

Sweet Love 3191

Chapter 3191: Journey Of A Father (18)

She was rather stubborn. If it had been any other child, they would have cried. However, everyone commented that this little sister of his never liked to cry and rarely shed tears. She would only cry when she was feeling uncomfortable and hungry.

Youyou raised the toy and grinned. "Come and snatch it from me if you can!"

Little Yueyao seemed to understand what he was saying. She wrinkled her nose and waved her hands, touching the ring on the crib.

This pram was very well-equipped. In order to train the baby's ability to sit, it was equipped with strong pull rings.

When little Yueyao saw the pull ring, it was as if she had seen a whole new world. She tugged at it, lifting her upper body slightly and then kicked her legs. She actually sat up straight!

Youyou was completely stunned!

Little Yueyao was less than six months old. Auntie Yue had said that a baby would be able to sit up on its own only after six months.

However, she was able to sit up by herself when she was not even six months old!

Youyou was so surprised that it took him a while to react. He exclaimed, "Yueyao, you can actually sit up by yourself!"

He was rather excited, and even more amazed that little Yueyao actually sat up by herself!

However, little Yueyao did not seem to understand what he was saying. Her gaze was still fixed on the toy in his hands. She reached out with both hands to grab the toy!

"Alright! No more snatching, no more snatching! Here! I'll return it to you!"

Youyou immediately handed the toy over, but her little feet were still kicking hard, and sent the toy flying several meters away.

Seeing that the toy had flown away, Youyou stood up and was about to retrieve it when a thought occurred to him. He immediately turned around and put on the brake of the pram. Having done this he turned around and then saw an eight-year-old boy bending down to pick up the toy!

He smiled and walked over to the boy. "Thank you!"

The boy raised his head and looked at him, baffled. "Why are you thanking me?"

"Didn't you just help me to retrieve the toy?" Youyou looked at the toy in his hand and continued, "Of course I have to thank you for helping!"

The boy looked down at the toy. It was a rainbow pony. He had never seen a toy like this before, hence he refused to let go of it!

Noticing this, Youyou immediately said, "This is my sister's toy..."

The little boy rudely interrupted him. "I don't care whose toy it is! You're just saying it's yours! But I found it, so it's mine!"

"You..."

Youyou did not expect the boy to be so unreasonable as to take his sister's toy for himself!

"Please return the toy to me!"

The boy snorted and turned to leave.

Seeing how unreasonable he was, Youyou immediately rushed forward and grabbed his sleeve. The boy turned around, frowned, and abruptly pushed Youyou to the ground!

"I said I found it, so it's mine. Didn't you hear me?"

Caught off guard, Youyou was pushed to the ground. His brows were knitted tight in pain.

When the boy saw this, he did not feel that he had done anything wrong.

From the pram parked by the side, little Yueyao saw that her brother had been bullied. Even though she was only five months old and still very ignorant, she could tell clearly that someone in her family had been bullied. He had fallen onto the ground and was in so much pain that he had turned ashen. She became extremely nervous.

Chapter 3192: Journey Of A Father (19)

Seeing that Youyou was in pain from the fall, Yueyao knew that he must be feeling awful. She was probably afraid as well, and her face turned red as she started crying!

Boohoo boohoo...

The boy saw that she was crying, but he did not care. He was about to leave, taking the toy with him.

But there was no way Youyou was letting him go!

This was Yueyao's favorite toy. As her older brother, he naturally viewed protecting his younger sister as his duty!

Hence, he quickly got up from the ground. Before he could dust himself off, he stood in front of the boy and opened his arms to prevent him from leaving!

"Return the toy to my sister!"

"Why should I!?"

The boy was sloppy and looked like a spoiled brat. He was acting unreasonably.

"Come snatch it from me if you can!"

Hearing this, Youyou lunged at the boy, aiming to snatch the toy from him!

The boy immediately raised the toy higher. After all, he was an eight-year-old child about the same height as Little Yichen and was much taller than himself. Youyou could not reach it even if he stood on tiptoe. He said angrily, "Quickly return the toy to me, or I won't hold myself back!"

When the boy heard this, he frowned, extended his hand and gave him a shove. "Won't hold yourself back? And what are you going to do?"

Youyou staggered a step backwards from the push.

The boy seemed to have noticed that Youyou was thin and small. He had a delicate and pretty face, but he looked frail and weak. He felt that Youyou was a pushover, so he was especially arrogant and gave Youyou another shove.

