finally looked up and his expression changed somewhat.

"A wedding invitation?"

Butler Fu explained, "Yes! It's the wedding banquet of Mu Yanchen and Song Zhengguo's daughter."

Gu Jinglian put down his book and snorted. "Why did they send me a wedding invitation?"

After pondering for a moment, Butler Fu suddenly said, "Ever since Mu Yazhe left the Mu family, the Mu family has suffered great losses! Although Mu Yanchen has become the head of the family, compared to when Mu Yazhe was still in power, he hasn't done anything to revitalize the Mu family in any way! He's only a figurehead. Everyone knows who's the real head of the family now."

Gu Jinglian raised an eyebrow nonchalantly. "Oh?"

Butler Fu continued, "Mu Linfeng is still the one holding up the Mu Group! Shengyu Group is now eyeing us covetously and advancing against us step by step. I think that the Mu family is trying to rope in the Gu family as their backing and the invitation could very well be a gesture of goodwill!"

Gu Jinglian said coldly, "I have no wish to see it!"

He had no interest to play along with the old fellow Mu Linfeng, even if the man came sucking up.

The Mu family and the Gu family were not sworn enemies, but neither were they on good terms.

There was no need for him to join in the fun.

Butler Fu nodded and was about to shut the door when Baby Chu's voice suddenly came from outside. "Butler Fu!"

He appeared out of nowhere and saw the red card in Butler Fu's hand. He asked curiously, "Butler Fu! What's that you're holding?!"

Butler Fu smiled and immediately said, "This is a wedding invitation!"

"Wow! Is someone getting married?"

Baby Chu was suddenly excited!

One time, back in Yancheng, when a colleague of Chu He's got married, she had also brought home a wedding invitation and a box of wedding candies. She said that when someone got married, they would send out wedding invitations and candies to close friends. And if they went to the wedding banquet, he would even receive red packets!

Baby Chu glanced around and asked curiously, "Butler Fu, don't you have wedding candies? Or did you hide them away?"

"Yes we do have them! I'll bring them to you later. Look at how greedy you are!"

"Butler Fu, are you going to the wedding banquet? Would it... be convenient for you to take me?"

Of course Butler Fu knew what he was plotting and deliberately teased the boy, "You wish to attend the wedding to get red packets, don't you?"

Baby Chu was bashful for a moment. His face was flushed as he nodded and emphasized, "In the past, when Mommy took me to wedding banquets, I always got red packets!"

Butler Fu could not help laughing aloud!

After all, the child was young. How could he have known that the Gu family would have had to spend a 7-figure sum to attend this wedding banquet!

And whatever the boy would have gotten back would be a 4-figure red packet at best. No matter which way one were to look at it, it was a losing deal!

When Gu Jinglian heard Baby Chu's voice, he looked up and called out, "Chengze, come in."

Baby Chu did not realize that Gu Jinglian was calling out to him. It was Butler Fu who alerted him, "Baby Chu, he's calling out to you!"

Baby Chu stuck his head in. He saw Gu Jinglian looking at him and waving at him. He then realized that "Chengze" was his own name! The man was calling out to him!

He still had not gotten used to this new name!

He walked up to Gu Jinglian and stood next to the man, his little hand on the table as he stared at him.

Gu Jinglian asked him, "You wish to go?"

"Huh?"

"The wedding banquet," the man reminded the child.

Chapter 2996: Father And Son At Banquet

Gu Jinglian raised his eyebrows. "You really wish to go so badly?"

"Not... not really..."

He fiddled with his fingers and stammered for a while. Suddenly, he revealed a timid expression and said in a voice as soft as a mosquito. "Yes..."

From where Gu Jinglian' was, he could only see the kid's drooping eyelashes and chubby cheeks as the boy with lowered head fiddled with his fingers.

The boy looked so adorable that it melted the man's heart!

Gu Jinglian took him into his arms and reached out to stroke his little head, revealing a rare smile. "Okay, then let's go together."