There was a flight of steps behind Youyou, and he tripped and fell onto the lawn!

His eyes turned red with anger. He was extremely indignant. Most of all, he was angry that he could not retaliate when someone bullied Yueyao and himself!

He only felt that he was too weak and could not protect Yueyao at all!

At the thought of this, he felt especially aggrieved and his eyes reddened even further!

At this point, Little Yichen was heading towards them with the milk bottle. From afar, he could hear Yueyao bawling her eyes out. Thinking that she must be hungry, he immediately ran over. However, he saw Youyou being pushed onto the lawn. Beside him, a boy of around eight years old casually picked up handfuls of weeds on the ground and threw them at him!

"What are you doing?"

Little Yichen immediately walked over and pushed the boy aside. He turned around to look at Youyou on the ground, and immediately reached out to help him up.

"Youyou, are you okay? Does it hurt?"

The boy sized up Little Yichen and was taken aback!

This child in front of him was different and didn't have Youyou's small stature. In fact, he had a rather well-built physique, being quite tall and big. He wore a short-sleeved shirt that revealed his arms. Even though he was only eight years old, one could already see some muscles!

However, the two children looked very similar, as if they were cast from the same mold. They looked like a pair of ferocious little lions!

Seeing that he had returned, Youyou stubbornly endured the humiliation without saying a word. However, when Little Yichen saw his brother's tattered shirt and dirty pants, he knew that his brother had been bullied!

He spun around and glared fiercely at the boy before commanding, "You! Apologize to my brother!"

"Why should I apologize?"

"You bullied my brother, so apologize!"

Youyou told Little Yichen, "Brother, he even bullied Little Sister and took her toy!"

The moment Little Yichen heard this, he was enraged. He stuffed the milk bottle into his brother's hands and walked towards the boy.

Chapter 3193: Journey Of A Father (20)

It was only when he came right up to the boy that the boy was taken aback. Little Yichen was half a head taller than him.

Little Yichen looked down at him with eyes burning with anger! "I asked you to apologize, did you hear me?!"

He was practically shouting into the boy's ears in his deep voice!

The boy's eardrums hurt from the roar! However, he did not relent and retorted, "Why... why should I?"

He was already feeling a little guilty. Clenching his fists, he could not help but felt like he was losing ground. After all, confronted by Little Yichen's imposing manner, his own imposing manner was instantly defeated!

But despite his weaker presence, he was stubborn, like a leopard that had its territory violated!

He would not back down. At home, he was treated like an emperor. Since young, no one had ever dared to speak to him so loudly and in such a fierce tone!

He looked up at Little Yichen, straightening his neck as if he was unconvinced. He snorted coldly. "Who do you think you are? What right do you have to speak to me like this?!"

By the side, little Yueyao was still bawling, she was rubbing her eyes and crying herself hoarse.

Youyou immediately walked over and picked her up in his arms. He gently patted her back and coaxed her.

Perhaps it was her pitiful and sad cries that triggered him, but the older twin grabbed the boy's collar and yanked him to the front. He said in no uncertain terms, "I'm warning you; if you don't apologize, don't think of leaving this place!"

Frightened by this, the boy's eyes reddened and turned moist as if he was about to cry!

"I won't!"

"Return the toy to my sister! Don't touch my sister's toy with your filthy hands!" Little Yichen snatched the toy away without further explanation. When this happened, the boy was completely taken aback. He fell to the ground in shock and started crying!

Not far from where they were, an elegantly-dressed woman headed in their direction. It seemed she was the boy's mother. She had taken her son out for a walk but met her friends and stopped to talk to them. However, the boy, being naughty, wandered off alone in the garden and now this had happened.

The woman walked over and saw her precious baby sitting on the ground, crying pitifully, with Mu Yichen standing in front of him with a determined expression. Thinking that he had bullied her precious son, she immediately walked over and gave Mu Yichen a shove!

“Why are you bullying my son!?”

Mu Yichen was stunned when he heard this. Youyou was carrying Yueyao, who was still crying non-stop. He came up to them and said angrily, “Auntie, please get this straight! It’s clearly you who have failed to discipline your son. Your son is being unreasonable and pushing his weight around. How could you turn around and blame others? Even if it’s a pet dog, you’d leash it when you take it for a walk, right? If it runs around and bites people, wouldn’t it be regretful for you!”

Little Yichen was highly amused!

What a vicious tongue Youyou had!

On the surface, he was talking about a dog, but in reality, he was criticizing her for failing to educate her child!

When the woman heard this, she was dumbstruck for a long time. She found it hard to believe that these words came from an eight-year-old child!

When she came back to her senses, she swore, “Where did these two little b*stards come from? They don’t even know how to speak human language?”

Chapter 3194: Journey Of A Father (21)

Before Little Yichen could reply, Youyou harshly mocked her back, “How can you understand what I’m saying when I’m not speaking human language? Or are you calling yourself a b*tch? Auntie, if you have time and energy, you should spend it on taking care of your ageing face, and also think about how to educate your son so that he doesn’t become a dog and go around biting others!”

Little Yichen almost fell prostrate on the ground in admiration and praise when he heard these words from Youyou!

How could one retaliate gracefully?

This was practically a textbook template!

He did not curse and swear at all, but his words were like poison.

As expected, when the woman heard this, her face flushed red and she subconsciously raised her hand with intention of giving this sharp-tongued boy a tight slap!

However, she immediately realized that the two people in front of her were children. She was an adult. If she were to hit a child, it would invite gossip from others!

At the very least, she should be talking to their parents!

“Which family are you from?! I’m going to look for your parents later to discuss this matter! You’re so young, yet your words are so vicious. You don’t have any manners at all!”

“The truth is always harsh to the ears! It’s not up to you to judge whether I have manners or not! You can’t even discipline your own son properly, what qualifies you to discipline others?”

Youyou paused for a moment before continuing, “It’s true though, we can’t expect you to bring up a well-disciplined son, for the next generation will only be as good as the one before! From your son’s character, I can tell that you’re not much better!”

With that, Youyou tugged at Little Yichen’s arm and said, “Brother, let’s go.”

Little Yichen nodded.

The two of them did not even spare her another glance as they carried Yueyao into the pram. After this incident, they were no longer in the mood to stroll around and planned to head back home!

When the woman saw this, she walked over to them at once, as though she had more to say.

Mu Yichen lost his patience completely. He turned around and kicked the rubbish bin beside him!

This powerful kick caused the metal door of the bin to cave in with a loud clang!

The woman was completely dumbfounded.

Mu Yichen told her, “Get lost! Otherwise, I’ll stop bothering to be cordial!”

The woman was scared speechless!

She had never seen such a sturdy child who could do this to a rubbish bin with just one kick!

Before she could recover from her daze, Little Yichen and Youyou had already pushed the pram far away!

When they got home, little Yueyao was still holding her chubby paws up and crying profusely. Little Yichen said that he would coax his sister and urged Youyou to get changed quickly.

Youyou’s clothes had been dirtied, especially the back of his pants where his butt was, it was stained with dust and mud.

Youyou returned to his room and took off his dirty clothes. He changed into a clean set of clothes. When he changed his clothes, he noticed a few bruises on his thigh. His skin was very tender. Sometimes, hard pinches would leave traces. Now that he had fallen heavily, there were bruises.

However, he did not take it to heart. He was worried about Yueyao. When he went out and saw that Yueyao was no longer crying, he felt relieved!

Mu Yichen was good at coaxing his sister. No matter how hard he tried, he could not coax her. However, he was smart enough to clean up the toys and disinfect them before putting them in her arms.

Little Yueyao held the toy in her arms and smiled contentedly again, revealing a tender patch of gum.

Chapter 3195: Journey Of A Father (22)

In the afternoon, Mu Yazhe and Yun Shishi returned. The man made a beeline for the baby's crib before he even took off his coat. Then, he realized little Yueyao was not inside.

It turned out that the two lads had taken her out to the backyard for sunbathing.

Mu Yazhe and Yun Shishi tiptoed to the balcony and saw Little Yichen sitting upright with little Yueyao in his arms. Youyou was sitting at the door with a drawing board in his arms, seriously sketching away!

Youyou had a talent for drawing since young. He had never taken lessons because most of the time, he was either in the hospital or at home to recuperate. Hence, he had time and patience to spare as he clung to the drawing board and drew detailed sketches of various sceneries.

By the age of five, his sketching actually looked pretty decent, even though it did look like he was self-taught!

Mu Yazhe deliberately did not interrupt him. Little Yichen's expression changed when he saw him, but he motioned for the boy to keep quiet. He stood behind Youyou and looked at what he had drawn. There was already a general framework, but as it had not yet been shaded, the characters were not very three-dimensional.