"Then..."

Baby Chu looked a little greedy as he asked, "Will there be any red packets?"

Gu Jinglian actually had the patience to answer the childish question seriously. "Yes, and there would probably be many too."

"Really?!"

Baby Chu exclaimed excitedly, "Then may I keep all of them?"

Gu Jinglian replied matter-of-factly, "Of course!"

"Wow! Excellent!"

Baby Chu was so overjoyed that he jumped around!

Secretly, he fantasized about the number of red packets he would be able to collect!

He fantasized about how he was going to spend all this money, if he were to get so many red packets!

If only he'd get 500 yuan!

He was overjoyed at the thought of having 500 yuan!

He had never seen so much money before!

500 yuan!

Wow, he was going to be rich.

It was fortunate that Gu Jinglian could not read minds. He only saw the boy's cheerful expression and thought that he was looking forward to the banquet. He had no idea that the boy was thinking about how to squander the 500 yuan he'd be getting!

If only he had known what the boy was thinking, Gu Jinglian would have been terribly amused!

The Gu family's assets amounted to hundreds of millions, yet this little fellow was actually so satisfied with just 500 yuan!

But after all, he had experienced poverty. Baby Chu's concept of wealth was different from Gu Jinglian's. The latter was used to a life of luxury since young!

The banquet was held on a weekend, at a six-star hotel owned by the Mu Group.

On this morning, Gu Jinglian woke up very early. Butler Fu had ordered two portable clothes racks to be brought over. Large suits hung on one rack while the other rack had smaller suits hanging on it.

Gu Jinglian was very picky when it came to dressing up. He first chose a suit for himself. Because he was thin, he specially chose a black suit with double-breasted buttons; it made him look imposing.

Facing the mirror, he tidied up his appearance and turned around to walk to the other rack to choose a suit for Baby Chu.

As he looked through the rack, he asked, "Is he up yet?"

"I've already sent someone to wake Young Master! After helping him with washing up, I'll bring him over to dress him!"

"Uh huh."

Gu Jinglian picked out a black suit and looked at it. He suddenly raised his eyebrows and turned to look at Butler Fu.

“Where’s that woman?”

“Old Master, are you asking about Red Lotus?”

“Isn’t that a needless question.”

“She’s been in rehab and recovering fast.”

Gu Jinglian said, “Watch her carefully.”

“Yes, I understand of course!”

After a while, the maid brought the little guy over. Looking groggy with his eyes only half-opened, Baby Chu looked like he was still in dreamland!

Just as he was being carried to the bed, Baby Chu rubbed his eyes with both hands appearing grumpy and resentful. “Woooo! I’m so tired!”

Butler Fu squatted down and asked, “What’s wrong? Is our Baby Chu still asleep?”

Chapter 2997: She Is That Evil Woman (1)

Baby Chu nodded pitifully.

Butler Fu was instantly amused by his charmingly naive appearance and deliberately threatened, “Since you’re still asleep, why don’t you sleep at home? We’ll attend the banquet and take the red packets!”

Baby Chu then nodded in confusion and yawned sleepily!

However, it was just a short moment of confusion. After what Butler Fu said suddenly sank into him, it set off the cash register in his little mind!

He widened his eyes and said haughtily, “No! The red packet is mine!”

With that, he got up from the bed with his hands on his hips and said arrogantly, “Uncle promised to bring me!”

Butler Fu pretended to be aggrieved and cried, “Aiyo, I’ve always been so nice to you, and dote on you so much. Now, I’m only asking for a red packet from you. You’re so petty!”

His pitiful look was very convincing.

When Baby Chu saw this, he could not help feeling a little ashamed.

He clenched his tiny fists as if considering something seriously. Finally, as though he had made up his mind, he said solemnly, “How about this!”

Gu Jinglian turned to look at him.

Butler Fu too waited curiously to hear what constructive idea the lad might suggest.

Baby Chu said wistfully, “I’ll give you a small portion of what I might receive!”