Youyou held his pen and asked calmly, "Daddy, how long are you going to stand behind me?"

Mu Yazhe was surprised. "How did you know that I was standing behind you?" surprise

Youyou turned to look at him incredulously. "Daddy, do you think I'm deaf and can't hear you? Or do you think you're some deity who floats on thin air?"

Yun Shishi was tickled by his reply.

Mu Yazhe, on the other hand, was sharp-eyed and spotted traces of abrasion on the boy's palm, he immediately grabbed his hand and examined it carefully. "What happened? Why is there broken skin?"

Youyou did not expect his eyes to be so sharp, so he calmly replied, "I accidentally fell. It's no big deal."

"Where? Let me see?"

Yun Shishi hurriedly walked over and held his little hand to check. She was relieved to see that it was only slightly scraped and not too serious.

"Why weren't you more careful?"

Youyou put down the drawing board and asked, "Did you take photos?"

"What photos?"

"Silly Daddy! Of course I'm talking about photos of Mommy's gown fitting!"

Looking helpless, Youyou said with an air of resignation, "Daddy, your reaction is so slow!"

Mu Yazhe furrowed his brow. He was both amused and infuriated by the little rascal's reprimanding.

Little Yichen walked towards them carrying little Yueyao. The baby was basking in the sun comfortably, so when she saw them return, she became excited. When Little Yichen came closer, little Yueyao could not wait to stretch out her hands, as if asking to be carried!

Yun Shishi was surprised by her response!

She had always felt that this daughter of hers was rather aloof. Usually, when people try to carry her, not only would they have to seek Little Yichen's and Youyou's approval, they also had to seek her willingness!

If someone were to reach out and try to pick her up, she would sometimes turn her face away to look elsewhere. This was a definite rejection!

Only, Yun Shishi had no idea what Yueyao had suffered today. This was why the baby was especially eager for the comfort of their embrace, when she saw them!

Mu Yazhe's heart almost melted at the sight of her asking for a hug!

In the past, to many Shengyu Corporation employees, he had always been known as the great CEO with a cold and aloof image. Now, he had no choice but to drop this image and carry the little princess in his arms.

In the past, to many Shengyu Corporation employees, he had always been known as the great CEO with a cold and aloof image. Now, he had no choice but to drop this image and carry the little princess in his arms.

Mu Yazhe held his little Yueyao, feeling extremely satisfied!

Little Yueyao never failed to evoke a sense of tenderness in his heart. Only when he held her in his arms did he feel that he truly had the whole world!

With such a beautiful daughter, he had no regrets in life!

As he coaxed her, he asked gently, "Yueyao, can you give Daddy a kiss?"

Yueyao nestled comfortably in his arms, her tiny hands clenched into fists. When she heard his voice, she blinked as if she did not understand him!

However, that pair of watery eyes of hers was extremely endearing. He could not help but lower his head and give her a light peck on her lips.

Speaking of which, this sort of lip to lip kissing was the exclusive right of lovers.

However, Yueyao was only little, so he could not help but kiss her. Although, this action was the pure and loving action of a father towards his daughter.

When Youyou was young, Yun Shishi frequently kissed him on the lips too. However, when Youyou turned four, she became more careful about this.

It's often said that a man before falling in love and after falling in love is like two entirely different creatures, just as he may have very different philosophies before and after marriage. However, most of the time, a man becomes a truly responsible man, after he becomes a father.

However, this advancement is a process.

A man becomes truly mature after he has been through the experience of ten months of pregnancy and the breastfeeding period.

For some reason, Yun Shishi felt that Mu Yazhe had become especially beautiful ever since Yueyao was born and he became a hands-on father.

In the mornings, no matter how much of a hurry he was in, he would kiss and carry Yueyao before leaving.

When he got home from work, the first thing he would do was to head over to Yueyao's crib and carry her.

Even when he was woken up by Yueyao's cries in the middle of the night, he would not complain at all.

He was always most willing to do the dirty work.

Yun Shishi felt that she must have saved the galaxy in her previous lifetime to have met this man who treated her like a treasure in this lifetime!

Not every man would understand his wife's hard work.

And not every man would pamper his wife like she was a princess, without a single word of complaint. This kind of pampering was not affected at all by Yueyao's arrival.

Sometimes, she seriously wondered if she was dreaming.