Gu Jinglian's face darkened and Uncle Fu almost fell over.

Was that all he had to say, after spending such a long time thinking it over?

"How much is 'a small portion'?" Gu Jinglian asked curiously.

"Uhhh... If I get 100 yuan, I'll give you 10 yuan. If I receive 1000 yuan, I'll give you 50 yuan!"

Butler Fu counted with his fingers and muttered doubtfully, "Oh? This ratio... doesn't sound right?!"

Ten yuan for a hundred yuan... was one-tenth, right?

But 50 yuan for 1000 yuan?!

How does that work!

So it seems 50 yuan is the limit?

Butler Fu felt pathetic.

Baby Chu immediately defended himself, "Well, if I receive 2,000 yuan, I can give you more!"

"Stop!"

Butler Fu put his hand over his heart looking very sad. "I didn't expect you to be so petty!"

"I..."

"Alright. I'll stop teasing you!"

The man reached out and gave the boy a rub on his head and said, "You may keep all the red packets that you got! Butler Fu doesn't want a single cent from you!"

As soon as he heard that no one was going to fight him for the red packets, Baby Chu immediately broke into a sweet smile.

After Gu Jinglian had picked out the clothes, Butler Fu immediately helped Baby Chu get dressed. Gu Jinglian walked up to the little lad and examined him, feeling that he was still lacking something.

"A tie?"

The tie was too mature.

Butler Fu immediately suggested, "Let's use a bow tie!"

He immediately found a new black bow tie and put it on for Baby Chu.

"How does that look?"

Gu Jinglian took another look. Baby Chu was nervously gripping on to the hem of his shirt and smiling slightly. His eyes were clear and his lips were rosy against his sparkling white teeth. In his white shirt and full black suit, he looked extremely handsome!

A certain fussy man finally nodded in satisfaction.

The boy had inherited his facial features. His looks were definitely outstanding. Dressed up properly, he was a dashing little gentleman.

Without a doubt, he would grow up to be a handsome young man.

Gu Jinglian was most satisfied with his own genes.

The car was waiting at the entrance. Gu Jinglian carried the little fellow into the car and set off for the venue.

Chapter 2998: Uncle Is Smiling!

Gu Jinglian had carried the boy and placed him into the child's safety seat. The little fellow was extremely curious about this seat. He poked at it with his finger and asked curiously, "Eh? This thing is installed in this car too?"

It was Gu Jinglian who had asked Butler Fu to install the safety seat.

The black Bentley Continental was Gu Jinglian's personal car. However, Butler Fu had mentioned that if Baby Chu was going to be taking a ride in the car, it would be best to install a safety seat for the child.

Gu Jinglian did not agree at that time. He only snorted coldly as if he did not think much of it.

However, Butler Fu realized the next day, that Gu Jinglian had sent someone to install it. He shook his head and sighed!

Old Master had a sharp tongue and a soft heart. Although he would put on the appearance that he disliked Baby Chu, and seemed aloof and nonchalant, in reality, he was concerned.

Gu Jinglian coldly gave the boy a poke on his face and ordered, "Sit still!"

Being a proud man, he would never admit to having installed the seat for the kid's safety.

Baby Chu sat still and stopped talking.

The man fastened his seatbelt for him.

Along the way, Baby Chu was in a particularly good mood. Turning his head to look out the window, his mood was as clear as the weather outside!

As he swung his little legs, they accidentally kicked at Gu Jinglian.

The man immediately hit him. "Behave!"

Baby Chu clutched his forehead in pain and looked at the man aggrievedly. He complained, "Why are you so violent? If you hit Baby Chu's head like this, Baby Chu will become stupid!"

Gu Jinglian replied coldly, "You're already so stupid. There's no harm in being a little more stupid."

He had no doubts though, that no matter what, his own IQ was at least above average.

Why did his child not inherit his high IQ genes?