And one day, she'd wake up to find that this man was only a part of her dream.

She was glad that none of this was a dream.

And even if it were, it was one that she would never wake up from.

Yun Shishi switched on her phone and showed the photos to the two little lads. Youyou snatched the phone over and poured over the photos. Yun Shishi was wearing an extremely gorgeous Han Tang wedding robe and he was stunned by how gorgeous she looked!

Seeing Youyou's eyes light up, Little Yichen also snatched the phone over to take a look. His eyes sparkled when he saw the pictures!

Chapter 3197: Journey Of A Father (24)

As the saying goes, a phoenix coronet and robe are a beautiful vision.

In the photographs, Yun Shishi wore a red wedding robe. Under the tassels of the phoenix crown, her elegance and grace shone through.

The tassels on her forehead drew a beautiful arc as they swayed to her gilded steps. Her smooth and delicate chin, red lips, and the wisp of a flirtatious fiery red flower at the corner of her eyes were incomparably enchanting. A single glance was enough to cause a city to fall!

“Wow! Mommy is so beautiful!”

“Think about it. Mommy makes a living with her looks.”

“What about Daddy?”

Youyou asked curiously, “Is Daddy really wearing a suit? Will he look appropriate next to Mommy?”

The mention of this amused Yun Shishi greatly!

The wedding planner had originally suggested that Mu Yazhe wore a suit while she wore a Han Tang wedding robe. Such a theme would give a sense of a marriage that transcended the boundary of time!

However, the reality was that the wedding planner was worried if Mu Yazhe could carry off traditional garb.

The man’s Han robe is different from that of the woman’s. Ordinary men would not be able to look carry off Han clothing. There are, after all, good reasons why the beautiful men in ancient times were truly beautiful men with red lips, white teeth, sharp eyebrows and stars in their eyes.

A western suit is one of the greatest inventions in the world.

Ordinary men, as long as they are tall enough, will look decent in suits.

But this is not the case with the Han Chinese robe.

The wedding planner was worried that Mu Yazhe would not be able to carry off Han Chinese clothing, so he had given such an opinion!

However, when the two of them arrived at the venue, the stylist was slightly stunned by Mu Yazhe’s exquisite facial features. If he had been in the entertainment industry, he would no doubt be a popular young actor!

Hence, she suggested, “CEO Mu, why don’t you try on the Han attire?”

When Mu Yazhe walked out of the changing room in the Han outfit, everyone was stunned!

“What a handsome man!”

With his exquisite features, Mu Yazhe was more than capable of carrying off Han Chinese clothing, and easily won over the fussy fashion designer. Hence, the wedding planner decided that both the bride and the groom would wear Han Chinese clothing!

Youyou did not quite believe that his daddy was able to carry off this style of clothing so easily as his mother's description. He had to see it with his own eyes!

There was only one photo of Mu Yazhe in a Han Chinese robe, and it was taken only because Yun Shishi insisted!

She found the picture and passed it on to Youyou and Little Yichen to have a look. Youyou was speechless after seeing it!

His father indeed looked dashing!

Youyou was finally satisfied, and so was Little Yichen!

At night, the family of five decided to take a stroll around the nearby park after dinner.

He suddenly recalled what happened in the afternoon and seethed with anger yet again!

However, just as they were about to leave, Lu Jinyu called and said that he had a document to deliver. Mu Yazhe snorted inwardly.

The man could be using these documents as an excuse to see his little princess!

Not long after, someone knocked on the door.

Mu Yazhe was a little surprised. The call had just ended and the man was already outside?

Was he here on a rocket?

As Mu Yazhe was carrying Yueyao, Yun Shishi walked over and opened the door. A woman and a man of average height stood outside, the woman was holding the hand of a child who was behind her. She was dressed elegantly, but bore an aggressive expression on her face.

The moment Yun Shishi opened the door, the woman barged in with the child in tow!

This was baffling. This person did not even wait to be invited before she barged in indiscriminately!?

Chapter 3198: Journey Of A Father (25)

Following the woman who barged in, the man walked in as well. He first nodded at Yun Shishi as an acknowledgment before asking the woman, "Are you sure it's this family?"

The woman looked around. Her gaze landed on Little Yichen and Youyou, and she immediately got agitated. "It's them! It's these two rascals!"

Youyou and Little Yichen saw her and immediately recognized her as the unreasonable woman from this afternoon. At once, anger welled up within them!