According to Butler Fu, when the teacher came up with the question of how many apples were there if one added one apple to two apples. The kid's reply was "zero".

When the teacher asked for the reason, the little one actually said with conviction, "Because I ate them all! Wouldn't that make it zero!"

This joke tickled Butler Fu for five whole days.

Gu Jinglian's methods were more brutal. He gave the kid three apples and forced him to eat them all.

But how could the kid eat three apples?

After holding on to them and nibbling for a long time, he could not take in more!

Gu Jinglian then asked him, "How many apples is one apple plus two apples?"

Baby Chu counted with his fingers, then looked at the remaining half of an apple on the table and said aggrievedly, "There's still half!"

The answer drove the man mad.

How could the kid be so stupid?!

Baby Chu asked him matter-of-factly, "Since you know I'm stupid, do you still think I'm not stupid enough?"

Gu Jinglian glared at him. "Even if your skull is flattened by my fist, you can't get any dumber."

A dead silence.

Baby Chu gulped nervously. He could hear the hidden threat in the man's words, so he didn't dare to speak!

This...

What a violent uncle this is.

He wants to beat me up over the slightest thing...

The little one mustered up his courage and said, "The television is right! Accompanying a king is like accompanying a tiger."

Gu Jinglian immediately shot him a sharp look. Baby Chu thought he was going to hit him again, so he quickly covered his head.

Because of his funny antics, Gu Jinglian couldn't help but smile to himself.

When Baby Chu saw that he was smiling, he pointed at the corner of his mouth and said curiously, "Wow! Uncle, you're smiling! I realize that you look so handsome when you smile..."

Chapter 2999: She Is That Evil Woman (2)

“Wow! Uncle, you’re smiling! I realize that you look so handsome when you smile...”

Before he could finish speaking, Gu Jinglian hit him again because he was too talkative.

Baby Chu groaned in pain and rubbed his forehead in grievance. Then he snorted and ignored the man.

Gu Jinglian finally found some quiet.

Along the way, he read his documents and handled work matters while Baby Chu quietly looked out of the window at the passing street scenes with curiosity in his eyes.

The radio in the car was tuned into the news. “Today, the wedding of Mu Group’s CEO, Mu Yanchen, and Song Enya, daughter of Mayor Song Zhengguo, will be held at the Mu Group Grand Hotel! More than a hundred media outlets will be present at this event to bring you news on this highly anticipated wedding...”

The marriage between the Mu family and the Song family, which were among the four great families in the capital, was extremely grand.

In the morning, Song Enya woke up early to freshen up. Naturally, the makeup team was in charge.

Makeup, styling, wedding dress...

It was a busy morning. Song Enya put on her wedding gown and stood in front of the full-length mirror, silently examining herself.

Prior to this, her miscarriage had left her suffering in terms of health and she had been very weak. Even though for half a month she had been applying facial masks for emergency treatment, the makeup artist had to apply thick layers of foundation on her to make her look more radiant.

However, no matter how exquisite her makeup was, it could not hide the dullness in her eyes.

Jiang Qimeng walked to her side and saw that she was listless. She rubbed her shoulder and consoled, “Enya, today is your big day. Why do you look so gloomy and unhappy?”

The girl responded with a reluctant smile.

“How can that be?”

“You look so stiff. Are you still thinking about the child?”

Song Enya bit her lower lip indignantly.

She gritted her teeth and said, “What price had I paid for this child?! I didn’t expect... that Mu Yanchen could be so cruel as to destroy it!”

Jiang Qimeng consoled the girl, “We’ve lost this child but others will come along! When you’re officially married to Mu Yanchen, you’ll be the young madam of the Mu family! Besides, the child is already gone, so don’t think too much about it! As long as you can capture the man’s heart, there will be more children in the future...”

“Mom...”

The more Song Enya listened, the more upset she felt. “I have my doubts if this is really what I want! That Mu Yanchen’s heart isn’t with me at all! He can’t even be bothered to give me a perfunctory answer! If it had not been for that aunt of his making the decision, he would have definitely used the miscarriage as an excuse to cancel the marriage!”

“You’re about to marry him. Aren’t these worries unnecessary?”

Song Enya remarked with great unease, “Will the wedding really go smoothly?! Why do I feel so uneasy?”

Jiang Qimeng was furious with her. “Why are you always saying such depressing things?! You’re ruining your own prestige! This wedding has to go ahead and you have to get married successfully! Otherwise, all your efforts will go down the drain!”

The girl clenched her fists and nodded with tears in her eyes.

The wedding car was parked outside the Song family’s villa.

Mu Yanchen, wearing a full suit, alighted from the car and stood outside the door with a stony expression. Someone handed him a bouquet of fresh flowers and urged, “Chairman Mu, it’s time to receive the bride!”

Chapter 3000: Strangle Me If You Dare

Mu Yanchen took the bouquet with a slight frown, his expression appeared cold.

He walked slowly to the door and went through the process. He arrived at her boudoir and swung open the door. She was sitting on the bed, her white wedding dress spread out like a sacred lily.

She kept her head down, her veil covering her face. Through the veil, she looked up and met his eyes. Facing each other, but they seemed to be deep in their own thoughts.

For him, marrying her was a matter of complying with orders.

For her, marrying him was but a last resort.

Their union was not based on any feelings at all. Therefore, unlike other weddings where the couple would be sweet and romantic towards each other, the two of them looked at each other as if they were strangers!

After going through the process, Mu Yanchen led Song Enya to the wedding car. The two of them got into the back seat, the noise outside faded. Finally, Song Enya said softly, “I thought that you wouldn’t turn up today!”

The man remained silent.

Song Enya glanced at him and sneered. “Mu Yanchen, you don’t have to direct your unhappiness at me! Do you think I’m willing to marry you?! It’s all because...”

Mu Yanchen abruptly turned to look at her and asked meaningfully, "Do you think that it's such a glorious thing for a bride to be abandoned by the groom on their wedding day?"

Song Enya's eyes widened. "Are you saying that you wish to throw me out of the car?! How dare you?!"

"Song Enya, do you know how much I hate your despicable face? I'd be dirtying my hands if I threw you out of the car."

Song Enya was thoroughly humiliated and became even more furious. She sneered, "If you think you're so great, don't touch me then, after we're married!"

"Fine."

Mu Yanchen said scornfully, "The very thought of my wife once having undergone IVF for the sake of another man is as disgusting as swallowing a thousand flies!"

Song Enya retorted sarcastically, "What about you? Do you think you're any better? You, Mu Yanchen, come from an elite family, yet you fawn over a high-class prostitute as if she's a precious gem!"

"A prostitute?" Mu Yanchen's gaze was dangerous.

"Why, did I say something wrong?! Isn't Meng Qingxue one?!"

Song Enya said in disgust, "The entertainment industry is a big dye vat. People say that those involved in the entertainment industry are scheming and are high-class prostitutes! I think Meng Qingxue lives up to the reputation! What has she done to cast such a spell over you?! What's the difference between you and Mu Yazhe? Both of you are blinded by cheap sluts! But even then, your second brother has both means and capability. Even after leaving Mu Group, he still has his own standing. What about you?! You're only a pitiful puppet!"

"Shut up!" Song Enya was seething in anger. She wasn't going to shut up. She said even more insolently, "Mu Yanchen, you're a good-for-nothing! You think you can compete with Mu Yazhe?! You can't even come within a finger's length of him if you spent your whole life trying!"

Enraged, Mu Yanchen suddenly reached out and grabbed her throat. "Song Enya, don't think that I won't dare to do anything to you!"

Song Enya ignored his threat. Glaring at him angrily, she impudently said, "Do it! Do it if you have the guts! I'm your wife; if you have the guts, strangle me to death! Let the world see how ruthless you are!"

"You—!"

"I bet you won't dare to either!"