She had the audacity to come knocking on their door!

Mu Yazhe held Yueyao in his arms and frowned slightly when he saw the woman's aggressive expression. She looked as if she was here to stir trouble.

The woman threw a glance at Mu Yazhe and was taken aback for a moment. It was probably because she had never seen such a young and handsome father. She saw that he was carrying the baby girl in his arms, and could not help but feel her heart palpitate!

This scene touched her rather deeply!

That was because she had never seen a father so patiently coaxing a baby!

Other than her eight-year-old son, she had given birth to a daughter ten years ago. However, her husband had always been very cold towards her.

It was precisely because her husband's family was considered prestigious in Beijing and had a deep-rooted notion of favoring males over females, that when she gave birth to a daughter, the family was full of complaints and even went to the extent of using connections to get her to have another child.

However, when she got married, she was already 28 years old. By the time she gave birth to her daughter, she was already 31 years old. At this time, it was considered a late pregnancy. However, her husband said that she had to have a child. Otherwise, who would inherit such a huge family business?! Left without a choice, she went through another painstaking pregnancy, but soon found out that it was a daughter again and thus had an abortion. Finally, she did have a son and only then was her husband's family appeased.

Her husband's family was over the moon of course, but god knew the pain and suffering she had gone through.

But there was no choice.

Instead of working, she relied on her husband to provide for her. She had many demands but her husband was never stingy. In her opinion, this was what a qualified wife would do!

Her pitiful daughter, however, was neglected by everyone apart from her and the nanny, ever since she was born.

This husband of hers had deep affections for their son and carried the boy in his arms every day. He talked about the boy all the time and showed no interest in the daughter.

Compared to this other man who was now carrying his daughter so tenderly, she could not help feeling greatly saddened!

Hence, this son of theirs had always lived a life of luxury. He had been pampered and spoiled like a little emperor.

And it was because the boy was so favored, that her own status in her husband's family had also increased greatly.

"Auntie, it's you!" Youyou angrily stood akimbo and snorted. "What do you want? Are you here to apologize?"

“Apologize?”

The woman immediately snapped back to her senses and said furiously, “You’re the one who should be apologizing!?”

At this point, Yun Shishi stepped forward and asked, “What happened?”

“You’re this child’s parent, right?!”

The woman glared at her like a tiger eyeing its prey. Pointing a finger at Little Yichen, she said malevolently, “Don’t you know how to discipline your son? He’s so young and he’s already going around beating up people?! What will become of him when he grows up?”

The man behind her also walked up and glanced at Little Yichen. Looking very angry, he asked, “Wifey, is this the boy you were talking about?”

Chapter 3199: Journey Of A Father (26)

“Yes! That’s the one who beat up our son!”

The woman angrily described the incident in an exaggerated manner. There was no lack of exaggeration as she accused Little Yichen of hitting her precious son.

Yun Shishi kept a calm expression as she listened. She would not say the same with as much confidence about Youyou, however Little Yichen was an honest child who knew how much force he could exert, so he rarely had physical contact with children his age.

He knew he was strong enough to hurt other kids.

Besides, if Little Yichen had really beaten up her son, would the puny guy still be standing here?

“Little Yichen, what exactly happened? Aren’t you going to explain it to Mommy?” she asked gently.

However, the woman did not seem to care for this talk. “Is there a need to ask?! If you ask him, he won’t admit it! This child is very naughty. If you don’t teach him a lesson, he’ll only cause you more trouble when he grows up!”

The woman maintained a semblance of politeness in Mu Yazhe’s presence!

However, Yun Shishi was displeased. “Don’t judge my child with your opinion. Who do you think you are? I’m asking my son for his account, I’m not asking you.”

“He won’t admit it!”

“Firstly, he will not lie to me!”

Yun Shishi paused for a moment before continuing, “If a mother doesn’t trust her own child’s words, then whose words should she trust?!”

Youyou and Mu Yichen were touched and cheered up when they heard that!

Although Yun Shishi did not say it explicitly and they knew what her attitude would be, they were nevertheless very touched when they witnessed her firmly retaliating and standing her ground in front of such a vile woman!

“You—!”

Before the woman could say more, Mu Yazhe lost his patience and spoke. “Shut up.”

He turned to Little Yichen and asked, “What exactly happened?”

“He bullied Youyou!”

Little Yichen said righteously, “Youyou said that Little Sister’s toy fell to the ground. This boy then picked it up and wanted to claim it for himself. He even pushed Youyou! He made the first move! Besides, I didn’t hit him. I only asked him to apologize to Youyou! He was so timid that he cried. Why should I take the blame?”

Mu Yazhe’s gaze turned dangerous upon learning this.

“You’re lying!” The woman snapped, “That’s not what Hui Hui told me!”

Hui Hui was probably the eight-year-old boy standing beside her.

She said sternly, “Huihui told me that you pushed him, bullied him, and even hit him!”

Mu Yichen, however, was not too willing to bother with her. He only said, “He’s lying!”

The man standing behind the woman had run out of patience. He walked to the table and slammed the table in front of Mu Yazhe!

This slamming of the table was a point break. It scared the little princess. Mu Yazhe saw the baby widening her eyes, then very quickly, her eyes were filled with sadness and her face was flushed red. She was about to cry!

Youyou cursed inwardly. Oh no, Little Sister was on the verge of bawling again!

Mu Yazhe immediately patted her back gently and coaxed her with tenderness, “Yueyao, don’t cry. Daddy’s got you.”

His voice was beyond gentle. Accompanied by a soft moan, little Yueyao blinked her eyes and choked back her sobs!

The woman was stunned once again!

This man was not only exceedingly patient in coaxing a child.. He was also very gentle. He actually managed to stop the child from bawling!

Chapter 3200: Journey Of A Father (27)

At home, when a child was on the verge of tears, her husband would try his best to hand it over to someone else. This would normally be the nanny, or herself. In short, he did not have the patience to coax the child!

She was so stunned by this scene that she hadn't even noticed that look of danger in Mu Yazhe's eyes, which was becoming more obvious.

The man looked at her. He kept his voice low, but his tone was strong and firm. "Get out."

"Why should I!?"

The woman spoke with conviction, but she was a little angry. "My son has been bullied, and I haven't gotten an explanation yet. What right do you have to ask us to get out?!"

The woman's husband seemed to have some background. At least, it was obvious from the way he carried himself!

From the moment he entered the house, it was obvious this was a haughty and arrogant man who acted as though he was of a high status. After all, his son had been bullied, and was out to seek justice. He had wanted to see for himself who had bullied his son, to the extent that the boy had locked himself in his room to mope the moment he got home!

His heart ached to see his son in low spirits. Thus, he decided that whoever upset his son had to be punished severely, he'd show them his power!

This family also lived in Xiangti Walk, and this man's status was indeed rather high. He was the executive director of a certain real estate developer and was quite wealthy. However, he should have also been mindful that he had barged into a house on Xiangti Walk, and in this locality where the land was worth its weight in gold, his neighbors would come from significant backgrounds as well!

But most men are arrogant and flamboyant, so they naturally overlook such details!

Perhaps he was too conceited. After all, his accomplishments today weren't something an ordinary person could compare to!

Who could compare to him, really, no matter how great they seem?!

Hence, the man behaved aggressively and said with arrogance, "Let me make this clear right now! You should tell your two errant sons to own up and apologize to my son, otherwise don't blame me for not being cordial!"

Mu Yazhe's interest was piqued. He handed little Yueyao over to Mu Yichen and slowly got up from the chair. As he walked towards the man, the shocking difference in their heights was immediately evident!

The man was barely 1.7 meters tall and Mu Yazhe's 1.9-meter frame easily towered over him like a looming mountain!

The man had no choice but to raise his head to meet Mu Yazhe's steel cold eyes.

"As a father, I know my two sons very well! If they did anything wrong, I'd definitely correct them and get them to apologize! However, knowing them well, I know they won't bully other children!"

The man could not help but feel a little guilty, but he egotistically insisted, "You... you weren't at the scene! You said they wouldn't bully other kids, did you see it with your own eyes?!"

"So you saw it with your own eyes?!"

The man was dumbstruck.

This matter would have been a thorny issue for anyone. After all, they were not present at the scene. Everyone felt wronged.

However, the woman refused to give in and said, "I saw it with my own eyes! Your child grabbed my son's collar and was very fierce, like a little lion waiting to tear its prey apart! I saw it, why wouldn't that be valid!?"

Little Yichen spoke up angrily, "Auntie, you're really shameless! You're lying through your teeth. No wonder your son turned out this way! Taking other people's toys for his own and refusing to return other people's belongings. This is my sister's toy. How do you explain this behavior of his?!"
